TOWNS COUNTING LOSSES

Floods Subsiding

The muddy, overflowing Ohio River relaxed its assault on four states Saturday, though it might take another week before its flood threat is eased along the lower reaches. An air of optimism among river towns was reflected at Evansville, Ind., where a disaster center was closed. Only one call for evacuation was received. A 54-foot-high floodwall protects the city. The Red Cross said in Cincinnati that the flood damaged or destroyed the homes of 20,433 families in Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia. All told, 110,000 persons were affected to some degree; 11 perished and damage might run close to $100 million. But U.S. Army Engineers said flood control measures saved at least $290 million in damages and reduced flood crests from 2 to 10.5 feet between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. Uncle Sam stood ready to help flood sufferers along the 981-mile Ohio, a key avenue of transportation for the country's midland. President Johnson and the governors of five states flew over the flood area Friday. Then the President announced federal help was available. Kentucky asked for $4.2 million, the estimate needed to repair public facilities. Gov. Edward T. Breathitt said damage to private property would run three times that much. Light rain fell Saturday in the middle Ohio Valley but at worst was expected to do nothing more than delay the fall of the river. Rain totaling one inch or more was expected in some areas before cooler weather moved in.

U.N. Builds Force For Task In Cyprus

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Finland and Sweden pledged troops Saturday for a U.N. peace-keeping force in troubled Cyprus, leaving the force only about 1,000 short of its goal of 7,000 men. The new battalions were expected to add about 700 men each to the 1,150 Canada had already started sending to Cyprus in what Ottawa called "Operation Snow Goose." The resultant total of 2,550 men did not include the 500 troops pledged by Ireland. The Irish pledge was contingent on parliamentary approval in Dublin. U.N. Secretary-General U Thant aimed at raising 3,500 men from six or eight countries to replace half the 7,000 British troops now trying to keep the peace between Greek and Turkish Cypriots. An advance contingent of 42 Canadian officers and men reached Nicosia by plane Saturday. Finland and Sweden planned to send advance parties of staff officers to Cyprus too, but their battalions seemed likely to take up to four weeks to get there. Brazilian Maj. Gen. Carlos Flores de Paiva Chaves arrived in Nicosia Saturday to become acting commander of the new force. Thant was waiting to get definite word on troops from Austria, which lacked a government to make a decision, and Brazil, which turned him down once but was asked to reconsider. "HANDS OFF" A new U. N. resolution contained a "hands off Cyprus" provision to deal with Turkey's threat to invade the island unless Greek Cypriots stopped attacks against Turkish Cypriots. Cyprus was quiet as Canadian troops began to arrive except for several apparently accidental shots in Nicosia suburbs Saturday morning. Stella Soulioti, Cyprus' acting foreign minister, told a reporter the coming of the Canadian advance party had "practically ended the threats of Turkish intervention." But Turkish Cypriots in Nicosia were disappointed to learn that Turkish troops had not landed. They predicted a new wave of violence. In Athens, Greek Premier George Papandreou met with his Cabinet, and the government was reported hopeful the arrival of U. N. troops would lessen the threat of Turkish intervention. But Greek military forces stayed on the alert and a government source said "the Cyprus crisis is by no means over." Greece had warned it would react if Turkey intervened.

Hits Propaganda In Civil Rights Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., charged Saturday that "hate-mongering" is being spread among people in his state and elsewhere by foes of the House-passed civil rights bill. "They are being deluged with propaganda and misinformation," he told the Senate when it met in an unusual Saturday session to continue debate on a motion to take the bill up for consideration. Keating said such tactics are bringing him heavy mail from fearful constituents. Southern opponents are resisting this preliminary motion in protest against a leadership attempt to bring the measure up for action without first referring it to the Judiciary Committee for hearings. "MONSTROUS" Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D-S.C., described the bill as "monstrous" and said that to take it up without committee hearings amounted to "mob violence" in which the constitutional right of petition would be lynched. Keating kicked off the debate with a speech protesting that various organizations are circulating information that gives a distorted view of the legislation. "I don't intend to sit still while fears are instilled, lies are spread, and threats are made," he said. The bill is aimed at eliminating racial discrimination in voting, in places of public accommodation, in schools, in employment, and in federal aid programs. MAIL CHANGES Keating said he has received thousands of letters from New Yorkers about the measure, with his mail about equally divided for and against it. In the first three weeks of February, he said, it was 10 to 7 against the bill. "This may come as a surprise to many civil rights supporters, as it did to me," he said, observing that New York has been a leader in enacting civil rights measures. Keating asked why there is so much opposition among New Yorkers and said the answer could be summed up in just two words — "misinformation and hysteria."

Reviewing The Big Spring Week With Joe Pickle

Truth is stranger than fiction. A week ago Larry and Alton Callihan found $654 in bills in a canyon wash south of town. The supposition was that it was lost buried loot. The remarkable thing was that so many people had lost money in that area, said officers. The amazing thing was that Mrs. Pat Boatler described the currency down to the smallest bills—and well she might, for her husband had thrown it out from its secret hiding place in the deep freeze along with several other packages. Half a mile downstream and months later, the boys found it.

The 4-H and FFA stock show dominated the local news scene, and well it might considering the number and quality of animals. Jaycees did a fine job, and Thursday's sale poked up some real fire. Top honors were won by Dolores Lankford and Sharon Harrison with their steers, Nancy and Charlotte Mann, Dixie Coleman and Linda Foster with their lambs. Sharon and Larry Coker shared showmanship awards.

Something which is personally wonderful news for this column, and we suspect for a legion of friends, is a decision by R. L. Tollett to accept Petrofina's request to continue in his post as Cosden's president at the end of his current contract.

Hoffa Loses Try For New Trial In Jury Tampering

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa, convicted on jury-tampering charges, lost a bid Saturday for a new trial. U. S. Dist. Judge Frank Wilson, who sentenced Hoffa to eight years in prison and fined him $10,000 Thursday, formally overruled motions for a new trial by Hoffa and three others convicted with him. At the same time, Wilson said he will go to Nashville on March 30 for the trial of Lawrence Medlin, Nashville sandwich shop operator. Medlin is charged with having a part in the jury-tampering effort for which Hoffa and the three others were convicted. Sentenced to three years each were Thomas E. Parks of Nashville; his nephew, Detroit Teamsters business agent Larry Campbell, and Ewing King, former Nashville Teamsters president. Two other defendants were acquitted. All four defendants were convicted at the end of the seven-week trial here on charges of trying to fix the federal jury in Nashville which heard Hoffa's conspiracy trial in 1962. That case ended in a mistrial when the jury was deadlocked. The defendants, all of whom have said they will appeal, have until March 24 to file notices with the 6th Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati. They are free on bond pending appeal.

Anti-Poverty Plan Will Be Presented By LBJ Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—After a month's delay because of internal differences and the touchy question of lowering the draft registration age, President Johnson's poverty message will go to Congress Monday. The White House announced this firm date Saturday but gave no hint on how the delaying problems have been resolved. Likeliest guesses seem to be that the division-of-powers conflict will be compromised and lowering of the draft registration age will be shelved, at least temporarily. Johnson has indicated he will ask about $1 billion for the program but probably will request only about a third of it for this year. What a Labor Department source described earlier this week as "internal skirmishing" has centered around who is going to do what in Johnson's war on the poverty which he says afflicts as much as 20 per cent of Americans. Like the Labor Department, the Welfare Department is intimately concerned with the battle plans because it has several programs aimed at helping those with substandard incomes and opportunities. Both departments reportedly have been resisting a full-scale takeover of their anti-poverty functions by Sargent Shriver, named by Johnson to direct the war on poverty as a special presidential assistant. Shriver is the director of the highly successful Peace Corps and is to retain that post at least temporarily while coordinating the anti-poverty drive. Ill health and lack of education condemn many youths to an economic fate like that of their poverty-stricken parents. As one means of striking at this, Shriver has favored lowering the draft registration age, the idea being to disclose health and educational deficiencies earlier and to try correcting them through government program.

Ruby Is Sentenced To Electric Chair

Jurors Act With Speed

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, no trace of emotion on his pallid face, was condemned to death Saturday by a jury that swiftly convicted him of murder with malice.

It took the panel of four women and eight men only two hours and 19 minutes to exact the maximum penalty on the 52-year-old operator of a Dallas strip-tease joint for the Nov. 24 slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy.

Chief Defense Attorney Melvin M. Belli, a noted civil courts lawyer in the biggest criminal case of his career, charged to newsmen that he had information that one juror, whom he did not identify, had boasted to his employer that if he got on the Ruby panel he would vote the death penalty. "Unquestionably they had their minds up," Belli declared. Belli, a portly, gray San Francisco lawyer, seemed beside himself with rage in the instant after the verdict was returned at 11:22 a.m. He leaped to his feet. His face grew red. At the top of his voice he shouted, defying Judge Joe B. Brown's attempts to quiet him: "This is a victory for bigotry. We'll appeal this to a court where we can get due justice and law."

Then as Ruby, still seemingly uncomprehending, was led past him in the custody of a phalanx of burly sheriff's deputies, the defense chief cried: "Don't worry Jack! We'll appeal this and take it out of Texas."

Courtroom Thrown Into Confusion

The packed courtroom was thrown into wild confusion immediately after the verdict, although Judge Brown had warned against any demonstrations. Network television cameras, admitted to the room for the verdict by a last-minute decision of the court, recorded the scene. It was believed to be the first time in the history of major American criminal trials that such a scene was televised.

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade, 50, a blunt-faced, gray-haired prosecutor who 24 times before

Killed Man Charged As JFK Assassin

Ruby, a paunchy, slight man with a few wisps of dark hair across a nearly bald head, stepped from a crowd in the basement of Dallas police headquarters at 11:21 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 24. With a single bullet, he cut down the 24-year-old Oswald, a loner, a professed Marxist and the man charged officially with the assassination 48 hours earlier of the 35th President of the United States.

The state called the crime murder with malice. Wade described Ruby as a glory seeker, and told the jury he hoped to gain materially as the killer of an accused presidential assassin. State testimony quoted Ruby as saying he killed Oswald "to show the world that Jews do have guts."

The defense pleaded temporary insanity. Their witnesses told of youthful head injuries which they said led to Ruby's suffering psychomotor epilepsy. This was described as a rare form of the disease, characterized by violent rages, and black-out seizures. It was during such a robot period, Belli insisted, that Ruby killed Oswald, not knowing what he was doing in advance and without any clear memory afterwards of what he had done.

WIDE CHOICE Under Texas law, a jury sets the penalty when it convicts a defendant. The jury had a wide range of choices in Ruby's case. He could have been put in prison for any number of years up to life.

But the jury chose the maximum punishment—death in the electric chair at the Huntsville State Prison. The trial began Feb. 17 and the case went to the all-white, all-Protestant jury at 1:05 a.m. Saturday after a grueling night session, marked by final hours of summation oratory by the defense lawyers and the prosecutors.

The jury had breakfast, then began deliberations at 9:15 a.m. in a mezzanine room above and behind the second floor courtroom.

Attorneys for both sides had forecast a speedy verdict. But even they were caught by surprise when, at 11:34 a.m., Causey knocked on the courtroom door at the bottom of a flight of stairs leading to the jury room. "We have a verdict," he announced.

Telephone summonses went out to attorneys and to Judge Brown.

Belli, a model of sartorial perfection throughout the trial, rushed to the courtroom in a dark suit, wearing a black sport

Belli Furious Over Verdict

DALLAS (AP) — Defense attorney Melvin Belli was furious when the death penalty was assessed against Jack Ruby Saturday. He said angrily he would stop practicing law if he didn't reverse the verdict.

Above the tumult of the courtroom, he shouted: "This was a kangaroo railroad. I hope the people of Dallas are proud of this jury that was rammed down our throats. This is the most shocking thing I have seen in my lifetime."

"Do you believe this is part of the United States? We have seen a little bit of Russia here."

He said there were 30 reversible errors committed during the trial, and he intended to appeal without delay.

Belli was especially angered at the City of Dallas. Gesturing strongly, he shouted:

"This is one of the sore spots in America. The festering sore that is Dallas is now the most shocking place in the nation. If this venom spreads, then God help us all."

Belli charged the state with wanting a verdict regardless of due process of the law.

He said presiding Judge Joe Brown "went down the line" with the prosecution.

Joe Tona Hill, the No. 2 defense attorney, looked somber after hearing the verdict. "It is a violent miscarriage of justice," he said.

WADE'S OBSERVATION

Police Testimony Highly Credited

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade said Saturday testimony from police officers apparently was the major factor in the conviction and death sentence of Jack Ruby.

"I think the key to your verdict was your officers' testimony—putting the malice into the case," prosecutor said moments after the decision was announced.

PREMEDITATION He said the officers' testimony "showed premeditation—that he thought about killing Lee Harvey Oswald two days earlier."

The stout, gray-haired Wade, 50, who reached the half-century mark only days before the historic trial began Feb. 17, noted also this testimony by officers that resulted in the swift verdict for the Dallas night club operator:

1. Ruby said in the presence of police officers that he hoped Oswald died.

2. Ruby said he intended to fire three bullets into the accused presidential assassin but was prevented by officers from getting off the last two.

3. Ruby told of contemplating the murder of Oswald the night of Nov. 22—only hours after President John F. Kennedy was slain in a Dallas motorcade.

Ironically, Wade was a former roommate of Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who suffered critical bullet wounds during the assassination.

The soft-spoken district attorney declared, concerning the verdict: "I never did think the encephalograms—brain wave tests—had a damn thing to do with the case."

Ruby's defense team, headed by flamboyant San Francisco attorney Melvin M. Belli, sought to establish through such tests that Ruby suffered from a brain disorder that enabled him to kill Oswald without being aware of his actions.

Federal Judge Ben Rice Dies

MARLIN, Tex. (AP) — Federal Judge Ben H. Rice Jr., who had been seriously ill, died Saturday night in a hospital here.

President Harry Truman appointed Rice a United States district judge for the western district of Texas in September 1945 and he took the oath of office Oct. 9, 1945.

Prior to becoming a federal judge, Rice was chief justice of the Court of Civil Appeals for the tenth judicial district of Texas at Waco, being elected in 1940.

He was chief judge of the western district of Texas until succeeded by Judge Adrian Spears Oct. 10, 1962.

Officers Taking Three To Prison, Pick Up Suspect

Sheriff Miller Harris and Deputy A. G. Mitchell will leave early today for Huntsville to take three convicted prisoners to the state penitentiary.

Two of the men are under 25 year sentences for armed robbery. They are Earl Snider and Sonny Lewis, convicted in the Dec. 27 holdup of the Safeway Food store.

The third prisoner to be taken to the prison is Abel Ramos, found guilty of murder, and sentenced to 15 years.

En route to Huntsville, Harris and Mitchell will leave Richard McCord in Stephenville where he is to stand trial on Monday. Harris will pick up McCord and return him to Big Spring where forgery and burglary charges pend against him.

McCord was apprehended after a long search on information provided by the sheriff's office. He was alleged to have broken into an office and to have taken payroll checks. Although these checks were no longer used by the company, several were passed.

To Show Film

John Robert Prude of Prude Ranch at Fort Stockton will visit here Monday. He is scheduled to project motion picture films of the ranch and area at 4 p.m. in the YMCA.

They Did It

T-38 Proud Lady, She Scores First

Aircraft TF-856 rolled to a stop and crew chief Airman J.C. Russell Cummins positioned her wheel chocks.

With this routine operation on Wednesday — March 11, 1964 — Webb AFB established another T-38 first—the first of this jet trainer series to log 1,000 flying hours.

Flying No. 856 past the 1,000 hour milestone were instructor pilot 1st Lt. William P. Stewart and 2nd Lt. David R. Stevenson, student pilot from Class 64-H. Based on how she flew on her 1,000th hour and 500,000th air mile. No. 856 will be the first T-38 to hit 100,000 hours. Lt. Stewart and Stevenson agreed. They attributed her excellent performance to Webb's maintenance specialists.

The first assigned T-38's, Northrop Corporation's designation of "Talon," arrived at Webb Air Force Base in November 1961.

From their lance-like noses to their hour-glass waists, the Talon looked fast and nimble, even while perched on the ground. Designed for supersonic and high altitude flight training, the T-38's exceeded the expectations of their creators. Upon seeing the Talons' paint jobs, Webb instructors and student pilots dubbed them "White Rockets"; maintenance personnel, however, christened them the "White Doves."

Since the T-38's arrival at the base, Webb's pilots, maintenance specialists and their snow white birds have passed quite a few milestones:

August of 1962 Class 63-A graduated—the first full class to train in the T-38.

played up the story in a Peking broadcast Saturday. The extensive usage indicated Mao Tse-tung's Peking regime feels it has the support of a great majority of the Workers (Communist) party that is the source of political power in North Viet Nam.

In brief the question was: Should North Viet Nam continue to follow Red China's hard line or turn to the Soviet Union's softer policy, which Peking denounces as modern revisionism?

Arguments about that question evidently have been under way for months in Ho Chi Minh's Red domain. The disclosures came in a report from Le Duan, who has been first secretary of the Worker's party since 1960.

This report was delivered at a meeting of the party's central committee in Hanoi last December, the Peking broadcast said, and has just been printed in the February issue of Hoc Tap, North Viet Nam's Communist theoretical review.

Chamber Panels Slate Meetings

Two Chamber of Commerce committees have scheduled meetings for Tuesday in the chamber conference room. The agriculture committee meets at 10 a.m. and the advertising and promotion group at 4 p.m.

M. L. Patterson, chairman of the agriculture committee, said several items needed discussing at the 10 a.m. meeting and urged members to make every effort to attend.

A proposal for signs on US 80, urging motorists to use Big Spring facilities on the business route, may possibly be accepted at the meeting of the Ad and Pro committee, chairman Russell Bennett said. Three firms have made offers.

Winner In Essay Competition

Dwayne Fraser, left, receives a $50 check from Dr. John Norton, president of the Permian Basin Medical Society, for having won first place in an area essay contest on advantages of private medical care or private enterprise. Other winners were Nancy Head and Claire Eichbrecht, Big Spring.

AGAINST SOCIALISTS

Erhard's Party Maps Starategy

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany's leading party, the Christian Democrats, meets Sunday to map its campaign against the strongest challenge the opposition Socialists have mounted since the republic was founded in 1949.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard is up for re-election next year. His opponent will be Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin. Brandt ran unsuccessfully against former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in 1961. Adenauer stepped down from the chancellorship last October at the age of 87.

The Christian Democrats, assembled for a 3-day convention in the northern industrial city of Hannover, were expected to re-elect Adenauer party chairman. This is regarded as a reward for his not having done too much in the past five months to trip up Erhard, whose succession as chancellor he opposed.

Adenauer heads those in the party who are most deeply suspicious of any deal with the Soviet Union. They tend to emphasize the special alliance with France, and they lean heavily on support from farmers.

Another wing is more interested in exploring chances for agreement with the Soviet Union. It emphasizes the alliance with the United States, and is strong for broadening the West European Common Market to include Britain. Some of its members are ready to risk losing farm votes by looking to a reduction of government price supports.

Erhard gets more backing from the second group.

Coin Club Plans Display

Big Spring Coin Club members already are talking about the annual coin show scheduled here Oct. 11-12.

Displays of pictures and information about the show were seen by 45 members, investors, "horse traders" and a dozen visitors including several from Lamesa.

Sgt. Victor Barlow, chairman for National Coin Week, reported that there will be coin displays in all three of the local banks and any merchants wishing to display coins in their windows should contact him.

The club voted to sponsor a junior night which will be held at one of the regular meetings; the date will be announced later.

The Texas Numismatic Association Convention will be held in Dallas at the Baker Hotel on April 10-12. Any members planning to attend the breakfasts should contact Mrs. Victor Barlow for reservations.

Prizes for the evening were a 1959 mint set won by Barney Gulley, a 1956 proof set won by Maurice Gunn, and a 1938D buffalo nickel donated by Kenney's coin shop was won by Mrs. Grace Sharp. After the meeting an auction was held with 29 lots being sold.

Elijah Anthony, San Antonio truck driver, pulled to the right to avoid colliding with two oncoming cars early today, but he hit a bridge railing instead.

Highway Patrolman Jimmy Parks said that the impact tore a tire off dual wheels, jacked the 1961 Chevrolet rig and inflicted damage estimated at $7,000. Fortunately the tractor and grain trailer cleared the bridge and did not block traffic on US 87 about 11 miles south of Big Spring. The bridge railing was shattered.

The two cars, which appeared to Anthony to be racing, continued on their way, said Parks. Anthony escaped without injury.

Coahoma Pupul Top Essayist

Dwayne Fraser, Coahoma, is winner of the essay contest sponsored by the Permian Basin Medical Society, Mrs. Carl Marcum, chairman, announced Saturday.

The honor carries with it a $50 cash award.

Second place went to Clare Eichbrecht, Big Spring, who also won a $30 cash award. Third place was captured by Nancy Head, Big Spring, who received a $20 award.

Essays of the three winners will be submitted to the state contest, the winner of which will advance to the American Medical Association - sponsored finals.

Students in six high schools covered by the local society were eligible to participate in the contest, and Mrs. Marcum said there were approximately 260 entries.

