NEGRO YOUTHS SEARCHED IN RIOT AREA
Jersey City police frisk trio during night-long battle

Jersey Negroes Riot; Two Shot

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)— Bands of young Negroes, hurling gasoline bombs, bricks and bottles at policemen, surged through Jersey City streets again Monday night in a riot that left two Negroes shot and 16 other persons injured.

Police arrested seven Negroes on disorderly persons charges, bringing to 20 the number of arrests since the fighting broke out Sunday night.

Early today, the hit-and-run bands retreated from the streets, but more than 100 policemen still patrolled a wide area of the predominantly Negro section in the southern part of the city.

Windows in a score of stores were smashed and some businesses looted in the latest outbreak.

At a midnight press conference more than three hours after the riot began, Mayor Thomas J. Whelan said he believed the violence had "passed its peak."

But he reiterated his warning: "We will use all the force and power at our disposal to see that law and order is maintained."

He said he was prepared to sit down with civil rights leaders "anytime, anywhere" but the first problem was maintaining order.

Whelan said the situation in Jersey City, across the Hudson River from New York City, was one of "hooliganism versus law and order." The city has 275,000 residents, 17 per cent of whom are Negroes.

The two Negroes who were shot and a white man dragged from his truck and stabbed by Negroes were the only persons kept at Jersey City Medical Center. All three were in good condition. Two patrolmen, including one who suffered a fractured ankle, were among the 15 injured who were treated and released.

The Negroes were identified as Louis Mitchell, 19, and John Dudley, 21. Mitchell was wounded in the neck and shoulder and had a flesh wound on the forearm.

The white man was Harry Schultz, 66, who had four stab wounds in the back, the hospital reported.

Authorities said they could not determine immediately how they had been shot.

Monday night's riot broke out about 8:45 p.m. as Negro leaders were meeting with Mayor Whelan and other city officials at City Hall. The meeting ended when reports of the riot reached the mayor's office. A Negro leader said nothing was accomplished at the meeting.

The trouble began, police said, when Negroes hurled rocks at passing cars at Grand and Woodward streets, near the scene of the fighting Sunday night.

Some youths standing on the roof of a two-story apartment building bombarded a police car with bricks while their colleagues on street level tried to overturn another police vehicle.

Police escorted buses through the area and fired several shots in the air. A crowd of over 100 youths then gathered on Woodward Street and hurled gasoline bombs and other missiles at three dozen helmeted policemen who stood their ground at the Grand Street intersection. One officer suffered burns.

The policemen, armed with shotguns and 38-caliber revolvers, fired volleys. It was during this period that the Negroes suffered the shotgun wounds.

Troops Seek Rebel Alice Dead Or Alive

North Rhodesia Attacks Fanatics

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (AP)— Soldiers were airlifted today to Lundazi, where rampaging Lumpa warriors have massacred 150 persons. The troops were ordered to capture, dead or alive, the Lumpa leader, prophetess Alice Leshina.

Reports said the death toll from Monday's trail of terror and death through 18 villages might be higher because soldiers had not returned with information from Chinsali, one of the trouble spots.

The Northern Rhodesian government issued the "dead or alive" order as it temporarily outlawed the fanatic sect, whose rampages in the past 12 days have cost at least 270 lives.

In a nationwide broadcast Monday night after the Lumpa massacre of 150 persons at Lundazi, Prime Minister Kenneth Kaunda threatened anyone attending meetings of the cult with seven years in prison.

TO BELIEFS
Kaunda said he does not dispute the right of the Lumpas to their religious beliefs — a hodgepodge of African superstition, paganism and Church of Scotland theology — but he insisted on the restoration of order. He said he would lift the ban in about a month if the carnage ends.

Kaunda is trying desperately to bring peace to the central African country before it receives independence from Britain in 12 weeks.

Some 2,200 native troops under white officers are combing the bush for Lumpa prophetess Alice Leshina, who founded the sect 11 years ago, claiming she had died and returned from Heaven.

RETALIATION
Officials believe the terror at Lundazi, a market center 400 miles northeast of Lusaka, was in retaliation for the slaying of 75 Lumpas at the sect's headquarters at Sione Thursday. The Lumpas died in a suicidal charge with spears and muzzles.

The military pay bill, which has been approved by both houses of Congress and awaits only the President's signature, will mean an increase of over a half million dollars to military personnel at Webb AFB.

The increase for officers stationed here will total $31,657 per month, or an annual hike of $379,884. For airmen, the pay increase will be $10,319 per month, or $123,828 annually.

The payroll for military personnel at Webb currently stands at about $9,000,000. Effective date of the pay boost is Sept. 15.

Salinger Gets Interim Seat In Senate

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)— Gov. Edmund G. Brown named Pierre Salinger today to fill the unexpired term of the late Sen. Clair Engle.

The Democratic governor made the announcement with the former White House press secretary at his side at a news conference.

Salinger staged a whirlwind campaign to win the Democratic nomination for Engle's seat in the June primary over Brown's first choice.

He got the appointment in the face of questions over his eligibility.

The onetime San Francisco newspaper reporter hasn't been a California voter since 1955, and whatever happens, he won't be able to vote for himself in November. He'll be eligible, however, to cast a presidential ballot.

He had lived in Virginia nine years as press secretary to Presidents Kennedy and Johnson.

Reports circulated that Salinger would be sworn in Wednesday in Washington, D.C. Brown is to fly to the nation's capitol the same day for a dinner with President Johnson.

Engle's illness propelled Salinger into the June California primary on the last possible day. The 39-year-old one-time San Francisco newspaper reporter topped State Controller Alan Cranston to win a bitterly contested Democratic nomination for Engle's seat.

Salinger's Republican foe in November, former movie actor George Murphy, urged Brown Monday night to appoint someone other than the former press secretary to Presidents Kennedy and Johnson.

FIGURES IN CUBAN CRISIS

U.S., Russ Pair Eased Showdown

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. and Soviet messages relayed by an American newsman and a Soviet agent helped score a breakthrough in the darkest hours of the Cuban missile crisis, according to a former U.S. intelligence official.

Roger Hillsman, State Department intelligence chief at the time of the October 1962 confrontation, discloses in an article for the Aug. 25 issue of Look magazine that American Broadcasting Company correspondent John A. Scali was the American in the unofficial communications link.

The Russian was identified only as "Mr. X," a senior Soviet official who headed Soviet intelligence in the United States. Other sources said "Mr. X" since has left the Russian embassy here.

NOW TEACHING
Hillsman, now teaching at Columbia University, reported: By Friday, Oct. 26, of the fateful week the nuclear antagonists were eyeball-to-eyeball, President Kennedy had demanded a pullout of the Soviet missiles from Cuba and ordered a naval blockade. The Kremlin had publicly rejected Kennedy's proclamation. Some Soviet ships at sea had altered course, but the missile site building in Cuba was continuing full speed.

Mr. X, one of Scali's news contacts at the Soviet embassy, telephoned the correspondent, asking for an immediate lunch-date. Over a luncheon table in a downtown restaurant he quickly got to the point.

The Russian asked Scali to find out at once from his friends in the State Department whether the U.S. government would be interested in a solution to the crisis in which the Soviets removed the missiles; they allowed U.N. inspectors to supervise the pullout; they pledged not to reintroduce the missiles and America publicly pledged not to invade Cuba.

FIRST WORD
Scali promptly reported this to Hillsman and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Rusk said this was the first direct word that the Soviets might be thinking of a deal.

Rusk asked Scali to tell Mr. X that the U.S. government "sees real possibilities" in the proposition and to suggest that government representatives could work the matter out at the United Nations. "Time is very urgent," Rusk emphasized.

While Scali was relaying this word to Mr. X in a coffee shop that evening, a secret cable from Soviet Premier Khrushchev to Kennedy also indicating a willingness to negotiate was arriving at the White House.

The next day the Kremlin reversed its line and broadcast a Khrushchev note reneging on its proposals of the night before. Rusk asked Scali to see Mr. X again to find out what happened.

Big Gathering Due For Field Day

Dr. J. E. Box, superintendent for the U. S. Experiment Station here, said that all is in readiness for the visit to the station Wednesday of ranchers, soil experts, range technicians and others. The visitors will be from all parts of Texas and the occasion will be a demonstration and discussion of range management sponsored by the American Society of Range Management.

The gathering is of particular significance since only two or three field days of this character are held in Texas each year. Texas is one of 14 sections of the society in the United States.

Garlyn O. Hoffman, range specialist, will be in charge of the field day, assisted by a number of other experts. The staff of the U.S. Experiment Station will also be enlisted to help with the program.

Box said that registration opens at 8 a.m. and will close at 9 a.m. A tour of the station, with the guests divided into three groups, will start at 9:15 a.m. Officials of the station will act as guides and discuss the featured areas along the route.

At noon, the visitors, provided with city maps and with a list of all restaurants and cafes, will take a recess for lunch. They will return to the experiment station at 1:15 p.m. A number of speakers are on the afternoon program.

Nine Miners Reach Safety

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (AP)— Nine miners who spent eight days huddled in a damp chamber of the collapsed Mt. Rivel limestone mine were hauled up to safety through a narrow rescue shaft today and rushed, one by one, to a hospital.

It took about one hour to bring the nine men up through a hole pushed through to them by a special 23-inch drill.

None of the survivors appeared to be in serious condition, although all of them showed the effects of their long ordeal underground.

