Physicians Negotiating On Strike

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Flemish areas, resumed house calls and seeing patients in their offices. Strike leaders in Brussels declared, however, that the doctors would fight on to prevent implementation of changes in the socialized medical law which would set a scale of fees for treatment of persons covered by the state health insurance system and open doctors' treatment records on such patients to government inspection. Each side waited for the other to make the first move to reopen negotiations.

Emergency Talks Seeking To Avert Rail Walkout

Emergency Session In Threatened Rail Strike

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz in Washington called on railroad and union negotiators to settle their work rules dispute and avert a nationwide rail strike. Representatives of unions and almost 200 railroads met last night in an emergency session called by President Johnson. Clockwise, from left, are: Stuart Sanders, Pennsylvania Railroad; Alfred Per-

Wirtz Presses On Negotiations

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz pressed emergency negotiating sessions today in an effort to head off a nationwide rail strike at midnight. After a night session running into the early morning hours, Wirtz met with union representatives again at 10 a.m. Railroad negotiators were scheduled to join the session later. The labor secretary indicated that he planned to keep negotiations going right on through to the strike deadline if no agreement was reached. He had reported no progress when the night session ended at 3:15 a.m. H. E. Gilbert, president of the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, absent from Wednesday's sessions, came to the 10 a.m. meeting. Gilbert declined comment on the prospects of averting a strike. "I just got here," was his answer to questions from newsmen.

Mississippi Retrial Near

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—The state sets out today for a second time to convince a 12-man, all-white Mississippi jury that Byron De La Beckwith shot and killed a Negro civil rights leader from ambush. One alternate juror remains to be picked. Beckwith, 43, a segregationist from Greenwood, was accused of slaying Medgar W. Evers, state field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Evers, 37, was shot last June 12 as he returned home from a civil rights meeting. Beckwith was arrested 10 days later and charged with murder. His 12-day first trial ended Feb. 7 with a hung jury.

MacArthur Lies In Rotunda As President Pays Respects

WASHINGTON (AP)—From under the great dome of the Capitol, where his body was placed with heart-tugging ceremony, General of the Army Douglas MacArthur travels today on his last earthly journey. President Johnson, who led the nation Wednesday in paying highest homage to the old general, does him further honor today. The President arranged to go to Washington National Airport and bow in respect as the flag-draped casket begins its air journey at 2:10 p.m. to Norfolk, Va., for final services and burial Saturday. In between those ceremonies of official tribute, Americans from all strata of national life paid homage of their own in hushed procession through the Capitol rotunda where the body lay in state. Visitors went through without interruption all night. The peak came about 6 p.m. when the stream was at the rate of about 60 a minute. It tapered off later, but even in the 5 a.m. chill there were never fewer than three persons walking past the flag-draped casket. Some were obviously night-shift workers on their way home—nurses, waitresses, bus drivers and others. TOURISTS Some appeared to be tourist families passing through Washington. There were children in some groups even in the small hours of the morning. One contingent of deaf mutes filed by about 3 a.m., exchanging comments in sign language. The crowd picked up again after the sun was up. Apparently many people were coming through the Capitol before going to work. One early group consisted of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and six of his children. Amid Wednesday's mists and drenching rains, history was enacted. Down from New York, where MacArthur had lain in state in the renowned old 7th Regiment Armory, the funeral train bore the widow Jean, the son Arthur, 26, and in a flower-banked baggage car, the simple GI-issue coffin. At three points along the route—Trenton, N.J.; Odenton and Aberdeen, Md.—military units stood in solemn salute, their colors dipped and their bands playing such hymns as "Lead Kindly Light" and "Faith of Our Fathers." BLACK HAT Soon after the train came to a stop here, the President strode slowly into Union Station, carrying a black bowler in his hand. Head bowed, he moved along the great concourse, between lines of servicemen with presented arms, to the train. The first Lady was with him, garbed in black. Then, the procession through Washington's famous streets. On the same caisson that bore President John F. Kennedy, the general's casket rode. And there too was Black Jack, the ceremonial Army horse, with empty saddle. PALLBEARERS Up the broad steps of the Capitol, their polished boots moving in slow, perfect unison, the military pallbearers carried the casket, to the rotunda. There the chaplains of Senate and House eulogized the general. The Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, Senate chaplain, recalled for the audience of diplomats, Supreme Court judges, Cabinet members and other dignitaries, MacArthur's accomplishments in peace as well as war. Speaking of the general's stewardship as occupation commander of Japan after World War II, Dr. Harris said: "Scorning any imposed humiliation, with dignity and understanding he rebuilt a conquered nation out of the ashes of defeat." The President placed a wreath of red, white and blue flowers at the foot of the coffin. It was a huge wreath and a tall officer in full dress helped carry it. Then, the general public came by the thousands, despite increasingly chilly weather.

Cleveland Race Truce Declared

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—All sides in a civil rights dispute have agreed to a two-week truce that includes appointment of a special group to study Cleveland's problem of school integration. The agreement, hammered out Wednesday night at a seven-hour City Hall meeting, will end all demonstrations and picketing and new school construction. It may be extended an additional two weeks if all sides show progress is being made toward resolving a situation that resulted in one death and violence this week.

Grand Jury Attacks Juveniles' Alcohol

The Howard County Grand Jury late Wednesday recommended more intensive efforts to suppress the sale of alcoholic beverages to minors, the employment of a Negro city police officer, and the employment of a full-time state child welfare worker. These proposals were submitted to Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court, in a written report signed by Tom South, foreman, along with 25 indictments the body had returned against 22 persons. Included in the list of indictments was one for murder with malice against William E. Randle, Negro, charged with the fatal shooting of Ignacio Martinez, Martinez, a Latin American farm-worker, was found shot to death in an alley on the morning of March 22. STERNER ACTION The report recommending sterner action toward those who sell or give intoxicants to minors was supplemented with the statement that "plans for this effort have been formulated and we believe will soon produce positive results, including filing criminal cases against sellers, in addition to administrative action." The grand jury also commended the officers of the city, county and state for "spirit of dedication to their work and the overall standard of excellence of the work performed by them." "The citizens of this community," said the report, "should take pride in the decline of 26.7 per cent in major crime in the City of Big Spring in 1963 as compared with the 5.2 per cent increase in the state of Texas as a whole and 13 per cent increase for the entire United States in cities of 25,000 to 50,000 population. DEFINITE NEED "It is the finding of this grand jury that while the overall climate of this city is one of wholesomeness, that, however, there is a definite need for more lines of communication between the various church and civic groups, parents organizations, law enforcement groups and the young people themselves for the solution of the problems of the youth of our community." The report also stated: "I (South) have been directed by the grand jury to meet with city, county and school authorities for the purpose of organizing a group for the overall study of the youth problems in our community in order to establish an effective program of liaison between the multitudes of groups devoted to serving our young people and with the law enforcement groups and the young people themselves. . . . And also, with the further objective of making certain specific recommendations to these governmental bodies." The report said these recommendations will include, in particular, "the employment of a Negro police officer and the securing of the full-time services of a state welfare worker. "This will be done," the report concludes, "and in the immediate future this study group will be organized and begin to function." ACCEPTS REPORT Judge Caton accepted the report and the indictments. He thanked the grand jury for its services and excused it. The grand jury spent all of Tuesday morning in conference with heads of the law enforcement agencies of the state, county and city. The discussion was largely on the increased incidence of minors being sold or given intoxicating liquors. The indictments returned by the grand jury were against: Joe Neil Bell, car theft, bond set at $2,000; Raleigh M. Samuel, forgery and passing, bond set at $2,000; Wilbert Lee Hill, theft; Robert Byrd and Bill Haff, theft over $50; Theodore McDonald, worthless check, bond set at $2,000; Richard McCord, burglary; Jimmy Camp, forgery and passing; Roy Thomas Welborn, theft over $50; Curtis Joe Lang and Henry Otis Washington, burglary, bonds set at $2,500; Ismael Flores Deanda, possession of narcotics; Charles M. Garrett, DWI second offense; Gabriel Mendoza, theft, bond set at $2,000; John P. Jacobs, burglary; Israel Ortega, burglary, bond set at $2,000; Jessie Glass, Euphia Glass, Bobby Glass and Harvey Glass, two indictments against each person for burglary, bonds set at $2,000 in each case; Jimmy Mead, burglary; William E. Randle, murder, bond set at $7,500. REDUCED A burglary case against Anthony Bonatto was reduced to a misdemeanor and sent to the county court. A charge of theft against Lester Ray Nichols, was not presented to the grand jury. Cases against Jimmy D. Tabor, forgery and passing; Deloris Ann Murphy and Jerry Murphy, forgery and passing; Ruby Lee Banks, assault with a prohibited weapon and James R. Brackin, burglary; were all considered by the grand jury but no indictments were voted. A case alleging car theft against Stephen Roberts, Barbara Roberts and John Ewing Jr., was passed. A charge of burglary with intent to commit a felony against Billy Joe Arnold was not presented.

