Stars' Styles Show Full Calves As One Big Beef Is Registered

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Polish up the eyeglasses, boys—movie queens are about to show their game again. Maybe it's the war scare and the need of the male moviegoer to gaze at a well-rounded calf, but movie costume designer Elio Jensen is already whacking skirts off just below the kneecap on her sketch board.

"It will mean that some stars will have to start hiding behind the couch again, but legs are on their way back," Elio told me on the set of "Illegal Bride." Ginger Rogers and Joan Davis are wearing the shortest skirts of the year in this picture.

Donald O'Connor has been notified that his next picture for UI will be a "Francis" sequel. Here's the inside of the deal made by the studio with publisher David Stern, the mule's creator. Stern was paid $50,000 for control of television, screen and books right and will receive $10,000 when he completes the sequel to the first hee-hawer. If "Francis" is around two years from now, Stern receives another $50,000.

Stop-press bulletin: Margaret O'Brien will do a fast, Charleston in Columbia's "The Romantic Age." The studio, by the way, is an old hand at giving screen moppets their first kiss. Shirley Temple got hers in "Kiss and Tell" on the same lot. Now it's Margaret's turn.

John Derek, discovered by Humphrey Bogart and given his first screen break in "Knock On Any Door," will star for Bogey again in "The Secret." This may be Lauren Bacall's first picture for her hubby, too.

Shirley Temple may be serious about that nursing career, but she's still plugging for her college degree, along with Terry Moore and Jerome Courtland at Columbia studio. Columbia schoolmarm Lillian Barkley is conducting the college extension course for the trio.

The grapevine's abuzz with a rumor that MGM is keeping a new doll under wraps who's the spittin' image of Lana Turner... Alice Terry, widowed by the death of Rex Ingram, will sail on a world cruise with silent stars Ora Carew (she's now a Hollywood beauty) and Claire Du Brey...

Fetch the stepladders for Alan Ladd and John Garfield. Amazonic Beverly Michaels isn't letting the death of high-pocketed profile boys stand in her way. Beverly, hailed as a "Tasopole sister" edition of Lana Turner in "The Pick Up," told me: "I don't believe my height can hurt my career. It's exactly the same as Garbo's—5 feet 8 3/4 inches without shoes and 6 feet in high heels. Ingrid Bergman was taller than most of her leading men and it didn't hurt her. I do most of my scenes with me in my stocking feet, anyhow."

Beverly's praying that she'll be tapped when Hollywood gets around to making Dorothy Parker's "Big Blonde"—"It's been my dream ever since I was 16."

Accent On Youth And Eye
Greg Peck's six-year-old son Jonathan came home from boys' camp with a black eye. Explained Peck: "I think it had something to do with the British accent he picked up in England while we were there making 'Captain Horatio Hornblower.'"

Remember strong-jawed Lloyd Hughes, who was Mary Astor's co-star at First National? He's working as an advertising model these days, but under a different name.

The Johnson office finally has okayed the script of Evelyn Keyes' next picture, "The Woman On The Rock." Evelyn will play a woman evangelist and for the benefit of those who like to add two and two, there's one sequence in a Mexican locale.

Rory Calhoun and Lita Baron chalk up a second wedding anniversary this month. Hollywood expected the marriage would last maybe a month... Real identity of the William Sidney who wrote "The Good Tidings," a Biblical novel now on the stands, is director William Dieterle.

MGM will re-issue three of the late Robert Benchley's short features at the same time a book of six of his famous flicker monologues hits the stalls.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Earp recently visited the Ray Yanceys in Penwell.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hammonds were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hammonds and Rebina and Mrs. John Pruitt of Odessa.

Mrs. Bob Murry recently was elected second vice president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Department. Attending a recent meeting were: Mrs. Bud Porter, Mrs. Norman Truitt, Mrs. Loyd Wimberly, Mrs. O. B. Wagner, Mrs. Bob McMurry, Mrs. Pete Maddox, Mrs. Rusty Keeton and Mrs. Jack Laughlin. Mrs. Doug Smart was hostess. Mrs. Loyd Wimberly was named chairman of a bike sale committee.

Jack Lewis recently spent a vacation in the Big Bend country and visited with his sister, Mrs. R. R. Graves of Crockett County.

Texas Pilot Freed By Chinese Reds

HONG KONG —(AP)— A Texan was one of five airline pilots arriving safely in Burma after being held since Dec. 21, 1949, by Chinese Communists.

He is Capt. Daniel Garden, a native of Bell County. An official for Trans-Atlantic Airlines told The Associated Press Friday the release of the airmen—two Americans, a Briton, and two Filipinos—was arranged by the company's Rangoon office.

He said Garden and the others had arrived at Lashio, Burma, and are being flown to Rangoon.

Giant Rocket Is Flying Laboratory
WHITE SANDS, N. M. —(AP)— A "flying laboratory"—the biggest, heaviest rocket ever launched from White Sands Ordnance Proving Ground—zoomed 85 miles high Thursday at a speed of 3,600 miles an hour.
Its war head was four times as big as the one the Germans began rocket work with. White Sands officials called it a "flying laboratory" because it carried so many instruments. These were tossed clear during the flight and came back to earth for checking by parachute.
Col. G. G. Eddy, commander of the proving ground, said the rocket was the fourth big one tested. All went 80 miles or higher. Officers said the tests indicated the rockets were stable.
The rocket fired Thursday carried instruments scientists had been working on for two years. Army and General Electric engineers fired it. Warhead instruments were furnished by the Air Force's Cambridge Research Laboratory and Wright-Patterson Field, Dayton, Ohio.