Rules require a teacher, a physician and an outsider to serve as judges, and the local panel consisted of Mrs. Ralph Gossett, Dr. John Norton and R. W. Whipkey.

Students had a choice of writing on "Advantages of Private Medical Care" or on "Advantages of the Private Enterprise System over Communism."

Dwayne wrote on the first topic, Clare and Nancy on the latter topic.

Payouts Start Monday To Marlin Bank Depositors

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. announced Saturday it will start making payments Monday to depositors in the closed First National Bank of Marlin, Tex.

The bank was declared insolvent and closed March 10 on orders of James Saxon, comptroller of the currency. The FDIC was named receiver.

FDIC chairman Joseph Barr said payment of insured claims will start at the bank Monday morning and continue there for several weeks. Depositors have 18 months in which to present their claims.

Deposits up to $10,000 will be paid immediately upon presentation of proof of claim, Barr said. He and an 18-member crew of liquidation and claim agents flew to Texas this week to prepare for the payments.

Rig Misses Cars But Hits Bridge

Elijah Anthony, San Antonio truck driver, pulled to the right to avoid colliding with two oncoming cars early today, but he hit a bridge railing instead.

Highway Patrolman Jimmy Parks said that the impact tore a tire off dual wheels, jacked the 1961 Chevrolet rig and inflicted damage estimated at $7,000. The two cars, which appeared to Anthony to be racing, continued on their way, said Parks. Anthony escaped without injury.

Language Class — In Reverse

The YMCA has come up with something different in language instruction.

It is offering a course in English.

Starting Tuesday, Mrs. Juliette McClendon, an elementary Spanish teacher in Big Spring schools, will instruct a group of Spanish-speaking women, most of whom are married to men stationed at Webb AFB.

The one-hour classes will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday and Friday at the Y for a period of eight weeks. Fee for the service is $10, and others may enroll. Mrs. McClendon is working toward her doctor's degree in Spanish at the University of Texas.

Tourist Panel

The Convention and Tourist Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has been called for an important meeting at 4 p.m. Thursday in the chamber's conference room. Cheney Plummer, chairman, urged maximum attendance.

Easter Schedule

STANTON (SC) — Supt. Beryl Clinton, has announced that the Easter holidays have been scheduled for March 27 - 30. Classes will resume on Tuesday morning, March 31.

Supt. Elwyn Bass announced that the Grady Schools will be observing the Easter holidays on the same schedule.

Jayettes Lauded For Major Project

Big Spring Junior Chamber of Commerce officials and the Howard County 4-H and FFA officials sounded praise on Saturday for the exceptional work performed by six Big Spring Jayettes in connection with the barbecue which preceded Thursday night's auction sale.

The six Jayettes dished the food and handled the serving of the barbecue to more than 300 guests.

Heading the workers was Mrs. Charles Bell, who at that time was Jayette president. Her helpers were Mrs. Charles Buck, Mrs. Jim Wright, Mrs. Sherrill Farmer, Mrs. Melvin Fryar and Mrs. Louis McKnight.

Claims 'Order' To Stop Baker Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., released Saturday evidence which he says proves that the Senate Rules Committee's Democratic chairman was ready to announce Friday a 6-3 vote ending the Bobby Baker probe, but was balked by Republican members.

Earlier in the day Curtis had charged that the chairman, Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., was under orders to stop the politically explosive hearings on the business affairs of Baker, resigned secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

DENIES CHARGE "Sen. Jordan is a fine man," Curtis' statement said. "He had a tough job to carry out the orders to stop the hearings." Curtis did not say from whom those alleged orders had come.

Reached in Burlington, N.C., his home, Jordan had this comment: "I have never had orders from anyone even suggesting that I stop the hearings. (The charge is) absolutely not true. Neither myself nor any member of my staff, as far as I know, has ever been pressured or ordered in any way to stop this hearing."

Curtis and his two GOP colleagues on the committee sprang a surprise at Friday's stormy closed meeting when they introduced an accountant's sworn statement that his name had been forged to some of Baker's income tax returns.

The consequent row, and the GOP demands for the right to call more witnesses, staved off, at least until next Tuesday, a showdown vote between the committee's six Democratic and three Republican members on the future of the inquiry.

The committee Democrats want to bring the inquiry to a close and start writing a final report of findings.

Angelo Firm Gets Building Contract

A contract in the amount of $24,363 has been awarded to the Leon Burk Construction Company, San Angelo, for the construction of a POL (Petroleum, Oils and Lubricants) administration building, according to authorities at Webb AFB.

Six bids were received, according to Webb AFB spokesman, who said the base fuel supply section would be housed in the building.

BLOTTED OUT

There is in heaven a record called "the book of life." Only those whose names are written there will enter the New Jerusalem at the end (Rev. 21:27).

At the judgment, those whose names are not found in the book of life will be cast into hell (Rev. 22:15).

One's name is recorded in heaven when he becomes a Christian. Afterward it is possible that his name be blotted out.

"And the Lord said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book" (Exo. 32:33).

To keep his name in the book of life, one must overcome.

DANGER — FALLING HAIR

If you are faced with the problem of losing your hair don't shrug your shoulders and say, "There's nothing I can do about it." Not only is this a negative attitude but it is a false assumption. Think positive. Immediately consult a physician, for many cases of falling hair are due to simple scalp conditions that can be cleared up. Even where baldness might be inevitable, the rate of fall can possibly be slowed down and controlled.

We carry many medicinal shampoos, ointments and lotions that physicians prescribe for hair and scalp conditions. We also compound special prescriptions of dermatologists.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with the prescriptions. May we compound yours?

DeMolay Chapter Observes Week

This will be DeMolay Week in Big Spring, so proclaimed by the mayor and set apart by members for special observance.

Big Spring DeMolays have undertaken a week packed with observances. At a Thursday evening supper meeting, they outlined 10 activities, including two church visits. Yesterday they cleaned up Masonic Lodge 1340. Today they will attend church in a group and repeat it a week from today. Monday there will be a special business meeting; Tuesday the regular meeting will be held.

Chapter members Wednesday will place a wreath on the grave of Leon P. Moffett, chapter Dad for many years and for whom it is named. Thursday there will be representative DeMolay work; Friday ritual practice work; Saturday washing car windows around the courthouse square.

Jim Walker is master counselor, and Bobby Norris is advisor. The chapter has 65 members and has had a busy program, including the area convalesce here last June 13-15. The young men also have had social functions such as swimming parties, dances, plus monthly supper meetings.

HIGH IDEALS
Mayor George Zachariah issued a proclamation for the week's observance, pointing to the high ideals of family fidelity, love of God and country, upholding of key institutions, and proper regard for others. "These are attributes which each of us would do well to possess, and in so doing challenge the best in our young men," he said.

The Order of DeMolay memorializes the steadfastness of Jacques DeMolay, last of the Knights Templar grand masters who died at the stake in 1314 maintaining his integrity and protecting his friends.

By coincidence, the founding date March 18, (1919) fell on the anniversary of the death of Jacques DeMolay. The order stemmed from a hunting accident which left Louis Lower fatherless in Kansas City. He went to Frank S. Land, a friend of his father, for help, and as time passed Land realized that other young men, like Louis, needed an instrument of guidance.

CONSTANT RITUAL
Eight boys met at the Scottish Rite Temple to form an organization. The name came later. Land prevailed on Frank Marshall, a newspaperman, to compose a ritual based on DeMolay's life, and this remains virtually unchanged until today.

DeMolays has no direct Masonic Lodge connections although it does have sponsorship from the order. The organization is open to any teen-age youth of good character and who will obligate himself to be a better son and man; to honor his parents; to love and serve God, his country and fellow men; to uphold the public schools; to slander no one; and to exercise tolerance in the opinions of others.

So spontaneous was the reception that within a year there were 3,000 DeMolays in Kansas City. Soon chapters sprung up and Land had to devote his full time to them. Today there are over 150,000 members in 2,400 chapters in 12 countries.

Air Force Association To Get Charter Friday

Prospective members are urged to attend a meeting of the Air Force Association at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Academic Building of Webb AFB, Lester Morton has announced.

Morton was elected commander of the Big Spring Squadron at an organizational meeting held last month at the base. Other officers are Walton Morrison, vice commander; Bill Crooker, secretary; and A. J. Statser, treasurer.

J. J. Walden, commander of the Texas Wing of the AFA, will present the charter to the Big Spring Squadron at the next meeting, said Morton.

Some 50 persons joined the association at the first meeting. It is a civilian organization dedicated to promoting interests of the Air Force. Membership is open to women and military personnel, although servicemen do not vote in AFA elections.

Members of the AFA, interested in every facet of Air Force life, encourage youth to develop interests in aviation and aid servicemen in adjusting to civilian life. Lt. Gen. James E. Briggs, former ATC Commander, has praised the AFA for its support of Air Force functions.

Organized in 1948 with the encouragement of Gen. Jimmy Doolittle and Gen. Henry H. (Hap) Arnold, the association has grown to include 250 squadrons in 27 states with a membership of 80,000.

Membership dues are $6 annually. This fee includes a year's subscription to the magazine, "Air Force and Space Digest." Anyone interested in further information may contact W. A. (Bud) Farrow, base civilian personnel officer and chairman of the membership committee.

Johnson Will Give Address At Texas U.

AUSTIN (AP) — President Lyndon Johnson will deliver the May 30 commencement address at the University of Texas, the Board of Regents announced Saturday.

At the same time honorary degrees will be conferred on both the President and Mrs. Johnson, said the Board Chairman W. W. Heath.

The regents voted Saturday to confer on the President the honorary degree of doctor of laws and upon Mrs. Johnson the doctor of letters.

Mrs. Johnson also holds two earned degrees from the university—the bachelor of arts in 1933 and the bachelor of journalism in 1934.

Mrs. Johnson is scheduled to receive an honorary degree of doctors of laws March 31 at Texas Woman's University, Denton. TWU is the largest state supported university for women in the nation with an enrollment of 3,200.

The honorary degrees scheduled for the presidential family make only four that have been awarded since the early days of the University of Texas, founded in 1883. An honorary doctor of laws was conferred in 1923 on Robert Vinson, a former president of the university in recognition of his service to the institution. In 1935 a similar honorary degree was given John Nance Garner, former vice president.

G. R. Brown Dies At Hobbs, N.M.

G. R. Brown, 80, brother of Lester Brown, Ackerly, and Andy and Guy Brown of Big Spring, died Friday afternoon in Hobbs, N. M.

He had been ill for a long time with a heart involvement. Prior to his illness, he had been a building contractor. Surviving are his wife, two sons and a daughter. Services will be held Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Hobbs, and burial will be in the Hobbs cemetery. Attending from here will be Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Buy Brown.

Prepare For Cancer Appeal

Workers are preparing for the annual Cancer Crusade appeal which officially gets under way Monday with the special gifts division making contacts. Examining some of the material going into the mail are Boone Horne, general chairman of the drive; Mrs. Bruce Wright, Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr., and R. H. Weaver.

Cancer Campaign To Start Monday

Volunteers are opening their campaign here Monday against cancer; this year the total may run 290,000. There are 830,000 people in the nation under medical care for cancer, and this year 540,000 cases will be diagnosed for the first time as cancer. About 48 million Americans now living may expect to have cancer.

The special gifts division, headed by Mrs. K. H. McGibson and Mrs. Clyde Angel, is taking to the field Monday. Other groups, including the household appeal, will follow within the next two weeks. Boone Horne is general chairman of this year's campaign by the Howard County unit.

Much of the proceeds from gifts to the cancer fund go to research in an effort to score breakthroughs that will bridge this formidable killer. Last year, 294,000 Americans died from cancer; this year the total may run 290,000. There are 830,000 people in the nation under medical care for cancer, and this year 540,000 cases will be diagnosed for the first time as cancer. About 48 million Americans now living may expect to have cancer.

Special Week Urges Caution On Poisons

"Children act fast, and so can poisons."

That's the theme of the second annual National Poison Prevention Week, March 15-22. During these seven days, 120,000 pharmacists across the nation will join with other medical, safety and health personnel in trying to make the public more aware of the dangers of accidental poisoning.

Each year, approximately 500 children of under five years of age die as a result of poisoning, while the poison accidents involve 500,000 children, according to the Public Health Service.

"We have a lot of trouble, but fortunately most of it isn't serious," Dr. Clyde Thomas said. "Once or twice a week I have to pump out a kid's stomach who has usually taken something like too many baby aspirins."

Dr. Neil Branscum confirmed that the most common cause of poisoning is aspirins, and "then comes tranquilizers and household cleaners."

These observations are rather typical of the experience of Big Spring physicians. Doctors report most of their young poison patients are between one and five years.

The major reasons for poisoning include: improper storage of products, improper handling, improper discarding of toxic products in waste containers accessible to children and pets, and the mistaking of identity of a product. The U. S. Public Health Service has found that internal medicines, cleaning and polishing agents, pesticides, and petroleum distillate products cause the most poisonings.

This disease, characterized by abnormal growth and spread of cells, strikes any age although it occurs with increasing frequency with increasing age.

On the bright side of the ledger, the survival rate is one in three. It could be much higher if people would only not danger signs and seek medical help earlier. This year around 180,000 Americans will be saved from cancer, and 90,000 could be saved if they will not delay seeing their doctors.

Here are the seven danger signals which every family should note:

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
 2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
 3. A sore that does not heal.
 4. Change in bowel or bladder habits.
 5. Hoarseness or cough.
 6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
 7. Change in a wart or mole.
- If the signal lasts longer than two weeks, individuals should go to their doctor for a check and advice.

Johnson To Talk On Latin Affairs

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson plans to give a new push to the Alliance for Progress in a major speech Monday to the Organization of American States.

On the same day, he is to begin a sweeping review of U.S.-Latin American relations and problems in general, with every U.S. ambassador and foreign aid chief from this hemisphere summoned to Washington to give a firsthand report.

Out of these meetings might emerge not only a tougher policy toward the Fidel Castro Communist dictatorship in Cuba, but a tightening up of any slack the President might find about Washington's handling of business with its hemisphere neighbors.

The President's speech is expected to be a strong reaffirmation of his pledge to continue

Baker Delegate To Credit Unit

Duke Baker will head the Big Spring credit union delegation to the 30th annual meeting of the Texas Credit Union League in San Antonio, March 20-21.

Policymakers of the Members Mutual Insurance Company will be meeting simultaneously with the league.

Baker, a director of Members Mutual, represents the 45 credit unions in the Midwest District. He is treasurer-manager of the Webb Air Force Base Federal Credit Union.

When giving or taking medicine.

5. Since children tend to imitate adults — avoid taking medications in their presence.
6. Refer to medicines by their proper names. They are not candies.
7. Clean out your medicine cabinet periodically: Get rid of old medicines by flushing them down the drain, rinsing the container in water, and then discarding it.

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Conservative Party will hold its state convention June 16 at Dallas and another convention Sept. 15 at Austin.

Legion Having 45th Birthday

Members of the Howard County Post of the American Legion will observe the 45th anniversary of the organization at a Saturday night social meeting. The event is annually combined with the reunion of veterans of WWI, who along with their wives and the Gold Star mothers will be special guests.

Speaker for the evening will be Col. A. F. Taute, commander of Webb Air Force Base. Gil Jones will serve as master of ceremonies.

A barbecue dinner will be served with the assistance of the auxiliary, and past presidents and past commanders of the Legion will be honored guests at the Legion Home on the San Angelo highway.

The unprecedented, three-day meetings between Johnson and U.S. hemisphere officials are interpreted as an effort by Johnson to bring U.S. policies up to date and to seek to avoid any future episodes such as the controversy which arose out of a flag-flying incident in Panama.

Today there are some three million members in every state and in many foreign countries.

The Big Spring reunion is held each year to honor the veterans of WWI who founded the organization, and all are welcome regardless of membership. There will be no charge for the meal.

"If you need glasses, be sure to wear them. There is nothing sissy about remedying an eye defect",

Children Act Fast . . . So Can Poisons!

PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN

THIS YEAR HALF A MILLION CHILDREN WILL SWALLOW POTENTIALLY POISONOUS SUBSTANCES — 500 WILL DIE!!

This unnecessary slaughter can be stopped if parents "poison-proof" their home.

How many times can you say "Yes . . . my home is poison-proof"?

YES NO

- Do you keep household products and medicines out of the sight and reach of children? Even if you leave the room for an instant be sure the container is in a safe place.
- Do you store household products only in their original containers? Cups, glasses and soft-drink bottles are for food and beverages — NOT for bleach, kerosene, turpentine, etc.
- Do you store medicines separately from other household products?
- Are you sure that all your household products and medicines are properly labelled?
- Do you always call medicine by its proper name? Medicine is NOT candy.
- Do you clean out your medicine chest and storage cabinets regularly?
- Do you use caution when you throw away an old container? The contents should be flushed down the drain and the container rinsed.

PROTECT YOUR FAMILY EVERY WEEK FROM THE DANGERS OF ACCIDENTAL POISONING. POISON-PROOF YOUR HOME TODAY!

You save enough to buy

2 MONTHS SUPPLY OF MILK when you DRY WITH GAS

You can save $2400 a year on your utility bill when you dry with GAS. That's enough to buy a two months supply of milk for an average family of four. And GAS dries your clothes faster, yet so gently.

SAVE ON INSTALLATION AND MAINTENANCE, TOO. A GAS clothes dryer costs less to install and maintenance costs are the lowest of any dryer. A GAS burner, the heart of your dryer, carries a lifetime guarantee.

C-City Group Hires Lawyer For Petitions

COLORADO CITY — Winston W. Smith, 50, Colorado City roofer and city council candidate, announced Friday that a group of petitioners asking for extensive changes in the city government had employed a Big Spring attorney, Wayne Basden, to assist them in getting their several initiative propositions in legal form.

Smith said that his group would sell posters and bumper stickers with the wording "Let's Build Colorado City" in order to finance the legal work and publicity for the campaign. Joining with Smith as sponsors of the petition are Manuel Rivera, R. L. Walker, J. L. Galey and Herman R. West.

Smith's petition, with 254 names, would do away with parking meters and the city manager form of government and would provide for an elective mayor and city attorney. The petition has 13 points and would require charter changes, changes in existing ordinances and new ordinances. The petition was presented to Colorado City's attorney John Worrell in February. Worrell ruled that the petition was incomplete in that it did not conform to Colorado City charter provisions that the proposed ordinances be presented in full.

Borden Stock Show Nears

GAIL — Borden County's annual junior livestock show will be held here Friday and Saturday with prospect of around 200 swine, steers and lambs being entered.

Only 60 will be entered in the auction which follows judging on Saturday. There will be a second sale, however, to permit young showmen to dispose of their remaining animals.

The swine division will take the spotlight Friday when all pig entries will be judged.

Saturday morning 20 steers and scores of lambs will be placed by judges. The customary luncheon will be given at the school cafeterias by the mothers of young showmen. Mothers will operate the concession stand at the recently enlarged show barns, and profits from the concessions will be used to help defray expense of the show. The auction will begin immediately after lunch, and a number of buyers from Big Spring and other points are expected. Besides the concession stands, the enlarged show barns now contain restrooms and other accommodations.

The award was presented by Mrs. Thomas Carpenter for the Parent-Teacher Association.

Absentee Vote Begins Monday

Absentee voting for the April 4 school board elections opens Monday in the office of Pauline Petty, Howard County clerk. Mrs. Margaret Ray, chief deputy, said that her office has five different ballots on hand.

One ballot deals with the election of two Howard County Junior College trustees. Candidates are J. A. Coffey and Dr. P. W. Malone.

Another ballot is for the Big Spring Independent School District—two trustees to be named. Candidates shown are James E. (Jimmy) Felts, Jack Haralson and Winston Wrinkle.

The other ballots deal with the election of three members of the Howard County school board.

One ballot is for use by voters in Commissioner Precinct 4. The trustee candidates from the precinct are Harvey L. Adams and H. C. Reid. Voters will also ballot for the trustee at large. The candidates are Charles R. (Chub) Jones and W. Ray Echols.

In Commissioner Precinct 3, the ballot shows Hayes F. Stripling Jr. as the sole candidate for trustee from the precinct. Voters in this precinct also vote for the county board member at large.

The fifth ballot for residents of Commissioners Precincts 1 and 2 lists only the trustee at large race.

Civil Case On Docket

A jury panel will report at 1:30 p.m. Monday for duty in the 118th District Court this week in the disposition of a civil docket, Ralph Caton, judge, announced Saturday.

He will call the docket at 10 a.m., Monday.

He said that early check of the cases he had put down for trial indicated a large number will have to be stricken.

There were 24 cases on the original docket. Eight or nine have already been checked. Two have been settled, six have been passed. Only one has officially been declared ready.

This is a damage action styled C. L. Guess vs. Graydon Howell. The other cases on which no report has as yet been received will be called Monday morning, Judge Caton said.

Starting March 23, Judge Caton has set the trial of Emzie Woodard accused of murder. Woodard is alleged to have shot Edward Lee Tillis to death last Oct. 25. His case has had several postponements.

HCJC Career Day May Set Attendance Record

Five hundred boys and girls from 25 or more high schools in the Big Spring area will invade Howard County Junior College March 23 to take part in the annual Career Day Conference sponsored by the college.

Dean Ben Johnson of the college faculty who is in charge of arrangements for the day said that response to invitations sent out to the schools indicates that this year's turnout of students will probably set a record.

