Millions Get War Training In Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Communist China has succeeded in organizing and training at least 20 million to 30 million militiamen, the professional journal of the U.S. Army reports.

The article in "Military Review" warns that Red China's militia "has to be taken seriously, not only because of its present strength, but also because of its military potential."

"To underestimate the value of that militia could lead to military disaster in case of a war with Communist China," the article says. It was written by George P. Jan, a specialist on Communist China who was born in Peking and graduated from National Chengchi University in Nanking before taking his Ph.D. from New York University.

Court Voids Serviceman Voting Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court struck down today a Texas constitutional provision allowing members of the armed forces to vote only in the county in which they resided when they joined up. The provision has kept some soldiers residing in Texas from voting.

The decision was given on an appeal by Army Sgt. Herbert N. Carrington who said he has been a resident of El Paso for years and intends to make it his permanent home. He entered the service while a resident of Bessemer, Ala., and has been denied the right to vote in Texas.

WARREN OUT
Justice Potter Stewart delivered the 7-1 decision. Justice John M. Harlan wrote the dissenting opinion. Chief Justice Earl Warren did not participate in the case.

Warren was absent from the high bench when the case was argued Jan. 28. He left for London that day to attend the funeral of Sir Winston Churchill.

Carrington appealed to the highest tribunal after the Texas Supreme Court ruled the Texas provision did not violate the federal Constitution's guarantee of equal protection of laws.

SOLDIER'S POSITION
Carrington said he could not vote in Alabama or Texas, since he had lost his residence in Alabama by voluntary acquisition of a general residence in Texas. He contended his being in the military service had no reasonable connection with his qualifications or desirability as a voter in Texas.

Texas counsel defended the 1954 amendment to the state constitution on the ground it was intended to prevent a concentration of military voting strength in areas where military bases are located.

HELD BIAS
Stewart's opinion declared that, "by forbidding the soldier ever to controvert the presumption of nonresidence, the Texas statute imposes an invidious discrimination" in violation of the federal Constitution's 14th Amendment.

"We recognize," Stewart said, "that special problems may be involved in determining whether servicemen have actually acquired a new domicile in a state for franchise purposes."

Bombing Blamed On Bad Liaison

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — B57 air strikes against the Communist Viet Cong have been halted in a Mekong Delta area after the American bombers accidentally killed 4 South Vietnamese troops and wounded 15.

Officers said the error resulted from poor liaison between ground and air units. Under the system of communication between ground advisers and planes, it takes about three minutes to call off an air strike, they said.

Government forces with U.S. helicopter support continued a ground-sea-air offensive in the delta area 150 miles southeast of Saigon. A large Communist force was believed to have been operating in the area.

HEAVY FIRING
There were no reports of damage to the Viet Cong, but government forces came under heavy mortar fire this morning. Two soldiers were killed and 18 others wounded.

The B57s and Vietnamese Air Force Skyraiders had been pounding the area for five days, but it was difficult to assess the effectiveness of the strikes. Air crews reported hearing secondary explosions after their bomb runs, including one major blast that could have been a munitions depot.

The ground operation was launched Saturday when two battalions of paratroopers were flown to the front in 137 helicopters. It was the biggest lift of the war.

Government forces fanning out through the region reported no major contact with the Communists, but the area was heavily mined and there was some sniper fire.

Pro-Russian Red Leaders In Shut Meet

MOSCOW (AP) — Pro-Soviet Communist leaders gathered in secrecy in Moscow today to discuss fading prospects for restoring unity to the broken ranks of the world Communist movement.

The Red Chinese continued to hurl invective at the new Kremlin leadership, accusing it of deepening the Soviet-Chinese split while talking about unity.

Leaders from 17 foreign Communist parties were scheduled to meet today with Soviet Communist party Presidium member Mikhail Suslov.

NOT PINPOINTED
There was no official information on the location of the talks. Western correspondents stationed outside the Soviet party's Central Committee building and other possible sites reported no sign of a meeting.

The Communist party paper Pravda published the names of 47 delegates from 18 parties, including the Soviet one, who it said were in Moscow.

OFF COAST
Vietnamese junk fleets and navy units were operating off the nearby coast.

Vietnamese planes sank what may have been a camouflaged vessel running munitions from North Viet Nam.

The pilot of a light South Vietnamese plane said he had been fired upon as he flew over what appeared to be a boat camouflaged with foliage in a cove in the Mekong Delta province of Kien Hoa, 50 miles below Saigon.

He said there were about 30 men on deck and samlans going back and forth to shore.

The pilot radioed two Vietnamese air force fighter-bombers in the area. They fired rockets and dropped bombs and the object reportedly burned and sank.

SUNK SHIP
Two weeks ago Vietnamese fighters sank a ship carrying a large cargo of arms and ammunition off the coast of central Viet Nam.

The possibility of increased action by U.S. Navy patrol ships against vessels running guns from North Viet Nam to guerrillas in the south increased following the new American white paper on the war.

The document issued by the State Department said a North Vietnamese "maritime infiltration group" has been sending weapons, supplies and Red agents southward in increasing numbers.

U. S. Envoy's Home Invaded

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Foreign Ministry by telephone and followed up with a formal note today.

Jones and his wife were inside the residence and were not harmed. No damage was done to the house.

BLAME U.S.
Leaders of the crowd said they were protesting the assassination of Malcolm X. They blamed the U.S. government for his murder.

Jones admitted three representatives of the demonstrators who submitted a petition that included the usual condemnation of U.S. policies in Viet Nam and the world.

An anti-riot mobile brigade was called out but it took 45 minutes to reach the ambassador's residence. They dispersed the demonstrators.

NO RESPONSE
Similar mob action against Jones' residence occurred about two years ago.

Jones had asked Foreign Minister Subandrio for an appointment to clarify the status of U.S. Information Agency operations in Indonesia, but Subandrio left for Cambodia today without meeting him.

President Sukarno told Jones Saturday that the Indonesian government had decided to close down all USIA libraries in Indonesia.

Printers Plan Strike Vote

NEW YORK (AP) — The printers' union, which struck New York City newspapers for 114 days two years ago, says it will take a strike vote next Sunday.

Bertram Powers, president of Local 6 of the International Typographical Union, told a monthly meeting Sunday that he had been authorized by the union's executive council to take the strike vote.

The contract between the ITU and the Publishers Association of New York City expires at midnight March 30.

Powers reported a deadlock in negotiations last week.

Negroes Plan Massive March On Montgomery

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Scores of Negroes returned to the courthouse in Selma today to try again to register as voters, but they found approximately 50 white applicants in line ahead of them.

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Six Alabama counties were the targets today in a steadily expanding Negro voter registration drive marked by violence, boycotts, reported threats and plans for a massive march on the state Capitol.

Returning again to lead the campaign he launched six weeks ago was Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who visited the West Coast during the past several days.

BEEN MOBILIZING
King's workers have been mobilizing for what they hope will be a turnout of hundreds of Negroes at voter registration offices in mostly rural counties of Alabama's black belt.

"We want a number that can't be numbered," was the way the Rev. F. D. Reese of Selma described the plans Sunday night at a church rally here before another Negro, a part-time minister, told of a reported threat on his life in a neighboring county.

During the rally, a Selma farm machinery employe identified as the Rev. L. H. Harrison, a part-time preacher, said his deacons at a church in Lowndes County voted to discharge him after white men warned him to leave the county.

CLAIMS THREAT
"A deacon who was called outside by the white men informed me that if I didn't get out of Lowndes County by Sunday, I would never be found again," Harrison said.

The stocky 32-year-old Negro said he refused to leave until the deacons quickly took a vote and agreed to send him back to Selma.

Harrison first identified himself several times to newsmen as L. H. Harris but, after other Negroes insisted he had given an incorrect name, he gave his correct name.

He said he was afraid of losing his job with the Selma machinery firm if he gave his correct name. Federal agents were checking the report and Sheriff Frank Ryals of Lowndes said he had heard nothing about the reported incident.

Negroes at the Selma rally were urged to intensify their boycott of white businesses and extend it to every store run by a white person. The effect of the boycott has begun to be felt here and in nearby Marion.

Appalachia Measure Seen Up For Final Fast Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may get from Congress this week the first major legislation of the 1965 session — the $1.1-billion Appalachia aid bill.

The Senate passed the bill a month ago and the House opens debate on it today. A final House vote is expected Tuesday.

and if there are no amendments, the bill will go to the President later in the week.

Designed to bolster the 11 states in the economically depressed Appalachia area, the bill would authorize the expenditure of $840 million of federal funds for highway construction over a five-year period. The states would put up an additional $360 million. No state would be required to participate in the program.

FEDERAL GRANTS
An extra $237 million of federal funds would be spent during the first two years of the program, mainly for grants for health, coal land reclamation, pasture improvement, vocational education, water resource development and sewage treatment programs.

All of the federal money authorized is contingent upon actual appropriations to be made in a later bill.

House members who seek to change the bill have criticized it as discriminatory against other areas. They lost their fight in the House Public Works Committee and were not overly optimistic about winning on the House floor.

They are aiming particularly at a Senate provision that could make it possible for 13 New York counties to benefit later from the program. This provision was added at the insistence of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

PORTS TO VOTE
Asst. Labor Secretary James J. Reynolds said he was told by Ralph A. Massey, district IIA president, that a vote on ratification would be taken in ports from Lake Charles, La., to Brownsville, Tex., tonight.

Massey would not confirm or deny the report.

Negotiators agreed Saturday to a new contract, which gives West Gulf Coast IIA members substantial new benefits. The settlement culminated months of on-again, off-again bargaining.

This left only the South Atlantic area "from Morehead, N.C., to Tampa, Fla.," as the only IIA district still unsettled on a new labor pact.

MIAMI TALKS
Negotiations were to begin again in Miami Beach, Fla., today for the remaining ports.

David Stowe, a federal mediator who flew from Galveston to Miami Beach Sunday, said the Gulf Coast longshoremen "will stay out until the South Atlantic settles. I'm convinced of that."

The 11 states in the Appalachia area are West Virginia, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia, Maryland, Ohio and Pennsylvania. They have a population estimated in excess of 15 million.

The House has scheduled no other major bills for the week and the Senate has no major legislative work on its docket. Most of the Senate's week is expected to be taken up with discussion of the U.S. position in Viet Nam.

Billie Sol Goes To Trial Again

DALLAS (AP) — Bible-quoting Billie Sol Estes, who once had the ear of powerful men of Washington and Wall Street, goes before the bar of justice again today.

In this, his third and possibly last trial, the former West Texas farm financier is charged with making false statements to the government to enhance his grain-storage position.

IN U.S. CUSTODY
Estes, already under prison sentences totaling 23 years, has been in the custody of federal marshals since Jan. 18, when the Supreme Court declined to hear his appeal of a 15-year federal term for mail fraud.

Specifically, he is accused of falsifying the size of his debts through sworn statements to the Commodity Credit Corp. on the basis of these and other statements, the government contracted to store millions of bushels of surplus grain in Estes' elevators.

