NEW OFFICERS OF THE SALVATION ARMY ADVISORY BOARD H. W. Smith, vice chairman, Mrs. H. N. Robinson, secretary, Chester Cathey, chairman

Salvation Army Preceded Peace Corps, Speaker Says

The Salvation Army has been giving warm friendship and a hot cup of coffee for a century as well as doing things which lately have become popular in other quarters.

More than 150 friends were on hand for the occasion at the Dora Roberts Student Union Building Tuesday evening. J. D. Jones surrendered the chairmanship to Chester Cathey, who has served during the past year as vice chairman.

Music for the dinner was furnished by George Laubmeier of Gilliam Music Company, and a Lubbock youth choir sang under direction of Capt. Keeton.

'Beautify U.S.' Drive Started By First Lady

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson announced today a personal project to help beautify America. She will start with the nation's capital.

Highlights of the statistical report given by Mrs. (Capt.) William Thomas showed 9,646 meals provided transients, along with 3,748 nights of lodging and 4,358 items of clothing.

Go-Slow Sign Lit On Wide Bank Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman A. Willis Robertson hoisted a go-slow signal today on a proposed broad-scale investigation of the national banking system by his Senate Banking Committee.

Negotiated Settlement Of Viet War Proposed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., has called for a negotiated settlement of the war in Viet Nam that would permit withdrawal of U.S. troops and avert total war with Red China, the Miami Herald said today.

The situation in Viet Nam today, Gore said, "is like having a bear by the tail. We haven't found an honorable way to turn loose."

Giving U.S. Visas To Reds Charged

CHICAGO (AP) — A former Army private has been charged with delivering 15 United States passports to Soviet agents in East Berlin.

Paul Carl Meyer, 25, was arrested Tuesday by federal marshals in the $95-a-month apartment he and his wife Yolanda had rented Monday.

Low Of 13 For Dalhart

Texas continued to shake off the latest cold spell slowly today after still another chilly night over northern areas of the state.

The mercury descended to 13 degrees above zero at Dalhart in the Texas Panhandle before sunrise, but absence of wind took away much of the sting.

Forecasts called for a little further warming tonight in North Central and Northwest Texas, and over the western and northern sections Thursday.

Crop Warning Hoisted For Florida Areas

Crop warnings were in effect today for Florida as much of the state became the latest victim of the cold wave that has gripped much of the United States.

Temperatures in northern and central Florida tumbled two degrees an hour late Tuesday and many parts braced for an expected wave of below-freezing temperatures, the Weather Bureau said.

As the cold front moved southward, locally heavy thunderstorms hit some areas. Vero Beach, Fla., recorded 1.13 inches of rain within six hours and more than 1 inch fell in West Palm Beach, a winter playland.

The mercury reached a high of 81 Tuesday off southeast Florida. An icy 34 below zero in northeastern Iowa was one of the lowest readings reported.

Fair weather prevailed in most of the nation. Snow fell in the Appalachians, along the Great Lakes and the eastern slopes of the Rockies.

New Mexico had showers and some rain fell in the north Pacific Coast region.

California enjoyed fair and mild weather with some fog in northern sections, but the cold reached out to the islands of Hawaii.

The Virginia Democrat said in an interview he intends to wait on reports from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the comptroller of the currency on the failure of the San Francisco National Bank before acting further.

He said he had received reports of "irregularities" and "we want to know the facts."

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, proposed in the Senate Tuesday a sweeping inquiry into banking practices as a result of the closing of the San Francisco bank.

Sen. Wallace Bennett, R-Utah, followed this with a statement predicting that the banking committee will call Comptroller of the Currency James J. Saxon as a witness.

"We should take a careful look at charges being made in some quarters that bank charters throughout the country lately have been handed out as Democratic administration favors," he said.

Presents Pooling Bill

Sen. Calloway Calhoun (standing center), of Tyler presents a bill, drafted by the oil industry which, proponents say, would enhance bargaining power of small tract producers. Seated are members of the Texas Senate Oil, Gas and Mining Committee. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Oil, Gas Lease Pooling Bill Passes Senate Panel

AUSTIN (AP)—Well laid oil industry plans for an oil and gas lease pooling bill paid off with unanimous approval Tuesday by the Senate Oil and Gas Committee.

It heard nearly three hours of testimony on the bill, sponsored by committee chairman Calloway Calhoun of Tyler.

Although opponents said the bill would rob landowners, the committee agreed with Austin lawyer Walter Koch, who said it would "restore at least part of a small tract driller's power in bargaining with oil companies."

DROPPED EARLIER

Koch was chairman of a committee which spent a year working on the legislation for the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, which obtained endorsement for the bill from all segments of the industry.

A pooling bill offered in 1963 raised so much controversy it was abandoned. Koch said a primary purpose of the bill is to boost voluntary pooling, and "there could be no more successful bill if it was never used, because it would encourage voluntary pooling."

It provides that if tract owners fail in efforts to pool voluntarily with neighboring tract owners to form a proration unit, pooling could be forced by the Texas Railroad Commission.

In a statement issued by his lawyer, San Angelo oilman M. D. Bryant said the bill would "destroy land owners' bargaining power" and "is not designed to prevent waste, but is a tool of convenience."

Called "BURDEN" Stanley Woods of Houston, president of the Texas Land Owners and Independent Oil and Gas Producers Association, said the bill is "absolutely unnecessary" and "an undue burden on landowners."

Van Zandt County farmer C. O. Pirtle said the bill could result in legislators accidentally robbing landowners of property rights.

"If you want to rob us, I want you to know you're doing it," Pirtle said.

Thomas said that his appeal would also object to certain of the court's instructions to the jury in the charge.

The defendant has 10 days in which to move for a new trial, but Thomas said he did not know for certain that a new trial would be asked. He does not have to ask a new trial in order to perfect an appeal, the attorney said.

Wayne Burns, district attorney, said there is a second indictment pending charging McDonald with rape. This indictment grew out of the same case for which he stands convicted of murder. It was shown by physicians that Mrs. McDonald, the murder victim, had also been raped. Burns said he would keep this indictment active.

McDonald Will Appeal His Murder Conviction

STANTON—Daniel Odell McDonald, 19, facing 99 years in the state penitentiary for murder, will appeal his conviction, George Thomas, his attorney, said Tuesday.

Thomas said that McDonald filed an affidavit with the Martin County district court clerk Tuesday attesting that he is a pauper and pleading that he be provided with a transcript of the trial.

The state is required to provide a defendant with such transcripts where he can show he is without funds to pay for it.

Thomas said that his appeal would be based on several points.

He will contend that McDonald was deprived of his constitutional rights in the interrogation he was submitted to at the time he signed a statement in which he allegedly admitted the June 12 murder of his 82-year-old grandmother, Mrs. W. S. McDonald.

In part, the appeal will track the recent ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court in the now famous Escabado case — a case where the defendant was ordered freed of a murder conviction because he had not been represented by Counsel at the time he was being interrogated.

Escabado had asked that he be allowed to see his attorney and he talked too fast for me to keep up," the sheriff said.

This statement was read to the jury over Thomas' vehement objections. He will cite the admission of the statement as an error in his appeal of the case, he said.

Thomas said that his appeal would also object to certain of the court's instructions to the jury in the charge.

The defendant has 10 days in which to move for a new trial, but Thomas said he did not know for certain that a new trial would be asked. He does not have to ask a new trial in order to perfect an appeal, the attorney said.

Wayne Burns, district attorney, said there is a second indictment pending charging McDonald with rape. This indictment grew out of the same case for which he stands convicted of murder. It was shown by physicians that Mrs. McDonald, the murder victim, had also been raped. Burns said he would keep this indictment active.

McDonald was tried in 118th District Court last week. A jury returned a verdict of guilty late Saturday night and assessed punishment in the case at 99 years. The state has asked for the death sentence.

Observers commenting on Thomas' plan to appeal the case were unanimous in one conclusion—if the case should be reversed and remanded for retrial, it would be hopeless to attempt to try it in Martin County. It is generally agreed, if this development arises, there is no chance a second jury to try the defendant could be found in this county.

Measure Is 1st For This Legislature

AUSTIN (AP) — Legislators had proof to show today for their first 22 days of work.

One bill completed its journey through the House and Senate Tuesday and needs only the governor's signature to become law.

Another had a good chance of reaching the governor's office today. Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan planned to seek earliest possible Senate consideration of a House-approved bill making $702,785 available in emergency appropriations requested by the governor.

House members approved the emergency appropriations bill 143-2 Tuesday. It would provide $250,000 for continuing the screwworm eradication program, $290,000 in Texas Water Commission funds for a water resources study, $26,785 for mental health planning and $12,500 for the Texas Commission on Higher Education to administer the state's part in the federal higher education facilities program.

SEPARATE BILL The House deleted provisions to let the Texas Board of Corrections sell about $3 million worth of property to purchase land in Anderson and Freestone counties. Rep. Rayford Price of Frankston said he would offer a separate bill on the prison land to satisfy protests that the matter did not belong in an appropriations bill.

The first successful measure in the 59th Legislature, Senate Bill 66, sets up procedures for Texas cities to take advantage of $2.5 million in federal funds for library construction. Representatives approved the bill 131-5. It passed the Senate 30-0.

The Senate passed unanimously and sent to the House a resolution seeking Congress' help on legislative redistricting. If passed by the House, it would ask Congress to call a special convention for considering a constitutional amendment that would let one house of a state legislature be elected on some basis other than population.

LONG ROAD Even if finally passed by the legislature, the redistricting resolution would have a long road ahead. It takes two-thirds of the state legislatures to force a constitutional convention, and any action by such a convention would have to be approved by three-fourths of the legislatures before making a change in the U.S. Constitution.

At an organization meeting of the House Revenue and Tax Committee, Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, chairman, promised a drive to squeeze another $15.3 million from present tax laws by modernization and better administration.

Atwell said about 10 new taxes or tax changes have been proposed but suggested that committee action on any major tax changes wait until the House decides how big a spending bill it wants.

Astronauts In Training

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — This country's oldest active astronaut, 41-year-old Walter M. Schirra Jr., showed the kids Tuesday how to sail through the air dangling from the end of a parachute.

The boyish looking Navy commander, who expects to be among the choices for a moon landing even though he'll be 46 when that is expected, swept through a chilly sky into the cold waters of Galveston Bay in a training exercise.

It was great fun and the dunking didn't get through his waterproof space suit, Schirra said.

Four younger astronauts also plunged into the water. The five astronauts hooked onto a lifting parachute, which carried them about 300 feet up and two miles onto the bay. A motor boat towed the spacemen and air filling the chute gave it the necessary lift.

Selma Still Strife-Hit

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Negroes for more volunteers for street demonstrations.

City police and sheriff's deputies arrested 505 Negroes Tuesday, most of them teenagers who stayed out of school to join the growing protest. It brought to almost 1,300 the number taken into custody this week and to more than 1,600 the total since the campaign started 16 days ago.

