Latins Told Of Reds Aggression

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk reports to Latin-American ambassadors on the Vietnamese war situation today in a developing drive to rally wider international support for the U.S. stand in Southeast Asia.

The State Department announced Thursday night that ambassadors from Latin-American nations had been called to meet Rusk late today and that Rusk and other top officials "expect to hold similar group meetings with the ambassadors of other countries."

In a speech Thursday night in New York, Rusk said Communists in Southeast Asia, fearing the "suicidal risks" of open attack, have "fallen back on aggression by the infiltration of arms and trained men across national frontiers."

"LONG OVERDUE" — "A clear and unequivocal recognition by the rest of the world that this is a form of aggression is long overdue," Rusk asserted.

Much the same kind of point was made in the White Paper on the Vietnamese War which the State Department issued last Saturday. The report declared that "the war in Viet Nam is a new kind of war, a fact as yet poorly understood in most parts of the world."

Rusk was expected to tell the ambassadors, as the White Paper asserted, the United States considers the war being waged by the Communists against South Viet Nam an "aggression as real as that of an invading army."

It was expected that in coming days Rusk and other officials will meet with ambassadors of Western European allies and with groups of envoys from other areas of the world as rapidly as such meetings can be arranged.

PRESSURE ON U.S. — Pressure on the United States to enter into peace negotiations with the Communists for a Southeast Asian settlement has been building up since U.S. aircraft began bombing infiltration bases in Communist North Viet Nam a month ago.

Rusk said in his New York speech, made to a meeting of the U.S. Council of the International Chamber of Commerce, that U.S. forces are in Southeast Asia "to help independent peoples resist aggressions."

He said that Laos as well as South Viet Nam has been the target of "persistent aggression" from North Viet Nam in violation of various international pledges made by North Viet Nam and Red China.

RED AGGRESSION — "Our troops could come home tomorrow," Rusk said, "if the aggressors would go back north and stay at home."

"The defeat of these aggressions is not only essential if Laos and South Viet Nam are to remain independent," he added. "It is important to the security of Southeast Asia as a whole. Thailand already has been proclaimed as the next target by Peiping."

Rusk also denied that the Communist guerrillas in the southeast have any "major popular following." He said they impose their rule in areas they control and recruit men into their guerrilla bands largely by the use of terror.

"Pacification of South Viet Nam would be a relatively simple problem for the South Vietnamese themselves," he said, "if the intervention from the North were brought to an end."

On Capitol Hill, Sen. Russell B. Long said Thursday that advocates of American withdrawal from South Viet Nam "would have us abandon our friends, drop our commitments and surrender our honor."

NOT TO RUN — Long, assistant Senate Democratic leader, told the Senate the United States is "not going to cut and run. It is not going to surrender."

In another Senate speech, Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, challenged the accuracy of a statement by Gen. Harold K. Johnson that 75,000 Communist Viet Cong guerrillas have been killed. Gen. Johnson is Army chief of staff.

Young, a member of the Armed Services Committee, said he knows from secret testimony by Gen. Johnson and others that the claimed toll was "misleading and cannot be correct."

Daily Papers' Circulation Up By 1.5 Million

NEW YORK (AP) — Editor & Publisher reports daily newspapers in the United States increased their circulation during 1964 by 1.5 million copies, the largest single annual increase since 1946.

The trade magazine's figures were made public Thursday night and are contained in the 1965 Editor & Publisher International Year Book, which now is on its way to press.

Total daily circulation for 1964 averaged a record 60,412,266. This is a 2.5 per cent increase over 1963 and 20 per cent higher than the first postwar total in 1946.

Indonesian, U.S. Rift Grows Wider

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's closing of its libraries in Indonesia signaled a further deterioration of U.S.-Indonesian relations with possibly more trouble ahead.

Washington officials say they do not expect a formal break in diplomatic relations with the big Asian country. But what the Americans term continual harassment by the leftist Jakarta regime is pushing affairs close to rock bottom.

Citing "intolerable" conditions and five years of attacks on the U.S. libraries, U.S. Information Agency Director Carl Rowan Thursday ordered an immediate end to the whole $1.18-million U.S. information program in Indonesia and withdrawal of the 17 USIA officers there.

It was USIA's first such withdrawal under hostile conditions since the American overseas propaganda program began after World War II, U.S. officials said.

CLOSE LIBRARIES — The Indonesian government had already put out of operation the five USIA libraries and reading rooms. U.S. authorities are considering giving the 60,000 books to Indonesian universities.

Also ended by Rowan's order are distribution of a USIA magazine which had an Indonesian readership estimated at 1 million, distribution of USIA films, news material and exhibitions. Now only USIA's radio arm, the Voice of America, will remain to broadcast the American official view into Indonesia from a Philippines-based transmitter.

The Jakarta government had seized the libraries one by one after officially condoned mob violence. It had also hampered mailing of USIA material, banned films and allowed burning of books by demonstrators.

Other harassments have been mounted against U.S. diplomats and recently against American tourists too.

Ambassador Howard Jones' wife was insulted last month and a U.S. consul's car stoned. Surveillance has been put on American officials and Indonesian employees of the Americans have been threatened.

RED CAMPAIGN — The Communist-style campaign against the Americans has forced the United States to weigh ending the remaining U.S. aid program, already cut to less than $3 million a year compared with former annual amounts of more than $100 million.

Chiefs In Viet War, Army Official Huddle

Secret Confab On As Guns Roar

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Reinforcements were airlifted into a major battle zone 40 miles southwest of Da Nang today, while a large-scale attempt to engage the Communists 50 miles east of Saigon ended a complete failure.

American and Vietnamese officials directing the war effort went into closed-door meetings with the U.S. Army chief of staff, Gen. Harold K. Johnson, and the rest of a high-level delegation which arrived Thursday night from Washington.

The visitors got a briefing on the current military situation from Gen. William C. Westmoreland, American commander in South Viet Nam; and met with U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor.

Johnson and his party will break up into small groups Saturday and tour various parts of this war-torn country.

Military sources at Da Nang, on the coast 360 miles northeast of Saigon, said nearly a battalion of Vietnamese rangers was flown to help out government units under heavy attack from at least two Viet Cong battalions.

One source said all the Vietnamese units, totaling more than three battalions, were in difficulty. An almost complete lack of hard facts on the battle indicated a degree of confusion among Vietnamese forces caught in the area.

SHOT IN STOMACH — One American, an Army Special Forces enlisted man, was shot in the stomach while accompanying his troop on a combat patrol Thursday in the Viet Nam area south of Da Nang. He was evacuated to a hospital at Nha Trang and reported in serious condition.

In the operation east of Saigon, some 3,000 South Vietnamese soldiers were airlifted in the biggest helicopter assault of the Vietnamese war.

The troops moved through Phuoc Tuy Province, and U.S. jet fighter-bombers dumped hundreds of tons of bombs, but no contact was established with the Viet Cong.

Four Vietnamese soldiers were killed by B57 jet bombers in an accidental airstrike. Two others were killed in a hit-and-run Communist mortar attack.

OVERRUN TOWN — During the operation, a scant 15 miles to the north, the Viet Cong overran the town of Rung La Tuesday, wiping out a company of regional defenders. By the time relief troops arrived, the Viet Cong were gone.

Also on Tuesday, the Viet Cong attacked a ranger company, killing 33 and wounding one. The number of Americans killed in combat since December 1961 rose to 301 with the death of a U.S. Army Special Forces enlisted man.

Though officials in Saigon described Johnson's visit as routine, the deepening U.S. involvement in Viet Nam gave it all the earmarks of a top-level conference.

First Rattlers In For Snake Show

Some 200 rattlesnakes were dropped into the pits at the Big Spring Fairgrounds main barn this morning as the third annual Rattlesnake Roundup began. A total of 55 hunters had registered for the snake hunt by 11 a.m. today, Jaycee President Jack Orr reported.

A parade through downtown Big Spring Thursday afternoon signaled the opening of the three-day event.

More than a thousand rattlesnakes are expected to be collected and exhibited in the three-day roundup, Orr said. The collection is expected to swell considerably this afternoon and Saturday.

At the fairground's north barn, a wildlife exhibit was opened today as part of this year's roundup, including a bear.

Again this year the Jaycees and wives of the members of Undergraduate Pilot Training Class 66-C, Webb AFB, will be cooking and serving rattlesnake meat at nominal prices.

Jaycees put finishing touches on preparations at the fairgrounds early this morning.

Snake demonstrations will highlight the roundup's showing of rattlesnakes. In addition to the regular bleacher seats on the sides of the barn interior, temporary bleachers have been placed on the west end of the snake pit for a closer view of the snakes by spectators.

The roundup continues through Sunday afternoon, when prizes and trophies will be awarded winning hunters.

Saturday night a highlight of the event will be the dinner and dance at Big Spring Country Club, with tickets remaining on sale through Saturday by Jaycees at $3.50 per person.

The buffet dinner is to begin at 7:30 p.m., with the dance to start at 9 p.m.

The selection and crowning of Miss Diamondback is slated as part of the dance.

GOP Plans Redistricting

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas Republicans revealed Thursday how they would like the predominantly Democratic legislature to revise the state's 23 congressional districts.

Rep. Frank Cahoon, Midland, showed a news conference the GOP redistricting plan, as drawn up by a statewide party study group. The plan will be presented to the House Redistricting Committee at a public hearing. Several other plans, by Democrats, are under study by the committee.

SEES HOPE — Cahoon said he could see good GOP campaign possibilities in at least five of the districts as drawn by the GOP committee. Cahoon, the sole Republican member of the legislature explained that the plan would give Rep. Jim Wright a district that would include the west half of Tarrant County, including most of Fort Worth proper.

Rep. Earle Cabell would get a northeast corner of Dallas County for a district and Rep. Joe Pool, presently the congressman-at-large, would get the southeast corner.

DALLAS, FORT WORTH — Dallas and Fort Worth would share another congressman through creation of a district that would take in the area around Arlington, Grand Prairie and Irving, plus the nearby counties of Denton, Collin, Johnson and Ellis.

Corps Pay Bill Offered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., has introduced a bill to forbid the payment of wages higher than prevailing local rates to Job Corps enrollees.

He said the Labor Department "by misrepresenting congressional intent" has established a nationwide minimum wage rate of $1.25 an hour for workers under this program.

Tower also urged Congress to enact a law to keep volunteer workers in what the administration calls its anti-poverty program out of political activities, unless local officials of both major parties have approved what they are doing.

Tower said the bill was prompted by a plan to use some of the volunteers in San Antonio in connection with the registration of migrant laborers as voters.

Poll-Closing Plan Pushed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pierre Salinger, former White House press secretary, believes the polls should close simultaneously during national elections.

Salinger said this would minimize the impact of early Eastern returns on Far Western voting. Salinger, press secretary for both President Johnson and John F. Kennedy, endorsed the idea of 24-hour voting with a standard closing time.

