

O-o-o-h-h, Jonah

The Red Sea, famous since the days of Jonah for its extraordinary marine life, has produced this freak sea monster. A night scene on Akaba Beach at Hues left the strange-looking creature stranded (or is somebody pulling a monstrous gag?). The 40-foot monster resembles a whale in most respects, with a hole on top for breathing, a dredge-like mouth and no teeth. The elephant-like tusks measure nine feet.

Gagsters Give Their Opinions On Last Season's Best Laughs

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD—I was on my way to Paramount to talk to Alan Ladd when I bumped into Al Schwartz and Marvin Fisher who write jokes for Bob Hope.

Lucey's, where the stars and the gossip hang out. But no sooner had I landed safely on the opposite side of the street than I collided with a lad named Paul Henning, who writes the Burns and Allen show.

But a block later, while crossing the street against a red light, I was almost hit by a car which turned out to contain four Jack Benny gagmen. Remembering my good luck with Hope's writers, I asked the Bennymen what they considered their best recent gag.

The Rev. H. D. Christian, pastor, W. V. Stiel, chairman of the building committee, and Albert Yielding, chairman of the board of deacons, broke the first soil to begin the project.

Rankin Woman Serving As Missionary In Japan Says Cold Tablets Chief Need

RANKIN—This may seem an odd request but the things I could most right now are some anti-histamine cold tablets," Lenora Hudson, former Rankin girl now a Baptist missionary in Japan, said in a letter received recently by the Rankin Baptist Church Women's Missionary Society circle which bears her name.

Mrs. Harley Romine, chairman of the circle, wrote Miss Hudson, who has been in Tokyo for six months, and the letter she received as an answer gives a description of the on-day conditions in occupied Japan.

Miss Hudson wrote that she read about the cold tablets in the December "Reader's Digest." "The change in climate and the cold rooms in church and at school have caused us to have many more colds than we have in the States. Our worst months will be February and March and the medicine, if available, would certainly be a welcome gift."

"The Japanese homes," she added, "are cold. They have very little heat and even in the coldest weather with snow and ice on the ground the churches and schools have no heat. Many times I have sat in church and seen the air white with our breath as we sang." Language School

"At present I am in language school and will be for two years," she writes, "and we really have some experiences talking to the Japanese people. Most of the time I have to use my entire vocabulary and both hands to make myself understood."

Describing the difference in customs in Japan, Miss Hudson said that "I have no trouble remembering to take my shoes off when I go in the house and sitting on the floor came fairly easy too, though for some it is very hard. The chopsticks were not nearly so difficult as I imagined and now I find them almost as easy to manage as a fork."

She explained that most of the mission homes are western style and that they eat American food most of the time. All vegetables must be cooked or peeled and all water boiled, she added.

Store For Foreigners

"There is a store for foreigners in downtown Tokyo where we buy our meat, as meat on the Japanese market is not kept on ice and it is not very wise to eat it," Miss Hudson said.

"Transportation facilities in Tokyo are really something for Ripley's 'Believe It or Not.' I have never seen such crowds. I have ridden for miles with only one foot on the ground because there was no room for the other. One of the other girls one day got both feet off the floor and rode for some time being held up by the pressure of the crowds against her. She was in tears by the time she reached school."

Miss Hudson said that the Japanese are extremely interested in learning from the missionaries and that this makes the work gratifying.

Give Glamor To Clipped Cut

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

With a few twists of the wrists and some odds and ends from a jewelry box, any woman can change a short hair-do from daytime simplicity to evening glamor, according to Manhattan hair stylist Jean De Chant.

He suggests, for example, that a double strand pearl necklace be intertwined with black velvet ribbon to create the "prima donna" look for short hair which has been snipped just below the ear lobes. Hair this length can be brushed up and swirled in the back which will give the illusion of long hair swept high.

Pearls and velvet ribbon change this short bob from daytime efficiency to evening elegance.

Another De Chant treatment for short hair is the use of a length of pastel tulle wrapped about the head in much the same manner as the pearls and finished off with a glitter brooch or tiny scatter pins.

A third treatment can be in brushing all of the hair into a soft roll atop the head, either away from or toward the face, and crossing two decorative hatpins in the roll for an exotic touch.

