Did Intuition Of Tragedy Still Her Heart?

Shortly after the Rev. Oscar O. Molsenbaker and wife (left) died in an auto crash near their Paramount, Calif., home, a neighbor—Mrs. Ruth Altman (right), 75—received a telephone call and fell over dead of a heart attack. Her husband believed the caller was asking Mrs. Altman, a close friend of the dead couple, to advise the Molsenbaker children of their parents' death. But a newspaper reporter who made the phone call says he didn't mention the death—only asked the name of the minister's church. (AP WIRE-PHOTO)

AEC Fuming Over Claim It's Obsolete

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission is fuming almost as hotly as a split atom over suggestions that it is administratively disorganized, plagued by discord, becoming downgraded in government stature—and running out of things to do.

Vigorously denying any such ideas, the AEC also says that things are going so well under its present five-member set-up that there's no member a-fowl within the commission—as there was a couple of years ago—to have the agency changed to a single-administrator type of operation.

Finally, Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the agency, says he knows of no basis for suggestion that the AEC feels subservient to the Joint Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee—that is, suggestions that the AEC feels compelled to take unusual steps in carrying out its legal responsibilities to the committee.

Seaborg, a Nobel Prize winner who is top man in the nation's $3-billion-a-year, 7,300-employee atomic enterprise, was particularly forceful during an interview in challenging any idea that the AEC is headed over the hill into obsolescence, largely because it has built up a stockpile of nuclear weapons and so much fissionable materials that production cut-backs already have been ordered.

"The AEC's functions have been more diverse," he said, "and that speaks to the point: 'Is the AEC obsolete?'"

"Never have we had a more diverse operation in the whole history of the commission."

And the AEC as a whole, contends that it has a host of big jobs still on its calendar—ranging from the quest to take the salt out of seawater to developing "a wide variety of nuclear weapons."

India Pulls Swift Arrests Of Reds

Plotters Pulled Out Of Beds

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Hundreds of Communists throughout India were arrested before dawn today.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's government said the Reds had been "preparing for violence" and "acting as a fifth column"—apparently meaning they had been working for Communist China.

The government, which faces a close election contest with the Communists in Kerala State, hauled Red leaders out of bed in closely coordinated raids all across the country.

Rome Rim Flooded

ROME (AP) — A branch of the Tiber River overflowed Tuesday night, sending waters five feet deep over a wide area on the northern edge of Rome. Firemen and police moved 200 persons, many of them living in makeshift barracks, to safety.

Rivers and streams spilled over in the countryside around Naples and throughout Sicily, causing extensive crop damage.

TWO YANKS CAPTURED, 2 KILLED

Viet Reds Unleash Onslaught On Town

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Government forces recaptured the district capital of Binh Nghia today, but the Viet Cong captured two U.S. enlisted men and wiped out nearly two companies of government troops.

Two other U.S. soldiers, members of the Special Forces, were killed Tuesday night in another action 30 miles north of Saigon. Their deaths brought to 241 the number of Americans killed in combat since December 1961.

Thirteen Americans now are missing.

YANKS WOUNDED
Six U.S. servicemen also were wounded in the three-day battle for Binh Nghia, 40 miles east of Saigon. Fighting still flickered Wednesday evening, but the Viet Cong was believed to have made its final onslaught on the town.

At the peak of the fighting some 1,200 government troops faced about the same number of Communists, making it one of the largest engagements in Viet Nam in the past four years.

Three U.S. helicopters were shot down Tuesday.

The town, jammed with 6,000 Roman Catholic refugees from Communist North Viet Nam, was occupied by the Viet Cong on Dec. 5 but government forces drove them out.

A powerful Viet Cong unit overran Binh Nghia again Monday. Two government Ranger companies tried to re-enter the town but were driven out. U.S. helicopters poured in troops Tuesday for the final assault.

SEETHING BATTLE
In a seething battle around the town Tuesday, 175 battle-hardened Vietnamese Rangers were pinned down by the Viet Cong. This unit suffered at least 24 killed and an unknown number of wounded and missing.

Many of the missing were seen being led off as captives of the Viet Cong. Among them were two American advisers.

In Saigon, a number of officials said they believed another coup attempt was afoot.

Living Cost Increase Laid Largely To Autos

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs, heavily influenced by strikes in the automobile industry, rose two-tenths of one percent last month, the Labor Department reported today.

"The increase was caused in large part by higher prices for new and used cars," stemming from the strikes against General Motors and Ford, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

The increase brought the government's consumer price index to 108.7. This means it cost $10.87 last month to buy goods that cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period.

Prices for housing, clothing and medical fees also contributed to the November increase.

The rise in the index was the eighth monthly increase this year, and brought it to 1.2 percent above November of 1963.

LBJ Confidant Heads New Firm

JOHNSON CITY (AP) — A long-time confidant to President Johnson—A. W. Moursund—is president of a newly chartered investment firm that plans to lend to "anything that would make money."

Moursund, a Johnson City lawyer who is the principal trustee of the President's family business interests, is the top officer of the $300,000 Highland Lakes Capital Corporation.

GRANTED CHARTER
The firm may start lending money in a month or two, said R. E. Stubbs Jr. of Johnson City, treasurer and one of three incorporators of Highland Lakes.

Records at the Texas secretary of state's office indicate that the third incorporator is Thomas C. Ferguson, Moursund's law partner. The state granted the firm its charter July 1.

Its dealings will be confined to Texas, according to its articles of confederation, and it is organized and chartered to do business under the federal Small Business Investment Act of 1953.

Richard E. Kelly, SBA deputy administrator, said in Washington that the Highland Lakes application was received in November of 1963. He added that on July 6 of this year, a moratorium was put into effect on issuing new licenses for such firms until new chartering procedures could be worked out.

NEW STANDARDS
Kelly said new standards were completed by October and the freeze lifted. Of some 25 applications on hand at the time of the freeze, he said, 14—including Highland Lakes—had reached such a state of development that their applications went through under the old rules.

Border Patrol Building Slated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The architectural firms of Adams & Adams, and Moffatt D. Adams of San Antonio, have been selected by the General Services Administration to design a border patrol headquarters at McAllen. The building will cost some $649,000.

MUST TAKE SIDES SOON

GOP Power Fight Bloc Uncommitted

WASHINGTON (AP) — An estimated 30 to 40 members who have declined to commit themselves seemed likely today to hold the balance of power in the fight between Reps. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana and Gerald R. Ford of Michigan for the House GOP leadership.

They may take sides between now and next Monday morning when the 140 House Republicans meet to elect their leader.

Neither Halleck, the floor leader since 1959, nor Ford, chairman of the Republican conference, would make any public predictions about the outcome. Each previously has said he expects to win.

NEED 71
Assuming all 140 Republicans attend Monday's session, the winner would need at least 71 votes. Voting is by secret ballot and a last-minute switch in promised support could not be detected.

Following a strategy session Tuesday in Ford's office, one of his lieutenants who preferred not to be identified said there were about 30 or 40 members who thus far are uncommitted.

Even without them, he said, "Ford will make a respectable showing and I think he will win."

A Halleck aide agreed with the figures but predicted Halleck would come out on top by a slim margin.

SUPPORT FORD
Included in the group of uncommitted members are some of the "Wednesday Morning Club" composed of moderate-liberals expected to support Ford.

This group of about 20 younger Republicans wants more recognition in party councils and may use its position for bartering purposes. One of its leaders admitted conferred Tuesday with both Ford and Halleck but insisted that no deals had been made or suggested.

The Wednesday Morning Club members plan a final huddle perhaps as late as Sunday.

Whoever is elected floor leader will have much to say about three other leadership positions—party whip, conference chairman and policy committee chairman.

High Federal Position Eyed For Tennessee Ex-Governor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reports circulated today in political, government and farm circles that President Johnson will name former Tennessee Gov. Buford Ellington as secretary or undersecretary of agriculture.

Some sources said Ellington may be named to a high advisory post at the White House.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation reportedly was making a check on him of the type that is routine for possible appointees to high government posts.

VISITS RANCH
Ellington returned to Tennessee Tuesday night after visiting Johnson at his Texas ranch. He said he usually makes such a visit during the holidays. In reply to a question, he said he had no plans to leave Tennessee at this time.

KEEP BOTH?
At the Agriculture Department, top officials said they believed that Johnson will keep both Freeman and Murphy.

But some farm leaders with close connections in Ellington's home state said they believe that if he came here, it would be as secretary of agriculture.

At one time Ellington was associated with activities of the Farm Bureau, the big farm organization which has been highly critical of farm policies advanced so far by the Kennedy-Johnson administration.

Ellington, 57, is a Democrat and has a farm background. He was reared on one, operated one, and served as Tennessee's commissioner of agriculture from 1953 to 1958. He was elected to a four-year term as governor in 1958.

Four years ago he figured in speculation about appointment as secretary of agriculture in the Kennedy administration. He said then he intended to serve his full term as governor.

Ellington now is an executive of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad. He worked actively for Johnson in the Southeast during the recent presidential campaign.

At the Agriculture Department, top officials said they believed that Johnson will keep both Freeman and Murphy.

But some farm leaders with close connections in Ellington's home state said they believe that if he came here, it would be as secretary of agriculture.

Three Boys Die In Fire

FORT WORTH (AP)—Three small Negro boys died today when fire engulfed a South Side home.

Officers identified two of the children as the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCurren and the third as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Coleman.

The blaze broke out at the McCurren home.

Mrs. McCurren said she left the children, all of pre-school age, alone only briefly to go to the store.

"I wasn't gone but just a minute," she said. "When I came back, it was burning. I tried to get in there to them but I just couldn't."

The bodies were found on or near a sofa in the living room. Cause of the blaze was not determined immediately.

Pope Paul Invited To Fair In '65

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI was formally invited today to New York next summer to attend the World's Fair.

The invitation was presented to the Roman Catholic pontiff by Thomas J. Deegan Jr., chairman of the fair executive committee, during a Vatican audience.

