Allied Forces Forge Ahead On All Fronts

SEOUL—(P)—Allied forces forged ahead Thursday all along the frigid, 250-mile North Korean front toward the Manchurian border. Resistance was spotty. Parka-clad infantrymen of the U. S. 17th Regiment knifed through the frost-covered Pungsan Hills in the northeast to within 20 miles of the Red Manchurian border.

It was the day's biggest gain. In sharp contrast, the entire U. S. First Corps advanced along a 30-mile front in the northwest, virtually unopposed. Temperatures rose, but a sleet storm made the going rough. Gains ranged up to four miles.

American Naval guns helped South Koreans turn the tables on attacking Reds on the opposite coast in the extreme northeast. U. S. Marines clashed with a sizable Communist force in the mountainous center of the peninsula. They advanced as much as three miles along the west side of ice-coated Changjin Reservoir.

Troops of the ROK (Republic of Korea) Second Corps stabilized the sagging bottom of the line against strong Red opposition. Expand Western Flank Here's what happened Thursday, looking over the mountainous battle front slanting from west to east: The ROK First Division advanced almost four miles north and west of Pakchon. That expanded the western flank of the Chongchon River beachhead. Two Chinese Communist divisions were said to have pulled back ten miles.

The British Commonwealth 27th Brigade entered Pakchon and pushed about three miles forward. (Continued On Page Eight)

Radars Screen, Jet Patrols Pass Test, Draw Soviet Protest

FRANKFURT, GERMANY—(P)—A previously secret American radar screen backed by jet fighter patrols to protect Western Europe against surprise attack has passed its first test, it was revealed Thursday.

The test was supplied by Communist planes carrying delegates from England to the Communists' Peace Congress in Warsaw. Their flights were tracked and patrols investigated them.

The first test came when a Soviet plane carrying French Communist Leader Maurice Thorez to Moscow for medical treatment made an uncharted flight over Western Germany.

Radars picked up the plane and a jet patrol was sent to investigate. Gen. Vassily Chuikov, chief of the Soviet High Commission in East Germany, formally protested Wednesday night to U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy that the Russian plane was "attacked."

He said the jet patrol plane swept within 10 yards of a Soviet hospital plane. 39 Outlaw Flights The U. S. Air Force said the jet flew no closer than 500 feet to identify it. Wednesday the radar net and patrols had their busiest day. Thirty-nine unauthorized flights by Eastern European Communist planes were sighted and traced as they moved over Western Germany.

The West has placed no embargo against flying over Western Germany but demands that each plane notify Air Headquarters of its arrival, course and identity. None of the Communist planes did so. Officially, this authorization is described by the West as a precaution to avoid accidents over busy airports. It also serves as a valuable guard against any surprise attack.

The Thores plane incident was followed Thursday by a High Commission Aviation Board announcement it would protest against the unauthorized flights by the Warsaw-bound planes.

General Chuikov said the Thores plane had given advance notice of its flight. A U. S. Air Force spokesman at Frankfurt said the hospital ship had failed to contact the Rhine-Main Airport when it approached enroute from Paris to Berlin last Saturday. He declared the U. S. plane then approached the craft not closer than 500 feet to identify it.

TELEPHONE PICKET VIOLENCE—At the Bell Telephone Exchange in Philadelphia, striking telephone equipment and installation workers scuffle with police. Pickets fought with police in a futile effort to prevent non-striking operators from entering the building.

WU Bandit Surrenders; Held Here

A 21-year-old oil field worker, "tired of running away," was being held here Thursday in connection with the $325 robbery of the Midland Western Union office almost two weeks ago. He was returned to Midland early Thursday from Carlsbad, N. M., where he turned himself over to officers.

He was identified immediately by Nancy Poore, 207 North Fort Worth Street, night manager of the Western Union office, who surrendered the money on the night of November 4 at gunpoint.

"She had described me too good," the suspect told Police Chief Jack Ellington and Texas Ranger John Wood, who returned him from New Mexico. Accurate Description Miss Poore's accurate description of the hijacker was credited by Ellington with early identification of the suspect.

"Within 15 minutes after the robbery," he said, "we had such a good description that we were able to guess pretty well who it was."

The oil field worker is facing two robbery charges in Ector County, the police chief said. The youth, whose home is in Goldsmith, readily admitted the holdup, Ellington said.

"I had been drinking all that day from 10 o'clock, when I started over here," the suspect said. Drinking 'Quite A Bit' "I got over here and started drinking quite a bit. I drove by the Western Union and looked in, and I just saw this one person in there so the notion just struck me how easy it would be to rob it."

He said he parked his car on Missouri Street and walked into the Western Union office, where (Continued On Page Eight)

City Sewage Plant Plans Are Ordered

The City Council Wednesday afternoon authorized Joe Ward, Wichita Falls consulting engineer, to prepare detailed plans and specifications as promptly as possible for the installation of a Spiroflow-Clarifier-type sewage disposal plant, with sludge digester, in Midland.

The estimate cost of the new plant is $298,000. Funds for the project were provided in a recent city bond election. Other Types Considered The council considered other types of plants including Imhoff-trickling filter, $455,000; Imhoff-oxidation ponds, $295,000; settling basin-sludge digester, $308,000; activated sludge, $374,000; and Spiro-Aeronic, $395,250.

The different types were explained by Ward and J. B. Upchurch, who is associated with Ward. The Ward firm was engaged by the city several months ago to survey sewage disposal plant needs and to submit reports and recommendations. The new plant here will be designed so that more units may be added to take care of continued growth. More thorough treatment of sewage may be made at the plant by adding additional equipment if and when necessary, City Manager W. H. Oswald said.

Daniel Checks Law Concerning Lopsided Duval County Voting

AUSTIN—(P)—Attorney General Price Daniel said Thursday he is studying the law, at the request of Gov. Allan Shivers, "to see if any authority exists under present statutes, for anyone other than Judge Reams to take action in the Duval County matter."

Daniel's statement was the first indication of official notice of the lopsided Duval County write-in vote which defeated the incumbent, Sam G. Reams, Jr., for judge of the 79th District Court. Reams, the Democratic nominee, was defeated by approximately 250 votes on the basis of combined official and unofficial tallies, in the general election.

The apparent victor was State Rep. A. J. Vale of Rio Grande City, whose name was written in against Reams. Vale has not said whether he would accept the judgeship, nor has Reams indicated whether or not he will contest the election.

Seats Are Plentiful For Tilt At Lubbock

Plenty of seats will be available at the Midland-Lubbock football game to be played Friday afternoon in Lubbock, school officials here were advised Thursday. The Lubbock school authorities said all Midland fans desiring to purchase tickets at the gate can be accommodated.

Bystanders' Accounts Of Incident Vary

By The Associated Press
A picket who appeared outside the Bell Telephone Exchange at Vernon in North Texas Thursday was told to "get out of town" by a group of unidentified men. The picket, along with some other Western Electric workers sitting in a car parked nearby, did so. Vernon was one of six Texas cities in which Western Electric pickets appeared Thursday for the first time during the nationwide CWA-CIO strike. The other cities were Marfa, Granbury, McCamey, Seminole and Beeville.

Jack Burney, reporter for The Vernon Record, arrived at the scene in time to witness part of the incident. He said Southwestern Bell operators claimed the picket was "slugged" but that other bystanders claimed he only was pushed.

All agreed five or six men told the picket to "get out of town." The picket had identified himself as from Wichita Falls. No Western Electric workers usually are employed in Vernon. Appearance of the picket here apparently was part of Western Electric strikers' "hit-stip" practice of shifting pickets from town to town.

Creates Traffic Jam The scuffle between the picket and the strangers attracted a crowd and stalled cars resulting in a small traffic jam in front of the Vernon Telephone Exchange, which is just across the street from the courthouse square.

The Vernon sheriff's office and Vernon police said shortly after the incident they knew nothing of what happened. The picket had begun carrying his sign about 6 a. m. Several other Western Electric workers sat in a car nearby, possibly to relieve the picket later.

Bell operators gathered across the street and in cars parked nearby, refusing to cross the picket line. The group of men showed up about 9:45 a. m.

In the ensuing scuffle, one of the operators had a toe stepped on and her fellow workers gathered around her. One said, "The action against the lone picket. That won't do any good. They'll send 50 men back."

Lockout Charges Prepared The picket climbed into the car holding the other Western Electric workers. They drove off. The operators who had refused to cross the picket line at Vernon were turned back when they offered to take up their duties. However, the Vernon Bell and union heads said subsequent shifts would be admitted if no more pickets appeared.

Meanwhile the union prepared "lockout" charges against Bell. A Bell spokesman in Dallas said pickets appeared for the first time Thursday at Vernon, Marfa, Granbury, McCamey, Seminole and Beeville. Pickets also re-appeared at Amarillo. (Continued On Page Eight)

Cold Front Lowers Texas Temperatures

By The Associated Press
A weak cold front was moving across Texas Thursday, knocking the props from under warm weather which set some more records Wednesday. But warmer weather is expected to return Friday.

Temperatures rose to 85 Wednesday at Dallas, warmest November 15 in Dallas history. But the cold front dropped the temperature 34 degrees to 51 early Thursday. At mid-morning the front was stretched along a line through Bryan and San Antonio and was threatening choppy going offshore in the Gulf.

Temperatures dropped below freezing early Thursday in the Panhandle, where Dalhart recorded a low of 23, Amarillo 27 and Lubbock 31. Other low readings included Salt Flat 24, Wink and Midland 30. Wednesday's high: Texas reading was 90 at Coggins in South Texas. Freezing weather was expected in the Panhandle, South Plains and in the Wichita Falls area again Thursday night.

Gin Storage Fire At Balmorhea Does $16,000 Damage

EROS—Fire ripped through the Western Cotton Oil Company's gin storage plant at Balmorhea Wednesday, leaving an estimated damage of $16,000 to seed cotton and the building. Approximately 40 bales of loose seed cotton were destroyed. The Pecos Fire Department fought the blaze.

GOP Cries 'Gag' At Tax Bill Deadline

WASHINGTON—(P)—House tax framers, working under forced draft, pointed Thursday toward a target of December 1 as the date by which they expect to have an excess profits levy ready for House action.

After hearing Secretary of the Treasury Snyder outline Administration suggestions for skimming $4,000,000,000 from corporation earnings, the House Ways and Means Committee Wednesday voted on party lines to conclude hearings no later than next Wednesday.

With more than 200 individuals wanting to testify, this means many will get no chance to present their views orally, although they may present written statements for the record. The hearings continued Thursday.

Straight Party Vote The hearing speed-up brought immediate charges of "gag" and "steamroller" from Republican committee members, who showed themselves cool to Snyder's proposal for a 75 per cent levy on excess corporation profits.

Representative Reed (R-NY), senior GOP member, accused the Democratic committee majority of being "not even interested in trying to write sound tax legislation."

By a straight party vote, the committee limited the hearings to one week and put a 15-minute time limit on the appearance of individual witnesses. It also decreed that "where possible" no more than one witness should appear for a single industry although more than one could split the 15-minute maximum among them.

It added a further limitation by ruling out testimony on any alternative tax proposal. Some business groups have proposed alternatives to the excess profits tax.

Chest Short By $6,526

The 1950 Midland Community Chest drive Thursday was $6,526 short of its goal of $45,386. Thursday's total was $38,000, which is a gain of $792 from Wednesday's report of $38,068.

And the campaign continues. A breakdown of the Thursday total showed: Big Gifts $10,418; Ranchers $2,585; Office Buildings $6,119; Non-Resident Corporations $6,155; Business District $7,132; Residential $2,698; Lawyers $1,311; Schools $727; Doctors $660; Public Buildings $497; Negroes $269; Terminal $187; Latin Americans $115.

