Snake Hunt Puts 750 In The Bag

The second annual Rattlesnake Roundup, sponsored by Big Spring Jaycees, closed Sunday with 750 angry reptiles in the bag by 82 registered hunters.

"We'll clear from $1,500 to $2,000 after expenses, and all that money is tagged for charity," Walter Wheat, chairman, said.

When the awards were given out at 5:45 p.m. Sunday, Big Spring's Dalton Carr received $75 for bringing in more pounds of snakes than any other contestant.

Colorado City's Ira Hardin took second and a $50 check for 207 1/2 pounds; Bob Smith, Abilene, had 152 1/2 pounds for the third place check of $25.

Other awards were: Bob Beal, Luther, $10 for the longest snake (67-inches); and Bill Williamson, Sweetwater, and Carr, $5 each for the snake with the most rattles (14).

The two barns serving as round-up headquarters were the scene Sunday of a curious crowd that shoved forward anxiously in an attempt to take a first-hand look at the dusty reptiles.

Rattlesnake meat, at 25 cents, was sold to some who appeared to enjoy it once they got the courage to take the first bite.

The general attitude of the spectators was summed up by one elderly woman, who told a friend: "I wouldn't have anything to do with them. They're just horrible."

Winner's Smile

Dalton Carr (right), Big Spring, was all smiles Sunday afternoon. He was $75 richer for bringing in the most pounds of snakes in the Rattlesnake Round-Up.

Bagging A Big One

Among the hunters here were Jimmy Montgomery, Lubbock (a former Big Springer), and Darrell Sanders, Big Spring. Sanders is seen lowering one of three snakes the pair caught into a can as Montgomery gets ready to slam the lid.

Mold Linked With Asthma

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A yeast-like mold that may be growing inside half the world's inhabitants has been found to cause asthma, an allergy specialist said today.

Dr. Irving H. Ikin, head of allergy and asthma research at National Jewish Hospital, said in an interview that the mold, known as Candida albicans, grows in any warm, moist area — and it is often found in a human's mouth or throat.

"Possibly half the human population carries it around," Ikin said.

The growth of the mold, Ikin added, is encouraged by the prolonged use of antibiotics and steroid drugs used to treat asthma and arthritis.

Ikin also said that the presence of the mold within one's body does not necessarily mean the person is susceptible to asthma. Only those who are sensitive — or allergic — to the mold will probably get asthma.

The mold itself doesn't generally cause disease — although it has been blamed for thrush, a childhood ailment encouraged by lack of vitamins.

The presence of the mold, Ikin said, has been known for many years, "but it was overlooked by practically every allergist in the world as a possible cause for asthma."

Scientists at National Jewish discovered almost accidentally the connection between the mold and asthma — a respiratory disease. There are about four million asthma sufferers in the United States.

Ikin said that an Israeli patient was brought to the hospital suffering from asthma of an apparently unknown origin.

About the same time Ikin learned that the incidence of the mold was very high in Israel. Ikin tested the patient with an extract of the mold and found that it produced a severe allergic reaction.

Police Seek Clues In Martinez Murder

Police today were continuing their investigation into the death of Ignacio C. Martinez. The body of the farm laborer, about 45, was found early Sunday morning behind a tree near an alley between the 500 block of Northwest Third and Northwest Fourth.

He was found face down near the alley and had been shot three times with a .380 caliber automatic pistol, police said. Martinez had lived at the Bob Ballinger farm about 22 miles south of Big Spring where he worked as a tractor operator, officers said.

Three spent cartridges were found near the body and two bullets were recovered from the body, the investigation disclosed. A third bullet, which passed through the body, has not been found.

The body was discovered by Mrs. Pearl Lister, 38, 507 NW 4th. She told L. D. Hopkins, 48, of the discovery, who asked Ida Douglas to call police, investigators said.

Mrs. Meloa Perry, 32, 507 NW 4th, told police she heard a car in the alley, and five or six shots about 3 or 4 a.m. Sunday.

Investigating officers said they also had been told that Martinez had quit his farm job Saturday and that he had performed work recently for V. A. Gomez, owner of an apartment house north of the alley where the body was found.

Funeral is pending at Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. A letter from a Victoria Martinez, Kerrville, was found on the body. Police said they are checking to see if she is related to the dead man and whether there are other survivors. Police said robbery apparently was not a motive for the killing since about $75 was found on the body.

Justice of the Peace Jess Slaughter, who examined the body at the funeral home, said he is withholding an official ruling pending further investigation. County Commissioner Ray Nichols examined the body at the scene after he was summoned by police.

Nehru Asks Pakistan Aid To End Riots

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru has urged Pakistan to join with India in measures to halt Moslem-Hindu rioting which has resulted in some 200 deaths in eastern India.

Nehru made the proposal in a private letter to Pakistani President Mohammed Ayub Khan on Friday, informed sources disclosed today. Nehru was described as greatly concerned that the religious disorders might turn into massacres and provoke new trouble between India and Pakistan.

The 74-year-old Indian leader, still recovering from a mild stroke in January, urged immediate talks between the home ministers of both nations as a first step in a joint effort to prevent further bloodshed.

NO REPLY Ayub Khan has not yet replied to Nehru's overture, the sources said.

Nehru described the rampages of Hindu mobs as a reaction to anti-Hindu rioting in East Pakistan last December and January and the flood of Hindu refugees into India from the predominantly Moslem area, the sources said.

The Indian government says 150,000 refugees from East Pakistan entered India in the first 11 weeks of the year. Some Christians were in the exodus.

Home Minister Guizari Lal Nanda revealed in Parliament that the number of dead had risen to about 200. He refused to answer questions, explaining that details of the rioting could only incite further violence.

FIRE ON MOBS He did say, however, that troops and police fired on mobs on 18 separate occasions, killing four persons and injuring 27. He said the disorders were occurring in a belt along the east coast railroad on which Hindu refugees from East Pakistan are being moved to resettlement areas.

Nanda said the government was doing everything possible to protect Moslems and that "a considerable number" of Moslem men, women and children had been removed to "safe areas."

STEEL TOWN The bloodiest anti-Moslem rioting in India last week took place in Rourkela, a steel town in Orissa State where more than 1,500 troops are on patrol amid an uneasy calm. At least 53 persons were killed in Rourkela.

Claims Mob Injures Liz

BOSTON (AP) — A press agent for Elizabeth Taylor complained today that the actress was injured by an unruly mob of youths who stormed Logan International Airport and a Boston hotel for a look at her and her actor husband, Richard Burton.

Discussing a jam at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel in which the Burtons were jostled as they pushed their way through the lobby Sunday, John Springer said Mrs. Burton required the attentions of a doctor after the incident.

"She wrenched her back and arm," he said, "and was almost in a state of collapse."

"I've never seen such an uncontrolled reception," he complained. "The Burtons wanted to say hello to their fans, but under these conditions it was impossible."

Hotel manager Daniel Nyboe, who ran interference for the couple to get them inside the hotel, described the experience as "the worst thing I've been through in my life."

By the time they reached the elevator, Burton was in a rage and his wife near hysterics.

The Burtons arrived here with the company of Shakespearean players who will present "Hamlet" at the Shubert Theater, opening Tuesday.

Texas Founding Museum Mapped

WASHINGTON - ON - THE-BRAZOS, Tex. (AP) — A drive to raise $900,000 to build a star-shaped museum at this historical spot was planned at the weekend at Washington State Park.

The museum would feature mural displays chronicling the history of Texas, including the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence here.

PRESIDENT GREETED BY WALTER REUTHER Chief executive arrives at Atlantic City for UAW address

War For Well-Being Plugged By Lyndon

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — President Johnson called for a "warm hearted war" today for the well-being of the American people.

The President spoke in his first address to the big labor organization, at the annual convention of the United Auto Workers Union in the Atlantic City Convention Hall. This will be the setting for Johnson's expected nomination for the presidency by the Democratic party next August.

Three thousand delegates and perhaps 9,000 guests gave the chief executive a rousing welcome and broke into his address with loud and frequent applause.

CIVIL RIGHTS One of the loudest outbursts came when he assured the convention that "we are going to pass the civil rights bill if it takes all summer."

The convention has adopted a resolution backing the bill.

The President was not making a political speech labeled as such. But the talk had political overtones.

His party and he, himself, are counting on heavy labor backing.

Johnson lauded the UAW as "a clean, honest and progressive union led by President Reuther and his fellow officials, all elected democratically by your votes."

AT HOME He said that whatever the challenges or the complexities or the crises confronting the nation, it never stands straighter or stronger in the world than does the individual at home. He said that militarily this nation is strong and no country is stronger.

This led Johnson to the point of declaring that now the times at home require "a warm party war for the well-being of the people at home."

This brought a burst of applause.

There was another when Johnson assured the UAW that "we are going to pass the medical assistance bill for the aged and do so no matter how many months it takes."

BARGAINING The convention will map union goals for this year's contract bargaining.

profits outstripping productivity increases.

But UAW President Walter P. Reuther told a news conference last Wednesday that the annual productivity gain in the auto industry is 4.9 per cent, instead of 3.2, and that the higher figure would be "a minimum economic goal" for his union this year.

FANTASTIC Reuther called profits of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler fantastic in the last year. Three-year UAW contracts with the big three of the industry expire Aug. 31.

Reuther deftly turned aside Sunday an attempt to put the convention's 3,000 delegates on record as supporting Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

That proposal came from John M. McCarrell, president of Local 544 of Pittsburgh. It came in the wake of Kennedy's acceptance of the UAW's "Social Justice Award," presented posthumously to President John F. Kennedy.

Ruling McCarrell out of order Reuther said: "We could do nothing more damaging to Bob Kennedy than to support him for that office now. Sometimes your best friends can be your worst enemy."

SAME HALL Pointing out that the Democrats will choose their vice presidential candidate in August in the same convention hall, Reuther added: "I'm sure President Johnson will have some say on that."

Reporters counted only six raised hands in opposition to a convention resolution saying that "the single most important civil rights event in 1964 must and will be enactment" by the U.S. Senate of the House-approved civil rights bill.

President Johnson was lauded in another resolution for "his pledge to lead the nation in unconditional war, here and now, on poverty."

Fuss Over Press Talk Said Cause

DALLAS (AP) — Houston Attorney Percy Foreman said today he was pulling out of the Jack Ruby case because of disagreements with members of Ruby's family.

Foreman said the disagreement was over his relations with the press.

He said Eva Grant, one of Ruby's sisters, advised him to limit his discussions with newsmen to "no comment." Foreman said he thought that was wrong.

Foreman, 61, a 6-foot-4-inch lawyer had met with Ruby Sunday for the first time since agreeing Thursday to take over the defense of the killer of President John F. Kennedy's accused assassin.

He had said he would meet again today with Ruby, 32, night club operator who was convicted of murder with malice and given the death penalty March 15 for the slaying of Oswald.

But Foreman told newsmen at the courthouse that he was bowing out, and read them a letter he said he had written to Ruby, telling him of his decision.

Telling of his disagreement with Mrs. Grant, Foreman said he felt that Ruby had been tried and convicted in news media before his trial in court. He said he thought it necessary to keep the public informed of developments in the case.

Two members of Ruby's original defense team — Joe Tonahill of Jasper and Phil Burleson of Dallas — worked with Foreman after Ruby dismissed Belli a week ago.

Oswald's Steno Due To Testify

DALLAS (AP) — The stenographer who typed up notes for Lee Harvey Oswald for a book he was writing about Russia has been asked to testify before the Warren Commission in Washington this week.

Miss Pauline Bates of Fort Worth, who said the accused presidential assassin picked her name out of a phone book, was informally interviewed over the weekend by staff members of the commission investigating the death of President Kennedy Nov. 22.

Soviets Agree To Return Downed U.S. Air Officers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has agreed to return two American fliers shot down over East Germany March 10. Their fellow crewman was released Saturday.

The announcement that the two were to be freed was made Sunday by Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the CBS radio-television program "Face the Nation." He got the word by telephone from Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin just before going on the air.

"I would hope the matter will now be taken off the books," Rusk said. The secretary did not say when the fliers would be freed, only that "they shortly will be back in this country."

The airmen are Capt. David I. Holland, 35, of Holland, Minn., and Melvin J. Kessler, 31, of Philadelphia. The third member of the crew, Lt. Harold W. Welch, 24, of Detroit, was freed by Soviet authorities Saturday.

The Americans were aboard a reconnaissance plane shot down by Soviet fighters in East German airspace. The three parachuted to safety.

Rusk said there were no dealings with the East Germans in getting the fliers released. He denied that the plane was on a spying mission.

The Russians have been insisting that the fate of the Americans was a matter to be settled by the United States and East Germany. Washington has refused to deal with the East German government, contending the Soviet Union is still the occupation authority in East Germany.

conclusion these men should be released."

The secretary sidestepped, however, a question as to whether the United States had established the principle that the incident was a Soviet responsibility.

At a news conference Saturday, President Johnson declined comment on Welch's release and did not discuss the plane incident.

Cuban's Body, Teenager Sent Home From U.S.

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — The United States has returned to Havana the body of a Cuban air force helicopter pilot slain by two defectors when he refused to fly them to Florida.

Also aboard the U.S. government plane was Cuban cadet Sergio Roque, 17, crewman aboard the hijacked helicopter that landed here Friday. He survived the gun battle over the Florida Straits.

Two immigration officials were aboard the Federal Aviation Agency plane that left Sunday night for Havana.

The Fidel Castro government had demanded return of Roque, the pilot's body, the two anti-Castroites who sought U.S. asylum, and the helicopter.

The State Department said extradition of the two defectors must await court action.

The helicopter remained in Navy custody here. Investigation was reported under way on how the helicopter reached Key West without being detected by a new $4 million Navy radar installation.

State Toll Climbs To 30 For Weekend

By The Associated Press

Thirty persons lost their lives violently in Texas this weekend. Traffic accidents accounted for at least 21 of the deaths.

The Associated Press began its regular weekly tabulation of violent deaths at 6 p.m. Friday and continued it until midnight Sunday.

A Houston truck driver, Thomas Allen Shelton, was killed near Midfield in Matagorda County Sunday when his truck struck a shallow ditch along Texas 111.