Church Job Near Finish

RIPLEY, Miss. (AP) — The "Christmas Carpenters" hustled today to install windows, lights and a heater before their new church houses its first civil rights rally.

The "carpenters"—a group of college students—are rebuilding a rural Negro church which went up in flames last October after a similar civil rights session.

"The roof is almost completely finished," said David Reed, 21, of Littleton, Mass., an Oberlin student.

"The windows are in hand and most of the electrical wiring should be done by tonight," he added. "There will be light. We hope there also will be heat."

The speaker scheduled for the rally is the same who visited the church in the pre-fire rally—Fannie Lou Hamer of Ruleville.

U.S. APPEALS COURT Commentator's Suit Ordered Dismissed

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Sixth Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals ordered U.S. District Judge Noel Fox of Grand Rapids, Mich., today to dismiss a $1 million dollar libel suit filed by Dan Smoot, a Dallas, Texas, television commentator, against the Traverse City League of Women Voters.

Smoot had requested dismissal of the suit but his motion had been rejected by Judge Fox who ruled a dismissal would not have protected the rights of the defendants as evidenced by Smoot's refusal to sign a suggested settlement agreement.

The court of appeals ordered the case dismissed with prejudice which, court officials said, means it can not be filed again.

The appeals court said: "We find an abuse of discretion on the part of the respondent (Judge Fox) to deny the plaintiff's (Smoot) motion for dismissal of the action with prejudice. . . .

"In the interest of justice and in order to prevent conduct of an unnecessary trial . . . we grant the petition and order the respondent to dismiss the action with prejudice."

Straight-Up Takeoff Plane Passes First Flight Tests

DALLAS (AP)—A revolutionary transport aircraft that can take off and land vertically was put through its first flight tests

Tuesday. Officials at Ling-Temco-Vought, developers of the V-STOL plane, said the tests were "highly successful."

The initial hover flights were held to an altitude of only five feet, LTV spokesmen said. The tests were not announced in advance.

"There's little doubt the airplane can go ahead to perform the type of mission for which it was designed," said Lyman C. Josephs, LTV program director.

Design plans call for the V-STOL to attain speeds of 430 miles per hour once airborne.

The craft's wings can be tilted upward while the fuselage remains level. The thrust from the engines lifts the plane off the ground to a desired height and the wings can then be tilted back in place for conventional flight.

Man Quizzed In Slaying

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A Reynosa, Mexico, man was arrested in San Antonio Tuesday night for questioning in a Palestine, Tex., slaying as he stepped off a bus from the East Texas city.

A warrant was issued for the man's arrest in the death of Ascension Martinez, 35, who worked on a ranch near Palestine. The arrested man also had worked on the ranch.

Officers said Martinez' body was found Tuesday in a shallow grave on the ranch. They said Martinez apparently had been stabbed and had been dead several days. He was last seen alive Christmas Eve.

United Fund To Try Again

The United Fund will make another try.

Trustees of the organization were called Tuesday afternoon, ostensibly to consider a reduction in allotments to most member agencies, because the UF appeal this year did not meet the goal.

However, R. L. Tollett reported that he was conducting a special effort, and hoped within a few days to have commitments to raise the $10,000 necessary to meet all UF obligations for the year.

The group voted to postpone action on money distribution until this solicitation is completed.

The financial statement as of Dec. 29 showed $100,176.68 in pledges as against the quota of $109,366. There are uncollected pledges of $32,735.56, and while most of these come in on a monthly payment basis, some

HONG KONG Nobel Winner Guarded Heavily

HONG KONG (AP) — Hong Kong police threw a tight security screen today around Dr. Chen-Ning Yang, the Chinese-American Nobel Prize winner, and his family from Red China.

Yang, co-winner of the 1957 Nobel Prize in physics, came to the Hong Kong Chinese University for a brief lecture visit from his home in Princeton, N.J. The university confirmed today that his father, mother, brother and sister had joined him from Peking.

It was their first reunion in 19 years. Dr. Yang's father, Yang Ke-chuan, is a professor at the Tsing Hau University in Peking.

The arrival of Dr. Yang's parents aroused speculation in the Hong Kong press that the Chinese Communists were trying to woo the 42-year-old physicist back to China.

However, a spokesman for the university said the Yang family had come "just to visit their son—there is no political significance whatsoever to their visit here."

Personnel of the departments are presently being notified of the election which the state specified must be held after 90 days notice.

Police are presently under the Texas Municipal Retirement System and fire department personnel, with one exception, under the Firemen's Relief and Retirement Fund.

In the police balloting, the system will be adopted for all members of the department, if a majority approve it. However, in the fire department, those individuals who vote in favor of the system will be placed under it, and those voting against it will not.

The referendum had been requested by the city commission after some personnel of the two departments indicated a desire

Traffic Death Peak Expected

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic deaths in 1964 have hit record high marks in at least 21 states and safety experts estimate that the nation's final toll this year will reach an all-time high of 48,000.

An Associated Press survey showed that traffic fatalities in the 21 states surpassed old marks before or during the Christmas holiday weekend. The survey also showed that several other states may top old records.

The National Safety Council, which has estimated this year's traffic deaths at 48,000, said final figures will not be available until late next month. Last year's toll of 43,600 was an all-time high.

Forecasts through Thursday indicated a low in the mid-thirties, and highs for today and Thursday between 65 and 70.

Tiny Foundling Gains Weight

LORAIN — "Miss Merry Christmas," the infant found abandoned at Johnson Hospital here Saturday night, is paying more attention to her eating than to adoption offers and the growing education fund.

Dr. Bruce Johnson, hospital administrator, says the five-day-old "Merry" has already gained two ounces over the five pounds she weighed when found.

"She's eating like home folks," he said, "and the stranger about her no longer appear like strangers."

The education fund, which started early for the infant, is now up to $15 and the money is on time deposit at the First State Bank. A donation container is at the hospital for those interested in making contributions.

In the meantime the search goes on for her parents, but no clue as to their identity has been found.

Offers of adoption continue to pour in to the hospital, but final action on the move will have to await the return of District Judge Austin McCloud later this week.

Far West Flood Believed Worst

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Far West's "flood of a thousand years" entered the recovery stage today as 15,000 homeless families and hundreds of stricken farms and businesses dug out from nature's $1-billion blow.

"As far as the real emergency—that's over, right now," said Jim Morrison, Civil Defense spokesman at Eureka, Calif., in hard-hit Humboldt County.

The report was identical in the five flood-distressed states of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Nevada.

Helicopters and jeeps brought the first outside food supplies in a week Tuesday to the last known isolated pocket—500 persons stranded in lumbering villages west of Yreka, Calif., near the Oregon border.

"Everything's beginning to look a lot rosier," reported Bill Sowle, Yreka Civil Defense chief.

Dock Strike Threat Stays

GALVESTON (AP)—The federal government's mediator in the contract dispute between Gulf Coast longshoremen and shippers has asked the union's president to come to Texas to get negotiations off dead center.

A threat of a strike that could prompt a Maine-to-Texas port walkout continued to loom over this Texas coastal area as longshoremen worked on a day-to-day basis without a contract.

Asst. Labor Secretary James J. Reynolds said Tuesday night that Thomas W. Gleason, president of the International Longshoremen's Association, would arrive here from New York this afternoon.

Gleason was a key figure in ending a wildcat strike by longshoremen in New York last week, and in negotiating a new contract agreement between maritime and union leaders there.

Reynolds' move came after contract talks stalled here again Tuesday, less than an hour after they got under way for the first time in 10 days.

He said a controversy developed over whether ships in Gulf ports, primarily Houston, were receiving ample work out of longshoremen.

Shippers claimed the dockers weren't following an agreement they made last week to work as normal as long as contract negotiations continued. They said some work gangs would not report for work when asked, and if they did, they quit before work was completed.

Union leaders replied that this was not true. "If a shipper says he doesn't get the work he demands, we don't concur with his statement," Ralph A. Massey, president of the Gulf Coast ILA said.

Reynolds said that the bargaining committees could not begin discussing the real issues in the dispute until the dockwork problem was solved. He added that this was the reason he asked Gleason to come down.

The bargainers are at odds over a union demand for a minimum size of work gangs—groups of longshoremen that load and unload ships. Money and an effective date of the contract are also unsettled issues, Reynolds said.

Pardon Offenses, Pontiff Exhorts

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI, at his last general audience of 1964, urged Roman Catholics today to balance their "spiritual accounts" in the final hours of the old year, pardoning offenses and asking pardon.

Texas law which says it is against the public policy for employees to strike against any political subdivision of the state.

J. A. McMahon Jr., Local 458 business representative, said the union had no contract with the navigation district and had nothing to do with the men leaving their jobs.

McMahon said the crane operators were upset because Wiggins was fired for refusing to do the work of striking railroad men and walked off the job.

Meanwhile, the strike of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen against the Port Terminal Railway Association went into its 13th day today following another full day of negotiations between union and association representatives with James M. Holaren, a federal mediator.

to dig out," said Morrison. "No more people want to be evacuated. They want to be sustained where they are."

The flood, described by Department of Interior water specialists as probably the greatest ever experienced in the West, caused 19 known deaths in California and 18 in Oregon.

It carved federally designated disaster areas out of northern California, Oregon and Washington, where federal, local and charitable organizations are running emergency recovery centers on a "for-the-duration" basis.

California's damage was estimated at upwards of $500 million. In Oregon, many evacuees returned to devastation left by the Willamette River. Oregon's damage totaled $315 million in what Gov. Mark Hatfield terms his state's worst disaster.

At Reedsport, an estimated 1,500 persons were still receiving clothing and food from volunteer centers and the Red Cross. Several dozen homeless were bedded down at the Independence, Ore., city hall.

DISASTER LIST: In Washington, latest state to be added to the disaster list by President Johnson, most high-water problems have ended. No persons are known to be stranded.

The Yakima River in central Washington posed a potential threat because of two huge ice jams, one a mile long and the other three miles in length. Many passes in the Cascade Mountains remained closed by snow slides.

