

DEAR ABBY

There Was A Reason

DEAR ABBY: My heart feels like a ton of lead inside me. My daughter, who is a lovely girl of 19, asked permission to spend the night with her girlfriend, whom we shall call Laurie. We know Laurie and her parents very well. Laurie has spent many nights with our daughter. I wanted our daughter to stop at the grocery store before coming home the next morning, so I telephoned her at Laurie's house. Laurie's mother said that our daughter had not slept there, and she was under the impression that Laurie had spent the night at OUR house. Abby, what am I to think? Why did these girls lie? And where were they?

ONE SAD MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I don't know where the girls were, but I would certainly ask them. They lied for the same reason that most people lie—because they haven't the courage to tell the truth.

DEAR ABBY: What is a mother supposed to say when her son, age 13, brings a schoolmate home with him after school to "study," but they fool around in the yard a while, go into his bedroom and make a few phone calls, and then at about 5:45 when she is setting the table, he says to her, right out loud so his friend can hear, "Mom, can Bruce stay for supper? We'll study afterwards."

THE MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: She is supposed to say, "Yes, dear." (And she usually does.)

DEAR ABBY: Have you ever been kissed by someone who ago.

doesn't wear his dentures? It's nothing! My husband (I'll call him Popeye) had all his teeth extracted years ago, but he refuses to wear his plates. I say if he really wants to, he can keep trying until they fit, but it doesn't do any good. My husband reads your column and thinks you're great. Am I right to feel hurt?

POPEYE'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: ALL dentures can be fitted properly, if one will only give the dentist a chance. Tell "Popeye" the next time he wants to kiss you he'll have to catch you in the dentist's office.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "INDIANA SWINGER": In the immortal words of Henry L. Mencken: "Conscience is that still small voice which warns you that someone may be looking."

LBJ Asks Congress For Aid With Cotton Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to enact legislation to enable U.S. cotton to meet competition of foreign cotton and man-made fibers. He said in a special farm message that the present program, by providing a two-price system for the fiber crop, meets the needs of neither the grower, the handler, the cotton mill nor the consumer. As it is now, foreign cotton is cheaper and foreign mills can buy American cotton more cheaply than can domestic mills. This is because a grower price support program holds U.S. cotton above world price levels and above some man-made fibers. But foreign buyers are able to buy U.S. cotton at the world price through operation of a government export subsidy.

Johnson said several legislative proposals are now pending to deal with this problem. One, referred to as the Cooley Bill, has been passed by the House. Another has been introduced in the Senate by Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga. An administration spokesman said either measure would meet the goals of the President. Johnson said the cotton legislation should (1) make cotton more competitive with other fibers and eliminate the inequity of the present two-price system; (2) make it possible for growers who desire to do so to produce cotton at world prices without any subsidy, on a basis that will not add to U.S. stocks; and (3) maintain the income of cotton growers while reducing excessive carryover stocks. Proposals of Rep. Harold Cooley, D-N.C., would wipe out the price disparity by giving domestic mills a subsidy payment comparable to that given on exported cotton. It would allow growers to overplant allotments if they wished to forego price supports.

The Talmadge Bill would provide for a gradual reduction in grower price supports with domestic and world prices finally becoming the same. But compensatory payments would be made to growers to offset the loss of income that would result from the lower price supports. It too would allow growers to produce more if they chose to forego the compensatory payments. Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has proposed a temporary cotton acreage diversion program under which additional payments would be made to farmers who underplanted cotton allotments. The purpose of this program would be to hold down production until present surpluses could be reduced. This plan is not included in either the Cooley or Talmadge measures. Strong opposition to it has been expressed by some farm leaders in Congress. An administration spokesman said there is no plan now for the White House to press Congress for this additional cotton program.

Inventory Will Reveal New Record In Cattle

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department is taking an inventory of livestock on farms that is expected to show cattle numbers Jan. 1 reached a new peak of about 107 million head. This would be an increase of about 3 million over a year earlier 7 million over two years earlier and 16 million over Jan. 1, 1958. Results of the inventory will be made public Feb. 13. What it actually shows in the way of cattle numbers may have some bearing on future government policies on depressed cattle prices. Cattlemen have been blaming a sharp reduction which began a year ago on rising imports of beef. The Agriculture Department has agreed that larger foreign supplies have had a depressing influence on cattle prices, but not so much as the domestic increase in cattle numbers. The cattle inventory may well be used as one of the bases in the negotiations the United States is carrying on with Australia and New Zealand, two major foreign sources of imported beef, for establishment of voluntary import quotas of meat. The larger the inventory, the smaller will U.S. officials want to set such quotas for the immediate future. The department has taken the position that American cattlemen are responsible to some extent for the upsurge of beef imports. It has said that producers held back cows from the slaughter market in recent years for the purpose of increasing cattle numbers. As a consequence, supplies of what is called cow beef—lower quality beef used mainly for manufactured meat products—became somewhat scarce. Prices of cow beef went up with the result that imports of this kind of beef were encouraged. The inventory report may show a slightly smaller number of sheep and lambs, reflecting discouragement over prices.

WHEN WILL JESUS REIGN?

Will Jesus return to the earth to commence a reign of 1,000 years? What does the Bible teach?

