

City To Show What It Has To Offer Industry

A concentrated program to line up important "sales" in presenting Big Spring's opportunities for industrial development will occur here Monday, June 22.

An all-day affair which includes bus tours, briefings, and luncheon and dinner sessions is being sponsored by the Industrial Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Object is to acquaint some outside business leaders with what the city now has in the way of industry and in other community assets, and to outline what the community can offer other industry which might want to locate in West Texas.

Invited to spend the day here for "Operation Building Big Spring" are financial, utility, transportation and news representatives, mostly from Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and Amarillo. Responses to all invitations have not been received, but it is likely a dozen will be here for the day.

George McAlister, chairman of the Industrial Development Committee, will head up the tour and preside for the luncheon session.

In the afternoon, the bus tour will include the plants of the industrial complex east of town—Cosden, Grace, Sid Richardson and Cabot—and later will take in the airport and the Gamco operations.

The tour is to conclude at the First Federal Savings and Loan building, where in the community room Clark is to give his critique.

All the out-of-town visitors, plus any Big Spring, will gather for a hospitality hour and dinner, beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Cosden Club. John Taylor, C-C president, will be in charge of that program.

"We are endeavoring, with this all-day effort, to show Texas as leaders who might influence location of industries, just what Big Spring has, and just what it can offer," said Taylor. "We regard it as an important part of the continuing program to keep our city growing through new payrolls, new business and new community investments."

Water Project Is Completed

LAMESA (SC)—City officials found everything satisfactory here Thursday after inspecting the major features of a huge waterworks improvement program.

Except for making adjustments, the gigantic project has been completed by four contractors under the supervision of the city consultant engineers, Parkhill, Smith & Cooper of Lubbock.

The contractors, their specific parts of the program and estimated costs: R. B. Butler Co., Bryan, two pump stations and a million gallon ground storage tank, $143,975; Pan-die Construction Co., downtown water distribution pipeline and fire hydrants, $39,485; Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Co., overhead storage tank (500,000 gallon), $71,830; and Samsco, San Antonio, a 250,000 gallon overhead storage tank, $14,016.

Seven tanks are now being electroplated but the work will not be completed until September. Estimated cost is $8,437.

Rescuer Falls To His Death

Seeds Of Slums Seen In Boom Of Apartments

By LEE JONES
The Texas apartment boom may contain seeds of future slums, some architects say. The boom is massive. In 1959, only 667 permits were issued. Last year the total for Texas was 39,213. "Our cities are being deeply harmed by mass coverage of relatively temporary, cheap construction of grossly misdescribed 'garden type' apartments," says the president of the Texas Society of Architects, George Pierce Jr. of Houston.

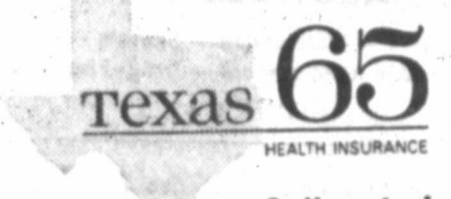

A professor of architecture, who asked not to be named, contends about 60 per cent of recent apartment construction is shoddy, with only about 15 per cent of excellent quality. The new apartments also have their defenders, who say such building is sound and often brings new life to decaying neighborhoods. "Most apartments I've seen are adequate as far as the construction goes. In order to get financing, the construction must be pretty good," said Steve Mathews, executive director of the Texas Municipal League, "and a lot of times new apartment houses rejuvenate an older area." "The architects are completely off base. The apartments I know are well designed," said Walter Carrington, an Austin builder of 250 individual apartments. If the critics are right, Texas cities may have to contend increasingly in future years with falling property values, rising fire insurance rates, municipal ugliness and other problems associated with decaying housing.

"Domestic architecture is not being built for permanence any more. It's a transient society," said Dean Richard Lillioitt Jr. of the University of Houston College of Architecture.

Asked if he sees a future slum problem in the new apartments, Lillioitt replied, "absolutely."

Rites Changed

KINGSTON, Ont. (AP) — The United Church of Canada here is doing away with the traditional wedding march "Here Comes the Bride" and replacing "thee" and "thou" in the wedding service with "you." The reform is described as an attempt to make the service more religious and modern.

Good grain yields have been reported from the nearly complete harvest. Fruit of good quality is moving to market and haying is under way. Livestock are in good condition but ranges need rain. ## Farmers, Stockmen Still Need General Rain

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — With few exceptions, Texas farmers and ranchmen are waiting a needed general rain, reports John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Cotton planting is nearly complete and heat was favorable for the crop. Corn and grain sorghum need rain at once, as do ranges in many areas, Hutchison said.

REPORTS

Midweek reports of district farm agents gave this summary:

Moisture in the Panhandle was still short. Dryland wheat is ready for harvest. Irrigated fields look fair to good. Most cotton has reached good stands and sorghum planting is progressing well. Vegetables are making normal progress. Range grass is very short.

Several South Plains counties had good rains but many areas are still dry. Irrigated cotton is up and some stands have been lost to hail and washouts. An estimated 60 per cent of the dryland cotton is planted. The rest of the acreage is too dry for planting. The wheat harvest has started. Irrigated sorghum is planted but dryland planting still awaits rain. Cattle generally are in good shape and ranges are improving.

Moisture is adequate in half of Rolling Plains counties. The wheat harvest and cotton planting are near completion.

ADEQUATE

Moisture is adequate in North Central Texas, where the grain harvest is being pushed. Good wheat yields are reported. Cotton, corn and sorghums are making excellent growth. Ranges and livestock are in good condition.

The northern section of Northeast Texas has adequate moisture but the southern sector needs rain. Hay is being baled.

tomatoes are being marketed and melons have set a good crop. Green beans are plentiful and some sweet corn is available.

The western half of the Southeast and Upper Gulf Coast District needs a good general rain but crops are looking good. Cotton is blooming and insect damage has been moderate. Tomatoes and sweet corn are being marketed.

Spotted showers failed to give the moisture needed in South Central Texas. Many dry spots remain. Baling yields are good. Cotton made good progress despite fleahoppers and grasshoppers. Much corn is now in the roasting ear stage and looks good.

Moisture is adequate in most South Texas counties but severe hail damage occurred last week in scattered areas of Dimmitt, Frio, LaSalle and Uvalde counties. Valley cotton is fruiting rapidly and the first bale is expected within two weeks. The peak is expected shortly in the valley's sorghum harvest. Ranges are improving and livestock generally are in good shape.

Youth Wins Honor Title

A Big Spring youth, Horace Wayne Clark, has been selected an honor privilege citizen at the West Texas Boys Ranch near San Angelo.

The recognition includes opportunity to work away from the ranch this summer. The summer work program is an effort to provide older boys an opportunity to develop additional skills, self-respect and extra money by working away from the ranch.

Clark has been a resident of the ranch about eight years. More than 60 youths live at the ranch, with another 16-20 working at jobs in other locations.

