NE Glasscock Gets Ellenburger Wildcat

Ralph Lowe of Midland is to start operations immediately at his No. 1 Neal-Ballinger, which is to be a 10,500-foot wildcat to explore to the Ellenburger in Northeast Glasscock County, about 10 miles northeast of the town of Garden City.

The prospector will be 660 feet from south and east lines of section 16, block 33, T-3-S, T&P survey. It is approximately one and one-half miles southeast of the one-half mile Carter pool, which produces from the San Andres lime above 2,968 feet.

The venture is being supported by Shell Oil Company, The Texas Company, Stanolind Oil & Gas Company, Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company and Amerada Petroleum Corporation.

Production Test Is Scheduled In Martin

Ashland Oil & Refining Company is to set and cement 5 1/2-inch casing to make a production test at its No. 1 Tant Lindsay, possible discovery from the Spraberry sand in Southwest Martin County, 12 miles north and slightly east of Midland and 12 miles west of Stanton.

This prospector ran a drillstem test at 7,635-75 feet in the Spraberry. The tool was open two and one-half hours. Recovery was 1,440 feet of slightly gas cut drilling mud, with no shows of oil or water.

An electric log was then run which corrected the total depth from 7,675 feet to make it 7,685 feet. That measurement also corrected the top of the Spraberry sand to make it 7,645 feet instead of 7,635 feet. Cores from the top of the Spraberry to the current bottom had some streaks of sand which had good shows of oil.

The 5 1/2-inch casing is to be cemented at 7,645 feet and the open hole will then be tested.

This wildcat is 330 feet from south and west line of section 17, block 38, T-1-N, T&P survey.

Howard Wildcat Is Drilling After DST

Shamrock Oil & Gas Company No. 1 C. W. Burton, Northwest Howard County wildcat, 10 miles northeast of Big Spring, ran a two hour drillstem test in the Pennsylvanian lime from the bottom of the intermediate casing which is cemented at 8,200 feet, and the total depth at 8,945 feet. The packer was set up in the pipe at 8,160 feet.

When the tester was pulled it was found to have been plugged with cavings after the first 15 minutes.

Recovery was 6,270 feet of heavily gas cut drillstem mud, with the bottom 1,400 feet of it being slightly oil cut. The project is making more hole.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 27, block 33, T-2-N, T&P survey.

Top of the Pennsylvanian lime is at 8,966 feet. Elevation is 2,360 feet.

Reef Wildcat Set For NE Howard

Norman & Roche of Lockhart No. 1 R. E. Martin is a 9,000-foot wildcat to test through the reef in Northeast Howard County.

It is located 467 feet from west and 330 feet from south lines of section 2, block 31, T-1-N, T&P survey and six miles north of Cosboma.

Rotary tools will be used to drill the prospector. Operations will begin at once.

No. 1 Martin I, five miles southwest of Shell Oil Company No. 1 O'Daniel, reef lime discovery.

C-W Lamb Prospect Testing Ellenburger

H. L. Hunt No. 1 Robertson, wildcat in Central-West Lamb County, is taking a drillstem test in the Ellenburger at 8,960-9,060 feet.

Top of that formation has been tentatively called at 9,000 feet, elevation 3,784 feet.

Drillstem is 660 feet from north and east lines of labor 16, league 223, Collingsworth County school land survey.

Ellenburger Topped In C-S Kent Wildcat

Sunray Oil Corporation and Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 W. A. Mays, Central-South Kent County wildcat, three and one-half miles northeast of the Cogdell-Canyon field, and 1,980 feet from south and 1,900 feet from west lines of section 57, block 4, H&GN survey, topped the Ellenburger at 7,432 feet, to give it a datum of minus 5,277 feet on that marker.

It drilled to 7,456 feet and took a 45-minute drillstem test at 7,430-56 feet. There was a slight blow of air at the start of the investigation.

U. S. Eases Fast Mobilization Pace

WASHINGTON—(P)—The armed forces appeared Friday to be easing off the fast mobilization pace they set following the Communist invasion of South Korea.

There were no signs of any change in this nation's announced intent to build a powerful military machine of defense against Communist pressure but there were indications that for the time being the permanent mobilization base is nearing completion.

Developments pointing in that direction included:

1. Secretary Pace said Thursday the Army hopes to start releasing mobilized National Guardsmen and reservists next summer in a program which may be completed before early 1952.

2. The Air Force announced it will halt immediately the call-up of enlisted reservists.

3. The Navy said it needs no more Naval Reserve airmen, and that its need for reserve aviation ground officers has been "substantially" met for the immediate future.

4. A Marine Corps spokesman said the corps will be calling only a few reservists from now on because the volunteer recruiting program has been proceeding satisfactorily.

These points came out as the four services set up new procedures covering the recall and discharge of reservists. Each issued separate instructions to carry out Secretary of Defense Marshall's directive of Monday outlining an "orderly" policy for mobilization of reserve units and individuals.

Marshall had said the reservists must not be kept on active duty involuntarily any longer than necessary to meet the increased-manpower requirements of the service after the reservists or units recalled have been fully trained.

Department Gets Four Fire Calls Within 45 Minutes

Midland firemen Friday were called to extinguish four fires within 45 minutes.

The first call came at 11:20 a.m. when a brick veneer residence at 1201 West Kansas, owned by H. P. Woolcock, caught fire. Moderate damage was done to the exterior of the home.

At 11:30 a.m., a truck was sent to 406 North Terrell Street, where a tool shed owned by Jesse Hudson was ablaze. Damage to the building was heavy.

A residence owned by T. W. Williams, at 202 East Orchard Street, was reported on fire at 11:45 a.m. Damage to the building was extensive.

A grass and lumber fire, located near a new house in the 1200 block of East Hamby Street, was extinguished at 11:55.

A truck was sent from Midland Air Terminal but arrived too late to aid in fighting the fires.

Texas Weather: More Of The Same

The weather Friday, and throughout this week, was monotonously mild and fair. No rain fell during the 24-hour period ending at 6:30 a.m., and none was predicted for Friday night or Saturday.

High temperature Thursday was 93 at Presidio, Childress and Wichita Falls. Low maximum, 82 at El Paso, Marfa and Galveston. Low overnight reading, 40 degrees at Lubbock and Ozona.

Four Men In Missing Plane Believed Lost

NEW ORLEANS—(P)—The Air Force reported a twin-engine navigation training plane with four men aboard "is presumed to have crashed" into Lake Pontchartrain on the northern edge of New Orleans in a heavy pre-dawn fog Friday.

The plane took off at 2 a.m. for Craig Air Force Base at Selma, Ala.

Lt. John Walker, public information officer of Keesler Air Force Base at Biloxi, Miss., said "One landing light has been found and the plane is presumed to have crashed."

At 10:30 a.m., a search plane reported it had sighted what appears to be wreckage of the plane in the lake about one mile northeast of the New Orleans Airport.

A Navy boat with a diver was sent to the scene.

Search for the remainder of the plane was hampered by the dense fog, heaviest in New Orleans this year.

First reports from civilian sources placed eight men aboard the plane, but Lt. Nick Stam, also of the Keesler Air Force Base, said Maj. James Percy at Scott AFB, Belleville, Ill., home base of the plane, said there were only four.

Major Percy said they were a lieutenant colonel, a major serving as pilot and two others whose rank was not known.

Their identities were withheld. Walker said the plane arrived there Thursday night from Craig Field at Selma and took off Friday morning for a return flight to Selma.

Lt. Cmdr. John Parsons of the Naval Air Station at New Orleans said three sentries reported hearing the plane "smack the water" at 2:05 a.m.

At New Orleans Airport, where the plane was cleared by the Air National Guard for a takeoff, attendants said the twin engines were heard to cut off "as quick as you can snap your fingers" after the plane was airborne.

Moments later, they said, they heard "a splash."

Minstrel Sold Out; Monday Show Set

The Kiwanis Club Minstrel-Revue is a complete sell-out for the two remaining nights and club officials Friday announced an extra performance will be given Monday night.

The show, which has been running nightly since Tuesday, has played before capacity audiences each night. Kiwanis members Friday expressed their appreciation to Midlanders for the fine response.

Reservations for the Monday night show may be obtained at Tallorline, 113 North Colorado Street. Tickets are $1.20 each.

Trial Of McDonald Is Postponed Again

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Justice Department said Friday trial of the Texas and Georgia agricultural commissioners on charges of violating the Federal lobbyists law has been postponed again—this time until November 17. The Texas commissioner is James E. McDonald.

The trial had been scheduled to open Monday.

