Barry Says He'll Seek Presidency

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater today declared himself a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

The Arizona conservative, ending months of speculation, made his declaration at his hill-top home overlooking Phoenix.

Goldwater, who turned 55 on New Year's Day and who long has been a spokesman for the conservative cause, broke the official news first to a group of Arizona Republican leaders at his home.

Sources close to the senator reported in advance of the declaration that Goldwater was said to feel he must formally enter the presidential race because of a groundswell of support and the hundreds of thousands of dollars raised by his conservative followers across the nation.

A Goldwater associate also said the senator plans to file for his third Senate term but that he will withdraw from that race if he wins the GOP presidential nomination.

Goldwater's declaration today put him into the race with New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, the only other announced GOP candidate, who already has been campaigning in New Hampshire—where voters will ballot March 10 in the nation's first presidential primary.

The Goldwater camp said the senator also will launch a campaign in New Hampshire soon.

Pope Leaves On Trek Saturday

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI came today to the eve of his history-making pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

Throughout the Vatican, last-minute details of the papal trip were being attended to.

At Rome's Fiumicino Airport, the new four-engine DC8 that will carry the Pope to Amman, Jordan, Saturday was readied for its final test flight.

The Jordanians hung the ancient walls of Jerusalem's Old City with flags. Jordan's government called out a fourth of its security forces, including two brigades of tough desert troops, to patrol the papal routes.

Talks Mapped For Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Feuding Greek and Turkish Cypriots will join in a conference with Britain, Greece and Turkey in London late this month in an effort to end the bloodshed on Cyprus and preserve the island republic.

Archbishop Makarios, Greek Cypriot president of Cyprus, and Dr. Fazil Kutchuk, Turkish Cypriot vice president, agreed Thursday night to send representatives. Their decisions came after a day of intensive diplomatic activity by Britain's on-the-spot mediator, Commonwealth Secretary Duncan Sandys.

Sandys flew back to London for personal report to Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and the British Cabinet.

"There will be problems and things may go wrong," Sandys told newsmen in London, "but I think the situation is under control."

He warned of the possibility of more fighting, saying, "there is a large number of irregulars who are not controlled by any of the people who will be sitting around the table."

Exact date of the conference has not been announced. After the opening session, a committee of Greek and Turkish Cypriot representatives will be formed to work with a British chairman on proposals for revising the Cypriot constitution and the treaties linking Britain, Greece and Turkey to the Mediterranean island.

Acceptance of the British proposal for a peace conference came 12 days after the outbreak of renewed fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots, who long have regarded each other with enmity.

LBJ Hails Low Level Of Strikes

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson said today the nation "has experienced an unparalleled era of industrial peace."

Johnson said this in praising a report from the Bureau of Labor Statistics on strikes facts for 1963.

"Since 1960," said the President, "we have experienced a sustained low level of strike activity unmatched in any comparable peacetime period. Fewer workers have been idled by strikes than during any comparable time since the war."

The report disclosed: Work stoppages in 1963 totaled about 3,400 compared with 3,614 a year earlier. The number of workers involved was 1,030,000, compared to 1,230,000 in 1962. Man-days of idleness last year amounted to 17.8 million, while in 1962 the figure was 18.6 million.

Johnson said this was "an indication of a growing maturity and responsibility in the collective bargaining process."

He said "Time lost due to strikes since 1960 has accounted for a lower percentage of all working time than during any comparable peacetime period since the depression."

These were the figures for the four years: 0.17 per cent in 1960; 0.14 in 1961; 0.16 in 1962, and 0.15 in 1963.

Johnson said the record illustrated the advance of "industrial democracy." He paid a tribute to the "vitality, the strength and the promise of the free enterprise system" which he said has demonstrated the ability of management and labor "to work out their destinies in a free and peaceful manner."

The President raised only one question in his statement: "The challenge presented by today's technology."

TOUGHEST JOB OF ALL

VACAVILLE, Calif. (AP)—If a convict can survive as a Little League umpire, he has a good chance of re-adjusting to society.

That's the thinking behind a program at the California Department of Corrections facility here, which is experimenting with a one-year program to prepare convicted violent criminals for parole by testing them in a variety of demanding and stressful jobs.

Umpiring Little League games is part of the stress.

"There's nothing tougher," says program director Werner J. Einstadter, "A Little League umpire hasn't got a friend, no matter what decision he makes. He can't win either way. Unless he holds his temper and wins parole."

KENNEDYS SHOW STRENGTH

Humphrey Tops Preferences For Demo Vice Presidency

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey topped the balloting, but results of a national poll of Democratic county chairmen heightened speculation that President Johnson's running mate may be someone closely identified with the late John F. Kennedy.

More specifically, several Johnson aides suggested today that the results added up to a plus for the potential candidacy of Sargent Shriver, Peace Corps director and brother-in-law of the assassinated President.

The poll, conducted by The Associated Press, turned up notable support for both Shriver and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as among the party's best choices for the November vice presidential nomination.

SENATE LEADER Humphrey, a Minnesotan who is assistant Senate Democratic leader, paced the balloting with 185 votes.

He said "I am honored and flattered by the national poll. It is always gratifying to have friendly consideration by your fellow Americans. The decision for vice president, however, will be made by the Democratic convention, which I am confident will respect the wishes in this matter of President Johnson."

Robert Kennedy, a close second with 166 votes, declined comment on the poll.

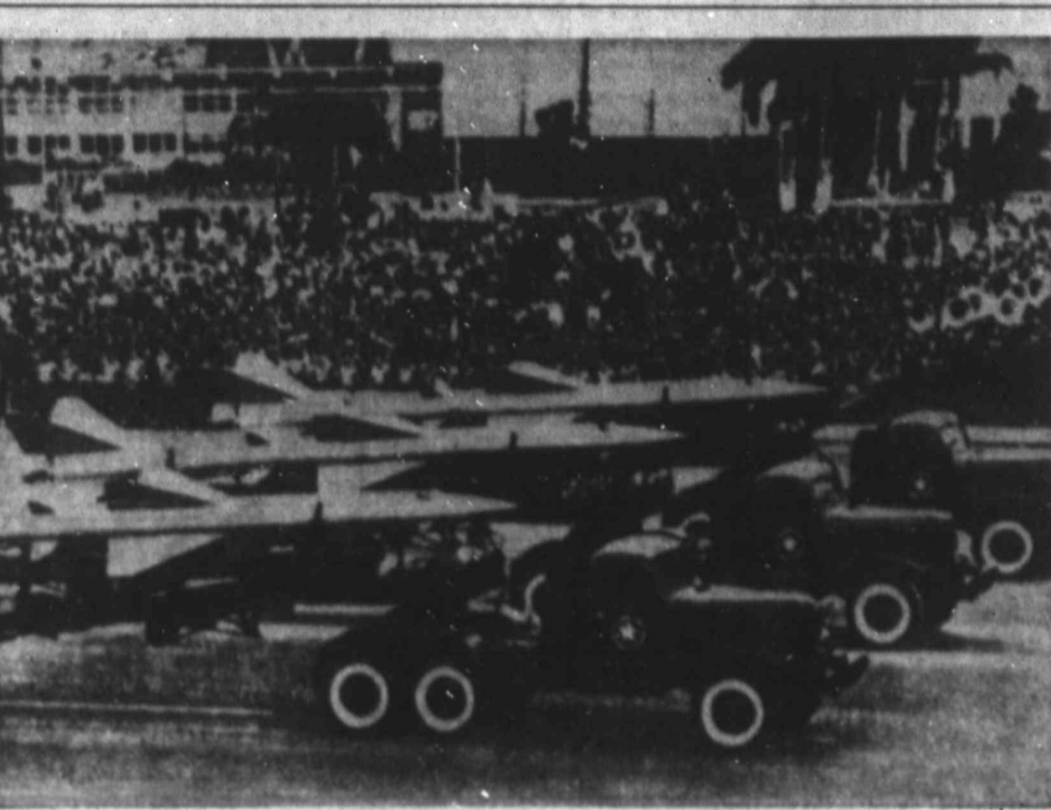

Shriver ranked fifth with 43

PAPER SAYS BUD TO QUIT

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—The Lincoln Star said Friday Bud Wilkinson will step down as football coach at the University of Oklahoma "within the next few days" and will be replaced by his assistant, Gomer Jones.

Wilkinson is reported weighing a decision on whether to remain at Oklahoma as athletic director or go into politics, the newspaper said.

Johnson's Budget Pegged Near Record $100 Billion

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson's new budget will be in the neighborhood of a record $100 billion, but he hopes to cut red ink spending below the current level.

The budget estimate for fiscal 1965, disclosed Thursday night by a White House source, is less than anticipated. Still, it will be a new peak for government spending.

Soon after taking office Johnson suggested he would have difficulty keeping the spending total below $102.5 billion or $103 billion. He blamed unavoidable increases already authorized by Congress.

WITH DRIVE
The reduced figure is in keeping with the economy drive he has called for since then.

Balanced against the $100 billion spending total for the government year that begins July 1 will be forecast revenues of more than $90 billion. Johnson will tell Congress that revenues on this scale are dependent on early enactment of an $11 billion tax cut retroactive to Jan. 1.

The combination of Johnson's spending and revenue predic-

NEW HIGH
A year ago, the late President John F. Kennedy recommended fiscal 1964 spending of $98.8 billion, a new high. Kennedy forecast revenues of $86.9 billion and a deficit of $11.9 billion.

Johnson kept his economy campaign rolling Thursday. Postmaster General John A. Gronouski was called to the White House to confer with the President and then told a news conference his department planned some savings.

The postal payroll will be trimmed by 5,000 workers in the next six months, Gronouski said, and fund requests for expansion and modernization of facilities will be reduced from $43 million to $10 million.

HOUSING BILL
The President also conferred with Robert C. Weaver, administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, who later told newsmen the administration will send Congress a comprehensive housing bill calling for a significant step up in the public housing program and expansion of Federal Housing Administration activities.

There also will be some brand new proposals, such as easy credit to help big subdivision developers put in water and sewer lines, and aid for low income families ousted by slum clearance activities.

TO RANCH
Summoned to the LBJ Ranch today were Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Asst. Secretary of Labor Esther Peterson, the highest ranking woman in government. It was learned she will be given an additional assignment as presidential assistant on consumer matters—a new post.

Thursday, Johnson signed a personal letter to be delivered to Pope Paul VI during the pontiff's Holy Land pilgrimage by Sargent Shriver, director of the Peace Corps. The message will be made public at a later date.

Negro Due At Auburn
AUBURN, Ala. (AP)—Underclassmen began registering for the winter quarter at Auburn University today while school officials waited to learn whether a Negro student will live on the campus.

The Negro, Harold A. Franklin, 21, of Montgomery, is scheduled to register in the graduate school Saturday under a federal court order compelling Auburn to admit him.

U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. still has under consideration Franklin's request for still another order to make campus housing available. Franklin went back to court after university officials refused him a dormitory room.

State troopers, cooperating with Auburn officials, have started to invoke the rigid security regulations drawn up to prevent violence when the century-old land-grant college enrolls its first Negro student.

Helmeted troopers will seal off the 1,781-acre campus as they did at the University of Alabama last June when two Negroes were admitted under federal court order.

MOST VOTES
The 10 potential candidates receiving the most votes were: Humphrey, 185; Kennedy, 166; Stevenson, 75; Wagner, 47; Shriver, 43; Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California, 37; Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, 28; Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut, 24; Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., 21, and Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, 14.

Others who received some support included Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Sen. Frank L. Lausche of Ohio, Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington and Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman.

Old Autos May Better Fishing
NEW YORK (AP)—The problem: What to do with old automobiles abandoned in city streets. There were 13,600 last year.

One solution: Dump them in the Atlantic Ocean off Long Island where they'd make homes for fish — as wrecks do — and perhaps improve the fishing.

Commissioner Frank J. Lucia of the Department of Sanitation said Thursday his idea may get serious consideration unless the price of scrap increases. Junk cars bring $5 each, C.O.D.

COMMIES PUMMEL Viet Nam Force
BEN SUC, Viet Nam (AP)—A battalion of South Vietnamese rangers waded through brush and grass for a surprise assault on a heavy concentration of Communist guerrillas.

As the rangers crossed the Saigon River, 30 miles northwest of the capital, they encountered only small arms fire. It looked like a sure government victory over the Viet Cong.

Instead, the Communists sprung a trap, and for six hours threatened the rangers with annihilation. Four rangers were killed, 17 were wounded, including a U.S. sergeant, and 30 still have not made it back to camp.

Only the rangers' superb fighting ability and training in the same tactics used by the Viet Cong averted a disaster. U.S. military advisers said after the action on New Year's Eve.

Target of the surprise attack was a Viet Cong battalion in Binh Duong Province.

The rangers crossed the Saigon River without incident. When the Communists put up heavier resistance, the rangers counterattacked, forcing the guerrillas back and swarming over their foxholes and entrenchments.

But the retreat obviously was meant to draw in the advancing rangers. From dug-in positions, the guerrillas opened a barrage of fire on the rangers, who were outnumbered 2-1.

The rangers tried to encircle the Viet Cong but lacked enough men.

As the rangers retreated, a dozen mortars opened fire from across the river. The Communists had taken over the foxholes and trenches between the rangers and the river.

