Panama-U.S. Negotiation Hits Snag

PANAMA (AP)—Negotiations between the United States and Panama were deadlocked today after the United States rejected a Panamanian demand that it promise to review the Panama Canal treaty as a condition for resuming relations.

Diplomatic sources said the United States refused to make such a pledge under pressure. The peace committee of the Organization of American States scheduled another meeting today with the U.S. and Panamanian negotiators. The committee postponed its departure for Washington in an effort to help restore diplomatic relations.

OBLIGATION
But Panamanian Foreign Minister Galileo Solis said his government would decide within 24 hours on a country to take over Panamanian affairs in Washington—the final step in severance of diplomatic relations.

In Washington, the White House said the United States has an obligation to operate the Panama Canal "efficiently and securely" and "cannot allow the security of the Panama Canal to be imperiled."

HOUSES RE-OPEN
In Panama City, business houses reopened and American personnel returned to the U.S. Embassy for the first time since they evacuated the building Friday.

U.S. military authorities at Balboa announced that an evacuation would probably begin today of dependents of U.S. military and civilian personnel desiring to return to the United States rather than return to their homes in the Panama republic.

Castro-Like Men Head Island Coup

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika (AP)—The first U.S. refugees from turbulent Zanzibar reported today that Spanish-speaking men in Castro-like uniforms appeared to be the hard core of African rebels who overthrew the island's Arab government.

The Americans arrived aboard the U.S. destroyer Manley. The State Department had ordered the removal of all but two of the 63 Americans on Zanzibar because bands of Africans were roaming streets, shooting and looting.

Stuart Lillicoe, public affairs officer of the U.S. Embassy in Zanzibar, told reporters here that a Cuban-looking type was the leader of the rebels who captured the cable and wireless company's office. He said the man understood English but replied Spanish and spoke no Swahili, the most common language of Zanzibar.

Smathers Dealings With Baker Probed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators pledged today a full inquiry into a joint land venture by former Senate aide Robert G. Smathers and Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla.

MORE TESTIMONY
Called back for more testimony today was Eugene A. Hancock of Miami, Fla., president of Automatic Vending Services, Inc., and former president of another vending machine company known as Serv-U Corp.

TAX RETURNS
Smathers' name came up in the testimony late Monday of Milton Hautf, a veteran of 15 years in the Internal Revenue Service, who said he has assisted Baker in preparing his federal income tax returns.

CHILE ENVOY
Ambassador Manuel Trucco of Chile was named head of the peace authority, representing the OAS. The U.S. members are William Beldon, political adviser to Gen. Andrew P. O'Meara, commander of U.S. forces in the Canal Zone, and Lt. Gen. George Mabry, chief of U.S. military operations in the zone.

BLACKMAILER
Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said Panama "had no more right to fly her flag there than England has to fly her flag in the capital of the United States."

By The Associated Press
The howling snowstorm that blasted much of eastern United States—worst in years in spots—left scores dead in its wake today. Huge drifts marooned thousands of travelers overnight.

The death toll was at least 71. The storm system that swirled into blizzard proportions in the Northeast dumped more than two feet of snow in some sections. Gale force winds whipped the snow into drifts—some 20 feet high.

Many school systems, including those in New York City and Philadelphia, closed today. Business closings were widespread.

About 3,000 travelers spent the night at Kennedy International Airport in New York after all flights were canceled because of drifts on the runways. In Pennsylvania, 250 pupils were marooned overnight at a high school.

Their reaction, as one put it: "Down with snowflaps. This is the swiftest party of the year."

Although the snowfall tapered off, winds with gusts up to 60 miles an hour continued and near-zero cold was expected as far south as Tennessee tonight.

The Midwestern half of the storm battered Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, leaving thousands snowbound Sunday night and Monday. Drifts were reported 20 feet high in some Ohio areas.

Youngstown, Ohio, with 16 inches, called it the worst snowstorm in 13 years. St. Louis had 8.1 inches, the most in six years.

The southern half of the storm brought Florida its first snow in six years. It melted quickly, but plunging temperatures were the main concern with below-freezing temperatures recorded in central Florida.

The storms converged and their combined punch smacked the Northeast. Washington's nine inches was the heaviest snowfall in nearly six years. Morgantown, W. Va., had 16 inches.

New York City and environs were hit by a foot or more of snow that slowed homebound commuters Monday night. The principal suburban highways on Long Island were virtually impassable for several hours.

Trains were late and some 6,000 to 8,000 commuters doubled and tripled-up in city hotel rooms.

way bridge were taken in Army trucks to a nearby base and then given lifts home.

The metropolitan airports were socked in. Newark Airport was under 15 inches of snow.

Snow depths in New England ranged around 12 inches with some drifts up to five feet high.

At Ashland, N.Y., 35 miles from Albany, the snow was 30 inches deep. In Albany, where 14 inches fell, cots were set up in state Capitol corridors for legislators. About 100 state employees spent the night at the employment offices.

Much of the nation also was struck by near-zero temperatures.

15 BELOW
One of the coldest reported was in Idaho Falls, Idaho, where -15 was registered during the early morning. Pocatello was -13. A -8 was reported in Landers, Wyo.

Many readings between zero and 10 above were reported.

The southern portion of Texas braced for freezing temperatures. The mercury was expected to reach only the 20s in the lower Rio Grande Valley.

The Weather Bureau said blustery weather would continue over the Northeast throughout the day with snow flurries and strong winds prevailing.

Snow warnings were in effect from Nevada and Utah through the northern Rockies, with heavy snow expected in the southern Idaho mountain area.

New Cold Mark Set
The season's second coldest weather set a new 64-year record for Jan. 14 in Big Spring last night. It was two degrees above yesterday's report of nine degrees.

The thermometer at the Big Spring Experiment station dropped to 11 degrees—four degrees colder than the 15 degree record set in 1905 and 1924.

The highest mercury could climb in the 24 hours ending at 5 a.m. today was 35 degrees.

Sunshine Offers Respite For Shivering Texans

By The Associated Press
Bright sunshine brought promise today of a slight warming trend in Texas after a bone-chilling night that brought a record low of 4 degrees to Fort Worth.

Freezing weather before dawn moved into the upper portions of the Rio Grande Valley but a cloud cover saved vegetables and citrus crops in the mid and lower valley regions.

The minimum of 4 degrees was reported both by Dalhart in the upper Panhandle and at Fort Worth in the central section of the state.

Lubbock had a low of 7 degrees, Waco and Amarillo 8. Other lows included Dallas and Wichita Falls 11, Texarkana and Abilene 12, El Paso 13, Marfa and San Angelo 15, San Antonio 17, Austin 18, and Beaumont 19.

Rio Grande Valley had a low of 23, which could damage vegetables although farmers said it would be late Wednesday before the exact damage could be determined.

center drifting eastward and lodged over east Texas.

Some high cloudiness was reported in the west and south. Forecasts call for clear to partly cloudy skies with a few more clouds in north Texas Wednesday. A slow warming trend was also predicted for Wednesday.

A low-lying cloud bank protected the Valley from a hard freeze. McAllen recorded 36.

Knees Not To Reds' Liking

MOSCOW (AP) — Western girls' knees are raising Russian eyebrows in Moscow.

It's not just the Russian women who are complaining. The men are, too.

The trouble centers on a clash of customs: In the Soviet Union it is considered not polite or decent for a woman to show her knees.

Thus, you never—or almost

No Rush Seen In Dealings With Smoking

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal report on smoking is not likely to rush Congress into action on bills dealing with cigarettes. No one else seems to be in a rush either.

The federal report issued Saturday branded cigarettes a health hazard and called for corrective action.

Four bills on cigarettes are now before the House Commerce Committee. The oldest has been there almost a year. The newest, almost a month.

Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., the chairman of this powerful committee, said in an interview, "I have made no decision about them and have not scheduled any hearings."

Harris is known in Congress as a man who measures his words carefully. His comment can be taken to mean that headlines about the Public Health Service report on smoking hazards are not going to rush him into quick hearings. But his words do not rule out the possibility of hearings sometime this year.

Meanwhile, on the New York Stock Exchange, cigar stocks advanced Monday, but for most cigarette issues generally, the late trading was in their favor.

It was a comparatively gentle reaction considering the strength of the federal report condemning cigarette smoking—but brokers explained that stocks were already near their lows for 1963-64, and the late recovery indicated the harshness of the report had been expected.

never—see a Russian woman cross her legs in public.

No matter how gracefully a Western girl manages it, she invariably draws looks of astonishment and disapproval.

REPRIMAND
A young English girl who relaxed while sitting in a Moscow subway train caught a sharp reprimand from a well-covered Soviet matron.

The Russian woman leaned forward in her seat and told the girl, who was sitting opposite, "Uncross your legs—it is not decent to sit like that."

The girl did as she was told. "It's absurd," she said later. "You see women sprawled with their legs apart—most undignified and unladylike by our standards—and yet they object if you show a little knee."

The Russians have a passion for concealment—yet it has its contradictions. Russian women think nothing of going to the beach clad in panties and bra.

To prevent clashes with Soviet sensitivities, diplomats have given their female employees some advice on what not to wear in Moscow.

Definitely out are very bright woolen stockings, tights and ski pants.

REVEALING
Tights and ski pants are too revealing, Russians think. Old Russian sensitivities seem to be changing slowly.

Not so long ago you would never see a Russian girl in slacks. Now about Moscow's streets you occasionally see a Russian girl in ski pants of a kind, though not as tightly fitting as the Western style. Most Russians still think ski pants are for skiing.

Another Western girl working here went for a walk wearing bright red woolen stockings. She had brought them from England, especially for the Russian winter.

STOP TRAFFIC
The stockings almost stopped traffic. Wherever she went Russians gaped and gawked at her, giggled and pointed.

"They crowded around me everywhere I went," she said. "They gesticulated and nudged each other. Some laughed. Others seemed outraged. Even men."

Later the reason for the Russian interest was made clear: In the old days Russian prostitutes wore red stockings to advertise.

"I just daren't wear them again," the girl giggled. "I almost caused an international incident."

Police Blotter Shows Variety

Police investigated a variety of complaints during the week-end.

Someone took six hubcaps valued at $39 from two different vehicles at Buckner's Used Car Lot, 1102 W. 4th, either Friday or Saturday, police said.

A taillight was taken from the car of Mrs. Eva Hanson, 503 Abrams, while the vehicle was parked either at her home or at Faye's Flower Shop, 1013 Gregg, according to police.

Hubcaps and fender skirts were taken from the car of R. L. Guvara, Luther, Saturday at the Gomez Ballroom, officers said.

Police said Kenneth Lavender, 2001 Runnels, told them he lost a First National Bank deposit bag containing about $5 Saturday between Lancaster and Gregg.

A 22-year-old Big Spring man was arrested at 3:30 a.m. Sunday in connection with the theft of six empty bottles from a local drive-in and a battery from the Shamrock Station on West Third, police said.

A 15-year-old youth was turned over to his parents today following his arrest about 7:20 a.m. at the Big M Drive-In on the San Angelo Highway in connection with the theft of a tape recorder and radio, according to police.

Detectives said seven local youths would be turned over to Juvenile Officer Bob Darland. They were arrested for having intoxicating beverages in their possession.

A pickup involved in a hit-and-run accident about 12:34 a.m. Sunday was reported stolen while it was parked at Marquez Place, 401 NW 4th. Police said they recovered the vehicle at Sixth and North Scurry about five minutes after the accident. The vehicle had been abandoned.

Police said someone complained that a burglar was searching cars on a parking lot in the 700 block of West Third about 10:45 p.m. Saturday.

Nathaniel Boston Jr., an airman stationed at Webb AFB, was treated at Medical Arts Clinic-Hospital Saturday night for a cut on the left hand. Police said he involved a woman, but he refused to file charges.

Two young men were arrested about 1:30 p.m. Sunday in connection with the theft of an undetermined number of pillow cases and sheets from the Holiday Inn, detectives said.

A man in the 1400 block of Tucson Road reported vandals had damaged his car about 6:45 p.m. Sunday, police said. Two airmen attached to a Key West, Fla. organization were taken to the guard house at Webb AFB early Sunday after their arrest at a local bar. According to the police report, they were dressed in flight uniforms and were carrying "survival" knives.

DEAR ABBY
Breach Of Promise?

DEAR ABBY: I am 12 years old (male) and need your help. Recently, in a joking way, I gave a girl a cheap, imitation ring I picked up at a dime store. Now she's trying to tell me that no matter how cheap the ring is, as long as I gave it to her, we are officially engaged. I tried to tell her it was all a gag, but she is threatening to sue me for breach of promise. Can she do this? A buddy of mine who is attending law school says she can.

When a boy talks to a girl, who is supposed to hang up first? I really don't think it makes much difference, but he says the girl is definitely supposed to hang up first. Is there any such rule?

BILL'S FRIEND
DEAR FRIEND: As far as I know, there is no such rule, but it really doesn't make much difference as long as SOMEBODY hangs up after 30 minutes.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SHARP OBSERVER": The worse a man is morally, the better he expects his wife to be.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for Abby's new booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions"

DEAR GETTING: I am no lawyer, but I can tell you that anybody can sue whomever he (or she) wants to sue and all the defendant can do is try to defend himself. If she brings suit against you (which I think unlikely) she will have to prove that the ring was given to her together with your promise to wed. If she can do that, Brother, you are in trouble.

