Ten Donors Put Drive 'Over Top'

UNITED FUND

The New Year becomes brighter for all the community and the 13 agencies which depend upon the United Fund for their operational needs through the year.

Thanks to a special effort and a response among a selected few, the United Fund campaign for 1964-65 is "over the top."

This comes about through special gifts amounting to $10,000, made by ten donors. These were contacted personally by R. L. Tollett, president of Cosden Oil & Chemical Company, one of the founders of the UF, its first president, and a worker in its campaigns every year. Tollett took the view that "it is not good for our community to not meet its proper responsibilities."

Gifts of $1,000 each are coming from:

Sid Richardson Carbon Company, Cabot Corporation, Cosden Employe Members Local No. 826, International Union of Operating Engineers, Security State Bank, State National Bank, First National Bank, W. R. Grace & Co., Cosden Oil & Chemical Co., R. L. Tollett, and C. W. Guthrie.

Each subscription in this special effort, said Tollett in a letter to Jack Y. Smith, president of the United Fund, was made in consideration of a similar subscription from nine others.

It was stressed in the letter to the UF that these subscriptions are for the one year only "and to be strictly regarded as not setting a precedent."

It is further being stipulated that future campaigns of the United Fund be held to within the area of $100,000, so that goals can be set that the community can absorb.

The United Fund this year had set a budget of $109,366, to fiwith $100,276.68

SEAL SALE REMINDERS SENT OUT

Some 3,500 reminders were put in the mail Wednesday, asking residents to return their donations for the annual Christmas Seal Sale of the Howard County Tuberculosis Association.

Mrs. John Norton, campaign chairman, appealed to residents to return their donations as soon as possible. She said the annual effort has brought in $5,300 toward a goal of $6,000, which must be met if the organization is to continue its vital program here.

The program includes employment of a school nurse, the skin testing program to locate cases of TB, the Xray program to track contacts, and others.

Although tuberculosis is the nation's number one killeases, it can be controlled if cases are discovered soon enough. This is the aim of the local association's work.

Trainman See Strike Talk Progress

HOUSTON (AP)-A trainman representative says "some progress" has been made in the 16-day old strike by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen against the Port Terminal Railroad Association.

The strike has stopped rail service to the Port of Houston and ship channel industries. R. D. Jones, vice president of the trainmen, said after a full day of negotiations Wednes-"We made some progress. We are negotiating and we're still discussing our problems." . Federal mediator James Holaren of Washington would not say progress had been made. He said the railroad made a compromise proposal on the interchange track feature of the dispute which the railroad presented in two parts . Tentative agreement reached earlier on a third strike Professor Dies issue — work guarantees for switchmen on standby basis.

My problem: I know I was wrong, but when Darrell was in the shower I looked through his wallet and I saw a note which read, "My name is. . . My phone number is. . . Call me if you get a chance." I asked him about it and he said it was from some little 15-year-old kid he met at the bowling alley. (He bowls for our church league.) I asked him why he kept the note and he said he didn't know. But I noticed he didn't throw it away. Three weeks later I looked in his wallet again and the note was still there. I asked him later if he still had the note and he lied to me. #### A Devotional For The Day

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me . . . to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord. (Isaiah 61:1-2) PRAYER: Lord, we dedicate the year of 1965 to service in Thy name. Grant us vision of purpose, wisdom in action, and faith that Thou wilt sustain and strengthen us for the work (From the 'Upper Room')

Censorship Through The Back Door

drifted into a policy of indirectly censoring dubious health books by prohibiting "false and misleading" advertising of them. Dissenting in such a case recently, Commissioner Philip Elman said the commission's order actually challenged the book's ideas and not the advertisements of it, and that this is skating on thin constitutional ice.

"Suppose someone were to write a book advancing the theory that the ills of our body politic would be cured if only the United States Senate were abolished." he suggested. "Could this commission enjoin advertising for the book by finding that abolishing the Senate is not an 'effective' cure for such ills? Surely not."

And then Commissioner Elman concluded: "Congress did not recreate this commission to act as a censor of unorthodox ideas and theories in books, whether they deal with poli- U.S. Supreme Court.

