Kewanee Wildcat In SW Kent Recovers Clean Canyon Oil

Another Canyon reef discovery seems evident in Southwest Kent County. Kewanee Oil Company No. 1-C Well (Connell) recovered 3,005 feet of clean oil on a drillstem test of that section.

On the two and one-half-hour test at 6,845-70 feet, a medium to good blow of gas surfaced in 15 minutes and continued throughout the remainder of the test. When 42 stands of pipe were pulled after the tool was closed, 27-gravity oil started unloading from the drill pipe by heads. Oil fillup was estimated at from 10 to 12 barrels per hour. No water was recovered.

Will Core Deeper
Open flowing bottom hole pressure varied between 100 and 500 pounds. Shutin pressure after 15 minutes was 475 pounds.

Operators plan to core 10 feet deeper, and test again late Friday. This possible discovery in four and one-half miles west-northwest of the Cogdell-Canyon field, and 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 3, block 4, H&G survey.

It topped the reef at 6,850 feet, on a minus datum of 4,630 feet.

Magnolia To Offset SE Lynn Discovery

Magnolia Petroleum Company has staked a one-quarter mile west offset to its recent Pennsylvania line discovery in Southeast Lynn County.

Magnolia No. 1 W. W. Caswell will be 660 feet from north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 431, block 9, EL&R survey, and 10 miles east of the town of Skeen.

Operations on the proposed 8,750-foot spot are to begin by June 14. Discovery well in this new Pennsylvania line pool is Magnolia No. 1 Gamma, which was recently completed for a flowing potential of 244.61 barrels of 42.2-gravity oil daily.

Production was from open hole at 8,615-630 feet. Flow was through a 24 3/4-inch choke after a 250-gallon acid washing.

Semi-Wildcat Staked Near W-C Kent Pool

General Crude Oil Company and Percy Jones & Sons have staked a semi-wildcat in West-Central Kent County, two miles south of the unnamed Hunt-Canyon discovery.

General Crude and Jones No. 1-132 J. W. Young is a one-quarter mile diagonal north-west offset to Estil S. Heyser, Jr., and associates No. 2 Lohman, which has indicated for possible production from the Canyon reef.

The No. 1-132 Young will be 660 feet from south and east lines of section 132, block 3, W&N survey, and seven miles west-northwest of Clairmont.

Slated depth is 6,600 feet, and operations are to begin immediately. The Heyser No. 2 Lohman is scheduled to drill this Friday on a pipe set in a Canyon reef section which yielded 900 feet of clean oil on a drillstem test.

This possible discovery, or extension to the Hunt discovery, topped the reef 44 feet above the water level of the Hunt producing area.

Oil Flow Developed By Scurry Link Well

Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Woodson Central-West Scurry County exploration, in the undeveloped area on the west side of the Kelley-Snyder field, and on the north side of the Diamond M field, flowed 122.56 barrels of 42-gravity oil in two and one-half hours.

The flow was through a one-inch opening of tubing and was natural. There was no water. Gas-oil ratio was 849-1. Open flowing tubing pressure was 175 pounds. The well is now shutin to prepare to take potential test and complete.

The production was from perforations in the 5 1/2-inch casing at 6,776-8,800 feet; at 6,812-46 feet; at 6,856-77 feet, and at 6,885-9,918 feet.

Reef Top Picked
This extends topped the Canyon reef at 6,760 feet, to give it a datum of minus 4,281 feet. It drilled to total depth of 6,929 feet and cased 5 1/2-inch casing on bottom.

Cement was drilled out to 6,924 feet and the pipe was then perforated for the testing. Location is 467 feet from east and 1,480 feet from north lines of section 255, block 97, H&T survey.

Two Explorations Due In New Sterling Pay

Two explorations have been staked on the west edge of the new Durham-San Andes pool in Central Sterling County.

M&M Production Company, pool discoverer, will drill its No. 3 D. C. Durham 1,650 feet from west and 330 feet from north lines of section 19, block 12, SP survey.

President Defends Aid Program, Gets Honorary Degree

COLUMBIA, MO.—(P)—President Truman Friday told a rain-drenched audience the United States must continue spending abroad to enable its foreign partners to resist "internal subversion or external attack" by Russia.

The President spoke from the shelter of a canopy set up in the University of Missouri Football Stadium as rain beat down at the time for the ceremony. His audience sat in the open, unprotected stands. Police Sergeant J. D. Judkins estimated between 15,000 and 20,000 persons heard Truman.

Truman spoke at the university's graduation exercises before being awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree and being made an honorary member of Phi Beta Kappa. The President attended the Kansas City School of Law 30 years ago, but did not complete the course.

He told his audience it would be disastrous to abandon Western Europe at a time "when every one of the Marshall Plan countries is better able to resist communism and to work for peace at any time since the war ended."

Russia Not Named
Russia was not mentioned by name, but there was no doubt of Truman's meaning when he declared that in a world "full of dangers" the United States must continue its contributions to free nations lest "the Communists move in."

Because of the rain the President began his talk ten minutes ahead of schedule. University officials said Truman was elected an honorary member of Phi Beta Kappa in recognition of his high office.

His citation for the doctor of laws degree called the President a "pre-eminent historian" who has demonstrated that "the humble may rise to positions of leadership and trust through the fulfillment of innate abilities."

Writers Convicted Of Contempt Are Hauled Off To Jail
WASHINGTON.—(P)—Handcuffed together, Hollywood writers John Howard Lawson and Dalton Trumbo were hauled off to jail Friday to serve time for contempt of Congress.

Each has been sentenced to a year but there still is a chance that a pair of federal judges will reduce the time.

The two still must pay $1,000 fines for defying the United American Activities Committee and refusing to say whether they ever were Communists.

Committee hearings produced accusations that they were Reds. Lawson, who was described to the committee as "in direct charge of Communist activity" in Hollywood, was ordered committed by Federal Judge Edward M. Curran. Judge David A. Pine handled the Trumbo case.

Navy Plane With Three Aboard Is Down In Atlantic
NORFOLK, VA.—(P)—A Navy Grumman torpedo bomber with a crew of three is down in the Atlantic about 70 miles east of Cape Henry and a massive aerial and surface search is under way.

