

DEAR ABBY

New Pool Next Year!

DEAR ABBY: Four of us mothers in the neighborhood have a car pool. We alternate driving our children to school in the morning. One mother made all the children late five times last month. The late mother always has an excuse (small baby at home, she overslept, she forgot to set her alarm clock), but no excuse is acceptable at school and it goes against the children's records. Should we drop this mother from our car pool? I hate to cause hard feelings but I would just as soon drive the kiddies myself to be sure mine get there on time. How should this be handled?

ON TIME MOTHER: Since the school term is almost over, do not tell her you want to drop her from the car pool. Tell her you have the time, and do not mind driving the youngsters in her place. And next year, when you organize a car pool, include Mrs. Always-Late OUT!

DEAR ABBY: About three years ago someone asked you why a man who has a lady for a wife will pick up some tramp and treat her like a lady, but then he will turn around and

Dentist Tries Transplanting For Teeth

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — "Well, I had a youngster who was losing teeth, and another youngster who had too many teeth. I had to remove one for orthodontic reasons. It seemed a shame to just throw it out."

So, Dr. Ralph R. Mezrow, 43, a Philadelphia dentist, decided to plant the left-over tooth from one patient in the mouth of the other patient who needed it. The transplant worked.

That was five years ago. Since then Mezrow has planted another first tooth in the mouth of that first patient.

He and his associates at Philadelphia's Albert Einstein Medical Center have planted some 95 teeth—a total of about 70 patients. Only a few of the transplants have failed.

COME LOOSE

"The worst that can happen is that the tooth just comes loose. The funny thing is that if that happens, the people who had the transplant always want to try again," Mezrow says.

Three types of persons usually write, asking for transplants: Persons who were, through some quirk of nature, born without teeth and never had any; persons who lost teeth in auto accidents; and persons who can't tolerate dentures.

The technique still is considered experimental and there are many unanswered questions.

Mezrow carried on his transplant experiments for the first few years alone.

Last June, the National Institutes of Health supplied a grant of $61,280 to continue the studies. About half the transplants have been done in the past nine months.

REACTION

Science has found that the human body has a natural defense, called the immune reaction, with which the body rejects foreign substances. This reaction rejects healthy tissue used in a graft or transplant.

Certain specific materials low in blood vessels, such as bone and the cornea of the eye, seem to arouse little reaction and have been successfully transplanted for years.

Along with his transplants Mezrow has performed a few "autografts", transplanting a tooth to a new location in the same mouth. This eliminates any immune reaction. In both cases the transplants have been generally successful.

FEW PROBLEMS

For the patient, a transplant presents few problems. It is performed under local anesthesia; it usually takes about 45 minutes; and the patient usually can go about his normal activities the next day.

Donor teeth are stored in a cool saline solution, for up to a month, until needed. After anesthetic, the dentist opens the gum. Then he fits the tooth into the empty socket, shaping the socket with a drill until the tooth fits snugly.

The tooth is inserted and the gum is sewn together. Sometimes a plastic splint is added, which braces the new tooth for several weeks.

All-White Presbyteries Told To Take In Negroes

MONTREAT, N.C. (AP) — Southern Presbyterians have begun implementing a stronger civil rights policy by ordering all-white presbyteries in seven Southern states to absorb three all-Negro presbyteries.

A proposal to withdraw from the National Council of Churches, which plans to train youths for civil rights work in the Mississippi Delta this summer, was defeated by the denomination's 104th General Assembly.

Conservative ministers protested Monday's order by the assembly to integrate Negro and white presbyteries, or judicial districts.

The order affects presbyteries in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana. The area has 43 Negro churches with a membership of 2,560.

"This is the type of coercion that will put our churches in the area in a tailspin," said the Rev. John Miller of Jackson, Miss.

"It's been constitutional to have segregated presbyteries all these years," he said. "Why the push now?"

The Rev. Thomas Frye of Dallas, Tex., said, "We will be forcing some of our brethren out of the church."

The assembly defeated 276 to 136 a motion to request the integration rather than order it.

A stronger stand on race relations was adopted by the assembly Saturday.

The decision to remain in the national council was made over the protests of commissioners from presbyteries serving Mississippi and portions of Tennessee and Louisiana.

Yarborough Asks FBI 'Gift' Probe

By The Associated Press

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Democrat incumbent in a tight six-man race for the Senate, has asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to probe published statements accusing him of receiving $50,000 from Billie Sol Estes in 1960.

Yarborough said in San Antonio the charge was "an infamous lie" and said he "never received $50,000 as a gift from anyone ... I guess my largest campaign contribution was $10,000 back in the 1954 governor's race."

The senator would not say specifically whom he asked the FBI to investigate.

WELCOMED

Gordon McLendon, Yarborough's only Democratic opponent, said he welcomed the FBI probe—"I wish they had been consulted in the beginning."

