Baker File Closed By Senate Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has closed its Bobby Baker investigation but its political overtones are expected to echo in this fall's election campaign as Republicans have charged "the full story has not been disclosed."

The Senate Rules Committee rang down the curtain on the seven-month probe into the wheelings and dealings of the former Senate aide with a report Wednesday saying he was "guilty of many gross improprieties."

But it left it up to the Justice Department to determine whether Baker should be prosecuted for any violations of criminal law.

MAJORITY
The report was submitted to the Senate on behalf of the committee's Democratic majority by Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C.

A separate minority report turned in by the committee's three Republican members accused the Democratic majority of ignoring their "rights" to have additional witnesses called including White House aide Walter Jenkins, and charged a "cover-up."

Jenkins figured in testimony by Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent with whom Baker was associated and who sold two $100,000 life insurance policies to President Johnson before he became president.

EVIDENCE
The GOP members, however, said they had no major criticism of the analysis of the evidence in the majority report.

"It does reveal gross wrongdoing, gross improprieties, and conduct which we believe to be unlawful," they said.

They said their criticism "is centered upon the fact that the majority refused to call all the witnesses and refused to get all the facts."

"The full story has not been disclosed concerning Bobby Baker and those associated with him, including present and former senators and Senate employees," the Republicans charged.

JOHNSON AIDE
Baker, now 36, was elected majority secretary in 1955, the youngest man ever to hold the post. He became the right-hand man of Lyndon B. Johnson who was elected Senate Democratic majority leader at the same time.

Because of Baker's and Johnson's association, the committee's investigation had undercurrents which Republicans are expected to try to whip up in the campaign.

Baker, who resigned under fire last Oct. 7 from his $19,600-a-year Senate post, could not be reached for comment on the committee report.

When Baker was called by the committee as a witness, he invoked his Fifth Amendment protection against possible self-incrimination and refused to answer questions or to surrender subpoenaed records.

Finally the two men, both 61 and active in the Army Reserves, agreed to the wrestling match with the understanding Thurmond would enter the meeting room if he lost and that Yarborough would remain outside if he lost.

Thurmond appeared to be winning when the contest was broken up by Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., the Commerce Committee chairman. But Yarborough insisted no decision had been reached.

At one point Thurmond seized Yarborough's leg and dumped him on the floor—but at other times the Texas senator seemed to have the advantage.

When Magnuson ended the 18-minute engagement, Yarborough was on his back but grabbing for a better hold on his adversary.

Once the match had ended, the two men shook hands and joked about the affair with newsmen.

They entered the committee room together and the group quickly confirmed, 16-1, President Johnson's nomination of Leroy Collins as director of the community relations service under the new civil rights law.

The search continued in the Philadelphia, Miss., area for three civil rights workers who disappeared June 21.

In St. Augustine, Fla., Negroes were refused service at two of 29 restaurants they visited.

Twenty state troopers moved into Selma, Ala., to relieve local law enforcement officers who have had little rest in recent days. About 70 have been arrested in Selma, where Negroes are conducting an intense voter registration campaign.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A restaurateur who pulled a pistol to chase away three Negroes, says he has since been receiving financial support from over the country to aid his legal fight.

ONLY TODAY, a businessman walked in with $100, Lester Maddox said. "It's not primarily merchants who're sending in money, but they're the ones who've got the most to lose by integrating."

LAST FRIDAY Maddox, 48, refused to say how much he has received since last Friday, when three Negroes tried to eat at his restaurant.

"We don't have much money yet but it's increasing daily," he added, "and it shows a wonderful expression of support."

When the Negro theological students attempted to integrate the restaurant, Maddox drew a pistol and provided a distraction for his customers and employees.

Parents Seek Federal Help For Workers

By The Associated Press
Explosions which injured two civil rights workers in McComb, Miss., have touched off demands for protection of youths involved in civil rights work in Mississippi. About 500 youths from other states are involved. Forty-one parents of youths from northern California decided to ask President Johnson, Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California and their congressmen to assure protection for the young civil rights workers in Mississippi.

EXPERT HELP
The Federal Bureau of Investigation sent an explosives expert to McComb to help with the investigation. There have been two other similar explosions but no arrests.

An avowed foe of the newly passed civil rights act was shot in the arm in Columbia, Tenn., Wednesday night.

Flo F. Fleming, a candidate for Congress from Tennessee's 6th District, reported two Negroes in a passing car fired two shots at him as he drove home from a speaking engagement. He was not believed seriously injured.

In Chattanooga, Tenn., a Negro educator, Claude C. Bond, was named coordinator of general education for the Chattanooga school system. It is believed to be the first time a Negro has attained such a position in a Southern school system.

NEGRO DOCTORS
In Danville, Va., directors of the city's Memorial Hospital ordered the facility integrated. The first step taken was approval of two Negro doctors for staff privileges.

In San Francisco, Negro leaders said that more than 50,000 are expected to parade Sunday in opposition to the possible nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

Permanent U. N. Army Discussed

Quick Raising Of Troops Under Study

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Authorizing dispatch of a peace force to a world hot spot now is accepted procedure at the United Nations. Even the Soviet Union appears to be agreeable at least in principle.

But putting a force together swiftly and assuring its efficiency are tough problems.

The United Nations has no standby military force for use in times of crisis, such as those in Cyprus and the Congo.

Western diplomats took deep interest this week in a Soviet memorandum calling for establishment of a permanent U.N. peace force under the control of the Security Council.

The U.N. Charter says that members shall provide armed forces when the council decides they are needed to maintain world peace.

FIVE MEMBERS
It provides for a military staff committee to aid the council on the strength, employment and command of such forces. The committee is made up of five permanent members of the council—the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France and Nationalist China.

The committee disagreed back in 1947 on how military contributions should be made to such a force. It continues to meet periodically at U.N. headquarters but only long enough to exchange formalities.

In 1950, the General Assembly gave itself the right to act to preserve peace when a big power veto paralyzed the council. Under that authority the assembly set up the U.N. emergency force in the Middle East in 1956 and the Congo force in 1960. But the job of setting up the force in each instance fell to the secretary-general and his staff and not to the military staff committee.

COMMITMENTS
In the case of Cyprus it took Secretary-General U Thant 10 days after the Security Council authorization to obtain commitments for the seven-nation, 6,200-man force now on that eastern Mediterranean island. It took more than three weeks before the force became operative.

The delay was due in part to demands from contributing nations as to what their troops would be expected to do in a situation that verged on civil war, how long they would be needed, and how expensive the operation would be.

The contributors were told that they would have to pay the costs of maintaining their troops in Cyprus because no U.N. money was available. Financial help was solicited from the wealthier countries.

Favorite Son Frees Ohio GOP Delegation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes, Ohio favorite son, cleared the way today for the 58 Ohio delegates to the Republican National Convention to cast their first vote for the presidential nominee of their choice.

Rhodes declined, however, to comment when asked who his own preference would be for the nomination.

Shortly before his scheduled departure for San Francisco, Rhodes issued a statement expressing his views.

"During the caucus next Monday morning, those delegates who may wish to support their choice will be welcomed to express their beliefs and persuade their colleagues," he said.

"I am confident that every delegate will exercise individually that fine judgment which is characteristic of this splendid group of public officials and private citizens."

Rhodes expressed appreciation for the recent caucus stand of delegates to cast their first convention vote for him as favorite son.

"I take it as an evidence of their confidence and as an endorsement of my administration as governor of Ohio," he said.

Without elaborating, Rhodes' statement indicated to associates that he was willing to forego the honor of a complimentary vote for the presidential nomination.

Followers of Sen. Barry Goldwater have said all along that more than half the votes in Ohio's delegation would go for him on the second ballot. They have expressed the hope of release from the recent caucus decision to cast a complimentary first vote for Rhodes, but nevertheless agreed to stand by that decision at the convention.

Others in the Ohio delegation showed a leaning toward Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, Goldwater's only opponent rival for the nomination.

The most recent Associated Press poll of the Ohio delegation indicated 15 sure votes for Goldwater and 19 for Scranton with the rest uncommitted.

The Ohio votes added to others determined in The Associated Press nationwide poll boosted Goldwater to 725 votes—70 more than needed for the nomination if they all stay with him—and Scranton to 161.

New Flying Club Organization Set

The third flying club for Big Spring may become a reality at a 7:30 p.m. meeting today at Howard County Airport. Individuals interested in flying will meet to go over plans for organization, setting up by-laws, and purchasing an airplane.