Two-year-old Craig Dean Hanks drowned Sunday in Lake Jacksonville. The child disappeared while visiting the lake-side home of friends with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hanks of Troup.

Pedro de la Rosa, 14, was killed Sunday night as a car left Farm Road 506 and hit a palm tree just south of Santa Rosa in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Two other youths were seriously injured.

LAWYER DIES
J. B. Talley, 85, Temple lawyer, was killed and his wife seriously injured in a two-car crash Sunday night on Interstate 35 between Temple and Belton. Two other persons suffered slight injuries.

Deciderio Ramos Garcia, 48, was killed Sunday when a car overturned near McAllen in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. The driver of the automobile suffered only minor injuries.

Three Henderson women were killed when a car went out of control at Kilgore and crashed into a pine tree early Sunday. They were Bernice Coleman, 28; Bessie Mae Ramey, 20, and Nancy McAfee, 24. Three other Henderson residents were seriously hurt.

Erwin Paul Miller, 51, of San Benito died early Sunday when his station wagon crashed into a Missouri Pacific train at San Benito.

NEAR HOUSTON
Two Houston men died early Sunday when their cars collided south of Arcola in the Houston area. They were Willifred D. Moody, 27, and George Leroy Rich, 46.

Mrs. Jewell Gibson of Longview died Sunday of injuries suffered in a two-car accident north of Longview Saturday.

T. C. Parrish, 25, of Diboll drowned in the Neches River Saturday night when a boat in which he and a companion were fishing overturned.

Edward Ernest Martinez, 18, of Munday was killed Saturday night when a car went out of control a mile south of Munday and rolled over four or five times. Two other youths were injured.

Richard Davis, 16, of Bullard was fatally injured Saturday when the car in which he was riding overturned 11 miles southwest of Tyler.

FORT WORTH
Three persons died in the collision of a car and a tractor-trailer north of Fort Worth before midnight Saturday. They were identified as Roger Lee Searis; his wife, Ruby Jean, 34, and Mary Shopp, 36, all of Wichita Falls. Police said their convertible spun into the opposite highway lane and was struck broadside by the 23,000-pound grain truck.

John B. McDonald, 44, Odessa businessman, died Saturday night 12 miles east of Dryden near the Mexican border when his automobile sideswiped a bridge railing on U.S. 90 and burned.

Ignacio Martinez, 42, a ranch-hand who worked 10 miles north of Sterling City, was found shot to death Sunday in a Big Spring alley. Officers were investigating the shooting.

William Scarborough, Corpus Christi lawyer, collapsed and died Friday night after an auto collision at the driveway of his home. An investigation was ordered to determine the cause of death.

TREE CRASH
David O'Connell, 18, of San Antonio was killed early Saturday when the car in which he was riding ran off a curving road and struck a tree.

John Eugene Stell, 19, of Waco died Friday night after his car collided with another vehicle and then crashed into a utility pole.

Two men died Saturday near Artesia Wells when a car ran off a bridge and struck an embankment. The victims were Handley B. Shull, 25, of Wilmington, Del., and Alfonso G. Mendez, 31-year-old Colombian exchange student at the University of Oklahoma.

William A. Green, 54, a carpenter, was killed when he fell from a bridge under construction near Fort Worth Saturday.

SHOT AT DESK
Robert M. Jackson, 35, manager of a Dallas used car firm, was shot to death as he sat at his desk Saturday. Police held a 28-year-old woman for questioning.

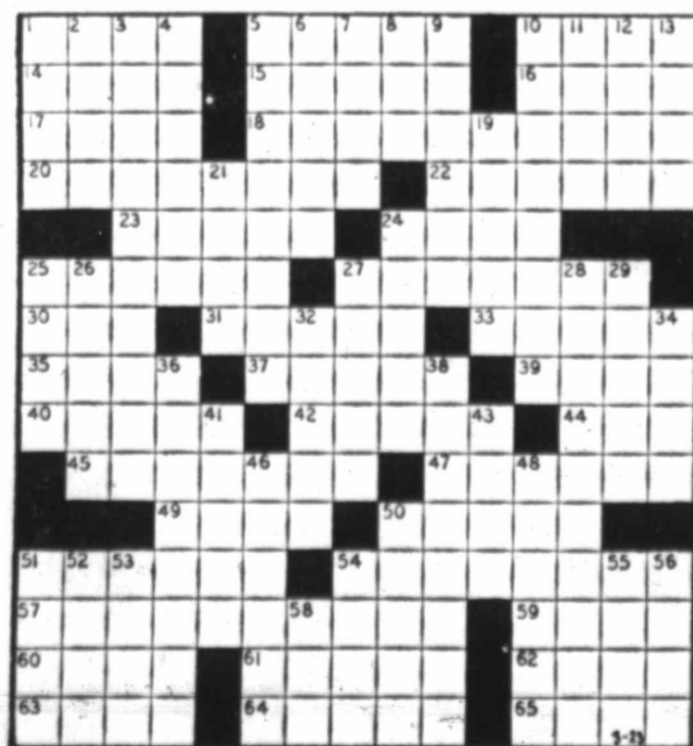

C. D. Johnson III, 19-year-old Robert E. Lee High School football player, was killed Saturday near Houston when a 12-gauge shotgun accidentally discharged as he stumbled while dismounting a tractor. He had been hunting.

Jimmy Edwards, 11, of Houston died Saturday following a fight with a playmate his own age. Police said the boy had a record as a heart patient. The boy collapsed after the fight.

Mike Harris, 12, of Haskell was electrocuted Saturday while flying a kite with copper wire near his home. The kite fell across power lines.

Sulphur Queen Disappearance As Mysterious As Year Ago

NEW YORK (AP)—A winter morning chill lay on the docks at Beaumont, Tex., where Edith Martin stood watching the big converted tanker steam down the Neches River.

The date was Feb. 2, 1963, a Saturday. Ahead for the S. S. Marine Sulphur Queen was a voyage to oblivion.

Mrs. Martin and her husband, Adam, 47, an assistant engineer known to his shipmates as "Mart," had just returned from vacation. He said goodbye and left her ashore.

"I stood there alone," she recalled, "watching until she passed out of sight. I'm the last one who saw the ship when she put out."

There was nothing then to hint that the Sulphur Queen and her 39 crewmen would become one of the sea's intriguing mysteries. Mysteries like the fate of the USS Cyclops, which vanished with 309 men after sailing from Barbados March 4, 1918. Or the Mary Celeste, found flying the Atlantic in December 1872, with her galley stoves still burning but her crew missing without a trace.

5-DAY TRIP

The Sulphur Queen, 15,315 tons of molten sulphur in her cargo tanks, entered the Gulf of Mexico, Capt. James V. Fanning, 44, a seaman for 30 years set course for the Straits of Florida and a five-day trip to Norfolk, Va.

It was the 64th trip of the ship since the 19-year-old World War II T-2 type tanker was altered to handle the 265-degree Fahrenheit sulphur. She had carried almost one million tons of her specialized cargo without trouble.

Fanning sent a routine departure message.

The Sulphur Queen's two high-frequency radios remained silent until 9:36 p.m. Sunday when one came to life with a personal message from Willie T. Manuel, a crewman who dabbled in the commodity markets.

WHEAT FUTURES

He directed his broker in Tampa to order 5,000 bushels of May wheat futures on the Chicago Board of Trade. The contracts sold for $2.09 a bushel and could have earned Manuel $1,000 had he held them until May 21.

The message confirming the purchase never reached him. Western Union told the brokerage office of Thomson & McKinnon that the ship "has not responded to our radio calls."

On Monday afternoon, two American merchantmen saw the Sulphur Queen 25 miles southwest of Dry Tortugas, Fla., flying a "not under command" signal. The two black balls, suspended one beneath the other on a halyard, warned other vessels that the ship is not maneuverable. The internationally recognized signal does not ask for help.

This was the last known sighting of the Sulphur Queen. The Coast Guard believes the 524-foot vessel sank that day. "She must have gone down like that!" said Rear Adm. James D. Craik with a snap of the fingers. The date was Feb. 4.

SEVENTH CHILD

That same day, Ada Heard was in DePaul Hospital in Norfolk, giving birth to her seventh child, Kim. Her husband, Aaron, 34, was a wiper on the Sulphur Queen.

"I never have had a fear of the ship," said Mrs. Heard. "I believe it was captured by the Russians. I believe my husband and the other members of the crew are being held prisoner in Russia. I am hoping and praying that one day he will come back home."

However, Mrs. Heard's damage suit for $1,350,000 against the owners and operators of the Sulphur Queen is the largest of $21 million in such actions filed by crewmen's relatives in U.S. District Court in New York. They claim the ship was "unsafe, unseaworthy and improperly loaded." The defendants stoutly dispute this.

AMA Rapped For Failure To Join Cigarette Fight

(AP) — A top-ranking surgeon said today the American Medical Association is derelict in its duty for failing to urge that all cigarette packages and advertising carry a health hazard warning.

Dr. Alton Ochsner, emeritus professor of surgery, Tulane University, and a pioneer in indicting cigarette smoking as a major cause of lung cancer, made the statement in addressing the sixth annual seminar for science writers sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

He did so in commenting on a letter sent to the Federal Trade Commission recently by Dr. F.J.L. Blasingame, executive vice president of the AMA.

In the letter, Dr. Blasingame said that Congress, not the FTC, should decide on any limitations on cigarette advertising, and that warning labels — as advocated by the FTC — would not do much good because people already are aware of the alleged hazards of smoking.

SMOKE POURS FROM FREIGHTER BETH Crew rescued from oil, chemical-laden vessel in Caribbean

Burning Ship Crew Rescued

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Twenty seamen were rescued from the Caribbean Sunday night after abandoning the blazing freighter Beth, owned by a New Yorker, and skippered by his brother.

The Liberian freighter World Jongluc picked up the men from their lifeboat and headed for a rendezvous with the Coast Guard cutter Aurora, which was dispatched to bring them to San Juan. They were due today.

All the survivors were reported in good condition. Among them were George Markakis, the master, and the chief engineer, Alexander Markakis, brothers of the owner, Andreas Markakis of New York.

The 2,300-ton Beth, which flies the Panamanian flag, was reported to sink as she wallowed in seas south of the Dominican Republic, the flames fed by a cargo of lubricating oil and chemicals.

The freighter caught fire about 2 a.m. Sunday while sailing from Port Arthur, Tex., to the French island of Martinique southeast of Puerto Rico.

The Beth's radio operator flashed word to the Coast Guard at San Juan 300 miles away that the fire had gotten out of control.

Minutes later came a second signal that the crew was abandoning ship.

Coast Guard and Navy planes took off from Puerto Rican bases and spotted the lifeboat bobbing in the waves. The planes circled the survivors and communicated by means of a radio parachuted to the lifeboat.

Fringe Benefits In U.S. Labor Contracts Backed

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

FRINGE BENEFITS: President Johnson told members of the AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Department today that he favors legislation to insure labor fringe benefits as part of federal construction work.

Johnson, who is scheduled to address the legislative conference for the labor group Tuesday, said in an advance message: "I can assure you that this bill providing for fringe benefits as part of the prevailing wage on federal construction work has the continuing support of this administration."

MEMENTOS: A collection of papers and mementos of the late President John F. Kennedy will go on exhibit in 23 American cities.

New Yorkers will see it first. It will open there May 29, which would have been Kennedy's 47th birthday. The schedule for other cities has not been completed.

NO APOLOGY: Secretary of State Dean Rusk says there is no need to apologize to Sens. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, because he never called them quitters for differing with him on foreign policy.

The secretary said his Salt Lake City speech last Thursday was not aimed at the senator but at views expressed in mail received at the State Department.

On Friday Morse told the Senate — and Gruening agreed with him in a second speech — that the country "can well afford to get along" without Rusk. Morse accused the secretary of using "McCarthy smear tactics" against opponents of his policies. Gruening agreed and requested an apology.

Soviet Sailor Said Recaptured

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Russian seamen were reported Monday to have recaptured the chief mate of the Soviet whaling vessel Vladivostok after he jumped overboard in Cape Town harbor and swam to a Japanese trawler 100 yards away.

The captain of the Soviet ship was quoted as saying the man had become deranged during a long Antarctic voyage and had been receiving medical care under guard for some months.

CAN YOU FAULT THIS?

You may be able to fault us on many things (we do not claim perfection), but can you fault us on the following?

The only thing we are trying to do is make faithful Christians of people. We would not change anyone who is a faithful Christian. We have no denomination for people to join. We are convinced that when people become Christians, the Lord adds them to the church — His church (Acts 2:47; Matt. 16:18). That is the only institution we promote.

That is the only church of which we are members. We are Christians; only; and we want people to become nothing but Christians.

Can you fault this? Over the past 20 months, the above article has appeared twice before; but we one has written us, come to us in an attempt to fault these things.

If you cannot fault these things, then will you face up to them?

W. R. Grace & Co. Reaches New Highs

Chemical Group reports record earnings and sales

Topping its 1962 records, W. R. Grace & Co. in its Annual Report reveals net income at $28,503,000 and sales and revenues at $596,790,000 — both the highest they have ever been in the company's history. Earnings per share were $2.38 in 1963 as compared with $1.97 in 1962, an increase of 21%.

Sales and earnings of W. R. Grace & Co.'s Chemical Group continued their growth in 1963, strengthening the company's position in this United States-based business as well as in overseas markets. This represents further progress toward the goals set when the decision was made to enter the chemical field and reflects the heavy capital investments of the past decade.

Another factor in Grace's record highs was the petroleum investment in Libya, which contributed sales and earnings for the first time in 1963. Earnings of the South American Group were significantly higher than in the previous year with increased profits from paper, food and sugar operations accounting for much of the gain. Grace Line's reported earnings also were higher. Grace continued to develop its position in the European food industry and now has a majority interest in three leading companies in the cocoa and chocolate field.

The 1963 Annual Report describes all aspects of W. R. Grace & Co.'s business, with emphasis on operations in agricultural chemicals, plastics, chemicals for packaging and industrial and specialty chemicals.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Brighten That Easter Chapeau With Paint

Dear Gals:
Stop . . . Look . . . and Listen . . .

