DEPOSITS SHOW INCREASE

Bank Gains Indicate Stable Area Economy

A noted stability in the area's economy, despite a poor agricultural year, is reflected in the condition of Howard County banks at year's end.

While gains from a year ago were modest, there was a heavy increase in deposits, cash and total resources from the October 1 statements.

Figures were released today in response to a call for statement from the comptroller of the currency.

Deposits in the four banks in the county amounted to $41,020,830.40, up by more than $363,000 from a comparable call of a year ago, but a whopping gain of more than $6,000,000 from the October 1 statements when the total was at $34,599,140. A year ago, banks were

Loans and discounts as of December 31 were up to a new record, $22,476,308.27. The figure a year ago was $20,799,363.97, and in October it was $22,109,463.39.

Total resources of the four institutions also hit a new high, $45,994,741.92. This was up by more than $316,000 from a year ago, and nearly $6,000,000 from October.

Cash on hand declined during the year. The Dec. 31 figure was $10,262,539.61, as compared with $11,356,838.41 at the end of 1963. It was up huskily, however, from the October statement, when the figure was $9,921,122.90.

First National reported that its deposit total for December 31 was a new record high.

FOR ROBERT LEE SITE

By JOE PICKLE

AUSTIN — Opponents to the Colorado River Municipal Water District bid for a reservoir on the Colorado River near Robert Lee today continued their efforts to make a point of whether there is water available for a 489,000-acre-foot lake. The Texas Water Commission is hearing testimony.

The only witness today was C. R. Marks, Houston consulting engineer for the Lower Colorado River Authority, which is leading the protests against the application.

He testified that in his opinion if all rights of the LCRA and other downstream users were fully developed, there would be only 3,500 acre-feet of yield per year left at the Robert Lee site. He also contended that if water used for hydroelectric power generation were totally ignored, there would be no water left.

He said lakes already constructed above Lake Buchanan have reduced the inflow into that reservoir by 200,000 acre-feet per year. He concluded the application would be detrimental to the public welfare, due to excessive evaporation and due to the needs of the rapidly growing area around and below Austin.

Sim Gideon, general manager of the Lower Colorado River Authority, contended Tuesday the district did not need additional water except for oilfield repressuring.

He would not, however, be pinned down on whether LCRA would be willing to see the CRMWD have additional water at some future date.

Asked by Elbert Hooper, CRMWD attorney, if he did not serve as vice chairman of the U. S. Study Commission report which recommended a dam at Robert Lee, Gideon contended the report was a projection to the year 2010. Later, under questioning, he lowered his timetable on the CRMWD dam to perhaps 1975.

He complained that building the lake now at Robert Lee would result in water going only to oilfield repressuring or up in evaporation. He admitted that the Highland Lakes were also subject to evaporation, but quipped "why not build pipelines down where the lakes already are."

While he repeatedly claimed the water was for repressuring, the best Hooper could get from Gideon regarding water needed for municipal purposes, was "West Texas needn't worry about drinking water."

Gideon claimed that 29,000,000 acre-feet of ground water was available in West Texas. He identified it as the Ogallala Formation, which scarcely underlies any of the 11 counties the CRMWD hopes to serve, but he hedged when Hooper asked if the Lower Colorado River basin contains vast amounts of ground water.

The LCRA did not protest when the CRMWD was issued a permit in 1960 for a 403,000-acre-foot lake originally spotted in Mitchell County. This was because he was told — Gideon would not say by whom or when — that the problems of the Mitchell site were too many and the reservoir would never be built.

Charles Griggs, Sweetwater attorney for Mitchell County interests, sought to get Gideon to say that this purported information came before the permit was originally granted.

Gideon admitted that in its presentation for the Columbus Bend dam downstream, LCRA had allowed for the construction of the Robert Lee reservoir.

Hooper asserted that there has been a great deal of misrepresentation to the residents of the Highland Lakes area about the cause of low lake levels.

Although LCRA released 1 1/2 million acre-feet of water for power generation in 1963, records showed only one-tenth of the LCRA total of 1.5 billion kilowatt hour power sales came from hydroelectric facilities.

"When you release 1 1/2 million acre-feet of water per year for generating hydroelectric power, isn't it going to lower levels of your water? Who is going to tell these people the facts of life?" asked Hooper.

Hooper also got Gideon to read from flow records showing that 117,000 acre-feet of water went past the LCRA last withdrawal point, just above the Gulf, during the crop growing season of 1963.

The hearing may continue into Thursday.

Antifilibuster Scrap Ahead For Senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate heads today into another scrap over moves to strengthen its antifilibuster rule.

The issue was to be joined with introduction of a resolution by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., to permit filibusters to be halted by three-fifths of the senators voting — but otherwise to retain present Senate rules.

Present regulations require a two-thirds majority of senators voting to clamp a time limit on debate.

The issue has been battled over at the start of each new Congress in recent years.

A big difference this time is that a Southern filibuster last year against the most comprehensive civil rights bill in history was cut off under the present rule requiring a two-thirds majority of senators voting to clamp a time limit on debate.

As a result, some of the emotional fervor has been drained off. It long had been argued that the rule barred the passage of meaningful civil rights legislation.

Joint Session Counts Votes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate and House meet in joint session today to count the electoral votes and officially declare the victor.

With President Johnson having roundly defeated Sen. Barry Goldwater 486 to 52 in the Electoral College balloting, today's ceremony held no suspense.

Since the nation will be without a vice president until Hubert H. Humphrey takes his oath Jan. 20, today's presiding officer was to be Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., president pro tem of the Senate.

Yacht To Point To Antarctica

HOBART, Australia (AP) — Lee Quinn, the San Francisco sailor who prefers girls for his crew aboard the yacht Neophyte, says he'll leave Hobart soon for Antarctica, with only a girl and a cat aboard.

Quinn arrived in Hobart last week with a crew of three Australian girls, but they have left the yacht.

The sailor said he thinks Barbara Sody, 28, who has sailed with him before, will make the antarctic cruise with him. Miss Sody is expected to arrive within a few days from her home in Chicago.

Roost-Ruling Demos Gain House Strength

Rules Panel Head Mourns 'Number 20'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., isn't half as concerned about the House's decision to restore the 21-day rule as he is about "what they did to Rule 20."

And Smith, 81, who heads the Rules Committee, already is mapping a campaign to have the action reversed.

When the House voted Monday to clip the wings of Smith's committee, it was just one of the setbacks he has experienced in a political career of more than 40 years.

LIMIT TIME

What the House did when it restored the once-used and quickly junked 21-day rule was to limit to 21 days the time the Rules Committee can bottle up bills approved by other committees.

After 21 days, the speaker of the House has discretion to clear the way for the House to act regardless of the Rules Committee's views.

"I don't mind that change so much," Smith said in an interview, "although I was against it because it is a trend toward restoration of the autocracy of the speakership that existed more than 50 years ago under Speaker Joe Cannon."

Cannon had almost unlimited power over legislation in the House and he exercised it in such a way that the House finally rebelled and took away much of his authority.

ONE MAN RULE

What the 21-day rule does, in effect, Smith claimed, "is to make the speaker a one-man Rules Committee."

"I don't think the present speaker would exercise autocratic power, but we don't know who the next speaker will be," Smith said.

