TWO CANDIDATES MEET Waggoner Carr (right) and Dee Jon Davis

Carr Plugs For Demos

By M. A. WEBB Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr flew in to Big Spring from Lubbock shortly after 9 a.m. today and met with some 30 friends and Democratic supporters at the Settles Hotel before he left for Odessa at 10:30 a.m. The attorney general was on a campaign tour in the interest of his candidacy for reelection, and to urge the election of Democratic candidates to all offices.

Carr said he had no particular fear of his defeat in November, but felt he wanted to make personal contact with voters throughout West Texas.

"I feel that Texas has come to the forefront in national politics and leadership," he said. "For the first time in history, we have a Texan as President of the United States. We have a man who knows Texas' problems and is interested in our problems."

"In recent years we have also come to recognize major figures in all levels of government from West Texas. These officials and representatives know what West Texas needs, and that problems are far different to those of the eastern and southern areas of the state," he continued. "It is taken in politics this year. There is a marked change from former complacent years, where people preferred to stay home if the candidate of one party or another did not suit them. We are looking for a major turnout in the Nov. 3 election because of this interest."

Carr did not mention issues in his or other campaigns between parties. He focused on attention given Texas in all lines of endeavor, including highway building and other progress.

"We have noticed that it costs, in other states, $1 million per mile to build the interstate type highways, while in Texas the cost is about $600,000 per mile," he said. "We now have about 55,000 miles of main arteries which, by cost comparison, has run some $22 billion under the national cost. We believe we could almost finance the operation of the national government by saving of highway dollars based on Texas' cost."

Carr repeated, through a question, the statement made Tuesday in Lubbock about Chief Justice Warren's insistence that Texas remain out of the investigation of President Kennedy's assassination. He said his department informed the chief justice that there would no such pulling out because the assassination occurred in Texas. He also said that Warren's remarks

Bell Breaks Red 'Copter Speed Mark

FORT WORTH (AP) — Bell Helicopter Co. announced today a flight research compound helicopter has flown 236 miles per hour, unofficially breaking a Russian-held world speed record.

Bell engineers said it was the first time in aviation history that a helicopter has exceeded 200 knots, or about 230 m.p.h. The Bell craft's speed was 205 knots.

The speed will not be claimed as an official world record since the flight was not made under conditions required for official recognition.

The current record is 221 m.p.h., set in 1961 by a Russian Kamov compound helicopter.

Blind Five Gain Sight

CALTANISSETTA, Sicily (AP) — In a darkened clinic room Tuesday with only one lamp burning, Dr. Luigi Picardo took the bandages off the eyes of five brothers blind since birth.

Calogero Rotolo, 4, the youngest, stared in amazement, then cried out "La caravata!" and reached out timidly to touch the doctor's necktie.

Giuseppe, 9, who saw his mother for the first time, sobbed only "Mamma!"

One after another Gioacchino, 11; Carmelo, 13, and Paolo, 15, sat up and blinked at the light. Each one could see.

"It was an enormous relief," said the doctor who had operated to remove cataracts which had left each of the brothers blind from birth.

"I was afraid that with one or two of them the operation might be less successful. Psychologically it would have been a terrible blow to one alone to be left blind."

made at the graveside of the late President, indicated his one-sided views.

Carr said Justice Warren then agreed to the attorney general's insistence that a cooperative investigation would be made; that the commission and the court of inquiry reports be made public, and that the attorney general's representatives sit in on all hearings.

"We could not be fair to the people of Texas by handling the investigation in any other way," Carr said. "We believe that the report was comprehensive and that our state was cleared of any prejudice and political hatred."

The attorney general left Big Spring for Odessa. He goes from there to Wichita Falls and to Houston tonight.

Texas Expansion Part Of Business Optimism

By The Associated Press A renewed surge of optimism among the nation's independent business proprietors is indicated in the September returns of the continuous field survey being conducted during 1964 by the National Federation of Independent Business, C. Wilson Harder, president of the NFIB reports. The September returns from 7,402 respondents show that 25.5 per cent plan to expand, providing an average of 4.73 potential new jobs per expanding business.

In Texas, expansion is planned by 27 per cent with an average of 4.78 new employees.

Projected over the nation's 4,500,000 independent enterprises, this indicates that 1,147,500 plan expansion to provide 5,417,675 new jobs.

The cumulative figures for the first nine months, based on 49,682 respondents, show that 24.2 per cent plan expansion, for a potential total of 5,172,750 new jobs.

Both of these figures are down somewhat from those at the end of May, when the projected returns indicated a potential of 6,288,400 new jobs. However, the monthly returns for June showed a sharp drop in optimism by the independent business proprietors with the pas-

Blanco Vote Said Proper For LBJ

AUSTIN (AP) — Austin attorney Truman O'Quinn, who is Travis County Democratic chairman, says President Johnson has a clear legal right to vote in Blanco County, although the LBJ Ranch is in adjacent Gillespie County.

Union Vote May Signal Strike End

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union today scheduled a membership vote Sunday that could signal the end of the national strike against General Motors Corp.

Walter P. Reuther, president of the UAW, and Leonard Woodcock, chief of the UAW's GM Department, said today the GM Council of the UAW will meet in Detroit Friday.

It will recommend to the local unions either ratification or rejection of the UAW national agreement.

A telegram to all GM UAW units said "all GM local unions and units are directed to meet Sunday."

"If a majority," the union executives said, "shall ratify the national agreement, all local unions and units will be notified and the national strike against GM shall be ended. If this should happen, local unions and units which have ratified local settlements shall return to work immediately."

The union said local units lacking at-the-plant settlements will vote on whether to return to work or to stay out until an agreement is reached.

The 28-day strike has disturbed the White House. Pointing out that it has idled more than 300,000, President Johnson said it now is beginning to have an impact on employment and production in other industries.

ing he thought Johnson's record of voting in Johnson City, Blanco County, instead of Gillespie County, was neither "fair" nor "right." Gillespie County usually votes Republican on presidential nominees.

JOHNSON CITY

Since Johnson became President his press aides have asked that all news stories originating from the ranch be given a date-line of "Johnson City," 15 miles east of the ranch, instead of "Stonewall" which is only two miles from the ranch gate but is in Gillespie County.

O'Quinn told the Austin American that under Texas election law Johnson is entitled to vote in Blanco County because his established residence was in Johnson City when he entered government service and Blanco County is a part of the 10th District from which he was elected to Congress in 1937.

Nikita Under House Arrest?

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Denmark's Communist newspaper says the Soviet Union's new leaders have halted their campaign to downgrade Nikita Khrushchev because of the adverse reaction from most European Communist parties.

Peter Schaeffer, Moscow correspondent of the Danish party's Land Og Folk, said meetings in Soviet plants, state institutions and other places attacking Khrushchev have been stopped.

SEE TOWERS

Stig Bringert, Moscow correspondent of Copenhagen's liberal newspaper Politiken, reported that Khrushchev and his wife, Nina, have been installed under virtual house arrest in a four-room apartment "from where he can see the Kremlin towers."

"Khrushchev is said to have received a pension of 1,000 rubles a month — which is 300 rubles more than he himself gave former Foreign Minister Molotov," Bringert said. A ruble is valued at $1.11.

Public Homage Paid H. Hoover

(Other stories, pictures on Pages 1-B and 10-B)

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation paid public homage to former president Herbert Clark Hoover today as the doors to St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church swung open and mourners filed past his flag-covered casket. The body of Hoover will lie in state for 48 hours there, guarded by an honor guard from all the armed forces.

Among early arrivals at St. Bartholomew's church were United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, New York Sen. Jacob K. Javits, former Postmaster General James A. Farley and State Department protocol officer Jay Rutherford.

The tribute will be repeated on Friday and Saturday in Washington in the Capitol rotunda where assassinated President John F. Kennedy was honored last November, and where in April tribute was paid to Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the great warrior who once served as Hoover's Army chief of staff.

On Sunday, Hoover will be buried in his native Iowa, in quiet and simple dignity.

Hoover died at 11:35 a.m. Tuesday at the age of 90. His gallant old heart gave out beneath the burden of a final illness that began Saturday with a massive internal hemorrhage. He passed away peacefully and painlessly in a deep coma.

Born in obscurity, the first American president from west of the Mississippi was a mining engineer and a self-made millionaire when he turned to public service. It fell his lot to be in the White House at the onset of the Great Depression and the electorate turned him out in 1932 after only one term, politically discredited.

But with grace and vigor Hoover in private life regained the esteem that circumstance had cost him.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai has transmitted directly to President Johnson through diplomatic channels the Red Chinese proposal for a summit conference on abolition of nuclear weapons, the State Department disclosed today.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The rolling recessions of the 1950s still a strong possibility for a comeback in the middle 1960s?

Some see in the current downturn in housing construction, and signs that it will continue for some months ahead, an example of just such a rolling recession — although admittedly minor compared with its predecessors.

This was the term used to describe the doldrums in some industries while others continued to push to new highs. When the latter stalwarts faltered in turn, the previously depressed sectors of the economy usually were rallying again. The result was to keep the over-all state of business from the alarming stage.

Those directly affected were depressed enough. But their plight wasn't made worse by a general downturn that would have fed on itself.

Housing now is one of the few sectors of the economy that isn't still rising, or at least holding its own. Industrial output, business expansion plans, retail sales, all point toward new highs.

Weakest today is apartment building which was booming in 1963. Permits for single family houses also are below the year-ago figures.

Just wait for the young marriages — and for the still bigger crop of youngsters about to enter their marriageable years — to get to the family expansion stage. That's the confident cry

Hassle Involves Over 400,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's fourth major threat of a railroad strike in six months hung in the balance today while negotiators considered a three-year pay raise of 27 cents an hour recommended by a presidential emergency board.

Preliminary reaction to the recommendations indicated that negotiators representing 90 per cent of the U.S. railroad industry and 11 nonoperating unions seemed inclined to accept them. More than 400,000 workers are affected.

There was no immediate formal comment from either side. They have 30 days to accept the recommendations, or to launch another nationwide strike scare.

President Johnson, in creating the board Aug. 18, warned the dispute "threatens substantially" to disrupt the nation's transportation system.

The board, with many acid comments about the "cumbersome" state of railroad labor negotiations, also recommended fringe benefits and measures to protect jobs in an industry that has seen drastic employment cuts in recent years.

Odessa Man Killed At Well

KERMIT, Tex. (AP) — Robert Dunlop, 32, of Odessa, Tex., was killed today when an oil well perforating gun detonated prematurely.

Two other men, Paul Sykes and Jerry Hill, both of Odessa, were treated for injuries at a Monahans hospital and released.

The accident was at a Gulf Oil Corp. well 12 miles southeast of Kermit.

Foreign Affairs Steps Pondered

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson met with his panel of consultants on foreign affairs today and said afterward he had asked for their help "in thinking ahead to the great problems this country will have to face after the coming election."

He said he asked the consultants to give him their counsel on three important matters:

"1. Our relations with Communist countries. We must both defend freedom and advance the prospect of peace.

"2. The affairs of the great Atlantic community. We intend to move on to greater achievement in a partnership which has gained so much strength over the last 15 years.

"3. The struggle to limit the spread of nuclear weapons.

Johnson said he had asked the panel members to continue in working session with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and other of his senior advisers within the government.

LISTS ADVISERS In addition to ranking diplomatic and military advisers within the government, members of the panel include Dean Acheson, Gen. Omar N. Bradley, John J. McCloy, Robert Lovett, Paul Hoffman, Allen W. Dulles and Roswell Gilpatric.

Returning to the political wars for a day's foray into Ohio, Missouri and Illinois, Johnson voiced a blistering indictment of the policies proposed by his rival, GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Without mentioning Goldwater by name, Johnson said in a statement that his opponent had "placed under attack all of the policies which have brought us close to peace."

Telling several hundred persons at Akron-Canton Airport in Akron that "you can be proud of the kind of leadership this country has produced," Johnson expressed confidence that the people will vote Nov. 3 to "continue on the path of strength and restraint which we have followed for the past 20 years."

Johnson said that as he sits in his office "late at night, I am deeply conscious of the immense power this nation commands."

In obvious reference to Goldwater, he added, "this great power cannot be put in the hands of those who might use it impulsively or carelessly.

"The world's hope for peace cannot be left with those who have no faith in the possibility of lasting agreements."

He said he doesn't know the course the new Soviet leaders will follow "but if they are willing to seek peace they will find us ready."

Saskatchewan Ponders Future

MONTREAL (AP) — Premier W. Ross Thatcher of Saskatchewan says his province would have to consider joining the United States if Quebec should secede from Canada.

Quebec has been the scene of repeated demonstrations by a militant separatist movement which wants autonomy for the French-speaking province.

Pass Pass

Opening lead: Five of ♠
When South's one spade response received an immediate raise, his values warranted a game undertaking and he should have proceeded without further conversation to four spades. Observe that his holding is virtually the equivalent of an opening bid, and a satisfactory fit has been uncovered.

A review of the bidding convinced West that South held a two suited hand and, inasmuch as North had raised spades originally, it appeared likely that the declarer would use the dummy's trumps to ruff out his diamond losers.