RAILS SET DEADLINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Most U.S. railroads have embargoed all freight effective at 12:01 a.m. Friday, the Association of American Railroads said today. The embargo because of the threatened nationwide railroad strike serves notice that the railroads will not accept freight for loading, transporting, interchange or reconsignment. The association said that most railroads will not schedule passenger trains that would be unable to reach their destination by the 12:01 a.m. strike deadline.

Strike Would Affect Many Local Businesses

The threatened nationwide rail strike would hurt many Big Spring businesses, according to information received from some shippers. Movement of parcel post would also be affected beyond the second zone, or over 150 miles. Assistant Postmaster A. A. Porter said no word had come through about a definite train stoppage, but that parcel post would be affected. None will be accepted for zone three and beyond. Other mail will be handled by truck, bus and air. Clyde Eager, manager for Kimbell Mills, said a prolonged strike would seriously hurt the mills. Several cars of feed ingredients have been received in the past few days, he said, because the Fort Worth headquarters had advised him of the possible strike. "If a strike develops and lasts for any length of time, we will be hurt," he said. "It will not effect us too much if it lasts only a few days. We get ship-

The Principal Work Rules

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here are the principal work rules changes involved in the railroad strike threat: Wage Structure The railroads are proposing extensive revision of the complicated pay structure under which employees are now paid on a basis of combined mileage and time worked. The carriers contend the present pay structure results in unduly high pay in some cases, particularly on short train runs. They further contend that their proposals, including changes recommended by two special presentational boards, would actually result in pay increases for about three-fourths of the employees involved. The unions argue that the change in pay structure would result in pay cuts of up to one-third for some employees. Road and Yard Service The carriers want to change present job classifications to give them greater flexibility in assigning road crews to yard work and vice versa. Road crews would be most affected by this change. Self-Propelled Vehicles The railroads want to eliminate some workers who are now required under present rules to man self-propelled railroad equipment. Interdivisional Runs The railroads would lengthen the distance that some train crews have to travel before being relieved. The net effect of the changes would be potentially to eliminate many thousands of jobs. There are no reliable estimates on exactly how many jobs would be eliminated because their impact on individual railroads would vary. The wage issue also involves counter demands by the union to revise present rules regulating overtime, holiday pay, night differential and overnight expenses away from home.

TOP LEADERS Mayor Ralph S. Locher helped work out the agreement at a closed-door session with top city, school, civic and civil rights group leaders. He announced the truce terms. Some 125 civil rights demonstrators, outnumbered by police, ended their long City Hall sit-in without incident after they heard the announcement. They had waited in the lobby while their leaders met in the mayor's private chambers. They cheered and applauded loudly as they heard the terms of the truce. The demonstrators had gathered at noon at school board headquarters to pay tribute to the Rev. Bruce W. Klunder, 27, a white Presbyterian minister, who died Tuesday when a bulldozer ran over him at a school construction site. They then marched to City Hall. Earlier Wednesday, Common Pleas Court Judge John V. Corrigan had issued a temporary order banning further construction, picketing or trespassing at the site of the new Lakeview public elementary school on the East Side. Representatives of the UFM, the Congress of Racial Equality and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People attended the meeting called by Locher. NEW SCHOOLS Those civil rights groups are opposing construction of three new elementary public schools in the predominantly Negro Glenville area on the East Side. Demonstrations in that area led to violence in January and February and produced an earlier

Committee Of 25 Studies California Master Plan

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally's Higher Education Study Committee is pondering today a firsthand report on the success of a similar committee in California.

Connally and his "Committee of 25" conferred Wednesday with Dr. Donald McLaughlin, chairman of the board of regents of the University of California system. The Texas committee is to report to Connally by Sept. 1 with recommendations to improve the state's public higher education system.

McLaughlin told how the California legislature adopted the recommendations of a study commission as the state's master plan for higher education from 1960 to 1975 and ended what he termed a "rather chaotic situation."

MASTER PLAN

"In California we have gone through somewhat similar problems to those you are going through now in Texas," he said. "I was part of the negotiations for a master plan for higher education in California."

He said all public senior colleges are now under a single board of regents, as are all state supported universities. Junior colleges were left under the state board of education. A coordinating council was set up to handle disputes to prevent overlapping of functions and to veto unnecessary institutions and programs.

The Texas committee is considering revamping the state's higher education system along lines similar to California's and establishing a state coordinating agency.

Newsman heard McLaughlin's presentation. Afterwards, newsman was "excused" by chairman H. B. Zachry of San Antonio while Connally and McLaughlin remained with the committee.

GENERAL TERMS

The California coordinating council reviews institutional budgets in general terms and makes recommendations concerning them to the governor and the legislature. McLaughlin said. No new schools can be established without its approval, he said.

On the study commission's recommendation, he said, the legislature defined general functions of the parts of the higher education system.

"The universities are the only part of the system with the right to grant the Ph.D. Also, they have primary responsibility for research and exclusive responsibility for legal and medical education," he said.

TOP GRADS

For some years, only the top 12 1/2 per cent of the high school graduates have been allowed to enter state university freshman classes, McLaughlin said, and only the top third are eligible to become senior college freshmen. The rest of the state's high school graduates can enroll in junior colleges and transfer once they've proved their scholastic ability, he said.

A similar plan was proposed to the committee Tuesday by a subcommittee headed by Dallas industrialist Gifford Johnson.

McLaughlin said the main problem before the California commission's report was senior college ambitions.

"There was no strong group over these state colleges...which resulted in the unfortunate situation of each president acting as an individual in going to the legislature. There was a growing tendency for each of those boys to try to develop a university," he said.

McLaughlin is chairman of the board of Homestake Mining Co., one of the nation's largest gold mining enterprises. He once was head of the Harvard geology department and is a former dean of engineering at the University of California at Berkeley.

President Protection Problem On Increase

EDITOR'S NOTE — The security around the President has been increased since the assassination of John F. Kennedy. But the problem of protecting Lyndon B. Johnson will become increasingly difficult as the election campaign tempo quickens.

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson walked in the funeral procession of President John F. Kennedy against the advice of the Secret Service and reportedly told an agent:

"I'd rather give my life than be afraid to give it."

This profession of courage points up an ever present, insoluble security problem — a problem that becomes increasingly difficult under way.

Precautions have been increased since the assassination of Kennedy. But the Secret Service, as one veteran put it, can only provide the safeguard. It cannot compel the President to use them.

When Johnson was asked in a television interview March 15 whether he always follows instructions of the security agents he said:

"Yes, with rare exceptions now and then, like marching in the funeral procession and occasionally they prefer to have two or three policemen between me and the crowds, and I ask them to move out, so I can see some of the people.

"I want to be a people's President, and in order to do so, you have to see the people and talk to them and know something about them and not be too secluded.

