Spraberry Wildcat Slated For Midland

A. N. Hendrickson and G. E. Hall both of Midland, have contracted to start operations at an 8,600-foot wildcat in Central Midland County, by November 1.

The venture is projected as an exploration of the full Spraberry sand section of the Permian. It will be on Wilson Bryant land and at the center of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 24, block 39, T&P survey, T-3-S.

That puts it about 12 miles south of the City of Midland. It is near the center of a 2,720-acre checker-boarded spread of leases which Hendrickson and Hall have acquired from Gulf Oil Corporation in nine sections on Bryant and TXL lands.

York & Harper, Inc. of Midland own the leases on the other acreage in those sections and that concern has agreed to support the exploration.

Ellenburger Explorer Scheduled For Crane

An 11,000-foot wildcat has been scheduled in South-Central Crane County eight miles west and slightly south of the town of Crane, by Humble Oil & Refining Company for immediate drilling. It is in section No. 2 Jax Cowden.

This prospector will drill down to the Ellenburger.

It is one and one-half miles south of the Humble No. 1 Jax Cowden, a dry hole in the Ellenburger which had some shows of oil in two zones of the Devonian. Humble is now preparing to re-test those shows in an attempt to make an oil well.

Exact location of the No. 2 Cowden is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 61, block X, GCS&DRNG survey.

Midkiff Is Testing After Stimulation

Humble Oil & Refining Company is preparing to make a production test at its No. 1 Midkiff, Southeast Midland County wildcat, 25 miles southeast of the City of Midland, following a hydraulic treatment in open hole at 7,281-247 feet in the upper part of the Spraberry sand.

The well swabbed 23 barrels of new oil in 10 hours naturally, before the tubing was pulled for the stimulation treatment.

That oil was cut with six per cent water which had a salt content of 8,500 parts per million.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 46, block 38, T&P survey, T-4-S.

S-C Taylor Wildcat Flows From Lime

Kemp Drilling Company, Inc., 100 J. E. Young, South-Central Taylor County wildcat, 10 miles southwest of Buffalo Gap flowed oil from the Canyon or Strawn on a drill-stem test taken at 4,582-4,907 feet in sand.

Tool was open nine minutes.

Gas appeared at the surface in one minute. Mud flowed in four minutes and oil came in five minutes.

The flow was estimated at 15-20 barrels of oil an hour.

Information on recovery in the pipe was not available.

Location of the prospective discovery well is 2,182 feet from west and 467 feet from south lines of section 266, block 64, H&T0 survey.

The No. 1 E. L. Young is now waiting on orders.

Branon Outpost Flows From Reef

George Brown No. 1-A Branon, one-half mile east of the discovery of the south extension to the East Yealmoor field in Central-North Howard County, and 667.36 feet from south and 1,956.34 feet from east lines of section 18, block 27, H&T0 survey, showed its first oil in commercial amounts in a drill-stem test at 7,466-84 feet.

The tool was open two hours. Gas came to the surface in seven minutes. Oil started flowing at the top in 12 minutes. It flowed at the estimated rate of 20 to 25 barrels per hour for the remainder of the period.

To Drill Deeper

The flow was through a one-quarter inch tubing choke. Recovery when the drill pipe was all pulled was 1,000 feet of oil and four gallons of water, source of water was not reported.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 890 pounds. Operator is preparing to drill deeper.

This venture topped the reef at 7,445 feet. That is on a datum of minus 4,947 feet. Brown No. 1 Branon, the extension discovery topped the reef on a datum of minus 4,763 feet.

Draft Board Trying To Locate Two Men

Draft Board 132 which serves Midland, Glasscock and Sterling Counties is trying to get in touch with M. J. Williams and Jose R. Flores.

Temperatures Rise After Overnight Chill

By The Associated Press

Dry, warm weather was Texas' pattern Friday after temperatures dropped sharply in the early morning hours.

The morning minimums were in the mid-50's and low 60's over much of the state. A 96-degree reading at Dallas set a record for September 8.

At mid-morning, skies generally were clear except for some high, scattered clouds over the Panhandle and South Plains.

Scurry Ellenburger Makes Oil And Water

Delta Gulf Drilling Company and associates, No. 1 H. H. Elland, Central Midland County wildcat, 25 miles southeast of the City of Midland, following a hydraulic treatment in open hole at 7,281-247 feet in the upper part of the Spraberry sand.

The well swabbed 23 barrels of new oil in 10 hours naturally, before the tubing was pulled for the stimulation treatment.

That oil was cut with six per cent water which had a salt content of 8,500 parts per million.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 46, block 38, T&P survey, T-4-S.

Cotton Crop Forecast Is Cut Sharply

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Texas' 1950 cotton crop was estimated at 2,775,000 bales Friday by the Agriculture Department. This was a decline of 225,000 bales from the August 1 forecast.

A sharp decline also was forecast for the nation. Production was estimated at 9,882,000 bales, a drop of 426,000 bales from the forecast a month ago.

If the department's forecast is carried out, it will be the smallest production for Texas since 1946, when only 1,969,000 bales were harvested.

The national figure compares with 16,128,000 bales grown last year and with a 10-year (1939-48) average of 11,599,000 bales.

Production is down from last year largely because of the effects of a government control program designed to prevent the accumulation of a burdensome surplus. But the government had not sought such a drop. Some farmers did not plant all they were entitled to under the program.

Nevertheless, reserves from past crops assure ample supplies of most grades and staple lengths until the 1951 crop is harvested.

In addition, the government Friday said it will issue $12 million in tax bonds for street improvements.

$175,000 in tax bonds for the construction of two new fire stations, new equipment and the possible relocation of the central fire station.

$50,000 in tax bonds for the construction of a new jail.

The one-package $1,000,000 county bond issue proposal is for the acquisition of a new jail.

Widow Of Airman, Mother Of Baby Boy At Midland

Mrs. Remer Laverna Harding, whose husband was one of the first U. S. airmen killed in the Korean war, became the mother of a seven-pound, three-ounce boy, Richard Lane, at 1:56 a.m. Thursday in Midland Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Harding, the former Barbara Conkling, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Conkling, 1908 West Missouri Street, returned to her parents' home for the baby's birth.

She had been living in Japan with her husband, an Air Force lieutenant, at the time of his death. He was returning from a flight over Korea June 28, in the first days of the conflict, when he crashed in bad weather at his home base.

Convict's Confession Reopens Case Of 10-Year-Old 'Suicide' At Ruidoso

CARRIZOZO, N. M. — (AP) — A prison inmate's confession to a 10-year-old death previously believed a suicide Thursday brought murder charges against the prisoner and another man.

A Texas druggist and the prisoner were accused of slaying a man who said on his deathbed he shot himself.

Made to appear a suicide and accepted by many at the time as such, the killing was all but forgotten by residents of nearby Ruidoso, Southern New Mexico resort city.

Hounded by the crime he said he committed, Glen Thornton went to Warden Lon Walters of the Arizona State Prison and told a story which at first had officers astounded and skeptical.

An investigation followed. Leon Todd, Mineral Wells, Texas, and Thornton were charged with the murder by Sheriff S. M. Ortiz of Lincoln County. They were accused of the fatal shooting in August, 1940, of William Henry Hewitt, 30, Ruidoso storekeeper.

Todd waived extradition. He was quoted by Ortiz as admitting former residence in New Mexico but denied knowledge of the slaying.

Thornton contended he was paid $100 cash to get rid of Hewitt and promised $500 more which he never received.

Dying in a Ruidoso cabin, Hewitt first said the shooting was an accident then whispered that he shot himself.

"Murdering a guy isn't so easy to do," said the prisoner in his confession. "You just do it on the spur of the moment and regret it a million times later."

The prisoner's confession told this story:

Hewitt threatened to commit suicide over a quarrel involving Todd's wife.

After drinking with Thornton for several hours in a Ruidoso cabin, Hewitt picked up a rifle and held it to his chest, again saying he was going to shoot himself.

"I set my glass of whisky down," related the prison inmate, "stepped up to him, and pulled the trigger." Hewitt died several hours later.

Ortiz and State Patrolman Herb Douglas, who investigated, said the story related by Thornton checked with "certain known facts," but was vague on many points. Thornton claimed the facts were somewhat hazy in his mind.

Thornton is serving a four-to-five year sentence on two charges of issuing bogus checks.

Rescue Teams Dig Escape Tunnel For 128 Trapped Miners

NEW CUMNOCK, SCOTLAND — (AP) — Rescue teams worked at top speed Friday to open an escape tunnel for 128 miners trapped 700 feet down and threatened with drowning in a river of mud.

"There are reasonable hopes for the trapped men," a miners' union official said in Edinburgh.

The miners were entombed Thursday night when a rain-soaked field sank into the workings of the Knockshinnoch Castle Colliery, 30 miles south of Glasgow. The sodden earth mass cut off their path to the exit.

Rescuers tried all night and through the morning to clear dangerous gas fumes from an adjoining mine tunnel so they could cut through a 30-foot wall of coal separating them from their imprisoned co-workers.

The entombed men were in the telephone communication with the pit head.

"We are in good spirits," one of them reported.

None was reported injured and telephone reports indicated they were getting enough air.

Chapman Warns Of Critical Situation In Aviation Gasoline

By JOSEPH HUTTLINGER
Reporter-Telegram Washington Oil Correspondent

WASHINGTON — In a "speed is vital" telegram, Interior Secretary Oscar Chapman is warning petroleum refiners of a "critical military aviation gasoline supply situation."

A seven-point program to step up aviation production is outlined in a telegram of September 1 which has just come to light.

"Urgent" unmet demands for military aviation followed a 30 per cent rise in demand for the next four months, Chapman explains. Extra cost to do the job, says the secretary, "will be given preferred consideration by the Armed Services Petroleum Purchasing Agency in the negotiation of contracts."

Excess components, including alkylate, toluene, oxylene and butylene should be reported to the Interior Department, which will "arrange transfers between refineries," he adds.

The seven points include stepping to the maximum production of high octane, alkylate, blending stocks, including by conversions of reformeries, postponing routine shutdowns, banning use of alkylate for other than 100/130 octane or higher, and making excess blending agents available to other refiners.

The telegram urges a voluntary or mandatory government program of allocating components, and output of high octane gasolines in the near future.

Texas Air National Guard Units To Be Called In October

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Air Force notified Senator Connally (D-Texas) Friday that four Air National Guard units in Texas will be called into service between October 11 and 20.