Last Saturday in a statewide television program, McLendon introduced two men who said they saw Estes give Yarborough an envelope containing $50,000 in 1960.

Meanwhile, candidates are using statewide television programs and town-to-town stumping to reach voters before they go to the polls Saturday.

Both Democratic candidates for governor, Gov. John Connally and Don Yarborough, will have half-hour statewide television programs tonight.

Yarborough said Monday that Texans pay more for utility bills because this is the only state without a utilities regulatory agency.

TOURISTS

Connally told a Corpus Christi audience the new tourist development agency is "one of the soundest investments in the economic and recreational future of Texas."

Dr. Milton Davis, a Dallas physician, said he is the only one of the four Republican candidates for Senate who knows what Republican voters want. He said he will make the runoff, probably with Jack Cox, because he is the only candidate who can carry East Texas.

Two other GOP candidates, Cox and George Bush, called for strong support for Barry Goldwater in the statewide presidential poll on GOP ballots. The result will not be binding on the national convention. But both men said it will have a strong psychological effect on elections in other states.

RED CHINA

Robert Morris, Republican Senate hopeful, urged allowing Chiang Kai Shek to recapture the Chinese mainland before the 1970s, when the Chinese Communists are expected to become a nuclear power. He said the Free Chinese Army is ready to recapture the mainland and in doing so "it will solve not only the South Viet Nam crisis, but

BACKACHES GONE!!!!

By HALVARD T. HANSEN, D.C. Madame Chiang Kai-shek, first lady of Free China, used to fly 800 miles to take treatment from an American chiropractor. She had been injured in a car wreck and this was the nearest chiropractor. Think of this the next time you must travel a few blocks to visit your chiropractor.

Many car wreck victims are limping about half sick from organic complaints wondering why their health has been so poor lately. They can't connect ill health with accidents. Yet, we find in consultation they often seem to recall that it all began gradually sometime following an accident. Frequently the patient exclaims: "Sure! Why didn't I think of it before?"

It certainly follows that if you jar something out of place and create an interference in the vital line of communication from the brain to organ, then that organ will begin to

FORT WORTH (AP) — Adu Karemaa, 29, of Fort Worth was slightly injured when his plane crashed as he was coming in for a landing at Russell Field south of here Monday night.

The man works at physical labor and has had a number of strains from both occupation and automobile accidents. There had been a consistent back pain with ramifications into the leg. Examination disclosed the offending vertebrae and treatment corrected the condition. Now he is pain-free and worry-free from the constant aggravation of discomfort. No. 2544.

State Business Comes Before Re-Election, Says Governor

By The Associated Press

JACK BARBER

IOOF Holds Meet Here

Big Spring Lodge No. 117, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was host Sunday to 27 delegates at the Annual District Deputies Meet from as many out-of-town lodges.

The group had planned to welcome Jack Barber, grand master of Texas, but Barber was gravely injured in a car wreck en route to Big Spring. The delegates here were told that Barber's car was caught by a tornado near Hamilton and flipped upside down in a ditch.

Alvin Clepper, local lodge, was the official host for the conference. A special meeting of the Grand Lodge was convened as a part of the program to confer the Grand Lodge degrees on six candidates. All of these candidates were from out-of-town.

Past grand masters present included Leonard Miller, Midland; E. V. Riley, Brownfield and Raymond Gage, Circle Rock, Texas. Also present were S. M. Williams, Corsicana, secretary to the grand lodge and Mildred Taylor, Kermit, chairman of the Odd Fellow Youth Committee.

Tennessean Won't Run

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Sen. Herbert S. Walters, D-Tenn., announced Monday he will not be a candidate for the U.S. Senate in this year's elections.

Walters, appointed by Gov. Frank Clement to the seat of the late Estes Kefauver last August, told a news conference he had been urged by friends to run.

"I feel it is only right and fair to state I have decided I will not be a candidate in the coming Democratic primary," he said.

There has been considerable speculation that Clement, now in his third term as governor, will announce as a candidate and will receive Walters' backing.

Rep. Ross Bass of Pulaski, and Newport industrialist M. M. Bullard already have announced as candidates in the Democratic primary for the remaining two years of Walters' term.

A re-election campaign is important but the state's business comes first, says Gov. John Connally.

The 47-year-old, 6-foot former secretary of the Navy stopped in the midst of San Antonio's Battle of Flowers to express himself.

"I have duties to perform as governor of the state and I'm going to do them and then I'll campaign," he said as he gulped a cup of ice water.

There had been speculation about Connally's waiting until the last week to start a formal active political traveling campaign. A political opponent suggested Connally was overconfident and said the governor was trying to win re-election "by cutting a few ribbons and watching a few parades."

PASSING BAND

Connally raised his voice above the music of a passing band to answer.

