Club Stock Show Rounds Get Under Way

Nancy Phillips, 11, stands with one of the lambs she will show at the Odessa Fat Stock Show this week. Nancy's sister, Sherry, will also show a lamb. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Phillips, northeast of town. This is Nancy's fourth year in 4-H Club work.

County 4-H Club Members Launch Annual Show Season

Howard County 4-H Club members will show 10 steers, five lambs and one quarter horse at the Odessa-Sand Hills Hereford and Quarter Horse Show opening today. The show runs through Jan. 9.

Herb Hebbig, county agent, Don Brandenberger, assistant county agent, with the youngsters showing the animals, left early today for Odessa. Most of the boys and girls will stay for most of the week.

Don Good is judge for the show, and judging of lambs begins at 9 a.m. Jan. 6. Steer judging opens on Jan. 7 at 8 a.m.

This is the first of eight major stock shows in which Howard County 4-H Club members will compete this winter and spring. The closing event will be at home—the annual Howard County 4-H and FFA show here March 16, 17 and 18.

Nita Cox is the lone quarter horse exhibitor from this county. Judge of the quarter horse at Odessa will be Jim Calhoun at 8 a.m. Jan. 8.

Steers will be shown by Mark and Max Barr, Steve Foster, Darrell Coates, Delores Lankford and Sharon Harris (two steers each), Robbie Haynes and Terry Soechting.

Lambs will be shown by Dixie Coleman, Sherry Phillips, Nancy Phillips, Freddie Newman and Linda Foster.

The Howard County delegation travelled to the show in the club's big van. This vehicle transports the stock to the exhibitions and when the animals are on display, doubles as living quarters for the boys and girls while they are at the show.

The second show the local boys and girls will enter is the Abilene Fat Stock Show opening Jan. 17. The county club members are to compete this year for the first time in the Amarillo Livestock Show opening Jan. 23.

Next on the calendar will be the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show starting Jan. 27. The El Paso Stock Show follows on Feb. 5. Next will be the San Antonio Stock Show Feb. 10 followed by the Houston Livestock Show Feb. 28.

Final out-of-town trip will be to the San Angelo Stock Show. This event opens March 9 and ends on March 14. This will give the youngsters just two days to get ready for the annual Howard County Fat Stock Show opening March 18.

This is the heaviest schedule of shows the local club members have undertaken in many years. Many of the boys and girls are entering animals in all of the shows on the list.

Postal Volume Is Up, But Receipts Continue Down

Although the volume of mail handled by the Big Spring Post Office in December was 73,544 greater than for the same month in 1963, receipts of the office were nearly $5,000 lower.

E. C. Boatler, postmaster, said that for the year just ended the post office receipts were $461,873.39. For 1963, receipts were $507,918.96. This shows a drop of $36,044.59.

December receipts were $62,976.76, compared with $67,069.70 for the same month in 1963.

Boatler said that the office this year handled 2,663,476 pieces of mail in December. For the same month a year ago, the total mail load was 2,584,832.

The reason for the postal receipts are lower this year, Boatler said, was because of the transfer of Cosden mailing to Dallas and because several other large mailers, who formerly dispatched mail through the local office now mail from other cities.

"We handle more mail," Boatler said, "but our receipts do not reflect it for the reason that the postage is paid at some other point."

Permian Playhouse Presents Carousel

The Permian Playhouse of Odessa is opening its first musical of the season on Friday with the presentation of the Rodgers and Hammerstein hit, "Carousel." Performances are set in the Ector High School Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Jan. 8-9-15-16 and with a matinee at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 10. Matinee prices are $1.75 and $1.25 students, others range from $2 to $3. They may be had at the door or through West Texas Book Store in Odessa.

Judy DeBolt and Ken Hill, who carried the leads in "My Fair Lady" for Permian Playhouse last May, will again be in the starring roles.

Travis Takes Over As Kiwanis Prexy

Bob Travis, new president of the Big Spring Kiwanis club, took over the reins of his office at the club meeting Thursday.

He succeeds the Rev. V. Ward Jackson.

His first official action was to call a director's meeting for 6 p.m. Tuesday at Coker's Restaurant.

The program Thursday featured a report by Jim Thompson, chairman, on the boys and girls committee work for the year. Musical selections were provided by Glenn Falson with Jack Hendrix at the piano.

Peace Corps Tests Set For January 9

At 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, the Peace Corps placement test will be given at federal buildings in Midland, San Angelo, Lubbock and Abilene.

Approximately 800 other Civil Service testing centers throughout the United States will be administering the test on this same day, at 8:30 a.m. local time. It makes no difference where the Peace Corps applicants take their test and there is no need to register ahead of time.

Applicants should bring along a completed questionnaire unless one has already been sent in to Washington. The questionnaire forms are available at most post offices, from the Peace Corps Liaison on Campus or college placement offices, or they can be obtained by writing the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C., 20525.

There are two parts to the Peace Corps Placement Test: a general aptitude test and a modern language aptitude test—for which knowledge of a foreign language is not necessary. Applicants should figure on about one and a half hours at the testing center, unless they wish to take the Spanish or French achievement test. For this optional test, another hour should be added.

TELL THE C-C
What Do You Think?

What are Big Spring's greatest needs? What program should have priority in civic action? What are our channels of immediate improvements? What would you like to see done? If you have some answers, the Chamber of Commerce would be happy to hear from you.

This week, the organization is mailing a form to all its membership, requesting suggestions for a program of work for 1965. Members are being asked, "What are your ideas?" A message with the card says: "Please list four projects you believe your Chamber of Commerce should devote its efforts to in 1965. Your suggestions will be reviewed by the Board of Directors and assigned to committees. It's your Chamber of Commerce working for you."

Good suggestions, however, certainly are not limited to C-C members. These are invited from any interested citizen who has something of a constructive and practical nature that can be offered.

Hence, the C-C is asking any person who so desires to complete the form below. List your thoughts, clip the form and mail it to the Chamber of Commerce, Box 1391, Big Spring, Texas, 79721.

Pakistan Presidential Election Won By Ayub

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — Radio Pakistan said tonight President Mohammed Ayub Khan has won the Pakistani presidential election.

A special broadcast said Ayub had polled 40,913 votes, more than 50 per cent of the total strength of the 80,000-member electoral college.

The announcement said the military strongman turned politician was assured of victory when only 61,957 votes had been counted. It said Ayub's opponent, Fatima Jinnah, had 21,944 votes.

Miss Jinnah took an early lead on the basis of returns from East Pakistan, her stronghold. Ayub moved in front as returns came in from West Pakistan.

No violence was reported during the voting period. Soldiers guarded the polls in an air of tense quiet.

COUNTY GINS CONTINUE TO HUM
1964 cotton crop in county turning out better than expected

County's Harvest Turns Out Better

To the happy consternation of the county's most astute cotton crop forecasters, the 1964 cotton yield is turning out materially better than even the most optimistic prophet had hoped.

Already, the county's gins are 17 per cent ahead of the 15,000 bale estimate set for the year. The Texas Employment Commission, tabulating the reports, has upped the total crop figure to 18,300 bales.

Total ginnings as of Thursday afternoon stood at 17,622 bales. Total ginnings as of Thursday afternoon stood at 17,622 bales. It was said that perhaps 90 per cent of the crop is now in. Two weeks of good weather will bring a close to the harvest. By the middle of January, gins should have only an occasional straggler to handle.

The total is so well ahead of the estimates that it has almost had the effect of a "good crop" report. When the TEC set its 15,000 estimate the figure was put down with reluctance. Nearly every one, who has any experience in checking cotton felt that it was too high. Officials of the TEC glumly said they would revise it downward later if they had to.

Other counties in the Big Spring area, particularly Dawson and Martin, always bigger producers than Howard, have not followed the local pattern. They have had their estimates pruned sharply and some doubt lingers whether they will make even the reduced totals. Glasscock County, where the harvest is completed to all practical purposes, had the same characteristic as Howard County. The fields turned out more than had been expected. Glasscock County's crop was very near the average for the county.

Gins were still busy last week. Strippers were in many fields. However, bulk of the cotton has been ginned. The fields have been plowed and the somewhat sorry mementos of this year's unhappy prospects have been removed.

Major Projects Keep Building Pace High

By PRESTON MAYNARD — A construction pace that passed well above $4 million during the past year is continuing in Big Spring as the new year begins, with some projects just getting underway and others nearing completion.

Major projects moving toward completion include the First Baptist Church, the addition to the Ponderosa Apartments, the College Baptist Church sanctuary, a restaurant on south US 87, a gymnasium for Webb AFB and a major renovation project for Big Spring State Hospital.

