Ellenburger In Midland Flows Oil

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2 Parks, Central-West Midland County wildcat, 11 1/4 miles southwest of the city of Midland, has showing for a prolific flowing, natural production from the top of the Ellenburger at 12,944-970 feet.

The oil actually came from the 15 feet of section between 12,955 and the total depth at 12,970 feet. The top of the Ellenburger at 12,955 feet is soft, porous dolomite, and the packer for the test was set at 12,944 feet in a hard dolomite in the joints horizon.

Oil In 22 Minutes
A five-eighths inch bottom hole choke and a one inch top opening was used for the test. No water cushion was used.

Gas showed at the surface in seven minutes. Mud came to the top in 19 minutes, and oil started flowing out of the drill pipe in 22 minutes.

The flow went to pits for approximately five minutes to clean, then it was turned to tanks for one hour.

During the first 15 minutes of flowing to storage the well gaged 30.94 barrels of oil; in the second 15 minutes it made 29.52 barrels; in the third 15 minutes the flow was 32.31 barrels and in the fourth 15 minutes well produced 30.94 barrels of oil.

That was a total of 123.71 barrels of 53.9-gravity oil in one hour. The tool was closed at the end of the 60 minutes of flowing to tanks. Gas showed at 1,042-1. Surface flowing pressure during the test was from 390 pounds to 365 pounds.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was between 4,700 pounds and 4,100 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure, after 15 minutes was 5,565 feet.

Operator circulated out the fluid left in the tester. There was no formation water. The hole is being conditioned preparatory to cementing 5 1/2-inch casing at 12,944 feet and completing the well without drilling any deeper.

Higher Than Producer
The new pay opener is 650 feet from north and 2,180 feet from west lines of section 10, M. Daugherty survey. It is four miles south and slightly east of the Texas Company No. 1 Scharbauer, a small pumper from the Ellenburger, which opened the Warfield-Ellenburger field more than a year ago.

The Magnolia No. 2 Parks topped the Ellenburger at 12,955 feet, to give it a datum of minus 10,120 feet on that marker. That makes it 183 feet high on the top of the Ellenburger to the same point in the Texas No. 1 Scharbauer.

Magnolia No. 2 Parks flowed oil from the Pennsylvanian and also showed for a possible discovery from the Fusselman lime of the Silurian.

Mitchell Wildcat Flows Lime Crude

J. W. Murchison and Staniland Oil & Gas Company No. 1 J. C. Womack, Northwest Mitchell County wildcat, 18 miles northwest of Colorado City, flowed an estimated 10 to 20 barrels of oil per hour and showed gas at the rate of 5,000,000 cubic feet per day in a drillstem test in the Pennsylvanian lime at 7,888-7,800 feet.

The tool was open 90 minutes. A 750-foot water blanket was used. The bottom hole choke was a five-eighths inch opening.

The water blanket started flowing out in 30 minutes. Mud came to the surface in 40 minutes. Gas and oil started spraying out in 52 minutes and continued for 38 minutes.

Estimates on the flow during that period ranged from 10 barrels per hour to 20 barrels per hour. The oil was 44-gravity.

Kept Unloading Oil
After the tool was closed the drill pipe unloaded oil for one hour. After 5,900 feet of the drill pipe had been racked, the tester unloaded oil for another 30 minutes.

Final recovery was 2.6 barrels of oil and 3.8 barrels of salty oil and gas out mud. There was very little indication of formation water.

Open Flowing Bottom Hole Pressure
Open flowing bottom hole pressure was between 2,850 pounds and 2,775 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure, after 15 minutes was 2,750 pounds.

Will Set Casing
It is understood that operators plan to cement casing on bottom at 7,800 feet, the plugged back total depth and test, and try to complete the discovery through perforations.

This well is 680 feet from south and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 8, block 28, H&TC survey, and three miles south of the lone producer in the Dunn-Canyon field.

It drilled to a total depth of 8,338 feet in the Ellenburger. That formation made only sulphur water. The hole was then plugged back to 7,800 feet to test the Pennsylvanian lime which has bottom developed the oil and gas production.

$4,175,000 In New Bonds Asked

McDonald, Ousted By Democrats, To Seek Court Relief

AUSTIN—(P)—J. E. McDonald Tuesday planned to get a court order to write his name back on the July 22 Democratic primary ballot.

The State Executive Committee Monday scratched McDonald on political disloyalty charges. They were based on the veteran agriculture commissioner's admitted support of the last three Republican candidates for President.

McDonald stormed into the committee meeting when he heard the action was cooking, to protest that he was not disloyal. He said he was a "lifelong Democrat" so far as supporting state ticket nominees was concerned. He said his vote in presidential elections was determined by the stand of the candidates on farm issues.

Seeking Eleventh Term
"If I can't let the people of Texas know what I believe, then I'll go back to the farm," McDonald told the committee. He has been elected commissioner of agriculture ten times on the Democratic ticket and is seeking an eleventh term.

The unanimously-adopted resolution striking McDonald's name from the list of certified candidates said in part: "We find as a fact xxx that he has over a long period of time misled his pledge to support the nominees of the Democratic Party and by reason of his consistent infidelity to the party, we find that when he takes the pledge at this time that he does so not in faith and therefore he does not come before this committee with clean hands."

The committee in a daylong session also:

Texas Sparks Latest Crude Output Climb

TULSA—(P)—The nation's daily average crude oil production soared by 94,428 barrels in the week ended June 10. The Oil and Gas Journal reported Tuesday.

The jump to 5,246,250 barrels daily was the sixth consecutive week production has set a 1950 record. Texas, the top producing state, accounted for the bulk of the increase. The state's output climbed 92,775 barrels to 2,244,450 barrels, its peak for the year.

Other states also set 1950 records. They were Louisiana, up 26,773 barrels to 543,825 barrels; California, up 12,600 to 870,200; Indiana, 2,300 to 21,800; Florida, 400 to 1,500; Nebraska, 500 to 2,000; and Utah, 100 to 3,500.

Michigan gained 700 barrels to 47,100. Montana increased 1,200 to 23,200. Arkansas added 550 to 78,900 and New Mexico was up 325 to 126,675.

The largest loss was in Kansas, which fell 29,400 barrels to 253,400. Illinois was off 6,900 barrels to 169,900. Oklahoma was down 4,750 to 419,950. Colorado dropped 800 to 59,100. The Eastern fields slumped 950 to 60,800 and Mississippi fell 1,400 to 68,900.

Production was unchanged in Alabama, 1,750 barrels; Kentucky 26,400; and Wyoming, 163,100.

July Nominations Up 71,773 Barrels

AUSTIN—(P)—Texas crude oil purchasers Tuesday indicated a firm market demand for 71,773 barrels more daily in July than in June.

The Railroad Commission announced advance nominations of 2,445,984 barrels daily for July compared with 2,374,211 in June. The commission will use the information in setting the July production allowable at Thursday's statewide oil hearing here.

Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson said last week he believed Texas could permit a production increase of about 100,000 barrels daily in July over June.

Monahans Jail Breakers Nabbed

MONAHANS—Two juvenile escapees from Ward County jail here were reported captured in Santa Fe, N. M., Monday afternoon after less than 48 hours of freedom.

The youths were James Van Ness, 18, and Don McKnight, 17, both under sentence to the state reformatory school for their admitted participation in a series of house-breakings here.

Sheriff W. B. McNeerlin was notified of their capture. The youths were driving a stolen pickup truck when arrested in Santa Fe, New Mexico, police officials said.

Sheriff W. B. McNeerlin and two deputies left Monahans by automobile immediately to return the escapees here.

RACE DRIVER BURNED FATALLY—Race driver J. E. Hershey, St. Augustine, Fla., sits dazedly beside his flaming stock car, his clothes burned off, as firemen attempted to rescue him. His car burst into flames, he lost control and the car plowed into a retaining bank on a turn, then flipped over the track during a 100-mile race at Lakewood Speedway, Atlanta, Ga. Hershey's burns proved fatal.

Precinct Chairmen Named At Meeting Of Demo Committee

The resignation of one Democratic precinct chairman was accepted and three new chairmen were named at a meeting of the executive committee of the Midland County Democratic Committee Monday night in the home of Chairman Louis A. Bartha.

F. B. Kingdon was named to fill out the unexpired term of R. W. (Bob) Hamilton, who resigned as Precinct 1 chairman due to the fact he is a candidate for district judge.

Herbert Marshall was appointed chairman of Precinct 7, a new precinct carved out of the old Precinct 1 by action of the Commissioners Court last year.

W. A. Yeager, formerly chairman of Precinct 6, another new precinct which formerly was a part of Precinct 5. W. E. Pigg is the new chairman of Precinct 5.

Other precinct chairmen are B. T. Graham, 2; J. C. Franklin, 3; and J. R. McCarter, 4.

The appointments were by unanimous vote of those attending the meeting. The terms will expire at election time this year.

The executive committee also determined how precinct delegates will be elected to the county Democratic convention. The seven precincts will hold conventions on July 22, date of the first Democratic primary. Since there is no record of the division of votes cast in the two newly created precincts, joint meetings of Precincts 1 and 7 and 5 and 6 are scheduled. Delegates to the county convention will be named at the precinct conventions. (Continued On Page 14)

Hopeful Spinners Pray For Husbands

MEXICO CITY.—(P)—Hopeful spinners were to church Tuesday to pray for husbands and leave 13 cents as an offering for St. Anthony—the Mexican version of St. Valentine. The tradition is that the 13 cents must have been collected from 13 different male friends.

Of course, any girl with 13 boy friends has a pretty good chance of getting married anyway.

Tideland Battle Flares Anew Before House Rules Panel

WASHINGTON—(P)—The controversy over ownership of lands under the marginal seas flared anew Tuesday before the House Rules Committee.

In a brief hearing, adjourned until 8:30 a.m. Wednesday after only one congressman had testified, a bill to give the states title to the disputed oil-rich tidelands was declared necessary to preserve the integrity of the government.

Representative Lyle (D-Texas) told the committee the issue ought to be settled by Congress and that he is willing to abide by whatever Congress decides.

Referring to recent Supreme Court decisions that the federal government has paramount rights over the submerged lands off the coasts of Texas and Louisiana, Lyle added:

"A former Texas governor and attorney general told me that in his opinion the Supreme Court decisions are the beginning of a corporate state and the end of representative government."

Geoscientist Main Spokesman A reporter later asked him if he referred either to Federal Judge James V. Allred of the Southern Texas District or Dan Moody, prominent Texas attorney. Both were governor and attorney general of Texas.

Lyle declined to identify the individual he was quoting. He said he had talked with both Allred and Moody during his recent visit to Texas. The congressman was in (Continued On Page 14)

Mrs. Anna Klapproth, Pioneer Midlander, Dies; Services Here

Mrs. Anna Klapproth, 87, a Midland resident since 1890, died at 7:25 p.m. Monday in Western Clinic-Hospital, where she had been a patient since May 9, following a fall in her home at 402 South Marienfield Street.

Mrs. Klapproth received a broken hip and broken shoulder when she fell while getting up from a chair. Born in Adelle, Ill., May 26, 1863, she came to Midland in 1890 with her husband, the late H. Klapproth, who died August 19, 1919. He was one of the earliest merchants in Midland, operating a saddle and harness store here for many years.

Mrs. Klapproth was very active in the Methodist Church and was one of its oldest members.

Survivors include three daughters, Anna May Klapproth of Amarillo, Theresa Klapproth, a teacher in Midland High School and Mrs. Louis Sharp of Abilene; two sons, Charles L. Klapproth of Midland and Dr. Herman Klapproth of Sherman; two sisters, Clara Roling of Los Angeles and Mrs. Emma Fulton of Nashville, Ill.; two brothers, Dr. Charles Roling of St. Louis, Mo., and George Roling of Lincoln, Ill.; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the First Methodist Church, with the Rev. Howard H. Hollowell, pastor, officiating. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Funeral services will be: Dr. Leonard Pemberton, President, Henry Butler, Bill Conner, A. W. Stanley, Lockert Sleeper and R. W. Hamilton.

Flames Still Billow Over Holley Well

BIG SPRING—(P)—Flames still billowed high over Big Spring's wildly-burning oil well Tuesday.

An oil field troubleshooter from Houston hoped to move in on the well by nightfall.

He is M. M. Kinley, whose crew also includes Paul Adair of Houston. The well claimed a life when it caught fire Saturday. Intense heat forced back firemen who tried to stop the blaze Monday.

Narrow rural roads leading to the scene were clogged with sightseers. They hampered work. Fire fighters must haul in water.

Second Try Sailed
Four trucks, a jeep and three passenger cars were pulled out of the reach of the flames and other debris cleared away Tuesday as Kinley prepared for another try at subduing the flames.

Kinley's plan was to move in behind bulldozer shields in order to cap the well, first step in bringing the blaze under control.

When the well broke loose, a crew was running cement below 6,800 feet. Gas kicked the plug out of the well and the crew fled as the blow-out preventer failed. Jack Morris Bristow, 26, geologist of Monahans, was burned when the well ignited about him. He died four hours later. Services for Bristow were to be held Tuesday in Monahans.

The well is the Pan-American number one Holley, 25 miles north-east of here.