"I think they would feel better if the President kept 100 yards distance from every human being, but that is not practical."

EXPEDITIONS
Besides, human beings vote. And, increasingly, Johnson will be making political expeditions. Already he is pushing into crowds and grabbing hands every chance he gets—even at church, although he contends he should be allowed to worship in private.

Kennedy was on a political trip to Texas Nov. 22. He wanted to see and be seen by throngs of people. His motorcade route was advertised in advance for the people of Dallas—and for the accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

A week before, Kennedy had insisted on driving through New York without the customary police escort and with stops at every red light.

Things changed after Dallas. In New York and in all cities, swarms of police turn out along streets and peer down from windows, rooftops and bridges. Helicopters hang overhead. For the President, himself, there is far more reliance on helicopters than on motorcades to get him into the centers of cities.

When Johnson does move by car in urban areas, it is in a four-ton armored car with bulletproof glass on loan from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The Lincoln bubbletop limousine.

sine in which Kennedy was shot is being overhauled and having armor added before it comes back to the White House fleet.

In motor processions now, motorcycle police form a tighter cordon around the President. The White House physician is only a car or two away. In the open Secret Service car right behind Johnson an agent sits backward on one of the jump seats, since Kennedy was hit by shots from behind.

The White House Secret Service detail hasn't been increased substantially, because manpower isn't a guarantee of presidential safety. A determined, crafty crackpot can kill any man.

NO NOTICE

Furthermore, on occasion, Johnson gives the Secret Service no notice where or when he intends to go some place—as was the case also with Kennedy at times. Unlike Kennedy, he also banishes Secret Service men from his car on occasion.

He did this while scorching the roads with a car full of newsmen during his Easter vacation in Texas. He did it here when he attended church with his family last Sunday.

But then Franklin D. Roosevelt used to go dashing off in his Ford touring car alone, cutting through swamp areas on the family estate, at Hyde Park, N.Y., and chucking merrily when a heavy Secret Service car bogged down.

Presidential protection in some ways was easier in those days. Because of his crippled legs, Roosevelt couldn't get out and mingle with crowds. He couldn't make sudden, unannounced moves.

MORNING WALKS

President Harry S. Truman was somewhat more of a problem, with his morning walks. But few people were out then, and routes changed. Security was tightened around him, too.

after an attempted assassination while he was occupying Blair House during the renovation of the White House.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower had that warm smile and friendly wave but he didn't often mix with crowds, either, the way Kennedy did and Johnson does.

Eisenhower's Secret Service driver crashed the legal speed barrier at times on the way to the Eisenhower farm at Gettysburg, Pa.

The question of presidential speeding has drawn attention once again—especially with a vacancy in the vice presidency.

"More than one million Americans over the age 40 have glaucoma. Yet, only half of them are even aware that they are victims of this sneak-thief disease which takes sight without warning", according to the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

"Guard against eye disease, eyestrain and poor vision with an annual, professional eye examination by a Doctor of Optometry," advises Dr. S. J. Rogers of Texas State Optical.

Takes Money, Leaves Friends

Three men, who were traveling from California to Florida Wednesday, discovered one of their company may be a thief.

Police today said two of the men complained the third one took property valued at $1,202 from their car Wednesday night and left in his own car, heading east on US 89. The property consisted of $40 in cash, clothing, a rifle and camping equipment, investigating officers said.

Someone took $50.74 and a check for $3.40 from a drawer at the Tyco Service Station, 1801 Wasson Road Wednesday, according to police.

Police said Paul Jenkins, 2508 Carleton, told them golf clubs valued at $190 were taken from his car sometime between noon Saturday and 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Police summoned water department employees after someone reported a sewer backup at First and San Antonio about 4:34 p.m. Wednesday.

Children, who reportedly were trying to start a fire in trash cans behind the Hull and Phillips Grocer, Lamesa Highway, were admonished by police at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday and sent home.

Someone took a tray containing a pitcher and glasses from Donald's Drive-Inn, 2406 Gregg, about 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Officers recovered a 24-inch bicycle behind the 7-11 store on Marcy Drive about 2 a.m. this morning.

Four Civilians Given Awards

Four Webb AFB civilian employees recently received awards. Two of the civilians received checks for ideas in the military-civilian suggestion program and the other two were awarded checks for sustained superior performance.

Winners were Terry T. Walton of the base electric shop who was given a $75 check for his suggestion to provide more accurate and safer starting procedures for emergency generators, and James M. Henderson who received $15 for his idea in improving procedures transferring aircraft engine oil from drums to refueling units.

Mrs. Minnie T. Hood and Mrs. Claudeane Baker, both from supply, received $100 awards for sustained superior performance.

Brown Predicts Laws To Cover TV Witnessing

DALLAS (AP) — Judge Joe Brown said today some new law may have to be written to deal with the problem of television and rules of evidence in the courts.

Brown, who presided over the Jack Ruby murder trial, referred specifically to prospective jurors who see crimes committed on television, such as Ruby's slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy.

Lawyers for Ruby said they would file a detailed amended motion for a new trial today.

Ruby was sentenced to death March 14 for the Oswald killing. An original motion for a new trial was filed several days after the verdict. Brown noted that most jurors in the Ruby trial witnessed the shooting either on live television or on reruns.

Texas law specifies that witnesses to a crime cannot sit as jurors in the matter. This point will form one of the key arguments in the Ruby appeal.

"I decided on the television-witness issue during the trial," Brown said. "I didn't disqualify prospective jurors who had seen the crime on TV if they said they could lay it aside when determining Ruby's guilt or innocence."

Former Ruby defense chief Melvin Belli of San Francisco maintained that all persons who saw the television scenes of the killing should be disqualified as jurors.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade argued that such persons were not actually witnesses in that they were physically removed from the scene. He said such evidence was merely hearsay evidence, and Judge Brown agreed.

The judge also said today that he has received three bushel baskets of mail since the Ruby trial. He said he has opened none of it.

Brown has 20 days in which to order a hearing on the lawyers' amended motion. If he turns down their request for the new trial, the defense will probably take their plea to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Special Courses On Police Work Are Scheduled Here

Two special courses touching upon various phases of police work will be taught in the classroom of the Big Spring Police Department during the next two weeks, according to Chief Jay Banks.

Officers in the department will attend a school on auto theft April 14 and 15. Area service station operators are invited to attend the school on the night of April 15. All instruction will be given in the police classroom.

Films on auto thefts are to be shown to the station operators, and they will hear lectures on auto thefts and recognition of wanted persons. Banks said the auto theft school will be conducted by C. C. Benson, director of the National Auto Theft Bureau, and an employee of the Texas Department of Public Safety. "He is one of the top authorities in the field of auto theft investigation," Banks said.

Among other things, the instruction will include how to recognize stolen automobiles and fleeing criminals and the operation of auto theft rings.

The school is being sponsored by the police department, the Howard County Sheriff's office and other local law enforcement agencies. The purpose of the school is soliciting the cooperation and aid of service station operators in causing the apprehension of automobile thieves and other criminals who operate automobiles.

Banks said: "Many of our merchants are being victimized by thieves, robbers and others who use had credit cards and run off without paying for merchandise. Our city, lying at the crossroads of transcontinental highways with traffic through the business district, is ideally suited to the activities of these law violators."

Law enforcement personnel from surrounding towns will be invited to attend the day sessions of the theft school.

A course for local and area law enforcement personnel covering statistical analysis and preparation of records and statistical reports will be given from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. April 22 and 23.

Banks said the course will be taught by N. K. Worner, Statistical Services, Department of Public Safety. He is a nationally recognized authority on police statistics, according to Banks. The chief said he has worked with both men who will conduct the schools — Benson and Worner—and has a high regard for their abilities.

In addition, the Spring Conference of the West Texas and New Mexico Communications Officers Association will be held April 21. Local law enforcement officers are scheduled to appear on the program.