In addition, a host of smaller building projects will reach completion stages in the coming months. Another major project, the Americana Motel, has been completed and is now open for the business north of IS 20 west. The motel includes a kidney-shaped pool and a distinctive jagged roof design.

SHOPPING CENTER Several major construction efforts are approaching the actual building stages, with dirt work virtually completed for the new Highland South Shopping Center at US 87 and FM 700, and the dirt work nearing completion for the huge new Ramada Inn northwest of the city on IS 20, near SH 176.

Structural steel for the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church is being erected, with a range of other activity underway at the site on Wasson Drive. Masonry and stone are being placed, along with heating and air conditioning work and electrical installations. Concrete floor slabs for the new structure are also being poured this week.

Completion of the new church is expected by about July. Construction work is expected to begin this week on the new Highland South project, Kent Morgan, builder, reported. The project is considered one of the major commercial investments in Big Spring's history. Footings for the project foundation are expected to be poured this week.

At the site of the new 52-unit Ramada Inn, pouring of concrete for the slabs and footings is expected to begin this week. Marshall Fields, builder, reported. The construction crews are currently placing the plumbing and making preparations for the slabs, as well as completing the dirt work.

TERMINAL The truck terminal planned by Keaton and McGibbon for the northeast portion of the intersection of IS 20 and US 87 is nearing construction stages. Dirt work has been underway, along with the staking for foundations. The project is to include a truckers motel and restaurant.

A project tabbed at more than $100,000 and begun during October, the remodeling of the Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital, is also continuing.

Work on the new gymnasium building for Webb AFB has begun about two weeks, with foundation work presently being done. In addition, a new credit union building is also planned for the base in the near future.

The College Baptist sanctuary is reported almost completed, expected to be ready for use about the 5th or 6th of January. Carpeting and tile for the floors is being installed, with

Boys School Gets Bequest

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Former Rep. Albert Simms left one of Albuquerque's tallest buildings and the bulk of his multi-million-dollar estate to a school for boys, the Albuquerque Journal said Saturday.

The newspaper said Simms left the 12-story Simms building as an outright gift to the Albuquerque Academy. The Journal also said Simms, 82, who died Tuesday directed that his holdings on 9,000 acres of land in northeast Albuquerque be used to benefit the school.

Simms, a rancher, businessman and politician, gave large gifts to the school while he was alive. The school is undergoing a $3 million campus expansion, largely as a result of his bequests.

Estimates of Simms' wealth have reached $20 million. Simms' second wife was the late Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms, daughter of Mark Hanna, a national Republican figure around 1900.

Mild Earthquake Shakes Formosa TAIPEI (AP) — A mild earthquake shook north and east Formosa New Year's Day, but caused no damages or casualties.

Daughter Of Late Actor Bendix Weds TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Lorraine Bendix, 34, daughter of the late actor William Bendix, Friday married Richard Luttrell, 38. It was her second marriage and the first for Luttrell, a photography instructor.

DEAR ABBY

Repeating Good Advice

DEAR ABBY: I just received a letter from my husband in Korea and would like you to know how something you wrote in your column over a year ago has helped to keep our marriage a true one. I can best show you by quoting a portion of my husband's letter:

"Do you remember the clipping you sent me from Dear Abby's column when I first got over here? The one about the soldier in Korea who wanted to know what to do about his 'physical needs' while he was overseas? Well, I still carry it and I've read it so many times it is worn to shreds. It has helped to keep me strong, Honey. It's too bad the Army doesn't issue a copy to every man overseas. They could sure save a lot of money on curing V.D. and keep a lot of homes from breaking up."

Would you please print it again, Abby? I want to be sure the one my husband has now doesn't get too worn to read. Thank you.

A GRATEFUL READER
DEAR READER: With pleasure. Here it is:

DEAR ABBY: My problem is one that bothers thousands of other G.I.'s so I hope you will print your answer because it is needed badly. I am a happily married man with a wonderful wife and two small children back in the States. I've been in Korea for four months. After living a normal married life for three years, what is a young, healthy man supposed to do for his physical needs? There are

Castro Shows Off Rockets Russia Added To Arsenal

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro displayed Saturday Soviet "land-to-land missiles" and swift new reconnaissance jet planes which have been added to the array of Soviet military hardware which has made his army the strongest in Latin America.

The slender, gray rockets, about 24 feet long, rolled through Havana's streets in the military parade marking the sixth anniversary of the Castro revolution.

The new jets, of an unannounced type, screamed overhead as announcers said they were capable of guarding the Cuban coasts day and night.

A Cuban television announcer said the missiles had been acquired by Cuba "through the brotherly help of the Soviet Union."

But at the same time, Castro declared "We do not need to ask anybody to loan us their brains, their heroism or their revolutionary colors."

Help Given Indonesia By U.N. Cited

By The Associated Press

The United Nations, the organization that Indonesia's President Sukarno wants to quit, played a leading role in getting his country independence from the Netherlands.

The world forum helped Indonesia again when Sukarno wanted to push the Dutch out of neighboring West New Guinea and add it to his country.

The U.N. pulled Sukarno out of a jam for the first time in 1947 when the Dutch, reluctant to lose the rich colony they had held for more than 300 years, moved to crush his nationalist movement. Only an appeal by the world organization stopped them.

New Year Brings On A Triple Play

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Each year Kenneth Albert Miller gives about $100 in coins to the first New Year's Day baby named Kenneth born in the Louisville area. This year he gets three for his money.

It all started because Miller, 61, a supper club host, got a handful of Indian head pennies in change in 1943. He said the pennies started him saving change and at the end of that year he had a gallon jar of coins. He decided to give the coins to the first baby named Kenneth born each year in this area.

Miller will present three gallon jars of coins to Kenneth Patrick McDaniel, Kenneth Chad Lindley and Kennethia Gale Howlett. Each jar contains about $100, he said today.

The McDaniel youngster was born at one second after midnight at a Louisville hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDaniel; the Lindley child came one second later at a New Albany, Ind., hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Lelie Lindley. And the Howlett girl was born at 4:50 a.m. at a Louisville hospital to Mr. and Mrs. William Howlett.

U.S., Viet Nam Gap Unbridged

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The new year has brought no solution to the current breach in Vietnamese-American relations, despite several olive branches extended by Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh.

The ex-premier who commands the Vietnamese armed forces sent especially warm New Year's greetings to American advisors. He personally decorated several Friday at Can Tho, 80 miles southwest of the capital. Later in the day, Khanh's wife visited wounded Americans at the U.S. Navy Hospital in Saigon, taking flowers to each.

These were clear indications that Khanh and his general staff are trying to heal the breach with Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor and the U.S. mission in general.

The intended impression of cordial relations was reinforced by several items in the last few days in the government news agency, quoting Americans as saying the crisis appeared on its way to solution.

GRAVE AS EVER

In fact, the dispute seemed as grave as ever, with nothing solved.

It began Dec. 20 when Khanh and his generals dissolved the High National Council, charging many of its members with what amounts to treason. The council was the provisional legislature of Premier Tran Van Huong's civilian government, to whose authority the military theoretically is subject.

The generals arrested a score or so of leading civilian politicians, including some of the council members.

In a speech a few days later, Khanh added fuel to the fire by reserving the right to carry out similar purges in the future to combat any government trends the military considered might be helpful to "communism or colonialism."

NOT SATISFIED

Apart from that, Khanh said, the military would not interfere in anyway and would grant the government supreme authority.

The American mission was anything but satisfied.

First, the United States wanted all the political prisoners either released or turned over to civilian authorities.

Second, the United States wanted a reversal of the decree dissolving the High National Council. One American argument was that, if changes in the government are to be made, they should be carried out by the government itself.

There was no indication Saturday that the military intended to comply on either point.

Discussions between Khanh and Huong have dealt with the possibility of setting up a new national convention or some kind of advisory body to replace the council.

The United States has demanded some kind of assurance that the military will really withdraw and leave the government completely free from interference.

On the contrary, several of the young generals making up the hard core of Khanh's coalition have said they favor establishment of a military dictatorship.

The U.S. mission here believes military government has already been tried and has failed. But the United States is insisting that either the military take over completely or get out completely, not using the civilian government as a figurehead with no real power. Americans were banking on Huong and chief of state Phan Khac Suu to hold the line.

Talks on a new U.S. aid package to expand the war against the Viet Cong remained in abeyance while the war itself was getting hotter than ever.

The additional assistance, tentatively earmarked for military and economic channels when the political situation clarifies, is estimated to total $60 million.