Salinger, now vice president of National General Corp., was appointed to the Senate from California last year, but lost his elective bid to Republican George Murphy in November.

Stormy Weather Lashes East U. S.

Stormy weather hit broad areas in the eastern half of the nation today, following the blustery climatic pattern during the first week of March in many areas.

More snow and sleet fell across areas of Upper and Middle Mississippi Valleys, and the Ohio Valley southward into Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas and northern Georgia. The mercury dropped to 28 at Atlanta while at the same time it was 35 above in Anchorage, Alaska.

Blizzard conditions were reported in sections of Iowa and northwestern Missouri, with winds of 20 to 40 m.p.h. causing much drifting of snow. Driving conditions were hazardous in a six-state Midwest region.

In Minnesota and Iowa, hampered by snow and ice storms since Monday, more than 1,200 persons have been forced from their homes by floodwaters. Melting snow fed ice-clogged rivers and streams in four Minnesota counties and seven counties in Iowa, with floods affecting about 900 families.

Skies cleared in most of Florida and along the Gulf Coast after Thursday's rain. Heavy rain, hammered Miami Beach, Fla., causing some property damage.

Freezing weather was forecast tonight for northern Florida with frost in scattered sections into the interior of southern Florida.

FAIR WEATHER — Generally fair weather prevailed in most of the western half of the nation. Rain fell in central California, ending a warm spell. Temperatures again Thursday were in the 60s and higher in western Washington and Oregon.

In New Mexico, warmer weather was indicated after some record low readings for the date Thursday, including 17 below zero at Red River, 3 at Las Vegas and 2 above at Santa Fe. The nation's early morning temperatures ranged from 2 above at Craig, Colo., to 68 at Key West, Fla.

Marines Hit Beach In War Exercise

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. (AP) — Twenty thousand Marines were set to hit the beach today — weather permitting — in an exercise to train men for limited wars like that in Viet Nam.

Waves up to six feet high were forecast for this stretch of Southern California Coast but officials hoped the sea wouldn't get rough until afternoon.

ASSAULT WAVES — Plans called for thousand-man assault waves to start moving ashore about 9 a.m. in landing boats and helicopters in Exercise Silver Lance, a joint Navy-Marine maneuver involving a total of 60 ships and 50,000 men.

Two carriers, a cruiser, 12 destroyers and nine troop ships have waited offshore for days for the landing, climax of an exercise that began Feb. 23.

At sea, the exercise has been little different from assaults staged frequently at this West Coast Marine training ground.

Ashore, however, there have been many firsts, obviously borrowed from conditions met in Southeast Asia.

This has been the first exercise, officials say, in which troops have had to contend with civilian rioting in the mock villages they liberate.

REVISE PLANS — Commanders in the field have had to revise their plans on the spur of the moment because civil officials who outrank them have deployed units without their knowledge.

Troops actually have been placed on short rations for days at a time to force them to scrounge food from "natives."

By the new rules of this game, the "natives" — Marines trained to dress and act the part — are frequently unfriendly and unable to speak English.

Ordered Back

These weary members of South Viet Nam's Third Airborne Battalion return along trail to Rung-la yesterday after being ordered to retreat without explanation. Rung-la, in the jungles 50 miles east of Saigon, was overrun by Viet Cong guerrillas Wednesday. A thousand troops started for the town before the order to return was given. (AP WIRE PHOTO)

Ag Committee Plans Program

Members of the agriculture committee of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, meeting at the call of chairman E. P. Driver Thursday, agreed to continue activities sponsored last year, and adopted some new plans for this year.

Special emphasis was placed on the screw worm eradication program; on a continuation of cotton insect control through the virus method; promotion, on a wider scale, of cotton products during National Cotton Week May 5-10, and on Weed Control Day at the Big Spring Experiment Station in April.

Several dates were not firm at the meeting, but subcommittees appointed to work out details and times for various events.

Indonesians Plan To Grab Rubber Farms

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Reports today from North Sumatra said the Indonesian government would formally take over American rubber plantations there valued at $80 million.

Government officials in Jakarta described the action as a "management takeover." But Western diplomatic legal experts said it was a confiscation, and that the term was not being used so the Indonesian government could reject any claims by the American owners for compensation.

TWO COMPANIES

The plantations are owned by Goodyear and the U.S. Rubber Co. They have an area of about 170,000 acres and include two hospitals, a rubber mill and several other buildings.

Reports from Medan said all American management authority would be surrendered to new Indonesian managers.

SIGNS DECREE

Foreign Minister Subandrio signed a decree Feb. 26 authorizing the takeover. U.S. Ambassador Howard P. Jones during the weekend tried to see him to get a clarification of the action, but Subandrio left Monday for Cambodia with President Sukarno without granting the ambassador an interview.

The Indonesian Communist party spearheaded the drive for seizure of the plantations, and a party leader Tuesday urged the Indonesian government to take over the American Standard Vacuum Oil Co. and to confiscate the British-Dutch Shell Co.

Embassy Normal After Red Attack

MOSCOW (AP)—There were 210 ink stains splotching the tan walls as high as the fifth floor, 310 windows had shattered panes, nine pairs of drapes were ruined and two U.S. shields damaged.

But the Soviet police guard outside the U.S. Embassy was back to four today and business returned to normal following a day of wild student attacks on the 10-story building.

The attacks by Red Chinese and Vietnamese students denouncing U.S. air strikes against North Viet Nam were followed by an exchange of protests between the U.S. and Soviet governments.

U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler told Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko that police protection had been inadequate to deal with the rioters who were scattered only after army reinforcements moved in.

Gromyko apologized for the attack, promised the Soviet government would pay for the damage and said greater measures would be taken to protect the embassy in the future.

Gromyko then handed Kohler a note saying U.S. "acts of planned aggression" in Viet Nam were "an indication that the United States is embarking upon the road of further extending the war in Southeast Asia."

Such actions, the Soviet note said, "undermine the foundation on which alone relations between the U.S.S.R. and the United States can be cultivated namely the principle of peaceful coexistence."

The government had provided more protection than at any previous demonstration, posting about 600 policemen around the embassy. But they were beaten back by screaming students who bombarded them with rocks, sticks and slingshot slugs.

Kohler, warned about noon of the imminent demonstration, told the Foreign Ministry he expected adequate protection.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Takes Issue Concerning Wages Paid In Texas

To the Editor:

I have written the governor after reading in the local newspaper of your concern over the ruling by the U.S. Department of Labor as to the wages that must be paid to students in the Neighborhood Youth Corps. The ruling was that $1.25 per hour would be the minimum wage allowed. I must agree with Governor Connally, that this might be somewhat high under the circumstances. However, what concerns me even more is the reason for his objection, that these part-time, unskilled, young people would be receiving a higher hourly rate of pay than many adult, full-time employees of many school systems.

Doesn't it cause the governor some concern that many adult employees of our public school system are being paid less than the minimum hourly rate of pay as set by the National Labor Department?

I spent some time in research as to the economic standing of the laboring class in Texas. My findings were as follows: In total yearly income per family, we in Texas are $800 per year behind California.

In Texas there is no minimum wage, not even 10 cents per hour.

Texas had the third greatest industrial growth of all the states in the United States, as the governor boasted, yet I failed to hear him speak one word in support of the drive to curtail the commuting of Mexican Nationals to many of our border cities which have some of the lowest economic levels of living, and highest unemployment rates of anywhere in the United States.

Neither did I hear him support the National Department of Labor when they ruled that farm braceros must be paid 75 cents per hour plus quarters, medical care, etc., which might help reduce some of the state unemployment.

In another area newspaper the governor was quoted in an interview at Odessa in which he said, "And we're trying to provide government as economically as can be provided—a government that is debt free." He reported at the end of 1965 the state will have a surplus of $100 million without being in the red.

Couldn't the governor be equally as proud of being able to announce that the citizens of Texas had the highest standard of living and the highest average family income of any group of citizens of any state in the United States?

If so, we could reduce the number of students who need the assistance afforded them by the Neighborhood Youth Corps.

Sincerely yours,

Aid Recipients File Assurance

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thousands of school districts and many other recipients of federal aid for health, education and welfare activities have filed assurances of compliance with the Civil Rights Act.

This word came today from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. It had set today as a target date for those receiving aid under 95 of its programs to file such assurances or plans to end discrimination.

Now the department will turn to an analysis of the situation, still pressing for voluntary compliance rather than taking punitive steps.

The department emphasized that under the law it cannot withhold funds from a recipient until a lengthy procedure has been carried out.

This includes a public hearing, notification to Congress of adverse decisions against recipients, and a 30-day waiting period before an order is issued to withhold funds, and even then the recipient can go to court.

On the other hand, no money for new programs may go to states, localities or other recipients unless they are in compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act.

That title provides that programs receiving federal funds must be operated in a nondiscriminatory manner.

Reports on the filing of assurances of compliance or plans for compliance are not expected to be in hand from regional offices until Friday or later.

Cotton Panel Touts Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new cotton committee sponsored largely by traders and shippers has been set up to seek enactment of a cotton program embracing much lower market prices and supplementary payments to growers.

The committee is headed by F. Mario Rhodes, president of the New York Cotton Exchange.

It seeks legislation under which grower price supports for cotton, now far above world levels, would be placed below world prices to boost sales abroad and at home.

City's New Budget Is Almost Ready

A tentative budget figure of $2,561,680 has been scheduled for the City of Big Spring, City Manager Larry Crow has reported, as the 1965-66 budget preparation is nearing final stages.

Crow and city commissioners have discussed the budget in two informal meetings in recent weeks, reaching tentative figures for various departments and activities. Preparation of the budget has reached a stage where stencils are being cut for printing, Crow said.

Preliminary estimates have indicated both revenues and expenditures for the city will receive some increases in the fiscal year beginning April 1.

Tentative plans involve scheduling a public hearing and adopting the budget by the commission about March 23.

The 1965-66 budget estimates reflect an increase of about $120,000 in expenditures from the amount estimated for the current 12 months, $2,443,970.

The preparation of the budget has been under way since January, with department heads submitting tentative requests, reviewed by Crow and the city commission with decisions last week on tentative figures.

Department heads were asked by Crow to include in budget requests amounts to cover those changes in services or functions of departments expected in the next fiscal year.

Petrofina Will Close Wichita Falls Refinery

Shutdown of the Wichita Falls refinery has been announced by American Petrofina Company.

R. I. Galland, president of American Petrofina, said that operations would halt there within about two months. He said the decision, reluctantly arrived at, was based on economics.

With closing of the plant, Petrofina will cease to be a buyer of crude oil in North Texas. Purchases there now approximate 7,000 barrels daily. This is about what the refinery puts through each day.

