DRIVER OF CAR INJURED FATALLY IN GRADE CROSSING CRASH
Impact reduces 1959 sedan of Lewis Tierney to crumpled wreckage

Train-Car Crash East Of Here Takes One Life

By SAM BLACKBURN
Lewis Tierney, 54, died at 10:20 a.m. Thursday, two and a half hours after his car was rammed by an eastbound Texas & Pacific passenger train.

The accident occurred on the Salem Road Crossing of the T&P tracks adjacent to the Reef Corporation loading terminal and just north of San Springs.

Tierney was removed to the Howard County Foundation Hospital by the Big Spring Ambulance Service after his 1959 sedan had been virtually demolished. He had suffered severe head injuries, burns and shock.

A musician by trade, he had played with various small bands and combos. At the time of his death, he was working with the Dale White Music Co. as a piano tuner.

Arvin Henry, highway patrol officer, who investigated the accident, said that Tierney's death was the eighth road fatality charged to the county this year.

The body of the victim is at the Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home where arrangements are pending. He was born July 3, 1910. A sister, Mrs. Thelma Compton, Tulsa, Okla., was advised of her brother's death. Friends of the dead man said he has a wife, Mrs. Georgia Tierney, who lives in Sunnyvale, Calif.

NO OTHER INJURIES
Henry, who was joined at the scene of the crash by Aubrey Standard, deputy sheriff, J. B.

Hall, Coahoma city marshal, and Walter Grice, justice of the peace, said that Tierney was travelling south.

N. O. Decker was engineer and T. A. Underhill conductor of passenger train No. 26, which they had taken over on its trip to Fort Worth. Neither they nor anyone else aboard the train was hurt.

Henry said the train struck Tierney's car in the right rear. The impact tore the car apart, hurling the front section about 50 feet and stringing the fragments of the body for several hundred feet down the track.

The front-end wreckage caught fire and Tierney was burned about the hands, head and shoulder, Henry said.

TRAIN CONTINUES
Ambulance drivers said the victim was on the ground just in front of the wreckage of the car front-end in a semi-conscious condition when they reached the scene.

Henry said he was told the impact caused about $25 damage to the front of the Diesel engine. The train came to a halt at the accident but later proceeded on its way.

The Coahoma Fire Department was called and extinguished what fire there was in the wreckage. Two Big Spring fire trucks also answered the call but their services were not needed.

The most recent traffic death before today's tragedy was that of E. P. Foley, 40, a Lumberton, N. C., trucker. He was killed on IS 20 a few miles east of today's accident, on Sept. 7.

Snow, Sleet, Rain Prevail

By The Associated Press
Wet weather, with snow, sleet and rain, covered the major part of the nation today, with heaviest snowfalls of the season in many areas from New England to the Rockies.

The season's coldest weather continued in sections of eastern Montana and northern Minnesota, with temperatures as low as 15 below in Hibbing and International Falls, Minn. The mercury also was near or a little below zero in parts of South Dakota. The chilly air moved slowly eastward and southward.

The Weather Bureau posted hazardous driving conditions in many states due to the slippery conditions on snow and ice-slicked highways.

Heavy Snows Hit Panhandle

By The Associated Press
Heavy snows struck the Texas Panhandle today, causing slick roads but caused very little hardship other than to motorists.

An Amarillo observer said the snow "is just sifting down."

By midmorning, Dalhart reported more than 5 inches of snow, Borger 3 and a trace at Amarillo. Swisher county measured a quarter inch.

SEVEN INCHES
Guymon, in the Oklahoma Panhandle, recorded 7 inches at that time.

The light snow at Amarillo caught maintenance workers without salt on the street. One man reported it took him an hour to get to work because of traffic jams caused by inexperienced drivers. Cars were stacked up for a mile at one point.

The Highway Department said snow fell throughout its Amarillo District and although all

Unit Pursues Congo Rebels

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — A mercenary-led government column penetrated further into the northeast Congo today in pursuit of rebels believed holding 500 whites as hostages. They found five more dead Europeans.

The rebels reportedly fled to Watsa, near the Sudanese border, as a government force of 30 mercenaries and 200 Congolese soldiers neared Bunia, 350 miles east of Stanleyville.

Tonsils Out, Ringo Rests

LONDON (AP) — Beatle drummer Ringo Starr rested comfortably without his tonsils today while his British fans recovered from a severe case of post-operative shock.

"Ringo Starr's tonsils were successfully removed this morning," the British Broadcasting Corporation announced in its first newscast after the operation Wednesday.

Alarmed that the surgeons had knifed the wrong end of their idol, thousands of fans jammed the BBC switchboard. Hasty apologies were made in later newscasts.

"I misread the item," said announcer Roy Williams, "it happens to all of us and I bet Ringo is glad I'm not his surgeon."

SCHOOLS CLOSED

Across the line in Oklahoma, schools at Beaver, Hardesty, Balco and Garrett were reported closed.

Rain fell at Dallas and rain and showers at many other places, but the Weather Bureau did not indicate snow that far south in its forecast.

A large part of Northeast Texas was placed under a severe weather forecast for six hours to 7 p.m. The Weather Bureau warned:

"A few thunderstorms with locally damaging winds, storms and a tornado or two are expected in an area 60 to 80 miles on either side of a line from 30 miles south of Longview to 50 miles northeast of Eldorado, Ark."

Rebel Collegians Stir Mass Arrest

Republicans Scrutinize Party Gaps

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's supporters stood on the sidelines today as Republican governors gathered here for a searching look at the future of their badly divided party.

About the only representative of the Goldwater conservative viewpoint scheduled to be on hand in this extraordinary session of state GOP executives is Gov. Tim M. Babcock of Montana. A supporter of Goldwater before the San Francisco convention, Babcock won re-election after moving away from the GOP presidential nominee during the campaign.

Progressive Republicans, including three Rockefelleres, were converging on Denver for a session that might produce some challenging statements but that seemed unlikely to provide the impetus to unseat GOP National Chairman Dean Burch.

RISK JOBS
Solidly supported by Goldwater, Burch will risk his $30,000-a-year job on a confidence vote in a national committee session Jan. 22-23 in Chicago.

Gov. Paul Fanning of Arizona, elected to the Senate to fill the seat that Goldwater will vacate in the new Congress, sent word that he could not be on hand for the meeting here.

F. Clifton White, regarded as one of the "real pros" of the Goldwater campaign, canceled hotel reservations, indicating he would not be on hand to defend Goldwater's interests.

But the Rockefelleres, who opposed the Arizona senator's nomination, were expected to arrive in force. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who did not campaign for the GOP presidential nominee, was bringing in a plane load of Goldwater critics.

OTHERS INVITED
Included were his brothers, Winthrop Rockefeller, defeated in his bid for the Arkansas governorship, and Laurence Rockefeller, a progressive interested primarily in conservation programs. The New York governor also invited Gov. John H. Reed of Maine and Gov. elect John A. Volpe of Massachusetts to ride in his plane.

Significantly, Rockefeller was bringing along with him George A. Hinman, New York national committeeman who has urged that Burch be ousted and that the committee leadership be reorganized to represent the viewpoints of all factions of the party.

There seemed likely to be no spokesman present at this conference who represented former President Dwight D. Eisenhower or former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Goldwater has scheduled a summit conference with these two former leaders but the indications were that the GOP governors would chart their own course without reference to any such session.

IS CHAIRMAN
Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie, who has advocated Burch's removal, is chairman of the Republican Governors Association.

Convicted Of Spying

John W. Butenko, 39, left, an American electronics engineer, and Igor A. Ivanov, 34, right, a Russian chauffeur, are shown last night entering U.S. District Court in Newark, N.J., where they heard a jury declare them guilty of conspiracy to commit espionage for the Soviet Union. Their penalty, which could be death, will be decided by U.S. District Court Judge Anthony T. Angelli. Story on Page 10-A. (AP WIREPHOTO)

UF Drive Closes, Still Shy $10,000

The United Fund headquarters was closed today, with the campaign still more than $10,000 short of the target.

However, persons who want to participate may send gifts to the United Fund, 614 Permain Building. Campaign leaders said there are many contact cards out, and reports on these could give the effort a last minute boost.

Shooting at a goal of $109,366, the drive this morning had 91 per cent of it in hand with $99,242.43. Only one division exceeded its quota — the Out-of-Town Division which had $8,021 for 107 per cent.

The Public Employees Division came close with $21,206.20, for 96 per cent of its $22,000 goal. The Webb AFB section of this division turned in almost $1,000 more than its goal with $11,945.93. The other section was more than $1,000 shy of its half, however.

The Big Gifts Division turned in $34,915.50, for 87 per cent; the Special Gifts Division had $8,743.50 for 87 per cent; the Employees Division wound up with $22,296.58 for 83 per cent; the Area Division reported $1,328.50 for 66 per cent; and the Metropolitan Division, conducted by the Jaycees, ended the drive with $2,731.15 for 54 per cent.

