Reds Strike At Allies, Front And Rear Pact Nations Delay Naming Defense Chief

WASHINGTON—(P)—Defense Ministers of the 12 North Atlantic Treaty nations indicated Saturday night they had agreed on the prompt appointment of a supreme commander for Western Europe's defenses.

They apparently had reached no decision as yet, however, on the controversial question of German re-

The ministers recessed at 5 p.m. after an all-day meeting. They will reconvene Monday.

Some hours before the session Football broke up, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, widely expected to be the supreme commander of Europe's joint 'defenses, held a conference with President Truman. Though no major announcement resulted from this meeting, it did nothing to dispel the belief that the general will get the big job. "The President didn't put .the question to me," Eisenhower told reporters. But he added that Truable for duty." The defense ministers, in a cryptic communique, said the decisions

The defense committee, the document added, completed the first half of its agenda Saturday.

Thus the defense chiefs apparently reached no decision on such questions as to what role Germany shall be given in the task of bulwarking Europe against Russia.

French Face Rugged Choice Of Flight Or Fight In Indochina

SAIGON, VIETNAM, INDO-CHINA -(AP)- A choice of whether to fight or to fall back through enemy-held mountains appeared developing for the French garrison of Laokay Saturday, even as fresh U. S. arms arrived here for use against the Communist-led Vietminh.

A French military spokesman reported attacks on two outposts of Laokay, an isolated French fortress city on the Red River on the border of Communist China. He said Vietminh shock troops were contacting Fort Hennequin, two miles east of Laokay, and mortar fire was directed on a small French unit withdrawing from Banthiet, four miles farther east. The Banthiet unit was reported to have suffered no cas-

Outpost Cut Off A withdrawal from Laokay would appear to be more difficult than that from the frontier post of Caobang, where the French lost about 3,000 of their best troops.

Laokay has been cut off from contact with other major French positions. Safety lies closest along the banks of the Red River, where scattered French outposts hold out along the river's 150-mile course southeastward to Hanoi, a provincial capital.

Observers said any attempt to remove the troops by air would be more hazardous than a dash through the mountains. Laokay lies in a valley amidst heights largely occupied by the Vietminh. The short clay airstrip, often unusable because of heavy rains, is so situated as to require planes to circle guns, could bring the planes under heavy fire.

Kefauver, chairman of a special Senate crime investigating group, of local gambling operations in Galveston, the reported operation in Dallas constitutes the only angle in Texas in which our committee is nterested right now."

"Of course," he added, "if our investigators on the scene discover any other leads, you can be sure that we will press them. But right now I can say that Texas' reported gambling situation is not nearly as bad as in some other states."

He said the investigators are expected to take look at Galveston but we understand that whatever gambling there may be in that area is purely local in nature." Other than Dallas and Galveston, he knew of no Texas cities in line right now for investigation.

Seven men charged with baseball gambling are scheduled for trial Monday in Criminal District Court at Dallas. They were among 18 persons arrested last June by police in raids on downtown bookie joints.

Pioneer Permit For New Mexico Route Is Extended

WASHINGTON -(P)- The Civil Aeronautics Board Friday granted Pioneer Air Lines a one-year extension to September, 1952, of its right to fly between Lubbock and Albuquerque, N. M.

The board refused, however, to reconsider its decision to cut off Pioneer's Amarillo-El Paso route and to make Artesia a stop on the route. The board gave Pioneer an extra month to serve the Amarillo-El Paso segment, making November 30 the final day of service. Pioneer is a feeder or local service airline operating principally in Texas. Its temporary five-year certificate expired last month and the board granted a four-year extension on all routes except two.

The board granted an extension until October 31 for the Amarillo-El Paso service, and a one-year extension of the Lubbock-Albuquerque Vote The Bonds!

Another bond issue proposal, this time for further expansion of the school system, again is before Midland voters—and again we say "Vote The Bonds!"