Washington estimated its damage at $7 million. In Idaho and Nevada, snow or cold weather prevailed, replacing flood conditions unusual for those areas. Rivers near normal levels.

Idaho estimated damage at $5 million. Nevada officials ventured no dollar estimate of damage. In Oregon and California refugee areas, as one county official put it, the people were asking "Who's going to help us? We're destitute and we've lost our homes."

The Red Cross and the Office of Emergency Planning announced they have begun flyovers of the disaster areas to determine long-range recovery needs.

All branches of the military worked beside civilian workers for an extended airlift of food, medicine, livestock feed, clothes, gasoline, mail and other supplies.

The 50-odd helicopters which evacuated 600 persons in Humboldt County and Oregon City, Ore., have begun to supply full-time airlifts, except for unexpected emergency medical evacuations.

Celebrity Guests Know Tom's Costume Dodge

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom Kennedy, as a large number of women and some men household with head colds know, is the nice-looking, pleasant-mannered fellow who each afternoon presides over an NBC program during which studio contestants and celebrity guests team up to play a word game.

Kennedy likes his job, enjoys riding herd on the players and hopes "You Don't Say" will go on forever.

He worked his way into the specialized field from an announcer's job and doing commercials.

Now he puts in a couple of very busy days a week taping the five-day output of "You Don't Say." His preparation consists of making certain his sports jackets are wrinkle-free. "Nobody sees me from the waist down," he said.

"So I just keep eight jackets at the studio and change them between shows."

The celebrity guests, particularly the women, also know about this costume dodge and are likely to turn up with five different blouses.

"I was surprised one day — when Libeth Scott walked on stage for a show. She was wearing a sequin top, very elaborate, and a pair of well-worn blue jeans," Kennedy said.

The bidding: South West North East 1NT Pass 3NT Pass

Opening lead: King of ♠ South obtained a complete inventory of his opponents' distributions which enabled him to convert an apparent guess into a sure thing.

The three no trump contract was reached on routine bidding. With an evenly balanced hand North saw no advantage in employing the conventional two club bid to ask for majors.

West opened the king of spades and was permitted to hold the trick. He continued with the queen and declarer ducked once more in order to learn how the suit was distributed.

West cleared the spades on the next round as East discarded a diamond and South went in with the ace.

Declarer had eight top tricks — one spade, two hearts, two

DEAR ABBY

She's Well Organized

DEAR ABBY: I would like to offer a solution to INADEQUATE MOM. I am a 16-year-old high school junior. After dinner, I am expected to help with the dishes and then get my homework done. There is no television until ALL my homework is finished. If a "B" average is not maintained, I can't watch TV until after the next report cards come out. Phone conversations are limited to five minutes. (A timer which Mother uses in the kitchen is the reminder.) I have a 10 o'clock bedtime. If my hair isn't washed and rolled by that time it's too bad. I must be at school by 8:20 a.m. so I get up at 6:45, which gives me plenty of time to decide what to wear, dress, eat a good breakfast, fix my hair, put on my make-up and straighten my room before leaving for school.

KATHY K. IN AMARILLO

DEAR KATHY: Good for you. You're organized. And it sounds so easy when you write it.

DEAR ABBY: I know this is going to sound ridiculous, but I'm ashamed to ask anyone else. How can I break my husband of sucking his thumb? When he sleeps, reads the newspaper or settles down to watch TV, he sucks his left thumb. I know he isn't aware of it because when I tell him to quit it, he is always shocked to find his thumb in his mouth. We have two small children who also suck their thumbs when they're tired, and it is so hard to break them of it when they see their father doing it. Is it hereditary? It's such an unmanly habit for a 34-year-old man. It's caused many fights between us. Can you help me?

SUCKER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: A psychiatrist would probably tell you that your husband is longing for the security of his baby days. (They call it "regression.") It isn't hereditary. Children are imitative, which is partly the reason your children suck their thumbs. Granted, it's not "manly," but it's not worth fighting about, so if it irritates him to be reminded—skip it.

DEAR ABBY: I recently visited my sister, who lives in another state. She is married to a quiet, well-to-do man. They have a 16-year-old daughter. I didn't realize how much tension my sister was living under until I stayed there. He is a dictator and no one dares to disagree with him on anything. My sister has no car and if she isn't home when he calls, he comes home, waits for her and makes her account for every minute. He handles all the money. She never sees a red cent. Everything is charged and he pays the bills. The daughter isn't allowed to date or to accept a phone call from a boy. At dinner she demands that the daughter finish every speck on her plate. So the child has to choke it down with tears running down her cheeks. My sister sits there trembling, afraid to say a word. Once she tried to take her

Retain Burch, Barry Exhorts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater has told the Republican National Committee he would regard the ouster of Chairman Dean Burch as "a repudiation of a great segment of our party and a repudiation of me."

Burch's ouster, Goldwater added in a letter to all committee members, would be "a capitulation on the part of those Republicans who have supported me and the principles for which I stood."

The defeated GOP presidential candidate thus put on a personal basis the retention of Burch in the chairmanship for which he chose the Tucson, Ariz., lawyer at the beginning of his unsuccessful campaign.

The letter was made public by Goldwater's Washington office today.

The national committee will meet Jan. 20-23 in Chicago. The issue of whether Burch will be deposed or retained is expected to come to a showdown then.

A powerful wing of the GOP has been clamoring for Burch's scalp since the election.

Laird Candidate For GOP Position

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin announced today he is a candidate for chairman of the House Republican Conference.

The post is being vacated by Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, who is trying to unseat Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana as leader of the House Republicans.

Composition By Embattled Poet Ignored

MOSCOW (AP) — A new work by the controversial poet, Yevgeny Yevtushenko, and composer Dimitri Shostakovich was virtually ignored by Moscow papers.

Only the Labor paper Trud reviewed the work, written by Shostakovich for symphony orchestra, bass soloist and mixed choir. He based it on Yevtushenko's "The Execution of Stephen Razin."

Trud praised the composition, but made no mention of Yevtushenko. Yevtushenko was denounced by former Premier Khrushchev, but later "confessed" his errors.

Back Surgery For Goldwater

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater will enter a Washington hospital next week for back surgery.

His back ailment was disclosed publicly in January 1961 when Goldwater noted that his physician, Dr. Janet Travell, had been chosen as the official White House doctor by the late President John F. Kennedy.

Red Chinese Fire Charge

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China charged today that President Johnson's administration demonstrated during 1964 that it "has adopted a policy of naked intervention by violence in Latin America."

Peking's New China News Agency said the ouster of Brazilian President Joao Goulart last April was a good example of what happens when "one tries to break away from the U.S. economic grip, attain real independence and safeguard national interests."

Kuwait Has New Premier

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Kuwait's ruler, Sheikh Abdullah Salem El Sabah, today reappointed his younger brother, Crown Prince Sabah Salem As Sabah, premier and asked him to form a new government for the oil-rich little emirate on the Persian Gulf.

Sheikh Sabah and his 15-man Cabinet resigned Monday night under parliamentary pressure after only 22 days in office. The crown prince has been Kuwait's premier since it became a parliamentary monarchy after its independence from Britain in 1962.

A Devotional For The Day

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and for ever. (Hebrews 13:8, NEB)
PRAYER: Gracious and eternal Lord, unchanging in love and friendship, in redeeming and sustaining power, hear us as we ask for a deeper realization of Thy oneness with us in our work and our leisure. Make us children of the light and teach us that in fellowship with Thee we find perfect liberty. In Thy name we ask. Amen.

(From the "Upper Room")

An Outstanding Job

One of the outstanding jobs of 1964 is one performed without fanfare but with relentless dedication to accomplish something which had been talked for years without concrete results. Approximately a year ago the city, overcoming numerous obstacles, laid the foundation for establishing the perpetual care plan for the City Cemetery. A substantial part of the original burial grounds, however, was represented in blocks owned by or dedicated to use by fraternal groups. Thus, no matter how well the city succeeded with its plans for acceptable care of the cemetery, there would remain a potential glaring flaw in these dedicated areas. A plan was devised for bringing these into the plan, but it required a substantial capital outlay. County Judge Lee Porter quietly took this project in hand and painstakingly gained commitments from the fraternal groups and individuals until he had approximately $15,000 in hand. This, with funds derived from capital gains and other sources, will furnish the foundation of an extensive renovation and beautification program. Of course, many people had a hand in all this, but none to the degree of Judge Porter, who richly deserves the thanks of the community.

Interest Shifts To The Subsonic

Only a few months ago Great Britain and France working together were in a race with the United States to develop the first supersonic transport plane. Suddenly the rivalry has ended and the whole concept is being re-examined.

The British and French were well along on the development of the Concorde, designed to travel at a speed short of 1,500 miles an hour to come within the stress limits of an aluminum skin. The United States was concentrating on plans for a 2,000 mile-an-hour plane, perhaps with a stainless steel skin.

But mushrooming costs of development and a program of austerity imposed by a balance of payments problem persuaded Britain to curtail drastically its share of the Concorde program. The French are indignant, but it now seems probable that the Concorde will never fly — at the most a prototype may be produced.

The lagging interest of Britain in a supersonic transport was almost immediately reflected in the United States. Since there was no longer a race to be first in the field, the urgency was gone. In its place is an increasingly critical reappraisal of the entire project. There are grave doubts about public acceptance of the sonic booms inherent in supersonic flight. Most important of all, though, are the mental reservations of airline executives who fear that the planes would be uneconomical.

Now the interest of airlines has shifted. The armed services have asked for a strategic jet freighter which could very conveniently be converted into a commercial jet transport carrying from 500 to 700 passengers, as compared with the 150 to 200-seats jets of today. These monsters would fly at a speed probably not exceeding 600 miles an hour. The savings in fuel and other operating costs offer the enticing prospect to airlines at least — of absorbing an increase in prices or wages without the necessity of increasing fares.

This may be a dream-come-true for airlines. Monstrous new subsonic jet transports would offer an interim solution, while research and development is concentrated on the production of perhaps lighter and much more efficient jet engines and more perfect airframes.

