C-W Ector Indicator Is To Try Completion

Texas Gulf Producing Company is to attempt to complete a commercial producer and a new discovery from the Tubb sand of the lower Permian at its No. 1 Woodard, Central-West Ector County wildcat, seven miles south of Notrees.

This project had shown for a possible new field opener on the section at 6,095-6,351 feet in the Tubb. It drilled to a total depth of 8,440 feet in the Devonian and did not find any possibilities of making an oil well in that horizon.

The Devonian was drilled tested at 8,738-8,440 feet. The tool was open one hour. Recovery was 260 feet of oil cut salt water.

Operator is now preparing to plug back to the Tubb, set casing and make production tests.

No. 1 Woodard took a four hour drillstem test in the Tubb sand at 6,095-6,351 feet. Gas surfaced in 20 minutes and oil started flowing out at the top in three hours and 40 minutes.

It was flowed to the pits for 40 minutes at the estimated rate of 11 barrels of oil per hour. The drill pipe was full of oil when the tool was closed. Some of the oil unloaded from the pipe while it was being pulled.

There was no formation water. This wildcat is several miles south and west of any proven Tubb production in the west side of Ector County.

Two Deep Wildcats Set For C-N King

Ard Drilling Company of Abilene has filed application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting permission to begin operations on two Central-North King County wildcats.

They will be drilled as that concern's No. 8 and No. 9 R. B. Masterson.

The No. 8 will be dug 660 feet from south and east lines of section 19, I.R.R. Company survey and 14 miles northeast of Guthrie.

Its contract depth of 5,900 feet is calculated to take the explorer into the Pennsylvanian.

The No. 9 will be drilled 774 feet from south and east lines of section 66, block A, John B. Ector survey and 17 miles northeast of Guthrie.

This exploration is contracted to go to around 6,000 feet, which will take it through the Pennsylvanian and into the Ellenburger.

Operations are to commence at once on the two projects.

Shallow Test Staked In NE Reeves Region

In extreme Northeast Reeves County two and one-half miles northeast of Orla and four miles southeast of the Red Bluff Dam, Buck Jones Drilling Company of McCamey will drill its No. 1 J. V. Daughte as a 3,400-foot cable tool wildcat.

Drillsite is 330 feet from north and west lines of section 20, block 56, T&P survey.

The prospector will be spudded immediately.

Project In Stonewall Is Taking Lime DST

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 W. F. Edwards, Southwest Stonewall County prospective wildcat discovery from the Pennsylvanian lime, is now bottomed at 5,776 feet, and is taking a drillstem test.

This project took a test at 5,215-5,336 feet. The tool was open two hours and 45 minutes. Gas came to the surface in 30 minutes.

No fluid came out at the top while the tester was open.

Recovery, when the drill pipe was pulled was 1,700 feet of drilling mud and 3,375 feet of pipe line oil. There was no water.

Only slight shows.

The exploration was then cored from 5,336 feet to 5,376 feet. The material which was recovered was dense, tight lime, with only slight oil indications.

This wildcat had previously swabbed an average of 10 barrels of clean oil per hour, naturally from the section at 5,218-5,214 feet. Treating that zone with acid did not increase the oil yield.

Apparently the section of hole below 5,214 feet has carried very little new oil.

Location is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 318, block 2, H&TCO survey. It is 15 miles southwest of Aspermont, and 12 miles north of Rotan.

Midland Wildcat Gets Spraberry Oil, Water

J. K. Dobbs and associates No. 1 Wilson Bryant, Central Midland County wildcat, 12 miles south of the city of Midland, and 682.5 feet from south and 696.1 feet from east lines of the south half of the north-half section 31, block 10, H&TCO survey, was drilled to a total depth of 8,440 feet in the Devonian and did not find any possibilities of making an oil well in that horizon.

The Devonian was drilled tested at 8,738-8,440 feet. The tool was open one hour. Recovery was 260 feet of oil cut salt water.

Operator is now preparing to plug back to the Tubb, set casing and make production tests.

No. 1 Woodard took a four hour drillstem test in the Tubb sand at 6,095-6,351 feet. Gas surfaced in 20 minutes and oil started flowing out at the top in three hours and 40 minutes.

It was flowed to the pits for 40 minutes at the estimated rate of 11 barrels of oil per hour. The drill pipe was full of oil when the tool was closed. Some of the oil unloaded from the pipe while it was being pulled.

There was no formation water. This wildcat is several miles south and west of any proven Tubb production in the west side of Ector County.

Zweifel Gets Nod As Texas GOP Chieftain

AUSTIN—(P)—Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth, a veteran of 45 years' service to the Republican Party, was elected national committeeman from Texas Monday to succeed the late R. B. Creager.

Zweifel was elected unanimously by acclamation a few minutes after Jack Porter of Houston withdrew from the race "in the interests of party harmony."

"I hope and believe the leaders you elect today will bring into the party the people necessary to make a substantial contribution toward eliminating Harry Truman and his Socialists from the government in 1952," Porter told the State Executive Committee in his speech announcing his withdrawal from the race.

Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls was elected unanimously chairman of the Executive Committee to succeed Zweifel.

Porter pleaded with the committee to welcome former Democrats, not only for their votes but to full fellowship in party councils. Zweifel, addressing Porter, said "We want to work with you and you to work with us."

Guard Victory

Porter had announced his withdrawal unofficially just prior to the meeting at the Driskill Hotel here. It ended a sharp struggle between two party factions which had raged since Creager's death.

Zweifel's election was an overwhelming victory for an old-guard majority of the committee which had been challenged by Porter and his backers. Porter's withdrawal came after it had become evident his group would be outvoted soundly in any floor test.

Zweifel was nominated by Marshall H. Kennedy, committee member from Fort Worth.

The committee also unanimously passed a resolution lauding Creager for his long service to the party.

Porter is a Houston oil man and one-time Democrat who put on a strong but unsuccessful campaign against Lyndon B. Johnson for the U. S. Senate. Zweifel is a Fort Worth attorney long active in Republican Party affairs in Texas.

HELD IN SLAYING—Victor Justinger, 20, above, reportedly confessed to authorities in Painesville, Ohio, that he poured gasoline on his sleeping pal, then set fire to his car. The victim was Tommy Egleston, 17, of Grand River, Ohio, who Justinger said "had been making dates for other men with my girl." Justinger will face mental tests in Cleveland.

Paved Road To Oil Fields Is Proposed

Ector County officials Monday presented to Midland County an offer to finance with Ector County's federal secondary road funds a paved road from State Highway 51 into the busy Pegasus and Peck oil fields in Midland and Upton Counties.

The proposal was discussed at the Commissioners Courts of the two counties held a conference here.

"We probably will be able to give an answer by the end of the week," Midland County Judge Clifford C. Keith said.

The Ector group wanted the Midland commissioners to approve the project, for which approximately $140,000 is available, which would pave the road from a point about 10 miles south of Odessa on State Highway 51.

Dead End Highway

The project would include about nine miles of paved road in Midland County.

Under the Ector County proposal, the new paved highway would end in the Pegasus field.

"We would hate," said Judge Keith, "to have them come in with a dead-end highway."

"If we had the money to extend it on to the Midland-Rankin highway, there would be no question about it. But we don't have the money at this time."

The Ector County group, headed by County Judge Raymond Stoker, included Commissioners H. R. Bethel, Time Davis and W. W. Archer and Commissioners-elect Roy Holder and O. L. Watt.

Representing Midland County, along with Judge Keith, were Commissioners Sherwood O'Neal, John King, Jr., Warren Skaggs and W. N. Stewart.

Survey Shows Food Purchases Top Item In Midland Budgets

(Special To The Reporter-Telegram)

NEW YORK — How much does the average Midland County family spend each year? Where is it spent and for what?

Answers to these questions are brought out in a study of the spending habits of people in every section of the country. The copyrighted survey, employing as indices such factors as food purchases, general household equipment and drugs, was conducted on a national basis by Sales Management.

Expenditures in Midland County stores reached a total of $38,687,000 in 1949, marking an increase over the previous year's record of $36,364,000. The largest part of it went for food, accounting for $4,624,000 spent in meat markets, delicatessen stores, bakeries, groceries and the like. Divided by the 9,000 families in the county, it is equal to $738 per family.

Above National Average

This is more than the average American food bill of $706 per family and than the food bill in the West, South Central States, $560 per family.

Viewed in another way, the Midland County household apportioned for food 17 cents out of every dollar she spends in retail stores.

Much of the remainder of the retail dollar, went into the other categories covered by the survey. Midland sales of general merchandise reached $3,824,000, representing 10 cents of each retail dollar. Drug store sales totaled $1,530,000, equal to another four cents. Sales of furniture, household equipment and radios amounted to $1,522,000 for the year or almost four cents out of the retail dollar.

Christmas Seals By Thousands Sent To Midland Residents

Thousands of letters containing sheets of bright Christmas Seals were placed in the mails here Monday as the Midland County Tuberculosis Association launched its annual Christmas Seal Sale.

The sale goal is $6,800, which corresponds to the 1951 budget of the Midland TB Association, sponsors said.

The goal is $600 more than last year. The association receives its sole financial support from the annual seal sale.

Robert M. Payne, campaign chairman, urged those receiving seals to pay for them promptly so the quota may be reached long before the December 25 deadline. He also urged Midlanders to use the seals on all mail between now and Christmas. Persons who do not receive seals in the mail may obtain them by contacting the TB Association office in the City-County Auditorium.

Three Little Angels

A big gifts drive has been underway here the last several weeks.

Three little angels, one singing from a scroll of music as her companions play musical accompaniment, are featured on the green-and-red 1950 Christmas Seal.

Inscribed on the lower left corner of the seal is the red Double-Barred Cross, international symbol of the campaign against tuberculosis and registered trademark of the National Tuberculosis Association. The Double-Barred Cross appears on each seal every year, although the general design of the seal is different for each campaign.

The designer of the 1950 seal is Andre Digo, internationally noted artist who gained fame in Hungary and Paris for his paintings before he came to America in 1929.

Red Defense Again Melts Before Allies

SEOUL—(P)—American infantry, paced by tanks, surged down a snow-covered North Korean valley late Monday within two miles of the Manchurian border.

A 10th Corps spokesman said leading units of the U. S. Seventh Division were only two miles from their goal, the border town of Hyesanjin, at 4 p.m.

He said the troops probably would wait until Tuesday before pressing into the town.

NAM Leads Assault On Profits Tax

WASHINGTON—(P)—Business rolled up its heavy artillery Monday to blast away at the Administration's request for a $4,000,000,000 excess profits tax.

Leading the assault as the House Ways and Means Committee began its final three days of hearings was the National Association of Manufacturers, representing more than 15,000 small, medium and large companies.

The NAM's point of view was given to the committee in a statement prepared by Charles R. Sligh, Jr., chairman of its Taxation Committee.

Like other industry spokesmen who preceded him, Sligh asserted that business wants to carry its share of the defense mobilization tax load, is against red-ink financing and agrees with President Truman that the defense program must be put on a pay-as-you-go basis as nearly as possible.

'Economically Unsound'

"This means a substantial increase in taxation all along the line and a strict pruning of non-military spending," he said.

Red Resistance, Sporadic To Light Earlier, Dwindled To "Practically None" By Late Afternoon, the Officer Said.

Monday's push carried the troops 11 air miles closer to the border. The advance represented a chilling march of more than 15 miles over the winding road through Korea's northeastern mountains.

British Commandos moved up to join U. S. Marines in a push through the central mountains around Changjin Reservoir.

Philippines Disaffected

Simultaneously the commander of the Philippines battalion in the UN force asked that his outfit be returned home because it was not fighting as a unit. The Filipinos are guarding a vital supply line with the U. S. 187th Airborne Regiment.

U. S. Ambassador John J. Muccio, just returned from Washington, said "the new menace" (Red China) would not check the determination of UN governments "to see this thing through." He added, "Korea's friends are on the march."

The big march on the battlefronts was by the Seventh Division spearhead toward the border.

Advances also were reported in three other sectors:

U. S. Marines moved two miles up the east shore of the great Changjin Reservoir of Central Korea. South Koreans fought up the northeast coast under cover of American Naval guns. And the ROK (Republic of Korea) Second Corps advanced up to three miles unopposed on the right flank of the northwest front, where Reds fought stubbornly until Sunday.

Winter Wasteland

The rapid sweep toward the border carried the Seventh Division's 17th Regimental Combat Team through a winter wasteland. Tanks clanked between hills covered with glistening snow. Fluffy white clouds sailed overhead in a bright blue sky.

The expected battle of Kapsan turned into a Red rout Sunday morning. A sharp fight on the hills outside the walled city left scores of North Korean dead. Many were crushed by the tread of tanks on the hillside where they had planned to ambush the American column.

But the trap was disclosed by two Reds. Terrified by the approaching tank column, they jumped from their foxholes and ran.

The American tanks opened up on (Continue on seven.)

Chest Hurdles Past $40,000

Midland's Community Chest finance campaign Monday was within $2,287 of its $45,386 goal, as leaders reported contributions totaling $40,099.