Marketing and production of a lubricants plant, warehouses and transportation activities also will not be affected in the Wichita Falls area. The refined products terminal at Wichita Falls is connected with a pipeline to Cosden Oil and Chemical Company refinery at Big Spring. Products from Cosden, an affiliate of American Petrofina, will supply Fina jobs and dealers in the Wichita Falls area.

American Petrofina acquired the refinery from Panhandle Oil Corp. in 1956. The plant originally was erected in 1916 and was the first refinery in Wichita Falls. Presently it employs about 90 persons. Closing of the plant will leave Wichita Falls without a refinery since Continental closed its unit several years ago.

Besides the Big Spring refining and petrochemical complex, Petrofina also operates refineries at Colorado City (part of the Big Spring system), at Mount Pleasant and Eldorado, Kans. Refining operations are directed by Cosden.

Rios Charged With Murder By Automobile

Daniel Alvarez Rios, 21, 100 NE 8th, who police said has admitted he was driver of the car which caused the death Wednesday night of Albert Donald Grantham, 38, is being held in the Howard County jail in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Wayne Burns, district attorney, Thursday afternoon filed a charge of murder by an automobile against the man. Earlier a charge of negligent homicide had been filed in the case. The negligent homicide complaint is a misdemeanor; the murder by an automobile is a felony.

Rios will be held for the grand jury. Walter Grice, justice of the peace, set bond at $10,000.

Rios escaped with minor injuries when his car plowed into one driven by A. L. Holley, 62, at the intersection of Third and Scurry late Wednesday. Grantham, a passenger in the Holley car, was fatally injured and died two hours later.

Holley was painfully hurt in the collision and is in Cowper Clinic-Hospital. Also in the hospital is Mickey Vierra, who was in the car driven by Rios. A third man, Henry Lopez, who was with Rios and Vierra, escaped injury.

Effect Muled Of Walk-Out In TV World

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — James T. Aubrey Jr. quit CBS network earlier this week in the most publicized television walk-out since Jack Paar stormed off an NBC stage.

Speculation by insiders about the sudden unexplained departure of the television network's president concentrated immediately on CBS' loss of leadership in the national Nielsen ratings this season after two seasons well out front.

VIEWING HABITS

The ratings are projected statistics on the purported viewing habits in more than 50 million American homes gathered by electronic gadgets attached to the sets in about 1,200 homes throughout the country. These homes are chosen to represent as closely as possible the make-up of the entire population according to the most recent federal census — age, sex, family composition, income, education, geographical composition and many other factors.

From records of what programs these families are tuned to, the A.C. Nielsen Research organization estimates the total audiences for various shows. The result is the yardstick by which networks assess the popularity of their programs. It is also widely used by sponsors and their advertising agencies to obtain some idea of the number of people exposed to sales messages on which some companies spend millions of dollars a year.

CRITICS' POINT

Critics complain that ratings fail to reflect the quality of programs or to show the composition of audiences.

In spite of this, the national Nielsen is commercial television's most important measurement tool. With few exceptions, programs with high ratings survive; those with low ratings succumb. The network that leads in the Nielsen's glows happily; the also-rans fret.

Network television nervously lives by the numbers, and occasionally someone or some show dies professionally by them. In a furiously competitive business governed by fickle public taste and involving millions of dollars, there is neither time nor inclination to try riding out a bad storm.

Spread Of N-Weapons Across World Feared

LONDON (AP)—Denis Healey, British defense minister, says Communist China may set off its second nuclear explosion in a few days.

Opening debate in the House of Commons on the new military budget, Healey warned of the possibility of a "rapid chain reaction" that would spread nuclear weapons to all parts of the world.

The U.S. State Department said on Feb. 16 that the United States "has reason to believe the Peking regime is preparing for another nuclear test."

Red China joined the world's nuclear club last Oct. 16 when it touched off a primitive, low-yield atomic explosion in Sinkiang Province, western China. The State Department said a second test would have no more military significance than the first because refinement of Chinese nuclear weapons was a long way off and the Chinese have no system of delivering nuclear weapons.

Healey called for new moves toward collective security and eventually East-West agreement on control and reduction of arms.

"If all those countries which might feel themselves threatened by Chinese possession of such weapons declared to seek security for themselves there might be a rapid chain reaction which would not be confined to Asia and which would finally dispose of any immediate hope of stopping the spread of nuclear weapons," he said.

VALUE PEACE

"It must be the urgent desire of all who value peace to find other ways of dealing with this problem. The only possible security is collective security."

The call for collective security and arms control tied to a statement that Britain can no longer afford the role of world policeman.

Healey said Britain can solve its own costly defense problems for the next 10 years provided it cooperates closely with its allies. After that, he said, "our problems will be insoluble unless we can cooperate with our political opponents on some form of arms control and disarmament."

Viet Bombs Jolt A Waiting Soviet

American bombs that fell on North Viet Nam seem to have shaken far-off Moscow. What is happening in Viet Nam could cause new trouble inside the Kremlin.

Moscow's reaction to the bombing has been one of nervousness. Its response suggests that the present Soviet regime is trying to sit tight, watch and wait, and perhaps seize an opportunity if one presents itself to take a hand in Southeast Asia. But the restraint of Soviet protests indicates the regime hopes it will not have to do anything desperate.

The Kremlin seems a little stunned by it all. The regime — notably elements of the Communist party represented by First Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev — reflects anxiety to avoid being too deeply involved at a time when it has little control over events in Asia. Perhaps it is hoping a situation will evolve which will give the Soviet Union more control.

ANGRY DENUNCIATION Moscow denounces the U.S. raids angrily. It must do so, since the attacks are against a country ruled by communism. It makes threatening noises but gives no hint of readiness to do much else at this time.

However, the developments can supply ammunition to hard-line conservatives in the Soviet party and military who disliked the idea of "peaceful coexistence" to begin with, because it implied cutbacks in military expenditures. These elements now can apply pressure to step up military outlay at the expense of Brezhnev's program to raise Soviet living standards.

The bombs fell while Communists from 18 nations met with Soviet party members to consider the split bedeviling the Red world. The Chinese scorned the meeting and now will have a chance to claim they were right all along, that peaceful coexistence is impossible.

The Soviet regime has tried to deflect some of the enormous expense of heavy industry — which builds military power — into consumer channels. The Chinese denounce this as leading toward capitalism. As the Viet Nam situation grows tenser, the Soviet course becomes more difficult to maintain.

Despite the steady rise of tension in Southeast Asia, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin said Monday a visit by President Johnson would be "very pleasant" and repeated his avowed hope for better relations with the United States.

ARE COMFORTABLE Now Kosygin and Brezhnev are in an uncomfortable position. The notion of a pleasant Johnson visit and improved Soviet-American relations will further enrage the Chinese and those who sympathize with them.

Kosygin gives the impression that he moved rather reluctantly

Steel Picture Clarified Some

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The muddled picture in the crucial basic steel industry has been clarified on one point — efforts to write a new labor contract will resume next Tuesday in Pittsburgh.

Negotiators for the 11 major steel companies and the United Steelworkers Union decided this Thursday at their first meeting in two months.

Left up in the air, however, was the question of when and if the union would extend its May 1 strike deadline.

Steelworkers President David

J. McDonald said such an extension would be premature at this time. He apparently left the door open for a possible extension later.

One other phase of the confused picture was only partially clarified Thursday when The Associated Press learned that I. W. Abel polled 6,228 votes more than McDonald in the union election.

The union's international tellers, who must officially declare a winner by May 1, completed counting the votes last week. They are awaiting explanations from more than 100 locals on why their tally sheets did not jibe with membership rolls, but whatever the outcome this is not expected to alter Abel's lead.

High Sales Predicted

DALLAS — The U. S. automobile industry may achieve history's first 10-million-car sales year before the 1960's are over, a Ford Motor Co. executive predicted Thursday at the opening of new quarters for the Dallas Ford Marketing Institute.

M. S. McLaughlin, assistant general manager of Ford Division, told newsmen at a luncheon yesterday that the industry is "selling cars now at a seasonally adjusted rate of 10 million a year. We have been predicting a 10-million car market by 1970, but if things keep going the way they are, we may reach it well before then."

McLaughlin shared the program with local Ford executives who joined in dedicating the company's new training facility at 8383 Stemmons Freeway.

He said the six institutes around the country have trained more than 57,000 dealership personnel since 1959 and have played a "vital role" in his division's marketing programs.

Rising sales are both the result of and a reason for more highly trained dealers, said D. A. Kuhn, Dallas district sales manager for the Lincoln-Mercury division which registered an eight per cent gain so far this model year. Mercury sales rose 44 per cent during the period, he said. Ford dealers in the district registered a 33 per cent increase, he said. Truck sales were up 23 per cent.

ARE COMFORTABLE Now Kosygin and Brezhnev are in an uncomfortable position. The notion of a pleasant Johnson visit and improved Soviet-American relations will further enrage the Chinese and those who sympathize with them.

Kosygin gives the impression that he moved rather reluctantly toward supporting contacts with Washington, perhaps pushed by the Brezhnev wing of the party. Brezhnev has been concentrating on a program for the internal economy for which relative peace with the United States is necessary.

Moscow already looks foolish to some Communists for having become involved in an international meeting of party leaders which is highly unlikely to produce anything but a worsening of the world schism.

With the extension of the Indochina war, the position of relatively moderate Soviet elements could become untenable. They might either have to bow to hard-line conservatives or be pushed aside.

A Devotional For The Day

Pray without ceasing. (1 Thessalonians 5:17)
PRAYER: Our Father, we thank Thee for all persons who are uniting themselves in prayer and worship today. Grant blessings according to need. Activate in us the power of the Holy Spirit, and may our attitudes, words, and actions be governed by the spirit of Jesus, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."
(From the 'Upper Room')

Saving Grace Of News

Perhaps the case of George Whitmore Jr. will shed some light on the role of the press in the trial, although not exemplary in every respect, can play in the accomplishment of justice.
Whitmore, a rather dull Negro youth, was charged with a brutal knife slaying of two young women in New York City. One paper, the New York Journal-American showed unfairness and a lack of taste when it came out with a banner headline: "The Killer." Another paper quoted a police officer that the defendant wouldn't have been picked up if they were not sure he had committed the crime.
On the other hand, some reporters felt this did not all ring true. For one thing, a photograph found in Whitmore's wallet was not one of the victims. As a result, further investigation was conducted and a second suspect in the slaying was charged. At the same time the charge against Whitmore was dropped.

While, as the chief defense counsel suggested, the "press had Whitmore three-quarters strapped into the electric chair." It also "got him back out." To this an assistant district attorney noted that "had this case not got tremendous publicity . . . Whitmore might well have been slipped into the electric chair and killed for something he didn't do."

Abuses are to be deplored, but the danger of inadequate news even in pre-trial reporting can be dangerous.

Hint For The Legislature

The Supreme Court decision holding that a serviceman who has paid his poll tax (or otherwise duly registered) and who has satisfied residential requirements cannot be denied the right of voting in his present community should help clear the air to some extent.

