FBI Charges Three Men In Kidnaping Of Sinatra

Most Of Ransom Money Recovered

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The five-day mystery in the Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnap case was dispelled with dramatic swiftness Saturday when the FBI announced arrest of three men and recovery of most of the $240,000 ransom. "Thank God it's over," said Sinatra Sr. after the postmidnight statement from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover in Washington.

Arrested As Kidnap Suspects

These three men have been arrested in three Southern California cities as suspects in the kidnaping of Frank Sinatra Jr., the FBI announced. Left to right: John W. Irwin, 42, of Hollywood; Barry W. Keenan, 23, of Los Angeles; and Joseph Clyde Amsler, 23, of Playa Del Rey, Calif. All three were arraigned in the middle of the night. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Winter Gets Tighter Grip

By The Associated Press Freezing to subzero weather gripped the nation's midsection Saturday while rain lashed portions of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. Severe cold in the Midwest dropped temperatures to record lows in Kansas, where Goodland had -16, compared with the previous low of -8 for the date in 1940, and Condordia reported -9, one degree colder than the previous record, set in 1901. Dalhart in the Texas Panhandle had the first zero weather of the season early Saturday. Snow fell across the Northeast and the Great Lakes regions, with a total of 10 inches on the ground at Marquette, Mich.

Hundreds Of Homes Lost In Dam's Flood Waters

Tin Miners Tighten Up Stronghold

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A giant wall of mud and water from a ruptured hilltop reservoir surged over an exclusive residential area Saturday afternoon, wrecking hundreds of homes and apartments.

An estimated 200 homes were wiped out completely, swept from their foundations. Some were crushed and fragmented in the mad downhill flood-rush. An estimated 1,500 to 2,000 more were damaged by muddy flood waters that in some areas submerged second floors.

But, because a steadily widening crack in the earthen wall of the reservoir gave warning that permitted evacuation, the human toll appeared light. Los Angeles police listed six persons dead.

The estimates came from police Capt. Robert M. Gaunt, the officer in charge of the disaster area operation, after he surveyed the scene from a helicopter.

He gave this picture of the area of greatest damage: a pie-shaped section about one square mile, with the 900-acre-foot reservoir atop the Baldwin Hills at its apex. Bisecting the dam was a giant furrow carved in minutes by the great surge, which fanned out at the end of its downhill run.

It was balmy, seemingly peaceful afternoon in the community between downtown Los Angeles and International Airport when, a little after 3 p.m., the sloping 100-foot wall of the bowl-shaped reservoir exploded with a cannon-like roar.

The cause? No one knew. But the effects were instant and terrifying. The mud-brown surge raced over the matchstick houses in the $50,000 to $100,000 class at upper levels, then boomed on to less expensive houses on lower slopes.

Then, on the flat, it smashed into complexes of apartment houses. Along the way, it rolled cars both moving and parked like toys; swept houses off their foundations then ripped out the foundations. Swimming pools were scoured out, leaving only holes behind.

In the two hours before the disaster, police cars with bullhorns patrolled the area, ordering residents out. Within an hour Mayor Samuel W. Yorty declared it an emergency area. Later, Gov. Edmund G. Brown declared it a disaster area.

The flood swept down into a catch basin at the foot of the reservoir's earthen front. But the catch basin was filled in moments, and the water, spuming 50 feet in the air, shaking the earth with its fury, leapt out of the catch basin and into a residential section below.

Terraced homes — some in the $50,000 class — were swept from their step-like sites in the canyon, disappearing in seconds, one by one into the broad flood.

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Tin miners tightened defenses of the Catavi-Siglo Veinte district Saturday as if in answer to a warning that the government intends to prosecute ringleaders for their seizure of four Americans and other hostages.

A bizarre political-labor crisis entered its second week. A dispatch from Catavi, 150 miles southeast of La Paz, said the miners decreed general mobilization. The professed reason was the proximity of government troops, some said to be only 12 miles away.

In a fresh demand Friday night for freeing of the hostages, President Victor Paz Estenssoro made clear that persons responsible for the kidnapings Dec. 6 will be brought to trial.

The government newspaper La Nacion has described Daniel Ordenez, a Communist officer of the miners' union in Siglo Veinte, as the mastermind. Paz advanced his own terms for a solution of the crisis in rejecting a proposition advanced by Juan Lechin, the leftist vice president who has set his job as boss of Bolivia's 20,000 miners above his obligations to the government.

Lechin said the miners would release the hostages and that he would be willing to resign the vice presidency if the government would free two Communist sanctioned agencies as well as news media, had been criticized by Los Angeles Police Chief William H. Parker. He said he believed his force could have helped had they known who to look for.

Parker had this comment after the arrests: "I'm gratified this progress has been made. I wish every success for rapid conclusion of the case. We are still willing and still want to help in any way we can."

Published reports have said that the federal agency, super-sensitive since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the killing of his accused slayer while in the custody of Dallas, Tex., authorities, resolved to handle the case exclusively all the way.

The FBI account related: "Young Sinatra was kidnaped picked up at 9 a.m. Friday in Imperial Beach, close to the Mexican border. Hoover said $47,938 of the ransom money and a ring initialed 'F. S.' taken from young Sinatra while he was held by the kidnapers — were recovered from Irwin.

Most of the remainder of the $240,000 was found in Amsler's apartment, Hoover said. The FBI here said the amount found there was $168,927, which would make a total of $216,865.

LAKE TAHOE Frank, 19, was abducted at gunpoint last Sunday night from a motel near Lake Tahoe on the California-Nevada border, just before he was to go onstage for a casino singing engagement. The FBI did not identify the two who burst into the room, robbed Sinatra and a companion of $12, then forced the singer to accompany them into a gathering High Sierra storm. Hoover's announcement also was issued here, and agents declined to elaborate on it or answer newsmen's questions for details.

Among its revelations were that the kidnapers drove the boy the 500 miles between Lake Tahoe and Los Angeles—he has said he spent much of the time in the trunk of a car—and kept him in a San Fernando Valley hideout while ransom negotiations were under way. The site, a ramshackle house at 8143 Mason Ave. in Canoga Park, was the same one agents had raided earlier last week, removing packages and digging in the yard.

PRATISE Sinatra Sr., who handled personally telephone negotiations with the kidnapers, heaped praise on the FBI men. "Credit must go to the FBI for a masterful operation," he said. "Our only hope is that the rapidity with which they were apprehended will act as a deterrent to others with such thoughts in the future."

Sinatra Jr. was at his mother's home in suburban Bel-Air when word of the breakup arrived. The total information blackout, which extended to local law enforcement agencies as well as news media, had been criticized by Los Angeles Police Chief William H. Parker. He said he believed his force could have helped had they known who to look for.

MONDAY VOTE Foreign Aid Cut Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The foreign-aid program suffered another severe blow Saturday when the House Appropriations Committee slashed its funds to $2.8 billion — $1.7 million below President John F. Kennedy's original request.

A vote on the aid bill is scheduled Monday by the full House. If sustained, the cut would be one of the largest since the United States began assisting foreign nations after World War II.

However, the Senate usually approves more foreign aid than the House, throwing the matter into a conference where the two branches traditionally split the difference.

President Johnson is expected to seek a Senate figure that would guarantee a $3.2-billion final appropriation.

Last year the House voted $3.6 billion, but the final version appropriated $3.9 billion. The Appropriations Committee action by a unanimous vote came just one day after Congress completed action on a separate authorization bill that put a ceiling of $3.59 billion on the aid program.

Kennedy had asked for $4.5 billion in new funds for the fiscal year that started July 1. The heavy cutback came in the face of appeals by Johnson and top state, defense and aid officials who urged Congress not to endanger the entire program by further cuts.

But Rep. Otto Passman, D-La., buoyed by rising congressional sentiment against foreign aid outlays, engineered the large slash. In a formal report he noted that at least 100 of the world's 113 nations were listed to receive some kind of U.S. aid this year. He suggested that assistance be concentrated "in few countries with well-planned projects."

Passman cited statistics showing that the aid agency had $524 million in unassigned funds on hand June 30 and about $7 billion that had been assigned but not spent. Besides direct foreign aid, the bill includes $296 million for collateral programs, including $89 million for the Peace Corps, and $2.8 million for House members' own stationery, postage, telephone and telegraph costs.

Southeast Asia Problems Talked

PARIS (AP)—Foreign ministers of the Western Big Three examined Saturday the turbulent situation in Southeast Asia, particularly in the former French colonies of Indochina.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, British Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville were studying developments in Cambodia, South Viet Nam and Laos in an effort to coordinate Western policy in that area.

Sale Prices Down For Annual Show

Seventy young bulls and heifers brought a total of $29,505, for an average price of $421.50 when run through a cold auction ring in the 29th annual sale held by Howard County-South Plains Hereford Association Saturday.

A total of 58 bulls sold for $24,345, or an average of $419.74 each. Twelve heifers were run through the auction ring and brought $5,160 for an average of $430.

Last year, 63 animals went through the ring, with around 500 present for the auction. The 58 bulls brought $33,845, or $583.53 average, while five heifers brought $2,750 for an average $556.

The snow Friday night made driving hazardous for many coming from long distances, and the frigid air spilled over into the show barn to keep buyers, spectators and the auctioneer shivering. There were around 200 persons present when the show started and less than 100 at the close.

The grand champion bull, selling for $1,100, ran $1,125 less than last year's top animal, Charlie Creighton's CC Domino (See SALE, Pg. 8-A, Col. 6)

Creighton Shows Champion Bull Charlie Creighton, Big Spring, showed the grand champion bull at the 29th annual Howard County-South Plains Hereford Association show and sale Saturday. His summer yearling bull, CC Domino 668, topped the list in bull classes. Odóm Hereford Ranch, Snyder, took the grand champion female trophy with OHR Domino 34, a senior calf. The reserve champion bull, OHR Husker Rupert 66, was shown by Odóm Hereford Ranch, and reserve champion heifer, Mabelle 49, a junior yearling, was shown by Buch-

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

Winter doesn't officially arrive until next Sunday morning, but the sample of the past week will do for awhile. First there was 25-degree weather with considerable glaze. Friday brought a nice messy, cold day with freezing rain, sleet and snow. To some degree it slowed Christmas shopping, and it brought the already late cotton harvest to a standstill.

Merchants are hoping that these weather interferences mean pent-up demand to be loosened within the next eight days. Doesn't seem possible, but Christmas is almost on top of us.

Friday 13th didn't exactly turn out to be the most delightful. (See THE WEEK, P. 8-A, Col. 4)

Response Steady To Seal Appeal Of TB Association

The response to the Christmas Seal sale, sponsored by the Howard County Tuberculosis Association, has resulted in a steady flow of funds into the local treasury. Mrs. James L. Childs, executive secretary, said Friday that contributions received through the mails have not been heavy, but that much more money would come in during the next week or 10 days.

So far, only $3,850 toward the $6,000 goal has been received, she said.

"We are getting a number of envelopes each day," Mrs. Childs said, "but have not been flooded. There is no deadline for the campaign to end, and responses will continue for some time. We hope to reach our goal."

Christmas Seals are mailed out in November of each year, and funds from the sale are used in making local tests, especially in the schools, for signs of tuberculosis. Mrs. E. P. Driver and Mrs. John Norton are co-chairmen of the seal-mailing committee. Mrs. G. E. Peacock, chairman for receiving and depositing funds coming through the mails, and Mrs. Lee O. Rogers is treasurer. Mrs. F. W. Lurting is president of the Howard County Association.

"We have made it a point to give the skin test to all Howard County school children," Mrs. Childs said. "This was done last year. Tests will be given to the first, eighth, and twelfth grade students this year, plus all new students transferring to the systems from other schools."

"The association has a nurse, Mrs. R. H. Moore Jr., who works with the school nurses in making the tests," the secretary said. "The big job, and problem, is going into the homes when a child has a positive showing. We must find out where contacts may have been made exposing the child to tuberculosis. If it is within the family, it takes little time; but if he is exposed outside the family, there is a long trail of searching the neighborhood."

Eighty-two per cent of the funds received through the Christmas Seal sales stays in Howard County, Mrs. Childs said. Eighteen per cent is sent to the National Tuberculosis Association. A good part of this comes back to the local association in the form of benefits, such as supplies, and films for educational purposes.

"Stuffing the envelopes with seals, and the mailing, is done with the help of the Permian Basin Medical Association's Women's Auxiliary," Mrs. Childs said.

Sorrow And Encouragement

Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and friends sort mail which has poured in on the First Lady since the assassination of John F. Kennedy. Mostly, the letters express sorrow at the tragedy and offer encouragement for the new First Family. From left, clockwise, are: Wendy Marcus of Dallas; Mrs. Oscar Chapman, widow of a former Interior Secretary; Mrs. Johnson; Mrs. Eugene McCarthy, wife of Minnesota senator; Mrs. Everett Hutchinson, wife of an Interstate Commerce Commissioner; Mrs. Hale Boggs, wife of Louisiana congressman; Mrs. Frank Church, wife of Idaho senator. New Herbicide Ready For Farm Use Next Season

A new pre-emergence sorghum herbicide for grain grown for feed or seed will be ready for farm use on the Plains this coming season. The herbicide, propazine, will eliminate cultivation under certain conditions, reports A. L. Wiese, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station agronomist. Until late in 1963, the herbicide was approved for use only on grain sorghum grown for seed.

Wiese says propazine will be most useful on irrigated fields where weeds have been difficult to control by mechanical means.

Propazine is a wettable powder and must be applied in 25 to 40 gallons of water per treated acre. Considerable agitation is required or the material will settle to the bottom of the spray tank.

Application must be made to the soil immediately after planting. Rain then leaches it into the root zone. If rainfall occurs before chemical application, weeds may germinate and grow through the propazine on the soil surface.

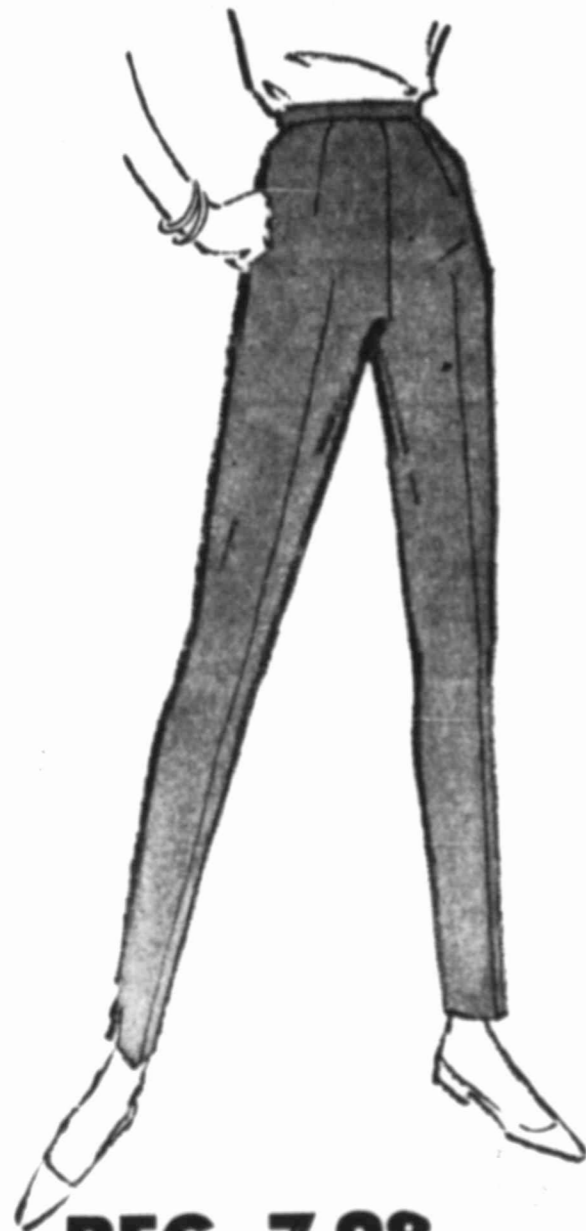

The biggest advantage of propazine is it controls both grasses and broad-leaf weeds. A second advantage is even if chemical drift occurs during application it is not toxic to cotton.

This residual action is also the biggest disadvantage of propazine. Susceptible crops cannot be grown for 18 months after application of the herbicide. Corn and sorghum are the only crops which can be grown successfully the year following propazine application. Because of the long residual period, propazine use is not advised on dryland fields in west and northwest Texas.

By HOUSTON HARTE.
Let's start with a platitude. Platinudes often are distilled wisdom. To learn the value of a dollar, a man must work for it. Lyndon Johnson has learned that lesson.

This is a personal appraisal.

To make it personal, I met Lyndon Johnson in the '30s. I had gone to Washington seeking a community loan. Dollars were scarce in West Texas in those days. So were hotel rooms in Washington. I ended up on a cot in a one-room apartment.

OTHER COTS
There were three other cots in the room. On one was Arthur Perry, who was Sen. Tom Connally's secretary. Until Nov. 22, he was Lyndon Johnson's executive assistant. He'll be in the White House Office. On another was Congressman Ewing Thompson's secretary, Bob Jackson. He is now editor of our newspaper in Corpus Christi. Congressman Richard Kleberg's secretary, Lyndon Johnson was on adjoining cots, they just naturally get to know each other.

You don't get the story of a man's life in one night. But you do start a friendship. Over the succeeding years, Lyndon Johnson and I became friends. I learned he had worked as hard to achieve his place in life as any man you'll ever meet. He labored on a road gang as a boy. On a rock-strewn family Hill Country farm he helped make "the crop." He sought and got a job as a janitor to pay for his education. All these jobs he did well. Perfection was his goal then as it is now. These stories have been told many times since that black Friday, Nov. 22, 1963.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

state fight him because he is for civil rights. The northern liberals fight him because they think he is a friend of the oil industry. Yet he has done more for both than any man is the executive or legislative branch of our government.

He appraised himself better than anyone else. He said: "I am a free man, an American, a United States senator, and a Democrat, in that order."

"I am also a liberal; a conservative, a Texan, a taxpayer, a rancher, a businessman, a consumer, a parent, a voter and not as young as I used to be nor as old as I expect to be—and I am all these things in no fixed order."

UNAWARE
"I am unaware of any descriptive word in the second paragraph which qualifies, modifies, amends or is related by hyphenation to the terms listed in the first paragraph. In consequence, I am not able nor even in the least interested in trying—to define my political philosophy by the choice of a one-word or two-word label. This may be against the tide, but, if so, the choice is deliberate."

Writers have attributed many qualities to him in the millions of words printed since Nov. 22. Perhaps another already has said this, but to me, his most admirable trait is: Before he embarks on a course of action, Lyndon Johnson thinks it out in advance. He weighs the advantages against the disadvantages. He decides what he should do in every contingency which can be plotted in advance. Then he goes to work with a vitality, a tenacity, that I have never seen equalled. He never gives up. His endurance has put many a younger man to shame.

NO SUPERMAN
Do not get the idea that we regard the President as a superman. I have also seen him in darker moments, moments when he has those same doubts and fears that plague all of us. But he doesn't linger in the depths. After he lost the nomination in Los Angeles, the Kennedys had to ask Mrs. Johnson to wake him up at 8 a.m. the morning after. A set-back is a challenge.

His determination was never more clearly demonstrated than when he suffered a near-fatal heart attack. Rather than bemoan his fate, Johnson obtained the best scientific advice he could find on how to make a comeback, set himself a regimen which many lesser men have failed to follow—to their own and their family's sorrow. Today the doctors tell us no trace remains of that attack.

Many of us feel the only thing the nation needs to fear is that the magnitude of the job to which he was catapulted is such a killer he might work himself to death while he tries to do everything at once in his own perfectionist style.

CONCLUSION
These are personal impressions, with no attempt to catalog the man's life or character—that has been thoroughly and adequately done by many others. At the risk of being repetitive, this conclusion: From the days when he was a barefoot boy in the Texas hills, Lyndon B. Johnson has made his own way. He knows how hard a dollar is to make and how easy it is to spend. In that respect, he is in close kinship with 95 percent of the people of these United States. And it is my conviction that his basic training and philosophy will be profitable to our nation in the days ahead.

interests of our businesses, our state and our country.

Our new President has shortcomings, as do all men. He drives his staff too hard. They love him and have seen him right so often they just can't think anything he wants done is impossible. Hours mean nothing to him. They realize hours must mean nothing to them. A staff member who can work for a year for Lyndon Johnson can stand any gaff.

THOUGHT PATTERN
But the facts also reflect a pattern of thought. Lyndon Johnson knows the value of a dollar, whether it be his own or the taxpayer's. It should surprise no one that one of his first official acts was to ask departments of government to re-praise their budgets. President Johnson, in placing his ranch and personal property in the hands of trustees, included a proviso that trustees may not apply for any federal farm land or land subsidy under any circumstances.

This simply reflected the President's basic philosophy. That philosophy also is reflected, I believe, in the success of Mrs. Johnson's enterprises in the radio and television fields. It detracts nothing from her astute management of those properties to say that she looked to her husband for advice. It is my strong conviction that the economic conservatism of this man will be reflected, as well, in the conduct of our government. Next to his lovely wife, his love of the United States of wants our nation to operate in the black just like any other enterprise that feels the LBJ touch.

WATCHED HIM
As a newspaperman and as a friend, I have watched Lyndon Johnson since his first election as congressman from the district which adjoins ours to the south.

I have differed with him, but have found no fundamental conflict between his interests and my interests—which are the interests of our country.

WONDERFUL SPEECH
And it was a wonderful speech. One man asked if I did not think it was the best speech he ever had made. I said no. I have heard him make a dozen better speeches. All wanted to know where and when I had to reply that Lyndon Johnson is without an equal in a room with 10 to 20 people trying to solve a crucial problem. He takes charge in such a situation in a manner that is not equalled by anyone I have seen in action. He knows the facts involved and no one can present them in any more convincing manner. If you are fortunate enough to present a matter to the President, do your homework. Know your facts. He will know his and will know how to present them.

LIBERALISM
In past elections his liberalism has been the issue he had to overcome. His opponents pictured him as far to the left of center. He entered the Congress in 1937 as a flaming New Dealer. The oil men of this Christian visiting situation for an hour with West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard. Later, he said, "We must keep trying" and announced that secret negotiations with the Reds were being resumed.

The visits originally were supposed to begin Sunday and continue until Jan. 5.

The Reds' proposal was that visits to close relatives, defined as "of first or second grade," should be allowed. About 27 percent, or roughly 500,000 of West Berlin's 2 1/4 million inhabitants have close relatives in East Berlin. They have not been able to meet since the wall was put up 28 months ago.

Foreigners and citizens of the West German Federal Republic have been able to visit East Berlin but West Berliners have been excluded.

At the past two Christmas holidays similar efforts to achieve reunion of divided families were made. They came to nothing because the Red regime always insisted on political concessions in return for one-day permits.

YULE VISITS

West Berliners Waiting On Word

BERLIN (AP)—Half a million West Berliners are awaiting final word whether they will be able to visit their relatives in Communist-ruled East Berlin at Christmas. West Berlin's mayor was pessimistic about the chances.

The Communist regime raised hopes over a week ago that the wall dividing the city might be opened temporarily to permit holiday visits. But maneuvering over cold war politics in the meantime has blocked firm agreement.

Willy Brandt, mayor of West Berlin, said Saturday in Bonn, the West German capital that he is no longer optimistic. The only prospect is for "a very limited humanitarian solution," Brandt told a meeting of his Social Democratic party.

Brandt conferred on the

Heating Unit Causes Blaze

A heating unit shorted out about 8 p.m. Friday, causing a fire which burned a wall at the General Welding and Supply Company, 603 E. 2nd, according to firemen.

Firemen answered the call with a booster unit and pumper from the Central Fire Station. There also was some smoke damage to the building. Six firemen fought the blaze in sub-freezing temperatures, controlling the flames in about 65 minutes. The heating unit is located in the center of the building.

OF IMPORTANCE

We will continue Monday with the review of a letter from the pastor of a respected denomination in the city; and copies of his letter will be sent to those who write for it. Just now, I wish to call attention to some events of paramount importance, and to some discourses which are both vital and timely.

We will have a communion service this morning at 10:30. The fact that we do this each Sunday, as the early church did (Acts 20:7), does not diminish the importance of the occasions.

We will have Bible classes at 9:30, and sermons at both 10:30 and 7. Surely we do not need to argue the importance of studying the word of God!

You are invited to all these important meetings today.

Hear these sermons: "Cities of Refuge" (10:30 a.m.) and "If a Man Die, Shall He Live Again?" (7 p.m.)

WHEN ONE PLUS ONE DOES NOT EQUAL TWO

In mathematics the addition of one and one will always equal two. But in pharmacy this is not true all the time. Every medicine has its own particular use but sometimes two medicines working in combination will produce a third different result.

There are many such medicines and we are familiar with all their functions. When a physician gives you two prescriptions in treating a condition, this combined result could be what he is striving for. Always have every prescription you are given filled without delay and take as directed.

City Reports Few Requests Here For Additional Services

By M. A. WEBB
Residents of the City of Big Spring make fewer demands for special services for which no taxes are levied and no funds available, than most cities its size. This is the sentiment of City Manager Larry Crow when questioned about requests made on the city.

"We also provide some services for which funds are allocated, but which are not provided in other cities," he said. "A good example of one of these services is escorts for funerals, house movers, wide loads, and tours. Some who have large sums of money to transfer from business houses to banks, ask for, and get police escorts," Crow continued. "Our duty, of course, is to serve citizens as long as requests are reasonable."

Possibly the highest cost not always anticipated is the result of call backs for re-reading water meters, and for cut-off and turn-on service at homes where no private cutoffs are installed on water lines. Crow said most of the re-reading requests were made month after month by many of the same people.

"The cut-off and turn-on service is not our function normally, except in extreme emergency, and we will eventually have to make charges for the service," he said. "As the city grows, the demand grows."

The city has, each year, a few requests for street lighting where the lighting is not always justified. Where it is needed it is usually installed, Crow said.

Other cases arise when some individual wants to borrow a piece of city equipment for private use. The city never permits such use of equipment because the demand would increase if use was approved and a precedent set.

There have been groups asking the city to provide ball fields and lighting of city property. These demands, possibly, would run into thousands of dollars, Crow said. "We have gone as far as funds would permit in improving some areas on city property, especially in the City Park, but the city could never have funds from tax receipts at the present level to grant all requests. Such requests would continue to grow if we granted a part of them," he said.