Estes was receiving storage fees of some $5 million a year from such contracts when his agriculture empire crashed in March of 1962.

LEGALLY PAUPER
Once said to be worth millions, Estes is now legally a pauper.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Bill Hughes will prosecute the case before U.S. Dist. Judge Sarah Hughes.

Estes, the portly, mid-man, posed bail for Estes, calling him a "poor bail risk." The department said Estes had made threats to flee to Brazil.

While the Supreme Court declined to review Estes' federal conviction, it agreed to hear arguments later on a separate appeal from his conviction in a Texas state court on a charge of swindling. The arguments will be on Estes' objection to television cameras in the state court trial.

Estes' federal sentence was 15 years. His state court sentence was eight years' imprisonment. Estes' lawyer said the state court sentence was to be served concurrently with the federal sentence. The counsel said that in proceeding with the appeal from the state sentence, Estes "is only a sort of guinea pig" for testing various legal contentions.

HEAR APPEAL
The Supreme Court has agreed to hear Estes' appeal of an eight-year state prison sentence for swindling in connection with chattel mortgages on non-existent fertilizer tanks.

The issue in that appeal is that his rights were violated because the trial judge allowed television cameras in the courtroom.

Several other indictments were drawn up by prosecutors after Estes was arrested by FBI agents nearly three years ago. But it is unlikely that he will ever be tried on those charges.

Supreme Tribunal Won't Reconsider Estes Edict

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to reconsider its Jan. 18 decision that it would not review Billie Sol Estes' federal conviction on charges of conspiracy and mail fraud.

Estes, the Texas financier, was put in jail after the Jan. 18 decision. The U.S. Circuit Court in New Orleans and Justice Hugo Black of the Supreme Court later refused to permit his release on bail pending today's Supreme Court action on the petition for reconsideration.

The Justice Department opposed bail for Estes, calling him a "poor bail risk." The department said Estes had made threats to flee to Brazil.

Worldly Influences Evident In Fashions

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

PARIS (AP) — Egypt's Pyramids, Australia's kangaroos, Scotland's plaids, Oklahoma's surreys and grandmotherly shawls from everywhere were the international influences in the spring collection which Guy Laroche introduced today.

These added up to the kind of softness and chic and graceful elegance which keeps one of his best costumers, Mrs. Herve Alphan, on the international best-dressed lists. Her husband is French ambassador in Washington.

The parade started with an Egyptian Pyramid as the shape for knee-length shifts, one in white leather with orange shorts underneath. Tropical cotton shifts fluttered with ruffles at the hems.

From the kangaroo, Laroche borrowed the pouch — interpreted as a flat-stitched pocket opened at the sides to keep hands warm. These were sewn onto the front of suits, dresses, and even cocktail dresses.

The Tartan plaid sparked up slim pleated coats over daytime dresses as well as rustling taffeta jackets and coats over chiffon cocktail dresses.

The Oklahoma musical tune, "Surrey with the Fringe on Top" was on the lips of some of the wags in the audience as models flounced in and out of the showroom in short jacketed suits and coats as well as sleeveless skimmer dresses, the hems of which fluttered with fringe.

VIET NAM STORY

U.S. Stepped Into Vacuum

HO CHI MINH

By The Associated Press

Q. To many Americans, Viet Nam is beginning to look like a dead-end street with no acceptable exit. How did the United States get mixed up in it?

A. Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia had been France's Indochina colonies. After World War II, Communist Ho Chi Minh proclaimed a republic and his guerrillas warred on the French. More Americans fear Red expansion in Southeast Asia. Expensive aid went to help the French, but France was defeated in 1954 and Viet Nam was divided while Laos and Cambodia became independent. In South Viet Nam, the Americans stepped into the vacuum left by France, supported Ngo Dinh Diem, who became president of a republic after Emperor Bao Dai was deposed. The Eisenhower administration pledged help toward a viable state which could resist aggression or subversion. The Kennedy and Johnson administrations reaffirmed the policy.

Q. There seemed to be a few years of relative quiet. What produced the big scale crisis?

A. After partition, many Communist guerrillas remained in the South. Many others went South with streams of refugees. Communists were strong in southern rural areas a decade ago. In 1961, the Communists evidently decided the time had come to grab for the whole country. Apparently in orders from the Red north, attacks on government forces were sharply increased. In December 1961 there were 1,000 U.S. aid personnel on hand. The figure now is about 24,000 U.S. personnel and the cost is about $600 million a year.

Q. Is the United States a combatant?

NOT IN "COMBAT"

A. Technically, there are no U.S. combat units in South Viet Nam. Washington shunned sending combat units, which would imply the broadened war it has tried to avoid. But support and advisory units are larger, more diversified. U.S. personnel sees more and more combat. Support units include a defense fighter interceptor system and antiaircraft missiles.

Q. What about Saigon's military forces?

A. Possibly 500,000, half regulars, half paramilitary, better equipped than the Viet Cong, with U.S. planes, helicopters and modern arms.

Q. And the Viet Cong?

A. Possibly 35,000 in a main fighting force supported by 80,000 armed regional guerrillas who also serve as labor forces. Lately, U.S. officials noted a sharp increase in the number of North Vietnamese among infiltrators and estimated that half the main guerrilla force now is from the north.

Q. What about North Viet Nam's forces?

A. About 500,000, oriented toward guerrilla war. In the event of open war between north and south, the northern army probably would take to the jungles, avoid conventional battles, fight like the Viet Cong but on a larger scale.

Q. What about losses on both sides?

A. U.S. estimates are that 69,000 Viet Cong were killed in the last four years, and place South Viet Nam losses at 19,300 for the same period. In the past week the Pentagon put the American death toll in combat at 300. There were about 100 non-combat American deaths.

Q. If Communist losses are so heavy, how do they keep going?

A. Infiltration from the north, say the Americans, plus constant recruitment, through use of armed squads serving as agitation-propaganda teams. They know how to live with peasants, are highly effective. By all indications, the Viet Cong are significantly stronger this year than last, better armed and trained.

Q. What sort of arms?

A. The Viet Cong depend mainly on captured, American-made arms. Some smaller units try to standardize with Communist-made small arms. The heaviest Viet Cong weapons still are American-made — 50-caliber machine guns, 80 mm. cannon, 4.2-in. mortars, useful for attacking fixed installations and road convoys. The southern army is oriented to heavy mechanized equipment and conventional fighting.

Q. Is this a disadvantage for the south?

LOOKS LIKE IT

A. It appears so. The war has no front, no rear. It is far from conventional. The Viet Cong is elusive, difficult to identify. A guerrilla may be an innocent farmer by day, a fighter by night. The Viet Cong hide, hit, raid, ambush, infiltrate, terrorize, propagandize and avoid head-on military clashes.

Q. How much territory does the Viet Cong control?

A. More all the time. For some time it has almost wholly controlled the rich food-producing Ca Mau Peninsula in the south. It has claimed control of 77 of South Viet Nam's 237 administrative districts, is extending control in central areas. It has closed most overland communications. In many areas, the Saigon government controls little.

Q. What's the matter with Saigon's war effort?

A. Apparent lack of popular support, political unrest, religious conflicts, military coups, counter-coups, jealousies among generals, chronic lack of stability.

Q. Can the war be won without stability?

A. U.S. officials say until there is a fairly stable, fairly popular government, there is little chance of rallying popular support, even though field units continue to prosecute the war between and during coups.

Q. Is there a prospect for stability in South Viet Nam?

A. It seems slim. The Communists are organized and disciplined. Other political forces are divided. Those with real power are the army officers and the militant Buddhists. Splinter groups are squeezed between them. A truce between the army and Buddhists brings uneasy stability, but it can be upset at the drop of a politician. The officer corps is subject to dangerous splits.

Q. Weren't the Americans supposed to be fostering democracy?

A. Yes, but the goal is distant. A military coup overthrew Diem in November 1963. A government under Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh was overthrown by Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh. He remained strongman most of the time through a series of coups and attempted upheavals until this month when he, too, was overthrown by other generals. From time to time civilians are appointed to the premiership, but army officers retain control. South Viet Nam, gripped by civil war and political strife, is far from ready for democracy.

Two-Veep Plan Favored

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A top woman official of the Democratic party likes the idea of two vice presidents for the United States and believes one of them should be a woman.

Dorothy Vredenburg Bush, secretary of the Democratic National Committee, sees the two vice-presidents plan as the quickest route by which a woman could rise to the pinnacle of U.S. government.

Mrs. Bush said Sunday she doesn't intend to make a crusade out of it but that anyone who chooses to take the ball and run with it would have her blessing.

Areas Need More Rains

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Last week's cold wave caused a temporary halt in the growth of grains and grasses, and brought a need for more feeding, reported John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agriculture Extension Service.

Farm activities in many areas stopped, he added, due to widespread rains.

Moisture still is generally short over the Panhandle. Livestock were in fair to good condition with feeding stepped up to offset the cold.

Cold weather with only light blowing snow, mostly in the northern counties, hit the South Plains. It is still dry.

Moisture over the Rolling Plains was spotted. Half the counties need more moisture. Grain improved with moisture, but the cold slowed growth.

Field work in North Central Texas stopped because of rain before the cold wave. Grains had been making good growth and grazing had improved but fields were too wet now to graze.

AMPLE MOISTURE
Moisture in Northeast Texas ranges from adequate to surplus. Clovers were making fair to good growth before the cold wave. Livestock had wintered well and marketings had been light.

Rains and snows in far West Texas improved moisture conditions. Calf and lamb crops are good. Goat shearing was slowed by cold weather and some losses among sheared goats have been reported. Feeding is continuing. Irrigated grains are furnishing grazing. Labor is short.

TOO WET
Moisture in West Central Texas was the best in years. Grain grazing was abundant before the cold weather hit. Range vegetation was short but providing lots of sheep and goat feed. Cattle are still being fed. Cold, wet weather caused some shrinkage and the loss of some lambs. Goat shearing stopped.

Moisture in Central Texas is on the surplus side. Some isolated areas are still short on stock water. Field work stopped in the heavy rains. Ranges are average to above but some increase in feeding was needed to offset the cold. Grazing was curtailed due to wet fields.

Moisture in East Texas is now adequate with some areas reporting a surplus. Oats and clovers were furnishing grazing. Truck crop planting had started.

TREES BLOOM
Moisture in South Central Texas generally is good. Oats need warm weather. Flax and peach trees were blooming; vegetable gardens were in full production; and spring grazing prospects were brighter.

More rain and cold delayed farming in the southeast and upper Gulf Coast states. Many stock tanks are full for the first time in several years. Moisture in South Texas generally is adequate. Flax, oats and ranges benefited from rain. Lambing, calving and kidding is continuing. Feeding and pear burning still were necessary.

Values Rather Mixed Up In TV Program

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A well-acted, thoughtfully written series called "For the People" on CBS raises valid, difficult issues, but as dramatic entertainment some vital ingredients are missing. Some of the other values are rather mixed up.