The unit fought on, moving back from trench to trench. When they finally reached the river, they were bombarded for three more hours.

After darkness, the battalion pushed into the brush and waited for another Viet Cong attack. The attack never came. The battalion finally recrossed the river but the battle showed the Communists were as formidable as ever as the jungle war entered its fifth year.

Signal Hikes Plane Hopes
HONOLULU (AP)—A "Gibson Girl" transmitter with an hour-glass figure raised the hopes of searchers today as they combed the Pacific Ocean for the crew of a downed cargo plane.

Nine men aboard the missing C124 aircraft — eight Air Force men and a sailor — were believed adrift somewhere in a massive expanse of water, hundreds of miles from the nearest island.

A portable radio transmitter named because of its shape, the "Gibson Girl" transmitted distress signals which narrowed down the search area to an "L" shaped expanse of the Pacific roughly 750 nautical miles west of Hawaii.

The signals — strong on one occasion Thursday night when they were picked up by an inbound military Air Transport Service C124 Globemaster — led searchers to believe that at least some of the plane's occupants were alive.

Fourth, a commitment to solve all territorial disputes solely by peaceful means such as negotiations, mediation, conciliatory procedures, and also other peaceful means chosen by the parties concerned, in conformity with the United Nations Charter.

The Tass summary of the message added:

"The Soviet government is deeply convinced that an undertaking by states to settle territorial disputes by peaceful means only would go a long way toward putting international relations in order."

"It can be said with confidence that in the new situation created by the conclusion of an agreement on the renunciation by states of the use of force to settle territorial disputes it would be much easier to find a solution to other fundamental international problems. This applies above all to the problems of disarmament."

ACUTE FRICTIONS
The Soviet government has arrived at the conclusion that while continuing to work tirelessly for the solution of the problem of general and complete disarmament it would be useful simultaneously to redouble our efforts in eliminating acute frictions in relations between states and centers of tension."

The unlawful occupation of Taiwan (Formosa) by American troops must be terminated. The island is an inalienable part of the People's Republic of China and would have been reunified with it long since were it not for the external interference of another state" (meaning the United States).

Khrushchev also singled out Korea, Viet Nam and Germany as areas where the use of force in settling frontier disputes should be renounced.

The territorial claims of "revenge-seeking states" which were the aggressors in the second World War must be absolutely rejected as incompatible with the interests of peace, because nothing but a new world war may grow out of these claims."

Note By Nikita Outlines Project

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government has put to the nations of the world a proposal to sign an international agreement renouncing the use of force in settling territorial and frontier issues.

A Tass digest of the message said Khrushchev had told world leaders in messages delivered Thursday:

"At the present time such a situation has arisen when it is possible to practically pose and solve the problem of excluding from international life the use of force in territorial disputes between states."

The message says the international agreement should contain four main provisions:

NO FORCE
First, a solemn undertaking by the parties not to resort to force to alter existing state frontiers;

Second, acknowledgment that the territories of states should not, even temporarily, be the object of any invasion, attack, military occupation or any other forcible measure directly or indirectly undertaken by other states for whatever political, economic, strategic, frontier, or any other considerations;

LBJ Maps Cotton Acreage Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson Administration is expected to broaden its cotton legislative recommendations to further reduce production as well as making the crop more competitively priced in domestic fiber markets.

An Agriculture Department spokesman outlined Thursday a proposed voluntary acreage diversion program, designed to cut cotton production this year and next below market needs to make room for the large surplus stocks.

Under this plan, growers would be paid $40 to $50 an acre on a national average basis for underplanting their cotton allotments. This is similar to an acreage diversion program now in use for reducing grain surpluses.

ADVANTAGE

Under recommendations of the Kennedy administration, Congress started work last session on legislation to eliminate a price advantage foreign buyers of U. S. cotton have over domestic buyers. Foreign buyers get the benefit of an export subsidy.

The Johnson administration will continue to press for legislation to meet this price problem. The department spokesman said, however, the greatest need is for legislation to control an excessive buildup in surplus cotton stocks.

The present cotton control program does not permit national planting allotments to be less than 16 million acres. This allotment has been producing too much. As a consequence, reserve and surplus supplies nearly double the reserves needed. The proposed acreage diversion plan met immediate resistance. A spokesman said the American Farm Bureau Federation would oppose it, since it has constantly criticized the grain acreage diversion plan. It contends this solution to the surplus problem is ineffective and too costly.

Under the cotton diversion plan, farmers would idle at least 20 per cent of their allotments. They could not divert more than 50 per cent. Farmers with allotments of 15 acres or less—About 70 per cent of the cotton farms—could divert their entire allotment under the payment plan.

Payments on the diverted acres would be around 10.5 cents a pound on their normal yield of cotton. Funds would be obtained from sale of surplus government cotton. Officials figure the plan would cut this year's prospective crop of 13.8 million bales to 10.8 million. Surpluses would be sold to help fill demands.

Officials estimated such a program would cut costs of government cotton programs at least $200 million a year. This year's cotton program will cost about $725 million.

Change Of Viewpoint

DEAR ABBY: I read a letter in your column from a married couple who had been counseled during some marital difficulties by their clergyman. They said there was no mention of a fee, so they didn't know whether to wait for a bill or to send him a check to show their appreciation for his help. You replied, "Since no fee was mentioned there probably was none. Send a check to the church for their building fund or missionary work. Churches can always use money."

Well, what about clergymen? They can use money, too, and most of them need it desperately. It was like telling people if they want to show their appreciation for the fine service they had at a hotel to send a "tip" to Conrad Hilton. Please reverse yourself.

A CLERGYMAN'S WIFE: DEAR WIFE: Now that you put it that way, I think you're right. I am hereby reversing myself.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl who is almost 14, and I like a boy who is 15. He acts like he likes me when there is nobody around, but as soon as he gets with his friends, or when anybody else is there, he acts like he doesn't care anything about me. But when I look at him it is as though his eyes are saying, "I love you." What does this mean?

DEAR THRILLED: It doesn't mean a thing, Honey. In this case, the "eyes" don't have it. What does his MOUTH say?

DEAR ABBY: When I was 17 I married a man 37. We had 2 sons, and stayed married for six years. After we were divorced I met a man my age and we were married. My ex-husband and I remained friendly because of our son. My ex-husband got sick and asked if he could come to live with us until he got better. My husband said yes. I took care of him. Well, it has been eight years and he's still here. He is now 77 and drinks seven nights a week. He gets a pension and also some income from property. My husband drinks with him and won't work any more. Now I have two drinking men in the house, nobody works, and we all live off my ex-husband. Can this problem be solved?

WEST VIRGINIAN: DEAR WEST VIRGINIAN: Yes. And it's your move. Move your ex-husband out, and give your husband a chance to be a man. And if they're both too big to find ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS in the telephone book, it's the first listing under "AA."

RESPONSIBLE PARENTS KNOW WHAT'S BEST FOR THEIR FAMILIES

Many depend on TSO for professional eye care.

Over the years, many responsible homemakers have learned through experience, or from friends, about the dependable, professional eye care available at TSO. At TSO members of your family receive a three-phase examination. First, a complete visual history is recorded. Next, the eyes are examined internally for evidence of disease or defect; then, for abnormalities of vision. Should glasses not be needed, there is only a $3.00 charge for the eye examination. And the cost of fine eyewear is most reasonable. Single vision glasses are as low as $14.85. In-visible bifocals are as low as $17.85, including eye examination, lenses and frame. Single vision Micro-Sight Contact Lenses, if preferred, are $65 complete. Bifocal contact lenses are also available at reasonable cost. Guard against eye disease, eyestrain and poor vision — with an annual, professional eye examination at TSO. Convenient credit at no extra cost.

She Uses Vital Force To Rout Tenseness

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Christmas was in the air when Maggie McNamara came in with an armful of packages. "I'm sorry I'm late, but I've had to get some shopping done and I've just finished making a 'Twilight Zone' segment and things have simply piled up," she said breathlessly. She leaned back in the booth and took a deep breath. "Would you like to know my favorite way of relaxing?" she asked. "It's an adaptation of a yoga exercise. It was shown to me about two years ago, and I don't know how I ever got along without it.

"Without changing your position, inhale while pulling your abdomen in. Count slowly as you hold your breath as long as it is comfortable, then one count more. Let go slowly through your lips, relaxing your chest, ribcage and your abdomen. Repeat three times.

"The rewards are great," Maggie promises, "though it's hard to explain to others. But once you train yourself, you'll find that after you hold your breath, the exhalation will be involuntary and you'll know that the timing is perfect."

Reader's Tactics Pay Dividends In Sheath

Dear Heloise:
I am a do-it-yourself girl. The other day I wanted to make a sheath dress but had no pattern.

I got out my old patterns and took a skirt from one, blouse from another and short sleeves from a third and taped them all together to form a sheath pattern.

They were quite old and torn so I decided that I would have to make another pattern out of them. Like a flash I thought of foil!

So I got out my heavy duty foil (18 inches wide) and laid the pattern on the dull side of the foil. It fitted nicely (size 16). I used a red crayon pencil to make marks that are on the pattern—just stuck the point of my scissors through the "Os" and used the pencil to make a hole through there.

A tiny piece of tape here and there will hold the pattern on the foil. When I finished I thought, "Now how am I going to put this away?"

Another flash—"Roll it on a tube just like the one it came off." It rolled nicely. Then, I just slipped a couple of rubber bands around it and away it went into the drawer.

If one should copy a whole pattern, they can slip the envelope and directions into the hole of the tube itself.—Marie Brady Franson

Mission Work Theme For Parish Workers

World Mission Work was the meeting theme of the Parish Workers, St. Paul Lutheran Church, when they met Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Albert Hohertz. The devotion was led by Mrs. John Foster. Mrs. Leroy Budke led the topic and discussion, "The Holy Spirit Motivates Mission Work."

Another project is to collect used bars of soap from hotels and motels and send to countries abroad.

A Valentine salad supper was planned for Feb. 6. The names of secret pals will be revealed. Two new members, Mrs. Paul Theimer and Mrs. Paul Berset, were welcomed. Guests present were Mrs. Neal Hansen and Mrs. Gus Opegard.

Refreshments were served to 23 persons by Mrs. Leroy Budke and Mrs. Roger Wright.

Garden Clubbers Told To Start Seedlings Now

Now is the time to start seedlings indoors, according to Mrs. Bob Carlile, one of two speakers at the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Spader's Garden Club. The group met in the home of Miss Bo Bowen, Cedar Ridge, where Mrs. D. A. Miller was cohostess.

Mrs. Carlile's topic was "Grow It Yourself From Seedlings." She suggested wetting the seeds and freezing them for an hour before planting to make them sprout sooner. Planters can be cottage cheese or milk cartons which should be covered with plastic and set in a dark place. They can be kept moist by wetting a vegetable brush and letting it drip into the carton.

The second half of the program was presented by Mrs. D. A. Miller who spoke on "Perennials for Permanent Beauty." Mrs. Miller said that soil should be tested first to find out what additives it needed. A strong background such as a brick wall, hedge or bushes should be used and reliable plants chosen. Foliage should be considered as well as bloom. She suggested following a planting blueprint which had been colored with crayons. Cover the area with peat moss and water two hours before sundown.

New officers were elected who will be installed in June. Refreshments were served to 11 members.

A Devotional For The Day

Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 3:13-14.)

PRAYER: Our Father, we glorify Thy name for allowing us to see this new year. Help us, dear Lord, to live this year for Thee, doing always that which is good and agreeable in Thy sight. May this be a year of great blessings for us and our neighbors — for all mankind. In the name of Christ we ask this, praying as He taught us, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

Get Your Ticket For Biggest Show

On every hand the signs are mounting that 1964 is going to be a bumper political year.

There have been announcements on every hand—nationally, in the state and locally. The next few weeks will bring many more.

And before we know it the first elections (probably the city and school district) will be held, followed by the May and June primary contests. By that time the state and national scenes will begin to warm, with a couple of national presidential conventions tossed in for good measure. Then, faster than we realize, November will be here with its critical general election.

In between there is always the possibility of a bond election or special election or two.

So if you want to have a voice in this biggest of all Democratic shows, better get your poll tax or exemption certificate this month. After Jan. 31 it will be too late.

Costly, Obnoxious, Fidel Hangs On

Premier Fidel Castro has been in power in Cuba for five years.

Like a burr stuck in a sock, Castro is abrasive, inconvenient, and persistent. After five years, his continued presence at the head of a pro-Communist authoritarian regime 90 miles off the coast of Florida is an embarrassing fact. It remains fashionable to predict that the Castro regime will collapse from internal pressure. Refugee groups in this country monotonously forecast invasions. But Cuba and Castro remain synonymous, and nobody can explain quite why.

Part of the reason is the willingness of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to send good money after bad. Early this year Raul Castro, Fidel's unpopular brother, admitted that the fact that nobody in Cuba was starving was "thanks to aid from the Soviet Union."

Khrushchev is reported to have sent Castro a half billion dollars worth of arms. Soviet Communist bloc aid has been pouring into Cuba at the rate of $2.6 million a day for the past year, about $1 million of this from the Soviet Union alone.

