Lodge Write-In Showing Major Surprise In Vote

DALLAS (AP) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., has won re-election in the hottest campaign of the Texas primaries, Democratic or Republican. But Saturday's biggest surprise, perhaps, was the second-place finish in the GOP presidential preference poll of Henry Cabot Lodge.

WRITE-IN
The name of the ambassador to South Viet Nam was not on the ballot. With a write-in following, he beat out such contenders as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, and Harold E. Stassen, whose names appeared on the ballot.

Goldwater, whose name was on the ballot, got 99,143 votes. Lodge got fully one-tenth—11,222—on write-ins.

Sen. Yarborough, who received 56.95 per cent of the vote counted through Sunday, whipped what he called "the greatest electronic blitz" in political history.

It might have been, too. Multithour telecasts on statewide hookups were no novelty to the strenuous campaign mounted by his young opponent, radio executive Gordon McLendon of Dallas.

McLendon used television, radio and newspaper advertising in his ever-increasing campaign tempo until election day when he cancelled further appearances because of sheer physical exhaustion.

Gov. John Connally, former Navy secretary and assistant to President Johnson when he was in the House and Senate, had little trouble in beating Don Yarborough, Houston attorney.

Seven Primaries Booked Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seven primary elections Tuesday touch off one of the most active pre-convention weeks of the political season.

Voters in Indiana, Ohio, Oklahoma, Alabama, Florida, New Mexico and the District of Columbia and state conventions in Delaware, Michigan, Alaska, Nevada and Wyoming will:

- Express a preference for a presidential nominee.
- Choose 139 Republican and 292 Democratic delegates to their party nominating conventions.
- Nominate candidates for two governors' mansions, four Senate seats and 63 House seats.
- Decide other issues ranging from unpledged presidential electors to a right-to-work labor law.

ON INDIANA
Most of the attention will be on Indiana, where Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama makes another bid for Northern votes in his campaign against the Johnson administration's civil rights bill. He is opposed in the Democratic presidential preference primary by Indiana Gov. Matthew E. Welsh, a stand-in for President Johnson, and three other candidates. The winner can lay claim to 51 first-ballot votes.

On the Republican side Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is the odds-on favorite to top a field of four which includes Harold E. Stassen of Philadelphia and two lesser-known candidates. The winner gets Indiana's 32 first-ballot votes at the Republican National Convention.

Delegates to both conventions will be chosen next month.

Also at stake in Indiana are nominations for 11 House seats. Five incumbents have primary opposition, five don't. Rep. Donald C. Bruce is quitting to seek the Republican Senate nomination at the state convention next month.

TAFT'S SON
In other key elections Tuesday, Ohio's Rep. Robert Taft Jr., son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, seeks the Republican Senate nomination and former football coach Bud Wilkinson makes his political debut in Oklahoma's Senate Republican nomination race.

Rioting Erupts In Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—A threat to the Dominican Republic's seven-month-old ruling junta appears to be developing from a transport strike which touched off violence in the capital.

Military and civilian leaders held separate conferences examining the situation.

Police failed to halt demonstrations Sunday that accompanied the strike of taxi and bus drivers.

Unruly crowds burned tires, smashed bottles and dumped garbage in Santo Domingo streets.

The government declared the drivers' strike illegal, saying it was politically motivated and that the union had failed to give written notice stating the date and reasons for a strike.

Repeated government radio broadcasts warned the public that a 1962 decree of national emergency still was in effect.

The decree authorized deportation of any person endangering public order by agitation or subversion.

Military leaders ousted President Juan Bosch Sept. 25, accusing him of being soft toward the Communists. The military then relinquished control to a three-man civilian junta.

The present triumvirate — Donald Reid Cabral, Manuel Tavares Espalliat and Ramon Caeres Troncoso — is regarded as conservative and anti-Communist.

The transport workers struck in protest against three recent junta decrees.

These banned public meetings without authorization, increased duties on a wide range of imports, including automobiles and auto parts, and authorized the police to seize licenses of drivers involved in traffic violations.

U. S. Warship Moves Up River To Saigon

Rights Forces Claim Win Over Jury Trial Change

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, a leader of the Senate's civil rights forces, staked out a victory claim today over the Morton jury trial amendment.

Not only will the proposal backed by Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., be defeated, Kuchel said in an interview, but the Senate will turn its back on more drastic amendments proposed by Southern opponents of the civil rights bill.

Under the Morton proposal a defendant would have the right of a jury trial in any case of criminal contempt of court arising out of the antidiscrimination provisions of the legislation.

The Senate is expected to vote on this amendment Wednesday — the first real test of the measure since the bill reached the floor March 30.

As the Senate headed into its 47th day on civil rights, Kuchel offered another prediction: the jury trial amendment backed by the Senate leaders will pass.

Kuchel, the assistant Republican leader, has teamed with his Democratic counterpart, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, to shepherd the civil rights bill.

Their chiefs, Democrat Mike Mansfield of Montana and Republican Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, are backing an amendment that would provide jury trials in criminal contempt cases only if the penalty exceeded 30 days in jail or a $500 fine.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., derided this as an attempt to "put a price tag" on justice and a constitutional right. One of his Dixie lieutenants, Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., has offered an amendment that would assure jury trials in all criminal contempt cases under the bill except actions committed in the presence of a judge.

Louisiana's Sen. Russell B. Long said Sunday there "is a real prospect" the bill will be passed under a debate-limitation rule.

But, he said on the CBS radio-television program "Face the Nation": "The Southerners will fight as long and hard as they can. They will fight to the bitter end even if a gag rule is imposed."

On the other side of the civil rights fence, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., said he thinks the Senate will have to limit debate before the bill can be passed over Southern objections. He spoke on Metropolitan Broadcasting's televised "Opinion in the Capital."

While the Senate discusses civil rights, routine and minor legislation is scheduled in the House.

Display Of Force After Vessel Sunk

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. Destroyer Lyman K. Swenson arrived in Saigon today for what could be an American show of force following the sinking of the aircraft transport Card in the Saigon River.

A Navy spokesman said the Swenson was on a routine operational visit. Aboard was Capt. C. C. Hartigan Jr., commander of the 7th Fleet's Destroyer Squadron Nine.

The Swenson tied up within sight of the Card, which has been partially refloated since terrorists tore a 28-foot hole in its side with explosives before dawn Saturday.

Salvage workers were patching the hole preparatory to pumping out the vessel.

STILL TENSE
Saigon still was tense and on the alert Monday with patrols checking downtown traffic and troops swarming around the dock area.

No one was seriously injured aboard the Card but eight Americans and a Vietnamese were wounded when another terrorist tossed a hand grenade into their midst in Saigon Saturday night.

Four of the wounded said they wanted to get back to the battle zone as soon as they could.

"It's safer there than here in Saigon," said Lt. Hector Dittamo, 22, of West Paterson, N.J., with a wry smile.

INTO GROUP
U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had driven along the Saigon street Saturday night just 10 minutes before a Viet Cong terrorist on a bicycle lobbed the hand grenade into a group of American servicemen.