In order to inhibit the establishment of the diamond suit, West decided to open a spade, selecting the five as his lead. Declarer played low from the dummy and East put up the queen which held the trick. A spade was returned to West's ace, and the latter cleared North's trump holding on the next round.

Declarer tried to split out the diamonds; however, the suit did not divide favorably, and he ended up losing two diamonds and two spades for a one trick setback. Had West led anything but a trump, South would have been able to ruff at least one diamond in dummy and, even the East can overruff with the queen of spades, there is no way for the defense to win more than three tricks.

Despite West's sharp performance, South was in position to "nip the rally" in the bud, by putting the king of spades up at trick one. This play enables declarer to assume command—he can cash the top diamonds and ruff a third round in dummy. East overruffs with the queen, however, he is out of spades and when South regains the lead, he is able to trump another diamond to establish that suit. His losses are restricted to three trump tricks.

The suggested play of the king of spades has a logical motivation, and is not merely based on a post-mortem examination of all four hands. Declarer should make his best effort to win the first trick in order to gain control of the proceedings and, if West does have an honor in trumps, it is more apt to be the ace than the queen. The reasoning is rather obvious—he can never lose the ace of trumps, whereas he might be reluctant to lead away from the queen for fear that it will cost a trick.

'Hot Line' Posing Puzzle On Soviet

MOSCOW (AP) — Who's on Moscow's end of the hot line now? Whose finger is on the nuclear rocket button?

Until Nikita Khrushchev's unexpected ouster last week, the answer to both questions was simple — and the same. Now it's more complicated.

If President Johnson decides to have a talk on his direct line to the Kremlin, he presumably would get Alexei N. Kosygin. As premier, Kosygin heads the Soviet government.

But such significant things as the lineup of portraits of Soviet leaders displayed in Moscow show that Leonid I. Brezhnev is the top man now. He took over Khrushchev's job as Communist party first secretary.

In the last 40 years of Communist rule, the party secretary has always been top man; he has been premier only 18 of those years. The premier the rest of the time has been a technician.

This might not be much of a problem for Johnson since the hot line is a teletype circuit, not a telephone. Talking to two people on the phone at once might be confusing, but an agreed message could be put on the teletype from Moscow.

The finger-on-the-button question gets more involved due to the vagueness of the Soviet constitution.

It does not designate a peacetime commander in chief for Soviet military forces as Johnson is commander in chief of the American military establishment.

Under the Soviet constitution the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, which declares war and concludes peace, is presumably the top commander. But the Presidium has 33 members, which is a bit too many fingers for one button.

Lacking an officially proclaimed commander in chief, Premier Kosygin might seem to be the man. But his portrait is second, and what No. 1 man would want to turn over the decision on massive devastation to his deputy?

Cry Of Cover-Up By GOP Answered

WASHINGTON (AP) — GOP charges that the House International Relations Subcommittee did a cover-up job for the Democrats in its report on the Billie Sol Estes case drew a reply today from the subcommittee's chief counsel.

Referring to an accusation by Chairman Dean Burch of the Republican National Committee and similar criticisms during the past week by various Republicans, James Naughton, the subcommittee's chief attorney, said:

"The allegation that our report is a whitewash is somewhat surprising, inasmuch as it was approved unanimously by all members of the subcommittee including the Republicans.

"The investigation and the report were prepared with the full participation of the minority counsel.

"I challenge anyone to read all 436 pages and then say it is a whitewash."

Naughton said the report states that the subcommittee found "substantial evidence" that Estes, bankrupt Texas financier convicted of fraud, paid bribes to employees of some private firms, but "no credible evidence that bribes had been of-

Annual FBI Report Given

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI said here that its investigations in the year that ended June 30 led to 12,921 convictions and actual, suspended and probationary sentences that totaled more than 38,100 years.

Director J. Edgar Hoover noted that fines, savings and recoveries in cases investigated by the FBI reached a new record level — $210,771,402. He said that represented a return of $1.43 for every dollar appropriated for the FBI.

It also noted that the Communist party had "worked unremittingly to increase its influence in the racial struggle; gain new members through an intensive youth recruitment campaign; and promote the false impression that it is a legitimate political party."

The report said that the number of civil rights cases handled by the FBI increased to 3,340, which it described as "a substantial rise over the previous year."

Hamilton Funds Declare Dividend

The board of directors of Hamilton Funds, Inc. has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 3½ cents per share from ordinary investment income. This 67th consecutive quarterly dividend is payable Oct. 30, 1964, to shareholders of record Sept. 30, 1964.

More than $2,400,000 will be distributed to approximately 260,000 investors. Total net assets of the fund had increased more than $25 million in the last five months, and stood at $388,724,064 on Sept. 30, 1964.

the income the government alleges was not reported.

According to his blackboard summary of the government's contentions, the defendant concealed $7,374.50 in income.

Hoover denied receiving $20,000 which Myers, an ex-convict, and Christoph, presently a prison inmate, said they gave him.

Going over the government summary witness by witness, Hoover gave his account of how and why $6,229.50 was not reported on his tax returns for the four years in question. He said he did not know what happened to the other $1,145.

The $6,229.50 went primarily on bonds he posted for clients, Hoover said.

Pioneer Has Stock Split

AMARILLO — Stockholders of Pioneer Natural Gas Company at a special meeting today approved an increase in the authorized common stock from 5,000,000 shares of $3.75 par value to 12,000,000 shares of $1.875 par value, pursuant to a recommendation of the directors that the stock be split on a two-for-one basis.

The company presently has 3,586,514 shares issued and outstanding. Each stockholder will continue to hold the certificates presently held and a certificate or certificates representing an equal number of shares will be mailed on or about Nov. 6, 1964. It is anticipated that the split will be effective on Oct. 30, 1964.

The company has announced that it is the intention of the management to recommend a dividend rate applicable to the split shares which will represent an increase of approximately 10 per cent. Recent dividends have been at a quarterly rate of 29 cents per share.

Carr Says LBJ Gave Green Light On Probe

LUBBOCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr said Tuesday that President Johnson gave him the go-ahead on a Texas probe of the John F. Kennedy assassination in Dallas.

He said that on the day the slain president was buried in Arlington National Cemetery that Johnson called him and suggested that Texas conduct its own investigation.

Carr said the President desired a state probe because Johnson did not want it to appear necessary for him to send federal agents to Texas in order to get the facts.

CALLED DISGRACE
The attorney general said a statement was prepared for him to make concerning the Texas investigation at a news conference, but he was advised to answer no questions and not to disclose that he had talked with President Johnson.

"It was to look as if it were my own decision," he said, adding that when he made the announcement before members of the world press "all the venom against Texas poured on me."

Carr described the news conference scene as "disgraceful." In his talk at a civic club luncheon the attorney general also said Chief Justice Earl Warren tried to prevent the Texas probe.

Carr said he and Leon Jaworski, Houston lawyer who was special counsel in the state's inquiry, were told in Washington that Warren opposed a Texas inquiry and that he was "to drop any plans for a state investigation."

"WE REFUSED"
"This we refused to do," Carr said, "and for three days he (Warren) kept us waiting before he would see us."

On the third day, Carr continued, "I told the Justice Department people to tell Warren that I was headed back to Texas and was going to call the court of inquiry and call on the federal government to give us all its facts in the investigation."

Before he and Jaworski could leave Washington, Carr said, he received an invitation by letter to take part in the investigation and he and the Houston lawyer met with the chief justice for a night conference.

He said matters went smoothly after it was established that Texas would take part in the Warren Commission hearings.

"Everything, at all times, was made available to us," he said.

Former Mayor Denied Retrial

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Former Pasadena, Tex., Mayor Sam Hoover swore under oath Tuesday he never received any jewelry, furs or other robbery loot from H. Lee Myers or Ira Christoph as they testified last week.

A full afternoon of testimony was capped by a defense motion for a mistrial.

The motion, overruled by the court, came after an alternate juror said "I've heard enough," and asked to be excused.

Hoover, being tried on federal charges of failing to report income from legal and illegal sources in 1957 to 1960, faced cross examination today by William Schultz, an assistant U. S. attorney.

The defendant told jurors he did not set up or figure any robberies for the two men who testified last week that Hoover directed their robberies of at least six places.

Using a piece of chalk and a couple of blackboards, Hoover gave explanations for nearly all

Hospital Buys Oxygen Chamber

DALLAS (AP) — A hyperbaric oxygen chamber, used to treat cancer, has been purchased by St. Paul Hospital for use in its cobalt therapy department through an $18,000 grant.

The grant was by the W. W. Caruth Jr. Fund of Dallas. The semi-portable machine is used to apply oxygen pressure to a patient, who is given cobalt treatment at the same time.

Episcopal Wing Fires Charge At Convention

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — An influential wing of the Episcopal Church today accused its general convention of undermining the "hundreds of courageous priests" who have fought for equal Negro rights.

The sharp reaction was voiced by the American Church News, following rejection by the church's governing body of a proposed move to condone non-violent civil disobedience "for reasons of conscience."

Lay church representatives beat down the measure Tuesday, overriding the clergy.

Termining the result an "outrageous usurpation by the laity of the teaching function of the church," the American Church

News declared: "By this action the church seems further to repudiate the hundreds of courageous priests of her own ranks who have joined in the most significant social revolution of our time."

The publication, organ of the denomination's high church or Anglo-Catholic wing, the American Church Union, was circulated today among the church representatives here from across the country.

The proposed resolution sanctioning civil disobedience, in special extraordinary cases, said that when customs or laws violate human dignity, Christians should "obey God rather than men."

Alaskans Hail Federal Role In Quake Recovery Projects

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — With determined optimism, Alaskans have thrown themselves into a huge effort to overcome the staggering blow dealt by earthquake and seismic waves last March 27.

In all sections of the earthquake area, residents are quick to acknowledge a feeling of disappointment and frustration during the days immediately following the disaster that it was being forgotten too quickly, that promises of aid were promised and nothing more.

"The enormity of the disaster, the myriad problems involved in coordinating the assistance problems available, in preparing new programs to meet the greatest natural disaster ever suffered by a state escaped many Alaskans at the moment," says Gov. William A. Egan.

"They were eager to rebuild, even before the ground stopped quivering, and they wanted to get on with it — the sooner the better."

"The federal agencies involved have done a tremendous job, a magnificent job, and our people now are generally extremely satisfied with the progress of reconstruction to date."

MIGHTY TREMOR
It was at 5:36 p.m., Alaska Standard Time, on March 27

that one of the mightiest earthquakes ever recorded heaved and twisted south central Alaska, an earthquake registering 8.4 on the Richter scale.

The huge piece of real estate that is Montague Island, in Prince William Sound, was thrust up 33 feet in an almost incomprehensible uplift of land. Other sections of the earthquake area sank as much as 8 feet.

In all, some 52,000 square miles of land in a broad belt between Cordova and Kodiak Island, a distance of 350 miles, was tilted by the tremendous force of the Good Friday tremor.

The quake triggered another of nature's terrifying phenomena, huge seismic sea waves, which scoured miles of shoreline in Alaska and reached out to take lives and spread devastation along the Pacific Coast.

While the Alaskan death toll of 115 was amazingly low, the property damage was overpowering, particularly for a state with a relative handful of some 250,000 residents sprinkled over 586,400 square miles of land.

With damage figures still fluctuating, it is estimated that the property loss totaled at least $371.7 million, and this figure does not include the loss in personal, non-real property.

Aid to the state from private sources has amounted to some $1.5 million.

FEDERAL AID
The magnitude of the disaster brought about the most liberal interpretations possible of federal disaster assistance programs and Congress moved swiftly to provide additional help on a scale unmatched in any previous natural calamity.

Under Public Law 875, the federal disaster aid program for public facilities, the Office of Emergency Planning will spend some $85 million to aid in Alaska quake recovery, based on current estimates.

The remaining federal assistance to Alaska will come from aid programs existing on March 27 or enacted by Congress subsequent to that bleak day for the nation's largest state.

Immediately after the disaster, President Johnson created the Federal Reconstruction and Development Planning Commission for Alaska, a new concept in executive commissions.

With the guidance of the commission, the federal government is expected to provide eventually a total of $155.3 to $221.9 million, including disaster relief, in aid to state and local government in Alaska.

Issues Will Go On Texas Ballot

AUSTIN (AP)—Voters decide Nov. 3 on three changes in the state Constitution.

On the ballot, as "for" or "against" propositions, are what would be the 156th, 157th and 158th amendments to the 1876 Constitution.

None has stirred up much debate.

In their order, the amendments would:

1. Remove the legislature's authority to transfer up to 1 per cent of the permanent school fund annually to the available school fund.
2. Require notice to the public and to the Texas Water Commission of intent to introduce legislation creating or substantially altering a conservation and reclamation district.
3. Authorize the legislature to enact a program, under the federal Kerr-Mills Act, of financial help for Texans 65 and older who are not on the old age assistance rolls but who can't pay for medical services.

Since 1891 the legislature has had power to shift not more than 1 per cent a year of the permanent school fund into the available school fund for current state school aid expenses. It has used this authority 12 times.

