REFINERY BLAZE LURES MANY RESIDENTS
Spectacular night fire causes some damage, no injuries

Cosden Plant Damaged In Spectacular Night Fire

A Thursday night blaze, that appeared more spectacular than it actually was, put Cosden Oil & Chemical Company's Unifiner unit out of operation temporarily. Flames spewed as high as 70 feet briefly, but there were no injuries. Surveys of damage, which was confined to a relatively small area, were being made Friday morning, and no estimates are therefore available, said Jack Y. Smith, manager of industrial relations. Cause of the fire appeared to be a ruptured gasket at a flange near the base of the Unifiner tower. A truck driver reported he heard a sharp pop at 9:32 p.m. Operators on the unit were immediately aware of the break. Instantly they began reducing the 200 pounds per square inch pressure, but before this could be effected, the liquid vaporized and flashed. Because the blaze was near the base of the tower, flames climbed up the superstructure, and in time they caused other gaskets to burn, adding to the torch which climbed almost straight up. Sight of the flames leaping up the tower attracted motorists as though they were moths. Officers said that for a time traffic on IS 20 and the access roads leading to Cosden was almost bumper to bumper. Once the pressure had been reduced and plant personnel sprayed the tower to keep it cool, the fire was left to run its course. To have done otherwise, explained Smith, would have run the risk of vapors collecting elsewhere and flashing. Pressure reduction had to be coordinated with the feed lines in the refinery to the south and to the discharge lines from the unit, thus this operation had to be done with deliberation. The Unifiner, which extracts remaining traces of sulphur, is charged with straight run gasoline. Other operations of the refinery and petrochemical units will not be materially affected by the inactive unit. It will have to be completely reworked before being put back into service.

Poppies Will Blossom In Big Spring Saturday

Poppy Day will again be observed in Big Spring Saturday when members of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Junior Auxiliary will man a dozen stands and do some house-to-house canvassing in distributing paper replicas of the WWI Flanders Field flower. The event is a memorial to the nation's war dead. "The wearing of the Poppy keeps in mind the sacrifices of war heroes, but further helps honor them by giving aid to needy living veterans," Mrs. Zelda Rea, who heads the committee for the observance, said. Mayor George Zachariah, a Legion past commander, has made the annual proclamation setting Poppy Day in Big Spring, and has urged all citizens to participate by wearing the flower. He also suggests that calls to Gold-Star mothers will let them know their sons have not been forgotten. Veterans in the VA hospitals are employed by the American Legion each year to manufacture the paper poppies. To most of them, it is their only source of income and their only revenue for comfort items, not furnished by the hospital. Possibly of more importance is the therapy that this employment affords so many disabled veterans, unable to compete in the usual fields of employment. The sense of usefulness and of being earners is of great benefit. T. A. Thigpen was chosen for the honor of receiving the first poppy this year. As he kicked off the program with his contribution he recalled assisting Mrs. Thigpen and other members of the auxiliary in establishing Poppy Day just after World War II. He was one of the early commanders of Legion Post 355 and has served as district commander. He has been a president of the Optimist Club and supports other youth programs. For 15 years his gift of a box of baseballs has inaugurated the Legion baseball season for the teenagers.

First Poppy Day Contribution

T. A. Thigpen, past commander of the American Legion post and district, has poppy pinned on by Mrs. Zelda Rea, Legion Auxiliary Poppy Day chairman, as he makes the first contribution to aid disabled war veterans.

Peking Hails Nik's Topple

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China hailed today the downfall of Nikita Khrushchev and voiced confidence the Chinese-Soviet squabble will be settled gradually. But it indicated reconciliation would have to come on Peking's terms. The statements were contained in a 2,800-word editorial scheduled to appear Saturday in the Peking's People's Daily — the Communist Chinese party organ — to mark the 47th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

There were indications Premier Chou En-lai, in Moscow to attend anniversary celebrations, would stick close to the line espoused by the editorial in any talks he may have with Soviet officials to patch up differences. The editorial, broadcast by Peking's New China News Agency, indicated it held Khrushchev responsible for the deep split between Peking and Moscow. The Chinese assailed Khrushchev after reiterating their stand that to safeguard the unity of international communism there must be "an uncompromising struggle against all forms of opportunism which bespeak Marxism-Leninism, especially modern revisionism which is the main danger to the international Communist movement today."

Architect Group Cites 16 Texans

DALLAS (AP) — Sixteen Texans were cited today by the Texas Society of Architects for improving aesthetic values in their towns. The citations were made in connection with the society's annual meeting. Those honored included Winston Earley, Odessa manager of the Texas Electric Service Co. T. T. Hunt, editor-in-chief of the Beaumont Enterprise and Journal; R. B. Butler of Bryan; A. C. Hamilton, director of parks and recreation for Lubbock; Supt. Joe McNeil of Wichita Falls schools; Mayor F. V. Wallace of Amarillo, and Supt. A. E. Wells of the Abilene schools.

BULLETIN

LA JUNTA, Colo. (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board said today that all persons died in a plane crash involving five persons, four from Texas. Victims were not immediately identified.

Barry Flies To Capital

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater flies to Washington today for a brief business stop before going on a vacation, reportedly to Jamaica.

The defeated Republican presidential nominee planned to take care of some business from the Senate job he is leaving. He withdrew from the race for re-election when he won the GOP nomination to oppose President Johnson.

Goldwater and his wife planned to go to their Washington apartment, which the senator said he will keep although he is going to move back to Phoenix.

Paul F. Wagner, press secretary, said the Goldwaters probably would leave during the weekend for a vacation. They have not said where they are going but their vacation spot is rumored to be in Jamaica. Wagner said that Goldwater's plans would not be made public.

Ford Strike On; Dallas Plant Hit

Auto Supply Ample For About Month

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union struck today against key Ford Motor Co. manufacturing and assembly plants over unsettled local labor agreements.

At least eight out of 11 unsettled units were struck. The walkout left Ford with a selling supply of about 32 days of autos and a 38-selling-days supply of trucks.

The effect on production could not immediately be detailed, but indications were Ford could make some autos for two weeks or more.

STRUCK UNITS

A Ford spokesman said assembly plants were struck this morning at Dallas; Wayne, Mich.; truck; Wayne autos; Chicago stamping; Ypsilanti, Mich., manufacturing; Sheffield, Ala., manufacturing; Sterling Twp., Mich., manufacturing, and Louisville assembly.

The status of the assembly plant at St. Louis and manufacturing plants at Bedford, Ohio, and Buffalo, N.Y. was not immediately determined.

The bargaining units had their international union's approval to walk out at 10 a.m. if settlements were lacking at that hour.

LOCAL CONTRACTS

Only those plants with unsettled local contracts which supplement the national agreement, signed in September, were given permission to strike. Ford has 160,000 production workers in 90 bargaining units across the country.

Road Deaths At New Peak

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's traffic deaths in the first nine months this year hit an all-time record, and the toll appeared racing to a record high in 1964.

The National Safety Council said today there were 34,570 deaths on highways from Jan. 1 to Oct. 1. The total was an increase of 10 per cent over the 31,310 killed in traffic accidents in the corresponding three quarters of last year.

The council said the nation's traffic fatalities, which for 20 consecutive months have exceeded those of the same month of a year earlier, apparently will reach a toll of about 48,000 this year. That would be an all-time high after the previous record of 43,600 deaths last year.

Highway deaths for the 12-month period up to Oct. 1 totaled 46,860, an increase of 10 per cent over the 42,655 in the preceding 10 months.

Traffic fatalities in September totaled 4,070, a record for the month. The council said the increase of 2 per cent over the 3,990 deaths in September last year reflected a curb on the rising accident death record, adding the August toll of 4,870 was 13 per cent up from 4,310 in August 1963.

Rancher LBJ In Seclusion

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson had a relaxed, no-appointments schedule today at his ranch home near here.

Aides said there were no plans for the President to see any government officials during the day nor to make any appearances outside the ranch property.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Bob Hope was named today to be master of ceremonies for the 37th Academy Awards presentation, scheduled next April 5 at Santa Monica.

Climbing Up Fast

Coahoma United Fund workers admire the rapid climb of the campaign indicator this morning, as it marked the highest amount ever collected for the annual effort. The city set a target of $1,000, and $600 of this is now in hand. All monies collected there are deposited in the Coahoma bank. From left, they are Mayor Ralph White, Wendell Shive, Supt. of Schools W. A. Wilson, and Bill Read. Carlton Chapman, right, is chairman of the UF area division.

United Fund Campaign Is 80 Per Cent Complete

The United Fund campaign added almost $10,000 to its total since the last report, and this morning had $88,287.77 in hand or pledged. This represents a bit more than 80 per cent of the projected target of $109,366.

Cosden Oil & Chemical Company employees have achieved a substantial per capita gain in giving.

Although there are 57 less employees than was the case a year ago, the employees took up virtually all the slack, lacking only about $24 contributing as much as in 1963. The per capita giving, as reported to the United Fund, was $11.40 as against $11.09 last year.

Several divisions made substantial increases to put the drive nearer the goal, however the Big Gifts Division is still leading the pack with 84 per cent, $33,705.

The Public Employees Division is close behind with 78 per cent, $17,258. Of the total, the Webb AFB section has $10,497 and the other section has $6,761.

The Special Gifts Division has 77 per cent, $7,653; the Employee Division has 76 per cent, $20,600; and the Out-of-Town Division has 75 per cent, $5,641.

The Area Division has 53.5 per cent, $1,070, and the Metropolitan Division has 47 per cent, $2,358.

Scion Will Wed Actress

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lance Reventlow, 28, son of one of the world's richest women, will marry actress Cheryl Holdridge next Sunday.

Reventlow's mother is Princess Barbara Hutton Champa-cak. She telephoned Thursday from Paris that her doctors have advised against making the trip to Los Angeles. She gave the couple a 2½-acre country estate near Beverly Hills as a wedding gift. The house has five bedrooms, six baths and a swimming pool.

Contract Awarded For New Center

Contract has been awarded to A. P. Kasch & Sons for construction of a building to house the Howard County Rehabilitation Center and the city-county health unit.

Kasch was low with a base bid of $1,136,200, and the contract was awarded on this basis, said Horace Garrett, member of the board of the Dora Roberts Foundation, which has made funds available for the project.

Four alternates, which aggregated $8,630 in Kasch's bid, were not exercised. Garrett said that some negotiation was due to continue on these items. The project appears to be slightly over funds originally allocated by the foundation.

Garrett said that no time had been fixed for issuing a work order, but he indicated this might come within the next week or two. Title to the half block site between Second and Third Streets on the Lancaster Street side is due to be cleared early next week.

The two agencies will have completely separated quarters with the health unit facing north on Second and the rehabilitation center facing south on Third. Both will have off-street parking facilities and the center is due to have an enclosed outdoor area for part of the physiotherapy program.

The building, with steel frame and precast concrete aggregate panels and some glass panels, will contain over 9,000 square feet of floor space.

The foundation made its grant for the project in December of 1962, and since then numerous problems of a site, coordinating city-county operational relations, planning and others have been tackled.

Bids were opened in the First National Bank conference room with approximately three dozen contractors, suppliers and others. Rose Construction Company of Midland was second low with a base proposal of $1,410,000 but its $8,450 offer for the alternates left it still $4,020 over the Kasch overall bid.

R. G. Farrell, Odessa, was next with a proposal of $1,459,945, and the other three bids ranged up to a top of $1,489,058. Gary and Hohertz are the architects on the project.

