IN HOLLYWOOD

'Dumb Face' Helped Socialite Up Famed Ladder To Success

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Jan Sterling soared to success with a baby blonde face, more curves than a coastline, and a surprised stare. The surprised stare in her pale blue eyes was part of a characterization it might just as well have been caused by what happened to her since she ditched New York society for show business.

There was the time Garson Kanin picked her for the stage lead in "Born Yesterday" with the comment: "She has the dumbest face I've ever seen."

And there was all the recent Hollywood hullabaloo about her starring in the film version of "Born Yesterday." Jan got her first big stage break in the role of Billie Dwan, played it first in Chicago and later replaced Judy Holliday on Broadway.

She was screen-tested, optioned and rumored for the part. But at the last moment Judy was signed and Jan left with egg on her face. It would have been a discouraging blow to a less sensible girl but Jan wasn't born yesterday.

She told me: "I really was Judy's part. She created it and I knew the studio wanted her. I always thought it was a long game as far as I was concerned. Frankly, if some other actress had been chosen I would have been terribly disappointed. But Judy deserved it."

Bright Prospects

All the tuxedo helped Jan's future. Several months ago she appeared with Alan Ladd in "United States Mall." She played a gangster's easy-going gal with a high-pitched voice that sent delightful shivers spineward. Preview audiences whistled their approval.

When Columbia Studio cast Judy in "Born Yesterday" Jan was again free. Several studios waved contracts. She signed with Paramount and was promptly given an important role in "Union Station" with William Holden.

It's her first long-term contract. She's delighted—"I knew something would happen."

"Mother," she said, "gave her consent on condition that I'd return to school after a certain length of time if I hadn't landed a part. I'm sure she thought it was just a 'teen-age dream' and I'd soon be home again. She was almost right."

Her time was running out. One day she was waiting for a friend in Shubert's Alley and ducked into a producer's reception room to get out of the rain. The producer came out of his private office, took one look at her and the next thing she knew she was signed up for her first role—a young girl in the American production of the English play, "Bachelor Bait."

Jan discovered later that the producer had been attracted by her hair. It was the same color and done the same way as that of the girl who played the role in London.

"You might say my career was hanging by a hair," Jan said.

A succession of straight English ingenue roles followed.

Jan thought them stuffy but couldn't get out of the groove.

Then Garson Kanin suggested her for the Chicago company of "Born Yesterday."

No one else could see her in the part. They argued with Kanin, pointing out Jan's quiet English ingenue, her social background, her proper past.

"I don't care," said Kanin. "She has the dumbest face I've ever seen."

"It wasn't exactly flattering," said Jan, "but at the moment it was the nicest thing he could have said."

Jan was a sensation in "Born Yesterday" and Warner Brothers brought her to Hollywood for two films, "Johnny Belinda" and "The Cage." Hollywood was synonymous with beautiful clothes to her but in the first film she was a poor New Englander and in the second she was a woman prisoner in a blue denim dress.

She hopes to play only strong character parts in the movies. "Those ingenues," she says, "are just too stuffy."

Stem Red Tide

The fight for Indo-China has begun. This time we can't wait for the dust to settle, as we did in China. The whole of Southeast Asia is at stake.

In the mounting struggle between communism and its adversaries in the Far East, Russia has opened a new phase by recognizing the regime of Ho Chi Minh, Moscow-trained rebel, in the Northern Indo-Chinese state of Viet Nam.

Britain is expected to counter soon by recognizing the rival Viet Namese government of Bao Dai, who was chosen by the French to lead it. Greetings to Bao Dai from Secretary of State Acheson suggest this country may follow suit before long.

Indo-China lies squarely athwart the southward course of the Asiatic Reds. Its Viet Namese border now is lined with Chinese Communist troops who have swept the last Nationalist soldiers from their path.

Native forces rebelled against the return of French authority to Viet Nam after World War II. The French set up a republic there but the rebels, led by Minh, still weren't satisfied. Guerrilla fighting between Minh's forces and the French has gone on almost continuously since 1946. France sent in almost 100,000 of its best troops.