The TBM was on anti-submarine training maneuvers with three other craft from the Norfolk Naval Air Station's Composite Squadron 24.

At 11:25 p.m. Thursday the other planes radioed a submarine operating in the area that one had gone down. There was no fire.

Six ships, including five submarines and off submarine rescuers, and 75 planes are conducting the search.

FBI Chief Says Red Activity At Highest Level In History

WASHINGTON.—(P)—J. Edgar Hoover has told Congress U. S. Communists are going underground, and that there are more subversive activities in this country than at any period during the last World War.

"Communism today is at a greater height in the United States than either nazism or fascism was" during World War II, the FBI director said. "What's more, he added, it is centered in strategic areas and in strategic industries. In testimony before a congressional committee, Hoover said:

"Forty-eight per cent of the membership of the Communist Party is in the basic industry of this country. In this manner they were able to sabotage essential industry in vital defense areas in the event of a national emergency."

"Our investigations disclose that Communist activities are most pronounced in such strategic industrial areas as New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, California and Michigan.

CRASH SURVIVOR — Sgt. Warren Ebert, second from left, one of the 11 U. S. crewmen aboard a B-29 when it crashed into the North Sea, arrives in Lowestoft, England, and is helped along the dock to a waiting ambulance after being picked up. Four are missing, and three are known dead.

MINERAL WELLS.—Funeral services for Luther C. Bearden, 74, who was killed in a car-bus collision near Midland Thursday, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Calvary Baptist Church here. Interment will be in the Oak Grove Cemetery in Graham.

The Rev. T. C. Norris, pastor, Fairview Baptist Church here, and the Rev. Claude Harris, pastor, Calvary Baptist Church, will officiate. Buzbee Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Bearden, a resident of Mineral Wells since 1912, was a retired barber. He died minutes after the car he was driving collided with a Baygett bus seven miles east of Midland. Four of the five bus occupants were injured.

Bearden is survived by a sister, Mrs. Roxie Meadows of Pecos; a brother, Reuben Bearden of Sweetwater; four nieces, Mrs. C. E. Dupree and Jewel Thompson of Ranger, Iva Barker of Dallas, and Bertha Bradford of Odessa, and three nephews, Claud and Herman Bearden of Odessa, and J. L. Bearden of Port Worth.

Clinton C. Roberts of Lamesa, driver of the bus, was found Thursday afternoon to have suffered a fracture of the neck vertebrae, in addition to a mild concussion, and multiple abrasions and contusions. The other three accident victims, Mrs. W. H. Wilson and Mrs. Vina Beal, both of Midland, and Mrs. Gertrude Phillips of Lubbock, are reported progressing satisfactorily by doctors at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Mrs. Beal and Mrs. Wilson underwent surgery Thursday for reduction of fractures. Mrs. Wilson received a fractured right leg, bruises and contusions, and Mrs. Beal was found to have suffered a broken leg and crushed heel.

Mrs. Phillips received only bruises and contusions in the accident.

City Receives Bids For Garbage Unit

Three bids have been received by the City of Midland on a new enclosed garbage body unit to be placed into use here, City Manager W. H. Oswalt announced Friday.

Bids received included the Pack Company of San Antonio, $2,730; Rinehart Company of Rinehart, Texas, $3,550, and the W. T. McClure Company of Lubbock, $3,450. Oswalt said the public works department will determine the costs of a truck chassis for each of the units and report to the City Council. The council is expected to act on the bids at its regular meeting Tuesday night.

Wichita Falls Gains; Total Now Is 67,709

WICHITA FALLS.—(P)—The City of Wichita Falls now has 67,709 residents, a gain of 22,957 in the last ten years, new census figures showed Friday.

Wichita County has 98,036, a gain of 24,432 since 1940. The Cities of Burburnett and Iowa Park showed gains; the City of Electra a slight loss.

Former Winkler Man Heads Austin Hospital
AUSTIN.—(P)—Appointment of Dr. L. C. Hanes as clinical director of the Austin State Hospital was announced Friday by the State Hospital Board.

Dr. Hanes has been in private practice in Baton Rouge, La., the last two months. He is a 1944 graduate of the University of Texas Medical School at Galveston. After serving in the Navy from 1944 to 1946, he practiced more than a year in Winkler County.

"The trend has been toward the perfection of a highly-developed underground apparatus and decentralization of Communist Party operations," Hoover said.

"As a security measure, no Communist Party membership cards were issued in 1949. The maintenance of membership records has been discontinued. Members speak in a jargon of double talk and use codes in correspondence.

"A courier system has been substituted to protect confidential party communications. Public meetings are maintained at an absolute minimum. Party records have been destroyed or removed to clandestine hiding places.

U. S. B-29 Downed By Own Bullets

LONDON.—(P)—A United States B-29 bomber which fell in flames into the North Sea Wednesday with a loss of at least three lives shot itself down during gunnery practice, headquarters of the 3rd Air Division said Friday.

Eleven crewmen were ordered to abandon the burning plane at low altitude. Four were rescued, three were recovered dead, and a search is continuing for the other four.

The Air Force spokesman said failure of normal safety devices with which the big plane was equipped permitted the gunfire from its own turret to strike the outboard engine.

Crewmen Listed
"It was just one of those things that happened," he said. "All normal precautions were taken."

The Air Force made public a full list of crewmen aboard the plane.

Rescued — Capt. Henry J. Walsh, pilot, Fairfield, Calif.; First Lt. James W. Sullivan, co-pilot, Baton Rouge, La.; S/Sgt. Warren J. Ebert, Minneapolis; S/Sgt. Charles F. Allen, Derry, N. H.

Picked up dead—Capt. Ladislav E. Vessel, Kewatun, Minn.; S/Sgt. Earl K. Branderberry, Fort Myers Beach, Fla.; First Lt. Corbin C. Patterson, navigator, Galveston, Texas.

Missing — S/Sgt. William C. Creech, Loyall, Ky.; S/Sgt. Myrtle E. Clausen, Eugene, Ore.; S/Sgt. James N. Fowler, radio operator, Orange, Texas; S/Sgt. Wilson A. Moser, Catawba, N. C.