"Very few bills have been held up in the Rules Committee in recent years," Smith claimed. "We have been most cooperative and there is no reason to believe we wouldn't continue to be."

"However," he added philosophically, "if a majority wanted to give the speaker that power, that's the way it is."

Mother Dies, Three Hurt In Car-Truck Accident

STANTON (SC) — Mrs. Jennie Buck, 23, of Stillwell, Okla., is dead; Gloria Buck, her 14-month old daughter is in critical condition at Physicians Hospital; her husband, Acorn June Buck, was being treated for shock at the hospital; and J. Soap, 21, also of Stillwell, is in Midland Memorial Hospital suffering multiple fractures of both legs and one arm, following a car-truck accident in Stanton about 9 a.m. today. The accident occurred on US 80 at St. Theresa Street.

Stanton Police Chief Bob Smith, who investigated the accident, said Acorn Buck was driving a truck east on US 80, and had turned into a cafe parking lot ahead of the car being driven by Soap, and occupied by Mrs. Buck, and the girl. Two other children were with him. The car driven by Soap attempted to follow the truck into the lot, and made a left turn in front of a big truck semi-trailer when the accident occurred.

Driver of the T. E. Mercer truck involved was Albert James Rowe Jr., Odessa. He was traveling west on US 80, and was not injured.

An Arrington-Gilbreath ambulance took the injured to Physicians Hospital, and then took Soap to Midland.

Arrangements for Mrs. Buck are pending at Arrington-Gilbreath Funeral Home.

Physicians at the Stanton hospital reported the baby's condition as critical. The car, in which the victims were riding, was listed as a total loss, and damage to the truck estimated at $600.

This was the first traffic fatality for Stanton and Martin County in 1965, Smith said.

DR. T. M. COLLINS

Dr. Collins, Pioneer Resident, Dies Today

Dr. T. M. Collins, 86, one of Howard County's most colorful pioneers and an early-day physician, died at a local hospital at 5:30 a.m. Wednesday. He was one of the county's oldest residents and had practiced medicine in this county from 1912 to 1950, when he retired.

In poor health for several years, the veteran physician had spent considerable time in hospitals, but also had been able to be at his residence, 908 Scurry, at intervals.

Was Kidnaped, Singer Reports

NEW YORK (AP) — Singer Billy Eckstine, who says he missed his opening at the Royal Box supper club because he was beaten, kidnaped, robbed of $600 and fed knockout drinks, limped onstage Tuesday night.

The 50-year-old Negro told the two audiences at the club that he was below par, but would be back in form in two or three days.

He was married Dec. 24, 1950 to Miss Mary Alice Bennett in Fannin County, Texas. She was a native of that county. She died April 2, 1929 in Big Spring.

Dr. Collins later married Mrs. Lois Esther Durham, Galveston, on May 3, 1931 in Dallas. Mrs. Collins, who survives her husband, is a native of Louisiana.

Dr. Collins was a member of the Church of Christ of Big Spring.

Survivors, in addition to Mrs. Collins, are four sons, O. C. Collins, Midland; J. B. Collins, Abilene; A. R. Collins, Burnet; and M. D. Collins, Lafayette, La.; one daughter, Mrs. Jerry Stewart, Jacksonville, Fla.; and one step-son, C. J. S. Durham, Washington, D.C. He had 14 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Penalties Revealed In Rice Acreage Allotment Scandal

HOUSTON (AP) — Sixty-two Gulf Coast farmers have been assessed penalties amounting to $1,140,395 in the wake of this area's 1962 rice acreage allotment scandals.

The penalties, amounting to about $120 per acre, are for planting bogus rice allotments in 1959-1961.

A widespread shuffle of rice allotments became known in June, 1962. This led to convictions of three former U.S. Department of Agriculture officials.

NOTICES MAILED

Notices of the penalties were mailed last week from the state office of the Agricultural and Conservation Service at College Station, the Houston Post reported.

The injunction was denied but the status quo was maintained as a result of another court ruling until all appeals had been made.

Farmers paid about $20 an acre for the extra allotments, which often were duplicates of allotments that had been planted by the rightful owner, but which were moved to another county as a result of the sale.

Charges were brought against David Stephens, former ASCS office manager in Brazoria County, and Victor Dziewas of Victoria, ASCS district field man.

All have been convicted. Stephens is appealing his eight-year sentence and $17,500 fine.

Add To Control By Panel Shifts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats have beefed up their already substantial control of House committees, placing themselves in a stronger position to push President Johnson's legislative program.

The most sweeping revision of House committee makeup in 25 years especially brightens Democratic prospects for health care, education and immigration measures.

Another Blow Dealt Oyster Fishermen

AUSTIN (AP) — The Third Court of Civil Appeals upheld today a lower court's dismissal of a suit to void a State Parks and Wildlife Commission order liberalizing bay shell dredging.

The ruling dealt another blow to oyster fishermen, who brought the suit with strong backing of opponents of the commission's order allowing dredging within 500 feet of live oyster reefs in Trinity and Galveston bays.

Dist. Judge Jack Roberts of Austin ruled Feb. 13 that the oyster fishermen are barred from appealing the order because they have no vested interest in the oysters, which belong to the state.

The fishermen contend the commission's order is not supported by evidence presented at a two-day hearing, and that the hearing was improperly conducted.

West Coast Flood Area Periled Anew

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Northern California's rampaging rivers — fed by now torrential rainstorms and melting mountain snows — again are threatening dozens of communities, including areas hardest hit by the disastrous Christmas week deluge.

Army helicopters Tuesday evacuated nearly 200 persons living in two areas near the swollen Eel and Mad rivers as flood stages approached. Air Force helicopters dropped feed to thousands of starving sheep on barren floodlands south of Eureka, Calif., center for flood relief operations.

WHOLE GALE

A howling rainstorm, driven in some places by a whole gale of more than 60 miles an hour, battered the northern half of the state Tuesday. Eureka and Red Bluff recorded more than an inch of precipitation in a few hours.

Both areas immediately menaced are on the coast 250 miles north of San Francisco. The warning to evacuate was sounded by Norman Robertson, Humboldt County Civil Defense director.

New flooding finds California still reeling from the devastation wrought by the floods that started Dec. 20, which spread a billion dollars in property damage and caused more than 40 deaths in five Western states. Hit besides California were Oregon, Nevada, Washington and Idaho.

TAKES BRUNT ALONE

This time, California alone is taking the brunt of a low-pressure area anchored off Washington. Rains, in decreasing amounts, are expected to continue through Thursday.

None of the other Western states report any flood danger, although two inches of rain fell Tuesday on the Oregon coast.

Disaster authorities warned more than 1,000 residents of the Eel delta and the nearby town of Blue Lake to prepare to flee their homes.

The threat to Blue Lake, population 700, lessened Tuesday night as flood workers succeeded in reinforcing a catchment cable above the Ruth Dam. The cable holds back floating logs and debris which can act as battering rams against the dam.

The Eel, wildest of the waterways that wrought the Christmas week flooding, was expected to crest at 21 feet early today. Once again it could put under water the many small logging towns south of Eureka.

RULES PANEL

With the single exception of the Rules Committee, which continues to be made up of 15 Democrats and 10 Republicans, the Democrats in control of the House deal themselves bigger shares of committee strength.