Anyone who may have been missed in the regular solicitation, or who may wish to increase their gift, is urged to take part now. The 14 local welfare and youth guidance organizations depending on this effort to finance their programs are facing reductions in their budgets. Any gift, no matter how small, will help make the decreases lighter.

Recommends No Charges Here Under State Blue Law

City Attorney John Burgess recommended to city commissioners in a called meeting Thursday morning that the city not file court action concerning enforcement of the Texas Sunday closing laws in Big Spring.

Burgess cited a recent Texas Supreme Court case concerning the law, and said he did not know of the decision prior to the city commission meeting last week.

Burgess said the law hinged on signing an emergency need certificate by the buyer on Sundays and that when the certificate was signed, the seller was no longer liable, according to the court decision.

"I do not agree with the interpretation of the statute by the Supreme Court because I think the indiscriminate signing of the certificate of emergency is clearly a subterfuge and a method by which the intent of the law can be circumvented," Burgess said. "However, I feel, in view of the Supreme Court decision, that those stores which stay open on Sunday, and require the buyer to sign a proper certificate, are not in violation of the law."

Some stores in Big Spring are not presently requiring buyers on Sundays to sign the emergency certificates, Burgess said, and these firms are in violation of the law.

Chamber of commerce manager Carroll Davidson, meeting with the commission this morning, said the chamber would write letters to its members quoting the Sunday closing law and advise the firms doing business on Sunday of the requirement concerning the emergency certificate.

Meeting with the commission were A. J. Prager, and Joe Blum, representing the chamber, and the Rev. John C. Burgess, pastor of the commission. Concerning the suit's claim of $185,000 in damages, he said the city had not criticized the contractor on the sewage treatment plant job.

Burgess said he would file a general denial on the case and then later prepare a full brief.

"What we have tried to do is to obtain a completion of the contract on the plant," Commissioner John Stanley said.

The suit was filed in 118th District Court here Friday and asks $214,709.35 in costs and $185,000 in damages.

The commission took no action on either the Sunday closing law or the lawsuit filed last week concerning the sewage treatment plant construction contract. Commissioners attending the session were W. L. Thompson, John Stanley and Paul Kasch, along with Mayor George Zachariah and City Manager Larry Crow. Commissioner Arnold Marshall did not attend the meeting.

Over 800 In Revolt On Campus

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — More than 800 University of California students staged an all-night sit-in inside the school's administration building until they were arrested en masse today by highway patrol officers, police from nearby cities and sheriff's deputies.

A phalanx of police cordoned off the buildings—Sproul Hall—to sympathizers and onlookers massed during the early morning hours. Other officers took students—some protesting limply—to buses waiting to carry the rebels to the county prison farm. More than 100 police officers were involved.

REFUSE PLEA
The students refused Chancellor Edward Strong's plea that they disperse peacefully. The young men and women had gathered in Sproul Hall to protest the administration's refusal that they give in to demands that charges be dropped against four students.

The students are leaders of the Free Speech Movement which has been demanding "full political rights" on the campus. The acknowledged leader of the movement, Mario Savio, was among those carted away to jail on the first bus.

BROWN'S ORDER
The arrests were ordered by Gov. Edmund G. Brown shortly after midnight.

The university had charged Savio and three others — Art Goldberg, his sister Jackie, and Brian Turner — with violating university rules forbidding on-campus membership and fund solicitation for off-campus organizations.

The arresting process was slow. Police moved in teams to drag limp bodies from the building's fourth floor. The teams slumped number cards on the youths, photographed them and whisked them away to the buses.

The bidding:
North East South West
1♣ Double Redouble 1♠
Pass Pass 2NT Pass
3NT Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Four of ♠
The auction provided declarer with a clue as to the successful mapping of a campaign to fulfill his contract of three no trump.

North opened the bidding with one club and East, who was reasonably well-heeled in the other suits, made a take-out double. South redoubled inasmuch as he had a full opening bid himself. West's call of one spade does not designate any special high card strength, but merely suggests the best haven to partner. South's jump to two no trump is, of course, forcing to game and describes a balanced hand with adequate protection in the adverse suit. North dutifully carried on to game.

West opened the four of spades and East put up the king — forcing out declarer's ace. A diamond was led to the dummy's queen and East was in with the ace. He returned the nine of spades to drive out South's remaining stopper.

On the next round of diamonds, West showed out revealing that East held a second stopper in the suit. Declarer's only chance now was the club finesse, so he returned to his hand with the jack of diamonds in order to put the queen of clubs thru. East won the trick with the king, cashed the ten of diamonds, and returned a spade—enabling West to take three more tricks and set declarer down by two.

South did not take adequate measures to protect himself against the unfavorable break in diamonds. Inasmuch as East is marked with the diamond ace by virtue of his take-out double, declarer should arrange to make his initial play in the suit toward the closed hand in order to protect his high cards.

Observe the effect if South crosses to dummy with the king of hearts at trick two and leads the five of diamonds. If East puts up the ace, he will establish four tricks in the suit for declarer—sufficient for his contract (four diamonds, two two spades, two hearts, and one club). If East ducks the diamond lead, South now has a diamond trick in and can afford to shift his attentions to the club suit. Altho the finesse loses, declarer has his nine tricks established—two spades, two hearts, one diamond, and four clubs—before he surrenders control of the proceedings.

Nuclear Might Grows, Curbs Still Unlikely

WASHINGTON (AP) — By the early 1970s the nuclear warheads deployed by the United States alone will have an explosive equivalent exceeding 20,000 million tons of TNT—20,000 megatons.

An explosive force of that size is no more comprehensible to the human mind than the concept of infinity.

The Soviet Union's capacity for destruction probably will be no less. Three other nations — Great Britain, France and Red China — are also building nuclear weapons, and scientists say 20 other nations have the technical know-how to build them.

NO "SECURITY"
There is now no such thing as national security for any nation, certainly not in the sense that the United States enjoyed such security before the Soviet Union mastered nuclear weapons in 1950.

Two eminent scientists — Jerome B. Weisner and Herbert F. York — believe that a technical solution to the problem of making the United States immune to nuclear attack is impossible. Weisner was scientific adviser to President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and York was head of the Defense Department's Advanced Research Projects Agency when it embarked on the search for an anti-missile missile.

An impressive number of scientists and research analysts are convinced that the only possible solution is some form of world-wide arms reduction and control.

APPEAR REMOTE
The prospects for agreement in this field in the near future appear remote.

In the event of a nuclear attack on the United States, therefore, the main hope for survival — however forlorn — seems to be to run for the shelters. As matters now stand the United States shelter program is wholly inadequate.

The shelter program is in the province of the Office of Civilian Defense. OCD ceased existence as an independent agency in 1961, when President John F. Kennedy transferred it to the Department of Defense, where it is now under the jurisdiction of the Army.

If there is to be any improvement in the shelter program, there will have to be a radical change in the attitude of Congress and the public.

FUNDS DROP
The annual appropriation for the OCD has been reduced every year since 1962. In that year, Congress voted $252.3 million. This year, OCD asked for $358 million and got $105 million. It wanted to spend $175 million on shelters and $46 million to stock them with food, medical supplies, bunks and blankets. Congress approved $3.8 million for shelters, $2.7 million for supplies.

The decline in appropriations probably reflects popular opinion on the futility of defense measures.

TELL VIEW
Weisner and York recently wrote in the Scientific American:

"The steady decrease in national security did not result from any inaction on the part of responsible U.S. military and civilian authorities. It resulted from the systematic exploitation of the products of modern science and technology by the Soviet Union.

"Both sides in the arms race are thus confronted by steadily increasing military strength and steadily decreasing national security.

"It is our considered professional judgment that this dilemma has no technical solution."

Pope, Oriental Sages In Meets

BOMBAY, India (AP) — Pope Paul VI met today with leaders of ancient oriental religions and told them all men must "begin to work together to build the common future of the human race."

Marking a new dimension in the outlook of the Roman Catholic Church, the Pope asked the sages of Hinduism, Islam, Buddhism, Zoroastrianism and other non-Christian faiths: "Are we not all one in this struggle for a better world, in this effort to make available to all people those goods which are needed to fulfill their human destiny and to live lives worthy of the children of God?"

He paused, then added: "We must come closer together. We must come together with our hearts, in mutual understanding, esteem and love."

P-TA Stresses Need Of Cultural Education

"Together We Help a Child by Cultivating An Appreciation for the Cultural Arts," was the topic of a program given by Mrs. Roy Watkins Tuesday for the Big Spring City Council of Parents and Teachers.

The group met in the Goliad cafeteria where Mrs. Watkins said that children can learn from observation and creation. She told what the local schools and community organizations have offered students in the field of cultural art, and displayed objects and forms of art representing work done by public school students.

Mrs. R. E. Ray presided, announcing that the council and local units will participate in the Mother's March of Dimes Jan. 19.

Mrs. J. H. Homan said that chairmen from the units met recently to plan study courses that will be offered in January as the "Education for Family Living" series is continued. Mrs. Eldon Watts said that $365 in savings stamps was sold in November.

Each representative reported on their last meeting and the state convention. Mrs. Ray expressed appreciation for the large attendance of delegates from this district who made the trip to the state meeting.