Seniors make up the bulk of the students who come to the Career Day conferences. The boys and girls will be guests of the college at luncheon in the HCJC Student Union building at noon.

Activities get under way at 9 a.m. in the HCJC auditorium. Rev. Donald Hungerford, rector of the St. Mary's Episcopal Church, will be the principal speaker. Music will also be featured. At 2 p.m. a second program will be held in the auditorium at which music will comprise the entire program.

In the interval between the morning and afternoon assemblies, the students will be given opportunities to consult with counselors in 10 career fields covering several score professions and trades. Members of the college faculty, augmented in some cases by outside persons, will conduct the conferences.

Coahoma Election Slates Completed

COAHOMA (SC) — The election of city council members will be held April 7 at the Coahoma City Hall. Filing for reelection are Bill Read, Ted Fowler and Wendell Shive, plus two new candidates, L. H. Aberegg and Arch Brimberry. Mrs. A. D. Shive will be the election judge and she will be assisted by Mrs. Donald Lay and Jack McClendon.

On April 4, the election for School Board Trustees for the Coahoma Independent School District will be held at the City Hall and the Vincent Baptist Church. Members filing for reelection are T. O. Ernest, W. R. Robinson and Marion Hays. Others filing are Donald Duke, Jasper Gibson and Clifton Harrison. Ray Echols has filed for county trustee-at-large.

AGC Parley Due

The apprenticeship committee of the Associated General Contractors has scheduled a meeting here March 23. A representative from the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training is due to discuss new rules, including anti-discrimination requirements. The session will be at Kasch's office. Recently he was named to a two-year term on the AGC board.

P-TA Plaque Honors Late Mrs. R. L. Baber

Cedar Crest Parent-Teacher Association presented Marvin Kilgore, principal, the plaque honoring the late Mrs. R. L. Baber at a meeting Thursday afternoon. The memorial award will be displayed at the school.

Mrs. Baber was the second grade teacher and taught in the school system for 33 years. She was an active member in the First Methodist Church and Philathea Sunday School Class. Attending the presentation was her daughter, Sally Baber.

New officers for the year are Mrs. Frank Patterson, president, Mrs. Robert Bradshaw, vice president, Mrs. Thomas Carpenter, secretary and Mrs. Nadine Speegle, treasurer.

Jaycee Groups Install Slate

Big Spring Jaycees and Jayceettes installed officers in a dinner-dance affair held Friday evening at the Big Spring Country Club.

Jim Reeves, Odessa, Jaycee state vice president, addressed the group, and Mrs. Charles Butts, reporter, was recognized as the outstanding Jayceette of the year. She was presented with a silver charm bracelet.

Lloyd Senn, Big Spring, state director, conducted the chapter installation, while Mrs. Harvey Walker, Abilene, area No. 2 vice president, conducted the Jayceette installation.

Those installed were Jim Wright, president of the Jaycees; Jack Orr, first vice president; Charles Butts, second vice president; Joe Matthews, secretary; Sherrill Farmer, treasurer; Charles Bell, state director. For the Jayceettes: Mrs. Jim Wright, president; Mrs. Dub Moore, first vice president; Mrs. Ted Ferrell, second vice president; Mrs. Doug Warren, secretary; Mrs. Joe Matthews, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Butts, reporter; Mrs. Charles Bell, state director.

Demo Chief To Talk Here

J. Pat O'Keefe, Austin, State Democratic Executive Committee director, will be guest speaker Monday night at a meeting of the Howard County Democratic Committee. The public is invited, according to Frank Hardesty, county chairman.

He said the meeting is at 7:30 p.m. in the Howard County courtroom. A letter has been sent to all election precinct judges urging them and their assistants to attend. Instructions in regard to the primary will be issued and questions about voting answered. At the Monday meeting, names of all state, county and township candidates will be drawn for positions on the ballot, said Hardesty.

Hardesty suggested that the open meeting of Monday night would be of interest and importance to all government and civic student groups.

Youth-Led Revival Opens At Stanton

STANTON (SC) — Youth Week will be held at the First Baptist Church today through next Sunday. Gary Clinton is serving as youth pastor. Other officers are Rodney Roten, music director; Tim Bristow, educational director; E. Mike Hall, Sunday School superintendent; Ray Edward Louder, Training Union director. Dr. Thomas Urrey will lead the revival services during this week.

City-Rural Fight Stirs In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—The defeat of a congressional pay increase by the House has widened the differences between urban and rural members, threatening pending farm legislation.

City members who watched a $10,000-a-year raise snatched away from them largely by the votes of Midwest Republicans and Southern Democrats left the House floor seething on Thursday night.

THE WEEK

his trailer house at Odessa last week, putting an end to a murder case. Another tragedy quickly took its place, for Willard Scaif, state hospital employe, was found shot to death in his apartment. Iris K. Bridges, Odessa, was wounded seriously.

Our traffic record, off to a bad start this year, got another boost a week ago with the death of David Ortega on a farm-market road near Vealmoor. You don't have to be on a U. S. highway or busy city street to get it.

A charter was obtained last week, rounding out preliminary organizational details for raising funds for a chapel at Big Spring State Hospital. This community is taking the lead, but surely the 50 or more other counties served by the hospital will want to be good Samaritans.

One week from Tuesday Big Spring Independent School District trustees will convene for a crucial session. It is likely that the board will set a time table and priorities for a master bond program for school development. The high school portion could be three and a half million dollars, the over-all outlay five and a half.

Several things are included in the $379,000 appropriation voted by the House Armed Services Committee for Webb last week. Rep. George Mahon says he is advised that the project includes a 600-ft. runway extension, a 11,000-square foot gymnasium with steel frame, masonry walls, and all appurtenances. This still has to have House and Senate and presidential approval.

There ought to be a few stars sprinkled in the crown of G. F. Painter. He brought in another sack of golf balls for use of state hospital patients on the Lions Club golf course. Twice before he has brought in copious supplies of used balls.

Johnny Middleton was recognized as winner of the Loy Acuff award for showing the highest ranking calf from a local breeder's herd. We forgot, however, to mention that the classy calf came to from the Reed Bros. herd.

Those who predicted the Midland-Odessa chorale would prove the surprise of the current concert season were certainly correct. These West Texans, including half a dozen from Big Spring, sing for the sheer joy of it, pay their own expenses, receive no pay. Yet they produce music which would put many a professional choir to shame. Final program of the series is March 21.

Air travelers to Dallas can thank the Chamber of Commerce aviation committee for a $12 saving on a round trip to Dallas. The panel asked Trans-Texas how come the $34 excursion fare applied on a 50-mile longer journey from Midland-Odessa, but not here. Well, it does now.

Building totals in February found the construction business looking up. The total was $417,068, or almost twice the $220,654 in January. It is well ahead of $341,946 for February of 1963. The rate should increase within the next few months.

Remember in the good old days when you lined up with your backs to the blackboard and engaged in a spelling bee. You can see the modern version (the same without the blackboard) Saturday morning at HCJC when the county spelling bee is unreeled. You're certainly welcome to attend.

Beautiful, the turtle with groundhog traits, emerged from her nest Tuesday and apparently feels that winter is gone. Beautiful, owned by Cathy Mays, made like a groundhog on Feb. 2. The groundhog interval terminated March 8, so Beautiful was right on the nose.

New Satellite For Scientific Probing

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—An Explorer satellite is scheduled for launching here Thursday to study the ionosphere and to serve as a tracking target for the intense, ruby-red beams of science's revolutionary new tool, the laser.

A three-stage Delta rocket is slated to lift off early Thursday to start the satellite on its intended 625-mile-high scientific mission. The Delta, made by Douglas Aircraft, will be seeking its 23rd straight satellite-launching success.

Major purpose of the 120-pound, propeller-shaped package is to make the most comprehensive survey yet of the ionosphere — an electrified atmospheric region which reflects radio waves back to earth and makes possible long-range communications on earth.

The satellite will send radio signals by varying frequency to more than 80 ground stations in 33 countries. By studying the strength of the signals as received at the widely scattered stations, scientists hope to obtain the first truly global map of the ionosphere under varied conditions of solar activity, time of year and hour of day.

Several East Fourth Baptist boys were presented with Royal Ambassador awards at a program last week.

David Hanson told a missionary story and received his page pin and hiker badge. David Webb spoke on tithing and received his pathfinder badge. Richard Rigdon spoke on witnessing and was presented with the lad and the squire pins. Jeff Thomas spoke on service and Randy Dickens on the denomination and received lad pins. Jack Curry, Paul Webb, Chris Hayes, Rondel Brock and Bill Jones assisted in the program. Gilbert E. Webb and Don Ellerbe are advisors.

The city election will be held April 7 in the basement of the First Methodist Church from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. Absentee voting will begin on March 20 and will end on April 3.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Lady Bird Johnson, the nation's first lady, will visit West Virginia within the next few months, says the state's governor, W.W. Barron.

Odessa Junior College debaters made a clean sweep of the honors at the second annual Howard County Junior College Debate Tournament Friday and Saturday.

The Odessa teams won the top honors in women's debating, men's debating and took home the sweepstakes trophy. Howard County Junior College, which had fielded only a man's team, was second.

Other colleges competing were Delmar of Corpus Christi and South Plains of Plains. Delmar had three men's teams at the tourney and South Plains a man's team and a woman's team.

Sixteen debates were conducted Friday and eight on Saturday. The subject was "Resolved that the federal government should guarantee a college education for all qualified high school graduates." Each team was required to debate both sides of the subject.

Martin Landers, in charge of the tournament, said it was a success and that it was anticipated that the annual tournament to be staged in March 1965 will attract a larger field of schools.

HCJC debaters won the first tourney last year and went on to win the state title. Landers said that the event was of particular importance because of the fine cooperation accorded it by Big Spring business and professional men. Thirty were drafted by the college to serve as judges. He expressed the college's appreciation for the cooperative spirit demonstrated. Thirty or 40 students also served as time keepers, errand runners and assistants.

World War II Vets Eligible For Loans

Many World War II veterans are still eligible for GI home, farm and business loans but the time is running out, according to R. H. Todd Jr., acting manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Lubbock.

For great numbers of World War II veterans the deadline date has already passed and the terminal date for all such veterans is July 25, 1967, under the present law, the VA manager said.

He explained that each veteran can figure out his own GI loan deadline date by using the following formula: Add 10 years to the date of his discharge from his last period of active service in World War II. Then add an additional year for each 90 days active service in World War II. (Any remaining balance of less than 90 days cannot be used to extend the deadline.)

Ruby Has Many Appeal Routes

DALLAS (AP)—Like any other person convicted of a felony in Texas, Jack Ruby must begin the appeal of his conviction at the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

That is the only Texas court with appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases. The Texas Supreme Court passes judgment only on civil matters.

Should the court of criminal appeals rule against Ruby, the appeal route in state courts would be exhausted. His attorneys would then have to turn to the 5th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans. From there, they could appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Those interested in the course may still enroll by telephoning the office, and materials will be ready when the class starts at 7:30 p.m. The cost for each participant is $5 for materials.

Remaining topics to be discussed in the other eight meetings are: Party Organization, Political Precincts, Political Campaigns, Political Clubs, Political Leaders' Problems, Political Meetings, Business Men in Politics, and The Politician Speaks.

Wheeler Named To Sales Post
Joe Wheeler, 1800 Grafa, has been named assistant area manager of the West Texas district by Crain Chemical Company, a major manufacturer of chemical degreasers.

Wheeler will assist in the employing and development of additional representatives for the area. During this week he will be in a training course at Dallas.

The Dallas based firm specializes in the manufacture of liquid detergents for industrial and institutional cleaning, especially for such diverse industries as oil and gas firms, food processors, printers, churches, restaurants, hotels and motels, hospitals, schools, office buildings, steel mills and ocean-going ship cleaners.

Applications are being received at the Civilian Personnel Office at Webb AFB for a painter. Anyone 18 years or older may apply, but applicants must have had enough painting experience to be the substantial equivalent of a completed four-year apprenticeship in industrial brush painting. Standard form 57 is to be used in filing applications.

Rocky, Barry Bid For Aid In California

FRESNO, Calif., (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater paraded their sometimes clashing views before the California Republican Assembly Saturday.

They spoke to delegates of the 14,000-member party organization who will vote Sunday whether to take sides in the California Republican presidential primary.

Rockefeller forces, obviously short on support, called for no endorsement. Goldwater openly sought CRA backing and his people predicted he'll get it.

The endorsement is only advisory but it could have an important psychological effect in the June 2 primary contest for California's 86 votes at the Republican National Convention.

The opening session ended in turmoil after the state convention chairman charged some credentials had been filched. Overriding protests by Goldwater delegates, CRA President William Nelligan refused to seat any delegates immediately. He said he'd run the convention as a board of directors meeting until the matter is cleared.

Rockefeller, in a speech just before the floor fight broke out, and Goldwater, in an address prepared for an evening banquet, claimed the Democratic administration has fallen down all along the line.

Astronauts Tested For Sea Escapes

HOUSTON (AP)—Three astronauts took several dunkings in the Gulf Mexico this past week, but what they learned may save their lives someday.

Using a model of the Gemini space capsule, astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Lt. Cmdr. James A. Lovell Jr. and Maj. Thomas P. Stafford spent all of Tuesday being shut in and leaving the capsule some five miles at sea.

Tests were made with and without a flotation collar, which resembles a rubber raft and is inflated around the capsule by rescue teams parachuted into the ocean after a space trip ends.

Tests without the collar were considered the most important because it is here that an emergency would exist on a real flight if the astronauts had to abandon the capsule before the collar was secured.

The Gemini spacecraft will land on its side with the two hatches facing up, which is unlike the Mercury capsule which landed and floated on its cone-shaped bottom, looking like a big cork.

The capsule was lowered over the side of the Manned Spacecraft Center's converted landing ship, The Retriever, and allowed to drift 100 feet from the vessel with two astronauts sealed inside.

The spacecraft used in the tests is the same shape, weight and size as the Gemini spacecraft, except it doesn't hold the instruments.

Plains Rips D. City In Tourney Finals

By PAT WASHBURN The Plains Cowboys, using the simple fundamentals of good sets and overpowering spikes, finally wore down a determined but outmanned crew from Denver City Saturday night...

Queens scored five straight points as the end neared. The clincher came with just 25 seconds of play remaining.

to overtime, then made three straight points to close it out.

The Cowboys, with a team composed of literally four sets and only two spikes, rushed past the Mustangs with express train speed that gained momentum as the action got deeper into the second and final game.

Championship Flight First round (Friday morning) — Pampa over Buena Vista, 14-6, 4-15, 15-10; Denver City over Coahoma, 15-0, 15-0; Phillips over Snyder, 15-1, 15-1.

Consolations Quarterfinals — Lamesa over Pampa, 15-1, 15-1; Denver City over Big Spring, 15-1, 15-1; Phillips over Andrews, 15-1, 15-1; Plains over Forson, 15-10, 11-11, 15-4.

Plains only lost two games in the entire tournament en route to the trophy, one a 15-11 decision to Ozona, and the other an 11-13 decision to Forsan. The big reasons were Sara K. Field and Sandy Randall, the two spikes. Besides Betty Conger of Forsan, the most valuable spike of the tourney, no one else hit the ball with so much speed or so much accuracy.

Andrews and Pecos trailed Odessa across the finish line. Big Spring wound up 12th in the 18-team field with a score of 1.356.

Medalist for the tournament was Al Anderson, of Del Rio, who had a 72-hole score of 295. Big Spring scoring: Norman Patterson 81-87-79-87-334; Jody Thompson 81-83-88-82-340; Bill Caire 83-84-88-84-349; Randy Thomas 84-91-91-87-353.

Lamesa won third place by turning back Phillips, 8-15, 15-2, 15-13.

In the final game, Lamesa was down, 10-6, but the Tornado

For Plains, the first annual Cap Rock Invitational Volleyball Tournament in the Howard County Junior College gym was a memorable occasion. And for head coach Shirley Gross (left) and spike Sara K. Field it was especially wonderful.

Friona Grabs AA Fem Title By 50-45 Tab

AUSTIN (AP) — Friona, undefeated and with no one else to conquer, sat atop girls basketball in Texas Saturday night after whipping a fighting Clear Creek team, 50-45.

The victory came in the finals of the Conference AA division of the girls state basketball tournament in the University of Texas' Gregory Gymnasium here.

In the final game of the tournament, Trent defeated Burkeville 76-27 to win the Conference B championship.

Earlier in the day, Baird won the Conference A title with records falling all over the gymnasium.

Baird defeated Jourdanon 85-68 behind the record shooting of forward Paula Corn who contributed 63 of the points.

Paula's scoring surpassed the old record of 61 points for a single game, and her 95 points for the series passed the previous record of 85. She made 23 of 50 field goal attempts.

The aggregate total of 153 points for the game was above the previous record of 126.

Baird led 46-39 at the half. Karen Bearden had 11 points and Elaine Hass 13 for Baird.

Wylie won third place in Conference A with a 40-39 victory over Moulton after two overtimes. This was Moulton's sixth unsuccessful trip to the state finals.

Wylie lost its first round game 39-37 to Jourdanon and Moulton lost 49-34 to Baird.

In Conference B play, Happy defeated Lueders 51-50 but fell 46-40 to Trent, which had a first round bye then lost 46-43 to Burkeville, which defeated Silfield 53-49 in the first game.

Billy Foster Leads Surge On Records

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — Two Southern Methodist relay teams sparked by mighty sprinter Billy Foster hung up records and Billy Pemelton of Abilene Christian vaulted 15 feet 7 1/2 inches Saturday to highlight the 20th West Texas Relays won by Texas with 60 1/2 points.

Foster won the 100-yard dash in 9.6, led Southern Methodist's 440-yard relay to a record-smashing 40.8, speared the 880-yard team to an overall tying record of 1:24.8 and then ripped off a 48.7 first lap on the winning mile relay team.

Foster's 12 1/2 points made him high man of the meet and the outstanding performer.

University of Houston failed to place in the mile relay as it lost the meet to surprising Texas. Houston had 56 points and Texas 52 1/2 going into the final event. Texas was second in the relay.

Southern Methodist, winning three relays, wound up third.

The Mustangs got 38 1/2 points. Lamar Tech and East Texas State tied for the college division championship with 61 points each while Texas A Western wound up third with 57.

The high school class had two divisions. Odessa Permian upset Amarillo Tascosa to win the top class with 44 points. Abilene was second with 34. Tascosa scored only 11 1/2 points.

Amarillo Carver won the newly-created Division II with 51 points. Odessa Blackshear was second with 43 and Lubbock Dunbar, the favorite, was third with 42. All three of these are Negro schools.

Two overall records were bettered and one tied in the two days of competition with Pemelton's vault smashing the record by 6 1/2 inches. Southern Methodist's 880-yard relay team bettered the overall record by two-tenths of a second. Southern Methodist's 440-yard relay team tied the overall record of 40.8.

All these were records in the University class.

Three records were set in the college division where Robert Young of Howard Payne threw the shot 53 feet 5 1/2 inches, David Sikes of East Texas State vaulted 14 feet 1 inch and James McLatchie of Lamar Tech ran the mile in 4:24.0. The latter was a record because it was a new event.

In Record Leap

Gary Hobson, standing, of Kermit, Friday pole-vaulted 14 feet, 5 1/2 inches in the West Texas Relays at Odessa to set an all-time high for a Texas schoolboy in the event. Kneeling is Larry Smith of Abilene High, who cleared 14 feet, but missed three times at the record height. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Devils Smash Huskie Quint

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—Duke demolished Connecticut with a 62-point first half Saturday night and went on to bury the Huskies under a 101-54 avalanche to retain its NCAA Eastern Regional basketball championship.

Duke will play the Midwest Regional champion in the national semifinals at Kansas City next Friday night.

Villanova clinched third place with a 54-62 victory over Princeton as Wally Jones scored 12 of his 34 points in the last seven minutes to lead the Wildcats, No. 7 in the nation from behind.

NEW YORK (AP)—NYU, always full of surprises, staged a dramatic second-half comeback Saturday night for a 79-66 victory over top-seeded DePaul and advanced with Bradley to the semifinals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament.

NYU, which lost to such teams as Wagner and Rider during the regular season, will play the winner of Tuesday's Drake-New Mexico quarter-final game.

Second-seeded Bradley nipped a determined St. Joseph's, Pa., team 83-81 in the opener of the evening doubleheader and will play the winner of Tuesday's other quarter-final game between Army and Duquesne.

Raul Paradez Sets Mark In Monahans Broad Jump

MONAHANS — Kermit won the ninth grade division of the Monahans Junior High School Track and Field Meet here Saturday, scoring 131 1/2 points.

Alpine was the eighth grade leader with 102 points, while Monahans earned the seventh grade title with 117 1/2 points.

In ninth grade competition, Big Spring Runnels scored 68 1/2 points, good for fourth place. Raul Paradez counted 33 of those for Runnels. He set a new record in the broad jump with a leap of 19-7 1/2, won the high jump with a leap of 5-5, was second in the 50 and fifth in the 100.

Ronnie Anderson of Big Spring Runnels, who had the fastest qualifying time (9.8) in the 70-yard high hurdles prelims, hit a hurdle in the finals and wound up sixth. He tied for third in the 120 low hurdles with a 15.5 clocking.