A couple of weeks ago, for instance, the young assistant district attorney had a criminal charge against a young man dismissed because a confession had been obtained through force. So a man who obviously had committed a crime walked away free — and we were left to ponder whether the ends ever justify the means.

PATHETIC BOY

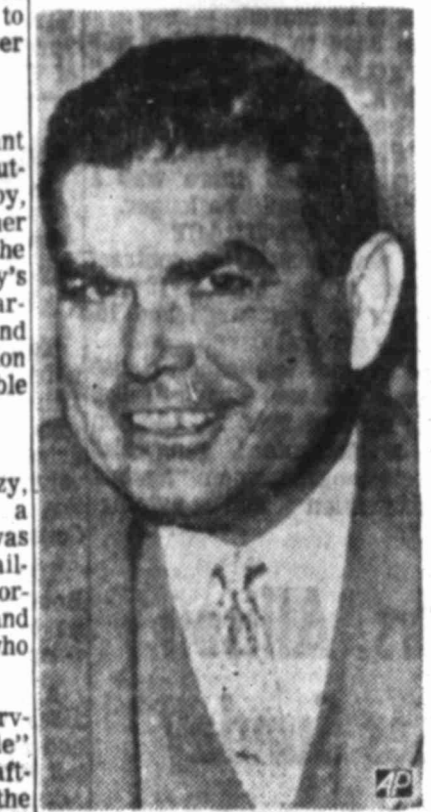

Sunday night, the assistant district attorney was prosecuting a pathetic, mentally ill boy, who had murdered his teacher in a fit of rage. It seemed the real defendants were the boy's well-educated, well-to-do parents who had neglected him and the books, movies and television shows, which the susceptible youth read and watched.

NOT HEROIC

This hardly provided cozy, comfortable relaxation on a Sunday evening. The hero was not heroic — full of human frailties. His boss, the district attorney, is a tired, defeated and cynical public servant who reacts to political pressures.

But whatever its public service virtues, "For the People" probably will not be around after this season. It is shown at the same time as NBC's "Bonanza" where everything is tidy and recognizable.

"Inger Stevens in Sweden," ABC's hour travelogue special Friday night could have been filmed on the back lot of any Hollywood studio. It was a thoroughly unimaginative quick trip to Scandinavia.

Water Squabble With Colorado Now Brewing?

AUSTIN (AP) — Top officials say it is news to them if Texas is about to get in a legal battle with Colorado over Rio Grande water.

At a recent meeting of the Rio Grande Compact Commission in Santa Fe, the Texas member of the commission, Louis Scott of El Paso, was quoted as saying Texas' "patience has become exhausted over the increased deficit" of Colorado water deliveries.

He said the only alternative was for Texas to file a suit with the Supreme Court requesting appointment of a special water master to enforce compact provisions.

When accounts of Scott's comments reached Texas, state officials said they knew nothing of an impending suit.

The attorney general's department, which handles the state's water litigation, professed no knowledge of such a suit or of any controversy with Colorado.

NO INFORMATION
The Texas Water Commission, the state water regulatory body, said it had no information on a suit.

Gov. John Connally, in answer to questions, said he knew nothing about a suit and said his attention had never been called to a Texas-Colorado water controversy.

Scott said later he spoke for himself as Santa Fe, saying Texas had "lost patience" with Colorado. He said he would talk with Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and Connally and recommend that a filing be made with the Supreme Court.

At the compact meeting in Santa Fe Feb. 19, Scott said Colorado's water deficit to Texas under the 1940 compact stands at minus 810,300 acre-feet. An acre-foot is 25,851 gallons.

He said Colorado was to have released 133,900-acre feet last year but delivered only 57,600 acre-feet.

"BIGGER DEBT"
"The position of Texas is that Colorado is running into a bigger debt each year and not doing anything about it," Scott was quoted as saying in Santa Fe. "Apparently our only recourse is to file suit with the Supreme Court asking appointment of a special master to compel Colorado to live up to the terms of the compact ratified by the legislature of Colorado, New Mexico and Texas."

More than a decade ago Texas filed suit against New Mexico alleging that Texas was not getting the amount of Rio Grande water it should get under the three-state compact.

Bank Robbery Case Trial Set

J. C. Aldredge, charged with writing a worthless check, was to enter a plea of guilty in 118th District Court Monday afternoon, Roger Brown, his court-appointed attorney, informed Judge Ralph Caton this morning.

His was the only guilty plea slated of the nine criminal cases

South Atlantic Docker Talks Are Renewed

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — South Atlantic longshoremen, last major holdout in the costly seven-week dock strike, renewed negotiations today.

An agreement was reached Sunday for Gulf ports but work apparently is still delayed.

President Thomas Gleason of the International Longshoremen's Association, and Labor Department consultant David A. Stowe flew here from Galveston, Tex., to participate.

SEES ACCORD

Gleason said he was positive a quick settlement was in sight. He said that with agreement in the Gulf ports "we've got a pattern now."

The Gulf agreement signed in Galveston is subject to a ratification vote tonight by 7,000 longshoremen in 11 ports from Lake Charles, La., to Brownsville, Tex.

Gulf port union officials, however, rejected an urgent appeal from Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz to load grain ships for India.

SET OUT STRIKE

This refusal accompanied speculation that West Gulf Coast longshoremen would sit out the strike until dockworkers in the southeastern states reached agreement.

Fifty ships were waiting off strikebound Gulf and South Atlantic coasts to load grain. Dozens more were idle with cargo yet to be moved.

"We hope to have ships rolling again by Wednesday," Ralph A. Massey, president of the South Atlantic and West Gulf district of the IILA, said Sunday. He said there was a possibility it would be longer.

NEW CONTRACT

The new West Gulf contract included a guaranteed 18-man gang for bagged cargo and 16-man for general cargo.

The same contract clause snagged Miami Beach talks, called off last Feb. 20. Gleason said a guaranteed gang size protects longshoremen "against mechanization and automation."

Mrs. Allison Dies Sunday

LAMESA (SC) — Mrs. Virdie May Allison, 81, died in Medical Arts Hospital in Lamesa Sunday. She had been hospitalized nine days. Mrs. Allison was born in Hood County April 14, 1884. She had lived in Dawson County since 1925, and was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Services will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the First Baptist Church. The pastor, the Rev. Milo B. Arbuckle, will officiate. Burial will be in Lamesa Memorial Park under the direction of Branon - Phillips Funeral Home.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. T. S. Applegate, Lamesa, Mrs. R. O. Styron, Cleburne; three sons, V. B. Allison, Miami, Ariz., B. V. Allison, Central Heights, Ariz.; Oscar C. Allison, Mercury, Nev.; four sisters, Mrs. Lena McPherson, Granbury, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Long Beach, Calif., Mrs. Eliza Vandford, Fort Worth, Mrs. Hugh Ashburn, San Diego, Calif.; two brothers, B. B. Bernard, Cleburne, M. E. Bernard, Acton; eight grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Awards Given To Pack 179 Cubs

Thirteen awards were presented to members of Cub Scout Pack 179, sponsored by Kentwood Methodist Church, at a Blue and Gold banquet last week.

Ninety-three Cub Scouts and parents attended the banquet. Wolf badges went to Kent Shaw, Billy Gressett and Scott Tyra. Bobcat pins were presented to James Lacy and Mark Lagerstrom. Bear badge was given to David Fisher.

Den Chief shoulder cords went to Steve Nolan and Jimmy Branch. Arrow points went to Clint Boardman, Ricky Daw, James Lacy, Billy Gressett, David Fisher and Scott Tyra. A Denner badge went to Pat Nolan and assistant Denner badge to David Fisher. One year's service pins went to Scott Dennis and David Fisher. Henry Parmenter is the Pack scoutmaster and Leslie Daw is the award committee chairman.

called in the court today.

A jury panel is to report Tuesday morning to try Higinio Soto, charged with robbery by assault. His is the first case to be called up for jury disposition. He is accused of holding up Mrs. Darlene Dabney, teller at the Security State Bank, and forcing her to hand him nearly $5,000. He was arrested shortly after the holdup attempt.

James W. Lemay will be the second defendant to face a jury at this week's criminal docket. He is accused of robbery by assault in the holdup of a service station.

Lincoln Brummett, indicted for forgery, is slated as the third defendant to go on trial at the jury session.

Robert Earl Frymire, charged with car theft, will be the fourth jury case if time permits that many to be called.

Norman Spencer, attorney for Antonio DeLeon, charged with assault with intent to rape, said that he would not be ready to try that case at this time and asked that it be passed.

Other cases on the docket, in which not guilty pleas were entered, include John Marvin Peters, burglary; Bobby W. Beardsley, theft; Horace Anthony Smith, assault with intent to murder.

Chairman Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., said the committee was within half an hour of completing action on the sweeping measure when a motion to adjourn carried by a 16-15 vote. All but one section of the bill had been approved.

SEES PASSAGE Powell scheduled another meeting for 9 a.m. Tuesday and predicted the bill will be approved then.

However, six Democrats joined with the 10 committee Republicans to force the adjournment, which was opposed by Powell and other strong supporters of the bill.

No one would be quoted on what took place in the closed session but it was understood there were objections to rushing the bill out of committee so fast when many members still had questions about it.

BROADEN BILL Two members who voted for adjournment, Reps. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., and Carlleton R. Sickles, D-Md., are normally staunch administration supporters. Both, however, represent suburban districts and are believed to favor broadening the bill to put more money into overburdened suburban schools.

The main thrust of the administration bill is toward improving education in low-income areas, which leaves little money for the wealthier suburbs. The section dealing with low-income area children is the only one still to be acted on.

VOTE TO ADJOURN The other Democrats who voted to adjourn were Reps. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla., who made the motion; Edith Green, D-Ore.; Ralph J. Scott, D-N.C., and William D. Hathaway, D-Maine. At this point, only Gibbons and Hathaway are believed to be actually against the bill. The others are understood to want more time to consider it.

President Johnson wants action on the bill and all six Democrats are certain to be approached by administration liaison men over the weekend to see if their doubts can be dispelled.

Services for Don Welton Johnston, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnston, 2011 Runnels, are set for 4 p.m. today in the First Methodist Church, with Dr. H. Clyde Smith, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Marvin James, associate pastor.

Burial will be in Big Spring City Cemetery under direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

Young Johnston was killed Saturday when he fell from a high bluff on the face of Twin Sister Buttes south and west of Moss Creek Lake. The boy had been exploring the bluff with two friends, Brian Peay of Big Spring and Greg Peay of Abilene.

He was born Sept. 20, 1949, in Big Spring and was a member of the Methodist church. A sophomore at Big Spring High School, he was an Explorer Scout and attached to Ship No. 111, which is sponsored by the Big Spring Optimist Club.

Survivors include his parents, one sister, his maternal grandparents and paternal grandmother.