Connally said the 138th National Guard Fighter Group, with headquarters at Dallas, the 182nd Fighter Squadron, San Antonio, and the 11th Fighter Squadron, Houston, will report at Langley Field, Va.

He said the destination of the 63rd Fighter Wing, Houston, has not yet been determined.

Schools Show 224 Students Gained In Opening Count

As expected by school authorities, enrollment at Midland public schools has shown an increase in the first few days.

Thursday's enrollment lists showed an increase of 224 students over Tuesday's opening day attendance of 4,456.

Supt. Frank Monroe said Friday enrollment will continue to increase during the first six weeks, with a peak of 5,000 expected at that time.

Included in the 4,580 students on the roster Thursday were the totals for schools as follows:

Midland High School, 559; John M. Cowden Junior High School, 813; North Elementary, 430; South Elementary, 649; West Elementary, 468; Crockett Elementary, 613; Terminal Elementary, 166; Latin American Elementary, 245; and Carver School, 433.

Fighting Lull Hints At New Attacks Soon

TOKYO — (AP) — Allied troops hacked out slight gains at opposite ends of the rain-lashed Korean warfront Friday against dangerously rebuilding Red forces.

Little fighting took place on the whole 120-mile battleline. Americans surmised this meant a North Korean building during the lull for a new offensive smash.

A U. S. Eighth Army spokesman said the Red drive by 50,000 men on Taegu, main Allied base on the central front, had "petered out," probably from lack of supplies and sufficient manpower for the present.

The Reds had pushed to within seven miles of Taegu before the U. S. First Cavalry Division and South Koreans broke the back of their drive.

General MacArthur's Tokyo headquarters summary early Saturday confirmed this general picture of the front. It said in the northern sector enemy pressure continued but had diminished while the defense front remained intact.

Near the east, it noted that Allied forces continued to hold Yongchun and advanced against slight enemy resistance.

General MacArthur's headquarters warned of a possible new offensive either in the southwest, north or east.

The buildup seemed greatest on southern coastal approaches to Pusan port, chief Allied base in Korea.

In Masan port, 27 airship miles west of Pusan, Allied authorities ordered removal of all civilians not needed in the war effort.

This was a precautionary measure in the face of a reported offensive infiltration by Red agents ordered to stir up trouble among the 75,000 population.

East Coast Gap Still Open

Five thousand were evacuated from Masan in the first batch Friday.

Battle Mountain, a rugged peak about 12 miles northwest of Masan on the southwestern front, was retaken Friday by the U. S. 28th Infantry.

Stories Of Stars Resurrected By Writer Of Goldwyn West

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD — The Vintage Laugh Parade:

Now that the studios are beginning to worry about the ap- pected stars of draft age, a Sam Goldwyn yarn from World War II is being told.

Shortly after David Niven, en- listed in the British Army, he wrote Goldwyn a touching, sentimental letter.

One by one, members of Gold- wyn's staff were called in to hear the letter read aloud. Actors, press agents, writers and directors lis- tened to Niven's words, sighed over the prose and dabbed at their eyes.

Suddenly Goldwyn tapped the mis- tive, looked significantly at the head of his publicity department and, so the story goes:

"You will arrange to have the contents of this letter leak out to the press."

It happened when Lynn Fontanne and Alfred Lunt came to Los An- geles with one of their plays a few years after they had made their one and only movie for MGM.

Joan Crawford invited the famous stage couple to her home for Sunday brunch.

As the Lunts stepped out of their taxi and set their feet on the green lawn of Joan's manse, Alfred said in a loud, vinegary voice:

"Look, Lynn, REAL grass!"

Unset Books-Of-Month Some long - forgotten stories about the Gloria Swanson of the twenties are being remembered now that Gloria is 1950's biggest star in "Sunset Boulevard."

Not once during the entire show did Groucho, Chico, Harpo and Zeppo address a single remark to Woolcott or even look in his direction.

Woolcott never forgave the brothers for what they did to him that night.

Well Met Some years ago Joan Crawford threw an elaborate party for Noel Coward at a plush Sunset Strip watering place.

Shortly before the champagne began to flow, Joan received a tele- gram from a feminine star that read:

"Am in receipt of your wire. Thanks, but I've already met Noel Coward."

This was first told about the initial visit of Moss Hart to George S. Kaufman's home, but it has popped out of the baking pan again—this time with Marlon Brando and a Hollywood producer as the principals.

Brando, the raconteurs swear, looked at the marble staircase and crystal chandeliers of his host's mansion and muttered:

One concerns the group of Yale men—Broadway Producer Dwight Deere Wiman was one of them—who buzzed around square-mouthed Gloria during a period when she lived in New York. Gloria would drape herself on a couch, flash the fabulous whites of her eyes, and complain to her adorer that she was the most desperately unhappy woman in the world.

"You should read more books, Gloria," the boys would chorus and then would sprint to the nearest book-store for tomes for their en- chantress.

A year later, one of the men was waiting for Gloria in her apart- ment and happened to open the wrong door. Piled to the ceiling in the empty room were packages, boxes and crates of books—all un- opened.

It's not in Kyle Crichton's bi- ography of the Marx brothers, but veteran director Fais Sloan, who is reported to have the year's sleep- er in "The Sun Sets at Dawn," re- calls the unkindest blow ever dealt the late Alexander Woolcott by Minnie Marx's zany sons.

Woolcott had proclaimed the Marxes as the greatest comedy spirits of the century in their Broadway show, "I'll Say She Does." Nightly he sat in the audi- ence, while Groucho and Chico hurled insults at him.

One day he told Harpo that he was bringing some important people with him to the performance that evening and that he was depending on the Marxes to rip loose with their most devastating jibes. His friends, he added, were dying to see him impaled on the skewer of the Marx wit.

Not once during the entire show did Groucho, Chico, Harpo and Zeppo address a single remark to Woolcott or even look in his direction.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES

Ps. 27:14; John 5:30; Luke 6:38; Heb. 11:6.

SEEKING FIRST THE KINGDOM MEANS ACTION It cannot be insisted too much that abundant living means abundant giving. You are made that way in the very structure of your being.

Just as you would smother yourself to death if you only breathed in and refused to breathe out, so if you are not outgoing, the whole process of incoming will stop, and you will die spiritually, mentally, physically. If a cow is not milked, it will go dry. If you are not giving out to others, you, too, will go dry in spirit.

God will see to it that "all these things" will not "be added unto you" if you do not "seek first the Kingdom." If you do not give back to society according to ability, you will not get according to need. What would it mean to fulfill the first portion of the command, "Seek first the Kingdom of God?" Many would translate it in their thinking as "Ac- quire knowledge as first the Kingdom of God," mentally assenting to its primacy. But this goes deeper than that. I know a man who lives in a constant state of self-reference, but has on his letterheads, "In all things He might have the preeminence." The motto on the letterhead was mental compensation. No, seeking first the Kingdom means more than acknowledgment; it means action.

Seeking first the Kingdom means committing the whole of life to the proposition that the Kingdom is first, last, and always—and acting upon the commitment. The context gives the content of the word "seek." Just as man "seek" food, clothing, you are to "seek" the Kingdom—it must master your thinking, your emotions, your will, you. That means that you discipline life to a one-pointedness. In every situation you ask, "In this situation what does the Kingdom demand I should do?"—and you do it.

In two passages the Kingdom and the doing of the will of God are made identical. "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth"—here the coming of the Kingdom was the doing of the will of God. "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father." The Kingdom and the carrying out of the will of God are one and inseparable.

O God, let me commit my will to Thy will, not to be borne, but to be done. For Thou hast wrought me for strenuous endeavor; and unless I work, I wither. Put Thy seal within me, and let me burn out for Thee. In the Master's name. Amen.

Appearance Of Leg Cramps Is Generally Due To Circulation

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

There are a number of questions today, dealing with such varied sub- jects as shock treatments, stuttering, diabetes, leg cramps and the hyper- trophied prostate.

First, let us take up the subject of cramps in the legs.

Q—What can be done for cramps in the legs?

A—The appearance of cramps in the legs, especially occurring at night and often waking a person up, is not rare. Such cramps prob- ably are related to inadequate local circulation. Sometimes these cramps are relieved merely by stretching, which appears to bring about an improved circulation. When these cramps appear, it usually is necessary to study the local circula- tion, perhaps taking X-rays and performing other tests on the cir- culation in the legs. The treatment depends on what is found.

Q—Our little three - year - old grandson stutters, although he pro- nounces his words well. His fond grandfather puts him through an exciting hour of play every evening, losing him into the air, catching him and riding the boy on his shoulders. Do you think this is good for his stuttering?

A—Excitement universally is con- sidered to be undesirable for a child who stutters. Affection from the grandfather is fine and should be continued, but it would be well if it took a more quiet form, such as reading aloud or similar sedentary activity.

Q—I do not agree at all with you that the best treatment for a hyper- trophied prostate gland is surgery.

A—A strict diet for a patient with

I have been treated by heat with great relief.

A—If you really have a hyper- trophied prostate, the chances are your relief will not last long.

Q—My brother served in the Army in World War II, and was given a medical discharge. The doc- tors claim that shock treatments would help him. I refused to sign for him because I don't know if these treatments are good. Can you explain to me more about these shock treatments? He is suffering with a mental disorder, and I would like to help him.

A—For several types of mental disorders, shock treatments are most helpful. Good results cannot be guaranteed, but many people who have been judged suitable for this type of treatment have made re- markable improvements following shock therapy.

Q—Years ago my father used to watch the signs of the Zodiac closely and operated on farm animals only when the signs were favorable. Has the medical profession made any study that would show any advan- tage or disadvantage in following these signs when contemplating sur- gery?

A—No, so far as I know. It scarcely seems suitable for a modern scientific study.

diabetes is calculated very closely to supply the needed food stuffs and in the right proportion. It would not be wise, therefore, to change your diet without consulting your doctor.

Q—Years ago my father used to watch the signs of the Zodiac closely and operated on farm animals only when the signs were favorable. Has the medical profession made any study that would show any advan- tage or disadvantage in following these signs when contemplating sur- gery?

A—No, so far as I know. It scarcely seems suitable for a modern scientific study.

Misses Alabama, South Dakota Gain In Beauty Pageant

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. —(AP)—Misses South Dakota and Alabama have been added to the preliminary contest winners in the Miss America pageant.

