

DEAR ABBY

It's Mostly The Money

DEAR ABBY: I made what I thought was a good suggestion and it started a whole family fight. My daughter recently got a diamond ring and plans to be married this summer. My sister's daughter announced her engagement New Year's Eve, and she plans to be married this summer, too. When I mentioned to the other members of my family that I thought it would be a good idea if the kids got together and had a double wedding, they said if they had to buy TWO wedding presents they expected to go to TWO weddings. And when I explained to my sister that we could save on flowers, music, food, drinks, etc., she said they could afford to put on their own wedding as they weren't in the poorhouse yet. What's wrong with my family? Or is it me? Next time I open my big mouth, I wish somebody would kick me hard. MEANT WELL.

DEAR MEANT: Your suggestion was motivated by your desire to get as much mileage out of a dollar as possible. So was their reaction. It must run in your family.

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to a wonderful man. He is a European and his first name is difficult, but not impossible, to pronounce. When I introduced him to my mother for the first time she didn't even attempt to pronounce his name. She simply said, "I shall call you John." He smiled, good-humoredly, thinking she was joking but she has called him "John ever since."

LBJ Working For 43 New York Votes

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson, eager for New York's 43 electoral votes in the November election, is emphasizing meetings and discussions during his 29-hour stay in New York City.

After lunching with editors of the New York Times today, Johnson had an afternoon appointment for a closed meeting with the 30-member executive committee of the President's Club of New York. This is an organization of people who have given at least $1,000 to the Democratic party.

Johnson also was prepared to meet with U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations, provided Thant got back from an African tour. It seemed doubtful U Thant would arrive in time to see Johnson. The President departs for Washington tonight.

Wednesday night, Johnson addressed the annual dinner of the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation, a nonpartisan organization. Paying tribute to the memory of President John F. Kennedy, Johnson promised "we shall finish his fight" against every foe "of the land he loved and the people he served."

Kennedy had planned to address the dinner, originally scheduled for last Dec. 4, and Johnson said:

"Humbly I shall carry on for him here, as I intend to carry on the great efforts he started for lasting peace."

Republicans Map Slate To Oppose Parr Clique

SAN DIEGO (AP)—With one exception the Republican party has entered candidates for all offices in Duval County in the general election next November.

The only incumbent without a Republican opponent is County Attorney O. P. Carrillo, a member of the "Old Party," sponsored by George Parr, chairman of the Duval County Democratic Committee and long the dominant personality in Duval County politics.

The slate of the "Old Party," which holds all city, county and school elective offices, is unopposed in the Democratic primary.

The GOP entered candidates in the 1962 election and polled between 1,000 and 1,300 votes. Clarence Schroeder, Duval County Republican chairman who filed his party's slate of candidates, said "The voters of the county will have a choice in the November election, thanks to these courageous citizens. People of the county can vote their true convictions."

Republican candidates and the office they seek are Salvador Campos, sheriff; Heriberto M. Gonzalez, tax assessor-collector; James M. Baker, school superintendent; John S. Durane, commissioner of precinct 1; and Dillard Weid, commissioner of precinct 3. All live in San Diego.

PRACTICAL

Love is not a sentiment. Love is something practical. "For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments . . ." (I Jno. 5:3). The Lord said, "If ye love me, keep my commandments"; "If a man love me, he will keep my words." (Jno. 14:15, 23).

Most of us would be quick to say that we love the Lord. But do we? Are we obedient to him? Do we obey whatever he commands, or do we just accept the commands that please us, and reject the others?

"Where there is love there are gifts," someone has said. Paul encouraged the Corinthi-

Boy Hurt In Collision

Brandon Jones, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady S. Jones, 1311 Eleventh Place, was treated for deep facial cuts following a bicycle-car collision about 6 p.m. Wednesday. He was taken to Howard County Hospital Foundation and Clinic for private automobile for treatment and released.

Investigating officers said Brandon was injured when his bicycle collided with a car driven by Elbert Turner, 1026 Birdwell Lane. Turner is a 16-year-old student. His 12-year-old brother, Roger, was a passenger in the car. There was no damage to the car and slight damage to the bicycle, according to police.

Locations of other accidents investigated Wednesday by police and drivers involved: Goliad Junior High School parking lot, David Bennett, 509 Highland Drive, and Brian Peay, 1213 E. 18th; Third and Main, Walter Parr, Midland, and Vernon George, Springdale, Ark.; Wood and Birdwell Lane, Suzanne Jacobsen, 1615 State, and Edgar Meeks, 1005 Stadium.

Boat Rammed, Claim Yacht's 11 Survivors

EUREKA, Calif. (AP)—The 11 survivors of the dramatic rescue from the sinking yacht Hattie D early Wednesday off the California coast, insisted today that the craft was rammed by a metal object.

"I don't care how deep it was," said crewman Carl Johnson, "what holed us was steel and a long piece. There was no give to it at all." Johnson referred to the ocean's 7,800-foot depth in the area where the sinking occurred.

A Coast Guard helicopter, dipping between waves 30 feet high hoisted 10 men, the captain's wife and a German shepherd puppy from the pitching deck of the disabled Seattle yacht.

The Hattie D, a converted Navy search and rescue craft, sank 25 miles off the coast of Cape Mendocino.

There was speculation following the rescue that the yacht had struck a giant log. Other crewmen, however, agreed with Johnson.

"I think the Navy should start checking to see if they lost a submarine," Johnson added. "Maybe they ought to see if anyone else has lost one, too."

LAST SUNDAY
The sinking ended a trip that began Jan. 24 at Seattle. The yacht left Neah Bay on the Washington coast headed for California last Sunday. Early Wednesday, the Hattie D struck an object off the rugged coast of Cape Mendocino.

The boat had been chartered by Wallace Rutherford. She was skippered by Charles Orcutt, 69. For five hours, the crew huddled in the main cabin and waited for help to come. Forty-mile-an-hour winds made it impossible to launch life boats.

LIFE JACKETS
"All of the crew were wearing life jackets," said crewman A. J. Raiffe, "but little good they'd have been in that sea."

"That copter was only 15 feet above us when it lowered the basket," said Dewey Orcutt, 21, son of the skipper.

"We figure we are lucky we got out alive," added the skipper.

Orcutt and his wife, Evelyn, 55, were among the first taken off. Rutherford was one of the next.

Others aboard were Bob Orcutt, another son of the skipper, and crewmen Ron Harmon, Mike Oom, Ben McClain and Raiffe.

Former Howard County Man Sees Greek Ship Disaster

By M. A. WEBB
A former Howard County man could have been wealthy in December if he had not considered his duty and loyalty to his country more important than money.

Photographs taken from his C54 of the scene around the burning Greek liner west of Cabalancia could have been sold to a popular magazine for a fabulous price.

Capt. Don Spencer, stationed in the Azores with the 54th Air Rescue Squadron, was in command of a C54 sent to the scene the night of Dec. 22. He was rearred in the Luther Community and was graduated from Big Spring High School in 1948, and from Texas Tech in 1952. Capt. Spencer entered the Air Force upon graduation from Tech, and has made it his career. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Spencer, live at Comanche. A brother, Neal Spencer, still lives at Luther. A tape recording, made by the captain following his return from the disaster, was sent to Neal Spencer. It contained information about what he saw around the burning liner.

Capt. Spencer has been in the Azores for about 18 months, and his tour of duty there ended Jan. 28. He soon will be stationed at Dover, Del.

"A group of us were Christmas caroling, when a message came saying we had better go to headquarters about 1 a.m.," the captain reported. "We may have to go to a burning ship. We loaded on a supply of rafts and took off shortly after 3 a.m. We made radio contact with another ship saying the Lakonia was on fire and in serious trouble."

"We ran into overcast at 9,000 feet about 600 miles out, but found a clear spot at 1,500 feet. We could see smoke boiling up. Our crew had been briefed, but what we saw was unexpected," he continued.

"We were awed at the scene. There were hundreds of people in the water, and several still on the ship. The current was moving the Lakonia about six knots an hour and any approach was difficult. Other ships were working their way down toward the Lakonia, but we saw it would take hours to effect assistance.

"There appeared to be about 10 empty lifeboats in the water. Between the people in the water were life jackets, debris, deck chairs, hatches, and other floating objects. Some of the people were obviously dead and floating face down in the water. Some were children. We were moving fast and could not tell if any children were alive in the water, but saw some still on the ship. We started putting rafts against the ship, floating all from 50 to 100 feet off the water. We couldn't get on target easily, but one of the most gratifying sights was a man crawling out of the water, into a raft, and then waving wildly to us."