Pallbearers, all members of Sea Scout Ship No. 111, will be Johnnie Goswick, Jerry Lewis, Brian Peay, Terry Hansen, David Grifford, Kai Opegard, Morgan Martin, Burr Lea Setles, Dick Graves and Dub Clinton.

Cardinal Improves CHICAGO (AP) — Albert Cardinal Meyer has shown signs of gradual improvement following two operations in three days, but doctors say he still is very sick.

The 61-year-old spiritual leader of the Chicago's Roman Catholic archdiocese nodded with "a look of recognition in his eyes" Sunday night when asked if his head hurt, said Dr. John Keeley, the cardinal's personal physician.

The prelate underwent a brain operation Thursday to relieve intracranial pressure on the right side of his brain. A piece of abnormal tissue the size of a large walnut was removed.

The cardinal's condition worsened early Saturday and doctors performed an emergency tracheotomy to ease his breathing.

Eleventh-Hour Objections Stall School Aid Bill Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Last-minute objections in the House Education and Labor Committee has stalled final approval of the administration's $1.3-billion school aid bill.

Chairman Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., said the committee was within half an hour of completing action on the sweeping measure when a motion to adjourn carried by a 16-15 vote. All but one section of the bill had been approved.

SEES PASSAGE Powell scheduled another meeting for 9 a.m. Tuesday and predicted the bill will be approved then. However, six Democrats joined with the 10 committee Republicans to force the adjournment, which was opposed by Powell and other strong supporters of the bill.

No one would be quoted on what took place in the closed session but it was understood there were objections to rushing the bill out of committee so fast when many members still had questions about it.

BROADEN BILL Two members who voted for adjournment, Reps. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., and Carlleton R. Sickles, D-Md., are normally staunch administration supporters. Both, however, represent suburban districts and are believed to favor broadening the bill to put more money into overburdened suburban schools.

The main thrust of the administration bill is toward improving education in low-income areas, which leaves little money for the wealthier suburbs. The section dealing with low-income area children is the only one still to be acted on.

Court Studies Pay Increase

Dee Jon Davis, county attorney, advised the Howard County Commissioners Court today that minutes of the Toward County Juvenile Board, authorizing a pay increase for Bob Darland, juvenile officer, should be incorporated into the minutes of the county commission.

He said that such inclusion would permit the county auditor, Wade Choate, to make payment to Darland at the new scale.

He said that he had studied the special law covering the operation of the Howard County Juvenile Board and that the salary of the juvenile officer and allowance made to him for expenses were matters entirely in the hands of the County-City-School Juvenile Board.

It was understood that the court planned to accept the recommendation of the county attorney, but no action had been taken at 11 a.m.

John Stanley, a member of the city commission, was before the court to discuss with it the need for what he called "a closer check on expense claims" of the office. He said he did not question the validity of the claims, but that he felt that it would be to the advantage of the city, county and school for some system to be devised by which the actions of the officer and of the juvenile board would be laid before the county commission, the city commission and the school board.

Howard County motor vehicles are still wearing 1964 license plates. These will have to be changed for 1965 plates before April 1, or the owners will have to dig a little deeper in their pockets.

Mrs. Zliah LeFevre, county tax assessor, said that total collections for February for license plates — the first month that 1965 tags have been available — was running behind the same month in 1964 by more than $8,000.

Total sales of tags for February this year have been $70,378.56, compared with $78,425.30 for the same month last year.

It is estimated there are more than 20,000 county motor vehicles which must have tags. Less than a fourth of these tags have been issued so far.

Up to this time, the county had received all funds paid in for car plates. Effective today, the county gets half and the state half. When the county's total has reached $175,000, all of the remainder goes to the state.

Garage Burned A fire about 9 p.m. Sunday burned the roof and inside of a garage at 902 Lorilla.

The garage was of frame construction and located on the rear of the lot, firemen said. Cause of the fire had not been determined this morning. Owner of the garage is Dick Fitzgerald.

Zoning Change Asked For Plot Near Drive-In Shelly and Mrs. Mary Rogers.

The neighborhood service zone is a small portion of the total acreage, at the southwest corner of the intersection of Wason Road and Thorp Street.

Also involved is a trailer house which is presently located in the retail zone north of the drive-in theater, to the rear of the Cactus Drive-In, 2604 Wason Road. The city had previously notified the owner of the trailer house, Phillip Burcham, that it was located in an area not zoned to allow such structures.

In a request to the city commission Feb. 9, Burcham asked to be allowed to leave the trailer on the property until consideration of the zone change by the planning and zoning board. The commission took no action on requiring removal of the trailer house, pending a decision by the planning and zoning commission.

A trailer house is not permitted under city ordinance in a residential zone except as a supplemental dwelling to a residence, nor in a retail zone. The commercial zone does allow for location of trailer houses.

In another item to be considered by the zoning commission, a replat has been submitted of lots 15 through 35, block six, and lots 12 through 21, block seven, in the Kentwood Addition No. 2.

According to Public Works Director Ernest Lillard the replat involves a change from an average of 72 feet of frontage per lot to a front width of 85 feet per lot. A total of 27 lots are involved in the change.

The commission meeting will be at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday in city hall.

Appeal Date Set March 10 The Third Court of Civil Appeals has moved up the date for hearing oral arguments in the lawsuit involving water rates for Big Spring State Hospital to March 10, City Attorney John Burgess said this morning.

The court is to consider the city's appeal of the decision previously by the 53rd District Court in Austin, which affirmed the state's position in the lawsuit by the city. The city has sought to re-negotiate the contract on water rates for the State Hospital.

Burgess said the city had requested certain dates for the oral hearing to be scheduled. Last week the court had notified the city the hearing had been moved from May 26 to March 31.

"We contacted them again and called their attention to the dates we had requested," Burgess said. The March 31 date had not been asked by the city, he said.

Burgess said a decision would probably not be made by the court on the appeal until some three to six weeks following the oral arguments.

State Schoolboy Meet Opens Thursday In Austin

No Champs Returning

By The Associated Press
Twenty-two teams, none of whom were there last year, journey to Austin this week for the 45th Texas schoolboy basketball tournament. Because there are no returnees nor defending champions, the field appears wide open in each division.

There are five schools that have been state champions in the past with El Paso leading the group. The Far West city has been champion four times, the last as far back as 1947, however.

El Paso won the first championship offered by the league beating San Antonio Brackenridge for the title in 1921. Dallas Jefferson is another former champion back in Class AAAA.

Class AAAA—El Paso (28-2), Dallas Jefferson (33-3), Houston Jones (35-3), Kingsville (27-8).
Class AAA—Brownwood (23-4), Waxahachie (29-4), West Orange (20-10), San Marcos (24-5).

Class AA—Phillips (29-4), Lake Worth (26-6), Port Acres (15-7), San Antonio Randolph (23-7).

Class A—Gruver (26-8), Whitesboro (19-6), West Sabine (34-4), Woodboro (29-5).
Class B—Meadow (29-3), Crawford (27-5), Krum (36-7), Deweyville (36-7), Snook (47-1), Fort Davis (22-8).

The heaviest favorite should be Snook with its 47-1 record and paced by the 6-5 Calvin Gerke. The only loss suffered by the Class B power was to Houston Jones, one of the big guns of Class AAAA.

Jones may be the top team of its division but Dallas Jefferson also will be rated highly. El Paso will be the sentimental favorite because of its pioneering efforts—the first tournament.

San Marcos looks like the team to beat in Class AAA with Phillips getting a hand in Class AA and West Sabine the favorite in Class A.

The tournament opens Thursday morning at 8:45 a.m. with Class B teams in action first. Champions will be determined all day Saturday.

Fords Win First Five

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Ford — powered FT's made a successful American debut in the Daytona Continental Sunday and there were promises of more of the sleek autos to continue the attempt to end Italian domination of Grand Prix racing.

Veterans Ken Miles, English-born driver who lives in Hollywood, Calif., and Lloyd Ruby of Wichita Falls, Tex., drove their Ford GT prototype to victory in record-setting time in the grueling 1,245-mile event.

Ford engines made a clean sweep in the race as they captured the first five places.

The race was run in 12 hours, 27.9 seconds, at record speed of 99.944 miles an hour. Pedro Rodriguez and Phil Hill won at 98.230 in 1964.

The victory was worth $9,500 to the winners.

Jo Schlesner of Paris, France, and Harold Keck of Hellertown, Pa., placed second in a Ford Cobra. Bob Bondurant of Los Angeles and Ritchie Ginther of Granada Hills, Calif., took third in a twin to the winning Ford FT.

Texas Exes To Hear Koy

The hero of the Orange Bowl, Ernie Koy, will arrive in Big Spring Tuesday to address the annual meeting of the Big Spring University of Texas Ex-Students Association.

The banquet is slated for 7 p.m. at the Big Spring Country Club. This is the annual social for former students of the school, but it is open to the general public. Tickets, priced at $3 for adults and $2 for students, are being sold locally by Mrs. Dee Jon Davis (AM 3-4701) and Bob Hickson (AM 4-8283). Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

Koy sparked the 27-21 victory by the University of Texas over national champion Alabama in the Orange Bowl classic, Jan. 1. His 79-yard scoring dash put the Longhorns ahead to stay.

In Bi-District Clash Tonight

Forsan's Queens Will Meet Merton's Hornets Tonight

HCJC Jayhawk Gym will be the scene tonight of a bi-district clash between the Forsan Buffalo Queens of District 83-B and the Merton Hornets of District 84-B.

ROBERT COFFEY FIRES A HARD-TO-BEAT SHOT

When Robert Coffey sent his iron shot off the No. 6 tee at the Muni golf course Sunday, one of his companions in the foursome remarked: "That'll be a mighty hard shot to beat."

Indeed it was, for the ball, hit with a No. 9 iron to take advantage of a blustery wind at his back, went in a bee line to the front of the green and streaked straight to the cup. The 144-yard hole has a par three.

Playing with Coffey were Salty Barton, Ferris Hammond and Milton Brown. Coffey, stunned by the ace, finished with a total of 84 on the par 73 course.

SMU Going After Share Of Crown

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern Methodist, seeking its first outright Southwest Conference basketball championship in eight years, goes after at least a share of it Tuesday night against Texas A&M at College Station.

The Mustangs aren't overconfident about getting it though; they haven't beaten A&M at home since 1960.

But the Aggies aren't so tough this year as their eliminated 6-6 record would indicate and SMU hopes to clinch a tie for the crown with a victory over an Aggie team that depends on John Beasley to make his showings at least respectable.

An SMU triumph would give the Mustangs a 10-3 record in one game to go. Texas, which plays lowly Texas Christian, would have a 9-4 mark if it won. But a combination SMU victory and Texas loss would hand the title to the Methodists.

This is not considering the fact that Texas Tech is likely to finish first in the conference race. Because Tech has forfeited all rights to the title or an appearance in the NCAA because of an ineligible player, Tech has a 10-2 record and plays Arkansas at Fayetteville Tuesday night. Baylor, which has only a forlorn hope of even sharing the championship, and last place Rice battle at Houston.