Several had cloth wrapped around their heads to shield their eyes from the blazing sun. Others were quickly fitted with dark glasses to protect their eyes.

First to reach the surface was Andre Jacques, 28, who seemed slightly dazed. He shielded his eyes from the blazing sun. A rescuer gave him dark glasses.

Relatives and other villagers who had spent painful hours waiting on the slopes of Mt. Rivel, cheered as Jacques was helped from the capsule. He was put in an ambulance and sped to a hospital.

New York Police Watching Rioters

NEW YORK (AP)— The New York City Police Department sent observers to scenes of racial rioting in Rochester, N.Y., and in Jersey City, N.J., to watch for individuals involved in earlier rioting here.

Police Commissioner Michel J. Murphy confirmed this through a spokesman today but refused to comment about what the observers had learned.

The spokesman said the police wanted to learn whether traveling agitators had been involved in the outbreaks of rioting in sections of this city, in Rochester and in Jersey City.

Fourth Outbreak In Two Weeks

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)— The rioting in Jersey City the past two nights was the fourth outbreak of racial violence in the Northeast in two weeks.

In New York City, rioting broke out in Harlem on July 18. One Negro was killed. In the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, Negroes rioted and looted on July 20-22.

From July 24-26, rioting in Rochester, N.Y., brought four deaths.

Ape On Loose Gets Hangover

CHICAGO (AP)— Sinbad the gorilla nursed a hangover today, just like anyone else not used to being out on the town.

One of the largest gorillas in captivity, the 6-foot, 500-pound Sinbad slipped out of his cage Monday and romped through 20 minutes of freedom, his first since coming to Lincoln Park Zoo in 1948 as an infant.

Sinbad confined his wanderings to the inner corridor of the monkey house, but alarmed zoo officials evacuated 75 persons from the building and called for the police riot squad.

At one time only a screen door separated the powerful animal from complete freedom.

"If he had come out we would have had to have him killed," said Gene Hartz, assistant zoo director. "There was nothing to keep him in but a screen door and he could have taken it right along with him."

Hartz eventually felled Sinbad by firing a 200-milligram dose of tranquilizer in his shoulder. Five hours after the injection Sinbad was up and around.

"He'll have a pretty bad hangover but that's about all," Hartz said.

Webb Included In Bill For Military Construction

Construction expenditures of $379,000 at Webb AFB were included in the military building bill signed Monday by President Johnson.

According to Maj. Charles H. Penn, base civil engineer, the bill calls for approximately $254,000 to be used for the construction of a gymnasium, and $125,000 for the extension of the auxiliary runway at Colorado City.

Webb officials today also announced approval of a contract amounting to $190,763 for the maintenance and repair of 13 armen dormitories. The contract went to J. W. Little Construction Co., Big Spring.

The work is required to be completed within 150 days and consists of exterior painting and maintaining, or replacing as needed evaporative coolers, latrines, showers, roofs, stairs, corridors and stair landings.

Bids were invited from 37 firms. The closest bid to the J. W. Little Co. was Frank W. Miller, Fort Worth, whose bid was $201,814.

The military pay bill, which has been approved by both houses of Congress and awaits only the President's signature, will mean an increase of over a half million dollars to military personnel at Webb AFB.

The increase for officers stationed here will total $31,657 per month, or an annual hike of $379,884. For airmen, the pay increase will be $10,319 per month, or $123,828 annually.

The payroll for military personnel at Webb currently stands at about $9,000,000. Effective date of the pay boost is Sept. 15.

premise Court in a series of decisions June 15.

Most state senates are apportioned geographically. The effect of the high court's order would be to give cities greater representation in state legislatures and to reduce the influence of rural areas.

Dirksen said time is needed for Congress to consider a proposed constitutional amendment that would upset the court's order. Such an amendment would have to be approved by three-fourths of the state legislatures to become effective.

Dirksen told the Senate Monday he had served notice on President Johnson Thursday of his intentions. Asked by newsmen what Johnson's attitude was, Dirksen replied:

"I didn't try to commit him in any way. I just wanted him to know what I was planning to do."

The GOP leader said he believes he will have almost solid Republican support for his proposal and can attract enough Democratic support to attach it to some other legislation Johnson would find difficult to veto.

Sen. George A. Smathers of Florida congratulated Dirksen on having found a way to take immediate action on the reapportionment problem.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., suggested that Dirksen try to attach his measure to the foreign aid bill.

Military, Civil Pay Boosts Near Reality

WASHINGTON (AP) — Practically all of Uncle Sam's employees — from Congress members to postmen and servicemen — are assured of fatter pay checks.

Congress approved Monday, and President Johnson is expected to sign quickly, a $207 million pay raise for the military.

And Senate and House conferees reached agreement on a $556 million increase for the 1.7 million classified civil service and postal workers, and top government officials. Congress members and federal judges.

The House plans to act today on the civil pay bill, which carries annual raises of $7,500 for congressmen and $10,000 for cabinet officials. The Senate was expected to act later in the day or Wednesday.

The increases for the armed forces, to take effect the first of next month, will be their second in a year as part of the new policy of reviewing servicemen's pay scales every year.

The House Armed Services Committee told the House it had omitted boosts for draftees and newly enlisted men because they are in training status and because they will receive three or four increases in their first 11 months of service due to promotions.

Redistricting Delay Bill Gets Committee Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee gave speedy 10-2 approval today to a bill under which states could stave off for two years or more court-ordered legislative reapportionment.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., had asked for the action as a preliminary to a move to attach the measure to some major legislation certain to reach President Johnson's desk.

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., reported the vote when he came from a closed meeting of the committee. Keating said he took no position on the legislation, merely voting "present."

He did not disclose who cast the two negative votes. If it becomes law, the bill would permit states or citizens to obtain stays on court-directed reapportionments until the end of the second session of their next legislature.

Federal courts have ordered several states to reapportion both bodies of their legislatures on the basis of the one-man-one-vote rule laid down by the Supreme Court in a series of decisions June 15.

Most state senates are apportioned geographically. The effect of the high court's order would be to give cities greater representation in state legislatures and to reduce the influence of rural areas.

Dirksen said time is needed for Congress to consider a proposed constitutional amendment that would upset the court's order. Such an amendment would have to be approved by three-fourths of the state legislatures to become effective.

Dirksen told the Senate Monday he had served notice on President Johnson Thursday of his intentions. Asked by newsmen what Johnson's attitude was, Dirksen replied:

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., suggested that Dirksen try to attach his measure to the foreign aid bill.

DEAR ABBY

Ending A Friendship

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago my husband and my best friend came to me and confessed that they had had an affair, but it was all over. They said they told me in order to cleanse their consciences. The woman is also married and the four of us had been friendly for years. As I look back I now realize that she cultivated my friendship so she could get next to my husband. She even used the children. I told my husband that I would forgive him, and I have really tried, Abby, but the hurt is so deep I don't think I'll ever get over it. I now refuse to be in this woman's company, but my husband says there is no reason why we can't all be friends. I get sick when I see her car on the street. Was I wrong to end our friendship or not?

WRONGED

DEAR WRONGED: You were right to end the friendship, and your husband is lucky you didn't choose to end the marriage as well. Stick to your guns!

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a grandmother who believes that the people on television can see and hear her? We have tried to explain to her that they can't—that it's only a talking picture, but it doesn't do any good. She gets all dolled up to watch television every day because she says she would hate to have Art Linkletter see her looking a fright. How can you convince her she's wrong?

SUE AND CINDY
DEAR GIRLS: Why try? Besides, ask Art Linkletter. I'll bet he thinks she looks real nice!

DEAR ABBY: My bridge club (two tables) met at my house last week. One of the members brought along an out-of-town guest who was visiting her. This guest presented me with a one-pound box of candy. I thanked her for it, and then I set it on the piano. I intentionally did not open the box because the candy would have been eaten up in no time by the other women. The next day one of the women called me up and told me that several of the members had severely criticized me for not opening the candy, and offering it to the ladies. Did I commit a social error, or not?

NOT SURE
DEAR NOT: Unless the woman who brought the candy indicated that it was for the "club," you had a right to assume it was for you alone. You committed no social error by not opening the candy, but since you didn't intend to serve it, you'd have been wise to put it out of sight.

Funeral Held For Webb AFB Airman

Military rites for Airman I.C. Herman Bradford, Webb AFB, were held in Montevallo, Ala., at 10 a.m. today. Burial was in the cemetery at Montevallo.

Bradford was killed in a three-vehicle crash on a rain-slick road near Longview July 30. He was stationed at Webb AFB at the time and was believed to have been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley H. Bradford, in Montevallo at the time.

His widow, Mrs. Mary Lucille Bradford, and daughter, Adella Estelle, 13, were injured in the wreck and hospitalized.

Sgt. William R. Henley, Webb AFB transportation division, a close friend of Bradford, was at the rites in Montevallo. He attended at the personal request of Bradford's parents.

Murder Charge

DALLAS (AP)—House painter James Leslie Gassaway, 46, Monday was charged with murder in the death of Lorene Fay Stephens, 32. The woman's body was found Friday crammed under a pile of sheetrock in a garage at the apartment house where both she and Gassaway lived.