Road blocks failed to keep sightseers away from the area. The CAA has advised pilots to stay clear and to windward of it.

Jurors Advised Not To Report

Notice to 72 prospective jurors who had been summoned to appear here Wednesday:

Do not report.

Court officials Tuesday said the jurors had been released indefinitely after visiting Judge A. O. Newman of Brownwood postponed a scheduled civil case.

The jurors first had been notified to appear Monday but the reporting date later was postponed to Wednesday.

T-H Author Quits Union To Organize Right-Wing Group

WASHINGTON—(P)—Fred A. Hartley, Jr., Tuesday quit as head of the Tool Owners' Union and started a movement for a right-wing political organization to rival the CIO's PAC and the AFL's Labor League.

Hartley, former Republican member of Congress from New Jersey, was chairman of the House Labor Committee and co-author of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act in 1947. He has been president of the management-minded Tool Owners' Union since Feb. 18, 1949.

Hartley said at a news conference he was confident there was a groundswell throughout the U. S. to organize a right-of-center political group. He said the big labor groups like the CIO with its Political Action Committee and the AFL with its Labor's League for Political Education, were seizing the initiative and those he termed the "right-wingers" had better start "ringing doorbells."

Oil Well Runs Wild—Jack Morris Bristow, 26, of Monahans died of burns four hours after this oil well blew out and caught fire as Bristow drove by in his pickup truck. A special crew of fire fighters from Houston is busy attempting to bring the well, located near Big Spring, under control.

C. Of C. Directors Urge Prompt Vote On Two Proposals

Proposed bond issues totaling approximately $4,175,000-$3,175,000 City of Midland and $1,000,000 County of Midland—for municipal improvements over a five-year period were endorsed by Chamber of Commerce directors at their meeting Monday night in Hotel Scharbauer.

The directors further recommended that the city and county bond proposals be submitted to the voters at the same time and as promptly as possible.

Mayor William B. Neely explained the five-year expansion and improvement program in detail, terming each project essential to the continued growth and development and future welfare of Midland.

City Manager W. H. Oewalt and County Judge Clifford C. Keith also spoke concerning the record-breaking bond proposals.

Projects included in the city bond issue proposal include: water and sewer system improvements and sewage disposal plant, $2,775,000; new fire station and equipment, $150,000; and street improvements and drainage, $250,000—totaling $3,175,000.

County Proposals
The county issue would include Front Street highway cutoff, Big Spring Street grade separation, widening of U. S. Highway 80 from N Street to the beginning of the new four-lane Midland - Odessa highway; drainage work to prevent additional runoff water coming into the city and additional right-of-way for future highway widening to the east county line. The total cost would be approximately $1,000,000.

Mayor Neely said the water, sewer and fire fighting projects constitute emergency measures and that steps must be taken promptly (Continued On Page 14)

Bondsmen Refuse Bail For Remington

NEW YORK—(P)—William W. Remington, resigned government economist, Tuesday pleaded innocent to a perjury indictment charging him with lying when he denied to a federal grand jury he ever was a Communist.

Federal Judge John W. Ciancy set July 5 for naming the trial date. Remington resigned from his Commerce Department post after being threatened with ouster proceedings.

Ciancy set $5,000 bail for Remington and gave him two days to raise the bond.

Remington's lawyer, Bethuel Webster, told the judge professional bondsmen have refused to post bail for the defendant because "a loyalty question is involved."

He told reporters later 14 surety companies had been asked to put up bail for Remington and all have replied they would post bond "for prostitutes and murderers but never where loyalty is questioned."

County Chairman Warns Of Deadline For Office Filing

Saturday is the final day for candidate filing for county and precinct offices, Louis A. Bartha, Midland County Democratic Committee chairman, announced Tuesday.

Bartha stressed the fact that candidates for county and precinct offices must file officially with the committee by midnight Saturday in order for their names to appear on the ballot.

Several persons who unofficially have stated their intentions of seeking public offices in the Democratic primaries still have not filed officially as candidates, he said.

Gong For Round Two Sounds As Movies, Video Slug It Out

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — The movies vs. television slug-fest, already called "show business' battle of the century" by Time Magazine, has gone into Round 2. Round 1 was a draw, although the movies, until the last few seconds, expected easy victory.

The movies' initial claim of first-round victory was based on a virtual boycott by Hollywood studios of Eugene F. McDonald, Jr.'s Phonofilm—movies ordered by telephone for home TV screens at $1 each. McDonald, president of Zenith Radio, came to Hollywood only to be denied the use of new screen product for a three-month test in Chicago this fall.

McDonald left town in a huff and there were handshakes all around the studio lots. Then came a flash from Washington—and the bell for the end of Round 1. Television had come up with a draw.

The Washington flash reported the closing of 600 movie theaters in the last six months. All of the closings were in cities with television. The largest number of closings, 71, was from the Philadelphia area, where TV is red hot.

Coming up in the next eight rounds will be slugging over big screen TV, the dream of Spyros Skouras, the studios' contract with the Musicians Union to keep musical sound tracks off TV and the decision over whether Hollywood itself will make films for television despite the walls of theater owners.

Who Are Ringing? Frankie Laine and Nan Grey have set the marriage date—June 15. The stork is about to drop bundles No. 8 at the home of David Hopkins, son of Harry Hopkins, and Cherry Preisser. The inside on the finger-to-the-lip handling of Paramount's "Union Station" is that it is concerned with kidnapping and will have office. The picture may have tough sledding in England, where the kidnap theme censorship still prevails.

Editorial blasts against hot rods aren't stopping Milton Gunzburg, who will produce "Dream Buggy" as an independent this year. Gunzburg insists that hot rods curb juvenile delinquency. Robert Young may be the star. Monogram's "Hot Rod" will have the same anti-juvenile delinquency theme.

Johnny Agar, ex-husband of Shirley T. is working out his vocal chords with Bob Keene's orchestra in hopes of landing a warbling role.

Ariene Dahl loses her veil, gloves, hat and several other articles of clothing in a chase scene with Red Skelton in "Watch the Birdie." It's an MGM type of strip tease, Ariene whispered.

This is Ariene's third picture with Red and the Skelton brand of horseplay between scenes doesn't bother her one smidgeon. She said: "Only sometimes Red does something funny and when he turns around, I'm not there. That's because my knees are weak—just like my funny bone—and Red's fooling sends me smack down on the floor."

Dinah Shore and Jack Smith will team up for records. Republic is looking for stories that will fit into the Will Rogers category in which to star Chill Wills. Dennis O'Keefe winds up his role in "Tomahawk" until the Indians turn in a series of 13 mystery films for television. For one week at the Chicago theater, the Andrews Sisters will take home $35,000. Cute cartoon title coming up at MGM: "The Two Mouseketeers."

UI thought it would be nice to give screen credit to four Sioux Indians playing important roles in "Tomahawk" in their names: George Underbaggage, Mary Trouble-in-the-Foot, Madison Down-the-Well and Charlie Ache-in-the-Back.

The British beauty Jean Clair arrived in Hollywood a couple of months ago and couldn't get an appointment with a big-time agent. Other day one of the agent's assistants spotted Jean modeling bathing suits in a fashion show at the Beverly Tropics and signed her as a client.

Ever Sam Spade, Jess thinks, couldn't solve the mystery of why his career struck a snag. "I can't think of anything I did to bring it on," Jess told me. "Why, I was even blamed for anything concerning Ava Gardner."

JACOBY ON CANASTA

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written For NEA Service We already have noted that the number of cards in your hand and your position at the table are of great importance in an early freeze. The more cards you have, the better your chance to get the pack; the fewer cards, the less chance.

When the number of cards and position at the table are fairly equal, the most important question is: How many of the discards can our side find, and how many discards can the opponents find? For example, suppose each side has melded and that each player has eight cards in his hand. Your side has melded only three aces and three kings. The opponents have melded three kings, three queens, three jacks, and three tens. At this point the discard pile becomes important. Which side has the advantage?

Your side is much better off. It is usually safer to discard cards that match the enemy's melds (when the pack is frozen than cards that haven't yet been melded. For example, when a player melds three queens, he is not likely to hold two more queens in his hand. If you discard a queen to him in a frozen pack, he probably cannot put it to use.

If the other opponent has melded queens, it may not be quite so safe for you to discard a queen. The player who follows you may have held a pair of queens in his hand instead of adding them to his partner's meld. However, even the best opponents cannot be tricky all the time. If the player at your left has cards that match his partner's meld, he will often consider it good play to put some of them down. If he doesn't put any down, there is a very good chance that he doesn't hold as many as two of any such meld.

In the situation just described, the chances are that you and your partner have a small assortment of queens, jacks, and tens that you were unwilling to discard before the pack became frozen. The opponents may have a better holding some of your aces and kings, for the same reason, but there are only five aces and two kings in the deck, whereas there are 15 missing queens, jacks and tens. Hence you are more likely than the enemy to have several safe discards from the very beginning.

Q—My wife and I played a game of two-hand Canasta and she was left at the end of the hand with five deuces and two jokers. What can be done with such a hand? A—By the time you get around to asking such a question it's too late to do anything. All you can do then is deduct 100 points for the deuces and another 100 points for the two jokers. She should have made canastas and melded out before she got caught. If she had to base four natural cards, then her early melds were unwise choices.

Q—We have a canasta and go out. The opponents have several melds on the table, but no canasta. Does everything on the table count against them, or just what they have in their hands? A—They get credit for everything they have on the table, but everything in their hands counts against them. In other words, they do not need a canasta to get credit for their melds.

Q—To make a meld of 150 points I had A-A and 8-8-2-2. The opponents said I could use only one deuce per meld. Is this true? A—Not a word of it. Your meld was perfectly correct.

Boyle's Vacation At Home Plan Offers Every Discomfort

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK —(AP)— Why vacate your home to take a vacation? Why fight traffic for hundreds of miles to catch poison ivy in the mountains or gather a third-degree sunburn on the beach?

You can have all the discomforts and inconveniences of any ordinary vacation—and more—right in your own house. All you need is the new patent-applied-for Boyle "vacation room." It is based on the theory that people go on holiday jaunts because they are bored with having things run right in their own homes. They don't really want rest or comfort. They want hardship and suffering.

Simply call our representative, and turn over one of the rooms in your house to him. Orange Peels, Beer Cans This is how our man will fix up the room: Two walls will be lined with bunks containing mattresses stuffed with dry cement. Another wall will hold a picture of Walkie Beach and beneath it will be strewn sand, orange peelings and empty beer cans.

The wall across the room is plastered with a splendid view of the Alps. The floor below is littered with pine cones and potted poison ivy and poison oak plants. The center of the room is gay with boulders and scattered nestles. This, of course, is the picnic site. You, your wife, and your children take off your shoes and walk in. Our man quickly opens a series of boxes. Out zoom a million angry mosquitoes and 45 bumblebees. Out either four snakes. Out crawls a vast colony of ants, a dozen or so spiders and twice that number of beetles.

Let Me Tell You... Our man backs out, locks the door, and begins to turn dials controlling badgets. A sunlamp begins to burn, the ceiling pipes rain steadily, and a wind machine sets up a tornadic blast. At the end of three days—when he no longer can hear the yelps for help inside—our man opens the door. Members of the family are carried out and put into their own beds.

Who is there to attend their aches, pains and ills? Why their own good old cheerful family doctor. In four days he has them all back on their feet, and they can go around bragging to friends: "You think you had a rough vacation? Let me tell you what happened to us."

Handkerchief Shower Honors Bride-Elect Bonney Brunner

Bonney Brunner, who will become Mrs. Robert Shaw Saturday evening, was complimented with a handkerchief shower and Coke party Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. J. T. Willis, 1608 West Louisiana Street. Mrs. Willis and her mother, Mrs. B. L. Ryan, were the hostesses.

Daisies, arranged in a brass bowl, centered the refreshment table. The Cokes were arranged in a brass coal scuttle and the candle holders were brass.

Handkerchief Doll
Gifts for the bride-elect were arranged on a table centered with a doll dressed in handkerchiefs. Daisies also were used in the living room.

The guest list included the honoree, her mother, Mrs. M. C. Brunner, Joan Woodruss of Alhambra, Calif., Dorothy Payne Holt, Alma Payne Cowden, Marylee Cowden, Barbara York, Emma Sue Cowden, Owen Horn, Evangeline Theis, Susan Hemphill, Betty McCain, Jean McMillan, Jessica Turpin, Grace Baker, Mrs. Richard Hughton, Mrs. Max Sherwood, Mrs. Harold Fritts and Mrs. Allen Scott.

April Wedding Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Benedict, 105 North G Street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Patricia, to Don D. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Payton W. Anderson, 504 Holmes Street. The wedding was solemnized April 22 in Lawton, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson both were students in Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, this last year and completed the semester before announcing their marriage.

Six Presbyterian Circles Have Study Of Bible Topic

"Hannah's Prayer and Samuel's Prayers," taken from First Samuel, chapters 1, 8, and 12, was the Bible study for the afternoon circles of the First Presbyterian Women of the Church which met Monday. The monthly emphasis was on "Missions in the Synod and the Presbytery."

Mrs. J. C. Thompson was hostess to Circle No. 1, which had six members and one guest attending.