Deputy, Ranger Turn Up Good At 'Cotton Picking'

Deputy Sheriff F. S. Buckalew and Texas Ranger John Woods "went cotton-picking" Wednesday and turned up a few hours later with about $1,000 worth.

The two were cruising around on business, when they received a radio call concerning a truck stolen in Big Spring. The truck, the report said, contained four bales of unginned cotton.

A short time later Buckalew and Woods spotted the truck, its load of cotton unharmed, abandoned on a street in the Latin American section of Midland.

Science Teacher Suffers Burns

Louis Albert Bohn, 30-year-old Midland high school science teacher, was burned Wednesday in an explosion in the high school chemistry laboratory.

The Midland Memorial Hospital reported he suffered serious burns on his face and arms but that his eyesight was not damaged.

Bohn, who lives at 2713 Roosevelt Street, was burned when the explosion interrupted an experiment he was conducting.

Water Cloud Over Parks-Ellenburger May Be Dried Up

There is a possibility that the cloud which was thrown over the prospects for a good Ellenburger oil field being developed in Central-West Midland County around the opener of the Parks-Ellenburger field, early in the week when a small amount of water was found in the Ellenburger in the second well to reach that zone in the area, will be removed.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 H. S. Collings, one-location north of the same company's No. 2 Parks, the field opener, showed approximately one and one-half barrels of water in the 71.55 barrels of fluid which it flowed during one hour in a drillstem test at 12,902-967 feet. Some BS&W

Of the 71.55 barrels of fluid which was produced by No. 1 Collings during the one hour of flowing, 76.3 per cent of it was oil and the other 23.7 per cent was basic sediment and water.

A breakdown of the basic sediment and water recovery showed that one and one-half barrels of the total fluid produced was water—and that water came out of the hole ahead of the oil.

Operator cored on down to 12,979 feet and ran a three hour and 30 minute drillstem test at 12,960-979 feet. Gas surfaced in two hours and 40 minutes. No fluid came to the top while the tester was open.

No Formation Water Recovery was 30 feet of oil and 240 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud. There were no traces of formation water in the test.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was between 65 pounds and 125 pounds. After that test was completed and showed no water operator representatives decided to re-test the entire Ellenburger section.

Top of the Ellenburger in No. 1 Collings is at 12,910 feet. On the test which showed the one and one-half barrels of water, the packer was set at 12,902 feet—eight feet above the top of the Ellenburger, and up in the Joins dolomite.

Probably Joins Water The fact that the zone at 12,900-979 feet did not make any water has caused many interested observers to think there is a possibility that the water on the test at 12,902-967 feet did not come from the Ellenburger, but from the eight feet of Joins which was included in the first drillstem test.

In order to get away from the Joins and get a fair test on the Ellenburger, the current investigation in No. 1 Collings is being run with the packer at 12,917 feet—seven feet below the top of the Ellenburger.

It is thought that if the test on the zone at 12,917-979 feet does not show any water it will then be proven that the water in the No. 1 Collings was from the Joins between 12,902 and 12,910 feet.

The surmise that the Collings water may have come from the Joins is given further support from the conditions in Magnolia No. 2 Parks, the field opener.

That project was completed flowing oil in large amounts. It is still doing that, but it is also making a little water.

Casing Set In Joins However, the top of the Ellenburger in No. 2 Parks is at 12,960 feet. The oil string in that well is cemented at 12,944 feet—16 feet up in the Joins, and that far above the top of the Ellenburger.

The actions of the No. 1 Collings and also the original tests on No. 2 Parks point to the water in both of those developments being from the Joins and not from the Ellenburger.

The drillstem test currently being run on the Collings prospect should provide the answer to the question. Magnolia No. 1 Collings is 11 miles southwest of the city of Midland, and 600 feet from south and 880 feet from east lines of the southwest quarter of section 7, Matt Daugherty survey, SP 4180.

Glasscock Wildcat Reports Completion In Tex-Harvey Pay

Hubbard S. Russell No. 1 Wraga-Hendrickson, Central-West Glasscock County wildcat, two and eight-tenths miles southeast of the nearest production from the Spraberry sand in the Tex-Harvey field in Central-East Midland County, has been officially completed for a daily initial production of 184 barrels of 38.3 gravity oil, flowing through a 24/64th inch tubing choke.

The new discovery did not show any water on the completion test gauge. Gas-oil ratio was 883-1. Flowing tubing pressure was 90 pounds. Open Hole Production The production came from open hole pay in the Spraberry sand at 6,909-7,175 feet. The 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented at 6,899 feet. The pay section had been shot with 675 quarts of nitro glycerin.

Mrs. Edwin Hall and Mrs. Charles Snure spoke to members of the Twentieth Century Study Club Tuesday on "Socialized Medicine." The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. J. B. Bain on the Andrews Highway. Mrs. Carl Hyde was co-hostess.

The speakers told the group that the issue before the country was whether the crusade for national health should be based on a voluntary plan or a plan controlled by the federal government.

They pointed out many doctors were leaving England to practice elsewhere because they were dissatisfied with the English form of socialized medicine. "Taxpayers," they said, "would have to pay billions of dollars to set up such a plan and it has been proven that socialized medicine is a low quality medicine."

"Medical men," they continued, "believe that the government's big job lies in research, child hygiene, maternity cases, epidemic control and immunization, but they want the actual care of patients left to the doctors."

Supporting desirable local legislation, advising congressmen to vote against the issue and safeguarding individual health were three methods for defeating social medicine which were advocated by the speakers.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Arlo Forrest, Mrs. Glenn Shoemaker, Mrs. H. G. Higdon and Mrs. Guy Vanderpool.

Mrs. Clarence Nelson presided in the absence of Mrs. W. G. Epley, Jr., who is attending the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs convention in Fort Worth.

Members present were Mrs. H. S. Collins, Mrs. Robert Donnell, Mrs. Tom Edrington, Mrs. Harlan Howell, Mrs. B. R. Matthews, Mrs. Clarence Nelson, Mrs. H. H. Redding and Mrs. W. E. Shipp, Jr.

Mrs. Stripling Is Program Leader

Mrs. Robert Stripling discussed "The Political and Economic Life of the Arabic Countries" Wednesday morning for the members of the May Tidwell Circle of the First Methodist Church. The circle met in the home of Mrs. Roy McKee, 907 West Michigan Street.

Russian Reasoning

A prime reason why the United States hopes to avoid being embroiled in all-out war with Red China is that Russia might then have a free hand to move in Europe.

Thus far in the Cold War, the Soviet Union has been extremely lucky in getting her satellites to stick their necks out. While the forces of puppet nations challenge the free world, the masters in the Kremlin sit back and watch, conserving their own armed strength against a greater day.

Meanwhile, the United States, France and Britain commit a large part of their available military power to "police actions" in Korea, Indo-China, and Malaya. Those forces are pinned down effectively, and cannot be counted upon for emergency use in vital Europe.

The two principal targets there, of course, are Germany and Yugoslavia. The Russians, taking advantage of French reluctance to accept sizable German units in a Western European defense force, are punching hard on the "German unity" propaganda line. They're calling for "demilitarization" of Germany, which in practice would mean abandonment of that country to Russian-trained East German police who actually constitute a Russian army.

But since such demilitarization is unlikely to happen, it's obvious that it would take real Soviet armies to dislodge the West from Germany. And that attempt certainly wouldn't be made in the foreseeable future unless Allied forces were tied up elsewhere.

The same reasoning applies to Tito's Yugoslavia. Everything indicates that Tito has enough military strength—barring an economic collapse—to withstand any onslaught by a combination of Soviet satellite armies from Bulgaria, Rumania, Hungary and Albania. It will take Russian power to crush him. And that power isn't likely to be used so long as there is strong prospect it will be met by heavy assistance to Tito from the free nations.

Here lies the importance of keeping Chinese participation in the Korean fighting a strictly limited action, if that is at all possible. For this way we may keep a reserve at hand for use in Europe or other critical trouble spots.

Naturally, if the Chinese Reds are bent upon all-out war, we shall have it. There is no way to avert it if Mao Tse-tung decides to pour in perhaps 300,000 troops in an effort to push us clear off the Korean peninsula.

But we should not accept this outlook as inevitable until it is thoroughly clear that it is really that. For the consequences of complete embroilment in Asia would be desperately grave for the whole free world.

Some slickers keep you in trim on rainy days—others trim you any old day.

Yeh, This Calls For A Different Strategy

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Recent elections repeat political cycle under Coolidge; Will Harry Truman, like Coolidge, bow out of White House?; Stuart Symington scores businessmen.

WASHINGTON—Politics runs in cycles. And the political cycle a quarter of a century ago has some interesting comparisons with that today. In fact, it's almost similar. A quarter of a century ago, in the election of 1926, Calvin Coolidge, supposedly supreme in the White House, almost lost control of Congress. He retained the Senate by exactly the same majority as Harry Truman today—one vote. Today Truman's margin there is 34.

Some interesting figures popped up in that surprise election of 1926. A young man from Maryland named Millard Tydings, son of a Susquehanna River boatman and hitherto unknown, was elected to the Senate. A quarter of a century later, Tydings, in another surprise election, bowed out. The man who defeated him, John Marshall Butler, was equally unknown.

Another interesting figure swept into the Senate in that 1926 surprise election was a relative newcomer from Kentucky named Alben Barkley. He defeated Republican Senator Richard P. Ernst, chairman of the Privileges and Elections Committee and considered a sure bet to win.

Another upstart Democrat who surprised the Senate in 1926 was Robert Wagner of New York, a German-born boy who rose to sponsor our most important social legislation. Wagner defeated a powerful Republican leader, Senator James Wadsworth, chairman of the Military Affairs Committee, who had the courage to come back to Congress in a reduced rank, as a member of the House, and this year retires from politics. This year also Senator Herbert Lehman was elected to fill the full term of the man he succeeded, Bob Wagner.

Also swept into office in that surprise election of 1926 was a young Democrat from Oklahoma, Elmer Thomas. This year Senator Thomas bowed out.

Coolidge Did Not 'Choose'
Another young Democrat who surprised and perturbed President Coolidge was Carl Hayden of Arizona, who defeated Ralph Cameron, a high-ranking Republican on the Appropriations Committee.

Even the chairman of the Republican National Committee, Senator William H. Butler of Massachusetts, the personal friend of Coolidge was defeated that year by a young Democrat named David I. Walsh. Butler had been appointed to the Senate, following the death of Henry Cabot Lodge. And 20 years later—1946—another Henry Cabot Lodge, grandson of the old senator, defeated Walsh, the man who defeated Butler. So goes the cycle of politics.

Coolidge, who like Truman, a former vice president, had entered the White House in 1923 through death, and—again like Truman—was easily reelected in 1924.

But the 1926 off-year election put a coalition of Democrats and Progressive Republicans in control of the Senate, just as a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats now will control under Truman. And in 1926 Coolidge decided that he did not "choose to run."

Wonder if President Truman, whose career has been strangely similar to Coolidge's, will choose likewise? Mrs. Truman very much wants him to.

Note—After Coolidge bowed out, the Republicans, under Herbert Hoover, were overwhelmingly elected in 1928 in the Al Smith campaign.

Have a Laugh

By BOYCE HOUSE
A bride, in tears, called her husband at his office and said, "Come home right away." "What's the matter?" he asked. She replied, "The electric refrigerator and the radio got out of order and I tried to fix them—and now the radio is covered with ice and the refrigerator is playing 'Good Night, Irene'."