Looking Back On U.N. Snarl

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 115-member United Nations is doing business by pantomime. It's snarled in back dues, voting rights and face-saving.

The basic question: Does the Soviet Union have a right to vote in the General Assembly until it pays its share of the U.N. peace-keeping costs? The roots of the trouble go back 14 years to 1950 when the North Korean Communists invaded South Korea.

The 11-member Security Council went into session. Five of these members are permanent: the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France, Nationalist China.

Anyone of the five has the veto power to kill any severe action by the council. But just then, by a freak, the Soviet Union was boycotting the group.

The council promptly voted to fight the invasion with U.N. forces. The Soviet Union returned, too late to undo this, and tried to be a bottleneck.

Then the United States thought it time to shift some of this absolute power away from the council.

IT PROPOSED that the General Assembly, made up of all the U.N. members and with no one holding a veto, should be able to take action against an aggressor.

The vote was 52 to 5. The United Nations was a lot smaller then. The five dissenters were the Soviet Union and the Soviet bloc. Years passed and more trouble came.

In 1956 the General Assembly voted to send a U.N. peace-keeping force into the Middle East to prevent trouble between Arabs and Israelis. In 1960 it sent a peace-keeping force into the Congo.

The Soviet Union opposed both moves. France opposed the Congo action. But sustaining a U.N. armed force costs millions. The Soviet Union and France fell behind in their share.

That's a rough sketch of the background. The story gets a little technical now because Article 19 of the U.N. Charter says: If a member falls behind for two years in what it owes toward U.N. expenses, it shall have no vote in the assembly.

By the time the General Assembly began its winter session this year on Dec. 1, the Soviet Union was behind $52 million — altogether 15 nations were behind — and so was France which paid its share of Middle East costs but not those for the Congo.

Making Self Better First

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the reasons we don't have a better world is that many people don't see too much wrong with the one we have.

They lack the imagination to see how our present defective paradise can be improved. Actually, of course, a better world can be achieved only by making people better. This means that each individual must resolve to do better.

But many people are stumped when the annual season comes for making good resolutions. They honestly can't see why, in their own cases, any are necessary.

IF THIS HAPPENS to be your plight, here is a checklist of suggested resolutions to guide you:

1. Insert your own name, do hereby resolve during 1965 to — — Cease bearing false witness against my neighbor. After all, I should be able to fix his little red wagon just by telling the truth about him.

— Really contribute as much to charity as I claim I do on my income tax return.

— Never zip into a desirable parking place while the fellow ahead of me is trying to back into it.

— Refrain from telling my teenager how much tougher life was when I was a kid, since I know very well my father had a tougher life than both of us put together.

— Read at least one good novel during the year that isn't under attack as being pornographic.

— MAKE AT least one human heart happier by carrying the garbage out for my wife at least once a month.

— Write a "To whom it may concern" letter of recommendation for ex-Premier Khrushchev. A guy down on his luck at his age needs all the help he can get in seeking a new job.

— Limit my denunciations of the government — and my consumption of martinis — to no more than two a day.

— Abstain, so far as possible, from jeering at women, suburbanites, after-dinner speakers and television comedians. Those forms of life are in desperate need of encouragement, not criticism.

— GET AT least five more hours of sleep at home each week, and sleep five fewer hours on the job.

— Shout any praise I have for others, but only whisper any complaints I have about my own warts.

Now, paste this list of resolutions in your hat. If, by the end of 1965, you have kept even half of them, you will have done more than create a better world around you.

You will have won personal immortality. For your amazed friends most certainly will have erected a statue in your honor.

Viet Nam Looking Like Cuba

AIRBORNE TO VIET NAM—Going on four years ago, the most powerful nation on earth crouched on the Cuban beaches, willing to watch a weak ally bleed to death in the sands, unwilling to make use of overwhelming air power and sea power lest the tiny Bay of Pigs battle escalate into what the pompous liberals like to call a "nuclear holocaust."

AGAIN, TODAY, the world's most powerful nation has fallen into that craven posture, this time on an Asian peninsula called Indochina. Four months ago there was an almost comic episode when one or two motorboats, which were never sighted, supposedly "attacked" the U. S. Seventh Fleet. For several days there was the thunder of jet engines as units of the U. S. Air Force were rushed all the way from Atlantic Coast stations, such as Shaw Air Base, S. C., to the battle area around the place where a couple of mice had startled an elephant. When the air power accumulated in South Viet Nam itself, at the Philippines, at Okinawa, in Formosa, Japan, Thailand, on the small islands and back at Hawaii, a one-shot strike was made from an American carrier upon North Viet Nam Navy bases.

MILITARY PEOPLE out here thought that August 5, 1964, marked the turning point in Viet Nam. At last we were going to start fighting to win.

Something close to horror seems to strike persons who were presidential advisers in '61, and still are in '64, at the thought of our taking the offensive in the air where we enjoy supremacy.

BESIDES, every use we have made of air has been risking something called "world opinion." The State Department is said to be very embarrassed whenever a n a p a l m bombs are used against the Viet Cong because this weapon reminds Orientals of how Americans burned up Japanese in World War II. Our diplomats hate for us to defoliate the jungles which hide the Viet Cong because the Chi Coms might accuse us of "germ warfare."

WHILE THESE arguments pull us back from a decision to shoot the works and win the war, another set lugs at any decision to deal with other problems in a practical way. For instance, there is the matter of air base security. We lost nearly $30 million worth of material and several lives last summer because the Vietnamese provincial chief failed to protect the adjacent base. We could introduce our own security forces in depth, but there are two distinct arguments against this. One is that Viet Nam is a "sovereign nation" whose authority must not be superceded. The other is that we had better not do anything more for the Vietnamese. Whenever we do more, they do less. If we don't watch out we will be accused of running a "protectorate."

BASICALLY, what stops us—as it stopped us at the Bay of Pigs—is fear. Fear of nuclear war, fear of world opinion, fear of doing something wrong.

We have never been quite the same country since the Bay of Pigs. And now it appears we are making the same craven mistakes in Viet Nam. McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

Billy Graham

Must I repay an old friend and make right my stealing from him in order to enter heaven? H. R. Making amends for wrong deeds is an effect of being a Christian, not the cause. We are saved through the merits of Christ, and not by our deeds of righteousness. However, our Lord said: "... If thou bring thy gift before the altar, and rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee, leave thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift." (Matt. 5:23, 24).

Christ is here speaking to His disciples, those who had chosen to follow Him. He is pointing out the importance of right-relationships with our fellow men. No person can worship God with a heart filled with resentment, a consciousness of evil in the heart, or sin in the life. He is here saying that worship is fruitless if our relationships with our fellow men are wrong. We can't be right with God and wrong with man.

But to enter the Kingdom of God, you must first receive Christ. Then, making things right with your friend will follow your acceptance of the Savior. In other words, you don't confess to your neighbor your wrongdoing in order to be saved. You make the matter right because you are saved. Since God has made your heart right, it is up to you to set your affairs right.

Part of it is psychological. Part of it is a peculiar and special kind of problem.

For the psychological aspect, when people go to a doctor they generally expect him to give them something or do something for them. They generally have a let-down feeling if the doctor doesn't, or they go away saying, "He didn't DO anything for

Around The Rim

Peeking At The Crystal Ball

About this time of the year, most of us yield to the temptation to either make resolutions or predictions. The former requires some will power, thus I turn to the latter because it requires only a full measure of reckless abandon and foolhardiness.

ADMITTEDLY I don't know much about the national scene, hence I confine myself to the local scene, where I am only slightly more qualified to prognosticate. Frankly, a lot of what I predict is the product of wish as much as reason, but here goes:

The year 1965 will be as good a year as the past one from the point of business, possibly a bit better. This presumes a continuation of the national economic vigor and at least a stable oil situation.

WHILE IT IS purely a guess, I think our weather situation will be slightly better on the whole, although we may not get an appreciable break until spring. We likely will have more dusts than usual, and when our rain does come, we will have more of the vigorous to violent thunderstorm variety, which should produce substantially more runoff than this year.

Construction will be as good, perhaps slightly better than the past year. Two major jobs will be the high school expansion and the Highland Shopping Center. Also I believe the way will be cleared for Howard County Junior College to undertake some additional building. Residential construction will be fairly steady, particularly on the better grades.

HIGHWAY WORK, now at a lull after a period of unprecedented development, will pick up substantially. The Texas Highway Department will ask the county to secure roadway for FM 700 west of US 87, and for this and the FM 700 leg from IS 20 to the Gail-Snyder highway intersection, the county will ask voters to approve bonds. The county road construction will continue, but so will the rate of decline for this production of new permanent roads.

Our educational system will be boosted further. The area of service for HCJC may be expanded significantly. The college library may well become the county community library. Historical interest will pick up, though it will be slow.

THE UNITED FUND will concentrate on reaching more average people for a fair share in supporting the community agencies, admitting that we can't go on depending on a few to carry our load. Churches will see a lessening of plant expansion, at least in dollar volume, and membership totals will remain fairly static in the absence of any dramatic new approaches to commanding prior loyalties of people. The city will begin to ponder serious problems of how to effect improvements now that the Master Plan program is nearing the end of the five-year phase.

THE CRMWD will be granted a permit to impound a new lake on the Colorado River, and though it could be delayed, this project ultimately will come into being to help secure the future of this area of Texas.

Our football team will again be a scrappy one full of surprises, but competition will be rougher and our win-loss record might be a little less favorable. The HCJC basketball team will be equally as good; the high school cagers will be better. Our bands and choirs will score high, possibly sweepstakes, in area contests. Our general community outlook will be resurgent and happier.

The Indiscriminate Use Of Guns

WASHINGTON—This is the story of a single life lost in the unsafe society of today. But it has significance for the lives of many other persons who could face the same dangers.

