

Amarillo Gunfire Kills Cop, Boy

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — A midnight exchange of gunfire at speeds up to 85 miles an hour along city streets killed a patrolman and a 14-year-old boy riding in a stolen pickup, police said.

A 15-year-old boy was wounded.

Asst. Police Chief Jim Keith said the two boys, armed with a shotgun and a high-powered rifle with telescopic sight, started blazing away when Patrolman William Meadows, 23, gave pursuit early today.

Meadows had seen the vehicle while en route to check out a stolen vehicle report.

INTO FOREHEAD

As Meadows sped across an overpass, a slug smashed through the windshield into his forehead. His cruiser bounced to a halt against guard rails. He died later in a hospital.

State highway patrolmen, meanwhile, had heard the radio communications and fell in behind the pickup, ridding the rear with high-powered rifles. Shots hit their car, and two other city cruisers that had joined the chase.

Ten miles later, tire punctured, the pickup slammed into a ditch off a farm to market road two miles south of Amarillo.

Jimmy May was dead of three wounds in the back and neck. Felix Fesmire, 15, identified as the driver, was shot but not seriously wounded in the shoulder.

NOT KNOW AGES

Keith said officers did not know the boys' ages at the time of the frantic shooting.

He said the pair had left Boys Ranch, a welfare organization which often cares for orphans and delinquents, earlier in the day during a ranch hike.

Police were investigating the possibility the pair may have robbed a farm family and shot a cowboy.

The Clyde Kohler family, who live near Dumas 40 miles north of here, reported two boys held them up earlier Sunday night and stole their pickup.

Kohler said the two cut their telephone wire, took some ammunition and left after saying they had shot a man earlier.

About daybreak, headquarters of the LIT Ranch reported one of their cowboys did not return from a hunting trip Sunday afternoon. Authorities began searching the Dumas area.

The city chase led near downtown Amarillo.

Several ranch people on horseback searched the area 20 miles west of here without finding the boys.

At one point, the pursuit swept near downtown Amarillo, but traffic was light. The boys swerved past one police roadblock, and apparently escaped a shotgun charge fired through the front windshield.

May fired the high-powered rifle while Fesmire drove. Keith said. Neither of the trailing highway patrolmen, Richard Beall and Gary Minyen, was injured.

Cyprus Lines Hammered Out

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—U.N. officials thrashed out with rival leaders of divided Cyprus today their final positions for a settlement of the civil strife and drafted a special report for U.N. Secretary-General U Thant for a Security Council session June 17.

Three top political figures of the U.N. team dealing with the Greek-Turkish row called first on Greek President Archbishop Makarios and later sought the views of Turkish Vice President Fazil Kuchuk.

Taking part in the secret conversations were Galo Plaza Lasso, special representative of U Thant; political adviser Alejandro Flores, and Jose Rolz Bennett, deputy to Dr. Ralph J. Bunche.

The political activity was conducted in an atmosphere seemingly relaxed in contrast to the weekend excitement aroused by Greek Cypriot fears of an invasion from the Turkish mainland. The United Nations has been unable to find any evidence to justify a state of emergency.

The United Nations took a step designed to encourage Turks to come out from behind their walls and travel without escorts through Greek territory. The plan to stop escorting was announced Sunday night and a spokesman spelled it out more clearly today. He said special escorts still would be provided.

Bardot Leads Aid Surge For Children's Village

PERIGUEUX, France (AP)—Thanks to a burst of generosity from admirers, Negro singer Josephine Baker may be able to save her children's village at nearby Milandes.

A flood of donations have been pouring into a special account to prevent the eviction Tuesday night of Miss Baker and her 11 adopted children.

The star announced last week that she was broke and heavily in debt. Her 12th century chateau at Milandes and its furnishings were to be sold at auction Tuesday unless she could satisfy her creditors.

Movie star Brigitte Bardot made a radio-television appeal for Miss Baker. It was an unusual gesture for Miss Bardot, who had never met Miss Baker and detests the glare of television lights.

The French television office was deluged with calls asking where to send the checks.

Miss Baker says she needs $400,000 to get the chateau at Milandes into the black for good.

She has adopted children of various races to conduct a living demonstration of racial understanding. The children—all but one of them boys—are between 4 and 12 years old. They came from places as distant as Japan, Africa, South America and Finland.

Several years ago Miss Baker decided she would try to develop Milandes as a tourist attraction that would provide her children with a steady income. She could then retire permanently from the stage.

The property, including the hotels, the chateau and its grounds, now is heavily mortgaged. The horde of tourists did not materialize, and the tourist center has been a steadily losing proposition.

Square Dance Class Begins For Teenagers

A 12-week square dancing course for teenagers, between 11-18, begins tonight in the Big Spring Squares' building, on the Country Club road. All youngsters interested in learning square dancing are invited to attend.

Instructors for the course are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cornally, who have taught many similar courses. Class will be held each Monday from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Interested teenagers may call the Connallys, AM 4-8925, or come to the square dance building at 7:30 p.m.

Registration will continue three weeks.

Dear Abby

She Talks Too Much

DEAR ABBY: Is there something wrong with me? Whenever I take a trip on a bus or train, I get into very intimate conversations with the person sitting next to me. I don't know why, but before I know it, I am telling this person my life's history. I've told complete strangers things about myself that I'd never think of revealing to anyone I know. If I ever ran into any of these people again I would die of shame, but I can't seem to help myself once I get going. I am not a child. I am a grown woman who has seen 33 summers. Please don't use my name.

TALKS TOO MUCH

DEAR TALKS: Some people who "talk too much" are reacting to a deeply rooted psychological problem. If you're lucky, it won't hurt you (although it may bore others). Meanwhile, try counting to ten before you start, then talk about something besides yourself. You MAY not be that interesting.

DEAR ABBY: I live in a very small town where everybody knows everybody else's business. After I graduate from high school it is only natural for people to wonder why I don't look for a job. The trouble is I can't work because I am five months pregnant, and I have to get out of this town as soon as possible. I am being pressured from all sides to go look for a job. I have only enough money for a bus ticket to a place not more than 200 miles from here. Is there a home for unwed mothers that will take me in? Please put your answer in the paper. MARION (not my real name)

DEAR MARION: Send me your real name and address at once and I will send you the information you need immediately.

DEAR ABBY: My son was asked to be an usher at his friend's wedding. He will have to rent a tuxedo for the wedding. Who is supposed to pay for it?

MRS. D.

DEAR MRS. D.: Either you or your son, depending on his resources. But in any case—not the friend who is being married.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from Wrestler's Wife has prompted me to write. Soon after we were married my husband's brother would snap his fingers on my bare arm, shove me, and otherwise horse around. I didn't want to make an issue of it, and my husband didn't say anything, so I let it go. Sixteen years ago, at a family reunion, this brother rushed across the room, grabbed both my feet and pulled me off the davenport. I hit the floor like a melon. My teenaged children were present and so were his. The laughter ceased when I couldn't get up. When it was ascertained that I had broken the end of my spine, my brother-in-law felt terrible. Since then I have spent weeks in the hospital, months having therapy and years in a heavy body brace. I might have been spared all this if either my husband or I had made it clear from the start that I did not want to be touched.

Israeli Visits Salt Water Plant

HOUSTON (AP) — Israel's prime minister, Levi Eshkol, toured the saline water conversion plant at nearby Freeport today.

Later he was to fly to Ft. Bliss, near El Paso, where he, his wife and others in his party were to be luncheon guests of Maj. Gen. Tom Slayton.

Speaking at a news conference Sunday, Eshkol, 69, said, "for us in Israel, water is a very vital matter."

"Within a few years we shall be using almost to the limit our annual supply of fresh natural water," he said.

He was optimistic over his country's plan to divert water from the Jordan River for use in the Negev Desert.

The Israeli prime minister arrived in Philadelphia eight days ago to start a 12-day tour of the country.