City crews, during the first part of the football season, have gone to Memorial Stadium and fogged the area to chase off mosquitoes and other insects Crow said. On some occasions the service has been extended to other private areas when large gatherings were expected. He said these services were provided as emergencies but were not extensive.

"All in all we are fortunate in not having to assess taxes to cover these services, but we always have to look ahead and many now extended may have to be curbed because we would be using everybody's tax money to serve a few," the manager said.

More Than A Hospital

"The Veterans Administration does more than provide a medical facility," V. J. Belda said in a talk for members of the American Business Club at their luncheon Friday in the Settles Hotel. Belda is manager of the VA Hospital here.

Belda pointed to the fact that the Veterans Administration is responsible for building one in every five homes in this country since World War II, sponsors the third largest mutual insurance business in the world and maintains more hospitals and hospital beds, by far, than any other concern in the world.

He said there are now 160 hospitals operated by the Veterans Administration throughout the country, which provide a bed capacity of 125,000 and which have an average daily patient load of 114,000.

He predicted the responsibilities of the VA medical program would increase, since the average age of the service veteran is increasing and would shortly reach 50 years. He added the average age of the patient now being treated is 53 years.

"We are preparing to treat more and more long-term patients, as the veterans grow older," Belda stated.

The hospital official drew attention to the advances being made by the Veterans Administration in automatic data processing, which is eliminating jobs within the system and saving millions of dollars for the government. He predicted ever increasing gains in that field.

It was announced that the annual Christmas party staged by the ABC club for state hospital patients would be held Thursday, Dec. 19.

The team captained by Walter Stroup won the recent attendance contest staged within the club. Members have already been rewarded with free tickets to the club's annual Christmas party.

Among new members recently inducted into the club were Jack H. Blizzard, M. Fern Cox, Gene Schaefer, Oscar L. Green, Harold McAlister and Leamon Bostick.

Guests present for the Friday meeting included Lt. Steve Watts of Webb AFB and two Odessa men, Leon Hicks and George Stroka.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Statistics On Income, Band Members Praised

To the Editor:
In the years of President Kennedy's Democratic administration in Washington, quite frequently we heard him accused of being anti-business.

What are the facts?
Cash dividend payments on corporation stocks are climbing to all-time peaks. In the first five months dividend payments have been way above five billion dollars.

In 1963 America's stockholders are getting a much larger share of this nation's personal income than the $12.7 billion going to all our farmers, or the $13.1 billion going to all our landlords.

From January through December 1962, total personal income rose five per cent and this also was the percentage rise in wages and salaries.

In the same period dividend income jumped nine per cent, almost twice the rise in total personal income or in wages and salaries.

Why the spectacular improvement?
A first obvious reason is the upsurge in corporation profits.

A second obvious reason is corporation confidence in the economy's future. Even when companies are loaded with cash, they don't pay extra dividends unless they anticipate a continued high level of profits.

Soon you will hear President Johnson being charged with being anti-business as he pushes for such Kennedy legislation as medicare.

Let's hope Lyndon Johnson has not lost his knack for building a fire under a dormant Congress.

Sincerely yours,
FRANK PARKER

To the Editor:
In reading the Herald on Dec. 18, I read Butch Swett's letter. As a parent who has a daughter in one of the Big Spring bands, I would like to say I agree with Butch. As he said, our band members work long hours to do their best when performing for the City of Big Spring. Did you know that many of the band members attend special summer classes? They also participate in projects to raise money to pay for their trips and to pay for their uniforms, which they so proudly wear.

I think our athletic program is one of the best in the state, for which it has received recognition. The students in band (a credit subject) have won many awards, many of these have gone unrecognized by the residents of our city.

I am grateful, and feel sure other band parents are also grateful for our band directors, who help our sons and daughters to win the top honors that they do.

LBJ's Popularity Soars, '64 Presidential Choice

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll
Copyright 1963

Lyndon B. Johnson, by accident of fate comes to the highest office in the land, is the overwhelming choice of his fellow-Texans for President in 1964.

Often mentioned over the last decade as a favorite son candidate for the presidency, then suffering in popularity when he accepted the vice presidential nomination, he seems to have recouped the further setbacks he had suffered as the Kennedy administration lost esteem in Texas.

These are the results from a 1,000-interview survey conducted by The Texas Poll a week following President Kennedy's assassination, the tragic event that overnight exploded every political calculation for the coming year.

If he were the nominee of the Democratic party in an election today, Lyndon Johnson could walk away with Texas over every major Republican contender—possibly an indication of what his power might be in the entire South in the coming campaign. Interviewers asked for a choice in "trial heats" between Johnson and Sen. Barry Goldwater, former Vice President Richard Nixon, and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, respectively.

The question: "Suppose the next election for president were being held today, and that the Democrats had nominated Lyndon B. Johnson, and Republicans had nominated Barry Goldwater. Which one would you like to see win?"

The results:

Per cent
Prefer Johnson	73
Prefer Goldwater	17
Undecided	10

Prefer Johnson	75
Prefer Nixon	16
Undecided	9

Per cent
Prefer Johnson	80
Prefer Rockefeller	7
Undecided	13

Sentiment reflected by these state-wide polls had shown how the popularity of Johnson, as vice president, had declined along with President Kennedy's (the question having asked for approval or disapproval of the way each was handling his job):

Per cent approving:

JFK LBJ
February 1962	76 68
May 1963	59 59
August 1963	50 50

Analysis of the interviews from the survey this month reveals that self-styled Democrats, as might be expected, say nearly to a man—nine to one—they would vote for Johnson over the major GOP aspirants. A majority of Texans who call themselves Republicans, however, name Goldwater or Nixon over LBJ; they are divided on a Rockefeller

Johnson race.

The really important voter in the state, however, is going to be the independent, who feels less compunctions about swinging from one party to the other. In recent years he has been providing much steam for the Republican effort in Texas: witness the narrow victories not only for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket, but for Democratic Gov. John Connally as well.

Where does the independent stand today? This is a tabulation of persons who call themselves independents, on the presidential trial heats just completed:

Per cent
Prefer Johnson	53
Prefer Goldwater	34
Undecided	13

Per cent
Prefer Johnson	59
Prefer Nixon	26
Undecided	15

Per cent
Prefer Johnson	69
Prefer Rockefeller	9
Undecided	22

What remains to be seen is whether the Texas independent will remain so decidedly in the Johnson camp once the admittedly sentimental situation has receded.

Liberal support of President Johnson—since he has vigorously espoused the Kennedy program, including civil rights—is also to be expected. This December survey shows he has overwhelming support from self-styled liberals. But more significantly, as an indicator of the new political pattern that begins to emerge, he also has lopsided support from the Texas conservative rank and file. Here are the "trial heat" results tabulated by liberals and conservatives:

	Liberal	Conservative
For Johnson	94	57
For Goldwater	4	34
Undecided	2	9

	Liberal	Conservative
For Johnson	92	63
For Nixon	6	28
Undecided	2	9

	Liberal	Conservative
For Johnson	93	72
For Rockefeller	4	12
Undecided	3	16

Area Schools Get Ready For Christmas Programs

By M. A. WEBB

Every school in the area, including Coahoma, Forsan, Elbow, Stanton, Garden City and Sands, is busily engaged in getting Christmas programs ready.

Supt. B. D. Clinton, Stanton, said he hoped every parent could be aware of the extra activity of classes and departments around Christmas time, and try to picture the amount of enthusiasm, energy, and effort involved.

"Teachers and students are never so loaded with extra work as at Christmas—at least until the last two weeks of the school year," he said. "But I don't think anyone enjoys it as much as at this time of the year."

on the south wall in the Coahoma State bank has drawn a lot of local comment, Bill Reid, president, said this week. It's more than six feet long.

"Some want to know who the fisherman in the bank is, and all of us look at the fish with wishful eyes. It just happens that Dr. R. B. G. Cowper, Big Spring, was the lucky man and has loaned it to us. It is quite an asset to the inside of the bank, but we don't want folks thinking we can get that far away from home to do deep-sea fishing."

It's interesting to note building and improvements going on. Coahoma business people say more rent houses are needed there. Every available residence is filled. The new bank, postoffice, and ample water supply, have all added to the incentive to live in Coahoma.

Then at Forsan, two new residences are going up and about completed. One family will move into a new home and make the present one available for another family. The congregation of the Baptist Church is having the outside of the building remodeled, with some brick veneer trim going on.

At Stanton there is a lot of improvement. Building permits have run over a half million dollars a year, for the past five years; streets are being paved; new water lines installed, and more fire hydrants added.

And the county clerk's office at Garden City shows a lot of deed and mineral lease filings for Glasscock County. The oil activity is still getting a play down there.

DEAR ABBY

Honesty The Best Policy

DEAR ABBY: What is expected of a divorcee? When asked on a date, should she tell him she has been married and has children? I did that once, and got the third degree. "How long was I married? Where was my ex-husband now? Why did we split up?" I don't think it's any man's business unless he is serious about me. Please tell me truthfully, how much should a divorced woman tell a man about herself on the first date?

DIVORCED MOTHER

DEAR DIVORCED: A man has a right to assume that a woman is NOT a divorcee with children unless she tells him otherwise. (This much information she owes him.) A good rule to follow is: State your marital status (and children, if any) right off the bat. And answer any other questions with complete honesty. If a man asks, it means he's interested.

DEAR ABBY: This idea that the typical housewife does nothing all day but drink coffee with her neighbors and watch TV because she is surrounded by so many push-button, labor-saving devices makes me boil. When people first meet me and learn that I do not have a career, they say, "Oh, you don't work, do you?" I reply, "No, I just sponge off my husband." I have yet to see a completely "automatic" washer that collects the clothes, sorts them, puts them in, starches them, sorts them again, dampens them, irons them, mends them, and puts them away. Have you? All the women I know do their own cooking and cleaning, wax their own floors and wash their own windows. And most of them take care of their own yards and gardens, too. Everyone assured me that when my daughter married and our son went off to college, "time would hang heavy." Baloney!

Sincerely yours,
MRS. R. J. H.

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend and I were in an automobile accident. His car was demolished, but neither of us was hurt, fortunately. The boy had no liability insurance, and if either of us had been seriously injured neither his parents nor mine would have been able to take care of a big doctor bill (although we do carry hospitalization). My father now says I can't ride in a car with a boy unless he has liability insurance. I am 18. How does one say to a casual date, "Do you carry insurance?"

ON THE SPOT

DEAR ON: Your father makes a good point, but if you start a policy of quizzing each date about his insurance, your dates will soon be at a premium.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "IN LOVE WITH A MARRIED MAN": You were sympathetic when you should have been indignant. When he made his first advances to you, you should have said, "Go home, heel, and show your ailing wife a little of the 'devotion' you pretend for me."

Formal Installation At Trinity Lutheran Today

The Rev. Donald Kenning, who organized the Trinity Lutheran Church, will be formally installed as pastor at Sunday's 11 a.m. service.

A native of Iowa, Rev. Kenning was ordained a minister in May, 1961 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Des Moines, Iowa. He received his seminary training in Fremont, Neb., graduating in 1961. He received his BA degree from Buena Vista College at Stormlake, Iowa, in 1954. Rev. Kenning also attended medical school for one year at the University of Iowa.

He held a pastorate at Persia, Iowa, while he was a student at the Seminary in Fremont.

The installation ceremony will be conducted by the Rev. Philip Wahlberg of Austin, president of the Texas-Louisiana Synod of the Lutheran Church of America.

Rev. Kenning is married and the father of nine children. The family moved to Big Spring in June of 1961, and Rev. Kenning became a mission developer after taking a survey of the city.

The first services of the Trinity Lutheran Church were held in the Chapel of River-Welch Funeral Home in September of 1961. Services were held there until January of 1962, when the church rented a building on US 80 west. Rev. Kenning began holding services in August of 1963 at the parsonage at 110 Circle Drive. The church owns a 3.7-acre tract of land at Marcy and Virginia and is planning a building program.

The Trinity Lutheran Church is not affiliated with the St. Paul Lutheran Church. Formerly organized on April 28, 1963, the Trinity Lutheran Church has 104 members.

Water District Makes Site Test Borings

Test borings are continuing as the Colorado River Municipal Water District presses its studies for a dam site for a new lake.

McClelland Engineers of Houston has been at work for the past two weeks on one prospective site immediately west of Robert Lee on the Colorado River. A second rig is being moved in early this week to expedite testing. Estimates are that the work will be completed by Christmas.

Depth of the holes alternate from 50 to 100 feet at 500 foot intervals, but on either side of the river, one hole goes to a depth of 200 feet. Besides these core holes, between two and three dozen shallower tests are being sunk for borrow material samples.

Meanwhile, the CRMWD is calling in Roger Rhoades, San Francisco, Calif., international expert on dam foundations, for a study of information on the Robert Lee site and one up the river in Mitchell County, just north of the Coke County line. His analysis will be coordinated with that of Ralph Scalapino, Austin, member of William Guyton, hydrologic consultant of the district.

E. V. Spence, general manager, and O. H. Ivie, assistant manager, have been keeping in constant touch with the studies in an effort to come to the board as soon as possible with a recommendation for impounding the district's second lake.

When is it seven cents a nickel? Not just when the nickel is either a nickel or a dime. The only thing that makes this the value of the year in vinted.

YEAR

If you have a watch minted through 1945, worth seven cents a nickel, you have a large chunk of the picture of the past. The letter D. (If you have a 1944 nickel, you've been here before.)

Here's the when: When World War II was in its last stages of great importance. The custom has been to mint cent pieces containing a tiny nickel.

To provide national defense, the government decided to eliminate the nickel. He substituted little war imp great abundance.

WARTIME

So on Oct. 5, 1945, the government made five-cent pieces containing 35 percent nickel. The price was 33 percent nickel.

SALVAGE

It has now where can you buy the war nickels, melt them down and retrieve the silver.

Plain Old Nickels Worth Seven Cents

By SAM BLACKBURN

WHICH IS WORTH SEVEN CENTS
One on left, melted down, can bring that much

Not just when it is a collector's item. It can happen when neither nickel has any premium value at all to numismatists. The only thing which establishes this unique variation in the value of five-cent pieces is the year in which they were minted.

YEAR COUNTS
If you have a nickel which was minted in any year 1942 through 1945, it is very likely worth seven cents—provided it has a large capital letter above the picture of Monticello on the back. The letter can be P, S or D. (If you happen to have a 1944 nickel without a letter, you've been had; such nickels are counterfeit.)

Here's the story:
When World War II broke out in late 1941, nickel became of great importance for war purposes. The metal was scarce. It had been the custom (and the custom has since been resumed) to mint ordinary five-cent pieces using an alloy containing a third or more of nickel.

To provide more nickel for national defense, Uncle Sam decided to eliminate it from coins. He substituted silver, which had little war importance and was in great abundance. Likewise, silver was cheap.

WARTIME NICKEL
So on Oct. 8, 1942, the wartime five-cent pieces appeared—made of 56 per cent copper, 35 per cent silver and 9 per cent manganese. Wartime nickels of 1942 have the mint marks P and S. There also are Jefferson nickels of 1942 with a D mark, and some with no mint mark. These are not in the silver alloy group.

Time wagged on as it has a habit of doing.
The price of silver climbed. Salvage silver it pay since it takes a lot of nickels. The government, however, believes that two or three commercial metal refining firms are gathering wartime nickels and extracting their silver. The silver market, by the way, is the highest it has been in more than 40 years.

The difficulty with getting into this business is not only in the "know how" needed. It also rests in the problem of finding enough of the nickels to make the enterprise profitable. Originally, there were about 870 million wartime nickels with silver in their makeup and a large number are doubtless still in existence. A nickel will last from 15 to 20 years in regular use.

CHECK COINS
But pull out the change you have. Pick out the nickels and turn them over. How many do you find with the proper date—1942-1945—and the proper mint marks on the back—large P's, D's and S's above the building? You'll not have enough to

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Recognition Is Seen As A Calculated Risk

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—In recognizing the Dominican Republic's revolutionary triumvirate, the United States seemed to be taking a calculated risk.
For one thing, the act appears likely to harden already existing anti-U. S. sentiments among the young Dominicans who supported President Juan Bosch, deposed by the military Sept. 26. These are the future leaders of the Dominican Republic.

But there is a more immediate concern—that of political and economic instability that might grow in the absence of U. S. recognition and financial aid. Aid was cut off after Bosch's ouster.
A lack of recognition would have had a bitter effect on the forces in power and their substantial following. With the prestige of U. S. recognition behind them now, these forces might be able to stave off political and economic instability and subsequent violence.

Violence already has erupted with a flurry of Castroite guerrilla activity in the lush green mountains.
Thus, there were well-based fears in the Dominican Republic that if the United States had continued its snubbing of the triumvirate, the government, now in the hands of civilians, might have collapsed.

This would have meant increased military control, greater internal unrest and violence

Boy Wonder Returns To Face Charges

NEW YORK (AP) — Earl Belle, fugitive Pittsburgh financier who fled to Brazil, returned here Saturday and was met upon arrival by two FBI agents.

Belle chose to return to the United States and face business fraud charges rather than remain in Rio De Janeiro and face bad check charges, according to Brazilian police.

A representative of Interpol, the international police agency, accompanied the former financial "boy wonder" on the flight from South America.
Belle was permitted to remain in Brazil because that country has no ratified extradition treaty with the United States. However, the Brazilian Justice Ministry started a process against Belle in September 1962 in connection with his visa status. The ministry also denied his request for Brazilian citizenship.

Belle and Mitchell Ostwind went to Brazil with their families after they were indicted by the U. S. government for fraud and conspiracy in connection with the operations of the Cornucopia Gold Mines, Inc.

Later they were indicted in Pittsburgh on charges of transporting checks in interstate commerce after the checks had been taken and converted by fraud.

DINAH WASHINGTON

Famed Singer Dies Of Pill Overdose

DETROIT (AP)—Blues singer, Dinah Washington was found dead in her home Saturday.

Police said the cause of death was not immediately determined but that Miss Washington may have taken an overdose of a sedative. A bottle of unmarked pills was found beside her bed.

The death of Miss Washington, 37, came as she and her new husband, professional football star Dick (Night Train) Lane, had been preparing for a family Christmas celebration.
Miss Washington's two sons by former marriages, George Jenkins, 18, and Robert Grayson, 15, arrived home only Friday night.

With her husband, Miss Washington had picked up the boys at Detroit Metropolitan Airport on their arrival from Boston where they attend a preparatory school.
Lane, a star halfback of the National Football League Detroit Lions, and Miss Washington were married last July.
Because of his wife's death, Lane was expected to pass up Sunday's game at Chicago between the Lions and the Chicago Bears which will help settle the NFL's Western Division championship.
Lane said he and Dinah, famed night club and television star, had gone to bed after watching television in their pa-jasms following their arrival home with George and Robert. The buzzing of the television set in their bedroom awakened Lane about 3:45 a.m., he said, and he found Dinah unconscious.

He called Dr. B. C. Ross. Dr. Ross later pronounced Miss Washington dead.
Police detective William J. Chubb of the homicide squad said the bottle of pills was a prescription from a West Coast druggist. Miss Washington recently returned from a West Coast tour.
Mrs. Ethel Harrison, 67, who lives at the Lane home on Detroit's West Side, said Dinah took pills for a "nervous condition."
"She probably took too many accidentally," Mrs. Harrison said.
Mrs. Harrison, a restaurant cook, said she was positive Miss Washington would not have taken an overdose intentionally. She said the singer had been in good spirits after her return from the coast.
Dinah, who reportedly earned as high as $150,000 a year, grew up in Chicago and started her singing career as a girl. She was then "Ruth Jones," her given name. She became Dinah Washington as her singing gave promise of future success.
Both Miss Washington and Lane are Negroes.

Warmer Temperatures Forecast Today, Monday

Forecasts predict at least a short respite from the frigid snow spell which hit Big Spring and the area Thursday, and left a coating of white over the ground, roofs and cars, Friday night. The snow had not melted much Saturday night.

A promise of generally fair weather, and rising temperatures through Monday, gave relief to those who plan to travel over highways and streets. Today's high is forecast at 45 degrees as compared to 39 Saturday; tonight's low will be around 28 as compared to 21 Friday morning, and Monday's high should be around 55 degrees.

Ice accounted for some broken power lines, and suspended service for a brief period Friday night. Ice was blamed also for about 20 traffic accidents Friday, and kept street and highway crews busy putting sand and gravel on streets, roads and highways.

Police warned area residents late Saturday that road conditions may be hazardous Sunday and Monday, and motorists were asked to drive with caution.

Firemen stood by, for about 30 minutes in freezing weather, to hold spectators back from a broken high-voltage line at State and Ridgeroad about 8 p.m. Friday. The broken line started breakers flicking until it finally ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP)—Two more of the famous Fischer quintuplets left St. Luke's Hospital Saturday and all five were expected to be home by Christmas.

The temperature was a frigid 2 below zero as Mary Magdalene and Mary Margaret, three months old Saturday, left the warmth of the hospital nursery. Mary Magdalene nestled snugly in the arms of her mother, Mrs. Andrew Fischer. Mary Margaret was carried to the family car by her grandmother, Mrs. Elmer Brady.

THE ORDER OF THE GOLDEN RULE

Ties Reopened, But Aid Withheld

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States reopened diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic and Honduras Saturday but kept the pressure on their junta governments by stalling the return of ambassadors and continuing to withhold aid.

The action ended more than two months of diplomatic boycott policy toward the two countries, instituted after their constitutional governments were overthrown by military uprisings.

The publicly stated reason for recognition was that both have set up "election timetables" for restoring elected, constitutional governments in about 18 months.

State Department officials said prolonged refusal to reopen normal diplomatic contacts with brought on a new uprising in the two countries could have cut the power off over a large portion of the city. The line was repaired in a few minutes and power restored.

Police also reported a hot wire down at 100 E. 19th about 8:24 p.m. Friday.

Texas Electric Service Co. officials said they had little breakage and trouble, except the line break at State and Ridgeroad, and felt that ice was not quite heavy enough to do more damage.

Southwestern Bell Telephone transmission men said they had no trouble.

Fred Overman, city water superintendent, said a two-inch water line broke as a result of the cold in the 800 block of West Sixth, but that city workmen had it repaired in about an hour.

City officials said three crews worked Friday night, with another crew standing by, placing sand and gravel on icy spots, on inclines, and at intersections.

County crews placed sand and gravel on slick spots on county roads, and highway department crews kept busy on the highways. These operations probably lowered Saturday's accident count, officials said.

Locations of accidents investigated Saturday by police and drivers involved: Circle Drive and Stadium, Edward Moren, 1807 Stadium, and Winston Odum, 1321 Tucson Road; 611 Lamesa, Margarito V. Gutierrez, 610 N. Gregg, and Mathon Lloyd Zant, Vealmore Road; 209 Campbell, Charles D. Mann Gets Nod For Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson made his first major manpower shift Saturday night, naming fellow-Texasan Thomas Mann to guide U.S. politics—economic, political and military—on Latin America.

The White House announced Johnson will send to the Senate Monday his nomination of Mann, who now is ambassador to Mexico, to become assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs. He will succeed Edwin M. Martin.

The announcement capped another busy Saturday for the new President.

Johnson aimed another message at Capitol Hill—this one sharply protesting "the drastic reduction in foreign aid funds" voted Saturday by the House Appropriations Committee.

Russia May Reduce Arms

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev says the Soviet government is considering trimming its armed forces and will propose a cutback in military spending, apparently to finance expansion of the chemical industry to boost agricultural production. He said the steps are in the interest of peace.

Khrushchev gave no hint of the size of the cuts he had in mind but told a meeting of the Communist party Central Committee the Soviet Union will retain everything it needs to defend the Communist world—including Cuba.

The Central Committee has already approved his request for $4.2 billion investment in the chemical industry over the next seven years, chiefly to manufacture fertilizer for the nation's lagging agriculture.

A shortage of grain has forced Khrushchev to look abroad for supplies. The Soviet Union purchased $500 million worth of wheat from Canada in September.

In his address Friday to the committee—carried Saturday by Tass, the Soviet news agency—Khrushchev appeared to avoid any connection between the defense cutbacks he proposes and the chemical investment program.

The government, he said, "is now considering the possibility of reducing somewhat the numerical strength of the armed forces of the U.S.S.R."

It is also planned to submit at the forthcoming session of the U. S. S. R. Supreme Soviet a proposal to reduce somewhat the military spending of the budget for next year—1964.

"These peace loving steps of ours are a new contribution of the Soviet government to the process of easing international tension, an impetus to which was given by the conclusion of a treaty on the partial banning of nuclear tests."

Johnson Okays Bracero Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson approved Saturday a one year extension of the program for admitting Mexican laborers into the United States during 1964.

The program, begun in 1949 and extended several times since, would have expired Dec. 31.

Conditions for employment of the Mexican workers were established by a treaty.

Congress agreed to the one-year extension after several differences over enabling legislation between the House and Senate.

Sponsors said the Mexicans were needed to help harvest and cultivate important crops for which domestic labor is not available.

Opponents contend that better wages and working conditions are provided for Mexican workers than itinerant domestic farm labor.

The Senate at first attached an amendment which would have required similar benefits for domestic farm labor. This later was reversed.

Bonus To Build Winter Housing

OTTAWA (AP)—Canadians who build a house this winter will get a $500 bonus.

This is part of a government plan to keep men working in the worst season of the year.

Applications for 25,000 dwelling units have been received under the plan. Officials say this means jobs for 75,000 builders plus 90,000 in associated industries.

New Officers Are Elected

Extremely cold and disagreeable weather cut the attendance at Friday night's Howard County South Plains Hereford Association banquet almost in half. Less than 100 braved the cold for the meeting.

Officers were elected, with three being re-elected. Loy Acuff was returned as president. Charlie Creighton as first vice president, and J. P. Taylor as secretary-treasurer. Leland Wallace was elected second vice president, replacing F. A. Youngblood of Lamesa.

Four directors, in addition to the officers, are: R. H. Odum, Snyder; Sam Buchanan, Big Spring; George W. (Tee) Knox, Tarzan; and Alton Youngblood, Lamesa.