"Let's reach the quota by Thanksgiving Day" is the plea of the volunteer leaders and workers as they launch what they hope will be the last week of the campaign.

Six youth and welfare organizations—Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Center, Salvation Army, Goodfellows and Latin American Club—share in the Community Chest funds.

Leaders particularly are hopeful the quota will be met in order that the activities of the participating groups will not have to be curtailed next year.

Santa Claus Asks Special Parade Float

FLASH: A carrier pigeon arrived at the JCCOB office at 2:15 a.m. Monday from the North Pole. It carried a message from Santa Claus explaining that Mrs. Claus had had a slight accident while attempting to park the sleigh on the roof, damaging the left reindeer. Santa is worried that he will not be able to fix the sled for several weeks, and urges that Midlanders build him a float on which to ride when he visits Midland November 28. Goodrich Hall parade chairman, immediately sounded a plea for Midland organizations to build floats for Santa Claus.

Midlanders Injured In Head-On Collision

BIG SPRING—Six persons were injured late Sunday in a head-on automobile crash 12 miles west of here on U. S. Highway 80.

Injured were E. J. Baker, Midland geologist; his wife, Mrs. Elaine Baker, and their two children, Beverly and Gregory Baker, all occupants of an automobile traveling west toward Midland; and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Newsome and Bill Bailey, both of Big Spring.

All are being treated in a Stanton hospital except Bailey, who was brought to Big Spring. Mrs. Newsome, with a back injury, was the most seriously injured. Baker received multiple lacerations. Mrs. Baker received minor lacerations and the two Bailey children were being treated for shock. Bailey received minor bruises and lacerations.

'Picket Injunction' Dismissal Expected

Dismissal of the city's injunction suit against picketing of the Midland telephone exchange appeared likely Monday following the settlement of the Western Electric wage dispute.

The case, in which a temporary restraining order was issued last Tuesday, is scheduled for hearing Tuesday before Judge Paul Moss in 70th District Court.

"It is probable," said City Attorney John Perkins, "the City Council will authorize the dismissal of the injunction suit."

No action, he said, will be sought Monday, but if such a dismissal motion is presented, it will be done at 10 a.m. Tuesday, when the hearing is scheduled to get underway.

The city filed the injunction suit on the basis of its contention the strike here was a "secondary boycott," outlawed under Texas law.

Senator Morse Requests Constant Study To Find If Reds In Government

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH WASHINGTON—(P)—Senator Morse (R-Ore) Monday called for a constant congressional study to determine whether any subversive persons have "terminated their way into the government."

At the same time, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) said the Republicans intend to make the hotly-disputed Communist-in-government issue a major one in the 1952 presidential campaign "unless the Administration changes its tactics."

Without emphasizing McCarthy's accusations, Morse said existing congressional committees should make a continuing and constant check "to find out whether any subversive elements" are getting into government jobs.

The recent inquiry into McCarthy's charges was conducted by a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee headed by Senator Tydings (D-Md). The Democratic majority labeled the charges "a fraud and a hoax."

Morse, who was not a member of the Tydings subcommittee, said after the investigation that in his opinion McCarthy had failed to prove his charges.

Tydings was defeated in the November 7 elections in his bid for a fifth term in the Senate. The outcome has been interpreted by Republicans as reflecting dissatisfaction with Tydings' handling of the investigation.

CIO Demands Bigger Voice For Labor In Mobilization Setup

CHICAGO—(P)—A major re-amping of America's mobilization setup—with a louder voice for labor—was demanded Monday by the CIO.

The demand came from President Philip Murray as the CIO opened its twelfth national convention in the Palmer House. He made it in his report to the 600 delegates representing some 6,000,000 CIO members.

Murray concentrated so much of his 72-page report on the mobilization program that he made it obvious he considers it labor's most urgent item of business.

He said the Federal Defense Production Act, which sets up the program, "fails in its purpose as an anti-inflationary weapon" and will "serve only to weaken the mobilization effort."

This is so, he said, because the law is "hobbled with special interest amendments and loopholes that make effective price control a practical impossibility."

The CIO, said Murray, "has no intention of permitting rapacious special interest groups to profiteer on our national emergency, or to shift the burden of its cost onto the backs of the millions of persons in the lower income groups."

Murray criticized virtually every phase of the Defense Production Act. He said price control provisions were inadequate, wage controls could be invoked "without regard for economic reality" and credit controls put the "squeeze" on the low income groups.

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★ Parents Should Prepare Child For Problems Of Adolescence

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

Growing up is not easy and the average adolescent between about 12 and 19 years old is faced with some physical and psychological problems peculiar to that age.

The beginning of adolescence in girls often is dated from the first appearance of a new physiological function. This event commonly starts around the age of 13.

Girls should be instructed before this time as to what to expect and should be told that the changes which occur are a perfectly normal step toward maturity.

Information concerning adolescent changes should be given in a completely matter-of-fact way. A girl should be told that she is only one of millions of her own age who are going through the same experience at the same time.

It should be explained also that the changes about to develop are the result of increased activity on the part of those hormones of internal glands which have to do with femininity.

During adolescence many girls are nervous and behave peculiarly—at least at times. They often cry easily, become unreasonable in their actions, and fly off the handle at members of their family for no apparent reason. The youngsters themselves ought to be made to realize this and to control themselves as much as possible.

Parents, however, also should understand that these things do happen and they should not worry about the seeming personality change which often develops.

Adolescence in girls is a difficult stage for family as well as the girls themselves. Fortunately for all concerned it does not last forever.

FRIDAY IS FORD

FOR CENTURIES DISEASE HAS BEEN MAN'S GREATEST ENEMY. THOUSANDS DIE NEEDLESSLY FROM IT ANNUALLY.

M. C. FITCH, D.C.

THE FIRST TRUTH to get firmly fixed in our minds is that Good Health is the natural state of man. Nature never intended us to be weak and ailing. Disease and physical distress have no part in Nature's plan.

Then why is it that in your neighborhood, your very block, perhaps even in your own home, there are individuals who show tragic evidence of breaking health—signs that range from mild headache, neuritis, indigestion or weakness, to chronic and serious sickness?

The reason is so simple that we often overlook it. We seek mystic reasons to account for our illness and indisposition, when the plain fact is that we are ill because we have in some way transgressed Natural Law. In these high-tension times, we live in ways that Nature never intended. The result is that our bodies cannot continually stand the stress and strain. And illness is the consequence.

That is a general summary. But let us be more specific. Your body "runs" on vital energy generated in the power house of the brain and distributed via the spinal system, through a network of nerves, to every organ and part of the body. So long as this system functions normally, you are well. You "feel fine." You have abundant energy to carry out every appointed task. You are optimistic, healthy, happy. The Natural Law is working for you, and with you.

But—the spinal system is not only the most important, but also the most delicate part of the whole human structure. A minute displacement of a single vertebra (i.e., a single bone of the spinal column) will cause pressure upon a nerve carrying its store of vital energy to some part of the body. If this pressure is serious, or long-continued, the supply of energy will be so reduced that the part or organ cannot perform its accustomed functions. Through sheer lack of essential life force, it is starved into a diseased condition.

This is a simplified, or "streamlined" explanation of the whole Chiropactic philosophy.

Though Chiropactic has grown amazingly, not only in the number of patients served, but also in public recognition and esteem, it is a fact that there are many who do not know—or will not heed—its fundamental lessons. They go on, breaking the tenets of the Natural Law—and wishing wistfully for the health that might so readily be theirs, if only they would give Nature her chance to help.

Do not permit yourself—or a suffering relative or friend—to remain numbered among the unenlightened. RESOLVE NOW—that you will investigate Chiropactic.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

west quarter of section 24, block 30, T&P survey, T-3-S, made oil and water in a drillstem test of the Spraberry sand at 7,600-95 feet.

The tester was open four hours. Gas surfaced in 13 minutes. No fluid came to the top while the tool was open.

Recovery was 540 feet of oil and 840 feet of salt water.
Operator is now making hole below 7,721 feet in the Spraberry formation. Another drillstem test will be run soon.

New Shows Found In C-W Midland DST

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 H. P. Timmerman, Central - West Midland County wildcat, which logged its first Ellenburger dolomite at 12,917 feet, has found a peculiar geological condition.

After entering the Ellenburger at 12,917 feet, with an elevation of 2,851 feet, the project drilled to 12,940 feet and took a drillstem test at 12,898-940 feet.

The tool was open one hour. Recovery was 15 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water. Found A Mixture.

Operator then cored at 12,940-955 feet. Recovery was two feet of dolomitic sand and shale, and 13 feet of Joins dolomite.

Another core was cut at 12,955-70 feet. Recovery was a mixture of Joins and Ellenburger. The section at 12,856-70 feet had some porosity and oil stains.

Operator has run a 45-minute drillstem test at 12,955-970 feet. No fluid came to the surface. The testing tool was being pulled at last report.

The prospector is 11 1/2 miles southeast of the city of Midland, two and one-quarter miles southeast of the opener of the Parks-Ellenburger field, and 680 feet from north and east lines of section 8, block 40, T&P survey, T-3-S.

Midland Parks Offset Develops Oil, Water

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Collins, Central-West Midland County exploration, one location north of the discovery well of the Parks-Ellenburger field, and 11 miles southwest of the city of Midland, took a three hour drillstem test in the Ellenburger at 12,979-993 feet.

Recovery was 8,550 feet of free gas in the drill pipe, 15 feet of 57.3 gravity oil, 105 feet of oil and gas and salt water cut mud, and 90 feet of muddy salt water.

A core was cut at 12,993-13,008 feet. Recovery was 15 feet of Ellenburger dolomite with some slight oil stains on fractures.

A drillstem test was run for 30 minutes at 12,993-13,008 feet. No fluid came to the surface while the tester was open. Operator is now pulling the tool.

Location is 680 feet from south and 898.6 feet from east lines of the southwest quarter of section 7, Matt Daugherty survey, SP 4169.

Andrews Project Is Swabbing To Test

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation No. 1-D-38, indicated one-location east of the Midland Andrews field in Southeast Andrews County, is at total depth swabbing to test.

On the last gauge reported, the venture made 10 barrels of oil per hour plus five per cent water for an unreported length of time.

Bottom is in the Grayburg, regular pay section of the Midland Parks field.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the south half of

SE Andrews Area Gets New Explorer

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation has spotted location for its No. 1-D-44 Andrews Paken in Southeast Andrews County in the Midland Andrews area.

The prospector will be drilled as a one-location south outpost to production in the above field.

Exact location is 680 feet from north and southwest lines of section 44, block 41, T-1-N.

That makes it about 18 miles southeast of the town of Andrews.

It is projected to go to 5,000 feet to test the Grayburg, which is the regular pay of the Midland Andrews field.

Deep Venture Is Set In Stonewall

Sid Katz of San Antonio and R. H. Venable plan to drill a wildcat in Northeast Stonewall County to explore the Ellenburger.

The location has not been definitely decided on. It will be in the Ruffy Campbell survey, 457 feet or 680 feet out of the northwest corner.

The Juliana field in Haskell County, two and one-half miles to the east, is the nearest producing field to the proposed driller. It gets its petroleum from a Pennsylvania formation.

Scurry Gets Two New Explorations

Standard Oil Company of Texas has spotted its No. 7-2 A. C. Martin as a new project in the North Snyder-Strawn field of Scurry County.

Location is 680 feet from north and 1,687 feet from west lines of section 386, block 97, H&TC survey and eight miles north of Snyder.

Rotary tools will be used to drill to 7,600 feet, projected depth. Operations will begin immediately.

In the Kelley-Snyder field of Scurry County and about three miles north of Snyder, Star Oil Company staked location for its No. 2-A Lillian E. Stulling.

Drillite is 467 feet from south and west lines of section 177, block 3, H&G survey.

Projected depth is 7,000 feet. Rotary tools will be moved in and drilling will begin at once.

Robbery Suspects Held In New Mexico

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. —P— City police are holding two California youths after one of them signed a statement that they committed holdups in three states.

The two were identified Sunday as Howard Duggin, 18, and Vernon Lee Boyce, 19, both of Vallejo, Calif.

Boyce said they committed holdups in Salt Lake City, Gallup, N. M., Muleshoe, Texas, and Lubbock, Texas.

Duggin was picked up for investigation Saturday night, then booked for carrying a concealed weapon when a pistol was found in his possession. Boyce telephoned police when Duggin failed to return him at his auto court, and arranged to surrender. He walked to officers with his weapon extended butt first, police said.

The boat stopped and a line was thrown to Albert Pick. He told his rescuers his boat was swamped and he had been standing on the foundering craft for three hours waiting for help.

German Voters Snub Rearmament Plans In Two-State Ballot

FRANKFURT, GERMANY —P— West German Socialists—fierce opponents of the creation of a new German army to bolster Western defense—won a thumping weekend election victory in the American occupation zone.

Voters in two states snubbed the powerful Christian Democrats, who dominated the federal West German government and have urged German rearmament.

The states of Hesse and Wurttemberg-Baden, which voted Sunday for new State Parliaments, also decisively rejected Moscow's policies in Germany. With not a single Communist elected, the Reds suffered their worst drubbing since the war.