The permanent school fund of $535 million is invested in government bonds and some corporate stocks and bonds. The interest and dividends goes into the available school fund. Increases in the investments' value and mineral income—such as oil and gas royalties from school lands—are not subject to automatic transfer to the available fund. They increase the permanent fund, which has been growing since 1948 at an average of $26 million a year.

SEES GAINS
Advocates of the proposed amendment say it will prevent depletion of the permanent fund by removing from legislators the temptation to dip in the fund to avoid new or higher taxes, which might be politically unpopular. They argue that mineral income is declining and the day may come when the fund will no longer be growing.

Opponents contend the legislature has used prudently and reluctantly its authority to draw on the permanent fund. They say the lawmakers should be allowed to retain the power for emergency use and such revenues as oil and gas royalties should be treated as income for the available school fund anyway.

Attack On GIs Bared

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—The U.S. 8th Army announced that five U.S. soldiers were attacked Sunday by unknown persons with hand grenades near the demilitarized zone. One soldier was wounded in the leg.

The announcement said the attack occurred between the southern boundary of the zone and the Imjin River. The soldiers were hunting.

The Army said soldiers searching the area after the attack sighted three persons but they escaped in dense foliage.

Women Greet Barry's Wife

NEW YORK (AP)—An aide to Mrs. Barry Goldwater says the crowd of women that turned out to greet her here was the largest of the campaign.

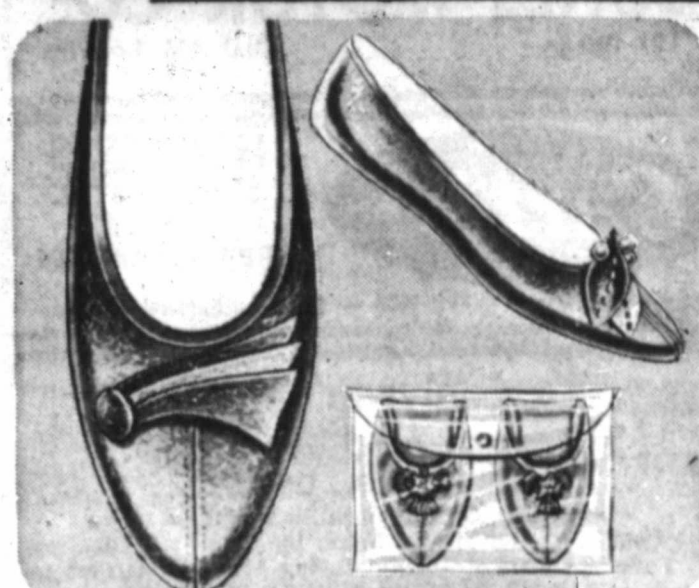

Mrs. Goldwater, wife of the Republican presidential candidate, shook hands with the women who were invited by the Federation of Women's Republican Clubs of New York State.

About midway in the three-hour reception, police estimated the crowd at 5,000. Carl Feisberg, assistant manager of the hotel, said close to 20,000 were there.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS HANDLED WITH CARE
Clean, sanitized vans, experienced men, ready to move anywhere

Byron's Can Handle Any Move, No Matter How Far

Byron's Storage and Transfer, 106 E. 1st, features local and long distance moving, and has a bonded and sanitized warehouse for storage of household goods for future moving. The building is also fire-proof.

Fast, modern vans are driven by men who know their business and who make safe moving a pleasure for any one changing locations. The firm is an agent for United Van Lines and can pack household goods for shipment to any part of the United States and Canada.

If you plan to move across town Byron's Storage and Transfer, owned by Byron Neel, can relieve you of a lot of worries and hard work by taking over the entire process. You just walk out with the clothes on your back and let the experienced men take over the task of getting everything moved to your new home with the greatest efficiency.

If the move is across the state or nation, the housewife can call Byron's Storage and Transfer, tell them when they can start packing, and when the household goods are needed at the new location. The family can go ahead or follow with the feeling that everything will be in place when needed.

Kitchen utensils are packed securely, with no danger of breaking. Glassware, mirrors, pictures, lamps and all fragile items, are wrapped and packed securely, and labeled for identification on opening.

Furniture and belongings from each room in the house can be unloaded, unpacked, and placed in similar locations in the new home. Dresser drawers and closets will be handled with crates, boxes, or wardrobes, so that everything will go back in the same location.

If you prefer to do your own packing, Byron's can provide the proper boxes, crates, barrels, wardrobes and everything that goes with the move, and you can label your cartons for proper location in the new home.

On the other hand, if you must move your household goods out of your present home, and then must wait until you find a place to live in another community, Byron's warehouse is a safe place, and the cost is within the reach of everyone.

Byron's Storage and Transfer will give you an estimate on the cost of moving your household

Beat The Odds

The odds are pretty high on triplets ever reaching college together — even greater when they are orphans, but Teddie, Freddie, and Eddie Duke, left to right, are enrolled as freshmen at Abilene Christian College. The 19-year-old brothers earned college expense money during the summer by working for the Dallas Sanitation Department. Originally from California, the boys attended Medina (Texas) Home, a church supported orphanage. (AP WIREPHOTO)

AF Proposes Another Moon-Landing Vehicle

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—An Air Force scientist proposes that the United States consider developing a different landing system than the four-legged one now planned to settle space vehicles on the moon.

"The present landing system has a small margin of safety," Lt. Col. John Peters told a symposium at Brooks Air Force Base Tuesday.

As proposed, the landing gear for the Lunar Excursion Module will consist of four pads 40 inches in diameter. Peters noted that LEM weighs about 16 tons on earth and will weigh about 2.6 tons on the moon.

HARD SURFACE

Since it is not known exactly what makes up the moon's surface, Peters visualized the possibility of the LEM landing with one pad on hard surface and the other three in soft material.

He said this could lead to tipping which might make a take-off for return to earth impossible.

Peters suggested that the Air Force consider developing a landing system made up of a flexible ring—like an inner tube—14 feet in diameter. This system, he said, would offer a landing contact area 7.6 times the size of the present system.

After landing, the ring would be pumped full of fast-setting polyethylene foam to provide a solid foundation, he said.

Peters, assistant deputy chief of staff for research at Arnold Engineering Development Center in Tennessee, said he does not feel it is necessary to know the exact properties of the lunar surface to make a successful landing.

Ralph Says GOP Out To Buy Seat

By The Associated Press

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., declared Tuesday that Republicans are trying to buy his Senate seat through heavy campaign spending, and GOP candidate George Bush asserted Texas needs an effective senator to help provide more jobs and educational opportunities.

Gov. John Connally flew to Washington meanwhile to lend a hand in presidential campaign efforts.

At the same time Texas Republicans prepared for a fifth trip into the state by Sen. Barry Goldwater, their party's presidential nominee.

man's pocketbook by putting Negroes into jobs previously not open to them.

Stops on the Bush itinerary today were Baytown, Lake Jackson, Victoria, Beeville and Corpus Christi.

Connally's office said he left Tuesday night for Washington "at the request of the President to assist in campaign planning for the next several days." No details were given.

Most Business Forecasters Predict Continued Growth

NEW YORK (AP) — The business horizon has moved in a little closer of late. And many forecasters and planners are now saying their visibility does not go beyond next spring.

Economic growth should continue until then at least, most agree.

While holding to this expectation of further records, they are taking into account the General Motors strike now beginning to be felt by some other industries, the nervousness in the money markets while a new British government sets its fiscal course, and the general uncertainties born of the political upheaval in Russia and the entrance of Red China into the nuclear club.

Businessmen don't like uncertainty any more than do stock traders. But emotional decisions that can sweep the stock markets usually aren't duplicated in corporate boardrooms. Business executives are more inclined to watch cautiously rather than panic.

Developments at home could pose a more visible threat to the American economy in the months ahead than any now apparent in the confusing trends behind the Iron Curtain.

FEAR INFLATION

What business planners are most fearful of today is that price inflation might upset the steady climb of business after next spring.

They watch not only the current slowdown in industrial production traced to the General Motors shutdown, but the farther reaching effects that the auto labor contracts might have in other industries.

FLOWING IN

Yarborough said in San Antonio that money is flowing into Texas from the East to help Bush, a Houston oil man who is the son of a former Connecticut senator.

"The massive number of billboards, the continuous radio and TV spots, tapes, panels and programs, the massive advertising through every media show the New York and Connecticut money has arrived in Texas," Yarborough told newsmen.

As for the presidential race, Yarborough said: "I don't think anyone feels comfortable since the changes in Russia and China. This has helped President Johnson. People don't want an untested, untried man as our leader."

EAST TEXAS

Yarborough's schedule called for visits today in Walker, Montgomery, Angelina, Nacogdoches, Rush, Cherokee and Anderson counties, all in East Texas.

Bush, winding up with an evening rally in Houston after a day of helicopter hops to shopping centers in Houston, Baytown and La Porte, told supporters:

"The typical Texan wants job and educational opportunities, but we must have positive and effective Senate leadership to accomplish this goal."

Of Yarborough, Bush said: "A man who proves almost daily that he cannot get along with his fellow elected officials or with the leaders of our Texas cities cannot effectively represent Texas in the Senate."

RIGHTS ISSUE

Civil rights are among "several issues (which) are going to divide the union man from the labor bosses," Bush told Young Republicans at the University of Houston. He said civil rights legislation will pinch the union

LBJ Adds To Itinerary

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson makes three political speeches, rides in three motorcades and visits former President Harry S. Truman today.

Johnson had planned to speak today in Akron, Ohio. Tuesday night, he added speeches in East St. Louis, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo., and the visit to Truman's hospital bedside in Kansas City.

Johnson told newsmen a few weeks ago he wanted to drop in on Truman one afternoon, but that was before the former president suffered two fractured ribs and cuts in a fall.

CHANGES PLANS

The President had planned to go to St. Louis later in the week. The White House said he had revised his schedule to pay respects to former President Herbert Hoover, who died Tuesday in New York. Johnson also eliminated political appearances scheduled Thursday in Memphis, Tenn., and Baltimore.

Instead, on that day, he plans to attend a family service for Hoover at New York's St. Bartholomew's Protestant Episcopal Church. Friday afternoon the President will be at Washington's Union Station when the late president's body arrives in the capital from New York.

On his first stop today, Johnson rides in a motorcade from the Akron-Canton Airport to Memorial Hall of the University of Akron for a speech shortly before noon.

NEXT STOP

Next stop: Kansas City, to visit Truman. He plans to be there an hour and a half.

Instead of returning directly to Washington, as he had originally planned, Johnson flies to Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, Ill. He travels the 25 miles from there to East St. Louis by motorcade.

After a short speech to a rally there, Johnson flies to St. Louis for a speech at the War Memorial and a motorcade through downtown St. Louis.

Then he flies back to Washington. The White House press office said Johnson planned no out-of-town appearances Thursday except for attendance at the Hoover services in New York.

Backache relief pills bring mild diuretic action through the kidneys

Urinary stasis or drinking may be a source of mild but annoying bladder irritations—making you feel restless, tense, and uncomfortable. And if restless nights, with nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains due to over-exertion, strain or emotional upset, are adding to your misery—don't wait—try Doan's Pills. Doan's Pills act 3 ways for speedy relief. 1 — A wonderfully mild diuretic action through the kidneys, tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes. 2 — They have a soothing effect on bladder irritations. 3 — A fast pain-relieving action on nagging backache, headache, muscular aches and pains. So get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. For convenience, get the large size Doan's Pills today!

Board Considers Tourist Campsite

Cost estimates for development of a tourist overnight camping area in City Park was presented to the parks and recreation board in its monthly meeting at 4 p.m. today in city hall. Also scheduled to go before the board is a request from several city churches for a playing field for flag football play.

The board will consider naming a new chairman, receive an inventory report of baseball facilities, and a report on the status of the park bond funds.

The agenda also includes a scheduled discussion of free admission to the city recreational facilities.

Parks Superintendent Johnnie Johansen has prepared a report on the costs of establishing the overnight tourist rest or camping area. Total cost is estimated at some $4,582, including concrete curbing, water lines, a bathroom structure, lighting, 10 cooler units and 10 concrete tables and seats, trees and shrubs.

The area has been discussed several times by the board previously, with proposals including placing signs on area highways indicating to traveling motorists the area as an overnight camping area. Proposals have also included coin-operated electrical outlets.

The site for the proposed park includes a 2 1/4 acre tract between the east entrance to the city park and the city golf course. The area would be entered from US 87.

Johansen will also report to the board on financial expenditures and physical improvements in city parks.

Locally, the program is being coordinated by The Permian Basin Medical Society.

"The medical profession has undertaken this educational program because so many people are not aware that help does exist for those over 65 who need it in paying for health care, that the means of helping them is available right now in Texas and every other state in the Union," said a Society statement.

"We call these programs Health Opportunity Programs for the Elderly, and there are many of them, local or state, by which everyone over 65 who needs health care and can't pay for it can get it. One of these state programs, for example, provides a paid-up health insurance policy to over 229,000 elderly citizens who are recipients of Old Age Assistance.

This is over 30 per cent of the entire population that is 65 years of age or over.