Unfortunately, not too many servicemen took the time or chance of voting by paying their poll taxes or securing an exemption certificate before the Jan. 31 registration deadline in Texas.

This decision should not be lost on the members of the Texas Legislature. This should be the stimulus to get something done about shaking the unwarranted shackles off our military people who settle down and are just as much a resident of the community as any other person. The only thing different from other citizens is that of career, and that doesn't or shouldn't enter into the right to vote.

David Lawrence Federal Thrust Into Schools

WASHINGTON—There's a mystery behind the pressure for the appropriation by Congress of funds to help pay the cost of education in America. It is unexplained just why federal funds should suddenly be channeled into states and cities and counties to help schools in so-called "poverty-stricken" districts. Yet these already are being financed by and constitute a continuing responsibility of the states, counties and cities themselves.

MOST PEOPLE do not realize that total expenditures for elementary and secondary education in the public schools of America amounted to $13.3 billion in the 1961-62 school year, the latest for which detailed figures are available. State funds supplied 37 per cent of the total, while local funds made up 58.8 per cent. Thus, the federal government was paying only 4.2 per cent of the total educational expense. If this was essential aid, it is being asked why the states or local units could not afford this small percentage of additional cost, which amounted to less than $1 billion a year.

FEDERAL FUNDS in relatively small amounts have been allotted heretofore to federally affected areas and for school-lunch and special milk programs. A federal relationship to school problems has been recognized for example, in areas where the families of persons in the military, or civilian services of the national government reside in large numbers.

No such limitation is applied now,

THE IMPOSSIBLE JUST TAKES LONGER

James Marlow The Struggle On Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Do you understand foreign aid well? Sen. J. W. Fulbright doubts it. Out of the doubt comes a struggle. And out of the struggle will probably come no change at all.

The United States has provided at least $105 billion in foreign aid, economic and military, since World War II. There have always been screams about it.

Gleeful hatchmen in Congress have built reputations as economizers at the expense of foreign aid, yearly leading the fight to chop hundreds of millions off the program one president after another asked for.

There have been soul-searchings and disputes over whether the whole business should be scrapped. But this year the program is up against one of its oddest predicaments.

THE TWO most powerful men in Congress in foreign affairs—Fulbright of Arkansas and Rep. Thomas E. Morgan of Pennsylvania, both Democrats—are split over whether the program should be split.

Don't get them wrong. They're both solidly for foreign aid. They just disagree on how to distribute it.

This year, like other presidents before him, President Johnson handed Congress his $3.8-billion foreign aid program in one big bundle, with economic aid and military assistance all bunched together under a single tent.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee, says now as he did last year that the program should be split into two basic programs: One, military assistance, the other, economic help.

NO, SAYS Morgan, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, taking the same position now as he did last year. Fulbright has called the foreign aid program a "garbage can" for all kinds of amendments which Congress tacks on but which "have nothing whatever to do with foreign aid." He gave some of his reasons in a Senate speech Thursday.

He called the combined program a "conglomeration . . . to support foreign armies; to maintain American military bases in foreign lands; to build roads, dams, steel mills; to pay foreigners' import bills; to grow more food; to provide emergency relief from natural disasters; and to support multifarious United Nations activities which themselves range from feeding children to killing malarial mosquitoes and irrigating Pakistan."

Hal Boyle Clean Desk Meaningless

NEW YORK (AP)—Well, they're at it again.

"They" are the office cleanliness brigade who keep spotless desks themselves and want everybody else to keep a neat desk, too.

You find these ataxiophobes and amathophobes in every office.

AN ATAXIOPHOBIC is a person with a morbid dread of disorder.

An amathophobe is a person with a morbid dread of dust.

Their motto is, "every paper clip has its place—let's put it there."

They don't have blood in their veins. If you screwed off their heads and turned them upside down, detergent would run out. Squads of these self-appointed janitors, these memo-pad Mussolinis, have been going by my littered desk lately murmuring things like:

"He's gone too far."
"Really, he's giving the place a bad name."
"It looks like the city dump. I think I saw a rat run out of it yesterday."

Then they go back to their own spotless desks, brushing at their clothing as if they had become contaminated, and spend the rest of the day cleaning their fingernails. They drop anonymous notes in the office suggestion box complaining my desk has become a public health menace.

WELL, I say, to hell with all such neurotic nice-Nellies. If they want to clean up something, why don't they clean up City Hall?

What do I care if they call me "the Mayor of Germ Harbor?" A man's desk should have a worked-in look, just as his home should have a lived-in look. It should bear the signature of his toil and dreams.

I feel a sense of pity when I see an office full of shining desks, their tops as barren of signs of human life as so many dunes in a desert. They seem so meaningless.

Who works at these desks? A number of nameless moles? Their desks show no evidence of belonging to anybody. Maybe they are manned by faceless automatons. Who cares?

I TAKE pride in the condition of my desk. The two-foot pile of debris on it—which also has overflowed an adjoining bookcase—two windows and three file cabinets—took me as long to accumulate as it did the Pharaoh Cheops to build his great Pyramid. But my memorial is just as distinctive in its small way as his.

No one could mistake his pyramid for any other; no one could mistake my desk for any other.

One's eyes be good afterwards? —MRS. R. W.

Glaucoma is a gradual increase in pressure inside the eyeballs. If allowed to continue, it gradually causes permanent damage and ultimately blindness.

Whether surgery is advisable depends entirely on the individual case. The usual practice, if glaucoma has not become too advanced, is to employ more conservative treatment first: Use of drops, proper diet, adequate rest and other measures to reduce stress.

If that does not succeed sufficiently, then it is time to resort to surgery. A small vent is made to relieve the excess pressure. The eyeballs, except that the interior pressure is reduced, remain essentially the same.

Dear Dr. Molner: My son was disqualified from the Air Force Academy because of vitiligo, which started when he was about 10 years old. Is there any cure for this? —MRS. F. W.

Vitiligo is a lack of pigment, or coloring matter, in some areas of the skin, and is a severe nuisance because of its appearance—spots where the skin is markedly lighter in color. Physically, however, it is not harmful.

The cause has not been determined; hence no cure has been found. There was, a few years ago, considerable research with a drug derived from a plant grown in the Middle East. Unfortunately, it did not prove to be the success that many doctors hoped.

The best answer I know is to cover the spots cosmetically. A certain product matches various skin tones, and works very well.

Occasionally vitiligo corrects itself, going away as mysteriously as it came.

Terminological Inexactitudes

Years ago the late Sir Winston Churchill stood in the House of Commons and termed an opponent within the Parliament a "purveyor of terminological inexactitudes."

What he said, as those in the House chamber well understood, was that his opponent was lying.

HE HAD USED the latter term first, then was told by the Speaker of the House of Commons to withdraw it, as it was not in keeping with parliamentary tradition.

In later years the phrase Churchill used to skirt the parliamentary rules has been repeated many times. In effect, the term expressed what he intended to say without doing it in an offensive manner.

A SIMILAR expression was recently cast into the tradition of Parliament by Britain's present Prime Minister Harold Wilson, who said one newly-elected conservative member was spending his time as a "parliamentary leper."

The House has for centuries attempted to find a middle ground between free speech and, on the other hand, language causing disorder.

"TRAITOR" and "coward" cannot be used, for instance. But one member can term another a "halfwit" or "Tory clot." "Jackass" is barred from parliamentary speech, but "goose" is acceptable.

The various speakers of the House have ruled out a host of terms through the years as not in keeping with tradition. Such terms as "impertinent puppy," withdrawn in 1907, and "stool pigeons" in more recent years.

A member cannot use the word "hypocrite" in referring to another.

SO A CODE of conduct has survived through centuries in the Parliament, ruling on how far the members can step in making statements critical of other members. The list of banned words has reportedly grown until there is a hesitance today to add to it, but it still acts as a unique bar on what the members may say toward their associates.

Tourist-Plucking Parisians

PARIS—French innkeepers, who have been cheerfully shearing American tourists since the days of Benjamin Franklin, may be in for a rude shock when U.S. plans to redress its balance-of-payments problem take effect.

The temptation arises to observe that it couldn't happen to a nicer group. Tourism, which is the third largest industry in France, has been in a decline for several years. There have been a number of reasons for this, but not the least has been chronic lack of civility toward the pigeons who are being plucked.

HIGH PRICES in relation to other European playgrounds undoubtedly play a role. Indeed, more and more Frenchmen have found their own country's resorts too costly and have fled to Spain and Italy for their vacations. For Americans there have been other elements, including easy jet accessibility to distant points, such as Greece and the Middle East.

But a growing knowledge exists among experienced travelers that France is a country where skyrocketing prices too often are accompanied by surly disregard for elementary manners.

PARIS IN February and early March is bleak and cold, and it is not surprising that hotels and restaurants are cavernous and empty. The hotel where this wayfaring American lodges is not half-full. A reservation had been forwarded from the last port of call for safety's sake, however. Our arrival was on schedule, we were accompanied by a respectable mountain of baggage, and our person was clean, freshly shaved, neatly pressed, sober.

The hotel is one that has housed us before. One would have thought that all this would be the innkeeper's vision of a perfect guest.

NOT SO. The churlish Boniface who welcomed me seemed transfixed with the idea I was a carrier of Hansen's disease. He pretended he couldn't find my name on the reservations book. He demanded to know if I had ever been fortunate enough to stay with them before, and vanished for five minutes to check his files when I said yes. Finally, he demanded that I produce my passport, a nasty police-state tactic which has vanished from all but the most backward of emerging nations.

At last, and with the utmost reluctance, he conducted me to a chamber whose sole window needed cleaning, which was cold, and which was outfitted with a lumpy bed. The bathroom contained no trace of soap.

HOTELKEEPERS are not alone in their misanthropy. If, through some ghastly celestial error, I should wind up in hell, I've got a plan of action. I'm going to work hard, apply myself diligently, and see if I can't persuade the authorities to put me in charge of the department where Parisian taxi drivers spend eternity. It is the only possible way I'll get even.

For whatever reasons—and soaring prices accompanied by bad manners obviously are high on the list—France has not been enjoying its share of the world tourist boom. Last year 900,000 Americans visited the country, which was about the same number as came here in 1963, but they spent less. In 1960 the average Yank tourist stayed four days in Paris. Last year it was just half that. The French are uncertain how U.S. efforts to trim spending abroad will affect their troubled tourist industry, but they know it won't help it any.

Where The Labor Market Is

WASHINGTON—By midsummer the War on Poverty will have 25,000 Job Corpsmen in centers mostly "located on public lands operated by conservation agencies such as the Department of Agriculture and Interior," according to director Sargent Shriver of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

And long before midsummer there will be at least 30,000 wide-open jobs in 26 states which need men and women to harvest the "stoop crops" of fresh vegetables and fruits. But at this writing, none of the Corpsmen in "conservation" centers are being trained or indoctrinated to fill these gaping job opportunities.