"That is the most ridiculous, asinine statement for any politician to make," he told The Associated Press. "I have been trying to conduct the affairs of my office instead of making ridiculous charges like a self-serving politician. This state comes first with me."

He added that his health "is wonderful—I've been working 15 hours a day and feel good."

FAVORITE AIDE

Connally still favors his right arm as a result of the serious bullet wound received in the wrist at the same time President Kennedy was killed. Connally still shakes hands with his left hand but he can now sign documents with his right hand.

JOHN CONNALLY

Connally's political travels began only the weekend before the primary, a large and active staff headed by his brother, Merrill Connally, has been busy for some time. Mrs. Connally has made several speaking tours, talking mostly to women.

A number of billboards are posted throughout the state boosting Connally for re-election "for a greater Texas." Three mornings a week there has been a "Coffee With Connally" political show on a number of television stations.

SUCCESSES
In his first full length political speech over 21 TV stations, Connally listed his administration successes for the past 15 months.

"I have attempted to give leadership to a bold yet sensible program designed to achieve this end," he said. "The machinery of government often moves slowly. Sometimes it takes long years to enact a program—almost always two or more terms for a governor in office."

At the San Antonio parade, Connally was given a standing ovation by hundreds of spectators sitting on rickety temporary bleacher seats. A wave of cheering and applause followed him down the parade route.

His graying hair was flecked with bits of bright colored confetti as he waved his big white hat and said over and over: "Thank you, Thank you very much."

"You can see they don't like him here," an aide said facetiously.

The South holding in today's hand presented a series of pitfalls which snared several players who encountered it during a recent tournament.

The bidding presented in the diagram took place at one of the few tables where North and South succeeded in winding up with a plus score on the deal. South's opening demand bid of two spades certainly conforms to even the most orthodox requirements.

While a positive response by North would not be subject to criticism, he chose to play a waiting game until he had heard more from partner.

When South rebid three diamonds, North's hand acquired a definite slam luster. A raise to four or even five diamonds at this stage would hardly do justice to the holding, particularly in light of the original negative response of two no trump. In fact, some Norths chose to jump directly to six diamonds over South's rebid.

At one table, West failed to open a heart and declarer succeeded in taking all the tricks.

At the table under discussion, North resolved to investigate for the full potential of the combined holdings. Over three diamonds he made a temporizing bid of four clubs, intending to show the diamond support next. South returned to four spades, and now North could do no better than carry on to five diamonds, since he lacked a high heart honor.

Had South been able to control the suit, he would have been expected to proceed to slam. Inasmuch as the opposition usually cashed the first two heart tricks, an 11 trick contract proved to be the limit of the hand.

At one table, South chose somewhat unwisely to persist to five spades. [He was motivated by desire to obtain the higher score awarded to a major suit contract which is often of crucial significance in match-point play.] West opened the ace of hearts and, when he received an encouraging signal from partner, he continued with the queen and another heart. The ruff-and-sluff presented to South on the third round of the suit proved to be the kiss of death to the declarer for, whether he accepted the ruff in his own hand or in the dummy, a trump trick thereby became established for West.

U.S. Exporters Slip Since 1954

MEXICO CITY (AP) — U.S. exporters have been losing ground in Mexico since 1954, a report from the National Federation of Chambers of Commerce says.

The report points out that while in 1954 Mexico imported 80.49 per cent of its manufactured goods from U.S. sources, the figure declined to 68.26 in 1962 and last year plunged down further to 60 per cent.

A Federation spokesman said this has resulted from Mexico's efforts to diversify its foreign trade as well as from preferring other foreign export sources who offer better prices, fairer credit conditions and greater

Mrs. Homfeld To Hold Office

Mrs. Jerry Lee Homfeld of Big Spring was elected National Director for Texas by the Texas Association of Legal Secretaries, assembled at the Sands Motor Hotel in Midland for their ninth annual convention Friday through Sunday. The office involves representing the state at all meetings of the National Association of Legal Secretaries, and Mrs. Homfeld will attend the national convention in New York City in July, as well as all state assemblies during the year.

MRS. JERRY LEE HOFMELD

Mrs. Homfeld has been a legal secretary for the last ten years, and was a charter member and the first president of the Howard County Legal Secretaries Association. Her current employer is the law firm of Turpin, Smith, Dyer & Hardie, of Midland. Mrs. Homfeld's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burns, of 709 W. 13th Street, Big Spring.