DEAR ABBY: Do you remember way back when you invited people over for a meal and they came and ate with such enthusiasm that it made you feel that it was worth every bit of trouble you went to? What has happened to those days? I had a Thanksgiving dinner for 20 and I carried more than half the food off the table untouched. Nobody wanted any sweet potatoes (too fattening!) and all my lovely home-made rolls were passed up. Somebody asked me if the peas had butter on them and only 5 out of 20 would even taste my pecan pie! Everybody is either on a diet or watching their cholesterol. It's no fun to cook any more. What's the answer?

DISAPPOINTED HOSTESS
DEAR HOSTESS: Next time take the whole lot of 'em to a restaurant and let them order what they want.

DEAR ABBY: I just had a 30-minute argument with a boy on the phone and hope that you can settle the question:

OUR ATTITUDE
My critic thinks my brethren and I claim to be perfect in our understanding of the Scriptures. Not so. We claim to be students of the Scriptures. We are committed to accept anything we find written therein. We are ready to be taught by anyone. We are willing to have tested, anything which we have accepted as Bible teaching. We encourage investigation and discussion. We ask no one to take our word for what is in the Bible; but in preaching we quote Scripture and tell the people where to find it. We ask them to study the Bible for themselves, and if what we teach is true to the Book, to accept it for that reason, but if it is not true to the Book, to reject the teaching (also to come to us and point out where we have missed the Scriptures). Such is our attitude. Now, will someone please point out wherein this attitude is wrong; and wherein it is unsafe.
By T. H. Torbet, preacher, church of Christ, 200 West Highway 86, where you are always welcome. —ADP.

Four Canadian Satellites Slated

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington: SPACE: Four Canadian scientific satellites designed to study the ionosphere will be fired into polar orbits from California's Pacific Missile Range between 1965 and 1970. Plans for launchings were included in an agreement announced today by the Canadian Defense Research Board and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

JFK LIBRARY: Members of John F. Kennedy's family have launched a campaign for $8 million in public contributions to build a library to house the late president's papers. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy told a news conference Monday that $2 million of the necessary $10 million had already been pledged — $1 million from the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation and $1 million from other donors.

Kennedy selected the site — across Boston's Charles River from his alma mater, Harvard University — about one month before he was assassinated in Dallas last Nov. 22. Harvard donated the land.

CUBA: A spokesman for Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., says the senator has received reports from refugees and other sources that the Soviet Union has poured additional men and military equipment into Cuba. Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., said he had also received reports of a new Soviet personnel buildup. But he said he had not been able to check them and added that they "deal entirely with personnel, not weapons."

PAY ROLL CUTBACK: Nearly 6,000 jobs have been eliminated from the federal pay roll for the next two years, the White House reports.

Press aide Andrew Hatcher said Monday that the heads of 47 departments and agencies have chopped 3,291 government jobs for the fiscal year ending June 30, and an additional 2,708 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1965.

WHEAT: Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. expects the Soviet Union to buy considerably more than the 150 million bushels of U.S. wheat for which it is now negotiating.

Roosevelt said Monday night that Russia may be in the market for American wheat for a year or longer. He attributed the Soviet Union's wheat need to fundamental defects in its agriculture system — rather than the failure of one year's crops.

Roosevelt was interviewed on the ABC radio program "From the Capitol."

Businessmen's Outlooks Filled With Rosy Glow

NEW YORK (AP)—Rising stock prices and fatter corporate profits have cast a rosy glow over most of the predictions business executives are busy issuing these days.

Caution, often a dominant note in such forecasts in the past, is less in evidence this year. Rather, confidence that still loftier heights will be climbed in 1964 is the general keynote.

On such confidence at business and consumer levels economic growth is built—on overconfidence it has often stubbed its toes.

MISTAKES

Still, one chief reason today's business picture is so bright is that the caution of the last year or so has kept most businessmen from repeating the mistakes that led past business upswings into excesses and caused recessions. There has been no big buildup in inventories, for example, and no rush to over-expand industrial capacity.

The absence of such excesses is cited as one of the strongest factors in the industrial and trade position at present and of the chance that today's business upswing may achieve a record for longevity.

NOT CONVINCING

And in the stock market, also, signs of excesses still aren't too convincing. The public may be coming back into the market, but the professionals seem in control. And the public hasn't indulged yet in the excess speculation that sent the 1961 market for untried and questionable stocks to a peak that led to a bust.

For all of the general optimism today, there is the usual hard core of observers whose motto is: "When everyone seems to be predicting a big year ahead, watch out!"

They are slow to believe that a new era is at hand—an era in which the business cycle is a thing of the past. The present upswing is nearly three years old now, a near record for peacetime. The pessimists like to point out that optimism and the forsaking of caution has often reached a peak just when the economic upturn also was topping out.

MOMENTUM

But today's statistics speak loudly of the health of the economy now. They also foretell a momentum that seems sure to keep the prosperity going for some months to come.

If this leads to a forsaking of caution by leading industrialists, then the ranks of the worriers will increase.

Already these pessimists can point to some lagging sectors of the economy. Manufacturing companies aren't hiring or rehiring workers at a rate the growth advocates wish. New orders of durable goods have slowed after an earlier spurt. Construction outlays as a whole are above a year ago, but lagging are new contracts for industrial and commercial contracts. The announced intentions of business to expand its plant or buy new equipment show a lower increase over last year than the general glow of the economic statistics would seem to inspire.

JFK Probe Due Soon

DALLAS (AP)—The FBI report on its investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy should be in the hands of Dallas Dist. Atty. Henry Wade "in the next few days," says Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

Carr told the Highland Baptist Brotherhood Monday night he had asked Lee Rankin, chief counsel for the presidential commission investigating Kennedy's death, to make the report available to Wade.

Carr said he believed the Warren commission's investigation would be "complete and thorough" but he indicated he would call a state court of inquiry after the commission makes its report.

PROPER TIME

The attorney general said he believed proof gathered in the commission's investigation should be made public "at the proper time" and translated into foreign languages.

Carr told questioners he knew of no link established between Lee Harvey Oswald, President Kennedy's accused assassin, and Jack Ruby, the Dallas night club operator who shot Oswald.

Carr said evidence had been uncovered which made it likely the gun used to kill President Kennedy was also used in a sniper's attempt on former Gen. Edwin A. Walker. The reported attempt on Walker's life came in April, 1963.

WITH WARREN

Carr emphasized he agreed with Chief Justice Earl Warren in calling off the state court of inquiry, at least for the time being.

He also said he and lawyers Leon Jaworski of Houston and Robert Storey of Dallas had been asked by Warren to sit in with the presidential commission in its probe.

"We examined all the evidence which has been placed in the hands of the commission, as well as the future plans of the commission, and I can honestly tell you that we were impressed by the thoroughness of the investigation that is planned," Carr said.

Turner Death Trial Slated

MIDLAND (AP)—James Lee Marion, muscular Negro cafe cook, will go on trial March 16 in Lubbock for the slaying here last Oct. 29 of Mrs. Fred Turner, wife of a prominent Midland oilman and horse breeder.

A change of venue to Lubbock was ordered today by Judge Perry Pickett, after Marion's arraignment on a murder charge.

Pickett had said previously he was convinced "the prominence of the Turners and the widespread publicity given this case" would make it impossible to obtain a jury in Midland.

Turner won the Kentucky Derby in 1959 with his horse Tom Lee.

Pickett said Judge Victor Lindsey had agreed to hear the case beginning March 16 in Lubbock.

Dist. Atty. Joseph Mims said he will seek the death penalty for Marion, 22, who has signed a statement admitting he killed Mrs. Turner while burglarizing her palatial home.

Marion's lawyer, Garland Casebier, entered a plea today of innocent by reason of insanity for his client.

Marion was arrested the same day Mrs. Turner was found slain. He was hiding in a storage shed in the area.

Stallings To Run

Rufus Stallings, County commissioner from Precinct No. 1, said today that he had changed his mind and he will run for re-election in the primary. Stallings indicated earlier that he did not intend to seek return to his post.

"I have decided to make the race after all," he said. "I will make my formal announcement later."

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTETEX, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get PASTETEX at drug counters everywhere.

A Devotional For The Day

Whoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:33.)
PRAYER: Our Father, as we begin this day's life in Christ, we ask Thy blessing. We thank Thee for Thy love. Help us to live worthy of that love. In Jesus' name and for His sake. Amen.

Patience And Firmness

Tension in the Panama upheaval which left two dozen dead in the wake of weekend rioting has now eased. An authority has been established to maintain the peace along the Canal Zone border.

This being done, presumably there will be no common ground for permanently easing these tensions. As with so many incidents, the thing which ostensibly triggered the tinderbox was the flying of the American flag in front of the American school. Panamanian students marched on the school, ripped down the flag and the explosion was on.

This is but a manifestation of the deeper smouldering. Panama political leaders have clamored for a revision of the treaty under which the United States operates the Panama Canal. They are realistic enough to know they can't have it, but they want a bigger cut out of it. Within itself, this might be understandable though not acceptable, but it is also coupled with the rising tide of nationalism, which unfortunately is exploited to some substantial extent by communism. This is particularly true as concerns that brand known as Castroism with its strong Latin appeal.

There is no question of what we could do, and none is more aware of this than Panama. But here, for reasons of diplomacy and consistency, we are hesitant to apply bald force and confirm a taunt that we are the cold colossus from the north. Nor do we want to chuck over honored treaties or meekly yield our just rights. Thus, this is a time for firmness, but also patience.

What Next?

The blue chip report on the relation of cigarette smoking to certain cardiac and respiratory ailments, namely lung cancer, is now in and well publicized. No one can profess surprise for this is but a coordinated affirmation of numerous reports which have been trickling in for years.

There are a few—but they are few—who will still argue that there is no demonstrated connection between the use of tobacco and certain diseases such as lung, bronchial and similar types of cancer. While the evidence may not be conclusive in some minds, it is overwhelming.

Now this does not mean that if you smoke you are going to have lung cancer. The statistics say that the odds are more heavily in favor of this development if you do smoke than if you don't.

The government clinic is by no means the first voice to be raised in this respect. One distinguished medical expert once quipped that smoking would eventually kill every heavy smoker if something else didn't first.

The question now is what should be done about it. There is a lot of speculation on this point. Some go so far as to say sale of tobacco ought to be banned; some say there ought to be a label on each package of cigarettes warning that the contents may be harmful to health.

All of these seem a bit impractical and some extreme. There would be just as much a case for labeling alcoholic beverages on the ground that alcoholism might result from habitual use. Perhaps the best thing is to carry on a constant educational program, continue statistical research so that there can be no excuse for anyone not knowing that they smoke at their own peril. If they insist, then so be it.

Marquis Childs Johnson Meets A New Crisis

WASHINGTON—The new year was scarcely a week old before President Johnson got his full initiation into the perils of the Presidency in a time of troubles.

It came even before the tragic outbreak of rioting in Panama. The occasion was the first full-dress meeting of the National Security Council over which the new President had presided. The subject was the thorniest menace to peace in Southeast Asia—Indonesia, the mercurial Sukarno and his undeclared war against the new federation of Malaysia.

THOSE PRESENT, with two or three exceptions veterans of many such solemn confrontations, felt the President came out with high marks. He was quiet, restrained, soberly listening until his own judgment was required.

Underscoring the deep feeling of those around the long table was the presence of Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy. It was ratification of Kennedy's decision reached after long and painful travail to stay with the Johnson Administration. While he is not officially a member of the Security Council, President Kennedy had asked him to sit in the sessions of this top-secret policy-forming body.

WHAT IS MORE, Kennedy had taken an active part in Indonesian policy, visiting Jakarta on his Asian tour and engaging in some straight talk with the volatile Sukarno. That was when Sukarno was threatening to attack the Dutch on West New Guinea with the MIGs and other advanced weapons he had got from the Russians in a long-term credit deal for about one billion dollars of military hardware. The West New Guinea reaction was the same kind of knee-jerk nationalism Sukarno is exhibiting over Malaysia.

AS THE MEETING opened the President in calling on Kennedy for his views addressed him as "General," the way in which the Attorney General is often formally spoken to. This half-respectful, half-humorous, affectionate salutation to one he has known well over the years impressed the Council members.

As with so many situations past and present no simple solution in ready blacks and whites was in sight. The NSC heard a terse review of how relations between the United States and Indonesia stand at the present moment.

THREE PROGRAMS of on-going American aid are continuing. They are all comparatively small. A technical

OUR COLD WAR DEFENDER

Little Chance For Panama To Follow Suez

WASHINGTON (AP)—While there is some similarity between events now involving the Panama Canal and what happened at the Suez Canal in 1956, there is small chance the outcome will be the same.

The Egyptians seized Suez in 1956 and have run it since. But Secretary of State Dean Rusk says this country cannot afford to pull out of the Panama Canal Zone even though the Panama Assembly has demanded Panamanian control.