"Other programs in the state, including the Texas 65 Health Insurance Plan, run the health insurance coverage to 72 per cent of the total elderly population in Texas. The Texas Medical Association is also actively supporting the passage of Texas Constitutional Amendment 73 this November, in order that health care benefits may be provided to those not on Old Age Assistance but who are unable to pay for needed medical services."

The educational program in Texas is being conducted in conjunction with a national program inaugurated by the American Medical Association. Information may be had at any of the levels of the organization.

The spokesman said Jenkins, whose resignation was requested by President Johnson, will be covered by the retirement law because of his congressional and White House service.

Computation of the amount to which a former government employee would be entitled because of both congressional and executive branch service involves use of two formulas, it was explained. Employees of Congress have one retirement plan and employees of the executive branch a separate and different one.

Data on individual pensions usually is not made public, the spokesman said. He said information in the pension files of government workers is regarded as confidential under existing regulations.

In addition, an impressive list of 25 guest speakers has been announced by John Ben Shepherd, Odessa attorney, who is president of the Historical Survey Committee.

Scheduled for talks at the history-tourists workshop are Robert J. Hoffman, director of the New Mexico Department of Development; State Representative W. S. (Bill) Healy of Paducah, who will discuss "The Stake of Texas in History and Tourism"; Jack Maguire, executive director of the University of Texas Ex-Students' Association in Austin, whose talk has the intriguing title of "Texas, the Land of the Odd."

Members of the board of trustees are W. N. Romans, Darrell Flynt, C. M. Roth, A. A. Porter and Frank Philley. Next meeting time for the club was set at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 9 in the high school cafeteria.

The second stage of the 1964 tax cut which will become effective Jan. 1, 1965, should end the underwithholding problem for many taxpayers, it was pointed out today by Joseph P. Gordon, administrative officer of the Big Spring office of Internal Revenue Service.

Personal income tax rates will range from 14 to 70 per cent in 1965 compared to the 16 to 77 per cent range of 1964. Gordon said that the 14 per cent withholding rate on wage and salary payments adopted in 1964 will remain the same in 1965.

Some taxpayers will be underwithheld on 1964 tax payments because the lower withholding rate went into effect earlier than the final tax rate reduction. Gordon said that for many lower income taxpayers this underwithholding problem should be eliminated in 1965.

Resigned Johnson Aide Jenkins Due A Pension

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter W. Jenkins, who resigned as an aide to President Johnson after disclosure of two arrests on morals charges, will be eligible for a government pension but the amount has not been determined yet, a Civil Service commission spokesman said Tuesday.

The spokesman said Jenkins, whose resignation was requested by President Johnson, will be covered by the retirement law because of his congressional and White House service.

History Helps Get Tourists

History takes no backseat in today's drive for the tourist industry in Texas. In fact, history sits in front, distinguishing itself as one of the top tourist attractions in Texas.

To discuss best ways businessmen and historians in Texas can cooperate in promoting Texas to tourists the Texas State Historical Survey Committee has set up an intensive workshop in Austin Friday and Saturday at the Terrace Motor Hotel.

The workshop, first of its kind in the state, will bring together more than 500 businessmen and historians, chambers of commerce executives and state tourist agencies heads.

In addition, an impressive list of 25 guest speakers has been announced by John Ben Shepherd, Odessa attorney, who is president of the Historical Survey Committee.

Scheduled for talks at the history-tourists workshop are Robert J. Hoffman, director of the New Mexico Department of Development; State Representative W. S. Mrs. Crenshaw Heads Art Club

Mrs. W. H. Crenshaw assumed the presidency of the Las Artistas Art Club Tuesday when the club met in the Texas Electric Service building.

The group planned the fall sidewalk show for Oct. 31, with Mrs. Frank Hartley to arrange the exhibition. Mrs. Crenshaw and Mrs. William L. Patton volunteered to deliver paintings to the Permian Basin Exhibition in Midland Nov. 5.

Mrs. Don Bohannon showed slides of 17th Century Dutch paintings, describing the life and times of such painters as Frans Hals, Jan Steen, Vermeer, Rembrandt and others, and pointing out their similarities and different approaches to painting.

Mrs. Donald Kenning, Frank Hartley and Susan Bean were visitors.

Grand Jurors Are Selected

Ralph Caton, judge of the 118th District Court, announced today that a grand jury for Howard County will be convened Nov. 4. Gil Jones, district attorney, said his office would be prepared to lay what cases he has on hand before the grand jury on that date.

A special commission Monday drew 16 names to serve as grand jurors for the ensuing court term.

The 16 names drawn are: O. H. Derrington, R. L. Millaway, R. W. Andrews, M. C. Grigsby, J. D. Elliott, Pat Boatler, W. P. McMeans, Jeff L. Brown, I. T. Hudson, E. M. Bailey, M. J. Spruill, Frank Morales, J. W. Fryar, C. H. De Vane, Arvin Walker and James E. Felts Jr.

CAED OF THANKS We are humbly grateful for the prayers, the demonstrations of human concern for us during the illness and death of our father, R. L. Gillean. For those who served as pallbearers, who brought food and did so many other things to help in a time of need, we offer our thanks.

Minor Wrecks Investigated

Two minor hit-and-run accidents were reported to city police Tuesday, along with one other traffic mishap.

A car owned by Joseph Mattingley, 800 W. 4th, was reported struck by an unidentified vehicle while parked at 305 E. 3rd. Another parked auto, owned by Mrs. Edna G. Christian, 111 Washington Blvd., was hit while parked at 1710 Gregg, officers reported, also by an auto which left the scene.

An accident at 300 Scurry involved cars driven by Bernice John Scudday, Forsan, and James Hogg Jr., 107 W. 18th.

Ex-Foe To Introduce Goldwater At Rally

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater swings into Pennsylvania today for his second campaign trip in the Philadelphia area and a meeting with Gov. William W. Scranton. Scranton, who opposed Goldwater for the presidential nomination at the Republican National Convention, will introduce the Arizona at a rally tonight in Philadelphia. Goldwater also has speeches scheduled at West Chester and Upper Darby and plans a motorcade through South Philadelphia.

At 10:30 p.m. EDT he will speak to the nation via the ABC-TV network on recent international developments.

After the networks and the Federal Communications Commission turned down GOP demands for free time to match the time given President Johnson Sunday night, the Republicans bought time on ABC.

Goldwater spoke briefly on foreign policy Tuesday night in an off-the-cuff speech to Republican campaign workers in a Baltimore hotel.

He said that with the ouster of Soviet Premier Khrushchev the United States faces a tougher Communist bloc which is likely to behave more like the belligerent Red Chinese and the late Soviet dictator Josef Stalin.

He deplored the United States take a tougher line in its foreign policy and he attacked the Johnson administration for what he called "the insane policy of strengthening an enemy who has vowed to bury us."

The Soviet Union may have had a hand in developing the nuclear device exploded last week by the Chinese Reds, Goldwater said.

He said he strongly disagreed with President Johnson's interpretation of the Khrushchev overthrow.

"I don't agree that there will be any continuation of the Khrushchev line," he said. "I believe it will be a tougher line laid down by the men who get along with the Red Chinese Communists."

Goldwater added: "This is going back to something more like the Stalin days."

Johnson, in his television speech to the nation Sunday night, noted that "the men at the top (in Russia) today are the men he (Khrushchev) picked for leadership." And he said that "the new Soviet government has officially informed me through Ambassador Dobrynin that it plans no change in basic foreign policy."

Some 300 to 400 cheering persons turned out for what originally had been scheduled as a

Red Chinese Say A-Shot Ired America

TOKYO (AP) — Red China said Tuesday its detonation of an atomic bomb had "shocked and irritated" the United States and that both President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had "tried their best to belittle" its significance.

It also noted Rusk's television statement Oct. 18 that China's prestige undoubtedly would be raised because it now is a nuclear nation.

The New China News Agency dispatch from Peking said the Chinese achievement "is a heavy blow to the U.S. policy of nuclear monopoly and nuclear blackmail."

It said Johnson pretended to be concerned about the well-being of the Chinese people, "in spite of the fact that the United States has conducted hundreds of nuclear tests."

Peking also attacked Johnson's rejection of its proposal for a world conference to outlaw nuclear weapons.

The commission first set an Oct. 17 deadline for filing exceptions, then extended it to Nov. 23. It rejected a request for another extension by Continental Oil Co. and other producers.

Windfohr, 70, died Tuesday in an Albuquerque, N.M., hospital after a long illness.

He was a member of the original committee which championed oil conservation laws in Texas, twice was elected president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association and was a director and executive committee member of the American Petroleum Institute.

Lars W. Lindh, 27, and Helge Hjalmarsson, 28, were caught in the act in northwest Cyprus late in September and brought home for trial.

FCC Gives More Time For Filing Gas Replies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Power Commission has allowed an extra three weeks for filing replies to exceptions in the Permian Basin area natural gas rate case.

Exceptions to its examiner's decision still must be made by Nov. 23. Replies to exceptions must be in by Jan. 15 and oral arguments were extended from Dec. 7 to Dec. 30.

Examiner Seymour Wener proposed Sept. 17 a new two-price system designed to speed the search for new gas. It calls for a series of ceiling prices for the Permian basin, in West Texas and Southeastern New Mexico, ranging from 10 cents per thousand cubic feet to 16.75 cents.

Joint Airport Session Termed 'Constructive'

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Dallas and Fort Worth leaders huddled for four hours Tuesday and said they had a constructive discussion of their airport situation.

The purpose of the meeting was to resolve differences over a regional airport for North Texas.

The Civil Aeronautics Board recently told the two cities, barely 30 miles apart, to reach an agreement or it would make a decision. A 180-day deadline was set.

Mayor Erik Jonsson of Dallas said another session will be held next Wednesday.

He said the leaders not only discussed the airport situation "but we found numerous areas where we have mutual problems." It was Jonsson who termed the meeting "constructive."

Byard Friedman, Fort Worth mayor, said the discussion was not of any specific nature. "We dealt in generalities," he said, adding that problems other than the airport situation were talked over.

"It's going to be tight, but I think we can make it," Jonsson said when asked if he thought agreement could be reached before the deadline.

Hockley Farmer Killed In Mishap

SYMER, Tex. (AP) — William Savage, 44, a Hockley County farmer, was killed Tuesday when a Santa Fe freight train hit his pickup truck 3 miles east of here. His truck was towing a trailer full of cotton.

Walton, at a story conference with the film makers in Beverly Hills, Calif., Sept. 22 said "the purpose of the film then is to portray and remind the people of something they already know exists. We want to just make them mad," make their stomachs turn.

ROARS ALONG Several times in the film a black limousine roars along a road. Walton said the purpose is to remind viewers that President Johnson drove his car at high speeds near his Texas ranch.

"Our point is, why shouldn't kids do these things when they get this example at the top?" Walton said.

In addition to the topless bathing suit scene, Walton said he agreed to delete a provocative book cover titled "Jazz Me Baby" and photographs of a man in a fig leaf.

known, Chairman John M. Bailey of the Democratic National Committee described it as "the sickest political program to be conceived since television became a factor in American politics."

He said the film "appeals to the prurient and the prejudiced in a fashion which makes a mockery of its pretension to speaking out for moral conduct" and that he had urged the Fair Campaign Practices Committee in New York to appraise it.

Topless Scene, More Cut From Republican TV Film

WASHINGTON (AP) — A girl in a topless bathing suit and other footage have been cut from a film a Goldwater campaign group hopes to flash across American television screens Thursday to hammer home its claim that the country is beset by "moral decay."

Russell Walton, public relations director for the Citizens for Goldwater-Miller, acknowledged the changes Tuesday night and said that NBC officials, in turn, had agreed to use the film as scheduled at 12 noon Big Spring time.

In New York, network officials said a final decision will not be reached until today.

"MORAL DECAY" The object of the film, said Walton, is "to depict the moral decay which has occurred in this country." He placed the film's cost at $100,000-$65,000 to produce and $35,000 for television time.

Schoendienst Card Skipper

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Albert (Red) Schoendienst, a Huck Finn who made the baseball field his playground for more than a decade, may not be doing much hunting, his favorite pastime, this winter.

The world champion St. Louis Cardinals named him manager of the club for 1965 and, he said, "You know I will give 100 per cent." The new job for one of the National League's finest second basemen is expected to take most of his time.

"I already canceled plans to go duck hunting tomorrow," he said at a press conference called Tuesday at the Cardinal offices. The likeable redhead still laughed and grinned through his boyish-looking face, but it was a new Schoendienst who sat in a business suit and quietly and seriously talked about his new job.

"It's good to have a fine ball club to begin with," he said, "but it would have been easier to take over a last-place team than a first place one."

"I know what the ball players can do. I know they'll give me 100 per cent because I'll be giving them 100 per cent."

But after so many years as a player and then a coach with the Cardinals, how strict will he be?

"The rules will be set and I'll expect the players to stick with them," he said.

The 41-year-old Schoendienst, of nearby Germantown, Ill., signed a one-year contract Tuesday almost at the same moment Johnny Keane was inking a similar pact in New York to manage the Yankees.