The ranch has recently opened a new vocational training building containing shops, a classroom and a library. The building was constructed with funds donated by Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Carr, San Angelo, and is named the Carr Building. The facilities will be used in teaching youths basic vocational skills, such as upholstery and remodeling of furniture.

More than 600 boys have lived at the ranch, which provides homeless, dependent or neglected youths with an institutional ranch-type home to aid them in becoming useful citizens.

Finsterwald Closing In On Buick Leader

By BERNIE KENNEDY Associated Press Sports Writer

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (AP)—Tony Lema bogied the last two holes and had to settle for a par 72 in the third round of the $66,000 Buick Open Golf Tournament Saturday.

Lema now faces a tough challenge from Dow Finsterwald, who fired a three-under-par 69 Saturday to move within two strokes of the leader. Lema wants to become the first pro golfer in almost two years to score back-to-back tournament victories.

Jack Nicklaus, who passed up the tourney here for extra practice rounds for next week's National Open, was the last pro to capture two consecutive tourneys when he won in Seattle and Portland, Ore. In September of 1962, Lema won the Thunderbird open last Sunday.

Lema, attracting an estimated 90 per cent of the more than 17,000 fans, did not find the 7,280-yard course as easy as he did in Friday's second round when he shot a 66.

But he had enough of the master touch left in the first nine and made the turn with a four-stroke lead over Mason Rudolph.

Rudolph faded on the back nine and shot a one-over par 73. Finsterwald might have been a lot closer had it not been for a 6 on the 432-yard ninth hole.

Finsterwald's second shot landed on the fairway but after taking his third shot a cloud of dirt arose and he shot a provisional ball, thinking that the area might have been ruled as ground under repair.

George Walsh, assistant tourney director, ruled that the ball was playable and Finsterwald had to take his 6.

"To say I was upset was putting it mildly," was Finsterwald's only remark about the ruling.

Giants Slam Brakes On Losing Streak

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Orlando Cepeda's two-run double in the seventh inning powered San Francisco past Milwaukee 6-4 Saturday, snapping the Giants' three-game losing streak.

Cepeda doubled off reliever Jack Smith after Willie Mays and Willie McCovey singled with two out.

The Giants had taken a 4-2 lead in the sixth on McCovey's single and Jim Hart's homer off starter Hank Fischer over the left field fence.

Milwaukee came back with two in the seventh on singles by pinch hitter Ty Cline and Hank Aaron sandwiched around Felipe Alou's second triple. The triple knocked starter Juan Marichal from the game.

Gordon Clark Is British Champion

GANTON, England (AP)—Gordon Clark, a 29-year-old English merchant, sank a six-foot birdie putt on the 39th hole Saturday and defeated defending champion Michael Lunt of England in the final of the British Amateur Golf Championship.

Lunt, a 29-year-old British Walker Cup player, was two up after 33 holes of the 36-hole final.

Then he dropped the 34th when he hooked into the gorse and the match became square on the 36th green, where Lunt three-putted.

The little-known Clark knocked out Dale Morrey, the 44-year-old former American Walker Cup player from High Point, N.C., 4 and 3 in the fifth round.

Clark and Lunt halved the 37th and 38th holes. At the 283-yard 39th hole Clark was short in two and in front of the green.

Lunt was to the left of the green and also short in two.

Lunt chipped short—about 20 feet from the hole—and Clark chipped six feet past the hole.

Lunt missed his putt and Clark sank a six-footer for a birdie and the match.

Lunt, one down after 18 holes, went out in 41-36-77 in the morning and Clark had 39-37-76.

In the afternoon Lunt had 37-38-75 and Clark 38-38-76. The par for the 6,854-yard Ganton course is 36-35-71.

Open Tourney Set Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is the week of the big one in golf —The U. S. Open. Oddly enough, as the tournament gets bigger, the number of players seriously given a chance to win gets smaller.

The field of 150, including 21 exempt players and 129 who survived local and sectional qualifying, tees off Thursday beginning at 7:45 a.m. EDT at the Congressional Country Club just outside Washington.

The field will be cut to the low 50 scores and ties after Friday's play. The remainder go 36 holes on Saturday.

This is the only major U. S. tournament that calls for two rounds in one day. And that is a good reason why only a dozen or so players are rated a chance to win.

Reds Ramble By Houston

HOUSTON (AP)—Bobby Klaus and John Edwards drove in two runs each Saturday as Cincinnati trounced Houston 6-1 for its eighth victory in the last 10 games.

Klaus hit his first major league home run in the fourth with none on, then tripled across Steve Boros in the eighth, Edwards belted three singles, sending home two runs in the third.

Jim Maloney won his fourth game in 11 decisions, scattering six hits. He walked two and struck out four.

Hal (Skinny) Brown suffered his seventh defeat against just one victory.

Devils Take 11-9 Win From Cards

The Devils rallied from an 8-2 deficit Saturday night in the National Little League and pushed across nine runs in the bottom of the fifth inning that assured them of an 11-9 triumph over the Cardinals.

Riley Falkner was the winner. R. B. Guinn paced the victory for the winners with three doubles while Marshall Horn had a double for the losers.

Mickey Mantle Hits Homer In Yank Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle hit his 11th home run and drove in two runs Saturday as the New York Yankees took the third straight game of their series with the American League leading Chicago White Sox 6-3.

Mantle, batting .571 right-handed and .216 left-handed for a combined average of .331, singled in the first, hit a homer into the right field bleachers in the fourth, walked intentionally in the fifth and singled in the seventh before leaving for pinch runner Hector Lopez.

Al Downing started for the Yankees but gave way to a pinch hitter in the fourth. Bill Stafford pitched into the ninth and was credited with his third victory. Pete Mikkelsen finished. Rookie Frank Kreuzer started a lefty making his first start of the year for the White Sox, left after four innings with the game tied, and relief man Hoyt Wilhelm was charged with his third defeat.

Robinson The Robber

Floyd Robinson, Chicago right fielder, tumbles over a barrier after snaring a long fly ball hit by New York Yankee Tom Tresh in the first inning of Saturday's game at New York's Yankee Stadium. The leaping catch robbed Tresh of a home run. Robinson fell into the stands but held the ball. The Yankees won the game, 6-3. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Tigers Shade Los Angeles Angels, 8-5

CHICAGO (AP) — Smokey Burgess slammed a three-run homer and Bob Bailey spanked two doubles and a triple in leading the Pittsburgh Pirates over the Chicago Cubs 10-7 Saturday.

Burgess' first homer of the season came in a five-run fifth which chased Lew Burdette, seeking his third straight victory since the Cubs acquired him recently from the St. Louis Cardinals.

Parks, Crutcher Are Included On Squad

CHICAGO (AP)—A 47-player collegiate squad, with emphasis on passing and big running backs, was selected Saturday to face the champion Chicago Bears of the National Football League in the 31st All-Star football game in Soldier Field Friday night, Aug. 7.

The squad was picked by Coach Otto Graham, whose All-Star squad last year handed the Green Bay Packers a stunning 20-17 setback.