Socialist leaders immediately hailed the results as a victory for their stand against West German rearmament.

"The outcome represents a clear protest against the policies of Federal Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, especially on the question of rearmament," said Socialist Chairman Willy Knothe of Hesse.

Want New Election
Fritz Heine, general secretary of the Socialist Party, claimed the elections show the German public has lost confidence in the federal government, especially because of its attitude on rearmament.

Heine said the Socialist victory "underscores our demands for new election for West German Parliament." The Socialist demand the new ballot to give the people a chance to vote yes or no on the army question.

But political observers also felt the election results also partly reflect popular resentment against Adenauer for rising prices and the acute coal shortage.

The Socialists in their campaign contended the Germans should hold back from any unified army until the Allies have massed enough troops along the Iron Curtain to hurl back any Soviet attack and until Germany has won full independence from Western controls.

No Curtailment Of Civilian Travel Seen

WASHINGTON —P— The government is making no plans to curtail or allocate civilian travel, Director James K. Knudson of the Defense Transportation Administration said Sunday.

Knudson said on a broadcast the country has the best transportation system it ever has had in a national emergency and "there are no plans presently afoot" that would curtail civilian traveling. But he added:

"Of course, if we get into a full scale emergency of any kind, it may become necessary to handle transportation on a priority basis. That is precisely what we are trying to avoid, x x x"

"I have endeavored in this ghostly little book to raise the Ghost of the Idea, which shall not put my readers out of humor with themselves, with each other, with the season, or with me. Your faithful friend and servant, Charles Dickens, December, 1843."

With that profane, Charles Dickens, who loved people and loved Christmas, began the story of Ebenezer Scrooge, who hated people and—strange as it sounds—hated Christmas...

... And of Scrooge's wife alone, Bob Cratchit, who lost his little son, Tiny Tim.

Jailed Salesman-Gunman Starts On Hunger Strike

WOODBURY, N. J.—(AP)—A chain-smoking young appliance salesman has gone on a hunger strike in the jail cell where he is held for slaughtering five members of his wife's family and wounding four others in a 20-minute blaze of gunfire.

Warden William Molineaux of the Gloucester County Prison said Monday Ernest Ingenito, 26-year-old World War II veteran, "refuses to eat."

"He drinks coffee and chain smokes cigarettes," the warden said, "but he won't eat."

Ingenito's refusal to take any solid food since his arrest early Saturday has not yet endangered his health, however, Molineaux said.

The slim young gunman has been under the constant surveillance of two guards at all times, the warden said, partly because of an attempt he made to take his own life with a razor a few moments before he was seized by state police after an automobile chase. The wounds he inflicted in his left wrist were superficial.

Ingenito has made no further effort to commit suicide, Molineaux said, but "we are taking no chances," he added.

"He's a very quiet prisoner. He's highly nervous and upset but he still refuses to talk. He sleeps well. He's what we call a 'sleeper,' a prisoner who can hit the sack no matter how bad things look for him."

Admits Firing Shots
Ingenito has admitted he fired the shots Friday night which ended the lives of his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mazzoli; his estranged wife's grandmother, Mrs. Teresa Ploppi; his wife's aunt, Mariana Ploppi, and her uncle, John Ploppi.

Wounded in Ingenito's gun-wielding tour of three homes were: his wife, Teresa, 23; her uncle, Frank Mazzoli; his wife, Hilda, and a nine-year-old cousin, Jean Ploppi.

All are in the Newcomb Hospital, Vineland, N. J. Frank Mazzoli is listed as critical, the others out of danger.

As sorrowing relatives prepared for a mass funeral Tuesday, Mrs. Ingenito Sunday talked to reporters from her hospital bed.

"I don't know why they didn't shoot him when they got him," she said. "I hope he gets the electric chair. He knew what he was doing all right."

Refuses To Talk
In his only statement to authorities, Ingenito said "I did it. I did it because my wife wouldn't let me see my kids."

Beyond that brief declaration, he has refused to say why he burst into three homes—two in Piney Hollow, N. J., and one at Minotola, six miles away—on Friday night and mowed down his victims with two of four guns he carried.

Gloucester County Prosecutor Milton E. Hannold said Ingenito—who has been held without bail on five murder counts for grand jury action—has been examined by two state psychologists.

One of those was Dr. Robert S. Garber, superintendent of the New Jersey State Hospital for the Insane at Trenton—where Howard Unruh has been committed since he massacred 13 persons in Camden, N. J., on Sept. 8, 1949.

The other psychologist was Dr. J. B. Spradley, former superintendent at the New Jersey State Hospital. Their findings were not disclosed.

Three Texans Killed In Oklahoma Crashes

CHICHASHA, OKLA.—(AP)—Three Texans were killed in two separate traffic accidents within a 14-mile stretch of U. S. Highway 81 near here Sunday.

Mrs. Eleanor Noll, 26, Wichita Falls, was injured critically in a mishap in which her two children and her mother were killed.

The children were John Thomas, two, and Beverly Jean, three months. Highway patrolmen identified Mrs. Noll's mother as Mrs. C. F. Smith, Mt. Carmel, Ill.

In another accident Oral Leon Leonard, 21, Fort Worth, was killed when a car driven by his wife, Nancy, 21, collided with another car.

Chinese Reds On Way To UN Leave Moscow By Plane

MOSCOW—(AP)—The Chinese Communist delegation enroute to the United Nations left Moscow by plane Monday morning. The group spent Sunday in the Soviet capital.

A report circulated abroad that the delegation was weatherbound at Minsk, Russia, was termed incorrect. At the Savoy Hotel where the Chinese were staying it was announced they left Moscow by plane Monday.

The group is planning to receive United States visas at Prague and fly on to Lake Success from the Czech capital.

The delegation is headed by Wu Hsiu-Chuan, head of the division of USSR and Eastern European affairs in China's Ministry of Foreign Affairs. A prominent member of the delegation is its counselor, Chiao Kuan-Hua.

Leaving Peiping, the Communist Chinese capital, November 14, the delegation arrived here Saturday.

Purge In Soviet Latvia Reported

STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN—(AP)—The newspaper Stockholms-tidningen reported Monday a major political purge is underway in Soviet Latvia.

The newspaper said the Baltic Soviet Socialist Republic's president, Prof. August M. Kirchensteins, had been removed from his post along with leading Latvian ministers.

These reportedly included the foreign minister, the agriculture minister and the secretary of Latvia's Supreme Council. Kirchensteins was president of the council.

The report said all were accused of "bourgeois nationalism."

Three Injured When Light Plane Crashes

SHREVEPORT, LA.—(AP)—Three persons were injured Sunday in a crash landing of a light plane 20 miles east of here.

W. P. Sifton of Marshall, Texas, the pilot, said he had flown from New Orleans and was attempting to get to Shreveport when the plane ran out of gas. He belly-landed it in a cotton field.

Sifton, 42; Mrs. Varia Risinger, 39, of Beaumont, Texas, and Mrs. Gertheen Wright, 31, also of Beaumont, were injured, none seriously.

Trumans Great 450 Guests, Unaware Of Flames In Building

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Truman family greeted some 450 guests at a reception at the Women's National Democratic Club Sunday, unaware of a small fire in the back of the building.

Bells of the fire trucks could not be heard in the club drawing room where the President and Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret, stood in the receiving line. They were in no danger.

The blaze was a small one, quickly put out. It damaged a fire-place. Truman evidently thought newsmen were kidding when, as he was leaving, they asked if he knew about the fire.

"Oh, yes," he said, grinning. "We are hot numbers."

Settlement Ends TV Strike Threat

NEW YORK—(AP)—Last-minute network concessions Sunday avoided what would have been the first coast-to-coast strike in the television industry.

The settlement came only 35 minutes before actors, singers, dancers and announcers of the AFL Television Authority were to march against three networks and New York Station WOR-TV, which originates one network program.

The strike would have involved 25,000 TV entertainers, grouped in five unions and all represented in television by the authority.

Record Year Seen For Trunk Airlines

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The nation's 16 domestic trunk airlines appear to be headed for a record passenger-carrying year up about one-fifth from 1949.

Data compiled Sunday from records of the Air Transport Association, representing the scheduled carriers, indicate a total volume for this year of 7,754,107,000 passenger miles. The figure represents the total distance traveled by individual fare-paying passengers.

Such a total would represent the second largest annual increase on record, surpassed only by the 77 per cent jump in the first post-war year.

And then he's out in the street. He touches his toe to the throttle and heads for duty—and that's all there is to it, insofar as effort is concerned.

When he wants to stop, he takes his foot off the throttle and touches the brake. When he wants to start, he touches the throttle again. Quietly, smoothly, effortlessly—the great Hydra-Matic does the rest.

Tornado Warning Posted To Purple

Elated over their 38-33 upset victory over Lubbock Friday, the Midland Bulldogs settled down Monday to preparation for a tilt with Lamesa's tough Golden Tornadoes. The Bulldog-Tornado clash will be unreeled in Lamesa Thanksgiving Day Thursday. Kickoff time is 2:30 p.m.

Flashing a sharp running attack and a deadly aerial game, the Tornadoes will be trying to stay in the running for the District 3-AA title. The Lamesa eleven has a 1-1 record in conference play. It defeated Big Spring 33-7 and lost to Lubbock 3-0.

The Tornadoes are paced by Johnny Montgomery, hard-running halfback, and Quarterback Jerry Millsaps. Millsaps tosses passes to Ends Marshall Crawford and Ray Taylor. The combination has met with much success thus far.

Lamesa Remembers
Last season, Midland upset the favored Tornadoes 34-20 in Memorial Stadium. Lamesa hasn't forgotten that defeat and reports from Dawson County say the Tornadoes have pointed toward Midland all season.

Midland and Lamesa have clashed with five common opponents. Both beat Plainview, Mineral Wells, and Big Spring. Both lost to Brownwood. And Midland defeated Lubbock by five points while Lamesa fell to the Westerners by three points.

The Bulldogs zipped through a fast workout Monday with several boys favoring bruises, but everyone is expected to be ready for the tilt with the Tornadoes by game time Thursday.

"Lamesa has a very fine ball club," Coach Thurmon L. (Tugboat) Jones told the Bulldogs Monday. "The Tornadoes can beat us, if we make any mistakes and fail to play to capacity."

The game will end regular season play for Midland. Lamesa will play one more game—with Odessa—December 1.

The team records:
Midland 14, Ysleta 7.
Midland 21, Forest Dallas 2.
Midland 20, Mineral Wells 2.
Midland 21, Sweetwater 6.
Midland 13, Brownwood 21.
Midland 26, Plainview 7.
Midland 54, Big Spring 7.
Midland 12, Odessa 28.
Midland 38, Lubbock 33.

Lamesa 13, Plainview 7.
Lamesa 40, Jefferson El Paso 0.
Lamesa 32, Quanah 13.
Lamesa 13, Mineral Wells 0.
Lamesa 6, Pampa 27.
Lamesa 6, Brownwood 19.
Lamesa 0, Lubbock 3.
Lamesa 33, Big Spring 7.

Bauer Sisters Lose 'Beauty-Beast' Match

In a match billed as "Beauty vs. Beast," Midland's Alice and Marlene Bauer, the beauties, were nosed out Sunday by Hezzie Carson and Bill Stanson, the "beasts," in an 18-hole exhibition low-ball match at the San Angelo Country Club.

Stanson, city-club champion of San Angelo, and Carson, top flight amateur, were hard-pressed to defeat the famous golfing sisters.

The victorious Midland charmers lost 1-up on the eighteenth hole when Stanson made a birdie three on the roughest four-par can on the course. Marlene had a pressure putt after Stanson holed out, her chip shot for a par. But he made the shot, and that defeated the Bauer sisters.

For the winners, Stanson had a sub-par 70 and Carson a 73. Alice shot a 38-36 (74) and Marlene posted a 36-37 (73). The match was sponsored by the San Angelo Standard Times Athletic Association, through the courtesy of W. M. McGarr of San Angelo and Vann Ligon of Midland.

MIDLAND VISITORS
Lewis Williams visited in Lubbock Sunday. His sister, Mrs. Vera Zachary, and her daughter, Norma Louise, returned to Midland with Williams to spend the Thanksgiving week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams.

Ty Cobb batted 300 or better for 23 consecutive years, 1906-1928.

Class A Pairings Complete

By The Associated Press
Class A high school football opens its five-week state championship playoff Thursday and before Friday night the 32-team field will have been cut exactly in half.

Three of the games match teams that have played earlier this season. Georgetown, 21-A champ, holds an 18-0 decision over Llano, winner in 22-A. Mt. Vernon, 15-A, licked Atlanta, 18-A, 21-0, and LaVega, 20-A, beat Mexia, 19-A, 7-0.

Six of the 16 games will be played Thursday and Friday night, the remainder Friday and Saturday night.
Rhubarb In 16-A
DeKalb and Atlanta tied 13-13 and shared the 16-A title. Atlanta was awarded the playoff berth on the secret vote of other members of the district.

DeKalb Coach John Bray protested his club had the better record and should have been given the chance at the title. He said he would ask the Interscholastic League to determine the basis for the vote. League officials were expected to make some announcement soon.

