Health Care Bill Passage Seen Near

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders, ignoring Republican charges of "rubber stamp," press today for passage by nightfall of a $6-billion health care-Social Security bill.

Republicans concentrated their efforts on a preliminary vote, expected late today, on substituting for the bill President Johnson backs one introduced by Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis.

Protestantism Reunion Move Is Interracial

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Moves toward a wide reunion of American Protestantism took on a new interracial dimension today.

Indications came from three large Negro denominations that they will join the project.

Other church leaders applauded the news.

"It is something we had hoped for," said Episcopal Bishop Robert F. Gibson, Jr., of Richmond, Va., presiding chairman at the "consultation on church union."

"It will strengthen the consultation by making it more truly representative of all Christian people in America. It has never been our intention that this should be a union of predominantly white churches."

Observers from three Negro Methodist bodies, with a total of about 2 1/2 million members, said they anticipated early action by their denominations authorizing official entry into the talks.

The six denominations engaged in the consultation — Methodist, Episcopal, United Presbyterian, United Church, Christian (Disciples) and Evangelical United Brethren — have some Negro members, but are mainly white.

The three Negro denominations are Christian Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion and African Methodist Episcopal.

Racially Tense Town Girds After Gunfire

BOGALUSA, La. (AP) — This racially tense mill town, jolted by a flurry of midnight gunfire, girded today to ward off trouble.

A block of Main Street, target for civil rights pickets, was barricaded. All vehicles were routed around the area. Pedestrians were not affected.

The gunfire came shortly after midnight at a Negro residence where two white civil rights workers have been billeted. Apparently no one was hit.

William J. Yates, 37, of Buffalo, N.Y., a Congress of Racial Equality project director, described the shooting as a clash with the Ku Klux Klan, which has been active in this southeast Louisiana area.

Bogalusa police said about eight shots were fired, all from the Negro home. No bullet holes were found in the house.

At Baton Rouge, Gov. John McKeithen said he talked with Bogalusa authorities and was told there was no gun battle.

"It was obviously an effort by these paid, professional agitators from the North and the East to come into our state and create an incident where they can get publicity and raise more money," McKeithen told newsmen.

In Yates' version, groups of cars sped by the house, with men in the vehicles shooting at the house through the car windows.

Texas Sectors Alerted By Rowdy Storms

Rowdy thunderstorms prowled from the Panhandle-Plains sector eastward into North Central Texas during the night and threats of severe weather kept part of the area on the alert into today.

State police reported hail as big as golf balls walloped the Graham area in a heavy thunderstorm about 3:30 a.m. Small hail fell at Jacksboro.

A line of light to moderate showers and thunderstorms marched from the vicinity of Throckmorton and Wichita Falls past Breckenridge toward Fort Worth, towering 50,000 feet overhead and at times spreading to 50 miles wide.

A tornado alert for a belt 120 miles wide from near Wichita Falls to Enid, Okla., expired at midnight with no report of damage in Texas.

RAIN, HAIL
Earlier in the night there was light rain and some hail in the South Plains sector embracing Lamesa, Lubbock and Spur. As much as 1.10 inches of rain fell at Post, the heaviest for those parts in months.

Storm activity ebbed and then revived after midnight, causing the Weather Bureau to issue another special advisory. It warned of scattered severe thunderstorms with hail and destructive winds until 7 a.m. in a belt 100 miles wide centering on a line from 20 miles west of Abilene to McAlester, Okla.

This alert covered the Texas area inside lines linking a point north of Electra on the Red River, Clairmont, Coleman and Arthur City.

WEST TEXAS
There also were showers and thunderstorms in early morning from near Wichita Falls southward to around Abilene and San Angelo in the vicinity of a weak cold front.

Moist air flowing inland from the Gulf of Mexico blanketed the area lying ahead of the front and it was at least partly cloudy everywhere in the state.

Peace Talk Move Up To Communists Now

Thant Pleased, Will Press Truce Efforts

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant today sent President Johnson a personal message welcoming his Viet Nam speech as constructive and statesmanlike. Thant told the President he believes the statement will prove helpful.