The best length for short hair, this stylist thinks, is about two and a half inches, a length which is both smart and easily adaptable. He also advises frequent pinning between shampoos, to prevent straggly ends.

Classes Start After Exhibit Of Paintings

Numerous visitors to the Palette Club Studio Sunday afternoon and night saw a varied exhibit of paintings by Cecil Lang Casebier of Fort Stockton and San Antonio, young West Texas painter who is starting classes Monday for Midland students.

The period of instruction is one of the series of twice-a-year art classes sponsored by the Midland Palette Club Art Center, which brings recognized painters of the Southwest here as teachers. Casebier is an instructor in a San Antonio art school, and he also is continuing his study with a private teacher.

Students may still enroll in his classes, and Mrs. R. L. Clarke, chairman of the contemporary painting group in the Palette Club Art Center, urges a large enrollment to support the center's program of bringing teachers to Midland.

The painter commented on the pictures displayed here, in an informal gallery talk Sunday afternoon. The exhibition includes some of the religious studies in oil which he has executed recently from an abstract viewpoint. "God Looked Upon the Children of Israel" and "Joseph in Egypt" are two in that category which the visitors found interesting.

Three watercolors, "Sawtooth," a "Davis Mountain view," "Sheep Shed" and "Near Tunis Creek" exhibited an unusual technique. The artist used a fountain brush with colored ink for the dark areas, then showed paint, and after the painting was dry, he hosed it off to achieve an unusual decorative effect.

Direct painting with a palette knife is used in some of his oils, and he employs also a technique which was used by the old masters of tempera, underpainting with oil. "Portrait of Jennie," an interpretation of the well-known story and motion picture of that name and a prize-winning picture, is one of his oils. He says his abstractions are exercises in color comparable to finger exercises in music.

Revue Act

She made the trip to Houston by way of Dallas. Her talk will be one of the program features of the convention.

Mrs. Searcy Bracewell of Houston is state chairman of junior clubs in the TFWC, and Mrs. George J. Look of El Paso has been appointed junior club chairman for District Eight, which includes Midland. The Junior Woman's Wednesday Club has for a number of years been the only federated junior club in this city, and it no longer meets requirements for that classification since most of its members have passed junior age.

Consider Your Male Guests When Planning Party

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

"I like to spend my leisure time with people with whom I feel perfectly relaxed and at ease." I recently heard a hard-working, highly successful man remark.

That's a tip-off to hostesses as to how most men feel. I think.

The woman who wants to be a really successful hostess ought not to forget it when she is planning a party.

It will keep her from making a lot of mistakes—so far as her men guests are concerned.

For one thing, it ought to make her extra careful in the selection of guests. A lot of hostesses are enough aware of feminine rivalries so that they wouldn't think of inviting two women who don't get along to the same party—yet don't give any consideration to whether or not their men guests are all congenial.

Women Like Big Parties

Then, too, it ought to keep a hostess from making the mistake of giving a few big parties to get her entertaining over with, instead of a number of small parties where the men can relax and feel they have had some part in the evening's entertainment. A woman may like a large party, because she can show off her new dress to more persons. But men like a group small enough so that they can take part in some real conversation.

And certainly it ought to make a hostess realize the importance of not giving stiff, formal affairs. Women may exclaim over what "beautiful" parties Mrs. So-and-So gives, but men like to feel at home away from home and a party when they can't relax and be themselves is just an ordeal for them.

And last of all, the hostess who realizes that men want to be with people with whom they can feel relaxed and at ease never will make the fatal mistake of trying to impress her guests. Instead she will make every effort to put them at ease and make them feel comfortable and at home.

Metalworking Is America's Greatest Industry

Metalworking industries included in chart are iron and steel products; nonferrous metal and products; electrical machinery and equipment; non-electrical machinery; automobiles and equipment; and transportation equipment, except autos.

Manufacturers' sales in the metalworking industries have more than quadrupled since 1939, according to Steel Magazine. Sales reached an estimated $73,874,000,000 in 1949, topping the wartime peak and exceeded only by 1948 sales. Data used here are revised compilations by the U. S. Department of Commerce, with 1949 estimated by Steel on the basis of first nine months' sales and with due consideration given to business trends in the final quarter.