1. Jesus rejected all attempts to make Him a king with a temporal domain. (John 6:15). If Jesus were to be made king when He returns, He would not reign on the earth—He has already shown that He does not want that.

2. Daniel said Jesus was made King when He returned to the Father. (Dan. 7:13-14). Jesus was not made king when He came from the Ancient of Days (God), but when He went to the Ancient of Days. Daniel is speaking of the ascension of Christ, not His second coming!

3. The early church believed Jesus was then ruling as King. God "has made" (past tense) "Him both Lord (Ruler) and Christ." (Acts 2:36). Paul called Him the "King of kings." (I. Tim. 6:15).

4. When Jesus comes again, He will come to abdicate the throne, not to commence to reign. At His second coming He will "deliver the kingdom to God the Father." (I. Cor. 15:24). The second coming will bring an end to the reign of Christ. Christ is now reigning on His throne.

The church of Christ welcomes you. 601 N. Runnels.

Local 4-H Club Members To Compete At El Paso

Howard County 4-H Club members left early today for El Paso to compete in the annual El Paso Fat Stock show which begins Saturday and runs most of next week. Herb Helbig, county farm agent, said the Howard County youngsters are entering nine Hereford steers, five breeding sheep and 24 fat lambs in the show. Howard County club members usually have good luck at the El Paso show and are hopeful of success this year. Helbig said the quality of the animals is the highest of any taken to the show in several years. Steers are being shown by Dolores Lankford, Mark Barr, Maxwell Barr, Sharon Harrison, Robert Hany, Mike Brady, Mary Thornton and Bob Adams.

Lambs will be entered by Bud Saunders, Debra Anderson, Mac Frazier, Linda Foster, Elaine Webb, Gloria Webb, Jerry Webb, Susan Elrod, David Brady, James Crenshaw and Dale Crenshaw. Breeding sheep will be shown by Charlotte Mann, Buz Mann and Nancy Mann. Several parents are accompanying the Howard County group to El Paso. The stock is being transported to the show in the 4-H Club van. The van, once it reaches the show, will become living quarters for the young showmen. The club members will return Friday night. Lamb judging is slated Tuesday and steer judging Wednesday.

Dies In Cutter

RAYMONDVILLE (AP)—Jose Guerrero Garcia, 58, was killed Thursday as a rope became entangled in a stalk cutter and jerked him off a tractor into the whirling blades of the cutter. The accident occurred on the Yturria Ranch north of here.

Screwworm Cases Down

Howard County shared with 21 other area counties in a report of fewer screwworm cases in 1963 than during the previous year. Only 19 cases were reported here in 1963, compared with 91 in 1962, according to Del Deterling, area specialist with the Texas Extension Service. For the 22 counties, there were 345 cases in 1963, while the 1962 report listed 2,616.

The screwworm eradication program looks good now. Deterling said, but he urged stockmen to continue good management practices and asked that they not be lulled into thinking the job is done. One unreported case could give the eradication program a serious setback, he explained.

E. L. Turner retires as newspaper publisher

Publisher Retires At 100 But Keeps Eye On Paper

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP)—May be it's the smell of printer's ink or his interest in everything, but E. L. Turner intends to keep an eye on his newspaper as he retires at 100.

The title of publisher emeritus gives him the right to do just that. As for the years ahead, he says, "I'll let them take care of themselves."

Turner will be 101 on March 6. "After 75 memorable years, time has taken its toll," he told the board of directors this week as he retired from active management of the Valdosta Daily Times.

He stepped down as publisher and turned his job over to another Turner, his son E. Mann Turner, who at 75 is following his father's example of longevity.

The elder Turner came to Valdosta in 1889 as a $40-a-month printer. He nurtured the newspaper with thrift and wit from a tiny weekly to a daily with a circulation of 14,500.

The son of a weekly newspaper publisher at Alapaha, Ga., Turner worked as a printer at Hawkinsville and Thomasville, Ga., before taking the job in Valdosta.

By 1905 he had become general manager of the then biweekly South Georgia Times when it became necessary to report the proceedings of a bizarre murder trial. He decided to print the paper daily to cover the trial.

The Times never went back to the biweekly schedule.

Texas Statewide Races Shaping As Time Wanes

Statewide races in Texas' 1964 elections took shape Friday as candidates declared their intentions before Monday's filing deadline.

A big question mark remained in the space reserved for what many voters consider the No. 1 race of the year — for U. S. senator.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex. considered a sure candidate for re-election, said he would return from Washington this weekend, apparently to file his candidacy.

Rep. Joe Kilgore, D-Tex., who said Wednesday he will not seek re-election, is expected to disclose in Austin, probably on Monday, whether he will challenge Yarborough.

Already in the Senate race are Democrat John Van Cronkhite of Dallas and Republican George Bush of Houston. Dr. Milton Davis of Dallas and Dr. Robert Morris of Dallas. Morris paid his $1,000 filing fee Thursday.

FOUR-SIDED

The governor's race became four-sided Thursday with the filing of Jack Crichton, Dallas oil man, as a Republican candidate.

Already declared were Gov. John Connally, Democrat Don Yarborough of Houston and Republican C. G. Weakley Jr. of Dallas.