San Antonio Woman Killed and her husband and daughter were seriously injured Saturday in a two-car accident two miles north of this southeast Oklahoma town.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Devaney Likely To Remain

By TOMMY HART

DALLAS — Bob Devaney, leader of the positive thinking element of the Nebraska football buffs, reportedly is being strongly considered for the University of Indiana coaching post.

KEN VENTURI

however, was conceived by a group of affluent Cornhusker fans a few years ago, when they bought Bob a $100,000 life insurance policy. Premiums on the policy run $5,000 a year and Devaney pays none of it. The policy will be paid up in five years and will have an immediate redeemable value of $60,000 if Devaney wants to cash it in. Indiana would find it hard to beat that sort of arrangement. Neither Arkansas nor Nebraska fielded very colorful teams here in the Cotton Bowl game Friday but the class was unmistakably there. Included among the 75,000 patrons on hand were 30,000 from Arkansas and another 15,000 from Nebraska. Both groups, adults and students alike, wore red. In bright sunshine (which the game didn't get), the sight might have hurt one's eyes. Arkansas didn't start to blitz until the second half and then began to foul up the Huskers' overall plan. The Porkers waited until the fourth quarter to look their best, at which time they got a brisk breeze behind their backs. You've got to hand it to the Hogs, they produced when they had to. The Cornhuskers knew what was coming, tried to brace and couldn't do it.

A signal honor is coming the way of L. L. (Red) Lewis, track coach at Howard County Junior College, this week. Ivey B. Holt, a member of that 1914 Big Spring High School football team whose feats were reviewed in this space recently, is now the postmaster at Olton, Tex. Ken Venturi, the golf pro, points to two brothers, John and Dick Lotz, as the next rising money winners in the PGA. They hail from Hayward, Calif., recently joined the tour. Glynn Gregory, great halfback of Abilene High School's 1954 state championship football team, is now an analyst for the First National Bank in Dallas. Gregory was in professional football for three years. In their winning effort against Lampasas in the opening round of the Howard Payne College Basketball Tournament recently, the Big Spring Steers hit 38.2 per cent from the field. Ranga Paul Thomas grabbed off 12 rebounds in the game. Goldfom's first $1 million gate is being predicted by promoters of the 1965 National PGA championship at Ligonier, Pa., home course of Arnold Palmer. Included will be money derived from what is expected to be the richest souvenir program ever produced for a sporting event. More than $200,000 in season ticket sales is already in the till for the Aug. 12-15 event. The New York Giants were supposed to enter into the bidding for Alabama's Joe Namath, one hears, by trading draft rights with the St. Louis Cardinals. The New York Jets of the NFL landed the star of the Orange Bowl game, however. Richard Czap, first team defensive tackle for Nebraska, pronounces his last name the same way as does Big Spring's Jim Zapp. Going into this season, Johnny Unitas of the Baltimore Colts earned $37,500 as a base salary while Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns took home $45,000, including a special bonus of $10,000 (not including his playoff money). Art Modell, owner of the Browns, disputes those who say there will be a $100,000 salary in the NFL in five years. "Not with seven home games," Modell points out.

Will Bengals Be Top Team Next Fall?

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Coach Charlie McClendon blanches at such talk but rabid Louisiana State supporters feel their Sugar Bowl champions can be college football's No. 1 team of 1965. Flanker Doug Moreau with the golden toe is a mighty big reason.

The junior converted end won the most valuable trophy after his 28-yard field goal in the waning moments beat underdog Syracuse 13-10 Friday. He also was on the receiving end of a 57-yard third down touchdown pass play from alternate quarterback Billy Zezell.

Moreau, who accounted for 59 per cent of the LSU scoring offense this year with 81 of the team's 138 points, will be back along with most of his mates.

SIX ARE LOST Only six players of consequence will be lost to the Tigers. One is Chinese Bandit defensive halfback White Graves, whose interception on his six at the end of the third quarter killed Syracuse hopes.

The others are centers Dick Granier, second team All-America on offense, and Bandit Ruffin Rodrigue; two-way tackle Remi Prodhomme, who quickly signed a pro contract with Buffalo's American Football League champions plus guards Milt Trosclair and Mickey Cox.

"You always hope you can improve what you're doing," admits McClendon of the squad which won eight games, lost two and tied one. LSU led Alabama before succumbing to the national champions 17-9 and had his lone off day, 20-6, vs. Florida in a weather-re-scheduled match. "It's not a question of how many players you lose, though," McClendon continued. "It's a question of the quality of the boys you do lose."

"I really haven't thought about next year. I am sure we'll keep our flanker offense as of right now. Spring practice ought to answer a lot of questions for us."

LSU went to a flanker offense this fall when its power running back candidates were suddenly unavailable for various reasons. Moreau was converted from an end. Fullback Don Schwab, considered a halfback type by McClendon, turned in a fine job. Off-injured Pat Screen and Billy Ezell shared quarterback.

NO. 3 CATCHER Moreau, who tied the national collegiate record with 13 regular season field goals by which he personally won three games and tied another, was also the No. 3 receiver in the Southeastern Conference.

Schwab, top SEC ground gainer, barged 81 yards against the Orange and grabbed a 15-yard pass. Screen's electrifying 23-yard rollout run on third-and-12 plus his 35-yard pass play to Joe Labruzzo set up the winning field goal. He'll undergo surgery Monday on the right knee which has sidelined him part of his season.

Even if he has more trouble, Ezell, a bantam battler, is in the wings. Billy unloaded his scoring pass to Moreau against a fierce rush, then clicked on a two-point toss to Labruzzo which brought LSU from behind into a 19-10 tie.

LSU kept the Syracuse offense and fullback Jim Nance from scoring the first time this season. A field goal by Roger Smith and end Brad Clarke's 28-yard run with a punt Dennis Reilly blocked, accounted for Orange scores.

Syracuse can look ahead to good things, too. "We're a young football team," said Coach Ben Schwartzwalder before leaving New Orleans. "This was a pressure game for us and a good experience for the kids. You know we have 24 sophomores on this team."

Fourth Annual PeeWee Meet Opens Thursday

First round play in the fourth annual PeeWee Girls' and Boys' Basketball tournament at HCJC begins at 4 p.m. Thursday at HCJC.

All games will be played in the late afternoon and evening. Trophies will go to the championship teams, runnersup, third place winner and consolation winner. In addition, six all-tournament selections will be made in each division. Admission prices for the meet have been pegged at $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Schools which have entered teams, listed with their coach es, include: Lamesa, L. L. Laws; Grady, Harold Henson; Knott, Phillip Stovall; Greenwood, Jess Miles; and Guadalupe Community Center, Roger Robles. Gail Watson, president of the local college's Women Recreation Association, and Bruce Wells, WRA Beau, will present the awards following the championship games.

Field Trials Open Jan. 16

The Permian Bird Dog and Sportsman Club has announced plans for its first Amateur Field Trial, sanctioned by the Amateur Field Trials Clubs of America, Inc.

The trial will be held at the Flying G Hunting Resort, located near Vincent 27 miles northeast of Big Spring, Jan. 16-17. The drawing for positions will be held at the Settles Hotel Jan. 15, 8 p.m.

First, second and third place trophies will be awarded in the Puppy, Derby and Shooting Dog stakes. Judges for the trial will be Bill Brooks, Abilene; and Rob Walker, Odessa. Entry fee will be $5 per dog, plus a $3 membership fee. A ranch-style meal will be served on the grounds and the public has an open invitation to attend. Anyone wishing to enter animals in the trial should attend the drawing or contact Lee Freeze, secretary-treasurer, at 2721 Cindy Lane or call AM 4-7077, Big Spring, after 5 p.m.

Astros To Open Drills Feb. 15

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros start spring training Feb. 15 with 39 players at Cocoa, Fla.

This is nine days earlier than the club started training last spring.

"This extra time will give us a chance to give our younger players more detailed instruction and to evaluate their ability," Paul Richards, general manager, said Saturday. "We have a lot of good, young kids and we want to do everything we can to hasten their progress."

Eight other players will join the camp Feb. 22, and 11 more will report March 3.

Hogs, Nebraska Get Big Returns

DALLAS (AP)—Arkansas and Nebraska will receive $212,000 each as their share of playing in Friday's-Cotton Bowl football game which Arkansas won 10-7.

Arkansas will keep a total of $81,000. This includes $60,000 as representative of the Southwest Conference, $3,000 travel money and an equal share of the remaining $149,000 divided equally among conference members, which amounts to $18,000 for each school.

Nebraska will keep $93,000. This includes $70,000, plus $5,000 expense money and $18,000, its share of the remaining amount to be divided equally among schools of the Big Eight Conference.