It used to be that when a man from a certain state would meet a stranger, he'd say, "I'm from Arkansas; now, darn you, laugh."

And if you meet a man from that state now, don't exclaim in mock surprise, "From Arkansas! And got on shoes, too!" (I was born in the Wonder State myself.)

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
Team contests at bridge are often very instructive, since when a hand is played in two different ways we can see which method leads to the better result. In today's hand, for example, we can see how needless was the risk that one declarer took.

At both tables the North player preferred to open the bidding with one diamond instead of bidding the longer clubs. Each player thought he would have a chance to show the clubs later at a cheap level, whereas if he opened with one club he would later have to force the bidding uncomfortably high in diamonds. In bridge player's slang, the hand wasn't quite worth a "reverse."

At both tables the first trick was the same. West opened the king of hearts, dummy won with the ace, and East signaled with the ten. Here the two declarers parted company.

At the first table, the South player went after everything that wasn't nailed down. At trick two he cashed the ace of spades, and then he finessed the jack of trumps. West won with the queen of spades, cashed the queen of hearts, and then led the deuce of hearts for his partner to ruff.

South might still have escaped if East had guessed about his return. (A diamond return would have allowed declarer to get rid of his losing club.) But East didn't have to guess. West had led the lowest possible heart for the ruff, calling for a return in the lowest suit—clubs. The club return gave the defenders the setting trick.

At the other table the South player saw the risk of taking a trump finesse. As a matter of fact, there was some risk in leading trumps at all. Hence he led a low club from dummy at the second trick.

West took the ace of clubs, cashed the queen of hearts, and led a low heart. However, declarer ruffed with dummy's ace of trumps and later gave up a trump trick to West's queen. He lost only one trump, one heart, and a club, making his contract.

Estimates were made for something like a five-year plan. But the cost was found to be so high that the total never has been released. South Korean government estimates have put the total need at $2,000,000,000. Whatever the figure, constant effort has been made to get it down to manageable proportions.

South Korean requirements are fairly well known in some categories. The number of destroyed railway and highway bridges, for instance, and the cost of replacing some bombed-out factories. Almost 149,000 out of 150,000 looms were destroyed, and 3,900 out of 4,500 spindles.

Destruction of farm livestock can only be guessed at, says Dr. Edgar A. J. Johnson, acting chief of the Marshall Plan mission to Korea, who recently returned to Washington from Seoul. Another major uncertainty is the amount of loot taken from warehouses by the Communists. And requirements for North Korea still have to be surveyed.

At Lake Success, in order to make the figures look smaller, an effort was made to set up a budget for a shorter period of time. For the first 18 months, it has been thought that $350,000,000 might get the job started.

Since the U. S. Army and the Marshall Plan will spend at least $100,000,000 on Korean rehabilitation in the next few months, this sum was subtracted from the 18-month estimate to give a balance of $250,000,000 that the United Nations might be asked to contribute for the calendar year 1951 or slightly beyond.

Opposition to approving even this sum has come from two sources.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Russia, Not U. S., Should Pay For Reconstruction Of Korea

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Korean reconstruction aid is running into a nice foul-up in the United Nations. It is being discovered—apparently for the first time—that this job is going to cost a little money. And the glorious allies are shunning the bill like the plague.

What should happen here, is that the bill for all Korean relief and rehabilitation should be handed to Soviet Russia. They started this thing. Let them foot the bill, and let the United Nations assess the damages. They could never collect. But it would be a good counter-propaganda trick to have Ambassador Warren Austin get up someday at a UN meeting and present a detailed statement to Vishinsky & Malik.

Since diplomats are diplomats, however, this never will be done. Instead, the world now has the spectacle of the Russian representatives sitting in on committee and Economic and Social Council meetings where Korean recovery is being discussed, dotting 'i's' and crossing 't's' and shifting commas about in such manner that they later will be able to get out of paying one ragged ruble.

Uncle Sam Will Foot Bill
Official chatter around Washington is that the United States will be asked—or will volunteer—to pick up the check for about 70 per cent of whatever it will cost to put Korea back on its feet. It is the job of collecting the other 30 per cent that will cause the headaches.

First estimates on what Korean reconstruction would cost were put together by the Army general staff and the Marshall Plan organization in Korea. These figures were taken to Wake Island and given to President Truman by General MacArthur.

Estimates were made for something like a five-year plan. But the cost was found to be so high that the total never has been released. South Korean government estimates have put the total need at $2,000,000,000. Whatever the figure, constant effort has been made to get it down to manageable proportions.

HE CAME TO KILL by ADELINE McELFRESH

XXVIII
"MY boys found her," Sheriff Purdy hastened to explain, "at the old Dick Williams place over the ridge. Locked up, the 'house' is supposed to be. Windows boarded. Williams' gone to Miami to spend the winter with his daughter, like he does every year, so when Johnny saw smoke this mornin' . . ." His voice trailed off, caught again. "But she says she ain't seen Peter."

the sun would shine again at Thorne Hill. Would it belong to Pops now? No, of course not. Miss Maggie died before her lawyer, Devens, could come. Peter had seen to that. He and Jasper would inherit, share and share alike. Now, Jasper and Sondra would live in luxury. . . . But it had not been Jasper with whom Sondra had gone away. She had gone with Peter, even though he had abandoned her at the old Williams place. Left her, she had said, until he could go to town for a train and a bus ticket so they would not be seen leaving Thorne City together.

And yet Peter had hated Sondra enough to write that letter to Miss Maggie. . . . He must have hated her!

SHE stopped talking, looked straight at Mart Preston without seeing him. It wasn't—yes, it was possible, too! Gradually Mart's questioning face came into focus.

"Okay, Leena," he ordered gently. "Out with it."

"They hated each other, Mart, Sondra and Peter."

"So what?"

"So they wouldn't have gone away together. Why should Sondra leave Thorne Hill with a man she hated—when Jasper will have just as much money now as Peter?"

"Sondra doesn't exactly worship Jasper, or I miss my guess," Mart observed dryly.

"Maybe not. But Jasper is comfortable. Like an old shoe. Sondra could wipe her feet on him. She likes that, even if Thorne Hill is pretty dull. It gives her a sense of power—security she wouldn't want to lose. Sondra lived hard before she became Mrs. Jasper Thorne. Miss Maggie knew it. She didn't want a showgirl in the family. Bad for the prestige, you know."

"Just what are you trying to say?" Mart asked.

Leena took a deep breath. "Sondra killed Miss Maggie and Miss Aggie. And Peter is dead, too."

Secretary Of State Is TFWC Speaker

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Texas club women can play a major role in keeping the State of Texas from spending itself into bankruptcy, Secretary of State John Ben Shepperd declared here Thursday.

Shepperd, who is also secretary of the Texas Economy Commission, told delegates at the 53rd annual Texas Federation of Women's Clubs convention "unless the state cuts down on its spending, it'll be broke by January."

He quoted the state comptroller's prediction that no money will be left in the state general revenue fund by the time the next Legislature convenes in two months if spending continues at the present rate.

"Some thing had to be done to stop costs from mounting — and that's the job being tackled now by the 600-member Economy Commission."

The commission's main difficulty is in getting the facts to the ordinary citizen, Shepperd explained.

"That's where you club women enter the picture," he said.

Wednesday, the delegates "deplored" "blood-and-thunder" and "sassy" magazines.

They passed a resolution urging Texas women's clubs to use their influence to secure better magazines for public consumption "because at least three-fourths of the literature found in the types of magazines mentioned is undesirable, especially to younger readers."

Other resolutions opposed compulsory health insurance, backed cancer prevention campaigns and called for state ownership of the tidelands.

Without Painful Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief — help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Daddy Ringtail :: By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Phrenologist

A strange monkey had come to the Great Forest. He said his name was Phrenologist. Yes, and he was a very wonderful fellow, he said. He said it to everybody. Why, the animal-people of the Great Forest came from near and far to hear him tell how wonderful he was.

And why was Mr. Phrenologist so very wonderful? Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, was asking Daddy Ringtail about it. Daddy Ringtail said he didn't know, and so Mugwump said that maybe they ought to go ask Mr. Phrenologist about it.

"Oh my yes, and yes indeed," Daddy Ringtail agreed. "We'll go ask him right now just why he is so wonderful."

Down they slid to the ground, all the way from the top of the tree where the monkey house was. Away they went down the Elephant Path until they came to the crowd of animal-people who were standing around to listen to Mr. Phrenologist. He was telling them again how very wonderful he was. "Ohuh," said Mugwump, "but why are you so wonderful?" "Hah," said Mr. Phrenologist. "Hah." Do you really want me to tell you?" "Sure," said Mugwump, and Mr. Phrenologist told him. He explained that he knew all about the bumps that people have on their heads or foreheads. Why, those bumps tell a story of how much sense a somebody has, except that only a phrenologist can know what the story means.

"Do tell," said Mugwump. "I've already told it," said Mr. Phrenologist, and he said that Mugwump was a monkey boy with much, much sense indeed. Why Mugwump was as smart as anyone, Mr. Phrenologist was sure, because Mugwump had a big, big bump on his head. Well, Mugwump never told him that the bump was really from bumping the ground real hard with his head when he fell from the roof of the chicken house. Why tell the man? No sir, let Mr. Phrenologist stay happy with wonderful thoughts that he was wonderful with knowing all about the bumps that people have on their heads. Besides, he had said that Mugwump was smart, and I guess that Mugwump really was, don't you? Happy day!

SAN ANGELO —(P)— Sam Ellington, package store operator, was fined $800 and costs Wednesday on a plea of guilty to a charge of investigating illegal absentee balloting in a local option election.

Eight of 16 persons indicted by a 51st District Court grand jury on charges of illegal absentee balloting paid fines of $100 and costs.
The indictments were in connection with the October 10 local option election in Precinct 3, Tom Green County, which voted 224 to 108 to retain the legal sale of liquor. The action does not affect the outcome of the election.

LOS ANGELES —(P)— T. E. Swigart of the Shell Pipe Line Corporation, Houston, Texas, was reelected vice president in charge of transportation of the American Petroleum Institute here Wednesday.
Robert L. Minckler, president of General Petroleum Corporation, Los Angeles, urged the oil industry outside California to assume more of the burden of military demands for petroleum arising from the Korea war.

"California cannot be expected to supply indefinitely 66 per cent of the military requirements with only 16 per cent of the crude oil productions of the country, as we are now doing," he said.
Estimates reveal that 1,300,000-000 acres of unused land in the world can be developed for crop production.

WU Bandit—

Miss Poore was the only person on duty.
"I asked her if she could cash a money order," he continued.
"She asked me what kind I had."
"Then I showed her that gun and told her this kind."
"When she saw the gun she put all of the money she had in the drawer out on the counter. She asked me if I wanted the change, too, and I said I just wanted the bills."

Pressed Out Gun
He said he drove out the Odessa highway and about three miles from Midland, he tossed the gun out of the car and continued on to his home.
"I went out into the yard the next morning and picked up the paper," he continued.
"I read about the robbery and it scared me; she had described me too good."

He said he fled to Carlsbad, where he stayed until Wednesday night, when he gave himself up.
Officers said he had only about $9 left when he surrendered to officers.
He quickly waived extradition and Midland authorities were notified.
Ellington said charges would be filed against him Thursday afternoon.

INJURED ON JOB

Soto Weeks, Route 1, Midland, was treated Wednesday at Western Clinic-Hospital for a wrist laceration suffered when struck by a hatchet while working on the Highway 80 project west of the city.

GOP Solon—

created taxes and sale of government bonds, controls over credit and interest rates and reduction of non-essential government spending.
He conceded that wage and price controls may be needed if the inflationary trend continues.