DESPITE DIFFERENCES

Johnson-Connally Friendship Holds

DALLAS (AP) — Gov. John Connally says he expects to remain a "warm personal friend" of President Lyndon B. Johnson, despite political differences.

Connally made the statement Wednesday after doctors at Southwestern Medical School said he was recovering well from wounds by the same assassin who killed President Kennedy as they rode in a Dallas motorcade Nov. 22.

"The President and I haven't always seen eye to eye on political matters," Connally said. "I'm sure other cases will come up in which our views differ. But we've always had a warm personal relationship and I'm sure we will continue to do so."

A close personal and political friend of Connally, U.S. Rep. Joe Kilgore, D-Tex., decided against challenging Sen. Ralph Yarborough early this week, reportedly after "great pressure" from Washington.

EMBARRASSING
Kilgore's fellow Texans in Congress said he told them pressure came from persons who felt his candidacy as a conservative against the liberal-backed Yarborough would be highly embarrassing to President Johnson.

Connally confirmed earlier reports that shortly before Monday's filing deadline, he considered running for another office instead of seeking re-election. He said he would not have considered anything less than the U.S. Senate.

The tall, grey-haired governor said he feels fine and plans an aggressive re-election campaign throughout the state. He added, however, that he knows he can't maintain the 18-hour-day pace of his 1962 campaign.

The doctors attending Connally had treated him while he was at Parkland Hospital until mid-December.

LUNG INJURIES
Dr. Robert R. Shaw, chief of the division of thoracic surgery, said Connally's lung injuries had "progressed very well," with no evidence of infection. He said the chest wall damage had healed nearly perfectly and that the governor eventually could resume all former activities.

Dr. Charles F. Gregory, chief of the division of orthopedic surgery, said X-rays showed bone

Sims Pleads Guilty To Lesser Charge Here

James R. Sims, 28, slated to have gone to trial for rape before a special venire jury in 118th District Court Monday, elected to plead guilty Wednesday instead.

By agreement, he pleaded to one count in the indictment accusing him of fondling rather than rape as stated in other counts in the bill. Gil Jones, district attorney, recommended that Sims be sentenced to serve 15 years in the state penitentiary at Huntsville. Judge Ralph Caton agreed and so sentenced the defendant. The hearing was unusual in that no direct testimony was presented by either state or defense.

Jones handed the court four stipulations signed by Sims—agreement by the defendant that if certain witnesses in the case were in attendance, he agreed their testimony would be as outlined in statements attached to the stipulations. In each stipulation, he also waived his right of self incrimination.

Judge Caton studied the four stipulations and then sentenced the man to 15 years.

Sims was arrested July 7, 1963 at his home 203 Ridgeroad. He was accused of statutory rape of his daughter. He has been in jail since that time.

Sims' action in pleading guilty brought the case of Emzie Woodard to No. 1 spot for trial Monday when the 150 member special venire is to report to court. His case and that of Sims had been jointly docketed for trial with the probability, until Wednesday afternoon, that the Sims case would be the first called.

Woodward, at liberty on bond, is accused of shooting Herbert Lee Tillis, 30, to death last Oct.

New Voter Plan
MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico might soon put into effect a permanent voter registration system, a Chief Interior Minister Luis Echeverria said Wednesday. Voters now must register before each election.

The shooting occurred in a beer tavern on the north side of town.

Sims was the tenth defendant to enter a guilty plea in 118th District Court Wednesday, and was the 13th defendant to follow this course in the current week.

Other pleas heard Wednesday afternoon:
Eris Williams, forgery, four years in prison on each of two counts with the sentences to run concurrently. He was given credit for 105 days he has been in the county jail.

Billy Weldon Brownlow, forgery, two years in the penitentiary with credit for 30 days in jail.

Herman Walker, forgery, three years in the penitentiary with credit for 164 days spent in county jail.

On Wednesday morning Leon

Jetton, DWI second, was sentenced to nine months in county jail; James W. Gore, forgery, sentenced to two years in state penitentiary; Dalton Williams, forgery, three years probated sentence; Bobby Nichols, forgery, three years in the penitentiary; James Otis Henry, DWI second, one year in jail probated and fine of $250; Eduardo Cabalero, 29, burglary, three year probated sentence.

Dee Jon Davis, appointed by the court, was attorney for all of the defendants.

District Attorney Jones said there may be one or two additional pleas of guilty this week with the exception of Sims, who was indicted some months ago, all of the defendants before the court Wednesday were indicted last week by the January term grand jury.

Bodies Of Three Slain Fliers Returned To U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three U.S. Air Force fliers, newly fallen in the cold war, returned today to a tribute reserved for heroes.

They are the three officers who died last week when their defenseless jet training plane was sent crashing to Communist East German earth by a Russian fighter.

In salute, the Air Force mustered a guard of honor and the topmost Air Force brass to meet the plane bearing their remains from West Germany.

The aircraft carrying the bodies of Lt. Col. Gerald K. Hannaford, Capt. John F. Lorraine Jr. and Capt. Donald G. Millard was due at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., just outside Washington, this afternoon.

Traveling with the bodies were the widows and children of the victims.

Heading the official delegation due to meet the incoming plane was Secretary of the Air Force Eugene M. Zuckert.

Also expected to be on hand were Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Air Force chief of staff, and other senior officers of that service. The bodies will go to the home towns of the fliers for funeral services — Hannaford to Austin, Tex., Lorraine to Jacksonville, Fla., and Millard to Ukiah, Calif.

Even Snatchers Take Holidays

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Every day since 1960, according to police, Johnny E. Walker has stolen somebody's pocketbook.

He took Saturdays and Sundays off because "they're not good working days," Walker told Connie Wykstra, a city detective.

Walker, 28, was arrested with a woman's purse following a chase in a federal building last Saturday. He has been charged with crime on a government reservation.

Bud Begins Drive For Senate Goal

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Gov. Henry Bellmon, hailed Bud Wilkinson, who gained fame as a winning football coach, is out to win at a new game—politics.

The former University of Oklahoma coach took the long-awaited step Wednesday when he announced he will seek the Republican nomination for the U.S. Senate from Oklahoma.

His cheering section—mostly Republicans—is lined up on one side of the field, ready to help at a moment's notice. On the other side of the field is the jeering section—mostly Democrats, but including a few Republicans.

The state's No. 1 Republican,

Gov. Henry Bellmon, hailed Wilkinson's decision. He said it "will strengthen Oklahoma's Republican party and the two-party system."

Leading the other camp in reaction were Tom Harris and Forest Beall, two announced candidates for the GOP Senate nomination.

Harris, an Oklahoma City businessman, wasted no time in ripping into Wilkinson, who has been the center of political speculation for years.

Harris said the former coach showed "his inability to express where he stands on issues," and added: "By his indecision, I think he handed me the primary."

Beall, former state GOP chairman, said the race still is wide open, and added: "The more candidates we get in this primary the better it will be."

When Wilkinson changed his registration last week from Democrat to Republican, Beall predicted Wilkinson would lose the primary.

Florida Jails 36 Cubans On Illegal Fishing Count

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Thirty-six Cubans described as Fidel Castro militiamen by two defecting companions were in jail today, charged with illegally fishing in Florida waters.

Florida authorities arrested the men Wednesday night after federal officials had questioned them for three days.

The United States turned them over to Florida, explaining federal laws provide no penalty for illegally fishing in American waters.

Asst. State Atty. Gen. Joe Jacobs said the men faced a possible one-year sentence or $2,000 fine or both under a Florida law barring alien vessels from taking fish from state waters.

After Cuban exiles and Cuban-Americans demonstrated against the fishermen, a heavy guard was thrown around Monroe County jail, where the 36 were held there in lieu of $1,000 bail each.

The demonstrators hanged Castro in effigy and threw him into the sea from Mallory Dock, adjacent to the Coast Guard dock, where the Cubans had lived aboard their trawlers. The boats were herded there by the Coast Guard from Florida's Dry Tortugas Islands, where they were boarded Sunday.

Extra Moon Shot Asked

BROOKS AIR FORCE BASE, Tex. (AP)—Prompted by repeated failures of U.S. moon probes, a group in the Apollo man-to-the-moon program has requested an extra Apollo flight for a lunar reconnaissance mission.

