Surgeon Shows Movies Made From Inside Living Heart

CHICAGO (AP) — A surgeon showed scenes from thrilling movies taken inside the living heart with a new internal periscope today.

The periscope is thrust down a blood vessel into dogs' hearts. There, it lights up the interior of the heart, and walls, to take movies. A heart specialist then can look through the tube to see what is going on and decide whether surgery is needed to make heart repairs.

An improved, flexible, instrument now is being built, said Walter J. Gamble of Children's Hospital in Boston.

If it proves safe in animal tests, it will be used to inspect the interior of human hearts.

Dr. Gamble and Robert E. Innis of the American Optical Co., Southbridge, Mass., described the new instrument to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology.

INTO ORGAN

Just as a periscope allows the captain of a submarine to see the sky above him, the internal periscope can probe into a body organ without surgery. Dr. Gamble has taken slow motion movies of the aortic valve, which opens and closes as the heart pumps blood out into the body. And he has movies of the inside of the right upper chamber of the dog heart, the right and left lower chambers, and the valve between the upper and lower chambers on the right side.

Thousands of children are born with heart defects. The heart periscope inspection could show surgeons what had to be done before they operate.

AT AORTA

Dr. Gamble said he had once had a peek at the aorta. In adults, inspection of that great artery might show whether it was affected by the "rust" that underlies heart attacks.

The periscope into dogs' hearts is only about half the roundness of a cigarette and 21 inches long. Through incisions in the neck of anesthetized dogs, it has been pushed gently down through blood vessels into the heart.

When it is in place, a small balloon at the tip of the instrument is inflated with air so it presses against the part of the heart to be inspected.

GLASS FIBERS

Light from a high intensity bulb outside the body races down through glass fibers to illuminate the scene. The interior light is reflected back to a lens system.

This light hits the end points of 76,000 ultra tiny glass fibers in the interior channel of the tube. Each point then conducts a tiny part of the total image up the tube. All together, the 76,000 dots of light recreate the image of what is being seen. This end of the tube outside the body is viewed through a magnifying lense by the human eye or movie camera.

In human patients, carbon dioxide rather than air would be used to inflate the periscope balloon, because if the balloon should burst, air getting into the blood would be lethal, Dr. Gamble said.

'Be Back,' Vows NAACP Leader

AUSTIN (AP)—A local Negro civil rights leader says there will be further demonstrations at city hall by advocates of a city ordinance providing penalties for racial discrimination in places of public accommodation.

"We certainly will be back," Volma Overton, president of the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Thursday. During the day, three civil rights supporters were forcibly ejected from a morning city council meeting. Council members heard arguments on civil rights and demonstrators had a "sing in" in the council chamber.

The three men ejected, including one white University of Texas student, had insisted on being heard after Mayor Pro Tem Travis Larue told them to remain quiet while the council attended to routine city business.

Fourteen speakers on both sides of the civil rights question were allowed the floor when the council finished its agenda.

BY POLICE

Carried or forced from the chamber by policemen were Booker T. Bonner, a Negro NAACP member; the Rev. Wesley Sims of Bethany Christian Church, and Brad Blanton, 24, a white University of Texas graduate student.

The council met for one minute Friday afternoon, long enough to adjourn the meeting that had recessed shortly before noon when no more speakers asked to be heard.

After adjournment, some Negroes and whites, including Overton, stayed about 20 minutes in the council chamber singing "We shall overcome" and other "freedom songs" of the civil rights movement. Policemen stood by in adjoining rooms. No arrests were made.

MORE PLANS

Overton would not divulge further plans other than for Negroes to be present at future city council meetings to demonstrate.

A "speak in" or filibuster, guided largely by Overton, kept the council from doing business from April 2 until last Thursday, when the council adjourned to halt the "speak in."

Councilwoman Emma Long told the demonstrators Thursday "I feel sure the council will work something out when we get enough council members together to work on it. As for keeping you waiting, we don't want that." Two councilmen, Louis Shanks and Mayor Lester Palmer were absent, Shanks on a business trip and Palmer in the hospital.

Austin public schools have been desegregated for several years. Other public facilities such as parks, playgrounds, golf courses, libraries and swimming pools also are not segregated. In recent years, most local motion picture theaters, restaurants and hotels have agreed to admit Negroes and whites equally.

Pipeline Price Cut Attacked

AUSTIN (AP)—Complaints filed March 5 by independent oilmen against an alleged price cut by a West Central Texas pipeline company will be heard May 26, the Texas Railroad Commission said Thursday.

The Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association (TIPRO), two other Texas oil and gas associations and four producers want the commission to investigate a five-cent per barrel "marketing and service charge" imposed on producers Feb. 1 by the Permian Corp., Midland.

Affected by the charge are Permian's producers in Archer, Wichita and Wilbarger counties. Some 2,800 barrels of crude move daily through the 212-mile Nortex system, the state's sixth largest.

Permian contends it is a private carrier and not subject to commission regulation. TIPRO says the Permian case is important because Permian operates many smaller systems across Texas and it fears the practice of the charge will spread.

Besides TIPRO, others filing complaints were the North Texas and West Central Texas Oil and Gas Associations; Clyde Gibson, Charles King and Bradley C. Streeter, all of Wichita Falls, and Graridge Corp., Breckenridge.

WARNING TO CHRISTIANS

Almost 19 centuries ago, the inspired apostle Paul wrote the following words of warning and admonition to the Christians of Galatia:

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:
 7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.
 8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
 9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

—Galatians 1:6-9

From this reading we know there were religious teachers in the first century who added to the gospel of Christ, who subtracted certain teachings, who changed others. The scourge of perverted gospels has persisted to our own age. Yet Jesus declares:

"Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted shall be rooted up" (Matthew 15:13).

And the closing sentences of the Bible warn:

"For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:
 "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book" (Revelation 22:18,19).

Medals For Khrushchev On His Birthday

Nikita Sports New Medal, Given Birthday Felicitations

MOSCOW (AP) — Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev celebrated his 70th birthday today with a new medal on his coat, Communist colleagues from at home and abroad gathered around and congratulations were pouring in.

The former shepherd boy from the Ukraine who governs the world's largest land mass smiled faintly at the Soviet people from the front pages of all newspapers, a picture of glowing health.

But Premier Khrushchev scheduled no personal appearances for the public.

SOVIET BLOC

At 9 a.m. Soviet government leaders began calling on him and his wife Nina to offer congratulations. Later, visiting leaders of Soviet bloc nations were to convey their greetings personally.

However, it was a quiet birthday for the man who attacked the personal adulation given Stalin—his 70th birthday party went on for months of praise—and reburied the dictator in an obscure grave. Khrushchev became a "Hero of the Soviet Union" by order of the presidium of the Supreme Soviet. In receiving the highest award of his nation, Khrushchev joined a company that includes cosmonauts and Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The decree cited Khrushchev's work "in building a Communist society, in strengthening the economic and defensive might of the Soviet Union, in developing fraternal friendship of the people of the U.S.S.R. in carrying out Leninist peaceful foreign policy and in recognition of his exceptional services in the struggle against Nazi invaders in the period of the great patriotic war."

