VITAL AIRPORT CLOSED

Congo Rebels Again Seizing Stanleyville

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Rebel fire closed Stanleyville airport Monday night, and sharp fighting was reported around the field.

Reports indicated the rebels had regained almost complete control of the city in the northeast Congo which Belgian paratroopers and mercenary-led Congolese troops recaptured last week. Congolese troops held the jungle-fringed airport.

A fourth American missionary, William McChesney, 28, of Phoenix, Ariz., was reported killed by the rebels. Although there was no confirmation of this in Leopoldville, his parents in Phoenix said his organization, the World Wide Evangelization Crusade, had informed them he had been found dead near Wamba.

ONE MISSING
The U.S. State Department said one other American missionary, Mary Baker of Bala-cynwyd, Pa., was unaccounted for. She was last reported at Bopepe.

About 500 to 1,000 whites are still believed to be in rebel-controlled territory.

Congolese government troops, led by 30 white mercenaries, captured the town of Bunia Monday, north of Stanleyville, where several hundred white hostages were believed held. None was found. It was believed they had been taken farther north by the rebels.

About 680 Belgian paratroopers who jumped into Stanleyville and Paulis last week and rescued between 1,500 and 1,700 whites returned to Brussels today. Their commander, Col. Charles Laurent, said the

ARE SCATTERED

Laurent and other officers of his force agreed that the missing whites were scattered over too large an area for them to reach.

The Belgian government said there was absolutely no pressure from the United States to end the operation. U.S. planes ferried the Belgians to and from Stanleyville. The Belgian government said it and the U.S. government had agreed the rescue operation could not be extended effectively beyond Stanleyville and Paulis.

Arson Charged Husband, Fire Fatal To 7 Children

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Seven brothers and sisters perished today in a fire which destroyed their East Baltimore home.

Police arrested the husband of the family about five hours later and obtained a warrant charging him with arson in connection with the fire.

Police said the husband, Kenneth A. Smith, 38-year-old truck driver, was booked for investigation of arson after he was arrested at a bar.

Court records showed that Smith's wife, Marian, had sworn out a warrant last week charging him with assault by threatening.

Police said they found a gasoline can in the house, and were told by a 15-year-old survivor that he had been pushed back into the burning house as he tried to escape. The boy escaped from another exit.

Mrs. Smith and four children survived. Deputy Fire Chief Roland Welt identified the dead as Janet, 1; Gary, 2; Kevin, 4;

Annette, 6; Timothy, 7; Darlene, 8; and Vivian, 13.

Police said they were told by a neighbor of being awakened by the sound of breaking glass. The neighbor saw the fire and a man standing in front of the house, watching. Officers quoted the neighbor as saying the man just stood there as the children screamed.

Hoover, King To Huddle?

Hoover had called the Negro civil rights leader "the most notorious liar in the country" at a recent Washington news conference.

Better Bundles For Cotton Crop

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A call for better packaging and handling of cotton bales is sounded in the December issue of The Progressive Farmer magazine. In an editorial, "Call to Arms for Cotton!" the magazine lays out a blueprint for cotton progress and suggests it as a starting place for industry action.

Cotton is a $2 billion crop yet, the magazine contends, it is "one of the most horribly packaged and handled raw materials produced in the U.S. It must shed its rags. If cotton is to be a winner, it must look like a winner."

Soviet's Mars-Bound Spacecraft Faltering

U.S. Mariner 4 Still On Course

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet space probe has joined America's Mariner 4 on the long road to Mars, but the Russians announced today that their spacecraft is not working properly.

Zond 2 — Zond is Russian for probe — was launched Monday from a heavy satellite circling the earth, an official announcement said. Radio reports showed its power supply "is approximately 50 per cent below the expected," the announcement by Tass, the Soviet news agency, said.

This indicated it might not be able to send back scientific information about Mars even if it succeeds in passing close to the planet.

EARLIER FAILURE

Similar troubles silenced the last Soviet Mars probe, launched Nov. 1, 1962, while it was still more than six million miles from Mars. Zond 1, another Soviet space effort launched last April 2, apparently failed on an unannounced mission. Scientific observers thought Venus was its target.

The Americans, who have successfully probed Venus, launched Mariner 4 toward Mars on Saturday. It is reported working as planned at the beginning of a 7½-month trip to the reddish planet.

The American and Soviet launchings came close together because the position of the earth and Mars are favorable now for the complicated trajectory needed. Such favorable periods come only every few years.

Zond 2 was launched "in accordance with the program for space explorations," Tass said.

Leaders Mull Air Strikes On Viet Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson meets today with his top military and diplomatic advisers, including Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, to decide whether new steps should be taken to intensify the war against Communist guerrilla forces in South Viet Nam.

The long-debated issue of whether air strikes should be ordered against Communist supply lines through Laos or supply bases in North Viet Nam was reported up for discussion and possible decision.

Taylor, U.S. envoy to Saigon, has been conferring with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and other policy makers since Thanksgiving and these officials presumably had recommendations ready for the President in advance of the White House session.

FRIENDS AID CHEER FUND

Some old friends responded promptly, as they always do, to the appeal to help bring Christmas delight to poor youngsters. Gifts gratefully acknowledged today from Mrs. T. S. Currie, $16; Miss Agnes Currie, $5; the Wesley Men's Bible Class, $15; and a friend who prefers to remain anonymous, $20.

This brings the Cheer Fund total to $75.

Much more money will be needed, of course, to finance parts for toy repair work that city firemen do voluntarily, and to see to it that every child, no matter how poor, gets a visit from Santa Claus.

If you will help, please make checks to CHRISTMAS CHEER FUND, and send them to The Herald for acknowledgment.

Season's Coldest Weather Chills Parts Of Southland

By The Associated Press

A large mass of icy air spread across most of the eastern half of the nation today and the season's coldest weather chilled much of the Southland.

Freezing temperatures covered areas as far south as northern Florida and along the Gulf Coast. Below-zero marks again were reported in northern Midwest areas but not as low as Monday morning.

A warming trend was indicated for much of the Midwest.

The mercury failed to move much above zero in some parts of the northern Midwest Monday after early-morning readings as low as 31 below zero in Valley City, N.D.

Clear skies covered most of the southern half of the nation. The mercury dropped to 29 in Mobile, Ala., and Shreveport, La., 25 in Jackson, Miss., and 32 in Pensacola, Fla. It was 22 in Atlanta and 15 in Louisville. Miami's low was 54.

Snow flurries flecked scattered sections along the western slope of the Appalachians and along the southeastern shores of the Great Lakes. Snow flurries also fell in the northern Rockies and light snow spread across the northern Plains.

In the West, heavy rains doused areas in the northern half of the Pacific Coast. Strong winds hit some areas.

Payoff Claim Traced At Hearing On Baker

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rules Committee reopens its Bobby Baker investigation today to take testimony on an alleged $25,000 political payoff.

After a brief closed strategy meeting late in the morning, the committee planned to launch public hearings immediately with Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance man, on the witness stand.

Reynolds has said Baker, a former secretary to the Senate Democrats, and Matthew H. McCloskey, a veteran Democratic fund raiser, were linked in an illegal diversion of $25,000 to the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

INVOKES FIFTH
McCloskey, ambassador to Ireland in the Kennedy administration, has denied knowledge of any payoff. Baker, in earlier hearings, invoked his constitutional privilege under the Fifth Amendment to refuse to testify on matters that might incriminate him.

The new round of hearings stems from a speech Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., made to the Senate Sept. 1. He charged that the alleged payoff came from the government contract a McCloskey corporation held for construction of the Washington, D.C., Stadium.

Quoting Reynolds, Williams said McCloskey paid the Silver Spring, Md., insurance man $35,000 too much for a performance bond on the project, with Reynolds to keep $10,000 and the remaining $25,000 of the overpayment to be funneled through Baker into the Kennedy-Johnson fund. Federal law forbids corporations from contributing to political campaigns.

WERE OVERRULED
Republican committee members tried unsuccessfully to have the politically explosive investigation conducted during the presidential campaign. They were overruled by the Democratic majority.

Baker, who quit his $19,600-a-year government job in October 1963, served directly under President Johnson when Johnson was the Democratic leader of the Senate.

The Long And Short Of It

FOLKESTONE, England (AP) — Beulah Benton, who stands 4 feet 10 in her nylons, won court permission Monday to marry her 6-foot-2 suitor, Tony Fagg. Beulah is 19, Tony 22. Her mother objected to the match because of the difference in height. The girl went to the Folkestone Magistrate's Court, since a magistrate's permission is necessary for persons under 21 to marry without parental consent.

