China Snubs Communists' World Meet

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China has announced officially it will boycott a Soviet-sponsored conference to plan a world Communist meeting.

Peking accused the Soviet Union of siding with the United States in the recent Gulf of Tonkin crisis "by actively supporting the U.S. attempt to intervene in Viet Nam through the United Nations."

Red China's charge was contained in a letter dated Aug. 30 in which the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist party turned down a Soviet invitation to a scheduled Dec. 15 planning conference.

The official New China News Agency broadcast the reply. Peking was one of 25 Communist parties invited to lay the groundwork for a meeting of 81 Communist parties next summer.

Red China also accused the United States of opening up a new "special warfare" theater

Districting Talk Slated For Tyler

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Legislative Council committee on congressional redistricting holds its sixth in a series of seven meetings on district remapping today.

The committee, under George Moffett of Chillicothe, has conducted previous hearings at Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Fort Worth and Lubbock.

The state has been charged to realign its congressional districts as a result of a federal court decision in Houston.

Moffett said each district should, according to the court decision, have 416,000 persons.

Four districts in East Texas have less than 300,000. The fifth—which the late Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn represented—has only 216,000 persons.

Nasser Pledges Support To Greek Cypriot Chief

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—President Makarios won a pledge of support today from the United Arab Republic in his dispute with Turkish Cypriots on troubled Cyprus as anti-American demonstrations continued in Turkey.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser also warned against outside interference in the island's affairs, said a joint communiqué issued in Alexandria at the conclusion of talks between Nasser and Makarios.

Nasser did not specifically pledge military support, however.

Nasser's pledge to Makarios came on the heels of renewed demonstrations in Turkey's key cities.

The United Arab Republic thus followed the lead of Greece and the Soviet Union in promising help if Cyprus were invaded by Turkey.

"The U.A.R. is prepared to provide Cyprus with every possible support for the sake of strengthening the efforts of the Cypriot people in their struggle to safeguard the unity of their island," the communiqué said.

"The two sides agreed that foreign military bases are a threat to international peace," it added.

Nasser is known to be opposed to the presence of Western military bases in the eastern Mediterranean. Britain retains two military bases on Cyprus under the 1960 treaty of independence.

A British base on Cyprus was used as a staging area for the British-French attack on Egypt during the 1956 Suez crisis.

in Africa. China has made Africa one of its major spheres of activity. The broadcast said Peking told Moscow: "We will never take part in any international meeting or any preparatory meeting for it, which you call for the purpose of splitting the international Communist movement." "You have the effrontery to declare in your letter that, whether or not the fraternal parties participate, the drafting committee you have designated shall open shop as scheduled and the international meeting unilaterally called by you shall begin on the date prescribed." "Today the most urgent common task before the communists and revolutionary people of the world is to oppose U.S. imperialism and its lackeys. But you are bent on colluding with the U.S. imperialists and on seeking common ground jniting you with them."

IN DECEMBER

The Kremlin has summoned Communist delegates to the December meeting to prepare for a party summit session on the Soviet-Chinese ideological feud. The differences involve Moscow's policy of peaceful coexistence with the West and Peking's demands for action, even at the risk of war, to spread communism.

Peking's rejection letter said, "We have already warned you the day you call a schismatic meeting will be the day you have taken another long step toward this grave of your own digging."

South Viet Nam is the "biggest testing ground of U.S. special warfare," the broadcast said, but added that American campaigns also were under way in Venezuela and Colombia.

"Thus, with the Johnson administration now beginning to intervene by armed force in the heart of Africa, the flames of special warfare are burning in all three continents of Asia, Africa and Latin America," the Peking agency said.

"Special warfare can not save the staggering colonial empire of U.S. imperialism," the broadcast said.

should be located on Cyprus," he said. Makarios said Turkish Cypriots who compose about 20 per cent of the island's population "will not be allowed a veto power." It was Makarios' attempt to end the Turkish minority's veto on major legislation that began the Cyprus civil war last December.

The Greek Cypriot leader, who flew to Alexandria Saturday to confer with U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser, said Sunday that Nasser "reassured me of his support in several ways."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Georgia's Gov. Carl Sanders says the Democrats' selection of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey as their vice-presidential nominee "will prove to be an asset" to them, but Republican National Chairman Dean Burch contends it will unify and help the Republican party.

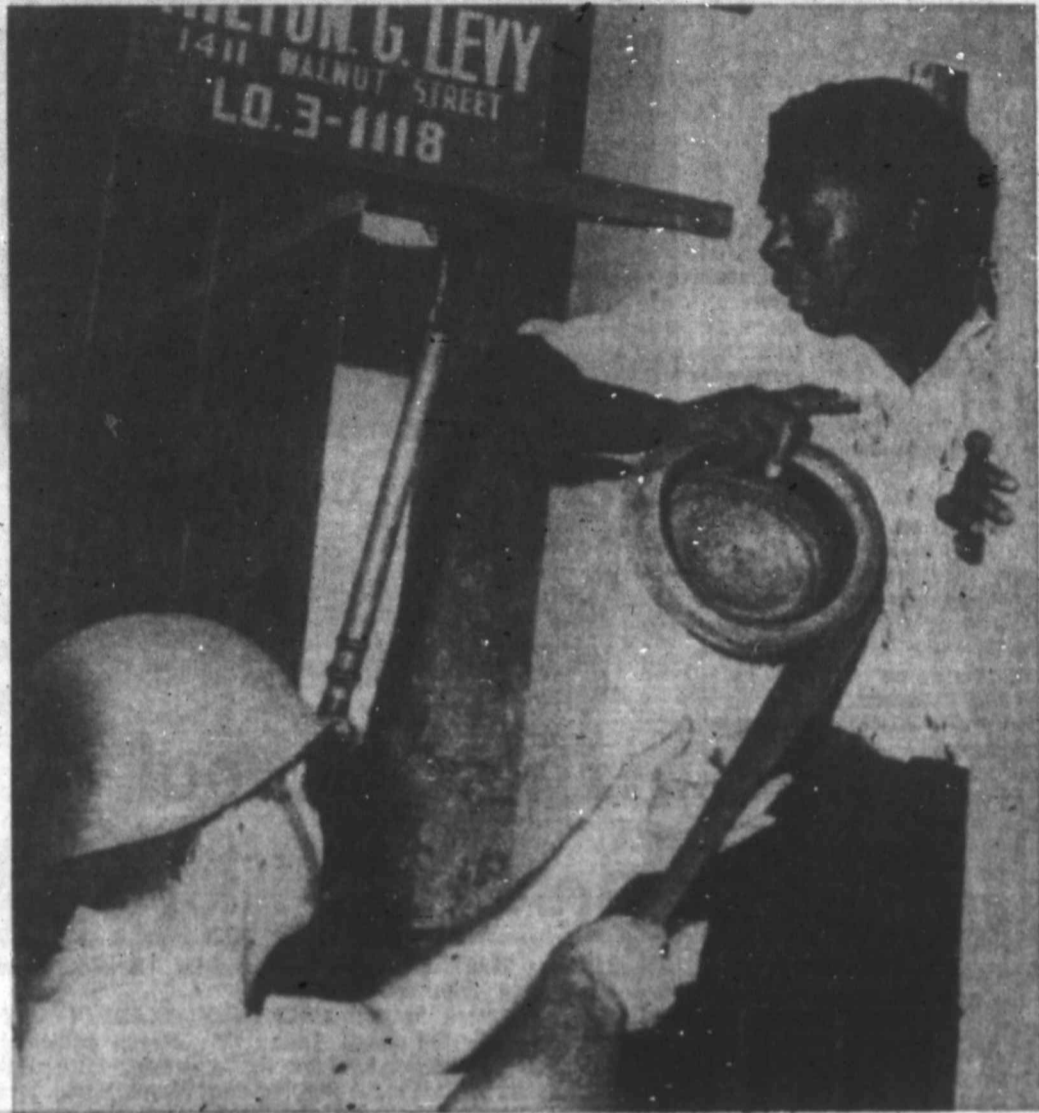

Another participant in the weekend's radio-television interviews, Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., conceded that Humphrey's liberal background would be a liability in some respects in the South. But he predicted the ticket of President Johnson and Humphrey would get a majority of the South's electoral votes.

Humphrey returned to Washington and his Senate duties after a long weekend of relaxation and campaign planning at Johnson's Texas ranch.

Johnson's Republican opponent, Sen. Barry Goldwater, also talked campaign strategy during the weekend meeting.

Some Parts Of County Get Two Inches Rain

Rains whipped by strong gusts of wind and accompanied by vivid lightning, swept Howard County Sunday afternoon. They dumped widely varied amounts of moisture on the county—the volume ranging from sprinkles in some places to as much as two inches in others.

In Big Spring, the rains were as varied as any place in the county. The U. S. Experiment Station on the north edge of the city reported 2.6 inch. In Kentwood Additions across town to the southeast 1.20 inch was gauged. West and southwest rains from half an inch up to an inch were reported. The Texas Electric Service Co. switching station measured only .17 inch.

TESCO said Morgan Creek gauge showed .57 inch and in Big Spring, a gauge in College Park caught .60 inch.

The most favored areas, reports indicate, were Moss Creek Lake and Forsan. Both these places reported two inches. Moss Creek Lake was benefited by a heavy inflow of water on the heels of the rain and had shown a rise of 2.5 feet at 3:30 a.m. today. At Forsan, the deluge was accompanied by winds, but no damage was reported. A light rain fell at Forsan Saturday, but no measurements were made.

Lightning struck two oil storage batteries about two miles east of there and set the wooden structures into flames which lasted about three hours.

A pilot from Webb AFB, flying over the area, reported the fire to the Webb fire department, which sent two units and notified the Big Spring fire department, which also sent one truck. The fire was reported about 5:40 p.m. and firemen reported it continued to burn until after 9 p.m.

Firemen said the storage tanks were destroyed and an oil separator unit burned. One of the tanks contained oil and the other was empty, firemen said, with each tank a 1,000-gallon unit. An emergency truck was also dispatched from the Halliburton Oil Co. office to the scene. The tanks were on property owned by Horace Garrett, Big Spring.

Farther to the south and east, Chalk reported only .20 inch of rain.

At Elbow, in the southwest part of the county, a sprinkler fell but only one and a half miles east 1.5 inches of rain was gauged.

Back toward town, near the Big Spring County Club, Fern Cox said his gauge showed 1.8 inches.

Lomax had rains of divergent quantities. Arthur Stallings said he gauged .60 inch on his farm, but that heavier rains fell in the area. There was a report of 1.3 inches measured half a mile west of the Parum Store.

Elbow Creek, long dry, was reported to be running, indicating heavy rains on its watershed.