Khrushchev's previous honors include three awards of Hero of Socialist Labor and a Lenin Peace Prize in 1959. He usually wears four medals on his civilian suit.

In a ceremony today in the Yekaterina Hall of the great Kremlin Palace, Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev presented Khrushchev the Order of Lenin and the Gold Star Medal in connection with his hero's award.

TWO GROUPS

The presidium of the Supreme Soviet joined with two groups that Khrushchev heads, the Communist Party Central Committee and the Council of Ministers, in a birthday message that occupied newspaper front pages. Communist leaders here for the birthday were Premier Todor Zhivkov of Bulgaria, President Antonin Novotny of Czechoslovakia, Party Secretary Walter Ulbricht of East Germany, Premier Janos Kadar of Hungary, Premier Yumzhagim Tsendenbal of Mongolia and Party Secretary Wladyslaw Gomulka of Poland.

Rocky's Liquor Reform Triumphs

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was back on the national political trails today after a victory in a special session of the legislature, which approved his controversial liquor reform program.

But he left behind persistent rumors that his success was due in part to a bargain with U.S. Rep. Charles A. Buckley, leader of the Bronx Democratic organization.

Some Bronx legislators voted for the bill, in opposition to most Democrats. This support was reported to have been given in exchange for Rockefeller's pledge to sign a bill that would permit candidates in a primary to be listed on the ballot in a state.

UNFAIR

Rockefeller told a news conference it was "unfair" to attribute such motives to the Bronx delegates.

Rockefeller, a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, said settlement of the dispute over liquor legislation had freed him to "concentrate more effectively on the national scene."

Within a few hours after the legislature adjourned, Rockefeller signed the bill and left by private plane to resume his campaign in Oregon's presidential preference primary.

While the bill did not go as far as Rockefeller wanted in creating a free retail liquor market, the governor said it embodied his basic objectives. He called the special session, which convened Wednesday, to force reconsideration of his liquor reform bill, rejected during the regular session.

The bill eliminates a state-supported system in which distillers have set retail liquor prices. It requires that prices to retailers be as low as those anywhere else in the nation. Retailers, however, are barred from selling below cost.

The vote on the compromise plan was 34-23 in the Senate and 80-63 in the Assembly.

Democrats provided the margin of victory. In the Senate, 29 Republicans and 5 Democrats voted for the bill, with 30 votes needed for passage. In the Assembly, the bill was supported by 73 Republicans and 7 Democrats, with 76 votes needed for passage.

Co-Op Slates Annual Meet

Members of the Big Spring Co-op Gin organization will hold their annual stockholders meeting April 24 at 6:30 p.m. in the Howard County Fair Grounds building. A barbecue dinner will be served to the stockholders and their guests.

The Big Spring Co-op dates back to 1929, and currently has 150 participating members. The co-op has two gins and in 1963 had a successful season. The gins handled more than 9,300 bales of cotton during the season.

Most of the stockholders, who attend the annual meeting, will be handed dividend checks, Ross Hill, president, announced. Hill has been president for a number of years. Walker Bailey is secretary.

An election of officers is one of the business matters to be handled.

The Big Spring co-op came into existence 35 years ago when a group of farmers each signed a note for $100 to finance the purchase of a gin already in operation.

In the years since that time, that gin has been many times improved and changed and the co-op has acquired a second gin. The two plants operated busily last fall.

Birth Control Is Inter-Faith Topic

MORELIA, Mexico — Protestant and Roman Catholic doctors and clergymen here have participated in an unprecedented symposium on birth control, at the invitation of the Michoacan Society of Gynecology and Obstetrics.

A Presbyterian U. S. missionary, Dr. J. Hervey Ross, director of the Sanatorio La Luz (Hospital of Light) here, was invited to be one of the Protestant representatives, discussing "Birth Control and Related Medical and Ethical Problems from the Religious Point of View."

A local Roman Catholic newspaper called the meeting "most praiseworthy," citing the attempt of "sincere believers of different confessions to share their beliefs," and the necessity of such orientation, "so that our doctors may always practice their professions in accordance with their own moral-religious precepts, and with those of their patients."

Motor Vehicle Registration is over and I will be using every moment I can to see each of you before election May 2.

Sincerely

should you pamper a Princess?

Depends on which princess—the teenager or the telephone. All teenage princesses—so we're told—glory in a little pampering.

But the Princess® telephone is so well made and trouble free that no pampering is required. Just dust it occasionally or wipe it with a damp cloth.

That, plus a little care in handling, is all the attention any phone needs. And phones almost never need repair—but if something does go on the blink, we'll fix it promptly at no extra charge.

We think it's our job to keep right on improving your telephone service and making it of greater personal value to you.

Finance Bids Termed Tops

BATON ROUGE (AP) — The Louisiana and Texas Sabine River Authorities accepted Thursday what was described as an "excellent" bid on $30 million in bonds to complete financing the Toledo Bend hydroelectric project.

The bid was submitted here and in Dallas by Kidder, Peabody and Co. of New York. It averaged a net 3.621 per cent.

Both authorities began procedures to award a construction contract on the project, at $22,112,906, to Massman Construction Co. of Kansas City, and Al Johnson of Minneapolis.

Each state authority had offered $15 million in bonds needed to complete the $60 million project on the Sabine River, a border for the two states.

Edward Wrightsman, financial advisor to the Louisiana Authority, estimated the bond offer would save the Louisiana Authority alone about $600,000 in interest rates.

Chairman Claude Kirkpatrick said his Louisiana group was "highly pleased" at the low bid.

DEAR ABBY

What's In A Name?

DEAR ABBY: The woman who was "DISGUSTED" because her son and his wife named their little boy "HARRY" after having named their first two boys "TOM" and "DICK" apparently, has never heard of the famous BYRD brothers of Virginia. TOM was a very successful fruit farmer and businessman who looked after his family's interests. "DICK" was none other than the famous explorer, ADMIRAL BYRD of South Pole fame. And "HARRY" has been a United States senator for many years. PROUD VIRGINIAN

DEAR ABBY: What's wrong with naming three sons TOM, DICK and HARRY? I named our first son Dick. The second boy I named after his father, whose name was Harry. Then everyone kept asking me, "Where's Tom?" So, when we had our third son, that settles it. There's Tom! I can't see where there was anything "disgraceful" about it. MRS. H. J. SKANEATELES, N. Y.

DEAR ABBY: If that grandma got all steamed up over her daughter-in-law naming her three sons, TOM, DICK and HARRY, I wonder what she would have thought of the woman in our town who named her three daughters FAITH, HOPE and CHARITY. MOLLY IN BALTIMORE.