What was similar at both canals was the rising nationalism of Egyptians and Panamanians and their resentment of a foreign presence on their soil: the British at Suez and Americans in Panama.

IN BOTH CASES, Egyptian and Panamanian nationalism was a by-product of World War I, which left the European colonial powers so prostrated that they were unable to yield their colonies.

To Panamanians and others, particularly in Latin America, Americans in Panama no doubt mean sheer colonialism even though this country has a treaty with Panama to be there and run the canal.

Because this country is so big, considers itself the leader of the free world, and is trying to keep small and backward countries away from communism, it cannot help but feel self-conscious in its dispute with poor and tiny Panama.

FOR THIS reason the Panamanians can feel encouraged to push and push for concessions. By the same token, this country undoubtedly will feel compelled to make them although, from what Rusk says, not total withdrawal.

The background of the two canals is not identical.

While the French built the Suez Canal in 1869, the British became the canal company's biggest stockholder in 1875. They subsequently built a huge military base at Suez.

AFTER THE war, the Egyptians, like the rest of the Arab world, had enough of colonialism. They saw the British give up India in 1948. In 1952 an army revolt threw out King Farouk and took over Egypt. Not long afterward Col. Abdel Gamel Nasser became president.

The canal company's contract with Egypt was to run until 1968 after which the Suez was to be turned over to Egypt. Nasser took it 12 years ahead of time. The situation is different with the Panama Canal.

This country's 1903 treaty with Panama for American control of the canal completely lacks a limit like the British had at Suez. It says American control is to run forever, or at least indefinitely. This alone has irritated Panamanians.

BUT THEY benefit from the canal although whether they could benefit more if they tried to run it themselves is something else.

Panama gets almost $2 million a year from this country for use of the canal. Any income from the canal above operating costs is spent on improvements. The Panamanians get money from jobs they hold in the zone and from money spent in Panama itself by ships crews and tourists.

THE PANAMANIANs—at this time—will probably settle for less than control of the canal. They have made other demands: more money for use of the canal, some changes in the treaty, better pay for Panamanians working in the zone.

Nasser could seize Suez without declaring war on Britain because the last British troops had left before he acted. Panama could hardly try to grab the canal, if it ever had such a thought, without attacking American forces.

Office Life Returning To Normal

NEW YORK (AP)—Life is getting back to normal in the average American business office, and everybody feels better.

At the start of a new year, there is always a tremendous surge of efficiency.

The suggestion box is stuffed with big ideas from the hired hands on how the company can dominate its industry, ideas which a thoughtful management promptly dumps in a wastebasket.

EVERYONE is full of pep, and attacks his duties with the frenzy of an eager beaver who is afraid there'll be no tomorrow.

Each employee rushes through breakfast to get to work on time. The time spent on coffee breaks drops.

The bunch that usually trade gossip at the water cooler now bend busily over their desks. Even the office boy quits spending half his day looking at himself in the washroom mirror while he combs his hair, and decides to take a course in night school to prepare himself for taking over the company's leadership.

AT THE END of five days of this extraordinary activity,

Harry Quibble, the union shop steward, voices a worry: "If we keep up this pace, fellows, we'll have all the year's work done by April—and then they'll cut the office staff in half."

His concern is unnecessary. Enthusiasm for reform usually is short-lived.

By the close of the first week, backsliding begins.

The secretary who got to work five minutes early now starts arriving five minutes late, then 10, then 15.

The vice presidents who were so intent on solving their problems go back to shuffling papers, writing cloudy memos and passing the buck.

THE COFFEE breaks get longer.

Those who couldn't find enough to do last week now are complaining if they have to do anything. Clock watching is popular again, and it seems like a long, long time until quitting time.

Yes, the annual perfection binge is over. The boss is pleased rather than displeased. Confident now that no executive on his staff will knife him out of his job, he packs his golf bags for a well-earned rest in Florida.

To Your Good Health Removal Of Gallstone Recommended

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I was about six years ago when I was in the hospital I had some X-rays which showed a gallstone about the size of a walnut. My doctor advised surgery but I don't immediately. A friend said this could turn into cancer if I didn't have an operation.

I haven't had any attacks, but when I am sitting or trying to bend over, it is hard for me to straighten up. This scares me. Something seems to get stuck under my rib and I can feel a lump for a few seconds. Do you advise surgery or can it wait? — MRS. A. G.

I won't say whether gallstones "turn into cancer," or cause cancer, but we do know that cancer of the gall bladder is more frequent among patients who have had gallstones which have been allowed to remain.

This includes the "silent" gallstones, or stones which do not cause any discomfort to the patient.

Therefore, to my mind, the answer is obvious: If you know you have such a stone, don't just let it stay there unless there is some good reason otherwise for doing so.

You say that your walnut-sized stone was discovered when you were in the hospital and had X-rays. I presume this means that you were hospitalized for something else, and the gallstone was discovered incidentally.

Your doctor "advised surgery but not immediately." Evidently he was primarily concerned with whatever caused you to be in the hospital. That makes good sense. He wanted that whatever it was—cleared up first.

But when he said the gallstone should be removed, I don't think he meant that you should wait six years. Do you?

Whether your present discomfort is from the gallstone (this is possible) or from some muscular or other disorder (also possible) I can't say without having the results of some other tests and observations. Maybe I couldn't tell then. It's not always easy to know just what causes which symptoms.

But if I had a walnut-sized stone in my gall bladder, I'd have it out.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please write about aphasia. Can it be detected by brainwave tests? — MRS. J. M.

Aphasia is the inability either to understand or to speak words. It implies either disease or injury to the part of the brain which governs speech, usually the left side.

Generally speaking, a brainwave test wouldn't show that a person had aphasia. You would not need a test to show that! But if the aphasia existed, a brain-wave test would, or might, disclose a tumor or other lesion in the brain which would account for the aphasia.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 23, very overweight, have low thyroid, and have not menstruated for over a year. I have been to two doctors. They told me my weight was probably the cause. What is your opinion? — W. S.

BOTH factors, overweight and low thyroid activity, are known to affect menstruation. Instead of going to two doctors and doubting what they told you, why don't you go to just ONE, and do something about the trouble? The doctor can treat you for the thyroid condition which, in turn, may make it easier for you to lose weight, which is YOUR part of the job.

Around The Rim

The Way To Quit—Is Quit

I predict a marked increase in minor disputes, cuss fights, general grumpiness and short tempers for the next several weeks.

The first reaction to the government committee report that it has found a connection of threatening proportions between cigarette smoking and lung cancer will be a resolution on the part of a vast number of heavy smokers to do something about it.

THE BOLDER ONES will announce their intention to quit cold. The less courageous ones will tell you they intend to "cut down."

If the bold ones stick with their guns, they will eventually win. If they have the guts to take the punishment, they can lick the habit. I know it can be done because I have lived through the experience. Frankly, I do not recall that the ordeal was too severe in my case, although at the time I quit (my doctor told me I had to quit) I was puffing away at about two packs per day. I had been smoking for a great many years, and I just didn't see how I could do without them.

IT'S BEEN LONG ENOUGH now that I can truthfully say that I have kicked the habit. The only way I could stop smoking was to stop. In other words, this happy idea of tapering off and gradually cutting down to nothing is strictly for the birds. If you want to stop smoking then throw away the cigarettes you have on hand, realize that you are going to be subjected to a lot of temptation to smoke, and resolve that not to let it get you.

MARK TWAIN was once told by his doctor that he smoked too many big black cigars. The doctor told him he would have to reduce the number of cigars he smoked per day.

"I can't do that, doctor," said Twain. "I haven't the will power to cut down on the number of cigars I smoke. However, I do have the will power to quit, if that's what I should do."

I've watched the "taper off" smoker and soon he is back in the old routine, and he alibis his action with the conclusion that he didn't feel any better when he wasn't smoking his usual quota.

ANOTHER THING — if you are quitting cigarettes, insist that your family members who are still smoking not to martyrize themselves for your sake. In other words, it will only increase the nervous tension for all parties for the smokers to refrain from smoking out of pity for you.

The general public at large isn't going to show any such thoughtfulness. The repentant smoker will find his friends all over town still smoking. He will run into armies of strangers, all of whom puff away.

HOW LONG before the sting dulls? Who can say? I imagine it varies with each individual. I do not have any sharp recollection how long that period was in my case. I only know that you do reach the point where you no longer crave to smoke. Then you've won the game.

It can be done. I did it, and I'll guarantee I am not the world's strongest-willed character.

Automation Threat Is Very Real

To anyone who wishes to court a permanent curl in his hair I recommend the latest report of the Research Institute of America. All the pleasant euphoria engendered so far by the stock market in the new year goes out the window on examination of the RIA's current report—warning, really—on the impact of automation on the nation, its economy, social system and labor force.

THIS ORGANIZATION, conservative by nature, warns at the outset that its report "makes unpleasant reading," and it isn't exaggerating. It foresees in the not-too-distant future a national unemployment rate crowding the 10 per cent mark, and even rising to 20 per cent or more in many troubled industrial areas.

"The moment of truth on automation is coming, and a lot sooner than most people realize," the report begins, and adding, "the shattering fact is that the U.S. is still almost totally unprepared for the approaching crisis."

EVENTUALLY, says the report, automation may add new jobs, but these are probably 20 years distant when automation has created whole new industries undreamed of today. But workers displaced by machines in the foreseeable future will be unable to find a ready market for their hard-earned but now useless skills.

"How many lost production jobs?" asks the Research Institute report and then answers, "No one knows for sure but two extreme estimates give you some idea of what's ahead. The Labor Department is 'optimistic' and sees only 4,000 jobs now lost weekly. But one industry 'pessimist' thinks that 40,000 is a sounder estimate.

"BUT THE BIGGEST effect of automation won't be on business," the report warns. "Rather, it will be on society itself—its values and its beliefs. The first impact will be on government at the state and local as well as the federal level. They'll all move in with massive action as the crisis approaches."

"The 'do something' stage will come when unemployment begins to crowd the 10 per cent mark. That's when you'll see the crash programs. There's already talk of bigger (public works) programs to aid depressed areas. But this is just a pale shadow of what will happen when many industrial areas are in trouble, facing joblessness of 20 per cent or more.

"THESE IDEAS will be extremely unwelcome to many Americans; they will call it socialism. But they may well be shouted down, as they were in the 1920s. Reason: There's no other answer."

This disturbing report leaves one with the feeling that there may be a rainbow in the distant future but that the more immediate prospects are for a social revolution as bitter as that which faced England at the beginning of the Industrial Revolution—and for which we are ill-prepared as she was 200 years ago.

How To Battle Poverty

WASHINGTON—President Johnson's first major use of the veto came on a bill which provided that foreign imports should be marked with their "country of origin." The most affected product was Canadian lumber, which is pushing American lumber from the West and South of the American market.

A NUMBER of senators from the American Lumberland think this was a strange way for Johnson to launch his "war against poverty."

The veto message said that the bill was objectionable because it "would raise new barriers to foreign trade and invite retaliation against our exports..." But, of course, the "country of origin" bill was not a "barrier." It imposed no tariff, no quota against foreign imports. What it did was afford Americans a chance to aid their own economy. Many people prefer to Buy American inside America.

WE READ and hear a good deal of desirable legislation which is blocked by recalcitrant congressmen. But in the hoppers of the 88th Congress are dozens of boost-business bills which were blocked in the first session by administration opposition.

One is a measure to put the "country of origin" label on steel imports. It is sponsored by Democrats and Republicans alike, from states producing a lot of steel or very little steel.

ANOTHER pro-business bill comes from Cattleland, and still another from Potatoland. If there's going to be a "war against poverty," it'll have to be won among enterprises and in communities which produce American profits and jobs.

It was well understood on Capitol Hill that such legislation had little chance under the New Frontier. This was the feeling, I judge, not because many legislators believed Mr. Kennedy to be anti-business, but because the lawmakers know that there is an anti-business mentality among bureaucrats and palace guardsmen who influence policy-making.

IF THE JOHNSON administration and the second session of the 88th

Congress are to be a productive combination, the legislative output will not be limited to Civil Rights, Tax Reduction, Medicare, Education and a new Foreign Aid effort. Dozens of production bills, bottled up in committee by administration opposition, must also be liberated.

When the President speaks, as he did in his state of the union address, of increasing the gross national product from $600 billion to $635 billion, the national employment from 70 million jobs to 75 million jobs, he must know that these increases have to come from enterprises which are able to sell more goods and hire more workers.

THE "WAR against poverty" won't be won in foreign fields and factories, or on the moon, or in trade conferences at Geneva. The anti-poverty war will be a series of battles in Lumberland, Cattleland, Potatoland and Steeland.

Regional Jaycee Meet To Open Here Friday

Some 400 Jaycees from West Texas are expected to be in Big Spring Friday through Sunday during the semi-annual winter Region II Convention of the organization. Local Jaycees will sponsor the three-day convention. This is the first time in many years for the event to be held here. The convention opens Friday at 4:30 p.m. with registration at the Settles Hotel, which will be headquarters for the group.

The registration booth will be manned Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 8-10 a.m. Sunday for late arrivals.

First important gathering of the Jaycees will be a dance and hospitality gathering Friday night at the Settles Hotel Ballroom. Local Jaycees will sponsor the affair.