Fall Bride Is Shower Honoree

Mrs. Delton Strickland and Freddie Stuliz were hostesses to a personal shower honoring Marian Richardson in the yard of the Strickland residence, 1305 West Washington Street, Thursday.

The honoree, bride-elect of Bob Taggart, wore a green taffeta dress and was presented a white mum corsage. Red carnations were won by the hostesses.

Decorations for the serving table were white wedding bells and a brown satin ribbon giving the name of the couple and the wedding date. Crystal appointments were used.

Gifts were displayed on a table holding an arrangement of red roses and the pictures of the engaged couple. They will be married October 7.

Guests were Sue King, Frances Padgett, Betty Jean Wilson, Mrs. Maurice Gregory, Mrs. Boyce Strickland, Bobby Logan, Treva Burris, Mary Evelyn Bryant and Betty Stuliz.

Troop 12 Given Special Notice

Senior Girl Scout Troop 12 has received special recognition in the youth department of the Progressive Farmer magazine for September.

The article said "Some folks may think of Girl Scouts only as outdoor girls who love to camp out. However, the Senior Girl Scouts of Midland, Texas, shine in the role of hostesses as well."

When Troop 12 met the other Girl Scouts in the area at the Green and Gold Festival in Kermit recently, they decided to give a buffet supper. So they invited the Senior Scouts of Monahans and Odessa.

For table decorations the girls made pipe cleaner figures representing a square dance team, complete with caller and fiddler. The picture in the magazine showed the girls in their identical square dance dresses which they had made of deep purple material polka dotted with white.

Be Careful—Save A Life

Labor Day and another long holiday weekend is at hand, and again citizens of Midland and of Texas will be taking life easy and enjoying themselves in general. The long holiday weekend, the last of the Summer, doubtless will cause the highways to be overcrowded as persons take trips to visit relatives, friends or just drive around the country to enjoy themselves.

It is fine that we will be able to take life easy on this national holiday, but the regrettable thing is that so many lives will be lost in the midst of the celebration because of accidents which result from someone's carelessness.

On the Fourth of July holiday weekend, which is just behind us, thousands of Texas citizens left their homes and joined the crowded flow of traffic on our highways. Some of these people were going to other cities, some to other states, and some were just out for a drive in the country in an effort to relax and forget, if only for a little while, the worries and cares of their normal routine. The regrettable part of the story is that out of that group of highway travelers, 36 of them met death in motor vehicle accidents, and scores more were injured.

Out of the group of persons who were not touched by highway accidents, countless numbers of them died accidental deaths by drownings, by firearms, by airplane accidents, and by accidents inside their own homes. When the final summary came in, it became a fact that this was the record breaking year for death, injury, suffering and destruction for a Fourth of July holiday weekend period.

One would think that such an experience would be a lesson to the people of Texas; to some it is, but to others it is not. Although many of us are under the impression that accidents are things which always affect the other fellow, we should stop to realize that these people who were killed in accidents in the days and years past felt the same way and had the same false feeling of security.

Traffic accidents, according to statistics, are on the increase, and with this present situation, we can expect another costly holiday weekend on Labor Day. There is no way of knowing who will be struck by these accidents. The only way to insure our safety on holidays, and every day, is to take measures to prevent these accidents from occurring. The Texas Safety Association urges that we take precautions in all of our activities, and surely this warning should be heeded by one and all.

BE CAREFUL—THE LIFE YOU SAVE MAY BE YOUR OWN!

Unwelcome Visitor

California big shot gambler Mickey Cohen did not find in West Texas the friendly welcome usually extended visitors to the Lone Star State—thanks to alert Texas Rangers who "greeted" the notorious Cohen and "invited" him to book immediate airline passage back to the West Coast.

Cohen was much displeased at the treatment he received, insisting that he came to Texas to investigate the oil business. But Col. Homer Garrison, state police director, said he had definite information that Cohen was planning to set up a "gambling and racketeering empire." Colonel Garrison added, "We didn't want that."

Most Texans will agree with the state police director in that the Lone Star State and West Texas in particular does not want or need a "gambling and racketeering empire."

The Texas Rangers and other officers are to be commended upon the prompt and efficient manner in which they handled the Cohen situation.

It all happened during Midland's "Get Acquainted Week," but here was a stranger with whom no one apparently wanted to get acquainted.

At any rate, the "reception" accorded Mickey Cohen should be sufficient warning to all big shot gamblers they are not wanted in Texas, and that there is a limit even to the famed Texas hospitality.

Ain't What It Used To Be

In Peoria, Ill., a man was arrested for drunken driving—on horseback. That is something we can understand in this day and age. On the other hand, a report from Oklahoma was more shocking. There a man was arrested for riding his horse into a soft-drink parlor and ordering a raspberry soda.

It would seem that either the hard-riding west is going soft, or that the influence of television, the never-never-land in which all heroes on horseback drink nothing but sarsaparilla, is becoming part of the law west of the Pecos.

It's nice to know, anyway, that what isn't is always worse than what is.

The Way It Looks From Where We Sit

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Averell Harriman gave Truman first peep at MacArthur's statement; Navy recalls that MacArthur vetoed its plan to occupy Formosa in 1944; U. S. Military fear Formosa conflict would send Chinese troops into Korea.

WASHINGTON — Here is a play-by-play account of what went on behind-the-scenes in the now historic rebuke of General MacArthur by President Truman.

First inkling that MacArthur had sent a message to the Veterans of Foreign Wars on the delicate question of Formosa came on Thursday, August 24, when Carlton Kent of the Chicago Sun-Times queried Roger Tubby, State Department press relations office, as to whether the MacArthur statement had been cleared by the State Department.