WHAT THE DEVIL goes on here? I have asked Mr. Shriver's office for a comment on this strange policy, and maybe it will be forthcoming, but as matters stand today, we have another of those odd conflicts of purpose within the Great Society. Labor Secretary Wirtz is hell-bent to make a dent in the four-million-man Army of Unemployment. He says he will "stay up all night if necessary" to move jobless persons off the relief rolls and into these work vacancies.

He's having his troubles. He was able to halt the import of foreign labor from Mexico, the British West Indies and Japan—but Americans of the Welfare State won't demean themselves to squat on their haunches and pick the ground-hugging crops.

Test Plan

TUCSON GREEN VALLEY, Ariz. (AP)—A try-it-before-you-buy-it plan is helping senior citizens here come to one of the biggest decisions of their lives—where and how to spend their retirement years.

At this $100,000,000 retirement community some 19 miles south of Tucson, sponsored by the University of Arizona Retirement Foundation and managed by its nonprofit subsidiary, The Retirement Foundation Inc., prospective residents may rent an apartment, either furnished or unfurnished, by the week or month while making up their minds.

The only requirement for joining the community is that one member of the family be 50 years or older. Low and medium-priced homes in Spanish Colonial architecture are available for purchase to permanent residents, as well as apartments on yearly lease.

WELL, IF WE write off the millions of relief-roll adults, what about Mr. Shriver's Job Corpsmen, boys and girls between the ages of 16 to 21? From 25,000 in June, this enlistment will grow to 40,000 by the end of the year and to 100,000 when the program is going full blast. Many will be working under the Agriculture Department, particularly in that agency's Forest Service, but they won't be learning to practice the one phase of agriculture which machinery has not substantially invaded—"stoop" labor.

THEY WILL be growing up with the same contempt for hands-in-the-soil which we find in their tax-supported elders. The policy contradiction is that Secretary Wirtz is doing his best to put adult Americans to work among the crops by raising minimum wages and demanding improved working conditions, whereas Director Shriver has not yet undertaken to do the same for young Americans who are federal trainees. Who's in charge of the Great Society?

Meanwhile, it appears from the testimony in congressional committees that hundreds of farmers and fruit growers are selling their acres or putting them into cattle feed. Many packing plants have moved into Mexico to be nearer a labor market.

MR. JOHNSON wants to be remembered in history as the detonator of a massive education explosion. There are administration bills in Congress to cover every level of learning—pre-school training through college and into the graduate schools. Everybody's going to get a chance to find out how to read books and run machines. But Mr. Johnson, whose own hands are calloused from youthful toil, hasn't suggested anything of that sort for his countrymen. It may be the very kind of re-education that Americans need the most.

OIL REPORT

Two Counties Get Outposts

Outposts have been staked in Glasscock and Sterling counties; two new locations spotted in Glasscock County, and one in Howard.

District Urged To Set Pace

Earl McKeehan, Midland, Scout executive for the Buffalo Trail Council, appealed Thursday evening for the Lone Star District to be the pace setter in the council and western half of the region.

A district camporee is being planned tentatively for April 24-25, said D. D. Johnston for the camping and activities. The committee hopes to set this up for Moss Creek Lake. Eleven local units have registered for summer camp at the Davis Mountains, he reported.

Jack Gulley, vice chairman who presided, said that this district has registered 13 for the Region IX meeting in San Antonio March 26-27. This is two-thirds of the number so far registered in the council.

Paul Saldan, health and safety chairman, drew praise for his work in organizing and directing the recent first aid meet. Fred Beckham, commissioner, said he would have a meeting of his 25-member staff March 9.

Attends Seminar

Dr. Mike Chowins participated Thursday in a seminar on contact lens at Lubbock. Dr. Newton Wesley of the Wesley-Jesson Co., lectured on various phases of contact lens and advanced methods of fitting them.

Baptists Urged To Japan Crusade

Japanese Baptists are pleading for more teams to visit Japan next year for a renewal of the new life movement, the Rev. Dub Jackson said here Wednesday. The Rev. Jackson, who headed missionary work in Japan for many years and who hopes to return there, spoke at the Wednesday evening service of the First Baptist Church. He said that Japanese Baptist leaders had asked for at least 65 evangelistic teams to help in a nationwide revival effort in 1966 as they did in 1963. Currently the Rev. Jackson is associate pastor of the First Baptist Church in Houston and came here to confer with Dr. T. A. Patterson, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Dr. Patterson is leading in a revival meeting at Baptist Temple.

New Science

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—The growing Christian unity movement has made necessary the creation of a new science, the Rev. Dr. John A. MacKay, noted Presbyterian scholar, writes in the prologue of a new book published by Prentice-Hall. Its title gives the name and subject matter of that science: "Ecumenics: The Science of the Church Universal."

It Ain't Easy, Brother!
But there is a way.

You have probably been told that all religions lead eventually to the same place. This is a popular concept. But did you know that Jesus personally stated:

"The gate that leads to life is small and the road is narrow, and those who find it are few?"

No—it isn't easy, brother, but there is a way—a way to eternal life and salvation. You owe it to yourself to know the unvarnished truth about this vital matter. Nothing can be more important. Your future life and present happiness depend upon knowing the truth.

The Holy Scriptures explain the way. You need not, you must not depend on someone else's ideas about it. A guide to help you find the scriptural way to eternal life can be yours free and without obligation. Just complete the attached coupon with your name and address.

LESSON IN A PARABLE

"Laborers in the Kingdom," title of the International Sunday School lesson for March 7, is a lesson in a parable such as Jesus often used when he wanted to make a point. Matthew's recording of the story of the householders, who hired men at four different times of the day and paid them all the same amount, is intended to tell men that the rewards to Christians are not based on the number of hours worked, but rather on the faith in the householders. While the grape pickers who worked only one hour received the "same" pay as those who worked 12 hours, Jesus was showing that, like the dying thief on the cross, heavenly rewards were not based on the length of time served.

Evangelist To Close Services

Dr. Charles A. Ray, evangelist from Greenwood, Miss., will be completing revival services at Settles Baptist Church Sunday. Services daily are being held at 7:30 p.m., with three days left for the meeting. Jim Robinson is leading the singing, Jan Curry is pianist, and Mary Madewell, organist. The Fort Worth-born pastor of the First Baptist Church of Greenwood, Miss., holds a doctor of theology degree from the New Orleans Baptist Seminary. "His experience in the ministry, in civic affairs, and as a pilot during World War II have given him a wide knowledge of the world, and his sermons are inspirational and from the heart," the Rev. Haskell D. Beck, pastor, said. "The congregation invites the public to hear the speaker during his last three sermons."

Still Needed

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—At a meeting of southern college students here, one asked a question of a Congolese youth, Andre Kumuamba: "Are missionaries still needed and welcome in the Congo?" Said he: "Of course they are needed. We know that missionaries are there to give, and not get." He said most Congolese deplore the recent atrocities involving missionaries.

Vincent Baptists Schedule Revival

VINCENT—Evangelist Wayne Bristow, Lubbock, will lead the Vincent Baptist Church congregation in an evangelistic campaign March 7-14. The Rev. Royce Shoemate, pastor, said services are scheduled daily at 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. "Rev. Bristow has led churches throughout the United States and Canada in similar campaigns," Rev. Shoemate said. "At 28, he is a veteran of more than 100 evangelistic crusades. The evangelist is a native of West Texas and is a graduate of Wayland Baptist College. He is an ordained Southern Baptist minister. Before entering a ministry of full time evangelism he served two years as a pastor. He was active in many Christian student endeavors during his college days, and Rev. Bristow is often called on to address student rallies. He has conducted several evangelistic missions on major university campuses.

REV. BILL HINES      MRS. BILL HINES

Waxahachie Minister Due At Assembly Of God

The Rev. Bill Hines, from Southwestern Assemblies of God College at Waxahachie, will be preaching at the First Assembly of God Church, West Fourth and Lancaster. Saturday and Sunday. Special youth emphasis will be given the first service Saturday at 7:30 p.m. He will also be speaking in the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services Sunday. Rev. Hines was graduated with honors from Emerson High School, Magnolia, Ark., where he was converted during his senior year. He entered a state college, and, after one year, received his call to the ministry. He will be graduated from Southwestern this year with a bachelor of science degree in Bible.

There will be special music in each of the services, by Mrs. Hines and the youth from the church. "Sunday will also mark the beginning of special attendance building for the entire congregation during the month of March," the pastor, Rev. Homer Rich, said. "The theme is, 'March to Church in March,' with special goals set for each Sunday."

Adult Institute Set In Beaumont

Baptist Sunday school workers will meet at First Baptist Church in Beaumont March 15-16 for an intensive study in materials and methods used in teaching adults. Those who work with extension and cradle roll departments will also attend. There will be the study, called an Adult Institute, is "Looking at the Adult Challenge," said W. R. Bumpas, state Sunday school secretary from Dallas. Lubbock is the site for the Texas Baptist Library Convention March 25-27, according to Harold L. Bass, state president from Terrell. The conferences and speakers will provide an investigation of each aspect of church library work.

Two Worship Services Planned Each Sunday

Fourteenth and Main Street Church of Christ will begin holding two morning worship services Sunday. This decision was reached by the officers of the church, due to the crowded conditions during the past few months, in order for the congregation to continue to grow. The two morning services will be continued until a larger auditorium is provided.

The first worship service will be from 8 to 8:45 a.m., and the second from 10 to 11 a.m. The Bible School is held from 9 to 9:45 a.m. No change is being made in the Sunday evening service, held at 7 p.m.

Perry B. Cotham, minister, will continue to be the speaker at all the Sunday services.

You've been speeding, and you get a ticket. You don't like it, but you know you've been wrong. With little or no argument, you pay your fine.

You've been staying home from church on Sundays for one of a dozen reasons. Maybe you like to sleep late. Maybe the minister in your church preaches dull sermons. Maybe you don't consider yourself the church-going type. Whatever your alibi—nobody's going to come after you.

This is a summons you'll have to serve on yourself. For an infraction of God's law is something that can't be ignored. Until you declare yourself guilty, you will be deliberately shutting yourself off from the greatest fellowship in the world. No judge in history has ever pronounced a sterner sentence.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DEAR ABBY
All Girls,
No Boys—

DEAR ABBY: I have been hurt so bad by my husband that I don't think I will ever get over it. When our second daughter was born and I was being wheeled from the delivery room into my regular room, my husband was waiting in the hall. And after seven hours of labor and a dry birth to boot, do you know what he said to me? He said, "You are just never going to have a boy, are you?" How can a man be so mean and ignorant? He doesn't know it yet, but I am never going to have another girl, either.

DEAR ALL THROUGH: When the new mother, the thoughtless father and the all-girl family return to normalcy, remind your husband that the MALE determines the sex of a child. And if he EVER again expresses disappointment because you bore him no son, tell him that HE can have the next baby — with your blessing.