"There are no snags at all in being different sizes," Beulah told the court. The magistrates agreed and gave the couple their blessing.

Beulah's mother said she would be at the wedding smiling.

Her mother, no giant herself at 5 feet, explained: "Beulah was always teased at school because she was so small and I didn't want her to be teased again."

Controversy Around Pius' World War II Acts Rages

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—The controversy over Pope Pius XII's actions in World War II revived Thursday with reports in West Germany and Britain of Nazi documents alleging the pontiff sympathized with the Axis powers.

A high Vatican official said the documents were "clearly partisan because of their source. They are documents from only one of the interested parties."

The German news magazine Der Spiegel reported that Nazi foreign policy documents, soon to be published in book form, revealed that Pope Pius tried to persuade the United States and Britain to shift to Germany's side against the Soviet Union.

Der Spiegel said the pontiff believed the Nazi army was the only defense against communism of Europe.

The magazine said the Nazi documents reported, that the Pope sent an Italian architect, Enrico Pietro Galeazzi, to seek the help of Francis Cardinal Spellman in New York for his anti-Communist plan.

Cardinal Spellman, in Rome for the Vatican Ecumenical Council, was not immediately available for comment.

According to Der Spiegel, the Pope's plan called for Hitler's replacement by another leader, probably Heinrich Himmler.

Another charge The magazine said the documents also proved the charge, raised last year by West German playwright Rolf Hochhuth in the controversial play "The Deputy," that Pope Pius did little to save the Jews from Nazi extermination.

Der Spiegel said the documents report that the pontiff told U.S. diplomat Harold H. Tittmann as early as January 1943 that he believed Allied reports of the mass gassing of Jews "are a bit overdone for propaganda purposes."

"The representative of Christ hardly spoke a clear pastoral word against the crimes of the brown (Nazi) holders of power," the magazine said.

"He never threatened the Nazis with excommunication the way he did the Communists in 1949 and he never allowed himself to be moved by appeals from the Western Allies to bless the democracies' crusade against Adolf Hitler."

The documents show, Der Spiegel continued, that when the Pope did condemn Nazi crimes, he did so "in his filigree-type language and then only in general platitudes" and "he only protested if Catholics were involved."

ATTACKED "DEPUTY" Vatican sources have attacked "The Deputy" as a distorted view serving the interests of communism. Defenders of Pope Pius' wartime stand contend that he was profoundly grieved by the persecution of the Jews but believed that a stronger stand would have made things worse for them.

The British government published excerpts today from captured Nazi documents quoting a German diplomat in Rome as saying in 1941 that the Pope favored the Axis cause.

"In his heart, one is assured time and again, Pius XII stands on the side of the Axis powers," reported Fritz Menshausen, then counsellor of the German Embassy to the Vatican.

The British also made public a memorandum later in 1941, by Bernardo Attilico, then Italian ambassador to the Vatican. He said the Pope had expressed misgivings to him over the Nazi attitude toward the Catholic Church in Germany but that he continued to receive Germans freely at the Vatican.

Der Spiegel said the documents on which it based its story were accidentally discovered in the archives of the West German Foreign Ministry by Swiss historian Saul Friedlaender while he was gathering material on Nazi policy toward the United States.

The British publication was part of a study of German policy between 1918 and 1945 that is being written on the basis of captured archives of the German Foreign Office. The 1,035-page volume issued today carried the study through 1941.

In Washington, the State Department made public German documents which included instructions from Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop for the German Embassy in Washington to wage a campaign among American Jews to keep America out of the war.

When North made a two over one response to South's one spade opening, the latter's thoughts turned to slam. He had 21 points and partner had promised at least 10 when he took out at the level of two. When North showed the spade support on the next round, South made a cue bid of four clubs. This call is forcing for one round and designates first round control in clubs, inasmuch as spades have been agreed upon as trumps.

North's four diamond bid shows a feature in that suit, which South readily recognized to be the king. This was all he needed to hear, and he proceeded without further ado to six spades.

A club opening would have sealed declarer's fate beyond recovery. However, no charge should be levied against West for choosing the more natural lead of the king of hearts. The ace was played from dummy.

South could count 11 top tricks—five spades, one heart, four diamonds, and one club. A 12th trick might be established in hearts by ruffing out North's suit if hearts were divided evenly, but the dummy was unfortunately short of the necessary spades. Presently declarer spotted a way to compensate for his communications problem provided that neither major suit was banked against him.

A heart was ruffed in the closed hand at trick two. The ace of spades was cashed and a small one led to the queen. When all hands followed, the nine was permitted to remain outstanding. Another heart was trumped and dummy reentered with the king of diamonds to ruff away West's queen of hearts with the jack of spades, even though this play established East's trump as the master card in the suit.

South now began to run his diamonds. East ruffed in on the third round to return a club. Declarer put up the ace, discarded North's remaining club on the fourth diamond and ruffed a club with dummy's three of spades. The jack of hearts took the last trick.

Altho declarer deliberately built up a trump trick for his opponent, by so doing he gained two tricks in return. The spade trick came back because he was able to trump three of dummy's hearts and still score the ace, and queen of spades as well as a ruff in the North hand. The fulfilling trick came from North's long heart—the delayed club ruff providing a late entry to dummy.

Delay Granted Sandblom Trial

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Dist. Judge Archie Brown granted a delay Monday in the trial of Paul Sandblom, bankrupt Corpus Christi promoter.

Before granting the state's request for a postponement, the judge quashed a fraud charge against the Creston, Iowa, native. He said the indictment was "vague and indefinite."

Judge Brown left a new date for the trial open at the request of defense lawyer Warren Burnett.

Brown told counsel, however, that the case should be called Jan. 25 or the earliest possible Monday in February, depending on other commitments.

The trial was moved here from Corpus Christi. Since the change of venue, two delays have been allowed.

In requesting the latest postponement, Dist. Atty. James Barlow said the state had prepared its case primarily around the fraud charge which Judge Brown quashed.

Barlow said the state therefore would need more time to work out its case. Burnett did not oppose the motion.

Sandblom, 39, went into voluntary bankruptcy Jan. 7. Since that date 119 persons have filed claims amounting to $5.5 million against his estate. He is free under bonds totaling $280,000. Sandblom likewise faces federal charges of securities and mail fraud and fraud by wire. Similar state indictments also have been returned in San Antonio County.

Prayers For Pontiff's Trip

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The world's half-billion Roman Catholics were asked today to pray for the success of Pope Paul VI's trip to India.

The Pope leaves before dawn Wednesday for the International Eucharistic Congress in Bombay. Plans were made for a special program of prayers in the Vatican and in Rome during the four days of his absence.

It will be the longest absence from Italy of any Pope since Pius VII returned in 1814 after five years in France as a prisoner of Napoleon.

The Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano said Catholics everywhere were asked to pray that the Pope's mission to India may be realized.

The Eucharistic Congress is a gathering of Roman Catholic Church representatives from around the world. The Pope's trip is a personal gesture of friendship by its spiritual ruler to all the non-Christian peoples of Asia.

Movies Flying High These Days

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Reeling air travelers, many of whom had lost the film-going habit.

"We'll be showing 'Murder Ahoy,'" said the passenger agent.

"Oh," replied the traveler. He had seen "Murder Ahoy" on his flight to New York. So he called another airline and booked passage on a flight that was showing "I'd Rather Be Rich."

TWA was first to introduce airborne movies, starting on transatlantic flights two and a half years ago. Later the service was extended to transcontinental flights, in both first-class and tourist.

Thomas McFadden, vice president in charge of marketing, considers the movies an important factor in TWA's climb out of the red and into sizable profits.

Other airlines took notice. This year American Airlines began offering movies on cross-country flights — or stereophonic music for those preferring more relaxed entertainment. Continental Airlines began its Golden Marquee movie service between Los Angeles and Chicago in August and then inaugurated films between Los Angeles and Houston.

A fortnight ago United Air Lines started offering movies on all flights to Hawaii. Installations are now being made to extended the service to coast-to-coast planes after the first of the year.

A Devotional For The Day

God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. (Romans 8:3-4)

PRAYER: Almighty Father, we thank Thee for sending Thy Son into the world as the only sure way to redeem us from our sin. As we celebrate His coming we pray that Thy love may be manifested in our lives. In Christ's name. Amen.