SCENE INSIDE NEW CAVERNS
Dedication scheduled Wednesday

Natural Bridge Caverns Is State's Largest Cave

After two years of preparation, Natural Bridge Caverns will be dedicated by Governor John Connally Wednesday. The cave has been open to the public since the Fourth of July weekend but the dedication marks the completion of all facilities, including the air-conditioned "Hilmer Wuest Memorial Visitors Center."

Thousands have toured the cave, and the caverns are expected to become one of the biggest tourist attractions in Texas.

What happens to a ranching family when they discover that an 11-inch opening into a small cave room is the million year hidden entry point to a vast two mile subterranean wonderland?

"Well," said Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heldemann, under whose ranch the caverns lie, "it sure does change ranching life." The 2,200 acre sheep and goat ranch, located in the hill country between San Antonio and New Braunfels, will never be quite the same.

Only a short time ago, it took a determined person to see the cave. He had to be willing to climb up and down sheer cliffs, wiggle through tight crawlways, wade through water and muck, and spend up to 14 hours underground. Through tunneling, bridge building, ramping, and surfacing walkways, however, even the tenderest tenderfoot can now see the caverns. And, it's not much more strenuous than an evening stroll. The guided cave tour takes about two hours.

How is the interior of such an immense cave lighted? First, a power line is strung through the brush country. Then miles of special waterproof cable is buried under the walkways so as not to disturb the natural beauty of the formations. Hundreds of bulbs and spotlights provide adequate lighting to bring out the true formation colors.

Just how big is Natural Bridge Caverns? Over one mile has been surveyed and mapped. And still another mile explored. At present, only the first part of the cave will be opened to the public. The deepest surveyed point in the cave is a place called Grendle's Canyon, some 250 feet below the earth's surface. The "Watchtower," one of the larger formations yet discovered, measures over 30 feet in height and eight feet in diameter. How long does it take such a formation to reach such huge proportions? Over 100 years is required for every cubic inch.

What can a visitor expect to see? He starts by strolling down a winding walkway where many Indian arrowheads have been found, and at the entrance, there is a sudden surge of cool air. The caverns are air-conditioned by nature at 70 degrees year around. Upon entering the actual cave, the visitor sees a variety of nature's architecture. From the hushed silence of Chapel Hall, where a natural rock "Madona-like" statue is sitting in stately solitude at the Hall's end . . . to Sherwood Forest and Robinhood's Throne, where delicate stalagmites and stalactites, some joined together, form a little forest dense enough to hide even the portly "Little John." Across Purgatory Creek on a concrete and steel bridge takes only a few minutes, but it took the original explorers agonizing hours. The Castle of the White Giants, has the most massive formations yet discovered. The Mount of Landlords rises 45 feet above the floor and measures over 18 feet in diameter. The Emerald Lake Passage has a crystal clear pool and superb color combinations. And finally, the Hall of the Mountain Kings has a great cathedral domed ceiling.

Natural Bridge Caverns is open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., seven days a week. Pre-arranged night tours and special rates for church, school, and club groups, are available.

Barry Out To Sea For Final Relaxing

BALBOA, Calif. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater takes to the open sea again today for what could be his last day of complete rest until after the November election.

His schedule called for almost a repeat of Sunday's outing: A leisurely trip on the Sundance, an 83-foot one-time PT boat that has been converted into a luxury yacht.

For a moment newsmen and photographers thought that today they might get close to the Republican presidential candidate who they have not seen since he brushed by them at the Santa Rosa, Calif., airport Thursday.

Goldwater apparently considered taking the whole news crew along for a spin on the Sundance. But first the senator ruled out the newsmen because, he said, there wouldn't be room enough for them. Then it was reported he had excluded cameramen too.

But he will take along his two news secretaries and their two assistants who may phone back news from the boat.

Wednesday Goldwater heads back to Washington to plunge into a campaign schedule.

On Thursday and Friday he will talk to separate groups of Republican senators and House members. Also on Friday's schedule is a speech to a GOP candidate school run by Rep. Bob Wilson of California.

"I will not be surprised," Goldwater said Monday, "if the speech has some political overtones. In fact, throughout August, I will be making speeches fairly regularly and I might be dealing fairly regularly with political issues in each appearance."

His comment on campaign plans was in answer to written questions submitted by newsmen. A dozen queries were given to his secretaries to give to him, but he answered only half of them.

One question: "What are your comments on the PT boat attacks off South Viet Nam?"

Goldwater replied by asking these three questions: "I think the American people are entitled to ask some questions in regard to this event: Does the presence of American destroyers in the area signify the possible landing of larger American ground forces?"

"Does it mean medium-bombers are going to be used to interdict the supply lines? Does it mean a change is taking place in foreign policy at White House and State Department levels?"

The number one question on the list was political: What about President Johnson eliminating Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy as a vice presidential possibility?

"That is one the Democrats will have to answer," Goldwater said. "Anyone who choose will be saddled with Bobby Baker, Billy Sol Estes, South Viet Nam and waning U.S. prestige around the world. He sounds like a loser to start with."

FORT WORTH (AP)—Peace Justice Whit Boyd ruled the fatal shooting of Morris Barton, 53, as suicide Monday. Mrs. Barton was wounded. She said her husband shot her in the arm and then put the gun to his head.

A Devotional For The Day

The Lord is nigh unto them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. (Psalms 145:18.)
 PRAYER: Dear Father, we thank Thee for this whole wonderful world Thou hast planned for us to live in. We thank Thee most of all for the privilege of praying for those we love and for those whom only Thou knowest and lovest. In Jesus' name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Remote Possibility

John B. Backhus, a vice president of the Teamsters Union, has announced intentions of asking James P. Hoffa to resign as union president. He said Hoffa "had done too much damage to the union's reputation," particularly in the light of recent convictions on misapplication of union funds.
 This effort, however, is not destined to get very far. Another vice president, who declined to be named, characterized this as "an exercise in futility."
 And so it would be. While the Teamster constitution provides for removal of an officer by the executive committee, the affected officer remains in office until the ouster is upheld by the convention. It is highly doubtful that the committee would vote to kick out the tough Teamster president, for most members have come to their places by his sufferance or by his help. Even if they did get up their backs, Hoffa would appeal the ouster to the convention, and it would be less than a minor miracle if a majority of the delegates were not in his corner. Hoffa has held on in the face of repeated criticism, court trials, public indignation, etc. because of an iron-fisted organizational control. If his convictions are upheld, then this fact itself may oblige the executive committee and the union to act. Until then, or until locals across the country rebel, the Backhus' efforts may indeed be an "exercise in futility."

Don't Start A Pasture Fire

One product of the tenacious drought and heat is parched pastureland. Stretches of parched grassland are tinderboxes. They are ripe for a spark or a carelessly tossed cigarette or match. Until this point, the area has been in a period of relative calm, but in recent days, winds have been mounting in intensity. Thus, the danger has been multiplied.
 There is no certain way to avoid grass fires, but every one can help prevent them by not throwing anything from a car which could remotely produce a blaze. Also, motorists can help by reporting immediately any signs of fire they may spot. In a few instances, small blazes might be put out by passersby, for next to preventing a fire, the easiest way to control one is to snuff it out in the beginning.

 We cannot risk compounding the damage to our ranges by fire. The harm already is bad enough without having the cover destroyed and inflicting shock on grass crowns and root stock. Accept personal responsibility in seeing that grass fires don't happen.

Holmes Alexander State Department Security (?)

WASHINGTON — Two dozen State Department security officers have been reluctantly surrendered by Secretary Rusk to answer questions before Senator Jim Eastland's Internal Security subcommittee, and it's the kind of story where the talk turns to horse-trading.
 Back in June, 1963, Otto Otepka, the State Department's chief security evaluator, was physically barred from his office space and otherwise humiliated for delivering opinions and information to Internal Security over the heads of his superiors.

There's a horse-trade first—he'll tell it all to a jury.
 A SECURITY evaluator like Otepka doesn't, as is sometimes idiomatically charged and believed, pass judgment on gossip and gutter talk. He is interested in documents which show membership in Red front organizations, and with active association with subversives. He believes that persons with such records shouldn't be allowed in the shadow government.

His superiors at the State Department don't seem to care. And that, in brief, is what the Otepka case is all about. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)
AFTER MUCH feuding between the Senate and the Department, during which three of Mr. Rusk's men were caught lying under oath, last January 20th Otepka asked for a hearing before an independent examiner. Exactly six months later, on July 23, as I learn from Otepka's attorney, Roger Robb, the answer came back—request denied as being against the department regulations.
 As to the horse-trading, I am asking on good grounds whether it's true that Mr. Rusk offered to call off the hearings and reinstate Otepka on three conditions:

1. THAT OTEPKA would admit he did wrong by going out of channels to give the Senate valuable information on security which it couldn't get elsewhere.
 2. That Otepka would accept reassignment to some department post not connected with security, his life's work for nearly 30 years.
 3. That the Senate would not insist upon quizzing the other security officers.