Keane resigned as manager of the Cardinals last Friday, the day after his club had beaten the Yankees in the World Series. Yankee Manager Yogi Berra was fired the same day.

Tuesday's activities completed one of the most unusual series of hirings, firings and resignations ever to occur in baseball.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Marvin Ellis, the Odessa scribe, underlined a good point recently when he said football games scheduled to start at 8 p.m. should begin at that time and not at 8:10.

The writers in District 2-AAAA have been behind a drive for some time now to have the starting times of conference games advanced to 7:30 o'clock but a couple of athletic directors around the league are dragging their feet.

Ellis contends that school bands in several cities have been playing at times when all such pre-game activity should have been completed. Such ceremonies are a very necessary part of any football game but they could be held at 7:30 just as easily as at 8 o'clock.

Ellis contends that teams could plan their arrivals on the field ten minutes earlier, if the bands insist on waiting to play school songs until the boys put in an appearance.

I think if a poll were taken among people who support high school football consistently, the majority would favor a 7:30 o'clock starting time and few certainly would be against any move to delay the starting hour anytime beyond the appointed hour.

Jimmy Viramontes, the West Texas State college basketball coach, signed four boys for his freshman team this year who stand 6-foot-7 or higher.

Tallest is Wade Crook of Sanford-Fritch, who is 6-8. Time was when the Buffaloes were identified as the "tallest team in the country."

NMMI's Bronchos, who won two of their first three football games, boast players from 13 different states. Some hail from as far away as Pennsylvania, California and Wisconsin.

The window keeps getting good reports on the development of ex-Big Springer Coye Conner, now performing for the freshman football team at Baylor.

The Cubs played the Texas frosh off their feet recently before losing a 10-7 decision. Conner is playing at tackle for the Waco-based team.

Billy Pierce, who retired recently as a pitcher for the San Francisco Giants, filled six of the ten spots with New York Yankees when asked to name an all-opponent team. His idea of an all-star squad:

1B — Bill Skowron, Yankees; 2B — Joe Gordon, Yankees; 3B — George Kell, Detroit; ss — Phil Rizzuto, Yankees; OF — Ted Williams, Red Sox; OF — Hank Aaron, Milwaukee; OF — Mickey Mantle, Yankees; C — Yogi Berra, Yankees; RHP — Bob Feller, Cleveland; LHP — Whitey Ford.

Mike Dowdle, the former University of Texas griddle, is fast becoming recognized as one of pro football's linemen. Dowdle is now with the San Francisco 49ers.

DEAR ABBY

A Voice Of Experience

Norfolk County Home of Correction & Jail Dedham, Mass.

DEAR ABBY: I have never written a letter like this before, and I do so now hoping it will help other young people to get on the right track. I am 20, and come from what could be called an average middle-class family. I have been doing a lot of reading lately, including your column in the Boston Record-American. I recognize myself in so many of the letters other young people have written to you, such as "My parents won't let me have a car," or "My parents want to know where I am every minute," or "My parents place too many restrictions on me." Well, I had my own car at 16. I kept any hours I pleased, and I got what I wanted about 90 per cent of the time. If my parents refused me anything, I either argued, or I sulked until I got my own way. How wrong I was. I wish you would tell parents that they would do their children a tremendous favor if they learned how to say "NO" to them... and stuck to it.

A few months ago I would have laughed at this, but my outlook has changed. I love and respect my parents, Abby. But I didn't become a spoiled, self-centered brat all by myself. I had plenty of help. Sincerely,
R.J.E. IN CELL 63

Two Winners In Journalism

AUSTIN (AP)—Mrs. Sharon Watkins of San Antonio and George Arnold of Austin are the top scholastic winners in the University of Texas journalism school's honors program.

For compiling the highest averages in three years of college work, Mrs. Watkins received the $300 Gail Borden scholarship and Arnold the $300 Cabot education grant.

Graduate fellowships for $1,000 went to Robert Hill of Winters, Denis Horgan of Boston, Mass., and Sidney Nolan of Huntsville.

Among those receiving $200 Brackenridge scholarships for freshman journalism students is Dianne Davis of Marshall.

Other award winners include: Corsicana—Mrs. Bonnie Binford, $200 Texas Woman's Press Association scholarship.

Galveston—Josephine Dibella, $100 Texas Public Relations Association scholarship.

Tyler—Mary Burton, $100 Myrtle Gregory scholarship.

Waco—Janie Freeman, $100 Marjorie Darlek memorial scholarship, and James Vowell, $250 M. S. Sellers scholarship.

Small Grain Being Planted

AUSTIN (AP) — Clear days gave Texas farmers a chance last week to push sorghum combining and the planting of small grain, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported.

Lack of top soil moisture, however, slowed the growth of grass and some grains, its weekly crop and weather report said. Ranges and pastures remained in good condition over most of the state.

Carrot and lettuce harvest was active on the High Plains, and early planted winter crops made good progress in South Texas.

Harvest of Texas' cotton crop reached 35 per cent of completion, compared with 42 per cent at this time a year ago. Sorghum also was behind, 79 per cent this year to 86 per cent in 1963.

Farmers rushed wheat planting, and 80 per cent is in the ground, one per cent above last year's pace. Oat planting is 63 per cent finished, compared to 50 per cent at this date last year.

Little Radiation Due From Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Weather Bureau says radioactive material from Red China's atomic test blast last Friday may already have started to pass over the United States, but lack of rain could mean very little will fall to earth.

Atomic Energy Commission scientists added that any fallout from the "low yield" test would not be likely "to cause any undue health hazard" in the nation.

Demo Registration Is Heaviest In Fourteen Years In California

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California, one of the big and vital states in the 1964 presidential election, has reported its heaviest Democratic registration in 14 years.

The Democrats claim 57.9 per cent of the state's record 8,184,151 eligible voters.

The Republicans have 38.9 per cent with the remainder distributed between miscellaneous and those who declined to state party preference.

Not since 1950 have the Democrats had such a margin. That year the percentage was Democrats 58.4, Republicans 37.1.

Republicans point out that in 1950 Earl Warren, now Chief Justice of the United States, won his third term as governor by defeating Democrat James Roosevelt.

WARREN WON
The largest Democratic majority in the past 42 years was 1942 — 60.2 per cent to 35.9 — and that year Warren, a Republican, won his first term as governor, besting incumbent Democrat Culbert Olson.

The 1962 percentage favored the Democrats, 56.9 to 39.8. Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater has listed California, with its 40 electoral votes, as one of the four key states in his bid for the White House. The others are Texas, Illinois and Ohio.

In the 1960 presidential election, when Republican Richard M. Nixon carried California, the Democrats had a registration edge of 1.2 million. This year it is 1.55 million.

Democrats see the registration as an indication of Goldwater's defeat in the nation's most populous state.

Republicans shrug off the figures as just statistics.

The state Democratic chairman, Roger Kent, said the registration gains reflected a repudiation of Goldwater.

"NO CONNECTION"

John P. Vukasin Jr., an official of the Volunteer Citizens for Goldwater organization, said there was no connection between the registration total and the presidential race.

Kent said the Democratic gains could be credited to a "startling lack of enthusiasm for the Republican candidate and the Republican platform."

Kent predicted that 35 per cent of the Republican vote in Northern California would go to President Johnson.

Vukasin took a different view. "A large number of people coming into California," he said, "are from areas where they traditionally register as Democrats."

"I can see no adverse affects of the registration on the Goldwater campaign."

Tributes Label Hoover Patriot, Humanitarian

Shown With Truman

Former President Herbert Hoover, who died Tuesday in New York at the age of 90, is shown here with former President Harry Truman, right, at the Hoover Presidential Library in West Branch, Iowa. Occasion was the dedication on August 10, 1962. They are sitting behind the desk that was in Hoover's White House office. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Thirty Days Of Mourning Proclaimed By President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has proclaimed a 30-day period of mourning for former President Herbert Hoover.

He directed that the American flag be flown at half staff at the White House, on all buildings, grounds, and naval vessels of the nation and at embassies and other facilities abroad.

The late President John F. Kennedy paid Hoover a brief visit at the time.

The son of a small town blacksmith, Hoover was orphaned at the age of 10, and knew poverty. But he worked his way through Stanford University to become a top-flight mining engineer and a wealthy man at 28.

"Much overstatement has been made here today and it would take too much time to refer to all of it. But I'll simplify it for you by saying it's all true."

TALL, ROBUST

A tall, pipe-smoking man, Hoover had remained remarkably robust until the series of recent afflictions. He maintained that a man should not "retire without some occupation."

He served as a director or trustee of 12 educational and scientific institutions, and took part in numerous fund-raising drives.

Public Affairs

Then he turned to public affairs.

When he visited his birthplace at West Branch, Iowa, on his 88th birthday in 1962, a crowd of 25,000 hailed him.

"One of America's great men," former President Harry S. Truman called him.

With the kindly humor that characterized his "mellow" years, Hoover replied to the praise heaped on him:

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater led Americans of all political creeds in tributes today to Herbert Hoover as a patriot and humanitarian.

Johnson said Hoover's "unquenchable sense of public responsibility for both our nation and a troubled world stands as an example that will endure."

"We have lost a wise American, and the world has lost a humanitarian citizen of all mankind. His steadfast leadership served us undaunted through good times and bad — as a businessman, provider for the poor and hungry, president and elder statesman."

"He combined the best of our national heritage with a broad-gauged understanding of the tumultuous times in which he lived. A man of character and conviction, he was both profound and practical in meeting the many tasks he undertook for his fellowmen."

CITES LOSS

Goldwater said Hoover's death was a profound loss to the American people and to the cause of individual freedom and dignity throughout the world.

"Herbert Hoover embodied and came to symbolize the finest principles and qualities for which our country stands," Goldwater said in a statement.

"His life's work was that of the true humanitarian, for his efforts to help mankind stemmed not from personal ambition but from heartfelt compassion and a deep belief in divine purpose. His millions of friends can find solace in knowing that Herbert Hoover lived to see his position in history vindicated. And despite the petty detractors of his lifetime, the name of Herbert Hoover survives and will be passed on to future generations of his countrymen as one of the truly great Americans. Herbert Hoover was a missionary in the cause of the American ideal of human freedom and individual dignity. He will long be remembered, so long as there are Americans and men of free spirit."

In New York, Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, described Hoover's death as one that provoked "universal sadness."

"Mr. Hoover was one of the most eminent American public figures of his time," Stevenson said. "And his life was marked by broad interests and many constructive contributions."

SHARE SADNESS

"I share the universal sadness over his death," he added.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said Hoover's death will "be mourned throughout the world for his concern for his fellowman was an inspiration for all human conduct."

"An important statesman and great soul has passed from our midst. The world is poorer for his loss."

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said in Augusta, Maine, that Hoover "will be respected and revered in the hearts of his countrymen forever."

"Mr. Hoover was one of those rare individuals who lived to hear the overwhelmingly favorable verdict of history on his career. For 60 years he walked proudly with the giants of the earth and in the end won the affection and respect of millions of people all over the world," Nixon said.

"KEEP BUSY"

On his successive birthdays, in his advancing years, Hoover always had the same advice about longevity — keep up some kind of productive work.

Otherwise, he said, "you will shrivel up into a nuisance to mankind."

Hoover, born Aug. 10, 1874, was married in 1899 to Lou Henry, whom he had met while they were students at Stanford University. She died of a heart attack in 1944.

They had two sons, Allan and Herbert Jr.

Perhaps one of Hoover's happiest activities in later years was his post as head of the Boys' Clubs of America.

Sons Get HST Sympathy Wire

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman sent a telegram of sympathy to the two sons of former President Herbert Hoover, who died Tuesday in New York.

It said: "I was deeply saddened at the passing of your father. He was my good friend and I was his. President Hoover was a devoted public servant and he will be forever remembered for his great humanitarian work. Please express my sympathy to all the family."

er's death was written on Waldorf-Astoria Hotel stationery by his personal physician, Dr. Michael J. Lepore. It said: "President Hoover October 20, 1964, time 11:35 a.m."

Hoover, a Republican, was president from 1929 through 1932.

The Great Depression set in during his term and he was succeeded by Franklin D. Roosevelt, but he continued to live an active life in humanitarian work and in writing.

Repeatedly, during his latter years, he had fought off serious ailments.

Hoover said in a birthday message Aug. 10 that "the key to America's abundance was its freedom."

Girl Slain, Youth Jailed

NEW YORK (AP) — An 18-year-old boy was jailed Tuesday in the sex slaying of a 7-year-old girl, whose body was stuffed in an oil furnace in the basement of a church.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Kenneth N. Brown said the boy, John Ebbs of Brooklyn, grabbed Janet Young as she arrived at the Bethany Evangelical United Brethren Church in Queens to attend a Brownie Scout meeting Monday afternoon.

Brown said Ebbs, who sometimes did volunteer work around the church, dragged the child to the basement, tied her with a cord, strangled her and tried to rape her.

After stuffing her body in the furnace, the youth went to his job distributing literature for a nearby real estate office, returned to the church to deliver a message about church business to the pastor, bought some groceries and went home, Brown said.