Last year the French put Bao Dai, former emperor of the state of Annam, in charge of a rival government. They hoped he would win a large part of the Viet Namese away from Minh, but the effort largely has failed. Anti-French, the natives view Bao Dai strictly as a French puppet. Though it is doubtful they want communism, they have turned to Minh as the only alternative.

He has a large regular army supported by many partisans. He controls at least 80 per cent of the region, although the French have managed to hold the larger cities.

It is regrettable that the Western Powers must consider recognizing a leader like Bao Dai who controls so little of the territory he is supposed to govern. The move would violate all normal rules of diplomatic practice.

But this is no time for diplomatic niceties. Nor is it the moment to worry about possible flaws in Bao Dai's character. What is important is the report that Minh already is receiving aid from the Chinese Reds and may be expected to get more and more in the months ahead.

We have no choice but to back Bao Dai's regime and aid the French and other forces resisting the rebels. This is the place to make a stand, to check the southward flow of communism before it engulfs not only Indo-China but Siam, Malaya, Burma and Indonesia.

The French troops represent a hard core around which to build an adequate defense. Seldom if ever again will we have this much advantage in attempting to stem the tide. We would be foolish and reckless to let it slip away.

Sharp Donkey Teeth Took Big Bite Out Of Old GOP Elephant's Hide

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The Republican Party inserted blind ads in Washington newspapers to draw crowds for its $1 box-lunch supper at the capital's Uline arena.

While I applauded the wisdom of this ad and the growing timidity of the minority party, I shed a single tear of farewell.

Gone is my youth when a wild elephant trumpeted through these halls to rescue Pauline from the perils of welfare legislation.

But the Republicans really had the last laugh. On the same night that the Republicans had their dollar box-lunch party in Washington's Uline arena, 2,000 Democrats turned out for a swell reception in honor of Vice President Alben Barkley and bride.

So they say

True readiness involves measures to cope with all types of potential enemy attacks, including conventional enemy attacks, including conventional bombing and bacteriological and chemical warfare.

They (pension plans retiring workers after 65) should help the man of 45, because the employee doesn't have to worry so much about that happens to him at 65. That is true if the old-age benefits are proportioned to the number of years the man has worked for the concern.

Nothing could arise now or in the future that would lead me to be the nominee of our party in 1952. My decision on this matter is as certain and final as death and the staggering New Deal taxes.

Muriel reached into the middle drawer of her writing table and drew out a little whip. It was green in color, with a looped leather thong affixed to the handle.

There! Alice smoothed the covers. "This is just where you put it. I knew you'd find it, if you kept it up. And it's horrid of Pat Boyland to butt in just now."

"Pat?" Muriel murmured, happily and sleepily. "He's just a little old gold mine, Alice dear."

Alice sniffed. "He can be a big old Golconda on Saturday, for all of me. But you forget him tonight. Do you want a book to read?"

"No, thanks. Give me a bed-jacket though, will you, dear? There's one hanging in the closet. Alice didn't see the door and stepped inside. She had to rummage around a little before she found the jacket. Then, as she pulled it off the hook, she froze in her tracks. It was just as if she had seen a snake.

"Can't you find it?" Muriel called.

Alice backed hastily out of the closet. She took a deep breath, blinked and handed Muriel the garment.

"What's the matter?" Muriel glanced at her from beneath lowered lashes.

"N-nothing," Alice forced her voice back to normal. "I just swallowed the wrong way, I guess. And that's all."

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, FEB. 14, 1960-5

'Blithe Spirit' Will Be Staged In Arena Style By Experienced Production Staff

Waring Bradley will be the stage manager for "Blithe Spirit," the Noel Coward comedy which the Midland Community Theater will present four nights beginning Wednesday and in a Saturday matinee. He has been given this responsibility after experience on production crews of several previous Community Theater plays.

"Blithe Spirit" is to be presented with arena staging, in the center of the City - County Auditorium floor with the audience seated all around, rather than on a conventional stage. This style of production will be a challenge to both the actors and the staging staff because the principal character in the play is a ghost and the illusion of unreality must be maintained with the audience in close range.

Lighting is in the experienced hands of Klondike Johnson, and makeup is to be done by Maedelee Roberts, Lamoyne Tabor and Mary-margaret Corbett. Miss Roberts has been in charge of makeup as many times as Johnson has directed the lighting of Community Theater plays—a sizeable total.