Pfc. Joseph G. Gustafson, 25, of Bayfield, Wis., said he saw the grenade rolling at them.

"I hollered 'Watch it' and started to run. There was a tremendous bang. I kept running. I didn't realize I'd been hit until I looked down and there was blood all over me."

"It exploded two feet away from me. I guess it's a miracle I'm still alive," said Spec. 4 John Arnett, 19, of Louisville, Ky.

ON GROUND
Staff Sgt. Ireneo Mayo of the Philippines said he had just crossed the street and had stopped to light a cigarette when, "Boom, the first thing I knew I was on the ground."

The four men are attached to a helicopter company at Soc Trang in the Communist-infested Mekong delta. They were on their first weekend leave in Saigon.

In all, eight Americans were wounded in the terrorist attack.

The four still hospitalized suffered multiple shrapnel wounds but were reported in good condition.

REMOVAL
During debate Saturday the Rev. G. Ross Freeman of Atlanta, Ga., moved for removal of the paragraph referring to obedience to God's authority rather than man's.

"It would be tragic for the news to go from this place that the Methodist Church endorses civil disobedience and, therefore, anarchy," the Rev. Freeman said.

Debate on the report followed an all-night vigil by Methodists from many parts of the country who came to Pittsburgh to protest what they said was a weak effort by the conference to end segregation in the church.

After the vigil, in two downtown churches, and a kneel-in at the city's modernistic Civic Arena, where the conference is in session, some delegates vowed to try and force a new vote on a plan to merge the church's Negro jurisdiction with its white conferences.

The demonstrators had been protesting the plan, saying it failed to provide speedy action.

'CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE'

Methodist Controversy On Civil Rights Rages

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Controversy over the race question continued on and off the floor today at the 1964 General Conference of the Methodist Church.

In the forefront was a report which endorses civil disobedience within "most carefully circumscribed limits." The report, "Christian Social Concerns," is scheduled for debate tonight.

Integrationist forces moved behind the scenes to bring back to the floor a plan which calls for integration within the church on a voluntary and gradual basis. Integrationists want the plan strengthened.

The "Christian Social Concerns" report was presented over the weekend by the Rev. Harold A. Bosley, pastor of Christ Church, Methodist, New York.

LEGAL DILEMMA
Part of the report said: "Christians have long recognized that after exhausting every reasonable legal means for redress of grievances, the individual is faced with the moral and legal dilemma of whether or not his peculiar circumstances require obedience to God rather than men."

The report contended that individuals must make such judgment in certain instances in the current struggle for racial justice.

It continued: "In rare instances where legal recourse is unavailable for redress of grievances from law which are clearly unjust or immoral, the individual is justified in obeying God's authority rather than man's. Even then, meticulous care must be taken to prevent proliferation of civil disobedience beyond most carefully circumscribed limits."

LBJ Pledges To Complete Tariff Negotiation Round

GENEVA (AP) — President Johnson pledged United States help to bring the Kennedy round of tariff negotiations "to a happy and fruitful conclusion."

Former Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, the President's chief trade negotiator, delivered Johnson's message to the formal opening session today of the Kennedy round.

The session marked the beginning of a marathon tariff-cutting effort by the 75 members of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade — GATT — expected to continue for at least two years.

"Upon the opening of this meeting of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, an important and effective instrument for the expansion of world trade, I should like to send you the best wishes for success from the people of the United States," Johnson said.

"Your meetings, universally known as the Kennedy round, exemplify the hope and commitment of our late president to bring together the nations of the world in peaceful pursuits. I believe, as he did, in the necessity of success in your work.

"We in the United States look upon these negotiations as an important opening to a better world. If we act together with dedication of purpose, all can gain and none need lose. Not only the major commercial nations, but all the countries of this shrinking world—poor and rich alike—have the right to expect success from our endeavors."

"For the United States, I can assure you that we shall spare no effort in seeking to help bring this meeting, and the meetings which will follow, to a happy and fruitful conclusion."

Hard bargaining on tariff cuts cannot begin before Sept. 10, authoritative sources said. That is the date when 75 of the nations have tentatively agreed to submit their lists of exceptions—goods and products which they refuse to submit to blanket tariff cuts.

Herter's U.S. delegation has congressional authorization to seek across-the-board tariff cuts of 50 per cent.

Cuba Flight Issue Eases

WASHINGTON (AP)—The belief is current here that the Soviet Union may have pulled its ground-to-air rockets from Cuba, depriving Fidel Castro of the means to blast American planes from the skies over his island.

If true, there is less likelihood that the fiery dispute over surveillance flights will erupt in a clash of arms. A Soviet rocket withdrawal would go a long way toward explaining the Red prime minister's May Day assertion that Cuba is alone in her dispute with the United States.

Castro has conceded that his armed forces cannot shoot down the high-flying American planes without the Soviet rockets. Thus, when he said on May Day that "we will prevent these flights to the limits of what our weapons can do," he may have—in a veiled way—been revealing a new weapons limitation.

The Soviet rockets are a remnant of the 1962 arms and manpower buildup which reached crisis proportions when detected by U.S. intelligence. Soon after a showdown that October, the Russians pulled out their intermediate range ballistic missiles and began reducing their armed forces.

No End Seen For Chester

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — For five months Negroes in this industrial city have demonstrated in the streets, protesting that their children attend segregated and unequal schools.

Dozens have been hurt, many heads bloodied, hundreds more jailed.

The end is not in sight.

"Chester is the Birmingham of the North," says James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality.

"When they block the streets, when they riot instead of march, when they break the law," says Mayor James T. Gorbey, a 43-year-old lawyer who took office in the midst of the turmoil.

"The law is the same for everybody, and will be administered for everybody," he says.

Chester, chartered in 1701 by William Penn, is the oldest city in Pennsylvania. It has 63,000 residents, including 27,000 Negroes.

MASON-DIXON

It is 15 miles south of Philadelphia, and a few miles north of the Mason-Dixon line.

Demonstrators in Chester also are demanding better jobs and more housing, better housing and more jobs. But it's the noisy, fist-swinging, rock-throwing battle to integrate all the schools—a civil rights issue that faces many other Northern cities—that has filled the jails.

This is the question: "Is a neighborhood school a segregated school?"

Negroes say de facto segregation is segregation by design; that it means inferior, unequal education. They demand an immediate end to all-Negro schools—four of the 16 here.

The school board insists it operates an integrated system. It says any segregation is unintentional, and results because children of one race live in the same neighborhood and go to the same school.

NEGRO MEMBER

Frances P. Donahoo, president of the school board, which has one Negro member, says, "To talk about de facto segregation is not to talk about segregation, but about a condition over which we have no control."

She insists that the Negro leadership really wants bussing which cannot be done without the consent of parents — and white parents are staunchly opposed.

Stanley Branche, 30-year-old chairman of the Committee for Freedom Now, says he isn't advocating bussing, the transfer of pupils to create a racial balance in all schools.

"But we want the school board to do something and do it now," he adds.

FROM BOARD

What does he suggest? "Nothing," Branche replies calmly. "The program must come from the board. We'll sit down with them. We'll talk with them. I met three times with them, but they won't budge. They just won't budge."