MY INQUIRIES were made in part at the office of Assistant Secretary for Administration William Crockett. The letter denying Otepka's request was read to me by phone, but further answers are being referred up the line. Meanwhile, however, Internal Security is going ahead in executive session with its interrogation of the security staff, so it looks like "no deal" on that point. I have it on the best authority that Otepka will refuse to back down on the other two points. His long-delayed hearing has been assigned to the department examiner. Theoretically, according to department regulations, the hearing should be held within two weeks. But a 13-week period has lapsed since Otepka was first accused, and his lawyer is not optimistic about a speedy conclusion. Otepka intends to persevere. One of these days—unless

Why do some people believe that going to movies is a sin and yet they watch television. Personally, I don't see where the difference is?
 M.W.
 Since much of TV is comprised of "movies," I can see little difference between watching TV and attending a movie.
 However, Christians are concerned with the matter of influence. And if one refrains from attending theatres because of his influence, this is commendable.
 Since any form of entertainment usually caters to the public's taste, we often get TV programs and films that are not of the highest type. A Christian should exercise the best of judgment in selecting entertainment which will contribute to his spiritual life and influence, and not detract from them. We should not view something in the secrecy of our home that we would not view publicly in a theatre. That would be a form of hypocrisy. All of us have to live with ourselves, and to keep a good conscience before God, we must "abstain from that which is evil"—whether it be on TV in the privacy of our homes, or in a public place.

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Horse-shoes were good luck for Frank D'Imperio when it came to earning money for college tuition, board and room, and other expenses.
 Young D'Imperio, who majored in psychology at Otterbein College and is going into social work, went to classes in the morning and shod horses in the afternoon. He learned the art after his father, a physician, bought a farm in New Jersey.

Patriotic License

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—The latest step in safety for Kentucky motorists is a new driver's license—a pretty red, white and blue card instead of drab photostatic copy.
 The Safety Department said the cards will be cheaper to produce and harder to counterfeit because of the coloring and paper stock.
 State Police said they have broken up three license-counterfeiting rings in recent years.

LBJ Campaign Likely to Cover Most Of U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson dropped the "if" in talking of his own presidential nomination when he dropped Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and some other possibilities.
 It can be accepted now, in case there was any doubt, that come September President Johnson probably will be out pounding the campaign trail for President Johnson all around the country, by plane, train, helicopter and motorcade.

 Johnson may not acknowledge this, or even know it for sure yet. Some of his lieutenants think he may want to turn over the bulk of the campaigning to his running mate. They suggest the President might touch base in most of the big cities and the states with big votes, but on political sorties of a couple or three days.

 THE SPIRIT OF the old political firehorse may prevail, however, once the campaign gong starts clanging.
 By tradition, Democrats start the gong going at an appearance of their presidential nominee at a Labor Day rally in Detroit's Cadillac Square. When Johnson was in Detroit in June he said that "if events work out, I'll be there."
 The President hasn't ridden a train since he became president. This may change.
 California Democrats reportedly want Johnson out there at least twice before election day. It's a big, long state, with a big electorate vote, and one of the classic campaign routes is by special train down the valleys.
 In 1960, Johnson got in some effective licks from the back porch of a train tooting through the South. The son of the Confederacy may want to go back again, with his folksy stories about the kinfolk plus another appeal "not as a Southerner to Southerners but as an American to Americans" — as he put it four years ago.
 The Democrats are going to hit hard in the Midwest. Some areas there, such as "Little Egypt," in Southern Illinois, can be worked easily by train and car.
 Johnson may campaign in half the states or more. He says, "I expect to appear in various parts of the country."
 It looks as if he won't debate Republican nominee Barry Goldwater on television.
 PARTS OF the South look shaky, but Johnson isn't writing off any region.
 He counts on prosperity as the top vote-getting issue, an issue that may help offset some of a "white backlash" against racial demonstrations.
 He says he will talk about all the issues, "foreign policy is an appropriate subject."
 "Most campaigns are rough campaigns," Johnson says. This one probably will be no exception. —By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL for James Marlow

Bob Feels Good About Life

NEW YORK (AP) — "I've seen them all come and go, and I'm still hanging around," cheerfully remarked Spangler Arlington Brugh, the famous movie star, who will be 53 Wednesday.
 "I feel pretty good about life. There's nothing much that bugs me. I've always successfully avoided anything that bored me too much."
 "I've always just been a guy who tried to keep my nose clean, do my job and avoid conflict as much as possible. I've tried to do things that would make me happy and not hurt others."
 "THE ONLY thing I worry about is what's my next picture going to be."
 Tanned, blue-eyed and still strikingly handsome, Spangler Arlington Brugh can look back on a career that has few if any parallels in filmdom.
 As a boy back in Beatrice, Neb., he wanted to be a doctor like his father. As a youth he juggled a battered cello to California and hoped to become a musician.
 But a talent scout saw him in a college play and he went to work for MGM in 1934 at $35 a week. He stayed there 26 years, the longest period any top star has ever worked for any one studio.
 And Spangler Arlington Brugh did become a top star.
 HE WAS MOBBED by crowds of up to 5,000 people. A news magazine once described him as "the most admired male idol since the late Rudolph Valentino."

One poll in 1936 rated him as more popular than Clark Gable. His weekly salary climbed that year to $3,000, his weekly fan mail to 7,000 letters.
 A list of the leading ladies he played opposite makes a roll call of Hollywood's most beautiful stars, past and present.
 In 30 years Spangler Arlington Brugh earned millions of dollars and starred in a television series.
 During all that time he avoided public scandals, was well-liked by his fellow workers — and never won an Academy Award. Today he and his second wife, actress Ursula Thiess, live quietly with their two young children on a 113-acre farm near Beverly Hills where they are raising 17 quarter horses, 32 hens and two roosters.

"WE'RE NOT trying to corner the poultry market," he said. "We do like outdoor life, and we're not very socially inclined."
 Looking back across the years, he said he felt most grateful to two people: MGM studio boss Louis B. Mayer who built him into a star, and to his former wife, Barbara Stanwyck. "She had been in the theater all her life. She knew all the pitfalls an actor could run into in Hollywood," he said.
 At 53, Spangler Arlington Brugh has a special reason for feeling grateful to studio tycoon Mayer.
 "It was he who changed my name to Robert Taylor," he said.

"I feel pretty good about life. There's nothing much that bugs me. I've always successfully avoided anything that bored me too much."

"I feel pretty good about life. There's nothing much that bugs me. I've always successfully avoided anything that bored me too much."
 "I've always just been a guy who tried to keep my nose clean, do my job and avoid conflict as much as possible. I've tried to do things that would make me happy and not hurt others."
 "THE ONLY thing I worry about is what's my next picture going to be."
 Tanned, blue-eyed and still strikingly handsome, Spangler Arlington Brugh can look back on a career that has few if any parallels in filmdom.
 As a boy back in Beatrice, Neb., he wanted to be a doctor like his father. As a youth he juggled a battered cello to California and hoped to become a musician.
 But a talent scout saw him in a college play and he went to work for MGM in 1934 at $35 a week. He stayed there 26 years, the longest period any top star has ever worked for any one studio.
 And Spangler Arlington Brugh did become a top star.
 HE WAS MOBBED by crowds of up to 5,000 people. A news magazine once described him as "the most admired male idol since the late Rudolph Valentino."

Around The Rim

It's Still A Desolate Moon

I read somewhere that a reporter once queried a mountaineer who had just conquered a heretofore unscathed peak as to just why he had climbed the mountain at all.
 The climber pondered a bit and replied: "Well, it was there wasn't it?"
 Insofar as my limited understanding goes, the only logical reason we mere mortals may have for wanting to fly to the moon is simply because it is there and no one has ever been able to reach it.
 SOME MAY argue that such an attitude is all wrong—that if Columbus had been of my type, he would never have set out on his adventuresome journey across the Atlantic (By the way, it was just 462 years ago yesterday that this doughty navigator set sail on his historic journey from Palos, Spain.)
 I do not quite see the similarity in what Mr. C. did and our ambitious efforts to send mortals to the moon. Mr. Columbus had a definite goal in mind—he wanted to reach India by sea and thereby establish a route by which the rich merchandise of the orient might be more speedily and handily delivered to European ports. To be blunt—he wanted to make his fortune. That his journey led to the discovery of a land even more fabulously rich than the oriental land he sought was mere happenstance. As one observer pointed out, he could hardly avoid discovering America. He had no way to miss it.
 I HAVE BEEN looking at the moon photos that the recent Ranger expedition sent back to this planet. They are most absorbing but, as an old moon student, I find nothing to change my opinion as to the utter lack of anything on that desolate orb to make me want to visit it.
 The new photos only confirm the impression that telescopic photos I have seen of the moon had already created in my mind. The moon is a lifeless, desolate, rocky, wasteland, without air, without water, with searing killing heat when in the unsheltered rays of the sun and deep freeze temperatures when the sun is out of range.