Senior Bowl Offers Top Quarterbacks

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — The five quarterbacks in the 16th annual Senior Bowl Jan. 9 will be face to face with formidable passing records set in the North-South classic.

However, the five have established an amazing record of their own. They threw a total of 793 passes during the regular season for 417 completions, or a 51.3 percentage. Their completions totaled 5,568 yards for 37 touchdowns.

Richie Badar of Indiana, who ranked seventh in the nation in passing, will be on the North squad. He'll be joined by Tom Myers of Northwestern.

The Rebels have Steve Tensi of Florida State, who ranked sixth, as well as Bob Schweickert of Virginia Tech and Joe Namath of Alabama.

It will take a lot of throwing to top the 74 attempts made in the football classic here in 1963. A total of 38 passes were completed to equal the record set in the inaugural game of 1950.

The most yardage from passing in the Senior Bowl was in 1961 when the North-South clubs completed 36 to 58 aeriels for 639 yards.

But the records may be in jeopardy from this year's crew. Badar has thrown the most passes—226—during the regular season, while Tensi had the most completions—121 out of 204. Radar completed 108.

Namath, who was injured part of the season, had the best completion percentage, 64.9, as he hit on 64 out of 100.

Myers completed 72 out of 160 and Schweickert hit on 52 out of 109.

Tensi threw for the most yardage, 1,683, and most touchdowns, 14. Badar's completions, receivers, too. The South has totaled 1,395 yards and seven touchdowns; Myers' 901 yards and two TDs; Namath's 756 yards and five, and Schweickert's 833 yards and nine touchdowns. Each side has topnotch receivers, too. The South has totaled 1,395 yards and seven touchdowns; Myers' 901 yards and two TDs; Namath's 756 yards and five, and Schweickert's 833 yards and nine touchdowns. Each side has topnotch re-

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Havens enjoy seeing the new year arrive with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nell (Sandy) Havens. The younger Havens, who are spending the holidays here, are making their home in Houston where he is teaching in the drama department at Rice University.

Sharing The Evening

Many tables at the Cosden dance were reserved by groups of friends who shared the festivity of the evening. Shown here are, from left, Mrs. R. C. Shaver, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Taroni, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Choate, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Choate and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Boardman.

Cosden Club Scene Of Thursday Dance

Several hundred revelers gathered at Cosden Country Club Thursday evening to dance to the music of the Dell Morning orchestra and start off the new year with a breakfast of blackeyed peas and corn bread. The ballroom was festively decked with tinsel garlands draped from the ceiling and clusters of colorful lights illuminated the scene. Candelit tables encircled the dancing area.

At a corner table were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winterhalter and Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Gillilan. Mrs. Winterhalter wore a simple sheath in off-white styled with cowl neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. Mrs. Gillilan chose a black brocade sheath which set off her gold and rhinestone necklace.

In another group, Mrs. Curtis Choate's beautiful silver hair contrasted with her full-skirted black chiffon cocktail dress with high neckline tying at the back above a deep slit. She talked with Mrs. Jerry Choate who wore a pretty dress fashioned with white chiffon skirt and blue velvet bodice. Mrs. Tony Taroni chose feminine black lace and peau de sole worn with jet and rhinestone jewelry. In the same party was Mrs. Grant Boardman, who said that her mother had used two Indian saris to create the gown she wore. The floor-length costume was white patterned with gold.

Stopping to say hello to friends was tiny Mrs. Wade Choate, whose embossed gold brocade gown matched her pretty hair. She complemented her dress with gold slippers and pearl drop earrings.

COLORFUL

Mrs. R. C. Shaver looked the spirit of the season in a bright green wool sheath, simply styled with narrow shoulder straps.

Nearby were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Crow. She wore a cocktail dress of red crepe with a high cowl collar of red sequins. Mrs. Don Murphy wore a V-necked gown of black peau de soie, flounced at the hemline and sparkled with a rhinestone clip at the shoulder. Enjoying the festive evening was Mrs. Roy Drinnen, her gold brocade dancing dress designed with draped fabric on the bodice and soft tucks in the full skirt. She sat by Mrs. Danny Valdes who wore a loosely woven white knit with crystal beads and drop earrings.

Mrs. George Bair wore a two-piece frock of black with a short skirt and silver shoes. Mrs. D. A. Brazel chose gold for her after-five suit and wore a blended print blouse.

Mrs. Jay Dement's blue silk frock featured a deep V neckline in the back of the bodice and short puffed skirt. Mrs. Jimmy Taylor accented her blondness with a black discotheque frock lean and severely smart. Mrs. Bill Stone chose cranberry red satin in a short after-five dress. It was styled with a full skirt and lean bodice.

Mrs. Louis Wolfson contrasted her blonde smartness with a shadow thin long black frock. Pencil thin straps and a fitted silhouette bodice complemented the long slit skirt.

WHITE BROCADE

Mrs. Richard Naiser was regal in a white brocade dress styled with a scooped neckline and cummerbund waist line; the short skirt was belled and she wore a rhinestone tiara. Mrs. Howard Smith wore pink velvet styled with a full skirt and a slim strapped bodice. Her accent was a rhinestone necklace.

Mrs. J. J. Havens wore a white knit ensemble with the new long coat look and a gunmetal rhinestone clip. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Nell Havens of Houston, wore a print frock encrusted with a glitter design. Her short jacket and slim skirt were worn with a dark blouse.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

There's one thing we didn't do on New Year's Day and that was throw another log on the fire. In fact, it was as little like January 1 weather as I can remember here. It was a fit day to watch the numerous football games and no one felt they were missing anything by not being in the warm climates where the bowl games were being played. Most people viewed the games with the doors open and no one had to wear even a light jacket most of the day.

Friends here have enjoyed seeing MR. and MRS. BILL FLOWERS who live in New Orleans, La., during their visit with his sister, MRS. GEORGE WHITE, and other relatives.

DR. and MRS. BOBBY JACK GROSS and their children, Brian and Suzanne returned to their home in Pecos today after spending the holidays here with his parents, MR. and MRS. EUGENE GROSS. Also visiting in the Gross home at Christmas time was their son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. BILL FLETCHER, and their twins, James and Nancy, and Pamela whose home is in Irving.

Guests of MR. and MRS. EDWARD SHIVE have been her brother-in-law and sister, MR. and MRS. J. O. MCBROON of Leonard, WILL SALMON SR. of Commerce, and MR. and MRS. WILL SALMON JR. and their children, Jeff and Judy, of Midland.

MRS. WILLIAM EDMOND PINKERTON

Miss Barham Weds William E. Pinkerton

Miss Beverly Ann Barham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Barham Jr., Plainview, and granddaughter of Mrs. D. E. Pyle, 701 Bell, Big Spring, became the bride of William Edmond Pinkerton on Dec. 27 in a ceremony held in the First Christian Church in Plainview. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Albert Pinkerton, Edmonson.

The Rev. Arthur Digby officiated at the double ring ceremony before a candlelit white altar and prie deau. David Stockton played traditional wedding selections on the organ, and the soloists were Miss Joe Ann Millway and Miss Linda Dulaney.

PEAU DE SOIE
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length dress of peau de soie with a scalloped neckline, pointed sleeves and chapel train. A pearl tiara was fastened to a veil of illusion, and she carried white roses atop a pearl Bible. The maid of honor, Miss Patsy Ross, Midland, wore a formal gown of green peau de soie styled in a bell sheath and carried a white rose nosegay. Miss Lucy Churchwell and Miss Delta Walker, bridesmaids, wore matching costumes. Louis Pinkerton, Edmonson, and Sandy Barham lighted the candles. The best man was Billy Ward Pinkerton, Halfway, and groomsmen were George Egenbacher, Knox City, and John Speck Jr. Ushers were Guy Snelling and Dale Grisham, Edmonson.

RECEPTION
A reception was held in Fellowship hall following the ceremony. The table, covered in a cloth of red and green, was centered with a white floral arrangement and candelabra.

For a wedding trip to Santa Fe, N. M., the bride wore a moss green velveteen dress with green lizard accessories, and a hat of white satin.

Open House Held By Garretts, Swartzes

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Garretts and Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Swartzes were hosts at an open house affair honoring their friends Thursday evening in the Garrett home at 715 Edwards Blvd. The New Year's Eve party was attended by 80 guests.

A border of greenery and colorful ornaments framed the double doorway where arriving guests were greeted.

Mrs. Garrett's gown of gold declustered satin featured a lace bodice, heavily embroidered with gold and silver threads and sprinkled with tiny crystals and pearls. The scalloped neckline dipped to a deep V at the back. Mrs. Swartz chose a slender white gown, the shining fabric featuring a delicate flower pattern. The blousoned bodice was styled with rounded neckline, and the long skirt was fashionably flared at each side.