The outnumbered Republicans went along, grateful at least that none of their members who were re-elected will have to lose a committee assignment in the shakeup.

The decisions were made Tuesday at a bargaining session described by House Democratic and Republican leaders as amicable.

A key decision was to change the ratio of the Ways and Means Committee from 15 Democratic and 10 Republican members to 17 Democrats and 8 Republicans.

This appeared virtually to ensure — if any further assurance should be necessary — that the committee will approve some sort of health care plan for the aged related to Social Security.

THE 'GRAVEYARD'

The committee had been the graveyard of Social Security health care plans, consistently opposed by all the Republicans, and by Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and enough other Democrats to make up a majority.

Mills has indicated he would be amenable to a compromise version in which taxation for health care and for the traditional Social Security benefits would be kept separate.

The Appropriations Committee, divided 30-20 with Democrats in control since 1951, now will have a 34-16 ratio.

Colombian Hails LBJ Visit Plan

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Foreign Minister Fernando Gomez Martinez has welcomed the idea of a visit to South America by President Johnson. He said Tuesday night such a tour would strengthen the Alliance for Progress and familiarize the President with Latin American problems.

Fraud Plot Figure Held

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Harry Stonehill, 47, a big-time business operator whose dealings have put him under an international shadow, languished in jail today for lack of $100,000 bond.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents arrested the former Army sergeant Monday night as he stepped off an airliner that brought him from Mexico.

Myers Cole, FBI agent in charge here, said Stonehill was arrested on a June 23, 1964 warrant issued by the U.S. Court in the Southern District of New York.

Cole said an indictment accuses Stonehill of shipping 30 crates of cigarette manufacturer machinery to Manila, P.I., on June 12, 1961, under a pretense that the boxes contained grain threshing machines.

Stonehill is charged with violating the Bills of Lading Act and with conspiracy to defraud.

Stonehill was deported from the Philippines in 1962 and went to Vancouver with his family in 1963 after being ordered out of Mexico.

Stonehill and an associate, Robert Brooks, were deported from the Philippines on charges of corrupting government officials. The former sergeant amassed a fortune estimated at $30 million to $40 million in Manila after World War II.

'New Vistas' Seen By Mrs. Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — To Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, the "accent on education" in her husband's State of the Union speech opened "exciting new vistas." She liked best the section of the President's message promising "to help at every stage along the road to learning" and urging a $1.5-billion program to start out.

Business Query Now Answered

By SAM DAWSON
 AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Anti-recession measures studied President Johnson's proposals to the Congress. And businessmen now have the answers to the question bothering them most in the midst of today's unprecedented prosperity.

That is: What would the government do if a slowdown in the long economic upswing comes in a few more months—as many now predict—or if a recession itself might unexpectedly threaten?

STANDARD LINES
 The President's proposals both follow and add to the standard lines of what government is supposed to do to ward off or lessen a slump. The traditional moves are:

1. Tax cuts to pump more money into consumers' pockets, in the hope they will spend it fast.
2. Emergency government spending, which works slower but in time may furnish jobs and new orders for business.

budget will come from more tax cuts, already scheduled or now promised for this year, and from more government spending for a long list of programs aimed at furthering the advent of the "Great Society."

The President, his advisers, and probably a majority of Congress count on this deficit spending to produce enough economic growth to make more jobs, higher incomes and thus, eventually, larger Treasury collections.

RECORD HEIGHTS
 And they point with pride to 1964, when a tax cut while the Treasury was running a deficit is credited with helping boost the economy to record heights.

The President proposes cuts in the federal excise — sales — taxes, and perhaps still lower income tax rates if a slowdown threatens. Above all, though, he would like a heretofore reluctant Congress to arrange for quick — almost automatic — income tax cuts to fight a recession as soon as it appears.

He also wants, just in case, similar standby programs for public works to be started when new jobs are urgently needed.

DEAR ABBY

A Sticky Situation

DEAR ABBY: My husband (whom I'll call Paul) was formerly married to a shrew who bore him a handsome son. She wanted the divorce (another man) so, rather than create a scandal, Paul let HER divorce HIM on phony grounds (mental cruelty). She was given custody of the boy and moved to another state where Paul supports them in grand style. (I heard that the "other man" changed his mind and left her waiting at the church.) I also heard that she is still kicking herself for divorcing Paul.

Paul and I have been married for six years. No children yet, but we desperately want one. My problem: Every Christmas Paul's "ex" brings her son here to spend the holidays with my mother-in-law. Paul's family wines and dines her and the boy, and I must witness it all because my husband insists that I be with him whenever he sees her. I can't stand the sight of her. Would it be better if I sent Paul to these family get-togethers alone?

STICKY SITUATION

DEAR STICKY: Yours is the penalty most "subsequent" wives must pay when their husbands have a family by a previous marriage. Don't send him alone. Go with him and try to be compassionate. If Paul's "ex" can stand the sight of you (whom she probably envies), you should be able to stand the sight of her, who deserves to be plied, P. S. Have you ever considered adoption?

DEAR ABBY: My neighbor across the way hangs a lot of towels out on her line, and I must have counted 50 different hotels represented already. Her husband travels. With a thief like this loose in the neighborhood, do you think it is safe for me to leave my laundry out overnight?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: Your laundry is probably safe. People who carry off hotel towels rationalize their stealing (and it is stealing) with the mistaken assumption that the price of the room covers some anticipated thievery.

DEAR ABBY: How can a person choose a reliable doctor when he moves from town to town? Looking in the yellow pages for a doctor when you

Nuclear Use On Job Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A decision to use atomic explosives to dig a replacement for the Panama Canal would require renegotiation of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, according to the chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg emphasized Tuesday that no decision has been reached on whether to use nuclear devices. He testified before the Senate-House Atomic Energy Commission. Other AEC officials, however, made it clear they were eager to use nuclear explosives and believed this could be done safely.

The treaty bans all but underground explosions and puts sharp restrictions on any release of radioactivity.

Viet Reds Hit, Run

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Large South Vietnamese forces combed the Binh Gia area today, but the Viet Cong would not come out and fight.

Five South Vietnamese battalions, totaling about 2,000 troops, were around the town about 40 miles east of Saigon. A sixth was at nearby Vung Tao waiting for a sign of enemy action.

Government forces suffered their worst defeat of the war in nine days of fighting around Binh Gia, a Catholic refugee settlement. Six Americans were killed and two others are missing and believed captured. Government casualties are estimated at around 500, including 121 killed.

TO CAVES

A battalion was airlifted Tuesday to search for the two missing U.S. soldiers. Villagers at Xa Long Tan told intelligence officers the Communists took the two Americans to caves in the area.

"Finding the right caves is like finding a needle in a haystack," said Lt. Gerald L. Sewell of Houston, Tex. The paratroopers moved through almost perfect ambush

Sentiments On Burch Not Changed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dean Burch's plea in letters to all 132 members of the Republican National Committee that he be allowed to stay on as chairman seems to have produced no change of heart.

If they were for him before they heard from him they still are; if they were against him, they are still against him, an Associated Press survey indicated.