Tubby passed the query on to the White House and the Defense Department, found that neither had either seen or heard of the MacArthur statement. It had been sent direct to newspapers in a personal letter on August 21 with a release date for August 28. This was in direct violation of the White House directive laid down during the famous Henry Wallace-Jimmie Byrnes row, after which it was decreed that no statement on foreign policy could be published by any official without clearance.

President Truman did not see the MacArthur statement until Saturday, August 26, during a conference scheduled to hear the report of Navy chief Admiral Forrest Sherman and Army chief General Joe Collins, following their return from Tokyo.

At this conference, Averell Harriman handed the President a copy of the MacArthur statement. Harriman, who is part owner of Newsweek Magazine, had obtained a copy of the press release.

Harriman told Truman that he had carefully explained American policy to MacArthur during his recent visit to Tokyo and that there was no reason for his misunderstanding it. Actually Harriman's trip largely was inspired by MacArthur's urge to occupy Formosa with American troops and his much-publicized hand-kissing visit to Madame Chiang Kai-Shek. It was felt that Harriman could explain diplomatically that the United States must work through the United Nations in regard to Formosa—and that if the United States got embroiled in any conflict with China the Korea war then would last indefinitely. For the Chinese Communists would have an excuse to pour troops into Korea.

Questions and Answers

Q—Are thunderstorms a menace to airplanes?
A—Aside from extra turbulence in the air, a thunderstorm does not present grave danger to a competently-piloted modern plane.

Q—For whom was Williamsburg, Va., named?
A—Settled as Middle Plantation about 1633, Williamsburg became the capital of Virginia in 1699, receiving at that time its present name in honor of William III, King of England.

Q—Why does the Constitution provide that revenue bills shall originate in the House of Representatives?
A—This provision is an adaptation of the English practice. The principle involved is that the purse strings of our nation should be controlled by a body directly responsible to the people.

Q—How many cans a year are opened by the average American?
A—About 200 cans of food and other products per year. Fifty years ago, the average was only about 26 cans per person.

Q—Why is the Jew's-harp so-called?
A—The origin is lost in obscurity. As early as 1637 a report of the proceedings of the Council of Maryland stated: "shipped upon the good vessel knives, combs, fish hooks, Jew's-harps."

Q—Why is a post card so called?
A—In the early days the mail was carried over these roads by a courier, called a "post."

Q—Does the United States have any military bases in the Philippine Islands?
A—The Philippines and the United States in 1947 signed a 99-year agreement for American military and naval bases in the islands. The agreement provides that in the interest of international security any of the bases may be made available to the Security Council of the United Nations.

Q—What is a stirrup cup?
A—That is the name for a cup of wine or liquor taken before the hunt.

Q—Hawkins sure is homely, one man remarked. Another said, "Yes, but what can he do about it?" The first one replied, "Well, he could stay off the street more."

Q—Jones said, "Bill is a great friend of mine. There's nothing I wouldn't do for him and there's nothing he wouldn't do for me. In fact, we have gone through life doing nothing for each other."

Q—You and another person are reading in the same room.
WRONG: Whenever you find something you want to share, read the passage aloud.
RIGHT: Realize that the other person probably wants to concentrate on what he is reading and save the bits you want to read aloud until some other time.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
Generous George looked carefully at the dummy and then beamed at his opponents. "I've already given you one trick for nothing," he said genially, "and I've just been racking my brain for a way to give you another trick. I think I can see a way to do it and you can be sure that there's no one I'd rather give a trick to than to my favorite opponents."

Bridge hand diagram showing cards in each hand: East, South, West, North. Opening lead—A 10.

no-rump bid. However, it led to eventual disaster for the defense. Generous George, playing the South hand, put up the jack of spades from the dummy. East covered with the king of spades, winning the trick.

East promptly shifted to the king of clubs and Generous George smiled benevolently as he played a low club from his own hand and from the dummy. This was George's first gift to his opponents, but it didn't do them any good.

East could not continue the clubs, since that would give dummy two tricks in the suit. He therefore shifted to the jack of diamonds. Dummy won with the king of diamonds and declarer took two rounds of trumps with the king and ace. It was at this point that he made his little speech to the enemy.

George's next move was to lead the queen of spades from the dummy. East covered with the ace (it would have done him no good to play low) and George ruffed. George then led a trump to dummy's jack and led the seven of spades from dummy. When East played low, George discarded a club from his hand.

West won with the nine of spades and promptly returned a club through dummy's ace-jack. However, it was too late. Dummy won with the ace of clubs and George speedily cashed the six of spades, discarding his losing diamond. The six of spades had been developed as the game-going trick!

George would have failed to make his contract if he had not developed the spades. He could count on winning only six hearts, two diamonds, and one club. Hence, although George made quite a fuss about giving up a spade trick to the opponents, he gained by the play (as he usually does when he gives away a trick).

VISITORS FROM JASPER
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eddy and son, Ted, of Jasper were guests of Mrs. Monetta Brown here Thursday and Friday. They were accompanied to Midland by their daughter, Bonnie, who will teach in the Midland schools this year.

AT that moment Betsy Sharpe interrupted her Aunt Myra. Just as the tall angular woman was about to say that Roger Blesser, Betsy's fiancé, was no less, was insane.

"You always been able to get rid of my boy friends, haven't you, Aunt Myra?" Betsy asked.

Maybe Myra Sharpe had been so used to having Betsy do exactly as she had expected Betsy to do that the words took her by surprise. But I could feel something in the air. The four of us were alone in the room and something was going to happen.

Myra was standing by the desk that I had been looking over. Betsy and Roger stood across the room facing her.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Western European Defense Is Caught In Maze Of Red Tape

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON—Rearming of Western Germany is now the number one question in planning the defense of Europe against communism. But in dealing with this problem, the main difficulty seems to be a multiplicity of international committees, all of which have some interest in the problem, but none of which seems to have final responsibility.