Charles Long, superintendent of schools, says, "We definitely are integrated. Every school in our system has Negro children."

"Token, token, token," shouts Branche. "What are 10 or 20 or 30 out of 500 or more. That's not equal."

Long acknowledges that four schools are all-Negro and a fifth has 10 whites among 1,000 pupils. The schools have 11,150 pupils, of whom 6,725 are Negro.

Philip Savage, tri-state secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, sometimes has worked with Branche, sometimes ignored him—and sometimes been ignored. He is considered more moderate but, like Branche, was arrested for demonstrating.

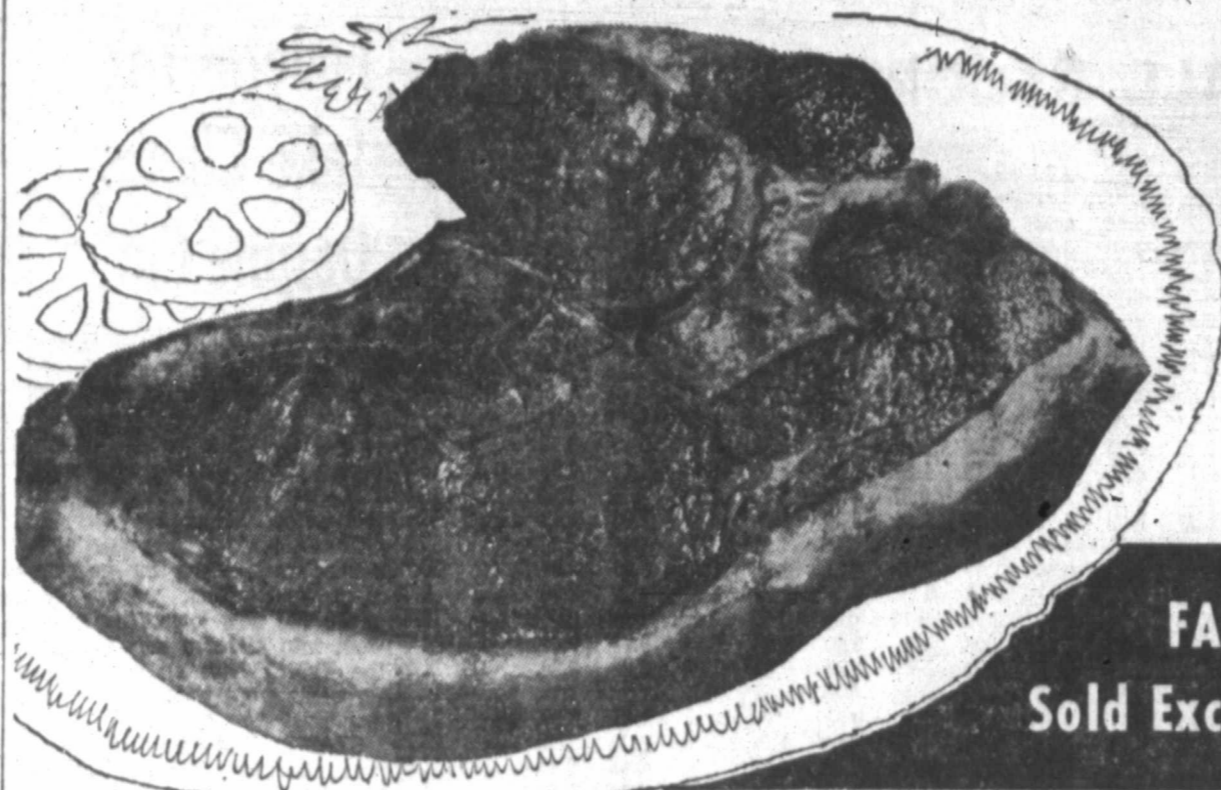

Savage looks favorably to efforts of the State Human Relations Commission, or the courts, to settle the dispute.

Dates Predicted For El Chamizal

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Unofficial but well informed sources predict the U.S. government will probably return the zone of El Chamizal to Mexico either Sept. 27 or Oct. 12.

The informants said preparations for the return of the borderline strip adjoining the City of El Paso, Tex., are well underway now, and "that only a few minor details" are still to be solved before the actual ceremony takes place.

The occasion will also serve to mark a second personal interview between President Lyndon B. Johnson and Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos, who leaves office Nov. 30, after completing his six-year term.

Fresh Nashville Protests Slated

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Civil rights groups, spurred on by a solid week of racial demonstrations—some violent—and a pep talk by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., pledged to be out in force again today.

A prime target will be Morrison's Cafeteria, part of a Southern chain and one of Nashville's few remaining segregated eating places. Racial demonstrators, including a number of white persons, picketed the cafeteria almost daily last week. About 100 persons were arrested, during the demonstrations.

About 70 predominantly Negro pickets showed up at Morrison's Sunday and staged orderly protests of the restaurant's segregation policy.

Inside the cafeteria, a new form of protest, the "sip-in" was born. About 200 white persons, mostly college students and faculty members, filled tables during the dinner hour and purchased only coffee or tea which they sipped for an hour or more.

"Now is the time to make

CORE Plans Own Delegates

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Congress of Racial Equality, at a meeting of its National Action Council here, said it would stage nonviolent demonstrations in Washington to urge support for the civil rights bill and would send its own delegates to both the Republican and Democratic national conventions.

James Farmer, national director of CORE, told a news conference Sunday the civil rights organization would attempt to oust delegates from Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama at the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City Aug. 24 and replace them with its own delegates.

Farmer said CORE planned to hold rallies at the conventions of both parties, with mass picketing to dramatize its demands. The Republican convention is being held in San Francisco July 13.

Farmer said one of the civil rights demands at the Democratic convention would be fair and full employment with a minimum $2 wage and a massive works and training program for the jobless.

At the Republican convention, he said, CORE would call for the repudiation of the "traditional alliance with 'Dixiecrats' on civil rights."

Picketing Of GM Planned

DETROIT (AP)—Civil rights demonstrators, protesting what one leader termed a lily white personnel policy by General Motors Corp., planned to picket GM national headquarters in midtown Detroit from noon to 6 p.m. today.

General Motors has denied it discriminates and has cited employment of nonwhites in practically every echelon of the world's largest corporation.

Arthur Johnson, spokesman for the Detroit chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the demonstration would be "part of a national effort to get GM to change its employment practices."

Herbert Hill, national labor secretary of the NAACP contends that "General Motors is lily white" from supervisory personnel up. GM says this isn't so; that it employs Negroes in supervisory, engineering and other positions.

Church Mixing Not Successful

MEMPHIS (AP)—A Presbyterian minister joined a group of white and Negro students in an unsuccessful attempt to integrate Second Presbyterian Church Sunday.

Dr. Carl Pritchett of Bethesda, Md., and a small group of college students left quietly after reading a statement and being turned back by ushers.

Pritchett led the unsuccessful opposition at the recent General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. (southern) against selection of Second Presbyterian as the site of next year's General Assembly.