Precedent Established
Set construction has its own problems for staging "in the round," but the theater presented a play in that style last Spring to make precedents for the crew. Robert Fitting, Larry Melzer and Stan Shaeffer, and the painters, E. J. Elliott and Julie Rindsig. Miss Elliott also will be in charge of sound, and the costumes chairman is Gwen Workman.

Working with properties are Mrs. George Gibson, Audrey Kuch, June Winham and Mrs. Charles Shaw. Since this play has a modern setting, costumes and properties are not as difficult as in the theater's preceding production, "The Winslow Boy," set in 1910.

One unusual bit of equipment needed, however, was the lognetta of Madame Arcati, the medium, played by Betty Eywards. The piece was made by Dr. Brandon E. Rea to fit the eccentric personality of the medium whose seance results in the appearance of the flippant ghost of Elvira, long-dead first wife of Charles Condomine. Donna Conkling plays Elvira, Charles Dixon her erstwhile husband whose second wife, Ruth, is enacted by Alice Swift.

House Committees
Sabre Brady and Bill Adam appear as friends of the Condomines, and Betty Gaines as Edith, the maid who is puzzled by the goings-on.

On the committees working "in front," Norris Creath is house manager, assisted by W. Daves Henderson, James O. Simmons, Jr., Robert P. Hine and Don McKibben. Mrs. W. A. Waldschmidt and Mrs. V. W. Rogers are in charge of reservations and the box office.

Phyllis Pryor will be captain of ushers. Serving with her on the opening night will be Virginia and Sylvia Kroenlein, Helen Short, Margie Hensley and Margie Nell. Ushers Thursday night will be Diane Anderson, Sue Francis, Camilla Birkhead, Peggy Simmons, Diana Daugherty and Nancy Roberts.

Named as ushers for Friday are Sara Cameron, Sherry Page, Nona Lynn, Elizabeth Sprinkle, Anne Hughes and Marilyn Dunagan. Matinee ushers Saturday will be Anne and Joan Fitzgerald, Anne Ashby, Elaine Conger, Dorothy Black and Carolyn Paris, and those for the night performance, Bettye Sivals, Arnie Grayum, Francis Hefren, Dona Ingram, Roberta Stewart and Charlotte Frasher.

Friendship Club Is Guest Of Mrs. Green

CRANE—Mrs. Ted Green was hostess to the Friendship Club in the Community Hall Friday. Mrs. P. O. Vines won high prize, Mrs. George Clark, low, and Mrs. Quay Clark, traveling prize. Others present included Mrs. Clyde Orr, Mrs. J. V. Neeley, Mrs. Jessie Wesberry, Mrs. M. E. Lear, Mrs. Marion Clancy, Mrs. Alvin Titus, Mrs. A. B. Earp and Mrs. W. G. Slaton.

Ghost Has Leading Role In Comedy

Even the ghost must rehearse for the Midland Community Theater's production of "Blithe Spirit," which will open Wednesday night in the City-County Auditorium. The phantom figure pictured on the rehearsal stage is that of Donna Conkling, who plays Elvira, the frivolous ghost of Charles Condomine's first wife. Seated at the table are Charles Dixon and Alice Swift as Condomine and his understandably-jealous second wife. Community Theater members began reserving their seats for the play Tuesday morning, and ticket sales to the public will open Wednesday morning for the four nights and Saturday matinee performance scheduled for the comedy.

The February meeting of the P-TA will be held at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday and plans for it were discussed and approved. It was announced that a film on cancer will be shown at the meeting March 15. This will be a night meeting so all parents may attend.

Others attending were Mrs. Glen Burgess, Mrs. J. A. Wilton, Mrs. Logan and Mrs. Gene Campbell.

Baylor Ex-Students Will Hear Visitors At Banquet Friday

Ex-students of Baylor University will hear two speakers from West and see a film, "This Is Baylor," a banquet in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Schorbauser Friday night.

Ralph Wolf, executive vice president of the university, and Jac Dillard, executive secretary of the Baylor Ex-Students Association, will be the speakers. A vocal solo by Wanda Shocum will be included in the program.