Easter is just around the corner, along with budgets, too . . . remember?

Two Easters ago I wore the cutest straw hat I have ever had. I simply loved it. We all have one of these favorite hats. My daughter has one, too.

But . . . sometimes they turn yellow after a season or so.

Here's what I did:
I took all the trimming off, turned the hat upside down on a newspaper and sprayed the inside of it with dime store paint from a fizz can! (We want the inside looking nice, too.)

After the inside dried, I turned the hat over and sprayed the outside!

Now I have a new straw Easter hat that is a delicate turquoise color. (The paint gives the old straw new "body.") I used dull-type enamel.

On my daughter's hat I used a flat white spray. It's real lush! The paint covered all the yellow aging. (Don't we wish we could cover our age with five minutes and a fizz can?)

Get some new trim from your dime store and re-trim the straw hat. You will be thrilled with the results. Sometimes the old trim can be rejuvenated with a small brushing ('special' if it's flowers) and used for another season or so.

And gals, the spray paint WILL NOT WORK on felt hats. I hope we all remember that. This hint is ONLY for straw hats.

But if you do have an old straw hat that you can't possibly wear the way it is, try getting that old can of leftover fizz paint from the garage, or buy a small can of new paint, and spend a few minutes making your own creation.

You might turn up in church Easter morning with the cutest and most comfortable hat there. And what's more comfortable than a broken-in hat that you feel comfortable in?

Don't tell me. I know . . . it's old shoes! . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:
Before ironing handkerchiefs and underwear I spray some cologne on them and the fragrance is baked in when I iron.

Both my husband and son agree that it gives them a pleasant "lift." After all, we gals have to please our breadwinners, too. . . . Mary Higgins

Dear Heloise:
Recently there was a letter from a mother who wanted help in keeping her toddler's shoes white.

Here is what I do:
I put adhesive tape around the toes of my baby's shoes. Then when I go some place special the tape can be removed and underneath it is a nice white shoe! I cover just as much of the shoe as will drag along the floor when he crawls, and only the adhesive becomes dirty.

The adhesive could also be applied to the side of a shoe in case your baby crawls sideways. . . . Mrs. G. V. Olliver

Dear Heloise:
Now that it is almost time to store your blankets and winter clothing, here is a good suggestion:
After reading the paper today, use this paper to lay between your blankets and clothing. This will keep the moths away. I even hang newspapers on my coat hangers to cover my dresses and coats. You will never see a moth again. It's inexpensive but so good . . . Mrs. K. C.

Ladies, many books say that there is something in newspaper print that keeps some types of bugs away. This hint comes in from time to time, so I feel it is worth repeating . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:
How to frost windows in your bathroom?

I simply took some white enamel paint, that I had leftover from one of my painting jobs in the kitchen.

I crumpled a piece of clean paper, dipped it in the paint and painted over the bathroom window panes and over a window in a paneled door.

I did a good job and have received many compliments because it looks just like frosted glass. . . . Mrs. Harry Baminski

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM

Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girle will contour your hips if they are a problem. The girle itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It feels like nothing on but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim" is the peak achievement of the designer, genius, Olga.
Be "Suddenly Slim" today in either girle or panty version. Featured at Hemphill-Wellis, Foundation Department, 214 Main St., Phone AM 4-8283.

Designers Vary Line For Spring

This year more than 75 designers were represented in a marathon of style shows presented simultaneously by both The American Designers Group coordinated by Eleanor Lambert and the New York Couture Group.

A preview of these styles indicate that you will have two choices in figuring this spring—either subtly or snugly. If you favor well-defined curves and/or a cinched-in waistline, you will seek the designers advocating the fitted look.

If you prefer to suggest your shape rather than shout it, you will drape yourself in bias-cut crepes and silks and loosely cut suits created by the unfitted camp. Your hemlines will stay put but your waistlines will dance up and down like a yo-yo, with many of them settling around the hip bone, and sashed or belted for emphasis. Sleeves on the new spring styles are capped, or long, full and gauzy. Or dresses are bare-shouldered, to be covered with capelets or brief jackets when the air conditioning demands it.

Better Hangers, Neater Closets

Wire coat hangers were never intended to be a closet version of the twisted Chinese puzzle. They are provided by the dry-cleaner merely to transport your clothes home. Wooden, plastic, or other hangers shaped to the curve of the shoulders are better for your closeted clothes, advises the National Institute of Drycleaning.

Girl Scouts Participate In District 4 Meeting

Senior Girl Scouts, troop 300, spent the weekend at Booth Oakes, Sweetwater, for a meeting of District 4 senior scouts and leaders. Troop 300 presented a skit on skiing, detailing the history of the sport and demonstrating techniques. They joined the group of 50 in a Sunday devotion and cook out. Senior Leaders held a training course and Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr. was in attendance. Local senior scouts taking part in the meeting were Sue Knox, Linda Fulbright, Erin Marcus, Carolyn Hooser, Nancy Thomas and Jean Armstrong. The group announced plans to spend the first week in June at Galveston.

Tall Girl Problems Have Easy Solution

By LYDIA LANE
NEW YORK—Carol Channing feels that no girl should allow herself to be unhappy about being tall. "When I was in my teens, I shot up to my full height, five-foot-eight, and towered above everybody in my class. I was miserable! Even the boys only came up to my shoulders. I was so self-conscious that I became painfully shy and a wallflower."

"I longed to be dainty, and I began to pretend that I was, and it was comforting. I thought

Raincoats Are Style Conscious

The little old rainmaker is sure to be in demand this spring by fashion-conscious women, considering what stylists have done to beautify once pedestrian raincoats. Primarily, they haven't stopped with the raincoat. Couturiers used to be content substituting silver linings in stormcoats with sables or minks. Today the big, but less expensive, wet weather status symbol is the raincoat with its own rain dress.

Several American designers, John Weitz among them, have come up with versions of the slick shift with its own slicker, boots and Sou'wester. The raincoat and dress may match in some cases, and in others the printed coat lining will be duplicated in the dress.

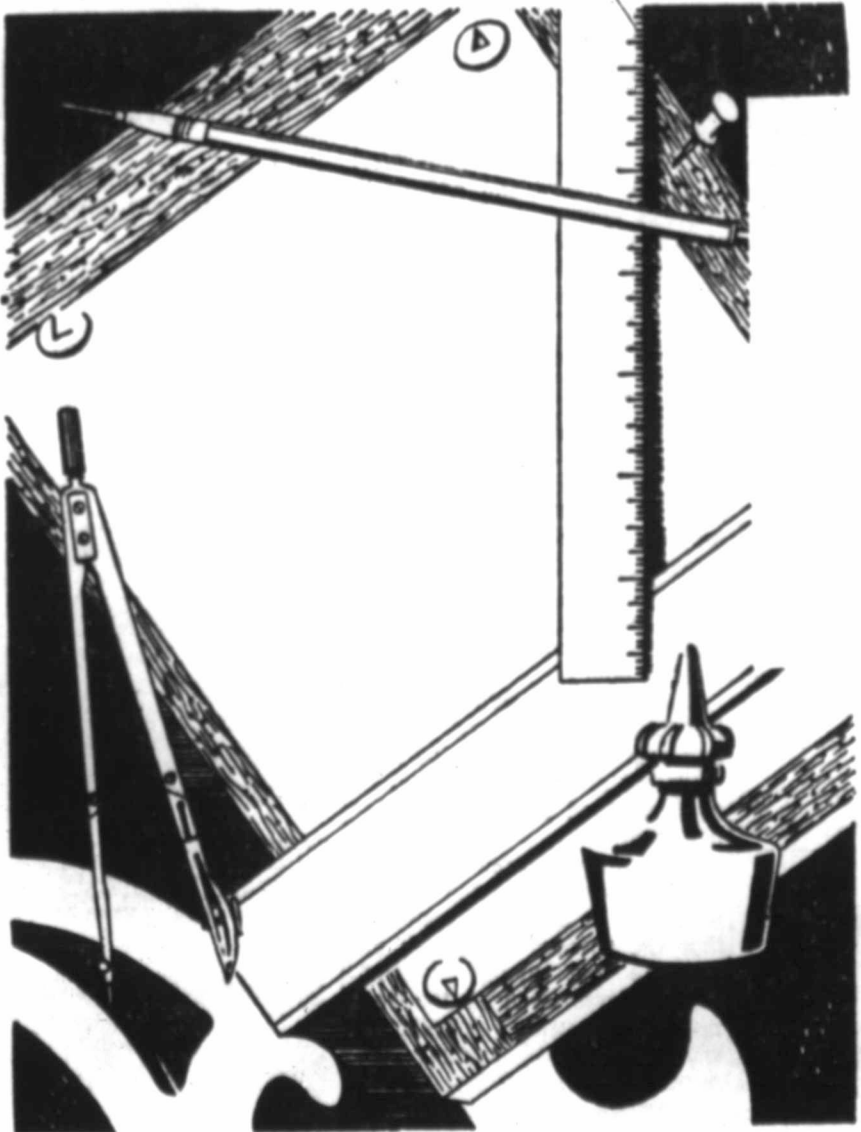

Still another kind of raindress is a fitted coat that, if kept buttoned up, can be worn in place of a dress. Increasingly popular in precipitation is the rain suit. Water repellent, of course, it is meant to be worn by itself with the aplomb of a duck, or covered with a short jacket or baby overcoat.

Rain coats fall into 3 categories: wet-looking, luxurious, and laminated.

Nature Furnishes Jewelry Designs

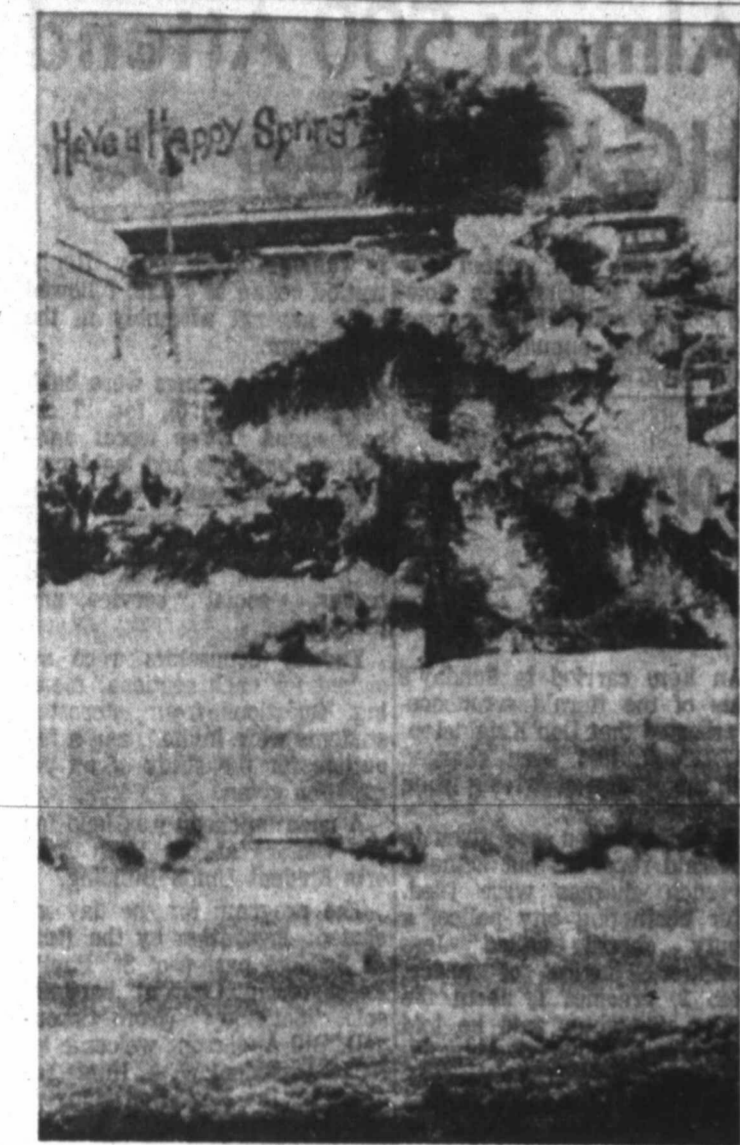

Jewelry goes back to nature with a difference. Paris spring collections showed less of it, leaving more natural areas exposed. What is used takes its design motifs from nature. Flowers and beetles on enameled brooches, for instance, were aluring at the Houses of Lanvin and Cardin.

Spring Snowstorm Buries Salt Lake

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—A wet spring snowstorm sloshed its way east today after dumping a foot of snow on Salt Lake City, hampering motorists and endangering livestock herds throughout the Rocky Mountain states.

Moisture also struck a damaging blow at the Los Angeles area. A steady downpour Sunday night washed glaciers of mud down hillsides swept by brush fires a week ago.

The Rocky Mountain storm left snow in uneven amounts. Salt Lake City received the greatest amount of moisture from any one storm since July 1962, but only three inches of snow fell 20 miles south at Provo, Utah. Billings, Mont., got seven inches within 12 hours.

Stockmen's warnings were issued for Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas as the storm moved east, but the Weather Bureau said it was losing its punch as it neared the Plains, bringing only clouds and light precipitation.

The Los Angeles mudslides brought crews from the Glendale, Burbank and Los Angeles fire departments to the hardest hit areas. Mud caved in garage doors, moved parked cars and covered sidewalks.

In New Mexico and the Texas Panhandle, the problem wasn't mud but dust, whipped up by 50-mile-an-hour winds on the southern fringes of the mountain storm. Presidio, Tex., reported severe dust storms and a high of 92 degrees Sunday, making it the hottest spot in the nation.

The dust turned skies brown in most of New Mexico. Several scheduled airline flights were delayed at Albuquerque.

The northern Rockies were hit with heavy snow, bitter cold and strong winds.

In Billings, Mont., 10 inches of snow have fallen since the storm began Sunday morning.

Stockmen from southeastern Idaho to the northern Plains and south into northwestern Kansas and eastern Colorado were warned to protect their animals.

