IN HOLLYWOOD

D. W. Griffith, Movie Pioneer, To Rise From Obscurity Again

By ESKINE JOHNSON Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD—D. W. Griffith, the man Hollywood forgot to remember in life, has become a prize movie subject in death. The movie producer's film biography is being packaged by director Gordon Douglas and agent Harold Rose with Henry Wilcoxon being mentioned for the role.

Betty Grable is having a big income tax headache. She and Harry James have sold a number of their properties to meet Uncle Sam's demands but a complete settlement has not been reached.

Brian Donlevy and M-G-M are talking a deal to make a movie based on his "Dangerous Assignment" radio show. Reports that 20th is dropping Jean Peter are erroneous. She's very much in the Zanuck stable.

Ether Williams was the only actress in Hollywood who knew of Janet Blair's plans to divorce Lou Busch. But Esther kept her mouth closed the way she does under water. Secret backers of the Leighton Brill musical, "Of All Things," are Joe Pasternak and Oscar Hammerstein II.

Ethel White, head secretary of M-G-M's legal department, is finding John Payne a suitable replacement for her ex-flame, Clark Gable. The Gray-Jacks Westrop divorce becomes final within two weeks and Nan will be Mrs. Frankie Laine before April 1.

Behind-the-scenes item that kills the impression of a repentant star: Shortly after his wife's announcement of their separation, he called a messenger service and ordered all of her belongings moved out of her home promptly. Within a few hours, there wasn't a trace of the lady, not even a hairpin around the house.

Eyebrow-raising coincidence on Hollywood Blvd. An open-air night theater biases Gene Tierney in "Whirlpool" on the marquee. Across the street a neon sign spells out "Wear Whirlpool Bras."

Garfield's Back John Garfield has stopped issuing announcements that his feeling great since that heart attack. "I'm going back to work this month. That proves I'm functioning. No one believes those 'I'm feeling great' announcements anyway."

John suffered a heart attack last September 25. He says: "It was a fluke. I had half a day off. I played nine sets of tennis. I had a little difficulty breathing. I walked off the court like a gentleman, set down and called a doctor. The doctor put me in a hospital for a month. It was a wonderful rest."

John is returning to Warner Brothers, where he became a star 12 years ago in the Ernest Hemingway picture "The Breaking Point." Hemingway's original title for this yarn was "To Have and Have Not." Warner Brothers used only the Hemingway title for the Bogart-Bacall movie. Now, as Hollywood sometimes operates, they're getting around to the story Hemingway wrote with the title, "The Breaking Point."

"Four Daughters," his first film, is still Garfield's favorite, after a string of 30. He says: "It's like a first child. There's a great sentimental attachment." Next he lists "Pride of the Marines" and "Body and Soul."

"But my biggest thrill," he says, "was that small part in 'Gentleman's Agreement.' I get excited about roles I like, whether big or small. I like to break the rules."

John Ireland faces another headache. The agent he left and his new agent will battle it out before the arbitration board on the matter of who gets John's 10 percent. M-G-M's big hush-hush film, test the other day was a Mexican beauty Rita Macedo. She's 23, beautiful and single. She may be the native girl in a Clark Gable drama of the South Seas.

Joan Leslie and Bob Walker are a new hit team in "The Skipper Surprised His Wife." Don't be surprised if they star in a sequel. Sign of Spring: Kay Kyser's latest recording is "Tostito, Darling, Honey, Angel, Baby."

Willard Parker just checked-mated his estranged wife's suit for separate maintenance by filing for a Los Angeles divorce. Gale Robbins is up for the role in the movie version of "St. Louis Woman."

Approximately 75 per cent of the world's supply of cranberries is raised in Massachusetts.

Host Principal

Charles Mathews, principal of Midland High School, will assist in entertaining the more than 2,000 members of the West Texas Teachers Association, meeting Friday in the beautiful new MHS Auditorium.

Have A Laugh

By BOYCE HOUSE

Another experience that W. J. Bryan enjoyed telling about: He was to speak in a Middle Western city and he was to be there only 30 minutes. The mayor was to introduce him and the committee emphasized that the introduction should be short so as to allow Bryan as much time as possible. But the mayor got carried away by the sound of his own voice and spoke 23 minutes.

Bryan crowded as much as he could into seven minutes, then was making his way back to the train when he overheard two farmers. One asked, "What did you think about Bryan?" The other said, "Oh, he's a wonderful speaker. And, say, that bald-headed fellow that spoke last week had, either!"

EARLY CIVILIZATION

The oldest centers of early civilization in Western Asia are said to have been along the east end of the Highland zone and in Babylonia and Assyria, which now form the kingdom of Iraq.

SILENCE ZONES

Explosions are heard 100 miles away, while there are large areas of inaudibility much nearer the source of sound. These "zones of silence" are produced by atmospheric conditions.

Welcome, Teachers

Members of the West Texas Teachers Association, 2,000 or more strong, will gather Thursday and Friday in Midland—the friendly headquarters city of the vast Permian Basin Empire.

They will be here to attend the annual convention of their association and to exchange with each other new ideas and improved methods of teaching and classroom technique.

An interesting, impressive and most worthwhile program has been arranged for the delegates who will attend the busy work-session. Members of the faculty of the Midland public schools, the official hosts, have worked long and hard in making local arrangements. They will do their utmost to see that needs of the visitors are met and that they have a most enjoyable time while here.

Midland is proud to be the host city for the annual convocation of the West Texas Teachers Association, firstly, because Midland always is glad to have and to entertain distinguished visitors; secondly, because it is the first time the West Texas Teachers group has met in this city, and thirdly, because it is the largest convention ever held here.

Any one of these reasons is sufficient cause for justifiable pride, but the mere fact that the association chose Midland as its 1950 convention city is an honor which Midland long will cherish.

Yes, Midlanders are proud of this opportunity to entertain their largest convention, and they are going all-out to see that the meeting is a huge success from every standpoint. The city, the Chamber of Commerce and all other civic and service groups are cooperating to the fullest extent.

The visiting teachers will find a warm and most cordial welcome awaiting them here, with each Midlander serving as an individual greeter. "Welcome, Teachers" will be the official greeting in friendly Midland this weekend.

It is hoped the visitors will take the time to see Midland—its downtown shopping and business district and its attractive residential areas—and to visit with Midlanders during their stay in our city.

May the convention be the best, most worthwhile and the most successful in history.

Midland will be a better city as a result of the WTTA convention having been held here, and we hope and trust the teachers will return soon and often.

WELCOME, WEST TEXAS TEACHERS.

An Illinois town voted for a new school but defeated a bond issue to pay for it. Even the teachers can't solve that one!

Everybody's Getting Into The Act

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Congress voted $29,000,000 without roll call; Soviet press rants against Washington Merry-Go-Round; Japanese learn from U. S. Senate.

WASHINGTON — With economy the watchword on Capitol Hill, senators and congressmen might be better off criticizing the bureaucrats less and paying more attention to how Congress itself handles the taxpayer's money. The power to tax and spend rests squarely on congressional shoulders, and by juggling the appropriations Congress can control the federal government.

Yet, believe it or not, Congress appropriated twenty-nine billions last year without so much as a record vote. In other words, the taxpayers had no way of determining how their representatives voted. In many cases, the majority of congressmen didn't even show up to vote when expenditures running into millions of dollars were approved. This is clear from the Congressional Record which shows that a quorum wasn't always present to vote on appropriations—though the Constitution clearly provides that "a majority (of each House) shall constitute a quorum to do business."

Because this is a careless way to handle the taxpayers' money, conscientious Congressman Dwight Rogers of Florida is urging a resolution to require a rollcall vote on all appropriations. This would help remedy the slipshod methods in which some appropriations are handled. Note—Here are some of the appropriations approved without a rollcall vote: $7,617,739.361 for independent agencies; $12,949,563.498 for the military establishment; $3,090,528.903 for the Treasury and Post Office Departments; $2,387,719.885 for the Labor Department and Federal Security Agency; $715,801.607 for the Agriculture Department; $584,998.797 for the Interior Department; $100,000,000 for Palestine refugees.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Victims Of Shaking Palsy Should Slacken Living Pace

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

There is a chronic condition of the nervous system called shaking palsy, paralysis agitans, or Parkinson's disease, which afflicts a good many people. This disorder causes muscular shaking principally of the hands and arms, and a sort of stiffness of muscular movement.

It is a nervous condition because it comes from damage to a certain part of the brain not connected with the thinking processes. Probably the most common form is that which develops in older people—men more than women—as a result of some obscure process which may be connected with hardening of the arteries or something else which is not known.