South of Lomax, at the Edwards Ranch, only a light shower fell.

At Luther, a sandstorm was the sole development of the storm but, five miles east of there, 1.5 inches was reported. Fairview had no appreciable rain. Three miles east of Gay Hill school, an inch of rain fell, but the rain was light at the school.

Vealmoor had about a quarter of an inch.

At Knott, Rufus Stallings said he had 40 inch rain on his farm. Rain varied widely in the area, he said.

Wilson Ranch, near Vincent, had 1.30 inches with heavy winds and small hail. The Sheppard Ranch, on the Borden-Howard County line, had two inches. Ed Carpenter, who lives near Vincent, had half an inch.

In Big Spring the gusty winds whipped off a few tree limbs. Two or three vicious flashes of lightning caused some alarm.

The Howard County Junior College gauge showed 1.2 inches; Lees Store, two inches; R-Bar Community 1.5 inches with destructive wind which blew over a big LPG tank, and did other damage; 40 inch in Southaven, where Mrs. J. T. fell.

Lake J. B. Thomas caught .50 of a foot of water, or about 300 acre feet.

get out on the stump and talk to the people" in the South, Sanders said. "This man is a great campaigner."

Burch criticized both Johnson and Humphrey on the CBS program "Face the Nation," and said the convention which nominated them was "most undemocratic."

He called Johnson "a complete cynic," and said his choice of Humphrey as a running mate was "cynicism of the ultra type." As senators, Humphrey and Johnson often took opposite sides on issues, Burch said, and they opposed each other for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960.

Noting Humphrey's membership in Americans for Democratic Action—which he said should be called "Americans for Socialistic Action"—Burch said the association has "effectively killed the question of extremism" in the campaign.

Incidentally, the ADA, which describes itself as a nonpartisan group supporting policies of the New Deal and the Fair Deal, announced it is enthusiastically supporting the Johnson-Humphrey ticket.

Among campaign issues, Burch said, will be lawlessness in American cities, the situation in Cuba and Viet Nam, and the wealth Johnson has acquired since he became a member of Congress.

But the central issue, he said, is "does the United States want a man as cynical as Johnson for president."

Contending that Johnson "is not the type of example that lends itself to absolute law and order," Burch said:

"I think that cynicism has been established by his going along with the idea that let's stop the (race) riots until Nov. 3, until the election is over, and then you can have all the riots you want."

He told a questioner, however, he is not suggesting that Johnson has no concern over riots after Election Day.

Tense Quiet Reigns Over Philadelphia

Sporadic Fights, Looting Continue

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A tense, uneasy quiet returned to the riot-ravaged Negro section of North Philadelphia today, after a weekend of violence, looting and pillaging.

Sporadic vandalism, window smashing and throwing of rocks at police continued into the early morning hours, but city and police officials said the situation remained under control and the four-square-mile trouble zone was returning to relatively normal operations.

Some 1,500 police saturated the area, which remained under a 24-hour curfew. Mayor J. H. J. Tate emphasized that a clear-the-streets order, issued Saturday, remained in effect.

The proclamation, falling under an 1850 law, made it a misdemeanor, with a maximum penalty of two years in prison, for anyone to be on the streets without legitimate business.

350 JAILED Tate, in a progress statement late Sunday night, reported that 225 stores had been looted and more than 350 persons arrested for various violations. The injured totaled 247, including 66 policemen. Almost all of the injuries were minor and there were no fatalities.

One shooting was reported. Police said Robert Green, a 21-year-old Negro, was wounded Saturday night when he pulled a knife on a patrolman who was chasing persons throwing cans at a patrol car.

Tate estimated "several millions of dollars" in damages and other costs caused by the rioting, which broke out Friday night. The mayor pledged "the full assistance of the city administration in helping the affected merchants get back to normal operations as soon as possible."

INVESTIGATE Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, called upon the federal government to investigate the riots in Philadelphia as well as in other northern cities, suggesting that the riots were planned.

The mayor instructed Fredrick R. Mann, city director of commerce, to meet with businessmen today to outline a proposed plan of assistance.

In a television appearance Saturday night, the mayor said the rioting had no relation to civil rights fights by Negroes, but was "criminal hoodlumism and looting."

"I have been in touch with the police commissioner, who feels it was the work of hoodlums," Tate said, adding, "all the police tell us is that it was the work of roving gangs."

Negro leaders in the city decried the actions of a "hoodlum element."

Wilkins, in a telegram to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, said that because of the similarity of the riots, the suspicion is widespread that "they have been planned and that persons had been paid to start and to keep them going."

Troubles in New York State, Chicago and Philadelphia, Wilkins said, "all started with a police dispute and proceeded to the wholesale looting of stores."

ROUTINE CALL The outbreak in Philadelphia began Friday night when a police patrol car, carrying a white and a Negro policeman, responded to a routine call of a stalled car in the predominantly Negro section of North Philadelphia, where about one-third of the city's 600,000 Negroes reside.

Police found a Negro woman and her husband arguing there and attempted to take the woman out of the car. It was then, they said, that a crowd gathered. Bottles, rocks and bricks were thrown at police and the widespread looting and pillaging began.

Efforts by local Negro civil rights leaders to stop the rioting by direct appeals to the people in the area proved unsuccessful.

The rioting continued Saturday and Sunday, though with less violence and less frequency. The police radio repeatedly reported bands of roving youths breaking windows and looting state liquor stores and tap-rooms.

Police said 28 persons were arrested Sunday night.

A special riot court at City Hall worked into the night to dispose of cases ranging from burglary to aggravated assault and battery by shooting.

GOOD DAY FOR FUND

The Bible Class fund happily experienced its best day of the current campaign Monday, thanks to individuals and several Sunday School classes. Together they contributed $210, which brought to $1,135 the amount so far subscribed.

This is little less than a third of what is needed to assure that 100 high school students will have the benefit of taking this credit course. Time for the campaign is rapidly running out, and if you can help, please don't delay sending or bringing your investment to the Herald. Make checks payable to the Bible Class for acknowledgment and deposit.

Cleo's Winds Slowing Die But Heavy Rains Follow

By The Associated Press

Tropical storm Cleo grudgingly gasped expiring winds today, but spewed heavy rains over sections of the western Carolinas, Maryland and the Virginia.

Roanoke, Va., got 1 1/2 inches; Morgantown, W. Va., received more than 1 inch; Asheville, N.C., got nearly 4 inches in 24 hours and Winston-Salem, N.C., nearly 3 inches.

The rains sent rivers and streams beyond their banks throughout the area.

After spreading many millions of dollars in damages further south, Cleo spawned two tornadoes at Laurinburg, N.C., within 13 hours. The first one Saturday tore through a three-mile path, injured two persons and caused an estimated $750,000 damages. Sunday, the second twister damaged some roofs outside the town.

Nearly three inches of rain fell over Cape Hatteras, N.C., Sunday.

LBJ Opens His Campaign By Telephone

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, even while relaxing at his LBJ Ranch, embarks today — by telephone — on his campaign for a full four years in the White House.

Johnson agreed to address the 100th anniversary convention of the International Plasterers and Masons Union at Philadelphia by long distance.

Once that was accomplished, Johnson set this as the day to sign a bill extending the food stamp plan designed to bring nourishment to needy families. This was one of his "must" bills in Congress and was passed just before the Democratic National Convention which nominated him by acclamation as the party standard bearer.

ADDRESSES

The President hopes to address quite a number of conventions, meetings and convocations of union, farmer and business groups between now and the Nov. 3 election.

In private conversation, Johnson often stresses such engagements before mentioning his planned appearances before larger, but more composite, masses of the voting public.

This doubtless reflects the President's ardent wish to woo all special interest groups and, hopefully, to emerge as a political figure who will be able to claim support from all segments of the voting public.

It is known that Johnson hopes he will be able to spend at least half his time during the campaign season in the White House. Any president likes the image of a chief executive hard at work on the nation's major problems.

AMONG THE PEOPLE

At the same time, he also wants to get out among the people several days a week.

In accomplishing this, Johnson will be likely to combine speaking appearances before special interest groups with public motorcades to and from neighboring airports.

This was the pattern he frequently followed during his pre-convention travels last spring, travels that White House aides regarded as a dress rehearsal for the presidential campaign.

Johnson is spending a long weekend at his 400-acre farm and is expected to remain in the central Texas hill country for another day or two, at least.

The day's schedule, however, suggested a gradual transition to something more arduous than the relaxed weekend schedule of walks, boating expeditions and talks with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, his vice-presidential running mate.

TO CONGRESS

Humphrey, his wife, Muriel, and son, Douglas, 16, flew back to Washington Sunday in time for today's reopening of Congress.

While the Humphreys were here, everything was folksy or "country," as they say in these parts. A great unwinding from convention days was the major objective.

Calm Expected As Biloxi Opens With Integration

BILOXI, Miss. (AP) — This tourist-conscious Gulf Coast city hopes for calm and quiet today as Negroes begin classes with whites for the first public school desegregation in Mississippi below the college level.

The state is the last in the nation to integrate its elementary and high schools under the historic U.S. Supreme Court decision of slightly more than 10 years ago.

Sixteen Negro first graders are enrolled in four formerly all-white schools.

The registration for the Biloxi school system took place some two weeks ago without incident.

School Supt. R. D. Brown said he anticipated no trouble with the start of classroom work. Any outbreak inevitably would affect tourism, a major industry here.

Biloxi has been relatively free of the racial troubles that have happened elsewhere in Mississippi this summer. A wade-in attempt on the white sand beaches by Negroes erupted into violence in 1960.

First-grade classrooms doors were opened to Negroes by a federal court order which also directed Jackson and rural Leake County to lower racial barriers.

Jackson has registered 43 Negro first graders with classes slated to begin Sept. 14. Leake County registered first graders at four of its five white attendance centers, but no Negroes appeared.

Carthage, the largest school in the rural system, will conduct registration Tuesday for first graders. Civil rights sources say three Negroes will register.

The only other Mississippi school system ordered to desegregate is Clarksdale. To date no Negro applications have been made public.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South you hold:
♠ KJ9752 ♥ 2 ♠ 43 ♣ Q865

The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
Pass 1♥ Pass 1♠
Pass 2♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—One diamond. Even the you need a 12 point hand, nothing more drastic is as yet indicated. If partner is unable to take further constructive action there will be no game.

Q. 2—As South you hold:
♠ A Q J 3 ♥ Q 8 7 6 5 3 ♠ A 4

The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
Pass 1♥ Pass 2♣
Pass 2♥ Pass 3♣
Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. A rebid of three no trump should be avoided whenever possible on distinctly unbalanced holdings. The mere fact that all four suits are adequately protected does not mark a hand for no trump. Communication between the two hands may be too tenuous to make the contract playable. Only if partner chooses to bid three no trump himself would we find this contract acceptable.