Other Big Spring Runnels points were scored by the following boys at the various grade levels: SEVENTH — Mike Noble and Bill Eden tied for sixth in pole vault, 7 feet; Don McEvers, fourth in discus, 97-4; John Patton, first in broad jump, 15-9; Patton, tied for third in 120-yard low hurdles, 16.7; Runnels finished fifth in 440-yard relay in 54.3 and sixth in 880 relay, 1:51.1.

Devlin Leads By 5 Strokes

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Australian Bruce Devlin stretched his lead in the $25,000 St. Petersburg Open Golf Tournament Saturday in a third round featuring a pair of holes-in-one.

Devlin shot a three-under-par 69 on a windy day when most of the scores were closer to par 72. It gave him a 54-hole total of 202, five strokes ahead of his nearest rival going into Sunday's final round.

Joe Campbell and Dick Howell had the holes-in-one. Both hit five-iron shots on the 190-yard seventh hole that bounded into the cup.

PGA officials could not recall the time when two aces were recorded on the same hole in the same round of a tournament. They were the third and fourth recorded in 10 PGA tournaments this year.

Neither did the competitors much good. Howell came in with a 70 for a 212 total. Campbell had a 71 for 209.

Devlin had his good moments and his bad. His game suddenly went sour on the front nine when he bogied No. 8 and No. 9.

"I thought I had let it slip a bit," he said at the end of the round. But he birdied the 10th and had little trouble thereafter.

Five strokes back in second place was Rex Baxter Jr. of Amarillo, Tex., who shot a four-under-par 68 for a 207.

Tied at 208 were Dan Sikes, Jack Nicklaus and Don Fairfield. Nicklaus, the pre-tournament favorite, had a four-under-par 68.

Campbell, Butch Baird, Jacky Cupit and Terry Dill were tied at 209, seven strokes behind Devlin.

Devlin's five-stroke margin is the largest a third-round leader has carried into a final round in any PGA tournament this year.

BOWLING BRIEFS

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—How does a baseball antique like Warren Spahn, who by all logic should have stopped pitching years ago, go on winning 20 or more games year after year with no sign of letting up?

"There really is no secret about it," said the indestructible southpaw. "It's hard work. It's maintaining top physical condition and it's desire."

"All three are terribly important," said the man who will celebrate his 43rd birthday April 23, "but I regard desire as the most important. If you have the desire, naturally you will strive to maintain the other two."

"Nature has a way of compensating for the loss of physical ability. If an athlete could maintain the same desire that he had when he was younger, I believe he could pitch until he's 50. Sure, it's tougher to get in shape than it was 10 years ago, sure, you have to push yourself harder than you did when you were a kid. But the actual difference is only about five to 10 days of training. That's how much longer it takes to get past the stage when you're stiff and sore."

"So many guys look for an excuse. What better excuse is there than old age? Each spring I say to myself I've got to make the starting staff. I've got to be as good, if not better, than anybody in camp. I never fall back on last year."

Although Spahn is starting his 19th year in the major leagues, all with the Braves, there isn't a better bet in baseball to win 20 games this season. He already has done it 13 times, more than any other left-hander in history.

"I see no reason why I shouldn't win 20 again," he said. "We all start even. Yet some guys win the most. The guys who do it are the guys who believe they can do it. First, of course, comes ability. Then, it's what you want. It comes back to the same thing—desire."

Spahn equaled his best victory total last year, although he missed six starts and pitched for a sixth-place team. He matched his 23-7 record of 1953, the Braves' first season in Milwaukee after the move from Boston.

Spahn has a special incentive for wanting to duplicate his 23-victory total of last year. He has won 350 games. The big milestone ahead of him is the National League record of 373 victories, shared by Christy Mathewson and Grover Cleveland Alexander.

"If I don't have anything to shoot for," Spahn said, "I get sort of an empty feeling. A guy's got to have a challenge to keep going."

Golf Tourney Is Scheduled

Approximately 100-125 golfers are expected to converge on the Big Spring Country Club today as the first city-wide partnership handicapped golf tournament of the year tees off in 18 holes of competition.

Tandems will be composed of one player with a handicap of 10 and under and his partner with a handicap of 11 or over. One-half of their combined handicap will be used in figuring the final score.

There will be a charge of $2.50 a player with golfers being able to choose their own partners and starting times.

Merchandise awards will go to the winners. If the field numbers as many as expected, a prize of approximately $25 will go to the winners.

Drills To Open

CANYON (AP)—West Texas State opens spring football drills Monday with 17 returning lettermen from last season's squad which finished with a 4-4-1 record.

Uniform Draft May Be Ahead

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Commissioner Ford Frick is touring the major league baseball camps, sounding out opinion on a uniform player draft roughly comparable to the pro football leagues' draft system.

When Frick completes his swing, he will attempt to draft a rule that will incorporate suggestions he has heard from general managers, owners and players.

"The purpose will be to help the lower clubs," said Frick in an impromptu interview in a dugout at the Philadelphia Phillies' training camp. "We must be sure that we do not deny any boy the right to negotiate or the right to advance freely."

"The club that drafts a player will have the right to negotiate for a limited time. What the limited time will be is the $64 question. There are many questions to be answered. But it can be done and it will be done somehow."

The rough draft of the plan would call for a draft of all high school graduates in May or June of their senior year. The number to be drafted still is to be decided. A subsequent draft of American Legion junior players and college boys would be held at a later date.

"Did you know that baseball now is paying the way for 180 boys in college?" said Frick. "These are boys who have signed professional contracts and are playing pro ball. They realize that they are ineligible for college sports but want to continue their education."

Under an agreement between the colleges and the majors, no club can sign an athlete who is playing college sports until after the close of his sophomore year. Eventually they make it the end of his senior.

Baseball subsidized a summer college league in Illinois last year and plans to back two similar leagues this year. With a $50,000 subsidy the pros take care of the team's deficits, uniforms and traveling expenses.

Tennis Team Sees Action

ODESSA — The Big Spring High School tennis team found the competition rough Friday in the tennis tournament in conjunction with the West Texas Track Relays in Odessa.

Molly Hefner registered one of the Steers' wins as she beat Terry Cowen of Pecos, 6-1 and 7-5, in the first round of the girls' class A singles. But she was sidelined in the second round by Janie Harris, Odessa, 6-1 and 6-1.

Kathy Baulch, playing in the class B singles, went the farthest of any local player as she won her first match by default over Emily Kincaid, Snyder; took the second round by beating Karen Burkhalter, Amarillo; Cap Rock, 6-2, 6-1; but lost in the third round action to second-seeded Helen Driver, El Paso Austin, 6-4 and 6-3.

The high schoolers see action again next weekend as they journey to Midland for another tournament, their third in three weeks.

The results:

BOYS' CLASS A SINGLES — Jesus Olivares, Yalata Bel Air, over Jim Butler, Big Spring, 6-2, 6-0; Jerry Manning, Lubbock, over David Marino, Big Spring, 6-1, 6-2.

BOYS' CLASS A DOUBLES — D. P. Bus-C. Dunn, Amarillo; Padgett, over Rick Price-Wayne Baird, Big Spring, 6-2, 6-2.

BOYS' CLASS B DOUBLES — Richard Hoy-Gene Asker, Crane, over Jimmy Deves-Jesse Rhyment, Big Spring, 6-4, 6-2; Sherry-Unger, El Paso, over Roger Kendrick-Mark Cook, Big Spring, 6-4, 6-0.

Howard's Future Uncertain In Game

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—play this season. Frank Howard, the Los Angeles Dodgers' 6-foot-7 home run slugger signed out of Ohio State for a $108,000 bonus in 1958, may be forced to quit baseball at the age of 27 because of "personal problems."

Howard told The Associated Press Friday it would be "virtually impossible" for him to physically that it would be virtually impossible for me to play. To be honest with you, I haven't even thought of baseball."

Howard said he canceled plans to visit Bavasi at the Los Angeles training camp in Vero Beach, Fla., next week because "Bavasi and I talked about the situation and there isn't much else to say."

"I told him that the way I feel now, I'm not in a good frame of mind to play baseball and if I tried I would be doing an injustice to the club and more so to myself," he added. "Bavasi told me to relax and get myself straightened out. He spoke as a friend, not as a general manager. That's the way he always has been. The Dodgers have been more than good to me, but the way I feel now I couldn't play for them or anyone else."

Asked directly if he felt he was through baseball for good, Howard replied: "I don't like to say so definitely, but things would have to take an awful big turn of events to permit me to play at least this year."

Howard, who has been working as a sales trainee for a Green Bay firm during the off-season, said he planned to confer with officials of the company next week about continuing on the job.

He broke into organized ball with the old Green Bay Blue Jays of the Three-I League. He and his wife, a Green Bay native, and their four children live in nearby De Pere.

Howard declined to disclose his "personal problems," but said "a combination of things hit me all at once."

Nicholson Unworried Over Record Whiffs

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Dave Nicholson is a man with a problem. He strikes out too much. In fact, he struck out so often last year with the Chicago White Sox that he set a new major league record of 175. It is not something to be proud of.

The new strike zone may have had nothing to do with it but it is a matter of record that three men broke the old American League record. Don Lock of Washington had 151 and Dick Stuart of Boston 144. Donn Clendenon of Pittsburgh set a National League high by striking out 136 times.

"It did bother me a lot Nicholson said at the White Sox training camp. "But it's all over now as far as I am concerned. You can't let a thing like that get you. Everybody knows I wasn't trying to strike out."

Fish Give Woman A Real Cold Eye

By JACK KEVER
Associated Press Writer
Mrs. Aleen Henninger has a fish story.

She opened her icebox recently to take out a 10-inch mudcat. The fish, wrapped in a plastic bag, gave Mrs. Henninger a cold eye and began flopping around.

Fishermen friends assured the Austin woman it wasn't too unusual. Such fish have been known to bury themselves in mud for a couple of years before rejuvenating themselves.

March 15-21 is National Wildlife Week. Several groups have scheduled programs. A conference on the conservation of natural resources in Texas is set for March 19-21 in Austin.

Delegates will make field trips to the Bastrop and Palmito State Parks and the Kerr Wildlife Management Area.

The Corsicana Junior Chamber of Commerce has scheduled its Fishing Fiesta for Navarro Mills Reservoir, 16 miles southwest of Corsicana, for May 29-31.

Each Texas game warden patrols an area larger than Rhode Island. On the average, a game warden has 1,300 square miles.

Park officials are preparing for up to 250,000 visitors at Texas' 58 state parks Easter Sunday. The largest crowds are expected at South Texas parks, such as Ben E. Riley Grande Park near Mission and Lake Corpus Christi State Park.

Lake Texoma fishermen will start looking for floating tackle boxes April 5. It's part of a contest to publicize the big fishing recreation spot. Each of the 24 tackle boxes will include the name of a prize which may be claimed by turning in the box.

To clear farm ponds of aquatic vegetation, begin work now, says fishery biologist James Wilcox. He suggests chemicals to control the vegetation, then fertilizing the ponds to increase

Wayland Places Five On Squad

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—Joan Crawford, leader of Nashville's three-time champions, was named most valuable player in the 36th Women's National AAU Basketball Tournament and headed the U. S. team picked for the world tournament at Lima, Peru, April 18 to May 4.

The 5-foot-11 forward-guard was named to the all-tournament team for the eighth time after her 22 points and 13 rebounds paced Nashville's 58-64 championship victory over Wayland College of Plainview, Tex., Friday.

John Head, coach of Nashville Business College, said he was not able to make the trip to Peru and the AAU named Harley Redin, coach of second place Wayland, as head coach of the U. S. team.

Wayland placed five and Nashville four on the team of 12. Topeka, Kan., 60-49 upset winner over Iowa Wesleyan for third place, had two women on the team and Salt Lake City one.

Steers Fail To Qualify

Here's the way Big Spring entries in the annual West Texas Relays at Odessa performed in preliminaries and semifinals this weekend:
Rickey Earle—Ran high hurdles in 16.1. Failed to qualify by .10 of a second.
Mike Alexander—Ran 100 in 10.9, failed to qualify.
Ronnie Banks—Ran 100 in 10.8, failed to qualify.
Johnny Hughes—Ran low hurdles in 20.2 to qualify for semifinals, then ran 21.5 and was eliminated. Hughes has an infected toe and was competing despite discomfort and pain.
Earle—Ran 22.2 low hurdles in prelims, failed to qualify.
Quartierme relay team—Clocked in 44.3, failed by .10 to qualify.
Mile relay team—Timed in 3:37.0, not good enough to qualify.
Banks—broad jumped 18.5, failed to qualify.
Coach R. C. Moore took nine athletes to the meet and remained over for the Saturday afternoon finals.

USED DODGE VALUE

No one knows for sure how much your Used Car will be worth six months from now, let alone two or three years from now... But, Mr. and Mrs. New Car Buyer, considering the average person drives 10,000 miles per year, at the end of three years, your Dodge would still have a factory written guarantee of two years or 20,000 miles left on the power train which consists of motor, transmission and rear end. Which car would be worth more to you, the one with the factory written guarantee or the one without?

DODGE HAS THE LARGEST SALES INCREASE BY FAR THAN ANY OTHER CAR! THIS MUST MEAN IT'S POPULAR!

A GREETING for his Irish grandparents, Bridget and Austin Quinlan, is being mailed by Micheal Anthony Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Graves. The Quinlans now live in Liverpool, Eng. Micheal was born in Texas two hours before St. Patrick's Day, and his mother received a box of fresh shamrock flown from Ireland for the occasion. He is learning some Irish dances but still prefers the very American Twist.

THE GAYETY of the Irish people is personified by Rev. Robert Joseph McDermott who can coax a lively jig or nostalgic ballad from the old piano in the rectory at St. Thomas Catholic Church. Rev. McDermott was born in Ballinagh, County Cavan, Ireland, and arrived in the United States in 1952. He is alone here and said he brought nothing with him but an accent. Four years ago, while touring Europe, he returned to Ireland for a three-month visit with relatives.

THE LUCK of the Irish follows Airman 3.C. Liam Anthony O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Brien of Dublin, County Dublin, Ireland. O'Brien traveled in Europe and Canada before coming to the United States in 1961 on a permanent visa. His family operates a wholesale business in Dublin which imports and exports fish but O'Brien is not sure that he will return there to work when he completes his service duty. On the flight line at Webb Air Force Base, he chats with Airman 3.C. John H. Dempsey, a native of the United States, who can boast next week of great-grandparents who lived in Ireland.

LOCAL LEPRECHAUNS find a friend in John Joseph Quigley, whose parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Quigley of Nenagh, County Tipperary, Ireland. They came to the United States in the early 1900's. In 1945, while stationed in Germany, Quigley spent eight days in Ireland and returned again in 1948 with his parents for a two months visit. In February he placed a telephone call to ask about an aunt who was ill. The only telephone in the village is located in the police barracks so it created a bit of excitement.

GREAT DAY FOR AN IRISHMAN

By JO BRIGHT

The saint dearest to all Irish people is St. Patrick, whose day is celebrated March 17. The year or country of his birth has never been discovered, but he is thought to have been the son of a man named Calpurnius, who was a magistrate of a Roman colony a little more than fifteen hundred years ago.

When 16 years old he was taken prisoner, transported to Ireland and there sold as a slave. He learned the customs and language of the Irish and became so fond of the people that after escaping, he returned years later as a Christian missionary.

Eventually they gave him their confidence and St. Patrick lived among them and at last induced most of the Irish to become Christians. He died a very old man on March 17, 465, and for his good works has become their patron saint.

There is probably no national holiday celebrated with more enthusiasm than St. Patrick's Day. Whether in Dublin, New York City — or Big Spring — every Irishman worth the wearing of the green will pause to salute the kind and gentle saint.

WHEN IRISHMEN get together, it's good to reminisce. Recalling the days of childhood in Ireland are Rev. James Delaney and Rev. Francis Beazley. Rev. Delaney, born in Belfast, County Antrim, came to Texas in 1937 and to Big Spring only last month. He has returned to his homeland on three different occasions. Rev. Beazley was born in Dublin, County Dublin, and will delay a holiday celebration until June when his brother, Alfred Beazley and a sister, Mrs. E. Jones, will arrive from Ireland for a visit.

Among past presidents of local Parent-Teacher Association units to be honored Thursday with a tea at the senior high school are Mrs. Bernard Fisher and Mrs. L. S. Patterson. Mrs. Fisher was the first president at West Ward (now Cedar Crest) in 1931-32 and served at the junior high school in 1936-37. Mrs. Patterson was the first president of South Ward in 1924-25 and was president of the senior high school unit from 1928 to 1930.

Furniture Discussed By Forum

Furniture refinishing was discussed by Mrs. Jimmy Morehead at the Thursday meeting of the Junior Woman's Forum in the Community Room at First Federal Savings and Loan Association building. Hostesses were Mrs. Don Lovelady and Mrs. Ronald Howard. Mrs. Wayne Henry, project chairman, reported on the sewing lessons being given by members at the Salvation Army. Each girl in these classes is making a skirt with material donated by the club. Singer Sewing Machine Co. is providing machines for the project. A question and answer period was led by Mrs. Morehead, and Mrs. Don Wiley reported on the card party held Saturday evening at Cosden Country Club. Mrs. Whitey Reynolds, Sweetwater, was a guest.

Lubbock Resident Visits Relatives

Mrs. O. C. Curtis and her two grandchildren, Tommy and Billy, of Lubbock are visiting here with her sisters, Mrs. Opal Petty, 601 E. 15th, and Mrs. Bertie Lee Turk. Also, Mrs. Curtis will be with her father, S. P. Petty Sr.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Halbrook, 1111 Wood St., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn, to M. W. (Bill) Horne, son of Mrs. Bill Horne, 1409 Eleventh Place, and the late Mr. Horne. The couple plans to be married June 13, in the First Presbyterian Church with Dr. R. Gage Lloyd officiating.

L. L. Pattons Honored

Capt. and Mrs. L. L. Patton who will be moving soon to Fort Worth were complimented at several farewell affairs during the past week. Capt. Patton is retiring from the Air Force. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dickson were the host couples for a dinner party Tuesday evening prior to the concert. Five couples presented a gift of linen to the Pattons and the group attended the concert together. A couple's bridge group honored the Pattons Thursday evening at a dinner held in the Holiday Inn. Host couples were Capt. and Mrs. Robert Wray, Capt. and Mrs. William McCallum and Capt. and Mrs. John Greud. Eight couples presented Capt. and Mrs. Patton with an address book. The Pattons will be residing in Fort Worth at 3572 Bellaire Drive North.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

If you are an admirer of DR. NORMAN VINCENT PEALE you will enjoy the movie, "One Man's Way." Don Murray plays the role of the young man who was called to the ministry and answered the call vigorously. Mr. Murray does a good work, being in the greater number of scenes and his delivery of Dr. Peale's inspiring sermons is forceful. It will be hard for me not to think of Dr. Peale without putting him into Don Murray's image but the words will always be placed with the right one - It's almost two hours of movie but it is a story with much humor, some tears and many good sermons.

Following eye surgery performed there last Tuesday, The REV. and MRS. DON HUNGERFORD talked to her Friday by telephone and she told them she was able to be up on Wednesday.

MR. and MRS. A. L. TAMPLIN are in Waco this weekend to visit their daughter, Janie, who is a new Athenian pledge. They planned to attend the annual Spring Sing at Baylor University.

MR. and MRS. WAYLAND YATES of Abilene are here for a visit with friends and for Mr. Yates to have medical checkups.

When we learned that MRS. CLARENCE EMERICK was visiting here from Wellston, Okla., she had not been subjected to the sandy blow of Friday afternoon. Up to that time her daughter, MRS. ADRIAN RANDLE, reported that in the week Mrs. Emerick had been here the wind hadn't appeared to have bothered her any. In fact, the Oklahoman was enjoying our warm weather. In the next two weeks she plans to spend here with the Randles perhaps we will treat her to some of our really pretty West Texas spring days.

MR. and MRS. RELERCE JONES have returned from Bay City where they visited their daughter and son-in-law and children, MR. and MRS. ART DODDS, KERRIE and DENNIS. He is music and youth director for the First Baptist Church in Bay City. Not only spring but seemingly summer has arrived in the southeast part of the state, said Mrs. Jones. En route home she lost her wrist watch in an unusual manner. She put her arm out of the car as they were traveling down the highway and the wind whipped it off, and that was the last they ever saw of her watch.

The MARVIN MILLERS who make their home in Dallas but keep their house here at 511 Hillside, plan to spend several days here this week.

Gardeners Study Soil

General garden preparation was the program study presented by Mrs. J. R. Tonn Wednesday at the Planters Garden Club meeting. Mrs. J. W. Trantham, 1319 Stadium, was hostess.

Mrs. Tonn specified that spading and soil preparation were necessary for proper plant production and noted that bulb flowers require specific fertilization.

An oriental arrangement of irises centered the refreshment table where 12 members were served. Mrs. Byron Smith and Mrs. J. H. Talton became new members.

The next meeting will be held April 8 at the home of Mrs. J. O. Murphy, 700 E. 12th.