Other members of the local chapters attending the state convention were Mrs. E. D. Sawyer, local president, Mrs. Joe Sharpnack, Mrs. Billy Flynn, Mrs. Bill Owen, Mrs. Camille Patterson, and associate members Jean Fannin and Sue Falkenberry. The convention meetings began Friday afternoon with a workshop on such topics as "Ways and Means Projects," and "Duties of Officers." The various subjects were presented by members of the Texas Association of Legal Secretaries from chapters across the state. A hospitality hour followed. General business of the state association was taken up at the assembly of delegates Saturday, and elections were held. Saturday evening's entertainment consisted of a barbecue and dance, with a special square dancing exhibition. An installation breakfast Sunday morning at which time the new state officers were installed, completed the convention activities. Mrs. Homfeld was presented with an orchid corsage by the local chapter prior to the installation. She attended the board meeting of new officers after the breakfast, where plans were made for the next state convention at Houston in 1965. Upcoming events planned by the local chapter include Legal Secretaries Week, May 2-9, to be climaxed by the annual Bosses' Night Banquet. A seminar is under consideration for later in the year.

Joint Party Is Given For Two Lockhart Boys

A joint birthday party was given today for Mike and Danny Lockhart by their mother, Mrs. Gene Lockhart, at their home, 1906 Owens. Danny is 11 and Mike is eight years of age. They were joined by 10 friends for the afternoon affair. A color theme of yellow and green was used throughout the party plans with a special cake, toy favors and gifts. Mrs. Lockhart was assisted by an aunt of the honored guests, Mrs. Jim Nelson, and by a great-aunt, Mrs. Allen McClinton. Special guests were the grandmothers, Mrs. E. R. Williamson of Big Spring and Mrs. Carl Lockhart of Luther, and a great-grandmother, Mrs. S. L. Lockhart.

Pre-Nuptial Shower Held

Miss Julie Annette Welch was honored at a pre-nuptial shower Thursday evening in the home of Miss Beverly Trapnell, 1502 Wood. Mrs. Joe Don Musgrove served at the guest register and Miss Mary Fields assisted at the refreshment table. It was covered in a white lace cloth over mint green and decorated with a centerpiece of white wedding bells grouped with white and pink flowers. Silver and crystal appointments were used. The wedding date of Miss Welch and Thomas J. Barger Jr. has been set for May 1.

Revealed By Number

CANNES, France—Mme. Solange Marais, dean of French Riviera fortune tellers, celebrated her 85th birthday by announcing that the lucky numbers people select for themselves are a sure indication of character. Movie star Jeanne Moreau, whose lucky number is 1, is thus bound to have a generous and friendly nature. Michele Morgan, whose favorite number is 2, is full of love and understanding, and her beauty doesn't fade. Yves Montand, who has a penchant for 3, has special appeal to the opposite sex, but adapts himself to embarrassing situations easily. Comedian Fernandel, who likes the number 4, has a fine sense of humor that wins him a vast public, but he loses some friends because he is tight with a franc. Jean Gabin, who gravitates towards number 5, has a sensitive and curious nature, never grows old, but his opinions do not jibe with those of the majority.

Toastmistress Clubs Name Council Heads

New officers were elected Saturday evening for Council 7 of Toastmistress, International, and were installed during a luncheon Sunday at Holiday Inn. Mrs. Frank Hoyt, ITC director, was the installing officer. To take office July 1 are chairman, Mrs. John Patterson of the Palo Duro Toastmistress Club in Amarillo; first vice chairman, Mrs. Arnold Schneeman of the San Angelo Toastmistress Club; second vice chairman, Mrs. C. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hamilton are both former H.C.J.C. students.

Sorority Officers Are Named

Final plans for the Founder's Day dinner and election of officers were highlights of the Monday night meeting of the Beta Omicron Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. The session was held in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Co. with Mrs. Eric Burns and Mrs. Bob Key as hostesses. Mrs. Clyde Angel will be the guest speaker at the Thursday evening dinner at Cosden Club at 7 p.m. when the chapter observes Founder's Day. The group plans to enter the chapter scrapbook in competition at the state convention in June to be held in Houston. A tea honoring Mrs. Douglas Haverlie will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Room of the First Federal Savings and Loan building. Mrs. Haverlie is the sister of Don Yarborough, candidate for governor of Texas.

Gifts of linens, pans, cutlery and other kitchen items were brought by the members to furnish the church kitchen. 'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

The dirty dust didn't faze the opening of the Little League season last night . . . at least in our section of the town. All the players, their parents, brothers and sisters came early and most stayed throughout the one major league game. And they seemed to enjoy the evening of being together again. The mothers draw closer during the season . . . that concession stand is a busy place and gets a little snug at times. But it does serve as a binding tie; one mother is just as tired as the other when the evening is over.

MRS. CUIN GRIGSBY is in Abilene for the remainder of the week to be with MR. and MRS. CUIN GRIGSBY JR. who have recently become parents of a son, GARY LAWSON. The child was born in Abilene on April 22, weighing 7 pounds, 11 ounces. He is the first Grigsby grandson and is also the grandson of MR. and MRS. MARVIN LAWSON of Odessa, former Big Spring residents. The Grigsbys Sr. have visited the youngster before but he paid little attention as he was only three hours old at the time.

