WEATHER

Increasing cloudiness and freezing rain east of the Pecos Valley Thursday night. Continued cold Friday. Partly cloudy, but not so cold Friday. Minimum temperature Wednesday 26 degrees. Minimum Thursday 27 degrees.

North Snyder Field Extension Indicated

Possibilities of a one and three-quarter of a mile west extension to the southwest side of the North Snyder-Canyon field in Central-North Scurry County, have been indicated at Burdell Oil Company No. 1, Sula Burt Keller.

This venture was bottomed at 8,884 feet in a porous lime in the Canyon reef and was taking a drillstem test.

It topped a lime at 8,839 feet and found the top of the porosity in that lime at 8,852 feet. The project drilled soft at 8,859-84 feet. Electric log surveys have been run and operator was due to run a drillstem test immediately.

The prospector is 660 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 340, block 97, H&TC survey. It is 10 miles northwest of the town of Snyder.

SW Kent Wildcat Finds Ellenburger

Drilling & Exploration Company, Inc., No. 1 Connell, Southwest Kent County wildcat, two miles south-east of the town of Keller, and three miles southeast of the nearest Ellenburger wells in the Polar field, had reached 7,795 feet in Ellenburger dolomite and was drilling ahead.

A tentative, unofficial top of the Ellenburger had been picked by some geologists to be at 7,740 feet. Elevation is 2,361 feet.

So far as has been reported the project has not logged any indications of production since it went into the Ellenburger.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 19, block 5, H&GN survey.

This prospector failed to develop any sort of production in the Canyon and in the Strawn lines of the Pennsylvanian.

It did encounter possibilities in the San Andres lime of the Permian, and if it falls in the Ellenburger it probably will plug back and try to complete an oil well from the San Andres section.

SW Coke Area Gets Another Prospector

Amerada Petroleum Corporation is to start operations at once on its second wildcat on its 41,858.51 acre block of leases in Southwest Coke County.

The prospector will be Amerada No. 2 March ranch. Location is 2,540 feet from south and west lines of section 37, block Z, D&SE survey. That makes it 13 miles northeast of San Antonio in Northwest Tom Green County.

Amerada's No. 2 March ranch is projected to dig to 8,000 feet, which should take it into the Ellenburger.

It is three and one-half miles east and slightly north of the same concern's No. 1 March ranch, which is making hole below 7,016 feet in Pennsylvanian lime and shale.

Amerada No. 1 March ranch, located 968 feet north and 669 feet from east line of section 72, block 18, H&TC survey, found salt water in the Strawn lime in a drillstem test at 6,776-6,825 feet.

There was a good flow of air at the surface for the entire period. Recovery was 150 feet of drilling mud and 2,050 feet of salt water. No shows of oil or gas were developed from the investigation.

Top of the Strawn was called at 6,436 feet. Elevation is 2,338 feet.

None of the upper formations have logged any signs of oil or gas production in No. 1 March ranch.

Texaco To Explore Gains Clear Fork

The Texas Company No. 1 Mrs. Adele Mickle is to be a 7,500-foot well in Central-South Gaines County. Drilling is to be started in the near future.

The drillsite is 660 feet from north and 1,990 feet from west line of section 21, block A-25, psi survey.

That puts the project four miles northwest of the multi-pay Flanagan field, and four and one-quarter miles west of the Robertson field.

The projected destination of 7,500 feet is calculated to take No. 1 Mickle into the Clear Fork lime of the lower Permian.

Devonian Is Barren In Cochran Project

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 5-D Edwards, stepout from production from the Devonian in the Landon-Deep Field in Central-South Cochran County is to try to complete a discovery from the Mississippian lime, after it found only salt water in the Devonian.

The venture drilled to a bottom of 11,381 feet in the Devonian. That horizon was entered at 11,305 feet. That zone made only water.

Operator plugged back with cement to 11,018 feet and has set 8 1/2-inch casing at that point. The pipe will be perforated between 10,800 feet and 10,900 feet, in the lower Mississippian. That section showed signs of possible production on electric logs and in the samples.

Make Free Oil

If that interval fails to make an oil well, the project will again be plugged back to about 10,800 feet to test between 10,500 and 10,900 feet.

A drillstem test in that section showed considerable free oil in a drillstem test.

The oil found in the Texas Pacific No. 5-D Edwards in the Mississippian is the first indication of commercial production found in that area.

Glistening Sheath Of Ice, Sleet, Snow Hangs On In State

A glassy sheath of ice, sleet and snow crusted a great area of the northern portion of Texas Thursday, stalling travel and curtailing business for the second straight day.

Freezing rain fell in many sections and as far south as San Antonio and Victoria.

The rich Rio Grande Valley escaped a freeze as the bitterest cold wave of the season held its grip on the state.

Temperatures were expected to moderate slightly Friday. The glistening crust of sleet, ice or snow extended from Central Texas to the tip of the Panhandle and from Texarkana westward to San Angelo.

No sub-zero temperature readings were reported Thursday but temperatures generally were far below freezing.

Mere Freezing Rain

Readings included Amarillo, 6 degrees above zero; Dalhart, 7; Lubbock, 13; Clarendon, 7; Childress, 12; El Paso, 34; Big Spring, 17; Abilene, 17; Fort Worth, 19; Austin, 27; Waco, 24; Dallas, 21; and Wichita Falls, 16.

Freezing rain was falling Thursday at Bryan, Waco, San Antonio, Victoria and San Angelo.

Drizzling rain fell at Beaumont, Lufkin, Brownsville, Corpus Christi and Houston.

Clouds blanketed the state except in the Panhandle, the South Plains and most of West Texas.

At Brownsville, in the Rio Grande Valley, the temperature at 6:30 a.m. was 40 degrees.

The Texas Highway Patrol continued warnings to motorists to stay off highways in the ice-covered areas except in cases of emergency.

Sherman had a low temperature of 13 degrees early Thursday and the city was covered with ice. Bonham had an overnight low of 15 degrees.

Bitter Cold, Floods Harass Nation From California To Dixie

Cold, floods, rain, sleet and snow dealt damaging blows to wide areas of the nation Thursday from Southern California into Dixieland.

Temperatures Thursday were a disaster to the multi-million dollar citrus and vegetable crops of Southern California despite all-night orchard firing. Further damage was feared, although pre-dawn temperatures Thursday were a little above Wednesday's lows.

Scores of families were made homeless by floods in parts of Illinois and Indiana. Several roads were blocked by rising creeks and rivers in Western Kentucky.

Bitter cold continued in most of the Midwest. The Arctic belt extended from Montana into Iowa and some parts of the Rocky Mountains. Spencer, Iowa, had 22 below zero Thursday, a new Iowa low for the winter season. It was 17 below at Mason City, Iowa.

Two Die In Snyder Oil Field Accidents

SNYDER — Two men were killed in oil field accidents near here Wednesday.

Robert E. Strahan, 18, of Mont Belvieu, Texas, was killed about 4:40 a.m. in a rig accident on the Terry lease, eight miles north of here.

Later, about 2 p.m., Larry Lee Thornton, 24, was killed instantly in an accident on the Andress lease six miles northwest of Snyder.

Thornton was running a drill pipe into the hole of a well and that had collected inside gave away. The force of the flying ice struck Thornton about the face and neck, killing him.

Strahan was working with his father, J. E. Strahan, a driller, on a Sharp Drilling Company rig.

A company spokesman explained that when the jet lines of a pump which was being repaired were opened, a frozen relief valve failed and caused an inspection platform to fly off and hit Strahan.

America To Keep Hands Off Formosa

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman Thursday declared an American hands-off policy toward the Chinese Island of Formosa.

In a news conference statement, he said the United States has no desire to use its armed forces there or become involved "in the civil conflict in China."

He made clear the only help Chiang-Kai-Shek's government in Formosa can expect from the United States is continuing economic aid.

Truman said: "The United States has no predatory designs on Formosa or on any other Chinese territory."

"The United States has no desire to obtain special rights or privileges or to establish military bases on Formosa at this time. Nor does it have any intention of utilizing its armed forces to interfere in the present situation."

No Military Aid

"The United States government will not provide military aid or advice to Chinese forces on Formosa. In view of the United States government, the resources of Formosa are adequate to enable them to obtain the items which they might consider necessary for the defense of the island."

Work Program For 1950 Is Drafted By C. Of C. Group

A proposed work program of the Midland Chamber of Commerce for 1950 was drafted by members of its Program of Work Committee at a meeting Wednesday afternoon in Hotel Scharbauer.

President R. D. (Bob) Scruggs presided, and Manager Delbert Downing reviewed activities and accomplishments of 1949 and told of plans for 1950.

The comprehensive program will be submitted to directors of the organization for adoption.

It includes 19 major subjects, ranging in scope from wholesale and retail development to military affairs. Much of the program is a continuation of activities and functions started last year.

The appointment of a long-range water program committee to study future water needs and problems of the city is recommended. The report or park building will be continued as a special project if the work program is adopted. A proposal to vote bonds to finance the erection of a special election last Fall, but committee members said the need for a multiple-use exhibit building here still is apparent and work on the project should be continued.

Scores of individual projects are included under the general headings of Highways, Conventions and Tourist Development, Housing, Industrial Expansion, Hospitals and Medical Center, Special Attractions, Petroleum, Aeronautics and Aviation Center, Publicity, City and County Affairs, Wranglers Club, Military Affairs, Agriculture and Livestock, Retail Development and Wholesale Distribution.

Physician Pleads Innocent In Death Of Cancer Patient

MANCHESTER, N. H. — (AP) — Dr. Hermann N. Sander Thursday pleaded innocent in a loud voice to an indictment charging first degree murder in the so-called mercy slaying of an incurable cancer patient.

The state agreed to his freedom pending trial under a continuance of his $25,000 bond, with the stipulation that he refrain from medical practice until disposition of the case.

Dr. Sander's attorney, Louis E. Wymann, said the stipulation about refraining from practice was over the protest of defense counsel.

Dr. Sander stood erect and showed no emotion while Court Clerk Arthur S. Healy read the indictment charging the country doctor:

"Feloniously, willfully and of his malice aforethought did inject 10 cubic centimeters of air into the veins of Mrs. Abbie Borretto, 59," his cancer patient.

It was disclosed a trial date will be set before April 1.

City Hall Has New Telephone Number

Most offices and departments in the City Hall will have the same telephone number beginning Friday when the new switchboard is placed in operation.

City Manager W. H. Oswald said Thursday. Most departments have had individual numbers.

The new City Hall telephone number is 4668.

The central switchboard number replaces numbers 2918, 2928, 2472, 565, 566 and 4761. Persons are requested to use the central number —4668—and the switchboard operator will connect them with the office or department requested. Other numbers will be tied into the switchboard later.

Oswald urged the cooperation of citizens in the establishing and using the new City Hall number—4668.

Cut Spending Instead, Say Party Leaders

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congressional leaders responded to President Truman's State of the Union message Thursday by turning thumbs down on half a dozen of his legislative proposals—including more taxes.

Important members in both parties were quick to frown on the "moderate" tax increase asked by Truman Wednesday at the outset of a congressional election year.

Instead, they emphasized reduced spending. Failing sharp economies in a budget expected to exceed $42,100,000,000, the government presumably would continue red ink spending.