Negro attorneys said they would ask a federal judge today to order the Dallas County Board of Registrars to meet more often and stay in session longer each day to give prospective Negro voters more time to apply for registration.

The lawyers said they also would petition U.S. Dist. Judge Daniel H. Thomas in Mobile for an injunction to prohibit city police from arresting Negroes participating in right-to-vote marches.

POWERFUL DIESELS PULL TOFC FREIGHTS ON FAST SCHEDULES
Texas and Pacific Railway Co. provides delivery in hours by hauling loaded trailers on passenger schedules

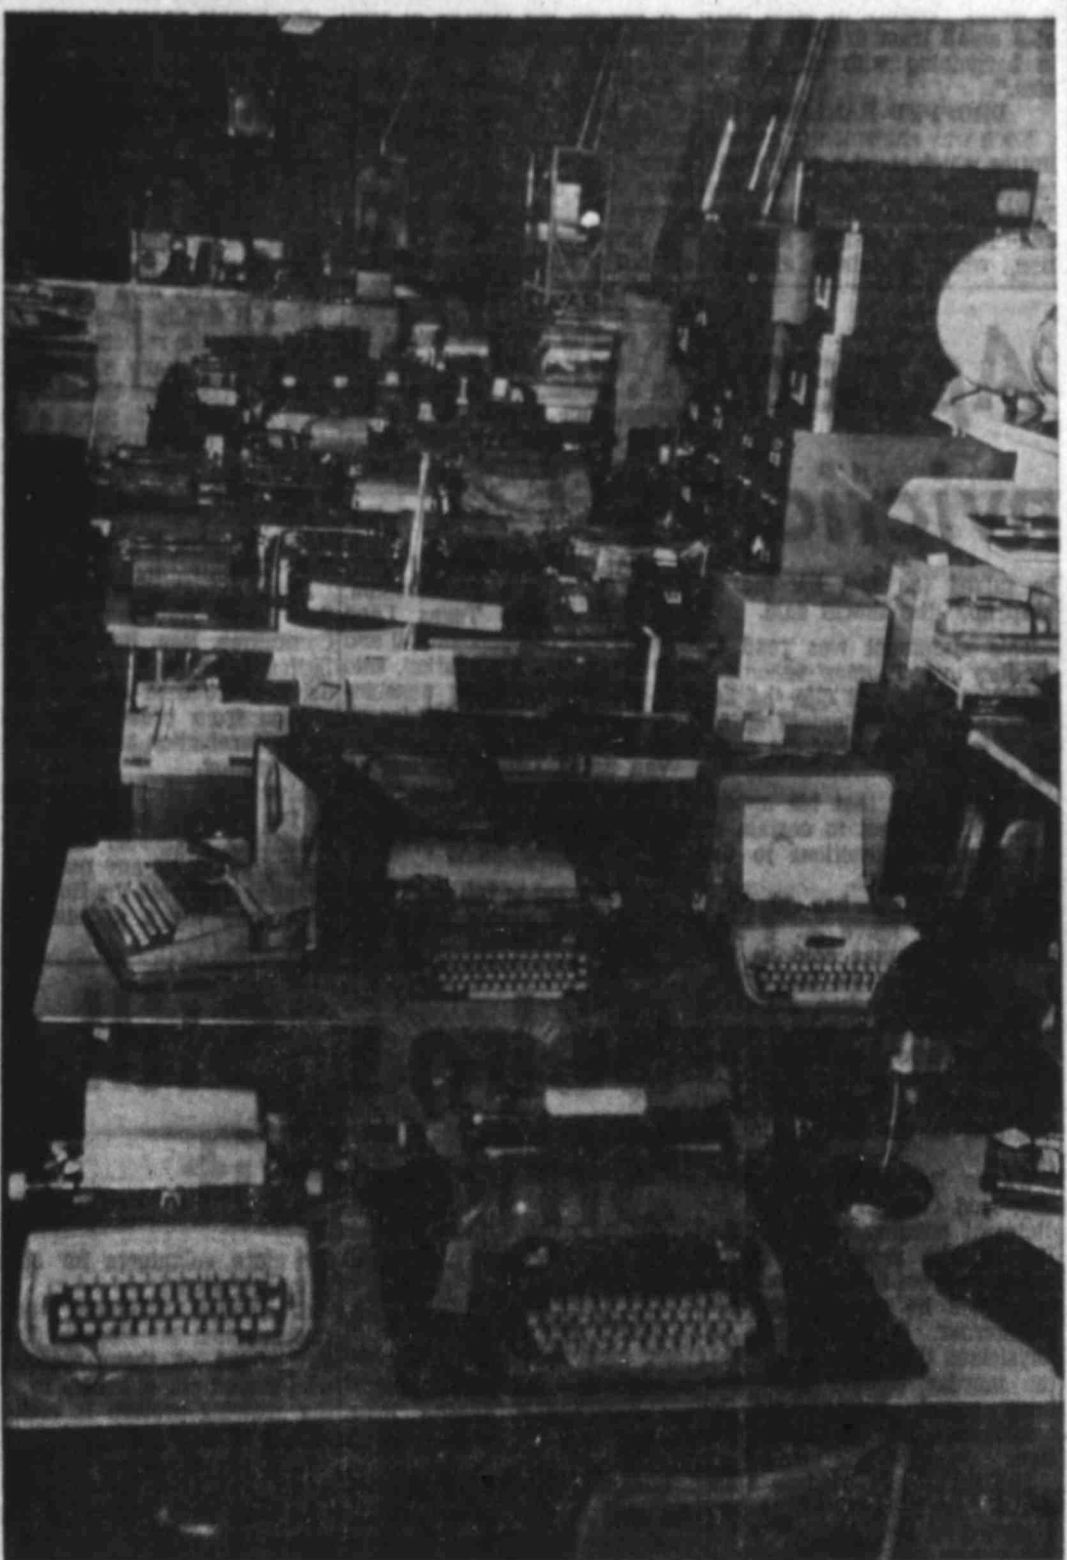

TOFC Freight Moving On Passenger Schedule

Every day in the week a Texas and Pacific Railway diesel locomotive, dragging a heavy string of freight cars, roars through Big Spring on a passenger train schedule. The "piggyback Special" carries merchandise-laden trailers riding high on specially-built flatcars. The special provides customers with fast service from Chicago and the New York areas, and provides second-day delivery to distributors and consumers in the South and Southwest — even to the West Coast. Shipments leaving the northern and eastern points one morning arrive in Texas the next morning and provide for delivery by the next day. One exclusive piggyback train leaves St. Louis each morning at 10 a.m. and arrives in Dallas and Fort Worth the next morning, and shipments arrive in Big Spring that afternoon. The expedited freight service by T&P, more commonly known as TOFC (trailer-on-flatcar), provides a coordinated truck-rail service. Movements of this type avoid jammed highways, and the growing competition with commuter and tourist traffic. T&P's TOFC freight service is simple in its operation. Big wheeled truck-trailers are transported by rail aboard the specially-designed flatcars, securely braced with special hitches. At their destination truck-tractors back up a ramp, connect onto the rail-carried trailers, and take them directly to the customer's store door for delivery. TOFC freight service offers numerous advantages. For one, it combines the flexibility of over-the-highway transportation with the reliability of all-weather rail service. Too, there is the advantage of store-door delivery. Loading and unloading of TOFC shipments can be performed by the driver or, if the customer prefers, the trailer can be left for loading or unloading at a more convenient time. Lower rates, less physical handling of merchandise, elimination of unnecessary warehousing and faster schedules are among the many other advantages of TOFC freight service. The "hot-shot" piggyback trains to the West Coast are operated on a schedule, and offer second-day delivery on shipments from Texas to Los Angeles. Most of the through freights, including those from New Orleans, are run on passenger-train schedules. A tried and proven transportation media, TOFC freight service with its low-cost, speed and dependability is winning new friends for Texas and Pacific Lines. Texas and Pacific Lines also keep abreast of needs for more economical methods of transporting all kinds of merchandise, whether it be by box cars, hopper cars, specially designed flatcars, or tank cars. Box cars are now designed with special bulkheads to prevent damage to merchandise by bumping or sliding. Through proper arrangement different kinds of freight may be loaded on the same car without danger of damage. Some flat cars are designed for hauling extra-long equipment, where weight is supported by special "bolsters" or "fifth wheels," and a third car swung between to take up the length. Others are designed for hauling automobiles on double or triple decks. Then there are hopper cars designed for hauling material to be "dumped" beneath the tracks, or on loading docks. All cars now operate on the finest roller bearings made for ease of movement and speed on the rails. State National Is Ready To Serve State National Bank of Big Spring has grown with the city and county. The bank and its personnel have made a practice of keeping up with developments, and in helping business and industry to grow — including farming. When thinking of expansion, a good place to get information and to find consultants is at State National. The management has always felt that the bank could grow only if the area it served could grow, and has never failed to lend help where results were to mutual advantage. For convenient banking during the day there is a handy drive-in window. A night depository is also handy, and a new parking area is being planned next to the bank.

The bidding:
South West North East
1♥ Pass Pass 1♠
2♥ Pass 2♣ Pass
4♥ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Seven of ♠.
The North was unable to keep the bidding open, South did not abandon hope for game. Holding 23 points, in high cards and distribution, he doubled East's reopening bid of one spade. When North dutifully responded with two clubs, South leaped directly to four hearts. Since North has denied having as many as six points, South's action is open to question.
He should have assumed that, if his partner had a high card or two, the latter could be counted on to proceed if game was in the offing. Observe that, if South bids either three hearts or three clubs, North may be induced to try three no trump—which comes home with relative ease.
West opened the seven of spades. The deuce was played from dummy and East won the trick with the ten. East, content with the king and deuce, ruffed in his hand. South began drawing trumps: however, when East showed out on the third round, it suddenly dawned on the declarer that he and West were down to the same size in hearts. If he drew the remaining trump, the opposition might run several spade tricks when they regained the lead.

South switched his attentions to the club suit by playing the ace and another. West was in with the king, and a spade return forced declarer to ruff once more and established a heart trick for West. South still had to lose a diamond, and his contract went on the rocks.
Since the odds favor a four-two division of the outstanding hearts, declarer would have been well advised to protect his trump holding from the enemy's assault in spades. A measure of caution on South's part, in fact, would have paid a handsome reward.
When East leads the king of spades at trick two, it is suggested that declarer discard a diamond from his hand instead of ruffing. Observe that he has to lose the diamond trick eventually, so that he surrenders nothing by taking the sluff. He gains considerable timing, however, for East cannot continue spades profitably. If he leads the ace next, for example, it establishes North's queen.
If East is permitted to hold the second spade trick, he is temporarily unable to press the attack. A diamond return can be taken in the closed hand, trumps are drawn in four pulls and West is given his club trick. South ruffs a spade return with the seven of hearts, and he has 10 tricks—five hearts, two diamonds, and three clubs.

GOP Vows To Keep Baker Case Open

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Bobby Baker probe and its stories about sex, payoffs, secret deals and big-shot politicians are unfinished business for the new Congress.

