IN PAYCHECKS

Tax Cut Will Begin Showing Up Thursday

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal tax cut benefits will show up in paychecks of millions of Americans starting Thursday.

But the extra money gushing into the nation's spending stream—or savings institutions—probably won't total the $800 million a month estimated by some tax cut backers.

A cross-country Associated Press survey showed a scattering of employees, mostly salaried, had asked that benefits be stored up for them.

Most workers apparently looked forward with relief to a reduction in taxes withheld.

"I want every nickel I can get my hands on to pay my bills," said a Cleveland employe of the Internal Revenue Service.

Employers reported few hitches in adjusting payroll procedures, especially concerns with automated bookkeeping. Basically, they hereafter will withhold 14 per cent of earnings instead of 18 per cent.

"We just changed a few wires in the machine and that was it," said Manley Eubank in Raleigh, N.C. Eubank's Central Data Processing unit runs off paychecks for 10,000 North Carolina state employes.

The $11.5-billion tax cut, largest in U.S. history, provides reductions averaging 19 per cent for 80 million citizens. "No trouble at all" or "it took only a couple of minutes" were common reports from employers, including such giants as General Motors Corp. with 640,000 employees.

In Salt Lake City, Mountain States Telephone Co. said it was "working frantically" to adjust its equipment. H. J. Heinz Co., with 7,000 employees, said at headquarters in Pittsburgh that its payroll staff was putting in extra work.

In cases such as these, the rub seemed to be in meeting employee requests for some treatment other than reduction in taxes withheld.

HIGHER

In Pittsburgh, Norman Reichert, assistant treasurer at Philco Corp. with a 22,000-man payroll, said he expected some salaried persons to ask for an unchanged withholding level—or for one higher than required by law.

"These people in the past have had larger-than-required sums withheld to avoid payment of a large lump sum amount when it comes time to file their annual tax return," Reichert said.

The Philco official said hourly rated production workers apparently all wanted increased take home pay.

Withholding Rate May Be Too Low

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of taxpayers who use Uncle Sam's handy "savings bank" may increase sharply under the new tax cut law.

Millions of Americans have more money withheld from their paychecks than required so they won't owe too much extra at year's end, or get a refund.

Last year, the Treasury paid out about $5 billion in refunds. With the reduction of 4 percentage points in the withholding rate to 14 per cent many taxpayers are concerned that the Treasury won't be taking out enough and they will owe Uncle Sam on this year's income taxes.

However, if too many taxpayers get the idea of having more of their pay withheld, the impetus of the tax cut—pumping additional money into the economy—would be softened.

When the tax bill was drafted last year the plan was to drop the withholding rate to 15 per cent on Jan. 1, then to 14 per cent the next year.

When the bill wasn't passed by Jan. 1 and the withholding rate was still operating at 18 per cent, the question was whether to retain the two-stage reduction plan and probably withhold too much at 15 per cent, or to go immediately to 14 per cent and possibly withhold too little.

The decision was to drop the withholding rate to 14 per cent. "The withholding rate is only an estimate," a Treasury official noted. "We can't be sure how it's going to work out until we've tried it."

If the rate had been reduced from 18 per cent to 15 on Jan. 1 as planned, however, the amount of tax taken from the tens of millions of paychecks would have been reduced by $7.2 billion during 1964. Under the present proposal withholding would be reduced $8 billion.

This may leave some taxpayers a little short at income tax filing time in the spring of 1965. In many cases, it probably will mean only a smaller refund.

A taxpayer who doesn't want to take any chances on winding up with a big tax bill at the end of the year can, with his employer's permission, set the figure at any amount he chooses.

Improvements Coming Fine, Now Add Polish, Says Planner

With Big Spring's five-year program of growth proceeding generally according to schedule under the so-called "Master Plan," the thing to do now is to set up a new, continuing program to solidify the city's resources.

This was the consensus of a meeting of some 25 interested citizens Tuesday evening as they heard a review of Master Plan progress.

What is now needed is what Planning Consultant Marvin Springer called the "embellishments." Dr. John E. Hogan, chairman of the Master Plan committee put it this way:

"We about have the house built; now let's plan the decorations."

BASIC ITEMS IN Basically, said Springer and Carl Shimek, representing the engineering firm of Forrest and Cotten, Big Spring has fulfilled its immediately foreseeable requirements in new water and sewage systems—facilities that had to come first. Good progress is being made on paving, and this is to be continued.

What the town needs now are civic improvements to make the town more attractive. These things are important in the competitive situation Big Spring faces to attract business and population as against such cities as Midland, Odessa, Abilene and San Angelo.

SUGGESTIONS He cited several: (1) An upgrading of property along the new Interstate 20 (this is the "front door" to the city, and the area which will make an impression on visitors).

(2) Keeping the downtown area flourishing and attractive, a program which calls for more offstreet parking, renovation of buildings, beautifying the whole area.

(3) An accelerated program of developing parks and playgrounds—the city has the land facilities, in the main, but these must be landscaped, equipped, and put to use.

(4) A renovation of the City Hall, and possibly acquisition of parking, to accommodate the municipal auditorium and the municipal offices.

(5) Safeguarding against building deterioration in the older sections, and further growth of "blight" areas.

DA's Name Ordered Off Primary Ballot

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Supreme Court held today that an Abilene district attorney cannot run for the legislature and hold his present job at the same time.

It ordered the Taylor County Democratic chairman to strike Tom Todd's name off the May 2 primary ballot. The court said it would not consider a motion for rehearing because of the nearness of the election date.

Todd contended his post as 104th district attorney did not prohibit his running for state representative because the prosecutor's term did not end until Dec. 31. He claimed the legislative job did not begin until the next session starts in January.

Abilene lawyer Truman Kirk, a candidate for the same state representative spot, claimed Todd was ineligible and brought the suit. Kirk contended Todd's legislative term could begin as early as Nov. 20 when the general election votes are canvassed.

"We have been compelled to reach our conclusion by the plain and unambiguous provisions of the Constitution and the Texas Election Code," the Supreme Court opinion said.

The Texas Constitution provides no person holding a "judicial office" shall, during the term for which he was elected or appointed, be eligible for a seat in the legislature.

Youth Suffers Broken Leg

Joseph Molina, 7, son of Lupe V. Molina, 307 NW 10th, sustained a fractured leg in a pedestrian-pickup accident at Northwest Tenth and North Gregg about noon today.

He was taken to Malone-Hogan Foundation Hospital in a River-Welch ambulance. Driver of the pickup was tentatively identified by police as Alvin Vieregge. His address was not given.

Investigating officers said the collision occurred as the youth was en route from the Bauer School to his home during the lunch hour. He walked two-thirds of the distance across the street, turned and was struck by the pickup, police said. The driver was traveling north on Gregg, and the boy was going west on Northwest Tenth immediately prior to the accident.

The impact knocked the young student about 15 feet, and he came to rest on the south side of Northwest Tenth about the middle of Gregg Street, according to the police report.

Hospital authorities described Molina's condition as good.

At Long Last, Ruby Testimony Started

Witnesses Arrive

Two of the first witnesses called in the Jack Ruby murder trial walk down the corridor on the way to court this morning. Capt. Will Fritz, right, of the Dallas Police Department, is followed by John Newman, of the advertising department of the Dallas Morning News. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Judge Brown Back On Job, Parade Of Witnesses Waits

DALLAS (AP)—A pretty secretary testified today that Jack Ruby sat with a fixed stare for two minutes shortly after the news broke that President John F. Kennedy had been assassinated in Dallas.

The witness, Georgia Mayor said in answer to defense questions that his appearance and action were remarkable and sufficiently unusual to draw her attention.

NEWS OFFICE She is a secretary in the advertising department of the Dallas Morning News. Co-workers said they noted very little, if any, change in Ruby when he heard the news. He was in the office composing an advertisement.

Ruby is charged with slaying Lee Harvey Oswald, accused as the assassin of Kennedy. The defense sought to support by questioning its contention that the slaying of the President shocked Ruby into a mental blackout during which he killed Oswald.

The state seeks to prove that Ruby's actions were normal. Ruby rose to his feet before a jury of four women and eight men today and entered a formal plea of innocent as the first day of testimony got under way. His attorneys added that the plea was innocent by reason of insanity.

READ INDICTMENT Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade, facing the 32-year-old defendant, then read the indictment charging that Ruby did "with malice aforethought kill Lee Harvey Oswald by shooting him with a gun."

The indictment was dated Nov. 26, two days after Oswald was shot and four days after Kennedy was assassinated during a motorcade in downtown Dallas.

Judge Brown was absent Tuesday with a cold and Judge J. Frank Wilson sat for him while the jury was completed.

The courtroom, already jammed with spectators, was crowded further by about 30 state's witnesses. They were sworn in after Brown denied defense motions that would have delayed the start of the trial.

MOTIONS

The defense moved again for a change of venue, a mistrial, for more peremptory challenges before the jury was sworn in, and for a mistrial on the grounds that a public relations firm allocated the seats in the courtroom mostly to newsmen rather than the general public.

Judge Brown, more brusque than usual, interrupted chief defense counsel Melvin M. Belli. "We've gone into all that, counsel," the judge said. "Let's get on with the business at hand."

REFUSES

"No sir, I am not going to excuse them," Judge Brown said. Belli also asked that the rule be suspended to permit Dr. Manfred Guttmacher, Baltimore psychiatrist, to hear the testimony in court. The prosecution objected. Judge Brown said no doctors will be excused.

Belli then asked for a five-minute recess so that the defense attorneys could talk privately with Ruby and his sisters. The judge granted the request.

Judge Brown overruled the motion for an insanity hearing. The Texas Supreme Court refused for the second time to hear arguments on the legal issue of whether television viewers who saw Ruby shoot Oswald are witnesses and thus ineligible to serve on the jury. Eleven of the 12 jurors said they saw the shooting on television.

The state's first witness was Don Campbell, 46, an advertising salesman for the Dallas Morning News.

Through his testimony, Asst. Dist. Atty. Bill Alexander led swiftly to the fateful moments when President Kennedy was assassinated.

Campbell said he and Ruby were talking about an advertisement for Ruby's two night clubs about 10 minutes before the President was killed.

Jury Convicts Jimmy Hoffa

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamster Union was convicted today on two charges of seeking to fix the jury which tried him on a conspiracy charge in 1962.

The jury acquitted him on a third charge.

Also convicted were three men on trial with him — Ewing King and Thomas E. Parks of Nashville and Larry Campbell of Detroit.

Hoffa sat motionless, his face a grim mask, as jury foreman Hal W. Bullen of Chattanooga read the verdict. It was Hoffa's first conviction in five federal trials dating back to 1957.

Hoffa could receive a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison and a fine of $10,000. The others could receive up to 5 years and $5,000 each.

Hoffa, Parks and Campbell were convicted of offering a $10,000 bribe to the son of a Negro juror in the 1962 trial.

Campbell is business agent for the Detroit Teamsters local, of which Hoffa is president. Parks, a handyman, is Campbell's uncle. Both Campbell and Parks are Negroes.

Hoffa and King, former Nashville Teamsters president, were convicted of offering a promotion in the Tennessee Highway Patrol to a state trooper whose wife was on the Nashville jury.

The jurors acquitted Hoffa on a charge in which he was accused of aiding and abetting two businessmen in trying to rig the jury. The businessmen, Nicholas Tweel of Huntington, W. Va., and Allen Dorfman of Chicago, also were acquitted.

The jury deliberated a total of 5 hours and 40 minutes, after receiving the case at 7:25 Tuesday night.

Castro Offers To Turn On Water

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro offered today to turn on the water again for the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo but met a quick, cold turn-down from Washington.

State Department officials in the U.S. capital said the offer would not be accepted.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, commented, "We have already made it clear that Guantanamo is being made self-sufficient."

"Cuba considers the incident of the water at Guantanamo Bay closed and is ready to supply the base with water once again," the prime minister told foreign newsmen at a Moroccan Embassy reception.

"It is up to the Americans to use that water or not," he added.

Castro cut off Guantanamo's water supply on Feb. 6 in retaliation for the arrest of 38 Cuban fishermen and the seizure of four trawlers in American waters off Florida.

Twenty-nine of the fishermen were returned to Cuba Feb. 21 with their boats after the four captains paid fines for poaching. Two fishermen chose asylum in the United States. The other seven were freed as juveniles and returned to Havana.

The U.S. government is not expected to take up Castro's offer to turn the base's water back on. It has plans to make the base self-sufficient with the use of desalination plants that are to be built in the next year. The base is being supplied by tankers with water from Florida.

Castro also had another swipe for Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., who after the water was cut off said the United States should send a battalion of Marines to turn the water on.

SENATE DEBATING Tobacco Support Repeal Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate debates today whether to add a provision to the wheat-cotton bill that would repeal the tobacco price support program.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., proposed that this be done in the light of the recent report on the dangers of cigarette smoking. The report was prepared by a panel of doctors named by the Public Health Service.

Tobacco state senators were indignant at Williams' amendment. Managers of the bill, who have resisted all changes in it, said they expected the tobacco repealer to be defeated handsily.

But additional fights were in prospect over the cotton and wheat sections of the bill and over an attempt to add a beef import quota amendment.

Assistant Democratic leader Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota said after Tuesday's vote it appeared clear that the cotton section would survive the floor debate intact.

Agriculture Committee Chairman Allen J. Ellender, D-La., an implacable foe of the new cotton subsidy program, said he tended to agree with this although he planned new attempts to change it.

At the initial floor votes Tuesday, three efforts to amend the cotton section were defeated overwhelmingly.

The key feature of the bill's new cotton program is a subsidy to permit them to buy U.S. cotton at the world price which their foreign competitors now pay.