To Unveil Statue Of Liberty Replica

A replica of the Statue of Liberty will be unveiled and dedicated here Saturday on the South Lawn of the Midland County Courthouse. Time for the program is 11 a.m.

Special ceremonies will be observed at the unveiling.

CHARLESTOWN, W. VA.—(AP)—"I am a soldier and will do as I am told to do," General Eisenhower advised interviewers here Friday when asked about rumors he might be chosen to head a combined military force for defense of the Western Hemisphere.

LAKE SUCCESS—(AP)—The United States Friday threw its support behind a move to remove the ban on sending ambassadors to Madrid and to give Franco Spain permission to join organizations affiliated with the United Nations.

STOCKHOLM—(AP)—The condition of ailing King Gustaf V, 92, took a serious turn Friday as result of increased coughing and a marked difficulty in breathing.

NEW DELHI—(AP)—India has asked its ambassador in Peiping, capital of Communist China, to convey his government's "surprise and regret" that units of the Chinese Army have been asked to advance into Tibet, the Foreign Ministry announced Friday.

Allies Plan Search For Atom Expert

LONDON—(P)—Britain called in American and French Secret Service men for conferences Friday on the search for Prof. Bruno Pontecorvo, missing atom scientist whose knowledge could aid an enemy power.

G-men of the three nations met in a locked room at Harwek, Britain's atom center 60 miles west of London, to discuss the case of Pontecorvo, who vanished with his wife and three children in Finland on September 2.

The talks were believed to center around these points:

Extent and nature of the secret information Pontecorvo could have carried out of the country.

A check-up of his movements and the people he knows both in Britain and across the continent.

Methods of finding him.

Pontecorvo, Italian-born, became a naturalized Briton a year ago. He left England last July with his family to take a motorist's vacation in Europe. He disappeared after being seen last in Helsinki, where he turned up unexpectedly.

Most British newspapers and government officials suspect he is in Russia. This has not been confirmed. Pontecorvo held a position of trust and responsibility in Harwell. He also had worked at main American and Canadian atomic energy stations.

Combined Force For Defense May Be Set To Go In Two Months

WASHINGTON—(P)—The combined military force for defense of Western Europe may be a going concern, headed by an American as supreme commander, within the next two months.

The Military Committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Thursday night completed a set of recommendations to be handed to the defense ministers of the 12 treaty powers when they meet here Saturday.

The blueprint prepared by the chiefs of staff comprising the military committee provides: Creation of an integrated force for the collective defense of all the North Atlantic Treaty area (both Europe and the Western Hemisphere group of Canada and the United States);

An integrated force for protection of the European area; the establishment of a supreme headquarters for the European force; the appointment of a supreme commander.

There were broad hints that the nucleus of the European force, together with a supreme commander, would be functioning by January.

Neither the official communique nor an American spokesman who discussed it gave any hint on two points of major interest—the size of the collective force and its components or the nationality of the supreme commander.

Nevertheless, much speculation centered on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme commander of Allied forces in Western Europe in World War II. Those who guessed it would be Eisenhower pointed significantly to a scheduled meeting of the general with President Truman on Saturday.

Chest Drive To $25,522

Midland's 1950 Community Chest drive went well over the halfway mark with $25,522 in contributions reported through Thursday.

The report was made Friday morning.

The goal is $45,386.

The campaign continues because six worthy agencies are waiting for the Red Feather funds which will enable them to operate another year in Midland.

The $25,522 figure represents a gain of $1,529 over the $22,993 report of Wednesday's business.

Broken down, the $25,522 represents contributions in the following divisions: Big Gifts $8,722; Ranches and Farmers $2,285; Office Buildings $4,265; Non-Resident Corporations $3,050; Business District $4,446; Public Buildings $479; Residential $1,633; Schools $708; Lawyers $1,246; Doctors $515; Negroes $136; Latin Americans $87.

Economist Predicts Shortage Of Meat Unless U. S. Acts

WASHINGTON—(P)—A meat industry economist cautioned Friday that the country faces a shortage of meat and skyrocketing prices next year unless the government takes steps soon to encourage greater output.

Carl H. Wilken, economist with the Raw Materials National Council, said a study he has just made for the National Independent Meat Packers Association indicates consumers will demand an average of between 155 and 160 pounds of meat in 1951.

This is at least eight pounds more than the Agriculture Department expects farmers to produce next year, unless special incentives are set up to encourage greater production.

Wilken said he is convinced the government should act at once to assure farmers of satisfactory prices on future marketings. Such assurance, he said, would lead farmers to feed present hogs three or four weeks longer than they now plan. This would add additional millions of pounds of pork to the supply.

Winter Cold Bites Troops Near Border

SEOUL—(P)—Thinly clad Allied troops trudged over snow and tortuous summits Friday night toward Manchuria's Communist frontier.

The forward troop movement was from the Korean west coast across the spiny peninsula to the Sea of Japan. The shivering troops braved wintry blasts but met few enemy troops near the border.

Behind the forwardmost troops, however, Red forces put up a fight.

A U. S. 8th Army spokesman here said the South Korean (ROK) First Division had beaten back an attack by a Red force containing "Chinese and North Korean elements" 80 miles south of the border.

The battle raged all day around Unsan directly south of Choson, the only Manchurian border point reached by United Nations troops.

At nightfall a U. S. 8th Army Headquarters spokesman said the South Korean First Division had beaten back the attacking Reds and driven them west of the town.

At Choson, where the ROK Sixth Division was perched on the banks of the Yalu River opposite Manchuria, not an enemy soldier was visible. The river forms the boundary.

Rumors Of Chinese In Korea Recur

KUNURI, NORTH KOREA—(P)—A South Korean Army spokesman said Friday a Chinese Communist prisoner asserted two divisions of combined Chinese Red North Korean troops are in North Korea.

A U. S. adviser said he was inclined to give the report "some credibility."

The prisoner said each regiment in the two divisions was composed of three Chinese and one Red Korean battalions, well supplied and armed. He identified the divisions as the 118th and 119th of the 40th Corps.

"Some Credibility" Col. F. E. Gillette, Cincinnati, U. S. adviser with the South Korean Second Corps, said he was inclined to give the report "some credibility."

Maj. Gen. Jae Heung Yu, Second Corps commander, speculated the Chinese Communists might send forces across the Yalu River to take a huge Japanese-built generator at Supung. It generates electricity for both Korea and Manchuria. Supung is on the border 52 miles southwest of Choson, which is in South Korea hands.

"If we get that generator, Manchuria has no electricity," he said. The Yalu River is the boundary between Korea and Communist Manchuria.

There have been previous reports that Chinese Communists are fighting with the Korean Reds, but none has been confirmed. Many officers point out that many thousands of North Koreans were trained in the Chinese Communist Army.

UN Observance Set At Grid-Game Half

A colorful half-time presentation at the Midland-Plainview football game Friday night will feature the MHS Band and Drill Squad in maneuvers and music in observance of United Nations Week and Navy Day.

After the basic formation of UN, the band and drill squad will go into formations and music honoring Canada, Brazil, Mexico, China, France, England and others, of course the United States.

National anthems of the countries will be played. Navy Day's observance will be the forming of a lighted anchor.

Helicopter Saves Marine Pilot Shot Down By Ko-Reds

WONSAN AIRFIELD, KOREA—(P)—North Koreans shot down two U. S. Marine Corsair fighter planes Friday.

One pilot was killed. The other, Capt. Frank K. Reilly, Jr., of Baytown, Texas, was rescued by a helicopter in a dramatic flight five miles behind Red Korean lines.