Bruce Frazier, agricultural instructor at Howard County Junior College, spoke to the group on the importance of better cattle in Mexico through the use of better bulls.

The group met at the Settles Hotel at 7 p.m. to dine on choice beef steaks.

Back From Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Wilbanks, 1206 Harding, have returned from Texarkana, Ark., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Wilbanks' sister, Mrs. C. W. Dixon. Mrs. Dixon died Dec. 10 following a lingering illness. Services were held Dec. 12.

Thefts Reported

The only criminal activity reported to police Friday night was the theft of $35 from David Washington and $10 from Jessie Lee Polk while the two were asleep at the Compress Quarters on the North Side, police said.

Weather Forecast

Snow is forecast for the northern tier of states from the Upper Mississippi Valley to Northern New England and the Central Appalachians Saturday night, with rain mixed with snow in the Middle Atlantic States and rain and drizzle in the Deep South from the Hospital To Be Dedicated Wednesday

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Many moons ago military and civilian chiefs met here and mapped strategy for a new Air Force base hospital.

After nearly nine years and numerous frustrations, their long-range visions now have become reality.

Sheppard Air Force Base has its streamlined hospital, a splendid five-story, 300-bed facility capable of adding 100 beds for emergency expansion.

The hospital, among the military's largest and most modern, is a community medical center for the Air Force.

The big masonry structure sits atop the loftiest point on the 5,000-acre military reservation.

Officially to take note of the completion of the $5 million project, Air Force Secretary Eugene Zuckert and other military and civilian leaders will gather here Wednesday for dedication ceremonies.

Rep. Graham Purcell will attend, along with Lt. Gen. Robert Burns, commander of the Air Training Command; Maj. Gen. R. L. Bohannon, surgeon general of the Air Force; and Maj. Gen. Thomas Moore, former commander of Sheppard.

Arrival Of Winter Brings Problems To Range, Farms

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — There was little doubt in most sections of Texas last midweek that winter had arrived. Biting winds, widespread rains, snow and freezing rains, though bringing badly needed moisture, increased the problems of farmers and stockmen.

The weather, said John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will slow the growth of cool season range and pasture vegetation and increase the need for more supplemental feeding of livestock.

The cotton harvest on the High Plains and other western and northwestern areas will be delayed.

Reports from the 12 district extension agricultural agents summed up the situation this way:

W. W. Grisham Jr. at Amarillo said moisture in the Panhandle continues to be short but that snow had fallen over the area. Wheat grazing is still short and supplemental feeding of cattle is under way.

The South Plains cotton harvest is 55 to 60 per cent complete and gin yards are crowded with unginning cotton, reported W. H. Jones of Lubbock. The snow and freezing rain will delay the harvest but will permit gins to do some catching up.

The cotton harvest in the Rolling Plains is near completion and all wheat has been seeded, said James Simmons from Vernon. He listed moisture as adequate in 14 counties and short in eight others.

Much small grain is up in North Central Texas as a result of the recent light rains but it isn't looking good, reported Ted Martin from Denton. More rain, he added, is needed to promote growth. Livestock feeding continues to be heavy.

Moisture in Northeast Texas continues to range from adequate to very short but good rains were reported from some stations in the area Wednesday morning, said R. S. Loftis at Mt. Pleasant. Small grains are up to a fair stand but pastures are below average.

From 80 to 90 per cent of the cotton in Far West Texas has been harvested and lower grades are reflecting the effects of recent rains, advised Ray Siegmund at Ft. Stockton. Livestock conditions continue to rate fair to good but feeding was increasing.

Pear burners and feed wagons increased their activities in West Central Texas where moisture is short, Roy Huckabee of San Angelo said. Oat fields and pastures have made some improvement, he said, but green grazing is limited but helpful.

Oats in Central Texas are making some progress and furnishing light grazing but soil moisture is short for maximum growth and mites and other insects are causing concern, reported R. G. Burwell from Stephenville. He described the peanut harvest as in the windup stage and the pecan harvest as continuing.

Native pastures in South Central Texas continue to green but are furnishing little grazing, advised Joe Glover from Gonzales. Livestock were described as generally thin but strong with feeding continuing.

The lower valley counties of South Texas have adequate soil moisture but it is short in all others, said W. H. Lehmburg from Weslaco. He described the vegetable harvest as in full swing and added that the light frost had caused only minor damage to tender vegetables. Citrus marketing is at the peak.

Ike Again Placed Into GOP Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The political upheaval caused by the assassination of President Kennedy may project former President Eisenhower actively into the search for a 1964 GOP presidential nominee.

Eisenhower has disclaimed any desire to become a kingmaker but associates who have talked to him since Kennedy's death say the former president recognizes that the Republican situation has changed so rapidly as to invite efforts to get the kind of moderate candidate he believes can win.

Eisenhower has opposed public discussion of political matters at this time. He was reported to have suggested it might be well for Republicans to preserve an air of bipartisanship longer into the new year than they had planned by postponing a series of scheduled Jan. 29 closed-circuit television fund-raising dinners.

AS SCHEDULED

With his treasury bare, however, national chairman William E. Miller ruled that the dinners will go on as scheduled.

Water District Sets Meeting

Tentative date for the next meeting of the Colorado River Municipal Water District board of directors has been set for Jan. 10, 1964.

Principal item of business will be consideration of rates for member cities during 1964. Under the terms of the indenture, the board is required each January to establish rates sufficient to operate the district and to care for debt service.

Other important matters will be on the agenda, too, said E. V. Spence, general manager of CRMWD. Negotiations affecting potential means of bolstering and smoothing water supplies during peak seasons have been underway and reports may be ready on these. In addition, latest developments on studies for a second lake, plus requests from oil operators for water-flood supplies, will be relayed to the board.

Eisenhower, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon are to be among the speakers.

Before Kennedy's death, the Republican nomination scramble was developing rapidly into a two-man contest between Goldwater and Rockefeller. It was a poorly kept secret that Eisenhower didn't view this prospect with any enthusiasm, but he added, is needed to promote growth. Livestock feeding continues to be heavy.

The death of Kennedy and the elevation of Lyndon B. Johnson to the presidency changed things. Goldwater supporters had figured their man had a chance of beating Kennedy by carrying the South and some of the more conservative states in the Midwest and West. Now he would be facing a Texas president with an image more conservative than Kennedy's.

If Goldwater decides to get into the race—and there now is some doubt that he will — it probably would take him time to work up the same head of steam against Johnson that he maintained in flailing away at Kennedy's policies.

IN SOUTH

The substitution of Johnson for Kennedy weakened Goldwater's position in the South, where he was strongest. Ordinarily the Democratic change would have been expected to help Rockefeller, promising Republicans a better chance of carrying New York.

But even some of the governor's supporters concede privately that his political fortunes do not seem to be recovering from his divorce and remarriage.

In such a situation there is a feeling that if Eisenhower and his friends of the National Republican Citizens Committee can find a suitable candidate in the next couple of months the way would be open for the type of buildup that made Wendell T. Wilkie the nominee in 1940.

Nixon, of course, remains in the forefront of possible contenders. While he has praised Nixon as well qualified, the impression remains that Eisenhower would rather turn to another for the 1964 race.

Jayhawks Turn Back Chanute, 101 To 72

By PAT WASHBURN

The Howard County Junior College Jayhawks hit a hot streak Saturday night on the home court as their patented patternless offense completely swamped the visiting Chanute Junior College Black Dragons, 101-72.

Paced by 6'3" forward Thomas Carter, who hammered home 24 points on nine field goals and six free throws, the Hawks took a commanding 47-33 halftime lead and stretched that farther in the second half to their last gasp 29-point spread.

Other boys in the double figures for the locals included slick and quick Terry Williams with 13, deadly Dick Ebling who hit six of six from the field and two from the free line for 14, and Charles Cumber and Keith Bond with 10 apiece. Perhaps the best description of the contest was offered by radio announcer Bob Bell. "They run a pattern," he said with seriousness. "It's just hard to spot." And then he laughed.

The Jayhawks moved out to an early 5-0 lead and never lost the lead again although the Black Dragons tied it up at 11-11 with 13:54 in the first quarter.

From there until halftime coach Buddy Travis' quietest command never to be threatened again.

The last 10 minutes of the contest were the wildest as the Dragons began to press and forced the Jayhawks into many mistakes although it also left the locals open for many layups.

This was the Jayhawks' fifth win in seven starts.

In the first game of the evening, Odessa College staged a mild upset by defeating Wharton College in an overtime period, 75-74.

Odessa, who made 29 of 75 shots from the field, trailed by as much as ten points the first half and by as much as five in the overtime.

James Medlin made only four points for Odessa but two were free tosses with seven seconds left in the regulation game and his only field goal put Odessa out front to stay with 30 seconds left to play in the overtime.

Stanley Heaps led Odessa in scoring with 33 points. Gus Buchanan had 18 and Buddy Othick had 14 for the Wranglers.

Wharton, which brought a 4-3 record to West Texas and lost both of its starts out this way, was paced by Alan Canselo, who had 20 points.

A Scramble Coming Up

The center court tip beginning the second half Saturday night of the Howard County-Chanute Junior College game in the Jayhawks' gym produced a free ball with the Black Dragons eventually controlling the leather. Leaping high for the locals is Charles

Cumber (50) while Kenny Cloud (15) does the honors for the visitors. Looking on are two Jayhawks, Dick Ebling (24) and Jim Oldham (52). The Jayhawks went on to a 101-72 triumph. (Picture by Jimmy Townes.)

St. John's Topples Prairie View Club

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—St. John's University of Minnesota won the NAIA Football Championship 33-27 Saturday in a thrilling Camellia Bowl match against Prairie View A&M of Texas.

The all-Negro Prairie View Panthers broke the game wide open in the first quarter with a 29-yard rollout by substitute quarterback Billy Hall in their first offensive play of the game.

The Texans continued their domination through the quarter with a key defensive seven-man wall that throttled St. John's running game.

found the breaks turning to the Johnnies from Collegeville, Minn., as defensive back Bob Spinner returned an Evel Coleman punt 41 yards for a touchdown.

Less than 30 seconds later, Prairie View's offensive leader, quarterback Jim Kearney, hit left end Otis Taylor for a 61-yard touchdown. Fullback John Harris kicked his second extra point to make the score 14-6.

The huge Johnnies' forward wall continually broke through on Kearney's passing attempts and forced an upfield pass intended for Norris McDaniel to be intercepted by St. John's halfback Johnny McCormick. He returned 44 yards for a score.

Capitalizing on key penalties and fumbles, St. John's exploded for two touchdowns in the third quarter to make the score 20-14.

Penalties moved them to the 23-yard line and St. John's quarterback Craig Myres hit his right end, Hardy Reyserson, for another touchdown.

St. John's halfback Bernie Beckman recovered a fumble on Prairie View's 37 and three plays later, on a reverse, threw a 19-yarder to Ken Roering.

Corsicana Ousts Graham, 14-13

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP)—Corsicana quarterback Gary Roman faked a handoff, then ran right end for two vital points after a last minute touchdown Saturday to put the Tigers into the State AAA finals with a 14-13 victory over Graham's Steers.

The Tigers, trailing by 7 points with 2:55 left in the final quarter, went to the air behind the passing arm of Roman to move 77 yards for the touchdown, followed by the winning points.

Corsicana scored first in two plays, moving 67 yards in two plays. The touchdown came on a 56-yard pass from Roman to end Donnie Denbow. Ricky Libal's kick went wide.

Graham came back to tie the score on the last play of the initial quarter as fullback Billy Ingram plowed through a rough right guard for 16 yards and the touchdown. The Steers covered 60 yards in 9 plays. Ingram, who had been the key ground gainer in the drive, attempted the point but it was blocked.

The second quarter was scoreless but Graham managed one penetration midway in the quarter, moving to the Tigers' 18. Facing fourth down, Freddy Gough attempted a field goal but it fell short. The halftime count was 6-6.

Graham's all-state quarterback, P. D. Shabay intercepted a Corsicana pass in the third period and lateraled to end Neil Edwards, who raced 68 yards into the end zone. Gough's kick was good to move the count to 13-6.

Corsicana's winning touchdown was registered as halfback Jim Hagle cracked over from the one with only 33 seconds left on the clock. Then Roman came in to score the winning two points.

Packers Keep Hopes Alive

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Green Bay quarterback Bart Starr hit Boyd Dowler on touchdown pass plays 53 and 59 yards Saturday, carrying the Packers to a 21-7 squeaker over stubborn San Francisco and keeping their title hopes alive at least another day.

The triumph completed the regular 1963 National Football League season for the Packers with a record of 11 victories, two losses and one tie, but they won't win a fourth straight Western Conference title if the Chicago Bears beat Detroit Sunday.

Chicago goes into the finale with a 10-1-2 mark.

Dalhart Upset By Rockwall

VERNON, Tex. (AP)—Rockwall's Yellow Jackets, led by the running of Jackie and Gary Anderson, slammed through mud and ice to a 35-7 upset of defeated, untied Dalhart Saturday to push into the finals of Class AA schoolboy football.

The Andersons, who are not related, ruined the touted Dalhart defense with driving runs up the middle as Rockwall rolled up 282 yards rushing. Dalhart got only 32.

The lone Dalhart score didn't come until the final period on a sensational pass play—a 63-yard toss from Jeff Colquitt to his twin brother, John.

Coahoma Defeats Kittens, 42-41

GARDEN CITY — Coahoma nipped Garden City, 42-41, in the finals of the girls' division of the Garden City Invitational Basketball Tournament here Saturday night.

In the boys' final, Coahoma topped Garden City by a score of 71-33.

The Bearkittens led several times during the contest but Coahoma pulled away late in the battle and withstood a counter-rally on the part of Garden City.

ARA PARSEGHIAN

Irish Name Parseghian Grid Coach

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Ara Parseghian of Northwestern University was named head football coach at Notre Dame Saturday.

The 40-year-old Parseghian replaces Hugh Devore.

Devore, "interim coach" with a 2-7 record in 1963, was elevated to the post of assistant athletic director.

Parseghian was given a four-year contract at an undisclosed sum. His reported salary at Northwestern was $18,000 yearly.

"We feel very fortunate in securing the services of such an outstanding coach as Mr. Parseghian," said the Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, chairman of the Notre Dame Athletic Board.

"He has had a splendid record at Miami University (Ohio) and Northwestern University and he is one of the most respected men in the coaching profession."

On behalf of Father Theodore Hesburgh, our university president and the faculty board in control of athletics, I welcome him to the post of head football coach at the University of Notre Dame.

"We are delighted also to announce that Mr. Hugh Devore is appointed our new assistant athletic director." Father Joyce continued. "Coach Devore performed admirably in the assignment this year of being our interim head coach and we were most appreciative of his good efforts."

"He has won the respect and admiration of all Notre Dame men and will continue to play an extremely important role in our football program."

The 52-year-old Devore, father of seven, was Notre Dame co-captain in 1933. He coached at Fordham, Providence College and Holy Cross before returning to Notre Dame as end coach in 1944.

In 1945 he was "interim coach" of the Irish while Frank Leahy was in military service. When Leahy returned the next year, Devore left and had coaching jobs at St. Bonaventure, New York University, and the Green Bay Packers, University of Dayton and the Philadelphia Eagles.

He came back to the Irish as freshman coach under Terry Brennan in 1958.

Steers Win Tourney By Tipping Tribe

SNYDER — Big Spring stormed past Seminole, 62-61, to win the championship in the ninth annual Canyon Reef Basketball tournament here Saturday night.

Mike Peters, who was thought earlier in the day to have been lost with a sprained ankle, gritted his teeth and played the whole game for the Steers, now 6-2 for the year. Mike wound up with 19 points.

He got tremendous help from such boys as Ronnie Banks, Simon Terrazas, Monty Clendenin and Albert Fierro.

The Steers had a five-point lead with only a brief time left but missed two free pitches that would have put the decision out of reach.

Fierro and Charley West of the Big Spring team were named to the all-tournament squad along with Larry Lewis, Phillips, who made 92 points in three games; Stephen Haterius, Stamford; Robert Pearce, Hamilton; Vic Hines, Levelland; Drew Bulard and Leslie Brown, both of Snyder; Frank Bice and Chester Sample, both of Seminole.

Levelland won third place by defeating Snyder, 73-64. Phillips copped consolation laurels with a 56-45 victory over Stamford.

Brownfield earned seventh place by topping Hamilton, 58-54.

Coach Delnor Poss lamented the fact that Peters was not named to the all-tournament team, saying he was consistent throughout and showed a lot of courage after turning his ankle.

A boy with lesser determination would have quit, he added.

The Steers made 11 of 21 shots from the field the first half for 52 per cent and 16 of 27 the last half for 58 percent.

Fierro grabbed off ten rebounds and Clendenin eight. Sample had 22 points for the Indians, 17 of them the first half.

The Steers got to Lubbock Monday night for A and B games against Lubbock High in the Lubbock Coliseum.

The Steers scored one of the most decisive victories in the history of the school Friday by knocking off Brownfield, 57-41, then kayped Levelland Saturday morning, 65-55, in the semifinals.

Big Spring led Levelland by a score of 41-18 at half time and coach Delnor Poss made liberal use of his substitutes in the final two quarters.

The game proved costly to the Steers, however, because Mike Peters turned his ankle.

Competition games: BIG SPRING (A2) — Peters 63-19; Banks 56-18; Gorman 50-50; West 2-5; Fierro 4-12; Terrazas 4-12; Clendenin 4-12; Bice 3-24; Foster 0-0; Haterius 0-0; Hines 0-0; Lewis 0-0; Phillips 0-0; Sample 0-0; Terrazas 0-0; West 0-0.

Miller Sidelines Spring Branch

HOUSTON (AP)—The Corpus Christi Miller Buccaneers pushed across two second half touchdowns Saturday to defeat Spring Branch 14-6 and advance to the finals of Class AAAA schoolboy football.

Miller will meet Garland next week in the finals.

Neither team was able to score on the muddy field the first half but Miller scored the first time it had the ball in the third period.

The Buccaneers added eight more points in the fourth quarter to take a 14-6 lead before Spring Branch was able to score.

Miller quarterback Inez Perez hit end Gary Alexander on a seven yard scoring pass for the first score. The touchdown climaxed a 79-yard drive that featured short gains by fullback James Spears and halfback Lee Spears and passes from Perez to end Alfred Boyd and halfback Raul Ortiz.

James Spears cracked over from the four for Miller's second score. The Bucs had moved to that point from their own 27. Perez tossed a pass to Boyd for the two-point conversion.

Spring Branch's score came suddenly late in the game as quarterback Chris Alford hit halfback Chris Gilbert with a pass and the play carried 73 yards for the touchdown.

With the exception of Gilbert's scoring dash, Spring Branch managed to get into Miller territory only as far as the 39 yard line. The Bears made no first downs in the first half and got only as far as the Miller 49 yard line.

Miller reached the Spring Branch 19, 27, and 30 yard line in the first half, but fumbles, pass interceptions and a tough Bear defensive line kept the Bucs from scoring.

There Will Be No Tie For Eastern Grid Title

By BOB GREEN Associated Press Sports Writer

"The season," said Jim Kattavage, "starts at 2:05 Sunday afternoon." This, of course, may be a mild over-simplification. But only a mild one. It took 92 National Football League games to set the stage for this one, the winner-take-all battle between the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers for the Eastern Conference title. There's no way they can end up sharing it. Someone wins and someone loses. The Giants can grab their third straight win or a tie. The Steelers, who have had more than their share of ties this season, have to win to take their first conference title. This one has more angles than modernist sculpture. For instance, there's the fact that the Steelers pinned a 31-0 humiliation on the Giants in their first game this season. Which gives rise to all sorts of juicy gimmicks. And the fact that bald old Y.A. Tittle, key to the Giants' offense, missed that game. Gimmicks multiplied by gimmicks. But both coaches, Buddy Parker of the Steelers and Allie Sherman of the Giants, say the angles and gimmicks aren't needed for the Yankee Stadium clash.

"Man, if we get into the psychology bit at this stage of the race, we're done for," Sherman said. "No, you can bet that our men are up for this thing without any pushing." The pressure's on the Giants, not us," said Steeler defensive lineman Ernie Stautner. "Certainly more rides on this game than anything I've ever been in, but how can the pressure be on us? They're the champs. We've never won it before." The Giants take a 10-3 record into the final regular season game, while the Steelers are 7-3. It developed into a two-team race last week when Cleveland was eliminated 38-10 by Detroit and St. Louis dropped out despite a 38-14 victory over

Cougars Win 2nd Decision

HOUSTON (AP)—Two second half touchdowns by Mike Spratt, both on reverses, gave Houston a 21-7 football victory over Louisville Saturday in the season finale for both teams.

It was Houston's second victory in 10 games and left Louisville with a 3-7 season. The game, scheduled for Nov. 23, was postponed three weeks in deference to President Kennedy, who was assassinated Nov. 22.

Quarterback Jack Skog gave Houston a 7-0 lead with a touchdown the first time the Cougars had the ball.

It held up for the half, but early in the third period Tom Laframboise capped a nine-play drive with a four-yard run over left end to score.

Houston took the kickoff and bounced back for a go-ahead touchdown on a 11-play, 63-yard drive. Spratt twisted around left end for 20 yards with 3:47 left in the third quarter. The game breaking tally came on Spratt's 31-yard reverse midway in the fourth quarter, which ended a 13-play, 94-yard drive. The Cougars' kicking specialist, Bill McMillan, kicked all three conversions.

Skog, a 6-2 junior from Nederland, Tex., broke an all-time Houston season passing record held by Bobby Clatterback Clatterback, who later played for the New York Giants, set the record in 1951, passing for 1,113 yards.

Links Tourney Is Set Back

The weather has forced a delay in the Partnership Handicap Golf tournament planned today at the Big Spring Country Club.

Wendy Green, assistant pro at the course, indicated the 18 holes of play will be staged next Sunday, if the elements cooperate. Everyone in the area is eligible to take part in the tournament and players can choose their own partners, as long as they adhere to eligibility rules. Linksters with handicaps of 11 strokes or better will be allowed to play only with those boasting handicaps of ten strokes or less. The entry fee will be $5 a team, or $2.50 an individual. Merchandise awards will be given the winning teams. If the weather should interfere again next Sunday, Green indicated, the meet would have to be cancelled due to the nearness of the holiday season.

Chiefs, Maids Win Trophies In Tourney

GARDEN CITY — Lake View of San Angelo won third place trophies in both division of the annual Garden City Basketball tournament here Saturday.

In each instance, the victim was Norton. The boys won by the score of 35-32 was the girls' margin was 44-34.

Garden City and Coahoma advanced to the championship finals in boys' play. The host Bearcats trounced Norton, 45-39. Vernon Newsom scored 21 points for Garden City.

Coahoma's classy Bulldogs kayoted San Angelo Lake View's B squad, 58-19. Ray Gaines led the Bulldogs in scoring with ten points. In all, 11 players got into the scoring act for Coahoma.

In the girls' bracket, Garden City and Coahoma moved into the finals.

Garden City had a relatively easy time with Norton, winning by a score of 50-33. Judy Hirt scored 29 points for the Kittens. Coahoma had to go overtime to sideline Lake View, 50-48. Sandy Clanton tallied 22 points for Coahoma in the march to victory.

Friday play was completed when Lake View's girls defeated Grandfalls, 69-26. The Rankin ferals bounced Barnhart in the consolation round, 35-15; the Lake View boys outstayed Grandfalls, 46-33; and Barnhart's boys trounced Ballinger B, 45-32, in consolations.

Girls division: Second round game (championship) GARDEN CITY (30) - Norton (25:29); Coahoma (30) - Lake View (24:44); Grandfalls (30) - Rankin (22:40); Ballinger B (30) - Barnhart (24:30). Total: 224-50.

SW Officials Mum About Gag Rule

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF DALLAS (AP) — The Southwest Conference clamped its celebrated gag rule on itself Saturday.

It would not say if any coaches, particularly Hank Foidberg of Texas A&M, had been penalized for public criticism of game officials.

It wouldn't confirm or deny that it had even discussed cases that were supposed to come up under the rule that says coaches cannot criticize the officials in statements to the press.

Foidberg had conceded that his comments criticizing the officiating in the Texas - Texas A&M game would come up. He had attacked a ruling on a crucial pass interception.

But conference secretary Howard Grubbs, speaking for the faculty committee, governing body of the conference, said he would report only that he had been instructed to "reaffirm to all the athletic directors the conference rule having to do with public criticism of officials."

Then Grubbs refused to answer any questions of whether cases were considered, whether penalties were invoked, whether it was a new policy of the conference not to announce penalties or deliberations concerning rules violations.

It was reminiscent of the time the conference voted on the admission of Texas Tech and burned the ballots so no one would know how the schools stood. Grubbs would not say whether the conference had prohibited him from giving out the news but it was obvious that he had such orders since he would not even let out a hint.

He wouldn't even say if the president of the conference, Dr. C. H. Croneman of Texas A&M, would make the announcement. And he said he didn't know whether the rules permitted anyone penalized under the rule to make the announcement himself.

Foidberg, contacted at College Station, said he had not been informed of any action against him. This indicated that no penalty was inflicted. The rule does not set a specific penalty. It merely says that all criticism "should be submitted in writing to the secretary and not be communicated to the press."

The conference committee recommended to the NCAA that legislation be adopted to eliminate the practice of friends and relatives of athletes being transported to the campus. The conference rule now says that if it is by private car or plane, with a friend of the athlete paying the expenses, relatives may be transported to the campus.

A policy of restricting television games only to those in the NCAA series was considered and a committee of athletic directors will study the matter and make a report at the May meeting. This policy would prevent even televising a game that was a sellout and did not conflict with another college game within a 75-mile radius. This can be done at the present time under NCAA rules.

It was decided to retain the rule that allows athletic scholarships up to four years. The Big Eight Conference, with which the Southwest Conference has a letter of intent agreement, asked that the scholarships be limited to one year with a renewal clause. The Big Eight has this rule.

It was decided that the mutual letter of intent would not apply to all athletics but would be only for football.

Grubbs said that each conference member got about $75,000 the past year from bowl game and television receipts. He didn't think it would be as high this year because the conference didn't have a team in the Sugar Bowl, where the payoff is about $170,000. There are teams in the Sun Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl, where the payoff is not so high.