Burch's argument that he ought to be retained was keyed to the theme of an earlier letter written the committee members by Barry Goldwater, the 1964 GOP presidential candidate who picked Burch for the job. Goldwater had said firing Burch would be "a repudiation of me" and "those Republicans who have supported me and the principles for which I stood."

Similarly, Burch said his resignation has been urged on the grounds that he is a symbol of Goldwater and "of the so-called 'conservative faction' of the Republican party."

"If this is true," Burch said, "then my resignation under pressure at this time would clearly be interpreted as a full repudiation by the Republican party of all those voters who identified themselves with responsible conservative Republicanism."

Several of those commenting in the AP survey noted that no other candidate for the job was on the horizon and that "personalities" were involved.

Said California committee-woman Ann Bowler: "I'd already told the party: I was going to vote to retain Dean Burch. I don't see why any one man should be made the scapegoat."

Adlai Staying On Post At U.N.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said Tuesday after a one-hour meeting with President Johnson that he certainly will stay on the job at the United Nations through the current General Assembly session but "beyond that I cannot say."

Stevenson said he and Johnson had not discussed how long he would keep the post, to which he was appointed four years ago by President John F. Kennedy.

College Fire Loss Heavy

BEAUMONT (AP)—A $750,000 fire gutted the science building on the Lamar Tech College campus Tuesday night. Nine students were in the building when the blaze broke out about 6 p.m. None was injured.

Flames threatened the nearby student union building and campus book store before firemen gained the upper hand in a three-hour battle.

Valachi Crime Book Weighed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department has on its hands what might be considered a rare manuscript — but it can't figure out what to do with it.

The title is "The Real Thing" and the author of the 1,200-page book is Joseph Valachi, 60, new to the writing game. While its contents are allegedly solid fact, it reads like crime fiction.

HIS MEMORIES

The convicted murderer and narcotics pusher wrote his memoirs during long months in the District of Columbia Jail. He has resided there since September 1963, when he spilled to federal authorities and a Senate committee the secrets of the underworld syndicate he called the Cosa Nostra.

A Justice Department spokesman said department lawyers are scrutinizing the book to determine whether its contents may be made public and, if so, how.

William G. Hundley, who heads the department's organized crime section and who shepherded Valachi during his revelations, said the Valachi book generally tends to confirm

Single Chamber Legislature Eyed

BEAUMONT (AP) — Veteran State Rep. Will Smith said Tuesday he plans to introduce a bill this month calling for creation of a unicameral (single chamber) legislature in Texas. He said such a move probably would cut operating costs of the legislature by up to 35 per cent.

and amplify what he told the department and the Senate committee.

PRETTY INTERESTING "There's nothing especially new in the thing," Hundley said. "But it's pretty interesting and fairly well written."

Hundley's boss, Asst. Atty. Gen. Herbert J. Miller, has a different view. "I couldn't get through the thing," he said.

The department still has not decided whether to take Valachi from his solitary cell in the District jail. They still think it would be dangerous for him to mix with the population of federal prisons. It was reported in 1963 that the underworld had placed a $100,000 bounty on him for breaking its blood oath of secrecy.

U.S. Denies 'Ultimatum'

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. Embassy declared today that plans to extend the war against the Communist Viet Cong have been interrupted by the military purge Dec. 20 of the High National Council.

However, the statement said that U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor was not demanding that the Vietnamese accept any particular formula for resolving the political crisis caused by the military move.

An embassy spokesman said the statement was made "in order to correct misapprehensions which have appeared in the press as to the attitude of the U.S. government to the current crisis."

Tragedy Orphans Hundred Children

PUEBLA, Mexico (AP) — More than 100 children, mostly under 10 years' old, were orphaned when the roof of a new Roman Catholic church collapsed Sunday at Rijo, 80 miles southwest of Puebla, killing 55 persons.

Jayhawks Race Past South Plains Quint

Eddy Nelson, scoring every conceivable way but by a dropkick, led the Howard County Junior College Jayhawks to a 100-77 Western Conference victory over South Plains of Loveland here Tuesday night.

The 6-foot-2 sophomore, who played his high school ball here, wound up with 38 points and would have had more had not coach Buddy Travis seen fit to rest him the last four minutes of the game.

In his last three games, Nelson has scored 109 points and has a 23.2 scoring average for the season.

As a unit, the Hawks perhaps played better than they had all season. They wanted this one badly, playing an old rival. The tall and talented Texans never eased up and tried a full court press without much success throughout most of the second half.

Tom Carter, like Nelson a terrific rebounder, scored 20 points for HCJC while Jim Flowers wound up with 16.

The lead-exchanged hands throughout the first ten minutes of the first half but the Hawks were in charge at the intermission, 47-40.

With ten minutes to go in the game, the Hawks had built a 71-57 lead and it was all over. The Texans lost their scoring ace, Charles Turnbow, within two minutes after the second half started. Turnbow wound up with 12 points.

South Plains' top point-getter was Dwight Haley, who collected 26 points. Haley and Turnbow were the only two Texans to wind up in double figures.

HCJC is now 2-0 within the Western Conference and is 9-5 overall. The defeat was the second within the league for South Plains. Overall, the Texans are 8-8.

The Hawks next see action in the All-States tournament at Lawton, Okla., this week.

NCAA, AAU Eye All-Out Battle

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union are heading for an all-out fight in the coming indoor track season for control of amateur athletics in this country.

This would strengthen the chief weapon of the NCAA and the federation in the fight. That weapon is the boycott.

The AAU, however, thinks it already holds the trump card. That card is its control of international sanctioning. The International Amateur Athletic Federation (IAAF) recognizes the AAU as the sole governing body for amateur track in the United States.

Citadel Posts Fifth Loop Victory, 70-64

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Citadel Bulldogs, usually considered the league doormats, are turning out to be the surprise basketball team in the Western Conference.

The Cadets from Charleston, S.C., who once went through an entire season without a victory against collegiate competition, whipped William and Mary 70-64 Tuesday night. It was the fifth conference triumph in six starts for the Cadets. Their only league setback was a one-point

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

They say the handsome new Juarez racing palace, open less than a year and representing an investment of $5 million, is already half paid for.

That could be a testimonial to the fact that a lot of people who frequent the place are spending more than they can afford, hoping to win enough money to keep their creditors happy.

Juarez is a city where you are extremely wealthy or hopelessly poor, if you are a Mexican. And the odds are against being rich, although over 250 millionaires live there.

The track, in contrast to the American racing plants, pays almost no taxes; Texas money is supposed to have underwritten the venture.

Lou Spadia, scout for the San Francisco 49ers, said it after signing his first draft choice to a contract.

"We did it with a gentleman's hand shake on the telephone."

The Domed Stadium at Houston will require about 110,000 square feet of glass.

An extra 40,000 square feet of the sod, which was imported from Georgia and is called Tiffway 419 Bermuda, will be kept in Wharton to cover the infield and the pitching mound when they are converted for football.

The grass probably should have first been tested in my back yard. If it would grow there, it will grow anywhere.

This writer is attempting to assemble football records of Big Spring High School since the sport was first played here.

Thanks to a helping hand supplied by Harmon (Sunbeam) Morrison, a former Steer, who had some school annuals of that era, I now have records dating back through 1926.