DEAR ABBY: Speaking of inflicting peculiar names on helpless infants, my cousin in Birmingham named her daughters DAISY, PETUNIA, GLADIOLA and ZINNIA. The next time she expected a baby, she was all set to add another flower to her garden of girls, but the baby was a boy. It didn't stop her. She went ahead and named him IRIS. How do you like that? WILLIE IN MONTGOMERY.

DEAR WILLIE: The boy was lucky she didn't name him PANSY.

DEAR ABBY: I was interested in the mother's comment about her son naming his three

Reds Seeking To Form 'True-Blue' Communism

EDITOR'S NOTE — In desperation, the Communist party in the United States had to have a new look, something as American as Mom's blueberry pie. But even that didn't help as decline and disintegration increased, as told in this third of four articles on the party's troubles.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN, AP Special Correspondent

Upon the hammer and sickle symbol of violent revolution, Communists in the United States are trying to superimpose a picture of Mom's blueberry pie.

Grabbing for gimmicks in its struggle for political survival, the Communist Party U.S.A.—CPUSA—is trying to produce the respectable, true-blue, all-American Communist.

The party's fundering paper, now the twice-weekly Worker, tipped the Communist hand not long ago. It was discussing Soviet Premier Khrushchev's 1957 prediction that U.S. grandchildren would "live under socialism." Said the Worker, which once ridiculed capitalists for promising pie in the sky:

"Not the Russian socialism, of course, but something as American as Mom's blueberry pie."

SALES PITCH The picture of blueberry pies betokens a desperate search for a new sales pitch. The old cartoon image of the bomb-wielding, bewhiskered Communist would have to go if the party was to get anywhere in a nation with the world's highest living standard.

The party had not lacked for money in the old days. From what leaders hinted, money came from Moscow and there was other money from contributions, dues, businesses set up by the party and odd millionaires with odd predilections for the extreme left.

Battered by crises and Kremlin flipflops, the party came apart at the seams after Khrushchev in 1956 revealed the awful truth about Stalin.

QUARREL Inside the U.S. politburow, then under General Secretary Eugene Dennis, a bitter quarrel raged. Dogmatic old William Z. Foster wanted to throw out Worker editor John Gates as an "anti-Soviet revisionist." In the Worker, Gates had denounced the Soviet strangulation of the Hungarian revolt of 1956, another of the ruder shocks to the U.S. party's morale. Negro leader Benjamin Davis Jr. seemed all-out to boost himself against all comers.

In the end, Gates quit the party, as many had before him.

Gates had wanted the party to go American again — even to dropping the name "Communist" to indicate independence from Moscow control.

There had been many such protestations of independence before, but it had been all window-dressing. Gates, however, said he really meant it, that he could see no future in the party being a carbon copy of Moscow's.

OLD TIRED Gates might have won the inner party battle if he had wanted to fight it out. But suppose he won? What would he have gained? Control? Of what? There was little left to win — just a party of old, tired people with no place else to go.

Those who remained as leaders and "apparatchiks" pulled down salaries and settled into the life of revolutionary bureaucrats. In its own way, it wasn't too bad a life. Communist leaders would have a tough time

Local Youth Wins Rodeo Honors

HUNTSVILLE — The Sam Houston State Teachers College boy's rodeo team captured top team honors at their 14th Annual Intercollegiate Rodeo with 306½ points. The Pan American College girl's team took championship honors with 210 points.

Lois Daniels and Dick Deason, both of Pan American, were awarded the championship saddles for their performances at the three day show, April 9-11. John Young of Huntsville won second, with Phillip Jumper of Lufkin and Jim Whitefield of Big Spring splitting fourth and fifth in bareback riding.

making a living outside the party.

They went through the routine, ground out the leaflets, hoped for a change in the national climate which might improve their fortunes. But nothing short of the gravest of economic depressions would be likely to help them.

They had other worries, too. Small as it is, the U.S. party has a Chinese wing, like so many around the world in the backwash of the Soviet-Chinese quarrel. Peking floods New York and the West Coast with propaganda of all sorts, stripping Moscow, which provides little more these days than collections of Khrushchev speeches.

AILING MAN

What about those who quit? Earl Browder, deposed in 1945 for misreading Kremlin intentions, is an ailing man who will be 73 in May, living out his years, with bitter memories, at his Yonkers, N.Y., home. Gates works on research for the International Ladies Garment Workers Union in New York, the picture of a man completely cured of the Communist ailment.

Others have taken on research projects or various scholarly pursuits, apparently avoiding politics as the plague. Others are just unemployed, some living on the insurance

And Social Security they once derided as measures of "bourgeois reformism," theoretically wrong because they lulled revolutionary sentiments.

All face the problem of making a living. Jobs are hard to come by. Preoccupied with subsisting, they have little time for politics. Most seem to have had enough for one lifetime, are not even interested in organizing ex-Communists.

But there still is much to be wary of regarding the U.S. Communists.

Cyclone Deaths May Hit 2,000

DACCA, Pakistan (AP) — A cyclone in the Jessore District of East Pakistan last week-end hit with such "savage force that in some villages rescuers found no signs of life, "no bodies, no trees, no house," Gov. Nomen Khan said today.

Officially, 400 bodies have been counted and 700 persons have been listed as injured with 1,000 others missing. But unofficial estimates put the death toll at 2,000.

The expressions are tense on Clark Frayser (left) and Carl Davis, but laughs are more common in the play "George Washington Slept Here," which opens a two-night run tonight. ## House Dodges Strength Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee steered clear today of the Pentagon controversy over relative U.S. and Soviet military might as it recommended $46,785,867,000 in new funds for the Defense Department for the fiscal year starting July 1. This is $685,133,000 less than President Johnson requested but enough, the committee said in its report, "to continue the maintenance of the strongest military establishment in the peacetime history of the United States."

Trail Ride Set To Pecos

Between 25 and 50 riders from clubs in this area will join a trail ride to Pecos at 6 a.m. June 25. The Big Spring Sheriff's posse will have riders among the group. Mrs. L. R. Green of Sand Springs, who has been appointed publicity chairman for the Sheriff's posse, said the trail ride will end in Pecos July 1 for the annual Pecos Rodeo. "There will be riders from many far off places, including Wyoming and Colorado," Mrs. Green said. "Some from Texas points, including Fort Worth and Duncanville, will join about 250 in Andrews to make a ride from there to Pecos. We are trying to get enough interest to eventually make the ride from Big Spring to Pecos an annual event. This will be the third year. There were six in the ride the first time." The whole Green family of seven, including two-year-old Lea Ann, will begin the ride and all hope Lea Ann will make the whole trip on horseback. A part of the ride will be cross country and the remainder along the highway.

Damages Asked

A damage suit asking $58,000 has been filed in 118th District Court by Erma Toleno and her children against Matias Saldaña. The suit stems from a two-car collision at the north edge of the city on US 87, Dec. 21.