Anyone who is not completely confused by the present jumble of international committees is either an expert at diplomatic red tape or is not normal. Even the higher-ups inside this maze admit privately that there are too many groups writing memos to each other. What this points to is the need for immediate simplification. One gander at the overlapping organization charts should be enough to convert anyone to the "Atlantic Union—Now" idea. Or else it proves that a One World Government is organizationally impossible.

Under the defense ministers are the chiefs of staff of the 12 countries. But since they have other jobs, too, they farm out their work to what is known as the Standing Group. This is made up primarily of high-ranking officers of the U. S., British and French military establishments.

Under the chiefs of staff are various regional planning committees, made up of the chiefs of staff of say, the Scandinavian countries, the Low countries, and so on.

Germany, whose fate and military status are the subject of so much talk in all these groups, now is only an associate member of the Consultative Assembly of the Council of Europe, which has no authority, but just talks and recommends.

In spite of all this flexibility, the work of a Council of Foreign Ministers is not to be minimized. It was out of such a council's deliberations that both the Brussels Pact of 1948 and the North Atlantic Treaty of 1949 were born.

The Brussels Pact set up the Union of Western Europe organization for mutual defense, economic, social and cultural cooperation. Chief functionary of the Brussels Pact organization is really Lord Montgomery of Alamein. General Montgomery's title is chairman of the Commanders in Chief of European Ground Forces. His headquarters are at Fontainebleau, France.

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization—now known as NATO—is set up as practically a duplicate of the Brussels organization. Only it takes in 12 countries instead of five. This is what the present, complex NATO looks like.

The real governing body is the North Atlantic Council. It is made up of the foreign ministers of the U. S., Canada, Britain, France, Iceland, Norway, Denmark, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg, Italy and Portugal. Secretary of State Dean Acheson is U. S. member.

These big shots have many other things to do, however, so most of their work must be done by a Council of Deputies. Charles M. Spofford, New York lawyer, is U. S. member.

The Council of Deputies is badly named and has other complications. Two groups report to it, who really outrank it: these are the Military Committee and the Financial and Economic Committee. Apparently What's the matter with the moral level of our (modeling) profession? Isn't it as high as the moral level of labor leaders?

—Han Kain, professional model, in reply to announced intention of labor leader to organize profession to "clean out objectionable individuals."

Who ever found a rich actor? The top money earner-life of an actor... is something like five years. It's worse than in the baseball business. But producers, directors and writers go on forever. Actresses want to marry them.
—John Dall, movie actor.

We're not in a game of mumbletypep. When we lose, we lose once and for all.
—Bernard Baruch, mobilization director of World War I.

AT that moment Betsy Sharpe interrupted her Aunt Myra. Just as the tall angular woman was about to say that Roger Blesser, Betsy's fiancé, was no less, was insane.

"You always been able to get rid of my boy friends, haven't you, Aunt Myra?" Betsy asked.

Maybe Myra Sharpe had been so used to having Betsy do exactly as she had expected Betsy to do that the words took her by surprise. But I could feel something in the air. The four of us were alone in the room and something was going to happen.

Myra was standing by the desk that I had been looking over. Betsy and Roger stood across the room facing her.

"You'll thank me for it someday, child," Miss Myra's voice grew shrill and her eyes snapped with anger as she spoke. "Everything I did was for your own good. Yes, I wanted you to give up Roger. I know you would soon forget him. But if you go ahead and marry him, you'll regret it. You'll never be safe with him, Betsy. He should go back to the hospital where doctors may be able to do something for his mental condition."

"You'd better stop, Miss Myra," he said quickly. "I overlooked what you said about my sanity—even when you accused me of poisoning most of the dogs on my mail route—but you're not going to get away with murder!"

I ALMOST jumped out of the eiderdown under my trousers at these words from Roger. Then I saw quickly that he didn't mean what I thought he meant. He continued:

"So you'd better stop hinting that I might turn on Betsy and poison her too! I'd never do a thing like that. I've never even poisoned a dog."

"I know a thing or two, young man," Aunt Myra said. "Anyone can see—"

U. S. Says Strafing Of Manchurian Air Field Is 'Possible'

LAKE SUCCESS—(P)—The United States admitted Thursday that an American fighter plane may have strafed a Manchurian air field August 27.

U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin proposed that the United Nations Security Council set up a commis-sion to make an on-the-spot investi-gation. If it is found an American plane did make the reported at-tack, he said, the U. S. would pay damages and take disciplinary ac-tion against the personnel involved.

The air attack had been charged by Chou En-Lai, Chinese Communist foreign minister. The charges were pushed before the council by its president for August, Russian Dele-gate Jakob A. Malik.

Klan Chief Charged In Mob Conspiracy

CONWAY, S. C.—(P)—The grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan in South Carolina was being held in an undisclosed jail Friday on charges of "conspiracy to stir up mob violence."

Thomas L. Hamilton was jailed late Thursday following an investi-gation by Sheriff C. E. Sasser of Horry County and state constabulary officers into a Klan parade and the subsequent death of a Klan-robbed policeman who still was in uniform.

In a dramatic radio speech here Thursday night, Sasser let the public in on the findings of the probe into the death Saturday of policeman James D. Johnston of Conway.

The sheriff also declared a negro nightclub proprietor had no part in the slaying. The negro, Charlie Fitz-gerald, has been held at an undig-ested jail since shortly after John-son's death.

Slaying Suspect Seized On Farm Near Brownwood

BROWNWOOD—(P)—A search for a man charged with a killing in Ellis County last April ended Thurs-day on a farm near here.