Singer Kate Smith Badly Hurt By Glass

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Singer Kate Smith was severely cut when she walked through a plate glass door Sunday.

Dr. Walter R. Newbern, said 25 stitches were required to close the wounds. The accident occurred at a home where Miss Smith, 55, has been in seclusion since the recent death of Ted Collins, her longtime manager and friend.

Miss Smith remained in a West Palm Beach hospital today.

NEW YORK (AP)—Madame Ngo Dinh Nhu, the first lady of South Viet Nam before her brother-in-law, Ngo Dinh Diem, was overthrown in a bloody coup, is coming back to the United States.

The Conservative party club of Flushing, Queens, announced Sunday that Mrs. Nhu, who now lives in Paris, will address a "truth rally" July 7. The club said she would "expose the truth of the Viet Nam affair."

HONG KONG (AP)—Singer Judy Garland was to have boarded a ship for Rome Sunday night but she changed her mind. The 41-year-old singer's traveling companion, Mark Herron, said today she decided to fly, and will take a plane Friday.

Herron said Miss Garland wanted more time in Hong Kong for shopping, sightseeing and rest.

She is recuperating from an attack of pleurisy.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree from Jewish Theological Seminary of America. In conferring the degree, Rabbi Louis Finkelstein said "we at this seminary will continue to associate ourselves with you in the struggle" for civil rights.

Mann Opposed To Unilateral U.S. Actions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's top-ranking Latin-American affairs official, Thomas Mann, says the United States opposes unilateral intervention in hemisphere affairs because it doesn't work and causes suspicion and resentment.

Mann, assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs and a special assistant to President action by the hemisphere's Democratic regimes is the only feasible step to counter tyranny and brutality.

He gave his views in an interview with The Associated Press and in a speech Sunday at Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind.

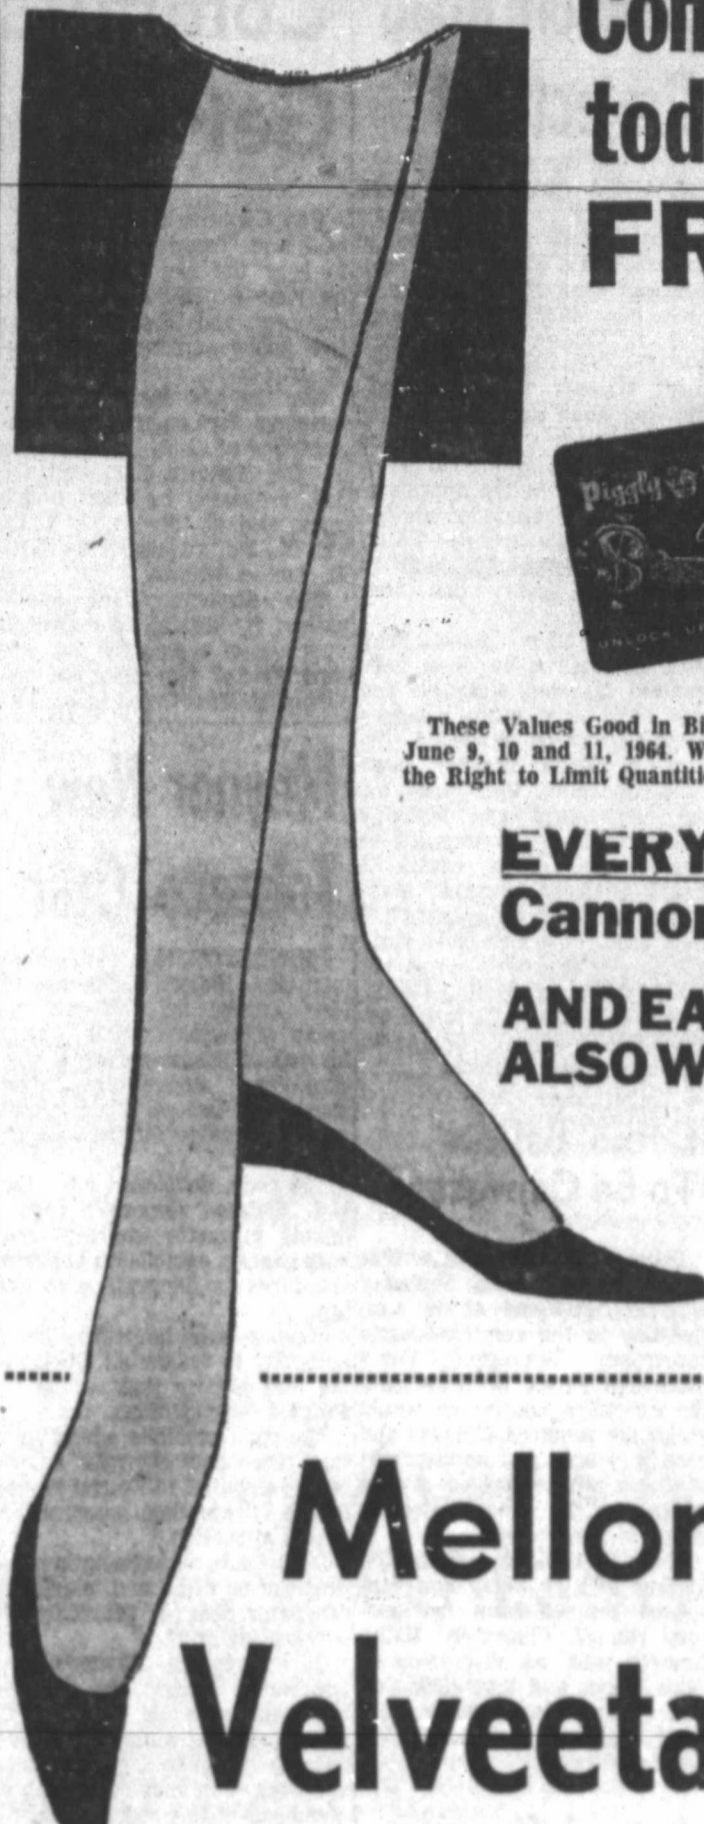

"Unilateral United States interventions in the hemispheres have never succeeded. In themselves, in restoring constitutional government for any appreciable period of time," he said in the speech.

"In every case," he added, such steps, "have left for our country a legacy of suspicion and resentment which have endured long after our interventions were abandoned as impracticable."

He referred to U.S. action in sending Marines into unfriendly Latin-American countries earlier in the 20th Century.

The charter of the 21-nation Organization of American States expressly forbids the intervention of one country or a group of countries in the internal or external affairs of another state, Mann said.

The United States "should support appropriate measures for broadening the scope of collective action" to counter tyranny and brutality of non-democratic regimes, he added. "I can think of no way in which the American community of states can better serve the cause of human dignity, individual and national freedom and representative democracy."

Lorenzo Pair Wins 2nd Big Spring Open

By TOMMY HART

A last minute rush by the golfing plumber from Lubbock, Roland Adams, and Bernard Rains, Big Spring, fell just short as Eddie Jones and Jim Fullingim, both of Lorenzo, made their first day's lead stand up for a victory in the second annual Big Spring Golf Open at the Country Club here Sunday.

The diminutive Jones, the golf pro at Lorenzo and his partner pieced together rounds of 64 and 69 for a 36-hole aggregate of 133, nine strokes below regulation figures.

Adams and Rains finished one stroke off that pace, all alone in second place, with a 68-66-134.

Two teams deadlocked for third place, each at 135. One was composed of Wendy Green and Bobby Wright, who had the day's best score, a five-under par 66 to go with a first round 80. The other included Elwyn Stobaugh and Bobby Lockett, both of San Angelo.

Wright was bothered with a crick in his neck throughout the tournament, with the result that he could hardly turn his body.

The defending champions in the meet, Jack Montgomery, Fort Worth, and Big Spring's Frank Powell wound up in a three-way deadlock for fifth place, at 136.