Temperature Jumps To Highest Of Year

The temperature reached the highest point of the year Thursday in Midland. A blazing sun shot the mercury up to 99 degrees and had Midlanders in a state of perspiration.

The heat wave continued to hang on Friday with the low reading 71 degrees.

The mercury was nearing 90 degrees at 11 a.m., indicating another scorcher in store.

McCamey Child Falls From Moving Auto

Lynda Kay Tennyson, two-and-a-half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tennyson of McCamey, was admitted Thursday afternoon to Western Clinic-Hospital for emergency treatment. She had fallen out of the car, driven by her father, on U. S. Highway 80 between Midland and Odessa.

Doctors reported her improved Friday.

She sustained multiple abrasions and contusions over a large area of her body, and a fractured collarbone. She also received a head injury.

According to the emergency report, the child opened the rear door of the car and fell to the shoulder of the road.

Chemist And Two 'Mystery Men' Charged

WASHINGTON.—(P)—A Brooklyn grand jury Friday indicted Harry Gold, Philadelphia chemist, and two unidentified persons on charges of atom spying against the United States.

The indictment was announced here by the Justice Department.

In addition to Gold, the indictment named "Joe Doe, alias 'John,' and Richard Roe, alias 'Sam,'" and asserted that "the true and correct names" of these persons were unknown to the jurors.

Gold was arrested at Philadelphia last May 23. The espionage information filed against him at the time of his arrest mentioned also a "John Doe" described as an agent for the Russian government.

This "John Doe" was alleged to have received from Gold atomic secrets which had been passed to Gold by Dr. Klaus Fuchs, the British scientist who since has been sent to prison in Great Britain.

By naming "Richard Roe," the indictment introduced another mysterious figure into the alleged wartime traffic in secret data.

There was no indication here as to who "Richard Roe, alias Sam" might be.

Gold Hearing Monday
The grand jury said these three had conspired to deal with Dr. Fuchs "and divers other persons to the grand jury unknown" to give secrets to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in 1944 and 1945.

The charges were presented to the federal grand jury in Brooklyn because most of Gold's contacts with Fuchs were alleged to have occurred in territory within its jurisdiction.

Gold, 39, now is held in Philadelphia. He is to be given a hearing on Monday.

FBI officials have quoted Gold as admitting dealings with Fuchs. The indictment alleges that Gold had meetings with Doe and Roe in New York City in January, February, March, April, June or July, 1944, and again in December, 1944 or January, 1945.

The indictment also alleges that Gold had met Fuchs in Santa Fe, N. M., in June, 1945, and received documents, notes and notes from the Britisher at a time when Fuchs had access to the Los Alamos Atom Bomb Project as a member of his government's official delegation in this country.

The grand jury said the two had a subsequent meeting in Santa Fe in September, 1945, and also met again in New York City during that month.

McCarthy Repeats Demand For Ouster Of Secretary Acheson
MILWAUKEE.—(P)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) Friday issued a bitter new blast at Secretary of State Dean Acheson and demanded again that Acheson be fired immediately.

Referring to him as "the Red Dean of Fashion," McCarthy declared Acheson had "worked on the team of world strategy to create a Red China and a Red Poland" and "should be removed from the high command of our foreign policy at once."

McCarthy spoke out in the keynote address of the Wisconsin Republican State Convention.

Acheson, he said, is at the forefront of what he called the Truman Administration's policy of "war-mongering abroad while it permits the enemy within our gates to operate with impunity."

With Harvard Accent
"You can condemn communism in general terms," the Wisconsin senator declared, "in the Acheson manner with a lace handkerchief, a silk glove and a Harvard accent, if you please.

"But you can't fight Communists in that fashion. I know of not one single reason why Communists should be handled with kid gloves."

McCarthy devoted a large part of his speech to criticism of a $90,000,000 American loan to Communist Poland in 1946, at a time when Acheson's former law firm was handling Poland's business in this country. Acheson then was undersecretary of State.

"Fifty million of that ninety million went to equip and arm the Communist Army and the dreaded UB—the Communist secret police just then being set up in Poland," McCarthy said.

"It was Mr. Acheson who placed the guns, the whips, the black snakes and the clubs in the hands of those Communists. It was Mr. Acheson who furnished them with bullets to keep a Christian population under Soviet discipline. It was Mr. Acheson who helped put uniforms on the masters of prostrate Poland."

Evelyn Keyes Is In Business, Imitating The Goddard Style

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Evelyn Keyes' cattle royal with Columbia studio and bossman Harry Cohn to break her contract struck a lot of people as a combination of a Goddard right to the chin and pure Confederate do-or-die.

Hollywood is limited to a strained "Hello, darling" in night club powder rooms. But Paulette and Evelyn have been proving for about six years that it's possible for movie dolls to keep their fingernails out of each other's scalps.

Evelyn hasn't moved kit and caboodle into Paulette's diamond mines-and-oil-wells territory yet, but she's getting a hefty chunk of the profits that will be raked up by her new picture, "The Prowler," now that she's free of Columbia.

Her beef list would be the envy of the Chicago stockyards. "Once they said my head was too flat," she bristles. "So they stuck one of Otto Kruger's old toupees on top of my dome. It was devastating. Everybody called me Miss Kruger."

She didn't like having to sprint to the front office and screech her lungs out for good parts, either. To snag her first role in a western, Evelyn haunted Sam Briskin's inner sanctum and kept yelling: "I look great in pants!"

Paulette slings the "Bravo, sister." Evelyn's way, too. The blonde half of the Palm-Rain-or-Shine team had the brunette half all bug-eyed over the way she got ex-husband John Huston to pop the big question.

"Jennifer and Paulette changed gowns three times a day, put on the war-paint every hour and kept sticking bows in their hair. Paulette had on all her diamonds. I was in denim shorts and couldn't be bothered with the lah-de-dah stuff."

She slipped through her date book, stopped at a tennis match appointment with Kirk Douglas and said: "He tells me that he's going to beat me. Haw! That's what he thinks."