Centering the refreshment table was an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, touched with silver glitter and accented with a large silver champagne glass. Similar floral arrangements were on the sideboard and in a tall green vase on a low round table in the living room. Silver hors d'oeuvre trays were used with silver coffee and punch services placed at each end of the table.

Members of the house party were Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Wasson and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Angel. Mrs. Jones wore a short cocktail sheath of white wool with beaded bodice, and Mrs. Powell chose a long white crepe skirt with sequined shell. The empire line was favored by Mrs. Wasson in a black crepe dress with bodice of champagne lace.

Mrs. Clyde Angel chose white for her after-five frock. The two piece dress was slim-lined, and drop crystals adorned the sleeveless top.

Mrs. R. B. G. Cowper assisted at the coffee service and wore a slim white skirt topped with a sleeveless beaded shell. Simple holiday decorations were used throughout the entertaining area. In the small den the mantel held two gold candlesticks with green tapers tied with red bows. In the larger room, the focal point was a carousel pony wearing a wreath collar and suspended on a pole entwined with red and green ribbons. Below was a pyramid of copper bowls filled with greenery and topped with a large red candle.

In the courtyard could be seen a revolving silver tree and a lighted fountain formed of angel hair against a background of greenery.

Mrs. A. K. Guthrie chose a full skirted silk frock in a soft beige artfully draped with a

Elks Lodge Dancers Celebrate New Year

Dale White played for the dance at the Elks Lodge which ushered in the New Year Thursday evening.

Members of the social committee were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cofer, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Lawhon. Part of the proceeds from the dance were to be used for the crippled children's home at Ottine.

Mrs. Cofer's cocktail dress featured a bodice of black lace with an overblouse of black chiffon and a full chiffon skirt. Mrs. Lawhon's discotheque dress was of black crepe, sleeveless, self-belted and styled with a V-neckline dipping low at the back. She used matching necklace and bracelet of pearls and gold. Mrs. Clark chose cranberry chiffon over taffeta with side-slit slender skirt and the sleeveless bodice draped to form a V-neckline. She wore cranberry earrings and long white gloves.

Two dark-haired beauties were Mrs. Sam Mellinger and Mrs. Leland Graves. Mrs. Mellinger was attired in a gold-patterned lame gown with the high rounded neckline forming a low oval at the back and the skirt slit at one side. She wore formal-length gold gloves and a rhinestone tiara. Mrs. Graves danced in a long green brocade skirt topped with a gold lame sleeveless shell with scooped neckline. Her accessories were gold, and she wore a diamond clip in her hair.

Seen in the lounge was Mrs. Taylor Anderson, her blondeness accented with a mandarin jacket of peacock blue embroidered with gold flowers. Her white embossed sheath was threaded with silver and her necklace and slippers were white. She chatted with Mrs. Glen Gale who wore a pale blue short sheath sprinkled with tiny pearls and styled with spaghetti shoulder straps. Her jewelry accessories were rhinestone.

Sharing a table with friends were the Jack Kimbles. Her gold knit dress was simply designed with high round neck and three-quarter-length sleeves. The perfect accent was the gold and pearl ear clips, a gift from her brother-in-law, Gene Kimble. At the same table was Mrs. Jack Woods, her gold sleeveless knit dress accented with crystal necklace and ear-clips.

Glimpsed on the dance floor were Mrs. Janie Huffstetler, in a short red dress with flaring skirt and draped bodice, and Mrs. Sunbeam Morrison, elegant in a long gold brocade dinner costume with cap sleeves and jeweled waistline. She wore long gold gloves and a gold pin at her shoulder. Nearby was Mrs. Bill Ragsdale who wore white silk organza topped with a silver lame bodice with three-quarter-length sleeves. Her accessories were crystal.

A pink and green chiffon diagonal plaid over taffeta was

The Sari, Western Style

At left is apron style cocktail dress by Carol Friedland; at center are hostess pajamas by Kinuko Tanaka of Tokyo; and at right is skinny, button-down formal gown with huge hood. These were among those selected as best of 150 design ideas by senior students at Parsons School, New York.

Indian Saris Show Off Creative New Styles

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Hardly a woman exists who can resist the beauty of those shimmering six-yard lengths of opulent gold or silver bordered cottons called saris.

That accounts for the thousands of yards of these fabric treasures alone purchased at India's Pavilion at the World's Fair this year. Add to that those brought home in tourist baggage from the East.

Yet few women have the courage or the know-how to drape and tuck these around draw string petticoats and wear them with the poise and carriage of an Eastern Woman.

Even fewer women are willing to sacrifice these garments to western styling. Somehow these patterns do not do justice to this rich cloth.

At least that was the story until Parsons School of Design gave its senior design class the challenge of turning these Indian saris into American fashion. The Handicrafts and Handlooms Exports Corporation of India furnished saris to the best of 150 students submitting original sketches for sari-made resortwear. With these they turned out the finished product.

Some of America's best known designers — Norman Norell, Adele Simpson, Geoffrey Beane, John Moore and Donald Brooks — were called in to pick the winners.

First prize winner was Carol Friedland, 21, Great Neck, Long Island. She cut the strawberry pink portion of her sari for the wide-sleeved blouson top of a cocktail dress. The remaining leaf-green silk and embroidered gold borders were worked into a striped effect for the skirt.

Second prize winner was Tina Stubelek, 20, Southampton, Long Island. She fashioned her shimmering fuchsia sari into a slinky formal gown buttoned down the front. The sari's gold borders outlined the dress's huge hood, plunging neckline, and knee-to-ground skirt slit.

Among the honorable mentions was a wide-legged hostess pajama creation by Kinuko Tanaka of Tokyo. Miss Tanaka used the sari's gold border for a smoothly wrapped hip girdle as well as a neckline border.

A cow-necked blouson cocktail dress fashioned from olive green silk won honorable mention for Joan Dingle, 24, of New York City. The sari's gold borders edged the double-tiered skirt.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Remember Advice For Holiday Drink

Stop! Look! Listen! Last year I did not have time to make homemade eggnog. But I learned how to doctor the store-bought kind. I bought a package of synthetic whipped cream, beat it according to directions, dropped in about a tablespoon of vanilla to each quart of eggnog (one can use imitation rum flavoring), and then mixed the two. I did not have one guest in my house ask me whether or not the eggnog was homemade. All of them wanted the recipe!

Here's another thing... You can buy boxed ice cream mix, and do you know that you do not even have to buy the eggnog when using ice cream mix? All you have to do is add milk to it, whip it up, and pour it into your eggnog bowl! This is the best yet but it so happened that last year we could not find ice cream mix in the stores. So look for it and keep it on hand, gals... Heloise

Dear Heloise: During bad weather a thin piece of sponge rubber, approximately one and one-half by two feet long, is excellent to put on the floor of your car to absorb the water and gunk one drags into the car. It is also comfortable as a foot rest.

When the sponge rubber has absorbed as much moisture as possible, just wring and rinse it and wring again, then return it to the floor of your unpuddled car.

I use two pieces of sponge rubber for the front and two for the back floor of the car... A Reader

Dear Heloise: Forgotten hints will never make our housework easier and your hints are too good to forget.

So here is the best memory master going—cut out the hints you want to use and attach each one to the area or item it relates to. For example, sewing hints near your sewing area, and hints about the garage pinned up in the garage.

This way, Heloise will be all over the house!... Anita M. Webb, Home Economist

Dear Heloise: Here is a bit of magic for the carpet, the one that has the cigarette burn, that is.

Unravel a thread from a scrap of the carpet and cut it into pieces approximately one-fourth inch long.

Coat the burned place with a good white glue and press the bits of thread into the glue, lightly but firmly.

You will find that the burned place can hardly be seen... L.M.S.

You're right. I put a heavy book over the patched spot for a day or two. Have always had excellent results... Heloise

Dear Heloise: I find hair clips (the kind used for pin curls) indispensable, not only at home, but also while traveling.

I used to carry clothespins when I wanted to wash out a few garments... now the clips serve as clothespins, to pin up my hair, and to fasten my sleeveless dresses on hangers.

I also use them during the holiday season when I want to fasten something to a pine Christmas wreath. The clips dip into the pine boughs with ease and are not seen... J. B.