Q. 3—As South you hold:
♠ AKQ ♥ AK10953 ♦ 3 ♣ Q76

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1♥ Pass 1♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three hearts. While it may be tempting to make an immediate jump raise in spades such temptation should be resisted. Repeated diamond leads might play havoc with a spade contract, whereas at heart you could handle the force without great inconvenience.

Q. 4—As South you hold:
♠ 6 ♠ A Q J 10 8 7 4 3 ♠ A Q J 9

Your partner opens with one spade. What is your response?
A.—Three diamonds. Unless an immediate jump shift is made, subsequent bidding problems are sure to arise. Partner needs very little to produce a slam, and the big steal should be flashed at once.

Q. 5—As South you hold:
♠ 7 6 2 ♥ A K 5 ♦ A J 8 7 ♣ 7 5 2

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
2♠ Pass 2NT Pass 3♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. Partner has not expressed a desire to have you participate. If that were in his mind he would have doubled the opening bid. Unless North is highly indignant he has a reliable spade suit and inasmuch as he has not been doubled there is no present danger. A bid of three diamonds appears to have no real future and might tend only to stir up the animals.

Q. 6—As South you hold:
♠ J 6 2 ♥ 9 8 2 ♠ 8 8 5

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
2♠ Pass 2NT Pass 3♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. It is your duty at this stage to show a preference. If you have one, which, holding three spades to an honor, you have. If you bid three no trump, any subsequent spade preference you give may induce partner to believe you have only two spades.

Dear Abby

Just Take
Odor Away

DEAR ABBY: Though I am supposed to solve political problems, I have one which I have wrestled with for some time and I need help. It pertains to skunks.
Two of my grandsons want to adopt skunks. I told them that I would go along with them. Confidentially, I even encouraged them. When I was young, I used to trap skunks (some people say I still do). A good de-scented skunk, regardless of his politics, is not so bad to have around the house. However, Mrs. Pearson objects. She says she will not tolerate skunks in our home. Since my grandsons are visiting us this summer, and I did promise them some skunks, what is your advice?

DREW PEARSON

DEAR MR. PEARSON: A promise is a promise. Get the grandsons the skunks. They make wonderful pets! But be sure they're deodorized — otherwise I predict your life won't be worth a scent!

DEAR ABBY: I am 17 and I hope you won't think my problem is too silly to answer. You see, my parents do not allow me to date a boy unless he is the same faith as I am. You can't always tell by their looks, or even by their names, and I don't think it is very nice to come right out and ask a person what church he belongs to. Yet there would be no sense in starting to like a boy who doesn't go to my church because, if he liked me, I couldn't date him anyway. So how can I find out what religion a boy is without coming right out and asking him?

PHILADELPHIA

DEAR PHILADELPHIA: There is nothing wrong with "coming right out and asking him." In fact, that's the best way to get an honest answer to a serious question.

DEAR ABBY: I am the youngest of six children. And to make matters worse I was a "change of life" baby, and it was almost like being an only child. My mother was 51 years old when I was born. Well, whenever my mother introduces me to any of her friends, she says, "... and this is my baby." I am 36 years old, Abby, and this is pretty embarrassing. Should I correct my mother?
"A 200-pound baby!"
DEAR ABBY: Your mother is lucky to have a 36-year-old "baby," and you are even luckier to have an 87-year-old mother. I don't recommend correcting one's mother — at any age.

Troubled? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Part Of A Profitable Plan

Thomas P. Malone of Chicago's general plans commission staff points out the site of the city's civic center now abuilding in the downtown area. The civic center, one of dozens of projects undertaken in 17 years of urban renewal, is part of a plan designed to lure suburbanites back into town and increase tax yield. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Urban Renewal Begins Paying Its Own Way In Chicago Area

CHICAGO (AP) — After 17 years and $210 million, urban renewal is paying its way in Chicago. As an added bonus, say city officials, it's bringing suburbanites back to the city at a better than expected pace. By the late 1940s, Chicago's white citizens — like millions of others throughout the country — were streaming to the suburbs while slums spread in their wake. Assessed tax valuations of real estate and tax revenue were dropping.

begin in 1947 with the Hyde Park-Kenwood conservation project, first of its kind in the United States. More than $36 million in city, state and federal funds was spent in the next 10 years to build new homes and apartment buildings, renovate old units and tear down dilapidated ones. Now, 30 projects later, city officials estimate that the developments, which extend into almost every part of the city, eventually will increase the valuation of the involved real estate by more than $48 million. D. E. MacKellmann, deputy commissioner of urban renewal, Sunday estimated the increase in tax yield at 115 per cent since the urban renewal programs were initiated. The city should be able to pay off the millions invested by 1975, he said. Plus the public funds, an estimated half-billion dollars has been invested from private funds and by the University of Illinois, which hopes its $150-million Chicago campus will be ready for classroom use by next spring. The school will occupy an 105-acre site on the West Side that was cleared with urban renewal funds. One recent urban renewal project considered a glowing success is Carl Sandburg Village, an ultra-modern housing development in Old Town, an area known for its quaint shops, houses and entertainment spots. The village, eventually to be a 2,000-unit development with six 27-story towers, was constructed by a real estate firm, Arthur Rubloff & Co., after the land was designated a slum and cleared with urban renewal funds.

Multi-Fatality Crashes Shove Texas' Count To 28

A two-car collision which killed five persons near Corpus Christi Sunday night pushed the weekend traffic toll in Texas to 28. The accident, six miles west of the Southeast Texas town of Alice, was the worst of several multi-fatality collisions across the state. The Associated Press counted a total of 39 deaths from traffic, drownings, shootings and other violence in its regular tabulation from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Sunday.

Willy Freeman, 30, a Negro, was stabbed to death Saturday night in a lounge in Beaumont. Police held a 32-year-old suspect. Solidar Vera, 14, of San Antonio died Sunday when a pickup truck in which she was riding with her father was struck by a car from the rear and overturned on U.S. 281 three miles south of San Antonio. Paul Hester Cody, 43, of Muleshoe and Charles S. Choates Jr. of Olton died Saturday night in a two-car accident near Muleshoe.

Four persons died in a two-car accident north of San Antonio Saturday night. Killed were Charles Birmingham, 64, of Victoria, Theo E. Woerner, 27, of Fredericksburg, and two sisters, Alice and Connie Garza, 5 and 15, of Victoria. The sisters, riding with Birmingham, were returning to Victoria from a trip to El Paso. Mrs. Evelyn Waler Coy, 34, of Snyder was killed Sunday when a car went out of control and overturned on State 350 a mile south of Snyder.

Arthur Neil Taylor Sr., 71, was found dead in the wreckage of his car a mile west of Hillie, near Wharton. Investigators said Taylor may have suffered a heart attack before his car crashed into a culvert. Four persons were killed and three injured in a two-car accident Saturday on rain-slick U.S. 150 five miles west of Albany. Killed were the Rev. Paul C. Eifert, about 60, and his wife, 59, of Tomball, Tex., and Mrs.

Rubin Brown, 49, was found drowned in the old Brazos River near Freeport Sunday. Police said he had been crabbing and apparently slipped and fell from the river bank. GUNSHOT Walter Louis Simmons, 17, died early Sunday in Houston of gunshot wounds.

Sharon Ann Williams, 20, and her infant daughter, Mrs. Eifert died in an Abilene hospital Sunday. A car-pickup crash Saturday at the entrance to the Midland air terminal killed Madison Threath, 47, of Odessa and Jose Rubio, 25, who lived near Lenora. Aaron B. Hale, 49, of Henderson was killed Saturday when his car hit a bridge on U.S. 259 near Henderson. Two brothers from McKinney were killed Saturday near Clarksville when their car and a truck collided. They were Nickey Robinson, 23, and Jimmy Robinson, 32. Luis Aguilar, 32, of San Antonio, was killed Saturday when the car in which he was riding ran off the road near Calliham. Four persons were injured. John Gamble, 13, of Kerrville drowned Saturday at a lake near Camp Verde while on a weekend scouting trip with his Boy Scout troop. Andrew Ronald Castillo, 19, was shot to death in Austin late Friday night. Another teenager was sought by police. Andrew C. Long, 50, was killed in Spring Branch Friday night when two cars rammed together. William E. Degerer was found shot to death early Saturday in a pickup truck outside his brother's home in suburban Fort Worth. Suicide was ruled. Harold Norris, 30, of Port Arthur, was electrocuted Saturday while unplugging an extension cord to an aluminum trailer house. Rufus E. Bledsoe of Van Alstyne was hit by a truck and killed Saturday afternoon as he crossed a highway. Grady Gerald Smith, 41, was killed in a Tyler tavern Friday night by a blow from what was described as a sharp instrument. Police questioned a 40-year-old woman. Roy Davis, 20, a Fort Worth Negro, died of a bullet wound late Saturday night. He was found shot early Saturday morning. A Negro man was shot to death by Dallas police Saturday night during the holdup of a drive-in grocery store. He was identified as Leroy Wayne Lockett, 22.

Tax Refunding System Due For Overhaul Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service promises something new next year in a perennial effort to make tax refunds to missing taxpayers. About 275,000 refunds were returned to the government during the fiscal year which ended last June 30 because taxpayers moved without leaving forwarding addresses. The IRS next year plans to use a new automatic data processing system to match the identify numbers on new returns with the numbers of persons who cannot be found.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States plans to launch late this week its largest scientific satellite, designated OGO-7, for orbiting geophysical observations.

Carrying 20 scientific experiments contributed by government laboratories and universities, the satellite will be aimed into an orbit looping from 170 miles above the earth out to 92,000 miles. It will gather data on the atmosphere, the magnetosphere and interplanetary space beyond reach of the earth's magnetic field.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Archaeologists have turned up what they consider evidence that the Vikings beat Christopher Columbus to the New World by about 500 years.

A tiny stone wheel, found in a Newfoundland wilderness, was hailed as a clue to a Viking settlement in North America nearly 1,000 years ago. The wheel was identified as part of a wool-spinning device and the first Viking household article found in the continent.

Dr. Melville Bell Grosvenor, president and editor of the National Geographic Society, said the discovery suggests that the Vikings brought their wives to do household work in an unsuccessful attempt to establish a permanent settlement.

Barry Opens In Colorful Arizona Town

PRESCOTT, Ariz. (AP)—Republican Barry Goldwater formally opens his presidential campaign here this Thursday in the city where his uncle, a staunch Democrat, has been proclaimed Man of the Century.

Prescott, (Elev. 5,354, Pop. 18,037) was the capital of Arizona during the rip-snorting territorial days. Pine-scented and mountain-rimmed, it now dreams of becoming the summer White House. It always has been Barry Goldwater's "lucky town."