Another race developed Thursday as Jesse Owens of Vernon, former district judge who polled 550,000 votes in an unsuccessful 1962 State Supreme Court race, announced for the Texas Railroad Commission.

Owens opposes Jim Langdon of El Paso, another Democrat, for four years of an unexpired term. Langdon was appointed to serve until the general election after William J. Murray resigned.

WON'T TRY

Rep. Joe Pool, D-Tex., lost a possible opponent Thursday when Barefoot Sanders, U. S. attorney in Dallas, said he will not try for Pool's job as congressman-at-large.

Bill Elkins of Greenville, Bob Baker of Houston and Dan Sullivan of Andrews have announced as Democratic opponents of Pool. So far there is no Republican opposition.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr also has announced for re-election. To date he has no Democratic or Republican competition.

A large number of statewide candidates have made announcements without officially filing with either state Democratic or Republican headquarters. The filing deadline is Feb. 3 but the fee payments can be delayed until Feb. 5.

OTHERS

Other candidates who have officially filed include: Lieutenant governor — Democrats Preston Smith, the incumbent, and Albert Fuentes Jr. of San Antonio, and Republican Horace Houston of Dallas.

Treasurer — Democrat Jesse James, the incumbent.

Comptroller — Democrat Robert S. Calvert, the incumbent.

Agriculture Commissioner — Democrat John White, the incumbent, and Millard Shivers of Waco.

Land commissioner — Democrat Jerry Sadler, the incumbent.

State Supreme Court (three places) — Associate Justice Robert W. Hamilton, for re-election; Associate Justice Ruel Walker, for re-election; Dist. Judge Sears McGee of Houston and Civil Appeals Judge Jack Pope of San Antonio for the place to be vacated by Associate Justice Frank P. Culver Jr.

Court of Criminal Appeals — Presiding Justice K. K. Woodley, for re-election.

Railroad Commission — Ben Ramsey, re-election to full term.

Debate Nixed

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The government political party's presidential candidate, Gustavo Diaz Ordaz, has turned down a challenge to debate rival candidate Jose Gonzalez Torres of the National Action Party.

She and her husband, Gordon Tunnell, whom she married in Blanco County April 7, 1907, came to Martin County from there and settled in the Valley View Community. They moved to Stanton in 1950.

Mrs. Tunnell was born in Blanco County May 21, 1890.

Sohio Purchases Oil Properties

CLEVELAND, Ohio, (AP) — Texas oil and gas properties in Andrews and Gregg Counties have been purchased by Sohio Petroleum Co.

The firm said Thursday the deal was closed at Texarkana with Abel & Bankcroft of Midland, Tex., and Ray Hubbard of Dallas.

Sohio said daily oil production of the properties was about 900 barrels from 51 wells. The price was not disclosed.

New Names Rise In Congress Race

New names popped into the congressional campaign picture today as battle lines were drawn over Texas' 23 House seats in forthcoming elections.

There was a scramble on and off the list of prospective congressmen in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. That's where Rep. Joe Kilgore, D-Tex., decided not to ask re-election.

State Rep. Eligio de la Garza entered the race for Kilgore's seat. Three others backed out. An old schoolmate of President Johnson said he probably would announce today. He is Hidalgo County Judge Milton Richardson.

If Richardson announces, De la Garza would have an opponent in the Democratic primary.

Withdrawing Thursday were Devine City Atty. Joe Briscoe, Cameron County Democratic Chairman Jack Skaggs and Willacy County Navigation District Chairman Charles Johnson.

Two other men — State Rep. Lindsey Rodriguez and Dr. Joseph Coulter, Brownsville veterinarian, have said they also will file for Kilgore's post.

In West Texas, Rep. E. D. Foreman, R-Tex., of Odessa announced he would seek his second term. He has no GOP opposition yet, but three Democrats are vying for his seat.

In Dallas, Mayor Earle Cabell is expected to announce formally Monday for the Democratic nomination to the place now held by Rep. Bruce Alger, R-Tex. The Rev. Baxton Bryant, who lost in a try for the Demo-

PACK CUBMASTER Retires Tuesday

Cub Pack 137 gave a rousing cheer of appreciation Tuesday evening to Tom Yeats, who is retiring as cubmaster after several years of leading the pack sponsored by the Washington P-T-A. Jack R. Alderton succeeded him.

Plans were developed for the Blue and Gold banquet on Feb. 23, but the place has not yet been picked. At the meeting in the school auditorium, the Webelos den conducted the opening and Den 2 and 4 presented skits. Den 5 gave a preview of the Boy Scout observance.

Houston Seeking Water Solution

HOUSTON (AP) — Mayor Louie Welch says he plans to get in touch with both the Trinity River Authority and plaintiffs in a lawsuit now blocking the sale of $14.5 million in water revenue bonds.

The amount includes $9 million which was to have been used for Lake Livingston.

Welch said Thursday he would have to wait until the Texas Supreme Court decides whether it will review the bond case or uphold a First Court of Appeals order for retrial of the case in district court.

Lloyd Lunsford, lawyer for the plaintiffs, said he believes an out-of-court settlement such as the mayor has suggested is now possible.

Welch said the Trinity River is a "captive resource" for Houston and there is no other market for the proposed Lake Livingston water.