"We may have to call one more meeting before everything is worked out," Howard Loyd, airport manager, said this morning. "We invite everyone interested in flying, or joining the new club, to attend. The down payment on the airplane will be $100, monthly payments $10, and flying time, including gasoline, will be $5."

Military Pay Hike Pushed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 2.5 per cent pay increase for more than two million men in the nation's fighting forces was recommended to the Senate today.

The Senate Armed Services Committee, in a surprise move, recommended the pay increase for all officers, and for all enlisted personnel and noncommissioned officers with more than two years service.

The committee gave its unanimous approval at a closed session without advance notice or the usual public hearings.

Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., announced last week, when the Senate passed a pay raise for civilian government workers, that he would seek the military increase.

"I could not have gotten this out of committee with block and tackle if the Senate had not agreed to the pay increase for most civilian government workers last week," he said today.

Russell said the bill would add about $202 million to present pay for officers and enlisted personnel in the active military services.

Aroused Independent Oil Producers Map Strategy

DENVER (AP)—Independent oil producers, aroused by increasing imports, met today to consider what to do about it.

The meeting brought together members of a liaison committee of 24 state and regional oil and gas associations. The chairman is J.A. Mull Jr., of Wichita, Kan., an independent producer.

Interior Secy. Stewart Udall announced June 25 oil import allowances of 1,295,297 barrels daily for the second half of 1964, an increase of 55,879 over the first half of the year.

The independent oil operators are also alarmed over crude oil production from federal leases off the Louisiana coast and included this subject on their agenda. Such production now exceeds 300,000 barrels daily and is expected to increase in view of recent discoveries.

DEMAND IN WEST
Also under discussion was proposed movement of crude and unfinished oil from states east of the Rocky Mountains to the West Coast to take advantage of increasing demand there.

Under the Interior Department's June 25 order, licensed import levels of these oils on the West Coast is 308,822 barrels a day, an increase of 72,532 over the first half of 1964. The department said, however, the increase reflects an abnormal and probably temporary change in the supply-demand relationship in the district.

Other topics being discussed, a committee spokesman said, included U.S. foreign trade policies which the independents feel favor foreign oil, military purchases, and steps President Johnson and the secretary of state could take to "remove some of the subsidy advantage from imports."

CATTLEMEN
The meeting was shifted to Denver to coincide with the annual conference of state presidents of the American National Cattlemen's Association. This is another industry which feels that present U.S. foreign policies have hurt it economically.

An exchange of ideas was limited to a breakfast meeting of the oilmen with C.W. McMillan, executive vice president of the cattlemen's association.

"We feel we are not ready yet for formal conferences with the cattle, textile, shoe, steel, lumber and other industries involved in the import question," the oil group's spokesman said. He added that a general meeting is planned later to map a cooperative effort to get Congress to change the U.S. trade policy.

ENVOY TO FINLAND
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson Thursday nominated Tyler Thompson, a career foreign-service officer, to be United States ambassador to Finland.

Scranton Girds For Battle On Platform Committee

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton brings his underdog campaign for the presidential nomination to Republican delegates gathered here today.

Scranton has the floor of the Republican platform committee, where his outnumbered followers have been trying to build a launching pad for the kind of superthrust takeoff Scranton would have to achieve to catch up with Sen. Barry Goldwater by the time the convention votes next week.

The Pennsylvanian's supporters have tried various gambits, all designed to hobble the front-running Arizona senator, but there was no sign they had made much impression on the platform committee. Most of its 165 members favor Goldwater.

The Scrantonites kept thrusting, however, and some talked of a fight over the platform on the convention floor if they lose in the committee.

RAILROADING
One ripple stirred the platform committee Wednesday when a pro-Scranton member accused it of railroading procedures and demanded changes. But the matter was quickly settled.

Rep. Silvio O. Conte of Massachusetts made the move and got the support of some committee members, mostly from the East. He especially demanded guarantees that the finished draft of the platform, being written under the direction of a 13-member executive committee, would be delivered to members in time for them to prepare amendments if they wished.

Rep. Silvio O. Conte of Massachusetts made the move and got the support of some committee members, mostly from the East. He especially demanded guarantees that the finished draft of the platform, being written under the direction of a 13-member executive committee, would be delivered to members in time for them to prepare amendments if they wished.

MORE TIME
Later Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, platform committee chairman, conferred privately with Conte and afterward said there had been a misunderstanding and very little real disagreement. He said the producers already agreed to give members more than the three hours suggested by Conte for drafting proposed changes before voting on the items in the platform being.

Conte promised he and like-minded members of the platform committee will offer a series of proposed planks and will never compromise on the content of major proposals. For example, he said, they will insist on a plank on extremist movements that denounces by name the John Birch Society.

FEDERAL AID
Other proposed planks, he said, will deal with federal aid to education, retaining in presidential hands control over the use of nuclear weapons, opposition to a federal "right to work" law, and civil rights.

All these topics offer opportunities to challenge Goldwater on positions he has taken—or at least which his opponents say he has taken.

Laird said he hopes to have ready Friday night for committee consideration and possible approval the two first sections of the platform: a statement of principles and what the Republicans call an "indictment" of President Johnson's administration.

"Then, Laird said, the committee would go back into closed session Saturday to consider the sections on domestic and on foreign policy and security matters. Laird was optimistic that the committee might have a document ready by Saturday night for submission to the convention.

EIGHT TEAMS ARE INVOLVED Little League Playoffs Get Under Way Here

The decks have been cleared for the start of the City Little League playoffs tonight. Action is scheduled on four fronts, with champions and runners up in each of the city's four leagues involved. The tournament will be concluded Saturday night. Managers and league officials meet tonight following the games to draw up pairings for Friday evening. Here is the alignment for first round games, listed with the sites of the contests: Starfighters (International) vs. Texas as first place club in Texas League

Talons (International) vs. Texas second place club in International park. Colts (American) vs. VFW (National) in American park. Braves (National) vs. Stars (American) in National park. The Braves and the Colts rank as co-favorites in the tournament. The champions win a trophy to be awarded, as in other years, by Poncho's Newsstand. District Little League playoffs get under way in Andrews July 27. All-Star teams from each of the city's four leagues will be involved in that tournament.

Cubs Could Boast 3 In Magic Circle

At their current pace, the Chicago Cubs will win only 74 games but may wind up with three 20-game winners. Bob Buhl became the third member of the Cubs' staff to reach the 10-victory plateau at the halfway mark of the season when he shut out San Francisco 2-0 on four hits Wednesday before the Giants took the second game of the doubleheader 7-2. Bringing his record to 10-4 with his third shutout, Buhl joined teammates Larry Jackson, 11-5, and Dick Ellsworth, 10-8, as possible 20-game winners and gave the Cubs a shot at duplicating a feat that hasn't been accomplished in the National League in 41 years.