Dear Abby

It's Not The Management

DEAR ABBY: The letter about the office hay ride party prompted this comment because, for the past ten years, that is what I have been arguing with my husband about. He works for a big company and almost every other weekend they have a party for someone who is being married, transferred, retired, or for any other reason they can think up. Husbands and wives are not invited. I've heard my husband and some of his co-workers talk about what goes on at these parties, and believe me, I don't like it. There is drinking and dancing, and the young unmarried girls fall all over the married men. My husband always has the money for these office parties, but just let me ask him for a few dollars for something the kids or I need, and he HAS to go to these parties. I say, like heck he does. When the company stopped the annual Christmas party, and gave each employe a turkey instead, I was so happy. Why does the management permit these other parties to go on? It only causes hard feelings between the employes and their families.

NOT INVITED

DEAR NOT: If you will investigate, you'll probably find that the management has nothing to do with these parties. They are organized by the employes (usually one or two with unsatisfied drives). Management bends over backwards to encourage family unity and to discourage the kind of togetherness outside the office that you describe. And only those who want to participate do so.

DEAR ABBY: Every night I am awakened by the voice of a strange woman giving my husband French lessons. This is done via a tape recorder, a timer and a speaker which is placed under his pillow. The lessons last approximately one-half hour while my 200-pound slumbers. It would not be so bad if I were not awakened during the night by other sounds. The baby needs changing, or wants his bottle, or has an occasional nightmare. Please tell me, Abby, am I unreasonable to object to having a French lesson at 2 a.m.?

MOTHER OF 7 AND TIRED DEAR MOTHER: Non!

DEAR ABBY: A few weeks ago I had a birthday party for my twin sons, who were five years old. We sent one invitation to each child and signed it John and Jack. Each child who attended the twins' party brought two gifts—one for each twin. Now each of my twins has received an invitation to attend the birthday party of one of the boys who attended theirs. Do you think this was a hint that the little boy expects two gifts? One from each twin? Thank you.

DEAR PUZZLED: When twins give one gift "from the twins" it is usually twice as expensive as one gift would have been. I don't know whether individual invitations were sent as a "hint" that two gifts were expected, but if you have any such suspicions, put your mind at ease and send two gifts.

Malady Bill At $1 Million

HOUSTON (AP)—City Health Director C. A. Pigford estimates Houston's recent outbreak of encephalitis—or sleeping sickness—cost the community $1 million.

He said the figures include $122,000 for chemicals, about $200,000 for salaries for various government agency workers and about $190,000 to hospitals in treating patients with the illness.

He said businessmen lost about $500,000 in revenue because of the outbreak and fear among out-of-town people and local residents who stayed away from stores.

A proposition to create a mosquito control district was approved last Tuesday by the voters.

Illinois Still Tallying Vote

CHICAGO (AP)—Speed was the keynote in naming winners in Tuesday's election, but not in Illinois.

Teams of counters plugged away today, three days after the voting, on the mammoth job of determining the 177 winners from 258 at large candidates for the Illinois House of Representatives.

The candidates were listed on an orange-colored paper ballot three feet long, and voters could pick as many of the candidates as they wanted, up to the 177 limit.

It was the first time in the country's history that a legislative chamber was elected from an entire state, rather than from districts.

Although some of the smaller of the state's 102 counties had their votes tallied Thursday, counting in the larger cities, especially Chicago, dragged on, with the end still several days off. By Thursday only about one-third of the vote in the densely populated Chicago area had been counted.

Political parties accused each other of delaying the counting, and in Chicago three Democratic candidates filed suit in Circuit Court charging that the Republicans were delaying the count by failing to provide enough tally clerks.

Democratic Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago accused the GOP of a "determined slowdown" in the counting. Republicans blamed the confusion on the Democrats and called for two 10-hour shifts each day, instead of the around-the-clock marathon.

Defeated But Not Stopped

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite his defeat in last Tuesday's election, New York's Sen. Kenneth B. Keating intends to remain active in politics.

"I've no plans to seek another elective post," the 64-year-old Republican said in an interview in his Washington office, "but I'm not going to retire."

His plans are still up in the air and he's in no hurry to rush them now. He expressed hope they might include some form of government service.

WAS DEFEATED

The white-haired senator was defeated by Democrat Robert F. Kennedy in an election which saw President Johnson carry New York State in a massive landslide. Johnson won New York over Sen. Barry Goldwater by more than 2.6 million votes. Kennedy bested Keating by about 650,000 votes.

Keating feels that he ran a good race and said he was gratified by the record number of New Yorkers who split their tickets to vote for him.

He harbors no ill feelings toward Kennedy and has already agreed to brief the former attorney general on New York congressional matters when he returns from the Caribbean.

Both were members of a delegation which appealed Thursday at the Pentagon for continued operation of the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Keating, who appeared relaxed and in good spirits after more than two months of intense campaigning, said he felt good but had lost 11 pounds since the early part of September.

EXTENDED TRIP

After he leaves office in January, he plans another extended vacation when he hopes to decide his future.

Keating said he has already had some "friendly feelers" but declined to say who they were from or what type of work they involved. He expressed hope that some form of public service might lie in his path but said he had had no contact with administration leaders about this possibility.

He doesn't count out returning to the practice of law and said he'd also like to help the Republican party rebuild itself in a moderate image. He talked of no specific role for himself, however.

Visit Planned To VA Hospital

R. H. Todd Jr., acting manager of the Lubbock Veterans Administration office, and Gerald W. Collingsworth, VA contact officer, will visit the VA hospital here Monday.

The visit is for a discussion of hospital items of mutual interest with the director of the VA facility here, Donald D. Van Meter. Collingsworth will also meet with Ray Boren, local hospital contact representative, and conduct a supervisory audit of hospital contact or veterans informational activities.

LOS ALAMOS, N.M. (AP)—Officials of the International Peace Film Festival at Los Alamos were somewhat concerned when the first entry arrived and the movie was on how to grow better peaches. Then a hasty recheck of the mailing label showed the film had been addressed to "The International Peach Film Festival."

Sooner Teacher Walkout Looms

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Suburban Midwest City school teachers plan a "protest walkout" Monday.

The Oklahoma Education Association called an emergency meeting today to consider the teacher action.

Teacher dissatisfaction with voter rejection Tuesday of four state questions which would have resulted in an expanded school program, including more pay for teachers, had been voiced since the results became known.

The 600 teachers in this area of 36,000 population invited all state public school teachers to join them in discussing methods of getting more funds for education.

Chorus Sings At Webb Club

The first Thanksgiving was the theme at the Officers' Wives Club luncheon held Thursday at the Officers Open Mess at Webb Air Force Base with the choir from Howard County Junior College setting a musical mood. The 33rd FIS wives were the hostesses, and Mrs. Robert Hartzog presided.

Mrs. R. G. Pifand, Mrs. W. E. Lawman, Mrs. V. P. Bakels, Mrs. D. S. Betune and Mrs. C. H. Cole.

The HCJC choir, under the direction of Gary Ebensberger, gave selections that included hymns of thanksgiving, a variety of religious songs and a current Broadway musical number. Marilyn Lawson was the featured soloist.

Mrs. James T. McDaniels was the winner of a turkey, and the centerpiece was won by Mrs. G. W. McKenna. The U. S. Lady award was given to Mrs. Gary Heartsill.

The stage in the ballroom was accented with a life-size mannequin costumed as a Puritan woman standing beside her spinning wheel, and an open Bible was arranged on an Early American table. The speaker's table was decked with autumn leaves and centered with a cornucopia filled with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Gardeners See Film

Individual tables held small pumpkins encircled with flowers, and a table at the entry filled with fruit carried out the theme of a plentiful harvest. The fruit was given as favors to the members and guests.

Members of the Spaders Garden Club viewed a film on the tulip gardens in Holland Thursday when the group met in the home of Mrs. Bob Carlie, 1000 E. 21st. Mrs. John White, guest speaker and former resident of the Netherlands, gave a talk on the pictures.

At the business session a donation of $200 was given to the Air Force Village Foundation, Inc., a non-profit enterprise to provide a home for widows, dependents and retirees.

Mrs. Dale Smith conducted a buzz session on landscaping. She displayed a basic landscape plan and asked each member to select the proper plantings for the scheme.

Mrs. G. W. Green was named chairman of the committee to plan a float for the homecoming parade Nov. 13. It was announced tickets for a gift certificate were on sale with proceeds going to the local junior high schools for the purchase of choir robes.

Miss Bo Bowen, president, announced the Christmas party will be Dec. 10 at 7 p.m. A dinner will be held at Coker's Restaurant, and Mrs. B. D. Dolan, Silver Heels, will be hostess in her home for a social hour.

Knott Residents Have Visitors

Luncheon Follows Book Review By Mrs. Norred

Mrs. Hartzog welcomed new members. They were Mrs. G. B. Rifkin, Mrs. A. A. McNitt, Mrs. R. N. Mercer, Mrs. J. F. Cox, Mrs. D. L. Bruaene, Mrs. L. A. Wegner, Mrs. J. S. Speight, Mrs. J. E. Hamner.

The book, "Protestantism's Appeal to Spanish-Americans," was reviewed Tuesday morning at the First Methodist Church for four morning circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. The review was given by Mrs. W. N. Norred, and was followed with a talk by Mrs. Paul Kionka detailing what the churches are doing in this field.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Shaw had as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stump and Danny, and Mrs. J. N. Hinson, all of Lubbock.

A film, "Amigos Latinos," was shown by Mrs. H. H. Stephens, and Mrs. Norred showed slides taken in Mexico. Thirty-four members were present, and a visitor, Mrs. A. J. Chapman. The group reconvened for lunch at the Spanish Inn.

The Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Mitcham are attending the Texas Baptist Convention in Corpus Christi.

Mrs. Elsie Smith is in Cowper Clinic and Hospital where she is receiving treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Westbrook, visited Mrs. Taylor's brother, J. L. Oliver, and mother this week.

Mrs. D. P. Thompson, 1107 E. 4th, was hostess to the Howard County A&M Mother's Club Thursday evening, and Mrs. Lee Porter was in charge of the business session. A donation was made to the A&M student loan fund. The next meeting will be Dec. 3 in the home of Mrs. Roland Schwarzenbach, 810 W. 14th.

Mrs. W. M. Gage, 1200 Nolan, left Thursday for a visit with her grandson, Richard Hahn, and his family in Dallas.

Prizes for the Tuesday session were donated by Mrs. James Price and Mrs. Dominie Fernandes. Winners were Mrs. Dorsey, Mrs. Jim K. Williams, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. L. J.

Three Talk On Korea

A program entitled "Korea: Ready For Religious Change," was presented Tuesday by the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church in Sand Springs.

Mrs. Dennis Garten, second vice president, conducted the business session, announcing that the Servicemen's Wives Club and the newly-formed Japanese Wives group will have a joint meeting Nov. 11. At that time, a demonstration on flower arranging and Christmas decorating will be given by Roy Peet of Estah's Flowers.

On Nov. 18 Mrs. J. F. Skalicky will demonstrate gift-wrapping, and the meeting will be open to all Webb personnel and their guests. Those attending are asked to bring two boxes, of different sizes, for wrapping. Bows and paper will be furnished.

Hyperions Hear Talk

Mrs. Les-Beauvais reviewed the book, "The Search for Bridget Murphy," at the Wednesday meeting of the 1946 Hyperion Club in the home of Mrs. M. W. Talbot Jr., 1508 Dayton. She used records of a hypnotist's conversation to illustrate her talk.