Greek Cabinet Resigns

ATHENS — (AP) — Greece's coalition government, which presided over the rout of the Communist guerrilla rebellion, collapsed Thursday in a pre-election dispute between Populist (Royalist) and Liberal cabinet ministers.

Premier Alexander Diomedes sent his cabinet's resignation to King Paul.

At the same time, Diomedes announced that Alexander Papagos, Greece's greatest living military hero, has resigned as commander of the nation's armed forces.

There have been persistent reports that Generalissimo Papagos, leader of the final successful drive against the Communists, was about to enter the political arena and perhaps seek the premiership.

Diomedes sent in the resignations after Second Deputy Premier Sophocles Venizelos led 10 other Liberal Party ministers out of the government.

Venizelos said he had urged the general elections, now scheduled for April, be speeded up. He said voting should be held sooner to prevent the "terrible consequences the country would be exposed to from an unduly long pre-electoral campaign period."

Ambassador Jessup Arrives In Japan On Asian Survey Junket

TOKYO — (AP) — Roving U. S. Ambassador Philip C. Jessup arrived Thursday in Japan, first stop on an Asian survey trip that will take him to Formosa—new focal point of American controversy on Far Eastern policy.

Jessup would not comment on reports that the State Department expects the island to be taken by the Reds, who have overrun China's mainland.

In a brace of news conferences after his ship docked at Yokohama Thursday morning, he reiterated that:

1. The U. S. "has not abandoned and will not abandon China."
2. The U. S. has a Far Eastern policy, notwithstanding Republican charges to the contrary.
3. The Far East is getting "prime attention" from the State Department.
4. Soviet policy on China is similar to the old imperialism of the czars.
5. The U. S. is opposed to imperialism.

Phillips Rites To Be Held In San Angelo

Phillips, who lived at 621 West Texas Street, had been a Midland resident five years. He was a pharmacist at Midland Drug. He had been a longtime resident and drug store operator in San Angelo before moving to Midland.

Phillips had been a practicing pharmacist for more than 40 years.

Services will be conducted by the Rev. Ray Johnson of San Angelo and the Rev. Howard H. Hollowell of Midland.

Survivors include the widow; a daughter, Mrs. George O'Brien of Rockford, Ill.; two sons, Edwin Phillips of Odessa and Major Charles Phillips, now stationed in Japan and a stepson, Robert Jackson of Kansas City, Mo.

New Russian Atom Explosion Forecast

LONDON — (AP) — A man who predicted Russia's first atomic explosion said Thursday there will be another at midnight, Saturday.

Magazine Editor Kenneth de Cource also said there are indications the Russians are ahead of the U. S. "in some respects" in atomic development.

De Cource told reporters he based his statement on private reports from behind the Iron Curtain. His forecast was made in a written statement to the press.

He predicted last January the Russians would attempt an atom explosion during 1949. President Truman announced in September they had succeeded.

Maragon Receives Press

John Maragon, who has been indicted on four counts of perjury, receives the press at his home in McLean, Va., with his wife, returning to Kansas City bootleg, who became a White House intimate, is accused of lying to a Senate subcommittee investigating "influence peddlers" or "Tiva promoters." Conviction on the perjury counts could carry as much as 40 years in jail as a penalty.

Stock Prices Soar To Three-Year High

NEW YORK — (AP) — Demand for stocks flooded the market early Thursday and lifted the price level to a new high in more than three years.

Key issues advanced fractions to around a point.

Buying was so fast the ticker tape fell behind in reporting actual transactions by as much as three minutes, an unusual occurrence. Demand calmed down before noon.

By ESKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD—The Hollywood Women's Press Club awards to Kirk Douglas and June Haver as filmdom's most co-operative stars is okay with me. Office Building To Replace Gotham's Ritz Carlton

NEW YORK —P—The ultra-fashionable Ritz-Carlton Hotel, whose name helped put the word "ritzy" into the English language, is to be torn down. A 25-story office building will be erected in its place. The task of demolishing the 16-story hotel, a luxury landmark in New York City for 40 years, will begin early next year. The plan was disclosed Wednesday by the Uris Brothers real estate firm, which said it had obtained a long-term lease on the site at an annual ground rent of $225,000.

The firm said the new office building will cost some $15,000,000. The hotel, scene of many a lavish social event and internationally known for its fine foods and luxurious facilities, fronts the west side of Madison Avenue from 46th to 47th Street, Manhattan. Showplace Of Royalty It has been a stopping place for celebrities, European royalty and the wealthy, and some of its gala parties seldom have been matched anywhere in the world. It has been a favorite showplace for young debutantes, bowing into society.

The hotel's reputation made it a symbol for elegant living. Webster's New International Dictionary credits it, along with the Ritz Hotel in London, with making "ritzy" an accepted adjective. Built by the late Robert Goeliet, the hotel was opened in 1910. At the opening, women were permitted to smoke in the dining room—a new and shocking practice in those days. To prepare its cuisine, the hotel imported top chefs of Europe.

A part of the hotel property is the adjacent Carlton, which is used largely for permanent tenants. It too will be demolished.

WTCC Invites New Water Policy Panel ABILENE—P—The West Texas Chamber of Commerce wants President Truman's newly created Water Resources Policy Committee to hold its first meeting in this section.

The WTCC and the West Texas Domestic Water Association (WTCC-sponsored) wired invitations Wednesday to the committee. The telegrams also said: "Believing adequate domestic water is paramount national problem, we are hopeful that committee may give first emphasis to this problem and that committee personnel may not over-emphasize public power against drinking water for people."

The telegrams were signed by J. M. Wilson, Floydada, WTCC president; Homer D. Grant, Lubbock, WTDWA president, and D. A. Bandoen, Abilene, general manager of both organizations. They were sent to U. S. Senators Lyndon B. Johnson and Tom Connally; of Texas and to U. S. Representatives George Mahon of Colorado City and Eugene Worley of Shamrock.

Continental Would Serve Snyder On Midland-Tulsa Hop SNYDER—Robert F. Six, president of Continental Air Lines, Denver, Colo., said here Wednesday his company will file an application with the Civil Aeronautics Board to make Snyder a regular stop on a three-year trial basis.

The announcement came less than a week after Snyder selected an airport site. Six addressed the Snyder Kiwanis Club at its luncheon-meeting. Continental now operates a daily schedule with a DC-3 from Midland to Tulsa. Snyder would be incorporated into this service.

The airline president said one or two landings might be made here each day. The three-year trial would determine whether this city is capable of supplying enough air traffic and freight to make the venture practical on a permanent basis.

Six urged Snyder leaders to build their new airport runways sufficiently long to accommodate larger planes.

Arkansas Manhunt Ends In Capture Of Fugitives

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.—P—Four convicts who shot their way to freedom Saturday and touched off one of Arkansas' most sensational manhunts were back in custody Thursday—two of them in a hospital with bullet wounds. The end of the grueling, five-day chase through rain and finally sleet and cold weather came Wednesday night when the last of the desperadoes were captured in North Little Rock. "I'm glad it's over," said 22-year-old Jack Rheuark of Sapulpa, Okla., one of the wounded men. "The cold was hell."

Arkansas Prison Superintendent Lee Hensley said he, too, was glad the hunt was over. Rheuark and James Perry Williams, 29, of Sheridan, Ark., were the only two fugitives who lived up to Hensley's prediction the convicts would not be taken without a fight. Cornered in a shack, the pair defied officers' commands to surrender. "Come and get us," they yelled. "The posse of about 35 opened fire on the shack. Then the officers called again: 'Come on out. You haven't a chance.'"

From the splintered shed came a plaintive cry: "We can't come out. We're shot to pieces." Williams was wounded in the back, thigh, neck and shoulder. Rheuark was hit in the leg, back, ear and hand. Their conditions were described as "not critical."

Less than an hour before the second fugitive, 28-year-old David Dyer of Oklahoma City, was taken. Like the first of the gang apprehended—Odus Eaton, 25, of Stillwell, Okla.—Dyer didn't resist. All four were armed.

Eaton separated from his companions Sunday night and was caught the next day near Scott, Ark., not far from Tucker Prison Farm from which they escaped early Saturday, killing a trusty in their flight.

A "mistake" shooting Monday night during the height of the manhunt cost a recluse his life. A member of the posse was wounded. And an officer was wounded Sunday night in a brush with the fugitives.

Journey's end for the three remaining fugitives began Sunday night when police spotted three men apparently trying to steal a car. One man—Dyer—ran one way; his pals—Williams and Rheuark—the other. Dyer was tracked to a garage and captured quickly. It took a little longer to run down the other two.

Supporters Promise Piecemeal Passage Of Health Program

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Supporters of the Administration's compulsory health insurance program mapped plans Thursday for a long-range campaign to get it adopted—piece by piece, if necessary.

They agreed with opponents of the proposal that its prospects for passage at this session of Congress are extremely slim. But they declared they intend to keep fighting for it even though it may take a long time.

In this vein, some of the senators backing the program even talked of a possible compromise—as long as the "principle" remains the same.

President Truman set the tone for those who favor the plan in his State of the Union message Wednesday. He mentioned the program only briefly in the single paragraph which he devoted to the need for improving the nation's health.

He said there are "immense opportunities to extend to more of our people the benefits of the amazing advances in medical science," adding:

"We have made a good beginning in expanding our hospitals, but we must go on to remedy the shortages of doctors, nurses and public health services, and to establish a system of medical insurance which will enable all Americans to afford good medical care."

Hunt Sees Retreat

Senator Hunt (D-Wyo.), a dentist, quickly interpreted Truman's language as a retreat from the compulsory health insurance plan which the Administration sent to Congress last session.

But Senators Pepper (D-Fla) and Humphrey (D-Minn.), both strong advocates of the compulsory insurance program, disagreed. All spoke out separately in the House.

"I'm pleased that the President did not reiterate his requests for national compulsory health insurance," Hunt said. "I soon will introduce a bill that could carry out his proposals in this speech."

Humphrey acknowledged that Truman did not mention compulsory health insurance by that name, but said: "I gathered that was the portent of it."

Pepper said he interpreted the speech as a "reaffirmation" of Truman's previous position.

Compromise Talked

The Florida senator said both he and Senator Murray (D-Mont) intend to go ahead with the fight for the insurance plan. However, he threw open the door to a compromise by saying:

"You don't have to swallow the whole thing on the first bite. If the other side will be reasonable, we'll meet them half way."

Humphrey also expressed willingness to start out the program in a limited way.

But like Pepper, he stressed that he is "not retreating from the principle of compulsory health insurance one iota."

Chairman Elbert Thomas (D-Utah) of the Senate Labor Committee told a reporter that he thought the President had recommended a "very health program."

"Ultimately," he continued, "the whole program will go through, but in piecemeal form."

Prior to Truman's message, Democratic Leader Lucas (Ill) had told reporters he had no doubt Congress would pass a compulsory health plan this session.

Death Ends This Rebel's Wedding

RANGOON—(AP)—A notorious Communist leader, Bo Sekk, was playing a grim game of hide-and-seek with Government troops. Bo Sekk wanted to celebrate his marriage. He tidied up his jungle hide-out, prepared a feast.

Then he summoned his friends and the forest glade echoed with music and laughter as the Red leader, his bride and their guests sang and danced. At the height of the festivities, Government troops burst in upon the scene.