Cold wave warnings are in effect for Wyoming, northern and eastern Colorado and western Nebraska. The Weather Bureau forecast heavy snow warnings for mountain areas of Wyoming and Colorado and for portions of western Utah and eastern Nevada.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q 1.—You are South, have 60 part score, and you hold:
♠ 4 ♥ KQ105 ♦ 62 ♣ AKQ1074

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♣ 1 ♦ 1 ♥ 1 ♠

What do you bid now?
A.—Some effort should be made to reach slam. The suggested call is three hearts, overbidding the game. If partner obliges by bidding three spades to show the spade control, you may now jump to five hearts. This should make it clear that if partner has second round control of diamonds he may then contract for slam. If in response to your three heart bid partner bids four diamonds, you may safely contract for six hearts yourself.

Q 2.—As South you hold:
♠ 54 ♥ QJ7642 ♦ J73 ♣ J5

The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
1 ♣ Pass 2 ♠ 3 NT
Dbl. ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. Partner is obviously not interested in hearing about your hearts. If he had the kind of hand you want him to have, he would have made a take-out double of the two spade bid, asking you to name your suit. His jump to three no trump is probably based on a long minor suit, which he may run to himself. In any event you should permit him to work out his own destiny.

Q 3.—As South you hold:
♠ A63 ♥ 432 ♦ KJ1097 ♣ Q10

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♣ Pass 1 ♦ 1 ♠
3 ♦ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. This bid serves a dual purpose. It may enable partner to bid three no trump if that happens to be the best contract or it may permit partner to look around for a slam if his hand is suited for the purpose. Your partner has opened the bidding and jumped. Your hand is not far from equivalent of an opening bid in strength. Slam possibilities are, therefore, not remote.

Q 4.—Partner opens with one club and you hold:
♠ KQJ108642 ♥ KQ ♦ 10 ♣ KQ

What is your response?
A.—Since the only hearts are ace, our own choice is an immediate leap to four no trump, a clear cut Blackwood bid. If partner happens to have four aces the grand slam is easy. If he has three, you contract for small slam. If he has only two, your contract of five spades will be safe.

Q 5.—As South you hold:
♠ AKQ42 ♥ Q9874 ♦ Q4 ♣ J

The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1 ♣ 1 ♦ Pass ?

What do you bid?
A.—With this inviting distribution we would be inclined to insist upon a game contract, even the partner has shown no great strength by his overcall at the level of one. Only a call of two spades will be accepted as proper. A mere bid of one spade would not be forcing on North who did not open the bidding, and might decide to quit.

Q 6.—As South you hold:
♠ QJ102 ♥ Q1084 ♣ AJ982

The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
Pass Pass Pass 1 ♦

What do you bid now?
A.—Our choice is two hearts. You should insist upon playing this hand for a game. Indeed, even if North has a minimum hand, there may be an easy slam if it happens to fit well. There is no way to describe the power of your holding after a previous pass, other than a cue bid in the adverse suit which, by inference, indicates a satisfaction with diamonds.

Q 7.—You are South, vulnerable, opponents are not, and you hold:
♠ 10 ♥ 743 ♦ AK972 ♣ KQ104

The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
3 ♥ 4 ♣ Pass ?

What do you bid?
A.—The lack of trump support should be no deterrent to action on your part. Partner has made it clear that his spade suit is self-sustaining. He should be able to win nine of the 10 tricks for which he has contracted, and you can win at least three. The opposition has made scientific investigation impossible, and we are in a favorable position. A call of five diamonds is pointless and can only be of assistance to the enemy, in the selection of an opening lead.

Q 8.—You are South, both sides are vulnerable and both sides have 60 part score, and you hold:
♠ AJ62 ♥ KJ5 ♦ J1062 ♣ J5

The bidding has proceeded:
East South

What do you bid?
A.—No action at all is recommended at this point. There is no need to be desperate. Partner should first be given an opportunity to act independently without a distorted picture of the scene which action by you would paint.

Attorneys Here Puzzled Over Tonahill Letter

Howard County attorneys are both puzzled and amused at a letter Joe Tonahill, lawyer for Jack Ruby, is quoted as having written his client.

In this letter, according to the Associated Press, Lawyer Tonahill said that Ruby, under death penalty for the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald, could not be retried for murder with malice. He told the defendant that the case would be reversed and that Ruby would not have to serve over a year.

Lawyers here wonder how Tonahill reached the conclusion that Ruby, even if he gets a new trial, can escape the murder with malice charge.

Gil Jones, district attorney, said that there is a possibility where a man charged with murder with malice is found guilty of murder without malice and appeals, if he wins a reversal, a retrial on the murder with malice charge is unlikely.

"Ruby was tried for murder with malice, found guilty of murder with malice," said Jones. "If he does appeal and if the case is reversed and the verdict set aside, there is no reason in the world for the prosecution to diminish the charge to murder without malice at a second trial."

Other attorneys agree with Jones.

Bowlers Give VA Donation

Five women bowlers, representing the Texas Women's Bowling Association, Inc. of San Angelo, last weekend put on a "big hearted" demonstration.

They donated $100 to the Veterans Administration Hospital here after losing a bowling match to a team from the hospital. The money will be used for recreation by patients, authorities said.

The sporting visitors' team includes Myrel Roberts, Kay Scheibler, Jocette Harlow, Opal Farmer and Rubie Metzger.

With lower handicap scores than the local team, the visitors dropped the three games of the match by scores of 817 to 907, 801 to 862 and 849 to 985 for match scores of 2,467 to 2,754.

Representing the Big Spring Veterans Administration Hospital team were Rusty Johnson, Aletha Holmes, Betty Ray Chilton, Chaplain Clark O. Hill and Dorothy Henderson.

ties for supporting the event. The sale which followed the show was satisfactory with lambs going briskly. Pigs and cattle were a little slower in the bidding, but the Co-op Gin at O'Donnell paid John Whitmire III 75 cents a pound for his 1,000-pound grand champion steer. This was the second consecutive year that John had the grand champion of the show.

Tommy Hancock and Sandra Hancock had the top barrow, while champion lambs were shown by Kenny Bennett (crossbred), Ricky Cunningham (fine wool) and Jimmy Hodges (Southdown).

The new facilities were praised by visitors, which included not only a number of visiting businessmen from Lamesa, O'Donnell, Post, Snyder and Big Spring, but also 4-H and FFA members from Howard County.

Among the buyers from Big Spring were Big Spring Hospital, Big Spring Locker, Cosden Oil and Chemical, Cowper Hospital, Driver Tractor and Implement, First Federal Savings and Loan Association, First Na-

Allen F. James Dies Sunday

Allen F. James, 69, of 3313 Tex Boulevard, Fort Worth, resident of Howard County for nearly 40 years, died at 12:05 a.m. Sunday at the home of a son, Allen C. James, Sterling City Route.

Mr. James was born Sept. 16, 1894 in Matagorda County. He was married to Sarah Frances Archer, May 19, 1912 at Morgan, and the family moved to West Texas in the early 1920s where he engaged in farming and ranching. He was employed by Cosden Petroleum Corporation in January, 1943, retired in 1959, and moved to Fort Worth.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Gulf, and a member of Park Methodist Church, Big Spring.

Services were held at Nalley-Pickel Funeral Home chapel at 2 p.m. today with the Rev. Jen Young, Methodist minister from Meadows, officiating. Burial will be in Kopperl (Texas) Cemetery at 3 p.m. Tuesday under the direction of Nalley-Pickel Funeral Home.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Sarah Frances James, Fort Worth; three sons, Allen C. James, Arlington, Archer F. James, Bedford; a daughter, Mrs. Walter Hicks, Hobbs, N.M.; two brothers, O. C. James, Lubbock, Virgil James, Oxnard, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Roy McKee, Piatown, N.M.; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. One son, William Monroe James, preceded him in death.

Pallbearers were John Sullivan, Frank Kennedy, Jack Griffin, Ray Richey, Charles Hicks, and Gale Hicks.

Judge Ralph Caton, who will preside, said that no further development in the case has developed and that a special venire will report at 10 a.m. to serve in the case.

The two defense attorneys, R. H. Weaver and Jack Little, appointed to represent Woodard by the court, said that they would be ready for trial insofar as they could tell today.

Woodard is accused of shooting Edward Lee Tillis to death last Oct. 25. The shooting occurred in a Negro pool parlor. It was said to have resulted from a quarrel over a 25 cent bet on a pool game.

This will be the third time that Woodard's case has been called for trial. The first time the case was called, it was shown the indictment was faulty. A new indictment was voted by the grand jury and the case reset. The second time it was slated for trial, Woodard announced he had no attorney. The court appointed Weaver who asked for time to prepare a defense.

The case was then set for March 23.

Woodard Trial Opens Tuesday

LAMESA (SC) — Medical Arts Hospital has been fully accredited by the state commissioners of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, it has been learned here.

Accreditation was accorded for three years and came following an evaluation survey conducted in January by John T. Boxwell, M. D., and field representatives of the commission.

The inspection process is sponsored by four national medical and hospital organizations which comprise the joint commission.

Engineers Will Meet Thursday

ODESSA — An organizational meeting of the Permian Basin Engineers Club will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at Odessa's Holiday Inn Motel east of town.

Blaine Kuist, vice president and director of engineering and construction for Rexall Chemical Company, will be the speaker. His talk will deal with the advancing professionalism in engineering and the activities of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

All chemical engineers in the area are invited.

Returned Here To Face Charges

Joe Nunez Jr., 18, was returned to Big Spring from Eastland Sunday to answer charges of statutory rape filed against him here. Bond was set in the sum of $5,000, but Nunez had not posted bail at noon.

Gil Jones, district attorney, said that the charge against the youth was filed sometime ago and that he has been sought since.

Miller Harris, sheriff, said that the man was arrested in Eastland on a local warrant.

Moore Community Lives Up To Happy Reputation

By JOE PICKLE

Moore community always has had a reputation for happy folk, and Sunday it lived up to this impression again when hundreds of people gathered for the second annual reunion.

Brisk winds forced the gathering from the City Park pavilion to the IOOF Hall, where tables were loaded with fine foods as in the good old days of dinner on the ground. Everyone agreed Johnny Miller, president, had done an excellent job of organizing and voted to continue the reunion. Truett Thomas was named president, succeeding Miller, and Mrs. Zirah Lee Fevre was named secretary, succeeding Mrs. Lee Castle.

Almost 500 Attend HCJC Career Day

Nearly 500 high school students from 20 schools in Howard County and adjoining areas attended the annual "Career Day" program at Howard County Junior College today. Registration began at 9 a.m. followed by a general assembly in the auditorium.

Correction Of Error

An item carried in Sunday's issue of the Herald erroneously asserted that Don Knightstep, 1317 Wood, had been charged with the offense of driving while intoxicated.

The information was given to a Herald reporter, but actually no such charges were filed. After contacting city police, a deputy sheriff called Jess Slaughter, justice of peace, place 2, precinct 11, about the matter. Slaughter said he told him to fix a $500 bond. Actually, Mr. Knightstep posted a recognizance bond on a lesser complaint in corporate court.

A DWI charge was not and has not been filed with county authorities. Although the information was received in good faith, the Herald wishes to correct the error, and to extend its sincere apologies for it.

L. A. Brunson Rites Slated

MIDLAND — Services for Lenton A. Brunson, 73, resident of this part of West Texas for 71 years, will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church in Midland. Burial will be in the Fairview Cemetery with Ellis Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Brunson died in a Midland hospital at 8:35 a.m. March 23. He had been ill for about a week.

He was the developer of Brunson Village in northeast Midland—an enterprise which occupies land on which his family settled when they came to Midland in 1893. He built Brunson Village in 1950.

He had spent most of his life in ranching and farming and his operations included holdings in Glasscock County.

He was born in Breckenridge Aug. 18, 1891.

Survivors include the widow: three daughters, Mrs. Carroll Hill, Odessa, Mrs. Paul Atchison, Abilene, Mrs. Jack Merrill, Breckenridge; one stepson, A. F. Weaver, Mineral Wells; two sisters, Mrs. A. L. Stell, Brownfield and Mrs. Lena Mae Bond, Abilene; three brothers, Gilbert C. Brunson, Albuquerque, N. M., Henry W. Brunson, Midland, D. W. Brunson Jr., Fort Worth. There are five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Budget, Claim On City Schedule

City commissioners have a busy day scheduled Tuesday. They will meet with representatives of Shift Brothers, Abilene, and Forrest and Cotton, Dallas, at 2 p.m. in the commission room of City Hall to discuss a $68,000 work claim.

Shift Brothers, contracting firm for the new sewage disposal plant and improvements at the old plant, claims the city owes the firm about $68,000 for extra work under the terms of the contract.

Forrest and Cotton is the city's consulting engineering firm. The firm has had a representative at the sewage disposal plant while work was being performed on the contract. City officials have said their position with regard to the claim would be determined by the recommendations of the consulting engineers.

Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock, commissioners will hold a public hearing on the budget for 1964-65. City Manager Larry Crow already has received budget requests from the department heads, and he has prepared tentative figures for each department.

Although no formal action has been taken, commissioners are considering raising Crow's salary from $12,900 to $14,000 annually. Salary increases for other city employees may be recommended after a pay and classification survey, now being performed, is completed.

The public hearing on the budget will be heard during the regular city commission meeting.

At this meeting, commissioners also will consider two requests for on-premises consumption of alcoholic beverages and open bids for the bank depository.

The requests for permits have been made by Mrs. Juanita P. Tucker for Ben's Tavern, 800 W. 4th, and by Leonard Robertson for El Tryango, 3800 US 80 west.

In addition, R. L. Chambers has requested $400 as compensation for damages to his home at 1702 Runnels. The damage allegedly was caused by a backup in the sewer line.

The department of public works is requesting permission to dispose of six old vehicles including five half-ton trucks and a car.

One of the trucks has been replaced by a truck acquired from the Surplus Property Agency and another has been replaced by one from the garbage department.

Other items on the agenda include approval of a water lease for the Big Spring Country Club, and consideration of bids for supplying the city with oil and gas.

Forrest and Cotton is the city's consulting engineering firm. The firm has had a representative at the sewage disposal plant while work was being performed on the contract. City officials have said their position with regard to the claim would be determined by the recommendations of the consulting engineers.