1,000 Said Dead In Escape Tries

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—About 14,000 Cubans have fled Fidel Castro's Communist regime in small boats and 1,000 others who took this risky escape route died in the attempt, the Cuban Human Rights Commission says.

Miguel A. Olba Benito, secretary of the commission, told the Cuban Lions Club in exile Sunday that 10,000 refugees have reached freedom since 1962.

20,000 Mexico Workers Depart

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Twenty thousand Mexican migratory workers were reported officially to have left for jobs on the U.S. side of the Rio Grande during April.

Most of them left through the Empalme processing station in the state of Sonora, to destinations in California. Others left from Chihuahua and Monterrey hired by Texas farmers.

Two British Troops Die In Skirmish With Yemeni

LONDON (AP)—Two British soldiers killed in a skirmish with Yemeni tribesmen were later beheaded, and their heads were displayed on poles in the desert town of Taiz, the Defense Ministry says.

LONDON (AP)—The Guardian reported today that German scientists who have worked for the United Arab Republic believe both it and Israel are producing and stockpiling atomic missiles. TOKYO (AP)—The situation of world communism is grave, the North Vietnamese government said in calling on the Communist parties of the Soviet Union and China to patch up their split.

The North Vietnamese Reds suggested Sunday that Peking and the Kremlin resume the talks they broke off in Moscow last July and pledge to strive "for the unity of the Socialist camp and the international Communist movement."

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Creation of an Iraqi-Egyptian union is the goal of a provisional Socialist constitution announced by the Iraqi government.

Such a union would be "a first step toward Pan-Arab unity," the government of President Abdel Salem Aref said in its announcement Sunday over Baghdad radio.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation 209. At all drug counters.

READY TO ROLL WITH HEAVY LOADS
Clyde McMahon Concrete Co. has ready-mix and standard trucks in its fleet

Concrete Firm Has Big Fleet Ready To Roll

Clyde McMahon Concrete Co., operating five and a half full days each week, are providing their products to Big Spring and area residents, business firms and contractors.

The firm, located at 605 N. Benton (Snyder Highway), are open from 7 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. (except Saturday from 7 a.m. to noon), with 25 employees ready to handle requests for ready-mix concrete or other supplies.

AMPLE FLEET
McMahon started his ready-mix concrete business nearly 12 years ago. His fleet of mixing trucks has grown steadily from the original one, to 12 big "huskies."

Clyde McMahon and his son, Clyde Jr., own most of the stock in the two firms and see after their operation. They furnish concrete for any job, large or small, and their trucks are radio equipped for fast service in the city and a wide adjoining area.

MIXING HOPPERS
Five big mixing hoppers on the northwest corner of their property are filled with the proper amounts of sand, gravel and cement for any job. The big mixing trucks back under the spouts, get their load, including the right amount of water, and are on their way in a few minutes. The five hoppers permit quick mixtures of different specifications to fit the jobs.

The firm also handles White-man finishing machines and tools to complete the work on the poured concrete. Rotary blades finish off the mixture to the proper surface.

Other tools and equipment handled by Clyde McMahon Supply Co. are Eveready brick saws and blades, expansion joint material, wire mesh for re-enforcement, re-enforcement steel Richmond snap ties; Remington stud drivers, for driving studs or nails into concrete; wheel barrows for brick, tile, or concrete; vibrators for settling and eliminating air pockets; and all kinds of small tools for concrete or masonry work.

Finished products available from the company are concrete tile in several sizes and patterns, pre-cast flower bed borders, concrete tables, concrete benches, concrete parking curbs (movable), and rounded tops and corner tiles.

Whether the job is large or small, Clyde McMahon Concrete Co. can handle it. A telephone call to AM 4-6348 will get your order processed, or furnish information on what you need to have done, including the cost.

Royal Super-Safety 800 Tires Exceed Standards

They are engineered to "keep your spare in the trunk." U. S. Royal Super-Safety 800 tires that is.

This means that the car doesn't have to keep rotating his tires, or to open his car trunk to get his spare to replace a flat. The Super Safety 800 tires bear the red circle of security which provides clear-cut superiority in safety and driving ease. Along with this goes long and trouble-free mileage. Here's a tire with tremendous reserves of strength, offering outstanding performance under the rigorous challenges of today's high speed super highway driving. It surpasses new car tire standards set by America's leading automotive engineers.

Light Provides Protection

An outdoor fixture, designed as a protection for homes, business buildings and lots or industrial sites, known as Guard-Lite, is offered by Texas Electric Service Co. in Big Spring. A lot of new uses are continually being found for it.

Mounted on a standard 30-foot pole, the light is available to TESCO's customers for 84 a month, including normal installation, pole, electricity, and maintenance.

A white, mercury vapor-type lamp gives the brilliance of more than four 100-watt incandescent bulbs. It turns on at dusk and off, at dawn by an electric eye.

R. L. Beale, local manager for TESCO, says an acre of farm land, or as much as a 100-car parking lot, can be adequately lighted with the Guard-Lite.

Bird Sanctuary At Construction Site

A kildeer nesting on three eggs stays at her job in foreground as a big earth compactor (rear) passes nearby at the site of construction for a new shopping center in Los Angeles today. Construction workers, who spotted the family scene when they started clearing the area nearly two weeks ago, built a makeshift wooden pen (below) to protect the mother and her eggs and instructed all heavy equipment drivers to avoid the area. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Life Harsh, Nerve-Wracking For Long Unemployed Family

EDITOR'S NOTE—What is life like for an unemployed man and his family in the economically distressed coal-mining country of southern West Virginia—where unemployment is an inescapable fact? Here is the story of an ordinary day.

By JAMES HAUGHT
Charleston Gazette-Mail

TAD, W. Va. (AP)—The heat from the gas stoves was stifling. The windows were steamed over and it was drizzling outside. The unpaved lane at the lower end of Tad was slick with mud.

Blonde sisters Rebecca June and Ruth Ann slept huddled together in the bed they share. Their mother, Emma, 35, slept in the other bed. Their father, Denzil, 49, slept on a couch in the living room.

At 4 a.m., the father awoke, rubbed an aching shoulder, lit the fire and got dressed. He gulped two pills for his high blood pressure, washed them down with a swig of water from a mason jar. Then he folded his blankets, splashed cold water in his chubbly face and brewed a cup of instant coffee. Former coal miners are, by old habit, very early risers.

DOLLAR-AN-HOUR
 Denzil and his family get along on his dollar-an-hour earnings from the Aid to Dependent Children of the unemployed program.

"I guess I'd still be in the mines if my nerves hadn't got bad," he says. "I couldn't take it any more."

Technically, Denzil has been on the employe roster of the Libby-Owens-Ford glass plant in Charleston since 1953, but he hasn't worked there in two years. He is a union member and clings to the hope that mounting seniority will get him back to work. He has been drawing unemployment benefits, knocking around on temporary jobs.

"The ADC isn't much, but it keeps us from going hungry," he said. "It's not like charity. I work hard. I spade snow all day, or mop, or sweep, or work the trash truck. In the summer we cut grass or rake leaves. 'I'm tired when I get home at night.'"