Manufacturers overseas get the benefit of the world price, now about 24 cents a pound, under an export subsidy program started nine years ago to boost foreign sales of American cotton.

But U.S. mills pay the domestic support price, now about 32½ cents a pound. The new subsidy plan would pay processors covering the gap so American companies could obtain the world price.

Ellender first offered a substitute for the new program which he said would cost $424 million a year less. But this was defeated 70 to 20.

Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., also offered a substitute but this lost 80 to 12.

Peace Force For Cyprus Approved

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council voted unanimously today to have Secretary-General U. Thant set up a Cyprus peace force and name a mediator to seek peace in the island republic.

The Soviet Union had announced it would support the plan despite strong reservations on the provisions for the creation and control of the force.

There also had been some doubt about France's vote, but French Delegate Roger Seydoux went along with the others.

Russia objected to a provision that the secretary-general would decide on the composition of the proposed foreign consultation with Cyprus, Britain, Greece and Turkey. This would circumvent the Security Council, said Soviet Ambassador Nikolai Fedorenko.

In Athens, 2,000 Greeks burned an effigy of President Johnson in front of the U.S. Embassy Tuesday night. Thousands of others poured through the streets shouting denunciations of the United States and Britain for allegedly taking Turkey's side in the dispute.

"They roared 'Bravo Russia,'" Johnson-Al Capone" and "Out with the fleet." Units of the U.S.

Fleet Will Not Visit At Athens

ATHENS (AP) — More anti-American demonstrations flared in Greece today and the U.S. Embassy announced a visit to Athens Thursday by ships of the U.S. 6th Fleet has been canceled.

An embassy spokesman said the cancellation was requested by the Greek government.

For the third day in a row, several thousand students marched through the streets denouncing the United States and Britain. They shouted for demonstrations for Cyprus.

6th Fleet are holding joint exercises with Turkey in the Aegean Sea.

On the Greek island of Rhodes, off the Turkish coast, 3,000 high school students stoned the U.S. Information Agency building, the Turkish consulate and the U.S. Coast Guard vessel Courier, which serves as a transmitter for the Voice of America. They also overturned a car belonging to the Courier at dockside.

The students hooted down a government official who pleaded, "The Americans are our friends." Fights broke out when police moved in to quell the disorders.

Greek Premier George Papandreu ordered police not to interfere with the demonstrations but said he wanted all foreign embassies and property protected from "every act of violence and villainy."

"I am proud of the reports of Greek youth and the Greek people in general making patriotic demonstrations for Cyprus," Papandreu said.

McNamara Going For Viet Nam Look

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara will take off for South Viet Nam Thursday night, cool to proposals to carry the war against Communist North Viet Nam.

Anything but a "soft liner," McNamara is understood to feel the South Vietnamese forces will win or lose the fight by the way they go about eliminating the Communist insurgents inside their own country. The defense chief is said to believe the Vietnamese lack the capability to carry on a full-scale campaign in South Viet Nam and at the same time strike into the north.

McNamara reportedly is against sending Americans on any such operations into North Viet Nam.

It is his position, both in public and private, that the U.S. military men — 15,500 of them now—are in South Viet Nam as trainers and advisers, and that the fighting must be done by the Vietnamese.

McNamara recognizes that guerrilla operations or air strikes into Red territory might slow supplies and reinforcements to Communist elements inside South Viet Nam.

But he contends this will not solve the basic problem that has plagued the U.S.-supported effort since it began on a big scale more than two years ago.

That problem: how to win the backing of the people in the countryside for the government in Saigon.

Evidence reaching the Pentagon since the most recent coup a little over a month ago has not been conclusive, in the view of top officials, as to whether the Vietnamese people have rallied to Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, the new premier, any more than they stood behind the two governments before Khan.

One thing Khan is doing pleases U.S. authorities — he is going out into the country on a meet-the-people campaign.

One of McNamara's chief aims in his fourth trip halfway around the world is to find what can be done to get the war back on the track again—to get the machinery of government and command working after the disruption of the second coup, in three months.

It appears unlikely that U.S. policy will take any spectacular new turn as a result of McNamara's visit. It is considered highly improbable that any U.S. combat troops will be sent to South Viet Nam.

Pollution Board Checking Oil, Gas Field Disposal

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Water Pollution Control Board sought today to find if disposal of oil and gas field wastes is polluting water in an eight-county area of the middle high plains.

The counties considered are Dawson, Hale, Bailey, Cochran, Hockley, Terry, Lynn and Swisher, part of the 48-county area which gets water from the underground Ogallala Formation.

Since September the board has been considering a recommendation by staff geologists to eliminate unlined surface disposal pits in the Ogallala area. Geologists said seepage of wastes from the pits was polluting underground water supplies.

At the insistence of the oil industry, the board agreed to hear arguments from smaller counties in the area, possibly as a test for future board action in regulating disposal of oil and gas field wastes.

"I'm sympathetic to the idea of holding a hearing on one region to see in which direction we are heading," said Board Chairman Joe Carter after the oil industry suggested dividing the 48-county area into five regions for separate study.

Tom McFarland, general manager of the High Plains Underground District, told the board at its January meeting that his organization favors a no-pit order for the area.

The importance of the Ogallala Formation, underlying a 31,500 square-mile area, is shown by statistics released in 1961-62. The formation furnishes water in 1961 to 48,000 irrigated wells, 805 municipal wells and 390 industrial wells, a total of about 64 million acre-feet. An acre-foot is 325,831 gallons.

Forty of the 48 counties produced from some 60,000 wells oil and gas valued at $1.1 billion in 1962. That same year the payroll for oil and gas employees was $225 million.

Investigating Plane Crash

LAKE JACKSON (AP)—Federal Aviation Agency officials began investigating the crash Tuesday night of a twin-engine Dow Chemical Co. plane in which one man was killed and two injured.

Company officials said the Cessna 310 was approaching the land at Dow's airport when it went down a half-mile from the end of the runway.

The pilot, W. L. Craggs, 46, of Lake Jackson, was killed. In critical condition was Guy Neville, 46, and in fair condition, Ken Ramey, 34, both of Houston.

The plane was on a flight from Lafayette, La.,

State Agency Approved For Texas Colleges

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally's higher education study committee said Tuesday it has tentatively approved recommending a new state agency to coordinate all state junior and senior colleges.

The committee met in a second closed-door session Tuesday. Chairman H. B. Zachry of San Antonio and several committee members met with newsmen after the session to review committee deliberations held Tuesday and Feb. 19.

At the Feb. 19 meeting, the committee agreed unanimously on a new central coordinating agency proposal, committee member Tom Sealy of Midland said.

The agency would be guided by an 18-man board with staggered nine-year terms appointed by the governor.

Zachry warned, however, that the committee may later decide to revise earlier decisions, including the one on a central agency.

Asked if the recommendation might result in abolition of the State Commission on Higher Education, which now sets policy only for senior colleges, Sealy said any new central agency would be the only one of its kind.

Resigned To Strained Period Between Paris, Washington

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials have about given up trying to analyze the motives of French President Charles de Gaulle and resigned themselves to a long period of strain and increasing tension in relations between Washington and Paris.

The latest French maneuver in demanding Red Chinese admission to the U.N. World Health Organization is but one of a series which has already created a bad split in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and which may be followed by other moves as yet unforeseen here.

The Washington policy for dealing with this situation seems to be essentially a policy of containment aimed at trying to prevent the split in the alliance from becoming worse. It is also aimed at trying to blot the thrust of De Gaulle's diplomacy insofar as it may affect the policies and attitudes of other countries in issues like the recognition of the Communist regime in China.

After news was received at the White House and State Department Tuesday that France was supporting a Red Chinese seat in the World Health Organization, the State Department declared that the U.S. delegation had "actively and successfully opposed the challenge of the Republic of China's (Nationalist China's) credentials."

It added: "We will continue to do this in every U.N. body." The acceptance of the French challenge on this issue, which China both as to recognition and as to U.N. membership completely clear in the capitals where they serve.

Col. Lillard Figures In Sonic Boom Tests

OKLAHOMA CITY — Big Spring, Texas, has a double influence on the sonic boom program going on here, sponsored jointly by the Federal Aviation Agency, the U. S. Air Force and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Actually the bulk of the load is centered around FAA and the Air Force, but Big Spring is in the Oklahoma picture in a combination of ways.

First, one of the key men in the operation here is Lt. Col. Dave Lillard. His wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Hull of Big Spring.

Second, the F-104 Starfighters used in the sonic boom studies are assigned to Big Spring Air Force Base, but on temporary duty in Oklahoma City at Tinker Air Force Base.

HOW MUCH BOOM? Col. Lillard is second in command of the vast operation, and is in constant contact with the F-104's when they are making their sonic boom run.

While Oklahomaans feel they are in the limelight in the center of the whole thing, it actually is just a part of the Supersonic Transport program of the FAA.

TRANSPORT FORERUNNER The huge transport, scheduled to fly in the early 1970's, is to carry the U. S. colors across the nation and around the world.

COL. DAVE LILLARD

Should the cries become too loud, then another approach will be considered by the FAA.

While Oklahomaans feel they are in the limelight in the center of the whole thing, it actually is just a part of the Supersonic Transport program of the FAA.

The huge transport, scheduled to fly in the early 1970's, is to carry the U. S. colors across the nation and around the world.

in the supersonic race for commercial air carrier supremacy. However, one of the many problems involved in the supersonic transport is the resulting booms when the aircraft reaches and passes the sound barrier. From then on, until the plane slows below the speed of sound, the rumbling boom will result.

One of the jobs Col. Lillard handles as deputy program manager, is the lining up of the aircraft when project director Ken Power is either out of town or on other business.

MACH 1-MACH 2 It is no Buck Rogers type of atmosphere, but rather a very smooth operation. The F-104 Starfighter flies usually between 30,000 and 36,000 feet and Mach 1.5, which is one and one-half times the speed of sound. Future plans call for the speed to be stepped up to Mach 2, or twice the speed of sound. The actual supersonic period when the fighter crashes the sound is only about 40 miles long, covering central Oklahoma and the boom can be heard in all of Oklahoma City. Around 800,000 people live under the path of the booms.

Aviation is certainly nothing new for Col. Lillard, a native Texan, for he has been in the Air Force for 22 years and has flown just about every type of twin or multi-engine aircraft the Air Force owns.

WIDE BACKGROUND He was assigned to the FAA's NAFEC organization at Atlantic City, in September of 1961, as operations specialist. In addition to research work, at NAFEC he participates actively as a pilot in experimental flight testing of Automatic Landing Systems, Air Traffic Control, etc.

He acted as program coordinator for a joint FAA-NASA-USAF program that studied the effects of the Sonic Boom on light aircraft and helicopters at Edwards Air Force Base a year ago.

Col. Lillard's wife and three daughters live at 2312 Shepherd Drive, Northfield, N. J.

Spence Gives Tips On District Plan

Tips on a joint city development of a water supply, based on experience of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, were passed on today by E. V. Spence, general manager.

He did this in an address this afternoon at the 46th Annual Texas Water and Sewage Works Association Short School at Texas A&M University in College Station.

Of course it all starts with an idea, he said, but someone had better have this idea and do something about it in plenty of time. No matter how big the job, it can be done, he had the record of the CRMWD to back this contention.

CRMWD RECORD Five years after the suggestion of a multi-city water supply was first advanced, the CRMWD had come into being and the project was under construction. The system has three times been expanded or extended so that a total of $19,100,000 in revenue bonds ultimately was issued. Over 89 billion gallons of water have been sold and 41.6 per cent of the debt has been paid or provided for in reserves. More than this, the member cities of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder, together with oil repressuring units, have had all their water demands met. Two other cities, Rotan and Coahoma, are served indirectly. No tax has ever been levied by the district, revenues financing all activities, including plans for a new large lake.

For cities considering joint action on their water problems, Spence had some suggestions once the idea has been conceived clearly on the basis of common interests. Among them are these:

THINGS TO DO
 Creation of a temporary organization to secure water rights, make plans, secure legislation to create a district or authority with sufficient powers to operate effectively; inform the public completely; secure financing ample for construction and for early operation; avoid too great a restriction under terms of borrowing; secure competent legal and engineering help; administration with an outlook for the whole project rather than any one city advantage; vision in administration; sound maintenance and economical operation; constant and open public relations.

Once established, there can be no relaxation, he said, "for the district of authority must be constantly and even militantly vigilant in the protection of its water supplies, both as to quality and quantity. There must be research and experimentation in conservation of supplies of water and relocation of them economically nearest points of greatest demand. Revenues should be realized from marketing surplus waters pending time when they must be used by member cities."

ADVANTAGES
 Because it has operated solely on revenues, the CRMWD has enjoyed numerous advantages, he said. These include city ownership of the district, ability to move far faster than government-aid projects and at a half to a third of the cost, greater flexibility, in serving interim customers, management by representatives of the constituency served.

THE BIBLE

When asked if a Christian needed to believe the Bible, Billy Graham, in his column, gave the correct answer. He pointed out that the Bible informs us about Christ and His will to us; that without the Bible we would only have the Christ of man's imagination. He further pointed out that Christianity, like a contest, must be "played by the rules;" and the rules are found in the Bible. See I Cor. 14:37; II Tim. 3:16, 17; II Tim. 2:5; etc.

Also, let us study the inspired "rule book;" and go by what it says, without adding anything thereto or taking anything therefrom (II Tim. 2:15; Rev. 22:18, 19).