The Mayor said Ben H. Carpenter of Dallas, TRA executive committee chairman at the time the TRA-Houston contract was negotiated, told him that the TRA would finance its share of the project if it could.

Welch now says it can be borrowed from the Texas Water Development Board.

A rollback of Houston water rates sought opportunity to attempt to renegotiate the contract, he said.

The rates, raised last year to help finance the reservoir as well as extend the city domestic system, have been reduced to their original level by the city council.

Carpenter again voiced the TRA's position that the contract offers Houston unique opportunity to solve her long range water problems. He said there is no question in his mind that if Houston does not proceed with building Lake Livingston the TRA will.

Under the contract, Carpenter said, Houston is given a five-year opportunity to build the lake—until Oct. 11, 1965. This date the opportunity passes to the TRA.

Missionary Tells Of Assault By Congolese

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—A 43-year-old American missionary said here Congolese terrorists shouted "Russia" and "Moscow" as they beat up a party of U.S. Baptists in a lonely mission in Kilutu Province.

Mulele's men have been making systematic attacks on missions in Kilutu—about 300 miles east of Leopoldville.

Barion G. Browning said while the mission house blazed after being set afire by armed warriors, a group of terrorists tried to rape his pretty 16-year-old daughter, Kathy. Her mother was a prisoner nearby, with her hands bound.

"Kathy told me later that she found superhuman strength to push them away," Browning said. "Then some of the young warriors who knew her tried to protect her and they all started scrapping among themselves."

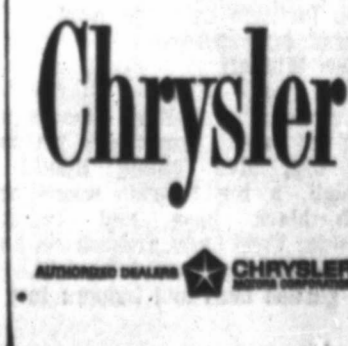

Kathy sat silently beside her parents in the U.S. Embassy lobby wearing a borrowed dress as her father told how they spent five days of terror camped outside their ruined mission before being rescued Wednesday.

The report of Browning, of the Highland Park Baptist Church in Cattanooga, Tenn.,

Four hundred Girl Scouts will begin knocking on the front doors of local residences this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The 13th annual sale of Girl Scout Cookies in the West Texas Council will begin at that time. The sale will end the evening of Feb. 8.

The salesladies again will be the registered members of the Junior, Cadette, and Senior Girl Scout troops throughout the 16 counties of the council. For the first time since the Girl Scouts have been selling cookies in the West Texas Council, the youngest members — the Brownie Girl Scouts — will not participate in the sale. All other Scouts will be actively engaged in the sale of two kinds of cookies; the sandwich cookies and the chocolate mints. Each sells for fifty cents per box.

Local chairmen directing distribution of the cookies are Mrs. G. W. Tribbel, Mrs. T. P. Macklin, Mrs. B. F. Larson and Mrs. E. J. Jones.

The main purpose of the 1964 sale is to provide capital for the West Texas Council's established campsite, Boothe Oaks, which is eight miles southwest of Sweetwater.

The proceeds from the 1964 cookie sale will be used to build two unit shelters at Camp Boothe Oaks. The shelters will be used as outdoor kitchens for the campers, and they will serve as shelters for rain for Girl Scouts who are troop camping during the school year.

In the past twelve years the Girl Scouts who have sold cookies have earned over $100,000.00. Of this amount, $91,780.00 was invested in Camp Boothe Oaks, and $8,562.00 has been put into the West Texas Girl Scout Council headquarters building (304 Mulberry Street in Abilene). Since each Girl Scout troop receives 3 cents for each box of cookies sold, troops in the West Texas Council have also earned a total of $12,838.17 for their troop treasuries in the past twelve years.

The income from Cookie Sales has enabled the West Texas Council to buy a forty-acre campsite; construct a swimming pool, tent platforms, and five permanent buildings; purchase tentage for the four established units; build permanent latrines and shower houses; install a filter system to clear and purify the water for the swimming pool; and erect a suspension bridge over the creek which cuts through the campsite.

Seeks To Ban Boys On Campus

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK (AP)—That wonderful feeling about co-education held by the Yale males is not mutual—at least not with the girls on Hunter College's Park Avenue campus.

While Yale campaigns energetically to install the fair sex in its undergraduate classes, a Hunter student council is plotting to "Ban the Boys."

Their world of scholarly women will be invaded next fall by a handful of undoubtedly eager male freshmen.

The school decided to extend its facilities to men as well as women to help meet the critical shortage of college classrooms. Men are already enrolled in graduate courses on the Bronx campus.

The "Ban the Boys" committee members are reluctant to discuss their aversion to co-education at the moment because, as a spokesman explained, a television program made light of their serious intentions.

Now the girls have agreed to talk out this problem with the Hunter College administration before considering their next maneuvers, the spokesman said. The girls will discover that having boys around the campus is a lot nicer than they thought.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Teakettle Sediment Can Be Removed

Dear Folks:
For all those who use teakettles in which sediment collects in the bottom: Marbles from the dime store, when placed in your teakettle and left there, work beautifully.

Others have written to put a clean white cotton cloth in the teakettle and it will absorb the sediment. We found this to be true! These are preventive measures. Naturally, change the marbles or cloth from time to time.