How much more of it will get a public airing by the Senate Rules Committee is a hot-potato issue.
The investigation of get-rich-deals by Baker, former $19,000-a-year secretary to the Senate Democratic Majority, already has mentioned the White House and President Johnson himself. Congress members and others prominent on the Washington scene. It was an issue in the 1964 presidential and congressional election campaigns.

The Rules Committee's Democratic majority once drew the curtain on it last July, marking it a closed issue despite Republican cries of "whitewash" and "coverup." But the curtain wouldn't stay drawn.
The committee's Democratic members, with a 6-3 majority over Republican members, waited until after the November elections, however, to reopen the hearings and receive some of the juiciest and most conflicting testimony.

Now the Republican minority is giving every sign it will fight any Democratic plans to ring down the curtain again without a far more searching study of sex angles and various other reportedly lurid allegations, voiced by the chief accusing witness in the hearings, insurance man Don B. Reynolds.
Through it all Baker has refused to answer questions as a witness. He invoked the Fifth Amendment and its protection against self-incrimination, explaining he was under investigation by a federal grand jury and the Internal Revenue Service.

Thus far the probe has produced more allegation, suggestion and unresolved conflict of testimony than solid proof that Baker, from his influential Senate post, actually swayed decisions by government agencies.

MAJOR FACTORS
Among the major factors are these:
The continuing efforts to learn how Baker, onetime Senate page boy and protégé of President Johnson, accumulated wealth which Baker himself counted at more than $2 million.

Conflicting charges and denials linking the names of Baker and Democratic politician Matthew H. McCloskey with an alleged $25,000 payoff to the 1960 Democratic presidential campaign fund from a government construction contract. McCloskey, former ambassador to Ireland and former chief fund raiser for the Democratic party, denied the allegations.
Reynolds' testimony that there had been a payoff and that he was its "bag man," McCloskey's denial, and Baker's refusal to testify left it a case of one man's word against another's.

SWING DEALS?
Were beautiful women, some of them call girls, employed by influence peddlers to help swing secret political and business deals? If so, who was influenced and who were the women's employers? The public hearings for the most part have avoided these questions.

State Stamp Sales Totaled

AUSTIN (AP)—Sales of state cigarette, liquor and wine stamps in January totaled $9.3

million, State Treasurer Jesse James said.

This was $396,669 above the January, 1964, total. James said cigarette stamp sales increased $211,690 because a 15-day extension for tax payments was discontinued.

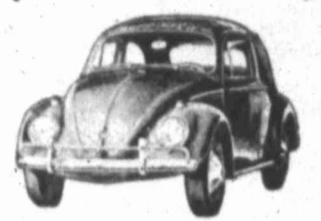

Better Closeups Of Moon Wanted

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Two more Ranger spacecraft are due to be launched soon with electronic eyes sharpened for clues to one of the key scientific questions of the decade: Is the moon safe for the manned landings planned in this decade?

Controversy over interpretation of the 4,316 pictures Ranger 7 televised as it plunged to the lunar surface last July 31 has split authorities into three camps — those who say yes, those who say no, and those who say maybe.

Three of the six cameras on Ranger 8, scheduled to be hurled aloft on a three-day journey in mid-February, and on the soon-to-follow Ranger 9 have been modified to take sharper, brighter pictures in hopes of learning whether:

1. The moon's surface is hard enough for a man to walk on, or is
 2. So soft that even a large landing craft would be engulfed as in a sea of feathers.
- The minor modification, only difference between the 800-pound Ranger 7 and its successor, increased the "gain" or light-sensitivity of one wide-angle and two narrow-angle cameras. The other three cameras were left unchanged for comparison with Ranger 7's performance.

$1691
What's the catch? There isn't any. Plunk $1691 into Frank Winterhalter's hand and he'll plunk you into the seat of a new 1965 Volkswagen Deluxe Sedan. (Give him $30 more, and you'll be plunked into a Volkswagen with matching leatherette upholstery.) Of course, you'll have to buy license plates and pay local tax. But that is it. Sound a little too simple? Perhaps. But then the Volkswagen is a simple little car.

U.S. Indictment Charges Sheriff Beat Prisoner

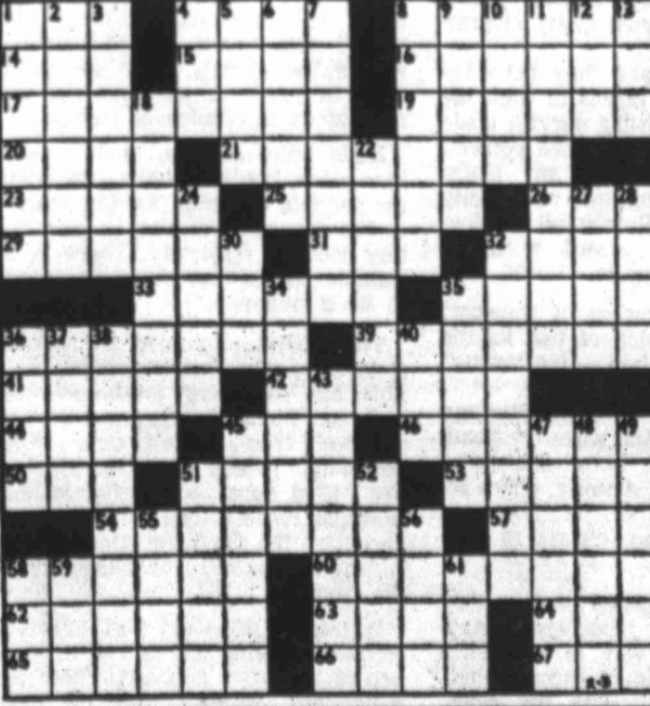

TYLER (AP) — An indictment charging Franklin County Sheriff John Tittle of Mount Vernon with beating a prisoner was filed here Tuesday with the U. S. district clerk.

A federal grand jury at Beaumont indicted Tittle late Monday.
It accused him of beating James Aikin, 22, while holding Aikin prisoner last April 9—before the 1964 Civil Rights Act became law. Tittle was indicted under an 1875 statute.

He commented that it was "a personal matter" and Aikin was not in custody.
Aikin, 22, is a Franklin County resident. He is white.
If convicted, the sheriff could draw a $1,000 fine and a one-year prison term.
Tittle has held his Franklin County office since 1951. His father was sheriff for 14 years previously.

The New Economics

President Johnson's economic report to Congress, as did his budget message, clearly declared his commitment to what is being called the "new economics" though it has been well tested in Western Europe.

Under the new economics, a nation gears its spending and taxing rates not to a balanced budget but to a balanced economy. That is, the fiscal devices are used to stimulate the maximum economic expansion that is feasible without incurring inflation.

The new economics seeks long-range balancing of the federal budget by the revenue increases automatically resulting from sustained economic expansion. It holds that the rising public debt from federal deficits is not dangerous so long as those revenue increases exceed the rise in the cost of carrying that debt.

There are pitfalls in the new economics. Wage and price excesses, as the President warned, could trigger inflation and swell the United States' already disturbing balance-of-payments deficit. Such economic imbalances could turn into a recession that spending and taxing policies might not be able to check, and that in turn would make the higher public debt burdensome to bear.

President Johnson's economic report indicates a sharp awareness of those pitfalls. He urged Congress to speed up its appropriating and taxing machinery so that fiscal devices can be used promptly to head off any adverse trend in the economy.

Reviewing four years of unbroken economic expansion under the new economics, President Johnson confidently predicted a fifth prosperous year and argued that the postwar cycle of recessions need not be resumed. Certainly all Americans must hope that he is right, though the new economics is yet to be put to a really severe test in a country of the complicated magnitude of the United States and has not yet proved to be, in itself, a solution to chronic unemployment.

Finally, it has not yet come up with a year in which it has been able to avoid a deficit. It has managed to show a lower per capita ratio of debt, but it has not been able to keep the debt from growing.

Greed Reaps Its Reward

Paul Amos Sandblom, convicted of swindling hundreds of people in a grand money-swapping scheme that aggregated $31,000,000 by some estimates, has been sentenced to 15 years in prison.

In sentencing Sandblom, Judge Reynold G. Garza had something to say that should be remembered by most people. Commenting on promises of fantastic rates of interest that people would receive for their money, Judge Garza noted:

"I don't feel sorry for these people. It was greed that led them to do it. Anybody who thinks he is going to get 36 to 50 per cent return on his money should have his head examined."

Unfortunately, a lot of little people got hurt because others — including ministers of the gospel who became involved as agents through naïveté or through avarice common to most men — induced them to invest their money in these get-rich-quick schemes.

The scheme essentially is the same in these vast swindles — a fast-talking operator with magnetic personality who gets visions of grandeur and tries to step up his pace toward success beyond the tempo of legitimacy. When the bird sets in, more capital is acquired by promising too attractive interest for short-term investments. These promises are met by getting more capital which is spent partly to satisfy the commitments. As the pressure increases, the interest rate is stepped up to the point that human greed acts as a catalyst. More capital is drawn in and expended largely to pay off the fantastic interest rates — and thus spread the word, and draw in more and more investments. And finally, as with Shoemaker, Addison, Estes and Sandblom, the day of reckoning and collapse comes.

Southerners In The GOP

WASHINGTON — We keep reading and hearing about Candidate Goldwater's "sordid" and "squalid" Southern strategy, but that must be because the commentators are looking for adjectives instead of evidence.

Any honest eye can see that Barry's formula for republishing the Old Confederacy is the only strategy that worked at all. Had his conservative message been as ineffective everywhere west of the Chesapeake Bay, he would have been beaten worse than Landon, carrying only Arizona, leaving the GOP hardly an acre to reseed itself.

THE RESEEDING commenced, although hardly noted in the national press which was focused on the defrocking of GOP Chairman Burch, almost as soon as Republican House members found their seats in the 89th Congress. At a meeting of the Republican Conference on January 14th, the GOP survivors passed a succinct but significant resolution which read:

"... that the Conference Committee Vice Chairman and Secretary be considered a part of the leadership with defined duties."

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — A wild goose has found apparent winter safety on the farm of John Powell, four miles north of Paragould, Ark.

The goose lighted on the farm and began mingling with a flock of tame geese kept by Powell.

It "loosens up" twice daily by flying in a two or three mile circle around the farm, calling for the land-bound geese to follow.

So far it has stayed close enough to the farm to stay off some hunter's dinner table.

Shuttle-Service To Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's practically a shuttle-service. Year after year American officials dash to Viet Nam to see how to win the war against the Communists. They dash home, dash back. The war keeps falling apart.

Now President Johnson has sent another, this time his top White House adviser on foreign policy, McGeorge Bundy, former Harvard dean and adviser to President John F. Kennedy whose luck with Viet Nam was no better than Johnson's.

For years the United States has pumped aid into South Viet Nam — in the billions of dollars — for the war against the Viet Cong guerrillas directed by Communist North Viet Nam.