Mrs. Ollie Denning discussed "Korea, Land of Morning Calm," with Mrs. Bill Tucker telling of the religious life of Korea, and Mrs. Melvin Atwell presenting a tour of cities where Southern Baptist missionaries live.

Mrs. Denning read the prayer calendar, and Mrs. Bob Johnson worded the prayer. Refreshments were served to nine members.

During the business session a donation of $12 was made to the "Buck of the Month" Club at the Big Spring State Hospital. Refreshments were served to 17 members from a table centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums.

Convention Notes Given At Session

Members of the Insurance Women of Big Spring met Thursday at Big Spring Country Club to hear reports on the convention held in Austin Oct. 22-25.

Panelists were Mrs. Curtis Choate, Mrs. Ed Settles, Mrs. Frank Morphis, Mrs. Jack Milam and Mrs. Tommy Harvell. Plans were made to sell holiday candy to support the club charity project. The Dec. 3 meeting will be a Christmas party.

JOY Class Holds Quiz At Meeting

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mrs. Emory Sweat conducted a Bible quiz for members of the JOY Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church when the group met in her home Monday. Mrs. Hoyt Roberts led the singing.

WMU Program Concerns Korea

KNOTT (SC) — The Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday at the church for a Royal Service program on Korea. Mrs. Bruce Parker directed the program, and Mrs. Bobby Roman led the singing. The call to prayer was given by Mrs. Lloyd Robinson, and the president, Mrs. P. A. Mitcham, presided.

Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held Dec. 14 at 6:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall at the church. Mrs. B. D. Taylor and Mrs. Dalton Conway, teachers, will serve on committees with Mrs. W. C. Hutchins, Mrs. Keith Williamson, Mrs. Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. D. J. Barber, Mrs. Otha Conway, Mrs. A. G. Anderson, Mrs. Bill Yarbrough and Mrs. Allis Clemmer.

Mrs. Roberts worded a prayer for the members and a guest, Mrs. T. A. Feese. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Officers were named at the Tuesday evening meeting of the International Wives Club in the First Federal Savings and Loan Association building. Mrs. George Adams will be president for the coming year.

Assisting her will be Mrs. Al Valdes, vice president; Mrs. Charles Dorsey, secretary; and Mrs. Thomas McIntyre, treasurer. A bracelet was presented by the club to the retiring president, Mrs. Roy E. Drinnen.

Refreshments were served to 25 members by Mrs. Drinnen and Mrs. Guillermo Robles. Mrs. Danny Valdes, 1603 Robin, will be hostess Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. when members will fill Christmas clothing boxes for needy families.

HINTS FROM HELOISE Practical Furnishings Make Happy Home

Dear Heloise: I've learned, after a year and a half, to sit back and enjoy my very active son. I only hope my mistakes in furnishing our home might be spared other young couples.

Use window shades instead of Venetian blinds—they are less expensive, much easier on your fingers when it's time to clean, less dangerous for little fingers, and no cords are left dangling to choke innocent babies.

Our 1964 Needlework Book contains a fine selection of crochet, knit, embroidery, quilts, etc., and includes instructions for four designs and also coupon entitling you to any pattern of your choice, free. Send 50 cents. Send 25 cents plus 5 cents postage in coins for this pattern to MARTHA MADISON, the Big Spring Herald, Box 1490, New York 1, N. Y. Add 15 cents for first class mail.

Forget about those exquisite and elegant pieces of furniture—stick to formica tables and poie lamps where possible.

Use stack tables or TV trays for entertaining. That coffee table is a menace.

Dear Heloise: I found that my baby's plastic crib mattress was very hot for him in the summer and very cold in the winter. Putting quilt pads underneath the sheet only made ridges on his little face.

Try out cafe curtains or apron length curtains instead of antique satin wall-to-wall draperies.

Let's face facts—a happy home makes a happy child! Nancy McGovern

I discovered that by putting one of my receiving blankets under the sheet, at the top of his crib where he slept, worked beautifully. It also helps to absorb more when he drools at night, thus not leaving a wet ring on the sheet. The blankets wash and dry easily, too. Betty Richardson

Get slip covers for chairs and couch the day you find out you're pregnant.

After I launder my cafe curtains, I pin a lining of plastic on the wrong side of them as far as my kitchen window opens.

(Write Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald.)

Move precious books and ornaments up high. Better to be able to enjoy them than not at all.

I use tiny safety pins and pin the sheer type large plastic bags (which my husband's shirts come back from the laundry in) just to fit.

This lining is quite invisible and protects the curtain from soil, rubbing against the screen, and certainly saves doing the curtains up so often.

Put safety plugs in all outlets and use locks or straps to keep all cabinets off-limits for busy little fingers.

Any time I have a cantaloupe or honey dew melon to put in the refrigerator, I put it inside a plastic bag and seal it tight with a rubber band. This way the odor does not permeate the refrigerator and our melons are

Opening lead: King of ♦
 The defenders quickly spotted South's Achilles' heel in his four spade contract and, by applying the maximum pressure, they forced him to devise three different plans of campaign before he found a satisfactory solution.

South was content to merely bid one spade, after his partner's overall, for North may have nothing but hearts. Once the fit was uncovered by North's raise to two spades, however, South pulled out the stops and proceeded to game.

West opened the king of diamonds and continued with the ace as East echoed by playing first the eight and then the deuce, to show a doubleton.

West accordingly continued with the jack of diamonds. Declarer cautiously discarded a club from dummy to avoid an overruff. It was his intention eventually to trump his losing club which appeared to be the safer course.

Having apparently located declarer's weak spot, West continued with a fourth round of diamonds. East ruffed with the ten of spades and South overruffed with the queen. The king of trumps was led next and, when East showed out discarding a second club, declarer realized that he must abandon his design for ruffing a club in dummy, inasmuch as it had now become necessary to use North's spades for the purpose of pulling West's trumps.

A small spade was led and, when West followed with the six, North covered with the seven as East parted with a heart. The ace of hearts was cashed, followed by a heart ruff. A trump was led to the ace felling West's jack and on this play, East—who was left with the queen-ten-of-hearts and the Q-9-8 of clubs—found the pressure unbearable.

If East discarded a heart, it would enable declarer to establish North's jack of hearts by ruffing away the queen. East elected to throw a club; however, South now cashed the king of clubs and led a small one to his ace, dropping the queen and jack. His ten of clubs took the final trick.

Taxpayers To Foot Bill For Exotic Trips

WASHINGTON (AP) — Faraway places—the glitter of Paris, the sunny shores of Hawaii and Jamaica, the exotic lands of the East — are beckoning and many members of Congress are answering the call. They will soon be off on official trips.

Stay-at-home taxpayers will pick up the tabs for these journeys which critics of Congress call junkets.

But defenders of legislative customs say it is proper for those who have to decide on such things as foreign aid, international agreements, the building of bases abroad and the like, to see firsthand what is being done with the taxpayers' money.

As one committee aide put it when he said his group has no travel plans, "I'm not proud of it. I think we should have."

At any rate, Congress is in recess, the big election campaign is over, and many suitcases are being packed.

The list of congressional trips already planned includes:
 Attendance by a large group at the NATO parliamentarians' meeting next week in Paris, a regularly scheduled event.

Inspection by members of the House Science and Astronautics Committee of a number of installations in the Far East and the Pacific, especially along the satellite tracking line.

A study of housing and urban problems in Hawaii by members of the House subcommittee on housing.

Attendance by members of the House Judiciary Committee at the semiannual meeting of the Intergovernmental Committee on European Migration, in Geneva.

A trip by House Agriculture members to the Near East and Africa to study the program for using farm surpluses abroad.

Beatles Coming Back On Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
 AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Beatles, who have been rather quiet lately even if their fans have not, will be coming back strong on television soon.

ABC, it turns out, quietly signed the Liverpool long-hairs last August for an hour-long special which will be seen on Sunday, Nov. 15, at the hour usually occupied by "Wagon Train."

Shortly after the ABC announcement CBS said it has a special Beatles show scheduled two days before the ABC special.

This one is called "Around the Beatles" and is an edited version of a motion picture about the singing group during their American tour—but without songs. It will pre-empt "The Entertainers" on Friday, Nov. 13.

CBS, like ABC, has good cause to know the tonic effect of the English group on ratings. The first appearance on its "Ed Sullivan Show" last spring pulled an audience estimated by Nielsen researchers at well over 70 million viewers. The Beatles gave the Sullivan show the highest rating in its long history.

Jack Webb will try again next season with a new CBS series with Polly Bergen, for his star.

CBS said the series would be based on Patricia McGerr's short stories about Selena Mead, a sort of female James Bond with Mata Hari overtones.

Encouragement Of Way-Out Thinker Urged

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Dr. Rodney Tillman, head of the National Education Association's department of elementary education, says offbeat thinkers are often creative and should be encouraged.

In a speech to the Arkansas Education Association's convention Thursday, Tillman reported on an experiment in which a photograph of a smiling airplane passenger with a faraway look on his face was shown to elementary school pupils. Most pupils, said the Minneapolis educator, interpreted the picture thusly: "He is returning from a successful business trip."

But, said Tillman, the most creative pupil said: "He is returning from Reno where he has just divorced his wife."

Weather Pleasant In Most Sectors

By The Associated Press
 It was cloudy, showery and foggy in scattered sections of the nation today but fairly pleasant weather prevailed in wide areas.

Low clouds and fog shrouded broad areas in the central part of the country from Texas to Minnesota. Light rain and drizzle sprinkled much of the Southern and Central Plains.

It also was cloudy, with light rain in many parts of New England, but rain in other parts of the Northeast ended. Fog was reported in parts of the Pacific Northwest.

But skies were expected to clear during the day in most of the nation, with temperatures moving above normal marks in many areas. Readings were in the 60s in the early morning in much of the Lower Mississippi Valley and the mercury was expected to reach the 70s as far north as Missouri and Southern Illinois.

Cooler air dropped temperatures into the 20s again this morning across most of the northern Rockies. The chilly air headed eastward into the western Great Lakes region.

Monkey At Bar, Diner

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Frank Rizzo, bartender at the Swarthmore Hotel, called the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Thursday to report a monkey in the bar and dining room.

He said it apparently had got in after closing hours Wednesday night.

Rizzo asked that no one come for the monkey until after 2:30 p.m.—"after the lunch patrons leave. We don't want to disturb them."

Two Retired Farmers Killed

ANSON (AP) — Two retired farmers were killed Thursday when their car smashed through a street barricade and hurtled into a creekbed.

They were identified as M. Frank Windham, 78, and George S. Haliburton, 68, both of Anson.

Baptist Messengers Change Constitution

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — Messengers to the Baptist General Convention of Texas have voted overwhelmingly for changes in their constitution.

The changes were voted 633 to 274 Thursday, after hours of debate. Basically, the constitution changes would:

—Prevent a trustee for a Baptist institution from serving on more than one board, except the state Baptist executive board and specific committees.

—Prohibit any person who receives direct or indirect aid, including employees, of state or Southern Baptist Convention institutions or agencies from serving on the influential state Baptist executive board.

—Give churches more representation at the annual meeting, with 25 maximum messengers instead of a maximum of 10.

from HEAVEN OR FROM MEN?

When the religious authority of Jesus was challenged by the Jews, he asked them a question concerning the baptism of John: "Whence was it from heaven, or from men?" (Matthew 21:25). In this the Lord taught the lesson that men should be sure of divine authority for all their religious practices.