John M. Eggleston, a space environment specialist with Project Apollo, told newsmen at a space medical conference here:

"There is a certain amount of sentiment within the National Aeronautics and Space Administration that a reconnaissance mission should be flown. There is a group of us in the rank and file who feel especially strong that Apollo should be a self-sufficient program, and not rely on the Ranger and Surveyor unmanned programs."

12TH FAILURE

The disclosure came less than a week after Ranger 6 hit the moon but failed to send back pictures of the surface as planned. The failure was the 12th in as many United States tries to gather data from spacecraft intended to pass near the moon, orbit it or land on the surface.

Three more Ranger launch-

ings are scheduled this year, all to take photographs.

Present programming calls for a three-man Apollo craft to make a circumlunar flight in 1967 or 1968 and to drop a two-man Lunar Excursion Module, called LEM, on the surface in 1968 or 1969.

SANDWICHED

Eggleston said the proposed Apollo reconnaissance flight would be sandwiched between the circumlunar and landing flights. The Apollo ship would settle into an orbit about the moon and two of the astronauts would detach in the LEM just as they would in preparation for a landing.

The LEM would descend to within eight miles of the surface and the pilots would snap pictures and drop an instrument package which would radio information on the moon's structure.

Then the LEM would rendezvous with the mother ship for the return to earth.

Eggleston said officials at NASA's Manned Spacecraft Center are considering the extra flight. He said because of considerable planning involved, a decision would have to be made in the next year or 18 months.

WASHINGTON TODAY

Defense Savings Convince Russell

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

DEFENSE SAVINGS: "The Secretary convinced me for the first time that he has saved some $4 billion," declared Georgia's tough-minded Sen. Richard B. Russell after three days of closed-door testimony by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

"He has gotten away from the hectic days of World War II and the Korean War when many contracts were on a cost-plus basis, or awarded to see that the pie was shared fairly," said Russell, chairman of the Senate's Armed Services Committee and Defense Appropriations subcommittee.

Under Russell, the two groups have been sitting together to expedite hearings on the $50-billion-plus defense budget for the next fiscal year.

Much of McNamara's "substantial savings," Russell told newsmen Wednesday, are due to awarding more defense contracts "to the lowest bidder."

vessels.

The government has decreed that 50 per cent of the wheat sold to Russia must be carried on American ships if they are available.

ARMY CAPS: An Army decision to issue baseball-type fatigue caps has already cost taxpayers more than $1 million, Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher, D-N.J., said today.

In 1961, Gallagher protested the Army decision and urged retention of the familiar "sack" type cap worn by soldiers since World War II.