U. S. On Building Spree Abroad, With Foreign Cash

WASHINGTON (NEA)—America is in the process of providing its diplomats abroad with the fanciest housing that foreign money can buy.

In 300 major cities around the world Uncle Sam is making good use of otherwise trapped foreign currencies to build embassies, ministries and legations, the likes of which U. S. diplomats have never enjoyed before.

Everybody seems happy about the plan. Congress has authorized $125,000,000 for the work. But only a tiny fraction of this will come from the U. S. Treasury. It's money due the government from lend-lease, surplus property disposal and blocked funds which would be almost worthless to Uncle Sam unless used for this purpose.

Countries Happy
The 68 countries in which this work is being done are happy because it releases these funds and provides employment for thousands of construction workers.

In the long run it will save U. S. taxpayers millions in the form of rent in London alone as a result of the purchase and modernization of a group of American foreign office buildings, more than half a million will be saved each year.

The new projects range from the luxurious $1,800,000 embassy office being built in downtown Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, to modernized residences for ambassadors. The new Rio office will be one of the most modern structures in a city already noted for modern buildings. It will be patterned after the United Nations building now being erected in New York. UN architects helped in its design.

Even if these foreign credits and blocked currencies hadn't been available in such great amounts, State Department Architect Leland W. King says, the U. S. would have had to start some kind of construction program for its offices abroad. Little building has gone on in the world in the last 15 years, he explains, and many of the older U. S. buildings overseas were ruined by bombing.

About half of the program is new construction and half modernization. Two other reasons are cited for the program: Since America's role in foreign affairs has increased tremendously since the war, more U. S. representatives are needed abroad. They need office space and places to live. And these fine new buildings will become symbols of America's strength and greatness for all the world to see, a State Department official explains.

Andrews County Has 2,022 Oil Wells

ANDREWS—A report by the tax firm of Pritchard and Abbot to County Judge Milton Ramsey reveals that Andrews County now has 2,022 producing oil wells, of which 238 were drilled in 1949, with only five dry holes.

The Dollard field led with 54 wells drilled, Midland Farms followed with 45, and the Shafter Lake area with 39. Other fields reported the following: Fuhrman-Masco, 16; Means, 15; Three Bar, 13, and Fullerton Ellenburger, 12.

The total production for Andrews County in 1949 was approximately three million barrels.

In 1948 Andrews County produced 38,138,048 barrels and was third in the state in the number of barrels of crude oil produced, surpassed only by Gregg and Ector Counties. However, in 1949 it dropped to fourth place, exceeded by Gregg, Ector and Rusk Counties.

Red Tape Changes Number Of Buildings

SIERRA MADRE, CALIF.—(AP)—The government is building a post office at what should be 309 Sierra Madre Street. But the number on the building will be 303.

Inspector William Lees explained that officials erroneously listed the address at 303 when they mailed approval of the new site. "We decided it would be simpler to change the building number than risk involvement in red tape by insisting that the government change the number on its records," he said.

Abundant Living

Luke 15:11-32. RETURN TO GOD

You have taken two of the nine steps to release. You now take the third: (3) Return. Repentance is the negative side. It releases you to return—to return to God. But you say: "Will God receive such as I am? Shall I not have to make myself better, so that I shall be worthy?" Worthy? No one ever is. Go back to God with these words on your lips: "Just as I am, without one plea."

A minister was in a train, the only occupant of the coach except a young man who seemed very ill at ease. The young man would sit in one seat and then get up and go to another, take up a book and drop it again. The minister went over to him, sat down beside him, and asked what was the matter. The boy shut up like a clam. But at last the dam broke, and he told his story: "I've run away from home, and I've been away a long time. I've wanted to go back, and I wrote my father asking if he would take me back. But there has been no reply. So I have written my mother and told her that I am not going to walk for a reply, that I am coming home, and that if they will take me back she must hang a white rag on the crab-apple tree, down near the railroad tracks, so that I can see it when the train goes by. If I do not see the white rag, I shall understand and go on by. We are getting near and I am afraid to look—afraid the white rag won't be there." The minister told the lad that he needn't look, that he would look for him. The boy sat with his eyes closed, the hand of the minister on his knee. As they drew near to where the tree was, the hand of the minister closed tight on the boy's knee, and he said, "My boy, there is a white rag on every limb of that tree!"