Most Obstructive Rules Need Change

President Johnson faces a difficult decision regarding the movement now afoot to change the rules of Congress, especially the House, to make the legislative body more responsive to the will of the majority and the party leadership.

The President is being urged by the more liberal elements of his party in the House to take advantage of the Democrats' huge majority to push through rule changes that would make it technically easier to get administration bills through. However, if Johnson throws his full influence behind too many and too drastic changes, he could alienate support for bills he urgently wants approved next session.

Another difficulty is that the majority of the Democratic caucus is far from agreed on the exact nature of desirable rules changes. There is bound to be sharp debate, for example, on how to modify the power of the House Rules Committee to bottle up majority-favored legislation without shifting so much control over the flow of bills to the speaker that he would be granted excessive power subject to abuse, as it was earlier in this century.

Also it may be expected that the very fact that the administration party has such an overwhelming majority in both houses may cause committee chairman to avoid such abuses of power as would invite drastic rule changes. House Rules Committee members already are pointing out that no major administration bills were buried by that committee last session, though there were some cliff-hangers.

Nevertheless, surely the new Congress will take the approaching opportunity to modify the most obstructive rules that at times threaten the functioning of the legislative branch. For one example, there should be no hesitation in taking away the wholly unjustifiable power of the House Rules Committee to prevent a bill that has passed both House and Senate from going to a conference committee for compromise and final passage. That double bottleneck at least can be broken.

Voting Modification Favored

Both Gov. John Connally and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith favor modification of the state election laws to grant more latitude for strictness to vote.

The limitations are so strict now that for practical purposes only a Texan may cast a ballot in his home county if he is in the military service. The courts have held to a rigid interpretation of the statutes.

One can appreciate the original intent of maintaining civil control of government, or from avoiding disproportionate weight to a transitory electorate. Yet, the military has now become a career just as law, medicine, teaching, or what have you. Those who are stationed in a community long enough to satisfy residence requirements, particularly where they are bona fide residents to the extent of owning property, should have some consideration.

It is time that Texas took another look at its voting code to give servicemen a better break.

The Cult Of Anti-Success

WASHINGTON—Governor Luis Muñoz Marin of Puerto Rico, soon to retire with his country's highest honors, is a poet by avocation—a good man with words.

He was irritated the other day when a U.N. committee on colonialism voted to consider Puerto Rico's "independence" from the U.S.A. A minuscule minority of 27 per cent voted that way in the island's November 2nd election. The precision-minded governor put the matter well:

"PUERTO RICANS have self-determination... they did not choose to have their political liberty in the form of independence."

Self-determination... liberty... independence. The words are similar in meaning, but not identical except in the stupid jargon of level-down liberalism. The U.N. action was taken in conjunction with the Communist bloc and by the abstention of countries like Denmark and Venezuela which ought to know better.

BUT the significance goes deeper than an ignorance of the meaning of words. Here is an outcropping of a cult that dominates in nearly all decisions these days. Call it the cult of anti-success.

Puerto Rico has done well in its special postwar status as a commonwealth "in association" with the U.S.A. Nearly 60 per cent of the electorate voted to let well enough alone, and 34 per cent voted for statehood in the American Union. But the nearly invisible minority, the election-year failures, is what caught the mandarin sympathy of the level-downers at the U.N. Punish success. Exterminate diversity and choice. Reduce excellence to the common level of mediocrity. Do it all by smudging of the subtleties of thought and by the dethronement of stigmatized thinking.

LIBERALISM in our times has a lot to answer for. It has founded the cult of anti-success, which is the enemy of opportunity, the soft-shoe assassin which feeds slow poison to democracy. Anti-success movements would take away the earned privileges in the name of "freedom" for those who have not earned privileges. The President's plan for education is public financing for any person with the ability to go to college. His plan is certain to lower educational standards for the accommodation of the many, certain to destroy excellence. The war on poverty may become a march toward mediocrity for all. The wholesaling of medical care does not lift the medical profession, but depresses its benefits to spread them wider.

AND UNLESS there is an unexpected victory over the anti-success cultists, Mr. Johnson's proposed tax revision in the 89th Congress will not find the heart of the taxation philosophy. Everywhere, the cult of anti-success. Everywhere, the inability to find enough persons who use and understand words of precision. Freedom does not mean that Puerto Rico should be independent, or that the underprivileged should be given every advantage of the privileged, or that the tax structure should be turned into an apparatus for sharing the rewards of accomplishment.

Billy Graham
I want to know how you feel about the adage, "Virtue when used to excess becomes vice." Do you agree with this? C. H.
This is a familiar, old adage and has been used a great deal. But the sense in which it has been used has to do more with the kind of superficial hypocrisy that some people practice and not genuine Biblical holiness of life.
There were people in the days of Jesus who did exactly the thing that is attacked by the old saying. Jesus pointed out that the hypocrites when they would give alms would sound the trumpet so that they could be seen of man. He told of others who would pray only when they were standing on a street corner where a crowd could see that they were praying. They paraded their piety publicly to make an impression upon people, but it made a very slight impression upon God.
If the virtue is hypocritical, then, of course, it becomes a vice. But Biblical holy living is the normal way of life of a person dedicated to God and in whom the Spirit of God has come to dwell.

Crucial Problems Before Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, far more wrapped up in home problems than foreign ones, has had a year to prepare himself for asserting world leadership.

He has asserted very little of it yet in any truly visible way. Just because his foreign experience is limited, it remains to be seen how good he is in this field, or if he is good at all.

At this moment American foreign leadership is beginning to look a little beat up and flattered. Two good examples: the disintegrating war in Viet Nam and this country's rickety NATO alliance with the West Europeans.

But he must prove himself soon, for time is running out on him.

TODAY TWO of his biggest immediate problems were in his lap, seeking solution: What to do about the Soviet Union in the United Nations and how to win the Vietnamese war or at least not lose it in total disaster.

Perhaps in his first year, when he had simply inherited the presidency, Johnson was reluctant to be pushed in foreign affairs, wondering if he could claim the full endorsement of the nation.

He can have no such reluctance now after the approval he got in his landslide election victory.

He has provided none of the sense of life and movement that distinguished President John F. Kennedy in foreign affairs, even when he accomplished little or blundered, as he did in the Cuban invasion disaster of 1961.

In time the action and good will Kennedy put into foreign affairs may be considered his greatest contribution to the presidency. At the same time, he was no match for Johnson in getting programs through Congress.

JOHNSON, AS President since Kennedy's death, necessarily has had final say in this country's foreign decisions. But they have had none of Kennedy's shine if only for the reason that while Kennedy acted in full view of the nation and the world with his decisions and his programs, Johnson has called the shots most of the time from off-stage and out of view, using aides as emissaries.

Since that fatal Nov. 22, 1963, in Dallas, Johnson seems to have had three main occupations, all of them domestic: getting programs through Congress, running for election, and in the weeks since then at his Texas ranch getting his 1965 budget and programs ready for the Congress returning in January.

Pointers From Mailbag

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Embezzling now is a billion-dollar industry in America. The typical embezzler is 36, has two children and has about a $150 a week salary.

Nobody knows for certain the actual date of Christ's birth. In 354 A.D. the bishop of Rome chose Dec. 25. During colonial days the children of Dutch families in New York celebrated St.

Around The Rim

Ah, Fame Is A Fickle Thing!

Thirty-four years ago a young fellow came into the newsroom. He introduced himself as Fred Newton, of Lawton, Okla.

The year was 1930 and there was recession in business building up. Further, it was a period when there were all sorts of weird experiments under way. College boys were seeking to establish records for swallowing live goldfish. Andy Payne had won the union derby by walking across the nation. Flagpole sitters were vying to and fro everywhere.

THIS YOUNG FELLOW had a more ambitious plan. He wanted to swim the entire length of the Mississippi River—from Minneapolis to New Orleans. It sounded wacky but I wrote some stories about the lad and his plans.

Anyway, strange as it may seem, he did just what he set out to do. He swam the Mississippi from one end to the other. The distance was 2,300 miles, and he was in the water 782 hours. It took him from July 6 to Dec. 29. He had hoped to cash in on the publicity from his effort. Unfortunately it didn't work out that way.

I HAD NOT THOUGHT of Fred for a good many years. The other day I got a letter in an elaborately engraved envelope, captioned Relaxo-Bak, Inc., Gainesville. It was one of those window type envelopes, and I figured it was a sales pitch of some sort. When I looked on the back I read "I ain't trying to sell you anything," scrawled in ink.