Young People's Clubs Planned

COAHOMA (SC) — A Young Homemaker's Club and a Young Farmer's Club will be organized here tonight, with meetings set for 7:30 o'clock. Persons out of school are invited to join the organizations.

Mrs. John Justiss will be in charge of the homemakers' meeting in the school homemaker room, and Gerald Oakes will conduct the farmers group in the agriculture building.

Meetings are planned monthly.

Five Promoted

Five Webb AFB master sergeants were promoted to senior master grade April 1. They are SM. Sgts. William D. Mills, Maurice K. Gunn, William K. O'Neal, James R. DeVore, Gordon A. Seals.

Large Throng Hails Wallace On Return

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George Wallace returned to his state duties today pleased with his showing in the Wisconsin presidential primary and looking toward upcoming contests in Maryland and Indiana.

Some 3,000 cheering well-wishers greeted the governor by waving Confederate flags Wednesday night as he stepped from the state-owned plane that brought him home from Wisconsin.

Wallace said the more than 260,000 votes he received in the Wisconsin primary—about 25 per cent of the total—were not for him but "for the people of Alabama and the people throughout the country who stand up for constitutional government."

He also said the results was "not a vote against any people," despite opponents' charges of racism. "We are only fighting," Wallace said, "to give the people the right to run their homes and their businesses as they want to do and should do."

Wallace's next presidential primary is in Indiana May 5—the same date Alabama holds its democratic primary in which the governor is sponsoring a slate of unpledged elector candidates.

He appealed for support of his slate—which has refused to promise to support the Democratic presidential nominee.

Optimists Elect Wiley President

Don F. Wiley was elected president of the Big Spring Optimists at Wednesday morning's meeting. He will serve during the fiscal year beginning May 1. Van Perry and Jack N. Parrott were elected vice presidents.

New directors will be Charles Lusk, Wayne A. Vaughn, Louis Wolfson, Jack Dumphy, B. M. Estes, Sydney Clark, W. D. Lovelace, and Jack Price.

John Rutherford presented a program, with pictures, on artificial respiration, including the mouth-to-mouth method.

The BIG Inch

The ruled space above represents the size of a one column by one Big Spring Herald ad. This size advertisement may be bought for less than $2.00.

This inch doesn't look like much here. It is quite a lot, though, when you look at it with a realistic appraisal.

It is not just a single inch of newspaper advertising space. When you multiply by The Big Spring Daily Herald daily circulation of 10,500 . . . the Big Inch really gets BIG.

Actually, you get 10,500 inches in advertising. What a tremendous amount of newspaper space you get for the small price you pay. And the price includes delivery to The Big Spring Herald reader's doorstep, too.

What do you think it would cost to reach all these Big Spring Herald families by postcard? The postage alone would amount to over $4,200 . . . over $4,400 on Sunday.

So, you see, a small one-inch Big Spring Herald ad is Really BIG in size but comparably infinitesimal in cost. You get so much for so little.

Best yet are the Big Results you get from your Big Inch. If you want to rent an apartment, buy a house, buy a car, hire someone, get a job or dozens of other and so forth, there is no other method, economically or effectively, that can match The Big Spring Herald advertising.

For the 3rd time in three years, Fred Lorenzen takes the grueling Atlanta "500" at the wheel of his Ford.

FORD TOTAL PERFORMANCE WINS ATLANTA "500" FOR 3RD YEAR IN A ROW!

Latest win gives Ford 11 out of last 12 NASCAR 500 milers!

ATLANTA, April 5: In a blazing exhibition of total performance, ace driver Fred Lorenzen piloted his specially modified '64 Ford to a stunning victory in the Atlanta "500" before a cheering crowd of 75,000 spectators. This victory marks the 11th time that Ford has captured a NASCAR stock car event of 500 miles or more starting in May, 1962.

In the past two years, tough, dependable Ford-built cars have carved out an incredible history of victories in virtually every kind of automotive event possible—from stock car races to economy runs, from rallies to endurance tests.

This is the dramatic way to show that Fords have changed . . . and the sure way to be certain they keep on changing.

Ford enters special cars in open competition, in addition to its extensive laboratory and test track programs, because competition provides an intensity of testing that no proving ground alone can provide.

The lessons Ford has learned in racing have already led directly to such refinements as a stronger rear axle, streamlined "fastback" styling, better brakes and an improved ignition system.

Because Ford enters open competition, the cars at your Ford Dealer's are stronger, better handling, safer and thrifter in the long run. They're built for total performance.

Sweden's 'Most Dangerous Spy' Begins Trial Saturday

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Col. Stig Wennerstrom goes on trial Saturday as a master spy accused of betraying Sweden's top defense secrets to the Soviet Union over a 15-year period.

A jury of nine, including five women, will decide his fate. The prosecution calls him Sweden's most dangerous spy in modern times.

It says he has confessed he sold Sweden's top defense secrets to the Soviets from 1948 until his arrest last June. He knew a lot about the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's defenses and weapons and presumably passed this on to Moscow but will be tried only for betrayal of Sweden. The story that will unfold includes attendance at a Soviet spy school in Moscow while he served as Swedish air attaché there; a secret room in his lavish villa where he received radioed instructions from the Russians; and exchanges of microfilm rolls during handshakes with Russians at diplomatic receptions in Stockholm.

Wennerstrom moved from one key position to another. Each gave him access to all the information on Sweden's defense plans and its defense forces—and to some on NATO—that he wanted to see.

Although neutral Sweden is not a member of NATO he visited NATO military installations. He was friendly with many top Western diplomats here. From 1952 to 1957 he served as Swedish air attaché in Washington. The United States honored him with its Legion of Merit when he left.

Interrogators took a month to break down Wennerstrom's pleas of innocence. They say he confessed only when confronted with irrefutable evidence, including films of classified information which Wennerstrom's maid had found in his villa.

The trial is expected to last four weeks. The maximum sentence that he can draw is life imprisonment.

The 57-year-old colonel is confined in a special cell in Stockholm's police headquarters. He is under 24-hour watch by alternating teams of two guards in an adjacent room. The lights never are turned out in his cell.

He eats with a spoon. He is not permitted to use a knife or fork for fear of a suicide attempt. He is not allowed a belt or suspenders for the same reason.

He exercises on a rooftop that is covered by a net to prevent anything being thrown to him from adjoining buildings.

Restraint On Texas Oil Assets Lifted By Judge

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—A federal judge has lifted a restraint that blocked the sale of Texas oil assets owned by Hydrocarbon Chemicals, Inc., of Newark.

Zimoco Petroleum Corp. of New York has proposed to purchase the Texas assets of Hydrocarbon, which is being reorganized.

The assets are underground oil reserves owned by Navarro Service, Inc., and Southwestern Hydrocarbon Pipeline Co., both of Corsicana. Hydrocarbon owns all the stock in the corporations.

Federal Judge James Coolahan lifted the restraint. His or-

Classes For Convicts Teach Confidence

Convicts at Sing Sing prison, at Ossining, N.Y., sit in classroom behind the institution's walls learning the art of speaking, of poise and of self-confidence. Some 40 prisoners attend the course and wardens generally agree the results are beneficial. (AP WIRE-PHOTO)

Felons Learning To Win Friends

OSSENING, N. Y. (AP)—Forty convicts filed into the Sing Sing Prison classroom for their weekly lesson in winning friends and influencing people—the accepted way.

There was little about the men or the classroom to indicate that the setting was behind the brick walls of the state prison “up the (Hudson) river” from New York City.

Killers, dope-peddlers, sex offenders and confidence men sat shoulder to shoulder like college students and chatted freely as they waited for the instructor.

The convicts all had volunteered for the course to try to learn poise and self-confidence.

Ages ranged from the early 20s to the late 40s. Race and nationality were as varied as the New York City melting pot that spawned most of these men.