Last year's runnersup, Horace Moore and Jack Williams, both of Plainview, were also in that group, as were Bob Patterson and Billy Bob Coffey, both of Weatherford.

All alone at 137, good for eighth place, was the Big Spring tandem of Tommy Wilkerson and Jimmy Patterson both amateurs.

The two youngsters sizzled with a 66 the first day out but had to settle for an even par 71 Sunday.

The wind and the heat were definite factors Sunday. The wind never blew at gale-force but it was discomforting at times. The temperatures soared past the 100 mark.

Jones, who weighs only 125 pounds, and Fullingim made the turn all even with par Sunday and came two strokes under regulation figures.

Jones has been on the pro tour. Fullingim is a young cotton farmer whose game is solid if not sensational.

Adams was hot and cold throughout the 18 holes. He had seven birdies and four bogies for the day. Rains, of course, gave him a lot of help.

Here's the way the prize money in the Open division was awarded:

1. Eddie Jones, $400; 2. Roland Adams, $300; 3. Wendy Green, $180; Elwyn Stobaugh, $180; 5. Bob Patterson, $80; 6. Jack Montgomery, $80; 7. Horace Moore, $50; 8. Jimmy Russell, $10; 9. Bill Trombley, $10; 10. Jack Bartko, $10; 11. Frank Freer, $10; 12. Jerry Green, $10; 13. Jim Terry, $10.

In the True Amateur division, where the entries used handicaps, ex-Big Spring Joe Williamson and Ray Houpt, both of Snyder, copped first place with a net score of 121.

Williamson and Houpt, who are in business together (insurance) in Snyder, had a sizzling 58 the first day and toured the course Sunday in 63.

They beat two teams, including Dan Greenwood and Jim Harper of Big Spring, by two strokes. The other two tying for runnerup laurels were Walter Holland, Tahoka, and Glenn Day, Plainview.

The low ten teams in each division shared in the awards. Amateurs carried away trophies like wrist watches and slotguns.

The tournament lured 282 players and was declared an outstanding success in every phase.

Adams Is Top Pro, 137 Earns Him $100

Roland Adams of Lubbock led all pro linkers entered in the second annual Big Spring Open with a two-day aggregate score of 137, five shots beneath regulation figures.

Adams was tied with Eddie Jones, Lorenzo, the first day with a 69 but toured the Country Club layout Sunday in 68 strokes.

Adams, low pro here last year also, earned an extra $100 for the feat, so his total winning amount to $400.

Runnerup for medal honors was Jack Montgomery, Fort Worth, who had 140 for the 36 holes. His check came to $50 for that phase of the meet and $130 all told.

Wendy Green was third in individual play with a 141 for a $30 return. His aggregate pay was $210.

Eddie Jones and Elwyn Stobaugh, San Angelo, won $10

Now the lead was three strokes.

Lema got a birdie at 12, and Souchak made an eagle. Two strokes.

On the par three 14th, Souchak put his tee shot within four feet and Lema struck his in the crowd. "It was a terrible shot," Lema said. "And the chip was bad, and then I three-putted."

Lema Stages Rally To Beat Souchak

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—"I saw my wife standing there in the rain on the 18th, and I said, 'Honey, I sure made this thing interesting, didn't I?'"

You might say that.

There was Tony Lema, going down in flames in the final round of the $100,000 Thunderbird Golf Tournament Sunday. First he held a seven-stroke lead over Mike Souchak with 13 holes to play, and suddenly he was one stroke behind with four to go.

It was building up to be the biggest collapse since the stock market in 1929.

Lema redeemed his pledge to treat the press to champagne when he rapped in a pressure eight-foot putt on the 18th hole for his second straight birdie, and the $20,000 top prize.

The birdie four gave him a final round of 71, one-under par for the short Westchester course and a 72-hole total of 276.

Souchak, who started off as if he was going to have to skip a couple of holes to break 100, finished with 69 for 277 and $12,000 for second place.

Ken Venturi, who had to tie

PAT WASHBURN'S The Roundtable

Big Spring's CHARLEY JOHNSON, who now makes his home in St. Louis but was here for the second annual Big Spring Open Golf tournament, will be leaving this week to return to the Missouri city. He has a radio show starting this June 15. . . . Most people know him best for his exploits on the gridiron. He is, of course, the number one quarterback for the St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League and played in last season's Pro Bowl. . . . Firestone, one of the biggest names today in racing tires, spends a great amount of money and research toward improving their product. They make tires for every type of auto race and every type of track—which adds up to more than 30 different tread designs, 40 different types of construction and approximately 120 sizes. . . . The first Indianapolis race was held in 1909 with BARNEY OLDFIELD winning the 500-mile event. The race was changed to the present 500 miles in 1911 with RAY HARBOUR winning the event averaging 74.59 miles an hour in a Marmon.

Playing the pro golf tour can be costly. Here's what rookie pro GEORGE ARCHER told a sports writer lately when asked how much it cost him and his wife to travel from tourney to tourney:

"You need money, lots of money, to stay on the tour. To even start you must have a reliable automobile and proper clothing to meet the different kinds of weather you run into. Then add the cost of current living—meals, meals, caddies, locker-room and tournament fees, travel—and you have quite a nut to crack. It costs us about $300 a week to exist, and we aren't high-livers."

Even with those expenses, though, you can't blame him for trying to go out and cash in on a little of that prize money being offered these days to golfers. Tournament sponsors, on both the summer and winter tours combined, are offering the pros $2 million in winnings, and the loot keeps spiraling all the time. This is partly possible, of course, because golf is becoming more and more a spectator sport. Attendance at events sanctioned by the Professional Golfers' Association has doubled since 1957.

Golf, of course, is a game where the rich become richer and the poor become poorer. A pro's official earnings, if he's successful, are only a drop in the bucket sometimes to what he can make on the side. A good example is ARNOLD PALMER who won $130,535 on the tourney in 1963—it's estimated that his earnings on the side are at least three times this figure. MICKEY MANTLE is the only professional in another sport whose income from outside sources is believed to top $100,000. . . .

Phils Do Shuffle, Giants Still Win

By The Associated Press

When they came to write Danny Cater's baseball epitaph, they could say simply: "He was an innocent victim of the Great War."

Cater, a 24-year-old Philadelphia rookie, was listed in the starting line-up as batting fifth Sunday when first-place San Francisco edged the second-place Phillies 4-3 in 10 innings. Although seven Phillies came to the plate in the first inning, Cater never made it.

Managers Al Dark and Gene Mauch look care of that.

They perpetrated one of the weirdest innings of the season, moving players in and out faster than James Bond gets into trouble.

Giants' starter Bob Hendley, a southpaw, triggered the strategy battle by hitting Tony Taylor with a pitch, walking Cookie Rojas and giving a run-scoring single to Johnny Callison, the only hit of the inning.

Out came Dark and in came right-handed reliever Bob Bollin. Richie Allen walked, loading the bases and bringing Cater to the plate.

However, before the right-handed hitting Cater could look at a pitch, Mauch pulled him for left-hander Wes Covington. Bollin then sent the same way as Cater as Dark brought on southpaw Ken Mackenzie. Mauch, not wanting to run out of outfielders before he got through one inning, left Covington bat.

Dark, however, didn't let Mackenzie pitch too long. After he got Covington on a pop out, he departed in favor of right-handed Gaylord Perry, the fourth Giants' pitcher.

The rest of the inning, though, went relatively fast. Roy Sievers lined a sacrifice fly to Mays for the second run, and Gus Triandos struck out.

Elsewhere in the NL, Cincinnati outslugged St. Louis 11-6, Chicago overpowered Milwaukee 5-2, Pittsburgh whipped Houston 6-1 after losing 6-3 and Los Angeles trounced New York 6-1, then played a 1-1 tie when rain washed out the game after five innings.

Gene Stephens, who made a living in the '50s as Ted Williams' caddy in the Boston Red Sox outfield, earns his major league paycheck these days with a set of clubs.