Mrs. A. Fasken discussed the Bible study and Mrs. J. E. Dickinson, the emphasis topic.

Circle No. 2 had 11 members present and met with Mrs. J. G. Harper.

Mrs. Paul Lavery led the study of the Bible topic and Mrs. M. B. Bell, the Synod and Mission discussion.

Circle No. 3, meeting with Mrs. W. P. Knight, heard Mrs. W. N. Little lead the Bible study. Mrs. A. H. Vineyard spoke on the Synod and Presbytery.

One guest and five members attended.

Mrs. A. E. Lynch was hostess to Circle No. 4 and Mrs. Don Johnson presided in the absence of the chairman.

Mrs. Little also conducted the Bible study for this circle. Six members and one guest attended.

Ten members attended the Circle No. 5 meeting with Mrs. E. C. Hitchcock. Mrs. Lavery was Bible topic leader.

The Training Circle met in the Church Parlor with Mrs. John Leigh as hostess. Mrs. Clifford Hall led the Bible study and Mrs. Ray Howard the Synod and Presbytery Mission study.

Girl's Rush To Find Husband Is Often Fault Of Her Parents

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

The pressure is on Susie to get a husband. She has finished her education, and her parents don't seem to know what to do about her now. So every time another girl in her crowd gets a diamond or sends out wedding invitations Susie's Mama gets that "It's-later-than-you-think" gleam in her eye.

Poor Susie. She could be holding down a job, having a try at earning her own living and leading her own life, and not have to feel like a failure because the majority of the girls she grew up with beat her to the altar.

But Susie's parents discouraged the job idea and insisted that she stay at home with them, where Susie's Mama could do a little husband promoting.

Susie accepted her parents' decision, and now the pressure is on. It isn't right out in the open, of course.

But Susie knows full well that the only way she can make her Mother happy is by getting a husband—and the poor girl is doing her best to succeed in her Mother's eyes.

Maybe Susie will be lucky and really find the "right" man in time. fall head-over-heels in love and make herself, some fine young man and her mother all happy at the same time.

That is too often the unhappy ending when a girl is brought up with the idea that the only success possible to a woman is landing a husband soon enough so that nobody can ever think for a minute there was any question of her ability to do so.

Single Saddle Club Has Four Guests

Judy Ballew, Benny Kelly, Joe Payne and Charley Swan were guests of Single Saddle Square Dance Club members at a dance Monday night in the City-County Auditorium. Dan Peterson called. The next meeting will be at 8 p.m., June 19, in the auditorium.

Members attending were Juanita Anderson, John Casselman, Jan Fuller, Bob Gay, Lily Gilbert, Evelyn Martin, Earl Monteth, Carl Nance, Carolyn Oates, Curtis Reider, Lenore Reid, Lillie Riehmeyer, Buddy Scarborough, Price Street, Bob Schultz and Natalie Walton.

Asbury WS Changes Meeting Times

The decision to have morning meetings in members' homes during the remainder of the Summer was made at a meeting of the Asbury Methodist Women's Society Monday in the church. The group has been having afternoon meetings in the church.

The first of the morning meetings will be at 9 a.m. June 19 with Mrs. Dennis Ford, 617 West Texas Street. A new study, "We, the People of the Ecumenical Church," will be started.

Mrs. Edgar Tanner was in charge of the program Monday on "Thy Will Be Done." Mrs. Clyde Gwyn discussed the program topic; Mrs. Preston Pirtle, "My Faith," and Mrs. Carmel Pirtle, "A New Earth."

Others present were Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Minnie Pollard, Mrs. J. P. Carson, Sr., Mrs. J. S. Grimes and Mrs. J. B. Stewart.

Mrs. Jack Smith Is Honored With Shower

CRANE — Mrs. Jack Smith was honored with a pink-and-blue shower Thursday in the County Community Hall.

Mrs. Elder

Mrs. Thelma Elder, 708 Bryon Street, S. E., Atlanta, Georgia, is 28 years old and the mother of three small children. For a time, she thought that her duties as a mother and housewife were just too much for her to handle. She felt so bad that she did not feel like doing anything. Then, she heard the blessed news about HADACOL and life again seems worth living.

Mrs. Elder was suffering from a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Nicotin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is her statement: "My stomach had been bothering me and I did not have any energy. My back bothered me and I did not feel like doing anything. There were times when I did not have any appetite. I started taking HADACOL and it has done me so much good. I have been taking it for several months and my stomach is doing fine. I feel good, and have lots of energy and my back is all right. I surely took HADACOL—it has done so much for me."

Hundreds of Doctors have prescribed HADACOL for their patients. Have requested quantities of HADACOL for their own clinical use and for their own families. The fact that HADACOL is scientifically formulated, compounded with precious Vitamins and Minerals (in liquid form), help to account for its increasing acceptance by doctors.

Make up your mind to take HADACOL regularly. Refuse substitutes. Insist on the genuine. There is only one HADACOL. You can't lose a cent, because it's sold on a strict money-back guarantee. You'll feel great with the first few bottles you take... or your money back. Only $1.25 for Trial size. Large Family or Hospital size, $3.50.—(adv.)

GM-Auto Workers' Pact

Barring the unforeseen, there will be no strike at giant General Motors until at least May 29, 1955. And that prospect is the best news this country has had in a long time.

GM produces more than 40 per cent of U. S. cars. It has 275,000 workers scattered through 100 plants all over America. Its activities, like those of other motor makers, affect the operations of thousands of suppliers large and small.

So five years of uninterrupted labor peace will be a wholesome, stabilizing influence in the whole U. S. economy.

This outlook is possible because of the constructive attitude shown by both GM and the United Automobile Workers in negotiating their new contract. In this agreement there is clear evidence of a give-and-take spirit and a real concern for the public interest.

The performance stands in contrast to the bitter bargaining which accompanied the 100-day Chrysler strike, and to the more recent pointless walkout of railroad firemen against four major lines.

The GM agreement can't be opened for any reason whatsoever during its lifetime. In return, the company guarantees its workers an annual four-cents-an-hour wage hike to be added to basic rates.

Walter Reuther, UAW head, characterizes this feature as a reward for continuing increases in worker productivity. He sees it as the end of a long struggle for wage increases "that aren't immediately reflected in price increases."

No question, it is a new and imaginative device for accommodating wage demands without the possible disruption of production at great cost to all concerned.

The union also got hospital-medical benefits, improved insurance, a modified union shop and pensions which may range from $100 to $117.50 a month.

Retained in the contract was the escalator clause providing for wage adjustments tied to the ups and downs of the government cost-of-living index. These changes would have no upward limit but could bring wages no lower than established basic rates. The union wanted to scrap the plan but gave in on this score.

If the Russians still are hoping a U. S. depression is just around the corner, the new GM contract will make discouraging reading in the Kremlin. It's no guarantee of prosperity but it's certainly a healthy hedge against serious trouble.

Last Of Vanishing Race?

The first-man to drive a car through New York's new Brooklyn-Manhattan tunnel, second longest in the world, was a 31-year-old subway motorman named George Horn.

To Horn the experience wasn't unique. He was first through the Lincoln tunnel connecting New Jersey with Manhattan. He beat everybody else through the portals at the New York World's Fair back in 1939. He dropped the first nickel in the turnstile when a new subway line opened.

Reversing his field on occasion, he's been last in certain spots, too. He was the last rider on an old "el" line about to be torn down. As a trolley car operator, he took the last car over the Brooklyn Bridge before the line was closed for repairs.

But, tunnels, bridges and subways notwithstanding, New York's traffic gets more snarled every day. One expert thinks that before long the city may have to bar all but the most essential vehicles from downtown areas.

So Horn some day may have the dubious honor of being the last man to drive a car in Manhattan without a permit stamped "essential."

It Isn't Cricket

To most of us South Africa is a far-away land which seldom figures in our thinking. But there is one South African probably familiar to everyone who reads newspapers and looks at newsreels and picture magazines. He is Jan Christian Smuts, long-time prime minister of the country, who now is out of power.

For many years Smuts was the symbol of his nation as Winston Churchill was of wartime Britain. The serene, stalwart South African spoke with wisdom and strength in Allied councils through two world wars. He is a man of world stature, honored by statesmen everywhere.

It is with regret, therefore, that we read that the present extreme rightist government of South Africa put a damper on celebration of his recent eightieth birthday. That government must be shaky indeed if it cannot risk allowing tribute to its First Citizen simply because he happens to be a political rival.

South Africa's government might say it's none of our business. In reply we'd say that where a man of Smuts' caliber is concerned, it's the world's affair.

Point Of View—

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Congressman Wood solved servant problem by putting his domestic on government payroll; Georgia solon's office also collected fee after passage of legislation; Libel suit boomerangs in California.

WASHINGTON — It's a peculiar thing about Congressman John S. Wood, the Georgia Democrat whose office took a $1,000 fee from a crippled boy for getting a $10,000 compensation bill passed by Congress after the boy was hit by a U. S. Army truck.

The peculiar thing is that financially Wood is well off. As most congressmen go, he is affluent, and his wife is a member of one of the big textile families of North Georgia.

Yet, on top of the fee from Ralph Stanfield, the congressman also enjoys a neat arrangement whereby he put his negro servant on the congressional payroll.

In other words, the servant in the home of Congressman Wood was paid $50 a week by all the taxpayers. This is a way to solve the servant problem which every household should relish.

Here is how the congressman manipulated this piece of gravy. The servant's name is William Fowler and he has been attached to the Wood family for years. When the congressman became chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee in July 1945, he promptly shifted Fowler from his personal payroll to the payroll of the committee as a janitor.

Fowler's salary—paid by Uncle Sam—was $191.86 a month, which is not bad pay for a janitor, especially since he spent most of his time at the Wood home rather than at the capitol. However, he did appear at the committee rooms from time to time.

Fowler stayed on the Un-American Activities Committee payroll until Jan. 4, 1947. This was exactly the date that Congressman Wood ceased to be chairman. The Republicans took over and after that the post of janitor was abolished.

The Republicans apparently felt that a janitor was not necessary, though Farnell Thomas, then chairman, padded the payroll in various other ways and is now in jail.

Unique Law Partner
It also is interesting that Congressman Wood kept his law partner, Carl Tallan, on the government payroll as his office assistant for $7,022.

Even the greenest congressman knows that it is illegal for a congressman to take a fee in any case against the government; nor is his law office supposed to take such a fee if the congressman is in any way involved.

Most congressmen separate themselves from their law offices as soon as they are elected, as for instance, Senator McMahon of Connecticut. However, Wood's law partner sits right in the congressman's office, drawing a $7,022 salary from the taxpayer. And enjoying this unique capacity, he exacted a fee of $1,000 from crippled Ralph Stanfield, immediately after the latter received his government compensation.

No wonder Congressman Wood immediately told the boy's father to keep the matter very quiet.

California Crime
One of the most crushing defeats in the history of California politics was administered last week to the Republican attorney general, Fred N. Howser. Not only was he overwhelmingly defeated for the Democratic nomination, but he also ran last for the nomination in his own party.

This was a significant fact in the California crime cleanup. For while Governor Warren has done his best to clean up California's serious crime cancer, he has been powerless to do much because of the fact that his attorney general is independent of the governor and solely in charge of state law enforcement for the state.

The attorney general race, therefore, was locally almost as important as the race for governor; and here is one backstage factor responsible for Howser's crushing defeat.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

"Please comment on this hand," requests a New Orleans reader. "Should the final contract be six hearts or six no trump? I suppose we ought to be in a slam of some sort."

"When the hand actually was played, my partner didn't make his contract. West opened the bid of clubs, and South won with the ace. He took the ace and king of trumps and got the king of spades out of the way. Then he led a low diamond from his hand. When he put up dummy's queen, East won with the king. East returned a diamond, and South finessed the ten. That lost to West's jack, and the slam was defeated then and there."

"If she should have played the hand to make somebody lead diamonds to him. For example, after cashing the king of spades."

South American Communist Papers Glad To See Mosinee 'Held' By Reds

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Some of the pro-Commie papers in South America put a fantastic reverse twist on the story of the American Legion stunt in Mosinee, Wis., last May. Reports of the reaction to it have U. S. officials both laughing and very worried.

It will be remembered that the Legion in Mosinee simulated what would happen if the Communies took control of the town, to show how horrible it would be. Naturally many pictures were taken of the event and circulated all over the world.

However, in printing the captions under the pictures some Communist papers in South America just neglected to make clear that the whole thing was a sort of serious gag. One picture showed Benjamin Gitlow, a reformed Commie who helped the Legion with the stunt, pointing a gun at the head of Mosinee's chief of police. In big bold type above the picture were the words, "Chief of Police Assassinated."

The caption below it read: "Benjamin Gitlow, pistol in hand, secretary general of the Communist Party, is preparing to execute Chief of Police Carl Geviss, after his having refused to carry out the orders given him by the Reds. The members of the American Legion in the city of Mosinee, Wis., U. S. A., did this in order to commemorate the First of May."

Another picture of the event showed the mayor being hauled out of his house, half-clad. Over it in big letters were the words, "Mayor Held." The caption said: "Mayor Ralph Kronewetter, mayor of Mosinee, Wis., U. S. A., is being expelled from his house without time to change his pajamas in order to be executed minutes later by the Red troops which overthrew the government. This is part of an effective representation by the American Legion of Mosinee celebrating the First of May."