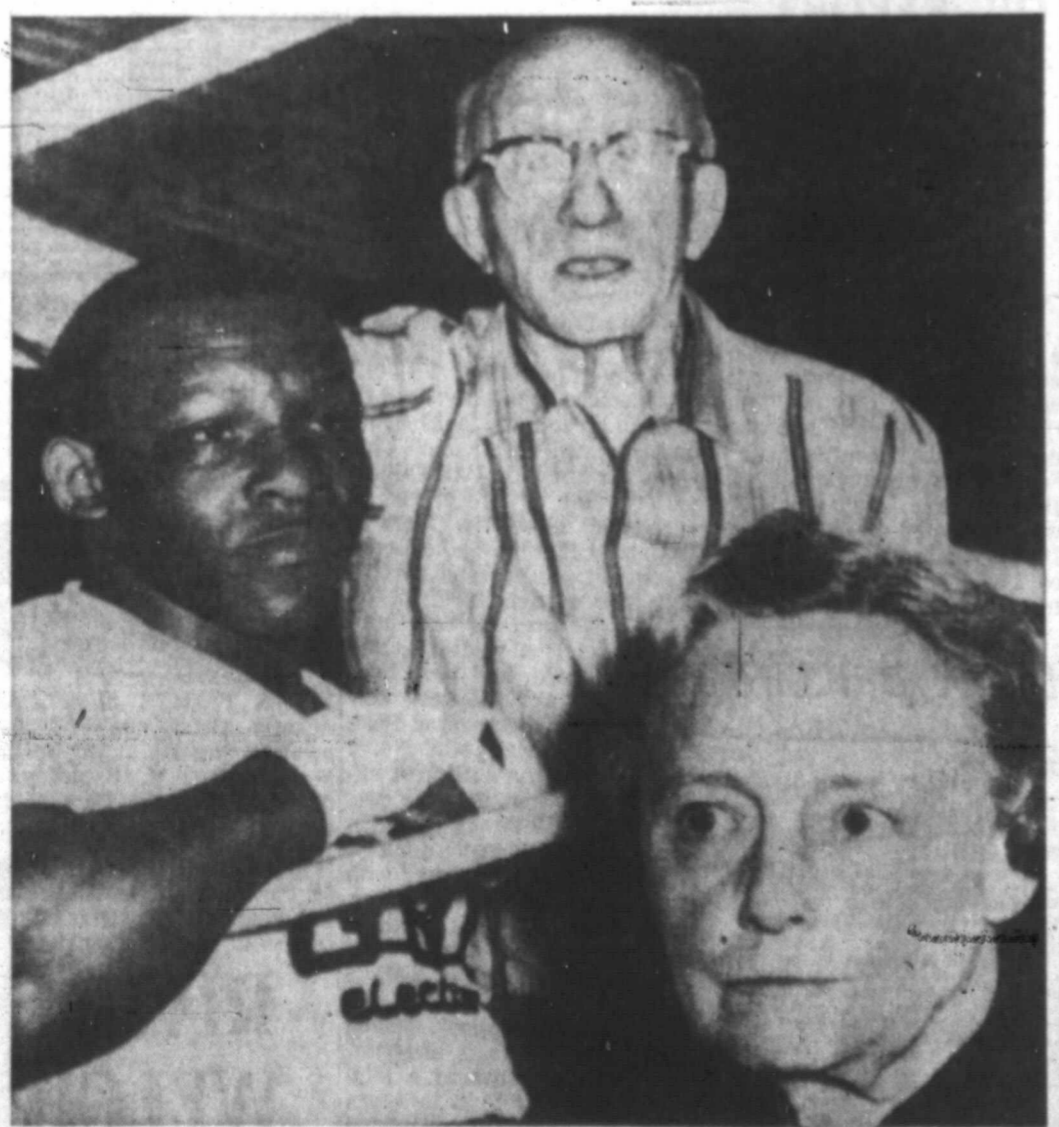

The Cubs, however, currently are tied for seventh place—with good reason. While Buhl, Jackson and Ellsworth have accounted for 31 victories, the remainder of the staff has put together only six. Ernie Broglio, the heralded trade acquisition from the St. Louis Cardinals who was supposed to step in as the No. 4 man, hasn't won as a Cub. He lost his fourth straight as Willie Mays powered his 24th homer for the Giants in the nightcap, called after seven innings because of darkness at the lightless Wrigley Field.

The triumph—ending the Giants longest losing streak of the season at four games—kept second-place San Francisco 1 1/2 games back of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies, who were rained out of a scheduled game with St. Louis. In the only other game scheduled in either league, home runs by Manny Mota and Willie Stargell triggered Pittsburgh to a 9-1 victory over Cincinnati. The Giants stormed back in the nightcap, tagging Broglio, 3-0, for five runs and six hits in the first two innings.

Junior Welter Champion Roams Far For Fights

CHICAGO (AP) — Have Eddie Perkins. Will travel. Perkins is the world's junior welterweight champion. It seems they idolize junior welterweights everywhere but in the United States. He can't get a title fight here. So he and his 75-year-old manager, Johnny Coulson, have become global commuters. And making matches for them is Johnny's tiny, sparkling wife, Marie. She is as Irish as her maiden name, Maloney. Marie and Johnny, known as the Chicago Spider, were the ruled the bantamweights from 1908-1914, have been married 43 years and have operated a tidy gym on the South Side 41 years. In that time, Mrs. Coulson has earned respect from many former ring greats as being one of the most astute judges of boxing talent in the country. She has made well over $5,000 matches amateur and pro. It was Marie they had to deal with when Perkins went to Milan, Italy, in 1962 and defeated Duilio Loi for the 140-pound crown. In a match there three months later, the title went back to Loi. Loi retired and Perkins captured the vacated championship in June, 1963, by defeating Roberto Cruz in Manila. He has defended it successfully twice this year. He and Johnny received $30,000 and expenses for a Jan. 4 defense in Tokyo against Yoshimori Takahashi and $25,000 and expenses for an April 18 match in Kingston, Jamaica, against Bunny Grant. "They loved Eddie wherever we went," Coulson said.

al commuters. While her boys are away, Marie, respected as being an astute judge of boxing talent, operates Coulson's gym on Chicago's South Side where they're shown tuning Eddie up for his next far-off match. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Traveling Title-Holder

Eddie Perkins, world's junior welterweight champion, his manager, 75-year-old Johnny Coulson, and his wife, Marie, have a problem. Eddie can't get a title fight in the U.S. They idolize junior welterweights everywhere but in the United States, the trio says. As a result, Coulson and Perkins have become glob-

Legion Vies With B'field

Big Spring goes for broke in a District 19 American Legion baseball series with Brownfield beginning at 4:30 p.m. today in Steer Park. The playoff was necessitated when the two teams tied for first place in the South Half standings. The winner in the best-of-three set plays the Lubbock Red Ceks next week for the conference championship.

Right-hander Freddy Mears, bothered with a sore arm earlier this year, will probably be nominated for mound duty today by coach Chubby Moser. Brownfield is due to counter with Amalio Garcia, a curvballing right-hander. The two teams will resume play at 5 p.m. Saturday in Brownfield. If a third game is needed to determine the championship, it will be played Saturday night in Brownfield.

Walker Paces Track Efforts Among Texans

ABILENE (AP)—Except for the Olympic trials, the track and field season is over for Texas athletes. And it was a fine season with one world record, one national freshman mark, a national junior college record and nine state records. Geoff Walker of University of Houston had four season highs, the most for any trackster as he led the two-mile with 8:57.8, the three-mile with 13:4.8, the 3,000-meter steeplechase with 9:01.6 and the 5,000-meter run with 14:14.2.

Ollan Cassell, former Houston star; Bill Miller, ex-McMurry trackster; Randy Matson, Texas A&M freshman; John Macy, Houston ex; Richard Romo, Texas, and Bobby May, Rice, were double leaders. Cassell set the pace in the 440 with 46.3 and the 400-meter with 45.9, and he also was the only Texan to qualify for the Olympics in the first trials at New York. Miller led the broad jump with 25 feet 10 1/4 inches and the triple jump with 48 feet 9 3/4. Matson topped in the shot put with 64 feet 11 inches, a national freshman record, and the discus with 182 feet 11 1/2 inches. Romo led the mile in 4:09.0 and the 1,500 meters in 3:43.6. May led the high hurdles in 13.7 and the 440-yard hurdles in 51.8.

Macy led the six-mile with 28:54.6, and the 10,000-meter run with 29:49.0. Howard County had a national junior college record of 3:11.2 in the mile relay. Fred Hansen of Rice set the world's record—a mighty 17 feet 2 inches—in the pole vault. Other highs for the season were: 100—John Roderick, SMU, 9.3; 220—George Aldredge, Highland Park High School, 29.9; 100-meter, Leroy McAllister, Sam Houston State, 10.2; 200-meter, T. J. Bell, Texas Southern, 20.7; 800—George Hunt, Texas Southern, 1:49.34 javelin—Jerry Dyes, Abilene Christian, 250-10; 800-meter, Jim Parr, SMU ex, 1:49.1; high jump—John Hartfield, Texas Southern, 6-9 1/4; 330-yard hurdles, Ray Hilburn, Texas Western, 36.7.

All-Stars Win Two Contests

A Big Spring all-star softball team defeated Odessa in both ends of a doubleheader played in the City Park Wednesday night, 1-0 and 5-2. The first game swung Big Spring's way when John Terry clubbed a sixth inning home run. Two men were out at the time. Cotton Mize, the winning hurler, limited Odessa to four hits. Big Spring collected only three safeties in the game.

In the second game, Spec Franklin and Billy Paul Thomas teamed up for the mound win, Franklin getting credit for the win. Billy Thomas smashed a fifth inning round tripper with a mate aboard. Billy Thomas, John Terry and Jackie Thomas had two hits each for the winners.