Football prices were left at the present rate — $4.00 for reserved seats, $2.50 for end zone seats and 50 cent for high school tickets. An increase to $4.50 for reserved seats and $1.00 for high school students had been proposed.

Several transfer cases were handled. Trackman Tom Raney, son of an Army officer, graduated from a high school in Italy then attended a Maryland University extension school in Germany. He now is at Texas Tech. It was decided that he did not come under the freshman transfer rule and would have four years of eligibility at Texas Tech.

Gene Collins, who played freshman football at the University of Houston, then transferred to Texas Tech, was voted to be a freshman transfer and will have two years of varsity competition.

Raul Garcia, who played baseball as a freshman at Texas A&M, then transferred to Corpus Christi University, which discontinued baseball, was granted a year of varsity competition at Baylor.

Whitworth, Mann Slated To Appear Here Jan. 9

Two of goldom's best-known women pros, Kathy Whitworth and Carol Mann, will participate in a links exhibition at the Big Spring Country Club Thursday, Jan. 9, pro Jerry Green has announced.

Play will be over nine holes and will also feature two local women, probably Mrs. Frank Dillon and Mrs. Jerry Day.

Whitworth and Mann are being sent here by the Wilson Sporting Goods people. They will give a 30-minute clinic prior to the match. The entire program will be free to the public.

Kathy is a tall hitter who was raised and still plays out of Jalisco. She is one of the leading money winners on the women's pro circuit this year. She turned pro in 1958 after winning two straight New Mexico State Amateur championships.

Carol was one of the Midwest's outstanding amateur linksters before turning pro in 1960. She is a willowy 6-foot-2.

In 1960, Miss Mann won medalist honors in the Trans-Mississippi Western Junior champion. A native of Flossmoor, Ill., Carol attended the University of North Carolina.

E. Carolina Is Winner, 27-6

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Fullback Tom Michel scored two touchdowns Saturday, one on an 82-yard run to break a 6-6 tie in the third quarter, to spark East Carolina College to a 27-6 football victory over previously unbeaten Northeastern University in the Eastern Bowl.

Michel's 82-yard run came on the second play from scrimmage after Northeastern's Maxime St. Victor booted a 45-yard field goal, his second of the game.

St. Victor, a native of Haiti who kicks soccer style, minutes earlier had booted a 48-yard field goal, tying the mark for the longest college field goal of the season in the nation.

LSU And Bears Await Battle

HOUSTON (AP)—Louisiana State and Baylor, a pair of 7-3 teams, meet next Saturday in the fifth Bluebonnet Bowl football game.

It will be the first venture in the young classic for both teams and each will be seeking initial Bluebonnet victories for the Southeastern and Southwest intercollegiate conferences.

Three teams from the Southwest and two from the Southeast have appeared in previous Bluebonnet games but the closest either conference has come to victory was a 3-3 tie played by Alabama and Texas in 1960.

Bluebonnet officials have tabbed the LSU-Baylor game as the final phase of a five-year development program designed to place the game among the major post-season classics.

The teams have met four common opponents — Texas A&M, Texas Christian, Rice and Kentucky. Baylor averaged 23 points while whipping all but Kentucky. LSU averaged 20 while defeating A&M, TCU and Kentucky and losing to Rice.

Trull set three national records this season while completing 174 passes for 2,157 yards and handling the ball on 406 plays. He also set six conference marks. His favorite receiver, Larry Elkins, set a national mark with 70 pass receptions and broke three conference records.

Schwab and LaBruzzo operate behind a tough LSU line anchored by Robbie Hucklebridge and Billy Truax. Schwab gained 553 yards in 108 carries, while LaBruzzo added 395 in 78 plays.

Garland will meet the winner of Saturday night's Spring Branch-Corpus Christi Miller game for the championship. Garland won a come-from-behind triumph by scoring in the third period on Gary Bridges' four-yard run and Sims' placement.

Tascosa scored in the first period when a 65-yard kickoff return by Mike Bell got Garland in a hole. Tascosa cashed in on a Garland fumble on the Owl 23-yard line, with Mike Turner smashing over from two yards out for the touchdown. But the try for point was missed.

A crowd of 12,000 saw Garland continue undefeated in the schoolboy race. While a break set up the Tascosa touchdown, one also set up the Garland touchdown.

The Owl drive started on the Tascosa 26 after a short Tascosa punt. It was climaxed by Bridges' touchdown run around left end and Sims' extra point. That was the difference.

Billy Hobbs had missed on the try for point after the Tascosa touchdown. It was wide and to the left. Sims is a kicking specialist only. He is unable to play because of an injury.

Garland 0 0 7 0 - 7
Tascosa 6 0 0 0 - 6
Tas-Turner 2 run (kick failed)
Gar-Bridges 4 run (Sims kick)
Attendance—12,000.

BEAUMONT (AP)—Lamar Tech will enter the Sugar Bowl track meet in New Orleans for the first time and it has some fellows who could make it an auspicious debut.

James McLatchie and Brian Davis will contest in the Dec. 19 meet. McLatchie recently was second in the 10,000 meters at Chicago behind national champion Tom O'Hara of Loyola of Chicago. He will run either the 5,000 meters or the 1,500-meter run.

A crowd in excess of 55,000 is expected at the 70,000-seat Rice University Stadium to watch Baylor's Don Trull, a passing star, go against an LSU attack that features a pair of sophomore speedsters, Don Schwab and Joe LaBruzzo.

Trull's string of national intercollegiate and Southwest Conference passing records has established Baylor as a slight favorite.

Trull set three national records this season while completing 174 passes for 2,157 yards and handling the ball on 406 plays. He also set six conference marks. His favorite receiver, Larry Elkins, set a national mark with 70 pass receptions and broke three conference records.

Schwab and LaBruzzo operate behind a tough LSU line anchored by Robbie Hucklebridge and Billy Truax. Schwab gained 553 yards in 108 carries, while LaBruzzo added 395 in 78 plays.

Garland will meet the winner of Saturday night's Spring Branch-Corpus Christi Miller game for the championship. Garland won a come-from-behind triumph by scoring in the third period on Gary Bridges' four-yard run and Sims' placement.

Tascosa scored in the first period when a 65-yard kickoff return by Mike Bell got Garland in a hole. Tascosa cashed in on a Garland fumble on the Owl 23-yard line, with Mike Turner smashing over from two yards out for the touchdown. But the try for point was missed.

A crowd of 12,000 saw Garland continue undefeated in the schoolboy race. While a break set up the Tascosa touchdown, one also set up the Garland touchdown.

The Owl drive started on the Tascosa 26 after a short Tascosa punt. It was climaxed by Bridges' touchdown run around left end and Sims' extra point. That was the difference.

Billy Hobbs had missed on the try for point after the Tascosa touchdown. It was wide and to the left. Sims is a kicking specialist only. He is unable to play because of an injury.

James McLatchie and Brian Davis will contest in the Dec. 19 meet. McLatchie recently was second in the 10,000 meters at Chicago behind national champion Tom O'Hara of Loyola of Chicago. He will run either the 5,000 meters or the 1,500-meter run.

Davis, a member of the 1960 South Africa Olympic team, will run the 440-yard dash, an event he has done in 45.9 previously.

Top Stars Out Of AFL Game

HOUSTON (AP)—Top stars for both teams will be missing Sunday as San Diego and Houston meet in a game of major significance to final standings of both divisions of the American Football League.

Sunday games in Houston and Oakland and a Saturday game in Kansas City could settle both division championships, or throw both into two-way ties.

San Diego needs a victory to protect its one-game lead over Oakland in the West. Houston's shaky chances for a fourth Eastern title require a combination of a victory over San Diego and a Kansas City upset of Boston, the current leader.

A knee injury has sidelined George Blanda, the quarterback who led Houston to two league championships and a third division title. His understudy, Jackie Lee, will be making his first start of the season.

San Diego will be without the services of Keith Lincoln, its rushing leader who was knocked unconscious in last Sunday's game with Oakland.

Tobin Rote, the charge signal-caller who leads the league in passing, will see action despite an elbow ailment that requires him to keep his arm in a sling much of the time.

Rote will be making his first appearance as a pro in Houston where he established seven career and individual records while leading Rice University to Southwest Conference and Cotton Bowl championships in 1949.

San Diego will be without the services of Keith Lincoln, its rushing leader who was knocked unconscious in last Sunday's game with Oakland.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Chuck Moser, the popular director of athletics of the Abilene public schools, will be the principal speaker at the Lions Club football banquet honoring the Big Spring Steers Jan. 11.

Moser still aspires to return to coaching, would like a job with a big college. Chuck gives a fine talk. When Ines Perez won the Jake Trussell Award for the Most Valuable Football Player in South Texas recently, he joined a select company.

Ronnie Bull, now a star with the Chicago Bears, and Doug Harvey are among past winners of the trophy. Perez was a quarterback for the Corpus Christi Miller Buccaneers the past season.

I wouldn't be surprised to see Amarillo Tascosa's Pete Harkins named the most outstanding football player in the state this year. The voting is done by Amarillo's Putt Powell exclusively and Harkins has had a fine season.

Mike Love of Odessa Permian was recipient of the prize last year. Two Big Spring-owned horses, J. R. Dillard's Que-Maravella and E. C. Tucker's Jolly Klav were nominated for the Texas Derby, which will be run at Sunland Park race track today.

The Texas Derby is the race classic which originated at Arlington Downs, between Fort Worth and Dallas, back in the '30's. Tim Smith, the Big Spring line star, said he would like to get the chance to attend either Texas A&M or Baylor.

Rev. Jackie Robinson, who was inducted into the Baylor Hall of Fame recently, is the same fellow who recruited Big Spring's Charley Warren and others for a basketball tour of South America a few years ago.

In case anyone's interested, up-to-date basketball scoreboards run anywhere from $495 to $1,540. The local high school certainly needs one and has for several years. An industrial basketball league reportedly was not formed here because the fees for using public school facilities are out of line.

In the past, the YMCA has taken the lead in organizing such leagues, yet the Y gym has never been used. I've never understood why.

Game With Ysleta Team Firmed Up
Big Spring's 1964 football schedule has been firmed up with the addition of one of the Ysleta schools, either Bel Air or Eastwood.

The Steers will visit Ysleta Sept. 18 for a game and take off the Friday prior to the opening of District 2-AAAAA play. Gene Jordan, director of athletics in the Ysleta school system, is making arrangements for the game.

It will be the longest trip any Steer team has made in years. Bel Air was the District 1-AAAA champion this year while Eastwood is a new school and one of the largest in the Border City.

The Ysleta contract runs for two years, which means a Ysleta team will play here in 1965. Pag Gabrel, the SMU coaching aide, visited with the Steer mentors recently and took a Steer film with him.

Garland Wins By 7-6 Tally

Great Aerial Show Expected At Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The most spectacular aerial show in the history of the series seems certain when college all-stars from the North and South meet Saturday in their 15th annual football game in the Orange Bowl.

On the North squad is George Bork of Northern Illinois, who rewrote the NCAA pass record book during an amazing career. Bork hit with 244 passes this season for 3,077 yards, bringing his career total to 577 for 6,782 yards.

Facing Bork will be Miami's George Mira, one of the most accurate passers in the history of major college football. Bork will have his favorite receiver, Hugh Rohrschneider, working with him. Rohrschneider led the nation this year with 75 receptions. He also will have scored 12 touchdowns for the Tigers. Running for the North will be such stars as Matt Snell of Ohio State and Louis Holland of Wisconsin.

The game, to be televised nationally by ABC starting at 4 p. m. EST, will be played under pro rules, which include free substitutions. One rule peculiar to the game is that the team which is behind has its choice of receiving the kickoff after a touchdown.

The coaches, Jerry Burns of Iowa and Bump Elliott of Michigan for the North, and Tom Nugent of Maryland and Ray Graves of Florida for the South, will put their squads through initial workouts tomorrow.

A third huge tackle gives the South team almost 800 pounds at that spot. Dick Evey, 6-4 and 240, of Tennessee will be seeing action. He was a top choice of the Chicago Bears and second-round pick of the Buffalo Bills.

Water Pollution A Grave Threat, Says Cy Reid

"The greatest water problem with which we are faced today is that of pollution.

"Saltwater, petroleum and sewage can readily be detected in our streams and lakes but scores of new types of chemicals cannot."

Cecil Reid, executive secretary of Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas, was talking to a subcommittee of Congress, studying water pollution.

Steve Boros Sold To San Diego

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs sold infielder Steve Boros to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League Saturday and then closed a three-player deal by giving up southpaw pitcher Jim Brewer.

Brewer went to Spokane as the third player in a deal in which the Cubs received southpaw Dick Scott, a Los Angeles farm hand, for catcher Cuno Barragan Thursday.

Long Service

Sinclair Oil and Gas Co. has honored 13 men who completed 40 years with the company during 1963.

Two Sinclair Men Given Recognition

Two men who together have served with Sinclair Oil and Gas Company's production department for more than 75 years recently received special recognition.

Oran Henry Vick, pumper in the production department for the Coahoma sub-district of the Big Spring district, received the company's award for 40 years of service.

Vick joined Sinclair Nov. 30, 1923, as a roustabout at Damon. He became a pumper a year later and was transferred to the Coahoma sub-district in 1936.

He is a member of the Church of Christ at Big Spring.

Vick was born and attended school in Hamilton, Texas. He and his wife live on Route 1, six miles east of Big Spring.

Ted Means, pumper in the production department at Coahoma, retired Dec. 1 after nearly 36 years of service.

Means joined the Prairie Oil and Gas Co. Jan. 1, 1926, as a pumper at Ranger, Texas. He later worked as a pumper and roustabout at Breckenridge, Coahoma and Big Spring before returning to Coahoma in 1960.

Mr. and Mrs. Means live eight miles east of Big Spring.

Operator Set For Deep Test

Austral No. 2 Mabee is trying to perforate casing to test the Fossilman. This wildcat is located in Martin County, 833 feet from north and 2,173 feet from west lines of section 19-29-2n, G&MMB&A survey. Total depth is below 12,444 feet.

Monsanto No. 2 Gordon is digging in lime below 5,965 feet. Location is 1,840 feet from north and 1,300 feet from west lines of section 3-3, D. L. Cunningham survey, in Dawson County. This site is a southeast offset to Monsanto No. 1 Gordon, opener of the field.

W. W. Meeker of Midland has scheduled No. 1-19 Bateman Estate as a 5,600-foot Strawn wildcat in King County, nine miles east of Guthrie and two miles north of the Burnett Ranch multipay field. Drillsite is 467 feet from south and 2,566 feet from west lines of section 19, block 3, BS&F survey.

Oil Group Helps Combat Pollution

The Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association has pledged money and resources to insure adequate fresh water supplies of a 48-county High Plains area.

"We've got our first team working on this," Harry Dippel, attorney for the association, said regarding efforts to reduce possibility of pollution of the Ogallala formation which underlies some 31,500 square miles.

Earlier this year, Texas Water Commission geologists testified that unlined surface pits used for disposal of oilfield brines were polluting underground water.

Some oil industry spokesmen disputed this, including Fred Barnes, Austin engineer, who contended that irrigation in the High Plains has added vastly more salt to the basin. Others said the industry had invested

Conglomerate Test Staked

Sojourner Drilling Corporation of Abilene has scheduled No. 1-B W. R. Bissett as a 6,100-foot conglomerate wildcat in North Central Stonewall County, 16 miles northeast of Aspermont. It is 467 feet from south and 1,670 feet from east lines of section 21, block F, H&TC survey.

Sunshine Royalty Company of Roswell, N.M., has staked a north offset to Floyd W. Smith of Midland No. 1 Light, a recently completed 3,000-foot Grayburg oil discovery in Eddy County, N.M., as No. 3-29-E. E. M. Elliott.

The 3,250-foot test is 2,310 feet from north and 1,650 feet from west lines of section 29-18-30e and 23 miles southwest of Maljamar.

Standard Oil Company of Texas has spotted location for No. 2 J. E. (Eddie) Simms as a southwest offset to the one-well Midland, Southwest (Fusselman and Ellenburger) field, in Midland County.

It is 3,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 7, block 39, T-2-S, T&P survey and is contracted to 13,206 feet. The site is 1 1/2 miles southwest of Midland.

The new prospector is one location southwest of the same concern's No. 1 Bertha Kessler and others, the opener and presently the lone producer in the two-pay area. It is 1/2 mile south of Standard of Texas No. 1 Simms, which has set oil strings at total depth of 13,852 feet and will test for completion through perforations opposite the Ellenburger and Fusselman, and possible in the Devonian.

James H. Bellamy of Snyder has completed No. 1 C. N. Ainsworth (formerly No. 1 Liedtke '58, Ltd., 2) as the second well in the Hataway (Strawn) area of Scurry County, seven miles south of Fluvanna.

On potential, from perforations at 7,694-704 feet which had been acidized with 250 gallons of 2.5% hydrofluoric acid and 41.6 gravity oil per day, with no water and gas-oil ratio of 400-1.

It was a re-entry of the former Liedtke and Pembroke No. 1 Ainsworth, a dry hole abandoned in July, 1961 at total depth 3,313 feet.

It is 330 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 326, block 97, H&TC survey.

Robert B. Holt of Midland No. 1-4 Wight, scheduled 13,800-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Ector County, now drilling below 13,746 feet, has amended the depth to 14,000 feet to test the Ellenburger.

The project has been drilled tight and no reports save drilling depths have been released for publication. It is one mile southwest of North Cowden and 467 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 4, block 43, T-1-S, T&P survey. The location is surrounded by shallow production in the Cowden, North field and there are no nearby deep wells.

Sunray DX Oil Company (formerly Ed Wolcott of Wichita Falls and Sunray) No. 1 H. G. McNeil, Runnels County wildcat seven miles west of Winters, has indicated discovery production from the Gardner lime.

That section was drilled stem tested for an unreported time at 4,750-4,810 feet. Gas surfaced in five minutes, with no gauge or estimate being reported on the volume. Oil came to the top in 25 minutes and flowed at the rate of from eight to 10 barrels hourly. Choke size on the flow was got given.

Recovery was 630 feet of oil and 470 feet of salt water and drilling mud. Fifteen-minute initial shutin bottomhole pressure was 1,425 pounds, flowing pressure was from 475 to 610 pounds and 30-minute final shutin was 1,285 pounds.

It is 2,000 feet southwest of the lone producer in the Wilmeth, Southeast (lower Fry) pool and is separated from all nearby producing areas by dry holes.

Gordon Knox and Associated No. 1C University, C. N. W. section 43A, University Lands survey, pumped 221 barrels of 28 gravity oil with eight per cent water and a gas-oil ratio of 780-1, after being fraced with 30,000 gallons. This 43-A (Sparberry) well was drilled on ground elevation 2,997 feet to 8,965 feet, 45-inch casing was set at 8,965 feet and the well was perforated between 8,476-856 feet.

R. S. Anderson No. 3 Bayers, 0 Turner survey (Clear Fork) well, pumped 38 barrels of oil and 13 per cent water on initial potential. Gravity was 27 degrees, no gas was produced and the well was fraced with 60,000 gallons. Ground elevation is 2,194 feet. Total depth is 3,299 feet. 4-inch casing is set at 3,279 feet and casing was cemented between 2,518-2,098 feet. Location is 2,173 feet from north and 467 feet from the east lines of section 28-29-1n, T&P survey.

Some Fears About Efficiency Study

By MAX B. SKELTON HOUSTON (AP)—Completion of a comprehensive study of the efficiency of the conservation practices of various oil and gas states is to be expedited despite some fears and skepticism.

This was evident last week at the annual meeting of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, which launched the study in April at the request of Interior Secretary Udall.

No opposition developed in general sessions at the Santa Fe, N.M., meeting but there were dissents and objections during committee sessions and informal discussions.

Most of the objections centered on a fear the study could lead to recommendations which, in effect, would have some oil states trying to tell others how much oil they can or should produce.

A 1961 study of equitable sharing of domestic crude production by the various states was abandoned after stormy controversy.

About 500 state officials and oilmen attended the Santa Fe sessions. This increase over normal registration of about 350 was attributed to interest in progress reports submitted by five subcommittees working on the study.

Initial drafting of recommendations based on the study are some months away but the Santa Fe proceedings indicated these definite trends:

1. The final product will be a unique document detailing oil and gas conservation statutes and practices of the various states.

2. Definite efforts are being made to prevent the study from leading to a renewal of the 1961 crude production controls controversy which, basically, had market demand proration states lined up against states which do not limit crude output to market demand.

Gov. Matthew Welsh of Indiana, the 1963 compact chairman, said he feels confident the final product will become a monumental document.

"It will be the first time that states, regulatory agencies, federal agencies, state legislatures, industry, management engineers and lawyers will have available in one volume a complete working reference of oil and gas conservation state-by-state throughout the nation," Welsh said.

"By keeping the reference current, the compact will provide a service that will be invaluable in years to come."

This, of course, was a direct reference to the voluminous data and tabular information being compiled by the subcommittee for later study by the eight governors, who will write the final report and recommendations.

The subcommittee on regulatory practices went a step further. It arrived in Santa Fe with an early draft of conclusions resulting from its studies. These now are being rewritten and could, in the end, be accepted in part or thrown out entirely by the special governors' committee headed by Welsh.

SOOTHE FEARS It appeared obvious, however, the subcommittee's early draft was aimed at soothing fears the study could lead to another equitable or fair share controversy.

The draft indicated states with only waste prevention statutes can control production just as effectively as market demand states.

"Market demand and waste statutes must be considered as one and the same tool to the interests of the conservationist," the draft said.

"The fact market demand statutes have encouraged exploration... does not, however, mean it is necessary in every instance."

The draft then turned to the expressed fears the study could lead to a nationwide market demand statute.

END STATES' RIGHTS "A nationwide market demand statute would mean the end of personal effort and freedom and states' rights... It can only be concluded each state must find its own place in the market on the basis of economic forces and statutory regulations affecting production on a per state basis."

Progress reports at Santa Fe indicate even sharper interest in the June mid-year meeting at Billings, Mont., where the eight governors will submit the first draft of their conclusions.

State Reports 117 Completions AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission said Saturday 117 oil and 41 gas wells were completed during the week.

The oil completions bring the year total to 7,939, well below the 9,784 in 1962.

Gas completions bring the year total to 2,321, also lower than the 3,270 in 1962.

There were 163 wells plugged, 109 of them dry holes. Four oil wildcats were found.

The total average calendar day allowable was 2,828,253, a decrease of 55,570.

Deep Project Forward Oil & Gas Company of San Angelo will drill No. 1 H. J. Case as a 7,800-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Schleicher County, eight miles north of Eldorado.

It is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 9, block 17, TCRR survey, 3 1/4 miles south of the Velox (Canyon gas) area and seven miles northeast of the Eldorado (Canyon oil and gas) pool.

Rig Count Gains Five

A gain of five over the previous week was recorded on the Friday survey by Reed Roller Bit Company covering rotary drilling operations in the Permian Basin.

On the latest tabulation, 224 working units were counted as compared with 219 listed seven days earlier. The 224 were 19 less than the 243 shown for the same week in 1962.

Lea County, N. M., with an increase of three over last week's 32 continued in first place with 35 on the latest survey. Ector County, with 16 units, an increase of three from the prior week's 13, was in second place.

The county-by-county survey, with previous totals in parentheses, includes:

Andrews 10, (8); BORDEN 5, (2); Chaves 2, (2); Cochran 1, (1); Coke 1, (1); Crane 12, (12); Crockett 2, (2);

Pageant Set Monday Night

Christmas festivities get under way Monday night at the Big Spring State Hospital with presentation of the second annual Christmas pageant at 7:30 p.m.

Conducted last year by patients of the hospital, under direction of Chaplain Max Maguire, the program was so successful that it is being repeated. This year, however, it will be staged only one night.

Each important scene of the Christmas pageant will be depicted separately in the park in front of the hospital's administration building. Spotlights focused on the three wise men will open the program, climaxing with the manger scene. A choir will provide background music and a narrator will tell the occurrences as stated in the Bible. Patients will play all roles.

The public is invited, Chaplain Maguire said. The program will last about 45 minutes.

Roy Rogan is handling the lighting and animals for the scenes will be furnished by Pat Patterson.

The regular Christmas program will begin at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the auditorium of the Allred Building. All patients will convene in the auditorium for a 45-minute program and a party before going to their wards for separate parties.

Mrs. J. L. Christensen, with the Big Spring Music Club, will be chairman of the committee handling the main program. Ace Ball and his group and volunteers from the Modern Woman's Forum will provide music and special entertainment.

Preparations are well under way to decorate the auditorium. Life-size cutouts will line each wall and a giant tree will be decorated in the center of the auditorium.

Various civic organizations will then sponsor the individual ward parties. At these events, presents provided by the Volunteer Council, as well as gifts received from the family of each patient will be distributed. More than $1,000 worth of gifts have been provided by the council. Numerous other gifts have been donated by other groups and persons.

School Production Greeted Warmly

A standing ovation greeted performers of "Oklahoma!" after Friday night's show at the high school auditorium as more than 400 spectators clamored their approval.

The speech and choral departments of the Big Spring High School had taken on a difficult work. The result was entertainment of a quality seldom seen on the local amateur level. Weather threatened to halt the show and may have made a dint in the audience, but those who braved the slick streets and freezing temperatures found their efforts well worth it.

A broken power line darkened the auditorium minutes after the production for about 15 minutes, but the youthful thespians were undaunted. They picked up where they had left off and finished in the same fine fashion in which they had begun.

Pat Hamilton, who, by the way, has another year to go and should spark several more high school productions, carried off the lead role superbly. His leading lady Friday, Jan. Brock, did equally well. This role for Saturday's show was to have been filled by Sheryl Gambill.

Rambunctious Aunt Eller (Betty Sorrels), Will Parker (Mike Alexander) Jud Fry (John Lawson), Ado Annie (Joanna Patterson) and All Hakim (Roy Black) also come in for special credit. The supporting roles were all done well.

"I am proud of them," producer Dan Shockey said after the Friday performance. "The dress rehearsal did not go too smoothly, but they did just great tonight."

Fortunately for workers on the props, a couple of seldom-used background scenes of the auditorium fit perfectly into the production, cutting down on the work and doing more for the background than a blank wall would have done. Nevertheless, it was obvious that someone had spent many hours of preparation in this area.