Some Citizens Taken In
A letter from an American citizen reported that after these pictures appeared in the paper, "all the people with whom I've spoken thought that the American Legion was a faction of the Communist Party." The letter quoted the following remarks heard on the street regarding the pictures: "What a pity that even the Americans have fallen to the Communists."

"Why, they killed the chief of police and photographed the assassination."

Home Defense Via Video
Under Sen. Forrester's plan to use television to teach citizens the facts of civilian defense against atomic attack. The proposal is to prepare a series of training films which show in detail what each citizen can do to best protect himself and family in case of A-bomb attack. The films would be distributed free to local television stations and their showings coordinated with other local civilian defense activities due to get under way soon. In areas where there are no television stations, the films would be given to local theaters.

Donations To Graveyard
George Washington Lopp, the dean of the American settlement in Paris, made one of his infrequent visits back to this country recently to talk a little business with the Bureau of Internal Revenue. For years he has been working in Paris for the establishment of an American cemetery there. It seems that it is the custom in France to dig up all graves and put the remains in a common burial plot after five years or so. Lopp is anxious for the bureau to give a ruling which will permit any donations to the cemetery, which will provide permanent burial in individual graves.

During the Nazi occupation of France, Lopp was permitted to set up a cemetery for all captured and interned Americans. He also is responsible for the construction of the first American hospital in Paris. Dedication date for the new cemetery is the first of August. All American who die in France can be buried there, for their relatives can't afford to pay.

A Day With The FTC
Recent actions of the Federal Trade Commission: "After completion of required statutory proceedings, information shows that baseballs and tennis balls are marketed primarily on the basis of performance rather than their respective textile content."

In answer to a complaint charging a company with selling thumb tacks imported from Germany, with a "made in U. S. A." label, the accused firm replies, "at no time are any such tacks sold by respondents directly in any form to the consuming public."

Claims that certain synthetic ruby phonograph needles will give up to 25,000 plays are challenged and will be investigated. All in a day's work. European Crime Room.

The Senate committee investigating organized crime in the U. S. seriously is considering sending some of its agents to Europe this Summer. Many of the known underworld characters in the U. S. are foreign-born. In many cases they had criminal records before they ever came to the U. S., which they covered up in order to get in. This could lead to deportation proceedings.

It has been suggested that one way to break up the notorious Mafia gang which is in the crime picture in the U. S. is to get at its roots in Italy.

Visit With Luciano
There also is serious consideration of having one of the committee's investigators go to the notorious Lucky Luciano in Italy to find out if he will talk. He probably knows as much about crime in the U. S. as anyone and it is said that he still has powerful, close connections in the underworld here in spite of having been deported for his criminal activities.

By BOYCE HOUSE
Hawking was a good, or maybe the proper word is gourmand; anyway, one or the other, and he was giving his order with meticulous detail.

"Bring me a bowl of tomato soup, not too thick, yet too thin; bring me dry toast, just barely browned; and then I would like an oyster cocktail."

"Oyster cocktail," the waiter repeated, obsequiously, "yes, sir; with or without pearls, sir?"

And don't forget, Bill, I was a noted sob sister in my time."

They reached the hotel. Bill placed Mrs. Fasker in charge of a uniformed lackey who trundled her off in her wheel-chair.

FOR a moment Bill stood admiring the view from the front of the inn. Below him Lake Lookout was a stretch of deep cobalt, ringed by the dark-green of countless pine trees.

Bill gave himself a figurative pinch. It was hard to believe that he—William Clinton Jarvis, 37½ a week publicity writer—was actually in a place like this. Nor would he have believed that not Beverly Coultter, all bolted into nickel and topped off by Lilly Dache, swept into her father's office one day last winter, definitely a dream walking. And providentially general Joe Coultter—brams of Joseph P. Coultter Associates, Public Relations Counselors—had as yet failed to return from lunch.

Beverly, kicking expensive heels in her father's sanctum, borrowed a match from Bill when he happened in to leave papers for Mr. Coultter's attention. Which is how it had begun.

Bev was one of a foursome at a corner table in the lounge. Bill had met Caroline Marr, a flashing blonde, that morning. He'd also been introduced to the little chap, Dick Trevan. The big taffy-haired fellow, with auburn hair like an ox and one capable arm hooked carelessly over the back of his chair, undoubtedly was Lloyd Williston.

The blond giant didn't get up as Bev introduced him as Lloyd Williston.

"Lloyd's an aviator and he's asked me to take a plane ride with him," Bev said.

Lloyd offered Bill a drink. Bill said he didn't care if he did. He dragged up a chair, wedging Bev in between himself and Lloyd. Bev asked: "Well, how was the tennis?"

"That had been sort of a funny one. The question was casual, only not casual enough. So why here it been put Coultter wasn't given to small talk. When he spoke he usually had a good reason for speaking."

What was Joe Coultter's interest in Lloyd Williston? (To Be Continued)

Walkout Cancels CBS Telecasts
CBS Telecasts
NEW YORK —Six Columbia Broadcasting System television shows were canceled Monday night when more than 400 technicians walked off their jobs in New York and Hollywood in a contract dispute.

The negotiations involved nearly 600 members of the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers in New York, Hollywood, San Francisco and Washington, D. C.

The strike continued Tuesday with union plans to picket every CBS station, office and transmitter in New York. Action at other cities was not decided.

The issues are wages, working conditions and seniority.

SMEAR CAMPAIGN
By Edwin Rutt
Copyright 1950 by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Bill Jarvis is engaged to Bev Coultter, his boss's daughter, and he is spending his week-end as her employer's guest at a swank summer resort. Bill meets Mrs. Fasker, an elderly retired woman socialist, who tells Bill that someone has been passing around a malicious gossip about pretty Hilda Sands, who is nice looking at the resort. He promises Mrs. Fasker to "be nice to her."

Bill understood what Mrs. Fasker had told him. "So Hilda Sands," he repeated, "has been walking off with the men and the young women don't like it. And somebody started a smear campaign?"

"That's it. Hilda came at the beginning of summer. She's from some small city in the Middle-west. She cut quite a swath for awhile. She's as good as other sports as she is at tennis. Plays a man's game of golf, swims beautifully, dances like a dream. Every male—attached or at large—gave her a terrific tumble and it didn't help her with the ladies."

"Surely the men wouldn't care about anything her father may have done?"

"Bill," said Mrs. Fasker, "you don't know this place. The inn's mainly a high society refuge. The haut monde prevails. A few fellows went on being nice to her after the rumor started. But most of 'em sheared off. Particularly those two social bugs, Dick Trevan and Lloyd Williston."

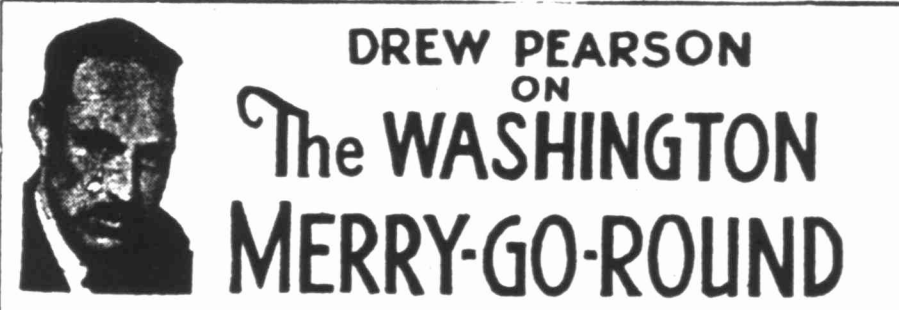

"So, I'm gathering," Bill said, "it's no place for retired lady novelists who purposely murder the king's English. So I wonder why..."

"Why I'm here, eh?" Mrs. Fasker interrupted, chucking appreciatively. "You're not as dumb as you look, Jarvis. I'm here because I like the place, not because I like the king, nor the people." She called up an accent that would have passed in too-too circles. "Not to the manob born, my dear, but quite amusing—raally."

Big Spring Census Count Set At 17,258
BIG SPRING —(AP)—The tentative 1950 census figure for the corporate limits of this West Texas city has been announced as 17,258.

The announcement was made by L. D. Whitley, Lubbock District census supervisor. Whitley had no estimate on the metropolitan population of Big Spring.

NEED DIGESTIVE AID
Australians wood - eating white ants keep, in their intestines, certain protozoa which secrete an acid that breaks up the woody fiber. Take away the protozoa and the white ants, being unable to digest the wood, die.

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Congressman Wood solved servant problem by putting his domestic on government payroll; Georgia solon's office also collected fee after passage of legislation; Libel suit boomerangs in California.

WASHINGTON — It's a peculiar thing about Congressman John S. Wood, the Georgia Democrat whose office took a $1,000 fee from a crippled boy for getting a $10,000 compensation bill passed by Congress after the boy was hit by a U. S. Army truck.

The peculiar thing is that financially Wood is well off. As most congressmen go, he is affluent, and his wife is a member of one of the big textile families of North Georgia.

Yet, on top of the fee from Ralph Stanfield, the congressman also enjoys a neat arrangement whereby he put his negro servant on the congressional payroll.

In other words, the servant in the home of Congressman Wood was paid $50 a week by all the taxpayers. This is a way to solve the servant problem which every household should relish.

Here is how the congressman manipulated this piece of gravy. The servant's name is William Fowler and he has been attached to the Wood family for years. When the congressman became chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee in July 1945, he promptly shifted Fowler from his personal payroll to the payroll of the committee as a janitor.

Fowler's salary—paid by Uncle Sam—was $191.86 a month, which is not bad pay for a janitor, especially since he spent most of his time at the Wood home rather than at the capitol. However, he did appear at the committee rooms from time to time.

Fowler stayed on the Un-American Activities Committee payroll until Jan. 4, 1947. This was exactly the date that Congressman Wood ceased to be chairman. The Republicans took over and after that the post of janitor was abolished.

The Republicans apparently felt that a janitor was not necessary, though Farnell Thomas, then chairman, padded the payroll in various other ways and is now in jail.

Unique Law Partner
It also is interesting that Congressman Wood kept his law partner, Carl Tallan, on the government payroll as his office assistant for $7,022.

Even the greenest congressman knows that it is illegal for a congressman to take a fee in any case against the government; nor is his law office supposed to take such a fee if the congressman is in any way involved.

Most congressmen separate themselves from their law offices as soon as they are elected, as for instance, Senator McMahon of Connecticut. However, Wood's law partner sits right in the congressman's office, drawing a $7,022 salary from the taxpayer. And enjoying this unique capacity, he exacted a fee of $1,000 from crippled Ralph Stanfield, immediately after the latter received his government compensation.

No wonder Congressman Wood immediately told the boy's father to keep the matter very quiet.

California Crime
One of the most crushing defeats in the history of California politics was administered last week to the Republican attorney general, Fred N. Howser. Not only was he overwhelmingly defeated for the Democratic nomination, but he also ran last for the nomination in his own party.

This was a significant fact in the California crime cleanup. For while Governor Warren has done his best to clean up California's serious crime cancer, he has been powerless to do much because of the fact that his attorney general is independent of the governor and solely in charge of state law enforcement for the state.

The attorney general race, therefore, was locally almost as important as the race for governor; and here is one backstage factor responsible for Howser's crushing defeat.

What's RIGHT?
You start to tell a funny story about your husband and he protests: "WRONG: Go right on telling it, and repeat it any time in the future when you think it will get a laugh."

RIGHT: Don't tell the story then or ever again.

Family Left Without Clothing After Fire

A hot water heater exploded Monday afternoon in a residence at 1000 South Big Spring Street and a blaze which resulted left two men and two children without a stitch of clothing except what they were wearing. None of them was injured.

Firemen said the blaze spread to clothes closets before they arrived and destroyed the entire contents besides doing heavy damage to other things in the house.

Cecil Hill, his daughter, 13, and son, 9, and Eddie Gaddis resided in the residence.

Mrs. E. W. Hamilton, who resides in a trailer house next door to the Hill home, will accept clothing gifts for the four. Captain Marvin Beauchamp of the Fire Department said.

Painter Treated For 'Live Wire' Burns

Johnny Pulley, 18, 406 South Lamesa Road, an employe of a painting contractor, was admitted Monday afternoon to Western Clinic-Hospital for treatment of severe burns sustained when he came in contact with a live wire while working on an oil field "dog house."

Pulley said he was painting on the tank battery pump building, near Wink, when he backed into the live wires. He was knocked to the ground. Companions rushed him to a Wink hospital, where he was found to have first, second and third degree burns over a wide area of his body, from the shoulders down.

Monday afternoon he was transferred to Western Clinic Hospital here. His condition is reported good.

Legion Officers Election July 4

Election of officers for Woods W. Lynch Post, American Legion, will be held July 4.

A newspaper story previously had announced the election would be held June 13.

BOOKS ARE GIVEN TO HONOR FATHER

Mrs. Hal C. Peck has given two books to the Midland County Library in memory of her father, O. P. Jones. They are "The Light of Western Stars," Zane Grey, and "Yesteryears of Texas," John Earl Brown. Brown's book is an account of early life in West Texas, its huge ranches, the beginnings of its cattle industry, and the sturdy race of people who were its first pioneers.