The campaign ends Thursday night with Texas Tech and A&M closing out at Lubbock, Southern Methodist hosting Arkansas, Texas and Baylor playing at Waco and Rice and Texas Christian probably settling last place at Fort Worth.

If Texas and Southern Methodist ended up in a tie for the title, they would meet in a one-game playoff on a neutral court for an NCAA spot. This game probably would be Saturday night.

There is a forlorn possibility of a three-way tie among SMU, Texas and Baylor. In that event there would be a draw for two of the teams to play Saturday night, with the third team meeting the winner on Monday.

Texas Tech lost to Baylor 88-86 last week but still retained its first place standing by edging Texas Christian 93-91. Southern Methodist held undisputed second place with a 100-80 victory over Rice and an 80-70 triumph over Baylor.

SIGNS WITH METS.

Warren Spahn Sets Goal For 15 Wins This Year

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Warren Spahn doesn't expect to win 20 or more games for the 14th time this season. Instead, he has set 15 victories as his goal.

There are two reasons behind the veteran left-hander's thinking: He now is with the New York Mets. He is recuperating from his worst year in baseball.

Spahn announced his goal Sunday after signing his 1965 contract. A brief holdout, he agreed to terms in a meeting with President George Weiss. Both parties said Spahn took a cut of about 10 per cent from his $80,000 salary last year.

"I'll be dissatisfied if I don't win 15 this year," the 43-year-old hurler said, and referring to didn't do could have changed things. The weak man blames somebody else. Maybe you can improve yourself instead of making excuses. Provided you get the opportunity to play."

The opportunity to play was something Spahn feels he didn't have last year when he finished with a 6-13 record. Milwaukee Manager Bobby Bragan removed Spahn from the starting rotation and placed him in the bullpen.

Spahn, however, didn't want to talk about his differences with Bragan.

"I don't want to talk about the Braves anymore," he said. "I'm a Met now."

Spahn has won 356 games in his career and is looking forward to surpassing the National League record of 373 victories.

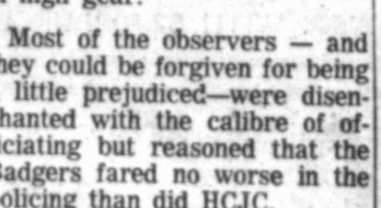

LOOKING 'EM' OVER

By TOMMY HART

In a fit of pique after his Amarillo College basketball team got knocked off by HCJC here the other night, Dr. Bob Carter said, in substance: "I don't think Howard County can win playing that kind of basketball in the Regional tournament."

Carter may know his tournament officials better than I do but I thought the Hawks looked razor sharp against Amarillo. The game got out of hand in the latter stages, true, but the high-octane Hawks were operating in high gear.

Most of the observers — and they could be forgiven for being a little prejudiced — were disenchanted with the calibre of officiating but reasoned that the Badgers fared no worse in the policing than did HCJC.

Blueprints for a three-room fieldhouse at Memorial Stadium here have been drawn and the facility will probably become a reality if the upcoming bond election at HCJC is approved.

The building would have spaces assigned for visiting and home teams, as well as the HCJC track team.

Lack of a fieldhouse at the stadium has cost the city several playoff games within the immediate past.

Bob Nolen, who missed most of spring training due to the fact that he was playing basketball, will probably be Midland Lee's first string quarterback next fall.

Rebel spring workouts end this week. About the only boy who has won a regular berth off his showing in the drills is center Rusty Stallings, a letterman last season.

Probably nowhere in West Texas high school circles are 1965-66 basketball prospects better than at Westbrook, where coach Sam Scroggins will have three regulars and two part-time regulars returning.

Among the returnees will be Elmer McMahan, a left-handed boy who led the Wildcats in scoring with over 800 points in 36 games; Howard Williamson, a six-footer; and Darrell Forbes, 5-11, all regulars the past season.

The other holdovers with experience are Mike Oglesby, 6-2; and Juan Castoreno, 5-10. Lost to the team will be Larry Bell, 6-0, second leading scorer with over 600 points; and Jimmy Rees, 5-7.

The Wildcats won 19 games while losing 17 over the year.

The 84-B district committee threw Scroggins and Westbrook a curve ball by declaring Fluvanna ineligible for the crown this year and qualifying Hobbs for a playoff with Westbrook.

The Wildcats had been making plans a long time to meet Fluvanna and experienced an emotional letdown when the news came through, according to Scroggins.

Incidentally, Sam played junior college basketball at Cisco a few years ago when Red Lewis, now track coach at HCJC, was mentor there.

Al Besselink Wins In Caracas

CARACAS (AP) — A couple of thousand bucks in his pocket will make "most anyone feel good. It's got Al Besselink "out of this world."

"I am still master of the wedge," the Grossinger, N.Y. pro yelled after he had overcome a two-stroke deficit to gain a three-stroke victory over Wes Ellis Sunday for the title in the Caracas Open golf tournament.

The Houston Oilers of the AFL have already surpassed their 1964 season ticket sale, which amounted to 11,944, and have gone over $500,000 in advance, requests for the first time in history — with the season's start still six months removed.

Total sales are up more than $163,000, due mainly to a boost in the price of tickets.

Russell Pulls Wolverines Through In Final 15 Seconds

By The Associated Press

Cazzie Russell seems to take the hero's role in cliff-hangers almost as often as the fabulous 007 James Bond of fiction.

Russell, the 6-foot-6 backcourt ace of Michigan's nationally top-ranked college basketball team, has done it again, scoring five points in the last 15 seconds to give the Wolverines a spectacular 80-79 victory over Illinois Saturday.

The victory was the 11th in a row for Michigan, raised the Wolverines' record to 19-2 and virtually assured them of their second straight Big Ten crown.

"That's the fourth time he's won for us this season in the final seconds," said Michigan Coach Dave Strack after the game at Champaign. "He did it against Wichita, Princeton, Indiana and now Illinois. I'm glad to have him on my side."

Sharing the heroics of the last big Saturday night of the season were Bob Camp and Bill Maphis of West Virginia.

The Mountaineers, although beaten 14 times, won the Southern Conference championship tournament at Charlotte, with a two-overtime 70-67 victory over William and Mary in the final.

Camp saved the Mountaineers from defeat in regulation time with a last-minute basket. Maphis did the same with a goal in the last three seconds of the first overtime, then Camp sewed things up by breaking loose for five points in the second OT.

West Virginia's three-game sweep of the tournament, including a 74-72 overtime victory over sixth-ranked Davidson on Friday, put the Mountaineers in the post-season NCAA championship tourney, along with second-ranked UCLA, Princeton, Connecticut and San Francisco.

UCLA, 22-2, beat California 83-68 for its fourth straight PAC title. Princeton, 18-5, wrapped up its third straight Ivy League crown by crushing Cornell 107-84. Connecticut, 21-2, won its second straight Yankee Conference title by overwhelming New Hampshire 109-61 and San Francisco, 21-4, took its third WCAC title in a row by whipping St. Mary's Gaels 65-32.

This is the picture today in the NCAA and NIT, the two major post-season tournaments: NCAA-14 teams in with nine still to be named. The 14: St. Joseph's, Pa., 24-1, Eastern Kentucky 19-4, Providence 20-1, Penn State 19-3, Dayton 19-6, DePaul 16-7, Houston 18-8, Colorado State U. 15-6, and Oklahoma City 19-9, in addition to West Virginia 14-14, UCLA, Princeton, Connecticut and San Francisco.

A first-round tripleheader at Philadelphia next Monday pairs Penn State against Princeton, Providence against West Virginia and St. Joseph's against Connecticut.

NIT-eight teams named with six spots still open. Army 18-7 and Western Kentucky 17-8 accepted bids Saturday to join Villanova 19-4, Boston College 19-6, Detroit 17-7, St. John's of New York 16-8, Texas Western 17-8 and New Mexico 15-5. Tournament starts March 11.

Thinclads Hang Up Five Records

By The Associated Press

The NCAA's ban on open track competition went into effect today just after the nation's top track and field athletes had taken advantage of the last weekend to put five major records by the boards.

Four indoor records and one American indoor mark were shattered at Louisville, three of them over the lengthy, lightning-fast boards of the big, eight-lap Freedom Hall track Saturday night.

And there were a flock of other outstanding performances in other meets scattered all over the country. In addition to the Mason-Dixon at Louisville, the major ones were the Heptagonal Games at Ithaca, N.Y., won by Harvard with a meet record of 65 points, and the All Eastern Games in Baltimore.

Ray Saddler raced to a 47.6 quarter-mile record at Louisville, bettering the 48 flat by Yale's Wendell Motley set in Boston a year ago, then anchored his Texas Southern mile relay team to another indoor record, 3:11.1.

"This track makes all the difference," Villanova lead-off man Jim Orr said after he and teammates Al Adams, Tommy Sullivan and Noel Carroll had rushed to a 7:24.6 time in the two-mile relay, three-tenths of a second under their own record.

The other indoor record was a 6.8 for the 70, shared by Kentucky State freshman Craig Wallace and Mel Pender of the U.S. Army, who "inched in a dead heat and trimmed one-tenth off the record set last year by Bob Hayes.

The American indoor record was a 16-6 pole vault by Billy Pemelton of Mercedes, Tex., raising by one-quarter of an inch the record set just the

Police Keep Heavy Guard On Muhammad

CHICAGO (AP) — A tense annual convention of the Black Muslims has ended, but police say they will continue to guard cult leader Elijah Muhammad for at least another week.

Muhammad appeared twice at the three-day convention, both times under heavy police and personal protection. Police feared a possible attack on Muhammad's life ever since the assassination Feb. 21 of black nationalist leader Malcolm X.

The convention's only disturbance, apparently unconnected with Muhammad's death, came Sunday.

ATTACK BY GUARDS
 A Chicago man, Willie Greer, 30, was hospitalized after Muhammad's karate-trained guards, known as the Fruit of Islam, attacked Greer for allegedly insulting the sect leader about a year ago in the presence of some Black Muslims.

Greer told police, "They don't like me. That's why they beat me."

Moments after Greer was ejected from the coliseum, Muhammad began a 3-hour, 15-minute speech.

"Some newspaper stories raise the question whether Elijah is shaky because of threats," the small, light-skinned leader said. "Muhammad is not shaky," he assured his followers who half-filled the 7,500-seat Coliseum.

Police had guarded Muhammad's 19-room South Side mansion around-the-clock since Monday, the day after Malcolm X was assassinated in New York. Malcolm, once Muhammad's heir apparent, left the Muslims 14 months ago and formed his own black nationalist group.

Cmdr. Robert Lynskey of the police task force said authorities would meet later today to determine how much longer beyond the additional week protection would be needed. The guard could be lifted sooner if rumors prove true that Muhammad would leave shortly for Arizona to seek relief from asthma attacks.

RING LECTERN
 No uniformed police were allowed in the Coliseum when the Muslim leader spoke, but he was well-guarded. A curtain of 40 Fruit of Islam guards lined the front of the speaker's platform and nine more of the thick, strong-looking guards ringed the lectern where Muhammad stood.