State and federal officers arrested him on a Mills County farm near the Brown County line. The FBI said its charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution named the man as James Ben Russell.

FBI records showed Russell was indicted in Ellis County in the shooting of Edgar J. Lee Crawford of Dallas, killed about April 17.

Crawford's body, riddled by nine bullets, was found in a muddy ditch south of Alma. At that time officers said they thought it was a gang slaying.

The FBI released Russell to Ellis County officers, and Sheriff E. Burt White was to take him to Waxaha-chie.

Navy Says Orders Still Orders And Gobs Have To Go

NEW ORLEANS—Orders are still orders in the Navy. When you get 'em, you've got to go, even though some hard-hit naval reser-vests may get temporary delays in reporting for active duty.

That is the word from Eighth Naval District headquarters here, which controls naval reserve affairs in Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

Ten days, including travel, are usually allowed for recalled reser-vests to report, Rear Admiral W. K. Phillips, USN, district commandant, said.

In exceptional cases longer pe-riods are being granted, but each case is carefully considered by a board of senior officers and no de-lays are granted for more than six months. The average is much less, the admiral said.

Requests for deferment must be submitted in writing within 48 hours after orders are received, he warned. Department of Defense policy, announced in Washington several weeks ago, is closely followed to determine eligibility for deferment.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Man In A Box

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, stood knocking on the door of the Huffen's hollow tree house. "Huffen Puffen! Daddy Ringtail called. "It is I, Daddy Ringtail!"

The Huffen opened the door. Said he: "Happy day from your old friend, the Huffen Puffen!" The Huffen chuckled, and then he said with a serious voice: "The Huffen has a problem, he has, and the Huffen is who I am."

Oh, but Daddy Ringtail knew all about it. He had seen the Huffen make it. He had seen the Huffen make it. He had seen the Huffen make it.

Oh my yes, because the little man in the box had a wooden hammer, and he would "kerbong" on the head anyone who happened to lift the lid for him to jump up.

"Uhuh," said the Huffen. "I know it. I do, but I haven't seen the little man today. I don't know that he is still inside."

SAFETY

Industry spares no pains or expense when it comes to protecting the bodies of factory workers. Spark-proof helmets, sturdy shoes, non-slip floors, easy exits—the list of precautionary devices is long. They call it "Safety Engineering."

Is it too much to say that the Church too is engaged in a type of safety engineering? Through the religious faith on which it is founded the Church knows that the souls of people need protection even more than do their eyes and limbs.

The Church believes that human hearts yearn for a comforting arm just as human frames require safe-guarding. It believes that physical safety is not enough; that to bring peace of mind is a more important mission than to insure absence of bodily risk. As long as lives are saved from the blight of godlessness, the institution contributing to such saving is entitled to all the encouragement and support you can give it.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Bulldogs Take First Workout

The 1950 football training season is underway for the Midland Bulldogs. Coach Tugboat Jones welcomed 37 varsity candidates and more than 100 B and C team candidates Friday morning and issued equipment to all.

The varsity wasted no time in getting to work. They were on the field by 9 a. m. and were to be back at 3:30 p. m. for the second session of the day.

The morning session was devoted to limbering up exercises and sprints. Business was slated to pick up in the afternoon drill with the linemen, ends and backs being given separate instruction.

Coach Jones said he would start working his backs on ball handling, pass offense and foot work in the afternoon.

Line Coach Audrey Gill was to give his linemen a general round of instructions on blocking and tackling.

The ends were to work on pass patterns and blocking under Coach Red Rutledge.

B And C Workouts
Coaches John Higdon and Keith Bobo scheduled the first workout for the B team at 3:30 p. m. and Coach Pat Patterson set the same time for his C Bulldogs to take their first licks. Both teams will work only once a day, in the afternoon.

Two-a-day drills were announced for the varsity Saturday and Monday with the morning session opening at 9 a. m. and the other at 3:30 p. m. each day. A skull practice also is slated Sunday afternoon.

The entire varsity squad reported in good shape and only one bad injury was noted.

Coker Injured
Stan Coker, 205-pound letterman tackle, has a foot injury. He cut his foot a few days ago and it hasn't healed sufficiently for him to do much heavy work. It is expected he will be ready by the middle of next week, however.

Some of the Purple linemen have added weight during the summer and it appears the starting forward wall will average more than 175 pounds.

The backs also have picked up some poundage.
The boys will be weighed before and after each workout and a full weight list will be available by Sunday.

8—THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, SEPT. 1, 1950

Odessa Wins 6-2; Big Spring Here

The Midland Indians will return to their home park to open a two-game series with the Big Spring Broncs Friday night.
The series will be the last games of the season between the Indians and Big Spring in the Midland park.

ODESSA—Odessa's pace-setting Oilers jumped on the Midland Indians for two runs in the first inning here Thursday night and held on for a 6-2 verdict.
It was the last game of the season between the two teams.

Elbie Miller, making his first start on the mound for the Oilers this season, limited the visitors to a pitiful three hits. His wildness got him in trouble in the eighth inning, however, and Jim Carson was called to duty to snuff out any hopes the Midlanders had of wrapping up a victory.

The Oilers produced their two-run first-inning advantage on one hit and a pair of errors. Manager Al Monchak did the trick work, a nice double, and errors by Pitcher Leon Hayes and Lou Dawson gave the Oilers a working margin.

The Indians got one run back in the third frame when Bill Teel walked, advanced to second on a wild pitch and scooted home on Dawson's single. The Oilers counted runs in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings to sew up the contest. The last Indian run came in the eighth when Miller loaded the bases with walks and reliever Jim Carson walked across the game's last tally.