That means that in their respective groups—of 18 girls each—they scored the largest number of points toward getting into the Saturday night finals. Fifteen of the 54 girls will compete Saturday night for the title of Miss America 1951.

Irene O'Connor of Burbank, South Dakota, a 20-year-old black-haired junior from the University of South Dakota, outpointed 17 others in Thursday night's talent contest with a dramatic rendition of the dedication of the white armor, a scene from the play, "Joan of Lorraine."

Yolande Betts of Mobile, Ala., took the bathing-suit preliminary. In the course of three nights, ending Friday night, each girl competes in bathing suit, evening gown and talent contests, which narrow down the contestants to a final 15.

The girls represent 46 states, four cities, Alaska, Hawaii, Canada and Puerto Rico.

Helps Both Mother and Son

Hadacol Proves Real Blessing To Relieve Suffering From Stomach Disturbances

caused by lack of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin in their systems

Mrs. Hilton Shuff

Mrs. Shuff's son, Mark Wendell

Anyone only has to look at the happy expression on attractive Mrs. Shuff's face above to recognize the fact that she's a kind, loving thoughtful mother and takes keen interest in bringing up her little son. She lives at Route 1, Box 42, Ville Platte, La.

And what a handsome, husky-looking youngster her son, Mark Wendell, has turned out to be! Mrs. Shuff tells us that since taking the great HADACOL, he has so much more energy. Well that's the way a youngster should be, but Mark Wendell wasn't always in such healthy condition. Due to lack of important Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin.

As Mrs. Shuff says: "My son Mark Wendell had been sick for quite some time. A lot of the time he could hardly hold anything on his stomach. He was very pale and weak. Then I started giving him HADACOL, and he improved so. He has gained weight, and I know he has more energy than a dozen wild Indians."

Adds Her Own Experience

Then Mrs. Shuff thoughtfully added her own interesting experience after taking HADACOL. "When you are a housewife on a farm you have lots of work to do. Not hard work but work that is tiring—especially when you don't feel well. At night I couldn't rest, and food, no matter what I ate, didn't agree with me. Then my sister told me about HADACOL. I took her advice and began taking it. I felt better since taking the third bottle. So far I've taken fifteen bottles of HADACOL. I eat anything I want to. I sleep well and my housework doesn't tire me at all. Anything I say about HADACOL would be an understatement. You can understand why our family is sold on it."

Whole Families Benefiting

We certainly agree with Mrs. Shuff because every day countless letters pour in telling how whole families are reaping tremendous health benefits from taking HADACOL—that great new product everyone is talking about.

HADACOL actually relieves the REAL cause of indigestion, heartburn, gas pains, bloating and belching after eating when due to lack of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin in your system. Know the joy of being able to eat and enjoy the foods you really like without suffering after-meal distress. And here is something that should make you shout with joy—continued use of this great HADACOL helps prevent such painful stomach distress from returning.

Great for Puny, Nervous Youngsters With Such Deficiencies

HADACOL not only supplies weak, run-down, deficient little bodies with more than their daily needs of important Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin but also beneficial amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—elements so vital for growth, to help maintain good health and to help guard against such deficiency ailments.

HADACOL is simply great for puny, sickly kiddies who lack these vital elements. Look what it did for the little Shuff boy—look what it did for his mother. Then why not give HADACOL a chance to help you or any member of your family troubled this way? It costs only a small amount a day. A trial-size bottle, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. Sold on a strict, money-back guarantee.

Baruch Is Not Through Yet

On his favorite bench in New York's Central Park, from which he may times has offered advice which has shaped the affairs of our nation, Bernard M. Baruch held court the other afternoon for his eightieth birthday.

The homage paid him in that simple setting had little bearing on his familiar role as "adviser to Presidents." There were the momentary brilliance of flashbulbs going off, the whir of newsreel cameras, the ceremony of becoming an honorary commissioner of Borough Works.

And there was an animal cracker, shyly presented by a three-year-old girl. The tall man in a white linen suit that matched his snowy hair leaned forward to accept with all the dignity of an elder statesman.

Baruch has been an elder statesman, without portfolio, in the American way of life since World War I.

Two and a half years ago, he said "I have come to the end of my furrow, now I am going to sit by." Now, nibbling on the animal cracker, he observed, "The sands of life are running out for me, but I'm not senile yet. I'll know when I am and I'll shut up. But I'm still able to cope with those fellows and I'll keep telling them what I think should be done until somebody listens."

Those fellows are the ones in Washington, and it is to our advantage that they have listened to the wisdom from a park bench and done something about it. They began listening as long ago as 1916. They listened, and the whole world did, too, with the exception of Russia and Poland, in 1946 when the United Nations cheered the course he laid out for the atomic age.

That was when he said he was bowing out. Others had suggested he rest after World War I, when he was 50. "That's supposed to be middle life," Baruch recalled, "but it's just plain youth." And it was not surprising that last month he should appear, uninvited but forthright as ever, before the Senate Banking Committee. The Baruch force and dignity was at full magnitude when he declared that the proposed defense production bill "had one major fault... it does not go far enough."

The bill seemed sure of becoming law in pre-Baruch form before he appeared. But the quiet judgment of Baruch has sliced through political barriers many times before. When the bill emerged, it included the sweeping powers for the President that Baruch had urged, even though the President and Congress had shunned them.

There are no politics on the park bench Baruch occupies. He had split, in 1948, with the same President to whom he now would give extraordinary powers over prices, wages and profits. His smiling acceptance of an animal cracker, duly recorded by news cameras, was an event more to be expected of the vote-hungry campaigner. Baruch, however, is campaigning only for America and the survival of the American way.

At 80, he still is campaigning, still able to "cope with those fellows," and the little girl with the cookie is only a small symbol of how his countrymen feel about a man who'll "keep on telling them what I think should be done."

Wasted energy is a chaperone apologizing for falling asleep in company.

Comes Now The Great Army Of Experts

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.
Drew Pearson says: Senator Tobey's courage brings old enemies back at election time; Big business plots against liberal senators; Heavy campaign contributions can undermine Senate's integrity.

WASHINGTON — At a recent cocktail party, a tall, handsome guest with a slight drawl and polished manner, stepped up to Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine. "We are really going to get that colleague of yours from New Hampshire," he said. "When the Republican primary is over your friend Tobey isn't going to know what hit him." And he went on to tell at some length about his plans to defeat Tobey.

Senator Smith's friend was Roger Whiteford, a top Washington attorney; while the senator to whom he referred was GOP veteran Charles Tobey, now fighting for his life in the New Hampshire primaries.

Behind this cocktail conversation was something which is axiomatic in politics—namely, "Your friends may forget you at election time, but your enemies never."

This axiom, incidentally, is having important impact on the make-up and caliber of the United States Senate.

In this particular instance, it happened that, 10 long years ago, Senator Tobey called Roger Whiteford before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee and subjected him to a grueling cross-examination regarding payoffs in 1932 by the giant Radio Corporation of America to call off an antitrust case against RCA, the National Broadcasting Company and affiliates.

Whiteford then was a Washington attorney for the Radio Corporation, and thanks to Senator Tobey's grueling cross-examination, it was disclosed that RCA had hired GOP Senator George Moses of New Hampshire to squelch the case. But Herbert Hoover, then President, flatly refused to favor the Radio Corporation, and so did William D. Mitchell, his attorney general.

Whereupon the Radio Corporation hired Senator Dan Hastings of Delaware, a member of the executive committee of the Republican National Committee, who was paid a fee of $7,500, of which, according to the testimony, $2,500 was passed on to the clerk of the U. S. District Court in Wilmington, Del. That fixed the antitrust case.

The clerk induced Judge John P. Nields, appointed to the bench through Senator Hastings, to postpone the antitrust case, following which the Justice Department finally got RCA off with a consent decree.

The evidence truly was shocking. It showed that one of the nation's most influential corporations had resorted to political fixing and bribery to get an antitrust case called off. And had it not been for the persistent sleuthing of Senator Tobey, the facts probably still would be buried.

One of the strong points of Larceny Lou's game is that he always gives his opponents a chance to make a mistake. The difference between this style and ordinary methods of play is illustrated in today's hand, taken from a recent team-of-four match.

In both rooms the final contract was four hearts, reached by identical bidding. In both rooms also West opened the jack of spades.

In the first room declarer won in his own hand, cashed the ace and king of hearts, and then began the diamonds. He hoped that each opponent would have three diamonds or that the player with the last trump would have the greater length in diamonds.

As it happened, East ruffed the third round of diamonds with his high trump. Since it was perfectly obvious that the defense could win only club tricks, East began that suit and the defenders took three clubs, setting the contract.

When the hand was played in the second room, Larceny Lou was the declarer. After winning the first trick with the ace of spades, he immediately cashed the queen of diamonds and led a diamond to dummy's ace. He then led the king of diamonds and led a diamond to East's low trump.

East looked unhappily at the king of diamonds and decided not to let South get a discard. He therefore ruffed with the three of hearts, not realizing that he was thereby giving up his side's trump trick.

This was one of the things that Larceny Lou had hoped for. He trumped - ruffed with the four of trumps, and laid down the ace and king of trumps. When the queen and jack fell together on the second high trump East and West looked very sad.

The rest, of course, was quite easy. Lou could lead to the king of spades, ruff a diamond, and give up three clubs to the opponents.

It is important to note that Lou's line of play would lose nothing if each opponent held three diamonds. In that case, Lou would discard a club on the king of diamonds and then abandon the suit temporarily.

He would draw two rounds of trumps with the ace and king and then return to dummy with the king of spades to lead a fourth diamond. On this card Lou would discard another club, allowing the enemy to take their high trump at the expense of a club trick.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

'Voice' Proves It Is Effective And Is Voted Expansion Money

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Things are in such a fix now that the State Department could use a public relations program to tell how good its foreign broadcast information service is.

Somewhat put out by a recent rash of critical comment, Assistant Secretary of State Edward W. Barrett, in charge of Public Affairs, has struck back at concerted attempts to belittle the Voice of America and its affiliated moving picture and educational programs. They're not as bad, he maintains, as some people would have you believe.

The easy thing to do, of course, is to say and believe that the Russians are outsmarting us all over the world. It is a common assumption that Communist propaganda is always better and more effective than the counter-propaganda of the democracies.

While it never is wise to underestimate the power of an enemy, overdoing this develops a defeatist attitude. One of the commonest criticisms is that the Russians now are jamming the voice of America programs so completely that nothing gets through the iron curtain. Statements by Russian refugees who have escaped to the American zone give this lie. Intelligence reports on the examination of these converts to anti-communism indicate that the Voice programs are getting through and that they are listened to.