A U.N. spokesman said the secretary-general described the President's willingness to enter into unconditional discussions on a Viet Nam settlement as in line with his own position.

PUSHING EFFORTS
Thant assured Johnson that he will continue his own efforts toward a peaceful solution.

The secretary-general's note to the President was sent through the U.S. Mission to the United Nations.

The U.N. spokesman said Thant had listened with very great interest to Johnson's speech, which was telecast from Baltimore Wednesday night.

The spokesman did not indicate whether Thant had accepted Johnson's suggestion that Thant initiate the planning for use of the proposed $1 billion U.S. aid fund for developing Southeast Asia.

WORKS ON PLAN
The United Nations already is carrying out extensive planning for development of power and irrigation resources in the Mekong River basin.

Meanwhile, Britain today formally welcomed as "statesmanlike and imaginative" President Johnson's offer for unconditional talks to end the war in Viet Nam.

A statement from Prime Minister Harold Wilson said Johnson's offer "together with his forward-looking ideas for economic reconstruction in Southeast Asia" make it possible to end the conflict and give the Vietnamese people hope for a better life.

REDS HUBS MUM
The Communist capitals of Hanoi and Peking were silent.

U.S. officials in Saigon said a "particularly strong effort" would be made to get Johnson's words to the people of North Viet Nam, possibly by stepping up the power of the Voice of America radio.

In Jakarta, an official spokesman for President Sukarno said Johnson's proposal for talks would "avert a war between the United States and the Soviet Union."

But the spokesman, Deputy Foreign Minister Ganis Harsono, said Indonesia wants nothing to do with the President's proposal for a development program.

Charles Eberley Dies Following Brief Illness

Charles Eberley, 81, retired railroad conductor and former funeral home operator, died Wednesday afternoon after a comparatively brief illness.

Services will be held at 3 p.m. Friday in the River-Welch Chapel with Dr. H. Clyde Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the City Cemetery with Masonic rites at the grave.

Mr. Eberley came here in 1901, and in addition to his railroad career, he dabbled in real estate and had farm and ranching interests. He also had real estate holdings here, in Sweetwater and in California.

Born in Cullman, Ala., May 8, 1883, he had been a resident of Big Spring since 1901. He was married June 12, 1920 to Annie Bell Green of Nolan County and in 1920 they established the Eberley Funeral Home, which subsequently became the River-Welch Funeral Home. More than a decade ago, he disposed of his interest in the funeral home.

Mr. Eberley was a member of Staked Plains Masonic Lodge 598, the Dallas Consistory, and the Big Spring Shrine Club. He also was a member of the First Methodist Church and of an adult Bible class there.

Surviving him are his widow, Annie Bell Eberley, 206 W. 7th; one brother, Edd Brindley, Big Spring; two nephews and four nieces, including Louis M. Arnold, Earl Arnold, Robert Arnold, Mrs. Louise Powell and Mrs. Florence Upshaw.

Reds Open Autobahn After Challenge By Army Convoy

BERLIN (AP) — The Communists closed the Berlin autobahn for three hours today. They reopened it one hour after a U.S. Army convoy challenged the blockade.

There was no word of learning immediately whether the barricades were lifted because of the U.S. challenge or whether the Communists had planned a shutdown of only three hours. That was the length of the closure Wednesday.

The U.S. convoy was being processed at the Communist checkpoints for the trip to West Berlin when all traffic was allowed to resume.

FOURTH DAY
Today was the fourth successive day the Communists had closed the autobahn.

Backed by the Soviets, East German guards at 9 a.m. closed the steel barriers at each end of the superhighway between West Berlin and West Germany. They lifted them three hours later.

In the interim at 11 a.m., a 22-vehicle U.S. Army convoy drove up to the Helmstedt checkpoint at the West German end, and its commander demanded to be allowed through. The Soviets held it up for 20 minutes, then waved it into the half-mile-long checkpoint for processing by East German guards.

The Reds reopened the autobahn while the convoy was still being checked.