 THE NEW studies so far have apparently changed only one basic idea that scientists had formed about the moon's surface. Instead of being deeply layered in fine dust as had been believed, it now seems to be a tortured desert of rocky floors, jagged-edged craters and growthless wastes.
 No clue to justify any hope that the satellite has air, such as we must have to survive, has developed. I heard one scientist say there "might" be some water in some of the rocks on the moon. He indicated we had a way to get water out of the stones and that our moon visitors would probably resort to this method.
 (So far as I can recall, the only fellow who ever got water out of a rock was Moses, and one experience in that field led to his being barred from ever seeing the promised land.)
 NO ONE has said there are any minerals or chemicals on the moon different from those we have here. Although some have speculated on it as a new source of minerals, no one has suggested it would be a good place to spend your summer or winter vacations.
 No one, so far, has offered any really good reason why anyone would want to go there except to gratify the common human curiosity to find out something which nature seems intent on keeping secret.
 If you want to go lunar travelling—"Rots of Ruck!" I'll stay in Texas, if you please. —SAM BLACKBURN

Johnson Must Deal With Kennedys

WASHINGTON—In what rates as the nearest trick of the week President Johnson ruled the executive branch of the government out of the Vice-Presidential sweepstakes. By so doing he wrapped his rejection of Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy in the common fate of others whose names were high on the speculative list.
 AS HE FACES the coming contest, with the deep divisions it is certain to stir, he has two particular preoccupations. One is regional—the South and the Midwest. Not a day goes by that a Southerner doesn't tell him of the Republican threat in the South. The Midwest as a traditional bulwark of Republicanism is his other geographical worry.
 On the ideological side he knows the limits of his appeal to liberals and labor. Related to this concern is the so-called white backlash and the depth to which it has penetrated the trade union movement in areas where Polish and Italian-Americans and other minority white groups are reported off the Democratic reservation.
 ALL THESE considerations enter into Mr. Johnson's ceaseless canvass of the choice of a running mate. Of the two Minnesotans now put at the top of the list, Senators Hubert H. Humphrey and Eugene J. McCarthy, the logic would seem to point to the latter. He is a Catholic and could, therefore, offset the resentment of Democrats and co-religionists over the rejection of Kennedy. He is 48 and looks younger than his years. His liberalism is well established.
 But politics is an illogical trade. The belief here is that at this stage Humphrey has the inside track. It is no secret that he has been the second choice of the Kennedy forces, including those of the Irish Mafia who have been pushing so hard for the Attorney General as the heir apparent.
 A KENNEDY never forgets and never forgives—that has become a truism in this political capital. In a brilliant and impassioned speech McCarthy put Adlai Stevenson in nomination at the Democratic convention in Los Angeles four years ago. The galleries staged a wild demonstration and the Kennedy lieutenants were terrified lest their first-ballot strategy be overturned.

 Humphrey had been called on to make that speech and had declined. Asked to second Kennedy's nomination he had given the same answer—that he owed it to the people of his own state to avoid any direct involvement. He campaigned furiously for Kennedy and as majority whip he was one of the late President's closest associates.
 THIS WAS NOT true of McCarthy. The coolness carried over after the election. He has played a relatively minor role during the past four years and he has little of Humphrey's national stature and his high repute with the labor-liberal wing of his party.
 The President has shown great adroitness in playing with the Vice Presidency. The White House fed out names such as that of Sargent Shriver, who early in the year got a big build-up as a Veeep potential. One effect this had, although no one acknowledges it publicly, was to create a rift in the Kennedy ranks. In the next three weeks other names will be fed out.

Local Woman Assists Scholarship Winner

Howard County home demonstration clubs contributed $60 to the $500 scholarship won by Freda Pointer, 18-year-old Hockley County 4-H Club girl from Ropesville. The annual award is given by Home Demonstration Club of Extension Service District 2.

A Big Spring girl, Beverly Alexander, supervised the winner's program. Miss Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Alexander, 707 W. 18th, is assistant home demonstration agent for Hockley County.

"Freda is an outstanding 4-H member with zeal to help other 4-H members," said Miss Alexander. "Her goal is to help 'make the best better.'"

The scholarship was presented to Freda in ceremonies held Thursday evening in conjunction with the Hockley County 4-H Dress Review, at the Hockley County Fairgrounds.

Voluntary contributions to the 4-H Scholarship Fund are made annually by approximately 100 home demonstration clubs of the district's 20 counties. The scholarship is to assist worthy 4-H girls to attend Texas Technological College and study home economics.

In order to be scholarship candidates, girls must have completed or be enrolled in their third year of 4-H work; plan to enter college the year of the judging or be a college freshman; and plan to study home economics at Tech. Previous winners may not re-apply for the award.

Freda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pointer of Route 1, Ropesville, has been in 4-H work for nine years. She was graduated from high school in May and will enter college in September.

Freda has excelled in leadership work. She has been president of her local club for two years, a 4-H Council delegate for three years, and vice president.

Judge Lists Criminal Docket Of 53 Cases

Fifty-three of 55 cases listed on the Howard County court criminal docket for trial this month have been set down for trial. Judge Lee Porter, sounding the docket Monday afternoon, announced he would have a jury in court Monday, Aug. 17, and would continue with trial of cases throughout the week.

It was indicated some of the cases set down for trial would be tried before the court and not require the services of a jury. As many of the matters as can be cleared from the docket will be handled during the week, Porter said.

He also sounded a civil docket Monday and will begin trial of it Aug. 11. A jury panel is to be called for service in these cases, four of which have been tentatively slated for disposition.

Prosecutor Named For DA's Trial

HOUSTON (AP)—William F. Walsh, former protege of well-known crime attorney Percy Foreman, has been chosen for special prosecutor to try Dist. Atty. Frank Briscoe on a perjury indictment.

Walsh called the district attorney "a friend of mine" and said he would accept the "distasteful task" as a professional duty.

"I have the same duty to prosecute as to defend," he said.

His appointment, however, will likely depend on a three-judge conference which may not take place for several days.

Walsh, 36, is now assisting Foreman in the defense of Melvin Lane Powers, 27, charged in the June 29 slaying in Miami of Houston millionaire Jacques Mossler, 69.

Walsh, if appointed, also would try the companion perjury charges against First Asst. Dist. Atty. Sam Robertson Jr. and Police Robbery Capt. Leon C. Colley.

Jury Will Deliberate Case Of Former Mayor

HOUSTON (AP)—A jury was expected to begin deliberations today in the Sam Hoover robbery case, which is in its third week of trial.

Testimony came to a close Monday afternoon after both the state and defense had rested. Hoover, an attorney and former mayor of suburban Pasadena, never took the stand.

Significant testimony came Monday from the defendant's wife, Mrs. Mary Hoover, who gave her husband what appeared to be an airtight alibi on the afternoon and night of the robbery of Mr. and Mrs. Mair J. Schepps.

Witnesses had agreed the Schepps robbery started between 6:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. on March 11 and lasted about two hours.

Mrs. Hoover testified she had suffered from a severe attack of asthma during March and had received medical attention and prescriptions for her ailment.

She said she had a particularly acute attack the afternoon of March 11.

"I fixed all the telephones so they would not ring and did not hear any phone the afternoon and night."

Her husband was accused of advising and commanding three other men to commit the robbery—partially in person and partially over the telephone.

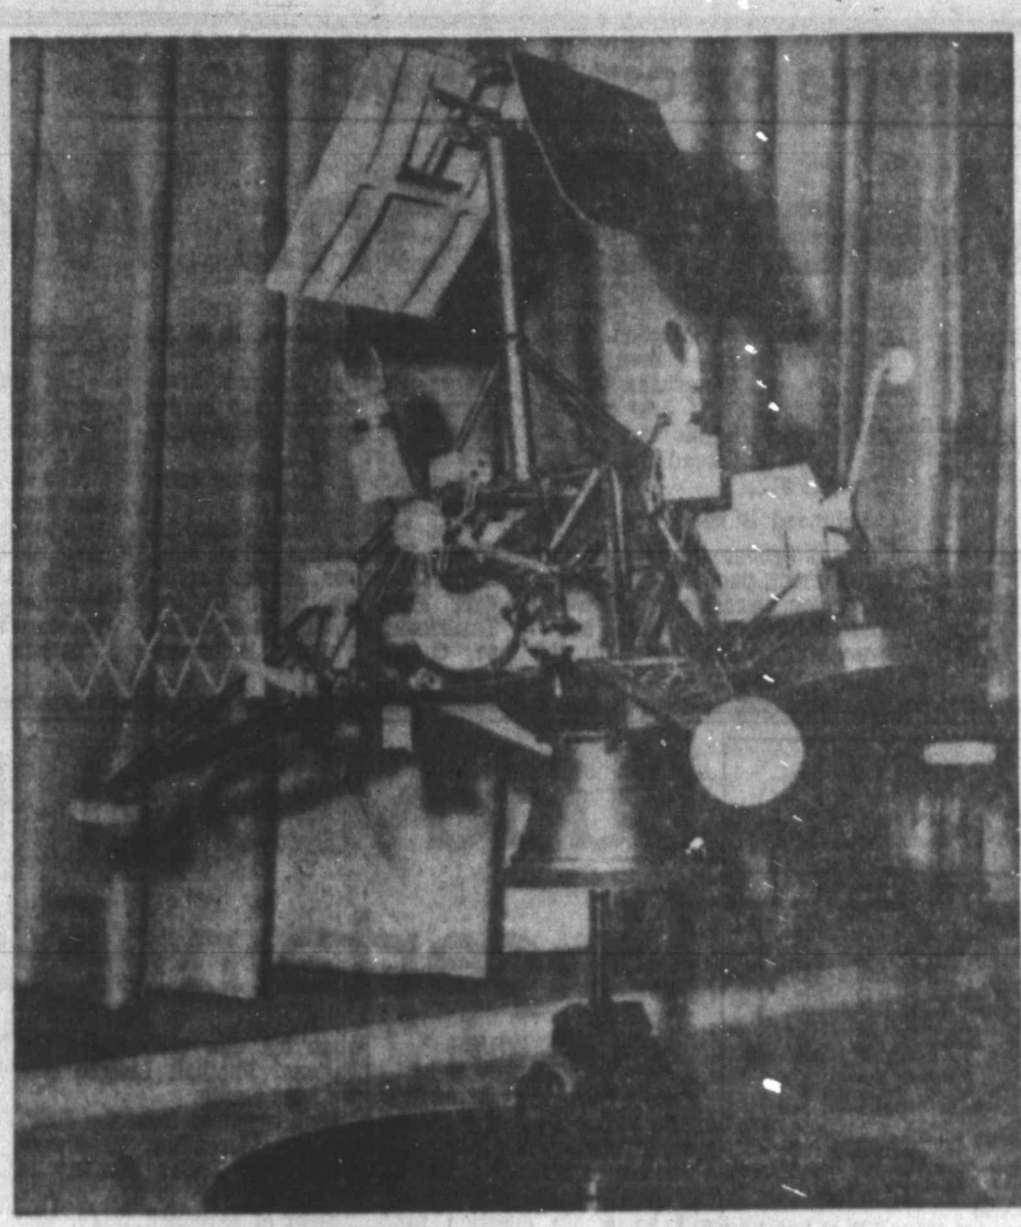

The other three men indicted were John Oscar Young, 25, Calvin Sellars, 22, and Samuel Spivey Jr., 19, all of the Houston area.