DADDY RINGTAIL

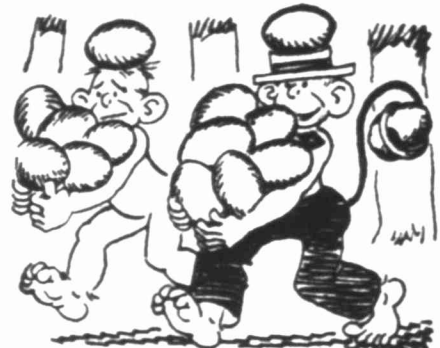

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Can Do And Will Do

If you had been in the Great Forest, hiding behind some bushes, you would have seen two monkeys come walking along and walking along the Elephant Path. One of the monkeys was Daddy Ringtail. The other was the Gibberwink.

Each was carrying a coconut with his tail. Their pockets were full of coconuts. So were their arms. They were carrying them back to the monkey house, and I mustn't forget to tell you that each had a coconut on top of his head. "We'll have to be careful," the Gibberwink said. "If we drop one of our coconuts, we'll never be able to pick it up, because all of our arms and hands are full." So they both were very careful as they walked along and walked along the Elephant Path, on their way back to the monkey house. I think they wouldn't have had any trouble at all, except the Gibberwink sneezed. And if you ever sneezed, that is if you ever sneezed with a coconut on top of your head, you know exactly what happened. "Oops!" said the Gibberwink. The coconut rolled from his head and fell to the ground. "Oops! Now what am I going to do?" "Use your head," Daddy Ringtail said.

his tail wasn't carrying a coconut any more. Daddy Ringtail pointed at the coconut on the ground. "Can you pick it up with your tail?" he asked. "Can do and will do!" said the Gibberwink, and Daddy Ringtail was very happy to hear him say it, and the Gibberwink did it, and that's how all the coconuts got to the monkey house at last. "Can do" and "will do" are happy words all right, and they are the words that get everything done that should be done. Happy day! (Copyright 1950, General Features Corp.)

Ordinary Table Salt Plays Important Part In The Body

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

For the normal person table salt or sodium chloride is necessary for the satisfactory functioning of the body. The salt is kept in a constant proportion in the blood and tissues; the amount of salt present in food or added in cooking or on the table usually is just about enough to make up for that which is lost.

In certain diseases, however, the amount of salt taken into the body has to be limited. Too much salt either has a bad effect on the diseased organs or holds an excessive amount of water in the tissues of the body thus causing the accumulation of fluid in the legs or abdomen.

Under such circumstances the excess salt is not eliminated normally but stays in the tissues; in order to maintain a constant balance between the sodium chloride and water in the tissues, excess water also is retained.

For this reason the physician may reduce the salt in the diet of persons with certain kinds of heart disease, kidney disease or disease of the blood vessels. There are some other conditions, like Addison's disease, in which the use of sodium chloride also is disturbed so that the intake has to be strictly regulated.

More body sodium chloride is lost than is taken in when there is heavy perspiration for a prolonged period of time. This occurs in certain industrial occupations, in hot weather and when there is heavy physical exertion.

Making Up Loss

Soon after the loss or the addition of small amounts of sodium chloride to the drinking water may be used to replace an excessive loss of sodium chloride of this type. In some industries workers are encouraged to take a salt tablet with each drink of water though this should not be done by those who have some of the disorders previously mentioned.

A great deal of table salt now has a little iodine mixed in. This iodized salt has done a great deal to reduce the frequency of goiter and extensive studies have not revealed any harmful effects.

Home Ownership Is Man's Oldest Dream

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The greatest home-lovers are those who never bought a house.

Or so it seems.

Owning a place of his own is one of man's oldest dreams, and nothing proves more surely that, to this extent at least, he is a capitalist by nature.

It begins in childhood. And a growing boy relives the story of the human race's desire for a better shelter.

Within recent weeks the entire world has been reported to be sweeping the Russian-annexed republics of Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia on the strategic Baltic coast where a U. S. Navy plane recently was lost mysteriously.

Within recent weeks the entire government and Politburo of Estonia—including the president of the Supreme Soviet, Eduard Pell, and the minister of security, Boris Kumm, has been arrested by the MVD.

Baltic delegates to the International Socialist Congress, which met here recently, estimate that close to 800,000 Lithuanians, 250,000 Latvians and 200,000 Estonians—more than 1,000,000 persons in all—have been deported by the MVD since the Winter of 1949.

A number of these managed to escape and contact underground forces active in the interior of their countries and also along the Danish and Swedish coasts. They brought information that the majority of the deportees were sent into forced labor in the gold mines of Kolyma, Siberia, and in secret armament plants in the Urals.

At the same time, the purge of top Communists charged with "Titoism" and "bourgeois nationalism," continues unabated. It now has been extended to include "cosmopolitan" (pro-Western) artists, writers and teachers as well as recalcitrant peasants opposed to forced land collectivization.

The Kremlin apparently is determined to clear the entire strategic Baltic coast of what it believes to be a potential anti-Soviet fifth column. To achieve this, Moscow now is engaged in what actually amounts to a large-scale shifting of populations.

From the Latvian port of Libau to Stetin in Soviet-occupied Germany, underground sources here report, the Russians are engaged in feverish military preparations. A special Baltic Red Army recently has been formed under the command of Colonel - General Bagramian, with headquarters at Libau.

The Balticki port in Estonia, where the Red Army is said to have submarine pens and rocket-launching sites, recently has been rebuilt and made into an impregnable fortress with the aid of slave labor. It was in this general area that the unarmed U. S. Navy Privateer plane was believed shot down by the Russians last April.

Despite the MVD's widespread terror, Moscow is encountering strong opposition—frequently even armed resistance—on the part of the Balts.

In dense forests and marshy regions scores of men and even women are engaged in guerrilla skirmishes with MVD troops. For the moment, these anti-Red partisans hope to save as many people as possible from deportation. They also act to protect the local populations from excessive plundering Red Army soldiers and to aid in the escape of those blacklisted by the MVD.

The fact that, despite the vigilance of the MVD, Balts nationals continue to escape by sea testifies to the ingenuity and competence of their underground organizations and also of the widespread support they receive from the local population. Sometimes these escapes are even made with the help and connivance of individual MVD agents, my informants assert. But the Soviet blockade of the Baltic is being tightened. Even Swedish and Danish fishing vessels no longer are immune from illegal seizure in international waters.

Mass Red Purge Sweeps Baltic Coast Where U.S. Plane Fell

Abundant Living

Phil. 1:10; Jas. 1:8; Acts 5:1-11.
INSINCERITIES—ARE YOUR EARS RED?

These insincerities creep into our Christian lives. I have just been looking at a marvelous mosaic of the Last Supper where Jesus is saying that one of the disciples will betray Him. And they are all asking, "Lord, is it I?" On the mosaic all the ears of the disciples are red, but those of Judas are a little redder! When Jesus raises the question of betrayal, we point to Judas with indignation. Our indignation covers up our own betrayals.

If you want to find out a man's weak points, note the failings in others for which he has the quickest eye. We can defend our own inconsistencies because we compartmentalize life — our religion, functions in one part, but doesn't go over into the other parts. The workers in a woolen mill struck to get a washroom so that they could wash off the grime and dirt before going home. When the matter was put up to the proprietor, his reply was, "What they need is a revival of religion." And one was started!

A YWCA secretary urged upon an employer the necessity of giving sufficient pay to his girl employees so that they could pay even the rates of board of the YWCA hostel. "No," said the proprietor, "but we will increase our gifts to the YWCA." He was willing to be charitable, but unwilling to be just. He would allow his religion to function as charity, but was utterly unwilling to have it function as justice.

South India proverb says: "I will love you as my own child, provided you do not ask me for food and clothing." Again, an Indian proverb speaks of "Hathi ke dant," the elephant's teeth—one set for show, the other set for chewing—the hidden motives we keep in the rear. The motto of Cortez, the Spanish freebooter, was, "For God and gold." God was first on the motto, but gold was first in the freebooter's affections. The thing that is important and decisive is not what is in our affections, but what is in our actions.

O Thou Crystal Christ, probe deep within my heart and find there the hidden infections of insincerity. Drain them to the last poisonous drop, lest they poison my whole system. Make me clean within of every hidden contradiction, for I want to be harmonious and effective. In Thy name. Amen.

Hotel Guests Great Guys, But Problems, Say Those Who Know

DENVER (AP)—Take it from the men who should know, the average hotel guest is a great guy. He pays the bills for a billion-dollar business. But he can drive you stark, raving mad.

He can be—and often is—a tippler, a thief or a sentimental slob. He'll keep other guests awake, flood their rooms from his overflowing bathtubs and chase them down the hall.

That's one of the reasons hotel rates are high: The guest not only is paying for a room, service and convenience. He's paying for towels, ash trays and light bulbs he plans in his suitcase. He's helping repair the furniture he burns and stains. He's paying for detective service, damage suits and business lost from bad publicity.

You'd think, to hear them tell about it, that the 500 delegates to the fortieth annual convention of the Hotel Greeters of America—the men who should know—are in the worst business in the land.

Not at all. Most of them wouldn't trade their jobs and ulcers for any other way of losing sleep and making a living.

Not Ready to Quit

Take A. F. Spatafora. He's the manager of the Hotel Monteleone in New Orleans. He started in the business as a 13-year-old bellboy 46 years ago. Spatafora claps his hand dramatically to his forehead when you mention troubles—but he plans to stay in the business a while more.

Spatafora still is afraid of ghosts, a hangover from his bellhopping days when a seven-foot character with a long beard used to call for Spatafora to find his teeth. Spatafora finally located them—in a spittoon.

Of course, the managers insist, the guests in their own particular hotels aren't like the others; they're all very nice. The delegates—guests themselves for four days—also are models of propriety. They admit it.

GOP Convention Slated At Galveston

PORT WORTH (AP)—The State Republican Convention will be held August 8 at Galveston.

The executive committee made the selection Monday. The committee will meet August 7 to name temporary officers.

Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth, committee chairman, predicted 95 per cent of Texas' 254 counties would be represented.

"We'll nominate a full state ticket and some congressional and legislative candidates," he said.

From A to Z they all agree—

It nevertheless is regarded as significant that—since Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia have been incorporated into the U. S. S. R.—the Kremlin is now faced with armed resistance inside the Soviet borders.

First Car of the Land

TO THOSE who have made careful comparisons of all the fine cars, there is no question about the present leadership of the new Lincoln Cosmopolitan. Its superbly distinctive styling... its luxurious "Salon-Styled" interior... its magnificently superior "Invincible Eight" performance leave no doubt as to that! And its distinguished ownership is even more strongly convincing that it is definitely The First Car of The Land today. Why not verify this yourself—at the wheel of a new Lincoln Cosmopolitan?

Fresh Fears Of Inflation Bring Bipartisan Moves Toward Balancing Budget

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Fresh fears of inflation prompted bipartisan proposals Tuesday that Congress get busy on the job of balancing the budget.

Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) told a reporter he regards the threat of inflation caused by rises in wholesale prices as serious, but possibly not dangerous.

"It strengthens the case for reducing expenditures and balancing the cash budget—that's the best inflation brake"—said Douglas, who agrees with the Truman Administration on about everything but its monetary policies.

Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, said in a separate interview that a vigorous drive is going to be made in the Senate to cut appropriations back to the point of government revenue.

Deficit Mounts Steadily

"We are adding steadily to the inflationary trend with a deficit that is running about half a billion dollars a month," he said.

Douglas suggested that the Federal Reserve Board wait a month or two to see how the price trend progresses. If prices still are going up then, he said the board ought to sell securities in the open market to force government bonds down slightly.

"I would hope that the Treasury, on the other hand, wouldn't insist on supporting bond prices and would let them fall slightly," he said.

The Senate Judiciary Committee voted Monday to make an investigation of gasoline prices. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), who sponsored the move, said in a statement that the country is in a period of creeping inflation to which gasoline price increases are contributing.

Taft said the Senate's economy drive is likely to take the form of a substitute for the Taft and Jensen amendments which cut the House-approved single-package appropriation bill to an estimated $28,890,000,000.

One-Party Bill Bogged

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, told reporters Administration strategists are convinced that the one-package bill won't do the job it was intended to do.

"We'll go back to separate appropriation bills in the next session of Congress," he predicted.

He indicated President Truman is in accord with this idea.

The one-package approach was sponsored by Senator Byrd (D-Va.), Congress' chief economy advocate. While it turned up some blanket budget cuts in the House, it has bogged down in the Senate Appropriations Committee for weeks.

Indications are that the committee won't be able to bring it before the Senate for several more weeks.

With most of the government's domestic spending involved, the measure may provoke a month's debate in the Senate—a prospect disliked by Lucas and others who want Congress to quit early in August.

Taft said he would oppose any move to return to the old method of handling separate appropriation bills.

"It's much easier to make a cut when all the money is lumped in one bill," he said.

House Approval Of Local Option Rent Control Bill Seen

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Swift House passage of legislation controlling federal rent controls on a local option basis was predicted confidently by Democratic leaders Tuesday, after the Senate rammed through the compromise measure on a 36 to 28 vote.