Charles W. Fitzmaurice enlisted in the Marine Corps as a private in 1936 and became a second lieutenant in 1943. He served 18 months in the Pacific area during World War II, and participated in the campaigns on Saipan and Iwo Jima. In 1952 and 1953, he fought in the Korean War. He was given several citations and battle stars, became a lieutenant colonel, and was regarded as an outstanding officer in the Marine Corps.

THE COLONEL and his wife and four children were in their home in a Virginia suburb of Washington on Saturday night, December 12, when there came a knock at the entrance. As the colonel opened the door, he was shot in the abdomen and killed. Later, police said the weapon used was a shotgun.

The assassin has not yet been found. Since Colonel Fitzmaurice was serving as assistant head of the promotions branch in the personnel department of the Marine Corps at the Navy Annex in Arlington, Va., it is being widely speculated that perhaps the killing was done by someone with a personal grudge connected with the colonel's work.

ANOTHER possibility is that a de-ranged mind—similar to that of Lee Harvey Oswald, who killed President Kennedy—was responsible for this heinous crime.

The bereaved family has received the condolences of the community, but for them and the rest of the country the unanswered question is why nothing has been done since the assassination of President Kennedy to prohibit the continued possession of lethal weapons by individuals who ought not to be permitted to own or rent them.

THERE IS, of course, widespread opposition to any limits being placed on the sale of weapons intended for lawful use. It would be unwise to abolish altogether the possession of guns for protection against marauders or for enjoyment in sports. But certainly there is a rising public opinion in favor of requiring licenses for all those who own guns, and periodic examinations to determine whether the individual can be expected to refrain from using such weapons improperly.

EVERY DRIVER of an automobile, before obtaining a license, must appear for examination to determine whether he knows how to operate a car and has no impairment of his faculties that would make him an unsafe driver. This rule has for years been in effect in all states of the union, and the purpose is to protect society against individuals who are physically, mentally or emotionally unfitted to drive a car safely. A license often is suspended or revoked after a conviction for such violations as reckless or drunken driving. Many states also require periodic examinations for retention of a license.

THE STATES have a right to impose restrictions on the use of rifles, pistols, shotguns, or any other firearms. Certainly if licenses to own firearms were issued only after a medical certificate were furnished, the community would be better protected than it is today.

This method might not always be an effective safeguard, as there are some people who become deranged suddenly and would use guns recklessly. But the percentage of those who might take human life, including their own, could be materially cut down if there were some restrictions imposed upon the possession of weapons which can be used to kill.

IT MAY BE wondered how many more crimes of violence will have to be committed before the local authorities throughout the country will begin to take steps to protect their communities against the irresponsible use of rifles or pistols or shotguns.

New Life For The Railroads

WASHINGTON—The only organism on earth slower than an American railroad is the American bureaucracy, and if one starts to move, it offers some frail hope that the other may be shaken out of its suicidal lethargy.

Notable things are beginning to take shape in the field of rail passenger traffic. For more than two years Sen. Claiborne Pell (D., R.I.) has been a lone, forlorn voice crying out for railroad reform in the overcrowded wilderness that reaches from north of Boston to south of Washington.

PELL STUBBORNLY refused to accept the abundant clinical signs that death had overtaken the Eastern railroads. He saw quite clearly that no prodigies of highway construction could keep pace with inter-city travel in the Northeast, and that mass transit by rail was the only logical means of avoiding an epic traffic jam. He got small comfort from the railroads, none from state officials blinded by a visions of ever-fatter paving contracts, and precious little from the complacent weavers of red tape in Washington.

IT IS PROBABLY too early to send up victory rockets, but change is being felt. The paralysis has not lifted, and may never lift. But at last the good sense of Pell's proposals have caused some stirrings that may be signs of returning life.

The Commerce Department, whose deliberate pace was enough to make even the glacial Interstate Commerce Commission writhe in envy, finally discovered merit in Pell's proposals and declared that his plan for high-speed passenger service deserved serious consideration.

THE SENATOR himself believes that 100-miles-per-hour service could be provided within two years, using existing technology. That would mean that, midcity to midcity, New York and Washington would be little more than two hours apart. At two hours, the rails would become competitive with airlines in net travel time. Actually, relatively little is needed to implement this long-overdue speedup. Pell's plan calls for Congressional sanction of an interstate authority empowered to modernize and operate passenger service in the Boston-Washington corridor.

AMERICANS, particularly Americans who operate railroads, are reluctant to admit that they live in a technologically backward country. But so far as moving passengers between cities by surface transport is concerned, they are backward indeed.

As mossbound as they can be, however, the railroads are not alone to blame for the crisis in transportation in the Northeast corridor. Government policy has long been weighted in favor of motor and air transport. The current Federal budget includes $750 million for airports and airways, $3.6 billion for highways—but only $65 million for mass transit.

Miss Elena Patterson Weds Lt. James Massey Tuesday

Shockers Get Jolt In Game With St. Jo

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Wichita basketball coach Gary Thompson didn't fly a kite but the way he figures it he got a bigger shock in Philadelphia than Ben Franklin. "This is the last time I'll come here," Thompson said Tuesday night after his second-ranked Wheatshockers were beaten by 10th-ranked St. Joseph's, Pa., 77-69 in the championship game of the Quaker City Basketball Tournament. Thompson's complaints were about the fans and, of course, the officiating. "I don't have rabbit ears," said Thompson, "but some of the things that were said were pretty bad. The fans are too loud."

As for the officials, Thompson said they were "not consistent in their calls. I disagree with the tempo. There is more body contact here than in the Midwest." The Wheatshockers had 23 personal fouls called against them by referees John Stevens and Jim Lennon to 10 for St. Joseph's — and actually lost the game at the foul line. Each team connected for 28 field goals but the Hawks made 20 of 29 foul shots to 13 of 15 for Wichita.

The upset was the second in two nights pulled off by the Hawks, extended their unbeaten string to 10 and continued local mastery of the 4-year-old tournament. St. Joseph's also won the tournament in 1962 while Villanova and LaSalle won the others. Sixth-ranked Illinois, which dropped a 75-71 decision to St. Joseph's Monday night, took third place in the tournament with a 74-65 victory over Villanova.

The Quaker City was one of six tournaments which crowned champions Tuesday night while other major holiday classics moved through preliminary action and set the stage for a Wednesday night program spotlighting 10 finals plus the heralded individual duel between Cazzie Russell of top-ranked Michigan and Bill Bradley of Princeton in the semifinals of the Holiday Festival at New York.

Besides Wichita, only one other ranked team was involved in a title game Tuesday night with seventh-ranked Indiana walloping Memphis State 91-68 in the Memphis State Classic.

Miami of Florida won the Hurricane Classic at Miami by downing Maryland 80-73, Davidson annexed the Charlotte Invitational with an 81-63 triumph over Ohio University, Penn State edged Detroit 75-73 in the Motor City Classic wrapup and Baylor defeated Clemson 68-59 for the championship of the Pointsettia Classic at Greenville, S.C.

Billy Oakes, held out of practice by St. Joseph's coach Jack Ramsey because he was in a slump, broke a 36-all tie with a one-handed jump in the final two minutes of the first half and the Hawks kept the lead the rest of the way.

Oakes finished with 21 points while teammate Marty Ford topped the scorers with 27. Dave Stallworth, Wichita's All-American, had 24 points. Indiana rode the amazing shooting of the Van Arsdale brothers — they did not miss any of 16 shots they attempted in the second half — to its victory over Memphis State. Tom Van Arsdale scored 21 points, six more than brother Dick.

Royal Is Fretting Over Tide Program

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Texas football coach Darrell Royal is worried about the crash Orange Bowl program Alabama's national football champions put into effect when quarterback Joe Namath reinjured his troublesome right knee. Royal, who will be trying to keep Texas' perfect record against Alabama just that in the New Year's Day classic, said the status of Namath has him guessing about what to expect. Alabama Coach Paul Bryant said Royal, who coached his Longhorns to last year's national championship, has nothing to worry about as far as trying to guess what he will do. "This thing just happened too late to change much," Bryant said. Namath, who will sign a professional football contract with the New York Jets of the American Football League Saturday for approximately $389,000, hurt his knee during a routine workout Tuesday.

"If Namath is needed, I'm sure he will be able to play," said Alabama trainer Jim Goostree. "The injury is painful but it is nothing like what happened to him the other two times he hurt it." But Bryant said he is getting ready for the game on the assumption that Namath will not be able to play even a single minute. He will start Steve Sloan, also nursing a bum knee, at quarterback, with untested Wayne Trimble waiting in the wings.

"We have nothing but respect for Texas," Bryant said. "They've got a solid, sound, well-coached team that stacks up favorably with Auburn defensively." Auburn was one of the best defensive teams in the nation this year. "We've made a few adjustments because Namath won't play, but we just don't have the time to do an awful lot," Bryant said. "This puts a lot more pressure on our defense, but the boys on that unit have always been able to come up with the saving plays this year."

There was good cheer in the Texas camp Wednesday as Royal watched injured wingback Phil Harris put in a light workout showing little, if any, signs of a pulled leg muscle. "If Harris isn't ready to go, it would make a lot of difference in our offense," Royal said. "We're playing the national champs and it will take everything we've got to beat them." The Orange Bowl game will be the sixth meeting between the two schools and Alabama never has been able to beat Texas.

SAN ANGELO — San Angelo Bobcats ripped Killeen, 56-42, in a basketball game here Tuesday night. The win was the 11th of the season for San Angelo, compared to seven defeats. San Angelo had four boys in double figures. Ralph Sheffy, second leading scorer of the Cats, missed the game due to a sprained ankle. Otis Parker and Jim Bob Lupton each tallied 13 points for the winners.

Wilt, Big O Easy Picks On All-Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — Look at the National Basketball Association statistics tables and it's easy to see why every writer and broadcaster who voted for the NBA All Stars picked Oscar Robertson, Bill Russell, Wilt Chamberlain and Jerry West. Robertson, Russell, Chamberlain and West were the four unanimous selections for the two All Star squads that will meet in St. Louis Arena Jan. 15. Robertson, Cincinnati's dazzling guard, leads the NBA in assists. Boston's Russell is the league's top rebounder. Chamberlain of the San Francisco Warriors is the leading scorer and West, the Los Angeles standout, leads in field goal percentage.