Inside was a letter. It was from Newton.

"I just read a news story in which you were quoted," Newton wrote.

"I said to myself, 'I wonder if that is the same Sam Blackburn who came to Lawton about 42 years ago and then went to Ardmore and became famous as the author of the Wicked Flea column?' Hell, son, you could be his son or grandson. I knew that my Sam left Ardmore several years ago but I never did learn where he went or why he had to leave ...

"IF YOU ARE the same old Sam I want you to know I still have among my possessions a story you wrote about me when I was training to swim down the Mississippi River. In case you don't remember how it came out I swam all the way from Minneapolis to New Orleans. The first freezing weather overtook me at Natchez, Miss.—I put on the axle grease a little thicker and kept going. Well, by the time I reached New Orleans on Dec. 29 at 1:30 p.m. I was pretty cold, broke and the Depression had really set in. Chances to cash in the stunt were voided by the money panic. I hitchhiked home in a pair of borrowed shoes and was soon relegated to the also-rans.

"LAWTON AND Clinton (Okla.) got into a big wrangle over which was my home town. I was flattered until I found out that Clinton was claiming that I was from Lawton, and Lawton was saying I was Clinton product."

About all Fred got out of his difficult achievement was mention in such places as Ripley's "Believe It Or Not," John Hix's "Strange as It Seems," and Robert Edgren's "Miracles of Sports." He never made a dime out of his experiment.

NOW HE IS the inventor of a gadget called Relaxo-Bak which he says prevents about 90 per cent of the driving fatigue for motorists.

"I have been shooting at big deals all my life, Sam," he wrote, "Maybe this is the time."

Well, Fred, I sure hope so. And I might add, I ain't my son or grandson—I'm me.

Not Capable Of Self-Government

WASHINGTON — The right-thinkers will get ya if you are caught reading the true meaning into the savagery in the Congo or the suicidal turmoil in Southeast Asia.

But the truth is too compelling to ignore, no matter how counter it runs to the simpering orthodoxy of the uplifters. The fact is that the blacks in the Congo and the diminutive ne'er-do-wells who multiply on the banks of the Mekong just can't cope.

THE CONGOLESE can't cope with the century, they can't cope with any manifestation of modern technology more complicated than a blade suitable for eviscerating helpless captives, and their ethical concepts go about as far as ritual cannibalism and no further.

The little brown brothers who have succeeded in getting us bogged down in a hopeless war in the steaming swamps of Southeast Asia are no better. They have given up exposing unwanted female kin to die in the jungle, having found it more profitable, and perhaps even more humane, to sell them into prostitution. But they are no better equipped to invoke the disciplines required for viable self-government than the barbarous simpatons in the Congo are.

THE GREAT delusion in the years immediately following World War II was that at least the white man could lay down the burden he had toted since the Crusades. Emerging nations were the thing, and no proper diplomatic reception could ever again be held without a quorum of pompous, self-important Afro-Asian literates trying to condition taste buds long accustomed to missionary ragout to the taste of 12-year-old Scotch. There are now, heaven help us, 112 member nations in the United Nations—perhaps 15 per cent of which are no more than louse-ridden, tuberculosis enclaves, which in any sane society would be reserved for use as penal colonies.

NO ONE ALIVE today can assert with any confidence that self-government works in the best of circumstances. The last American election was a disgrace, and demonstrated only that the paranoid schizophrenics haven't yet achieved a working majority. The good voters of Blighty (beyond question the laziest people on earth) replaced one incompetent government with another equally do-less, and bought themselves a financial crisis that erupted when investors rightly concluded that England was no place for the prudent man to keep his money.

NOW ACCORDING to the egghead ethic that has grown up in the last quarter century, all that is needed to achieve human perfection is that all men have control of their own destinies, however wildly unqualified for the task they may be.

As for the Congo, with its screaming brutes, Viet Nam, with its mad conspirators, Mississippi, with its red-neck night riders, and all other such dismal places, sane people must soon understand that they are not remotely capable of governing themselves, nor, indeed, even of ordinary congress with civilized people.

The Race For Survival In India

NEW DELHI—Having driven hundreds of miles through the Indian countryside this observer can attest without benefit of a single statistic to the No. 1 problem—the population explosion.

The cities and the villages swarm with children of every age. Mothers go about their tasks with three or four offspring under five years of age trailing them. It is an extraordinary example of fertility in a people who live close to the line of hunger often in conditions of squalor and almost-incredible overcrowding.

THE STATISTICS are there to reinforce the evidence of the eye. As late as 1956 the hopeful assumption of India's planners was that the population was growing at the modest rate of 1.1 per cent a year. That would have been a tolerable increase.

But a careful census showed that the rate through the decade of the 'fifties was 2.1 per cent. It is now 2.3 per cent and the government recognizes that heroic measures are necessary if the flood is to be checked. The fourth five-year plan calls for a large allocation for the manufacture of contraceptives and the teaching of birth-control methods and the need for family limitation. The goal is to stall the downturn by 1966.

BUT EXTRAORDINARY difficulties stand in the way with a population largely illiterate. With the best of intentions in New Delhi and in the capitals of the various states, getting the word and the means and the method out to the villagers will require the most intensive and concentrated effort.

The very concept seems to escape simple people accustomed to accepting child bearing as an inevitable law of life.

IT IS HARDLY an exaggeration to say that for India this is literally a matter of survival. Food production in the 'fifties was increasing at the rate of 2½ per cent a year, hardly enough to keep abreast of the additional mouths to feed. The goal for agriculture is now being set at a four-to-five per cent increase. Yet, even if this is achieved it will mean little real betterment in the scale of living unless the population flow is turned down.

If India had begun to apply in 1947 the same methods used by Japan beginning that year there would today be a food surplus instead of a food deficit. Japan's birth rate is today around half that of India. But a major factor in the Japanese success is abortion and for the great mass of Hindu that is prescribed.

WHILE BIRTH CONTROL is a dubious struggle, death control—thanks to modern science—is a huge success. Before World War II up to a hundred million persons contracted malaria each year. Entire villages were laid low and life all but ceased. Malaria caused as many as 2,000,000 deaths annually.

Today the disease has been virtually eliminated. Thanks to DDT and an efficient malaria control operation, only scattered cases are reported.

With 480,000,000 people it is a race for survival in which India is engaged. If with all possible help from every source food production can be increased and the rising tide of population pushed back that race may be won. The consequences, if it is lost, can be foreseen in breakdown and anarchy on a scale rarely if ever before in man's grim history.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Among the enlarged federal payroll costs you will be helping to meet (You, there, Dear Taxpayer) are these—retroactive to July:

Cabinet members, a $10,000 raise, to $35,000; federal judges, $7,500, to $30,000; Supreme Court justices, a $4,500 raise to $39,500, and the chief justice to $40,000. Simultaneously, in this act of escalation, Congress gave itself a $7,500-per-member raise, too; but that doesn't become effective until January.

Notre Dame College Funds Trial Continues

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Evidence relating to religious activities at Notre Dame College of Maryland was to be presented today in the second day of a trial challenging use of tax funds by church-supported colleges.

The Horace Mann League and 12 Maryland residents filed the suit in Anne Arundel County Circuit Court. It attacks an unconstitutional granting of $2.5 million in state funds to Notre Dame and three other private colleges for constructing buildings.

If the grants should be held unconstitutional, the decision could lead to a drastic change in church-state relationships in a number of educational and charitable fields.

In Monday's opening session lawyers for the league read extensively from Notre Dame publications in an attempt to demonstrate ties between the college and the Roman Catholic Church.

Included were quotations from a student handbook that Notre Dame "first is Catholic," and that objectives of the college are in harmony "with the philosophy and theology of the Catholic Church."

Leo Pfeffer, one of the three lawyers for the plaintiffs, contended that use of tax funds to construct buildings for such colleges amounts to public support of "a place of worship or ministry."

Thomas B. Finan, state attorney general, said that at least eight U.S. Supreme Court decisions "demonstrate that these appropriations do not breach the wall of separation between church and state."

However, he added that the precise question raised in the case has not been decided by the Supreme Court.

Other colleges involved in the suit are another Catholic school, St. Joseph's; Western Maryland, Methodist-affiliated, and Hood, connected with the United Church of Christ.

Contribution For U.T. Law School

AUSTIN (AP) — Hugh Stone and his wife Lucile of San Angelo have donated $400,000 for an endowed chair in civil law at the University of Texas.