Here he launched two successful campaigns for the U.S. Senate. Here he learned merchandising, starting as a stock clerk in the family store that had the distinction of being the first brick building in Arizona.

HANDBILLS
Here he got his first taste of politics, passing out handbills for his Uncle Morris, who was mayor of Prescott for 23 years and both speaker of the House and president of the Senate in the Territorial Legislature.

Morris Goldwater, who died in 1939 after a full and adventurous life on the old Arizona frontier, helped organize the state's Democratic party, order of Masons and constitutional conventions. Lake Goldwater, the city's reservoir, is named for him.

Sen. Goldwater will kick off his campaign on the steps of the handsome, Grecian-pillared Yavapai County Courthouse. Directly across the tree-shaded plaza still stands the roaring remnants of Whisky Row, with its famous Palace Bar, and, on the opposite side, the Goldwater store.

Most of the signs of its pioneer beginnings have disappeared, including Prescott's "hometown, once the West's largest outside of San Francisco."

SATURDAY NIGHT
But Montezuma Street, alias Whisky Row, still leaps to life every Saturday night when the cowhands and the miners flock in from the surrounding ranches and lead and zinc mines.

The faro tables and roulette wheels have long since given way to pinball machines and juke boxes, and rock 'n' roll now blasts away where Little Egypt doffed her draperies. The local barbershop still advertises hot baths at 50 cents and the ranchers still stretch out their mountain lion skins on the pool table in the Palace Bar to collect the $50 state bounty.

"Count the bullet holes in the ceiling—there's 17 of them," urged a patron in the Palace on a recent Saturday night. And do you see that big old wooden bar?

They took it out of a New York bar in 1878 and brought it here around the Horn by ship and across the desert from California by wagon train. The mustache towels are gone, but it's still the best looking piece of furniture in town.

GREAT FIRE
The ornate old bar survived the great fire of July 4, 1900, that wiped out Prescott's business district, except Chinatown, and brought Dude Hose Co. No. 2, organized by Morris Goldwater, hurrying to the scene. The Dudes, made up of merchants and bankers, traditionally slugged it out at the scene of every fire with volunteers from Toughs Hose Co. No. 1, comprising the saloonkeepers and customers of Whisky Row. This time both were helpless because the water ran out. Legend has it that the piano player at the Palace stuck to his stool until the floor collapsed under him.

Now celebrating its centennial, Prescott was founded in 1864 on a whim of Republican President Abraham Lincoln, who decided to locate the territorial capital way out in Apache country rather than at Tucson, a hotbed of secessionist sentiment. Morris Goldwater, who arrived in 1876 with Big Mike Goldwater, Barry's grandfather, never did raise a statue in the Plaza. But when the centennial commission posthumously named him Man of the Century, he did rate an oil painting in the new City Hall not far from the portrait of William Hickling Prescott, the Harvard historian of the Old Southwest for whom the city was named.

Congressmen Return To Health Care, Other Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress went back to work today, trying again to settle differences that prevented adjournment before the Democratic National Convention. Little business was planned by House leaders as representatives returned from the convention week recess. "But the Senate faced a renewed fight over health care for the elderly under the Social Security program. Backing of the health care program by President Johnson could make it one of several stumbling blocks in the path of an early adjournment. Another is an attempt by some members of Congress to halt or at least delay the reappointment of state legislatures ordered by the Supreme Court and subordinate tribunals. That battle was under way when Congress recessed Aug. 21 for the Democratic convention. Pending in the Senate is a house-passed bill which would increase and expand present Social Security benefits and increase the tax levies which support the nationwide program. To this, Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and his top assistant, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., now his party's vice-presidential candidate, hope to tack on the elderly health benefits. This could cause lengthy debate and even if favored by a Senate majority later concurrence by the House would be required. The plan is opposed by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee which handles Social Security legislation.

Has Not Posted Bond Of $2,000

Adolfo Salazar Jr., 17-year-old farm hand charged with the theft of Carl Grant's tractor early Saturday morning, had not posted the $2,000 bond set in his case Monday morning and was still in the county jail. Salazar was arrested by A. G. Mitchell and Ed Cherry, deputy sheriffs, after he had used Grant's tractor to provide him with a ride from Grant's farm to Salazar's residence near Knott. Deputy Sheriff Ed Cherry is looking for a well-fed burglar. The man being sought broke into the rural home of E. J. Roberts Jr., Route 1, sometime between 5 and 9 p.m. Sunday. He took two radios, a pair of combat boots, and a 22 rifle. Then he lugged away a cake, a roast and a loaf of bread. That's why Cherry figures when finds him, the suspect will not be hungry.

Four Cases Are Docketed

A jury was being selected Monday afternoon to try a suit for damages brought by Dwight B. McCann against H. M. Martin in 118th District Court. The case was set down as the first to be put on trial when Judge Ralph Caton sounded his docket Monday morning. Four cases were announced for trial. The judge, after a conference with the attorneys in the McCann-Martin case, said that the jury panel members not chosen for the first case would be instructed to report back to court at 10 a.m. Wednesday. Cases set for trial this week in the order listed: Regino Sanchez vs. Liberty Mutual Insurance Association, compensation; E. L. "Tony" Barron vs. Maryland Casualty Co., compensation; and Andrew Elkins and wife vs. J. O. Whitefield, et al, damages. There were 27 cases on the docket set for this week. Some of these were announced as settled, others, it was announced, would be dismissed. Majority of the matters were passed by agreement.

Congo Troops Recapture Albertville From Rebels

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Premier Moise Tshombe says his army has recaptured the strategic city of Albertville in the eastern Congo, but Communist-backed rebels are reported on the march again toward Bukavu. Tshombe personally announced the government victory over Radio Leopoldville Sunday. He said the rebels left behind their weapons in the flight from the city. There was no confirmation from other sources. Tshombe said the rebels still held Albertville Airport, 12 miles from the city. A spearhead of white mercenaries approached the airport last Thursday but were driven off by machine-gun fire. Five were wounded. Tshombe said his troops freed 28 Europeans who had been held hostage. He gave no indication of the fate of about 100 other whites in the city.

Smiles To Match The Occasion

The daughters of the founders of Malone and Hogan Clinic had broad smiles Sunday—and with good reason. They cut the ribbon which symbolized the opening of the handsome new three-story clinic building with its adjacent two deck parking area. Several hundred people were on hand for brief ceremonies which preceded the ribbon cutting, and between 2,000 and 3,500 coursed through the beautifully appointed plant during open house which continued an hour beyond schedule, despite rain. At left is Janet Bergman, Lubbock, and right, Mrs. Boone (Peggy) Powell Jr., daughters of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Hogan, and center, Mary Frances Malone, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Malone.

TWO BRAND NEW HARLEY-DAVIDSON MODELS
The economy size M-50 and the man-sized 74 motorcycles at Thixton's

Harley-Davidson Has Two New Motorcycles

Have you ever been able to portable riding. This is the "police type" motorcycle equipped with the latest features introduced by Harley-Davidson, including the electric starter which saves all the "kick-offs" necessary on older models. But with school opening, when a lot of transportation, with economical operation, and low original cost is needed, the M-50 motorcycle solves the problem. It is available for less money than competition's 50 c. c. engine cycles. The machine is all steel, from front fender to rear fender, and the frame is all welded construction. It has a foot-operated rear brake located on the right side; has a hand-operated front wheel brake, with the lever on the right handlebar, and the throttle on the right handlebar. Both front and rear brakes are full hub width for maximum shoe on drum contact, and the three-speed cascade transmission is operated with left hand grip clutch and rotary shift mechanism. Front and rear hydraulic shock absorbers assure a smooth and comfortable ride, on a comfortable, padded seat. Highland Insurance Service has a special insurance package for the M-50, and insurance is important to the rider, and insurance for the "under 25 of age" rider can be bought for less than that for the same-age automobile driver. If you are looking for something with foot-power Thixton also has a room-full of Schwinn bicycles for all ages, and these come with various speeds and frame sizes. Go by Cecil Thixton's and get a demonstration of the new economy model M-50 and the new Model 74 motorcycle.

No-Roach Is Pest Killer

Do you have a problem with ants? Or with roaches, maybe? Don't worry! It is so easy to say "I had an ant (or roach) problem", if you simply brush No-Roach across window and door sills, and around table legs. Ants will not cross the colorless, odorless coating of No-Roach. Just spot brush No-Roach in cabinets, and on baseboards to get rid of pesky cockroaches, ants, spiders, silverfish, and all crawling insects. No-Roach is a liquid that dries to form a colorless, odorless coating that stays effective for months. For instance in Ceylon, where it is hot all year, housewives brush No-Roach on tables, chairs, and beds to kill (sh-h) bedbugs, which are a major pest in that country. Eternal vigilance is necessary to keep all pesky bugs under control. No-Roach is it. When you use No-Roach there is no need to move dishes, or to breathe vapors. It is the safest and most effective way to control crawling insects, yet is harmless to pets. You can obtain No-Roach at Hull & Phillips, Newsom's, Safeway, Piggly Wiggly, Furr's, and all grocery stores. It is distributed by Striplings.

UAW Boss Returns To Pact Fight

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther was to face his familiar foes today after apparently quelling a brief but stormy revolt within his union's ranks.

Reuther was set to put in another personal appearance at the bargaining table as the UAW and Chrysler Corp. continued efforts to hammer out a new and pattern-setting contract.

Current pacts with Chrysler and fellow auto industry giants General Motors and Ford, originally scheduled to expire today, have been extended until Sept. 9.

That was the strike deadline handed Chrysler by UAW leaders last week.

NO SIGN

Chrysler, the smallest of the automotive Big Three, showed no sign of plans to improve on the contract offer made to the UAW on Aug. 17. The union rejected offers from all three companies as inadequate.

Reuther and top UAW officials faced a brief flurry of protest over the weekend at a meeting of the GM workers council, which represents some 354,000 GM employees.

Leonard Woodcock, chief of the union's GM department, conceded that some workers are unhappy with the decision to pick Chrysler instead of the larger General Motors as the target for a possible strike.

PICKETING

Several men who said they were UAW members from plants of GM's Ternstedt Division picketed the council meeting Saturday to protest the fact that GM was not selected.

Woodcock said tempers in the meeting were soothed after union leaders gave assurances that GM workers would get their chance to pressure their employer over changes in working conditions.

The federal government estimates the basic average hourly wage in the industry at $3.01. The company offers involved increases of about 35 cents over the three-year contract spans.

Bargaining was to resume at Ford today and at GM on Tuesday, but attention was focused on the talks at Chrysler, which probably will determine whether there will be a strike in the booming auto industry this year.