Gifts were brought by all council members to be distributed to needy families at Christmas. The Gay Hill P-TA served refreshments from a festive table decorated in the holiday mood. Thirty-seven attended.

OES Sets Christmas Observance

A Christmas party and gift exchange will be held Dec. 15 in the Community Room of First Federal Savings and Loan Association building for Chapter No. 67, Order of the Eastern Star. The party will follow the regular meeting at the Masonic Lodge with all order members invited to attend.

The plans were completed when the chapter met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Charles O. Graham, worthy matron, presiding. Hostesses were Mrs. George Bair, Mrs. J. B. Langston and Mrs. Grady Dunnam.

It was announced that the official visit of Mrs. Dorothy Pettit, deputy grand matron of District 2, Section 8, Grand Chapter of Texas, will be Feb. 10, 1965.

Mrs. Claud Wright, Mrs. Carlton Chapman and Mrs. J. A. Magee were appointed to serve on the Rainbow board for the ensuing year.

Twenty-five members and a guest, Mrs. Lucy Steward of Scotts Bluff, Neb., attended. The worthy matron reported ten visits to the sick.

Teenagers Tell Of Problems

The problems faced by teenagers in a troubled world were vividly described Wednesday afternoon for members of the 1946 Hyperion Club. The speakers were patients at the Big Spring State Hospital who were guests of the club at the meeting held in the home of Mrs. C. N. Rainwater, 610 Highland Drive. Mrs. Robert Johnson was hostess.

Mrs. Jerry Jenkins welcomed Dr. Preston Harrison, hospital superintendent, who introduced the teenagers and spoke briefly on the overpowering problems faced by many such youngsters today.

The speakers, who ranged from 14 to 16 years of age, held a panel discussion on subjects which ranged from simply running away from home and lack of communication with parents to constant depression and suicides.

One speaker told of the frustrations of being an orphan child, shuttled from one foster home to another, and feeling that children are adopted many times because adults feel sorry for them but not because of love. His opinion was that people prefer to adopt young children in order to train them as they wished and that if an older child was taken, the new parents wanted to change its personality. As a consequence, he felt that the first time things "got rough" the youngsters were sent back to the orphanage.

Another told of running away from home because she felt that many mothers now have little time for their children and without friends of her own she suffered from a lack of companionship which was sorely needed.

One teenager, troubled by periods of intense depression, said that communication had been lost between him and his family. He felt that often young people are "nagged" excessively, and perhaps correction or punishment is severe for minor infractions of family rules.

The problems of the entire world, which often seem beyond solving, were given as reasons for possible thoughts of suicide. Many teenagers feel emotionally involved but helpless to assist with problems that involve all humanity.

The single theme which dominated the discussion was the youngsters' belief that there is a lack of love in human relationships.

A question and answer period followed the discussion, and the speakers and Dr. Harrison visited informally during a social hour as refreshments were served.

Mrs. Rene Brown, president, announced that the next meeting would be Jan. 6.

Shelby Parnell Speaks On Motives, Tensions

Shelby Parnell, alcoholic counselor at Big Spring State Hospital, was the guest speaker at the TOPS Found Rebels meeting Tuesday in the Student Union Building at Howard County Junior College. He told of the psychology of losing weight.

A need to believe in one's motives strongly enough is an important factor in the loss of weight, he said. Also, tension is a cause for overeating and must be overcome. To set a daily goal, rather than a long range ideal, is the best method.

EDWARD KENNEDY

Optimism Of Kennedy Clan Has Survived

NEW YORK (AP) — Time is said to heal all wounds, but one year isn't much time to heal the wound the Kennedy family suffered last Nov. 22.

In the days following the assassination, Robert F. Kennedy reflected the family's grief. Always laconic, he became almost curt; always detached, he became sullen. Finally he was able to say "Sorrow is a form of self pity, and we have to go on." He seemed to be speaking for the entire family.

A year after that day in Dallas, it is clear that the characteristic optimism of the Kennedys has survived. The family still is one of drive and accomplishment.

FIRST TIME

When Robert was elected senator from New York and Edward M. re-elected in Massachusetts to the seat once held by his late brother, it marked the first time in history three brothers had become senators.

Last June 20, the day after the plane crash in which Edward was critically injured, Robert contemplated the family responsibilities facing him and announced that he would not be a candidate. But Edward made swift progress and he changed his mind.

With both Robert and Edward fit and eager for public life, speculation bobs up about the future for both of them.

As senator from a key state Robert, 39 today, plainly is in a good spot to try for higher office, even the presidency. Edward, at 32, has even more time on his side.

Election night was one for the Kennedy family to savor.

FLEW TO N.Y.

Joseph P. Kennedy, 76, patriarch of the clan, flew to New York to be with Robert that night, and at Edward's bedside in Boston were other Kennedys.

Once again the Kennedys could gather in triumph, as so many times they had gathered in affliction — when Joseph P. Kennedy suffered a stroke, when infant Patrick Kennedy died, when Edward was injured in the crash.

Edward now is out of his steel orthopedic frame, the device he called a rottiesserie as it was used to turn him over. He sits up, and aides at the hospital have a betting pool on when he will walk — most guess between Dec. 11 and Dec. 20. Edward's only goal is to walk into the Senate when it convenes in January.

Almost four years after his near-fatal stroke, Joseph P. Kennedy is "somewhat better," according to Edward. He has been visiting Edward about once a week. Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy also has been active; she was an enthusiastic campaigner for her son in the New York Senate race.

Duties have been heavy on Mrs. John F. Kennedy in the year since Dallas. She accepted the task of guiding the outpouring of tribute to her husband. With the fervor of a devoted curator, she has been assembling her husband's historical legacy.

FUND DRIVE

Besides helping raise funds for the Kennedy Memorial Library to be built at Cambridge, Mass., she has helped to plan, or at least acknowledge, memorials to John F. Kennedy throughout the United States, and from Kunnymede to Bolivia.

She has found, at last, some privacy in her apartment in New York and a house on Long Island's North Shore.

Mrs. Kennedy's formal period of mourning ends Sunday but Pamela Turnure, her secretary, expects there will be no sudden change in her life. Letters still arrive at the rate of 400 a day. "She values her time with her children," Caroline and John F. Jr., says Miss Turnure. "What she does will depend on how she feels later on."

Corpus Votes Ordinance Against Bias

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — Corpus Christi has made discrimination in places of public accommodation because of race, color or ethnic origin an offense punishable by a fine of $25 to $200.

The city ordinance, adopted Wednesday by the city council, also created a permanent human relations committee and the position of human relations administrator.

Officials said the ordinance is designed to implement the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, which provides that federal intervention into public accommodation discrimination may be stayed if there is local legislation to deal with the situation.

Former Mayor Ben McDonald, chairman of the human relations committee, said he believes Corpus Christi is the first Texas city to adopt such an ordinance since the federal law was passed.

Some Canadians Fear U.S. Shadow

OTTAWA (AP) — The border between the United States and Canada often has been described as the longest undefended frontier in the world. It also has been called "the unequal border."

Some Canadians think the latter is more meaningful, since it calls attention to the disparity in the size and influence of the two neighbors — a factor which has an important bearing on their relations.

It is not fear of a military attack that bothers Canadians; it is the constantly growing shadow of the giant south of the border.

SERIOUS CONCERN

There is a serious concern that Canada's identity may be blurred — or even destroyed — by a gradual and unconscious extension of U.S. influence and culture. There undoubtedly is national pride involved.

Everywhere Canadians see evidence of creeping U.S. penetration — magazines, books, motion pictures, television shows, another huge American colony. The lieutenant governor of Alberta and the head of the Calgary Rotary Club were born in the United States. The publisher of the Calgary Herald, Frank Swanson, attended the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism. Swanson wrote a column in the Calgary Herald deploring what he said was the lack of understanding of Canada in the United States. He illustrated his point with a story about a girl crossing the border from the United States for her first visit to Canada.

A Stroll Down Nostalgia Alley With Goldwyn

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Samuel Goldwyn has sent this department a volume which contains facts and photographs of 50 of his major films.

Mr. Goldwyn seldom does anything without a purpose, and the book is aimed at merchandizing his movies to television. Commercialism aside, the book offers a pleasant occasion for the veteran and inveterate movie goer to stroll down nostalgia alley.

RICH PRODUCT

Ah, what movies they were! And what a rich and diverse product was the Goldwyn touch over the years. Personally, I preferred the more serious Goldwyn. His best achievements seemed to be in the dramas, often in collaboration with William Wyler.

The prime attraction was "The Best Years of Our Lives," which somehow captured what most former soldiers and sailors were feeling after the war. And there were other Goldwyn-Wyler classics, too — "Wuthering Heights," "The Little Foxes," "Deadend," "These Three." Oddly, "Dodsworth" is not included in the 50.

BEST TALENT

The Goldwyn musical comedies always seemed to have a Ziegfeldian touch — gorgeously mounted, employing the best talent, but lacking in that rare breath of spontaneity that makes such entertainments complete delights.