Stephens' pinch single in the eighth inning drove in the winning run Sunday as Chicago nipped Detroit 2-1 and completed a doubleheader sweep.

There was a time when all Stephens needed to earn his keep in the big time was a ready glove. That was in the twilight of Williams' fabulous American League career. The Splendid Splinter would start in left field, do his damage at the plate, and then let Stephens handle the fielding for the last few innings.

But when Williams retired in 1960, Stephens had to come up with something more than a five-fingered piece of leather to keep his job. It took him three years and a trip to the minors but he appears to have done it.

Chicago Manager Al Lopez remembered Stephens' bat in the eighth inning of Sunday's second game against Detroit. The White Sox had taken the opener 8-3 but were trailing 1-0 against Hank Aguirre in the nightcap.

Floyd Robinson led off the eighth and reached on Jake Wood's error. A balk and a sacrifice moved Robinson to third and he scored on Ron Hansen's single. Don Buford's single put the winning run in scoring position and Lopez called for Stephens.

The veteran outfielder singled to left, delivering Hansen with the winning run and completing the sweep for the Chisox.

The double victory coupled with Minnesota's 5-2 victory over Baltimore put the White Sox in first place, a half-game in front of the Orioles. Elsewhere in the AL, New York whacked Los Angeles 9-3, Boston and Kansas City split with the Red Sox winning the first 9-5 and the A's taking the second 8-6, and Cleveland split a pair with Washington, winning the first 3-2 in 15 innings and losing the nightcap 6-3.

Twice the 21-year-old swinger ran up five-hole advantages as he swept to his first state title.

He beat Randy Geismann of Houston 4 and 3 with that method in the semifinals. Then in the finals Sunday he took a five-up lead in the first 18 holes and eased in with a 2 and 1 victory over rallying Richard Yates of Corpus Christi for the title.

'No Connection,' Ruby Tells Warren

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A clean-shaven but "wild-eyed" Jack Ruby told Chief Justice Earl Warren Sunday he had no connection with Lee Harvey Oswald, whom he shot two days after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

This was reported by a reliable source after Warren spent more than three hours with Ruby in the Dallas County Jail.

It was believed the first time a chief justice of the United States ever took testimony from a prisoner in jail.

Warren and other members of the Warren Commission toured the Texas School Book Depository Building, from where the assassin is alleged to have fired rifle bullets at Kennedy, as well as Oswald's rooming house and Ruby's apartment.

They also visited the Texas Theater, where Oswald was captured, and the intersection near by where police officer J. D. Tippitt was slain.

Oswald was charged with the murders of both Kennedy and Tippitt. Ruby is under the death sentence for slaying Oswald.

Details of the jail conference were not made public. However, it is known that Warren, J. Lee Rankin, commission counsel, and Rep. Gerald Ford, R-Mich., a commission member, asked Ruby if he knew Oswald and was there a conspiracy involved when he shot him.

Ruby reportedly replied in the negative. He also was asked about his trip to Cuba in the late 1950s, but his answers are not known.

Also present at the meeting were defense lawyer Joe Tonahill, Asst. Dist. Atty. A. D. Jim Bowie, and a commission stenographer.

Tonahill told a news conference that Ruby appeared humbled to be in Warren's presence. Ruby and Warren shook hands at the start and close of the conference, Tonahill said.

Tonahill said Ruby responded to many questions but that his answers were not always intelligent.

"I wasn't at all pleased with how Jack performed," Tonahill told reporters.

The commission was appointed by President Johnson to investigate all aspects of the assassination.

Warren and his group spent two hours before noon in the book depository, which is across the street from the jail. A long covered object—believed to have been the assassination rifle—was carried into the building, and Warren reportedly sighted down the weapon from the sixth-floor window where Oswald allegedly fired the assassination bullets.

Robert Storey, one of two Texas members on the commission, joined Warren and the others in the jail. The group went to Storey's home briefly after leaving Viet Catholics Demonstrate Against U.S.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Thousands of Vietnamese Roman Catholics demonstrated for three hours in downtown Saigon Sunday, threatening the embattled country with new religious-political turmoil.

Many demonstrators carried banners denouncing U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, although organizers of the rally said the anti-Lodge banners were not authorized.

Other banners called Buddhism an ally of communism. A few placards thanked the United States for its aid in the fight against Communist guerrillas.

The anti-Lodge demonstrators accused the ambassador of supporting the Buddhists in their campaign against President Ngo Dinh Diem's regime, which was overthrown last November. Diem, his family and many of his leading officials were Roman Catholics and the church had a favored position under his regime.

The demonstration brought out an estimated 40,000 persons on the morning after the sentencing of a Catholic army officer whose troops fired on Buddhist demonstrators in Hue last year. Eight persons died in the clash, which set off the Buddhist campaign against Diem.

Maj. Dang Sy, 37, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Some Catholics think he is being offered as a scapegoat to South Viet Nam's Buddhist majority.

U.S. BUILDINGS

Most of the demonstrators assembled in a square before the U.S. Information Agency building and a U.S. officers' mess. Some had come 25 miles on foot from a Catholic resettlement area for refugees from Communist North Viet Nam. The resettlement area is a stronghold of anti-government sentiment.

A small group broke away and tried to pull down a memorial plaque to President John F. Kennedy. The square, in front of Saigon's Catholic cathedral, was renamed John F. Kennedy Square on May 30.

"This is holy ground in front of the cathedral," said a demonstrator. "We object to having it renamed after a politician."

Some Vietnamese Catholics blame the Kennedy administration for Diem's overthrow.

A pamphlet distributed at the rally charged that Lodge "exploited the so-called repression of Buddhists last year to overthrow the old regime. Now he is fomenting religious discrimination to create a new regime subservient to his own personal aims."

Some banners said: "Go home Cabot Lodge."

1♥ Pass 1♠ 2♦

What do you bid now?
A.—Double. Your hand should produce at least the equivalent of the defensive book and anything partner can add will be so much gravy. A big demerit to any one who bids two no trump.

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. While it is our practice sometimes to raise one no trump on only seven points plus a five suit, we would never do it on such a shabby suit as this. Partner requires too good a fit to make it a reasonable gamble.

Q. 4—As South you hold:
♠ 7 6 5 3 ♠ K Q 8 6 4 ♠ 3 ♠ Q J 10

The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
Pass 1♦ 1♥ Pass
Pass 2♣ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. Unfortunately there is no convenient action open to you; if partner had a very good hand he would have reopened the bidding with either a double or a jump bid. No game seems to be out of the question. Furthermore, his bidding indicates that you could expect very little spade support from him.

Q. 5—As South you hold:
♠ 6 ♠ A 5 2 ♠ A Q J ♠ K 10 8 6 4 3

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East
1♣ Pass 1♠ Pass
2♥ Pass 2♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. This looks like a complete misfit and one more bid could get you overboard. While it is true that you have adequate protection in the unbid suits, no trump seems unsound, for you have no place to develop tricks. Partner's hand figures to be at least as unbalanced as yours.

Q. 6—As South you hold:
♠ Q 10 ♠ AK 3 2 ♠ K Q J 9 7 ♠ K 8

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1♦ Pass 1♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—This is a close call between two no trump and two hearts with a slight preference for the former. This hand falls a point short of the textbook requirements for the jump bid. It possesses the compensating feature of a good five card suit plus the fitting Q-10 in partner's suit.

Q. 7—As South you hold:
♠ 7 6 ♠ AK 8 6 3 ♠ AQ 9 8 ♠ A 5

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
Pass Pass 1♥ Pass
4♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Five diamonds. Partner's jump to game after his initial pass indicates a hand that in support of hearts may be revalued at 14 or more points which with your 20 points could spell a slam. A Blackwood bid would be pointless because of the worthless doubton in spades. If, over five diamonds, partner merely returns to five hearts you may be able to pass.

Q. 8—As South you hold:
♠ A J 10 8 7 5 ♠ 6 ♠ K Q 9 6 4 3

The bidding has proceeded:
East South
Pass ?