Corruption Of Young Minds

The western powers rightly insist their firm show of strength in Berlin turned the well-advertised Whitsuntide rally of German Communist youth into a propagandist fiasco.

Being realistic, Moscow never could have believed that such an assembly of blue-shirted youngsters could successfully storm the Allied-held sectors of the city against determined opposition.

Perhaps they thought for a time that a mass drive on the western areas would put the Allies in the uncomfortable position—before Germany and the world—of shooting down German youth in the Berlin streets.

It became apparent, however, that the United States, Britain and France intended to repel any junior "invasion" of their sectors by every means short of bloodshed.

Undignified retreat before such "weapons" could not have been twisted easily into a Communist triumph, moral or otherwise. Since a propaganda advantage was the real Russian goal of this maneuver, what was left but to call off the push into West Berlin?

Moscow, by restricting the rally to its portion of the city, saved itself from humiliation but not from defeat. This bout went to the Allies. It was won for the same reason that the Berlin blockade of 1948-49 was overcome: the West confronted Russia with an iron resolve not to yield.

Yet no one watching or hearing of the Whitsuntide youth carnival could avoid dismal parallels with the past. First there were the Kaiser's legions, then the Nazis' brown-shirts. Now the marchers wear blue and have different songs and slogans.

But in their dutiful tramp down Unter den Linden, in the great placards and fluttering banners one senses the same dedicated subservience to a Leader and a Cause.

Once again the world is witnessing the corruption of youth to the aims of dictators bent on global conquest. At Whitsuntide these Red youngsters of East Germany could only jeer at the guns of the western nations. They will grow to manhood in a warped frame of mind which will perhaps make them eager to challenge those guns with their own metal.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Why Senator Taft denied my columns; Ohio senator waited until McCarthy charges boomeranged; Secretary Brannan helps Colorado fight bark beetles.

WASHINGTON—Last week I wrote a column about my differences with Senator Taft and others who had called me a liar, in the course of which I promised I would diagnose further the senator's denial.

Since then, one editor has complained that I was like the traveling man who dropped one shoe loudly on the floor and left the man below waiting nervously for the other shoe to fall so he could go to sleep.

Well, the truth is that Senator Taft's staunch admirer in my family has demanded that I put the other shoe down gently so as not to disturb her hero. In brief, Mrs. P. doesn't think I ought to write the second column; or, at least, that I shouldn't write it in such a way as to embarrass the man whom she wants to be President.

"After all," says Mrs. P., "when you list all those people like John Marston, Parnell Thomas, Congressman May who called you a liar, and then show that they went to jail—well, it makes people think you want to send Senator Taft to jail. And I know you don't mean anything like that."

"Of course not," I replied. "But why does your friend from Ohio have to pick on my stories? Why does he deny mine and not those of other newspapermen?"

"One day I reported that Taft was encouraging Senator McCarthy," I continue. "Bill White comes out with a front page story in the New York Times which says Senator Taft, highest-ranking member of the GOP Policy Committee, said that while the McCarthy attacks were not a matter of policy, he had personally urged the Wisconsin senator to press his charges."

"That was last March," I remind the little woman, "March 23 to be exact." I continue, having just looked up the records in preparation for giving Taft the business. "And he didn't deny it."

So They Say

The population of the Western allied countries still considers Germany of today as responsible for the beginning of the war. The Germany of today, however, does not feel responsible.

Apparently Mr. Truman thinks anybody who is opposed to him is an "obstructionist." He would have a one-party government in the United States, and that is totalitarianism.

A Republican victory in 1950 is a must, not only in the state but in the nation.

Soviet communism is in deadly earnest, whereas the so-called "free world" is lackadaisical.

The general program of the Truman administration is clear. Promise everyone everything, and hope to back it up with government money.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

"When this hand was played in a rubber bridge game at our club recently," writes a Richmond fan, "declarer took a long time out for thought at one point. This puzzled me, as I shall soon explain."

West opened the king of spades, and South won with the ace. South then drew two rounds of trumps. West discarding a low spade. South continued with a third round of trumps, and West discarded another spade. East discarded the deuce of diamonds.

At this point it was clear that each hand held three diamonds, and South had to guess which defender had the queen in order to make his slam.

Apparently Mr. Truman thinks anybody who is opposed to him is an "obstructionist." He would have a one-party government in the United States, and that is totalitarianism.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Japan's 'Grand Old Man' 94, Promotes Amity With U.S.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The man who gave this city its famous cherry trees breezed into town the other day to check on their blossoms, renew some old friendships and drop a few words of ominous advice.

He is 94-year-old Yukio Ozaki, known as the mayor of Tokyo and truly one of the most amazing world characters alive today. Advanced deafness is the only sign of his great age. Otherwise he's spry, quick-witted, very much aware of what's going on in the world and not afraid to pass out sage advice.

He alternates using an old-fashioned Japanese ear trumpet and a modern electric hearing aid, which sort of typifies Ozaki's unique link between the past and present. His record of actively fighting for true liberal political causes for more than 58 years probably is unequalled by any man alive.

Back in 1882, before most of this country's liberals were born, Ozaki dummfounded every citizen of Japan and the world by daring to claim that the emperor shared sovereignty with the Japanese people. He organized a political party to espouse this theory. The group promptly was obliterated.

Next, he became an editor and fought his causes effectively through the press. In spite of cruel persecution he extended his influence and won election to the first Japanese Diet in 1890. He never has failed to be reelected to that body, probably the longest legislative tenure in history.

His greatest fight proved a lost cause, against the rise of the Japanese militarists who ended up plotting Pearl Harbor. In the years before the war, and during it, life constantly was in danger. He never ceased to fight the warmongers. His house was burned, he was marked for execution at least three times and sentenced to prison.

His tremendous popularity among the Japanese people somehow kept him alive and out of jail. In the midst of it he wrote, "Assassination is so popular in Japan it has become a statesman's death."

The cherry tree gift to Washington was made in 1908 by Ozaki as a thank-you for America's help ending the Russo-Japanese war of 1904-5. The first batch of trees were allowed to die before they were ever planted. Hearing of this, he said:

"Starting with their first President, Americans have always been a little rough with cherry trees. I'll send some more with better instructions on how to take care of them."