DEAR ABBY: A woman who had been married for 26 years asked you if she and her husband should sell their large home and move into an apartment because their children were married and gone and it was too much work to care for the house and yard. Her husband wanted to keep the house in case their married children wanted to come back for vacations with THEIR kids, or in case they got divorced. I would like to tell her that if her husband wants to keep the big house, she should tell him to do all the cooking and cleaning and yard work. After parents raise their children and marry them off, they are entitled to take it easy in a cozy apartment. If the husband is so crazy about doing yard work, let him go to his children's homes and work his head off.

"BEEN THERE" IN BUFFALO
DEAR ABBY: I am really on the spot. I announced my engagement last December, but no wedding date was set at the time. I didn't send out formal announcements of my engagement. We have now set our wedding date for May 22. I understand that the wedding invitations should be sent out three to four weeks prior to the wedding date, so of course they have not yet been sent out. Well, a few days ago I received a very beautiful (and I am sure, expensive) wedding gift from someone who is not on my list to be invited to the wedding. Does this mean I have to send that person an invitation to my wedding? I don't feel that close to her, and if she hadn't sent

Joblessness Rate Climbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate increased slightly in February, mounting to 5 per cent, the Labor Department reported today.

January's rate had been 4.8 per cent, the lowest since October 1957. The February figure was even with that for December but down from the 5.4 per cent of February 1964.

The Labor Department said most of the increase in joblessness was among women.

Employment rose in line with seasonal expectations in February, the department said. Civilian employment increased 500,000 to 69.5 million.

The department said the increase in unemployment among women was not expected to change and that it accounted for the increase in the seasonally adjusted joblessness rate.

Total unemployment mounted by about 200,000 to 4.2 million, the department said.

"The job picture for adult men continued strong, and the teenage employment situation showed moderate improvement in February," it said.

Mideast Talk Secrecy Kept

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department isn't talking about its talks with Middle Eastern countries.

Press officer Robert J. McCloskey refused this week to provide information on recent discussions involving U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and Israeli government officials.

McCloskey also declined to discuss a reported Jordanian request for arms.

Asked to explain the no-talk policy in view of reports from Middle Eastern countries, McCloskey told a news conference: "We take the position that while negotiations are going on they're classified."

Order Served
By Sukarno
On Oil Firm

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — President Sukarno's government has ordered the Shell Oil Co. to replace its American manager at the Balikpapan refinery with an Indonesian employee of Shell, Western oil sources said today.

The informants said Chaerul Saleh, the minister for economic development, had ordered manager S. G. Stiles replaced by a national.

NO ALTERNATIVE
"It seems that Shell will have no other alternative but to comply with the order," the sources said.

A Shell spokesman declined to comment on the report, which came amid a campaign by the Indonesian Communist party against Western oil firms operating in Indonesia. Shell is owned by the Dutch, Balikpapan is in eastern Borneo. Shell operates a nearby oilfield also.

OTHERS THERE

Other Western oil companies operating in Indonesia are Standard Vacuum, Caltex and Pan Am, all American. The Indonesian government has resisted demands for their seizure because they pay the government more than $100 million a year in royalties.

The official news agency Antara said today the American Goodyear tire factory in the west Java town of Bogor has been placed under government control following the government takeover of Goodyear and U.S. Rubber Co. estates in northern Sumatra.

Japan Former Minister Dies

TOKYO (AP) — Former Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita died of pneumonia today. He was 80.

Arita served as foreign minister in the 1930s under several governments. Previously he had been ambassador to Germany, Austria, Belgium and China.

Mental Health Bill Needs Final Okay

AUSTIN (AP) — The House tentatively approved Thursday Gov. Connally's mental health retardation plan.

A voice vote, with no member heard voting "no," advanced the bill. Still needed is a final vote, expected early next week.

The only major amendment removed the requirement that the commissioner of a proposed new state agency to deal with mental illness and retardation be a physician. The sponsor, Rep. W. H. Miller of Houston, complained the amendment "will gut the bill," but members adopted the change on voice vote after refusing, 46-92, to table it.

The governor's bill stresses mental illness and retardation on the local level.

Miller said the proposal is "not only more humane . . . but also will save the state millions of dollars."

The bill also abolishes the sign, "Imported meat sold here," was deleted Wednesday. The measure returns to the Senate for action on House amendments.

LAND PROGRAM

Senator passed 30 - 0 and placed before the voters a proposed constitutional amendment extending the veterans' land program. The program expired Dec. 31 after running out of money. The proposed amendment authorizes the sale of another $200 million in bonds to purchase land for resale to veterans at low interest rates.

Daughter Of Singers Wed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Meredith Lynn MacRae, 20-year-old daughter of singers Gordon and Sheilah MacRae, was married in Los Angeles recently to Richard L. Berger, 23, of Kansas City, Mo.

Miss MacRae and Berger, an accountant and son of the director of the Starlight Theater in Kansas City, met four years ago when the bride's parents appeared there in a musical.

Wives Greet New Members

Five new members were welcomed to the International Wives' Club at the Thursday evening meeting, held in the Community Room of First Federal Savings and Loan Association building.

Those welcomed were Mrs. Jack Perryman, Germany; Mrs. Restitutio Alonzo, Germany; Mrs. Rivio Bringas, Philippines; Mrs. Donald Van Meter, Italy; and Mrs. John H. Frair, Korea.

The opening prayer thought was taken from a card sent to the group from the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Horace Doyal was named parliamentarian to succeed Mrs. Harold Hopkins whose husband is being stationed in England.

A report on the child welfare meeting was heard and the group agreed to support the formation of such a department.

A pale blue table cloth set with pink appointments accented the refreshment table which featured desserts of other countries.

It was announced that regular meetings will be changed to the first Thursday in each month. Game prizes for the evening were donated by Mrs. Jan Williams and Mrs. William Kim-

Member Drive Begun Wednesday By Wives Group

A membership drive began Wednesday evening when the Servicemen's Wives Club met in the John H. Lees Service Club at Webb Air Force Base.

The drive, which is being directed by Mrs. Robert Brown, secretary, will continue for two months. The winner will receive a free dinner for two at Holiday Inn.

Mrs. Jerry Knox presided, announcing that a charm would be given to members who have perfect attendance at the meetings for six months. Also, the club will sponsor a bake sale each Tuesday evening during Game Night at the club.

Six members were present to welcome a new member, Mrs. R. E. Gonzalez.

The next meeting will be March 17 when a hair styling demonstration will be given by Gary Don Carey. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will conclude with a birthday and farewell party honoring Mrs. Knox.

Midland Brother Visited Friday

COAHOMA (SC)—Mrs. Archie Thompson and Mrs. Irene McKinley were in Midland Friday to visit their brother, Pat Roberts.

Mrs. Ruby Bearden of Snyder is visiting here with her son and family, the Olen Beardens.

Visiting with the Bill Timmers are their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Betty Turlo and Nancy Jane, of Odessa.

Lions Club met Thursday at the Village Restaurant with 21 members and one guest, Dr. Louise Worthy. Dr. Worthy showed a film on heart disease.

Weekend Visitors In Westbrook

WESTBROOK (SC)—Mrs. W. A. Scoggins of Aspermont was a weekend guest in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hines.

Mrs. Ena Parsons of Abilene is a guest in the Herman Parsons home this week.

MR. AND MRS. M. L. ROWLAND

Sunday Open House To Honor Rowlands

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy L. Rowland, 1703 Young, are invited to visit the couple Sunday during an open house which will observe their first wedding anniversary.

Hosting the affair will be the Rowlands' seven children, Mrs. Jack Daniels, Mrs. Bill Barber, Mrs. Doyle Turney, J. D. Rowland, Bill Rowland and W. D. Rowland, all of Big Spring, and Mrs. Dale Stroppe, Odessa.

The Rowlands moved to Howard County Oct. 18, 1924 where he recalled that they picked cotton for J. A. Forest in the Moore Community. Later, they began farming and did this until 1948 when they moved into town. While residing in the Moore Community, he was a trustee at the school, and they both are active members of the Grace Baptist Church.

Mrs. Johnny Shackelford had charge of the program, "Applying Christian Principles," with Mrs. Al Burkhardt, Mrs. Herman Parsons and Mrs. Ralph Bryant participating.

Mrs. Ena Parsons and Mrs. Graves were guests.

Calling hours for the Sunday open house will be from 2 to 4 p.m. White linen will cover the refreshment table, and the centerpiece will be of red and white carnations. A white orchid will be presented to Mrs. Rowland, and he will be given a white carnation boutonniere.

Junior Auxiliary Schedules Dance

The Junior Auxiliary to the American Legion Auxiliary planned a dance for Friday evening when it met Wednesday in the legion hall.

The dance will be open to all junior and senior high school students and there will be no charge.

Nona Prescott presided as the 11 members and three adult leaders made arrangements for the dance.

Rowland said their marriage was performed while they sat in a buggy outside the home of a justice of the peace. He recalled that the horse and buggy were the modes of transportation in those days unless one chose to walk. They did a lot

WEDDING SATURDAY

Sharon Newsom Feted With Bridal Shower

COAHOMA (SC) — Sharon Newsom, bride-elect of Ted Cearley, was honored with a bridal shower Friday evening in the Sand Springs Baptist Church. Calling hours were 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Miss Newsom and her mother, Mrs. Harvey Newsom, greeted the guests. They were assisted by Mrs. Roy Bennett and Mrs. Jack Linderman.

Mrs. Jim Fields Jr. and Mrs. Bill Tucker presided at the re-

Westbrookers View Regional Basketball

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. Troy Lankford, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Parsons and their daughter, Melanie, attended the regional basketball games in Lubbock Saturday.

Guests of Mrs. John Hawkins Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Daniel and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ellett.

Sunday guests in the Hoyt Roberts home were Mrs. Roberts' sister, Mrs. Ed Conaway, Colorado City, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McKee and daughter of Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Oglesby attended funeral services for Mrs. Lillie B. McCraney in Big Spring Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Kingfield and Margaret of Roby, and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Callaway, Sand Springs, visited in the home of Mrs. H. H. Armstrong recently.

Guests in the W. A. Bell home Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Vance Armstrong and Thomas from Jal. N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bell and Danny, and Mrs. F. S. Brown, all of Colorado City.

of walking, too, when they attended school, because the schoolhouse was two or three miles from their homes.

"Those were happy days for us," said Rowland. "We were reared to be satisfied with what we had." He and his wife first met at Nubbin Ridge School.

The Rowlands moved to Howard County Oct. 18, 1924 where he recalled that they picked cotton for J. A. Forest in the Moore Community. Later, they began farming and did this until 1948 when they moved into town. While residing in the Moore Community, he was a trustee at the school, and they both are active members of the Grace Baptist Church.