Here is the rundown on five teams of that era: (Big Spring score listed first):

39 Stanton 0; 62 Loraine 0; 6 Cisco 33; 0 Abilene 21; 7 Roscoe 0; 28 Merkel 0; 3 Colorado City 6; 6 Sweetwater 0; 25 Odessa 3; 15 Lamesa 2. Won 7, lost 3.

Frank Boyles was listed as coach and Alfred Collins as 'acting coach.' Dick Collins was captain. Among players were Harold (Plush) Yarbrough, Frank (Sot) Segall, Theo Ferguson, Harold Harwood, Frank Jones, Charley Frost, Granvell Coots, C. E. (Perry) Johnson, Curtis Driver, Fred Fields, Burma Barley, Vernon (Ickey) Manuel, Arthur Osburn, Frank Griffith, Ed Settles, Malcolm Patterson, Leroy Merrick and Roland Schwarzenbach.

0 Lubbock High 19; 0 Abilene High 79; 19 Roby 13; 66 Loraine 0; 13 Sweetwater 14; 0 Colorado City 9; 6 Roscoe 0; 6 Lamesa 0. Won 4 Lost 4.

George Harris was the coach. Among the players were Frank Griffith, Jess Fluglaar, Ed Settles, Luther Glover, Ickey Manuel, and Granvell Coots. Armistice Day was the time of the 'big game' in those dear, dead days.

0 Brownfield 0; 12 Clyde 0; 0 San Angelo 14; 26 Tahoka 0; 0 Snyder 6; 12 Colorado City 6; 0 Sweetwater 6; 0 Roby 20; 19 Roscoe 0; 0 Lamesa 12. Won 4 Lost 5 Tied 1.

Coach was Bill Stevens. Among players were Jack Kilway, Ed Settles (an all-district end), Burma Barley (captain), and an all-district center, Bob Humble (all-district guard), Granvell Coots, Frank Griffith, Ickey Manuel, Jack Frost Johnson, Jack Flowers, Eddie Maxwell, Frank Fisherman, Fred Fields, Raleigh Mims, and Luther Glover.

The bidding:
North East South West
1♣ 1♠ 2♥ Pass
4♥ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Four of ♠
An alert defense capitalized on declarer's somewhat loose handling of the trump suit to scuttle South's four heart contract.

North opened the bidding with one club. He has 19 high card points and therefore is a shade too strong for one no trump. With evenly balanced distribution, it might have been wiser to jump to three no trump over South's free bid of two hearts. Observe that, with North as declarer, an 11 trick contract can be brought in without too much mental strain.

West opened the four of spades against four hearts. North put up the jack and East covered with the queen which held the trick. A brief examination of the dummy convinced East that there was no satisfactory shift in sight. On the basis of South's free bid of two hearts, the latter was clearly marked with the missing high card strength in the minor suits.

East continued with the ace of spades and, when that card survived, he led a third round to North's king as South took a discard. The closed hand was entered with a club and declarer led a heart. He put up the dummy's queen and East was in with the ace. A fourth round of spades was led and West ruffed with the ten of hearts, forcing North to overruff with the king. This was the lethal thrust, for it established a second trump trick for East and assured declarer's defeat.

South could have averted the upset by leading a small trump from dummy at trick four. If East ducks, declarer puts up the jack and picks up West's ten of hearts on the return. If East plays the ace of hearts on the six, then dummy can withstand the spade force on the next round since he still has both trump honors.

'Guest Star' Role Told By Meredith

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Burgess Meredith went to Hollywood a few weeks ago for what he calls "a doubleheader" guest appearance in NBC's "Mr. Novak."

On his first day of work in the two-part episode, the show's costar, Dean Jagger, went into the hospital. On his third day on the set, Meredith was offered the job of co-star and replacement.

The actor finished his original assignment, playing an English teacher named Martin Woolridge "who was in a cantankerous state because of his slow advancement — a bit bitter because he was entering middle age and felt he had not done very well."

REDEEMS SELF
Fortunately for the show's continuity, Woolridge redeems himself in the end, recognizes his problems and all ends happily. In the very next program Woolridge's advancement starts fast: Suddenly he is the principal.