Pictures Are Exhibited And Guest Speaks For Modern Club

A traveling exhibit of pictures from the Texas Fine Arts Association was on view for Modern Study Club members and their guests who attended the club's annual fine arts program in the Palette Club Studio Wednesday afternoon.

Nell Shaw, a Midland member of the association and one of its trustees, was the guest speaker. She reviewed "The Life of Elizabeth Ney," Taylor, tracing the career of the noted woman sculptor who came from Europe to make her home in Texas, and whose studio in Austin has been turned into an art museum by the Texas Fine Arts Association.

The meeting was held in the Palette Club building so pictures in the exhibit might be displayed to better advantage than would have been possible in a home. Twelve large paintings in various mediums were displayed, as well as a group of prints.

Public Showing Stated

All are the work of Texas artists. Subject matter and style are varied from an interesting display, ranging from Florence Coleman's "Saturday Morning," a gay scene in lively colors, and Arline Smith's strong-lined "Austin Dam" to the homely "Chickens at Roost" by William Lester and Eloia Mueller's vivid "Down by the Riverside," a scene of a negro baptismal ceremony.

The pictures will remain in the studio this week and will be exhibited to the public Sunday with the Modern Study Club and the Palette Club as hostesses. The studio will be open from 3 to 5 p.m. and again from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Westlund and Mrs. J. W. Brown were hostesses for the studio meeting and Mrs. Harrie A. Smith was program chairman.

Guests Register

The refreshment table was appointed in club colors, green and pink. The large square table, with a deep green cloth, had a centerpiece of pink carnations and lemon leaves flanked with lighter green tapers in silver holders. Mrs. F. R. Schenck, club president, poured punch.

Mrs. Edwards Hostess To Star Study Club

Mrs. Clyde Hambleton and Mrs. L. C. Stephenson were the instructors at a meeting of the Star Study Club Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Ed Edwards. The lesson was on A and B certificates in the Order of Eastern Star.

Other members present were Mrs. E. B. Ray, Mrs. J. H. Shelton, Mrs. F. H. Shirley, Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, Mrs. H. M. Spangler, Mrs. J. C. Carlson and Mrs. M. D. Abel.

Physicist Raises New Hopes

Average citizens don't get much help from the scientists in grasping the complexities of atomic energy. The air of mystery of course is contrived deliberately in the interest of national security. But every once in a while the experts come up with a statement that partially shatters the secrecy.

Such a statement came in New York the other day at a meeting of top scientists. Dr. John R. Dunning, Columbia University physicist, announced that the cost of producing uranium fuel—a basic result of atomic fission—had been reduced virtually to the price of coal.

Aside from natural gas, coal is the nation's cheapest fuel and the United States has it in tremendous abundance. Despite wartime and postwar boosts in its cost, coal still supplies almost half the country's fuel needs.

Yet there are important new industrial processes on the horizon which are crying for a new and cheaper fuel. If sea water could be distilled for general public use, New York and other coastal cities might forget forever about water shortages.

But fuel costs of the process today are prohibitive. National reserves of high grade iron ore are dropping steadily. One solution for the future would be to refine the billions of tons of low grade ore on hand. But again, a cheaper fuel is needed.

Ever since the first announcement that the atom had been split, the people of America and the world eagerly have been awaiting word of progress toward the broad peacetime use of atomic energy. Its use for power has been uppermost in our minds.

Poor, Little Lonesome Lady!

WASHINGTON — President Truman's "Fair Deal" program will not be repudiated by the voters in the 1950 election. And the Democrats will not lose control of either the Senate or the House.

These are the predictions of 70 per cent of the 345 U. S. newspaper editors responding to a political poll conducted by this column. Only 21 per cent of the editors said they thought there was a chance for a Democratic defeat. Nine per cent said they didn't know.

This editorial prognosis for the New Year is made in spite of the fact that 63 per cent of these same editors reported they were opposed to President Truman's reelection, and opposed to his program.

Those who expressed their dislike about the Truman domestic program, the editors were very specific. They cited taxation, spending, far, civil rights and welfare issues before the new Congress.

With reference to the $5,000,000,000 deficit which the federal government faces this fiscal year, the editors were asked: "Should the 1950 Congress raise taxes to balance the budget?" Seventy-four per cent voted "No!" Twenty-one per cent indicated they would support a tax rise, however, preferring it to operating the government in the red.

Along a similar line, editors were asked, "In spite of deficit financing, do you think excise taxes should be reduced?" Here the opinion was 63 per cent in favor of reduction, 25 per cent opposed, two per cent expressing no opinion. Eight per cent of the editors said they would like to see the transportation tax cut, although not the luxury taxes on jewelry, cosmetics, admissions and the like.

What the editors seem to think the country really wants and needs is reduced government spending. So they were asked where they would cut. Many of the editors voted in favor of cutting domestic expenditures — profuse and sometimes with vociferity. There was strong write-in voting in support of the Hoover report. There were abundant vitriolic comments about the extravagance of bureaucracy.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY American's Card Authority

It was my pleasure last year to learn of the great work the Anchor Club does for orphans. The policemen and firemen of New York City have a branch of this club which brought the Boys' Town football team to New York last year to play the orphans' football team of New York City.

Each year the Anchor Club takes the orphans in Greater New York to Steeplechase Park at Coney Island and gives those kids a day they remember for a long time. Today's hand gives you a lesson you may not have an occasion to use for a long time, but remember it well because it may help you to win a contract this year.

During the course of the bidding East was quite confident that North and South could make four spades, which they can. He did not expect to make five hearts, but bid it merely as a sacrifice. However, when the dummy went down he could not see any reason why it should not be made.

East won the opening lead of the six of diamonds in dummy with the ace. He correctly read the hand as a singleton. He knew he had to lose a spade and the ace of trump, but how could he prevent that ruff? You might say, let East lead a trump and trust to luck.

However, there is a safe way to play the hand. You know that most of the high cards have to be in the South hand to justify his vulnerable bid. So lead the ace of clubs and then lead the queen of clubs. When North does not cover, discard the seven of spades. It is a loser anyway. South has to win with the king. Now he cannot get North in the lead to return a diamond.

If, however, you lead a trump after winning the opening lead, South will win it with the ace and lead the king of spades. North will not hesitate, but will overtake it with the ace and return a diamond and your contract will be defeated.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Legionnaires' "Tide of Toys" provides another great Christmas story; All U. S. backs veterans' move to woo Europe's children; Connecticut will be 1950's big political battleground.

WASHINGTON—The world has read a lot of great Christmas stories, from Dickens' Christmas Carol to Heywood Brown's famous column, but this year we have a Christmas story of doing which ranks with any of them.

It's the story of veterans who have fought four wars, led by the American Legion, who don't want to fight any more, and do want to build up friendship abroad. Recognizing that wars have come in cycles of about 20 years, they have gone out to woo Europe's children of today—who can be our best friends or the enemy soldiers of tomorrow.

That's one factor behind the "Tide of Toys" campaign, by which American children who can spare an extra toy immediately after Christmas are urged to send it via the American Legion, to less fortunate children in Europe.

There was a time when the public thought of Legionnaires chiefly in connection with robbing at annual conventions. But a sense of international responsibility and determination to play a part in world diplomacy is growing in the Legion today. And that is one reason why Legionnaires are the busiest time of the year, have been cutting short their holidays to promote what amounts to a friendship train of toys to Europe.

The Tide Flows Here is how Legionnaires and the public all over the country are putting across the Tide of Toys: Gen. Lucius Clay's home town, Marietta, Ga., was one of the first to respond through Congressman John Roy, with a pledge of a boxcar of toys. . . Emperor Hirohito's White Horse is being used to collect toys at Nashville, where an admission fee of one toy is being charged to get in to see the famous steed. . . Harry Warner of Warner Brothers, who so patriotically chartered the Friendship Train committee, produced a record telling the story of the "Tide of Toys." Thirty-two cities responded immediately to the Legion's call, with Des Moines printing special greeting cards for American children to send to European children.

Largest Legion post in the world is Omaha No. 1, with 16,000 members. But Denver's Post No. 1, with 10,400 members and second largest in the world, proclaims it will outdolet Omaha. . . In Merion, Pa., Editor Harold Keating is publishing in his Main Line Times the names of each boy and girl who sends a toy to the children of Europe. . . Wheeling, W. Va., Post No. 1, oldest in the United States, got its drive started so early that even on Christmas morning youngsters set aside a toy from under their Christmas trees. . . In Nashville, Post No. 3 is sending toys to

THE DOCTOR SAYS Spasms Of Coronary Arteries Brought On By Over-Exertion

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service The heart beats 70 or more times a minute throughout life. Thus the heart is the most active muscle in the whole body. The heart, like other muscles, must have plenty of blood in order to keep up its activity satisfactorily.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. QUESTION: What causes a man to be sleepy all the time even after many hours of sleep? He often complains of pain in the back of the neck and that his shirt collars seem to be getting too tight. Should someone like this be under the care of a physician? ANSWER: It certainly seems as though something definitely was wrong and careful tests and diagnosis are desirable.

THE MOST ASTOUNDING, unhonored miracle of modern times, is modern marriage. With few exceptions from the first kiss to the first quarrel and "forever after," it is the only voluntary human relationship where two people, separate, discordant entities, cheerfully set out to balance a social, psychological, and personal budget that makes the national military one look like kindergarten arithmetic, and actually succeed.

THE STORY: When John and I slept, marriage seemed like a domestic mystery, but gradually I'm finding things out. John and I are interested in the hospital and open to the possibility of a doctor's office. We decorated it ourselves. We and really enjoyed this. I struggled with homework and went to school to get my law degree.

Carbon Paper Does Clean-Up Job On Suede

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

A woman either should guard the velvety bloom on her suede shoes, or turn her foot flatterly over to leathers less susceptible to soil.

With all of the grooming aids at hand, however, there is no excuse for wearing suede shoes which look less immaculate than other types of leather footwear.

One ingenious aid for erasing smudges—thought up by a smart girl—carbon paper; the under-side which can be used quite effectively for a quick clean-up. Black carbon paper can be used for black suede, blue carbon for blue suede shoes.

When suede shoes mat—as they're apt to do when they take on rubbers or galoshes—a vapor bath from a steam kettle can be used to restore good looks. Before shoes are given the kettle treatment—a comfortable distance from the steaming spout—they should be wiped free of dirt with a dry sponge.

When suede shoes develop shine at hard-worn spots, these can be de-studded if sandpaper is rubbed over the glazed areas.

How has God faded out of the mind of this age? Well, the age, like thoughtless children, believed that the toyland of material wealth was a sufficient God and have thus lost the basis of morals. ## DiETING With Patricia Morison—Star Finds Gum Makes Her Hungrier While Reducing

By PATRICIA MORISON

While you're cutting down on the salt, go easy on the chewing gum, too. When I, during a moment of hunger, resorted to gum, I discovered that it only made me hungrier. What will better diminish hunger is the pronounced taste of a lozenge or candy drop, which you should allow to dissolve slowly on your tongue.

Here's the third day's diet in this seven-day plan to trim your figure.

Use as little salt as possible with this diet. People who use salt as a matter of habit often consume much more than they need. Salt stimulates the appetite, and quite often causes the retention of water in the body tissues.