Sometimes severe anxiety or mental or physical shock seems to bring on the symptoms. The disease begins gradually, usually in one hand and at first the shaking may not be present all of the time. Together with the tremors there is some loss of muscular strength and stiffness. Muscular movements tend to be performed more slowly and with greater difficulty. There are some other symptoms, especially a tendency to lack of expressiveness in the face, which often are present.

The same symptoms may come from infections, especially what is called epidemic encephalitis, which is a virus infection of the brain stem, which often are present.

There may be periods of improvement of the palsy. Parkinson's disease is a slow process and tends to last for a great many years. There is no pain and the mental condition usually is normal except perhaps after the disease has existed for many years when there may be some slowing of the mental process.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service

The life master and senior master pair event is a new tournament held for the first time this year. However, its popularity is questionable, as only 28 pairs entered the contest. The bridge league already has an open-pair event which attracts a field of 196 pairs for the national championship; and a masters-pair event attracting a field of 188 pairs for the world championship.

It is hard to say just what title they will give to the new event; nevertheless, it was held, and at the end of three sessions of play the winners were Ambrose Casner and Ralph Hirschberg of New York.

In discussing with them a few hands that helped them win, they said that the end play had to be used twice by Casner in the hand shown today.

East opened the five of diamonds, which Casner allowed to ride up to his jack. He then led the jack of clubs. East saw that it was useless to stay off, so he played his ace, then led the king of diamonds which Casner won in dummy with the ace.

Three rounds of clubs were tricked from dummy. Casner, following with two clubs and discarding a heart. On the third round East also discarded a heart.

East's two doubles had located practically all of the missing high cards for declarer. His next play was the ten of diamonds from dummy—end play No. 1—throwing East in the lead with the queen of diamonds. When East cashed the eight of diamonds, Casner discarded a heart from dummy and one from his own hand.

East's next play was the jack of hearts, which Casner won in dummy with the queen. He led a heart to his ace, then led a small spade. East played the ten-spot, which was allowed to hold the trick.

East thereupon was end played again, with the king-jack of spades in his hand, dummy having the ace and Casner the queen. No matter which he played, he was helpless. The important part of this play is that the ten of spades must be allowed to hold.

While thus blasting Panuch for his handling of case 14, Senator McCarthy had this to say about his handling of case 41:

"There is a memorandum in the file to the effect that Joe Panuch had made considerable effort to get this man out of the State Department. He was unsuccessful, however, and, incidentally, the information I get—and this is not so much from the files—is that this man Panuch had been given a job of housecleaning and was given somewhat of a free hand under Jimmy Byrnes in starting to accomplish his job."

"However, when Byrnes left and Marshall took over—senators will recall that he then was secretary—the first official act of General Marshall was to discharge the man, Panuch. Obviously, General Marshall did not know anything about the situation. Some one of the underlings said, 'Get rid of this

WASHINGTON COLUMN

McCarthy Boos Villian, Lauds Hero—But It's The Same Man

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The "high-ranking State Department official" whom Senator Joseph R. McCarthy charged had tampered with State Department personnel records turns out to be Joseph Anthony Panuch, now a New York lawyer. He was deputy assistant secretary of state for administration from November, 1945, to January, 1947.

Then he was special assistant to Gen. Lucius D. Clay in Germany, returning to the U. S. last Fall.

Senator McCarthy refused to name the official at the opening session of the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee investigation into charges of security risks in the State Department. But identification of the official was betrayed by Senator McCarthy himself in two of his cases—No. 14 and No. 41.

When Panuch was informed that he had been identified as Senator McCarthy's mysterious "high-ranking State Department official," he refused to make any comment until he had seen the record.

The joke of the whole business is that Senator McCarthy criticized the "high official" for his handling of case 14, and praised him highly for his handling of case 41. And in case 41, Senator McCarthy mentioned Panuch by name. That was the give-away.

Enter The Villian In discussing his case 14, Senator McCarthy on the Senate floor recently charged that, "This is a case of pressure from a high State Department official to obtain security clearance for an individual with a bad background from the standpoint of security. He was appointed a translator in December, 1945. A report from another government investigating agency under date of Jan. 9, 1946, advised that the suspect should be dismissed because he was flagrantly homosexual. He had extremely close connections with other individuals with the same tendencies and who were active members of Communist front organizations, including the Young Communist League."

"The State Department's own security agency recommended the discharge of this employe on Jan. 22, 1946. On Feb. 19, 1946, this individual's services were terminated by the State Department. Subsequently, on April 1, 1946, the action discharging this individual was rescinded and he was reinstated in his job in the State Department."

"In this case a Civil Service Administration report of Sept. 2, 1947, is replete with information covering the attempt of a high State Department official to induce several individuals who had signed affidavits reflecting adverse views on the employe to repudiate their affidavits. The file shows that that high State Department employe even went out and personally contacted the individuals who signed the affidavits and asked them, 'Won't you repudiate them?'"

Turnabout While thus blasting Panuch for his handling of case 14, Senator McCarthy had this to say about his handling of case 41:

"There is a memorandum in the file to the effect that Joe Panuch had made considerable effort to get this man out of the State Department. He was unsuccessful, however, and, incidentally, the information I get—and this is not so much from the files—is that this man Panuch had been given a job of housecleaning and was given somewhat of a free hand under Jimmy Byrnes in starting to accomplish his job."

"However, when Byrnes left and Marshall took over—senators will recall that he then was secretary—the first official act of General Marshall was to discharge the man, Panuch. Obviously, General Marshall did not know anything about the situation. Some one of the underlings said, 'Get rid of this

Q—How many national holidays are observed in the United States? A—There are no national holidays in the United States. Each state has jurisdiction over the holidays it will observe. They are designated either by legislative enactment or executive proclamation. The President and Congress designate only for the District of Columbia and certain employes throughout the nation.

Q—What is the most desirable forest environment for wildlife in general? A—It is the forest or woodland in which there is a mixture of food-bearing and cover-producing plants (from trees to grass), plus water and escape areas, all within the same general area in the Bible. Contrary to a general belief, such conditions do not always exist in mature forests.

Q—Which apes have no tails? A—There are four species of anthropoid apes without tails—the gorilla, the chimpanzee, the orang-utan, and the gibbon.

Q—How many girls are mentioned in the Bible? A—Several women are mentioned in the Bible who were probably quite young, but the word girl occurs only once in the Bible—in the third chapter of Joel, where a girl is sold for wine.

Q—What states are officially designated as commonwealths? A—Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Virginia are the only four.

FINGERPRINTS Dont Lie By Rupert Hughes

Copyright 1950 by Rupert Hughes Dist. by NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: After Azalea Palmer found her father, Wendell Palmer, murdered at his home, she turned to her lawyer, Paul Moody, Azalea's fiancé, to help her. Paul, however, refused to believe Paul's guilt, and insisted on Azalea's innocence. Azalea, however, was determined to see justice done.

"You have retained a good lawyer, of course."

"No," she said. "My father's lawyer is big, pompous old ex-Judge Colburn, the corporation lawyer. I begged him to take Paul, but he believes him guilty and said that he could hardly do anything for the murderer of his own client, my father."

"The court set Paul's bail at $25,000. I implored Judge Colburn to let me put up the money, but he said that the will hadn't been probated yet. He's the executor, but he wouldn't advance the money, and so poor Paul has to stay in jail. It's driving me insane."

"That old dodo of a Judge Colburn dared to rebuke me. He said, 'Instead of trying to save this fellow you're infatuated with, oughtn't you to be mourning for your poor father?'"

"I struck back at him: 'You let me mourn my father my own way. I loved him. He loved me. He hated Paul, but that was because he didn't want to let anybody take me out of his lonely life. Some horrible person killed my father for some mysterious reason. I'll keep on trying till he is found and my father's death avenged.'"

"Judge Colburn answered: 'You'll regret this my child. And I said 'Somebody else will regret it more, if there's any real justice in the world.'"

QHE spoke with the fierce conviction and the unwavering faith in life that only the young and the little-experienced can cherish. Queripel loved her for her ferocity and hated to bring her back to the harsh realities, but he said:

"Still, my dear, the only way to use the law or escape it, is by way of a lawyer. Had you thought of engaging Harry Hodges to defend Paul Moody?"

She nodded. "Judge Colburn advised him; but I said that hiring him would be the same as pleading guilty and trying to squirm out. Harry Hodges is famous for getting killers acquitted; but Paul Moody isn't a killer."