Angels Paste Yanks, 20-5

The Angels pasted the Yanks, 20-5, in a Sophomore Loop game Wednesday night, and the tilt was halted after five innings as the victorious nine scored 10 runs in the fifth. The Angels led all the way, and the issue never was in doubt. Before the fatal fifth, the Yanks trailed 4 to 10. Kelley, Gartman, Banks and Duran all cracked doubles for the Angels; Duran limited the Yanks to three hits—all safeties. Gregg Willis collected two of them for the losers.

Venturi Eyes Tuneup For Next Week's PGA

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—The inevitable leadout that comes with winning the National Open golf championship almost has run its course for Ken Venturi, who says, "I feel I'm getting in the pitch again."

"The Round Robin here should be just what I need to get back on the beam," the articulate frommaster from San Francisco added today. "It's a good tournament and there won't be too much pressure."

"I should be ready for the PGA next week." The PGA championship opens next Thursday at the Columbus (Ohio) Country Club and Venturi will enter the event as one of the favorites along with defending champion Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer. Nicklaus is playing this week in the British Open at hallowed St. Andrews and Palmer is tuning up for the only major pro title he hasn't won, but Venturi is sharpening his game in the $25,000 Wykagyl Round Robin here.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Chances are John C. Black will be joining the Big Spring coaching fraternity as a mentor at Gollad Junior High. Black is not in coaching now but he once was associated with the Denver City staff and his former associates there praise him highly. John is busy selling encyclopedias, working out of Lubbock. He's a former New Mexico State University athlete, with about ten years experience as a coach.

Coach Don Robbins of Big Spring also dickered with Ted Kirby, now of Kermit but formerly of Big Spring, about a job but Kirby said he would not return to the profession this school year. When Kirby was here, he was a coach at Runnels. He's regarded as one of the best track mentors around. Ted isn't on the Kermit staff but he does help the coaches there from time to time. Another man who may become a full-time coach here on the junior high school level is Bill Hallmark, who is already in the local school system.

Harold King, Midland High coach, picks San Angelo High as the team to beat in District 2-AAAA football again this fall. Most observers in the area are going to go with Odessa High as the favorite, from all indications. Odessa will field one of the biggest lines in Texas and will have the experience to go along with it. When Gary Mears struck out 18 batters in a Hi-Junior Teenage Baseball league game here the other night, it set an all-time record in that classification of ball. Young Mears has two years of eligibility remaining in high school here. He should be real tough for other 2-AAAA teams to handle by next spring.

A dozen Southeastern Conference schools divvied up $61,942.60 recently. The money was received from participation in the 1963 NCAA program of televised football games, from the 1964 bowl games and from a surplus in the operating expenses of the commissioner's office. Three SEC teams were in bowl games. Some of the league schools probably couldn't make expenses without the TV cut, notably Tulane and Vanderbilt. Billy Moorman, one time star end of the Odessa Bronchos, now operates a cafe in Longview. If you shoot golf in the 90's, don't get your damper down. Only three per cent of the estimated five million golfers in the country can break 90. A New Orleans sports writer says winning the Masters, National Open, PGA and British Open in one year would be a feat comparable to a pitcher throwing four straight no-hitters in baseball. Andy Pilney, the former Tulane football coach, is now in the insect extermination business in Metairie, La., which is next door to New Orleans.

Upwards Of 20 Swimmers Due For Y Swim Meet

Plans were beginning to shape up Thursday for the first swimming tournament to be held in Big Spring in several years. It will be held July 18 in the City Park pool, and teams from several areas will compete in several events. Jim Gilbert, YMCA director, said 200 swimmers from area towns are expected to compete in 56 events. Medals will be given to the first, second and third place winners in each event, and ribbons will be awarded youths who place fourth through eighth in each event.

The YMCA is sponsoring the swimming meet. Gilbert emphasized that all events are competitive. "This is not an exhibition," said the director. "We have 15 on the Big Spring team and we want 50," he concluded. There will be no charge for the meet.

Cart Racing Is Slated

The Big Spring Carting Association will kick off its summer program of racing under the lights Saturday night. The season's opener will be a demonstration race. No admission charge will be levied. Time trials are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. while the first racing event starts at 8 o'clock. The races will be held on the association's track, located west of town just off Interstate Highway 20 across from the Sahara Drive-in theatre. Recently installed lighting at the track is making possible the first night-time racing ever to be held in the Big Spring area.

Services will be Saturday in Church for a coal, 68, resident who died Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. W. A. Eryly, will officiate, assisted by Rev. J. H. Knott. Eckerly Cemetery of River Home. Historic Stock Exchange At New Orleans Closes

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The New Orleans Cotton Exchange — a historic futures market where fortunes were once made and lost during a single day of trading—ceases operations today.

Across the nation, more than a score of commodity exchanges will suspend operations and observe one minute of silence at noon to mark the passing of the market place to the secretary of agriculture, the cooperatives and to history," said Merritt.

Saturday Rites For Miss Jeffcoat

Services will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday in Ackery Methodist Church for Miss Bertie Jeffcoat, 68, long-time Ackery resident who died at 5:15 a.m. Wednesday after an illness of two weeks.

Survivors include two brothers, Elmer Jeffcoat, Ackery, and Herman Jeffcoat, Knott, and several nieces and nephews.

Trust Action Hits Bakery

CLEBURNE (AP) — A state anti-trust suit was filed Wednesday against a Dallas baking firm.

In Austin, an assistant attorney general said the suit was against Campbell Tagert Associated Bakeries Inc. of Delaware, sole owners of Manor Baking Co., Dallas.

The suit contends Manor violated a state anti-trust law when it recently began offering a two weeks' free bread supply to grocers to promote introduction of its bread in retail stores. The firm previously sold door-to-door in Tarrant and Johnson counties, but recently began operating as a wholesaler and changed the trade name to "Rainbow".

The suit alleges the offers violate prohibitions against giving without cost or selling below cost price items in a manner which could injure competition.

Bhutan Premier Assassin, Aide Executed In Public

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The assassin of Premier Jigme Dorji of Bhutan and an army officer charged with masterminding the plot have been executed in public, the newspaper The Statesman reported today.

The report said Naik Jambej, the assassin, and Lt. Sange Dorji, faced a firing squad at a parade ground in Thimbu Saturday.

Brig Bhadr Namgyal, deputy commander of the Bhutan army, was executed two months ago for complicity in the assassination.

Dorji, an anti-Communist, was shot April 5 near the Indian border. The Indian government said it believed Red China was behind the assassination.

ing an underground explosion. Thirteen mine officials are on trial on charges of negligent homicide.

Dr. Walter von Koensigslow, a mining expert, testified that the evidence uncovered in investigations allowed only one conclusion — that methane and firedamp in the mine probably were ignited by a match struck to light a cigarette.

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II, protected by her husband's umbrella, sat through a downpour to watch a performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Yeoman of the Guard" at the Tower of London.

The rain began halfway through the first act Wednesday. A tarpaulin was stretched over the orchestra and the show went on.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Israel has warned that the "deteriorating situation" along the Israeli-Syrian frontier is a serious threat to international peace and security.

In a note to U.N. Security Council President Ahmed Taii Benhima of Morocco Wednesday, Israeli Ambassador Michael S. Comay accused Syrian forces of 29 "utterly unprovoked and obviously premeditated" attacks on Israeli positions between June 9 and July 6. He said his country had suffered six casualties and extensive property damage.

SAARBRUECKEN, Germany (AP) — A match struck to light a cigarette most likely caused one of Germany's worst mine disasters, in February 1962, a court was told Wednesday.

A total of 299 miners died in the Luisenthal coal mine following an underground explosion. Thirteen mine officials are on trial on charges of negligent homicide.

Dr. Walter von Koensigslow, a mining expert, testified that the evidence uncovered in investigations allowed only one conclusion — that methane and firedamp in the mine probably were ignited by a match struck to light a cigarette.

On the virtues of the old Republican party."

And he did resist the temptation Wednesday, except to note that there "may be one or two Democrats here." Mayor Robert F. Wagner, a Democrat, was another of the speakers at International Business Machines Day at the fair.

Eisenhower spoke of the computer, but also confessed that he hadn't "the slightest idea how a computer works."

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert Hoover, oldest living ex-president, will miss the Republican National Convention for the first time since he left office three decades ago.

Hoover, who will be 90 next month, said through a spokesman that he will send a 600-word statement to the convention that opens in San Francisco Monday.

He has been confined to his suite in the Waldorf Towers where he is recovering from a grave illness.