The semi-formal banquet will start at 7:30 p.m. All Baylor ex-students in this area, with their wives or husbands, are invited. Tickets may be obtained from Walter Jackson, president of Midland Baylor ex-students, J. W. Carroll, program chairman, or Don McGregor, publicity chairman.

Called the Rancho, this new electric range is the lowest priced standard range produced by Westinghouse since the war. It has four surface cooking units, work surface and full-size oven. It is designed for small kitchens where storage space is at a premium as well as for more spacious kitchens where the styling of the new range matches modern interiors.

The economy of price and space has been made possible by the Rancho's unusual styling. Resembling a knee-hole desk, it has a U-shaped chrome tube leg on the right side with the oven and storage drawer on the left. The "knee-hole" space provides a place for a stool or other equipment that clutters the small kitchen.

She was turned over to Texas Ranger Frank Probst after a brief hearing before U. S. Commissioner Cyril S. Lawrence.

The Ranger, with his wife acting as a metron, and Deputy Sheriff W. W. Riner of Amarillo planned to leave immediately by automobile for Texas.
Diana's husband, Ewald Johnson, 32, who was arrested last week in Michigan also faces murder charges in Thornton's death.

mended upon its fine year-round membership program. The program for this year will specialize on new firm, individual and company department head memberships.
Officials stressed the fact that membership in the Chamber has not kept pace with the rapid growth of the city, while demands on the organization have increased in proportion to the city's growth.

Endorsement of a proposal to send the Midland Lions Club Band to the Lions International convention in Chicago in July was voted by the directors, who commended the Lions Club and its popular band for its excellent work. Active support by the Chamber's directors and members also was pledged in a campaign to obtain money to finance the convention trip. The Midland band will serve as the official Texas orchestra at the Chicago convention.

Downing, reporting for the Highway Committee, told of two trips to Austin by city and Chamber of Commerce officials to contact the Texas Highway Department concerning the revision of plans for drainage improvements to be accomplished in connection with the widening of East Highway 80 in Midland.

Saving To City
He said the Highway Department favored the proposal and has ordered additional engineering on the job. The revised plan will not cost the state any more money than originally was planned, but will mean a tremendous saving to the City of Midland, he said.

Downing also expressed optimism concerning plans for the designation of Front Street as an alternate truck route through the city.
An Aeronautics Committee report was made by Chairman Stanley M. Erskine.

Texas Solon Injured In Traffic Accident
WASHINGTON—(P)—Rep. Joe Combs (D-Texas) was admitted to Emergency Hospital Monday night following an auto collision at 18th and K Streets, Northwest.
The 60-year-old congressman from Beaumont suffered a possible fractured knee and an eye laceration.

This Nash Ambassador Engine does its OWN BOASTING!

Want to sample the finest thing in engines? Drive the 1950 Nash Ambassador, and let it do its own boasting!
If there's a better performer on the road today the record books don't show it!
Yes—here is America's top high-compression engine (7.3 to 1 ratio) that uses regular gasoline. And it delivers up to 30% more miles to a gallon than other fine cars, by owner reports.
Here, too, is America's best aerodynamic design—with 20.7% less air drag than the average of ten cars tested.
Note the difference in wind-roof... in riding smoothness. Note the squeak-proof, rattor-proof Airflyte Construction. Inside is more proof it's America's most modern car, the only fine car offering the Airliner Reclining Seat... Sky-Lounge spaciousness with even Twin Beds.
AND HYDRA-MATIC DRIVE
Now you can have the last word in automatic driving—Hydra-Matic Drive with exclusive Selecto-Lift Starting.
Your Nash dealer has some wonderful news about price—the Nash Ambassador, even in Custom models, tailored to your order, costs as much as a thousand dollars less than other cars of comparable size and quality.

Only Nash Ambassador Owners Have These Fine-Car Features
Turbo-head Valve-in-head Engine... 2 America's highest compression ratio (7.3 to 1) utilizing regular gasoline • 7-bearing, 100% counter-balanced crankshaft • Air-flyte Construction stays new years longer.

Angeloans Confer On Air Base, Plans For Housing Project

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Two representatives of San Angelo, Texas, are here on a two-fold purpose. To have Goodfellow Air Force Base declared a permanent field and to secure a low-cost housing development.