"By this time Queripel was so enticed in her mind, she determined to save Paul Moody for her, sweet wild sake, that he was already a partner of hers in a conspiracy to defeat the police, if not justice itself."

"After some thought, he said: 'I think I know just the man you need. He's young; he's brilliant; he knows the law, its loopholes and its knots. His name is Harley Kenyon. He's a fighter. And he needs the money and the practice.'"

"Nice name," said Azalea, with a wily logic of instant decision. "Please engage him, and tell him the situation. I'll pay his fee, whatever it is."

QUERIPEL, still the gallant and hardily recognizing himself in this new mood, decided that if Harley Kenyon once looked into those diamonds behind Azalea's eyelashes, he would turn the world upside down to get her heart's desire—unless, perhaps, the young lawyer should decide to get Moody out of the way and take Azalea herself for his fee. He said:

"I think I'd better let you talk to him yourself. I'll see if I can get him to come here right now. His office is in this building."

He dialed Kenyon's telephone and caught the young lawyer "just dashing out to an important appointment."

Azalea heard Queripel say: "Break that appointment. Come here at once. It's a matter of life and death."

He put down the receiver and smiled at Azalea. "He's half way here by now." (To Be Continued)

What's RIGHT?

You want your child to have a friendly, courteous attitude toward grownups. WRONG WAY: When his manners aren't all they should be tell him how ashamed you were of him. RIGHT WAY: Try to keep him from becoming self-conscious by making what corrections you have to make in a casual "This is how we do such-and-such" manner.

Mat. 11:25-28; Luke 6:37; 17:3-4; Eph. 4:32.

FINAL STEPS FOR OVERCOMING RESENTMENTS

(10) Go out each day to do some positive good to the person against whom you hold resentments. Wear down his hate and opposition with your own good will. A Japanese student and a Chinese student were in the same university, and the Japanese disliked the Chinese intensely. But when the Japanese was ill, the Chinese brought food to him every day. This kind attention broke down the enmity, and they became fast friends. A man and his wife were constantly quarreling. The quarrel usually began over the radio—she wanted music, and he wanted the news. One day he was changed and let God into his little soul. When he returned home, and the tension point came, he walked to the radio and turned on the music. His wife looked at him in surprise and said, "But this is the news hour." "Yes," he replied, "I know, but I thought you would enjoy the music." She could scarcely believe her ears, but responded by getting up and turning on the news. From that moment they solved their problems by thinking of the other person first.

(11) Be inwardly "too glad and too great to be the enemy of any man."

Be so preoccupied with good will that you haven't room for ill will. Dr. George Carver, the great Negro scientist and saint, has risen to fame through his chemical discoveries and service to the farmers of the South. Someone asked him to reveal the name of the university which had accepted him as a student and then, on discovering he was a Negro, had refused him admittance. Dr. Carver consistently refused to tell, passing the incident off as nothing. He had what somebody called "the peace that passeth not only all understanding, but all misunderstanding." Someone said to me, "I don't think you know when you are insulted." I replied, "I am not looking for insults and so don't see them." When Jesus announced His program at Nazareth, He read from Isaiah until He came to the words, "the day of vengeance of our God." Then He closed the book. You do the same. Leave vengeance to God—use only redemptive good will.

O God, my Father, nothing that anyone can do against me compares with what I have done against Thee. Thou has forgiven me—help me to forgive others. Amen. Help me to forgive graciously, not grudgingly, for Thou has forgiven me so graciously. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Hegyí Concert Tickets Go On Sale Friday

Tickets for the concert to be presented here March 27 by Julius Hegyí, violinist, will go on sale Friday at Wemple's. Members of the Civic Music Club, which will sponsor the program by the young concert master of the San Antonio Symphony Orchestra, will be in charge of the ticket booth.

Individual members of the club also have tickets for sale, and the sale will continue at the boxoffice on the night of the concert. The club sponsors each year a program, open to the public, by a well-known guest musician, usually a Texan.

Mrs. J. B. Koenig, president, is directing ticket sales. Mrs. Frank Miller was in charge of arrangements for Hegyí's appearance here. He is known in Midland as a student and then, on discovering he was a Negro, had refused him admittance. Dr. Carver consistently refused to tell, passing the incident off as nothing. Modern Club Plans Gift For Overseas Club

A May basket filled with gifts for friends they have made by correspondence will be prepared by Modern Study Club members at their meeting on May 3, they decided Wednesday afternoon. They met then in the home of Mrs. Ed Shakely.

The gift basket will be sent to a woman's club in Holland. Last year the Modern Study Club started correspondence with women in the club overseas, which has a member who acts as translator of the letters. Numerous letters and gifts have been sent and received.

Mrs. John Casselman presented the program Wednesday, reviewing Margaret Bourke-White's book, "Halfway to Freedom." She was introduced by Mrs. Carl Westlund, program chairman. The book she presented is described as "a report on the new India," and gives observations of the woman photographer and news correspondent while she was in India during the period just before Gandhi's assassination.

Reports were made by committees in charge of the Bonnet Brunch which the club will sponsor April 11 as a benefit entertainment. Other members present were Mrs. F. R. Schenck, Mrs. C. L. Oil Is Topic Of Wednesday Club Program Motion pictures told the story of oil development to members of the Women's Wednesday Club at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Ida Fay Cowden Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ben Black and Mrs. L. W. Sager were hostesses with Mrs. Cowden.

The program, titled simply "Oil," was one of the club's series on "Our Environment," a season-long study of the people, industries and resources of Texas with emphasis on the Permian Basin. R. E. Goff of the personnel department of the Shell Oil Company showed the films, which were made in Hollywood for that company.

One, in color, was "Prospecting for Petroleum." It showed methods used from the beginning of the oil industry to the present for discovering oilfields and locating wells. The other, "Oil for Aladdin's Lamp," showed the numerous articles made from the crude oil.

Mrs. Black, program chairman, introduced Goff. A guest who saw the films with members was Mrs. Bessie Ward of Odessa.

Members present included Mrs. Marion Flynt, Mrs. Guy Cowden, Mrs. Allen Cowden, Mrs. Russell C. Conkling, Mrs. Tom Sealy, Mrs. Winston Hull, Mrs. John Perkins, Mrs. Erle Payne, Mrs. R. L. Miller, Mrs. Dave McKee, Mrs. W. L. Kerr, Mrs. Paxton Howard, Mrs. C. M. Goldsmith and Mrs. George Glass.

The capper for all cappers in basketball here this season will be played at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in the new Midland High School Gymnasium. It'll be Midland's Rotary Engineers against Hazel Walker's Arkansas Travelers, famous all-girls outfit.

The Travelers, headed by Manager-Coach Hazel Walker, have proved themselves one of the top fem cage teams in the world.

Baseball fans who never had a chance to see great major league double-play combinations in action, may see them on the screen at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Hotel Scharbauer Friday night.

Father Edward Murray, pastor of St. George's Catholic Church here and a man who is interested in bringing sports programs to Midland, is furnishing the film.

Included in the movie are demonstrations of the double play by Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon of the Cleveland Indians, Marty Marion and Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals and several other big league shortstop-second baseman duets.

One of the best laughs we have had in a long time came when we read a recent column by Dick Snider, Odessa scribe.

Snider was relating the arrival in San Antonio of the Odessa Oilers' seven Cuban players.

Along with the Cuban delegation, headed by Manny Rodriguez, Snider finished with: Rodriguez kept calling A. D. Ensey "the Great White Father."

Midland fans have some other names for the Oilers.

Marty Piligamo, the fleet and husky outfielder who performed for the Midland Indians last season, is carried on the roster of the Longview Texans at present.

Bud Wilkinson, University of Oklahoma football coach, is in Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., for a checkup following a recent operation.

Chiles is an Oklahoma man and is a friend of Wilkinson, as is Leahy.

Leahy and Chiles planned a joke on Wilkinson in which Chiles would call him on long distance and Leahy would disguise his voice for the act.

Wilkinson wasn't at home, which proves again you're gonna have to get up early to outsmart Bud Wilkinson.

A record list of 391 individual entries from 28 colleges is listed for competition in the 28th annual Michigan State Relays.

OCNY Sophs Meet Duquesne In Surge Toward NIT Crown

NEW YORK —(AP)—Whether OCNY's rocketing sophomores can keep up their sensational surge toward the National Invitation tournament basketball title is up for decision again Thursday night.

Nat Holman's youngsters meet their toughest foe yet in Duquesne's Iron Dukes, out to slow City's fast break to a fizzle.

Topseeded Bradley, still the tournament favorite, plays St. John's of Brooklyn in the second semifinal.