The best hint for removing the sediment was to put pure vinegar of any type into the kettle and let it boil for a while. However, professional have written to put these teakettles on the stove on simmer and the sediment will burn itself out! This method I finally tried and found it fantastic... Here's how: My teakettle is a dime store variety of aluminum. I put it directly on a gas burner and turned it on simmer. I am sure that electricity will work just as well. When the kettle begins to smell (because you have put no water, no vinegar, no nothing in it... the teakettle is supposed to be empty before you set it on the burner), remove it from the fire. (I left mine on the stove for about 20 minutes.) Gently tap the kettle on the bottom with a wooden spoon. Every bit of that sediment breaks loose and your teakettle is like new again inside.

Don't burn your teakettles. If it turns dark on the outside, take a good soap-filled steel wool pad and give it a slight scouring. Scour with the grain of the aluminum and you will have the prettiest teakettle you have ever seen.

Do not, and I repeat, do not walk out of the kitchen and go shopping, leaving the teakettle on the stove. Clean it while you are cleaning your kitchen so that you can watch it. Also be sure to use a wooden spoon to tap the bottom and if you don't have a wooden spoon you could use the end of a butcher knife. This works, too! We don't want dents, eh?—Heloise

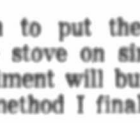

Dear Heloise: When I move from one home to another I always tape the proper screws and nails to each traverse and curtain rod. This saves hunting for them, or having to replace them, when ready to put up the rods again.—Mrs. Murphy

(Mail letters to Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald.)

State Seeks Death Count In Beckwith Murder Trial

First In The United States

Edward W. Brooke, attorney general of Massachusetts, on steps outside Boston State House. Brooke is the first Negro attorney general in any state and is the only Republican holding statewide office in Massachusetts. (AP WIREPHOTO)

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The state will seek the death penalty for Byron de La Beckwith, a white man charged with murder in the slaying of Medgar Evers, a Negro civil rights leader. Dist. Atty. William L. Waller, 37, said the state wants the death penalty in the case—one of the most controversial in Mississippi history. Beckwith, 43, a segregationist, is accused of shooting Evers in the back with a high-powered rifle from ambush last June 12. The all-white jury, plus an alternate juror in case one of the 12 falls ill, was sworn in Thursday. Choosing it took four days, plus three night sessions. Beckwith's wife arrived at the Circuit Court shortly before the 12th juror was seated. The Beckwiths showed no sign of past marital stresses and storms that led to divorces, remarriages and estrangement. He greeted her, during a court recess, with a hug and kisses. The defendant's wife took a seat beside him at the defense table and watched the proceedings with interest. Some of the questions asked prospective jurors provided a clear picture of what the district attorney refers to as the popular attitude toward the case. "The victim carried on integration activities that were repulsive to you and me," said Waller. "Now, I'm asking that you consider him as just any Negro. But can you put these things out of your mind and consider only the evidence?" Another question was: "Do you think the law ought to be upheld, regardless of who the parties involved might be?" Evers, 37, was state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

He was killed as he stepped from his car at his Jackson home. It happened during an NAACP drive to crack rigid racial barriers in Jackson. Estimates were that it would be at least four days before the jury gets the case—and perhaps more than a week. Austin Lawman Dies Of Wound AUSTIN (AP)—Don Carpenter, 29, the policeman shot in the forehead during a tavern burglary early Wednesday died Thursday. Another patrolman wounded in the incident, Bobby Sides, 32, was in fair condition with a chest wound. A man was arrested in Pasadena but no charges have been filed.

Time To Be Omitted On Mail Cancellations

Effective Saturday, cancellation on letters handled by the Big Spring Post Office will cease to show the hour such cancellation was made.

This is in accord with a nationwide program. On Feb. 1, the old habit of showing such times as "2:30 p.m." on the stamp cancellation will be replaced merely by the designation "p.m." or "a.m."

In the past, it has been the custom to change the time on the cancellation machine each 30 minutes. Such time changes take from three to four minutes. The Post Office Department has decided that the time designation is of insufficient importance to merit the loss of time.

The new system will necessitate changing the cancellation machine only two times daily.

All registered or certified letters, on request, may have the exact time stamped on the letter. A. A. Porter, assistant postmaster, said that all such mail handled by the local post office will bear the time cancellation.

Letters mailed in the post office here are cancelled on a machine which whisks the envelopes and postal cards through at 500 to 750 per minute. A cone, on which the plate identifying the post office and bearing the date, has a section where removable type permits the insertion of numerals to designate the half hour time changes.

While the postal worker is making the change from 2:30 to 3 p.m. for example, the machine (if allowed to run uninterrupted) could have cancelled 2,000 more pieces of mail. The change in cancellation will make it necessary for a lot of contest advertisements, for example, to change their wording. Such advertisements have read, for the most part "all letters postmarked before midnight" on some date, would be accepted. All such letters will now indicate "p.m." if mailed between noon and 12 midnight, and "a.m." if mailed between midnight and noon.

TO DISAPPEAR

The change in cancellation will make it necessary for a lot of contest advertisements, for example, to change their wording. Such advertisements have read, for the most part "all letters postmarked before midnight" on some date, would be accepted. All such letters will now indicate "p.m." if mailed between noon and 12 midnight, and "a.m." if mailed between midnight and noon.