Truman Has Power
Earlier this year and only after a bitter fight, Congress approved an economic controls law which gives President Truman full discretion as to when or whether wage and price controls should be imposed. The law requires that one cannot be imposed without the other.
"Price and wage controls should be imposed immediately—right now—and clear across the board," Martin declared. "It would not be honest or effective to try and do it on a piecemeal basis."

Bricker held that "the most inflationary thing now is government expenditures." He suggested that federal spending be trimmed sharply by letting the Marshall Plan for Western Europe die in 1952; by re-examining the foreign arms aid to backward areas programs and by curtailing government building programs.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL

Clara Blasco, 608 North Terrell Street, was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital Wednesday as a surgical patient.

CHILD ADMITTED

Joe Campbell, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell, 201 Circle Drive, was admitted Thursday to Midland Memorial Hospital for medical treatment.

Allied Forces—

Patrols found no traces of Reds within another mile and a half.
The U. S. 24th Division advanced up to a mile and a half and sent patrols as far as Yongsoong, 15 miles northeast of Pakchon.

The U. S. First Cavalry Division advanced against light opposition more than half a mile beyond Yongbyon, seven miles southeast of Yongsoong, and expanded its positions southward.

Red Build-Up Reported
The ROK Second Corps, whose positions have been denied in recent days by Chinese Communist counterattacks, recaptured 700 positions southwest of Yongbyon and moved back into Tokchon, 25 miles east of Yongbyon.

U. S. Marines of the Seventh Regiment, probing west of the great Changin Reservoir, bumped into a Communist force of undetermined size. Two Marine companies skirmished with the Red outposts. Then the Marines' 105 mm. artillery let loose.

An unconfirmed report by a prisoner said Chinese Communists were building up a big force in the mountains west of the reservoir. The entire Chinese 42nd Army may be in the area. The 42nd consists of the decimated 124th Division, the 125th and 126th.

Father to the northeast the two-pronged advance of the U. S. 7th Infantry Division carried these Winter-clad troops up the east shore of Puljon Reservoir and along the twisting mountain road to bomb-raided Kapsan.

Short, Sharp Fight
It was the right wing of the 7th that fought its way through Red artillery, tank and mortar fire. The 17th Regiment consolidated its positions before driving into and through the Reds.

Communists were concentrating for a stand at Kapsan. On the left flank of the 7th's Division's advance, the 31st Regiment eliminated 200 Communists in a short, sharp fight.

The ROK Capital Division on the far northeast coast beat off a new Korean Red counterattack at noon Thursday—the most recent in a continuing series of thrusts by the Reds. ROK forces then charged forward two miles on the northern flank of the Orancheon front.

Earlier, North Korean attacks included an amphibious landing by a battalion of Red Marine cadets behind ROK lines. This was broken up with the aid of the big guns of the U. S. cruiser Rochester and blasting rockets and machine guns of American Marine and Naval planes.

Bad weather curtailed round-the-clock air operations. But the Fifth Air Force did get through to blast a triangle of key towns back of the northwest front.

Hospital Head Is Speaker At Midland Rotary Club Meet

Richard Harrell, administrator of the Midland Memorial Hospital, told Midland Rotarians at their Thursday noon meeting in Hotel Scharbauer that the hospital now is in a position to take care of any type of illness and that Midland rapidly is becoming the medical center of a wide area.

The hospital administrator was the principal speaker at the club's regular meeting. He was introduced by Al Vineyard, program chairman. President James N. Allison presided at the session.

Harrell described the hospital plant, medical staff, personnel and services, and said Midlanders should be proud of the institution, which is one of the finest in Texas. He said the 23 members of the medical staff specializes in all fields. The speaker told of the recent establishment of a cancer clinic at Midland Memorial and of the proposed establishment of heart and sick child clinics.

Room Rates
In discussing reduced room rates, Harrell said one of the best ways to fight off socialism is to provide hospital and medical services within the cost reach of all citizens.

"Midland Memorial today has more patients (48 adults and eight babies) than on any other one day since it opened last July," he said. Eugene W. Vanderpool and Dr. Fred W. Gaarde were elected to membership in the club, and James Monk was introduced as a new member by James Mims.

The club members adopted a new constitution and by-laws and selected "The Rotary Question Mark" as the name of their weekly publication.

Lion Band Plays At TFWC Parley

PORT WORTH—The Midland Lions Club International Band provided the entertainment Thursday for a meeting of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in the Blackstone Hotel here.

Delbert Downing, manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, paid tribute to another Midlander, Mrs. J. Howard Hodge, president of the TFWC, in an address, "Women at the Community Level."

The band played at the convention's Western breakfast.

ADMITTED FOR SURGERY

Mrs. N. S. Terry, 1012 North Colorado Street, was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital Wednesday for surgery.

Wife Of Insurance Executive Missing In Fishing Accident

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—Coast Guard planes sighted an empty rowboat tossing on the waves off Seabrook Beach Tuesday as sea and shore searches were pressed for the wife of an insurance company executive and an escort.

No sign was found of Mrs. Frederick H. Ecker, 48-year-old wife of the Metropolitan Insurance Company's board chairman, or James Herd of Shelbyville, Tenn., and New York. They were thrown into the ocean when their fishing boat capsized Wednesday. Two companions were saved.

"It looks like they're goners," said Charles County Police Lt. Silas Welch. Welch said he was familiar with every foot of the Seabrook Island Strand, 25 miles south of Charleston. "When they go off like that, you can look for them to wash 30 to 35 miles down the coast."

Two other members of the fishing party, identified as J. Rogers and a Mr. Morris, a caretaker at Seabrook Beach, were picked up by a shrimp trawler. Rogers was taken to a Charleston home and later moved to a hospital.

Services Conducted For Mrs. Anna Walls

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Anna Marie Walls who died in a Midland hospital, Tuesday after a short illness.

The services were held in the Newline W. Ellis Chapel with the Rev. Lewis O. Waterstreet officiating. Interment was in Fairview cemetery.

A native of Kansas and a Midland resident for the last 15 years, she is survived by her husband, W. W. Walls, two sons and three daughters.

Condition Of Hoey Reported Improved

William T. Hoey, 49-year-old Midland oil man, was reported "considerably better" Thursday in a Big Spring hospital where he is recovering from automobile crash injuries.

Hospital attendants said he was resting "much better" and that there have been no complications. Hoey suffered the loss of an eye, fracture of both ankles and chest injuries Sunday in an automobile accident near Big Spring.

Hit-Skip Pattern

The same "hit-skip" pattern had prevailed Wednesday.
Union officials in Fort Worth and Dallas said they had started work on promised "lockout" charges against Southwestern Bell. They said the charges might be shaped by the weekend.

Pickets returned to Austin Wednesday after a two-day layoff, but in Wichita Falls the pickets withdrew about 8 p.m. after making their appearance earlier in the day. Four Wichita Falls pickets—sent from Fort Worth strike headquarters—split up along the way to march before exchanges in Henrietta and Bowie Wednesday. They told Job Seward Wayne Whitehead in Wichita Falls that two citizens in each of those towns advised them to move along. Two Bowie citizens, the pickets said, trailed them by car part way to Wichita Falls.

How 'Lockout' Works

T. C. Davenport, chairman of the Communication Workers of America in Fort Worth and area strike director, said the "lockout" works like this, for example: "If I go to work at 7 o'clock and find a picket line which I refuse to cross, and then if the pickets leave at 9 o'clock and I attempt to go to work and the company tells me I can't, well that's a lockout."

"There is no lockout," Wray D. Brown, Bell's general manager in Fort Worth, said. "The telephone company schedules certain tours or hours for employees to work and when an employe fails to report at the assigned hour we have in many cases been forced to fill the position in order to render service to the public."

Southwestern Bell workers are not on strike, but they have been respecting Western Electric picket lines.

Winds, Cold, Snow Buffet North, Midwest

By The Associated Press
There was a variety of weather over the nation Thursday, with the northeast quarter of the country getting the worst of the season's elements.

Strong winds, cold air and snow hit the middle part of the nation. A storm centered in Northern Wisconsin and caused windy weather over wide areas of the Midwest. Snow fell in the upper-Mississippi Valley. Duluth, Minn., reported a three-inch fall. Temperatures dropped below freezing and hit a low of eight above zero at Dickinson, N. D.

We Ask That "Fares" Play Fair

Judge Cunningham was telling about a taxi ride he took over to the County Seat last week. The cab was all littered with cigarette butts, plus candy and gum wrappers. This annoyed the Judge and he spoke to the driver about it.
To his surprise the cabman answered right back. "Don't blame me," he said "Fast as I clear this taxi out, the fares just mess it up again. I like a clean cab as well as anybody, but a man has to have some co-operation!"
Judge figures the fellow was in the right, and maybe we ought to do a little campaigning with the public. I agree with him—that's why I'm writing this article.

From where I sit, it's important for us to remember the fellow who's going to get in the cab after we leave it. Because he pays the same as we do, he's got the same right to a clean, comfortable ride—just as he has the same right to enjoy the beverage of his choice (be it coffee, beer, lemonade, or what have you).

AT PENNEY'S

A Year of Progress

The need of additional facilities for installment financing in the Lubbock trade territory has been recognized. The unprecedented growth in both population and development has made the fixed policies of present institutions inadequate to serve the growing requirements of an industrious people.

Like all meritorious financial ventures, we have been faced with a number of vexing problems, both inside and outside our organization. But, with the successful solution of each problem, we have grown in strength and stature, and public confidence in our venture has mounted. Today, Western Acceptance Corporation is taking its place as a major finance institution in the Southwest. Its future is limited only by the future of the great Southwest itself.

We, the management of Western Acceptance Corporation, are especially grateful to our Board of Directors and the Stockholders. Our tremendous growth in public confidence and financial strength has been possible only through the wisdom and experience of these Directors, and the whole-hearted cooperation of the vast majority of our Stockholders.

In the future, as in the past, frankness and honesty will characterize the entire operation of this Public Service Institution.

Southwest Elevens Taper Off For Tilt Scheduled Saturday

By The Associated Press
The University of Texas football team whipped through a rough scrimmage Wednesday, but most other Southwest Conference schools were content to skip the rough contact work.

Just had to do it, said Texas Coach Blair Cherry of the long scrimmage. He said he and his staff had to find out how the Texas offense would work against the maze of defense Texas Christian University is expected to throw up Saturday.

Texas Christian, meanwhile, was worried about ace Quarterback Gilbert Bartosh, nursing an injured knee. The knee "popped" out Tuesday but Wednesday he was moving around and commented "Maybe it popped back as it should be."

Pro coaches don't share his optimism. They think he might not be able to play more than half the game against Texas.

Mustangs Recover
Southern Methodist expects to have Tackles Neal Franklin and Hal Quinn and Backs Val Joe Walker and Gene Roberts on hand for the game with Arkansas.

Arkansas Coach Otis Douglas concentrated his practice Wednesday on defense.

Rice, drilling for A&M, was cheered by the prospect Backs Sonny Wyatt and George Glauser would be in good physical shape. The Owls went through a long dummy scrimmage Wednesday.

Texas A&M worked on a defense to use against Rice's T formation. Baylor, idle this week, skipped through a lengthy drill.

Baseball Biggies Gather

CINNATI (AP)—Baseball's top brass got together Thursday to decide who gets the million dollars, and to boost some deserving talent from the minors to the majors.

The million dollars really isn't a million, but is only a pop fly off that figure. It is the $975,000 derived from the radio and television rights at the 1950 World Series—and the odds are about 10 to one it will go into the player pension fund.

Attracting the heaviest interest around the hotel lobbies, which are densely populated with big league managers, general managers, presidents, scouts and farm directors, was the annual draft.