Goldwyn has bravely included his biggest mistake in the 50. In 1934 he was convinced that Anna Sten would become a brilliant star. He gave her the glamor treatment but the public reacted with overwhelming apathy.

"That's when I learned," the producer sighed later, "that a producer does not create a star; the public does."

Blowout Halts Police Chase

DALLAS (AP) — Amazed policemen found two youths escaped without a scratch Wednesday as a tire blew out in their car while the pair fled pursuing officers at 125 miles per hour.

A 28-mile chase started in Dallas when a patrolman tried to stop the cruising teenagers for questioning. It ended with the blowout near Midlothian, in Ellis County.

The fugitives avoided capture for another hour, however, by concealing their 1961 model Pontiac amid cedars a short distance from U.S. 67. Officers finally nabbed them hiking across a field.

They said the two, both 17, readily admitted skipping classes at Adamson High School and displayed no concern over the hazards of the high speed chase.

Police jailed both. They said the driver would be charged with racing and with running two stop signs and two red lights. The other was held for failing to pay off traffic tickets issued earlier.

Educator At Victoria Dies

VICTORIA, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Marjorie Vickers, 53, prominent Victoria educator, died Wednesday.

She had been on the Victoria school staff 20 years and since 1949 had been assistant high school principal.

She was a native of Joaquin in East Texas. She began her teaching career in 1929 at Eagle Mills, also in East Texas.

Victoria school board has announced a new elementary school will be named in her memory.

Survivors include her husband.

Liquor Board Control Over Exporters Void

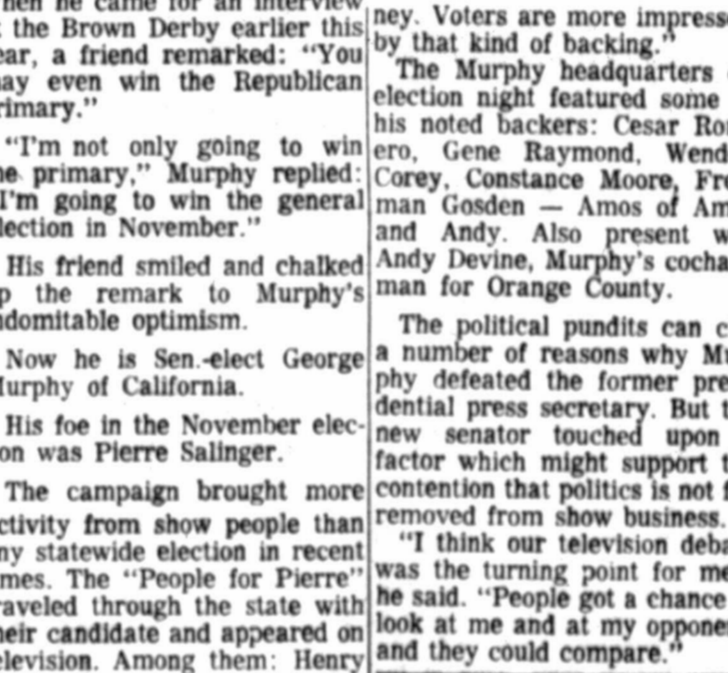

AUSTIN (AP) — The Third Court of Civil Appeals has held unconstitutional a controversial 1963 state law placing South Texas liquor exporters under Texas Liquor Control Board regulation. The appeals court upheld a year-old decision by Austin Dist. Judge Herman Jones that the law was an unwarranted intrusion by the state into international trade, an activity protected by the U.S. Constitution. The state argued that the export companies, operating from U.S. customs bonded warehouses, were subterfuges for selling liquor in Texas border towns without payment of state taxes. Ammex Warehouse Co. and other export firms brought the suit testing the law, which requires exporters from Brownsville to El Paso to get a $750 license and place them under the regulation of the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Election Victory Still Awes Stars

By BOB THOMAS AP Movie - TV Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — How did George do it? Hollywood's liberals still were shaking their heads today over how George Murphy danced off with the U.S. senatorship in the face of the Johnson landslide. In the beginning, hardly anyone believed Murphy could make a serious bid for the Senate. When he came for an interview at the Brown Derby earlier this year, a friend remarked: "You may even win the Republican primary."

Role Of Gold In Backing Dollar Slips

NEW YORK (AP) — U.S. Treasury gold stores have dropped for the first time this year. The dip is slight but a much bigger decline in gold's role as backing for the dollar is taking place. In ratio to the Federal Reserve notes and deposit liabilities it is set up to back, the gold reserve has slipped much more than the physical loss of metal indicates. That is because the money supply has grown. It takes more gold to back it at the legal rate of 25 per cent. The actual ratio of gold to money now is down to 28.6 per cent, compared with 47.4 per cent as recently as 1958.

SUPPLY GROWN In the six years the Treasury has lost much gold because of the deficit in international payments. At the same time the money supply has grown, and the result is the drop in reserve ratio to the lowest point yet reached. Bankers are now talking of a complete vanishing of any surplus in reserves in two or three years. Some think the legal requirement should be lowered below 25 per cent before speculators take advantage of any nervousness as the limit is neared. Others think the gold backing for the currency should be dropped entirely as an obsolete concept.

The decline in U.S. holdings of the metal in October and November is laid to its use to sustain the dollar and the British pound in the financial crisis that hit a climax last week with a $3-billion bailout international fund for the use of the Bank of England as needed. CURBS OUTFLOW The U.S. Treasury has been very expert in halting a gold outflow this year, through an international agreement to protect currencies and reserves. But the balance of payments deficit continues — some $2 billion this year. And the threat of the use of these foreign-held dollars to buy U.S. gold remains.

Foreign governments and central banks hold better than $12 billion in short-term dollar balances that legally they could turn in to the U.S. Treasury for gold. Its gold balance at the end of November was $15.4 billion, down about $200 million from the year before. Excess gold reserves—that is, those above the 25 per cent required to back the currency—now stand at $1.9 billion, compared with $2.8 billion a year ago. The decline reflects the rise in Federal Reserve note and deposit liabilities much more than in the fairly minor loss of gold itself. The gold reserve's role in the domestic economy will increasingly become an issue as opposed to the recent past when its role in international balance of payments got prior consideration.

WON'T QUIT Rebels In Congo Driven To Brush

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The rebel "Congolese People's Republic" in Stanleyville is dead, but the revolt in the northeastern Congo refuses to lie down. Disorganized, its lines of communication shattered by seizure of the rebel capital, its leaders hiding or in flight, the Communist-backed insurrection is being driven into the dark rain forests and impenetrable bush. Premier Moise Tshombe's tough mercenary fighters from South Africa, Rhodesia and Belgium go in shooting when they capture towns and rescue white hostages, but the rebels close in behind them as their armed columns roll out. DIRTY WAR For the South African mercenary commander, Maj. Michael Hoare, the difficulty of getting to grips with his enemy raises the prospects of a long, dirty war. "A military solution is not enough. There must be some sort of political solution as well," says the 46-year-old Dublin-born veteran of war behind the Japanese lines in Burma and in Tshombe's secessionist Katanga. Some foreign military observers believe it will be months, possibly years, before it is safe to travel through the rebel area without a strong military escort. Hoare's mercenaries move in trucks bristling with guns. Every tiny hamlet, every crossroads and every clump of bushes where ambushers could lurk is sprayed with machine-gun bullets. Rarely do the mercenaries see anyone as they drive by. I counted only six humans and two goats while traveling an entire day through rebel territory with Hoare's men. Four were old, decrepit men and two were women.

Farm Worker Census Asked

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A nationwide farm workers registration to determine availability was proposed today at a Labor Department hearing on whether to halt or restrict foreign workers. Unless such a census is made, said John Evans, president of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, the government must "rely upon grossly inadequate estimates" in determining the need for immigrant labor. Evans, of Oviedo, Fla., was the first witness when a four-city hearing that opened Monday in Washington resumed here. The hearing will be resumed in Dallas Friday and in San Francisco Monday.

Rains Benefit Grain In East

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Weather Bureau reported today that fall-seeded wheat, rye and oats in the eastern half of the country benefited from moderate to heavy rains the past week. No significant rain fell in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, but grains in these states were said to have made satisfactory development. The bulletin said there was danger of severe soil blowing in the dry parts of these states and in eastern Colorado.

Steel Output At New Peak

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the most illustrious records of U.S. industry fell today as the nation's steel output in 1964 climbed past 117 million tons. Exact production data was not available but industry statisticians said 1953's all time high of 117,036,083 tons undoubtedly would be surpassed before midnight.

Cattle Supply Peak Nearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government expects the nation's cattle inventory to reach a new peak of around 107 million head by Jan. 1 and then begin a leveling off that could bring a downturn in 1966. It expects the number in the nation's herd at the end of 1965 to be unchanged from this year. Cattle production goes up when prices are favorable and goes down when prices decline, and the outlook is unfavorable. The present up cycle started in 1958 from the level of 91.2 million head. A sharp decline in prices late last year and during the first part of this year brought on a summer of pessimism regarding the future.