Oil Production Dips In Storm

TULSA (AP) — Oil production in Louisiana dropped 41,700 barrels daily last week as a result of Hurricane Hilda, causing a dip of 32,600 barrels in total U.S. production, the Oil & Gas Journal reports.

The journal put total U.S. production last week at 7,535,470 barrels daily, compared with 7,568,070 the previous week. Louisiana production was 1,480,450, compared to 1,522,150 the previous week.

Oklahoma produced 563,400, up 4,700, and Texas 2,629,500 and New Mexico 305,100, both unchanged.

IN HOSPITAL

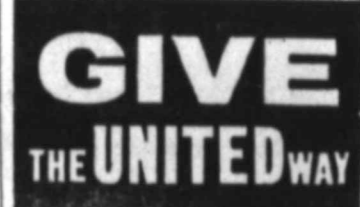

Truman is in a Kansas City hospital recovering from injuries suffered in a fall last week. His telegram was sent to Herbert and Allan Hoover.

Those close to Hoover said he was stoic through his illness, never complaining of pain.

Only one other former president, John Adams, lived longer. Adams, the nation's second chief executive, was 90 years and 8 months old when he died; Hoover 90 years and 2 months.

A Devotional For The Day

Then Philip opened his mouth, and . . . he told him the good news of Jesus. (Acts 8:35, RSV)
PRAYER: Dear Lord, help us to hear Thy voice when Thou callest us to Thy service. Like Philip, may we answer and be ready to proclaim Thy gospel wherever Thou wilt lead us. In Christ's name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Great Humanitarian

As to all men, death has come to Herbert Hoover, who served his nation well in many positions of trust and honor, including that of President of the United States.
A great humanitarian, this is the thing for which he is best remembered although in time history may deal more kindly with him in his official role. He had the misfortune of having been elected President just in time to reap the harvest of a runaway post-war boom. Many of the seeds of the inevitable crash were not of his doing, but he occupied the seat of authority and thus many equated this with personal responsibility. Thus he was not returned for a second term and was tarred with the brush of the Depression.
This was a doubly painful blow to him, but to the credit of Herbert Clark Hoover, he did not bemoan his lot or curse his fate. Later he accepted the challenge to head a commission looking toward reorganization of the vast, cumbersome federal machinery. This was a monumental piece of work which must some day be faced with some decisiveness.

To the last, his public pronouncements were free from rancor and full of purpose and hope for America, with faith in freedom. Whatever the eventual judgment of his years as President may be, the feeling now is that Mr. Hoover reached his fullest measure of greatness as ex-President and as a man who held his fellow man in compassion and esteem. This is no small mark to leave on the pages of time.

Watching Closely

Assessing the factors behind the ousting of Nikita Khrushchev as the Soviet Premier is slow and uncertain business, but no immediate upheaval is seen. Some observers believe that the step may be an attempt to ride two horses—to avoid the direct confrontation between Peking and Moscow which Khrushchev's projected December conference had promised, and to continue the external policy of co-existence. Some alteration of tack is due, else there would have been little point in change.

While this has stirred speculation, it has not produced panic or grave apprehension in the West. This arises out of a consensus on the broad pattern of policy among the free Western bloc. Basically it is predicated in such strength of defense of the free world that developments within Russia will not be able to alter or overthrow this strength. It holds out at the same time the possibility of negotiating to ease tensions.

Of course, developments must be watched closely. There cannot be any relaxation of vigilance, for significant challenges must evoke positive response. Maintenance of this front is not a unilateral matter, although disagreements among the free world partners sometimes would indicate a temptation toward separate courses. Differences are not of such nature but they could and would be put aside if there were to be a serious threat against the common front.

David Lawrence Week That Still Is

WASHINGTON—Change has come. For better or for worse? Last week can, without dramatic exaggeration, be described in television vocabulary as "the week that was," but it must also be called "the week that still is." It will continue to shape the destinies of mankind for future weeks and perhaps for years to come.
Important as domestic issues and presidential contests may be to us, it is the far-reaching effect of the change in the dictatorship in the Kremlin and what it may portend in the volatile game of peace and war which is of greatest concern to the people of this country and of all the other countries of the globe.

IT SO HAPPENS that Great Britain had a national election last week and "changed horses in midstream," as the saying goes in politics. Though the Conservative party there lost by a thin margin and hence a new majority can any day topple the socialist Labor government, epochal decisions will have to be made by Washington, London and Paris in the challenging task of rebuilding the North Atlantic Treaty Alliance, which for many months has been in disarray. This has been due to a belief that the United States wants to keep the nuclear power herself for self-interest or isolationist reasons and not let any other nuclear-power ally, such as Britain or France, share the all-important decision as to its use.
In a sense this issue—falsely referred to in the American presidential campaign as a device whereby one man in Washington "pulls the trigger"—goes further. The real issue is how the heads of the British, French and American governments shall instruct the commanders of their land, air and naval forces to move in concert with authority to act at once and use certain nuclear weapons to repel a sudden attack.

EVEN MORE important on the nuclear front are the coming relationships between the Soviet Union and Red China. For the Peiping government, which has just exploded a bomb equivalent to that dropped over Hiroshima in World War II, serves notice on her neighbor on the mainland of Asia—the Soviet Union—and on the smaller countries of that continent, as well as Japan, that she intends to wield a nuclear club in her diplomacy of the future. Will this bring Moscow and Peiping closer together on the theory that the Soviets, by furnishing more economic aid, will have a greater voice in Red China's policy and perhaps exercise a needed restraint, too?
All these questions have overnight changed the immediate problems of world diplomacy. Although ousting Nikita Khrushchev, the Kremlin has yet to make clear whether it is repudiating a man or his policies. A denial of the latter purpose, while affirming the suddenly discovered inadequacy of the leader himself, will hardly be persuasive till there is proof. Meanwhile, the so-called progress under "peaceful co-existence," which has been exalted by the wishful thinkers in America and other countries of the West, will have to undergo some soul-searching re-examination.

IT COULD turn out that there will be a move whereby Russia gives more help to Red China in her insidious campaign in Southeast Asia. It could step up the war in Viet Nam, thus raising the question here as to whether our military participation in that conflict should be enlarged.
In view of the developments last week of worldwide importance, the domestic dialogue and debates in the United States are sharpened up.

THE REPUBLICAN nominee has been contending that a change is necessary for survival and that timidity and vacillation have proved risky. The incumbent administration will argue that this is no time for changes in top personnel. In rebuttal, it will be pointed out that both Britain and Russia have just done this, and that, where the issue at stake is survival, firm and resolute behavior is more likely to deter an enemy than floundering amid policies of appeasement and so-called "accommodation."
America's enormous military might can be a deterrent to war but not if the feeling continues that the United States will passively tolerate more and more Communist infiltration throughout the world. Policies of wobble and wobble on the diplomatic front brought big wars in 1914 and 1939 and 1950.

Billy Graham

Why did my mother have to die? She was such a wonderful person. I can't figure it out, and I can hardly stand it. Please tell me why good people have to die? E.J.
First, death is a penalty of sin. "The wages of sin is death," says the Bible. God never meant for man to die. However, when man rebelled God—he began to die. "Thus it is appointed unto man once to die." There are many reasons for death.
Second, death is a friend to the aged. When the body begins to waste away, and the tortures of old age come upon our elders, they welcome death. He takes an aged Christian by the hand and gently leads them to a realm where there is no sorrow, death or pain.
Again, if there were no death, the old would get older and would dominate the race. Youth and newness would have no meaning. The world would be overpopulated so that the young could not grow food enough for those who were old. Death is the great population stabilizer.
Death, again, is a reminder of the brevity of time. The Psalmist said: "Teach us to number our days." Someone has pointed out that if our life-time is likened to a day beginning at 7:00 and ending at 11:00 at night, at 15 years of age it would be 10:25 in the morning. If you are 18, it is 11 o'clock. If you are 25, it is 12:42 in the afternoon. "Teach us to number our days."
Then death is necessary in the economy of God. "This mortal must put on immortality. This corruptible must put on incorruption." Your mother is not dead. She has just changed addresses. So live that you can join her in heaven.

'HIC-YIPPEE-LET'SH OUTLAW THISH STUFF'

James Marlow Hoover More Rigid Than FDR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The greatest single difference between President Herbert Hoover, who died Tuesday, and President Franklin D. Roosevelt was perhaps this: Hoover was more rigid. It showed in the way they fought the depression. Neither the self-made Hoover nor the born-rich Roosevelt seemed to have a clearly thought out philosophy of government and its responsibilities.

Neither man was an intellectual.

The long tradition of rugged individualism and a minimum of government interference in the lives of Americans reached its peak in the latter part of the 19th century and the early part of the 20th.

These were the years when Hoover and Roosevelt were growing up and maturing. Both men were heirs of this tradition. But while Hoover sought to cling to it, Roosevelt was willing to abandon it. That made all the difference.

YET, BY the time Roosevelt defeated him in the 1932 election, Hoover had gone further in using government resources to fight the nation's economic collapse than any depression president in history.

The steps he took paved the way for the New Deal. But they fell short of being enough. He never truly had an antidepression program. But neither did Roosevelt before he took office.

In the 1932 campaign Hoover spent most of his time defending what he had — or had not — done. Roosevelt made proposals, bobbed, weaved, vacillated, reversed his ground and contradicted himself.

At times he proposed going further than Hoover in coping with depression. At times he suggested doing less. This made it appear at times that he didn't understand the problem.

Hoover had been berated for three years for not throwing more of the government's resources into the struggle to revitalize the economy, although under him the government went into debt trying to help out.

IT SEEMS ironic now, but the Democrats criticized him not because he had done too little but because he had done too much. Their main criticism — and Roosevelt was the main spokesman — was that Hoover was a profligate spender.

To Your Good Health Menstrual Irregularity Not Unusual In Young Girls

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: My 15-year-old daughter has a menstrual problem. Some months she is four to eight days early. Other times she is as much as five days late. Three times she has had two periods in a single month.
I am having a blood test for her, as the periods are severe and she is always cold and tired.
Is this normal for such a young girl? Can you suggest anything else besides the blood test?—MRS. T. P.

Such irregularity is not unusual in a young girl. Sometimes it takes several years before the cycle steadies down into a dependable routine. (And keep in mind that, although a 28-day cycle is average, it is quite normal for some to vary from this—21, 30 or 35 days. Not average—but normal.)
As in your daughter's case, such variability is shared by many girls. In other cases, and this also is not at all unusual, there may be lapses of several months between periods when the menstrual rhythm is beginning to establish itself.
Since she has frequent and heavy periods (and sometimes more than one in a month), a blood test or blood count is a wise procedure, to make sure that she is not suffering from anemia.

She'll presently settle into a fairly fixed pattern, but just now she may need some medical assistance to keep her red blood cell count up. You are observant to connect this with her being "cold and tired."
Your doctor may find the need for some other tests or measures. After all, the physician who sees the patient and notes all the signs, is in the best position to know what is necessary.

Dear Dr. Molner: My son's pulse is from 41 to 58. Does this mean there is something wrong with his heart? A year ago it was 72 to 74. He is 21 years old.—MRS. C. O. D.
This is a slow rate of heartbeat, or bradycardia, (as compared to a rapid rate, or tachycardia).
This may be quite normal. For we must always keep in mind, in matters of health and in so many other things, that AVERAGE is made up of a lot of figures which are above or below the line.
In this case, the pulse rate deserves a check-up, perhaps with an electrocardiogram (ECG) to determine whether any defeat exists in the conduction of impulses which regulate the timing of heartbeat, or pulse.

I predict (on the law of "averages") that such a test will turn out to be normal. If so, and if your son has no other related symptoms (excessive fatigue, which could mean a slow rate of metabolism, or technical signs pointing to present or past heart disease) I would forget about the matter, since slower-than-average pulse rates, as well as faster-than-average, are not unusual.

Troubled with varicose veins? To make sure you are doing all you can to relieve the problem, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald requesting the booklet, "How To Deal With Varicose Veins," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover the cost of printing and handling.
Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim Fragrances That Linger

Odors or fragrances mean a thousand things to as many people, and perhaps stir as many associative memories.

Some are distinctive, some are pleasant, some are offensive, but they seem to etch a place in your sensory reservoir.

FOR INSTANCE, the smell of smoke from a fireplace on a crisp autumn or winter's evening. You can almost know what the owner is burning, particularly if it is oak or mesquite. In camp fires you can single out cedar, pine and other woods easily.

An odor which stirs memories is that of ashes, embers and lye soap. This came from the assignment to prop the old iron kettle on three solid rocks or bricks and kindle and feed a fire until the water boiled. Then homemade lye soap was added and clothes duly punched down into the seething water with a clothes stick. To this day, this connotes super-cleanliness to me.

RAIN ON A CEDAR shingle roof, particularly a new roof, has a special fragrance. But then rain itself has a certain odor of its own—or at least stirs them up. For instance, a quick shower on a summer day must stir a minute amount of dust which lingers with the smell of rain. Those who have ridden the range won't forget the inimicable odor of rain on the corral. It's enough to make an old cowboy homesick.

WHEN THE DEW is heavy on an autumn evening, the currents bring a special fragrance up from the hollows and draws. Sometimes in the distance a skunk has added a faint touch of his trademark, and this adds to the impression of being out in the country.