A year ago the majors picked 21 minor leaguers at a cost of $192,500. This year 5,868 boys in the bushes are on the block, including 238 listed as "bonus" players.

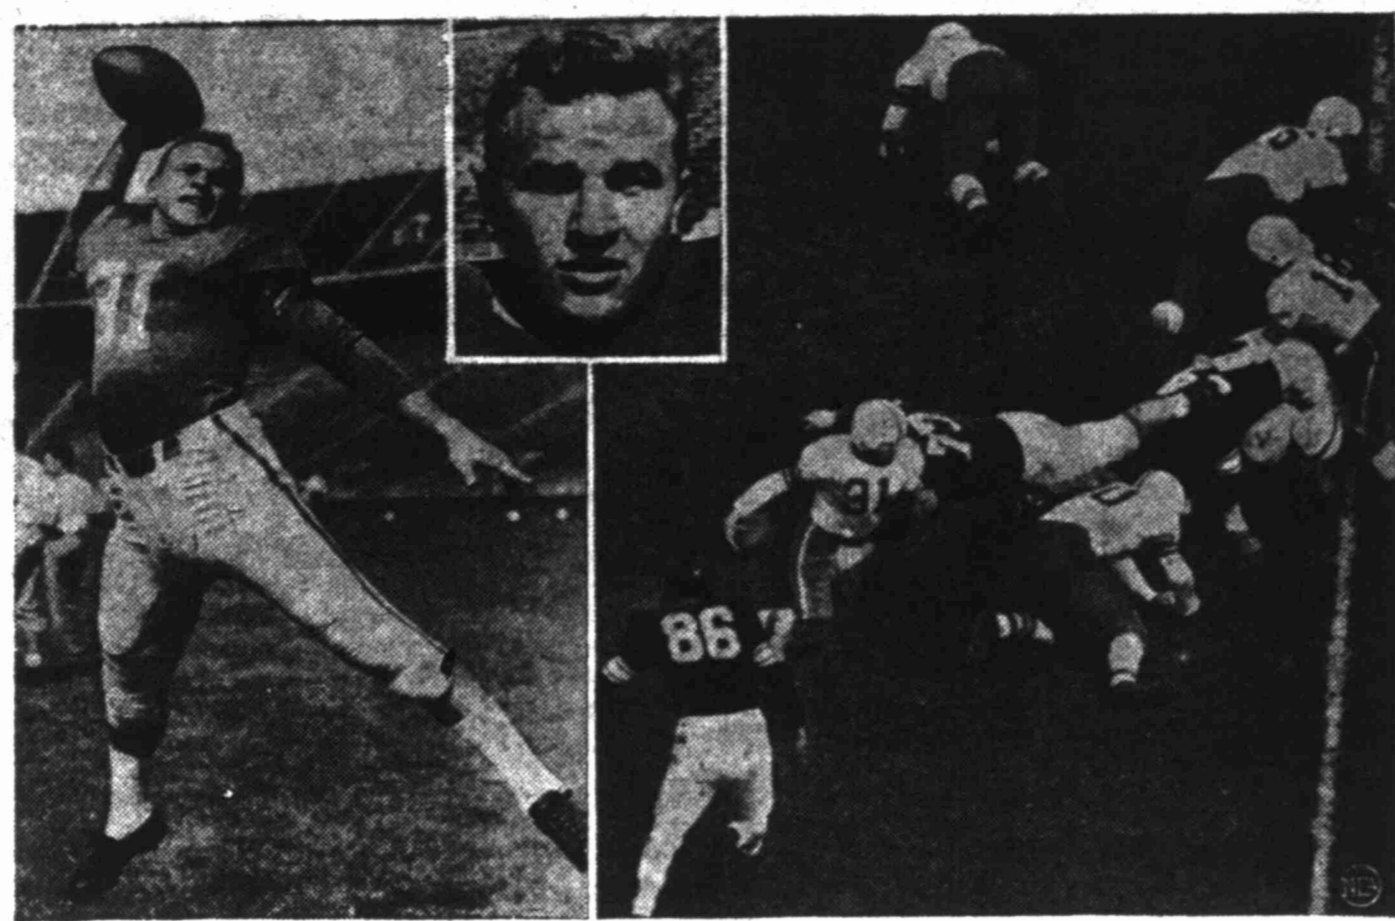

Meyer Still With Pirates As Rickey Departs For Meet

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Branch Rickey, Billy Meyer and the Pittsburgh Pirates still are a big and, at least temporarily, happy family Thursday.

Ever since Rickey—former general manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers—was named executive vice president of the Pirates recently—the rumors have been flying that Meyer was out as Pittsburgh manager. The Pirates finished in last place this year.

The hot stove league experts felt Rickey would dispose of Meyer's future one way or another Wednesday before leaving to attend the minor league draft meeting at Cincinnati.

Rickey and Meyer had a private confab and Meyer later announced "I'm still in the driver's seat" but added "I really don't know for how long."

MANHOLE—Vic Janowicz threads a needle passing and Ohio State's do-everything-better-than-any-one-else tailback runs through holes in Big Ten lines wide enough for a tank.

Birdie-Happy Bauers Beaten At Big Lake; Still Are Beauतेous

BIG LAKE—The Big Lake Golf Association's sand greens broke the birdie-happy Bauer sisters here Wednesday as the duo of Aubrey Edwards and Tommy Hayes downed them 3 and 2.

Playing best ball match, it was strictly get-a-birdie, win-a-hole play all the way around with a par only good for a tie.

Around the 68-par course, Marlene came in with a 74 and Alice was one stroke behind. Hayes was low for the quartet with his three-over 71, two strokes better than Edwards.

The Bauers were playing another exhibition match at the San Angelo Country Club Sunday.

Claassen, Like Hoople, Picks Illinois Over Buc

NEW YORK (AP)—Illinois is the pick here to defeat Ohio State Saturday in the nation's No. 1 football game.

The betting gentry figures the Buckeyes, defending Big Ten champions and No. 1 team in the recent Associated Press poll, as a touchdown the better. But the Illinois are playing at home, their backfield is in fair shape for the first time in weeks and there is a slight matter of a Rose Bowl trip at stake.

That should wipe out Ohio State's slight, theoretical advantage.

However, don't use the rent money to back these selections too far. There were 15 incorrect ones in the 70 decisions posted last week. That's an average of 78%.

Here are the major picks this week:

Missouri at Oklahoma: There was a time when this annual battle was the Midland's best but not this year with Missouri's meager squad depleted by injuries, Oklahoma.

Army over Stanford: The odds makers say the Cadets will win by 19 points. That margin is too great even if Coach Earl Blaik has shifted Al Pollard to the No. 1 backfield.

San Francisco at California: Even if it is a non-conference game, the Golden Bears aren't going to let their victory string die off in this one, California.

North Dakota at Kentucky: It will be a nice trip for the North Dakotans but the ending won't be pleasant, Kentucky.

Texas at Texas Christian: The TCU line doesn't appear strong enough to stop Fullback Byron Townsend, Texas.

Princeton at Yale: Yale's strong point is its defense. Princeton has both an offense and a defense, Princeton.

Mississippi at Tennessee: The Rebels aren't pushovers and their John Dettley is one of the country's better fullbacks, but Tennessee has the better balance, Tennessee.

Michigan State at Michigan State at Pittsburgh: Sonny Grandelius picked up 90 yards in his first eight games. That's 13 more than the combined backfields of the opponents, Pittsburgh has nothing that good, Michigan State.

Wisconsin at Penn: The Big Ten Badgers were at their peak last Saturday while Penn loafed, Pennsylvania.

Notre Dame at Iowa: If the Hawkeyes can quit fumbling they can make it a clean sweep for the Big Ten over Notre Dame this season. But it is likely they won't, Notre Dame.

Minnesota over Purdue: Minnesota has scored only twice in its last five games but the Gophers will go all out here in Coach Bernie Bierman's Minneapolis swan song, Minnesota.

North Carolina at South Carolina: Just what did those two governors say to each other? North Carolina.

Arkansas at Southern Methodist: The Mustangs' losing ways are over, Southern Methodist.

Carver-Lubbock To Vie Here Thursday

The Carver Hornets play host to the Lubbock Panthers of Lubbock at 8 p.m. Thursday in Memorial Stadium. The favored Panthers have suffered but one loss in seven starts. Carver has four wins, three losses. Lubbock is rated as the number two team in the conference, while Carver is the third rated eleven.

Both teams have beaten Odessa. Carver turned the trick by 20 to 6 in a non-conference clash, and 13-0 in a district tilt. Lubbock walloped Odessa 42-0.

Amarillo, the league-leader, defeated Carver 13-0, Dunbar held Amarillo to a 7-0 margin.

Carver will run from the "T" formation. Dunbar will mix some single wing plays in with its "T" stuff.

Deer Season Opens In 'Hill Country'

The deer season in the Hill Country opened Thursday and Midland had its quota of hunters in the vanguard out to get the white tail quota.

Masson reported many hunters including red-capped men from Midland, Houston, Austin, Big Spring and many other cities.

The season for white tails lasts through December 31.

Swarms of hunters were reported at Brady, Llano, Kerrville, Fredericksburg, and other Hill Country centers.

The deer crop is reported in good condition. The turkey crop is not good, observers say.

Bufs Vie For Title

STANTON—Coach Leo Field's unbeaten Stanton Buffs tangle with the Hermleigh Cardinals at 8 p.m. Friday on Buff field, with the championship of District 6-B at stake.

The Buffs have swept through nine opponents without a loss. Hermleigh got off to a bad start, dropping its first three games to Trent, New Deal and Rochester. But the Cardinals came back to win six in a row, and will go into the game unbeaten in conference play. Thus the winner will be undisputed king of the district for the 1950 season.

A large crowd is expected to be on hand for the important contest. It is Homecoming Week for Stanton High School, and many old grads and ex-students are expected to be present for the tilt. The Stanton band and pep-squad will give a colorful halftime show.

Both the Cardinals and the Buffs expect to be at full strength for the clash. Coach Leo Fields announced the following lineup as the probable starters for the Buffs:

- ENDS—Bobby McClain (165) and Marshall Huffman (147).
- TACKLES—Bob Lindley (218) and Bill Overby (160).
- GUARDS—Lee Graves (146) and Fred Church (155).
- CENTER—James Tunnell (178).
- QUARTERBACK—Kenneth Hinson (148).
- HALFBACKS—Earl Koonce (148) and Earl Koonce (155).
- FULLBACK—Red Gibson (160).
- In sweeping over nine foes, the Buffs have compiled an impressive record, scoring 272 points and holding the combined opposition to a total of 64 points. The complete Stanton record:
- Stanton 44, Big Spring "B" 12.
- Stanton 20, Monument, N. M. 0.
- Stanton 33, Coahoma 0.
- Stanton 37, Bronie 13.
- Stanton 40, Loraine 13.
- Stanton 26, Hobbs (Texas) 0.
- Stanton 40, Monahans "B" 6.
- Stanton 19, Grandfalls 14.
- Stanton 13, Robert Lee 6.

Bulldogs Defense Westerner Plays

Relaxed and in a good frame of mind, Midland's Bulldogs charged through long and rugged drills Wednesday afternoon, hoping to rebound Friday against the favored Lubbock Westerners. The game will be played in Texas Tech's Jones Stadium. A crowd of 17,000 plus is expected to be on hand at the 2:30 p.m. kickoff.

Big John Kimbrough Will Come For Look At Rampagin' Robert

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—John Kimbrough, Texas A&M's greatest football player—at least until now, will be here Saturday to watch the fellow man say will succeed him in the annals of Aggieland.