Fire Hits On Boycott Eve

MOUNT STERLING, Ky. (AP) — On the eve of a threatened boycott of city schools by Negro parents protesting a change in integration plans, an all-Negro school and a building that served as a Masonic hall for Negroes have been destroyed by fire.

Montgomery County Atty. Henry Bramblett said he has requested state police be alerted for possible duty guarding the city's three white schools. The disturbances shattered years of calm in the state's school integration moves.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the state Department of Public Safety's arson squad sifted through the ruins of the all-Negro Dubois School today.

The school was burned Sunday while firemen were answering an apparent decoy call at a white school at the other end of the city. Damage has been estimated at $210,000.

The Masonic hall, owned by undertaker W. D. Banks, an active leader in the local NAACP chapter, was leveled Sunday night. Two policemen who discovered the blaze said they could smell kerosene and reported seeing a large can burning under the steps.

Banks is one of two NAACP leaders who met with the city's board of education earlier in an attempt to end the boycott threat. The board has revised its plan to integrate all grades of city schools. It decided to integrate only two grades this year, after it was learned more than three times the expected number of Negroes had registered to attend white schools.

After Dubois school was burned, the school board met in an emergency 90-minute closed session. Later, Supt. Jack Miller issued a brief announcement that the board had decided to suspend the school system's operations until Sept. 8.

Louisville attorney James Crumlin, hired by the parents of 125 Negro children, said a suit to force integration of all grades would be filed early this week unless an agreement could be reached.

Mount Sterling — between the bluegrass country and the Cumberland Mountains — has lagged behind the remainder of Kentucky in school integration.

As representative of the nation's wheat industry, she will be guest of honor at the Canadian National Exhibition and will make numerous appearances for the wheat growers during the coming year. Dr. D. M. A. Mercer, lecturer at Southampton University, told the British Association for the Advancement of Science that life may exist in other solar systems.

"The most likely way for one intelligent world to try to contact another would be to send out unmanned spacecrafts loaded with computers and scientific information ready to give and receive information," Dr. Mercer said.

LONDON (AP) — Radio-controlled model airplanes flown by hobbyists west of London are suddenly behaving as though suicide pilots had taken over. Outraged model builders blame Japanese-made walkie-talkies that have just come on the market. They operate on a fixed frequency, the same one allotted by the British Post Office to the remote-controlled planes.

A Devotional For The Day

Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. (I Thessalonians 5:21.)
 PRAYER: Gracious God, our Father, we would discern Thy will for us, we would glorify Thee in our interests and pursuits. May we so abide in Thy presence that we may partake of Thy divine nature. Draw us toward the heights of tolerance and generosity, of compassion and concern; in the spirit of Christ, our Redeemer. Amen.

Extra Space Benefits

Americans need not worry over much about the status of their space program, even though lightning damage to the Gemini launching pad was a setback to the lunar-flight project. This may enable the Soviet Union to do a spectacular multi-manned orbital flight before we do, but other U.S. accomplishments continue to give this country overall pre-eminence.

Our space technology has produced notable achievements, for example, in the fields of communications and weather forecasting. True global communication is not far off. The same can be said for global weather observation.

Global communication made a great advance when Syncom 3 was launched at Cape Kennedy the other day. If all goes well, it will relay televised coverage of the Olympic Games in Japan. The remarkable thing about this research vehicle is that it will take a position high above the Pacific Ocean and appear to hover there by virtue of maintaining a fixed speed in relationship to the earth.

Even more remarkable, in some ways, is the experimental weather satellite Nimbus. Now aloft, this package of instruments follows a near-polar orbit that enables it to observe the entire surface of the globe once every 24 hours. Thanks to improved techniques, its weather-measuring devices will continually point toward the earth.

The launching of such objects may not be as sensational as some other space enterprises. But such achievements are the real basis of our position as the world leader in this new field.

Platforms Somewhat Alike

Taken at face value—hardly the wisest way to take any partisan political declaration—the Republican and Democratic platforms of 1964 reveal no basic difference on the civil rights issue that would make that issue decisive in the national elections.

If anything, the Democratic civil rights plank is milder, at least in tone, than the Republican. That probably reflects an overcompensation on the part of both parties, in their formal platforms, to move nearer the election-winning middle ground on this issue.

But the key pledge in both parties' race-relations planks is support for the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The Democrats pledge "fair, effective enforcement." The Republicans promise "full implementation and faithful execution." There is no essential difference in that.

The Republican platform charges that the Democratic administration has "exploited interracial tensions" for political purposes. And the Democratic platform implies the Republicans condone extremism aggravating racial tensions. But both declare they will not tolerate lawlessness or violence in the resolution of America's race-relations problems. Both platforms declare unequivocal opposition to discrimination of any kind. There is a difference of emphasis in that the Republican platform emphasizes the educational route to equality of opportunity, while the Democratic platform emphasizes governmental efforts to combat the conditions of poverty. But both platforms avoid trying to draw hard and fast lines between federal, state and local, or public and private, responsibilities for erasing the blight of racial discrimination from the American democratic society. The Republicans promise additional legislation if needed; the Democrats apparently anticipate no such need in the near future.

What all this adds up to is that if civil rights are to be a decisive issue in the coming campaign they will have to be made so by the candidates themselves—who have mutually pledged not to do that in a way likely to inflame racial feelings—or by groups within both parties who take more controversial positions than do their parties' platforms.

The Complex President

ATLANTIC CITY — The millions of words written during the past nine months about Lyndon Baines Johnson fall short of catching the essence of one of the most complex men in the history of the American Presidency.

Between the public and the private personality of a man of power there is always a sharp contrast. But there are not just two Johnsons—the outwardly genial, smooth-talking friend to all mankind and the private volcano erupting in language that would startle a hardened Marine sergeant. There are four or five or six Johnsons depending on mood, place, time.

ONE OF THE dominant traits of the President and now of the candidate is a power drive that has rarely been equalled even in power-obsessed Washington. That is one reason he is where he is today. Every step of the way in both his public and private life he has fought like a tiger to get what he wanted.

As he has come up the harsh, demanding way of success—both financial and political—a characteristic of his early ambition has become confirmed and intensified. With an almost-fierce jealousy he is bent on keeping the controls in his own hands.

THIS RAISES a significant question about the campaign as well as about his Administration if he is confirmed for a four-year term by a sizable majority. Can he be President, candidate and campaign manager all in one?

Can he, in short, delegate authority to trusted men and leave them undisturbed with their responsibility? Intensely competitive himself, he communicates this competitiveness to those who work with him. It is one reason his close assistants find the pace so hard.

BETWEEN the idolaters, whose biographies read like a chapter out of the lives of the saints, and the propagandists, who put his every act down to malice or ruthless ambition, no study has come close to the real Johnson. This may be because genius is hard to catalogue, and Johnson is a genius of a kind. But when a biographer with sufficient perspective appears he will pay the most careful attention to the years as Vice President.

At the outset Johnson fretted and fumed at the frustrations of an office with so little scope for his driving energy and his unquenchable ambition. After a first early skirmish on the power front he gave unquestioning loyalty and devoted service to Kennedy. While now and then on his frequent ceremonial trips abroad his irritation would break out, he maintained a surface of calm goodwill.

THAT, TOO, is a consistent characteristic—the volcano may erupt in private but the discipline rarely if ever cracks in public. Through his years as majority leader—and they were often stormy years—no one recalls his having lost his temper in public. If this is not restraint, maturity, it may, as self-discipline, serve as well.

The ego of the man is without bounds. He will want to be the best President the United States has ever had without any qualifiers. Failure is intolerable and that goes for the failure of anyone or anything close to him.

Detective Story

BERLIN (AP) — Crime authors in Communist East Germany have been told to dream up a "socialist Sherlock Holmes."

The spirit of the famous detective created by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle should be revived in the person of a farsighted, wise officer of the People's Police," the authors were told at a writers' convention in East Berlin.

Stories about the new super-detective must have a socialist moral, however. They must not describe crimes that can be imitated, but contribute to reduction of crime, the authors were warned.

But crimes committed in West Germany can be described, so as to "expose the way the West German police apparatus operates in the interest of the imperialistic state," the official Communist party newspaper Neues Deutschland reported.

Campaign Could Easily Get Out Of Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — This year's political campaign is the kind that can get out of control. The potshots from both sides, with the possibility of one word leading to another, have the built-in potential of an explosion.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, after calling his rival, President Johnson, a phony and the "biggest faker in the United States," said he will conduct the campaign solely on the issues and will not engage in "personal attack."

But his team is attacking. GOLDWATER'S vice-presidential running-mate, Rep. William E. Miller, says Johnson's wealth makes his integrity subject to "some question" and that he hopes integrity and morality in office would always be an issue.

Sunday Dean Burch, Goldwater's handpicked chairman of the Republican National Committee, called Johnson "cynical" and said the way the President got his wealth "raises a very singular moral question."

On the "Face the Nation" television show Burch said of Johnson in connection with Negro riots in Northern cities so far this year: "He is not the type of example that lends itself to absolute law and order.

"I THINK that cynicism has been established by his going along with the idea that let's stop the riots until Nov. 3, until the election is over, and then you can have all the riots you want."

Burch was asked whether he was seriously suggesting that Johnson just wants a moratorium until Nov. 3 on rioting and after that has no concern about the matter.

"No," Burch said. "I would not suggest that he has no concern. But I would certainly suggest he wants a moratorium on rioting."

Johnson, in accepting the Democratic presidential nomination last week, never mentioned Goldwater's name and told the nation the Democrats wanted no part of "fear or smear."

BUT HIS SPEECH contained a lot of indirect assaults on Goldwater whom he pictured as a reactionary without naming him. At the same time Johnson talked of turning the other cheek.

Yet, Goldwater had previously provoked him into an angry retort by criticizing Johnson's handling of Viet Nam. The President said Goldwater had committed a disservice to the country and the world.

It's doubtful Johnson will be able to maintain throughout the campaign the same kind of aloofness he tried in his acceptance speech if he has to put up with much of the Goldwater-Miller-Burch kind of attack.

If he gets harsh with Goldwater it's going to be interesting to see how the Arizona senator stands up under it. Goldwater has already been given a taste of what he can expect from Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey.

ON THE SAME night Johnson in Atlantic City was urging against "fear or smear" and fixing his oratorical eyes on lofty goals. Humphrey accepting the vice-presidential nomination, went after Goldwater barehanded and by name.

He accused him of "extremism, passion, radical language, recklessness, and being out of step with a majority of the Republicans in Congress."

Among the first pieces of equipment politicians usually acquire are shock-absorbers but this campaign looks like a rocky road for all concerned, so rocky that explosions even this early look like a safe prediction.