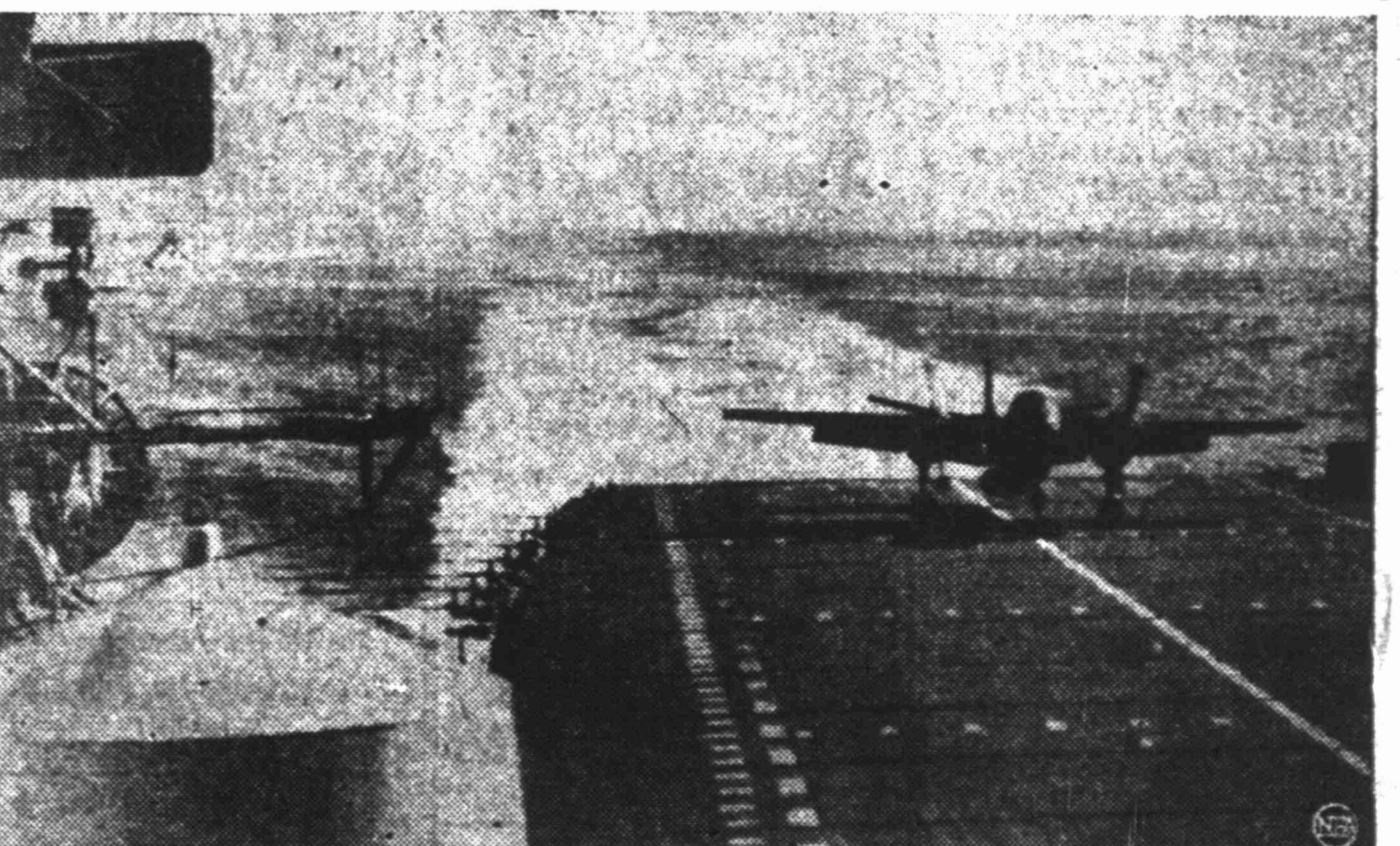

Reilly hid in a snow-covered field until rescued.

"You're the proudest sight I've seen in a long time," Reilly told the rescue pilot, Capt. W. D. Blatt of Wormleysburg, Pa.

Reilly landed his crippled Corsair in a reservoir at Haejung, 41 miles south of the Manchurian border. He swam and waded to shore.

He hid more than two hours while four Marine fighters remained in the area to protect him until the helicopter arrived.

It was so cold Reilly's shoes and clothing froze.

HEAVY BOMBER MAKES CARRIER LANDING—The Navy has announced that a plane capable of carrying an A-bomb has made successful landings on the aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea. Here the AJ-1 attack bomber lands on the flight deck of the Coral Sea in recent trial landings. Weighing more than 17 tons unloaded, the AJ-1 becomes the heaviest aircraft ever to land aboard a Navy carrier.

Burlesque To Bedtime Stories; That's Pinky Lee's TV Tale

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD—The absence of a giant blackboard with "I love you maddy, john" hand-lettered on it by an irate director, I found out from television star Pinky Lee, is keeping a lot of forgetful movie stars off the test-pattern circuits.

It's a current scandal in the string-around-the-finger set the way some celluloid titans blank out and stare into space the minute the boys in sneakers start pushing the video cameras around.

Pinky told me between tsks-tsk: "People in pictures are the worst kind of studies in television. Ooh, the way they flub lines and run shows."

Not that Pinky's going to tell Hedy Lamarr to go chase herself when she says to heck with that $5,000 fee that she likes to pick up for TV chores.

If it's for peanuts, Hedy's welcome on Pinky's show. "She won't have to say a word," he beamed.

Movie dolls are lucky for Pinky, anyhow. It was by jumping into the arms of Adele Jergens on a quiz show—"It was a riot," he grinned—that Pinky tickled the bejeepers out of a big advertising executive watching his antics on a 16-inch screen and got to be a television star.

The little clown in the checkered jacket and matching goofy hat is some pumpkins these days in the vine-covered cottages that wear antennas on the rooftops.

They're saying that Pinky's to the smaller-than-life medium what Charlie Chaplin was to early flickers.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES Matt. 18:17, 20; Eph. 3:10; Acts. 3:1-3

GUIDANCE THROUGH COLLECTIVE EXPERIENCE We come to the second method through which God guides us. (2) He guides us through the collective experience of the Church—the corporate wisdom gathered through the ages. The importance of this method is seen when we realize that the great Roman Catholic Church makes the sole instrument of guidance to the individual. We cannot accept it as the sole method, but certainly as one of the chief methods. The accumulated experiences of the ages are at the disposal of the individual.

The Church has been the mother of my spirit; and just as a child turns to his mother for guidance in crises, so I can turn to the Church for direction. The pastor is the mouthpiece of that collective wisdom. He should therefore not seek to be novel, but to interpret the wisdom of the ages to the people before him. A dean of girls says that problem children come from three causes: (1) poverty; (2) broken homes; (3) a lack of attending Church or Sunday school.

(3) God guides through the counsel of good people. As we look back across the years we find that a word here, a phrase there, a conversation yonder with a friend, has lifted horizons, untangled snarled-up situations, and has sent us on our way rejoicing, with clarified minds and purposes. Counseling is no longer a hit-and-miss affair; it is becoming an art and a science. The minister who cannot combine public utterance with private counsel is "out" as a safe guide to his people.

The Orientals have a saying don't drop eye medicine from a third-story window into a person's eye. Guidance must be intimate and personal and confidential. Counseling is a heavy responsibility. "Should I marry this man?" asked a girl after describing him. "When I told her I thought not, she replied, "There, that settles it. I promised God last night I would take your answer for His answer." I held my breath. What a responsibility! A conversation which the young Kagawa had with a teacher started on his way a youth who has become a world asset.

Gracious Father, I thank Thee for those who have come into my life with kindly word and deep insight. Help me this day to be the agent of Thy mind to some other person. Help me to speak that word which will lift the darkness for some fumbling soul. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Half Facts, Rumors About Health Only Serve To Confuse The Public

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

There are a lot of questions about health which seem rather mixed up, and it is not surprising that people become somewhat confused. The first question in today's batch deals with a problem of this kind.

Q—Is it true that saccharin is made from coal tar and that coal tar has something to do with causing cancer? A—Saccharin is made from coal tar but there have been many studies which show that it can be taken indefinitely without causing any harm. Crude coal tar (which is quite different from saccharin) is irritating when placed on a sensitive tissue, such as the skin of certain strains of mice, where it may lead to cancer. Perhaps this is the reason you are confused, but you need have no fear of the saccharin.

Q—I have a hard-to-heal sore on the ankle of my left leg. This seemed to start after a slight knock. My doctor says it is caused by varicose veins. What can be done for this? A—You must avoid further injury and will have to keep the leg elevated a good deal of the time. There are several forms of treatment of which pressure bandaging is the most frequently used. No doubt your doctor has instructed you about one of these remedies.

Q—What is wrong with the urine when it is pale sometimes and highly colored at others? A—The urine is normally highly colored when it is highly concentrated, and pale when diluted. If a person drinks a great deal of fluids it therefore will be pale. Unless there is something else wrong with the urine, this is nothing to be concerned about.

Q—Does it matter if I rarely drink water? I am never thirsty though I do take other liquids such as tea, coffee, and milk. A—If you are not thirsty, you are probably getting adequate fluids from the liquids mentioned and you do not need to worry about your lack of plain water intake.

Q—I would like to know if a child who is slapped for everything she does will become nervous? A—Children need affection and understanding and slapping a child all the time is certainly not the way to develop stable nerves. Parents who do this are either careless or cruel. I wonder how they would like it if someone 18 feet tall slapped them around all the time?

Q—Is it necessary to have a blood level test every month if one is taking potassium thiocyanate for high blood pressure? A—Yes, perhaps even more often.