GARDENER
 Denzil has been with the ADC for a year and a half. He is assigned to the state capitol where he serves as gardener, janitor and trash collector.

He gets $27.69 a week, or about $1,440 a year. He is limited to 120 hours a month, usually works that much in three weeks.

These earnings, plus a monthly ration of federal surplus commodities—locally called mollys, or mollygrub—keep the family alive.

As Denzil emptied his coffee cup, Emma got up. She is cheery and plump with an Irish face. She washed up, and joined Denzil for coffee.

The girls bounced up within minutes, scurrying around in their nightshirts. Becky, 9, is dimpled and shy. Ruth Ann, 7, is rounder and more talkative.

HOT CEREAL
 Emma lit the kitchen stove and began breakfast. Most of food was mollygrub: rolled wheat cooked as hot cereal, lunch meat fried in government lard, and surplus butter for the toast.

During breakfast, Becky and Ruth giggled. Emma talked of an elderly neighbor woman who was dying. Denzil read his newspaper.

Daylight arrived by the end of breakfast. The girls peeked out to assess the weather. The daily television routine began.

Denzil fiddled with the dials, jiggled the antenna wires, but the picture was dim and distorted. The old set was just too far gone.

However, it caught a gray ghost of a country music show. The girls brought their clothes into the living room, watched television as they dressed, soon were bundled up and hurrying to meet the school bus.

IRONING BOARD
 The television musicians still were singing loudly as Emma set up an ironing board beside the set. Denzil continued reading his paper.

"She says she likes it better when I'm working," Denzil offered. "I'm not around underfoot so much."

At lunchtime, Emma got out some of her home-canned fruit and vegetables to add to the mollygrub. Government food alone makes for a starchy diet.

Returning to the television set, she prepared for an afternoon of the soap operas she follows daily.

Denzil watched for a few minutes, then returned to his newspaper. He said he was looking for news of construction jobs where he might find work.

SENIORITY
 Denzil shifted on the couch and puffed a hand-rolled cigarette. "I'm sort of stuck here now because I have my union seniority built up pretty good."

Denzil fell asleep, napped, until the girls came back from school.

Emma started dinner and there were more mollys: surplus cornmeal baked into cornbread, surplus navy beans, more government lunch meat, and a little rice fixed up as pudding.

Back to the blurry television. As the evening wore on Becky fell asleep on the couch. When Denzil dozed, Emma woke everybody and shooed them off to bed.

Denzil turned down the fires, gulped his blood-pressure pills, spread his blankets and flicked off the television set.

Says Ruby Jury Wanted Example

BALTIMORE (AP)—A psychiatrist at the Jack Ruby trial, Dr. Manfred Guttmacher, says he believes the Dallas jury which convicted Ruby wanted, in part, "to make an example of a man who took the law into his own hands."

"I was very disappointed that the jury deliberated for only 60 minutes. It was a kind of deliberation the defendant was entitled to," Guttmacher said.

Ruby was sentenced to death for killing Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy. At the trial, Guttmacher testified Ruby was not legally sane when he shot Oswald.

Float Designer

Porter Richardson, KVMC manager and designer of the elaborate Tumbleweed Floats seen in the Tumbleweed Parade for the past three years, poses with Minnie Gomez, Tumbleweed Company employe. Richardson will plan four of the floats this year, with local organizations designing others.

Tumbleweed Festival Opens Friday, Carr Will Speak

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Waggoner Carr, Attorney General of Texas, will be principal speaker at the Dignitary Luncheon Friday at Colorado City. The noontime get-together is famous for the large number of visiting dignitaries who attend the Annual Tumbleweed Festival celebration.

More than 400 residents of the West Texas area are expected to attend the Civic House dinner. Each year a special tribute is presented to one of them. The identity of the award recipient this year will be disclosed at the luncheon. Special entertainment will be furnished by the Colorado High School Chorales, Colorado City's trophy winning a cappella choir

WAGGONER CARR

Leak Mars Rocket Test

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A break in a weld joint apparently caused the malfunction which destroyed a giant solid-fuel rocket motor and marred the dedication of a new test facility here, an Air Force spokesman reports.

The motor, a 250-ton, million-pound-thrust device, destroyed itself in a pillar of smoke and flame Saturday. It was fired as the Air Force Space Systems Division dedicated a new testing stand as tall as a nine-story building.

The 75-foot power plant is designed as a booster for the Titan 3C launch vehicle to be used in a manned space exploration program. Three similar motors have been test-fired successfully.

under the direction of Curtis Baker.

The Fifth Annual Tumbleweed Festival will continue Friday night with the Miss Mitchell County beauty pageant. Nineteen beauties from Mitchell County will vie for the title. They will be presented in both evening dresses and bathing suits and judged on poise, personality, and stage presence as well as beauty.

Featured entertainment Friday night is the famous Texas Tech College Choir under the direction of Gene Kenney. The choir's theme song is appropriately "Tumblin' Tumbleweeds."

Saturday, at 2 p.m. the Tumbleweed Festival Parade will feature numerous colored floats decorated with West Texas' own product, the tumbleweed. Antique cars, bands, riding poses, and beautiful girls will add to the parade.

Saturday night's beauty pageant for Miss Tumbleweed is the highlight of the entire festival. Contestants from Big Spring, Sweetwater, Rotan, Roscoe, San Angelo, Abilene, and Snyder will compete for the title of Miss Tumbleweed. Alexis Cowan, Miss Tumbleweed of 1963, will crown the new queen. Mrs. Gus Bates, judge from the John Robert Powers School of Modeling in Fort Worth, will present a scholarship to the winning beauty.

The Cell Block 7 Dixieland Band, popular music group from Dallas, will be spotlighted Saturday night. The band is completing an engagement in Toronto, Canada.

Avoid Strain, Queen Told

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II has been warned by her doctors to avoid a heavy work schedule, and will cut down public appearances during the summer, court sources said today.

The queen, 38, gave birth to her fourth child, Prince Edward, six weeks ago.

NEW DELHI (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru left New Delhi today on his first trip out of the capital since he suffered a slight stroke last Jan. 7.

Nehru flew to Bhaisalotan, where he will lay the foundation stone of an irrigation project on the border of India and Nepal.

NEW YORK (AP)—Sir Hugh Foot, former British colonial governor of Jamaica and Cyprus, said the possibility of war between whites and the world's colored peoples is "a greater danger than anything between East and West."

Sir Hugh, a member of the five-man panel which advises U.N. Secretary-General U Thant on conditions in South Africa, appeared on WOR-TV in New York.

Hot Indiana Vote Tuesday

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indiana's hottest primary campaign in history winds up today with a drumfire of prerecorded political speeches by the chief opponents, Democratic Govs. Matthew E. Welsh of Indiana and George C. Wallace of Alabama.

The campaign which provided a national dramatization of the civil rights issue and the civil rights bill now before the Senate is expected to send a presidential primary record total of voters to the polls Tuesday.

Turnout estimates ranged up to 500,000 for each of the two parties for a total of a million or more.