Among the 33 schools represented on the brawny and talented squad, Southern California, Ohio State and Iowa lead in contributions with three each.

Eight other schools, including Pittsburgh, Nebraska, Michigan State, Penn State, Miami, Fla., Arizona State and unbeaten national champion Texas, each will be represented by two players.

Graham, himself a former star passer for the Cleveland Browns and now coach of the U.S. Coast Guard team, selected three sharp pitching quarterbacks. They are Miami's George Mira, Southern California's Pete Beathard and Jack Concannon of Boston College.

Two other quarterbacks, Mississippi's Perry Dunn and Texas' Duke Carlisle, most likely will be used defensively.

The heart of the squad is reflected in the fact that 24 of the 47 All-Stars weigh 230 pounds or more. Biggest is 290-pound Ken Kortas, University of Louisville tackle. Other typical pro types are Bob Brown, 260-pound guard from Nebraska; tackle Carl Eller and Jim Moran of Idaho, and end Mel Profit of UCLA, all scaling 255.

For receivers, Graham chose such swift and big targets as Hal Bedsole and Willie Brown of Southern California; Vern Burke of Oregon State; Dave Parks of Texas Tech and Al Krause of Iowa.

Parks was No. 1 choice in the National Football League draft last December and Concannon was first pick in the American Football League draft.

Graham assembles his squad at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., on July 16.

The collegiate squad included End David Parks, Texas Tech; Center Duke Carlisle, Texas; Joe Don Looney, Oklahoma; Jerry Richardson, West Texas State; and fullback Tommy Crutcher, TCU.

Yankees Get 11-4 Victory

The Yankees, taking advantage of Tommy Fletcher's triple and three-run homer, held past the Angels Friday night in the National Title League, 11-4.

Twins Downed By Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chuck Hinton drove in the tie-breaking run with a sixth-inning single as the Washington Senators downed the Minnesota Twins 4-2 Saturday.

For receivers, Graham chose such swift and big targets as Hal Bedsole and Willie Brown of Southern California; Vern Burke of Oregon State; Dave Parks of Texas Tech and Al Krause of Iowa.

Parks was No. 1 choice in the National Football League draft last December and Concannon was first pick in the American Football League draft.

Burgess, Bailey Sizzle In Bucs' 10-7 Victory

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit, powered by Don Wert and Dick McAuliffe, whipped the Los Angeles Angels 8-5 Saturday despite a pair of two-run homers by Jim Fregosi.

Fregosi rapped his seventh and eighth homers off Tiger starter Dave Wickenscham, who allowed only five other hits and boosted his record to 8-5.

Stars Twice Fell Hawks

The Stars defeated the Hawks in two successive American Little League games here, 7-1 and 7-6.

The first contest took place Friday night. The second was a makeup contest unrecalled Saturday afternoon.

Miss Cavandish Wins At Aqueduct

NEW YORK (AP)—Miss Cavandish, badly beaten in the first two legs of New York's triple crown for 3-year-old fillies, came from last at one point and closed with a mighty stretch run Saturday for a three length triumph in the $122,375 Coaching Club American Oaks at Aqueduct.

San Angelo Tennis Big Help In U.S. Net Win

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Carole Caldwell and Nancy Richey scored singles tennis victories over their British opponents between rainfalls Saturday and clinched the Whitman Cup for the United States for the fourth straight year.

Miss Caldwell's match, a baseline duel, was interrupted briefly by rain. The Richey-Jones match was halted for 2 1/2 hours by a shower that hit Wimbledon's center court with the American girl leading 3-1 in the second set.

The Americans have now won the trophy 30 times to Britain's six. The cup was presented in 1923 for competition between women amateurs of the two countries.

Father Pays Off In Bowling Bet

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Gus Garride, Tampa service station operator who recently set a world's bowling endurance record by rolling 1,150 games in seven days, says his marathon was good for his father.

"At the time I decided to do this, there was so much about this cigarette deal (the surgeon general's report on smoking)," Garride told the North Tampa Chamber of Commerce. "My dad never has been able to stop smoking."

"He promised me to give up cigarettes the minute I gave up the marathon."

And so far, Garride says, his father Oscar has kept his end of the bargain.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Glenn Johnson, veteran track and field mentor for Memphis State College, stopped here the other day en route to the NCAA track and field meet in Oregon.

He's seeking promising tracksters but says his job is tough because his school offers only three full scholarships in the sport. Too, it can't offer talented Negroes anything, although it will enroll them now.

Don Carter, the former HCJC sprinter, ran for Johnson this spring but was handicapped by injuries. Johnson especially wants distance runners. When Arthur J. Bidwell, president pro-tem of the Illinois senate, visited in Atlanta, Ga., recently, he told friends that his nephews, Bill and Charlie, made a colossal mistake when they removed the NFL Cardinals from Chicago to St. Louis.

Stubby Greer Now With Post Office

Ex-baseball great Hayden (Stubby) Greer, another of the out-of-town entries in the second annual Big Spring Golf Open, is now employed by the Abilene post office. He works at night, sleeps until early afternoon and golfs until dark. Greer is disenchanted with pro ball. He says no many operators are in it just for what they can get out of it. They contribute absolutely nothing toward the sport, Greer laments.

here, will enroll at Lamar Tech in Beaumont this fall. Knight was named Odessa College's outstanding player the past season. Gus Zerial, the former big league outfielder, is now a sports broadcaster in Fresno, Calif. HCJC officials are not ready to commit $35,000 of the school's money to a new dressing room at Memorial Stadium, matching a sum proposed as the public schools' share. A creditable facility could be built for much less than $70,000 and should be.

Dominguez Does Well In Miami Bout

Entry fees in this year's Big Spring Golf Open returned the Country Club about $3,015, whereas they amounted to about $2,460 in 1963. There were ten fewer entries in this year's meet than last—282, compared to 292.

Cards Take Two Games

The Cardinals unleashed a torrid 27-hit attack Friday night in the Texas Little League and smothered the Cubs, 29-3, as the winners collected seven extra-base raps.

Lee Rebels, Freeport Meet Tuesday Night

AUSTIN (AP)—Red-hot Ken Perrin of Sherman will pitch Tuesday in Austin, against San Antonio Lee and try to improve on his 14-1 record for the year as the state schoolboy baseball tournament starts.

Carroll, in his third year at Freeport-Brazosport, says of his team: "The past two years we started off knocking the ball all over the park. This year when we first started, we were getting two or three hits a ball game. As the season progressed, our hitting improved as did all phases of our playing."

Good pitching by McFarland and senior righthander Bobby Weber (10-5) is complemented at the plate by sharp hitting by catcher Dwayne Casbeer (378), first baseman Terry Schreiner (370), and outfielders Billy Daniel (372) and Bucky Kimble (315).