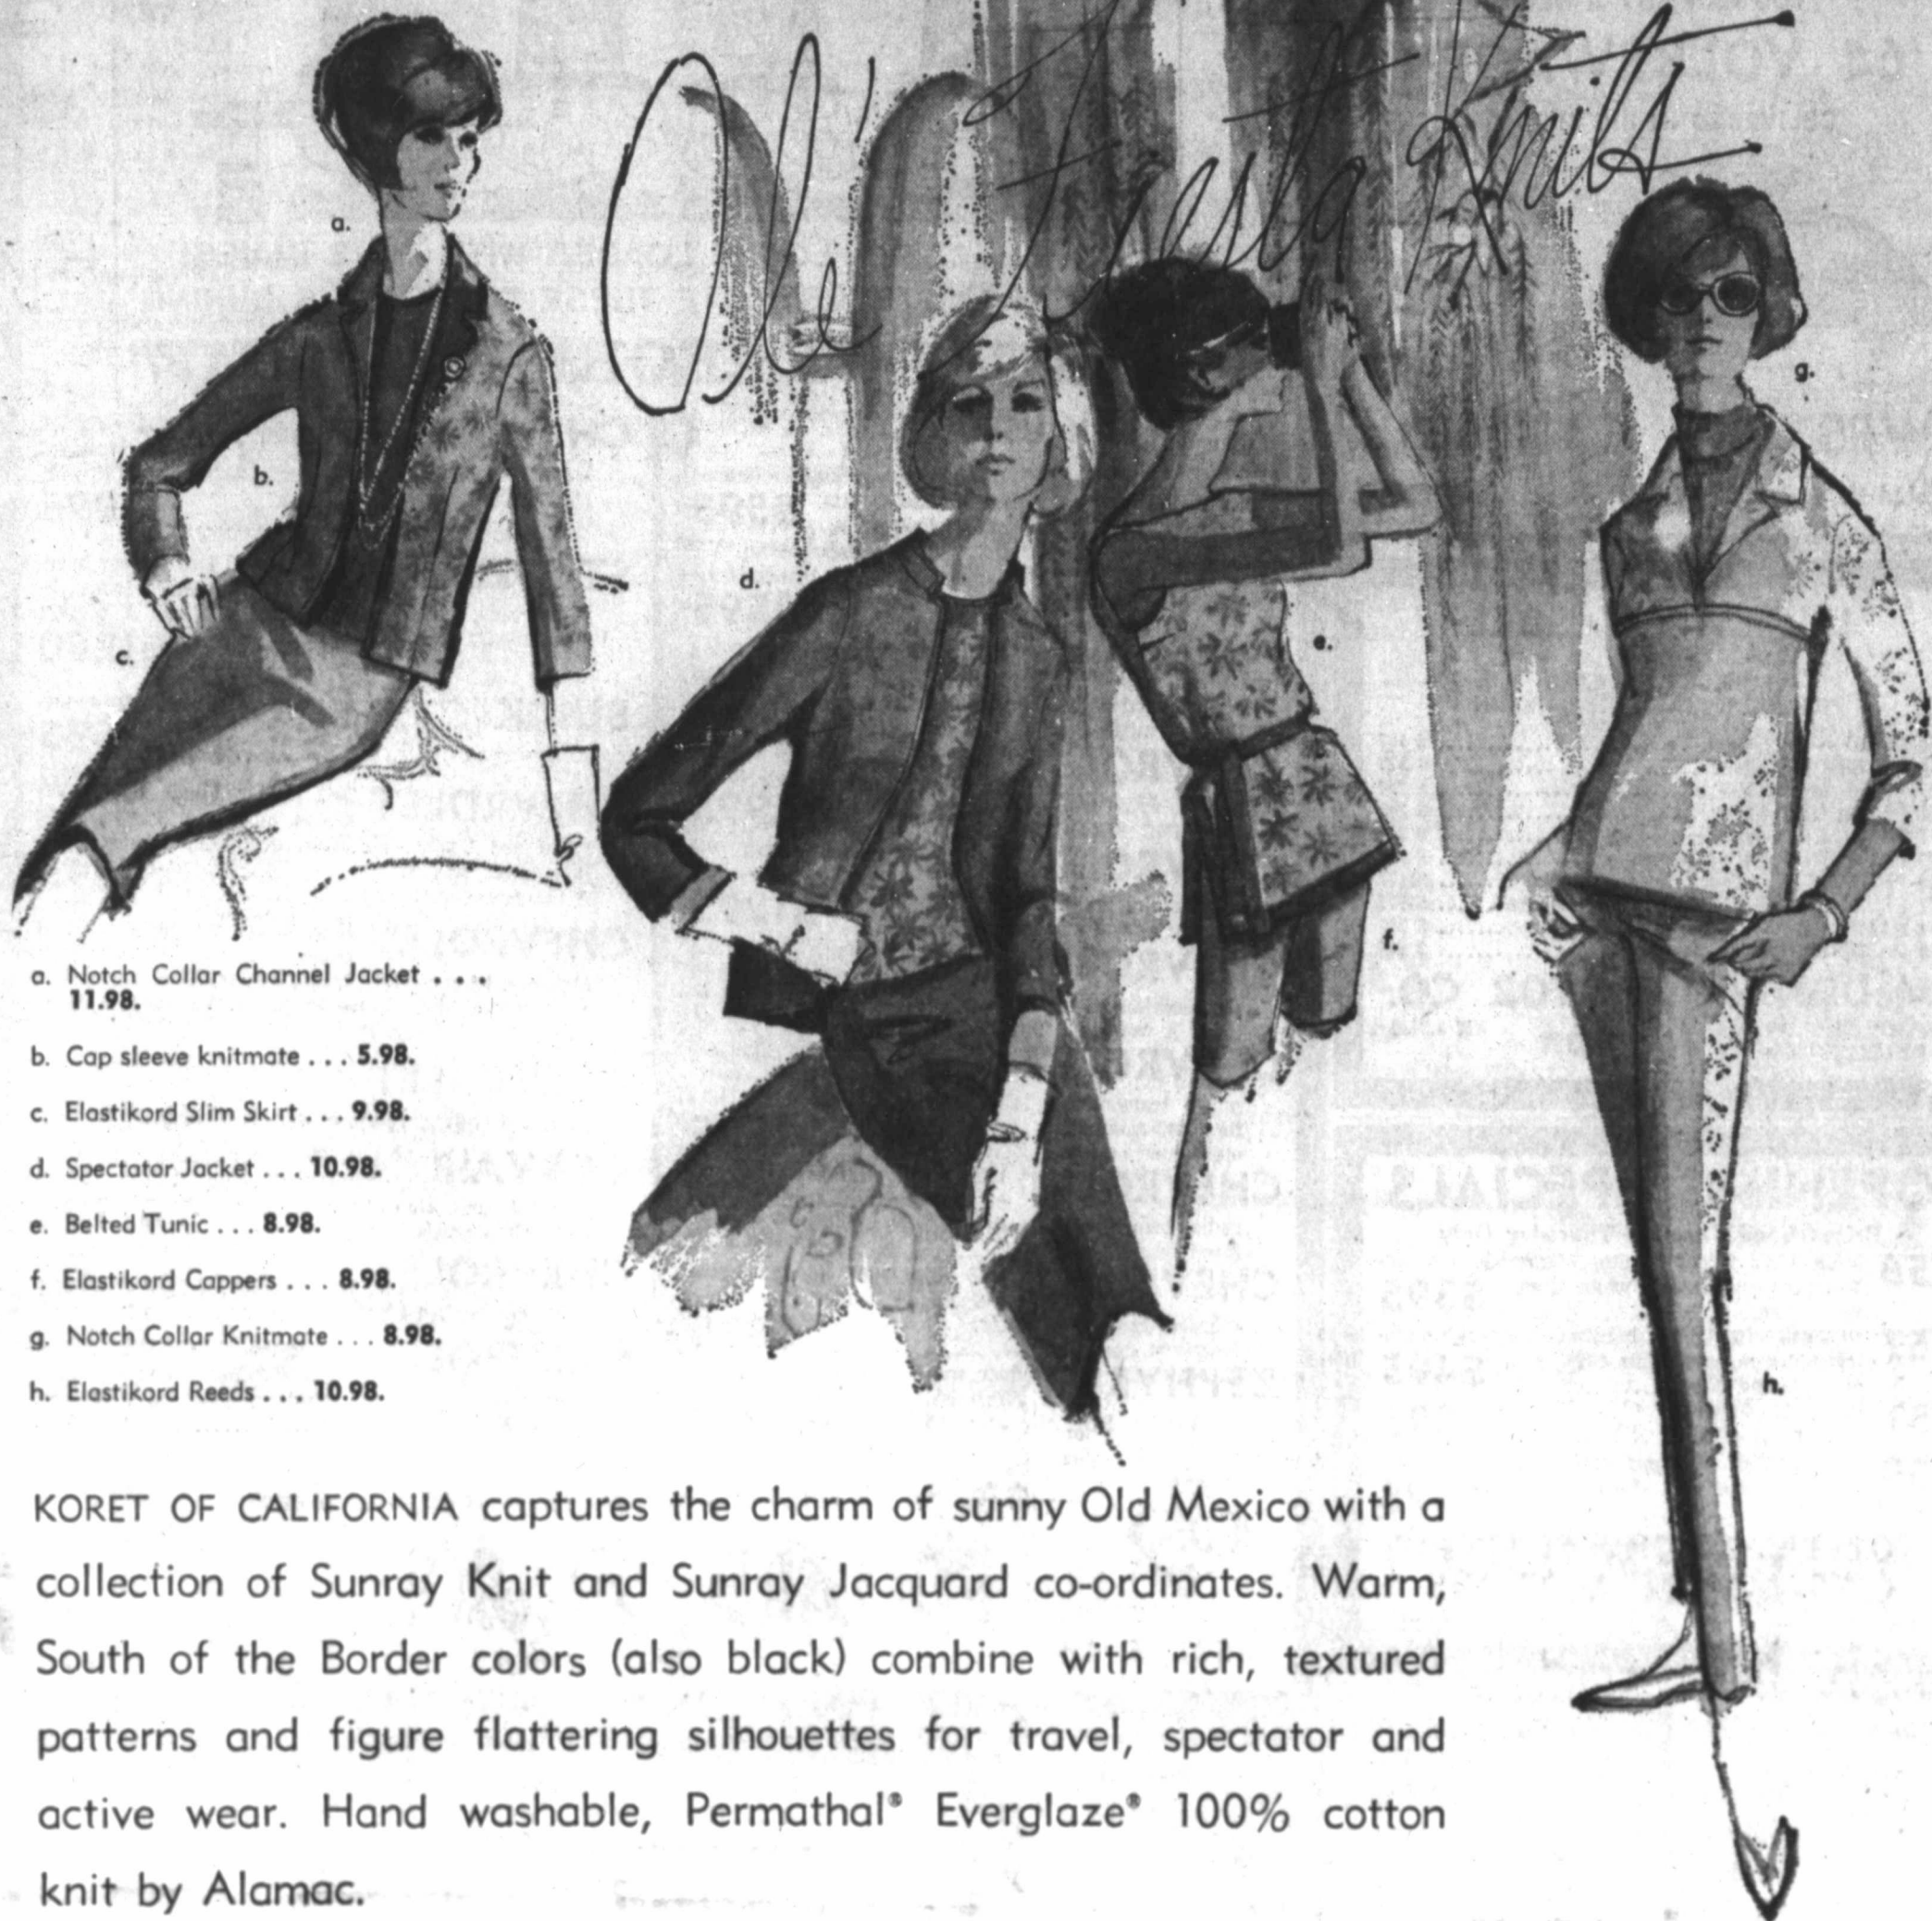

Gallagher, an infantry company commander in Europe during World War II, said the General Accounting Office revealed recently that the switch in headgear had cost $1,168,635 since 1957 when the Army first began experimenting with the new caps.

And the new headgear is "functionally inadequate" because it requires special laundering, Gallagher added.

WHEAT TO RUSSIA: The Maritime Administration hears protests today of American ship operators and labor unions, some of whom contend U.S. grain dealers would make a windfall by shipping wheat to Russia on foreign ships.

Continental Grain Corp. has asked for permission to use foreign flag vessels to ship about 10 million bushels of the grain to Soviet ports, contending American ships are not available under the Maritime Administration rate guidelines for the shipments.

Continental, in contracting for the sale of more than $75 million in durum wheat to Russia, obtained a government subsidy higher than granted for export to other countries. The indications were that this was done to allow Continental to absorb the higher costs of shipping on U.S.

Busy Training Schedule For Two Police Recruits

By BUCK SITTON

Big Spring's two new policemen are undergoing a rigorous two-week training schedule. Police Chief Jay Banks said the two men—Travis Long and Benny Lockhart—will be assigned to regular patrol shifts Feb. 14.

Banks said an additional 100 hours of training would be given the recruits later in the year. The current schedule got off to a busy start last week with the patrolmen receiving instruction in the police manual, code of conduct, city personnel policy, and special orders and ordinances.

Sessions were devoted to the traffic code, classroom instruction in firearms and revolvers, traffic ordinances, summons and complaints; accident investigation and reporting; drivers license laws and enforcement; DWI investigation and reports; Juvenile law and enforcement; liquor control laws and enforcement; auto theft investigation; narcotics and dangerous drugs; authority of police, laws of arrest, search and seizure; I.D. Bureau uses, booking and handling prisoners' property; corporation court, filing complaints, case preparation, testimony, court demeanor and dress, firearms range practice.

The second week will be characterized by the same busy schedule. The new men will work with Detectives Jack Jones and Wayne Tollett one day during the second week. A class in mob control will be taught by Chief Jay Banks.

Banks said outside instructors would be brought in during the year to give instruction in various phases of police work. Dates and times for a professional defensive driving course will be arranged when film and other materials are available.

Both new patrolmen will work on patrol duty during the second week. Banks said detailed instruction in patrol duties would be given while the recruits tour the various districts with different patrolmen.

Each man will be responsible for learning the five police districts in the city, including business establishments, main routes, locations of hospitals and emergency entrances, and schools and public buildings.