Both Welsh and Wallace had nearly completed their personal appearance schedules over the weekend, although Wallace planned a service-club luncheon talk here today before flying to Alabama to vote in his own state's primary Tuesday.

Wallace, who has campaigned for a protest vote against the civil rights bill and for states' rights, spoke Sunday morning in the Fremont Baptist Church at Crawfordsville while orderly pickets paraded outside.

Welsh, meanwhile, addressed a 10th Dist. Democratic rally in a Richmond schoolyard, calling for "the fullest possible turnout Tuesday" and saying: "Let's drown out the rebel yell from the distant past."

Welsh is running as President Johnson's stand-in.

Wallace has not disclaimed presidential ambitions but has said repeatedly he's running against the civil rights bill and federal intervention in state affairs.

Indiana Democratic leaders have let it be known Wallace won't have any national convention delegates from Indiana committed to him, no matter how he fares in the primary.

The law says the primary winner gets the first-ballot votes of the Indiana delegation, but it has no penalty clause.

The Alabama governor, in his church talk at Crawfordsville, confined his remarks mainly to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling on prayers in public schools.

"Did you ever think," he asked, "that the Bible would have to be bootlegged into the schools?"

A capacity crowd of about 300 listened to Wallace's talk. There were no jeers, and his talk was punctuated frequently with "amens" from the congregation.

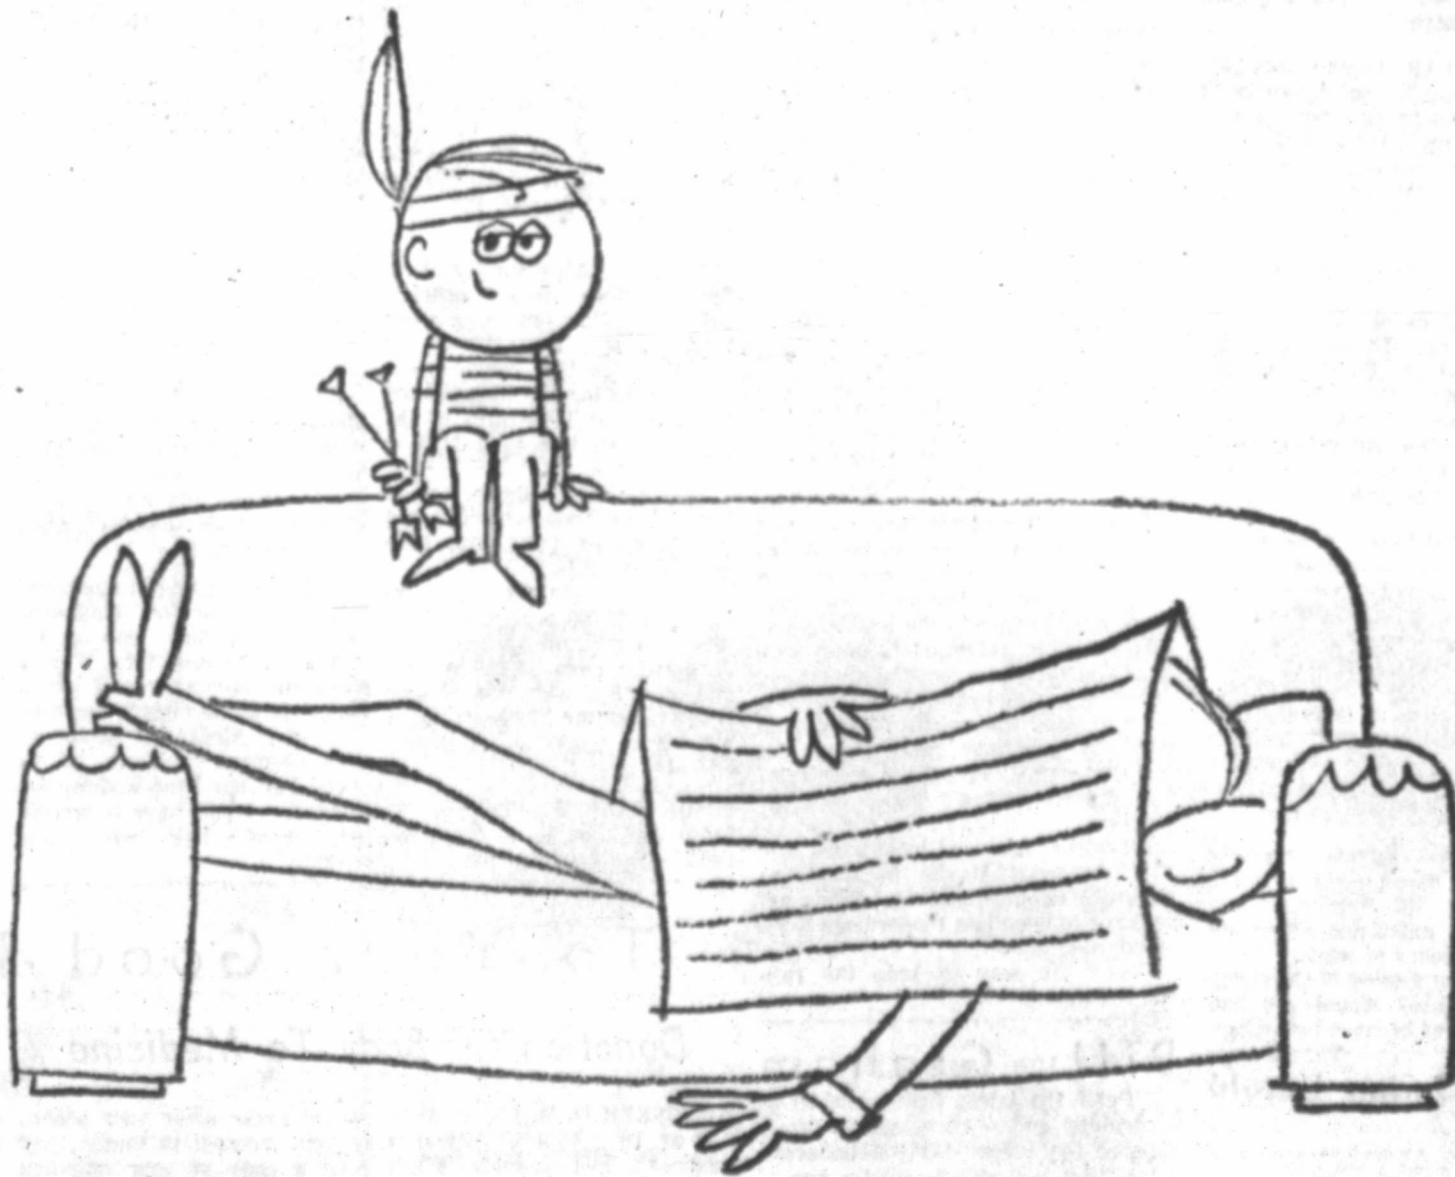

Wrecked, Victim Treated In Dark

MALIBU, Calif. (AP)—While a fire engine generated power for lights in a hospital operating room, doctors performed surgery on a victim of the traffic accident which had knocked out the lights.