Others who had a hand in the play were: Penny Frazier, Marshall Cockrell (also stage manager) and Dick Sweeden, members of the cast; Mel Ivey, music director; Paula Carothers, choreographer; Jack Hendrix and Faye Maines, pianists; Sandra Merrill, student assistant to the directors; Phillip Hall, lighting; and Jimmy Townes, photography.

Another 50 or more persons took part in the chorus, dances, stage preparation, securing props, publicity, costumes and other chores.

From comments overheard Friday night, Saturday's viewers should have included many who were coming back for a second treat. You can't ask much more than that.

Predictions For New Year Begin

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—An era in American business came to a jolting end during the week with Studebaker Corp.'s decision to quit making automobiles in the United States.

The number of major U.S. carmakers, once numbered in the hundreds, was cut to four with Studebaker's withdrawal.

The action produced a bleak Christmas outlook for 7,000 workers who will lose their jobs in South Bend, Ind., where Studebaker assembled its cars.

The job crisis became widespread when Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced that 26 military bases in the United States will be closed. This meant the elimination of 8,500 civilian jobs. But McNamara said those workers will be offered another job opportunity.

Studebaker has been making cars in South Bend for 60 years, and before that was a successful wagonmaker.

The company will continue manufacturing autos at its Hamilton, Ont., plant in Canada at a reduced rate and will supply parts to dealers.

Explaining the decision to abandon production in this country, Chairman Randolph H. Guthrie said Studebaker had lost $40 million since 1959 on its domestic car operations and was being "bled to death" at South Bend.

In the first nine months of this year, when the 1964 models flopped, the company lost $9.8 million.

Elsewhere, the automobile industry was flourishing. Production during the week was estimated at a record 190,700 passenger cars, compared with 187,337 the previous week and 176,109 a year ago.

or accompanied by driving while laid to one single factor, I would say that general carelessness and inattentiveness, coupled with disregard for the law, would stand out."

AUSTIN (AP)—The state police director urged Texas motorists today to do more than drive safely during the Christmas-New Year holidays to reduce an expected toll of 96 traffic deaths.

Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, called on motorists to "drive legally on holiday excursions and not only watch out for those who don't but report them to the nearest police agency."

Garrison said department statisticians predict 180 persons will die violently during "Operation Deathwatch" from midnight Dec. 23 to midnight Jan. 1.

The department expects 96 traffic deaths, 40 suicides and homicides and a 44 accidental deaths.

The department counted 110 traffic deaths during the last Christmas-New Year holiday, compared to a prediction of 92.

Garrison said the department will strengthen the highway patrol with 150 men from other uniformed services.

"The most effective work in the drive to cut down on deaths, injuries and economic loss can be done by the drivers themselves."

"Studies indicate that speed too fast for conditions was a major factor last year, followed

Christmas Pilgrimage

By KATHLEEN DOZIER

If your Christmas enthusiasm is lagging, get into the spirit of things by making the Christmas Pilgrimage of Homes. You will return home—maybe tired but terrifically inspired.

Both indoor and outdoor decorations will be featured this afternoon during your visit to the various houses, and all of this was arranged by the 1946 Hyperion Club. Tickets are available at the door of the residence you wish to visit first. Hours are from 2 until 5 o'clock.

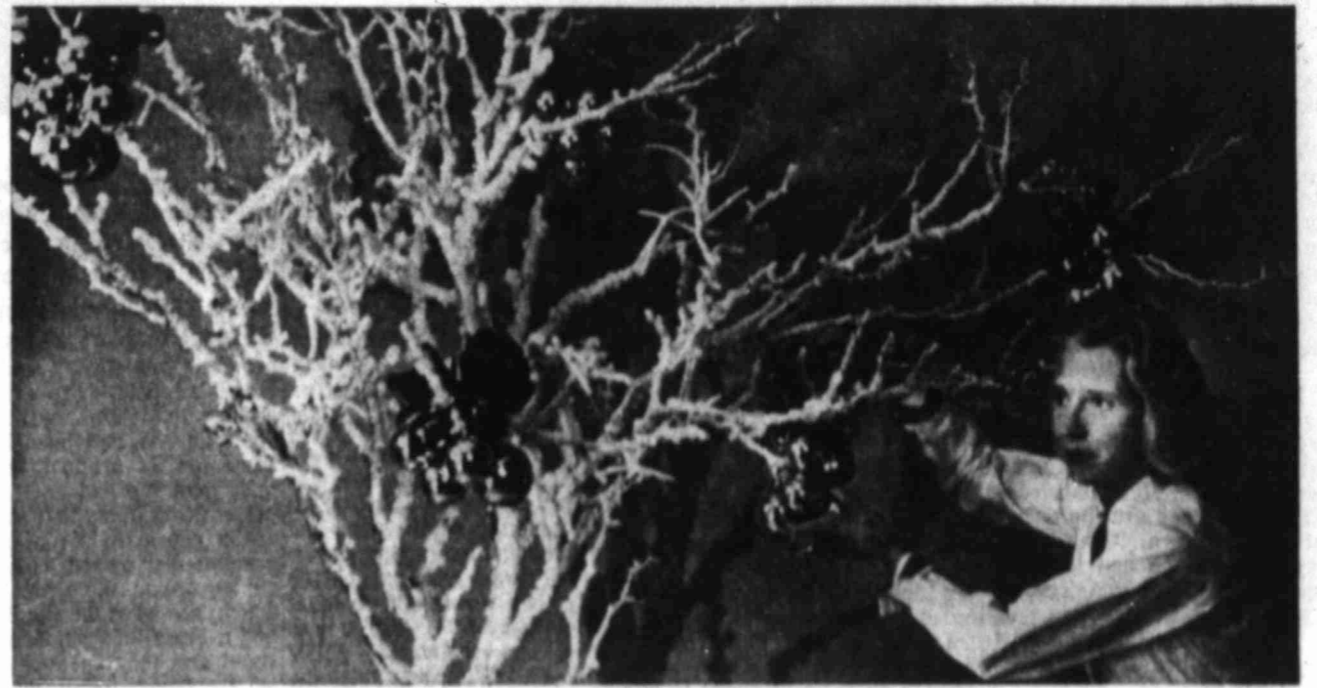

Included in the holiday tour are the homes of Mrs. E. H. Boullion Jr., 807 W. 14th St.; Mrs. Les Beauvais, 615 Highland; Mrs. Bennett Brooke, 700 Dallas; Mrs. G. D. Gingold, 1717 Yale; and Mrs. Grant Boardman, Edgemere Addition.

Co-hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Milton Talbot, Mrs. Carl Marcum, Mrs. Rene Brown, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Charles Rainwater, Mrs. Wes Shouse, Mrs. J. H. Fish, Mrs. Mel Porter, Mrs. Jerry Jenkins, Mrs. Jack Cook, Mrs. T. W. Fetters, Mrs. Dean Armbrust, Mrs. Edwin Ballard and Mrs. J. W. Tipton.

THE CHRISTMAS CAROL, a familiar story that is treasured by children and parents alike. This story by Charles Dickens sets the theme for decorations in the home of Mrs. Grant Boardman, Edgemere Addition. Mrs. Edwin Ballard is shown with a life-size doll which she dressed to resemble Tiny Tim, one of the principal characters of the story.

WEST TEXAS contributes mesquite and tumbleweeds for ingenious decoration at Christmastime. Mrs. G. D. Gingold, top, ties giant clusters of red balls to a flocked branch of mesquite. Also for today's pilgrimage, she has in the den a lighted, tumbleweed chandelier. Below, Mrs. Thomas Fetter admires a tranquil arrangement of madonna and child, encased in angel hair and glass. This, too, is to be featured at the Gingold home.

Herald Photos
By Keith McMillin

CAROLING is one of the many facets of Christmas, and the street scene with carolers is typical of Old England. This was duplicated with small, handmade figures for a table arrangement in the Grant

Boardman home. Life-size figures of Pickwick characters are being used for the outdoor decoration. All are authentically attired in period dress of the mid-19th Century.

HOLIDAY HOSPITALITY will be expressed at a tea in the home of Mrs. Bennett Brooke, 700 Dallas, during the afternoon Pilgrimage of Homes. Hostesses will be members of the 1946 Hyperion group, the sponsors of the pilgrimage. Simplicity is the keynote for beautiful decorations in the Brooke home where Mrs. H. M. Jarrett, a member of the hostess group, is shown at the tea service. Mrs. Brooke lights the gold candles which are in keeping with a gold and pink motif.

Modern Women Play Game Cleopatra Pursued On Nile

By JO BRIGHT

Whatever else Cleopatra may have devised for amusement, in the absence of Anthony, Shakespeare would have us believe that she played billiards.

In Act II, Scene IV, of "Anthony and Cleopatra" he has her speak the line, "Let us to billiards; come, Charmian." We are not told how well the lady played—or who scored what.

History does reveal, however, that the game has been played by both men and women since ancient times. The origin of the game is hazy; historians disagreeing on whether it had its beginning in Ireland, England, Italy, Spain or France.

In an American textbook, "Modern Billiards," it is stated that a king of Ireland in the second century left behind him "55 billiard balls, of brass, and the pools and cues of the same material."

Although brass equipment was abandoned, the basic pieces remain almost the same in size and shape. The standard English billiard table measures approximately 12 by 6 feet wide and stands just under three feet in height. French and American billiards are played on a table nearer 8 by 4 feet wide.

LOCAL INTEREST

Local residents who would like to see more women show an interest in the game that intrigued Cleopatra are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McMullan, 1309 Princeton. They are the owners of Southwestern Billiard Supply Co., and he and their son operate the Cue and Triangle Club.

The McMullan family, consisting of two households, moved here recently from Odessa. Charles McMullan, 19, lives with his parents. An older brother, William Lee, is married and makes a home at 1603 E. 6th St. He and his wife, Sammie Ann, have a four-month-old girl named Sheri Ann.

MR. AND MRS. W. H. McMULLAN AND CHARLES

William was the first to come to Big Spring when he opened the club several months ago. "We decided to move here, too, because it would be more convenient for the business besides keeping the family together," said McMullan. In operating the billiard supply business, he and Charles travel an area from El Paso to Fort Worth; Amarillo to Roswell. They make service calls about every three months.

McMullan said that billiard clubs have experienced a period of transition in recent years. Where once they were exclusively for men, now they welcome women guests and cater to their wishes. Even the setting has changed. Modern decor has brought light, bright colors to even the table felt. Traditional green is now replaced by any of six new colors including tangerine.

RANCHERS

Surprisingly, the McMullans

are ranchers at heart. Both were reared near Snyder. Before retiring, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cauble, operated two ranches near Snyder and one at Aspermont. His parents were the R. L. McMullans, a pioneer ranching family in the area.

Mrs. McMullan has taken active part in Charles' 4-H work with sheep and lambs. She has accompanied him and his friends to the state shows and can tell some interesting stories of their adventures along the way. When the family lived at Zepher in 1958-59, Charles was chosen the outstanding 4-H'er by the Lions' Club and later exhibited grand champion lambs at the Ector County Fair in Odessa. He is in partnership with a cousin who ranches in House, N. M.

ANTIQUES

Much of the furniture in the McMullan home is antique—

but functional. The couple, who has celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary, began collecting soon after their marriage. "We didn't take a honeymoon trip until 16 years ago and we acquired this then," said Mrs. McMullan, pointing to a fine oak chest with white marble top. She said she had been offered more for its original teardrop pulls than she had paid for the piece. Other items that she likes are a chocolate set which her grandmother owned and a chair which she uses in the kitchen and a beautifully grained washstand and mirror which stands in the living room. McMullan did most of the refinishing.

"I would not have anything in my home that I would not feel free to use every day," said Mrs. McMullan. With that, she served coffee in Spode china cups with antique silver spoons resting on the saucers.

Wives Group Has Holiday Coffees

Informal holiday coffees were held Thursday and Friday mornings from 9:30 until 11 o'clock at the John H. Lee Service Club. Webb Air Force Base. Hostesses were members of the Servicemen's Wives' Club.

Honored Thursday were first sergeants, and guests Friday were the base section commanders. Cakes and breads were served from a table covered with a Christmas cloth. In the center was placed an arrangement of tall red candles based in green foliage and surrounded by pine cones. Presiding at the silver coffee service were Mrs. Roy Messer, Mrs. Al Thompson, Mrs. Richard Davis and Mrs. William H. Russell.

Baptists Pray For Missions

A week of prayer for foreign missions ended Friday at Stadium Baptist Church. Programs were presented by the Woman's Missionary Union each morning and Wednesday evening at the church.

The theme for the week was "Crown Him, Lord of All." The programs and their leaders for each day were Monday, "Crown Him Lord of the Orient," Mrs. C. L. McKinney; Tuesday, "Crown Him Lord Among the Peoples of Africa, Europe and the Near East," Mrs. A. C. Faulkner; and Wednesday, "Crown Him Lord of Every Kindred and Tribe" under the direction of the Mens' Brotherhood and Royal Ambassadors.

Thursday's program, "Crown Him Lord Among Peoples of Latin America" and the Friday program, "Crown Him Lord of Life" were given by Mrs. H. I. Cox.

A goal of $250 was set by the congregation for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering.

Story And Quiz Given At Party

A Christmas story and Bible quiz were features in a program for the TEL Class, First Baptist Church, Thursday evening. Also included in the Christmas observance was a gift exchange among the eight members and their guest, Mrs. Beatrice Mittel.

Held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Squyres, 1005 Bluebonnet, the party was conducted in keeping with the Christmas theme. The Squyres home was decorated throughout, and the devotion was given by Mrs. Ida Phillips.

Recognition Given... ..Name In Who's Who

By KATHLEEN DOZIER
Fourteen members of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs were included in the third edition of "Who's Who of American Women." One of the 14 honors went to Mrs. Cass Hill, a teacher in the Big Spring schools and a member of the Big Spring B&PWC.

An educator and club woman, Mrs. Hill is a past president of the local club. She is a member of various educational associations and received an award for distinguished service to the Texas Federation in 1959.

A Mississippian by birth, she was born Lavelle McDaniel and was reared at Pontotoc. She attended school and graduated there from a parochial school, Chickasaw College, in 1924. She left Pontotoc to attend one year at the University of Mississippi, Oxford. One summer she was a student at Blue Mountain College, Blue Mountain, Miss.

OKLAHOMA HOME
Having several children to educate, the McDaniels in 1926 moved to Norman, Okla., where the children attended the University of Oklahoma and the parents farmed. Mrs. Hill's parents are living and make their home in Oklahoma City. The teacher received her bachelor's degree in education in 1928 and a master's degree in 1933. About five years later she married Cass Hill, now deceased. The couple moved to the town of Konowa where he was employed with the Kerlyn Oil Co. It was not until 1953 that they moved to Texas. Mrs. Hill, a third grade teacher in Washington Place Elementary School, resides at 406 Circle Drive. Here she is surrounded by flowers and plants which she claims as her chief hobby.

Style Influenced By TV Westerns

Let the others go back to the Roaring 20s for their fashion inspirations. Designer Anne Fogarty has gone back further than that.

Possibly a Western TV fan, Miss Fogarty has captured the styles of the covered wagon days with floor length gowns, embroidered ruffled at the ankles and at the sleeves, scooped low and wide at the neck, and in plaid cotton madras fabric.

P-TA Hears Musical Program

Sixth grade students of Boydston Elementary School presented a Christmas musical program Thursday for members of the Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. J. L. Christensen directed the program and the accompanist was Janice Majors. A pantomime was given by Pat Ray and Johnny Cozart, third grade students.

During the business session, Mrs. Jack Barber reported that sales of U.S. Savings Stamps amounted to $232.75 for November. The group voted to assist with the Mother's March of Dimes Jan. 20.

Mrs. E. M. Wright reported a total membership of 355. The room count was won by Mrs. Davis' first grade class.

A report from the project committee was given by Mrs. Edward Seay, chairman. Members voted to pay $400 for black-out shades to enable more rooms to show educational films.

M. R. Turner told of the state convention held recently in San Antonio. Mrs. Watkins reported that the P-TA City Council had provided gifts and toys to two needy families and urged parents to contribute to the canned goods and clothing drive.

Refreshments were served to 170 children and adults by Mrs. Jack Price, Mrs. Billy Spier and Mrs. N. R. Hocomb. The invocation was by the Rev. J. W. Arnett of Stadium Baptist Church.

International Theme Used In Week Of Prayer

Throughout the week, women of the Knott Baptist Church observed Week of Prayer with programs on the international theme.

The subject, "Crown Him Lord," was carried out in Monday's program, "Among the Peoples of the Orient"; Tuesday, "Among the Peoples of Africa, Europe and the Near East"; Wednesday, "Of Every Kindred, Every Tribe"; Thursday, "Among the Peoples of Latin America"; and Friday, "Crown Him Lord of Life."

The daily programs were directed by Mrs. J. E. Peugh, prayer chairman, and meditation music was provided by Mrs. Sonny Shroyer.

Special numbers included "Teach Me to Pray," by Mrs. Bruce Parker and Mrs. Bobby Roman, the hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." The closing meditation was given by Mrs. V. L. Jones.

Residents Travel To San Angelo

WEBB WINDSOCK

By MARGE LYNCH
Girls, save your old stockings and bring them to the Powder Room in the Officers' Club. There will be a box there for you to place them in. In case your curiosity is aroused—they will be used in publicity stunts for our welfare benefit.

Because the Air Force discourages the exchange of Christmas cards among personnel at the same base, a tree has been placed in the O'Club for us to hang our greeting cards on.

The Medical wives are sponsoring a crazy hat contest for the January luncheon on the ninth. The hats will be divided into two categories — one for hats made entirely from Christmas decorations; the other for the traditional crazy hats made from other materials. There will be three prizes awarded in each category. One for the most original; one for the funniest and one for the prettiest. Sharp-eyed judges will be on hand to choose the winners. So everyone make a hat and come out to the luncheon.

SIGN UP
Please sign up to work on welfare benefit committees before you leave for the holidays. We will begin the publicity Jan. 2 and the advertising campaign Jan. 6.

OWC Budget will be hosted by the 3561st PTS Wives Dec. 19 at the O'Club at 1 p.m.

Crepe de menthe parfait and Christmas cookies were served at the December meeting of the 3561st PTS Wives hosted by Green Flight. Farewells were said to Mrs. Roland Ballow, Mrs. Herschel Wells, Mrs. Kurt Roelofs, and Mrs. Louis Rabin. Each of these girls, whose husbands are returning to civilian life, received a Texas state charm. One girl at each table received the little centerpiece, a Santa Claus light switch plate cover. Door prizes were won by Mrs. B. F. Yeargin, Rosemary Seegers and Mrs. Bruce Hass.

Capt. and Mrs. Leonard Tovea entertained the 3561st PTS check section at a farewell dinner for Capt. and Mrs. Karl Swainston and Capt. and Mrs. Herschel Wells. Pheasant, quail and deer sausage hors d'oeuvres were some of the delicacies on the menu. The cake was decorated to symbolize their future civilian occupations.

BASE WIVES
The Air Base wives were at the O'Club for their monthly meeting. Mrs. Charles Head and Mrs. Charles Penn were the hostesses. Centered on a green cloth was an arrangement of red poinsettias and Christmas balls encircled by white Dresden angels. Christmas party fare was served, and Mrs. John Bartlett was a guest. Newcomers welcomed were Peggy Thompson and Mrs. Thomas L. Legler. Mrs. L. V. Smoll, who is leaving soon for Amarillo, received a lovely silver tray from the group.

FAREWELL PARTY
A farewell party was given Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Herschel Wells, who is returning to civilian life in Austin. Given at the home of Mrs. Burt Huffines, the party had as cohostesses, Mrs. John Kubin and Mrs. Dwight Hartzell. Christmas punch was served with various Christmas dainties.

Wednesday evening the Big Spring Country Club was the scene of a farewell bridge party for Mrs. Stu Howerter, who is returning to civilian life in Nebraska, and Mrs. Louis Rabin, returning to civilian life in South Carolina. The party was given by Mrs. Ronald Storz, Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. Warren Meerdink. Strawberry torte was served to the nine tables of bridge. Mrs. L. L. Patton had the high score and Mrs. Sam Colquitt had the low score.

Friends of Mrs. Leonard Tovea gathered at her home last Friday for a punch party featuring Sugar Plum punch and homemade candies and cookies.

Visits Mother In Louisiana Home

FORSAN (SC) — Mrs. L. W. Willis has returned from Oil City, La., where she visited her mother, Mrs. L. E. Rowell, who had been ill.

Hugh Newcomb has been a patient this week at Medical Arts Clinic-Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kubecka are spending the weekend in Midland with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Moore, Cheryl and Angela, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Moore.

Shalimar
by Thomasville

Your head says "contemporary", your heart melts to something a bit more mellow. Predicament? No, because Thomasville has created Shalimar for people just like you. Here in this one bedroom scene are motifs from many lands: exotic woven teak doors in armoire, dresser and nightstand... "Balinese" legs on dresser... the slightly Far Eastern flavor of acacia-burl-and-cane headboard... brass hardware that will remind you of mosques and temple bells... the captain's chair that could easily have sailed around the world. See these and many more... all in Batik Walnut... from the Shalimar Collection for living, dining and bedroom.

MRS. JOE BOB KITCHING JR.

Couple Pledges Vows In Corpus Christi

Miss Thelma Sygale Compton became the bride of Joe Bob Kitching Jr. in a double ring ceremony performed at 8 p.m. Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church at Keller. The nuptial rites were read by the Rev. Noah Phillips, pastor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Compton, Keller, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Kitching Sr. of Corpus Christi.

Green palms formed the background for an arch of candles on each side of the altar. At the organ Miss Donna Armstrong played "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace dress styled with a straight skirt and tie belt. The bodice featured a rounded neckline and long, fitted sleeves. She carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias centered in white carnations atop a white Bible.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. J. P. Kitching of Corpus Christi. Her dress was of pastel blue nylon with straight skirt and three-quarter length sleeves.

The best man was Joe B. Kitching Sr., father of the bridegroom. Ushers were Marvin L. Compton, Asst. brother of the bride, and Jimmy P. Kitching, Corpus Christi, cousin of the bridegroom.

RECEPTION
Joining the bride and bridegroom in the receiving line during a reception in Fellowship Hall were their parents and the matron of honor.

The refreshment table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a mixed bouquet. The three tiered white frosted cake was decorated with blue roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

WEDDING TRIP
For the wedding trip to cities in West Texas, the bride was attired in a blue, three piece suit of wool with which she wore black accessories. Upon returning, the couple will reside in Corpus Christi where he is employed as electrician at the Robert Driscoll Hotel.

The bride is a graduate of Keller High School. The bridegroom, a former Big Spring resident, is a graduate of the W. B. Ray High School in Corpus Christi and is attending Del Mar College.

SQUADRON SCROLL

Webb Bustling With Yuletide Preparation

By KAREN SANDERSON

Everyone at Webb is looking forward to the holidays, bustling with their Christmas shopping and getting ready to go home. Decorations, tinsel-laden trees, carols and Christmas stories all add to this spirit that will grow steadily through the rest of the year, but a little snow really makes it authentic.

During the Student Squadron Wives meeting Thursday the Howard County Junior College Choir made the Officer's Open Mess ring with a tingling program of Christmas carols. The wives got in on it too, as they joined the choir and sang "White Christmas," "Deck the Halls," and several other songs. After the song fest, eggnog and decorated cookies completed the afternoon. With Christmas on our minds it only seems appropriate for it to be party time. Class 64-F wives met at the home of Mrs. Steve Winebarger Monday evening for a class session and Christmas party. Assorted goodies were served by the hostess.

EGGNOG PARTY
The wives of 64-H will meet at the home of Mrs. Joseph Johnson for an eggnog party. Hot apple cider, applesauce and spice cake will also be part of the refreshments while the wives make Christmas decorations.

Class 64-G met last evening at the home of Lt. and Mrs. George Brower for a class Christmas party. A green net Christmas tree added to the theme, and the hot-buttered rum was a real holiday treat.

A community Toastmasters' Christmas party at the Cosden Country Club included Lt. and Mrs. Kenneth Phiel and Lt. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson of 64-H. Mrs. Richard Johnson of Class 64-G was honored with a birthday-bridge party last week at the home of Lt. and Mrs.

Clement Twiford. Lt. Robert Horning is back in Willford Hall Hospital at Lackland AFB after spending four days at home last week. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Horning of Revere, Minn., arrived for their Christmas visit in time to drive him back to San Antonio.

SPOTLIGHT
The Student Squadron Spotlight shines brightly on the treasurer of the Student Squadron, Mrs. Clement Twiford. Katy is kept busy at home with Babbette, sometimes better known as Punkin', but her schedule doesn't keep her from being active in class activities. She's an "Incher" on the bowling league and is an avid bridge player. Katy is from South Carolina, graduated from college there and did some teaching before becoming an Air Force wife.

By next weekend many of us hope to be headed for home to spend the holidays with families and friends. Remember to drive safely so that it will definitely be a Merry Christmas.

Look Your Best For Christmas

To look your best in glamorous low-cut dresses, pay special beauty attention to arms and shoulders. Twenty-four hours before the party is time enough for a bare-shouldered beauty program.

Elbows are often the greatest beauty offenders. Scrub elbows with a soapy brush until they're pink. Next, mix a tablespoon of salad oil with a tablespoon of lemon juice. Rub on the elbows, letting it remain a few minutes, then rinse off.

Next apply a rich hand lotion over arms, neck and shoulders. Massage it in, using an upward motion. Be especially generous with time and lotion at the elbows. Repeat applications of lotions several times during the day, blotting off excess lotion to avoid staining garments.

When you are ready to dress for the party, smooth a moisturizing lotion over arms, neck, shoulders and back. Puff on powder in a pinkish tone, using a crumpled tissue to remove excess powder. The result: a lovely and luminous look that complements the flattery of low-cut evening fashions.

Complements

Peanut butter and bacon sandwiches are good served with freshly-cooked applesauce. Try the combination on your youngsters!

What??? Carpet In Your Kitchen? A Wonderful Xmas Gift For The Home!