Here's the way the first round shapes up:

Hereford (1) vs. Shamrock (2) at Pampa Friday afternoon.
Spur (3) vs. Levelland (4) at Lubbock Thursday night.
Kermit (5) vs. Colorado City (6) at Odessa Thursday afternoon.
Coleman (7) vs. Ranger (8) at Coleman Thursday afternoon.
Albany (9) vs. Olney (10) at Olney Friday night.

Newcastle (11) vs. Arlington (12) at Fort Worth Thursday afternoon.
Athens (13) vs. Mineola (14) at Mineola Thursday afternoon.
Mt. Vernon (15) vs. Atlanta (16) at Longview Friday night.
Jacksonville (17) vs. Huntsville (18) at Jacksonville Friday night.
Mexia (19) vs. LaVega (20) at LaVega Thursday afternoon.
Georgetown (21) vs. Llano (22) at Lampasa Friday night.

Brenham (23) vs. New Braunfels (24) at New Braunfels Friday night.
Alvin (25) vs. French (Beaumont) (26) at Alvin Friday night.
Wharton (27) vs. Karnes City (28) at Karnes City Friday night.
Sinton (29) vs. Donna (30) at Donna Friday night.
South San Antonio (31) vs. Pearsall (32) at Pearsall Friday night.

City Conference Advances Opening Date For Playoffs

By The Associated Press
Two district champions have been determined and the other two will be known by mid-week in the City Conference of schoolboy football.

Definitely ready for the state playoff are Arlington Heights of Fort Worth and John Reagan of Houston. They won their district titles last week.

Sunset is the unbeaten leader in the Dallas District and has clinched at least a tie for the title. It can take the championship with a victory or tie against Woodrow Wilson Thursday night. A defeat coupled with a win by Adamson Thursday afternoon against Forest would throw the race into a tie between Sunset and Adamson. In that event the district committee would select the representative in the state playoff. Sunset probably would be picked because it beat Adamson in regular season play.

The chips are on the line in the San Antonio District Thursday when Thomas Jefferson, defending state City Conference champion, meets Brackenridge for the title. Both are undefeated in conference play.

The state playoff in the city Conference starts next week. This is a week earlier than scheduled. Special permission was given by the Interscholastic League for moving the playoff up.

Sul Ross Sacks Up Title In Lone Star

By The Associated Press

Three of the five teams in the Lone Star Conference packed away the molekiss Monday.

The season is at an end except for Sul Ross, the champion, and East Texas State, who have a date December 2 at Commerce.

Sul Ross became king of the league last week when Stephen F. Austin and East Texas were eliminated. Austin lost to Sam Houston State 20-6 and East Texas to Southeast Texas State 14-0. They were the only teams left with a chance of trying Sul Ross.

Sul Ross played independent East Texas Baptist and won 41-20.

Jack Kyle of Sam Houston continued as the leading scorer with his 64 points. Charley Boyles of Sul Ross moved up, kicking five extra points to run his total to 59.

Surrounded by a bevy of scouts, sports writers and a mass of wildly cheering fans, we seem to have missed a couple of key plays in the Midland-Lubbock tilt. So, for the record, we'd like to set it straight.

Tugboat Jones tells us it was Reed Gilmore—not L. C. Thomas—who scored the second Bulldog TD against the Westerners. It seems that prior to the game, the Bulldog team voted to have Gilmore carry the ball when the team got in scoring position. Reason for so doing was that Reed never had scored a touchdown despite his fine play. He never calls his own signal when a scoring opportunity presents itself.

The first time Midland drove down to the Westerner goal line, Gilmore didn't call his own play. The next time, the Bulldogs insisted he do so, and he cracked across for the touchdown on the guard wedge play that Thomas usually runs.

"That seemed to break the ice for Gilmore," Jones told us Sunday. Reed went on to score two more times, one coming on a 100 yard center, with a pass interception.

—KR—

The other point we want to set straight is the all-important pass-lateral play that carried to the five-yard line and set up the Bulldog's winning touchdown. We said it was from Brooks to Bush to Burris. But it was from Brooks to Medart to Friday.

So, straight with the world again, we may proceed. But the entire Bulldog team played a fine ball game, and you can't take anything away from the kids. Gilmore, by the way, was cited by Phil Collier in the Port Worth Star-Telegram as a schoolboy "Star of the Week."

—KR—

There's a lot of talk around town about the possibility of Midland ending in a tie for the title, should Lubbock unexpectedly upset Odessa. But, the fans are forgetting one important point: that regardless of the outcome of that game, Midland will be entirely out of the picture should it fail to defeat Lamesa.

Many fans seem to forget Lamesa has a 3-0 loss to Lubbock as the only mark against its record in conference play. The Tornadoes own a 33-7 triumph over Big Spring also. And, should Lamesa beat Midland, it can go into its game with Odessa December 1, very much in the running for the District 3-AA title.

If that should happen, and Lamesa upset Odessa, it probably would put the Tornadoes into the playoffs. So the Tornadoes will be playing a "desperate" game, trying like crazy to stay in the running—and if Midland should fail to play its very best ball game, the Lamesa eleven will get its crack at the conference crown.

—KR—

The Stanton Buffaloes, champions of District 6-B by virtue of their 26-6 triumph over Hermleigh Friday night, will oppose the District 5-B Champion, Meadow in a bi-district tussle.

Stanton Coach Leo Fields tells us that the site of the game, or the date, haven't been determined. A meeting Tuesday night will work out all of the details.

Meadow has won eight, dropped two games. The Meadow eleven, coached by Lloyd Hunt, runs from the "T" formation and the old Notre Dame box formation with a balanced line. Thus far, Meadow has been a power team, hitting up the middle and going wide on occasions.

—KR—

Fields, by the way, has done a good job with the Buffs. In three years at Stanton High School, he owns a record of 27 wins, seven losses, and one tie.

His first year as the Buff mentor—1948—saw Stanton win five, lost four. The year 1949 saw the Buffs fashion six wins, tie one, and drop three. And this year's fine outfit has flashed to 10 straight wins.

Fields coached one year at Blackwell High School prior to coming to Stanton. Playing six-man football and with a bunch of kids who never had played before, Leo's team won three and lost four.

So the likeable Stanton boss has had 30 wins, 11 losses, and one tie to show for four year coaching—and that's not a bad record.

Pounding Bob Smith Of A&M Holds Lead In Total Offense

DALLAS (AP)—Pounding Bob Smith of Texas A&M has gained more yards on the ground than any other back in the Southwest conference, both in rushing and passing.

Smith, who roamed for 101 yards against Rice last week and still couldn't score, has 1,225 yards for the season on 178 carries in nine games. This not only tops the ball-carriers but makes Smith the total offense leader. Gil Bartosh of Texas Christian is second with 1,173 yards on 221 plays.

Byron Townsend of Texas is second in ball-carrying with 713 yards in 187 runs.

In passing, it's Fred Benners of Southern Methodist by more than 200 yards. Freeman Freddie has completed 89 throws in 154 tries for 1,164 yards and nine touchdowns.

Larry Isbell of Baylor is second with 71 connections on 147 passes for 948 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Isbell Paces Punters
Isbell also continues to lead the punters. He has a 41.1-yard average on 47 kicks. Louis Schaefle of Arkansas is second with 40.0 on 53 boots.

Yale Lary of Texas A&M tops the punt returners with an average of 23.2 on nine runs. Bobby Dillon of Texas leads in yardage with 247 but his average is 22.4.

Harold Riley of Baylor is the leading pass-snatcher. The Bear wingman has snared 29 throws for 458 yards. Bill Houston of Rice is second with 19 for 397.

Southern Methodist is the team offense leader with an average of 399.5 per game. Texas A&M is second with an average of 382.3.

In defense, Texas leads with 254.8 given up per game. Baylor is second with 265.6.

Sudden Ending Of SWC Race Catches Cotton Bowl Short

DALLAS (AP)—Just who's going to play Texas in the Cotton Bowl either is the best kept secret of the year or the Cotton-Bowl folks don't have the least idea.

In fact, the sports writers appear to have much more information than the selection committee. Ask one of them about the situation and he'll end up interviewing you.

When Texas clinched the Southwest Conference championship last Saturday as the result of an upset victory by Rice over Texas A&M, it caught the Cotton Bowl heads in a most flustered state. They had figured on the November 30 date between Texas and A&M to determine which team would be host in the Dallas New Year's Day gridiron classic.

One of the committee members, Jack Hamon, is out of town and won't be back until Tuesday. He has been on the west coast. Anyway, Chairman Joe C. Thompson, Jr., said the committee probably couldn't meet until Wednesday to start exploring Cotton Bowl possibilities.

ACC Within One Game Of Perfect Season, Loop Title

By The Associated Press
The Texas Conference winds up play this week with Abilene Christian College needing a victory over Howard Payne for a clear championship and a perfect season.

The Wildcats take on Howard Payne at Abilene Thursday. In the only other game, Texas A&I meets Austin Wednesday night at Sherman.

A&I could share the title with Odessa. ACC if Howard Payne upsets the Wildcats, last undefeated, untied college team in Texas.

Last week McMurry wound up with a 30-6 victory over Southwestern.

Syracuse University's new gymnasium is nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy in February.

And, should Lamesa beat Midland, it can go into its game with Odessa December 1, very much in the running for the District 3-AA title.

If that should happen, and Lamesa upset Odessa, it probably would put the Tornadoes into the playoffs. So the Tornadoes will be playing a "desperate" game, trying like crazy to stay in the running—and if Midland should fail to play its very best ball game, the Lamesa eleven will get its crack at the conference crown.

—KR—

The Stanton Buffaloes, champions of District 6-B by virtue of their 26-6 triumph over Hermleigh Friday night, will oppose the District 5-B Champion, Meadow in a bi-district tussle.

Stanton Coach Leo Fields tells us that the site of the game, or the date, haven't been determined. A meeting Tuesday night will work out all of the details.

Meadow has won eight, dropped two games. The Meadow eleven, coached by Lloyd Hunt, runs from the "T" formation and the old Notre Dame box formation with a balanced line. Thus far, Meadow has been a power team, hitting up the middle and going wide on occasions.

—KR—

Fields, by the way, has done a good job with the Buffs. In three years at Stanton High School, he owns a record of 27 wins, seven losses, and one tie.

His first year as the Buff mentor—1948—saw Stanton win five, lost four. The year 1949 saw the Buffs fashion six wins, tie one, and drop three. And this year's fine outfit has flashed to 10 straight wins.

Fields coached one year at Blackwell High School prior to coming to Stanton. Playing six-man football and with a bunch of kids who never had played before, Leo's team won three and lost four.

So the likeable Stanton boss has had 30 wins, 11 losses, and one tie to show for four year coaching—and that's not a bad record.

DOTS AND DASHES: Mack Taylor, the Lubbock flash who gave Midland so much trouble, is the leading scorer for Lubbock in the Taylor's father was a teammate of Midland Assistant Coach F. D. (Red) Rutledge at Weatherford High School. . . . When Midland beat the Westerners Friday, it was the first defeat for Lubbock on its home field since Amarillo turned the trick 14 to 6, Oct. 23, 1948. . . . Congrats to Coaches John Higdon and Keith Bobo, and their team "B" . . . The Bulldog "B" won a sweet victory over Odessa Saturday night 27-19. . . . The Bulldog "B" has four wins and five defeats and will end the season Wednesday in Big Spring against the Steer reserves. . . . Tallback M. A. Rose flashed a lot of running ability in leading the little Bulldogs past Odessa. . . . He scored four times. . . . Colorado City, the team that opposes Kermit in a bi-district clash at Odessa next Thursday dropped its first two games to Wink and McCamey, a pair of 5-A teams. . . . Wink won 14-7, and McCamey beat 'em 26-14. . . . But the Wolves bounced back to win eight straight, by astounding scores. . . . Such as 86-6 over Rotan, and 60-0 over Roby. . . . Herman Hickman, Yale mentor, has been given a new 10-year contract. . . . Leigh's cross-country team kept pace with the footballers, going undefeated in seven starts. . . . How about that kick by Billy Paul of the Abilene "B" team? . . . Paul booted one 98 yards against the Brownwood "B" last week. . . . Actually, from the point where it was kicked, the pigskin covered 107 yards. . . . Nice bootin', in anybody's league. . . . That 38-20 loss to Odessa Bowie ended the Midland "C" season last week, with three wins, four losses, two ties. . . . Tip the Tornadoes. . . . End of the Row!

Gulf Coast League Goes Class B As Corpus Joins Loop

LAKE CHARLES, LA. (AP)—Corpus Christi quit the Class C Rio Grande Baseball League to join the Gulf Coast League and that circuit promptly voted itself B classification.

The directors of the league Sunday decided to step from C to B when Corpus Christi agreed to join the circuit if it did so.

The Gulf Coast entered organized baseball as a Class C league last season.

Corpus Christi and Texas City, Texas, which never has been in organized baseball until now, joined Lake Charles, La., Crowley, La., Port Arthur and Galveston, Texas, in the league.