One of the prime examples offered in proof of this is the case of Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina, who jumped from a window to escape the Soviet consulate in New York. For days after this event, the Moscow radio and the Russian press ignored the incident. All this time the Voice of America was pumping it into Russia for all it was worth.

The Voice's story was believed. It finally forced the Russians to issue a spurious account of what had happened. This obviously was so phony that it was not believed, even in Moscow. And it was shortly after this event that the Russians really started to turn on the power to jam over the American Voice.

American technical genius has been at work to overcome this jamming, and with considerable success. One practice is to mass transmitters. British, French and other European stations now beam news programs into Communist countries at the same time on different frequencies. The Russians can't jam them all. So some programs are bound to get through.

Another practice is to "cuddle" the Soviet stations. The idea is to use frequencies so close to Moscow and other Communist transmitters that the Russians can't jam these programs without, at the same time, jamming their own stations.

U. S. Bureau of Standards has worked out a system of critical frequencies for U. S. and allied transmitters, so that the Russian interference isn't effective unless the jamming station is right on the beam it wishes to blanket.

Under the new appropriation bill just passed by Congress, the Voice of America has been given funds for a new chain of high-powered transmitters around the perimeter of the Soviet sphere of influence.

When these new stations are in operation, Russian jamming will be all the more difficult.

Another appropriation approved by Congress is for the purchase of some 200,000 radio receivers. A new set has been designed by U. S. radio manufacturers. It will be built to

Questions and Answers

Q—Is it a fact that dark colors absorb heat?
A—Yes—it has been demonstrated many times.

Q—How many possessions does the United States have?
A—Eight—Alaska, Hawaii, Wake, and Midway, Samoa, Puerto Rico, Panama Canal Zone, Virgin Islands and Guam.

Q—What percentage of World War II wounded survived?
A—More than 97 per cent. Reasures of blood plasma played a large part in the life-saving.

Q—Under which Pharaoh did the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt take place?
A—This is still a disputed question. The traditional and most general view is that Ramesses II was the Pharaoh of Oppression and Memphthal of the Exodus.

Q—Do fires occur in the Amazon forests?
A—They are practically unknown. The wood, being hard, green and wet, does not burn easily.

What's Right? You want a neighbor's child to do some chore for you? WRONG: Get him to do the work and then pay him what you want. RIGHT: Put it on a business-like basis, making an agreement with him beforehand as to what he is to be paid.

The FORMER MISS FREY By Edwin Rutt

THE STORY: The former Miss Frey has never been forgiven by her father for eloping with fortune hunter Peter Flood. But when a no strong willed as her father and, determined to make the best of her bargain, she writes to inspire her husband to writing plays. When she met Peter he had written one play, moderately successful on Broadway. The couple had been living in Berkeley, close to one of Ede's former associates, Bill Sumner-Seld. Returning home late from Sumner-Seld's place one night, Ede finds a telegram waiting for her from her father in Berkeley. He dies in New York and, as her father's bedside, she sees Ede's two brothers, Jeffrey and Myron, and her 12-year-old sister Jean.

"How are you, Dad?" she said. "How am I?" The sardonic eyes gleamed up at her. "That's a fool question. How would anyone be when he's dying?" Ede forced a smile. "Dying? You, Dad? Don't be silly. They can't kill you."

"They can't, eh? That's what I thought for 68 years. I was wrong. They've got me this time and don't you forget it. Ede Frey. But I'll not die before I say what I've got to say to you."

Ede drew up a chair and sat facing him. For a long moment his eyes burned into hers. "You look tired," he decided, at last. "And not especially happy."

"I'm only tired from the trip, Dad," Ede said. "And I'm happy enough."

Edie said slowly, "I didn't want to go against you that time, Dad. But I honestly did love Peter Flood."

"Bah! Calf love. But you've paid for it. I can see it in your face. Well, I'm not going to forgive you. I never forgive."

"I know you don't," Ede smiled. "You're really an old devil, Dad. A wicked man."

"You're damn right I'm a wicked man," rasped old Cornelius, a gurgle of satisfaction in his voice. "I've had a lot of fun being wicked. I got what I wanted out of this fool world and I made a lot of money and I enjoyed doing it. And I swore that that jackanapes you married would never get any good out of my money. But now—all at once the bantering, almost gleeful note left his voice—"I don't know. I don't know at all." The voice trailed away.

Ede leaned forward in her chair. "Listen, Dad, if anything's worrying you, tell me. I'll do anything you ask."

"All right." Life seemed to come back into Cornelius's voice. "Remember you said that. Now I'll tell you something, Ede. I had them send for you because you're the only one of my children who isn't a fool."

"Oh, Father—" Ede began. He held up a hand. "I know what I'm talking about. Jeffrey's a nervous case, fuzzy-headed, fussy and twitting about it. He doesn't earn half what I pay him at the agency. And Myron goes around with his head in the clouds. I don't know what he wants and he doesn't either. I need a place for him in the business because what else could I do with him? As for Jenn... well, she's scarcely more than a child. She may have brains. I don't know. I haven't seen any signs of them yet and I won't be around long enough to find out."

"I'll take care of her," Ede said. "Of her? Eal?" Cornelius laughed shakily. "You don't seem to realize it, my dear, but you're going to take care of the whole darn bunch of them. Ede almost jumped. "Dad! What on earth do you mean?" (To Be Continued)

More Representation, Taxes Predicted By Pecos Senator

PECOS—Senator Hill D. Hudson, addressing the Pecos Rotary Club at a recent meeting, predicted greater representation for West Texas in the Legislature, and increased taxes for the entire state.

"Texas will be redistricted, on the basis of the 1950 census, by the Legislature or by a special committee if the Legislature fails to act," Hudson declared. He told of some districts in the eastern part of the state which are receiving far greater representation than the western parts with only one-half the populations.

In discussing pending tax bills, Senator Hudson said he is opposed to a general sales tax or a state income tax. He said a majority of members of both houses apparently feel the same way that he does, and there is little chance that either bill will be passed.

Tax Requirements
The need for more taxes stem from the need for more and more money to run the state's business. He said the Gilmer-Alkin bill was costing $80 million more than ordinarily was estimated (and there was a deficit of $30 million in state spending that must be made up by additional taxes. Since the state advalorem tax ends January 1, another source of revenue will be needed here.

The eleemosynary and state hospital programs this year will require $25 million in additional funds, Hudson said.

"I make no apologies for the need of new taxes for financing these agencies," Hudson said. "We will need this extra money, but I cannot predict how the money will be raised."

Sliding Scale
Hudson doesn't favor a "single shot" tax. His theory of taxation is that taxes should be based on each individual's ability to pay. Other than taxes on the so-called luxury items, he favors a proportionate tax.

A sliding scale of taxes should be placed on the larger businesses in Texas, Hudson said.

The charitable institutions, he said, should not be allowed to compete with free enterprise without some taxes being imposed. Another source of revenue, he said, was the horde of service stations owned by the oil companies which are not included under the chain store tax.

Hudson said he had heard of some instances in West Texas where merchants are being solicited to contribute to "professional" tax lobbying groups. He urged merchants and others to refrain from contributing to "this sort of thing," stating that it is much more effective for citizens to express their views in personal letters addressed to their legislators.

Jet Scientist Found Guilty Of Perjury; Second Faces Trial

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— With the perjury conviction of Dr. Sidney Weinbaum behind them, federal agents Friday took the case of another jet propulsion scientist with an alleged Communist background.

Dr. Hsue Shen Tsien, 40, alien Chinese specialist, is held without bond pending a deportation hearing by the U. S. Immigration Service which charges he is in this country illegally because of membership in a group that advocates overthrow of the government by force.

Russian-born Dr. Weinbaum, 52, was found guilty by a federal court jury Thursday of lying about his membership in the Communist Party.

Both scientists were engaged in jet research work at California Institute of Technology.

Dr. Weinbaum was removed from a government-sponsored secret laboratory at Caltech after a U. S. security check. Dr. Tsien has headed the institute's Guggenheim Jet Propulsion Center, dealing mostly in research for civilian and commercial use.

Featherman sneezed: "Kerchoo! Kerchoo! Kerchoo! Kerchoo! And then the Featherman said: "Worry, worry and worry. Oh me!"

"Now don't you fret yourself, Featherman," Daddy Ringtail said. "Dr. Shoobug will soon be here."

"Oh thank you, Daddy Ringtail," said Featherman, but again he sneezed: "Kerchoo! Kerchoo! Kerchoo, worry, worry!"

Poor Featherman! There he was sick in bed with Featherman sneezes. He lives in a nest instead of a house, and the nest is full of feathers, feathers and more feathers. Feathermen are all the Featherman can think about, almost, and now he was thinking of worries for fear his feathers were going to be taken away.

"Now, now, Featherman," said Daddy Ringtail, "nobody is going to take your feathers away."

"Oh yes they will," said the Featherman in his Featherman voice. "Dr. Shoobug will take them away, because they have given me the feather sneezes." And again three times the Featherman sneezed: "Kerchoo! Kerchoo! Kerchoo!"

"Now, now, now," said Daddy Ringtail.

"Oh, worry, worry, and another worry," said the Featherman. Then from away through the forest came a happy noise. The noise was the one of Dr. Shoobug running fast to see a sick somebody. The good doctor skidded to a stop beside the bed. "Mmmmm - hmmm!" the doctor said, looking carefully at the Featherman.

"Kerchoo!" sneezed the Featherman, and "Worry, worry, worry."

By WESLEY DAVIS

"Dr. Shoobug," said Daddy Ringtail, "Featherman is worried for fear you will take his feathers away to stop his feather sneezes."

"Uh, no," said Dr. Shoobug. "I won't take his feathers away." But Dr. Shoobug explained that Featherman would have to do without feather soup for three whole days to make him well again.

And because the Featherman really was a smart old fellow, he did without feather soup for three whole days, and then he wasn't sick any more. Why, everyone ought to do what the doctor says, wouldn't you say? I would. Happy day! (Copyright 1950, General Features Corp.)

The House that CONVICTION BUILT

When many people have the same conviction about a thing, they usually get together. They become members of a party, or a society, or a congregation.

Every Sunday in the churches of our community many people get together. They have the same conviction about God—they worship together.