OCNY reached the semi-finals by defeating second-seeded Kentucky and Defending Champion San Francisco by wide margins.

St. John's is the only club left that has won previous NIT titles—in 1943 and '44.

The tournament's outstanding performer so far, OCNY Forward Ed Warner, weaving in and out of the pivot, will try the same tactics against Duquesne Center Charley Cooper.

The speedy heavyweight killed off Kentucky and San Francisco with a variety of shots—drive-ins, taps, sets, pivots.

Bauer Sisters May Enter TWGA Tourney

HOUSTON —(AP)—The famed Bauer Sisters—Marlene and Alice—may play in the Texas Women's Golf Association tournament at Brae Burn Country Club here April 17-22.

The Bauers, now touring in women's golf, are residents of Midland, Texas, and as members of the country club there are eligible to compete in the tournament here.

A field of almost 150 is expected. Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, president of the association, says among the entries will be Betty Eavis of Austin, the defending champion; Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Betty MacKinnon of Mount Pleasant and Betty Dodd of San Antonio.

The tournament will last a week.

Larry Olsonski, New York Bull-dog guard, and former Minnesota ace, has seven sisters and three brothers.

Nats Keep Sharp Eye On Waivers

ORLANDO, FLA.—(AP)—Frankly, Bucky Harris is looking for help. The new manager has no delusions about the Washington club that staggered home last in 1949, some 47 games back.

"I'll have my bait out when the other clubs start asking waivers," he said. "Boston has 20 pitchers, the Yankees have four catchers and a flock of pitchers. I'm keeping an eye on that waiver list."

Harris talks like a determined man. If anybody wants First Baseman Eddie Robinson, for example, the talent cost will be high. Same thing goes for any of the others.

He is smart enough to know that no one player is indispensable on a club such as Washington. What is needed is talent in bulk.

Bucky is high on his new outfield combination of Gil Coan in left, Rookie Irv Noren in center and Sam Mele in right. All three are young with their best days ahead.

The infield will be the same as 1949 with Robinson on first, Al Kozar on second, Sam Dente on short and Eddie Yost at third. Al Evans is set as No. 1 catcher, followed by Grasso.

"I'm counting on seven pitchers definitely," said Harris. "I'll carry 10 altogether. The first seven are Scarborough, Sid Hudson, Joe Hayes, Dick Weik, Lloyd Hittle, Mickey Harris and Steve Nagy."

Middlecoff Banks Double Payoff In Seminole Golf

PALM BEACH, FLA.—(AP)—Cary Middlecoff, professional golfer playing out of Ormond Beach, Fla., banked $2,750 Thursday for his double victory in the eleventh annual Seminole Golf Tournament.

The National Open champion finished the 54-hole event Wednesday with an aggregate of 207 to take $1,500 in that division.

He teamed with C. Douglas Dillon, New York stock broker, for a tie with Professional Jim Ferrier of San Francisco and Leroy Berceau of Paris, France, at 128 in the 36-hole pro-amateur end of the tournament.

Middlecoff and Ferrier pocketed $1,250 for their pro-amateur score. Ferrier also won $668.50 when he finished second in the 54-hole tourney, with a score of 209.

Others in that bracket were Roberto di Vincenzo of Buenos Aires, Lew Worsham of Okemont, Pa., and Henry Picard of Los Angeles.

Five professionals tied at 211, worth $200 each. They were Claude Harmon of Palm Beach; Jimmy Deane of Ojai, Calif.; Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill.; Pete Cooper of Ponte Vedra, Fla., and Dick Mayer of Palm Beach.

Six new managers were signed for the 1950 season of the eight-club Pioneer baseball league in Idaho, Utah and Montana.

Six Seeded Quints Gone From NAIB

KANSAS CITY —(AP)—The little fellows still have a big chance as the National Intercollegiate (NAIB) Basketball Tournament moves into its quarter-final round Thursday night.

Of the eight seeded teams, only Brooklyn College and Indiana State of Terre Haute remain in the championship running.

Other quarter-finalists are East Central Oklahoma State, Central College of Fayette, Mo., Davis and Elkins of Elkins, W. Va., University of Tampa, Baldwin-Wallace and Central Washington College of Education.

The two top-seeded teams, Defending Champion Hamline University and Westminster College of New Wilmington, Pa., got booted out Wednesday.

Hamline lost to Central College 76-66 Wednesday night. Westminster lost 85-75 to Davis and Elkins. Brooklyn Wednesday bowled over College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wash., 64-47 and will meet East Central Oklahoma Thursday night.

Indiana State takes on Baldwin-Wallace. Indiana got by Arkansas Tech 87-79 Wednesday night. Baldwin-Wallace won 82-62 over seeded East Texas State of Commerce.

In other games, University of Tampa trimmed George Pepperdine College 69-61, and East Central Oklahoma eliminated River Falls (Wis.) Teachers 75-64.

Texas-Iowa Girls Cage Tussle To Pack Baylor Gym

WACO —(AP)—The third installment of the Texas-Iowa schoolgirl basketball series scheduled here Saturday night is attracting plenty of attention.

Dimmitt's Bobbies, the newly-crowned Texas champions, meet Slater's Corn State Queens at 8 p.m. in the Baylor gym.

Iowa holds a 2-1 lead in the interstate series. Kamrar beat Mesquite in 1948 at Des Moines. Seagville divided a series with Wellsburg last year at Des Moines and Waterloo.

The Dimmitt-Slater exhibition is sure to pack Baylor's gym for the second time in as many weeks. Texas' finals last Saturday night drew a record crowd.

Dimmitt is rated one of the strongest teams in the 12-year history of the Texas League.

All-state Lometa Odum is the key girl in Dimmitt's versatile offense. All-state Maurine Smithson heads the guards who put up a defense seldom seen in girls' basketball. The towering Odum plays the pivot post and seldom misses a crisp shot. Speedy Pat Tate either dribbles in for short shots or hits the basket from far out in the court.

Bauer Sisters, 37 Others Tee Off In Titleholders Play

AUGUSTA, GA.—(P)—A collection of 39 champions opened the first round of the Women's Titleholders Tournament Thursday and only three or four golfing names which count with the gallery were missing.

For four days the best in feminine golf will chase after the first 1950 crown among the big three of women's open tournaments — the Titleholders, Western Open and National Open.

Recent rains and cloudy hints of plenty more to come made the Augusta Country Club's sandy and piney 6,619-yard course a long playing, short roll layout. Without good ball rolls even this field of stars will be pushed to produce a 72-hole score of 299 to match Peggy Kirk's record-setting work last year.

Miss Kirk, a long-legged, long-ball hitter from Findlay, Ohio, is defending her title. Other Titleholders winners trying again are Babe Zaharias of Chicago, Patty Berg of Minneapolis, Louise Suggs of Carrollton, Ga., and Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta. Helen Hicks is the only former winner not playing.

The field of 39 is the largest ever assembled for this invitational tournament. Last year only 27 competed. In one pre-war year only eight played.

Bauers Are Newcomers
With Augustana, who are accustomed to championship golf because both the Men's Masters and the Titleholders are played here annually, Louise Suggs shouldn't lose. Louise, a slim shortie who consistently drives more than a seventh of a mile, won the Western and National Opens this year and has shot sound golf in practices here this week.

Most of the girls who opened the rounds Thursday are oldtimers in Titleholders. However, among the crowd of newcomers are the Bauer sisters, Marlene and Alice, from Midland, Texas, who threaten to outdraw if not outscore their sisters. Alice is 22, Marlene 16; and they combine bobby sox beauty with golf birdies.

They're the delight of the crowd and the younger galleries. Both Bauers usually play in shorts but the chilly weather has chased them into skirts.

The only entry who failed to show up on the opening tee was Mrs. Ballard Cockrell of Mineola, Texas. Among the few missing stars unable to play are Dot Kieley of Los Angeles, Polly Riley of Fort Worth, who opened the 1950 season by winning two tournaments in Florida, and National Amateur Champion Dorothy Germaine Porter.

Six Wayward Tulsa Gridders, Rejected At UCC, Start Home

CORPUS CHRISTI.—(P)—Tulsa University's six football players who switched allegiance to the University of Corpus Christi in the midst of Spring training return to Oklahoma Thursday.

UCC authorities said they could not enroll here—much to the sorrow of UCC Coach Will Walls.

"They would have meant a top notch football club for three years," Walls commented.

Tulsa Coach J. O. (Buddy) Brothers is much happier.

When told that his players were returning, Brothers said: "I'm washing my hands of the whole affair. As far as I'm concerned the incident is closed."