Mrs. Johnny Shackelford had charge of the program, "Applying Christian Principles," with Mrs. Al Burkhardt, Mrs. Herman Parsons and Mrs. Ralph Bryant participating.

Mrs. Ena Parsons and Mrs. Graves were guests.

Rev. Lee Speaks To Brotherhood

WESTBROOK (SC)—The Rev. Carl Lee, pastor of Oak Street Baptist Church in Colorado City, was guest speaker at Westbrook Baptist Brotherhood meeting Thursday night. He spoke on morality.

A pancake supper was served to 18 members and visitors preceding the meeting. Visitors were Rev. Lee, Alvin Byrd and Fred Womack. The Rev. W. A. Smith, pastor of First Baptist Church, Colorado City, will be speaker next month.

Dreamers Discussed By Group

"Dream books are completely unreliable and should never be believed or depended on," was stressed in the program presented by Mrs. C. B. Marcum and Mrs. Gil Gingold at a 1946 Hyperion meeting. The group met Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. P. D. Meek, 2801 Crestline. Mrs. Charles Warren was cohostess.

In the discussion of dreams and their cause, effect and meaning, it was pointed out that the interpretation of dreams is a very serious and scientific procedure. Psychiatrists spend many hours with a patient before making any attempt to interpret his dreams.

Sixteen members attended the meeting.

A program on mental health in adolescence will be presented by Desmond Powell, social worker at the state hospital, at the April 7 meeting to be in the home of Mrs. C. B. Shouse.

WMS Has Meeting

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mrs. Herman Parsons was hostess for the evening circle of Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church Thursday.

Mrs. Sam Scroggins, chairman, presided during the business meeting and Mrs. H. B. Graves, Colorado City, gave suggestions to the newly-organized circle.

Mrs. Johnny Shackelford had charge of the program, "Applying Christian Principles," with Mrs. Al Burkhardt, Mrs. Herman Parsons and Mrs. Ralph Bryant participating.

Mrs. Ena Parsons and Mrs. Graves were guests.

Calling hours for the Sunday open house will be from 2 to 4 p.m. White linen will cover the refreshment table, and the centerpiece will be of red and white carnations. A white orchid will be presented to Mrs. Rowland, and he will be given a white carnation boutonniere.

Girl Scout Week Events Scheduled

Girl Scouts of the area are planning several special events to observe Girl Scout Week.

Mrs. Lester Goswick's Troop 205 will have a tea Sunday afternoon, and a College Heights troop is doing the flag ceremony for a Parent-Teachers Association meeting during the week.

Girl Scouts from Neighborhood 2 will present a program for the Kiwanis Club Thursday.

Also, this neighborhood will hold its Father-Daughter Banquet March 12 at Gosden Country Club.

The board of directors for the West Texas Girl Scout Council will meet Tuesday evening in Colorado City.

Alatheans Host Pink, Blue Shower

Tiny pink orchids and miniature baby rattles on a cloud of pink net accented the lace covered refreshment table at the Pink and Blue shower given Monday for Mrs. Dan Cannon.

The event was held in the home of Mrs. Alan Alexander, 3229 Drexel. Cohostesses were Mrs. Pete Sanderson and Mrs. Elmer Dickens.

Eighteen members of the Alathean Sunday school class of the East Fourth Baptist Church and one guest, Mrs. Mike Tavaglione, Brick Town, N.J. attended.

Miss Phelan Honored With Linen Shower

Miss Roberta Phelan, bride-elect of Lt. James Frederick Wilson, was honored Tuesday evening with a lingerie and linen shower held in the home of Mrs. Ann Gibson Houser, 101 Cedar. Cohostess for the pre-nuptial affair was Mrs. Jim Zack.

The honoree, joined by her mother, Mrs. C. M. Phelan, in greeting guests, was attired in a blue linen dress accented with a row of ruffles at the blouse front.

Presiding at the hors d'oeuvre table were Mrs. Lee Hanson, grandmother of the prospective bride; Mrs. J. R. Farmer, Mrs. Tom Ashley and Mrs. R. L. Beale. Gifts were shown by Mrs. Robert Phelan.

The table was laid with a tangerine cloth with yellow accents, and the centerpiece was a spring bouquet of Dutch irises in shades of yellow, purple and white. Silver and crystal appointments were used.

Placed in the living room was a large arrangement of various-colored irises, a gift to the hostess from the honoree and her mother. Miss Phelan and Lt. Wilson plan to be married March 21 in St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Calling hours were from 8 to 10 p.m., and the guest list included 60.

Forsan Queens In Regional Tourney

Trent Solid Pick In Girls' Tourney

Trent remains a solid favorite in the 1965 Regional VI-B Girls' Basketball Tournament, which begins tonight at Howard County Junior College with a single game. Trent, defending state titlist, brings an impressive 36-1 win-loss record. That's even better than the record the Gorillas posted last year, when they finished with a 36-5 mark. The Gorillas' only loss has been to Class A Roosevelt, which also has qualified for the playoffs. Standout performers for Trent include Barbara McAninch, 6-1; Diana Lewis, 5-7; Vivian Lewis, 5-6; Kaye Williams, 5-7; Sue Dickerson, 5-8; and Linda Barnhill, 5-4. Only game tonight, scheduled for 7:30 p.m., pits Fort Davis (89-B) against Talpa-Centennial (82-B).

The winner plays Trent at 9:45 a.m. Saturday. The other semifinal game Saturday morning, sends Forsan (83-B) against Gail (87-B) at 11:15 a.m. The third place encounter takes place at 7 p.m. Saturday while the championship goes on the line at 8:30 p.m. Winner here competes in the state meet at Austin next weekend. Allan White, Tom Neeley and Cliff Thompson will serve as game officials during the meet. Fort Davis, coached by H. L. Ramsey, brings a 27-2 record to town. One of the club's defeats came in conference play. Esperanza Bentley, 5-2; Becky Dominguez, 5-6; Janet Grubb, 5-2; and Linda Moss, 5-8, are among the players who have been pacing the Indians. Barney Popnoe coaches the Talpa-Centennial team, which brings a 30-3 record to town. Talpa defeated Rochelle in bi-district play, 47-22. Talpa's tallest girls are Charlotte Faubion and Priscilla Lane, each of whom stands 5-11. Gloria Tounget, 5-5; and Virginia Baxter, 5-6, are other Talpa standouts. Forsan, coached by James Blake, has posted a 25-5 record. The Buffalo Queens toyed with Mertzon in bi-district play, winning by a score of 54-24. Susan Elrod, 5-6½; Jody Dodd, 6-0; Patsy Gooch, 5-6; Sara Findley, 5-7½; Mary Simpson, 5-4; Sherry Walraven, 5-3½; Pam McKinnon, 5-3; and Molly Condron, 5-5, are among Forsan's standout players. Gail, or Borden County, must be considered a title threat. The Coyotes, coached by H. K. Iund, won 23 and lost six and were undefeated in 10 conference games. Mary Ann Dennis, 5-3, has been an outstanding scoring threat for the team all season. Others who figure big in Gail's plans include Brenda Billeck, Lawanda Zant, Mary Jane Taylor and Donna Cox. Billeck and Mary Dennis are the only two seniors on the Gail team.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

It is a sign of the times, perhaps, that SMU — in a move born of desperation — was a more active football recruiter in District 2-AAAA this year than any other Southwest Conference school. Time was when most boys in this area worthy of playing SWC ball wound up at TCU and those who didn't gravitated toward Baylor. TCU inked only one 2-AAAA product this year, however. He was Ross Montgomery of Midland High, a boy who never did reach his potential in high school but who, nonetheless, must be regarded as a tremendous athlete. SMU, on the other hand, signed five 2-AAAA boys to letters-of-intent, including Big Spring's Don White. The others were Art Overturf, Odessa guard; David Graham, Cooper tackle; Stan Poulos, Permian center; and Larry Priddy, Odessa fullback. All Southwest Conference schools but Arkansas tapped the rich vein of 2-AAAA talent. In all, 19 football players in this league are headed for SWC schools on scholarships. The others include: RICE — Nick Creasy, Midland end; Tom Snow, Midland tackle; Kent Ulm, Cooper halfback; Paschal Piedfort, San Angelo quarterback. TEXAS A&M — Tom Townsend, Odessa end; Tom Fox, Odessa tackle; Solon Young, Midland center. TEXAS TECH — Bobby Parkhill, Abilene tackle; Bucky Kimble, Lee quarterback. TEXAS — Drew Darby, San Angelo guard; Alan Moravcik, Permian quarterback. BAYLOR — David Cooper, Odessa tackle; Dick McFarland, Lee back.

The league's most celebrated lineman, Skippy Spruill of Odessa, is bound for the University of Houston. Johnny Hughes and Dub McMeans, both of Big Spring, will wind up at ACC where Hughes can concentrate either on football or track and quite likely will limit his athletic activity to track. Benny Kirkland and Rickey Earle, the Big Spring backs, will enroll at East Texas State. No fewer than 12 Amarillo Tascosa footballers were extended scholarships by Southwest Conference schools. Four of that group are headed for Texas A&M. Midland Lee, 2-AAAA basketball champion the past season in what must be regarded as a sub-normal year for the entire circuit, was hit hard by graduation. Mike Frizzell, the league's leading scorer, was playing his final season, as were Richard Davis, Bill Newton, Terry Throckmorton, Bill Tillman, Randy Hill and Kenny Jastrow. Returning will be Ken Couble, Terry Jastrow, John Branen, Tom Taylor and Bob Nolen. NFL club owners have under consideration a proposal to decrease the penalty for face-mask grabbing from 15 to five yards. Most doctors everywhere would recommend stiffer, not lesser penalties, for such infractions. You'll be able to buy golf clubs in your favorite colors in 1966. A new colored chrome has been developed by the Corillum Corp.

Phillips Upset In State Meet By 64-51 Tab

By JACK KEEVER AUSTIN (AP) — High-scoring San Marcos beat West Orange 75-47 and ran its winning string to 19 Thursday night, but may have lost a starter with an injury, and Waxahachie shook off stubborn Brownwood 71-67 to set up the Class AAA title game at the state schoolboy basketball tournament. Port Acres scored a big upset, 64-51, over Phillips, and Lake Worth of Fort Worth struggled past San Antonio Randolph 39-33 to round out the AA championship game pairings. The other finalists determined were in Class A, and two old foes gained the title game in that division. Favored West Sabine (Pineland) won its 18th straight over Whitesboro, 57-48, as the Bearcats went scoreless for over eight minutes during the last two quarters. Woodsboro had an easy time with Gruver, a Panhandle team, 83-69. West Sabie defeated Woodsboro 15 points in the 1963 finals. Fans finally were to get a look at the big city class today, AAAA, the only class which has not begun play at the three-day tournament. Entries are Dallas Jefferson, Houston Jones, El Paso and Kingsville.