It seems this has become almost a constant cry in Midland of late, but bond issues and more bond issues are required in order to keep pace with rapid development such as Midland is experiencing—and enjoying. It is a sign of Progress and Midland thrives on Progress.

During recent years, the city, county, and school district constantly have been faced with the problem of providing additional facilities and services for the ever-growing community. Money must be had to meet these urgent demands, and the funds must come from bond issues.

Midland taxpayers have been most liberal in voting bonds for improvements, realizing that each issue has been for needed and worthwhile programs. They ask only that economy be the watchword and that the governing agencies receive full value for every tax-dollar spent.

Record city and county bond issues were approved by the voters earlier this year. Now it is the Midland Independent School District which is requesting $300,000 in bond funds to finance the construction of two new buildings to house an ever-increasing enrollment. That more classrooms urgently are needed is without question. They must be provided promptly.

The proposed buildings, which would be erected in the Northwest and Latin American sections of the city, will cost approximately $500,000, but fortunately the school system has $200,000 in funds, saved from operating costs, which it will put into the building program. This is commendable. Not many tax-supported agencies manage to save money in this day and time.

School officials say the new bonds can be serviced and retired without increasing the current tax ratethanks to the above mentioned savings and to increased valuations due to oil development in the district.

It is true that two new buildings were provided for the present school year, but it also is true that enrollment is up approximately 25 per cent over this time last year. And a similar increase next Fall is anticipated. Still other new buildings may be required in 1952. Af so, more bonds ed Pan American Airways from the Thus, few people outside UN are can smell the fish—so I won't need club. South must then decide In addition to these government enrollments for 1950 total 25,591,must be voted.

School trustees have a policy of providing new facilities only as the needs arise—and the important thing right | vey now is to approve the issuance of $300,000 in bonds for the erection of two new buildings for 1951. The election will be held Saturday in the City-County Auditorium. It is ster of Maine, close friend of Pan A great fighting man, he now has hoped the qualified voters of the school district will turn out enmasse—voting for issuance of the bonds and for in Pan Am planes, also commuted continued progress.

Reclamation Projects Hold Key To Italy's Prosperity

By PETER EDSON NEA-Washington Correspondent

ROME-Nothing short of a complete revolution in its 2,000-year-old farm, food and land management policies can bring economic stability to Italy. Dr. Howard Cottam, U.S. Department of Agriculture adviser to the American embassy and the Marshall Plan administration in Italy, says it is really a 10-year job. The trouble is, there aren't 10 years in which to complete it, to keep the country sicily, about the same size, has from collapse.

Dr. Cottam believes that the Italians now are eating as well as they did before the war. This still isn't very good. There are millions of families, particularly in the south, who have meat only twice a year, on Easter and Christmas. The marvel is how they subsist at all. Sixty per cent of the Italian diet is in grain calories, the rest fruits and vegetables. Under Mussolini, about eight per cent of the Italian diet, measured in terms of calories, had to be imported. Today, because Italy's population now is 10 per cent greater, about 12 per cent of the calorie-containing items have to be imported.

Overcoming this food deficit, changing the diet and raising the standard of living for all Italians are the big objectives.

Most people have believed Italy was intensively cultivated and that every inch of fertile soil was utilized. As soon as American farm experts began making their surveys. they found out different. Millions of idle acres now have been marked for reclamation, to help feed the surplus population. Land Management phase of the Italian land revolution. however, is the breaking up and redistribution of the big estates. Every political party in Italy-including the Communist partisans who were in control of Italy after liberation—demanded this agrarian reform. Italy's new constitution provided for it.

This marked the beginning of a revolution in land management. It began under the U.S. Army of Occupation, which introduced DDT This literally changed the face of Italy. It killed flies and mosquitoes, wiped out malaria, reduced dysentery, made available for farming sidered uninhabitable.