Panel Discussion Heard At Circle

Mrs. Johnny Windham was a program moderator of the study, "In Freedom's Holy Light," at the Thursday meeting of the Evening Circle of the First Baptist Church. Mrs. Armour Long, 606 Scurry, was hostess at the salad supper.

Assisting Mrs. Windham with the panel study were Mrs. L. T. Hargrove, Mrs. F. C. Gambill, Mrs. Omer Williams and Mrs. Ruby Billings. Mrs. Gambill discussed "Face Today's World." The next meeting will be April 9.

MR. AND MRS. C. R. FRENEAUX, MARK, TODD AND SCOTT

Freneau Family Will Be Good Neighbor

BY JO BRIGHT
Mr. and Mrs. C. R. (Chuck) Freneau, newcomers who reside at 1723 Purdie are young, active and vitally interested in many things. They should be a goldmine of companionship for neighbors or acquaintances who like to golf, bowl, play bridge or gather around the piano for informal music sessions.

"I can't brag a bit about my golfing," said Freneau modestly, "but I've been fortunate enough to bowl on some winning league teams."

Mr. and Mrs. Freneau and their children, Scott, 6, Mark, 4, and Todd, 2, formerly lived in Temple, moving here 1 a month when he accepted the position of canteen officer at the Veteran's Administration Hospital.

She is the former Evelyn Forman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Forman of Baker, La. Baker is near Baton Rouge where Freneau was born and reared. The couple met when both served as officers in a Methodist Youth Fellowship there. They began dating while students—she at Baker High School and he at Istrouma High School in Baton Rouge.

Both attended Centenary College at Shreveport, La., and were graduated from there in 1955. Freneau received a BS degree in commerce with a major in business administration and was active in the college's intramural sports program and Methodist Student Movement.

Mrs. Freneau earned a BA degree in applied music with a major in piano. She was a member of Phi Beta, national music and drama sorority; Alpha Chi, national scholastic fraternity, the college choir and the Methodist Student Movement.

They were married during the junior year at college. Following graduation, they moved to Baton Rouge where he was an associate with the J. C. Penny Co. and she worked as choir director and educational assistant in a Methodist church. He was transferred to Marietta, Ga., where they lived for four years before he joined the Veteran's Canteen Service, an independent branch of the Veteran's Administration. He spent seven months at the hospital in Memphis, Tenn., before becoming assistant canteen officer in Temple. The family lived there for 16 months.

"Our service at the hospital is offered primarily to benefit the patient but is also a convenience for the staff and visitors," explained Freneau. The canteen serves snacks or full meals.

Club Takes Field Trip

The Child Study Club heard a program on child psychology presented by W. R. Dawes, school principal, when it visited the Marcy Elementary school Wednesday.

"Children are constantly testing reality," said Dawes. Adult reactions sometimes cause a child to develop strong negative feelings that may block areas of learning.

Mrs. Tommy Hubbard was hostess for the luncheon meeting at the school cafeteria, and 13 members were present. Mrs. Glenn Faison was welcomed as a new member.

The next meeting will be in the R. F. Polk home at 2810 Coronado on April 8.

Lubbock Visitors

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ferguson of Lubbock and their son, Billy, who is stationed in San Diego, Calif. with the Navy, were guests of the Altis Clemmers Tuesday and Wednesday.

Duties Set For March At Meeting

Members who will carry out the month's duties of the Peggy Potter Circle of St. Paul Presbyterian Church were appointed by Mrs. Birt Allison at the Thursday meeting. They are Mrs. Jan Tally, Mrs. Marshall Fields, Mrs. Al Seddon, Mrs. Mrs. Floyd McNeill and Mrs. Jerry Langston.

Mrs. Allison announced the plans for the District meeting of the Presbyterian women to be held on April 1 at the First Presbyterian Church, Coahoma, with registration starting at 9:30 a.m.

The Bible study from the Psalms with the topic, "Individual Laments" was directed by Mrs. Fields. Mrs. John Arnold presented the subject, "Evidences of God's Presence" from Henry T. Close's book, "Reasons for Our Faith." The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Seddon. Mrs. McNeill was hostess.

Bridal Attendants Honored At Affair

Bridesmaids of Miss Dorinda Kay Medford were honored at a dinner held in the Ponderosa Restaurant Thursday evening. The bride-elect's selected colors of pastel yellow, blue, pink and green were used in an arrangement of carnations on the table. Miss Medford presented gifts to her attendants, Peggy Lewis, Sena Goodlett, Alice Long and Mrs. Vance Jones.

County Secretaries Study Psychology

A "Workshop in Human Relations" was presented to the Howard County Legal Secretaries Association at a regular meeting of the organization Thursday evening in the Flame Roof of Pioneer Natural Gas Company. Mrs. Camille Patterson was chairman of the psychology workshop, which ended a series of programs relating to business and personal psychology.

Mrs. Don Sawyer presided over the business portion of the meeting. Among other topics of discussion were plans for attending the state convention to be held at Midland April 24-26. Mrs. Don Sawyer, Mrs. Joe Sharpnack and Mrs. Billy Flynn were elected delegates to the convention, with Mrs. Will Pharr, Mrs. Camille Patterson and Mrs. Bob Stewart to serve as alternates.

Groundwork was laid for Legal Secretaries Week in Big Spring, tentatively set for the first week in May. Activities of the week will be concluded by a banquet honoring the Legal Secretary of the Year and Boss of the Year. A nominating committee was also appointed to select a slate of nominees in connection with election of officers at the April meeting.

Mrs. Winnie Wood, member of the local chapter and candidate

MRS. JAMES SPENRATH

Couple Recites Vows In Evening Ceremony

Miss Jan Stockton and James Spenrath pledged wedding vows at 7 o'clock Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Darrell Robinson, pastor of Berea Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stockton, Sterling City Rt., and Mr. and Mrs. Erno Spenrath of Sisterdale are parents of the bridegroom.

The arched candelabra centering the altar held 15 lighted tapers and was flanked by smaller candelabra banked with emerald fern. The arch was centered with a sunburst arrangement of white gladioli and chrysanthemums, and small ferns bordered the altar rail. Pews were marked with white satin bows.

Miss Dixie Todd, organist, played the traditional wedding selections and accompanied Mrs. Weldon Bryson as she sang "Every Step of The Way."

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her formal gown of peau de soie was styled with slim sheath skirt, slit at the sides, and topped with a belted knee-length overskirt. The bodice featured a bolero overblouse of lace styled with jewel neckline and fitted sleeves ending in petal points over the wrists. Matching lace appliques bordered the edge of the overskirt. Her bouffant, waist-length veil fell from a crown of petals with lace appliques.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white gladioli tied in white satin picot.

candelabra entwined with white gladioli, maline and showered with white satin streamers. On the register table, a single white candle was tied with wedding bells and white picot.

The white, three-tiered cake was topped with frosted wedding bells and lily of the valley. Guests were registered by Miss Bettye Conger of Forsan.

Jerome Spenrath served his brother as best man. Grooms-men were Charles Neeb, Cross Plains, and Chris Behrends of Luckenbach. Ushers were David Spenrath, Glenn Schwartz and Montey Neeb.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlor. Guests were greeted by the bridal couple, the parents and feminine attendants.

Centering the refreshment table was a five branched silver

Upon returning from a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., the couple will reside in Waco.

The bride is a sophomore at Texas Technological College and will transfer to Baylor University. The bridegroom was graduated from Texas Technological College with a BS degree in entomology. He received a commission as a second lieutenant in the Air Force in January and is stationed at James Connolly Air Force Base at Waco.

You will not want to miss the Hi and Eye Coffee March 25 at 10 a.m. Hostesses are wives of Class 65-D. A surprise mixer is planned. Come out to the Officers Club to say "Hello."
Members of the OWC presented Mrs. L. L. Patton with a silver coffee and tea service and footed tray, at a coffee Friday morning in the VIP room of the Officers Club. The gift was given in appreciation for Carol's fine job as OWC president the past 10 months. Capt. and Mrs. Patton will leave Monday for Fort Worth where their address will be 3572 Bellaire Drive North.

Word received from Lt. and Mrs. Neal Reavely in Montgomery, Ala., tells how the measles, tonsillitis, and numerous colds have kept the family pretty well isolated while Neal attends SOS classes. Niki and the children are traveling with her family to their home in Florida, where she will visit for the first time in 2½ years. After Neal graduates, a trip to the World's Fair and Michigan is on their itinerary, before returning to Webb and their many friends.

Capt. and Mrs. Tom McDaniels and children, have recently returned from a visit with both their families in Highland Springs, Va., near Richmond. In Norfolk, they visited Shirley's sister and brother-in-law who is in the Navy. Unlike most vacationers, the McDaniels returned to their new quarters at 119-A Kelly Circle where they had barely settled before going on leave.

If you should need anything from the Wives Club supply closet, please contact Mrs. Gary Heartsill, who holds the key at 64 Chanute.

Art Purchasers

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Rhode (right) of Colorado City admire their new acquisition, "Young Girl," by the famous Southwest sculptor, John Tatschl. With them is Louise Giannone, prominent member of the Midland Art Association. The Rhodes' purchase was made at the new Baker Collector Gallery, which opened last week in Midland, and stresses works by Southwestern artists.

ard B. Tovrea honored her with a bridge party at the Officers Club Monday evening. An engraved photo "friendship" album was presented by the hostesses, who know Lorna's love for scrapbook type projects. To start the album, pictures were taken of the hostesses and guests before a shamrock studded backdrop. Also, she received a corsage of white Fujiumums. After enjoying a cremode menthe parfait, the guests played bridge with high honors going to Mrs. W. R. Brown, second high to Mrs. Tim Thomas, and travel to Mrs. E. C. Huffines. Hostesses were Mrs. Art Warren, Mrs. Sam Colquitt, Mrs. H. B. Blake, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. John Kubin, Mrs. R. L. Sandner and Mrs. John Dolan. The Tovrea's will leave for a new assignment in France the end of this month, after Capt. Tovrea returns from Survival School.

Mrs. J. E. Short, Mrs. Art Yarrington, Mrs. Ivan Crane and Mrs. Richard Sullivan hosted a recent morning turnabout baby shower. The guests brought the gifts unwrapped to admire, then wrapped them and sent them off to the honored recipients, Mrs. Lura Cunningham and her son, Kenneth Allen Jr., born in January. They are residing in Columbus, Ohio. The monthly coffee for 331st wives was held Tuesday morning at the Officers Club, hosted by Mrs. J. J. Rattle and Mrs. Willard Mason. A representative from the fire chief's office, Mr. Highley, spoke on fire prevention and fire safety in the home. Elections were held and the following will assume office next month: Mrs. Warren E. Wood, chairman; Mrs. M. E. Buyn, treasurer; Mrs. Tom Parent-Lew, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Carl Blough, spotter; and Mrs. Robert Loeffler and Mrs. R. B. Durant, callers. A guest, Mrs. Margaret McCowan of Grand Junction, Colo., was introduced as the mother of Mrs. Jack Price.

MRS. JIMMY LUTHER MAYS

Miss Medford Weds Jimmy Luther Mays

Miss Dorinda Kay Medford became the bride of Jimmy Luther Mays Saturday evening in a double ring ceremony performed at the Baptist Temple Church by the Rev. James A. Puckett.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy E. Medford, 1801 Morrison Drive, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Romy L. Mays, Rt. 1, Big Spring.

Miss Medford was accompanied by her father down a bridal aisle marked with white satin ribbon and was presented to the bridegroom at the altar. The bride wore a white tulle gown with a fitted bodice and long sleeves ending in petal points. The skirt of white peau de soie had an apron overlay of lace that tapered to a chapel train in the back. A large peau de soie bow accented the back of the gown. Her waist-length veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of tiny seed pearls and crystal drops.

The bride carried a hand-styled bouquet shaped in a Hogarth curve fashioned of feathered white chrysanthemums and topped with a white orchid. She wore the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue and birthdate pennies in her shoes.

Attendants: Miss Peggy Lewis, maid of honor, was attired in a pastel yellow dress of peau de soie styled with a scooped neckline and semi-bellied skirt. A fabric rose accented the waist. She carried single stems of white gladioli tied with contrasting pastel ribbons. The bridesmaids were similarly attired with Miss Sena Goodlett in pastel blue, Mrs. Alice Long in pastel pink, and Mrs. Vance Jones in pastel green. They carried stemmed gladioli identical to the maid of honor's bouquet. Attendant's hats were circlets of matching peau de soie attached to nose-length veils of tulle.

A white lace basket of rose petals was carried by Carol Puckett who was gowned in pink and wore a circlet of pink carnations in her hair. Royce D. Aberegg, Coahoma, was best man and groomsmen were Donnie Reid and Bill Turner of Coahoma and Stanley Haney, Ushers were Tommy Aberegg, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Jack Orr, Charles Dunnam and Vance Jones.

For a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a two-piece pastel blue suit with white patent accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside at 1502-B Lincoln Avenue, Big Spring.

The bride attended Big Spring schools where she was a member of Future Homemakers of America and various school clubs. She is now employed at the First National Bank. Mays attended Coahoma schools and was a member of Future Farmers of America. He is affiliated with Welcome Well Service, Coahoma.

Reception: Guests were received by the bride and groom, the parents, and female attendants in the reception hall at the church. House party members were Mrs. A. D. Harmon, Mrs. Wade Choate, Mrs. Milton Barnett, Mrs. E. L. White, Mrs. T. J. Compton, Mrs. Alvah Minnick, Mrs. Jack Tayrien, Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Mrs. Garland Sanders, Mrs. Felix Jarratt, Mrs. Helen Fields, Mrs. Leiland Graves and Mrs. Billy Whittington.

Refreshments were served to 12 members. The next meeting will be April 9 in the home of Mrs. S. J. Kamm.

Mrs. Ruler Jones, president, introduced Betty McCann who sang "How Great Thou Art." Mrs. Billy Smith gave the devotion.

... ANNIVERSARY LETTER OF APPRECIATION ...

Mr. & Mrs. Valued Customer
City and Area,
Big Spring, Texas

March 15, 1964

Dear Customer:

We, Bill & Lucille Jay, and the crew at THE CARPET STORE, are observing our 5th anniversary in business.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone of our customers, for your confidence, loyalty, and patronage you have shown us during these 5 years in the carpet business.

Also, we want to thank our many satisfied customers who have purchased beautiful carpet from us for the second and third time, which assures you that it pays to buy from a speciality store, where you receive quality, value, and expert service, because carpet alone is what we concentrate on from day to day. We are proud to serve the people of Big Spring with a carpet speciality store.

Let us say thanks again for the opportunity to serve you and count YOU among our valued customers, whom we feel are a part of our business. We are at your service for any free interior decorating advice.

May we serve you during the many years to come.

Respectfully,
Bill & Lou Jay

Friendship Class Meets Thursday

A report on a needy family was given by Mrs. Charles Sweeney at the Thursday meeting of the Friendship Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church. Mrs. T. H. McCann was hostess.

Mrs. Ruler Jones, president, introduced Betty McCann who sang "How Great Thou Art." Mrs. Billy Smith gave the devotion.

Refreshments were served to 12 members. The next meeting will be April 9 in the home of Mrs. S. J. Kamm.

P-TA Sees Scouting Program

The 52nd birthday of the Girl Scouts was observed at the Thursday meeting of College Heights Parent-Teacher Association. Six Scouts from Troop No. 205 presented the colors and gave the Girl Scout pledge.

For the devotion Mrs. Mairi McFaul presented excerpts from the book, "The Hope of Tomorrow."

Mrs. C. L. McClendon and Mrs. W. E. Harris, Spanish teachers for the local elementary schools, introduced 13 fourth grade students who presented a program of songs and speeches entirely in the Spanish language.

New officers elected were Mrs. Floyd Williams, president; Mrs. A. D. Faulk, vice president; Mrs. C. J. Chapman, secretary; and Mrs. McFaul, treasurer.

Members were reminded of the tea scheduled March 19 in the senior high school cafeteria from 4:30 to 6 p.m. The spring conference will be held April 24 in the Baker Hotel at Sweetwater.

The speaker for the April 9 meeting will be Miss Arah Phillips who will show films of a recent European tour.

Room count was won by Mrs. Harvey Clay's class.

Miss Gibbs Marries Gary E. McDaniel

Miss Susan Gibbs and Gary E. McDaniel were united in marriage Saturday evening in a double-ring ceremony performed at the College Baptist Church. The Rev. Byron Orand read the nuptial rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gibbs, 1404 Birdwell. Mr. and Mrs. Ronnell McDaniel of Garden City are parents of the bridegroom.

The vows were pledged before an altar where a sunburst arrangement of white stock and gladioli was flanked by candelabra and green palms.

Mrs. Don Richardson, organist, accompanied Mrs. Gorman Rainey as she sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta styled with rolled collar that came to a V at the back. The gown featured a full, gathered skirt and long, fitted sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was secured by a pillbox crown encrusted with seed pearls.

The bridal bouquet was formed of a white orchid encircled with feathered carnations and tied with white satin bridal ribbon.

ATTENDANTS
The bridegroom's sister, Miss Gail McDaniel of Garden City, was the maid of honor and Miss Elice Gibbs, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid. Both carried nosegays of white gladioli tied with white satin ribbon. The flower girl was Cindy Gibbs, niece of the bride.

Jimmy Langson served as best man, the groomsmen were Richie Reynolds and Steve Brooks and Terry Strange were ushers. Lighting the altar tapers was Roy Lee McDaniel, brother of the bridegroom.

RECEPTION
The reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Parents of the bride and bridegroom and the feminine attendants assisted them in greeting guests.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cutwork cloth over blue linen and was centered with an arrangement of white stock and gladioli in a crystal bowl. Flanking the centerpiece were candles in holders. Also, other appointments were of crystal. The white, three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

MRS. GARY E. MCDANIEL

Guests were registered by Miss Linda Carter. Members of the house party were Mr. and Mrs. Guinette Gibbs, Mrs. L. L. Marshall and Mrs. J. T. Dunnam.

WEDDING TRIP
For traveling to Corpus Christi, the bride wore a two-piece suit of pink and white knit with a matching pink blouse. Her accessories were of white alligator, and her corsage was the orchid from the bridal bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Big Spring High School, where she was secretary of the DE Club, and attended Howard County Junior College. She is a member of the Howard County Legal Secretaries Association.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Garden City High School. He was vice president of the freshman class at Howard County Junior College and attended Texas Technological College.

TFWC Head Issues Convention Call

The official call to the 28th annual convention of the Western District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, has been issued by the president, Mrs. O. B. Storie, of Andrews. The convention will be held Tuesday and Wednesday at the Lincoln Hotel in Odessa.

This district covers all of West Texas, and Mrs. Lonnie Coker and Mrs. Richard Patterson of Big Spring will take part on the program. The featured speaker will be Mrs. A. T. Carleton, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. All of the clubs in this group are affiliated with the GFWC, the largest group of organized women in the world. There are 11,000,000 members in 15,500 clubs in the United States and in 54 other countries. Mrs. T. R. Barnes is district public relations chairman.

MRS. P. B. STORIE

will be presented, and Mrs. Coker will preside as the Hallmark art contest winner is named. Also, the outstanding club program will be announced. Standing committee reports will be heard in the afternoon, and a social hour will begin at 3:30 p.m.

Local women reporting plans to attend the convention are Mrs. Bill Draper, Mrs. E. C. Smith, Mrs. J. B. Redden, Mrs. Ed Corson, Mrs. Ernest Welch, Mrs. Max Green and Mrs. George Bass, all of the Progressive Woman's Forum.

Also, from the Spoudazo Fora Study Club, will be Mrs. W. W. Lansing, Mrs. Bill Coleman, Mrs. James C. Jones and Mrs. Richard Patterson.

Representing the Modern Woman's Forum will be Mrs. C. W. Parmenter, Mrs. A. C. Bass, Mrs. T. C. Adams and Mrs. J. P. Dodge.

Members attending from the Woman's Forum will be Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. Lonnie Coker, Mrs. Charles Sweeney, Mrs. Cecil McDonald and Mrs. Jack Y. Smith.

HD Agent Evaluates Nutrition

Mrs. Delaine Crawford, home demonstration agent, outlined meal planning and food for fitness at the Thursday morning meeting of the Progressive Woman's Forum.

Mrs. J. R. Redden, Mrs. Joe Ward and Mrs. Jesse Jackson were hostesses at the session held in the Community Room of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association building.

The club voted to donate articles of clothing to four patients in the "Operation Hope" project at the Big Spring State Hospital. Mrs. Bill Draper, president, named delegates who will attend the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs district convention in Odessa March 17-18. Ten members were present.

The next meeting will be April 9 in the home of Mrs. Jackson, 616 Colgate.

WSCS Session Set In March

Delegates from the local Methodist churches will be attending the twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service to be held in Plainview March 17-18.

From the Big Spring First Methodist Church, delegates will be Mrs. H. H. Stephens and Mrs. W. A. Laswell. Also, Mrs. Merle Stewart and Mrs. Robert Hill will attend.

Wesley Methodist Church delegates are Mrs. S. L. Thurman and Mrs. W. D. Lovelace. Attending one day of the session will be Mrs. Marshall Day, Mrs. Jerry Allen, Mrs. J. B. Hollis, Mrs. Jim Sharp, Mrs. Abbe Anderson and Mrs. W. B. Morris.