Bid Low For Channel Bridge

GALVESTON (AP) — Massman Construction Co. of Kansas City, Mo., submitted the apparent low bid of $2,738,790 Wednesday for building a San Luis Pass bridge which will link Galveston Island with the Freeport area. Other bidders were Brown & Root, Inc., of Houston, $2,876,947; Bridge Engineering Corp. of Galveston, $3,410,420; and George Consolidated of Houston, $3,996,590.

Crosses Mark Vain Attempts To Cross Wall

BERLIN (AP) — They stare back at you with dead eyes — the bricked-up windows of the high apartment houses. Behind their wooden doors there is silence, only rats scurry over the floors where once children played.

Beneath the windows on the sidewalk are small wooden crosses. Men and women fell or jumped to their death here to escape communism.

Neighbors, friends and relatives were torn apart when the Reds started in August 1961 to build the Berlin wall to stop the mass escape of refugees.

The Communists began with bricking up the doorways and the ground-floor apartment windows.

The East German regime took further steps, bricking up the windows of the upper floors. Still people escaped. Men, women and children, young and old, slid down ropes and jumped into the nets of firemen. Some 200 made it safely.

Finally all the windows were sealed off and Red guards ran barbed wire along the roofs.

The Communists evacuated all the houses, moving the remaining 2,000 residents to other parts of East Berlin.

Assembly Hopeful Over Negotiations

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Negotiators worked behind the scenes at the United Nations today amid rising hopes for an agreement to clear away the world organization's deep financial and constitutional crisis.

A group of Asian-African countries promptly presented Thant a three-point plan. Informed sources said the Soviets and the Americans agreed to the plan in part but set conflicting conditions.

Fads, Trends An Infection Of Programs

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Fads — or trends, as they are called in television — infect public affairs programs as they do entertainment programs.

A few seasons back, the vogue was for the controversial, even daring, approach often accompanied by a strongly editorial point of view. Those were the days when NBC's "white paper" series tackled everything from Soviet leadership to public welfare philosophies and when "CBS Reports" worked with hidden cameras to expose a Boston bookmaking establishment.

Lately, it seems, the networks are all off on an armchair tour-kick.

Wednesday night CBS in a news department production called "Five Faces of Tokyo," gave us an hour trip around the Japanese city.

It was on the whole an interesting visit but the program was probably one of those undertakings that looked a lot better in blueprint than on our television screens.

The idea was to have five Tokyo residents from different walks of life and social classes show us their city from their viewpoints.

If the program had stuck with any one of these for the hour, it would have been much more interesting and enlightening. Five people were too many and much of the time it was hard to know whose eyes we were looking through.

U.S. Churchgoers Helping To Restore Land In Algeria

CONSTANTINE, Algeria—U.S. churchgoers are making trees grow in Algeria. The project aims to repair some of the damage done by invasions of Phoenicians, Romans, Byzantines, Arabs, Turks, French — and goats.

Gas Company Outlines Pipeline Firm Release

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—El Wednesday that Pacific Northwest Pipeline be set up independently to compete with other public utility firms.

The gas company was ordered by the U.S. Supreme Court last April to divest itself of the pipeline company in line with federal anti-trust laws. U. S. Atty. Jack Lipson, however, questioned the distribution of stock under El Paso's plan and whether El Paso trustees would remain trustees of Pacific Northwest Pipeline.

"If so," he said, "we feel this would grant no relief to the U.S. Supreme Court's order to set up Pacific Northwest Pipeline Co. as an independent company, free to compete with El Paso and other utility firms." As the hearing continued today before Judge Willis Ritter, about 20 prospective intervenors awaited rulings on whether they would be allowed to enter the case. One applicant was Paradox Production Corp. of Salt Lake City, which has presented plans to purchase Pacific Northwest Pipeline. El Paso acquired the pipeline company in a 1959 merger. This was followed by Justice Department suit which charged violation of anti-trust laws.

And the worst of these are the goats.

In less than two years such progress has been made that thousands of acres of barren hills and mountains now are planted to trees, some the size of pencils, others already man high. And millions more of little trees are growing in newly created nurseries to help reforest the vast tracts of barren land which in olden times were covered with some of the world's finest trees.

LENGTHY PROJECT
The effort is only a drop in a bucket when measured against the needs of the country. It is a long-term project which is intended to help save the land which for generations has been washing away, lowering its productive capacity while the people who depend on it increase in numbers every year.

A reporter took an extended tour of the area where the reforestation is going on. He was accompanied by Jan van Hoogstraten, an American who directs the African program of Church World Service. This branch of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. cooperates with British, American, Swiss, German and other church organizations in extending aid to Algeria and other countries.

DEEP CANYON
The biggest projects center around this old city which itself has seen the steady deterioration of the land over 2,000 years. The city was mainly Roman. While most of the ruins have disappeared, you can hardly dig a pit for a gasoline tank without coming up with a sculptured Roman head or cornice.

A deep canyon on three sides of the city has given it protection through the centuries. But while it was fighting invasions, a more relentless enemy ate away its defenses elsewhere. Great forests were cut down in the mountains to the west and south of Constantine.

Some of the timber went to build Roman ships, still more went up in smoke as firewood, but the most relentless were the goats. They ate the bark off the trees, so the trees died starting up in the black soil, and ate the brush and grass that held the land in place along the hillsides.

A solution of sorts has been worked out. When the churches began the reforestation project, Algerian authorities agreed to impose fines on herders who let their goats into the newly forested tracts. Moreover, many of the mountain families themselves see the advantage of reforested hills and mountains.

LITTLE CASH
Little hard cash is involved. American surplus wheat and a limited amount of other products are used, for the church program has the double purpose of feeding a population left hungry and jobless after the revolution, and of planting trees.

Eight million trees have been planted, and 60 million more are growing in nurseries. In Algiers and other cities milk and clothing are distributed to school children and needy families.

The U.S. government contributes 3,000 tons of surplus wheat a month. It helps restore a country that once was the breadbasket of Rome. Throughout the whole area of eastern Algeria and Tunisia are ruins of great Roman cities which once lived off the fat of the land.

Twisters Triple — On The Books

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are three times as many tornadoes on the books as there used to be, but the Weather Bureau says this doesn't mean that there are more of them.