An armed guard stood at the rear of the room. There were no bars on the windows.

At this class the instructor was Theodore C. Ehrsam, a slim, animated and intense man, a professor at New York University donating his time to the project.

Each of the inmates had prepared a brief talk, intended to emphasize speaking with enthusiasm.

The class applauded, energetically as Joe, serving 20 years for a bank holdup, was called as the first speaker.

Joe, a burly man with an unruly shock of graying hair, discussed how to get ready to go before the parole board. The applause sounded again as Joe returned to his seat.

Later speakers turned attention to such subjects as eye care, fish tanks, the prison filtration plant and raft-making. Each time the speaker was greeted, and seated with spontaneous applause.

This was no special class. Deputy Warden Eddison V. Byram said the men, picked from more than 150 volunteers, ranged from above average to below average intelligence.

Sing Sing is the sixth of New York State's 22 correctional institutions to offer the 14-week course, developed and administered without charge by a specialty organization. Similar courses are given in more than 30 penal institutions throughout the United States.

Austin Council Stymied Still

AUSTIN (AP)—Civil rights demonstrators planned to resume today a “speak-in” which has tied up city council business for four days.

Absent from the council meeting was Mayor Lester Palmer, spending his second day in a hospital recuperating from fatigue apparently caused by the frustrated council meetings.

The Rev. Wesley Sims, one of three advocates of a penal anti-discrimination ordinance who have talked or read from civil rights books during the “speak-in,” had the floor when today's council meeting opened.

The demonstrations began at last Thursday's regular weekly council meeting as a protest of the council's failure to adopt an anti-discrimination ordinance.

The council adopted March 19 a civil rights policy statement, but has not acted on a recommended permanent human relations commission. Both were recommended by a council-appointed committee, which disappointed some civil rights leaders by not urging adoption of an anti-discrimination ordinance.

Food Stamp, Farm Measures Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — From the sometimes fractious House of Representatives, President Johnson had two legislative plums today.

They were:

The big and controversial wheat-cotton subsidy bill; a top priority election year measure on his desk and ready for his final signature.

House approval of the food stamp program, a key part of his declared "war on poverty." This goes to the Senate, where it must await action in the dim future after the civil rights bill is disposed of.

The House acted on both measures after a hot, boisterous and bewildering session that began at 11 a.m. Wednesday and didn't end until 12:44 a.m. today.

STAMP PLAN

The food stamp plan passed handily by a 229-189 margin in spite of a long campaign of delaying action by Republican opponents. It got the support of 216 Democrats and 13 Republicans, while 163 Republicans and 26 Democrats were opposed.

But the wheat-cotton bill was a cliffhanger, approved 211 to 203. A switch of five votes would have changed the outcome. That vote came well after midnight under a procedure that limited debate to one hour and banned any amendments.

A tense hush came over the chamber as the last stragglers were being recorded in the "well" of the House, a circular area in front of the speaker's chair. Suddenly, Republican leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana demanded that the well of the House be cleared, a rule

Quick Action Seen On Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman is expected to lose little time in putting new wheat and cotton programs into effect.

The secretary will act immediately because of the lateness of the season for both crops.

In the case of cotton, he would have to set a domestic production allotment which would require growers to reduce their acreage allotments in order to become eligible for price support premium payments that would be authorized.

Freeman also would have to set up details for making payments to domestic mills to enable them to buy raw cotton as cheaply as foreign buyers who get the benefit of export subsidies.

Furthermore, he would need to explain conditions under which growers who already have planted wheat and cotton could make themselves eligible for financial benefits of the two programs. Doubtless some winter wheat and early-planted cotton would have to be plowed under.

In addition, the secretary would have to spell out the mechanics under which the grain and milling industry could shift without incurring undue losses, from a relatively high market price for wheat to a much lower one. Returns of cooperating wheat growers would be supplemented by income derived from processing and export taxes on wheat.

In addition, price support rates for cotton, soybeans and cottonseed remain to be announced. The cotton support would be 30 cents a pound if the legislation is approved compared with 32.47 cents for the 1963 crop.

Freeman had delayed setting the soybean support—which was $25 a bushel for last year's crop—because of the possible impact of the cotton program on plantings. Under the cotton plan more land in the South doubtless would be planted to soybeans.

Boosters Slate Saturday Wash

The Big Spring Band Boosters will sponsor a car wash Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Nichols Car Wash, Twenty-first Street at Gregg. The bandsmen will wash and vacuum cars for $1, and proceeds will go to help send band members to Los Angeles, Calif., April 21-26.

At a meeting earlier this week, the boosters were told the treasury had $4,024, and about $200 more was needed to finance the California trip. The candy sale brought in $1,000, it was reported.

A joint band-choir concert is planned April 20 in the city auditorium. Tickets will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. Proceeds from this event will be divided between the two groups.

seldom invoked.

Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts replied mildly that the Democrats should get a turn after a group of Republicans had recorded their votes. He told the remaining Democrats to step back a pace and continue.

A torrent of boos came from Republicans, a measure of the feeling that had built up during the long session. Veteran observers in the press gallery could not recall a similar occurrence.

Republicans charged that big city Northern Democrats had entered into an "unholy alliance" with Southern conservatives, trading their support for the food stamp bill in return for support of the cotton-wheat bill.

The food stamp program expands and makes permanent a pilot operation. Under it, needy families would buy food stamps with the portion of their income they would normally spend for food.

AT GROCERY

The stamps would be redeemable at the grocery for more than the cash paid in, and would buy just about any food item. The idea is to increase the variety and food value for poverty stricken families, some of which are now getting a direct dole of surplus food stocks owned by the government — powdered milk, dried eggs and the like.

Rep. Charles Gruber, R-Calif., forced a 2 1/2-hour delay when the food stamp bill was at the point of passage. He demanded an "engrossed copy" of the bill.

This meant waiting for the bill to be carefully printed on blue paper in its final form, a laborious process. Rather than risk losing their precarious edge on the wheat-cotton bill by postponing action, the Democratic leaders recessed the House until it was ready.

Republicans were steaming when the House reconvened at 9:05 p.m. They set off a pyrotechnical display of objections and delaying maneuvers that lasted until about 10:30 p.m.

WHEAT-COTTON

Finally, food stamps went through and up came wheat-cotton. Rep. Clarence Brown, R-Ohio, spoke of "raw and bloody power politics," a phrase he repeated several times.

Halleck said the one hour debate procedure was "debasing the character and integrity of the House of Representatives."

In the final vote on wheat-cotton, 10 Republicans joined 201 Democrats for, and 36 Democrats joined 167 Republicans against.

Briefly, here's what the bill would do:

Wheat—Provide a $1.30 support price, plus a certificate worth 70 cents to bring the price up to the present $2 a bushel. Only those farmers who complied with acreage reductions would be eligible.

Cotton—Give textile mills a subsidy to allow them to compete on even terms with foreign mills, which can buy U.S. cotton at the world market price, 8 1/2 cents a pound cheaper than the supported domestic price U.S. mills must pay.

How Texas Unit Voted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas congressmen overwhelmingly voted in favor of the cotton-wheat subsidy bill which the House passed 211-203 early today and sent to President Johnson.

Voting for the bill were Beckworth, Brooks, Gonzalez, Kilgore, Mahon, Patman, Pickle, Poage, Pool, Purcell, Roberts, Rogers, Thomas, Thompson, Wright and Young, all Democrats.

Voting against the bill were Fisher, a Democrat, and Republicans Alger and Foreman.

The Texas delegation also heavily supported a food stamp bill, 14-6, with two other votes split which were recorded but not actually voted. The House passed the bill, 229-189 on a roll call vote.

Voting for the bill were: Beckworth, Brooks, Gonzalez, Mahon, Patman, Pickle, Poage, Pool, Rogers, Thomas, Thompson, Wright and Young, all Democrats.