Pointing For Odessa

A local team which will be active in the $15,000 Odessa Pro-Am Golf Tournament is pictured above. They are Wendy Green (left), assistant pro at the Big Spring Country Club, and Bobby Wright, veteran amateur. The two tied for third in the recent Big Spring Open. The Odessa meet is scheduled July 30-31, Aug. 1-2.

Phils Batter N. York Mets

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bobby Wine scored a run when New York left home plate unguarded and winning pitcher Jim Bunning gave up only five hits as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Mets 8-2 Saturday.

Skateland Gains Softball Victory

Skateland shoved the wraps off its heavy hitting Friday night in the American Softball League and slugged its way past the Coahoma nine, 29-8, in one of the widest games seen this season in the City Park.

Bengals To Host Angelo At 2:30

The Big Spring Tigers, who have won nine of their ten starts, play host to the San Angelo Angels at Steer Park in a 2:30 p.m. baseball game today.

The Bengals lost their first game last week, at which time they were drubbed by the Ballinger Indians, 11-9.

There'll be a second game at Steer Park this afternoon, in which the Sacred Heart Cardinals will square off against the Odessa Red Sox. Sacred Heart currently boasts a record of 3-3.

Probable pitcher for the Tigers is Johnny Subia, who has a record of four wins without a defeat.

A VIEW FROM THE RIDGE

A PLACE FOR PEEK-A-BOO is found by three of the Basden children. Gloria, 2, Seth Paul, 4 and Mary Margaret, 6, are framed in the tall, round arches of windows in what will be the formal living room.

The white-walled room is carpeted in gold, and furnishings are planned although not yet installed. Meanwhile, the recessed areas of the walls provide a pleasant place to play.

THE OVERALL VIEW is taken by Mrs. Wayne Basden as she admires the panorama of Big Spring from the windows of their home on the ridge of South Mountain. The inside shutters on the windows of the den have panes of obscure glass to allow light while resisting heat from the sun's rays. The shape of the panes was inspired by Moorish art where geometrical patterns were used in designs for the home.

A DEN DESIGNED for relaxation and family fun has flooring of terrazo tiles and a ceiling of white with antiqued exposed beams. The brightly striped rug contrasts with the darkness of a huge fireplace made of black volcanic stone which come from Mexico. Wide book shelves are in antique red, and a cabinet to one side is topped by a statue lighted by candles. Old French calendars have been matted on red velvet and hung over the piano.

THE SPANISH PHRASE, "my house is your house," is expressed by Mrs. Basden and Gloria as they welcome guests who enter the courtyard through heavy wooden gates. The door to the home's entrance hall is flanked by Spanish wall lanterns and brightened by a string of colored gourds. Doors on the second floor open onto a rustic balcony of stained wood with metal railing. A wide, winding lane which leads to the gates is being marked on each side with large boulders.

BIG SPRING, TEXAS, SUNDAY, JUNE 14, 1964

THE MASTER BEDROOM is spacious and airy with white walls and furnishings of blue and gold. The pale blue quilted satin bedspread tops a gold skirt, and the scallops are used again for the valance. The old world design in the papered wall of the headboard is blue and gold and is matched by shades over wide windows. Mrs. Basden has refinished bedside tables and a French dressing table so that they blend well but are not identical.

Basdens Build A Home With A View

By JO BRIGHT
Years ago it was the habit of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Basden to go for a Sunday afternoon drive—American style. The picnic basket was along for pleasure, but first they would tour the urban area to see what the city—and its builders had been up to during the week.

When they had satisfied themselves as to the progress of commercial buildings and private homes, they headed for the hills and the children's favorite picnic spot, the rim of South Mountain.

"Wayne and I used to stand fascinated, watching the movement of our town," said Mrs. Basden. "The view was marvelous, and we thought the same things others had thought, I'm sure, when we wondered if it would be possible to build our home right here—near the ridge—where we could see it every day."

It was possible.

THE BEGINNING
The construction of the home began last October and the family moved in April 10. Now, at the window they can raise a shade or open a shutter and see from one side of town to the other. In the early morning you can see the first cars begin to move. Perhaps it's a salesman leaving a motel, his sample case beside him as he heads for San Angelo, or the sportier cars of younger men—student pilots, perhaps—as they travel out Marcy Drive to enter the gates of Webb Air Force Base.

As the day progresses, you can look to the north and see puffs of smoke from the cotton gins; to the west, patients at the Veteran's Administration Hospital may be walking about the lawn for a bit of sunshine and to the south, on Municipal Golf Course, a dedicated player is determinedly following wherever he is led.

And in the evening, Big Spring, like every other hot, dusty place in the world, is transformed by cool moonlight.

WITCHERS
Mr. and Mrs. Basden began dreaming about the home a long time back but were stopped by the realization that they had no way to get water. Regardless, three years ago, they purchased an acre of land and began putting their ideas for a home on paper.

There were a couple of "witchers" who offered their services in finding water, and almost every foot of the land was covered as they moved over it, waiting to feel the pressure of the bending twig.

The Basdens did not find water on their land but were able to obtain the use of another well which is a considerable distance from their home.

Mrs. Basden, born in South Carolina but reared in El Paso, had grown accustomed to the practicality of Spanish architecture as used in Mexico and the border areas of Texas. Basden was reared in Pecos and likes the Spanish houses, too, so they have used this as the dominant theme in their home.

The two-story structure is built of large baked adobe bricks which weigh 37 pounds each. They were trucked from Juarez, and it took nine loads, at 1,400 pounds each, to finish the home as glass fixtures hand-blown in Mexico and shaped to ornamental iron.

"We don't know if the outside walls will 'peel' properly or not," said Mrs. Basden. "We wanted them whitewashed but masonry paint was used instead." Inside, pink and red tints in the bare brick give a warmth to the family room and dining area.

ROOM FOR ALL
The home was planned for a large family, and Mr. and Mrs. Basden now have six children. They are: Wayne Andrew, 10, Mark Russell, 8, Mary Margaret, 6, Seth Paul, 4, Gloria, 2, and John Grey, 2 months.

In the girls' room, the brick has been painted pale pink and the roses that bloom on the wallpaper ceiling have been cut and continued down the wall against which their brass beds are placed. The carpet is an off-white which takes on a pale green tone from the lighting fixture.

The older boy's room is more rustic: unpainted brick and heavier furniture. Between, and at the head of the stairs, is an open play room with a circular striped rug and paper mache circus figures, which were hand painted in Mexico, decorating the walls. By the window, are crepe paper gourds which are made to unfold like old-fashioned Christmas bells.

In all, there are four bedrooms with baths, a family room, dining area and kitchen, formal living room, playroom, utility area and a three-car garage. Almost 4,500 feet of space is used in the living area. This does not include the garage, balcony or courtyard.

"Some people would not like our home," continued Mrs. Basden, "but for this family, it is fine. At least, a few were curious to know what we could build here. We welcomed the visitors and once conducted a tour for strangers who peered in our windows thinking the house was unoccupied."

The Basdens have worked hard to get what they wanted—a home with room to grow in—and a beautiful view.