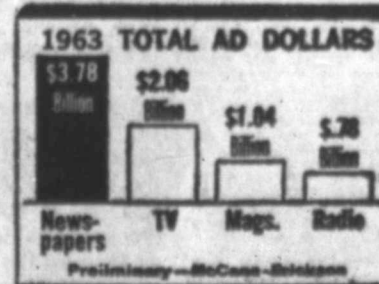

Firemen rushed to Malibu Emergency Hospital Sunday after a collision sent a car into a power pole, cutting off the hospital's electricity.

Doctors used emergency lighting to treat face injuries suffered by Mark Salkin, 15, of Studio City.

"Don't touch Daddy's paper"

Every mother raises her children to respect the importance of today's newspaper. It goes with being Dad... having the whole family yield the daily paper until Dad himself has finished with it. And when he has finished with it, Mom and the children will take their turn at their favorite parts of the paper. None of your new-fangled inventions have eaten into the position the daily newspaper holds. A well-known study of the TV audience shows that "newspaper reading is the only form of mass communication which showed no reaction when TV sets were purchased." Whereas, the same study found, radio-listening, magazine reading and movie attendance went down when TV sets were purchased.

Dear Abby

Mother-in-Law Is A Mother!

DEAR ABBY: Mother's Day will soon be here and I wish you would say something in your column to remind "young marrieds" to remember their mother-in-law, too. Even if it's only a card or a note. There were so many years when I should have remembered my mother-in-law, but I was too "busy."

This year I will send her a spray of flowers—to the cemetery—bitterly regretting that I failed to send her flowers while she was living. I should have appreciated her more, written her more about her grandchildren, whom she loved so much, and most of all I should have let her know how much I had grown to love her. I hope others will not make the same mistake I made because next year may be too late. Abby, please sign my real initials so my father-in-law will know how I feel.

J.O.
(Oceanside, Calif.)

DEAR ABBY: I was interested in your reply to "DIRTY OLD MAN'S WIFE." You said, "He's sick. Get him to a doctor." I've known for years that my husband is "sick." It is so humiliating to sit in a restaurant with him while he flirts with the waitresses, or any woman sitting nearby whose eye he happens to catch. And when he stares at the young girls from their feet up, and then down again, I want to run!

I meet my friends away from my home because they won't come by if they know he's there. I have many worthwhile interests, such as music, gardening, books and church work, but, oh, for a companion to grow old with!

Yes, I realize he's sick. But how do you get a man in his 60's to a doctor?

DEAR WISHFUL THINKING: You can't call the men in the white coats and ask them to come and throw a net over him. But you can call your family doctor and tell him what you have told me. Together you can work out a scheme to get your husband to submit to a PHYSICAL examination. The mental examination can be subtly worked in without arousing suspicion. There is help for your husband's illness (and it IS an illness)—and it's more common than you think.

DEAR ABBY: Just read about "Papa Joe," who was born in the old country and didn't know his birthdate so he picked one himself. My husband was in the same boat and picked a day in November for his "birthday." When he took out citizenship papers, he wrote to his sister in the old country and asked her to send him his birth certificate. She sent not only his birth certificate but also the certificate of his baptism. That is when we found out he was really born in March, and according to the "birthday" he had been celebrating, he was baptized before he was born!

GOOD JOKE

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. "F.": The letter you sent me from your mother contained a treasury of good sense. You would be wise to implement her "three suggested rules" for disciplining your children. She loves you or she wouldn't have been so candid.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90212. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Oil Independents Fight To Survive

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—An independent oil operator said today his segment of the oil industry is in a private recession and is having to struggle for survival.

H. A. True Jr., Casper, Wyo., blamed price erosion of crude oil prices and an excessive level of oil imports.

The president of the 7,000-member Independent Petroleum Association of America said crude oil prices have dropped 20 cents a barrel since 1957 and gasoline prices have declined more than 2 cents a gallon.

In a speech prepared for the opening session of the trade group's mid-year meeting, True said the independent oil operator is concerned and aroused.

"Some are desperate and embittered as to what is happening to them," he said. "Together, they must explore every possible avenue to pull themselves out of the economic cellar."

True said oil imports must be reduced substantially under the federal import control program.

"This program has one purpose and one only—to maintain a vigorous, expanding domestic petroleum industry and our security as to energy supplies," he said. "The program is not accomplishing that."

True announced Sunday that Interior Secretary Stewart Udall, whose office administers the imports program, has agreed to discuss oil producer problems May 21 with representatives of the industry.

"We will present a case for substantial reductions in imports," True said.

The association's imports policy committee, meeting in preliminary session Sunday, rejected suggestions by Kansas, Texas and Oklahoma operators that the independents ask Congress to supplement the controls program by placing a tariff on all oil imports.

Two special study groups submitted reports today on oil supply and demand and the nation's crude oil productive capacity.

Productive capacity as of Jan. 1 was estimated at a record 7,828,000 barrels a day but the committee said 25.3 per cent or 2,006,000 barrels were shutdown for lack of markets.

Crude production this year was forecast at a record 7,828,000 barrels a day but the figure is 40,000 barrels below a preliminary 1964 forecast made by the association's supply and demand committee last October.

The committee said lowering the preliminary estimate resulted to a large degree from abnormally warm January-March weather.

The Joy Of Reunion

Three-year-old Timmy Hughes and his mother, Lorraine, cling to each other and laugh while his father, New York City policeman Gerald Hughes, leans over them as they reunited at the Woodbridge, N.J., police station. Timmy, who had disappeared from a school park near his home in the Flushing section of New York on Saturday, was found in the room of a dishwasher, James Savage, 19. Savage, who was held by police for investigation, told police that he had found the boy near an entrance to the World's Fair and had taken him home. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Political Storm Rises In Ceylon

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—A political storm is gathering over Ceylon and Prime Minister Sirimavo Bandaranaike has turned left in an attempt to escape it. Convinced neither she nor her Freedom Party alone can solve Ceylon's problems, Mrs. Bandaranaike is seeking help from Marxist-oriented political groups.

In repayment, she is offering concessions that would take this island nation of 10 million closer to socialism.

The nation is confronted with: Rampant inflation, unemployment and paralyzing strikes.

Rising government spending that outstrip income. Unrest in rural areas and a dip in her parliamentary margin to three seats.

SENT HOME

The government was taking such knocks in parliament earlier this year that Mrs. Bandaranaike sent members home until July, hoping to use the interval to shore up her position.

Aided by her socialist-minded finance minister, Tikiri Banda Ilangaratne, Mrs. Bandaranaike has opened talks with Dr. N. M. Perera, leader of the Social Equality Party, and Philip Gunawardena, head of the People's United Front.

Perera is an old-school Trotskyite. Gunawardena is an oldtime Marxist.

If Perera and Gunawardena can carry their parties into Mrs. Bandaranaike's fold, she will pick up about 20 more seats in Parliament — enough to relieve pressure.