Spivey testified against Hoover last week and was granted immunity from prosecution.

Spivey testified the three men who went to the Schepps residence and who tortured and robbed the couple talked to Hoover on the telephone. He said they were looking for $300,000 and Hoover had told them to look in the deep freeze.

The three men only got $3,000 and two diamond rings, Spivey said.

During the evening, Mrs. Schepps was burned with a hot knife, shocked with electrical wires and shot with a pistol. Schepps was beaten unconscious.

Designed To Land On The Moon

This is a one-sixth sized model of the Jet Propulsion Lab's Surveyor spacecraft, designed not only to take pictures of the moon as did Ranger 7, but also to survive a landing on the moon. Project manager W. E. Gibson believes Surveyor's pad-footed, 6-foot-long tripod legs can settle on the moon's surface with no damage to scientific instruments. It will have the clamshell claw on extendable arm, left, to pick up objects as far away as 10 feet. (AP WIREPHOTO)

The aging but hearty cyclist finished his trip Monday. He said he pedaled 3,244 miles on his 12-speed French bicycle, equipped with an extra-low gear for mountains.

Opening lead: Queen of ♠. South coordinated his attack to avail himself of every opportunity to bring in his four-heart contract.

West opened the queen of clubs which was taken by dummy's king. On the surface it appeared that declarer was confronted with the loss of one trick in each of three suits—spades, hearts, and clubs, so that the fate of the contract would hinge on the diamond finesse. Declarer observed that, if he were lucky enough to find the diamond suit divided three-three with East holding the queen, he could establish an eventual discard in the suit for his losing club.

South was not particularly concerned with looking for an overtrick, however, for if the diamond finesse lost he would be automatically set inasmuch as the opponents would have time to get their club trick before he could assume control of the proceedings.

An additional prospect for a discard was available in the spade suit provided that both missing honors were located in front of the ace-jack. At trick two South led a small spade from dummy and East was obliged to put up the queen to prevent declarer from winning the trick too cheaply. South covered with the ace of spades and reentered the North hand in order to lead another spade. East played the king which established declarer's jack.

A club was returned to drive out the dummy's ace. South hastened to lead a diamond to his ace, eschewing the finesse in favor of discarding North's losing club on the jack of spades. This enabled him to ruff a club, and all he lost was one spade, one heart and one diamond.

Finding both spade honors favorably located was admittedly a somewhat remote prospect, but the play could be attempted at no cost for, if it failed, declarer could always fall back on the diamond finesse as a last resort.

State Hi-Junior Meet Opens Wednesday

Team managers and officials of the State Hi-Junior Teen-Age Baseball tournament gather at the Ponderosa restaurant at 8 o'clock this evening to break bread together and iron out final details for the meet, which begins here Wednesday morning and continues through Saturday night.

Eight teams will be represented at the banquet and they come from the far corners of the state. The tournament will be staged on the Teen-Age diamond just off North 12th Street. Four games are carded tomorrow.

Two defeats will be required to eliminate a team from competition. Two trophies will be presented at the conclusion of the tournament, one to the titlist and the other to the runnerup.

Season tickets are available at $3 each. Game tickets will sell for 50 cents (adult) and 25 cents (student). Children under 12 will be admitted free.

Additional bleachers have been hauled to the park, building the seating capacity to 1,500 or thereabouts.

First round pairings: 10 a.m.—Pasadena Red Rex (District 1) vs. Fort Worth North Side Raiders (District 13); 2 p.m.—Baytown Kemp-Tony Yanks (District 2) vs.

Dallas Police Association (District 4); 6 p.m.—Odessa (District 7) vs. Texarkana Boys' Club (District 6); 8:30 p.m.—Big Spring Kiwanis Club (District 8) vs. Bellmead Milk Ways (District 5).

Bellmead is near Waco.

Frank Sabatto, director of the tournament, paced the games to allow for extra-inning contests. The Saturday schedule, however, will be stepped up to allow for more games, in event they are needed.

Fort Worth's representative defeated a Houston club in the finals of last year's tournament, held in Fort Worth.

Managers of the teams competing here include: Fort Worth, Newt Hancock; Dallas Police Association, Nick Encke; Baytown, Elbert Barringer; Pasadena, Earl Caffery; Texarkana, Byron Bryant; Odessa, C. N. Walker; Bellmead, Newton Harris; Big Spring, John Stone.

Big Spring entry is made up of many of the boys who won the State championship last year on a lower level of competition.

The Big Springers lost only one game in league competition this season and must be given a good shot at the championship.

This is the first time in history for the city to host a state tournament of this kind.

Melvin Lindsey and Tommy

Hart have agreed to serve on a tournament advisory committee, which will help to settle disputes, in event such problems arise and cannot be handled by umpires.

Umpires named by the tournament committee include Jack Griffin (chief arbiter), Jim Zapp, D. R. Gartman and John Terry.

Several of the contenders are scheduled to arrive today and undergo workouts.

Bailey Is Starting To Pay Dividends

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Bailey, highly touted youngster who dragged through a poor rookie season under the pressure of a whopping bonus, is beginning to pay dividends.

A $150,000 bonus baby who batted a dismal .228 last season, Bailey continued his heavy hitting Monday night by slamming a key triple in the eighth inning and a game-winning single in the ninth that gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The two hits lifted Bailey's average to .304 and boosted the Pirates into third place in the tight National League pennant struggle, 4½ games behind the front-running Philadelphia Phillies and 2½ lengths behind the Giants.

A vital offensive weapon in the Pirates' bid to duplicate their 1960 pennant, Bailey has always spoken freely about the pressure applied by the gigantic bonus and his meager accomplishments as a rookie last year when the Pirates nosedived to eighth place.

Bailey's key hits dropped the Giants two games behind the Phillies, who were rained out of a game against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Only two other games were scheduled, both in the American League. Baltimore rode Mil Pappas' shutout pitching to a 7-0 victory over the Los Angeles Angels and to within one percentage point of the first-place New York Yankees. And Cleveland defeated Washington 4-2.

Jose Pagan was involved in both San Francisco runs as the Giants built a 2-0 lead. He beat out a bunt in the fifth inning and eventually scored on Duke Snider's single. In the sixth he drove in Tom Haller, who had doubled, with a sacrifice fly.

Bailey then got the Pirates rolling against Bob Bolin, who had a five-hit shutout through seven innings. After Manny Mota stroked a pinch-hit double with one out in the eighth, Bailey slammed his triple and came home with the tying run on Bill Virdon's single.

In the ninth, after Bill Mazerowski and Dick Schofield had singled, Bailey came up with two out and poked a grounder up the middle for the clincher.

Pappas, bringing his record to 10-5, blanked the Angels on eight hits and did not allow a runner past second base. While he was shutting out Los Angeles for the third time this season, the Orioles pounded Bo Belinsky and four successors for 13 hits.

Dick Brown collected three hits for Baltimore while Brooks Robinson and Sam Bowers each drove in two runs with a pair of hits.

Dick Donovan, 6-7, got the victory with Luis Tiant's relief help.

ACKERLY — The Sacred Heart Cardinals supplied a 21-hit attack Sunday behind the strong two-hit pitching of Yanez and Cadenhead and romped to a 10-1 victory over a local team here.

Avel Ramirez led the slugger with a four-run homer in the second inning while Cadenhead contributed a triple and Benito Marquez and Lara had doubles. Esmigal was the loser.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:
DON RILEY, St. Paul sports writer:
"A. J. Foyst is not only the world's top athlete at the moment, but he's doing things quicker than a bride in the kitchen with her mother-in-law at the door. He now has won 11 of his last 12 starts, which in the speed racing business is like throwing a string of a dozen eagles at a golf field. Critics say he is running too hard, that he'll run himself out of track. Others say quietly he is a genius, more relentless than Vukovich, more fearless than Ward and more dedicated than Jones."

FURMAN BISHOP, Atlanta scribe:
"Fresco Thompson, one of the Los Angeles Dodgers' vice presidents, will do the 'color' commentary when Los Angeles opens its pay-TV circuits. That's one way of getting an honest day's work out of an executive."

VINCE LOMBARDI, Green Bay football coach:
"You don't bolster a team when you're on the bottom. You do it when you're at the top."