Dear Heloise: Perhaps you would like to pass this idea along to the gentlemen: When they finish washing or bathing, if they will put a little alcohol on a cloth and wipe their necks with it, there will be fewer dark rings on their shirt collars... Mrs. N. Galante

She is right... but why limit this hint to the men? We gals can use this idea also to prevent the lines on our blouses and dress collars... Heloise

Dear Heloise: I used your nylon net pom-pons in red and green as favors at a Christmas Club party. To give them a little added festive color, I gathered small pine cones, sprayed them gold, and tied them to the pompons. Everyone said they were just too pretty to use... Ruby Fraley

Know what else? You can use white shoe polish to tip the ends of pine cones. Comes out opaque and looks like snow. Try it!... Heloise

CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH DEALERSHIP CARRIES FULL LINES
Public is invited to attend formal opening at 600 E. 3rd Monday

New Car Agency To Open Monday

Big Spring Chrysler-Plymouth, where four lines of Chrysler products will be on display, will open formally tomorrow, with the public invited to visit the show room, car lots, service department, and all facilities. People are also invited to get acquainted with the personnel at the 600 E. 3rd location, get free coffee and donuts (with balloons for the youngsters), and look over the line of Imperials, Chryslers, Plymouths and Valiants on display.

Cecil Winegeart, the new owner, said the business had been undergoing a change for about a month, including repainting, re-signing, and receiving new automobiles.

"We did not want to announce the formal opening under new ownership until we had everything to show," he said. "We can now offer the automobile-buying public a full line of the four cars and be proud to show them."

Rayford Gillihan, former owner and long-time automobile dealer in Big Spring, is sales manager for Big Spring Chrysler-Plymouth.

CECIL WINEGEART

Mrs. Gillihan will continue as office manager. Other personnel are: Paul Cole, salesman in the new car department; Dick Fielder, fleet salesman; Ben Stuteville, used car salesman, and N. E. Dietz, service manager. Winegeart, who came to Big Spring from Farwell, said he is new in the car business, but that he plans on operating the business, and on staying with it by treating people the way they like to be treated.

"I feel that we have a product which cannot be surpassed, and that car buyers looking for quality and fair treatment will give us a try," he said. "I was born and reared on a farm, but have, for some time, felt that I wanted to get into the automobile business and believe Big Spring has provided this opportunity."

Mr. and Mrs. Winegeart have not yet moved to Big Spring, but some time will be required for making the change. He does not plan to sell his home and farm at Farwell, but will complete arrangements for moving here as soon as possible.

"I have been in no hurry to buy a business or locate in a new place," he said, "but I am happy with this location."

Gillihan, a native of the Big Spring area, has spent all his business life in the automobile business. He operated a used-car business from 1946 to 1953, and purchased the Chrysler agency in the present location in 1953. He said the Big Spring Chrysler-Plymouth firm would now have the new and used car business all under one operation, with the used car lot adjoining on the south side.

Paul Cole, salesman, has had 20 years of experience. He came to Big Spring from Odessa where he operated his own used car business. He will be in charge of the new car department. Cole is married, and Mrs. Cole is an English teacher in Big Spring High School.

Dick Fielder, fleet salesman, has been in Big Spring since 1946, but has been with a Stanton car dealer since 1957. He has experience in new and used car sales business. The Coles and their two sons live at 2302 Merrily. They are active in the Baptist Temple Church.

Ben Stuteville, who has been with Gillihan for 13 years, will be in charge of the used car lot. He has lived in Big Spring all his life and has had experience with both new and used cars.

N. E. Dietz, service manager has had 32 years in servicing all makes of American cars. He has been in the present service

Residents Invited To Formal Opening

New and used car sales and service have been brought under a single operation at Big Spring Chrysler-Plymouth as the formal opening of the new business is held Monday.

Coffee and donuts will be served throughout the day, and balloons will be available for the youngsters of the family.

New automobiles, including the Imperial, Chrysler, Plymouth and Valiant, will be on display in the show room and on the area immediately in front of the plant. Used cars may be inspected on the lot just south of the building, and all Big Spring Chrysler-Plymouth personnel will be available to talk about the products and service. The entrance to the service department is to the west, off

Austin Street, and is not hampered by heavy traffic.

N. E. Dietz, service manager, says the plant is equipped for service, repair and overhaul of all American-made automobiles.

Modern equipment and trained personnel are available to turn out quality work.

Whether a car needs a tune-up or a major overhaul, the experience of many years will assure customers of first class work.

The well-known Mark IV air conditioners are available to customers who want to bring their automobiles up the standards of comfort. All air conditioners may be serviced or repaired at the Big Spring Chrysler-Plymouth service department.

All Chrysler Products Now Available In City

All Chrysler products are now available in Big Spring. The new Big Spring Chrysler-Plymouth agency is stocked with the Imperial, Chrysler, Plymouth and Valiant cars in several models.

The new owner, Cecil Winegeart, has spared no effort to get several models of the 1965 products on the floor, and has given the building and office a remodeling. He has also brought the new and used car businesses under one operation, and has established the used car lot just south of the main building, with an office on the lot.

Leading the show on the floor is the 1965 Imperial, the new standard-setter in quiet rides and luxury interior.

The Imperial luxury cars have new front styling, more luxurious interior appointments, better acceleration and numerous chassis improvements designed to provide an even quieter ride than their predecessors. The refinements, added first in 1964 models, have increased Imperial's share of the luxury car market.

Two constant-velocity universal joints have been added to the improvements in Imperial. They eliminate speed and force fluctuations from the drive line.

The 1965 Chryslers, carrying Chrysler Motors Corp. name, are completely new automobiles with a longer wheelbase, increased interior room, more powerful engines and improved riding comfort.

The 1965 models are expected by Chrysler officials to further improve Chrysler's share of the big car market which continues to be a strong and important segment of the automotive industry.

There are 17 models in the

The Plymouth line includes the Belvedere, the "basic family transportation" car, in 18 models; the Barracuda, which is the sports car line; the Valiant which is the low-cost transportation version, and the low-priced, full-sized Fury.

The Barracuda is the special kind of car and is of the fast-back design. There are three engines provided, with the buyer taking his choice of the 225-, 273-, and the high performance version of the 273 - cubic inch power plants.

All Chrysler-built cars may be had with factory air-conditioning, and all carry Chrysler's famous 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty on the engine and drive train. This warranty goes with the car even if sold before the expiration of the time or mileage.

Big Spring Chrysler-Plymouth will be able to show exactly what Chrysler offers car buyers, whether in the luxury, or smaller models.

Water District To Ask Bids On Well Pumps

Bids on pumps are under consideration and proposals for half a dozen wells will be asked for Jan. 11 by the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

The action is based on the execution of a contract last week with J. C. Sales for water rights on approximately 700 acres in central Martin County. An agreement on the tract was reached several weeks ago and the contract has been executed to permit the district to develop wells for production and for recharge.

Initial plans are to drill half a dozen wells on the tract, which lies immediately north of the present district well field, said O. H. Ivie, assistant general manager. Pumps from as many existing wells will be moved to the new wells, and they will be replaced by smaller pumps. Bids on these have been received and average about $1,000 per pump.

The district will utilize the new field for peaking purposes during the summer months. During winter months, water from Lake J. B. Thomas will be pumped to the Sales tract and the wells recharged, just as are several wells being recharged in the existing well field. This will put surface water in storage nearer the point of anticipated use in Odessa during heavy periods of demand.

Joint Installation Plans Are Made

Officers will be installed for the Knights Templar and the Social Order of the Beauceant for 1965 at a service at the hall, 221 1/2 Main, Monday night.

A candlelighting service with special music is planned, followed by a president's address, installations, a salad supper and a reception. Heads of Masonic orders will be special guests.

The service will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Top Cowboys Due In Odessa

The nation's top cowboys, lured by some $16,000 prize money, wheel into Odessa this week to take part in the annual Sand Hills Hereford Quarterhorse Show and Rodeo.

Leading the big-hatted fraternity in pursuit of the competitive loot, will be Idaho's rangy Dean Oliver, who captured his second straight all-around cowboy title, and seventh calf roping championship in 1964.

Oliver, 35, of Boise, noosed a total $31,150 in the nation's rodeo arenas to earn the sweepstakes crown. His total of seven roping titles, amassed since 1955, now equals the record held so long by Toots Mansfield, of Big Spring.

Mansfield, now retired, collected his roping championships from 1939 through 1959. Other 1964 champions expected to see action here are C. R. Boucher, Burkburnett, Tex.; Jim Houston, Omaha, Neb.; Bob Wegner, Auburn, Wash.; Sonny Davis, Kenna, N. M.; and Marty Wood, Bowness, Alberta.

There were 201 contestant entries in the 1963 edition of the Sand Hills Rodeo. Top money winner was Olin Young, 28, Albuquerque, N. M., roper, who pocketed $1,414 for wrapping up two calves in 21.6 seconds. Young notched 1963's roping competition here also.