Long, 29, 1308 Ridgeway, last week became the second new patrolman hired by the department in January. He is a native of Athens, La., and served with the Navy from 1953-57. Upon discharge, he was employed by the Lamesa Police Department where he worked six years. He has had experience as a detective.

Married to the former Norma Alsbrook of Colorado City, Long is the father of four children, Robert, Michael, Cynthia and Judy.

Lockhart, native Big Springer, was hired as a patrolman Jan. 27. Both he and Long, are replacements for two patrolmen who recently resigned.

Banks said both men were hired after they successfully passed written examinations and were interviewed by a board of review.

There were over 20 applicants for the two vacancies filled by Long and Lockhart.

Kidnaping Trial

CLAREMORE, Okla. (AP) — A second Texan will go on trial in 1962 kidnaping case here Feb. 24. He is Noel Oglesby, 46, of Corpus Christi and the trial date was set Wednesday. Officers charged Oglesby and an uncle, Willis Newton, 74, of Uvalde, after finding Frank Brent, 45, of Tulsa bound and gagged in the back seat of a car in July, 1962.

Replica Presented

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A replica of the ship in which Portuguese explorer Pedro Alvarez Cabral sailed to Brazil was presented to former Mexican President Miguel Aleman Wednesday. Aleman heads the Mexican Tourism Advisory Council.

Red Skelton Miffed With Time Change For TV Show

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Red Skelton was supposed to be taping his television show in Hollywood today but he was home in Palm Springs and says he's sick—sick of his time slot on CBS.

For 13 years, Red's hour-long comedy show began at 8:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time; 7:30 p.m. in the Midwest. This season, the network moved the start of the program back a half hour.

Red's ratings have dropped and he blames the time change.

TOKYO (AP)—The youngest daughter of Emperor Hirohito, ex-Princess Suga, will go to Washington this spring for a two-year stay. Her husband, Hisanaga Shimazu, has been assigned to the U.S. capital by his employer, the Japan Export-Import Bank.

Princess Suga lost her title when she was married. Shimazu is a commoner.

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP)—Prof. Karl Fellinger of Vienna, a specialist in internal medicine, has arrived in Innsbruck and reliable sources say he's going to give the Shah of Iran a medical check-up.

The reason for the Shah consulting Fellinger hasn't been disclosed.

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Archbishop Jose Slipyj of the Ukraine has become the first Roman Catholic to gain the title of major archbishop. Pope Paul VI bestowed the title Wednesday on Archbishop Slipyj, who was released last year after spending 18 years in a Siberian labor camp. The title was created in 1957 by Pope Pius XII.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Vic Morrow, star of the television series "Combat," has been sued for divorce by actress Barbara Morrow. The suit charged extreme cruelty.

NHS Names Top Students

WESTBROOK (SC) — Members of the sophomore class led the Westbrook National Honor Society for the second six week period.

Heading the group for the second time is Margie Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lewis, with an average of 89.17. Next in line is Carole Ann Ball, 94.08; Martha Oden, 92.67; Darlene Lankford, 91.53; and senior Janie Putman, 91.57.

The top five are selected from the top three classes in high school on the basis of scholarship, character, service and leadership.

Five NHS students are selected each six weeks and pictures of the students are displayed in the school foyer. Ranks are determined on grade averages made by NHS students from the beginning of the ninth grade.

Extra Moon Shot Asked

BROOKS AIR FORCE BASE, Tex. (AP)—Prompted by repeated failures of U.S. moon probes, a group in the Apollo man-to-the-moon program has requested an extra Apollo flight for a lunar reconnaissance mission.

John M. Eggleston, a space environment specialist with Project Apollo, told newsmen at a space medical conference here:

"There is a certain amount of sentiment within the National Aeronautics and Space Administration that a reconnaissance mission should be flown. There is a group of us in the rank and file who feel especially strongly that Apollo should be a self-sufficient program, and not rely on the Ranger and Surveyor unmanned programs."

12TH FAILURE

The disclosure came less than a week after Ranger 6 hit the moon but failed to send back pictures of the surface as planned. The failure was the 12th in as many United States tries to gather data from spacecraft intended to pass near the moon, orbit it or land on the surface.

Three more Ranger launch-

ings are scheduled this year, all to take photographs.

Present programming calls for a three-man Apollo craft to make a circumlunar flight in 1967 or 1968 and to drop a two-man Lunar Excursion Module, called LEM, on the surface in 1968 or 1969.

SANDWICHED

Eggleston said the proposed Apollo reconnaissance flight would be sandwiched between the circumlunar and landing flights. The Apollo ship would settle into an orbit about the moon and two of the astronauts would detach in the LEM just as they would in preparation for a landing.

The LEM would descend to within eight miles of the surface and the pilots would snap pictures and drop an instrument package which would radio information on the moon's structure.

Then the LEM would rendezvous with the mother ship for the return to earth.

Eggleston said officials at NASA's Manned Spacecraft Center are considering the extra flight. He said because of considerable planning involved, a decision would have to be made in the next year or 18 months.

WASHINGTON TODAY

Defense Savings Convince Russell

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington: DEFENSE SAVINGS: "The Secretary convinced me for the first time that he has saved some $4 billion," declared Georgia's tough-minded Sen. Richard B. Russell after three days of closed-door testimony by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

"He has gotten away from the hectic days of World War II and the Korean War when many contracts were on a cost-plus basis, or awarded to see that the pie was shared fairly," said Russell, chairman of the Senate's Armed Services Committee and Defense Appropriations subcommittee.

Under Russell, the two groups have been sitting together to expedite hearings on the $50-billion-plus defense budget for the next fiscal year.

Much of McNamara's "substantial savings," Russell told newsmen Wednesday, are due to awarding more defense contracts "to the lowest bidder."

The government has decreed that 50 per cent of the wheat sold to Russia must be carried on American ships if they are available.

ARMY CAPS: An Army decision to issue baseball-type fatigue caps has already cost taxpayers more than $1 million, Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher, D-N.J., said today.

In 1961, Gallagher protested the Army decision and urged retention of the familiar "sad sack" type cap worn by soldiers since World War II.

Gallagher, an infantry company commander in Europe during World War II, said the General Accounting Office revealed recently that the switch in headgear had cost $1,168,635 since 1957 when the Army first began experimenting with the new caps.

And the new headgear is "functionally inadequate" because it requires special laundering, Gallagher added.

WHEAT TO RUSSIA: The Maritime Administration hears protests today of American ship operators and labor unions, some of whom contend U.S. grain dealers would make a windfall by shipping wheat to Russia on foreign ships.

Continental Grain Corp. has asked for permission to use foreign flag vessels to ship about 10 million bushels of the grain to Soviet ports, contending American ships are not available under the Maritime Administration rate guidelines for the shipments.

Continental, in contracting for the sale of more than $75 million in durum wheat to Russia, obtained a government subsidy higher than granted for export to other countries. The indications were that this was done to allow Continental to absorb the higher costs of shipping on U.S.

Busy Training Schedule For Two Police Recruits

By BUCK SITTON

Big Spring's two new policemen are undergoing a rigorous two-week training schedule. Police Chief Jay Banks said the two men—Travis Long and Benny Lockhart—will be assigned to regular patrol shifts Feb. 14.

Banks said an additional 100 hours of training would be given the recruits later in the year. The current schedule got off to a busy start last week with the patrolmen receiving instruction in the police manual, code of conduct, city personnel policy, and special orders and ordinances.

Sessions were devoted to the traffic code, classroom instruction in firearms and revolvers, traffic ordinances, summons and complaints; accident investigation and reporting, drivers license laws and enforcement, DWI investigation and reports, liquor control laws and enforcement, auto theft investigation, narcotics and dangerous drugs, authority of police, laws of arrest, search and seizure, I.D. Bureau uses, booking and handling prisoners' property, corporation court, filing complaints, case preparation, testifying, court demeanor and dress, firearms range practice.

The second week will be characterized by the same busy schedule. The new men will work with Detectives Jack Jones and Wayne Tollett one day during the second week. A class in mob control will be taught by Chief Jay Banks.

Banks said outside instructors would be brought in during the year to give instruction in various phases of police work. Dates and times for a professional defensive driving course will be arranged when film and other materials are available.

Both new patrolmen will work on patrol duty during the second week. Banks said detailed instruction in patrol duties would be given while the re-

Each man will be responsible for learning the five police districts in the city, including business establishments, main routes, locations of hospitals and emergency entrances, and schools and public buildings.

Red Skelton Miffed With Time Change For TV Show

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Red Skelton was supposed to be taping his television show in Hollywood today but he was home in Palm Springs and says he's sick—sick of his time slot on CBS.