When they worship, they offer thanks, they ask help. They sing to express their happiness. They listen to enrich their minds with the truth that comes from God. And before they bow their heads to receive final benediction, they give such gifts as they can to their Lord's work.

All of us have need for worship—it is a part of human nature and the divine will of God. So for your greatest benefit and happiness, choose a Church in this community—attend its services and join in its work. Make it YOUR CHURCH.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
 The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship, strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral aid and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

MAJOR LEAGUES-

Boston Edges By Yankees To Give Tigers Top Spot

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers are back on top in the pulse-pounding American League pennant race Friday but they had one eye cocked on Steve O'Neill's Boston Red Sox, moving up fast on the outside.

Boston, which has just deflated the New York Yankees in two straight games, is the hottest team in the league. The millionaires have won 20 of their last 25 games, including 18 of 19 in their own Fenway Park.

Their two victories over the Yankees knocked the New Yorkers out of the lead and restored Detroit to the top by the skippy margin of two percentage points. The sporting Sox are third, a game and a half behind.

The situation at a glance:

W	L	Pct	GB
Detroit	82	48	.631
New York	83	49	.629
Boston	82	51	.617	1 1/2
Cleveland	80	54	.597	4

Creating almost as much furore as the Red Sox are the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League chase. The Brooks have knocked off the league-leading Philadelphia Phils three straight times in the Quaker City to move to within four and one-half games of Eddie Sawyer's reeling Whiz Kids.

The big question facing the Red Sox is: can they keep up their terrific pace on the road? Or will they tail off as in the last two seasons? They hit the rails after a weekend series with the Philadelphia Athletics, whom they've beaten eight straight at Boston.

Boston's road record is 33-32 compared to 49-19 in their own ballpark.

The Red Sox road record against contenders is pretty sad. They have won only two of seven in Cleveland, three of six in New York and four of nine in Detroit.

The Sox and Yankees are idle Friday while the Tigers take on the sixth-place White Sox in Chicago.

Both the Red Sox and Tigers had on their hitting clothes Thursday. The Sox outslugged the Yankees 10-8, while the Tigers battled the Cleveland Indians to a stamberg 13-13, 10-inning tie that was halted by darkness.

The Red Sox pounded four Yankee pitchers for 12 hits with big Walt Dropo leading the way. Dropo drove home five runs on a double

Texas League—Dallas' Chances Of Reaching Playoffs Getting Slimmer
By The Associated Press
Dallas' chance of slipping past San Antonio into the Texas League playoff get slimmer by the day. Thursday night the Eagles took it on the chin from Fort Worth 7-3, while San Antonio jumped on Shreveport 8-2. That gave the Missions a two and one-half-game edge on Dallas with the season's end coming up Monday.

Dallas touched Pat McGlothlin for 13 hits, but left 15 on strand on base as Fort Worth scored one run in the first inning and broke a 1-1 tie in the fourth. The Cards never were headed after this. Beaumont dumped Houston 6-3, while Oklahoma City licked Tulsa 9-6, in other games.

ACC CENTER—Wally Bullington is one of three freshmen who won football letters at Abilene Christian College last season. He's 21, weighs 197. From Athens, Ala., High School, he was unanimous choice for all-state high school center. The Birmingham Age-Herald, selecting him as All-Southern center, said he stood "head and shoulders" over the field at this position. Coach Garvin Beauchamp is counting heavily upon this fine lad this season. ACC will play Sul Ross State in Midland the night of September 23.

Abilene Christian Has Promising '11'

ABILENE—Abilene Christian College's new football coaching staff of former ACC teammates has a young but promising squad of 65 at Morris Field for football training.

Garvin V. Beauchamp went into action as head coach, succeeding the veteran Tonto Coleman, who went to the University of Florida as freshman coach. Beauchamp's assistants are those Tonto had—Oliver Jackson and Bill McClure.

It was Beauchamp and Jackson whom Coleman selected to assist him when they returned from World War II service. All three of the present Wildcat mentors played together for ACC under Coleman.

The new coach faces a 10-game schedule that includes contests with the 1949 champions of three conferences in addition to the Texas Conference's own three-time champion, McMurry. Other champs to be played are Midwestern of the Big State, East Texas State of the Lone Star and Sul Ross of the New Mexico conference. The Sul Ross game is slated September 23 in Midland's Memorial Stadium.

The University of Chattanooga, victor over ACC 14-7 last year, will be met again in Chattanooga. Beauchamp is looking to several junior college transfers to bolster a force of 16 letter men this season.

ACC ran short of material last season and had its worst win-and-loss record in more than a decade, winning only one of its four Texas Conference games.

The squad was hit hard on the eve of the first workout when Don Ayres, quarterback from Murray Junior College, Tishomingo, Okla., was called to active Army duty.

By The Associated Press
Texas high school football really blasts open the season Friday night, with more than 100 games in Class AA, A and B.

McCamey Junior, 'B' Team Grid Schedules Are Near Completion
McCAMEY—Schedules for the McCamey Badgers' B team and for the Junior High School team have been announced.

The two teams will play opponents from the same school on the same date during part of the season.

The teams are to meet Monahan teams here September 23 to open the season. The Juniors play Crane here September 30, and go to Pecos October 7.

Feature tilts in Class A are those in which Littlefield, defending champion, and New Braunfels, South Texas power, are engaged. Littlefield plays Lockney and New Braunfels takes on Peacock Military Academy of San Antonio.

Big scores were the rule in Class A games Thursday night. Bishop Byrne of Port Arthur smashed Port Acres 32-6; St. Anthony's of Beaumont rolled over Kirbyville 52-0; Mission slaughtered Edgewood of San Antonio 75-0, and Gilmer nicked Springhill 7-6.

Although North Carolina won seven of 10 football games in 1949, the Tarheels were outscored by their opponents, 178 to 177.

Midland Home Run Bats Beat Swats

It's the last time around for Midland baseball fans Friday night in Indian Park because it's the last home game for the Midland Indians.

Lefty Leon Hayes is due to oppose the Sweetwater Swatters at 8:15 p.m. in the finale.

It'll be "Appreciation Night," too, and all fans are urged to turn out early and take part in the fun.

The Midland Indians came from behind Thursday night at Indian Park and copped a 9 to 4 decision over the Sweetwater Swatters. The home-run bats of Jim Prince and Mike Bellone plus some fine pitching by Glen Patton put the Indians over.

Hal Wearne, Midland starter, was relieved by Patton in the third after he had given up three runs to the Swatters, two of them in the second. Patton allowed another tally in the third before he could get the fire out but that was all. The Swatters were on his hip from then on.

Midland got back into the ball game in the third with three runs. Patton led off with a double, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on an infield out.

Lou Dawson walked with two away and Jim Prince poled one out of the park high over the right-field fence. That made it 4-3.

The Tribe, with Prince and Dawson again at work, tied it in the fifth. Dawson walked and Prince doubled him home.

Scouter Hughes was the man in the sixth. Kenny Jones and Quentin Basco walked in succession and Hughes doubled off the fence in right-center field to drive them home. Mike Bellone singled to score Hughes.

Bellone finished it off in great fashion in the eighth. With Hughes on base, he clouted a homer over the left field fence for Midland's final two runs.

Scouter Hughes, as usual turned in some fielding gems at shortstop to aid Patton's cause. Basco, back at second base, handled everything that came his way.

Longhorn League—San Angelo Splits With Vernon; Big Spring Is Defeated

By The Associated Press

The Longhorn League race may have a little excitement in its last four days of regular play.

Right now there's just two and one-half games between third-place Big Spring and fifth-place San Angelo. Fourth-place Vernon is just a half game back of third-place Big Spring.

The excitement, of course, will be over the battle for fourth place and the last spot in the Shaughnessy playoff.

San Angelo didn't help itself Thursday night. The Colts split with Vernon, winning the second game 4-0, after dropping the first 1-0. Cotton Russell won his twenty-fourth game for Vernon in the opener and singled home the winning run in the sixth inning.

Roswell blasted Big Spring 16-7, pounding out 20 hits—two home runs by Tom Jordan.

Midland jumped on Sweetwater 9-4, while league leading Odessa had an easy time with Ballinger 11-2.

The scores:

With Eddie Lebaron leading the way, the College of Pacific scored 575 points against 66 for their opponents while winning 11 straight games in 1949.

LOOK ALIKES—The veteran Ed Lopat, top, and young Eddie Ford, home-grown southpaws with the New York Yankees, are built and look enough alike to be related.

Atlanta Crackers Cop Southern Flag

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.—(AP)—The Atlanta Crackers, picked for a second division berth in the pre-season poll of league sports writers, Thursday night won the Southern Association pennant.

Going into a doubleheader, Atlanta was leading the Birmingham Barons by six games. After losing the opener to Little Rock 2-0, the Crackers came back to take the afterpiece 8-1 and the pennant was theirs.

When Ralph Kiner hit his thirty-fourth home run in St. Louis, it marked the second year in succession that he belted No. 34 in Sportsman's Park. He did it the year four days ahead of his 1949 four-bagger.

Farewell, Appreciation Night At Indian Park

It's "Farewell and Appreciation Night" Friday night at Indian Park as the Midland Indians make their last home stand of the season. The ceremonies will start at 8 p.m.

The night, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, was set so Midland fans can show their appreciation and bid farewell to the players.

Each player will be presented a gift during brief ceremonies.

Fans attending will be given a chance to win a baseball autographed by all the Indians.

Maurice Cox, chairman of the sports committee of the Chamber of Commerce, urges all fans to turn out and back the Indians on this special night.

Bulldogs Hit It Hard In Session

The Midland Bulldogs ripped off another rough, tough, two-hour workout Thursday afternoon at Memorial Stadium and several of the boys blossomed out considerably. Another rowdy session was slated Friday afternoon.

Stan Coker, 205-pound tackle, put on a good defensive show after he got going in Thursday's drill. He turned in some of the best line play and hardest tackles yet seen in the young training season.

Bill Medart and Jerry Culp had the safety men groaning as they crushed the punt returns in no uncertain terms during punting drills. Medart is working at defensive halfback and end. Culp is battling for a starting guard position.

Pete English, Culp's opponent for the guard slot, also got in some good looks.

Jimmy O'Neal is looking better on defense every day. He can use his 180 pounds to great advantage for the Bulldogs as a linebacker with a little more improvement.

The backfield ran a number of reverses and tossed a lot of passes in the session. Robert Kensing, Larry Friday and Jack Burris are showing up on offense.