The bill, which would keep alive the last of the major wartime controls on approximately 8,000,000 dwelling units, mostly in big cities, would work like this:

1. The Federal Rent Control Authority, due to expire June 30, would continue for a year.
2. But the controls would cease automatically in six months, on December 31, in all communities that before that date did not decide affirmatively, through a vote of the local governing body or a referendum of the citizens, to continue the rent ceilings on to June 30, 1951.
3. Any community could vote itself out from under controls any time before December 31. No community could restore controls after they were lifted.

House Speaker Rayburn (D-Texas) told President Truman he is confident the house will pass the bill. The Administration had asked for a straight extension of the present law, but Banking Committee Chairman Spence (D-Ky.), a strong Administration supporter, said the compromise local option bill "in my opinion is the best we can get through the House."

Church Authorities To Check Talks By Pastor Niemoeller

BERLIN — (AP) — Evangelical Church authorities are investigating recent speeches of the Rev. Martin Niemoeller to determine if he is defending communism.

Niemoeller, a German submarine captain in World War I and was imprisoned by the Nazis in a concentration camp during the last war.

He now is president of the Evangelical Church in the State of Hesse, in the American occupation zone.

Communist and non-Communist Berlin newspapers quoted him making these statements in speeches at Mannheim Friday and at Rueselsdorf Sunday:

"Whoever condemns the Communists because of their ideology is anti-Christ."

In Awkward Position

"Communists are called to be children of God."

"Christ might say today 'The Communists and the harlots may go to heaven before you do.'"

The press officer for Bishop Otto Dibelius, president of the Council of Evangelical Churches for all Germany and Niemoeller's primate, said remarks by Niemoeller in the past had put the church in an awkward position.

"If it develops that reports of the recent speeches are accurate, the church council must regard them as a serious matter," he said.

The Protestant Evangelical Church of East Germany now is fighting what it calls Communist coercion in the Russian zone. The Communist press seized on Niemoeller's reported statements for propaganda.

Blueshirts Break Up Election Rally

DUESSELDORF, GERMANY — (AP) — Communist blueshirt youths, swinging chairs, rushed an election rally platform here Monday night and broke up a meeting of the right-wing Free Democratic Party.

They prevented a speech by a former German tank general, Hanso-Eccard von Manteuffel, who wants West Germany to be included in Western Europe's defense system, and German sovereignty recognized.

The meeting was a rally for next Sunday's provincial elections in the Ruhr State of North Rhine-Westphalia.

One policeman was injured when the 30 Communist youths started the melee. Von Manteuffel walked out. Police ordered him not to speak, to prevent further incidents.

One Man Killed, Another Wounded In Shotgun Battle

GONZALES, TEXAS — (AP) — One man was killed and another critically wounded in a shotgun battle Monday night.

Deputy Sheriff L. D. Buchanan said Walter Knabel, about 60, and I. W. (Dutch) Hutcherson, about 60, argued briefly, got shotguns and a blazed away from about 30 feet.

Knabel died a short time later.

Buchanan said Knabel apparently fired twice. Then, wounded in the right leg and right side of his stomach, Hutcherson opened fire. His shotgun pellets riddled Knabel's left arm and the left side of his upper body.

Four Bank Officers Plead Innocent To Embezzlement Charge

SHERMAN — (AP) — Four former Paris bank officers have pleaded innocent to federal charges of embezzlement and false entries.

No trial date has been set.

The four are Alfred Kidd, Morris Flemming, William H. Snow and Ann Marshall.

They appeared before Judge Randolph Bryant Monday.

A federal grand jury at Tyler indicted the four February 20 on 33 counts charging embezzlement and misapplication of funds and false entries.

Previous indictments have been returned at Paris. Federal district Attorney Warren G. Moore of Paris said then the government alleged about $70,000 was involved.

Frank Cummings' string band will accompany the delegation. Two other booster trips, by the Rotary Club and the Sheriff's posse, also are scheduled.

Jess Burner, Pecos rancher and rodeo fan, recently sold two carloads of steers for rodeo use to buyers in Red Lodge, Montana, and Twin Falls, Idaho. Purchasers told Burner they were unable to find wild cattle elsewhere.

Texas A&M exes from Fort Stockton, Marfa, Monahans, Pecos, Balmorhea and Navasota attended the barbecue-dance Friday, sponsored by the Reeves County Club. The barbecue was held at the Splitgarber Slab west of Toyahvale, but rain forced the dance indoors to the Balmorhea Country Club. Ninety exes attended.

The Pecos Valley Chapter of the Red Cross is to be open only one hour a day as a result of falling short of the collection goal in the recent drive. The decision was announced by directors following a meeting Thursday. Mrs. Beulah Wilson, executive secretary, has been retained on a part-time basis.

Midlander Installs Heads Of McCamey Lions Club At Organization's Annual Ladies Night

By DALMON McNAIR
Reporter-Telegram Staff

McCAMEY — C. Ed Prichard, president-elect of the Midland Lions Club, installed the 1950-51 officers of the McCamey Lions Club Monday night in the Park Building here.

It was an annual Ladies night event and a crowd of about 60 persons saw the losing team of a recent attendance and activity contest present a fun program preceding the dinner-meeting.

Led by W. H. Carter, the losing Lions paraded across the stage in a 1950 model "bathing beauty contest." Derwood Langsdon, treasurer-elect; Charles C. Langdon, newly-elected member of the board of directors, and Dr. Boyd Nibling, assistant tall twister, were judged the best looking "bathing beauties."

C. W. Brown, McCamey mayor and outgoing Lions president, was master of ceremonies for the program. A highlight of the event was the presentation of the past president's pin to Brown by H. E. Stoker. Stoker praised the work of Brown during the last year and expressed the appreciation of the club for his efforts.

Brown was given a rising vote of thanks by all members present. He held the group the Lions Club in McCamey through the years has contributed much to the welfare of the community.

The Lions Club here was chartered in 1928 and long has been one of the best-known and most active service clubs in this area.

Prichard, while installing the new officers and directors, charged them with their responsibilities during the year ahead and urged unity and cooperation among members.

"If you new officers will get the job done as well as your predecessors, the Lions Club will continue to be of great benefit to your community," he said.

James R. Rutherford is the new Lions Club president. Other officers include E. R. Sharp, Horace Slaughter and W. H. Carter, vice presidents; Roy T. Smith, secretary; Langsdon, treasurer; E. F. Wesner, Lion Tamer; R. M. Zimmerman, tall twister, and Dr. Boyd Nibling, assistant tall twister.

Zimmerly, who was re-elected to his post, was presented a new collection plate, complete with horn and bell for "ringing up the cash." He immediately fined Brown 20 cents for making "derogatory remarks."

New directors are Brown, Langsdon, Jesse Russell, Jack Knox and Oliver Jacobsen.

Shivers Urges More Interest in County, Precinct Conventions

AUSTIN —(P)—Lack of interest in political party action at the precinct level would make it "quite probable" an organized minority would gain party control this year, Gov. Allan Shivers said Monday night.

Shivers urged in his weekly political broadcast that voters attend Democratic precinct conventions the same day as the first primary election, July 22.

He said persons who hold precinct and county conventions hold the power at the state level. State conventions certify party nominees, write party platforms and select the State Executive Committee.

Shivers termed the state committee "the most important political body in Texas because it controls and directs all of the affairs of the Democratic Party on the state level."

Strike Suspends New York Daily

NEW YORK —(P)—The World-Telegram and Sun missed its first edition Tuesday and officials said they doubted they could publish because APL printers refused to cross a picket line of the striking CIO American Newspaper Guild.

A statement issued by Lee B. Wood, executive editor, and N. S. MacNeish, business manager, said: "The printers did not cross the picket lines and the obvious fact at the present moment is we cannot print."

In addition to the main plant of the newspaper, three other plants were picketed.

Arkansas produces about 90 per cent of the nation's bauxite and also contains the only diamond mine in the United States.

In ancient Greece and Rome it was the fashion not to sit at tables as we do, but to recline on couches, while eating.

WAITING FOR A GREEN LIGHT—The Rev. Meyer Imperiale of Melrose, Mass., is an ordained minister waiting for a call that will give him a permanent pastorate. In the meantime, he is supporting himself and family by working as a signman for the Boston and Maine Railroad. Imperiale is seen tending his crossing.

Noconans To Protest Two Court Rulings

NOCONA, TEXAS —(P)—About 150 persons met Monday night to protest recent U. S. Supreme Court rulings taking the Tideland from Texas and opening the University of Texas to negroes.

A. V. Grant, a Montague County attorney who called the meeting, explained the conditions under which Texas entered the union and urged citizens to write government officials protesting.

"Raise a fuss," he urged. Grant said that "by literally showering members of the court, President Truman and his staff and congressmen, Texas might get the rulings reversed."

UN Approaches Goal On 'Point Four' Aid Despite Red Boycott

LAKE SUCCESS —(P)—Despite a Soviet boycott, the United Nations Conference on Technical Assistance to Backward Areas Tuesday appeared certain to reach its goal of $20,000,000.

As the worldwide meeting moved into its second day, 15 nations already had pledged $16,000,000 and the United States was ready to give another $2,000,000 if the other countries would contribute $2,000,000 more.

Although most of the large countries already had made their pledges, UN officials said they expected contributions from at least 15 to 20 other countries. Fifty-one nations attended the opening session of the three-day meeting.

Two Main Developments

The opening day was marked by two significant developments apart from the series of speeches announcing contributions:

Russia and eight other Communist member present, tried unsuccessfully to get the conference to invite Red China.

2. Many delegates to the conference, as well as UN Secretary General Trygve Lie, praised President Truman for giving the expanded technical program impetus by announcing his support in the famous "Point Four" of his 1949 inaugural address.

In addition to the United States offer to contribute $10,000,000 to $12,500,000, other leading contributors on the opening day included:

France $1,200,000, Britain $2,100,000, Netherlands $400,000, Belgium $270,000, Venezuela $40,000, Bolivia $50,000, Ethiopia $20,000, Norway $50,000, Brazil $400,000, Pakistan $140,000, Canada $350,000, Australia $400,000, Iran $40,000 and Yugoslavia $50,000.

FAREWELL FROM NUMBER 4003—Dr. John W. Lauck, 75, of Maple Hill, Kans., retiring after 52 years of rural medical practice, gets a farewell smile from three-month-old Cheryl Marie Oliver, the 4003rd and last baby he delivered. Holding the baby is her mother, Mrs. Robert Oliver. Friends and patients held a giant farewell party honoring the doctor on his retirement.

Additional Expansion Of Atom, H-Bomb Plans Seen

WASHINGTON —(P)—A still larger expansion of the A-bomb and H-bomb program may be recommended by the Senate-House Atomic Committee.

This was indicated Tuesday by lawmakers who reported that the subject had come up in a closed door meeting of the committee with members of the Atomic Energy Commission.

One member predicted the committee would go along with any new request from the commission. He asked not to be quoted by name. Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), chairman of the committee, has said in public twice recently he thought the nation ought to spend more of its defense money on atomic weapons.

Still More Billions

The atomic program cost an estimated $2,000,000,000 to perfect the first bomb, and billions more have been spent since. Last year, after the announcement of the Russian atomic explosion, President Truman approved an accelerated atomic expansion program costing $200,000,000. Since that expansion go-ahead, Truman has also directed continued work toward the more powerful hydrogen bomb.

Lawmakers who reported the new expansion discussion said no figure was estimated for this venture, but it could run well into hundreds of millions of dollars.

Endorsement of the project by the Senate-House Atomic Committee would not provide any money, but could be counted on to weigh heavily with the Appropriations Committees.

New Defense Weapons

There was no comment from the Atomic Commission.

In another report on preparedness, The Washington Post said Tuesday the U. S. Army has a "new stable of defensive weapons on the way" that can be "a tremendous trump card in defenses of the West." The Post story said: "They are being counted on to partially replace the atomic bomb as a major deterrent against a Soviet attack on Western Europe and to help stop such an assault if it comes."

"Besides atomic artillery and guided missiles with atom warheads recently mentioned as under development by top Army officials, two more conventional answers to Russia's 40,000 tanks and multi-million man army are on the way."

It named one of the anti-tank weapons as light recoilless rifles firing hollow shaped shells and a new "squash head" projectile which aims at knocking out a tank not by punching a hole in it but by the blast effect."

Three Killed As Giant Helicopter Crashes In Tryout

SOUTHAMPTON —(P)—A 24-passenger Cierva Air Horse helicopter—described as the world's biggest—crashed and burned on a test flight Tuesday. The pilot and two passengers were killed.

The plane has an all-metal fuselage and is powered by three huge rotors, each with three blades.

The Air Horse, still in the experimental stage, is designed as a tri-ple-purpose helicopter — to carry passengers, haul freight and spray crops.

The machine was only a few hundred feet off the ground when it dived. It was a blazing mass by the time firemen arrived. Cause of the accident was not determined immediately.

Girls To Take Over State Posts Saturday

AUSTIN —(P)—Austin will become the capital city of another mythical forty-ninth state Wednesday and girls will hold every public office.

More than 250 girls from every part of Texas will participate in Bluebonnet Girls State, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The Legion last week held its annual Boys State here. Both are workshops in government and citizenship for youth.