For 13 years, Red's hour-long comedy show began at 8:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time; 7:30 p.m. in the Midwest. This season, the network moved the start of the program back a half hour.

Red's ratings have dropped and he blames the time change.

Hic, Hic For Science

Patrolman L. Gochring of the Houston Police Department keeps score on a volunteer drinker all in the name of science. The Houston police selected six volunteers to make the tests to prove "you don't have to be staggering drunk before drink affects your reflexes." The tests are for the benefit of prosecutors and accident investigators. The volunteers were tested before they started drinking on machine to show their normal reaction time. Then they were tested each hour during the drinking party. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Cleveland School Proposal Given Negroes' Approval

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland's school integration crisis, which was marked by violence at one school a week ago, is over a major hurdle. The United Freedom Movement, a confederation of civil rights groups, has accepted the Cleveland School Board's latest proposal. That proposal calls for immediate integration at three predominantly white schools whose vacant classrooms were being used by classes transported from the predominantly Negro Hazeldehl School. The Hazeldehl pupils in the future will be considered as pupils of the receiving schools and will no longer be segregated, the board said.

Parish Workers Plan Salad Supper

Parish workers of St. Paul Lutheran Church will hold a salad supper at 7:30 p.m. today during their regular meeting. All members were urged to attend and to bring their favorite salad. Secret Pals will also be revealed at the meeting.

The UFM announced after a rally Wednesday night that it is calling an end to picketing and demonstrations. Planned boycotts of schools and downtown stores also are canceled, the UFM said. The Collinwood Improvement Association, the predominantly white group involved, met Wednesday night for two hours but took no action on the school board's plan. "We want to give this matter further consideration," said Albert A. Ballew, the association's president.

Marina's Knowledge Of JFK Death - If Any - Remains Secret

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Marina Oswald has said she believes her husband killed President John F. Kennedy. However, she has not publicly detailed what she knows, if anything, about the assassination, except to say, "It was a very bad surprise for me."

In a televised interview with station KRLD in Dallas, Mrs. Oswald said this of her husband, Lee Harvey Oswald: "I don't want to believe. But I have too much facts, and facts tell me that Lee shot Kennedy." Still a question is whether the petite, pretty native of the Soviet Union reached that viewpoint from evidence she personally had, or whether she had accepted the mass of evidence against Oswald compiled by authorities.

U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren, head of the presidential investigating committee which is questioning Mrs. Oswald in Washington, said her testimony has been consistent with her earlier statements. What she told investigators in Dallas, of course, has not been made public. The widow has been quite specific about her husband's involvement in the shooting of former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker

Weary Widow May Wind Up Her Testimony Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Marina Oswald, weary from answering questions by day and taking care of her daughter by night, may wind up today her testimony linking her slain husband to the assassination of John F. Kennedy. Chief Justice Earl Warren, who heads the presidential commission investigating Kennedy's murder, said he hoped the interrogation of Lee Harvey Oswald's Russian-born widow would end this afternoon. Because Wednesday's session took up more time than expected, Mrs. Oswald's identification of the Italian-made carbine reportedly used in the assassination and Oswald's diaries and notebooks was put off until today. In previous questioning by police and officials in Dallas, Mrs. Oswald identified the rifle, equipped with a telescopic sight, as having been purchased by her husband. Wednesday's questioning was interrupted to give Mrs. Oswald a rest. Warren said he has asked the slim 22-year-old widow whether she was tired. Mrs. Oswald said she was, explaining — in Warren's words — that "June, the baby, sleeps in the daytime and keeps her up until 2 in the morning."

Mrs. Oswald brought 2-year-old June to Washington with her, leaving the other daughter — 3-month-old Rachel — at the undisclosed quarters in Texas where the Secret Service has kept the Oswald family under its protection.

slight wound from splinters. Mrs. Oswald's business advisor, Jim Martin, told newsmen she confirmed that her husband was implicated. This previously had been reported by government sources in Washington. Martin said she told him that Lee had stayed out very late the night of April 10, and while he was gone she found a note he had left for her.

ARRESTED Written in Russian, it said he might be gone for some time, or he might be arrested. The note told her where the county jail was located and advised how she could get in touch with the Soviet consul. When Oswald returned, she told Martin, he was white and shaken, and he said he had been involved in an attempt to shoot Walker.

She said they argued through the night, and Oswald promised never to do such a thing again. She said she told him she had hidden the note he left, and would turn it over to police if he failed to keep his promise. She secreted the note in a cookbook, where the FBI found it after Oswald was arrested shortly after the assassination. Mrs. Oswald, 22, told Martin he felt her husband then was "sick, something was wrong with him."

Martin said the widow found it easier to believe Oswald was guilty because of his erratic behavior. She felt Oswald had changed since returning from a three-year stay in the Soviet Union where he and Marina married, Martin said. "He became more moody, more unhappy," he quoted her as saying. Ruth Paine, who befriended Mrs. Oswald and with whom the Oswald family lived, said Marina was a great admirer of Kennedy. Mrs. Paine said Marina was almost overcome with grief when she learned Kennedy was assassinated. Before the day was out, Marina's husband was charged with the slaying. He was killed two days later by Jack Ruby, Dallas night club operator who awaits trial.

He described the type of person who could undergo hypnosis and the type that could not. During a demonstration, he used as his subject Mrs. Charles Carothers, drama coach at Goliad Junior High School.

Centering the head table was a white milk glass candelabra holding red tapers. A white cupid formed its base. Flanking the arrangement was a large white Valentine edged in red and a cupid. The side tables were decorated with red crepe paper runners.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Bedspreads Fine As Round Tablecloths

Dear Heloise: My big 54-inch, round dining room table was quite a problem to find a tablecloth for (most round cloths are about 60 inches) until I started watching bedspread sales in the newspapers.

Now, when I find a suitable color, type cloth and pattern, I buy a bedspread, cut it down to 72 inches, and make my own! Best of all, they are very, very easy to wash and iron, good material and so inexpensive. Bedspreads come in many types of materials and colors. Plaids, solids, rough weave, smooth textures... —Elizabeth Olsen

Watch your ads gals. This newspaper is full of 'em. — Heloise

Dear Heloise: You and your correspondents have my eternal gratitude for the suggestion about using cotton gloves inside of rubber gloves.

For years my nails have been horrible because I simply could not wear rubber gloves. The unlined ones get slimy inside and my lined ones get smelly after awhile. Both kinds develop a horrible clammy feeling after they have been worn a short time.

Lacking any old gloves that could be diverted for the use, I bought a pair of knitted cotton "cosmetic gloves" in our drug store. They don't look like much but they are very absorbent, dry quickly when washed and are quite inexpensive. I paid less than 30 cents for mine. —G. M.

Dear Heloise: I have discovered that cut cheese will not dry out if the cut surface is spread with a thin coat of softened butter (margarine would do). —Mrs. K. T. Drennon

Dear Heloise: Having four children I use quite a few cans of vegetables.

I like to brown my vegetables in bacon drippings or butter in a pan so I have lots of juice left over.

I keep a large pitcher in the refrigerator and drain all the vegetable juices into it. I use this juice later for gravy, soup (home made and for diluting canned soup), instant potatoes, etc.

And did you know that you could use this leftover vegetable juice for softening the dog's and cat's food? —Mrs. Martha Wilson

No, I did not. I often pour off the juice or brine and never thought of using it for this purpose. Thank you Martha. —Heloise

Dear Heloise: Paste silver polish works beautifully in removing water lines and film from glasses. Just take a dampened cloth or sponge, dip in the paste and rub those stubborn rings. Wash thoroughly with hot suds, then rinse with hot water and polish with a dry towel. Your glasses will shine beautifully. —Jackie Remolino

Tastes For Home Are Improved

By VIVIAN BROWN AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Proof that public taste in home furnishings has improved is reflected in designs such as those selected for awards by the American Institute of Interior Designers, a 19th annual event this year.

Time was when designers were stymied by manufacturers who were too timid to try anything new. We were standing still because designers' good offerings were rejected by manufacturers who, instead, took time-worn ideas that were selling, dusted and refurbished the objects and put them back in a "new" line.

Competitions such as the AID design awards and others have helped promote better taste and the design world is going full speed ahead.

TWENTY DESIGNS

As public acceptance increases, manufacturers have come to realize that business men who do not progress in the homes field are not only conspicuous as laggards but they'll lose money. And that hurts.