Negro Leader Pleads For Peace Between Rival Sects

NEW YORK (AP) — In the wake of the quiet funeral here for the slain Malcolm X, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. has urged that Malcolm's followers and those of Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Black Muslims, "meet with us at the peace table."

"I am concerned over the violence and threats of violence across the nation — particularly in the Negro community since the assassination of Malcolm X," King said.

PEACE IN HARLEM
 Peace has reigned in Harlem and other Negro districts here since Saturday's Muslim funeral for Malcolm X, who broke with Elijah Muhammad's Black Muslims more than a year ago and formed a rival Muslim sect.

Several thousand persons stood in the bitter cold outside a church in Harlem during the service, and about 600 packed the church. There was a heavy police guard. Malcolm was buried in a cemetery in suburban Hartsdale, N.Y.

The peace conference proposal by King, Negro head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, came after threats against Elijah Muhammad and his followers as revenge for the slaying of Malcolm X. Elijah Muhammad and leaders of his Chicago-based sect have denied any connection with the slaying.

IN LOS ANGELES
 King, Nobel Peace Prize winner, made his proposal Sunday to a congregation of more than 2,000 persons in the Victory Baptist Church in Los Angeles.

Elijah Muhammad, strongly guarded by his followers and police, told the closing session of the three-day Black Muslim convention in Chicago Sunday that the outbreak of violence among Negroes has not made him shaky.

Muhammad, 67, made a speech of 3 hours and 15 minutes, during which he declared: "There is nothing shaky about Muhammad. I'm not to be killed."

Lady Bird Goes Driving

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — A spring-like day prevailed in central Texas Sunday, and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson got behind the wheel of a convertible and visited the President's boyhood home and his birthplace.

The First Lady came to the LBJ Ranch Saturday for a break from her Washington duties.

She drove the 15 miles to nearby Johnson City and heard representatives of area civic groups ask that the President's boyhood home — a frame house now unoccupied — be used as a meeting place for worth-while organizational drives.

Mrs. Johnson then drove to her husband's birthplace, half a mile from the ranch house on the banks of the Pedernales River.

She stopped briefly en route to let a herd of cattle cross the highway.

Criminal Law Shifts Mullied

AUSTIN (AP) — Legislators open their 8th week of work today with debate scheduled on a bill to overhaul criminal laws.

The criminal code revision bill, which rivals the 340-page general appropriations bill in size, is to be guided through an expected stormy Senate debate by Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo.

Members of a Senate committee found the criminal code bill so detailed they agreed to forego committee amendments in order to give the whole Senate a fresh crack at the bill during floor debate.

The most controversial changes in the bill include one allowing defendants to decide after conviction whether the jury or judge should assess the penalty.

A similar criminal code revision bill was passed by the legislature in 1963, but Gov. Connally vetoed the measure because of clerical errors.

The current proposal includes additional protections of defendants regarding confessions, right to counsel and search warrants, all growing out of recent Supreme Court rulings.

The criminal code bill is based on a four-year study by lawyers and judges.

The Senate State Affairs Committee scheduled consideration of a recommendation of Connally that all state mental health programs be placed under a new state agency with power to give aid to local mental health units.

Innocent, Says Oswald Mom

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lee Harvey Oswald's mother says she is still seeking evidence to prove he was innocent of assassinating President John F. Kennedy.

"Day in and day out people come to my house," said Marguerite Oswald. "My door is always open to everyone. My phone is never off the hook. I want to talk to everyone. You never know when you learn something new."

She described herself to newsmen as "one of the loneliest women on earth." Mrs. Oswald said her two other sons, Robert, 29, and John, 32, "my sister in New Orleans and all my friends before Lee's arrest have not spoken to me since."

She remarked: "Nobody knows how one person could feel so alone."

Mrs. Oswald, 57, talked to newsmen after she came here Saturday to appear on a television show.

Takes Over

Klaus Takes Austria Reins

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — President Adolf Schaerf, a Socialist who fought both the Nazis and the Communists during his long career, died Sunday. Chancellor Josef Klaus took over his duties until election of a new president, to be scheduled by the Cabinet.

Schaerf, 74, succumbed to a liver ailment aggravated by flu. He was the third Austrian president in a row to die in office. He was elected first in 1957 and re-elected in 1963 to another six-year term.

MOSTLY CEREMONIAL
The functions of an Austrian president are mostly ceremonial but the constitution gives him considerable power. Schaerf's last public function was to welcome the Shah of Iran at Vienna airport Feb. 16. He served as host at the 1961 meeting in Vienna between the late President John F. Kennedy and former Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Schaerf had been chairman of the Socialist party until his election and used his influence to help maintain the coalition of conservatives and Socialists that has ruled Austria since the end of World War II. Before his election as president, he was vice chancellor.

Wants Action

Sen. Russell B. Long, assistant Senate Democratic leader from Louisiana, says the U.S. ought to do whatever is necessary to win in Viet Nam. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Long: 'War If Necessary'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Russell B. Long says in his judgment "we will do whatever is necessary to win" the war in South Viet Nam "and if Communist China comes in we will take them on and if Russia wants to deal herself a hand, we will go ahead, but there will be no sanctuary."

The assistant Senate Democratic leader declared, "We have the courage to face these people and they might as well know it now as some other time as many of us feel we would do just as well to fight here as somewhere else."

Long gave his views Sunday during a radio-television interview, NBC's Meet the Press. In reply to a question on whether the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi should be bombed, he said:

"GO THAT FOR"

"I am not sure that is necessary at this point, but I think that the aggressor should know we would go that far if we must do that to win, and even further." He said more U.S. ground forces should be sent into South Viet Nam if necessary.

The Louisiana views came as Capitol Hill got ready for another week of debate on U.S. policies in Viet Nam.

Glass Worker Negotiations Are Resumed

ATLANTIC CITY (AP) — Negotiators met again today in an effort to avert a strike by production and maintenance employees in the glass container industry.

Lee Minton, president of the Glass Bottle Blowers Association, said he had informed Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz that an industry-wide strike was a "distinct possibility."

A three-year contract affecting 35,000 members of the association expires at 12:01 a.m. Wednesday, after a 30-day extension.

UNION: "NO"

The union's policy is "no contract, no work," Minton said. The union's executive board authorized a strike last week.

The association and the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute, representing 22 firms with 62 plants, have been bargaining here since Feb. 8.

A walkout would hit plants producing about 90 per cent of the nation's glass containers, a union spokesman said. The plants are in all sections of the country except the west coast. Both sides reported being far apart.

Thomas Rimer, who heads the management negotiators, said the companies had offered hourly wage increases of 10 cents the first year and three per cent the third year with a package increase of four per cent the second.

ALL CATEGORIES

The industry-wide average hourly wage for workers in all categories, including those not affected by the talks, was put at $2.50 by management and at $2.29 by a union spokesman.

Rimer said the issue of benefits was one of the biggest stumbling blocks.

Letter Carriers Meet Saturday

COLORADO CITY (SC)—A meeting of District IV, National Association of Letter Carriers, will be held in Colorado City Saturday, according to Bob Hamrick, president of the Colorado City carriers. Martin J. Kalbow of Chicago, member of the board of directors of the Letter Carriers Mutual Benefit Association, will speak.

Registration of members, and Carrier Auxiliary, will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday. A business session will be held at 7 p.m. and a banquet at 8 p.m. in the primary school cafeteria.

Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Eitzen, 2601 Carol Drive, returned late today from Wichita Falls where they attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Ethel Eitzen. Mrs. Eitzen died in Wichita Falls Friday and services were held Sunday.

Strike Hits 70 Plants

NEW YORK (AP) — A strike against 70 plants of two of the nation's biggest can companies got under way today after deadline efforts failed to settle a dispute over pay and other issues.

The strike called by the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers of America affects about 36,000 employees of the Continental Can Co. and American Can Co. across the nation, in Puerto Rico and in Canada.

Outcome of the union dispute with American and Continental was expected to guide negotiations with smaller can companies employing another 9,000 workers.

STRIKE ON

The union announced at 12:10 a.m. today that the strike was on after expiration of an extension of the Sept. 30 expiration date of the previous contract.

Union officials said a final offer of 12 cents more an hour for the life of a one-year contract had been found unacceptable by the union negotiators.

A union spokesman said federal mediator A. A. Desser set up a meeting between both sides today.

FINAL OFFER

Darrell F. Brown, vice president for industrial relations for American Can, and John F. Simons, chief of negotiations for Continental, said they had made a "last-ditch" offer of either extending the old contract with any new one effective today, or a new one-year contract raising pay 12 cents an hour including all existing benefits.

The union sought a three-year contract with an increase of 12 cents an hour immediately and 12 cents more at the start of the third year. It also sought improved pension and retirement programs, including a provision for retirement after 30 years of service regardless of age.

The U.S. Bureau of Labor statistics has said the average wage in the can industry was $3.04 an hour.

DEAR ABBY

Already Has The Answer

DEAR ABBY: Last Sunday my husband and I were out for the day, and when we returned we found a large sack of beautiful walnuts in our garage. A note was on the sack, which read:

"Dear Ellie,
Sorry to have missed you. Hope to catch you next time we come through. Hope you enjoy the walnuts."
Geraldine and Butch."

Well, my name is Eleanor and I am also called "Ellie." But neither my husband nor I know any Geraldine and Butch. We wonder who these people are. Could they have left the nuts at the wrong house? They are delicious and I am using them in cakes, cookies, brownies, etc. But I can't help but feel a little guilty if they weren't meant for us. If you print this, maybe the mystery can be solved. Thank you.

"Ellie" (Mrs. Russell Smith)
Lompoc, California

DEAR ELLIE: Go easy on the walnuts. I have a feeling you aren't the only "Ellie" on the block. P. S. Will Geraldine and Butch please contact the Russell Smiths in Lompoc and crack this nutty case?

DEAR ABBY: Would it be wrong to see an old friend of mine once in a while? We lost contact with each other 14 years ago. He was 24 and I was 23, and we liked each other a lot but circumstances interfered and we both married others. We accidentally ran into each other and he started calling me up. I think we still feel something for each other, but neither of us wants to hurt our families. Lately he has been parked outside of where I work, waiting to take me home. How can I break this off before it goes any farther? Or would it be wrong to see each other once in a while? I want to see him so much I am ashamed of myself. "ASHAMED!"

DEAR ASHAMED: If you were sufficiently "ashamed of yourself," you wouldn't see the man or feel impelled to write me for advice. You have answered your own question. Now act on your own answer.

DEAR ABBY: Please answer this in your CONFIDENTIALS TO: I promised God at my last confession that I would write this: Is sleeping naked a mortal sin? THIRTEEN

DEAR THIRTEEN: No.

CONFIDENTIAL TO THE DAUGHTER OF HENRIETTA DAVIS, WHO HAS 14 SONS AND 1 DAUGHTER: Please write to this column and include your full name and address. In which CITY do you live? at 365 Garden Street? Thank you.