It has taken two years of talk to get under way, but it is now a going thing. Peasants have been permitted to move into idle land and cultivate it. Some 75,000 acres have been expropriated and about 3,000 acres distributed to date. Theoretically, the original land owners are to be paid the tax assessment valuation of 10 years ago, plus 10 per

There have been disorders, some bloodshed and innumerable charges of mismanagement and injustice in all these undertakings. Italian government employes are paid on so low a scale that graft in administration is common. It is not condoned, but it is perhaps inevitable in a country that must go through a complete social and economic revolution, substituting democracy for feudalism in order to avoid

Communist Groups File Suit To Void

WASHINGTON-(AP)-A group of 135 persons, including some acknowledged Communists, Friday filed suit in U.S. District Court here to nullify the new anti-subversive law.

Anti-Subversive Law

The action attacks the whole law as unconstitutional. The chief complaint is against the requirements that Communist groups must register with the attorney general and disclose their financial backing. The court refused to accept a similar suit offered by 107 persons last Monday because it lacked the plaintiffs' street addresses.

The Communist Party and associated groups this week ignored the deadline set by the new law for their registration, and the Justice Department began work on a formal petition to the new Subversives Activities Control Board to force registration. Lengthy hearings before the board are expected. Seek Prompt Hearing

The suit did not ask any immediate restraining order against the act but said a prompt preliminary hearing will be sought to get a forcement while a three-judge court threshes out the constitutional ques-

Government Issues Instruction Booklet On A-Bomb Attack

WASHINGTON -(AP)- "You can survive!" With that introduction, the government Saturday put out its longpromised booklet telling everybody exactly what to do if an atom bomb is dropped.

You can survive an A-bomb blast, the government said, if you're lucky enough not to be right under the bomb and if you follow these "six survival secrets:

1—Try to get shielded. If you have time, get down in a basement or subway. If you're caught outdoors, seek shelter alongside a building, in a ditch or gutter.

2-Drop flat, on the ground or floor, to keep from being tossed about or hit by flying objects.

3-Bury your face in your arms. This will protect your face from flash burns, prevent temporary blindness and keep blast debris out of your eyes. Don't Start Rumors

He's against just about everything American-except certain American brands that help him live better.

Stalin likes a manufacturer's brand of American pipe tobaccoand buys it regularly through his Russian Embassy in Washington.

Reliable reports also have it that Stalin rides in a famous American automobile—and probably uses other brand-name American products.

We don't blame him.

In Russia he has no real choice of good makers' brand-name products.

As a buyer in Russia . . . he'd get none of the advantages you get every day from the trademark products of every kind. The advantage of quality and constant improvement of product, for instance, that comes when manufacturers must compete to give ever greater dollar value.

More Emotion From Writers Requested

WINNIPEG -(AP) -- Canadian authors do not express enough emotion in their stories, says Mrs. Margaret Lee, herself a writer and secretary of the Manitoba branch of the Canadian Authors Association. Mrs. Lee, who writes under the pen-name of Madge Ford, attributes this failing to a tendency toward the English style. "Most Canadians sell their good manuscripts to American markets and they should write accordingly. Americans have a freer manner of expression," she says.

HIGH SCHOOL—Talent shows always are in season, no matter what the occasion. One of the main attractions at the high school Halloween Carnival will be a talent show. The carnival will be held Tuesday night in the school. Ruth Harris, left, and Grace Boles will test their talents when they enter the talent show.

TERMINAL—The country store and the country storekeeper will be one of the featured attractions at the Terminal Halloween Carnival Tuesday night. Mrs. J. R. Flowers will be the country storekeeper.

WEST ELEMENTARY—Turtle racing, a fascinating child's sport, will be one of the unusual attractions at the West Elementary Halloween Carnival Tuesday night in the school. It will be sponsored by the West Elementary Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. E. B. Dilley, right, and Mrs. J. H. Marks watch the turtles as they race down the homestretch.