Gov. Allan Shivers will address the girls Thursday at 11 a.m. Primary elections, for every state office, will be held Thursday night, with balloting in the general election set for Friday.

The officers will be sworn into office at 1:15 p.m. Saturday by Meade Griffin, associate justice of the State Supreme Court.

Auto Salesman Sets Light Plane Record

SAN PEDRO, CALIF. —(P)—Charles W. Soderstrom is back selling automobiles Tuesday after establishing a coast-to-coast non-stop flight record for light planes.

The 37-year-old airman landed at Los Angeles International Airport Monday night. He made the return trip from La Guardia Field, New York, in 19 hours, 23 minutes, 56 seconds.

Last week he flew from here to New York in 16 hours, 10 minutes. There is no official record for his type of plane over the routes.

Cottonseed Price Prop Called Fantastic By Crusher Spokesman

SAN ANTONIO —(P)—The federal government may have to buy up all the 1950 cottonseed crop if it sets a support price of 90 per cent of parity at a Texas cotton meeting heard Tuesday.

Such a support price is unrealistic, said T. H. Gregory of Memphis, executive vice president of the National Cotton Seed Products Association. His address was prepared for the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers Association convention.

Ninety per cent of parity would mean about $60 a ton at the gin, Gregory said.

"This is above what even the most optimistic believe could be justified by market values," he declared. "If such an unrealistic level of price support should be attempted, it is quite likely that the government would own the entire cottonseed crop."

Indians Sweep Doubleheader From Big Spring Broncs

HOGAN WINS OPEN—Plucky Ben Hogan, left, who has made a spectacular comeback from a serious automobile accident a year ago, receives the winner's trophy from James D. Standish, president of the U. S. Golf Association after he won the National Open at Ardmore, Pa. Lloyd Mangrum, whom Hogan defeated in the playoff, applauds the champion.

Same Club To Open Big Set Here Monday Night

The Midland Indians—the new Midland Indians, that is—open a three-game series with the Big Spring Broncs at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday in Indian Park.

Ken Carley or LeRoy Jarl will hurt for Midland against the Broncs' Bert Baes or Emil Cano.

BIG SPRING—It was the NEW MIDLAND INDIANS who took the field here Monday night and did a double about-face over their poor Sunday showing. The Tribe stuck a torch to the Big Spring Broncs and hustled off with both ends of a doubleheader, by scores of 6-2 and 4-1.

The Indians moved all the way from sixth to a fourth place tie with San Angelo. The loss kicked Big Spring to undisputed sixth place.

Ralph Blair, making his first start in weeks, left nothing to be desired in the first game. He set the Broncs down with six hits and struck out a like number.

Pleasant to watch and worth a million to the fans who followed the Indians here from Midland, was the Tribe's hitting and fielding. Every man was strictly on the beam.

While Blair was blanking the Broncs, the Indian batting order was getting him some runs.

Real Batting Punch
Lou Dawson opened the fourth with a single and promptly stole second. Jim Prince singled him to third and George Firnback doubled Dawson home. It was the old one, two, three punch working.

Three Broncs errors were more than enough to let Prince and Firnback score.

Blair didn't stop there. The Indians fought on in the fifth. Blair opened with a single to aid his own cause. Mike Bellone, a holy terror all night, doubled Blair around. Jim Prince singled Bellone home and then scored on the Broncs' fourth error of the game.

George Lopez clouted a homer with one on in the Big Spring seventh to spoil Blair's shutout. But it really didn't matter because the Indians had put up a winning fight.

Base Shines
Great fielding was turned in by Quentin Basco at third base. He grabbed three liners which would have gone for extra bases. He turned one into a fast double play.

The second game was a pitchers' duel between the old Broncs killer, Glen Patton, and the Big Spring ace, Bert Garcia. But, with sparkling support, Patton took the decision with ease in the end.

The Broncs got runners on base in both the first and second innings but each time a double play cut them down. Mike Bellone started two of the twin killings and Patton started another, which came later.

Open Scoring
Midland broke the scoring ice in the third. Patton turned "big man" with a stick" and opened with a single. He moved to second on an infield out and up came Bellone again, this time with a double that scored Patton.

Patton protected his one-run lead religiously until the sixth. George Lopez opened with a double and Pat Stasey, the league's leading hitter, plated him with a single. That tied the ball game.

Did it worry the Indians? It worried them so much they went out in the top of the eighth and scored three runs to ice the tilt.

That man again—Mike Bellone. He clouted a home run over the left field wall which actually was the winning run.

But a few more wouldn't hurt. The Indians decided. So, with two out, George Firnback walked and Tex Stephenson whammed a long double to center field and George came all the way around.

Bob Phillion followed with a single to send Stephenson across and that was it.

Patton put the finishing touches on by striking out Pat Stasey to end the ball game.

And everybody was extremely happy—except the sixth-place Big Spring Broncs.

STICK WORK—A touch of lip stick and Polly Riley was ready for the celebration after winning the Trans-Mississippi Women's Golf Tournament medal for the third time. The Fort Worth miss shot a one-over par 74 over Dallas' Lakewood Country Club course.

Standard, Plastic Win Tilts

A Church League doubleheader is on tap Tuesday night at Wadley Field. Lutheran Church meets First Presbyterian in the opener at 7:45 p.m. and the Methodist Fellowship Class tangles with First Baptist in the nightcap.

An Optimist League tilt will be played at 8 p.m.

Standard of Texas and Western Plastic took decisions in City Major League softball games played Monday night at Wadley Field.

Standard was forced to battle hard to whip Shell 6 to 1 while Western Plastic had an easy time clipping The Reporter-Telegram 14 to 4.

Standard jumped on Shell's Jack Smith for four runs on two hits and two errors in the first inning and coasted to victory. Milt Montgomery hurled a three-hitter to protect his margin.

Shell's only run came in the third on hits by James Griffin and Chappell and an error. Standard had picked up one in the second and one in the third for insurance.

Western Plastic took the lead in the nightcap with two runs in the second and never was headed. Walks and errors accounted for the two off Kitchens, Reporter-Telegram starter.

Leroy Collyer came on to relieve and was touched for two in the third, one each in the fifth and sixth and seven in the seventh.

Jack Dunlap, Plastic hurler, and Joe King clouted home runs for the winners.

Reporter-Telegram scored one in the fourth and three in the seventh.

Connie Mack To Be Special Guest At All-Star Classic

CHICAGO—(AP)—Connie Mack, baseball's grand old man, will be in a special Cimskey Park box, bedecked with ribbons, at the major league's seventeenth annual All-Star Game July 11.

Observing his Golden Anniversary in major league baseball, Mack will be an honorary manager and toss out the first ball to start the game.

American League President Will Harridge has disclosed that the venerable, 87-year-old leader of the Philadelphia Athletics will be guest of honor at the classic.

Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees and Burt Shotton of the Brooklyn Dodgers will direct the American and National Leagues. Each squad will be limited to 25 players. All but the pitchers will be selected in a nationwide poll of fans which opened Tuesday. The respective managers choose their twirling staffs.

MAJOR LEAGUES—Yankees, Boston Need Mound Help To Stop Detroit

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Seriously disturbed by Detroit's solid strength, the New York Yankees remained hopeful Tuesday of making a major deal before the Thursday midnight deadline.

The world champions have more respect than ever for the Tigers after watching them bounce back from two Yankee Stadium defeats to win the finale and then sweep three straight at Boston.

Many of the Yanks now regard the Tigers instead of the Red Sox as "the team to beat."

Boston lost plenty of prestige by dropping four in a row after rolling up that 29-4 record score on St. Louis last week.

Pitching is the big Yankee problem. It's the same story in Boston. The difference is that New York owns excess talent that could help other clubs.

Yanks Could Swap
In that category go Second Baseman George Starnweiss, Catcher Ralph Houk or Gus Niarhos, Pitcher Don Johnson and an outfielder.

The Yankee pitching situation is desperate. Johnson, sidelined by a skin ailment, remained in New York when the club headed west. That left Casey Stengel with seven pitchers, including Joe Page and Duane Pillette, the latter just recalled from Kansas City. Page, troubled by a sinus condition, has pitched only one inning since June 3.

Glance At Records
A look at the June records emphasizes Detroit's sizzling pace. Although they still trail the Yanks by a half game in the won and lost columns, they're out front by .002 in percentage points.

Since they left Briggs Stadium, the Tigers have won 10 and lost two. It is well known that Detroit is a superior road team. Now they dig in at home for 16 games, starting with three against the Philadelphia's.

The Red Sox, winning only six of 11 at Fenway Park against the west, ventures into the badlands where they have failed so miserably in the past. First stop for the Sox, now tied for fourth, is Cleveland. Then comes Detroit.

The Yanks break in easy with three at Chicago and four at St. Louis before riding into Cleveland and Detroit on their 13-game jaunt. They took eight of 13 at the Stadium against the western teams.

Despite the telephone number scores at Boston, the St. Louis Browns won seven of 12 in the east. Now they open at home against Washington.

Rickey Needs Pitchers
With Branch Rickey still scouting the circuit for pitching help, Brooklyn comes home to play 16 games at Ebbets Field, trailing St. Louis by two full games.

Eddie Dyer's Cardinals piled up an 8-3 record at Sportsman's Park. Now they face a long tough 17-game road trip, opening in Philadelphia Tuesday night.

The New York Giants were the sensations of the league until they hit St. Louis and dropped a three-

WT-NM League Lubbock Just Can't Stand Pace, Drops Full Game Behind

By The Associated Press

Lubbock's Hubbers couldn't quite stand the pace and Tuesday they're a game behind in the West Texas-New Mexico League race.

If Lubbock had won Monday night it would have gone into a tie for the top with Borger—but the Hubbers ran afoul of Albuquerque and took a 7-2 drubbing while Borger was splitting a doubleheader with Lamesa.

Fred Besana allowed Lubbock only four hits as he knocked the Hubbers out of a share of the top spot.

Lamesa beat Borger 11-9 in the first game but the Gassers roared back for a 16-5 triumph in the nightcap, clubbing 18 hits, among which were two homers by Ted Clawitter.

Amarillo licked Abilene twice, taking the first game 7-6 and the afterpiece 3-2. The second game was a pitcher's battle with Bill Sorrells giving Abilene four hits and fanning 10 batters while Sam Hunter also pitched a four-hitter.

Pampa and Clovis split a twin bill. Pampa won the first game 7-4 on Bill Garland's eight-hit hurling while Tom Gallagher limited the Otters to three hits in giving Clovis a 6-3 triumph in the afterpiece.

Longhorn League—Indians Sweep Two As Roswell-Oilers Split; Colts Win

By The Associated Press
 Big Spring made a drop in the Longhorn League Monday night. The Broncos lost a doubleheader to Midland 6-2 and 4-1, to fall all the way from fourth to sixth.
 Otherwise things were normal in the circuit.
 Leading Odessa split a twin-bill with second-place Roswell. Ray Knoblauch won his tenth straight pitching victory of the season in elbowing Odessa to a 6-1 victory in the opener. He allowed only six hits. Roswell won the nightcap 12-6 with four home runs featuring an 11-hit attack. Clyde Bell, Cotton Lindloff, Julian Presley and Tom Jordan put the ball over the fence.
 Midland liked Big Spring with three-run spurges in the fourth and fifth innings of the first game. In the afterpiece Mike Bellone homered in the eighth to furnish the victory margin.
 Sweetwater beat Vernon 7-4, scoring three runs on four hits and two errors in the fourth inning. San Angelo got nine runs in the ninth to down Ballinger 10-9.

Westerns Defeat Eagles By 25-6

The Westerns, sponsored by the Western Company, Monday scored a 25 to 6 victory over the Eagles in a Sporthorn League game at Borden Field.
 The Eagles' hurlers had control trouble and free passes to first were frequent. The team is sponsored by the Eagles Club.
 Pope hurried the first four innings for the Westerns and got credit for the win. Garvin tossed the last three frames.
 The Rebels engage the Roughnecks at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday in another Sporthorn League tilt.

SPORTS SLANTS

by SHORTHY SHELburne

Thanks to the Midland Indians for their brilliant comeback in Monday night's doubleheader with the Big Spring Broncos. Both games were as near perfectly played as anyone could ask for.
 You are on your way now, Indians, and everyone is pleased with the hustle and fight you have started to show.
 Just keep it up. First place isn't so far away that it can't be reached with ball-playing like you presented Monday night.

It was interesting to note that the supposedly weak end of the batting order carried the team in both of Monday night's games.
 Mike Bellone was a big stickler all the way. He hit Mike Garcia just like he owned him. It was the first time we can remember when an Indian did that to Garcia.
 Scooter Hughes—they just couldn't get him out. He broke a slump that had lasted longer than he likes to remember.
 And taking no back seat to the hitting was the sparkling play of Bellone, Hughes, Quentin Basco and Jim Prince in the infield. Double plays came as often as magazine salesmen. Those fielding gems were what broke the back of every Bronc scoring threat that meant much.

The Indians have pumped themselves up from sixth to fourth now and the big chance to move up higher is at hand.
 Big Spring comes to Indian Park for a three-game series opening Tuesday night.
 We have heard several say a big barbecue can be arranged for the Midland Indians if they take those three.