NAACP Predicts Summer Uproars

By The Associated Press
Massive racial demonstrations will break out in Texas this summer unless the pace of integration is stepped up, a high official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) predicts.

Clarence A. Laws of Dallas, regional secretary for the Southwest Division of the NAACP, said talks are already under way about the need for a demonstration in Dallas.

"In the next day or so, there will be literature distributed to the public in Dallas," he said. "It will ask the people if they think there should be a demonstration in Dallas."

He told The Associated Press in an interview that Dallas demonstrations are a certainty "unless this school situation is resolved."

Laws referred to vocational high schools in Dallas that teach some 70 skills and trades. The schools bar Negro applicants, he said.

"We hope something can be resolved without demonstrations," Laws added.

MOST PROGRESS
He said the NAACP feels that San Antonio and Corpus Christi have made the most progress in Texas in the area of school desegregation.

"East Texas is the worst in that regard. It seems to get better as you go west," he said.

Laws went to Austin last week to observe the "speak-in" at city council meetings. The move was designed to gain support for passage of an anti-discrimination ordinance. He said the "speak-in" was conducted under the auspices of the NAACP.

Laws cited three main areas that would spark summer demonstrations in Texas under present developments: School desegregation, opportunities for employment on a merit basis and public accommodations.

IN DALLAS
He said Negroes in Dallas alone are losing about $150 million annually because of bias in education, job training and employment.

"A loss of this magnitude affects not only the Negroes involved but the whole economy of the area," Laws said.

"It deprives the community of taxes, and requires that more money be spent for health and welfare purposes and crime. When a person is economically deprived of the basic necessities of life, he will steal to get them."

He said the NAACP is not satisfied with school desegregation in Texas.

ONLY 14,000
"Of the 300,000 Negro children in Texas public schools, only 14,000 go to desegregated facilities," Laws said.

He added that in Dallas alone, 5,000 more Negro youngsters attend segregated schools than did when the U.S. Supreme Court school integration decision was handed down in 1954.

Laws said that of the 31,000

Negro school children in Dallas, only 182 go to desegregated schools.

He said the NAACP was not pleased with the fact that there are only 20 Negro policemen on a force of 1,000 in Dallas, and no

Negro firemen. The Dallas regional NAACP office controls activities in Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

Laws said Oklahoma has shown the most racial progress of any southwestern state.

Billie Sol Gets 90 Days For Appeal

AUSTIN (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals gave Billie Sol Estes 90 days today to appeal an eight-year state prison sentence to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Wednesday, the court rejected the West Texas farm promoter's third appeal of a swindling conviction at Tyler.

Estes' lawyer, John Cofer, asked the court for a stay so he can ask the Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari staying the state sentence until the Supreme Court decides whether or not to review the case.

Cofer in his appeal to Texas' highest court for criminal cases asserted that Estes' constitutional rights were violated because parts of the trial in Tyler had been filmed for television and because pre-trial publicity

Rusk Forecasts Viet Nam Peace In Arrival Talk

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam "will have peace when Hanoi and Peking have been taught to leave their neighbors alone," U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk told a welcoming crowd of 600 at Saigon airport today.

"You and those of us who are at your side must defeat their effort to impose their own misery upon you," Rusk said. "That this will be done I have not the slightest doubt, and I am here to make clear once again that we shall help you do it."

Rusk's visit, first to South Viet Nam by an American secretary of state in office, brought Saigon the tightest security arrangements ever imposed for an official American visit. The capital's normally bustling main streets were deserted except for police spaced at close intervals as the motorcade swept through to the American Embassy.

During his two-day visit Rusk was to meet South Viet Nam's premier, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, confer with American officials and take a one-day field trip into the Mekong Delta for a look at the war against the Communist Viet Cong. He leaves for Washington Sunday.

Experts Study Church Plant Plans, Trends

DALLAS — The look and shape of the churches of tomorrow will be the business of the nation's biggest gathering of church-related architects, craftsmen, designers and building experts who met in annual session last week.

The occasion was the 25th National Conference on Church Architecture, jointly sponsored by the National Council of Church Building and Architecture, and by the Church Architectural Guild of America.

The most expensive church building is not necessarily the best, said Mr. Harold E. Wagener, Philadelphia, Pa. conference general chairman and nationally distinguished architect who is a leader of the Guild.

Designers had on exhibit examples of their work. Other exhibits included examples of craftsmanship in stained glass, textiles and church-related arts. Workshops dealt with every facet of church building from theological to financial considerations.

Candela, from his office in Mexico City, has turned out such a profusion and such a variety of shell concrete buildings that he has become internationally known not only as a specialist, but a virtuoso in the field.

Since his first, the Cosmic Ray Pavilion in University City in Mexico City in 1950, he has poured shells have been popping up all over the map as market places, as chapels and churches. The basic shell forms are only an inch or two thick, but they can be modified, tipped, inverted, and otherwise varied almost indefinitely.

One of his most exciting buildings is the Chapel in Lomas de Cuernavaca, done with Architect Guillermo Rosell. Time Magazine described it recently as "A pure hyperbolic paraboloid whose slender edges seem to float free and whose roof slopes from each end down to a skylight. Guarded by a tapering cross, it stands upon a lonely hill, surging toward the sky—a modern version of the mighty Gothic reach."

Fore Named
NEW YORK (AP)—The Rev. William F. Fore, a Methodist, has been named executive director of the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the National Council of Churches. He has been director of visual education for his own denomination since 1954.

FAMILY RELATIONS
The International Sunday School lesson for April 19 entitled, "The Christian Faces Family Tensions," discusses the reverence of a family to Christ in building a Christian home. Scripture for the lesson is Ephesians 5:21-6:4.

Paul, author of the Letter to the Ephesians, emphasizes the importance of the relationship of Christ to the Church as applied to the relationship of the family.

Also discussed in the lesson is the respect of children for their parents and the importance of the Church in a home. A reinterpretation of piety is derived from Paul's discussion of the family.

OTHER SPEAKERS
Another leading speaker this morning was Dr. Glenn C. Routt, associate professor of theology at TCU's Brite Divinity School, whose subject was "Reformation of Tradition: Whither Disciples?"

"Protestant Christianity has witnessed a theological renaissance," said Dr. Routt, "and the impact has subjected many who held to the early formulation of our traditions to unaccustomed stresses and strains. The result has been considerable discomfort and dislocation in the articulating joints of our social body."

Some elements of disciple tradition disturbed by the renaissance include a concept of the New Testament as the constitution of the church, the concept on Christian unity, its concept of a "professional ministry," the concept of the disciples' movement as a "denomination," its repudiation of creeds and devaluation of theology, and its concept of baptism.

Still Helping
FRAZEYSBURG, Ohio (AP)—The Rev. William Power has retired as a Methodist minister, but he's still busy helping people. He has the unpaid job of coordinating citizens' band radio calls for the Frazeysburg Fire Department in emergencies.