The West Berlin end of the highway was reopened at the same time, freeing a small U.S. truck convoy which had traveled 14 miles from West Berlin toward West German territory when the autobahn was closed. That convoy contained three trucks and six men.

U.S. DEMAND
The United States protested to Soviet officials at the West Berlin end of the autobahn and "demanded that the United States convoy be allowed to proceed," a statement from the U.S. mission in Berlin said.

The statement said despite this demand, the smaller convoy was held up "in clear violation of the Western Allies' unrestricted access rights to Berlin."

"United States authorities are holding the Soviets responsible for any consequences of this action," the statement concluded.

The fourth successive shutdown of the autobahn came a day after the Berlin meeting of the Bundestag, the lower house of the West German Parliament.

The four-hour Bundestag session Wednesday was the first to take place in West Berlin in seven years.

JETS ROAR OVER
During the meeting swarms of Soviet jet fighters roared over the city, firing blanks and buzzing the meeting hall. They also buzzed Berlin airports and planes flying in the air corridors.

Most of the 400 Bundestag members were flying through the corridors in commercial airliners today to get back to the West German capital of Bonn. Since the harassment began, the East Germans have refused to let them use the land routes.

The harassment of road and air traffic to and from Berlin was generally considered an expression of Communist displeasure.

The Bundestag meeting in territory they say is not West German. But the Communists said their restrictions were made necessary by East German and Soviet military maneuvers in the area, and apparently they were continuing to interfere with traffic to support this position.

The maneuvers are scheduled to continue until Monday.

Viet Navy In Mutiny

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Twenty junior naval officers mutinied against the Vietnamese navy commander today and threw him out.

The commander, Adm. Chung Tan Cang, and his deputy, Lam Nguyen Thanh, disappeared and were believed to be in hiding.

The action against the navy commander was supported by the armed forces high command, the civilian government, and other agencies. U.S. officers also seemed pleased.

The insurrection apparently was led by Cmdr. Khuong Huu Ba, commander of the coastal junk force. He appeared to be a probable replacement for Cang.

With Ba were 19 other naval officers. Between them, they commanded about 90 per cent of the navy's fighting strength. Ba was reported to have talked with U.S. advisers for the past week about throwing out Cang, but apparently few Americans took him seriously.

There was no shooting.

Panel Okays Bill On Odessa College

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Connally's emergency request to set up a model vocational-technical school in Waco won quick approval today of the Senate Education Committee.

The committee also approved a bill by Sen. Pete Snelson of Midland to bring Odessa Junior College into the state senior college system.

Connally submitted the Waco proposal Monday, asking approval of a bill by Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan and Sen. Mur-

LBJ Broaches Way; Basis Unconditional

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's public offer of "unconditional discussions" has broached the way toward possible peace talks on Viet Nam. The next move on the two-way path is up to the Communists.

In a major speech in Baltimore Wednesday night which coupled a new peace offensive with the continuing campaign against Red expansion in Southeast Asia, Johnson also proposed a $1-billion U.S. contribution toward economic development of the backward area, whether the war ends or not.

SWITCH NOTED
The President's first specific mention of no-precondition talks marked a switch from the previous U.S. emphasis — registered by Johnson himself as late as a week ago — that Communist North Viet Nam must show intent to abandon its assault on the south before negotiations would be worthwhile.

"I have no indication and no evidence that they are ready and willing to negotiate under conditions that . . . at this time would be productive or would hold out hopes of achieving what we all desire so much — peace in the world," Johnson said April 1.

STARTING POINT
Wednesday night the President said: "There may be many ways to this kind of peace: in discussion or negotiation with the governments concerned; . . . and we remain ready — with this purpose — for unconditional discussions."

Johnson used last week's appeal by 17 neutralist nations for no-strings-attached Viet Nam peace talks as the starting point for his speech. A formal U.S. response along the lines of the President's statement is slated through diplomatic channels today or Friday.

White House sources said the Reds still have given no indication of abandoning their previously declared preconditions — such as a U.S. pullout from South Viet Nam — and that the U.S. offer means the other side must have no preconditions either.