We need today to ask the same question our Saviour asked concerning religious teachings and practices. Are they from heaven, or of men? Has God revealed it, or has man devised it? Did God command it, or is it the invitation of men? Let us apply this principle to some common religious teachings of our age:

SPRINKLING . . .
 Is it from heaven or from men?

We have no examples in the Bible of people being sprinkled instead of baptized, nor is there any passage that teaches such. The practice of sprinkling came into being many years after the apostolic period. In order to be baptized scripturally, we must be "buried" in water and "raised" to walk a new life (Romans 6:3-4), and thereby symbolizing the death, burial and resurrection of Christ. All Christians in the New Testament era who were baptized into Christ were "buried with him" (Colossians 2:12). Hence sprinkling is from men and not from heaven.

FAITH ONLY . . .
 Is it from heaven or from men?

Is the doctrine of "salvation by faith alone" from heaven, or from men? Multitudes are pinning their hope of heaven upon it. According to this view the sinner is saved by trusting in the Lord before he obeys a single command. Yet the scriptures say, "Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only." (James 2:24). Hence, this teaching is from men and not from heaven.

SALVATION BEFORE BAPTISM . . .
 Is it from heaven or from men?

Many believe that sinners are saved before and without baptism. What does the Bible say? Jesus said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved" (Mark 16:16). The scriptures also teach, "... the like figure, whereunto even baptism doth also now save us" (1 Peter 3:21). Hence, the teaching that salvation comes before baptism is from men and not from heaven.

INFANT BAPTISM . . .
 Is it from heaven or from men?

We search the Bible in vain for one example of infant baptism. It was never commanded by Christ nor practiced in the early church. Baptism was always preceded by teaching (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16) and repentance (Acts 2:38). To baptize a child too young to believe, or too young to need repentance, is contrary to the scriptures. Hence, infant baptism is from men and not from heaven.

The problem of religious people teaching the commandments of men is nothing new. It existed in Christ's age. In fact, he warned of this in these words: "But in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (Matthew 15:9). And again the New Testament warns: "Who-soever goeth onward and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ hath not God" (2 John 9-11).

Are your religious teachings and practices from heaven or from men?

Baptists Open Meet On Harmonious Note

CORPUS CHRISTI — Meetings preceding the Baptist General Convention of Texas began here Monday in a harmonious keynote on major issues. The 192-member executive board met Monday afternoon and approved, without debate, key changes in the convention's constitution, and recommendations from the BGCT, Christian Life Commission.

The Christian Life recommendations concern adult delinquency, race relations and religious liberty. The race relations recommendation urges Texas Baptists to work positively and creatively in the crucial area of race relations. It urges Baptists to utilize Feb. 14, 1965, as race relations Sunday.

"The hostility, hatred, injustice and violence which accompany racial disharmony are open challenges to the spirit and message of Jesus Christ," the resolution said.

Meetings of the Baptist Brotherhood and Woman's Missionary Union (W.M.U.) conventions, with about 1,500 W.M.U. members, approved unanimously extensive changes in the constitution of the convention's missions-centered women's organization. Principal changes limit the number of vice presidents to three instead of 17 and call for all W.M.U. presidents of the 125 Texas Baptist Associations to serve on the organization's state-wide executive board.

The Rev. Jerry S. Key, missionary to Brazil, said the women that all Latin America will go the way that Brazil goes because it has half the population and half the land area of South America. He said the Communists have been active in Brazil and that a number of Southern Baptist missionaries and Brazilian Baptist leaders were on the Communists' execution list before the "Reds" abortive coup.

SBC Foreign Mission Board Secretary Baker James Cauthen of Richmond, Va., told the women not to take too lightly the explosion of the atomic bomb by Red China. He said it was a far more serious omen than generally realized. He referred to Mao Tse-tung as the number one Communist of the world who can afford to lose half of his population and still dominate the world.

"The world today is willing to follow whatever Messiah that will fill its rice bowl," he said. "Our Christian love must reach out to these people, and to those with whom we disagree."

Plan Thanksgiving Share Program

NEW YORK—Protestant congregations throughout the United States will be asked to contribute $1,073,850 during the Thanksgiving season to finance the annual Share Our Substance program through which millions of needy persons overseas receive life sustaining food.

The First Methodist, Wesley Memorial Methodist, Kentwood Methodist, St. Paul's Presbyterian, and First Christian Church young people joined in a city-wide door-to-door canvass for contributions to CROP on Halloween night in Big Spring.

Church World Service, the overseas agency for the National Council of Churches of Christ, announced that during 1965 approximately one third billion pounds of foodstuffs donated by the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP), will be sent to areas of acute need in many parts of the world. Church World Service conducts programs of relief and rehabilitation in 42 countries in Africa, Asia, the Near East, Latin America and Europe.

The big Protestant agency works closely with the Division of Inter-Church Aid, Refugee and World Service, its counterpart branch of the World Council of Churches with headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland.

Kinds of foods shipped to the needy are principally wheat, flour bulgar (a wheat compound processed to withstand spoilage), beans, cheese, butter, cornmeal, powdered milk and cooking oil.

In many of the countries where U. S. foods are distributed, the programs have progressed from direct emergency feeding to "food for work" projects. In these undertakings, recipients build roads, replant ravaged forest lands or do other forms of constructive labor to help raise the economic level of their lives and their nations.

Has Unusual Music Hobby

GEORGETOWN, Tex. (AP)—While some persons are building things for the future like rockets, R. Cochrane Penick is taking a step backward as a hobby. He is building a harpsichord, the forerunner of the piano.

Penick is head of the organ department in the Southwest University school of fine arts.

He estimates that when he finally polishes the instrument to his standards, it will have cost him about $250 and 150 working hours.

Before he joined the music faculty of the school here, he was professor of organ and sacred music at Mississippi State College for Women.

He also has served on the music faculties of Mary Hardin-Baylor College, Louisiana State University and Centenary College.

Penick is a graduate of the University of Texas, where his father, Dr. D. A. Penick, gained fame both as a professor and coach of the tennis teams.

He also holds degrees from Juillard School of Music and Union Theological Seminary.

Baptists Give McCall 2nd Term

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Abner McCall, president of Baylor, was re-elected unanimously today as president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. McCall was named to a second term after the nearly 4,000 at the convention.

Elected second vice president was the Rev. James Riley of Houston.

The Baptists said a special prayer for President Johnson.

Contributions Given Sunday Go To Help Missionaries

Sunday has been designated as Brazil Day at the Fourteenth and Main Street Church of Christ. All contributions will go to Sao Paulo, Brazil to help missionaries purchase a lot and erect a church building.

J. D. Thomas, Bible professor at Abilene Christian College, will be guest speaker for the morning and evening services while the minister, Perry Cotham, is conducting a gospel meeting in Collinsville, Okla.

The church extends a cordial welcome to the public to attend the special services.

WITNESSING VIGOR URGED

The "Fearless Witness" is the title of the International Sunday School Lesson for Nov. 8. Taken from 2 Timothy 1:6-14, the letter from Paul to Timothy emphasizes the vigor a Christian should use in witnessing for Christ.

Paul speaks of that basic New Testament truth, that "salvation is the gift of God. It comes about not as the result of good works, but according to God's own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began."

Many people are educationally qualified to witness for Christ, but lack the enthusiasm to carry out the commission. Christians in Paul's and Timothy's time spread the word of God by word of mouth only. Witnessing—unashamed—is as necessary today as it has ever been.

On such witnessing is the church built, and God's glory enhanced among peoples. Without the practice of witnessing, one's life becomes only a theory and vain pretention to others.

Thanks Grocers For Closing Up

The Big Spring Pastors' Association held a breakfast meeting at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church Wednesday.

Along with other business the association extended a vote of thanks to managers of all Big Spring chain stores who are closing their places of business Sunday. The letter is signed by the Rev. John C. Black, president of the association.

Neighborliness Still Needed

Gone are the days when the village store served as a forum for everyone to air his views in a congenial atmosphere. Although it doesn't do any good to pine for the "good old days," a church leader counsels that the world still needs old-fashioned neighborliness.

"We live in a world in which everyone is our neighbor," declares the Rev. Jackson Burns of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Writing in the November issue of "Together" magazine, he states that "As Christians we are called to be neighbors to mankind. Practical sympathy for our world neighbors requires a vital interest in national and international affairs."

Fail To Change, End Effectiveness

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—"The missionary era as we have known it is gone and will never return," the Rev. Albert J. Nevins, editor of Maryknoll magazine, told a convention of Roman Catholic mission sending societies here. He said: "Certainly the missionary as the 'great white father,' the administrator and guardian, can no longer exist except in a few isolated pockets of the world, and the sooner he disappears there, the better. But there is room for a new type missionary. The lesson is obvious: change and you can survive; fail to change and your effectiveness is ended."

FREEDOM'S DISCOVERY

There is joy in giving to God. That is freedom's ultimate discovery. And the hundreds of thousands of churches which we have built and supported bear testimony to the fact.

But when there are nations who despise God . . . who tear down churches . . . or forbid their support, how shall we teach this Christian joy to the boys and girls who will be our nation—tomorrow?

Karen and Paul are placing Sunday School "envelopes" at the foot of the children's altar.

Of course, what Karen and Paul and their classmates can give will hardly pay for an altar. But our world of tomorrow cannot be built on Kremlin economics.

A mighty generation must learn to worship in prayer and faith and sacrifice. There is joy in giving to God!

Our children learn this chiefly from our example and encouragement.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL · ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

GOP Power Fight Rages

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon has fired at Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as a "spoilsport" and been called "peevish" in return as the fight for control of the Republican party breaks into the open. But like former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, they appealed for unity.

The party struggle — essentially an effort by moderates to wrest control from Goldwater conservatives — had been pretty much off-stage until Thursday. But then, at a news conference in New York, Nixon spoke up.

The former vice president, who campaigned widely for Barry Goldwater, said Rockefeller, who was cool to the Arizona's campaign, "got his pound of flesh."

WITH UNITY

The New York governor, said

N. ROCKEFELLER

Nixon was the "principal divider" of the Goldwater campaign. And, Nixon continued, the party's future rests with "unifiers rather than dividers." Rockefeller is vacationing in Spain, but a spokesman in New York released a statement calling Nixon's remarks a "peevish, post-election utterance."

Said the New York governor, a member of his party's liberal wing: "This is a time for constructive rebuilding of the Republican party as a vital force in the mainstream of American political life. Mr. Nixon's latest maneuver is hardly calculated to advance this effort."

Party moderates are expected to press their drive for control of the party at a governors conference next month. And, if they make any headway, they can be expected to pull out the stops at a meeting of the Republican National Committee in January.

Goldwater said at a news conference Wednesday that he wants to keep the party on a conservative course.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho, who already has said the GOP "must move toward the center of the political spectrum," announced Thursday he plans to call a meeting of the Republican Governors Association about Dec. 1, probably in a Midwestern city.

Here the 17 Republican governors can be expected to chart a course for reviving the party from the crushing defeat it sustained last Tuesday with Sen. Goldwater on the bridge and Goldwater men at the helm. The GOP carried only six states.

Peking Vows Red Bonds

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's top leaders today extended their "sincerest and warmest" greetings to the new leaders of the Soviet Union and expressed hope the two estranged Communist giants would "unite closely" to oppose the common enemy — the United States.

"Let imperialism headed by the United States tremble before our strong unity! Long live the eternal, unbreakable friendship between the Chinese and Soviet peoples," said the Chinese message to Moscow, broadcast by Peking Radio.