Miss Wanda Taylor Weds W. Jackson

LAMESA (SC) — In a double ring ceremony Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Midway Baptist Church Miss Wanda Jean Taylor became the bride of William Eugene Jackson. Dr. Bill Cook, pastor of First Baptist Church of Levelland, officiated.

Bouquets Add Beauty To Prettiest Of Brides

Even the most beautiful of brides reflects added beauty from the flowers she carries. The freshness of her bouquet—be it luxuriant orchids or simple, country-like daisies—gives the wedding the grace that the simple ceremony and the thoughtful words require.

The Society of American Florists has always suggested that the flowers for the bride and her attendants be selected to complement and enhance the clothes to be worn. A formal satin gown with a cathedral train calls for a stylized bouquet of formal flowers—orchids, waxy ivory gardenias, stephanotis. A very young bride may content herself with simpler flowers—white roses, with white violets perhaps, or a combination of white stock and a few simple orchids.

The society has developed an enchanting way of handling stock in wedding bouquets. The flowers are removed from the stalks and wired together to form little individual clusters of bloom. (Anyone who has ever visited Hawaii will find these stock blossoms reminiscent of the fragrant island flower, pikaki.)

A tiera of the stock blossoms, circling a simple tulle veil, is one of the most charming of simple wedding headpieces. For her bouquet, the same bride might choose delicate butterfly orchids and sprays of the fragrant white stock. Speckled green and white leaves add a gentle accent.

The society also has come up with an unusual sort of bouquet for the young bridesmaid. Called a "reticule," the bouquets are balls of florists' wire or foam covered solidly with mums or carnations, chosen to complement the color of the dresses. Tiny sweetheart roses may be added, too, for a complementary color touch.

MRS. MORRISETTE WILLIAM HORNE JR.

Miss Halbrook Becomes Bride Of M. W. Horne Jr.

Miss Carolyn Halbrook and Morrisette William Horne Jr. were united in marriage at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Halbrook, 1111 Wood, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Bill Horne, 1409 Eleventh Place, and the late Mr. Horne.

The vows were spoken before an altar centered with a candelabra holding white cathedral tapers entwined with emerald fern. On either side were tall, white standards topped with bouquets of white chrysanthemums, white gladioli and palms. The background was banked with ferns, and family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Mrs. Leslie Green, organist, accompanied Mrs. Greg Peay as she sang "Whither Thou Goest." "The Wedding Prayer" and "Thanks Be To God."

BRIDE'S GOWN

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her white formal gown was fashioned of beauganza over taffeta and styled with scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves. The fitted bodice featured a midriff of scalloped Alecon lace encrusted with crystal beads and seed pearls and the silhouette was completed by the bouffant skirt. Her veil of illusion fell below the shoulders from a pillbox of organza and Alecon lace.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis, tulle and pearl leaves centered with a white orchid and showered with picot satin.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Don Vaughn, sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bill Edwards of Arlington and Mrs. Ronnie Hamby of Abilene. All wore dresses of pink silk styled with fitted bodices and bouffant skirts with which they wore pink slippers and small hats. Each carried a nosegay of pink miniature chrysanthemums backed with satin and tulle and showered with matching satin ribbons.

The best man was Prentis Osborn, Kermit, and ushers were Charles Dunagan, Don Vaughn, Tommy Tompkins and Lynn Worthan.

The bride's traveling costume, for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, was an aqua silk suit worn with white accessories and the corsage from her bouquet.

RECEPTION

The bride and bridegroom were joined by their parents and the feminine attendants in greeting guests at a reception held in the church parlor.

The bridesmaid's bouquets were used to center the refreshment table which was covered with white organdy and decorated with white wedding bells. The arrangement was flanked by candelabra holding white candles. The three tiered wedding cake was frosted white and topped with wedding bells.

Presiding at the guest register was Miss Sherry Aton, cousin of the bride. Members of the house party were Miss Betty Ellison, Miss Linda Harris, Miss Billie Jean Boling, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. David McClanahan.

Out-of-town guests were

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barbee of Quanah; Mrs. W. E. Shelton, Nocona; Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Rountree, Terry and Danny of Sweetwater; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shelton and children of Odessa; and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baggett, Houston.

The bride, a graduate of Big Spring High School and Howard County Junior College, also attended West Texas State University in Canyon. She is employed by Dean Claim Service.

The bridegroom graduated from Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College and A&M University before becoming associated with the Highland Animal Clinic.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted Friday evening by the bridegroom's mother in the Blue Room of Cosden Country Club. Twenty-five members of the family and wedding party attended.

Pinkerton-Peterson Nuptial Vows Read

LAMESA (SC) — First Methodist Church was the scene at 8 p.m. Friday for the exchange of nuptial vows between Miss Marilyn Peterson and Curtis Wayne Pinkerton. Dr. E. D. Landreth, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of

The next meeting will be July 13 when the food leader, Mrs. Henry Huestis, will present a program on freezer meals.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Isn't summer vacationing nice and relaxed these days? When we see friends who are here with their parents or friends, the families appear to just be so happy to be together that there is no feeling of tension or hurry... just nice lazy sort of being together and talking more than doing. The dress is comfortable and casual both for the adults and the youngsters so if there need be much laundering during the stay the clothing isn't hard to wash and much of it needs no-ironing at all.

I can recall when my mother practically called all hands on deck to get us outfitted for our yearly visit to our aunt's home in Amarillo. The ironing woman ironed frantically for days getting the dresses ready for the three little girls and the shirts for the men of the family. The same thing happened again when we returned. The clothing wasn't so casual and the materials all had to be washed, starched and ironed. It would be more of a breeze to get ready to go now with our wash-and-wear fabrics, shorts, loose fitting tops and stretch pants. And no one actually plans a schedule of entertainment. I can remember when we planned practically every minute of the time a favored friend or relative would spend with us.

I believe the more modern way is best because everyone has fun, including the hostess.

MR. and MRS. L. S. PATTERSON are enjoying a visit with their daughter and granddaughter, MRS. REG JARVIS and her daughter, JUDY, of Houston. The other Jarvis daughter, JOY, a Tech student, is in Washington, D.C., for a Delta Delta Delta meeting.

MR. and MRS. SWEDE PETERSON returned early in the past week from Corpus Christi where they enjoyed fishing and sightseeing. Swede caught a big fish which made the trip a big success.

MRS. MABEL COLLINS will leave Monday by automobile for a two month tour through the New England states. She plans to spend some time with a daughter in Detroit, Mich., and also will visit her former home, Huntington, W. Va., before she returns here in August.

Wednesday night Mrs. Collins was surprised by her sister, MRS. JANIE HUFFSTETLER, with a birthday party at the home of MRS. ARAH CUNNINGHAM. Twelve friends called during the evening and were served from a table laid with white satin with aqua net overlay. MRS. SIDNEY WOODS poured the coffee from a white china coffee set, and MRS. C. W. DEATS served the decorated cake.