Q—I am told diabetics cannot take insulin for more than 26 years. Why is this? A—So far as is known the statement which you have heard is not true. Actually, insulin has been available for only about 25 years and perhaps that is the source of this story.

Q—I am told diabetics cannot take insulin for more than 26 years. Why is this? A—So far as is known the statement which you have heard is not true. Actually, insulin has been available for only about 25 years and perhaps that is the source of this story.

Russia Couldn't Do It

If any Communists are hanging around Tokyo airfields with their cameras, they must be a bit confused at what they can see. U. S. airliners with varied markings and crews in many different uniforms swarm in there daily.

According to pat Communist thinking, capitalistic American airlines should be constantly at each other's throats—busy helping to take the free enterprise system down the road to final collapse.

The idea that the lines could bury their commercial rivalries and work together in a great Pacific airlift is incomprehensible to the Reds. In the Communist book, those things just don't happen.

But that's exactly what has happened. Within a matter of days, at the behest of the government, sharply competitive U. S. airlines organized themselves into a single efficient line. Eastern, Pan American, United, American, Capital, TWA and many another contributed valuable equipment to the airlift pool.

The effort they are making to fly supplies into the Korean war zone already has been widely heralded as a military milestone. It put the airlift firmly in the picture as a standard supply technique for the future.

But the performance means more than that. The demonstration of cooperation among normally competitive outfits, the sharing of technical knowledge, the tremendous talent for fast and effective organization, all these stand out as signs of the basic good health of America's economic system.

These same traits showed strongly in World War II. And they'll show any time our system is put to the test.

Perhaps the best tribute that could be paid to the airlines who are working this miracle is to say that almost certainly the Russians couldn't do it. Even though their own economic system theoretically is based on cooperative effort.

They couldn't pull it off because communism discourages the free play of new ideas, the vitality of individual initiative and the sheer competitive energy that enables a great project like the airlift to succeed.

American hats are off to the airlines and their men for this most dramatic and remarkable proof that our free way of life is more than equal to the supreme tests put upon it by those who do not cherish freedom.

Vishinsky's Vagaries

When Andrei Vishinsky said he liked "some parts" of the U. S. plan for world cooperation to avoid aggression, he didn't say what parts. Probably the periods and commas.

Money may be the root of all evil, but some mighty nice things grow out of it.

DREW PEARSON ON 'The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND' column header.

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Imagination staggered by thoughts of what scientific rain-making could do to nation's economy; Korean war exposes flaw in Army's Medical Service; A Son of Brotherhood gives the Lord an assist.

SEATTLE — What artificial rain-making can do to the Far West staggers the imagination. It can make this area bloom like a Garden of Eden. It can throw Secretary of Agriculture Brannan's crop program out of balance. Or it could take rain away from other areas and make them deserts.

A brief sample of what rain-making can do occurred at Prosser, Wash., where Leo Horrigan, a big rancher, hired Dr. Irving Wick, of the Water Resources Development Board of Pasadena, Calif., to seed the clouds at the time his wheat needed it most.

As a result, Horrigan's crop, previously estimated at 8 to 10 bushels per acre, shot up to 20 bushels per acre. His total yield was increased by half a million bushels.

Scientific seeding of the clouds might make unnecessary expensive irrigation projects, might raise the water level in the dry Central Valley of California, might settle the bitter water feud between California and Arizona over the Colorado River. On the other hand nobody knows yet whether tapping the clouds over one area will take rain away from another. That's why far-sighted Senator Clinton Anderson of New Mexico proposes legislation to control rain-making.

Battle-Experienced Doctors The Korean war has exposed a glaring weakness in the Army Medical Service—namely, that tragically few of its doctors were trained for front-line hospital work. As a result, wounded GI's suffered needless agony, even death, on the Korean front, because Army doctors didn't always know how to set up tents, improvise beds or stretchers, and organize field operating rooms.

Most of the young doctors, placed in command of field hospital units never had served outside big, modern hospitals. They had little experience under battle conditions, often weren't even taught the fundamentals of field hospital work.

Most people don't know it, but the Army operates only one small field medical training center at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, under the command of a veteran field surgeon, Maj. Gen. Joseph I. Martin. However, only a fraction of Army doctors have been able to take this training.

Even the surgeon-general, Maj. Gen. Raymond W. Bliss, has no background as a field surgeon but was selected on the basis of his record for operating large Army hospitals. Like most of his predecessors, Bliss has had excellent hospital training but little experience near the front. Most military branches won't appoint a chief who hasn't been a field commander, but not in the Medical Corps.

Though battle-experienced doctors have pleaded for better field training, the armchair hospital brass have ignored their warning. Meanwhile the doctors in Korea are saying privately:

"For God's sake, give us a surgeon-general who knows what the battlefield is, and we'll teach young doctors how and what to do in the field."

Here is more inside on the bitter New York battle raging over the heads of Gov. Tom Dewey and his lieutenant governor, Joe Hanley. Dewey, it now develops, heard of the existence of the Hanley "sell-out" letter, and on October 11 asked his lieutenant governor for a copy. Hanley refused. Hanley had written the letter to Kingsland Macy in September and sent a copy to James Leary, a Saratoga Springs lawyer, who showed it to various friends. However, Dewey was not able to get a copy.

correct (and successful) return lead. Look at all the cards and see if you can spot the correct lead. Don't feel too disappointed if you miss it; many experts have missed this one.

When the hand actually was played, Rapee saw that the clubs were the big threat. It was impossible to develop the setting tricks unless his partner had the king of clubs. His partner also needed a little help in the right suit.

The hearts were clearly hopeless. The spades were unlikely to provide defensive tricks unless South's spade bid had been a phony. Diamonds, however, might provide the setting tricks if West had as little as the queen.

It was not enough for George to come to the conclusion that a diamond return was the best. He still had to pick the exact card from his holding of jack-nine-seven-three. Have you made up your mind yet?

The only correct lead is the nine of diamonds! If South plays low, the nine forces out dummy's ace. West wins the first club with the king and returns the queen of diamonds, knocking out the king. (If South holds up diamonds are continued). Then East is in position to take the ace of clubs and the rest of his diamonds.

If South covers the nine of diamonds with the ten, West covers with the queen. This forces out dummy's ace. As before, West wins the first club with the king and returns a diamond.

Now East has the Jack-seven over dummy's eight-five. East can force out the king of diamonds and still keep the top remaining diamond. When he gets in with the ace of clubs, his suit is set up.

Note that Rapee would have muffed the defense if he had returned a low diamond at the second trick. South would play low, and West would have to put up the queen to force out dummy's ace. Then South would have the king-ten over East's jack.

It would have been equally unsound for Rapee to return the jack of diamonds at the second trick. Dummy would win with the ace

Marshall Plan Helps Italy Continue Its Fight On Reds

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

ROME—U. S. Ambassador James C. Dunn says that if it had not been for Marshall Plan aid, Italy would have gone Communist two years ago. But the battle is not yet won.

As of today, Italy's Communist vote has been reduced from 30 per cent to perhaps 20 per cent. There still remains a hard core of Communies in the industrial north, where they control the labor unions. The fight against them still can be lost.

"The trouble," says Frank Gervasi, star reporter and magazine writer, now Marshall Plan Information chief in Italy, "is that we're all amateurs. And we're fighting professionals."

That brief expression wraps up the whole situation. The Communist agents in Italy knew what they wanted and how to go about getting it. Against this experienced force the United States has had to throw in well-intentioned, enthusiastic but untrained volunteers.

The Italian government has been slow in moving on many fronts. Reforms of tax and land laws and general economic inequalities which have existed for thousands of years have not been made as rapidly as American advisers have recommended.

Gentle Hints Only The general approach to this problem has been to make suggestions for changes gently and politely, so as not to wound Italian pride. But recently a different approach was tried. It got results.

Exasperated at the Italian government's failure to use Marshall Plan funds for land development, unnamed U. S. officials leaked a critical story to Arnaldo Costesi, New York Times Rome correspondent. The story was cabled back to Rome and caused a furore.

Marshall Plan administrator for Italy, Leon Dayton, held a press conference in which he declared that Italian fiscal policy was retarding recovery. That increased Italian resentment. Ambassador Dunn and Dayton had to call on Italian Premier Alcide De Gasperi to smooth out relations.

It now can be reported, however, that the effect of this flare-up was good. Almost immediately, the Italian minister of Agriculture released a multi-million dollar fund earmarked for land development.

This incident raises the all-important question of how far and how fast American advisers can push the governments in Marshall Plan countries. In the past, every effort has been made to avoid giving the Communists grounds for accusing the United States of interference with or dictation to foreign governments.