Vicki Hanson asks bicycle inspector Floyd Dixon

Optimists Check Estimated 400 Bikes Here Monday

Bike Safety Week began Monday in Big Spring with 21 Optimist Club volunteer workers conducting safety inspections of bicycles at 12 local elementary schools.

The bicycles of some 300 to 400 youngsters were checked for safety against a 15-point list distributed by Optimists International. The maintenance check lists also contained pages outlining correct riding techniques, a 20-point safety code of cyclists and a description of the proper size bicycle for each child. Divided into five teams headed by team captains, the Optimist workers distributed the maintenance check lists to the young owners of the bicycles after checking the vehicles for safety.

A spokesman for the club said only about one bicycle in 10 was found to be unsafe for riding. "It is surprising what good shape most of the bicycles were in," he said.

Each year during Bike Safety

Week, the local Optimists sponsor the program. Concerning the purpose of Monday's inspections, one member said:

"If we can prevent one accident, we will have felt that the inspections were worthwhile."

Members of the various teams were: Team 1—Floyd Dixon, captain; Louis Jones, Dick Lindsley, Mel Korchenko and Paschal Odom; Team 2—Don Wiley, captain; Rendal Hamby, Bill Lovelace and Cecil Thixton; Team 3—Lannie Hamby, captain; Bill Phillips, Lorraine Sims and Van Perry; Team 4—Wayne Vaughn, captain; Jack Dumphy, Reg Hyer, Jack Kimble, Jack Parrott and J. A. Thigpen; and Team 5—Jack Price, captain; and Slim Broughton.

Team 1 conducted inspections at the Washington Place School and Team 2 worked at Park Hill School. Later in the day, both of these teams joined forces to conduct inspections at the Marcy School.

Team 3 took care of inspections at Cedar Crest and Airport Schools, and Team 4 handled safety inspections at College Heights, Bauer, Kate Morrison and Lakeview Schools. The bicycles of youngsters at the Boydston, Washington Annex and Kentwood Schools were inspected by Team 5.

Spokesmen for the Optimist Club said they were pleased with the response from the children and may recommend an earlier start next year to secure even greater participation.

"At this age, they (elementary school children) are beginning to become safety conscious," said one member.

Also during Bike Week, the club is sponsoring a lecture on bicycle safety. It will be given at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Texas Electric Company building on Fourth Street.

Hoffa Bows To Union Demand Over Payment Of Legal Fees

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa has backed off from a crackling Teamsters Union row over whether the union should continue paying his legal fees, stirring speculation he is losing his iron grip on the Teamsters.

Hoffa, never known for ducking scraps but now beset by troubles with the law, yielded to a demand by one of his vice presidents that the union stop paying the bills until it can be determined whether or not it is in violation of federal law.

Edward Bennett Williams, the Teamsters general counsel who has defended Hoffa in some of his legal battles, is reported to have ruled that the union will be breaking the law if it pays the fees.

ON TRIP

Hoffa, according to an aide, made his decision in Chicago where he is on trial on federal charges of misusing $20 million in union pension reserves.

"Mr. Hoffa wants to find out if such payments are legal," said Teamsters Vice President Harold J. Gibbons in St. Louis. "The decision will not be reversed until the legality is upheld by a nationally outstanding authority."

Gibbons, who resigned in December as Hoffa's executive assistant and closest aide, said,

"Mr. Hoffa made the decision in view of a request by Teamsters Vice President John J. O'Rourke of New York."

Gibbons denied reports that the funds had been cut off by the union's secretary-treasurer.

ISSUES SETTLED

"It was strictly Mr. Hoffa's decision, until the legal issues are settled," said Gibbons.

An attorney representing 12 members of Teamsters Local 107 in Philadelphia sent a letter which contended the union payment of Hoffa's legal fees is illegal, Gibbons explained, and copies went to all the union vice presidents.

"Teamsters vice presidents agreed Friday to hire an outstanding legal authority from outside the union to study the problem," he said. "Hoffa made his decision in a phone call to the vice presidents today."

Williams' opinion that it is illegal to use union funds to pay Hoffa's trial expenses had the potential of putting both the Teamsters strong man and the 15-member executive board on a financial spot.

Williams reportedly told executive board members they could be made personally responsible if they continue authorizing use of union funds for Hoffa's legal defense.

Further, Williams reportedly advised that Hoffa could be liable for personal income taxes on union money used to pay his trial costs estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Hoffa was said to be angry, emotional and upset about Williams' opinion, which informed sources say came as a bolt out of the blue and reversed an earlier opinion.

It appeared to be the second sharp blow in succession to the stocky union leader who until recently had weathered a sea of troubles in courts, in congressional hearings and in the labor movement.