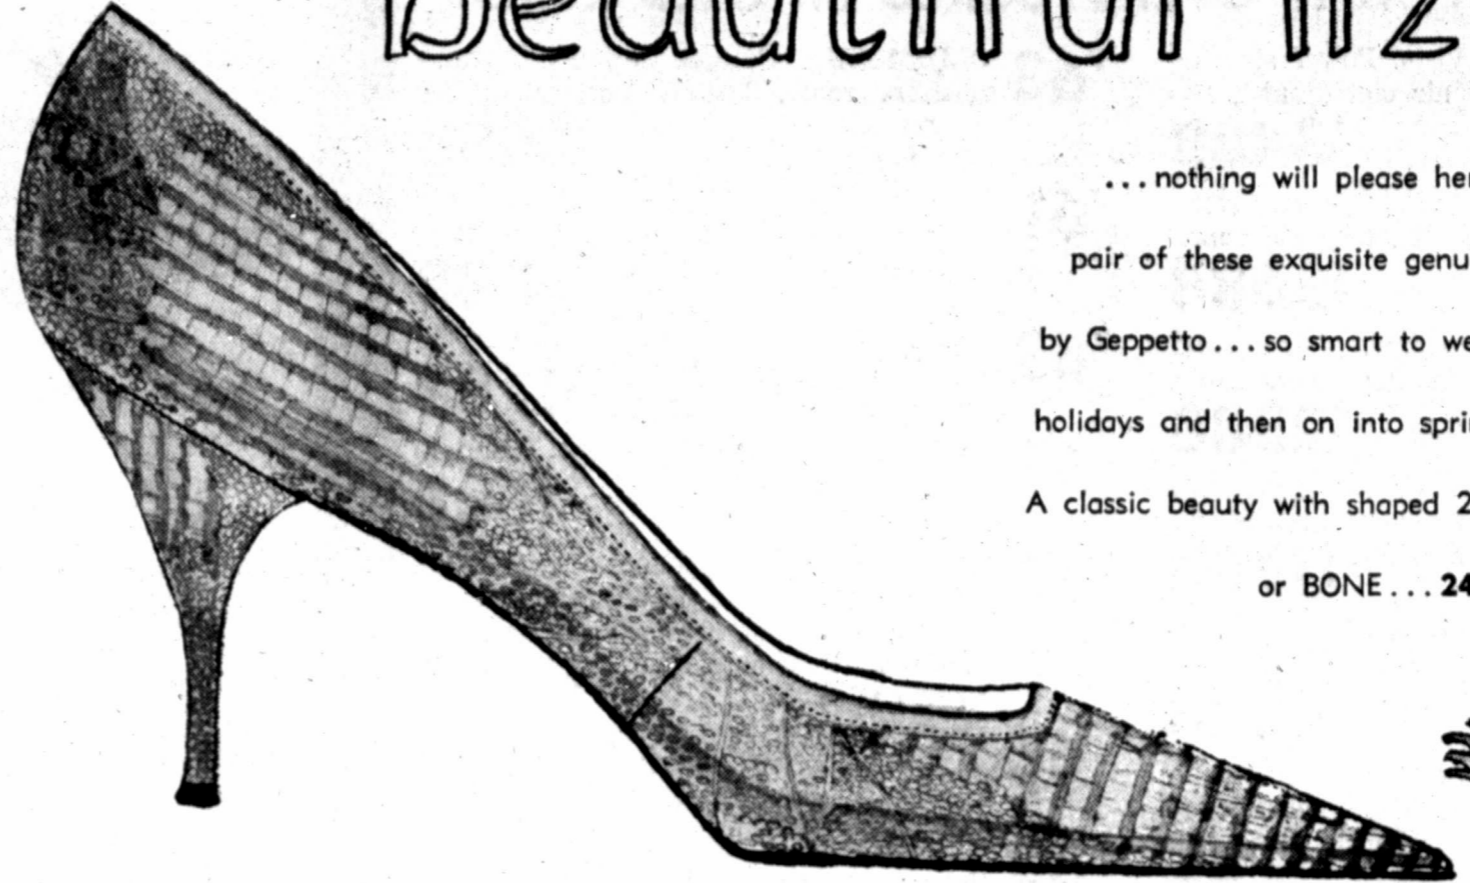

Bureau statistics show an average of 150 tornadoes a year from 1916 to 1950 and more than 500 a year since 1950. But the bureau's weekly crop bulletin explains: "Tornado experts are generally agreed that this is a fictitious increase resulting from greater interest in tornado reporting, a population increase so that tornadoes are less likely to be unobserved, better communications, and possibly a relaxation of the earlier reporting rules so that indirect evidence of tornadic activity is given more weight than formerly."

Bracero Hearing Shifts To Dallas

MIAMI (AP)—The Labor Department hearings on importation of foreign farm workers moves on to Dallas after a Miami session at which Florida fruit, vegetable and sugar cane growers told of a need for immigrant labor. Hearings resume Friday in Dallas and conclude Monday in San Francisco. In those areas Mexican workers, known as braceros, have been admitted under a congressional act expiring Dec. 31.

Crash Killing 3 Blamed On Pilot

WASHINGTON (AP)—Blame for a plane crash which killed three persons last March 25 in South Texas was placed on the pilot Wednesday by the Civil Aeronautics Board. It said the pilot, George Anderson, 57, of Mission, Tex., lost control of the aircraft after continuing an attempt to fly visually at night "into an area of adverse cold frontal weather."

The crash occurred at Sarita, headquarters of the famed King Ranch. Sherrill Anderson of Mission and Carol Faulkner of McAllen, Tex., also were killed. The three were on a planned night flight from Lubbock to Mission.

CAB said Anderson stopped at Junction to refuel the Cessna 182 and obtained weather information, including a warning of moderate to locally severe turbulence. The board said investigation showed the plane came apart before hitting the ground because of "aerodynamic forces exceeding the design strength of the aircraft structure."

Another Texas flier died, the CAB found, when fire caused by an electrical short circuit in flight caused him to land in unsuitable terrain.

The student pilot, Weldon Bosley, 24, of Houston, was flying

DISTRICT 3 FPC Rules For Gas Sales Authorization

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Federal Power Commission examiner ruled Wednesday that 36 natural gas sales from fields in Texas Railroad Commission Dist. 3 should be authorized.

Examiner Harry Shriver said an initial price limited to 16 cents per thousand cubic feet should be authorized. If no review is initiated within 40 days, the decision will become a final FPC order.

Contracts for all sales in the case were executed between Sept. 16, 1958, and Oct. 1, 1963. All the sales are being made under temporary commission authorizations at the initial prices proposed by the producers, which range from nearly 18.2 to 20 cents.

TANTALIZE TASTES
Hearty one-dish soup uses canned beans

Savory Beans Go Hungarian

Nothing satisfies like a bowl of piping hot soup on a cold winter day.

Hungarian Bean Soup with Dumplings (Babieves Cspetkevel) is a hearty dish that not only gives that "warm feeling inside" but is nutritious as well.

HUNGARIAN BEAN SOUP
1 No. 303 can (2 cups) ranch style beans
2 cans consommé or broth and 1 can water
2 carrots, sliced
4 tbsps. butter or margarine
2 onions, chopped
3 frankfurters (Hungarian style, if possible) sliced
Dash salt

DUMPLINGS
1 cup enriched flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 tbsps. baking powder
1/2 cup milk
2 tbsps. salad oil

Place the consommé and sliced carrots in a 2 qt. saucepan. Cover and place over medium heat until the carrots are cooked through (about 20 minutes). Stir occasionally.

Place the ranch style beans in a blender or mix with electric mixer for about one minute. Saute the onions and sliced frankfurters in butter and add the ranch style beans mixture to them. Heat thoroughly. Add to the soup mixture. Add dash of salt. Place on high heat. Bring the mixture to a boil.

Meanwhile, make the dumplings. Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder. Add the milk and salad oil to make a soft dough.

When the soup mixture begins to boil, drop the dumplings from a spoon. Reduce heat to medium. Cover tightly and steam, without lifting cover, 12 to 15 minutes.

Serve this old world treat hot with an accompanying relish tray or grilled cheese sandwiches. For a first course, serve with crisp celery on the side.

Try Moist Easy Cake

Here's a really moist and delectable sponge cake, easy to make.

HEAVENLY SPONGE CAKE
5 large eggs, separated
1 tsp. cream of tartar
1/2 tsp. salt
1-3 cup cold water
1 cup superfine granulated sugar
1 cup sifted cake flour
1 tsp. vanilla

Beat egg whites until foamy; add cream of tartar and salt; beat rapidly until whites hold straight stiff peaks. Add water and sugar to yolks; without washing beater, beat rapidly until pale yellow and thickened.

Add flour and vanilla to yolks; beat gently, running spatula around sides of bowl if necessary, just until blended. Fold in beaten whites. Turn into a 9 by 3 - inch ungreased angelfood cake (tube) pan.

Cut once through batter with a knife to get rid of large air pockets. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven for 1 hour. Invert pan and allow cake to hang until cool. Loosen with spatula and ease out.

Cut cake in half crosswise; fill and frost as desired.

Soups Spark Winter Fare

When the cold winds whistle and appetites are hearty, the homemaker has the happy choice of soup for morning, noon or night.

Soup is somewhat overlooked by Americans in comparison with European menus. On the continent, it is an integral part of every menu.

Soup can mean almost anything at any meal to any homemaker. It can be a light and flavorful first course, served hot or cold. Or it can be a one-dish dinner in itself with a substantial, stick-to-the-ribs content.

CHICKEN RICE SOUP
2 tbsps. oil or butter
1/4 cup finely diced onion
1 qt. seasoned chicken broth or bouillon
1/2 cup tomato sauce
1/4 cup cream of rice, quick-cooking cereal
1/2 tsp. sugar
1 cup shelled peas
Salt
Pepper

Melt butter in saucepan. Add onion and let cook about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add chicken broth and tomato sauce. Bring to boil. Sprinkle in cream of rice so boiling does not stop. Cook, stirring constantly, for about 1 minute.

Add peas and sugar and bring to boil again. Continue cooking until peas are barely tender, about 8 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper. If desired, a few shreds of cooked chicken can be added with the peas.

Yield: 4 generous servings.

STUFF BOILED EGGS WITH SEASONING

Just a few ingredients are used, but they make a great filling for stuffed eggs.

M AND M EGGS
12 hard-cooked eggs
5 tbsps. mayonnaise
2 tbsps. yellow prepared mustard
Salt and white pepper to taste
Garnish

Shell eggs; cut in half lengthwise; remove yolks. Mash yolks fine with mayonnaise and mustard; add salt (very little will be needed) and pepper. Refill white cavities with yolk mixture; ruffle with fork tines. Top with a garnish of capers or sliced pimiento-stuffed olives if desired.

RED CHERRY SOUP
1 can (1 lb.) red, sour pitted cherries, water pack
1/4 cup sugar
2 tbsps. cornstarch
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup claret
Sour cream

Drain cherries; reserve liquid and a few whole cherries for garnish. Chop remaining cherries very fine or puree in an electric blender.

Combine sugar, cornstarch, salt and cinnamon in saucepan; stir in cherry liquid, chopped cherries and orange juice.

Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil; boil 4 minutes. Remove from heat, stir in claret. Serve hot or chilled, garnished with a spoonful of sour cream and whole cherries. Makes 4 servings.

CHICKEN SOUP SAUTERNE
1 tbsps. instant minced onion
1/4 cup butter or margarine
3 cans (about 13 ozs. each) clear chicken broth
1 cup small macaroni shells
1 garlic clove, slashed
1 cup sauterne
1/4 lb. process Swiss cheese, grated

Cook onion in butter or margarine over low heat 5 minutes; do not brown.

Add chicken broth, cover; simmer 10 minutes.