This kind of move policy now may be changing and with good reason. The Marshall Plan ends in two years. Something else may have to replace it. But in the main, whether or not communism is defeated in Western Europe depends largely on what the Western European govern-and lead clubs. East would have to win, since West would be unable to lead diamonds. East would then lead another diamond, and South would put up the king at once. This would set up one diamond trick for West, but one diamond would not be enough to set the contract.

feeling his way along a dark, dangerous precipice. "Cousin Leena did not know that, until that document was signed in the presence of witnesses who properly affixed their signatures, it was not worth the paper it was written on. It was merely wishes that in court could be called the work of a demented old woman. So she killed her and was leaving."

"That wouldn't have been very smart, either, would it?" put in Mart Preston.

"Perhaps not," Peter admitted. "And again, perhaps Cousin Leena had it all figured out—just as it happened. She was cunningly feigning unconsciousness, in the dark hall with that cock and bull story about somebody choking her. Then she could say Aunt Maggie had sent her after you—for protection—and one of us, either Jasper or Sondra or I, would burn for her crime. Or is all that too legal for you, Preston?"

"It smells to high heaven," Mart snapped.

"DEAR me," observed Sondra, "it's clear where your deputy's sympathies lie, Sheriff. Isn't it?"

"Is it?" Purdy scowled a warning at Mart nevertheless, adding, "It seems to me, now, that you folks are taking the wrong attitude. Why don't you try helping instead of hindering and see how quick we can get this thing over?"

"Oh," Sondra said lightly, "don't you know? They don't want it over. This way they're safe."

"They?" echoed the sheriff. "Who, Mrs. Thorne?"

But Sondra merely gave him a sphinx-like smile that barely curved her tantalizing lips and looked at Peter, whose face flushed a dull red and then went white.

The terror of a trapped animal was in his grayish eyes for a long moment before he managed to mask it.

Have a Laugh

By BOYCE HOUSE Two Texans were talking about a defendant. One said, "He ought to be hung." The other replied, "They don't hang people in Texas; they kill 'em with elocution."

(And some after-dinner speakers durn nearly do it).

A sergeant entered a mess hall and demanded, "What durn fool put those infernal roses on the table?" The private answered, "The captain." The sergeant said, "Pretty, ain't they?"

One of the oldest: A ship had gone down and some of the survivors were in a boat which was drifting in the middle of the ocean. One man asked, "Can't somebody say a prayer or lead in a song or do something religious?" One replied, "I can pass the hat."

Bill metal contains approximately four parts copper and one part tin.

"You're bungling this thing pretty badly," Peter finally said angrily. "But then I guess I can't expect the efficiency of a district attorney in a country sheiff's office. Will you permit me to call in a private investigator?"

"I won't stop you," Purdy promised.

"Well, I will!" Miss Agatha was on her feet, rocking back and forth like a sparrow clinging to a twig against a buffeting winter wind. "My sister was afraid of you, Peter, and I will not have a private detective hired by you in this house! I am the only honest-to-God Thorne left and—"

"Oh, shut up, Aunt Agatha," Peter groaned. "For the love of Pete!"

MISS AGGIE'S outburst had ripped his Harvard accent to shreds; he sounded almost human. Leena could feel sorry for him then, could even like him, but when he shrugged back into what she mentally called his holier-than-thou cloak he again became a potential murderer. Or was it any longer potential? Shudderingly, Leena wondered.

"The remainder of the night would be long. Leena was glad when the sheriff announced his intention of leaving Mart Preston on guard, but she wondered what good one man would be if—"

If what? she asked herself. If Peter decided to kill again? She waited until he had gone into the hall after Purdy before she stirred from her chair.

Sondra was waiting at the door. "I— I couldn't go with the others, Leena," she whispered. "I'm—I'm afraid of Jasper! May I stay in with you?"

Quick sympathy stabbed at the dislike between them. Leena nodded.

"Of course, Sondra," she said, and added: "If you're not afraid of me any more."

"You're a dear!" Sondra said warmly. "After all I've— But Jasper has a gun! It's—Miss Maggie's, I think. I found it a while ago, under his pillow."

Union Takes Fight To Supreme Court

AUSTIN —(P)— Texas construction unions charged with unfair labor practices against Brown and Root Friday carried to the State Supreme Court their fight against hearing of the suit by a master in chancery.

The unions asked the high court for permission to file suit for a writ of mandamus to force 98th District Court Judge Charles O. Betts to hear the case personally and dispense with services of attorney E. L. Bauknight as master in chancery.

The Third Court of Civil Appeals Thursday denied the preliminary application for leave to file the mandamus proceedings with it. The construction firm filed the suit October 2, asking injunctions to restrain unions from picketing, blacklisting and other practices. A restraining order was granted and since has been extended.

City Officials Back From Annual Meeting

City Manager W. H. Oswalt, Public Works Director J. M. Ormand, K. A. Moore, city finance officer, and W. I. Pratt, tax assessor-collector, returned late Thursday from a three-day annual meeting of the Texas League of Municipalities held in San Antonio.

Moore, president of the Municipal Finance Officers Association, and Ormand, vice president of the Texas Public Works Association, presided over meetings of their respective groups. The city manager appeared in a panel discussion concerning the methods of financing municipal improvements.

Official Sees More Oil Shutdown Days

AUSTIN —(P)— Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson anticipates an increasing number of shutdown days for Texas oil fields. He issued a brief statement Thursday commenting on testimony offered by top oil officials of the nation at a statewide hearing here last week.

Noting that witnesses testified to ample stocks and full pipeline capacity, Thompson said: "It would seem that with so many wells being currently completed in Texas that we are faced with more shutdown days simply because the pipelines are full where the oil can be produced, and the companies do not care to increase inventories."

TEXAS SURGEONS NAMED

BOSTON —(P)— Dr. George V. Brindley of Temple, Texas, and Dr. Helmut Jack Ehlers, Houston, were named to the board of governors of the American College of Surgeons here Thursday.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Mightiest Is The Sun

The Weary Wayfarer climbed slowly up to cross the mountain. Old black coat, old slouch hat, all of his clothes were covered with dust from his many travels. Old Mr. Sun looked down upon him, shining a kindly light. A blustery Wind—looked at him too, and then the Wind and the Sun made ready for their contest. Which one would win? Would it be the Sun that was mightiest? Would it be the Wind? Just which of them was king?

Oh, it was easy enough how they would see. They were to try to make the Weary Wayfarer take off his coat, that old black coat that belonged with the old slouch hat. He for whom the coat came off—that somebody, the Wind and Sun agreed, was the mightiest one of all.

Said the Sun: "Blow Wind, and do your worst! You can do your trying first."

By WESLEY DAVIS

But the Wind was full of tricks that day. He didn't blow a, all at first. He called for help with words that said: "Rains that rain on the ships at sea! Come on now and rain for me!" And the rains did come, and the rains did rain for the Wind, their master, but the Weary Wayfarer kept on his coat. He pulled it tighter about him to shut away the rain. Then the rain stopped raining. The Wind took a deep, deep breath. Out he blew with a noise of swishing and swooshing. He pulled and tugged at the coat of the Weary Wayfarer, but it did him not a bit of good. The Weary Wayfarer only pulled the old black coat even tighter about his neck to keep him warm.

And then the Wind said he would rest for now while the Sun tried the business of making the Weary Wayfarer take off the coat. The Sun smiled up there in the sky. He layed a blanket of golden light across the shoulders of the Weary Wayfarer. He shone and shone and shone with a gentle warmth that felt good all the way through to the bones. And the Weary Wayfarer grew warmer and warmer as he walked. At last he unbuttoned his coat, while the Sun shone warm and warm more. So it was that the Weary Wayfarer took off his coat at last, for the Mightiest is the Sun, says the name of our story, and the Sun with all his kindness and gentleness was the mightiest of all indeed.

WANTED

CORWIN CLARK
alias "CORWEE"

Blond hair, blue eyes. Four years old. Height 3 ft. 7 inches; weight 58 lbs.

Last seen loafing on his doorstep Sunday morning.

THIS BOY IS DANGEROUS

He is intelligent, clever, friendly—a natural leader. But his parents have repeatedly neglected the opportunities provided by local churches for his religious and moral training.

The aid of all Christian citizens is required to locate this boy and hundreds like him. The character-building influence of the Church can make them outstanding men. Your active support of the local churches in their efforts to train such youngsters will have ample REWARD in the contribution these youths will one day make to the life of our Community.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Steers, Aggies Get AP Selector's Nod

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Texas and Rice blast at each other at Houston Saturday in a game that will write the true greatness, if any, of Texas.