In announcing this Monday, the school said it is the largest single contribution to the law school and makes available the school's first endowed chair.

Stone, former general counsel for Gulf Oil Corp., has been a trustee of the law school foundation since 1952. He received a bachelor of laws degree from the university in 1908.

DEAR ABBY

Cat Lovers Heard From

DEAR ABBY: I received a clipping from your column in this morning's mail. It was about a neighbor who had a houseful of cats. The house smelled to high heaven, there were cat hairs all over the furniture and the place was filthy, and for that reason nobody wanted to visit her.

Well, I must be that person because I do have a houseful of cats, but I would like to say something:

Half of these cats are not mine! It seems that when anyone in this town wants to get rid of a cat, or some new-born kittens, they drop them off in my yard because they know I love cats and I will give them a good home. I called the Humane Society once to come and pick up some cats that weren't mine. They came out, but were unable to catch them. Now, if you can tell me how to get rid of the cats that are not mine, I will be glad to do so. I will not destroy them.

CAT LOVER IN PHOENIX

DEAR ABBY: There are worse people than cat-lovers, you know. I am referring to people who tear something out of a newspaper and mail it to someone without signing their name.

Someone mailed me your column. In it was a letter about a neighbor who lived alone except for a houseful of cats. They said the house stank, the furniture was filthy, there were cat hairs all over the place and that was the reason nobody ever wanted to visit the woman. They went on to say that the woman herself was a very nice person and they didn't want to hurt her feelings by telling her. Well, Abby, in the first place, I do not have a "houseful" of cats. I have only 16. In the second place, if I wanted company I would invite them. I do not miss people. My cats are better friends to me than any of my neighbors. LOVES CATS

IN CHARLOTTE, N.C.

DEAR ABBY: Somebody wanted to be sure I didn't miss that letter in your column about the lady who kept a lot of cats, so they tore it out of the CHICAGO'S AMERICAN and mailed it to me. I wasn't fooled for a minute. I know who sent it. She's a neighbor of mine who loves birds. Tell her to sweep her own doorstep first. At least my cats know what a sandbox is for. She lets her birds out of their cages and they fly all over her house! Then she burns incense to cover up the odor. Whew! TO THE BIRD LADY FROM THE CAT LADY

DEAR ABBY: I read about that woman who collected cats and the neighbors complained. She sounds like my mother. Did that letter come from Victoria, Texas?

Tires Pass Rigid Tests Before Sale

DETROIT (AP) — It is doubtful if any industry sends its products through more punishing tests than those which the rubber industry gives to its tires.

The Rubber Manufacturers Association recently put into effect an even more stringent set of tests which its tires must pass before they are made available to the consumer.

One test involves high speed. Tires are tested at a break-in period of 100 miles at 50 miles an hour; this is followed by 50 miles at 75 miles an hour and then final runs averaging past 85 miles an hour.

NEW STANDARDS

Ross R. Ormsby, president of RMA, said the new standards were set up to create a better understanding among motorists of the severe rigors which new tires have undergone by the manufacturer before the customer is asked to put his money on the line and choose a tire.

John C. Wright Jr., vice president of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., said in an interview this week that road and track testing of tires, already running into millions of miles and dollars annually, will get even more emphasis in the years ahead.

"More and more testing under actual operating conditions will be required to keep tires in step with improvements in cars and highways," he said.

Wright said Goodyear, which is headquartered in Akron, is beefing up its 7,000-acre proving ground at San Angelo, Texas, in preparation for the 100 miles per hour legal speeds which he says are sure to come eventually on major highways.

Goodyear's present San Angelo facilities include practically every road condition which a driver might meet in his travels. Scheduled for completion in December is the first 8.2-mile section of a 20-mile "twist and turn" private highway designed to provide tire-wrenching turns for tires.

All U.S. auto companies have tire testing facilities. Goodyear spends about $4 million a year on its test facilities, half of that amount going into the San Angelo project.

TIRE TESTING

He said the increase in tire testing costs has been necessitated by the steadily improving performance of cars and the growing network of interstate highways and other high speed roads. Where high speed driving for the average driver once was confined to relatively short stretches, it is possible today to drive at 65 to 70 miles per hour almost uninterrupted from coast to coast.

Wright said tubeless construction and improved materials have lessened the chance of having a blowout, even at high speeds.

"But on the other hand," he said, "a blowout at today's speeds, in today's busy traffic, is much more likely to end in an injury or death for the motorist."

That is why the auto companies have such rigorous testing programs on their own — to make certain that tires are as safe as they can be.

Curtain goes up at 8:15 p.m. in the City Auditorium. This is the second in the current Big Spring Concert Association series and is open only to those with season memberships.

Publisher Of Mercury Dies

MALLEN, Tex. (AP) — Jason Matthews, 77, publisher of the American Mercury, died Monday. He had been a Malles resident for 25 years.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday.

Matthews, a writer, composer and conservative political leader, became publisher of the Mercury several years ago. The magazine is a literary digest established by the late H. L. Mencken.

Mrs. Matthews died last year. She and her husband both were officers in the Legion for the Survival of Freedom.

Charles Hohman and Don Fenwick. Lyle Talbot is a veteran of over 150 films, has been on television for years, and is also an experienced artist of the stage.

Miss Singleton, similarly, has a few score pictures to her credit, including the popular Blondie series, has a varied background on Broadway productions, television and radio.

They are cast as the sixtyish husband and the fiftyish wife who learn they are about to be visited with a bundle from heaven. He reacts as though an earthquake has shaken his world to the foundations, and his exasperation is multiplied by her radiant joy at this unlooked-for blessing. Moreover, he is instantly dislodged from his place as the dominant center of the family. But his reaction pales beside that of his daughter and stick-in-the-mud son-in-law. "Never Too Late," still going strong on Broadway after two years, passed its 500 performance in late October.

Testimony Is Contradictory On Braceros

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spokesmen for organized labor and agricultural interests presented sharply conflicting testimony Monday over the need for importing foreign farm workers.

"No 'No such workers should brought into the United States," said Jacob Clayman, administrative director of the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department, in testimony to a Labor Department hearing.

Stewart Boswell, speaking for agricultural employers from 35 states, said farm laborers from Mexico and other nearby countries are needed on U. S. farms.

The hearing to consider new procedures for employing foreign workers after present federal programs expire Dec. 31.

Beginning Jan. 1, all such workers must come in under immigration laws.

The hearing will move Dec. 2 to Miami, Dec. 4 to Dallas, and Dec. 7 to San Francisco.

It comes in its own box.

There has to be a little Scrooge in you to give a Volkswagen Station Wagon for Christmas. Because when you open it up, it's just a big, empty box.

It has nearly twice the room as conventional wagons that don't look like boxes. It holds 9 conventional adults or who-knows-how-many unconventional kids.

Or you can put a 40-foot Christmas tree right through the hole in the roof. You can carry 170 cubic feet of snow or go skiing with the skis inside. At this time of year, you'll enjoy the VW's firm traction. (The engine is in back, over the drive wheels.)

And you'll never spend a dime on antifreeze; the engine is air-cooled. (Which also means it can't boil over next summer.)

There are a few other tight-fisted items you'll go for: 35,000 miles on a set of tires, better than 20 mpg and hardly any oil between changes. Let us hear from you, Scrooge.

Ten Jefferson Operators Win Special Allowables

AUSTIN (AP) — Ten small tract operators in the Jefferson County Port Acres Field won bigger special gas production allowables for 22 of their wells Monday.

The Texas Railroad Commission agreed with the producers that special allowables set Nov. 14, 1963, would not permit them to recover their investment.

The new allowable for each well is 238,000 cubic feet daily, a major increase over the previous 150,000 cubic feet per day. To make up for the long delay in consideration of this matter, the commission also granted producers an additional 88,000 cubic feet per day for the next 382 days.

Its new order changes compromise allowables granted after the Texas Supreme Court voided production formulas favoring small tract operators, but the producers still didn't get all they wanted.

"We had requested 350,000 cubic feet a day, so this is not a tremendous victory," said lawyer John Goldsum, who represented the 10 operators. He is a law partner of former Gov. Price Daniel.

Goldsum said it has not been decided whether to ask another increase.

The commission said it decided to raise the allowable, "knowing that the gas produced under the special allowable adopted will largely be drained from the adjoining properties."