Barry Confident As Bill Thumps

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Gov. William W. Scranton went on thumping the drums hopefully today but Sen. Barry Goldwater's supporters plowed confidently toward their goal of a first ballot presidential nomination for the Arizona senator.

In the face of Scranton's declaration that an "overwhelming number of Republicans seem to think that I ought to be nominated and I think I ought to be, too," the Goldwater forces brought up a vigorous dissent.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska, the Arizona senator's convention floor manager, said that "we have got more than enough" delegate votes for the nomination "but we want more."

"We want to make the most impressive showing possible on the first ballot when Sen. Goldwater will win the nomination," he said.

MORE THAN 700

Although Curtis declined to deal in numbers, Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., another Goldwater strategist, said in a separate interview "we've got more than 700 and we're getting more." A total of 655 convention votes is needed for the nomination.

Scranton, the Pennsylvania governor, was a late starter in the contest for the GOP presidential nomination. In his efforts to win away some of Goldwater's supporters by personal campaigning, Scranton flew into San Francisco Wednesday saying he can wrest the nomination from Goldwater and can win in November.

At a sweltering, jam-packed gathering in the swank Park Hopkins Hotel, the Pennsylvania said he is "ready to win the nomination and I am ready to win in November."

BARRY INTERVIEW

Scranton has been emphasizing in an interview Goldwater gave a German news weekly in which he said he doesn't believe "as of now," that any GOP candidate can defeat President Johnson, but that it might be an entirely different story in November.

The hard truth of Goldwater's statement is acknowledged by almost every Republican willing to comment on it privately. But they add that this is not something a leading candidate for the party nomination should be saying publicly.

But Curtis said he found in a careful check that this incident has caused no perceptible falling off in Goldwater's delegate support. He said the Arizona senator was only making a frank, truthful analysis of the situation as it stands today.

Scranton's arrival reception, preceding that of Goldwater by a day, was noisy but not of giant proportions.

WITHOUT DENT

The opponents of the Goldwater conservative stance had produced most of their top-rank figures — including Gvs. George Romney of Michigan and Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and former ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge — without seeming to have made a perceptible dent in the delegate strength gained by the Arizona senator.

The lone personality who is credited with any ability to change the result—former President Dwight D. Eisenhower—is not due until the weekend. But his role of neutrality in the presidential contest appeared to have been established beyond alteration.

Scranton carried his case to the convention platform committee. He said he would appeal for a strong civil rights plank and for a declaration against any type of "extremism."

His forum was a 10-member group that contains a majority of Goldwater supporters. And there was no indication that the committee will produce any statement that Goldwater could not accept or any that would open the way for any successful challenge on the convention floor.

NO FLOOR FIGHT

Tower said he doesn't believe there will be any floor fight because he is confident Goldwater will accept any "reasonable" platform that the committee drafts under the guidance of Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., its chairman.

In the minds of most delegates about the only thing left to be settled by next week's convention is the choice of a vice presidential nominee.

Rep. William E. Miller of New York, chairman of the GOP National Committee, obviously had an okay from the Goldwater forces to try to set up this job and he was working hard at it.

One veteran member of the national committee who is backing Goldwater said he and other strategists canvassed the field in recent meetings and had come to the conclusion that as a Roman Catholic, an Easterner and a resident of upstate New York, Miller is the most available candidate.

One highly placed convention official said that when Goldwater asks his advice about the matter—as the Arizona senator can be expected to do—he will urge that second place on the ticket be offered first to Scranton.

Scranton has said he won't take it. But politicians have been known to change their minds under the stress of convention events.

MR. AND MRS. JOE B. HEDLESTON

Hedlestons Discover 'Gold' At City Dumps

By JO BRIGHT
The average soda-sipper at Cunningham and Phillips Drug Store may glance with mild interest at the high shelves to the back of the fountain. The less curious see only empty bottles, and only rarely do customers realize that what they are viewing is a rare collection that is rich in historical—and monetary—value. The bottles belong to Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Hedleston.

The hobby of bottle collecting is comparatively unknown, and practitioners would just as soon it stayed that way. Unlike the amateurs who fill tall, clear glass specimens with colored water or bath salts, the true hobbyist disdains decoration of any kind. The trained eye looks for color, design and markings that denote bottles that will never be manufactured again.

"Before I started my hobby," remarked Hedleston, "I'm sure I threw away enough valuable specimens to start a dealer in business."

HOBBY BEGINS
"It began a few years ago when a salesman friend gave me a couple of old apothecary bottles. A few days later I was moving some things in the back room and discovered another one that had been left for the trash hauler. That was the day I became a bottle collector. My main interest still centers around apothecary or drug store bottles, but any bottle that is old—or of a peculiar shape or color—is interesting."

A bottle that is left exposed to the elements or if buried in the soil, especially sandy soil, will eventually take on the colors of the rainbow. Many people scour the rubbish piles of old ghost towns for bottles and Hedleston has done a little of this type of hunting, too, since this is where you are apt to find the colored glass. These old bottles, which were formerly ignored by everyone except the junk man and second hand bottle users, have suddenly become prized and valued objects to collectors across the nation.

"One of my oldest and most prized bottles is an original infant nursing bottle," said Hedleston. "It was given to me by a lady who said it had been in her family for over 125 years. It is the forerunner of the modern infant nurse, although not quite as sanitary."

The bottle is flat on one side and oval on top with a short neck that closed with a rubber stopper. Through this stopper ran a tube into the bottle, and on the outer end of the rubber tube, about 18 inches long, was attached the nipple.

OLD MEDICINES
"Not so long ago I was in an old drugstore in a distant town when I saw a bottle on the shelf that I had been looking for. I purchased it, and when I started to empty the contents and clean it up—the bottle was all I was interested in—the thought occurred that a collection of old remedies and patent medicines would be interesting. Now I have a sizeable collection of old and obsolete remedies, but I keep them separate from my bottles."

He explained that screw caps replaced stoppers many years ago, so now when he finds a bottle with a cork stopper he takes a second look. It may be valuable.

In the past ten years another field of bottle collecting has opened up and today's collectors feel that all bottles blown by the power of man's lungs are worthy of interest. This includes all bottles made prior to 1900 when the Owens bottle making machine put an end to the period when a common bottle was a handmade object, requiring the skill of highly specialized craftsmen.

One of the most popular bottles among collectors is the biters bottle. The bottles had the word "biters" embossed in the glass. The biters consisted of an alcoholic liquid containing a bitter herb flavoring, and was advertised to cure every ailment known to man or beast. Millions of bottles of this dubious mixture was consumed by the American public between mid-nineteenth century and 1906, when the Pure Food and Drug Act put an end to its distribution.

Mrs. Hedleston pursues a hobby of her own but she is helpful to her husband in his collecting. "Many of the bottles in my collection were given by friends," continued Hedleston, "and some of them were salvaged from dump grounds. Others have been purchased from antique dealers and when we travel across the country we find that a good part of our time is spent looking for bottles."

"It is really a disease that grows on one—almost as fascinating as prospecting for gold."

Iris Culture Discussed At Four O'Clock Club

Iris culture and selection were discussed by Mrs. Carl Hollingsworth, guest speaker at the Wednesday meeting of the Four O'Clock Garden Club. Mrs. Eddie Kohanek, Midway, served as hostess.

The speaker, a member of the American Iris Society, noted that now is the time to divide and transplant iris and work the beds. Well-rotted barnyard fertilizer or peat moss should be worked into a new bed and bone meal and a nitrogen-bearing fertilizer were recommended to feed beds. By buying good iris and giving them proper care, prize-winning specimens can be consistently grown, she noted. Crown, or soft, rot should be treated by digging the soft spot out of the rhizome and applying sulphur.

Mrs. Ricky Phinney, park chairman, reported on the city work at the Hillcrest Park. Playground equipment has been added and plans are under way to add a pavilion and sprinkling system in the near future.

Mrs. Strickland Combines Career With Homemaking

By MARY COCHRAN

In baseball jargon Mrs. Jack Strickland makes a "home run with two men on base" every day. She is a secretary for the C. D. Turner, Drilling Co., and manages three home cooked meals every day for her husband and 12-year-old son, Dale. Her "batting average" is high, too, in cooking skills according to her family and friends.

"My cooking improved when I learned how to properly use my set of heavy aluminum ware and got some coaching from my husband's mother, Mrs. J. H. Strickland of Overton," she said.