Jacksonville, Texas, and Leesville, La., dropped out to make room for the new clubs in the six-team circuit. These two finished the 1950 season under financial difficulties.

Corpus Christi's departure from the Rio Grande League leaves that circuit with only five teams—Del Rio, McAllen, Brownsville, Harlingen and Laredo.

Carrie D. Moseley, Former Midlander, Dies In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH — Miss Carrie D. Moseley, 74, widely-known educator and founder of the Moseley Private School of Midland, died Sunday in a Fort-Worth hospital of a heart ailment.

Miss Moseley and a sister operated the Moseley School in Midland until a short time before moving to Fort Worth in 1911.

She was a native of Bell Buckle, Tenn., and in 1901 came to Texas with her family, which was one of the first to homestead in this state.

It was during the pioneer period the Moseley Private School was opened. A graduate of the Old Daughters College of Harrodsburg, Ky., she held the chair of mathematics in the school for many years.

Survivors are two brothers, Jess and Matt Moseley of Sierra Blanca; five sisters, Mary S. Moseley, Mrs. J. E. Willis and Louise Moseley, all of Fort Worth, and Mrs. W. E. Alwood of Macon, Ga., and Mrs. O. M. Boynton of Amarillo.

AFTER SURRENDER — Ernest Ingenito, above, 25-year-old war veteran, is seen after his capture by New Jersey state police following his wild shooting spree, in which five of his estranged wife's relatives were killed and four others, including the wife, were wounded seriously.

Phillips Legal Head Speaks To Kiwanians

Raymond A. Lynch, head of the legal department of Phillips Petroleum Company here, spoke to members of the Kiwanis Club at their regular luncheon meeting Monday in Hotel Scharbauer.

Reese Cleveland, vice president, presided at the session in the absence of Albert Kelley, president.

Lynch, a former member of the Oil and Gas Division of the Railroad Commission of Texas, reviewed the history of the commission, tracing it from its founding in 1891 until now, when it has control of all Texas natural resources.

The speaker elaborated on the production of oil in West Texas, saying approximately $100,000 worth of crude oil is produced each hour in West Texas. He said the West Texas area produces 40 per cent of Texas' crude oil and that the state produces approximately 50 per cent of the nation's supply.

Cleveland said a full report of the recent Kiwanis Ministerial-Revue will be given at the next regular meeting.

14 Persons Escape Blazing Apartment

AMARILLO (AP) — Fourteen persons, most of them only partially clothed, fled into sub-freezing temperatures early Monday as flames swept an apartment building and sign company here.

Mrs. L. F. Hoare, wife of the owner of the two-story structure, estimated the damage at $100,000. No one was injured in the fire, which began about 4 a.m.

SUBJECT: TAXES—In a huddle over "excess profits taxes" at a Washington press conference are: Wilson W. Wyatt, former Emergency Housing Expediter; Robert C. Tait, president of Stromberg-Carlson Corp. and chairman of the Business Committee on Emergency Corporate Taxation; Beardsley Ruml, New York businessman and tax authority; and Leon Henderson, wartime OPA administrator. The group favors higher taxes on corporations and individuals, but opposes an excess profits tax.

Officer, Mistaken For Prowler, Shot By Tavern Keeper

FORT WORTH (AP) — A city policeman was shot and wounded critically here shortly before dawn Monday when he investigated an open door at a tavern and was mistaken for a burglar by the proprietor, who had been sleeping in the rear.

The officer, Alford Doyle Childress, 27, underwent surgery Monday. A 22 caliber bullet passed through his body below the ribs and lodged in his left arm.

Hiram E. Hall, 37, owner of Cherokees Inn here, told police and Star-Telegram Police Reporter Blair Justice he fired three shots from a pistol after noises in the tavern and a flashlight beam in his face led him to believe burglars were present.

Houston Buses Roll In Token Operation

HOUSTON (AP) — The first Houston Transit Company buses to hit the streets of Houston in 17 days rolled out of the Milby Barn Monday, but it was only a token operation.

Nevertheless, it drew bitter condemnation from union officials who charged that it was only a move by the company to incite "our fellows" to illegal acts.

Announcement of the resumption of service was made at the Federal Building, where negotiations between the union and company were recessed until noon at the suggestion of Federal Mediator Willis Ray. The buses are manned by non-union company supervisors.

ADMITTED FOR SURGERY

David Means, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Means, 706 South Terrell Street, was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital Monday for a tonsillectomy.

Midland-Upton-Crane Road Program Aired

Members of the Highway Committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce and the Commissioners Court were to meet with representatives of McCamey, Crane and Rankin Monday afternoon in McCamey to discuss a proposed Midland-Upton-Crane County road program.

John P. Butler, chairman of the Chamber's Highway Committee, headed the Midland delegation, which left for McCamey shortly after noon Monday.

Houston Fisherman Missing In Bay Area

HOUSTON (AP) — Air rescue teams were searching the Galveston Bay area aloft and on the ground Monday for a Houston fisherman, John L. Ansohn, missing since 4 p.m. Saturday.

The search was spurred by a report from a camp Monday that Ansohn's boat had been found, overturned, about two miles out from the fishing camp and toward the ship channel.

Marine Corps Plaque Is Reported Missing

SANTA ANA, CALIF. (AP) — An air search was to get underway Monday for a missing Marine Corps twin-engine Bechcraft missing since Saturday with four men aboard.

The list of crewmen aboard the missing craft include Tech Sgt. Keith Ferguson, Corpus Christi, Texas.

FOOT IS INJURED

Ralph E. Rice, 2604 West Washington Street, an oil field engineer, was given emergency treatment Sunday at Midland Memorial Hospital for injuries received when he stepped on a nail.

BELGIUM MAKES OWN FILM

BRUSSELS (AP) — Belgian film production, dormant following the war, now is showing signs of renewed activity, which may put it back on its pre-war feet. Independent production by unknowns working with little capital and determined to use nothing but local talent and local stories seems to be the trend.

CARIBOU RETURN

FREDERICTON, N. B. (AP) — Caribou, protected by game laws of New Brunswick, have been seen in Carleton county this Fall for the first time since 1918. There is also evidence that moose, also protected, are on the increase.

MACARTHUR FOR HEADLINES

SINGAPORE (AP) — Headline writers on newspapers in Singapore and Malaya don't have any trouble making the name of Gen. Douglas MacArthur fit their columns. They simply call him "MACA."

The horse chestnut is so named because the Turks used it as a medicine for horses.

Six Die, Thousands Driven From Homes In California Floods

FRESNO, CALIF. (AP) — Perhaps the worst flood in Central California history took six lives, drove thousands from their homes and damaged millions of dollars worth of property, crops, highways and livestock.

Mountain streams, normally little more than rivulets, bloated into raging torrents under the impact of days of driving rain and melting snow from the Sierras.

Some communities were inundated. Others were threatened by weakening dikes. Roads and bridges were washed out.

Countless rescue missions kept casualties to a minimum.

The Weather Bureau warned that a new storm would pour more rain over North Central California Monday, the eighth day of the record-breaking downpours that dumped as much as 10 inches of rain in a 24 hour period in foothills east of Fresno.

Unseasonal warm weather in the Sierras thawed the snowpack, adding millions of gallons of water to the swollen streams.

The Red Cross estimated the churning, murky waters had forced at least 2,000 families from their homes in Central California.

In Visalia, Tulare County, four members of a family burned to death Monday as fire destroyed their home. Most of the fire department's pumps were busy at the time, trying to keep flood waters from ruining goods in store basements.

Frank Irwin, 87, was found drowned in bed in his cottage on the rampaging Sacramento River.

Jimmy Johnson, 75-year-old pensioner, died of a heart attack as he was being rescued from his home near Kerville.

As flood water surged over the already-drenched area from Sacramento to Bakersfield, Gov. Earl Warren ordered all state department heads to alert their staffs for all-out assistance.

Vale To Decline Judgeship Earned In Valley Write-In

RIO GRANDE CITY, TEXAS. (AP) — State Rep. A. J. Vale says he won't accept the 7th District Judgeship a delay in reports of Duval County write-in votes gave him, and the secretary of State says the office could go by appointment to the defeated candidate.

"My decision is definite and unalterable," Vale said Sunday night.

John Ben Shepperd, Texas' secretary of State, said in Austin Vale's decision will leave Gov. Allan Shivers free to appoint Judge Sam G. Reams, beaten by the write-in, to a full term.

Vale said he would accept his reelection as state representative from the 7th District. He told reporters he had not been interested in the write-in.

Reams Saturday had said he planned to contest the election.

Shepperd told The Associated Press Vale's rejection of the office left it open and because the general election is over, Shivers could appoint Reams.

Attorney General Price Daniel cautiously declared "I couldn't say right now" where Vale's decision leaves Reams.

GI's Within—

the hillside where the Reds were dug in. As U. S. infantrymen closed in, the tanks lumbered across a stream, up the hillside and over the Red's rock barricades.

Associated Press Correspondent Tom Stone, only newsmen with the 17th during the battle, said it lasted only 30 minutes. Sixty-five Reds surrendered when their trap collapsed. Others fled.

"They figured they could ambush the hell out of us," said Col. Herbert B. Powell, commander of the column. "But they didn't. We beat them to the punch. We caught them by surprise."

The column rumbled on into the deserted and bomb-raised crossroads town of Kapsan, knocking down a stone archway as it entered.

Six miles north of the city, Maj. Gen. David G. Barr, Seventh Division commander, caught up with the column.

"It makes you proud to be an American," he said, "to see our people perform like this."

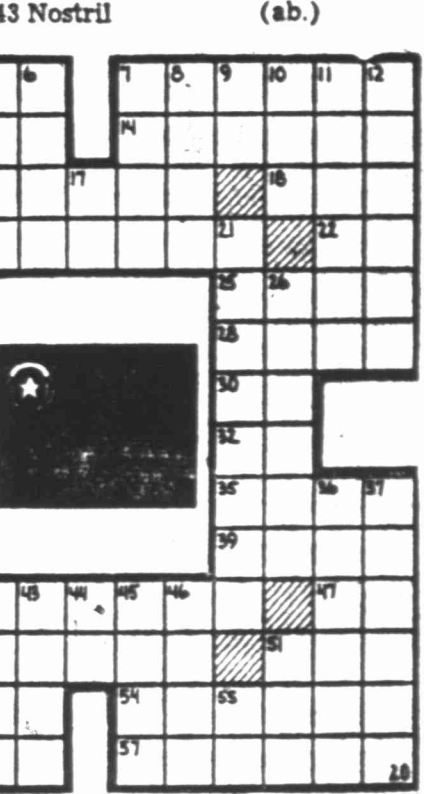

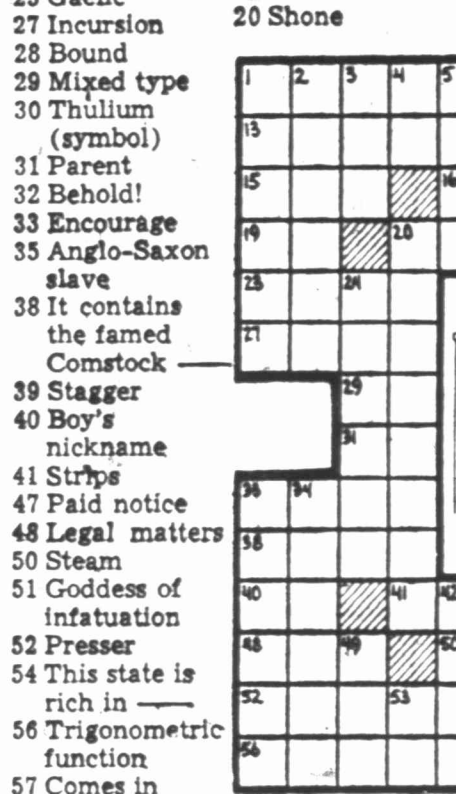

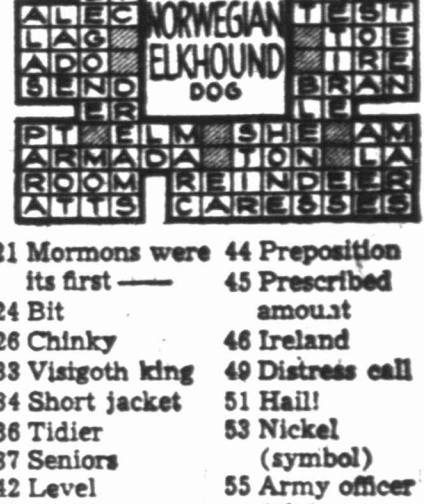

Elsewhere in the far north there were indications the Communists were building up their forces to try to stem the United Nations advance. Night fighters attacked a 50-truck convoy moving south toward a Red stronghold about 25 miles northwest of Changlin Reservoir.

Units of the U. S. First Marine Division were moving cautiously up both sides of the reservoir.

One Injured In Crane Explosion

CRANE — An explosion in the home of Mrs. Arrie Estep at the corner of South Vivian and West 12th Street here about 10 a.m. Sunday injured one person and caused extensive damage to the house.

Garrett Gage, 32, son-in-law of Mrs. Estep, received first and second degree burns. He is undergoing treatment in the Crane County Memorial Hospital.