M. D. Fanning, manager of the West Texas city's Chamber of Commerce, and Fred B. Jeffers, chairman of its Military Affairs Committee, conferred Monday with Senator Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Texas) and Rep. Clark Fisher (Texas).

Johnson told them he had urged Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson to make four additional Air Force fields in Texas permanent installations.

He said the four are Goodfellow, Perrin Field at Sherman, Reese at Lubbock and Ellington at Houston. The Chamber of Commerce men planned to confer with federal housing officials concerning the possibility of getting a low cost housing development for their city. They estimated there was a need for approximately 250 family dwelling units of this type.

Ministerial Group To Sponsor United Appeal For Prayer

A united appeal for prayer in the face of troubled conditions throughout the world will be made by members of the Midland Ministerial Association in their respective churches, it was decided at a meeting of the organization in the First Presbyterian Church Monday.

Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, president, presided at the session, which had a 100 per cent attendance of members.

Special prayers will be said in regular services in affiliated churches for leaders of the United Nations.

The association also will sponsor a five-minute appeal for prayer each morning from 6:55 to 7 a.m. over KCRS.

Members of several Midland churches had requested that such a concerted prayer effort be organized here.

The association members voted to cooperate with the Midland Council of Church Women in purchasing and placing Bibles in each room of the new Midland Memorial Hospital.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Believing Things

The Huffen, the friendly wolf, couldn't answer the question, and so little Mugwump Monkey ran out of the hollow tree house and on up the Elephant Path until he came to the very tall tree, the one with Daddy Ringtail's monkey house in the top. Daddy Ringtail was sitting out on the soft green grass. "Daddy Ringtail," said Mugwump, "how do you know what is where you aren't?"

What a question! How do you know what is where you aren't? That was the question that the Huffen couldn't answer, and Mugwump thought maybe Daddy Ringtail could tell him. Oh, but Daddy Ringtail didn't understand at first.

He said he didn't understand, but he sniffed and sniffed at the sweet smell of flowers that were growing around on the other side of the very tall tree. But Mugwump said again, "Daddy Ringtail, how do you know what is where you aren't? You know, like the flowers. They are around on the other side of the tree where we aren't. We can't see them, and so how do we know they're there?"

Daddy Ringtail sniffed and sniffed again. "I know there are flowers there," said he, "because I can smell them."

But then the wind stopped blowing from around the tree, and Daddy Ringtail didn't smell the flowers any more. "Aha!" said Mugwump. "You can't see them. You can't smell them. You can't touch them—because they are where we aren't, if they're there at all—and how do you know they are where we aren't?"

Daddy Ringtail smiled and told him that we can't know for sure about anything that is where we aren't. We just have to believe like you can believe that you will find your things in your room when you go there—if you aren't there already—and like we believe that our eyes aren't fooling us when we do see something. And it works very well for us to believe in things—that things are where they are even when we aren't there to see them. Because when Mugwump walked around the tree, there were the flowers sure enough. They were pretty to look at. Sweet to smell. Soft to touch. And besides, I like to believe in things, don't you? Happy day!

Stanton-Coahoma Battle Wednesday

STANTON—The Stanton Bulldogs and the Coahoma Bulldogs collide here Wednesday night in the opening game of a three-game playoff series for the District 23-B basketball title.

Stanton won the district in regular play and Coahoma took the district tournament title in Forsan last weekend.

Conference rules state the winner in regular play must meet the tourney winner. Stanton piled up an amazing record for the season, winning 25 games in a row after dropping their first of the season to Westbrook. Forsan snapped the string in Stanton's twenty-sixth start in the District 23-B tourney last Friday.

The battle for the title shapes up to be top-notch and rough all the way. Coahoma has one of the ball clubs in the area which can challenge the talented Stanton Bulldogs.

Players Listed
Leroy Gibson and Kenneth Henson are sharpshooters for Stanton and have been powers on the hardwood all season.

Gerald Koonce, another fine performer, has been named to several all-tournament teams. James Tunnell and Bobby McClain complete the starting lineup for the Buffs.

Bill Bennett, a rangy boy with plenty of savvy about the game, leads Coahoma's attack. He shines at lay-up shots and criss.

Edwin Dickinson teams with Bennett in Coahoma's scoring department.