Something like that awaits you—you who are returning to God. A welcome so ungrudging, so overflowing that it will break down all your hesitations, all your fears, and doubts. Take one step toward Him, and He will take two steps toward you.

What's RIGHT?
You are introducing yourself to another guest at a large party.
WRONG WAY: Say, "I don't believe I know you"—indicating that you want the other person to tell you his name.
RIGHT WAY: Say, "I am Muriel Brown."

French Birth Rate Climbing Higher

PARIS—(AP)—France, whose low birth-rate caused concern to national leaders before the war, is now producing more babies. Official statistics for 1949, just issued, show 840,000 births during the year as compared with an annual average of about 630,000 in the immediate pre-war years. The number of marriages in 1949 was about 320,000, a slight decrease as compared with 1948.

Official estimates placed the population of France for the year at around 42,000,000.

An average of 70,000 seal pelts are taken each year from the Pribilof Islands.

He was admitted for observation to a Tulsa hospital.

Bauers Cop 6-5 Victory In Four-Ball

HOLLYWOOD, FLA.—(AP)—Marlene and Alice Bauer, golfing sisters from Midland, Sunday won the fifth annual Women's International Four-Ball Golf championship before a record gallery of 3,500 by a score of 6 and 5.

They defeated Betty Bush of Hammond, Ind., and Betty Mackinnon of Mount Pleasant, over the 6,643-yard Orange Brook Golf Club in the 36-hole finals.

The Bauer girls—Alice is 22 and Marlene will be 16 later this month—won the first three holes and their opponents never recovered from the shock. The Texans held a 3 up lead at lunchtime and had a 71, one under men's par for the course, at that point.

Mrs. Bush carried the load with amazing recovery shots but all she could do was prolong the play to the thirty-first hole. They won only three holes and the wins were widely spaced.

Go 5-Up
The Bauer girls held a 5-up lead as they started the last nine and went 6-up on the twenty-eighth hole. They matched pars on the next three to end the four-day tournament.

The winners were only one over men's par for the distance and teamed beautifully all the way. They scored a 71, one under men's par, to go to lunch with a 3-up lead after winning the first three holes of the morning round.

Saturday the Bauer sisters eliminated Jean Hopkins, Cleveland, Ohio, and Edean Anderson, Helena, Mont., while Mrs. Bush and Miss Mackinnon upset defending champions Polly Riley of Fort Worth, and Bee McWane of Birmingham, Ala.

Robert Keising, one of the most promising prospects on the MHS freshman cage team, gathered himself honors in the Odessa Junior Invitational Tournament last weekend.

Keising was named to the All-Tournament best team for his fine performances in two games. Considering the field of entries for all-tourney honors was rough to beat, Keising did himself proud in gaining a spot.

Clyde Perry, the former Midland Indian shortstop now playing Class AA baseball, is considered the top candidate for the shortstop berth with the Dallas Eagles.

Perry has returned his signed contract to the Eagles from his home in California.

Vernon Kennedy, the veteran of many major league campaigns who now is without a job, is running an ad in the Sporting News.

Ex-major leaguer wants pitching job with Class AA or higher baseball club. Would consider throwing batting practice in majors.

Sounds odd to hear Kennedy bargaining for something like this.

The Texas Interscholastic League has released the line-ups for districts in Class AA baseball.

There will be no change in District 3-AA. Brownfield, Lamesa, Lubbock, Midland and Odessa will participate.

It is likely a double round-robin will be played, giving each school eight games.

We've heard plenty about Notre Dame's great football team and its record of 38 games without defeat. But it comes to light the Irish play that brand of basketball, also, and nothing much is said about it.

The Irish cagers won 38 in a row in their own fieldhouse from Dec. 4, 1913 to Feb. 9, 1948.

Thousands of "Of the Year" awards have been made in sports since 1950 rolled in and it's a good bet the New York Yankees garnered as many or more than any other group of athletes.

Tom Henrich was given a plaque as the Athlete of the Year.

The same night Phil Rizzuto got a plaque as New Jersey's Athlete of the Year. At a farewell party, Charlie Keller, moving to Detroit, received one as Great Guy of the Year.