CONVICTION

Last month Hoffa was set back by a federal jury tampering conviction in Chattanooga, Tenn., in which he was sentenced to eight years in prison. His legal expenses for appeal

Armed Forces Day Plans Discussed By Council

Plans for observance of Armed Forces Day at Webb Air Force Base were discussed at a meeting Monday of the Base-Community Council.

Actually, a two-day program of events starts the morning of May 8, when local officials will snip a ribbon to mark the opening of the newly widened and paved entrance to Webb. At noon there will be a luncheon at the Webb Officers Club, with Maj. Gen. Henry K. Mooney, deputy commander of the Air Training Command, as speaker. That evening, General Mooney will speak to Webb's graduating Class 64-G, at a dining-in.

A wing review honoring this class is scheduled Saturday morning, May 9, and the base will be open Saturday afternoon to the public. There will be special static displays, and a number of fly-overs are planned.

At the Monday session Webb Wing Commander, Col. A. F. Taute, was presented a plaque in recognition of the base's cooperation in the recent staging of the Go-Kart events.

Colonel Taute spoke to the Council, urging civilian cooperation in cutting down on accidents and "incidents" which might affect the community-base relationship. He suggested appointment of a sub-committee to help improve this particular area. It is important, he said, that the younger personnel at Webb — junior officers and airmen — be indoctrinated into community activities.

Colonel Taute spoke of difficulties occurring when the Air Base needs a cross-wind runway. He thought a program might be explored to see if the Howard County Airport's east-west runway could be lengthened and made available for emergency use. This would be a tremendous safety factor, he said.

U.S. Industry Going After Negro Grads

NEW YORK (AP)—Qualified Negro college graduates are being sought by industry this year as never before.

A survey indicates that unprecedented numbers of industrial recruiters have swarmed over campuses to hunt out, talk to and in many cases hire Negro graduates at top starting salaries.

The search for outstanding Negroes is a part of an all-out hunt for able June graduates, but many companies are showing an especial interest in the graduating Negro.

'DRESSING'
And, says Business Week magazine, which conducted the survey, there is a general feeling that industry really wants the Negro, that the recruiting rush isn't merely a desire to provide "window dressing."

One student was quoted as saying: "We believe the new jobs are for real, that this is not a fad. There is some uncertainty about the future, but the general belief is that more jobs are opening up."

Fisk University in Nashville has had to extend its normal recruiting sessions for at least another month. Howard University in Washington, D.C., turned away more recruiters this year than visited the college five years ago, and has logged 50 per cent more interviews than last year. In Texas, Prairie View College and Texas Southern University report a tenfold increase in visiting industrial recruiters over the past few years.

SCIENCES
The main targets of the recruiters are top Negro graduates majoring in science, bi-

The case, the first to be tried on this week's criminal docket in 118th District court, concluded at 5 p.m. The jury had deliberated less than half an hour in reaching its decision.

