Mass Meet Protests U.S. In Viet

NEW YORK (AP) — Approximately 1,000 persons attended a rally Saturday in protest against American participation in hostilities in South Viet Nam.

The rally, sponsored by an ad hoc committee of clergymen, writers and workers, was one of a number scheduled in the United States and abroad.

The Rev. A. J. Muste, secretary of the fellowship of reconciliation, a pacifist organization, said the others were being held in Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, San Francisco and Seattle and overseas, in Tokyo, Paris, London, Montreal and Melbourne.

Muste told the rally in New York he was ashamed of American involvement in South Viet Nam. He said the United States "must find a way for a cease-fire by negotiation, not by killing people."

Norman Thomas, socialist leader, said the United States must seek a settlement by political means "because there is no other settlement that is decent."

A Phillip Randolph, a Negro civil rights leader, told the rally "we do not want America to have the image of an imperialist adventurer."

Squeeze Felt From Strike

HOUSTON (AP) — The Port of Houston was feeling the squeeze Saturday caused by a $100,000-a-day rail strike of which there was no end in sight.

The port's general manager, Jerry P. Turner, said the only way out of the strike appeared to be the appointment of a presidential emergency board.

Twenty - Three Children Die In Blazes In Five States

By The Associated Press
Twenty-three children died in house fires in five states Saturday, less than a week before Christmas. Other fires killed three adults and heavily damaged the Neiman-Marcus department store in Dallas, Tex.

Four children burned to death Saturday night near Logan, West Virginia, while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minter, were away shopping. The two boys and two girls, ranging in age from 4 years to 9 months, were trapped in an upstairs bedroom by the fire, which firemen said might have been started by a faulty gas heater.

The tragedies came only a day after 20 elderly persons lost their lives in a Fountaintown, Ind., nursing home fire — one that firemen said might have started in a mouse nest.

Six of the nine children of Elbert Turner Cox, 40, a steelworker and part-time cab driver of Warren, Mich., a Detroit suburb, perished in a fire that destroyed their two-story frame home.

Five children died in a fire in a five-room frame house in which 14 persons were sleeping near Kingston, N.C.

FROM FIREPLACE
Police said the fire apparently spread from an open fireplace. A fire in a rural frame home in the Spear Lake community near Marked Tree in northeast Arkansas took the lives of five children ranging in age from 7 to 16.

IN SEATTLE
Three children burned to death in a fire that razed their home at Seattle, Wash.

A fire in a 2½ story frame house at Trenton, N.J., caused the deaths of Mary Rittman, 69, a widow, and her daughter, Helen, 40. Firemen said the flames appeared to have started in a shed attached to the rear of the house.

Things are all awry for the Salvation Army as it faces the task of trying to provide a merry Christmas to more than 350 needy families. While the number of people needing help is climbing, the amount of money contributed for Christmas charity is lagging behind last year. In fact, Friday it was $700 off the pace. Some real generosity on the part of people who really care will be needed to close the gap in the next four days.

When the permit for Lake J. B. Thomas was issued nearly a score of years ago, the proceedings took little more than an hour. All of last week was consumed in presentation of the CRMWD's application for another lake above Robert Lee, and the district is not yet through presenting its testimony, thanks to tedious cross-examination by opposing attorneys. The hearing will be resumed Jan. 4, and it may take several more days. Downstream interests are shooting at anything that sticks its head up.

Mailing at the Big Spring post office, while perhaps not as vigorous as in some former years, has been like an avalanche. Postal workers, however, were staying abreast of the situation and may be just about past the crest.

Five years after he was sentenced to the penitentiary for murder, Mike Martinez tried to gain his release on the grounds he had been tried twice for the crime.

The year is not over, but the Chamber of Commerce is gearing for the next. Directors announced Monday that L. Gen. William Moyer, commander of the Air Training Command, will be the speaker for the annual banquet on Jan. 16. New

It's No Tall Tale

OSWESTRY, England (AP) — A teen-age girl who couldn't seem to stop growing is having a series of operations to reduce her height.

The girl, Anne Rowston, 19, was 6 feet, 7½ inches tall when she entered a hospital three months ago. The series of four operations to remove bone from her legs was planned to make her six inches shorter.

The first three operations have been completed by surgeons in the orthopedic hospital here. They reported Saturday Anne is making satisfactory progress.

Fire Damages Famed Store

Neiman's Fire Loss Put At $5 Million

DALLAS (AP) — Neiman-Marcus, the Dallas specialty store known around the world for its fashions and merchandising techniques, was smoke-streaked and water-soaked Saturday after a fierce five-hour fire that ravaged its upper floors. Damage was estimated by Vice President Edward Marcus in excess of $5 million.

More than 400 firemen and 20 pieces of equipment fought the blaze. Clouds of smoke shrouded the Dallas skyline as firemen poured tons of water into the seven-story building, loaded with Christmas stock.

TELLS OF BLAST
The upper three floors were obscured by dense smoke for hours after the alarm was sounded about 3:30 a.m. A night watchman on the fifth floor said a small explosion preceded the flames. Cause of the fire had not been determined when firemen subdued it about 9 a.m.

AT THE START
The first city accident after the fire started was at 5:17 p.m. Friday near the Wagon Wheel Drive-in on US 80 west. Drivers were Willie McGee Box, Webb AFB, and Neva Brock Hunt, 1801 Owens.

Locations of other accidents, and drivers of vehicles involved, were: Sixth and Birdwell, Ann Reynolds Noiser, 4215 Hamilton, and Jerry Floyd Lewis, 2201 Alabama; 1600 Airbase Road, Rosalinda G. Blalock, Rt. 2, and Thomas G. Komarek, 1320 Wright; 1412 W. 3rd, Clyde Brown Jr., Webb AFB, and a parked car owned by Carl Young, 1414 W. 3rd; Third and Jones, unidentified driver whose car knocked down a guy wire and left the scene; green pickup left scene at 1801 Donley after striking a gas meter; 1520 and US 350, William Elliott Green, Dallas, and a sign.

Other minor accidents occurring Saturday, were: Marcy Drive and Scurry, Calvin Daniels, 421 Edwards and Tommy McAdams, 1308 Mt. Vernon, north end of west viaduct, Jesus Morales, 506 NE 9th, and Jimmy Jones, 1308 Princeton; Seventeenth and Scurry, John Schwarzenbach, 810 W. 14th and John Martin, 1318 Sycamore; 510 Lamesa Drive, car owned by Armand Munez, Midland, rolled into trailer house.

MOTORISTS ON TOES
Jack White, highway patrolman, said that slippery conditions were the cause of many of the accidents.

All Roads Open, But Driving Hazards Stay

Skids Cause Mishaps In Big Spring

Big Spring weather followed the rest of West Texas Friday and Friday night—it was cold. Sleet began falling and freezing on car windshields, windows, and highways shortly after 4 p.m. and the temperature skidded to 21 degrees at 9 p.m. City and highway department crews began graveling the most-used streets and highways. Bridges were iced over and some skidding and accidents resulted in hazardous driving conditions.

One person was seriously injured. In another mishap, a police car was struck by a vehicle.

Today's weather should be some warmer, as was Saturday afternoon's, with only partly-cloudy skies. Another front is heading south and may reach Big Spring sometime today, but temperatures are not scheduled to drop to Friday's low of 16 degrees, which brought the road dangers.

SERIOUS INJURY
Drivers in the city became aware of hazardous conditions, however, and only eight accidents were investigated by Big Spring police from 5:17 p.m. Friday through 7:20 a.m. Saturday. More followed, however. Some were one-vehicle accidents in which slick streets were involved. Five more were investigated from 7:30 a.m. to later Saturday, including one serious injury accident at the IS 20 bypass and Snyder highway.

Mrs. Wilford Gabriel, 65, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was taken to Howard County Hospital Foundation with a broken back when the car, driven by her husband, skidded, went out of control, crossed the median strip, and threw Mrs. Gabriel to the pavement. She was still undergoing treatment and the seriousness of the injury was not known late Saturday.

SKID ACCIDENT
Another "skidding" accident happened at 7:18 a.m. on the north lane of US 80 east. A car, driven west by Cecil Kent Hanlan of Midland skidded out of control on the bridge near the Bowl-A-Rama and into a Big Spring city police car parked on the median.

Patrolman Joe Henry, called to investigate another car which had been involved in an accident and abandoned at the time, was checking the vehicle when the "spinning" car collided with the left side of the police vehicle which was also parked in the median. Highway Patrolman Jack White, who accompanied Henry, was sitting in the police vehicle when the accident occurred. He was not injured but damage to the city car was estimated at around $300.

THE FIRST CITY
The first city accident after the fire started was at 5:17 p.m. Friday near the Wagon Wheel Drive-in on US 80 west. Drivers were Willie McGee Box, Webb AFB, and Neva Brock Hunt, 1801 Owens.

Locations of other accidents, and drivers of vehicles involved, were: Sixth and Birdwell, Ann Reynolds Noiser, 4215 Hamilton, and Jerry Floyd Lewis, 2201 Alabama; 1600 Airbase Road, Rosalinda G. Blalock, Rt. 2, and Thomas G. Komarek, 1320 Wright; 1412 W. 3rd, Clyde Brown Jr., Webb AFB, and a parked car owned by Carl Young, 1414 W. 3rd; Third and Jones, unidentified driver whose car knocked down a guy wire and left the scene; green pickup left scene at 1801 Donley after striking a gas meter; 1520 and US 350, William Elliott Green, Dallas, and a sign.

Other minor accidents occurring Saturday, were: Marcy Drive and Scurry, Calvin Daniels, 421 Edwards and Tommy McAdams, 1308 Mt. Vernon, north end of west viaduct, Jesus Morales, 506 NE 9th, and Jimmy Jones, 1308 Princeton; Seventeenth and Scurry, John Schwarzenbach, 810 W. 14th and John Martin, 1318 Sycamore; 510 Lamesa Drive, car owned by Armand Munez, Midland, rolled into trailer house.

Jack White, highway patrolman, said that slippery conditions were the cause of many of the accidents.

BULLETIN

DALLAS (AP) — Neiman-Marcus vice president Edward Marcus said late Saturday the fire-ravaged store with a worldwide reputation for fashion and luxury goods would be closed indefinitely pending a check for possible structural damage to the downtown Dallas store. He said the store's stock of goods was fully insured.

Deaths Laid To Icy Peril Hit 8

By The Associated Press
Icy weather, one of Texas' coldest late autumn northers on record, moderated somewhat Saturday, but indications were another cold spell would arrive in the state in time for the official advent of winter on Monday.

Ice slowly melted from highways on which at least eight traffic deaths occurred during the past two days. The Texas Highway Department reported all highways open to traffic although conditions continued hazardous on some because of ice-covered bridges and overpasses.

At noon Saturday the department announced that U.S. Highways 62 and 180 were again open to traffic through the Guadalupe Mountains in far West Texas. The mountain sections of the highways were closed Friday because of ice.

FREEZING RAIN

For a second morning in a row predicted freezing weather in the lush Lower Rio Grande Valley failed to materialize.

The thermometer stayed three to four degrees above freezing Friday night in the four-county valley area, and vegetable and citrus growers reported little or no damage to their crops.

Skies Saturday afternoon generally were partly cloudy to cloudy. Most temperatures were in the 30s and 40s.

DALLAS FATALITIES
Four of the latest highway deaths occurred in Dallas County.

Three young people died in the crash of their small car with a station wagon near Garland. Killed were James D. Radcliffe, 19, and David O. Foster, 16, both of Dallas, and Andrea Mae Peters, 16, of Garland.

The other Dallas County death was that of William Beth, 47, of Lewisville, Denton County, who was killed when his car skidded in front of another car near Carrollton.

Forecasts called for partly cloudy to cloudy skies and slightly rising temperatures in most areas through Sunday.

An exception was the upper Texas Panhandle where another mass of cold air was expected to start moving in late Sunday.

SEVEN ARRESTED
Seven of the nine active members of the council were arrested and paratroopers are looking for another one.

Among the council members arrested was South Viet Nam's leading Buddhist layman, Mai Tho Thuyen, appointed vice president of the World Buddhist Association at a meeting in India last week.

Military high command headquarters in Saigon remained heavily fortified through the night. Troops did not appear in Saigon streets, but teams of police swiftly carried out the arrests.

The streets of Saigon remained calm and normal Sunday morning.

BUDDHISTS GATHER
Several thousand Buddhists gathered at their headquarters for a continuation of their protest demonstration against the government.

Sunday's purge was clearly aimed at the Buddhist political uprising.

Buddhist leaders at their headquarters said they were extremely angry at developments.

(At this point the telephone circuit from Saigon was broken.)

Reds Open Berlin Wall For Christmas Reunions

BERLIN (AP) — The Christmas reunion of Berliners separated by the Red Wall began Saturday as tens of thousands went into the Soviet sector of the divided city.

East German border guards opened the wall before dawn and by late afternoon about 70,000 West Berliners had passed through by showing special passes issued by the Reds.

West Berlin police counted more than 6,000 cars at the four road crossings into East Berlin.

Despite the throngs, the operation went smoothly, as Communist authorities reinforced border guards and customs officials at the checkpoints.

West Berlin police reported no incidents during the day. The wall will be open to West Berliners with close relatives in the Soviet sector until Jan. 3. During this time, they will be allowed to make two visits.

About 800,000 of West Berlin's 2.2 million inhabitants are eligible to receive passes. This is the second Christmas since the wall was built in 1961 that reunions have been permitted.

People generally seemed more relaxed this year as they were crossing through the wall, for they knew there will be at least two more visiting periods — at Easter and Whitsuntide. Last year they had no assurance that they could ever see their walled-in relatives again.

Scapegoat For Nik Elevated

MOSCOW (AP) — Konstantin G. Pysin, a onetime Soviet minister of agriculture whom former Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev made the scapegoat for farm failures, was named first deputy premier Saturday of the huge Russian Federated Republic.

Pysin, 54, replaced L.I. Maksimov, a former collective farm chairman from the Kuban region who moved up to the high Russian-republic post in January this year.

Pysin was dismissed in March 1963 at the peak of a Khrushchev drive to correct agricultural shortcomings. He was replaced by the present minister of agriculture, Ivan Volovchenko, whose position since Khrushchev's dismissal in October has been reported shaky.

Pysin's re-emergence from an obscure post as an inspector of the Soviet Communist party Central Committee was the second rehabilitation of Khrushchev victims this month.

Dinnukhamed A. Kunayev, who lost his job as first secretary of the Kazakhstan Republic party organization a few months before Pysin's dismissal, was returned to his top party post two weeks ago.

WAR AT WATERHOLE

Lake Draws Contest

Despite the horns' nest stirred in the hearing before the Texas Water Commission last week, officials of the Colorado River Municipal Water District are confident that their application for a permit to impound a lake near Robert Lee will be approved.

They will get the answer probably in the first half of January. The TWC recessed the hearing Thursday because opposing attorneys said all the testimony could not be crowded in last week due to a one-day recess because of a death in one of the counsel's family.

The CRMWD got in all but one of its witnesses, and the line of cross examination made several things clear. The foremost is that interests from Lake Buchanan to the Gulf, particularly those along the seven reservoirs which comprise the Highland Lakes, are aroused not so much at the CRMWD's proposal as they are at the potential result of developing all the lakes which various agencies have suggested.

"HEART OF MATTER"

When Elbert Hooper, CRMWD attorney, objected to bringing in speculation about other lakes on the grounds the CRMWD had nothing to do with them and that they were purely conjectural, both St. Sen. Charles Herndon, representing the Lower Colorado River Authority and the City of Austin, and Frank Erwin, representing tourist and real estate developments along the lakes, vigorously maintained:

"This is the heart of the matter."

They were permitted to press the point. They agreed that this was the first link in a chain of reservoirs they thought would drastically cut the amount of water in existing lakes.

The second thing that they appear to seek in the vigorous contest of the application is to serve notice that it's war at the waterhole from now on. When S. W. Freese, CRMWD engineer, blandly mentioned that this area would have to be looking for still another source of water by the late 1980's, he was asked where the district would go. He cited the Stacey location on the Colorado just below the confluence of the river and the Concho River. Opposing attorneys pressed to be asked and asked:

LINES OF ATTACK

Several lines of attack have been formed. The first is to challenge the claims of projected growth for West Texas. Questions were directed in an effort to create the impression that West Texas was once a lone, some semi-desert and will be again once oil is gone. Similarly, assaults were made upon the amount of water which the CRMWD seeks to impound (489,000 acre feet, of which 435,000 is in actual conservation storage). Salvo after salvo was fired on the district's arrangement with oil companies to furnish waters temporarily in surplus for repressuring and water-flooding of oilfields. Finally, the feasibility of the project was made a target because of what opposing forces considered questionable quality, because of prices users might have to pay, and because of finances. The latter was made an issue although Freese steadfastly testified that CRMWD was in a much, much better position to finance this $12,500,000 issue than it was the original $11,750,000 issue for Lake J. B. Thomas and the main supply lines.

URGENT NEED

The reason for confidence on the part of district officials is simple—they believe that this region must have some additional water to meet the industrial, municipal and similar needs, that there is no other readily available supply. The water won't be as economical as that from Lake Thomas, but it will be more economical than going further down the river, which the district may do in another generation. They are convinced that water for people and their daily domestic and work needs is more important than water held primarily for pleasure, power and irrigation.

When lower interests put on witnesses starting soon after the hearing is resumed Jan. 4, Hooper and his associate, Attorney James Rosser of Snyder, may bring a lot of this into focus.

If the TWC does grant a permit and there are no further hitches, the CRMWD will be prepared to move rapidly. W. L. Eeds, design engineer, said he believed that plans and specifications could be ready for a July letting. This would mean a whirlwind effort on the part of the district to acquire land first for the dam site and then for the basin, but all of this would be necessary to get on the job of moving over 10,000,000 cubic yards of earth, installing some giant concrete conduits, and having it all ready to impound water within about three years. That's when it will be needed, said Freese.

Gentry Has Status Altered

George Gentry, former high school principal here and subsequently superintendent and junior college president at Temple and Baytown, has had his status changed at Baytown by the board of trustees.

Early in the autumn the board had fired Gentry as superintendent, but he refused to accept the verdict because he had not been given a hearing. He appealed to the State Board of Education for a hearing, and last week the Baytown board moved to avoid this. By the same 4-3 margin it had issued his ouster as superintendent, the board re-instated him and then suspended him with pay pending a hearing set for Jan. 6 in Baytown.

The new effect of this was to get the hearing out of Austin and into Baytown. The new order, however, suspended him as president of Lee College, whereas the October ouster had not mentioned this post which he held jointly with the superintendent.

Charges read by Boyd N. Hill, one of the four trustees voting for the suspension, repeated those made nearly three months ago, among them that Gentry allegedly had not carried out board policies, committed the high school band to perform at a Houston Oilers football game without permission, let a school bus be used by a P.T.A. and failed to collect certain funds; the board claimed was due from the Texas Education Agency. Gentry came here in 1927 and served for approximately 10 years before going to Temple.

Will March In Inaugural Parade

SAN MARCOS, Tex. (AP) — The band of Southwest Texas State College, President Johnson's alma mater, has been selected to march in the inaugural parade in Washington Jan. 20.