Ordination
LONDON (AP)—A Hungarian pastor, Jeno Weisz, who will serve in England in the Swedish Lutheran Church, was ordained by a German bishop with pastors of Estonian, Latvian, Finnish and American backgrounds participating.

Put Plants To Missions

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
LEEDS, England (AP)—Dr. Donald Coggan, archbishop of York, wants the Church of England to tear down some of its church buildings and use the money for missionary and welfare work at home and abroad.

Dr. Coggan said this could be done in many places, especially in some of the country villages where the churches are half empty because the bulk of the congregation has moved to the cities.

"It is wholly wrong," Dr. Coggan told a church congress here, "to spend money heating and maintaining up to five churches in village communities, half of which had moved away into the cities."

"The money should be spent on the evangelizing of England, or, more important, on the people overseas who are crying out for the gospel."

"I have noted that some villages have a parish priest and two or three churches, and a congregation only large enough to fill one of them. This represents a shameful waste of manpower and buildings."

"They should join together, pull down the buildings and move to the suburbs, sending the money saved to Africa, India and the Philippines."

Dr. Coggan also urged his Church to do more for the welfare of foreign students who come here to study at universities.

"Many of them come from Christian backgrounds and it is up to us to see that they do not go back, disillusioned and paginated by what they see in our cities and universities," he said.

"We should also guard these students and our own children from evil. Men and women of good will should protest to local bookshops against the sale of salacious literature. If the protests are ignored, these people should ban the shops."

Basic Greek Text Being Published
The Greek text adopted by the translators of "The New English Bible: New Testament" was published jointly Thursday by Oxford University Press and Cambridge University Press under the title, "The Greek New Testament." (460 pp. $4.50.)

The editor is R. V. G. Tasker, D.D., Professor Emeritus of New Testament Exegesis in the University of London. Dr. Tasker has also written an Introduction and has prepared footnotes to the text and an Appendix of "notes on variant readings."

Dr. Tasker's introduction notes that the Joint Committee responsible for "The New English Bible" stated that "the translation shall be based on the best ascertainable text (in the judgment of competent authorities) and where doubt exists, alternative renderings shall be appended."

When the work was finished, the translators said in their Introduction to "The New English Bible: New Testament." "The translators are well aware that their judgment is at best provisional, but they believe the text they have followed to be an improvement on that underlying the earlier translations. . . . In doing our work, we have constantly striven to follow our instructions and render the Greek, as we understood it, into the English of the present day, that is, into the natural vocabulary, constructions, and rhythms of contemporary speech."

More than 1,500,000 copies have been sold in this country, and more than 5,000,000 in all parts of the world. Work on translating the Old Testament and the Apocrypha has also been going on but will not be completed for several years.

Disciple Keynoter Pleads For Unity

HOUSTON—The future for the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) depends upon their positive answer to the question: "Is there anything about the Christian churches and their message that is really valid for the world we confront?"

Dr. Travis A. White of Wichita Falls told some 3,200 delegates and church leaders at the opening session of their 77th assembly in Music Hall here Thursday evening.

"Both the portrayal of the rightness which is ours and the wrongness born of our weakness is relevant to the life of every Christian here and every church in the association," said Dr. White, who is president of Midwestern University.

Internationally known ministers, educators, mission personnel and church leaders are in Houston's Music Hall to present sermons, Bible lectures and addresses before some 3,200 members of the Texas Association of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) in the group's annual assembly.

Besides Dr. Travis A. White, other leaders are: Dr. W. A. Welsh, president of the Disciples' International Convention, who addressed 350 Texas ministers at noon today; Dr. J. Daniel Joyce, dean of the graduate seminary of Phillips University, Enid, Okla.; Dr. Glenn C. Routt, associate professor of theology, Brite Divinity School, Fort Worth; Dr. Herndon Wagers of Perka School of Theology, SMU; Dallas; and Dr. Wayne H. Bell, minister, Vine Street Christian Church, Nashville.

Dr. White's theme was "What Is Right with the Christian Church Today?"

UNITED EFFORT
Dr. White told representatives of the largest religious body to originate in America, that the Christian Church "is right in its allegiance to the quest of our fathers for the unity of God's people . . . for only as the Christian front in a pagan world is closed in united effort can we hope to fulfill our Master's dream of a Kingdom of Righteousness."

"No longer can we, or any of the various 'brands' of the Christian faith, go it alone," he said.

Unity, according to the Disciple tradition, the speaker said, will be achieved through a "scholarly, rational approach to the Scriptures, seeking the spirit of Christ's will and purpose for us all," and through committing ourselves to the "true basis of Christian fellowship, which is love and not theological exactitude."

HITS CRITICISM
Some criticism has been aimed at state and national leaders in the matter of reorganization and Dr. White called attention to an anonymous pamphlet being circulated by an "independent" group in an attempt to "create fears and misgivings as we face the difficult task of meeting the challenge of a new era."

Disciples are now engaged in a "consultation on Church Union" with Methodists, Protestant Episcopal, United Presbyterian, Evangelical United Brethren and the United Church of Christ communities which would merge Christian Churches with these groups.

Dr. White stressed his belief that the Christian Church has been right in the "place and responsibility it has laid on the shoulders of Christian laymen."

Traditionally, this is the disciple doctrine of "priesthood of believers." In effect, the doctrine does not preclude a professionally-trained ministry, but it does state that the "lay" character of the movement "possesses no authoritative clerical or ecclesiastical power over the fathers for the unity of God's people . . . for only as the Chris-

Every gardener knows human ingenuity cannot be substituted for the miracle of growth. God's secret is God's!

But he knows, too, that wild growth means wilderness. Only cultivation makes a garden.

So he works with God. And the result is beauty, fruitfulness, abundance.

What the man with the green thumb practices in his back yard, the Church inspires across the whole expanse of human effort... the cultivation of souls... the realization of our spiritual potential. Working with God!

What do YOU think life is meant to be?

Wilderness? Or the Garden of God?

Join us at Church next Sunday!

Juniors Stage Meet Saturday

By PAT WASHBURN
The Memorial Stadium cinders will get one of their most thorough workouts of the year Saturday as 650 pairs of flying spikes will chew up the track in efforts to win medals in the fourth running of the Big Spring Optimist Junior Relays.

It promises to be one of the finest shows of its type in West Texas as 20 teams will vie for the ninth grade team trophy and 19 crews will be shooting for the hardware in the eighth grade bracket.

Preliminaries will start at 9 a. m. with the 70 yard hurdles being run in both age groups and finals are set for 1 p. m.

As the ninth grade pole vault will start the parade of winners to the stand to receive their medals. Entry to public is free.

Aside from the National Junior College Track and Field meet in May, Saturday's events promise more to track buffs than any other single cinder event to be held in Big Spring in 1964. It is called by coaches, "The finest meet of its type in West Texas." Only Midland puts on a show that approaches the local spectacle on the junior high level.