AWAIT CLUES
They looked to responses from Hanoi, Peking and Moscow, which also received the 17-nation proposal, for clues of any change in the Communist stand.

Peace talks could get underway whether the fighting continues or not. For the present, no letup is in sight in the U.S.-backed effort to stem Red attacks. Nor have the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas eased their offensive.

The United States would discuss the issue with Red China as one of "the governments concerned" but not with the Viet Cong, which it regards merely as agents of the Hanoi regime.

MESSAGE RELAYED
Johnson's offer has been conveyed to U.N. Secretary-General U Thant and many other interested parties, including the Soviet Union Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin who was briefed on it Wednesday night by George W. Ball, acting secretary of state. Dobrynin declined comment.

Tornado Loss Reported High

ANADARKO, Okla. (AP) — A tornado raked a ten-mile long path between Anadarko and Verden in southwest Oklahoma during the night, causing two injuries and heavy property losses.

Several other tornadoes were reported.

A small plane may have crashed near here during the storm.

Hail, pounding rain and strong winds battered Oklahoma, which was under a severe weather alert from Wednesday night until 7 a.m. today.

TWISTER ROUTE
Twisters were reported near the southwest edge of Oklahoma City at Tuttle, Watonga to the northwest. Blair in the far southwest, between Holdenville and Wewoka to the southeast and near Stroud, midway between Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

A tornado touched the north edge of Anadarko around midnight, damaging several homes including the Friendship Manor rest home, although none of the 120 patients was hurt.

The twister cut a path one-quarter mile wide to a rural area four miles north of Verden.

The injured were Wiley Weaver, whose house was demolished northeast of Anadarko and Mrs. Andrew Handke, whose house is north of Verden. Neither was hurt seriously.

BLOWN APART
Weaver was found sitting on the edge of his bed although his house had been blown apart.

Handke said he and his family were awakened during the night when the house began to tremble. He said his wife, daughter, and twin boys, 12, started to go to a storm cellar when the storm hit.

"I realized we weren't going to make it," Handke said, "so I leaned against the west wall of the den with the boys under my arms."

The tornado pulverized the northwest wall of the house.

TRAILER LEVELED
Four house trailers in the Lake Chickasha area northwest of Verden were destroyed but there were no injuries. A trucking firm's building at Anadarko was heavily damaged.

Trees, power lines and power poles were ripped apart.

Mrs. Genevieve Hutchins, an employee of the Friendship Manor rest home, said a section of wall in the kitchen and living room areas were ripped away. Two patients in one room that was damaged were removed unharmed.

Oklahoma City was battered by hail, heavy rain and winds up to 72 miles per hour. The storm caused burglar alarms and one civil defense warning system to sound.

Places Struck By Twisters In Past Again Grow Fearful

By The Associated Press
Tornado funnels sighted in the air near Wichita Falls Wednesday night point up a reminder from the Weather Bureau that Texas is entering the peak of the tornado season.

Last year's worst was an April 3 twister which hit North-west Wichita Falls and Shepard Air Force Base. It killed seven persons, injured 111 and inflicted $15 million damage.

Twice as many tornadoes occur in April as in March, and 62 per cent of those reported in a year swoop down in April, May and June.

Weather Bureau records for 1916-1949 show 1,583 twisters struck in Texas and caused 873 deaths. Last year's 49 tornadoes doubled the annual average.

In 1964 tornadoes occurred on 47 days. They killed eight persons and injured 132.

The two worst tornadoes in Texas history battered Goliad in 1902 and Waco in 1953. Each took 114 lives.

The year 1957 produced the most tornadoes, 145.

TORNADO AREA
North Central Texas counts more tornadoes than any other section of the state. There are very few in the Trans-Pecos area.

The twisters occur at all hours but most frequently between 3 and 7 p.m.

Usually they travel toward the northeast at a speed of about 40 m.p.h. Most of them cover a path one-half to five miles long and, on average, 250 yards wide.

Destruction is caused by the violent rotating winds or by differences in air pressure which can lift automobiles and cause buildings to collapse.