A news release Saturday quoted Texas Democratic Chairman Marvin Watson as saying in a letter that a formal invitation to the 239-member band would be issued later by the chairman of the parade committee. The band also marched in the 1961 inaugural parade.

The school said citizens in this town of 15,000 are raising $20,000 to $25,000 to finance the trip.

Jury Clears Denton Student

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — A special grand jury declined Friday to indict Andrew L. Polini of St. Petersburg, Fla. and ordered charges against him dropped.

Polini, 29, was arrested Tuesday and charged with assault to murder in the shooting and wounding of two Denton policemen after a disturbance at a men's rooming house.

Police reduced charges of attempted burglary against five North Texas State University students accused of causing the disturbance.

The wounded officers, Jim Tom Bush and Edward Reynolds, were reported improving at a Denton hospital.

Polini, a graduate student at North Texas State, and fellow occupants of the rooming house told police there was a name calling and a scuffle with another group of students last week. They said these individuals stormed into the rooming house early Tuesday, with one carrying a gun, and were driven out. Police were summoned and the shooting followed. Polini said he thought the two policemen were some of the raiders returning to the scene.

Moon Clues In Eclipse?

NEW YORK (AP) — Crisp, clear weather across much of the country provided a perfect setting Friday night for one of nature's celestial spectacles — a total eclipse of the moon. Astronomers in all parts of North and South America, West Africa and Europe had bulky equipment in position for scientific observations as the moon slid into the darkest part of the earth's shadow at 8:08 p.m., Big Spring time.

Harvard College astronomers had near-perfect conditions and took temperature readings they hope will provide clues to the depth of dust on the moon's surface.

Efforts Reviewed On Expanding Industrial Efforts

"We must know our capabilities and realize our limitations as we seek to bring new industries or businesses to Big Spring, or to expand what we have," George McAlister reminded members of the chamber of commerce industrial committee at a called meeting Thursday afternoon.

McAlister reviewed efforts during the past several months and said the experience gained should be a big help in future activities. He said efforts of various organizations should be consolidated and streamlined to get the most efficient results.

A discussion of future possibilities drew ideas on plans in which all climates favorable to expanded industry, or new industry, would be made available to those being contacted. These would include taxes, labor, weather, transportation, availability of raw materials, and other items.

Plans were made to attend the Inventor's Congress to be held next October in Odessa, and possibly the April Congress in Galveston. Many patent attorneys hold the keys to production of new inventions and these will be contacted.

Members of the committee commented on the expansion of present small areas of production or distribution. The consensus of the group was that smaller industries would probably be the best approach to future industry, but that no prospect should be overlooked.

Crop Production Down Slightly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Crop production this year was nearly 3 per cent less than last year, but the over-all value was nearly as large.

The Agriculture Department's final production report of the year placed the total harvest volume at 109 per cent of the 1957-59 average compared with 112 per cent for last year's record high. This made the 1964 volume the second largest ever produced.

Future Fusion Fuel From Sea?

By BOB WHIPKEY

A unique team-up of private capital with scientific know-how is resulting in one of the nation's most significant research operations looking toward energy fuel of the future.

This is the controlled nuclear fusion program at the John Jay Hopkins Laboratory near San Diego, Calif., a multi-million dollar plant operated by the General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation.

General Atomic has for its working partner the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation, which was created and is being financed by the ten investor-owned power companies which operate in Texas.

The background, in essence, is this: The utilities leaders of Texas had examined the nuclear fission reaction — splitting of the atomic nucleus as was done with the atomic bomb. Several fission plants are in operation in the nation, but they are proving to be extremely expensive. Generating electricity by the fission process was not deemed to be economic in Texas because of the abundance of conventional fuels such as natural gas.

However—and this is looking far down the road—the day may come, due to the continuing population growth and even a greater increasing demand for power—even when the conventional fuels will be scarce.

So the power people decided that the long-range experimentation, particularly as far as this part of the world is concerned, should center on the fusion reaction, which is the energy source of the H-bomb.

The result is the world's first and largest program in controlled nuclear fusion research. The Texas power companies originated their agreement with General Atomic in 1957, have contracts running until 1967, and will have poured more than $10 million into the program.

This has been matched—with perhaps more—by General Atomic for the experimental work at San Diego.

The program, after these years, has reached such a promising stage that the TAERF this past week gave a guided lecture tour to the press of this state. Some 30 news writers were guests of the Foundation for a trip to San Diego, where GA hosted them in an intensive day's orientation in a highly sophisticated program.

Practical control of the fusion reaction has not yet been achieved, even in the laboratory, but the scientists are encouraged over progress to date. A reward in sight is that nuclear fusion power plants would use as the fuel the deuterium (heavy hydrogen) that is abundant in the world's oceans; in fact is in all water.

PLENTY OF IT
An example is cited that the deuterium contained in a swimming pool full of water from the Gulf of Mexico would supply the power requirements of a city of a million people for a year.

Further, the physicists foresee that such source of power will have to be developed to make long space travels possible; a small amount of high energy that could carry tremendous loads for billions of miles.

But this is scientific vision. For the time being, arduous work is being done in the GA laboratories to solve basic problems.

HIGH TEMPERATURES
Sufficiently high temperature to burn the fusion fuel is one. These temperatures — running into hundreds of millions of degrees — are far beyond man's normal environment.

In this new environment of burning fusion fuel there is created a fourth state of matter, called plasmas. These are extremely hot gases, heated to the point where most of the particles are ionized, electrically active charged particles which respond to an electric field and magnetic fields.

FROM THE H-BOMB

The hydrogen bomb proved that the required environment is possible to reach on the earth, but this device was triggered by a smaller atomic fission bomb, and a new spark plug must be found to control the energy in a peaceful way, and the fuel must burn in a stable manner and in a reasonably small volume. The plasma, of course, must be contained and the "walls" of such a container must be able to withstand the heat of at least 100 million degrees.

The scientists at GA have devised magnetic "walls" and with such have created what they call the "magnetic bottle," which they hope can be made to contain the hot fuel for long periods of time and in a stable manner.

SHOTGUN TECHNIQUE

The TAERF-GA program, in its search for a heater to raise the fuel to its ignition temperature has also perfected its "shotgun" technique. This means plasma accelerators that propel blobs of the heated gas to velocities as much as a million miles an hour. When these plasmas hit a magnetic field they are thermalized, stopped, separated, and heated to temperatures of over 100 degrees.

The research in San Diego is centered on five major projects. They are so highly technical that they are virtually beyond layman's terms. There is the "mirror" experiment, which is directed at making better containment bottles. The anomalous diffusion experiment is aimed toward an understanding of the motion of plasma across the magnetic field. The PIPE experiment is directed toward guiding the plasma and purifying it. The "gun" experiment attempts to develop pure plasma fuel with certain desired characteristics. The "multipole" experiment in a "leaky" plasma bottle.

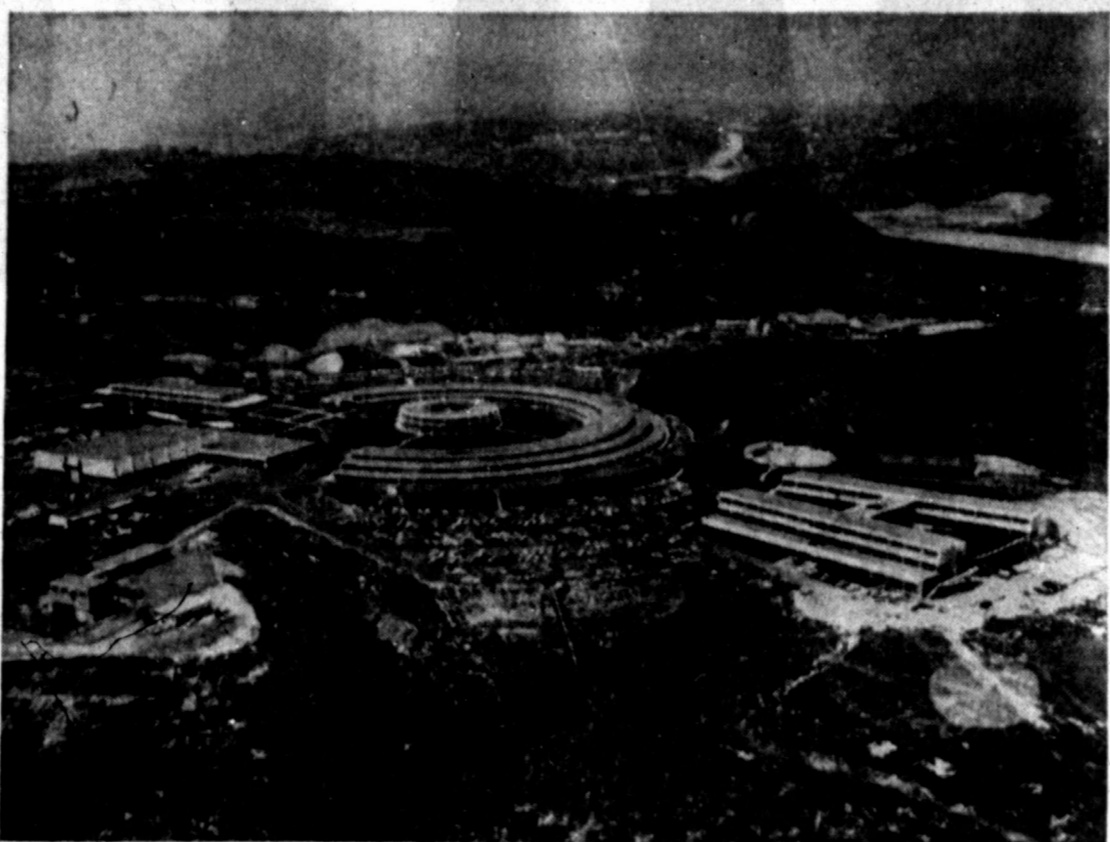

SCIENTISTS
An accumulation of top brainpower is evident at the GA laboratories. Dr. Frederic de Hoffmann, who was a pioneer at Los Alamos, is president of the General Atomic Division; Dr. Edward C. Creutz, a noted teacher and experimental physicist, is vice president for research and development; Dr. Park H. Miller is assistant director of the John Jay Hopkins Laboratory; Dr. F. R. Scott is an experimental physicist heading up some of the experiments; Dr. William E. Drummond is an internationally known theoretical physicist; and Dr. Tihoro Ohkawa is head of the experimental physics group on the TAERF-GA project.

While this program is a pioneer and a large one, the U.S. is not alone in such research. RUSSIANS AHEAD

Dr. Drummond, who has attended three international conferences on nuclear science, told the news group that the Russians have a tremendously strong program in fusion research, and in the past three years "have more than doubled" the scope of their work. They are probably ahead of the United States.

But the scientists at San Diego are moving at their own pace, and to a layman, demonstrate that they know what they are about. They insist that perfecting of controlled fusion for peaceful power purposes may be decades away, but that ev-

Big Nuclear Laboratory

With a corporate investment of over $20 million and total facilities in excess of 500,000 square feet, General Atomic's John Jay Hopkins Laboratory near San Diego is the largest and most diversified nuclear laboratory in the world. There are about 1,800 people on the staff, 1,000 of them technical people. This is the site of GA's joint effort with the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation in experiments to develop future energy through nuclear fusion.

Members of the Texas Foundation are Central Power & Light Company, Community Public Service Company, Dallas Power & Light Company, El Paso Electric Company, Gulf States Utilities Company, Houston Lighting & Power Company, Southwestern Public Service Company, Texas Electric Service Company, Texas Power & Light Company, West Texas Utilities Company.

TESCO MEN
One of those who envisioned this joint research was J. B. Thomas, formerly president of Texas Electric Service, and Howard R. Drew, with TESCO is the Foundation's executive vice president. C. A. Tatum of Dallas is president, and an executive representative of each of the participating companies serves on the board.

In addition to the San Diego research, TAERF is into other fields of scientific development. It is sponsoring major research programs in atomic energy at the University of Texas and at Texas A&M University; it is sponsoring summer fellowships for graduate students at Texas colleges and universities (many of these work at the San Diego center); and is sponsoring a visiting professor program at Texas colleges and universities. Some $350,000 has been spent on the university-connected programs.

NEWSPAPER FUND
The Newspaper Fund announced today that $500 summer intern scholarships are available for the sixth year to young men who want to test their interest in journalism. The program, designed for juniors in liberal arts colleges where no formal education in journalism is available, offers talented students practical newspaper experience. It combines a 10-week summer job as a beginning reporter at regular summer salary with the opportunity to be awarded a scholarship grant at the successful completion of the internship.

TECH RECEPTION
Texas Tech Ex-Students and friends will get in the spirit for the Sun Bowl at a reception preceding the game Dec. 26 in the Del Norte Hotel in El Paso. Sponsored by the Texas Tech Ex-Students Association, the reception will be given from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Water Loan For Dawson
WASHINGTON (AP) — Nine water systems in Texas will get $912,000 in improvement loans from the Federal Housing Administration.
One for $49,300 was to the Cass County Community of Douglasville. The other eight loans, all to water supply corporations, included:
Flight Rock, Limestone County, $28,500; Jacobs, Rusk County, $136,100; Dailville Oakland, Cherokee County, $67,300; Page-Bastrop County, $44,000; Welch, Dawson County, $95,000; Angelina, Angelina County, $220,000.

Gas That Needs Controlling
This stereophograph, taken in one ten-millionth of a second, shows instabilities of writhing, ultra-hot deuterium gas (or plasma) during an experiment in the TAERF-GA controlled fusion program. Deuterium, which is abundant in the world's waters, is a likely fuel for harnessing of the fusion process to the commercial generation of electric power.

Bible Classes, Choir To Give Special Play

"Whose Birthday Is This?"

Such is the title of a program and the question to be answered in two special assemblies at Big Spring High School Tuesday morning. The first presentation will be at 9:30 a.m. in the school auditorium, followed immediately (possibly around 10:15 to 1:30 a.m.) by a repeat performance in order that all students may see it. Parents are invited to attend, also.

The Bible department, headed by Mrs. Elizabeth Johansen, and the choir, directed by Mel Ivey, will combine to stage the Christmas program.

Following a period of carol singing, the choir will sing a special number, then will furnish background music during the Christmas drama staged by the Bible class members.

Members of the modern family, seated at the front of the stage and debating how to swap gifts and apply Christmas money are:

Gary Anderson (father), Pax Bunch (mother), Beverley Green (grandmother), Sherry Gambill (daughter), Bryan Fitzgugh (son), Nancy Lynch and Gene Rogers (neighbors).

Those who will act out the Christmas story in a setting toward the rear of the stage are: Mel Daves (Joseph), Vicki Barerra (Mary), Ollie Alexander, Wayne Kennedy and William Statham (shepherds), Earl Williams, Garland Rudd and David Fortson (wise men), Gwen Hughes, Gloria Raynor, Lanell Meredith and Claudia Jolley (angels).

In addition to putting on the assembly program, the Bible department also provided the manger scene at the school entrance.

Legion, Auxiliary Plan On Program

Arrangements for a reception for Santa Claus and a Christmas party for children of members of the American Legion and Auxiliary are complete, according to Mrs. Dave Cothran, auxiliary president. Santa will appear at the Legion Home at 7 p.m. Monday to distribute gifts and candy bags and to supervise the gift exchange of the adults.

Sgt. V. M. and Mary Vetter are co-chairmen for the traditional Christmas party, and Mrs. Vetter has announced that Christmas melodies will be played on the organ by Sgt. Vetter. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Cothran and Legion commander Tim Jones, have predicted an outstanding program and urged all legionnaires to bring their families. The Vettters have been active in legion work and he is considered one of the top organizers in the area. He accompanies the Legion Scramblers in their musical entertainments at the VA Hospital and other appearances.

Three Die In Stabbings

HOUSTON (AP) — Two men and early today.

The dead include Francis David Sparks, 16, of Galena Park, and George Christian, 32, and Weldon D. Sims, 33, both of Houston.

Monroe R. Kirkpatrick, 23, was charged with murder in Sims' death.

Police arrested a 28-year-old man in Christian's death and officers sought another youth for questioning in the stabbing of young Sparks which occurred in front of Sam Houston College.

Advertising Cited By Zale's In Gain In Season Sales

A stepped-up program of local newspaper advertising is credited with contributing to a decided improvement in Christmas season sales by Zale's Jewelers.

Company president Ben A. Lipshy reports sales from the company's nearly 400 stores are running "better than 10 per cent ahead" of the comparable period a year ago, and he said much of this increase can be attributed to a concentrated local newspaper advertising campaign on top of a year-long national advertising program in major consumer publications.

Both programs are designed to further the company's image as the nation's largest retail jeweler, a fact recently noted by Fortune magazine in a detailed study of the Dallas-based Zale firm.

The dead include Francis David Sparks, 16, of Galena Park, and George Christian, 32, and Weldon D. Sims, 33, both of Houston.

PROJECT TO COST APPROXIMATELY THREE-QUARTERS OF A MILLION DOLLARS
Rear Section, not in present plans, will add 64 units to major facility

Work On 72-Unit Ramada Inn Begins Northwest Of City

Rose Construction Co., Midland, is moving dirt at the site of Big Spring's newest tourist accommodation — Marshall Fields' Ramada Inn.

This 72-unit facility, featuring a large dining room, swimming pool and other special attractions, will occupy a 3.7 acre tract north and west of Big Spring. It will be located on a small hill, which overlooks IS 20 and SH 176 and will be visible from US 87.

Fields said that the general design of the three quarter million dollar project is in the traditional Williamsburg Colonial motif characteristic of the famous Ramada Inns all over the country.

However, the Big Spring Ramada Inn will include a number of features not found in the other Ramada installations. Fields and Mrs. Fields, for example, designed the front of their new establishment, and the two-story high office-lobby area with its spectacular chandelier, is part of their plan. Attached to the office-lobby will be the club rooms and the dining area for the inn.

The front area will feature towering 20-foot columns and, in addition to the lobby, club and restaurant, will have 32 guest units. Wings extending from either side of the frontal structure will provide an additional 20 guest units to the side. The total capacity of the inn will be 72 units.

The rear of the area will be left open for the present, but ultimately, Fields plans to add more guest units and almost double the capacity of the motel.

The patio area will be kept free of cars. It will be extensively landscaped and will feature a big swimming pool with colored fountain heads. The garden area will include a miniature golf course and a recreation area. Balconies inside the patio area afford guests easy access to all parts of the inn.

Rose Construction Company plans to finish the job sometime in late April or early May. Marshall Fields is the sole owner of the facility and will operate it under a Ramada Inn, Inc. franchise.

"We plan to offer a really fine service at the Ramada Inn," said Fields. "We will cater to salesmen and endeavor to provide them with a real home away from home. We believe that we will have one of the finest tourist facilities anywhere in this area and the location is one that will afford ready access from IS 20 bypass and SH 176, and yet one convenient to US 87."

He said that even now, he and Mrs. Fields have added two units at that time. A Conoco service station will be adjacent to the inn.

Later, when the ground work has been cleared away, Fields said a formal ceremony to initiate the project will be conducted.

Snow, Freezing Rains Hit Sections Of Nation

By The Associated Press

Sighs of relief at the passing of the extreme cold spell were changing to moans Saturday as wind-whipped snow, sleet and freezing rain invaded many sections of the nation.