Against the measure were Democrats Casey, Fisher, Kilgore and Roberts, and Republicans Alger and Foreman.

Poster Girl

Five-year-old Donna Marie Lucas of Fern Creek in Jefferson County, Ky., was chosen as the national poster girl for United Cerebral Palsy for 1965. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Lucas. Donna, who was selected from among 100 candidates, will be honored in October in Washington. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Paper Emptied By Bomb Threat

NEW YORK (AP) — A bomb threat forced evacuation of the New York Times building for an hour Wednesday night and delayed the second edition 40 minutes, a Times spokesman said.

The spokesman said a man told a Times telephone operator: "A bomb will go off in an hour in the pressroom."

About 700 employees left the building and remained outside while police searched the basement pressroom.

Resolution Due

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — U.N. diplomats generally expected the Security Council would adopt a resolution today deploring Britain's March 28 air raid on Yemen in which Yemeni claims 25 persons were killed.

Viet Cong Nets Major Saigon Win

TAN AN, Viet Nam (AP) — A Communist victory only 15 miles south of Saigon has dealt a major setback to strongman Premier Nguyen Khanh's plan to clear the Viet Cong from Long An Province, on the doorstep of his capital.

Viet Cong guerrillas overran a Vietnamese self defense post at 3 a.m. Wednesday and killed 28 South Vietnamese. Most of the dead, including two civilians were riddled in their beds.

Thirty-six men were wounded and 37 others were missing, believed captured after the hit-and-run battle in which the Viet Cong seized 115 weapons and blew up three watchtowers.

South Viet Nam's 7th Division sent in a large force to stalk the guerrillas, and heavy mortar fire was reported in the area today.

American sources said the guerrillas apparently were aided by agents working inside the post at Go Den, 30 miles north of this provincial capital. These Communist undercover men were reported to have signaled the attack by racing into the barracks and spraying the sleeping troops with bullets. The Viet Cong attacked in force seconds later.

Baptist Temple To Mark 12th Birthday Tonight

Two hundred and ninety persons have returned reservations for Baptist Temple Church's 12th Anniversary Fellowship Dinner tonight at 7 p.m. in the Student Union Building at Howard County Junior College. A dinner is held annually in connection with the church's spring stewardship campaign.

Baptist Temple Church was organized April 15, 1952 with 75 charter members. Its first meeting place was the high school auditorium, but by Jan. 1, 1953 the congregation was ready to enter its new $178,000 plant with accommodations for 800 in worship and 300 in educational space.

Subsequent expansion programs have increased the total value of the church to $296,000, with educational space to accommodate 500 people, a whole adjacent block for future expansion purposes, an encampment cabin and a parsonage.

The church has received 1,405 members during its brief history, 355 of them by baptism. Present membership now numbers over 700 with approximately 550 of them being resident members. It leads its association in baptisms.

Rev. James Parks was the first pastor of the church, serving two years. He was followed by Rev. A. R. Posey, who served the congregation eight years. Rev. James A. Puckett has been pastor since Jan. 1, 1963.

This year the church has adopted a budget of $72,395 which is an increase of $32,000 over its budget of two years ago and $21,000 over last year's budget.

Baptist Temple's music department includes over 15 different singing groups within the church. The development of a fully graded choir program is under way.

A Bible teaching ministry for all ages with 650 enrolled and 350 average attendance is conducted each Sunday morning in 46 units with 120 church-elected workers. It has a separate class for each age and sex of children.

A program of training in church membership has over 225 enrolled and meets Sunday evenings.

The worship ministry of the church features a combination program of Bible reading by the congregation and preaching by the pastor continuously through the entire Bible in its three worship services each week: Sunday morning, Sunday night and Wednesday night.

Through its WMU work, Baptist Temple has been awarded the Honor WMU designation, one of the 55 churches so recognized among the 4,000 Baptist churches in Texas. A strong brotherhood has been a distinction of Baptist Temple since its organization.

Dr. H. M. Jarratt is now a state brotherhood vice president. Youth activities include YWAs, RAs, Boy Scouts and camping. A young men's athletic program is active in all intra-city competition.

Baptist Temple is air-conditioned and maintains six modern nurseries which are open for all church activities.

Southland Plans Output Increase

LUFKIN (AP) — Southland Paper Mills, Inc., plans expansion of its East Texas facilities to boost its production of newsprint by 100,000 tons a year.

E. W. Wortham Jr., president of the firm, made the announcement Wednesday. He said it was not yet determined whether the new facilities would be built at the Lufkin plant or at some other East Texas location.

New Mayor In Rio Bravo

RIO BRAVO, Mexico (AP) — This Mexican border town has a new mayor today—the second in a week.

Gov. Praxedes Balboa appointed Jose Maria Chavez Cobos civil administration president. He replaced Eduardo Reyna Creado, who was named to the office last Thursday.

Chavez had been inspector of police at Reynosa, 15 miles north of Rio Bravo. Balboa replaced Reyna because residents protested the attorney's appointment when Balboa visited Reynosa last Friday. Federal troops were stationed in the town of 23,000 to maintain order.

Chavez' appointment has the backing of the state legislature. Reyna announced at his swearing in ceremonies Thursday that Balboa had asked the elected mayor, Pedro Martinez Vega, to resign because of a number of complaints. He had been mayor 15 months.

Chavez and Reyna were named presidents of the civil administration. Martinez was municipal president. The difference is that Martinez was elected while Chavez and Reyna were appointed by the governor.

Nursery Burns In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Fire destroyed a building Wednesday belonging to the C. E. Wilson Nurseries here.

Carroll Wilson, one of the firm's owners, said the loss would amount to about $150,000 or more.

Midland Crash Fatal To Two

MIDLAND (AP)—Two Shreveport women were killed early today when their car hit a heavy oil equipment truck, went under it and traveled another 404 feet.

The women, thrown from the car, were Sandra Phillips, 21, and Zela Ranier, 36. Police Lt. John Farrell said the truck, driven by John Johnson, 27, of Odessa, had pulled out onto U. S. 80 from a crossroad. Farrell said the women's car hit it dead center and the top of the car was sheered off as it passed underneath.

JACK POPE

Jack Pope To Visit Here

Jack Pope, Abilene, who is now a judge on the state court of civil appeals and is a candidate for the Texas Supreme Court, will be in Big Spring Friday.

A coffee in his honor will be served in the Community Room of the Federal Savings and Loan Association from 9:30-10 a.m.

Jerry Spence, who is assistant campaign manager for Pope in this county, said that the general public is invited to attend and meet the candidate. Hartman Hooser is county campaign manager for Pope.

Pope has been endorsed by the Texas State Bar by a 4-to-1 margin as the favorite candidate for the high court justice.

Pope served as district judge in Corpus Christi from 1946 to 1950 and was elected to the San Antonio court of civil appeals in that year. He has been twice re-elected to that post. He has had 18 years experience at both district and appeals court levels, his sponsors point out.

Spence said that Pope was petitioned by more than 3,000 Texas lawyers to make the race he is now engaged in for the high court.