This year's design awards again help to acquaint the consumer public with what the home furnishings market offers in good design. Twenty designs were selected from 300 entries here and abroad.

Both traditional and contemporary design in furniture have improved tremendously, particularly in the moderate price bracket and that is what is abetting the taste change in the United States.

It's An Emergency, Doc!

Alfred, an accommodating schnauzer, toted Kid Sister (that's her name, she's a Chihuahua) to a San Antonio, Tex., veterinarian's office for a checkup. Kid Sister wasn't really sick. Someone dreamed up the whole thing to show that sometimes a dog is a dog's best friend. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Negro Boy Waits Death 3 Years

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — For almost three years, Preston Cobb Jr. has awaited death. The Negro, now 18, has seen the date of his execution wiped out four times.

Cobb was sentenced to death when he was 15 for the slaying of Frank C. Dumas Sr., 76, a white farmer on whose property Cobb's mother and most of her nine children lived.

Cobb admitted the slaying during his trial but later repudiated his confession.

His death sentence brought to light that Georgia has no law protecting a juvenile from the death penalty.

At his trial Cobb told a white jury that he shot Dumas to death after an argument over a fish he had caught in Dumas' pond.

LITTLE FISH
"I was mad with him because he kept telling me about that little old fish I caught, and he told me he was going to blow my brains out," Cobb testified. The jury deliberated 45 minutes.

Until his conviction, few had heard of the Negro boy. The sentence brought him into the limelight.

The late Eleanor Roosevelt asked former Gov. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia to intervene in Cobb's behalf. A Malayan attorney made a similar request of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Scores of letters were received by Vandiver and by Georgia's present governor, Carl E. Sanders, urging that they stay the boy's execution. Georgia governors, however, have no clemency powers; only the Pardon and Parole Board can commute a death sentence.

HEARING DATE
Cobb first was sentenced to die in August 1961. Court appeals have erased four execution dates and now the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals is expected to set a hearing date for a new trial in the early spring.

After Cobb's conviction, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People hired an Atlanta Negro attorney to take over the case from the court-appointed white lawyer, J. Ben Warren.

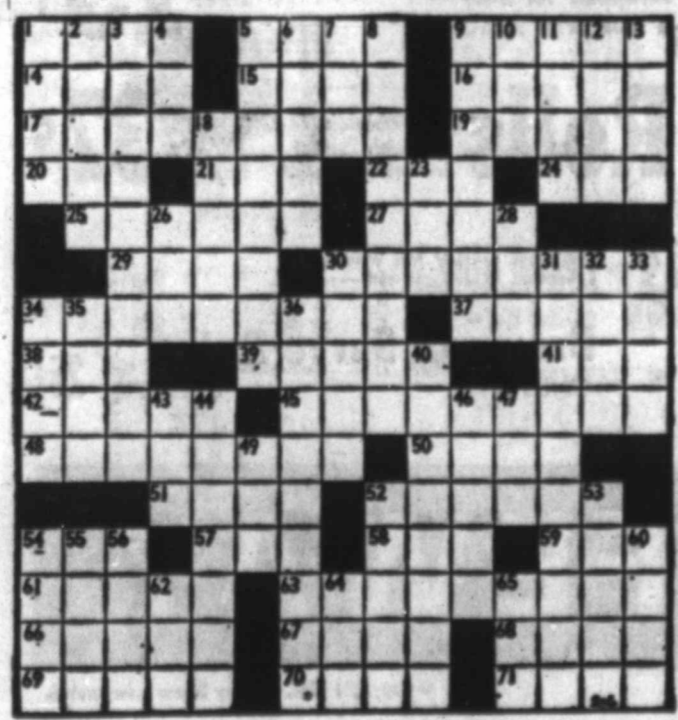

Warren, who lives in Monticello, Ga., refused to appeal Cobb's conviction. The Negro attorney, Donald L. Hollowell, described what he called the systematic exclusion of Negroes from juries in Jasper County, and filed an appeal. He also said that Cobb had admitted the slaying under duress.

Cobb meanwhile remains in death row in Reidsville State Prison. Sometimes he reads, sometimes he does push-ups and other exercises in the small cell.

Traders Jittery Over Long Climb

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market's long climb back from its 1962 lows and particularly the marked rise since President Johnson took over the reins now finds almost as many Wall Street people jittery as in the ranks of the bulls.

The optimists say the popular stock price indexes will climb to still loftier records.

The jittery folk say there are three big reasons for stock traders to watch their step just now:

—Prices have climbed so long they are ripe for a reaction.

NEW HIGH

—Many days recently when the popular indexes of blue chip stocks were setting a new high, on the market in general there were more stocks declining than advancing.

—Striking price rises in certain favored issues tend to hide that many others, and even whole industries, are still well below the highs they reached in 1961.

All this adds up to the present market performance being — to use the experts' favored word — selective. Some stocks look glamorous — some don't. Buyers of certain issues can brag of good price gains — buyers of others have nothing to brag about, and some have losses to mourn.

JUST AS MIXED

The record of the economy is just as mixed.

Some industries are pushing to new highs in production and earnings. Others are well along on the comeback trail from the 1960-61 recession but still have a way to go. And some are still among the laggards.

Many Americans, however, color their views more on what the stock market does day by day than on the duller economic statistics.

And the long rise in stock prices — together with bullish expectations for coming weeks — doubtless has added a big share to the general confidence with which most Americans are said to view the prospects for 1964.

REACTION

That is why any setback in the market—even if dismissed by the experts as a technical reaction—might pull more weight than perhaps it should in affecting consumer and business confidence.

No one is forecasting another crash like that of 1962. In fact, stock brokers point out that for many blue chips the 1963 rise in

Lutherans' Loans Okayed

DALLAS (AP)—The Lutheran Church in America's missions board has approved $1.75 million in loans to help 132 of its mission congregations in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico build 18 churches, 21 parsonages and to purchase 19 church sites.

At the board's quarterly meeting, the Dr. Donald Houser, Chicago, the board's executive secretary, said the total construction and site costs on the approved projects amounts to nearly $5 million.

He urged the board's staff to work toward reducing costs.

"Too much money is going into buildings," he declared. "We are not after cheap construction, nor are we showing a lack of concern for good architecture."

However, he said the time has come for a proper balance to be maintained between church construction costs and other responsibilities Lutheran Mission congregations face.

The Lutheran Church in America has 84 congregations in Texas. Sixty-one of these are mission congregations under supervision of the board. Nearly 28,000 baptized members are listed on the congregational rolls.

State Song Emphasized

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally urged Texas schools today to emphasize the state song, "Texas, Our Texas," during public schools week, March 2-6, and the Texas historical period, March 2-April 21.

Connally proclaimed March 2 anniversary of the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence, as State Song Day.

The governor requested mayors of Texas cities to issue proclamations on State Song Day to commemorate the 40th anniversary year of the contest during Gov. Pat Neff's administration which resulted in selection of "Texas, Our Texas."

"No other song presently in use conveys the wonder and strength of Texas, the blessings God has bestowed upon us, our heritage of freedom and the brightness of our future," the governor said.

Ordinance Bans Smoking In Bed

NEW YORK (AP)—The City Council passed an ordinance this week that would make it illegal to smoke in bed in any motel or hotel.

Fire Commissioner Edward Thompson told the council that 589 fire deaths in the city last year resulted from smoking in bed.

Councilman Theodore R. Kupferman said the measure "would make us the laughing stock of the nation," adding that to enforce it "would require breaking into rooms to get evidence."

National Archives Under Stringent New Security

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Archives Building, where rest the records of a nation 187 years old, has tighter security regulations since a recent theft.

But authorities have no fear of anyone stealing the Declaration of Independence or other great documents.

"We feel there's absolutely no possibility of anyone making off with the real national treasures," Dr. Robert H. Bahmer, deputy archivist of the United States, said in an interview.

During the hours the building is open to the public, from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., a guard stands by the great documents, enclosed in glass cases.

After the great bronze doors of the building are closed, slowly an electric mechanism begins to operate.

Early, the seven sealed glass cases containing the precious parchments begin to descend. It takes one minute for them to sink to a 50-ton vault, 20 feet below the floor, there to spend the night.

The vault is of steel and reinforced concrete with floor and walls 1 foot, 3 inches thick. The two doors of the same thickness that lock over it weigh 5 tons each. The vault is fireproof, shockproof and is considered bombproof.