Potato Buyer Paying More

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — You with the potatoes and gravy appetite are paying more for your taste this year than Americans ever have.

It's because the nation's 1964 potato crop was the smallest in seven years — nearly 25 million 100-pound bags under the previous five-year average of 268 million bags.

All major producing areas but Maine were hit last year by bad weather and frosts.

SMALL HARVEST — The acreage finally harvested — 1.3 million acres — was the smallest since 1867, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Supply and demand have boosted San Francisco retail prices to 79 cents for a five-pound sack of No. 1 Oregon Klamaths, sized from six to 14 ounces.

In Idaho, land of the premium russet baking potato, 1964 production dropped to 36.3 million bags, a decrease of 14 million from 1963.

Idaho russet bakers cost 20 cents a pound.

PRICE PEAK — Potato prices stabilized at high levels in October and now are peaking just before the new crop starts coming in.

"In 33 years in the potato business I've never seen anything like this," said George Burger, a San Francisco potato broker.

He brought in a carload of Canadian potatoes to keep his hotel and restaurant customers supplied with eight- to 10-ounce baking sizes.

"I tell you I never did that before. These Canadian potatoes

Car Theft Trial Begins

Robert Earl Frymire, accused of car theft, was on trial in 11th District Court today. The jury had been seated, the state and defense testimony presented, and the charge read to the jury by noon.

Argument by the attorneys was to follow. It was expected the case would end in the hands of the jury by 2 p.m.

Frymire's case is the last of the criminal cases tentatively docketed for this week.

The remainder of the jury panel other than those in the box, was excused by the court for the week.

Bobby Beardsley, charged with car theft, was found guilty by a jury Wednesday afternoon.

His punishment was set at four years in the state penitentiary.

His was the first case to go to trial at this week's criminal jury docket. He was accused of the theft of an automobile from Delores White.

Paul Arnold Reeves, accused of burglary, elected to plead guilty Wednesday afternoon.

Judge Ralph Caton assessed his punishment at three years and then suspended the sentence on good behavior.

This morning Lincoln Brumett, accused of forgery and passing, pleaded guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to three years in state prison. It was shown that Brumett has already served 207 days in county jail since his arrest in September, 1964. As a result, Judge Caton gave the defendant credit for that much time on his three-year sentence.

Human Ties Units Urged

AUSTIN (AP)—Racial tumult is averted when Negroes feel community leaders listen to their grievances, an Austin minister says.

The Rev. Lee Freeman, associate pastor of University Baptist Church, spoke before the House State Affairs Committee Wednesday night for a bill to authorize establishment of local human relations agencies.

"This is urgent—people want to be heard," he said. "If there is nobody listening at the local level, then they may resort to dramatic means to call attention to their problems."

"Demonstrations show that nobody is listening and communications have broken down."

"Here is an opportunity... to set up some machinery for our state to handle human relations problems before they become dangerous."

The bill, by Rep. Paul Haring of Goliad, declares a state policy that "government initiative in the field of human relations is needed at all levels, especially at the local level."

It further states that every Texan must receive equal opportunity in all phases of public life, regardless of race, religion or national origin.

LOCAL LEVEL — Local governments could pass local civil rights laws and set up human rights commissions to prevent discrimination, receive complaints of discrimination and investigate reports of racial tension.

"This legislation would have another purpose," said Dr. Joseph Witherspoon, a University of Texas law professor. "It would represent the conscience of the legislature and of the people of this state."

It further states that every Texan must receive equal opportunity in all phases of public life, regardless of race, religion or national origin.

Deadline Near, Funds Slow In Pest Battle

Deadline is near for raising funds in the county to aid in the war on the screwworm, according to Herb Helbig, county farm agent. So far, he said, response from local ranchers and cattlemen has been slow.

The county's share of the fund to continue the campaign to eradicate this pest from the livestock industry is very modest, Helbig pointed out. It is based on what is termed an "animal unit." The rate is 10 cents per unit. One cow or horse is considered a unit; five sheep, goats or swine make a unit. Farmers and ranchers are asked to contribute on the basis of the animal units on their places.