Snow falling in Iowa and southern Minnesota was expected to spread rapidly over adjoining Midwestern states, making driving hazardous.

The latest front, which began blasting the Pacific Northwest Friday night, brought many areas of the West Coast several inches of snow and a glaze of ice.

In eastern Oregon the snow was piled into drifts by 25 m.p.h. winds and some sections of U.S. 30 were being closed to traffic. Police in the area were pleading with residents to stay home if possible.

In Portland, Ore., snow was also drifting. Freezing rain struck Salem, further south.

SLEET EXPECTED

Rain, freezing rain and sleet were expected from southwestern Texas through eastern Oklahoma and western Arkansas to southern Minnesota.

Snow was forecast for sections from Nebraska and South Dakota through all but the extreme southern Rockies.

A mixture of rain and snow was hitting the mountains in California.

On the East Coast, the tail end of the week's polar air was keeping temperatures near zero in some sections.

In Garrett County, Maryland's traditional icebox, a low of -6 was recorded early Saturday. Roads in the area were slippery from three inches of snow that fell Thursday.

TWO ABOVE

Glens Falls, N.Y., reported a low of 2 above zero with snow accumulated from Friday's storm from Lake Ontario.

Possible damage to the citrus crops near Brownsville, Tex. was still feared as the area experienced its second night in a row of near freezing temperatures.

The central Gulf Coast area also reported temperatures in the 30s.

The southern tip of Florida was hit by almost two inches of rain Saturday, but overnight temperatures were in the upper 60s.

Docker Union To Explain Contract

NEW YORK (AP)—Officials of the International Longshoremen's Association has announced a drive to explain to membership the four-year contract agreed upon last Wednesday with the New York Shipping Association.

Officials of the AFL-CIO union ordered port locals to meet Tuesday night to explain the proposed contract to membership. The union represents 60,000 dock workers from Maine to Texas.

Horsemeat Discovered In Sausage

NEW YORK (AP)—A Manhattan grand jury has begun checking into how 20 tons of sausage makings laced with horsemeat wound up in one of the city's largest wholesale packing plants.

City inspectors said Friday they still can't identify some of the meat in the $15,000 shipment, although laboratory tests have ruled out kangaroo meat.

Authorities said the adulterated meat, passed off on a reputable packer by a broker under investigation as a loan shark, probably came from a big mob-operated plant which could be shipping it all over the country.

BEEN DUPED

Norman Lokietz, one of the owners of the packing house, Merkel Inc., said his firm had been duped by phony federal agriculture inspection stamps on the shipment.

The company, he said, "had absolutely no way of telling that anything could be wrong with it."

Police refused to disclose the name of the broker who sold the meat to Merkel, saying he is still under investigation.

City Markets Commissioner Albert Pacetta, who first suggested the possibility of a nationwide operation, said he has received requests for details from Kansas, Ohio, Pittsburgh and Boston.

NONE RETAIL

To housewives worried about getting non-beef sausage, bologna or frankfurters, authorities said none of this particular shipment reached retail outlets, and no more adulterated shipments have been found in warehouses of 21 other New York packers.

Lokietz waived immunity from prosecution and testified for two hours before the jury Friday.

U.S., Scranton In Claim Tiff

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania is battling a government claim of more than $600,000 against his mother's estate.

Scranton contends the government owes the estate more than a quarter of a million dollars instead.

The dispute over the multimillion-dollar estate of Marion Margery Scranton — long a leader in Pennsylvania political and social affairs — came to light today in records of the U.S. Tax Court.

The 47-year-old Republican governor petitioned that court earlier last week for a reversal of the Internal Revenue Service claim.

Scranton, along with the Northeastern Pennsylvania National Bank & Trust of Scranton, is a co-executor of his mother's estate. She died June 23, 1960, at the age of 76.

The IRS informed Scranton in September that the $3,331,770 he paid in federal estate taxes in September 1961 wasn't enough and that he still owed $663,151.

Egg-Type Chick Increase Noted

AUSTIN (AP)—The November hatch of egg-type chicks in Texas totaled 1,404,000, an 11 per cent increase from last November, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service said Saturday. The figure was down 31 per cent from October.

Egg production in the state last month was 205 million, 6 per cent below October but 3 per cent above November 1963, the service said.

SLIGHT GAIN Stock Mart Drop Nipped

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market last week halted a three-week decline and produced a slight gain. Trading was not particularly active, reflecting no great enthusiasm.

The retreat from the record highs set in the trading week ended Nov. 20 continued during the first two days this week, bottoming out at noon on Tuesday. Thenceforth, the market's direction was consistently higher.

The decline on Monday had taken the Dow Jones industrial average decisively past the theoretical "support level" reached Dec. 1.

REINVESTMENT

Analysts said much of the tax-loss selling and profit taking had apparently been taken care of in the previous three weeks of lower prices and that selective reinvestment demand seemed to be in progress. Expectations in some quarters were that this might continue into the traditional year-end rally and early in 1965, but the general atmosphere remained fairly cautious.

The Dow Jones industrial average last week, after sinking to an intra-day low of 853.77 at noon on Tuesday, closed the week at 868.73, making a net gain of 4.39. The rise of nearly 15 points since the week's low on Tuesday was a closer measure of the degree of recovery.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks last week gained 1.3 at 323.6. Volume for the week was 23,824,050 shares compared with 24,201,925 the previous week. Of 1,535 issues traded this week, 781 advanced and 576 declined.

Gamblers Not Coming In, Oklahoma Says

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—State and federal law enforcement officials scotched rumors Saturday that a recent gambling crackdown in neighboring Arkansas is forcing gamblers to seek possible greener pastures in eastern Oklahoma.

The rumors began last spring shortly after the gaming tables at Hot Springs, Ark., were ordered closed by Gov. Orval Faubus.

At the time, Oklahoma Gov. Henry Bellmon warned that this state should be on guard against unemployed gamblers who might move into Oklahoma.

Bellmon coupled his warning with a declaration that he is opposed to gambling and vice in any form.

Earl Goerke, chief of the Oklahoma Bureau of Investigation, told The Associated Press that he has had agents checking on possible gambling activity in the eastern part of the state.

"But at this point," he said, "we don't get any picture of any gambling build up in eastern Oklahoma."

Studio Loses Court Round On 'Goldfarb'

NEW YORK (AP) — Twentieth Century-Fox has failed in its court struggle to bring its $4 million comedy, "John Goldfarb, Please Come Home," to movie screens by Christmas Day.

Appellate Judge Bernard Botin of the New York Supreme Court refused Friday to stay a temporary injunction obtained by Notre Dame University forbidding distribution and showing of the film.

The university obtained the injunction two days ago. It objected to scenes showing Notre Dame football players drinking, feasting and watching belly dancers in an Arabian harem.

Justice Botin has scheduled a hearing by the five-man appellate bench for Jan. 5.

SKIDS

tions on US 87 and IS 20 kept motorists on their toes early Saturday.

Two or three accidents occurred, two of which White investigated.

No one was injured in either, he said, but extensive damage was caused to the cars involved. At 7:35 a.m. Father Francis Beazley, 52, Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church, was entering US 87 south of town. His car and that of Bernard Arthur Vering, 22, Amarillo, collided. White estimated the damage at $500 to each vehicle.

At 10 a.m. on IS 20 bypass about two miles west of US 87 intersection, the light car driven by Maxwell Lewis, 21, an airman en route to Luke AFB, Ariz., crashed into the bridge. The car was damaged $1,000. Lewis was not hurt.

White said a number of other cases were reported but he did not have an opportunity to check them. One, he said, was near Ackerly, but by the time he reached the scene the principals were gone.

U.S. Farmers Not Rushing To Buy Up Grocery Chains

WASHINGTON (AP) — The idea of farmers entering the retail food business by purchasing control of one or more big food chains is attracting wide attention among farmers and nonfarmers.

But despite the interest — including a formal move by a big farm organization to study the proposal — no one should hold his breath until farmers enter retailing in a major way.

At its recent annual convention at Philadelphia, the board of directors of the American Farm Bureau Federation was instructed by delegates to "make a comprehensive study of the feasibility of purchasing control in one or more food chains."

Farm Imported Labor Wages Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Labor set wage levels and working conditions Saturday that U. S. farmers must meet if they want to import foreign workers for temporary crop-picking jobs.

The wages to be paid would vary from state to state between $1.15 per hour and $1.40 per hour.

The department's action is designed to help growers fill the gap left by the closing out this month of the program under which about 200,000 Mexican nationals have been brought in each year to work on U. S. farms.

LABOR SHORTAGE

It would apply to another program, which permits the importation of workers from any country when there is a labor shortage and the department of labor specifies their importation would not have an adverse effect on U. S. wages.

The law provides that before a grower will be permitted to bring in foreign labor he must offer the new specified rates to domestic workers. In most cases these rates are higher than those now being paid to foreign workers.

Secretary W. Willard Wirtz, in announcing the new wage rates and working conditions, said he does not anticipate any large-scale use of foreign workers as a result.

"To the contrary," he said, "it is expected that such use will be very greatly reduced, and hopefully eliminated."

Wirtz's order contains a special provision that lower wage levels, from 90 cents an hour to $1.25 per hour will apply for the first three months of 1965 in the seven states where imported workers are most widely used.

PAY SCALE

Those states and the temporary hourly wage rates are: Arizona, $1.05; California, $1.25; Connecticut, $1.25; Florida, $1.25; Massachusetts, $1.25; New Mexico, $1.00; and Texas, $1.00.

Wirtz said the wage rates are designed to comply with the prevailing wage levels in the various states.

The higher rates which start in all states on April 1 are: Arkansas, $1.15; California, $1.40; Colorado, $1.30; Kansas, $1.40; New Mexico, $1.15; and Texas, $1.15.

GROVETON (AP) — Lynn Evans, sheriff of Trinity County for 14 years, has resigned for what he called "personal reasons."

The commissioners court Saturday named Ernest Ellis, former Groveton police chief, as Evans' successor in the sheriff position.

Evans, 42, resigned Friday. He did not reveal any immediate plans. Ellis had been chief of police for two years.

Groveton is about 30 miles northeast of Huntsville in East Texas.

Bank Gives Bonus, Ups Dividend

Santa Claus visited employees and stockholders of the State National Bank, at the institution's annual holiday party Friday afternoon.

A Yuletide gathering of the bank family was held around a Christmas tree after closing hours, and gifts were exchanged.

State National presented all employees with a Christmas bonus amounting to one month's pay.

It was also announced that the bank had declared an extra dividend for 1964, $5 per share, in addition to the customary $10 per share.

Halleck's House Rule Teetering?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The drive to unseat Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana as House Republican leader is gaining momentum, say two members trying to bring it about.

After weeks of backstage maneuvering, Reps. Charles E. Goodell of New York and Robert P. Griffin of Michigan are cautiously, and openly, predicting Halleck's downfall after six years as the GOP floor leader.

"I think there is going to be a change," Goodell told newsmen Thursday night during a break in one of the meetings he and Griffin have been holding with some other Republicans several times daily for the past two weeks.

Goodell added the most likely change would see Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan taking over Halleck's job when the Republicans elect their leaders for the 89th Congress Jan. 4.

"I hope Ford announces right away," said Goodell. "There is considerable sentiment that he should run."

Ford has resisted all efforts to get him to declare his candidacy. But he also has declined to say he would not run.

With time growing short if a successful coup is to be staged, Goodell and Griffin indicated they will do their best to get an early commitment from Ford.

Ray Bliss Not Talking, But Could Be Next GOP Chief

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ray Bliss, who prefers backstage shadows to the spotlight, seemed today to have some strong backing as a compromise choice for Republican national chairman.

Bliss, typically, wasn't talking. But other reports indicated that if Dean Burch resigns or is ousted when the 132 GOP national committeemen meet in Chicago Jan. 22-23, Bliss would be an acceptable replacement.

MUM POLICY

"It is his definite policy not to talk about it," Jack Flanagan, Bliss' press aide, said when asked about speculation mentioning Bliss.

But Flanagan said all top national Republican leaders except Barry Goldwater, the GOP presidential nominee who picked Burch as chairman, have indicated Bliss would be acceptable. That list included former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Govs. William W.

Blind Child Who Tugged Heartstrings Gaining

BOWLING GREEN, S.C. (AP) — Vicki Wray, the tot whose battle with an eye ailment tugged at the nation's heartstrings last Christmas, has grown two inches and is 12 pounds heavier.

Vicki seems just like any other 3½-year-old although she is totally blind. She lost her second eye to a rare disease, retina glaucoma, last March. The operation apparently saved her life.

"A MIRACLE"

"It's a miracle," said Vicki's mother, Foris Wray, 33. "I thought for a while I was going to lose my little girl."

If no trace of the disease appears by the time Vicki is 6, doctors say she will be pronounced cured. Both of Vicki's eyes were removed to keep the malignancy from spreading.

A year ago — just a week before Christmas — Vicki's story was told to the nation. She was scheduled to lose her second eye and her father, Robert Wray, wanted to give her an early Christmas.

With heavy hospital and medical bills, Wray, a $50-a-week textile worker, was prepared for a bleak Christmas for Vicki and her eight brothers and sisters.

RESPONSE
When the nation read stories of Vicki's plight, it responded with hundreds of gifts and thousands of dollars. Letters, cards and money poured into the tiny post office at Bowling Green.

Bank Gives Bonus, Ups Dividend

Santa Claus visited employees and stockholders of the State National Bank, at the institution's annual holiday party Friday afternoon.

A Yuletide gathering of the bank family was held around a Christmas tree after closing hours, and gifts were exchanged.

State National presented all employees with a Christmas bonus amounting to one month's pay.

It was also announced that the bank had declared an extra dividend for 1964, $5 per share, in addition to the customary $10 per share.

Halleck's House Rule Teetering?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The drive to unseat Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana as House Republican leader is gaining momentum, say two members trying to bring it about.

After weeks of backstage maneuvering, Reps. Charles E. Goodell of New York and Robert P. Griffin of Michigan are cautiously, and openly, predicting Halleck's downfall after six years as the GOP floor leader.

"I think there is going to be a change," Goodell told newsmen Thursday night during a break in one of the meetings he and Griffin have been holding with some other Republicans several times daily for the past two weeks.

Goodell added the most likely change would see Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan taking over Halleck's job when the Republicans elect their leaders for the 89th Congress Jan. 4.

"I hope Ford announces right away," said Goodell. "There is considerable sentiment that he should run."

Ford has resisted all efforts to get him to declare his candidacy. But he also has declined to say he would not run.

With time growing short if a successful coup is to be staged, Goodell and Griffin indicated they will do their best to get an early commitment from Ford.

Church Decorations Depict Nativity

Several Big Spring churches have sought to keep the Christmas season in focus with their outdoor decorations. Here are samples of the lighted manger scenes at three churches. The St. Paul Lutheran display (top) shows the Wise Men of the East approaching the

Duke Gains, Moves About At Hospital

HOUSTON (AP)—The Duke of Windsor stepped across a hospital corridor Saturday to talk with his duchess.

The 70-year-old duke was assisted by nurses as he left his Methodist Hospital room for the first time since his Wednesday operation.

Until Saturday the duchess, a former Baltimore divorcee the duke married 28 years ago after abdicating his British throne, had remained almost constantly at her husband's bedside.

The royal couple took over a six-room area in the hospital last Monday when the duke came here to prepare for surgery for removal of an abdominal arterial blister.

A stomach tube, normal for such surgery, was removed Saturday.

Nurses Hear Of Changing Role

Nurses from local hospitals, Webb AFB hospital, the Big Spring State Hospital and the Veterans' Administration Hospital attended a conference on the changing role of the professional nurse, conducted Thursday at the VA hospital by Mrs. Kathryn Crossland, associate dean of the Texas Woman's University College of Nursing at Houston.

About 30 persons attended the two sessions Thursday in the conference room of the VA hospital.

Mrs. Crossland, who is first vice president of the Texas Nurses Association, emphasized the need for flexibility and a willingness among nurses to accept changes in the field resulting from increasing need for nurses. Mrs. Crossland also discussed current trends in the field.

At the close of the afternoon session, an informal coffee and reception was held at the hospital, with a question and answer period.

Coahoma Water Line Collapses

Three 10-foot joints of the 12-inch water line, serving Coahoma, collapsed about 3:30 p.m. Friday when sandy soil near the city's sewage plant sloughed off and left the line without support. The Sand Springs area, served by the line, was without water for about five hours while the line was being repaired.

Director of Public Works Ernest Lillard said excavations, near the west line of the sewage plant property, for the new Beals Branch sewer line, between 30 and 50 feet away from the water line, caused the sand to begin slipping away from the line. It is located in the shallow water level area. Contractor for the sewer line is Great Plains Construction Co., Lubbock.

Workmen started repairing the water line immediately and service was restored at 8:30 p.m. Lillard said some sort of secure bracing or supports would be installed in the area to prevent further breakage.

Coahoma residents were not without water since they have a city elevated tank which was full. Sand Springs residents, served by pressure on the line, were without water.

Car-Truck Debris Yields 6 Bodies

COUSHATTA, La. (AP)—Six bodies were found Saturday when wreckers separated the interlocked, fire-blackened hulks of a car and a big butane tanker truck.

The two vehicles collided on La. 1 about 14 miles north of here Friday night. The wreckage erupted in a fierce fire that roared until dawn.

The truck, owned by Wanda O. J. Deaville, 41, his son Gene, 11, Richard Blanchard, 42, and his son Terry, 12, all of Baton Rouge, and Frank Ruzo, 47, of Port Allen, La.

The crash happened on a straight stretch of highway about 10:30 p.m. The highway was closed five hours. Fire fighters were held back in fear of an explosion.

McLeroy told officers the car pulled out to pass another auto, saw the oncoming truck, swerved back into its own lane, ran off the shoulder of the highway and went into a wild skid.

The butane truck plowed into the car broadside, McLeroy said. The truck was en route from Waskom, Tex., to Jonesboro, La. Those in the car were en route to a weekend of hunting.

GOP Solon Wants Reins

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan plunged into a contest with Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana for the House minority leadership today with the prediction he will have "a good majority" of the 140 GOP members on his side.

Ford, now chairman of the House Republican Conference, sent a telegram to all other GOP members announcing his candidacy and promising to use all "House Republican talent, energy and dedication" if elected at a Jan. 4 caucus.

Ford, 51, and a congressman for 16 years, subsequently told a news conference that canvasses of the membership indicate "a good majority will be on our side." He said he has had "an excellent response" to his announcement.

Ford and Halleck, 64, are regarded as equally conservative. But Ford had been pushed forward by a group of House members pressing for a more vigorous image in the House leadership.

In announcing his candidacy, Ford said the issue was not one of party philosophy or policy. "It is a question of having new, dynamic, bold, innovative leadership," he said. "It is a question of using all of the talent that we have available among Republicans in the House." Ford said that, if elected, he intends to make each of the 140 Republicans "a first-team player" in the party strategy and policy. He said he would want each member to be a "60-minute man" in playing the game of opposition to the Democrats.