DEAR ABBY

Show Her The Golden Gate

DEAR ABBY: My brother, two sisters and I are married and we all live in Oakland, California. My mother, who is 78, lives alone in Illinois. She has relatives there, but none of them bothers with her. She has fought with every companion we've hired to live with her, and she's getting to the point where she shouldn't be living alone. (Her hearing is failing and she is very forgetful). I have begged her to come to California and live with me, but she doesn't want to move. If she wanted to be independent she could have her own apartment near me, where I would be only one minute away if she needed me for anything. She has plenty of monthly income. She refuses to move, and all she talks about is dying. I certainly can't move to Illinois. What's the solution?

NO NAMES, PLEASE
 DEAR NO NAMES: Go to Illinois during the blistering heat of the summer, or the biting, bitter cold of the winter. "Kidnap" your mother and take her to Oakland. Once she sees that Golden Gate she'll quit talking about the pearly ones.

DEAR ABBY: For two years I have been married to a man who had been married for 16 years to another woman. She passed away. Something has been irritating me, and I don't know whether I should mention it to Roswell or not. He has the habit of referring to his first wife as "MY WIFE." Abby, I am his wife!

HIS WIFE
 DEAR WIFE: The next time it occurs, correct him ever so gently with, "Roswell darling, I am your wife. She is your former wife." Repeat the reminder until the memories of 16 years fade—as they will.

DEAR ABBY: I am 100 per cent with that man from California who said that all women who wore slacks on the street should be fined. The woman who wrote in and told him to go jump in the lake, should go jump in her Bible. I refer to Deuteronomy: Chapter 22, Verse 5: "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do are abomination unto the Lord, thy God."

KNOWS MY BIBLE
 DEAR ABBY: Please tell Popeye's Wife that LOVE, not TEETH, is the magic ingredient which changes a kiss from nothing to something.

Student Government Day Plans Are Announced

Fifth Annual Student Government day will be observed Friday with the city and county officials cooperating in the observation.

Youngsters have been selected to serve in the several municipal and county offices for the day and their official counterparts will be their hosts.

Initial event on the program is a breakfast at the Settles Hotel at 7:30 a.m. with Brooks Harmon, Odessa civic leader and attorney, as the guest speaker. The officials and their young guests will attend the breakfast.

The Big Spring Chamber of Commerce is arranging the day's program.

Each of the students selected will spend Friday with his host studying the work of the official performs and familiarizing himself with the machinery of city and county government.

The boys and girls who are to be "officials" for the day were elected in the schools by their fellow students. A primary and general election was held in the schools. More than 1,000 high school boys and girls voted in the election and took part in the campaign.

A two party system was followed with the candidates filed as Nationalists or Federalists.

Each city and county official is asked to contact his student counterpart and see to it that he is at the breakfast at the Settles Hotel.

The school election results showed:

City commissioners, Junior Holland, Beverly Womack, Merry Lee Dibrell, John Bennett Mayor, Robert Goodlett.

City manager, Bob Griffith. Assistant city manager, Charles Sweeney.

Director of public works, Ronnie Brown; sewage department, Lepold Guinn; water distribution, Jimmy Towns; water production, Sheryl Dittrich; parks and cemeteries, Chuck Hall; tax department, Rick Pazderski; police chief, Wayne Griffith; assistant chief, Tracey Faulks; fire chief, Cliff Creighton; fire marshal, Benny Kirkland; city attorney, Tommy Loving; civil defense, Ricky Beam and Dwayne Lawhon; city secretary, Judy Marsh; city electrician, Danny Reagan.

County commissioners, Sue Tribollet, Bill Head, Gus Hernandez and Larry Miller. County judge, Pat Hamilton.

County clerk, Sharon Smith; county tax collector, Billie Dixon; county attorney, Jan Anderson; county sheriff, Gary Holeman; auditor, Nancy Hedleston; librarian, Charlotte Shive; welfare director, Carolyn McCreary; juvenile officer, Bill Worley; agricultural agent, Bud Saunders; health nurse, Maureen Miranda; airport manager, Larry Plummer; justices of the peace, Simon Terrazas and Jim Bruce Frazier.

District judge, Albert Fierro; district attorney, Sherry Stevens; district clerk, Jean Armstrong; and district court reporter, Andrea Askins.

Complete First Class

Auto mechanic trainees at Howard County Junior College completed their year of training Tuesday and marked the occasion with a dinner at the Dora Roberts Student Union Building.

Marshall Box, head of the HCJC vocational department, said that seven of the men had jobs awaiting them. Others are expected to be placed soon. They were given an extensive basic course in all phases of auto mechanics during the year in a specially equipped shop.

Applications are now being screened by the Texas Employment Commission for a second class.

Dr. W. A. Hunt, HCJC president, spoke briefly to the graduates, pointing out some of the things that would be expected of them. They had a special responsibility, he said, because they are the first products of the class.

Certificates were distributed by him and Box, and James Banks, instructor, presided at the banquet which was served by another vocational group under the MFA program — the cook's school. The Rev. Bob Kaiser, Coahoma, gave the invocation.

Jury Chosen On Land Suit

A suit to set a new value on land taken by the state from H. S. Moss Foundation for highway purposes is on trial today in Howard County Court.

A jury was selected Tuesday and then excused to report by 9 a.m. today. The first day of the trial was spent in hearing motions and discussing legal issues which were not of importance to the jury, according to Lee Porter, county judge, who is presiding.

The jurors were hearing testimony today.

The suit is one in which neither the state nor the landowner was pleased with the allocation of damages made by the special commission at the time the condemnation was taken.

The jury will be asked to equate the issue.

Land concerned in today's case is part of several tracts owned by Moss and Moss organizations which the state took when it began plans for the IS 20 by pass.

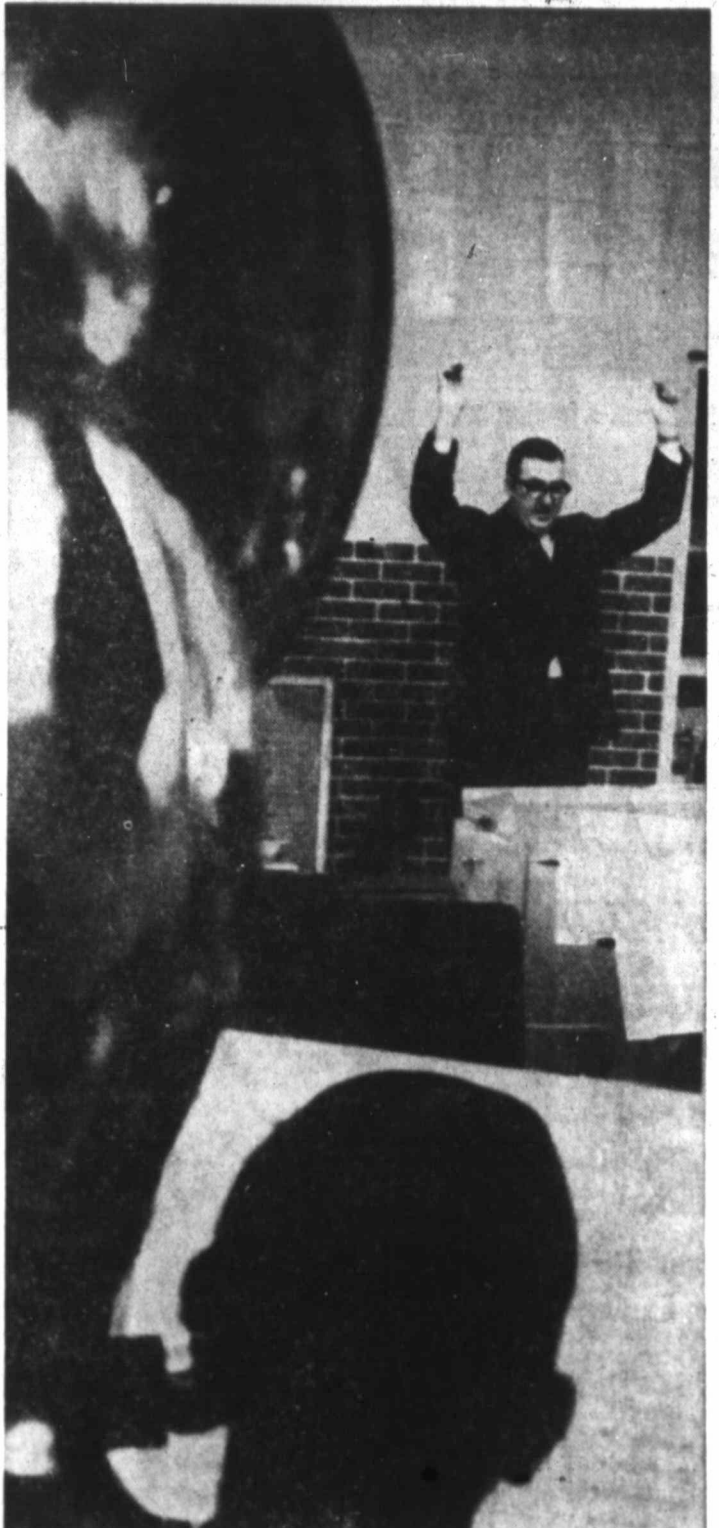

Band Boosters Fund Raising

Band Boosters Tuesday night made plans for further fund-raising efforts to send the high school band to California in April. They also discussed housing arrangements for members of the North Texas State University band Friday night, corrected an error in printing the adult price on tickets for the band concert, and signed a note for $625 for 10 new junior high band uniforms.

"Thirty adults were present for the meeting at the high school, Walter Stroup, president of the Band Boosters, said. "A representative of a candy company was present to take an order for the large candy bars which will go on sale soon. The bars will be sold by students for 50 cents each. Prizes will be given to the three high sales students of both junior high schools."

Stroup said the members of the NTSU band will be housed in private homes, in pairs, and that arrangements had been made for most of these through volunteers.

Tickets for the Friday night concert will be 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for students, Stroup said. An error in the adult price on the tickets necessitated re-marking from 50 cents to 75 cents, causing some confusion in ticket sales.

Civic Band Draws 20 For Rehearsal, More Needed

Twenty persons were present last night for the Big Spring Civic band's first rehearsal at the high school. Regular Tuesday night rehearsals will be held in the future at Goliad junior high band room.

Dr. Charles Rainwater said more adults were needed to get the new band going properly. Several of those out were high school and junior high students, and they were welcomed.

"To serve the purpose for which the band is to be organized," Dr. Rainwater said, "we need more adults in the program. I know there are many who would delight in this as a hobby, and we're anxious to have them."

Some of those wanting to play in the new band need instruments, but these may be secured as activity progresses, he said. The band is an activity being encouraged by the Chamber of Commerce cultural affairs committee.

Davis Case Is Affirmed

Lewis Davis, 50, the oldest inmate in the Howard County jail as to time served in that institution, has lost another round in his lengthy battle to escape serving 25 years in prison for murder.

The state court of criminal appeals Wednesday affirmed the conviction of Davis.

George Thomas, attorney for Davis, said he would file a motion for rehearing in the state court of appeals and that he would then proceed to the federal courts if his rehearing is denied.

He will seek a writ of habeas corpus for Davis in the U. S. Courts alleging that his client has been deprived of his rights and that he was convicted by a prejudiced jury.

Davis has been in the Howard County jail since the night of Oct. 23, 1961. He was arrested for the murder on that date of Roy V. Brown. Brown was fatally beaten in a fight in a hobo jungle on the Texas and Pacific right of way. Davis was indicted Nov. 14, 1961 and tried Dec. 12, 1961. A jury returned a verdict of guilty and assessed his punishment at 25 years in the state penitentiary.

He asked a new trial in January 1962 and a long series of legal delays arose which kept him in the jail since that time. His bond has been set at $7,500 but he has never been able to make bond.

Cold Spell Fails To Jell

Cold, windy weather reached Big Spring late Tuesday, but the dust failed to get as thick as predicted. Northwest winds, with cloudy skies, are supposed to prevail today but the wind will diminish tonight and skies will clear Thursday—according to the forecast.

A few drops of rain fell during the early morning hours, and froze as they hit car windshields.

The low temperature recorded for the 24 hours ending at 8 a.m. today was 32 degrees, while the low predicted for tonight will be around 27 degrees. High yesterday was 71 and high for today should be around 58. Winds may gust up to 25 miles per hour.

Colorado City reported light rain starting at 6:45 a.m. today. It finally turned into snow and stopped at 8:30 a.m. giving that city .02 of an inch of moisture. The temperature there was 30 degrees at 8 a.m.

Schools Halt Friday For Teacher Meet

Today and Thursday will wind up visitations in the Big Spring schools, during Texas Public School Week, Sebron Williams, assistant superintendent - instruction, said Wednesday. There will be no school Friday because the faculty will attend the District IV meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association in Midland.

Association President Howard Butler, Odessa, said the district main meetings would be held at Lee High School in Midland. Sebron Williams is immediate past president of the district.

"The highlight of Friday's program will be two speeches by Dr. John Furby, director of Trans-World Airlines, air world educational program," Williams said. "His topic will be 'The World And Its People.' He has traveled over four million miles and has served as advisor to business, government, and institutions."

Section meetings, for all grade level teachers, will be in various school buildings in Midland throughout the day Friday, Williams said, and all Big Spring teachers and administrative officials will attend.

Hayes Stripling Jr. Files To Round Out Board Slate

A complete slate of candidates for the three posts on the Howard County School Board has been compiled.

Hayes F. Stripling Jr. filed Tuesday afternoon as Precinct 3 candidate. This is the post now held by Jim Lewis, who did not announce for re-election.

Earlier, Charles R. (Chub) Jones, trustee-at-large, filed for re-election, and Harvey Adams has filed as member from Precinct 4. He is currently serving out the unexpired term of Paul Bishop, who resigned when he moved out of the county.