Two of the roaming gridmen are his starting defensive tackles—James Frewitt, 236, of Smackover, Ark., and Floyd Harrawood, 258, of Harlan, Ky. The others are Eddie Ware, 200-pound end from Carthage, Miss.; George Coldiron, 156-pound half-back from Harlan, Ky.; Tom Hamm, 200-pound guard from Corinth, Miss.; and Bob Miles, 290-pound tackle from Missoula, Mont.

Thompsons Whip JayCees To Gain Cage Loop Finals

It'll be Ted Thompson and Rotary Engineers in the finals of the City Cage League playoff. Ted's Terrors whipped the JayCees 43 to 30 in the Junior High Gym Wednesday night to earn the last round.

Rotary Engineers, already having cinched a place in the finals by defeating Watkins Mobil two straight, played an exhibition tilt with People's Humble of Andrews and came away with the long end of a 54-48 score.

The defeat handed the JayCees drops into the consolation bracket, where they will meet Watkins Mobil in a battle for third place in the final standings.

The playoffs continue Monday night with a double-header on tap. Lead All Way.

Ted Thompson's quintet jumped into the lead in the first quarter of Wednesday night's game and never let the Jakes come closer than five points.

Ken Baker and Larry Wiles led the scoring parade for the Teds all the way. Baker banked 16 points for high honors and Wiles counted 14.

Thompson led 18 to 12 at the half. A scoring spree in the fourth quarter which accounted for 15 points iced the game.

The Rotary-Andrews exhibition was a fine display of the round-ball sport. The game was close enough to be interesting all the time and the score was knotted at several periods in the fracas.

Morry staged a shooting exhibition for the Andrews team, scoring nine field goals and seven free throws for a total of 25 points.

Tom Schalk was high for Rotary with 15.

Ingrid Files Suit For Cash, Daughter

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Ingrid Bergman wants her money back from her ex-husband.
 She wants her 12-year-old daughter, too, and "reasonable" support for the child.
 The actress' attorneys filed suit Wednesday against Dr. Peter Lindstrom, whom she divorced in Mexico February 9, demanding an accounting of personal and community property and custody of their child, Pia.
 Miss Bergman, 34, demanded $154,000 (after taxes) which she said she earned in making the movie "Stromboli" for Director Roberto Rossellini on the Island of Stromboli in the Mediterranean.
 The actress said Lindstrom, 43, Beverly Hills brain surgeon, has been holding the $154,000 as her American agent. But, she insisted, he has no right to it because it was earned after she left him more than a year ago.

Walsh Addresses Midland Rotarians

Interesting incidents and experiences encountered in his long years of association with football were related by Chas. Walsh, nationally known sports figure who moved to Midland recently, at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club Thursday noon in the Hotel Scharbauer.
 Walsh, former Notre Dame grid star, college coach, and owner-operator of professional football franchises in Cleveland and Los Angeles, was introduced by Percy F. Bridgewater, program chairman.
 President Hilton Keadell presided.
 One of Walsh's stories had to do with his last game of football, when he and other former Notre Dame greats met the New York Giants in a benefit game in New York City in 1955.
 "We didn't score a point and the experience cured me of a desire to continue as a football player," Walsh said.
 Numerous legendary characters in the football world were mentioned by the speaker, who also threw in a few yarns on hunting and weather for good measure.

McKENNEY Answers Your CANASTA Questions

By WILLIAM K. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written For NEA Service

Some of my readers want to know what to do with red treys dealt to them. The most important rule to remember is to wait your turn before putting down any of these bonus cards.

Q—We have a rule at our club that before she plays, all players in the game put down their red treys in turn, and draw a card from the stock pile to replace them. We have been told that this procedure is wrong. Will you kindly correct us if we are wrong?

A—You are wrong. Red treys may be put down on the table only by the player whose turn it is to play. He must place his red tray on the table and immediately replace it with a card from the stock pile. If he has two red treys, he puts them both down and takes two cards from the stock pile to replace them.

Q—If one of the cards he draws from the stock pile is a red tray, he puts this down on the table also and draws another card for it. After he has completed laying down and replacing all his red treys, the player then has a choice of making his regular draw from the stock pile, or of taking the discard pile if he can.

Any of the other players who has a red tray must keep it in his hand until it becomes his turn to play. However, if a player goes out before you have had a chance to play your red tray it does not count 500 points against you. It counts only 100 points against you in this case.

Q—There is only one card in the discard pile. It is a black tray which has been discarded by the player ahead of me. I have two use these to pick up the single black tray in the discard pile if I can go out?

A—No. You can never take the discard pile if the top card is a black tray. This applies also to jokers and deuces. You cannot pick up the discard pile if the top card is a joker or deuce, even though you have two jokers or two deuces in your hand.

Q—We needed 90 points for our initial meld. By mistake I melded two kings and a joker, which only came to 70 points. I did not have enough to make a sufficient meld, so I was forced to discard one of the cards I had laid down. I discarded a king.

The next time around I discarded the other king. Then at my partner's turn, he melded four queens and need my joker to make 90 points. Our opponents said we could not do that. Were we wrong?

A—Yes, you were wrong. While penalty cards must be left face up on the table, they are the same as if they were still in your hand, and therefore they cannot be used by your partner.

Q—If your partner had made an initial meld of 90 points by putting down, let us say, four queens and a joker from his own hand, then at your turn to play you would be allowed to add your joker to his meld. But if he could not make the required meld from his hand, you would be forced to discard your joker at your next turn.

Q—Is my partner allowed to call my attention to the fact that I have discarded a card that could have been used on one of our melds?

A—Yes, he may call your attention to it—but it is too late to do anything about it. Once you have discarded, your play is completed and you cannot take it back.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Seeing Things

Sammy Ringtail put his finger to his mouth and said "Shh!" That's what people say, you know, when they want someone to be as quiet as a mouse.

"Where's all the trouble?" Daddy Ringtail whispered.

Sammy and Daddy Ringtail were standing down on the Elephant

Path, and Sammy whispered that the Monkey Catcher had come to the Great Forest. "He came all the way from the zoo in his fire truck."

"We won't get excited," he said. "Until we are sure it's really the Monkey Catcher who was driving the fire truck."

But Sammy was sure—very sure, he said—that the Monkey Catcher was the one who had come in the fire truck. "I'll show you," said Sammy, and so he slipped away through the forest with Daddy Ringtail until they came to the Duck Pond.

There was the fire truck, right enough, standing by the Duck Pond, and over in the grass, fast asleep, was a somebody, and he was wearing a Monkey Catcher cap.

"It looks like the Monkey Catcher," Daddy Ringtail whispered. "I thought maybe it might be Uncle Bunkum who had come to see us from the zoo, but with a Monkey Catcher cap—well that would Uncle Bunkum be doing with it?"

And Sammy was sure—so very sure—that it was the Monkey Catcher and not Uncle Bunkum at all. "Uncle Bunkum wouldn't be wearing a Monkey Catcher cap," Sammy said.

But then Daddy Ringtail said something that we should all remember. Said he: "We can't be sure about what we've seen, until we've seen all of it—like the somebody's face who's sleeping there under the Monkey Catcher cap." When he slipped up close and looked, there was Uncle Bunkum, sleeping with a Monkey Catcher cap on his head to keep from getting a cold. Happy day!

CONCRETE WATER HOLES BUILT TO SAVE QUAIL

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Conservationists are building water holes for quail, says the U. S. Wildlife Service. With these aids the birds can live in dry areas where they could not stay without them.

The water holes are of concrete with an underground storage capacity of about 700 gallons. Entrances are made small to check evaporation and keep out coyotes and other predators. A concrete apron collects water from what rains there and it is stored automatically for future use of the quail.

Caroline Starr Balestier, of Brattleboro, Vt., was the American wife of Rudyard Kipling.

Elmer Learns About Taxes, 10 Per Cent

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(AP)—The frosted door pane bore the sign: "The Celebrity Stable—Celebrities Bought, Sold, Rented and Exchanged."

Inside the office with his feet on his desk sat the famous Broadway agent and celebrity manufacturer, Wheeler (Ten Per Cent) Topchop. The door opened and in strode a tall, rawboned youth carrying a straw suitcase.

"I'm Elmer Cornpone from Pea Hollow, Tenn.," he said shyly. "I'm tired of being a nobody. I want to be famous."

"My boy, you have come to the right place," said Wheeler. "The public is crying for new celebrities," said Wheeler, going into his pitch. "To be a well-known celebrity you have to be able to do something special or you have to have something—money."