Class B, the small-school conference, opened with quarter-final games, and will have second-round games today because the division has six teams instead of four as do the others. All finals will be played Saturday. Fabulous Snook, riding a 24-game winning streak and loser only once in 49 games this year, opened the tournament with a 49-45 triumph over Krum, who once led by five points, for a spot in the B semi-finals, and Grafrod cruised past Fort Davis for the other place. Snook was matched today against Meadow, 27-3, while Grafrod was to play the winner of the other first-round bye, Deweyville, 35-7.

AUSTIN (AP) — Here are the pairings for today, the second day of the state schoolboy basketball tournament, in the winners' brackets: 9 a.m. — Meadow vs. Snook Class B semi-finals. 10:25 a.m. — Deweyville vs. Grafrod Class B semi-finals. 1:30 p.m. — Dallas Jefferson vs. El Paso Class AAAA semi-finals. 7:15 p.m. — Houston Jones vs. Kingsville Class AAAA semi-finals. There are also four consolation, or third-place games scheduled: 2:15 p.m. — Phillips vs. Whitesboro third place, Class A. 3:30 p.m. — Phillips vs. San Antonio Randolph third place, Class AA. 7 p.m. — West Orange vs. Brownwood third place, Class AAA. 8:25 p.m. — Loser Meadow-Snook vs. loser Deweyville-Grafrod third place, Class B.

Bovines Eye Snyder Meet

The Big Spring Steers will head for Snyder Saturday and the annual Canyon Reef Relays. Coaches R. C. Moore and Cliff Patton, both well pleased with the showing in last week's Comanche Relays, will be looking for big things from the Steers. About 55 teams will be entered in the meet. Big Spring finished fifth in the Comanche Relays in Division II for Class IV and III schools. Both coaches are looking for records to be broken at the meet and some to be broken by the Steers. Moore said Joe Jaure had a good chance to break the 9.7 100-yard dash record at the meet. The Steer's sprint relay team and 440 relay team should give any team trouble.

Local Linksters Go To Tourney

Members of the Big Spring High School golf team go to Sweetwater today to take part in the 36-hole Sweetwater High School Golf tournament. Other schools entered in the tournament include Sweetwater, Wichita Falls High, Wichita Falls Rider, Lubbock High, Lubbock Monterey, Stamford, Andrews, Amarillo Tascosa, Abilene High and Abilene Cooper. The first 18 holes of competition takes place today, the second round Saturday. Each team is allowed to enter five players and count the four best scores.

Terrell Given Edge In Machen Skirmish

CHICAGO (AP) — Ernie Terrell and Eddie Machen, a couple of contenders hidden in the shadow of Cassius Clay, clash tonight in a 15-rounder for the World Boxing Association's version of the heavyweight championship. Terrell, a 6-foot-6, guitar-strumming boxer who has won 12 straight fights, is a 12-5 choice over the 6-foot Californian, who was beaten in his last fight by former champion Floyd Patterson. Promoter Irving Schoenwald is hoping for a crowd of about 7,000 and a gross gate of $60,000 for the International Amphitheatre. The arena seats 12,000 and is scaled for $102,000. So far the fight has created world-wide apathy. The bout will be shown on closed-circuit television in several cities. There will be no radio broadcast. Fight time is 10:30 p.m., EST. This is a title fight of sorts because the WBA stripped Clay of title recognition for signing a return match with Sonny Liston. This violated the WBA's rule against return title bouts without special permission. Liston was dropped out of the rankings after another one of his brushes with the law. The WBA first named Terrell and Cleveland Williams of Houston to meet for the title. But Williams was shot in a scrape with the police near Houston and was fired out of the contention. So Machen, who was ranked fifth after losing a 12-rounder to former champion Patterson at Stockholm last July 5, was boosted to No. 4 and into the title fight with Terrell. Now he is ranked No. 3.

New York still recognizes Clay, who meets Liston in Boston May 25, as champion. The British Boxing Board of Control considers the Terrell-Machen fight "little more than a joke" as far as the world title is concerned. The European Boxing Union does not recognize Clay as champion but says the Chicago fight is nothing more than a preliminary since it holds the winner must fight Patterson. Patterson, meanwhile, is itching for a shot at Clay and later with Liston, the man who knocked him out twice in the first round. Terrell, 25, has a 36-4 record, including 18 knockouts. He was stopped once, by Williams in the seventh round at Houston, April 3, 1962. CHICAGO (AP) — Tale of the tape for the World Boxing Association heavyweight title fight Friday night between Eddie Machen and Ernie Terrell: Terrell 25, Machen 25. Age 25, 25. Weight 203, 203. Height 6-11½, 6-11½. Chest, normal, 42, 42. Chest, expanded 44, 44. Reach 74, 74. Biceps 15½, 15½. Forearm 13, 13. Waist 32, 32. Thigh 22, 22. Calf 15½, 15½. Fist 14, 14.

Pepper Martin Death Victim

McALESTER, Okla. (AP) — Pepper Martin, who became famous as a St. Louis Cardinal baseball player in the early 1930's, died of a heart attack today in a hospital at the age of 63. Martin, who lived on a ranch near here, was admitted to the hospital Thursday night. Martin, called the Wild Horse of the Osage, vaulted from obscurity to fame in the 1931 World Series. As the daredevil, base-stealing third baseman of the Cardinals, he almost singlehandedly wrecked Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics team, with its $100,000 infield. He pounded out 12 hits, tying the World Series record, and had a Series batting average of .500, hitting four doubles and a homer. He scored five runs and drove in four in a single game, the fifth. Martin stole Mickey Cochrane, the Athletics' catcher who was rated one of the best of all time, blind. He stole five bases. Martin murdered Mack's two great pitchers, George Earnshaw and Lefty Grove. In one of the games, as Martin came to bat, Cochrane took off his mask and remarked: "Well, kid, you're sitting on top of the world now and you deserve it." "Why, man," said Martin, "I'm as dizzy right now as you are and I don't know yet what it's all about. I'm just up there swinging, hoping I'll connect." Martin was of medium height, big-boned, long-armed and wiry. He had high cheek bones, a prominent hawk nose, a face that was bronzed and weather-beaten. He was so bow-legged they said that when he wandered along the streets of St. Louis he often was mistaken for a cowboy.

U.S. Air Operations Over Laos Claimed

TOKYO (AP) — Pathet Lao reports of two American air operations over eastern Laos were relayed by Communist news agencies Friday.

A Peking broadcast of the New China News Agency said antiaircraft fire downed one of two U.S. helicopters that flew over Mok Lak in Sam Neua Province Feb. 23. It reported the other fled.

The Soviet news agency Tass said U.S. bombers caused loss of life and material damage in a recent raid on "the main town of the Laotian province of Khang Khai." The reference appeared to be to the Pathet Lao's headquarters town of Khang Khai, north of the Plaine des Jarres.

U.S. Air Force and Navy bombers have been striking at intervals at targets on the Ho Chi Minh trail through eastern Laos, by which the Viet Cong gets recruits and supplies to further its war against U.S.-backed government forces in South Viet Nam.

In addition, American planes have carried out reconnaissance missions to help troops of Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma's Laotian government keep tabs on movements of the Pathet Lao rebels.

Patrolman Peter J. Buccino, 23, said he tried to separate two of the girls and was driven to his knees by a group of 13 girls who hit him with sticks. He was treated at a hospital for cuts and bruises.

"This wasn't a serious crime," said Lt. Edward Greis, "but a symbol of the disrespect for law and order in our time. The parents cursed the arresting officers at the police station, instead of chiding their children."

Bullfighting Gal Hopes For U.S. Tour

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charlene Abernathy, 43, anxious to share her knowledge of bullfighting with others of her sex, brandished a pair of horns and pretended to be a charging bull. A score of young women watched. They appeared in Griffith Park in answer to Miss Abernathy's advertisement for girls interested in learning the art of bloodless bullfighting.

Miss Abernathy, a slim, tanned blonde, says she has given bullfighting exhibitions in Mexico, where she learned the matador's technique. She said she hopes to train a team to tour the United States demonstrating the art.

PADDED HORNS
"After two months of training," said Miss Abernathy, "we'll be ready for the first live animal. Later we'll get around to real fighting bulls — about 700 pounds on the hoof."

"But," said Lora Davis, 22, a model and a student bullfighter, "they'll have padded horns, like in Portugal."

"Of course," said Miss Abernathy. "Crowds love to see us thrown — but not gored."

The girls include housewives, secretaries and models. Many said they came to the first lesson out of curiosity. The appearance of live bulls is expected to cut attendance a trifle, but Miss Abernathy hopes she'll keep enough girls to form a demonstration team.

BULLS REMOVED
The girls are training with horns from which the bulls have been removed — although one set is mounted on a wheeled cart, called a carretilla, at which neophytes can wave capes.

In bloodless bullfighting swords aren't used, and most of the risks are assumed by the matador.

"Now," said Miss Abernathy, spinning her cape, "this is a right-hand pass."
Carol Christmas, 27, a bathing suit model, giggled. "Most of us already know about those," she said.

Home Gardeners Will Spend Big

NEW YORK (AP) — Neither blizzards nor aphids, neither fear of an economic slowdown nor threats of spreading war in Southeast Asia can stay the American home gardener from plans to spend his money.

At home he's pouring over seed catalogues. In cities around the nation he's ready to wade through snow if necessary to view the flower shows about to bloom forth in all their glory.

SPEND BIG
For garden essentials or luxuries American home gardeners are expected to spend $3 billion this year in pursuit of their hobby, their dream, or their addiction.

Sales of all the necessities and sidelines have risen 300 per cent since 1950. And some 40 million Americans, spending varying sums for modest garden plots or for huge landscaping showpieces, make up the $3 billion market that is the target of nurserymen, makers of lawn mowers, garden tools, insecticides, pesticides, fertilizers, and the purveyors of services of various kinds to gardeners whose thumbs are only a pale green.

GROWTH FIELD
The Stanford Research Institute estimates that the rate of growth in home gardening spending will expand the market to $7 billion within 10 years.

Snowstorms Lash Britain

LONDON (AP) — Snowstorms lashed Britain today and turned the land of rain and fog into an icebox.

Villages were isolated. Train and automobile traffic crawled. International flights were delayed, some for hours.

Blizzards also descended on Poland and Czechoslovakia. Thousands of East Germans were ordered out to clear their main highways and railroad lines. Berlin had a heavy snow.

In Britain, up to 10 inches of snow fell from the Scottish border to the English Channel. Winds piled drifts as high as 10 feet.

The countryside was littered with abandoned vehicles. Hundreds opened their doors to stranded travelers.

combat the insects and other pests that darken so many gardening hopes.

The seed catalogues, with all those pretty pictures, already have accomplished much of their enticing mission.

Garden sections of the Sunday newspapers are filled with advertisements for a vast array of tools, insecticides, rare and common plants.

Now it is the turn of the flowering shows, which draw increasing crowds each year in various regions.