Young finished fourth for 1964's national calf roping crown.

A Devotional For The Day

Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. (Mark 11:24)

Great Boost And A Challenge

Agencies participating in the Howard County United Fund will receive their full budget allocations this year, thanks to a heroic effort on the part of R. L. Tollett and nine other business firms, groups and individuals he induced to join in closing the gap between the campaign total and the goal.

Our United Fund has wrought a wonderful record over the years, but it has developed one major weakness. Too many people are not giving at all; too many who are giving are begging off with token gifts.

What's to keep prosperity rolling? That is the question, as we enter 1965. This has been a 20-year boom. It began right after World War II and has persisted with only four minor interruptions—1949-50, 1953-54, 1957-58, and 1960-61.

Simply stone and iron! Our photographer called this "Strength."

Stone and iron are unyielding. But the greatest strength this world has known is a STRENGTH that yields:

God possesses a resolute Will... yet He gives man freedom of will.

God embodies all Power... but He hears and answers prayer.

God breathes Holiness... yet He forgives men's sin.

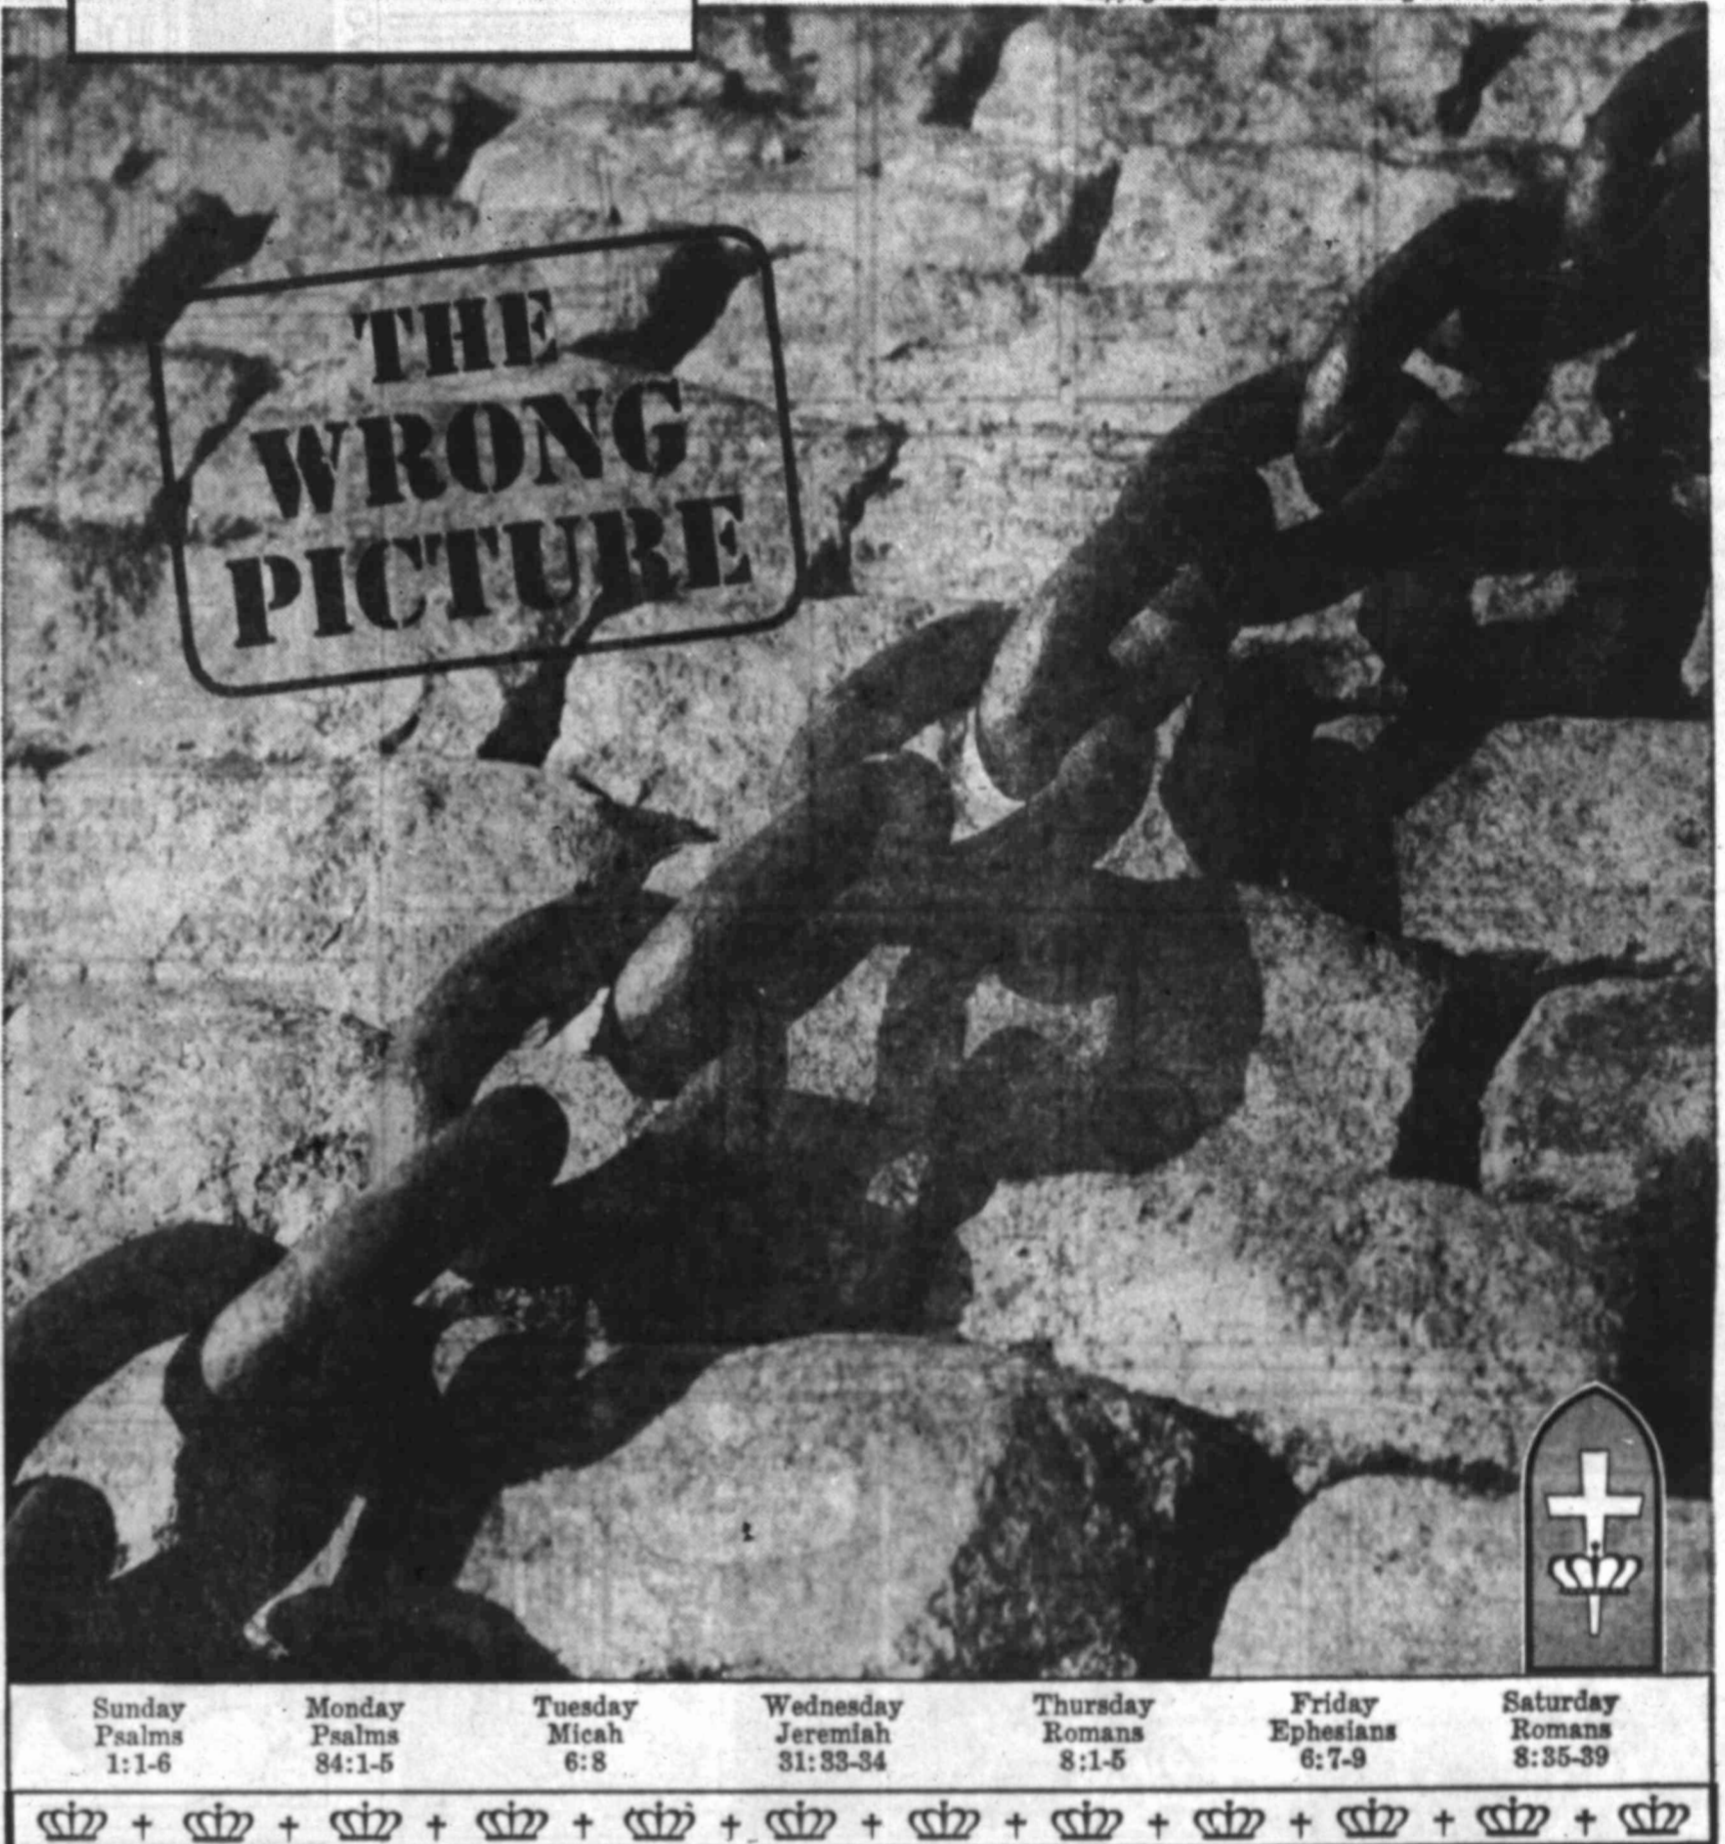

For God is Love... and love is a living Strength... that reaches, inspires, guides, protects, promises, fulfills.

He was a descendant of the Ages of Stone and of Iron — that earnest seeker who cried, The Lord is the strength of my life.

At church, next Sunday, you'll rub shoulders with countless others who look beyond walls and chains to find STRENGTH.

Richard Burton and Peter O'Toole, appear together in "Becket," which opens Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre. In its first engagements, this release has received enthusiastic acclaim.

"Becket" tells the story of the famous 12th century priest, Thomas Becket, who became Archbishop of Canterbury, and the struggle he had with his king, Henry II, to free the church from secular control. The adaptation of Jean Anouilh's Broadway hit examines the changing relationship of the two men. In the beginning they are close friends who spend their time cavorting through the English countryside after game and girls. When Becket is made the Archbishop, however, the importance of the office alters his

'Timmy' Gets New Leading TV Role

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
 AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Timmy St. Clair, after more than three months as backstop, side-kick and — most often — situation-saver for his television relatives, "The Rogues," recently was assigned the leading role in a serious behind-the-camera drama.

In his real-life, well-tailored personality, Timmy's name is Robert Coote. Recently he flew to New York from Hollywood for a few intensive days of plugging the Sunday night NBC series, which in spite of rapturous notices is not receiving very high audience ratings.

Coote, featured in the series which stars Gig Young, Charles Boyer and David Niven, actually is the busiest rogue of them all, appearing prominently in support of one or another of the stars each week. He is seen as a sort of pip-pip English type at the beginning of each episode, but then usually disappears into one or another of the disguises in which the light-hearted series specializes.

Coote, before he made his television mark as one of a band of right-thinking, honorable, humane international confidence men, was a well-known character actor of the Broadway and London stage and many a motion picture. It was Coote who created the original role of Colonel Pickering in the Broadway and London companies of "My Fair Lady," a role that kept him busy four solid years.

"The Rogues" was conceived as a motion picture designed to star David Niven, Coote—in Budapest making a film—was asked to do the Timmy role. By the time he got to Hollywood, it had been converted into a television series by Four Star Productions.

"Originally Niven was to carry five of the shows, Boyer 10 and Gig Young 15," Coote explained. "But I rather think Charles is doing a bit more. After all, he's the president of the company and besides I rather think he enjoys all that false beard and eye-glasses business anyway."