What do you bid?
A.—Two clubs. This is admittedly irregular, but the call is made in anticipation of conserving space. The auction will likely reach four hearts before it gets back to you again and you will find that, had you chosen to overcall with one spade originally, you would now be forced to bid five clubs. With the initial overcall in clubs, however, you can conveniently bid four hearts and offer partner a choice of suits one level lower.

Chinese Immigrant Gets Degree At Age Of 68

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Sun Pei Lee, a native of China who put seven children through college, finally got his own degree—at age 68.

It took him so long, Lee said in an interview, because "we had to make a living." In gratitude for paying their way through college, his children financed his five and a half years at the University of Delaware.

He received a bachelor of science degree in agriculture Sunday becoming the oldest student ever to graduate from the University of Delaware.

"I will look for a job," said Lee. "I want to do what I have learned."

Speaker Tunnell Picks Up Backing

AUSTIN (AP)—Weekend runoff balloting appeared to have swelled the support for Byron Tunnell's bid for a second term as State House speaker in 1965.

Forces of Tunnell, a conservative, said at least two dozen more candidates considered favorable to the speaker were nominated in Saturday's Democratic runoff.

They predicted Tunnell might run up the highest margin ever compiled in a Texas House speaker's second-term try when the session opens next January. They said all but a handful of the 29 House candidates nominated Saturday were favorable to Tunnell.

Seventy-six Democratic House nominees will meet Republicans in the November general election.

In the only State Senate runoff, Midland's former State Rep. W. E. (Pete) Snelson defeated Rep. George Cook to advance against Dr. S. L. Abbott, El Paso Republican, in November.

Cook, chairman of the Oil and Gas Committee, is serving his third House term.

Seven of 15 House incumbents lost Saturday. In all, 109 House members will be seeking another term in the general election.

The most experienced legislator defeated in Saturday's voting was Rep. Homer Koliba of Columbus, vice chairman of the Constitutional Amendments Committee. He lost to Charles H. Jungmichel of LaGrange.

One veteran legislator who did not serve in the 1963 session won nomination for another race. He is DeWitt L. Hale of Corpus Christi, sponsor of educational legislation, who beat Mrs. W. L. Lundgren.

Going Back To Mississippi

NEW YORK (AP)—After three weeks in New York City, an 18-year-old Negro from Mississippi says he's going back to Vicksburg.

"I'd rather wait on tables at $27 a week there than get my head kicked in here," said Larry Thomas.

Thomas was hailed as a hero by New York newspapers a week ago because he frightened off a gang of Negro boys who had attacked a white boy on a subway train. The Negroes ran when Thomas shouted, "The cops are coming!"

Thomas then helped the injured white youth, Howard Weiner, 16.

Thomas said Sunday he'd never seen anything like the subway assault in Mississippi.

"Once in a while a cop will hit someone alongside the head with a blackjack, but that's all," he said.

Ball, Butler Confer On Crisis Areas

LONDON (AP)—U. S. Under Secretary of State George Ball conferred today with Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler on the critical situation in Cyprus and Southeast Asia.

Ball arrived Sunday from Paris.

The two men had on their agenda the crisis in Cyprus, where President Makarios' government has announced plans for conscription. Turkey, gravely worried, has been talking of one-sided action to stop this move.

Ball and Butler also considered the difficult situation in Laos and Viet Nam and the dispute between Indonesia and Malaysia.

When the subject of Cyprus was being examined, Ball and Butler were joined by Commonwealth Relations Secretary Duncan Sandys.

The American also talked separately with Trade Secretary Edward Heath, who had returned especially from Geneva for the meeting. Their discussion covered problems facing the United Nations conference on trade and development and prickly questions of East-West trade.

Ball discussed with the British some time ago American objections to the sale of British buses to Cuba. It seemed clear that on this occasion he and Heath considered the projected sale of a nuclear reactor by the United States to Communist Romania.

Police Are Holding Burglary Suspect

Police were holding at noon today a 27-year-old suspect in the burglary of Bud and Joe's Liquor Store, 501 NW 3rd. Someone forced entry into the building this morning and took several bottles of whisky.

The suspect was arrested at 2:21 a.m. in the 900 block of Lamesa Drive, by Officers B. L. Johnston and Travis Long, for a routine traffic violation. A search of the car turned up 173 bottles of whisky, which were turned over to Bill Flynn, district supervisor of the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Detective A. P. Hurley said the suspect has served two terms in the state penitentiary. An empty money sack from Midland National Bank also was recovered, Hurley said.

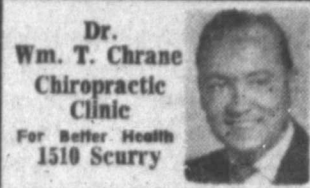

Burglary of the liquor store was not reported until about three hours after the arrest of the suspect. Police said he will be charged with violations of the Liquor Control Act and traffic laws. In addition, he is being held for questioning in connection with the burglary.

Strikers Disdain Terms Of Wire Plant Settlement

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP)—The Essex Wire Corp. strike moved into a 101st day today after failure of a proposed settlement pact to win strikers' approval of its full terms.

The strikers, members of the International Union of Electrical Workers, sent the package back to their bargaining committee Sunday night in an action described by union representatives as unanimous.

"The members were just as unanimous as the day (March 28) they walked out of the plant," said George Gould, IUE international representative.

Hillsdale Local 810 of the IUE pulled out its 180 Essex Wire production workers in a dispute over a first contract with the company.

Next steps to get the parties back together were not yet clear.

Gov. George W. Romney, who played a big role in prior negotiations, had no immediate comment on the new turn in events.

Romney, shuttling between Michigan and Cleveland for the National Governors Conference at the Ohio city, returned to Michigan Sunday night just in time to hear of the union's action. Romney had a breakfast date in Detroit today with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Two hundred National Guardsmen remained on patrol in the factory strike zone with Romney's 10-day-old state of emergency order still effective.

Details of the four-year-contract proposal were not disclosed in full.

A Devotional For The Day

Your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. (Matthew 6:8.)

PRAYER: Our Father, we thank Thee for the prayer Thy Son taught us. Help us to pray it this day and to offer our own words of praise and gratitude. Grant us the guidance we must have if we would find strength and help in time of need. In the Savior's name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Correction, Please

One of the matters which should be tackled and settled promptly by the Texas Legislature is that of the absentee voting period for the runoff primaries.

Under the revisions applicable this year, only seven days are permitted for absentee voting. As a practical matter, the total is five, for two of the days were Saturday and Sunday when the clerk's office is closed. Another day was whittled off due to Memorial Day falling within this period. After all was said and done, there were only four days left for absentee voting.

This is not only unsatisfactory, it is intolerable. Anyone whose vacation happened to fall outside the week of absentee voting was just out of luck.

The law should be amended promptly to allow for at least two full weeks of absentee balloting.

Whatever Happened To The Idea?

What's the popular movie title — "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane?"

Well, whatever happened to our efforts to stimulate some action for revitalizing and renovating our downtown section?

There seems to be an apathy which parallels a gradual attrition against the heart of the city's commercial enterprise. A business peels off here, a professional office breaks away there, and gradually the erosion leaves the district less dynamic and weakened.

Perhaps the situation isn't worth worrying about if so, an open, honest admission to this effect will clear the air and permit us to move on to other problems.

But if it is worth worrying about, then it is worth doing something about. It can't be that merchants and others are unwilling to cooperate because we have just witnessed two projects which demonstrated anew that or merchants can and will rally to cooperative effort when challenged.

Much can be done to revitalize our downtown area, if those whose property is affected are willing to examine the matter realistically and to proceed boldly and even officially.

'THIS LOOKS LIKE A MAINSTREAM TO ME'

Holmes Alexander The Humphrey-Baldwin Show

WASHINGTON — Senator Hubert Humphrey and Negro James Baldwin gave their childhood stories on television the other night for the purpose, it would seem of telling what's wrong with America and, in an inverted way, they succeeded.