It will show whether the Longhorns are going to figure in the Southwest Conference race—whether they are to be rocked-ribbed foes of Southern Methodist.

Another game of deep significance will be played at Waco when the Gas House Gang of college football—the rough, tough Texas Aggies—sweep at Baylor. If the Bears should give the Aggies a hard battle the latter would be removed from the ranks of hot contender in the wild sashy to the championship.

Two more games are scheduled Saturday, these counting in the conference's already top-flight inter-sectional record. The league has a 12-5 mark for the season against outside foes.

Battered Texas Christian tries to whip Mississippi at Memphis, Tenn., in another coach-vs-pupil affair. Dutch Meyer, head man at TCU, once tutored Johnny Vaught, mentor of the Rebels.

Owls Want To Win
Arkansas's massive men seek to repel a fine Vanderbilt team at Little Rock in the other inter-sectional struggle.

Texas is favored to beat Rice, which is nothing new but which hasn't been happening very frequently of late. It is a traditional game—one Rice had rather win than any other. A crowd of 70,000 is going to see about it.

Texas A&M, on the basis of the season record, should lick Baylor, but against a mutual opponent the difference isn't indicated as large. A&M defeated Texas Tech 34-13, Baylor beat Tech 26-12. Tech, however, was in much better shape to play football against the Aggies than it was against the Bears.

Arkansas finds itself a six and one-half-point favorite over Vanderbilt, which lost its first game only last week—to Florida 31-27. The Razorbacks have had anything but a successful season thus far, dropping three out of five.

Texas Christian is a six-point underdog to Mississippi with its great John Dotley. Mississippi, however, has lost three games. Not five starts; TCU has dropped two in a like number of tests.

Here We Go Again
The Texas-Rice and Baylor-A&M games are do-or-die affairs for Rice and Baylor. Each has lost a conference game and another loss means elimination for the championship race.

Texas Christian did us dirt last week, losing when selected to win. That was the only miss in four games. Here we go again:

Texas-Rice at Houston, 2 p.m.—Rice could win it but Texas ought to—Texas by a touchdown.

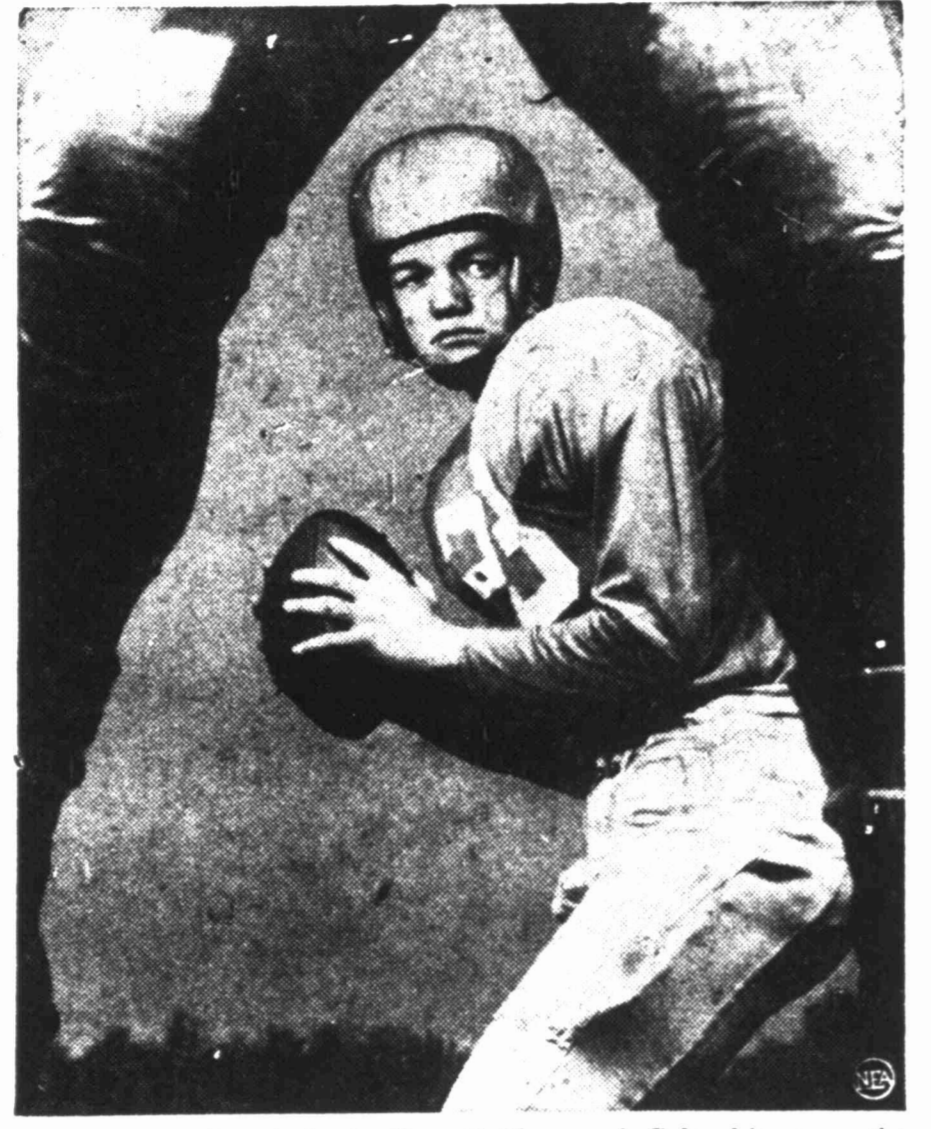

Baylor-Texas A&M at Waco, 2 p.m.—We'll take the Aggies by three touchdowns.

Arkansas-Vanderbilt at Little Rock, 2 p.m.—A weak vote for Arkansas.

Texas Christian-Mississippi at Memphis, 2 p.m.—Most everybody else is taking Mississippi, so we'll try Texas Christian again; the Horned Frogs by the smallest margin you can imagine.

Stanton Whips Lobo Bees 40-6

By LARRY KING
Sports Editor, The Reporter-Telegram

BUFF FIELD, STANTON—A red-shirted herd of Buffaloes thundered over the chalk marks time after time here Thursday night as Coach Leo Field's Stanton Buffs stampeded to their seventh straight win, overpowering Monahans "B" 40-6.

Fumbleitis, penalties and a hard-charging Monahans Lobo line held the power of the Buffs in check for a quarter and a half, but the red Buffs stormed back to overcome a 0-6 handicap and romp to victory.

Stanton got into trouble in the initial quarter, fumbling the ball on its own 27-yard line. Monahans drove to the 14, but could get no farther. But Stanton fumbled on its own 31 moments later, and the Lobos beat back to the 10-yard line before Stanton's line rose to the occasion. Again the Buffs committed a miscue, and Guard Hughes of Monahans recovered on the Stanton seven-yard line. On the first running play, Lobo Halfback Shoemaker crashed over to score and put Monahans in front 6-0.

Buffs Come Back
That seemed to anger Field's charges. They took the Lobo kick-off and came back to march up field to pay dirt. Working from his own 35, Quarterback Ken Henson tossed a screen pass to Halfback

GAME AT A GLANCE

Gearl Koonce, and he romped 32 yards to the Monahans 33. Fullback Red Gibson raced to the Lobo 15 on a keeper play, then Gibson tossed a touchdown pass into the arms of Henson in the end zone. Gibson bucked over for the point on a fake kick formation to put the Buffs ahead 7-6.

With four seconds left in the first half, Henson piled over to score from the one-half yard line for Stanton after the Buffs had recovered a Lobo fumble only 12 yards away from pay dirt. Henson's kick gave the Buffs a 14-6 halftime lead.

The Buffs scored two touchdowns in 64 seconds at the beginning of the second half. On the first play from scrimmage, Halfback Earl Koonce spun over the middle on a quick-opener and out distanced the Pack to the goal line on an 80-yard run. Henson's kick was no good.

Monahans fumbled the next kick-off and a Buff fell on the ball at the Lobo 45. Gibson gained three at the middle, then Gearl Koonce romped around end and swept 42 yards to score. Gibson kicked goal. 27-6 Stanton.

Gibson Romps
Only three minutes later, Gibson moved over his own right side, zig-zagging through a broken field and traveled 29 yards to score. Gibson kicked goal.

Gibson turned in the longest run of the night late in the final quarter, intercepting a Monahans pass on his own goal line, cutting up the side line and romping 100 yards to score. He received beautiful blocking on the play that brought the score to 40-6.

Outstanding in the Buff line were End Bobby McClain, Guard James Tunnell, and Linebacker Fred Church. The entire Buff backfield sparkled.