FROM MAO

The message was telegraphed from party chairman Mao Tse-tung, President Liu Shao-chi, Marshal Chu Teh and Premier Chou En-lai to the Soviet leaders on the occasion of the 47th anniversary Saturday of the Bolshevik Revolution.

Chou and a delegation of ideological experts arrived in Moscow Thursday for the celebrations and for talks aimed at quieting, at least publicly, the Soviet-Chinese dispute. The tension has eased perceptibly since the ouster of Nikita Khrushchev, but neither the Chinese nor the Soviets are expected to retreat from their conflicting positions.

The Peking message of good will was tempered by a separate declaration which warned the Soviet Union against invading or occupying any part of Sinkiang Province in northwest China on the Soviet border.

N-SHOT SITE

Uranium-rich Sinkiang was the site of the Chinese nuclear explosion on Oct. 16. Last year the Chinese accused the Soviets of abducting thousands of its inhabitants and stirring up bloody incidents.

In Moscow, Pravda, the Soviet party newspaper, made a veiled reference to Khrushchev's ouster last month and claimed "the Soviet Communist party is stronger than ever."

Saturday top men from 13 Communist nations will line up on Lenin's tomb for the big parade of military equipment and civilians through Red Square. Only Albania will not be represented. The Soviet Union broke relations with it because of its espousal of the Chinese cause.

New Aide Takes Post

A new assistant chief, personnel division, has assumed duties at the Veterans Administration Hospital here. He is H. John Willoughby, who arrived this week from the Veterans Administration Hospital in Baltimore, Md. Willoughby was assistant personnel manager at Baltimore.

He is a native of Henryetta, Okla., and attended public schools in Detroit, Mich. Willoughby served in the U. S. Air Force from 1954-58, including two years in Japan. Mrs. Willoughby is a native of Kobe, Japan, and is a naturalized U. S. citizen.

He began work with the VA in 1958 after completing Air Force service as a personnel clerk at the VA Hospital in Battle Creek, Mich. Willoughby was also a personnel specialist in the Air Force.

In 1961-62 he was a personnel management assistant trainee at the VA center at Souix Falls, S. D. After completing the program there, he was sent to Baltimore.

Willoughby has participated in the Personnel Management Association program. The family includes three children, Ricky, Randy and Sherril.

Party Rivals At Ox Roast

GEORGETOWN, Del. (AP) — After roasting each other politically in the election campaign, Democratic and Republican rivals got together Thursday and roasted an ox.

Winners in Tuesday's election, instead of forcing the losers to eat their words, salved hurt feelings by sharing with them a traditional roast ox sandwich.

Democrats and Republicans paired off in automobiles in a parade, losers patted winners on the backs and the winners said what great guys their opponents were.

The occasion for the post-election harmony was Return Day, the traditional Thursday-after-election day custom that started in the days before rapid communications.

It was then that people in southern Delaware's Sussex County would journey to Georgetown—usually bringing their own oyster sandwiches, fried chicken and whiskey — and gather at The Circle in front of the courthouse to hear the returns.

The winning party usually did the celebrating.

Return Day was revived to celebrate the Democratic victory of 1936, when Franklin D. Roosevelt carried all but two states, and Georgetown's merchants — mostly Republicans nowadays — revived the holiday as a promotion stunt.

Thursday about 6,000 Delawareans — including Democratic Governor-elect Charles Terry — dressed in 19th century costume, and parading in horse and buggy heard election results read from the court house balcony and cheered the tally as if they were hearing the count for the first time.

Final In Gubernatorial Race

The election victory of incumbent Tim Babcock, Republican Governor of Montana, increased the Republican tally to eight elected in the nation's gubernatorial contests. Seventeen Democratic governors were elected. States without shading are those in which there were no contests. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Grand Jury Votes 17 Indictments

Seventeen indictments, including one for bank robbery and two for armed robbery, were reported by the grand jury to Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court, at 3:45 p.m. Thursday. The jurors had begun work at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Included in the indictments returned was one against Higinio Soto, accused of robbing the Security State Bank. Soto took nearly $5,000 from Darlene Dabney, a teller, by threatening her life. He was arrested a few minutes later and the money recovered. The robbery occurred Oct. 28.

Judge Caton, acting on recommendation of Gil Jones, district attorney, refused to set a bond for Soto.

Bond was also denied two other defendants indicted for armed robbery. They are Ralph Draper and James W. LeMay, who were billed for the Oct. 23 holdup of the McClure Service Station.

The grand jurors declined to vote an indictment against Clarence Yanez Jr., accused of shooting Richard Marquez, Oct. 18.

They did bill Horace A. Smith, also charged with assault with intent to murder, for beating his wife Bertha. Mrs. Smith, hospitalized for sometime with severe head injuries, is now a patient at the Big Spring State Hospital.

A statutory rape charge, which had been pending against C. R. (Chuck) Bryant and slated to be laid before the grand jury, was not presented. It was said that the prosecuting witness declined to testify.

George Beard and James Wiley Neese were indicted for burglary of a coin operated machine. This is a case where the state accuses the two men, both of Midland, of having broken into a pay telephone. The complaint was filed against the men after a lengthy investigation in this and Midland counties. Officers seized a quantity of equipment and material they alleged the pair had taken from the telephone company. One of the men was formerly manager of the telephone company office in Midland. The specific charge for which they were indicted alleged the burglary of a phone booth at FM 700 and Birdwell Lane July 31.

Methodists Set Revival

Accentuating a "Days of Victory" theme, the Kentwood Methodist Church will begin one week of revival Sunday at 7 p.m.

The evangelist will be the Rev. S. H. Salley, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Baird and father of the Rev. Henry Salley, pastor of Kentwood Methodist.

Services continue at 6:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. daily through the week. Breakfast for all the church family will be served before the morning services, and there will be prayer groups at 6:40 before the evening services.

Joe Burchfiel and Charles Richards will be in charge of the music, and during the week soloists from various congregations will be featured in the worship.

Undergirding attendance, the different teams for the "Fruits of the Spirit" project, will sponsor evening services in an effort to get all members to attend.

Blackout At Airport Over

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Normal commercial traffic resumed about 15 minutes after midnight this morning at busy San Antonio International Airport as a 1,500-foot emergency cable was hooked up to restore lighting for the 8,000-foot jet runway.

A series of short circuits blacked the runway out shortly after dark Thursday.

Several flights bypassed the darkened strip. One used a shorter runway.

An airport spokesman said no serious difficulties developed during the blackout.

A Night Out For Winnie

LONDON (AP)—Bitterly cold weather couldn't keep Sir Winston Churchill from his favorite soup.

The former prime minister, who will be 90 years old Nov. 30, was helped from his car and into a wheel chair at London's Savoy Hotel for a meeting Thursday night of the exclusive The Other Club.

Besides the soup, the exclusive dining club's menu features oysters, fish, roast beef and a cheese soufflé.

Churchill and Lord Birkenhead founded the club in 1911.

Jones Given Thanks Vote

Members of the Howard County Grand Jury, which completed its work Thursday afternoon, met informally after they had been excused from further duty by the court.

"We want to convey to Gil Jones, district attorney," said J. D. Elliott, a spokesman for the group, "our deep appreciation for the assistance he has accorded us this week."

"Further, since this is probably the last grand jury Mr. Jones will work with as district attorney, we want to express our thanks as officials and as citizens for the fine work he has performed as district attorney in the years he has filled that office.

"Howard County has a deep debt of gratitude to District Attorney Jones for his diligence in handling law-violations. His remarkable record for convictions and his equally effective handling of investigations of crimes brought before his office have contributed much to law enforcement in this county."

"We feel the county has been most fortunate in having so capable an official as Jones."

His sentiments were approved by a number of the other grand jurors. All of the current grand jurors but one or two, were men who had served on other grand juries. They said their admiration for Jones and his work stemmed from their contact with the district attorney and his office.

Schools Face Strike Threat

RINGGOLD, Ga. (AP)—Citizens of Catonsville County have formed a club to raise funds to keep the public schools open in the face of a threatened walk-out by teachers over their salaries.

The Lakeview High School has been closed since 19 teachers walked out Monday. The 196 teachers at the other schools in this northwest Georgia county have voted to walk out on Nov. 25 unless provisions are made to pay them.

The situation developed after School Supt. Fred Williams told the teachers that because of a shortage of funds there was no assurance their November salaries could be paid.

Leading to the situation was a new law passed by the 1964 Georgia Legislature in which local schools must pay an expanding share of the school financing costs, including teacher salaries.

Cattle Prices Still In Decline

WASHINGTON (AP)—Beef cattle prices have marked up their fifth consecutive week of decline. Markets have lost much of the gain marked during the early and mid-summer season when the government took steps to bolster prices.

Average prices on all slaughter steers at the nation's seven major markets was $22.92 a hundred pounds last week compared with $23.70 the previous week and $23.08 a year ago.

"No appreciable let-up in the record rate of slaughter which has existed since mid-September contained as the dominant factor in forcing further price decline in the wholesale beef trade," a Department of Agriculture livestock market report said.

The report said demand for unfinished cattle by feeders was rather bearish. Current feeder cattle price were said to be about $3 to $3.50 a hundred-weight lower than a year ago.

A Devotional For The Day

Jesus saith unto him, . . . follow thou me. (John 21:22)
PRAYER: O Lord, our Father, with gratitude we humble ourselves in Thy presence to thank Thee for Thy Son, who is the way, the truth, and the life. Strengthen us in faith and love that we may never forget His command to follow Him loyally. In His name we pray. Amen.

Wandering Lake

Much has been made of the remoteness of the site of the Chinese nuclear explosion, Lake Lop Nor in the western province of Sinkiang. Commentators have given the impression that it is one of the least known places on the face of the earth.

The fact is that few places in Central Asia have been as well known for so many centuries. As far back as the Second Century it was described by a Greek geographer, Marinus of Tyre. He knew of it because it lay on the great caravan route along which in ancient times silk was brought from China to Asia Minor.

Marinus spoke of the lake as lying at the end of a river. His information was used by the Greek geographer Ptolemy, whose statements about obscure parts of the world constituted nearly all that was known about them for many centuries.

Modern explorers tried to find Lop Nor, but for a long time they failed. This was because where they expected to see a lake there was none. It was left to a 20th Century Swede, Sven Hedin, to prove that the lake and the river which fed it periodically changed to another channel, the former location drying up.

Lop Nor has alternated between two locations all through the years. Well did Hedin call it "the wandering lake." But now that it has been the site of an atomic blast, there can no longer be any doubt about where it is and what it signifies.

Way To Say 'Thanks'

American Legion Auxiliary members will be offering Poppies Saturday in the hopes that a grateful and warm-hearted public will respond with donations.

There are several reasons why there could be a generous response. First of all, the poppies are made by disabled veterans, and for some of them this is a source of earnings.

Then, whatever margin of profit should accrue to the auxiliary through the Poppy Day project will be applied in toto to welfare and charity projects, including the helping of needy veterans' families.

Third, this is a simple way in which the public can express symbolically its deep gratitude to veterans for their service to the country. The poppy is a badge which says "thanks for everything." And for some, it was everything.

David Lawrence No Issues Resolved

WASHINGTON — The American people today know the winner of the presidential race, but do they know what was decided by the votes of more than 70,000,000 persons — what issues were resolved and what policies were approved or disapproved?