Records will probably drop in this year's running, with the ninth graders showing the most promise to set new standards.

The crop of boys should set new marks in the 660-yard run, the 440-yard and 1,320 yard relays, and the shot put. Local lads are given a chance to figure in only one of these record-shattering experiences as Runnels' James Carver and Gollad's Kirby Horton are both favorites to take the shot put.

In the 13 ninth grade events and 11 in the eighth grade, medals will go to the first, second and third place finishers in all events. Trophies will be awarded the winning and runner-up teams in each bracket, to the winning relay crews in the 440-yard event, and the winning 9th grade quartet in the 1,320-yard relay.

Midland will furnish seven squads of boys, Abilene five, three will be coming from San Angelo to match Big Spring's three, and Lamesa, Sweetwater, and Snyder will furnish one apiece. McCamey was originally slated to run in the ninth grade bracket but it will not be present since its district junior high meet is this weekend. Coahoma and Colorado City, scheduled for the eighth grade loop, will also be unable to attend.

Along with co-directors Jack Tayrien and Tommy Henry, other meet officials will be: Slim Broughton, honorary referee; Harold Bentley, starter and Oakie Hagood, assistant starter; Jim Marcus, head timer; Tom King, head finisher judge; Dan Bustamante, head field judge; Mac Robinson and Don Stevens, scorers; Carlos Humphreys, head of curve judges; and Gene Offield, head of lane assignments.

Blackshear of San Angelo will be the favorite in the ninth grade while Abilene Madison is the eighth grade pre-meet pick.

Local Boys To Watch

Holmberg Faces Emerson In River Oaks Tourney

HOUSTON (AP)—Ron Holmberg of New York carried the last hopes of the United States into the River Oaks Tennis Tournament today as he faced top-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia.
Holmberg and Emerson were to clash in one of the remaining quarter-final matches while Yugoslavia's Boro Javanovic meets Antonio Palafox of Mexico in the other.
Holmberg is the lone remaining U.S. representative in the tournament, which has not been won by a U.S. citizen since Barry MacKay won in 1960.
Third-seeded Rafael Osuna of Mexico and Nicola Pilic, another Yugoslavian, advanced to the semifinals Thursday with four set victories over their opponents.
Osuna defeated former champion Richardson of Dallas, the only other U.S. representative to reach the quarter-finals, 3-6, 6-7, 6-3, 7-5.

hander, defeated Spain's Jose Luis Arilla, 6-1, 6-4, 2-6, 6-2.
Pilic and Osuna will clash in one of the semifinals Saturday.
The Richardson-Osuna battle lasted two hours and 18 minutes.
Richardson, a 30-year old former Davis cupper, took a 3-1 lead in the first set and ran out the set from there.
Richardson jumped into a 4-2 second set lead but the 23-year old Osuna came back to break Richardson's service for the first time and the pattern of the match changed.
When Richardson doubled-faulted on set point in the 16th game he flung his racket high in the air in disgust.
"I'm good for about 2 1/2 sets," Richardson said afterwards.
"That's all my legs will stand."
Pilic used his serves and volley to advantage over Arilla on the fast clay courts. Arilla had upset second-seeded Chuck McKinley, world's top-ranked amateur, in second round action.

HC Tennis Split Tests

HCJC's girls' tennis team blanked Clarendon College in Western Conference play here Thursday but the local school's boys' team didn't fare so well. The boys representing the Big Spring school lost all three matches.

In girls' competition, Kay Butler turned back Karen Clements Clarendon, in No. One singles, 6-2, 6-1, and Karen Butler defeated Susan Cox, Clarendon, 6-0, 6-0, in No. Two singles.
In No. One doubles, HCJC's Butler twins defeated Clements and Cox by scores of 6-1, 6-1.
Elaine Patterson and JoAnn McWaters, HCJC, accepted a forfeit from Clarendon in what was to have been No. Two doubles play.

Here's the way the matches went in boys' play:
James Starkey, Clarendon, won over Tommy Miller, HCJC, in No. One singles, 6-1, 6-0.
Sammy Johnson, Clarendon, defeated Albert Pruitt, HCJC, in No. Two singles, 7-5, 6-8, 6-2.
Starkey and Johnson turned back Miller and LeRoy Walker, HCJC, in No. Two doubles, 6-3, 6-1.

The local netters go to Leveland Monday to close out play for the season against South Plains College representatives.

Lions Planning Links Tourney

Entries are being accepted for the annual Tri-Service Lions Club Golf tournament, which will be held at the Sunset Country Club in Odessa April 25-26.
The tournament raises funds for worthy causes. In the past, proceeds have gone into a fund for crippled children, the blind, the under-privileged and other worthwhile projects.
Those desiring to enter the championship flight may specify. Others can turn in their qualifying scores and will be bracketed in flights. Winner of the championship flight will be determined in 54 holes of medal play. Winners of all other flights will be decided through matched play.
Entry fee is $12. The price includes a free barbecue, which will be held at noon Saturday, April 25.

Entry List Will Close

Time is growing short for any local handballer who wishes to enter a tournament being sponsored by the Kill Shots, a Big Spring handball club that was recently organized. The entry list closes at 5 p. m. Saturday.

There will be three classes of competition, A, B and C, with the latter bracket slated for beginners. There are currently six players entered in the A group, five in both the B and C loops. An entry fee of $1 is being charged for members of the club and $1.50 for non-members, with the money slated to go for tournament expenses and trophies. There will be a consolation bracket for losers in the first round.

The first Kill - Shots tournament being sponsored in 1964, the favorites look like this: Class A, Pete Cook and Billy Cardwell with Tito Arencibia given an outside chance to upset either player; Class B, Alan Dunn; and Class C, John Ford and Conrad Alexander.

The tournament is expected to last approximately a week with spectators getting to watch the action free on the YMCA courts. Draws will decide opponents.

Anyone seeking further information on the tourney or wishing to enter should contact Billy Cardwell at the YMCA, AM 4-8821.

Warriors Drop Hawks, 105-95

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"We are not going to stop and play possession basketball," said Coach Alex Hannon as his San Francisco Warriors trailed 77-69.
And so the rags-to-riches National Basketball Association team didn't—it swept to 14 straight points on aggressive defense and racehorse offense, smothered St. Louis 105-95 and won the NBA's Western Division championship Thursday night.
Now the Warriors must face the Eastern Division champion Boston Celtics for the over-all NBA title in a best-of-seven series that could carry the basketball season into May.

The 14-point burst came right after a 21-6 St. Louis rally that seemingly had turned the seventh and final game of the series into a Hawks' picnic.

Hawks Only JC Team Entered At Dallas

Howard County Junior College will be the only juco competing in a track and field meet in Dallas Saturday, scheduled to be run at Jesuit High School.
Finals only are scheduled. The meet will not get under way until about 3 p. m.