Texas Supreme Court decisions in 1961 and 1962 invalidated formulas allocating production one-third among producers and two-thirds on the basis of tract size. Such formulas, the court said, discriminate against producers on large

FAA Checking Lamesa Boom

Some plate glass windows were shattered, dishes and loose objects fell off their pedestals, ear drums started ringing, a bicycle fell over, and the police department's switch-board lighted up like Christmas decorations in Lamesa shortly after 7 p.m. last night.

Some sort of explosion, or sonic boom, shook the city's population out of a quiet evening. But nobody seems to know what happened.

The matter has been turned over to the Federal Aviation Agency in Fort Worth for investigation to determine if there was a "hot rod" pilot of a jet aircraft in the area.

Webb Air Force Base authorities said the 331st FIS had no aircraft in the air, and other jets from the base were all south of Big Spring.

A service station operator in Lamesa said he heard the teeth-rattling explosion, or boom, and saw what appeared to be a jet aircraft streaking from the northeast to the southwest. No word of anyone outside the Lamesa city limits hearing the sound was reported this morning.

Only speculation reigned in Lamesa today, but some nerves were slightly shattered, along with windows and dishes. An airplane was sent out from Webb AFB last night to see if a possible fire, resulting from the explosion, could be spotted or if jet aircraft could be located. Nothing resulted.

Vets To Get Portable Sets

Six portable television sets will be presented Thursday to the Veterans Administration Hospital here by two local veterans groups, the Disabled American Veterans Big Spring Chapter 47 and the DAV Auxiliary.

Commander R. R. McKinney of the DAV chapter, Mrs. Dortha Parsons, president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. Fay Horton, auxiliary secretary, are scheduled to make the presentations.

McKinney is also contacting veterans organizations in the area to obtain contributions toward installation of the yearly rental for a television cable for sets at the hospital. The portable sets will be used for hospital wards, bringing television reception to those patients unable to go to day rooms, where sets are now located, McKinney said.

On initial production the well pumped 71 barrels of 29.3 gravity oil with 45 per cent water. Gas-oil ratio was 325 to 1.

The Garza location is James G. Brown No. 4 Slaughter, a quarter of a mile southwest of the pool opener and an eighth of a mile of the Brown No. 2 Slaughter, a Koonsman NE Spraberry venture, will be 1,667 from the north and 2,100 from the east lines of section 20-2, T&NO.

Glider Club Plans Talked

Eighteen persons, interested in glider planes, met at the chamber of commerce office Monday night to hear about gliding. Alvin Parker, Odessa, an experienced glider pilot, explained gliding and showed slides of various types of craft used.

No immediate action was taken by the group on the organization of a club. Dr. F. W. Lurting, who helped arrange the meeting, said some time would be allowed for thinking over the possibilities. Another meeting may be called later if the interest grows and there is evidence of enough members to organize and purchase a glider plane.

He leaves Wednesday for Wolfenbuttel and a two-day visit with the Queen's Royal Irish Hussars, in which he is colonel-in-chief. He will then visit Royal Air Force units in two German cities, followed by a week's hunting in Germany and official visits to Paris, Brussels and Morocco.

Computer Due This Month

Howard County's new computer, which is to handle tax accounts and the books of the county auditor, will be delivered to the Howard County tax office sometime this month by a representative of the Burroughs Company told the Howard County Commissioners Court Monday.

The machine, to cost $18,000, will expedite handling tax accounts and also set up a highly simplified system by which Wade Choate, auditor, can keep tabs on all county moneys and inventories.

The machine, ordered some months ago, is described as being so new that none of its kind is in operation anywhere.

Retiring Rep. Kilgore Lauded At Big Dinner

McALLEN (AP) — Retiring U.S. Rep. Joe Kilgore heard Gov. John Connally and other state and local officials praise his work in Congress Monday night and predict he would soon return to public office.

A total of 850 persons, mostly residents of the 13 counties in the South Texas 15th District Kilgore has represented for 10 years, attended the $7.50 a plate dinner.

Some Texans anticipated when Kilgore announced early this year he would not seek another term that he would oppose Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., in the May primary election.

Kilgore did not remove himself as a possible Yarborough challenger until the final filing day, reportedly as a result of President Johnson's unannounced support for Yarborough.

JOIN FIRM

The 45-year-old Kilgore kept alive speculation he might make a statewide race when he decided to join a law firm in Austin, the state's political headquarters. Connally referred to the possibility in his address.

"It is difficult for me to adequately explain what a great loss it is to the district and the nation to be without his talents in a position of great responsibility," Connally said.

"However, I trust his absence from a position of trust and responsibility will not be long." The crowd applauded.

Connally began his address by listing Kilgore's accomplishments, then stopped to say: "A mere recitation of his official acts I think would be a great disservice because he deserves more—his influence went far beyond the 15th District.

"Joe is recognized throughout the nation as one of the most dedicated, respected, knowledgeable public servants in Congress."

CONNALLY GIFT

Connally presented Kilgore a personal gift, a bronze plaque with the state seal.

The Rio Grande Valley Chamber of Commerce presented him an automobile, a Lincoln Continental.

Former Gov. Allan Shivers was master of ceremonies. State officials present included Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, State Highway Commission Chairman

City Requests A Referendum

The city has sent a request to the Texas State Department of Public Welfare for a referendum to be held for fire and police personnel of the city concerning the Social Security system, City Manager Larry Crow said today.

Crow said the time of the election would be determined by the state officials.

The resolutions passed by the city commission last week formally requesting the state department to hold the election have been sent to the public welfare offices in Austin, Crow said, which will in turn contact the federal Social Security administration concerning the request.

Driver Injured In Car Mishap

Several minor traffic accidents were reported to police Monday. Mrs. Pauline C. Banks, 1106 NW 7th, was taken to Cowper Clinic-Hospital, examined and released, after the car she was driving collided with a vehicle driven by Carlos Fierro, 510 N. San Antonio, at Tenth and Johnson Streets.

A car driven by Jimmy D. Flynn, Route 2, received considerable damage, according to police, after it struck a telephone pole in the 2100 block of Warren Street Monday afternoon. A passenger in the car, Larry Cahill, 1005 Wood, was treated for minor injuries and released at Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital.

Other accident locations and drivers included 600 block of Eleventh Place, Mrs. Joyce Bell, 2402 Alendale, and Mrs. Nell Pond, Box 1220; and Johnson and Fourteenth Streets, LeVeret Thornton, 1416 Wood, and Linda Joe Franklin, 3703 Dixon.

Wreck Review Board Meets

The city accident review board was to hold its second meeting this afternoon in city hall, with four accidents to be considered.

The board meets to consider ways in which accidents might have been avoided, Assistant City Manager Roy Anderson said, and is not a disciplinary group.

One of the four accidents being considered in today's session was an unavoidable one for the city employees involved, Anderson said. Other accidents are discussed regarding whether they may be charged to the driver involved, he pointed out. The board's first session was during September.

Operator set 5 1/2-inch casing at 2,285 feet, and perforated at six intervals from 1,334 feet to 1,405 feet. He acidized with 500 gallons and fractured with 30,000 gallons. On initial production the well pumped 71 barrels of 29.3 gravity oil with 45 per cent water. Gas-oil ratio was 325 to 1.

The Garza location is James G. Brown No. 4 Slaughter, a quarter of a mile southwest of the pool opener and an eighth of a mile of the Brown No. 2 Slaughter, a Koonsman NE Spraberry venture, will be 1,667 from the north and 2,100 from the east lines of section 20-2, T&NO.

Pecos Growers Gas Co. of Dallas has staked a Penn Reef explorer a mile north of Vincent in the West Vincent area to go to 7,800 feet rotary. It is the No. 2-A Willis Winters, spotted 467 feet from the north and west lines of section 6-25, H&TC survey.

Glider Club Plans Talked

Eighteen persons, interested in glider planes, met at the chamber of commerce office Monday night to hear about gliding. Alvin Parker, Odessa, an experienced glider pilot, explained gliding and showed slides of various types of craft used.

No immediate action was taken by the group on the organization of a club. Dr. F. W. Lurting, who helped arrange the meeting, said some time would be allowed for thinking over the possibilities. Another meeting may be called later if the interest grows and there is evidence of enough members to organize and purchase a glider plane.

LONDON (AP) — Prince Philip of Great Britain will spend a month in Germany before joining Queen Elizabeth and the royal family at Windsor Castle for their Christmas observance.