WILLIE SMITH, Los Angeles Angels' outfielder, discussing his decision to quit boxing after he had won eight of ten bouts as an amateur:
"I didn't want to turn pro. I just wanted to get it out of my system. I didn't like it much."

Big Spring's BOBBY WRIGHT, after teaming with Amarillo's Ken Hicks to win medalist honors in the Amarillo Invitational Partnership Golf tournament this year with a 141:
"This is one of the best tournaments I've ever played in — that's why I keep coming back. No other tournament gives me as much pleasure to play in as this one. And the people in this town treat you like you own the place... Putting is the strongest part of my game, and I three-putt with the best of them."

JOE HIRSCH, well-known turf writer:
"Andrew Jackson's chief interest in sports was horse racing, and it remained as long as he lived. When he moved into the White House in 1829, he brought with him a string of race horses and jockeys. The White House stables were not large enough for his horses, and Jackson spent thousands of dollars repairing them. Of the many horses that Jackson owned and trained, his favorite was Truxton, a big bay stallion. He bought Truxton for $1,170, shortly after the horse's defeat in 1805 by a horse named Greyhound. Although Greyhound had never been defeated, Jackson was convinced that if Truxton were properly trained, he could beat Greyhound in a return match. The terms of the match called for side bets of $5,000. For that kind of money, Jackson chose to train Truxton himself... Jackson's training methods were severe. He pushed Truxton to the limit of endurance, but got the horse into razor-sharp condition. Interest in the race was so high that people were literally betting their shirts. Jackson accepted bets of $1,500 in 'wearing apparel' which included some shirts. One of his friends put up cash, 15 horses with saddles on their backs, and some land. Jackson risked almost everything he had except his estate, The Hermitage. Fortunately for him, Truxton beat Greyhound easily, and Jackson's reputation as the outstanding turfman in the West was firmly established."

Buddy Dial Facing Uncertain Future

By DICK COUGH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Buddy Dial, a prize addition to the Dallas Cowboys' pass-receiving corps, rested today after a successful operation, but the former Pittsburgh Steelers star will be a big question mark when his new club opens the National Football League season next month.

Dial, acquired from the Steelers last December, underwent surgery in Dallas Monday to correct a tear in the middle muscle of his right thigh. The Rice alumnus was hurt last week during a workout at the Cowboys' training camp in Thousand Oaks, Calif.

"We are very pleased with the results," said General Manager Tex Schramm. But, according to team doctors, Dial won't be able to run at full speed for about six weeks. The Cowboys and St. Louis Cardinals kick off the regular NFL schedule at Dallas Sept. 12.

Another pass-catching standout, Chris Burford of the Kansas City Chiefs, underwent a knee operation today in Dallas. The American Football League star had a similar operation two years ago. He injured the knee two weeks ago and will be sidelined for six more weeks. KC Coach Hank Stram said half-back Abner Haynes will replace Burford at split end in the Chiefs' exhibition opener with the Oakland Raiders Sunday.

The NFL champion Chicago Bears, preparing for their Friday night date with the College All-Stars at Chicago, went through stiff offensive and defensive drills after Coach George Halas said scouting reports show the current All-Star squad is stronger than the one which upset Green Bay last year.

The Packers, who meet St. Louis Saturday night at New Orleans, examined pictures of the club's first intrasquad game and Coach Vince Lombardi lauded the performances of rookie tackle Steve Wright, Alabama, and John McDowell, St. John's, Minn.

Emerson, Stolle Impress In Australians' Victory

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle, tagged with a "bad boy" label by the Australian tennis brass, now are back in favor, solidly, thoroughly and completely back in the good graces.

Winning does it.

The duo swept Mexico's best 4-1 in Davis Cup American Zone semifinals Monday and have only two more steps to take before meeting the United States in the Challenge Round, climax to the Aussies' drive to recapture the cup they had considered private property until the U.S. upset last year.

Emerson and Stolle, among the players suspended by Australia after they had bolted a tourney there to play abroad, won the final singles matches in Mexico City in straight set Monday, beating Antonio Palafox and Rafael Osuna.

Stolle, who lost to Osuna in a singles match Saturday, clinched the meet for Australia when he scored a surprisingly easy 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 triumph over Mexican national champion Palafox.

That made the best of five series 3-1 and Emerson's match with Osuna was academic. Emerson won 6-3, 6-4, 11-9.

Australian captain Harry Hopman, who had predicted the 4-1 outcome from the start, expressed satisfaction and said Stolle's performance may have surprised some, but not him.

"I knew that once he had gotten over the nervousness of playing in the Davis Cup for the first time, he'd play the game he's capable of," Hopman said.

Temple, Westside Win First Games

In the opening night of the annual Church League softball tournament at the City Park, Temple Baptist and Westside Baptist came away with perfect records.

Temple topped First Baptist, 2-1, in the opening contest of the tourney, while Westside knocked over Forsan, 2-0, in the second game. In the final contest of the night between the two losers to decide which team would be knocked out of the double-elimination tournament, First slipped by Forsan, 9-4.

The final contests to decide the 1964 champion are slated for tonight at 7 o'clock.

Tigers Nip Pecos, 15-14

The Big Spring Tigers outlasted an eight-run rally in the ninth inning Sunday at Steer Park by the Pecos Wildcats and took a shaky 15-14 victory in a game that turned into a slugfest as both teams combined for 37 hits.

Subia, who gave up five hits in 1 2-3 innings, was replaced by J. Fierno who went the rest of the distance and appeared to safely have the victory tucked away before the ninth inning. But the Wildcats used seven hits and two Tiger errors to almost send the game into extra frames.

Billy Weatherall and Garganiou connected for home runs while Weatherall also added three doubles and Fierno another two-bagger to collect the victory off Thomas, one of three Wildcats to parade to the mound.

Texas law provides that if a person dies without a will, the state will appoint an administrator to handle the estate. This can be a costly and time-consuming process. To avoid this, it is advisable to have a will drawn up by an attorney. This will ensure that your assets are distributed according to your wishes and that your loved ones are taken care of in the event of your death.

The state will also provide for the education of your children if you die without a will. This can be a significant expense, and it is important to have a will in place to ensure that your children's education is covered.

Three States Vote Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three states hold primary elections today, with Rep. Richard Bolling, a strong supporter of the Johnson administration on the powerful House Rules Committee, facing a stiff fight in Missouri.

Bolling's battle and primary contests for gubernatorial nominations in Missouri and Kansas hold the limelight.

Idaho also has a primary, with Democratic incumbent Reps. Ralph Harding and Compton I. White unopposed for renomination.

Bolling, a liberal who for many years was the late Speaker Sam Rayburn's spokesman on the Rules Committee, is opposed by a conservative, Judge Hunter Phillips of the Jackson County Court. The district is in Kansas City.

'WILD-EYED'
Phillips has called Bolling "wild-eyed" and left-wing in character. Former President Harry S. Truman has endorsed Bolling, and a close friend of Truman's, Tom L. Evans, is the congressman's campaign manager. Bolling has solid support from organized labor.

Phillips is backed by five splinter groups of the old Kansas City Democratic machine of Tom Pendergast.

Missouri Lt. Gov. Hilary A. Bush and Secretary of State Warren E. Hearnes head a five-man field seeking the Democratic nomination for governor.

Ethan Shepley of St. Louis and William B. Ewald of Kirkwood are among four Republican hopefuls.

Retiring Gov. John M. Dalton is ineligible for re-election.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., has two little-known opponents, while Republicans are picking between Jean Paul Bradshaw and Morris D. Duncan.

UNOPPOSED
Two Republican congressmen are unopposed for renomination, while seven incumbent Democrats have opposition.

In Kansas, eight Republicans are running for governor, including Rep. William H. Avery, who resigned as a member of the House Rules Committee. Other GOP hopefuls include McDill Boyd, a close runnerup in 1960; Lt. Gov. Harold Chase; Atty. Gen. William M. Ferguson, and State Senate President Paul Wunsch.

Former State Treasurer George Hart and Corporation Commissioner Harry G. Wiles are among six Democratic candidates.

Two-term Republican Gov. John Anderson is not seeking re-election.

In House contests in Kansas, four men are trying for the GOP nomination to succeed Avery, while Rep. Garner Shriver has one Republican primary opponent. The other three Republican incumbents are unopposed.

Finances Voluntary Sterilization Program

Jesse Hartman, an industrialist, relaxes in his New York office Monday as he tells why he put up $25,000 for a voluntary sterilization program among Appalachia's poor in Kentucky. Hartman, father of a married daughter and grandfather of two, says that he's been worried for some time about the population explosion, particularly among the poor. "Numerically," he said, "I'm not doing anything, but I'm tired of all this theory. I want to see direct action." His Kentucky project will be reviewed at the end of six months and if considered successful he will continue footing the bill. (AP WIREPHOTO)

State's Financial Report Published

In fiscal year 1963, the State Government of Texas took in $1,548 million in general revenue, and paid out $1,480 million in general expenditures.

The state borrowed $48 million and paid off $15 million of indebtedness.

State government debt outstanding at the end of fiscal 1963 totaled $464 million, including $216 million of non-guaranteed long-term debt payable solely from earnings of special earmarked sources.

These figures are from a report on state government finances in 1963 published by the U.S. Commerce Department's Bureau of the Census.