Other teams entered in the division include freshmen units of ACC, Texas A&M, Baylor, SMU, TCU and possibly Texas. Coach L. L. (Red) Lewis isn't taking a complete team, since only eight events will be unreheeled. They are the 100, 440, high hurdles, sprint relay, mile relay, discus throw and shot put. A high school meet will be run in conjunction with the college division. The Hawks will be quartered at the Tower Motel during their stay in Dallas. The squad pulled out today for the meet site.

HCJC entries include Joe Draper and Bob Parker, hurdlers; A. J. Williams and Terry Williams, sprinters; Steve Langham and John Perry, quartermilers; Terry Strange, miler; Jim Napier, shot putter and discus thrower; and Bruce Targarden, relays entry.
The Jesuit school has a new-type track. For that reason, Lewis expects his Jayhawks to prosper in most of the events.
The meet will be the last for HCJC prior to the Western Conference show at Amarillo next weekend. The locals have only three more meets—between now and the big National Juco cinder show, which will be held here May 15-16.

Steers, Permian Clash Saturday

Stymied by stout pitching to date, the Big Spring Steers invade Odessa Saturday to meet the Permian Panthers in a District 2-AAAA baseball encounter. Game time is 2 p. m.

The Longhorns—now boast a 1-2 record in league play. In both their losses, the Longhorns have been victimized by one-hit pitching. Bobby Weber set them down with a single safety in their game with Midland Lee. They lost that one, 3-0. Earlier this week in Abilene, Bobby Avery limited the locals to a solitary blow to lead his team to a 2-0 success.

In the one game they've won district play began, the Longhorns went three extra innings to knock off Odessa High, 6-2—behind fine hurling of Charles Burdett and Gary Mears.

Permian was the pre-conference favorite to win the championship but has fallen upon evil days. The Panthers are also 1-2 in district play. They knocked off Abilene High handily in their opening test, then lost successive decisions to San Angelo and Midland.
Burdett likely will be the starting hurler for Big Spring Saturday. Other starters will probably be Charley West behind the plate, Eddie Thomas at first base, Jim Hamilton at second, Baxter Moore at shortstop, Howard Bain at third, Robert Goodlett in left field, Van Tom Whatley in center and David Agee in right.

Very likely, Pat Brown will be the starting hurler for the Permian team.

Maxwell One Shot Back At Houtson

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON (AP) — Bob Rosburg said two years ago he never would play in Houston again but he started the second round of the $50,000 Houston Golf Classic today with a one-stroke lead.

After posting a four-under-par 67 first round Rosburg, with a sheepish grin, said he was a bit mad at Houston two years ago when the crowd applauded after he missed a short putt and then booed as he walked off the 18th green.

PAT WASHBURN'S

The Roundtable

Boxer STORMY WINTERS when asked by a sports writer why he liked to fight:

"You evah po'ed hot tar on a summer day in Macon, Gawgia? You po'in on a slanty roof, ain't possible to po' but about five hours because the tar gets soft you slide off the roof. On a flat roof you kin po' fo' eight hours. Ain't nothing worse than that. That's why I'm a fighter."

TONY LEMA

Outfielder CARROLL HARDY who plays for the Houston Colts Oklahoma City farm club in the Pacific Coast League:

"The day of the minor leaguer, of the fellow who played baseball because he loved it, is gone forever. Now you either make it to the majors in two years, or you quit."

"Whenever a choice has to be made they send the older guy out and keep the kid. It used to be the other way around."

Professional golfer TONY LEMA:

"The difference between the Masters and U.S. Open is the difference between fun and fear. At Augusta you are playing aggressively to try to wrench a few birdies out of the golf course. The Open is played on a different course each year, but they all have shocking similarities. The greens are slick and fast, the sand traps are as deep as bomb craters, the fairways are so narrow you could use them to conduct a sobriety test and the rough alongside each fairway and around each green is jungle-deep. In the Open you must play defensively for pars in order to protect yourself from disaster. Let's face it. Most of us go into the Open just plain scared, scared by the thoughts of the prestige, the money and ego satisfaction at stake and scared by the course."

"The tension shows in a shortness of breath, a lack of appetite, restless nights and an overpowering desire to drink yourself to sleep in the evening. You can tell that the Open is coming up by the way the players start to joke about it. Their laughter rings with false bravado. When they play their practice rounds they moan and groan about how difficult the course is. Everyone seems to expect a terrible round or two and tries to prepare himself for it. Nerves are shot. The clock worries, for example, get even worse. These are players who live in fear that a motel operator won't wake them up, and they will be disqualified for missing their tee-off time. Sound strange? It is, but guys lose sleep all year long thinking about it."

"And vitamin sales soar. Just about everyone on the tour is a vitamin-pill bug. We gobble them like turkeys turned loose in a corn-bin. Half the time we don't even know what kind of vitamins we are swallowing, but we have complete faith that it will balance our diets, keep our hair from falling out, make us feel fit all day and add 10 yards to our tee shots. Especially at Open time."

DOC HAYES, SMU basketball coach, talking about the rule that makes coaches remain seated during a game:

"If you've got 10,000 people seated in an arena and everybody's standing up and hollering and you expect the coaches and players to be quiet and relaxed, you're going to have to give them a sedative. Then the coach probably will be fired at the end of the season and players cut off their scholarships."

MICKEY HERSKOWITZ, Houston sports writer, on how to please University of Texas faculty members who resent football coach Darrell Royal's new title of "professor":

"As soon as a Texas professor comes up with a department that's best in the country, give him the title of 'coach.'"

Texas Little League May Get A New Lease On Life

The Texas Little League, thought to have gone down for the third time some time ago, has had a life vest thrown to it.

Whether it can be reeled in and salvaged will be determined at a 7:30 o'clock meeting this evening in the Gomez Hall on NW 4th Stret.

The Optimist Club has offered to take the lead in salvaging operations. If the proper adult leadership can be found on the north side, base of the league's operations, the league will go.

The league actually is Big Spring's oldest Little League operation. From it evolved the other three circuits now in business here. For that reason, many patrons of Little League ball here would dislike the thought of seeing the league dissolve.

The Texas Little League caters principally to boys of Negro and Latin-American lineage. For that reason, adults of those races are needed to insure the league's operation.

Tonight's conclave will be open to anyone who cares to attend.

Track Meet Slated Today

CRANE—District 7-AA cinder crews flock into Crane today for the annual district meet, with the Fighting Bucks from Alpine and the Sonora Broncos overwhelming pre-meet favorites to battle it out for all the honors.

Other members of the loop who will be vying for the crown are Stanton, Crane, and McCamey.

Finals will start at 2 p.m. with the last event scheduled to begin at 4:15.

Vada Pinson Standout In Cincy's 5-2 Win

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cincinnati's fleet-footed Vada Pinson, who wound up in court last year for failing to speed, may have solved his problem.