Plastic And Rotary Win Finals Berth

Western Plastic and the Rotary Engineers paraded to the final round of the Jay-Cee-sponsored City Major League Thursday night at Wadley Park. The hard-hitting Plastic nine walloped Shell 13-1 and the Engineers downed Standard of Texas 9-6.

The championship will be determined over the best three-game-out-of-five route, beginning Tuesday at 8 p. m.

Plastic opened strong in the first frame and never was headed. Paul (Rookie) Haskins opened the tilt with a safe punt and immediately was followed by Joe King's hard single. Before the inning was over, the winners had counted four runs. Dell Taylor chased one tally home with a one-bagger and Cliff Howell plated three runners with a double.

Plastic continued the attack with three runs in the second frame and six in the third before coasting in with the win. Cliff Howell shone at the plate, smashing two doubles and a single in four trips.

Long Rhubarb
The Rotary Engineers scored three runs in the first frame and never let the losers into a challenging position.
The festivities were damped considerably in the first when Rotary Catcher Clifton Jones was thumbed from the game following a long rhubarb.

For the second straight night, the losing Standard nine outdid the Engineers. Rotary collected eight bingles to Standard's 10, but Milt (Daddy) Montgomery issued 12 bases on balls.

Frank Branahan of Rotary and Montgomery vied for hitting honors, each getting two for three.
The scores:

Southwest Conference football started Friday with two-a-day workouts. Squads at the seven schools ranged from 50 at Rice to 85 at Baylor, generally picked to finish last this season.

Texas, on the spot as the conference favorite and ranked high nationally, had a squad of 56. Coach Blair Cherry tried to minimize that favorite tag by pointing out he had only four veterans for backfield duty. His line, however, is rated by far the best in the circuit.

There are three new head coaches this year. Otis Douglas at Arkansas, George Sauer at Baylor and H. N. (Rusty) Russell at Southern Methodist. Russell moved up from an assistant's job when Matty Bell decided to become a full-time athletic director.

A fight among players featured the Alpine-St. Joseph game. The fracas started in the fifth inning after Rox Jones of St. Joseph was tagged out by Alpine Catcher Bill Looney.

Class A Schoolboys Tee Off Friday In First Grid Contests

By The Associated Press
Football started Friday for almost 800 Texas high schools, but they're two weeks behind some 219 others in a different division of Texas's vast interscholastic league program.

City Conference, Class, B and six-man football teams drew equipment and started practice Friday. Class A schools started two weeks ago and twelve have first games this weekend.

Friday, Crosbyton meets Littlefield, Shamrock takes on Lookney, Nederland plays Bishop Byrne of Port Arthur and Freer is at Donna. Other games this week match Colorado City and Wink and Cleveland and Port Acres (Port Arthur).

Reds—

The second Division, had retreated eight and one-half miles in all.

AP Correspondent Ben Price, who was with one of the last groups to pull out of Yongsan into the hills to the east, said the men who gave the ground came out tired but not broken. He said they still were in good spirits.

The Americans immediately dug in the hills east of Yongsan against the Red thrust aimed at cutting the main highway between the supply point of Pusan and the communication center of Taeju.

"Bodies are stacked up by the hundreds," a Second Division officer told AP Correspondent Jack Macbeth. "But they're still coming."

A U. S. Eighth Army Communiqué reported 1,000 Reds killed and three tanks destroyed by midday. But judging from earlier field dispatches the figures were ultra-conservative.

The Reds appeared to be making a supreme bid to wipe out the United Nations beachhead on the southeast corner of the Asiatic peninsula. Field officers expressed belief it was the final major offensive.

Some 50,000 Communists—a third of their estimated strength—were involved. This included three divisions, one of them a full armored division, making the push. Two others were in reserve to exploit breakthroughs.

Navy carrier planes joined U. S. Fifth Air Force and Australian fighters in swarming into the battle like angry hornets.

A Red armored division hit the U. S. Second Division on the Changnyong sector of the Nakdong front and made the deepest penetration in 18 hours of furious battle. The Second Division was forced back beyond the point where the Reds established a bridgehead two weeks ago. That bridgehead was wiped out by the U. S. 24th Division.

The GI's made an orderly retreat to a point west of Yongsan. Then they dug in and prepared to counterattack.

Heavy fighting was reported also at Songjin, a hamlet bordering a rice paddy four miles east of the Nakdong and about four miles south of Yongsan.

Farther north, the U. S. First Cavalry Division was in action against another Red concentration. There were no details of the action in that sector.

On the northeast end of the 120-mile beachhead front, the Korean Republicans made gains north of Pohang against light Red resistance. Kiyu, nine miles northwest of Pohang, was retaken by the South Koreans.

South Koreans also gained a mile on the coastal road between four and five miles north of Pohang, No. 2 United Nations port on the east coast.

Tex-Harvey Outpost Bottomed In Sand

General American Oil Company No. 1 Ben Winkelman, and others, East-Central Midland County wildcat, 12 miles southeast of the City of Midland, and one and one-quarter miles west of the southwest side of the Tex Harvey field is bottomed at 7,161 feet in a Permian sand, and is preparing to cement casing at that point.

A cable tool unit will then be moved in to drill the plug and drill the prospector into the expected pay in the Spraberry sand.

Location is 663 feet from north and 664 feet from east lines of the southeast quarter of section 18, block 37, T&P survey, T-3-S.

Informed observers report that the top of the Spraberry sand has not been reached at 7,161 feet. That marker is expected soon after the wildcat starts drilling deeper.

NE Howard Slated For Deep Wildcat

Robert L. Wood of Midland is moving in material to drill the No. 1 V. E. McMillan as an 8,500-foot wildcat to explore the Pennsylvanian lime in Northeast Howard County.