General assemblies get underway Saturday with business meetings scheduled during the day. At this time clubs from the various areas will have an opportunity to boost their candidates for state and area offices. A special session for state and area officers and directors will be held at 2 p.m.

Another dance, for members and their wives, is slated for 8:30 p.m. Saturday at the Cosden Country Club.

Sunday's events include a general assembly at 9 a.m., with devotional and talk by the Rev. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. The remainder of the morning will be devoted to clinics for officers of the clubs as well as several clinics for new members. The day's activities will be climaxed with a buffet-style banquet at 12:15 p.m. at Cosden Country Club. Guest speaker will be one of the visiting state officers.

Included among Jaycee dignitaries who will be in Big Spring for the convention will be Larry Tate, Longview, state president; and Jack Grant, Monahan, Area II vice president.

Local club officers who will take part in the business and festivities are Charles Bell, president; David Reed, first vice president; Chuck Butts, second vice president; Jack Orr, treasurer; and Louis Heinze, secretary.

Region II covers an area bounded on the north by Lamesa, east by Abilene, south by San Angelo and west by El Paso.

OIL REPORT

Knox Spots Deep Test In Dawson

Gordon Knox and Associates have spotted a 12,000-foot Ellenburger wildcat to be drilled about nine miles north of Lamesa in Dawson County. The new project is No. 1 J. E. Neely, located C NW NW, section 28-35-6N, T&P survey. It is on a 640-acre lease. This rank wildcat is about 2 1/2 miles northeast of a 9,510-foot hole plugged and abandoned Nov. 18, 1955. It is also some three miles northwest of more recent deep drilling. One of the holes was bottomed at 10,552 feet before it was plugged in February, 1962. The other, drilled to 10,604 feet, was plugged in July, 1961.

Sulphur Water

Texaco, Inc. No. 1-E Glasscock Fee, Ellenburger explorer in Glasscock County, tested only sulphur water on drillstem test taken from 3,980-4,045 feet. Tool was open on the unreported formation for one hour and 15 minutes. Progress is currently being made in line below 4,170 feet on the way to a 10,450-foot bottom. Location is C SW NE, section 5-33-5E, T&P survey.

Spot Three

Midwest Oil Corp. No. 3 Davis et al is one of three new field locations filed in the local eight-county area. This is a Dawson county test of the Wolfcamp in the Triple D, South field about nine miles northwest of Lamesa. It is projected to 8,560 feet from the south and west lines of section 60-M, ELARR survey, in Howard County, Sawnee.

STERLING

HHM No. 3 Foster is back on pump after treating emulsion block. The well now produces 120 bbl per day from the east line of section 34-22, H&C survey.

HOWARD

Tucker Drilling Co. No. 1 Martin, C SE SE, section 20-31-1E, T&P survey, is making hole below 4,500 feet.

MARTIN

Section No. 1 Castle is dipping below 7,142 feet in line. Location is 420 feet from the south and 1,325 feet from the west line of section 57-A, Souder and Co. No. 22, K&H survey, spilling 1,225 feet from the north and 1,325 feet from the west line of section 34-22, H&C survey.

STERLING

HHM No. 3 Foster is treating emulsion block. It is 2,310 feet from the north and 2,505 feet from the west line of section 34-22, H&C survey.

HOWARD

Section No. 1 H. Foster, C SE NE, section 2-13, SPRR survey, is drilling in line below 4,817 feet.

Section No. 1 H. Foster is making hole below 5,203 feet in line. It spurs 150 feet from the north and 467 feet from the east line of section 5-13, SPRR survey.

The council also: (1) Appointed Mrs. Rip Wallace as city clerk at a salary of $300 per month. (2) Discussed the forthcoming takeover of the Colorado City Museum from the corporation which now owns it. The city will own and operate the museum as a city project. (3) Discussed drilling a water well at the city's landing strip, so that water would be available for indoor sanitary facilities and for washing aircraft.

CLERK'S BROTHER MAKES PROGRESS

Condition of Ben Cox, 23, Glasscock County, injured in a car wreck Friday night in which his companion, Gary Richard Mitchell, 27, Garden City, was killed, is recovering satisfactorily in an Odessa hospital. The mishap occurred near Odessa.

Mrs. Mattie Miller, city secretary at Coahoma, said terms of councilmen J. W. Shiver, Bill E. Reed and Ted Fowler, expired Monday and will be renewed on Tuesday. Mayor Ralph White and councilmen Robert Miller and Frank Smith have another year to serve.

Mayor C. J. Lamb of Forsan said his term expires this year along with those of councilmen O. W. Scuddry and John B. Anderson.

Young Cox suffered a number of broken ribs, a fractured collar bone, severe bruises, a bruised kidney and collapsed lung. He is the brother of Fern Cox, Howard County district court clerk. Cox was at his brother's bedside Monday and said that physicians said the young man is making satisfactory progress.

The defendant stated for trial at today's session of Howard County court decided to plead guilty late Monday afternoon. As a result, the jury panel reported today and no work was left for them to do.

Judge Lee Porter qualified the jurors and instructed them to report Wednesday, when two criminal cases are tentatively set. If one cannot go to trial, the plea entered Monday was by James L. Rutherford. He was slated for trial today on a charge of DWI. He was sentenced to three days in county jail and fined $50 on his plea.

Howard County School Board members whose terms end this year are James G. Lewis, vice president, Harvey L. Adams and Charles R. (Chub) Jones. Holdovers are J. D. Gilmore, president, and H. H. Rutherford.

Two city council elections will be held at Coahoma and Forsan. The Coahoma election is set for April 7. Forsan's will be April 4, at the same time school board members will be elected. So far, no one has filed for reelection or as a new candidate for either city.

City Commission Has Long Agenda

The third and final reading of an ordinance adopting a fire prevention code of Big Spring is on the agenda of the City Commission meeting at 7 p.m. tonight at City Hall. This is the first meeting of the commission since the holidays. Numerous items are on the agenda.

Mrs. Julia Wilson has requested a public hearing concerning the revocation of a dance hall permit at Tommy's Cafe, US 89 west.

The city is seeking authorization to proceed with condemnation proceedings against three property owners for right-of-way easements on US 89 east along the proposed route of the Beal's Branch trunk sewer line. Owners affected are Mrs. Jean Lawrence Graham, College Park Estate and Moss Petroleum Corp.

James F. Reidy, 2111 Johnson, has asked for a tax adjustment. City Manager Larry Crow said Reidy's property has been over-assessed for several years due to "a decimal point error."

Commissioners also will consider the release of a drainage easement on East Third and East Fourth Streets, requested by Cecil McDonald.

Other items on the agenda: (1) request from W. A. Moore for a zone change from GR (general residence) to NS (neighborhood service) for a .72 acre tract at the southwest corner of 15 20 and North Goliad.

The speaker for the meeting will be Dr. P. D. O'Brien, formerly of Big Spring and now living in Houston.

Outgoing board members and officers will be hosts at the meeting, in which a report will be made to members and the public of the 1963 activities. President R. H. Weaver will be master of ceremonies. Ten Hi-Y boys will assist in ushering and 20 Tri-Hi-Y girls will help in serving.

A committee of seven is working on dinner arrangements. Mullins said. They are Mrs. Jimmie D. Jones, Mrs. Harold Jones, Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr., Mrs. Lee Rogers, Mrs. O. S. Womack, Clyde McMahon Jr., and Wade Choate.

The meeting is open to the public and tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for youths.

Mrs. Reese Dies Monday

COLORADO CITY (SC)—Mrs. Walter L. Reese, 86, died late Monday in the Root Memorial Hospital, Colorado City, following a long illness.

She was born Jan. 7, 1878 in Corinth, Ark. and was married to Mr. Reese in 1894 in Arkansas. The couple came to Colorado City 56 years ago. He operated farms in Martin and Mitchell counties for many years. He died in 1956. Mrs. Reese was a member of the Church of Christ.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Kiker and Son Funeral Home chapel, with Roy Holland, minister of the Twenty-second and Austin Street Church of Christ, officiating. Burial will be in Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker and Son Funeral Home.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Clay M. Smith and Mrs. R. G. Thompson, both of Colorado City, and Mrs. Ella Mae Davis, Ventura, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Alma Floyd, Nashville, Arkansas.

Judge Dismisses 42 Civil Cases

Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court, reduced his civil case list by 42 Monday. He dismissed that many pending civil cases when he sounded a docket of 47 cases in his court.

The judge had called the non-jury civil docket for Monday with the warning that cases in which no announcement was made would be dismissed.

Only five of the 47 cases were reported. Judge Caton passed these cases to later on.

Two Defendants Plead Guilty

Stephen E. Roberts, accused of carrying a pistol, pleaded guilty to the charge against him in Howard County court. He has been sentenced to serve 30 days in the Howard County jail. Sam Lyons, who pleaded guilty to writing a worthless check, is serving a 20 day jail sentence assessed against him.

Bond in the case of Alfredo Viscano, charged with theft, has been set at $2,000. He has not posted bail. Eduard Caballeros, charged with burglary, is being held in lieu of $2,500 bond.

Mahon Offers Candidacy

Time is running out for candidates who want to seek the offices to be filled at this year's elections.

Frank Hardesty, county Democratic committee chairman, with whom prospective office seekers file, warned that no filings can be accepted after the deadline, Feb. 3.

He said that filing interest has now dropped off and that the only new listing is that of George Mahon, congressman from the 19th Texas Congressional District. Mahon, a veteran office holder, is seeking reelection.

Several other candidates are planning to file, according to reports. Gil Jones, district attorney, is to seek reelection to his office and has said he will officially enter the race later this month. Rufus Stallings, county commissioner from Precinct 1, has also announced he will seek reelection after earlier saying he did not intend to run again.

At least one, and possibly two, other candidates for sheriff are still rumored to be considering entering the lists but Hardesty said that they have not filed with him.

Stolen Vending Machine Abandoned On Farm

A cigarette machine, taken Monday night from the Col-Tex Service Station, 1701 Wasson Drive, was found about 10 a.m. Tuesday by Oliver Nichols, according to Sheriff Miller Harris.

Harris said Nichols found the machine on his farm about two miles north of Elbow. The machine had been forced open, and the coins and cigarettes had been taken, Harris said.

Police, who investigated the theft, said the machine had been removed from the front of the service station building. A window on the north side of the building was broken, police said, adding that a money bag had been hidden in the rear of the firm, but apparently no money was taken from it.

A tachometer valued at $29.95 was taken from the car of Gary McNew, 1908 Settles, Monday morning while the vehicle was parked at the high school, police said.

Police also recovered three abandoned cars that apparently were stolen. One of the vehicles, reported stolen from Midland, was recovered near the entrance gate to Webb AFB about 7:15 a.m. Monday.

At 5:38 p.m., T. V. Swafford, 1004 W. 3rd, advised police a car with Ohio license plates had been abandoned in front of his house. The other vehicle was discovered about 3:50 a.m. Tuesday in the 1700 block of West Third, police said. The owner, a San Angelo man, told police he would not file charges on the person who he thought took the car, according to records at the police station.

Steers, Permian In Vital Bout

Can the Big Spring Steers stop Jack Mercer and Gregg Slape?

The Longhorns get that chance at 8 o'clock tonight, at which time they visit Odessa to play the high-riding Permian Panthers in a District 2-AAAA basketball struggle.

Permian is 3-0 in conference play. The Panthers' latest victory came at the expense of Midland High in Odessa. Final score in that outing was 78-65.

Slape and Mercer are the scoring aces of the Permian attack. Against Midland Slape stuffed the cords with 35 points while Mercer wound up with 21.

Bob Snoddy and Jay Collins are other standouts in the Permian machine. The two give the Panthers good rebounding strength. Alan Moravick and Royce Berry will also see lots of action for the Permian. Both will be remembered here as football stars.

The Permian club has been selling out for its home conference games. Officials there turned away a throng estimated at about 200 for last week's game with Midland and those planning to go from here are advised to leave early. The Panther gym seats only 800 and some school men have been campaigning for more roomy quarters.

Big Spring dropped its first game in conference play last weekend, losing to Abilene Cooper in Abilene. Earlier, the Steers had knocked off Midland Lee and Odessa High. Overall, the Steers are 10-5.

Sophomore Simon Terrazas missed last Friday's game in Abilene due to knee trouble. There is a possibility he will be able to play tonight but he will undoubtedly be below par due to the physical infirmity.

Probable starters for Big Spring tonight are DeeRoby Gartman, Ronnie Banks, Mike Peters, Charley West and Albert Fierro.

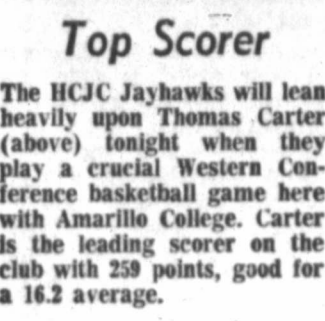

Coach DeInor Cooper attributes the Steer loss to Cooper largely to the fact that the locals threw the ball away too many times.

Oddly enough, the locals were almost letter perfect in that department against Odessa.

B teams of the two schools square away at 6:15 p.m.