THE TROUBLE with America is that anyone should think disturbed childhoods spring from Northwestern hick towns or from Harlem slums. The wilderness of youth is not environmental, it is universal. A boy can be as inverted as Proust in fairly refined conditions, or as happy as Huck Finn in destitution. The kingdom is within himself.

The Humphrey story, I take it, is to show how the Great Depression, and the failure of his father's business, became the making of a liberal statesman. But my own father, and Senator Harry Byrd, who were born within a few miles of one another in the Shenandoah Valley, grew up in economic conditions that were not only depressed, but "reconstructed" as only a Southerner knows that word.

NOT FOR A moment should the American public be lulled into thinking that Senator Humphrey is a bleeder for liberal causes because he saw what President Hoover didn't do for dispossessed farmers and bankrupt merchants and salesmen. The experiences and observations which turned Roosevelt were not the less sincere because they were inborn, a part of his character and, I venture to say, opportunistic. It is inconceivable that a silver spoon in Humphrey's mouth would have made him a white less liberal than it made Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

AS TO James Baldwin, I recall that Joseph Hergesheimer once declared that nobody ever became a creative writer unless he'd had an unhappy childhood. But unhappiness is not a result of economics. Baldwin was born to write. His emotional propellant, as he tells it on TV, was self-pity and its derivative fuel hatred. He hated white people, and he hated them from the viewpoint of an American Negro, the grandson of a slave. But peasants in other lands have hated nobles, and nobles have hated royalty, and privileged children have hated their nurses and schoolteachers, from the same combination of envy and rebelliousness that motivated Baldwin.

TO HEAR Him tell it, his father was a pious tyrant, but Baldwin perce couldn't have been any worse than the father whom the well-to-do Samuel Butler gives us in "The Way of All Flesh." Baldwin didn't get the way he is because of being an American Negro raised in the Harlem slums. Lots of colored boys came out of the same environments

James Marlow GOP Leaders Show Sudden New Life

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Sen. Barry Goldwater wins the Republican presidential nomination, to a large extent it's because he showed vitality. Almost without exception other Republican leaders sat back, keeping hands off. Now they're stirred up.

The exception was New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. He and Goldwater wanted the nomination and fought for it. None of the others appeared to lift a finger except Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, who never had a chance.

NO WONDER Rockefeller looked sardonically Sunday at some of those others—like Michigan Gov. George Romney and Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton—who now suddenly seem disturbed that Goldwater may win.

They showed no concern before when Rockefeller and Goldwater were battling and might ruin each other. Now they do when Goldwater may clinch the nomination before the Republican convention meets in July.

Even former Vice President Richard M. Nixon sounds more vigorous about being a candidate.

And former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who said he would express no preference and has kept hands off all these months, now has appealed to Scranton to make himself available for the nomination.

HE CAN SAY his nudge to Scranton isn't expressing preference, since he had previously said he wants convention del-

To Your Good Health Some Medical Research Projects Valuable

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. Skimming through the little magazine, "Medicine at Work," I happened upon the quotation of a remark by Prof. Paul B. Sears, of Yale, as follows:

"We have had a rash of ridicule at research projects which seem unrelated to practical life. Around 1915 the humorists had a field day over a thesis at Johns Hopkins entitled, 'A Proper Diet for White Mice.'"

The jokesmiths used to have a lot of fun with Albert Einstein's abstruse theories, albeit with a certain measure of respect underlying them, but I haven't heard any since atomic power came out of his theories.

A scientist for whom I worked as a young man used to tell about the ridicule heaped on public health inspectors who went around getting samples of water from community pumps. Sometimes they had to sneak up to the pumps at night because of public outcry against them. But that was the key to stopping typhoid.

Only the other day an outstanding surgeon explained how some of the modern heart operations are performed and how they were developed. He dropped the phrase, "Another result of experiments with dogs. That's where ALL of this came from."

Doubtless, if anyone with a taste for ridiculing such things, had noticed it at the time, there might have been some smart-aleck jokes about the money spent in learning how to grow chicken pox germs. "What do we want them for?" somebody might have asked.

Well, learning how to grow chicken pox virus showed how to grow polio virus, too, and that was a vital step in making it possible to make polio vaccine. (The "chicken pox grows" won a Nobel Prize for their work.)

I suppose there are some worthless research projects — but not if it can be helped by people who award money for these projects. They try, naturally, to be sure that every project is potentially valuable.

Much heart trouble is preventable. Write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald for your copy of his booklet, "How To Take Care of Your Heart," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

WHEN YOU pass through an attractive little town, you'll say to yourself: "Gee, why do I stay where I am when I could just as well live in a place like this." But home looks better than ever when you go back.

You'll pick up the paper after gaining lodging in one big city to read of a crime wave and wonder if that city may not be more evil than any community in the world.

You will be served by at least one surly waitress, who will look very pained if you ask for catsup with the meal. Then you'll wonder where she went while the meal is being prepared.

YOU WILL wonder if someone has jimmied a window at home and made off with your TV set or vandalized your place.

At least one time, you'll find you've rented a motel room located square between a railroad and a truck route.

You'll be disappointed with some scenery that looked so pretty in the brochures.

YOU WILL find you look far too many and the wrong kind of clothes and will begin to wonder if you brought enough money.

Rain will keep you confined to your lodgings at least one night.

You'll try to find TV programs on your motel or hotel set that you can't ordinarily get at home.

You will count on visiting a night club or horse track only to discover it is shut down for repairs or closed for the season and wonder "why does this always happen to me?"

YOU'LL LEAVE at least two items in a motel room somewhere along the way.

You'll see people who refuse to talk to anyone sitting in full dress about the swimming pool, seemingly very intent with a paperback novel.

You will spend part of your time wondering if anything is happening back home that you should know about.

Around The Rim

It Happens On Vacation—

Things that likely will happen on your upcoming vacation:

Your wife will wonder aloud after you get 100 miles down the road if she turned off the fire in the oven.

You'll pass two comfortable-looking motels and think perhaps you could have gotten a better rate there than the one where you'll wind up staying.

Your wife will say again that she feels a little guilty because the family didn't spend part of the time with her people.

YOU'LL GO into a motel restaurant and immediately be horrified at the prices of the regular dinners. At least one member of the family, probably the wife, will wind up ordering a toasted cheese sandwich and a glass of milk.

If you go to a night club, you will wonder why one of the star attractions is being paid $20,000 a week and when you see your bill you'll know.

WHEN YOU pass through an attractive little town, you'll say to yourself: "Gee, why do I stay where I am when I could just as well live in a place like this." But home looks better than ever when you go back.

You'll pick up the paper after gaining lodging in one big city to read of a crime wave and wonder if that city may not be more evil than any community in the world.

You will be served by at least one surly waitress, who will look very pained if you ask for catsup with the meal. Then you'll wonder where she went while the meal is being prepared.

YOU WILL wonder if someone has jimmied a window at home and made off with your TV set or vandalized your place.

At least one time, you'll find you've rented a motel room located square between a railroad and a truck route.

You'll be disappointed with some scenery that looked so pretty in the brochures.

YOU WILL find you look far too many and the wrong kind of clothes and will begin to wonder if you brought enough money.

Rain will keep you confined to your lodgings at least one night.

You'll try to find TV programs on your motel or hotel set that you can't ordinarily get at home.

You will count on visiting a night club or horse track only to discover it is shut down for repairs or closed for the season and wonder "why does this always happen to me?"

YOU'LL LEAVE at least two items in a motel room somewhere along the way.

You'll see people who refuse to talk to anyone sitting in full dress about the swimming pool, seemingly very intent with a paperback novel.

You will spend part of your time wondering if anything is happening back home that you should know about.