Lucille Jay, as shown here, insists that her RED CAPRALAN NYLON CARPET, which was installed two years ago in her kitchen at 400 Hillside Drive, has taken a lot of wear under normal every-day living. With this experience Lucille sincerely believes that carpet is easier to keep, less expensive, and more practical than any other floor covering for the kitchen. When you carpet your home be sure to include your kitchen. If your home is already carpeted then this CHRISTMAS is an ideal time for you to get that queenly feeling which only beautiful carpet under foot in your kitchen can give. Incidentally—this carpet shown here was purchased from THE CARPET STORE where you can always depend on the STYLE—QUALITY—AND FAIR PRICES. HINTS FROM HELOISE

Shape Tree To Please Using Green Thread

Dear Heloise: A small spool of green thread from the dime store wound back and forth from the branches to the trunk of a fully trimmed Christmas tree will raise the branches to a symmetrical level and keep the tree from drooping. Also, the thread is invisible, no matter how much you use. Heavy duty thread is best but regular size will do. If the branch is heavy, just double it.—Dorothy Bryant petticoats which was yards and yards wide. How about that for a suggestion?—Marie D. Mont

Dear Heloise: When ironing little girls' dresses — for those hard-to-get-at places — I keep an old piece of toweling near my ironing board and stuff the toweling into the puffed sleeves and then iron 'em. Makes for a perfectly ironed puff.—Ariene Briscare of the Big Spring Herald.

Dear Heloise: Here is a tip to the gals for cleaning those old hard-to-clean utensils, such as toasters, rotisseries and such. When applying polish apply it with a very fine piece of steel wool. The results will be amazing! Cleans and polishes at the same time.—H. S. Jenkin

MRS. GERARD SMITHWICK

Couple Marries In Webb Chapel Service

A chapel wedding for Miss Marcia Baker and Airman 2C Gerard Smithwick was conducted Saturday afternoon at Webb Air Force Base. Vows were exchanged at mid-afternoon in a double ring service performed by the Rev. James R. Plummer, Catholic chaplain. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Ray Baker, 4407 Connally, and Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Smithwick, Long Island, N.Y. Green foliage marked the nuptial scene, and a program of sacred music was provided by the chapel organist. Given in marriage by Sgt. Richard Clark, the bride wore a sheath of looped, mohair. The street-length style featured long sleeves and a high neckline.

She wore a matching white pillbox with a short veil secured by a lace rosette on top of the hat. She wore a white orchid shoulder corsage. Miss Laura Thomas was maid of honor. She was attired in a navy blue suit and matching accessories. Sgt. Alois Duley was best man. After a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the couple will reside at 1407 Connally. They will make their home in Big Spring until next September when Smithwick completes his military service and they will move to New York. The bride is a senior at Big Spring High School. Smithwick is a graduate of Copague High School.

Now aren't you clever to think of that one? There always seems to be one main branch out of place. Thanks, Dorothy. Heloise

Dear Heloise: Since winter has come many girls are wearing knitted tights. Here is a hint to make them dry faster: Bend a wire coat hanger into the shape of a circle and put the waist band of the tights on this hanger. You will be amazed how much quicker they dry.—Faithful

Dear Heloise: About seven years ago my husband decided that Mother should be in on some of the fun watching the children enjoy themselves Christmas morning and not in the kitchen trying to get a big meal, which when ready . . . was never eaten . . . because our boys were much too excited with the things Santa had left . . . so we started having our Christmas dinner on Christmas Eve. On Christmas Day a buffet-style dinner is set out on our table and if and when a youngster or the oldsters are hungry they help themselves to what they want! And . . . as often as they like. I always use paper plates so that there are not a lot of dishes to wash later. If we have company over the holiday, and we often do, I buy the fancy Christmas paper plates to make it more festive. My menu is ham or turkey for sandwiches, potato salad or potato chips and favorite dip, chilled tomato juice or apple cider, cranberry sauce, coffee and milk, plus a plate of various Christmas cookies. You cannot imagine how much more fun it is on Christmas morning not having to worry about getting a big meal, doing the dishes and cleaning up afterwards! The day is left free to enjoy the children and to go visiting later in the afternoon if one cares to do so. Now I really enjoy Christmas Day as do the others in our home.—Mrs. Phillip H. Powell

Dear Heloise: I have found another use for your wonderful nylon net. I tried everything and could not remove that gummy backing left when removing labels from my plastic wastebasket. Your net did the trick! And do you know where I got that nylon? I cut up one of my old

TETE-a-TETE by kathleen dozier

Have you ever thought about our Christmas celebration—how different it must be from the first festival? We are told that the original celebration of the Christ child's birth was sometime during the Fourth Century. Surely something of that first observance must have survived the ages. We have borrowed from throughout the world to create the American version of the feast. Possibly the English influence is predominant, but their Christmas is basically Celtic intermingled with a little of the Roman influence such as the Christmas tree. Thinking it over, I guess the only genuine American contribution to the Christmas festival is electric lighting. Electric tree lights have almost, if not entirely, replaced the Christmas tree candles. It wasn't long after indoor tree lights received popular acceptance when the outdoor light strings were made available. In time, lawns and houses along the streets became radiant for the Christmas season, displaying magnificent manger scenes, snowmen, Santas, reindeer and other works of art. Now, almost a thing of the past is the simple evergreen wreath centered with a large red bow and hung on the door. The lovely old-fashioned wreath is still cherished by some, but most popular are doors which resemble packages - lighted elaborately to reflect on metallic wrappings; entrances flanked by enormous candles and hung with magnificent Della Robia clusters; and the Christmas - card door, a fanciful and festive greeting to holiday guests. Some years back, neighbors vied with one another, erecting spectacular displays. Then the outdoor Christmas decorating trend reached the attention of the city and its merchants. After all the citizens' efforts deserved credit, so annual contests began and awards made for the best outdoor lighting and decorating. This week the city will be a glorious, galaxy of color, and a drive through the residential areas at night will be well worth your time. And if you intend to participate, register with the Chamber of Commerce. Edith Gay will be happy to help you.

Boulliouns Are Hosts At Dinner

A dinner party was served Friday evening in holiday surroundings at the Big Spring Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Boullioun Sr. were the hosts. Attired in a green, sequined silk gown and matching shoes, Mrs. Boullioun received the 79 guests with her husband. Centering the dais in the dining room was a revolving, red poinsettia tree which was lighted with tiny votive lights. On each side of the dais stood large white urns filled with poinsettias. Serving tables were covered with skirted red cloths having white napkins in contrast. Giant white candles adorned with poinsettias centered the tables.

Note to new brides: Was a coffee percolator among your wedding gifts? Remember to use low heat when you are using the utensil so the percolating will go on slowly.

Snow Scene Is Festive

Falling snow made a setting of winter white Friday when members of The Woman's Forum gathered at the Blue Room of Cosden Country Club for their annual Christmas luncheon. Hostesses were Mrs. L. B. Maulden, Mrs. C. D. McDonald and Mrs. Joe Pickle. Mrs. J. C. Pickle, a guest speaker, brought a program on Christmas Thoughts which included a humorous reading, "Dear Madam: Please to Contribute —," and Roark Bradford's "How Come It's Christmas." Mrs. Jack Smith was also a guest. Mrs. Jack Johnson presided, and Mrs. Joe Pickle gave the invocation. Tables were decorated with frosted pine which was interspersed with red and green bangles, and at intervals were placed hurricane lamps which held lighted, red candles. The head table was centered with an arrangement of red, green and gold balls surrounding a large red decorated candle. White and gold angels were placed on either side. The buffet held a tall white candle based in gold balls and ribbon; frosted balls of gold, silver, blue and green were clustered in clear glass vases which flanked the arrangement. Gifts were distributed from a white tree, decorated with golden satin balls and gold lights. Members and guests matched their numbers, which were made into Christmas rhymes, with numbers on the packages. Following the gift exchange Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr. announced plans for the state hospital Christmas party Dec. 19. Helpers will be Mrs. W. N. Norred, Mrs. Wayne Vaughn, Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. Lucian Jones, Mrs. Bert Shive and Mrs. Joe Pickle. Twenty-two were present for the affair.

Try Tricks That Match The Mood

Holiday parties are the time to look your loveliest. Try these special occasion makeup tricks for the glowing look that matches your festive mood. The luminous look—radiant as a Christmas candle—starts with your favorite foundation, applied over scrupulously clean skin. Next, apply a tiny dab of moisturizer over the foundation at forehead, cheeks and chin. Blot lightly and you have the beginning of a holiday glow. Rouge, brushed lightly across the cheek bones adds a natural blush. You can even blend it lightly into the hairline for an extra glow. But if you're wearing a bright red dress, or you have a florid complexion, omit rouge entirely. The next step in your holiday makeup plan calls for loose powder in a pinkish cast, several shades lighter than your foundation. Press on the powder generously, never rub it in. Then brush off the excess, using a light, downward dusting motion. To complete the holiday picture, apply eye makeup. Now's the time to try Christmas-tree green eyeshadow, and to be daring with eye-liner . . . mascara. Be sure to apply mascara to the lower lashes for the wide-eyed look. Hold a folded tissue under the lashes when you brush on mascara to prevent unattractive smudges. After applying mascara, hold the tissue in place a few seconds to allow mascara to dry.

Young People Gather For Church Banquet

The Young Adult Department of Baptist Temple gathered Friday evening in the Rock Room of Master's Cafeteria for the annual Christmas banquet.

The Rev. James Puckett presided as master of ceremonies, and the invocation was given by Phil Grisham. Mrs. H. M. Jarrett, department superintendent extended the welcome and recognized those who arranged the dinner.

"Silver Bells" was sung by Mrs. Charles Dunnam and Mrs. Alvis Harry. Mrs. Bob Newsom read a satire of "The Night Before Christmas." Guest speaker for the occasion was the Rev. Curtis Smith, pastor of Airport Baptist Church. Concluding the program, various games were played by the 40 attending.

A red and white color theme was used for the banquet. White linen covered the U-shaped tables where red center stripes were overlaid with angel hair.

Red candles and Christmas balls were placed at intervals along the tables. The center arrangement held a Santa figurine based in white flowers and flanked by tall red candles. Also, red candles burned on the mantle over the fireplace.

Cotillion Club Has Dance Followed By Breakfast

Looking like Christmas, the Big Spring Country Club was the scene for the Cotillion Club's holiday party Saturday evening. About 120 members and guests were present for the event which included dancing and breakfast, hours from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Music was provided by Bobby Burns and his orchestra.

A giant green tree, at one end of the Gold Room, was adorned with gold and red ornaments and lights. Golden reindeer with greenery and large red bows marked the walls, and baskets filled with Christmas greenery and baubles were suspended from the ceiling.

Evergreen ropes with red and gold balls formed runners for the gold-draped hors d'oeuvre table, also used for the buffet breakfast. Silver candelabra holding red candles were based in red and gold ornaments.

The hosts were the Jack Haralsons, the Jack Davises, the James Duncans, the Bill Crookers, the Harrol Joneses, the Jack Littles, the Don Newsoms, the Jerry Spences, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr., the Wes Shouses and the R. H. Weavers.

Pre-Party Session

Mrs. Bass Is Hostess For Forum

Mrs. A. C. Bass, 106 Washington, was hostess at a Friday luncheon for members of the Modern Woman's Forum. A guest for the holiday affair was Mrs. W. G. Wilson.

Mrs. J. S. Sims presented the program, "The Miracle of Christmas." She told of the origin of "Silent Night" and "O, Little Town of Bethlehem," after which the women sang the songs. Roll call was answered by each member telling of memories of past Christmases.

Festive decorations were placed throughout the entertaining area. In the living room, where 11 members exchanged gifts, a gold arrangement was placed near the fireplace. A centerpiece on the dining room table was formed of pink net and tinsel with Christmas balls.

The Jan. 10 meeting will be with Mrs. A. B. Wade, 1405 Runnels St.

Christmas Events And Installation Noted

Christmas events and installation of new officers highlighted the Home Demonstration week. Also, decorations and other articles suitable for Christmas were displayed by members.

WASSON ROAD CLUB
Christmas ornaments made from plastic bottles were displayed to members of the Wasson Road Club Monday afternoon. Mrs. Jack McCall was hostess at her home with Mrs. Melvin Newton serving as co-hostess.

A Christmas party was scheduled for Dec. 23 at the regular hour of meeting. Mrs. Henry Huestis gave a report on the council meeting and reminded members of the council's Christmas party Dec. 18. Also she asked for helpers to assist with the Hereford show.

The group voted to send a gift of appreciation to the Tom Welches, after which the meeting was concluded with "A Universal Prayer for Peace" given by Mrs. Newton.

LUTHER CLUB
Mrs. Delaine Crawford, HD agent, was a special guest for a dinner given at the Downtown Tea Room by the Luther Club. Another special guest for the evening was Mrs. Ella Gill.

Following the dinner, a party and gift exchange was held at the home of Mrs. "Vulvine" Hamilton. The next meeting is slated for Jan. 9 at the home of Mrs. Louis Underwood.

KNOTT CLUB
Mrs. Sonny Shroyer was hostess to the Knott Club's annual Christmas party Tuesday. Mrs. Billy Gaskin gave the devotion and officers were installed.

The installation was conducted by Mrs. Crawford who used a tree to represent the club and ornaments to represent the officers and members. Nine members and their guests were served a buffet luncheon. Silver trees formed designs in the red-covered table which was centered with a poinsettia and flanking candles.

Mrs. Joe M. Gaskin assisted the hostess in serving, and Mrs. Billy Gaskin distributed the gifts. With the exchange of gifts, secret pals were revealed.

The party was brought to a close with "Silent Night" sung by the group.

FAIRVIEW CLUB
New officers were installed Tuesday afternoon when the Fairview Club met in the home of Mrs. Shirley Fryar. The installation was conducted by Mrs. J. C. Pickle.

Mrs. John Sutherland was installed as president; Mrs. H. S. Hanson, vice president; Mrs. O. D. Engle, secretary; Mrs. J. M. Smith, treasurer; and Mrs. Hanson, council delegate.

Members were reminded that the club would provide one worker and four pies for the Hereford sale Saturday.

Secret pal gifts were exchanged and refreshments served to the members and guests, Mrs. J. C. Pickle and Mrs. Arthur Pickle. A white cutwork cloth covered the refreshment table which was centered with an arrangement of red candles based in greenery.

Mrs. Lonnie Griffith, 712 Wila, will be hostess to the group at 2 p.m., Jan. 7.

CENTER POINT CLUB
Combining their regular business meeting and Christmas party, members of the Center Point Club met at the home of

Mrs. Alden Ryan, cohostess was Mrs. Earl Hollis.

Mrs. Ernest Lillard opened the meeting with a Christmas poem; Mrs. Bob Wegner led in prayer and roll call was answered with "My Most Memorable Christmas."

Members planned to help furnish pies and beans for the Stock Show and Sale, and Mrs. Bill Eggleston and Mrs. Hollis agreed to work in the kitchen.

Mrs. Don Crittenden, Mrs. L. J. Davidson, Mrs. Alden Ryan and Mrs. Alvin Walker were those appointed to plan for a New Year's party. The HD Council's Christmas party was discussed. Members will help provide cookies and candy for the Wednesday event.

Gifts were exchanged revealing secret pals. Mrs. Lillard and Mrs. Crawford received gift certificates from the club. Holiday refreshments were served from a table spread with a Christmas cloth and appointed with crystal.

Mrs. L. J. Davidson will be hostess for the next meeting Jan. 14 at which time the new officers will preside and new pal names drawn. Mrs. Bob Wagner will furnish the cake.

CITY CLUB
The annual Christmas luncheon of the City Club was held Thursday at Lamar's Restaurant. Mrs. Alton Underwood gave the invocation.

Red and green colors were used in table decorations. Marking each place were small Santa Claus cups filled with miniature poinsettias.

The women met afterward in the home of Mrs. Irvin Daniels. Gifts were exchanged from a white, flocked tree decorated with blue lights and other ornaments.

Mrs. D. D. Johnson announced that the HD Council would hold a Christmas party at 2 p.m., Dec. 19, at First Presbyterian Church. The next regular meeting will be Jan. 10. Twelve members attended.

Launder Elegant Holiday Velvet

If you are shy from the idea of including velvet in your holiday wardrobe because of the problem of caring for it, here are a few hints on proper laundering from the American Institute of Laundering.

Hand launder velvet in mild, sudsy water, wrong side out; this will prevent any lint pick-up on the garment. Dry in a dryer at a very low temperature just long enough to fluff the pile. Brushing and steaming velvet will also give it a new look. Place garment on ironing board, pile side up. Cover with dampened press cloth, move steam or regular iron slowly over the garment, barely making contact with press cloth. Brush pile lightly and hang it with nothing touching the garment.

Before Buying Test Corduroy

Though the majority of corduroy may be colorfast to both sunlight and fading, Mrs. Anne Sterling, director of consumer relations for the American Institute of Laundering, Joliet, Ill., advises shoppers to check labels before buying to make sure that the fabric is fast to washing.

It's also a good idea, Mrs. Sterling suggests, to apply a simple "crocking" test when purchasing dark-colored corduroy. To test for crocking, take a white handkerchief and rub the surface of the fabric briskly. If color comes off, the shopper can expect to have it rub off on other clothing also. And, if the color rubs off when dry, the problem will be even greater when the material is wet. But Mrs. Sterling adds, that having the garment laundered once may help remove the problem.

Toys Are Tools

Toys are the tools with which a child grows, learns, has fun and discovers the world around him. A guide to parents of preschoolers on the significance and wise selection of toys is available in a free booklet, "Play Tools to Shape a Child's World," from Playskool Research, 437 Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois 60654.

New Directors To Serve Permian Bridge Unit

Three new directors to serve two-year terms on the board of the Greater Permian Basin Unit of the American Contract Bridge League were elected Friday at Big Spring Country Club.

Those named were Capt. Ron Kibier, Glenn Riley and Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow. Mrs. Ward Hall, election judge, announced the results of the voting. Hold-over directors are Mrs. John Stone, Mrs. E. L. Powell and Mrs. Elmo Wasson.

The Christmas party for duplicate players will be held next Friday from 12 o'clock noon to 1 p.m. at the club. The regular games will follow.

Players were reminded that the Thursday evening game at the Officer's Club, Webb Air Force Base, will be a special event with trophies and Master Points awarded.

In Friday's games, winners in the north-south position were Mrs. E. L. Powell and Mrs. Elmo Wasson, first; Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow and Mrs. Ty Allen, second; and Mrs. J. D. Robertson and Mrs. John Stone, third.

East-west winners were Mrs. R. H. Weaver and Mrs. James Duncan, first; Mrs. Ward Hall and Mrs. E. O. Ellington, second; and Mrs. Dan Greenwood and Mrs. R. E. Dobbins, third.

Offering Made During Ruth Class' Party

STANTON (SC)—A Lottie Moon Christmas offering was made when the Ruth Sunday class of the First Baptist Church had its annual Christmas party in the home of Mrs. Irvin Myrick.

Mrs. Myrick brought the devotional reading from the books of Luke and Matthew. Mrs. Walter Graves accompanied at the piano as the group sang "Joy To The World" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem." Mrs. D. E. Ory offered prayer. The group contributed canned foods, and a box was prepared for a needy family.

The entertaining rooms featured holiday decorations, and gifts were exchanged from the Christmas tree. The serving table was laid with a Christmas cloth, centered with Christmas arrangement. Assorted party food was served to 12 attending.

They're Sheer And Stretch To Fit

Sheer nylon anklets are now on the market for women and girls who prefer nylons to ankle socks, but who dislike wearing garter bands or girdles to hold them up.

The 15-denier mesh anklets have heel and toe reinforcements and a skin tight stay-up cuff of an imported stretch yarn.

LAUREN BACALL

Lauren Says No One Else Just Like Her

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD—Some Hollywood stars have been accused of lacking individuality, but Lauren Bacall has her full share of this quality. When I mentioned it to her, she smiled. "Regardless of what anyone may think of me, there is no one else like me."

Miss Bacall began her career as a model, and she observed that the non-conformist was in demand most.

"The idea fit in with my thinking because even in school I was not a follower. Individuality. It is not easy to discover the real you from the wealth of influences. Even when I was very young, I had a strong desire to learn. Actually I was bored with modeling, but not with the pay which I used for training to be an actress."

Miss Bacall has frequently been on best-dressed lists. "I wear nothing exciting in 'Shock Treatment.' Most of the time I'm in my white, doctor's coat. I am not the fan of fashion I used to be. At one time I bought much too much. When I went to live in Europe my taste was influenced by the Paris collections. I graduated to the point of wanting to have very good things but fewer of them. It is sort of like paying a great sum for a Rolls Royce and not changing the model every year. Now I wear my clothes from one season to another, and I love them."

Lauren's individuality is expressed in the covered-up, understated look.

"I have always felt that the mystery in a person is gone when too much is revealed and that the most dramatic dresses are most simple."

When Lauren spoke glowingly of her new baby, I complimented her on how successfully she had regained her figure. "You have to exercise," she said, "if you don't want to be flabby. I prefer athletics to gymnastics, but you can't give into yourself or you won't get your figure back. I love to swim, and when it is impossible I can always go through the movements. I lie across a bed so that my arms are free. I pretend to swim either the crawl or the breast stroke. Then I lie on the end of the bed face down and do flutter-kicks up and down. Then I turn over and do the flutter kick on my back. I reach many muscles with this one exercise."

"My greatest beauty secret is getting enough rest. Tension is my big problem. I am still trying to learn how to relax more. I get so tight in the back of my neck and all down my spine that I don't know how I could carry on without the wonderful release that comes from going to an osteopath."

ity is something you have to appreciate. If you don't have a strong personality, it's natural to want to conform.

Lomax HD Club Has Guests
Six guests attended the Christmas luncheon held Thursday in the home of Mrs. T. E. Newman for members of the Lomax Home Demonstration Club.

Welcomed as visitors were Mrs. Raymond Phillips, Mrs. G. B. Putman, Mrs. Carl Fambro, Mrs. E. W. Lomax, Mrs. A. J. Stallings and the HD agent, Mrs. Delaine Crawford.

Following the luncheon Mrs. Wayne Etchison read a Christmas sermon by Peter Marshall. Secret pals were revealed during an exchange of gifts. A holiday theme was evident in decorations used throughout the home.

Shield Knives
Never put a sharp kitchen knife in a drawer unless the blade is shielded. Stored without shielding, the blade might rub against other tools; its sharp edge needs protection. A rack that may be placed in a drawer or hung on the wall is excellent for knife storage.

Winter Lends Party Color

Picturesque snow and ice contributed warmth and hospitality to an open house Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larson Lloyd, Roberts Drive. Guests called during the hours from 6 until 10 o'clock.

An array of traditional red and green holiday arrangements depicted the season and the occasion for the party. In the living room, a silver tree reflected multi-colored lights. Candles, baubles and evergreen, along with burning logs in the fireplace, completed the setting. The hostess wore a brocade and satin at-home gown of champagne shade styled with a long straight skirt and overblouse.

Appointed with silver, the refreshment table was spread with a red Christmas cloth which was appliqued with gold sequins and bordered in gold sequins. Punch and coffee services were placed at each end of the refreshment table, and the centerpiece was a banked arrangement of frosted evergreens and pine cones interspersed with red baubles. Red candles in a graduated formation centered the arrangement. A similar holiday piece was placed on a side table, and a giant-size candle burned at another vantage point.

Those who served were Mrs. Jack Haralson, Mrs. Charles Head, Mrs. R. L. Beale, Mrs. E. W. Dozier and Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr. Each received a Christmas corsage.

Bathroom Drain Aids Cleaning

If you're remodeling bathroom or kitchen with colorful waterproof tile for new work-day efficiency, this one-simple suggestion can go a long way toward making your cleaning problems even easier: Just install a drain right in the tile floor. Then your cleaning will involve only a quick swabbing down with water which can be allowed to run off down the drain. This way there will be no need for that extra swabbing routine of drying off the excess water. For real stubborn stains use a little soap-less detergent in the water.

Keep Cookies Crisp, Crunchy

To keep cookies crisp, try this trick: Line the cookie tin with absorbent tissue, and place another tissue on top of the cookies. The tissues will absorb the moisture, keep cookies crisp and crunchy.

Note Labels As Laundering Guide

When used, labels and hangtags on garments are a reliable guide to the compatibility of fabrics with liquid chlorine bleach. If colorfast dyes have been used, the tag will often indicate that the fabric is bleach-fast or vat dyed. These colorfast garments can be washed according to standard laundering procedures without having to be separated from whites.

Synthetics, especially white nylon, are the only exceptions to bleaching white and colored garments in the same wash-load. Because white man-made fibers have a tendency to pick up even the slightest trace of random color from wash water, synthetics should be treated separately.

Programs Note Week Of Mission Prayer

Special programs were held Monday through Friday at the First Baptist Church in observance of the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions. The theme for the week was "Crown Him Lord."

Mrs. Richard Grimes introduced Monday's program, "Crown Him Lord of the Orient." A solo was presented by Glen Faison and the calendar of prayer read by Mrs. C. O. Hitt. Participating on the program were Mrs. Roy Phillips, the Rev. Robert F. Polk, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Monroe Gaffard, Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. W. B. Younger, Mrs. Ray Shortes and Mrs. J. C. Pickle. The benediction was by Omer Williams.

CHAPLAIN PRESIDES
Chaplain C. O. Hitt presided at Tuesday's program, "Crown Him Lord Among the Peoples of Africa, Europe and the Near East." Chaplain Hitt is mission leader for the Mens' Brotherhood. Taking part were Augustin Torres, Dr. Charles Warren, Dr. M. Q. Cauley, B. T. Faulkner, Omer Williams, John Coffey, Grover Shaumy, and Dave Dorchester. A solo by Glen Faison and prayer by Chaplain Hitt concluded the program.

"Crown Him Lord of Every Kindred and Tribe" was the theme for Wednesday. Mrs. Louis Stallings sang "Teach Me to Pray" and the prayer calendar was read by Mrs. Lester Morton. On the program were Mrs. Billy Joe Reynolds, Mrs. Clyde Angel, Mrs. J. P. Gordon, Mrs. R. L. Cranford, Mrs. Aiken Simpson, Mrs. Julian Baird, Mrs. Bill Irwin, Mrs. J. C. Pickle and Rev. Polk.