Soldier Vote Hearing Set

Austin (AP)—Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr's office learned Friday the U. S. Supreme Court will hear arguments Jan. 27 in a soldier voting case involving El Paso Army Sgt. Herbert Carrington.

Almost immediately Carr's staff requested by mail that the high court delay action on a second such suit until the Carrington case is decided.

FOR SERGEANT
Carrington is asking the Supreme Court to declare void a Texas constitutional amendment letting members of the armed forces vote "only in the county in which they resided at the time of entering the service."

In the second case, a three-judge federal court at San Antonio ruled Aug. 26 for Army Sgt. James Mabry and Air Force Lt. David Sneyer that the 1954 amendment violates the equal protection clause of the U. S. Constitution.

The Texas Supreme Court held in Carrington's case that servicemen stationed in Texas do not have a "federally protected right" to vote in the state.

STATE'S BRIEF

The state's brief, mailed last week to the U. S. Supreme Court, contends the specific purpose of the 1954 amendment was "to prevent a concentration of military voting strength in areas where military bases are located."

As an example of how military votes could impose an undesired effect on an area with a heavy military population, the state's brief cited local option elections to legalize the sale of liquor and bond elections for local improvements.

BSHS RINGS CHRISTMAS BELL WITH 2,897 CANS OF FOOD
Nancy Haralson, Don White, Terry Cauble inspect council's total

Hundreds Of Cans Of Food Gathered By HS Students

Big Spring High School students averaged over two cans per capita in their traditional shower of canned goods to the Salvation Army for Christmas. It couldn't have come at a better time, for the Salvation Army's Christmas funds through the kettles are sadly off the pace. Even with the splendid contribution from the students, more cash funds are needed.

Competing among the classes, students turned in 2,897 cans of food, which was an average of 2.12 cans per pupil.

Some of the classes had amazing records.

Based on a can per pupil as 100 per cent, the members of Mrs. Jane Smith's government class had 1,013 per cent. Second place honors went to the band members, who attained 783 per cent. The band's 767 cans was by far the largest of any single group.

Other classes with ratings over 500 included: Sue Gale Mock's room, 760; Perry Matthis 675; Ed Graham 650; Mrs.

Cathy Hedges 631; George Rice 630; and G. T. Guthrie 509.

The project was sponsored by the Student Council of BSHS.

VA Closure Talk Protested

WASHINGTON (AP)—A report that two regional veterans administration offices in Texas might be closed brought a quick protest Friday night from Rep. Joe Pool, D-Tex.

Pool wired VA Administrator

John Gleason Jr. that he had been told by E. J. Kreneh, Texas commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, that two of the four VA regional offices in Texas might be closed.

Currently, the VA has such facilities in Waco, Houston, San Antonio and Lubbock.

One report was that the offices in San Antonio and Lubbock were to be shut down, but a spokesman at VA said he had "no such information" on any prospective closings.

Pool reminded Gleason of the size of Texas and said closing of any of the offices would work a hardship on veterans in the state.

Fire Damage At Monahans

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP)—Fire which apparently started near the heating system caused heavy damage to the Monahans office building of the Perry R. Bass Oil Co. early today.

Several sections of roof collapsed before firemen controlled the blaze. They fought it in 20-degree weather.

More Beef To Market

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service said Saturday 574,000 calves and cattle were received last month at Texas Auction markets inspected by the State Animal Health Commission.

This was 7 per cent above November, 1963, but 20 per cent below this past October.

Sheep and goats received at auction markets numbered 96,000 head, down 55 per cent from October and 21 per cent below the previous November. Hogs totaled 32,000, 9 per cent under October and 18 per cent below November a year ago.

Two From Big Spring Chosen For Experiment

COLLEGE STATION — Two Big Spring students are among 36 selected at Texas A&M University to participate in a preview of the future. They are using "teaching machines" for a portion of their studies in General Psychology 207, an introductory course designed especially for science majors.

Included in the class are John Reed Schwarzenbach, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Schwarzenbach, 810 W. 14th, and Dilworth Perry Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Thompson, 1107 E. 4th, Big Spring.

Teaching the course is Dr. Albert Casey, who has no fears of teaching machines ever replacing a professor.

"The machines free the teacher from repetitious and time-consuming drilling chores, so he can engage in higher level professional tasks," Dr. Casey said. He views the devices simply as an important adjunct to better teaching.

Dr. Casey lectured to the class in the conventional manner for sometime before each student was issued a machine and instructional unit. And he plans to resume lecturing shortly after the holidays.

Each student's machine resembles the devices on which sales clerks write out charge tickets. Knobs allow the student to run the instructional material through the machine at his own speed, one of several advantages of the procedure. Answers must be written to the frequent questions. The program is made possible through a grant by the National Science Foundation.

JERRY RHOME DROPPED FOR LOSS
Ole Miss defense converges on him

(AP WIREPHOTO)

Tulsa's Aerialist Defeats Ole Miss

By MAX B. SKELTON
Associated Press Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — Jerry Rhome, Tulsa's pass wizard, ignored a series of hard knocks administered by a tough Mississippi defense while passing and running his Hurricanes to a 14-7 victory Saturday over the favored Rebels in the sixth Lubbock Bowl football game.

Mississippi was an 11-point favorite, but Tulsa combined Rhome's magic with a rough defense of its own to upset the Southeastern Conference bowl veteran Rebels in 40-degree weather before a crowd of 50,000.

Except for a 57-yard second period drive that gave Mississippi a 7-0 lead, the Hurricane defense permitted the Rebels to move inside the Tulsa 41 only once.

Mississippi enjoyed the lead less than five minutes, however, as Rhome, using only one pass, quickly directed a 72-yard surge to tie the score and then turned to long passes for the 74-yard go-ahead touchdown drive in the third period.

Rhome tied the score at 7-7 by plunging over from the one on fourth down after he had taken advantage of a perfect block by Brent Roberts to break through the middle for a 23-yard run to the Rebel five.

Rhome's go-ahead pass was a 35-yarder to Eddie Fisher four plays after he had hit Bob Daugherty with a 37-yarder at the Rebel 33.

Jim Weatherly scored the Mississippi touchdown from the one to climax a drive featuring Weatherly's 30-yard pass to Frank Kinar to the Tulsa 24.

Rhome's sparkling performance won him a unanimous vote of sports writers as the game's most outstanding back, the first unanimous ballot for the honor in the bowl's history. He completed 22 of 36 tosses for 252 yards and had only one interception.

The 252-yard total was just three yards short of the Bluebonnet record set by Baylor's Don Trull last year.

The outstanding lineman award went to Willie Townes, 263-pound Tulsa tackle.

Rhome was slammed to the ground by Rebel defenders several times. One tackle late in the second period left him stretched out on the turf for several minutes, but he did not leave the game.

The Tulsa quarterback, a top draft choice of both the professional Houston Oilers and the Dallas Cowboys, carried the ball 22 times for a net gain of 29 yards.

Rhome, holder of 17 NCAA records, also claimed two other Bluebonnet records with a total offense of 281 and by handling the ball on 58 pass and run plays.

Ingleside Is Upset, 13-6

AUSTIN (AP)—Archer City scored two touchdowns within about six minutes of the second quarter Saturday night and defeated favored Ingleside, 13-6, for the Class A schoolboy football championship.

It was the first state title in history for the Wildcats, who finished the season with a 13-2 record.

Ingleside, a veteran team with several starters from its 1962 state finalist team, scored its only touchdown in the third quarter, and was pushed back in its own territory most of the game. The Mustangs' vaunted ground game could never gain momentum as Gary and Robert Teper and Barney Oliver made slashing tackles time after time.

Ingleside also had a 13-2 record for the season.

Archer City won its first district title this year, and never stopped, moving through five playoff foes for the state championship.

The Wildcats turned a fumble and a pass interception into first half touchdowns, and then held off Ingleside for the crown.

Archer City's first score came on the first play of the second quarter when quarterback Barry Morrison spotted Oliver in the clear at the Ingleside 10 and hit him with a 43-yard touchdown pass.

Garland Wins Class 4A Football Championship

HOUSTON (AP) — Garland spotted previously undefeated, untied Galena Park a 14-0 first quarter lead and then roared back on the running of Clifton

Turner and Ronnie Scoggins for a 26-21 victory Saturday night to successfully defend its Class AAAA high school football crown.

The Garland Owls battled back for two second quarter scores in less than two minutes to get back into the ball game that had all the early appearances of being a runaway for Galena Park.

Scoggins, a 175-pounder who ripped the Galena Park line like a bulldozer, scored one touchdown to set a new Garland scoring record.

Although Turner did not score, he picked up 178 yards on 29 carries and seemed always to be on hand when the Owls needed crucial yards to keep a drive going. The 165-pounder was voted the most valuable player in the game.

Scoggins picked up 87 yards on 16 carries and his touchdown was his 27th, breaking the old mark of 26 set by Bobby Boyd.

Stuttering Sam Smash Hit Here

The Quarterback Club subbed in a professional comic known as Stuttering Sam for coach J. T. King of Texas Tech as their featured speaker at Saturday night's banquet honoring members of the 1964 Big Spring High School football team and had his audience ready to vote the "Chickasha oath of allegiance" from the start.

Stuttering Sam, whose real name is Cecil Hunter and who was introduced as "Clyde Hart, an assistant football coach at Chickasha, Oklahoma," rarely finished a sentence he started and kept his arms busier than an auctioneer giving away money.

It didn't dawn on his listeners for a long time that Sam, introduced as a stopgap speaker "until King showed" was the program. He made the most of it.

Hunter covered a multitude of subjects but just barely. Before he had finished, he had gone full circle, exploding his wit at his helpless audience like shrapnel. It was a night to remember.

Master of ceremonies Jack Cook deftly handled the program, insisting to his listeners that King was due any minute. He practically had to use a block and tackle to get Hunter to the speaker's rostrum in the first place.

Six awards were passed out to players by coach Don Robbins. Two of the athletes were double winners. Sharing in the trophies were:

• Benny Kirkland, winner of Dibrell's Outstanding Back Cup and a certificate presented by the Daily Herald as Back of the Year.

• Skipper Sabbato, KBST's Outstanding Lineman cup and a certificate presented by the Daily Herald as Lineman of the Year.

• Johnny Hughes, winner of the Coaches' award.

• Dub McMeans, winner of the Dibrell Scholastic award, which goes to the athlete on the team with the highest academic rating on the team.

Coach Don Robbins and members of his staff were each given gift certificates by the Quarterback Club.

Robbins introduced all his players who, in turn, introduced their dates.

Outgoing and incoming officers of the QBC were also introduced. The outgoing co-captains are Frank Sabbato and J. D. Stiehl. The latter could not be on hand due to illness. Incoming co-captains are Stanley Ballou and Jack Griffin. Mrs. Stanley Ballou will continue in office as secretary of the club.

Kirkland, Hughes and McMeans, all permanent co-captains of the Steer club, drew special praise from Robbins for the leadership they showed during the year.

Over 400 tickets were sold for the banquet. The total turnout was estimated at 500.

Special music for the program was provided by Kathy Seddon.

A large cake was baked for the occasion, with the lettering "Big Spring Steers, Second in 1964, First in 1965" inscribed. The cake was cut for the boys by Mrs. Robbins.

Ingleside Is Upset, 13-6

AUSTIN (AP)—Archer City scored two touchdowns within about six minutes of the second quarter Saturday night and defeated favored Ingleside, 13-6, for the Class A schoolboy football championship.

It was the first state title in history for the Wildcats, who finished the season with a 13-2 record.

Ingleside, a veteran team with several starters from its 1962 state finalist team, scored its only touchdown in the third quarter, and was pushed back in its own territory most of the game. The Mustangs' vaunted ground game could never gain momentum as Gary and Robert Teper and Barney Oliver made slashing tackles time after time.

Ingleside also had a 13-2 record for the season.

Archer City won its first district title this year, and never stopped, moving through five playoff foes for the state championship.

The Wildcats turned a fumble and a pass interception into first half touchdowns, and then held off Ingleside for the crown.

Archer City's first score came on the first play of the second quarter when quarterback Barry Morrison spotted Oliver in the clear at the Ingleside 10 and hit him with a 43-yard touchdown pass.

Odessa Permian, the former Stanton mentor, for one of the head football jobs in the Odessa schools ... Bradley Mills, the other Odessa mentor who was fired recently, may remain in the game by coaching on the college level ... Roy Baird, the Big Spring High School baseball mentor, will take his 1965 Steers to a tournament in Eunice, N.M. ... Baird wanted to book six practice games with Snyder but got only two because the Tigers must restrict their play to weekends due to a conference ruling ... The Longhorns will play only two doubleheaders next spring, both of them on the road ... Don Ellis, the Air Force Academy coaching aide, visited here recently seeking talent for the Falcons ... No outside performers were placed on the all-tournament basketball team chosen recently in the Odessa College Tournament, although it would be very hard to play a game without a back court specialist ... One of the best in the meet was HCJC's Keith Bond ... Capt. NEW YORK (AP) — The year-end football bowl season moves completely outdoors this week — the Liberty Bowl game was played indoors at Convention Hall in Atlantic City Saturday — with the next action scheduled for Christmas Day.

That's the North-South Shrine Game in Miami, followed on Saturday, Dec. 26, with the Blue-Gray, another North-South all-star game at Montgomery, Ala., and the Sun Bowl game.

Texas Tech and Georgia match 6-3-1 records in the Sun game at El Paso.

There have been some changes made in bowl game presentation this year. The Orange Bowl goes to a night starting time, as will the Hula Bowl in Honolulu on Jan. 8.

Dobbs' Boys Proved They Could Do It

By B. F. KELLUM

Associated Press Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — "How sweet it is to get to where you can't do it—and then do it."

Tired Tulsa Coach Glenn Dobbs called for quiet in a noisy dressing room and made the statement following the Hurricane's 14-7 upset victory over Mississippi in the sixth Bluebonnet Bowl.

Dobbs then swallowed a pair of aspirin with a sip from a soft drink and explained his opening statement:

"People were saying we could not do it. They said we could not win the big one—but we did."

"It was our ability to get out of the hole after a shaky start that did it for us," he said.

Dobbs heaped praise on all the team but singled out quarterback Jerry Rhyme and tackle Willie Townes in particular.

Sportswriters voted Rhyme and Townes as the game's outstanding back and lineman.

Mississippi coach Johnny Vaught called Rhyme "a great passer...as good as any we've faced."

Vaught also had a few comments about the officiating.

"How can they take the ball away after an interception even if there was a penalty?"

Late in the final period Billy Clay intercepted a Rhyme pass thrown from the Tulsa 38 and returned it 22 yards but the officials nullified the play by ruling there were offsetting penalties.

Earlier, in the same series of downs, Tulsa punted from its 29 but a clipping penalty against Mississippi gave the Hurricane a first down on the 44.

Rhyme, a Dallas, Tex., native, was asked if Ole Miss hit him any harder than other opponents.

"They all hit me hard," he said.

Then he added: "I would say Arkansas, Wichita and Mississippi hit about the same."

Rhyme said the 35-yard touchdown pass to Eddie Fletcher for the winning touchdown was nothing new.

"We had worked on that play all season," he said.

Fletcher said he told Rhyme two plays earlier he could work the play.

"I worked a fake outside and cut back in," Fletcher said.

Rhyme, drafted by the Houston Oilers and the Dallas Cowboys said it would be "a week or a week and a half before I sign."

"I don't know what I'll do," he said.

He admitted he had leaned toward the Oilers.

However, he said now that Oiler coach Sammy Baugh has resigned, he wanted to wait and see who the new coach would be.

"Dallas has made me a good offer too," he added.

Baugh announced his surprise resignation Friday.

Dobbs said Mississippi "tried to do what it could do best."

Miners Will Play Full Throttle Next Season

EL PASO — If the personable Bobby Dobbs has his way, Texas Western football in the future will be as interesting as a juggling act on a high wire.

The 42-year-old Dobbs, who was selected from the Canadian Pro Football League to lead the Miners out of the football wilderness, indicated before departing for his soon-to-be-vacated home in Calgary that the Miners will have a wide-open game next season.

"When you are building you have to give the fans a lot of entertainment," Dobbs said.

"When you are an established winner you can go for that three yards and a cloud of dust business but when you're fighting your way off of the floor you've got to give the fans something to talk about. We'll throw the ball and we'll run from a pro type offense. We'll be interesting."

Dobbs and his yet-to-be-named staff will be busier than an electric toothbrush at a garlic convention within the next few months looking for junior college talent, freshman help and re-organizing the entire football program at the El Paso based school.

The soft spoken Dobbs will retain Bill Michael from Warren Harper's staff. He will add four other assistants and when they swing into recruiting action they'll scatter like a herd of buffalo after an Indian attack.

Born Robert Lee Dobbs in Munday, Texas, the new Miner drill master jumped the Red River to Frederick, Okla., when he was eight but considers both Texas and Oklahoma as his native state.

When World War II clouds began to build, Dobbs had played his sophomore and junior years at University of Tulsa, seeing action in both the Sun Bowl and Sugar Bowl.

After six months in the Air Force, he received an appointment to West Point where he was given two more years of varsity competition. He was a member of the crack 1943 and 1944 Army teams, the latter captured the national championship.

Dobbs took his flight training at Enid (Okla.) Air Force Base before serving four years (1948-51) as head coach of the Carswell Air Force Base teams in Fort Worth.

After the 1951 season, Col. Red Blaik tapped the promising Dobbs for his backfield coach at Army. He served the West Point plant for two years, 1952-53, in his capacity. Other members of Blaik's staff at that time included Paul Dietzel, the current West Point coach; Jack Green, Vanderbilt; Vince Lombardi, Green Bay Packers; George Blackburn, former head coach at Cincinnati, and Carmine Lasley, presently assistant athletic director at University of Alabama, to mention a few.

Dobbs launched his own head coaching racket at Tulsa in 1955. Things are looking up at Texas Western.

Cleveland Is Underdog In Contest With Colts

CLEVELAND (AP) — The astating ground game built around Jimmy Brown and the occasionally brilliant passing of Frank Ryan.

Baltimore Colts, who have never lost a title game, ruled a one-touchdown favorite to keep that record unblemished against the Cleveland Browns next Sunday in the National Football League's championship game.

The game, before a sell-out crowd of 78,000 in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, is scheduled for national television, CBS-TV, with the Cleveland area blacked out, starting at 1:30 p.m., EST.

The game shapes up as a match of Baltimore's solid running game, Johnny Unitas' passing and an excellent defense against Cleveland's dev-

Utes Batter W. Virginia

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Ron Coleman, a speedy half-back with more moves than a chess master, led explosive Utah through West Virginia's porous defenses for a 32-6 victory Saturday in college football's first indoor bowl game, the sixth annual Liberty Bowl inside spacious Convention Hall.

The 5-foot-8, 172-pound senior from San Francisco bolted 53 yards on a brilliant individual effort to give Utah a 19-0 half-time lead. He carried 15 times for 154 yards, picking his holes smartly behind crisp blocking.

With the offensive line opening monstrous gaps in West Virginia's forward wall and the always dry field providing sure footing for Coleman, his substitute, Andy Ireland, and fullback Allen Jacobs, Utah lost little time establishing its superiority. Of the six times Utah had the ball in the first half, Coach Ray Nagel's team drove 45 and 77 yards for touchdowns and Roy Jefferson kicked field goals of 29 and 32 yards. One march faltered on the West Virginia one-yard line and an errant lateral killed the other.