She uses a minimum of water for vegetables and none at all for roasts. With low heat and a knack at seasoning, foods prepared by this career wife and mother come to the table nutritionally "loaded" and tasty.

PLANS MADE

In order to serve three meals each day, Mrs. Strickland must cook ahead and carefully plan her menus. Casseroles and roasts lend themselves to this type of cooking. In the evenings, she prepares the food for the next day. Meat, red beans, or casseroles are put on very slow heat when she leaves for work and are ready for the noon meal.

Her husband is handy in the kitchen and often lends a helping hand when he has a few minutes from his duties as minister of the Baptist Mission of Big Spring. He is a state missionary and conducts his services at the Girl Scout Little House, a ministry he has had since December when the family moved here from El Paso.

Mrs. Strickland serves Sunday dinners for church members quite often at their home at 1601 Avion. On Saturday evening, she washes and wraps potatoes in foil and bakes the family's favorite dessert, cake. Before church the next morning, she makes a congealed salad, usually with fruit, and by using ice cubes for quick cooling has it ready for refrigeration. The roast and potatoes are popped in the oven and when noon comes a guest dinner is ready and waiting.

SEASON TRICK

"Canned vegetables are fine if properly seasoned," she said. Green beans take on a special flavor when drained and covered with fresh water, then added to onions sauteed in bacon drippings. For a change, she may add vinegar and sugar to the mixture.

Red beans make a tasty dish if combined with hamburger meat, onion, bell pepper and chili powder.

For barbecue Mrs. Strickland

BAKING TIME
A favorite pastime under way

often selects a pork shoulder which she slices into one inch strips and covers with barbecue sauce. This is one of the less costly cuts of meat and lends itself well to charcoal cookery.

This native of Louisiana learned her basic culinary skills from her mother, Mrs. Mabel Campbell. Years of experience and a love for cooking have contributed their share to her mastery in the kitchen.

Today, Mrs. Strickland handles the "triple play" of homemaker, hostess and career woman with skill and ease.

Her favorite recipes have stood the test of time and will be tempters you will want to try.

Sparkling Menus In Summer Need Tempting Salad

'Tis the season to toss a salad to spark those summer meals. Summer and salad make a compatible partnership.

Supplies of such basic salad ingredients as lettuce, cottage cheese and fresh fruits are increasing and stocks of oils for making dressings are near a record high.

Use your imagination to develop new and exciting dressings to sharpen the flavor of your salads.

Gourmet cooks insist that a basic French dressing is the best for a green salad. Here's an easy-to-prepare recipe. You will need 1 quart salad oil, 2 cups vinegar, 1 1/2 tablespoons salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 tsp. paprika and 1/2 tsp. powdered dry mustard.

Combine all the ingredients and beat to blend. This makes about 1 1/2 quarts. Refrigerate. Shake well before using.

For variation, add onion juice and canned condensed tomato soup to taste. Or, use honey in place of the sugar.

For a cream French dressing, especially good on salads featuring fruits or berries, whip together 1/2 cup of the basic French dressing and 1/2 cup mayonnaise. You can make this dressing colorful and exciting with spices and herbs.

Try this for a starter. Marinate cooked asparagus spears and cooked carrot sticks in an oil and vinegar dressing — one part oil to one part vinegar spiced with salt and freshly ground pepper. At serving time, arrange vegetables on lettuce and add a dusting of dried dill weed.

Borden's Buttermilk helps you sleep better!

Doctors say that most sleeplessness is caused by either an empty stomach or indigestion. Each night drink a glass of country-churn Borden's Buttermilk ... and sleep better!

Time Is Ripe For Melons

The chief of the world's luxuries.

That's what Mark Twain termed the watermelon. And few Americans will disagree for it's estimated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture that the average American eats from 18 to 17 pounds of juicy watermelon each year.

You probably have noticed how supplies are increasing at your local markets. The Southwest can look forward to an unusual abundance, as Texas watermelon planting increased 6,000 acres over last year.

The watermelon is by no means a newcomer to the list of favored foods. Egyptian paintings dated during the time of the pyramids depict watermelons. And the watermelon has a name in the ancient languages of Arabic, Sanskrit, Hebrew and Chinese.

History records the white men brought the watermelon to the Western Hemisphere. But they became so popular among the Indians and spread so fast that when pioneers penetrated into the heart of the Louisiana Territory, they found the Omaha Indians raising watermelons.

Today's watermelon abundance is the result of lots of research. Charleston Greys are now one of the leading varieties, but there are lots of others, including yellow-meat melons, to meet the needs of discriminating watermelon eaters.

The most popular way of eating a watermelon is in the wedge, chilled with lots of salt. And nowadays you can buy just the amount you want — pre-cut melons in halves, quarters and slices to meet the immediate needs of the shopper.

When buying pre-cut melons, you easily can see if the meat has a firm fresh texture, is bright in color, has fairly thin rind and seeds of dark brown or black.

Like a book, you can't always tell the quality of a whole melon by its cover. Generally speaking, though, a ripe melon is symmetrically shaped, and has a dull rather than shiny surface. Also, the underside of a ripe melon is apt to be turning from white or pale green to a light yellowish color.

Try some of these recipes for tasty watermelon eating.

Adjust Broiler For Thick Steak

Remember when broiling steaks, to adjust your broiler pan and rack so that the top surface of a 1-inch thick steak is 2 to 3 inches from the heat. A 2-inch thick steak should be placed 3 to 5 inches from the heat. Steaks should be turned only once during broiling.

White Potatoes May Need Acid

To prevent the potatoes turning dark (after grating) add a half teaspoon of ascorbic acid powder to three cups of grated potatoes. Good to know when you're making potato pancakes.

GREEN TOMATO PIE
Pennsylvania-Dutch dessert worth reviving

Try Fresh Green Tomatoes In Old-Fashioned Dessert

By The Associated Press

Go into the garden, cook, and pick those green tomatoes. No garden? Look around at markets and you'll find some.

Use the green tomatoes in a pie — an old-time specialty, much neglected of late.

This dessert was probably originated by Pennsylvania-Dutch cooks, and our guess is it stemmed from their liking for sweet-and-sour combinations. Some early recipes for the pie call for vinegar and molasses. In this modern rule, for delicate flavor, lemon juice replaces vinegar, corn syrup is used instead of molasses.

GREEN TOMATO PIE

3 large or 5 medium green tomatoes
1 tsp. salt
1/4 cup sugar
1-3 cup corn starch
1 1/4 tps. nutmeg
1-3 cup light corn syrup
Grated rind of 1 lemon
2 tsp. lemon juice
Special Pastry
1 tsp. butter or margarine

Wash and cut out stems from tomatoes; quarter and cut into 1/4-inch slices — there should be 1 quart. Sprinkle with salt and reserve. In a small saucepan stir together the sugar, cornstarch and nutmeg; stir in corn syrup, lemon rind and lemon juice. Stirring constantly, cook over moderate heat until mixture comes to a boil; remove from heat.

Roll out half the pastry on prepared pastry cloth to 1/4-inch thickness. Fold over opposite sides to meet in center; fold ends over the same way. Roll to form a circle about 12 inches and 1/4-inch thick. Fill loosely into a 9-inch pie plate. Drain tomatoes in a colander; arrange in pastry shell. Spoon partly cooled cornstarch mixture evenly over tomatoes; dot with butter. Roll out, fold and roll remaining pastry, as directed for bottom crust.

Place on top of tomato filling. Cut slits to allow steam to escape during baking. Trim, seal and flute edge. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven until tomatoes are tender—40 to 45 minutes. Place pie plate on rack to cool just enough to allow cornstarch mixture to set slightly. Serve at once, preferably with cheese.

SPECIAL PASTRY

2 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup margarine
1/4 cup ice water

In a mixing bowl, sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. With a pastry blender cut in margarine until particles are fine. With a fork, stir in water evenly over flour mixture.

Press into a ball; if not all crumbs adhere, turn out on waxed paper and with palms placed on outside of paper, press into a ball. Divide in half; press each half flat; cover tightly and chill for 1 hour.

Drouth, Low Water Worries In West Texas

By The Associated Press
A few more isolated thunder-showers were forecast for today—but not in enough strength to lessen the heat wave or to relieve the worsening dryness in West and Northwest Texas.
The weatherman predicted temperatures as high as Wednesday's 108 degrees at Mineral Wells, with Dallas already reporting 87 early today.
A scorching grass fire was brought under control in the tinderbox dry region west of Fort Worth Wednesday, after singeing a path five miles long and three miles wide.
Some communities were getting low on water and considering rations until rains refilled the water supply. Cleburne in Central Texas was one of the cities talking about limiting water use.