Casey Stengel got one as the man who has done most for baseball through the years. At the same time Phil Rizzuto got another, this one as the New York baseball writers' idea of the American League's most valuable player.

And Joe Page will get a new Babe Ruth Award which will go annually to the star of the World Series.

Ford Frick, president of the National League, "Aren't you afraid you'll run out of plaques?" "It looks like we'll run out of plaques before we run out of Yankees," was the reply.

Chandler Puts Final Approval On Pettit Contract To Pirates

NEW YORK—(AP)—Commissioner A. B. Chandler has given final approval to a contract which would transfer Paul Pettit from the St. Louis Cardinals to the Pittsburgh Pirates for $100,000.

The commissioner said he received direct information on the case and contemplated no further action.

Fred Saigh, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, announced nevertheless that he planned to go ahead with a formal protest to the commissioner's office, charging "outrageous evasion."

The Pirates signed 18-year-old Paul Pettit of Los Angeles last week in an unusual deal which saw them forced to barter with a film producer, Frederick Staphani.

While major league clubs couldn't approach the boy because he was in school, the producer signed him to an $85,000 movie and television contract.

After Pettit's graduation, Staphani proceeded to deal with interested major league clubs, finally settling with the Pirates for $100,000. The boy received most of the money, according to reports.

A total of 52 baseball players have been named to the sport's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y.

Virginian Is Top Man In Tucson Open

TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—Putting Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., his first major golf tournament in 13 years Sunday, when he took the winner's slice of the $10,000 Tucson Open.

The last three holes won for Harper. He birdied them all to take a three-under-par 68 for the day, a 72-hole total of 267, and $2,000 in prize money.

Sam Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., outduelled Newcomer Manuel de la Torre of Glen-coe, Ill., on the last nine holes to take second place with a total of 269. He earned $1,400. That put him at the top of the money winners for 1950 with $5,338.

De La Torre faltered.

Most of the 8,200 spectators on the par 70, 6,402-yard El Rio course wanted de la Torre to win. He carried a two-stroke lead into the final round but faltered. The young Spanish-American went three over par for a score of 73 for the day and 270 for the 72 holes. U. S. Open Champ Cary Middlecoff had the same total. Each received $900.

Jack Burke, Jr., of White Plains, N. Y., was one stroke back with 271. Jim Fernier of San Francisco and Glenn Teal of Memphis, Tenn., each had 272.

The Virginian said he intended to play in the San Antonio Open next on the Winter swing.

To get in the money Sunday golfers had to go four under par with totals of 276.

Stanley Kertes of Chicago had the best round of the final day—66—but didn't finish in the money.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo Ohio, was the only amateur left in the final day's play. He ended with a score of 282.

Lawson Little of Monterey, Calif finished at 274 and collected $270.

A&I, Austin Make Bids Against ACC In TC Cage Race

By The Associated Press

The ultimate standings in the Texas Conference basketball race may be determined by nine conference games this week.

Texas A&I makes its bid for the title in four loop tilts, two against pace-setter Abilene Christian Monday night and Tuesday and two against Howard Payne Wednesday and Thursday.

Abilene Christian, only undefeated five in conference play, has one other conference tilt—against last-place McMurry.

Austin College whipped Southwestern 60-38 and McMurry 63-57 to enhance its chances of taking over the top spot should ACC slip. The Kangaroos this week meet Howard Payne and take on Midwestern in a non-conference game.

A&I racked up three non-conference victories last week, while Howard Payne won one and dropped three.

Glen Whittis of Howard Payne is the loop's top scorer with 267 points.

IT WAS A BEAUT—

Barrow Recalls Bambino's Boner

By GAYLE TALBOT

RYE, N. Y.—(AP)—It isn't quite true that Babe Ruth never made a bad play on the baseball field. He made at least one, and it was a beauty.

This is on the distinguished authority of Edward G. Barrow, the old stalwart who bossed the immortal Bambino through almost all his great career with the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees.

He might have made others that I didn't see," mused Barrow, "but I can recall only the one time that I felt like killing him.

"That was when he tried to steal second with two out in the ninth inning of the final game of the 1927 World Series. Catcher Bob O'Farrell nailed him easily, and the St. Louis Cardinals won the series 4 games to 3.