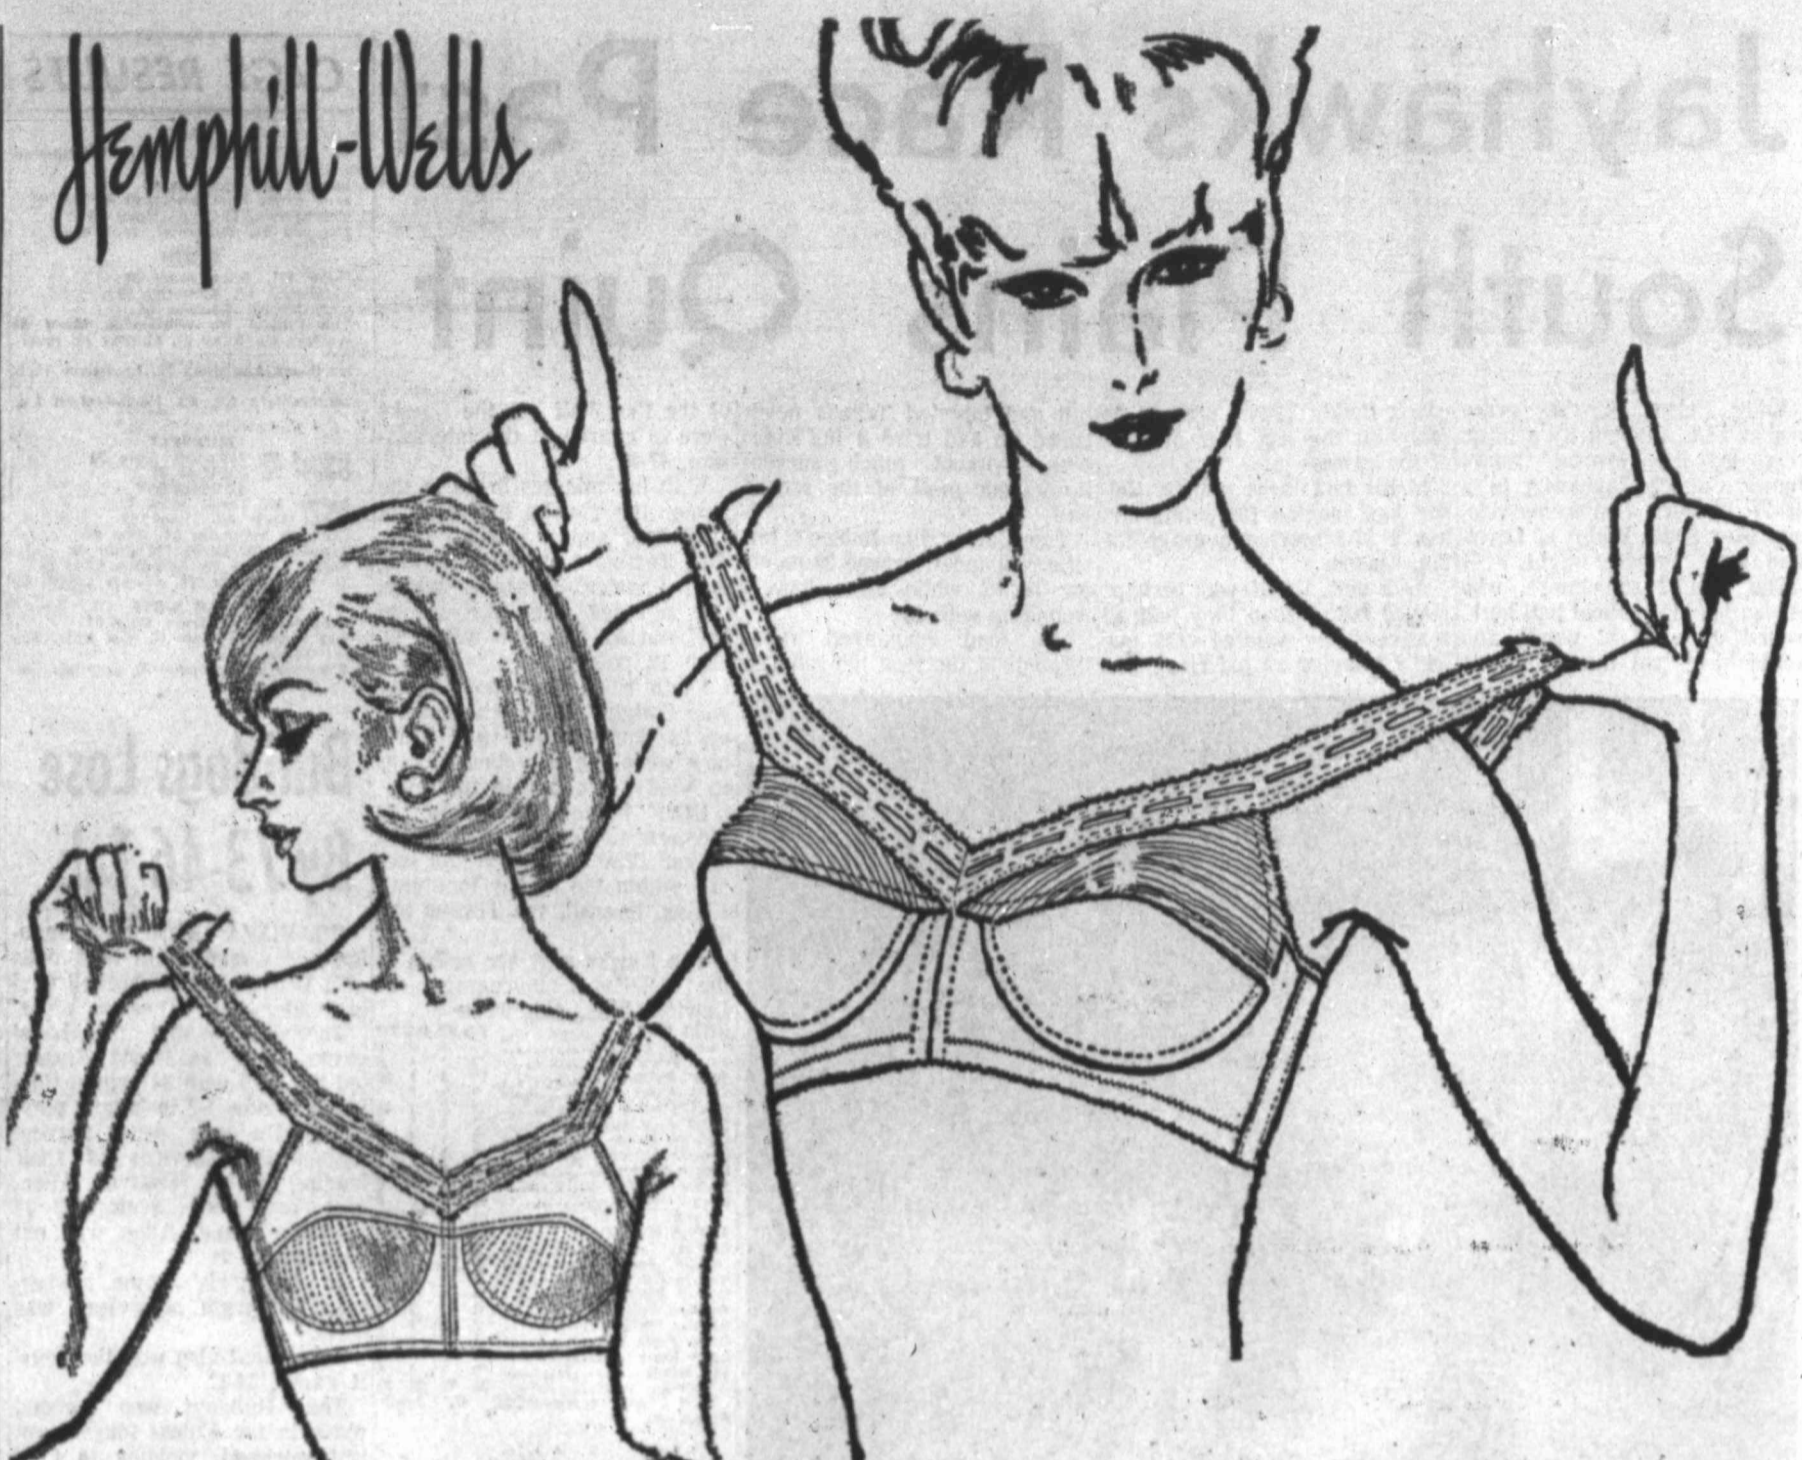

"The new principal will not be in the least like Mr. Vane," Meredith said. "Of course he will take shape according to the direction and the writers. I do feel though that he shouldn't be made too awfully nice — he should have some of his old faults left."

GUEST STAR

Meredith, 55, estimates that he appears in eight or 10 shows as a guest star each season.

"Of course I've had chances to do series before," he said, "but I've turned them down. But this happened at a precise moment when I could be had. In the first place, I like the show and in the second place it is an established series so I didn't have to suffer through the birth pangs."

In an effort to vary the viewer's diet, CBS' "To Tell the Truth" and "I've Got a Secret" will exchange panels for one night — Jan. 18.

Teener Sees Moral Trend

LONDON (AP) — Loss of virginity is regarded as something of a status symbol among high school seniors, writes a 17-year-old London girl in the current issue of the Family Planning Association's magazine, out today.

"About 10 or 15 years ago non-virgins were looked down upon," she explains, "but now nonvirginity seems to be something of a status symbol. I think that, by the time a girl is 17 and is still a virgin she begins to feel sexually incapable and says to herself: 'Is there something wrong with me? I must be frigid or something.'"

"A boy who has never had intercourse by 18 begins to be talked about and is often said to be impotent or scared. The losing of his virginity is a great event in his life because he thinks he has now made the grade."
The girl, whose name is not given, says about 30 per cent of her classmates — 17 and 18 years old — are not virgins and they are neither looked up to nor scorned.

India Favors Viet Confab

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri said today the United States should seek an international conference on South Viet Nam, and not press for a military decision.

"A military solution will not be the best solution," Shastri said in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press. "And a major conflict must be avoided."

He was asked what he considered the United States should do.

"An effort should be made to hold a Geneva conference in order to find a solution of the various issues involved," he said.

According to informed sources, the Indian government has concluded it is impossible for the United States to win decisively against the Viet Cong under the present ground rules of limited war.