Tuesday night, at 7 o'clock, commissioners will hold a public hearing on the budget for 1964-65. City Manager Larry Crow already has received budget requests from the department heads, and he has prepared tentative figures for each department.

Although no formal action has been taken, commissioners are considering raising Crow's salary from $12,900 to $14,000 annually. Salary increases for other city employees may be recommended after a pay and classification survey, now being performed, is completed.

The public hearing on the budget will be heard during the regular city commission meeting.

At this meeting, commissioners also will consider two requests for on-premises consumption of alcoholic beverages and open bids for the bank depository.

The requests for permits have been made by Mrs. Juanita P. Tucker for Ben's Tavern, 800 W. 4th, and by Leonard Robertson for El Tryango, 3800 US 80 west.

In addition, R. L. Chambers has requested $400 as compensation for damages to his home at 1702 Runnels. The damage allegedly was caused by a backup in the sewer line.

The department of public works is requesting permission to dispose of six old vehicles including five half-ton trucks and a car.

One of the trucks has been replaced by a truck acquired from the Surplus Property Agency and another has been replaced by one from the garbage department.

Other items on the agenda include approval of a water lease for the Big Spring Country Club, and consideration of bids for supplying the city with oil and gas.

Time For Change

Texas' Department of Public Safety called on little Sheri Sanders to help remind Texas motorists that inspection stickers for 1964 are required on all motor vehicles before the April 15 deadline. Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the department, reports that some 1,500,000 Texas vehicles still do not have the new sticker, such as is planned to the seat of Sheri's diaper. Sheri is the year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sanders of Austin. (AP WIRE-PHOTO)

Latin Areas Involved In Beef Woes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration's problems with domestic cattlemen over low cattle prices and beef imports are spilling over into this country's relations with Latin America.

The administration has sought to placate the American livestockmen by negotiating agreements with Australia, New Zealand and Ireland restricting imports of meats from those countries and by stepping into the domestic market to buy beef for the school lunch and welfare programs. But these actions have not satisfied the cattlemen and some congressmen from major livestock states.

Mexican cattlemen have stepped into the debate over imports to side with their American brothers. They have sent representatives here to protest that the import limitations imposed on Australia, New Zealand and Ireland are not adequate.

SUFFER, TOO

They say that if U.S. cattlemen are hurt by imported supplies and low cattle prices in this country, Mexican cattlemen will suffer correspondingly. Low prices in this country are reflected in low prices in Mexico and other Latin American countries.

Here for recent conferences on the situation, Octavio R. Elias, widely known cattleman of the Mexican state of Sonora, told a group of U.S. congressmen that this country should impose much greater restrictions on imports. He said his country as well as other Latin American countries which export meat to this country would be willing to agree to restrict shipments of live cattle and beef to the United States to a recent five-year average.

LEGISLATION

Such an average is being sought in legislation being considered by a Senate committee. The agreements reached with Australia and New Zealand limit their shipments to about the 1962-63 average. Shipments based on a five-year average would make a much sharper reduction in imports from these countries.

Elias said Mexican cattlemen are deeply disturbed over the American price situation and the Australia and New Zealand agreements.

"Our concern is based," he said, "upon the fact that the depressed U.S. cattle market is largely brought on by excessive imports."

PRIME CAUSE

The Johnson administration does not agree that imports are the major factor. It contends increased domestic production is the prime cause.

Government purchases of beef for school lunches and needy persons have not yet been reflected in any measurable upturn in cattle prices. In fact, prices of slaughter cattle declined at Midwest markets last week following two weeks of upturns. Last week and this, the purchases totaled 9 million pounds, or less than 2 per cent of commercial production under federal inspection.

Mad Scramble For Rebound

Los Angeles Lakers' Jim King (21) and St. Louis Hawks' Zelmo Beaty (31) fight for a rebound during last night's game at Kiel Auditorium. King managed to get his hands on the ball but knocked it out of bounds where it was taken over by the Hawks. Backing up the play is the Hawks' Bob Pettit (left) and the Lakers' Gene Wiley. St. Louis won, 106-90. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Hill Rise Is Early Favorite

By The Associated Press
Although Hill Rise and Northern Dancer stick out like a diamond on a dime store counter, the long range forecast is for 15 3-year-olds to start in the 90th running of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs May 2.

At this stage, with America's most colorful horse race nearly six weeks away, the field figures to include all of the 2-year-old standouts of 1962 with the exception of champion Hurry To Market, who is sidelined with a quarter crack.

Hill Rise, the El Peco Ranch's winner of the Santa Anita Derby, is the choice with Windfields Farm's Northern Dancer, victor in the Flamingo at Hialeah Park and pointing for the April 4 running of the Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park, not far behind in the future book odds.

Royals Crush Philadelphia

By The Associated Press
Oscar Robertson celebrated being named the most valuable player in the National Basketball Association by leading the Cincinnati Royals to a 127-102 victory over the Philadelphia 76ers Sunday.

The triumph gave the Royals a 1-0 lead in the best-of-five Eastern Division semifinal playoffs. In the Western Division semifinal playoffs the St. Louis Hawks whipped the Los Angeles Lakers 106-90 for a commanding 2-0 lead in their best-of-five set. The Hawks had beaten the Lakers 115-104 in their first game Saturday night.

SWC Teams Will Receive $600,000

Paciorek Impressive As Colts Beat Mets

By The Associated Press
The New York Mets may file an unfair child labor charge against the Houston Colts if young John Paciorek continues harassing them. If that doesn't work, the Mets—whose own youngsters have been unfair to them for two years—probably would contribute to Paciorek's unemployment compensation if the Colts promise to fire him.

The Mets received their second look at the 19-year-old outfielder Sunday and didn't like what they saw. Nor did they like what he did to them. The rookie from Detroit belted a bases-loaded triple in the first inning, igniting the Colts to a 5-0 victory in the first exhibition game ever between the two victims of National League expansion.

Casper Wins Big In Florida Tourney

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Plump Billy Casper is the latest tournament winner, but 1964 looks like the first year in a decade when no great stars will emerge to dominate the professional golf ranks.

When Casper collected his $7,500 first prize after fighting off a challenge by Jack Nicklaus on the last green to win the $50,000 Doral Open Sunday, he became the 11th winner in 11 tournaments this year. Casper shot a final found 70 for a 277 total. Nicklaus had a 278. Rex Baxter had 71 for 279 and third place. Tied for fourth with 281s were Sam Snead with a final day 71 and Jack Rule Jr. with a 72.

During a 14-tournament span reaching back into last year, there have been 14 separate winners. Never in Professional Golfers Association history has there been such a long period in which no player has won twice. With Sunday's victory, Casper rocketed from 43rd to fifth place in the money-winning list with a total of $10,112. In eight earlier tournaments, he had cashed only $2,612 in pay checks.

Two strokes behind Casper going to the 18th, Nicklaus dropped his second shot 29 feet from the pin. Casper hit his second into a sand trap at the edge of the green and blasted out to 18 feet. By sinking his putt for a birdie, while Casper was two-putting for a bogey, Nicklaus could have forced an 18-hole play-off and took plenty of time lining up his shot as the tension mounted.

But the ball missed the cup by two inches and rolled three feet past. Casper then missed his putt but happily accepted the bogey that left him a stroke ahead.

Women Hit Golf Links

The women golfers invade the Big Spring Country Club en masse Tuesday and hit the links for 18 holes as the ladies golf day sees the Webb AFB linkers going into the swingers from the club. Playing in foursomes, the women will begin teeing off around 9:30 a.m. Players will get full handicap, and the chance to make their own foursomes.

Trophy At Stake
Quintets from Temple Baptist and First Baptist will play at 8 o'clock tonight in the YMCA gym to decide the winner of the Y's winter basketball league. Both teams finished the 10-week loop with 8-2 records. The victor will receive a trophy.

PAT WASHBURN'S The Roundtable

DON ROBBINS, head coach of the Big Spring Steers: "CHARLEY WEST doesn't have the innate ability of some athletes, but he's a great competitor. He started in three sports for us—football, basketball and baseball. And he sure paid his way through high school, because he's been a real drawing card for us that's gotten a lot of people to come see us play."

ROBBINS can look back on last fall's football campaign and feel particularly proud, because besides coming up with a fine winning season, he also taught the fundamentals of the gridiron well enough to most of his starters to see them garner scholarships. He has 10 starters graduating this spring (only center DON WHITE will be back in the fall) and out of that number seven have already been signees with some college.

Speaking of only DON WHITE returning, here's what Robbins had to say about the 1964 football race for top dog: "Odessa will be the team to beat. They'll have a defensive line that averages 220 pounds. Boy, they're big. Midland will be tough, too. It ought to be one of those two clubs. San Angelo, as always, will be tough with all their manpower and fine coaching, but they won't be the team to beat like they were this year. They lost too many good boys to replace them completely."

EDDI ACRI could be this area's first referee affiliated with the United States Volleyball Association. At least he's looking into the qualifications. With no other officials at hand, he reasons that he could make good money at the sport next winter and have a good time, too. . . . WENDY GREEN, assistant pro at the Big Spring Country Club, gave "golf tourist" PHIL MILLER the cold shoulder last week when he showed up at the pro shop. It seems that Wendy was like everyone else in Big Spring—she found Miller's story a little incredible. . . . The local YMCA is getting some top-flight instructors. DAVE GENISEN, an airman at Webb AFB and the gymnastics teacher at the Y, is a former Chicago area champion in the sport. . . .

PAUL GALICCO, long-time sportswriter, talking about former Olympic swimmer JOHNNY WEISSMULLER who later became famous as "Tarzan" in the movies: "He was magnificent. He stood six feet, three and a third inches poolside, with wide shoulders, flat belly, no hips or buttocks, long, slender, smooth-muscled legs and arms and was a dark-haired, dark-eyed Adonis as well. . . . "He was invented for the part he was to play. . . for his body appeared to have been endowed with a curious and special kind of buoyancy. "In the 1936 Olympic Games, we all noticed that Jesse Owens, the great Negro sprinter, seemed to run not, but across the top of the track. No sooner had his spikes touched the dirt than they were out and reaching for the next stride. It was the same with Johnny Weissmuller. He swam not in, but somehow on top of the water, his back arching out. He was half human, half hydrofoil and when he got up speed and his body climbed onto its built-in step, eliminating drag, there was nobody who could catch him."

Tough Competitors

The two boys above are a couple of good reasons why the Midland Bulldogs are in first place in District 2-AAAA golf after 54 holes of play. Shown in action at Big Spring's Municipal Golf Course Saturday, Steve Smith (left) had an 81 while Steve Russell shot a 78. There are 36 holes left to play before the final district champion will be decided.

Top Court Names Ready For Tryouts

By The Associated Press
The college basketball season isn't over yet. Ordinarily it would have ended Saturday with UCLA's run-away 98-83 victory over Duke for the national championship and Bradley's 86-54 romp over New Mexico in the NIT final, but this is an Olympic year, remember? That means there's a big show coming up April 2-4 with the Olympic tryouts at St. John's University in New York.

Eight teams, composed of the leading NCAA and NAIA college players, AAU and armed forces players, will compete for the 12 berths on the basketball team that will represent the U.S. at the Tokyo games in Japan in October.

Walt Hazzard and Gail Goodrich, who led UCLA through an unbeaten season with 30 straight victories, are among the 36 players from the NCAA named for the Olympic tryouts.

Others include Cazzie Russell of Michigan, which took third place in the NCAA championship tourney by beating Kansas State 100-90; Willie Murrell of Kansas State; Jeff Mullins of Duke; Billy Cunningham of North Carolina; Barry Kramer of New York University and Bill Bradley of Princeton.

Gary Rogers Takes First

SAN ANGELO — Blackshear and Washington pleased home town crowds Saturday as they took first places in the ninth and seventh grade divisions of the eighth annual San Angelo Junior High Relays. But the eighth grade crown went to Abilene's Madison who topped San Angelo's Edison.

Local speedsters didn't fare so well as the only first place finish went to Rummel's Gary Rogers, who turned in a good 37.9 clocking for the 330-yard dash. Local results in the finals were:

NINTH GRADE
100-yard dash—Bud Perodet, Rummels, fourth.
Broad jump—Bud Perodet, fourth.
EIGHTH GRADE

Red Raiders Slated For National Viewers

NEW YORK (AP) — Nine college football teams will appear on television twice each, while four others will be seen for the first time during the 1964 season. The schedule announced Sunday calls for televised games on 13 Saturdays and Thanksgiving. The 1964 season is the first of two covered in the National Broadcasting Co.'s $13 million contract with the National Collegiate Athletic Association. Single games will be seen nationally on eight of the Saturdays and Thanksgiving. Four games each will be shown regionally on the other five Saturdays. Scheduled for two appearances, the most allowed, are Pittsburgh

UCLA, Navy, Minnesota, Syracuse, Southern California, Air Force, Michigan and Michigan State. The UCLA-Pitt game will open the schedule Sept. 12. Colorado State, Iowa State, Mississippi State and Texas Tech will be seen for the first time on television. The NCAA stipulates that four new teams must be included each year. There also must be four teams which haven't appeared in the previous five years. Six teams come under this category in the 1964 program including Auburn, Cornell, Holy Cross, Kansas State, North Carolina State and Texas Christian. Fresh Fight Looms Over Grain Storage

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department and major elements in the grain storage industry are engaged in a behind-the-scenes debate over future rates for storing the government's big stocks of wheat, corn and other grains.

Spurred by President Johnson's directive that the department strive to reduce its costs, the department is considering a plan under which it would let out storage of its grain to those concerns offering the lowest rates on a competitive bid basis.

For years, storage rates have been established under an agreement between the department and the storage industry. The rates were uniform.

Representatives of the Grain and Feed Dealers National Association, the Terminal Elevator

Grain Merchants Association and the National Federation of Grain Cooperatives have informed the department they oppose a shift to the bid basis. They contend such a system could wreck the industry by eliminating many small terminal and country elevators which could not store as cheaply as some of the big storage concerns.

The department paid out $272 million for storage and handling of grain and other farm products during the 7-month period ended Jan. 31. This compared with $266 million in the like period a year earlier.

Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphy has told the storage industry his department is taking a good look at the possibilities of a bid basis for grain storage. He said this basis would be in line with the government's long-standing policy of competitive bidding to obtain services or materials for the government. He said the department has had definite offers from some warehousemen to store grain at lower rates than it is now paying.

If it shifts to a bid basis, the department would be taking advantage of a situation in which the storage space available is in excess of storage needs. Much new storage was built during the 1950s and early 1960s when grain surpluses were accumulating. But grain supplies have dipped below peaks of those years.

Church Outlines Kindergarten Aims

Kindergarten classes will be offered by the Jig Spring First Methodist Church in September, for children five years of age by Sept. 1. The day school committee announced the purpose of the school will be to promote Christian growth, and to prepare the child for public school. The curriculum will be correlated to that of the public schools, so there will be few transition problems for the child.

"It is a readiness program, to widen the child's background, and provide opportunities for number, language, writing, reading, and reading readiness activities," the committee announced. "These are designed to help make subsequent school learning easier for the child. The kindergarten will provide experiences through which the young child may learn as he lives and works with others, to be a contributing member of a group, to like school, and adjust to the school environment."

The tuition will be $20 per month and will include everything. This is subject to change, depending on cost of materials. Registration will begin in the next few weeks, and the First Methodist Church asks all parents interested to contact the office.

Nixon Begins Global Orbit

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon left Sunday night on a business trip which will take him around the world in three weeks.

Nixon said he will take "a holiday from politics," but "will attempt to see how our foreign policy is operating."

Meditation's Value Seen Ever Since Days Of Christ

By REV. JOHN S. MOORE

At this time of the year the Christian might profitably meditate upon the phrases of Jesus in which He uses the term: "I am."

In these phrases, Jesus offers us pictures of how God works in our lives. They indicate the thoughts of Jesus on how God views the full, abundant life which Christ came to give us.

In the 10th chapter of St. John there are the phrases, "I am the good shepherd" and "I am the door."

The audience that heard these words was made up of shepherds. They knew what it meant to be a good shepherd and to lead a flock safely back into the fold at night.

Then the shepherd would lie down at the entrance of his pasture, a secure barrier between his flock and the world.

That barrier seemed to symbolize the multiple benefits, security and peace that the sheep enjoy inside the fold in the presence of the shepherd.

Here the sheep sensed their shepherd, his ability to supply all their needs, and they trusted him.

Just so, we enter into a knowledge and an experience of God by faith in Jesus Christ, His faith and the kind of life He lived.

Jesus said that He was the door and that no man could come to the faith except by Him.

As we enter, the barrier keeps out of this fellowship erroneous ideas and confusing influences of the outside world.

Today, we are in conscious fellowship with God, a fellowship in which our trust and faith are strengthened because we have access to the power of God, the salvation promised by Jesus.

In the New Testament we learn that God is not a remote person, but a spirit who is ever present, vigorous and an intimate companion to those who seek to follow His ways.

Jesus taught: "I am with you always."

In this kind of fellowship we learn about the purpose and the meaning of life; about the values and principles according to which man can live usefully and happily, and we also discern something of the underlying purpose of life.

We also find in the teachings of Jesus a revelation of the truth that illuminates the mind, the heart and the center of life to give it significance and purpose.

Jesus said:

"If you abide in Me (and) continue in My words you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

"I am with you always, and My grace is sufficient for you."

TOMORROW: His Spirit Abides.

Volcanic Ash Covers Capital

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — Volcanic ash covered streets and buildings of this Central American capital city Sunday as nearby Irazu volcano came to life again.

Loud underground rumblings were reported from Rancho Redondo and other towns near the volcano, which has been on a months-long rampage.

Arson Eyed In Church Blaze

DALLAS (AP) — The Pilgrim Rest Church burned Sunday night. The loss was estimated at $50,000.

Investigators suspected arson was estimated at $50,000.

The Negro church was just off Central Expressway.

The minister said everything seemed in order when he shut down the church after night services at 8:30 p.m. He said some church records were missing after the fire.

Maundy Thursday Services Are Set

Maundy Thursday services are scheduled at the First Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the church sanctuary, and communion will be served. "The Eight Glorious Days at the End of Christ's Life" will be the subject of the services.

A Devotional For The Day

He began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. (Mark 8:31.)

PRAYER: Dear Father, we give Thee thanks because through Jesus' suffering we can inherit eternal life. Help us to carry our crosses with a deep faith in Thy tender love. In His name. Amen.

Fewer Rattlers Around Today

We tip the hat to the brave souls who brought in those poisonous snakes during the weekend, and to the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce who sponsor the Rattlesnake Roundup. By this annual roundup, the participants and the club rid our area of snakes that might otherwise later spoil a picnic, disrupt a family hike or even take a life.

Probably no such roundup could account for all the rattlesnakes in our area, but it's a comfort to know about 1,000 of them will not be a threat or danger to our community.

While the awesome rattle of those held in the county fair barns still rings in our ears, it is a good time to reaffirm our resolve to be careful this spring and summer while on outings, at the lake or in the park. Rattlesnakes have a habit of turning up where least expected—in recent years one was found in a home. Next to being careful, an inexpensive snake bite kit can truly be a lifesaver.

Particularly, small children should be warned about playing around damp places where a rattler may be hiding.

With proper care, the community can experience a summer with no tragedies caused by snake-bite, as did the roundup just concluded. It is a worthy aim.

Trained And Close

Unlike the buildings of yesteryear, we are prone to consider our modern structures fire-proof as the innovations in building lean more and more to non-flammable materials. Yet, fires continue to occur and hardly a month goes by but what the quick action of our city firemen saves some home or business house.

Last week, one of our churches was struck by an electrical fire, which swiftly filled the attic area. Happily, firemen arrived in time to prevent the flames spreading through the roof or into the lower parts of the structure. After snuffing out the blaze, they stayed to help clean up the auditorium so that regular services might be held there Sunday.

This is a reminder to us that few buildings are completely safe from the fire danger. But when it strikes, few cities are better protected than ours. Even now, two more stations are under construction, being equipped and staffed, to spread protection into all areas of the city. When in operation, any house or business in the city will be only minutes away from a crew of men trained in fire fighting.

Despite flameproof construction all about us, we feel a lot safer knowing our firemen are trained and close when we need them.

J. A. Livingston Story Of Success (?) In Wall Street

NEW YORK—As I charged down the long, steep staircase to the express platform at the 59th St. Station of the Lexington Ave. subway, a train was pulling in. I called to the youth ahead, "Hold it, please, hold the door." He did.

We sat next to one another in the comparatively empty car, and after a grateful thank-you, I said: "This stops at Wall Street, doesn't it?"

HE REPLIED: "That's where I'm going. Too I'm sure it does, though I don't usually take this subway. I had to stop off at my friend's house, and then at a bank. I'm going to pay for some stock I bought for $150."

"You bought stock for $150?"
"Yes, 50 shares."
"What's the name of the stock?"

"I'M NOT SURE, let me look." He started fumbling through his pocket for a slip of paper.

"Never mind, it doesn't really matter. But how does it happen that you are buying a stock you hardly know the name of?"

"I have a friend in Wall Street. He told me about it. He bought 25 shares, another friend 25 shares, and I'm taking 50. In that way we get 100 shares together. But I can sell when I want. The stock is supposed to go to 20. When it gets to 10, I'll sell. I don't try to make the last dollar. That's my system."

"DO YOU, TOO, work in Wall Street?"

"No, I work for an import house. I'm a clerk. But I'd like to work in Wall Street. I'd get a job there if I didn't have to take too much of a loss."

"Too much of a loss?"

"Well, I'm now getting $110 a week. I'd be willing to take $100, but I don't think I could get that."

"How old are you?"

"Nineteen."

"How long have you been working?"

"About two years."

HE WAS DRESSED as teen-age boys dress these days—no tie, open collar, gray jeans. His shoes were pointed and buckled. His hair—wasn't blond, and his features clean and honest.

"Does your stock-market system work?"

"I've made two thousand dollars. No more! Two thousand one hundred fifty dollars exactly."

"How long have you been doing this?"

"About a year."

THEN HE turned questioner. "By the way, how long have you been doing this?"

"About a year."

HE WAS DRESSED as teen-age boys dress these days—no tie, open collar, gray jeans. His shoes were pointed and buckled. His hair—wasn't blond, and his features clean and honest.

the way, do you know anything about the stock market?"

"A little."

"What do you do?"

"I'm a financial writer."

"You are." The period is the correct punctuation. His intonation didn't rise enough to justify either an exclamation point or a question mark. "What do you think of the market?" he then asked.

"IT WORRIES ME when somebody who doesn't even know the name of the stock he buys can run up over $2,000 in a year. Don't you feel as if you're getting something for nothing? Doesn't it bother your conscience? You haven't made any contribution to society."

"I've taken a risk."

"You've taken a gamble."

"No, it's a risk when I buy a stock and hold it. It might go down. I've lost two or three times. And I'm careful. I never use the money I make in the market. I always put it in a separate account. That's how I know I've made $2,150."

"ARE THESE over-the-counter stocks you buy?"

"Oh, yes, all over-the-counter."

"And are they all around $3?"

"Sometimes a little more, sometimes a little less."

"But they're always low-priced stocks and you try to sell them at ten?"

"Well, not ten, exactly. It all depends on where my friend says the stocks will go. If he says 12, then I sell at six, if he says 19, I try to get out at 9 or 9 1/2."

Nothing Settled But No Disasters In Sight

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American decision on Southeast Asia reveals about as well as anything the present hung-up condition of the world. Nothing is settled but no disasters are visible.

There are no crises and except for the Greek-Turkish war on Cyprus and the Vietnamese war tensions at the moment are not great. So the Johnson administration has time for calm appraisals and a long look.

No wonder it has decided to continue giving South Viet Nam more military and economic aid, but more of it, to go on fighting the Communist guerrillas from North Viet Nam. It says it will do so indefinitely.

THE AMERICAN policy in Southeast Asia is, in a way, a continuation of the American policy after World War II when the Russians under Stalin seemed at the time determined to take over Europe.

The Marshall Plan was rooted in a long look, which turned out well.

It was created to give Western Europe economic help to get on its feet and, by so doing, prevent a collapse which would have made a Communist seizure easy or inevitable.

At the same time, through American alliances and bases, the Soviet Union was ringed militarily to prevent any forcible expansion. The purpose behind it was simple.

IT WAS THE hope that in time internal changes or frictions would diminish the Communist missionary zeal, at least to the point where it could be endured.

After Stalin's death changes did take place. The Russians, becoming more affluent and therefore with more to lose in a conflict, became less belligerent.

Hal Boyle Bachelors Are Happier

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Of all American drivers arrested for speeding—including both men and women—82 per cent are under age 35.

There are more than 11 million teen-age girls in the United States, and by 1970 there will be more than 13 million.

Bachelors, according to psychologists, are less happy in their single blessedness than old maids.

If you are a 20-year-old male and employed, the chances are that you'll change jobs six times before your working days are done.

A commission in Oregon ruled that a woman who left her job after her employer called her "an old bag" was entitled to unemployment compensation.

Our quotable notables: "Let us say humbly, but publicly, that we resent corruption in politics, dishonesty in business, flippancy in morals, pornography in literature, coarseness in language, chaos in music, meaninglessness in art." —Will Durant

The figures on suicide, the most dramatic form of self-criticism, indicate we hate ourselves more violently than we do others. The American man is four times as likely to kill himself as he is to kill someone else. He is three times as likely to take his own life as is a woman.

My husband is bothered with it now. He won't see a doctor. He considers it unimportant. Please discuss symptoms, causes and cure.—MRS. E. M. V.

I've written about emphysema (pronounced em-fEE-ma) quite frequently with the feeling that sooner or later a great many people will, like you, realize that it is not a trivial problem. The disease is so prevalent that it causes more deaths than tuberculosis and lung cancer combined. It certainly is not, as your husband thinks, "unimportant."

Emphysema is a lung disease, and there is no cure for it. Nevertheless, proper care can prevent it from becoming steadily worse.

Symptoms begin with shortness of breath, but if the disease is permitted to continue, there are changes in the blood, dusky color in lips and nails, changes in the chest, and ultimately heart disease. There are also X-ray and respiration tests.

In brief, the tiny air sacs in the lungs gradually break down. The patient cannot exhale as much carbon dioxide and consequently cannot inhale as much fresh air. Likewise the active surfaces of the lungs where the transfer of oxygen from the air to the blood takes place are decreased.

Various drugs may be prescribed and also special breathing exercises, sometimes with the use of an abdominal binder. It is urgent that the patient stop smoking, because every bit of smoke he inhales means that much less oxygen. And oxygen is what he needs. Therefore oxygen sometimes is used in treatment. Some cases benefit from surgery.

Are you bothered with ringing in your ears? If so, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald for the booklet, "Ear Noises—Their Causes and Cures," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

To Your Good Health Emphysema An Uncurable Lung Disease

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I think you discussed emphysema once before but I wasn't interested in the subject then.

My husband is bothered with it now. He won't see a doctor. He considers it unimportant. Please discuss symptoms, causes and cure.—MRS. E. M. V.

I've written about emphysema (pronounced em-fEE-ma) quite frequently with the feeling that sooner or later a great many people will, like you, realize that it is not a trivial problem. 'When You Were A Little Boy ...'

Conversation between a verbally shell-shocked father and his going-on-five daughter:

Daughter: "When you were a little boy, did you climb up a tree to get away from your mudder after you had been naughty?"

Father: "Yes, I did."
Daughter: "What did your mudder do?"

FATHER: "She shook the tree because I was out of her reach. When I wouldn't come down, she turned around and went into the house."

Daughter: "When you were a little boy, did you mark on the walls with your crayons?"

Father: "I'll have to admit I did."
Daughter: "What did your mudder do?"

FATHER: "She spanked me and told me I'd have to get a rag and water and wash them off."

Daughter: "When you were a little boy, did you take part of your meat and reach under the table and feed it to your dog?"

Father: "I tried that, yes."
Daughter: "What did your mudder do?"

Father: "She scolded me and chased the dog out of the house and told me steak was too expensive to be feeding to pets."
DAUGHTER: "When you were a little boy, did you scatter your toys all over the front room and go off and leave them?"