Today is the deadline for filing for school board posts.

Stripling is a native of Howard County, was an honor graduate of Big Spring High School, and attended Texas A&M College. His work there was interrupted by military service, and after serving with the U. S. Navy in the Pacific, he returned to get his bachelor of science degree. In college he held various offices, was head yell leader, and was elected to the College Who's Who.

After graduation he returned to his home town and has been associated with his father in the wholesale grocery business.

Stripling has been active in A&M affairs, has held all offices in the local club, and is a district vice president of the state organization of former students of the school.

He has been active in the Methodist Church, is currently superintendent of the Sunday school and vice chairman of the board of stewards. He has worked in the YMCA program and holds membership in the Chamber of Commerce.

Stripling is married to the former Dorothy Satterwhite and they have two sons, Hayes III, 7, and Kyle, 4.

Y Indian Guide Pow Wow Draws Large Attendance

Six Y Indian Guide Tribes, with approximately 70 boys and their dads participating, displayed tribal properties and gave Indian dances and stunts before a Tuesday evening crowd of parents and friends. Total attendance was around 60 in the YMCA gymnasium.

Little braves received feathers for their coup sticks for the different events in which they participated.

Grant Boardman, chief of the YMCA Indian Guides, announced a meeting of the longhouse for 7:15 p.m. March 12 at the Y to plan future events.

Puckett Rites Set Thursday

SNYDER — James Herman Puckett, 49, Snyder, died in Coggell Memorial Hospital at 6:50 p.m. Tuesday. He had been a resident of Scurry County eight years, and was a service station operator.

Mr. Puckett was born March 13, 1914 in Ashdown, Ark. He was a Baptist.

Services will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday in the North Side Baptist Church with the Rev. Jack Dean, pastor, officiating. He will be assisted by Dr. A. B. Lightfoot, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Bertha Puckett, Snyder; his father, J. W. Puckett, Roscoe; two daughters, Mrs. Ivana Jones, Lamesa, Mrs. Barbara Kelly, Talpa, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. Roxie Shockley, Knott, a half-brother, J. E. Q. Peugh, and four grandchildren.

Young Boy Is Hurt In Crash

Domingo Sanchez, 8, Hereford, received minor injuries in a two-car collision at Fourth and Gregg about 6:15 a.m. today, according to investigating officers.

Police said he was a passenger in a car driven by his mother, Mrs. Ana Maria Guzman de Sanchez. Seven other passengers, ranging in age from eight to 19 years, were not injured, police said.

Driver of the other vehicle was Joe Crews, 800 Galveston, police said. He was traveling east on Fourth and Mrs. Sanchez was going north on Gregg at the time of the accident, according to investigators. The impact knocked the Sanchez vehicle into a highway department sign at the northeast corner of the intersection, causing about $100 damage, police said.

Locations of accidents which occurred Tuesday and drivers involved: Seventh and Main, Lonnie Nichols, Route 2, and Carolyn Branch, 2717 Lynn; Fifth and Scurry, Will Selman, 822 W. 7th, and M. Weaver, 104 Lincoln; West Viaduct, Jerry Hill, Big Spring Motel, and Jeff Morton, and unknown motorist; 800 block of Main, parked car of Robert McCarty, 1100 Perkins, and unknown motorist.

Deadline Near For Non-Paid Tax Receipts

Two days remain in which citizens who want to ballot for federal officials but who do not want to pay a poll tax can qualify themselves to vote.

Deadline for the issuance of nonpaid poll tax receipts expires at close of business Friday, according to Mrs. Zarah LeFevre, county assessor-collector. These special receipts are for voters who will be allowed only to vote for president, vice president, U.S. senators and congressmen in 1964 elections. They have no vote in county, state or local elections.

Mrs. LeFevre said that her records show 119 such receipts have been issued since Feb. 6, the first date the receipts could be granted.

OIL REPORT

Sterling Strike Hits Clear Fork

L. E. Foster No. 1 Glass has made a wildcat strike in the Clear Fork in Sterling County.

The venture pumped 36 barrels of 32.4 gravity oil with no water on potential. Gas-oil ratio was 450-1. The well was acidized with 500 gallons. Operator set 2 1/2 inch casing at 2,568 feet and perforated between 2,531-33 feet. Elevation is 2,700 feet.

The wildcat spots 72 feet from the north and 660 feet from the west lines of section 1-32-5S.

T&P survey. It is 16 miles west of Sterling City and one mile west of the Herrell (Graybill) field.

Sands Is Winner In Bi-District

MIDLAND — Sands of Ackery, picking up speed in his drive for a Regional Girls' basketball championship, defeated Barstow in bi-district competition here Tuesday night, 50-37. The Mustangs are now 25-9 for the year. A sweep to the regional title in Big Spring this weekend would qualify the Ponies for the State tournament. Coach John Turner made use of ten players. Zelda Bodine led the attack on the baskets, scoring a total of 25 points. She hit seven of eight gratis pitches. Robble Brown and Ruth Lemon each scored 12 points for the Ackery team. Bradds Leads In Balloting For AP Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Gary Bradds of Ohio State, Cotton Nash of Kentucky, Walt Hazzard of UCLA, Bill Bradley of Princeton and Dave Stallworth of Wichita were named today as the 1964 All-America college basketball team by The Associated Press. Despite an abundance of good players that made picking difficult in this Olympic year, these five from the Big Ten, South-eastern Conference, Big Six, Ivy League and Missouri Valley easily led in the voting by 371 sports writers and broadcasters. On the basis of five points for a first-team vote and two points for a second-team vote, Bradds collected a total of 1,199 points. He was named on the first team by 215 voters. Nash was runner-up with 207 firsts and 1,159 total points. Then came Hazzard with 195 firsts and 1,087. All are seniors.

Bradley and Stallworth, both juniors, polled 783 and 765, respectively, and each got 123 firsts. Jeff Mullins of Duke, Cazzie Russell of Michigan, Fred Hetzel of Davidson, Mel Counts of Oregon State and Ron Bonham of Cincinnati were named as the second team. Howard Komives of Bowling Green, Paul Silas of Creighton, Bill Buntin of Michigan, Barry Kramer of NYU and Jim Barnes of Texas Western formed the third team.

NEW YORK (AP)—The 1964 college basketball All-America selected by the Associated Press on the basis of 211 votes from sports writers and broadcasters through a class and hometown list:

FIRST TEAM
Gary Bradds, Ohio State, 6-foot-8; senior, Jamestown, Ohio. Cotton Nash, Kentucky, 6-5, senior, Louisville. Walt Hazzard, UCLA, 6-2, senior, Philadelphia. Bill Bradley, Princeton, 6-5, junior, Crystal City, Mo. Dave Stallworth, Wichita, 6-7, junior, Dallas.

SECOND TEAM
Jeff Mullins, Duke, 6-4, senior, Lexington, Ky. Cazzie Russell, Michigan, 6-3, sophomore, Chicago. Fred Hetzel, Davidson, 6-7, junior, Washington, D.C. Mel Counts, Oregon State, 7-0, senior, Medford, Ore. Ron Bonham, Cincinnati, 6-5, senior, Munich, Ind.

THIRD TEAM
Howard Komives, Bowling Green, 6-1, senior, Toledo, Ohio. Paul Silas, Creighton, 6-7, senior, Oakland, Calif. Bill Buntin, Michigan, 6-7, senior, Detroit. Barry Kramer, NYU, 6-4, senior, Schenectady, N.Y. Jim Barnes, Texas Western, 6-4, senior.

Those receiving honorable mention included: Bill Koper, Oklahoma City, Bonnie Lembo, Texas A&M, Ira Stange, New Mexico, Billy Foster, Drake, John Savage, North Texas.

Granbury Rips 7-AA Buffs

ABILENE — The Granbury Pirates thundered past the Stanton Buffaloes Tuesday night, 58-37, and earned a berth in the Region 1-AA girls basketball tourney at Lubbock Friday. Granbury will face Hamlin, a 42-31 conqueror of Iowa Park, in the opening round at 12:30 p.m. Friday. Mildred Head scored 21 points and Linda Morris added 15 more for Granbury while Lynn Franklin and Mary Stuard had 15 and 12 points respectively for Stanton. Abilene has proved somewhat of a jinx for the Buffaloes this season, as they've dropped two bi-district games there in the last week. The boys lost earlier to Comanche, 68-58. Granbury was the champ of 7-AA while Stanton won 7-AA.

Tabor Rowe, Ex-Resident, Is Named Coach At Wink

Tabor Rowe, who grew up in Big Spring and played high school athletics here, has been named head football coach at Wink High School. He succeeds Truman Nix, who resigned recently to become coach and athletic director at Colorado City High School. Doyle Parker, previously named assistant coach under Nix at Colorado City, will remain in the Wink system as head basketball coach. Other coaches on the Wink staff are Bill Spear, elevated to the job of head track coach; Paul Jette, who will coach B team basketball; and Ronnie Slaughter. Another man will be added to the staff, it has been indicated. Tabor, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rowe of Big Spring, has been associated with the Wink school system for seven years. Prior to that, he was affiliated with the Monahan schools for one year. Rowe married a Big Spring girl, the former Billie Jean Anderson, and two boys were born to the union, Bobby and Andy. Tabor attended Texas A&M, Kansas University and graduated from North Texas State University in 1955. He later earned his Master's degree from the same school. Rowe was a back on Big Spring's great 1940 football team, which won the district championship under coach Pat Murphy. He took his diploma here in 1941. Wink is a member of District 5-A.

DRAWING SET FOR TOURNEY

Representatives of five West Texas schools met with Dr. Melvin Crawford of HCJC to draw up pairings for the Region VI-B Girls' Basketball tournament, which will be unreeled in the HCJC Gym here Friday and Saturday. The teams which have qualified for the tournament include Forsan, Sands of Ackery, Dell City, Trent and Talpa-Centennial. Dell City turned back Valentine for the right to play here. Sands vanquished Barstow. Forsan sidled Wall. Trent kayoed Ira Talpa-Centennial. Spended Rochelle. Winner of the tournament becomes eligible for the state tournament.

Aggies Claim First Crown In 41 Years

By BOB HORTON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Texas A&M, almost becoming the proverbial lamb, holds its first outright championship in 41 years today as the Southwest Conference's March basketball campaign goes out with a roar. The Aggies, playoff-bound, entered the lair of downtrodden Texas Christian Tuesday night at Fort Worth and were forced into two overtimes before beating a team which hasn't won a conference game all season since 1923. Elsewhere in the conference school and career marks hit their dust as Southern Methodist defeated Baylor, 95-76, Texas Tech ended Arkansas, 80-67, and Texas Tech grabbed off second place in the race by nipping Rice, 77-70. The Aggies, holding a two-game lead over runner-up Tech, will meet Texas Tech in the Tech-Rice game, the Owls led 56-49 with 11 minutes remaining when their top shot-maker, Kendall Rhine, fouled out. Tech went ahead five minutes later. The Raiders' Tom Patty scored 30 points—a career high for the senior. At Dallas, Gene Elmore led SMU to its highest point total of the season in a 95-76 triumph over Baylor. Elmore got 24 points, including nine field goals which exceeded by four the school record for conference games—109 by Jim Krebs in 1955. And the SMU frosh whipped Baylor's freshmen, 115-74, to tie the university coliseum scoring record set by another Mustang freshman team against TCU in 1957. At Austin, three Texas players—Joe Fisher, John Paul Fullz and Larry Franks—moved over the 300-point level for the season by scoring in double figures against Arkansas. It was the first time since Texas began playing basketball in 1906 that three teammates each scored over 300. A&M, now 12-1 in the conference, will be host to the Longhorns Thursday, Texas, last year's titlist, is 8-5 and bidding for a third place finish. In other Thursday games, SMU, also 8-5, visits Rice (7-6) at Houston; Tech (10-3) takes on Baylor (2-11) at Waco; and TCU tries for its only conference triumph in game No. 13 against Arkansas (5-8) at Fayetteville.

PAT WASHBURN'S The Roundtable

Former Olympic track star BOBBY MORROW will officiate at the 20th annual West Texas Relays slated for Mar. 13-14 at W. T. Barrett Stadium in Odessa. Morrow, now employed by GO Service in Abilene, will be watching over a field which will include eight universities, 11 colleges, and some 45 high schools in two divisions. Morrow, in his prime, virtually conquered every major sprint title in existence. He finished his collegiate career in 1958 at Abilene Christian College with 80 wins and only eight losses. Along the way he garnered 14 national sprint championships, and three Olympic Gold Medals. He was named the Outstanding Track Man of the Year by many magazines during the years from 1956-59, and holds the Sullivan Memorial Trophy. He was selected as Sportsman of the Year in 1957 by Sports Illustrated, has represented the United States in several world-wide sports goodwill tours, and was named to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1960 by the state's news and sports writers. This year's relays are dedicated to the memory of DUFFY MCKEEL and DEWEY AUTRY. Tickets to the event can be had from the Odessa Chamber of Commerce, FE 2-0111, P.O. Box 3626, and all Odessa high schools. Talking of track, some leading cinder coaches recently picked an all-time world sprint team. Jesse Owens was the first man placed on the squad. But another runner, of particular interest to sports fans in Big Spring, would be DAVE SIME, who was No. 3 in the 220 and 6th in the 100-yard dash list. A lot of people still remember his big race here.

Players from five different schools made the 1964 District 3-AAA all-conference basketball team selected by loop coaches. Players selected were: BERRY PACE, Sweetwater; JIM WILSON, Snyder; JOE BARTMAN, Lake View; GARY NUNN, Brownfield; and WAYNE ROBERTSON, Lamesa. Pace, who led all scorers with a 23.4 average per outing, is the only junior on the squad. Robertson, who made the second team last year, is the only boy on either unit who was good enough to make a repeat performance and be named for two years in a row.