A crowd of 6,059 watched the nationally televised game in a comfortable 60-degree atmosphere. The temperature outside the mammoth oceanfront auditorium was 31.

Not only did Utah's offensive line push the Mountaineers all over the field, but its heralded defense throttled West Virginia quarterback Allen McCune and rarely permitted the Southern Conference champs to mount an attack.

The Redskins, co-champions of the Western Athletic Conference, wasted little time in settling matters. A 50-yard drive the first time they had the ball ended in Jefferson's first field goal and a 16-point second period wrapped it up.

The Mountaineers' only score of the game climaxed a 67-yard drive, with the touchdown coming on a six-yard pass from McCune to Milt Clegg. The big play of the march was a 19-yard pass from McCune to Clegg on a fourth-down-and-14 situation.

McCune, who set a West Virginia percentage record this season by completing 60 of 90 passes, was held to 13 of 28 by Utah's stiff defense. He gained 123 yards in the air but had four passes intercepted.

Bonavena Wins Over Stephen

NEW YORK (AP) — Argentina's Oscar Bonavena is only eight fights deep into his professional boxing career and he's already being compared to Rocky Marciano—and the comparison is made by a man who knows.

Charley Goldman, who trained the undefeated former heavyweight champ, now trains Bonavena.

"This guy is a better boxer than Rocky was at the same stage of his career," Goldman said Friday night after Bonavena had scored his eighth straight victory. "But Rocky was a better puncher."

"But this kid is only 22 and is learning fast. Rocky was 25 by the time he had his eighth pro fight."

Billy Stephen of Hollywood, Calif., who was the victim of a sixth round technical knockout at the hands of the husky, long-haired Argentine, agreed.

Oscar knocked Billy down for a two count in the third, drew blood from his nose in the same round, opened a cut under his left eye in the fourth and finally won it at 2:14 of the sixth after rocking his opponent with a left and right to the jaw.

Gray To Enter Sports Shrine

DALLAS (AP) — Jack Gray, All-America basketball player and later an outstanding coach at the University of Texas, will be named to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame Dec. 31.

Gray will join other sports figures in the Hall of Fame at a luncheon here sponsored by the Texas Sports Writers Association and the Salesmanship Club of Dallas.

Three other new Hall of Fame members will be installed at the luncheon. Dana X. Bible, famed University of Texas coach, will induct Gray—one of his favorite athletes and coaches at the university—in the symbolic hall.

Others to be installed are Walter (Buddy) Davis, Texas A&M's 1952 Olympic gold medal winner in the high jump; Tex Rickard, widely known boxing promoter who died in 1928; and Slater Martin, an outstanding basketball pupil of Gray who went on to pro stardom.

Sammy Baugh Out As Oiler Coach

SAM BAUGH

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Sammy Baugh has quit as head football coach of the Houston Oilers to spend more time on his West Texas ranch because "I'm happier there."

Baugh's successor will be the fifth head coach in six seasons for the American Football League entry — a turnover unmatched in pro football.

The Houston Post said his successor was expected to be Hugh Bones Taylor, Oiler backfield coach. The Post also said Lou Rymkus, former Oiler head coach, would be rehired as an offensive line coach.

Taylor, 41, one of the National Football League's all-time great pass receivers, said "I have not discussed the coaching situation with Oiler officials." But he indicated he would like to have the job.

Taylor played for nine years with the Washington Redskins, and during that time was the favorite target of Baugh's pass. He also was assistant coach under Baugh in 1960 with the New York Titans.

Baugh said he would like to stay on as an assistant, and K. C. (Bud) Adams Jr., Oiler president, indicated he might grant the wish.

Baugh, 50, had insisted that running his 6,355-acre ranch interfered with his duties as head coach.

The former Texas Christian University and Red-skin passing star quit after signing a new one-year contract only two months ago.

The Hall of Fame quarterback compiled a 3-10 record, worst showing since the club was founded, with the season finale against Denver to be played Sunday.

"The head coaching job," Baugh said, "takes up a lot of time in the off-season, time that I'm not willing to give. So I asked Bud to get another head coach."

"I'd like to have a backfield job-someplace. But I feel like I'd be cheating the Oilers if I remained as head coach."

Two Are Signed By Astronauts

HOUSTON (AP) — Two young right-handed pitchers have been signed to 1965 bonus contracts by the Houston Astros, General Manager Paul Richards announced Saturday.

The two players, both 18, are Roric Harrison, a 6-3, 190-pounder from Westchester, Calif., and Steve Sumner, a 6-3, 200-pounder from Dallas.

Harrison was an All-City performer at Westchester and Sumner is a North Texas State College student.

Both will report to the Houston minor league training camp in Cocoa, Fla., this spring.

IT'S GILCHRIST VS. PARILLI

Pats, Bills Go For Broke

BOSTON (AP) — Boston has return match with San Diego for the league championship. And it's not Parilli, the league's leading touchdown passer with 29, or Gilchrist, the league's No. 1 rusher with 929 yards gained, who may become the focal point. It could be the conversion rule the AFL adopted from the colleges when the league was formed five years ago.

Buffalo leads by one-half game with an 11-2 record — and can clinch the title with either a victory or a tie. Favored Boston, 10-2-1, must win to duplicate last year's title and earn a

Nimrods Can Tell Tales Like Anglers

By The Associated Press

Texas deer hunters have established themselves as a real threat to the state's fishermen in telling tall tales, that is.

Here's a sampling:

A West Texan, proudly clutching a new rifle and dreaming of a trophy deer, was sitting in a tree when a big buck walked by. One shot and the deer fell. It had 12 points with a wide spread and looked so good that he laid his gun across the rack and tried to imagine what the antlers would be like hanging over the fireplace.

When he backed off to take another look, the deer jumped up and ran off, taking the new rifle with him.

Another hunter found himself with a clear shot at a large deer, got excited and his first shot went wild by 20 feet. Still excited, he hurriedly tried to put another shell in the chamber. He found the bolt but forgot to take his finger off the trigger.

The result? A deer running to safety, a hunter with a rifle in one hand and the bolt in the other.

Answering the question of why Texas has fallen behind in water recreation, the governor's committee studying the problem said, "man Texas lakes have been planned and built with little thought to recreation, because mainly they were intended for water supply and they were paid for by the people who bought and used the water."

In a report to the governor, the Water Recreation Study Committee said where Texas lags is "in the land and the facilities around the shoreline." Checking peak days at Texas reservoirs in 1963, the committee found that there were nearly 100 boats for every boat ramp, 250 people for each picnic table and one rest room for each 2,600 visitors.

The Parks and Wildlife Department has a suggestion for an inexpensive Christmas gift—fishing and hunting licenses. It's $2.15 for the fishing license and $3.15 to hunt. They are available at many sporting goods shops and game wardens.

As the weather gets colder, one fish at Caddo Lake gets more aggressive say anglers in that area. It's the chain pickerel, also called the "jackfish" or "pike."

A camp proprietor said "usually the fishermen who come here for the first time are amazed at the abundance of chain pickerel and their ability to scrap."

Biologists expect good fishing at Falcon Lake for the coming season. K. C. Jurgens, regional inland fisheries supervisor for the Parks and Wildlife Department, said the Mexican border lake is now at maximum conservation pool elevation.

Error-Prone Sharks Win AA Grid Title

AUSTIN (AP) — Palacios, a team so strong it could lose the ball six times on fumbles and still win the game, boasts the state Class AA schoolboy football championship.

A powerful ground attack spearheaded by Jerry Haynes and directed by versatile Robbie Shelton, plus a brick wall defense in which Shelton also was the leader, toppled Marlin 12-0 Friday night for Palacios' first championship.

Marlin threatened to score only once and then lost the ball on a fumble to the irrepressible Shelton.

Playing in 29-degree weather that caused a dozen fumbles and numerous dropped passes, the two teams battled as if they were playing on the beaches of Palacios by the sea.

Palacios actually won the game on Marlin's third play from scrimmage. Ricky Conrad intercepted Dickey Severson's pass on the Marlin 28 and scattered to a touchdown.

In the second period Shelton ran and passed Palacios to its second score. It came on a 4-yard pass from Shelton to Conrad.

Marlin managed to reach the Palacios 4-yard line on the passing of Severson and running of Steve Palacios in the third period but Larry Lawless fumbled and Shelton dropped on the ball.

Marlin got the chance when Conrad fumbled a kickoff and the Bulldogs recovered on the Palacios 39.

Hayes, a 164-pound Negro who runs the 100 in 10 flat, led the ground gainers with 99 yards but none of his running figured in Palacios' scores.

Shelton picked up 35 yards of tough yardage on the ground and passed for 43 yards. He also made 14 tackles, eight of them unassisted.

SAN ANGELO — San Angelo College muscled its way past Murray State of Oklahoma, 78-71, in a basketball exhibition here Friday night. Gary Jellison led SAC in scoring with 24 points.

Rox Goodwine of San Marcos couldn't be stopped on the ground by the Palestine defense as he ran around the ends for 71 yards, but his passing left much to be desired. It was his passes that Palestine intercepted.

Goodwine ran for 46 yards and passed for eight in the first San Marcos touchdown drive that swept 58 yards. He made the touchdown with a 2-yard end run.

A crowd of 3,500 huddled in 28-degree temperatures at Kyle Field, home of the Texas Aggies. There was sleet on the field.

Quite likely, the Downtown Lions Club and the Kiwanians will enter teams too.

This is a "pitch and toss" sort of league, with recreation and good fellowship the main objective of the league.

League games will be booked Tuesday and Thursday of each week during the season.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Thanks to mighty Bill Bradley and a steel-toothed pass defense, Palestine is Class AAA state schoolboy football champion.

The four already committed represent the American Business Club, Optimists, Rotary and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Quite likely, the Downtown Lions Club and the Kiwanians will enter teams too.

This is a "pitch and toss" sort of league, with recreation and good fellowship the main objective of the league.

ABILENE — Abilene Cooper rallied in the final quarter to topple Hobbs, N. M., 97-90, in a basketball game here Friday night. Mickey Wise led the Cougars in scoring with 24 points.

In the other portion of a doubleheader, Abilene High ran over Dallas Hillcrest, 75-73, outscoring the visitors in the final period by five points.

Offshore Oil Gains Are Half Of Total

By MAX B. SKELTON
BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—Crude oil production in the disputed Gulf of Mexico zones off the Louisiana coast has increased by more than 230,000 barrels a day since 1956.

The increase for these zones claimed by both Louisiana and the federal government is equivalent to nearly 50 per cent of the nationwide gain the past eight years.

This comparison was included in a memorandum filed Saturday with the executive committee of the 33-state Interstate Oil Compact Commission.

A special staff study of offshore Louisiana production growth trends was ordered by the committee at its June meeting in Billings, Mont. It acted at the request of several large groups representing independent producers.

Since June the independents also have taken over steps designed to curtail offshore production or encourage federal officials to study how Gulf of Mexico oil affects the level of onshore production.

The 6,500-member Texas Independent Producers & Royalty Owners Association approved a Sept. 14 resolution asking the Interior Department to "stop further disproportionate growth in production from offshore federal leases."

Officers of the 7,500-member Independent Petroleum Association of America were instructed Oct. 27 to appoint a special subcommittee to study the problem.

Two days earlier J. A. Mull Jr. of Wichita, Kan., national chairman of a liaison committee that represents regional and state trade groups for independents in about 23 states, said the Interior Department should extend the deadline for federal leases due to expire in 1967 and should delay further offshore lease sales.

NO HOPE
Saturday's memorandum offered Mull encouragement on one point but offered no hope for extension of the 1967 deadline.

The memorandum said a check with Interior officials revealed the department has no plans at present to consider further leasing of the outer continental shelf.

Department officials also were quoted, however, as saying the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act approved by Congress on Aug. 7, 1953, provides no statutory authority to extend federal offshore oil and gas leases beyond the five-year terms specified in the act.

The Supreme Court ruled in 1960 the federal government was entitled to all the Gulf of Mexico's submerged lands beyond a three-mile limit from the coastline of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. The same ruling recognized Texas and Florida ownership to a distance of three marine leagues or about 10 1/2 miles.

Louisiana still is challenging the ruling.

Offshore Louisiana crude production last year averaged 409,000 barrels a day and 254,659 barrels or 62 per cent came from the disputed areas—Zones 2 and 3.

Output from Louisiana's undisputed Zone 1 averaged 127,938 barrels a day. Production from the federal government's undisputed Zone 4, containing most of the leases that must be drilled or lost by 1967, averaged only 26,407 barrels a day.

The 1963 average gave Louisiana's undisputed area a gain of only 43,126 barrels a day since 1956, compared to 228,738 for the disputed zones and 25,375 for the undisputed Zone 4.

Nationwide production, including offshore, averaged 7,150,000 barrels a day in 1956. A record approximately 7,650,000 is expected this year, but this will represent a gain of only 500,000 barrels a day in eight years.

In the same period, Louisiana's output—including state and federal offshore leases—jumped from 818,090 barrels a day in 1956 to a daily average of 1,432,162 in 1963.

Compared to the nationwide increase of 500,000 barrels a day since 1956, Louisiana's average jumped 614,072, of which 297,239 barrels daily came from the state-federal offshore leases.

The Louisiana boom still is under way. The memorandum estimated the state's daily average the first five months of 1964 at 1,543,397 barrels.

JOSEPH E. REID

Joseph E. Reid New Manager

Joseph E. Reid of Pampa, formerly manager of Cabot Corporation's oil and gas exploration department, is now manager of oil and gas exploration, production, and petroleum engineering. This change was announced by E. L. Green Jr., western region vice president and general manager, effective Dec. 15.

Reid holds a bachelor's degree in petroleum engineering and geology from Louisiana State University, and an MBA degree from Harvard Business School. He began work with Cabot in Pampa as a landman in 1956 and later worked as administrative assistant to the vice president of the oil and gas division. He was transferred, December 1960, to the Lafayette, La., office as district manager. He returned to Pampa Aug. 1, 1962 as manager of the newly created oil and gas exploration department.

API Overhaul Represents All Segments Of Industry

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON (AP)—A reorganization of the 10,000-member American Petroleum Institute is well under way.

A rather major overhaul of the institute that represents all segments of the domestic oil and gas industry is resulting from recommendations made by a special re-evaluation study committee created last year.

A number of changes already have been made and more are to follow.

Major objectives range from economy measures and structural realignment of the administrative staff to increased emphasis on educational and informational activities.

The Washington staff has been bolstered with the addition of experts on natural gas and public information.

John Bivins of New York City, was named last week to the new post of vice president for public affairs. A vice president for industry affairs, also a new position, will be named later.

A new class of membership for foreign-based manufacturers of oil field equipment also has been authorized.

The changes under way will reach every individual member on Jan. 1 when the institute boosts its annual dues from $10 to $25, the first dues hike since 1920.

The first registration fee in 44 years became effective at the institute's 44th annual meeting last month in Chicago.

J. Ed Warren, board chairman from New York City, outlined the special study's objectives at Chicago. He said the institute should never be allowed to become a mere prestige symbol for the industry or a tradition-bound dusty monument.

"It should have a ready and convincing answer any time anyone in the industry wants to ask: 'What have you done for us lately?'" said the president of the Cities Service Co.

Frank Ikard, president of the institute, told the Interstate Compact Commission week before last there will be less emphasis on tasks individuals and companies can perform and increased emphasis on tasks best carried out through industry-wide cooperation.

"There will be steadily mounting efforts to find new approaches to such problems as data gathering, and analysis, natural gas regulation, and air and water conservation," said Ikard, a former Texas congressman.

Ikard said the study committee especially recommends intensifying educational and informational activities.

"Few activities are more important than generating public understanding of the petroleum industry," he said.

"Such understanding is prerequisite to creating the kind of climate in which the industry can thrive and make its maximum contribution to society."

The institute will continue, he said, to foster and promote the business aims of the industry.

"But it will give new and emphatic recognition to the need to support general policies essential to the growth of the economy and the strength of the nation," Ikard said.

Dual Completion Shows Wolfcamp Discovery

A dual completion in the Devonian and Wolfcamp pay in Andrews County will be a discovery in the Wolfcamp trend in that area. The initial tests show that the well is good about 1,500 barrels of oil per day.

H. L. Brown Jr. and W. J. Heath of Midland, found the pay in the No. 1-36 University, three-quarters of a mile north extension to the Huxley (Devonian) pool, 18 miles northeast of Andrews. It was staked 1,980 feet from the south and east lines of section 36-6, University Lands survey.

The Devonian section made 1,016 barrels of oil, gravity unreported, per day on the potential test, flowing through a three-quarter-inch choke from perforations at 12,523-524 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 521-1 and tubing pressure was 75 pounds. The section made eight per cent water with the oil and has been treated with 250 gallons of acid.

The Wolfcamp flowed oil at the maximum rate of 20 to 25 barrels per hour on a drillstem test at 9,980 to 10,065 feet during a four-hour test.

Daniel Heading New Department

Joe M. Daniel Jr. of Pampa was named manager of Cabot Corporation's newly-created Gas and Gas Products Department by E. L. Green Jr., Western Region vice president and general manager. The change was effective Dec. 10. Cabot's gas products plants are located at Kermit and Wickett in Texas, Glenrock, Wyo., and Beaver, Okla.

Daniel is a graduate petroleum engineer from the University of Texas. After nine years with the Texas Company he came to Cabot in 1957. Since December 1960 he has been administrative assistant in the oil and gas division.

Garza, Howard Get Eight Locations

One new location was staked in Garza County, and seven in Howard County, Friday. Two of the Howard locations will be water flood projects. None is a wildcat.

Barranca Oil, Limited, of Monahans, will make two tests in the Snyder (San Angelo) trend. The No. 24-W D. H. Snyder, eight miles southeast of Coahoma, is spotted 1,370 feet from the south and 2,590 feet from the east lines of section 28-30-1s, T&P survey, to drill to 2,850 feet rotary. The No. 25-W D. H. Snyder, on the same section, is spotted 1,370 feet from the south and 50 feet from the east lines, also to go to 2,850 feet.

W. F. Company, Ltd., Monahans, has staked two locations in the Snyder (Clearfork) field eight miles southeast of Coahoma. No. 27-W-A Snyder was staked 50 feet from the south and 2,690 feet from the east lines of section 28-30-1s, T&P survey, going to 2,850 feet with rotary. The No. 26-W-A Snyder, on the same section, is spotted 50 feet from the south and 2,690 feet from the east lines.

Service Stations Not Fire Hazards

NEW YORK—An oil marketer who checked up on the fire safety and traffic safety records of service stations in his community found that things were even better than he had imagined.

He learned, according to Oil Facts, that the state fire rating bureau, which sets insurance rates for all kinds of buildings, regards service stations as safer than churches, schools, private homes, restaurants, grocery stores and doctors' offices.

Gromyko And Rusk Talk World Issues

NEW YORK (AP) — East-West problems were spotlighted Saturday as Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko called on Secretary of State Dean Rusk, just back from a Paris planning meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Gromyko, arriving for lunch with Rusk at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, told reporters they probably would discuss several unspecified "matters of world character." That could cover disarmament, a NATO nuclear force and German reunification, all controversial.