David Lawrence European Reaction To Goldwater

WASHINGTON — News dispatches say that many European newspapers reacted with dismay over the victory of Senator Goldwater in the California presidential primary election. Why was there such a sharp reaction in Europe? The answer to the question may reveal some unpleasant truths about the world situation, particularly the rise of commercialism and the decline of idealism in Europe. For appeasers are nowadays in the ascendancy abroad.

MANY EUROPEANS are afraid that if Senator Goldwater is elected President, he might have a courageous Secretary of State like John Foster Dulles. Also, Europeans do not understand the deep-seated feeling of voters in many parts of America over the fact that a prospering Western Europe is paying so little of the bill to maintain peace in the world.

Most European newspapers have a way of accepting as gospel what the so-called "liberals" in America say on national and international affairs. The impression abroad is that the United States will continue to bear by itself the brunt of every international problem and that the financial and commercial assistance now given by European countries to the Communist regimes is gradually but surely being adopted as American policy as well.

IT IS ABSURD to suggest, as some European papers have done, that Senator Goldwater or any other prominent American today favors a reversion to earlier American policies of "isolation." No prominent American today supports such a doctrine because it is recognized how inter-related world affairs have become. There is instead a distinct feeling in the United States that America is involuntarily being isolated by European policy-makers and that the new isolation results in this country carrying the load.

total vote thus far in the primaries far exceeds that which John F. Kennedy had received in his pre-convention campaign of 1960, and this is due largely to the resentment prevalent in this country about the war in Southeast Asia. Americans are wondering why their sons must make the sacrifices in Viet Nam while the rest of the free world stands idly by.

THE EUROPEAN press might have studied carefully, too, why the "foreign aid" program has had such a hard time in Congress. It might have been noted that, ever since World War II ended, the United States has consistently furnished billions and billions of dollars for the rebuilding of Europe. Now that prosperity has been achieved there, resentment is growing in America that the Europeans do not seem inclined to pay their share, either in money or in lives, to maintain peace in the world.

European statesmen would do well also to watch the campaign carefully, because, irrespective of whether Senator Goldwater wins the nomination or the election, the reaction of the American people to foreign policy will have much to do with the result and its aftermath. For the American people are getting tired of carrying the burden alone in world affairs.

IT IS ABSURD to suggest, as some European papers have done, that Senator Goldwater or any other prominent American today favors a reversion to earlier American policies of "isolation." No prominent American today supports such a doctrine because it is recognized how inter-related world affairs have become. There is instead a distinct feeling in the United States that America is involuntarily being isolated by European policy-makers and that the new isolation results in this country carrying the load.

Richard Starnes The Truth About Southeast Asia

WASHINGTON — A prayer for Viet Nam today would be for the resurrection of the straight forward, plain-talking likes of the late Gen. Vinegar Joe Stilwell, a man with the guts to look death in the eye and describe it for what it was.

It is clear that the immediate threat in Southeast Asia is what we here with dub the candor gap — the gaping chasm between public happy-talk and private reality regarding approaching disaster in the Western Pacific.

THE HONOLULU conference is not likely to change this; every top official has a vested interest in perpetuating the mythology of ultimate victory over the Viet Cong guerrillas.

It would take old Vinegar Joe no time at all to sum up the calamity in Southeast Asia: We've taken a hell of a licking, our proxy war is a shambles, the exhaustion of our policies can no longer be hidden in a misnomer of official double-talk.

It is nonsense to echo the hand-wringers who warn that Laos is being lost. It was lost at the Geneva conference two years ago, and what is happening now is merely the leisurely ratification that all realists knew would come.

SOUTH VIET NAM is heading for the same fate. It cannot be saved by more of the same supportive therapy that has been such a spectacular failure to date. At most, American involvement has delayed the time-table of Communist conquest — it has not derailed it. The let's- you - and-him-fight formula that worked so well in saving Greece from Communist guerrillas has not worked in South-east Asia. Its failure presages awesome problems in free world attempts to save Malaysia, Indonesia and the Philippines, all of which will have to be saved if the Western Pacific is not to become a Communist lake.

THE THING that is easy to forget about the war in South Viet Nam is that there has been no dramatic change in the lineup or in the tactics of the Viet Cong invaders. The succeeding waves of coup and counter-coup, the frenetic patchwork, the air of unreality of the war effort in South Viet Nam has had no counterpart in the North. American policy planners who told us six months ago that victory could be expected in 1965, and that our forces could be cut by 1,000 by the end of 1964, cannot point to any significant change in Viet Cong to justify the defeat that is emerging from the promises of victory.

THE NORTH Vietnamese are doing substantially what they have been doing all along, and they are winning. The obvious corollary scarcely needs stating — let the United States keep on doing what it has been doing, and it will keep on losing.

It is possible that no formula for victory can be devised. It is not, in the nature of things that 100 million Americans, however technically advanced, can readily impose their will on 700 million Chinese. It is wholly unrealistic to suppose that it can be done by bombast and rhetoric, in any event. It surely cannot be done without a major national effort, and that sort of effort cannot be evoked by leaders who are unwilling to share the truth with the people.

In The Dark

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—An unknown kite flier put lots of people in the dark recently. The metal string of the kite ran into a high tension line and knocked out power to about 375 customers for an hour. A spokesman for Kentucky Utilities company said anyone had been holding the kite string when it hit the power line would have been killed.

24 Claimed By Violence

By The Associated Press
 Weekend violence across Texas killed 24 persons, four of them drowning victims. Traffic claimed 15 lives.

Vernon Groze, 13, a Lufkin girl, died after three cars collided Sunday in Lufkin. Six persons were seriously injured.

Jack William Sherman, 16, of Booth, Tex., was killed early Sunday when his car plunged into Big Creek on Farm 762 six miles south of Richmond.

Three persons were killed in a car-pickup truck collision near Lamesa Saturday. They were Mrs. Martha Johnson of Lamesa, her year-old son, Sammie, and an occupant of the truck, Darrell Sutt, 36, of Odessa.

Three persons were killed Saturday night in a two-car collision 16 miles west of Fredericksburg, U.S. 290. They were Benny Severn, 61, of New Orleans; his wife, 59; and an occupant of the other car, Joseph Holt, 37, of Austin.

SHOT TO DEATH
 Two persons were shot to death Saturday. They were Mrs. Margaret Ray, 39, of Tyler, and Richard Bullard of Ben Wheeler.

Police charged Mrs. Ray's husband with murder. Bullard was shot after an argument at a restaurant.

Two children drowned Saturday. Debra Holman, 6, drowned while playing in Benbrook Lake near Fort Worth. Rocky Cooper, 7, was drowned while wading in a lake near Snyder.

Dale Sullenger, 18, died in Beaumont early Saturday after his car struck a culvert on Interstate 10 near Vidor.

Rance Brown, 4, of Port Aransas was electrocuted at his home when he touched an air conditioning drain pipe.

BOAT CAPSIZES
 John Meadows, 24, of San Antonio drowned at Lake McQueeney near Seguin Sunday as he tried to rescue a companion after a boat carrying four men capsized. The companion, Roy Martinez, 23, was picked up by a passing boat. The other two swam to safety.

John Empson, 36, of Houston drowned Sunday in the Gulf while attempting to save his daughter, 2, who tumbled out of a boat during a family outing. His wife jumped in the water and got the baby, who was revived.

Mrs. Josephine Sorenson, 42, was found dead Sunday in her car which had plunged into a bayou near the Manned Spacecraft Center at Houston.

Three Odessa youngsters died Friday night. James Hester, 15, was killed when a panel truck struck the horse he was riding. Jimmy Ramirez, 11, a passenger in the truck, died as the vehicle overturned and caught on fire.

SCALDED
 An 18-month-old girl—Tina Elena Goff—was scalded to death when her older brother, 3, turned on hot water while she was in the bathtub.

Richard Eugene Arms, 35, of Fort Worth was killed Sunday in a car-truck collision in Lubbock. His wife, two small sons and the driver of the pick-up truck were injured.