Windsor Couple Paris Favorites

PARIS (AP) — "Come back when we have flowers and sunshine," smiled the Duchess of Windsor. "Yes," seconded the duke, "and let me know and I'll put on more presentable clothes." Dropping in on "Les Windsors," as the French call the most famous residents of the Bois de Boulogne, wasn't all that casual. The picture-taking session had to be arranged in advance through a staff of secretaries. The duchess was prepared, but the duke was taken by surprise. The duchess, busy in town with social engagements, was driven across the spacious grounds in an American limousine painted British racing green, perhaps to match the green license plates of diplomatic status accorded by the French government. A uniformed doorman met her at the driveway entrance to the squarish three-story house of yellowish sandstone. A bow-tied porter in tails helped carry her things through the wrought-iron double doors. In a chic white suit, simply cut, the 68-year-old duchess gamely ventured a few yards across the spongy lawn in her spike heels so the balconied house would be in the background. The duchess, busy in town with social engagements, was driven across the spacious grounds in an American limousine painted British racing the vast park on the west edge of Paris. It is thinly screened from two thoroughfares by fences and shrubbery. The couple has rented the home from the city of Paris since 1953. The duke and duchess have lived outside Britain since their marriage in 1937, following the duke's abdication as King Edward VIII. Asked if the duke would join her, the duchess touched her lips with surprise. "Oh dear. He didn't know he was invited. But we'll call him anyway." "Photographs? Oh no, I'm not at all dressed for it," he said, patting his broad, loosely knotted necktie and short jacket of four-inch blue squares, a pattern the French call "Prince of Wales." "Oh yes you are, dear," encouraged the duchess. "They can say you are in your country clothes." A devotee of the countryside, the duke puts in his weekends working in the gardens of their rented 23-acre tract. He does much of the actual digging.

Hope Lauds LBJ's Quips

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lyndon B. Johnson can hold his own with his predecessors in the joke department, reports Bob Hope, just back from an encounter with presidential humor. Hope did his usual slick job at the White House photographers annual dinner last weekend, and Variety reported that the President was equally a smash. The Variety verdict: "Johnson knows the words to punch and the most effective ways to pause. LBJ is in the Bob Hope class in comedy." The comedian concurs with the show biz bible's review, "He's very fast with a line," said Hope. "When I walked in his office with the other entertainers the day before the show, the President asked me, 'How do you find time to make all that money?'"

SEVEN TIMES Hope classifies Johnson on a par with other recent presidents in the quip department, and he should know. He has performed seven times at Washington functions before the last five presidents. "They were all great," said Bob. "Roosevelt had a wonderful sense of humor, and Truman and Eisenhower do all right, too. Kennedy's wit was marvelous; he loved nothing better than a good joke." Hope demonstrated some of his own material from the dinner. "I was going to stay at the White House, but I didn't bring a flashlight. They're turning off the lights at the State Department, too. Dean Rusk doesn't want Senator Fulbright to find his office."

HOFFA "Faces really change here in Washington. I asked my cab driver what has happened to Jimmy Hoffa, and he said, 'Speaking. Actually I'm here in Washington as part of a cultural exchange. You sent us Pierre Salinger. If he gets elected, he may be our first wetback senator. He's running against George Murphy, the only campaigner who takes along both a campaign manager and a choreographer.' Hope figures the President and the light switches will be one of the great running gags. The comedian used it himself while Johnson was showing the entertainment troupe around the White House.

IN DARK Said Hope: "You know, Mr. President, you go out of the rooms first and turn out the light, leaving us in the dark. You may be saving $3,000 a month in electricity, but you're liable to be spending $1,000 on broken legs." He added: "It's the first time I ever left a room by Braille." Hope figures the President knows he has a good gimmick going. That seems to be substantiated by Johnson's parting remark at the dinner, as quoted by Variety: "Will the last one out please remember to turn off the lights?"

Austin's TV Details Silent

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Texas television company—Capital Cable of Austin Inc.—has refused to give the Federal Communications Commission details of an agreement with a television station owned largely by President Johnson's family.

Under the agreement, the Texas Broadcasting Corp., operators of Austin's only television station KTBC-TV, own an option to buy half of Capital Cable's stock.

Mrs. Johnson held the controlling interest in the company—formerly the LBJ Co.—until December when she turned it over to trustees to avoid any conflict of interest complaints. The Johnsons will regain control of the station when Johnson leaves the White House.

Capital and TV Cable of Austin Inc. are attempting to compete with the Johnson station by providing subscribers in Austin with network television programs beamed from San Antonio and transmitted by cable into subscribers' homes.

TV Cable, which transmits its programs to Austin by microwave transmission, is required by the FCC to black out for 15 days any programs which the Johnson station plans to air. This is the FCC's way of protecting established television stations from competition by community antenna systems.

Capital Cable, which refused to adhere to this restriction, transmits all of its programs by cable—not subject to FCC regulation.

TV Cable, which contends it has been placed at an unfair competitive disadvantage, has asked the FCC to release it from the blackout. It charged there is a "community of interest" between Capital Cable and the Johnson station.

Last December the FCC refused to waive the restriction. TV Cable asked it to reconsider and the FCC decided to ask Capital Cable for a look at the option agreement.

Dear Abby

Somebody Else's Debt

DEAR ABBY: In 1959 my husband lent a man $500. He was so sure that he was good for it that he didn't ask him to sign a note or anything. This man has made no effort to pay back one cent of it. Now get this. This deadbeat's sister is married to one of the richest and most prominent men in the state! Everybody knows him. He has given away millions, yet his own brother-in-law has owed a man $500 for four years. I told my husband to get in touch with this rich brother-in-law and ask him for the money. It would be like five cents to him, but it is a lot of money to us. My husband refuses to do it. I am tempted to contact him myself. Would that be wrong?

C'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Yes. No man, rich or poor, is responsible for his brother-in-law's debts. In cases such as this, it is probable that he has already given his brother-in-law all the help he intends to, and has washed his hands of him (which is his privilege). Stay out of it.

DEAR ABBY: Two years ago my husband started accusing me of things I never thought of doing. My hand on a Bible, Abby, I never looked at another man in the 34 years we have been married. He kept at me and kept at me until I finally "confessed" just so he would leave me alone. Now he is worse than ever. I have tried to tell him that I am not guilty, and I only said I was so I could get some peace and quiet, but he doesn't believe me. Life is not worth living any more. If it weren't for our children and grandchildren I would know what to do. Can you help me?

MISERABLE

DEAR MISERABLE: Try to get your husband to your family physician for a "checkup." If he refuses to go, call your physician and tell him your problem. Excessive suspicion, without cause, is a common symptom of mental illness.

DEAR ABBY: On the subject of whether the clergyman should be paid extra for services that are a part of his "duty," may I add my remarks? Many couples who can afford only a small ceremony in the parson's living room forget that even the smallest wedding costs something. The last one cost us $15. We were offered $5, but we refused it because the couple were struggling students. But at some of the more elaborate church weddings when the cake, which is NOT essential, costs $75, and the preacher, who IS essential, costs nothing, it makes one wonder where the value system went.

PREACHER'S WIFE IN IOWA

CONFIDENTIAL TO HENRY: Indecision has killed more cats than curiosity.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Plan For Chinese Unveiled

NEW YORK (AP)—A 10-year-old secret interview, published Wednesday, quoted Gen. Douglas MacArthur as saying he could have crushed the Communists in Korea but for "the perfidy of the British and constant harassment and interference from Washington."

The New York World-Telegram & Sun published the account by Scripps-Howard correspondent Jim G. Lucas of an interview with MacArthur here Jan. 20, 1954.

"Jim felt honor-bound not to report any of it as long as Gen. MacArthur was alive," the newspaper said in a story copyrighted by the Scripps-Howard Newspapers.

TO CHINESE

Lucas wrote that MacArthur "said every message he sent to Washington and every message Washington sent to him was shown to the British by the State Department, and that, within 48 hours, was relayed by the British, either through India or through the Russian Embassy in London, to the Chinese Communists."

"Thus, he said, the Chinese Communists knew in advance every step he proposed to take. The Chinese Communists decided to come into the Korean War, he said, 'after being assured by the British that MacArthur would be hamstrung and could not effectively oppose them.'"

CONFERENCE

At the famous Wake Island conference with President Harry S. Truman in October 1950, MacArthur was reported as saying "he told President Truman that if the Chinese Communists intervened in Korea, he would let them cross the Yalu River and then bomb their bridges behind them, cutting their supply lines and causing them to starve a while before being destroyed."

"He insists this strategy was relayed by the British to the Chinese Communists, with assurances MacArthur would not be permitted to do any such thing."