The players named Tuesday — eight each from the Eastern and Western teams — will be joined next week by two additional players selected by the coaches. Only New York failed to land a berth in the initial voting but league rules say each club must have at least one man on the squad so a Knickerbocker player will be one of the two Eastern stars added.

Chosen to the Eastern team along with Robertson and Russell were Philadelphia's Luscious Jackson and Hal Greer, Boston's Sam Jones and Tom Heinsohn and Wayne Embry and Jerry Lucas of Cincinnati. Selected for the West with Chamberlain and West, were Walt Bellamy and Gus Johnson of Baltimore, Len Wilkens and Bob Pettit of St. Louis, Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles and Terry Dischinger of Detroit.

Bobcats Tounce Killeen, 56-42

SAN ANGELO — San Angelo Bobcats ripped Killeen, 56-42, in a basketball game here Tuesday night. The win was the 11th of the season for San Angelo, compared to seven defeats. San Angelo had four boys in double figures. Ralph Sheffy, second leading scorer of the Cats, missed the game due to a sprained ankle. Otis Parker and Jim Bob Lupton each tallied 13 points for the winners.

Jackets Beaten

BROWNWOOD — Walter Carter, former HCJC star, again hit for 19 points as Howard Payne College defeated Wayland College, 65-60, in a basketball game here Tuesday night.

Brownwood Ekes Out Win Over Longhorns

BROWNWOOD — Brownwood eked out a 52-51 victory over Big Spring here Tuesday evening on a late basket by Roger Richey to advance to the finals of the Howard Payne College Basketball tournament. The Lions meet Midland Lee, semifinal winner over South San Antonio, for the championship at 8 o'clock tonight. Lee upset the San Antonio club, winner of the last four tournaments here, by a score of 57-54. Paul Thomas, Big Spring's 6-9 rebounder, led the Steers in scoring with 15 points while James Harris had 17 for Brownwood. Big Spring outscored the Lions on the court, 23 baskets to 20, but the Brownwood club connected on 12 free tosses, compared to only five for the Steers.

Joe Jaure and Don White each counted 14 points for the Longhorns. A couple of times in the third period, Big Spring built up six-point leads but couldn't maintain the pace. In the other semifinal bout, Richard Davis, who brought a 6.8-point scoring average here, led Midland Lee in scoring with 12 points.

In the Division I bracket, Brady and Comanche advanced to tonight's 6:30 p.m. finals. Brady turned back Jackboro in its semifinal game, 66-46, while Comanche sidelined Millsap, 57-46.

In Division II consolation, Coleman won over Belton, 65-50, and Tulla shelled Lampasas, 55-48. In Division I consolation, Balingier routed Llano, 61-29; and Fredericksburg turned back Santo, 48-38.

Big Spring plays South San Antonio for third place at 5 p.m. today, a game which winds up pre-conference play for the Steers.

Big Spring takes a 5-8 worst record onto the floor against the class San Antonio team. The Division II third-place game, which pits Jackboro against Millsap, starts at 2 p.m. today.

Bo Rothchild was the star as Texas moved to the finals of the Gator Bowl tournament. He had scored only 16 points in seven previous games but got 18 Tuesday night.

Arkansas took the lead in the early minutes and went on to a devastating victory over Mississippi. Southern Methodist never took the lead in the game with St. Louis, the nation's ninth ranked team, until there was only 1:03 left on the clock. Hank Wenford sank three free throws to get the Methodists on the way. Charley Beasley of SMU led the scorers with 22 points.

Five Rookies On East Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Coach Lou Saban will be relying on five rookies when he sends his Eastern Division American Football League All-Stars against Sid Gillman's Western squad at New Orleans' Sugar Bowl Jan. 16.

The East has rookie running backs Matt Snell of New York and Sid Blanks of Houston along with Buffalo's Jack Kemp, Elbert Dubenion, Cookie Gilchrist and Boston's Babe Parilli in its backfield.

Other first-year men on Saban's squad are center Jon Morris of Boston, and defensive cornerbacks George Byrd of Buffalo and Pete Faquess of Houston.

Gillman, whose San Diego Chargers lost the AFL title game to Saban's Buffalo Bills, has one freshman on his West team — fullback Mack Lee Hill of Kansas City.

In addition to Hill, the West has Clem Daniels and Billy Cannon of Oakland, Abner Haynes of Kansas City, and Keith Lincoln of San Diego to handle the running.

Joe Namath Is Offered Fabulous Deal By Jets

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Alabama quarterback Joe Namath has been offered $389,000 to sign with the New York Jets of the American Football League. In 1947, with that kind of money, you could have bought the Detroit Lions — twice — and still received $69,000 change.

The astounding offer to Namath, a major target in the multi-million-dollar pro football signing war between the National and American Football leagues, was revealed to The Associated Press Tuesday in Miami by sources close to Namath and the Jets.

At the same time, another passing whiz, Tulsa's Jerry Rhyme, signed with Dallas of the NFL although he was offered more money by the AFL's Houston Oilers.

And Georgia's All-American tackle, Jim Wilson, wound up with two contracts — one from each league.

All three cases bore the mark of the highest bidding war in pro football history — hard to believe. First there was the offer made to Namath for $100,000 a year for three years plus a new limousine and other bonuses totaling in the neighborhood of $89,000. That would make the son of a Neaver Falls, Pa., gas station attendant the highest priced rookie ever.

Could that really be the price for the first question posed? "It's more than that," said a spokesman for the St. Louis Cardinals, who asked not to be identified.

"We'll pay more to get him than has ever been paid for a rookie," admitted Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Jets. "We expect to get him."

Namath's signing is expected to be announced this weekend after Alabama meets Texas in the Orange Bowl game Friday night.

Rhyme was a future pick in both leagues and had been traded to Houston by the Jets in turn for the rights to Namath. Rhyme said the Oilers had offered him more money but "I want to play in the National Football League, which is stronger than the AFL."

Rhyme's contract with the Cowboys stipulates he cannot be sold or traded for the first year. So he will be in Dallas, battling veteran Don Meredith and rookie Craig Morton for the quarterbacking job.

Where Wilson will be, however, just might be a question for lawyers to decide.

Drafted by Boston of the AFL and San Francisco of the NFL, Wilson apparently signed a contract with the Patriots on Aug. 25 — the league office says it has the contract — and then signed with the 49ers after the Sun Bowl game last Saturday.

Vince Dooley, Georgia coach, said the university plans to protest to AFL Commissioner Joe Foss because Wilson signed while he was still in school and said representatives of the Boston club no longer are welcome on the Georgia campus.

"I don't blame the Georgia coach for being upset," said Patriots' President Billy Sullivan. "But I don't think it was our responsibility to notify the coach. That was the player's responsibility. There was no undue pressure on this boy to sign."

Sullivan also said, "We have notified San Francisco that we have a signed contract... we are assuming they didn't know we already had a signed contract."

There was one other big name signing — Wake Forest fullback Brian Piccolo going with the Chicago Bears. Piccolo, the nation's leading college scorer and ground gainer, was not picked in either the NFL or AFL draft and was a free agent.

Jerry Rhyme Will Play For Cowboys Next Fall

DALLAS (AP) — Jerry Rhyme, Tulsa's mighty passer who figured in a contract war between the Dallas Cowboys and Houston Oilers, has made up his mind — he'll be with the Cowboys next fall.

It marked the third draft choice Dallas has taken from Houston — Rhyme No. 1, Malcolm Walker No. 2 and Russell Way No. 6.

It also had Dallas coach Tom Landry with quarterbacks running out of his ears.

He already had Craig Morton, the first draft choice from California; Billy Lothridge, the young man from Georgia Tech, and of course the veteran Don Meredith, whom Rhyme will try to beat out of his job while also fighting off Morton. And there are others.

Lothridge was a punting specialist last season. "I like problems like having too many quarterbacks," said Landry.

Rhyme signed a contract Tuesday at an undisclosed figure and for an undetermined length and

Star Avoids Stand On Movie Morals

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Those seeking a clampdown on movie morals will find no ally in Cary Grant. He doesn't believe in telling film makers what they can and cannot do.

Grant is a man of many guises. The most famous of these is the film star, impeccable, stylized, a master of technique.

There is also Grant the businessman, who from his luxurious suite at Universal City plans and follows his films from inception to merchandising.

Grant believes that the good pictures will always make money, and that is the kind he aims to make. As to the films that traffic in sex and violence, he makes no judgment.

Killed were Sgt. Hedley E. Cassidy 44, of Amarillo Air Force Base, and his wife Helen, 42. Injured was Airman James W. Galloway, 23, a passenger in the Cassidy car.

Navy Offering Delayed Program

The Navy recently authorized the regular recruiting service to enlist men in the naval service and defer ordering them to active duty for a period of up to 120 days. Each individual enlisted under this program will be enlisted for six years and be required to serve four years active duty.

This new procedure will allow applicants currently enrolled in school, or who are employed, to complete school or continue employment for an additional period of time and still be completing a portion of their obligatory six-year military service.

The enlistment in the Naval Reserve with a request for assignment to extended active duty exempts the reservist from call by Selective Service System.

All young men desiring further information about this program should contact the local Navy recruiter in the Post Office Building, Monday, Thursday and Friday.

Construction Of Armory May Be Halted

FORT WORTH (AP)—A Texas contractor has been questioned by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers about the possibility of stopping construction of an Army Reserve armory at Victoria.

A Corps of Engineers spokesman said the contractor, Keeling Bros. of Richardson, was asked how much money might be saved if work were terminated.

The possibility of halting the work is perhaps connected with Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's recent decision to merge the reserve with the National Guard.

The engineer spokesman said the question was asked at the request of the Defense Department. He added that the query apparently had been misinterpreted.

A contractor on a similar project at San Antonio had been asked the same question, he said. But he stressed that construction at the Victoria job was "proceeding full steam."