The second game of the two-out-of-three series will be played in Coahoma Friday night. If a third is needed it will be played on neutral ground at Forsan.

The winner of the title will advance to bi-district play.

Kermit To Battle Andrews In First 5-A Playoff Tilt

KERMIT—A playoff to break a three-way tie for first in the North Zone of District 5-A will get underway in Seminole Tuesday night, Tommy Thompson, secretary of the 5-A athletic committee announced here. Denver City, Andrews and Kermit do battle.

At a meeting Sunday, Kermit and Andrews were picked to meet in the Tuesday night game. Denver City drew a bye in the first round.

Seminole was picked as a neutral site for the first game.

The winner of the Tuesday night encounter gets a straight shot to the district tournament.

The loser will meet Denver City and the winner of this tilt also will go to the district meet.

The three teams ended the season Friday night in a tie for first.

Crane in Fort Stockton and Crane have been certified to represent the South Zone in the district tourney.

Crane has been picked as the tentative site for the tournament, which opens Friday. Fort Stockton has yet to approve the site since school officials from there were not present at the Sunday meeting.

The tournament will be a double round-robin with the first game scheduled at 1 p.m. Friday.

Two games will be played Friday afternoon, two Friday night, one Saturday afternoon and finals Saturday night.

Miss Bauer and her partner carded a 69, one under men's par for the 5,973-yard Everglades Club course to lead the field of 71 teams.

Taking alternate strokes, they had birdies on seven of the 18 holes and finished five strokes ahead of Mrs. Betty Bush, Hammond, Ind., and Bob Sweeney, former British Amateur champion from London, England.

Other teams and their scores included: Alice Bauer, Midland, and Clarke Hardwick, Bel Air, Calif., (75) vs. Jean Dobbin, Norwood, Mo., and H. R. Ring, Boston (80).

Jesse Hatfield On Rankin All-Tourney

Cowden John Higdon of John M. Cowden Junior High has been notified Jesse Hatfield, stellar Bullpup cager, placed on an all-tournament team at Rankin last week-end.

The Bullpups entered the tourney but were defeated in the first round of both championship and consolation play.

Fort Stockton's juniors whipped the Pups 21 to 18 in their first game and Odessa won a 24-16 decision in consolation play.

Hatfield has been the leading Bullpup scorer in every game of the season.

Win Puts Ponies On Top In SWC

Southern Methodist University used a second-half rush Monday night to beat Rice 55-48 and take over undisputed leadership in the Southwest Conference basketball race.

Arkansas knocked Texas A&M out of a share of the lead, coming from behind to hand the Aggies a 52-46 licking.

Texas Christian grabbed a share of second place with Arkansas by a 51-38 decision over Texas.

While the standings were undergoing another change, Big Tom Hamilton of Texas ousted Joe McDermott of Rice from the lead in season scoring. His 24 points gave him 301 for the season to 286 for McDermott. Hamilton leads in conference scoring with 141.

Southern Methodist's victory gives the Mustangs a small edge as the championship race heads toward its last week. Saturday night they meet Texas at Austin. Arkansas and Texas Christian tangle Wednesday night.

Warren Switzer and McDermott kept Rice in the game during the first half. The Owls trailed only 35-23 at intermission. But Charley Lutz and Harold Salmon paced the Mustangs to a more comfortable margin in the second half.

Thompson and Mobil battled through three periods only to find the score tied going into the fourth. But Doug Dyess opened up with two field goals and Baker, Daugherty, Drake and Wiles added one each for the Thompsonmen to provide the victory margin.

Copper Daugherty was high for the winners with 12 points. Roy Price labored 13 for Watkins. Mid-West-Lumber followed the same pattern as the Thompsons did in winning from the Vets. A last-quarter spike paid off with the edge it took to cap the decision.

VFW led 11 to 6 at the end of the first, dropped behind by 22-21 at the half and took over the lead again by the end of the third by 33 to 32.

Then came the 13-point fourth period for Mid-West. The Vets could manage only 10 counters in the quarter.

Max Harris of VFW was high pointer with 17. Brother, Hoot Harris, scored 16 for Mid-West.