Shoemaker was a good running back for the Lobos, but didn't have much help. Guard Hughes and Tackle Thornton turned in fine line game for the losers.

Robinson Kayoes Olson In Twelfth
PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—The promoters are still marching in the lambs and Ray (Sugar) Robinson continues to slaughter them in the master style of the Harlem dandy. Thursday night it was Carl (Bobo) Olson who faced the Robinson fists. Fresh from the Hawaiian Islands, the 22-year-old Olson tried to win Robinson's Pennsylvania-version middleweight championship. All he got for 5,500 miles of traveling was his fourth defeat in 53 fights.

Robinson set Olson down for the count in 1:19 of the twelfth round of a scheduled 15-rounder at Convention Hall.

Olson never had a chance. One judge gave him a round while the other judge and the referee called one round even and gave Robinson the rest. A low blow cost the champion the eleventh.

10—THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, OCT. 27, 1950

Which Bulldog Will Win??

Plaster Plainview!
That's what the Midland Bulldogs want to do. But the Plainview Bulldogs have a slogan of their own: Maul Midland!

That should make for a great ball game in Memorial Stadium at 8 p.m. Friday, when Tugboat Jones' Bulldogs and the Plainview Bulldogs tangle in a non-conference clash.

Midland will be without the services of Guard Dalton Eyerley, out with a leg injury. The top-rate guard will be unable to start and may see action only briefly. Back Roy Kimsey is out with a shoulder injury. Reserve Guard Pete English was back in uniform Thursday afternoon, but his leg injury will keep him from seeing action at least this week.

Plainview Heavier
Plainview is reported to be at top strength. Plainview outweighs Midland.

The Plains city team moves from the "T" formation, with some spread. Midland will run 'em from the single wing. Probable starting lineups, with weights:

MIDLAND
ENDS—Bush (168), Medart (153).
TACKLES—Coker (209), Wood (184).
GUARDS—Burks (153), Culp (168).
CENTER—O'Neal (188).
BACKS—Burriss (161), Gilmore (157), Thomas (180) and Brooks (177).

PLAINVIEW
ENDS—Hayes (157), Dye (157).
TACKLES—Finney (178), Jameson (221).
GUARDS—Shaw (245), and Johnson (182).
CENTER—Galloway (195).
BACKS—Harris (130), Ratliff (155), Caskey (170) and Wilson (155).

Sycause University's cross-country team, winners of the national AAU team title last fall, has won 17 dual meets in a row.

Graziano, Janiro Meet Friday Night In Garden Feature
NEW YORK—(AP)—He's not as vicious in the ring as he is used to be but Rocky Graziano still talks a tough fight.

"I'll knock him stiff," said Rocky, who meets Tony Janiro in a return 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden Friday night. They drew in their first clash last March 31.

The Rock is a one-to-two choice to win over blond Tony, a flashy boxer from Youngstown, Ohio.

Tony, however, declares he's in his best shape ever and "I'll wear him out. Rocky's slow and easy to hit and I may even knock him out."

If he can turn that trick, Janiro will shoot right up into the higher tax brackets.

The main event, starting at 9 p.m. (CST), will be broadcast by ABC.

Midlander Buys Promising Colts
NEW YORK—(AP)—Ralph Lowe, Midland, Texas, oil man, bought two promising colts at Belmont Thoroughbred Farm at a public auction of the entire racing stable of the late Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark.

P. L. Foster, acting as an agent for Lowe, bid the top price of the auction, $41,000, for Pictus, a two-year-old brown colt by Pictor—Mrs. Ames. The colt has won $11,275 this year.

He also paid $12,000 for an unnamed yearling by Grand Slam—Tea Leaves.

Eight Teams, Eight Individual Marks Posted In '50 Longhorn League Race, Averages Show

No less than eight team and eight individual new records were written into the Longhorn League record books, official averages of the loop for 1950 reveal. The figures have just been released.

It is to be remembered that the 1950 season was 14 games longer than schedules of the previous years. The 1950 circuit played a 154-game slate, whereas previous years had 140 games each.

The Roswell Rockets broke three standing team records. The Rocket batters paraded to the plate 5,482 times, to eclipse the 4,927 times at bat by Big Spring batsmen in 1947.

Roswell collected 1,659 hits to chalk a new marker in the record books, surpassing the 1,557 hits garnered by the Sweetwater Swatters during 1947. The hit-happy Rockets also collected 319 two-base blows, to jump past the previous high of 285, compiled by Big Spring in 1947.

Odessa grabbed two team records—most games won, and most bases on balls. The Oilers won 97 games, to beat the previous high of 94, set by Big Spring in 1947. Odessa batsmen received 834 free passes, bettering the 708 bases on balls the San Angelo team worked off hitters in the 1949 season.

Big Spring staked the most men on base—1,266. Previous high total was 1,214, by Roswell in 1949. Ballinger had the dubious distinction of being the most oft-batted ball club in the history of the league. The Cats dropped 111 tilts, 13 more than Del Rio lost in 1948.

Ballinger's impotent Cats also took the full count in strikeouts, going down 799 times. Previous high was Odessa's 795, in 1949.

Tom Jordan of Roswell led the individual assault, on the record books, breaking four marks. Jordan blasted out 216 hits to eclipse the record of 209, held by Cowstar of Sweetwater and Stasey of Big Spring, set in 1947.

He also passed Cowstar's record of 375 total bases, piling up a total of 402 to beat the 1947 high. And Jordan smacked 44 home runs, to again surpass the Cowstar high of 37, set in 1947. In runs driven in, Jordan again wrote in a new record with 180. Cowstar had 176 for the previous high, in 1947.

Haller of Sweetwater laid down 19 sacrifice hits to top Palmer of Odessa and Johnson of Vernon in the all time high, who had 18 each in 1949.

Big Jim Prince of Midland banded out 54 doubles, to sweep past the record of 45 two-baggers, collected by Stasey of Big Spring in 1947.

Leo Eastham of Odessa grabbed 170 bases on balls to beat the 127 issued to Leo Rheingans of Odessa in 1948. Mays of Roswell stepped to the plate 611 times, 25 times more than did Fernandez of Big Spring in 1947.

Yanks' Phil Rizzuto Voted Most Valuable In American League

NEW YORK (AP)—Phil Rizzuto, who was chased out of the Polo Grounds and Ebbets Field because he was "too small," is the most valuable player in the American League for 1950.

Rizzuto, the little game cock who plays a man-sized shortstop for the world champion New York Yankees, won the coveted award Thursday with plenty to spare.

The 32-year-old star polled 16 of 23 first place votes and 284 of a maximum 322 points in a poll conducted by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Boston's Billy Goodman, the league's batting champion, finished a distant second. Goodman received only four first place ballots and wound up with 180 points. Catcher Yogi Berra of the Yankees drew the three remaining first place votes and finished third with 146 points.

Rounding out the top ten were George Kell, Detroit, fourth; Bob Lemon, Cleveland, fifth; Walt Dropp, Boston, sixth; Vic Raschi, New York, seventh; Larry Doby, Cleveland, eighth; Joe DiMaggio, New York, ninth; and Vic Wertz, Detroit, tenth.

Ted Williams of Boston, last year's winner, finished way down. Williams drew only seven votes. The great slugger, however, missed a good part of the season because of a broken elbow.

Famous Bauers To Play Here Sunday

Alice and Marlene Bauer, the famous golfing sisters, tee off at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon in an 18-hole low-ball match against Midland's own Pat Garner and Betty Rawls, at the Midland Country Club.

All four of the golfers due to take part in the journey around the greens are outstanding linkswomen and nationally known golfing figures. A fine match is foreseen with top flight golf due to be in abundance.

Country club officials have extended an invitation to the public to attend. There will be no charge.

Babe Pearson, senior Mississippi tackle, is a law student and vice president of the Ole Miss student body.

'C' Team Lamesa Tie 0-0

The Midland "C" team made all the first downs and yardage at Lamesa Thursday afternoon, but penalties held the "C" away from touchdown land and the game ended in a 0-0 tie.

No less than 175 yards in penalties were walked off against the "C" Bulldogs. The first series of downs saw Midland penalized three successive 15-yard jolts.

Midland broke through to the 10-yard line of Lamesa several times, but the referees wouldn't allow it to stand. Darrell Spivey broke loose on a 55-yard dash, Rusty Rutledge scampered 68 yards, and Bill Mims scooted 44 yards but all were nullified.

Lamesa "C" did not threaten seriously to score.

Outstanding in the Midland line were Paul Davis at tackle, John Crowley at end, and Jerry Ball and Jim Mashburn at guards.