Skiing Jackie 'Has Balance'

ASPEN, Colo. (AP)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy skis down the deep powder snow on Butterfield Mountain in a style "a little above average" for a beginner, her instructor said today.

"She's got fine balance," said Tim Carter, an expert teaching her the art of skiing on the gently rising peak near her holiday chalet.

"Mrs. Kennedy falls very seldom, which shows her experience as a water skier and horsewoman," Carter said. "She was a little tired the first day, Sunday, but she's becoming adjusted to the altitude 7,913 ft. and appears a little stronger every day."

Chou Paints Rosy Picture

TOKYO (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai has painted a glowing economic picture of Communist China, declaring that "the task of readjusting the national economy has been basically accomplished." Radio Peking said today.

"There has been an all-round upsurge in agricultural and industrial production and the entire economy has taken a turn for the better and is entering a new period of development," Chou said.

Chou's report on the work of the government was delivered last week before the current session of the National People's Congress, which opened in Peking Dec. 20.

Chou admitted that "several years ago, at a time when China's national economy had achieved a great expansion, it encountered some serious difficulties."

He blamed these on three successive years of natural disasters—from 1959 to 1961—and Soviet Premier Khrushchev who "abruptly and perfidiously tore up several hundred agreements and contracts, withdrew Soviet experts from China and cut off the supply of important items of equipment."

New Liner For British

LONDON (AP)—John Brown & Co., the Glasgow shipyard which built the Queen Elizabeth and the Queen Mary, today received the contract for building a new ship for the Atlantic run.

The contract for the new 58,000-ton liner was signed by Sir John Brocklebank, chairman of the Cunard Steamship Co., and Lord Abernethy, chairman of John Brown.

The cost is estimated at $64.4 million. The keel will be laid in mid-summer.

The new hip-coche named Or until its 1966 launching—will be lighter compared with the 83,673-ton Queen Mary, which it is to replace.

64 Winthrop Pushes For Migrants Must Sign

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly makes another attempt today to finish its 1964 business without a showdown over the Soviet Union's assembly vote.

Assembly President Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana called chief delegates to his office this morning for a second informal poll which he hoped would give Jordan or Mali a two-thirds majority for a seat on the Security Council starting New Year's Day.

In one such informal poll Tuesday the assembly members gave Malaysia 80 votes, the Netherlands 91 and Uruguay 92 for the other three council seats that became vacant Jan. 1. At an assembly session afterward, Quaison-Sackey declared them elected by general consent.

On this informal poll Jordan got 70 votes and Mali 50. Mali refused to withdraw unless one of the two got the two-thirds majority required for election on a formal vote. Apparently some of the 112 assembly members polled cast ballots for both Jordan and Mali.

Quaison-Sackey and Secretary-General U Thant awaited Soviet acceptance of a U.S.-approved plan to recess the assembly late today, seek voluntary financial contributions from members and resume the assembly Jan. 11 without raising the Soviet veto question.

Thant proposed to appeal at an afternoon session to all members, "without prejudice to their previous positions on the question of finances," to bring the financial situation of the organization to solvency by voluntary contributions.

He also proposed to have the assembly authorize him to spend money for U.N. purposes in 1965 at the 1964 budgetary level "pending decisions to be taken at the resumed session" on a new budget.

CALL CONFAB Quaison-Sackey then would declare Thant's proposals adopted without objection; call for consultations on the Soviet-U.S. assessments dispute during the recess, and announce that the assembly would "proceed with its business" on Jan. 11.

The two statements were designed to lay the groundwork for settling the Soviet-U.S. dispute over Article 19 of the U.N. Charter, which says any member two years behind in assessments "shall have no vote" in the assembly.

The Soviet Union is more than two years behind because it does not pay assembly assessments for the Congo and Middle-East peace-keeping operations, contending they are illegal. A voluntary contribution would enable the Russians to get square with Article 19 without admitting they were paying peace-keeping dues.

Since convening Dec. 1, the assembly has done necessary business without voting to avoid a U.S. challenge of the Soviet vote.

Chain-Style Auto Thefts CLOVIS, N.M. (AP)—A man dressed in Western hat and boots drove a late model auto to a Clovis used-car lot and took a newer one out for a road test Tuesday.

When he didn't come back, police discovered that the car he had left had been stolen from a lot in Amarillo, Tex.

Hobbs police were trying to find out where the car left there had come from.

Boy Concedes Leg Must Go LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ronald Baker, the 16-year-old boy who once ran away from home rather than face the amputation of his leg—is now reconciled to the fact that he must lose his leg.

He can even joke about it. The operation is planned Thursday. "I guess I won't dance the old year out," Ronald said.

He said his attitude has changed because doctors have convinced him he must have the operation—or die from cancer.

Also, he said, he has received encouragement from many people who have resumed full, happy lives after undergoing similar operation.

18-Year-Olds Soon Can Sign, Get Loan FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky's 18-year-olds never had it so good—or did they? Starting Jan. 1 the commonwealth will allow them to buy homes, open charge accounts and obtain loans under their own signatures.

A 1964 legislative act makes 18 the legal age for both men and women, with a few exceptions. The legal age still is 21 for the purchase of alcoholic beverages and for care and treatment of handicapped children.

Contractors Of Migrants Must Sign

WASHINGTON (AP)—Contractors of migrant farm workers must register with the Labor Department in order to do business in 1965.

The Farm Labor Contractor Act applies to those who, for a fee, recruit, solicit, hire, furnish or transport more than nine migrant farm workers a year for interstate farm employment.

It does not apply to farm employers who recruit only for their own operations. The act was aimed at improving working conditions for the migrant workers.

Construction Of Armory May Be Halted

FORT WORTH (AP)—A Texas contractor has been questioned by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers about the possibility of stopping construction of an Army Reserve armory at Victoria.

A Corps of Engineers spokesman said the contractor, Keeling Bros. of Richardson, was asked how much money might be saved if work were terminated.

The possibility of halting the work is perhaps connected with Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's recent decision to merge the reserve with the National Guard.

The engineer spokesman said the question was asked at the request of the Defense Department. He added that the query apparently had been misinterpreted.

A contractor on a similar project at San Antonio had been asked the same question, he said. But he stressed that construction at the Victoria job was "proceeding full steam."

Skiing Jackie 'Has Balance'

ASPEN, Colo. (AP)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy skis down the deep powder snow on Butter-milk Mountain in a style "a little above average" for a beginner, her instructor said today.

"She's got fine balance," said Tim Carter, an expert teaching her the art of skiing on the gently rising peak near her holiday chalet.

"Mrs. Kennedy falls very seldom, which shows her experience as a water skier and horsewoman," Carter said. "She was a little tired the first day, Sunday, but she's becoming adjusted to the altitude 7,913 ft. and appears a little stronger every day."

Chou Paints Rosy Picture

TOKYO (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai has painted a glowing economic picture of Communist China, declaring that "the task of readjusting the national economy has been basically accomplished," Radio Peking said today.

"There has been an all-round upsurge in agricultural and industrial production and the entire economy has taken a turn for the better and is entering a new period of development," Chou said.

Chou's report on the work of the government was delivered last week before the current session of the National People's Congress, which opened in Peking Dec. 20.

Chou admitted that "several years ago, at a time when China's national economy had achieved a great expansion, it encountered some serious difficulties."

He blamed these on three successive years of natural disasters—from 1959 to 1961—and Soviet Premier Khrushchev who "abruptly and perfidiously tore up several hundred agreements and contracts, withdrew Soviet experts from China and cut off the supply of important items of equipment."

New Liner For British

LONDON (AP)—John Brown & Co., the Glasgow shipyard which built the Queen Elizabeth and the Queen Mary, today received the contract for building a new ship for the Atlantic run.

The contract for the new 58,000-ton liner was signed by Sir John Brocklebank, chairman of the Cunard Steamship Co., and Lord Aberconway, chairman of John Brown.

The cost is estimated at $64.4 million.

The keel will be laid in midsummer.

The new hip-code named Qr until its 1966 launching—will be lighter compared with the 83,673-ton Queen Mary, which it is to replace.

U.N. Pushes Contractors Of Migrants Must Sign

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly makes another attempt today to finish its 1964 business without a showdown over the Soviet Union's assembly vote.

Assembly President Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana called chief delegates to his office this morning for a second informal poll which he hoped would give Jordan or Mali a two-thirds majority for a seat on the Security Council starting New Year's Day.

In one such informal poll Tuesday the assembly members gave Malaysia 80 votes, the Netherlands 91 and Uruguay 92 for the other three council seats that became vacant Jan. 1. At an assembly session afterward, Quaison-Sackey declared them elected by general consent.

On this informal poll Jordan got 70 votes and Mali 50. Mali refused to withdraw unless one of the two got the two-thirds majority required for election on a formal vote. Apparently some of the 112 assembly members polled cast ballots for both Jordan and Mali.

Quaison-Sackey and Secretary-General U. Thant awaited Soviet acceptance of a U.S.-approved plan to recess the assembly late today, seek voluntary financial contributions from members and resume the assembly Jan. 11 without raising the Soviet veto question.

Thant proposed to appeal at an afternoon session to all members, "without prejudice to their previous positions on the question of finances," to bring the financial situation of the organization to solvency by voluntary contributions.

He also proposed to have the assembly authorize him to spend money for U.N. purposes in 1965 at the 1964 budgetary level "pending decisions to be taken at the resumed session" on a new budget.

CALL CONFAB
Quaison-Sackey then would declare Thant's proposals adopted without objection; call for consultations on the Soviet-U.S. assessments dispute during the recess, and announce that the assembly would "proceed with its business" on Jan. 11.

The two statements were designed to lay the groundwork for settling the Soviet-U.S. dispute over Article 19 of the U.N. Charter, which says any member two years behind in assessments "shall have no vote" in the assembly.

The Soviet Union is more than two years behind because it does not pay assembly assessments for the Congo and Middle-East peace-keeping operations, contending they are illegal. A voluntary contribution would enable the Russians to outsquare with Article 19 without admitting they were paying peace-keeping dues.