He did, to the extreme pleasure of the millions of Americans who enjoy their beautiful blossoms each Spring.

Questions and Answers

Q—Why is a stale joke termed a "chestnut"?

A—In an old melodrama, one joke over and over with variations. At one telling he is correct, but in another character who insists that the tree in the story is not a oak-tree but a chestnut. He said, "I have heard you tell the story 25 times and I am sure it is a chestnut."

Q—How many times did Willie Anderson win the United States open golf championship?

A—He won it three consecutive times, in 1903, 1904 and 1905, a mark never equaled.

Q—What is the explanation of the word "quick" in the Biblical phrase "the quick and the dead"?

A—The word "quick," which now means swift, prompt, originally meant living.

Q—How does the temperature of birds compare with that of mammals?

A—Birds' blood is warmer, as a rule, than that of mammals. Small birds, such as robins, bluebirds, grosbeaks and cardinals, usually average from 106 to 108 degrees.

Q—Are glass eyes a modern invention?

A—As far back as 2600 years before Christ, the Egyptians manufactured artificial eyes out of glass, ivory, feldspar, and pearl.

Wife Pulls New One On Divorce Judge

INDIANAPOLIS—(AP)—Mrs. Emma Logan testified that her husband, Charles, would eat all the food on the table, then reach across and spear the food she had on her plate.

"That embarrassed her," said Judge John Niblack, and she wanted a divorce.

Charles, Perry Township constable, was agreeable and contented from the stand, "did you ever see a man win an argument?"

"Divorce granted," the judge replied with the comment: "Every time I think I've heard all the reasons for a divorce, something else pops up."

The LONESOME BRIDE

By Grace Nies Fletcher

XXIII
When Gloria Brown regained consciousness, she was lying back in Militades' arms—his dear, safe, comfortable arms, just like she had wished to be doing when she thought she was dying.

Militades was saying: "Darling, you darling little fool. . . She's coming out of it, Hansen."

Gloria looked up, still dazed, expecting to see the little gray man. She'd thought all along that he was Hansen—now she remembered, he was Lofty Gordon.

Her eyes rested on Reuben, the doorman at the Splendide Apartments, who was bending over her as he finished tying up the bandage on her shoulder.

The big doorman, whom she'd been afraid of because she had thought he was Lofty Gordon, grinned down at her and said: "She's okay, fella. Her shoulder's only scratched. If she hadn't stood in our line of fire, we could have prevented this."

So Reuben was Hansen instead of Lofty.

Where was the little gray man, Lofty Gordon? Gloria looked around Tony's little sitting room fearfully, but there was no sign of this terrible person. They must have taken him away.

Oil Executive Says Imports Not Cause Of Coal Job Layoffs

WASHINGTON (AP)—An oil industry official Friday said job layoffs in the coal mines primarily are due to factors other than imports of foreign oil. The officials, Charles L. Harding, director of Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, gave his arguments to a Senate Labor subcommittee.

The committee is looking into protests from the coal industry that it is being hurt by competition from foreign oil. Representative Van Zandt (R-Pa.) has estimated that nearly 18,000 soft coal miners have lost their jobs since 1949. Oil spokesman Harding commented, in a statement prepared for the committee: "There have been many reasons other than oil imports which have accounted for this trend. (Less use of coal)."

Cites Labor Stoppages "A substantial portion of the oil substituted for coal has consisted of products which are not imported. The increased use of diesel engines by our railroads was directly responsible for a 33 million-ton reduction in the consumption of bituminous coal.

"Anthracite coal, too, has failed to obtain its share of an expanded home-heating market, with many homeowners showing a preference for light heating oil, a product not imported.

"Among industrial users there has been an important replacement of coal by natural gas. "Labor stoppages in the coal industry, the need for allocating dwindling coal supplies, mounting costs of operation, technological advances, the convenience and efficiency of oil, and a host of other considerations have been contributing factors."

Jap Action Against Commies Increases

TOKYO (AP)—Official Japanese action against Communists increased and broadened Friday as police pressed a drive in Osaka against party members and sympathizers. Reported in most cases stemmed from a search for "documentary" evidence of an alleged Red-inspired open letter to General MacArthur demanding a quick total peace, withdrawal of occupation forces and release of eight Nipponese convicted of beating five American soldiers in a leftist Memorial Day demonstration in Tokyo.

Police action thus far has centered in Tokyo and Osaka, two Japanese cities in which Japanese Red activity has been noted. In Tokyo, police have raided two Communist Party offices. They said in both raids they found copies of an open letter to General MacArthur. The Nippon Times quoted police as hinting the raids "would be followed by a wave of arrests of agitators."

Kyodo News Agency and The Nippon Times reported Friday two Communists and two union leaders had been arrested in Osaka for violating a Japanese ordinance prohibiting actions detrimental to the occupation.

Accident Victim Undergoes Surgery J. W. Koonce, 1509 North Lamesa Road, underwent major surgery Thursday at Western Clinic-Hospital for repair of a fractured hip joint, received in an automobile accident last Friday on U. S. Highway 80 six miles west of Midland.

Mrs. Koonce was injured fatally in the accident, and their son, Danny, two and one-half years old, was injured slightly. The child was dismissed from the hospital Thursday. Koonce's condition was reported satisfactory by doctors. He also is suffering from a broken pelvis and multiple abrasions and contusions.

Louisiana Senators Get Hot In Collar At 'Trained Seal' Label

BATON ROUGE, LA. (AP)—A special Louisiana senate committee Friday considered its report on possible contempt charges for the publisher and editor of the New Orleans Item, which called some legislators "trained seals."

Editor Publisher David Stern and Editor Clayton Fritchey were questioned at Thursday's hearing. Senator C. H. Downs of Alexandria, the committee chairman, said a full report to the Senate would be made Monday night. At the hearing, first of its kind in Louisiana, Fritchey defended the editorial as an "able job of writing." Stern asserted that "We have a right to express our opinion and not be questioned."

One by one the committeemen denounced last Monday's editorial which described legislators as "trained seals" and "lackeys" of Gov. Earl Long, brother of the late Huey Long. The editorial discussed the withdrawal of a bill which had been approved by a senate committee.