If you'll prepare the vegetables listed for today's lunch by cooking them in their own juices, little salt and other high-calorie seasonings will be needed. The absence of butter, which cooks usually douse upon vegetables to make them tastier will not be noticed, if vegetables are steam or pressure-cooked.

Why Girls, It's A Cinch To Get Along With Men

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

It's easy for a woman to get along with a man if she just remembers these important facts:

That a man likes comfort. Never rob him of his comfort unless you have to. If he's feeling good, don't remind him of any worry or problem for the time being. If he's enjoying the evening paper, don't ask him to do an odd job that could be put off until later.

That a man likes women. That means that even though he is married, he still gets pleasure out of having some other woman play up to him a little. You can spoil it all by running down the woman who listened to him fascinated at a party or by telling him he made a fool of himself paying so much attention to her. But why turn into a shrew in order to punish him for something he can't help—liking the flattery of a woman's attention?

That a man hates to have to answer questions. Just don't pin him down. Let him tell you just as much as he wants to tell you. You'll never really find out any more than that anyway.

Nip Quarrels In The Bud

That a man likes peace. A woman can ward off a lot of quarrels before they ever get started by suddenly seeing something funny in the situation or by remembering that she ought to look at the roast or make a phone call or by suddenly noticing that her poor darling looks as though he has had a hard day.

That a man likes flattery. This shouldn't be spread so thick that it loses all its zip. But a well-aimed and well-timed compliment now, and then does as much for a man's sense of well-being as it does for a woman's. And you know how much that is.

That a man likes himself. So never belittle a man. Never tell him what his faults are. Never carelessly disregard his opinions. Never remind him of past mistakes. Make it easy for him to like himself—if you want him to be easy to get along with.

By The Associated Press

Rice, Southern Methodist and Arkansas stepped out with the first victories as the Southwest Conference teams started scrambling for position in the 1950 title chase Wednesday night.

Rice walloped Texas Christian 80-61; Southern Methodist beat A&M 53-48, and Arkansas whipped Texas 60-51.

Thursday night's games give the first good basis for comparison. Southern Methodist visits Houston to play Rice, and TCU plays A&M at College Station.

TCU's sophomores ran the more experienced Rice team in circles during the first half Wednesday night. George McLeod, six-foot, six-inch sophomore center, paced the Fort Worth team into a couple of nine-point leads, but Rice had it tied up 40-40 at the half and never again dropped behind after the opening moments of the second half.

McLeod was high scorer with 22 points, followed by big Joe McDermott of Rice with 20.

Ponies Come To Life

Southern Methodist came to life in the second half to get by the Aggies. A&M led 27-24 at the intermission. Then Paul Mitchell of the Mustangs began scoring from all angles and put the Methodists ahead 42-40 halfway through the last half, then pulled away to a five-point lead.

A&M whittled that to 47-46 with 65 seconds left, but Jack Brown and Charley Lutz made layup shots to pull SMU out of danger. Fred Freeman of SMU and John Dewitt each got 15 points to lead the scoring.

Arkansas went into the lead over Texas as soon as the game opened and held a 34-22 margin at half-time. The Razorbacks hung onto the ball in the second half to stall off a last-minute attack by the Longhorns.

Arkansas' Jim Catchcart led the Porker scoring with 17 points. Forward Tom Hamilton got the same number of points for the losers.

Senior Grid Greats Of 1949 Cast Wary Eyes At Pro Career

JACKSONVILLE, FLA. — Professional football's freshman crop next Fall won't include many of this year's best-known college seniors.

It would take mighty strong inducement to change the mind of Wade Walker, All-America tackle from Oklahoma, for one.

"I'm just too small," the 210-pounder lamented.

Clayton Tonemaker of Minnesota, All-America center, is as big as a whole housing project. He admitted he might consider a pro offer.

Then up came Eddie LeBaron of College of the Pacific.

The little fellow with the winning grin and gentle manner allowed he might try a little fling in professional circles—if he gets an opportunity. He weighs only 180.

Doaker Va. Choe Choe They all are here practicing for the first Senior Bowl football game, where they will make their professional debut Saturday. The players will get a share of the gate receipts.

Top billing goes to two All-America backs who will be meeting as football foes for the first—and probably only—time: Doak Walker of Southern Methodist and Charlie Justice of North Carolina.

Justice reaffirmed his intention of ending his playing career in the Senior Bowl. "Pro football just isn't for me," Justice said.

Nor is Walker counting on it. He didn't close the door, and if the right offer comes along the Doaker probably will play for pay for a year or two.

"It's just that I'll have to think twice before I go up there and take that punishment," he emphasized.

Bulldogs Engage Steers Thursday

The Midland Bulldogs, fresh from a victory over the McCamey Badgers, vie with the tough Big Spring Steers in a double-header on the hardwood at the MHS Gym Thursday night.

The 'B' Bulldogs meet the 'B' Steers at 6:45 p.m. and the A teams clash immediately following.

The Steers didn't slow down during the Christmas holidays, playing several non-conference games and entering the Howard Payne College Tournament at Brownwood. They were tough for the Bulldogs in a December meeting which Big Spring won by a top-heavy score.

The Bulldogs B team played the Steers a nip and tuck game in the Midland Invitation Tournament, losing it by a 22-19 score.

New Combination Coach Jack Mashburn used a new combination of Robert Burks, Norman Drake and David Weaver against McCamey Tuesday night and was somewhat pleased with the outcome. It is expected that trio will see much duty against the Big Spring five.

Howard Jones, a smooth ball handler and deadly long-shot artist, has distinguished himself for the Steers all season. He was named to the all-tournament team here.

The Steers have plenty of height and are not exactly short-handed on good ball handlers. Harold Rossion runs a close second to Jones in the scoring department. Howie Washburn is a defensive star.

Ollie and Billy Phillips, Harrie Smith and Reed Gilmore have seen regular duty with the A Bulldogs all season and will be ready again Thursday night. They are a vital part of Coach Mashburn's platoon system.

The Bulldogs go to McCamey for return games Saturday night.

NEW YORK — The Notre Dame football team, undefeated over a 38-game stretch, was voted the nation's outstanding team of 1949 in the annual year-end poll of sports writers by The Associated Press.

Thus, the Fighting Irish pulled a big double for the year, having previously been voted the No. 1 college football team in the final weekly Associated Press poll.

With 93 voting, 52 named Notre Dame as the outstanding team of the country in any sport, professional or amateur. The Irish ran up a total of 213 points.

Joltin' Joe Honored Runnerup honors went to the New York Yankees, whose crippled champion, then blasted the Brooklyn Dodgers in the World Series. The Yankees had 149 points. The University of Kentucky basketball team, NCAA champions last Spring, easily took third honors with 87 points.

Joe DiMaggio, the New York Yankee outfielder, Wednesday was voted the outstanding "come-backer" of 1949. The sore-heeled flycatcher, who missed half the campaign and then returned to help lead the Yankees to the pennant, nosed out the Yankee team as a whole for the honor.

Texas Fans, Entertainers, Help Sooners Capture Louisiana In Sugar Bowl Weekend

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD Associated Press Staff

Texas helped Oklahoma take over Louisiana during the Sugar Bowl weekend.

Grinning Texans, all having a fine time, decorated every hotel. They were much in evidence, also, at the night spots. And they paraded Canal Street New Year's Eve in the annual, wild celebration. New Orleans believes in bringing the New Year in with plenty of color, fervor and noise, and Texans were willing to help.

It is difficult to figure such things, but presumably North Texans were for Oklahoma and South-east Texans favored Louisiana State. Walk down a New Orleans street before a bowl game and you are certain to be asked—half a dozen times—"Who're you rooting for?"

One Texan, asked this question, replied: "I'm for Rice—in the Cotton Bowl."

The pretty Rangerettes from Kilgore (Texas) College easily were the hit of the Sugar Bowl. The triumphant University of Oklahoma football team was a hit, certainly, but their appeal more or less was limited to Oklahoma Rooters. Everybody liked the shapely, attractive Texas girls and the swell show they put on.

There were 53 of them and they paraded while the Kilgore band, in cowboy outfits, played.

The Rangerettes wore brief white and blue skirts, boots and cowboy hats. They danced and strutted. Watching the amazing precision with which they danced and stepped around, you wondered how many dozens of hours they must have drilled and practiced to achieve such perfection.

At one time, during their half-time show, they used two sets of colored paper plumes to achieve the most exacting sort of effects. The great crowd of 82,289 roared and applauded its approval. The Rangerettes seemed to be enjoying their show—all were smiling, happily. Texans in the stands were mighty proud of those girls—and the band—from Kilgore.

Down on Bourbon Street, at the old Absinthe House, a great negro pianist, Walter (Fats) Pichon, played nightly to big crowds of visitors. Pichon, composer and conservatory-trained, plays what many consider to be the best boogie piano in the world.

Pichon wears cowboy boots from Texas while he plays—boots sent to him by Texas jazz devotees. On New Year's Eve, Pichon swung into "The Eyes of Texas." About 150 persons were in the audience. Forty Texans stood up.

Texas Oil Man Seeks Pro Grid Franchise, Chicago Paper Says

HOUSTON —(AP)— Glenn McCarthy, millionaire Houston oil and hotel man, Thursday confirmed reports from Chicago that he had applied for a franchise in the new National-American Professional Football League and plans to buy the players of the Chicago Hornets.

CHICAGO —(AP)— The Chicago Tribune said Thursday Glenn McCarthy, wealthy Texas oilman, had requested a franchise in the new National-American Professional Football League for Houston.

The Tribune said expansion of the league to 16 teams became a possibility with disclosure of McCarthy's request. It added Wednesday night he would like to see another franchise granted either in Dallas or New Orleans. He said Seymour Weiss, New Orleans hotel man, "would work for that."

McCarthy was quoted by the Tribune as saying that if his request for a franchise is granted when the league meets in Philadelphia January 19, he would like to purchase the Chicago Hornets, frozen out of the new setup, and move players and coaches into Rice Stadium at Houston.

The Texas oil and hotel man, the Tribune said, declared that 35 or 40 other Houston business men were interested in the project. He did not wish to identify any other potential backers yet.

Commissioner Bert Bell of the NFL, the paper said, related he had sent McCarthy a copy of the league constitution and an application for a franchise.

'C' Bulldogs Set For San Angelo Invitation Tourney

Coach Joe Akins has entered his 'C' Bulldog cage team in the San Angelo Junior Invitation Tournament which opens Friday.

The Midland freshmen are bracketed with Robert E. Lee Junior High of San Angelo in the opening round. The game is scheduled for 2:15 p.m. Friday.

Coach Akins announced the following players will make the trip: Robert Kessling, Roy Kinsey, Bobby Whitaker, Larry Friday, Bill Erskine, Ronald Rone, Harold Robbins, Bobby Harris, Harold Paden, Gwyn Grisham and Reddy Braun.

Lamar Grid Coach Honored By Sports Trail Century Club

BEAUMONT —(AP)— Coach Stan Lambert of Lamar College has been named a member of the Sports Trail Century Club for winning more than 100 football games, according to a letter from Dana Morrison, president.

The Century Club, a nation-wide organization with headquarters in Chicago, seeks to honor coaches of all sports who have records of 100 or more athletic victories in tribute to their work with American youth.