Permian's victory over Midland was particularly gratifying to coach Jack Crawley, in view of the fact that the Bulldogs had beaten Permian in the Odessa tournament earlier in the year. In previous games within the district, Permian edged by San Angelo, 64-52, and Abilene High, 54-53.

Slape averages 23.3 points a game in 2-AAAA play, Mercer 16.3.

It's Badger - killing time! And for the Howard County Jayhawks, this could be one of the biggest kills they ever made.

The Hawks play the Amarillo Badgers at 8 p.m. today on the Howard County campus. A Western Junior College Conference title could ride with the game, for the winner will certainly become a favorite to take the crown.

The Hawks, 10-6 on the season, are currently riding with a tight rein on the conference as their 3-0 loop record leaves them with the only undefeated team, with the exception of San Angelo. The HCJC wins came over Lubbock Christian twice, and South Plains. Amarillo could be number four.

The Badgers show a 2-1 record for their efforts in the conference. Their only loss was to San Angelo, 42-40, in the opening loop game for both teams back in December. One of the Badger wins was an overtime victory over nationally ranked Lon Morris.

Amarillo will be tough to beat—but the Jayhawks can win the game if they get off to a good start. The Hawks run hot and cold—they almost lost their last conference game with Lubbock Christian when the outside shooting couldn't find the net. But when the Hawks get off to a good start, they're one of the hardest teams on the hardwoods to beat.

Probable starters for the Hawks will be Thomas Carter, Charles Cumber, Terry Williams, Jim Oldham, and Keith Bond. Also seeing a lot of action will be Eddy Nelson, Keith McKeever, Jim Flowers, Dick Ebling and Bob Smith.

Amarillo has nine lettermen back from last season and some think this is coach Bob Carter's strongest team in years. The Badgers have been particularly poisonous against Kansas teams this season.

Mike Wesbrooks is the leading scoring threat for the Badgers.

Lake View Nipped By Snyder, 52-47

SAN ANGELO — The Snyder Tigers, taking advantage of an 18 point third period outburst, went on to slip past favored Lake View Monday night, 52-47, in the opening District 3-AAA basketball game for both clubs.

Joe Hartman led all scorers with 17 points for Lake View, while Drew Bullard led the visiting Tigers with 14.

Forsan Girls Take First Place In Own Tournament

FORSAN — The Forsan A and B teams made a complete sweep of the Forsan Girls' Basketball Tournament Saturday as both the championship and consolation trophies remained with the Buffaloes.

In the championship finals, Forsan A took a 75-34 win over Coahoma as Jody Dodd accounted for 27 points and Bettye Conger hit 23. Forsan B squeaked past Rankin, 33-30, to take the consolation championship as Mary Simpson pumped in 28 points.

Head coach, James Blake of Forsan, gave much of the credit for his win in the championship game to his guards—Judy Hughes, Patsy Gooch, and Susan Etrud.

Conger was selected as the tourney's Most Valuable Forward while Kay Porter, Coahoma, was the Most Valuable Guard.

The all-tournament team was: Dadd; Sandy Clanton, Coahoma; Kay Havins, Robert Lee; Janice Owens, Rankin; a and Mary Simpson, Guards selected were: Temple Foster, Sterling City; Judy Hughes, Forsan; Patsy Gooch, Forsan; Regina Williams, Coahoma; and Mary Walker, Robert Lee.

Forsan, 18-1 for the season, opens district play Friday at Bronte.

Lamesa Roars By Mustangs

LAMESA — The Lamesa Tornados used the 19 point spread of Wayne Robertson to good advantage Monday night as they opened District 3-AAA play with a smashing 76-50 win over Sweetwater.

The win left Lamesa with a 12-6 season mark while Sweetwater went further into the hole with a 2-15 record.

The Tornados jumped to a quick 20-10 first period lead and then lengthened it to a commanding 37-17 halftime advantage.

Sweetwater got 18 points from Benny Pace in a losing cause.

LAMESA (76)—Robertson 23-19; Robertson 21; Anderson 3-6; Franklin 1-7; Appin 4-8; Robertson 1-2-4; Roberts 1-2; Hines 3-10; Lindsey 2-4; McGill 1-2. Totals 20-16-7.

SWEETWATER (50)—Bulls 21-5; Newton 3-10; Pace 5-12; Reed 0-2; Cousey 1-2; Broadway 3-9; Lewis 0-4. Totals 14-22-26.

Cats Drop To 4th In AP Cage Poll

By BN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The unbeaten UCLA Bruins have increased their lead in The Associated Press' weekly major college basketball poll on the strength of back-to-back victories over Southern California and Kentucky's second loss of the season.

The Bruins beat USC 79-59 and 78-71 last week and lifted their record to 13-0. Kentucky, runner-up a week ago, was defeated by Vanderbilt in its first of three games last week and tumbled to fourth.

Undefeated Davidson remained in the No. 5 spot followed by Vanderbilt, Oregon State, Cincinnati, Villanova and Duke.

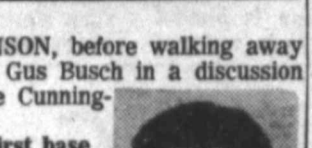

The Top Ten with first place votes in parentheses and total points:

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:
An irritated FREDDY HUTCHINSON, before walking away from St. Louis Cardinal club owner Gus Busch in a discussion over who should play first base, Joe Cunningham or Tom Alston:

"If you want a clown to play first base for you, hire Emmett Kelly."

JIMMY CANNON, New York scribe:
"The crusade would straighten out the fight racket. It sounded real good. Cus D'Amato all by himself would return boxing to the decent men who were betrayed by James D. Norris. There was a big change, all right. The feds dispensed Norris' cartel. The head-breakers are in the can, or back in the underworld. But Cus had nothing to do with it. The Kefauvers handled it all. It's still a hard dollar for a guy trying to move a fighter. Nobody knows what will happen when it vanishes from television. It's had enough now. The managers who took jobs on the docks aren't throwing them up. The gyms are deserted in the afternoon. In the day time most pugns work at menial tasks and trains at night. There aren't a half dozen truly competent fighters in the world."

FRANK GIFFORD, backfield great for the New York Giants, discussing possible retirement:
"I'll talk it over with my wife and then with the Giant management. No, I'll make the decision—not my wife. But I listen to her. I love football. It's a part of my life and I hope I'll never be completely divorced from the game. . . . There's not such a thing as a hatchet man in pro football anymore. They talk about our Sam Huff keying to stop Jimmy Brown. That isn't true. Neither one has time to think about the other. If they did, it would break into their concentration. If you get mad in a game, you don't play as well as you should and there is the danger of incurring penalties which would hurt your team."

Cubs Romp By Wolves

BROWNFIELD — The Brownfield Cubs rallied from a five-point half time deficit Monday night and slipped past the Colorado City Wolves, 61-58, for their first District 3-AAA win of the campaign.

Brownfield, now 4-11 on the year, was led by Hillhouse with 20, while the Wolves had Freddie Fox with 14.

BROWNFIELD (61) — Turnbow 3-6-4; Spotts 7-4-11; Sherrill 4-17; McPherson 0-2-2; Jennings 2-3-1; Vernon 2-2-2; Nunn 3-2-7. Totals 24-33-61.

COLORADO CITY (58) — Fox 4-6-14; Garrett 3-6-4; McCoy 3-6-4; Hillhouse 4-2-20; Kendrick 2-1-5; McGuire 1-3-5. Totals 17-24-58.

MANTLE WILL EARN SAME PAY AS IN '63 FOR NEW YORKERS

NEW YORK (AP) — Ralph Houk's $5 million infield is worth $105,000.

The recession began the day Houk stepped up from manager to general manager of the New York Yankees.

And the market hit bottom Monday when Houk and the Yankees decided to mail out contracts to the American League baseball champions. The entire payroll figures to come to an estimated $800,000.

As for the four men Houk valued at $5 million in a word battle with Baltimore manager Billy Hitchcock last year, here's the way the salaries go, from first to third:

1b—Joe Peplone, $15,000.
2b—Bobby Richardson, $30,000.
ss—Tony Kubek, $25,000.
3b—Clete Boyer, $35,000.

The left side — Kubek and Boyer — stands about the same as last year. The gains were made on the right side. Peplone gets a hefty raise from $8,000 after hitting .371 with 27 homers and a club high 89 runs batted in. Richardson, a .265 hitter and a team leader, gets about a $5,000 hike to $30,000.

The big hike of the $800,000 payroll — one-eighth of it, to be exact — goes to Mickey Mantle, who played in only 65 games last season because of a broken left foot and a damaged left knee cartilage that had to be operated on this winter.

Mantle had said he would have accepted a cut, but Houk said:

"You don't penalize a man because of injuries sustained in the line of duty. He means a great deal to this club and I expect him to bounce back and have a great year."

Buffaloes Get Win No. 17

STERLING CITY — The Stanton Buffaloes, one of the top Class AA basketball squads in West Texas with a 17-4 record, added to their prestige Monday night as they ran roughshod over Sterling City, 67-35.

In earlier games, the Stanton girls won 37-29 as Lynn Franklin hit 25 for the winners. Elaine Price came up with the top effort for Sterling City with 12.

The Sterling City B team salvaged the only win of the night, 51-47, as Todd Churchill hit 22 points for the Eagles.

YMCA Gets Loop Start

The newly organized YMCA basketball league opened action Monday night in the Y gym with all six teams playing first round games.

In the opening game, Temple Baptist jumped past the Jaycees 36-28, as Ken Harmon led the winners with eight points. First Baptist won the second game, 44-42, over Stanton Walgreen as Al Kloten collected 19 points. Bud Gillespie accounted for 17 for the losers. In the final game of the night, the Lakeview Y's Men roared past the YMCA Optimist, 49-39, as Curtis Fiewel hit 19.

The next round of games is slated for Monday night beginning at 6:45. First Baptist will go against the YMCA Optimist. Stanton will play the Jaycees, and the Lakeview Y's Men will meet Temple Baptist.

Cowboys Boast Colorful Past

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — Memories of 67 years of football, bad and good, are all that remains of the game at Hardin-Simmons University in this West Texas city after trustees ordered the sport's elimination last week.

The Cowboys, and no one is sure how they got that nickname, played their first football game in 1897.

Included in that 67 year history is one All-America, Clyde (Bulldog) Turner and two Little All-Americans, Rudy (Doc) Mobley and Wilton (Hook) Davis. The list of former Hardin-Simmons players who have been listed among the nation's top 15 passers, rushers, receivers, punters and pass interceptors would fill a book of records alone.

Two national records are still held by the Cowboys—most passes intercepted by a club in one year, 37 in 1951, and the most individual rushes in a season, 270 by Dunny Goode in 1951.

The Cowboys also played the most bowl games in one year. Under Coach Warren B. Woodson, Hardin-Simmons played three bowl games after the 1947 season. They played in the Grape, Shrine and Camellia bowls.

After those games the NCAA ruled a team could play in only one bowl a year.

The top two coaches in the list of 17 were Woodson, with a 58-24-7 record, and Frank Kimbrough, 47-8-3.

Sammy Baugh compiled a 23-28-0 mark while directing Hardin-Simmons for five years. Howard McChesney is the longest Cowboy mentor, failing to win one game in 20 attempts.

Even though it didn't set a record, the 27-game losing streak from 1959 to 1962 was almost tops in the nation. Kansas State holds the record, having dropped 28 in a row.

For three straight years Hardin-Simmons provided the nation's top rusher. Rudy (Doc) Mobley rushed 1,281 yards in 1942 to gain the top honor. Then after three war years he repeated as champion in 1946 with 1,261 yards. Wilton (Hook) Davis won the same honor the following season with 1,173 rushing yards.

Ex-TB Patient Shining As Donnie Cage Star

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Stanton Bonaventure's Fred Crawford, whose basketball career appeared to be ended by tuberculosis about three years ago, is achieving rare feats these days.

He is averaging 30.5 points a game, grabbed 143 rebounds in 11 games, played the full 40 minutes in each of the Donnies last six games, and is the key to his club's fast-break offense.

As a result, St. Bonaventure has a 10-1 record and is gunning for a berth in a postseason tournament.

"I feel pretty good now," Crawford said Monday in a telephone interview from the St. Bonaventure campus in Olean, N.Y.

The last time the future was rosy for Crawford and the Bonnies was his sophomore year, 1960-61.

Led by All-America Tom Stith and Crawford, the team rolled to a 24-4 record and was ranked third nationally. Crawford averaged 21.9 points a game.

But the Bonnies were eliminated in the Eastern semifinals of the National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament. A short time later, it was learned that both Stith and Crawford had tuberculosis.

"I didn't know exactly what to think," Crawford recalled. "It sounded bad."

He and Stith went to Mount Morris, N.Y. Tuberculosis Hospital. They were released over five months later.

Stith did not play the next year. He was with the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Association last season but did not make the team this fall.

SERVICE BECOMING NATIONWIDE
T&P's flatcars haul big vans and hundreds of new automobiles

Piggyback Way To Ship Saves Customers Money

Piggyback shipping has become nationwide over major railroads. It saves big shippers enormous sums of money and helps remove many trucks from highways and speeds up transportation.