The United States has 23,000 military "advisers" in Viet Nam although it's hard to think of them as mere advisers when more than 300 of them have lost their lives and more than 1,550 have been wounded.

ALTHOUGH THE Vietnamese have no training in democracy, the United States has insisted that a civilian government must run the country. But Vietnamese generals, acting more like warlords than generals, move in and take over.

Meanwhile, the guerrillas have taken over 60 per cent of South Viet Nam although most of the population is not in that 60 per cent area.

White House aides said Bundy is going to consult with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the U.S. ambassador in Saigon, because the President didn't want to bring Taylor home at a time as slippery as this in Viet Nam.

Before he became ambassador last July, Taylor had made trips to Saigon. He has returned to Washington twice since July for consultations. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, now recovering from pneumonia, has made five trips and Secretary of State Dean Rusk two.

The visitors arrived, consulted, and left, and conditions got worse. The visitors hurried back and chaos spread. The reason for the Bundy trip was what happened last Wednesday. The military threw out the civilian government.

THIS PUT Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh back in power. He had been in and out of power like a man in a revolving door since November 1963, when President Ngo Dinh Diem was ousted and assassinated.

Khanh didn't take over right away. But he soon did. Then he was thrown out last August after Buddhist agitation. A civilian government was installed. Last December the military, supported by Khanh, bounced that government.

The United States protested. It wanted the military to fight the war, stay out of government.

A Journey In Memory

NEW YORK (AP) — The pleasantest journeys we take in life are those made back through memory.

When we travel by car, train or plane, we are often the unwilling victim of road conditions, weather, or schedules we cannot change. But when our vehicle is memory, there are no traffic jams, we can travel any route we choose, and linger as long as we want at any charming vista we have known before.

YOU'VE PUT quite a few miles and years behind you if you can look back in your mind and remember when—

Everybody cried a little when the local firehouse put its big gray horses out to final pasture. You could get a good pair of shoes for under $5, and a respectable funeral for $150.

Few people over 40 bothered to have an aching molar treated. They simply told the dentist, "Pull her."

YOUNG BOYS trained their unruly hair to lie down by sleeping in a tight cap made from one of mother's old stockings.

A well-to-do family was one which had separate beds for all the kids.

The three greatest idols of childhood were Jesse James, Buffalo Bill and Frank Merrill. Anybody who was careless with his money was told, "you'll wind up in the poor-house."

People felt sorry for a husband whose wife was so lazy she bought bread at the store instead of baking it herself.

The average plumber or bricklayer earned less than a white collar worker. Housewives hated to see summer come — because it brought so many flies.

IF YOU had a grandmother, you expected her to be gray-haired — not a beauty shop blonde.

Schoolchildren spent more time doing household chores than homework.

There wasn't a grocery store in the country that sold books or aspirin tablets.

The ordinary American didn't know the difference between Pablo Picasso and Sigmund Freud — and couldn't have cared less.

Farmers prided themselves more on their barns than their houses, and got more free seeds than benefit payments from the federal government.

Women claimed that if they ever got the right to vote they'd soon end corruption in public office.

Those were the days. Remember?

Coffee Won't Damage The Kidneys

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. Dear Dr. Molner: Can the daily drinking of too much coffee create a kidney ailment? —MRS. A. R.

I thought I answered this question a little while ago, but maybe I didn't make it clear. (And this won't be the first time that somebody has gone back to the doctor and said, "I thought I understood what you said, but now I'm not sure.")

Anyway, coffee will not damage the kidneys. Coffee may, in some amounts and for some people, have other unwanted effects, but it won't harm kidneys.

Coffee will, however, act as a diuretic, meaning that it speeds up the removal of fluid from the body; the kidneys act offener.

Naturally the caffeine, which is a stimulant, can cause sleeplessness, or rapid heart beat, or a sensation of nervous tension if you get more of it than conforms to your physical system. There are perfectly good reasons for not consuming more caffeine than you can handle.

Dear Dr. Molner: I take medicine for high blood pressure. But I have so much dizziness, and have had a couple of falls. I am 70. What can I do about this dizziness? —MRS. G. C.

Some of the medications for reducing blood pressure can cause dizziness, especially if the pressure is reduced too much.

Many older persons actually need a pressure higher than "normal" to meet their physiological needs, and to be comfortable. Hence a regulation of your daily dosage may correct the annoyance of these dizzy spells. There may also be other causes for your dizziness. You should mention this symptom to your doctor.

Dear Dr. Molner: For the last few weeks I have been awakened around three o'clock in the morning with a bad case of indigestion and heartburn.

I try to avoid rich foods and sweets. I eat dinner before six o'clock and go to bed at a reasonable time. I have a small hernia but it has never bothered me.

What foods could I eat and what time should I eat dinner to avoid this? —MRS. J. C. W.

This discomfort in the wee hours of the morning could mean several things, among them a peptic ulcer (acting up when the stomach is empty or nearly so), or a hiatal hernia, which can give almost identical symptoms, but may occur more often when you are lying down.

Before trying anything further in the way of diet, you should have X-rays of the stomach and gall bladder to find out just what is causing your distress.

"Vitamin starvation" is possible even if you eat a lot. In order to check your diet to make sure you are getting necessary nourishment, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald for a copy of the pamphlet, "Vitamins—The Alphabet of Health." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and five cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner is always glad to hear from his readers, and whenever possible he uses their questions in his column, but because of the tremendous volume of mail received daily, he cannot answer individual letters.

Around The Rim

A Phantom Fleet

This flatland foreigner has just returned from the Bayou belt and was impressed with what he saw.

First, the sight of copious quantities of water was enough to impress a West Texan. Where our ditches mostly are indentations from whence we borrowed first for roadbed, ditches in that area contain water either backed up from or draining into rivers and bayous. The country is flat—more evenly spread than our plains area, and any indentation is apt to contain a pond.

IT IS THEREFORE somewhat startling to round a bend in the highway and find a spidery web of steel hunching its spine 172-feet above the Neches River. Approaching this second highest bridge in the South, you get the feeling that you should turn back before it is too late, that perhaps the car won't make the grade, or maybe a strong breeze will rock over the bridge. Once on it, these sensations are forgotten, and it seems a pleasant incline that lifts you to as sweeping a view as the haze will permit. The tallest ships can glide under without having to lower their masts, and looking down I had the feeling the Empire State Building might fall under too. But, of course, this is part of the illusion of something rising so abruptly from the seemingly endless coastal plain.

ANOTHER ALMOST equally startling experience was a short trip our party (of AP editors) took aboard a Navy yard tug. Looking out at the Sabine as it courses through Orange, the banks are so low that you get a feeling that here is another broad shallow stream.

YOU KNOW THIS isn't so, for here is an ocean-going tanker tied up at a dock. Still, I was not quite prepared for the scene that greeted my eyes when we boarded the tug and chugged up the channel. Immediately we eased past a mothball fleet, a ghostly assembly of a dozen or more kind of ships, all lying side by side awaiting the day when crews will climb aboard to inspect or repaint, and move on again. The gun turrets are sealed, and all openings enclosed.

NAVY MEN told us that inside the ships mechanisms and all equipment were perfectly preserved. The only enemy now is rust, and painting goes on constantly. Occasionally one of the ships escapes to be sold to some member of the free world under the foreign aid program. Sometimes one is marked off as a candidate for the scrap heap, but mostly the phantom fleet lies in silence that compels silence as you glide past.

Here are LSTs, and there are barges; here are fast transports, there are tenders; here are repair ships, and there are ships with huge booms and cranes; here are destroyers, and there are cruisers. At the bend of the river lay a mass of rectangular patterns in steel—a floating dry dock which could support a battleship.

DOWN RIVER we moved away from this to the shipyards where huge sea-going barges and assorted craft, including three great ferries for the City of New York, were under construction. The banks were lined with ways on which ships were under various stages of construction, an impressive sight. But the memory of that ghost fleet up stream lingered, perhaps in reverence for what it had been and in awe of what it could be once more.

Why LBJ Stayed Home

WASHINGTON—Why didn't President Johnson send Vice President Humphrey to attend the funeral of Winston Churchill? This question has been asked by many people here in the last few days. But while official quarters have not supplied the answer, the decision on the part of Mr. Johnson was based on obvious circumstances.

THE TRUTH is that, although Mr. Johnson came back from the hospital the middle of last week, he stayed in bed much of the time for several days thereafter. The President was aware that throughout the country there was a nervousness about his illness—a fear that it might take a serious turn. If, indeed, he had been well enough to resume his regular activities, there wouldn't have been so much concern. But because Mr. Johnson had not fully recovered from his illness, it was recognized that to send the vice president out of the country at such a time would cause some apprehension.

The whole question of whether a president himself should go out of the country at all has often been debated. Some lawyers have taken the view that, whenever a president leaves the jurisdiction of his own country, either the vice president should be considered in office, or that a constitutional amendment should be adopted clearly setting forth that the President does not necessarily have to be in this country to exercise the duties of his office.

INASMUCH as public opinion lately has been somewhat apprehensive during President Johnson's illness, sending the vice president abroad at this time might have compounded the worries of the nation.

The United States government did, of course, pay honor to the departed statesman by sending an official delegation. It would have been regarded as a higher tribute if the President himself could have gone to London, but everybody in Britain as well as in this country realized that Mr. Johnson had been ill and that his physicians would not want to take any chances of a re-infection or of some other medical consequence which might result from a journey abroad.

PERHAPS MR. JOHNSON did make one mistake. He might well have chosen Dwight Eisenhower to represent the United States government, not just as a man who had been twice served as president, but because of his ties with the British people and leaders while he was general of the American armies and supreme commander of allied forces in Europe during World War II. The fact that Winston Churchill and Dwight Eisenhower were such close friends, and together made some of the really major decisions during the war, was enough to warrant the designation of Gen. Eisenhower as an official representative of the United States.

While Gen. Eisenhower attended the funeral, he did so as a private citizen and as a friend invited by the Churchill family. In his farewell tribute, broadcast over the British Broadcasting Corporation as the funeral ceremonies were ending, he said somewhat wistfully:

"AS I, LIKE all other free men, pause to pay a personal tribute to the giant who now passes from among us, I have no charter to speak for my countrymen—only for myself. But if, in memory, we journey back two decades to the time when American and Britain stood shoulder to shoulder in global conflict against tyranny, then I can presume—with propriety, I think—to act as spokesman for the millions of Americans who served with me and with their British comrades during those three years of war on this sector of the earth."

The Mods And The Rockers

LONDON — In common with every other sensible person alive, this witness has no clear idea of the reason why so many British youths have turned into such grisly change-lings.

But they have, and they have become the weirdest bipeds to walk the earth since the whirling dervish trade went sour. But, to be more correct, kids here do not walk any place. Even the most shiftless can easily earn enough in Britain's full employment economy to afford a motor scooter or a motorcycle.

INDEED, The means of transport they adopt tell which of two lunatic categories they fit into — the "mods" or the "rockers."