Registers For Class

Marina Oswald, widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, alleged assassin of President Kennedy, stands near English Language Institute where she is attending classes at the University of Michigan. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Marina Oswald Now Is A Coed

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — The pretty University of Michigan coed wore a babushka-like scarf around her head and a blue skirt and sweater as she met with newsmen for a brief chat. Although she resembled most of the thousands of other coeds on the Ann Arbor campus, the student was Marina Oswald, 23, widow of the assassin of President John F. Kennedy. The Russian-born Mrs. Oswald began classes Tuesday in the university's English Language Institute, which specializes in teaching the language to foreigners. Although she said she is under contract to write a book about her life with Lee Harvey Oswald and has been instructed to grant no interviews, Mrs. Oswald talked with reporters and posed briefly for photographers. WILL SHE DATE? Asked if she planned to date while at the university, Mrs. Oswald was puzzled by the question. She was told it meant

Day Mild Over Texas

By The Associated Press Winter is having a tough time getting a toehold in Texas. It was on the warm side again today — temperatures above freezing in all sections overnight and readings almost balmy in southern areas of the state. Clouds overhung all but Northwest and extreme Southwest Texas, where the skies were clear. Early morning fog appeared around Midland and Wink in West Texas and McAllen in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. The mercury climbed to highs of 75 degrees Tuesday at Childress and Presidio. Top marks at other points ranged down to 58 at Austin. Forecasts promised readings at least a few degrees higher nearly everywhere in the state Thursday. Pre-dawn fog and drizzle was in prospect for South Central and Southeast Texas Thursday.

Oklahoma Fight Looms On Government Shifts

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Battle lines were already forming today, the second day of Oklahoma's 30th legislative session, on Gov. Henry Bellmon's bold plan to make sweeping changes in operation of state government. Bellmon's booming salvo of proposals highlighted the opening day session. Lawmakers quickly began choosing up sides, with some remaining neutral until they give the Republican governor's program more study. Highlights of Bellmon's program: A billion dollar financial pack-

Famed Poet Sandburg Has 87th Birthday

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Carl Sandburg, the white-haired poet and Lincoln biographer, celebrates his 87th birthday today by lifting a heavy oak armchair over his head for exercise. "He spreads his feet wide apart and lifts a big, heavy oak armchair over his head three times," said Harry Golden, Sandburg's friend and biographer. "That's his exercise and he does it every day." Golden said birthday telegrams had been sent to Sandburg's mountain home in Flat Rock, N.C., by the President, Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall, Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., and "all that Chicago crowd."

COLOR PHOTO President Johnson also had a gift for Sandburg. It was a color photograph, inscribed by Johnson, of the President, Sandburg and Sandburg's brother-in-law, photographer Edward Steichen.

Johnson arranged for William Friday, president of the University of North Carolina, to visit Flat Rock to present the gift to Sandburg.

Golden, who edits and publishes the Carolina Israelite, and has written several best-selling books, said his telegram to Sandburg read: "May you live to be 120, just like Moses."

Sandburg, who won a Pulitzer Prize in 1940 for his lengthy Lincoln biography and in 1951 for his "Complete Poems," has predicted that he'll die at an age divisible by 11.

"It's inevitable, it's inexorable, it's written in the book of fate," the poet told a newsmen when he turned 80. "I had two great-grandfathers and a grandfather who died in years divisible by 11. If I don't die at 88, I'll go on to 99."

READS A LOT Golden, who visits the Sandburgs about once a month, says Sandburg still does a lot of reading and is working on the second volume of his autobiography. The first, "Always the Young Strangers" was published in 1954.

Sandburg has gradually withdrawn from public life. He shuns the telephone and his wife and two of their three daughters protect him from intruders.

"We do a lot of talking," Golden continued. "We have equal time. He talks a half hour, then I talk a half hour."

"Then we have this list of 'Americans who are not what's wrong with this country.' Sometimes we add a guy; sometimes we take a guy off. And sometimes we switch the names around."

Sandburg has been married to the former Paula Steichen, sister of Edward Steichen, for 57 years.

Duke Flies To Gotham

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Duke of Windsor is able to travel again, just 21 days since he underwent major surgery. Dr. Michael DeBakey, who operated Dec. 16 to repair a ballooning artery, said again Tuesday he was pleased at the former British monarch's rapid progress toward complete recovery.

The duke and duchess booked passage aboard a non-stop Delta Airlines jet due in New York today at 12:44 p.m. EST.

Traveling with the couple were the duke's personal physician, Dr. Arthur Antenucci, and a maid and a valet. The duke and duchess moved from Methodist Hospital New Year's Eve to a suite in the Warwick Hotel close by.

U.S. Casualties Skyrocketing

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The United States suffered nearly twice as many battle casualties in South Viet Nam in 1964 as in the three previous years combined, official sources announced today. A total of 1,173 U.S. battle casualties were reported for 1964, including 136 killed. The combined figure for 1961, 1962, and 1963 was 615 casualties, including 107 killed. During the past year, the U.S. Army suffered 1,000 casualties, the Navy 25; the Marine Corps 39 and the Air Force 100. Fourteen American servicemen were listed as missing in action for 1964. A number of them are presumed to be captives of the Viet Cong.

Mrs. Robert F. Polk, mission study chairman, announced that a covered dish supper will be held Feb. 9 when the First Baptist Church Woman's Missionary Union met Tuesday for business and a Royal Service program. The supper will be open to all of the church members and will begin at 6:30 p.m. At that time the book, "Winds of Change," will be reviewed. Mrs. J. C. Pickle, president, led the opening prayer and said that the associational quarterly conference will be Jan. 11 at the First Baptist Church in Stanton. Mrs. W. F. Taylor, chairman of the retiring nominating committee, announced that the new chairman will be Mrs. D. D. Dyer. The church plans to send a representative to the Texas Alcoholic and Narcotic Education seminar Feb. 19-20 at Baylor University in Waco. Any local person interested in attending the session is requested to call Mrs. Johnnie Winham, AM 4-7222, or Mrs. Fred Clark, AM 3-6790. The WMU pin was presented to the Mary Willis Circle which is headed by Mrs. Bill Johnson. The call to prayer was by Mrs. Walter Wheat, and prayer was led by Mrs. T. K. Price. "Christ for the Cuban" was the program presented by the Mary Willis Circle under the direction of Mrs. Bob Wheeler. Those participating and the areas they discussed were Mrs. Glenn Faison, "History of Cuba"; Mrs. Bill Johnson, "The Missionary View"; Mrs. Grover Shaunty, "The Cuban Christian"; and Mrs. Wheat, "The Refugee's View." The meditation was given by Mrs. Zack Gray and Mrs. Polk led the closing prayer. The next general meeting will be Feb. 2 when the Christine Coffee Circle will be in charge of the program.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Service Family Makes Friends

Dear Heloise: Since my husband is in the service, we are continually faced with the problem of how to get acquainted with new neighbors. (This also happens to civilians whose jobs entail many transfers.) Maybe your readers would be interested in knowing how I solve this. As each new family moves into the block, I bake a pie and send it over by the children. This gives the lady of the house that much-de-sired dessert when it's so handy to fix one. It also gives her a good excuse to come over (to return the pie plate) if she is interested in getting acquainted, without making me feel like I'm being a pushy neighbor. Why not try it? Lasting friendships can be made quickly... and the most you can lose is your pie plate!... Mrs. C.