Coach Lambert, whose membership lists 118 gridiron wins, has added another since the framed certificate was drawn up last month. On December 18, his co-champion Lamar Cardinals swamped Georgia Military College, 35-14 in the Spindletop Bowl.

City Cage League Is Organized

A six-team City Basketball League was organized at a meeting in Hotel Scharbauer Wednesday night and play is scheduled to start next week.

Rotary Engineers, the JayCees, VFW, Magnolia, Ted Thompson and the Rebels (un-sponsored) have indicated they are ready to play. Pat McMullan was appointed to draft a schedule for the league with opening games slated Wednesday night in the Junior High Gym.

Two rounds will be played in the regular season and a playoff will be conducted for the championship and consolation titles.

Entrance fees, admission prices and other business was handled at the meeting.

Present at the meeting were Jack Locke, Art Groves, Charles McDonald, H. H. Rogers, Charles Shepherd and Don Emmert.

Rogers will manage the un-sponsored Rebels.

The league will be under the sponsorship of the Midland VFW Post with McMullan as director.

Texas League Will Vote On Bonus Rule, Plan 1950 Schedule

DALLAS —(AP)— Adoption of a schedule and a vote on the controversial bonus rule are major topics of business at the annual meeting of the Texas League in Tulsa Saturday.

President J. Alvin Gardner said it was certain the Texas League would vote to retain the bonus rule although it has been voted out by the major leagues.

The majors must have the backing of the minors in order to get this rule replaced since it was a major minor league agreement. Two-thirds of the minor leagues would have to vote it out in order to get it off the books but Gardner says he doesn't think that number will do so.

The Texas League voted for the rule by a five-three count last year and this year already has shown a sufficient majority to repeat its stand.

There also will be discussion of television and radio.

St. John's Chosen Top Cage Quint

NEW YORK —(AP)— St. John's of Brooklyn Thursday held an early edge over a large field in one of the most wide open scrambles ever for national collegiate basketball supremacy.

The Redmen of Brooklyn, with a 12-1 record, were voted the No. 1 quintet of the country in the first of The Associated Press weekly polls on the top teams in the sport.

Second place went to Kentucky's young, improving Wildcats, who have lost only to St. John's. The Wildcats rebounded to down Villanova and Bradley, two strong clubs, and win the Sugar Bowl tourney.

St. John's, which was knocked out of the unbeaten class Tuesday night by a blazing CCNY team 54-52, received a total of 696 points in the voting of 38 sports writers and sportscasters around the country. Points were awarded on a 10-9-8-7, etc., basis for one to 10 selections.

Stern Struggle Ahead
The other members of the first 10 are No. 2—Bradley, 485 points; 4—Long Island U., 470 points; 5—Indiana, 418 points; 6—Holy Cross, 315; 7—North Carolina State, 232; 8—Duquesne, 141; 9—UCLA, 140; 10—Minnesota, 102.

St. John's twin triumphs over last year's big tourney champions, Kentucky of the NCAA, and San Francisco of the National Invitation Tourney, undoubtedly swayed the experts in the Redmen's direction.

The Brooklyn five plays a powerful schedule. But the Brooklynites have a stern struggle ahead of them to keep on top. Kentucky, for instance, is a sophomore-loaded team which has been improving from game to game.

Long Island, a tall, smart team, is rated in the metropolitan area as at least equal to St. John's.

No Southwest team was among the leaders.

Ben Hogan Blisters Par In Warmups For Los Angeles Tourney

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— Can Ben Hogan win his first tournament on his comeback try?

This is the big question asked by 127 other top golfers entered in the twenty-fourth Los Angeles open, which gets under way Friday.

Pro Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., and Amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, are two who believe he will be just as tough to beat as before the traffic accident which nearly cost him his life last February.

The Hershey, Pa., perfectionist, still a little wobbly on his legs, has been subbing par in round after practice round over the tough Riviera course, setting for the $15,000 tourney.

Wednesday, for instance, the little Texan slammed a 67, four below regulation figures of 71. Afterwards, he told newsmen he felt fine and that he was putting accurately and hitting well up to the green.

For 72 practice holes, Hogan carded 283—one below par, and one stroke better than Lloyd Mangrum's total when he won the event last year.

Tulsa Club To Get Two Cincy Moundmen

CINCINNATI —(AP)— Pitcher Walker Cress, 31, Thursday was sold outright by Cincinnati to Tulsa of the Texas League.

He won 15 and lost seven games for Tulsa last season after being optioned to that club by the Reds.

Austin Sheet Metal Adds Roofing Setup

The Austin Sheet Metal Works, 2201 West Wall Street, general sheet metal contractors, announces the addition of a complete roofing service, featuring Certain - Teed products.

All Building Needs Filled At Mid-West

The Mid-West Lumber Company, 1302 West North Front Street, will contract to construct any type of building, residential or commercial, and has a complete line of all types of building materials to fill any need.

Free estimates will be given on any type of repair job or on new construction. The telephone number is 1106.

The firm, under the management of Joe B. Wright, in addition to doing general contract work, handles materials which have stood the test of laboratory and performance.

The experts employed by Mid-West can give you a quick and accurate estimate and Mid-West urges that you let it provide this service for you on that next job.

Anticipating a heavy demand for rock wool insulation this Winter, the Mid-West Lumber Company has stocked a large supply of rock wool for home insulation.

One-Stop Service

Quality paints, a complete line of builders hardware and other supplies supplement the stock of building materials, thus providing one-stop service.

Wright contends there is no substitute for quality materials and know-how by the builder when satisfaction in building is desired. Following this policy strictly, the firm stocks only tested materials and employs only highly qualified men to perform its contract jobs.

All types of roofing work now is performed by the concern, including built-up roofs, shingles and other types for residence or commercial structures.

Austin will contract for the roofing job or will furnish materials. You can be assured the products are the finest obtainable, and in the event you contract for a roofing job the most expert roofing men obtainable will be assigned to it.

Heating and ventilating are other services offered by this firm which has years of experience represented in its trained personnel.

For estimating or engineering, many residence and commercial builders in the Permian Basin area have found this concern to be reliable, efficient and courteous.

If you find that your home or business building is insufficiently heated this Winter, a call to the Austin firm will send an expert to spot your trouble and furnish an estimate on installation sufficient to take care of the situation.

The telephone number is 2705.

Rankin News

RANKIN — Mrs. Roma Elliott Allen has resigned her position as clerk in the Upton County sheriff's office and has moved to Big Spring, where her husband is employed by the Sonora Drilling Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. McCommie, Jr. of Big Spring were Rankin visitors Monday.

Mrs. R. C. Schlagal, manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's Rankin office, fractured her left arm a few days ago when she fell from a stepladder in her home here.

Tulip bulbs once were bought and sold for speculation in Holland, and some of these bulbs sold for 250 times their weight in gold.

West Tex Brick & Tile Proud Of Building Work

The West Tex Brick and Tile Company, 304 North Watherford Street, takes pride in having contributed to the construction of the fine new Skelly Oil Company Building in the installation of asphalt and ceramic tile. West Tex invites citizens to come in and look over its brick and tile samples, which include almost all shades. Contract work is done for various tile installations and the firm also carries maintenance products such as waxes, cleaners and related items.

Accused Form Tax Official Collapses

CORPUS CHRISTI —(P)—Raymond M. Hanks, 43, accused of malfeasance in office while district supervisor for the state comptroller's department, is under treatment in a hospital here. He lost consciousness Wednesday while being taken to the courthouse by arresting officers.

Constable Lloyd Magee said that before passing out, Hanks tried to throw away a bottle. Deputy Constable Morris Cage took the bottle from him, Magee said.

Justice of the Peace B. A. Carter said the bottle was empty but had a prescription number on it. The pharmacy said it was for capsules containing a "very potent" sleeping powder. Carter said.

Hospital attendants said Hanks' condition was not serious.

Hanks was scheduled to go on trial in Austin Monday on charges of filing fraudulent claims on motor fuel taxes. Bowmer later, now in charge of the comptroller's office for the Corpus Christi District, said an Austin grand jury had returned nine indictments containing "some 300 counts" against Hanks.

Enough Molybdenum Poison To Cattle

SACRAMENTO —(P)—Molybdenum, a mineral valuable in industry, harms cows and sheep when enough is in the soil over which they graze. When enough gets into forage plants to be effective, red cows turn yellow, and black sheep and cattle turn gray, reports Dr. Harold Goss of the University of California.

Molybdenum is found in toxic amounts in part of California's San Joaquin valley, in Nevada, Canada, and England, he reports. It causes scours and emaciation in cattle and sheep, and seems to act like a copper deficiency, Goss says.

Dr. H. S. Cameron, also of the university, reports that tests have shown that a very small amount of copper sulphate in the drinking water will counteract the molybdenum.

Has New Theory About Comet Heads

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.—(P)—Dr. Fred Whipple, Harvard Observatory, has a new theory of the stuff that forms the heads of comets. This is a combination of various ices and of meteoric particles. The ices are frozen water, dry ice (frozen carbon dioxide) and an unusual dry ice which is poisonous carbon monoxide, frozen methane or marsh gas, ammonia and cyanogen. Frozen methane and ammonia are part of the surface of the planet Jupiter. The meteoric particles would be stones and bits of nickel-iron.

Dr. Whipple thinks that the ices melt when the comet gets close to the sun. They freeze again when far away.

Each of the continents has one or more towns bearing the name of Rome.

Shu-R-Fit Doubles Plant To Meet Growing Demand

The Shu-R-Fit Venetian Blind Company, 900 North Watherford Street, this week completed the occupation of its expanded quarters at that location, which have been doubled in size to take care of increased business, according to E. H. Pittman, owner.

The expansion was made to keep pace with the ever-growing territory which the firm serves. Pittman said. He also owns the Shu-R-Fit firm in Hobbs, N. M.

In addition to venetian blinds, Shu-R-Fit also handles mineral wool insulation and weatherstripping, which service is recommended to keep out the cold, sand, wind and rain.

Shu-R-Fit's mineral wool applicators are the most modern obtainable. Your house may be insulated by this firm with no down payment and 36 months to pay.

"Ice Cube" Test

Pittman suggests the "ice cube" test to prove the efficiency of mineral wool insulation and it will be demonstrated in your home without cost or obligation.

An ice cube, wrapped in insulation is placed in a heated oven. Another cube is left open. After a period of several minutes, the cube is removed from the oven and comparison will show that it melted less than the other cube.

For an appointment to discuss any of the services offered by this firm just telephone No. 2633.

Rock wool is fireproof, vermin proof, moisture and rot proof. Pittman says mineral wool insulation will save from 30 to 50 per cent on your fuel bills.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

Turn of the century in 1900 found the 63-year reign of England's Queen Victoria within a year of its end. Her strict-laced personality's standards of manners and morals made an impress so deep that after her death in 1901 a whole generation of Britons and Americans lived in the slow-slackening grip of the "Victorian Age." In the U. S., 1901 saw the emergence of a contrasting personality when Theodore Roosevelt became President. Dynamic proponent of the strenuous life, he inaugurated an exciting period of overseas expansion through "manifest destiny," dealing the cards as America played its first hand in the game of modern power-politics. At home, he kept the U. S. in an uproar with his "trust busting" attacks on Wall Street "plutocrats."

Labor Group Attacks Wage Rates Set On Texas Highway Jobs

AUSTIN—(AP)—Wage rates set by the Highway Commission in its call for bids on projects January 11 were attacked by Texas State Federation of Labor Wednesday.