Also when the crops languidly move to the end of the season in a good year, there comes up from the grain field, especially when it is in the boot, a dankness one never forgets.

IN THIS COUNTRY, there are other unusual odors—yes, fragrances to some people. This is the pungent aroma which crawls out from an oilfield where crudes tend to have a sulphur content. Sometimes you get a touch of this when the wind comes out of the northeast and sweeps across the refinery. But it is a good smell in the same way that the roar of jets from the air base is a good sound.

NEWLY CUT GRASS has a lush odor, one that means freshness. Perhaps this is akin to the nostalgic line from our Indiana friends about the "scent of new-mown hay."

Of all the aromas, however, the sweetest to me is that of honeysuckle early on a spring morning. It doesn't overwhelm you like narcissus in a closed room, nor tantalize you like a bed of petunias. It just makes you want to breathe deeper and literally savor it with your smellier.

—JOE PICKLE

Holmes Alexander Crime And Tolerance

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Two shocks, barely two days apart, have hit this capital city as hard as anything since the terrible day of President Kennedy's assassination one year ago.

The daylight murder of the beautiful Georgetown matron, Mary Pinchot Meyer, a lady "with a hundred thousand friends," and the exposure of Walter Jenkins, the President's top aide and business associate, as a twice-arrested homosexual, have hauled the town up short. These events did more than all the campaign oratory and all the Congressional investigations to show us as a decadent society in dire need of changing our ways before we are totally destroyed by our own softness.

MRS. MEYER belonged to that liberal, intellectual set which mistakenly equates the universal values of art, music and beauty with the mundane affairs of politics, economics and race. Mrs. Meyer was shot to death on the towpath that parallels the Potomac River, almost within the shadow of Georgetown University's twin towers, a place where she often strolled with Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy.

The man whom the police arrested at the scene of the crime and who has been identified by an eyewitness, is a Negro with a jail record. He was out fishing in the canal at midday.

MRS. MEYER's funeral at the Washington Cathedral chapel brought together the clique that was representative of her life and creeds. Among the mourners were Mrs. Katharine Graham, president of the leftist Washington Post; Mrs. Samuel L. B. Jr., an ardent hostess to Negroes; Arthur Schlesinger Jr., and McGeorge Bundy of the New Frontier and Communist Walter Lippmann. They heard the Right Rev. Paul Moore Jr., pray for "the poor, demented soul" who had done the murder. They heard Bishop Moore express the quintessence of the permissive philosophy when he rationalized the killing as "in some way bound up with sin and sickness of the whole world."

BY AN IRONY almost too cruel and conspicuous for comment, Mary Meyer lost her valuable life within the complex of ideologies which preach that society is the culprit for crime in the streets, that race is a "myth" and that permissiveness is the way of life at home and abroad.

Walter Jenkins, with a police record in 1959 of homosexual indecency in a public place, has been as close as any non-elective official can be to the center of national power and secrecy to say nothing of his having been for more than 20 years an executive, a virtual junior partner, in the Lyndon Johnson Enterprises, as well as an intimate friend of the first family.

NOT FOR AN instant do I believe that Mr. Johnson protected Jenkins or ever suspected him of sexual deviation, and I say this as one who has seen something of them both down the years. But Jenkins has had another sort of protection which, in this town's atmosphere, shields the homosexual, the disloyalist and the common criminal under the same umbrella of tolerance. This is the town where it's "McCarthyism" to mention that homosexuality at the State Department since the days of Sumner Welles and as recently as the Communization of Cuba has been a national disgrace and a swelling disaster.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE, and it would be reprehensible, for any reporter or commentator to isolate these two tragedies from the public decision which falls on Nov. 3rd. The crime that has raged in our streets, and the tolerance that protects privileged wrong-doers, calls for action at the ballot box.

We must exterminate this liberal, over-intellectualized, permissive ideology root and branch. And we must, regardless of the personalities of the two national tickets, demolish the established and corrupt power that has accumulated in Washington where personal morality, political and business ethics, as well as national security, are betrayed at the seats of the mighty.

Richard Starnes Campaign Razzle Dazzle

EN ROUTE WITH JOHNSON—Neither scandal at home nor crisis abroad can slow the headlong pace of Lyndon Johnson's airborne circus.
Just as the world was learning that a convulsion had taken place at the summit of Communist power, the leader of the free nations of the earth was spending 40 minutes earnestly beseeching a Buffalo, N. Y., throng to support Robert F. Kennedy in his campaign for the U.S. Senate.

AND FOR ALMOST an entire day President Johnson pretended serene indifference to the black stain of scandal that had engulfed his long-time aide and friend, Walter Jenkins.
Not until late in the afternoon did the President let it be known that he had ordered the FBI to investigate the matter. Throughout the day Mr. Johnson missed no opportunity to demonstrate that his morale and his hectic campaign had not been hurt when his confidant and close adviser betrayed his trust.
And it was nearly midnight, after his return to Washington, before the President made his first public comment, saying he never before had received any word questioning the personal conduct of Mr. Jenkins.

THE CRISIS in the Kremlin seemed to catch the Presidential party completely by surprise, and the only nugget passed back to the press plane was that the President was watching developments closely.

In New York he saw and was seen by the largest crowds that have greeted any candidate to date in this presidential campaign, and he spared neither his tired voice nor his hurting hands. Where the day before he had sharply cut the length of his talks to save his faltering voice, in New York the President seemed determined to talk for as long as people would listen. He spoke at an airport rally in Rochester, N. Y., to launch his 14-hour day laboring in the campaign vineyard, then flew to Buffalo for another talk notable for its lavish praise of Robert F. Kennedy. Whereupon he returned to New York City for the triumphant climax of his two-day campaign swing, addressing a capacity Liberal party rally at Madison Square Garden.

EVEN DISCOUNTING the ghastly crowd estimates uttered by political hacks with double, triple and sometimes even quadruple vision, President Johnson's motorcade through Brooklyn and Manhattan drew hundreds of thousands of wildly partisans. All day long Mr. Johnson's spacious coach was occupied by a number of Democratic office seekers, none more tenacious than Robert Kennedy.

Among extravagant assessments of the 38-year-old former attorney general, Mr. Johnson coined these—
"A reputation that is known throughout the world . . . a name that is beloved in every household . . . experience . . . training . . . demonstrated abilities."

ONE JADED PASSENGER aboard the press aircraft listened to this remarkable recital of senatorial virtues and observed that Mr. Johnson was almost making Mr. Kennedy sound like vice presidential timber.
Most of the reporters who have grown old trying to keep up with the President would have preferred more real news and less razzle-dazzle in the long, sorghum-drenched day. But reporters carry few prejudices and it was plain from the adoration of the multitudes that Lyndon Johnson, political magician, knew what he was up to.

THE FLY-IN RALLIES, the gaudy motorcades, the noisy escort of motorcycles and helicopters, the whole frantic apparatus of a Johnson-style campaign were just what the people who vote seemed to want.

Go To Austin

Brochures describing the scenic beauties of Austin are examined by members of the Insurance Women of Big Spring who will be in that city this weekend. Representatives from the local group to the state convention of the Federation of Insurance Women of Texas are standing, Mrs. Ed Settles and Mrs. Frank Morphis, and seated, Mrs. Tommy Harvell, Mrs. Henry Bell and Mrs. Jack Milam. Not shown is Mrs. Curtis Choate who will accompany the group Thursday morning. The women plan to return Sunday evening.

Pre-Nuptial Tea Held For Miss Harding

Miss Judy Harding, bride-elect of Fred Brown, was honored Saturday evening with a gift tea in the home of Mrs. Jim Hodnett, Vincent. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Claud Hodnett, Mrs. Henry Ernst, Mrs. J. I. McNeil, Mrs. David Kelly, Mrs. B. O. Brown, Mrs. F. C. Appleton, Mrs. Loyd Hodnett, Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mrs. Marvin Dupuy, Mrs. Elm Dunn, Mrs. Jack Dunn and Mrs. Deck Coleman. The honoree, who was present, wore a corsage of white carnations tied with blue ribbon, was assisted in receiving guests by her mother, Mrs. Pat Harding, her sister, Mrs. Billie Harding of Andrews, and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Lewis Hefflin. The mothers were given carnation corsages tied with white ribbon. Over 40 guests were registered in the bride's book between the calling hours of 7 and 9 p.m. Refreshments were served from a table laid with a blue and white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of blue and white carnations. Flanking the centerpiece were blue candles in white milk glass holders. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Martha Kallus, Midland; Miss Jewel Fields, Miss Deanie Freeman, Miss Clara Ponder, Miss Thieliam F. Nolen, Mrs. Irene Cook and Mrs. E. O. Sanderson, all of Big Spring; and Mrs. Jerry Harding, Snyder. Miss Harding and Brown plan to be married Saturday in the Baptist Church at Vincent.

Dinner Held At Church

A joint meeting of the Men's Brotherhood and the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Church of God met in regular session Tuesday night with the president, Mrs. Truett Thomas, presiding. A Mexican supper was served, preceding the study of Spanish American missions. Miss Anna Smith introduced the study by telling the locations of Spanish American missions in the United States and Mexico. Fred Whitaker discussed the customs and traditions of Spanish Americans and showed slides of Mexico and its people. Mrs. Paul Chappell led the group in two Spanish songs. An all-church Thanksgiving dinner will be served Nov. 22.

Woman's Society Has Salad Supper

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday at Kentwood Methodist Church for a salad supper. Mrs. Henry Parmenter presided. A rummage sale was planned for Nov. 7, and announcement was made of the district meeting to be held in November at Wesley Methodist Church. The Rev. Henry Salley gave the devotion stressing that Christians should not be conformed to the world but rather transformed into witnesses for Christ. Mrs. Raymond Hamby gave the closing prayer for 16 members.

Dallas Trio Visits In Matthes Home

KNOTT (SC) - Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Matthes were her aunt, Mrs. Ethel Smartt, and her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gay, Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Froman and family attended the State Fair in Dallas and visited with their daughter, Miss Gordine Froman. Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Shortes were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell D. Shortes, and daughter, Tonia Kay, and Bill Fonda, all of Big Spring. The Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Mitcham were in Abilene Sunday.

Installation Held For Church Unit

Mrs. W. F. Taylor, a guest, installed new officers for the Emily Andrews Sunday school class of First Baptist Church at a Monday evening meeting in the home of Mrs. D. G. Harris, 1903 Dixie. A charm bracelet set the theme of the installation. As each officer was installed, and told her duties, she pinned a charm to a large gold bracelet. Taking office were Mrs. Bill Irwin, teacher; Mrs. John Gary, president; Mrs. Sidney Clark, vice president; Mrs. Harold Hall, secretary; and Mrs. Harold McAllister, recording secretary. Named team captains were Mrs. Ted Hull, Mrs. Wayne Bonner and Mrs. Zack Gray. A lighted pumpkin centerpiece accented the Halloween theme used on the refreshment table where members and Mrs. Taylor were served. The next meeting will be Nov. 2.

Lodges Hold Special Events

A special program was held in one of the Rebekah lodges this week for past grands and past noble grands, and an initiation service was conducted in the other lodge group. JOHN A. KEE LODGE Members honored the past grands and past noble grands at the meeting of John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge No. 153 Tuesday evening at the lodge hall. Attending were 19 past noble grands and three past grands. Plans were completed to assist the Odd Fellows with a benefit chicken spaghetti supper Oct. 29 at 6 p.m. in the lodge hall. Tickets are being sold by Rebekah and Odd Fellow members. A resolution of sympathy was read for the late G. W. Chapman, father of Mrs. Gerald Wilborn. An invitation was given to the lodge to participate in a school of instruction in the Big Spring Rebekah Lodge No. 284 on Nov. 14. Chairman of the program committee, Mrs. L. S. Bonner, was assisted by Mrs. O. G. Burns and Mrs. Garland Land in conducting a series of games and presenting a special program. The participants were costumed. Winning prizes were Mrs. Jim Ferguson, H. F. Jarrett, Mrs. E. Lee Thackrey and John Cate. Refreshments were served.

Workshop Conducted

Mrs. Fannie Clark and Miss Charlene Gains were hostesses in the Veterans Administration Hospital nurses quarters Tuesday to members of the After Five Garden Club. Mrs. Robert Stripling conducted a workshop on flower arranging. The guest speaker outlined the principles of floral design stressing that color and balance were necessary for the art of arranging. She judged arrangements presented by the club members and demonstrated improvements in their design. Following the meeting the flowers were given to community rest homes. Refreshments were served at a table decorated in the Halloween motif. Pumpkins, fall fruits and dried material were arranged in a basket as a centerpiece. Mrs. E. Gene Gifford was a guest. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. D. G. Thomas, 1907 Mittel, on Nov. 17.

Elected To Committee

Mrs. Huey Rogers was named to the state committee on public relations at the District 25, Licensed Vocational Nurses Association meeting held in Abilene on the weekend. Other local delegates who attended were Mrs. Jack Cox, Mrs. Willie Lee Butler and Mrs. Andy Jones. Mrs. George O'Brien, Big Spring, presented Gideon Bibles to student guests. Monahans L. V. N. A., District 60, received the gold cup for membership, and Mrs. Marguerite Gailey of District 26, San Angelo, was named state president and San Angelo will be the site of the 1965 convention. A scholarship of $150 was awarded a Lubbock student.