Personal Fireworks Stern appeared surprised when Senator C. E. Barham, a committeeman, asked the publisher if he had any questions. "We're here as witnesses," Stern answered. "You're here as defendants," Barham said.

As the hearing ended, Downs made his way over to Fritchey, raised his fist and said, "I'm taking this thing personally." The senator and the editor glared at one another, another senator grabbed Downs' arm, and spectators and a sergeant-at-arms crowded between them.

The meeting ended too soon for Senator A. C. Rappelle of Houma, who had arrived prepared to put on a "trained seal act." The disappointed senator left the Senate Chamber carrying a big balloon, a ball and four plastic fish.

TU Rejects Two Negro Applicants

AUSTIN (AP)—Two negro students applying for graduate instructions at the University of Texas were turned away Thursday. President T. S. Painter said the courses they desired are offered at negro institutions in Texas.

He said only negroes seeking courses not available in the separate facilities provided for them will be accepted on an unsegregated basis here. Two negroes already are enrolled and are attending classes on the main university campus. Turned down were Harold Ray King and Aaron Monroe Cash, both of Austin.

Cash told reporters he would give up his job here and leave Austin June 23 to enter the University of Southern California. "However, after I get my master's degree at Southern Cal in January, 1961, I will attempt to enter the University of Texas for a doctorate in music education," Cash said. King could not be contacted for comment. His mother, Mrs. Roosevelt King Bryant of Austin, said he had applied for admission next Fall at Indiana University.

Solon Says Address By Eisenhower Reads Like GOP Platform

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was back in the political limelight Friday with at least one lawmaker suggesting the Columbia University president already has a presidential platform. Senator Morse (R-Ore.) told a reporter Eisenhower's warning against bleeding the economy by too big military outlays—coupled with his new criticism of government subsidies and unbalanced budgets—sounded to him "like an Eisenhower presidential platform."

The general Thursday made a commencement address at Columbia that read like a Republican campaign document to Senator Brewster of Maine, chairman of the GOP Senatorial Campaign Committee. "I am very glad that a man of General Eisenhower's experience and influence is recognizing the dangers which the Republicans have been pointing out and I welcome his cooperation," Brewster said.

Eisenhower told departing students that if military expenditures aren't watched they may "dangerously bleed the economy and even destroy what we seek to protect." He struck at "growing dependence" on federal subsidies, said an unbalanced budget nullifies the gains of workers and farmers and listed high taxes, medical care, educational aids and industrial strife as top places of concern.

He even took note of the Washington uproar over Communists in government with the observation that the nation "against insidious and even traitorous corruption in responsible offices." This must be accomplished, the general said, by means which "neither endanger nor reduce our civil rights."

She tipped the chair over as she sat down, and fell to the floor. Dragging herself to the door, she called to neighbor children playing in front of the house. They reported her condition to another neighbor who called her son. She was brought to the hospital by the son, Richard Ward, 800 East Washington Street. Doctors reported her condition as satisfactory.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Monkey's Uncle

The Gibberwink lives up in a tree in his own monkey house, not far from the tree where Daddy Ringtail lives, and he used to spend most of his time in bed asleep, because that is what he liked to do best.

Most of the time when he was asleep, noises didn't bother him at all. Lightning could come in the sky, and thunder, the thunder could sound like all the clouds were bumping together at once to make an awful noise, and still the Gibberwink would go on sleeping, most of the time. But that was only at the time.

At other times the Gibberwink would try to sleep and not be able to do it. Every little noise would bother him and keep him awake. It might be a leaf falling down from one of the trees to the ground. It might be an acorn that a squirrel dropped. And at times like that when noises bothered him, the Gibberwink would raise up from his pillow and roar out in a very loud noise: "Oh me! Oh me!" It would sound like he was hurting when he said it. Then he would shout in an angry voice: "Will you please be quiet and let me sleep!"

And he would shout so loud and mean it so much, any leaf that was about to fall from the tree would hold on tight, trying not to fall until the next day when maybe noises wouldn't bother the Gibberwink at all.

On the morning I'm going to tell you about, the Gibberwink was trying to sleep and all the little noises were keeping him awake. He had been shouting and roaring in his very loud voice for everyone to be quiet, and so everyone should have known that it would be dangerous to bother him.

Doctor Shooob, however, didn't know these things. He came running up the Elephant Path, fast as the wind and making a noise like the wind too, because he was running so fast. He stopped beneath the Gibberwink's tree and shouted: "Gibberwink! Gibberwink! Wake up! You're a monkey's uncle!" The doctor ran on down the Elephant Path to attend to his doctor business. But the Gibberwink didn't roar or shout at all. He stuck his head out of the window and shouted: "I'm a monkey's uncle!" It seemed to make him happy to say it, which will show you, I think, that you can't always tell about people, even Gibberwinks. Happy day! (Copyright 1950, General Features Corp.)

IT'S A FACT AND WE CAN PROVE IT.

Proof of Last Week's "It's a Fact" Sunflowers do not turn with the sun. This is a very popular fallacy. According to the myth, the daughter of Oseana, became enamored of Sol, the Sun. Later, when he despised her, she pined away in sorrow and was finally changed into a sunflower. Chambers Encyclopedia & Encyclopaedia Britannica—1949 Edition—our sunflowers may be seen on the same stalk and facing the four cardinal points.

Popular Fallacies—F. Ackerman. A soft-footed burglar can slip into your home and leave before you know it, taking along your most valued possessions! But, when you have burglary insurance, you are protected against loss. Stop in and let's talk it over.

Iron Curtain Can Be Pierced By Phone

BERLIN —(AP)— You can pierce the iron curtain here and get an American newscast in German merely by dialing your telephone. And about 40,000 Berliners daily, more than a third of them in the Russian sector of the city, are doing that. The broadcasts come from RIAS (Radio in American Sector), America's voice behind the iron curtain.

The idea of running off newscasts over a tape by telephone was born during the Russian blockade of Berlin, when frequent power shutdowns cut off radio reception. When the Communists banned the sale of West Berlin newspapers in the Russian sector of the city, the plan was revived.