Since convening Dec. 1, the assembly has done necessary business without voting to avoid a U.S. challenge of the Soviet veto.

Chain-Style Auto Thefts

CLOVIS, N.M. (AP)—A man dressed in Western hat and boots drove a late model auto to a Clovis used-car lot and took a newer one out for a road test Tuesday.

When he didn't come back, police discovered that the car he had left had been stolen from a lot in Amarillo, Tex.

Amarillo officers found that the car left there had been stolen from a lot at Lubbock, Tex. Police at Lubbock determined that a car a man left there had been taken off a lot at Hobbs, N.M.

Hobbs police were trying to find out where the car left there had come from.

Boy Concedes Leg Must Go

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ronald Baker—the 18-year-old who once ran away from home rather than face the amputation of his leg—is in a Los Angeles hospital, awaiting surgery.

Ronald is now reconciled to the fact that he must lose his leg.

He can even joke about it. The operation is planned Thursday. "I guess I won't dance the old way out," Ronald said.

He said his attitude has changed because doctors have convinced him he must have the operation—or die from cancer.

Also, he said, he has received encouragement from many people who have resumed full, happy lives after undergoing similar operation.

Breakthrough In Defeat Of Cancer Seen

MONTREAL (AP) — An American cancer specialist forecasts that final breakthroughs toward controlling cancer by vaccines and miraculous curative drugs will be achieved "quicker than we'll get to the moon" — perhaps soon after 1970.

Dr. Jacob Gershon-Cohen of Philadelphia said he based that prediction on his confidence that by that time:
1. Final proof will have been established that many, if not most, cancers are caused by viruses; and 2. Further development will have been made on recent discoveries in understanding the structure of the basic core of all viruses — specifically, the nucleic acids DNA and RNA.

"ARE SIGNIFICANT"
He said these discoveries are "probably more significant, if less appreciated by the public, than the unlocking of atomic energy."

Gershon-Cohen, a radiologist of the Albert Einstein Medical Center, spoke at a news conference prior to acting as chairman today of a symposium on viruses and cancer at the 131st meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Gershon-Cohen also told newsmen:

1. Achievement of better control over ordinary viruses — including those of the common cold — may help reduce the danger of getting cancer. It is possible some such viruses may be insidious helpmates of cancer causers, or even cancer causers themselves.

2. The day will come when the taking of the temperature of specific areas of the body with devices based on infra-red detection techniques "will be as important as X-ray" in helping detect ailments.

HARBOR VIRUSES
3. All people may be harboring latent, non-active cancer viruses — with cancer developing only in those people exposed to some triggering action such as excessive radiation, certain chemicals, or some internal disturbance.

"I think we'll get positive results quicker than we'll get to the moon," said Gershon-Cohen. When a reporter said the American space agency has its sights set on a moon landing by 1970, Gershon-Cohen said he expected the cancer breakthroughs would be almost achieved by then.

'I Licked Cancer,' Says John Wayne

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Movie hero John Wayne, conqueror of two Jims, thousands of movie Indians and Western bad men, says he now has conquered the great killer — cancer.

"Big Duke," 57, once a five-pack-a-day smoker of unfiltered cigarettes, said a recent hospital stay was for removal of a lung malignancy.

The official statement at the time was that an abscess had been removed from his lung.

"I licked the Big C," the all-time movie boxoffice king grinned Tuesday.
"That's what my doctors tell me."
"I told them: 'Don't lie to me. And they know me damn well enough to know they hadn't better.'"

FOUND IT EARLY
"They say they got all of it because they found it early enough."

The always honest Wayne refused to abide by the Hollywood code that cancer or any other serious illness could destroy a box-office image. But he doesn't smoke anymore.

"My advisers all told me that the public doesn't want its movie heroes associated with a serious illness like cancer. It destroys their image."
"I say there's a hell of a lot

Widow Of Rancher Dies

DALLAS (AP) — Mrs. Grace Cowden Henry, a member of a pioneer West Texas family, died Tuesday. She was 75.

Funeral services were scheduled for this afternoon at Hillcrest Mausoleum.

A native of Midland, Mrs. Henry was the widow of R. P. Henry Jr., a Lancaster rancher and banker, and the daughter of the late George E. Cowden, a pioneer West Texas rancher and philanthropist. She had lived in Dallas since 1953.

She was a former student at Baylor University.
Survivors include two sons, E. Cowden Henry of Dallas and Rene Paul Henry III of Tulsa.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Albert G. Simms, 82, Republican representative in Congress from New Mexico from 1929-31, died Tuesday. Simms, who was born in Washington, Ark., came to New Mexico in 1915 and had a long career as a lawyer, banker, businessman and politician.

U.S. May Appeal Klan Case Ouster

MACON, Ga. (AP) — The federal government, stymied in efforts to try six alleged Ku Klux Klansmen charged with conspiring to oppress Negroes, may appeal the ruling of a district judge to the U.S. Supreme Court.

U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Bootle dismissed federal conspiracy indictments against the six Tuesday. The federal charges were brought after two of the six were acquitted in a state court in the shotgun slaying of Lemuel Penn, Washington, D.C. Negro educator.

LOCAL MATTER
Bootle's ruling said enforcement of general criminal laws is a local matter. He referred to the state acquittal of murder charges for two of the six and said it is important that the federal court "not usurp jurisdiction where it has none."

Penn, a lieutenant colonel in the Army Reserve, was hit by shotgun blasts fired from a passing car in early morning darkness July 11. He was returning to Washington with two other Negro officers after two weeks of active duty at Ft. Benning, Ga.

PAIR ACQUITTED
Cecil Myers and Joseph Howard Sims were acquitted of murder charges in the Penn slaying in a state court trial at Danielsville Sept. 4.

They were among six later charged by the FBI with conspiring to injure and oppress Negroes. The other four are Denver Willis Phillips, George H. Turner, Herbert Guest and James S. Lackey.

State murder charges are still pending against Lackey.
Clete Johnson, state prosecutor, said Tuesday night he has not decided whether to press the murder charges against Lackey.

JURY ACTION
A jury freed Myers and Sims of the Penn slaying after deliberating three hours. The state introduced a statement quoting Lackey as having said that he, Sims and Myers spotted the Penn car, followed it and that both Sims and Myers fired shotguns into the car.

Lackey repudiated the statement, declaring he was harassed by the FBI into making it. The defense also produced witnesses who said they saw Sims and Myers at an all night cafe in Athens on July 11 up to 5:20 a.m.

Bonn Envoy, LBJ To Talk

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson works on the budget and his State of the Union message today, reportedly making good progress on both.

Foreign affairs also demanded the President's attention. He is to receive a call from George C. McGhee, U.S. ambassador to Bonn, who will review with Johnson developments in West Germany.

Johnson still has some major budget decisions to make, and he'll study these today with Budget Director Kermit Gordon. Still to be decided are how much to ask for a big education package, whether to seek a pay raise for government civilians, and how much will be needed for what Johnson calls his antipoverty program.

Johnson discussed the world situation Tuesday with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, touching bright spots as well as gloomy ones.

Officials said Rusk had told Johnson he regards Southeast Asia and the Congo with deep concern. But he reportedly told the President of some signs rival factions in South Viet Nam are moving toward some semblance of unity. Rusk feels this is a prime requirement in the war against Viet Cong Communists.

It was made clear there is no change in U.S. policy in South Viet Nam and that no thought is being given to pulling out until that nation's territorial integrity is assured.

BURY ST. EMUNDS, England (AP) — John Gibson Jarvis, 81, founder and retired head of the United Dominion's Installation Buying Trust, died Tuesday. He was born in Scotland.

WT Chamber Sets Series Of Meetings

A series of three business symposia are scheduled by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce early in January, and are expected to attract the top business leadership of West Texas. They are set up to focus attention of West Texans on the problems and opportunities of the various segments of the region's economy.

The symposia, featuring well known speakers, will be held in Midland at the Ranchland Country Club Jan. 6; in Plainview at the Alcové Restaurant Jan. 7, and in Fort Worth at Hotel Texas Jan. 8.

The speakers will be Ray B. Bowden of Fort Worth, secretary-treasurer of the Texas Grain and Feed Association; John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, general counsel and secretary-treasurer of Odessa Natural Gasline Co., former Secretary of State and Attorney General of Texas, and Joe Kilgore, Austin attorney and longtime Congressman.

"We hope to have a good delegation in attendance at the meeting in Midland, and even at the other two," Carroll Davidson, manager of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, said Tuesday. "Plans were to discuss attendance at the first directors' meeting in January, but the symposia come ahead of that meeting and we are now asking those who can attend to give us telephone calls. Transportation will be provided."

Davidson said major problems in agriculture, economic development, and business-government relations will be discussed and all are important to the Howard County area.

E. H. Danner, president of the General Telephone Co. of the Southwest, of San Angelo, will be the moderator. The keynote address will be given by Beeman Fisher, president of Texas Electric Service Co., Fort Worth.

"West Texas Agriculture," will be discussed by Ray Bowden, Fort Worth; "West Texas Economic Development," by John Ben Shepperd, Odessa, and "Business - Government Relations," by Joe M. Kilgore, Austin.

Panel discussions of questions submitted will be handed at 10:50 a.m. and 1:45 p.m., with conclusions and recommendations for action made at 2:10 p.m.

Registration for each meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m., and the welcoming address made by Danner at 10 a.m.

LONDON (AP) — Ballerina Nadia Nerina's celebrated collection of ballet souvenirs was damaged by fire that swept through her house in Mayfair Tuesday night.

GIDDINGS, Tex. (AP) — A pilot who had taken off from Lake Charles, La., landed safely on a highway Tuesday night after he gave a distress signal and said he was lost in fog.

The filer's name was not immediately available but a Texas Department of Public Safety spokesman said the craft landed on U. S. 290 near Giddings, 40 miles east of Austin, where the plane was headed.

Sheriff Vernon Goodson helped the pilot push the plane off the highway. The pilot then got a motel room in Giddings.