Ozona Highway Request Filed

AUSTIN (AP) — A joint delegation from Val Verde and Crockett Counties asked the State Highway Commission Thursday for an estimated $5,226,000 in improvements on Texas 163 between Ozona and Comstock in West Texas.

The 82.4-mile stretch would include work on 50.3 miles in Val Verde County costing $3.6 million and 32.1 miles in Crockett County costing $1,626,000.

Rep. Gene Fondren of Taylor told the commission an exit ramp off Interstate 35 is needed north of Jarrell, in Williamson County, or several small businesses may go broke.

Fondren represented C. A. Fortes of Georgetown, who said he owned a business in the area that has an annual payroll of $50,000.

Lions Learn About Webb

Downtown Lions were given an insight this week into operations of two institutions — Webb AFB and the Toastmasters Club—and a pony besides.

Members of the Webb chapter of Toastmasters International presented the program at the Settles. Its subject was Webb.

The Lions also discovered to their pleasure that it was National Carnation Day. John Quigley presented each member with a red carnation.

Maj. Paul Jenks, operations officer, explained the mission of the base and how it is accomplished. Capt. Don Harris, instructor, outlined qualifications for leadership. Other guests included Capt. Robert Bateria, academics section, Capt. Conrad Kay, instructor, and Capt. Robert Laurine, who introduced the speakers.

Pilot training is being stepped up, Maj. Jenks said, with a transition from jets to supersonic jets. The whole mission at Webb is to turn out pilots. Trainees now are college graduates with commissions as officers. In little more than a year of training they get 164 hours of jet flying time, plus plenty of academics.

"Two basic qualities of leadership, declared Capt. Harris, are setting the example and having a firm knowledge of the job.

Inducted into the club by James Tidwell were Harlan Thornton and Chaplain Neil Wolfe of Webb AFB.

Flying Safety Award Presented

Capt. Sam P. Colquitt, Red Flight commander, at Webb AFB, received the AFB quarterly flying safety award for having the flight with the most accident-free hours during the quarter. Col. Rex D. Fryer, wing commander, presented the award to Red Flight for flying more than 25,000 accident-free hours in the October-December period.

Most people are. Some people know what they are looking for. Others are less certain. They go in all directions searching for something, but they are not sure what it is or where to find it.

Jesus says:

"The Kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant, seeking goodly pearls: who when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it" (Matthew 13:46).

Seekers of goodly pearls will find true riches and true happiness in the word of God.

Are you looking for God?

"No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him" (John 1:18).

Jesus said: "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6).

Jesus also said: "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father" (John 14:9; see also 2 Corinthians 5:18,19).

Are you seeking God's grace?

There is a certain door through which you must enter. "For by grace are ye saved through faith" (Ephesians 2:8). The unworthy sinner reaches the grace of God through faith. This is the door.

"Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in the hope of the glory of God" (Romans 5:1,2).

Are you looking for the joy of salvation?

The man from Ethiopia was. He was searching the Scriptures diligently when Philip found him and preached unto him Jesus. He was assured with all men that: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved" (Mark 16:16).

... and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing" (Acts 8:38,39).

Are you looking for peace of mind?

Only in Christ can this be found: "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid" (John 14:27).

"In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your request be made known unto God. And the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall guard your hearts and your thoughts through Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6,7).

Are you looking for eternal life?

... God hath given unto us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath the life; and he that hath not the Son hath not the life" (1 John 5:11-13).

... Whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but may in him have eternal life" (John 3:15).

The bidding:
South West North East
1♥ Pass 1♠ Pass
4♥ Pass Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: King of ♠. South's hand is only a shade shy of qualifying for a demand bid of two hearts. If the jack of hearts were replaced by the queen, it would be proper, in fact, to open the bidding with two hearts. North had barely enough to keep matters going for one round, and South wisely decided not to leave anything further to chance by jumping to four hearts on his rebid.

West opened the king of clubs and, when dummy appeared with a singleton diamond, his shift was to a trump. East covered North's eight of hearts with the queen to force out declarer's king. South led back a club and West rose with the ace to return another heart. North's nine held the trick and drew the outstanding trumps in the process. The queen of clubs was cashed and, when the jack fell, South had a sufficient number of discards for his losing spades, and he scored up his contract with an overtrick.

Had East not covered the eight of hearts when West shifted to that suit at trick two, South would have fallen short of the goal. When the next trump is led, East's queen will force declarer to win the trick in his hand, and he will have no way to reach North's established club suit. Forced to play the spades himself, South must lose two tricks in the suit.

East had nothing to gain by covering the first heart for, in view of South's jump rebid, there could be no hope of establishing a trump trick for West. By forcing declarer to use his trump entry early in the play, East can effectively shut his opponent out of the dummy. Then when clubs become established, declarer will be unable to use them.

Panama Economy Breeds Poverty

WASHINGTON (AP) — "As long as Panama's unbalanced economy and social structure breeds poverty and frustrations, extremists will find an audience."

This sentence—from the April 23, 1963, report of a special study mission of the House Foreign Affairs Committee—shows how clear was the handwriting on the wall that there would be more trouble in the Republic of Panama.