Father: "I remember very well being called on the carpet about it."
Daughter: "What did your mudder do?"

Father: "She made me stop what ever I was doing, pick up the toys and then lectured me about it."

DAUGHTER: "When you were a little boy, did you eat all the ice cream?"

Father: "I tried to, several times. I really liked ice cream."
Daughter: "What did your mudder do?"

Father: "She told me to save some for my brothers and sister and not to be a pig."

Daughter: "When you were a little boy, did you make mud pies in the kitchen sink?"

FATHER: "I was party to such a conspiracy, yes."
Daughter: "What did your mudder do?"

Father: "She said her kitchen was no place for such a social, whacked me on the backside and told me to play outside."

Daughter: "When you were a little boy, did you climb up a tree to get away from your mudder after you had been naughty ...?"

Never Try To Teach A Wife—

WASHINGTON—It happened a few days ago, when I visited a Babylonian supermarket with the toothsome young woman who does my cooking. The lesson it contained was plain: Never convict on circumstantial evidence.

The time was sometime during the forenoon, the store was not crowded, and I am lucky I am not in quod this very day.

THE FIRST THING the specimen American housewife does when she begins foraging in a supermarket is to place her purse in the shopping cart.

"You place your pocketbook in the shopping cart," I pointed out with faultless logic, "and then you wander into another alleyway, leaving purse and cart unguarded. First thing you know you'll return and find no purse. You think money grows on trees or whatever?"

"Nonsense," she replied. "Do it all the time. You watch too many bad flicks on the telly."

"ALL RIGHT," I said darkly, "trudging off toward the vegetable department, 'mind what I say. Somebody—poof—no purse."

"La," she replied gaily as I passed beyond earshot, "how you do carry your youth working for your money."

Well, of course, it took me a few moments to select a poke of rutabagas, and when I got back the wispish lass who mismatches my socks had vanished. But her purse hadn't. There it sat, spang in the middle of the shopping cart, just waiting for some hard case to sink out of nowhere and pinch it.

WELL, SIR OR MADAM, what happened to me next has happened to me in times past, but never in a supermarket. A small imp, red with green polka dots and wearing a sign which said "temptation," perched on my shoulder.

"Whyncha teach her a lesson," the imp whispered conspiratorially. "You pinch the purse, tuck it under your jacket, a deception that will never be noticed in view of your gross configuration. Then you hide behind the canned soup. When she returns, she discovers somebody has nipped her pocketbook, just as you warned. You wait a decent interval, long enough for her to become hysterical but not long enough for her to call the cops, and then you return the purse. And, to be sure, deliver a self-righteous lecture."

"BUT, IMP," I said, "suppose somebody sees me ..."

"Who, chum? There's nobody here but thee and me, and you know from experience I disappear as soon as I have delivered my message."

Disappear he did, and I at once discovered that it is difficult to swipe a purse, even one belonging to your own helmsman. I tried whistling and looking at the ceiling, meanwhile sauntering past the cart and the treasure trove it contained. It is not easy to become a crook, at least not once you have frittered away your youth working for your money.

FINALLY, my courage screwed to the breaking point, I reached out for the purse. It seemed unaccountable cold to the touch ...

And then, a ghastly moment when time stopped. My spouse reappeared—pushing a shopping cart heaped with goodies and her purse. I was not swiping a purse from my wife. I was swiping one from a total stranger, probably the wife of a cop or a prosecuting attorney.

Just Let Business Expand

WASHINGTON—Nobody here has started the real "war on poverty." The politicians are afraid to do it. So, instead, there is a big fanfare about how the federal government, by spending money for better schools and for training students or by eliminating "discrimination" in employment and by other welfare measures, can eventually increase the incomes of the unfortunate individuals who are earning less than $3,000 a year.

BUT, AS IS always the case with those theorists in our midst who never see the economic forest for the realistic trees, the biggest single way to cure much of today's "poverty" is overlooked. The remedy is to be found in opening the doors of job opportunity in business.

The most important thing needed to encourage economic growth today is the removal of the barriers against business expansion. This ranges all the way from the need for a reduction of tariff and quota walls imposed overseas to a recognition of the trials and travails of the American free-enterprise system at home which is no longer free.

IT WILL DO little good in the long run to multiply the number of government agencies, increase the handouts, and foster the "welfare state" concept. American businessmen are spending a lot of money to make products they can sell both here and abroad. The desire to expand is deep-seated, but the incentives are diminishing as the government itself—a partisan of labor monopoly and still dependent on demagoguery to get votes—uses such catch phrases as "the war on poverty" to gain favor.

It would be as logical to declare war on laziness, incompetence and inefficiency—as if anything government could do would overcome these handicaps—in an atmosphere in which the government is supposed nowadays to owe every man a living or put him on relief.

NOR IS A preaching of the doctrine of self-reliance likely to solve all the problems of unemployment.

There must be a drive to increase the number of jobs. For the real problem today is what is best described as "job creation."

Perhaps the biggest factor in unemployment is the geographical dilemma. A big company, for example, employing many thousands of people suddenly fails to get a renewal of a government contract because a particular item is no longer needed. The workers have bought their own houses, and their roots are imbedded in their home communities. To get new employment, they must, of course, move away, and it's expensive to gamble on the place to which to take a family.

THE PRESIDENT'S program submitted to Congress provides for some relief in this direction for the coal miners of the Appalachian region whose work opportunities have been diminished through no fault of their own or of their employers.

Undoubtedly, there are many Negroes in the South who would like to go North. Certainly many of them could get jobs as domestics which pay from $2,000 to $3,000 a year. When two in a family work, this would be doubled. These jobs go begging today.

SOMEWHERE in the country there are plenty of men and women who would jump at the chance of getting jobs in the cities, and they have adequate education—but they are far away geographically. A war to overcome geographical barriers would help in "the war on poverty."

But the greatest chance for high employment will develop when business is permitted to expand naturally and when it isn't subjected to the harassments of constant strikes or threats of strikes by those already earning today from $5,000 to $10,000 or more a year. The pressures of well-financed unions are more of a barrier to an increase in employment opportunities than anything mentioned in the President's message to Congress declaring "war on poverty."

Dear Abby

Musical Dentist

DEAR ABBY: I recently visited a young dentist who was recommended to me by a friend. When I got into the chair, rock and roll music started playing right in my ear. I am a matron, 58, and I never listen to that kind of music at home as it is nerve-racking. I enjoy soft, semi-classical music, however. I debated whether I should ask the dentist to shut it off, but decided not to say anything. Then the dentist started HUMMING along with the music! I didn't want to upset him while he was working on my teeth, so I kept silent. I wish there were some way to let him know why I never went back to him, although he was a good dentist.

FAITHFUL READER
DEAR FAITHFUL: Let me help: Confidential to all dentists who use music. Ask your patients if they want music and, if so, if they have a preference. P.S.: It's all right to whistle while you work—but don't hum.

DEAR ABBY: I beg to inform you that the female parakeet does not talk. Only the male can be taught to talk. It is the same with canaries. The female canary will give out with an occasional chirp, but only the male canary will burst forth into song. If it will make you feel better, Abby, the female of the feathered family is more beautiful. But let's be strictly honest, she contributes nothing and is strictly ornamental.

KNOWS HIS BIRDS
DEAR KNOWS: Is that so? The rooster does the crowing, but it's the hen which lays the eggs.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has been divorced from his first wife for 12 years, and married to me for 10. She has never remarried. She still calls him on the phone, but never at home, only at his office. I know this because I have been at his office when she's called. She claims she wants nothing from him, and only calls to give him news and health reports on their daughter. This daughter is 24, married, in good health, and is able to take care of herself. I don't trust this "ex." What do you think she really wants? I am just about ready to let her have it. (Right between the eyes!) But I don't think that is what she has in mind, do you?

JOHN'S OTHER WIFE
DEAR WIFE: Hardly. But she could probably use something between the ears. Your husband can't help it if she calls him, but you might ask him how often she calls. If she overdoes it, it is up to HIM to straighten her out.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "DOUBLE A": Let your 22-year-old son find his own job. You are protecting him from the same hard knocks that made a man out of you.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for Abby's new booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

PASO Hailed By Yarborough

EL CAMPO (AP)—The inception of the political organization called PASO has put an end to boss-controlled politics in South Texas counties, Don Yarborough told a PASO-sponsored rally.

The rally, attended by an estimated 1,000 persons Sunday night, was sponsored by the Wharton County Chapter of PASO (Political Association of Spanish-Speaking Organizations.)

Yarborough, a Houston attorney seeking the Democratic nomination for governor, told his listeners that "before PASO's inception, the boss-controlled counties of South Texas were intent on electing self-seeking politicians to dominate the political spectrum of the state."

"PASO and President Johnson have declared war, not only on poverty, but against boss control everywhere," Yarborough said.

Yarborough said Gov. John Connally has:

1. Shown he will go down in history as the worst governor Texas has ever had.
2. Tried to put a general sales tax on farm implements and get it off the "big construction machinery."
3. Systematically attempted to destroy the farming communities of the state.

BIG SPRING BUSINESS and INDUSTRY

DOWN TOWN TEA ROOM CONVENIENT FOR ALL
Cafeteria-style meals can be served and 240 seated at once

'All You Can Eat For A Buck' Served At The Tea Rooms

Big Spring has two unique eating places, operated on the cafeteria style, and both have attracted wide attention in the area as well as the nation. The Down Town Tea Room, is located at Sixth and Main Streets and the Tea Room at Thirteenth and Scurry. They are operated by Dee and Annette Bennett. The Thirteenth and Main Tea Room has been in operation for several years.

The Tea Rooms are unique in that canned foods are seldom offered. All foods are drawn from either the fresh or frozen markets. They are fresh when the season permits, and fresh frozen otherwise. It is also unique in that menu choices are different each day, with a wide variety.

Four meats, of the highest quality, are served and portion controlled. The patron helps himself, buffet style, to the amount and kinds of other foods wanted. If the customer prefers something other than meat he can get refills at no extra charge.

The entire meal, including meat, coffee, or tea, costs only $1. This does not include milk, cokes, and extra meats. No tips are expected by the waitresses. There is seldom any waiting or lost time in the lines. Actual count has shown as many as 70 patrons served in 17 minutes.

The Tea Room has also served banquets, parties, breakfasts, brunches, and teas. Catering for churches, groups, and organizations has become almost a daily affair. This is done either on or off Tea Room premises.

"A menu to fit any need is readily available," The Bennetts said. "Steaks, filets, roasts, turkey, chicken, and other meats are available and may be served. This service ranges from sandwiches to full course dinners; any type salads and desserts."

The Down Town Tea Room offers three sizes of rooms to fit the needs of families, groups, or organizations. Sunday is family day with many families taking advantage of the Tea Room services.

Nothing is ever newer than the new features on the Royal typewriter, even though there is always something new in the world. Thomas Office Supply, 101 Main, has featured the Royal, in all different models, for a long time, and it always stands out in the show room.

Thomas said he is impressed with the Royal more and more as time goes by. The electric meter cannot be beat for the executive secretary with a lot of typing to be done, and the necessity for cleanliness and legibility.

Those who have tried out the Royal find features that are exclusive with the machine. There is the magic touch. The overall pressure required to depress Royal keys is much less than for any other typewriter made, he said.

The Royal finger-balanced keyboard touch is tailored to the length and strength of each finger for uniform typing "feel."

The easy-out cylinder may be removed, with a simple motion, for cleaning or changing. It can be replaced with one of three different hardnesses of cylinders.

The Magic Margin is the most famous of all typewriter features and has been developed exclusively by Royal. It sets and resets for uniform neatness. Along with that goes the line meter which tells exactly how many spaces remain until the typist reaches the end of the page, and all scales are uniform.

Thomas also carries a full line of office supplies and furniture. These are stocked in all popular brands, sizes, and in colors to suit the taste.

Modern office desks, for executives, secretaries, and assistants, come in sizes, styles, and colors to go with office decor. These are complimented by chairs in all sizes, and for all purposes: Executives, secretaries, and patrons.

Some of the chairs found at Thomas Office Supply are suited for home use. Some may be folded and put out of the way until the time comes for a "crowd" when more than are normally used are needed.

Drive-Ins Convenient

Tired of standing over that hot stove preparing meals for the family after a hot day?

There's a way to dodge this drudgery and still treat all the hungry mouths around the house to good meals. There are three Wagon-Wheel Drive-Ins in Big Spring "Where Food and Drink Are a Little Bit Better."

You don't have to take a bath, don clean clothes, shave, or have a hair-do, to get in the car and drive to one of the three convenient places, sit in the car, order what you want, and enjoy eating it, without the fuss and bother of the kitchen. You can even phone in your order and have it ready when you arrive. You can also have your job-lunches prepared to take with you.

Western Auto Stores Go Mail Order Catalog

Western Auto Stores, established in 1900, have announced a new service after more than a half century of operation. It is a new, 320-page mail order catalog.

"The price you see in the new catalog," Edward R. Moren, store owner, said, "is the price you pay, except in a few rare instances where factory delivery is warranted. There is no extra for postage, express or freight, except in those rare instances, and the catalog tells you which they are."

Western Auto customers may now do their shopping at home, Moren said. They can then telephone their orders and the clerk can tell them when the items will arrive.

what the appearances really are. "This catalog makes available, to all Western Auto customers, all items carried anywhere by the more than four thousand stores," Moren said. The catalogs arrived at Big Spring store Tuesday.

SNIF SNIF

THEN WHAT ON AIRTH ARE YE SQUAWLIN' ABOUT?

TH' TWO-TIMIN' VARMINT WUZ FLINGIN' 'EM AT BESSIE JUNE

KERRY DRAKE

AS KERRY DRAKE AND JOHNNY COLT CHECK THE APARTMENT FOR TRACES OF A SIMIAN VISITOR--

SERGEANT! TAKE A LOOK AT THIS!... CAUGHT IN THE UP-HOLSTERY TACKS!

IF THAT'S MONKEY HAIR... I'LL BE A MONKEY'S UNCLE!

WHAT ELSE COULD IT BE? --AS BARBETTE TOLD YOU--

'SHE SAW A BIG MONKEY... LEAVING HERE LAST NIGHT, AFTER IT ROBBED MY WALL SAFE!