Finance Minister Ilangaratne has nationalized properties of Shell, Esso, and Coltex oil firms, set up a state-owned Petroleum Corp., taken over British, Canadian, Indian and Ceylonese insurance firms, and imposed strict controls on British and Indian banks.

PARTICIPATION

Perera wants worker participation in management of state-owned industrial and commercial firms that control cement production, transport, petroleum distribution, and chemical and textile manufacturing. He wants state controls on export-import firms and a firmer clampdown on banks, with "concessions" to minorities, especially one million Tamils, who feel they are second class citizens.

Ceylonese, about 85 per cent literate, for years have yearned for the West's higher living standards. Education from kindergarten to university is free, medical treatment costs nothing, and train and bus travel is subsidized. Nearly 18 per cent of the annual national budget of $460 million goes to lower consumer rice prices. Price supports pay farmers more than the world rice price.

The annual per capita income is $123.40. Heavy deficit financing has been in effect 10 years. External assets were used to import consumer goods and swab up excess money, thus preventing inflation.

Respite Due Soggy South

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Southerners, drenched with torrential rains which caused flash floods and crop damage, welcomed a promised respite from soggy weather as a storm spawned in the Gulf of Mexico moved out into the Atlantic.

Continuous rains and thunderstorms for almost a week caused small streams to rise over north Florida, southwest Georgia and southern Alabama. The heaviest rains came during the weekend. Nearly six inches fell during a 24-hour period in some areas.

Thunderstorms were accompanied by high winds in the Miami area which caused some property damage and two persons were cut by flying glass when a garbage can was blown through a window.

There were 21 traffic fatalities in Georgia during the weekend, and 16 in Alabama. Normally, there are about half that number. Most of the accidents happened on rain-slick highways.

Crop damage was extensive in south Georgia, where spring planting already was delayed by late freezing weather.

About 100 families were removed from flooded houses at Augusta, Ga., where nearly five inches of rain fell in a 12-hour period.

Two men drowned at Maxville, Fla., near Jacksonville, while trying to evacuate a flooded house.

Birthday Slows Truman's Work

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Harry S. Truman isn't getting much done on his history projects this week—too many people making a fuss over his 80th birthday coming up Friday.

Today he had 333 congratulatory telegrams and letters to read. They came from President Johnson, Herbert Hoover, Dwight D. Eisenhower, senators, congressmen, ambassadors, chiefs of state abroad.

Wednesday about 250 old friends will honor him at a luncheon in Kansas City, just as they have every year since he left the White House.

Friday he'll be in Washington for his usual birthday luncheon with friends from the investigating committee he headed while in the Senate.

Rural Violence Plagues Columbia For 15 Years

SANTA TERESA, Colombia (AP)—Deep in the heart of this nation of majestic Andean peaks and fertile valleys the tough, well-trained Colombian army is fighting banditry and subversion.

Rural violence has plagued Colombia more than 15 years. The army, backed by U.S. aid and commanded by the war minister, Maj. Gen. Alberto Ruiz Novoa, have sworn to rid the country of the "bandoleros"—the last remnants of Colombia's 10 bloody years of inter-party warfare. They say victory is in sight.

Focal points of the campaign is the Department (state) of Tolima, where "the violence"—as the undeclared civil war has come to be known—has claimed some of its most savage tolls.

FLAWS ALONG

For the peasants of Tolima, "la violencia" flows along like the mighty Rio Magdalena in whose valley they till their cotton, rice and soybeans.

For them, and for the coffee and cattle-producing neighbors in Tolima's rugged mountains, the 1948-58 period is known simply as "the war." The National University says 200,000 persons died before nationwide warfare ended officially with a political truce between the liberal and conservative parties in 1958.

When the feuding factions made their peace, Tolima emerged as a power vacuum.

The new National Front regime governed only principal cities and towns, supported by the army and police. Heavily armed groups of bandoleros ruled the countryside.

INDEPENDENT

In the widest areas self-styled "independent republics"—some of distinct Communist flavor—sprang up, run by war chiefs. Bandit chieftains, terming themselves political protectors of the peasants, waged war against the authorities under flamboyant aliases like "black blood" and "sure shot."

In 1962 the government declared that the bandit leaders, who had ignored earlier offers of general amnesty would have to be fought on their own ground.

The task of shaping up the operation fell to Gen. Ruiz, a Korean war veteran.

In 1962, 210 soldiers and 2,311 civilians died at the hands of bandoleros. And 388 bandits were slain.

One year later the civilian deaths were halved, and the bandit deaths almost doubled. Army casualties fell to 115.

Narrow Cotton Rows Studied

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farmers in the High Plains of Texas may some day plant cotton with a grain drill.

Experimental work being carried on by Agriculture Department scientists and engineers at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock points to this possibility.

A report by the department's research administration said experiments conducted so far have shown that cotton planted in rows 9 inches apart have produced cotton at 27 per cent less per pound than that grown in the normal 40-inch rows. Yields from the two planting methods were comparable.

Bull-Rider Plods Toward Texas

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. (AP)—Randy the bull is six miles closer to Galveston, Tex., today—but the former Nebraska cowboy astride him says the arrival date is still about Christmas.

Carl Swanson of Onamia is riding the bull to promote beef sales. He got three new shoes for Randy Sunday, finally locating a blacksmith at Little Falls, nearly 200 miles away.

Swanson started his 1,800-mile jaunt from International Falls to Galveston Tuesday.

Carlists Convene Minus Newlyweds

MONTEJURRA, Spain (AP)—The Spanish Carlists, who have sought the Spanish throne in vain since 1833, held their annual rally Sunday without their new leading lady. Spain's chief of state, Generalissimo Francisco Franco, reportedly passed the word that the Carlists' leader, Prince Carlos of Bourbon-Parma, and his bride, Princess Irene of the Netherlands, should stay away from the annual pilgrimage to Montejurra, a mountaintop shrine in northeast Spain. The newlyweds stayed in Madrid and sent messages. Carlos predicted the cause would eventually succeed, and Irene said she would attend the rally next year. An estimated 100,000 Carlists made the pilgrimage to the mountain.

Rough it.

This is our Volkswagen Campmobile. On weekends it plays. It's a cabin in the woods. A mountain retreat. Or a cottage on the lake. During the week it works. As a family wagon. Delivery truck. Or both. Any Standard VW Station Wagon, Kombi, or Panel Truck can be a Campmobile. It's just a matter of getting one of our Campmobile Kits. You can get one installed in the VW you're now driving. Or you can order a new VW with a Campmobile Kit built-in. And you can get it any way you want it. For light travelers we have a Basic Kit: Paneling, double bed, dinette, closets, cupboards, curtains. For people who've been spoiled with things like running water, stove, icebox, sink, and john, we have a De Luxe Kit. And for those of you who like to go Super De Luxe, we have a Super De Luxe Kit, complete with cabana tent, shower—the works. There's even an upstairs. A nice thing about any of our Campmobiles is that the main components can be easily taken out and put back in. But the real beauty of the VW Campmobile is that it does away with reservations. Packing. Motel, hotel and restaurant bills. And tipping bellboys. Of course, that can be rough. On the bellboys.