Through its attorneys, the federation sent a letter of complaint to the commission asking for a public hearing to determine "true prevailing wage rates." The body also was asked to require payment of the true prevailing rates on all highway work.

The federation cited wage rates set by the commission for an El Paso County highway project, declaring them "grossly sub-standard" and without basis "in the rates actually prevailing in the locality, where the work is to be performed."

Though the letter was written specifically on behalf of the El Paso Building and Construction Trades Council, AFL, the federation said its charges generally were applicable throughout the state.

Immediate Check

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer, to whom the letter was handed for transmittal to the three commissioners, said a check of rates would be made immediately in the El Paso area.

"If we're wrong, we'll be the first to admit it," Greer said.

He disclosed at the same time that a higher wage scale will apply to all state highway projects beginning in February. He said the commission "upped wages considerably" at a December 29 meeting but felt the January 11 lettings "were too close for the new scale to apply."

Greer also directed attention to the fact that the commission does not say what wage must be paid by contractors, but fixes a minimum they must meet.

Minimum Boosted

"Generally, contractors pay what they have in order to get workers," he said.

The new wage scale ups the lowest category of work to a minimum of 75 cents an hour. The federal wage-hour law recently was amended by Congress to boost minimum wages from 40 to 75 cents an hour.

Paul Sparks, the federation's secretary, declined to say what action his organization might take if the commission ignores its request for a public hearing and determination of a new wage scale before bids of highway projects are submitted next Wednesday morning.

New Stores Brighten Crane Business Area

CRANE—New and modern buildings continue to replace old ones in the business district of Crane. New are the A. N. Wright Building at Sixth and Gaston Streets and the Crane Motor Company building between Sixth and Seventh Streets on Gaston Street.

Charles Liquor Store has moved into the north section of the Wright building and Ken G. Spencer and the J. R. Todd Insurance Agency occupy the location on Sixth Street east of the new offices of the Southern Union Gas Company.

Charlie Ogle will move his women's apparel shop to the location between the corner building and the liquor store in the near future and then will begin renovating the front of the building he now occupies.

Janet Beth arrived in Columbus Wednesday after a 12,000-mile trip from Singapore, where physicians predicted a rare blood disease would take her life before February.

Now she is under the personal care of Dr. Charles A. Doan, who is dean as well as director of University Hospital, where doctors have done research in rare blood disease.

"We will have to begin making our own tests, because we have not been in communication with Singapore physicians," Dr. Doan said.

Janet Beth's father is Paul Wagner, chief buyer for the B. F. Goodrich Company in Singapore.

She was four months old when her parents moved from Akron to Singapore.

The little girl became ill December 3. On December 17, Singapore physicians said she had six weeks to live.

Her parents decided to bring her to Columbus. They flew with Janet Beth and another daughter, Pamela, eight, to Los Angeles.

Pamela was left with friends in Los Angeles.

Janet Beth and her parents continued on to Columbus by train, because of weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Redman of Akron, Janet's maternal grandparents, met them at the station.

As they drove down High Street they passed a caravan of cars with sirens going—a parade escorting home Ohio State University football players just returned from their Rose Bowl victory.

The Wagners hoped for victory here. Said Janet's father: "Here there may be hope—there wasn't any there."

Seven applications for GI housing loans have been made in Stanton. Two of the applications have been approved and one house, belonging to James McMorris, is nearing completion.

University Dean To Try To Save Child, Ill Of Rare Disease

COLUMBUS, OHIO—(AP)—The dean of the Ohio State University College of Medicine will direct efforts to save the life of two-year-old Janet Beth Wagner.

Janet Beth arrived in Columbus Wednesday after a 12,000-mile trip from Singapore, where physicians predicted a rare blood disease would take her life before February.

Now she is under the personal care of Dr. Charles A. Doan, who is dean as well as director of University Hospital, where doctors have done research in rare blood disease.

"We will have to begin making our own tests, because we have not been in communication with Singapore physicians," Dr. Doan said.

The Wagners hoped for victory here. Said Janet's father: "Here there may be hope—there wasn't any there."

'Whisky Brain' Defense Planned For Fred Stroble, On Trial For Glucoft Sex Slaying

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Fred Stroble's daughter and the mother of the six-year-old child he is accused of murdering testified as prosecution witnesses at his trial.

His daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Hausman, wiped away tears Wednesday as she identified photographs of her home, where the 68-year-old former baker is accused of choking, beating and stabbing little Linda Joyce Glucoft to death last November 14.

Mrs. Hausman also identified the blanket in which the little girl's body was found, the knitted tie used to choke her, a kitchen knife, an ice pick, a hammer and an axe which the state contends were used in the sex slaying.

he told how on the fatal day she took her own daughter, Rochelle, also six, to a party and left Stroble home. When they returned at six o'clock, Mrs. Hausman said, Stroble had gone.

"The witness trembled as she recalled that Rochelle and Linda Joyce were "little playmates" and saw each other "every day."

Asked if Stroble knew Linda Joyce, Mrs. Hausman murmured, "Yes. He played with her."

Mother Testifies

"The little victim's mother, Mrs. Jules Glucoft, dressed in black, said Rochelle was her daughter's best friend. The last words she heard Linda Joyce speak, Mrs. Glucoft said, were:

"I'm going to play with Rochelle."

Deputy District Attorney Adolph Alexander said in his opening statement after the jury was selected Wednesday that the prosecution will prove Stroble took the Glucoft girl into a bedroom and choked her while she fought back and screamed.

Defense Attorneys Al Matthews and John J. Hill of the public defender's office said Stroble will be portrayed as a senile pedophile, a "whisky brain," a mentally sick man who thinks and acts like a child.

Quoting from a psychiatric work, Matthews explained: "In the condition known as sadistic pedophilia, the individual prefers children or young adolescents as his victims to gratify his sadistic impulses and to satisfy his sexual appetite. In considering the sadistic pedophile, it is important to distinguish between the aged or senile type in which brutality toward the younger is a rarity. He (the senile pedophile) seldom commits acts of violence unless under the influence of alcohol or in moments of fright."

Matthews added: "That is our defense."

McKENNEY Answers Your

CANASTA
Questions

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written For NEA Service

You can rest assured that all of the confusion concerning the laws of Canasta now will be eliminated. The "Official Canasta Laws" now are published and on sale at book stores.

These laws were prepared by the Regency Club of New York and have been adopted by the National Canasta Laws Commission, with an agreement that there will be no changes made in these laws during 1950.

Writers of books on Canasta may obtain permission from the National Canasta Laws Commission to print the official laws in their books.

John R. Crawford of Philadelphia and I have gone through the law book and selected for today a few points on which there has been some confusion.

Going Out Concealed

If a player can meld out his complete hand at one turn, including one canasta, without adding any cards to melds previously made by his partner, this is called melding out concealed, and you receive an extra bonus of 100 points. In other words, you receive 100 points for melding out and an extra 100-point bonus for going out concealed.

If you have a red tray in your hand and place it on the table, drawing a card from the stock pile to replace it, but make no other play, you may subsequently go out concealed. The placing of red trays on the table is not melding and does not affect your going out concealed.

Here is one important point to remember. When a player melds out concealed and meets his canasta requirements, he need not have any minimum initial meld count.

Minimum Melds
A great many players are under the impression that melding a canasta meets the minimum initial meld requirement. This is not true. The canasta bonus may not be considered in reaching the minimum count required for the first meld.

An interesting point was presented to us the other day. A player melded out concealed and met the minimum initial meld requirement was 90 points. The cards he had placed on the table added up only to 80.

She had an extra deuce in hand and wanted to add it to the meld, which she was sure was perfectly legal. She would then have 100 points down.

This point is covered clearly in Law 11 (b) of the Official Canasta Laws, which states: A canasta must include at least four natural cards. It may include more than three wild cards only under the following conditions: If the count of the additional wild cards is not used in reaching the minimum count required for the first meld.

Law 11 points out that a player, during his own turn to play, and at no other time, may add any other player how many cards he holds; and the player asked must answer correctly.

When a player gets down to one card, he has the right to announce that he holds only one card.

A player, at his turn to play, has the right to count the cards remaining in the stock pile, so long as this is done so that no one can see the face of the cards, but he has no right to count the cards in the discard pile.

Teen-Age Contest Winner Unaffected By Hollywood Whirl

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD—Jackie Lee Barnes, winner of a free trip to Hollywood, has returned to her Albuquerque home with no regrets.

Contest winners appear on the Hollywood scene as often as new Ave Gardner dates. But Jackie was different. Selected to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the Radio Theater, the former Texas girl was treated to a whirlwind fortnight of Hollywood glamor. Here is her reaction:

"I wouldn't particularly like to be a movie star. I had a screen test, which took almost a whole day. If anything should come of it, I might accept a contract. But I don't expect one and I wouldn't be disappointed."

Not Nervous At All
The winsome 15-year-old said she expected to be nervous when she met the stars.

"But I wasn't at all," she commented. "It was just like talking to anybody else. The stars are really much nicer than the newspapers lead you to believe."

She said her favorite stars were the younger ones like Elizabeth Taylor, John Derek and Jane Powell.

"The most exciting thing that happened to me," she said, "was going to the Cocoanut Grove. It was a great thrill to see the Pacific Ocean, too. I think I was as excited over the prospect of seeing sunny California as I was over meeting the stars."

The Hollywood trip hasn't changed Jackie's ideas for the future.

"I still want to be a model," she declared. "One of my prizes was a modeling course and I hope to become a model while I'm still 15. I want to have a career until I'm about 24. That's young enough to get married."

Snowwhite Introduces New Type Hot Rolls

Snowwhite Bakery, 105 North Pecos Street, now is introducing to Midland a new type of hot rolls, known as "Brown 'N Serve" rolls. The rolls are formed and need but seven minutes to brown and serve, bakery officials said. All that is needed is to place the rolls on an ungreased baking sheet and bake them in a moderately hot oven until golden brown. They then are ready for serving.

"Brown 'N Serve" rolls will keep in a refrigerator about two weeks and will last indefinitely in a deep freeze, according to Walter Burgess, manager of the firm.

The rolls proved most popular with Midlanders during the Christmas holidays, he said.

Tale Of Two Kitties

Hot Shot, the Maltese kitten, and Cricket, the deodorized skunk, should be better friends, decided plant guard Bill Stout of Sunnyvale, Calif. So Stout got the two animals together over a bowl of warm milk, with the results seen below.

"Who's this wants to share my bowl?" growls Hot Shot, sniffing suspiciously. Cricket, the skunk, waves a greeting with his tail.

"That for you," meows Hot Shot, swinging a high left. But Cricket keeps his temper and goes quietly about his lunch.

"Oh, well, might as well be nice." Kitty laps milk hurriedly, trying to catch up. "Now they're pals," says Bill Stout.