2 eggs
1 can ice cold buttermilk

Combine ingredients. Mix to a froth in pitcher, shaker, bowl or electric blender. Makes 2 to 3 servings. Add a carrot stick stirrer.

TANGY TASTE
Golden ale or beer adds special touch

Blend Beer, Cheese In Hearty Favorite

Beer cheese soup is a soup to make yourself—different from any you could possibly buy. It combines the flavor of celery, carrot and onion with chicken broth, the wholesome goodness of Cheddar cheese, and the final gourmet touch of tangy beer or ale. If you're fond of ever-popular Welsh Rabbit, you know what's in store for you when you brew up this fine soup. Beer and, of course ale, which is interchangeable with beer in recipes, seem to go hand in glove with cheese.

BEER CHEESE SOUP
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/4 cup diced celery
1/4 cup diced carrot
1 tbsps. chopped onion
6 tbsps. flour
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
6 cups chicken broth
1/4 tsp. Tabasco
1 1/2 cups grated Cheddar cheese (about 6-ozs.)
12 ozs. (bottle or can) beer or ale

Melt butter; add celery, carrot and onion and cook until tender, but not brown. Blend in flour and mustard. Gradually stir in broth and cook, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened. Add Tabasco and cheese; heat until cheese is melted. Just before serving, add beer; heat to serving temperature. Add salt to taste, if necessary. Garnish with chopped parsley or croutons, if desired.

Yield: 8 servings.

MRS. BERT SHIVE

Contrast Of Old, New Seen In Shive Home

By MARY COCHRAN

The contrast of the old and new is a reality in the home of Mrs. Bert Shive at 2809 Navajo Drive. The latest in equipment graces the kitchen den in her gleaming modern home, and a few steps away on the patio stands an ancient wood-burning stove that serves for the outdoor cookery jobs.

When the Shiveses cook outside, they have the convenience of a full stove complete with hot water tank, oven and top burners rather than the average barbecue pit. They can cook with charcoal in this vintage model where Mrs. Shive often bakes biscuits while stirring up a special backyard feast.

With the winter winds blowing, she abandons the backyard for the true conveniences in her bronze and mahogany kitchen where there is often a pot of soup brewing on the stove. Mr. and Mrs. Shive and their 17-year-old son, Don, don't care for the dark meat in chicken and so it is the basis for a steaming kettle of soup enhanced with savory drop dumplings. Maybe she will boil a soup bone for a soup base giving it at least four hours of simmering time before the vegetables are added. Also, they enjoy a bit of macaroni in the mixture.

One family favorite is "pink soup" that dates back to Mrs. Shive's childhood. She uses equal amounts of tomato juice and milk seasoned with salt, pepper and butter. If the juice and milk are the same temperature no soda is needed to prevent curdling.

The quick mix cherry cobbler Mrs. Shive lists in her recipe collection is a family choice. Another dessert they enjoy is lemon cake. She uses one package of lemon cake mix, 1 package of lemon gelatin, ¼ cup apricot nectar, ¼ cup oil, 2 teaspoons lemon extract and four eggs, separated. The first four ingredients are mixed at low speed; next the egg yolks are added at medium speed; and finally the beaten egg whites are folded in. This is baked in a steam pan at 325 degrees for one hour. Mrs. Shive combines powdered sugar and lemon juice for a glazing to put on the cake while it is hot.

Mr. and Mrs. Shive like to get out on the golf course in the afternoons and she puts something on to bake in a slow oven while they play. If the menu is to be a quick one, fried shrimp is a good choice. She mixes her own sauce of horseradish, ketchup, Worcester-shire, and lemon juice.

With Christmas approaching, there will be a number of special sessions in the kitchen where this homemaker, known to her friends as Hattie Belle, will be making date cake, candy or cookies for gifts and holiday treats.

Here are some of her special recipes.

Special Trick Needed In Egg Flower Soup

AP Newsfeatures Writer
What's on our mind? The way of a Chinese chef with an egg and a kettle of broth. A quick beating, a few stirs, and lovely films of egg looking like delicate flowers appear.
We came on a special directive, experimented with it; now we pass along the secret to you. There are three keys to this operation. The broth has to be the right temperature. The egg has to be beaten to the proper consistency. The mating of broth and egg—the pouring and stirring—has to be done just so. The simplest trick in the world you've mastered it!
The broth, we find, is a soup. Try it some mid-morning when your energy is low. Your spirits sagging, and see if you don't agree.

EGG FLOWER SOUP
1 egg
1 can (12½ fluid ozs.) clear chicken broth
Boiling water
Salt
Break the egg into a teacup; with a fork beat just enough barely to combine yolk and white so when egg is lifted high it will run off fork in a watery stream. Empty broth into a one-pint measure. Add enough boiling water to make 2 cups. Turn broth into a 1-quart saucepan and heat until boiling hot; adjust heat so broth will simmer—that means bubbles form slowly and collapse below the surface of the liquid.
Hold cup about 5 inches above saucepan and pour egg slowly in a fine stream into the very hot broth; stop and start again a

Bread Supplies Energy, Nutrition In Daily Fare

Often you think of bread as store in the refrigerator in containers with closely fitting tops. Here are several tested methods.
Soft bread cubes: Stack two or three slices of bread on a cutting board. With a sharp knife, using a sawing motion, cut sliced bread into strips of desired width. Cut again in opposite direction to form cubes of even size.
Toasted bread crumbs: Arrange soft cubes on a baking pan. Place in a slow oven, 300 degrees, and toast until bread cubes are golden brown on all sides, turning occasionally. If you want buttered bread crumbs, use two to five table-spoons of melted butter for each cup of dry bread crumbs. Stir constantly until golden brown.
Yields: 1 slice (¾ in.) fresh crumb in main dishes, stuffings, desserts and even salads.

PROMISING SLEEPER

Movie Portrays Gal Of Lonely Set

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Evie Jackson is the kind of a woman who knows everyone in her car by the time she gets off the train. She telephones welcome messages to be delivered to herself, so people at the hotel won't think she's lonely. She knows every bellboy by name and has herself paged in the lobby.

She is a smalltown postmaster — she prefers the title to postmistress which sounds racy to her. In New York on a convention, she strives desperately to involve herself with other people's lives and to avoid the clutches of three old-maid harpies who want her in their bridge-and-gossip matches. She also tries to avoid the trap of another convention idyll with a handsome married man.

LONELY SET

Evie Jackson is one of the world's lonely crowd. She is portrayed brilliantly by Geraldine Page in a fine new film bearing the innocuous title of "Dear Heart." The original title, "The Out-of-Towners," seems more fitting, but Warner Brothers apparently made the switch to cash in on the haunting title theme written by Henry Mancini and Livingston-Evans.

"Dear Heart" by any name seems to be the most promising sleeper since "Marty," which it resembles.

What makes it so good? In the beginning it was a script by Tad Mosel which is human without being sentimental. It tells parallel stories of Evie Jackson, the busybody who admits she "goes on too long," and Harry Mork, the greeting-card salesman who has been promoted to a New York job and plans to marry an Altoona, Penn., widow. Inevitably, the destinies of Evie and Harry converge.

MOVIE DEBUT

Producer of "Dear Heart" is Martin Manulis, making an impressive debut in films after a distinguished career in television — "Playhouse 90." The director is Delbert Mann, who continues the skill he showed with "Marty," which won him an Oscar.

Geraldine Page has won Academy nominations for three of her four previous films — "Hondo," "Summer and Smoke," "Sweet Bird of Youth" — and she is likely to make it four out of five with her Evie Jackson. She is always in command of the character, making Evie touching without being pathetic.

Glenn Ford makes the most of his role as the romantically confused salesman, providing as convincing a performance as he has given in years. He is an actor of more insight and sensitivity than he has been given credit for.

The rest of the cast performs ably, especially Angela Lansbury.

Snowplows Stay On Job

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Men and snow removal equipment in northern and eastern Maine labored today to clear highways of heavy drifted snow that stranded hundreds of travelers in a chaotic white nightmare.

At least two persons died Tuesday in the blizzard which heaped nearly two feet of snow on Eastport and heavy amounts on other areas of Hancock, Washington and Aroostook counties.

Snow and cold prevailed across the northern half of the nation from the Rockies to the western slopes of the Appalachians.

Town Sued In Tar Pit Death

PARIS, Tex. (AP)—Relatives of a 12-year-old boy who died in a tar pit last February filed suit against the City of Paris to pay $156,416.50 damages.

Two Films Get Eagle Awards

Two Gulf Oil Corporation films, "Twelve Hours of Sebring" and "An Experiment in Excellence," received Golden Eagle awards at the Council on International Nontheatrical Events (CINE) awards ceremony Nov. 10, in Washington, D. C.

Golden Eagle awards are made annually by CINE to outstanding films which it feels worthy to represent the United States in various film festivals abroad.

This year's 161 Golden Eagle winners were selected from hundreds of non-theatrical, television documentary, and entertainment short subject films submitted from all parts of the United States.