Jarrin John, All-America in 1939 and 1940 and the model all Aggies seek to emulate, will be looking over one Bob Smith, the man who has led A&M from oblivion into the bright light.

Smith, who already has gained more yards with the ball than any back in Southwest Conference membership, will be rolling against Rice in the next-to-last game of the season, barring a bowl bid.

Rapid Robert, Bruisin' Bob, Rampagin' Robert—call him what you may—he's the mightiest fullback in the land, in the opinion of football fandom of the great Southwest.

In National Eye
His performance last week against Southern Methodist brought him into the national eye but Smith has been a great player ever since he put on the moleskins at A&M.

Against Southern Methodist Smith romped to 297 yards in 29 carries. He ran 74 yards for one touchdown and 72 for another. The last one was what beat Southern Methodist 25-20.

For the season Smith has gained 1,124 yards in 131 tries. And the tougher the opposition the better he has gone. For instance, he made 111 against Oklahoma. He roamed for 101 against Baylor although playing only part of the game. He eluded Texas Christian for 146, Arkansas for 133, Texas Tech for 147, VMI for 115.

Last season Smith gained 694 yards in 10 games. He already has 430 yards more in eight games. Last season he was on a team that couldn't lift its own weight—it won only one game and scored just 93 points. Smith made 48 of them.

In 1937, the only season when a base on balls was recorded as a base hit, J. F. O'Neill had a batting average of .492.

Highway Bids Total $5,880,000 In Two Days

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Highway Department completed a two-day tabulation of low bids Wednesday, the final 18 projects totaling $2,922,964.

This brought the total of low bids for 38 road jobs to $5,880,646.

The Chicago Cardinals pro football team was organized in 1899 as the Morgan Athletic Club.

Clandestine Affair Of Florida Pair Ends In Bedroom Slaying

PALATKA, FLA.—(P)—Two shotgun blasts ended the clandestine romance of Jacksonville Safety Commissioner R. D. Sutton and the wife of a prominent trucking firm head.

The husband, J. P. McRae, 34, had learned of the trust and was waiting near Sutton's well-furnished but lonely lakeside cabin 25 miles from here.

He caught the two in bed in a nude embrace Wednesday morning, fired twice at close range, staggered from the cabin and collapsed of a heart attack.

Mrs. McRae's head was blown off. Sutton's was almost so. She was 33; Sutton 39.

Blood splashed the walls and ceiling of the small room in the rear of the cabin situated under towering, moss-hung oaks at the end of a winding, sandy road.

No Charge Filed
All these details were told to a coroner's jury by a brother—A. G. McRae—and two friends whom the husband telephoned Wednesday morning to ask if they would meet him there to take photographs of the lovers so he could use them as evidence.

But the photographs were not taken. The shooting came first. McRae was jailed, then taken to Glendale Hospital here under guard. His condition was reported as fair. No charge was placed against him.

Sutton was married and had a son, Charles. Mrs. Sutton was reported visiting somewhere in the West.

Mrs. McRae left her Jacksonville home early Wednesday, telling friends she was going to a meeting of the P-TA, in which she had taken an active part. Because of her son, Joel, 16, she also had been active in the Patrol Boys Mothers' Association.

World War II Vet
Sutton had been a practicing lawyer in Jacksonville since his graduation from the University of Florida in 1936. After service in World War II, which he left with the rank of lieutenant colonel, he was elected commissioner in charge of public safety.

Sheriff W. J. Revels said McRae used an automatic shotgun and that the first blast apparently killed both Sutton and Mrs. McRae. The sheriff said he believed the second shot was aimed at Mrs. McRae alone and that it was the one that tore her head from her body.

Walter McRae, Jr., of Jacksonville, an auto agency official, said his uncle had known of the affair for some time and that he was seeking evidence for a divorce.

Sheriff's Deputy Perry Mills said McRae had made no statement.

Electric Iron Starts, Then Puts Out Blaze

WASHINGTON—(P)—An electric iron which someone forgot to turn off started and put out a fire in an apartment house here Wednesday.

Firemen who answered an alarm said they found that the iron burned through the ironing board, then through the floor, where it melted a lead water pipe.

By the time firemen arrived, the spray of water from the melted pipe had extinguished the smoldering fire. Damage was slight.

Treatment For Cystitis Should Begin As Early As Possible

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

The most common symptoms of inflammation of the urinary bladder, which is known medically as cystitis, are pain, the presence of pus in the urine, and frequent urination.

Patients afflicted with this condition often have chills and fever. They may lose weight and suffer from sleeplessness. Examination of the urine often will show blood in addition to the pus.

Acute cystitis is the kind which begins suddenly. It usually starts near the base of the bladder but is likely to spread to the other parts of the lining membrane. The wall of the bladder becomes inflamed and is swollen and bright red in color.

Regardless of whether it is caused by germs or by chemicals, the best treatment for acute cystitis is to try to find the cause and treat or remove it.

Chronic cystitis, a condition in which there is long-lasting inflammation of the wall of the bladder with perhaps pain at intervals and pus either constantly or off and on, is another frequent problem. Of course, this condition can result from acute cystitis also.

In such cases expert study not only of the bladder itself, but of the surrounding tissues, including the kidney, must be carried out. One important study can be made by using an instrument with lights and mirrors called a cystoscope. This can be passed directly into the bladder so that the physician can look at the bladder wall.

By one means or another it usually is possible to identify the cause and in many cases to remove it. As a rule cystitis or inflammation of the bladder must be looked upon as a symptom of something wrong elsewhere rather than as a disease in itself.

When such symptoms as those mentioned appear they should not be neglected, since they frequently mean that some serious condition is present which should be promptly diagnosed and treated. With modern methods and newer treatment, the majority can be brought swiftly under control.

Steps Taken For Organization Of Midland ABC Club

First steps were taken here Wednesday night for the organization of a Midland chapter of the National Association of American Business Clubs.

R. M. Minton, Jr., was named temporary chairman of the group here as 25 men, including delegations from Big Spring and Odessa, met in Hotel Scharbauer.

A second meeting was called for November 28 at the same place. Presiding at the session was Russell Glenn, district governor of ABC, while Duffy McKeel, president of the Odessa chapter, explained the aims and the national program of the organization.

National Aim Stated
The ABC's major national project, he said, is working with persons afflicted with spastic paralysis. A motion picture was presented in connection with the problem.

Gene Thomas and Guy Reeder headed the delegation of Big Spring members and explained the work that had been done by the club there in the 15 years it has been in existence.

All men interested in joining the club, which will hold weekly meetings, are invited to attend the next dinner meeting.

More Meat Next Year, But More Cash, Too; Any Way You Slice It, Prices Go Higher

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

CHICAGO—No matter how you slice it, the price of meat is going to be higher in 1961.

I've spent a week in Chicago interviewing key men in the meat and feed grain business. Among them were John Holmes, president of Swift & Company; Richard F. Uhlmann, president of Uhlmann Grain Company and last year's president of the Chicago Board of Trade; Wesley Hardenbergh, head of the American Meat Institute, composed of about 800 meat packers; Harry A. Bullis, board chairman of General Mills, producers of animal feeds as well as flour and cereals and many noted livestock and grain economists.

Their opinions, boiled down to an undiluted alphabet soup John an

Mary Public and all the kids can spell out, add up to this:

1. More meat will be produced in 1961, enough for 150 pounds per person instead of the 146 pounds this year.

2. Higher prices, despite seasonal price fluctuations.

3. Because mobilization will increase employment and business activity, putting about 10 per cent more money, after taxes, in the consumer's pocket to buy the expected four to five per cent increase in the amount of meat at the butcher shops.

4. And that is the way you spell inflation.

More than a fourth of the average family's food dollar goes for meat. The more conservative men I talked with in Chicago foresee a five per cent boost in the price of that meat. Others, equally well-informed, say

Preview of 1961: The butchers will have more meat to slice, but no matter how they slice it, the price tag will be higher.

they won't be surprised if the price jumps 18 per cent, at least on some cuts.

But they all insist that direct controls by the government, except in the event of an all-out war, would be disastrous.

Paul C. Smith, a director and vice president in charge of beef, lamb and veal operations of Swift & Company, said: "You may legally be able to control prices for a very brief time, but the only long time effective control is to maintain a balance between supplies available for consumption and the money people are willing to spend for these supplies."

An American Meat Institute spokesman pointed out that with the prospect of a long cold war ahead of us—for maybe as much as 30 years—the confidence of cattle, hog and sheep producers and cattle feeders in the future levels of prices is vitally important.

"If these men should be discouraged by price ceilings they might withdraw from production," he warned. "That would be dangerous at a time when the strength of our national economy depends on more and more production. And you mustn't overlook the fact that it takes considerable time to re-establish livestock and meat output."

Leaders in wheat and corn production take a similar attitude, saying that any such discouragement of cattle producers would act directly to limit future production of the feed grains.

In general, the Chicago answer to rising meat prices is indirect controls and greater production. The thought of direct or price controls fills them with unconcealed horror.

Unanimously they insist that they will back the government in imposing even stiffer taxes, tightening credit controls further and in a drive to divert the consumer's excess dollars into government bonds.

However, Wesley Hardenbergh, American Meat Institute's president, believes the American consumer will use patriotic self-restraint.

"I don't think our expendable income will be so far above production as some tell you," he said. "Aggression in Korea and its cost in lives and dollars and the threat of an all-out war have sobered us. Americans will be willing to restrict their buying when they realize that inflation can weaken our country in the face of communistic threats. As a result, not a 10 per cent increase in dollars for buying things, but only a five per cent increase is what I foresee. And that five per cent is pretty much in line with the expected four to five per cent increase in meat production," he added.

Money is one of the most easily digested of foods.

There's Money in Honey For Bee-Boys

BELOGRADE — (P) — There's money in honey these days. And Yugoslavia is capitalizing on it for its export trade. High up in Mountainous Slovenia, near the towering peaks of Triglav, Yugoslavia developed—even before World War II—a bee, famed for its production.

Before the war, most of the output was kept at home. Now the bees themselves are being sold abroad to sweeten up Yugoslavia's belt-tightening budget. The bee-boys—those who tend the hives and collect the honey with scarcely a sting—have formed a cooperative with some 7,500 members.

Saskatchewan Looks For 'Hopper Plague'

REGINA — (P) — Saskatchewan farmers have been warned that 1961 may be a bad grasshopper year. The Provincial Department of Agriculture says infestation by the stubble grasshopper, voracious enemy of grain crops, probably will be worse than in the last two seasons.

The Dominion Entomological Laboratory at Saskatoon says an extensive anti-grasshopper campaign will be required in a large part of the province.

CALF THAT CAME TO DINNER
HARDIN, ILL. — (P) — Farmer Lou Godar has a calf that won't let go of mama cow's apron strings. Time came to wean the calf but it found its way back—even though it was taken three miles away.

MILK IMPORTANT
Children who drink less than four cups of milk a day often fail to have enough calcium for the normal development of their bones and teeth; and enough vitamin A, riboflavin and other B-vitamins for healthy tissue, good digestion and sound nerves.

IRON AND VITAMINS

Liver, heart, and kidney have high value as food because they supply us with iron and vitamins. The mother of a family is wise if she serves one of these foods at least once every week.

LOBSTER SALAD POPULAR

For a bridge luncheon lobster salad is always popular. Use it frozen or canned form and accompany the salad with potato chips. Serve Boston cream cake with a chocolate frosting for dessert.