Permian Basin Oil & Gas Log

The Nevada Petroleum Corporation No. 3 Von Bolder, Canyon lime discovery, and 80 feet from north and west lines of section 57, block 25, H&TC survey, had reached 6,828 feet in shale, and was making more hole.

The shale is carrying a few streaks of lime—however no Canyon reef lime has been encountered. Elevation of the venture is 2,332 feet.

It had run a drillstem test on a sand section at 6,511-40 feet. The tool was open 32 minutes. Recovery was 43 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water.

The venture is projected to 8,500 feet, if necessary, to test the Ellenburger.

Projected to Ellenburger
The Rutherford No. 1 Griffin is approximately one and one-quarter miles northeast of the Livermore, No. 1 Retnecke, Canyon lime discovery.

San Andres Develops Little In SE Borden

Slight shows of oil and gas were recovered in a drillstem test on the Keweenaw Oil Company No. 1-A Will (Connell), a shallow wildcat in Southwest Kent County.

On the San Andres at 2,335-44, operators recovered 240 feet of slightly oil and gas cut mud and 100 feet of salt water. The tool was open one hour.

The venture will be drilled 100 feet deeper, then tested again. Location is 330 feet from south and west lines of section 3, block 5, H&GN survey, and 16 miles southwest of Claiborne.

SW Crane Field To Get Two New Tests

Applications for permission to drill two explorations in the Tucker field of Southwest Crane County have been filed with the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Both tests will go to 6,000 feet with the hope of tapping the Wadell sand of the Simpson, the pay zone of the field.

Cabot Carbon Company of Midland will drill the No. 2 State of Texas 1,320 feet from west and 1,800 feet from north lines of section 26, block 1, H&TC survey.

Drilling is to begin by March 1. Drillsite is six miles north of the town of Imperial.

Cities Service Oil Company No. 2 Brunson will be 1,320 feet from east and 660 feet from north lines of section 28, block 1, H&TC survey.

Operators located it 10 miles north of Buena Vista.

Pentex Oil Corporation No. 1 Kribbs, 467 feet from north and east lines of the west half of section 338, block 97, H&TC survey, five miles northwest of Snyder. To 7,000 feet, starting at once.

Oswalt Tells MGS Of City's Needs; Plans For Future

W. H. (Bill) Oswalt, Midland city manager, explained the plans and programs of the municipal government to members of the Midland Geological Society at the luncheon meeting of that organization Tuesday night. The session was held in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

Paul H. Kolm, program chairman for the society was in charge of the meeting. Approximately 75 persons attended.

Oswalt told the geologists that the growth of Midland since the war had been so great that it had been impossible to provide all the service and improvements which were needed as quickly as those items were desired.

The city manager declared that the city commission has adopted a program of working on a long-range plan so that ultimately all major necessary operations of the municipality can be foreseen and arranged for.

Oswalt explained the reasons for Midland having a city plan and pointed out some of the benefits that will result from the adoption of such a system of handling the affairs of the community.

He asserted that many improvements, such as street paving, better water and sewer service and better fire protection facilities are being delayed on account of sufficient money to provide them not being available.

Oswalt asked the cooperation of all Midland citizens for the city commission and city officials and employees in their efforts to give Midland the services which are needed and desired.

Council To Discuss City Budget Saving

Approval of transfers of appropriations, which will eliminate $25,000 in expenditures previously provided in the city's budget, is expected at the regular meeting of the City Council Tuesday night. The session will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall.

Expenditures, as originally budgeted, were based on a figure $50,000 in excess of actual estimates, City Manager W. H. Oswalt said.

He explained that after the October 1 audit, it was apparent that operating economies were essential. During the last three months, the city has effected a revision of many of its business systems and methods, streamlining the municipal organization and eliminating waste and lost effort. The city manager said additional revisions are contemplated.

Other matters also are scheduled for discussion and action at the Tuesday night meeting.

Water Board Grants Robert Lee Reservoir

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Water Board granted a permit Monday for a water storage reservoir to supply the town of Robert Lee, Coke County, 31 miles north of San Angelo.

A dam will be built on Mountain Creek, a tributary of the Colorado River, to back up 950 acre feet of water.

Estimated cost of the dam to be built by the Upper Colorado River Authority is $80,000. S. C. Cooper, consulting engineer from Lubbock, said its construction would begin immediately.