The venture had a lime stringer at 9,310-20 feet, which could have been the lime pay of the Mound Lake field, but it wasn't.

The No. 1 Hinson 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 2, block T, D&W survey, and eight miles northeast of Brownfield.

The test was in the Graburg sand of the Permian.

The No. 1 Paskens is 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 15, block 41, G&MMB&A survey, T-2-N.

The No. 1 Lowe and others were 660 feet from south and east lines of northwest quarter of section 11, block B, psl survey.

Sulphur Water, Gas Found In Tom Green

Ohio Oil Company No. 1 Bryant, wildcat in Central-West Tom Green County, two miles south and one-half mile west of Tankersley, is drilling below 6,077 feet in lower Pennsylvanian lime after recovering gas and sulphur water on a drillstem test at 5,998-5,920 feet.

On the test, tool was open one hour. Recovery was 270 feet of gas and 5,310 feet of gas-cyt sulphur water. There was a good blow of air for 35 minutes and a slight blow for the remainder of the test.

Top of the Pennsylvanian lime is at 5,460 feet. Elevation is 2,062 feet. The section between 5,460 feet and 5,573 feet had some slight shows of oil and gas, but it did not develop any free oil.

Location is 1,640 feet east and 660 feet north of the southwest corner of section 1146 7/2, ER&RR survey. The wildcat is slated to dig to approximately 7,500 feet to explore the Ellenburger.

Ellenburger Well In Pegasus Completed

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2-B TXL, on the east side of the Pegasus field in Northwest Upton County has been completed for 575.8 barrels of 53.3-gravity oil and no water daily.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,600-1. The No. 2-B TXL is one mile south and slightly east of the Magnolia No. 4. Glass, which was recently completed for 937.85 barrels of 52.90-gravity oil per day, and it is approximately one mile southeast of the discovery well, the Magnolia No. 1-A TXL.

A total of 311 feet of pay was indicated for the No. 2-B TXL. Top of pay was found at 12,745 feet. Total depth of the new producer is 13,056 feet.

The potential test was through a 24/64-inch choke. Casing pressure was zero pounds, tubing pressure was 400-750.

Three new locations have been staked and a new producer completed in the Tex-Harvey-Spraberry pool of Central-East Midland County.

El Tee will drill its No. 1-14 J. H. Floyd 666.7 feet from south and 2,264.6 feet from east lines of section 14, block 37, T&P survey.

Glendale Oil Company of Fort Worth has staked the remaining location and completed the new producer.

In Section 167
Glendale's No. 1-16 Floyd estate will be 668 feet from west and 1,984 feet from north lines of section 16, block 37, T&P survey.

All three projects are slated to test the Spraberry pay with approximate depths of 8,000 feet.

On the east edge of production, Glendale has completed its No. 1-14 B. W. Floyd estate for a flowing potential of 339 barrels of 34-gravity oil plus two tenths of one per cent water daily.

Production flowed through a 1 1/8-inch choke. The pay zone at 7,035-7,198 feet was shot with 750 quarts of nitro glycerin. Five and one-half inch oil string is set at 3,124 feet.

September's First Hurricane Silences Two Islands' Radio

MIAMI.—(AP)—September—the hurricane month—opened Friday with a small but tough tropical storm blowing and isolating the northern islands of the Leeward chain.

An ominous silence enveloped Antigua and St. Martin as the screaming winds moved from the Atlantic into the Caribbean Sea. The Virgin Islands and big and populous Puerto Rico were on the alert for the approaching storm.

Antigua last was heard from at 10 p. m. Thursday when the weather observer there reported: "Storm worsening, gusts to 60 miles per hour, barometer 29.61 and falling rapidly. Forced to close now."

That report came from the Pan American Airways base at St. Johns, capital of Antigua. Repeated efforts to raise the station by radio since then met with silence.

St. Martin, an island north of Antigua, reported at 6:15 a. m. Friday that winds had reached 80 miles an hour. Then silence fell.

Grady Norton, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, said the hurricane is relatively small but "a tough one." It is moving about 10 miles an hour, probably to the west-northwest.

On a final drillstem test at 6,498-530 feet, recovery was an unreported amount of water.

The failure is three miles southeast of Rotan, and 5,167 feet from west and 8,119 feet from north lines of John Chumbe survey No. 312.

Afternoon periods Friday were scheduled in the auditorium of Midland High School, with Monroe to address the mass faculty meeting.

He was to explain the Midland school system. The Monroe talk was to be followed by a series of talks on administrative policies by representative of each school faculty. Briton Takes Over As President Of UN Security Council

LAKE SUCCESS.—(AP)—Britain's Sir Gladwyn Jebb took over as president of the United Nations Security Council Friday, determined to end Russian Jakob A. Malik's month-long stalemate of pending UN council moves to localize the Korean war.

A spokesman quoted Jebb as saying: "We shall turn the calendar back to July 31. We shall pretend that Malik has never been president and get on with our work."

At Friday's council meeting, Jebb reportedly planned as the first order of business the seating of a representative of South Korea and the refusal of a place to a North Korean envoy.

Malik had, through one parliamentary move or another, prevented this action while he held the presidency during August.

Then, the British spokesman declared, the council would take up an American resolution declaring the North Koreans to be the aggressors and calling on all UN members to refrain from aiding them.

That would be consideration of Red China's charges, presented by the Soviet Union, of American aggression against Formosa and air raids on Manchuria. The council voted Thursday 8-3 to hear the air raid charges.

Diagnosis Of Thyroid Deficiency Without Proper Test Is Dangerous

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Because so many diseases are catching, the question of cancer keeps cropping up in letters.

Q—An aged person with an inward cancer lives with us. Is it dangerous to ourselves or our small children?