Mods ride motor scooters. Rockers ride motorcycles. And when the twin metal, as they did in a number of seaside resorts last summer, police reinforcements have to be flown in from as far away as Scotland to quell the carnage.

MODS ARE SO called because they fancy themselves modernists. Anything new in the way of outlandish dress, atonal music or incomprehensible slang is "in" with the mods. Only their hairdos, which resemble the tussure of a Beate combed by an eggbeater, are reasonably long-lived, and some authorities on their morbid fads think even this is changing now. Styles in mod raiment, however, change almost as quickly as the weather in this island realm. Four days is the life expectancy of a mod mode, and close students of the phenomenon insist that it is actually much shorter than that.

THE ROCKER is a different, if equally murky, cup of tea. He chronically wears a leather jacket studded with chromium stars and other ornamentation, jeans, boots, helmets and goggles. His sole ambition typically is to "do the ton" on his bike, that is to drive 100 m.p.h. He and his "bird" still dance to rock-and-roll (hence the name), while the mods' taste in music is as mercurial and far out as his choice of raiment.

Mods hate rockers, and rockers hate mods, but both cherish the greatest possible contempt for the "mids" — the squares who elect to join neither frenetic fraternity. There is no reliable census, but the mids appear to be a minority.

THE MODS outnumber the rockers, if anybody cares, and the reason probably has something to do with the fact that motor scooters are less expensive than motorcycles. When punch-ups (which is what rumbles are called here) occur, the leather-jacketed rockers tend to be outnumbered by the dandified mods, a circumstance that can be dangerous to the rockers.

Britain is a nation that makes a religion of being tolerant of all manner of aberrant behavior. There are indications, however, that the mods and rockers may be stretching patience very thin.

A MARGATE magistrate, dealing out stiff fines and prison sentences for rioting, termed them "long-haired, mentally unstable, petty little hoodlums — courage like rats hunting only in packs." And the average Briton, who is still a steady, cultivated type, doubtless looks at the generation with the eye of a choleric retired sergeant major who'd like to get them all on a drill field for a few months.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

When Big Spring women viewed the beautiful antique silver and glassware and saw the old firearms at the Women's Golf Association antique show and tea Saturday many appeared surprised that what they saw displayed as antiques were articles they had seen used in their family home as children. I was comforted to read in Mr. Webster's dictionary that the word antique means "of an earlier period" as well as meaning "from antiquity."

Several handsome covered butter dishes were shown and most of us remember our grandmother's using them on their tables. Also crockets, some in ornate silver holders; pickle containers with graceful long-lined forks accompanying them, as well as a gorgeous silver turkey cover that is still used when the owner's family serves the royal bird.

Some of us remembered antiques in our homes that we had not thought of as such until we saw the exhibit. MRS. L. B. EDWARDS and MRS. LEON MOFFETT thought of several patchwork quilts they owned that had been in their family for many years. I recalled a set of scent bottles in a hand tooled leather case that was a treasure of my great-grandmother when she was a young lady. Also I have a book on proper etiquette for the dance floor which was given to my grandfather by a friend over a hundred years ago. I've had it so long it doesn't seem that it ever belonged to anyone else. Which is probably why most people think they don't have anything worth showing when they are asked if they can contribute to a showing such as the one Saturday.

MR. and MRS. A. D. MEADOR were in Odessa Tuesday night to see the newest member of the family, STACY DEE MEADOR, who was born Monday to MR. and MRS. SAMMY MEADOR. The other grandparents are MR. and MRS. A. H. HONEY. This is the first grandson for the Meadors who have three granddaughters.

MRS. VANCE LEBKOWSKY and her sister, MRS. BILLY DYKES of Ballinger, were in Fort Worth Tuesday for the funeral services for their niece, Pamela Hartis, 17-year-old daughter of MR. and MRS. HAROLD HARTIS. The girl died early Monday and services were held at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday.

Peace Corps Training Due At Texas Tech

LUBBOCK — A Peace Corps Training Center will be operated this summer at Texas Tech, Congressman George Mahon has announced.

The contract specifies that 90 trainees from American colleges and universities will be in training from June 21 to Aug. 21 in preparation for Peace Corps duty in Latin America.

Designed for college students between their junior and senior years, the two months of training will enable the volunteers to begin active duty much sooner after graduation, Dr. Martin P. Kyre Jr., director of the newly designated center, said.

Only three other schools, the University of California at Berkeley, Yale University and Dartmouth University, have had similar training centers.

Among the deciding factors in allocating the center here was Lubbock's good record in recent years with regard to race relations, Dr. Kyre said.

Also noted was the maturity and friendliness demonstrated by the Texas Tech students. Tech has won the Southwest Conference Sportsmanship trophy three times in the past four years.

Tech's School of Arts and Sciences also is well known for its strong program, particularly in the area of Latin American studies.

Members of the Tech faculty will teach the training center courses.

Effort To End Postal Savings System Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General John A. Gronouski said today he will ask Congress to take the postmen out of the banking business. He is convinced it is a losing proposition after 54 years.

Since its peak year in 1947, Gronouski said in an interview, the number of depositors who save through their post offices has plunged from 4.3 million to just over 1 million.

Total deposits have dwindled from nearly $3.4 billion to $416 million. The average individual account has dropped from $508 to $387. The interest rate is 2 per cent, compared to the 3 or 4 per cent offered by commercial, federally insured banks.

Squares Plan Work Party

The officers and board members of the Big Spring Squares met at the home of President John and Nancy Annen Monday night. A work party was planned for tonight, for all members who can be present and help with arrangements. Work to be done includes painting, window washing, decorating for Valentine dance, and other odd jobs enough for everybody.

Junior Hubbard was appointed membership chairman. Justine Hubbard and Bonnie Coker volunteered as a telephone committee.

Plans were also made to have a host and hostess for each future dance, going down the membership roster alphabetically. The Tax Dance will be held Feb. 6, and a special dance, honoring the new class at the YMCA, the last week in February. The date will be set.

Ideas for naming the club building at the dance Saturday night were discussed.

Beauty Salon Week Plans Made

Plans for National Beauty Salon Week, which begins Feb. 14, were made during the Monday meeting of the local hairdressers' associations. Among other things, the members will give free permanents to patients at the State Hospital.

Program for the meeting was Gordon Wheeler's demonstrations of the newest trends of hair styling. The organization met in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Co.

Driver Confirmed As Veterans Administrator

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate confirmed Tuesday President Johnson's nomination of William J. Driver as veterans administrator.

The vote was 75-7 for confirmation.

The action came amid bitter controversy over the administration's orders to close 11 veterans hospitals and four soldiers' homes, and over Driver's role in the orders.

Driver, a career government employe, was nominated by Johnson to succeed the resigned administrator, John S. Gleason Jr. He is already serving as acting administrator.

The vote to confirm was overshadowed Monday when administration forces defeated 58-26 a move to shelve the nomination for a month, to await reports on a congressional investigation of the hospital closings.

Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., who offered the motion to hold up action until March 1, argued this would allow time for a report by the Senate Veterans Affairs subcommittee, which has investigated the closings.

Boat Held After Crash

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A shrimp boat from Brownsville, Tex., was held by authorities at Tuxapan today because of a collision with a Mexican Coast Guard boat.

The navy minister said the Texas craft, the John O'Callaghan, was taken in control after it was found fishing within Mexico's territorial waters in the Gulf of Mexico.

He said an investigation was ordered to determine whether the shrimp intentionally or accidentally rammed the coast guard vessel.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said the shrimp boat was seized while fishing 6 miles off the coast and in the confusion accidentally collided with the Mexican boat.

The American consul in Tampico quoted the skipper of the shrimp, Russell Duval, as saying he didn't know he was within jurisdictional limits of Mexico.

Refining Company Executive Elevated

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Boone Macaulay, manager of Atlantic Refining Co.'s administrative department in Dallas, has been named an assistant vice president.

Trumped-Up Case Exposed

MOSCOW (AP) — A judge and a prosecutor who convicted an innocent journalist on bribery charges have been fired, Pravda reported today.

The Soviet Communist party daily last December angrily interceded on behalf of A. D. Gaskov, a journalist in the town of Armavir, who was sent to prison on trumped-up bribery charges.

Gaskov was said to have befriended local party bosses with his exposes of sin and corruption among the party and government elite in Armavir.

Following the publicity in Pravda, authorities reviewed the case and the prosecutor, L. I. Kuzminykh, was dismissed. A regional judge was removed because he failed to review the case, the paper said. A number of officials were reprimanded.

Traffic Case Poses Riddle

SOMERSET, Pa. (AP)—Motorists have been arrested for failing to yield the right of way.

But what about two motorists involved in the same accident being arrested on that charge?

State police arrested John Mason, 66, of Hyndman and Lenn Lindenman, 25, of Meyersdale Sunday for failing to yield to each other after their cars collided head-on on a one-lane bridge near here. Neither was hurt.

Presidential Plan Advances

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee has approved an administration-backed constitutional amendment which would fill vice presidential vacancies and insure leadership if a president becomes disabled. The measure now goes to the Senate Judiciary Committee. If that body acts soon enough, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says he'll try to get a full Senate vote late this week.

The proposal would fill vice presidential vacancies by presidential appointment, subject to approval by majority vote of Congress. The vice president could become acting president either through a written declaration by the president, or through a majority vote of the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government report showed today that $5.90 out of every $100 farmers got for their products in 1964 came from the Agriculture Department for complying with farm programs.

Census Bureau Head Resigns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard Scammon is quitting as director of the Census Bureau

after nearly four years on the job. White House press secretary George E. Reedy said Scammon had resigned to return to private research. Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor named Deputy Director A. Ross Eckler of New York City as acting director.

Indonesian Bomb Test?—Eventually

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials said today they see no possibility of Indonesia producing an atomic bomb in the near future. However, there is little doubt that with the proper kind of help Indonesia eventually will be able to detonate a rudimentary atomic device. The director of Indonesia's army arsenal, Brig. Gen. Hartono, said Tuesday in Jakarta that about 200 scientists are working to make the Asian nation's first atomic bomb. He promised a "surprise" at the Armed Forces Day celebration in October.

Century-Old Ghost Light Still Baffling

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Highway Department has its own story about ghosts, called the Ghost Light of US 90. The department, in a recent publication, reported that the light can be seen best on US 90 about 12 miles west of Alpine in far West Texas. If it is shining — and sometimes it is a little timid—it can be seen on the horizon to the southwest at the foothills of the Chinati Mountains.

Student Loan Fund Sought

AUSTIN (AP)—Rep. Henry Grover of Houston has a plan to slow the "brain drain" of Texas high school students to other states for college education. Explaining his proposal Tuesday night to the House Constitutional Amendments Committee, Grover said: "We're trying to take care of Texas students going to Texas colleges. Those who can go out of state don't need the assistance."

proposed amendment would be submitted for voters' approval in November. Two other proposals also were sent to a subcommittee. One, by Rep. Dewitt Hale, would establish a date for legislative term to begin, preferable on the first day of the regular session. The other, by Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, would give a notary public statewide authority rather than just in the county in which he is appointed.