Kentwood Methodist Church delegates are Mrs. Henry Salley and Mrs. Raymond Hamby.

Mrs. M. L. Hines, conference president, will open the meeting March 17 at the First Methodist Church in the morning and present the conference message following a luncheon. Committee reports and election of officers will be held during the first day.

Special music will be presented throughout the session with

Class 65-F At Webb Extended Welcome

By BARBARA HORNING

Welcome to Class 65-F! The 43 students reported in at Webb on Monday with 17 from ROTC units, 17 from OTS, one from OCS, four from the Air Force Academy, two from the National Guard and two Aviation Cadets. There are 18 bachelors in the class. Capt. Lewis Vale, the class officer training instructor, said they would begin flying training at the end of the month.

Captain Don Heiliger is the class commander. He and his wife, Carol, and their three children, James, Barrie and Leslie, live in the College Park Addition. The Heiliger's home was originally Madison, Wis., and they were last stationed at Mather AFB in Sacramento. The Heiliger's are both interested in classical music. She plays the violin and he does a lot of tape recording. They also enjoy ceramics and tennis.

Best wishes to Lt. L. A. Rachuy who is recuperating from surgery in Wilford Hall Hospital at Lackland AFB. Lt. Rachuy should be home soon and the wives of Class 65-E are keeping his wife busy until he returns. Wednesday evening, she was a dinner guest of Capt. and Mrs. David Glasser and Thursday evening, she and Mrs. Glasser were guests of Lt. and Mrs. K. L. Monroe. Mrs. Ray Rider joined them later for bridge.

Class 64-F wives met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Rich Yorick to discuss graduation plans. Class 64-F will bid farewell at the Hi and Bye Coffee on Wednesday, March 25 and they will graduate the next day. The wives of Class 64-G met Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Harry Fenstead for their monthly meeting. They are planning a dinner to celebrate graduation in May. Coffee, punch and baked goods were served.

Monday night, the wives of Class 65-E met at the home of Mrs. John Perdue for their monthly meeting. Mrs. Darrell Pyle assisted in serving green and white cupcakes and green punch in keeping with the St. Patrick's Day theme.

Weekend guests of Lt. and Mrs. Wayman Curry were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCarty, and their daughter, Lynda, of Henley, Lt. and Mrs. Darrell Pyle were recently visited by his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Pyle from Compton, Calif.

Class 65-E attended their reception at the Officers Club last Saturday evening. Preceding the reception, Lt. and Mrs. William Thompson entertained with a social hour and afterwards, Lt. and Mrs. George Mitchell gave a party.

Be sure and come to slim-nastics Tuesday morning in the base gym! Important business will be discussed.

Master's Winners Announced

The monthly Master's Point bridge game was held Thursday afternoon at the officer's club at Webb Air Force Base. Ten tables were in play.

North-south winners were Mrs. E. L. Powell and Mrs. Adolph Swartz, first; Mrs. Ron Kibler and Mrs. John Stone, second; Mrs. Elmo Wasson and Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow, third; and Mrs. J. J. Havens and Mrs. Ray McMahan, fourth.

East-West winners were Capt. Ron Kibler and Mrs. George C. Baird, first; Mrs. D. A. Brazel and Mrs. Joe Hayden, second; Mrs. Wally Slate and Mrs. Gerald Harris tied for third with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Riley.

School Spelling Champs Compete In County Bee

The seventeen spelling champions from as many schools who will compete in the Second Annual Howard County (Herald) Spelling Bee, have one week in which to complete their study of the official spelling book.

The county bee will get under way at 10 a.m. March 21 in the Howard County Junior College Auditorium. Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, member of the HCJC faculty, who served in the first County Bee as pronouncer, has agreed to fill that role this year.

The judges will be announced shortly.

The same format used in the first bee will be followed this year. The young spellers from each school will be welcomed at 10 a.m. Champions selected by the schools will be registered and slated for competition. Alternates will be allowed to participate where it is reported the champion cannot take part.

Words to be spelled are those in the official "Words of Champions." As last year, a tape recorder will be used to check on any speller's version of a word, if a question arises as to whether it was properly spelled. The Herald will be host to the young spellers and the judges at a luncheon in the HCJC Student Union after the bee is completed.

The champion of the bee will be presented a plaque, and will also get an expense paid trip to Lubbock to compete in the Regional Spelling Bee. This event, sponsored by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, will be April 11. At this regional bee, the Howard County champion will test his skill against the county champions from 22 other counties.

The winner of the regional bee wins a trip to Washington, D.C., in June at which he will have a chance to try for the national spelling championship.

The champions the Howard County winner will compete against are "rom Andrews, Bailey, Borden, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Dickens, Ector, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hockley, King, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Midland, Mitchell, Scurry, Terry, and Yoakum counties.

Yeargin Ending Long AF Career

An Air Force career of 21 years, including a four-and-a-half-year stay at Webb Air Force Base, comes to an end March 31 for one of Webb's well-known officers, Lt. Col. Benjamin F. Yeargin.

He and his wife, Marty, and their son, Neil, 6, will be leaving for Phoenix to establish their home. The Yeargins have been prominently identified in many military-civilian activities.

LT. COL. BEN F. YEARGIN

Col. Yeargin has been serving as commander of the 3561st Pilot Training Squadron, and prior to that command had been assistant operations officer and operations officer.

Col. Yeargin has spent six years with the Air Force overseas. He was in England, France and Belgium during World War II, had a two-year tour in Alaska, and subsequently three years in France and Germany before coming to Webb.

He came into the Air Corps in August, 1942, and after commissioning was an instructor pilot at Fort Meyers, Fla. He went to England in 1944 with the 404th Fighter Group, piloting a P-47.

Later he went to Williams Field, Ariz., where in 1946 first jets—the F-80—were assigned, and Yeargin was an original member of the Acrojets, an aerial demonstration team. He had subsequent duty at Nellis AFB, Nevada, aiding in the reactivation of that installation; and at Ladd AFB and Elmendorf AFB in Alaska.

He completed a six-months course at the Air Command and Staff School at Maxwell AFB, Alabama, was returned to Arizona (Luke AFB) and then to France and Germany. There he was a standardization officer, then air liaison officer to the U.S. Army VII Corps at Stuttgart. After 13 months with the Army where he received the Army Commendation Medal, he became commander of forward operating location of the 49th Tactical Fighter Wing, based at Spanghlem, Germany. He came from there to Webb in September, 1959.

Col. Yeargin has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with 14 oak leaf clusters.

Days At Old Moore School To Be Relived At Reunion

Next Sunday the second annual Moore School Reunion will be held at the City Park, and old timers are preparing for plenty of talk and food.

The reunion period stretches from 1906 to 1949, when the old school building burned. A lot of memories were packed into those four and a half decades, and they will be relived again.

Land for the school grounds was given by the late A. K. Merrick, who served as a trustee for many years. All 10 of his children attended the school, and three of his daughters later taught there. They are Lillie (Mrs. H. G. Hill), Mrs. Faye Leatherwood, and Mattie Lou (the late Mrs. Bob Schermerhorn).

Miss Bertha Willis served as the lone teacher at the start, presiding over 15 scholastics. Several of those first students plan to be present at the reunion.

During the 43 years the school was active, 61 teachers served there, 18 of whom had attended the school previously. Several business and professional people in Big Spring came out of the school. Thirty-three men served as trustees of the school. By 1908 the school required two teachers, and in 1921 it became a three-teacher school, in 1934 a four-teacher school, and in 1935 a five-teacher school. Later the Moore district became a part of the Big Spring district.

W. F. (Frank) Cook, who was a teacher at Moore for six years, will be memorialized. So will J. W. Payne, Joe Lusk and Joe Burchett, young men who gave their lives in World War II.

As in the olden days, families will come with loaded picnic baskets. Afterwards there will be a program arranged by Miss Twila Lomax, and Miss Arab Phillips will cite some of the highlights of the school. Johnny Miller, president, is heading up arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Lee Castle, secretary. Miller said that those who attended the first school would be given special recognition. In case of inclement weather the reunion will be held at the IOOE Hall, 10th and Magnolia.

A Devotional For The Day

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. (Psalms 103:2.)
PRAYER: Realizing, dear Lord, what Thou hast done for us, we are ashamed for not being grateful as we ought. Forgive us our ingratitude. We would offer Thee our lives in pure gratitude. Enter Thou into our hearts forever. In Thy name. Amen.
(From the 'Upper Room')

An Incisive Approach

Almost everything begins with an idea, hence a recent session arranged by the Industrial committee of the Chamber of Commerce strikes us as a perceptive approach to the pressing problem of how to develop or attract more industry.

There was nothing formal about this session, which fit the format of management brain-storming to generate creative ideas. The committee invited in many of our most talented technical minds and tossed out the question to chew upon.

Out of this came several suggestions, some of them examined more in detail, some of them punctured polately. The important thing, however, was that some of our best minds were looking creatively at a real problem.

This not need end in this particular realm. Perhaps there might be parallel explorations into the areas of finance, locations, training, and several other facets of the total picture.

No one need expect 90-day miracles, for industrial growth is often a slow and laborious process. We have enjoyed excellent progress in the past; we are experiencing some progress now; and with an intelligent approach, we can have our share of future development.

Bumpy Situation

When time comes to give final consideration to the city budget, we suggest that it might be well to see if there are funds available for replacing some downtown street surface.

It is true that much of this area was given a resurfacing not so many years ago. Equally true it is that something went wrong with at least part of this job, possibly from a too-rich mixture. Whatever the reason, the fact is that some of the streets are bumpy enough to be almost dangerous. Certainly they are bad enough to constitute a bad advertisement for our town.

Maybe a program for replacing a block or two a year would provide a good remedy for this situation.

The Spotlight On Scranton

WASHINGTON — The Republicans today are, curiously enough, in just the same plight in which the Democrats found themselves in 1952.

Another proof of this came in the New Hampshire primary. It pointed the way not to a candidate capable of rallying the divided ranks but to another non-candidate. There seems to be only one conclusion to draw from this — the party must turn at San Francisco in July to the one figure unscarred and unflinched.

THAT IS, obviously, Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania. If Governor Scranton is unknown or relatively unknown, this is a condition which can be readily remedied by the techniques of mass communication. If only because his views on the major issues are to a large extent unknown he is acceptable to both the moderate and the right wings of the party.

The last cannot be said of Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. His was the conspicuous role of engineering the nomination of Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952. Thereby Robert A. Taft failed of his lifelong goal and the faithful Taftites have never forgotten the engineers of this coup.

SCRANTON MAY be genuinely reluctant to run for President. And he can cite good reasons, among them the disarray and division within his own party and the presence in the White House of a formidable incumbent with a high standing in the country and few evident liabilities. But, just as in the case of Stevenson, if his party taps him Scranton cannot say no.

There is one important difference this time. In 1952 the Democrats had a strong national leader in President Harry Truman. As early as January Truman told Stevenson that he would have to be the standard-bearer.

FORMER PRESIDENT Eisenhower might have performed the same role for the Republicans this time. He seems instead to prefer to let events take their course and this has compounded the uncertainty.

While the New Hampshire primary has been shown, as several times in the past, to be much ado about little, it does seem to have demonstrated one important political fact. The voters were alarmed by the extreme views of Sen. Barry Goldwater. To say that the Marines should be sent in to turn on the water for the American base at Guantanamo looked apparently like an invitation to war. Social Security was also an issue which hurt Goldwater, although it is hard to demonstrate that it helped Gov. Nelson Rockefeller who tried to exploit it.

THE IMPRESSION of those covering his campaign was that Goldwater's heart was not really in it. The assassination of President Kennedy on November 22 had completely altered the picture. The Goldwater approach had been based on the premise of strength in the South, the Midwest and to offset possible losses in the big-city states.

That potential was destroyed, and there was an impression that if he had reflected a little longer he might have decided against making the race.

WHAT THE consequences will be in Illinois and Nebraska, where Goldwater has strong backing, is uncertain. But, as both avowed candidates have said, the test is California where no absentee can blot the ballot. Short of a truly decisive win, however, even California can mean little.

Scranton confronts an even more formidable task than did Stevenson. He must try to bind up the wounds of a deeply divided party.

Time is running out for Scranton. He cannot wait much longer if he is to perform the service that it seems he alone can perform.

Recently, a priest visited the campus and jokingly told an Irish nun: "Sister, I couldn't help noticing that there is a well-trodden path from the campus to the distillery."

Without batting an eyelash, she replied: "And I couldn't help noticing how fast you found the well-trodden path, your reverence."

The U.S. Is Honest About Its Money

NEW YORK — Democracy is more than a New Hampshire primary, more than a two-party system, more than a Presidential press conference or political convention, and more than name-calling elections. It's the right to know what in many countries is a state secret: What is back of the paper people use for money? Is it worth more than what it's printed on?

In this sense, the United States is the world's outstanding democracy. You and I can follow — through statistics — not only how much gold we have but what obligations are outstanding against it. And we have full report on the income and outgo of the federal government.

WHEN THE Treasury and the Federal Reserve System, in collaboration with foreign finance ministers and foreign central banks, first undertook to offset short-run, speculative pressures against the dollar, the moves were regarded with suspicion. "Uh Oh! The Federal Reserve and the Treasury are making deals to conceal gold losses."

And because Robert V. Roosa (pronounced Rosa), astute Under Secretary of the Treasury for Monetary Affairs, played an important role along with the Reserve System in these arrangements, a pun suggested itself. The Sub-Roosa Effect. Yet it is anything but . . .

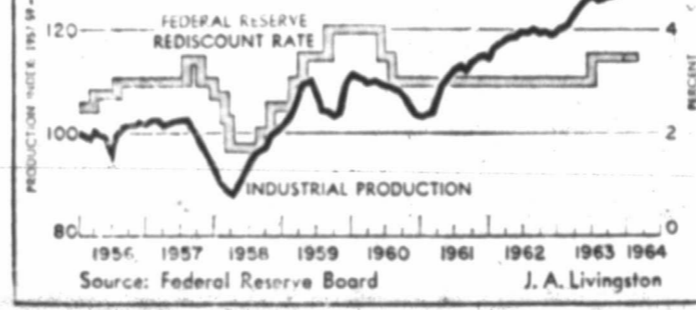

REGULARLY international transactions with central banks and the International Monetary Fund are disclosed. To be sure, most persons don't want to be bothered — the physician worrying about patients, the postman making his appointed rounds, the sales girl stapling shopping bags, the professor trying to teach poetry or French.

To most persons, a dollar is what it will buy. Size of the gold stock or the outstanding currency or deposits against it are facts for the cognoscenti — maybe 1,000 persons in the country. Persons in Wall Street, universities, brokerage houses and banks.

They are the policeman, the overseers, the conscience of the

TWO EIGHT-MONTH PLATEAUS

Industrial output and Federal Reserve Board's rediscount rate have been steady since July. How long can it last?

Source: Federal Reserve Board. J. A. Livingston

Treasury, the Reserve Board, yes, even the President when it comes to fiscal policy, debt management and financial integrity. They can act — buy and sell dollars — on the basis of knowledge, not fiction, fancy or rumor. They can write articles or make speeches about gold or bad policy.

IN THE Soviet Union a group of knowledgeable critics can't exist. No data are published on the gold stock or the amount of money in circulation or the total deposits in banks. Secrecy surrounds Soviet finance even as its military installations.

For the United States, frankness is inescapable. In the modern world the dollar has become the key international currency. Business firms, commercial banks, even central banks settle claims by transferring dollar deposits, called Eurodollars. This minimizes the transfer of gold.

THE FEDERAL Reserve Bank of New York publishes every six months an article on foreign exchange operations by Charles A. Coombs, a vice president. In this month's review, Coombs notes that at the end of February, the net debtor position of the Federal Reserve System on currency swaps was $145 million. We owed $220 million in Swiss francs to the Swiss National Bank and the Bank for International Settlement and $25 million in guilders to the Netherlands Bank. These were offset by a reverse swap of $100 million to the Bank of Italy. Such detailed candor dispels any Sub-Roosa notion. As of February 29, such Federal Reserve reciprocal currency arrangements amounted to $2,050,000,000. These are akin to stand-by credits banks grant corporations, frequently unused yet a source of strength and assurance.

THESE ARE short-run arrangements — three to twelve months. In addition the Treasury has sold $700 million of securities, designated in foreign currencies, to guard against drains on our gold. These are repayable in foreign currencies such as Swiss francs or West German marks. Recently this liability was reduced by a $50 million payment to the Bank of Italy.

CENTRAL BANKS no longer have to raise discount rates in response to temporary pressures or exigencies. When Great Britain raised its discount rate from 4 per cent to 5 per cent the Federal Reserve Board's Open Market Committee did not have to call a special meeting and react.

The Federal Reserve Discount remains on an eight-month plateau at 3.5 per cent just as industrial production has remained on a plateau at 127 (see chart). The pull against the dollar was readily handled — undoubtedly because persons here and abroad who want to know what's back of the dollar can and do know. This is the Above-Roosa Consequence.

It is the same with "heart failure." Heart failure doesn't mean a sudden stop. It means that the heart has to be babied along and not overworked. Proper treatment strengthens the heart muscle and increases its efficiency. Thus heart failure may be temporary and eventually corrected.

With a water pump, we overhaul the pump or get a new one.

With a heart, we can go so far in "overhauling" it, and can't trade it in for a new one. But by understanding the situation, and behaving sensibly, and getting proper treatment, we can keep a "failing" heart going for many years.

Around The Rim

Home-Grown Culture

DEAR RUFÉ:

Well, pardner, we went for culture again this week, and this time it was pure vocalizin'. We had a bunch of good lookin' ladies and not bad-lookin' men who rared back to sing and did nothing but.

There was a pianna, and later on they did bring in a harp, a couple of kettle drums and some other instruments to add a bit of a beat, but most of all it was just folks singin'. Not like the kind you would hear in a shower, or from a feller on horse-back, or even from a swinger with a git-tar. It was more the choir kind, you know?

FIRST OFF, you oughta seen how they looked. The ladies was in the same kind of dresses, some pink, some rose (I thought some looked sorta like fresh watermelon, but my lady said not). They was real blendy in color. And the fellers, they all had on blue coats. What you got was, you see, pink and blue, which ain't a bad mood to live with.

These folks, the singers, that is, stood on steps, so that there was three rows, and everybody could see the head man, which they needed to do. These folks was a singin' together, and it takes a head man to keep 'em that way.

THE HEAD MAN had on his forked-tail coat, like you might expect, but he didn't make no fuss about it. Matter of fact, he just walked out there, raised up his hands and a-way they went.

He was pretty busy with his hands, you might say. Sometimes he was pointin' at the ladies on the left, then those on the right, then at the fellers in the middle. Sometimes he was jabbing holes in the air, and sometimes you would have thought he was slicin' a piece of beef, and sometimes he just made a square with his fingers, or held out his palms like he was pushin' something.

WELL, THOSE FOLKS would sing a soft piece, to sort of pacify you, then they would get a little louder on some, to make you heart thump, and they would trill and they would cut off their notes short, and in fact did about everything you would expect an opera troupe to do — if you know opera.

They let a few of the folks step out and do solos — at least they had a few words they could sing by themselves — and these were the ones that showed the difference between choir singin' and saddle singin'.

BUT WHAT would really get you, Rufe, is that one time they sang a whole song without sayin' nothin'. It was a hummin' piece, what it was, and was as near like a cool breeze driftin' across a lily pond as anything you could imagine — if you have ever felt a cool breeze drift across a lily pond.

Most important thing about it, which I nearly forgot to tell you, was that these singers just collected from right around here. No foreign names, no strangers, no stand-offish characters. Just folks like you and me, only the big difference bein' that they can sing. Boy, and how. This is what you might call home-grown culture, which might be the best, after all.

Conservatism, Richmond Style

WASHINGTON — In what was supposed to be Goldwater's year the publishers have shot the works with books that tell conservatives what conservatism is.

I would not suppose that many liberals will be converted to the true faith by reading what the co-religionists of Rightism have to say about their own convictions, strong and cogent though these declarations be.

REP. MELVIN LAIRD (R., Wisc.) has brought together "The Conservative Papers" in fourteen essays to contradict much that was said in "The Liberal Papers," brought together by Rep. James Roosevelt (D., Cal.) two years ago. Clarence Manton, once Dean of Notre Dame Law School, is out with "The Conservative America," telling of his fight for national independence and Constitutional government. Frank S. Meyer edits another anthology of 12 essays entitled, "What Is Conservatism?" All these books will say something to conservatives, and afford them ammunition for election-year arguments.

BUT A PIECE of writing much more likely to reach the liberals, and to shake their favorite obsessions and fixed prejudices, is the article in the current "Saturday Review" by Virginia Dabney, editor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch. Mr. Dabney tells of the "quiet revolution" in Richmond. There, because both whites and Negroes have practiced conservatism in race relations, that city has made real advances in integrated living. There, for the same reason, citizens have been spared the violence and hatred that have visited many other communities, large and small, North and South.

I HAVE NEVER seen Mr. Dabney listed in the various rosters of conservative speakers, writers and thinkers. His reputation among journalists is that of a high-principled, intelligent man, certainly not far off center of the ideological spectrum. What he sets forth in this article is the thesis that two Southern races need not battle in the streets, the one race to hold its long-cherished way of life, the other race to gain what it regards as its rights.