Japanese Cuties Hoping To Make Tour of America

OSAKA, JAPAN—Two hundred of Japan's prettiest dancers and singers of the world famed Takarazuka Girls Opera Company, are working hard to bring their troupe up to pre-war standards in the hope of touring the United States. Plans still are in the nebulous stage. But there is a possibility that the all-girl show which draws an audience of some 4,000 almost daily during the year will be on Japan's export list in 1950. Dollar earnings of the show in America would go into Japan's funds for purchase of raw materials needed to rehabilitate the country. Nip Number. Actually the company is a gigantic—by American standards—light opera and musical show troupe specializing in Occidental theatrical presentations. For Japanese audiences, however, a short Nipponese number is included. The main item on each bill, changed once a month, is always a light opera or a musical revue in western style. The entire cast is composed of girls, who join the 37 year old company before reaching the age of 18.

Youth Center Chatter

By JOYCE HOWELL and JUNIE HAZLIP

It hardly seems possible that the year has changed since we last wrote the Chatter, but it has! Greetings, everyone, from the year 1950!

After all the dances of last week we were worn out when school began. However, the teachers wouldn't accept that as an excuse for missing school, so on the second of January we once again moved back into school.

A lot of teens were visiting in the halls of the high school Monday morning. Fayne Wilkes, Giff Alstrin and George Glass were peering in different rooms. During the noon hour we noticed two more ex-Midland students. They haven't graduated yet, but now are attending the Radford School for Girls in El Paso. Nancy Warren and Gail Black are in the ninth grade. Caroline Saefer, Dub Thompson, Glenda Shoemaker and Jimmy Conine stopped for awhile in Mrs. Magee's plane geometry class. Caroline and Dub discovered they both have the same mechanical drawing and math teacher at Texas Tech.

When rushing around a corner in the hall, we literally bumped into another "ex," Wilbur Yeager. We also noticed Mabe Clark, Joy Guyton, Nell Cole and Pat Bray watching "the poor high school kids" struggling to different rooms between classes. When we reached the second floor we saw Royce Rye McKee talking to Richard Patton. During first period Band Hall we overheard Arles Ann Klebold talking to Mr. Hoffman. She wishes she were back in M.H.S., and even threatens to return. Diphtheria?

"Diphtheria victim" Margie Cramer is up and around once again. It was rumored that Margie was "just 'bout to die" of diphtheria. Imagine our surprise when she turned up at a party Saturday afternoon! It turned out that the threat of diphtheria was just a false alarm. A lot of teens got Bulldogs for Christmas. Don't be alarmed, the town isn't being overrun by that particular type of dog, we're talking about the tiny purple and gold bulldog pins! Maxine Hill, Peggy Read, Betty Pitzer and Nancy McKinley have the pins with a small school seal attached by a gold chain. Gwen Roberts and Gloria Anguish received Bulldogs which can be worn either as a charm on a bracelet or on a chain around the neck.

Nancy McKinley had a very Merry Christmas. She went back to her old hometown, Oklahoma, for Christmas vacation. She still is raving about the wonderful time she had while there. If we're not careful, Midland High may lose a "citizen" for Nancy wants to go back there to live! Jo Dean Downing came skipping into Spanish class the other day singing, "I'm in love, I'm in love! Who with, Jo?" Bill Franklin almost lost a piece of his thumb last Sunday. David Anguish, Earl Chapman and Bill went out hunting and while reloading his gun, Bill accidentally shot himself!

New Playmate. We discovered a new playmate in town. He or she (we really aren't certain) is a very nice looking and the type of friend who never disagrees or talks back. Ophelia John, (as you easily can see, the name can be masculine or feminine) has beautiful brown hair. If you are interested in meeting our new friend, Oph. J. lives in the one hundred block of South Weatherford Street. (Incidentally, Oph. J. is a monkey!) Beware! Danger! Caution! When you see Dan Ratcliff coming down the halls, run! When he is in a good mood don't be at all surprised to have him push you down the stairs, slap you on the back, and say, in a perfectly sweet tone of voice, "How is my favorite friend today?"

Wandering Thought: Have you ever noticed what a friendly smile Wayne Richardson has? We are going to start a petition among the Midland teens to get the Finch twins to either wear different colors, or use something so the rest of us can tell them apart! Only very close friends can tell the two girls apart and this sometimes proves embarrassing for those who do not know them so well. For instance, at the New Year's Dance, Margaret and Therese were dressed alike. We didn't know whether to say "Hello Margaret," or "Hello Therese." They must get terribly tired of telling people, "I'm not Margaret, I'm Therese," or "I'm not Therese, I'm Margaret!" In the future, we'll just say, "Hello Margaret, Therese, or which ever one you are, we're glad to see you back in Midland!"

Cheerful Thought. Just three weeks until the mid-term tests!—Cheerful thought, isn't it! A formal dance held last week was the Youth Center Dance. The French Heels Club made this Christmas a lovely one for the Midland teens by sponsoring this dance! The Center looked beautiful and everyone there certainly enjoyed the event! Our sincere thanks and appreciation go to the members of the French Heels Club who made the entertainment possible!

The New Year's Dance given by Margie Carter and Maggie Murphy was a perfect ending for a wonderful year! The hotel ballroom was crowded and we constantly saw teens we hadn't seen in months. Paper hats, confetti, serpentine horns, rattles and other types of noisemakers were carried home from the dance. Cars were even given away! Did you see the tiny black box cameras? They, too, were quite a surprise! The many balloons stayed up for more than half the evening; however, as always, they were popped before the dance was over. Maggie and Margie mentioned that it took them a long time to blow up all those balloons!

The afternoon Cooke parties (more commonly known as "hen sessions") have turned into Canasta and domino parties. Bet Studdert and Mariann Forest were trying to teach Ann Boring how to play "42." Joan Nelson, Rosalyn Leggett and Toya Chapple are quite good at Canasta. Anyone know how to play Bridge? The girls have decided to take up Bridge next.

While we're on the subject of girls—a few weeks ago we mentioned that a new fad of wearing scarves of different colors around the neck was a new style. This week we have discovered another new style: that of wearing heavy bracelets. The heavy chain, gold or silver, often has a "do-dajait" dangling from it. Jean Blackwell and Shirley Harrison have gold bracelets with small perfume vials attached. (Incidentally, Shirley lost part of hers so if you happen to see a part of a perfume vial running around, please return it to Shirley.) Susie Young, Adele Deavenport, and Margie Cramer have round discs on their chains. A square with the initials "R.L." was given to Rosalyn Leggett.

Masculine News. Next week we'll try to find some news about the boys. We won't mention names; however, we heard this comment by one of the girls about a particular holiday dance. "It was really rather funny, the freshmen sat at one table, and they were just as quiet as mice. They wouldn't attempt dancing unless the piece being played was very very slow. Mostly they just sat there and tried to do the 'right' thing. The sophomores were at another table and they were the only sophisticated group, ready to dance to anything. Now, the juniors and seniors who were at another table were the only natural ones! Of course, there was a table of 'Ex's' and they were so busy trying to look bored at all this childishness they couldn't have had a good time."

Construction Tops Record; Gains Seen During Year 1950

NEW YORK—Engineering construction ended 1949 at $8.2 billion, Engineering News Record, McGraw-Hill publication reports. This breaks the previous high record, war construction of $8,000,000,000 in 1942. This year's total is a gain of 14 per cent over 1948. A rising volume of public works, particularly public schools, hospitals and housing, contributed heavily to the year's record as did heavy gains in mass housing by private builders. Contracts for highways and for industrial building dropped below their record highs of 1949. The outlook for 1950 is another new record of $8.55 billion. This would be an overall gain of 4 per cent over 1949, with public work (including public housing) chalked up for a 16 per cent gain and private engineering construction, including mass housing, marked for a nine per cent decline.

His Daily Swim Gets Daily Food

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. — (AP) — There's one cat near here that not only swims but gets his daily food at the same time. The cat dives into Lake Springfield after it spots a fish in the water which is way over its head and comes up with a meal.

Women To Dominate Next Half-Century, Herr Boyle Opines

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK — (AP) — The most interesting thing about the next 50 years will be women.

They have been the most interesting things in any half century. There is no doubt that this is really a woman's century, and by the year 2,000 the female brand will be stamped more clearly than ever upon it. The chief task in the 50 years ahead from the standpoint of women themselves is merely to extend their conquest of the male ego. The groundwork was laid successfully from 1900 to 1950.

The ordinary man's attitude toward women has changed from a complacent "Dear, what would I do without you?" to an alarmed "Honey, what am I ever going to do with you?" How will women go about extending their rule? I think their influence from now on will be felt most in science, finance—and solving the servant problem.

Science is pre-eminently a woman's arena because it is neat and tidy, and the one who comes up with the best recipe wins. Many of our financiers are going to be in skirts soon, too, for the control of capital intrigues women as much as it does the government. The Servant Problem. This brings us to the third chief avenue of feminine effort—the solving of the servant problem. Since maids are almost impossible to hire and will become more so, the only solution will lie in the further harnessing of husbands. They have taken the place of servants in many families, and this trend will go on. One wife told me, "The thing I'd like most in the next 50 years is for my husband to bring me my breakfast in bed every morning."

Another woman said: "I think our biggest problem is going to be to find something to do with the time we already have on our hands." Follows your chief duty for the next 50 years—and probably 1,000,001 years after that—will be to keep the fair sex amused. The more women change the less they do. What Goes On In Extra Stomachs? SACRAMENTO — (AP) — Does it matter to you what goes on in those extra stomachs of cows and sheep? It should, says C. F. Huffman, Michigan State College dairying expert. He told a recent animal industry conference here that the utilization of rumen about just what takes place in the rumen, or first stomach of cows and sheep.

"The efficient fermentation vats of cattle and sheep make possible the utilization of one-half to one billion acres of ranch land in the United States which would otherwise yield little if any human food," he declared. What is not widely realized, says Huffman, is that ruminants do not get most of their nourishment directly from feed, but from the digestion and absorption of countless number of food-laden bacteria that work on the coarse food in the rumen. SAYS RIGHT POLITICIANS INCLINED TO BALDNESS PARIS — (AP) — Rightist politicians are more inclined to baldness than those of the left, according to Monsieur Jules, official barber of the French National Assembly. Jules, who reckons he has cut the hair of about 35 per cent of the deputies during the year, says that the old Chamber of the Third Republic shaved about 20 per cent less baldness than the present National Assembly of the Fourth Republic.

Babe Ruth hit 40 or more home runs 11 times during his career.

A convertible to cost "$1,000 or less" was unveiled Wednesday afternoon by Nash Motors at a special showing of the experimental car in New York City. The sleek and streamlined car temporarily is called the "NXI Car."

New Experimental Car Is Unveiled By Nash Motors

NEW YORK CITY—Nash Motors Wednesday unveiled a convertible to cost "$1,000 or less." The showing was part of a survey to discover if sufficient people would buy such a car to justify putting it into production. The showing in New York was attended by the press and about 600 invited guests.

According to Nash, this small experimental car should not be confused with a new full-sized automobile to be introduced within a few months as an addition to its Ambassador and Statesman Air-flyte lines. Temporarily called "n.x.i." (n for Nash, x for experimental and i for International), the survey car, sleek and streamlined in styling, is a small 2-passenger 2-door convertible of original design by the company's research and engineering departments. It also can be built as a sports roadster, or as a 2-door all steel coupe. Designed to use foreign-made low horsepower engines, it is 12 feet 1 inch long, 4 feet 5 inches high and 5 feet 2 inches wide, with an 84-inch wheel base.