LOAN FUND
Grover's proposed constitutional amendment would set up $200 million loan fund for students at both public and private colleges and universities. It would authorize the legislature to issue $200 million in bonds to raise the money. Grover, a Houston high school teacher and part-time candidate for a doctor's degree at the University of Texas when the legislature is not in session, said the fund could pay partial expenses for up to 50,000 college students. A companion measure, House Bill 28, provides a maximum of $4,000 per student over four years, or $500 a semester. Only undergraduates would be eligible. Students would have to begin repaying the loan one year after graduation and would be required to pay off the entire debt within 10 years. If they drop out of school, they would have to start paying back the loan within one semester. Interest on the loan, Grover said, would amount to about 4 per cent. Another Houston representative, Bob Eckhardt, suggested the proposal provide the first $500 loan for enrollment costs, and not after a student is enrolled. Grover said he worked on the measure for a year and had discussed it with Gov. John Connally. He said the governor "is concerned about the brain drain from Texas to other states."

A number of cases, which are on the criminal docket, are matters in which Dee Jon Davis, county attorney, had a part at the time they were filed. These cases are set for jury trial March 18-19 and Wayne Burns, now district attorney, will try these in Howard County Court. Davis has disqualified himself. Coahomans To Study Problem

COAHOMA—No decision was made by the Coahoma Independent School board of trustees at its Monday night meeting on action to be taken in meeting the needs of the district to take care of growing enrollment. Board members plan to study the problems and reach some decision at a future meeting. Supt. W. A. Wilson was out of town following the meeting, but his office said the decision on the bond issue in which proposals for additions and remodeling were outlined, would require considerable study before any future action is taken. The $450,000 bond issue, submitted to school district voters in two proposals, was defeated soundly in Saturday's election. The first proposed the issuance of $400,000 for school building, equipment and improvements, and the second proposed issuance of $50,000 for construction of a swimming pool. Wilson said Monday that something had to be done to handle enrollment requirements, but that a lot of study would have to go into plans.

Office Class Is Described

Mrs. Harlan Huijbregtse, coordinator of vocational office education, of Big Spring High School, told Rotarians Tuesday of the new vocational course being offered this semester. "A much smaller percentage of girl graduates of high school are entering college today than 10 years ago," Mrs. Huijbregtse said. "The business department of Big Spring High School, now sponsoring the vocational office education course, is attempting to prepare the girls for office work, which most of them follow after leaving high school." She said the new course provided one hour of office instruction, or lecture, in addition to two or three other high school courses, and allows afternoons for actual training in offices. "Each must work a minimum of 15 to 25 hours per week in some office in Big Spring, and each must have had one or two years of typing, and a course in shorthand or bookkeeping, to qualify," she said. "Some advantages of the new course," she said, "are in getting the office girls over the experience hurdle when they seek permanent jobs, and in motivating experience for financial self-help."

Pie Victim Saves Face Of Hurler

MIDLAND (AP)—Lawyer Noel Cason stood up in county court, picked up a strawberry cream pie and pulled it back to throw.

The target was a Midland High School athlete. The youth chose a pie in the face instead of being placed on probation as a juvenile delinquent because he threw a pie in the face of a woman. But his victim, Mrs. Jim D. Martin Jr., saved him at the last second.

A PRANK
Mrs. Martin had been the youth's pie-in-the-face victim as a prank Dec. 29. There were a number of instances about that time in which a youth would ring a doorbell and throw a pie into the face of anyone who opened the door.

The Keystone cops' punishment was devised by County Judge Barbara Culver. Judge Culver asked the youth if he wanted pie or probation. "Take the pie," attorney Cason advised. "Okay," replied the youth. "Now who will throw the pie?" asked Judge Culver, looking at Mrs. Martin. ELEVENTH HOUR
"No," replied Mrs. Martin in horrified tones. "I couldn't do that." Judge Culver looked at Mr. Martin. "I wouldn't perform an indignity like that on anyone," replied Martin. Judge Culver looked at the youth's mother. "If it has to be," replied the mother, "I'll throw it." At this point, Cason interceded. He said he felt it was a matter for the attorney to handle and picked up the pie. "No, no," cried Mrs. Martin. Judge Culver released the defendant without probation.

Police Given Full Story

A 20-year-old Big Spring man gave detectives statements this morning concerning a number of burglaries and thefts. Detective A. P. Hurley obtained a statement from the man this morning on the break-in last night of the Jazz Lounge, 503 NW 4th, in which some $70 in change was reported taken from the juke box.

Hurley said the man told during the investigation this morning of breaking into a room at the Sands Motel last night, taking money and a watch from the room and a pickup owned by the room's occupant, J. E. Perry. Officers later recovered the pickup, abandoned at the Northside Park with the keys in it.

Midlander Loses Plea

AUSTIN (AP)—James Lee Marion lost today a bid for Court of Criminal Appeals reconsideration of his decision upholding his death sentence in the October 1963 slaying of wealthy Mrs. Fred Turner of Midland.

The court denied the Negro a rehearing. It amended its Dec. 2 opinion affirming the murder conviction. No major change was made in the opinion, which once again found "the evidence sufficient to support the conviction."

A Lubbock jury convicted Marion, 22, of pistol whipping Mrs. Turner to death. The trial was transferred to Lubbock to avoid high feeling at Midland. Mrs. Turner's husband was a prominent oil man.

Mrs. Turner's husband, who died since the slaying of his wife, was the owner of Tomy Lee, winner of the 1959 Kentucky Derby. Marion's lawyers argued that a confession was obtained from him before he had a lawyer. Police testified Marion was given a chance to call a lawyer, but refused.

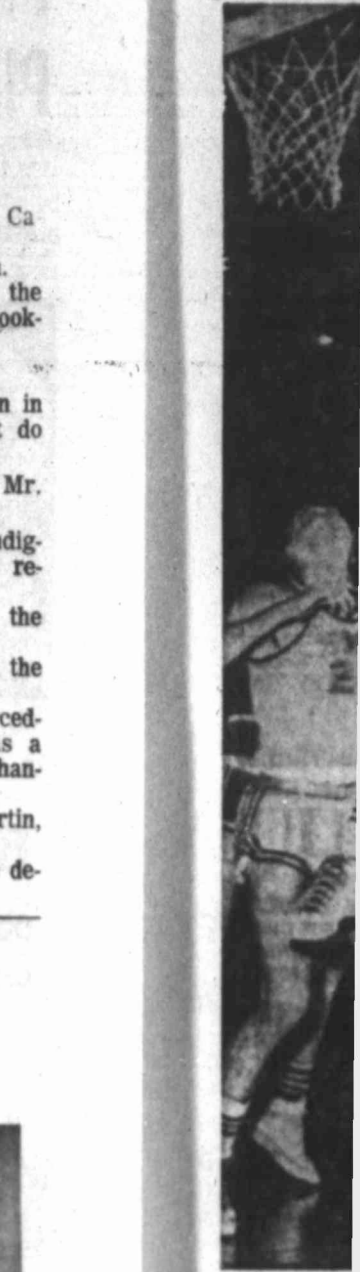

The high court stood by its previous decision that the statement was taken in such a way that Marion's constitutional rights were not violated. It also reaffirmed its ruling that the trial judge did not err in allowing the prosecution to use a plastic skull to demonstrate the cause of Mrs. Turner's death.

Fire Damages Vacant House

A fire shortly after 8 a.m. today burned portions of a vacant house at 1205 W. 3rd. Heat from the fire broke four windows of the nearby Big Spring Courts, Fire Marshal A. D. Meador said. The blaze started in the rear portion of the house and spread into the attic, scorching the remainder of the building and leaving smoke damage, he said. The house contained an assortment of used furniture. Owner is George Thomas.

Baylor Upsets Tech Raiders; Mustangs Win

Baylor has sprung its second big upset of the Southwest Conference basketball season, this time at the expense of front running Texas Tech. The Bears won 77-74 Tuesday night at Lubbock, that left where Tech has become virtually invincible. The Red Raiders hadn't lost a home game since Nov. 30, 1963, winning 18 straight. In the opening conference game this season, Baylor upended defending champion Texas A&M 89-77 at College Station. Southern Methodist whipped Texas Christian 110-94 and Texas overcame Rice 76-63 in other games Tuesday night. Arkansas is host to Texas A&M tonight at Fayetteville. The loss cut the Raiders' conference lead to one game. Tech has a 4-1 record, and Baylor, SMU and Texas are now bunched in a second place tie with 3-2 marks. Arkansas could join the runnerup deadlock by winning tonight. Melvin Ellison, a 6-foot-1 junior, put Baylor ahead of Tech 74-72 with 56 seconds left. Team mate Darrell Hardy popped in two free throws to make it 76-72 before the Raiders' Norman Reuther scored with 16 seconds to go. Ellison added a free throw after being fouled at the buzzer. Baylor had trailed by as much as seven points the first half. Ellison likewise limited Tech's Bud Malaise to a mere five points and hadn't scored less than 12 per game all season. A partisan crowd at the SMU-TCU game in Dallas roared with delight at news of Tech's loss, and the Mustangs rolled up 110 points—tying the conference scoring record. Arkansas scored 110 points, also against TCU, in 1955. SMU's previous high was 109 against Texas in 1956 and TCU in 1963. It was the fifth time in recent days an SWC team has topped 100 points. Before running off of Baylor, Tech rolled over the century mark three straight games, and Rice did it against Trinity Saturday. At Austin, where Tech beat Texas earlier in perhaps the critical game of the season, the Longhorns came from behind in the second half to win. Rice led Texas 34-33 at intermission after hitting 55 per cent of its shots, but in the second half dropped to a poor 27 per cent. Three straight field goals by Mickey White just after half-time put Texas in front.