DR. and MRS. EARL BURNETT and their children, DUSTY and JAN, are visiting in the home of MR. and MRS. RAYMOND MOORE, and other friends here this weekend. The Moores with their children, GARY and GAYLE, have recently returned from Temple where they visited the Burnetts and spent much time at Belton Lake. En route home the Moores visited briefly in Abilene with the Wayland Yates family.

Four years of service in the Orient over, CAPT. ALLEN ROBERTSON and his longtime friend, ED CONWELL, were back in Texas finally this past week. En route to the Houston home of Capt. Robertson's mother, the two spent several hours here renewing friendships made during Capt. Robertson's station at Webb as information officer. He will report to St. Louis, Mo., after his leave.

As usual the two men had tales of humor, wonder and woe from their travels.

MISS LINDA DAVIES, Dallas, is visiting with her sister, brother-in-law, and their family, Airman I.C. and MRS. DANIEL D. KESTER, 146-B Dow Drive. Of special interest in the Kester home are the twins, DAWN and DENEEN, born May 8.

Vows Spoken Friday In Baptist Church

Miss Dena Rae Parker and Truman Jackson were married at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening in the Primitive Baptist Church in a double ring ceremony performed by Elder B. R. Howze.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Parker, Sterling City Route, are parents of the bride, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Howard, Sterling City Route.

The altar was centered with a large basket of orchid and white chrysanthemums. Flanking the arrangement was a seven-branched candelabra holding white cathedral tapers.

Wedding selections were presented by Mrs. Tom Spell who sang "I Love You Truly."

Her shoulder length veil of tulle was held by a tiara of pearls and rhinestones. Her jewelry was a rhinestone tear-drop, a gift from the bridegroom's parents.

The bride carried a white Bible topped with a cascade arrangement of white feathered carnations and showered with white picot satin.

For traditional bride's accessories she carried a handkerchief which belongs to her grandmother, Mrs. P. P. Armstrong, and a white Bible belonging to her cousin, Mrs. Larry Digby.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jon Marco Westmoreland, Lubbock, sister of the bride. She wore an orchid dress fashioned similar to that of the bride. Her shoes were of matching color, and her headdress was a small pill box covered with material matching the dress and net.

The best man was Truman H. Howard, father of the groom. Ushers were John Marco Westmoreland, Lubbock, and Gary Williams of Hamlin, cousin of the groom.

Following the ceremony there was a reception in the home of the bride's parents. The bride and bridegroom, their parents and the matron of honor were in the receiving line.

Presiding at the guest register was Miss Kay Howard, sister of the groom. Members of the house party were Mrs. M. M. Fairchild, Mrs. Muri Williams and Mrs. R. L. Palmer.

The refreshment table was covered with floor-length ruffled net over orchid linen and had a centerpiece of orchid and white carnations. Appointments were of crystal and the three-tiered cake was topped with bridal figurines.

Serving refreshments were Mrs. Dan Fairchild and Mrs. Larry Digby of Odessa; Mrs. Bob Burnette, Midland, and Mrs. Gary Williams, Hamlin.

For a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a blue silk suit-dress with waist length jacket and white accessories. Her corsage was taken from the bridal bouquet.

Texas Clubs Win Awards

Two women's clubs in Texas have won national awards of $500 each for their roles in helping young people in their communities to further their education.

The winning clubs are the Morning Study Club of Victoria and the Woman's Friday Club of Mexico. The awards were made at the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs Convention in Houston at the Rice Hotel May 5.

The awards are among 100 made nationwide in 1963 through the General Federation of Women's Clubs — Shell Oil Company Education Program.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Morning Study Club of Victoria won its award for its continuing program of scholarship awards to second year students at Victoria Junior College. The club makes a $100 annual scholarship award. To be eligible for the award, students must have good grades as freshmen, should be leaders in their school, and considered to be future good citizens and community leaders.

The Woman's Friday Club of Mexico won its award for initiating an academic sweater awards program and a scholarship program for local high school students. The academic sweater program was begun in 1960, at which time 16 sweaters were awarded. Each year the number of awards has grown, with 39 sweaters being awarded last year. Recipients must maintain high scholastic and good moral standings.

The first scholarships, four in number ranging from $300 to $100, were awarded in 1961; three were awarded in 1962 and four last year. Students receiving scholarships must have first earned an academic sweater.

EDUCATION AID

Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, said, "The purpose of the awards is to reward and encourage General Federation of Women's Clubs in aid to education at the community level."

The awards are made through a $50,000 grant provided by Shell. Two awards are made in each state. One is made to a Federated Women's Club in a city of 10,000 or more; the other, to a club in a rural area or community of less than 10,000.

Any club in the General Federation conducting a program aiding young people in its community to further their education is eligible for an award.

HINTS FROM HELOISE Water Cleans Piano Keys

Dear Folks: Never, never, clean the keys on your piano or organ with benzene, rubbing alcohol, denatured alcohol, lacquer thinner, or any type of cleaning fluid! They just might be damaged beyond repair. Many of you are writing to me that you use these methods.

The only thing that is recommended is to take a soft cloth, dip it in a mild soap solution (notice we did not say detergent), and wring it out as dry as you can. Then wipe over the keys. Perhaps you will find that your cloth will turn dark. This is carbon from the air in your home. Do not use this same cloth to wipe the black keys.

After wiping the keys with your dry (well-wrung-out) soaped cloth, rinse keys off with another cloth, that has been wrung out in plain water and wrung extremely dry. Then buff with a facial tissue!

After checking with many piano companies, we know that this is the only safe way. Be sure that the water does not drop down between the keys.

Dear Heloise: After washing and drying diapers, take time to fold them to the right size, sprinkle baby powder on each diaper while you are folding them, then give an extra fold to hold the powder in.

Each diaper will be ready when needed, and there is no running around looking for that can of powder. —Mrs. C.E.R.

Dear Heloise: Before I let down the hems of my daughter's dresses, I sew across the old hem, making a tuck about one-fourth inch from the bottom of the hem with my sewing machine. Thus forming a new tuck.

This eliminates that faded line which usually shows when the dress is let down. The little pleat above the new hem makes the dress even more adorable. If I have an extra large hem, I add an extra large pleat.

After making preserves, if I have any leftover melted paraffin wax, I always re-heat this and pour it into the bottom of my garbage cans. It makes the cans last longer, prevents rusting, and they are far easier to clean. —E. M. L.

Dear Heloise: I recently attended a baby shower and wanted to take something especially nice.

I bought a small wastebasket made especially for the baby's room with little animals, etc., painted on it. Then I filled the basket with small packages. I used packages of wash cloths, baby socks, some bibs which I had embroidered, a feeding spoon, a rattle, and a pacifier. I also included an assortment of baby soap, creams, powder, etc. I topped it all with a stuffed toy!