"Twelve Hours of Sebring," a movie, covers the longest sports car race in America, Florida's Sebring Grand Prix. This film is available to the public on a free-loan basis, and can be obtained by writing to Gulf Oil Corporation, Film Library, P.O. Box 1166, Pittsburgh, Pa., 15230.

"An Experiment in Excellence," produced by the National Broadcasting Co. as an hour-long documentary, was sponsored by Gulf. While pointing out the many changes taking place in our educational system today, this film also underscores the human element involved in the teaching process.

Although not available to the general public, schools may obtain the film through their state chapters of the National Education Association. This was made possible through an arrangement among Gulf, NBC, and the National Education Association.

Bankruptcy Case On Parr Closed

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — The bankruptcy case of George B. Parr of Duval County was officially closed today after the final report of bankruptcy officials was filed in federal district court.

The action tied a figurative string around volumes of data compiled since the former South Texas political leader filed voluntary bankruptcy nearly eight years ago, Jan. 26, 1957.

The case involved scores of lawsuits, hearings and compromise settlements on claims that at one time totaled $3,166,525. A DISCREPANCY The documents show Parr, in his original bankruptcy petition, underrated the worth of his estate. He claimed assets of $532,016, not including exempt property valued at $74,569. The total disbursements by bankruptcy officials, however, amounted to $1,582,904.

Parr's statement of his liabilities, however, was nearer the claims finally allowed by bankruptcy referee James Easterling. Easterling allowed claims totaling $1,155,959. Parr set his liabilities at $1,925,093.

Parr's estimate of his liabilities included $600,000 in claims by the Internal Revenue Service. These were eventually reduced to $147,393. With this adjustment Parr's own list of liabilities dropped to $1,472,486, which his final net worth would have covered.

WERE PAID All but $52,753 of the allowed claims were paid in full, the records showed. This amount represented the loss suffered by 21 creditors with unsecured claims totaling $277,923.54. They were paid, in a final settlement Sept. 4, at the rate of 81.0186 percent for a total of $225,169.77.

In addition, the estate paid liquidation expenses totaling $390,547.

Ordaz Cabinet Top Politicos

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Newly inaugurated President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz has surrounded himself with a cabinet made up largely of seasoned politicians.

The key post of foreign minister went to Antonio Carrillo Flores, regarded as a friend of the United States. An affable, 55-year-old lawyer, he has been ambassador to Washington for the past six years.

Others include: Interior Minister Luis Echeverria, 42, second in command to Diaz Ordaz, a mild-mannered attorney who has been active in the ruling Institutional Revolutionary Party since 1946.

Treasury Minister Antonio Ortiz Mena, 53, a holdover, who served as director of the social security institute before taking the post.

Labor Minister Salomon Gonzalez Blanco, 62, another holdover, former Supreme Court justice, and former senator who was professor of labor law at National University for 14 years.

DEAR ABBY

Just Watch The Music ---

DEAR ABBY: Mine is a small problem compared to others, but it is still a problem. I play in the symphony orchestra, and a woman who has a season ticket sits in the front row at every performance. She is very careless about her position, Abby. The way she sits, I mean. This is very embarrassing to some of our orchestra personnel, and especially disconcerting during a concert. What can be done? I think someone ought to tell her. My wife says I should mind my own business. I'd like your opinion. WOOD WIND

DEAR WOOD WIND: She be a patron, so keep still. Or imagine she's a cello player without her cello. Or better yet, keep your eyes on the music. P.S. Your wood wind is sighing.

DEAR ABBY: Re your advice to "EMBARRASSED," the woman who ditched the nude statues when she saw the preacher coming up the road: I don't agree with you. If the woman's son is an art major, and got his sculpture in Italy, they might well be works of art rather than pornography. Was "EMBARRASSED" born in a corset? And did the preacher come into this world fully clothed? Some bare facts are cleaner than nasty minds fully clothed in ignorance.

ART FOR ART'S SAKE IN SAN FRANCISCO

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the art major's mother in Blytheville, Ark., reminded me of this incident:

While touring Italy, many years ago, I bought a small, but splendid replica of Michelangelo's David. My wife's mother lived with us at the time. The poor inhibited little soul was terribly embarrassed at the sight of this magnificently formed, young, unadorned male body, so she KNIT him a "dress." And our David wore that knit dress for as long as my mother-in-law lived.

CHESTNUT HILL

DEAR ABBY: I met a nice gentleman through a friend and we have had many enjoyable dates. (I am over 40 and he is about 50.) Last night, when he brought me home from the theatre, he said: "I hope that you will have a new hair style the next time I see you." I was hurt and replied, "I don't tell YOU how to wear YOUR hair, do I?" My hair is always neat, Abby, but I don't go in for the latest hair styles.

I think he was wrong to comment about my hair, don't you? He is the most eligible bachelor in town, but if he is capable of such cutting remarks I wonder if I should tolerate it? I respect your opinion. What should I do? HURT

DEAR HURT: Hie thee to the best beauty parlor in town and get a new hair style. Your friend was blunt, to be sure, but if you are wise (and interested in him) you'll accept his remark as constructive criticism and set about to remedy the situation. You could wind up thanking him.

Beck To Go Free Dec. 11

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dave Beck, onetime Teamsters Union head who has served nearly half of a five-year prison sentence for income tax fraud, will be freed on parole on Dec. 11 from the U.S. penitentiary on McNeil Island near Tacoma, Wash.

Parole was granted Beck Tuesday.

Beck, now 70, was fined $20,000 in addition to his jail sentence in Tacoma, Wash., on Feb. 27, 1959, on charges of filing fraudulent tax returns for the union's Joint Council Building Association in Seattle, Wash.

He began serving the sentence June 20, 1962, after he lost his appeals fight.

Rocket For Mariner Set

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Mariner 4 whizzed through space today in history's longest race, cheered on by humming earthbound electronic spectators and hopeful scientists, but witnessed only by silent stars.

American scientists were trying to decide when — probably Thursday — to fire a small rocket aboard Mariner 4 designed to alter its trajectory from a 200,000-mile miss to a 8,600-mile fly-by for 22 closeup pictures of Mars.

The 575-pound Mariner 4's rocket has sufficient fuel for two brief firings, if necessary. All other Mariner power is provided by solar panels.

American Freighter Hits Jetty

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—The 3,103-ton American freighter Lucile Bloomfield rammed a jetty while leaving the Port of Gdynia in northern Poland Wednesday, the ship's agents reported. There were no casualties and damage was believed to be minor.

The Polish Sea Agency said the ship, owned by Bloomfield Steamship Co. of Galveston, Tex., apparently was blown into the jetty by a sudden squall.

The vessel, captained by H. H. Rose, was delayed in Gdynia for inspection by a technical commission of the small hole in her hull. She had unloaded a cargo of cotton at Gdynia and was leaving for New Orleans.

Family Takes In 4 Orphans

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—A Salvation Army family of four, living on $60 a week, has taken four orphaned children into their home.

"We want to be able to give them the love they need and want," said Capt. Bill McFarland.

"Anyone would have done the same thing. It's something you don't have to think about. You just know what to do."

FATHER DEAD

McFarland and his wife took the children after they found the youngsters' 71-year-old father, a retired laborer, dead on Thanksgiving Day.

"They didn't know who to call, so they called me," McFarland said.

"I was their pastor. They had relatives here but they didn't know how to get in touch with them right away."

McFarland refused to name the children and would not allow them to be photographed. He would say only that the two boys were 11 and 14 years old and the girls were 15 and 16.

Mrs. McFarland said their own children, a girl, 7, and a boy, 3, loved having the four.

Asked how she felt about suddenly doubling the size of her family, Mrs. McFarland replied, "I'm used to it. I was raised in a large family."

TO GET BENEFITS

The McFarlands live in a three-bedroom house provided by the Salvation Army. McFarland, 30, has charge of all the army's activities here.

McFarland said there would be no financial problems because the children would receive Social Security benefits which would care for them until they finish school.

"The only thing I'm worried about is being equipped to handle teen-agers," he said, "especially teen-aged girls and their boyfriends."

Anti-U.S. Bias In Arithmetic

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—New official public school textbooks in Communist Cuba, say critics in touch with sources there, contain arithmetic problems such as this:

"Of the 180 million inhabitants of the United States, one-ninth are discriminated against for being Negroes and one-sixtieth for being Latin Americans. How many millions of Negroes suffer discrimination in the U.S. and how many Latin Americans?"

Dying Mate In Wreckage

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—A woman motorist found her husband dying in the wreckage of his pickup truck here.

Police said Kathleen Adkins, driving the family car, was following her husband's truck home from their service station.

She fell behind at a stop sign, then caught up and was the first driver on the scene after the truck failed to negotiate a curve and hit a power pole.

Van W. Adkins, 24, was dead on arrival at Santa Monica Hospital.

Laotian Army Recaptures Sites

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The Laotian army has recaptured the positions lost Monday to the Pathet Lao in the Tha Thom sector and killed 37 Pathet Lao soldiers in the battle, Western military sources reported.

Tha Thom is a small town on the road from the Plaine des Jarres to Pak Sane, a Mekong River community below Vietnam.