The explosion occurred as Gage entered the bathroom in which a hot water heater is located. The hearer flame is believed to have ignited gas which had accumulated in another part of the house, causing the explosion.

Several other persons were in the house at the time, but no other injuries were reported.

The force of the explosion moved an inside wall of the house about 18 inches and blew out all the windows. Some fire damage also was reported.

HOW ADVERTISING AFFECTS YOUR JOB

Raises, Cuts, Promotions, Layoffs Often Depend on How Much the Firm Sells

MECHANIC—I like advertising. It sells goods. And when sales go up, our shop is plenty busy. My wife and I can then have real peace of mind.

WAITRESS—Advertising my boss does means more tips in my pocket. Advertising other firms do means more business, steadier jobs for my customers and bigger tips in my pocket. So I'm all for plenty of advertising.

BOOKKEEPER—I know what a difference advertising made in my firm... made our volume four times as big in five years. Now instead of just being a clerk, I have seven people working for me.

NEXT time you hear or read advertising, just stop and analyze how it affects you.

Its purpose is to sell goods or services. More sales mean more work to be done. That means more jobs in the firm that advertises... and more jobs in the hundred and one firms with which it does business. It's a never-ending chain.

Now when more jobs open up, that means more security for everyone. It means promotion to many, with wage increases. It means opportunity—particularly for friends and sons and daughters of present employees.

Whether or not you work for a firm that advertises, remember that this modern method of mass personal selling affects your company's business and its future. Hence it affects your job and your future.

Advertising, by selling goods, starts businesses humming, makes them bigger. That's how advertising affects your job. For tomorrow, it creates opportunity... for today, it makes your job more secure.

Other Ways Advertising Helps You:

1. Brings you better goods for less money.
2. Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
3. Has given us the world's highest standard of living.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES

him on foot from the towns—they broke up His plans. "So when he disembarked, he saw a large crowd, and out of pity for them he healed their sick folk." (Matthew 14:13-15, Moffatt.) And then He fed the multitude. He worked for others with a wound in His own breast. Many of us have to go through life working with a wound. But that wound, instead of making Him bitter against the injustice of John's beheading, made Him more tender with others: "out of pity for them he healed their sick" and fed their hungry. If you have to work with a wound in your side, remember, that wound will be healing to others—your very hunger for consolation can feed others.

Just before he was to speak in the chapel in India, a missionary friend received a cable that his father had died. He said nothing to us before the service, but went on and preached a tenderly beautiful message—the transcript of his own beautiful soul. Only after the service did he tell us he had received the cable. He worked with a wound—and that wound was healing, to others.

Master of the inward wound, teach us Thy mastery. May I not wince, nor turn back, nor glance back, even in thought, when wounded by life. Help me to go steadily on, knowing that Thy wounds are answering my wounds. It may be that my wounds shall answer someone else's wounds. For this is a hurt world. Make my hurts healing. In Thy name. Amen.

Ired Father Shoots Officers Who Came To Arrest His Son

DETROIT (AP)—A father who "got a mad on" when police came to arrest his son killed one officer and wounded another Sunday.

Reinforcements rushed in and used tear gas and riot guns to arrest him.

Detectives identified the father as Charles Marshall Gordy, Sr., a 53-year-old negro.

They said he admitted firing the 30-30 rifle that mortally wounded Patrolman Andreas Melert, 30, and injured his companion, 23-year-old Patrolman David Morgan. Morgan was reported in good condition early Monday.

There was some early fear of rioting in the negro neighborhood as bayonet-armed police, a hundred strong, were hurried to the scene. A big crowd gathered. But there was no violence, officers reported.

Three Negroes Arrested

However, three negro men were arrested and held for investigation of inciting a riot. Officers said they spread a report that a child had been killed in the Gordy house.

Police said Melert and Morgan arrived at the house shortly before noon Sunday to arrest young Gordy, 31, on a charge of robbery unarmed. The father said they needed a warrant. Officers said the younger man agreed to go, but the elder Gordy fired as they led his son away, handcuffed.

"I got a mad on and started shooting," detectives quoted him as saying. "I could have reloaded and shot six or seven more when the others came. But I was over my mad by then."

Authorities said the father would be charged with a murder.

Social Security Changes Turn Housewives Into Bookkeepers

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Uncle Sam now wants the names and addresses of a million housewives who regularly employ maids, cooks, cleaning women, butlers, gardeners, chauffeurs and the like. The government also wants the names of these employes.

Purpose of this woman and man hunt is not to draft them, but to register them for collecting their new social security taxes and ultimately paying old age and survivors' insurance, when they get too old to work or when they die.

Not all employing housewives and not all domestic servants have to register. If this help doesn't work two days a week or more, every week in any three-month period, both employer and employe can forget about it. Also, if the help is paid less than $50 wages for 24 days work in this three-month period ($2.08 a day) they can forget it. But any housewife who employs one or more servants for more than 24 days in any quarter-year should write to the Collector of Internal Revenue where she or her husband (if any) send their income taxes. A request should be made for more information on how to go about reporting on wages paid and deductions made for social security.

The method for making these reports now has been worked out by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, which will collect the taxes, and the Social Security Administration, which will pay the benefits due at 65.

IR and SSA now believe they have this thing worked down to a simple procedure as possible. When the government learns the names and addresses of the million housewives who employ help, it will send each of them a report form No. 942 every three months.

Forms Will Appear In 1951

The first Form 942 will be mailed out early in 1951. It will cover the first three months of that year. It will have to be filled out and returned to the Collector of Internal Revenue sometime during the month of April. Nothing has to be done about help employed in 1950, as this section of the law does not become effective till Jan. 1, 1951.

Form 942 will be a single sheet of paper. On this form the housewife will have to put her own name and address, the name of her maid, hired man or other employes, their social security card numbers, and the amount of wages paid them in the previous three-month period. If the employes don't have social security cards and numbers, they will have to be registered and get them. Then the housewife will have to compute the amount of social security taxes due. The law says this will be three per cent of the wages paid, up to $3,000 a year. Half of this three per cent tax is supposed to be paid by the employer, half by the employe. That is, the housewife is supposed to deduct the employe's 1 1/2 per cent each pay day.

For instance, if the domestic worker is paid the minimum of $50 wages in the three-month period, the deduction of 1 1/2 per cent would be 75 cents. The housewife is supposed to pay another 75 cents. If the housewife wants to, she can pay the whole thing, without making any deduction from wages paid. Anyway, the housewife's check for $1.50 (or more) should be mailed to the Collector of Internal Revenue, along with Form 942, every three months. That's all there is to it.

Let Husband Worry

If the housewife runs a small business of her own, or if she is married to a professional man like a doctor or lawyer who hires a secretary and a couple of other employes on a personal basis, the house servants may be added to this list of employes and reported to the government on Form 941. This offers the housewife probably the simplest solution to the whole business—turn it over to her husband and let him worry about it.

One thing the housewife can't do—she can't be listed as an employe of her husband and so become eligible for social security benefits in her own right. Nor can a member of the family—a son or daughter, for example—be listed as a household employe.

Only cash wages count. Room and board can't be counted as wages, either. But carfare can be counted, if paid in cash. People who do household work on farms don't come under these provisions of the law. They are considered farm workers and must be reported as such.

If a maid or gardener works for more than one employer, each employer must report his or her earnings separately.

If someone like a registered nurse works for a number of families and has total earnings of more than $400 a year, she may consider herself as "self-employed" and so come under the law for social security protection. But domestic servants who work for a number of families may not consider themselves as self-employed.

OPERATION SANTA CLAUS— GI's Buy, Mail 'Em By Remote Control

By ANNE HUTH

TOKYO (AP)—In the package was a pair of corduroys, size one. The message that went with the parcel said:

"Never having seen you, I just hope this fits. Love, Daddy."

Another parcel contained a stuffed toy and this note:

"Hope some day we can get acquainted, son."

These were Christmas gifts from U. S. soldiers fighting in Korea. The soldiers never saw the presents they were sending home. Nor did they write the cards that carry their greetings to loved ones.

The shopping and card writing is being done by some 300 American women, volunteer workers with the Red Cross. They call it "Operation Santa Claus."

It's remote control shopping; a special service enabling GI's in war-torn Korea to send home Christmas remembrances from well-stocked stores in Japan.

"Operation Santa Claus" started late in October. It was evident then the Korean war wasn't almost over after all. U. S. troops wouldn't be home by Christmas.

Chairman of the shopping organization set up by the American women in Japan is Mrs. Anthony F. Story of Los Angeles. She's the wife of General MacArthur's personal pilot.

Operations began in Tokyo and its great port city of Yokohama. About 100 orders a day are being handled. In most of Korea, soldiers were given a list of gifts available. All they had to do was fill out an order blank.

It was impossible, however, to get order blanks to some of the forward units. They were advised to write "Operation Santa Claus," enclosing whatever they wished to spend and a description of the person who would receive the gifts.

China Most Popular

In Japan the women volunteers make out customs declarations, complete other necessary formalities and scour the shops to find what the soldiers ordered.

Most popular gift? Noritake China. More than 200 sets have been sent already.

With one went this message:

New Small Turkeys Are Ideal

New small turkey makes tender holiday roast.

By GAYNOR MADOX
NEA Staff Writer

Those new 2 1/2 to 6-pound (ready to cook) turkeys are perfect for the small family Thanksgiving dinner. They can be broiled, fried or stuffed and roasted. They have become very popular and many families serve two on a platter just to make sure there will be "big eating" all around the table.

Stuffing and Trussing: Rub cavity of bird with 1/2 to 1 teaspoon salt. Stuff body and wishbone cavities lightly. Close by placing skewers across the body opening and lacing shut with cord. Tie drumstick securely to tail. Fasten neck skin to back with skewer. Shape wings "akimbo" style, bringing tips

Thanksgiving Dinner Ideas For '2 Or 12'

Have Thanksgiving at home this year and let your husband get set for the carving. Whether there's dinner for two or twelve, plan to cook it yourself. You'll enjoy the dinner more if you do! A small or half turkey for two; a picture-book turkey for eight or twelve, but fashion the dinner after the Thanksgiving dinner you best remember, then have yourself a time.

If your turkey order's in... better check on your supply of cranberry sauce, for there are many colorful cranberry salad ideas that you'll want to try.

And make the salad or salads the day before Thanksgiving. Tuck them away in the refrigerator, and they'll be ready at "Turkey Time" the next day.

FESTIVE TREATS FOR THANKSGIVING CALLERS

Pop corn and Thanksgiving are long time friends of historical fame. The history books have it that the first white settlers were introduced to pop corn by the Indians when they brought the "magic, dancing, exploding corn," to the well-known first Thanksgiving festivity.

And you can serve it during the Thanksgiving season in a gay new way—with raisins, candied cherries and nuts mingled in the tasty pop corn balls and bars, along with your favorite beverage.

Eastern New Mexico Lake Bed Discloses New Record Of Life

WASHINGTON —(AP)— A scientist offered new evidence Saturday that the famed Folsom Man probably wasn't America's first settler.

Dr. E. H. Sellards, director of the Texas Memorial Museum at Austin, says a lake bed in Eastern New Mexico, near Clovis, has disclosed a new record of human life—the "Llano Man"—in the southwest 10,000 or more years ago.

Many scientists have believed North and South America were peopled by human beings from Northeast Asia at a time when the great sheets of ice of the Ice Age still covered northern areas.

In 1925 and again in 1927 some ancient stone arrow or spear points were discovered near Folsom, N. M. Similar ones were found near Fort Collins, Colo. Scientists decided they were used by a primitive man who lived in America more than 10,000 years ago, probably America's "first settler" of "modern times." They called him the Folsom Man. No skeletons of this man ever have been found.

Dr. Sellards told the Geological Society of America Saturday the lake bed in the Clovis-Portales region contains the sediment from four eras in time. One is laid over the top of the other. Three contain human relics and the remains of animal skeletons. He said this is the first time such a distinct cross-section of early Southwestern history has been found.

Dr. Sellards said the bottom layer of gray sand contains the remains of ancient elephants, horses and bison, long extinct. Mingled with them are bone implements and stone points, similar to put distinguishable from Folsom points.

The layer of earth containing Folsom points is above that of the new find.

Dr. Sellards says this is proof that the relics in the bottom layer are from an age older than that of Folsom Man, and represent a different culture. He calls this the Llano culture because evidence of it occurs in the Llano Estacado (Staked Plains) region of Texas and New Mexico.

The stone weapon tips are called Clovis-fluted points. They have been found elsewhere in the West but never before under conditions which indicated their vast age.

Dr. Sellards said he cannot estimate the period of time that separates the Folsom Man from the Llano Man but it may be measured in centuries.

Province Holds Onto Its Coat Of Arms

VIENNA—(AP)—When a local publisher asked permission of the seven Austrian provinces to use their coats of arms on a commercial catalogue, six of them agreed. The province of Styria, however, refused. The Styrian coat of arms is a white lion on a green background.

PROLONGS LIFE

Daily siring of blankets in use not only is a good sanitary practice but helps them last longer and hold their fluffy warmth and comfort.