Branch Rickey Quits At Brooklyn, Keeps Future Plans Secret

BROOKLYN (AP)—Which way Branch Rickey? That's the question puzzling the baseball world Friday, now that the bushy-browed executive definitely is through in Brooklyn.

Pittsburgh had seemed like the best bet, yet Thursday night Rickey, in Columbus, Ohio, denied reports he would become general manager of the Pirates. And in Pittsburgh Tom Johnson, secretary-treasurer of the Pirates, declared "I'm sure no deal has been made between Rickey and Galbreath, an old friend, and Galbreath, as I would know about it if it had." Johnson referred to John Galbreath, owner of the Pirates.

In addition Johnson said "I know definitely that Hamey (Roy Hamey, Pittsburgh general manager) is not going to leave the Pirates no matter what Rickey does."

When Rickey announced his resignation as president and general manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers Thursday he said he planned to see Galbreath, an old friend, "within a few days." Rickey also said he would visit St. Louis.

Boxer Sentenced To 25-Year Term In Tourist Court Slaying

EDINBURG, TEXAS (AP)—Former boxer Tony Martellano has been sentenced to 25 years in prison for his conviction last week in the slaying of Mrs. Lora Rogers of Alamo in a tourist court at Pharr.

Martellano is from Key West, Fla. His sentence was set Thursday by District Judge S. N. McWhorter, who overruled a motion for a new trial. Defense Attorney Ray Ehrlich gave notice of appeal.

Len Younce, former New York Giant line stalwart, is line coach for Oregon State.

Turnaway Crowd Give Film Ending To Jolson Story

HOLLYWOOD —(AP)— In death, as in life, Al Jolson drew a turn-away crowd.

A milling crowd of 20,000 put a Hollywood ending to the Jolson story as final rites for the famed showman were held Thursday.

The great and small of show business, the plain folks who just liked his singing, the GIs who remembered his efforts to keep them happy—all were on hand to say a final goodbye. Many of them filed through Temple Israel as his body lay in state for nearly two hours before the services.

Then, until the doors of the temple were reopened to fill the 1,300-seat auditorium, they almost stampeded. In the crush, the crowd against the temple doors, two women fainted and many others wept.

Almost simultaneously in New York, where Jolson's will was filed for probate, it was disclosed that about 90 per cent of his estimated $4,000,000 estate ultimately will go to charity.

Solon Charges Ship Loading Oil, Rubber, Pipe For Red China

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Senator O'Connor (D-Md.) said Thursday night a ship destined for Communist China now is loading a large quantity of petroleum products, scrapped automobile tires and galvanized pipe at American ports.

O'Connor, who is chairman of a Senate Commerce subcommittee investigating shipments of oil and other strategic materials to the Chinese Reds, did not identify the ship. The loadings now are being made or shortly will be, he said, at Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

O'Connor said he had turned over this information to customs officials in urging the Treasury Department to re-examine the cargo being taken aboard the vessel.

The senator also asserted in a statement that more than 3,300,000 gallons of lubricating oil and 700,000 pounds of greases were sent from the U. S. to China in the 12 months ended last June 30.

About 90 per cent of these shipments were made after the Communists seized control of China, O'Connor said. He added:

"And the flow continued, although in smaller amounts, even during the three months after the Department of Commerce placed petroleum products on the list of critical materials."

O'Connor's committee began its inquiry into China trade after an American seaman reported American oil and other potential war materials were flowing into China while U. S. troops were battling Reds in nearby Korea.

U. S. To Reduce Flow Of Metals To Civilian Products

WASHINGTON —(AP)— To speed the making of munitions, the government is planning to stem part of the immense flow of aluminum, copper and nickel now going into civilian products.

William H. Harrison, administrator of the National Production Authority, (NPA) told manufacturers Thursday a "tentative plan" under consideration calls for a cut of 20 to 30 per cent in the non-military use of the three critical metals.

He didn't say when the plan might be put into effect.

Harrison also served notice that another important metal, cobalt, is so scarce it may be removed from non-defense use altogether. Cobalt, similar to nickel, is used as a steel alloy and in electro-magnets.

Dr. Walker Speaks To JayCees Friday

Dr. Kenneth Walker, internationally famous writer and lecturer, spoke to the Midland JayCees at their luncheon Friday in the Hotel Scharbauer.

Dr. Walker is the author of "Hitler's Secret Weapon" and "I Saw Hitler Make Black Magic."

His subject Friday was "Ghost Writers in the Mind." He told of the use to which Nazi Germany put the working of man's mind, in order to accomplish its desires.

The JayCees voted to extend their membership drive two more weeks. The drive was to have ended Friday. Irby Dyer reported the recruiting of new members is moving along at a rapid clip.

Discussion of the Jaycee handling of occasions at the Midland football games also was on the agenda. Officials urged all JayCee members to be present for the three remaining home games in order to help with the projects.

Halloween Dance Held By Shriners

Midland Shriners and their ladies enjoyed a Halloween Dance Thursday night in American Legion. Jack Free and his Orchestra furnished music. A good crowd attended.

In a special event, Paul Murray was presented a diamond-studded Shrine pin.

The Midland Shrine Club was host unit.

Fearless Olga Can't Stand To See Spider

CORYDON, ENG.—(AP)— Fearless Olga Frei, 21, skipped out the stage of the Croydon Empire Theater.

Smiling as ever, she leaned back against a big soft board—as she had done every night for months—and stood calm while a blind-folded knife thrower hurled knives and hatchets around her body.

Half-way through the act, she blanched and sank to the floor in a swoon. The audience screamed.

Carried to her dressing room and revived, Olga explained:

"I felt something on my leg. It looked like a spider. I am terrified of them."

Assured there were no spiders present, Olga and knife-thrower Hal Denver went on with the act.

He Didn't Give A Hang

SINGAPORE —(AP)— An Indian estate laborer found out a sure way to get rid of his bride of six months of whom he had tired.

He announced that he would hang himself if the wife returned to him. When she appeared he quickly climbed a tree, rope in hand.

The girl and her parents quickly left.

Ko-Red—

Unconfirmed Reports
One unconfirmed report said Red raiders killed all villagers at Iri who had been friendly to Allied troops. The town is north of Wonsan. There was no estimate on the loss of life.

A spokesman for the Marine First Air Wing said pilots had killed 1,000 Red raiders south of Wonsan in four days.

An 8th Army spokesman at Seoul said he could not verify ROK front-line reports of facing large forces of organized Chinese Reds. He doubted if they were true.

AP Correspondent O. H. P. King quoted one high staff officer:

"The rumor of 60,000 Chinese Communists in North Korea is purely rumor as far as I am concerned. I have not seen any."

But reports that Chinese Reds were fighting on the North Korean side persisted.

AP Correspondent Hal Boyle reported an 8th Army officer as expressing the belief the Chinese encountered by the ROK's were border inhabitants induced to "volunteer" for service in the dying North Korean Army's last stand.

Boyle said all sources he talked with expressed disbelief they were fighting segments of the Chinese Communist Army.

A U. S. Fifth Air Force spokesman said no movement of Red troops from the north had been seen by pilots since the fall of Pyongyang October 20.

"The movement of the enemy today," he said, "was still toward Manchuria—not from it."

A systematic cleanup of roving bands of Reds was underway in Southwest Korea.

Intelligence officers estimated 14,000 Communists still roamed that area.

One Allied patrol was shot up, and near Mungyang 161 Reds were killed and 320 were captured.

Inexpensive Drug May Replace ACTH, Rare New Hormone

BOSTON —(AP)—Discovery that an inexpensive drug seems to act like the wonder hormone ACTH was announced Friday to the American College of Surgeons.

The drug, an old one named furacin, may become a plentiful new medicine against arthritis, rheumatic fever and perhaps some kinds of cancer. Tests on humans are just starting.

Furacin is derived from fufural, a by-product in milling flour and soybeans.

The new discovery is that furacin apparently produces the adrenal glands to produce cortisone. This prodding is what ACTH does.

The hormone-like action of furacin was reported by Dr. Charles E. Friedgood and Dr. Charles B. Ripstein of Maimonides Hospital and the State University Medical Center, New York.

Texaco Declares Extra $1.50 Dividend

DALLAS —(AP)— Texas Company directors Friday declared an extra $1.50 per share dividend which brought dividend payments for 1960 to a record $5.50.

The dividend, payable December 9 to stockholders of record November 10, was ordered as directors met here for their first gathering outside New York City in many years.

The regular quarterly dividend of $1 per share also was authorized.

OIL WORKER INJURED

J. C. Taylor, who lives at the Sky Haven Tourist Courts, was treated early Friday at Midland Memorial Hospital for hand injuries received while working on a drilling rig.