Hope's Tournament Under Way Today

First-round gallery interest was focused at the Bermuda Dunes Country Club, where Palmer, Nicklaus, Tony Lema, and other leading players began the five-day, 90-hole tournament. Also playing Bermuda was the leading amateur of the moment, Bob Hope himself, with an old favorite, Doug Ford, as the professional on his team. Also at Bermuda was the club's home professional, Tommy Jacobs, who won the event last year. At the end of Saturday's

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

It's hard to tell how an athletic team is going to perform by its pre-game attitude. Oftentimes a team itself will feel it's ready to play to the limit of its capability immediately prior to the start of action and then wind up flatter than the proverbial pancake. HCJC's boys were overly tight in their game against San Angelo here the other night and it took them several minutes to uncoil. Once they did, however, there was no stopping them. The Jayhawks beat the Rams badly on the boards and were outstanding on defense when it counted. The first half was so rough in spots that one observer said it look like both teams needed shoulder pads under the baskets. Against South Plains earlier in the week, the Hawks set a school record at which no one would point with pride when they scored only 15 points the first half. Some ringside observers at the Emile Griffith-Manny Gonzalez fight in Houston the other night said Gonzalez didn't win as much as one round, much less the fight. However, for all the damage the boxers' punches were doing, they might as well have gone into the ring with their hands wrapped in feather pillows. Darrell Royal, the University of Texas football coach, said of Emile Koy recently: "He isn't a bruising runner but his 215 pounds make him pretty monotonous." Koy comes here next month to serve as speaker for the University of Texas Ex-Students Association banquet. Bud Wilkinson, the former OU coach who gave the color for the last Orange Bowl game TV broadcast, said recently: "George Sauer made the play that got Ernie Koy loose for that long touchdown in the Orange Bowl. From left end Sauer crossed over, went downfield and took out the last man, turning the run into a score instead of a 40-yard gain." Abilene Cooper plays non-conference football games with Wichita Falls, Fort Worth Paschal and Brownwood. Sweetwater and Dallas Jefferson in practice tilts. Johnny Johnson, the former Big Spring High School basketball mentor, now resides in Albuquerque, N.M., where he writes that he frequently watches games involving the University of New Mexico. Johnny is district manager for an insurance company. He and his family plan to visit here this spring. Yukon Eric, who many around here may recall as a wrestler, was a suicide recently in a churchyard near Cartersville, Ga. He and his wife broke up some time ago and the big fellow had been despondent since that time. Wally Lemm, coach of the St. Louis (football) Cardinals, looks anxiously toward the 1965 NFL season. The Cards appear set in about every position, although Lemm reasons he could still use more depth on defense and players to help on the special teams. Lemm's 22 starters average less than 26 years of age, one of the youngest in the league. One of those starters is, of course, Big Spring's Charley Johnson, considered one of the finest quarterbacks in the league. Lemm was quoted as saying recently: "I don't know of many on any other club, except the few great stars, who could make our starting lineup. We've got the team to win the division. We've got the youth and now the experience and we should benefit from them next two seasons." Johnson comes home to speak at the YMCA banquet one week from Saturday.

Eagles Shade Bison Quint

STANTON—After a close first quarter the Seagraves Eagles pulled away from the Stanton Buffaloes, 55-43, for a District 5-A basketball victory here Tuesday night. The score was 11-10 at the end of the first half in favor of the Eagles. They widened that lead to nine points at halftime, 29-20. Scott Johnson led the Eagles with 16 points. Buddy Shanks was high man for the Buffaloes with 15. Stanton now stands 4-3 in district play and will journey to Wink Friday to take on the Wildcats. Stanton won the B-team game, 71-45. Carl Holloway canned 11 points for Stanton to lead the way. Phil Nash dropped in 14 for Seagraves. STANTON (43)—Shanks 5-15; Polson 3-2-4; Rodgett 3-2-4; Anderson 1-2-2; Stringer 2-2-4; Hall 1-2-4; Hicks 1-2-2; Stewart 1-2-2; Totals 72-42. SEAGRAVES (55)—Johnson 8-16; Callahan 4-12; Fulkerson 4-12; Corley 1-1-3; Hamilton 1-2-2; Reech 2-2-4; Adams 1-2-2; Totals 55-43. Score by quarters: Stanton 11 29 27 45; Seagraves 11 29 27 45.

Sullivan Cup To Schollander

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Schollander, winner of an unprecedented four swimming gold medals at the 1964 Olympic Games, is the youngest athlete ever to capture the James E. Sullivan Memorial Award as the nation's outstanding amateur performer. Schollander, an 18-year-old Yale freshman, outpooled 15 other Olympic gold medalists Tuesday for the coveted award, presented annually by the Amateur Athletic Union for sportsmanship and achievement. The Lake Oswego, Ore., youngster previously was named Male Athlete Of The Year by The Associated Press. A panel of 739 sportsmen, writers, broadcasters and Olympic athletes — largest in the 35-year history of the award — gave Schollander 352 first-place votes and a winning point total of 2,161. Billy Mills, the Marine lieutenant who scored a stunning upset in the Olympic 10,000 meter run, finished a distant second with 99 first-place ballots and 1,044 points. Schollander, who became the first swimmer ever to take four gold medals in a single Olympics with individual firsts in the 100 and 400-meter freestyle events and berths on two winning relay teams, will receive the award at a luncheon in New York Feb. 21. He succeeds John Pannel, who won the 1963 award after becoming the first pole vaulter to clear the 17-foot mark. Gelfer Bobby Jones was the first Sullivan winner in 1930.

Rebels Still Atop League

MIDLAND—The Midland Lee Rebels continued their winning ways Tuesday night by downing Odessa High, 95-76, in a District 2-AAAA basketball game here. Mike Frizzell led the Rebels with 27 points. Max Brownlee dropped in 18 for the losing Bronchos. Lee is now 9-1 in district play. ODESSA—The Permian Panthers, led by Jimmy Ormand with 27 points, dropped the Midland Bulldogs, 79-74, here Tuesday night in a District 2-AAAA basketball game that needed an overtime to decide the victor. Midland led the entire game until 2:50 was left in the last quarter. Earl Barnes of Midland was high point man for the game, sinking 30 points. SAN ANGELO—The San Angelo Bobcats edged the Abilene Eagles here Tuesday night, 61-59, in a District 2-AAAA basketball game to take command of second place. Willie Allen led the Bobcat victory dropping in 23 points. Larry Kelley hit 19 for the losing Eagles.

Fight Game Is Revived

NEW YORK (AP) — The fight racket, buried in Potter's Field when Sonny Liston quit in his corner at Miami Beach, has come back to life with the rebirth of Floyd Patterson and the belated discovery of George Chuvpilo. As the health of boxing always is directly related to the status of the heavyweight champion, another look at the title situation is in order. It is just a little complicated. Cassius Clay is the champion with two reservations — (1) his name is now Muhammad Ali and (2) he isn't recognized by the World Boxing Association. To fill the void, created by its own action in stripping Clay of the crown, the WBA is sanctioning a title bout between Ernie Terrell and Eddie Machen at Chicago, March 5. Of course, Machen was beaten by Patterson July 5 in a lopsided match in Sweden. Clay, forced to postpone his rematch with Liston due to a brain operation, is due in Boston Monday to be examined by the Massachusetts commission doctors and officials. He plans to go to Miami for light workouts to be sure of his physical capabilities before a new date is set. The promoters of the Boston fight are talking about a Monday date in late May, probably May 24. Liston, recently acquitted of drunken driving charges in Denver, is back at work getting ready for a chance to win back the title.

AMARILLO SHOCKS SAN ANGELO RAMS

SAN ANGELO—The Amarillo College Badgers surprised the San Angelo Rams and walked off with a hard earned 66-64 win here Tuesday night in a Western Junior College Conference basketball game. It was a tight game from beginning to end with the lead changing continuously. Ronnie Welt dropped in 20 points for the Badgers and Danny Spohnalt led the losing Rams with 17. The Rams are still in first place in the conference, one game ahead of Amarillo and Howard County Junior College.

Lengthy Trial Convicts Nazi

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A German war crimes court today sentenced Adolf Eichmann's top aide, Hermann Krumey, to five years at hard labor for complicity in the murder of at least 300,000 Hungarian Jews.

His codefendant, former SS Capt. Otto Hunsche, was acquitted.

After an often stormy trial that lasted more than nine months, Krumey was found guilty of participating in the 1944 deportation of 437,000 Hungarian Jews to the Auschwitz concentration camp where the majority of them were gassed. He was acquitted of a supplementary charge of extortion.

Krumey, 60, an ex-SS lieutenant colonel and Eichmann's deputy, once offered to trade the Western allies one million Hungarian Jews in return for 10,000 trucks. His offer was rejected.

Hunsche, 54, an ex-Nazi officer and Gestapo agent, was liaison officer between Eichmann's special bureau "for the final solution of the Jewish question" and the Hungarian regime of Admiral Horthy.

The state prosecutor had asked for life in prison for both men. Western Germany has no death penalty.

Dear Abby

Mother Did Her Part

DEAR ABBY: A woman with a nice-sounding voice telephoned me and asked if I had a daughter by the name of "let's call her 'Marcia.'" I said yes I had. Then she said that if Marcia did not leave her son alone there was going to be trouble. She said her son is a married man with a family, and Marcia is running after him. The two work together, it seems, and this woman said everyone at work is talking and it could cost her son his job.

I asked my daughter about it and she said the man was 42 years old, had been divorced for two years, and that his mother had been dead a long time. She told me not to pay any attention to the telephone call, but I can't help worrying about it. My daughter is 33 (divorced) and has her own apartment. What would you do in my place?

A WORRIED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: You warned your daughter, which is all you can do. If anything is to be done, your daughter must do it. She would be wise to check further on the man to find out if his marriage is "dead" and his mother is living.

DEAR ABBY: What makes people, who can ill afford to spend the money, pick up a telephone and make a long-distance call that comes to 15 or 20 dollars, when they can write a letter for only a few cents?

DEAR IRRITATED: And so does everyone else. Some folks, of course, are just too lazy to write. But I suspect that the majority of the "let's-rather-call-than-write" breed are unable to write an adequate letter. I am not knocking the long-distance telephone, but more people had better learn to spell and write correctly, and attempt to express themselves with the written word, or the art of letter writing will eventually be lost.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the woman who wrote that her nery neighbor had the habit of walking into her home without knocking. I once had a neighbor who did the same thing. We were living in the tropics, and my husband, who was a pilot, had just come home from a particularly long and grueling flight. As he walked into the kitchen, he said, "Honey, I'm so hot and dirty, I'm going to shuck my clothes right here." And he did just that.

Only seconds later, my neighbor came bursting through my back door without knocking. Well, I don't recommend this method to everyone who wants to cure a nery neighbor of not knocking, but it certainly cured mine.

Lease Bids Hit Record

AUSTIN (AP)—Oil and gas men submitted a record $39 million in high bids for mineral leases on state-owned school lands Tuesday.

Bids averaged $90 an acre for 475 tracts totaling 436,000 acres, land commissioner Jerry Sadler announced.

He said the money will expand the permanent school fund to more than $609 million.

The top bid was $1,071,000 by Dow Chemical Co. for a submerged Matagorda County tract.

All-State Band Members Featured In Concert Friday

Music lovers in Big Spring have a treat in store Friday night when the Big Spring High School Band, featuring all-state members, and a guest soloist from the U.S. Air Force Band, presents a concert at the municipal auditorium.

Numbers on the program are designed to feature all segments of the band, and to give members the opportunity to express themselves with their instruments.

Members of the all-state orchestra, who will also appear in Dallas next week, are Hollis Webb, Lynn Christensen, Wuaneta Palmer, Bill Davis, and Kathy Seddon. All-state band members are Kenneth Greenhill, Pat Hamilton, Paula Hood, Charles Macklin and Susan Ivey. The concert will be under direction of Doug Wiehe.