Although Russia had mortgaged the Cuban sugar crop for years to come, Khrushchev allowed Castro to sell 1 million tons on the open market this year, thus taking advantage of the higher world prices and giving Cuba a desperately needed windfall of close to $140 million in hard currency.

After Hurricane Flora smashed the island, Khrushchev promised to send supplies for 70,000 square yards of housing space per year." He also pledged construction machinery, clothing, food, and medicines in massive amounts. U.S. News & World Report recently added to the list of Russia's benefactions "wheat and other foods for the people, oil for the island's transport and industries, plus weapons and training for what has become the most powerful military force in the history of Latin America."

Khrushchev's gifts to Castro in the recent past seem somewhat like those of an embarrassed uncle stuck with his kin. There has been no lack of criticism of the Cuban regime in the Soviet bloc. Miklos Hetvanyi, Hungarian representative to a recent economic conference at Prague, very well expressed the general disenchantment with Fidel's barbudos when he complained: "Cuba, which should have been the example for the Western Hemisphere of how socialism works, has become the prototype of how a rich country can be mismanaged by a few ignorant boobies, who have the audacity to blame us for their laziness."

It is ironical to recall that less than five years ago Castro told the American Society of Newspaper Editors that "we are not Communists," that Cuba had no intention of abrogating the agreement under which the U.S. maintains a naval base at Guantanamo Bay, and that Cuba would not confiscate foreign property. But then, in those days, Castro was promising free general elections in not more than four years.

William S. White President Strengthens Negotiating Position

WASHINGTON — President Johnson's first negotiating session with a foreign leader, West German Chancellor Erhard, has strengthened both the Western military alliance and the capacity of the West to explore in unity all possible openings to any genuine easing of the cold war with the Soviet Union.

CHANCELLOR ERHARD has accepted, on behalf of the greatest military power in Western Europe, the two principles of the Johnson policy:

- (1) To make Western defenses ever stronger and to be prepared to fight unhesitatingly any aspect of communism which seeks war or aggression.
- (2) At the same time to test every opportunity to make reliable agreements with the Russians, who now appear to be slightly more nearly ready to talk business than they have been in some years.

This is the principal meaning of the first summit conference of the Johnson Administration, deliberately held in the rural simplicity of Johnson City, Texas, in order to establish a personal as well as an official relationship between the new American President and the new German Chancellor.

MUCH WAS MADE in that meeting of the German-American character of much of the population surrounding the town. This was done in order to put the Chancellor especially at home. What was neither contemplated nor made in the meeting, however, was any "special relationship" with the Germans in any way to reduce or downgrade the relationship of this country with its other allies. Notably this means Britain. Nor does it exclude France, notwithstanding the somewhat chilly reserve toward Wash-

President Johnson never mentioned General de Gaulle's name. Nor did he ask Chancellor Erhard, directly or indirectly, to make any "choice" as between de Gaulle France—which was the special friend of Erhard's predecessor, Chancellor Adenauer—and the United States.

AS TO BRITAIN, the German-American atmosphere at Johnson City should not hide the basic fact that the President's paternal ancestry is British and that all through his public life he has been an exceptionally good friend to Britain. Britain, indeed, came out exceedingly well from a consultation in which it did not participate.

The crucial new factor is that Chancellor Erhard, though already in this frame of mind, has now had opportunity to make it clear on both sides of the Atlantic that he, too, is fully committed to this exploration. Chancellor Adenauer was far from keen on it, both on his own and because his great friend, President de Gaulle, was profoundly opposed.

WHAT REALLY happened at Johnson City, apart from all this, was that two very tough negotiators, President Johnson and Chancellor Erhard, met, took each other's measure, and parted in mutual respect and in acute awareness of high mutual interests.

Billy Graham

I have no confidence in the piety of my minister. What do you advise me to do?

H. B. A minister is often a victim of rumor, gossip, and even libel. Many a sincere, innocent minister, has been defrocked by a congregation who was too quick to judge.

First, since you have asked what to do, you should pray for your minister. He is the only member of the congregation without a pastor or counselor. The life of a minister can be a dreary, discouraging one, unless his work is underlaid with the earnest prayers of his constituents.

Second, make sure that you have not judged him wrongly. Has your opinion of his "lack of piety" been formed by rumor or facts? Is it the result of envy or malice? Check this.

Third, I would go to the minister and have a quiet talk with him. Share with him your concern for his ministry and influence. In such sessions, often a new understanding is arrived at. Then, pray together. I know of no problem which is not brought nearer solution in sincere prayer. And, whatever you do, don't share your lack of faith in your minister with others until you have taken the above steps.

I would agree that he cannot cure his own personal sin problem, but he can have faith in One who is able.

James Marlow Johnson-Khrushchev Summit Meeting Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Premier Khrushchev makes a habit of sending best wishes for the New Year and hopes for peace to American presidents although there have been some notable gaps between his wishes and performance.

He did it with Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy. Now he has done it with President Johnson. He gave Kennedy some miserable days. He seems to have quieted down a bit since then. But that's only maybe.

If Johnson takes his cue from Kennedy he will have a summit conference with the Russian before the 1964 presidential race next fall. Whether or not it relieved international tensions, it would be good American politics.

KHRUSHCHEV sent two New Year's messages in 1961, one to Eisenhower, the retiring president, and one to Kennedy, who was then still only president-elect. Then the Russian sent congratulations when Kennedy was sworn in Jan. 20.

Kennedy responded. The two men expressed a desire for a fresh attempt at negotiations on East-West problems. For extra measure, Khrushchev threw in a goodwill gesture.

Five days after Kennedy's inauguration Khrushchev released two surviving crewmen of a U.S. Air Force RB47 jet shot down in the Barents Sea off northern Russia the previous July 1.

EVEN THOUGH Kennedy and Khrushchev may have doubted they would accomplish anything if they met, they probably wanted to take each other's measure close up. So they had a summit meeting in Vienna June 3-4, 1961.

Nothing tangible, at least nothing that could be put in writing, came of it. The two men issued one of those typical diplomatic communiques expressing good intentions. As it turned out, Khrushchev's intentions weren't very good.

Khrushchev, after meeting Kennedy face-to-face, must have figured he had a soft touch because he didn't lose any time trying to break the President's back. He began putting on pressure to drive the Allies out of Berlin.

THEN, ON Aug. 15, 1961, Khrushchev's Communists began building their famous-or-infamous — wall between East and West Berlin. If Kennedy had ordered it battered down, there might have been war.

He did the next best thing. He assured the West Berliners this country would stand by them.

Kennedy made a nationwide television address that probably gave the Russian second thoughts. And he asked Congress for authority to call up 250,000 reserves. Congress gave it to him in a hurry.

WHILE ALL this was keeping the world edgy, Khrushchev hit Kennedy from another direction. He announced Aug. 31, 1961, Russia would resume nuclear testing. And it did. So did the United States. That got everybody upset.

Nevertheless, on Jan. 1, 1962, Khrushchev sent Kennedy another one of his New Year's greetings. And it was that same year he tried to slip his missiles into Cuba. That was in the fall of 1962. Kennedy backed him down.

Khrushchev, who often appeared to be causing trouble just for the sake of it, began to look a little more reasonable. If Kennedy had lived, the two men might have made more progress. But Johnson is a new man.

He and Khrushchev probably wait a close-up of each other, too, even if nothing comes of it soon. Johnson, a comparative unknown because of his vice presidency, is now a world leader. And he wants to act like one, as he has demonstrated in less than two months in office.

ONE GOOD way to demonstrate it, as Kennedy decided early, is to have a summit meeting. That would attract the world's attention in a way Johnson's hammering on domestic economy never could.

And the summit—provided it didn't turn into a disaster—would give Johnson at home a stature none of his Republican competitors for the presidency could match if only because they're not in a position to

Hal Boyle More Surprises Are Forecast

NEW YORK (AP) — What's in store for us in 1964?

A deep peer into our clouded crystal ball shows we can look forward to the mixture as before—but with some surprises.

On the international front, it seems safe to predict, Soviet Premier Khrushchev will find at least 700 million reasons to grasp the Western world in an ever more cordial embrace—and all the reasons are Chinese.

In Washington, as a result of stringent belt-tightening by the Democrats in their new federal economic program, the government will announce it has used 1,364,283,195 fewer paper clips than during any year of the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration.

REPUBLICANS will counter with an accusation that a number of employees of the U.S. Department of Agriculture have been secretly taking home government-bought pencils and letting their children use them to do their home work.

Both political parties will call vigorously for a reduction in taxes—and 99 million taxpayers will give a big fat yawn. They know that if one level of government takes less from their pocketbooks, another level of government will take more.

IN AN unexpected goodwill gesture, the taxicab drivers of Paris will raise a fund to build a monument to the American tourist. As a matter of national pride, however, the statue turned out by the sculptor will closely resemble President Charles de Gaulle.

A more inexpensive way of handling the nation's grain surplus will be found. It will be stored in government-built bomb shelters. In case of an emergency, the citizen will merely shovel out the grain, or crawl in and pull it over his head.

IN MEDICINE the big news will be the discovery of two more sure cures for the common cold. After trying them both, the average man will find the only sure thing about them is that they sure don't work.

As a result of continued automation, more people will be working less — and enjoying it less, too. But business will be generally on the upgrade, and the competition for the big buck will go on unchecked.

All in all, 1964 promises to be a zany, wonderful year, and life will remain what it has always been—the only thing worth living. Be sure to do your share of it.

To Your Good Health Many Child Breath-Holders Have Anemia

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: When my five-year-old son is particularly upset or hurt, he cries until his breath leaves him and he passes out. This has been a problem since he was 14 months old. It doesn't happen very often but it concerns me. I don't think it is a bid for attention since he has fallen down and done the same thing while playing alone.—MRS. J. C.

Breath-holding is not an unusual method youngsters use to express their displeasure. Violent crying can precede breath-holding.

The temporary cessation of breathing causes unconsciousness — and as soon as that occurs, the child relaxes, his automatic reflexes take command again, and the brief unconsciousness ends with the first breath. Such attacks usually occur in the first couple of years, and not often after five.

One would suspect that there is some violent emotional factor in the background, maybe an overactive sense of frustration, a hidden fear of something, or the expression of extreme temper. I don't know, but these are possibilities and you may want to keep this in mind and perhaps have some psychiatric guidance if matters persist. That is to say, pain from a fall or whatever may trigger some pent-up emotional pressures within the child. Meantime, here's something to investigate. A recent report discloses that 25 per cent of children with breath-holding spells were found to have anemia. This would intensify the lack of oxygen reaching the brain and thus make unconsciousness come that much sooner.

Children tend to outgrow breath-holding in time, but correction of anemia and/or calcium deficiency, if present, may hasten the improvement.

Dr. Molner is always glad to hear from his readers, and whenever possible he uses their questions in his column, but because of the tremendous volume of mail received daily, he cannot answer individual letters.

Around The Rim Make Collapsible And Disposable

The new year is already three days old. It is time to begin planning for that vacation which is only about six months away.

LIKE MANY OTHER Americans, I like to tramp through nature's wilderness and "rough it" when those celebrated days arrive. And I don't like to be inconvenienced by going too far into history, so the accoutrements of civilization must be brought along. Therein lies the problem. Those accessories are either light and compact or serviceable and unwieldy. All one of our inventive minds needs to do to make his own mind is to come up with something which is both light, compact and yet serviceable.

Tents have always been one of my problems. No matter how well I stake them down, they fold up like a punctured balloon with the slightest breeze. And then there is the problem of getting them back into the small container in which they came. They never fit.

SOME KINDS have a floor, offering protection from entry at the edges, but try cleaning sand out of them sometimes. Last year I brought back enough of Padre Island in mine to start my own island right here. Everything invented yet in the way of tenting has been a stop-gap measure.

What I am aiming for, probably, is a disposable tent—one you can squirt out of an aerosol can and then crumple up and pitch into the nearest garbage can when it is time to break camp. If it proved to be sturdy enough, at a couple of bucks per tent, just think of the competition some of the cheaper motels would get. The inventor could probably have a ready market for all of his supplies from that source alone.

A COMPLETELY collapsible barbecue pit would be another money-maker. I made one last year. One of the main hinges it has come off the first time it was collapsed, but otherwise it was most compact and useful. When I figure out how to make it work as good as the cardboard model does, I may just get into the business myself.

THE POSSIBILITIES are almost endless—a stove with oven or room heater which folds into the size of a modern two-burner camp stove; lanterns which fold into just larger than the size of their fuel tank; cots unfolding right out of their carrying case.

I read that there will be more of us in that great outdoors this year than last. Pretty soon we'll need some of those more compact outfits to keep from crowding each other out.

Wonderful, But Brother It's Tough

My friend, the White House correspondent, looked exhausted, his face drawn and his eyes bloodshot.

"It's the 24-hour shift, seven days a week, that's taking its toll," he said limply. "We White House correspondents have been thinking of forming a protective association and appealing to the newspaper guild for a 12-hour day."

"SOME of us are not as young as we once were," he continued, "and if these impromptu press conferences continue we shall have to petition the White House for additional room where we can install cots. We plan to take turns doing sentry duty and routing out the other correspondents if, for instance, the President gets up in the middle of the night to raid the icebox and feels in need of companionship."

My friend reached tiredly into his pocket, hauled out a small vial and took a pop pill.