RADIOACTIVE

Lucas said that MacArthur planned to follow the defeat of the Chinese by sowing "a five-mile-wide belt of radioactive cobalt—which he assured me 'We had in abundance'—along the Yalu, thus permanently sealing Korea off from China."

The account continued: "Gen. MacArthur frequently expressed bitterness when he spoke of Truman, but he paid him grudging respect as 'a man of raw courage and guts. The little bastard honestly believes he is a patriot.'"

When North Korea invaded South Korea, MacArthur was quoted as saying Truman "reacted instinctively, like the gutter fighter he is—and you've got to admire him."

Lucas' report was in the form of a memorandum to his editors. The newspaper said it was publishing the account "believing it is an important historic document."

Millionaire Held In Death

TOPSFIELD, Mass. (AP)—A millionaire author whose ancestry reads like an American-British "who's who" began mental tests today following the strangling of his 64-year-old housekeeper. Louis Agassiz Shaw, 56, was ordered committed Wednesday for 35 days' observation at Danvers State Hospital by District Judge Philip Durkin.

An innocent plea to a murder charge was entered for Shaw, whose grandfather reportedly left a $23-million estate. Shaw was brought into court after the body of Miss Delia Holland was found in a second floor room of Shaw's 15-room mansion.

Shaw had been strangled manually, a medical examiner said. Shaw, who police said had been under psychiatric care for 18 years, turned the Salem District courtroom into an uproar when he lay on a wooden bench during the arraignment and shouted as the clerk read the complaint against him.

"Cut it out. Cut it out," he shouted. "Shut up or I'll fight you. I'll kill you. Stop bothering me. Stop talking to me." Shaw had authored many short stories, some of which were used in collections of works by contemporary American writers.

His father was Robert Gould Shaw II, whose first wife, Nancy Langhorne, later married Viscount Astor and became the first woman to sit in the British Parliament.

Shaw's grandfather, Quincy A. Shaw, made a fortune in mining. His mother was a Converse, an outstanding family in Boston.

Police said Shaw told them he strangled the housekeeper because "she was turning on gas jets in the house," trying to kill him.

Barry Seeking Texas Visit Before May 2

By The Associated Press
U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., is trying to work in a Texas appearance before the May 2 primary elections, state Republican Chairman Peter O'Donnell says.

O'Donnell predicted Goldwater's drive for the Republican nomination will draw a record 300,000 Republicans in the primary.

"People's thinking is coming our way. There is a growing disenchantment with Democrats," O'Donnell said in Austin at a news conference. He said the GOP is taking advantage of the trend by holding primary elections in all 254 counties.

In Victoria, gubernatorial candidate Don Yarborough of Houston said he was "gaining daily" on Gov. John Connally and was now within "shooting distance of victory" in the Democratic primary.

CONSPIRACY
Yarborough accused Connally of pulling Gordon McLendon into the U.S. Senate race mere-

Redistricting Loses Again

HOUSTON (AP) — Two Supreme Court justices have refused to stay a lower court order that gave Texas until next year to revise its congressional districts.

Justice M. Harlan denied the motion Wednesday. The same motion was denied Tuesday by Justice Hugo L. Black.

A three-judge federal court at Houston a week ago stayed execution of its Oct. 19 order until Jan. 11 but gave attorneys until Tuesday to appeal.

The three judges voted 2-1 the Texas statute on congressional districting was unconstitutional in that it favored rural areas over urban areas.

The Supreme Court ruled the Oct. 19 order but gave state officials until April 1 to seek relief from the Houston court on ground Feb. 3 was the deadline for filing by candidates in the May 2 primaries.

The Oct. 19 order said Texas must not elect any more congressmen under the invalid statute. It directed the state to redistrict immediately or elect all 23 congressmen on an at-large basis.

The court's ruling last week set an Aug. 1, 1965 deadline for the state to redistrict. The motion denied by Black and Harlan was designed to set aside the postponement.

Tom Higgins, an Austin attorney, took the motion to Justice Harlan. Higgins said he will go before other members of the Washington court.

ly to work for a Connally victory in the primary. He accused them of "a conspiracy to urge Republicans to vote in the Democratic primary."

Yarborough also attacked Connally's record and said the governor had failed to accomplish promised "great strides in education."

Connally was in his Austin office Wednesday. In the afternoon, he appeared before his Committee on Education Beyond the High School Level.

McLendon, a Dallas Democrat, said in Brownsville that U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, no relation to the Houston candidate, was over-impressed with the federal government. McLendon said Yarborough believes the way to make people happy and prosperous "is to concentrate more and more power in the national government — in short, to treat them like sheep tended by federal shepherds."

CIVIL RIGHTS
Another Senate candidate, Republican Jack Cox, predicted Senator Yarborough "will do absolutely nothing to halt the passage" of the civil rights bill.

Cox spoke to the Tyler Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Yarborough planned to return to Texas today after the Senate quit work for the weekend.

Dan Sullivan, a former aide of Senator Yarborough and now

Democratic candidate for congressman at-large, took up for Yarborough in a statement at Seminole. He said the attempts by one of his opponents, Robert W. Baker, to rob Yarborough of credit for the Padre Island National Seashore area was a "crude stunt."

EDUCATION
In a Texarkana speech, Baker, a Democrat, said education is the key to success in the struggle against communism.

Yet, he added, "the incumbent (U.S. Rep. Joe Pool, D-Tex) consistently votes against everything except a $10,000 pay raise for himself."

Robert Morris, Republican candidate for Senate, told Dallas and Richardson audiences that U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Adlai Stevenson and Sen. J. W. Fulbright have made "fantastic utterances" on foreign policy and the Communist danger.

"It should become crystal clear that the Republican party today is the only effective instrument of resistance to the tide that is now running against us," Morris said.

Another GOP contender for the Senate, Milton Davis, said in Fort Worth he is the only true economic conservative in the race. Davis said he particularly favors a "liberty amendment" to the U.S. Constitution to ban personal income taxes.

Opening lead: Three of ♥
East left no stone uncovered in order to ferret out the only successful line of defense that was available in today's hand.

South opened the bidding with one club and North responded with one diamond. East came in with a vulnerable overall of one heart and, the South had no additional values, he decided to avail himself of the economical opportunity to show his spade suit. With a satisfactory fit now uncovered, the partnership wasted no further time in getting to game.

West opened the three of hearts and East played the ace. The shift was to the king of clubs in the hope that West had the ace, in which case East would be in position to overruff the dummy on the third round. South turned up with the ace of clubs, however, and he hastened to ruff out a small heart in order to lead a trump from the dummy.

Altho his partner had failed to turn up with a high club honor, East had one remaining string to his bow—the possibility that West had the ace of trumps. On the spade lead from dummy, East rose with the king and, when it held the trick, he returned the three of clubs.

South was in again and he led the queen of spades. West won with the ace and, on another club lead, East overruffed North's seven of spades with his eight to score the setting trick.

Observe that East was risking very little by making his abnormal play of second hand high in the spade suit for, when it became revealed that his partner had nothing in clubs, the only chance to defeat the contract hinged on finding West with the ace of trumps. If his play resulted in declarer's making an extra trick, the cost would be slight.

LeMay Status Under Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — The reapPOINTMENT of Gen. Curtis E. LeMay for another abbreviated extension in his job as Air Force chief of staff is stirring curiosity in the capital.

The White House announced Wednesday that LeMay — who does not see eye to eye with the Defense Department on some aspects of airpower — has agreed to a request by President Johnson that he remain in his post until next Feb. 1.

When his first two-year term as chief of staff approached completion last year, President John F. Kennedy reappointed LeMay for one year, with the expiration time this summer.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara had recommended to Kennedy that LeMay be given only a one-year reappointment instead of a full term.

The official explanation for the new reappointment by Johnson is that this will carry LeMay through to the point where he will have completed 35 years service and be eligible for retirement instead of dropping back to a lesser post somewhere in the Air Force.