GARY WALKER, former Big Spring High School track competitor who went to college at Northeast State in Monroe, La., is one of 11 athletes at the school to make the Honor Roll during the fall semester. It takes a B average or better. In the Miami (Fla.) Herald, an ad before the Liston-Clay farce proclaimed the bout would be the "Greatest Fight in Boxing's History." Quite a few people obviously believed this, but not enough to save the promoters considerable embarrassment. More than two dozen petitions, calling for a special bond election to finance construction of a public golf course in Lamesa, have been placed in circulation. Six hundred signatures are needed to force the Dawson County commissioner's court to call an election. The petitions call for a $90,000 election although supporters contend they can acquire land and construct the public course for $75,000-$80,000. It will be a nine-hole layout. Lamesa already has a country club course.

HCJC Rated Number Four

AMARILLO — The Decatur Baptist Indians, the No. 2 ranked junior college quintet in the nation, have been seeded first in the Region V tournament scheduled in Amarillo Thursday through Saturday. The winner gets a berth in the national meet to be held in Hutchinson, Kan., March 17-21. The San Angelo College Rams have been put in the number two spot with Amarillo being seeded third and Howard County fourth. The Hawks open the three-day tourney with a 2 p.m. contest Thursday against South Plains with San Angelo following up at four o'clock against Ranger. Decatur tackles New Mexico Military at 7 p.m. with Amarillo and Cisco hitting the court at nine o'clock. Winners of the HCJC - South Plains and DBC-NMMI encounters meet Friday night along with the victors in the other two opening contests. Third place and championship contests are slated Saturday night. Amarillo is defending champion, having upset San Angelo College, 66-61, in the finals last year.

Barry, Rocky Fire Away At Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater today concentrated their fire on the Johnson administration as they stumped for votes in next Tuesday's New Hampshire Republican presidential primary.

Rockefeller, hammering hard on economic issues, returned to the Granite State to open his final drive after accusing the administration of "vacillating and contradictory" foreign policy in a statement issued in Washington Tuesday.

Goldwater swept into the third day of his windup drive with a pledge to end what he called "wheeling and dealing" government in Washington.

While Rockefeller and Goldwater battled it out in New Hampshire, Republicans in Louisiana made political history by polling nearly 40 per cent of the votes in Tuesday's election for governor.

Democrat John J. McKeithen was elected, but Republican Charlton H. Lyons Sr. polled 200,000 more votes than the GOP received in the state's last governor's election in 1960.

As he opened a drive that will last until voting starts in New Hampshire Tuesday, Rockefeller said the Johnson administration did not believe in the free enterprise system.

He issued a statement at Concord in which he said New Hampshire would need 50,000 jobs over the next five years—and the nation 20 million. They can only be provided, he said, by an administration that would "encourage the growth of free enterprise."

Goldwater, speaking to about 400 in Nashua Tuesday night, said he was seeking the nomination because he sees no other candidate who will champion "a rebirth of principle, individual worth and dignity" as opposed to what he said is threatened governmental control of the American way of life.

In what sounded to many like a campaign speech, Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton told the Economic Club in New York City Tuesday night that the Democratic party has a "built-in deadlock" and is hamstringing by its reactionaries.

Scranton said the Democrats were largely to blame for what he called "failures that dot the national landscape." The governor says he is not a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination but would accept a draft.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon called for a selective embargo against foreign firms that deal with Cuba by denying them a market in the United States. He told a luncheon of the New York Building Congress Tuesday that an oil blockade might "possibly be the next step" but added he did not feel this was necessary now.

In California, State Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk was expected to announce that he would not run for the U.S. Senate. Gov. Edmund G. Brown had urged Mosk to keep out of the race.

State Controller Alan Cranston, backed by Brown and the powerful California Democratic Council, is running against ailing Sen. Clair Engle, a Democrat who underwent brain surgery last summer.

Development of the A11, the new 2,000-mile-an-hour jet plane, was so secret that only a few members of Congress knew about it.

This indicates the plane was developed with Central Intelligence Agency funds rather than the Defense Department's. While a number of congressional committees are privy to the Pentagon's activities, only a few senators and representatives are on the committee overseeing the CIA.

It means that the House, in recent debate on defense spending, did not have full information at hand when it overruled Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and approved an extra $40 million for research on an improved manned interceptor plane.

Existence of the plane was announced by President Johnson at his news conference Saturday. He said the planes, which can operate at higher than 70,000 feet, were being tested "to determine their capabilities as long-range interceptors."

Johnson noted that several key Congress members had been informed about the plane's development.

One member of the House, who knew about the A11 for many months, described its development as the best kept American secret since development of the atomic bomb in World War II.

In the House Armed Services Committee, for example, only a few members are believed to have known about the plane's secret development.

An informed source said that these few were informed because they have a special assignment that allows them to receive such information.

Bobby Keeping Quiet On Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is "staying loose" in the face of persistent reports that he is a leading contender for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

He has not taken himself out of the picture.

But he solemnly, and to all comers, refused to indulge in speculation about any possibility President Johnson will ask him to join him on the ticket.

He is seemingly unconcerned or amused by speculative pieces in the press that he not only would accept the nomination but is actively seeking it by his increasing public appearances.

"If I stayed away from the public they'd say I was sulking in my office," he told a reporter.

"I'm not going to say anything to answer these stories. I just haven't made up my mind about the future and there's no reason why I should be pushed into making it up."

REV. W. T. WHITE

Nazarenes Set Revival

Rev. W. T. White will be the evangelist for the spring revival at the Church of the Nazarenes, 1400 Lancaster, and will be speaking each night at 7:30 p.m. beginning today and continuing through March 15. He is devoting full time to evangelism.

Rev. White spent 22 years in the pastorate, serving churches in Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma. He was pastor of the church in Durant, Okla., 11 years, where the church experienced remarkable growth.

During his pastoral years, Rev. White served as a member of the board of Bethany Nazarene College from which he graduated in 1933. He also served as a member of the advisory board of the Eastern Oklahoma District.

Singing and music will be under the direction of Bob Spears, with Mrs. Francis Bohannon, pianist, and Mrs. Gerry Spears, organist. Special music numbers will be given each night by local talent.

All of these services are open to the public, according to the pastor, Rev. W. M. Dorough.

Touching Moment Noted On Emperor's Visit Here

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Last September when the U.S. State Department was busy arranging a three-day state visit of Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, NBC was almost as busy preparing a report on the etiquette of a state visit.

The report, "Our Man In Washington," was shown Tuesday night.

NBC cameras were in State Department offices when Angier Biddle Duke, in charge of protocol, discussed final details with the Ethiopian ambassador.

Cameras were in the royal train as it drew up to the Washington station platform and a formal reception complete with a 21-gun salute.

Cameras were in the kitchens during preparations for a lavish State Department luncheon. They were behind the bar at the emperor's $9,000, 1,000-guest reception for official Washington.

Cameras were trained on President John F. Kennedy, looking healthy and tanned, as he received the emperor.

Sight of the late president was a damper to the viewer on the rest of the light-hearted program.

It was one of David Brinkley's occasional specials. Perhaps because of the presence of Kennedy, he seemed rather restrained in his comment.

A touching moment was recorded after the emperor, an admirer of Abraham Lincoln, laid a silver wreath at the Lincoln Memorial. As an interpreter translated the Gettysburg Address, tears were clearly visible in the sovereign's eyes.

"Our Man In Washington" made magnificent use of color. For those who saw the program in all its glory it was a most interesting 60 minutes. For others it must have dragged frequently. There was a marked tendency to linger overlong, like impolite guests, at the receptions and parties.

"Alfred Hitchcock Presents," dropped by CBS from next season's schedule, will return to NBC, replacing the "Eleventh Hour."

Grand Junction, Colo. (AP)—Pearl Beeson saw her daughter, Mrs. Charles Shaw, being assigned to the other bed in her Lincoln Park Hospital room.

Both were hospitalized for treatment of circulatory ailments. Down the hall Mrs. Beeson's grandson, Charles Mills, 6, was bedded with rheumatic fever.

When Charles' mother got home from taking Mrs. Beeson to the hospital, she found Charles Shaw—her father—had fallen down the stairs and broken some ribs.

He stayed home to recuperate.

Baptist Board Employs Two

DALLAS (AP)—The Texas Baptist Executive Board hired two new staff members at its regular quarterly meeting Tuesday.

It named the Rev. Weston Ware of Honolulu an associate in the Texas Baptist Christian Life Commission and the Rev. Robert A. Harty of Canyon, Tex., an associate in the State Baptist Training Union Department.

Ware is a former Baptist Student Union secretary in Hawaii. Harty is educational director for the First Baptist Church, Canyon.

In other action, the board elected the Rev. Cooper Waters, pastor of First Baptist Church, Orange, to its program coordinating committee, and filled vacancies on the boards of two hospitals and two schools.

The board named the Rev. Landrum Leavelle of Wichita Falls and Lattimore Ewing of Lubbock to the Christian Education Commission.

John H. Spencer of Waco was named to the Hillcrest Hospital Board of Trustees in Waco; and the Rev. A. J. Greene of San Antonio, was elected to the board of Memorial Baptist Hospital, San Antonio.

Elected to the board of trustees for the Baylor University System was the Rev. Bruce McIver of Dallas, and named to the University of Corpus Christi board was Joe T. Dawson of Corpus Christi.

Hand Graft Working Out

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador (AP)—The sailor whose right hand is a transplant from a dead laborer was able to move the hand in a circular motion Tuesday, hospital informants said.

Julio Luna, 32, who underwent the grafting operation in early February after his hand was shattered by a grenade explosion, also is now able to move several fingers, it was reported.

WHAT ARE THE WILD WINDS SAYING, BEAUTIFUL? Cathy Mays tries to get a sign from ground-hoggish turtle

Beautiful Not So Dumb, She Heads For Her Hole

By SAM BLACKBURN
You can fool a groundhog some of the time; most of the people all of the time, but a wise old turtle you can't fool any time.

Take the case of Beautiful. Beautiful, if you have forgotten, is the proud possession of Cathy, 7-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Floyd R. Mays, 602 Highland. Beautiful is a 9½-pound turtle of undetermined species.

She is a peaceful and amiable turtle who likes to be played with and who relishes eating food held in the hand of her young mistress.

Beautiful made the news on Feb. 2. In November when the skies began to get gray and the wind tended to blow coldly, Beautiful had dug in for the winter in a tidy sort of cavern she built on the side of a hill. The Mayses helped things along with a few towsocks and the like.

From Nov. 15 until Feb. 2, only silence was noted in the vicinity of Beautiful's bedroom.

Then, to the amazement of the Mays family, on Feb. 2—ground hog day—out popped Beautiful. She waddled happily around the yard in the bright sun (Feb. 2 was a delightful day) for several hours. Then, like a ground hog, she must have noticed her trim saucer-like figure silhouetted on the ground.

That did it. Immediately she waddled up the hill, squeezed into her burrow, pulled down the curtains and resumed hibernating.

The legend has it that the ground hog, under similar conditions saps up for six weeks and emerges once more to remain out.

But, as will be noted, there have been recently a few very lovely, lovely sunny days. Tuesday morning Mrs. Mays found Beautiful, somewhat sleepy-eyed but amiable, plodding quietly around the yard.

"Spring is here," Mrs. Mays concluded.

Beautiful stayed out for a matter of three hours. Meantime, the weather forecasters told harrowing tales of bad weather to come. Snow and cold on the High Plains; roaring winds, with sand, drizzling rain, sleet—the whole works.

Beautiful heard none of these ominous forecasts. Her inner weather sense did the job. Although the sun was bright and the temperature balmy, it did not deceive Beautiful. Figuratively, she headed for the hills and once again squeezed into her cave, and pulled the door wadding behind her.

Sure enough, the sand whipped in and the wind howled in from the north. This morning skies were gray, spitting a little early morning snow, and the mercury dipped into the freezing zone.

Prognosticators are wondering how about Saturday, how about Sunday? Will Beautiful be back out then?

Tune in Monday and find out.

Lamesa To Dedicate Boys' Club New Building

LAMESA (SC)—Afternoon and evening activities will highlight formal opening and dedication of the new clubhouse of Lamesa Boys' Club of America here Saturday.

The public is invited to attend open house from 1 p. m. until 4 p. m. The nationally-famous Maverick Boys' Club tumbling team from Amarillo will present two exhibitions during the open house.

Dedication services will be held at 4 p. m. with Pete Shotwell, athletic director at McMurry College, making the principal address.

At 7:30 p. m. the directors will meet and Shotwell will speak again. Plates are $2 each and the public is invited.

Work on the new 70 x 140 ft. building was started in mid-1963. The building was constructed for about $38,000 although it was recently appraised for $65,000. Donated labor, materials and reduced prices on many items sharply cut overall construction costs.

The site was donated and two additional lots have since been acquired for playground and sports activities. Total value of land, building and equipment is $100,000.

The club, which set a national membership record in excess of 1,100 during its first year of operation, now has a membership of 850. The 13,300 square feet of floor space includes a 70 x 90 gym.

Brown Returns

Albert V. (Curley) Brown has been returned from San Antonio to his home at 1110 Scurry to convalesce from lung surgery. He recently had one lung removed at the Southwest Baptist Memorial Hospital in San Antonio, where he had been assigned during the past year as field office manager for Boss Electric. He withstood the trip home well, said his son, Larry.