"What caused him to try to steal just at that time I don't know to this day. I didn't ask him after the game because I didn't dare go near him the way I felt. But that was the Babe," sighed the man who perhaps knew him best.

Now living in retirement in this quiet suburb of New York City as he nears his 83rd birthday, Barrow owns many a recollection of the big, rollicking home run hitter who was voted the greatest ball player of the last 50 years in a nationwide poll conducted by The Associated Press.

Tough Decision
Great as is his admiration for Ruth, though, he expressed mild surprise that the Babe's margin over his closest rival, Ty Cobb, had been as great as it was—253 votes to 116. Lou Gehrig, another of Barrow's stars, placed a distant third with eight votes.

"I wouldn't like to have to make a decision between the Babe and Ty," Barrow said softly.

"As an all-around player," he continued, "I suppose the Babe deserves the honor. You've got to remember that, before I turned him into an outfielder at Boston, he was as great a pitcher as there was in the game. Maybe he was the greatest.

"He had everything, including tremendous speed and wonderful control for a left-hander. His record of pitching 29 straight scoreless innings in World Series play still stands, you know."

"It took some real soul-searching to let him stop pitching. The only reason I could even consider it was because I had so many other fine pitchers."

Worked Double Shift
During the 1918 season, Barrow recalled, Ruth appeared in 95 games, playing the outfield and batting clean-up when he was not pitching. He hit an even 300. Not

Arizona, Border Loop Leader, Has Three Tilts On Tap

By The Associated Press
Three teams this week will have a chance to halt the march of Arizona to its fifth straight Border Conference basketball title.

Arizona has six straight league games to its credit and a season's record of 17-2. It appears to have a good chance to add three more when it visits New Mexico, New Mexico A&M and Texas Western late this week.

This is a busy week for the entire league. Arizona State Colleges at Tempe and Flagstaff visit Hardin-Simmons, Texas Tech and West Texas. The outcomes will have a material effect on final standings. Count of Arizona's powerhouse and the conference appears evenly matched. Steadily-improving Hardin-Simmons moved into second place last week by taking a close five-point decision from West Texas. Previously, West Texas had dumped H-S by 18 points.

New Mexico has won only a single game, yet it forced New Mexico A&M into overtime before losing.

Bulldogs To Face Bronchos Tuesday

The Midland Bulldogs, still winless in District 3-AA cage play, may be able to break the jinx in the MHS Gym Tuesday night.

Arch rival Odessa sends its Bronchos here for a conference game.

Whenever the two teams meet, both shoot the works in an extra big way. That's what the Bulldogs will be doing Tuesday night.

The Bronchos tripped Midland in an early season encounter in Odessa.

Roy Morris, Bob Hooper, Frank Goe, Joe Howell and Clarence Jones form the starting lineup for the Bronchos.

Hooper is the hot-shot, having banked more than 200 points this season.

Midland Starters
Coach Jack Mashburn has indicated he will use a fast break against Odessa.

Ralph Brooks and Buddy Johnson, two new comers to the Bulldog lineup, have clinched starting assignments. Both play a hustling brand of ball.

Reed Gilmore, Harrie Smith and O. Phillips or Norman Drake will complete the first-line five.

Walter Spiller, who has been out due to illness, may return to action. Coach Audrey Gill's 'B' Bulldogs will engage the Odessa 'B' team in a curtain-raiser. Starting time will be 6:30 p.m. for the 'B' game. The varsity tilt will follow.

City Loop In Action

VFW City Cage League action is on tap Monday night in the Junior High School Gym.

Mid-West Lumber and Rotary Engineers tangle in the opening game at 7:30 p.m.

The Jaycees meet Ted Thompson's Tigers in the nightcap.

Monday night's action will be a warm-up for Ted Thompson's quintet for Friday night's encounter with the bearded House of David five in the High School Gym.

Texas Aggies Set Pace In Cage Race

By The Associated Press

Those strange looking Southwest Conference standings—just one team on top—may return to accustomed confusion Tuesday night.

Texas A&M, now all alone in the lead, takes on Southern Methodist at Dallas Tuesday while Texas Christian meets the Texas Longhorns at Austin.