He leaves Wednesday for Wolfenbuttel and a two-day visit with the Queen's Royal Irish Hussars, in which he is colonel-in-chief. He will then visit Royal Air Force units in two German cities, followed by a week's hunting in Germany and official visits to Paris, Brussels and Morocco.

His sister-in-law, Princess Margaret, according to the royal announcements Sunday will visit Uganda next March accompanied by her husband, Lord Snowdon.

QBClub Makes Banquet Plans

Plans for the Dec. 19 banquet honoring members of the Big Spring High School football team and their coaches will be firming up at tonight's meeting of the Quarterback Club, scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock in the High School Cafeteria.

Coach Don Robbins will also give a brief rundown on prospects from the 1965 season during the session.

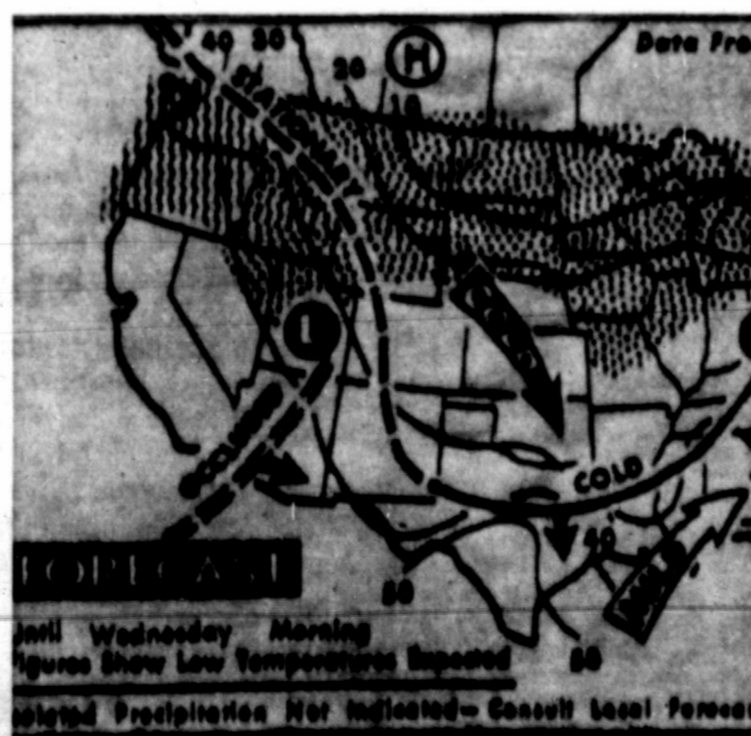

Tickets for the banquet, which will be held in the HCJC cafeteria and which will have J. T. King, Texas Tech coach, as its chief speaker, are now on sale to the public at $2.50 each.

Computer Due This Month

Howard County's new computer, which is to handle tax accounts and the books of the county auditor, will be delivered to the Howard County tax office sometime this month by a representative of the Burroughs Company told the Howard County Commissioners Court Monday.

The machine, to cost $18,000, will expedite handling tax accounts and also set up a highly simplified system by which Wade Choate, auditor, can keep tabs on all county moneys and inventories.

The machine, ordered some months ago, is described as being so new that none of its kind is in operation anywhere.

Weather Forecast

Snow is expected from the northern Rockies and Basin to the upper Lakes Tuesday night with showers in the Pacific northwest. It will be colder from the northern Plains to the Atlantic and in eastern Gulf coast and warmer from the southern Plateau to the upper Mississippi valley and the Ohio valley. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Drive Launched To Help Otto's Ranch At Notrees

Otto's Boys Ranch located near Odessa, is sponsoring its annual Christmas drive. This will be the largest fund-raising drive the ranch has ever held. This year we are going to the towns and cities that send us boys to ask for help."

Recent Mild Weather Benefits Texas Crops

AUSTIN (AP)—Recent mild weather has been good for Texas crops, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said Monday. Cotton and peanut harvests advanced rapidly last week and some vegetables moved at peak volume from the Rio Grande Valley, the department said in its weekly crop and weather report.

Cotton harvest "will soon surpass gin capacity," it said. The harvest is 52 per cent complete, compared with 61 per cent at this time last year. Peanut harvest has reached 72 per cent completion, compared to 87 per cent a year ago. Sorghum combining is nearing

U.S. Smoking Stand Stays

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP)—U.S. Surgeon General Luther Terry says a jury that found cigarettes "reasonably safe for human consumption" decided a damage suit and did not repudiate the government's report linking smoking and lung cancer.

The family of Edwin Green of Miami sued the American Tobacco Co. for $1.5 million in damages, alleging that Green's death from lung cancer in 1957 was the result of 30 years of smoking Lucky Strike cigarettes.

A federal court jury, instructed to decide if cigarettes are reasonably safe and if not, to award damages, returned a verdict saying: "We find for the defendants."

Ghanan Holds 2 Distinctions With U.N. Assembly Position

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, slated for election today as president of the U.N. General Assembly, will have two distinctions in the office.

He will be the youngest president and the first African Negro in the post in the 19 years the assembly has been holding annual sessions.

Quaison-Sackey is only 40. The youngest previous president was Paul-Henri Spaak, now foreign minister of Belgium, who was 47 when he presided over the first session in 1946.

Quaison-Sackey has been head of Ghana's U.N. delegation since mid-1959. He is a broad-faced, broad-bodied man of something more than medium height whose ways reflect the two cultures, African and European, that produced him.

He studied at Oxford and read law at Lincoln's Inn in London.

Assistant U.S. Secretary of State for Latin American Affairs Thomas Mann arrived last night. He was accompanied by Rep. Hale Boggs and Tom Kilfefer, executive director of the Bank for Inter-American Development.

Mann said he is optimistic about the prospects for solution of problems currently affecting Mexican-U.S. relations.

Choirs Making Plans For Holiday Concert

Three Big Spring choirs are making preparations for a joint Christmas concert Dec. 17. They are the high school Goliad and Runnels junior high choirs. New robes for the two junior high choirs are expected during the week and will be worn during the concert.

Mrs. R. V. Colclazer, public relations director for the Choir Boosters, said the organization, during 1963, helped send the high school choir to Los Angeles, Calif., to perform with the high school band; purchased sweaters for the qualified senior choir members; and sent a student to Houston to perform with the all-State choir.

"Our main project for 1964-65 is to purchase robes for the Goliad and Runnels junior high school choirs," she said. The robes are ordered and will be delivered the first week in December. "We ask continued support as we feel this is a worthwhile project."

Some parents of choir members asked to purchase robes outright, and then donate them to the school choir instead of contributing to the fund-raising projects. This will be appreciated, Mrs. Colclazer said, and anyone wanting to purchase robes should contact Mrs. William F. Nolen, booster president, or the director of the choir member's school choir.

"We have three choir directors in the school system: Mel Ivey, high school; Don Morton, Goliad Junior High; and Hubert Murphy, Runnels Junior High. Through their efforts the school choral interest has grown. They have provided entertainment for many clubs and organizations, and are now getting ready for the joint concert Dec. 17. The high school choral department are rehearsing for the Dec. 3-5 presentations of "The Music Man", she said.

"Everyone is urged to make plans to attend the concert and "The Music Man," she added. Concessions for the latter will be sponsored by the boosters.

Booster meetings are held on the third Tuesday of each month, in the high school library, at 7:30 p.m.

Ore Diggers Rally To Defeat Hawks

Coach Moe Iba pressed tall and talented David Latin into action on a full-time basis in the second half and the Negro from Houston swung the issue the other way as Texas Western's freshmen defeated HCJC's Jayhawks, 80-71, here Monday night.

The game opened the season for the El Paso team. HCJC is now 2-3. The Jayhawks, who finished third in the recent Holiday tournament at Garden City, Kan., against some of the nation's finest teams, looked much, much better than they did in their opening game against Ranger last week.

Eddy Nelson, Travis' team worked its patterns well. Its passing was much slicker and the boys wore their shooting clothes into the gym. This is beginning to shape up as the type of team

Southwest Texas Star Versatile

By HAROLD CLAASSEN Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — If you are good, it doesn't matter much just where you play.

Take the case of Jerry Cole, Southwest Texas State football player, as an example.

A year ago the 6-foot, 4-inch athlete was named as an end on The Associated Press Little College All-America team. Today he is a defensive halfback on the 1964 aggregation. There were times during the past season when Cole was used at end, but most of the time he was busy bringing down opposing ball carriers.

Cole is the only repeater from 1963 to make this year's star-studded lineup. For the first time since 1953, The Associated Press has picked both a defensive and an offensive platoon from among the heroes who star for the smaller colleges.