FOR THE Richmond formula to work elsewhere, the very first necessity appears to be gentility—a cardinal virtue in Conservatism which puts a great stress upon good manners, formality and established codes of behavior. Given this as a beginning, it has been possible for Richmonders to sit down and reason together. The whites have not fallen into precipitate retreat. The Negroes have not stormed the ramparts. The voting booths, the libraries, the fire and police departments, the baseball team, the local theater groups were desegregated—not suddenly but over the years. The schools began to open up as soon as the State Government and the Courts realized that there was no alternative available under law. Mr. Dabney is frank to say that all this was done unwillingly by the white "power structure." But it was done honestly, progressively and in good grace.

ALMOST EVERYTHING that Mr. Dabney says about Richmond, and just about about everything that can honestly be said about the ruling Democrats of Virginia, adds up to a description of conservatism that will be found in the books at the top of his column. Perhaps some open-minded liberals, if such there be, will be impressed by the Richmond way—and turn to the books for further enlightenment.

Still Barry, Rocky And Nixon

WASHINGTON—The impact of the New Hampshire primary on the general public is likely to be far less important in the long run than the impression created today in the minds of the professional politicians throughout the country.

FOR ONE THING, Ambassador Lodge's success with a write-in vote is taken to mean that this could happen only to someone already well known in the New England area. While conceding that he may possibly show equal strength in other states, the general disposition in political circles in both parties is to discount any such contingency. They just don't see how he could emerge as a nominee who could conduct a hard-hitting campaign against the Johnson administration, with whose policies in Vietnam he is so closely identified.

POLITICIANS have really focused on the effect that the New Hampshire primary will have on the chances of Senator Goldwater, Governor Rockefeller and former Vice President Nixon. They are admittedly the three men most discussed by the local leaders and party chiefs who will have much to say about the selection of delegates for the Republican national convention in San Francisco in July.

Just as supporters of Governor Rockefeller are unwilling to admit that he was decisively defeated in New Hampshire, so do the admirers of Senator Goldwater declare that the Arizona senator was lucky to run as well as he did in a New England state and will do far better in the Western and Southern states.

SO THE REPUBLICAN race is, for the time being, still centered on Messrs. Goldwater, Rockefeller and Nixon. If Ambassador Lodge does make a good showing in other states, it is conceivable that the ticket of 1960—Nixon and Lodge—may be re-nominated.

It is a travesty on American politics, however, that a candidate who never made a speech in the primary campaign and who has not even been in the country in recent weeks should get a bigger vote than any of those who have actively campaigned.

THE ORIGIN of a write-in vote is not always known to the public. On the surface, it looks as if it is a spontaneous affair, but it takes a good deal of organized work and plenty of funds at the precinct level. In a small state like New Hampshire, it is possible for organizations to be developed in a short time and for write-in votes to be recorded on a relatively large scale. But it does seem odd that the whole country should be asked to judge the outcome of a primary election on the basis of the vote cast for Ambassador Lodge, which was only 33,500 out of a total of 94,000 Republican votes in the New Hampshire election.

If there were a "run-off primary in prospect, the situation would be different. The electorate would have to make a choice between Lodge and Goldwater. There is no state law, however, providing for such a run-off.

WHILE THE New Hampshire primary may make the Republicans uncomfortable because there is no clear-cut choice, it raises some problems for the Democrats, too. The write-in vote for Attorney General Kennedy, which was almost as much as the write-in vote for President Johnson, will undoubtedly encourage a nationwide drive for the brother of the late President to be nominated for the vice presidency.

Billy Graham

I work every evening at home, and my parents never pay me for what I do. I could get a job carrying papers, or something else, and make quite a bit of money. Do you think it is right that I should work so much at home?

B. B. Your pitiful, boyish complaint reminds me of a story told by Albert E. Bailey. It concerned a transaction between a boy named Harry and his faithful mother.

Harry delivered a bill to his mother which itemized the various jobs Harry had done around the house.

Getting in the wood . . . 0.50
Washing windows . . . 0.75
Painting chest . . . 1.00
Raking leaves . . . 1.50
Total mother owes Harry . . . $3.25
The bill was promptly paid, but his mother placed a bill under Harry's pillow which he found the next morning. It read:

Food for Harry for ten years $0.00
Clothing and home for ten years . . . 0.00
For toys, candy, skates, bicycle and other gifts . . . 0.00
For nursing Harry when he had pneumonia . . . 0.00
Total Harry owes mother . . . $0.00
I submit this without comment. I believe you get the point.

County's Potential Over 11,500 Votes

By SAM BLACKBURN
If all of the voters qualified to ballot in Voting Precinct No. 4 (City Hall) should march to the polls May 2 for the primary election, the election judges would have to tabulate 2,283 votes.

Election judges with the least work to do, even if all qualified voters showed up election day, would be the staff at R. Bar. Only 38 qualified electors are shown in that box.

Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector, said that her deputies have completed the tabulation of the poll tax and exemption receipts issued to qualify voters for the current year.

Totals	9370	2121	11491	5671	1996	7267

She said the total vote potential of the county is 11,491—a record number. Of this total, 9,370 are voters who hold paid poll tax receipts and 2,121 have exemption certificates. An undetermined number of over-age exemptions living outside Big Spring do not have to have certificates.

In addition to these voters, there are 150 other electors in the county who have limited voting powers. These are the citizens who did not want to pay a poll tax as a qualification for voting but who did want to vote for president, vice president, U.S. congressman and U.S. senators. These voters have been issued poll tax receipts marked "poll tax not paid." They can vote on federal offices only. Thus, the total visible potential is over 11,500.

LeFevre's figures show all but 1,443 vote in the seven Big Spring precincts. Total Big Spring vote is 9,948.

Coahoma with 784 votes has the only other box outside of Big Spring with any large percentage of voters.

This year, the records show Precinct 1 (Northside Fire Station) and Precinct 15 (Runnels Junior High) have identically the same number of voters—922.

The new poll tax rolls will get their first work out in elections to fall April 4. At these elections, school officials will be elected and, in Forsan, city commissioners will be named. Three days later, voters in Big Spring go back to the polls to elect members to the city commission.

BIG DAY
The first big voting day, however, is May 4. That's the first primary election and a crowded field of candidates is in the field for county and state offices.

Mrs. LeFevre has now certified the poll tax list. One complete copy goes to the county clerk, one stays in the office of the county assessor's office and one copy each goes to the Democratic and Republican County Committee chairmen.

In addition, copies of the poll tax records for each precinct are prepared. One copy goes to each election precinct judge. There are 18 voting precincts.

A limited number of complete copies and a smaller number of copies covering county commissioner precincts only are on hand for candidates who may plan mail campaigns of surveys of political votes in the forthcoming elections. The cost of the preparation of these mimeographed rolls, Mrs. LeFevre said is $25 for the complete list and $15.

County Gets A Break In Extra Allotments

Howard County has received a good break in the distribution of additional cotton allotment acres.

Gabe Hammack, administrator for the county ASC office, announced that the county has received 3,748.5 acres. Added to the original allotment of 71,417.6 acres, this makes a total allotment for the 1964 season of 75,166.1 acres.

Last year, the original allotment was 70,809 acres, to which only 583 acres were added in the redistribution of acreage unused in other parts of the state. This meant a final allotment of 71,392, or 4.7 less than the new figures.

Virtually all producers in Howard County, who had requested additional allotment, shared to some extent in the distribution, said Hammack. The acreage was spread over 518 farms with a limitation that in no case could the additional acreage bring the total allotment to more than 50 per cent over current allotment figures, whichever is the lesser.

Under the 1960 law, which permits unwanted cotton acres to be reallocated within a state, 23-high plains counties received 140,150 acres. This was about 6 1/2 per cent over the original allocations. In a normal year, this acreage would bring an additional $21,000,000, according to Plains Growers, Inc. officials. Howard County's increase should mean upwards of $300,000 additional income.

Borden County received 791 acres in the reallocation, making a current total of 17,912. Dawson County received 68,582, making a total of 200,082; Lynn 9,119, making 185,964.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING Most Of Week's Flying By Club

Lt. Lyle W. Burry Jr., wife and baby, left Howard County Airport Friday in Big Spring Aircraft's Cherokee for Denver, Colo. His sister was injured seriously in an automobile accident during the week, prompting the flying trip.

Several flights were checked out in the flying clubs' airplanes from Monday through today, with some cross country flights chalked up. Big Spring Flying Club members up in the two airplanes, were: Colt-Polone, Naiser; Cessna Skyhawk-Dowlearn, cross country, Rogers; cross country, Lebcowitz, cross country.

Webb Aero Club members up were: Cessna - Norrington, O'Day (4), Simmons (5), Hall, cross country, Cox, Fennell, Bryant, Kennard; Mooney - Winston (2), Kennard, Bryant.

The wind was gusting to 50 miles an hour out at Howard County Airport Friday at 3 p.m., and airport personnel watched the wind sock to see that it didn't fill up with acreage. It was blowing at an average 35 miles per hour.

A third-level airline will serve several West Texas cities soon when Solar Airlines gets going with Beechcraft eight-place airplanes. The headquarters for the crew will be at Marfa in the former Trans-Texas Airlines office. Richard Barber, president of the new line, was formerly president of Bison Airlines, and has worked with Trans-World Airlines.

He proposes flights to serve Pecos, Kermit, Monahans, Fort Stockton, Marfa, Alpine and Washington (AP) — A judge's dismissal of her claim for repairs to a fence drew a fast reaction from Mrs. Florence C. Thomas, 60.

After Judge Edward A. Beard announced his decision, Mrs. Thomas pulled off a shoe and rapped the defendant, Alamo T. Oliphant, on the head.

Judge Beard also reacted fast.

He sentenced Mrs. Thomas to 30 days in jail for contempt.

Jerry Worthy Is Rotary President

Jerry Worthy, local building contractor, will be the new president of the Big Spring Rotary Club. Officers will take over their jobs at the first meeting in July.

Don Hungerford, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, has been elected vice president; Curtis Mullins, secretary, and Ira Driver, treasurer. New directors will be E. P. Driver, Harvey Adams, Lewis Price and Dr. Preston Harrison.

JERRY WORTHY

Worthy, a resident of Big Spring since 1955, has been in the construction business for five years. He is also owner-manager of Weatherwise Enclosure, Inc., and was associated with Groehl Oil Co. He has been a member of the Rotary Club for four years and has served on committees, as a director, and this year as vice president.

He became acquainted with Big Spring while stationed at Reese AFB, Lubbock, for pilot training. He married the former Louise Ann Bennett and the couple has three children, a daughter, Ann, and two sons, Jeb and Roy.

Worthy was a pilot of B29s during the Korean conflict, and was based in Okinawa from which he flew 24 missions. He is a member of the American Legion, is a junior warden of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, and a member of the Big Spring Traffic Commission.

Rev. Hungerford, who has been active in the club for several years, has served on committees for various activities.

Repossessions Are Discussed

Repossessions, and how they affect credit, were discussed at last week's session of the Consumer Credit Association, held at the Downtown Tea Room. Duke Baker, president, presided at the business meeting. Four committees were named, and a discussion on the observance of National Credit Week April 28-May 3, held.

James Cape, led the first discussion on "Some Major Steps to Repossession Articles." Reeves Moreson talked on "How Much Repossession Influences Granting New Accounts, and What is the Bank's Attitude on New Accounts When a Credit Report Shows Repossession?"

R. H. Hickson spoke on "How Repossessions Affect 30-day Accounts." The four committees appointed, with the first named as chairman, were: Membership—Mrs. Lee Duncan, George Weeks, Leon Harris; Publicity—James Cape, Richard Hughes, Mrs. Roy Townsend; Program—Mrs. J. B. Apple, Mrs. Noel Hull, R. J. Ream; Attendance—Bob Riceman, J. B. Apple, Joe Hedleston.

FHA Elects New Officers

By CAROLYN WILSON
The Coahoma Future Homemakers elected next year's officers Monday at the monthly meeting. Jean Newman, junior, is the club's new president. Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Newman, is treasurer of the Student Council, vice president of the Library Club and a member of the CHS traveling volleyball team.

Vice president is Martha Love, also a junior; Leitha Mason, secretary; Ann Bennett, treasurer; Nadine Honeycutt, parliamentarian; Geraldine Culp, reporter; and Donna Duke, song leader.

The girls will be installed next September. FHA also discussed plans to attend the area meeting in Midland.

The annual Science Fair is scheduled Friday and Saturday in the Coahoma High School activity room. Mrs. Phyll Wynn, science instructor and Science Club sponsor, and Hayden Norris, president of the Science Club, will take care of all project set-ups.

All exhibitions are free and everyone is invited to attend to get an idea of Coahoma progress in the school science system. There will be exhibitions from the high school, junior high and elementary schools. Webb Air Force Base will again provide an exhibition.

The senior play, "College Is Terrific," was presented March 7. According to John Lowe, senior class president, the play was a success.

A joint box supper and game night is scheduled Saturday by the Band Boosters. The price of admission is a box supper at 7 p.m. or pay $1 at 8 p.m. Boxes will be auctioned in three groups: high school division, junior high and elementary. Prizes will be given for the best decorated box. The stage band will provide the entertainment.

Goliad Junior High Gets New Trophy Case

By DENISE HEAD

The beautiful new trophy case in Goliad's front foyer was a gift to the school from the Student Council. Trophies that have been awarded in past years for sports and musical achievements are now on display in the case.

Linda Gray, Thomas Land, Gary Don Newsom and Sonia Whittington, who were selected as representatives to the Student Council Conference, will leave Wednesday night for Houston. Mrs. Lynn Calvert and Mrs. Cornelia Gary will accompany the Goliad delegation. Representatives from all over the state including all the foreign exchange students in Texas will attend.

An interesting four days has been planned by San Jacinto High School, the host school. Delegates are to be housed in the Shamrock Hilton Hotel. The theme of the conference is "Our Place in Space." In addition to the workshops and lectures, the delegates will be given a bus tour of the city. Friday evening there will be a semi-formal dance in the Emerald Room of the hotel, and for those who do not wish to dance, other activities are planned in the Grecian Room. The Goliad party will re-

Garden City Students Win District Honors

By GAIL McDANIEL
Judy Hirt, Garden City, sophomore forward, and Sharon Jacob, sophomore guard, were named to the all-district basketball team in District 83-B. Gail McDaniel, senior guard; Vernon Newsom, sophomore; and Earl Plagens, sophomore won honorable mention.

The Garden City Future Homemakers, Mrs. Dorothy Caldwell, sponsor, and Mrs. Ronnell McDaniel, chapter mother, will attend the area FHA meeting in Midland Sat-

Howard County Junior College. They were presented at the Ranch Week Dance Friday night.

Music for the dance, which ended Ranch Week, was furnished by Joe Alderdice and his band. Other activities of the week have been contests and Kangaroo Court with Judge Anthony Rhodes presiding. Everyone was guilty, of course, and penalties were funny. Jayhawkers now know who doesn't know "Home on the Range" and that a raw egg is a poor substitute for a 10-gallon hat.

Annual editor Sena Goodlett announced that the Jayhawker has been completed. It should be distributed about the middle of May.

Phi Theta Kappa members Marilyn McReavy, Carol Bonhanon, Buddie Gilstrap and Ronney Cheney left HCJC early Friday to attend a regional meeting in Corpus Christi. They were accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth

The HCJC Women's Recreational Association sponsored a high school volleyball tournament this weekend. Proceeds will be used for a scholarship.

Wesley Fellowship is sponsoring a hayride Friday. All HCJC students are invited. The group will leave from the SUB at 6:30 p.m. for Moss Creek. Refreshments will be provided.

Ferrante and Teicher, well-known pianists, will present a concert Saturday in the city auditorium. HCJC students are admitted by their activity cards.

Ten teams from four colleges entered a debate tournament at HCJC this weekend. This is the second year for the HCJC tournament. Glenn Whitley and Gary Kendrick represented Howard County.

Career Day is scheduled at HCJC March 23. Students and faculty will host high school students from several area schools. Miss Kathleen Graves will speak to HCJC girls Monday about the Miss Big Spring contest. All HCJC girls are eligible to enter even though they do not live in Big Spring. Girls are urged to attend the meeting in the auditorium during activity period.

in Houston this week. They are Carroll Anderson, president; Dale Thompson, vice president; Larry Haggard, secretary; and Tim Bristow, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson, school principal and his wife, will accompany the group. The convention should help the officers serve more efficiently next year.

The council has begun to make plans for freshman orientation day. It is scheduled in April. All eighth graders from schools that transfer students to Stanton High School will come to see the campus, meet the faculty, learn of courses offered, and pre-register for the fall term.

Mr. Bill Johnson administered the SAT tests to freshmen and noon class will be held from 3:45 to 5 and an evening class from 5:30 to 7:35. The driving sessions will be held during the summer and there will be an enrollment charge of $25 per student.

The track teams participated in a meet at Monahan's Saturday. Students from the seventh, eighth and ninth grades are on the teams.

The nine weeks exams will begin this Tuesday when pupils in the first and fourth periods will be given tests. Wednesday, pupils in the second and fifth periods will have exams, and Thursday, pupils in the third and sixth periods will complete the testing session.

Many of the readers of this column are interested in learning about subjects offered at Goliad; therefore each week a different department will be discussed. Since the seventh and eighth grades have started studying a new concept in math this year, that department will be spotlighted in our column today. Because new books are to be adopted for next year, the new material is being taught briefly this year.

It seems strange at first because the language differs from that of past years, but really the ideas are similar. The studies so far this year have consisted mainly of prime numbers, factors and multiples of numbers. Students will begin learning about negative numbers, simple algebra, and geometry. The object of learning this early in one's school career is to prepare the student for algebra in the ninth grade. In the math line, a ninth grade student may choose between general math and algebra. If a pupil selects general math, he will get a comprehensive review of mathematical principles. If he selects algebra, he will go more deeply into that which he was learning in the seventh and eighth grades.

Although the changes seem great, these principles have been known since the 17th century by mathematicians. It is being taught now because these ideas prove useful in this scientific age.

BSHS Slates Faculty Game

By SHARON SMITH
The senior class of Big Spring High School will sponsor a faculty basketball game between the Goliad and Runnels faculty and the BSHS faculty. The game will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the BSHS gym.

Nine weeks tests begin Wednesday and last through Friday. First and fourth period exams will be given Wednesday, second and fifth Thursday, and third and sixth Friday.

The exchange student fund continues to grow steadily toward the $700 goal. The Library Club donated $25; the Rotary Club, $50; and the 1905 Hyperion Club, $25. The total is now $300.

The annual Career Day at HCJC is slated March 23, beginning at 9 a.m. for the local sophomore students Tuesday morning. Tuesday afternoon several juniors took the National Merit Scholarship Test.

Due to these tests, the regular FHA meeting was not held. All girls are reminded that the meeting will be held Monday during activity period.

Preparations are being made by teachers and students to enter the Interscholastic League literary meet April 11. Stanton High will also enter the one-act play contest.

The National Honor Society met Thursday. President Rodney Payne conducted the business meeting. Plans were made for selection of new members and new officers. The society is to sponsor a party in cooperation with the yearbook staff and their sponsor. Mr. William Harrell is NHS sponsor.

Miss Paula Jones, a demonstrator for Texas Electric Service Company, gave demonstrations last week to several homemaking classes. The girls were shown the use of the electric range, small appliances, and demonstrations in laundry, lighting and kitchen planning.

The all-district basketball team for District 7-AA has been announced. Making the team from Stanton are Larry Merrifield and Donny Thompson. Ronald Hartzell made the second team.

Girls Discuss Midland Meeting

By GLYNDA FLEMING
The Sands Future Homemakers met with Mrs. Keith Bray, sponsor, Monday. The meeting was called to order by Joyce Graham, FHA president. Ruth Lemon, treasurer, gave the treasurer's report. Several committees were appointed for future meetings. The Area II FHA meeting was discussed. It will be held in Midland at the Midland Lee High School Auditorium, Saturday. Beth Ingram was elected voting delegate, and Joyce Graham to answer roll call from the chapter. It was decided to contribute $10 to the Area II scholarship fund. Participating in the program from Sands are Doris Martin, Robbie Brown, Margie Newman and Vickie Brinson. The meeting was adjourned after Robbie Brown and Ruth Lemon were elected to go to the State FHA meeting in Austin, May 1-2.

Seniors have been very busy this week. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. play practice was held in the auditorium. A debate on juvenile delinquency was presented to the 6th grade and Typing I class, Tuesday. The judges were selected by Mr. Raymond Stevenson, government teacher. They were Mr.

and Mrs. Eddie Gill and Mrs. Dorothy Harry.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Dorothy Harry, senior sponsor, took the measurements for caps and gowns and also ordered the diplomas. A bake sale was held Saturday morning. The whole week was filled with plans for the Old-Timers Tournament scheduled April 9-11.

Nine-week tests began Thursday morning and were finished Friday.

The school was entertained by the Zartington Players Thursday. SHS played Runnels Junior High Tuesday afternoon. In the Sands seventh grade vs. Runnels seventh grade and in the Sands ninth grade vs. Runnels ninth grade, Runnels was victorious, but in the eighth grade match games, Sands won. Members of the all-district team were selected Monday. Girls from Sands making the team were Zaida Bodine and Darlene Wright.