The Soviet minister said he had no specific plans to talk about the Soviet-U.S. dispute over U.N. peacekeeping cost. U.S. sources said Rusk had none either.

DECLINES COMMENT

Gromyko declined comment on the outcome of the session of the 15-nation NATO Ministerial Council that Rusk attended in Paris Tuesday through Thursday.

After reporting to President Johnson on the session Thursday night, Rusk disclosed that he had agreed there to meet with the British, French and West German foreign ministers in Washington next month to look into possibilities of "some further initiative" toward reunification of Germany. But he said the Russians had not been showing any interest in that.

FOURTH MEET

This was the fourth meeting between Rusk and Gromyko. Others on the U.S. side were Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, chief U.N. delegate; Llewellyn Thompson, acting deputy undersecretary of state for political affairs, and an interpreter.

On the Soviet side were Vladimir S. Semenov, deputy foreign minister; Anatoly F. Dobrynin, Washington ambassador, and an interpreter.

PANAMA PROPOSAL

Canal 'Vital To Defense'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The vital military importance of a canal linking the Atlantic and Pacific will continue undiminished far into the future, American strategists say.

This, it is pointed out, is in addition to the even greater value of the canal to the commerce of this nation and the world, as emphasized by President Johnson in announcing the proposal for building a new sea-level waterway across Panama or adjacent areas to replace the 50-year-old, lock-bound Panama Canal.

NAVY CONFIRMS IT

A Navy spokesman agreed Saturday that it is true 24 of the Navy's attack carriers cannot get through the existing canal but added that "it can hardly be said that the true strategic importance of the canal is less today than it has been in the past."

He noted that modern nuclear submarines, the new missile cruisers and frigates and anti-submarine warfare vessels, which include rebuilt carriers, can transit the canal.

A sea-level route, with wide channel and no locks, would open the transisthmus route to all U.S. naval craft and cut hours off the time for traveling the canal.

DEFENSE NEED

"The demonstrated value of the Panama Canal in military operations during World War II and the Korean emergency removes all doubt regarding the future need and potential usefulness for meeting the requirements of the defense forces of this nation in peace and war," the spokesman said.

Another defense official commented that he believed the primary military reason for building a sea-level canal was not the fact that bigger ships could use such a waterway but that it would not have the high vulnerability of the present canal to sabotage.

BETWEEN LOCKS

An essential component of the Panama Canal is Gatun Lake which stands between the locks at the Atlantic and Pacific ends. That lake, 82 feet above sea level, is created by a simple earth dam impounding the waters of several rivers and small streams. The defense official said it would take two years to refill the lake to navigable level if the dam were destroyed.

In addition, the locks themselves.

Sanchez-Arista Vows Solemnized Saturday

The wedding vows of Miss Margie Arista and Manuel Sanchez were solemnized Saturday morning in St. Thomas Catholic Church with the Rev. Robert J. McDermott performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom C. Arista, 508 NW 10th, and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Ida Sanchez, 107 NE 3rd.

Traditional wedding music was played at the organ by Mrs. Leslie Green. She accompanied Mrs. Harold Talbot who sang "Ave Maria."

The bride was presented at the altar by her father where the vows were repeated before an arch entwined with greenery and white wedding flowers. Altar candles illuminated the setting.

The bride's gown of candlelight delustered satin was styled with a molded bodice accented with a scalloped neckline outlined with re-embroidered Alencon lace. Appliques of lace enhanced with sequins extended into sprays down the sides of the voluminous skirt which swept into a chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was secured by a three-tiered star headpiece outlined with seed pearls and crystals.

BRIDAL BOUQUET
She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and Frenched carnations, showered with satin picot ribbon, and a white Bible, the gift of Rev. McDermott.

Miss Rosalita Arista served her sister as maid of honor. She was attired in a white formal gown of brocade fashioned with a fitted bodice with scoop neckline and long sleeves. The domed skirt was accented with narrow pleats and she wore an open pill box hat with a cluster of pearls accenting the front. A scalloped circular veil trimmed with seed pearls completed the headpiece, and she carried a nosegay of white spider chrysanthemums and carnations tied with blue satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Josie Mendez, Miss Lupe Arista, Mrs. Frida Urias, Mrs. Elma Sosa, Miss Rosa Madrid, Miss Mary Martinez and Mrs. Olga Palomino. The junior bridesmaids were Ofelia Holguin and Aurora Holguin, Odessa, Gloria Correa and Viola Caberra.

The bridesmaids were dressed in formal gowns of dusty pink brocade styled as empire sheaths with floating panels hanging from the square neckline in the back of the frock. The junior bridesmaids wore formal gowns of aqua delustered satin designed with boat necklines, and fitted bodices atop pleated bell-shaped skirts.

The attendants wore matching pill box hats styled identically to the maid of honor. They carried nosegays of pink and white carnations tied with pink satin streamers.

BEST MAN
Willie Mendoza Jr. was best man and groomsmen were Mike Sanchez, brother of the groom, Tony Dominguez, Billy Pineda, Rey Marquez, Tom Arista Jr., David Dominguez and Robert Deleon. Elsa Manuela Hernandez was flower girl and wore a short dress of white net over taffeta styled with a full skirt. She carried a basket of rose petals and was escorted by the ring bearer, Bernardo Huante Jr.

The couple will make a home at 3709 La Junta. He is employed by Cabot Corporation. Both attended Big Spring High School, and he graduated before entering the armed services.

RECEPTION
Guests were received in the basement of the church by the bride couple, her parents, his mother, and the feminine attendants following the ceremony.

The bride's table was decorated with a centerpiece of bridal gift ribbons that were arranged in a tiered effect topped with a miniature bride and groom. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with pink roses and adorned with bridal couple figurines.

Mrs. Rosa Holguin, Odessa, aunt of the bride, registered guests. Out-of-town visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ambrosio Diaz, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gonzales, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holguin, Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Gonzales, all of Odessa, and Mr. and Mrs. Rene Rayos, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanchez, Mr. and Mrs. Agustine Sanchez and Mr. and Mrs. Cirio Sanchez, all of Midland.

WEDDING DANCE
The best man and the groomsmen were hosts at a dance Saturday evening honoring the couple. Wedding attendants, family and friends gathered at the National Guard Armory for the evening celebration.

Gift Suggestion
A friend to whom you'd like to give special honor would enjoy a roast or ham, holiday-wrapped and accompanied with the ingredients for a special glaze, decoration or garnish.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Little JOHN JOSEPH ROEMER III really set things going birthday-wise when he made his arrival on Dec. 16. He was the third generation to have the same birthdate. His father was 21 on that day and it is also John Joseph Sr.'s birthday anniversary. If he had been born one day later it wouldn't have been quite so sensational but the date would have been the birthday of his maternal grandfather, R. H. (MOON) MULLINS. Anyway you take it there is going to be a lot of birthday cakes each year when the 16th and 17th of December rolls around at the Roemer's and the Mullins.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD GRIMES are planning a big Christmas this year when all the family will get together at their house for a big dinner on Christmas evening. GEORGE GRIMES is to arrive on the 22 from Ponce, Puerto Rico, to join Mrs. Grimes who has been here with her son and daughter-in-law since her husband took a new job in Puerto Rico. She will join him for a trip back on Jan. 3. Meanwhile the family is to start gathering this week. MR. and MRS. BUNKY GRIMES and Gemilyn of Longview are to be here and local relatives include MR. and MRS. JAMES GILMORE and KENT BROWN and MR. and MRS. JOHN E. BROWN JR.

This really looks like a white Christmas, clothes-wise. Nearly every woman and girl has something in her wardrobe that is a chalk white, off white, oyster white and, I suppose, just white white. Playing bridge Thursday MRS. CLYDE ANGEL wore a white coat and MRS. CUIN GRIGSBY chose a white knit suit and with it wore a high crowned white hat with a narrow black brim. An attractive feature of the crown was the pretty embroidered flowers in red with touches of green. MRS. JERRY SPENCE'S white coat with fur trim was beautiful and MRS. GEORGE McALISTER'S bright white dress was striking. MRS. GEORGE PEACOCK wore a pale pink which went beautifully with her pretty red hair. MRS. RALPH CATON was happily wearing a Christmas tree pin, a gift from two aunts each of whom has one of the pretties for herself. The tree shaped ornament is handsomely set in bright blue, green and red. A handsome pin for any time but especially at the Yule season.

The three sons of MR. and MRS. THEO ISBELL, former residents of Big Spring, will honor their parents with a tea in celebration of their silver anniversary today. ROBERT, TERRY and KENT will host the party from 2:30 until 5:30 at the Texas Grill Ivy Room in Ballinger.

Friends from here who will attend are MR. and MRS. CHARLES STAGGS, MR. and MRS. JOHNNY STEWART and MR. and MRS. ED BLACK.

Home for the holidays is DON HEATH, son of CWO and Mrs. H. R. HEATH, 24B Albrook Drive. Don is a student in Illinois State University at Normal, Ill.

Rook Club Has Party, Election

Mrs. Harwood Keith was hostess Friday to the Rook Club at a dinner and Christmas party held in the home of Mrs. A. C. Bass, 106 Washington. New officers were elected.

Twelve members participated in a gift exchange and revealed secret pals. Mrs. Ella Neel was chosen as the new president.

Assisting her will be Mrs. C. E. Shives, vice president; Mrs. S. P. Jones, treasurer; Mrs. Felton Smith, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Isla Davis, reporter.

The dining table was arranged with red Christmas flowers and holly, and laid with a red cloth trimmed in green and gold. The individual tables were covered in gay Christmas cloths and centered with holiday decorations.

The next meeting will be Jan. 15 with the place to be announced.

Onion Adds Dash

Nice flavor change for corn: Cook diced onion until golden in butter or margarine and add to hot drained whole-kernel canned corn. If there's a green pepper on hand, you can dice a little of this and cook it with the onion.

TRAVEL TALK Traditionally Jewish City Is Paradox

By HULAN FOWLER
Jerusalem is a city of paradoxes.

It is traditionally a Jewish city, yet untenable by the Jews. Its Christian shrines are controlled by Moslems. A single shrine in the city is called holy by both Christians and Moslems alike. It is traditionally a city of peace, yet torn asunder by wars since the Jews were expelled by the Romans in 137 A.D.

As our four-engine plane skirted around Israel we thought how strange it was that we were not permitted to fly over the land of the Jews on our way to Jerusalem.

But the Old Jerusalem that we were to visit belongs to Jordan, an Arabic state primarily Moslem. It is separated from New Jerusalem, in Israel, by a forbidding expanse of barren land with barbed wire and land mines. The city, divided, forms the barrier between the two nations.

Jerusalem is a walled city, a natural fortress that has been the prize of conquering armies since the days of Nebuchadnezzar. As early as 2107 B.C. it was historically recorded as the city named Salem by Melchizedek. Strife after strife ripped the city asunder until, in 1947-48, it was split by the Palestine War that left it under Arab control to this day.

Despite its history of violence, when we entered the walls of this holy city a feeling of peace came over us that is said to be general among visitors. Certainly it was no different, really, than any other Arabic city we had visited, reminiscent in fact of forbidding Cairo and Damascus. Yet, in Jerusalem, we felt safe, even alone at night.

Perhaps it is because Jerusalem is rather quiet for an Arabic city. There are no bars, no night clubs, no juke boxes blaring. The people—although typically Arabic in flowing robes and burnouses—were more polite. The fact that Jerusalem is the shrine of three monotheistic religions apparently had nothing to do with the peace that prevailed. The shrines—Christian, Jewish and Moslem—are controlled, quite fairly and impartially by the predominately Moslem Jordanian government.

One of the most exciting and impressive ways to see Jerusalem is to follow the Way of the Cross that Jesus suffered on His slow and agonized way to Calvary.

The Way of the Cross, which moves across narrow cobblestoned streets and past odoriferous bazaars and marketplaces, is well marked with tablets identifying the various Stations of the Cross. A person would have to be without imagination indeed not to feel something of the tragedy of that fateful journey of the Lord.

Finally, one reaches the hill of Golgotha and then the tomb of Christ. A magnificent Greek Orthodox church is built over the traditional site of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus. Inside are the last five Stations of the Cross, including the stone slab where it is said the body of Christ was anointed after His death. The inside of the huge stone structure is adorned with jewels, gold and silver brought in gratitude by pilgrims.

Moving on to the east side of the city, we came to the Mount of Olives, where Christ met with the apostles for the last time. Nearby is the Garden of Gethsemane, where Christ prayed and spent some of His last hours on earth. Eight olive trees from the time of Christ are still growing and bearing fruit in the Garden.

There is much to see in Jerusalem but a visit is not complete without seeing one of the paradoxes of this wonderful land, a site of significance to both Christians and Moslems alike.

It is the Mosque of Omar, more often called the Dome of the Rock. The mosque, handsomely tiled on the outside and heavily with beautiful mosaic work inside, houses a rock about 10 feet square.

The rock is the one on which Abraham was willing to sacrifice his son Isaac to God, tradition claims. It is also said that the rock was one of the stopping places of Mohammed on his night journey to heaven.

With reluctance we left Jerusalem, the city divided by warring states and feuding theologues. But there was much to be seen outside the walls.

Miss Thornton Weds Jimmie Lee Schuelke

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday by Miss Mary Lera Thornton and Jimmie Lee Schuelke in the Wesley Methodist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Parmenter.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jess Thornton, Snyder Highway, and the late Mr. Thornton, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuelke, Rt. 2, Lamesa.

Mrs. Bill Hambrick played traditional music at the piano and accompanied Miss Patsy McKinney, Lubbock, who sang "Oh Promise Me," "Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Woodrow Harris, was escorted down the bridal aisle that was marked with candles tied with spruce and white satin bows. The altar was banked with baskets of snowshoe gladioli and white pompon chrysanthemums. Spruce wreaths and garlands completed the background, and spiral candelabra illuminated the altar arrangements.

BRIDE'S GOWN

The bridal gown of white peau de soie and re-embroidered Alencon lace was formally styled with a sweeping full skirt and train. A panel of lace accented the front panel of the dress, and the molded bodice of lace featured a scalloped neckline. The long sleeves were styled with points over the hand and appliqued with lace.

A caplet of seed pearl leaves and a bow was attached to a pouf veil of silk illusion that was finger-tip-length. The bride carried a tapered Horgarth bouquet of feathered white carnations and gladioli and a white Bible. She wore the traditional old and new, borrowed and blue items.

Miss Lucy Thornton served as maid of honor in a royal blue peau de soie street-length dress styled with a bouffant skirt and fitted bodice with scoop neckline and cap sleeves. She wore lace mitts bordered in blue and a bow headband with a tulle veil.

ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Jack Milam and Mrs. Wayne Walker, sisters of the bride, and Miss Joyce Merrick, Ackery, were bridesmaids. They wore lighter blue frocks similar in style to the maid of honor's gown. Each attendant carried a single long-stemmed white carnation tied with picot satin streamers and bows.

Duane Rogers was best man and groomsmen were Keith Ruden, Gary Green and Warren Schulte. Ushers were Jack Milam, Wayne Walker, Charles Hurt and Bobby Hurt.

David Hancock, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer, and the bride couple's brothers, James Hancock and Kenneth Schuelke, lighted the altar tapers.

Miss Julie Merrick served as flower girl in a blue frock identical to the bridesmaids and wore a short veil and matching mitts.

The couple left for a wedding trip to El Paso and points of interest in New Mexico. The bride was attired in a black wool dressmaker suit with winter white accessories and a corsage from the bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School, where she was a member of the Bible Club, Future Homemakers of America, 4-H Club, Science Club and French Club. Presently she is employed at C. F. Boone Publications in Lubbock and has attended Draughon's Business College.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Sands High School, is attending Howard County Junior College and will continue his education at Texas Tech in Lubbock where the couple will reside. He is a former student

Follow The Rules In Carving Duty

The first rule of carving to remember is that meat is carved across the grain, rather than with the grain. The only exception to this rule is steak which is carved with the grain. For easy carving let the roast "set" 15 to 20 minutes after removing it from the oven. Roasts continue to cook upon removal from the oven and should be removed about 5 degrees F. below the desired degree of doneness before they are to "set."

HINTS FROM

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Here's another way to use your nylon net dishcloth... I tuck one in the pocket of each kitchen apron I send as a Christmas gift!

I have even received second phone calls expressing thanks for this item! Since then, I have found other uses for these nylon net squares:

When washing white gloves put the gloves on your hands and use the nylon net dishcloth for cleaning the fingertips of them!

I also crumple one of the net dishcloths and use it for rubbing streaks on collars and cuffs of dresses and shirts, etc.

I also use them for removing those stains from the heels and toes of teenagers' white socks! They really do the job.

Thanks for the hint of nylon net dish cloth... L. Moore

Dear Folks:

Just buy a good grade of nylon net at your local store, and cut it up into 18-inch squares. No need to hem. Net doesn't ravel. (Should cost you less than 40 cents a yard and because it's 72 inches wide—that makes it half-price—eh?)... Heloise

Dear Heloise:

My husband wears white shirts all the time and had so many with French cuffs which he did not like... because he likes to turn up his sleeves when working.

I removed the cuffs, cut them into two, sewed the lower half back on, added a button, and they are just like regular cuffs. Rachelle Sanders

Wow... Dear Rachelle:

This is a fantastic way to save shirts for those who have WORN French cuffs too!

Bless you from the bottom of our hearts.

The worn thin line... where a French cuff usually wears... can be used for a cutting line, then turned under and restitched back to that perfectly good shirt sleeve—perfect!... Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Spreading colds is my biggest problem: mainly from the drinking cups in the bathroom. With four children how could I keep this many cups and still have a neat bathroom?

I finally solved this problem when I got a set of measuring cups... the kind that look like little saucepans and will hang on the wall. I put a little decal on the bottom of each little pan to identify the owner and hung them beside our washbasin.

Now, everyone has their own drinking cup and they look so pretty! Identification is no problem. The biggest cup is for the oldest child and so on according to age... Mrs. C. S. Mosher

Dear Heloise:

If I have to walk on ice I have found that if I will pull an old stocking or a sock over my shoes or boots I will not slip! Anna Willis (Write Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald.)

Holiday Cards Provide For Patients In Hospital

More than 2,000 Christmas cards should provide some heavy bundles this week for postmen collecting mail from the Big Spring State Hospital and the Veterans Administration Hospital, for that number has been supplied patients free to the patients, already stamped and ready to be addressed and mailed.

Groups from Future Homemakers of America clubs in some 25 West Texas schools are providing cards for the state hospital patients, and organizations participating in the volunteer program of the VA Hospital are providing patients there with cards.

More than 1,600 cards have already been distributed to patients of the State Hospital and more than 700 to the VA Hospital patients. Each hospital will be supplying each patient with two or more cards.

Bundles of cards were still being received at the two hospitals late this week for the patients. The groups provide from 25 to more than 100 cards, depending on the size of the organization, according to Mrs. Hila Weathers, coordinator of volunteer services at the State Hospital, and Mrs. Ara S. Cunningham, director of voluntary service at the VA Hospital.