A brother of the director, Larry Wiehe, who has been playing the trombone for 30 years—since he was four years old when his parents had to set up special arrangements to support his instrument—and who is now a member of the U.S. Air Force Band, will be guest soloist in "Concerto for Trombone and Band," by Rimsky-Korsakov. The soloist continued his practice during his elementary and high school years, and for several years was soloist with the U.S. Navy Band in Washington, D.C. Since 1963, he has been

Blues Singer, Comedienne III

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Pearl Bailey, famed alike for her casual comedy and her husky blues voice, is in Mount Sinai Hospital suffering from "heart strain as a result of overwork," says her doctor.

The physician said the 46-year-old singer is undergoing tests in the hospital's intensive care unit. He said her condition is good and she probably will be transferred to a regular hospital room.

Lamesa Band To Attend Clinic

LAMESA (SC)—The Lamesa High School Stage Band will attend a clinic being conducted at West Texas State College in Canyon Friday and Saturday. The clinic is under the direction of Gary Garner, WTSC band director. Saturday afternoon the Lamesa band will compete with other bands in the 3-A division. Thursday at noon, the Lamesa band will play for the Noon Lions; Friday, they will entertain the Lamesa Rotary Club at a luncheon, and will play at 1:40 p.m. Friday for the high school assembly program. Immediately following the assembly program, the Stage band will leave for Canyon. J. M. Williams, director, said approximately 17 students will attend the clinic.

Zone Change Bid Refused Tuesday

The planning and zoning commission turned down a request for a change from one-family residence zoning to neighborhood service for a 1.243-acre tract at Birdwell Lane and Allendale Road in a session at city hall Tuesday.

Nine persons appeared to protest the change and a letter of opposition was submitted by two others. The request had been sent to the board by Tom McAdams. No one appeared at the meeting to represent the builder.

In response to a question as to what the neighborhood service designation involved, chairman Horace Reagan read the city's zoning ordinance on that type of zoning.

Speaking for the opposing property owners, Luther Bean, 611 Tulane, told the commission the opposing property owners did not feel the need for additional commercial property in the area.

"A commercial site may have increased value or hold a static value," Bean said of the proposed change. "But the residential area behind it will have a definite loss in value."

"There would be too much traffic to make this area desirable as a home site," Bean said. He said no one was objecting to construction of additional business property on FM 700 and that there are already two grocery stores and two service stations in the area.

Bean said he felt "spot zoning" would stop progressive growth in the city, partly by isolating business areas within otherwise residential areas.

In other action, the commission approved a final plat for the Harland Addition, part of Kennebeck Heights Subdivision, which allows the alteration of a 182 foot by 233 foot tract into three smaller lots. The lots are at the intersection of Lawrence Street and Ringier Street.

In Tract 13 of Kennebeck Heights, a recommendation was sent to the commission by Public Works Director Ernest Lillard that the change conform to city specifications and that the outside dimensions of the tract were not being changed.

One other item scheduled for consideration, for a zone change in the Edwards Hills Addition requested by Howard Development Co., was withdrawn before the session.

Actor's Disc Catches On With Teeners

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — How could a 48-year-old actor manage to produce a hit record in the teenage jungle of today's pop music world?

Lorne Greene isn't questioning it; he's just banking the money and enjoying the whole thing.

The amazing success of the record "Ringo" is one of the many pleasant happenstances that have occurred to Greene in recent years.

"Don't ask me about 'Ringo' because I can't figure it out," said the star of television's top-rated hour, "Bonanza." "All I know is that it has already sold over 800,000 copies and that's merely in this country. It's apparently going wild in Australia, too. There seems to be no doubt that it will sell over a million before it's through."

LIKE OTHERS

Like many television stars Greene found himself recording some numbers last year, even though his experience as a professional singer was nil.

"Once in high school in Ottawa I was pushed before the curtain and told to stall for 15 minutes," he recalled. "I sang 'Brother, Can You Spare a Dime,' which dates the era, and the students threw pennies instead. Then at Queen's University in Kingston, Ont., I sang in the campus frolics. I was equally successful."

Among the numbers for the album was one in which he told in his sonorous non-singing bass about how he once saved the life of the notorious Johnny Ringo and later had to shoot him dead. The recitation nestled among other singing and talking numbers on the album until a Lubbock, Tex., disc jockey plucked it out for a go-around. The response was enormous.

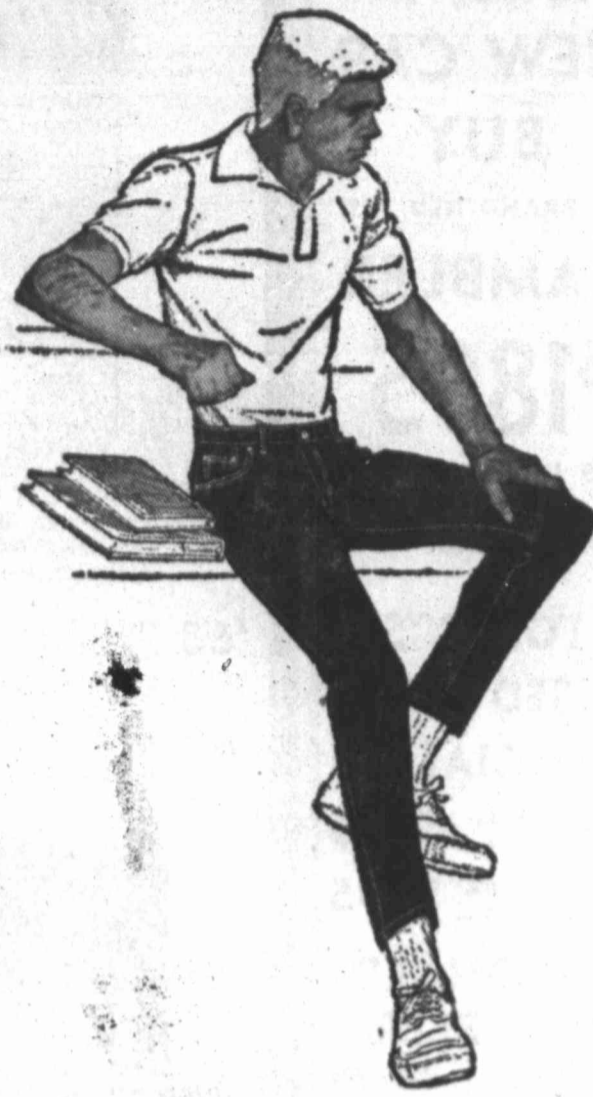

A Dallas jockey heard about the fuss and gave "Ringo" a big play with identical results. RCA-Victor released the number as a single and away it went.

Greene now finds that when he appears among teenagers they no longer touch him as before. They grab.

"GOOD THING!" "On the whole I think it's a good thing that an older person can succeed in the pop music field," he said. "Maybe it will convince the teenagers that their papas and mamas might have something after all."

For Greene, records are another element of his ever-growing career. As a result of "Ringo" he has received night club offers — he opens in Reno April 29. He is preparing a five-times-a-week radio show and two television productions. "I want to taste everything in the entertainment world," he said.

The taste has been sweet already. Greene figures he has earned a million from the six years of "Bonanza."

Herald's Ferrell Named To Office

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Thomas Meredith of the Waco, Tex., Times - Herald and News - Tribune, was elected president of the Southern Classified Advertising Managers Association Tuesday.

He succeeded Burt Swartz of the Mobile, Ala., Press Register.

New directors include Truett Trammell of Wichita Falls, Tex., and Ben Ferrell of Big Spring, Tex.

Council Sets Election Date
LAMESA (SC)—The Lamesa City Council Monday night called for the election of two new councilmen for places 4 and 5. The terms of Jake Lippard and Clyde Branon will expire, and the election has been set for April 6.

The Council voted to let the Lamesa Independent School District use Lobo Park for practice sessions and home baseball games. The council also voted to exempt personal taxes on all automobiles older than 1962 models.

The council heard a report on the progress of remodeling being done on the old city hall. A part of the building is being converted into an emergency operating center under a federal participation program.

Date Set For Pancake Supper
Tickets for the 13th annual Kiwanis Club Pancake Supper, set for the night of Feb. 19, are now on sale. Members of the club have the tickets and the prices are — as they have been for all of the years the event has been held — 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children.

The supper will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. in the Howard County Junior College Student Union Building. The same pattern as in other years will be followed. The menu will consist of pancakes, bacon, syrup, butter, coffee or milk. A ticket entitles the holder to eat pancakes until he has all he wants.

The Kiwanis Club Pancake Suppers have become a Big Spring institution over the years. The club serves hundreds of guests at each supper.

All profits from the suppers go into the club fund for the assistance of needy boys and girls of the community.

Bob Travis, club president, has announced the committees to work on this year's edition of the supper.

Sherman Smith and Jack Roden are general arrangements co-chairmen. Glenn Faison and Earl Stovall are ticket sales chairmen. Publicity will be handled by Sam Blackburn and Bob Bradbury.

Pancake cooks for the night will be Harvey Clay, Ernest Welch, Bob Travis, Roscoe Newell, Soc Walker, Wendal Parks, Horace Reagan, Sherman Smith, Ed Corson, Bob Bradbury, Ward Jackson and Clyde Hollingsworth.

Batter mixers are Jasper Atkins and Robert Stripling. The club uses a recipe devised by Atkins. This recipe has been in use for many years and, after each supper, many requests are made for copies of it.

Batter carriers are to be H. W. Smith and Bill Cashion. Bacon cooks for the night are

Taxpayers Feel Drain By States

NEW YORK (AP) — Record state budgets are front page news almost every day in one section or another of the nation. Often they are linked to plans to raise state taxes.

Taxpayers using lower rates in computing their federal income tax just now may find any savings quickly drained away at the state and local levels.

The total of revenues to be raised through various taxes by the 50 states in 1965 appears headed for a rise of $3 billion or more in 1965. This would bring it above $27 billion. It has been growing at an average rate of 8 per cent a year since the early 1950s. But in 1964 it rose 20 per cent to $24.2 billion.

And this year some of the states already have presented spending programs up by 35 to 60 per cent.

ONE SOURCE
Higher tax rates or new taxes are only one revenue source. For most states much of the year's increased total take will come from prosperity itself. In 1964 economic expansion accounted for about half of the gain in collections.

As consumers spend more this means more sales tax revenues. Incomes of individuals and corporations are up, and those states taxing incomes are benefiting. Property values are rising in many places — and bringing in more for the tax collector.

Also the state and local governments increasingly profit from Uncle Sam. Total federal grants at the end of World War II ran around a billion dollars annually. In 1965 they are expected to be about $10 billion.

A "WATCHDOG"
The Tax Foundation, a privately financed watchdog of the tax system, says that much of this year's expected record jump in state budgets is due to increases by the largest states.

It says California's proposal will give it a $4-billion budget, to top all the other states. New York, with a gain of $500 million, will go to $3.5 billion. Others the foundation lists include Wisconsin, up 37 per cent; New Hampshire, up 52 per cent; Wyoming, up 56 per cent; and Idaho, with its education spending budget up 60 per cent.

The big increases this year are largely concentrated in educational needs, the foundation reports. And it sees this as the likely pattern over the next few years.