HELOISE

Dear Heloise: When a screw jars loose in our metal kitchen cabinet or drawers, we dot it with colorless nail polish before replacing the screw. This keeps the screw from jarring loose when the drawer is pulled out or the cabinet opened... Nancy M.

Dear Heloise: A week or so ago, after baking an apple pie (frozen in a pliable aluminum tin), it collapsed in the oven when I was removing it. I had two pot holders but the pan just folded up and apples and juice ran all over my clean oven. Since then, when baking the pies in the aluminum pans, I place the pie pan in a larger, FIRM pan first and I can take THAT out with no spills... Mrs. Brooks Booth

Dear Heloise: I remove the ring from the hole of a baking powder can to give a sharp cutting edge, then punched holes in the bottom of the can (with an ice pick) to give air spaces. I use this handy gadget to cut up boiled potatoes for hash browns, to chop boiled eggs as fine or coarse as I wish for sandwiches or salad, to cut shelled nuts, and for many other uses. It's just wonderful... Mrs. H. J. Coqueugniot

Dear Heloise: Mommies, help your little miss when she dresses her doll, by tying a small plastic bag over the doll's head and hair. Use a large rubber band to secure the plastic bag. This saves the doll's hair from being matted. I make doll clothes and do try them on - that's how I learned... Marie Rogers

Flower Holder

Common table salt is used by decorators to hold artificial flowers in an arrangement. Pour the salt into the container, pour cold water over the salt, and arrange the flowers one at a time. When the salt dries, it solidifies and holds the flowers in a permanent arrangement.

Abnormal Behavior Described By Doctor

The fine line between normal and abnormal behavior was stressed by Dr. Harry Davis Tuesday when he spoke to members of the 1955 Hyperion Club who met in the home of Mrs. J. B. Apple, 419 Westover. The hostess was Mrs. Bill Edwards. Dr. Davis, director of the outpatient clinic at Big Spring State Hospital, was introduced by Mrs. D. H. McDaniel, program chairman. He said that a person who is mentally ill cannot help themselves or they would not be in that condition, and that one out of four persons, at some time in their lives, will seek profes-

Miss Mary Foreman Explains School Tests

Miss Mary Foreman discussed the standardized tests given in the school system when the City Council of the Parent-Teachers Association met at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at Goliad Junior High School.

Miss Foreman said that the mental ability or I.Q. tests are given in the first, second, fifth and seventh grades but are not always dependable because many things can affect the outcome, especially the child's physical or emotional condition at the time the tests are given.

The "readiness" test, given in the first grade, however, will show if the child is ready, mentally, for formal first grade work.

Other tests show how much interest and knowledge a child shows in various fields and is used in personal counseling of the students to help them in their plans to attend college.

Other tests offered are the National Merit Scholarship Test and the College Board Entrance Exam.

Mrs. R. E. Ray presided, and Mrs. Roy Watkins introduced the speaker. Mrs. Floyd Williams gave the devotion with W. C. Blankenship leading the prayer.

Legion Auxiliary Tallies Services At Hospital

Pleats Now Permanent

OSLO (AP)—Woolen skirts with permanent, washable pleats have been introduced on the Norwegian market.

The Norwegian Textile Research Institute solved the problem of creating permanent pleats in pure wool materials. The Norwegian section of the International Wool Secretariat financed the research problem.

The process, termed Perma Pli, has been reserved for the Norwegian market for one year so that the Perma Pli garments will not be produced in other countries before next year. Some exports to Sweden are expected this fall, however.

Dr. Joel Lindberg, head of the Textile Research Institute, said that the material is pleated in the usual way. Then the pleats are fixed permanently by high temperatures under controlled humidity.

HEROISM AT MIDLAND

Patrolman Gets Carnegie Award

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A highway patrolman from West Texas and a California oil executive have received Carnegie awards for saving the lives of two men after a plane crash Dec. 21, 1963, at Midland, Tex.

They are State Patrolman Billy Smith, 41, of Midland and Ray Burke, 42, of Arcadia, Calif.

Their citations for heroism state that Burke, Jack Holder and Donald McKee were aboard the plane when it crashed and caught fire. Burke climbed from an escape hatch as flames rose 10 feet above the other side of the craft. Burke, an oil company vice president, helped Holder open double windows in the cockpit area by forcing the outer window from its frame, and helped Holder from the plane.

Although injured, Burke ran back to the cockpit and tried to reach McKee but failed. Dashing to a fire truck which had just arrived, he obtained an ax and tried without success to break another cockpit pane.

Smith then tried to break into the cockpit with the ax but could not. McKee partly revived and lunged part way through the window which had been forced open for Holder's escape. Smith pulled him from the plane.

Smith will receive a bronze medal and $750. Burke will receive a bronze medal.

Weight Factor As Health Hazard Noted

CHICAGO (AP)—Are you a prime candidate for a heart attack? One way to tell, says a specialist, is to put a tape measure around your waist.

Slender persons suffer just as many heart attacks as does the more robust group—but not so many of the fatal kind, he said.

Weight is just one factor that causes heart attacks, said Bates, a specialist in internal medicine.

Texas Boy Shot Dead

HOUSTON (AP)—Paul French Jr., 13, was shot and killed under puzzling circumstances at his home Tuesday night.

His parents were at a hospital visiting Mrs. French's ill father when their son was brought in and pronounced dead on arrival.

The youth suffered a single .22 caliber bullet wound in his head.

Juvenile officer J. D. Deere said there were two notes from school teachers in the boy's wallet. The notes, to be signed by his parents, said he had not been doing his school work.

Injunction Halts Work Stoppage

HOUSTON (AP)—The beleaguered port of Houston had one less problem today, but a 22-day-old trainmen's strike continued.

A temporary injunction was issued against eight striking crane operators Tuesday halted another work stoppage.

Dist. Judge Byron Johnson, acting at the request of the Harris County Navigation District, ordered the crane men back to Trainmen against the Port Terminal Railroad Association entered its 22nd day.

There also was a threat of a longshoremen's strike in view of a contract dispute between West work today. They walked out Dec. 23 to protest the firing of a fellow crane operator.

COSTLY STRIKE. Meanwhile, a costly strike by the Brotherhood of Railroad Gulf Coast longshoremen and shippers. Negotiations continued at Galveston.

Talks were resumed here today in the trainmen's strike, but representatives of each side saw little hope for an early settlement.

Monetary loss to employees, their families, the port, more than 60 ship channel industries and the association has been estimated by C. L. Brown, PTR general manager, at more than $10 million.

CONTINUE LOADING. Longshoremen are able to continue loading and unloading ships. Trucks are carrying much of the cargo normally handled by railroads which serve the port.

Of the more than 9,000 rail cars on PTR tracks when the strike began, 5,000 remained to be moved and more than 3,000 were being held on the tracks of connecting lines for delivery to the PTR.

James Holaren, a federal mediator, entered negotiations between the trainmen and the PTR Dec. 21.

"The hose coupling issue appears to be the principal stumbling block to reaching an end of the strike," Brown said.

The trainmen are asking an hour's pay for the coupling of air hoses instead of the 95 cents they now receive.