The Federal Trade Commission has tics or health. We should not forget that, in both fields, today's heresy may become tomorrow's dogma."

The commission exercises the governmental police power to protect the public interest against unfair or deceptive trade practices. And this power has been effectively and properly used to protect the public health against misleading advertising claims for patent medicines. But does this power extend to censoring health books, by banning their advertising, even though the books' contents may be-by current scientific standardssenseless and even dangerous?

That is admittedly a close question, as are most questions raised by a conflict between the public police power and constitutional liberties. But Commissioner Elman has done well to raise it. If the FTC majority continues to reject his view, the question will likely have to be resolved by the

The Dilemma

One of the major problems of the new year is what to do about Viet Nam. Sober consideration of the situation compels the conclusion that we are caught in a quicksand. As one observer noted, the present drift amounts to losing the war on the installment plan

The frustrating thing about this is that the alternatives to this are unacceptable or full of equal uncertainties or frustrations. For instance, the theory has been advanced of increased pressure in the form of aerial bombardment of North Viet Nam on the grounds that North Vietnamese are terrified of the prospect of bombings. Careful assessment to reaction of the bombings in retaliation of the attack on our naval vessels does not support the terror view, nor have diplomatic explorations turned up any concrete support of the view that non-involvement by the Chinese in event of action against North Viet Nam.

That turns the matter back to the death warrant to those who have been present policy of holding and hoping, most friendly to us.

but here most everyone is agreed that there can be no hope of ultimate success here without a far greater degree of unity among the South Vietnamese. To learn if and how this can be done is indeed the most formidable and urgent question. An affirmative answer is the only one which would induce the ultimate collapse of the red Viet Cong. for this could mean the accomplishment of freedom and participation within the which is all and more than the Viet Cong has been holding out as a bait. Yet, ironically, some increased pressure against guerrilla supplies may have to be applied pending desperate efforts to achieve a far greater degree of unity among the South Vietnamese. The alternative to all of this is to pick up and leave, a strategically painful course and one which defaults on all of our previous statements and commitments. It also would be a

There is an immutable quality about seed catalogues. Who but a seed merchant, or a rapacious yeoman, would ring out the old and ring in the new with thoughts of Jack o'Lantern? > "I KNOW you will be surprised about this, but last night several of us had a talk with Senator Johnson and discussed very frankly what we were up against. Bear in mind that the labor leaders fought Johnson for the top place on the ticket, and they don't like him. Bear in mind that Jack Kennedy will make a campaign on virtually a socialistic platform. He may be less radical if elected, but he will be plenty radical in the campaign. What is that going to do to us in the South during the coming session of Congress and later on?

> "WELL, MANY of us in the Johnson camp felt he just had to get in there and exercise a restraining influence. If elected, Lyndon Johnson will have considerable power inside the Senate, WASHINGTON - Sometimes it's an and he will be in there pitching. We told him he just had to accept the vice presidential nomination if offered to him. He had nothing to lose if defeated, because he would remain as majority leader."

THE SITUATION is somewhat reversed today in the case of Vice President-elect Hubert Humphrey. He is given enthusiastic support by the 'liberal'' elements in the Democratic party, while many independent voters feel that at heart Lyndon Johnson is a "conservative." Now Mr. Johnson, as the elected President for a fouryear term, has announced that he will delegate to Mr. Humphrey certain responsibilities for co-ordinating various governmental activities in connection with the new civil-rights law. This is one way to satisfy the civilrights group pressing for action and to remove any suspicions that the President might slow down their projects for equal employment or intensive integration in the schools or equal treatment in hotels, restaurants, theatres, and other "public accommodations."

It is interesting to note that the 'liberals' expect Vice President-elect Humphrey to exercise considerable influence with President Johnson, just as the latter was supposed to do with President Kennedy.

THE ROLE of Mr. Humphrey, of course, will be to try to improve the "liberal" position, whereas Mr. Johnson in 1960 was presented as sympathetic to "conservative" principles in the hope of holding the South. Now that five states in the South have gone Republican and there is a rift inside the Democratic party, it is an open question how far President Johnson is willing to let Senator Humphrey go in achieving some of the 'liberal' goals of the Democratic party. (Copyright, 1964, New York Herald Tribune, Inc.)