"AT FIRST it seemed like a dream come true," he said. "We marvelled at a President suddenly summoning us to his office and asking us to sit down and have a cup of coffee. After it was over strong men who have been covering the White House for a generation went back to the press room and sobbed as they phoned their stories into their editors."

"And after that first personally conducted tour of the White House there were Republicans among us who began to ask themselves, 'Would Barry do this?' 'Would Rocky be as human?' 'Would Nixon pick up the coffee tab?' There was one GOP'er who even went so far as to question that Harold Stassen had such a profound interest in the common man."

"SO, for a few days we basked in clover and dreams. We leaped to our feet when Pierre came to the door of the press room and crooked his finger. When we weren't touring the White House we were pounding out press conference copy all day and half the night.

"Our arches began to ache and our typewriters to sag. But there was only one real casualty. That was a White House correspondent, six hours late for dinner the fifth night in a row, whose wife cried, 'Likely story!' and went home to mother when he explained that he had been with the President."

"By and large, however, we got along pretty well until we went to the ranch. The White House has accustomed most of us to a sedentary life, and all of us, even under the previous administration, had avoided that 50-mile physical fitness hike."

"BUT DURING the Christmas holidays we hiked over most of Texas. And my wife says that if she had been the First Lady she would have clobbered you-know-who when he held up the family dinner for an hour while showing us through the ranch house. But I told my wife we were all damn hungry, too, and exhausted from riding the range."

"Even the sight of poor, pitiful Pierre on a horse accompanying the President, in case he suddenly decided to call a press conference where the deer and the buffalo roam, was no real consolation. Pierre had avoided that 50-mile hike, but the new man got him on a horse! That's when I first began to realize that the new President is a miracle man."

"OH, I'M not complaining," he concluded. "It's a great and good life for us White House correspondents under the new man. That is, if we can take it."

Personal Inventory

WASHINGTON—This is the season of New Year's resolutions. Many a high resolve, however, is made only to be brushed aside later by the whims of life. The perennial reminders nevertheless serve their purpose, if merely to awaken memories of men who have left a legacy of human gospel for the guidance of generations to come.

THE NAME OF William G. Farrow, of Darlington, S. C., probably means nothing to the American people today. No monuments have been erected in his memory. No words of his pen are proclaimed in the schools. He was neither poet nor scholar, but just a lieutenant in the U.S. Air Corps who, at the age of 23, gave his life for his country. He flew in the famous Doolittle raid on Tokyo in April 1942, but his plane crashed afterwards in Japanese-occupied territory in China. He was executed by the Japanese in 1943.

While preparing to go into aviation in 1940, Lt. Farrow had written a "memorandum," a copy of which this correspondent obtained from one of his friends just after the Tokyo raid occurred. It was presented in these dispatches on Oct. 22, 1942, and was reprinted at the time in leaflet form by a number of individuals and institutions. In these days of annual resolution-making, it deserves a wider reading. For, as Longfellow once wrote, "The thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts." Lt. Farrow's "memorandum," entitled "My Future," is as follows:

THE TIME HAS come to decide what rules I am going to set myself for daily conduct. My aim is decided—I am going into some branch of aviation. I have only to apply myself daily toward this end to achieve it.

First I must enumerate my weaknesses and seek to eliminate them. Then I must seek to develop the qualities I need for this type of work. It's going to be hard, but it's the only way. Work with a purpose is the only practical means of achieving an end.

FIRST, WHAT are my weaknesses?

- 1—Lack of thoroughness and application.
- 2—Lack of curiosity.
- 3—Softness in driving myself.
- 4—Lack of constant diligence.
- 5—Lack of seriousness of purpose—sober thought.
- 6—Scatter-brained dashing here and there and not getting anything done—spur-of-the-moment stuff.
- 7—Letting situations confuse the truth in my mind.
- 8—Lack of self-confidence.
- 9—Letting people influence my decisions too much. I must weigh my decisions—then act.
- 10—Too much frivolity—not enough serious thought.
- 11—Lack of clear-cut, decisive thinking.

SECOND, WHAT must I do to develop myself?

- 1—Stay in glowing health—take a good, fast one-hour workout each day.
- 2—Search out current, past and future topics on aviation.
- 3—Work hard on each day's lessons—shoot for an 'A'.
- 4—Stay close to God—do His will and commandments. He is my friend and protector. Believe in Him—trust in His ways—not to my own confused understanding of the universe.
- 5—Do not waste energy or time in fruitless pursuits—learn to act from honest fundamental motives—simplicity in life leads to the fullest living. Order my life — in order, there is achievement; in aimlessness, there is retrogression.
- 6—Fear nothing — be it insanity, sickness, failure—always be upright—look the world in the eye.
- 7—Keep my mind always clean—allow no evil thoughts to destroy me. My mind is my very own, to think and use just as I do my arm. It was given me by the Creator to use as I see fit, but to think wrong is to do wrong!
- 8—Concentrate! Choose the task to be done, and do it to the best of my energy and ability.
- 9—Fear not for the future—build on each day as though the future for me is a certainty. If I die tomorrow, that is too bad, but I will have done today's work!
- 10—Never be discouraged over anything! Turn failure into success.

A FREE-WHEELING CONSERVATIVE

Goldwater--Man Of Many Facets

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater flipped the matchbook in his hand.

On one side, it bore a color photograph of Goldwater; on the other, a picture of the White House.

The senator, smiling wryly, shook his head, then took out a ballpoint pen and sketched a lofty radio antenna atop the executive mansion.

The scene was an airport restaurant, and amateur radio operator Barry Goldwater was kidding traveling politician Barry Goldwater.

OUTSPOKEN
Goldwater, who was 55 New Year's Day, is at once outspoken and introspective, doctrinaire and doubting.

The one-time Phoenix merchant says things politicians usually don't say—this, for example:

"I've never done anything to get the nomination, and yet all of a sudden everyone wants to thrust it on me. And, doggone it, I'm not even sure that I've got the brains to be the president of the United States."

Or Goldwater on the sale of U.S. wheat to the Soviet Union. Demand cold war concessions from the Soviets, said the senator. "If they won't do it, we can tell them to go to hell, we won't sell them the wheat."

NO PREFIX
Barry Goldwater is a man who doesn't like to put any prefix on his conservatism. "I have been much concerned that so many people today with conservative instincts feel compelled to apologize for them," he began the book that is his declaration of political faith—"The Conscience of a Conservative."

He's not much of an orator; he tends to read speeches and when he goes off-the-cuff, he sometimes gets ideas tangled.

But that doesn't bother the crowds that turn out to listen. They come for message, not oratorical style. And the Goldwater message is a call for an end to big, centralized government, for a tough stand in the cold war. It leaves few people neutral about Barry Goldwater.

OLD-FASHIONED
Liberal Republican Sen. Jacob Javits of New York once said Goldwater's philosophy "kind of satisfies a hankering for the five cent beer and the five cent cigar; it's good old-fashioned conservatism but it doesn't belong today."

Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, once called the senator "the country's No. 1 political fanatic, labor baiter and peddler of class hatred."

A 6-foot, 185-pounder with curly gray hair and an outdoorsman's tan, Goldwater is a man constantly in motion.

He figures he has traveled a million miles for the Republican cause in the past decade. He has served three terms as chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign committee, and he ranks as one of the party's top fund-raisers.

SPORTS CAR
His hobbies range from flying to photography, radio to Arizona Indian lore. He drives a gadget-loaded sports car and is at home in a sprawling hill-top mansion loaded with electronic gear. In uniform, he wears the two stars of a major general in the Air Force Reserve, and the silver wings of a pilot. On the left of his left hand are four tattooed dots, the insignia of a group of Arizonans called "The Smoki," who stage Indian ceremonial dances at Prescott.

Goldwater was born in Phoenix, the son of department store owner Baron Goldwater. His mother, a Nebraska nurse named Josephine Williams, went to Arizona with a supposedly incurable case of tuberculosis. Doctors gave her six months to live. Now in her late 80s, she still resides there.

The senator traces his ancestry to the Goldwassers of Poland, a Jewish family of Russian background.

JEWISH
Goldwater's father was Jewish. The senator, his brother Robert and his sister Carolyn were raised in their mother's Episcopalian faith.

In Phoenix school, Goldwater was an athlete, a class president—and no scholar. His parents sent him to Staunton Military Academy at Lexington, Va., and he was graduated in 1925.

He spent a year at the University of Arizona, quit shortly after his father died, and went to work at the family department store as a junior clerk.

In 1936, Goldwater became general manager of the store. He was president from 1937 until 1953, now is chairman.

Goldwater, who got an Army Reserve commission and a yen to fly in 1930, had to pull some strings to get into active service during World War II. He was 32, a family man, and troubled by knee injuries he suffered as a youth.

SUPPLY PILOT
But he talked his way into the Army, then got himself a flying assignment, and served as a supply pilot on a run to Allied bases in India.

Goldwater's first political plunge came in 1949, when he ran for a Phoenix City Council seat on a reform ticket.

"Don't cuss me too much," he wrote brother Robert when he decided to run. "It ain't for life and it may be fun."

A year later, he managed the campaign that made Republican Howard Pyle governor of Arizona. And in 1952, Goldwater took on Democratic Sen. Ernest W. McFarland—rated the state's best vote-getter.

7,000 VOTES
Goldwater won by less than 7,000 votes, and topped McFarland in a 1958 rematch.

Goldwater and his wife, Peggy, will celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary next Sept. 22.

"THERE IS . . .

ONE BODY

ONE SPIRIT

ONE HOPE

ONE LORD

ONE FAITH

ONE BAPTISM

ONE GOD

The body is the one church or kingdom founded by Jesus Christ (Ephesians 1:22, 23; Colossians 1:18). Christ is the Saviour of the body or church (Ephesians 5:23), having purchased it with his own blood (Acts 20:28). Ultimately he will deliver up the kingdom to God (1 Corinthians 15:24).

The Spirit is the one Holy Spirit of God. Jesus taught that one must be born of the water and the Spirit to enter the kingdom of God (John 3:5). The Spirit converts through the Word, which is described as the sword of the Spirit (Ephesians 6:17). The Spirit works through the gospel to convict people of sin and to call them out of the world into the kingdom of Christ. This is why the gospel is defined as the "power of God" unto salvation (Romans 1:16).

The hope is the one hope of eternal life after the grave, which is desired by every normal person. Eternal life will be a life of bliss and glory with the Father, the Son, and the Spirit of Heaven. This hope will be realized through one's faith (Hebrews 11:1; 1 Peter 1:9).

The Lord is the one Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Messiah, the King of kings (1 Timothy 6:15).

The faith is the one faith made possible by the revelation of God to man, as that revelation was expressed through the Patriarchs, Moses, the Old Law, the Prophets, the Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Apostles, and finally the Bible — which is the Word of grace (Acts 20:32) through which one receives faith (Romans 10:17).

The baptism is the one baptism valid in our age. Authorized by Christ and administered in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the one baptism is for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38). It is described as a burial in water (Romans 6:3-5; Colossians 2:12).

The God is the one God and Father of all, the Designer and Maker of the universe, the Creator of man, the Giver of every good and perfect gift, who "so loved the world" (John 3:16) that he gave Christ to become our Saviour.

Ducks Fell Light Plane

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP)—Two Crossett, Ark., hunters met their quarry sooner than expected Wednesday when their light plane collided with a flock of ducks high over the Arkansas River near Stuttgart.

Jack Stell was piloting the plane when ducks crashed through its windshield into the passenger compartment, broke landing lights, crushed the propeller spinner, damaged the leading edges of the wings and tail and broke open an oil line. Stell, a veteran pilot, skidded the plane on an ice-covered cotton field after the engine stuck from lack of oil. Its nose wheel sheared off and the craft nosed over, but Stell and his party walked away from the plane.

The passengers were covered with blood and feathers. Examination showed one hunter had only a broken fingernail and another two minor scratches.

TO HELL FOR THIS?

Recently as I was driving down one of Texas' fine highways I turned on my radio to hear a leading evangelist speak on physical healing. "God is not coming back for a sick church," he stated. "Jesus came to set the captives free! Sickness is bondage. If you want to be among the redeemed church at the judgment you must be without blemish—and that means without sickness in body," he said in effect.

There was just one thing wrong with the speaker's assertion:—he offered no Biblical proof for it! Is it really true that one will go to hell for sickness of the body as soon as for sickness of the soul? Where does the Bible make any such statement? Where does the Bible say Jesus came to free all men held captive by physical illness? Where is the verse that teaches that Jesus died on the cross to redeem all men from physical disease?