Epilepsy Is Not A Mental Illness

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
 Dear Dr. Molner: I have come in contact with several people who are epileptic. Is this a mental illness? What should one do when an epileptic has a seizure? —J. K.

No, epilepsy is not a mental illness. It is a disorder in which the muscles go into convulsion. The treatment is the use of anti-convulsant drugs which prevent the muscles from going into sudden spasms.

Seizures are usually brief. In some types of epilepsy, they may last only a second or less, and nothing need be done. The patient merely pauses in the middle of saying a word, then continue, as though nothing had happened, when the convulsion passes.

In the more severe attacks, in which the patient falls to the ground, all you should (or can) do is to keep him from harming himself. See that he does not strike his head against some object.

Put a cushion or perhaps a folded coat or sweater under his head. Try to keep him from biting his tongue. A small piece of wood, a wooden pencil or the like, slipped between his teeth, will accomplish this. You could also use a spoon, corner of a Loosen the collar, the straining muscles may make breathing difficult.

He will come out of the seizure automatically as the muscles relax, but he will be tired and shaky from his ordeal.

Then be helpful and understanding. There is no reason to be afraid of him, as some people are when they see a seizure. For the sake of his feelings, if people gather round and begin jabbering and asking foolish questions, gently shoo them about their business. Just be calm and say, "He's had a seizure, that's all. He'll be all right in a few minutes."

Around The Rim Christmas Toys Will Be Loud

This and that: Get ready for a detonation or two come Christmas. It is taking on all appearances of a loud one.

One manufacturer of toys is stressing sound in its 1964 line. He's adding bicycles and tricycles for the first time and, guess what, they've been styled like motorcycles even down to the "motor" that responds with battery-powered engine roar noises.

Volume of the sound is controlled by the youngster — unless a distraught mother or dad decide to control the youngster. The roar devices are also being placed on toy trucks, shiplanders and racing cars.

THE TOY MAKERS explain it all by saying "sound adds a new dimension."

"Chatty-rings" will continue big, they say. The rings activate pre-recorded sentences and phrases and now they'll be used for a talking lion, parrot and other animals, not to mention dolls and play telephones.

Even games will offer conversation. One has a barn with a dozen animal sounds. There'll also be a doll called "Baby Pattaburp." Pat it and you get what has been described as a very realistic sound.

IF YOU'RE NOT concerned with balancing the family budget, either you've given up the fight or else know the combination to a secret door of your favorite bank.

Dr. Albert Clark, who tries to teach economy to modern housewives, gives these tips to correct unbalanced budgets and guard against other financial evils:

(1) Plan your meals around seasonal plentiful. If green beans are crowding the market and are for that reason cheaper, buy green beans. Buy laundry soaps in large economical sizes. Watch your meat purchases — you don't need U. S. choice for stew if you cook it right.

(2) WHEN YOU buy ready-made foods like peas in sauce you are paying someone else for what you might have done yourself.

(3) Don't buy a bigger car than you need.

(4) When you sell your house on any plan but cold cash, retain a lawyer. Discontinued installment payments can give you a passive headache.

(5) Watch your expenses for recreation. They can easily get out of hand. More and more people are taking to state and federal parks for their outings — and piling costs.

(6) SHOP FOR credit just as you would for bargains. Some stores charge less for credit than others. A 4.5 per cent credit charge each month amounts to an interest rate of 18 per cent a year.

(7) To keep up with inflation, put half your money in fixed dollar investments — savings accounts, bonds and etc. — and the rest in good common stocks that are inclined to rise.

—TOMMY HART

Richard Starnes Too Much Is Too Much

ATLANTIC CITY — The Democratic convention reeled to its foreordained conclusion after wasting nearly a week and several million dollars in proving for all time that the traditional political convention is an anachronism that is doomed to change radically or die.

It will be argued that the Democrats' 1964 ingathering was not typical, since it had little real business to accomplish and could contain no real suspense. But essentially the same thing happened in San Francisco when the GOP met to ratify the articles of surrender imposed by high-riding Goldwater forces. The truth is that speed of transportation and communication has robbed old-style conventions of any real utility.

TELEVISION, moreover, has made every American home an annex of the convention hall. It takes no vast prestige to forecast that long-winded, prefabricated political conventions cannot command the attention of the fickle public for four or five days of synthetic excitement, inferior oratory and banal commentary all leading up to a conclusion that was cut and dried.

No sane person would contend that 5,000 head of Democrats assembled in the same chamber did not need all the divine intervention they could muster. But this Democratic convention sat uneasily through eight full-dress prayers.

DELEGATES, alternates, journalists, kinfolk, boardwalk gritters and all others who could lay hands on a ticket were required to pledge allegiance to the flag not less than four times. That is ordinary nonsense, of course. If a pledge of allegiance is heartfelt, one is plenty, and if it isn't, 10,000 are not enough. And the national anthem, a rousing patriotic hymn written by and for tone-deaf, does not improve with repetition. Who needs it four times in as many days?

THE TRAPPINGS and panoply of political conventions once served a genuine function. They provided patriotic and/or righteous cover for the mean business that was once conducted at these marathon soirees. But this has all changed under the impact of jet travel and instant communications. Political knife work is done long before conventions are called to order nowadays. Jobs are promised, skeletons are rattled, delegates are hogged and deals are completed weeks before convention time.

BEFORE THE corpses of the 1964 conventions are decently interred, those concerned with such matters are already scheming over the conclave to be held by both parties four years hence. Envoys from Houston, apparently horrified to discover their city has a 60,000-seat domed stadium on its hands, are already beseeching Democratic bigwigs to select their town. They might well do it on the theory that any site would improve on Atlantic City, but they will not make any real improvement until they come to understand that the two-day convention is plainly the wave of the future.

(Distributed by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Holmes Alexander How'd You Like The Convention?

ATLANTIC CITY — Some convention! A crashing bore? A seaside picnic? It depends on the eye of the beholder. For instance:

Some of us with aching feet and limber elbows were avoiding the sunshine and sea breezes in an air-conditioned emporium, and somebody said:

"THERE ISN'T any sense to it. There isn't any news. All these exercises have about as much spontaneity as a class in calisthenics."

"Nope," said another, "the trouble is with us. We've done all this too often. I just talked with a 25-year-old kid reporter who's covering his first convention. You should have heard him counting aloud all the celebrities; he was meeting for the first time. We ought to be young again, that's all."

"AS YOUNG as that fellow—" said a third, nodding to a 67-year-old with gray hair, ruddy cheeks, coat off, felt hat on the back of his head, a telephone in one hand, a hot piece of copy in the other. "Out in San Francisco after a hard day I started back to the hotel with him about midnight, but we didn't get there till three o'clock. He had to interview the elevator crew. He had to talk with half a dozen of the pickets. Then we ran into a two-bit fire, and he stopped to cover that."

And there was a small indignation meeting in the lobby of one of the grand old palaces which are the Boardwalk hotels. There was a mix-up. The manager didn't want to give this anti-Johnson group a room in which to meet. He said he hadn't got a clearance from the Democratic National Committee or something.

FINALLY HE DID agree and did assign a parlor for the meeting, but by now it was a case of All Passion Spent. The meeting petered out in denunciations of dictatorship. But the reporter was thinking that true revolutionaries don't need hotel parlors. They meet in caves and cellars. They don't need television coverage. They nail their manifestos to church doors. They ring liberty bells till they crack. An effete country? Let's hope not. But a lucky country? Yes, because American freedom is so abundant that it's a political digitation often becomes synthetic. Oh, blessed land!

BUT YOU LOOK at the middle-aged human bodies in their hot-weather, holiday raiment that reveals too much — and you know that you're also looking at the American body-politic, born 188 years ago. You remember that life, like freedom, is perishable. You remember that Jefferson, who founded this Democratic party, warned that vigilance has to be "eternal" or liberty will go.

A convention is people — and they're grand. A convention is social planners and politicians, power-seekers and liberty-lovers in search of a cause — and they are all symptoms of a country that lives very comfortably in its freedom — maybe too comfortably, at that.

Billy Graham

It seems to me that if there is one God there ought to be just one church and not all the different denominations.

A. V. The reason there are so many different denominations is that there are so many different kinds of people. When one studies the differences in the great Christian churches, they are really quite minor. Christ built His church on Peter's confession: "Thou art the Christ the Son of the living God," and all true Christians embrace that cardinal truth. The chief differences in the major protestant churches are the result of the freedom of interpretation which has been the genius of Christianity. The amazing thing is, not how far apart they are in their beliefs, but how similar.

In our city-wide Crusades we see all major denominations working together to win men to Christ. The closer we get to God, the nearer we are to each other. Have you not walked along the sea shore and noticed the little isolated pools left by the outgoing tide? But when the tide came in the little separated pools were gone. When the tide of revival comes in, the sectarian lines vanish. A true Christian church believes in Christ the Savior; man, a sinner; a heaven to gain and a hell to shun.

I often think of the many churches as so many regiments in a great army. They each have their separate identity, but they fight under one flag, and use one strategy — that political

Cramer Had Many Baseball Thrills

By PAT WASHBURN
There's no telling how many fastballs Burrell Cramer threw in 34 baseball seasons. But there were two pitches back in 1930 that he will always remember.

"I was on the mound for the Magnolia Oil team in the Tri-County League," he recalled recently, "and we were playing American-Bristow of Big Spring." "Up steps Obie Bristow to the plate. At the time he was head football coach here in Big Spring and one of the biggest guys I'd ever seen—he had been captain of the football team at Oklahoma University and then come on to play pro ball. And he was a tough looking guy, too—I didn't know it at the time but he had been heavyweight boxing champion of Oklahoma before he came down here."

"Well, he stepped up there and began to crowd the plate, trying to get me to throw a wild one. At the time, I could throw as hard as any man I ever saw, and because of that, I never hit anyone purposely because I was afraid I'd really hurt them—I broke one guy's arm in one game—but I whistled one in close around the letters on Obie, like I did all the big men, and he wouldn't move back an inch."

"So, I reared back and really let loose with one and caught him on the arm. He let out a yell, grabbed that bat with both hands, and came charging toward the mound. He had blood in his eye."

"He got about halfway to me and I decided he was really going to go through with it. I actually believe he would have tried to kill me if he could have reached me. So, I got that ball all the way back, looked him straight in the eye, and said: 'You take one more step and I'll drill you!'"

"That stopped him. He stood there a moment glaring at me, and then he said: 'I actually believe you mean that. How about shaking hands and forgetting it?'"

"So we shook hands and we've been the best of friends ever since. We still laugh about that sometime."

WILD STORIES
Cramer had some unforgettable experiences during those 34 years, some experiences that his wife dismisses with a laugh and "If you get him talking about his baseball, there's no telling what he'll tell you. He makes up some pretty wild stories."