Ralph Brooks, a 180-pounder now, is blocking better than he has since he started playing in mid-season of last year.

Bob Wood, Dalton Byerley, Robert Burks, L. C. Thomas, Charles Crowley and Graham Mackey, all returnees from last season, are coming along nicely.

Dan Black, a good looking backfield candidate, suffered a leg injury Thursday and had to retire from practice. The extent of the injury was not determined immediately but probably will sideline him several days.

Plastic Nips Rotary 4-3

Western Plastic pushed across three runs in a big third inning Thursday night at Wadley Field to edge Rotary Engineers 4 to 3 in a City Major League playoff tilt. The win evened the championship series at one game for each team.

The third tilt will be unreeled at 8 p.m. Friday at Wadley Field. The series will resume again Tuesday night after a weekend layoff.

Brook went the distance in Thursday night's victory for Plastic. He chunked a three-hitter.

The Engineers touched him for one run in the second and added two in the third. Brook held them after that.

Jerry Matejek was charged with the defeat but he gave up only four hits.

Walker was hit by a pitched ball in the second and Howell drove him home with a double for Western Plastic's first tally.

A single by Clark, a double by Walker and two errors provided the winning runs in the fourth.

WT-NM League—

Pampa Sweeps Two; Lamesa Loses 9-8

By The Associated Press
There's a chance third-place Lamesa and fourth-place Lubbock will swap places before the end of the West Texas-New Mexico League race Monday, but this news doesn't mean much to second-division clubs.

Pampa, Albuquerque, Lamesa and Lubbock are thinking of that Shaughnessy playoff.

Thursday night, Pampa beat Borger twice 2-1, 11-8. Roy Parker won his twenty-seventh game in the first tilt.

Lubbock split with Amarillo, winning the first 3-2, but dropping the second 11-3.

Clovis came from behind with five runs in the ninth to nick Lamesa 9-8 while Albuquerque banged out 27 hits for a 20-5 decision over Abilene.

OAKLAND RETAINS CROWN
OMAHA —(AP)—Oakland, Calif., Friday held its second consecutive American Legion junior baseball championship. Oakland blasted St. Louis for an 11-0 victory and the championship Thursday night.

District 5-A Grid Slate Is Loaded

District 5-A teams get their first real grid action of the 1950 season Friday and Saturday nights in seven games that are scheduled for unrelenting. Five of the tilts are slated Friday night and two will be uncocked Saturday night.

The headliners for Friday night are Merkel at Kermit, Leveland at Pecos and McCamey at Colorado City in non-conference clashes. Seminole plays at Crane and Wink at Fort Stockton in a pair of Friday night conference games.

Saturday night, the schedule calls for Dalhart at Andrews and Roscoe at Monahans.

Dover City is the only conference member which does not see action.

Qualifying For Golf Meet At Ranchland Due To Reach Peak

Qualifying for the Ranchland Hill Country Club Golf Tournament is expected to reach a peak Saturday and Sunday, the final two days for golfers to post their marks. Guests have been requested not to play on those days due to the expected large number of qualifiers.

Qualifying for medalist will be Sunday only. A long driving contest and barbecue will follow the day's play.

The tournament will start its match play next week. One match per week for each golfer is scheduled until the event ends on October 8. More than $700 in prizes will be awarded that day.

Bulldog Booster Club Meeting Set

The first meeting of the Midland Bulldog Booster Club will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Junior High School Cafeteria and all fans are urged to attend.

Membership cards for this year will be handed out at the meeting. An interesting program is being drawn up for the initial session.

Ted Kroll Is Man To Beat At Reading

READING, PA. —(AP)—Thirty-year-old Ted Kroll, a 12-year veteran of the golfing wars but always an also-ran, was the man to beat Friday as the nation's leading golfer began play in the second round of the $15,000 Reading Open.

The 6,456-yard Bernhart Country Club layout is a putter's paradise and if Kroll can control his putter as well as he did Thursday he will be far enough ahead by nightfall that he'll be well-nigh impossible to catch.

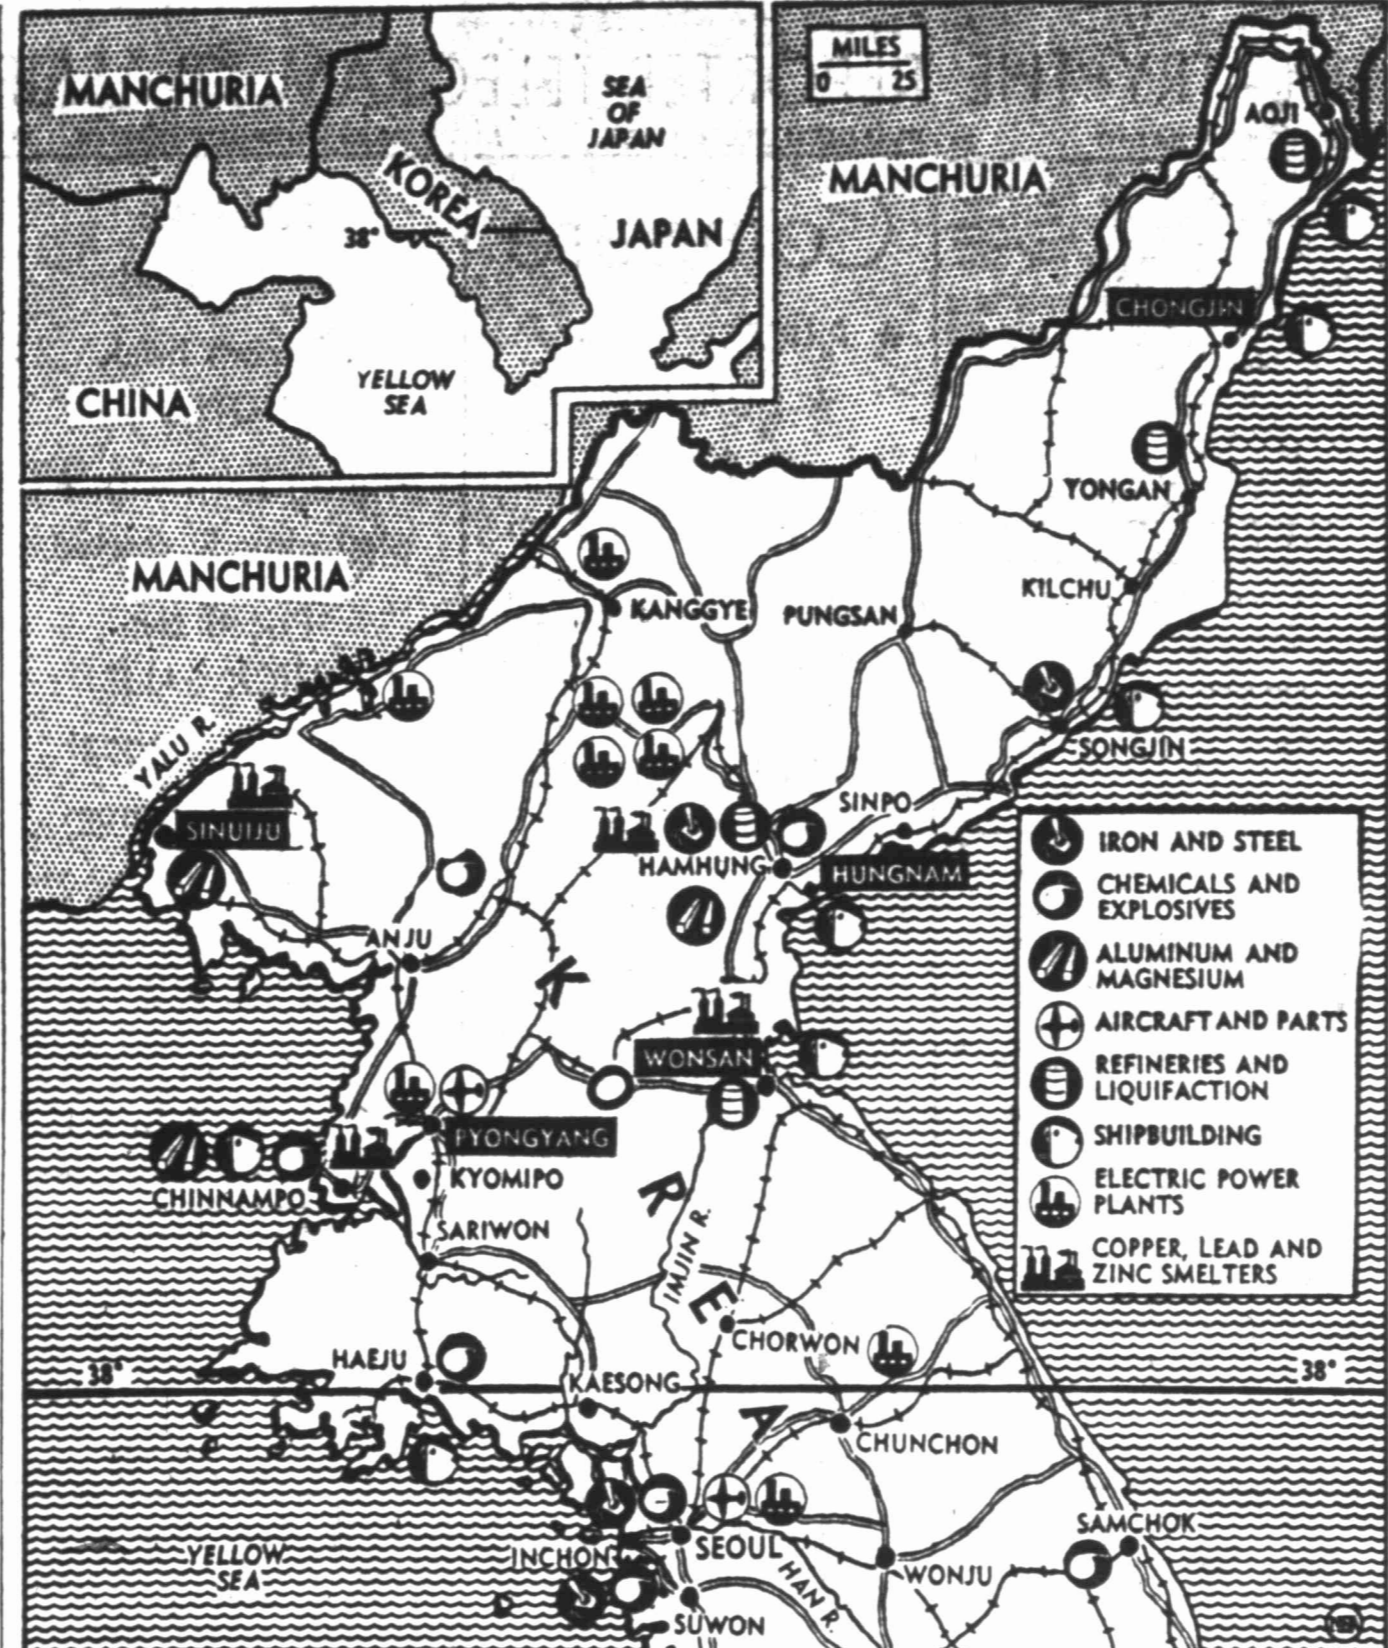

Kroll posted a record-equaling 64 over the par 72 course.