BRASIED BEEF HASH

Dear Santa-

Dear Santa Claus:
"My dog left home because I didn't love him and play with him enough. But I will save two cans of dog food for him in case he wants to come back home—because if he does, I don't want him to be hungry."
"I wasn't sweet to him, and I wish you would tell him I want him to come home. I sure would like to have a television set and a sewing machine if you can manage it."
"Thank you, Santa Claus, I love you."
—Susan Koonce

Besides being extremely nutritive, organ meats such as liver, kidney, and heart are economical. Liver contains five times as much iron as muscle meat, and kidney and heart twice as much. All these meats are quickly and easily prepared.

cream. That's something the family and guests can be thankful for. Undiluted evaporated milk, a popular dairy food, gives the filling a creamy, velvety texture as well as rich flavor.

Pumpkin Pie and Ice Cream (10-inch pie, serves 6-8)

One quart vanilla ice cream (bulk), 2 eggs, 1/3 cup molasses, 1 large can evaporated milk (1 2/3 cups), 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon ginger, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups canned or sieved pumpkin.

Place ice cream in freezing compartment of refrigerator with controls set at freezing until ready to serve. Beat eggs slightly; add molasses and milk. Add all dry ingredients to pumpkin. Blend egg mixture with pumpkin mixture thoroughly. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 325 degrees F. and bake 40 minutes longer. Allow to cool thoroughly. Just before serving, place large scoop of ice cream on each portion.

Flaky Pie Crust

One box packaged pie crust mix, 2 tablespoons butter. Pour contents of package into bowl. Add amount of water required and mix until dough forms into a ball. Roll out on lightly floured board. Place dot of butter (1 tablespoon) on surface of dough. Fold dough in half, then in quarters and re-roll. Place remaining butter on surface of dough, fold and re-roll again. Place in 10-inch pie plate. Flute edges.

DRESS UP POTATOES

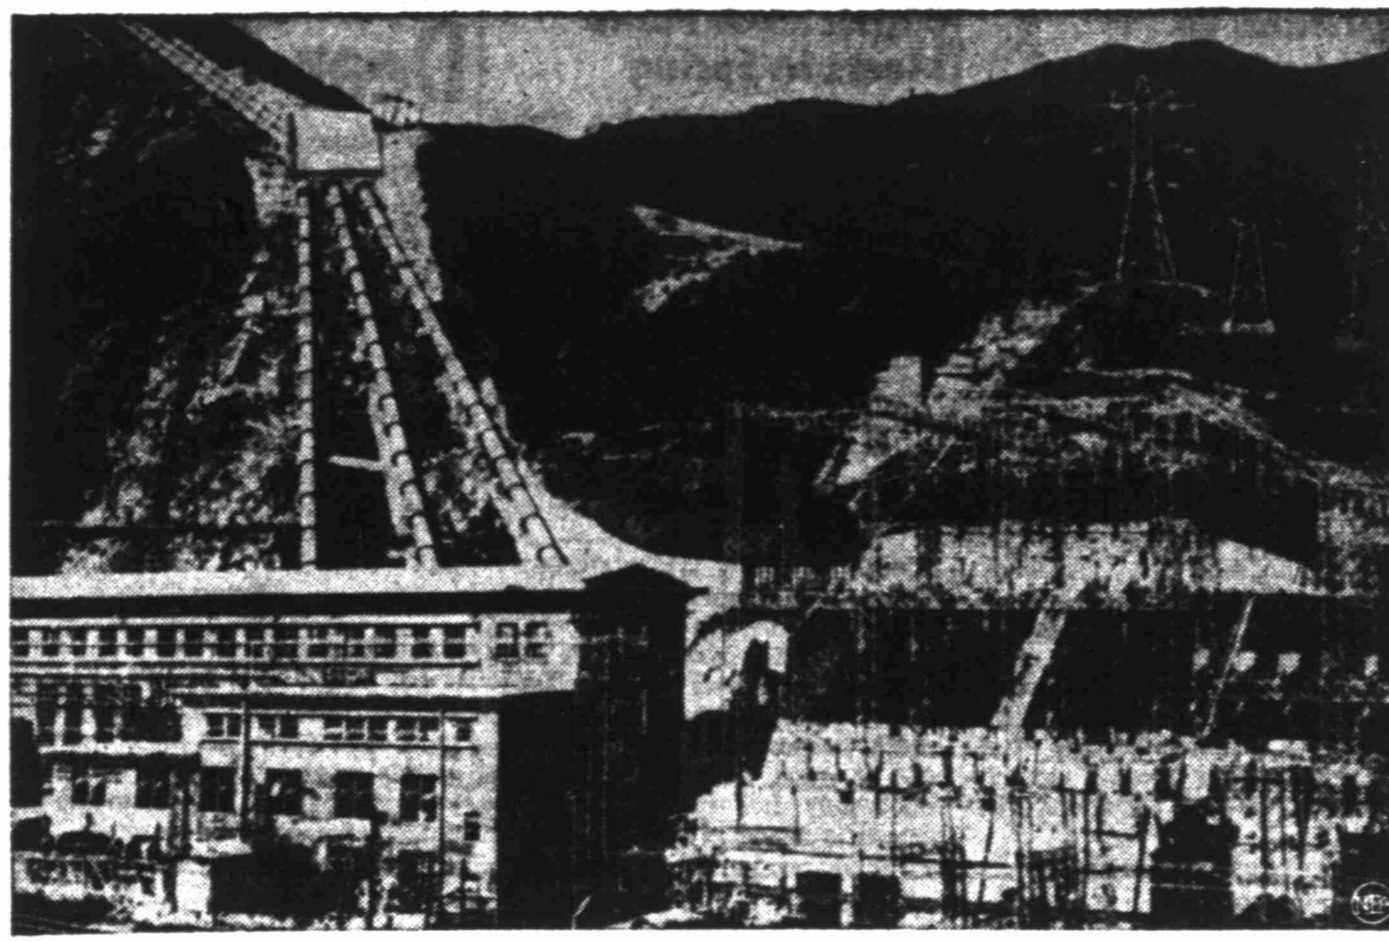

Dress up mashed potatoes with light cream, lots of butter or margarine, and a little dried crumbled rosemary. Heat the butter or margarine with the rosemary, then set in a warm place to steep for half an hour. Strain out rosemary before adding the herb-flavored fat to the potatoes.

TARGET OF UN DRIVE IN KOREA—This is the number one generating station of the huge Chosin Dam at Chosin Reservoir in North Korea, an electrical installation that supplies power to most of North Korea. It was in the area of this power plant and similar ones along the Yalu River that Chinese Communists rushed after their entry into the Korean war. Much of Manchuria's power also comes from these huge North Korean installations.

REGULAR REGIMEN HELPS

Persons who want to gain weight should be on a regular regimen. They should eat at regular hours, have enough rest and recreation and some mild outdoor activity. Mealtimes should be as relaxed as possible, with no worrisome subjects brought up during them.

VARY SNAP BEANS

Two delicious ways of serving snap beans: mix the cooked beans into a cheese sauce. Cut the cooked beans into small pieces, mix again with a cheese sauce, and use to fill hollowed-out tomatoes; top with a slice of cheese and put into the oven until tomatoes are cooked and the bean mixture is hot.

MACINTOSH APPLE is a delicious treat for this healthy American boy. An even bigger treat is the old-fashioned apple pie.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

We rode on a truck through a New Jersey apple orchard. It was a fragrant and wonderful experience.

We came home with these two recipes, both good for health and the Thanksgiving season.

Old-Fashioned New Jersey Apple Pie

One recipe plain pastry, 6 large McIntosh apples, 3/4 cup brown sugar, firmly packed, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons milk, if desired.

Youth Center Chatter

By JOYCE HOWELL

Thursday, and here we are again with your favorite (we hope!) teen column.

First off, we would like to tell you a little about our new Youth Center directors—plural, you notice! Mr. and Mrs. William Glidewell became YC directors Monday. Mrs. Gwyn, our former director resigned due to the fact that several of the employees of the Ray Gwyn Office Supply have been called to help Uncle Sam and she is needed at the firm. Mrs. Gwyn took over the management of the Youth Center in June, 1949, when William Engle, the first director, resigned. We all have enjoyed having Mrs. Gwyn as our director and she did a superb job of "taking care" of the teens.

Mr. and Mrs. Glidewell moved here from Lubbock where he has been attending Texas Tech. An informal reception was held for the new directors Sunday afternoon and many of the members met them at that time. Mrs. Glidewell graduated from Southwestern Louisiana Institute in 1946. While there she majored in psychology and sociology. In 1947 she returned to school to receive her BS degree in education and history. Since then she has taught at Lamar School in Plainview.

Mr. Glidewell will receive his BS degree in Physical Education from Texas Tech in January. Here's a bit of news which may interest the boys—while in high school he lettered three years in football, basketball and track. After graduating from high school in Alabama, he was a member of the U. S. Merchant Marine four years. He then entered Southwestern Louisiana Institute where he spent 18 months studying physical education and recreation. While there he was a member of the school's varsity football team. He then moved to Lubbock to attend Texas Tech. He was a defensive guard on this year's Texas Tech football team until he received a knee injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Glidewell met with members of the Junior Board of Directors Tuesday night to discuss plans for the coming month. We are very glad to welcome our new directors and we are looking forward to having them with us for a long time.

A lot of things have happened this last week, and we'll just start at the beginning, and tell you about them. Last Thursday night, Iva Kitchell presented a program of dance satires in the high school auditorium. There were several teeners present who enjoyed her satires on teen-age growing pains, preparing for a big dance, and buying a new hat. This was the first in a series of programs to be presented by the Midland Civic Music Association.

Parade, Pep Rally

Friday afternoon school was dismissed at 3:30 for the big football parade and pep rally. Saturday afternoon the Midland-Odessa football game was played in the Memorial Stadium, and Saturday night the combination dance, football, homecoming, and the end of Twirp Season, was held at the Youth Center. Anna Bess Doyle was in charge of the decorations for the dance and we certainly think Anna Bess and her group of helpers did a swell job. The Center was decorated with purple and gold streamers. Purple and gold Christmas tree lights were strung along the balcony and the bulletin board was decorated with football programs from previous games.

Gloria Anguish, Tommie Jean Underwood, Lavonne Bell, Betty McNulty, Jo Dean Downing and Lynn Griffith made small sandwiches for the refreshments. Ginger ale punch with vanilla ice cream and lime sherbert also were served. We can't begin to name all the boys who helped by serving punch, cutting sandwiches, and gathering the dirty cups, but our thanks go to each and every one of you. The chaperones also helped to make this dance a big success.

The word, chaperones, reminds us of something very important. There will be a lot of dances held in the Center during the next few months, and chaperones will be needed for each of these events. If your parents haven't helped out at the Center during the last few months, have them get in touch with either Mrs. Earl Chapman or Mrs. Glidewell.

We have lost one of our Youth Center members again. This time it is Stormy Coleman, who moved to Midland from California during the Summer. Stormy has a most unusual name, her full name is Stormy Weather Coleman! She moved to Lubbock for a short time and now is living in Odessa. Because she is so very close to home, we expect to see her over here quite often. To quote Stormy's sentiments on moving to Odessa, "I'll be over here (in Midland) every time I can get the car!"

In addition to all the ex-Midland High students we saw at the Odessa game and the homecoming dance Saturday, we noticed several of our teenage married couples. Mr. and Mrs. Don Deel, Mr. Deel is the former Ann Brown of Big Spring and still is attending Big Spring High School; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Don Davenport, (Mrs. Davenport is the former Adele Blackman who is completing her senior year of high school); Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hunter (she is the former Helen Caffey), and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Henderson (Mrs. Henderson is the former Jean Blackwell, and both Jean and Lloyd are attending Texas Western College in El Paso).