Plans, Studies Made By Women's Groups

Special study programs were held and coming events planned by several church groups this week. FIRST CHRISTIAN Mrs. John Black Jr., 1505 Eleventh Place, was hostess to the Ruth Circle Tuesday when projects of the organization were announced. Mrs. Justin Holmes told of the three school bags to be sent overseas that had been filled by the members. They will be dedicated at a service Nov. 6 at 10 a.m. at the First Methodist Church. A gift box was filled for patients at the Big Spring State Hospital. Members were reminded of the district meeting of the United Council of Church Women to be held Thursday at the First Christian Church. Registration will begin at 9 a.m. and a luncheon will be held at noon in Fellowship Hall. A nursery will be provided for the children and they should be furnished sack lunches. Mrs. Brown Rogers gave the devotion on the letters of Paul, and Mrs. Preach Martin conducted a study from the book of Matthew. Twelve members and two guests attended. The Nov. 17 meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Martin. BEREA BAPTIST A panel discussion entitled "How WMU Began" was conducted Tuesday morning at Berea Baptist Church by the Woman's Missionary Society. Participants were Mrs. John Wadhill, Mrs. Roy Collins, Mrs. P. R. Branon, Mrs. Morris Manikins and Mrs. Darrell Robinson. They were attired in costumes of the 1880s. Mrs. Joe Smitherman gave the call to prayer, and Mrs. Duke Baker worded the devotion for the 30 attending, including seven new members. COLLEGE BAPTIST The Violet Orr Circle of College Baptist Church met Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Willis Walker, 3311 Eleventh Place, to elect new officers. They are Mrs. Gorman Rainey, chairman; Mrs. Jack Swearingen, program; Mrs. Thomas Whitworth, mission study; Mrs. L. C. Alston, prayer; Mrs. Bobby Zellars, community missions; Mrs. Walker, stewardship; Mrs. Cliff Balzer, secretary.

treasurer; and Mrs. L. B. Thomas, telephone. Mrs. Swearingen gave the call to prayer and devotion, and Mrs. Balzer worded a prayer for the eight members present. The next meeting will be Oct. 27 at 9:30 in the church to organize an extension circle. FIRST METHODIST Two circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church held a joint meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Bill Ward, 2302 Lynn. The Fannie Hodges Circle and the Sylvia Lamun Circle will meet together for the next four weeks to hold a Spanish-American study. Mrs. Ward discussed the Spanish-American heritage and Mrs. H. M. Fitzhugh told of the history and mission of these people. Mrs. Bob Hoover discussed their culture, and Mrs. Robert C. Hill spoke on worship to the 18 members who attended the session. The next meeting will be Oct. 27 in the home of Mrs. Charles Bell, 2213 Cecilia. WESTSIDE BAPTIST Mrs. C. L. Kirklind, 1302 W. 5th, was hostess to the Bonnie Phillips Circle of Westside Baptist Church Tuesday morning and gave the Bible study on the beginning of missions from the book of Genesis. Mrs. Ted Brown gave the benediction, and Mrs. J. W. Trantham presided. Refreshments were served to 12 members.

Arrive Here To Visit Mrs. Tate. Mrs. Clyde Angel is expecting her sister, Mrs. Walter Hix, Corpus Christi, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Tate Jr., Lubbock, to arrive here today. The guests will be here to visit with their mother, Mrs. G. W. Tate, who has been a patient at Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital for the past two weeks.

BY SPEAKER
TOPS Pound Rebels Shown Cosmetics Use
TOPS Pound Rebels met in the Student Union Building at Howard County Junior College Tuesday evening to hear a program on cosmetics entitled, "Fashion 22." The guest speaker was Mrs. Mary Lee, Odessa, who stressed the need for moisture rather than oil in the skin. Two members, Mrs. Leslie Yater and Mrs. William Harp, served as models. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Raymond Woolvorton and Mrs. J. H. Talton. Mrs. Melvin Shanks and Mrs. Richard Boleto were visitors. Members who had gained weight during the week were asked to furnish special entertainment for the group. The next session will be Oct. 27 in the First Federal Savings and Loan Association building.

Evening Auxiliary Meets At Supper
Mrs. Lucian Jones, 1202 W. 16th, was hostess to the Evening Lions Auxiliary Tuesday evening at a salad supper. She was assisted by Mrs. Irvin Fenley. Refreshments were served to eight members at a table covered with an aqua and white embroidered cloth. An arrangement of roses was used as the centerpiece. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. J. O. Hagood, 701 Highland, Nov. 17.

Taft Proves Tough Foe In Ohio's Senate Race

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — a fall forced him from his bid to take the Democratic senatorial nomination from 75-year-old Sen. Stephen M. Young. Injuries suffered by Glenn in

Jury Finds Defendant Sane Then, Insane Now

Antonio DeLeon, young Latin American charged with felony theft and assault with intent to rape was sane on Aug. 24—the date of his offense—but is not sane at this time. This was the finding of a jury in 118th District Court Tuesday and, as a result of the verdict, DeLeon has been taken to the Big Spring State Hospital for treatment. Should it develop later on the young defendant is held to have recovered his sanity, he can be brought back to court and tried for the indictments against him. As long as he continues mentally ill, he cannot be prosecuted for the charges.

The jurors took an hour to decide the fate of DeLeon. They had heard testimony by Dr. Frankie Williams, with the Big Spring State Hospital, that DeLeon is now mentally ill. Gil Jones, district attorney, had ordered the youth sent to the State Hospital for observation some weeks ago.

Jones did not contest the defense contention that DeLeon is now insane, but he did resist, successfully, the defense theory that the defendant was insane Aug. 24 when he stole Police Chief Jay Banks' car. On the same date, it is alleged he forced his way into a Big Spring residence where he attempted to rape a young girl.

As matters turned out, the DeLeon case will be the only jury trial at this week's term of court. Three other cases had been announced ready when Judge Ralph Caton suspended the docket Monday. Tuesday, however, the court was told none of these cases would be tried—defense attorneys asking that they be given more time to prepare their cases.

As a result, at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, District Clerk Fern Cox and his deputies were instructed to contact all members of the jury panel, who had been told his seat against the challenge of Rep. at Large Robert Taft Jr., who bears the state's most famous Republican family name. Young is a veteran Democratic campaigner. Fresh out of law school, he won his way into Ohio's General Assembly in 1912 — five years before Taft was born. In 1958, when defeat of a right-to-work proposal also swept most Ohio Republicans out of office, Young unseated Sen. John Bricker.

Taft is the son of the late "Mr. Republican," Sen. Robert A. Taft, and grandson of President William Howard Taft. He has been building his own reputation for almost a decade in the Ohio Legislature and now, in his first term in Congress.

Young has a reputation as a scrapper. His letters to constituents pull no punches. In reply to one letter which he considered offensive, for instance, he answered: "Dear sir, you are a liar."

Taft has been described as cool and deliberate. He has an infectious chuckle, is a handshaker — but not a backslapper, aides say — and generally appears more at ease than his father in crowds.

Taft, at 47, is considered to have a fine future in the Republican party, and some of those partisans fond of taking long-range views picture him in the White House.

He is the favorite in this contest, but the inevitable question of his relationship with Sen. Barry M. Goldwater comes up. "We feel that Bob can attract more independent voters than Goldwater," says State Rep. Robert F. Beckman, Taft's campaign manager and long-time friend. "Of course, if the national ticket does well in Ohio — and Goldwater is expected to carry our state — it will help Bob."

Young refers to his opponent as "Junior," says he is against "Birch, Barry and Bob," and predicts: "The major factor in this election will be my record contrasted with Junior's."

Will Chair Conference

A representative from the Veterans Administration Hospital here, C. E. McDonnell, will serve as chairman for a one-day conference at the VA Hospital in Martin, Texas, Friday. Representatives from VA facilities in Texas will meet to discuss and seek solutions to mutual problems in registrar and medical administrative functions.

McDonnell and B. H. Hammack, chief and assistant chief of the medical administrative service at the hospital here, will attend from Big Spring.

The agenda includes suggested topics, problems and questions from various VA stations as well as the consideration and evaluation of studies presently being conducted at some stations.

The group will have an opportunity to discuss and interpret together new laws and regulations concerning the hospitalization and care of veterans, McDonnell pointed out. McDonnell became registrar at the hospital here in May, 1963, and assumed the present post in June of this year.

Boosters See Robe Samples

Samples of new choir robes which the Big Spring Choir Boosters are planning to purchase for Goliad and Runnels junior high schools were displayed at a get-acquainted meeting of the group at the Goliad cafeteria Tuesday night.

"We hope to order them in time for the Christmas programs at the schools," Mrs. William F. Nolen, president of the group, related. The meeting Tuesday night included a discussion on means to raise funds for purchase of the robes.

The robes proposed would be scarlet with white trim for Runnels Junior High and black with white for Goliad.

Tryouts For Play Stated

Members of the Big Spring Civic Theatre have opened the doors to everyone interested, to try out for a part in the forthcoming production of "Hansel and Gretel," a children's play. All residents are invited to attend the tryouts Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. or Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Prairie Playhouse of City Park.

In addition to persons for parts on stage, the organization needs others to work on sets and do other jobs backstage. There is a limited number of parts for children who may be qualified. Mrs. Betty Kasher and Mrs. Sally Carr will conduct the tryouts.

Zales Reports Record Sales

Zale Jewelry Company, Inc., has reported record sales and earnings for the six months ended Sept. 30, 1964. Net sales were $40,548,689, a gain of 20.4 per cent over the $33,689,350 reported for the same period a year ago.

Net earnings rose 15.1 per cent to reach $1,501,025, or 43 cents per share, based on 3,514,397 shares outstanding. This compares with $1,304,491, or 38 cents per share for the same period a year ago and adjusted to reflect stock dividends paid on the Class B Common Stock Jan. 10, 1964. The Dallas-based jewelry company currently has 380 stores in operation, an increase of 80 units within the past 12 months.

CARD OF THANKS

Man Who Faced Disdain Trod Path To High Respect

NEW YORK (AP) — His humor was gentle; his sense of irony, acute; his passion for brevity, intense. In 1957, when he was 83 years old, already an ex-president 24 years and no longer charmed by the novelty, Herbert Hoover went to Independence, Mo., to help dedicate the library of another ex-president, Harry S. Truman. He sat on the platform in 91-degree weather, and, from his half-closed eyes and pursing mouth, it was difficult to tell which he suffered from more, the heat or the oratory. Later, the 31st president of the United States was invited to the home of his friend, the 33rd president of the United States, for refreshment. A gushing matron cornered Hoover. What she asked, do ex-presidents do with all their time? "Madame," he said, "we spend our time taking pills and dedicating libraries." It wasn't true. Hoover, at 83 and more, worked twice as much as most men half his age, but like all his humor, the remark was delivered deadpan from a square, apple-red face. The words seemed to have been bitten off a fresh stalk of celery. The lines at the edges of his mouth remained turned down. Under the wispy brows, a twinkle lurked behind the misty blue eyes — the look of a man who could no longer be surprised or hurt by the affairs of men. In his later days, Hoover often was asked if he could explain how his public image had run the gamut from extreme bitterness and disdain to enduring respect, which invariably made him recall: "You know the first time I came here after leaving the White House, only two people sought me out. And they sneaked in through the woods so nobody would see them." He wrote his many books and his many speeches — as a president or private citizen he never employed a ghost writer — always with a short stubby pencil. He scorned tape recorders, dictation machines, even ball point pens as "stimulants of verbosity." In his endless search to prune the unnecessary word or phrase, he had been known to rewrite a speech 28 times. He resisted the temptation to pontificate.

Justices In Fist Battle
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The aged Chief Justice of Louisiana and a colleague settled differences with their fists in the court's sedate chambers. "He finally called me an SOB," said Associate Justice Walter Hamlin, 66, describing his go-round with Chief Justice John Fournet, 69. "I took my glasses off and told him he could not call me that," said Hamlin. "I would not stand for that from anyone." Fournet, taller and with a longer reach, whipped off his glasses, too. Hamlin came out of the scrap with a half dozen stitches over his left eye. The chief justice apologized after the brief battle. Fournet was lieutenant gover-

Lodge Against Another Asian Peace Meeting

DALLAS (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, former U.S. ambassador to Viet-Nam, said Tuesday night he would oppose another conference on maintaining peace in Southeast Asia. "The last one was violated before the ink was dry," he said in an interview. "We don't need conferences or neutralization agreements. What we need is the will to carry out what we have." Lodge, arriving here for a foreign policy address to the Dallas Council on World Affairs today, declined to discuss politics in this country. He said Red China's explosion of a nuclear device should occasion no immediate alarm. "In the long run it will increase Chinese Communist influence," Lodge said, "but for the short view there should be no difference." Of the change in Russian leadership he said: "I can only view it with interest. It is very much of an enigma."