A combination of Texas and Southern Methodist victories will throw the race into the same sort of tangle it was in this time last week.

Baylor teamed up with Texas A&M to straighten out the confusion last week. Last Friday morning, four teams were deadlocked for first—Southern Methodist, A&M, Baylor and Arkansas. By midnight Saturday just A&M was there. These results accomplished this:

Texas A&M, 56, Baylor 45; Arkansas 51, Texas 37; Texas Christian 51, Southern Methodist 45; and Baylor 52, Arkansas 42.

Arkansas plays a non-conference game Monday night at Little Rock and then conference play begins. Other loop tilts this week include Baylor vs. Texas A&M Friday, and Rice vs. Texas Christian and Southern Methodist vs. Texas Saturday.

Joe McDermott, Rice center, continues to pace season and conference scorers with 274 points for all games and 96 in conference action.

'C' Bulldogs, Pups Play Here Monday

The Midland 'C' Bulldogs and the Eighth Grade Bullpups of John M. Cowden Junior High are scheduled in a double-header with Big Spring teams here Monday night.

The games will be played in the High School Gym with the first to get underway at 6:30 p.m.

Girls' Volley Ball Team To Play Odessa

The Midland High School girls' volleyball team, winner of consolation honors in the Seminole Invitation Tournament Saturday, meets Odessa's lassies in Odessa Tuesday night.

Patsy Pyle, who was named to the All-Tournament team at Seminole, will be ready to lead the Purple fems.

The Midland girls also are entered in the Odessa Invitation Tournament next Saturday. They will play Andrews at 9:20 a.m. in the opening round.

Border Cities Form Semi-Pro Circuit

WELLINGTON, TEXAS.—(AP)—Seven teams have been okehed for participation in the Red River Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League this year. An eighth will be chosen later.

Teams slated to be in the league are Childress, Memphis, Wellington and Dumas, Texas; Altus, Mangum, and Hobart, Okla.

Houston Money Bags Not Connected With Big Boston Robbery

HOUSTON.—(AP)—Two money bags found in the plush Shamrock Hotel here had nothing to do with Boston's million dollar robbery of January 17, the FBI declared.

FBI agent in charge Galen Willis Sunday broke almost 24 hours of silence on the case, saying the two bags "belonged to a person who had a legitimate use for them."

When asked if that meant his investigation had been completed, Willis replied "Yes."

He said the markings on one of the bags, "Philadelphia Reserve Bank," led to the investigation because of the possibility it could have been one of the bags taken in the Boston holdup.

The canvas bags were found in the Shamrock Saturday.

Auction To Feature Stamp Club Meeting

An auction of stamps will be a feature of the February meeting of the Midland Stamp Club at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Turner Wynn, president, has announced. All stamp collectors are invited to the meeting, in the county commissioners courtroom of the courthouse.

Most of the stamps in the 45 lots to be auctioned are United States and British Colonials, he said, but there will be some other foreign stamps also.

EVER MEET AN AD... talking?

Most ads have work to do—selling goods or services.
I am an ad. But I'd just like to talk with you and tell you how important advertising is to America—and to you.
No matter what kind of job you have, your pay check depends in the last analysis on somebody selling something to somebody else. And advertising is the fastest, cheapest way ever devised of selling goods and services.

So every ad you see or hear starts an endless chain that leads to more and better jobs for all.
When more goods are sold, there are more jobs in the factory—more jobs in the mines and farms to supply the goods the factory uses. More jobs at banks, railroads, stores and other industries that benefit indirectly.
That's why more and better advertising means bigger and better jobs—for you and everyone.
That's why advertising makes your job more secure.

OTHER WAYS ADVERTISING HELPS YOU AND YOUR FAMILY

- 1 Brings you better goods for less money;
- 2 Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
- 3 Gears consumer demand to production, to create prosperity.

Advertising... Makes your job more secure

BY SELLING MORE GOODS TO MORE PEOPLE

HERE'S HOW U.S. NATIONAL INCOME ROSE IN THE LAST 36 YEARS—THE GOLDEN AGE OF ADVERTISING

This rise in the standard of living for you and yours is unequalled in all history. Advertising helped raise this standard—is needed even more today to sell industry's new developments.