When Elmer confessed all he had left was $23.45—including a $10 Confederate bill—Wheeler looked depressed. He asked if there was anything Elmer could do. Young Cornpone scratched his head and finally allowed:

"Well, I can put two needles in my mouth and knit a baby sock in 15 minutes. But everybody in Pea Hollow already knows that."

"But the world doesn't!" exclaimed the agent excitedly. "Son, that's a wonderful stunt. You're a natural celebrity."

In the next two weeks Cornpone was the guest star on 15 different programs.

Then he got his own show. Dressed in a pair of satin overalls, he would start knitting the baby sock with the needles in his teeth while a 97-piece band wearing silk hillbilly costumes played in the background. In the finale, as he knitted the toe, Elmer made wisecracks from one side of his mouth and played "Dixie" on a harmonica in the other side.

Elmer endorsed three breakfast foods, four kinds of cigars and three brands of cigarettes and seriously considered learning to smoke.

Ten Per Cent Blues
In a year he earned $450,000 but Wheeler took ten per cent as his agent, ten per cent as his business manager, ten per cent as his personal secretary, ten per cent as his publicity representative, and ten per cent for writing his gags, which he copied from a 1931 file of "College Humor." Then Wheeler took another ten per cent just because nobody was looking.

All this left Elmer owing Uncle Sam about $37,000. One morning, wearing a bright tan polo coat and dark sunglasses, Cornpone dropped in on his agent to borrow his usual $5 daily allowance. Wheeler gave him the $5 and said:

"This ends it, Elmer. You're done—washed up."

"Your sponsor has cancelled out. You've had a bad year. People are tired of seeing you knit with your teeth. Cousin Otis Next."

The agent then pulled out a letter and said:

"Ever hear of Otis Hogshead from Pat Wallow, Tenn?"

"Sure, I know Cousin Otis," said Elmer.

"Can he really yodel a hillbilly song at the same time he's swallowing a basketball?"

"Course he can," said Elmer. "But everybody in our county is worn out from watching him do it."

"The rest of the world isn't—yet," said Wheeler. "By the way, I'll give you $10 for that polo coat."

"What for?" asked Elmer, peeling it off.

"For Cousin Otis—I don't want him to look like a bum."

Newburyport's Mayor Andrew Gillis Says He Has 'Slowed Down,' But Town Disagrees

Andrew "Bossy" Gillis: "I don't plan them, they just happen."

NEWBURYPORT, MASS.—(AP)—If you're not a friend of Mayor Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis, you'd better stay out of Newburyport City Hall, otherwise his honor may toss you out on the seat of your pants and then have you pinched for trespassing on public property.

Crazier things than that have happened in this small New England seaport without facing Gillis or his 14,000 constituents. The zany antics of the paunchy, 53-year-old mayor have brought widespread notoriety to both Gillis and Newburyport for nearly a quarter-century.

"I got no use for cut-throat political enemies. Only my friends can work for me," declared Gillis on his return to city hall this year after an absence of 12 years. He insists he has "slowed down," but Newburyport is inclined to disagree.

For 20 Years
The blustery politician has served as mayor off and on for 20 years, with his political power and enthusiasm just as strong as ever. Recently he removed from the city payroll the names of four men who reside at the municipal infirmary, claiming, "We're feeding and housing them. I think the city is doing enough without giving them a salary."

It reminded Newburyporters of 1925 when he punched the then mayor of Newburyport, was fined $50 and sentenced to two months in jail.

Two years later, while serving his first term as mayor, Gillis was given a two-month term in county jail for cutting down elm trees to make an entrance for his gasoline station. He carried out the city's affairs from his cell and worked in the prison laundry.

Gillis returned to jail for nine months in 1941 for criminally libeling an Ipswich, Mass. judge in a weekly newspaper which Gillis published. This time he worked on the prison coal pile.

Once he climbed through a second story window in the city's new school to make an inspection after the school board refused to give him a key for a more orthodox entrance.

In 1944, he was charged by the OPA with purchasing gasoline coupons.

He denied the allegations but admitted he sold gasoline to "trusted friends" on a coupon credit basis.

After the OPA episode, "Bossy" purchased an old horse and wagon and started a 25-cent taxi service. He advertised "NO OPA REGULATIONS" and "INEBRIATES RIDE FREE" (he's a teetotaler himself) and drove the old plug through town soliciting business.

Wife Gets Credit
Gillis credits his return to city hall, which he had last occupied in 1936, to his wife, Louise, who managed his recent campaign on the stipulation, "that you take it easy, Andrew." Andrew did take it easy—but only until the day he stepped back into the mayor's office.

Sharp-tongued "Bossy" is five feet five inches, weighs 225 pounds and spends about two hours daily in city hall for an annual salary of $2,500. Most of his mayor's pay, according to associates, is given to the needy because "he's such a soft touch." Away from city hall, he operates his filling station.

Gillis admits he's not the type to keep quiet. "If I didn't lose my temper, all these things wouldn't happen to me. I don't plan them—they just happen."

Work began Monday on a new water tower for Rotary field. The well, when complete, will furnish water for the regular football field, practice field and the lawns around the new high school now under construction. The Quarterback Club is financing the project.

A nominating committee, composed of M. W. Collier, Dick Toll and Bob Dean has been named by Rotary President Rayman Pouncey to select club officer candidates for next year. The officers are to be elected prior to the District Rotary meeting in Carlsbad, April 23-25.

Halla Bryan and Al Cook are candidates for the coming trustee election of the Pecos Independent School District. Incumbents are Elmer Jones, L. A. Weinacht and Dewey Richburg. None has indicated that he will be a candidate for re-election.

Construction on a new hangar and warehouse for Worsham Dunning company almost is half completed. The building is located four and one-half miles south of Pecos on the Balmorhea highway.

V. C. Marshal, executive director of the State Soil Conservation Board, conducted a meeting Thursday in Balmorhea for district representatives.

Almost two miles of pipe have been laid for the new water line to Pecos, and work is continuing at high speed. The 21-inch water pipeline will bring water into Pecos from seven new wells located 10 miles southeast of town.

Two pictures of Pecos are printed in the Spring issue of Tim Holt's Western Stars. The pictures were taken during the rodeo parade here two years ago.

Two Men Die When Helicopter Crashes After Striking Birds

KILLEEN, TEXAS—(AP)—An Army helicopter crashed and burned near here Wednesday, killing two men. A witness said it ran into a flock of birds, breaking one of the main rotor blades.

The helicopter was one of four similar craft at nearby Camp 7. It was believed the first time any of the craft had crashed in this area.

Lt. Robert Filley said he was watching the helicopter from where he stood by its hangar about a mile away and saw it fly into a flock of birds.

One of the big rotor blades seemed to disintegrate as the craft flew into the birds, he said, and pieces of the blade seemed to cut off the tail section.

Witnesses See Crash
The helicopter fell in an open field and caught fire. One of its occupants was caught in the craft and the other thrown about five yards away. Firemen from Camp Hood and Killeen extinguished the blaze.

There were several witnesses to the crash, which occurred about a half-mile north of Killeen, which is near the edge of Camp Hood. One of the witnesses reportedly was a wife of one of the men killed. Identities of the victims were not available immediately.

Pieces of the helicopter were scattered over an area of about 100 square yards. The tail section, apparently severed while the craft still was in the air, was found 100 yards away.

PROTECTED KILLERS

Atom Helps FBI Blast Away At Crime; Geiger Counter Finds Poison In Pie

The FBI at work: The atomic age has moved in.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Crime detection has moved into the atomic age.

Such things as geiger counters, electron microscopes and X-ray diffraction spectrophotometers, tools of atomic study, have become standard equipment in the FBI's crime laboratory to get iron-clad evidence against criminals which otherwise might never have been found.

Recently, four persons in Virginia were poisoned under mysterious circumstances. Local authorities guessed that the poison had been in the meringue on a home-made lemon pie, but no nearby laboratories could isolate it. Finally, samples of the meringue and everything that went into it were sent to the FBI lab. By the X-ray diffraction method, involving a geiger counter to detect special radiations, the poison was quickly identified as sodium fluorosulfate. It resembles sugar and had been placed in the family's sugar supply. Fortunately the four persons were saved from using the same sugar again and the case was eventually solved.

About the same time, a Montana sheep herder reported 300 of his animals stolen. He told local officers that he had just branded them with a special blue paint. The sheriff turned up a suspect with some extra sheep in his flock. But there was no way of identifying any of the stolen ones. Apparently the paint had been washed off.