But some of it will always be in the record books. Like the first night game ever played in Howard County. The opponents were the House of David, a club Cramer claims "was good enough to play the day-by-day schedule in the Texas League," and their starting pitcher was Grover Cleveland Alexander. Alexander, who was in the twilight of a fabulous baseball career that had established him as one of the all-time great major league moundsmen, had been on the roster of the St. Louis Browns only the year before.

"We were all standing around when Alexander appeared on steps of the dugout," Cramer remembers. "The first thing he did was turn up a pint bottle, right there in front of everyone, crowd and all, and gurgled it down like soda pop. Then he marched out to the mound and pitched three innings against us—I believe that liquor was all that kept him going."

"That was his stimulant, kind of like a drug. He had a pretty good fast ball, but other than that, he wasn't anything special. Of course, he was at the end of his career and the only reason they had him on the team was as a drawing card. It was kind of pitiful watching him out there on the mound. He finally had to be relieved—he just couldn't go any farther. "I was talking to him later in the dugout and he acted kind of odd, maybe because he drank so much, I don't know. His mind kind of wandered and he didn't seem to have all his faculties. I really felt sorry for him."

SEAGRAVES GAME
And there were other experiences, like the time Cramer went up to Seagraves in 1955 to pitch a game for $25.

"I was going along all right," he says with a smile, "and then it came my turn to hit and I slammed a homerun. I sprinted around the bases, just like in the old days, and just when I reached third I got charley horses in both legs at the same time and went down."

"They had to carry me across home plate and that ended my pitching for the day. My legs turned blue, then black, and I actually believe they were finally green. I thought I had had it, but the doctor said it was just my age showing and I'd get over it."

"That's why I quit. I could still throw and hit, but I couldn't run."

His wife's explanation is much simpler: "The old rocking chair got him."

During those 34 years Cramer saw a lot of baseball. It all began back in 1921 when he was a 15-year-old schoolboy in Coahoma and pitcher Jim Lovelace asked him to skip school for a little while to play centerfield for the town team. The game of hooky didn't last long. He was soon caught and as punishment he had to stay late at school for an entire year, thus making it necessary for him to walk the seven miles home since his father had long since picked up the other kids.

MANY TEAMS
Years of baseball followed with teams like Midland and Odessa (in the old Permian Basin League), the Sinclair and Continental Oilers, Sundown, Levelland, and then his career was rounded out in the last 10 years as he played with the team he began with—Coahoma.

In between, in 1932, he batted 35 homers in 55 games and came in with a .321 batting average. It was his finest hour, except for maybe the time in 1928 that he was offered a contract to play the outfield for Galveston in the old Texas League. But the $350 a month that he would have received was far less than he could make a year walking West Texas pipelines, so his professional career never materialized.

But he has plenty of memories. And when he talks, some of Howard County's all-time great baseball stars seem to live again—Lovelace, Miller Harris, Pevine Trantham, Red McMahan, Pat Payne, Sammy Sain, Lefty Baber, Preacher True, Lefty Wallins, Mile-a-way Baker, Skeet West, Frankie and Hub Weatherford, Farley Dean, Howard Hart and Bristow.

And there was Burrell Cramer. What kind of a baseball player was he? Just stop and consider that he once threw three men out at the plate from center field in the same inning. Nothing else has to be said.

IN OLYMPIC TRIALS
Jastremski Breaks Swimming Mark

NEW YORK (AP) — When Chet Jastremski apparently called it a career last year after breaking most of the world's breaststroke swimming records, Uncle Sam's chances for another Olympic gold medal in this event at Tokyo appeared headed down the drain.

Russia popped up with a solid contender in Georgi Prokopenko, who tied Jastremski's record of 2:29.6 for the Olympic distance of 200 meters, and other nations came up with threats for the Games in October.

CHET JASTREMSKI

the baby of the 1960 Olympic swimming team, cracked her own world standard of 5:16.5 for the women's 400-meter individual medley with a time of 5:14.9 for the four-stroke event. The 27-year-old lass from the Santa Clara, Calif., S.C., is all by herself in the test that calls for 100-meter swims in butterfly, backstroke, breaststroke and freestyle.

In the third Sunday final, Roy Saari, the 19-year-old power swimmer of the El Segundo, S.C., of California, edged Don Schollander of Santa Clara, with a time of 4:13.5 for the 400-meters freestyle.

In the six events completed so far, six listed American marks have been topped and two world records eclipsed.

Attractive Donna de Varona, the possibility of bringing Eddie LeBaron, who retired last year, back in the emergency and of trading for an experienced quarterback was discussed but general manager Tex Schramm said "at present we have no plans to bring LeBaron back and the chances of trading for even a journeyman quarterback are pretty slim this year with the player limit up to 40."

Schramm said, however, that he would be looking around the league for a quarterback. Meanwhile, rookie John Jacobs and Sonny Gibbs, the quarterback who played none last year, will be used when the Cowboys play Chicago at New Orleans in an exhibition game Saturday night.

Jim Ray Smith, the veteran tackle who also got a knee injury in the 35-3 loss to Green Bay, is expected to be ready for the opening game.

Injuries Hurt Houston Team

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Oilers have learned that a weekend in Las Vegas can be expensive, not only fiscally but physically.

In addition to lighter pocket books, plus a third consecutive defeat, this time at the hands of Oakland, 34-20, the Oilers limped home Sunday with the following hospital list: Guard Bobby Crenshaw, torn knee cartilage, probably will undergo surgery this week and is out for the year.

Tackle Rich Michael, stretched ligaments in knee, out 10 days.
Middle linebacker Doug Cline, strained back, may be out a week.

Dallas Awaits Nichols' Name

DALLAS (AP) — The $40,000 Dallas Open looked hopefully today for an entry from Bobby Nichols, the national PGA champion who has been entirely too silent lately.

Nichols has until tonight to enter the Dallas tournament and if he doesn't it will mean only four of the top 10 money winners will be in the field.

Absentees include Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lama, Gary Player and Ken Venturi and they represent two of the three big tournaments—the Masters and the National Open as well as most of the "name" players.

Meanwhile, qualifying for amateur spots in the 150-man tournament was being held today at the Oak Cliff Country Club, scene of the Open. Twenty-one were seeking nine places.

Bowlers Organize In Winter Loops

Two of Big Spring's winter bowling leagues will hold organizational meetings early this week. The Ladies Major League will meet Monday night at 7:30 at the Bowl-A-Rama Lanes east of town while the Tuesday Night Couples League will meet Tuesday at 6 p.m. at the alleys.

Anyone interested in being on a team in either loop is invited to attend.
The Wednesday night Industrial League will begin this Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. with 16 teams in the loop.

Nichols Is Champion In Carling Tourney

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — Golf's new breed, personified by young Bobby Nichols, is threatening to create a runner-up complex for Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus.

Arnie and Big Jack had to be content with secondary paychecks again Sunday when Nichols, 28-year-old PGA champion, walked off with the game's biggest tournament haul of the year, the $35,000 Carling World Golf Championship.

Palmer finished second one stroke behind Nichols' winning 278, for four rounds over the tough Oakland Hills course.

It was the fifth time in the last seven tournaments that Palmer, the defending money-making champion, had come in second. In the other two tournaments, he was third.

"I'm getting darned tired of it," Palmer said. "I hope it doesn't become a habit."

Nicklaus, who hasn't won a major championship this year, fell farther behind. He tied for 11th and 28th and collected $2,300.

It was the first time in the last two months that he hadn't placed at least in the top six.

Since the Masters, which Palmer won, the Big Two have captured only three tournaments between them.

The $35,000 prize boosted Nichols into the top five of the money winners with $72,087.26. Palmer went to the head of the list, which he has led the last two years, with $110,743.57.

Gary Player of South Africa won third money with a 72 for 281. Fourth was shared by the great Ben Hogan and Pete Brown, a Negro from Los Angeles, at 282. Hogan shot a final 68 and Brown a 69.

Leaders and money winners in the Carling World Golf Championship include: Bobby Nichols, $35,000 ... 72-68-64-72-278
Arnold Palmer, $17,000 ... 72-68-67-71-278
Gary Player, $8,500 ... 72-73-67-70-281
Ben Hogan, $6,800 ... 72-70-72-68-281
Pete Brown, $6,800 ... 71-73-69-69-281
Bruce Devlin, $5,500 ... 68-74-72-69-281
Terry Gill, $5,500 ... 67-74-68-70-281
Joy Hebert, $4,023 ... 72-68-73-70-281
Gene Littler, $4,023 ... 72-71-70-72-281
Bill Cooper, $4,023 ... 70-72-71-72-281

The Methodists, with 20 letter men and high hopes of a top finish, roll out at 6:30 a.m.

Other schools will be starting a couple of hours later.
It will be two-a-day workouts.

Gary Wood Tosses Giants Past Eagles

New York's professional football teams aren't out of the Woods yet—and they won't be for some time if Giants coach Allie Sherman and Jets pilot Weeb Ewbank have their way.

The Woods, 5-foot-11 Gary of the Giants and 6-foot-5 Dick of the Jets, quarterbacked their clubs to impressive victories man retained while releasing Glynn Griffing, Tittle's 1963 sub, when the Giants trimmed their roster last week, replaced the veteran pass-master early in the second period Saturday.

Gary Wood, filling in for hobbled Y. A. Tittle, threw three touchdown passes as the Giants trimmed Philadelphia 28-17 at Princeton, N.J., for their first NFL pre-season success in four starts. Dick Wood also fired three scoring strikes in the Jets' 34-6 rout of AFL champion San Diego at Atlanta.

A Dallas crowd of 60,057—the largest since the Chicago All-Star game early in the month—watched the Cowboys take a 35-3 beating from Green Bay while Pittsburgh edged San Francisco 16-14 and unbeaten Minnesota outscored Los Angeles 34-23 in other NFL games.

Oakland took an AFL decision from Houston 34-20 in the first pro-game ever played at Las Vegas.

Gary Wood, a 22-year-old rookie from Cornell whom Sherman retained while releasing Glynn Griffing, Tittle's 1963 sub, when the Giants trimmed their roster last week, replaced the veteran pass-master early in the second period Saturday.

Season tickets for the 1964 Big Spring High School football games went on sale today to the general public at the school business administration office, 602 E. 13th. The five-game booklet cost $7.50.

Meredith Will Miss Several Dallas Tilts

DALLAS (AP) — Don Meredith, quarterback of the Dallas Cowboys, was lost for an indefinite period as the result of a knee injury in Saturday night's exhibition game with Green Bay.

It will be Monday before club officials can determine how long Meredith's twisted knee will keep him out of action. First guesses were two weeks.