TOKYO — (AP) — Japanese are marrying younger than ever before. A survey by the welfare ministry shows that one out of every five girls married last year was under 20 years of age. Fifteen years ago less than one in 10 was that young. The ministry said the same trend was found among men.

Road of Harmony

This road leads to a picnic. It extends through a beautiful countryside, where the trees, meadows, and streams all contribute to the contentment and pleasure of this happy family.

But it leads further than the picnic site. It is the first few miles of a road that winds through the years of family harmony, love, and understanding. And it is over this road that children must travel if they are to grow into successful, happy adults.

For this is a picture of American youth in its proper setting — with loving parents, who have found enough time to enjoy their children and to devote their moments of leisure and recreation to them.

We need never worry about children such as these. They are taken to Church on Sundays, and are taught the principles of Christian living. They are cared for, loved, and respected.

Give your children the same opportunities to make the most of their lives. Start them on their way down the road to the fulfillment of a Christian life of service and security.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his sake of his community and nation. (2) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Indians Lose 8-7; Odessa, Tribe Vie In Opener Friday

The Midland Indians return home Friday night to open a two-game series with the league-leading Odessa Oilers in Indian Park. Game time will be 8:15 p.m.

John Singleton or Glen Fation will take the mound for Midland. Al Sokolowski is the probable starter for Odessa. The Oilers and Indians tangle again Saturday night in the finale.

ROSSELL—Julian Pressley continued to haunt his old teammates here Thursday night. He singled Russ Mays home with the winning run in a 10-inning struggle which Roswell won by an 8 to 7 score.

Pressley earlier had clouted his second home run in as many nights to put the Rockets ahead.

The Midland Indians put up a stiff fight but couldn't hold the pace. The loss was the third in a row for the Tribe, two to Roswell.

Ken Carley, Midland starter, lasted three innings. Pressley's homer with one on sent Carley to the showers and put Roswell ahead by 3 to 1. Tom Jordan had homered in the first with no one on. Midland had scored in the top of the inning on doubles by George Farnback and Scooter Hughes and an error.

Take Over Lead—The Tribe came back with four in the fourth to take the lead. Ralph Blair had relieved Carley. Quentin Basco got life on a fielder's choice and Farnback, Blair and Hughes singled in succession. Lou Dawson's double to the fence plated the last two runs in the up-isting.

Roswell picked up two in the last half of the inning to knot the score again.

Both teams went scoreless the next two innings.

Two In Seventh—The Indians landed again in the seventh, spiking the plate twice.

Hughes opened with a single and went to third on Pressley's error in right field. Dawson singled him home.

Tex Stephenson slapped out his second double of the night to send Dawson with the final Midland tally.

Lefty Caskey took over pitching chores for Midland and allowed the Rockets one in the eighth and one in the ninth, tying the score again.

Vic Michalec, the third Roswell hurler, blanked the Indians in the top of the tenth.

Pressley singled Mays home with the deciding run after one was out. Ralph Blair had returned to the mound from an outfield post and was tagged with the loss.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Boston Red Sox Set New Scoring Mark In Majors

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fans long will remember the devastating 29-4 romp of June 8, 1950. How the muscular Boston Red Sox humbled the poor little boys from St. Louis. A few lines in the record books will note the route for posterity.

Not since the gay 90's of bicycles built for two and mustache cups has a major league club rolled up such a total.

All scoring marks, except an ancient 1897 symbol, were smudged from the books by the Samsons of Fenway Park.

But hold, before you rush World Series orders to the Red Sox front office! Boston still is third in the American League, four full games behind the leading New York Yankees. And precedent is all against them.

Not a single club that ever hung a scoring record in the book won a pennant. Not even the Chicago team that scored 36 runs against Louisville, June 29, 1897, in a National League game. When the season was over, Chicago nestled in ninth place in a 12-team league.

Modern Records Smashed—Take the modern records, smashed by the Sox in Thursday's gallop. The majors' old modern (since 1900) mark was 28 runs scored by the St. Louis Cardinals on July 6, 1929, in the second game on a doubleheader with the Phillies. The Cards wound up fourth as the Cubs won the flag.

Or the American League mark of 27 set by Cleveland against Boston, July 7, 1923, in the first game of a doubleheader. Know where Cleveland landed? Third place, some 16 1/2 games behind the Yankees.

Bobby Doerr hit three home runs and drove home eight runs in Thursday's slaughter. Ted Williams and the Philadelphia American League club said: "Make an offer."

James P. Clark, trucking executive and president of the Philadelphia Eagles, champions of the National Football League, said Thursday night an offer will be made before the week is out.

Clark said a syndicate headed by him—not the one which purchased the Eagles early in 1949 and lifted the grid club from a financial loser to a money-making organization—will try to buy the A's.

And that means the American League franchise and its physical assets, including Shibe Park where both the A's and the Eagles as well as the National League Phillies play, says Clark.

No purchase price has yet been mentioned. But Clark said his group already has approached Mack and the club organization.

The A's at present are in sixth place and have had difficulty remaining out of the cellar of the American League. As a result attendance has dwindled. Night games have been drawing only about 3,000. The Memorial Day doubleheader with Washington drew only 9,557 paid.

Now Is Time—If they are going to do anything, now is the time for them to act, said Clark. "I talked with Connie Mack, Jr., on Wednesday and told him that if the Athletics are for sale, we are ready to buy."

The club issued a statement saying: "Many people have approached the Athletics in the last five years, but we never have received an offer. How we can talk about selling when we never have received an offer is beyond comprehension."

It is only natural that when a club is going badly that you will hear all kinds of rumors. We know that such rumors are now flooding the city and as far as we are concerned this is just such a rumor."

Clark declined to divulge the names of the others in the group interested in purchasing the A's.

Four runs in the sixth inning enabled Clovis to win, while Lubbock won behind Bill Ewen's two hit pitching.

First base coach Dusty Cooke of the Phillies was the club's trainer during 1946-47 after having put three years in the Navy.

Philadelphia Group Said Ready To Buy Athletics

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A new landlord wants to take over the baseball house that Connie Mack built and the Philadelphia American League club says: "Make an offer."