Here is another example: "It seems unlikely that efforts to promote more friendly relations between residents of the Canal Zone and Panamanians or the granting of concessions will be sufficient to contain further manifestations of nationalism. Rather, it seems probable that concessions will merely encourage more sweeping demands."

OUTGROWTH

The report was an outgrowth of a trip by a four-member group headed by Rep. Armistead Selden, D-Ala., chairman of a House Inter-American Affairs subcommittee. The report also covered four other Latin American countries.

Selden told the House recently that irresponsible Panamanian officials and Communist agents were the "real catalysts" of this month's rioting.

He urged serious exploration of routes outside Panama for a new sea-level canal to be dug by nuclear blasting. If this comes to pass, Selden said, the "irresponsible leadership" of Panama "will have to answer to their own people for their folly."

But Selden also told of the grinding poverty of most Panamanians and the "constant goad" of the prosperous American enclave, the Canal Zone. He drew much of this background from the special report of last April.

ECONOMICS

Some of the economic facts cited in the report:

"Political and economic power concentrated in the hands of a few families, perhaps 1 or 2 per cent of the population. Changes in government have represented merely a shift in power from one faction of the oligarchy to another."

"Less than 1 per cent of the landowners hold 50 per cent of the privately owned land, usually choice acreage where there are roads."

"Panama's road network is of dirt construction usable only during the four months of the dry season; reaches only about half the rural settlements. Without access to markets, there is little point for the small farmer to increase his production beyond the needs of his immediate family."

"Industry is concentrated in the terminal cities and characterized by low output, certain monopolistic practices and the tendency to seek quick, excessive profits."

CREDIT SIDE

On the credit side were these observations:

"In 1961, 25 per cent of the national budget of Panama was spent on secondary education, or $15.7 million and literacy is 72 per cent, among the highest in Latin America."

"As a result of some tax reforms, income tax collection in 1962 did increase nearly 40 per cent over 1961. But the tax system remains inadequate and regressive; income taxes are mild and collections lax and permeated with favoritism."

In 1962 the National Assembly enacted an agrarian code which "emphasizes settlement of undeveloped public lands by family units," but this has not yet been implemented.

A civil service system has been instituted and now includes 35 per cent of government employees.

Pruit Enters Sheriff Race

GARDEN CITY — Four persons have announced as candidates in Glasscock County elections for this year, according to Mrs. Fred Ratliff, county Democratic executive committee chairman.

County offices at stake this year are those of the sheriff and commissioners for Precincts 1 and 3.

Sheriff R. V. Pruitt filed for re-election Wednesday. Precinct 3 Commissioner A. W. White also has filed. Fred Hoelscher, Precinct 1, has not filed yet. Doris Blissard has announced his candidacy for that post, she said.

The county has no county attorney. Work is handled by the 118th District attorney, Howard County Attorney Wayne Burns had filed with Mrs. Ratliff for the race for district attorney.

Pruitt said 276 poll taxes had been paid by Wednesday morning, with about 150 other eligible voters.

Deadline for filing for a place on the primary ballot is Monday.

Local Men At Falstaff Session

Three Big Spring men were among the more than 700 Falstaff distributors and route-salesmen from a three state area who attended a marketing meeting in Galveston last weekend. Don Bohannon, Big Spring distributor and two of his route-salesmen, Richard Dolliver and Wayne Nichols, attended the conference. The meeting was held in Galveston's modern, spacious Moody Center to acquaint the brewing firm's distributor personnel with marketing and promotional plans for 1964.

100 Attend Scout Meet At Airport

Grand Jury Votes 31 Indictments

JACKIE HIPPI

Ventriloquist Attends Tech

Big Spring's ventriloquist, Jackie Hipp, who graduated from Howard County Junior College at mid-term, has enrolled at Texas Tech at Lubbock. There he will major in electronics engineering.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hipp, 500 E. 13th.

Hipp was choir director at West Side Baptist Church for 17 months before leaving for Lubbock. He was also vice president of the Baptist Student Union at HCJC. Hipp was selected for membership in the junior college honor society, Phi Theta Kappa, and was named in the college's Who's Who.

First To Solo

2nd Lt. Eugene O. White became the first student in Class 65-D at Webb AFB to solo the T-37. Lt. White is a member of Hammer Flight and entered training Nov. 18, 1963.

Thirty-one indictments against 29 defendants were returned by the Howard County Grand Jury for the January term of 118th District Court in its report to Judge Ralph Caton, shortly before 1 p.m. Thursday.

Included were indictments against Richard Earl Snider and E. L. (Sonny) Lewis—the two men arrested in connection with the holdup of Luther Loudamy, Safeway Food Store manager, Dec. 23.

The holdup men obtained approximately $6,000 in cash in the robbery but were forced to abandon the money and all but a few hundred dollars was recovered Dec. 24. Bonds were set for the two men indicted. They are being held in the county jail.

SHOOTING

The grand jury also heard evidence in the fatal shooting Jan. 22 of Ramon Quintana. It did not return an indictment against Mrs. Lova Jeneane Dennis, who allegedly fired the shots which fatally wounded the youth. Mrs. Dennis said she shot when a prowler sought to enter her home.