The Texas and Pacific Railway is no exception, and the line has made tremendous strides in providing the most efficient carriers for piggyback service over the hundreds of miles of railroad.

New multi-level flatcars, on which thousands of new automobiles are transported every day, are examples of technological advances being made on the T&P in handling piggyback freight shipments. This specially designed piece of equipment provides economical, speedy and reliable transportation by rail, for new automobiles, from assembly lines to dealers' showrooms.

The multi-level combines the features of the 85-foot long flat car in Trailer Train Service, of which Texas and Pacific is a member, with the installation of adjustable steel racks, converting the flatcar into a two or three level car.

The old flatcar, simple in design, has felt the touch of progress in railroad transportation. Many are now equipped with special bulkheads for faster and easier loading.

One source of power pulls hundreds of new automobiles over hundreds of miles of line, instead of using hundreds of sources of power to transport new cars, by the half-dozen, over the nation's highways. Equipped with modern, easy-rolling bearings, and with ramps for dock-loading of trailers, where the tractor pulls the trailer right onto the flatcar, the fast moving freight trains help to move thousands of big van-type trailers across the country without wear and tear on tires and equipment.

In addition to the innovation of piggyback services, T&P has added more than 2,000 new freight cars to its fleet in recent years, including eight different kinds of box cars.

"America's No. 1 Freight Carrier," however, is still the common boxcar, even though it has changed with time.

Boxcars now built by the T&P are all-steel, from 50-ton to 70-ton capacity with single or double door, and from 40-feet, six inches to 50 feet, six inches in length.

Today's shippers are especially interested in the fact that today's boxcars can be constructed airtight. Such insulated boxcars are built to eliminate "sweating" or "freezing" of merchandise in transit. The cars are ideally suited to the shipment of canned goods.

T&P's DF (damage free) boxcars are equipped with cross members, bulkheads, belt rails, deck boards and doorways bars, all of which contribute to the protection and stabilization of merchandise in transit.

Taking a page from its roster of sleeping car equipment, T&P's boxcars now are "compartmentized" — equipped with inside bulkhead doors which hold merchandise tightly in individual compartments inside the car.

For shipping automobile engines, auto parts and sundry commodities, special bulkheads and stowage equipment are provided in the boxcars.

Detection System Warns Of Dangerous Situations

Statistics show that the average American family can expect at least one house fire.

A fire detection and alarm system in your home can safeguard the lives of your family. You can give your home the peace-of-mind assurance of top-to-bottom, end-to-end fire detection coverage with a Home Protector System.

WARNING

Indoor and outdoor warning bells sound when a fire is detected, and a light on the master panel of the system give the general location of the fire.

With a Home Protector, designed and engineered by Minneapolis - Honeywell Regulator Co., you'll feel safe — and be safe.

Smith's Home Safety Service, 1425 Hilltop Road, who recently became representative for the Home Protector System in this area, gives free demonstrations of the fire detection program.

The representative will point out these startling facts during his visit:

- (1) Fire kills more children every year than polio and rheumatic fever combined.
- (2) Home fires occur once every 25 seconds.
- (3) Fires are increasing at the rate of 17 per cent a year.
- (4) Most people killed in fires are never burned; they suffocate.
- (5) Eighty-five per cent of all fires occur at night.

TWO THINGS

Should a fire occur in your home, you need two things:

- (1) Warning in less than one minute that a fire has begun.
- (2) Time to get out of the house.

A Home Protector System gives both early warning and time for every member of the family to exit.

Each Home Protector zone circuit handles up to 10 detector elements for a maximum of 30 per panel. One panel is sufficient to provide enough coverage of the average home.

SENSE FIRE

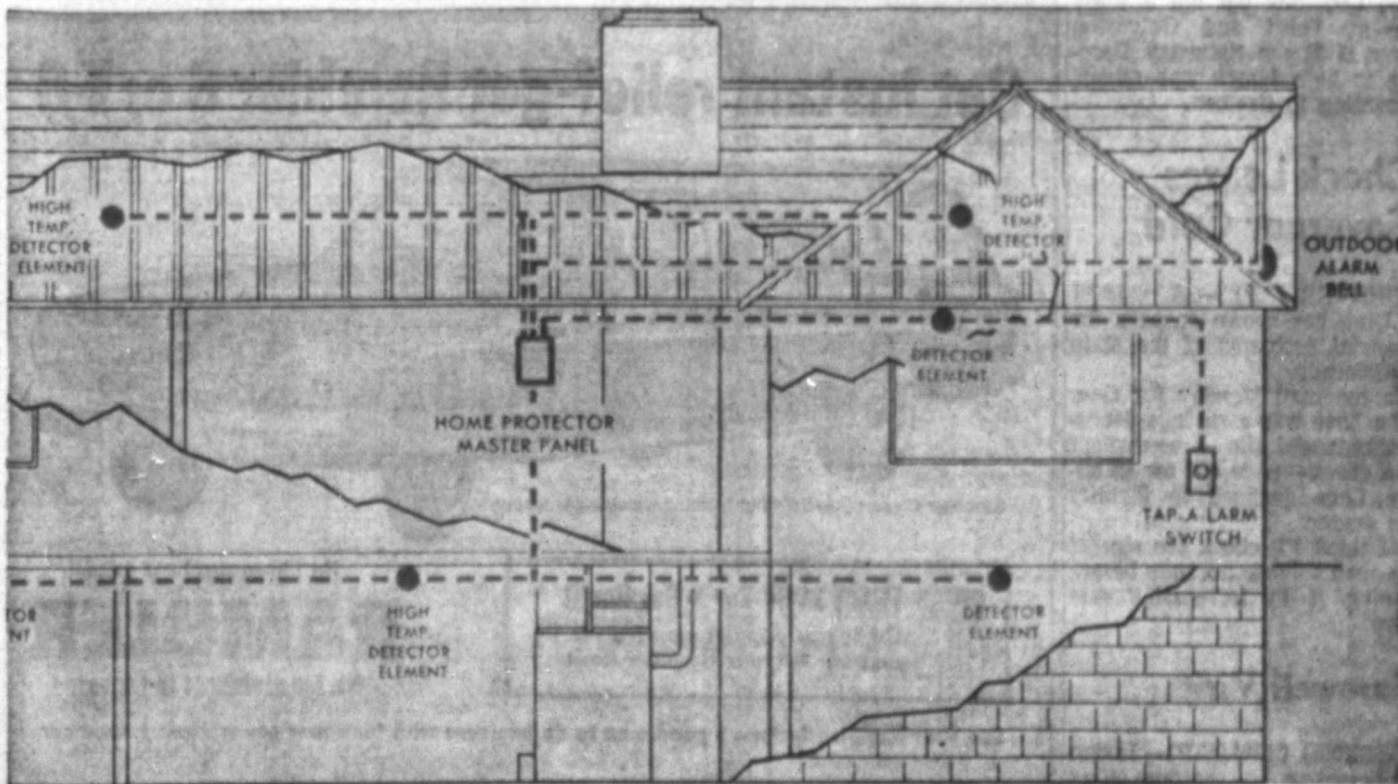

Home Protector detector elements contain a fusible link which breaks when the high temperatures that mean fire are sensed. The breaking of the link causes the system to sound an early warning alarm.

A special "Tap-A-Larm" is a built-in feature of the system. This device enables you to summon outside help in emergencies such as accidents, kidnappings, robberies or burglaries. You need only press the button.

LOUD CLAMOR

Also, the loud combined clamor of the outdoor alarm bell and indoor panel will frighten away many criminals before they can commit a serious crime.

You can learn how to be free from fires and many other dangers by calling AM 4-7524. Ted B. Smith is in charge of sales.

Layout For Home Protector System

The Master Panel is placed in a central area and detector element may be placed in each room, basement, attic or storeroom and garage for fire detection. An outdoor alarm bell can be operated from the master panel or from a separate tap-switch placed conveniently.

Wrecking Crews Bulldoze Away Homes Mangled By LA's Mud Flood

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Wrecking crews marked the one-month anniversary of the Baldwin Hills Dam disaster today by ramming bulldozers through homes left mangled by the devastating flood.

The area below the broken reservoir—once a tranquil and attractive residential neighborhood—now looks like an urban renewal project as trucks in an endless string haul away rubble and mud.

SLICED OPEN

Homes on each side of the flood path, sliced open by the rampaging waters, gape on the busy scene, grim reminders of the Dec. 14 tragedy that killed five persons, injured 27, and caused damage estimated at more than $11 million.

Stricken residents, still shocked by the sudden loss, watch demolition crews rip apart the wreckage of their dwellings.

Mrs. Mollie Kaplan voiced a typical reaction as a giant crane tore the roof from her home and dropped it into a truck.

HAVE TO PAY

"Somebody is going to have to pay us for this," said Mrs. Kaplan.

Like most victims, she isn't sure just who that will be. Authorities say 41 homes were swept away or smashed beyond repair.

An estimated 1,500 dwellings were damaged, including 400 of the 650 apartments in Village Green, a garden-court development.

More than 3,000 autos were damaged by mud-laden water that surged up to 16-foot deep through business and residential streets. Two schools were closed temporarily, 45 streets blocked off and 56 business and industrial establishments damaged.

UP TO $50 MILLION

Estimates of damage ran as high as $50 million but Col. Earl Peacock, chief area engineer for the Army Engineers, later said that replacement costs would be about $11.3 million.

Cost of the cleanup alone will run about $1 million.

Several inquiries are under way in an effort to determine the cause and to fix responsibility.

Fewer Braceros

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Fewer Mexican migrant farm workers went to the United States last year than the previous year, the Foreign Ministry reported. The ministry said the 1963 total was 185,516, compared to 194,978 in 1962.

AMA AND HEADACHES

By HALVARD T. HANSEN, D.C. According to a report issued by the NY Journal of Medicine, the cause of headache in over 90 percent of 2,000 cases studied was a mechanical irritation of the cervical nerve roots. Cervical means the neck vertebrae or neck bones.

This irritation was usually the result of a previous trauma (a blow, jar or bump). The report stated further that this trauma may be a direct, on the neck or head, indirect by fall on the arms, hard bump of the lower spine, a constant strain on the neck or irritation of the neck not even recognized by the patient. Then the report went on into technical details of the neck structure, to cause the headaches.

This report just bears out what we have been preaching to our patients and when the conditions have been corrected by adjustments, the headaches usually leave or at least are greatly reduced. According to the Swartz Report (that is another study) the two main types of headaches have the following results under chiropractic care — Migraine Headaches receive 86.6 per cent cure or greatly helped and the Nonmigraine type of headaches receive 83.2 per cent cure or greatly helped.

We have in our files several hundred headache cases which have come to our office during the past six years and I believe our average is higher than that because we only accept those cases we believe we can help. I started to write a case history of a woman who had headaches for 18 years, day and night, and then thought of others — one in particular who felt like the top of her head was going to blow off — then a woman who got sick headaches just before rain and weather change but who can decide which one to pick. No. 1163 — 1349 — 791.

If you have headaches now or headaches which keep coming back, why not investigate what can be done for you at the Hansen Chiropractic Clinic, across from Piggly Wiggly, AM 3-3324. —Adv.

Firemen Put Out Gin Blaze

Firemen answered a call to the Co-Op Gin, 511 NE 2nd, about 7:10 a.m. Monday. Sparks in the burr pit had ignited a fire, firemen said. The flames were extinguished by 8 a.m. Damage was minor.

Firemen answered three calls Sunday. Fire swept across grassland on Charlie Creighton's ranch about five miles west of town. Firemen answered the call at 2:20 p.m., and returned to the station at 3:30 p.m.

A short in the wiring of the car of J. A. Smith, 1111 E. 13th, caused a fire about 9:30 a.m. Saturday. Firemen said damage to the wiring was slight.

A fire at 1:05 a.m. Sunday at the city dump ground threatened to get out of control. Firemen were called, and they returned to the station at 1:30 a.m. Although nothing but trash was burned, the flames reached high in the air and were visible from many parts of town.

Firemen extinguished a grass fire at the north end of Carey Street about 12:40 p.m. Saturday, and they put out a trash fire at Third and Galveston about 11:30 p.m. Saturday. Damage in both blazes was minor, according to firemen.

Check Leaves Governor Cold

DENVER (AP) — A resident of Utah has shown concern for financial problems of the state of Colorado.

In the mail Monday for Gov. John Love was a savings deposit withdrawal slip — equivalent to a check — made out for $2 billion. Love declined to identify the sender.

"I think I'll check the size of the man's bank account before turning it in for cash," said Love.

Farewell Visit
MEXICO CITY (AP)—Indian Ambassador Purshottam Lal Blandari made a farewell call Monday on Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos. He was to return home today after serving four years in Mexico. He will be ambassador to Nigeria.

Sophomores

Ann Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bennett Jr., Coahoma, and Mike Hinsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hinsley, Coahoma, are sophomore candidates for the Mr. and Miss CHS titles at Coahoma High School. Some 32 are entered in the competition which will be decided Jan. 25.

Two Texans Among Top Young Men

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Ten men named the outstanding young men of 1963 by the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce will be honored at a televised ceremony Jan. 25.