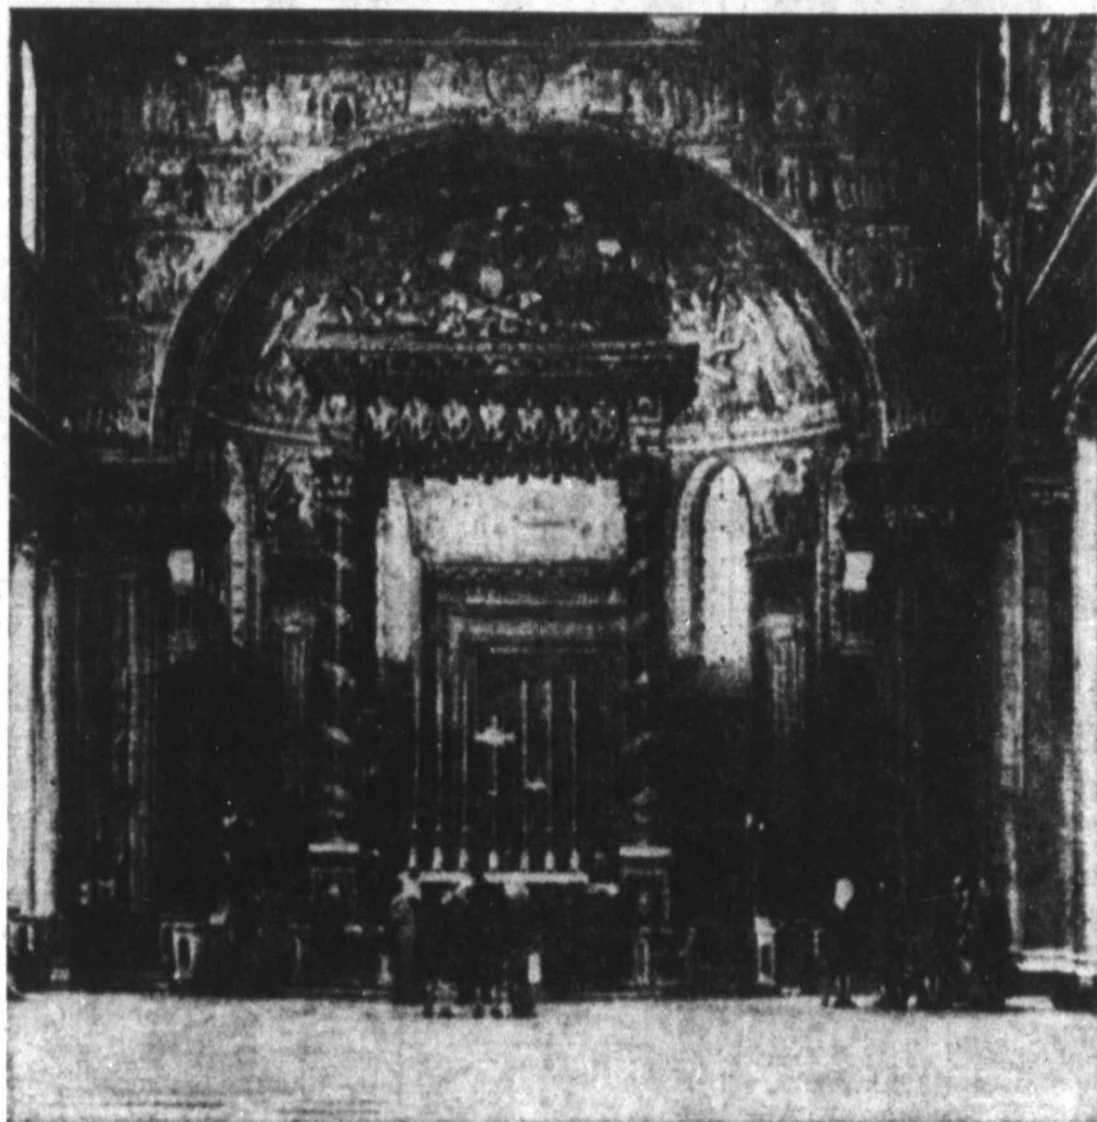

Barber was defended by Wayne Basden Gil Jones, district attorney, prosecuted the case.

The jurors were C. R. Smith, Marshall V. Day, Henry Duree, Morris Gay, Donald Lee Hush, Don W. Frazier, R. M. Gardner, M. N. Brown, Davida Neese, B. W. Walker, George B. Smith, and James H. Pollard.

Heavy Sand Storm Wipes Out Early Cotton Shoots

Sand, which swept through the county on the heels of a turbulent wind Monday and was still much in evidence Tuesday, probably has insured that the optimistic efforts of early planting cotton farmers have come to naught.

While not too much cotton had been planted — most farmers point out that it is still too early for widespread seeding — there had been a considerable number of growers who had already sown their fields.

Some of this cotton, according to Herb Helbig, county farm agent, had just begun to push through the topsoil. The tender shoots, the county agent said, were whipped down by the drifting sand grains or, in fields where the drift was heavy, probably buried. It is almost certain every farmer who had planted early will have to replant.

The dust out in the country, according to the highway patrol officers, was much more intense than in town. The wind was strong and added to the traffic problems.

Webb AFB reported that the wind Monday gusted at 38 knots and that visibility was reduced to two miles at times. Reports from other sources said that civilian pilots found the dust clouds as high as 20,000 feet above ground.

Six Poses Attend Rodeo

Six sheriff's posses have accepted invitations from the Howard County Rodeo Association to attend the opening day parade in Big Spring June 3, Charlie Creighton, president, said Monday. Invitations have been sent to all posses and mounted patrols in a wide area of Texas.

Invitations have also been sent to the Queens of the posses and patrols to take part in the parade and activities.

Plans are well under way for the rodeo, which will take four instead of three days this year, Creighton said.

Clem McSpadden, Chelsea, Okla., will again man the microphone for announcing the rodeo. The Oklahoma state senator has been announcing rodeos all over the United States for several years.

New this year will be a couple of clowns from Bakersfield, Calif. The Clark brothers, Gene and Bobby, will put on shows each night, including Brahma bull fighting, and the regular clowning acts.

Leon Adams, "Rodeo's Professional Showman," will also be in Big Spring this year with four outstanding acts, including trick riding on two trained Brahma bulls.

Skunks, Cattle On Blotter

Police were busy today investigating thefts and a variety of other complaints.

Someone took a radio, television set and record player from the David Rawls residence, 1710 W. 2nd, Sunday night.

A lawn chair valued at $10 was removed from the home of Mrs. G. A. Loffin, 907 E. 16th, Sunday or Monday, police reported.

Fishing equipment, including a knife and first aid kit, were taken from the front of the house at 909 NW 2nd about 6:30 p.m. Monday, according to police, who said the value of the property is about $15.