Later Quintana was admitted to a hospital suffering from gunshot wounds. He died a few hours later. No charges had been filed against Mrs. Dennis and Gil Jones, district attorney, said the only reason to present the matter to the grand jury was to make all facts in the case clear.

Harold Ray Anderson, who had been charged with assault with intent to murder in the knifing of T. H. Hopper Dec. 9, was not indicted. The knifing climaxed a scuffle between the two men.

A charge of failure to stop and render aid after a traffic incident led to the indictment by the grand jury of Pantaleon Trevino Gonzales. The state alleges that Gonzales, driving his car, ran into Nathaniel Boston, a pedestrian, Jan. 19. Gonzales, the state alleges, drove on without stopping to help the victim. Judge Caton set bond at $2,500 in Gonzales' case.

WORTHLESS CHECKS

Mrs. Tom Henry, accused by the state with having passed a worthless check for $30 to the Blum Jewelry store Dec. 5, and with having been previously convicted of a like offense in Howard County Court, was indicted as a worthless check repeater. Her bond has been set at $3,000 by the court.

Two of the defendants brought before the grand jury were each indicted on two counts. Luther Heaton Jr., charged with forgery and passing, was one of these, and Eris Williams, accused of passing a forged money order, was the other.

Forgery and passing and other types of worthless check offenses made up a heavy share of the felonies the grand jury considered.

Other defendants indicted in this field, Bobby Nichols, forgery and passing; Herman M. Walker, passing a forged instrument; Dalton Williams, passing a forged instrument (bond set at $2,000); James W. Gore, forgery and passing, (bond set at $2,000); Eda Lee Butler, forgery and passing, (bond set at $3,000); E. E. Barber, forgery and passing (bond set at $2,000); Billy Weldon Brownlow, forgery and passing (bond set at $2,000); and Melvin Gilliam Jr., (bond set at $2,000).

Defendants indicted for DWI second offense were Frank Barrett; James Otis Henry, (bond set at $1,500); J. E. Snow; J. W. Legate; James Oley Fuqua, (bond set at $1,500); Leon Grady Jetton, (bond set at $1,500); and Theodore Noel Flippin.

OTHERS

Other indictments voted: Henry Otis Washington, burglary (bond set at $2,000); Alfonso Aguilar Flores, burglary; Eduardo Caballero, burglary, (bond set at $2,000); Billy Watson, Phillip Mark Gentry and Jerry Don Rice, each indicted for burglary. Their bonds were set at $2,000 each; John Martinez, house burglary, (bond set at $2,000); Morris Lester Madden, theft over $50, (bond set at $2,000).

The grand jury considered cases against a number of other persons but did not return indictments.

These cases included Joe Boatright, accused of writing a worthless check; Mrs. J. C. Woodard, accused of writing a worthless check; Jesus Bustamante, accused of passing a forged instrument; Alfred Viscano, accused of theft over $50; and Bobby Ward, accused of theft over $50.

Chandler joined the staff of the Dallas bank in June of 1963 as an assistant vice president in the commercial loan division. Chandler started his banking career with the State National Bank of Big Spring after graduating from high school. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Chandler, now of Midland, lived at 205 Benton and his father was employed by a grocery firm. Dale Chandler was with the bank as a bookkeeper from June 16, 1952 to Feb. 1, 1954, resigning to take a position with a Midland Bank. In 1959, following completion of studies at the University of Texas for a BBA degree in banking and finance, Chandler returned to West Texas and resumed his banking career. Prior to the Dallas association, Chandler served as a commercial loan officer with the First National Bank of Midland. While residing in Midland, Chandler was an active participant in civic affairs, and while a member of the Midland Jaycees served as that organization's first vice president.

Viet Nam, Korea, Germany Keep Powder-Keg Status

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—War, the threat of war and acute political tensions have plagued the divided nations of Viet Nam, Korea and Germany. All are powder kegs in the world struggle between Communist and non-Communist forces. They are heritages of war, mirroring the division between East and West. Political unrest, including bloody coups, have flared in South Korea and South Viet Nam, where forces backed by the West have been struggling to establish themselves. Communist rule prevails in North Korea and North Viet Nam. On the other side of the world West Germany has achieved unprecedented prosperity and emerged as a powerful force in the Western Alliance under an unification of Germany collapsed and in May 1948, the rival regimes were established. War broke out when North Korea invaded South Korea on June 25, 1950. Unification of Korea has been under debate at the United Nations for years. Western insistence upon free elections as a condition for unification has met with solid Communist opposition. Chances of agreement remain dim. Germany was divided into four occupation zones after World War II, governed by the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union. Berlin was similarly divided, within the Soviet zone. The four powers couldn't agree on a peace treaty for all of Germany. The West German Republic was born in May 1949, and granted almost complete independence. The Soviet Union declared East Germany a sovereign state in 1955—but it has never won recognition as such from the West. Viet Nam was divided at the 17th parallel under an agreement reached at a 19-nation conference in Geneva in 1954 after the French defeat in Indochina. Unlike the situation in South Korea, a strong Communist guerrilla force controlled much of the countryside. One of the decisions reached at the 1945 Potsdam conference by the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union was to make the 38th parallel the dividing line between U.S. and Soviet occupation forces in Korea. Efforts to reach agreement on unification of Korea collapsed and in May 1948, the rival regimes were established. War