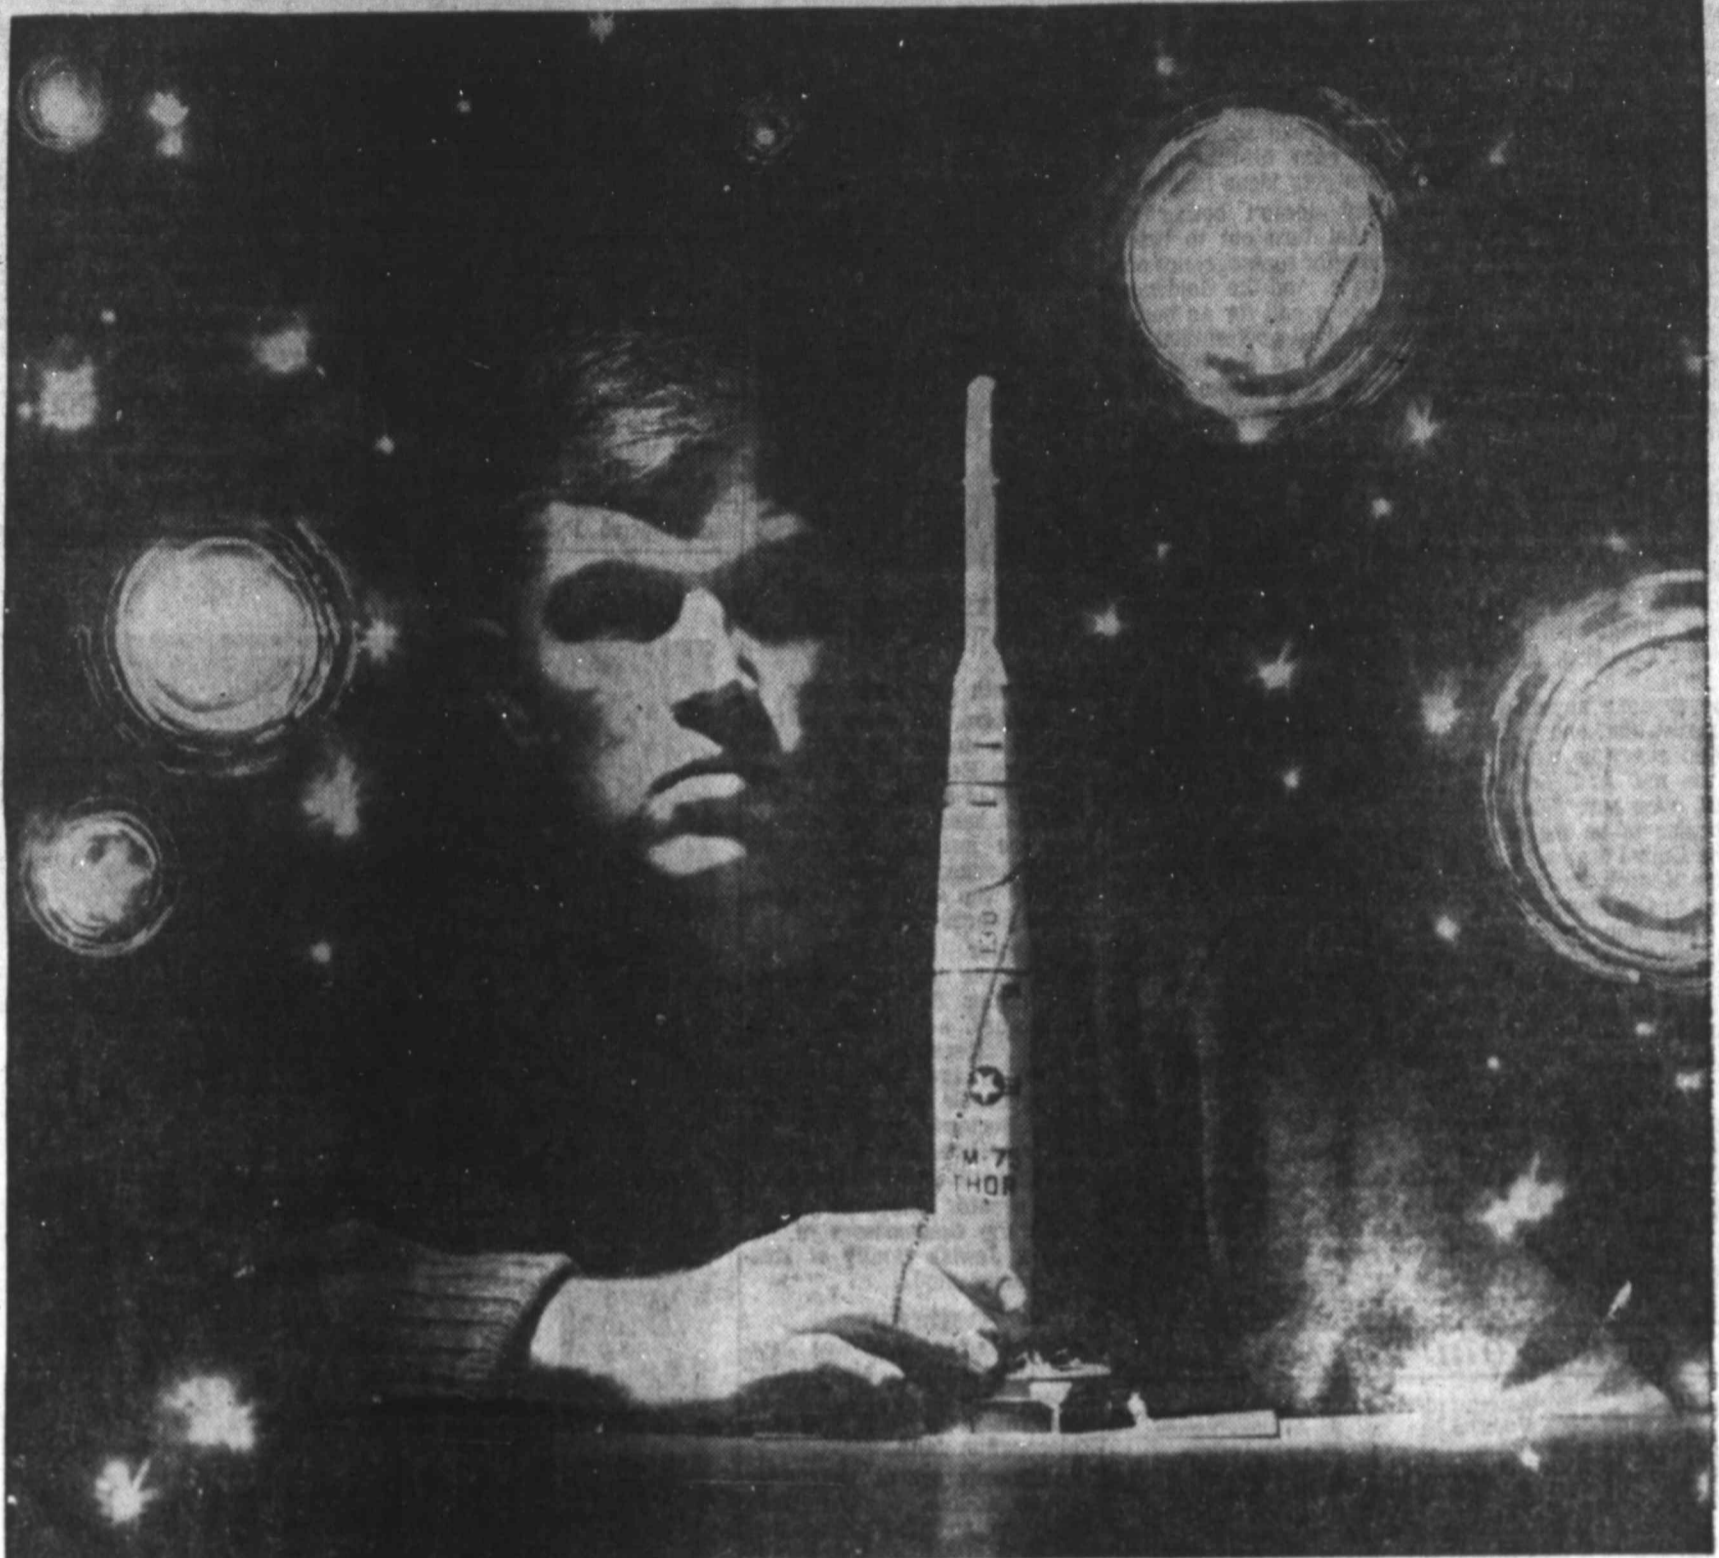

I recall that Paul had the power to heal disease, yet he left Trophimus ill at Miletus (II. Tim. 4:20). Would Paul leave one ill and in danger of going to hell should he die? Paul asked the Lord to heal his own infirmity and the Lord refused. Does this prove the Lord wants people to go to hell and won't save them when they beg Him? (II. Cor. 12:7-9) Who can believe it? Maybe the folk at "Miracle Valley" have an answer. We shall see.

The Church of Christ welcomes you! 601 N. Runnels.

NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in our life. It is the source of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your bible daily.

Never has the future seemed more exciting . . . or more disturbing! Today we dream of flights to far stars; about intelligent life on other planets. We look at our own earth with clear eyes, and discuss the possibility of world brotherhood, world government, world peace.

Are these things going to happen? We don't know. But we do know that nothing is impossible.

In fact, Jesus tells us that all things are possible with God. He wants us to understand that God is infinite power, as well as infinite love. The foolishness of men cannot affect God's plans for the universe, or His love for each one of us.

Faith is what we need . . . faith in the certainties upon which the Christian Church is founded. When we put our lives in God's hands, there is no need to view the future with doubt or dread. All will be well.

Young People Want Questions Answered

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—"Where," asked the young doctor, "can I ask an honest question about Christianity in this church?"

The question started the Rev. William H. Creevey thinking. Where indeed?

The answer the young Presbyterian minister and some of his flock came up with is a far cry from the traditional church ice cream social.

It's Le Rapport, a candle-lit coffee house featuring discussions ranging from political philosophy to the latest sexy Italian movie.

The Rev. Mr. Creevey, 32, and other young adults of Woodland Park Presbyterian Church first started holding weekly discussion meetings at their homes.

BISTRO IDEA

One night last June, Bill Creevey, as he is known, brought up the church-related bistro idea. His plan at first was to establish a center primarily for discussion of current motion pictures.

"Our feeling was that the questions raised by contemporary films and other art forms are the questions the church is concerned with," he recalls.

The next day, the Rev. Mr. Creevey learned that the coffee house next door to the Ridgemoor theater was for rent. The Ridgemoor, eight blocks from the church, specializes in foreign films. The coffee house had been operated as a cabaret and dance hall.

CHURCH APPROVAL

Bill Creevey and his friends got approval from the governing board of the church and, on Sept. 17, the coffee house reopened with discussion taking the place of dancing.

Le Rapport is designed to be non-profit, and has been in the first three months it went $500 in the red. The backers, reluctant to impose a cover charge, started soliciting $10 contributions.

They pay two employees, a cook and a waiter, and the rent is $100 a month. The establishment is open five nights a week with discussions on weekend nights. Starting in January, film society meetings were scheduled Tuesday through Thursday evenings.

CROWDS

Crowds average about 50 or 60, almost all non-members of the Woodland Park Church—or perhaps of any church. At least one person has shown up at Woodland Park Presbyterian, however, as a result of coming to Le Rapport.

Subject matter was quickly expanded. On a recent weekend, there were scenes from a play about Joan of Arc, "The Lark"; a discussion of "Boccaccio '70," a racy Italian film playing next door, and a session on liberalism and conservatism.

On the latter evening, Dr. Giovanni Costigan of the University of Washington History Department gave a 20-minute talk. Then people started asking questions and making observations. It was midnight when the discussion broke up.

The Rev. Mr. Creevey, who like many of the predominantly young crowd wore an open-necked shirt and sweater, told Costigan as he left: "You know, this place isn't supposed to be profitable, but after an evening like this, I think it is."

Minister, Doctor Give Their Views

It is "refined cruelty" to ask doctors to prolong the life and suffering of an incurably ill person when there is no possibility for recovery, declares James Mayfield of Halstead, Kan., in the January "Together," Methodist's midmonth family magazine.

Doctors should do everything possible to promote recovery so long as there is hope. But it is wrong to keep alive by skilled medical care a person who is really only existing as a vegetable, and whose care can be a terrible financial burden upon his family, says Mayfield. His own family has just been through such an experience with an aged, though beloved, relative.

After receiving Layman Mayfield's frank appraisal of a problem gaining increasing attention of late, "Together" editors asked a minister and a medical doctor for their opinions, and found qualified agreement.

"The Christian faith has always stressed the importance of quality of life over quantity of life," writes Dr. Granger E. Westberg, associate professor of religion and health, University of Chicago.

"When an aged person is suffering the torturous pains of a terminal illness and prays for the coming of blessed death, he should not be subjected to any heroic methods which merely prolong his animal existence for a few hours, days, or weeks."

This is a difficult problem, points out Dr. Paul C. Bucy, neurologist surgeon at Chicago Wesley Memorial Hospital.

"So long as there is a possibility of recovery," he says, "everything must be done to enable that patient to recover." However, "the mere preservation of life is not invariably an end to be sought. We must sustain life with hope and human decency, not just life under any circumstances."

Big Springer To Make Mexico Good-Will Trip

Bob Thurman, junior religious education major from Big Spring, has been selected to go with a group of students from the University of Corpus Christi to Mexico for an educational and good-will trip.

The students under the guidance of the Baptist Student Union leader, Britton Wood, will leave UCC on Jan. 22 and return Feb. 3. The group will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ross, Southern Baptist missionaries in Durango, Mexico.

These young people will learn first hand from the missionaries of their work, needs and problems.

The trip will provide sight-seeing as the group plans to go through Monterrey and to visit the Southern Baptist Seminary located in Torreon.