Buy smooth well-shaped sweet potatoes; if they are misshapen, or have growth cracks, you'll waste some of the potato when you prepare it.

The publisher then wrote the Styrian governor. Instead of the white lion, he said, he would use a white horse—the symbol of official red tape in Austria. The governor immediately brought charges against him of "inciting to rebellion."

The charges were dismissed by a Viennese court, and the catalogue will appear with a white horse where a white lion ought to be. The editor thinks he may stick a pencil behind the horse's left ear.

Christmas Shopping Due To Set Record If Merchants Hustle

BY RADER WINGET

NEW YORK—(AP)—Christmas shopping this year looks like the best ever if merchants get out and hustle for business.

Christmas business last year in the department store field eclipsed the all-time high of the year before. And this year is regarded by retailers as a certainty to set a new high dollar volume record at Christmas.

A good part of the rise in total business over the last two years has been accounted for by the advancing prices, but the physical volume of business also has been on the upgrade.

Those rising prices may make totals higher but they also increase the sales resistance of each customer. That is one of the big reasons why merchants this year say they must get out and work hard.

their heavier newspaper advertising schedules and sales promotions two weeks earlier than usual. Right after Thanksgiving Day is the traditional time to begin the Christmas sales push.

No Shortages Yet

This shopping season there are more things in the stores than ever before. There aren't any shortages yet. People have more money to spend than ever before.

But don't get the idea everything is lovely in the retail business. It isn't. Merchants will tell you it takes a smart man to manage his store wisely, keep his customers happy and make a profit.

They haven't had much time to try to work them down, but they hope that when this Christmas season is over inventories will be in balance. The fact that replacement prices later may be higher hasn't caused much excitement. As one retailer said: "We're merchants, not speculators. It's our job to sell goods, not juggle inventories."

In line with that trend was the absence of scare buying recently when the Chinese Communists revived fears that the Korean war would be extended.

Retailers have been through a lot in the last few months and they face a considerable array of uncertainties in the future.

For the television snack tray serve pale dry ginger ale mixed either with pineapple juice or with canned apricot nectar; use half ginger ale and half fruit juice and pour over ice cubes.

Canned applesauce is a fine food to have on your emergency shelf. Serve it for breakfast with scrambled eggs and bacon, with pork sausages, or with crisp ready-to-eat cereal. Dust it with cinnamon and grated lemon or orange rind for a luncheon dessert. Or let it accompany pork chops or baked ham for dinner.

Three wonderful new dishes have appeared in the frozen food field. They are lasagne, spaghetti and meat balls, and macaroni shells with a delicate butter and cheese sauce. All you have to do is to heat one of these fine dishes, add a green salad, crusty rolls, coffee and fruit, and you have a quick, delicious meal. These new frozen products will be available in specialty stores.

Drinks In Washington Contribute Directly To Medical Research

SEATTLE—(AP)—Every time you buy a drink of hard liquor in this state, you contribute a fraction of a cent directly to medical and biological research.

This drink money, $800,000 this year, goes wholly to two great schools, the University of Washington and the State College of Washington.

Buying drinks over the bar in Washington was not permitted until two years ago. Then a new law made single-shot drinking legal, and this law directed that all the license fees should go to the two classes of research. The University of Washington gets 60 per cent, because it has the only medical school.

License fees range from $1,000 to $300. Expenses of administration are deducted before the proceeds are delivered to science. Washington is the first state to allocate bar money directly to research. In some other states liquor revenues go for research, but it appears that the Washington sum is larger than elsewhere, or soon will be.

Net All At Once

The research drink money is expected to reach about a million dollars a year as soon as the new bar system has time to grow. The bars were not all established at once in all eligible numbers.

It would be a mistake to think that science can be used as an excuse for taking too many drinks. The number you buy does not increase the scientific revenue. The state and schools get only the license fees, regardless of how many are sold—or how few. But the fact is that in some bars about a third of a cent from each drink goes to pay a $1,000 license.

Already almost 150 different research projects are supported wholly or in part by liquor revenue. Several are on the effects of liquor, including search for ways to immunize people against becoming drunkards. There are no strings on the money—the universities can spend the coin on any kind of medical or biological research they choose.

Chinese Will Fly For Great Britain

SINGAPORE—(AP)—A young Singapore Chinese may become the RAF's first officer-cadet from this part of the world since the war ended. Lim Chin Seng, son of a businessman, is flying to London to appear before an Air Ministry selection board. Lim, 20, already has passed medical tests and a selection board in Singapore, so he is not expected to have any trouble making the grade in London.

Lim was recommended to the governor of Singapore by the principal of Cadets Institution as a suitable entrant under a British government scheme for selecting and training candidates for the services from the colonies.

SERVE CABBAGE RAW

Serve cabbage raw often because a generous portion of cole slaw provides a fair amount of necessary vitamin C. When you cook cabbage most of its vitamin C is destroyed.

Next time you serve mince meat tarts, try putting a thin slice of quick-melting yellow cheese over each, then put the tarts in a moderate oven until the cheese is melted. Serve right away.

Indo-China Is Hot Spot

The Chinese Communists have turned down a United Nations invitation to discuss before the Security Council their intervention in the Korean war.

There can't be any great surprise in this. They could not have denied the presence of their troops in Korea, since they have broadcast appeals for "volunteers" for all the world to hear.

But all but one of their possible excuses would not have carried much weight in the UN. There is evidence that a good many nations, including the United States, would have given consideration to the Reds' obvious interest in the power dams on the Korean side of the Manchurian border.

Yet the chances are Mao Tse-tung has other aims as well, which would not stand UN scrutiny. As many observers have suggested, he may want to prolong the war through the bitter Winter, to help Reds generally to regain some of their lost prestige in the Far East.

He couldn't easily talk of such things to the Security Council. If he chose to speak only of China's worries over power dams, he might find himself embarrassed by a UN promise to safeguard his interests there.

That the Reds have decided not to come indicates pretty strongly that the dams are only part of the story. And they much prefer to keep the rest of the world guessing as to what the other parts are.

As Communist forces continue to advance in Indo-China to the south, a new theory is emerging that the whole Korean operation may, in the Reds' view, be merely a diversion. The real show is Indo-China, some experts are saying.

According to this version, everything the Communists are doing outside that French-defended land is aimed at distracting the United States, Britain and other potential allies of France.

It's argued that for the future of all Southeast Asia Indo-China is vastly more important than Korea or Tibet or Formosa. Indo-China in Red hands might open up India, Burma, Malaya and Indonesia to relatively easy Communist conquest.

Since no western nation has any wish to invade Red China and get involved in a war with her hordes of soldiers, Mao is definitely in a position to thumb his nose at the West. We have no choice but to go on guessing his motives.

But on the chance that he is trying to distract us and scatter our strength, we can at least deny him the opportunity of making Formosa an effective part of his smoke-screen.

Though he refused to send anyone to the UN to discuss Korea, he has agreed to dispatch a delegation to talk about Formosa. It's plain any such representatives will only unleash a propaganda bombardment against the West, resigned to suggest the U. S. has "invaded" Chinese soil.

We should refuse to play the game. We should insist that any Chinese Reds who come before the UN talk first about Korea and secondly about Formosa. If they will not, they should be denied an opportunity to employ the UN for their own imperial aims. They should be sent back to Peking without gaining the UN's ear for so much as a minute.

Our strategic position, with respect to Mao is not strong: The least we can do is to take advantage of such aces as we have.

Hats Off To Eagles

The Fraternal Order of Eagles gave a heartening display of human compassion the other day. The organization handed the President a $1,000 check to start a Harry S. Truman Foundation for the health and educational welfare of the children of "those men who die while serving so faithfully in protecting the life of our President."

Such a fund would, of course, be of immediate and specific benefit to the young stepdaughter of Pvt. Leslie Coffelt, the White House guard who gave his life in defending Truman against assassination.

It's a good idea, and the Eagles ought to get a lot of help on it from sympathetic people all over the country.

It's nice for folks to be important in their own way—until they get in the way of others.

The more you lean on somebody else the leaner your chances of success.

In all work, advises a professor, put your heart and soul into it. Your head and hands might help, too.

When you know the ropes of your business well enough, you're not tied down.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: U. S. cities far ahead of Washington in preparing for A-bomb attack; Truman still has not appointed Civil Defense chief; Mrs. Anna Rosenberg boomed for Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON — With Russia now building up a stockpile of approximately 25 atomic bombs and with the cold war turned into a hot war in one part of the world, the federal government is lagging far behind American cities in preparing against atomic attack.

As of today, President Truman still has not appointed a chief for Civil Defense, and present civil defense planning temporarily is in the hands of Stuart Symington's brother-in-law, likeable but inexperienced J. J. Wadsworth.

Meanwhile, the American Municipal Association has prepared a confidential survey of civil defense plans showing considerable criticism of Washington for dragging its feet. The survey also shows that 150 key cities are going ahead with their own defense plans, with two cities—Norfolk, Va., and San Mateo, Calif., claiming to be 75 per cent ready for atomic attack.

Meanwhile, many large cities, such as San Francisco, San Diego, Schenectady and Wichita, have hired full-time civil defense directors, with other smaller towns—Niagara Falls, N. Y., Jackson, Mich., and Wilmington, N. C.—are relying on volunteer directors.

Unlabeled, Pa., has organized its beauty shops as first-aid centers in case of emergency. San Angelo, Texas, is ready to draft its taxicabs and bus system for emergency evacuation. El Paso, Texas, has made a pact with Juarez across the Mexican border for mutual aid in case of atomic attack.

Evacuation centers. A few smaller cities near big cities voluntarily are setting up machinery to handle evacuees. For example, Bloomington, Ind., is preparing to care for evacuees from near-by Indianapolis and Louisville. Kingston and Oswego, N. Y., also regard themselves as evacuation depots for bigger New York cities.

Evacuation plans also have been worked out by San Diego and Southgate, Calif., Mount Vernon and New Rochelle, N. Y., Dearborn and Wyandotte, Mich., Salisbury, N. C., Adianto, Ga., Fargo, N. D., and Newton Mass.

One of the best-prepared cities is Schenectady, N. Y., which has even figured the bridge loads and clearances on emergency, escape routes from the city. Schenectady also is preparing to recruit volunteer air raid wardens, stretcher bearers and rescue squads.

At least three cities—Seattle, Chicago, and Washington, D. C.—have staged mock bombings to test their civil defense systems. San Diego, Calif., and Revere, Mass., are using television to explain civil defense to the public. Many other cities, such as St. Paul, Minn., Richmond, Calif., and Auburn, N. Y., are putting out their own disaster manuals.

The chief complaint from the cities is lack of coordination and cooperation from the federal government. Though only 50 per cent of the cities commented on civil defense needs, "31 per cent believed the primary deficiency is lack of detailed information and plans from the higher level of government. Responsibility for lack of information generally was laid upon the federal government rather than the state government."

"Many cities feel keenly the lack of training manuals. Many felt that the federal government has been inordinately slow in producing mater-

Questions and Answers

Q—Is an atomic bomb's explosion comparable to an earthquake?

A—It would require a million conventional atomic bombs (containing 22 pounds of fissionable material) to release as much energy as a "strong" earthquake.

Q—How many living five-star generals are there?

A—Gen. Omar N. Bradley's promotion to five-star rank made him the fourth. Others are Gen. George Marshall, Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Q—What diplomat named Malik is very popular in Washington circles?

A—He's Charles Malik, Minister from Lebanon. No relation to Russia's Jake Malik.

Q—What's the ratio of Air Force generals to other ranks?

A—One general for every 2,085 men of other ranks.

Q—What is the "bride-stay" in a man's jacket?

A—A long, narrow strip of cloth sewn where the lapel meets the body of the jacket. It helps control the lapel's roll.

So They Say

A long life has taught me that social change can not be prevented but that it can be justly regulated and controlled for the benefit of all.

We must also hope that the forces of the free people of the world will not become too deeply involved in the Far East because the dangers there are on a very small scale compared to those which tower up against us on the continent of Europe.

No one is born with tendencies to be bored or lazy. These symptoms are the by-products of fear. They are manifestations... of the fear of action.

Korea disproved the theory of a push-button war. The man on the ground still wins the war.

Paradoxical McCarran Act. Few people realize all the problems Senator Pat McCarran has created by his hurriedly written, so-called anti-Communist law.

For instance, Romuila Betancourt, ex-president of Venezuela and long-time resident of the United States, recently flew to Havana to organize a Western Hemisphere peace conference in support of the United States.

So when Betancourt went to the American Embassy in Havana to apply for a re-entry visa, he was denied one under the McCarran act. Finally, the State Department permitted this good friend of the U. S. A. to come to Washington for 30 days only to close his house, then move to Havana permanently.

The State Department also is disturbed because Emilio Surri Castillo, speaker of the Cuban House of Representatives and secretary general of the powerful Cuban Sugar Workers, now has been denied a visa to the United States because he was once a member of the Cuban Communist Party for a brief period in the 1930's.

THEY had been seasick all night getting there. All but Buck Sergeant Edward Engstrom. The responsibility of commanding a squad had doubtless lifted his mind above the internal turmoil stirred up by the sea.