Back From Kansas
Lovelia and Gay Whitney George, who moved to Midland from Washington, D. C., last Summer, have just returned from a two-weeks visit in Kansas. We bet you all had a swell time while there!

We have had a couple of casualties around Midland lately, and there now are two teen-age girls who show the results of these accidents. Ann Ashby is hobbling around on a pair of crutches. A horse fell on her. Yes, you read correctly! Ann was riding her horse last week when he fell in a hole and threw her. The horse was unhurt, however, Ann was hurt when the horse stepped on her leg and broke a few blood vessels.

Tommie Jean Underwood now is wearing a huge white bandage which covers half her face. Lavonne Bell, Donald Dickson, Betty McNulty, Dona Ingham and Tommie Jean were driving around after dark one night last week when the car ran over something on a street which is being paved. Tommie Jean accidentally fell against the door handle and the door opened, spilling Tommie on the dirt and gravel in the street. Her face was badly skinned. Ann and Tommie Jean were rather reluctant to meet the new directors last Sunday, for Ann felt, "Goodness, they will get a terrible impression of the Y. C. members—banged up as we are!"

Gay Time

Nancy Steadman, Jim Chaucney, Agatha Tabor and Thomas Smigh were having a gay time at the Center last Sunday. They danced (we wonder where they found all the energy after the dance Saturday night!) and laughed and then they laughed and danced some more. Jimmy was really full of jokes—"Do you know why there is a back on all watches? So the ticks won't get on you" and "We were drinking dry martinis—so dry you can't see them!" Yes, they really were having a swell time! Jimmy also was wearing a rubber face which looked like a woman's face and amusing himself by trying to talk like a woman. Nancy said the group later went to the show and they laughed so much they all felt sick. That must be a lovely way to get sick!

This week we have two more candidates—for what? For having their names in the column! They didn't mention whether they would prefer capital letters or small letters, so we'll just put their names in in caps—the names? JERRY WALLACE and MORRIS BASHAM.

A big debate going on at high school is being carried over to the Youth Center each afternoon. The debate is about the high school annual cover. The present cover is white with gold letters and the name, CATOICO printed on it. The annual staff wants to change the colors to purple and gold, our school colors, and have a cover design which is more significant. The word CATOICO stands for CATTLE, OIL, and COTTON. The proposed cover would have the head of a cow, an oil well, and a cotton boll on it. The new cover would be less expensive and therefore the book would have more pages. Also the cover would be more significant and the annual would receive a higher rating in the inter-school competitions. The principal argument in favor of keeping the white cover is that all the others are white.

Another high school event which is keeping plenty of teens in suspense is the election of the CAT-OKO Queen. When the students of MHS buy their annuals, they are entitled to one vote for the Queen. The votes are in and at present only three or four people in high school know who the Queen and her attendants for this year will be. Several guesses have been made, but there were 20 candidates and no one really knows. We just imagine there will be a mad rush for the Sunday Reporter-Telegram as the members of the court and the Queen will be announced in the Bulldog, the high school page.

Twirp Season Over
Twirp Season is over for another year, and now the girls can give their pocketbooks a rest for another year. Several of the girls have decided that Twirp Season should last for one week and have it twice a year. What do you think?

ATTENTION!!! Here's a bit of news for all the boys—and the girls too! Next Saturday night there will be a big "Sadie Hawkins Dance" at the Youth Center. The boys will ask the girls for dates to this dance. What is a "Sadie Hawkins Dance"? Everyone dresses in typical Dogpatch style—blue jeans for the boys and "Daisey Mae" dresses for the girls (girls may wear jeans and dress as "Little Abner" if they want to)—and everyone has a lot of fun. Prizes will be given for the most original, most unique, and most original costumes. Around ten o'clock there will be a Mock Race. Fun and More Fun

For this race the girls will line up at one end of the Center and chase the boys to the other end. "Marryin' Sam" (Mr. Glidewell) will "marry" the girls who catch the boys and they will get a license. Don't be too alarmed or excited—after the girls catch the boys they are entitled to one dance with the guys they catch. The Mock Race will be over before 10:30 so the football boys can get home on time and the dance then will continue until twelve. Sound like fun? It certainly will be! Boys, ask your dates now, and begin working on your costumes.

A suggestion box will be put up in the Center soon and everyone with suggestions should put them in the box. Ten of the suggestions will be selected and action will be taken on them.

That's about all for this week. Don't forget to be at the Center at eight o'clock Saturday night in true Dogpatch style! See you at the dance.

SEEK TO AID FIGHT

CANBERRA —(AP)— Hundreds of Czech immigrants, who fought Hitler in the last war, are clamoring to enlist in the Australian military forces. The deputy directors of recruiting, C. P. Lewis, has ordered all recruiting officers to take the names of these new Australians. Pending a change in government policy, they cannot be accepted.

TOASTED COCONUT

To toast coconut, spread it out thinly in a shallow baking pan. Place in a moderate oven to toast until delicately browned; stir coconut or shake the pan often to toast evenly. Use toasted coconut as a topping on cake frostings or on desserts.

Potatoes to be served with a roast may be parboiled and then placed around the roast to brown during the last part of the time the meat is in the oven.

Green Peas Grow Where Volcanoes Flamed!

By NANCY NORMAN

To look at the calm, green farmlands in certain sections of the State of Washington, it is hard to believe that this area was once a seething mass of molten lava. But through the years Mother Nature has worked her magic to change the hardened lava into rich, black volcanic ash soil.

This rich soil and the luxuriant warm winter valleys of California provide excellent growing conditions for some of the world's finest green peas, and it is in these two areas that specially selected varieties are grown for Stokely's Honor Brand Frozen Foods.

LOOKS ARE DECEIVING
Despite the familiar, "Like peas in a pod," there is a great difference in green peas although they may look identical. Of the more than two hundred varieties available, only three selected varieties, famous for their finer flavor and superior freezing qualities, are grown especially for Honor Brand Frozen Foods. These three varieties assure a uniform pack of small-sized, sweet and tender peas that freeze perfectly.

A QUICK WEATHER CHANGE
As each choice crop reaches perfect maturity, it is quickly picked, shelled, washed, graded twice and sieved for size. Within a few short hours after they leave the sunny fields, these selected green peas find themselves in the frigid freezing chambers where the quick freezing process seals in all the delicious flavor, color and health-giving vitamins of peas picked fresh from the garden.

PLAIN OR FANCY
From the simplest meal to the fanciest feast, Honor Brand Fresh Frozen Peas add the enjoyable flavor of garden-fresh peas at their best. Because they are ready from package-to-pan, Honor Brand Frozen Peas are prepared in a jiffy, or for a delicious variation try this easy recipe that requires just a few additional minutes:

- GREEN PEAS, FLANDERS STYLE
1 package Honor Brand Frozen Green Peas
2 slices bacon, diced
2 small onions, sliced
Salt and pepper
Cook Honor Brand Frozen Peas in 1/2 cup boiling water until almost tender. Sauté bacon and onions together in skillet. Add peas, season and simmer until peas and onions are tender. Serves 4.

More and more, homemakers across the nation are discovering that there is a difference in frozen foods. These women realize that the careful selection by Honor Brand of special varieties of fruits and vegetables assures them the finest quality frozen foods and juices money can buy. Yet, the low Honor Brand prices cost them less.

When you buy ready-to-cook poultry, you can afford to pay more per pound than for "dressed" poultry which includes removable waste such as head, feet and inedible organs, advises the Department of Agriculture.

When eggs are not on the breakfast menu use them to make a quick and delicious lunch. Serve them scrambled or in an omelet with tomato sauce, and add whole-wheat toast, a green salad, and a glass of milk to the menu. Dessert might be fresh fruit and cookies.

Fish Casserole Is Tasty

SEA FOOD DELIGHT—A hearty fish casserole, decorated with inch-square cheese crackers, makes a delightful meal.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Ever try canned fish in a hearty casserole? It's delightful. Use this budget-wise menu for a new taste-drum for your family.

Cheese Cracker Mackerel Bake
(Makes 6-8 servings)

One-quarter cup butter or fortified margarine, 1/2 cup minced onion, 2 cups sour cream, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon paprika, 4 beaten egg yolks, 2 1-pound cans mackerel, drained and boned, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/4 cup sweet pickle relish, 1/2 cup crumbled cheese crackers, whole cheese crackers.

Melt butter or margarine in a large heavy skillet over low heat. Add onion and simmer for 5 minutes. Add sour cream, salt and paprika. Remove from heat and stir in egg yolks, mackerel, lemon juice and relish. Pour into greased 1 1/2-quart baking dish. Top with crumbled cheese crackers and stand a border of whole cheese crackers around edge of baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees F.) 25 minutes.

NOTE: If desired, recipe may be cut in half to serve four people. Not only fish but also fowl is on the list of plentiful foods. Try this economical and hearty one-dish meal:

Chicken-Vegetable Casserole
Four to five-pound fowl (cut up), 3 carrots, 1 bunch celery, 1 onion, 1 green pepper, 1 cup milk, 1 cup hot water, flour, 2 tablespoons butter or other fat, salt, pepper.

Season the cut-up pieces of fowl, sprinkle with flour and brown in the fat in a frying pan. Remove the browned pieces to a casserole. Chop the vegetables, pour them into the frying pan to absorb the browned fat. Transfer them to the casserole with the chicken, add cup of hot water and cover. Cook in a slow oven (275 degrees F.) for 3 to 4 hours, or until the bird is tender. Add more water as needed. Just before serving remove the pieces of fowl, and skim off excess fat from the mixture of broth and vegetables. With 2 tablespoons of flour and add with the milk to the contents of the casserole. Cook for 10 minutes longer, season to taste and pour the vegetable sauce over the fowl. Or replace the piece of meat in the sauce and serve from the casserole.

Gift Crocodile Is Carried In Satchel

MELBOURNE — (AP) — A passenger on a crowded tram touched Jerry Randall, 37, of Darwin, on the shoulder and said: "Excuse me, but I see a crocodile coming out of your satchel." Randall pushed the crocodile's head back into the satchel, thanked the passenger, who nodded gravely and resumed reading his newspaper.

Randall is a crocodile and buffalo hunter who is spending a few weeks in Melbourne to recuperate from a bite on his left arm from a 12-foot crocodile. He explained that he was carrying a baby crocodile to Melbourne friends as an "unusual gift in return for hospitality."

Bake triangles of pastry, then put together with sweetened sliced fruit; top with a scoop of ice cream.

Enrichment machinery will be installed at the farmers co-operative society mills, the biggest in Thailand. Thai health officials will determine the different vitamins to be used depending on research results. Rice for export to deficit countries will not be enriched.

Rescues Practiced In African Desert

TRIPOLI, TRIPOLITANIA — (AP) — British and American service personnel have been cooperating on air-desert rescue exercises in Africa's northern wastes. White panels were laid out in the desert to indicate a crashed plane. Then RAF and USAF planes began a search. Two ground parties were set up, one with eight light vehicles, the other with 10 heavier type vehicles for evacuation of personnel.

Communications were centered at the British-operated Castel Benito Airfield. The U. S. has a military air transport unit at nearby Wheelus Field.

Russians Place Ban On Austrian Gliders

VIENNA — (AP) — In December, 1949, the Russians gave permission to glider enthusiasts to take up their sport again. Recently, however, the Soviets banned glider flying in the Russian zone and proposed that the four allies occupying Austria dissolve the glider pilots' club.

The Western Allies refused, so Soviet zone pilots now do their flying in the American, British and French zones. The reason for the Russian about-face is obscure. American officials said it is possibly designed to limit glider activity until the Russians themselves make a strong bid for control of the sport through well-organized Communist glider groups.