President Johnson, in one of his speeches last week, said: "I want the mandate of this election to be written strong and clear so that none will mistake the meaning."

THE CAMPAIGN speeches themselves, however, were not clear, and there were plenty of contradictions and paradoxes. Neither the victorious nor the defeated candidate can boast of a really united party. For when some of the major issues of the day are voted on in the coming Congress, it will be found that, as in previous years, a coalition of Republicans and Democrats will be lined up on one side, while a combination of opponents from both parties will be found voting the other way.

Neither political party has managed to present a clear-cut case, and each has taken refuge in generalities of criticism or rebuttal.

THE TWO biggest issues of the campaign, "peace" and "prosperity," were affirmatively proclaimed by both candidates as their objectives. But a presidential election does not necessarily mean that the views expressed will prevail. There is a considerable reluctance — indeed, a sense of misgiving — among many voters on each side to support the candidate for whom they cast their ballot. It was often a feeling that one party and its candidate represented the "lesser of two evils."

THE APPREHENSIONS of the critics that America is drifting in her foreign policy and could become involved in a major war have not been abated. Nor have fears been dispelled that the economy of the United States is at the moment in the midst of an artificial boom as billions of dollars of borrowed money are used to prime the pump and as budget deficits keep on indefinitely. Significantly, neither candidate during the campaign made a prediction as to when the budget would be balanced. The promises of more and more spending were reiterated. Yet, in Europe as well as in America, there is an undercurrent of anxiety lest unsound fiscal policies sooner or later come to a climax.

NEITHER CANDIDATE defined comprehensively what kind of foreign policy the world could expect from the United States if he were elected. The Communists assumed that the Johnson policy meant an "accommodation" or concessions, and that his defeat would bring a more resolute position against both Red China and the Soviets.

The American people did not get during the campaign any idea of what may lie ahead for them—whether their sons will be drafted for an enlarged war in Viet Nam or whether the trend toward higher unemployment will be resumed when the economy faces a crisis.

THESE ISSUES are not the only ones that have produced worry but which were really glossed over during the campaign. Notable among them is the "civil rights" controversy. The Democrats gave it scant attention, and the Republicans, except for a few generalities, did the same. Yet the civil rights act affects citizens everywhere, and the question of enforcement looms large. Undoubtedly there was a considerable protest vote cast in certain states, and many persons who preferred to ignore the issue will not, of course, be able to forget it or be unmindful of its consequences as the law is enforced.

Billy Graham

Could you explain Romans 11:16-23 to me? I have gone over this time and time again, but am not certain of the meaning. D.D. I am sorry, but space would forbid me explaining all of these verses to you. But let's take the one verse which I believe to be the key to the rest: "For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee." (Romans 11:21)

The natural branches here mentioned, of course, were Israel. The warning is against spiritual smugness and carelessness. It is a very easy thing for nations, religious groups, or individuals to become smug, self-righteous, and complacent about their status before God. This was a warning to the Gentile Christians not to feel that they were God's pets, and that He would deliver them no matter how they conducted themselves.

The warning also has an individual implication. Christians have to guard against false piety, complacency and even hypocrisy. The key word of the New Testament is Love. Faith is important, Doctrine is important. But Paul said: "Now abideth faith, hope and love; but the greatest of these is love." We can never win the non-Christian by smugness, or by exhibiting unchristlike attitudes. Love is the spark that will set the world aflame for God.

Now Has Home

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Academy of Dramatic Arts, New York's oldest theatrical school, has taken title to a permanent home after 60 years of operation in rented quarters.

The building, on midtown Madison Avenue, was designed in 1907 by Stanford White for the Colony Club and became a center for society events of the era.

Refurbishing of the six-story structure for the academy includes completion of a 200-seat theater, donated by Helen Hayes in memory of her daughter, Mary MacArthur.

Middle Road

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — James Monroe Page is convinced he can't win.

Recently he was brought into court on a speeding charge.

Two weeks later, he was back — charged with driving 5 miles an hour in Labor Day traffic.

Page said he thought his speed was about right; the arresting officer said he was driving so slowly that cars were passing on both sides.

The judge said "450 please."

NO DROPOUTS FROM THAT SCHOOL

James Marlow Agonizing Inquest By GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said of himself and his advisers on the day after election, with the wreckage still being counted from coast to coast: "I can't think of any major mistake we made."

They made some blunders. But Goldwater does not seem to consider his defeat in the presidential campaign, one of the worst in American political history, a repudiation of him or his philosophy of government.

He says he does not think the conservative cause has been hurt, indicates he intends to retain party leadership, and blames part of his defeat on those Republicans who didn't work or vote for him.

But Republicans are making an agonizing inquest on their election disaster and already are in a struggle over the direction and leadership of the party.

None of Goldwater's mistakes was more basic than in misjudging or simply not understanding the interests and thinking of an overwhelming number of Americans, as the election showed. This gets to the root of struggle.

SOME OTHER Republicans don't share his opinion when he calls himself a conservative. Therefore, an understanding of conservative is essential to the party's future. It requires a definition. The American College Dictionary says:

"A political party whose characteristic principle is opposition to change in the institutions of the country." This was the classic conservative view in the 19th century when the government participated little in American life.

But by this same definition Goldwater is not a conservative at all, for he has proposed not only changing but eliminating many government functions, long accepted by Democrats and Republicans, which have become institutions over the years of this century.

Through his philosophy he made a major mistake before the campaign began in advocating the elimination of various government functions and programs.

HE SUGGESTED getting rid of the graduated income tax, selling TVA, making Social Security voluntary, pulling the government out of public housing and power, eliminating farm price supports and many social welfare programs, and cutting veterans' benefits.

By voting against the civil rights bill before the campaign began he lost the vote of most American Negroes. Yet, to win, he needed the vote of every individual he could find.

It was before he was a candidate, needing votes, that he felt free to make such statements. They established him as a rugged individualist, although he was a millionaire, and endeared himself to the right wing in American politics.

Hal Boyle Jibes Weary Cats

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks a cat gets tired of hearing: "What good is a cat anyway? I never heard of one giving up its life for its master!"

"Scat, Pomfrey! Get off the sofa this very moment."

"You hear a lot about watchdogs, but never anything about watchcats. If robbers ever came into our house, Pomfrey would probably lead them to the loot."

"If that cat scratches one of the children again, I'm going to throw him out the window — and I really mean it."

"Mama! Mama! This time Pomfrey bit me — and I hardly even touched his old tail. I wasn't pulling it at all."

"He gives me the creeps — always rubbing against my legs right when I'm busy trying to cook a meal."

"I wonder what he'd do if he saw a mouse? Probably run under the bed and hide."

"Daddy, the dog next door will sit up and beg for his food. Why won't Pomfrey? Is he just too dumb?"

"I read in the paper that some nutty spinster left $50,000 to her cat. If I leave anything to Pomfrey in my will, it'll be a bill for all the furniture he's ruined."

"Oh, what is that — a cat? Please put it in another room. I can't stand them. They make me so nervous."

"You mean to tell me that the cat hotel wants to charge $2 a day to take care of Pomfrey while we're on vacation? Why, that's more than it cost me to go through college."

"I don't care if he is hungry. I'm hungry, too. You can feed him later."

"For the last time, Pomfrey, can't you get it through your thick skull that this is a scratching post? See, you put your claws here, and then you scratch. Good grief, why do I have to have the dumbest cat in the block?"

"If he really has nine lives, I wish he'd start leading a better one, right now."

"Tell Pomfrey to quit stalling around. Doesn't he realize I have a hangover this morning?"

To Your Good Health Bed-Wetting Can Be Solved

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: My five-year-old son has a bed-wetting problem. I have taken him to doctors and they say nothing is wrong with him.

Could you please write and advise me what you think I should do now?—MRS. R. B.

You did the right thing by having him examined first. In some cases, an infection or a defect is such that a child can't stay dry no matter how he tries.

If that isn't the trouble, then it is time to look at the commoner causes: tensions of some sort; or a matter of habit; or perhaps sleeping too soundly to be aware of the need to get up and go to the bathroom.

Last may, in final analysis, just be failure to have developed a right habit.

Punishment and scolding cannot be expected to do much good, if any, and they may do some harm. At the age of five, a child is ashamed of being a bed-wetter.

But stating that one method of getting at the problem is better than another is something I don't like to do. Different methods fit different children and their needs. I've put the reliable methods in a booklet, "Enuresis — Or Ten Ways to Stop Bed-Wetting." If you would like a copy, send 20 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of The Herald.

Decreasing fluids for the child in the late afternoon and the evening is usually helpful, even though other measures may be needed besides. I do caution you, however, not to try to "dry out the child." Everyone needs a good deal of fluid to be healthy. Indeed, too little fluid can contribute to irritation of the urinary tract and thus contribute to bed-wetting. So be sure that, in the morning and middle of the day, the child gets plenty of fluid—including, of course, his daily supply of milk.

Overcoming bed-wetting is not often accomplished quickly. It takes time, and it takes patience both for the child and for the parents, but if you go at it the right way, there are mighty few cases of failure.

If you go at it the wrong way, putting too much pressure on the child and not really trying to help, then the opposite is the result: Success is more remote and the child may acquire some emotional quirks that will last a long time.

Dear Dr. Molner: When I had burning feet so that sometimes the pain was almost unbearable, I followed a friend's suggestion to wear cotton instead of nylon and my troubles were over. I either wear cotton pads inside my all-nylon hose, or I wear cotton-footed nylons. I thought others might want to know.—A.B.

Thank you in behalf of readers who have this trouble. But remember: Not all cases of burning feet are due to the same thing. The hard part of the solution is to find the cause. It may be local irritation. It may be faulty circulation, defective arches, improperly fitted shoes or even neuritis.

Thus if the irritation is from nylon, switching to some other fabric may be the whole answer. If the cause is from something else, changing fabrics won't help.

What are ulcers: How should they be treated? What can you do to help rid yourself of ulcers and stay rid of them? For answers, read Dr. Molner's helpful booklet, "How to Heal Peptic Ulcers and Keep Them Healed." For your copy write to Dr. Molner in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Around The Rim Fish And Rice And A Way Of Life

There is a folk saying in the Southeast Asian kingdom of Thailand that "fish in the water and rice in the field" should be enough to make one fairly well contented with life, along with freedom to live and worship as one pleases.

Thailand is one of the nations into which American Peace Corps volunteers have been sent, yet it is remarkably different in some respects from most of the other nations selected for the program.

LARGE LANDOWNERS do not have the hold on the country that is present in some other areas, thus the ideas of land reform being attempted elsewhere have had little impact in Thailand, which is about the size of France.

The attitude of the people there of being content with life has also made self-help proposals from Americans rather difficult to inject, Peace Corps workers have related.

THAILAND IS described as a nation with a rich, colorful culture, with a people that are gentle and easy-going, accepting authority without overly questioning it. Their Buddhist religion stresses that one's lot in life is the result of one's conduct.

An unusual country, Thailand — once known as Siam — has tied its hopes with the Western bloc.

DURING THE PAST two years, some 400 Peace Corps workers have gone to the country. A large number of these are teachers whose contribution has been to teach the English language, while the country has a reported shortage of persons qualified to do so. Although the Thais have their own spoken language and a written language based on Sanskrit, their leaders have recognized the need for their people to learn English as the international means of communication. The country's own books on Thailand history are even primarily English ones. Another contribution the volunteers are said to be making is an eradication program for malaria, a major disease in the land.