Unheralded Young Pro Amazes World In National Open

ARDMORE, PA.—(AP)—Big-time golf, ever on the lookout for a new and magic name, gazed at boyish Lee Mackey, Jr., Friday and wondered.

Could this grinning young man with the crew haircut and tremendous faculty for fine golf shots prove the electrifying stimulus the old pasture sport needs?

"He'll read those headlines and blow sky high tomorrow," commented one leather-faced pro as the crowd gathered around the clubhouse and jabbered excitedly about one of the most astonishing rounds in golf history.

"Don't bet on it," countered somebody else. "That boy is as cool and relaxed as an old dish rag."

True, Mackey, 26-year-old bundle of icicles from Birmingham, Ala., seemed the least concerned about the blazing 64 that set Old Merion on its ear Thursday in the first round of the National Open Tournament.

Best Round Ever—It was the best round of golf ever played in the 50-year-old fixture and most of the wise men of the links agreed it probably was the best 18 holes ever shot by anybody, anywhere, in major competition.

Certainly the 33-31-64 over Merion's myriad sand traps, weedy roughs and lightning-fast greens—six under par for the 6,994-yard layout—set the folks to buzzing.

He went into Friday's second round with a three-stroke lead over his closest challenger, Al Brooch, home pro of Garden City, N. Y., who had a 67.

Big Names Trail—Stewart (Skip) Alexander, 31-year-old barnstorming pro from Knoxville, Tenn., and Julius Boros, a new young pro now playing out of Southern Pines, N. C., pursue at 68.

Harold Williams of Tuscaloosa, Ala., and Henry Williams, Jr., of Seacrest, Pa., no kin, were tied at 69, only other players in the field of 165 to beat Merion's rugged par.

Defending Champion Cary Middlecoff, who started 3-7, on the first two holes, finished with a fine 71.

Ben Hogan, playing on scarred legs, rallied from a shaky start for a 72, a score shared by Masters Champion Jimmy Demaret.

Sam Snead, who said he couldn't putt a lick, was just back with a 73.

A broken ankle in 1945 failed to hamper Lou Boudreau's batting in subsequent seasons. The Indian manager followed with marks between .284 and .355, hitting his high spot in 1948.

Manager John (Red) Corriden of the White Sox played third base for Detroit in 1912, was sold to Cincinnati and was traded to the Cubs before he ever played a game for the Reds.

Senate Committee Asks Crack-Down On Coffee Trading

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A Senate committee Friday asked a Justice Department crack-down on speculative trading in coffee. The request was made by the agriculture subcommittee, headed by Senator Gillette (D-Iowa), which has been investigating the sharp rise in coffee prices in recent months.

The group recommended that the attorney general and his anti-trust attorneys take these actions: 1. Seek "injunctive relief" against futures contracts now used for speculative trading in coffee by the New York coffee and sugar exchange unless these contracts are promptly revised.

Senate Recommends Draft Extension; Segregation Tag

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Armed Services Committee voted Thursday to give the Administration the full three-year extension of the draft law it asked, including power for the President to order inductions resumed at any time. But it tied on a racial segregation amendment squarely opposed to Administration policy.

The action was taken in a closed session. Members reported that the measure got unanimous backing although some senators reserved their right to oppose the segregation provision on the Senate floor. Senator Russell (D-Ga.), who sponsored the amendment, started organizing a drive to keep it in.

The present peacetime draft law runs out June 24, two weeks from Saturday. Although nobody has been inducted since January, 1949, defense officials insist the authority should be kept on the books as evidence of America's determination to defend itself from aggression and as a time saver if trouble comes.

Same As Law Now The Senate bill covers males from 18 to 26, the same as the existing law. It differs widely from the "draftless draft" bill passed by the House May 24. The House voted to shift the draft to stand-by status, with nobody to be put into uniform through selective service unless Congress, in later legislation, gave authority to do so.

Gas showed at the surface in six minutes and drilling mud flowed at the top in 45 minutes. Oil started flowing out of the drill pipe in 47 minutes.

The section produced 28 1/2 barrels of oil in one hour and 22 minutes of flowing to tanks through a three-eighths inch bottom hole choke and a one inch top opening. Gas-oil ratio was 1,200-1. Gravity was 47 degrees. There was no formation water. The well will be completed and put on production.

Operator is to plug back to about 7,760 feet and test the section at 7,685-7,760 feet, in a Pennsylvaniaian line. An electric log showed signs of fluid of some sort in that zone.

Top of the Ellenburger is at 8,721 feet, which is on a minus datum of 5,990 feet. The detrital section above the Ellenburger also made sulphur water.

Scheduled test will be from 6,205 to 6,240 feet, 35 feet deeper than the last reported test which recovered 360 feet of free oil, 90 feet of oil cut mud and 279 feet of drilling mud, with a slightly salty taste.

Forrestal's Diary May Be Subpoenaed In Amerasia Probe

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) Friday demanded that Senate investigators looking into the 1945 Amerasia case subpoena the diary of the late Defense Secretary James Forrestal.

Knowland noted that Forrestal had been mentioned as being the high government official reported to have suggested that arrests in the case be delayed.

He told the Senate that Forrestal, who died in a plunge from a tower window at the Naval Hospital near here last year, cannot speak for himself. But, he said, there is a diary in custody of the White House that can speak for the late defense official.

He said that in fairness to Forrestal, who had a patriotic record in government, the investigating Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee should subpoena the diary immediately.

New Inquiry Demanded The case involves the wartime discovery of secret government papers in the New York offices of Amerasia, a magazine no longer published.

Earlier, Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) had demanded still another congressional inquiry into the case. He blasted the Justice Department for its handling of the matter.

Capehart spoke out as: 1. A Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee already investigating the case summoned to a closed session a witness who contends the episode "constituted a threat to national security in time of war."

The witness is Archibald Van Beuren, one-time security officer of the old Office of Strategic Services (OSS).

2. A high official source in New York confirmed that a grand jury there is looking into the Amerasia case, which involved alleged theft of hundreds of confidential government papers. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) said Thursday he has been told a federal panel was studying the case.