Series Addition. If Nash Motors decides to build this car, it would be an addition to its present series of full-sized automobiles and would be aimed at new "plus" markets, officials said. "The n.x.i. is not an attempt by Nash to invade the large volume automobile market. The car, if built, would probably have a relatively specialized market potential." Nash Motors plans to poll about 250,000 persons in a survey of opinion about the market for the new type of small car. "These cars are not in production, no tools have been ordered and the cars could not be manufactured for at least a year. It would be manufactured only if public opinion clearly shows need, desire and willingness to buy them in sufficient quantity," Mason said.

Prunes Seeking Higher Destiny

DAVIS, CALIF. — (AP) — The prune is seeking a destiny bigger than the breakfast table. An exhibit here recently displayed these new prune products: Bottled fresh prune juice, made with a new process that retains the taste of fresh prunes. Frozen prune concentrate. Sieved canned prunes, adaptable for prune ice cream, open face prune pie, prune milkshake, prune bread or cake, prune candy, and prune desserts. Breakfast cereal flakes with 25 per cent prune content. Prune granules. Prune cola. The exhibit was prepared by the University of California College of Agriculture here.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Goose Bumps

The cold north wind was blowing the snow across the ground, howling and shrieking through the Great Forest. Wintertime had come. The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, was walking along the Elephant Path, so wrapped up in clothes and coats that you could hardly tell who he was. Oh me, and oh, my, my, how cold was the day.

"Happy day, Huffen Puffen," said a voice nearby. The Huffen peeped out from all his clothes to see who the voice was. The voice was Mugwump Monkey.

Said the Huffen: "Happy day from your old friend, the Huffen Puffen!"

"Uhuh, but why all the clothes?" Mugwump wanted to know.

"The day is cold, it is," said the Huffen. He put his cold, cold

California Leads In Bean Production

BERKELEY, CALIF.—(AP)—Boston may bask in her reputation as a baker of beans, but most of them come from California.

Agricultural experts here say that for many years California has been the only state producing some varieties in commercial quantities. Standard limas, baby limas, black-eyes, small whites, and pinks, are all claimed as Golden State beans.

Michigan, New York, and the Rocky Mountain states compete with the Great Northern variety, pea beans, red kidneys, and pintos.

REGULATIONS CATCH UP WITH SHOE SHINE BOYS

BELOGRADE.—(AP)—Government regulation has caught up with the shoeshine boys and old men—who ply their trade on the public streets of Yugoslavia. Their fees have been frozen at 10 cents a shine.

They previously staked up a customer and charged what they thought the traffic would stand.

Wine Given Lucky Cable Car Patrons

SAN FRANCISCO.—(AP)—Each day a cable car, which shuttles up California Street, awards a bottle of wine to the adult passenger whose dime pushes the fare register past a given point.

The wine is provided by growers in the nearby Napa valley, who are "sponsoring" the cable car.

"Sponsoring" of its cars for advertising purposes has been resorted to by the privately-owned California Street Railway Company because of financial difficulties.

SIDE GLANCES

"I detest the thought of charity! Perhaps Madam has some ashtrays to empty, some pencils to sharpen?"

hands on Mugwump's ears to show how cold the weather was. Mugwump wasn't wearing an overcoat. Just a little sweater.

Mugwump said: "I'm not cold."

The Huffen laughed to hear it. "Of course you are cold," said the Huffen. "Those are goose bumps on your arm, they are." Because when you get really cold, goose bumps are the name of the little bumps that come on your arm from the cold.

"Oh now," said Mugwump, "those aren't goose bumps. Geese bumps are what they are."

"Oh no! Geese bumps!" said the Huffen.

"Geese bumps!" said Mugwump. And there they stood in the cold snow, shouting back and forth at one another: "Goose bumps! Geese bumps! Geese bumps! Geese bumps!"

The trouble was that Mugwump didn't want to go back in the monkey house and get more clothes to keep him warm, and the Huffen knew that Mugwump should do it. But Mugwump did go in for more clothes, his overcoat even, when Bigger, his father with the terrible temper, shouted for him to come in.

And the thing to remember is this: goose bumps, geese bumps, it makes no difference what you call them. When you see them on your arm, then you know you're cold. It's time to get by a fire or to put on more clothes, as everyone should know. Happy day!

Cannon Threatens To Cause A War

MILAN—(P)—A cannon, four or five years old, threatened to start a war between San Cesario and Spilamberto, two little towns south of the Po River. The cannon was borrowed some 20 years ago by Spilamberto from San Cesario for a local fiesta and never returned.

A few months ago the San Cesarians planned a celebration and obtained a "temporary" restitution of the cannon. After the fiesta, the San Cesarians refused to give it back.

Spilambertians decided to take the cannon during the night. San Cesario hid the cannon whereupon the Spilambertians threatened to steal the town church bells in reparation. So a detachment of San Cesariani mounts guard every night around the town's belfry. Latest communiques indicate: calm on both fronts.

It is estimated that the oceans of the world would rise 150 feet were the great ice-capus of Greenland and Antarctica to melt.

Ambrosia Dish Packs Vitamin C

AMBROSIA DESSEET—Tangerine and grapefruit sections with shredded coconut make a perfect Ambrosia for those winter menus.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Fruit desserts and salads are important in Winter menus. Let's try a few.

An ambrosia dessert, made of tangerines and grapefruit sections liberally sprinkled with shredded coconut, is ideal after a heavy meal. Packs a lot of essential vitamin C, too.

For your next buffet supper, try these twin fruit and vegetable molds. Place them on the same serving plate and let your guests take what they like.

Fruit and Vegetable Twin Molds (8 servings for each mold)

Fresh Lemon Gelatin Base: Four envelopes unflavored gelatin, 2 cups cold water, 4 cups hot water, 1 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 cup lemon juice.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add hot water, sugar and salt; stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice and mix thoroughly. Chill mixture until consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Divide mixture equally in two parts.

Fruit Salad: To one part of the mixture add 2 cups cut grapefruit sections, well drained, 1/4 cup sliced maraschino cherries and 1/2 cup diced celery.

Vegetable Salad: To second part of the mixture add 2 cups finely shredded cabbage, 1/2 cup diced celery, 1/4 cup minced green pepper and 1/4 cup chopped pimiento.

Turn each mixture into a 3x1/2x8 1/2-inch loaf pan and chill until firm. Unmold both on a large platter. Garnish the fruit salad with grapefruit sections and halves of maraschino cherries, and the vegetable salad with sliced olives.

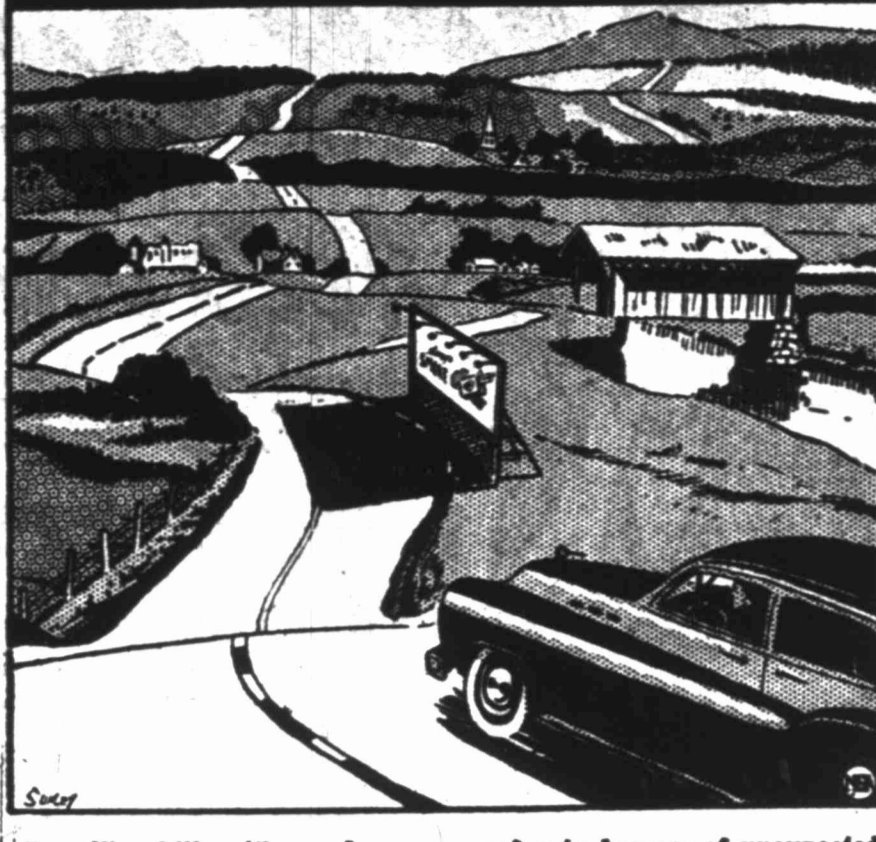

If you like lemon gelatin with fresh fruit, try this basic recipe. Serve on a round dish garnished with orange and tangerine sections and a few dice of cranberry jelly.

Basic Lemon Gelatin (Serves 6)

One envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 1/3 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup hot water, 1/4 cup lemon juice.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add sugar, salt and hot water and stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice, mix thoroughly. Chill until mixture is firm.

Winter's Worst Hazard: SKIDDING

In rolling hills with woods, curves and cuts, beware of unexpected ice spots. The roadway may be entirely clear except in low and shady spots. There death lurks.

PLEASE TELL THE FOREIGN MINISTER HOW TO DRESS

LONDON—(P)—"Would someone please tell our foreign minister how to dress?" asked an anguished letter to the London Daily Graphic. Published with the letter was a picture of Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin in evening dress at a recent British-Belgian boxing tournament here. The writer, complained: "Look at the bow-ends of his tie tucked under the winged collar—as if anyone wore winged collars with dinner jackets these nights!"

Man's first weapon in warfare was the slingshot.

Indian Government Slows Construction

NEW DELHI, INDIA—(P)—The government of India has decided to discourage all non-essential construction as part of its economy drive and because of scarcity of building material.

Minister for Works N. V. Gadgil told the legislative assembly recently, that this included cinema houses but not sports stadiums if they were not luxuriously designed.

Have A Laugh

By BOYCE HOUSE

Two friends were visiting one of the plants that produce the brew that made Milwaukee famous when a driver of a beer-truck entered the office. He was an enormous fellow and one of the visitors remarked: "I'll bet $10 he could drink a gallon of beer at one sitting."

The bet was called and then the truck driver was asked if he would cooperate.

"I'll try it if you'll excuse me for a few minutes," he replied.

The request readily was granted and, about half an hour later, he returned, seated himself and drank a gallon of beer. The loser paid off and then he said to the driver: "I have a question I want to ask you: why did you want to be gone for a few minutes?"

"Well," Schultz replied, "I wanted to go home and see if I could drink a gallon of beer at once time."

When Heifetz made his American debut, a capacity audience greeted the great violinist. In the throng were an eminent violinist and a famous pianist. Each number evoked tremendous applause and the concert was not half over when the violinist who was in the audience drew out his handkerchief, mopped his brow and remarked to his friend, "It's dreadfully hot." The other replied, "Not for pianists."

Bennett, the eccentric owner of the Herald-Tribune, was asked by a financier, "Is the Herald-Tribune for sale?" "Yes," said Bennett, "three cents daily; five cents Sunday."

Wyoming granted women suffrage in 1893.