The FHA groups are participating from high schools as far away as El Paso. Others include Gail, Wilson, Muleshoe, Stanton, Denver City, Hermleigh, Lamesa, Ropes, Plains, Forsan, Coahoma, McAdoo, Idalou, Whiteface, Big Lake-Reagan County, Snyder, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Wolforth, Ackerly, a Lubbock junior high and two Big Spring junior high schools, Runnels and Goliad.

For patients at the Big Spring State Hospital who do not normally receive mail, the Big Spring chapter, National Secretaries Association is sending Christmas cards this year.

Some 250 patients will receive the cards, Mrs. Bill Stone, chapter president, said. This is the third year the group has provided the cards.

Suggestions for improvements and savings have brought laurels to three Webb AFB civilian employees. In addition to certificates of thanks from the base incentive awards committee, the three men were given cash awards totaling $230.

Receiving the lion's share of the money was Frank C. Perry, programmer in the engineering and construction branch of civil engineering. For his suggestion to add a solution to evaporative coolers to dissolve mineral deposits and stop corrosion, he received $100. As a result of this idea, costs for cleaning, scraping and painting were reduced, life expectancy of cooler pads was extended by 25 percent and cooler performance was improved. Estimated total net savings for a year was calculated to be over $2,500.

William H. Bethell, general foreman, roads and grounds of civil engineering, was given $80 for his suggestion. His idea was to mount salvage tire casings over the tires on rotary mowers, thereby reducing flat tires by 80 percent over a three month period. It worked, because savings to the base over a year's time is estimated at $1,557.

For a suggestion to modify the throttle anti-torsion tube in the J-85 engine, James G. Crenshaw, propulsion section of field maintenance, received $50. Use of his method will accelerate tech order compliance on throttle linkage cables and will save an estimated $996 during the first year.

Some Air Force Officers Will Be Released Early

The Air Force has outlined an early release program designed to release some officers up to seven months ahead of their scheduled separation dates.

Officials said the move is being made to stay within a reduced officer strength ceiling anticipated for fiscal years 1965-1966. Some 1,200 officers are expected to be released early.

A total of 15 officers assigned to Webb AFB have been notified of their new release dates as a result of the early release program.

They are: 1st Lts. John T. Barry, Sylvia G. Beatty, Stephen Richard G. Hill, David M. Hodson, Mary J. Koffley, Roland E. Looze, Mary A. Ward, Julia C. Greenhalgh, Francis E. Hubbard, Aleda J. Kirchhoffner.

Kathleen A. Reske, Elizabeth J. West, and Bertha M. Wilson. Affected are non-career reserve officers with established dates of separation and certain regular and career reserve officers who are not eligible for retirement. Separation dates for this latter category may be moved up for the purpose of submitting a voluntary separation request. Medical professional and dental officers are not included in the early release program.

Part of the expected reduction is attributable to the recent Department of Defense announcement to close, reduce or consolidate operations at more than 50 Air Force facilities. These are among 95 facilities throughout the military services similarly affected.

Local Youngsters Planning Busy 1965 Show Schedule

Howard County 4-H Club boys and girls will compete in eight stock shows, in addition to the Howard County show, this winter and spring.

This year will see Howard County Club stock in competition at two new shows—the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show and the Amarillo Livestock Show.

Other shows where the youngsters will see ribbons will be the Odessa-Sand Hills Hereford and Quarter Horse Show, Jan. 3-9; Abilene Fat Stock show, Jan. 17-20; El Paso Fat Stock show, Feb. 5-12; San Antonio Stock Show, Feb. 10-21; Houston Livestock Show, Feb. 28-March 7; San Angelo Stock Show, March 9-14.

The annual Howard County FFA and 4-H Fat Stock show opens March 16 and closes March 18. The Amarillo show will open Jan. 23 and close Jan. 26.

First show the youngsters go to is almost on hand. This will be the Odessa exposition opening Jan. 3.

The club members will take 10 steers and five lambs to this show, Don Brandenberger, assistant county agent, said.

The club van, now stored at the County Fair barns, will be put in readiness this week to transport stock and exhibitors to the shows. The big van is rigged with a complete kitchen. When the stock is placed in the show ring, the van is renovated to serve as a "home away from home" for the exhibitors at the show. Meals are cooked and served in the big vehicle. It serves as a sleeping place. Personal property is left in the van for safekeeping.

Steers are to be shown at the Odessa show by Mark and Maxwell Barr, Steve Foster, Daryle Coates, Robbie Haney, Delores Lankford (2); Sharon Harrison, (2) and Terry Soechting. Lambs are to be shown by Sherry Phillips, Linda Foster, Dixie Coleman, Nancy Phillips and Freddie Newman.

Parents of the some of the young exhibitors go along in the dual role of chaperones and cooks.

Brandenberger and Herb Helbig, the county agent, also accompany the youngsters on the show trips.

Judge at the Odessa show will be Don Good.

Lambs will be judged at the show on Jan. 6, and steers Jan. 7.

The Abilene show closes Jan. 20 and the Amarillo show opens Jan. 23. This means the youngsters will not have much time between the two events. Nor will they have any idle hours between the end of the Amarillo show Jan. 26 and the Fort Worth show which begins on Jan. 27.

Closing date for the Fort Worth show and the opening date of the El Paso show are both Feb. 5 and the El Paso show will still be going on when the San Antonio show opens Feb. 10.

The young exhibitors will have a slight relaxation period between the San Antonio show, which closes Feb. 19 and the Houston show, which opens on Feb. 28. The final show, before the home event, will be in San Angelo. It starts two days after the Houston show closes.

The youngsters will have two days after the San Angelo trip to get ready for the Howard County FFA and 4-H Club show, opening March 15.

A Devotional For The Day

The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. (John 1:14)

PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, help us to understand Thy Word by knowing Christ as our Savior. May His teachings and Thy will come alive in us as we dedicate ourselves in service to Thee today. In the name of the Master, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

Confidence In Our Future

Few areas in the United States have experienced such phenomenal growth as West Texas during the past two decades. Last week this was brought into the spotlight. Because it is an ingredient in projecting future growth patterns, it was cited as part of the reason why more water will be needed urgently for this area. At the same time, downstream users on the Colorado River contended that this was the result almost wholly of oil discovery and exploitation, and that a slackening pace within the past couple years indicated that the crest has been passed and that a diminution of oil will result in a corresponding decline in activity and population. (This might be said of all of Texas, for that matter.)

The premise may be fairly well taken from either side. There is, however, much more to support the view that this sector of West Texas will continue to grow and flourish, given that indispensable element of water.

Admittedly the salad days for oil entrepreneurs is past. Rather than the end, this is the beginning of a period of greater efficiency and greater versatility. Operators are getting the job done more economically, they are prolonging the life of fields, many beyond this century, and are doubling and even quadrupling the amount of oil which ultimately will be recovered. More importantly, they are using oil and gas as raw materials for processing and manufacturing a myriad of products ranging from fuel to fibres, from rubber to roadways. All of these things require heavy investments, workers to build, to operate, to transport, to service, to market.

To a degree, the increasing population itself creates markets for expanding industries. Thus, not only oil enters into the economy, but a host of other industries.

That such is the very real prospect is indicated by such investments of $33,000,000 by Texas Electric Service Company in an additional generating facility at Colorado City, and in the multiplied millions of dollars in investments by lending companies for new business, apartment and residential construction. Shrewd businessmen do not lay out that kind of money unless they are convinced of the firm prospect of still greater opportunity which will justify the investments.

No trend, no matter how entrenched, maintains the same gradient year after year. There are peaks, there are plateaus and sometimes valleys, but these are simply undulations in the general grade. Perhaps this area has paused for a little breather, but out of it will come greater strength for the opportunity that lies ahead.

Future prospects are not the whole case for the new lake, but we are convinced that they are so bright that we would be willing to rest our case upon this factor alone.

THAT SOVIET DOVE AGAIN

J. A. Livingston Detroit Forecasting Another Big Year

Frederic G. Donner, chairman of the board of General Motors Corp., and Lynn A. Townsend, president of Chrysler, have much in common. They both went to the University of Michigan and both trained as accountants.

But this won't explain the cohesion in their forecasts of passenger car sales for 1965 and their wide separation from Henry Ford II, chairman of the Ford Motor Co.

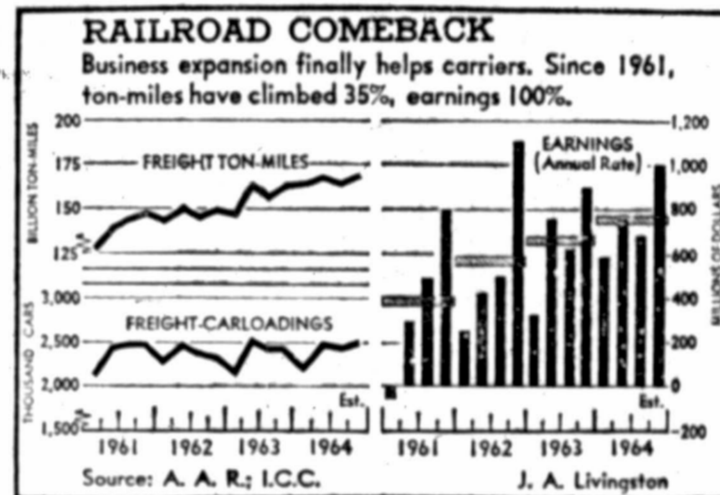

Roy Abernethy, president of American Motors Corp., and an energetic salesman by training, is closer to Donner and Townsend than to Ford. Here are the sales projections: Ford, 8,700,000; Abernethy, 8,200,000; Townsend, 8,000,000; Donner, 7,800,000.

DONNER'S figure can be stretched to 8,100,000, the expected total for this year. He said that 1965 sales could well "exceed the long-term estimate of 7,800,000 passenger cars and approximately the levels reached in 1964." Abernethy's forecast also had some upside elasticity. He said retail sales should surpass the 1964 total.

It isn't important who is high, low, or on-the-butt ultimately. What matters is that the automobile industry is betting on another year of continued prosperity. As goes the nation, so goes autos! Thus the forecasts suggest another climb to all-time highs in production, employment, and retail sales.

Here is how recent passenger car sales compare with 1965 projections: 1962, 7,000,000; 1963, 7,700,000; 1964, 8,100,000; 1965, 8,200,000; (Average of four forecasts)

CURRENT optimism in Detroit is based on the spurt in recent sales in early December. This could be misleading. The strikes at G. M. and Ford deprived dealers of inventories.

Sales were lost. Now, they're being regained.

Result: A transfer of 1965-model volume from 1964 to the early months of 1965. This could result in a spring bulge and a summer slump in production and sales. Alert businessmen and analysts will want to bear this possibility in mind.

Most economists, even those who are optimistic, ask one basic question: What's to keep prosperity percolating?

THEY RECOGNIZE that industrial production is at a new high, fully recovered from the October strikes in autos. The Federal Reserve Board index hit 134.9 in November. This compares with 131.7 in October and 134.0 in September. But they also realize that some of the strength in the index could be false: Buying in anticipation of a steel strike.

The current economic expansion is now in its 47th month. It has extended nearly 60 percent longer than the average up-cycle (30 months). It's the longest peacetime recovery in our economic annals. Therefore you can argue: It's bound to tire — to run out of steam.

PROSPERITY can be contagious. It courses through the economy unpredictably, enriching the forgotten children of commerce. Even railroads are participating. Net operating earnings this year may reach $750,000,000, just about double the total of three years ago (see chart).

And this has its impact. For years, many railroads slumped on maintenance because of a squeeze on earnings and cash reserves. Now, they are making up for deferred upkeep.

Twice as many freight cars are on order now in 1962, and 50 percent more locomotives. And freight cars (like truck trailers) are getting larger. They handle bigger loads at lower costs.

THIS IMPROVEMENT is reflected in the SEC-Commerce estimates of railroad plant and equipment expenditures. For next year, they'll approach $1,750,000,000. Yet, as recently as 1960 they spent only a third of that.

The railroads aren't the propulsive force in the economy that they used to be, but they are an object lesson in how prosperity broadens — feeds on itself.

This, apparently, is what Ford, Donner, Townsend and Abernethy anticipated — that capital expansion, in general, will keep the boom going.

Around The Rim Something Happened That Night

The name doesn't matter, but you would have to know something about me to get the background on this amazing story I have to tell. I'm a tracer, working through the Judean area. I know the people there well. I have my contacts with the caravans that come up from Egypt, with those who receive items off the ships from Greece. I know what these people want to take back, as well as what they want to barter with the Judeans.

THIS SOUNDS like ordinary trade, which it is. Only a couple of things had been developing over a period of time; then these came to a climax. The two things I refer to are the continued oppression of this area by the Roman dictators, and a sort of ground swell of talk — or perhaps feeling — among some of the Jews that their Messiah would come any time.

The climax came when the Romans handed down the order that there was to be a head count and a tax-take from everybody in the country — and everybody had to return to his ancestral hearth for this.

TALK ABOUT commotion, confusion, hardships, ouster! There may never have been anything like it. But the oppressed people did as they were told. At the time this was taking place, I was scheduled to be in Bethlehem. It's a little place, with not the beginning of accommodations for the crowds that had to return there.

ONE INN there was, and it a small one. Naturally, it had been reserved completely long in advance, and naturally the officials and the rich got first call on the best quarters.

People who had any room in their homes opened them up to the transients. Many visitors had to camp on the hills. I couldn't tell you how some of them ever slept or ate.

I DIDN'T hear until later that the caves where small animals normally are stabled were put to use by some people.

What I remember most was the one night. I had been visiting among many of the tribesmen I knew, when the word got round that some shepherds from the hills had come into town in great haste, and were asking about the birth of a King. This seemed a little silly, and some thought the shepherds were either drunk or out of their minds. A King born in this place, under circumstances like this, and on a night like this?

Later on, though, gossip trickled around the campfires that the shepherds had gone to the stable connected with the inn. That they had indeed found a young girl in there who had just given birth to a baby boy. That she had managed to wrap the infant and place it in a hay-softened manger. The shepherds themselves must have been satisfied with what they found, but nobody else understood it.

Another thing about the night was the Star. I say "the star" because nothing like it had ever been seen in the skies before. Again, a lot of rumor had it that there was blinding light out in the hills, but this sounded too fantastic for truth.

I DID SEE the Star, though, and I do know the shepherds came, and didn't seem so insane when they left. Most of all, I sensed something there in Bethlehem that night. I sensed things like calmness, like hope, like eternal brightness, like — well, like inner peace. I sensed that the world would never be the same again.

Strange for a worldly trader to be saying such things? Sure, but I told you this was an amazing story. All the more amazing is that it's true.

—BOB WHIPKEY

Get That Good Feeling

We wish there were some way to lay upon your heart the urgency of the need of the Salvation Army for funds to finance its Christmas charities.

This mission of mercy does not come out of the regular budget of the Salvation Army. Every penny of it must come from the gifts that are dropped into the kettles or which may be designated for the purpose.

The amount of Christmas cheer which can be spread stands entirely upon the amount of help each of us gives for this purpose.

This year offerings have been seriously short—just at a time when the needs are desperately long.

There remain four days before Christmas—four days of opportunity for you to help yourself to a good conscience on Christmas Day. Every penny is needed, but pennies won't get you much peace of mind. Put in some folding money; put in enough to get that good feeling of knowing you are really sharing with another.

If Burch, Then Goldwater

WASHINGTON — Senator Barry Goldwater regards the fight to remove Dean Burch as national chairman of the Republican party as a move to repudiate not only the Republican presidential nominee but also all those who worked for him in the recent election campaign.

The Arizona senator, in an interview published this week in "U. S. News & World Report," was asked what is behind the fight against Mr. Burch. Mr. Goldwater said:

"Let's face it — a vote of no confidence would be aimed right at me, and at millions of people who have been working their hearts out in this party for what they believe in."

THIS VIEW has been eorrorated unwittingly by Governor William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, who, in a speech a few days ago in New York, said with reference to the removal of Mr. Burch as national chairman:

"The unhappy impression is abroad in the land today that the Republican party has tended toward a policy of exclusion, rather than inclusion. At this time and in this context of exclusion, I would favor replacing the national chairman even if he agreed absolutely and completely with me on every issue, on every philosophical detail. Whether he is a conservative or a liberal or a moderate or a right-handed fiddle player, the national chairman must step down because that's the only way we can begin to say to Americans that we truly want to become a broad-based, majority party."

BUT THE split in the Republican party is far from being repaired. Mr. Goldwater gives no sign of retreating or surrendering on policies or viewpoints which he has expressed. He feels that he was beaten not entirely by the Democrats, but by fellow Republicans. He declared in the magazine interview:

"Now, the reasons for the loss of the campaign go way past him (Dean Burch). He just happens to be the man who was chairman. He's been doing a fine job, and he should be given the chance to show what he can really do, with a little time to do it. . . ."

"FRANKLY, I think that I was beaten July 15. . . . The events leading up to the convention — not the convention itself, but the culmination, when Rockefeller and George Romney — not Scranton so much, because Scranton pitched in — when they refused to back the ticket, except by voice in Rockefeller's case. I think that made it virtually impossible for us to do anything to retain the Republicans, that they, seemingly, influenced by the bomb scare and the Social Security scare."

IN 1912, the regular Republicans nominated William Howard Taft, but the "progressives" disagreed, organized their own party and nominated Theodore Roosevelt. Naturally, the three-party election meant a split Republican vote and a sure victory for the Democrats. It took four years for the Republicans to get together again, and in 1916 they were united when they nominated Charles Evans Hughes, who was then a justice on the Supreme Court. Maybe the Republicans will again have to set someone who has not participated in the party battles of 1964 to be their next nominee.

Billy Graham

Since I became a Christian my friends criticize me and tend to ignore me, making me unhappy. What can I do?—H. B.

Two things I would like to say to you. First, the Christian life is not popular. "All that will live Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." Jesus said: "Straight is the gate and narrow is the way that leads to life, and few there be that find it." To live for Christ means, not only, . . . that we accept all that is good, but that we reject all that is evil. It is only natural that we draw some jibes from those who have set no high moral standards for themselves. A good life is always a rebuke to those who live carelessly.

Second, I would guard against a piety that makes people too uncomfortable in your presence. Don't fall into the snobbery of the Pharisees, which says, "I thank God that I am not as other men." Always remember that you are what you are by the Grace of God. Be radiant, be optimistic, be friendly. This can be done without compromising your convictions. When your friends see that you are sincere, many of them will admire you for your courage and faith. "Be not weary in well doing."

To Your Good Health Exercise In Moderation Can Be Helpful

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is there an explanation for this?—After strenuous (now-and-then) exercise, my husband is not bothered with stiff muscles, whereas I am—even after gardening or similar activity for several days in a row, or after less strenuous exertion. In fact, my muscles feel stiff and painful after a ride in the car of a few hours, or after sitting in a chair for that length of time.

We are both in our mid 50's. I am moderately arthritic and rather tense. My husband is in excellent health.—MRS. D.K.C.

Arbitrary and sudden devotion to strenuous exercise can be harmful. The abrupt (and brief) vogue a short time ago of attempting 50 - mile walks was silly. A person in good training would, of course, walk 50 miles without any damage, except, maybe blisters.