NORTH ELEMENTARY—Witches, goblins and spirits will be on the prowl Tuesday night. Mrs. Leslie Brown, disguised as a witch, will be one of the main attractions at the North Elementary Halloween Carnival in the school.

south Elementary—Vinton Newberry sells a soda pop to Mrs. Arthur Green while daughter Carol stands by. The snack bar will be one of the features of the South Elementary Halloween Carnival to be held Tuesday night in the school. The carnival is sponsored by the South Elementary Parent-Teacher Association. Each school will have a carnival Tuesday night, sponsored by its respective P-TA unit. This will be the eleventh year for the carnivals, held for the purpose of entertaining school children on Halloween night. The first carnival was held in the North Elementary School in 1939. Parents and teachers work together to make the carnivals enjoyable for both children and adults.

During this figure-conscious pertod young bodies need very careful support. Shoes are selected so that arches and ankles are adequately supported. Girdles and bras should be fitted by experts to help mold curves and contours properly.

Bosom muscles are sensitive and "tone" is a word which you often will hear used in describing the healthy performance of the muscles. When proper "tone" is not present, the cause often is due to undue strain, suggests Edith Lances, brassiere designer.

Miss Lances says the first function of a brassiere is a corrective one. It should give a natural lift and support muscles to preserve tone of breast muscles.

She advises being fitted at a reliable store whether you've got $2 or $10 to spend. Ask the fitters advice about the type of bra you should wear.

There are a number of bra styles. A bandeau is the short brassiere that ends just below the bustline. A long-line bra is another variety that comes down to the waist-designed for women who need midriff control. Wired bras are used for deeper separation purposes—not usually

Miss Lances advises that you shoulder neckline. The sleeves were ing it on. After you've made the washings stretch the elastic and change the fit of the bra. A bias cut bra should keep its shape because the design follows the natural line of the bustline.

Not every girl is endowed with a bosom which will adequately fill out a dress, but according to Miss Lances, this is no problem. Any little discreet padding into the bra. This is commonly done. Many of New York's finest dress models wear that type of bra.

On the other hand the girl who is over-endowed can be fitted to reduce that top-heavy appearance. She should wear an unobstructive bra, one that will serve its function A well-chosen bra can accomp-

"FACTS DO NOT CEASE TO EXIST BECAUSE THEY ARE IGNORED!"

In practically every community in America, there are medical facilities available to ALL those who make the personal effort to locate them. A million dollars worth of free medical service is rendered every day, in clinics, hospitals, offices and homes—to needy persons. Taxing employees and employers, to build up a "4-Billion-Dollar-a-year" Bureaucracy, will not solve your health problem. That is a matter between you and your doctor

Former MAAF 'Hell From Heaven Man' Is Midland Visitor

One of Uncle Sam's crack "Hell from Heaven Men," who trained at Midland Army Air Field, the world's largest bombardier school during World War II, was back in Midland Friday for the first time since 1943.

He is James Rice who now resides in El Segundo, Calif.

Rice, as a bombardier cadet, won first place in the famed "Tokyo" bombing contest staged by MAAF in 1943, and which attracted nationwide interest. He was transferred to the Training Command after receiving his bombardier wings here.

Rice marveled at Midland's growth since he left here, and commented. "The town surely has changed, with new buildings and new homes everywhere."

He was interested in locating some of his former MAAF associates, and was delighted to learn that his former commandant, Lt. Col. C. E. (Bud) Bissell, resides and is in business here. Rice headed for Bissell's office on the

Building Materials' Headquarters

The spectacular development of ever-growing Midland has placed lumber, paints and building materials of all kinds in great demand, but the city's progressive, alert and well-stocked building supply concerns have done remarkable jobs in providing materials in adequate supply to meet the needs of the record construction program, which continues unabated. The Midland firms also serve other points in the Permian Basin Empire.

The plants and yards of seven of Midland's building material firms are pictured on this page.