Third Time No Charm, Zone Application Refused Again

Two zone change requests were turned down unanimously Tuesday by the Big Spring Planning and Zoning Commission, one of them for the third time. In both cases, a large delegation of residents were on hand to oppose the requests.

Al Milch, housing developer, requested a zone change in order to locate a service station at the northeast corner of Birdwell Lane and Twenty-Fifth Street. Members of the commission were unanimous in voting a denial of a change from I-F-2 (single family residential) to NS (neighborhood service).

This was the third time Milch had asked for a zone change at the northeast corner of the intersection. Previously, he had requested a zone change on the southeast corner also, and was turned down.

Milch told the commission the Shamrock Oil Company would put in a service station at the location if the request was approved. He said, at a previous hearing, he had the backing of 25 persons and a petition with 50 signatures.

SEVERAL PROTEST
Eighteen home owners appeared at the hearing in objection to Milch's request. They included Eldon Bird, Robert Bodle, C. E. Campbell, Luther Bean, W. W. Jackson, C. W. Jensen, G. G. Dunn, J. B. Mandell, E. D. Aman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murdock, Mrs. Henry Taroni, Mrs. Alvin Huskey, Mrs. Nell Frazier, Mrs. Bruce Frazier, Mrs. David Elrod, H. D. McElreath and John Gary.

Milch asked the commission if persons other than taxpayers have the right to protest a zone change.

"Anyone has the right to speak at a public hearing," said chairman Horace Reagan, who asked Marvin Springer, city planner, to give his opinion of the proposed change. Springer denied 13 objections by residents who attended the hearing. In addition, Roland Schwarzenbach submitted a petition, with 50 signatures, objecting to the change.

The request appeared doomed when Carl Strom, owner of the affected property and a member of the Zoning Board of Adjustment, said he would refuse to sell the land since so many home owners objected to the change. Strom pointed out he had entered a conditional sales-purchase agreement with Dumphy. Sale of the land was based on the condition there would be no objections, he said.

Schwarzenbach said there are restrictive covenants governing the type of structures which can be built in the area.

Lamesa School Engages Consultant For Planning

LAMESA (SC) — Dr. Morris Wallace, department of education dean at Texas Tech, Lubbock, will be offered a contract as educational consultant to the Lamesa school board, trustees voted here Monday.

Dr. Wallace and his staff will perform an analysis of current and future building needs through projection of enrollment and curriculum factors; study financial capabilities of the school district; study of population growths in various parts of the city; and other related services.

In addition, the board extended until 1966 the contracts of curriculum supervisor V. C. Bearden, transportation superintendent C. E. Green, coaches O. W. Pollis and Al Langford. Supt. Abe Holder's contract was extended until 1967. High school principal Bill E. Reeves indicated verbally to the board that he intended to resign at the end of the current term. He has accepted a scholarship offer to work on his doctorate degree.

A school report showed 4,798 students currently enrolled in Lamesa schools. The total was 4,649 at the same time last year.

Deadline Today For School Filing

Today is the deadline for filing for school board posts.

School districts where the scholastic enumeration is less than 500 file with the county judge. Schools where scholastic enumerations are over 500 file with the school clerk.

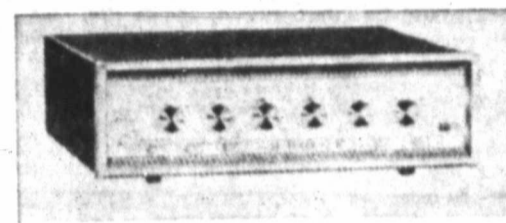

Only Forsan school district is in the under 500 class in this county. One candidate had filed for a place on the Forsan board. If no additional candidates file, the positions will be filled at the April 4 election by write-in votes.

Two terms expire on the Big Spring board, and three candidates have filed. They are James E. Felts, incumbent, Jack Haralson and Winston Wrinkle. Odell Womack is not seeking re-election. Dr. P. W. Malone and J. A. Coffey, incumbents, have filed for Howard County Junior College trusteeships.

A Devotional For The Day

"It is expedient for you that one man should die for the people." (John 11:50. RSV.)
 PRAYER: O God, who hast shown Thy love to us in the cross of Jesus, help us to repay some of the debt we owe by offering our love and loyalty to Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

Patience A-Plenty

Sitting as a judge in a hotly contested case is not exactly a bed of roses. Two cases in point are the Jack Ruby trial in Dallas where Judge Joe Brown has exercised the patience of Job, and in Chattanooga, Tenn., where Judge Frank Wilson has been bearing the forensics of James Hoffa.

Tuesday Judge Brown fell ill and was succeeded on the bench by Judge Frank Wilson, who manifested a little less than Job's measure of patience. To say the least, Judge Wilson was firmer, letting it be known that histrionics would be ruled out in the Ruby case so long as he occupies the bench. It is just as well, for Monday the ailing Judge Brown had to cite one of the defense attorneys for contempt and almost to lower the boom on the other.

In Chattanooga, the other Judge Wilson finally grew impatient of Mr. Hoffa's loud arguments in the corridor concerning the manner in which United States marshals were handling the jury. He hailed Mr. Hoffa into court and let him know that the time had come to stop this show inside and outside the courtroom.

Most everyone will agree that the time had come—and then some—for firm action by the magistrates. One can appreciate that they were bending over backwards to be fair and to avoid anything which would contribute to a mistrial. There comes a time, however, when a judge must let it be known in no uncertain terms who is presiding over the trial and who is responsible for its orderly conduct.

Right Of Counsel For All

The prevailing assumption that all defendants charged with felonies in Texas courts have had counsel of their own choosing, or been provided with court-appointed counsel, has proved to be false.

The Court of Criminal Appeals has already granted new trials to a number of defendants who have been imprisoned for years. Motions for new trials are being granted to those who did not have counsel at the time they were tried. Estimates of the total number of prisoners that may be affected range upwards to 500.

This turmoil in the Texas prison system stems, as the Herald explained Sunday in two extensive articles, directly from a decision of the U. S. Supreme Court last March in a Florida case. The court ruled that defendants are entitled to counsel in all cases where a verdict of guilty would result in a prison sentence. It struck down a Florida statute, which was supported by an earlier U. S. Supreme Court ruling, which provided that defendants were entitled to defense counsel as a matter of law only when the death penalty could be inflicted on a finding of guilt.

There can be no further question about the need for court-appointed counsel for indigent defendants. But this system still leaves much to be desired. In many cases the youngest and most inexperienced members of the bar are assigned to defend indigents in criminal trials. In many cases the defense is something less than adequate and appeals from district court rarely perfected.

The record here seems to be far better than most, for almost all members of the bar are called to defend indigents.

However, the Texas record is not good and unless Texas can provide its own remedy, the U. S. Supreme Court may force the issue. That high court by a series of opinions, has emphasized the constitutional right of every defendant not only to a fair trial but to "adequate" defense counsel. In at least one case the court has reversed a conviction on the grounds that court-appointed counsel was inexperienced and unable to conduct a proper defense. The final step, a requirement for experienced criminal trial lawyers for indigents, is almost visible on the horizon.

Americans' Right To Travel

WASHINGTON — The disgraceful erosion of the right of Americans to travel when and where they please has been slowed by a wise and too-little-noticed decision in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans.

THE DECISION, which was unanimous, struck down as unconstitutional the conviction of a reporter who had been sentenced to prison for the crime of returning to the United States without a passport. Had the conviction been permitted to stand, it would have brought dangerously close the day when some nameless functionary in the State Department could manage the character of news reported from abroad.

THE INSTANT case was clouded by the fact that the reporter involved is a left-leaning Negro who resolutely refuses to subscribe to the prevailing journalistic orthodoxy regarding Cuba and Communist China. The nature of the correspondent's supposed bias is such that scandalously few American newspapers took up the fight in his behalf. The point missed by the keepers of professional mores was this: If a Chinese bureaucrat could refuse to license a left-leaning Negro foreign correspondent to ply his trade, the same censorship by immobilization could one day be applied to the most unsalable reactionary, spats-wearing white journalist.

THE COURT wisely paid no special heed to the fact that the defendant, William Worthington, was a reporter. It also refused to base its decision on a number of peripheral and technical grounds.

"The right to travel outside the United States is a right which is within the protection of the Constitution," the appellate court ruled. It cited an earlier Supreme Court decision that the right to travel "is a part of the liberty of which the citizen cannot be deprived without due process of law under the Fifth Amendment."

freedom of movement across frontiers in either direction, and inside frontiers as well, is a part of our heritage.

IT IS STILL true that the State Department, with the heartfelt assistance of the dismal transom-peepers in the Justice Department's Internal Security Division, continues to assert its right to decide which American reporters may legally travel in interdicted areas, and which may not. The State Department readily licenses some journalists (this one included) to travel in mainland China, but yanked William Worthington's passport for doing so without its official sanction. The conclusion is inescapable that some four-faced conspirator in the basement of the State Department deems my species of foreign correspondence safe, and Worthington's unsafe. It is a conclusion equally insulting to both of us.

I HAVE PERHAPS assailed the worthy prosecution on unduly pastoral grounds. In the larger view, of course, the lady librarian from Pratt Falls, Ohio, has the same right to freedom of travel as any reporter. The philosophy that supposes a passport is a license to be granted or withheld at the pleasure of a towering blind bureaucracy is pernicious and wrong!

Billy Graham

My wife and I would like to take care of a very close relative who scorns religions, and rejects love from everyone. He is alone and miserable. What would Jesus do? Even Jesus said to people like him, "Depart from me."—K. L.

On the contrary, these were the kind of people to which Jesus said: "Come unto me." Almost everyone He ministered to was lonely, miserable, and unloved. Mary Magdalene, the scarlet woman, the woman at Jacob's well, a divorcee, Peter, a smelly, hot-tempered fisherman, Zaccheus, a hated income tax collector.

He said: "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Your "miserable relative" is probably convinced that he is a burden on his family, that no one loves him, and if they did help him, it would be because they pitied him. The chances are that he is starving for love, and looking in vain for Christians who really care for him and for his soul.

No matter what he says, go to him. This is an opportunity to put Christianity into action. I am confident that he needs you, and that he will respond.

The Bible says: "If you say, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Faith, if it hath not works is dead."

Just Lovers' Tiffs?

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson either overstated the case when he spoke of how much Americans are beloved or the anti-American outbursts by other peoples since Jan. 1 were just lovers' tiffs.

The latest hostility to this country came Tuesday night in Greece. Mobs rioting over the Cyprus civil war burned Johnson in effigy in Athens and on the island of Rhodes mobs stoned American officials.

GREECE, which has been receiving foreign aid from this country, is an American ally in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The United States helped save it from communism after the war.

Johnson, talking to a group of government employees here last Feb. 42, said: "Regardless of what you hear we are a much beloved people throughout the world. We are respected and we appreciate it."

He said this after a number of episodes in which Americans had already suffered embarrassments and worse, including death.

LAST JAN. 9 in Panama, which has also received U.S. foreign aid, plus rental for the canal, Panamanians rioted against Americans in the Canal Zone.

The basic reason was resentment against U.S. control of the canal and zone. In the rioting and shootings 20 people were killed, including three Americans.

Panama wants a change in the 1903 treaty giving this country the right to control the canal indefinitely. It broke off diplomatic relations with the United States and there has been no settlement yet.

In Zanzibar, which only got its independence from Britain last Dec. 10 but where the Arab minority controlled the government, black Africans revolted Jan. 12 and set up their own leftist regime.

The Russians recognized their new government quickly but the United States delayed. The Africans responded by arresting and expelling two American diplomats until this country gave recognition Feb. 23.

ZANZIBAR is part of the British Commonwealth.

Also in February in Africa's Ghana the United States was accused, by President Kwame Nkrumah's government-controlled press and radio of being behind the latest alleged attempt to assassinate him.

A mob, steamed up by the dictatorial Nkrumah's politicians, demonstrated before the U.S. Embassy and ran down the American flag. The government deported four American professors.

The United States recalled its ambassador, William P. Mahoney Jr., for consultations. He said the anti-American demonstrations were the climax of feelings which had been building up for some time.

This country has a commitment of $147 million in long-term loans to help build the Volta River dam for Ghana and an aluminum smelter to be run by private American companies for the Ghana government.

OTHER ECONOMIC aid from this government to Ghana runs into the millions.

In South Viet Nam, where the United States for eight years has pumped in billions of aid, economic and military, to help its fight against the North Vietnamese Communists, anti-Americanism took a vivid, bloody turn.

The Communists, infiltrating the capital of Saigon and using a deliberate campaign of terror by assassination, have wounded and killed Americans with bombs and bullets.

In Athens Tuesday night the rioters complained the United States is following a pro-Turkish line in attempts to settle the dispute on Cyprus where the Cypriots, Greeks and the outnumbered Turks have slaughtered one another.

Haunted By Beauty

NEW YORK (AP)—"Happiness is not a worthy end," remarked Edward D. Stone, who has been haunted by beauty all his life.

"Everybody runs through emotional cycles, depending on his nature, which may range from suicidal despair to ecstatic exultancy."

Stone, who has been acclaimed as America's greatest living architect, the best answer to the challenge of existence is the dedication that comes with creative work.

"I feel sorry for people who spend their lives doing nothing but buying eggs for three cents and selling them for five cents. They only do this to get money to buy more enjoyment for themselves and their families," Stone said.

"But creative work is absorbing in itself, and material gain is a byproduct, not the main end. The thrill of creation is the greatest of all."

Stone, a tall, courtly, broad-browed man of 62, started the study of architecture in his youth in Fayetteville, Ark., a town which he whimsically says has been described as "a hotbed of tranquility."