'Anti-Necking' Bill Is Up

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The "anti-necking" bill will be considered this week by the Minnesota senate.

The bill sponsored by Sen. Clifton Parks, St. Paul, would make it unlawful for the driver of a car to have an arm around a passenger, or vice versa. Nothing came of a suggestion by Sen. E. J. Anderson that persons over 65 be exempted.

"If his little spark of romance is still burning, we shouldn't extinguish it," Anderson protested.

He withdrew his motion, however, when the amendment was put to a voice vote Friday and appeared so close a count would be needed.

Red Hypocrisy Is Pointed Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says that while the Soviet Union's new leaders are using diplomatic channels to urge relaxation of tensions, they are supporting Communist attacks in Africa and Viet Nam. But he added that there is no expectation that either the Soviets or the Red Chinese would deliberately touch off a conventional or nuclear war in the near future.

Thailand Sending Units To Provinces

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Thailand's government is sending an army battalion to the four Moslem provinces in the south to guard against Communist infiltrators from Malaysia, Interior Minister Gen. Praphas Charusathien said.

Women's Rights Bill Nears Vote

AUSTIN (AP)—Decisions are due this week on the women's hottest issues.

Twenty-five House members voted against the plan last week, after Rep. Billy Williamson of Tyler said it not only would confuse many statutes; it might "take away the masculine gender and the feminine gender and make neuters out of all of us" under the law.

Floyd of Houston doesn't expect much trouble in adding another vote for the required 100, two-thirds of the membership, to were ill and absent last week.

and about a dozen took a walk to avoid a vote. Floyd hopes to corral them for a showdown vote Tuesday.

One senator called the amendment route "the worst possible way of giving women rights... but the women are so powerful you're not going to see many fighting it. I bet even the women vote against it at the polls though."

Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan said he plans to wait for the House to approve its version, which delays enactment of the amendment to one year after the 1966 elections.

His own proposal was amended two weeks ago by Sen. Dorsey Hardeman, exempting existing rights and exemptions now affecting women. Lt. Gov.

DIAMOND MONOCLE— Italian actress Gina Lollobrigida holds a 70-carat diamond before her eye like a monocle during a visit to a jewelry shop in downtown Rome.

WORKING WARDROBE— Golf pro Ruth Jensen cleans some of her golf shoes at her Seattle home. Shoes are part of wardrobe, including blouses, sweaters, shorts, cocktail dresses, that she packs plus golf equipment into her car for the national tour.

HAZARDOUS DUTY— Dee Carter, water department employee, looks out before leaving manhole in a Roanoke, Va., street in where he had taken a meter reading.

THE LONG WATCH— A night guard of the 52nd Ranger Battalion huddles in his blanket as he keeps vigil over the village of Luong Hoa, 15 miles southwest of Saigon. Area is infiltrated with Viet Cong guerrillas who often make surprise attacks at night.

A Cosmopolite Force Eyeing New Duty Call

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the past four years the United States has been investing its young people overseas — in the Peace Corps.

Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver described the corps in its early days as "an investment in the future."

In effect, Shriver said, "this is a chance for the average American to qualify for a scholarship to study abroad. In years ahead the world is going to be more international. It will require an international education to live in it."

NEW RESOURCE
President Johnson has described returning volunteers as "a new national resource."

And so, for three days starting next Friday some 700 returned volunteers and 100 leaders of business, education, government, labor and the arts will sit down together to determine how this nation best can cash in on the investment.

Much has been written about the impact of the Peace Corps in foreign lands. Plans call for some 17,000 volunteers to be either overseas or in training by mid-1966.

New ideas for better ways to serve are being sought daily at Peace Corps headquarters.

But Shriver and other Peace Corps leaders have said all along that the greatest impact will be at home, when the volunteers return in sizable numbers.

RANKS GROW
Up to now, only a few hundred volunteers have returned from their two-year tours overseas. But by the end of the summer there will be about 6,000 returned volunteers. By 1970, 50,000 volunteers will be back home.

A check of more than 1,200 of the first returning volunteers shows that 55 per cent went back to school, 14 per cent entered government service, usually in the Peace Corps, the foreign aid program or something similar, 12 per cent are teachers, and 8 per cent work for profit-making organizations.

Perhaps many more would be teachers, thus helping ease a national shortage, except that for most it would mean returning to school to take the education courses required for certificates in most areas.

Teachers are the major export of the Peace Corps. They are sent overseas by the thousands.

LIBERAL ARTS
But most are liberal arts graduates who learn by teaching, instead of by taking educational courses.

"A returned volunteer who taught elementary or high school students in Togo, has more than an academic knowledge of Africa. African geography, politics and history," Shriver says.

"Yet many states have restrictive accreditation statutes that prohibit this returned volunteer from following a teaching career without further college work. This will continue to be multiplied as more and more volunteer teachers return."

Shriver said this is one problem the conference will try to solve in a workshop-type meeting between returned volunteers and leaders in American education.

PUBLIC SERVICE
Other groups will discuss involving the volunteer in public service — government work, even politics.

For the early volunteers, there has been a wealth of scholarships, some involving training programs for various types of social work. This is why such a large percentage of the early group returned to school.

Next week will be the first time returning volunteers have gathered together in any sizable numbers. It will be slightly more than four years after the March 1, 1961, executive order by the late President John F. Kennedy creating the Peace Corps.

Rice Support Guides Found

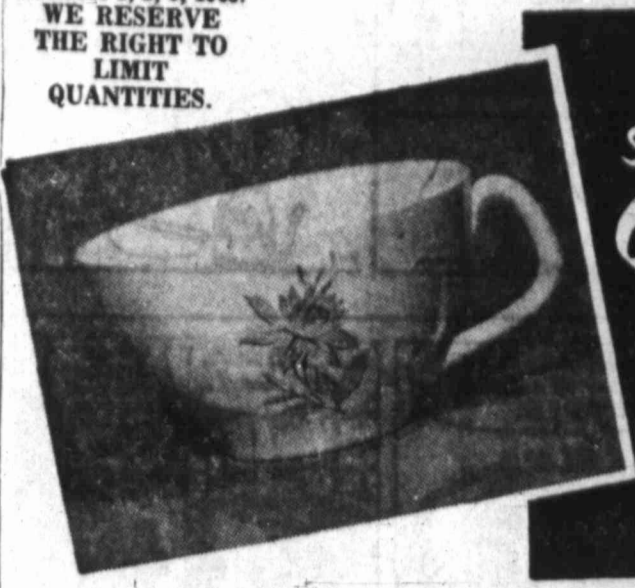

WASHINGTON (AP)—Value factors for use in determining rough rice support rates for the 1965 crop were announced here by the Agriculture Department.

They will be used in computing specific support rates by class and location, based on the national average support price of $4.50 per 100 pounds, that level, down 21 cents from 1964, was announced last Dec. 24.

Factors changes from 1964 include a reduction of 28 cents per 100 pounds for head rice for all classes of variety groups and a drop of two-tenths of a cent per pound, to 3.8 cents for broken rice.

No changes were made in the location differentials or in the schedule of premiums and discounts for rice grades.

Big Blowoff Nears In Gay Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—"Throw me something, mister." That plaintive plea will echo through New Orleans Tuesday as the city explodes with its annual outburst of uproarious madness — Mardi Gras.

Mayor Victor Schiro said a record influx of tourists has come to see what natives call "the greatest free show on earth." He urged visitors to let their hair down, wear a costume and mask.

"Wearing a mask, you enter a wonderful world," the mayor said. "It's like being set free."

Six lavish parades will roll through streets teeming with an expected 500,000 revelers from after sunrise to far into the night. Flaming kerosene torches illuminate the floats after dark. The parade of the Krewe of Proteus — last procession before the big blowoff — rolls tonight.

SUPREME THRILL

Catching a "throw" from the masked float riders is the supreme Mardi Gras thrill. The crowds call to the riders, pleading for a souvenir.

The favors are cheap beads and geegaws, but many leap for them as if their life depended on snaring a trinket.

Glistening costume balls of the Krewe of Rex and Comus close the frivolity at midnight. The gatherings climax a string of 68 sumptuous Carnival balls that started on the 12th night after Christmas.

Admission is free, but it's by invitation only. You have to wear a tux or evening gown even to watch as a spectator from the balcony. Few tourists get to go.

Carnival fever has already captured New Orleans. Spring-like weather brought out swarms of children to see the eight parades that rambled over the weekend.

No Freezing Temperatures Here

While the mid-West and East battled snow and cold, pert actress Ann-Margret took time off from filming "The Cincinnati Kid," to do a bit of posing like this in a boat on the back lot of MGM Studios in Hollywood. It was sunny in the high 70s as the Swedish actress, who plays the part of the wife of a poker player in the film, took a breather and looked pretty for the photographer. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Snowfall Follows Duster In Plains

A new mass of cold air brought snow to the upper Texas Panhandle Monday in the wake of a turbulent day of dust storms, widely scattered thunderstorms, hail and near-sunshine.

The new cold front was pushing deep into the state Monday to usher in more scattered showers and cooler temperatures.

The mercury soared to 90 degrees at McAllen—the highest in the nation—Sunday afternoon while dust storms whipped sections of the Panhandle and thunderstorms roamed the eastern portion of the state. Hail storms, accompanied by high winds, hit the Beaumont area.

A tornado and violent thunderstorm forecast was issued for a wide section of West and North Central Texas Sunday night but was later cancelled when turbulent weather failed to materialize.

Showers and thunderstorms moved across Northeast Texas and into the Red River Valley and Oklahoma early Monday while other rainstorms continued during the night in the eastern portion of the state.

San Antonio, Austin, Waco and other points reported early morning fog.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 34 degrees at Dalhart to 67 at Brownsville. Ahead of the front they were mostly in the 50s and 60s.

Rainfall Sunday was generally light. For the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. College Station had .18 of an inch, Lufkin .06, Houston .05, Galveston .04, and Beaumont .02.

Racing Car Kills Child

DALLAS, Ga. (AP) — A racing car with 1964 stock car champion Richard Petty at the wheel spun into the air and toppled on a crowd of spectators Sunday, killing an 8-year-old boy and injuring seven persons.

A wheel of the car struck Wayne Dye, and the child was dead on arrival at a hospital. The boy's father, Ronnie Dye, 33, was injured.

Petty, of Randleman, N.C., last year's grand champion of the National Association of Stock Car Auto Racing Drivers, was thrown from the car. He apparently had no serious injury, but reportedly was suffering from shock.

An estimated 10,000 persons had gathered at the quarter-mile track of the Southeastern International Dragway, 35 miles northwest of Atlanta.

FALL BACK

Spectators standing near the crash scene fell back, and some were trampled as the car slammed into an embankment, turned over, bounced into the air, cleared a wire fence and landed on its front end.

Petty said he felt the car give and immediately shut it down. "I still couldn't control it though," he said.