BETLE BAILEY

LOOK! BETLE'S CRYING!

SNIFF!

AW, HE PROBABLY HAS A COLD, HE'S TOO MATURE TO CRY

OH, YEAH!!

YOU'D CRY TOO IF YOU HAD A COLD LIKE THIS ONE

HONK

SNIFF!

PEANUTS

DID YOU HEAR THAT? MY TEACHER SAID, "GOOD MORNING" TO ME!

NOW, I WONDER WHAT SHE MEANT BY THAT? DID SHE REALLY MEAN TO WISH ME "GOOD MORNING"? MAYBE SHE WAS BEING SARCASTIC...

MAYBE SHE WAS TRYING TO TEACH ME TO BE POLITE... MAYBE SHE THOUGHT SOMEONE FROM THE SCHOOL BOARD WAS LISTENING...

MAYBE WHEN I MEET HER IN THE HALL, IT WOULD BE BEST TO LOOK THE OTHER WAY...

DICK TRACY

WE CAN'T SPARE LIZZ TO CONSTANTLY GUARD THIS GIRL YOU BROUGHT HER HERE. YOU TAKE HER BACK.

OKAY! ANYTHING YOU SAY, TRACY. THE MOON IS ONLY 3 1/2... HOURS AWAY BY SPACE COUPE.

HEY! SH-SH-SHE KISSED ME!

YES, SHE'S SO HAPPY OVER HER NEW DRESS.

AND ARE YOU HAPPY SHE'S HAPPY?

YEAH

HIS FOOD UNTOUCHED. A GROWLING DANE ARCHER CONFIDES IN A FRIEND.....

THE VERY WORST THING THAT COULD HAPPEN TO ME HAS HAPPENED, JED!

IT WAS ETCHED IN SCAR-LIKE LINES UPON YOUR FACE WHEN YOU CAME IN, OLD BUDDY-- A WOMAN HAS THROWN YOU DOWN!

NO!... I THINK THIS GIRL EVEN LIKES ME... SORT OF!

IS THAT CAUSE FOR LOW CRIES AND GUM-NASHING OF TEETH?

OF COURSE NOT!... THE DISASTER IS THAT I'M IN LOVE WITH HER!

REX MORGAN

FOLLOWING HIS CONVERSATION WITH NERD, REX MORGAN CALLS LIEUTENANT PARKS!

YES, IT'S URGENT THAT I SPEAK WITH THE LIEUTENANT NOW!

LIEUTENANT, THIS IS REX MORGAN. IS IT TRUE THAT YOU FOUND SIX ENVELOPES OF HEROIN IN AL CROVER'S APARTMENT?

YES... BUT HOW DID YOU KNOW, DOCTOR?

WHAT'S MORE IMPORTANT... HOW DID NERD KNOW IT WAS HE WHO TOLD ME?

POGO

I WANT TO INNECIDE YOU TO THE CHAIRMAN OF YOUR PLATFORM COMMITTEE...

I BRING YOUR BADGE OF OFFICE, MR. CAMPAIN MANAGER...

THE CANDIDATE LOOKS RELUCTANT AS USUAL... HEEH CANDIDATE!

YOU'RE RELUCTANT, CANDIDATE, ADMIT IT!

GRANDMA

THERE GOES GRANDMA WITH GOODIES SHE'S BAKED FOR THE BIG ANNUAL BAZAAR

IT'S THE SAME EVERY YEAR... SHE ENDS UP BAKIN' PIES AN' CAKES...

... AFTER BEING TURNED DOWN ON HER REQUEST TO WORK IN THE KISSIN' BOOTH!

TERRY

A PLANE ARRIVES FROM A USAF AEROSPACE SCHOOL...

AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S URGENT REQUEST, TWO OFFICERS WITH 'PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE' ARE CHOSEN TO PROTECT CONGRESS-WOMAN DEEPSIX ON HER MISSION TO LATIN AMERICA.

BE IN WASHINGTON LONG, MAJOR?

PUNNO, MY ORDERS ARE KIND OF VAGUE... WELL, THANKS FOR THE LIFT, FELLAS.

TOO VAGUE! LIKE THEY'RE BREAKING IT TO ME GENTLY THAT I'VE BEEN TAGGED FOR A JOB WITH HEADACHES...

... AND ANOTHER FROM EUROPE.

TERRY LEE! BOON... AND IF COMPANION OF MY RACY ESCAPADES! THIS ISN'T PURE CHANCE, I WAS TOO OPTIMISTIC!

SMITTY

WERE HERE TO STUDY THE GULF STREAM! WHAT ARE TH' PLANS?

NOT SO LOUD! WE DON'T WANT ANYONE TO HEAR US! BEND DOWN SO I CAN WHISPER!

8zz 8zz 8zz

OH! MY ACHING BACK! I CAN'T STAND BENDING OVER ANY MORE...

8zz 8zz

MOON MULLINS

HAVE THE JUDGES COME TO A DECISION?

WE HAVE, Mr. DOODLE. THERE'S A 7-WAY TIE FOR 1ST PLACE.

YES--EACH OF US HAS PICKED A WINNER.

I SEE-- ODD-- THOUGH--THERE'S ONLY SIX OF YOU JUDGES...

HEY! THAT'S RIGHT! WHAT'S GOIN' ON HERE?

YEN-- WHICH ONE OF YOU ENTERED TWO DESIGNS?

RUSK MOVE DENIED

LBJ Staff Rumblings Grow

WASHINGTON (AP) — After four months, some rumblings of stress and more change are audible in the top team President Johnson inherited from the late John F. Kennedy.

Plump press secretary Pierre Salinger quit on Thursday to test his charm on California voters, in quest of a U.S. Senate seat. He was the fourth of Kennedy's first-stringers to leave the White House.

On the same day, a report was aired that Secretary of State Dean Rusk planned to resign in November. It was instantly denied by all concerned.

Salinger's departure, apparently a most amicable leaving, could well be an omen of further changes, if only for the simple reason that an election year is a restless time for politicians.

ADJUSTMENT

Yet the White House resignations have been remarkably few to date, considering the difficulty of adjustment since Nov. 22 for the Kennedy men who virtually idolized their slain chief.

Despite the pressures of the political season, there has been no authoritative word, official or unofficial, from any member of Kennedy's Cabinet indicating a departure from the team before the election.

In reply to a question at his news conference Saturday, Johnson said he has seen no sign that supporters of the late president are anxious to leave his administration.

If Johnson is re-elected, each Cabinet officer will submit a pro forma resignation, leaving Johnson free to form his own administration.

Only Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has stated he does not intend to stay on after November even if Johnson asks him to. But others, too, may feel they will have discharged by then their obligation to help Johnson preserve the continuity of government.

SKIRMISHING

There have been some visible strains, many rumors, and occasional behind-scenes skirmishing over policy. Some Kennedy men are closer to the center of power than they were before; some have moved away from the inner orbit of influence.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara enjoys even greater favor, if possible, than he did under Kennedy; he is the Cabinet strong man.

Rusk, despite last week's rumors, has seemed to be farther "in" than before; a series of overseas flare-ups has demanded one foreign policy huddle after another.

As was inevitable, Robert Kennedy's influence has diminished sharply. Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, though deeply respected for proven ability, is less close personally to Johnson than he was to President Kennedy.

Almost all the Kennedy Cabinet officers are political assets to Johnson in some degree—in some cases because of the esteem in which the public holds them, in others because they are the visible symbol of the continuity of Kennedy policies.

DEAN RUSK ... quitting denied

STAY ON JOB

Johnson frequently has indicated his desire, first voiced on the day of assassination, that the whole group of "very unusually talented individuals"—as he called them a week ago—remain on the job.

He has upgraded the Cabinet, both in its prestige as a body of advisers and in the responsibility reposed in individual members. Less of the policy-making power is wielded by his immediate staff.

Yet by curious contrast, he sometimes talks to the Cabinet like a drill sergeant issuing orders to awkward recruits. "They've never been ordered around that way," said an aide in January, when Johnson vehemently demanded more budget cuts.

His fondness for issuing blunt, no-excuses decrees on a government-wide scale has exasperated many. All concurred in Johnson's proposal to bring more women into high federal positions; but few liked being told, in effect: "Get 50 women in top jobs; report back to me in one month."

On the other hand, most Cabinet officers have been consulted more frequently than they ever were in the Kennedy administration. There have been more Cabinet meetings, and Cabinet officers have dropped in at the White House more frequently to talk over their problems.

resign in November coincided with a newspaper report that Johnson had differed with—and overruled—the secretary of state on U.S. policy toward Panama. Like the resignation story, this was emphatically denied. It was completely untrue, the White House said, that Rusk had urged a softer line than Johnson chose to take.

A week earlier there were official denials of a feud between Johnson and Robert Kennedy. Both sides insisted there was no bad feeling, but neither could deny a mutually embarrassing situation.

When Johnson was vice president, the younger Kennedy brother was in reality the No. 2 man of the government. When Johnson moved into the White House, Kennedy ceased to be the most trusted confidant of the president.

But the Kennedy name and Robert himself are political forces to be reckoned with. An upsurge of volunteer write-in support in the New Hampshire elections raised the threat that Kennedy might get more votes for vice president than Johnson for president.

MORE VOTES

Kennedy called on the New Hampshire volunteers to drop their activity, then made a similar plea to self-starting supporters in Wisconsin. In the New Hampshire voting, Johnson got more votes than Kennedy.

Johnson, in a television interview, dismissed the feud reports as "newspaper talk" and gave Kennedy full credit for good faith.

Friction within the administration over the key plank in Johnson's campaign platform, the war on poverty, also has disturbed the peace along the Potomac.

As in the Johnson-Kennedy case, all the hard words have been coming from underlings, not from the top men involved. Nevertheless, there has been a power struggle over the policies and direction of the antipoverty effort involving Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, and the man chosen by Johnson to direct the drive, Sargent Shriver.

All have striven to quash the public bickering and settle it within the family. However, the dispute delayed for weeks Johnson's special message on poverty. It finally reached Congress last Monday.

NOT MERGED

Within the White House itself,

the longtime aides who were brought in by Johnson have not been merged with the Kennedy holdovers in any recognizable staff pattern, but appear to have been superimposed on the Kennedy group.

Salinger is the first to have been replaced with a man carrying the same title and doing the same job — George Reedy, 46, a former newspaperman. Salinger took with him to California his assistant, Andrew T. Hatcher.

The earlier staff departures were those of Theodore C. Sorensen, special assistant and speechwriter to Kennedy; Arthur Schlesinger Jr., historian and Latin-American specialist, and Timothy J. Reardon, a patronage dispenser and liaison man to the Cabinet.

Frequent speculation is heard that Lawrence F. O'Brien and P. Kennedy O'Donnell may resign, but both were key men in Kennedy's 1960 election campaign and are expected to play important roles in Johnson's.

APPRAISALS

As for the Cabinet itself, newsmen and veteran officials who were canvassed privately came up with these appraisals of the trends and shifts of power:

Secretary of Defense McNamara—Top dog. Both he and Johnson are driving, restless men; they recognize the kindred traits in each other.

Secretary of State Rusk—He has grown in influence. Kennedy was largely his own foreign policy maker; Johnson needs Rusk more.

Secretary of the Treasury Dillon—Still a key man, but perhaps less so than formerly. On economic matters, Johnson is believed to listen more attentively to Walter W. Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

Attorney General Kennedy—Not the presidential confidant that he was while his brother was in the White House. He is still a political force, and Johnson sent him on a trouble-shooting mission to Malaysia and the Far East.

Secretary of Welfare Celebrezze—disappointed at not getting the antipoverty job. Has worked no wonders in his sprawling, disjointed department, but gets along fine with Johnson personally. He is a political asset—of Italian ancestry and a veteran of the big-city political wars.

Secretary of Labor Wirtz — Less political than he is. Intellectual, Wirtz finds himself a trifle farther away from the center of power. But his value is appreciated; he is trusted by labor leaders. He has worked closely with Johnson on some of the knottiest of the President's problems.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hedges—A liberal, a Southerner and a businessman, Hedges is an old friend and ally of Johnson. Under Kennedy there were recurrent rumors Hedges would leave; they have stopped—he may be more solidly "in" than ever.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman — He gets to the White House oftener, and his aides say Johnson lends a more sympathetic ear to farmers' problems than Kennedy ever did.

Illinois Prosecutor Lauds Jones For Myers Aid

LETTER TO EDITOR

To The Editor:

As you are aware, we have just concluded the successful prosecution of John Edwin Myers for the murder of Carol Ballard in our county. This office, of course, feels that justice has been done in this case and I am sure that the residents of Big Spring, Texas are in accord with this feeling.

I want to take this opportunity to publicly thank your able District Attorney, the Honorable Guilford L. Jones, for the kind of assistance he gave this office which so materially aided us in our efforts in St. Clair County, Illinois. Mr. Jones and his office assisted us from the date of Myers' apprehension near Midland, Texas, through the trial of our case in Belleville, Illinois, even to the extent of making available to us the services of his able investigator, Bob West, who came to Belleville, Illinois and participated in the trial at our request.

Mr. Jones also developed much of the evidence which we used here and the transcript of the trial in Rusk, Texas was used by us as a guide for the trial of our case in Belleville, Illinois. I might add that the member of my staff and myself, as well as defense counsel and others who read the transcript of the trial in Rusk, Texas, were most impressed by the manner in which Mr. Jones presented the case against Myers in Texas. It is our feeling that it should be preserved in the annals of competently and professionally presented cases. You are indeed most fortunate to have as your District Attorney in the 118th Judicial Circuit a man of the ability and caliber of Guilford L. Jones.

It is unfortunate that these outrageous crimes have to occur in a country such as ours and that the residents of any particular county are required to bear the substantial cost necessary to prosecute these crimes. I want to assure you and the residents of Big Spring, Texas that without the assistance and help of Mr. Jones our task here would have been rendered extremely difficult and for this reason I would ask you to publicly thank for me Mr. Jones for his able and generous assistance given us in the trial of John Edwin Myers.

Yours very truly,
JOHN M. KARNIS, Jr.
State's Attorney
St. Clair County, Illinois