THURSDAY EVENT
Introducing Thursday's program "Crown Him Lord Among Peoples of Latin America," was Mrs. Omer Williams. Judy Daniels sang "Teach Me to Pray" and Mrs. Beulah Crabtree read the calendar of prayer. Others participating were Mrs. F. W. Bettie, Mrs. W. B. Younger, Mrs. F. C. Gambill, Mrs. H. H. Winham, Miss Elaine Biffer, Mrs. John Coffee, Mrs. J. C. Pickle and Rev. Polk. The organist was Mrs. Glenn Faison.

Mrs. Walter Wheat introduced the Friday program, "Crown Him Lord of Life," reading scripture and the calendar of prayer. Rev. Polk at the organ accompanied Glen Faison's solo and played "Sweet Hour of Prayer." Taking part on the program were Mrs. Bob Wheeler, Mrs. Bill Bradford, Mrs. Wheat, Mrs. Zack Gray and Faison. The closing prayer was by Bob Wheeler.

Class Has Dinner

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mrs. W. E. Smith Jr. was hostess in her home to the Ruth Sunday School Class of Baptist Church for the annual Christmas dinner. The invocation was given by Mrs. S. L. Yeilding. Mrs. Troy Lankford used the Christmas story found in Luke 2 as her devotional theme for the Thursday event. Gifts were exchanged from the lighted Christmas tree.

The class planned to pack boxes for needy families and to remember the shut-ins with cards.

The buffet style dinner was served to 12 class members and their hostess.

Miss Bailey Married At Home

LAMESA (SC)—Miss Brenda Elaine Bailey and Harold Mills exchanged nuptial vows in home rites Saturday at 3 p.m. The ceremony was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Spurlock with the Rev. L. P. Lee reading the double ring service.

MRS. HAROLD MILLS

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bailey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mills.

The couple stood beneath an arch of greenery. Red and white flowers were scattered, leading to the improvised altar. The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a white wool jersey sheath dress styled with rounded neckline. Her short bluish veil was attached to a tiara crown. She chose matching shoes and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Carley Kellam of Lamesa served as matron of honor. Glen Flippin of Lamesa served as best man, and Douglas Spurlock was the usher.

A reception in the Spurlock home followed. Guests attended from Midland, Rankin, Seminole, Big Spring, Phoenix, Ariz., and Lamesa.

The couple will reside at 1112 1/2 N. Third following a short wedding trip. The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Lamesa High School. Mills also attended Sul Ross College.

Families Visit With Mrs. Davidson

FORSAN (SC) — Mrs. W. F. Davidson had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davidson and family, Morton; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davidson and family, Big Spring; and Mr. and Mrs. Newt Bryant and daughter, Abilene. Mrs. Bryant remained here with her mother for a longer

Mrs. Barber Given Life Membership

A life membership was presented to Mrs. R. L. Baber Thursday when 30 members of Cedar Crest Parent-Teacher Association met at the school.

Mrs. Thomas Carpenter presided as a contract was let to B. F. McChristian who will complete work on the school sidewalk during the holidays.

"Does Our Love Show?" was the topic of Mrs. J. K. Cunningham, guest speaker. She stressed the importance of showing love in the home so that children would grow up in an atmosphere of security.

Refreshments were served by mothers of second grade students.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

People of Big Spring went slowly to the various social activities in progress Friday night, but they went over the icy streets, up and down the hilly new additions, and all were pleased with the accomplishment. Some plans were abandoned by the less intrepid who chose to stay indoors, but others, having braved the weather for one engagement, just made an evening of it.

Open house at the LARSON LLOYD home was a pleasure and the friends called from early in the evening until late. Christmas dresses of the ladies sparked the colorful evening. MRS. RAY DABNEY was striking in a bright green dinner dress with which she wore matching slippers and a white fur shrug. MRS. TOM MARR, as blonde as Mrs. Dabney is brunette, chose a bright red frock with pleated chiffon bodice and taffeta skirt. MRS. CHESTER MATHENY wore a chalk white wool. MRS. GEORGE FRANKS was pretty in blue ensemble that was topped with a sparkling jeweled sweater. The JACK PRICES weren't bothered with the ice, having come here from Alaska and before that, reared in Colorado. It's just the wind that bothers Mrs. Price. It bothers us old timers, too.

At the Woman's Forum luncheon vivid colors were noted in the dress, particularly blue. Bright blue was worn by MRS. MERRILL CREIGHTON and MRS. CHARLES SWEENEY, and lighter shades were chosen by MRS. BERT SHIVE, MRS. W. N. NORRED and MRS. J. C. PICKLE. A really beautiful combination was worn by MRS. W. H. BAIN. Over a brocade in American Beauty red, Mrs. Bain wore a mandarin type matching coat. Her hat is in variegated shades of matching red tulle.

MRS. WAYNE VAUGHN wore a perky small red hat...

MRS. CECIL McDONALD'S white knit sheath was topped by a white sweater trimmed with gold matching her pillbox hat. MRS. L. B. MAULDEN'S red satin hat was decorated with gold beads and sequins.

The ESCOL COMPTONS are deer hunting in the Mason area.

Make-Up Secret Is Powder Blend

The secret of completely smooth, even skin tones is to blend foundation make-up over every part of your skin—even the eyelids, the inner corners of the eyes near the nose, the lips, and around the nostrils. Do not forget to diminish color into hairline and below the jaw.

For a finishing touch of loveliness, apply finishing powder to your entire face. This unique, transparent pressed powder in compact form will give the complexion a natural silky-smooth appearance.

It's Time To Pay Poll Tax

By SAM BLACKBURN

If you want to vote in elections which come up in 1964, you must either hold a receipt showing you have paid your 1963 poll tax or a certificate of exemption.

An election on a proposal to abolish poll tax as a voting requirement was held earlier this fall. The proposal was defeated; hence the poll tax is still a qualification for voting.

Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector, points out that because of the election, voters were advised not to rush in and pay their poll tax. (There was a possibility before the referendum that instead of paying $1.75 for a poll tax receipt the voter might be balloting for a quarter. That was to have been the fee if the poll tax had been abolished and the registration system put in operation.)

Now the time is at hand for paying the poll tax to insure one's right to vote in 1964.

The tragic feature, the tax collector points out, is that less than 500 of the eight or nine thousand qualified voters in this county have obtained poll tax receipts. Of course, they still have about six weeks in which to do so but the tax collector points out that it is advisable to avoid the rush and pay the tax

Year	Paid	Exemptions	Total
1954	2,345	120	2,465
1955	2,811	152	2,963
1956	2,876	127	3,003
1957	2,742	143	2,885
1958	2,458	122	2,580
1959	2,291	174	2,465
1960	2,641	129	2,770
1961	2,781	122	2,903
1962	2,911	142	3,053

earlier. The deadline is Jan. 31. Poll tax receipts issued through Jan. 1, 1964, are acceptable for use in all elections through Jan. 31, 1965.

The ensuing year is of particular political significance. It is a presidential election year, for one thing—an event that usually brings out the heaviest demand for poll tax receipts.

Countywide, the voters will be called upon to elect a district attorney, a county attorney, sheriff, district court clerk, tax assessor and collector, two county commissioners, a justice of the peace.

It is also possible several important elections dealing with bond issues, particularly bonds for school expansion, will be scheduled.

Across the board, 1964 looms as one in which the voters will have many trips to make to the polling places.

There were 11,010 poll tax receipts and exemption certificates issued for 1959. This was the largest number in the decade beginning 1953. (The poll tax receipts now being issued will bear the date 1963 but are usable in elections held in 1964.) Last year's total poll tax receipts and exemption certificates were the smallest in 10 years. There were only 5,911 poll tax receipts and 1,612 exemption certificates issued.

Assuming that voters will be as interested in elections in this important political year as they were in 1959 there is a possibility that perhaps 10,000 men and women will have to be provided with either poll tax receipts or exemption certificates between now and Jan. 31.

Mrs. LeFevre plans to set up a number of special deputyships where poll tax receipts can be obtained. However, the important thing, she warns, is to get your poll tax paid early.

History usually repeats itself the last week or 10 days of each January—belated poll tax payers jam the tax office and crowd the halls. Undoubtedly, this will happen again next month.

The solution is to realize that if you want to vote in 1964 elections you must have your poll tax receipt or your exemption certificate.

And the time to obtain these important documents is at hand.

A voter, who wants to pay his poll tax and insure himself the right to vote in 1964, can do so by mail. All he needs to do is fill out the form printed herewith.

Make sure all information asked is provided. When you have completed the form, sign it, attach your check for $1.75 and mail it to Zirah L. LeFevre, County Tax Assessor-Collector, Howard County Courthouse, Big Spring. On receipt of the application, Mrs. LeFevre will issue a poll tax receipt in your name and mail it back to you.

Pertinent Facts About Poll Tax

LAST DATE—Jan. 31 (Poll tax good 2-1-64 to 1-31-65).

PRICE: Poll Tax—$1.75. Exemption—Free. Disability Poll Tax—$1.

Who needs a Poll Tax or Exemption? Persons between 21 and 60 years of age.

21 AGE GROUP. Any person who has become 21 years old since Jan. 1, 1963, or will become 21 any time in 1964 needs an Exemption (Free).

OVER-AGE GROUP. Every person living inside a city of 10,000 population or greater if born before Jan. 1, 1903 (they must be 61 years or older). Free Exemption must be secured each year. If an over-age person lives OUTSIDE a city of 10,000 population, no exemption certificate is required.

DISABLED PERSON. If a person is deaf, dumb or blind, or permanently disabled or has lost a hand, a foot, or has a disability of 40 per cent or more, an exemption certificate may be secured for $1.

NEW RESIDENTS IN STATE. Free exemption first year, after one year in state and six months in county.

SOLDIERS OF REGULAR ARMY. Poll tax only in county from which they entered the service.

NEW LAW for 1964. The husband or wife, father, mother, son or daughter may pay the tax for the taxpayer, and may sign for the taxpayer when payment is by mail, and may receive the poll tax receipt issued to the taxpayer.

NOTE: All applications must be mailed to the tax collector and be in his possession by midnight, Jan. 31.

Feed Lots Double In Past Two Years

ARILENE — A new livestock feeding survey released this week by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce reveals a total annual capacity of 1,302,442 head in West Texas, which the WTCC says is a 50 per cent increase during the past two years.

Dr. W. L. Stangel, Lubbock, chairman of the livestock feeding committee of the West Texas Chamber, announced results of the survey. He said there are now 493 feeders in the 132-county WTCC area with a total capacity of 520,977 head of cattle at any given time. The total capacity for 12 months is figured at 1,302,442 head.

Material for the feedlot survey was gathered as a public service by Southwestern Public Service Co. and Pioneer Natural Gas Co., both of Amarillo; by the West Texas Utilities Co. of Abilene; and by Texas Electric Service Co. of Fort Worth. The West Texas Chamber compiled the information and prepared the survey.

Ninety-seven counties reported one or more feeders. Tarrant

County (Fort Worth) has the greatest number, 22. Comanche County reported 17 while Hale County and El Paso County each listed 16. Lubbock County had by far the greatest feedlot capacity, being able to feed 50,650 head at one time or 126,625 in a 12-month period. Parmer County's 14 feeders have a capacity of 36,000 head at one time and El Paso 25,000 head at once. Tarrant County lots can handle 21,975 head and Hale County 22,085.

Dr. Stangel, dean emeritus of the School of Agriculture at Texas Tech, said nearby counties in New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas have 90 feeders with a capacity of 144,439 head at one time.

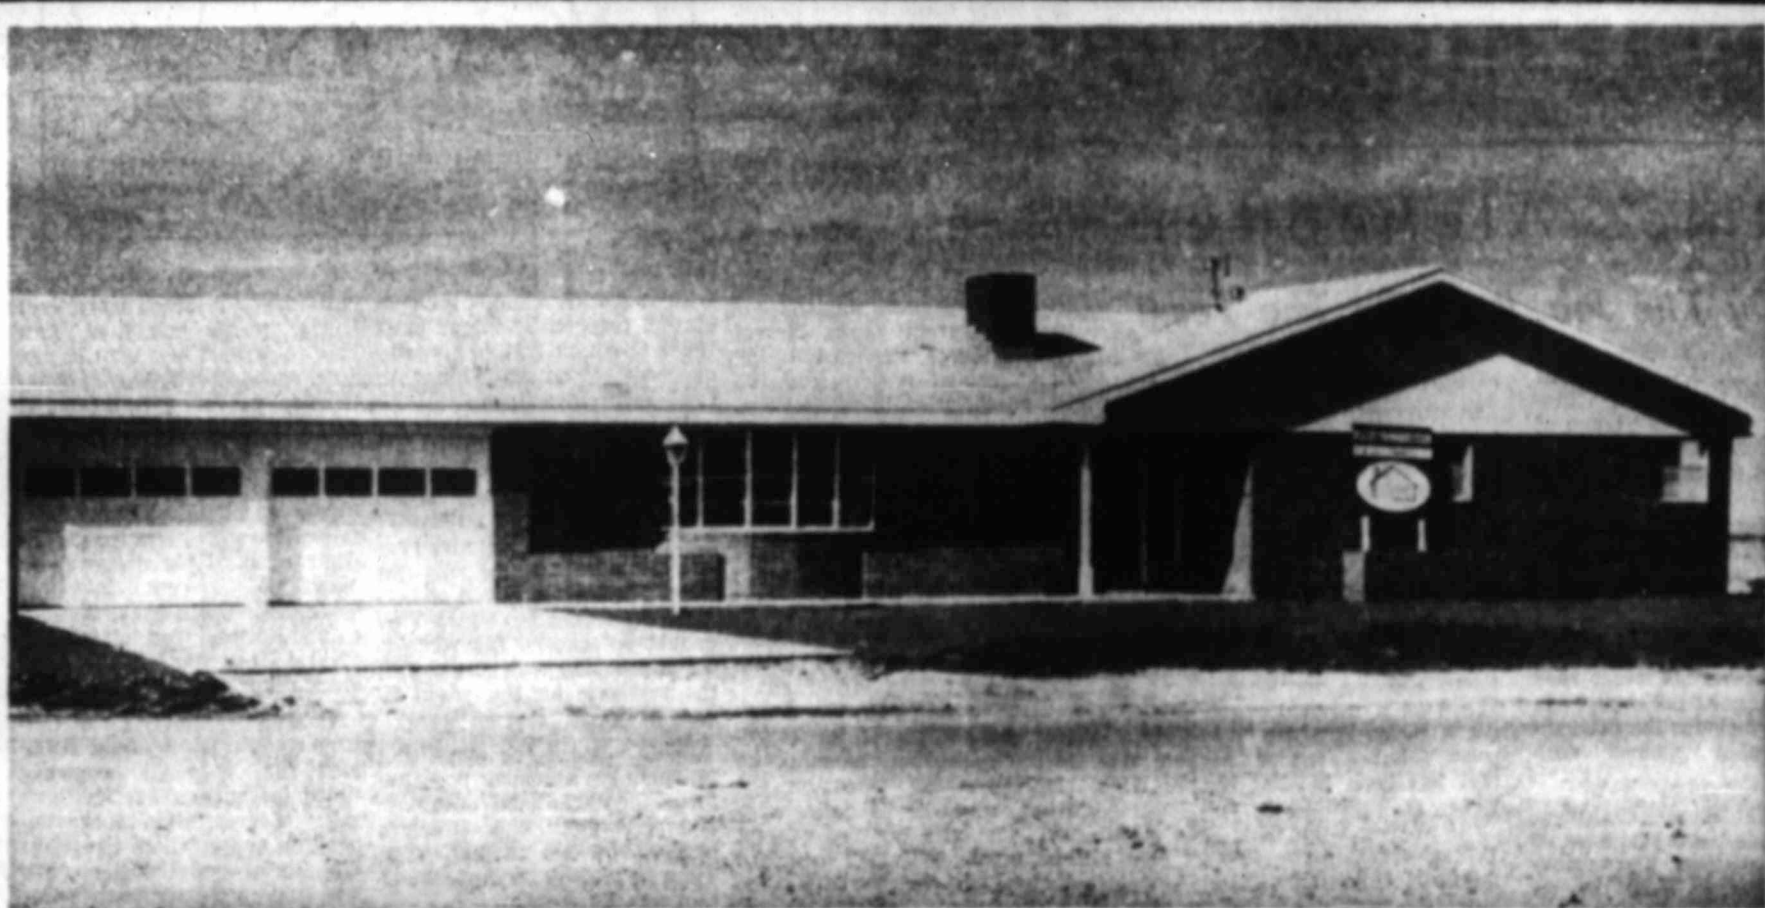

Stangel said the number of feedlots in West Texas had increased greatly since the West Texas Chamber staged its first livestock feeding tour to Iowa in 1960.

Tony P. Morris, machinist mate, third class, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Morris, 1008 Nolan, has just returned from a cruise to the Far East aboard the USS Kearsarge.

Morris will be home in January for a visit with his parents. He is now in Long Beach, Calif. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School and has been in the Navy since Sept. 1961. Morris, born in Rusk County, spent most of his youth here.

TONY P. MORRIS

Army Capt. James A. Hall, whose wife, Barbara, lives at 507 Runnels, Big Spring, is among the 1,000 American military personnel who have received orders to return home from duties in the Republic of Viet Nam. The movement of personnel began Dec. 3.

Capt. Hall served with the U. S. Military Assistance Advisory Group (MAAG), Viet Nam, MAAG, Viet Nam, is an Army-Navy-Marine-Air Force organization which advises the Armed Forces of the Republic of Viet Nam on training, use of equipment and tactical operations.

The 26-year-old officer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hall, Loraine, entered the Army in September, 1959 and had been overseas since last April. A 1954 graduate of Loraine High School, he graduated from Hardin - Simmons University, Abilene, in 1959.

2nd Lt. Murphy A. Woodson of Evansville, Ind., is being reassigned to Othello Air Force Station, Wash., following his graduation from the course for weapons controllers at Tyndall AFB, Fla.

Li. Woodson was given training in the duties of a weapons controller, with emphasis on radarscope and manual air defense system operation. Son of F. P. Woodson of Coahoma, he attended Howard County Junior College, Tennessee Temple College, Chattanooga, and North Texas State University. He holds a B.A. degree.

Li. Woodson was commissioned upon completion of Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex. His wife, Melba, is the daughter of Mrs. Bertha Parish, 909 N. Elliott, Evansville.

Army Spec. 4. James C. Fambro, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Fambro, Route 2, Big Spring, is among the 1,000 American military personnel who have received orders to return home from duties in the Republic of Viet Nam. The movement of personnel began Dec. 3.

Spec. Fambro, who served as a machinist with the U.S. Army Support Group, Viet Nam, entered the Army in May, 1962, completed basic training at Fort Chaffee, Ark., and arrived overseas last February. He is a 1960 graduate of Stanton High School and attended Howard County Junior College in Big Spring. Before entering the Army he was employed by Savage Specialty Tool.

Three area men took part in Exercise Strong Shield as members of the 7th Infantry Division recently in Korea.

Army M.Sgt. George E. Ferguson, whose mother, Mrs. Maudie G. McCuller, and wife, Hannelore, live at 407 S. Third, Lamesa, is a supply sergeant in Headquarters Company of the division's 3rd Brigade. He entered the Army in 1947 and arrived overseas in September, 1963 on this tour of duty. The sergeant is a 1946 graduate of Lamesa High School.

Army Pvt. Jerry M. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie M. Wilson, Coahoma, is a personnel specialist in Headquarters Company of the division's 3rd Brigade. He entered the Army in May, 1963, completed basic training at Fort Polk, La., and arrived overseas last November. The 20-year-old soldier is a 1961 graduate of Borden High School in Gall.

Army Pfc. Weldon R. Menix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie A. Menix, 2220 S. Fifth, Lamesa, is an air frame and engine mechanic in Company B of the division's 7th Aviation Battalion. He entered the Army in January, 1963, completed basic training at Fort Polk, La., and arrived overseas last July. The 21-year-old soldier is a 1961 graduate of Sands High School in Ackerly.

Lewis Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truett Thomas, 428 Westover Road, has enlisted in the Army again for three years. He first entered the Army in 1955. After completing a tour of duty in Germany, he was sent home in 1961 for discharge. He was recalled to active duty in November, 1961 for the Berlin crisis and was assigned to the 4th Army. He was discharged for the second time in August, 1962.

Thomas plans to make a career in the Army and his present duty assignment is in Hawaii.

Jerry A. James, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. James, 807 S. Main, Lamesa, was promoted to Spec. 4 early in November at Fort Hood, where he is serving with the 1st Armored Division.

Specialist James, a mechanic in Headquarters and Company A of the division's 123rd Maintenance Battalion, entered the Army in September, 1961. He was graduated from Lamesa High School in 1961 and was associated with James Appliance Service before entering the Army. His wife, Vinna, lives in Killeen.

Spec. 4. Ronald R. Lindsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lindsey, Coahoma, is home on a 30 day leave from the U.S. Army. Lindsey recently returned from Korea where he served as company clerk for Headquarters Battalion for 13 months.

He is en route to Fort Knox, Ky., for retraining as a track mechanic. Upon completion of this training he will be assigned to the 2nd Armored Division located at Fort Hood. Lindsey graduated from Coahoma High School in May, 1962 and joined the Army in July of the same year.

Pickle-Dobbs Race Climaxes Tuesday

By GARTH JONES
AUSTIN (AP) — Central Texas voters chose Tuesday between a Democratic political friend of President Lyndon Johnson and a Republican supporter of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., for their new congressman.

The winner of the runoff election will succeed Rep. Homer Thornberry, D-Tex., who represented the 10-county district since Johnson went to the Senate in 1948. Thornberry quits Dec. 20 to become federal judge at El Paso.

The runoff candidates are: J. J. Pickle, 49, Democrat, former campaign aide of Johnson and two Texas governors, who quit as a member of the Texas Employment Commission to make the race.

Jim Dobbs, 38, Republican, former Church of Christ minister who quit as narrator of a nationwide conservative radio program, Life Line, to announce as a candidate. Dobbs ran against Thornberry in 1962.

A vote of 35,000 to 40,000 is expected.

Pickle led the first voting in a Nov. 9 special election, 14,366 votes to 13,702 for Dobbs. Dobbs carried Austin and Travis County, which had almost two-thirds of the district's vote, by 9,207 to 8,821.

A third candidate, Democrat Jack Ritter, was squeezed out of the runoff although he polled 13,027 votes. Ritter has endorsed neither candidate and has indicated he will oppose the winner in 1964.

Thornberry endorsed Pickle. President Johnson said in Washington he voted absentee for Pickle.

Gov. John Connally, recuperating from bullet wounds received during the assassination of President Kennedy, had an absentee ballot sent to his hospital room and voted for Pickle.

Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., joined with state GOP leaders in supporting Dobbs.

The Austin Trades Council, made up of AFL-CIO unions, refused to endorse either candidate. Railroad unions endorsed Pickle.

The character of the campaign changed sharply after the Nov. 22 assassination of President Kennedy.

In the November race, Pickle generally was classed as a conservative Democrat, Ritter as a liberal Democrat, and Dobbs as a "Goldwater Republican."

Much of the campaign talk centered around support and criticism of Kennedy's administration.

Both candidates suspended visible activities for almost two weeks after the assassination. Much of the activity has been radio and newspaper advertising and handshaking tours.

"Where is silent Jake, the politicians' choice," Dobbs asked at several recent small gatherings after he got no answer to a debate challenge. "While I continue to urge full discussion of issues my opponent has steadfastly refused to appear and consider pressing matters. His campaign seems to be little more than dodging issues and hiding behind his cronies."

"I like meeting the voters eye-ball to eye-ball," said Pickle recently, estimating he shakes from 500 to 1,000 hands a day. "You can send a representative to Washington who can make a real contribution to your Democratic leadership or you can send one who says 'No, I'm against everything that comes along.' Now which makes sense to you."

"Let's unite behind President Johnson and work together to make our country and our congressional district stronger," said Pickle.

The new director will be chosen by the five highest numbers of votes and will be installed at the annual meeting Jan. 11.

After the directors are known, a nominating committee will meet and make nominees for officers, who will also be installed at the annual meeting.

C-C Members Urged To Vote

Chamber of Commerce members, who have not returned postal card ballots to elect five directors, are reminded that the deadline for ballots is Dec. 18. Five directors are to be elected for three-year periods, Carroll Davidson, Chamber manager, said Friday.

"Ballots are coming in slowly," he said, "and it is important for members to make choices from the 10 names on the ballot."

The new director will be chosen by the five highest numbers of votes and will be installed at the annual meeting Jan. 11.

After the directors are known, a nominating committee will meet and make nominees for officers, who will also be installed at the annual meeting.

Can America hold its lead?

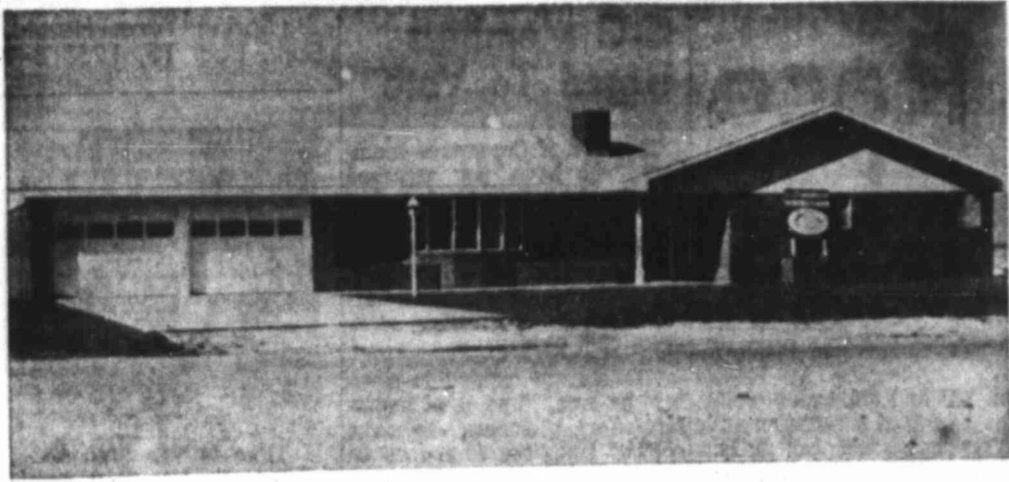

Yes... if we train enough leaders for the job. Leaders are needed to keep us ahead in science and development... business and jobs... living standards.