Helbig said that the deadline is April 12. So far, only $280 has been contributed.

Dispatches this morning showed a case of screwworm infection had developed in Arizona where it had been hoped the pest had been eradicated. Helbig pointed out that Howard County had no cases in 1964, but that the continuation of the warfare is imperative if the screwworms are to be kept in control.

Contributions may be mailed to Helbig at his office, paid in at the banks, given to Jimmy Taylor, or mailed to him at P. O. Box 1331, or to any of the committee members. Precinct 1 committee member is Harvey Adams; Precinct 2 committee member, Lawrence Davis; Precinct 3 committee member, Malcolm Patterson; and Precinct 4 committee member Orba Hamlin.

Teen-Age Girl Hooligans Strike

LONDON (AP) — A gang of teenage girl hooligans struck Wednesday night.

In the Hoxton area of the East End, they jumped four teenage girls from another section of London.

Two of the visiting girls were almost stripped. They were treated for injuries at a hospital. One was detained with head and rib injuries. Police said the attackers were about 12 in number, and wore jeans and leather jackets.

"The girls who attacked us," said Georgina Christopher, 13, "were like savages."

She said the attackers robbed them, kicked them, pushed, lit cigarettes in their hair and banged their heads against a wall.

Police detained five girls until after midnight and then sent them home in charge of their parents.

Arrests Made On Subways

NEW YORK (AP) — Uniformed policemen rode the subways Wednesday night, starting a new crackdown on crime beneath the city's streets. They made 15 arrests, mostly for minor offenses.

A doubling of serious crimes in the subways since 1963 prompted Mayor Robert F. Wagner to declare war on the hoodlums who rob, assault, terrorize and sometimes kill on the trains.

Wagner ordered 1,000 city policemen to assist Transit Authority policemen. Between 8 p.m. and 4 a.m., the hours of high crime rate, a patrolman was on each train and one was above ground at each of the 481 subway stations.

The force had hardly begun its first patrol when a policeman routed two muggers trying to snatch a woman's purse in a downtown Manhattan station. The woman held onto her bag. The two escaped.

Most of the arrests concerned such minor offenses as evading payment of fares, loitering and sleeping on station benches. However, one man was picked up for indecent exposure, another for possession of narcotics, and two for simple assault, one of the victims being a policeman.

Minister Found Stabbed To Death

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A minister on his way to address a brotherhood club was found stabbed to death Wednesday night.

The body of the Rev. Jefferson Banks, 63, was found lying on the shoulder of a road.

Detective A. E. Reynolds said the Negro minister was stabbed once near the body.

Next to the body lay the Bible he had carried for 15 years. He was assistant pastor of the New Star Bethel Baptist Church.

Hockley County Judge L. E. Owens Arrested

LEVELAND (AP)—Hockley County Judge L. E. Owens was arrested today on a charge of misappropriation of $127.90 in fines and court costs.

Owens was released on $1,000 bond and asserted, "The only thing I am guilty of is perhaps being lax. Other than that I have no comment."

County Atty. Harold Phelan said the case will be taken before a grand jury convening Monday.

The complaint was signed by Estanislado Gonzales.

Phelan said investigation of this particular case began two weeks ago, and Owens turned in the $127.90 to County Clerk R. O. Dennis Wednesday.

The prosecutor said Gonzales was fined $100 plus $27.90 court costs in 1962 and ordered to make restitution for accepting unemployment checks to which he was not entitled.

The campaign was touched off by a seaborne guerrilla landing on Johore's southeast coast last Feb. 25.

After a moment's hesitation and consideration, he replied: "Lady, if your question is 'can nurses' uniforms be deducted from your tax obligation,' the answer is 'yes'."

Fire Damages Rural Home

A fire at 3:15 p.m. Wednesday left considerable damage to a portion of a frame residence owned by W. J. (Junior) Ringering near the Fairview Gin, seven miles north of Big Spring.

Firemen arrived at the scene shortly after the fire was reported and broke open a rear door and stopped the blaze. Apparently the fire started in a heater closet in the center of the house, with heavy damage to the closet. While smoke damage resulted in the remainder of the house, the fire was confined to the closet and a portion of an adjacent hallway.