The students will be financing half of the costs, but donations from church groups and any interested persons will be taken through Jan. 19, 1964.

LONG SERVICE TO CHURCH
George Oldham, left, gives plaque to A. A. Porter

Potter Completes 30 Years As Superintendent

The task of ministering to a congregation, a busy enough one as it is, would be doubly difficult without the assistance of qualified and dedicated assistants from that congregation.

As Oldham presented a plaque to Potter for his work, he summed up the feeling this way: "... Our church school is filled each Sunday with living memorials to your tireless and unselfish years of service. But you can't take them home and hang them on the wall... that's why I'm here."

With this enviable record under his belt, Potter is not looking to retirement, however. He will serve as assistant superintendent during 1964.

MARY WAS A DISCIPLE

One of Christ's most faithful disciples was Mary, His mother.

Mary has been held in high esteem by all religious groups, more by some than others. She was, without doubt, a remarkable woman—modest, devout and dutiful.

She had a great knowledge of the Old Testament and was a responsible member of the Jewish faith. Sometimes compliance with her responsibilities placed a burden on her and her family. But this was no deterrent. Mary's example teaches us the need for compliance with God's law.

Returns To Bible Text

Beginning Sunday the pastor of the College Baptist Church, the Rev. Byron Grand, will begin preaching a series of 11 a.m. messages based on verse-by-verse exposition of the entire Bible.

This new series of messages will begin with Genesis, chapters one and verse one, and will continue in the morning worship services until completed.

"This is the greatest undertaking of my 15 years in the preaching ministry," said the pastor. "When I announced this to my people last Sunday, it was met with overwhelming enthusiasm, which has encouraged me even more. In a day when especially the Old Testament is being neglected, we are going to seek to rediscover the ultimate purpose of God and His plan of redemption as found in every book of the entire Bible."

12 Million Bushel Wheat Sale OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department has approved an application by the Continental Grain Co. for an export subsidy on 12,862,500 bushels of durum wheat for sale abroad, presumably to the Soviet Union. The wheat will come from surplus government stocks.

This could be the first sale to Russia since Soviet leaders indicated last fall they would like to buy U.S. wheat.

The department said it had agreed to a request by Continental that details of the application, including the destination of the wheat and the terms of the subsidy, be withheld until late today.

Nevertheless, high department sources said they definitely understood that the wheat will be sold to the Soviet Union.

Under details that were disclosed are these: The Agriculture Department will sell the wheat from its surplus stocks to Continental at $2.50 a bushel for No. 2 Hard Amber Durum, F.O.B. the East Coast.

Then, upon export of the wheat, Continental will get a subsidy of 72 cents a bushel on half of the wheat, to be shipped during January and February, and 73 cents on the remainder, to be shipped during March and April.

The total subsidy will be about $9,314,000.

For years, the government has paid subsidies on exports of wheat because the domestic price, due to price support programs, is higher than the world price.

However, authorization for subsidy sales of wheat to Soviet bloc countries was only approved a few months ago by the late President John F. Kennedy.

The subsidy rates approved on the Continental application are somewhat higher than those the department had been posting daily for exports of other classes of wheat, such as hard winter, spring, soft and white. Rates on these latter classes ranged from 51 to 65 cents a bushel yesterday, depending on type and port.

Durum wheat is used for making macaroni, spaghetti, and similar products. The other classes are used for making flour for bread and other baking purposes.

The department has not been posting subsidy rates on the durum type. Instead, it has left determination of such rates on an exporter offer basis.

Mrs. Graves Dies, Rites Set Saturday

Another of the area's old timers slipped from the scene Thursday with the death of Mrs. Lou Graves, 92.

Mrs. Graves died soon after arrival at a hospital where she had been rushed from her home at 417 Hillside Drive at 12:30 p.m. Thursday. She had suffered a broken hip previously but was improving until she became seriously ill at her home Wednesday.

She first came to this area almost 75 years ago.

Graves' rites will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the City Cemetery with her pastor, Dr. H. Clyde Smith, First Methodist, officiating. Burial will be beside the graves of her husband and a daughter with Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Graves leaves one daughter, Mrs. Edna G. Blake, Big Spring; a sister, Mrs. Sallie Edmondson, Big Spring; a brother, A. M. (Mack) Burns, who ranches in northeastern Glasscock County; four grandchildren and several nephews and nieces.

Mrs. Graves was born Dec. 4, 1871 in Flatwood, Tenn. and came with her family to Glasscock County in 1889. After she was married to John Graves, they moved back to Tennessee, but returned to Glasscock County in 1922 and lived on their ranch until 1928 when she moved into Big Spring. He had been killed in an accident in 1926.

Mrs. Graves was a member of the First Methodist Church.

TV Station Deal Approved

The Federal Communications Commission has given permission for transfer of ownership of KWAB-TV in Big Spring and KLRB-TV in Lubbock.

This is approval of an application for transfer of ownership filed last May 1 through which ownership would pass to Theodore Shanbaum, Dr. Ellis Carp and Lee Optical and Associated Companies. Management changes were effected at the time of the file for approval of transfer.

Bob Terrell, KWAB manager, said that the FCC action simply permits the parties to consummate the deal, which he anticipated would be completed within a matter of a few weeks.

The program or improvements begun in some instances be accelerated, he said. The station also has on file a plan for moving the transmitter tower to a new location.

Earlier Start To Clean Lots

City Manager Larry Crow Friday said he probably would recommend to the City Commission that a lot cleaning campaign be started earlier this year than last year.

The city's 1963 campaign to clean lots at various points around town concluded in November. Crow said a survey had been made to determine which lots were scheduled for cleaning.

He added the cooperation of homeowners made the campaign "much more successful."

Another campaign — cleaning alleys and stabilizing streets — is a continuous program, Crow said. The city recently cleaned trash and debris from alleys on the north side and other places in the city where it had accumulated.

Clears 15 Cases

Eda Lee Butler, 20, held in jail at Midland, has cleared up 15 cases of forgery in Howard County in a statement made to Chief Deputy A. N. Standard, Howard County sheriff's office. The woman is being held on charges in Midland County. Standard filed a hold order and she will be turned to Howard County for prosecution later.

Receives Award

Maj. Thomas J. McArdle, former chief of administrative services at Webb AFB, recently received the Air Force Commendation Medal at Elmendorf AFB, Alaska. Major McArdle was at Webb from July 1961 to June 1963. His award was for meritorious service while at Webb.

Man Injured In Accident

A Mendenhall, Miss. man, who was en route to El Paso to visit a son who was injured in a car wreck, became an accident victim himself about noon Thursday.

William Luttrell, 61, Route 3, Mendenhall, was taken to Cowper Clinic and Hospital for treatment of minor injuries following a two-vehicle collision in the 2900 block of US 89 west. Hospital authorities said he was released after treatment. He was taken to the hospital by River-Welch ambulance.

Driver of the other vehicle was William Cotton, Route 1, Edcouch. Police said the accident occurred while Cotton was traveling east and Luttrell was going west on US 89. Damage to the car of the injured man was estimated by police at $300, and damage to the other vehicle was set at $500.

Only one other accident was investigated by police Thursday. Involved were Verna Neff Hodnett, Route 1, Ackerly, and Victor E. Baldrige Jr., 3204 Drexel. The accident occurred about 5:15 p.m. in front of the Permian Building.

Must Maintain Military Alert, Says McCormack

BOSTON (AP)—House Speaker John W. McCormack says that as long as the Soviet Union adheres to its "policy of subversion" the United States must maintain an alert and powerful military force.

He said the nation must not expect any quick or easy end to the cold war but must continue to be strong both militarily and spiritually if it is to combat Communist aggression.

In an interview with The Associated Press, he also expressed his thoughts on the proposed tax cut, the recent fight for the passage of the foreign aid bill, and civil rights.

FIRST IN LINE

After the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, McCormack, as speaker of the House, became first in succession to the presidency in the event of the death of President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Banquet Tickets Selling Slowly

Tickets for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet are moving slowly, Carroll Davidson, manager, said Friday morning.

"At 10 a.m. today only 131 had been sold," he said. "With the banquet only a week off we need to get an idea of how many to have food prepared for. If those wanting to go will either write or telephone we will get tickets to them."

The banquet is set for Jan. 11, at 7 p.m. in the Goliad Junior High cafeteria. Tickets are on sale at the chamber office.

Speaker for the meeting will be Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi, director of the School of International Studies at Bradley University. He is a former minister of finance for Hungary.

Mrs. Hubbard makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Tommy Hart, and family, at 1750 Purdue.

Weather Forecast

Snow is expected Friday night over northern New England, the northern Plateau and parts of the central Plateau with rain and showers over the Northwest Pacific coast. It will be warmer over the eastern coast states, the southeast Gulf area and the central Plateau while colder weather prevails over the central U.S. from the Rockies to the Mississippi valley. It will be fair to partly cloudy with little temperature change elsewhere. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP).

Prison Hunger Strike In Second Day In Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—A sitdown strike at the Utah State Prison at Point of the Mountain, entered its second day today with about 450 inmates going without food to enforce demands for better meals and more leisure.

"We're going to let them sit," said the assistant warden, G. M. Fitzgerald. He said members of the Inmate Council told him the men would remain on strike until their demands were met.

Fitzgerald said the inmates want more and better prepared food and longer hours in the combined gymnasium-arts and crafts room.

"They eat better than I do," scoffed Warden John M. Turner who is recovering from an illness.

Prison authorities locked the men in their cells and cut off electricity. Heating facilities remained operating.

Fitzgerald said if the inmates did not return to their regular prison tasks today, they might go without food until Monday. He said the men do not work as a rule on weekends.

"And we wouldn't want to give them any freedoms or liberties over the weekend, only to have them sit down again on Monday," he declared.

The protest is the second act of prisoner dissatisfaction in a week. Guards used police dogs and fired shotguns over inmates heads when about 50 men attempted to riot over an early call to cells last Friday.

The prison's inmate population is 694. About 150 men at a farm dormitory outside the prison are not involved in the strike.

Cotton Trailer Burned, Grass Fires Reported

Fire of undetermined origin burned three bales of cotton and caused heavy damage to a cotton trailer on the Leonard Hanson farm about eight miles north of town Thursday.

Firemen also extinguished two grass fires Thursday. Children were blamed for a grass fire at Columbia and Cornell about 4:55 p.m., firemen said. Firemen were called to the Herman A. Peaslee residence, 3607 Hamilton, about 10:20 a.m. when a grass fire got out of control. Damage in both fires was minor.

Children also were blamed for a fire in a shed at 904 W. 6th about 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Firemen said damage to the building was light.

Another grass fire—north of US 89 east and west of the I-20 overpass—occurred about 10:30 a.m. Friday. Firemen said only old grass and weeds were burned.

First Estimates On City Budget

City Secretary C. R. McCleny Friday was busy drafting first estimates on the proposed city budget for 1964-65. He and public works director Ernest Lillard were going over expense figures for the bond improvement program.

McCleny said he has been working on the estimates during the past week. He said he did not know when the estimates would be finished.

Oil Report

Second Rueben Well Completed

The Rueben field in Martin County picked up its second well with completion of Guy Mabee No. 1-B Mabee, location northeast offset to the discovery well.

The project flowed 502 barrels of 47.4-gravity oil, making no water, on initial potential tests. The gas-oil ratio was 430-1, tubing pressure was 1,050 pounds and packer was used. Operator acidized the formation with 500 gallons through perforations between 12,975-13,027 feet. The hole was drilled to 13,439 feet.

Location is 2,193 feet from the east and 1,794 feet from the north lines of section 19-39-2n, G&MMB&A survey, about 20 miles north and west of Midland.

Another offset, to the east, Austral No. 2 J. E. Mabee, is swabbing 50 per cent new oil and 50 per cent acid water from the Fusselman in the same area. It is 853 feet from the north and 2,173 feet from the west lines of section 19-39-2n, G&MMB&A survey.

The site is 1,325 feet from the north and 1,335 feet from the east lines of section 24-35-1n, T&P survey.

Finals In Trend

John L. Cox has finished No. 2-C Keaton as a Spraberry Trend Area oiler about 12 miles northeast of Stanton in Martin County. It pumped 214 barrels of 39-gravity oil and five per cent water on initial potential.

The gas-oil ratio was 736-1, perforations are between 7,508-7,525 feet and 4 1/2-inch casing is at 7,525 feet. The formation was fraced with 30,000 gallons and 60,000 pounds of sand.

The site is 1,325 feet from the north and 1,335 feet from the east lines of section 24-35-1n, T&P survey.

DAILY DRILLING

BORDEN

Graver No. 1 Good swabbed dry after acidizing with 200 gallons. It was bottomed at 7,802 feet and perforated with two shots at 4,615 feet. Location is 1,890 feet from the north and 560 feet from the east lines of section 21-32-3n, T&P survey.

DAWSON

Conoco No. 1 Beckmeyer is preparing to perforate an unreported interval after bottoming at 8,530 feet in line and setting 4 1/2-inch casing at 8,499 feet with 300 sacks. The site is 2,105 feet from the south and 1,985 feet from the west lines of section 43-34-3n, T&P survey.

MARTIN

Section No. 1 McDowell is digging through line below 3,560 feet. Location is 4,420 feet from the south and 1,980 feet from the west lines of section 37-A, Beaver and Cockrell survey.