Animal warden Bob Baker took two skunks to the pound Monday. One of the animals was captured at 3313 Eleventh Place and the other one was taken from 2506 Lynn Drive.

Police were holding a 16-year-old Kerrville youth for his mother, after he was arrested at 3:30 p.m. in the 2400 block of Gregg on suspicion of being a runaway.

Harold McAlister, 2713 Ann, in the Kentwood Addition, told police cattle were in his yard about 11:30 p.m. Monday.

Pennsy Vote Seeks Boost Of Scranton

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Voters rate Gov. William W. Scranton's stature as a potential Republican presidential candidate in his home state and nominate one of three Democrats for the U.S. Senate in the Pennsylvania primary election today.

The primary ballot lists no presidential possibilities of any party, but Scranton backers, apparently acting on their own, are behind a drive to get an outpouring of write-in votes for the 46-year-old, first-term governor and former congressman. Scranton backers hope the write-ins will give him added lustre as a potential candidate and cause him to change his repeated stand that he is not a candidate for the nomination and would accept only a sincere and unengineered draft.

DELEGATES
Delegates to the national conventions also will be selected. Backers of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., said they hoped to pick 6 to 8 of the 54 convention delegates. Scranton has asked for an unpledged delegation, with himself as chairman in a favorite-son role. The 10 at-large delegates already selected have agreed to this.

Also at stake were nominations for 27 congressional seats, two judges of the state superior court, auditor general, treasurer, 209 state house seats, and 25 state senate seats.

There is a three-way fight for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate to face incumbent Republican Hugh Scott, who had only token opposition.

SUPREME COURT
The state Democratic organization backed Justice Michael A. Musmanno, 67, of the State Supreme Court. His main opponent is Genevieve Blatt, 56-year-old state secretary of internal affairs.

The third candidate is David B. Roberts, prothonotary (court clerk) of Allegheny County.

None of the Republican presidential hopefuls campaigned in Pennsylvania. Goldwater forces said anything less than 800,000 write-ins for Scranton should be regarded as a repudiation of him as a presidential candidate.

Tinny Love Affair

Because the metal watering can has a long neck, this gander is in love with it, apparently taking the device for a lady goose. The bird protests with a meaningful grab at owner Edwin Linquist's pants legs when he seeks to remove the can from the gander's area on a farm near Duluth, Minn. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Memorial Hosts Righters, Nazis

WASHINGTON (AP) — For nine days now — and no one knows for sure how long — theological students of the Protestant, Jewish and Roman Catholic faiths have been standing in a quiet vigil at the Lincoln Memorial.

They intend to stay, 24 hours a day, until the civil rights bill is passed by Congress.

It has been a chilly, wet and undramatic demonstration — three students on a shift grouped around a black-and-white sign across the circle from the long flights of steps leading to the statue of the Great Emancipator.

Monday night, however, a rival camp was set up barely 20 feet away.

NAZI PARTY
George Lincoln Rockwell, head of the American Nazi party, led a half dozen of his followers in to distribute leaflets against the civil rights bill. Briefly the two sides mingled, exchanging their literature, before police shooed off the Nazis who lacked a permit.

To present a rival vigil the Rockwell group left behind one of their party — a stiffly erect 19-year-old in a tan storm-trooper

Trustees To Call Election On Bond Issue

A meeting of the Big Spring school board of trustees has been called for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday to consider action on petitions calling for a school house bond election. Harold Talbot, president of the board, said the petitions are asking that the board consider calling the election for a $5½ million dollar bond issue, for additions to the high school and several other schools in the district, in a long-range program for meeting enrollment requirements and updating older buildings.

Several petitions have been circulated during the past few days, and interest of signers indicates that a sufficient number of property owners, who have rendered property for taxes, will have signed them before the meeting.

Supt. Sam Anderson said he will make every effort to have no other business for the board to consider at the April 29 meeting.

Filipino-Malaysia Split Diminishes

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—The Philippines and Malaysia moved one step closer Monday to ending their seven-month estrangement with an announcement here that consular relations will be established in a week's time.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said a note had been received from Manila, confirming final arrangements for setting up consular offices in each other's capitals.

He declined to elaborate, saying details would be made known in a formal communique to be released simultaneously in Manila and Kuala Lumpur.

The Philippines, because of a claim to what is now the Malaysian state of Sabah, joined Indonesia in opposing Malaysia when it was formed last September. Indonesia has branded this British-backed federation a neo-colonialist scheme which must be smashed.

Civil Disobeying Said Last Resort

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Civil disobedience can be justified as a civil rights technique only where "all remedies, within the structure of law and order, have been exhausted," Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike said. The bishop's statement made in a pastoral letter, said illegal acts are not justified "when the law is on the same side as the cause of the demonstrators."