Record after record has been smashed in Midland building during the last decade. Building permits for 1950 already have exceeded all previous records, the figure for the first 10 months of the year being in excess of $10,000,000. The previous record was established in 1948, when permits totaled $7,272,900. Hundreds and hundreds of new homes and scores of new commercial buildings have been and are being erected in Midland as the city continues to expand in all directions.

And the well-established, friendly and efficient building supply firms continue to play major roles in the unprecedented construction program.

> The most commonly-used window is double-hung, the upper and lower sections sliding up and down. Movement is controlled by springs gears, ratchets or other mechanical counter-balances which rapidly are taking the place of the old-style weights attached to a rope or chain moving over a pulley in the casing. Casement Windows

Casement windows, widely used in period-style house, usually are hinged at the side and swing in or out. A fairly new window treatment is the projected type in which horizontal sections are pivoted on a center axis for opening. This type and casements provide 100 per cent ventilation when open. A doublehung window is only 50 per cent effective for ventilation because only half the total window area can be opened. Fixed sash windows with no provision for opening generally are used where a broad, unobstructed view is desired, and for this reason are called picture windows. Today almost every new home has

Non-Breakable Panes

Improvements in the glassmaking art include the development of non-breakable panes, numerous kinds of glass block, and a window pane that seals dead air between two sheets of glass, thus eliminating the need for storm sash.

Many new homes use opaque glass to admit a maximum amount of light yet still afford privacy. This especially is useful on sides of a home having an unattractive out-

Toya Chapple and Larry Mayfield will represent the Student Council at Texas Tech in-Lubbock, Saturday, October 28. Representatives from schools of this district will meet in a clinic to discuss Student Council problems.

Five representatives from the Midland High School Student Council will attend the West Texas Forum which meets in Big Spring on Tuesday, November 28. One of the directors of the National Student Council will be the principal speaker at this meeting. Those planning to attend this forum are James Weatherred, vice president; Emily Hamilton, Fred Underwood, Larry Mayfield, Joe Burnett and Beverly Keisling, members.

Exchange Assembly Another important project of this year's council is the exchange of assembly programs with schools of this district. This is a good-will gesture for the student bodies. Howdy, Pardner, Howdy

It is "Howdy Week" again, time to greet and meet new friends. It is up to the "old-timers" to welcome the new students. Don't just speak to them in class, or smile when you pass them in the corridors; invite them to join your group at lunchtime; take them around and introduce them to others. Help them become better acquainted with their new school and classmates.

During "Howdy Week," let's all do our part in welcoming our new schoolmates. But, remember, "Howdy National FFA convention in Kansas Week" officially ends on Friday. It is up to each and everyone of us to make every week a "Howdy Week" in our school. Then we will have a school that we can be banquet in April. doubly proud of, the friendliest school in the midwest!

Twirp Season! Open Season!

Again, October 31 through November 13 brings to us the answer to a maiden's prayer; yes, it is known by the title of "Twirp Season."

Webster did not deem it worthy of print so, after looking through the dictionary, we still are at a loss to know in what gender a "twirp" is classified.

Southwestern Life Hikes Capital Stock

Taking cognizance of the company's rapid growth during recent years, directors of Southwestern Life Insurance Company at a recent quarterly meeting, recommended an increase in the company's capital stock from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000. The proposal will be submitted at an early date to the company's stockholders, who will be asked to vote on the transfer of $1,000,000 of surplus funds to capital stock. If the proposal is approved by them, the stockholders would receive one additional share of stock for each four shares of stock which they now hold. President James Ralph Wood said the present capital stock structure of Southwestern Life has existed since 1937. At the beginning of that year the company had $303,215,774 of life insurance in force, $51,852,241 in assets, and $41,846,463 of reserves belonging to policyowners. As of Dec. 31, 1949, the company's life insurance in force amounted to $761,644,019, assets totaled $200,132,-922, and policy owners' funds were excess of $173,000,000. Southwestern Life is represented