The colleges may be small, but the athletes are not. The offensive line averages 228 pounds a man and their height is 6 feet, 2 1/2 inches. The ball carriers weigh 189 and are 6-1. The defensive line figures are 221 and 6-2 while the backs are 181 and 6 feet.

The two platoons are marked by four massive tackles. Alphonse Dotson of Grambling, is the biggest at 268 pounds and 6 feet, 5 inches. He is on the offensive line along with William Fuller of Sacramento state, who is 240 and 6-4.

The offensive backfield is made up of Charles Green of Wittenberg, at quarterback; William Cline of East Carolina and Gerald Allen of Omaha at the halfback posts and Randy Schultz of the State College of Iowa at fullback.

Green, whose team was The Associated Press' small-college team of the year, has the unique distinction of playing on teams that went unbeaten the past six years. He was quarterback of the West Milton, Ohio, High School that was all-winning in his junior and senior seasons.

While at Wittenberg, the only game his club did not win resulted in a tie.

Travis has maintained he had all along. Latin, a 6-foot-7 goliath with all the moves, simply was too much for the pint-sized Jayhawks. He scored 26 points after sitting out much of the first half.

Willie Worsley, a 5-8 Negro boy from New York City, also contributed mightily to the TWC cause. He wound up with 22 points and it was his bucket with 5:40 to go in the game that put the Ore Diggers ahead to stay, 63-62.

The Hawks lead by as much as 11 points late in the first half but a furious rally on the part of Western right after play was resumed cut the margin in a hurry. With only three minutes gone in the last half, HCJC led by only 42-40.

Tom Carter, one of the HCJC mainstays, fouled out trying to guard Latin and Kurt Papp and Eddy Nelson were both edging toward the penalty booth when the end came, as was Keith McKeever.

Nelson again had a good night from the field, scoring a total of 24 points to lead the Big Springers. Carter followed with 17 while Papp tossed in 14.

Willie Cager contributed mightily to the Western cause with a 16-point output while David Palacio accounted for 12.

The Jayhawks return to action here Friday night, at which time they oppose the Hardin-Simmons Buttnuts.

Coahoma Halfback Gains
Spot On All-State 11

Eddie McHugh, Coahoma's great senior halfback, was named to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's Class A All-State football team announced this morning. McHugh was cited for having gained 1,065 on 93 carries in ten regular season games. Eddie was even better in the Bulldogs' lone playoff game, having picked up over 200 yards and against Seagraves. Other members of the Star-Telegram's team: E - Johnny Howard, 190, Big Lake; and Drew Biers, 175, Rosebud; T - Johnny McFarland, 185, George West; and John Reinhardt, 187, Waller; G - John Patterson, 190, Springlake; and Gary Dudley, 185, Wink; C - Robert Halbert, 180, Eldorado; QB - Randy Brint, 178, White Oak; HB - Marty Whelan, 180, Jefferson; and FB - Frank Chalfant, 185, Hull-Dalsetta. Carl Lawson, Stanton, a guard; Bo Faulkenberg, Seagraves, a back; and Weldon Title, Merkel, a back, gained Honorable Mention on the Class A team.

Joe Namath Apt
To Come High

By The Associated Press
Illinois linebacker Dick Butkus apparently is leaning heavily toward the National Football League but the rival American League is leaning on Alabama quarterback Joe Namath. The lure for Namath may be a salary-bonus package in the neighborhood of $150,000 and the possibility he might step in quicker as a first-string quarterback in the AFL.

Namath was made the No. 1 pick of the New York Jets in the AFL and the St. Louis Cardinals in the NFL. The Cardinals, however, have one of the best young quarterbacks in the league, Charley Johnson. The Jets have Dick Wood, an inconsistent performer. Web Ewbank, coach of the Jets, said Monday that Namath has "the potential of being another Johnny Unitas."

Ewbank should know. He unveiled Unitas at Baltimore. "We want this boy real bad," said Jets owner Sonny Werblin. "And we plan to get him." Butkus, meanwhile, said "I think I'll go with the Bears. I'll probably sign sometime during the week. I am confident of playing pro although I know I will have trouble. I hope Bill George sticks around for a few more years. I wouldn't mind playing behind him."

Butkus was the No. 1 pick of Chicago and taken in the AFL on the second round by the Denver Broncos. The AFL defeated the NFL 8-1 in signings Monday with the Buffalo Bills getting the big jump by signing five, including

Cowboys Sign
Two Draftees

DALLAS (AP) - The Dallas Cowboys have signed two of their draft choices and are in a tug war with Houston on two more. Russell Wayt, Rice linebacker, signed Monday. He was Dallas' eighth-round choice. Houston of the American Football League drafted him No. 6. Malcolm Walker, the other Rice linebacker, was drafted by both Dallas and Houston in the second round and both are after him.

Dallas last year drafted Jerry Rhome, the Tulsa quarterback who set all kinds of passing records this year. Houston also has drafted him. He has given no indication of whom he will sign, merely saying he's going to weigh the offers.

Bowl Fever
Grips Teams

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rose Bowl fever gives way to hoop-la on the Michigan and Oregon State campuses tonight when the Wolverines, early favorites to succeed UCLA as the nation's No. 1 college basketball team, entertain little Ball State and the Beavers, under new coach Paul Valenti, meet highly rated San Francisco in key season openers.

More than 50 major games are scheduled on the campaign's formal opening date, Michigan and Oregon State, whose football teams meet at Pasadena, Calif., New Year's Day, share the spotlight with Southern powers Duke and Davidson.

Michigan will field a veteran team, led by Bill Buntin and Cazzie Russell, which narrowly outpointed UCLA's defending champions in The Associated Press pre-season poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

Following their opener against Ball State, the Wolverines face a major test at Duke Friday night. The Blue Devils, No. 5 in The AP poll, beat Michigan in the NCAA semifinals last March.

San Francisco, No. 9 in the pre-season balloting, meets an Oregon State club rebuilding after the loss of 7-foot Olympian Mel Counts. Valenti replaces Slats Gill as the Beavers' pilot.

Fourth-ranked Davidson and fifth-ranked Duke open tonight against Wake Forest and Virginia Tech, respectively. Other major powers in action include Minnesota vs. South Dakota State; North Carolina vs. Clemson; Bradley vs. Northern Michigan; Kansas vs. Arkansas; St. Louis vs. North Dakota and Notre Dame vs. Lewis.

UCLA, which has lost All-America Walt Hazzard but retains sharpshooting Gall Goodrich, puts its 30-game winning streak on the line Friday night at Illinois. Third-ranked Wichita opens Saturday against Long Beach, Calif., State.

Vanderbilt, No. 6, breaks in against Rice Thursday. Syracuse and Vanderbilt, Nos. 7 and 8, have Wednesday dates with American University and Creighton, respectively, and St. John's, N.Y., No. 10, opens against Temple Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - The San Francisco 49ers have scored their first victory of the college drafting season by signing Fred Polser, a 6-foot-5, 250-pound defensive end from East Texas State College.

Designers Shun Show

By LOUISE HICKMAN

ROME (AP) — Five of the top Italian fashion designers plan to desert Florence openings in January.

Princess Irene Galitzine, Forquet, Lancetti, Valentino and Patrick de Barentzen all say they will show in their own Rome salons in January, when spring and summer fashions will be unveiled. They say the Florence collective showings are no longer convenient or profitable.

Their decision could be a decisive blow to the shows in Florence, where Italian couture houses began their postwar rise to prominence.

For years, Rome and Florence have battled for Italian fashion leadership. Until now, Florence has had the winning team. Italian fashion started there when exporter G. B. Giorgini first convinced leading dressmakers and tailors to stop copying Paris and do something of their own.

But Rome is home for most of the Italian couture houses.

Giorgini has not yet announced his plans for the spring showings. The houses and boutiques remaining in the Florence fold are waiting for word.

C., and his intended bride, JENNIFER JONES, is on its way today for the couple who will be married Dec. 19 in Chevy Chase, Md. The gift is one from MR. AND MRS. L. S. Moth Balls Need Air Tight Storage

Odors do not kill moths. The fumes from moth crystals will destroy eggs, larvae or moths if confined in an air-tight space. Hanging a "moth repellent" cake or container in a constantly used closet is of no value at all.

Remember, too, that articles ready for storing should be laundered or dry-cleaned. Moths attack grease spots first of all.