In an emergency, the documents can be lowered at a moment's notice. In case of power failure, a stand-by mechanism will lower them and close the vault.

There's more than theft from which to protect the documents. Damage could result from light, air, heat, cold, mold and dust.

To safeguard against these, each parchment document leaf is sealed in helium, an inert gas, in its own bronze-bound case of filtered glass.

One-Sixth Of Insured Farmers Given Claims

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Farmers who suffered crop losses in Texas and seven other states received nearly $7.5 million in 1963 from the Federal Crop Insurance Corp.

D. W. Bernitz of Manhattan, Kan., Southwest area director, said one-sixth of the insured farmers in Texas, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado and California received claims.

Most losses were caused by drought and winter-kill.

"Participation in these eight states has increased for several years and now stands at about 80,000 farmers carrying $100 million in FCIF protection—most of it in wheat in all states, cotton in Texas and New Mexico and raisins in California, with the remainder including grain sorghum, corn, oranges, soybeans, beans, barley and

Air Mapping Wing Moves Misplaced Spots On Globe

TURNER AIR FORCE BASE, Ga., (AP) — Moving the Grand Bahama Island could be listed as one accomplishment for the men of the 1370th.

The shift was done on maps after the Atlantic Missile Range was surveyed by the 1370th

This project, born of need to meet precise guidance requirements of missiles, sharpened considerably the accuracy of the Atlantic range by uncovering mapping errors.

They found Grand Bahama six miles out of position on maps then in use; Cuba misplaced by six-tenths of a mile and other points erroneously located on maps.

ACCURATE
One major survey of the 1370th was charting of the North Atlantic to link accurately the North American and European continents. Covering 2,000 miles, it was accurate within 34 feet.

"It provides the basic geodetic link for our missile strategy," said Col. Kendall S. Young, commander of the 1370th.

From polar icecaps to desolate peaks in South America; from New Guinea jungles to barren Pacific atolls — the men of the 1370th measure the world, bit by bit.

Sometimes it's lonely.

"For five months I saw only one bird," said M. Sgt. Thomas Fenton telling of his experiences on Greenland's icecap. Ground crews of three men usually spend about three months at a station, living in tents.

TOO MUCH
Sometimes there's too much company.

"A whole tribe of natives, painted and armed with spears, bows and arrows, surrounded our three-man station on an island near New Guinea," Col. Hugh W. Bell said.

"They were obviously disturbed about something."

So were the three Air Force crewmen.

"To keep the tribesmen from exploding, the ground crew gave away nearly all their food," Bell said.

The natives usually are friendly. It is the elements, insects, snakes and other animals that usually bother the ground crewmen.

In Brazil, the snakes were a menace. In the South Pacific, it was the birds. A new project in Ethiopia has a proposed ground station on a 15,000-foot peak.

BREATHING
"Even breathing might be a problem," said M. Sgt. Donald B. Rider.

Much of the 1370th's work is done to help other countries find out what they look like.

Aerial survey teams are working in Colombia, Panama, Costa Rica, Honduras, British Guiana, Nicaragua, Guatemala and New Guinea.

Projects have been completed in and around Brazil, the Hawaiian Islands, Alaska, the Aleutians, Iceland, Greenland, the Philippines, Greece, Spain, Italy and Norway.

The men of the 1370th still have plenty of work ahead. Only about 40 per cent of the globe has been mapped.

Princess Irene Engagement Off

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Hollanders, already roused by Princess Irene's conversion to Catholicism, were buzzing today about Queen Juliana's announcement that plans for her daughter's engagement had fallen through.

In a broadcast this week, the queen said there had been "the happy possibility of an engagement" for Irene, 24, but "unfortunately we now must tell you that our daughter Irene has informed us this afternoon that this engagement will not take place."

Judgment Stands In Pan-Am Suit

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Supreme Court refused today to accept an appeal by Pan American Petroleum Corp. of a $98,450 judgment against it for alleged drainage of a gas reservoir.

Mrs. Mabel Hardy and several other persons holding a lease providing that they receive one-eighth of the oil and gas production from the 133-acre tract in East Bay City gas field brought the suit.

A district court in Matagorda County found that Pan American failed to develop gas production and gave information to the Texas Railroad Commission which led to the classification of the gas structure as a single reservoir instead of two reservoirs.

The Waco Court of Civil Appeals upheld the trial court and said:

"We think the misrepresentations, falsifications and concealment of material facts by Pan American in the course of their conduct with the Railroad Commission and the lease holders justify the award."

The Supreme Court refused to hear the case and said it found no reversible error.

Sad, Tired Prague Able To Radiate Her Charm Still

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)—Prague is like a beautiful woman who is making the best of a reluctant marriage. She can look sad or tired but she can also radiate charm. The street lights barely flicker on Wenceslas Square. The smell of burned gasoline and diesel fuel hangs heavy in the air. Soft-coal soot is everywhere and the only traffic is a trickle of Soviet-built Pobeda taxis, ancient Czech Tatras and diplomats' cars. The scene is dark and eerie.

To feel Prague's magic you have to survey the snow-covered Old Town from Hradcany Castle after a fresh snowfall or walk across Charles Bridge in the early morning. Here her centuries don't show, and the wear and tear of the first, hard years under communism register the least. It's 15 years since she was pushed into the arms of communism. She no longer entertains any girlish notions of running away but she tries to make her life as pleasant as possible. She has an opera that ranks with the best in the world, a flourishing string of big and little theaters and a night life that compares favorably with those in any but the most outgoing cities of Western Europe.

The years of exposure to the East have left their traces. Mangled with her Western tradition, they leave Prague a city of contrasts. They're selling Soviet ice cream, Cuban shirts and Bulgarian cigarettes.

At the Tuzex Stores you can get West German tape recorders, Italian cars and French perfumes—if you have special coupons bought with Western currency. Apparently many people have relatives in the West—before Christmas these stores are jammed.

And, of course, there are many homegrown products

Prague ham, Pilsener beer, plum brandy and handicrafts from Slovakia.

There's an exhibition of Russian folk songs almost everywhere.

But at the Lucerna Bar the number that really sends them is "When the Saints Go Marching In." Young couples twist nightly until 3 a.m. and Vlasta Pruchova sings a lively number called "Long Live Jazz, Long Live the Blues."

During the past months the country was thrown open to Westerners and there's talk of allowing large numbers of Czechoslovaks to travel to the West. Those who have someone to pay the fare in Western currency can go now.

Prague girls, always singled out for their taste in clothes and good looks, compare favorably with those one sees in Paris these days. Ancient taverns in the old sections have good food and atmosphere—and the wine list compares with the finest in the West. A drive for Western tourists is bound to brighten the city's face.

The newspapers are full of suggestions on what is to be done. A deputy minister has enumerated shortcomings, from lack of hotels to outmoded public transportation and traffic rules. "We have to put in order all that has been neglected for years," he told the citizens of Prague.

Plain Language Asked For Drugs

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Rep. H. L. Taylor, R-Harbourville, introduced a bill in the state legislature Wednesday which he says will protect drug purchasers.

In its entirety, it read: "All medical practitioners who write prescriptions for drugs shall write such prescriptions clearly and in plain English language and all pharmacists who sell drugs shall clearly mark and label, in the English language, all drugs dispensed and sold."

Men Lost In Blizzard Found Safe In Station

BORGER, Tex. (AP)—Two men lost in a blizzard Monday were found in good shape Wednesday in a compressor station used to pump natural gas.

Heat from engines in the station kept the men warm but they had nothing to eat.

A radio on one of two bulldozers sent to search for the men said, "Both all right." The men are Jack Wood and Kenneth Losure, both 29.

Losure and Wood had started for an oil lease six miles southeast of here but never reached their destination. They abandoned their pickup truck.

Snow as deep as 26 inches with drifts of six feet hampered the search.

One of the bulldozer operators stopped his vehicle and walked through deep snow on the chance the men might be at the small station.

The bulldozer operators reached the oil lease early Wednesday, and one turned back to Borger while another plowed on along an alternate route. It was the returning bulldozer operator who found the men. This Panhandle city of 21,000 remained virtually marooned from outside traffic by the storm, which has abated. Road crews hoped to clear some highways during today.

Fiesta Readied

McALLEN (AP)—McAllen and Reynosa, across the Rio Grande from each other in Texas and Mexico, will stage their third international spring fiesta Feb. 14-23. A "Crazy Days" theme will be followed for events in the sister cities, Fiesta President John Martin said.