Where do we get leaders? Colleges supply most of them. But the cost of leadership has gone up. Colleges feel the pinch. They need classrooms, laboratories, able teachers.

To help America, we must help our colleges. College is America's best friend.

Ridges Help Halt Erosion Damage

"Ridges of soil, two to four inches high and placed at right angles to prevailing winds, are more effective for reducing wind erosion in cultivated fields than either higher or lower ridges," Dean V. Armbrust said recently.

Armbrust is a research soil scientist at the Big Spring Field Station with the USDA's Agricultural Research Service. He read the paper before the annual November meeting of the American Society of Agronomy in Denver, Colo. The meeting was also attended by Dr. Jim Box, superintendent of the field station.

"Wind velocity and cloddiness of soil determine which height, within the 2- to 4-inch ridge range, gives optimum protection," Armbrust said.

"Farmers can minimize wind erosion damage to crops by seeding in furrows protected by ridges, placed at right angles to prevailing winds, and by tillage practices that leave clods on the soil surface, or may incorporate stubble, stalks, or straw in the topsoil. Results of the experiments also indicate that emergency tillage to halt soil blowing should include ridging the soil two to four inches high.

"Ridges are less erodible than smooth surfaces because they trap soil particles and help decrease the average wind velocity," Armbrust explained.

He said experiments, conducted at Manhattan, Kan., compared erodibility of ridges 0.5, 1, 2, 4, and 8 inches high when subjected to the equivalent of winds 47, 51, and 56 miles per hour measured 50 feet above a smooth fallow surface. Ridges of simulated soils, containing 0, 6, 12, and 28 per cent non-erodible particles, were placed at right angles to the wind and spaced at distances four times ridge height.

"The most effective ridges were generally one-fifth to one-half as erodible as a smooth surface," Armbrust continued.

"The two-inch ridges, on soils containing six and 12 per cent simulated clods, were least erodible in winds of 47 miles per hour, and the four-inch ridges of the same soil were most effective in 51-mile winds. Eight-inch ridges constructed of no non-erodible particles eroded more than a smooth surface in 51- and 56-mile winds."

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Inclement Weather Slows County's Private Flyers

By M. A. WEBB
The weatherman took charge at Howard County Airport for a time during the past week, and made private flying hazardous and scarce. All sorts of weather was predicted and most of it got here.

The Big Spring Flying Club elected officers at the regular monthly meeting in the Chamber of Commerce office. Wayne Bartlett is president; Bob Brock, vice president; John Stanley, treasurer, and Lindsey Marchbanks, secretary.

"We still have a few memberships available to any one who is interested in flying and wants to own an interest in a couple of airplanes," Bartlett said. "We have a 1962 model Piper Colt and a Cessna Skyhawk. Anyone interested in joining us may get information from the officers, or may write Big Spring Flying Club, Inc., Box 611, Big Spring. Several members of the club have received private licenses since joining the club."

Trans - Texas Airways had to cancel one flight Friday because of the weather, but the staff at Howard County Airport said Friday afternoon that other flights would make it. The ceiling was fairly high to permit landing without difficulty. Some flights were behind schedule.

An idea of how weather affected private flying was shown by airplane reservations in the books of Webb Aero and Big Spring Flying clubs last Friday. For Webb Aero, through Thursday the following made reservations: Cessna 150 - Hall (3), Klopfen (2), Longenecker, Hanson, Mann cross country, Morrington; Colt - Longenecker, Giardina; Tri - Pacer - Longenecker, Braun (2).

Scheduled for Saturday and Sunday were: Cessna 150 - Morrington, Strickler (2); Colt - Giardina (2); Tri - Pacer - Mooney (2); Marschalk cross-country.

Big Spring Flying Club reservations through Thursday showed: Colt - Stockton, Dawes (2); Skyhawk - none. One Sunday schedule was on the book - J. Callaway in the Colt.

A new method of reporting wind direction has been authorized by the Weather Bureau of the U.S. Department of Commerce. In the past, wind direction has been reported by means of an arrow, showing to the nearest 16 points. After Jan. 1, 1964, the direction will be given to the nearest 10 degrees by means of a two-digit

Texas Gets Science Grant

AUSTIN - The University of Texas has received a $243,200 National Science Foundation grant to conduct its eighth Academic - Year Institute for secondary school, college and pre-service teachers of science and mathematics in 1964-65.

The program is designed for teachers of biology, chemistry, earth sciences, mathematics and physics who wish to improve their subject matter knowledge or pursue new fields through a year's study on a full-time basis.

Between 40 and 50 participants with bachelor's degrees will be accepted in three categories:

-Teachers and supervisors of science and mathematics in grades 7 through 12 with at least three years of teaching experience.

-College teachers of science and mathematics with at least three years of teaching experience.

-Pre-service teachers, recent college graduates who are certified to teach secondary school science or mathematics, but who have had no actual teaching experience.

Each experienced teacher will receive a $3,000 stipend. For pre-service teachers, a $2,400 stipend will be provided. Both will be given additional allowances for dependents, tuition, books and travel expenses.

The Institute begins in September of 1964. Supplementary funds will finance additional studies for 30 of the teachers during the 1965 summer session. Teachers may work toward advanced degrees, although it is not required.

Dr. Robbin C. Anderson, chemistry professor, will direct the 1964-65 Institute. Deadline for applications is Jan. 20, 1964.

Savings Bonds As Investments

Investors were asked today to consider the advantages of purchasing the permissible annual limit of series E and H United States savings bonds.

Ed Gossett, savings bonds chairman for Texas, reminded that because limit purchases of savings bonds are applicable on a calendar year basis, limit purchases of series E bonds made before Dec. 31 can be repeated in January, 1964. The annual purchase limit on series E bonds is $10,000 face value.

Similarly investors can buy series H bonds up to the annual purchase limit of $20,000 face value before the end of 1963 and the same amount again in January, 1964.

Also, Gossett added, investors who hold series F and G savings bonds which are no longer issued, can reinvest the proceeds of these two series as they mature, in series G and H bonds without regard to the annual purchase limit.

Both series E and H bonds return 3 1/2 per cent interest to maturity. Series E bonds are appreciation bonds with interest added to cash value every six months. E bonds mature in seven years nine months and carry a 10-year extension privilege. Series H bonds pay current interest by semiannual Treasury check and mature in 10 years. H bonds issued from June, 1952 through January, 1957 can be held an additional 10 years after maturity.

LISTEN!

CHRISTMAS

It's an old family custom. I hang up my stocking for Santa to fill. Then everyone has to be very quiet while Daddy reads the Christmas Story from our big family Bible . . . about the Shepherds . . . how they watched . . . and listened. That's why they knew Jesus had come: because they listened!

Again today, Christmas brings good tidings . . . of peace on earth . . . good will toward men. Church bells ring . . . children sing carols . . . the Story of Bethlehem is told again.

It means Joy to the world: if we listen!

Forsan Slates Yule Program

By BETTY CONGER
"Christmas For Others" is the theme of the Christmas program to be presented Thursday at Forsan High School. First and second grades will perform the action part in the play. Christmas carols will be sung by the high school chorus under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Spell.

BSHS Formal Scheduled

By SHARON SMITH
The Christmas Formal will be held in the BSHS gym Friday from 9-12. The band will be the Kent's Combo originally called the Mystics. Tickets will be on sale Monday through Thursday in the foyer office. They will not be sold after 4 p.m. Thursday afternoon. Prices of the tickets are $1 stag and $1.50 per couple. Any student may bring a guest not enrolled in BSHS. Those having dates that do not attend BSHS must leave the name of their date in Mrs. McCauley's office.

Presentation of the school beauty, best all around, and class favorites will take place at 9:30. Girls nominated for school beauty are Joanna Patterson, Nancy Hedleston, Nancy Haralson, Sue Cook and Linda Fulbright. Students running for best all around are Cheryl Whittington, Kathy Mason, Judy Engle, Baxter Moore, Kenny Chrane and Jim Bruce Frazier. Nominated for senior class favorites are Nancy Hedleston, Joanna Patterson, Jim Bike, Larry Jones, Rick Price and Robert Goodlett. Junior class nominees are Jan Worthan, Sherry Stephens, LaNell Merridith, Pax Bunch, Sara King, Nancy Haralson, Dub McMeans and Steve McComb. Representing the sophomore class are Beth Walker, Sara Smith, Cecilia Pachall, Marilyn Meachum, Janet Jones, Sue Frazier, Sue Burns, Bob Worley, Ronnie Dale Smith, Mac Frazier and Greg Pate.

After a successful performance of "Oklahoma!" the cast attended a party in the Student Union Building of Howard County Junior College Friday. "Oklahoma!" was presented Friday and Saturday.

Sorority Initiates Billie Jean Boling

Billie Jean Boling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Boling, 1000 E. 13th St., Big Spring, was initiated into Alpha Chi Sorority at Southwest Texas State College in San Marcos. Alpha Chi is an honorary sorority belonging to the Association of College Honor Societies. Billie has also been nominated for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Musical Festival Planned At HCJC

By CLAUDIA RICHARDSON

The HCJC Vocal Ensemble, under the direction of Ira Schantz and accompanied by Jack Hendrix, will present a Christmas Extravaganza Monday at 8 p.m. The program, titled "A Festival of Christmas Music," will feature Joyce Bradley, soprano, Edna McClintock, principal harpist with the Midland Symphony Orchestra, and Mary Frances Malone, harpist. Admission for adults is $1.00, students, 50 cents; HCJC students will be admitted by their activity cards.

The Christmas formal is scheduled at HCJC Thursday from 8-12 in the dining room of the Student Union Building. The formal is an annual affair sponsored by the Phi Theta Kappa. Rocca Rocca Hama, campus geology club, is sponsoring a contest for a poem to be engraved on the sun dial club building. The deadline for poems is Thursday. Rocca Rocca Hama is sponsored by Mr. Lee Thackrey, who is architect of the sun dial being constructed by the geology club.

The Women's Recreational Association meeting scheduled for Friday is now set for Monday. Freshman girls will present their skills. The nativity scene in the foyer of the SUB was constructed by the Baptist Student Union. The figures are life-size and brilliantly lighted at night. BSU meets weekly on Tuesday and Thursday at 6:15.

The HCJC choir presents a program Thursday for the Officers' Wives Club at Webb AFB. The HCJC chapter of the American Guild of Organists has organized. Officers and members are Carolyn Branch, secretary; Janice Winans, president; and Judy Hinds, Kay Koger, Tom McDaniel, Madalene Miller and Hubert Murphy, members.

The Student Government Association sponsored a dance in the SUB Saturday after the the Jayhawk basketball game. The Christmas assembly will be presented Wednesday during activity period in the auditorium.

Stanton Chooses Top Personalities

By CAROLYN SPRINGER

The 1963-64 yearbook personalities have been elected. Ronald Hartsell and Mary Gaspie were named as Mr. and Miss Stanton High School. Carroll Anderson was elected most handsome boy and Beverly Tucker, most beautiful girl. The most intellectual are Rodney Payne and Carolyn Springer. Euvonne Welch and Mickey Allen were chosen as the cutest couple. Betty Gaspie and Jackie Bone were elected as the best natured. Wittiest went to Cindy Britton and Smitty Smith. Most popular boy and girl are Ronald Hartsell and Mary Gaspie. Most athletic are Donny Thompson and Anna Thompson. The friendliest girl is Marva Cox.

Alan Tate, a senior, was chosen by the Future Homemakers of America as their chapter beau.

The FHA chapter met Tuesday during activity period. The meeting was opened by Carolyn Springer, president. A devotion entitled "Know Thyself" was presented by Charlotte Kuhlman. The devotion was written by Mrs. Doug Sikes, one of the chapter sponsors. Barbara Burton, Sandra Wilkes, Brenda Hightower and Linda Costlow were on the program.

The honor roll for the second six weeks has been posted. Freshmen with the grade are Mark Bentley, Guy Brown, Linda Costlow, Jerry Cox, Robert Hamm, Linda Hays, Brenda Hightower, Judy Kokek, Becky Long, Judy Overby, Phillip Payne, Gary Reid, Butch Robnett, Buddy Shanks, Mike Springer, Pat Springer, Eunice Stephenson, Kathy Stewart, Sherry Vest and Cathy Workman.

Sophomores on the roll are Beth Biggs, Betty Gaspie, Sandra Jones. Juniors are Carroll Anderson, Tommy Bruton, Connie Gillum, Charlotte Kuhlman, Carolyn Springer, Dale Thompson, and Mary Wilson.

Seniors on the honor roll are Rodger Boyce, Ronnie Driggers, Mary Gaspie, Nancy Hampton, Ronald Hartsell, Loretta Kennedy, Linda Lawson, Terry Long, Janis Morrison, Rodney Payne, and Tommy Shanks.

A special Christmas program will be presented to the students of Stanton High School Friday. The program is sponsored by the Student Council. There will be a guest speaker and the choir will present several selections. The public is invited to attend.

Door decorations are being sponsored by the Student Council. All organizations and classes are urged to make their doors pretty enough to win first place. Prizes of five, three, and two dollars are being awarded. The doors will be judged Wednesday.

Several science students went to Odessa Saturday to attend the Science Symposium at Odessa Junior College. Mr. Bob Young, science teacher, accompanied the group.

The Drama Club will present "The Glass Menagerie" Friday. The play will begin at 8:15 in the high school auditorium. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Drama Club or at the door for $1.00 for adults and 25 cents for children.

The Stanton High School Band placed third in the marching contest in Odessa Dec. 7. The twirlers each received second places. They are Charlene Bevers, Cindy Pickett and Suzanne Poe.

The Future Teachers Association is selling Stanton Buffalo pillows. The pillows are red with white letters.

It was a long journey to Austin this weekend but for the 17 delegates to Youth and Government, it was well worth it. Five out of seven of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y bills made the bill book in Austin. This is more than any of the other delegations in the state of Texas. The youths were accompanied by six adult advisors. Bill Worley was elected to serve on the elections committee. Elected to serve on the legislative council was Pat Haralson.

Keep in mind Dec. 31, the date for a big New Year's Eve Dance to be held at the YMCA. Advance tickets will be sold for $3.00 per couple. Monday night Carl Magum presented an interesting program on fencing. The program was presented before the entire group of Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y members.

Dickens' Christmas Play To Be Presented Friday

By DENISE HEAD

Intensive rehearsals are in store for members of the cast of "A Christmas Carol" which will be given at the Christmas assembly Friday. Those appearing in the play will be the narrator, Denise Head; the Spirit of Christmas Past, Daria Seebo; Ebenezer Scrooge, Russ McEwen; Bob Cratchit, Allyn Malory; Fred, Burt Nix; Ghost of Jacob Marley, Mike Alexander; Mr. Fezziwig, Ray Worsham; Dick, Henry White; Young Ebenezer, Mike Alexander; Spirit of Christmas Present, Rene Burson; Spirit of Christmas Yet to Come, Karla Wadsworth; Little Girl, Martha Jordan; Maid, Susan Daniels.

Christmas cards were gathered by the FHA girls to give to the state hospital. FHA has also been learning food preparation. Friday two of the classes had a buffet luncheon. Figure sketching is being done by the ninth grade art classes. Potato prints and cardboard prints by the eighth grade, and puppet shows by the seventh.

Mrs. Maurine Burks, art teacher, collected Goliad's tuberculosis posters Friday for the contest on Saturday. Friday the thirteenth brought only good luck for members of the annual staff and their sponsor, Mrs. Cornelia Gary. They were feted with a buffet dinner in the Blue Room at Cosden Country Club. The tables were beautifully decorated with Christmas colors, and the falling snow as seen from the big picture window added its own touch of gaiety.

The Goliad Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Don Morton, will present a program of Christmas music Tuesday at 7:30. All the parents and friends are invited to hear the 41 voice choir perform in Goliad's gymnasium.

Y Delegates

Music Fest At HCJC

A musical present in "Festival of Christmas Music" is in store here Monday.

The Howard County Junior College choir, under direction of Ira Schantz, is all set to present a two part musical Yuletide extravaganza, complete with special staging, scenery and costumes. The range is from ancient Gregorian chants to modern Christmas favorites.

SOLOS
There also will be instrumental solos, as well as vocal ones. Two harpists will be featured, as will Jack Hendrix, pianist, head of the HCJC music department and accompanist for the choir.

Admission to the concert is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students and children. Tickets will be available at the door. A HCJC student will be admitted on activity tickets. All proceeds will go to the music department's scholarship fund.

Patrons for the highly popular "Festival of Light Music" of the past two years, this program will be titled "Christmas in the Cathedral" for Part I, and "In a Winter Wonderland."

Special guest soloists for Monday evening's program will be Joyce Bradley, soprano, and two harpists, Edna McClintock, principal harpist of the Midland Symphony Orchestra, and Mary Frances Malone of Big Spring. Mrs. Bradley will be heard in two solos, "Ave Maria" by Schubert and Irving Berlin's "White Christmas." Misses McClintock and Malone will be heard in both harp solos and duets, including a special arrangement of "Silent Night." They will also accompany the vocal ensemble on one number, "As It Fell Upon a Night" (arranged by Katherine K. Davis). Hendrix will present, as a prelude to Part II, a special medley of Christmas tunes entitled, "A Christmas Carol Caserole."

HUMOR

A humorous touch to Part II will be "A Jingle - Bell Travelogue," performed by a quartet of students consisting of Carol Chidlaw, Janice Winans, Bill Anderson and Bob Harrison. "A Jingle-Bell Travelogue" is a take-off on the familiar carol, presenting the tune as it might be done in various sections of the world, such as Spain, Australia, Russia, China, etc.

Special sets for "A Festival of Christmas Music" have been constructed by HCJC student John Peveo, who will also serve as stage and lighting technician.

Vampire's Kiss

Edward de Souza and Clifford Evans study ancient instructions which will be used to call vampire bats in "Kiss of the Vampire," a Universal release starting Thursday at the State Theatre. Other half of that day's fare is "The Traitors."

O'Hara's Short Stories Grouped In 'Hat On Bed'

THE HAT ON THE BED. By John O'Hara. Random. $5.95.

After you have read all the way through a collection of O'Hara's short stories, you're apt to reflect that the people you've been meeting are a lot more real than a good many of the flesh and blood creatures around you.

And on second thought, it will occur to you that O'Hara often tells you as much about his characters' past lives as he does about their present. He likes to look back, often creating a rather melancholy, nostalgic atmosphere that reminds you of an old tune by Noel Coward.

This collection includes some of the author's stories set in the mythical town of Gibbsville, Pa., or in nearby South Taqua, Gibbsville seems like the old home town.

Several of the other tales deal with some pretty scroungy types, but O'Hara also introduces you to the proprietress, the divorcee, a fading actor and a lonely old widow who is growing afraid of her maid. And there is a vivid story of the disintegration of a maverick movie director.

Often O'Hara weaves his magic through faultless dialogue, and sometimes he conjures up the social scene by using his computer-like memory for the little details of everyday living.

He is very prolific. Two years ago his collection "Assembly" was published, and last year "The Cape Cod Lighter" (The two volumes now have been combined into one Modern Library book titled "49 Stories"). This volume contains 24. And last June his latest novel, "Elizabeth Appleton," came out.

One thing you can count on. You'll enjoy O'Hara's tales.

'Mice' On Film Again

From long-run engagements in London and New York comes "The Mouse on the Moon," a comedy in Eastman-color with Margaret Rutherford, Bernard Cribbens, Ron Moody, David Kossoff and Terry - Thomas in the top roles.

Opening today at the State Theatre, the comedy is a Walter Shenson Production adapted from the novel by Leonard Wibberley, which means it comes from the same masters of the light and deft touch who made the recent "The Mouse That Roared."

"The Mouse on the Moon" is a story of a race to send a manned missile to the moon by the United States and the Soviet Union. Somehow, the mythical and tiny Duchy of Fenwick gets into the act—and wins the race after some hilarious hijinks by Miss Rutherford as the Grand Duchess of Fenwick, and Britain's comedian Terry Thomas, as a British spy sent in to find out just what Fenwick was up to.

"Mouse on the Moon" was prepared for the screen by Michael Pertwee and directed by Richard Lester. June Ritchie, a recent film find, also is seen in the cast.

'Doctor' Now Film Lawyer

Richard Chamberlain, familiar as Dr. Kildare, plays his first starring role in a feature motion picture in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Twilight of Honor."

It opens today at the Ritz Theatre. In this courtroom drama, based on the best-selling novel by Al Dewlin, Chamberlain's role is a far cry from that of his doctor portrayal. He plays David Mitchell, a small town attorney who is appointed to defend a man accused of murdering the community's leading citizen.

Together with Chamberlain, the Periberg - Seaton production filmed in Panavision, stars Nick Adams as Ben Brown, who faces the murder charge; Claude Rains as Art Harper, an elderly attorney to whom Mitchell turns for advice and encouragement; Joan Blackman as Susan, the latter's daughter; James Gregory as Norris Bixby, the prosecutor; and Pat Buttram as Cole Clinton, the murdered man. In the role of Laura Mae Brown, teen-age wife of the accused, Joey Heatherton, makes her motion picture debut.

As the story opens with the arrest of the young hitchhiker Ben Brown, who has been turned in by his wife and who has to be protected from a mob eager to lynch him, the tension and suspense gradually begin to mount. Then as Mitchell starts his questioning of the principals and accumulates his evidence, we begin to see the characters of Brown, his two-faced, avaricious wife, the hypocritical Cole Clinton and a number of other persons involved, including Clinton's tragic widow.

As the trial proceeds and the various witnesses give their testimony, flash-backs unfold what happened. Brown claims he killed Clinton when he found him in a compromising position with his wife. The artful Laura Mae denies any misconduct on her part, claiming that her husband had murdered Clinton for his money. Gradually more evidence accumulates as the examinations and cross-examinations take place in the tense courtroom. Heavy pressure is brought to bear on Mitchell to abandon his line of defense in the face of hostile public opinion.

Child Welfare Is Subject Of Issue

By HAROLD C. PERDUE
Collectors now may buy stamps of Surinam for face value from the Dutch Philatelic Service.

Surinam, on the northeast coast of South America, used to be known as Dutch Guinea. It recently has changed status from a colony to a part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

The first Surinam stamps to be offered in this fashion are a series of five child welfare semi-postals. Each stamp shows girls of different races living in Surinam. Further information about the stamps and the new service may be obtained by writing to The Philatelic Service, PTT, The Hague, Netherlands.

POSTPONED
The Post Office Department has announced the postponement of the five-cent Sam Houston commemorative scheduled last week in Texas until sometime in January, 1964. The new issue schedule has fallen behind.

President Lyndon Johnson has instructed the Postmaster General to confer with the Kennedy family at the appropriate time regarding a John F. Kennedy memorial postage stamp. Past practice makes this stamp almost certain.

The last two presidents who died in office, Warren Harding and Franklin Roosevelt, were memorialized promptly. Harding was memorialized less than a month after his death on Aug. 2, 1923. Four stamps were issued following the death of President Roosevelt. The first was on June 27, 1945, about two and a half months after his death on April 12, 1945. Others were on July 26 and Aug. 24, 1945, and on Jan. 30, 1946. Many foreign countries

Leader Named

NEW YORK (AP)—The tandem artistic leadership of the Lincoln Center repertory theater has been converted into a triangle with appointment of Harold Clurman as executive consultant.

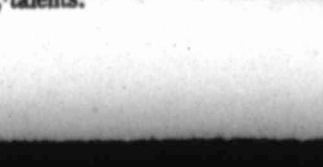

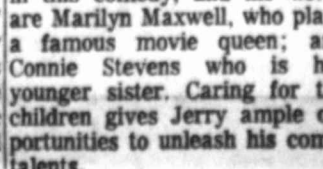

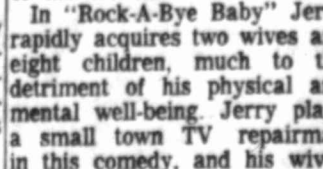

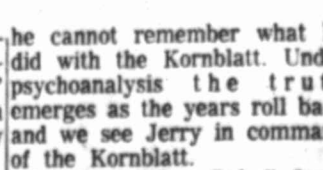

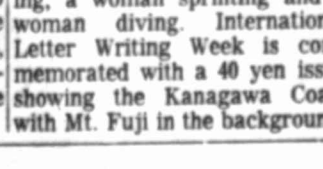

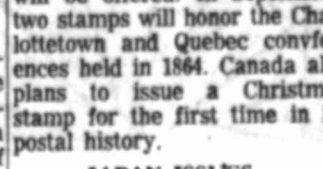

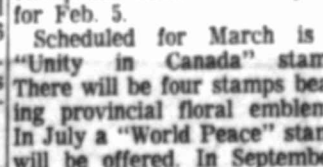

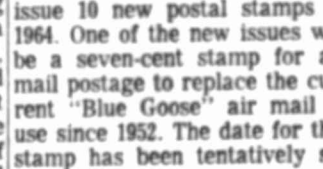

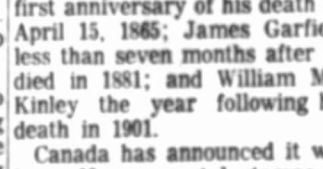

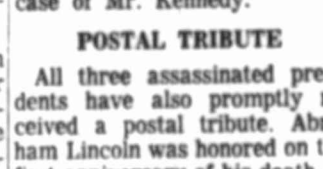

Clurman, a veteran stage director and writer, is to work with Ella Kazan and Robert Whitehead, who have been involved in the project for two years. His functions will include preparation of future programs, guidance of the training program and development of the acting company.

Jerry Lewis In Double Bill Wednesday At Jet

Jerry Lewis goes from battleships to babies in two comedies, "Don't Give Up The Ship" and "Rock-A-Bye Baby" in Technicolor opening Wednesday at the Jet Theatre.

The former co-stars Mickey Shughnessy, Dina Merrill, Robert Middleton and Diana Spencer, the latter, Marilyn Maxwell, Connie Stevens and Hans Conried.

"Don't Give Up The Ship" shows Jerry as a U.S. Navy lieutenant in hot water with his superiors because he lost the U.S.S. Kornblatt, the ship he commanded for a short period after VJ Day. Try as he may,