Runnels Students Visit Monterrey

By JAN CAMPBELL
Seventeen Runnels students and four sponsors went to Monterrey, Mexico, March 5-8. Students who made the trip were Mike Clark, Jerry Daugherty, Elbert Fannin, Jan Campbell, Sidney Carr, Cooper Proctor, Wayne Trantham, Troy Williams, Barbara Crenshaw, Frank Fierro, Carlene Hammack, Ann Johnson, John Wesley Martin, Jane Ryan, Kay Slatz, Sherry Thomas, and Julia Vaughn. Mrs. Frank Medley, Mrs. Doyle Sparks, Mrs. Bobb, Grant, and Mrs. Mary Lou Bavousett went as sponsors. The group left at noon Thursday and traveled from Big Spring to Laredo in cars. Students and sponsors each had to go through customs before crossing the border.

At Laredo, the group boarded a bus which took them to Monterrey where they stayed in the Plaza Hotel. The entire group toured most of Friday and Saturday. They visited many of the homes in Mexico and saw the beautiful mosaic architecture. They saw such sites as the Purisima Church and the Monterrey Institute. The students rode to Horsetail Falls Saturday.

Afternoons were spent for shopping. Several girls even had their hair styled while in Monterrey. Friday and Saturday nights, the students rode buggies which toured Monterrey. Friday night, a group of mariachis came to the Plaza and entertained the group. The group returned to Big Spring late Sunday night. Many of the students who made the trip came to school Monday morning wearing their ponchos.

Mrs. Carol Orr from the Texas Electric Company has been visiting Mrs. Betty Conley's ninth grade homemaking classes and demonstrating the electrical appliances. Mrs. Florence Lenox's ninth grade homemaking classes are completing their dresses.

Certain members from the Runnels choir will be in Odessa all day Saturday. They will be competing in the Interscholastic League solo and ensemble contests to be held at Bonham Junior High School. The Choir Boosters and the Runnels Choir students have been selling candy to raise money for the high school choir's trip to California.

The sixth edition of the Round-Up went on sale Friday. Teachers at Runnels gave a shower for Laura Lynn Warren March 4. Laura Lynn is the daughter of Mrs. Jean Warren, seventh grade English teacher at Runnels. The shower was held in the Home Economics Department. A bouquet of pink carnations and gladioli decorated the lace-covered refreshment table.

The third nine weeks of school will be coming to a close this week. Tests over material covered this nine weeks will be held Tuesday-Thursday. First and fourth period tests will be taken Tuesday. Second and fifth period tests will be given Wednesday, and third and sixth period tests will be taken Thursday. Report cards will go out the following Wednesday.

On Honor Roll
W. B. (Jerry) Younger, Big Spring, was on the ampla cum laude honor roll of the University of Texas for the semester. Thomas R. Calhoun, Midland, and Serrill A. Hudgens, Corsicana, topped the honor roll from among 8,954 students, both leading the summa cum laude section. Cynthia Jane Baird, Midland, also was summa cum laude.

All-district basketball players from Flower Grove have been chosen. They are Maryeta Glaze, Diane Massengale, Johnny Howard and Richard Perry.

The Western Production Credit Association gave the Flower Grove school a clock for the gym.

Geologists Helping Astronaut Group

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON (AP)—Petroleum geologists will be absent when the first Americans land on the moon.

The nation's astronaut team, however, is receiving basic training in earth sciences.

The 29 astronauts are receiving special instruction from three geologists, including two specialists in petrology. The U.S. Geological Survey is cooperating with the special project.

The space team completed field trips this week to Arizona's Grand Canyon to inspect geologic formations millions of years old.

Petroleum, of course, does not figure prominently in plans for the lunar explorations, but space officials want the astronauts to know enough geology to be able to quickly discard rocks and specimens that would have no scientific significance.

Current plans call for the initial lunar team to bring back about 80 pounds of rocks and space officials want to gain from these specimens as much knowledge as possible about the origin and history of the moon.

Geology has figured prominently in efforts by some scientific groups to persuade the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to have scientists participate in the early lunar missions of Project Apollo. One prominent scientist with the civilian space agency was quoted recently as saying he thought it would be a good idea to have a geologist on an early Apollo flight. He later denied the statement, however, and it was quite obvious the report had upset top officials at the Manned Spacecraft Center, the training base for astronauts.

Glasscock Venture Goes Dry And Is Abandoned

A. K. Guthrie No. 1-A Spruce, a Glasscock wildcat slated to go to 3,800 feet in the San Andres, is dry and abandoned at a total depth of 3,642 feet. Ground elevation is 2,608 feet on the venture in which was set a 4 1/2-inch liner.

It spots 467 feet from the south and west lines of section 19-35-28, T&P survey. It is on a 320-acre lease 10 miles south-east of Stanton.

A Mitchell County project in the Itan-East Howard field, Holley-McKenney, et al No. 2-C T. L. McKenney, pumped 81 barrels of 29.2 gravity oil with 15 per cent water on potential per day. Gas-oil ratio was nil on the project which was acidized with 16,000 gallons. Operator set seven inch casing at 2,441 feet with an open hole between 2,441-2,948 feet. Elevation is 2,246 feet, total depth is 3,490 feet and the plug back is to 2,948 feet.

The project spots 330 feet from the north and 1,350 feet from the east lines of section 40-29-1N, T&P survey.

One new locator has been filled in the Parochial-Bade, East field of Sterling City.

HMH Operators will drill No. 3 Ross Foster to 2,250 feet by rotary tool. It locates 990 feet from the north and 2,310 feet from the west lines of section 24-22, H&C survey. It is eight miles southwest of Sterling City on a 320 acre lease.

Rotary Rig Activity Is 15 Units Better

The weekly Friday survey of rotary unit activity of the Reed Roller Bit Company showed 215 units in operation in the Permian Basin Empire, an increase of 13 over the 202 reported a week ago.

The figure is still down from the 226 reported on the comparable survey in 1963 by 11 units.

Lea County, N.M., with an increase of one, from 37 to 38, was in first place.

Pecos County was in second place with 18, an increase of seven from the 11 a week earlier.

Ector, Gaines, Winkler and Eddy County, N.M., were in a four way tie for third place, each with 11 units. Ector dropped by nine from 20 a week ago, Eddy gained six from five earlier, Gaines picked up one over the 10 reported last week and Winkler gained three over eight a week ago.

The county-by-county count, with last week's figures in parentheses, is:

Andrews 10 (12); BORDEN 2 (1); Chaves 1 (1); Cochran 1 (1); Coke 1 (1); Concho 2 (2); Crane 8 (6); Crockett 4 (5); Culberson 2 (0); DAWSON 8

Issue Arises Over Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—An authorized increase in fuel oil imports for the East Coast April 1 has touched off a new blast of criticism from coal interests and some congressmen.

Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall lifted the maximum import level for residual fuel oil to 638,000 barrels a day for the 12 months beginning April 1. The present limit is 575,000 barrels.

Joseph Moody, president of the National Coal Policy Conference, called it an "astounding increase," noting that it would figure out to 23 million barrels a year. Such an increase is completely unjustified, he said, and is likely to cause further unemployment in the Appalachian area.

Stephen Dunn, president of the National Coal Association, said the increase is the equivalent of about 5.5 million tons of coal a year and would create new economic problems in the Appalachian coal fields.

Rep. Arch Moore Jr., R-W.Va., said "All of us from coal producing states were shocked at the action of Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall in fixing greatly increased daily quotas of residual fuel oil."

Rep. Thomas Morgan, D-Pa., said 130 members of the House have endorsed legislation to limit imports of residual oil to a stated percentage of total consumption.

Glorieta Producer Shows Completion

James G. Brown & Associates of Midland has completed No. 1 Cowden Strip as a Glorieta producer on the west side of the multipay Emma area in South Andrews County, 15 miles south-west of Andrews.

On the 24-hour potential it pumped 123.87 barrels of 29-gravity oil, plus 18 per cent water from perforations between 5,332 and 5,344 feet, which had been treated with 3,750 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 100:1.

The project is a twin to a San Andres producer and approximately 1/2 mile south of the nearest Glorieta well in the area. It is 3,200 feet from south and 467 feet from west lines of the west half of the W. F. Cowden survey 101, scrap file 9955.

The venture originally started out to drill to 6,000 feet as a Clear Fork wildcat. It bottomed at 5,432 feet and set pipe

Crude Oil Buyers Making Decrease

AUSTIN (AP)—Purchasers of Texas crude oil plan to decrease their buying 8,688 barrels daily next month, they have told the Railroad Commission.

Nominations from purchasers total 2,533,925 barrels daily during April, close to the U. S. Bureau of Mines demand forecast of 2,535,000 barrels daily, down 65,000 barrels daily from March.

The commission will determine the April allowable at a monthly hearing Wednesday.

Scharbauer Is Meeting Site

Addition of Gov. Jack Campbell of New Mexico and T. W. Nelson, executive vice president, Socony Mobil Co., New York City, completes the program for the 1964 meeting of the American Petroleum Institute's Southwestern District meeting. Announcement was made by I. B. Stitt Jr., Mobil Oil Co., Lubbock, district chairman, and C. J. Merryman, Sun Oil Co., Midland, program chairman.

The meeting is scheduled for March 18-20, 1964, in the Scharbauer Hotel, Midland. Gov. Campbell and Nelson will speak at the meeting's general session on the morning of March 19.

Gov. Campbell, who also is serving as chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, will discuss the work of that agency and matters relating to state regulation of oil and gas production.

New Way Found To Measure TV

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Discovery of a new way of counting how many sets are turned to what television shows could revolutionize the controversial program-rating industry. Its inventors say the system, which involves trucks with revolving circular antennas that pick up signals from each home set, will make obsolete rating methods using telephone interviews, diaries kept by selected viewers and recorders attached to sets.

Norman Vincent Peale's Life Story Opens Today

"One Man's Way," starring Don Murray as Norman Vincent Peale, is the candid story of a man who deeply feels that the ministry need not be dull. Opening Sunday at the Ritz Theatre, the production co-stars William Windom, Carol Ohmart and introduces Diana Hyland, Academy Award winner Denis Sanders directed.

Much Patience

It took Hollywood producer Frank Ross 10 years to get "The Robe" on the screen. His latest production, "One Man's Way" was four years in preparation.

tion of religion. The one-time police reporter has never pulled his punches, and neither does this film spanning 40 years of Dr. Peale's life.

"One Man's Way" was filmed entirely in Southern California, except for location shots in New York's Marble Collegiate Church, where Dr. Peale has been minister for over 31 years. All other interiors were made on the studio sound stages.

Current rating systems, frequently the deciding factor in whether a show stays on the air, have been criticized because they are based on samplings from a few hundred so-called representative homes.

Tanner says his system can sample thousands and that no viewer will know he is being sampled.

He figures the cost will run $10,000 to $15,000 per truck, depending on the number of trucks purchased.

One of the few outsiders who has seen the device, Frank Champion of ABC Television's transmission engineering department, says "I haven't felt so strongly about anything since the advent of video-tape. There is no question about it working—it is very accurate."

"It should have a profound effect on the industry, and it should revolutionize the rating system."

The device works on the principle that each home television set is in a sense a transmitter as well as a receiver. The signal the set picks up from the broadcasting station is converted into a beam of electrons that activate the screen in the tube.

The make-up of this beam differs according to the program. The revolving antenna on the truck is so sensitive that it can pick up scattered signals from the beam of electrons at a distance of 100 feet or more, Tanner says.

By electronically comparing signals given off by the set with signals transmitted from the station the device instantly identifies the channel to which the set is tuned.

Television sets in an apartment house are just as easy for the device, called a comparator, to read as one set in a residence, Tanner says, because it makes its identification in seconds.

Tanner said one truck can count 106 sets a minute cruising at 15 miles an hour. Fifty trucks, he said, can survey 160,000 sets in 30 minutes.

"It should end all controversy about program ratings and enable the television industry to determine exactly what the majority of viewers like," he said.

Spine-Tingler Due At Ritz Thursday

One of the pictures made by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer was a chiller titled "Village of the Damned," which won accolades as a horror drama. Now, MGM has come up with a new shocker on a similar theme of fear of the unknown, called "Children of the Damned."

It opens Thursday at the Ritz Theatre.

The suspenseful story delves into the strange circumstances that surround six small children, one from Africa, India, Chinese, Russia, England and the United States, who are discovered during a UNESCO project. The children are normal in every respect except one—mentally, they are geniuses. Their intellects are super-normal and although they come from the four corners of the earth, they are uncannily united by a telepathic bond.

But the very talents which distinguish these children are the cause of grave concern to the nations of the world. Where have these children come from? Why do their mothers have no knowledge of their fathers? What is their purpose on earth? What if they were to use their abnormal facilities to conquer or contain the rest of the world?

It is in seeking an answer to these questions that an eminent British psychologist (Ian Hendry), a geneticist (Alan Badel) and the young aunt of the leader of the children (Barbara Ferris) are drawn together, facing both mystery and danger.

In the climax of "Children of the Damned," the youngsters, hunted down by the authorities, take refuge in a deserted church in London. When they make use of a mysterious and deadly secret weapon, police and armed troops are called out. With each passing minute, guns and tanks rumble into position. Inside the church, the small, strange children, wait patiently, confident in the knowledge that their phenomenal powers give them the advantage. As darkness envelops the gaunt building, the children watch and wait for what lies in store for them.

Three of England's most distinguished stars play the leading adult roles. Ian Hendry, as the psychologist who is asked by the United Nations to investigate the mystery surrounding the children, won the title of "Best TV Actor" and a critics' nomination as "Most Outstanding Young Film Actor." Alan Badel, portraying the geneticist who aids Hendry in his investigations, scored in "This Sporting Life" and, "most recently, on the Broadway stage

Viking Story Coming To State Screen

Authenticity was the key to production of American International's adventure spectacle, "Eric the Conqueror," which opens Sunday at the State Theatre.

Cameron Mitchell and twin acting sisters, Alice and Ellen Kessler, star in the motion picture saga of the days of the Viking warriors.

Researched and reproduced for the production and its cast of thousands were the Vikings of the 8th Century, A.D., the costumes of the period, the armor and castles of the Vikings, plus the facts on how these adventurers fought and loved.

The result, as brought to the screen is a panorama of battles on land and sea, massacres of conquest, and a multitude of duels with knife, sword and bow and arrow.

"Eric the Conqueror" brings to life one of history's cruelest pages, a violent era of victory reveals, fearless feats and deeds of revenge with thousands of human lives hanging in the balance.

Cowboy's Life Told In Book

AUSTIN, Texas (SC)—The old-time cowboy rarely accepted other than a "straight riding job." When offered another kind of work, a cowboy's typical reply was "I'll take that job if I can figure out a way to do it horseback."

The story provides the title for a new book, "If I Can Do It Horseback: A Cow - Country Sketchbook," which The University of Texas Press will publish March 16 as the fourth in the M. K. Brown Range Life Series, established by Montagu K. Brown of Pampa.

The book is a compilation of articles which originally appeared in the Cattleman magazine. The author is the late John M. Hendrix, a West Texas writer and promoter who died in Sweetwater in 1952.

Hendrix's articles, written over a period of about 20 years, depict West Texas ranch life and the cattle industry. They examine economic influences and technological changes as well as the personal and emotional aspects of range life.

He describes the operation of the cow camp; the activities of the men, their duties and entertainments, their clothes, food, horses and language. He writes about the rise of some of the "cattle kings," including the Wagnons and the Burnetts, and the development of such towns as Quanah and Colorado City. He tells about the geography of West Texas cattle country and the development, problems and achievements of typical ranches.

In an introduction Wayne Gard of the Dallas News (author of "The Chisholm Trail" and "The Great Buffalo Hunt") writes: "The late John M. Hendrix lived at a time when many changes were taking place in the cattle industry in the Southwest. Although too late for the open range and the Kansa's trails, he knew men who had lived in the old days, and he himself saw important shifts in methods and points of view."

"His firsthand knowledge of cattle raising and of the Southwestern range country enabled him to write in the cowmen's language and to capture the atmosphere of the range and the cow camp," Gard says.

Special Memorial For Israeli Leader

By SYD KRONISH
AP Newsfeatures Writer

A special memorial stamp featuring a portrait of the late President Yitzhak Ben Zvi will be issued by Israel in April, reports the Israel Philatelic Agency in America. Ben Zvi, the second president of Israel, succeeded the late Dr. Chaim Weizmann in the latter part of 1952. It was Ben Zvi who moved the office of the president from Tel Aviv to its permanent location in the capital city of Jerusalem. It was also announced that on the same day as the issuance of the Ben Zvi stamp, there will be a set of three commemorating the 16th anniversary of Israel's independence. The theme of this year's independence series will be "Contributions of Israel to Science." The summer Olympic Games in Tokyo will be hailed with a set of four new stamps which will be released in June.

the Hurricane Flora. The overprints were on the set which shows a portrait of Dr. Francois Duvalier and the coat of arms of Haiti.

Norway will issue two new stamps honoring the centenary of the presentation of the "law of mass action" by Professors Cato M. Guldberg and Peter Waage in Oslo Scientific Society. The 38 ore olive green and 55 ore yellow brown stamps will depict a double portrait of the professors taken from their busts by sculptor Stinius Fredriksen. The law of mass action, as presented by Professors Guldberg and Waage, is a well-known theory used today for a variety of purposes in the field of chemistry and chemical engineering.

Cubbers Plan Busy Season

Cub Scout leaders Thursday evening revved up for a flight into a busy summer, laying out plans for a Cub olympics, and other activities.

Most of these will be arranged finally by next month's meeting, including a train trip to Sweetwater. Mrs. Byron Nugent, Pack 14, led a discussion on ideas for the April theme of "Cub Scout Naturalist."

R. L. Cranford urged parents to consider participation in the Cub training program at Philmont Ranch this summer, making it a family vacation. He projected colored slides taken at the ranch, and Cub Bruce Broughton told what a Cub does at the ranch while parents are in training.

At the suggestion of Frosty Robison that Cubbing be represented on the district camping and activities committee. Sam Robertson of Pack 48 was named to this post. Warden Mayes, Pack 100, exhibited a rocket launcher assembly to be used in the rocket derby. Songs and the Cub promise were led by Bruce to close the meeting, and Pack 202 served refreshments. Thirty-five attended.

DEAR ABBY

Live Alone And Like It?

DEAR ABBY: I am a 32-year-old widow with four boys to raise. I have no desire to marry again, but all my friends tell me my boys need a father. They are always arranging for me to meet this man and that man. I love my boys very much, and am raising them in a good Christian atmosphere. They are good boys, and I discipline them when they need it just as a father would do. I take in sewing and manage to keep my bills paid, so I don't need a husband to support us. I believe if the good Lord intends for me to have another husband, He will take care of it Himself. Do you think I should accept the company of men with marriage in mind just because people think my boys need a father, even though I don't think I need a husband?

SATISFIED: As a Christian you must know that the Lord said, "It is not good that man should be alone." (Genesis II, 18.) And the same goes for woman. God helps those who help themselves, and perhaps God is trying to help you through thoughtful friends.

DEAR ABBY: Have you any suggestions for getting our son to date a certain girl? This girl is charming, intelligent, has a wonderful personality, and would be an ideal match for our son. He is 25, but he seems to prefer the more glamorous, flirty type. We know that once he gets to know this girl, he would appreciate her fine qualities.

DEAR PARENTS: I can't tell you how to get your son to date a certain girl, but I can tell you how to sour him on her before he even sees her. Just keep telling him how "good" she would be for him! Your best move would be to arrange for them to meet "accidentally." And let him "discover" her for himself.

DEAR ABBY: Our baby is only three months old. My husband's family is quite wealthy and they have spent a lot on gifts for her. I must admit there is a great deal our baby wouldn't have if it weren't for them. On the other hand, my parents barely make ends meet, and though they would love to buy things for our baby, they can't afford to. Ours is the only grandchild on both sides, and both sets of grandparents are wild about her. But we don't want her to grow up thinking that because all the presents come from one set of grandparents the other set doesn't love her as much. What can we do about this? Or should we just keep quiet and teach our child that love means more than presents?

NEW PARENTS: The affection of very young children is easily bought with gifts. It takes a mature mind to reason that "love" means more than presents. Your husband should explain this to his generous parents. They'll understand.

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of a man who comes into someone's home and sits the entire evening in the company of men and women without removing his hat? Thank you. D. McC.

DEAR D.: He has either no manners, no hair, or a new hat.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Drouths Are Still Concern

WASHINGTON (AP)—The drouths which plagued wide sections of the country last fall continue to concern farmers and to confuse federal crop control officials.

A U. S. Weather Bureau crop bulletin said today preparation of land for planting of spring crops lags over much of the eastern half of the nation.

Rains last week brought additional moisture to the already wet southeast. Planting of cotton, corn and other crops in southern Texas was behind normal.

An Agriculture Department March crop report said farmers in the midwest are worried over the continued absence of moisture in sufficient amounts to begin restoring short soil moisture supplies. In the northern great plains, evaporation has been high because of above normal temperatures.

Public Sentiment Turns From Guns

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army believes the assassination of President Kennedy has created an American revulsion to guns and that this attitude is hurting its civilian marksmanship program.