Sammy Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. was four strokes off the pace at 68 and fourth place. He was deadlocked with Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., and Jim Ferriter on San Francisco as well as Doug Ford, from Briarcliff, N. Y.

Trailing Ted were a pair of habitual also-rans, Glenn Test of Jacksonville, Fla., who fashioned a 68, and Jimmy Clark of Hamilton Beach, Calif., who came home with 67.

"RABBIT" FARM?

WILLOWS, CALIF. —(AP)—The Willows Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinal farm club in the Class D Far West League, smashed seven home runs in walloping Pittsburgh, Calif., 32-8 in the seven-inning opener of a recent doubleheader.

TARGETS FOR UN BOMBERS—North Korea presents plenty of militarily important industrial targets for our bombers, as map above shows. More than 80 per cent of all Korean heavy industry is situated north of the 38th parallel, according to the National Geographic Society. Bulk of this industry is concentrated in the five centers indicated in white type. U. S. Air Force's strategic bombing of the Communists' war industry and transportation lines eventually is reflected on the fighting front by critical shortages of arms, munitions, automotive and airplane fuel and repair parts.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

trial-West Scurry County wildcat, 14 miles west and two miles north of Snyder, is bottomed at 8,230 feet in Ellenburger lime, and is shut-down for repairs.

This venture topped the Ellenburger at 8,180 feet on an elevation of 2,467 feet.

It drilled to 8,199 feet and took a two-hour drillstem test at 8,185-99 feet. The water cushion was flowed out in one hour. In the next 90 minutes the project flowed 60 barrels of fluid, estimate to have been 20 barrels of oil and 40 barrels of water.

To Make More Hole
It has been deepened to 8,230 feet and had to suspend drilling for a machinery repair job. It probably will be drilled a little deeper and then tested again as soon as the equipment is in working order.

Location is 660 feet from east and 81.7 feet from south lines of section 283, block 97, H&TC survey. It is four and one-half miles northwest of the Diamond field.

The Delta Gulf exploration failed to find any possibilities of production in any section of the Pennsylvania.

Garza Prospect To Set Pipe And Test

R. L. York and Standard-Fryer Drilling Company No. 1 Justice heirs, Southeast Garza County wildcat, one and three-quarter miles southeast of Justiceburg, is preparing to drill deeper from the current bottom of 7,492 feet in lower Pennsylvania lime.

This prospector has indicated possibilities of developing commercial production in the lime section between 7,416 feet and 7,492 feet. The interval at 7,460-92 feet developed 4,800 feet of clean oil and 1,470 feet of salt water during a two hour drillstem test. A part of that fluid unloaded while the drill pipe was being pulled.

Will Run Casing
The section at 7,416-92 feet recovered 100 feet of oil and gas cuttings mud and 300 feet of heavy oil and gas cuttings mud in a two hour and three minute test.

Operators have ordered casing to the well. It is expected to be delivered early next week. It will be run and cemented and the section between 7,416 feet and 7,492 feet will then be given a production test.

Plymouth Offsets Sterling Discovery

Plymouth Oil Company has staked location for No. 1-B TXL to be a one-location north offset to Plymouth No. 1 TXL, a Clear Fork discovery in West Sterling County.

The new project is located 330 feet from south and west lines of section 18, block 31, T-4-S, T&P survey. It is 15 miles west of Sterling City.

Projected depth is 2,500 feet to test the Clear Fork. Cable tools will be moved in and drilling will begin in the near future.

Tex-Harvey To Get Another Project

Tex-Harvey Oil Company has scheduled another project for the Tex-Harvey field in Central-East Midland County for immediate drilling about 18 miles southeast of the

Stepout Is Staked To Midland Farms

A prospective southeast extension to the Midland Farms field of Southeast Andrews County has been scheduled to be drilled by Anderson-Prichard Oil Company. It will be that concerns No. 5-A Pasken.

Drillate will be 660 feet from northwest and northeast lines of section 43, block 41, T-1-N, G&MMB&A survey, about 17 miles southeast of the Town of Andrews.

It is about three-quarters of a mile due east of production in the Midland Farms field.

The No. 5-A Pasken is scheduled to be drilled to 5,000 feet with rotary.

One Completed, One Spotted In Borden

Standard Oil Company of Texas will drill its No. 2 Hechler as a due south offset to its No. 1 Hechler, recently completed east extension to the East Vealmor pool in Central South Borden County.

The No. 2 Hechler will be 662 feet from west and 708 feet from south lines of section 15, block 27, H&TC survey.

Drillate will be five miles west of Vincent.

Standard's No. 1 Hechler was completed for a flowing potential of 825 barrels of oil and no water daily on a one-half inch choke.

Flowed 12 Hours
That potential is based on an actual natural flow of 412 1/2 barrels of oil in 12 hours.

Gas-oil ratio was reported to be 1,132-1. Tubing pressure on the potential test was 500 pounds. Casing pressure was 100 pounds.

The No. 1 Hechler, east offset to the discovery well of the West Vealmor field, is 664 feet from north and 658 feet from west lines of section 15, block 27, H&TC survey.

Sulphur Water Found On Test In Sterling

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-B Foster, wildcat in Central Sterling County six miles southwest of Sterling City, recovered 750 feet of sulphur water and no shows of oil or gas on a drillstem test in the Wolfcamp at 4,990-5,150 feet.

Tool was open 45 minutes. Operator is now preparing to drill deeper.

The wildcat, scheduled to be drilled to 8,600 feet is located 2,050 feet from west and 1,965 feet from south lines of section 18, block T, T&P survey.

The projected depth of the No. 1-B Foster is sufficient to test the Ellenburger.

Drillate is four miles southwest of the Durham San Andres pool, and two miles southwest of Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1 McDonald, an 8,535-foot failure.

Salt Creek Extension Finished In W-C Kent

General Crude Oil Company has completed its No. 1-183 D. R. Cole

Republicans Glum As Colleague's Charges Against Interior Chief Virtually Collapse

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Schoepel (R-Kan) Friday demanded and was promised the right to call his own witnesses in an effort to back up his charges of Communist infiltration into the Interior Department and the Alaskan statehood fight.

Schoepel made the move at a public hearing of the Senate Interior Committee investigating his charges against Secretary of the Interior Chapman and others — charges which Republican colleagues said privately seemed to be back-firing.

Chapman vigorously denied Schoepel's charges against him when he appeared Thursday. The secretary dared Schoepel to repeat them where he would not be immune from suit for damages.

Schoepel, a freshman senator who is making his first venture into a field where Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) preceded him with Communist - in - government charges against State Department officials, puffed vigorously on his pipe while Chapman was testifying.

Later Schoepel told reporters he had changed his original opinion of Chapman "in some respects" because the cabinet member had "cleared up certain angles which I have been uncertain about."

Schoepel said he thought his statements were correct when he made his speech on Tuesday, but added: "I am not going to say they could not have been checked on more carefully."

Schoepel said he never had any doubt about Chapman's loyalty. Democrats generally took this as something of a retraction.

Republicans kept publicly silent about the somewhat obvious discomfiture of their Kansas colleague. But one Republican senator who is friendly to Schoepel said he feared the Chapman incident would offset in part any political gain the Republicans may have got out of the Communist charges McCarthy has been repeating for months.

All in all, he concluded, the whole thing didn't do the Republicans any good.

Cotton—

In a report accompanying the crop forecast, the Census Bureau said 863,833 bales of 1950-crop cotton had been ginned prior to September 1 compared with 1,247,576 bales to the same date last year and 1,444,355 two years ago.

The department estimated the yield per acre at 257.4 pounds compared with 284 last year and 261.3 for the 10-year average.

The production of American-Egyptian cotton was estimated at 65,300 bales compared with 4,000 last year and 27,800 for the 10-year average.

The department said that except for 1945 and 1946 the current cotton acreage for harvest is the smallest since 1886.

Sharpest declines in cotton harvests in August were reported in Oklahoma, Louisiana, Tennessee and parts of Texas.

Showers along with below-average temperatures in those states delayed maturity and increased insect damage, the department added.

Lions in captivity are said to grow better manes than those living in the wild state.

Additional Boost In Building Costs Declared Looming

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK—(AP)—Another rise in building costs is shaping up. And shortages of a number of materials are foreseen until winter congeals the record-smashing building boom.

Cement prices are rising again, after holding steady for almost a year. Lumber prices, already pushed higher by the home building spree, went up again after the Korean outbreak foreshadowed increased demand through military construction.

Price lists on hardware and fittings are under pressure from rising prices on copper, lead, zinc and nickel.

Wage boosts in the plants of building material suppliers have increased costs, and pressure for pay increases in other plants is boiling up as the cost of living rises.

Meanwhile, the demand for most paper products is at such a high level that mills are voluntarily imposing allocation systems.

In the case of cement, rising material costs, particularly for coal, and higher wages granted cement workers at many plants recently have more to do with the cement price boost than the currently short supplies, industry spokesmen say.

Attributed To Demand Shortages are attributed to the unprecedented, and unexpected, demand for cement to power the record building boom. But production has been stepped up now and the industry says it can meet fourth quarter demands.

The U. S. Department of Commerce sees other reasons, too. A shortage of railroad cars has caused scarcities of building materials in some localities, it says. And "work stoppages," especially in cement plants, have cut production at a crucial time, it adds.

The department says that in general building materials will be scarce until cold weather slows down the building pace. If builders don't start buying more than they actually need, material suppliers should be able through their current stepped-up production to bring supplies into balance with demand late this year.