WATER RECORD
At Abilene, a record 24-hour consumption of water was noted from midnight Monday to midnight Tuesday, with nearly 37 million gallons pumped out to the city of 111,000.
Lake Fort Phantom Hill, Abilene's principal supplier of water, is already one-third empty.
Spotty rain has helped crops on the South Plains from burning up completely but much more rain was needed. Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock recently tied into city water lines when its private water sources sank to a perilous low.
Thundershowers Wednesday were skimpy. Beaumont measured .05 of an inch during a 24-hour period; Dalhart in the Panhandle got .31 of an inch, and El Paso reported .01 of an inch.
Forecasts called for a few thunderstorms over the extreme north and west parts of the state today and Friday.

OTHER HIGHS
Other high temperatures

Lewis Given Extra Time
Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court, has granted E. L. (Sonny) Lewis, convicted robber, an additional 45 days in which to prepare a statement of fact in his proposed appeal to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.
Lewis, with Richard Earl Snyder, was found guilty by a jury in 118th District Court Feb. 19. The pair, charged with the Dec. 23 holdup of Luther Loudamy, manager of the Safeway Store on Gregg, had entered a guilty plea but, because their case was a capital one, a jury had to fix punishment. The jurors set the penalty for each man at 25 years in state prison.
Lewis, in a petition filed this week in the court, alleges that on April 3, he appeared before the court and gave formal notice of appeal—an action which he contends should have kept the sheriff's office from taking him to the State Penitentiary on April 4. However, he alleges this was done. Soon after being admitted to the prison, he was taken on a bench warrant to Wichita Falls to answer charges there and, in the interval, lost contact with his attorney and had no opportunity to obtain the statement of facts and other material needed to complete his appeal.
The petition for additional time was granted by Judge Caton.

Attendance Holding High
Attendance at both the City-wide Summer Recreation program and the YMCA regular programs continue high and steady.
Last week there was a total attendance of 975 for the space club functions at the YMCA, only three less than the previous week. The cumulative attendance for the week at Lakeview YMCA added another 240, which was up two from the week immediately before.
The YMCA summer program activities drew 1,200 young Y members during the week, a figure that also is holding steady, said Curtis Mullins, general secretary.
The Citywide Summer program which is made possible through the United Fund and in cooperation with the City of Big Spring, the Big Spring School District and the Y, continues through this month. Prospects are that the cumulative attendance will quadruple last summer.

Charged Here
Sheriff Miller Harris and Deputy A. G. Mitchell are en route to Phoenix, Ariz., to bring back G. A. Ellington who is charged here with theft by bailee. The defendant was arrested in the Arizona city and waived extradition. He has not been indicted for the charge against him.

Wednesday included Wichita Falls 107, Dallas 104, Fort Worth 104, Childress 105, Midland 103, San Angelo 104, Waco 102, Junction 102, Abilene 102, Big Spring 102, Wink 101 and Lufkin 100.
Heaviest rains in weeks fell in parched areas in eastern sections of the nation today and showers sprinkled scattered sections in other parts of the country.
More than 1 1/4 inches of rain was reported in Philadelphia compared to less than one inch during May and June. More than three inches ended a dry spell in Lakehurst, N.J., and more than one inch fell in Newark. The wet belt covered the heavier populated areas of the eastern seaboard.
Fields and woodlands earlier this week were reported parched and tinder dry in many sections from Maine to Maryland, with water supplies depleted in some areas. Many counties in New York, Maryland, Maine and New Jersey earlier had been declared drouth disaster areas.

WESTERN PLAINS
Fairly heavy rain also was reported in the western central plains, with nearly two inches in Goodland, Kan.
A heat wave continued in many parts of the Lower Mississippi Valley and in the Southern Plains, with temperatures again Wednesday soaring above 100 degrees. The mercury also bubbled to 100 in southeastern Colorado, southeastern Utah and in extreme southern Idaho, with readings in the mid-90s in the northern Rockies.
Early morning temperatures ranged from the low 50s along the Pacific Northwest Coast to the upper 80s in the Southwest Desert region and in south central areas.

Addition To List
Alison Thomas Wahrlich, above, was added to the Ten Most Wanted Fugitives list by the Federal Bureau of Investigation today. He is charged with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for kidnapping in the alleged abduction of a six-year-old Arizona girl in Tucson in April, 1964. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Weather Factors Affect Intensity Of Sonic Booms

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tests when a shock wave formed at the nose of an aircraft traveling at supersonic speed reaches the ground.
In conducting the Oklahoma City tests, the FAA was looking ahead to future overland flights of supersonic transport planes.
At a news conference Wednesday, FAA Administrator N. E. Halaby said again that the sonic boom "is a more serious problem than we thought a year ago, in that we are getting what I call overbooming."
Halaby said there was no plan to continue the Oklahoma City boom flights beyond their planned expiration date next month.
Argentine Envoy
MEXICO CITY (AP)—New Argentine ambassador to Mexico Silvio A. Santanader was scheduled to present his credentials to President Adolfo Lopez Mateos today at the National Palace.
The sonic boom distortions show up for the most part off to either side of the plane's course. For "off-course" communities a sonic boom can be greater than expected or so slight as almost to escape detection.
In case you haven't heard one, a sonic boom is a sound resembling an explosion. It's produced

New Yorker Aids Birth Control Plan In Kentucky

BEREA, Ky. (AP) — A New York businessman has contributed $25,000 to finance free sterilization operations for a birth control project in a poor section of Kentucky.

"I'm not a do-gooder," said Jesse Hartman of New York Wednesday. "I just want to help in this fight on poverty."

The plan calls for the financing of 300 operations on needy patients who qualify.

The six-month pilot program, called the Hartman Plan, is being operated by the Human Betterment Association for Voluntary Sterilization, which was organized in 1937.

Dr. Millard A. Shepherd, a state health officer, is confident the project will lead to sterilization programs elsewhere.

"The purpose of the program is to demonstrate in 22 counties the efficacy of it financially."

sterilization clinic in a Warren, Va., hospital became known.

Operators of the Kentucky project hope to show sterilization is an effective weapon against poverty. They also hope President Johnson will add it to his war on poverty.

1. The Roman Catholic Church opposes any means of artificial birth control. Wood said sterilization operations are banned at Catholic hospitals.

MISGIVINGS

2. "Most physicians are in the dark" about sterilization and "hospitals have had many misgivings about the legal issue," Shepherd said.

3. Shepherd said there are men who believe "the only way to prove you're a man is by having children" and they would decline to submit to an operation.

4. Wood said private funds, such as Hartman's, will be used until "the time comes—and it must come—that public health departments and other agencies can appropriate funds for this."

SHERRI FINKBINE REVEALS FIFTH BABY ON ITS WAY
Husband Robert plants a kiss on once-controversial TV personality

Sherri Finkbine Expecting Again

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Sherri Finkbine, center of international controversy two years ago when she had an abortion after taking the drug thalidomide, says she's expecting her fifth child.

Mrs. Finkbine, 31, known as Sherri Chesson on her Phoenix television show, confirmed Wednesday night the report of her pregnancy. She is expecting in January.

She said she doesn't care whether it's a boy or a girl. "I want a healthy, normal baby," she said. She was reluctant to comment further.

"Two years ago I had a valid reason for telling my story," she declared. "To expose the dangers of a drug. Anything I would say now would be only to satisfy curiosity."

Two years ago, on July 22, Mrs. Finkbine revealed her plight when she gave a Phoenix newspaper, the Arizona Republic, her story. She had taken the tranquilizer early months along when she learned the drug was causing the birth of severely deformed babies in Europe.

Her husband, Robert, a Scottsdale high school teacher, had obtained the drug in England while escorting a group of students on a tour.

The Finkbines attempted to get a court order declaring an abortion necessary, but Arizona courts turned down their pleas. They then went to Sweden where the abortion was performed and doctors reported the baby would have been deformed.

Speaking of the drug Wednesday night, Mrs. Finkbine said she originally told her story because, "it happened to me, it could have happened to others."

"We're very happy," she said of the impending birth. But that is about all she wanted to say.

Her husband, 33, had a few fatherly words to add.