THE KINGDOM has its problems, especially since agricultural production hasn't increased much in 30 years, while during the same period the population has more than doubled.

Yet what Peace Corps workers seemingly have found is not a nation overwhelmed by troubles, but one that, though it does face problems, has maintained for more than a thousand years its own identity and unique culture. While Americans are going into the country to help its people, doubtless they are themselves learning much in return from the little kingdom.

ONE PEACE CORPS official wrote that Thailand's leaders had for many years seen how change was inevitable, but had moved to accommodate it in the nation's own manner, at its own pace. One doesn't often think of nations supposedly "backward," compared to modern society, as having such astute thinking.

—PRESTON MAYNARD

Marquis Childs Presidential Office Degraded

WASHINGTON — There are somber coincidences in this month of November. We have ended the most hateful election campaign in recent history. And it comes close to the first anniversary of the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

The legend of the heroic young President has already taken hold as it was sure to do. The young, the brave, the gay, the special air of grace — this is the stuff of the legend growing by leaps and bounds.

THE RISK in all this is that the man will be lost in the romantic legend. It brings a sobering sense of reality to think that if he had lived he would have been a candidate for re-election. And as the candidate he would have been subjected to the same vilification, the same hate, the same whispers of calumny directed against his successor in the Presidency.

That is perhaps the saddest commentary on the campaign that has closed. Every effort would have been made to pull down the man who now in death is the shining hero honored in a thousand tributes with his great moments re-lived over and over in story and pictures.

THE KIND of attack that would have been directed against President Kennedy requires little imagination. As the man in the office is vilified and calumniated so, as the late, unlamented campaign made abundantly clear, is the office of the Presidency degraded. The damage done — the undermining of confidence, the assassination of character, the spreading of fear and distrust — cannot soon be repaired. In such an atmosphere it is more difficult to take the initial steps looking toward new and essential changes in policy.

ELECTION NIGHT four years ago saw the end of a campaign that by comparison was rational and restrained. Kennedy had charged that a "missile gap" raised doubts about America's security. He said the nation had suffered a loss of prestige when Russia enjoyed the first triumphs in space. The "missile gap" was, incidentally, a figment of Air Force propaganda.

The issue of Kennedy's religion was exploited covertly in certain areas. His Catholicism was considered the explanation for his failure to carry Border States such as Kentucky, Tennessee, and Oklahoma.

BUT IN THAT other campaign there was nothing approaching the personal abuse directed at President Johnson this time. The words "liar," "fake," "phony," "soft on communism," were not part of the political vocabulary of 1960.

Ironically enough, the qualities of the late President Kennedy and his family, now seen in the golden haze of the legend, are just the qualities that would have been the target of attack.

TO EXPECT that our presidents while they are in office should be given a measure of respect may be asking too much. George Washington had a deep sense of personal humiliation from the abuse heaped on him in the Presidency. But, surely, respect for the office and even a small token of justice to the man are not incompatible with a vigorous political contest.

Richard Starnes A Good Word For The AFSers

WASHINGTON — I happened to be hanging around the P-TA the other night, shooting my cuffs and trying to play the part of a parent of probity, when a comely young matron accosted me with what she billed as an intensely personal question.

"Tell me what it's really like, being foster parent of a foreign exchange student. My husband and I, she colored prettily, "were thinking maybe we might, uh, have one."

WELL, SIR or madam, to sketch the background hurriedly, the lady was talking about Axel, age 17, a foreign exchange student from Bremen, West Germany, who has been living in the heady atmosphere of Crestfallen Manor since August. He goes to high school with Chip, plays soccer, and takes girls to football games. He is, on casual examination, indistinguishable from his American contemporaries. He can plan and execute a raid on the icebox with as much skill and daring as Andy, which is high praise indeed.

SAY WHAT you will, a boy born and reared in Europe is bound to be unlike our home-grown product in many respects. Language is no problem with Axel (as I gather it seldom is anywhere in the foreign exchange student program), since he spoke excellent English when he came to us and has faltered only slightly since then. What is known in the trade as "adjustment" has been easy for us, and at least tolerable for Axel, once he got used to the noise.

THE MOST notable difference between a bright European and his American counterparts is in study habits. Axel seems to have as much time for play as any kid on the block, but at the same time he cracks the books more than mine do. He does this simply by not wasting time. Five minutes to wait for the porridge to cool in the morning? Axel will spend it having a go at the ghastly mixture of algebra and geometry that has apparently replaced both ancient scourges.

The result is that Axel is a very good student. He had to be, of course, to win selection over dozens of West Germany's brightest kids in the American Field Service's foreign exchange program.

AMERICAN FIELD Service, which annually shepherds several thousand foreign students through a school year in the United States, does a first-class job of anticipating problems and providing ready-made solutions. In our own experience, problems that might have arisen simply did not develop because of the groundwork by AFS.

All teenagers, for example, need a cash income that in my time would have supported a family. Axel's is provided every month by AFS. The high school picks up some incidental expenses, such as gym fees. And the student is expected to have a reasonably complete wardrobe when he reaches this country. In theory the student's host family is not expected to have to meet any out-of-pocket expenses for their ward, other than those involved in providing food and shelter. Medical care is paid for by AFS in the event it is needed. Uncle Sam, moreover, permits the host family tax deductions on certain expenses occasioned by keeping the foreign student.

THUS THE MONEY cost of making a home for a boy or girl from abroad for a year is not calculated to be much of a factor. More important are such things as enough bed rooms and bathrooms, plus the blessing of a family that can, to use that word again, adjust.

To answer the lady's question, it is fun having Axel. It is good for our own children, and I think it is good for him. And Axel and his fellow AFSers (their own term for themselves) are, above all, good insurance for the future of the world. May their tribe increase.

ART BY STEPHENS, BIONDI, DE CICCO

DON'T YOU READ BEFORE YOU BUY?

And don't you sometimes re-read, study, compare, figure, clip, save, and show to friends? When you're on the brink of buying, aren't you hungry for facts, features, dimensions, styles, colors, capacities, prices?

Print advertising puts people who are close to a purchase close to the kind of information they demand. Newspapers, magazines and brochures let them linger with your message for as long as they like.

Print imparts important details, allows for colorful presentations, makes lasting impressions, takes people straight to the point-of purchase. If you've something to sell, it will pay you to promote it regularly in print—where ready-to-buy people can keep their eyes on it, get their hands on it, make the most of it. Print makes sense because print makes sales.

Steers Host Permian In Big One Tonight

By TOMMY HART
The Big Spring Steers try to move closer to the portals of paradise in an 8 o'clock District 2-AAAA football encounter with Odessa Permian here tonight.

Only by winning can the Longhorns be assured of remaining in the top spot in league standings. San Angelo, the current co-leader, challenges Odessa High in another district headline encounter tonight. An Odessa victory, coupled with a Big Spring defeat, could vault the Bronchos into sole possession of first place.

Victory won't come easy for the Steers, if it comes at all. Permian is an unexploded bomb on the football greensward, capable of dynamic things. The Panthers have great speed, fire passing and unlimited capabilities in the ball-carrying department.

The Steers have achieved their splendid record (5-2 overall and 3-1 in conference) on fierce determination alone. Some observers picked the Longhorns for the cellar when the season got under way but the locals have jelled into an exciting ball club.

Defensive shortcomings worry the local coaches. The Longhorns have shown defensive clicks mainly because they're

Aspermont, coached by Joe Youngblood, has lost only one decision and that to Class AA Anson by a single point. Coahoma has scored a total of 283 points this season, compared to 39 for the opposition. Aspermont has been about as flashy, having counted 244 points to 43 for the foe.

Coahoma won't be at full strength. Spike Dykes' Bulldogs must do without regular end Mike Mosley, who is out with a pulled leg muscle; and Keith Hodnett, who suffered a concussion a couple of weeks ago.

Dean Bohannon, who has done a fine job in recent games, will start in Mosley's place.

Dwayne Allen and Marshall

Adds Poise To Lineup

Gordon Morris, a 154-pound senior back, will be in the thick of things when Big Spring takes the field against Odessa Permian at 8 o'clock here tonight. Gordon has worked hard to perfect his skills. He plays wingback on offense and rover on defense. (Photo by Danny Valdes)

Williams will divide time at the quarterback spot for Coahoma. Allen is the better runner and plays more defense. Williams specializes in the pass.

Such boys as Eddie McHugh, Travis Reid, Johnny Gibson and Tony Butler give the Bulldogs fine balance in the backfield.

Of all conference foes, only Merkel extended the Bulldogs and Coahoma beat that team, 24-0.

Aspermont beat the same outfit, 20-12, and has been scored on by every other league foe upon quarterback David Frazier, a 175-pounder; their 242-pound fullback James Ray and the pass catching ability of end Gary McNutt.

Aspermont had eight lettermen back from last season, Coahoma 17. Both head coaches are new to their jobs. Youngblood is a former University of Texas halfback. Dykes attended Rice University and graduated from Stephen F. Austin.

The Bulldogs haven't won a conference crown since Fred Salling was coach and that was a decade ago. The Coahoma fans are hepped up over this club as they have been over no Coahoma team in recent years.

Many fans from Big Spring, grateful that the game was moved back from Friday, plan to be on hand for the historic battle.

Boxing Official Death Victim

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Edward C. Foster, one of the country's best-known boxing officials in the 1920s, died Thursday. He was 87.

Foster was Rhode Island's first boxing commission chairman and a former president of the National Boxing Association, now the WBA. He was associated with the sport until his retirement in 1948.

Two Games Are Set Saturday

The two football games involving teams of Big Spring Junior High and Snyder Travis will be played Saturday rather than Thursday, as previously announced.

The eighth graders square off at 6:30 p.m. while the ninth graders clash at 7:30 o'clock. Both games will be untelevised in Snyder.

Travis Deadlocks Local Contingent

Runnels' seventh graders and Snyder Travis fought to a scoreless stalemate here Thursday evening.

The Yearlings made several threatening gestures at the Travis goal, fumbling once on the ten and again chugging to the Snyder three before they were stopped. Travis made only one first down during the game.

Robert Dennis pulled a fine defensive play on the second half kickoff when he raced downfield to crack the ball carrier and caused him to fumble and lose the ball.

Other defensive titans for Big Spring included Lino Sanchez, Gary Hinds, James Myrick, Lewis Switzer and Joe Zubiate. On offense Johnny Rutherford, Switzer, Rickey Peurifoy and Zubiate stood out for the Yearlings.

Mavs Deflate Colts, 20-0

Goliad's ninth graders returned to winning ways here Sweetwater, 20-0, with a fluid campaign.

After a scoreless opening period, the Mavericks broke the ice in the second when Dean Gilstrap passed 15 yards to Gregg Willis. Gilstrap added the two extra points on a run to make it 8-0.

That score stood up until the third, when Donnie Wiggins galloped 50 yards on a trap play. Big Spring scored again in the fourth on a 20-yard pitch from Gilstrap to Wiggins. Sweetwater couldn't penetrate

Colts Likely Grid Winners This Weekend

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Unbeaten Buffalo faces a stern test Sunday in an American Football League game at New York but Baltimore is heavily favored to keep on rolling in the National Football League.

With the help of a 7-4 record last week, the season's record in picking winners is 54-28-5 — 33-20-3 in the NFL, 21-8-2 in the AFL. Here goes for another plunge into upset land. All games Sunday afternoon unless noted:

NFL
Washington 28, Cleveland 27 — upset of the week. Skins can take it on Sonny Jurgensen's passing. Cleveland won Sept. 13 on 27-13 score in rain after Redskins held early 10-0 lead. Washington offense, worst in league, meets worst defense.