STERLING

Section No. 1 Salliers, C. NW NW, section 45-17, SPRR survey, is a total depth of 6,486 feet testing. It flowed 662,000 cubic feet of gas per day on 14 1/2-inch choke, with tubing pressure 480 pounds.

HMM... WELL, WHY DON'T COME, I'LL GIVE YOU A PERSONAL TOUR OF THE GARDENS NOW.

GASOLINE ALLEY

There's no doubt! Someone was in the house while we were gone, Sheezix!

But none of the locks were jimmied, Nina, and nothing is missing!

Remember the lamp Slim and I made at Saturday crafts class?

That creepy thing! Would want a piece of junk like that?

That's no way to talk about your sister's lamp, Chipper!

At least we know one thing about the thief. He's crazy!

NANCY

SLUGGO—IT WOULD LOOK BETTER IF NANCY WERE IN THAT SLED.

NO, IT WOULDN'T—I TORE A HOLE IN THE SEAT OF MY PANTS.

L'I ABNER

LET'S HOLD A SUMMIT CONFERENCE BETWEEN THE TWO GREAT CITIES INVOLVED IN THIS MESS, VENICE AND DOGPATCH!!

RICARDO BURTON, REPRESENTING VENICE, IS ALREADY HERE—BUT WHO'LL REPRESENT DOGPATCH?

AH—APPOINTS DAISY MAE YOKUM!!

BUT—ISN'T SHE A RELATIVE?

NATCHERLY!! IT'S A POLITICAL APPOINTMENT!!

BLONDIE

DAGWOOD—IF I ASKED YOU FOR FIFTY DOLLARS, WOULD YOU GIVE IT TO ME?

NOPE.

TWENTY DOLLARS?

NOPE.

FIVE DOLLARS?

NOPE.

I GIVE UP—BY THE TIME HE GETS TO "YES," IT'S NOT GOING TO BE WORTH IT.

ORPHAN ANNIE

I HAVE THE SAME WORRIES AND FEARS FOR ANNIE THAT YOU HAVE, I CAN'T HELP READING YOUR THOUGHTS, MAJOR HAIRY WOLF!

WELL, THEN LET'S REALLY SWIP SILLY FORMALITIES! I'M "HAIRY," YOU'RE "LILY," YOU'RE "G.K.K.?"

G.K.K. HAIRY! IN WHATEVER I KNOW YOU HAD PROBLEMS THAT YOU ALONE HAD TO SOLVE, PROBLEMS WITH A TERRIBLE PENALTY FOR FAILURE! YOU WON!

BATTLE PROBLEMS WHERE MANY OF FEW WOULD DIE! BUT WHERE I TOO RISKED MY LIFE ON MY JUDGEMENT!

YES! HERE WE ARE SEES! IF WE SAY OPERATE, AND WE'RE WRONG—

MAYBE THERE'S ANOTHER WAY, WILL YOU HYPNOTIZE HER AGAIN, THAT I MAY LISTEN?

SNUFFY SMITH

ELVINEY WANTS YE TO COME OUT TO TH' FENCE, AUNT LOWEEZY!

I CAN'T RIGHT NOW—I GOT BISCUITS IN TH' OVEN AN' I'M AFERRED THEY MIGHT BURN UP.

SHE JEST WANTED TO TELL YE A LITTLE GOSSIP.

KERRY DRAKE

YOU KNOW THIS PUNK, SARANADE? THEN YOU BETTER WARN HIM WHAT HAPPENS TO GUYS WHO TANGLE WITH THE GOAT!

YOU TWO SILLY BOYS! YOU SHOULD BE BUDDIES! JOHN! SHAKE HANDS WITH THE MAN WHO RUNS MIDLAND CITY!

DON'T BE A FOOL, GOAT! BUTTER HIM UP!

ANY FRIEND OF SARANADE'S IS A FRIEND OF MINE! SORRY I BLEW MY LID COLE!

I ACCEPT THE APOLOGY! FACT IS, YOU AND I MIGHT... LIL... DO EACH OTHER SOME GOOD!

BARREFF! SEE, WHAT MY GUESTS WILL HAVE!

BEEBLE BAILEY

I HAD TO COME AND SEE FOR MYSELF HOW THE PENTAGON COULD POSSIBLY LOSE CAMP SWAMPY!

COOPS! I'M AT THE WRONG MEETING!

WHAT FLOOR IS THIS?

COULD YOU DIRECT ME TO THE EXIT?

I CAN'T FIND MY OWN OFFICE!

HELP!

I MUST BE GOING THE WRONG WAY!

LET'S HAVE ANOTHER LOOK AT THAT DIRECTORY.

NOT BUREAU.

SADFREY! IT APPEARS THE PENTAGON HAS LOST THE PENTAGON!

PEANUTS

THAT'S GREAT! SHE'S JUST PRE-EMPTED THE WHOLE YEAR!

BY "GOOD" OF COURSE, I MEAN GOOD FOR ME!

THERE! I'VE JUST SENT IN MY ORDER FOR 365 GOOD DAYS.

DICK TRACY

YES, THOSE ARE SOIL AND ROCK SAMPLES FROM THE MOON.

WE WERE GATHERING THEM WHEN SHE SLIPPED AWAY.

WELL, LET'S SEE HER.

YES, LET'S SEE YOUR MOON MAID.

SH—SH! HER BEDROOM DOORKNOB'S TURNING NOW, SHE MAY BE COMING OUT.

HELP!

THE NURSE!

MARY WORTH

DO I—SIGN SOME SORT OF A CONTRACT WITH YOU, MRS. JONES?

A HANDSHAKE IS GOOD ENOUGH FOR ME, MR. PUTNAM!

I'M SURE WE'LL GET ALONG BEAUTIFULLY!

JUST ONE THING!... FOR A FEW WEEKS, DON'T TELL MRS. PUTNAM YOU HAVE Hired A WOMAN CONSULTANT!

I DO NOT KEEP SECRETS FROM MY—

IT'S UP TO YOU, OF COURSE! BUT I KNOW FROM EXPERIENCE THAT IT'LL BE REGRETTED, AND MY DECISIONS QUESTIONED!

NOW, IF I MAY HAVE A KEY, I'LL BE ON MY WAY!

REX MORGAN

I JUST THOUGHT I'D DROP BY TO SEE HOW YOU'RE FEELING, YANKEE!

I'M JUST A LITTLE TIRED / I WAS GOING TO LIE DOWN FOR A WHILE.

I KNOW YOU HAVEN'T BEEN FEELING WELL, YANKEE! WHY DON'T YOU LET ME TAKE YOU TO THAT DOCTOR?

WILL YOU PLEASE STOP WAGGING MY TAIL IF I THINK I NEED A DOCTOR, I'LL SEE ONE!

POGO

I'M GOING OVER AN' SHOW ALBERT AN' POGO HOW OL' FENSTER MOOP CAN FORECAST THE FUTURE...

DON'T LEAVE ME ALONE AT A TIME LIKE THIS!

DON'T YOU REALIZE THAT IF 1964 WERE TEN DAYS CLOSER, TODAY WOULD BE FRIDAY, THE THIRTIETH!

IT WOULD BE MONDAY!

WOWEE! THAT MEANS FRIDAY, THE THIRTIETH, WOULD COME ON SUNDAY—SUNDAY! THE WHOLE WEEK!

GRANDMA

GOODNESS, HOW LONG HAS THAT BEEN IN THE BACK OF THE REFRIGERATOR?

SHEE! SHEE!

H—M! LIMBURGER CHEESE, AND I THINK IT'S SPOILED!

IT DOESN'T SMELL BAD!

TERRY

—SWEAR I SAW THAT POOK MOVE...

ANY OF 'EM LOCK EDIBLE, LOVER?

HI!

SMITTY

PA IS IN A SECTURING MOOD. I'LL PUT ON MY BARBUFFS!

REMEMBER YOUR RESOLUTIONS? NO MORE FIGHTING, GET TO SCHOOL ON TIME, DO YOUR HOMEWORK, ETC., ETC., ETC.

HEH HEH HEH I COULDN'T HEAR A THING WEARING THESE BARBUFFS! I'M SMART!

WOULD YOU LIKE A NICE BIG DISH OF CHERRY ICE CREAM?

MOON MULLINS

MAMA MIA! AT LAST! THEY'RE PUBLISHING THE COMPLETE COLLECTION OF MICHELANGELO'S LETTERS! MOST INTERESTING!

I THOUGHT YOU WAS A STICKLER FOR NOT READING OTHER PEOPLE'S MAIL, PLUSHIE...

BUT MY WORD—IT'S SH4E A COPY!

LET'S WAIT UNTIL THEY PUBLISH THE COMPLETE COLLECTION OF HIS POSTCARDS—WE CAN PROBABLY AFFORD THAT.

Longhorns, Rebels Open 2-4A Season

Team	W	L	Pts	Opp
Abilene Cooper	13	3	1134	1924
Odessa Permian	12	3	927	811
Big Spring	10	4	1247	1011
Abilene	9	4	848	810
Midland Lee	7	7	720	679
San Angelo	7	7	720	679

Big Spring hopes to get off to a good start in District 2-AAAA basketball competition tonight in a home game with Midland Lee. Tipoff time is 8 o'clock.

B teams of the two schools square away at 6:15 p.m.

The Longhorns will carry an 8-4 won-lost record onto the floor. Lee is 9-6 and probably has played a tougher schedule than has Big Spring.

The Longhorns have had their troubles against Class AAAA teams but won the Snyder tournament and finished as runner-up to South San Antonio in the recent Brownwood tournament.

Lee was also in the Brownwood meet, winding up third after losing a semifinal joust to South San Antonio. The Rebels came back to administer a severe drubbing to Brownwood in the finals after Big Spring had edged Brownwood by two points in a semifinal game that went overtime.

Midland Lee will field a taller club than Big Spring and likely will control the boards tonight. Big Spring's best chances for victory obviously lie in its ability to control the ball and to hit from outside.

Probable starters for Big Spring tonight are Albert Fierro, 6-2; DeeRoby Gartman, 6-0; Ronnie Banks, 5-10; Charley West, 5-11; and Mike Peters, 6-0.

Boys who can expect to play a lot for Big Spring include Simon Terrazas, 6-3; and Monty Clendenin, 6-1.

Fierro has been going great guns, having been named to all-star teams at Snyder and Brownwood. Peters is the leading scorer on the club and a real threat anytime he gets on the court.

John Adams and Mike Frizzell lead the Midland Lee team. Adams was named to the all-tournament team at Brownwood and, like Frizzell, is a splendid rebounder. The Rebels will have a sizeable advantage in height over Big Spring. Lee is coached by Paul Stuechler.

The Steers have averaged 59.5 points a start this season, compared to 54.6 for the opposition.

PAT WASHBURN'S The Roundtable

DON HENRY, San Angelo sportswriter: talking about Texas' victory over Navy in the Cotton Bowl:

"Pogo said it first, but most Texans, this one included, will go along with him: 'Inward I is aglow.'"

Wayne Hardin, Navy coach, commenting on his Midland: "We're a hot-and-cold team... not a level 60-minute team. Texas plays good defense for 60 minutes."

So he found out.

WAYNE HARDIN

During an early-season victory over Michigan State, 26-13, Roger Staubach, Navy quarterback, pulled off one of his spectacular plays. He took the snap and re-treated, then dodged and raced from one side of the field to the other. Finally, 20 yards behind the line of scrimmage, Staubach sighted fullback PAT DONNELLY upfield—the quarterback released the ball just as a wave of tacklers converged on him. Donnelly caught the 21 yard pass and was immediately dropped—Navy had a 1 yard gain to show for all the heroics.

Staubach, describing the play later, said, "That was a Hail Mary play."

The Heisman Trophy winner, when asked about his playing, had this to say:

"I just hate to lose yardage and I try to get out of it any way I can. I don't know exactly how to describe what happens out there. I just know that you have to feel for someone coming and it's logical that you don't want to be there when he arrives."

A while back a representative of the Washington Touchdown Club phoned DARRELL ROYAL, Texas coach, and announced the Texas tackle Scott Appleton had been voted college lineman of the year. The caller explained carefully that the club would buy an airplane ticket, would pay all expenses, would meet Appleton at the airport, and would rent a tuxedo for the 6'2", 230-pound All-America to wear. It all sounded pretty good until Royal happened to glance at his calendar of up-coming events and noticed that the Washington Touchdown Club's banquet was in conflict with the team's banquet.

"Your banquet is on the same night as our team banquet," Royal said. "It's up to Scott, of course, where he wants to go. But knowing him I'm sure he'll prefer to stay here and attend our team banquet."

"Oh," said the voice on the phone. Then after a short pause, "Well, who would you recommend for us to pick as the lineman of the year? We can't pick Appleton if he can't come to the banquet."

Later Royal had this to say, "Apparently what they wanted was not the best lineman in the country but the best lineman in the country who is available Jan. 11. That really burned me. If Appleton is deserving of honor, then he's deserving whether or not he can travel on that day."

"I guess several of these awards and things are handed out that way. I never have believed in the awards and polls. But if they're going to have them, then we deserve to be the No. 1 team in the nation and Appleton deserves to be the outstanding lineman."