"We're out to break the tie," he said happily, "we have two boys and two girls. It's kind of exciting, we like kids."

Their children are ages 3 to 9.

LOCAL PROGRAMS

The association sets up local programs, accepts applications for sterilization, screens them and refers about one-fourth to physicians cooperating in the program.

Landers Tells Of Simple Art

The basis of plus qualities in business is communication—the simple art of understanding, Martin Landers, head of the Howard County Junior College speech department, told Downtown Lions Wednesday.

Employers can buy time, presence and muscular movements, but they cannot buy enthusiasm, initiative, devotion. These qualities come only through understanding by employees of the employers' appeal for teamwork.

Not only does business operate more effectively when there is understanding from executives to workers, workers to executives and between members of the organization, but many fringe benefits result, said Landers. Among them are a sense of security by employees, a sense of belonging and being important, recognition of jobs well done, and building of good human relations.

Jim Black, who is being sponsored in the Olympic wrestling tryouts at Mare Island, Calif. by the Lions Club, was a guest and expressed his appreciation for support. Frosty Robinson, vice president, presented Dr. W. A. Hunt, immediate past president, with a plaque from the club.

Protest March Produces Candy

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—After a show of force, a dozen kids have converted a candy store owner to their way of thinking.

Their way of thinking is that when you are at a candy counter trying to make up your mind you don't like to be rushed.

They considered that Mrs. Antoinette Mufarreh was rushing them in her Noe Hill market at 4001 Noe St. So they marched on the market and protested.

Mrs. Mufarreh agreed they should not be rushed at such a critical time. She went further. "Would they like to come to her house for some free candy?" They would. And afterward: "She's a very nice lady," said Kevin Fregosi, 4, savoring a mint.

DEAR ABBY

Problem Of Tipping

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married for 12 years. He is a restaurant manager, and I am a waitress. We both work in the same restaurant, and I have noticed that some of the waiters and doormen are being paid more than others. I have heard that some of them are being paid as much as $100 a week. I am not sure if this is true or not, but it seems to me that this is a very unfair practice. I would like to know what you think about this. Should I talk to my husband about this, or should I just let it go? I would like to hear from you.

hairdressers, manicurists) are considered attractive only because of the "tips" that go with them. And the salaries paid take "tips" into account. So in many cases, a tip is more than a fringe benefit. It is bread and butter. Granted, no establishment should expect the customers to pay their help, but until the system is changed, why punish the working folks?

DEAR ABBY: I am a middle-aged man in love with a woman a few years my junior. We are both mature people, we both have had a previous marriage. She and I are completely congenial. We like the same things, have similar educational backgrounds and can talk for hours without running out of conversation. I love her deeply, but she says she only "likes" me, she doesn't love me—and so no marriage. All I can do is hope and wait, but she says I'm wasting my time, that she knows her feelings for me won't change. Any suggestions? UP AGAINST A STONE WALL. DEAR UP AGAINST: Believe her. Her answer might change, but her feelings are not likely to. Then you could have a wife who "likes" but does not "love" you. That would be dandy if it's only companionship you're both looking for—but don't expect more.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think it is proper to refer to a single woman who has never been married as an "old maid"? I have a dear friend who has never married. She is attractive, popular, self-supporting and nobody's fool, and I am outraged every time I hear someone call her an "old maid." Some wom-

Hiccup Bout Finally Ends

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Today is a happy anniversary for Lucy McDonald. It is the anniversary of her bout with the hiccups. The 38-year-old red-haired mother of three says she couldn't be happier. The hiccups stopped about a week ago. Mrs. McDonald received thousands of letters, telegrams and telephone calls after an Associated Press story described her plight. Most suggested home remedies for curing the hiccups. The remedy which apparently cured her came from a druggist for whom she now works. The pharmacist, Roy Faith, said: "I just gave her a drug which is commonly used. I cannot say what it was because I am not a physician and I cannot prescribe. The important thing is that she is cured."

Whether the hiccups have gone for good is a question, but Mrs. McDonald says this is the longest period of time she has been able to breathe with ease in a year.

"You can't imagine how thankful I am," she said. "It is such a little thing to be able to breathe without hiccuping. This was the worst year of my life."

Mrs. McDonald was a waitress until she lost her job because waitresses aren't supposed to hiccup constantly.

She tried several other jobs. Each time she was discharged because of the hiccups. She now works behind the soda fountain in the drug store.

Policemen To Answer Accused Man's Suit

HOUSTON (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Joe Ingraham was to hear Harris County and Miami officers today answer charges they have violated the civil rights of Melvin Lane Powers, 27, accused slayer of millionaire Jacques Mossler.

The judge has directed the officers to show cause at the 9:30 a.m. hearing why they should not stop questioning Powers.

Judge Ingraham also told the officers to show why they should not be stopped from issuing "accusatory press releases" on Powers.

Mossler, 68, Miami and Houston financier, was found dead in his swank Miami apartment June 20. He had been stabbed more than 30 times.

WITHOUT BOND

Powers, a nephew of Mrs. Mossler, 45, was arrested in Houston and is being held in the Harris County Jail without bond. His attorneys have indicated they will fight attempts by Florida authorities to extradite him.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Candace Mossler, widow of the slain millionaire, has said "There is absolutely no truth to these rumors about a romance with Powers."

Sheriff's Capt. M. F. Patton had reported that deputies searching Powers' office south of Houston had found letters signed "C. Mossler." Patton said the letters were in the handwriting of Mrs. Mossler.

PHOTOGRAPHS

Patton also said several photographs were found by the deputies with some showing Powers and Mrs. Mossler together. Patton said one of the letters said in part:

"I love you need you...you are everything to me, Darling."

In an interview with newsmen from her hospital bed where she has been confined since Sunday,

Mrs. Mossler said: "Why, I call everybody darling. This whole thing is so awful. I still can't think straight. Some of my friends told me to get out of town this week."

With her blue eyes swollen and red from crying and her blonde hair tangled against the pillows, Mrs. Mossler said Powers was "like a member of the family." "My husband always called him son," she said.

WITH FAMILY

She said Powers had been living with the family three to four years.

Mrs. Mossler, in a hospital room with private guards at the door, said her doctor told her she had something like battle fatigue.

She repeated her charge that Dist. Atty. Frank Briscoe held a grudge against her. She said the "grudge" stemmed from her service as a grand jury member in 1960.

Briscoe has said he does not hold a grudge against her and was not a member of the district attorney's staff during the time she served on the grand jury.

The federal civil rights suit filed by Powers' attorneys named Sheriff C. V. (Buster) Kern, Chief Deputy Lloyd Frazier and Maj. Manson Hill and Sgt. Charles Maddox of the Dade County (Miami) sheriff's office.

$100,000 DAMAGES

Attorneys William Walsh and Percy Foreman asked $100,000 damages from officers in the suit filed Wednesday.

The suit renewed demands which had been rejected Monday in state court by Criminal Dist. Judge Sam W. Davis at a habeas corpus hearing.

The suit said that Judge Davis' "refusal to order Powers' release after he was held incommunicado for 23 hours makes it clear that state courts will tolerate a determined campaign of derogatory publicity and will not protect a prisoner from unremitting interrogation."

Violence At Texarkana 'Not Civil Rights Case'

TEXARKANA (AP)—Cass County Atty. Neal Birmingham said Sunday's violence at Lake Texarkana between Negroes and white people "is not a civil rights case."

In the melee, four persons—three Negroes and one white man—were wounded by gunfire, none seriously.

In a letter to the Texarkana Gazette and News, Birmingham said the matter will be presented to the grand jury "in due order" along with several other criminal matters when the panel convenes.

He said the next court date set for original cases will be July 27.

"The only feature of this matter that distinguishes it from any other offense is the large number of persons involved," his letter said, and continued: "This is not a civil rights case or a case against anyone for exercising any right they have to use the public facilities of Lake Texarkana."

"We are concerned solely with the offenses committed against state law, which is a simple case of civil disorder involving several people which, under Texas law, is termed a riot."

The county attorney said there will be no special setting, special jury venire or "any other special consideration given to the matter."

He added that this includes the case against Clifford Williams, 21-year-old Negro charged with assault with intent to commit murder in connection with the fracas. Williams is accused of shooting a white man with a .22 caliber weapon.

The person or persons who fired into a crowd of Negroes with a shotgun, wounding three, have not been identified or charged. No arrests of white people have been made.

Twenty-two Negroes are charged with engaging in a riot.