Since then the scope of his output has been tremendous and worldwide. It includes the famed U.S. Embassy in India; a $20-million hospital in Peru; hotels in Panama and Lebanon; museums, dormitories, libraries, cultural centers, factories, pharmaceutical laboratories, civic buildings, banks, private homes and a monastery.

At present he and his staff of 200 assistants are planning or completing work on a dozen projects. Among them are several buildings at the New York World's Fair, including two religious pavilions, the Tulsa Civic Center, the Huntington Hartford Gallery of Modern Art here, and the proposed cultural center in Washington, D.C., honoring the late President John F. Kennedy.

Stone, a determined individualist, puts the stamp of his own personality on every building designed by his firm.

Here is how he views his art: "Ugliness is sinful, because, like sin, ugliness reflects a grossness of mind and a poverty of spirit, a robot-like materialism that implies a denial of a bridge to the angels, a glimpse of perfection."

"Great art is the result of peace, prosperity and leisure. We have all these things, but our country hasn't yet reached the philosophical point where we want to leave a heritage of loveliness to future times."

"A hero of mine, Frank Lloyd Wright, used to say, 'Love your work, love your wife, love the truth.' To this I would only add, 'Love God—that's all there is to life.'"

To Your Good Health

Nails Are A Part Of The Skin

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
 Dear Dr. Molner: What can I do for soft fingernails? They just won't grow so I can manicure them. I have taken gelatin for two years, but different things on my nails, but no results.—MRS. E.S.

I dare say you know many skin ailments that can occur, and how aggravating they are to correct at times. They aren't as a rule very serious but they can be an irritating nuisance.

The nails are really a part of the skin, a protective covering, and can vary in texture.

They can, like skin, give certain indications of the physical condition of a person. This is not, however, ordinarily the case with people who have brittle or soft nails. The health indications, rather, are in the rigidity, the color, and so on.

But to get to your problem. There are several factors which influence soft nails. Lack of sufficient protein is one, and that is why it has become popular to try gelatin.

Gelatin, however, is what we call an "incomplete" protein. It contains some types of protein but lacks others. Vitamin A is another requisite. Some women, trimming their diets too sharply to control weight, avoid fats to the extent that they do not get enough carotene from which the body manufactures Vitamin A. (Yellow vegetables, such as carrots, squash, etc., will help provide carotene, however.)

work with their hands.

External elements can affect the nails, and women are more exposed to this: soaps, detergents, caustics, polishes, polish removers, fungus infections, incidental injuries. Solvents can dry out the nails, so you may benefit a good deal by leaving off nail polish and using gloves when working with detergents and household chemicals.

There is some hereditary influence on hardness of nails. You can't do much about that. Nor about age—and you didn't say how old you are, but the rate of nail growth declines as the years pass.

Finally, and not the least, underactive thyroid can be reflected in nails as well as in dry skin and thin hair and eyebrows.

Don't expect gelatin alone, or any single factor to be the answer to soft or brittle nails. Usually a combination of things is involved.

Around The Rim

Not Anyone Can Do It Better

There are many things which everyone can do better than the person who is doing it. Alas, school teaching is right at the top of the list.

This may be in part because all of us teach to some degree. It may be the children in the family, it may be someone on a job, or someone to take our place as secretary of the Salubrious Sons of Sunshine Belt, but we teach.

WHAT WE SHOULD realize, however, is that this does not make us experts in the field of education, and Texas Education Week is as good a time as any to remind ourselves of that.

It has been my experience that when I take advantage of the invitation to sit in a classroom that I go away amazed that the teacher is able to prevent chaos let alone bring about a learning process.

I CONFESS a certain amount of prejudice against education courses, but upon reflection I never had but one and I probably had no business taking that one. It is, therefore, not fair to judge the whole curriculum on the basis of a single elementary course taken by a reluctant and uninformed pupil. I did sense, however, that real teaching involves a lot of techniques and psychology as well as knowledge of subject matter.

MOST OF US, nevertheless, persist in a lot of pet theories about how to teach children. My late sister, who had been a teacher in the days when there was some speculation that she also might be a spinster, observed that after four children had blessed her home that she often wished she knew as much about child raising as she did before marriage. This has its corollary in the quip about the individual who has six theories about raising children. He later had six children, and no theories.

TRYING TO INSTRUCT a room full of youngsters, then, is not as simple as most of us would like to think. Every child is a different personality and a different problem, and it may take a different approach or mode of handling to reach him. To deal with his needs, even though he may be trailing not only the faster but even the average pupils, requires understanding and patience. To see in him the possibilities of a useful personality requires perception. To bring out the most in him requires skill and a rare ability to challenge.

NOT ALL teachers fill this bill, but come to think of it not all newspapermen are by-line writers for the big papers or wire services. Some are more gifted than others and some are more obsessed with a sense of calling, and these are the great teachers. We have our share of them, as you will see if you visit classrooms this week, and I'm grateful to them. They have a staggering responsibility, considering the progressive complexities of our world and society. Yet somehow teachers must, and usually do, equip our children with the basics and stir the coals of their imaginations, their ambitions and their thinking apparatus. And yet, they manage to let little Willie be little Willie.

Man In Motion

WASHINGTON — The President's dark eyes behind the shellrimmed glasses rake down a list of figures. The statistics show, bracket by bracket, how much spending money we taxpayers will recover from the $11.5 billion tax cut.

This, he says, is what'll do it. "It" means getting America going again: New jobs. New enterprises. The industrial plant of the nation modernized. The Treasury taking in more money, at lower rates while the whole Federal Establishment economizes. Today, a more widely distributed prosperity. Tomorrow, a balanced budget.

THERE IS a rocking chair by the couch where the visitor sits, but not the same rocking chair. There is a trusted private secretary outside the door, but she is Juanita Roberts, not Evelyn Lincoln. The presidential succession has not changed the presidential aims, or even the general methodology, but the tempo now is the difference between "Forward march!" and "On the double!" The Oval Room's atmosphere, which used to be Camelot—royal, idealistic, steeped in history and prophecy—is now the power plant where you hear the dynamos humming:

MASH THAT BUTTON. Get me Mr. Secretary. Say, (first-name), where's that report? Well, they can get it finished if they work real late. Mash the other button for Senator Farm Bloc. Hello, (first name), I've made so many Democratic fund-raising speeches in your State, I think I must own some of it. Now, here's what we'll do about the farm bill.

A GRINNING, white-coated steward is hovering at the door with a silver tray that holds a tall glass of cherry pink, medicinal-looking fluid and a white pill. The rocking chair tilts and the well-shined shoes hang over a foot rest, while Castro gets a ribbing for rashly turning off the water at Gitmo. The 1903 Treaty with Panama is considered in the light of present discussions. A politician-by-a-politician appraisal finds that Prime Minister Home might have to let his constituents sell some buses in Cuba in order to stay in Parliament. The whole Latin American problem was getting a review under Thomas Mann, whom everybody had told him is the best-qualified fellow in the field. The U. S. Ambassadors to Latin America were coming separately to Washington for discussion.

THE MAN HADN'T been born in the White House, but you couldn't help feeling that he was born for it. You had visited him in Austin back in 1956, the year after his heart attack, and were surprised to find his family, even then, sure that the safest place for his type of invalidity was the Executive Manor. There, a resident doctor would make him rest and take his pills. There, he wouldn't be charging around the Senate floor. There, people would come to him, rather than the other way round.

WELL, HERE he was. The family prognosis was right. The telephone was within arm's reach. Messengers came and went with notes to be scanned and papers to be signed. The big Texan, even in the rocking chair, was a man-in-motion, his mind reaching like a pair of skillful hands from subject to subject. Hands that are skilled are apt to be deft without being hasty, and this was the way it was. High speed performance, yes. Frenetic activity, bushwa.

LBJ's First TV Press Conference

WASHINGTON — President Johnson handled himself just right in his press conference the other day—the first to be shared simultaneously with a television and radio audience.

There are theatrical temptations and political dangers in appearing before a mass of listeners over nationwide networks. Mr. Johnson didn't try to be a Bob Hope or a Jack Benny or to use the applause-getting methods of any other TV star, but presented himself simply as an earnest, dignified President of the United States in choosing not to be a showman, he may not have won the "Beatie"-minded but he probably earned the respect of mature citizens. The sharp and witty innuendoes of political combat moreover, were omitted, as this device sometimes alienates as many as it attracts.

THE PRESIDENT'S answers were clearly expressed, and he was both tactful and diplomatic in avoiding the pitfalls of extemporaneous comment which have embarrassed some of his predecessors.

Mr. Johnson appeared a changed man from the days when he was majority leader of the Senate or vice president. He showed the weight of his responsibility. He was calm and restrained and was exceedingly careful to choose every word he spoke.

TAKE, FOR INSTANCE, the President's way of dealing with the Panama problem. He said he was willing to "discuss anything, any time, anywhere" and to make "adjustments" when diplomatic relations with the Panamanian government have been restored, but he made it clear that this country would not take any "pre-commitments." This plainly means that the decision whether to agree to a revision of the existing treaty with Panama will not be made before but after the whole subject has been explored in conferences between the two governments.

ON DOMESTIC politics, Mr. Johnson was equally restrained and chose his words carefully. He preferred, for example, not to involve himself in the techniques of a court trial and said merely that he wouldn't comment on the "Bobby Baker case" until the hearings have been concluded and the Senate committee has made its report. Beseeched for an educated guess as to whom his Republican opponent in the presidential race might be, Mr. Johnson quietly replied that he himself hadn't been nominated as yet and that these were matters for the conventions to decide.

BUT WHEN asked about the "public accommodations" section of the "civil rights" bill, Mr. Johnson didn't hesitate to state unequivocally that he stands behind the bill as it passed the House. He denied that he had promised to compromise on this or any other section. But, of course, this does not preclude the Senate and House conferees from making compromises while assuming that the President will have to go along anyway if it's the best thing that can be done to assure final passage.

Whether the topic was the political or military strategy to be pursued in the Viet Nam muddle or the requested amplification of his recent remarks in Los Angeles in which he referred to the "aggressors" in Southeast Asia, the President was as cautious as any career diplomat in his selection of words.

LYNDON JOHNSON has learned in his 30 years of experience on Capitol Hill that it's never wise in politics to make a superfluous statement or to issue one long before it is actually necessary. On the whole, Mr. Johnson's demeanor at his TV conference with the press, if continued, will give an image to the public of a hard-working, cautious and sincere man whose mistakes, when they occur, will not seem to be due so much to a lack of conscientious effort as to the turns of fate in a topsy-turvy world.

Cocoa Butter Helps Erase Scar Tissue

By LYDIA LANE HOLLYWOOD—"Which eye had the scar?" Lisa Carroll asked with a grin. It was hard to believe that at one time she had a hole under one eye as the result of an automobile accident. "Although I had no plastic surgery," Lisa continued, "I was told by my doctor that I could help the scar by massaging it every day with cocoa butter. I followed his instructions faithfully. While I was reading or watching TV, I would massage cocoa butter into the scar. After the scar was gone, I would find myself wanting to massage it from force of habit. "I still have a slight mark, but I cover it with a make-up that is so wonderful I don't even know that I'm wearing it. Residents Invited To Attend Political Rally

A political rally was planned, and a spaghetti dinner scheduled when the local Rebekah lodges held separate sessions Tuesday evening.

JOHN A. KEE LODGE Candidates for local offices will be invited to speak at a political rally which will begin at 7:30 p.m., March 13, in the John A. Kee Lodge hall. The public is invited to attend, and coffee and sandwiches will be served.

The plans were made at the general business meeting conducted by Mrs. Carl Wilhite, noble grand. Although Mrs. Pauline Petty, chairman of the ways and means committee, has been hospitalized, other committee members will complete the arrangements. The members are Mrs. Garland Land, Mrs. Jim Ferguson, Mrs. Roger Miller, Mrs. Alton Allen, Mrs. A. E. Clanton and Mrs. Wynell Thomas. Next Tuesday a program will be given by Mrs. H. F. Jarrett, retiring district deputy president. Also, at this time, Mrs. Grady Sudberry will turn over the duties of her office to the newly-elected lodge deputy, Mrs. Morgan Martin.

RETREAT WILL BE THURSDAY

A District Spiritual Life Retreat for Methodist women will begin at 9:45 a.m. Thursday at Wesley Methodist Church. Mrs. B. J. Whittenback, Midland will speak in the morning on "Depth Study of Ephesians." The afternoon speaker will be Miss Barbara Sommerville. The retreat will conclude with music and communion.

Runnels P-TA Told Family Life Needs

"The Family, Cradle of Spiritual Life," was the program topic at the Tuesday meeting of the Runnels Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association. The program panel was moderated by Roy Watkins, and Bob Darland, city and county juvenile officer, and Rafof Dunagan, assisted.

New officers were named. They are Mrs. Dwight McCann, president; Mrs. E. E. Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Norman Newton, secretary; and D. B. McCann, treasurer. Mrs. A. J. Prager was appointed as cosigner to all checks.

Hollis Lloyd gave the devotion on teaching in the home, church, and school. Mrs. J. H. Homan reported from the city council that a Past President's Tea will be held March 19 at the high school cafeteria. Mrs. Curtis McCartney, president, reported that the group had served at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in February. Refreshments were served to 35.

Character Stressed

Qualities which everyone should strive to possess were enumerated by Mrs. Vernon Turner when she presented a program Monday for members of Mu Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Her talk was entitled "People," and the qualities listed were friendliness, kindness, honesty, dependability and thoughtfulness.

Mrs. Turner concluded with the quotation, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so he is." A benefit card party will be sponsored by the chapter March 13 at Cosden Country Club. Play will begin at 7:30 p.m., and tickets may be obtained from members or at the door.