Laura Bunch, 7, was struck by a car and killed in Fort Worth Sunday. She was the daughter of Marine Sgt. and Mrs. Albert Bunch.

Charleton Long, of Chisholm, near Terrell, was killed Sunday when a car slipped off the jack and pinned him under the car.

Isidor Hernandez, 58, of San Antonio, was burned to death in a fire at his home Saturday.

Jazz Pianist Dies In Crash

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Jazz pianist Meade (Lux) Lewis wound up his engagement in a suburban night club Sunday, drove onto the highway and was killed seconds later in an automobile collision.

Jimmy Dobbins, 19, Minneapolis, a passenger in the second car, was injured fatally.

Lewis, 58, of Los Angeles, was considered one of the top boogie-woogie pianists. Critics credited the bulky, jovial musician with advancing the form from a simple folk art in the 1920s into a highly expressive and complex music.

"Honky Tonk Train Blues," which Lewis wrote in 1923, was his most famous composition. Lewis recorded the piece in 1929. It didn't become popular until several years later jazz promoter John Hammond heard the tune, searched for the composer, and found Lewis working as a car washer in a Chicago garage.

Lewis became popular again, played one recital in New York's Carnegie Hall, and "Honky Tonk Train Blues" became a standard for boogie-woogie pianists.

Vandals Smash King's Cottage

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—Vandals smashed furniture and set bed clothing afire Sunday night in a cottage rented for the summer by Dr. Martin Luther King who has said he may summon a "nonviolent army" here for massive demonstrations.

King was in New York. King, director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was here Friday for a conference with Negroes. He said at the time he commands a nonviolent army of whites and Negroes waiting to come here and demonstrate against segregation.

Senators File Closure Move On Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thirty-eight senators filed a petition today to close off the Senate's record filibuster against the House-passed civil rights bill. The petition to invoke the Senate's debate-limiting closure rule was sent to the desk by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana and will automatically come to a vote one hour after the Senate meets on Wednesday.

In hopes of winning the two-thirds majority necessary to put the rule into effect, leaders yielded to the demands of a group of Republicans to permit the Senate to vote first on some key amendments to the House-passed bill.

Under an agreement nailed down Saturday, debate on these amendments will be limited to four hours each. The votes on them will be taken Tuesday.

All this suggests a possibly decisive turning point in the long legislative battle, now in its 73rd day and 14th week.

With the Senate moving toward a showdown on civil rights, the House will take up Tuesday a $3.5-billion foreign aid authorization bill. This is the full amount asked by President Johnson in what he termed a "barebones request."

On tap for House action later in the week is a measure to extend for another year beyond June 30 a variety of federal excise taxes imposed during the Korean war. Involved is an estimated $1.9 billion in federal revenues.

An Associated Press poll shows 69 senators disposed to vote for closure, 29 opposed and 11—nine Republicans and two Democrats—uncommitted. This was a pick-up of four votes since an AP poll two weeks ago.

Opinion Sought On Pit Disposal

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas attorney general's office was expected to tell anxious oilmen today, for the second time, whether the water pollution control board may regulate the disposal of oilfield brine.

Many oilmen, objecting to regulatory actions of the board, contend that only the Texas Railroad Commission has the authority to say how and where operators must dispose of oilfield wastes.

On Oct. 31, 1962, however, the attorney general held that the board also has jurisdiction in these matters.

That opinion came less than a year after the 56th legislature set up the six-man board.

On March 21, 1963, the board issued its first order prohibiting operators from disposing of salt water, which comes to the surface with oil, in unlined surface pits. The first so-called no-pit order applied to Yoakum County in South Texas.

In recent months the board has issued similar orders for 10 High Plains counties, overlying the vast Ogallala formation which is an underground fresh water source for that area of the state.

The oil industry, in general, protested the public hearings on the Ogallala. One oil company's attorney said the hearings were unconstitutional.

Amid these objections, the Railroad Commission asked the attorney general to reconsider the 1962 opinion.

A special six-member committee of the attorney general's office met May 14 to hear arguments on the opinion. It was scheduled to meet again today, and probably would release a decision, said Asst. Atty. Gen. V. V. Geppert.

At the first meeting of the committee, Harry Dippel of Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, said:

"A severe shock wave hit the oil industry when it found there was a second state agency exercising authority over waste disposal, and that it had to supply information to the pollution control board which it already had given to the railroad commission."

Barry Expected To Climb Near 600 Mark This Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's drive for Republican presidential nomination is expected to near the 600 mark this week as 146 delegates are chosen in 10 states.

With the GOP convention opening five weeks from today, the Arizona senator has 535 first ballot votes according to an Associated Press survey of delegates already chosen. He needs just 120 more—655—for a first ballot victory.

Indications are that Goldwater will pick up enough votes this week to boost his front running total near the 600 mark and set the stage for the last two state conventions next week in Montana and Texas.

ENOUGH TO WIN

Goldwater will be favored to win most of those delegates, apparently giving him enough to win the nomination.

But Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., said Sunday he thought Goldwater would be from 80 to 100 votes short of a first ballot nomination, and he envisioned "quite a contest."

While attention is on the GOP presidential nomination race, candidates for two governorships, three Senate seats and 10 House seats will be decided by voters or party conventions in five states.

Goldwater's post-California primary drive got under way over the weekend at State conventions in Colorado, Alabama, Washington and Hawaii and at a pair of district conventions in Virginia. Combined with some minor vote shifts in Iowa and the District of Columbia, he netted 65 votes, according to the AP survey based on primary commitments, pledges, instructions or stated preference.

STANDINGS

The field shaped this way:
Goldwater 535
Nelson A. Rockefeller 128
William W. Scranton 85
Henry Cabot Lodge
Richard M. Nixon 15
Margaret Chase Smith
Favorite sons 92

Uncommitted 209
Indiana Republicans meet today and Tuesday to elect 32 GOP delegates, but their votes have already been credited to Goldwater, under state law, because of his May 5 preferential primary victory there.

New York's Republican state committee meets Thursday and is expected to name 10 at-large delegates favorable to Rockefeller to go with the 76 district delegates he won in last week's primary. The New York governor also picked up five votes Sunday from the Puerto Rican delegation.

CONVENTIONS

Goldwater is expected to face rough sledding in his attempts to muster support at the Minnesota convention beginning Thursday, the Maryland convention Friday and the Connecticut convention Friday and Saturday. At stake are 46 votes.

But Goldwater is viewed by political leaders in Missouri, Utah, New Mexico, Idaho and Virginia as the likely winner of most of their 58 votes to be decided in conventions Friday and Saturday.

There are other matters to be settled at state conventions this week:

Indiana — Republicans will nominate a Senate candidate from a field of three and a gubernatorial candidate from a field of seven. Two congressmen are in the running—Rep. Donald C. Bruce for the Senate and Rep. William G. Bray for governor. Democrats, meeting Thursday and Friday, are expected to renominate Sen. Vance Hartke for a second term and choose a gubernatorial nominee from among five candidates.

Utah—Republicans will either endorse or nominate candidates for Senate, House and governor. Under a new state law, the top two men at the convention go on the August primary ballot unless one of them gets an endorsement by 80 per cent of the state convention delegates.

There are only two candidates for the Senate—Rep. Sherman P. Lloyd and Ernest L. Wilkinson, former president of Brigham Young University. Neither is expected to get 80 per cent. Five men seek the nod for governor, including former Gov. J. Bracken Lee, State Publicity Director D. James Cannon and former GOP National Committeeman Michell Melich.

Connecticut — Republicans are expected to nominate former Gov. John Davis Lodge without opposition for the Senate seat held by Thomas J. Dodd. Dodd already has won Democratic nomination for a second term.

South Carolina — Democrats vote in a primary election Tuesday on six House candidates. Only two of the incumbents — Robert T. Ashmore and W.J.B. Dorn—have primary opposition. But there's a four-way race for the nomination to the seat vacated by Robert W. Hemphill, who quit to become a federal judge.