Baltimore 31, Chicago 17 — Colts rolled up 52-0 score in Sept. 27 game, most lopsided Bear defeat ever. Chicago still hurting for linebackers with Bill George and Mike Reilly out.

Green Bay 21, Detroit 17 — Milt Plum had big day against Rams but Packers are tougher to digest. Could be a field goal game.

St. Louis 24, Pittsburgh 21 — Charley Johnson due to bounce back after rough treatment by Giants and Cards have insurance in Jim Bakken's kicking.

Los Angeles 24, Philadelphia 17 — Eagles can't run on big Rams' defense. If Roman Gabriel can escape Eagles' blitz, he should find secondary a happy hunting ground.

Minnesota 27, San Francisco 21 — Vikings' running attack too much for 49ers but John Brodie due to find the chinks in the Minnesota defense.

Dallas 31, New York 28 — Cowboys coming on strong. Giants still must prove last week's victory was not flash in pan.

AFL
Boston 28, Houston 21 — Friday night — with Art Graham back in line-up Pats should be able to pierce leaky Oilers defense.

Buffalo 28, New York 24 — Bills due for a letdown but they can practically eliminate Jets by victory.

San Diego 35, Denver 14 — Broncos figure to be tougher at home than in 42-14 drubbing at San Diego.

Kansas City 21, Oakland 14 — Len Dawson hit with six TD passes last week and Cotton Davidson was intercepted six times by San Diego. Abner Hayes vs. Billy Cannon and Clem Daniels.

Permian's best (over season):
RUSHING—Pat Brown, 273 yards in 41 carries for 4.4 yards average; Tony Conley, 235 yards in 67 carries for 3.5 yard average; Alan Moravcik, 207 yards in 35 carries for 5.9 yard average; Barry Horstmann, 201 yards in 39 carries for 5.1 yard average.
PASSING—Moravcik, 33 completions in 67 attempts for 298 yards and 3 TDs.
RECEIVING—Brown, 11 catches for 183 yards; Don Cross, ten catches for 81 yards; Paul Crovets, six catches for 46 yards.

Speedy Pat Brown is averaging 4.4 yards a try in the ball-carrying department for Permian. He's gained a total of 273 paces in 61 efforts.

In stylish Alan Moravcik, the Permian gang has one of the best quarterbacks around. He not only can throw the ball but he can run. He's gained 207 yards net in 55 lunges and has rung the bell 33 times in 67 passing attempts for 398 yards.

Big Tony Conley is another Permian running threat. He has gained 235 yards in 67 tries for a 3.5-yard average.

Benny Kirkland will again be at the controls for Big Spring. He had a great night against Midland last week. Johnny Hughes, Rey Navarette and Ricky Earle figure to lend him a lot of help in the secondary.

The Steer coaches reason that only by winning all three of their remaining games can the Big Springers insure themselves a first place finish. That's the reason the one immediately ahead is so important to the local cause. Any opponent could prove to be a land mine that could knock the locals completely out of the race.

Up front, the Steers will be considerably outweighted. Whether Permian is capable of outflitting the locals in the trenches is something else again, however.

Probable starters:
BIG SPRING — E—Terry Fields 160 and Ronnie Dove Smith 125; T—Skipper Sabatino 188 and Steve McComb 210; G—Gary Phillips 173 and Howard Bolt 178; C—Don White 179; QB—Benny Kirkland 175; HB—Johnny Hughes 161; WB—Ricky Earle 170; FB—Rey Navarette 164.
ODESSA — PERMIAN — RB—Ray Horstmann 190 and Colin Campbell 190; QB—Tony Conley 207; RB—Tony Conley 207; TE—Ted Carter 195 or Gary Watkins 162; G—Carl Ray 183 and Glenn Hottel 200; C—Stan Paulson 192; C—Alan Moravcik 195; HB—Pat Brown 183; WB—Barry Horstmann 184; FB—Tony Conley 201.

Bees, Cooper Vie Saturday

There'll be football action in the new stadium on the HCJC campus at 2 o'clock Saturday, at which time the Big Spring B-team hosts Abilene Cooper.

The Shorthorns can insure themselves by a better than 500 season by defeating Cooper.

The chore probably won't be easy. Cooper recently gave the team a real tussle before losing, 16-8.

Big Spring now owns a 4-2 record. The locals have defeated San Angelo, 36-14; Snyder, 20-0; Midland High, 42-0; and Midland Lee, 42-6; and have lost to Coahoma's A squad, 28-8; and Abilene High, 30-6.

The Dogies have outscored their six opponents, 146 points to 78.

Van Tom Whatley will again be at the controls for Big Spring, dividing time at the position to Gregg Pate.

Two Games Are Set Saturday

Howard County is one of six college teams entered in the college division of the annual Howard Payne Invitational cross-country meet in Brownwood Saturday.

Others are Abilene Christian, Texas Tech, Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston and the host team.

FORAN — Eight-man football teams of Foran and Garden City open their District 5 title race in a 7:30 o'clock game here tonight.

Garden City is favored but Form usually goes out the window in this one. The Buffaloes, coached by Oscar Boeker, have been playing 11-man clubs for five weeks now. The Buffs have taken their lumps but Boeker figures his boys have learned a lot.

Garden City has only lost one game, that to Guthrie. The Bearkats' latest success came at the expense of Coahoma's B squad in an 11-man game and that by a score of 54-0.

Foran beat the same team 16-0. The Buffs' only other victory has come at the expense of Gail.

David Roberson, a big back who has been idled by injuries, returns to play for Foran but only on a limited basis. Doug Franklin and Larry Callihan of the Bisons will definitely not get to play due to physical miseries.

If Foran is to do much about stopping Garden City, it must dig in to hold the likes of Vernon Newsom, Gary Pagan and Dennis Seidenberger, who have been running wild for the Kats.

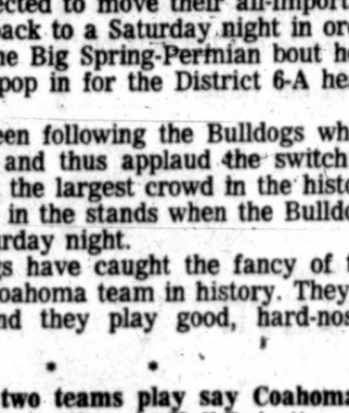

Coach Jack Woodley's club has literally plowed under some of the opposition it has faced.

The Foran Service Club will serve pancakes prior to the game in the High School Cafeteria, as a fund-raising project. The doors to the cafeteria will be opened at 5 p.m. and remain open until game time. Plates will be 75 cents each and proceeds will go to the club's projects.

Biggest crowd of the season may be in attendance, since Garden City is due to bring a host of followers with it.

Probable starters:
FORAN — E—Kent Sneed 140 and Tommy Chrove 150; G—Jim Alexander 170 and Tommy Girard 160; C—Dick Ross 180; QB—Jack Ellis 160; HB—Freddie Willis 155 and Roy McKinnon 135 or Carl Clinton 140.
GARDEN CITY — E—Taylor Eshson 140 and Riley Chandler 170; G—Tommy Dodds 180 and Jim Dube 205; C—James Seidenberger 170; QB—Vernon Newsom 165; HB—Gary Pagan 212 and Dennis Seidenberger 160.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Coahoma school officials elected to move their all-important football game with Aspermont back to a Saturday night in order that their fans could sit in on the Big Spring-Permian bout here tonight and local rooters could pop in for the District 6-A headliner tomorrow evening.

Local football buffs have been following the Bulldogs whenever and where ever they can and thus applaud the switch in dates. There's no doubt but that the largest crowd in the history of Coahoma High School will be in the stands when the Bulldogs and the Hornets square off Saturday night.

Coach Spike Dykes' Bulldogs have caught the fancy of the crowds over there as no other Coahoma team in history. They're explosive. They're exciting. And they play good, hard-nosed football, too.

Some who have seen the two teams play say Coahoma is fielding a better football team than is Hull-Daisetta, a team consistently ranked at the top statewide in Class A football.

Hull-Daisetta, located near Houston, smashed Tarkington last week, 69-0.

The Big Spring-Permian bout here tonight should be something to see, judging from past records.

The two teams invariably go full throttle against each other. Witness the outcome of last year's game, won by Big Spring, 22-20. In order to achieve victory, Albert Fierro had to throw a bomb to Charley West in the final two minutes of play. Permian still had time to charge back into Big Spring territory, leaning heavily on the razor-sharp passing of Alan Moravcik, and only a timely interception by Baxter Moore prevented the Panthers from winning.

Permian would like nothing better than to knock the Steers out of first place.

If Notre Dame agrees to go anywhere for a post-season bowl game, it's likely to be the Bluebonnet contest in Houston and then only if a team like Alabama is lined up as the opposition.

Notre Dame officials don't want the team to be at work a month after the regular season ends and they have gone on record as saying the game should be for the national championship.

A possible booking at Houston would be Notre Dame and Alabama, an attraction that would overshadow anything that could be lined up for the Cotton Bowl.

Hugh Cochran, the former Big Spring athlete who is now head basketball coach at Odessa High School, says he'll have no height on his squad this year but the Bronchos will "probably be fast and exciting."

The Red Hoses have become famous in the area for (1) their penchant for carrying the fight to the opposition and (2) their ability to hit from outside.

Bill (Moose) Skowron, the former New York Yankee who is now with the Chicago White Sox, is keeping busy this winter working for a detective agency and selling cars in Chicago.

Two Bisons Out For Campaign

STANTON — The Stanton Buffaloes, who have just gone through the wringer in two tough ball games with Seagraves and Wink, will not be at peak strength for their game in Tahoka tonight.

Coach Bill Milam has two players out for the season. They are Bill Davis, 215-pound right tackle; and guard Carl Lawson, 165-pounder.

Davis has some broken ribs while Lawson is favoring a knee injury.

The Buffaloes need the victory to insure themselves a 500 season in the won and lost column.

Goliad's Eighth Wins 7th Verdict

SWEETWATER — Goliad's eighth graders of Big Spring smashed to their seventh win in eight starts by turning back Sweetwater, 24-8, here Thursday evening.

Coach Oakley Hagood said the offensive effort his team made was its best of the season.

Big Spring broke the ice in the first period. Three plays after the Mavericks got the ball for the first time Steve Russell raced 65 yards off tackle for the tally. Mike Bethell added the extra point on a pass from Ford Farris.

Sweetwater managed to get a TD and tie the count in the opening period but Big Spring rebounded with a touchdown in the second when Russell roared 85 yards off tackle. Key blocks were thrown by Gary Chrane, Bethell and Kenneth Barfield on the run. Barfield got the two extra points on a dive play and Goliad led at the half, 16-8.

Big Spring scored again in the fourth when Barfield worked the dive play again, this time for 40 yards. Farris added the two extra points on a keeper.

Woes Seen For Soviet Regime

By The Associated Press The journey to Moscow this weekend by Red China's Premier Chou En-lai and his delegation may spell little but trouble for the post-Khrushchev regime.

However, this seems an opportune time for Red China to use subtle diplomacy. Anxious-sounding pronouncements under the new Soviet leadership hint that the turmoil in high places in Moscow is not ended.

STILL FRAGILE The new regime, with Leonid I. Brezhnev commanding the party and Alexei N. Kosygin the government, still has a rather fragile, transitional look, and it is beset by innumerable contradictory problems.