Coote is a Londoner by birth and a fifth generation member of a theatrical family.

Coote finds himself puzzled by frequent references to his television series as "sophisticated."

"Actually, you know, it's not sophisticated at all," he said. "It's all strictly schoolboy stuff and played for comedy. I do think it would be a good idea to do something about the character's finances."

One of the necessary gimmicks of the show, in this medium where crime is not allowed to pay, is for the rogues, after taking some unsavory character for a bundle, to turn the whole thing over to a worthy cause. Some literal-minded fans wonder, occasionally, how these suave thieves manage to pay the rent on their elegant headquarters, drive expensive cars and generally toss money around.

Another Coote suggestion is to have the rogues armed with something a little more protective than their quick wits.

"No guns, of course," he said, "but perhaps we should be able to see a little more action if we were really experts at jujitsu or something."

Coote usually works with a make-up man, dreaming up the jolly disguises in which he appears each week.

"I've been an old family retainer, an Interpol agent with an eyepatch, an American admiral and a Dutch clairvoyant," he said. "The odd thing is that I've never been very good at accents."

"It's worked out pretty well. I never see the shows until Sunday nights on my set, and the other day when a heavily bearded Frenchman turned up, I thought it was Charles — even the accent — until I suddenly recognized me. Usually the scenes are so short I can get away with it."

Coote lives in a Beverly Hills apartment, works the usual grueling hours a series demands and exercises when possible by taking long walks on weekends.

When the show is on vacation — the first one comes in March — he'll go home to England, visit his mother and sister and play golf daily.

He finished his second cup of tea, sighed and dashed off to appear on another television program and talk up the show some more.

Top Stars Team Up In Jet's 'Buccaneers'

One of the crucial chapters in American history is dramatized in "The Buccaneer," due Saturday at the Jet Theatre. With a cast headed by co-stars Yul Brynner, Claire Bloom, Charles Boyer and Charlton Heston as Andrew Jackson, "The Buccaneer" re-creates the final phase of the War of 1812, the Battle of New Orleans and the events that led up to it.

"The Buccaneer" tells the story of Jean Lafitte, the pirate king who had a price on his head, but who became one of the nation's great heroes when he came to America's rescue at the darkest moment in her young history. Yul Brynner, made up with hair and moustache to resemble the famous pirate, plays the title role. The man with whom he clashes is portrayed by Charlton Heston as General Jackson.

In one of the most off-beat castings, Claire Bloom, Shakespearean actress and English lady, plays the rough, tough daughter of a pirate, who loves Lafitte and competes for him with the elegantly patrician daughter (portrayed by lovely, blonde Inger Stevens) of Louisiana's governor.

In the role of Dominique You, trusted lieutenant of Lafitte, is India has issued a new stamp with a theme which is a departure from previous Indian issues, reports the World Wide Philatelic Agency. The new adhesive honors the visit of Pope Paul VI to that country and depicts St. Thomas who brought Christianity to India. Historians have traced the journeys of St. Thomas along the coast of the Persian Gulf and the Arabian Sea, founding Christian churches as he traveled. The new stamp from India shows a photograph of the bust portion of a radiant golden and bejeweled statue of St. Thomas from a church in southern India.

Austria has announced its 1965 schedule of commemorative stamps. Some of the themes are: the 75th birthday of Austria's President Dr. Adolf Scharerf, the 600th anniversary of Vienna University, the 100th anniversary of Austria's Telecommunications Union, 50th anniversary of the Union of Austria, an cities, 175th anniversary of the birth of Austrian poet Ferdinand Raimund, 150th anniversary of Vienna's Technical University, 60th anniversary of the first Nobel Peace Prize award Berta von Suttner.

Malawi has issued the first Christmas stamps ever produced by an African nation. There are four values in the