Everyone thought that it was a nice idea, so I thought I would share it. It made a unique shower gift for the new mommie... Mrs. Richard Wilton

Dear Heloise: When frying pork chops, or anything that has to be dipped in batter, I find the batter will stick better if a little vinegar is added to it. —Mrs. R. W. Kummer

And vinegar is also supposed to tenderize meats. The vinegar does not taste after frying. —Heloise

Dear Heloise: When I buy a pound of sliced bacon, I roll it up jellyroll-fashion. First one end, and then the other.

No more torn or ragged slices. It separates like a million dollars. Try it. —Mrs. J. B.

Bikini Fashions Reach Bedroom

The bare trend in fashion currently resulting in plunging necklines, exposed midriffs, bikini bathing suits and hardly-there shoes has barely gotten started.

With so much undress for day and evening wear, dress hardly seems logical for bedtime, especially for summer. Consequently, the lingerie makers are taking the same bare tack in designing the proper apparel for the land of nod.

Now bikinis are for bed as well as beach, and so are the briefest of bloomers with their own loose, short blouses. Brief baby doll dresses, baby doll-sized but for big dolls, are also the range for fashionable slumber. With these cool, unnumbering numbers, the industry is managing to capture the trade lost to those who hitherto slept in nothing at all.

A scalloped sweetheart neckline topped the fitted bodice which was cut to a point at the princess waistline. The lace sleeves came to points over the wrists. The tulle fingertip veil was secured with a tiara of seed pearls touched with lace matching that of the dress.

The bride carried a white linen handkerchief, which both her mother and grandmother carried in their weddings, and other traditional bride's ornaments.

White feathered carnations, tulle and satin leaves showered with French picot ribbon and love knots made the bridal bouquet.

Attendants of the bride were Donna Jo Watts, maid of honor and sister of the bride, and Mary Frances Malone and Linda Jean Whisenhunt, bridesmaids.

They wore street length dresses of yellow polished cotton with scooped necklines, short sleeves and belted skirts. The headpieces consisted of scant yellow net secured by headbands of white artificial flowers.

Veils Have New Look

The bride who makes the traditional journey to the altar with a veil dragging behind her is truly an old-fashioned girl.

Fashion designers here and abroad have concocted so many ways to accessorize the bridal gown, still keeping within the bounds of dignity and elegance.

The most widely publicized of these is Yves St. Laurent's bridal braid entwined with flowers. After forming a coronet around the head it falls almost to the floor. A big satin bow is tied at the end.

Actually big hair bows for brides are quite the thing, sometimes tied at the nape of the neck with a wisp of veiling from there, other times tucked rakishly at the side of the head. This is designer Coco Chanel's idea of how a modern bride should look.

MISSING MARKERS MOVED OR BATTERED BUT STILL INTACT
Denver Pettitt inspects toppled stone; marker closeups shown below

'Lost' Historical Markers Located

By JOE PICKLE
Howard County's two missing historical markers weren't missing after all—one has been moved, the other almost forgotten.

Last week when efforts to confirm the existence and condition of a county marker and another purely historical marker were fruitless, the Herald ran a small story asking help from the public.

The response was immediate and complete. Both markers have now been located, and the Texas Historical Association has been so advised.

One of them—listed in the state association's guide as the Signal Mount marker—is at Moss Spring, 11 miles east of Big Spring, in sad repair. The Howard County marker has been moved by the Texas Highway Department to a roadside park five miles south of the city, and it is in excellent condition.

Both the markers were supplied in 1936 when Texas was celebrating the centennial of its independence. That was the year when a crash highway program was pushed through to accommodate the anticipated heavy volume of visitors to the state. One of these roads were rerouted US 80 and along this new route directly east out of Big Spring, a granite pillar, topped with a bronze plaque, was placed. Wording told briefly about Volney E. Howard, for whom the county was named, gave terse datum on dates and territories, and finally noted that Big Spring was the county seat.

For years this stood beside the highway until growing traffic dictated two legs of the roads. Hard on the heels of this came plans for Interstate 20 with the interchange and grade separations located right where the marker was. So it was moved, first to the Texas Highway Department maintenance yards. Clint Kent, maintenance superintendent, decided the marker was doing no good there, so he had it erected in the roadside park nearest town. When he saw the story in the Herald, he had the answer on the marker's whereabouts.

Not so fortunate was the other marker. Several friends of the Herald called in to say that it had been located at Moss Spring, that they thought it had been overturned, defaced or destroyed. One of them was Denver Pettitt, who had seen the marker a few months ago and guided Keith McMillin, Herald photographer, to it.

The big slab of granite has been toppled from its base on the north lip of the escarpment overlooking Moss Spring. Marks indicate that vandals probably put a logging chain around the top and a half stone, then with a car or other help jerked it off the base. They or others forced off the Texas star and made away with it.

Nevertheless, the stone and its inscription are in fairly good condition. A little work would restore it to original condition. The state has indicated that replacements can be made on the bronze circle and star. This marker is on private property and not accessible to the public. Here are the inscriptions:

Know What To Do In Case Of Mishap

Most automobile accidents occur in the summer when millions of persons drive during vacations.

With this in mind, Police Chief Jay Banks said every motorist should know what to do in the event of an accident. It's easier to remember what to do if you know before hand, he said, since most persons involved in an accident are upset.

Always stop after an accident. Failure to do so is a violation of state law, said Banks. "See if the other driver needs help," he continued, "and make sure other motorists approaching the accident scene are properly warned. If the highway is obstructed at night, have someone turn his headlight beams on the wrecked vehicles. "Call an officer. They are trained investigators, whose testimony may help you establish a valid claim for damages.

"Write down the names and addresses of witnesses — don't trust your memory. Motorists involved in accidents are required to show their driver's license to the other driver."

Banks also asked motorists involved in accidents to see a doctor if there is the slightest chance of injury. Not all serious injuries result in immediate pain or bloodshed, he explained.

Banks emphasized "Never move an injured person in such a way that could possibly add to his injury."

Other tips given by the chief: "Ask your attorney for advice about the accident and notify your insurance company of the mishap promptly.

Accidents which result in death, injury, or total damage over $25 must be reported to the Department of Public Safety. Official accident report forms may be secured from police, sheriff's officers, highway patrolmen or the State Department of Public Safety in Austin.

"Drive safely and avoid accidents," the chief concluded, "but if you are in one, it may help you to know in advance what to do."

Some Howard County couples start married life early, according to marriage license records in the office of County Clerk Mrs. Pauline Petty.

Mrs. Jolley Attends Parley

Mrs. Ottilie Jolley, director of nursing at Big Spring State Hospital, leaves Monday for a four-week workshop at the University of Maryland Psychiatric Hospital in Baltimore. She is one of two nurses chosen from the state hospitals for this experience. Both she and Mrs. Hugh Drane, Kerrville, are attending on a grant from the National Institute of Mental Health. Upon their return they will relate the new concepts and experiences to their own nursing staffs and also to some degree to other nurses in state hospitals.