On a hunch, however, he sheared some wool from several sheep that looked as though they had been freshly washed. He sent samples of the wool to the FBI with a sample of the blue paint used for the brand. With the help of the X-ray and geiger counter, microscopic bits of the blue paint were detected in some of the samples. When it was further learned that only one can of that particular brand of paint had been sold in that area, the suspect was convicted.

Another innovation in the FBI

Confronted with this evidence the thief admitted what he had done. An official report gives another example:

"In one instance, the laboratory was requested to examine tools and a safe door. . . . There was found on the tools insulation which was different from that in the safe door. A search of the safe insulation file revealed that the insulation on the tools was from the safe of another manufacturer. This information was submitted to the police. The subjects confessed to the commission of other safe burglaries in that vicinity."

The facilities of the amazing FBI lab in Washington are available to local police all over the country. There is no charge for this service and the FBI will send an expert from its lab to testify at a trial if necessary.

The stampede above was all in the day's work for New York news photographers covering the espionage conspiracy trial of Judith Coplon and Valentin Gubitchev. The photogs trampled one another at the door of a U. S. marshal's van to get pictures of the convicted defendants on their way to prison. At left above is one of the resulting pictures—a shot of former government girl Coplon.

ORC Doctors And Dentists Wanted

AUSTIN — Organized Reserve Corps doctors and dentists have an opportunity to accept short tours of active duty under provisions of a recently published Army regulation, Col. Oscar B. Abbott, chief of the Texas Military District, announced.

There is a need at all Army installations for Reserve Medical officers who wish to go on active duty for one to 29 days. Officers will be ordered to the post nearest their residence so that travel expense to the government will not be required while they are on active duty.

WATER-COOLED — To cool the concrete in Grand Coulee dam, water was circulated through it in 2,200 miles of one-inch tubing, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

SHOE CHANGE — Only during the last 75 years have leather soles been cut in right and left shapes. Prior to that time, most shoes had identical rights and lefts.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

Hunter and hunted, and on apparently friendly terms, were Gen. John J. (Black Jack) Pershing and Mexican bandit chief Pancho Villa. This picture of the pair was made during the "watchful waiting" period at the Mexican border, before Villa made his raid across the border to sack the town of Columbus, N. M. Following this incident in 1916, President Wilson ordered Pershing to lead a force into Mexico to capture the roving bandit. Pershing didn't catch Villa, but he and his troops gained valuable field experience that was to serve them well in France. Shortly after the Mexican adventure, Pershing sailed for France to command the American Expeditionary Force in World War I. Villa, sometimes called Robin Hood of Mexico, was ambushed and killed in 1923.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Handy and Easy Are Both Wrong

Handy Peterson and Easy Roberts got in quite an argument the other day over at Fred's Garage talking about the best spot to fish up at Green Lake.

"Opposite the old sawmill is the best spot," says Handy. But Easy "pooh-poohs" him. "I've seen the biggest fish caught off Cedar Point," says Easy. "I've been catching them there for years."

Then Fred goes into his office and brings out the biggest mounted rainbow trout you ever saw. "Bet that was caught at the sawmill," comments Handy. "Cedar Point," say Easy. "Well," says Fred, "you're both wrong. I caught this baby right out in the middle!"

From where I sit, there are always two (or more) sides to every story. Let's live and let live in the true American tradition of tolerance. Your opinion is worth a lot, but so is the other fellow's—whether it's on politics, the best fishing spots, or whether he likes a temperate glass of beer and you like buttermilk.

Youth Center Chatter

By Joyce Howell and June Haskin

Thursday again, and here's another copy of your favorite column (we hope). A lot of things happened last week, so we'll just get busy now and tell you all about them.

Friday was clean-up day at MHS, and all teens were busy preparing the rooms for the dedication of the High School Saturday night. After cleaning the rooms many of the teachers allowed the students to get popcorn from the circus which was held in the gym.

The dedication program Saturday night was most successful. Several hundred persons were present, to hear the address by Dr. A. J. Stoddard and the musical selections presented by the band and A Cappella Choir. Members of other school organizations participated.

Which Peggy was driving Wayne Richardson's car last week? Our source of information (Buddy Stovall) informed us that Wayne really enjoyed having Peggy drive his car, but he wouldn't tell us which of the many Peggys.

Still another teen has been added to our casualty list. Last week Charles Hendrix injured his left arm. He explained his injury in medical terms, but all we could understand was that his arm had been sprained.

Bet Studdert was wounded "seriously" in the halls of MHS last Friday afternoon. She was going up the stairs when Charles accidentally hit her with the iron splint he is wearing on his arm. Her scream of surprise was heard through the halls!

Yo-Yo's Are Back

The newest fad among the younger crowd (Jr. High) is playing with yo-yo's. Yo-yo's may be had in all sizes, shapes (mostly round) and forms. Take our word for it, they really are tricky things. They either bang one on the head or get tangled in something or other. We certainly do admire those who can make them go up and down on the little string.

It all started when Jane Beakey threatened to tell everyone Peggy Read's middle name. Then nicknames were mentioned and before we knew it had a list of unusual ones. Betty Pitzer has acquired the name of "Flea," while "Blondie" is the extra handle to which Jane Beakey answers. Jackie Ewald is known as "Curly," Georgia Stump as "Dimples," Mary Ann Searles as "Mars," and Barbara Long as "Bobby." "Beany" is Peggy Read's nickname. "Peggy" belongs to Peggy Simmons, "Goose" to Gwen Roberts, and "Buckwheat" to Nancy Roberts. Jo Dean Downing claims the name of "Jo." Dianne Anderson is known as "Beak," and Camilla Birkhead as "Talluh." (P.S. Peggy Read's middle name is Lavelle!)

One lone snapshot now adorns our bulletin board. It is a picture of Bobby Proctor on his bike. And everyone is welcome to put pictures on the board and it certainly would be a lot more interesting if a few were put up.

Four Piano Boogie

The four-piano concert last Thursday evening brought out the interest in music of many teens. The pianists played several encores in addition to the scheduled program. The Sabre Dance (better known to teens as the Sabre Dance Boogie), a medley of boogie tunes and a four piano arrangement of the "Beer Barrel Polka," were the most popular numbers, as far as the teens were concerned.

Glenda Hamilton's new nylon, chartreuse dress is certainly lovely. We were amazed to learn she designed it herself. Her mother made it for her.

We noticed Dub Thompson, who now attends Texas Tech, in the halls of the High School last week.

On Wednesday of last week the Junior High School Band, under the direction of George Gates, played in assembly for the high school students. The following Friday the High School Band, under the direction of Jerry Hoffman, presented a concert during the assembly period. Since then, all the non-band members have been teasing the band members about their playing. The Junior High members have a lot of ability and we certainly are looking forward to the day when they, too, will be in High School!

Last Saturday was "Cookie Day" for the Girl Scouts of Midland. Brownies, Girl Scouts and Senior Scouts took orders for the cookies, which will be delivered Saturday.

Proceeds will help pay for the Girl Scout Little House.

The inter-communication system still is quite a novelty at MHS. During the dedication program Saturday night, music was heard throughout the school, but on Monday morning, music, the disappointment of the teens, an announcement was sent around saying the system was not working. By the time this column goes to press, we imagine we will be quite used to the voice of Mr. Mathews coming over the speakers at all times.

Another teen has joined the ranks of married women. As is our custom, Youth Center Chatter, offers congratulations to Fatsy Wreyford.

Wandering Thoughts:

Arnold Drake was drawing pictures the other day—that a picture of a mouse, Arnold?

John Van Buskirk has a very novel way of pronouncing Spanish—Ramon Leggett, Charles Hendrix and Tommy Vanaman, however, are not very successful in mimicking him.

Our congratulations this week go to Ann Boring. After wearing braces for quite a long time, she has had them removed.

Wish Bobby Peters would do something (break or lose) his bright spotlight.

A large group of teens will be leaving Midland next Saturday morning at a very early hour—five o'clock, in fact. The reason for this early departure is the District Speech Meet in Lubbock, which will begin at nine a.m. Debaters, contest players, declaimers and extemporaneous speakers from Midland will take part in this meet. Here's hoping you all come back with a lot of high honors.

Friday will be glad day for the students of all schools in Midland. (Perhaps it won't be such a wonderful day for the parents though). School will be dismissed Friday while the teachers attend an important meeting.