The more pressing shortages, the department says, are in cement, brick and gypsum board products. Lumber production this year will be the highest since 1946 and sufficient to meet the year's building demands, despite some shortages earlier.

Oswalt Explains Bond Proposals To Garden Clubs

City Manager W. H. Oswalt Friday explained to members of Midland garden clubs all issues of the $3,500,000 city bond proposal which is to be placed before Midland voters Saturday in a special election.

About 20 members of garden clubs were present for the meeting, which was held in the district courtroom in the Midland County Courthouse.

Oswalt explained each of the five proposals which include the issuance of revenue bonds for water and a sewer improvements and the issuance of tax bonds for new fire stations and equipment, a new city jail and for street improvements.

The city manager told the group no new taxes will be imposed on property owners but that an increase in water and sewer revenue is planned to finance the revenue bonds.

The tax bonds will be paid for out of economies realized in the operation of the city government during the last year, he said. He urged all eligible voters to cast ballots in the election.

UN Council To Hear Red China's Complaint

LAKE SUCCESS — (AP) — The United Nations Security Council will discuss Monday Russia's demand that a Communist Chinese representative be invited to sit in during debate on Red Chinese accusations against the United States. The charges are that the U. S. is guilty of aggression against Formosa and that U. S. planes bombed Manchuria.

Russian Delegate Jacob A. Malik won the council's consent Thursday to consider such an invitation. That was just after he took a beating on his effort to get the council to condemn as "barbaric" U. S. Air Force bombing in Korea.

KING OF SWEDEN IS BACK IN STOCKHOLM — (AP) — King Gustav V returned to Stockholm from his summer home Friday, looking feeble, frail and sick. Dr. Hjalmar Casserman, the king's physician, said the 92-year-old monarch's health definitely has deteriorated but that there is no cause for immediate anxiety.

Original purpose of milling money was to prevent the fraudulent removal of metal and to protect the coins from wear.

Coach Tugboat Jones Speaks To JayCees

"I don't know how many ball games we will win this year but we think we will have a good club," Coach Thurmon L. (Tugboat) Jones told members of the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce in an address Friday noon at a meeting in Hotel Scharbauer.

"We have the finest bunch of boys I ever coached even though they don't have any football ability some of the others did," Jones said.

Coach Jones covered the team man by man and gave a brief run-down on each. He declared the entire squad is working hard every day and "They will be in top physical condition."

Supt. Frank Monroe introduced the speaker, telling of the coach's many problems and declaring that he is doing a fine job.

President Art Joseph presided. He also announced the JayCees will man a sound truck to be used in helping "get out the vote" for Saturday's bond elections.

Hospital Personnel To Hold Barbecue

Doctors, nurses and office personnel of Western Clinic-Hospital, together with their families, are to attend a barbecue supper at 6 p.m. Thursday at Cole Park.

Charles Hix, business manager of the hospital, is in charge of arrangements for the informal picnic supper.

Cotton

NEW YORK — (AP) — Friday noon cotton prices were 65 cents to $3.75 a bale higher than the previous close. October 41.18, December 41.30 and March 41.33.

JUNIOR BAR GROUP HONORS TEXAS MAN

FLINT, MICH.—(AP)—The Junior Bar Conference of the American Bar Association Friday announced citation of five men "for outstanding service to bar public relations during the last year."

Those cited include Richard G. Arent of Austin, Texas.

BOLLWORM QUARANTINE ORDERED BY SHIVERS

AUSTIN — (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers Friday ordered nine Central Texas counties under emergency pink bollworm quarantine.

Affected counties are Fayette, Colorado, Bastrop, Lavaca, Gillespie, Blanco, Kinney, Comal and Llano.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Bobby Vest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Vest, 1203 South Weatherford Street, was admitted Friday to Midland Memorial Hospital, where he is to undergo minor surgery.

CLOSED SATURDAY

The Midland Youth Center will be closed all day Saturday for the bond election. It will be open Sunday from 2:30 to 5 p.m.

MIDLANDER FINED

Justice of the Peace Joseph A. Seymour Friday fined a Midland Latin American $10 and costs on charges of being intoxicated in a public place.

A tiny radio transmitter-receiver, for use by ditched airplane pilots in lifeboats or lifebelts in the ocean, is small enough to hold in one hand and is powered with a miniature battery carried in a pocket.

Two Democrats Go To Bat For Marines

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Two Democratic lawmakers, both former Marines called on Congress Friday to increase greatly Marine Corps strength and give it equal representation on the joint chiefs of staff despite President Truman's wishes. Representative Mansfield (D-Mont) and Senator Douglas (D-Ill) said they will introduce bills to:

(1) Raise the basic strength of the Marine to 300,000 men; (2) authorize four divisions and four air wings; (3) create an assistant secretary of the Navy for the Marines, and (4) place the Marine commandant on the joint chiefs of staff.

By mobilizing their reserves, the Marines now are building toward a maximum strength of about 200,000 men. They are represented on the joint chiefs only by a Navy man.

Mansfield and Douglas both disclosed their plans as the furor subsided over Truman's reference to the Marines as a "police force" with a "propaganda machine that is almost equal to Stalin's."

Oil Parley—

State Senator Hill D. Hudson of Pecos and Rep. J. T. Rutherford of Odessa have accepted invitations to attend the gathering.

H. Eddie Chiles of Midland, vice president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association for West Texas, is in charge of local arrangements and will preside at the dinner-meeting.

Governor Turner was accompanied to Midland by Forrest Harper of Oklahoma, who is associated with the governor in the Harper-Turner Oil Company of Oklahoma; John Moore and Fred Stewart.

Many other prominent oil men from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma have advised sponsors they will attend the area meeting.

South Koreans Ask UN Offensive Now

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA — (AP)—South Korea's General Assembly asked the United Nations Friday for a general offensive against the Korean Reds "before harvest time."

That means right now. Crops are harvested in late September. An assembly resolution noted "with grave concern" that crops in Red-held areas may be lost "unless the United Nations forces restore the granary of Korea before the harvest."

Red Drive—

Friday night the Reds plastered the mountain with an artillery barrage. Communist infantry struck immediately afterwards.

American and South Korean troops gained a few yards near the east coast in their efforts to close a five-mile gap in their lines. AP Correspondent Bill Ross at the front reported the U. S. and South Korean troops opened separate attacks through the murky weather to try to close the gap.

The hole remained after hasty battlefield patching had sewed together a bigger hole punched out by a Red breakthrough earlier in the week.

At dusk the doughboys had made little progress. They were halted by rugged terrain plus the drenching rain which reduced air support to six sorties Friday.

Taegu Safe For Now

Taegu, threatened by 50,000 of the 130,000 Reds on the battleline, appeared safe for now. The Reds were stopped north of it by First Cavalrymen and South Koreans.

The Americans counter-attacked but had to withdraw from gains made on a hill north of Taegu when expected air support did not arrive because of weather. Red resistance on the hill was sharp.

The Red radio in Pyongyang, North Korean capital, has claimed for two days that the Communists hold Taegu.

The town of Yongchon, 20 miles east of Taegu, changed hands twice Friday in bitter fighting between North and South Koreans. Two Red tanks roared into Yongchon, important highway junction, Thursday night but were driven out Friday.

An American field officer said Friday night that if Yongchon is not actually in Communist hands it is under Red control.

The five-mile gap in the Allied lines is between Yongchon and An-ganga, eight miles west of Red-held Pohang on the Sea of Japan coast. The Allies own the airfield six miles away.

Reds Group In Southwest A spokesman at General MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo said the Reds were building up strength rapidly in the battle-scarred southwestern sector, where they have been smashed back in two major attempts to reach Pusan.

Down there the Reds had built a bridge across the Nam River west of Masan and were ready to try showing 40,000 troops across it.

Twenty-five miles north of the Masan front, U. S. Second Division infantrymen threw back a 2,000 man attack on the northern flank of their positions west of Yongsan, 32 miles south of Taegu and east of the Nakdong River.

AP Correspondent Don Huth reported from that area that another 1,000-man Red attack was turned back by Americans who retook a major hill position.

Keep Allies Guessing British Tommies from Hong Kong beat off probing attacks in their sector along the central front. One British unit was supplied by air when it was cut off.

The Communist kept the Allies guessing as to where they would strike with their next major offensive.

Thursday's fighting cost the Reds 3,100 casualties, which were added to the 20,000 inflicted on the Reds in the southwest alone during a week of steady fighting.

The North Koreans have a 60,000 man force strung out from near Taegu southward to the coast.

A Moscow broadcast picked up in London quoted Red sources as saying the North Koreans had killed 15,176 Americans in two months. Through September 1, the U. S. Defense Department in Washington has reported 8,883 U. S. casualties.

The Communists have not given any indication of giving up their thrust in the Pohang sector on the east coast. A buildup of men and supplies was reported underway 15 miles north of Yongchon, opposite the South Korean Sixth Division.

Material Losses Light A MacArthur spokesman said the Allies did not lose any considerable amount of material when Pohang fell to the Reds earlier in the week.

The port had not been used extensively since the Reds captured and held it briefly last month.

The spokesman pointed to the possibilities of another Red drive down the highway from Uihung, east of the Kumhwa "bowling alley" corridor which the First Cavalry Division still is holding.

He put particular emphasis on the southwest, however, as the next possible springboard for a Communist offensive.

Along the rugged west coast of Korea the North Koreans have attempted to increase traffic.

British carrier planes destroyed six camouflaged 80-ton motor craft near Mokpo on the southern coast Wednesday.

On the same day South Korean naval units sank two troop-filled sailing boats, 30-ton motor craft and three smaller vessels.

Election—

(Continued From Page One) quiring of additional right-of-way to widen North Front Street as a dispersal route through the city ($260,000); drainage project to divert overflow water to Midland Draw ($380,000); construction of curbs and gutters on the Front Street project ($54,000); grade separation at the Big Spring Street crossing ($250,000); acquisition of additional right-of-way to widen U. S. 80 Highway to the east county line ($56,000).

Assistance Pledged The State Highway Department would assist in financing the Front Street dispersal route and drainage project and the grade separation job. The T&P Railway also would participate in the grade separation project.

The Chamber of Commerce, which has endorsed both the city and county proposals, urges all qualified voters to cast their ballots Saturday in the important bond issue elections.

The city proposal calls for the issuance of $3,000,000 in revenue bonds for the water and sewer improvements projects and $500,000 in tax supported bonds for the streets and buildings improvement projects. The county bonds, if approved, will be general tax bonds.