Picked as the recipients of the junior chamber's annual honors were: Sen. Birch E. Vayh Jr., 35, of Terre Haute, Ind., who defeated 18-year Senate veteran Homer Capehart last year.

Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski, 36, Warsaw-born director of Columbia University's research institute on Communist affairs. He is consultant to the State Department and the Rand Corp. John Mack Carter, 35, New York City, who has been editor of McCall's magazine for two years.

DETROIT MAYOR Jerome P. Cavanaugh, 35, mayor of Detroit, elected in 1961 by a margin of 40,000 votes. He has concentrated on industrial progress and creation of jobs.

Rep. Edgar F. Foreman Jr., 30, Odessa, Tex., was an oil industry engineer before becoming the youngest member of the 88th Congress.

A. Leon Higginbotham Jr., 35,

Philadelphia, Pa., member of the Federal Trade Commission, is the youngest commission member in history, and is the first Negro to be named to a federal regulatory agency.

Thomas S. Mackey, 33, Texas City, Tex., general manager of the world's largest tin smelter, helped negotiate a contract last year to smelt Bolivian tin concentrates which was hailed as stalemating a Russian offer to build a tin smelter in Bolivia.

FILM DIRECTOR George Stevens Jr., 31, Washington, D.C., son of Hollywood director George Stevens, is a producer-director for the U.S. Information Agency and is credited with revolutionizing the quality of motion pictures made by the agency.

James W. Whitaker, 34, Redmond, Wash., planted the U.S. flag atop 29,023-foot Mt. Everest last May 1. He has been climbing mountains since he was 13.

Ted Yates, 33, Washington, D.C., is a specialist in television documentary films, has been producing NBC's "David Brinkley's Journal" for two years.

PEOPLE IN NEWS

Hunt To Claim 'Homely' Tutor

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A 25-year-old history teacher who claims she's "terrible looking" says she will marry millionaire oilman Lamar Hunt Jan. 22.

"He's taking me on my bubbling personality," said brunette Norma Knobel in a telephone interview after confirming reports of the marriage.

Miss Knobel said she'll quit her job at Richardson (Tex.) High School "to become a full-time housewife." The marriage will be the first for Miss Knobel, the second for Hunt.

Hunt, 31, was divorced about two years ago. He has two children.

DENVER (AP)—Former U.S. Sen. Ed C. Johnson of Colorado is seriously ill in St. Joseph Hospital at Denver. A hospital spokesman said Johnson, 80, has pneumonia and an intestinal disorder.

Johnson, a Democrat, served three terms in the Senate.

CHICAGO (AP)—Mayor Richard J. Daley says Chicago has no plans to ban the sale of cigarettes in light of the federal government report that smoking is a health hazard.

"We found during prohibition that laws like that don't work," Daley told a news conference.

What, asked a reporter, does non-smoker Daley do to relieve tension?

"I talk to the press," the mayor quipped.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Pierre Salinger, press secretary for both President Kennedy and President Johnson, says the job is getting harder.

"President Johnson gets up earlier and works later than President Kennedy did and President Kennedy worked longer hours than President Eisenhower did," he told newsmen in Nashville, Tenn.

Salinger was flying from California to Washington when his plane had to land at Nashville. Heavy snow had closed airports in the Washington area.

MOSCOW (AP)—Valentina Tereshkova Nikolayev, the world's only woman cosmonaut, is going to have a baby next July or August, an informed source said in Moscow.

Valentina married cosmonaut Andrian Nikolayev last November. The baby will be the first whose mother and father both have been exposed to cosmic rays and other influences outside the earth's atmosphere.

Undergoes Knife

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tom Smith, Army halfback, underwent knee surgery at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center Monday.

School Trustees Study Expansion

Continued study of the school's building and financial program for coming years is on the agenda today for trustees of the Big Spring Independent School District. They meet in regular session at 7:30 p.m. at the school administrative offices, 100 E. 10th.

Atmar Atkinson, of the architectural firm of Atcheson, Atkinson and Fox, will bring trustees up to date on planning and studies made by his firm for a proposed expansion program for the system. With his information, trustees should be able to define more precisely the needs which can be filled by the school.

Carter Johnston, of the firm of Rauscher, Pierce and Co., San Antonio, will present a financial program which the school could use to finance the building program.

School administrators will ask trustees to approve a new course for seniors to be offered during the second semester of this school year. The new offering is a course in comparative government, an elective being offered at the school for the first time.

A retirement policy for school employees will come up for second reading and action by trustees. The policy, as read initially at the regular meeting in December, 1963, would make all employees subject to retirement at the age of 60, with retirement mandatory at age 65. Employment after age 65 would be only on invitation by the school board.

Continued study is scheduled for handling of delinquent taxes. More than $120,000 of taxes are due for 1961 and previous years and trustees have been considering action to force payment of the money due. John Burgess, who is currently tax attorney for the school, will present a status report on each delinquent account.

City Manager

KILGORE (AP)—Hillsboro City Manager R. V. Derrick Jr., 42, will take a similar job in Kilgore Feb. 15. He was named Monday to succeed Floyd Carroll, who resigned Jan. 1 and moved to Cleburne.

Dies Of Burns

AUSTIN (AP)—Mrs. Sarah Gibbs, an elderly resident of Austin, burned to death as fire swept her small home on the city's east side Monday. Firemen found the body in a bathroom.

Oil Production Shows Increase

TULSA (AP)—New production allowances sent U. S. oil production upward last week, the Oil and Gas Journal said today. Average daily production was 7,537,725 barrels, up 38,216 from the previous week. The biggest increase was in Oklahoma, up 32,400 barrels to 545,000 daily. Arkansas produced 76,280, Colorado 100,906, Louisiana 1,481,825, New Mexico 299,500, and Texas 2,618,450.

Heeds Headlines

Contradictory statements made by well-known personalities serve to stimulate Mrs. Halverson's inborn curiosity. She is an avid reader of press reports, and believes that women should read more than the headlines.

Few Are Prepared For Exercising Vote

By KATHLEEN DOZIER
Election year is the time for expressing your private political views by voting for your chosen candidate, but so few women are prepared to exercise this privilege. So few take the time or put forth the effort to know the candidates, their policies, goals and points which add up to good representation. So few know their party, much less that of the opposition. Husbands often establish the political view of their wives—in accord or otherwise.

ment, men in office and the why's and wherefores of politics, came to Mrs. A. K. Halverson when she and Maj. Halverson with their young sons were in Berlin, Germany. Khrushchev's periodic threats resulted in alerts for wives and children of the military forces there. Escape routes, food and essentials for evacuation were provided, and the women and children were on their own should evacuation be necessary. "Of course, nothing ever happened, but we knew that it could be serious, so we stayed prepared," Mrs. Halverson pointed out.

return trip to Germany and her children, the stateside relatives could not understand why she would leave her mother at such a sorrowful time. "They simply could not comprehend the situation in Berlin, no matter how I explained it," she said, "so all I could feel was anger with them for not knowing and understanding. Their complacency caused me great distress."

SEEKS ANSWERS
There is one amongst us, however, who is vitally interested in knowing for whom and for what she will cast her ballot and wants others to have the same interest. The urge to know more about world affairs, government, men in office and the why's and wherefores of politics, came to Mrs. A. K. Halverson when she and Maj. Halverson with their young sons were in Berlin, Germany. Khrushchev's periodic threats resulted in alerts for wives and children of the military forces there. Escape routes, food and essentials for evacuation were provided, and the women and children were on their own should evacuation be necessary. "Of course, nothing ever happened, but we knew that it could be serious, so we stayed prepared," Mrs. Halverson pointed out.

REVEALING TALK
After leaving Germany, she visited on the West Coast with a cousin, a press correspondent. "This was a most revealing experience. I talked, questioned and pried into matters that I never before had thought of; I realized how naive I was and ignorant of so many important matters." That was the beginning, but by no means the end, of Mrs. Halverson's quest for knowledge in the fields of government and world affairs. She began to read, study and, when the opportunity presented itself, discuss with others the things she read.

Furturistic Fun And Frolic Set At Webb

You are invited to be your own Dior for the year 2,000 and attend the Saturday evening "Webb of the Future" party. Sponsored by the Air Base Group, the party will be the first in consecutive monthly parties to be given during the year by the various Webb groups.

show entertainment will feature Outer Space Sharps and Flats are to provide music for dancing.

Does Mrs. Halverson at some future date plan to seek office? The answer is negative; she does hope to stimulate women's interest through study groups and encourage them to become active in their parties. She has a consuming desire to know more, and she believes that through group study and discussion this can be achieved.

Millinery Art Demonstrated

Hat-making and shoe-covering were demonstrated by Mrs. Neil Norred Monday evening for members of Mu Kappa Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Hostess was Mrs. Hanson Lawhon, 3606 Calvin.

AREA OFFICER TO VISIT HERE

Mrs. Jimmy Hodel, 19th District president, will be honored Thursday at a joint meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary and Legion members. The social hour will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Legion Hut.

This year's presidential election should create a great deal of interest in the opinion of Mrs. Halverson who believes that everyone should give special attention to the second slot candidate as they have not done in the past.

MANY INTERESTS
The attractive auburn-haired mother — of Swedish descent — isn't one who has nothing to do but dwell on politics. Her interests are diversified, beginning at home, 76-B Ent., with sons, Michael, 20, Chris, 14, Rex, 11, and Danny, 8. When she isn't sewing, cooking and being a housewife and mother, she might be found on the golf course or playing a sharp game of bridge. During the skiing season the family takes off for the ski runs, but no matter where she is, Mrs. Halverson is an observing, thinking woman adequately endowed with curiosity and determination.

Members voted to "adopt" a needy family as part of a well-fare project and to help provide necessities for them. To meet required hours for social work the group will do clerical work for various community drives.

Voting Urged At Circle Meeting

Christian citizenship was the topic of a discussion led by Mrs. M. F. Ray when Mrs. Ross Boykin, 101 Jefferson, was hostess Monday to the Mary Hatch Circle of First Baptist Church.

Guild Has Guests At Supper

The Rev. Donald Hungerford, speaking to St. Anne's Guild Tuesday evening, explained the new women's organization of St. Mary's Episcopal Church. Mrs. Kelley Lawrence, president, welcomed officers of the new organization, Women of the Church, and presented the guest speaker, Mrs. Edwin Saiki.

Preceding the meeting at the church, a covered dish supper was served. Mrs. Richard Lindsey, Mrs. Joe Smoot, Mrs. Jack Burnett and Mrs. Harold Bull were officers attending as guests.

Rev. Hungerford explained the new organization, its duties and program of work in which every woman of the church will be an active member. Guilds will continue to function as study groups, he pointed out. Mrs. Saiki's talk concerned religion in Hawaii. First she described Hawaii's geographic location, its people's worship of pagan gods and nature. Christianity, she said, came to the islands in 1819 and has spread. Following her illustrated talk, a report was made by Mrs. George W. Dawson on a Latin-American family which the guild assisted at Christmas.

Fill The Busy Hands

Infant feeding poses a problem much of the time. However, by giving the baby something to hold in each hand he will not grab at the spoon as he is fed. He will, instead, grasp the objects tightly and concentrate on his meal.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Washing Technique Sets Unsightly Stains

Dear Heloise:

My son has had nose bleeds lately and many of my beautiful white cotton pillow slips and his white handkerchiefs are spotted. I cannot seem to remove the stains. Please answer.—T.M.

Dear T.M.:

I am not positive that I can tell you how to remove your stains as I am sure that by now the hankies and pillow slips have been washed many times with hot soap and water.

HELOISE

Soak the white cotton pillow slips and hankies in cold water to which some plain table salt has been added.

Some ammonia can also be added to this water.

Let stand a few hours. Buy a bottle of 3 per cent hydrogen peroxide at your corner drug store.

Lift the material out of the water and wring it out well. Pour on the hydrogen peroxide. The stain should all be gone. On white cottons that have already had the stains set due to hot water and soaps, one can try using household bleach as per directions on the bottle (if applicable to the material).

Dear Heloise:

I have a blue bedspread that invariably fades every time I wash it. I have found out that I can take my old yellowed nylon slips and throw them in every time I wash my bedspread and they come out a beautiful blue tinted color. Saves dyeing. The color is evenly distributed and the blue from the bedspread makes the nylons actual-

Dutch Auction Set By British Wives

A Dutch auction was set for Feb. 24 when the British Wives Club met Monday evening in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Co. Members were invited to bring American goods to the auction.

A picnic for the families of members will be held at the Webb pavilion Easter Sunday, and a donation will be made to the March of Dimes.

Hostesses, serving refreshments to 11 members, were Mrs. John Strong and Mrs. Vincent Broadwater. The next meeting will be Jan. 27 in the Flame Room.

ly look more white!—K. H.

Dear Heloise:

Your uses for nylon net were really worth learning. I would hate to wash dishes without it now. (All we said was to cut a piece of nylon net, which costs less than 40 cents a yard, into 18-inch pieces and use as a dishcloth to get sticky stuff such as rice and whipped potatoes out of a pan, also to scour burned pans.)

Your net is also fine for darn- ing large holes in hose especially men's socks! Baste a piece of netting over the hole to establish a base for your darning!—Mrs. M.