Kermit Square Dance

Another important event of this last week was the trip made by seven Senior Girl Scouts to Kermit to attend the District Speech Contest. Mary Ann Searles, Peggy Read, Jane Beakey, Betty Pitzer, Jackie Ewald, Barbara Long and Georgia Stump were the girls going. Kermit, Midland, Janet Hoffman was unable to go at the last minute due to sickness. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Halfast and Mrs. I. A. Searles accompanied the girls. Scouts from Midland, Odessa, Monahans, Pecos and Kermit were there for the Green and Gold Festival. The girls agreed they had a lot of fun and plans were made for the various cities to exchange dance groups.

The band students have been practicing long and hard in preparation for the district band meet, which will be held in Midland in less than two weeks. They have been marching before school each morning, and on Tuesday and Thursday evenings they practice their contest music. Even Friday will be a day of hard work for them for they are to march from 9 to 11 a.m. We really do hope the Midland comes out well in the Interscholastic Meets.

Dancing lessons have been resumed on Tuesday nights. Bob Richards has replaced Jay Johnson as the dancing instructor. From 7:30 until 9 p.m. he gives group lessons and then from 9 until 10:30 individual instructions are given.

Last Monday was the day of our big membership drive. 1950 membership cards have been issued. The card reads: "I am granted membership in the Midland Youth Center, Inc. and privileges of the organization for 1950 so long as the following requirements for membership are fulfilled: abidance by the rules and regulations of the Midland Youth Center; Public conduct such as to prevent discredit to the Midland Youth Center and to Midland; and cooperation with authorities of the Midland Youth Center and of the city to prevent destruction of property, infringement on the rights of others, to make Midland a safe and desirable place in which to live. This membership card may become void if holder violates requirements for membership."

Due And Payable

If you already have not paid your dues (one dollar) be sure to do so for several activities are planned for the future and only members will be allowed to participate.

Wednesday, those participating in the ping-pong tournament registered and a few of the games were played. On Friday evening and Saturday afternoon tournament games will be concluded. The tournament is for members only. Awards will be held from eight to twelve o'clock in the Youth Center. Free refreshments will be served, and although no admittance charge will be made, admittance will be by membership only.

The Youth Center now has a new handy-man. Roy Gibson is in charge of painting the grounds and building. A new sign has been put up on the bulletin board. For those of you who haven't read it, it says "No Smoking In the Center."

Cotton supplies more than three-fourths of all fiber consumption in the United States.

Next Secretary?

Frank McKinney, above, Indianapolis banker and president of the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club, is expected to succeed Gordon Gray as secretary of the Army. Gray will leave his Pentagon post in August or September to become president of the University of North Carolina.

ICEMEN MOVE AROUND

NEW YORK—(AP)—There are 32 players currently in the National Hockey League who have played for two or more NHL clubs. One ice-man, Bud Poile, has performed for five teams. Pat Egan is with his fourth club. And Joe Carveth of Detroit has played for three teams and is back with the club he started with.

Here's A Postman Wanting To Walk

DANVILLE, VA.—(AP)—After 289,000 miles of walking, Postman Richard Gamewell Lewis is in the hospital with a broken leg. He is anxious to get well so he can get out and do some more walking.

He is 78 years old and started carrying mail here in 1892. That was before there were any automobiles. He had no serious accidents until a car hit him recently. He retired in 1936, but the records show he walked the equivalent of 11 1/2 times around the earth in his 44 years of service. On the record, too, is the fact he carried more than 2,000,000 pieces of mail in that time.

Eleven per cent of the white population of the United States is of Irish descent.

IT CUTS WASHDAY WORK IN HALF!

A DAZZLING CLEAN WASH WITHOUT RINSING

...THERE'S NOTHING LIKE TIDE!

Just wash—wring out—hang up!

WOMEN EVERYWHERE say it's the best washday news ever! They love the time and trouble and water they save by skipping the rinsing! But most of all they love the way their clothes come dazzling clean. You already know how clean Tide gets clothes with rinsing—cleaner than any other washing product known. Now try the same wonderful Tide without rinsing, and compare the results. You'll be amazed to see how bright and clean your wash comes right from the wringer. Get Procter & Gamble's Tide today. Every package of Tide on your dealer's shelf right now will give you a dazzling clean wash without rinsing!

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT WASHING WITHOUT RINSING

1. Will this method really get clothes clean? Yes, Tide keeps the dirt suspended in the sudsy water. When you wring out the clothes, the dirt runs out with the washwater—clothes come from the wringer CLEAN and as bacteria-free as rinsed clothes.
2. Will clothes come white? Yes, clothes come dazzling white! Just see if you can possibly tell the difference between a rinsed, and an unrinsed Tide-washed shirt!
3. How about ironing unrinsed clothes? When you use Tide without rinsing, clothes dry soft and fluffy... iron easily.
4. Is this method safe for fabrics? Yes, it is safe... skipping the rinsing and extra wringings actually saves wear and tear on clothes.

"SAVES SO MUCH TIME ON WASHDAY!"

SAYS MRS. JOY MAYO OF PORTLAND, MAINE

"No more rinsing is wonderful news for every woman who washes clothes! It's such a time-saver to take the wash right from the Tide suds, put it through the wringer, and onto the line! And everything looks so bright and clean!"

Shape Your Pancakes Into Turtles

SPECIAL FOR MARCH—Watch pancakes disappear when they come to the table piping hot in the shape of a turtle.
 By GAYNOR MADDOX
 NEA Staff Writer
 Pancakes for March breakfast, of course. But not just the same old shape. Try making them in the shape of turtles. Watch them disappear.
 Here's a tested recipe for the breakfast surprise:
Turtle Pancakes
 (Makes about 20 medium sized cakes)
 Two cups all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, 3 tablespoons sugar, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, well beaten, 1/4 cup vinegar, 1 3/4 cups sweet milk, 1/4 cup shortening.
 Sift some flour onto a piece of waxed paper, measure 2 cups. Sift with soda, sugar and salt into large mixing bowl. Mix together eggs, vinegar, milk and shortening. Add to dry ingredients. Pour batter from tip of large spoon or from pitcher onto hot frying pan or griddle. Drop bits of batter from tip of spoon to make head, feet and tail of turtle. When underside is browned, and before bubbles burst, on top, turn and brown second side.
 Cheese waffles, according to Successful Farming, put that zest into breakfast that sends the family off to work or school well fortified.
Cheese Waffles
 (Makes three-three-inch square waffles)
 Beat 2 egg yolks until light and foamy. Blend in 1 1/4 cups of milk and 6 tablespoons of melted butter. Sift together 2 cups of sifted cake flour, 2 teaspoons of baking powder and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Add the dry ingredients to the egg mixture. Beat until smooth and creamy. Beat 2 egg whites until stiff and fold into the batter along with 1 cup of grated cheese. Bake in a hot waffle baker until the steam ceases. Top with butter and syrup. Serve with bacon and fried sausage.

TIPROA Spokesman Endorses Kerr Bill
 PORT WORTH —(P)— If the United States Senate fails Friday to approve the Kerr bill clarifying the Natural Gas Act of 1938, the independent producers and royalty owner will be at the mercy of a gigantic interstate pipe line monopoly, according to E. L. (Tommy) Thompson, Austin, executive vice president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association.
 "Without the necessity of Federal Power Commission jurisdiction," said Thompson, "independent producers of natural gas during the last 12 years have supplied an ever-expanding volume of gas to the nation at a slightly reduced cost to consumers.
Two Alternatives
 "If the Senate fails to follow the House lead in approving the amendment, the producers will be faced with either of two courses. They can: (1) Proceed under the Panhandle Eastern decision and sell their gas producing properties at a fair price to one of the 38 pipe line companies, or (2) withhold from sales all gas that might leave the state.
 "In either case the ultimate effect would be to remove conditions under which the thousands of independent producers continue in the business of searching out this nation's vast unscratched gas reserves."

'I'll Never Go Fishing Again'
 MELBOURNE —(P)—When a 18 1/2 foot shark leaped into their small fishing dinghy, two men and a woman fought it for 10 minutes before killing it. Fred Gay finally killed the shark by hitting it on the head with the tiller. Neither Gay, Douglas Miller nor Miss Edna Martin were seriously injured by the shark's thrashing tail and snapping jaws. Said Miss Martin: "I'll never go fishing again."

Lilienthal Gets Poet's Revenge On His Foes
 PHILADELPHIA —(P)— David E. Lilienthal, who gave weariness of senatorial heckling as part of his reason for resigning last month as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, has taken a poet's revenge on two of his most outspoken critics.
 They are Senators Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) and Kenneth McKellar (D-Tenn).
 Lilienthal said in a speech here he found that as a private citizen he had to have a card to use the Georgetown, Md., Public Library, near his home. He also needed two references.
 So, he said, he put down the names of Senators McKellar and Hickenlooper.