As spectators converged on the scene, one woman cried: "Oh God, please don't let it be Mike. Not my Mike."

Jim Barnes, 17, of Atlanta, said the car had swerved from one lane to another before heading for the crowd.

"WON'T FORGET"

"I won't forget it as long as I live," the youth said. "I saw four or five people lying on the ground bleeding. I saw a lady holding a baby. The baby looked like it was hurt and the lady was hysterical."

He said he believed many more persons would have been killed if the car had not hit the embankment.

Petty had completed a practice run and was preparing for the feature match with Arnie Beswick, of Morrison, Ill.

One witness said a wheel on the car flew off before it bounced into the air.

In the Pinewood Derby following the meeting, David Pickett won the championship trophy. In second was Randy Claybaugh, and third was Mike Lawing. Gary Foster won the miniature trophy for having the slowest car. The den mothers race was won by Mrs. Alice Knott. Den 2 won the attendance flag.

Rites Today For Barbie

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Services for Barbie Vardy, eight-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby J. Vardy were set for 2 p.m. today at the 22nd Street Church of Christ. The minister, Roy Holland, officiated. Burial was in Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker and Son Funeral Home.

Barbie lost an eight-months fight for her life Friday when she died in a Minneapolis, Minn., hospital. She had been taken there for a possible liver transplant, but her condition was postponed. The baby was born with no bile ducts or gall bladder.

More than $7,000 had been raised through contributions to pay for the operation which cost around $10,000. She was taken to Minneapolis Feb. 17.

She was born June 29, 1964, in Gallup, N. M. Her parents moved to Colorado City about four months ago, and her father is a truck driver.

Survivors include the parents, three brothers, all of the home; the maternal grandparents of Albuquerque, and paternal grandparents of Colorado City.

East Germans Sail To Freedom

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Two 18-year-old East Germans escaped to Denmark in a blizzard in a stolen boat that almost sank under the weight of the ice that formed on it.

Police said the youths set out from the island of Ruegen Saturday night and fought their way across the gale-whipped Baltic Sea to the tiny port of Amager, on the southern shore of the island of Bornholm.

Burglars Get $400 From Safe

A weekend burglary of the Reed Service Station, 3301 West US 80, netted some $400 from a safe in the office floor, according to police.

The manager of the station, Floyd Roach, called police about 6:30 a.m. Sunday when he discovered the station had been entered during the night.

Entry to the station office was made through a west door which was forced open, officers said. A lock was broken in the center of the safe, according to police.

A number of car owners reported windshields had been broken in their cars by vandals during the weekend. Reports were received from Orbin Daily, 1205 Douglas, James Ferris, 603 Douglas, L. M. Tucker, 1207 Pennsylvania, Bill Montgomery, 805 Pennsylvania, Scott Pass, Odessa, W. J. Coates, 1904 Gollad, and D. J. Murphy, 1102 1/2 Pennsylvania.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To: ANN CAROL HOSTI, Defendant (s).

You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the Plaintiff (s) Petition of this citation, on or before the first Monday after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the issuance of this citation, to the Honorable District Court of Howard County, Texas, at the Court House of said County in Big Spring, Texas.

Said Plaintiff (s) Petition was filed in said court on the 20th day of November, A.D. 1964. In this cause, numbered 15379 on the docket of said court, and styled, CLARENCE HOSTI, Plaintiff (s), ANN CAROL HOSTI, Defendant (s).

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows: to-wit: Plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Texas for more than one year immediately prior to filing this divorce petition and has been a resident of the County of Howard for more than six months immediately prior to filing this petition.

Plaintiff and Defendant were married on December 10, 1963, and continued to live together until on or about May 6, 1964, when the Plaintiff separated from Defendant because of her harsh and cruel treatment towards the Plaintiff.

There were no children born during this marriage.

During this marriage, there was acquired a 1963 Plymouth automobile and various household furnishings, and Plaintiff requests that he be awarded the automobile and Defendant be awarded the household furnishings, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff (s) Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unrecorded.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court of this county on this 4th day of February, A.D. 1965.

M. FERN COX, Clerk, District Court, Howard County, Texas

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South you hold:

♠ J 8 5 3 ♥ K 10 9 3 2 ♦ A 8 ♣ 9 2

The bidding has proceeded:

East South West North

Pass Pass Pass 1♥

Pass 1♥ Pass 2♥

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Three hearts. This hand qualifies for another bid. If partner has a good raise there should be a reasonable play for game.

Q. 2—As South you hold:

♠ 7 ♥ A K 8 7 3 ♦ K J 4 ♣ K Q 5 2

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1♥ Pass 1NT Pass

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Two clubs. You have a very strong hand, but unless you can find a satisfactory fit it would be wisely to force any further action from partner. If he drops you in two clubs, it is very unlikely that a game will have been missed.

Q. 3—As South you hold:

♠ K Q ♥ A K J 4 3 ♦ A 9 3 ♣ K 8 6

The bidding has proceeded:

East South West North

Pass 1♥ Pass Pass

1♣ Double 2♣ 3♥

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass—and fast. If there were a game in this hand, partner would have been able to keep the bidding open on the first round. He is merely making a competitive effort to stop the opponents from stealing a part score and he should not be punished for his enterprise.

Q. 4—As South you hold:

♠ 6 ♥ Q 6 ♦ K Q J 10 9 8 7 6 5 3 2 ♣ 6 3

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South

1♣ 2♣ ?

What do you bid?

A.—Four diamonds. This hand

presents two logical choices: either a pass to find out more about the hand or a preempt. Our preference is for the four diamond bid. We do not consider an immediate free bid of two diamonds to be a good strategy.

Q. 5—As South you hold:

♠ K 9 4 3 ♥ K Q J 5 3 ♦ 5 2 ♣ 10 6

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

2♠ [weak] 3♣ Pass ?

What do you bid?

A.—Three no trump. A bid of three hearts would be pointless inasmuch as partner would surely have made a take-out double had he possessed any values in that suit. Furthermore, barring unexpected spade strength in his hand,

he will surely be forced to return to four clubs and the shorter road to game will have been by-passed.

Experience dictates an assumption of diamond protection in partner's hand which is a reasonable supposition.

Q. 6—As South you hold:

♠ Q 10 8 7 4 ♥ 8 2 ♦ J 9 6 3 ♣ A K

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

Pass 1♣ 1♥ Pass

1♠ Pass 2♠ Pass

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Four spades. Partner's raise to two spades is an invitation to go on to game and is made in the light of your previous pass. Partner could hardly expect any more from a passed hand.

Q. 7—As South you hold:

♠ K 5 4 ♥ A Q 10 ♦ A K 9 ♣ K J 8 7

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

Pass 1♥ Pass Pass

2♠ Pass 2♠

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—False pride in the possession of 20 points should not induce you to assume any risk at the level of three on a hand which does not present the remotest hope for game. Nothing can be dearer than the hand of a partner who could not keep open a bid of one club.

Q. 8—As South you hold:

♠ A Q 3 ♥ 5 ♦ A Q 3 2 ♣ K Q 9 6 2

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1♠ Pass 1♣ Pass

1♠ Pass 1♣

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—A tempting bid is indicated. You have sufficient strength to warrant a jump rebid but the trump holding is not quite adequate for a jump in spades. The best solution is a bid of two diamonds intending to support spades next round. This bid is known as a reverse (a rebid in a higher ranking suit at the two level) and describes a hand worth approximately 19 points.

Red Camps Blast U.S. 'White Paper'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Red China have blasted the State Department's white paper on South Viet Nam, but at home the document has drawn generally favorable comment.

Kosygin, speaking at an East German government reception Sunday in Leipzig, said the department paper was "not a white book but a black book — the dirty acts of the Americans that do not get recorded in a white book."

Peking chimed in that the U.S. statement was a pretext for launching new attacks against North Viet Nam.

RED AGGRESSION
The 14,000-word document issued Saturday charged that Communist efforts to conquer South Viet Nam are being "inspired, directed, supplied and controlled" by North Viet Nam and that "recently the pace (of aggression) has quickened and the threat has now become acute."

A check with several senators produced agreement that the State Department had made a convincing case on the extent of Communist involvement in the South Vietnamese war. Several said they thought the white paper may have been issued to condition the American people to the possibility of expanded U.S. action in Viet Nam.

Henry Cabot Lodge, appointed by President Johnson last Friday as a special consultant on Viet Nam, said the document confirmed his belief that "if the external pressure against South Viet Nam were to stop, the situation would then become one with which the government of South Viet Nam could deal by itself." He is a former ambassador to Saigon.

LEIPZIG FAIR
Kosygin, who was in Leipzig for the 800th anniversary of the East German city's trade fair, said he had not read the U.S. government's white paper on Viet Nam.

But he added: "When one murders women and children and when women and children are driven from their homes, then these acts can not be recorded in a white book — at least no one in the world would believe this."

The Soviet leader said also that all people in Asia would "unite against what the Americans are doing there in Viet Nam."

IN TOKYO
In Tokyo, a monitored broadcast of the official New China News Agency said the United States has long been "busy inventing excuses and preparing the public for new aggression" against North Viet Nam.

It called the State Department document "a pretext for further extending the war and unleashing new armed aggression against the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam."
Tass, the official Soviet news agency, said the purpose of the report "is to whitewash the U.S. military intervention in South Viet Nam and to justify further aggressive military actions by American imperialism against the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam, which threaten peace in Southeast Asia."

Asked if the State Department had received further reactions on the white paper, a department press officer declined comment.

SENATE REACTION
Initial senatorial reaction was typified by comment from Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., who said:

"The (State) Department has presented a most convincing and in my judgment conclusive case indicting the Chinese Communists and North Vietnamese in a clear-cut plan of Communist takeover in South Viet Nam."

But Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, a critic of the U.S. effort in South Viet Nam who favors early negotiations for a truce, said the statement did not make clear whether "this activity of the North Vietnamese did not begin after the United States moved in and started actively supporting one side."
"They were coming to the aid of their side," Gruening went on, "just as the United States had already come to the aid of its side."

WAR DANGERS
Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont, a senior Republican member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the statement was "part of a plan to condition the American people for what might come. I think that's customary when there's a danger of war breaking out on a large scale."
Aiken admitted, however, that even "if there were hopes of a truce anywhere, the President would still have to talk this way."
"It's a real tough game of Russian roulette between the nations," he said, adding: "Somebody has to back down. If nobody backs down, we're in for major trouble. We'll hope for the best."

Wider Travel By Officials?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration's budget indicates federal officials plan some increase in their travels abroad although a number of steps have been taken to hold down such spending.

The government travel figures come to light at a time when President Johnson is asking Americans to cut down on vacation trips abroad. Only incomplete government travel figures are available. Budget Bureau authorities say there is no single office which keeps tabs on all governmental traveling overseas.

One tabulation of travel items in the budget requests of seven agencies for the fiscal year starting next July 1 comes to $190 million. This compares with $177 million for the same items this year and $179 million last year.