Dear Heloise:

One boon I have discovered that is marvelous for mothers with small children is an ordinary rubber shampoo sprayer attached to the bathtub faucet.

When I wash my venetian blinds in the bathtub I also use the spray to rinse off the studs. It is needless to say that our sprayer has become a permanent fixture and we even had the plumbing fixtures switched to fit it.—Irene Gilbert.

Sorority Has Styles Modeled

Fashions dating from the 1800's were shown at the Monday evening meeting of Beta Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Mrs. Tom Enloe presented the program, "History of Dress," in the home of Mrs. Wade Choate, Moss Creek Rd. Mrs. Bobby Key was cohostess.

Articles of clothing were shown from the collections of Mrs. Brandon Curry, Mrs. Willard Sullivan and Miss Pyrlle Bradshaw. Modeling fashionable styles of former years were Mrs. Enloe, Mrs. Choate, and Mrs. Key. Current styles were modeled by Mrs. Truett Vines and Mrs. Carroll Cannon. Also shown were fashion sketches by Miss Shirley Lee.

Mrs. Jim Newsom conducted the business session when Mrs. Choate reported a profit of $38.56 from the December doll sale. The doll was presented to C. W. Smith.

Refreshments were served from a pink linen-covered table appointed with china and silver. The centerpiece was pink carnations and baby mums arranged in shoes worn in the early 1920's. The shoes had been purchased here in the old McDonald's Shoe Store.

Guild Has Reports, Program

Members of Martha Wesleyan Service Guild gathered in the parlor of First Methodist Church Monday evening. Leader of the opening hymn, "A Charge to Keep Have I," was Miss Edith Gay with piano accompaniment by Miss Roberta Gay.

Mrs. Miller Harris, president, called for the secretary's and treasurer's reports from Miss Edith Gay and Mrs. Cass Mill. Mrs. W. D. McDonald and Mrs. H. H. Robinson spoke of aid, food baskets and clothing for needy families. She said they need more clothing and that she would pick up and take contributions to them when notified.

Mrs. Merle Stewart presented the coordinator's report for WSCS and the guild, showing remarkable growth but placing emphasis on new membership and financial increase. Mrs. Hill read scripture and gave the meditation and prayer. Mrs. Irene Dempsey, program leader, displayed books on the topic, "What Christian Women Read and When," placing the Bible first on the list.

Mrs. Lina Flewelen worded the dismissal prayer. Fellowship and refreshments were served by Mrs. T. P. Harrison, Mrs. E. J. Cass and Mrs. W. N. McClesky.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Dickey, 1117 Cecil St., Apt. 5, Houston, announce the birth of a son, Brett Nickson, born Jan. 1, weighing 7 pounds, 10 ounces. Mrs. Dickey is the former Shirley West of Ackerly.

'Something' Dress Is Real Flatterer

Anthony Blotta
N-1014
MISSES
MATURE

Anthony Blotta greets a fresh new season with his little "something" dress that can do nothing but flatter its wearer. In the skillful hands of this master craftsman, bias and straight fabric are effectively combined and moulded into an outstanding style. The sleeved yoke and the dress side sections are cut on the straight to contrast with the bias center parts. Its pleat-eased skirt front takes a slow curve over the hips while the back panels widen into a small flare at the hem.

To keep everything beautifully under control and insure a wonderful fit, the skirt is smoothly darted at the sides. A perfect treasure for any season and almost any occasion in sheer wool, fine tweeds, worsteds, silk or rayon crepe, faille, shantung, linen or novelty cotton. To select your correct size, use Spadea's exclusive ready-to-wear size chart.

Price Doesn't Matter To Style Conscious Women

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON, AP Fashion Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—"Price doesn't matter much to a woman who wants this fashion look," Teal Traina commented at the closing session of Spring Fashion Press Week.

He meant the one in 1,000 with an income of more than $15,000 a year who can afford the couture costumes which have appeared on the runways this week.

In the Traina collection the emphasis was on simplicity of cut and elegance of fabric, a "casual, throwaway elegance," Traina said.

Chic cardigan suits, tunics, empire-waisted linens, bare-shouldered black crepes and fluttering chiffons blooming with giant posies are his idea of a jet set wardrobe.

But what does Cinderella wear while angling for her Prince Charming?

Thanks to the magic assembly lines of ready-to-wear manufacturers, she can hold her head high in the same plunging necklines, blazer suits, shifts, and at-home styles of her rich sisters, if she doesn't mind duplication.

George Halley, of Jeunesse, proved this with a democratically priced group of camisole sheaths with linen overblouses, shaped linen shifts, black linen vamp dresses—just about anything anyone else has had.

An innovation by Halley in stretch fabric was a knit dress that lengthens modestly as the young wearer sits down.

For the previous three years, all the champions were Angus. This year's big winner belongs to Stanley Koep and his wife, Jean, of Belle Plaine, Iowa. The animal, Nobby, weighed 1,000 pounds.

The Koeps showed the reserve grand champion in 1962 and in 1960 had the Hereford champion.

The reserve grand champion went to an Angus named 1964 Model. It was shown by Kenneth Eitel of Green Castle, Mo., and weighed about 1,150 pounds.

The grand champion and reserve grand champion won competition for their breeds.

An estimated 15,000 feeder cattle will be sold beginning Thursday.

Appeals Planned To Urge Poll Tax Payments Here

Printed appeals to all electors to pay their poll tax before Jan. 31 and insure their right to vote in the 1964 elections will be distributed on a house to house basis by the Howard County Democratic Club.

At a meeting Monday night attended by more than 50 Democrats, it was agreed to have the appeals printed and to see they are left at each house. The deadline for poll tax payments is Jan. 31 and the program to be effective will have to be expedited.

A special guest was Andy Anderson, Midland, who has served three terms as state legislator from that county and is now a candidate for state senator from his district.

Announcement was made that the March meeting of the County Democratic Club will be an open forum for all candidates.

Those in attendance who were heard were Aubrey Standard and A. G. Mitchell, sheriff; Wayne Burns, district attorney; Ed Carpenter, legislator; Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor; Joe Hayden and A. E. Shorty Long, county commissioners; and Walter Grice, justice of the peace. Also present was the incumbent district attorney, Gil Jones. Jones has not announced for re-election but is expected to do so.

Other special poll tax deputies to serve the voters are Jim Smith, Lakeview YMCA secretary; John Justice, Coahoma State Bank; and Margaret Grest, Forsan.

Cliffa State, another special deputy, will set up operations at the Cosden refinery Jan. 17 and 24 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. She will also be at the Veterans Administration Hospital from 9:30 a.m. to noon Jan. 16.

Details and date will be worked out later.

Sabbato indicated the plan favored to boost poll tax sales was to hang appeals on door knobs.

More Poll Tax Stations Ready

Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector, said that deputies have now been qualified in the four Lewis Variety Stores to accept applications for poll tax payments and issue poll tax receipts. She said the voter has only to go to one of the stores, give the deputy the requisite information, pay $1.75 and receive a poll tax receipt.

Other special poll tax deputies to serve the voters are Jim Smith, Lakeview YMCA secretary; John Justice, Coahoma State Bank; and Margaret Grest, Forsan.

Cliffa State, another special deputy, will set up operations at the Cosden refinery Jan. 17 and 24 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. She will also be at the Veterans Administration Hospital from 9:30 a.m. to noon Jan. 16.

A stepup in poll tax payments has been noted in the past few days, the tax assessor said. She estimated 180 or more poll tax payments were made in the office Monday and that a huge quantity of applications by mail arrived and is now being processed.

A resident of Texas, in order to be qualified to vote in the 1964 elections, must have paid his poll tax and hold a receipt or must have an exemption certificate.

Deadline for poll tax payments is Jan. 31.

Judge Porter Emphasizes County's Need For Engineer

Lee Porter, county judge, told the Howard County Commissioners Court Monday that if he must be expected to double in the duties of a county engineer and familiarize himself with the road problems of the county, he wanted $75 a month car allowance—the same allowance made to the four commissioners.

Porter said that it is obvious the commissioners had no plans to employ a county engineer to fill a vacancy which has existed three years. Since there is no engineer, he said that many inquiries are made of him as to road problems. He is not always familiar, he said, with the problems and, if he is to advise wisely, he must see the sites. This means he must travel in his car a great deal.

County Budget Wins Approval

Howard County's 1964 budget is now finally approved and all salaries established for the ensuing year. The session of the county commissioners Monday failed to bring forth any major changes in already announced adjustments. The only exception was the authorization to pay the two Big Spring justices of the peace an additional $22.75 a month to bring their monthly check to $325. This increase will not become effective until it has been advertised and approved in final form.

Other employees, non-elective, who benefitted from pay hikes were the members of the road and bridge crew from top to bottom, one deputy in the office of Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk, and in the office of Fern Cox, district court clerk. Also given a $25 a month pay boost was Hobby West, special investigator for the district attorney's office; Mrs. Roberta Oldfield, assistant auditor, and John Dibrell, county probation officer. Mrs. Oldfield's pay hike was $25 a month. Dibrell was given $10 a month boost. The road department increases were $15 per month across the board. The deputies in the two county offices were given standard increases authorized for tenure of service and for official rating on office staffs.

A request by Sheriff Miller Harris that the pay of Martha Pickett, his office secretary, be hiked was denied.

Porter told Hayden that he (Hayden) received a car allowance and did not use a car to make his rounds—that he depended on rides with the road and bridge department officials. Hayden said he "waited until the officials were making such trips into the territory he needed to see." Sometimes, he said, he hired someone to drive him.

Porter said he was entitled to the same allowance as the other members of the court, and in view of the obvious reluctance of the court to hire an engineer to relieve the judge of these extra duties, he wanted that allowance made him. Finally, the judge made his own motion that he be allowed $75 a month car allowance. There was no second and the motion died.

"I wanted to get across to the court," said Porter afterwards, "the need for an engineer. I have tried to get interest aroused in hiring an engineer but each time I get brushed off without any action."

"I am told by one member of the court that it may cost the county as much as $10,000 to $12,000 a year for a good engineer. This commissioner said he would never favor such a deal. I would favor it if we were assured of a good engineer. I think it would be money saved in the long run."

Each year, the county budget sets up money for payment of an engineer but so far no replacement for Walter Parks, who resigned nearly three years ago, has been made. Last year, the commission interviewed one or two prospects but did not employ anyone. The salary allocation was originally $7,200—the same as for most of the elective officials of the county. This new budget sets the salary at $8,000.

Ford Wins Motor Trend's "Car of the Year" Award

January 8: Motor Trend magazine's "Car of the Year" Award goes to an engineering breakthrough! It honors all the '64s from Ford "For engineering advancement in the concept of Total Performance, proven in open competition."

Thunderbird, Falcon, Super Torque Ford, Fairlane (reading counterclockwise): winners of Motor Trend's "Car of the Year" Award

Here's what the Motor Trend Award means to you...

The editors of Motor Trend, America's largest general automotive magazine, watched Ford's total performance in open competition... saw competition-modified Fords win every 500-mile stock car race in the last year, saw Ford-built engines end an era at Indianapolis and sweep the sports car circuits.

Then they drove the 1964 Fords, Falcons, Fairlanes and Thunderbirds and discovered how the lessons of open competition have helped breed into them a new kind of total performance for the open road, for your kind of driving. And then they made their award!

The "Car of the Year" Award is an impressive testimonial, but see for yourself—take the wheel of a '64 from Ford. These cars speak for themselves with their ease of handling in a supermarket parking lot or their greater stability on a rain-slick blacktop.

Before you buy any new car this year, test-drive total performance in a Solid, Silent Super Torque Ford, now hundreds of pounds more car than anything in its field. Try America's only total performance compact, the Falcon V-8, totally new, totally changed. Or, any of the '64 Cars of the Year from Ford!

Opening lead: King of ♣
Observe that South's jump shift to three clubs in the above diagram is not one hundred percent forcing inasmuch as his partner has not as yet shown any signs of life. North is at liberty to pass three clubs if he can see no future in the hand, and has no preference for diamonds. North actually held key cards in both of South's suits, and on this basis he offered a delayed raise to four clubs. South naturally persisted to game.
West opened the king of spades and continued with the ace as all hands followed suit. With the defensive book in, West was tempted to exit with the jack of clubs and await the setting trick with his king of hearts which was located in a secure position behind declarer's ace. A moment's reflection, however, uncovered the possibility that his guarded king might have no defensive value, particularly if South held two five card suits, a by no means remote possibility from the bidding. If that were the case, then declarer's ace of hearts would be a singleton.

It appeared to West that his best prospect to develop a setting trick lay in the trump suit. If East held the nine of clubs, that card could be employed to promote a trump trick for West via an upertrick in the spade suit. West therefore continued with the jack of spades. A discard was taken from dummy and East duly came forth with the nine of clubs. South was obliged to overruff with the king, and West subsequently was able to take the setting trick with the jack of trumps.
Observe that West's strategy in giving declarer a ruff and sluff involved little risk for, even if it proved that South did have a doubleton in hearts, he could not afford to ruff the third spade with dummy's queen of clubs in order to obtain a heart discard, for that would establish a trump trick for West.