"We must be a pretty good team or we wouldn't be 10-0. Everything can't be bad about us."

Tournament Spoils

Coach Delnor Poss is shown with two trophies his Big Spring High School Steers won in recent tournaments. The big award at the left is the championship trophy presented the Steers at the conclusion of the Snyder meet. The locals won the other one by winning runnerup honors in the Howard Payne tournament at Brownwood. The Steers open their District 2-AAAA season at 8 o'clock here tonight against Midland Lee.

Puerto Ricans Set To Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—Jose Torres and Jose Gonzalez, a couple of boxers from the sunny Caribbean, meet here in the frigid north tonight for the middleweight championship of Puerto Rico.

That may seem odd. But stranger still is the fact that Torres, the champion, is guaranteeing Gonzalez $10,000 and is gambling the television 10-rounder will draw about 8,000 fans to Madison Square Garden. The fight is rated a toss-up.

If 8,000 show up, Torres will collect some cash for the lumps he will receive and a possible prestige victory over his ranking opponent.

To make the $10,000 guarantee, Torres is turning over his $5,000 share of the TV receipts to Gonzalez, who will get $5,000 for his end of the video money.

Torres, for his end, will receive 50 per cent of the net gate. Some of the Garden gates have grossed no more than $6,000 or $7,000.

10 Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Fri., Jan. 3, 1964

terminated to make his bid for recognition against ranking fighters, has broken with his manager, cautious Cus D'Amato. D'Amato, who managed former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, refuses to do business with the Garden.

Torres has a 27-1-1 record. The lone loss was a fifth round knockout by Florentino Fernandez in San Juan, P.R., last May 26.

Gonzalez, 23, has a 26-8-1 record. He is ranked ninth among the contenders while Torres is unranked.

The bout will be telecast nationally by ABC-TV. Starting time is 10 p.m., EST.

Gibbs & Weeks Semi-Annual Sale

Starting Saturday Morning at 7 A.M.

Once again it's the time of the year to correct our mistakes... mistakes of over-buying, too many of certain sizes, or just plain goofing on styles... We have only two sales a year... but they are good ones. Not all items are reduced... but a good representation from throughout the store.

Soldiers Leave For Cyprus

British parachute troops wait beside a Royal Air Force transport plane at Lyneham, England, before embarking for Cyprus early today. They were flown to strengthen Britain's garrison of more than 10,000 on the island which has been the scene of recent communal fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots. (AP WIREPHOTO).

Water District Chalks Record

The Colorado River Municipal Water District has established a new record for water deliveries during a single year by having metered 10 1/4 billion gallons in 1963. The 10,586,819,676 gallons delivered not only crossed the 10-billion mark for the first time, but it represented an 8.25 per cent gain over the 9,780,121,675 gallons delivered in 1962. Of the total, the member cities of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder took 7,625,315,220 gallons, or 6.74 per cent more than the 7,152,950,800 gallons during 1962. Oil companies required 2,961,503,956 gallons, or 12.5 per cent more than a year ago for repressuring. However, without the 478,459,654 gallons to Sun Oil (a new customer added July 1), there would have been a 2.19 per cent decline in this phase of water deliveries. During December Odessa took 212,420,000 gallons, an increase 13.79 over the same month a year ago. This made 4,211,907,220 gallons for the year, a gain of 3.54 per cent. Big Spring drew 176,190,600 gallons in December, a gain of 24.31 per cent for the month, and for the year it was 2,619,772,000 gallons, a gain of 5.88 per cent. Snyder required 47,948,000 gallons in December, a gain of 47.76 for the month, making 793,625,400 or 29.83 per cent up for the year. During the past year Snyder began to supply the Rotan water district with treated water. Some of the older established oil repressuring units took less water due to fewer production days and also due to approach in volume of water to oil withdrawals. However, Texas Gulf Producing Company negotiated a new contract on its plant near Odessa, almost doubling its contract quantity. Standard-Sinclair in eastern Howard County increased its draw by 10 per cent.

Cleric Urges Oswald Gifts

DALLAS (AP)—Dr. K. Owen White of Houston, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, says gifts to the widow and children of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald "would be a wonderful opportunity to demonstrate the fact that our faith is warm and personal." Dr. White, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Houston, made the plea in an article published Thursday by the Baptist Standard, official weekly newspaper of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. He was joined by Baptist Standard editor E. S. James, who urged Baptists to remember Marina Oswald, as well as Mrs. J. D. Tippit, widow of the Dallas policeman slain the day President Kennedy was killed. The two influential Baptists praised Americans for their aid to Mrs. Tippit, but urged Baptists not to forget Mrs. Oswald. Oswald was charged in the deaths of both President Kennedy and Tippit. Dr. James said the Oswald family "not only must face life with a stigma they did not bring on themselves, but they must do it without many relatives or friends on whom they can depend for help." Dallas police officials say they believe funds for the Tippit family will pass the half million dollar mark. The Standard said about $30,000 has been contributed to the family of Oswald, who was shot by Dallas night club operator Jack Ruby.

Local 4-Hers Place in Show

Howard County 4-H Club youngsters did not fare as well in the Hereford judging at the Sand Hills Stock Show and Rodeo as they had hoped. Two fifth places, one tenth spot and a third place for the best county group was all the local entrants could score against the tough competition.

No place was won in the heavyweight division. Linda Foster won a fifth spot in the medium weight class and Gary McNew a fifth place in the lightweight group. Robert Haney's steer placed 10th in this division. The county won a third place for the best group of five steers. Coleman County won first in this competition. Vicki Finley, 18-year-old Baird High School senior, won the grand championship of the Hereford show. Stanley Harvey, 17, of Lewters, won the reserve grand championship.

Beans Taken Off Commodity List

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said Friday it has withdrawn soybeans and dry beans from the list of surplus farm commodities it is offering to sell. This action was taken because the government stocks have been cut to very low levels. Commodities still on the sales list include butter, cheddar cheese, non-fat dry milk, cotton, wheat, corn, oats, barley, rice, grain sorghum, peanuts and flax.

Quaker State Cuts Oil Price

OIL CITY, Pa. (AP)—The prices on four grades of Pennsylvania grade crude oil have been cut 15 cents a barrel by Quaker State Oil Refining Corp. The new prices are Bradford District $4.45, Allegheny District $4.40, Southwest District $3.99 and Middle District $4.20, Quaker State said Thursday. Similar reductions were made by the company Dec. 1 on Eureka crude and Buckeye crude. A 15-cent per barrel reduction also was announced by Freedom Oil Co. of Freedom, Pa.

New Cold Front Moving In Texas; Rain Scarce

A cold front pushed south through West Texas Friday morning and was expected to reach the central regions of the state by nightfall.

The Weather Bureau forecast a few badly needed showers for Friday in Southeast Texas, mainly along the coast. Cloudiness was to increase generally during the next 24 hours.

By early Friday, the cold front was located along a line from near Vernon to just south of Lubbock. Near the front, skies were clear but some cloudiness developed over the northern corner and the south central region of the state.

Pre-dawn temperatures ranged from 32 at Lubbock and 35 at Wink to 58 at Brownsville and 59 at Corpus Christi Naval Air Station.

The U.S. Weather Bureau reported Thursday that many Texas points suffered from lack of moisture in 1963. Hardest hit were North Central, South Central and East Texas sectors, where rainfall was 10 to 17 inches below normal.

No rain was reported the first two days of the new year. Last year, Dallas measured only 17.32 inches, compared to its normal rainfall of 34.55 inches. Corpus Christi had 14.66 inches, down 13.68 and Austin's total rainfall of 17.29 was 15.29 inches below the city's average.

Other stations with their 1963 totals included Abilene 17.76 inches, down 5.56; Amarillo 17.30, down 2.37; Brownsville 18.72, down 8.03; El Paso 4.92, down 2.97; Fort Worth 20.19, down 11.14; Galveston 23.25, down 11.56; Houston 32.29, down 13.66; Lubbock 16.21, down 1.87; Port Arthur - Beaumont 32.32, down 0.77; San Angelo 13.95, down 4.68; San Antonio 18.65, down 9.19; Victoria 22.07, down 14.13; Waco 19.57, down 12.51; Wichita Falls 20.55, down 5.65.

Mexican-Filipino Friendship Vowed

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The Mexican Congress has declared 1964 as the "Year of Mexico-Philippines friendship." Congress voted the resolution in its last session of 1963 to commemorate the fourth centenary of the expedition of Mexican Miguel Lopez Legaspi to the Philippines.

Kiwanis Club Schedules Big Year, Jackson Notes

Big Spring Kiwanis Club will have a busy year if the plans of its new president, Rev. V. Ward Jackson are carried out. Jackson discussed his program at the luncheon of the club Thursday noon. He said that the club has a number of projects on a perpetual footing which have to be carried on. Included, he said, will be the work of the club with the Circle K and the Key Club, organizations in the junior college and high school for young men.

Also, he said, the club will continue its sponsorship of a teen-age baseball team this spring and summer. The Kiwanis sponsored team won the state championship in 1963. The club has an active and growing scout troop under its banner and Jackson said that full help would be accorded that group. The club will find some way to add improvements to the HCJC tennis courts which are called Kiwanis Club Courts and were brought into being through the efforts of the club. He added that he felt there is a need to improve still further the small playground-park which the club has started on the west side of town.

Work with underprivileged children must be pushed ahead, he insisted and cited a number of cases which are in need of a help now.

The fund raising activities of the club—its annual pancake supper, the rodeo opening barbecue and other programs—will be continued.

Next week, Soc Walker, Jackson's predecessor, will present the program, Jackson said. Walker will review the highlights of the 1963 year.

He will also make awards to members of the club who achieved notice in the year just ended.

The nation's weather pattern showed a welcome warming trend across most areas today, bringing relief to wide sections in the South and East hit by severe snow and ice storms earlier this week. The Weather Bureau reported no severe cold or heavy snow. Light snow fell in the northern Appalachians and central Rockies and light rain splashed areas along the Washington coast. Strong winds swept the central part of the country as a dry cold front moved eastward along a line from Wisconsin to Northwestern Texas. Early morning temperatures ranged from the 50s along the Mexican border to the 20s in mountain areas in the east and to the teens in mountain sections in the west. Although readings were generally above freezing in most other areas, a pocket of cold air spread into parts of the Southeast and the mercury dipped to 27 in Cross City, Fla.

Vietnamese Grab Munitions Store

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington: RED ARMS: Seven tons of arms and ammunition captured by South Vietnamese army units in two actions against Communist guerrillas shortly before Christmas were of Red Chinese origin, U.S. officials said today.

KENNEDY COIN: Production of the new Kennedy half dollar probably will begin late this month and public distribution may start on May 29, the late president's birthday anniversary. This is just an educated guess at this point, however, for no decision has been made yet.

SMOKING STUDY: A report on smoking and health by a special advisory committee will be presented to Surgeon General Luther L. Terry and to the public sometime this month.

The 10 - member group has been at work for more than a year, and the report was first expected last summer.

RAILS: U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Hotzoff will announce within 10 days his decision on a rail union challenge to an arbitration panel's finding in the work r ties dispute.

The board said 90 per cent—or about 40,000 — of the firemen's jobs on diesel freight and yard service could be eliminated and that the jobs of some 19,000 other train crew members could be reviewed.

KENNEDY BURIAL: President John F. Kennedy's burial at Arlington National Cemetery has led to a fourfold increase in questions about eligibility for burial at Arlington, cemetery officials report.

In general, members and honorably discharged veterans of the armed forces, their wives or husbands and dependent children may be buried at Arlington. There is no charge, nor is there one for ceremonies at the cemetery.

Dynamite Blast Wrecks Building

DALLAS (AP)—A one-story brick building was demolished by a dynamite blast early today. No one was hurt.

Detective Joe Cody said there was evidence dynamite had been placed on the roof of the Sportsman's Club about 10 blocks from downtown Dallas. The building, about 85 feet wide and 115 feet long, was shattered, with pieces landing more than 70 feet away. It was vacant at the time of the 1:30 a. m. blast.

Opening lead: King of ♠
The declarer failed to exercise full control over the proceedings in today's hand, and the defenders were quick to profit from the opening that was presented to them. Holding four high card points, South had the ingredients for a direct raise to game of his partner's opening two no trump bid. But, with a five card major suit, he properly decided first to test the possibility of playing a suit contract by bidding three spades. North raised South to four spades.

West opened the king of diamonds and the ace was promptly played from the dummy. The jack of diamonds was returned to West's queen, and the latter shifted to the jack of clubs. South took the trick with his queen in order to ruff out his last diamond. Next came the ace and another spade, as East won the second lead with the king.

East hastened to put the declarer back in the dummy by returning the ten of clubs. South played the king of hearts and East was in to lead a third round of clubs, which enabled his partner to score the jack of trumps on an overruff for the setting trick.

Declarer had been guilty of placing all of his eggs in a single basket. Instead of committing himself to obtaining a diamond ruff, he should have endeavored to retain control of that suit, so that he could cope effectively with the defenders no matter in which direction they chose to attack.

South should permit West to hold the first trick with the king of diamonds. If the latter now shifts to the jack of clubs, declarer has time to play ace and another trump, driving out East's king. When South regains the lead, he can draw the last spade and discard his losing diamond on the third club.