The nominating committee presented a report and announced that new officers will be elected at the next meeting. Hostess to the group was Mrs. Bob Badger, 2608 Rebecca, who was assisted by the cohostess, Mrs. Doc Pilcher. The March 17 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Louis Wolfson, 2613 Lynn.

Sale Held By Wives

The International Wives' Club held a white elephant sale in the Community Room at the First Federal Savings and Loan Association building Monday evening.

Sgt. Roy Drinnen showed films of the club's tasting tea held last year. Hostesses were Mrs. John Strong, Mrs. Danny Valdes, Mrs. Charles Dorsey and Mrs. Bill Rios.

Two new members are Mrs. Carl Dumba, France, and Miss Yoshiko Sahara, Hawaii. Aristides Zimotoulous of Greece, father of Mrs. Eugene Kelley, was a guest as was Mrs. Robert Hemming of Ohio. The group donated $5 to the March of Dimes. Mrs. Dorsey and Mrs. George Adams won special prizes. A picnic and Easter egg hunt for the members' children will be March 28 at 1 p.m. at the Webb Air Force Base pavilion.

Stylists Set Show Plans

Plans for the bi-district beauty show, March 21-23, were discussed when 8 members of the Texas Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, Affiliate No. 24, met Monday evening. The group gathered at the Village Hair Styles to make arrangements concerning the event. Also, reports were heard on what was done by local hairdressers in observance of National Beauty Salon Week.

A candlelight initiation service was held for Mrs. Paul Price and Mrs. Marian Bethany at the Tuesday evening meeting of Big Spring Rebekah Lodge, No. 284.

Mrs. J. R. Petty announced plans for the spaghetti supper to be held April 11 at the IOOF Hall. A communication was read from Mrs. Hila Weathers asking for assistance at the state hospital and inviting members to attend the volunteer meeting April 10.

Mrs. Ellen Kretzmier, Corsicana, wrote from the general assembly to tell of the furniture purchased for the Corsicana Orphan's Home and the Old Folks Home. It was bought with donations from the lodges. Mrs. Joe Meyers made a monetary donation to the local organization. Forty-seven members attended and reported 46 visitations to the sick. Hostesses were Mrs. Gene Crenshaw, Mrs. Melvin Newton, Mrs. Tom McAdams, Mrs. Bill Morrison and Mrs. Eula Pond. Mrs. C. N. Gilliland, Weatherford, was a guest.

Mrs. Herbert Johnson Sr. won the silver drill at the Monday meeting of the Pythian Sisters of Sterling Temple No. 43. Mrs. Melvin Choate, Most Excellent Chief, presided at the session held in Castle Hall. Mrs. Hugo Campbell and Mrs. Johnson were hostesses. The capsule prize was awarded to Mrs. Bonnie Bennett.

The next meeting will be March 16 with Mrs. Manley Cook and Mrs. O. R. Bolinger serving as hostesses.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Those of you who don't have children in school are not likely to have one of the attractive invitations to visit the schools that were sent out by school SUPERINTENDENT S. M. ANDERSON.

The art work is beautiful and is so skillfully printed that each letter appears to have been individually sketched. On the front is a sketch of a "little red school house" with the American flag in the foreground. Inside in the upper left corner is the map of Texas, the Texas flag and a sprig of bluebonnets. On the lower right corner is a slate with a welcome sign, some books, a ruler, pen, pencil and a vase holding more bluebonnets.

The letter is to invite parents to visit this week, Texas Public School Week, and have a look-see into what their children are being taught and by whom.

MR. and MRS. TED HULL and Dickey were to leave today for Dallas where Dickey will undergo surgery. He is expected to be in the hospital for several days. The family will be away through the weekend and plans to spend some time in Garland visiting former Big Springers, the L. B. BRACKEENS and the FRED STITZELLS.

MRS. MONTA LEGRO is one of 400 science teachers in the elementary level chosen to attend a meeting in Washington, D. C., in April. She is the former DONNA YATES, daughter of MR. and MRS. SPEC YATES, McCamey, who made their home in Big Spring some years ago. Mrs. Legro teaches in the Austin schools while her husband works toward his law degree.

When MR. and MRS. ZACK GRAY were in Phoenix, Ariz., the past week where they were guests of MR. and MRS. JAKE DOUGLASS. Mr. Gray was attending a truckers meeting.

MRS. EUNICE M. DALTON plans to leave early next week for Kilgore where she will visit a brother, E. C. DALTON, for several days. She then will go to Minden, La., to spend some time with an aunt, MRS. HENRY DALTON.

Guests in the home of MR. and MRS. ROSS BOYKIN are their daughter, MRS. H. J. JOHNSON and her little daughter, VALERIE, of Shreveport, La. Mr. Johnson plans to fly here Thursday for a visit of several days.

Retreat Plans Set For Methodists By Church Group

The Woman's Society of Christian Service held their regular business meeting Tuesday morning at Wesley Methodist Church.

Mrs. Jerry Allen worded the opening prayer. Plans for the District Spiritual Life Retreat at the church were made by the host group. Two delegates will attend the annual conference March 17-18 at the First Methodist Church, Plainview.

The Wesley group will serve the Westside Center and the Big Spring State Hospital in March. "Inside the Fence" was the closing devotion given by Mrs. Bob Tavater. Mrs. E. R. Cawthron worded prayer. "The Three Spiritual Classics," will begin March 10.

Lend a helping hand to others while disintegrating

It doesn't take a hydrogen bomb to make you fall apart. All it takes is time — age — birthdays. They're all working on you. When you rent a tool, a floor sander or a gasoline saw, you use it for all it's worth for as long as it's yours. Time is running out with the body you have on loan. How are you using it? Have you read God's directions to you lately? He gave them to you in the Bible and in His Son, the Word made flesh. The Lutheran Church is explaining those directions in these days of Lent. The Lenten message tells you what He has done for you; Jesus Christ lived for you and died for you and rose from the dead for you. "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren." (1 John 3:16)

Birth Announced

Capt. and Mrs. Huey D. Rogers, Evraux, France, became the parents of a son, H. D. Jr., born at 9 a.m., March 2, in the Air Force hospital there. The infant weighed 9 pounds, 7 1/2 ounces. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bone, Stephenville, and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Huey J. Rogers, 1502 Tucson. The couple have one other child, Mary Ruth, 8.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Imaginative Cubes Can Decorate Drinks

Dear Heloise: Recently we had a baby shower for one of our friends and we tried to have something different. We went to the dime store and bought those tiny, tiny plastic dolls. We dropped one baby doll into each compartment of our ice cube tray, filled it up with water and used these fancy cubes for our decorative drinks.

If making more than one tray of these decorative cubes, place some food coloring (various colors when mixed together are pretty) in the water so that the ice will be slightly tinted. Real pretty.—Kathy Cristy

Methodist Circle To Fete Visitors

The Esther Circle of Kentwood Methodist Church has scheduled several social affairs to honor Rev. O. A. McBrayer of Midland and Bobby and Gene Moore of Amarillo who will conduct a revival at the church March 8-15. Mrs. Mark Farmer, 708 Lorilla; was hostess at the Tuesday meeting. Mrs. Raymond Hambray presented the first lesson in the Bible study. "Teaching Toward Christian Perfection." Plans were made to attend the District Spiritual Life Retreat at Wesley Methodist Church Thursday. Fourteen members attended, and Mrs. A. G. Bynum was a visitor.

BUZ SAWYER

HERE'S WHERE THE WATER GOES OUT—UNDER THIS BOULDER. I CAN FEEL THE SUCTION.

WELL, SAWYER, MY BOY, YOU'VE GOT YOURSELF INTO ONE BIG FAT MESS... LOST IN A CAVE... NO FOOD... NO LANTERN.

HOPELESS, WITHOUT A LIGHT, TO TRY TO FIND MY WAY BACK TO THE ARM OF THE CAVE WHERE THE BATS WERE... AND THE ONLY EXIT HERE SEEMS TO BE UNDER-WATER.

GASOLINE ALLEY

I'm missing a nut here on the wheel, Joel!

I'll have a look in the nut department, Dr. Fuddle! Won't be a minute!

Good heavens! What's this?

How long has this placard been posted here, Joel?

Mister Wilmer stuck it there yesterday!

You know what it means, of course!

Official dump business, I reckon. I ain't took time to read it!

I'LL FLIP A NICKEL TO SEE WHO PAYS FOR THE LUNCH—I'LL TAKE HEADS

HEADS, I WIN—YOU PAY

BUT, BOSS—YOU DIDN'T LET ME SEE THE NICKEL

SO WHAT? AFTER YOU'VE SEEN ONE NICKEL, YOU'VE SEEN THEM ALL

ORPHAN ANNIE

THE GUYS BOSSIN' THAT FISHY FLEET, AND THAT SUB, Y' THINK THEY KNOW WHO YOU ARE?

OH, SURE! THEY DON'T MISS MUCH!

HOW DO THEY KNOW SO MUCH ABOUT YOU, BUT US KNOW SO LITTLE ABOUT THEM?

OH, I WOULDN'T SAY THAT, ANNIE! I MANAGE TO KEEP PRETTY WELL UP-TO-DATE ON THEM, TOO!

Y' MEAN YOU'VE GOT SPIES AND SECRET AGENTS KEEPIN' tabs ON THEM?

WITH AS MUCH AT STAKE AROUND THE WORLD AS I HAVE, I'D BE A FOOL NOT TO PAY ATTENTION TO MY COMPETITORS' MOVES!

PETER HURD

Peter Hurd Plans Show

HOBBS, N.M.—One of America's top-ranking artists and painters of the Southwestern scene, Peter Hurd, of San Antonio, N.M., will exhibit his work on a one-man show here Sunday.

The Hobbs exhibit will be sponsored by the Llano Estacado Art Association of professional and amateur artists. Members of the organization said the show will be open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Hurd will display his art show in Westfall Art Gallery. He said the show will include several recently completed paintings which have not yet been displayed to the public.

Peter Hurd painted the now famous mural in the United States Post Office in Big Spring. This was his first attempt at a fresco mural, and he made it a labor of love. Since then it has been widely publicized, and once Life magazine carried a color plate of it.

Big Spring Men Look Over Temple's Downtown Program

A group of Big Springers Tuesday took a look at what Temple is doing with solving some of its downtown problems.

Eight local men flew to the Central Texas city, made a tour of the downtown area, then had lunch with a large group of Temple business leaders.

The two cities are practically identical in population, both are pursuing the outlines of a master plan as a result of long-range municipal bond issues.

The Temple men have organized a Downtown Development Corporation. Through it they are working with the city government and raising subscription money to acquire off-street parking.

Temple already has in being two major downtown parking areas — one a full block that once was the old Santa Fe Park, the other an area that was acquired by the city. The Downtown group has two other sites in planning, and when money-raising is complete will make these free, paved, lighted parking areas.

The Temple men said they are realizing good results from the providing of off-street parking, and—if Tuesday was an example—these are being well used.

Much other planning is on the boards at Temple but the city is moving ahead with its parking problem, the local visitors found. They returned with information which may be used in establishing a similar mode of operation here.

Those making the trip were Lester Morton, Clyde McMahon, Robert Currie, Adolph Swartz, A. J. Prager, John Taylor, Carroll Davidson and R. W. Whipple. Representatives of the Downtown organization, the Chamber of Commerce, the city administration and other business leaders were their hosts.

Flash Gordon's Gun Is Here

BOSTON (AP)—A lightweight laser rifle, which shoots a destructive ray instead of bullets, has been developed by Maser Optics, Inc., and turned over to the Army, it was announced Tuesday.

The weapon, lighter than the M1 rifle and powered by a back pack of batteries weighing less than 25 pounds, has been delivered to Frankford Arsenal, Philadelphia.

The rifle's ray, the firm said, is not enough to inflict serious bodily harm but could set fire to a soldier's clothes. It could also blind someone at ranges of up to a mile.

Another use, according to Maser officials, could be to ignite explosive fuses or set fires. The weapon can fire at least one burst of light every 10 seconds and has a lifetime capability of 10,000 pulses or flashes.

Raids To Help

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Plans are being made to donate sugar confiscated during moonshine raids to "Operation Sugar Lump," an anti-polio drive beginning March 8.

Polio drive sponsors estimate the free sugar will lower the cost of administering the vaccine by about $2,000.

Declarer played the trump suit as if he had the benefit of a peek into his opponent's hand. In the post-mortem discussion, however, he was able to clarify his performance to the satisfaction of everyone.

South overcalled East's opening one club bid with one heart. North offered a jump raise to three hearts which it is to be observed is not forcing. The double raise is only forcing on the player who opened the bidding.

West led the seven of clubs, East put up the ace and returned his singleton diamond. West played the ace and another diamond which his partner ruffed with the four of hearts. The defensive book was now in, and East exited with a club, putting declarer in the dummy.

The fate of the contract rested entirely on how the trump suit was handled. A small heart was led, East followed with the seven, and South, without any noticeable hesitation, played the eight of hearts from his hand. When West showed out, it became routine to reenter the North hand with the ace of spades to repeat the heart finesse. South drew the last trump and claimed the balance.

After accepting his partner's admiring congratulations, South was called on to account for his extraordinary handling of the trump suit.

"With so few trumps out against me I know that after East ruffed the diamond, the percentage play calls for a single finesse in hearts; however, I was able to glean some very pertinent information from the bidding which convinced me otherwise. On the evidence available from the first four tricks, East was revealed to have four clubs and one diamond. He must therefore have four spades and four hearts, because holding a five card suit he would hardly have opened the bidding with one club. I accordingly played him for all the missing trumps."