A—Cancer is not contagious and is not caught by one person from another. There is no reason to isolate the aged person who lives with you nor to fear anything for your children or yourselves.

Q—When I wake from my sleep, I find quite often my hand has gone numb. Sometimes this numbness goes all the way up to the elbow. After hanging the arm over the side of the bed, the sensation goes away after a while. What is the cause?

A—Probably you have slept with your arm in such a position that your head or some other part of the body has pressed on the blood supply or on a nerve. When this pressure is relieved after awakening, the unpleasant sensation does, as you say, leave rather promptly.

Q—What are the symptoms of a thyroid deficiency? Can it be diagnosed without a metabolism test?

A—There are no absolutely definite symptoms of thyroid deficiency. A certain lack of pep, a slow pulse, a rough skin are among those which might be mentioned. It is almost certainly not safe to make a diagnosis of thyroid deficiency without taking a metabolism test.

Q—During the last six months I have noticed an increase in the amount of hair on my arms and face. I am of Italian descent and am told that Latins are inclined to be hairy. What could cause this?

A—There is some variation in the amount of hairiness but quite likely the difference is greater in families than it is between those of national groups. That could be the explanation in your case. There is also some change in the amount and texture of hair in many people as they grow older. In view of your statement that you are in good health (stated in inquirer's full letter but not printed here), it is impossible to suggest a cause other than a natural tendency.

Q—My husband, who is 28 years old, has an arthritic condition which causes him a great deal of pain. Could this be responsible for his being continually tired and needing eight to 10 hours sleep every night?

A—Indeed it could. Arthritis is a wearing condition and pain also could make him tired, and in need of more sleep than usual.

Q—What could be the possible causes for peeling and scaling of the skin between the fingers? I have my hands in water quite a lot and wondered if that could be responsible.

A—It is possible that you have your hands in water so much that the skin becomes softened and macerated. You could try rubber gloves or plastic gloves and see if the condition improved. Another possibility could be a ringworm infection.

Q—What can cause an enlarged heart? Is one born with it or does one get it in later years? Is it serious?

A—It is more common to acquire an enlarged heart from some disease than to be born with it, although the latter is possible. An enlarged heart is usually serious and a more complete and accurate diagnosis should be obtained.

Probe Is Launched In Airliner Crash

CAIRO, EGYPT —(AP)— Experts began an investigation Friday into Thursday's crash of a Trans-World Airline Constellation in the Libyan Desert 65 miles west of Cairo. The disaster, one of the worst in commercial air history, claimed the lives of all 55 persons aboard, including 23 Americans.

The big four-engine "Star of Maryland" went down 15 miles inside the western desert bordering the Nile Delta.

There was no indication yet what caused the Rome-bound plane to crash and burn 30 minutes after taking off from Cairo's Farouk Field.

The shock was so violent that the plane broke to bits and wreckage was strewn over an area of several hundred yards.

TWA officials said 54 bodies had been accounted for so far and they believe another body still is in the wreckage. They said none has been identified yet.

Half of all traffic fatalities occur at intersections of streets and highways.

Mexico Gets Huge Loan From U. S.

MEXICO CITY —(AP)— President Miguel Aleman said Friday Mexico has been granted a much disputed United States loan of $150,000,000.

The announcement was a high spot in the President's annual "State of the Nation" address prepared for delivery Friday to Congress and the people. It was his most optimistic report since he took office at the close of 1946.

President Aleman said the U. S. loan was made by the Export-Import Bank to Mexico's Government Finance Corporation, Nacional Financiera. It will be used to develop highways, railways, communications, irrigation and electric power, he said.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES

LUKE 9:23-26; 24:49; Acts 1:8. THE CRISIS OF CONVERSION AND OF CLEANSING

The Kingdom of God is at your doors! The Divine Invasion prescribes crisis within and makes us either resist or surrender to this redemptive Invasion. Sometimes we resist. A brilliant doctor, whose inner life was a mass of conflicts, returned to me an inscribed New Testament with this written on the wrapper: "I hate Him, and I hate you." I had scarcely received this outburst when another letter came, saying: "Where is God, and where are you?" Here is the stark first stage of Kingdom invasion—a soul resisting God, and yet reaching out for Him; telling Him to go, and yet entreating Him to stay! Rebelling, repelling — relenting, repenting; these are the alternate heartbeats of the heart that feels the pressure of the Divine Invasion. Consent—conversion are the alternate beats in the first stage of acceptance.

When the consent is given the Divine Invasion usually takes place in two great crises: (1) the crisis of conversion; (2) the crisis of a deeper cleansing. The soul gets on by a series of crises, and usually by these two great crises. The crisis of conversion brings release from festering sins, and marks the introduction of a new life. Conversion is a glorious release, but not a full release. Festering sins are gone, but the roots of the disease are still there. The new life is introduced, but is not fully regnant. The old life is subdued, but not surrendered.

While I was in an acute stage of appendicitis, I was operated on. When I came to consciousness, the doctor was by my bed. He said, "I have drained the inflamed appendix, but I couldn't take it out, for there were too many adhesions. This will relieve you, but you'll have to have the appendix and the adhesions taken out later." After that I was better, but I wasn't well. Six months later I had the appendix and the adhesions taken out. Then I was not only better; I was well. Sin throws its adhesions around the organs of life, but neither the sin nor the adhesions are natural. Salvation, in these two great crises, drains the poison, unlooses the adhesions, and restores to the truly natural—gives health!

Tender and skillful invader of my soul, I yield my stricken life to Thy healing. Drain every drop of poison from my being, and then root out the adhering results of that poison. "Be of sin the double cure." For I want not only to be better; I want also to be well. In Jesus' name. Amen.