Objective of the workshop is to train nurses in ability to become an agent of change in development of a therapeutic team. In some respects, will be similar to the psychiatric nursing clinic held here several months ago, but much more extensive. Much of the work will be a specialized clinical learning experience. Mrs. Jolley came here in November of 1960, transferring from the Austin State Hospital.

VA HOSPITAL IS INSPECTED
Hershel L. Doyle watches Dr. Calvin J. Guilliams

Legion Inspector Checks Hospital

Hershel L. Doyle, national field representative of the American Legion from Denver, Colo., inspected all divisions of the Big Spring Veterans Administration Hospital last week and will send a report of his observations to the national American Legion and Veterans Administration offices in Washington, D. C.

Doyle is one of seven men in the United States engaged in this type of work for the American Legion. Each one spends approximately a year in the American Legion national office studying under hospital directors, doctors and specialists in hospital administration before he is given one of the jobs. Although his recommendations do not have to be followed, they will be considered for possible improvements. He inspects 33 VA Hospitals, 15 regional offices and three domiciliarys in Louisiana, Texas, Colorado, Arkansas, Missouri, New Mexico, Kansas and Oklahoma, a tour which takes two years to complete. He is away from home 90 per cent of the time, as he logs 50,000 miles a year by car and airplane. His wife, Edna, travels with him much of the time. He left for Lubbock Saturday for an inspection of the VA regional office.

VA Hospital Receives Top Rating After Study

The Big Spring Veterans Administration Hospital is one of the two best such hospitals in the eight-state southwest part of the United States, according to a report by Hershel L. Doyle, National Field Representative of the American Legion, given to Donald D. Van Meter, hospital director, Friday. In giving the verbal report after five days of studying all facets of operation in the hospital, Doyle told Van Meter that he had no recommendations for improvement and that he considered the VA installation excellent. The admission service at the hospital came in for the biggest praise as Doyle said that out of the 33 VA Hospitals he inspected in his area, it was the best he had seen. He said the house-keeping service at the hospital is excellent and that he had heard nothing but compliments from patients regarding their care. Doyle said he received full cooperation from the staff, something which helped make the evaluation job much easier. "It was a wonderful report," Van Meter said in his office Friday. "He didn't have anything but good things to say. These reports do us good, for they point out things that we miss, and they also give us new information and ideas. We were glad to see Doyle." Doyle's last visit to the hospital was in February, 1962.

WHERE HISTORY WALLS A LIBRARY— INSIDE AND OUT!

Books in the library of the University of Mexico cover that country's history back to the great Mayan Empires, centuries before Christ.

Outside, its walls are covered by Juan O'Gorman's colorful mosaic (made of more than 7½ million separate stones) depicting the history and culture of Mexico.

The school itself dates back to 1551, but its campus is one of the world's most modern. Built in 1954, it was designed by a team of Mexico's finest architects.

Even in a country known for its architecture, on a campus that is a collective example for the world, the library stands out.

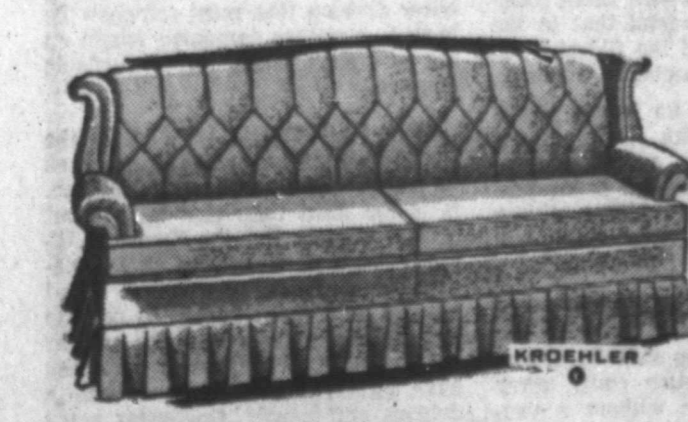

Throughout Mexico, progress grows from the roots of ancient traditions. In Mexico City, for instance, within a few blocks of each other stand the 43-story Torre, or tower, tallest building in Latin America; and the Cathedral of Mexico City, built between 1573 and 1667 on the site of an Aztec temple.

What a shot! Photographers love to find a scene like this. Flowing water . . . a background of trees . . . a church spire in the distance . . . these always make an outstanding picture.

Wherever we travel we see Christian churches in harmonious settings, and there's a tendency to think of them as "part of the scenery."

But what an important part they are! Every one is a House of God, dedicated to His service. Every one is a community focal point, helping in a thousand ways to broaden and beautify the lives of its members. And every one is a vital link in the shining chain of Christian belief that stretches around the world.

Not far from where you live, there's a church that could give your life a new dimension. Whatever doubts and fears you may have, bring them to God in His House. You can rely on His promise that He will not leave you comfortless.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DEAR ABBY

It's Their Business

DEAR ABBY: I am a dentist's assistant and I would like to know how often it is NECESSARY for a 26-year-old woman to have her teeth cleaned. We have this pushy young woman who would get her teeth cleaned once a week if we'd let her. I heard the dentist tell her that once every four months was about right...but she calls and claims her teeth feel "furry" and she wants them cleaned more often. The doctor has cleaned them twice in three months just to satisfy her, but she still calls wanting another appointment. I think she is trying to make a social contact with the dentist. What do you think?

DENTAL ASSISTANT
DEAR ASSISTANT: Let the dentist decide how often he wants her in his chair. If she's trying to sink her teeth into him, don't gum up the works.

DEAR ABBY: I am tired of hearing widows complain that all the men who ask them out are aggressive to the point of being insulting. I was a widow for 16 years and never had a bit of trouble. I had my first date with a gentleman on February 10th, 1961. We saw each other regularly once a week for almost two years. He called me MRS. and I called him MISTER. On New Year's Eve of 1963 I told him he could call me Margaret, and he asked me to call him Darwin. We shook hands on it. On St. Valentine's Day he asked me if he could kiss me. I said yes. Up until this time he had never laid a hand on me. We were married the following Thanksgiving. So tell those widows to act like ladies and they will be treated as such.

MRS. D. M. F.
DEAR ABBY: Most of the time I mind my own business, but this seems too important to ignore. An unmarried man in our neighborhood has had a steady procession of cleaning women and girl friends coming and going regularly. You can't even tell which is which. This last one seems to be staying longer than the rest. With summer coming on, their comings and goings are so plain to see—especially by the children. Since some are old enough to wonder why a bachelor seems to have a "wife," how does one explain it? I can't say the woman over there is his "wife," because he might make a change next week. What do you suggest?

OHIO
DEAR OHIO: I suggest that you tell anyone who inquires (including the children) that you know nothing about your neighbor's personal life.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "IN THERAPY": You need not be ashamed. We have all suffered from mental illness in varying degrees and durations. But many of us have managed to recover before it became serious enough to seek psychiatric help. What is a siege of deep grief, excessive guilt, haunting fear, burning jealousy or lingering depression if not mental illness? I know not one person who has managed to escape all these "sick emotions" but I know many who will deny it.