In the lee of the island there was a calm approach to the beach. By the pre-dawn's early light it did not look like a very good place to land. Geysers of sand spouted into the air every few seconds as if belched up by noisy submarine monsters. The enemy artillery hidden in the steaming jungle was checking on the range.

"Eddie," said Private Jake Snyder, tightening his belt again—"I don't know for sure what's the matter with me but I guess I'm scared pantsless."

"Who ain't?" conceded Sergeant Eddie. He wished he could put his hand under his chin to steady it. "Put your mind on sompin' else. Pretend like the beach there is the shore of Lake Michigan near Westwaygo where we used to go swimmin'."

"You can take Westwaygo and stuff it under your neckties," snapped Pfc. Joseph Smith.

Smith, the only man in the squad who hadn't belonged to the national guard company when it had been mustered in from the Michigan town of Westwaygo, was a replacement from Syracuse, N. Y. Joseph Smith never answered to that name except at roll-call. He was known to his immediate commander as Joe College. He had attended Columbia University a couple of years before his draft board had snatched him away to study geopolitics by the laboratory method.

"Only thing I wish," said Sergeant Eddie. "I wish I had my good-luck coin in my pocket."

"Yeah!" Joe College again. "Why ain't you got it?"

"I left it in Westwaygo," Sergeant Eddie explained, "in the bus I used to drive."

THE barge grounded on a bar. The landing-ramp dropped forward into the shallow water and the small tank which was up in the bow bobbed out and wallowed ashore. The infantrymen either dropped over the sides of the barge or followed the tank on the ramp. There was no comfort in being near the armored vehicle though because it immediately became a lightning rod for artillery fire.

Other barges were spilling soldiers and armored equipment along the narrow strip of beach. The Navy, standing off shore, was lobbing shells over their heads. Doing a good job too, because the enemy guns began to quiet down. Before that happened the Japs got a hit on the tank but none of Engstrom's squad was killed. Jake Snyder got a rifle bullet through the meaty part of his thigh but it missed the arteries and bones. Mostly it made him mad. Credibly it cured him of his seasickness and fear.

Eddie sent Jake over to the medical detachment to have them look at his wound. Jake came back in a minute. The Doc had just sprinkled sulpha in it and marked him "Duty." He couldn't have men with minor injuries clattering up the place when life and death cases were apt to come in any minute.

An hour or so after sunrise the landing party had reached its objective. Orders were to dig in and wait for reinforcements. The Navy was going to go after more troops and equipment to help hold the beachhead.

"That was for our field hospital. Another coming. Duck!" The second bomb, none of them heard.

made themselves a cozy little home—a w. y. from home—as the tourist cabin used to say. A couple of American machine gun posts were on the left and half of a mortar battery on the right.

EDDIE ENGSTROM was a good non-commissioned officer, not too long on brains but a good man to carry out orders. He looked after his squad with just the right shade of paternal solicitude. They all liked him, even Joe College who grumbled about everything—his natural disposition bubbling to the top.

Eddie, 30, was the oldest man in the squad. He was also the biggest, the tallest man in the entire company for that matter, and he had hands like steam shovels.

Most of the boys had never been away from their fathers and mothers until the war came along. Their families were the substantial middle-strata citizens of Westwaygo. Jake Snyder's father was foreman at the bus line shops, Oscar Mahoney's dad ran the Westwaygo News. Lloyd Nelson was the son of the superintendent of schools. Jim Hilton's family worked for the city. Mr. Hilton as policeman and his wife as secretary to the mayor. The mayor himself had a son in the outfit, Private Orman Berglund. Sergeant Eddie was the only one who didn't have parents living. The nearest thing to a relative that Eddie had was Mrs. Downing who ran the boarding house where he slept and had breakfast.

Many of the families attended the Swedish Lutheran Church of which Carl Peterson's father was the pastor. Carl, the only married man on the squad, was Eddie's best pal.

"Chin up, soldier," advised Eddie when he caught Carl glooming. "Why ain't you in there pitching about Kirsten like you usually do when there's a bull session?" Kirsten was Carl's wife.

"Lemme alone," growled Carl. "Sure. I just thought it might do you good to talk to somebody about that little house you're goin' to buy when you get back."

"No." Then all at once Carl's pent-up misery burst the food gates. "I got a letter from Kirsten just before we left yesterday. She's goin' to have a baby."

"Well," Eddie pounded his pal on the back. "That's what you wanted—" Eddie stopped. The sudden thought which had struck him blurted out. "But we been away over a year now."

"Yeah. Kirsten didn't want to tell me about it but you can't keep a thing like that secret—even with censors. Somebody would have written to one of the other guys sooner or later."

"Who?" Eddie began. Carl shook his head. "I guess maybe I don't want to find out. I'll kill a Jap instead."

Eddie tried to think of something consoling. "Well it's all over now. You'll forget about it." Carl looked at him incredulously. "Good Lord, Eddie, a wife is a part of a guy and when a thing like this happens—" He let the primitive black lightning shuttle through his soul for a moment. Then he crammed the spectre back into his lacerated breast. "Even if nobody ever fired a shot at us, this is sure a tough war for married guys."

EDDIE was glad for the diversion. It disturbed Eddie to have his best friend unhappy. It seemed like an unnecessary addition to the physical discomforts of war. Why did women have to complicate men's lives—or vice versa? He supposed that probably girls got themselves in a state over guys. He had never had a girl himself excepting temporarily sometimes Saturday nights. In Eddie's lexicon women were strictly expendable.

"Know where I'd like to be," said Jake Snyder, mopping his forehead with a leaf—his handkerchief was worn out—"I'd like to be sittin' on the dunes out at Lakeview Beach."

"Yeah?" from Joe College. "What's Lakeview Beach got that's different from here?"

"Jake was practically inarticulate. He was so anxious to tell him. There's clean sand there and water without any salt in it. No bugs, neither. No malaria. No snakes. Lakeview Beach is heaven."

"That," said Joe. "I would have to see."

The constant, buzzing hum of the insects was being slowly augmented by a deeper, sustained reverberation. "Take cover!" warned Eddie. "Planes coming!"

"Not ours," repeated Jake. "That was meant for our field hospital back there. Another coming. Duck!"

That second bomb none of them heard. (To Be Continued.)

Daddy Ringtail :: By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And I Ee I Oh

"Old MacDonald has a farm, ee I ee I oh!" Those are the famous words of a famous song about a famous man! Oh, but once in the long ago, when Old MacDonald was barely old enough to be "Old" MacDonald, he didn't have a farm at all. All he had was a room downstairs in a big house where a man lived upstairs.

Yes, and I'm sorry to say that Old MacDonald and the man upstairs were always playing tricks upon one another. Why, one night right at bedtime, Old MacDonald was there in his room, waiting with a big bass drum. A drumstick was in his hand, and he was waiting to hear the bump of the man's shoes on the floor upstairs. "Bump!" There one shoe was off and dropped to the floor upstairs. "Bump!" There the other shoe was off and dropped against the floor beside the first shoe. Yes, and so the man upstairs was now without his shoes on. He was ready to go to bed and do his sleeping, and so Old MacDonald began with the drum. "Boom-de-de-boom! Boom-de-de-boom!"

And how could the man upstairs ever sleep with all the booming down below? He couldn't, not with the booming going on. Old MacDonald boomed and laughed and laughed and boomed.

Yes, and again the next night, Old MacDonald was ready and waiting with his drum to do it again. He held the drumstick up in the air, all ready to do the booming. "Bump!" There was one of the man's shoes that had dropped against the floor, and so one of the shoes was off.

Old MacDonald was ready and waiting for the other shoe to bump. He waited, and waited, and waited all night long. Where oh where was the noise of bump when the other shoe dropped on the floor?

It wasn't at all. Oh no, because the man up there had slept all night with the other shoe on, all to fool our Old MacDonald and play a trick upon him.

Yes, and Old MacDonald felt so foolish about the thing that had happened, straight away he went to the country and bought a farm. And it all will show you, I think, that things most often happen hapless, because now we have the famous words of the famous song about a famous man: "Old MacDonald has a farm! Ee I ee I oh! Happy Day!" (Copyright 1950, General Feature Corp.)

TV TRAVELS 200 MILES

SPRINGFIELD, MO.—(AP)—Down here in the Ozark hills, 150 miles from the nearest television station, television programs are coming in strong, despite the accepted rule that a telecast may be seen normally in a radius of only 50 or 60 miles. As a result, TV antennas are sprouting from houses as far as 200 miles from the stations in Kansas City or Oklahoma.

MUSTN'T TOUCH

TORONTO.—(AP)—Eggs laid by hens in the poultry exhibit at the Royal Winter Fair aren't to be casually picked up. They're bottled to prevent unauthorized persons using them for hatching purposes. Then mostly used for feed.

Avery's has the men and equipment to repair any type of radio. Service is completely guaranteed here.

Apple Salad With Melba Toast

COLORFUL SALAD DISH—apple rings with cottage cheese and coconut salad dressing.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer
Chicago eats good. I learned that first hand at Imperial House and The Butterly, two of its gold-plated gourmet havens.

Thin slices of salty rye bread, paper thin, are buttered and dusted liberally with celery salt. Then the tasty little slices are sent to a hot oven to crisp up into something something that isn't beef once in a while.

This is hospitable Mary's recipe:
Apple Ring Salad
(4 Servings)
Two red cooking apples, 3/4 cup sugar, 3/4 cup water, 1 cup cottage cheese, coconut salad dressing. Slice apples crosswise in 1/2-inch slices. Remove cores. Simmer apple rings, a few at a time, in boiling water 2 minutes. Meanwhile, combine sugar and water and bring to a boil. Remove apple rings from boiling water and transfer to boiling syrup. Cook gently in syrup until apples are tender. Remove from syrup. Continue boiling syrup until thickened. Pour over cooked apple rings to glaze. Chill. Syrup may be tinted red if desired. Arrange crisp lettuce on salad plates. Place one apple ring on top of lettuce on each plate. Top each apple ring with cottage cheese and additional apple ring. Serve with coconut salad dressing.

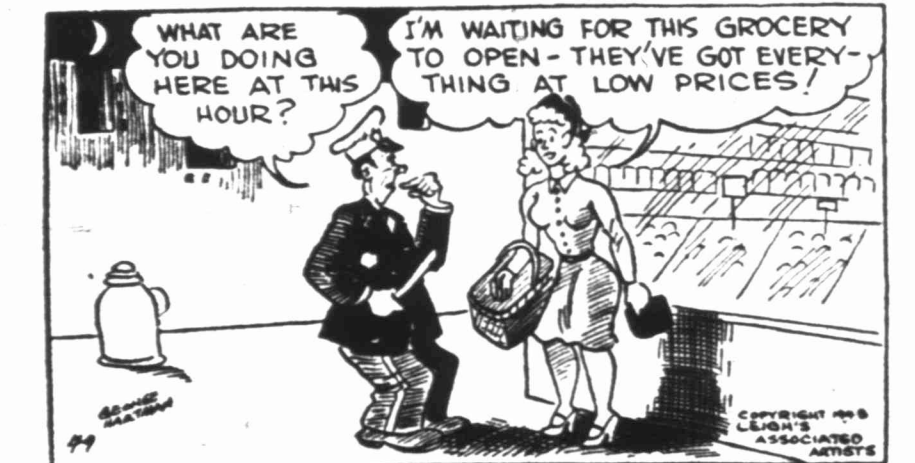

Coconut Salad Dressing
(Makes 1 cup salad dressing)
Two tablespoons salad dressing, 1/2 cup cream, whipped, dash of salt, 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice, 1/4 cup coconut, shredded.
Fold salad dressing into whipped cream. Add remaining ingredients and serve with fruit dessert salad.

Flying Tigers Airline Transports DP's

SINGAPORE —(P)—The Flying Tigers Airline is making 16 trips to Australia via Singapore from Germany carrying displaced persons to new homes. Poles, Hungarians and Ukrainians—many of whom have spent years in displaced persons camps, or fled from Iron Curtain countries—make up many of the transports.
The airline is operated by Gen. Claire Chennault of the famed Flying Tigers of China.

OLD-FASHION FLAVOR
A new nutmeg grinder on the market gives old-fashion flavor to many foods. Try grinding a bit of the fresh, flavorful spice over such vegetables as spinach and nutmeg; and over such desserts as apple or peach cobbler, pear pie and vanilla ice cream.

In preparing broccoli cut off the woody end of the stalks and any coarse lower leaves. If the ends of the stalks are large, split them with a small sharp knife so they will cook as quickly as the tender upper part. Put about an inch of salted boiling water in a saucepan and add the broccoli; cover and cook quickly for about 15 minutes or just until tender. Serve with a butter sauce after draining.

MORE ALUMINUM FOR REARMAMENT—Newschart above shows how power companies intend to feed the great aluminum industry expansion being planned by Uncle Sam. Over nine million more kilowatts generating capacity will be needed to handle the growth program as well as similar ones in other industries. Civilian consumers of aluminum will not benefit, however. The National Production Authority has just ordered a 35 per cent cutback on aluminum for civilian use, effective Jan. 1.