Criticized last year for not capitalizing on his speed by bunting for base hits, Pinson Reds to hand the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers their quick April start without laying one down. Instead, he's been laying them up the middle for base hits.

Pinson lashed three singles Thursday night and along with rookie Chico Ruiz, who collected a single, double and triple, provided enough firepower for the Reds to hand the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers their quick April start without laying one down. Instead, he's been laying them up the middle for base hits.

Whether to bunt or not still is up to Pinson, but he may be able to solve some of his problems with a solid start. He's 4-for-8 now, quite an improvement over last season when he managed only 10 hits in 60 April at-bats and still finished with a .313 average.

While Pinson was collecting three hits, St. Louis' Curt Simmons allowed only three to the hard-hitting San Francisco Giants, starting off his 17th season with a 2-0 shutout. In the only other game scheduled, Milwaukee edged Houston 6-5 with Hank Aaron and Felipe Alou playing key roles.

The Reds' Ruiz-Pinson combine was too much for the Dodgers.

Yarborough Fires Back

By The Associated Press
U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough campaigned in Amarillo Thursday night and answered criticisms leveled earlier in the day by three of his opponents who spoke to an Amarillo Republican women's club.

The senator denied that President Johnson's "poverty package" was a "political package" designed to get votes but added "most good programs do gain votes." He said poverty possibly could not have been eradicated in the middle ages but it was feasible in a scientific age.

Republican Jack Cox said on the panel that the civil rights bill "marks the end of trial by jury" and makes the "attorney general a partner into every business in the United States."

BEEF IMPORTS
Another panel member seeking the repeal of the tariff on Robert Morris, criticized Yarborough's actions concerning beef imports. "If the amendment of Nebraska had been passed, dropping the level of beef imports to the 1958-1962 level, the cattle industry would not have been brought to its knees," Morris said.

Yarborough said he has "supported every measure before the Senate for the reduction of foreign beef imports."

George Bush, the third Republican on the panel, said conservatism is the real answer to the challenge of the 1970s. "The challenge cannot be met through deficit spending, a virtually free imports program and the addition of other huge government bureaus and give-away proposals," he said.

Earlier Thursday Yarborough got in a backstage squabble with another veteran legislator, U.S. Rep. Omar Burleson, before a Merkel meeting of the Taylor County Rural Electrification Association.

The dispute was about Burleson being replaced as the person to introduce Yarborough.

Gov. John Connally spoke at dedication ceremonies for Beaumont's new port and later threw out the Houston Colt opening game baseball. Connally told the Beaumont crowd there was much ahead for Texas if the state is to keep up with the population increase.

He mentioned excellence in education, a statewide water program, and favorable tax policies.

Connally's only Democratic opponent, Don Yarborough, asserted in Dallas the governor's organized support was "cracking at the seams."

"WISHY WASHY"
He said the governor had alienated the League of Women Voters, Latin Americans and many Negroes with his stand on the poll tax drive, a "wishy washy position on civil rights" and failure to support equal opportunities for women.

Gordon McLendon, Democratic candidate for the Senate, said he had no sympathy with minority groups which "attempt to use general rights, the rights granted all of us by the Constitution, as bootstraps to lift them selves to a position of special privilege, power and immunity." He spoke in Wichita Falls.

Jesse Owens, Democratic candidate for railroad commissioner, said he had made a swing of North Texas towns "calling to their attention the serious crisis in Texas' No. 1 industry — oil."

The incumbent commissioner, Jim Langdon, said he would endorse the Mobeetie Royalty Owners Association of Mobeetie.

Shed Excess Spread, State Patrol Told

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Georgia State Patrolmen, ordered to lose more than three-and-a-half tons in overweight, have been promised a reward that most women relish when they, too, go on a diet: New outfits.

In the troopers' case, they're getting new uniforms—but not until September, their deadline date for trimming down.

As an extra enticement, the troopers will get Sam Browne belts, which admittedly will look smarter on pouchless officers.

BY SEPTEMBER
The order went out last June to the 418 members of the State Patrol: Lose more than three-and-a-half tons by September of 1964. Three-hundred-and-one were overweight.

The results: More than two tons lost after 11 months of dieting.

The target: Another ton-and-a-half off by September. And the punishment if they don't lose? Disciplinary action.

"I issued the order," said Col. Lowell Conner, boss of the troopers, "and I expect it to be followed like any other order."

"I told them I didn't care how they lost, what diet they followed, just so they came within five pounds of what they ought to weigh."

One hefty officer quit just after the diet order was issued. He gave no excuse—but fellow officers said he would have had to lose between 50 and 60 pounds.

STOCKYARDS
"There's not a scale large enough to weigh me," another rotund officer complained. He was told, "We'll take you to the stockyards; the scales there are larger."

All officers are required to weigh in once a month and the results are tabbed at headquarters.

The heaviest officer weighed 280 pounds; he is down to 220 now.

Eighteen men were underweight—they've been ordered to gain.

Conner's weight loss: "I didn't need to lose," he said. "I was the right weight."

Need For Walking Blood Bank Here Is Proposed

A proposal that a walking blood bank is a need which could be met in this city by the volunteer efforts of men such as the Kiwanis Club membership was submitted to the group Thursday.

The speaker was Mrs. Ar Cunningham, with the volunteer program at the Veterans Administration Hospital. She noted the numerous occasions which arise when blood donors are needed to save the lives of sick people and suggested that a walking blood bank, with the VA laboratory acting as a center to determine blood types, would be a major contribution to the welfare of the patients in local hospitals.

She shared program time with Grover Shantyn, head of the VA hospital social service office. He discussed the problem of many patients in the hospital who are in need of friendship and visitors. Many patients, who are destined to remain in the hospital for long periods of time, have no relatives near by and no local friends. He suggested that a visit once a week, or for that matter, once a month by some volunteer who would serve as that patient's "friend" would make a major contribution toward the patient's better adjustment to his plight.

Thursday was the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club. No special program was offered at that time to mark the occasion, but it was announced by Ward Jackson, president, that a program is being prepared for the near future to commemorate the occasion. Nat Shick, the only charter member of the club still on its rolls, was not in attendance Thursday. John Coffee, another member of long tenure, has been assigned the responsibility of drafting the anniversary program.

County Okays Joint Effort

L. J. Davidson and Ray C. Nichols have been appointed as official representatives of the Howard County Commissioners Court in further conferences relative to the proposed Rehabilitation Center and County-City Health Unit building.

The commissioners formally approved the same resolution relative to this project as that passed by the Big Spring City Commission Tuesday night.

In this resolution the county and city accept the ultimate ownership of the facility to be provided by the Dora Roberts Foundation.

The county commissioners' action now clears the road for the next step in the program to provide the community with a specially designed building to serve jointly as a home for the rehabilitation center and the Health Unit.

Both agencies are now housed in rented quarters.