In that event, Meredith will not be available for the league opener Sept. 12 against St. Louis at Dallas.

"A knee injury is something you can't predict," said Coach Tom Landry. "If there is no swelling by Monday we'll be able to make a guess. If it's swollen there's no way we can tell until the swelling goes down."

The possibility of bringing Eddie LeBaron, who retired last year, back in the emergency and of trading for an experienced quarterback was discussed but general manager Tex Schramm said "at present we have no plans to bring LeBaron back and the chances of trading for even a journeyman quarterback are pretty slim this year with the player limit up to 40."

Skowron Slugs Sox To Victory

By The Associated Press

Moose Skowron's first homer in six weeks has put the cap on the 24-day period in which the three leading American League pennant contenders finished first against each other and left unanswered only one small question:

RUIDOSO RACE RESULTS

to a 3-0 victory over first-place Baltimore.

That lifted Skowron's average to .303 since he was acquired from Washington this season after pennant-winning years with the New York Yankees in 1962 and Los Angeles Dodgers last year. It also lifted the White Sox to within one-half game of the front-running Orioles at the end of the contenders' round robin.

As for the remainder of the schedule, none of the leaders seems to have an advantage. Here's the way it looks: Baltimore — At home, 16 — Kansas City 5, Minnesota 3, Los Angeles 3, Washington 3, Detroit 2, New York Yankees 2, Cleveland 2, Chicago 1.

In other AL games Sunday, Tony Oliva's 28th homer brought Minnesota a 5-4 victory over Washington. Ken McBride won his first game in 2 1/2 months as the Los Angeles Angels edged Detroit 5-4 and Kansas City ended Cleveland's eight-game winning streak with a 9-3 victory before the Indians won the second game 6-5.

PAT WASHBURN'S The Roundtable

Head coach TRUMAN NIX at Colorado City will open the 1964 season in Phillips Friday night as he goes out after victory No. 101. He has compiled a 100-49-3 record as a head mentor thus far in his career. One game almost everyone has already added to his loss column is when the Wolves meet the Winters Blizzards. It seems that Winters, which is rated as the best Class AA school in the state, has a starting line that averages eight pounds more than the starting Texas Tech line. The biggest boy on the squad, RICHARD SHADE, goes at 6'5", 285 pounds.

OSCAR BOEKER is coming along real fast.

In talking to Nix recently, he said he rated Coahoma's SPIKE DYKES as one of the finest young coaches in the state. Colorado City recently scrimmaged Coahoma, and Nix had this to say: "I could tell from just the short time that our two teams were together, that the Bulldogs were extremely well coached. They're going to be real tough this season. They're coming along real fast."

In other coaching comments, Nix called Wink, where he won five district championships in seven years and only lost four league games, "the best coaching position in Texas. The way I was going I could have stayed there until doomsday." Nix went on to say he came to Colorado City because "they gave me everything I asked for, it's near mine and my wife's home (Lorraine), and there is a challenge here."

The Sterling City Eagles may be a sleeper. Although the Warbirds are not conceded a chance by most everyone if the know to win their district, since they have to play Garden City, one local mentor is picking them to finish as high as second, ahead of the Forsan Buffaloes; the defending champions. This coach is basing his educated guess on the fact that the Eagles lost almost no one of value off last year's squad, except DANNY BAILEY.

Of course, one person who has yet to be convinced that the Eagles will finish so high is Forsan's head coach, OSCAR BOEKER. In two years at the helm, Boeker has captured two district grid championships, and he's gunning for a third this season.

Salad-Eaters Aid Farmers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumers who eat salads are among the best friends of farmers who grow soybeans, cotton and corn.

More and more consumers are taking this dietary advice with the result that the demand for salad dressing, mayonnaise and related products has been increasing steadily with further gains still in sight. These products are made chiefly from soybean oil, cottonseed oil and corn oil.

So important has been the growth in consumer buying of salad dressing products that the Agriculture Department has issued a special report on it in the current issue of its periodical review of the fats and oils situation.

In 1947, the total production of these foods was 79 million gallons with a per capita consumption average of 4.4 pounds. By 1963 these figures had grown to 151-million gallons and per capita consumption of 6.4 pounds.

"The outlook is a continuation of the upward trend in demand for salad dressing, mayonnaise and related products at a rate greater than the growth in the population," the department said.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The International Cotton Advisory Committee said today this season's world production of cotton is expected to be near the record level of the 1963-64 season crop.

Reductions in the United States, Spain, Greece and Pakistan are expected to be offset by increases in other free-world producing countries.

The committee is an inter-governmental agency which advises its 40 cotton producing and exporting member countries of WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's low-income rural families received loans from the Agriculture Department totaling $132.5 million during the fiscal year ended June 30 to improve housing facilities.

In addition, loans totaling $1,167,000 were advanced by the agency to help construct rental units for senior citizens.

The department reported that losses on rural housing loans since the program was started in 1949 were less than two one-hundredths of one per cent of the total amount loaned.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The present outlook indicates a record or near-record world wheat crop this year.

The foreign agricultural service said a survey indicated that the crop may exceed the 1962 record of 8.7 billion bushels. The largest gain over last year's relatively short crop reflect increased production principally in North America.

It said the outlook is for an average crop in the Soviet Union, following the poor crop of 1963 which made it necessary for the Communist nation to turn to Canada and the United States for supplementary supplies.

The service said world import demand is expected to be well below the high 1963-64 level.

WASHINGTON (AP) — World trade reports showed today that the United States—the largest producer of beef—last year also became the world's largest importer.

Its imports of 1,677,000,000 pounds represented 35.2 per cent of the total quantity of beef which moved in world trade. The United Kingdom long had been the major importer. But last year its imports were only 24 per cent of the world trade.

Sickness Still Holding Peak

HOUSTON (AP)—Health officials hope by Wednesday or Thursday to be able to interpret trends and establish how long this city's sleeping sickness epidemic peak may last.

Twenty new suspected cases of encephalitis were reported Sunday, bringing to 413 the number of suspected sufferers of the disease.

Thus far, 19 persons may have died of the St. Louis encephalitis virus, but only three deaths have been definitely attributed to the disease through laboratory analysis.

Dr. C. A. Pigford, city health officer, said Sunday the epidemic was either nearing or at its peak.

Meanwhile, day and night insecticide spraying continued in efforts to kill the disease-carrying culex mosquitoes.

Some 200 volunteer workers have used an estimated 10,000 to 13,000 gallons of concentrate spray, which produces up to 110 gallons of soluble insecticide per gallon.

Jim Henry, information officer for Houston Civil Defense, said spraying of school grounds has been completed. In other areas of the city, "we are going at top speed," he said.

Besides state and city spraying units, 21 units of the fire department have been working nearly around the clock.

Dr. E. D. Farragut, director of the Harris County (Houston) health department, said over the weekend about 75 per cent of the mosquito population will be eradicated.

He said since the stepped-up spraying operations began the encephalitis attack rate in Houston is definitely lower.

Dr. Pigford said physicians and hospitals are cooperating in reporting suspected cases of the disease.

Federal Research Needed In Planning Of Recreation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The time is coming when the government, with the help of outside organizations, will find it necessary to engage in research on outdoor recreation.

Need for such research is becoming apparent to many groups and organizations interested in developing forests, lakes, ponds and even farms for recreational projects.

The Agriculture Department is in the forefront of agencies which is urging new farm business — recreational facilities on farms with adequate natural resources and within easy access to urban dwellers.

The organization Resources for the Future Inc., a nonprofit corporation established in 1952 with the cooperation of the Ford Foundation, is urging broad research on future demand for such facilities before the nation goes far in expanding farm and other rural recreational units on a hit-and-miss basis.

Future Inc. question whether this is true. They contend that many problems remain before it can be assumed that demand for outdoor recreation will grow as much as enthusiasts expect.

These problems include ways to deal with people who ignorantly or willfully damage recreational areas. Not enough is known yet, these groups say, about how design, maintenance and other aspects affect the mental and emotional attitude of users.

They also say there is danger of overcrowding that could react unfavorably on such projects as well as on the future demand for facilities.

In its promotional work, the Agriculture Department has cited many examples of farmers who are making a success of recreational projects.

"An Alabama dairy farmer converted his 250-acre farm to recreation. Facilities on his farm include a golf course, fishing ponds, playgrounds, picnic tables, a concession stand, a meeting place for groups, badminton and shuffleboards, swings, rides and games. The admission charge is 10 cents per person for the recreation area and 50 cents for golf or fishing. The farmer figures his income has doubled since he converted from dairying."

GOLF COURSE

"An Iowa father-son team converted 8 acres of their 240-acre dairy and hog farm into a 9-hole golf course, and are planning to expand to 18 holes. Much of their farm equipment has been used in seeded preparation, grass planting and maintenance. Their farm pond is a source of water for operating a sprinkling system on the fairways and greens. The course attracts as many as 500 golfers on a good weekend."

"The owner of a 400-acre woodland in Maine operates his land as an income-producing tree farm and offers skiing, tobogganing, ice skating, snowshoeing, sleigh riding, swimming, fishing, horseback riding, hiking, hunting, exploring, picknicking, bird watching and nature study. He boards

DEVELOPMENT

The declared purpose of the Resources for the Future Inc. is to advance the development, conservation and use of natural resources through programs of research and education. It suggests that there is need for research which can measure present and future demand for outdoor vacations such as demand for meat, wheat, fish, fruits, milk and other agricultural commodities are measured now.

Perhaps the foremost promoter of conversion of farms from crops and livestock to recreational uses is Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman. In his enthusiasm for such changes, the secretary is motivated by a desire to raise income standards of rural residents, to take unneeded land out of crops and to help provide nearby opportunities for urban folk who like to fish, swim, boat and camp.

Under Freeman's direction, the Agriculture Department has issued many publications and guides for the establishment of farm recreation projects.

The department has just printed for wide distribution a leaflet which says: "Recreation opportunities on the nation's privately owned farm, ranch and woodland, which comprise nearly three-fourths of our land area, are virtually unlimited."

Dawson County Lowers Budget

LAMESA (SC)—A budget calling for decreased expenditures has been adopted by the Dawson County commissioners' court.

The budget calls for expenditures next year of $807,573, compared to estimated expenditures of $1,015,833 for the current calendar year. The decrease is $208,260. No salary increases were included in the 1965 program.

Total resources for the upcoming year were pegged at $1,046,689, a decline of $315,678 from the current estimated resources. Assessed valuation of the county is $30,000,000 an increase of $1,093,540.

The county tax rate was set at $1.05 (county) and 20 cents for the state for a net of $1.25 on each $100 of assessed valuation. Total amount of county taxes levied was fixed at $365,000, of which an estimated $18,250 will be delinquent on July 1, 1965.