But for somebody who is not in training, and is old enough to know better, such a walk could be harmful. Exercise (like ipecac, mashed potatoes, TV, watching or even good advice) must be used in moderation. Too much can be disastrous. But a moderate amount, under the right circumstances, can be very helpful indeed.

I can't look at a person and tell him how much exercise will be good for him, or how much is too much. Neither can anyone else.

This depends on too many things. A bright scientist, aged 40, could be crippled by 60 seconds of participation in professional football. A player in training thrives on a game every week, plus all the practice sessions.

When under stress, the muscles are a virtual cauldron of chemical activity. Exertion produces fatigue and sometimes aches. This depends on whether your system has the ability to dispose of these acids.

Someone who walks a mile a day, briskly, for years, can tolerate a walk of several times that much on occasion. His chemical balance is in adjustment. Besides, he knows how to walk easily without abnormal tension. He doesn't "hate every step of it."

Regular exercise is good. Keep it modest in respect to your limitations. Gradually you can absorb, and benefit by, somewhat more. Don't hurry it. Don't overdo it. But make it a daily practice. That's what really helps you.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is myopia? Can a girl having this wear contact lenses? When will the progress of the myopia stop?—J.K.

Myopia is near - sightedness. Yes, contact lenses can be worn. Whether the myopia progresses or stops is not predictable, but in any event, vision can be corrected with glasses of conventional or contact types.

What about constipation? Many can be relieved of it, both mentally and physically, by reading the booklet "The Way to Stop Constipation." For a copy write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and 50 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Marquis Childs Nasser Plays Hand With Skill

CAIRO—In the year now ending Egypt has been the setting for two Arab summit conferences and one nonaligned conference of 47 Asian and African heads of government. Both Moscow and Peking have sent their principal persuaders on missions to Cairo.

This is a measure of the skill with which President Gamal Abdel Nasser has played his hand. Against the background of a nation desperately overpopulated, living on the razor edge of hunger, it is a brilliant performance.

NASSER MEANS to make himself the undisputed leader of the non-aligned bloc, which has close to a majority in the United Nations. And his driving ambition puts him more often than not in partnership with Moscow.

For American policy-makers Nasser over the last decade has been a baffling, frustrating opponent who cannot be pinned with one tag or another.

WITH THE burning of the United States Information Service Library and its 26,000 volumes by so-called African students — a plot obviously planned with full knowledge of the techniques of arson—the hand may have been overplayed. Ever since the fire and a subsequent stern protest by Ambassador Lucius Battle, the Cairo press has been conspicuously free of the violent anti-Americanism that reached a peak just before the book-burning.

Since 1952 Egypt has had $1,200,000,000 in American aid, most of it in surplus food, which comes in today at the rate of $140,000,000 a year. This helps free scarce foreign exchange for industrialization and the military buildup. The government has requested an increase next year, with supplementary means, to relieve acute food shortages.

IF THIS HELP were withdrawn by Congress as a consequence of the outrage against the library, it would be a blow, but, in the view of long-time observers, not an irreparable blow.

Nasser has the power to take damaging reprisals. He could deny American oil tankers carrying the wealth of the Arab oil fields the use of the Suez Canal.

OIL IS the be all and end all of the American presence in the Arab world. Aramco's investment of more than a billion dollars in Saudi Arabia is said to be the largest overseas stake. With no oil as yet discovered in Egypt, Nasser nevertheless has demonstrated his shrewdness by promoting the line that Arab oil, wherever it is found, belongs to all the 90,000,000 Arabs.

Recently two American companies, Phillips Petroleum and Pan-American, a subsidiary of Standard of Indiana, have signed an exploitation contract with the Egyptian government calling for expenditure of $75,000,000 over 10 years and a 50-50 sharing of any discoveries.

THE NONALIGNED conference last October took a strong stand for peaceful coexistence and general disarmament and against "neo-colonialism" and all foreign bases. Neo-colonialism means any economic interest of the Western powers in any former colony. This was echoed loudly in the speech that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko gave at the U.N. General Assembly recently. By coincidence or design, the wave length appears to be the same; and this for the West is one of the great imponderables in reckoning the role of a figure who claims a place in the center of the world stage, if only by reason of his own skillful strategy.

Stay In Hospital Over For U Thant

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant left the hospital Friday where he underwent successful treatment for a peptic ulcer. He will spend about a week at home before returning to his office at U.N. headquarters. Aides said he will conduct some U.N. business from his home.

Weather Grounds Private Aircraft

By M. A. WEBB
As this is written the thermometer on the ground was hanging around 26 degrees or lower, depending on the elevation. But pilots venturing aloft Friday afternoon said they did not have to get far off the ground to run into 65 degree temperatures. It's quite possible we'll have more sleet, freezing rain, or a little snow—at least Friday. Howard Loyd, manager, said this was the third trip for Warrant Officer Hanson, one of the pilots. Incidentally Hanson received his flight training at Webb Air Force Base and was an Air Force sergeant. He transferred into the Army and is now a warrant officer assigned to Bell Helicopter.

Now, there are two more pilots holding commercial licenses out at Howard County. Charles Simmons, of the Big Spring Flying Club got his Sunday, and Buster Weaver of the same club received his Monday. Congratulations!

Webb Aero Club members using the two Cessnas during the week were: Cessna 150—Whitlock, Spence, Brown, Took, Pagan; Cessna 172 — Thomas (cross country), Green, Lambert (cross country through Jan. 3.) Big Spring Flying Club members up were: Colt—Weaver (1 and cross country), Faulkner, Stanley; Skyhawk — Jo Polone, Simmons (cross country), Clayton Bettle (2-day cross country).

The only pilot using the Howard County Flying Club's Colt was McRae for a 2-day cross country.

Transient flying at the airport has been practically nil this week. Although no promise of any certain kind of weather has come through for the Christmas weekend, several have signed up airplanes for cross country flights for the entire weekend, or even longer.

IN THE WAKE OF A SONG

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Carols in the night... the old story made ever new again... the love for the Christ Child, poignant, deep... the nostalgia of past Christmases remembered. In the wake of a song, "Silent Night, Holy Night," all this comes to mind. And we endow Christmas with the trappings of holly and mistletoe, the flash of bright red ribbons, the glitter of the tinsel on the tree. Yet, south of the Equator, Christmas comes in mid-summer. There is no holly, no mistletoe, and there's not apt to be a tree. But it is Christmas just the same. This is not merely a season, this time of the birth of Christ. It is much, much more. To understand it fully... to see it in its entirety... turn to the Church.

Forsan Yule Program Set

All of the students in the elementary grades and almost half of those in the high school will take part in a special Christmas program Monday at Forsan.

"The Christmas Wish," a play, is the highlight of the program, and in which all the elementary-age children will have a part. The high school choir will add spice to the program, with 44 voices.

The program will be staged at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium, and there is no charge. All patrons of the school district are urged to attend.

Mrs. Charles McQuaid is general director and choir director for the program. Mrs. Arnie Walker and Mrs. Ronnie Gandy, first and second grade teachers, are working with the cast.

Members of the play's cast include Tommy Crane, Jeanette Rutherford, Charles Richardson, Karen Lawson, and Phillis Bronaugh.

Trio Explores Moon's Interior

Internationally speaking, the race to the moon may be on, but, cinematically, it already has been won. In fact, "First Men IN the Moon," at the State Theatre starting Thursday, is the story of the landing of Earthmen — and a woman! — on that satellite some 65 years ago.

"First Men IN the Moon" is based on the H. G. Wells science-fiction adventure tale, with Edward Judd, Martha Hyer and Lionel Jeffries as the Earth trio who make the journey to the moon in what is reported to be one of the most unusual spacecrafts ever assembled.

The new Columbia Pictures release is set in the near future, when a United Nations space-ship reaches the moon and its astronauts discover evidence of an earlier landing. Investigators on Earth locate an old man who insists he actually had been on, and in, the moon more than 60 years before. With him had been his fiancée and a research scientist.

Cavor, the scientist, had discovered an anti-gravity substance; with it, and with a specially-constructed iron sphere, the trip to the moon was made. Deep in the crystal caverns of the moon, these first space travelers find a strange anti-like people they call Selenites, and a gastropod moon-beast. Their adventures are numerous, and they end with the return to earth of the engaged couple.

The making of "First Men IN the Moon" utilizes the special effects process called Dyanimation developed by Ray Harryhausen, who also worked on the film as associate producer. Harryhausen's special effects have been used in several of Schneer's earlier successful productions. In this latest picture, he had to create a complete lunar world including Wells' race of moon creatures. It took six months of pre-production work, and 12 weeks of filming.

Jeffries, the British character actor whose versatility has put him in the Peter Sellers class, portrays Wells' famous scientist, Joseph Cavor. Judd, who recently was seen in a top role in "The Long Ships," plays the man who tells the story and beautiful blonde Martha Hyer is the third member of the star trio who plays Kate Callender, his American fiancée, a new character written into the H. G. Wells story.

Film Looks To Future Horror

One of the most imagination-challenging fantasies of science fiction — that of traveling to the future via a mechanical device — is brought to life on the screen in "The Time Travelers."

The color science fiction thriller, opening today at the Ritz Theatre, stars Preston Foster, Philip Carey, John Hoyt and Merry Anders.

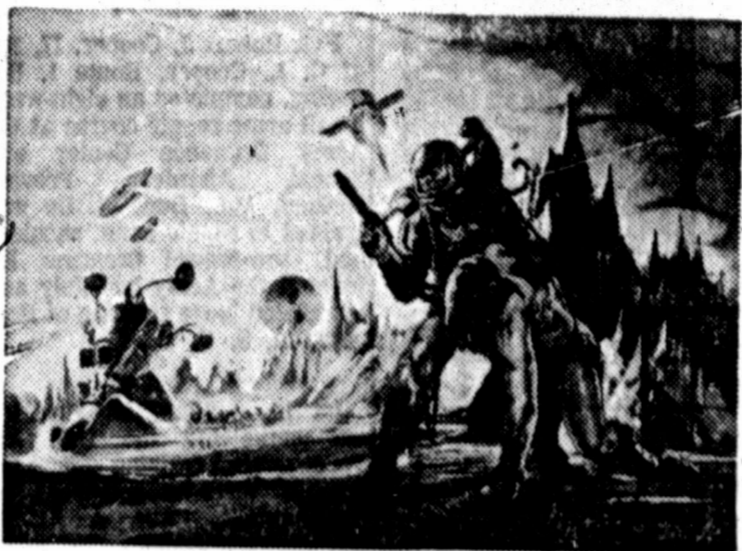

In "The Time Travelers," a group of scientists try to perfect a machine which will enable them to look into the future. Instead of creating a window, they find that they have a doorway to the future through which they can pass!

What happens when they pass through more than a hundred years of future time makes one of the most exciting and unusual thrillers ever made.

Classic Retold In Space Age Motif

There have been many science-fiction movies about space travel, but "Robinson Crusoe on Mars," which opens Saturday at the Jet Theatre, is not fiction or fantasy, it is "science fact." The film is not a pipe dream with horrendous monsters or Mars maidens—it is simply and faithfully an updated version of Daniel Defoe's literary classic of 1719.

Starring Paul Mantel, Vic Lundin, Adam West and Mona (The Woolly Monkey), "Robinson Crusoe on Mars" is an adventure film which presents the space-age Crusoe as a U.S. astronaut stranded on Mars, and his subsequent fights for survival in that alien atmosphere without oxygen, food or water.

The story begins with the U.S. spaceship, Elinor M., circling Mars on the first official probe to test the planet's gravity.

Aboard are Colonel Dan McReady (Adam West), Commander Christopher "Kit" Draper (Paul Mantel) and Mona (The Woolly Monkey), a monkey space suited for medical research.

McReady and Draper suddenly realize that their craft is on collision course with a gigantic meteor. In a split-second evasive action the spacecraft swings too far off course and is dragged inexorably down by the Mars gravitational pull. McReady and Draper separately abandon ship with McReady taking charge of Mona.

Despite its retro rockets, Draper's ejection capsule crashes on landing, wrecking the craft and leaving food and water for only a few days. Exhausted, Draper falls asleep only to wake up suffocating for lack of air. Without oxygen he can sleep only an hour.

Draper sets out to find McReady but in his search only locates Mona. With no more than a few hours of oxygen, Draper seems doomed. Light headed, he passes out but is miraculously saved when little yellow rocks, burning and giving off bursts of gas, revive him. This gas is pure oxygen and Draper devises a method to feed the oxygen into his regular tank.

Sometime later, a spacecraft appears over Mars and then lands. Draper, sure he is being rescued, runs to the ship only to discover that it is not from the U.S., or even the Earth.

STAMP NEWS

Children's Day Series Features India's Nehru

By SYD KRONISH
India has issued a new stamp in its Children's Day Series depicting the late Prime Minister Pandit Nehru, reports the World Wide Philatelic Agency. This is the second time this year that the late Prime Minister has been featured on an Indian stamp. The first such stamp was in memoriam. The new adhesive illustrates the Nehru Memorial Medal. The profile likeness is rare to those outside of India who have never seen a reproduction of Nehru without his hat.

The new 5-cent U.S. postage stamp issued on Dec. 15 honors the nation's 250,000 amateur radio operators. First-day ceremonies were in Anchorage, Alaska. The tribute goes to another chapter in a long public service record by maintaining communications following the recent earthquake.

The stamp commemorates the 50th anniversary of the founding of the American Radio Relay League.

The United Nations Postal Administration announced its 1964 souvenir folder is now on sale. The cost is $1.90 each, plus return postage. Each folder contains a mint single of every U.N. stamp issued during the year. The front cover shows an enlargement of the 50 cent definitive stamp designed by Hatim El Mekki of Tunisia. The reverse side has a representative group of United Nations stamps.

Minkus Publications reports it has prepared a complete set of pages to accommodate all of the Eleanor Roosevelt stamps (issued up to the beginning of November). They will include spaces for all the stamps issued in her honor as "Defender of Human Rights" and for her fight against cancer. The 12 fully illustrated pages are punched to fit standard three-ring binders. The price is 75 cents and may be obtained from your local stamp dealer.

Luxembourg has issued a set of stamps commemorating the accession to the throne of HIRH the Grand Duke Jean of Luxembourg. The denominations are 3 francs and 6 francs. Featured is a portrait of the royal couple with the Grand Duchess Josephine-Charlotte on the left. In the upper right is the royal crown. The design was reproduced from a photo by the court photographer Edouard Kutter Jr.

'Run Of The Arrow' Coming To Jet

"Run of the Arrow" comes to the screen at the Jet Theatre Saturday with Rod Steiger, Sarita Montiel, Brian Keith and Ralph Meeker in top starring roles.

Surfers Star In Jet Film

"Ride the Wild Surf," opening Wednesday at the Jet Theatre, is reported to be one of the most entertaining motion picture in years. Impressive, because of its spectacular background and theme — the 40-foot waves of exotic Oahu Island, in Hawaii, which challenge the surfing enthusiasts from all over the world. Entertaining, because of the youth, beauty and talent of its cast.

Starred are Tab Hunter, Fabian, Shelley Fabares, Barbara Eden, Peter Brown, Anthony Hayes, Susan Hart and James Mitchum as Eskimo. All the men play surfers, in Hawaii to test their skill against the waves and each other. The girls are there on vacation, because they like surfing and swimming, because the men are there, too.

Hunter, Fabian and Brown play ardent surfers with differing backgrounds and problems. Hunter is an automobile repairman who believes there can be more to life, and he hopes to find it; Fabian, a youth completely uncertain of himself and of the future; Brown, a stodgy, conservative scion of wealth able to relax only when he is on a surfboard. Mitchum plays Eskimo, the taciturn, bulldog-like champion of the surfers whose nickname derives from the coldness with which he meets any attempt at friendliness.

DEAR ABBY

Obviously In Wrong Place

DEAR ABBY: My husband died in 1951 and he left in excess of $700,000, and I was cheated out of every dime of it. None of the lawyers in this town will touch my case with a ten-foot pole. My husband had liver trouble. He was operated on for it, and his doctor told me himself that the operation was successful, but in nine days my husband was dead! I refused to pay the bill because that doctor had lied to me. When my husband's will was read I was cut out of it except for a few dollars I was supposed to live on. When I protested, they tried to prove that I was crazy. They are still trying to prove it. His sisters got everything. THEY are the crazy ones. Money crazy! Can you help me get out of here?

DEAR CHEATED: Where are you?

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this boy for two years and we recently became engaged. He suddenly was notified that he has an opportunity to go to West Point. I knew he always wanted a military career, but I never thought he'd get an appointment to West Point. If he goes, it means we can't get married for four years. I plan to go to college, and the thought of my sitting in the dorm for four years does not appeal to me. I love him, Abby, but I don't know whether to let him accept this appointment or not. I am 19 and he is 20. This is quite a shock to me as it wasn't in our plans. I would like some advice about what to do.

UPSET
DEAR UPSET: If you really loved him, you'd not only "let" him accept the appointment, you'd encourage him, knowing that he always wanted an Army career. Your chief concern seems to be the unhappy prospect of "sitting in the dorm for four years." A career man's wife needs more understanding than you appear to have. Level with him. And ask him to level with you. I think you could both probably do better in the choice of lifetime partners.

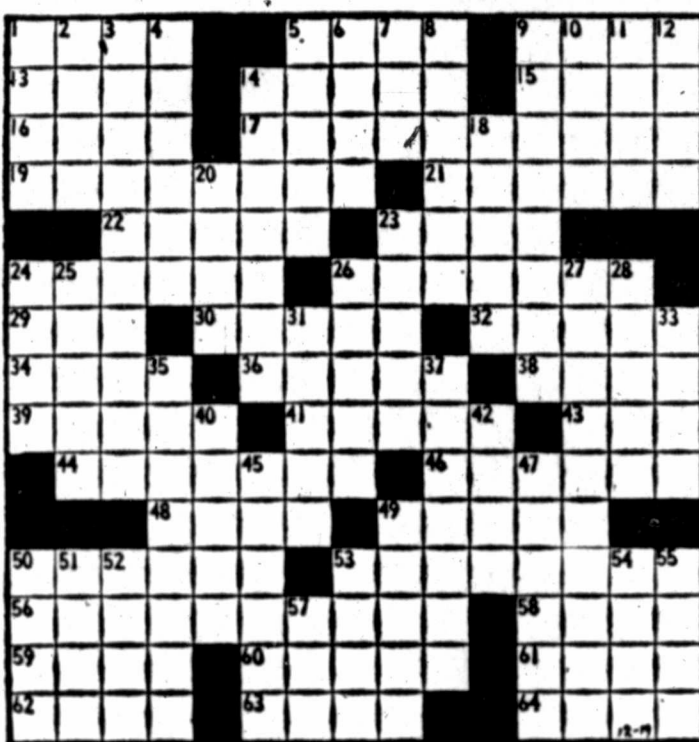

DEAR ABBY: I just found out that my girl friend kept a diary of our dates and she wrote a bunch of stuff in it that never happened. It was all out of her imagination. Her mother read it and now she refuses to let me date her. Abby, we never did anything wrong. What can I do?

NOT GUILTY
DEAR NOT GUILTY: Proclaim your innocence and hope her mother believes you. And next time you become interested in a girl who goes in for creative writing, suggest she use an outlet other than her diary for her talents.