When the Broncos leave—after losing three, we hope—the Indians go to San Angelo for two and that will be another big chance to make a killing.
 The Indians have done well in Quinlan Park this year, always managing to sweep or split the series. This one will be important and will help the upward climb more than any of the previous meetings.
 LeRoy Jarl, who has whipped the Colts twice in their home park, should be ready to do it again. It seems the Colts are his cousins because they never treat him too rough.
 Jarl has their number.

One lady fan called in Monday and wanted to offer her opinion of what had been wrong with the Indians as a team. She boosted the individual players but said: "Harold Webb isn't with his club half the time and the skipper must be out fighting for a win before his boys can be expected to really put out for a victory."
 It's true, Webb hasn't been with the club as much as usual this year and that isn't good.
 The lady may have something there.

Regardless of what it was, the Indians found the winning combination Monday night and they can keep it.
 Heads-up ball, hustle, fight, good pitching and extra effort in general were evident in the twin killing. That's what it takes.
 You're up now, Indians. Just hold what you had against the Broncos and you'll be tree-top high in two weeks.

Francisco Segura Wins Tennis Crown

CLEVELAND (AP)—Francisco Segura, a little fellow who wore out and whipped the two best big men in the game, is the new National Professional Tennis Champion.
 Five-foot-six, 140-pound Pancho, who will be 29 a week from Tuesday, is the first South American to win the pro net crown. He won it by defeating Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Calif. Monday night in the finals of the twenty-third National Professional Tennis Tournament.
QUALIFY FOR PUBLIX
 HOUSTON (AP)—Vernon Smith and Spiz Berg qualified for the National Public Links Golf Tournament Monday. Two positions for the tournament at Louisville, Ky., July 3-8 were open.

Maxim-Robinson May Meet In Title Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Light Heavyweight Champion Joey Maxim and Welterweight King Ray Robinson may get together in a title bout if money matters and clearance can be worked out.
 Ted Brenner, former matchmaker for the International Boxing Club's St. Nicholas Arena in New York, has offered Maxim $25,000 to defend his crown on the privilege of 40 per cent of the net gate. The bout may be staged either in Brooklyn's Ebbets Field or in Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium.

Jaffe Defies Senate Probers; Contempt Citation Considered

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators Tuesday studied the possibility of bringing contempt proceedings against Philip Jaffe for refusing to answer questions about the five-year-old Amerasia Magazine case.
 Jaffe was the editor of Amerasia when its offices were raided by federal agents who found government documents there.
 Contempt citations already have been recommended against two other witnesses who refused to answer questions put to them by members of the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee investigating Communist-in-government charges.
 They were Earl Browder, former Communist Party secretary, and Frederick Vanderbilt Field, whom Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) author of the Communist charges, has called a "Soviet agent." Field denied the accusation under oath, but declined to say whether he is or ever has been a Communist.
 Declines to Answer
 Citations against the two were recommended by Subcommittee Counsel Edward P. Morgan, but no action has been taken on either.
 In writing on the advice of O. John Rogge, his attorney, was declined to answer all but a few elementary questions on grounds the answers might be self-incriminating.
 Morgan would not disclose his intention in the Jaffe case.
 Senator Green (D-R.I.), acting chairman of the five-member committee, told a news conference Jaffe had refused to answer all questions about Amerasia. Green added that Jaffe also refused to say whether he knew any of 20 persons whose names were put to him.
 Morgan's question as to whether Jaffe is, or ever has been, a member of the Communist Party, also went unanswered, Green said.
 Green said Jaffe answered only the "most elementary" questions. These produced his name, residence, the fact that he owned a home in Stamford, Conn., and several answers relating to his political voting record.

Musial Pulls Ahead In National Batting

NEW YORK (AP)—Stan Musial is pulling away again in the National League batting race. With about one-third of the season in the records, the St. Louis Cardinal first baseman holds a 37-point lead.
 Although Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson, the 1949 champ, replaced Pittsburgh's Johnny Hopp in second place during the week, Musial widened his lead. Stan is hitting .384, on averages including Sunday's games, and Robinson is batting .347.

Athletics Will Not Be Sold This Season

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics will not be sold this season.
 But the Philadelphia American League club managed by Connie Mack during its 50-year history still is for sale at the right price, the club owners announced Monday.
 James P. Clark, trucking executive and president of the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League, reiterated a syndicate he heads is preparing an offer.
 A management statement said the club owners will listen to any bona-fide offers when they are presented.
 Mack and his three sons, Roy, Earle and Connie, Jr., own 58 per cent of the club stock. The other 42 per cent is owned by the heirs of the late Benjamin Shibe.

Boston Red Sox Dominate Batting

CHICAGO (AP)—The Boston Red Sox are proving emphatically that it takes more than power at the plate to top the American League. They have five regulars among the leading ten batters—but still are in third place, 5 1/2 games out of first.
 Detroit's third sacker, George Kell, who shaded Ted Williams for the 1949 batting crown, has wormed into the lead with .381.
 Only three Boston regulars are out of the top ten but remain definite contenders in the batting race. Catcher Birdie Tebbetts and Shortstop Vern Stephens are in the 300 bracket, and Second Baseman Bobby Doerr is approaching that figure after a slump.

West Texas Oil And Gas Log—

This wildcat is five miles north of the nearest upper Clear Fork production and it is about one mile from the closest lower Clear Fork oil wells.

Location is 555.3 feet from north and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 14, block A, pal survey, 1.2 four miles north of the town of Goldsmith.

Amcan No. 1 Blakeney topped the Clear Fork at 5,330 feet. It drilled to 5,565 feet and took a four hour drillem test at 5,365-5,565 feet.

Gas showed at the surface in one hour and continued in a good blow for the remainder of the period. No Water Recovered

Recovery was 600 feet of oil and gas out drilling mud and 4,800 feet of clean oil.

After one and one half stands of the drill pipe had been broken down the well unloaded oil to the pits for about one and one half hours.

Final recovery was 18 stands of oil with a little drilling mud in the bottom. There was no formation water.

Operator plans to drill 200 feet deeper, then run a drillem test on section 20, block 41, T&P survey, T-4-S. It is a west offset to the discovery well of the field.

Strawn Extension Assured In Scurry

L. H. Armer and Gaylord H. Chism, both of Fort Worth, have developed commercial oil and gas production from the Strawn line at their No. 1 C. M. Lyons, North-Central Scurry County wildcat, four miles north of the town of Snyder.

That exploration ran a five-hour drillem test at 7,456-7,504 feet in the Strawn. It was named the surface in five minutes, and oil started flowing out at the surface in 35 minutes.

The oil was run to tanks for four hours and it gauged 180 barrels. There was no formation water.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 2,350 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure after one hour was 3,100 pounds.

Deep Pool In Chaves Gets Second Producer

Honolulu Oil Corporation has completed its No. 1 State, as the second producer from the Siluro-Devonian in the new Chisholm field in Central-Southeast Chaves County, New Mexico.

The well is about 18 miles southeast of Roswell, 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 13-11a-27e, and one-quarter of the east of the same company's No. 1 State, the pool operator.

Honolulu No. 3 State reported a calculated 24-hour potential of 1,763 barrels of oil. That was based on an actual 12-hour flow of 881.6 barrels of oil through open two-inch tubing. Gravity was 41.6 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was 79-1.

Opening casing pressure for the 12-hour flow was 280 pounds. Opening tubing pressure was 350 pounds. Casing pressure at the end of the 12 hours was 110 pounds and tubing pressure at the end of the test was 100 pounds.

The 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented at 5,499 feet. Total depth is at 5,582 feet. The one hole had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid and then treated with 2,000 gallons and with 8,000 gallons of regular acid. No formation water was developed. The new oil well is now on regular production.

'Sweetie' Peck Gets First Wolfcamp Well

First commercial production from the Wolfcamp zone in the Permian in the 'Sweetie' Peck multiphase field in Southwest Midland County has been developed by Norwood Drilling Company No. 1-W Josie Peck.

From perforations at 9,808-9,992 feet, it produced for 222 barrels of 58-gravity oil and no water in 24 hours. Production was through a 20-64th-inch choke. Gas-oil ratio was 7,682-1.

This producer already has been completed from the Pennsylvanian zone for 607.89 barrels of 45.2-gravity oil daily. This production is coming from open hole at 10,328-10,467 feet.

Rutherford Schedules Reinecke Pay Stepout

P. R. Rutherford of Houston has staked on one-location northwest stepped to the Reinecke-Canyon pool in Southeast Borden County.

Rutherford No. 3-B T. L. Griffin will be 660 feet from west and 1,667 feet from south lines of section 59, block 25, H&TC survey.

The proposed venture is one-location north of the Rutherford No. 1-B Griffin, recently completed for 180 barrels of oil daily through a 3/4th-inch choke.

Production from 6,970-6,990 feet. Operations on the No. 3-B Griffin are to begin immediately.

Second Clairemont Well Is Completed

Official completion of the second well in the Clairemont-Lower Pennsylvanian pool in Central Kent County has been filed with the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Sun Oil Company No. 1 D. G. Sampson potentiated naturally for 201.62 barrels of 39.2-gravity oil daily. No water was developed, and flow was through a 13/64th-inch choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 534-1. Production is from open hole between 6,748 and total depth of 6,781 feet. Seven-inch casing is set at 6,744 feet.

The No. 1 Sampson is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 9, block 98, H&TC survey, and one-half mile south of the town of Clairemont.

Strawn Test Staked In E-C Runnels Area

In East-Central Runnels County seven miles southeast of Winters, O. W. Killam of Laredo has filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas to drill 3,950-foot wildcat.

Killam No. 1 W. W. Early is 1,650 feet northwest of the same operator's No. 1 J. Pettus Knight, recently completed Strawn gas producer.

The proposed venture will be 800 feet from north and 387 feet from east lines of a 100-acre lease in the northwest corner of section 346, BBB&C survey. Slated depth should test the Strawn formation.

The No. 1 Knight was completed for five million cubic feet of gas daily through a 3/4th-inch choke. Production is from perforations at 3,958-3,968 feet. It is now shut-in.

Eilenburger Wildcat Staked In S-C Coke

Operations are scheduled to begin immediately on a projected 6,400-foot wildcat in South-Central Coke County.

Deep Rock Oil Corporation and other No. 1 E. E. Crowley will be four and three-fourths miles southeast of Robert Lee.

Exact location is to be 330 feet from north and east lines of subdivision 3, Caldwell County school land survey abstract 46.

Harris Drilling Company of Wichita Falls has the drilling contract. Slated depth should take the prospector into the Eilenburger in that area. Location is three miles west and slightly north of Shamrock Oil & Gas Corporation No. 1 H. G. Wendland, a small pumping discovery from the Eilenburger.

Texaco Stakes Two More In Cogdell

The Texas Company has staked two more explorations in the Cogdell-Canyon pool in extreme Central-North Scurry County.

Texaco No. 40 P. L. Fuller will be 1,985 feet from north and 1,984 feet from east lines of section 705, block 91, H&TC survey, and 18 miles northeast of Snyder.

Texaco No. 41 Fuller is to be 600 feet from west and 1,989 feet from north lines of section 615, block 97, H&TC survey.

Approximate depth for each of the two projects is 7,000 feet. One For Kelley-Snyder

Dunlap's

Bond Asked—

(Continued From Page One) to relieve the critical situations now existing. He said the present sewer system disposal plant are inadequate to take care of present needs and that the sewer problem is the most critical one facing the city today.

Wholesale Basis

Neely recommended going ahead with the expansion and improvement program on a wholesale basis, stating his belief it will be cheaper in the long run to proceed with one big project continuing over a five-year period. He said the bonds, if approved, will be sold only as needed to carry the program to completion.

Questions Answered

Questions concerning interest rates, sale of the bonds over a five year period and immediate needs of the city were answered.

City Officials Said Detailed Figures on Each Proposal Will Be Available Soon

The Chamber directors favored the prompt circulation of petitions asking that city and county elections be called.

Too Little or Too Much Salt in the Human Body Interferes with the Work of the Cells in Throwing off Bodily Wastes.

the proposals and answered questions from the floor. In discussing the city's continued growth, he said the city last month made 115 water connections, indicating a gain in population of at least 450 persons.

Judge Keith outlined the position of the Commissioners Court in the overall program and said the court is ready and willing to submit the proposal to a vote of the people. He said the issuance of the bonds undoubtedly would result in an increase in the county's bond rate for the time being, but that increased valuations from oil developments should bring reduced tax rates in a few years.

Neely explained the city's $2,775,000 water and sewer program could be financed by the issuance of revenue bonds, and the remaining $400,000 for other improvements by tax supported bonds. Midland has no revenue bonds outstanding at this time.

The mayor said the additional tax-supported bonds should not require an increase in the present tax rate, but that an increase in water rates almost certainly will be necessitated to service and retire the huge bonds.

In discussing and recommending the huge bond proposals, Mayor Neely stated that he is not seeking reelection as mayor.

Robert L. Wood, Chamber of Commerce president, in opening the meeting, said the time has come for Midland to meet its opportunities or pass them up.

"Our problems can be solved progressively or left dormant," Wood stated. "It is up to us as citizens of Midland."