State taxes provided $1,002 million, or 64 per cent of general revenue of Texas; $404 million came from local governments in the state and the federal government, predominantly from the latter; and $153 million was supplied by miscellaneous sources, such as earnings on property and investments, fines, donations, and from charges at state operated educational institutions, athletic contests, hospitals and the like.

The state took in 8.5 per cent more general revenue in fiscal 1963 than in the year before, 6.1 per cent more in taxes, 14.7 per cent more from federal payments, and 19 per cent more from charges and miscellaneous sources. General sales and gross receipts taxes provided $181 million (up 21.4 per cent), severance taxes $192 million, and license taxes $178 million.

Texas general revenue for fiscal 1963 was equivalent to $159.67 per capita, somewhat below the 50-state figure of $180.48. Collections from all Texas State tax sources amounted to $101.87 per person, as compared with the 50-state average of $117.81. The state's revenue from the federal government amounted to $38.52 per capita, also below the national average of $41.72.

Of the $1,480 million total general expenditure of the state in fiscal 1963, $642 million went for education (4.7 per cent more than in 1962), $406 million for highways (up 6.7 per cent). Public welfare took $226 million (up 13.3 per cent), and hospitals accounted for $70 million.

In per capita terms, general expenditure of the state government of Texas as compared with the 50 state average per person was as follows:

Texas All States	1963	1962
All functions	$143.41	$139.11
Education	62.17	63.64
Highways	39.35	47.09
Public welfare	21.84	24.67
Hospitals	8.73	11.26

The figures above on general revenue and general expenditure do not include income and outgo amounts of state-operated insurance trust systems and of state liquor stores (for the 16 states having them).

The population of Texas July 1, 1963, was 10,323,000 as estimated by the Bureau of the Census. Total personal income in Texas in calendar 1962, as es-pared with the 50-state average of $59.59 per $1,000.

(The Census Bureau cautioned against attempting to draw conclusions from direct comparisons of financial amounts for individual state governments. Some state governments directly administer certain activities which elsewhere are undertaken by local governments, with or without state fiscal aid. The fraction which state governments make up of consolidated state-local totals, therefore differs materially from one state to another. One of the tables in the compendium clearly illustrates how this can vary.)

In the big romance between clothes and the girl... the newspaper is the go-between

Every woman loves clothes, period. She loves to look at the newspapers to see what's in, what's out, who's wearing what. When she reads the fashion ads, she feels she's in the store. And quicker than you can get there checking ad response, chances are she will be in the store. Because newspapers are the ideal medium to tell the clothes story; they tell where to buy, and in their detailed sketches or photographs, they can give a woman the essential buying information. (Just as true in foods, home furnishings, cars, and everything else.) No wonder newspapers are the No. 1 advertising medium, with more dollars invested than all other major media combined.

MORE MONEY IS INVESTED IN NEWSPAPERS THAN IN ANY OTHER ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

Federals Plan To Reduce Wheat Props Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government plans to reduce price supports for next year's wheat crop to try to increase the number of farmers participating in the wheat stabilization program.

This year's national average support price was $1.30 per bushel, and next year's will be $1.25. Farmers who do not plant within their acreage allotments must depend solely on market prices, while those who cooperate qualify for extra payments.

This year, fewer than half of the farmers cooperated with the program.

The 1965 program announced Monday by the Agriculture Department was spelled out now because growers of winter wheat are beginning to plan for fall seeding of the crop.

The decrease in price supports means that, unless there is a very short crop, market prices will drop correspondingly.

However, growers who plant within their 1965 allotments will get supplementary returns in the form of marketing certificates with the monetary value averaging 52.5 cents a bushel and land diversion payments.

Next year's program, like this year's, is designed to hold down production while surpluses exist and to bolster grower income.

Both programs set the national wheat planting allotment at 49.5 million acres. For many years, the allotment had 55 million acres.

Next year, cooperating farmers will get—as they did this year—both domestic and export marketing certificates financed by assessments on flour mills and wheat exporters.

Next year they will be eligible for domestic marketing certificates worth 75 cents a bushel—5 cents more than this year—on 45 per cent of the normal production of their allotments. Likewise, they will be eligible for export certificates worth 30 cents a bushel—also 5 cents more than this year—on 35 per cent of the normal production.

The land diversion benefit for 1965—paid out of the federal treasury—will be somewhat less attractive than this year.

Officials calculate that the 1965 program should cost the government less than this year's version.

Displaced Cronkite Has No Plans For Quitting

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter Cronkite says his contract with the Columbia Broadcasting System has nine years to go and he has no plans to resign.

"CBS is telling me, 'You're still No. 1 around here,'" Cronkite told a news conference Monday.

"I wouldn't expect them to say anything else," he added.

Last week, CBS announced it would replace Cronkite as an anchor man for its coverage of the Democratic National Convention with a new television team, Robert Trout and Roger Mudd. At the time, Cronkite said CBS "took a clobbering" in the ratings from the National Broadcasting Co.'s coverage of the Republican National Convention.

Asked Monday why NBC got the higher rating, Cronkite said:

"It is a great credit to the opposition reporters — (Chet) Huntley and (David) Brinkley. Huntley and Brinkley have entertainment value, something that we have not directly eschewed and something that we must be seeking."

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A report on actress Joan Crawford was expected today from three respiratory specialists.

The 56-year-old film star was hospitalized Friday for the third time in two months. Officials at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital said she had a recurrence of pneumonia, but that her condition was good.

Housewives Rout Axmen In Tree Fight

ELMONT, N.Y. (AP)—Housewives pushing baby carriages have routed the tree choppers in the first skirmish over the shade trees of Evans Avenue.

Town officials of this Long Island community want to widen the streets, lined with oaks and elms that stand between the sidewalks and the pavement.

The women of Elmont, many of them refugees from the concrete canyons of New York City, want to preserve the greenery.

They moved out in force Monday.

UNDER TREE
Mrs. Charles Spanier stationed herself under a condemned tree, looked up at a workman and said:

"If you cut off one more branch, you'll have to drop it on my head to get rid of it."

The workman climbed down. Pushing their infants in front of them, a dozen housewives led by Mrs. Hope Fox surrounded a truck that was to haul away the dismembered trees. They clogged Evans Avenue and, after an hour, forced the workmen to give up for the day.

Town officials were not available for comment.

"I have nothing against drainage pipes or new curbing," said Mrs. Fox. "It's just that we moved out to the suburbs because we like the country atmosphere, which is rapidly disappearing."

MONTHS AGO
"This whole thing started months ago, when we first heard that the streets in a 22-block area south of the Hempstead Turnpike were going to be widened."

"We understood then that some of the trees would have to go, but there would be enough room between the sidewalk and the curb to plant new ones if we wanted to. But, when the man came around last Friday to mark the trees that were to be cut, he marked all but four in the whole area and told us that the curbs would be right next to the sidewalk."

"Solid cement! Imagine that!"

Hendrix In Opera Part

Jack W. Hendrix, 2715 Lynn Drive, is participating in Indiana University's outdoor production of Puccini's opera "Turandot" this summer. The opera, which was Puccini's last, was presented July 19, Aug. 1, and is set again Aug. 5 and 8 in Memorial Stadium on the campus.

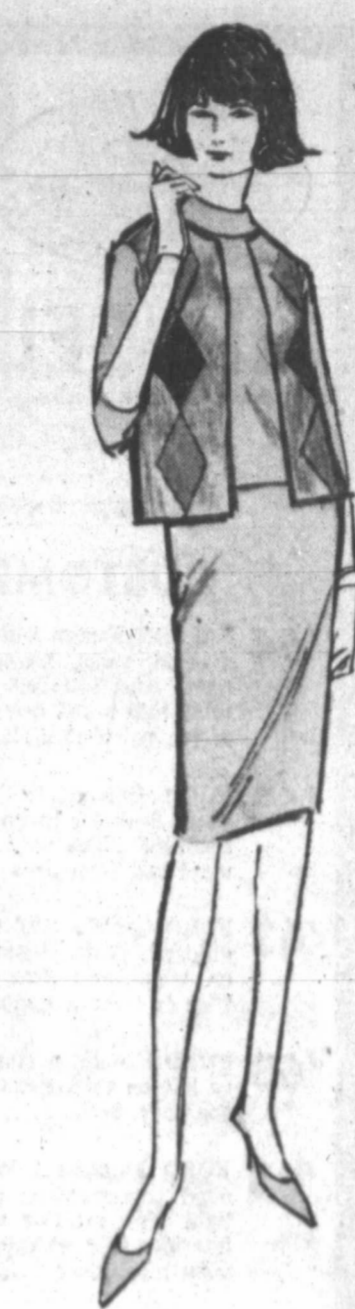

Hendrix, head of the Howard County Junior College department of music, is working on his doctorate this summer at Indiana.

"Turandot" is the production which the State of Indiana selected to present as the highlight of Indiana Day at the New York World's Fair Aug. 17 and 18.

Presented on a huge set built in the horseshoe end of the stadium, the production employs a cast of 300. Singing the opera in English is a cast of principals, including graduate students and several members of the I.U. music school faculty.

The stage, one of the largest outdoor stages in the world, was constructed last year for the performance of Verdi's "Aida," and the university's first outdoor operatic production.

Chinese costumes, rented from the Chicago Opera Company, are worn by the cast. "Turandot" is the story of a merciless princess who destroys all that succumb to her beauty, as well as the story of riddles that a hero must solve to save his life.