Mrs. A. O. Vanderford, who is employed at the Fairview Gin, called Big Spring firemen when she saw a heavy puff of smoke rise from the air conditioner on top of the house. Ringering praised the rapid arrival and action of Big Spring firemen as saving the house from complete destruction.

Firemen first entered the house through a rear window, then backed out when the heat was too intense and broke open the rear door. The fire broke through a hole in the closet ceiling into the roof.

Peters Taken To State Hospital

John Marvin Peters, 27, who was found to be insane by a 11th District Court jury Tuesday afternoon, has been transferred to the Big Spring State Hospital, Sheriff Aubrey Standard said today.

Standard was informed that the prisoner would be treated briefly at the hospital here and would probably be transferred to the Rusk Hospital for the Criminally Insane in a short time.

Survivors include the widow, Bernice; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Fendergrass of Amarillo; and three sons, Thomas of Dallas and Robert and James of San Diego.

He moved to San Diego in 1948 and founded San Diego Imperial Corp. in 1956. The company has seven savings and loan associations in Texas.

In 1921 he became assistant national bank examiner for the 11th Federal Reserve District at Dallas.

Air Crash Hurts Two Dallasites

JACKSONVILLE, Tex. (AP)—W. C. Fain and J. M. Hall, both of Dallas, were injured Wednesday when their light plane crashed near here in East Texas. Hospital attendants said neither was hurt seriously.

Beating Prisoner Charged Officers

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Two Prosperity police officers were arrested today and charged with taking a young Negro prisoner from the Prosperity jail early Monday and beating and threatening him.

J.P. Strom, state law enforcement division chief, said policeman Phillip Piampkin and night watchman L. Cornell Wise were charged with second-degree lynching — infliction of violence by a mob not resulting in death.

Freddie Jackson, 18, being held on a disorderly conduct charge, was beaten and threatened at the jail early Monday by five or six men wearing Ku Klux Klan-like regalia of hoods and white robes.

Wise said the men overpowered him and took the keys to the three-room jail on the ground floor at the rear of the Town Hall at Prosperity, a small town 30 miles northwest of Columbia in Newberry County.

Jackson reported the robbed men did not hurt him much, but only cuffed him.

Weather Forecast

A band of showers and thundershowers are expected to stretch from the lower Mississippi into the Lakes and Ohio Valley areas Thursday night with rain and showers in the Pacific states, Rockies. Slowly rising temperatures are forecast in the Lakes region. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP) monds, two clubs, one heart, and one spade.

 The heart opening, however, deprived South of his reintry to the North hand, before a second club trick has been established. If he plays the ace of hearts, draws trumps and subsequently takes a club finesse, the final result will be a two trick set. After East takes the king of clubs, South must still lose three spades.
 Declarer realized his predicament and, after a careful analysis, he uncovered a plan that made allowance for the king of clubs being offside. At trick one, he played the five of hearts from dummy! East won the trick with the king and he made the natural shift to his singleton nine of spades.
 South played the ace and then cashed the ace of diamonds. When the queen dropped from West's hand, declarer drew the remaining trump and proceeded to take the club finesse. East was in with the king; however, he had no safe exit card. Whether he returned a club or a heart, North must regain the lead and South is able to discard his three losing spades on the ace-queen of clubs and the ace of hearts.
 Had East continued with a heart at trick two, declarer would have been unable to effect his plan; however, he had nothing to lose by trying. The one spade overall had marked West with at least a five card suit, so that East had, at most, one spade. When he wins the opening lead, the temptation to shift to his singleton is hard to resist and, once South strips out the diamonds, the club finesse can be taken with complete assurance.

Poverty War Pursuit Urged By Governor

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally urged Texas state agencies today to take full advantage of President Johnson's "war on poverty."

"This program has great potential and I want to pursue it," Connally told the state inter-agency group which acts as an advisory group to the Texas branch of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Connally gave what he called a "four months progress report" on the Economic Opportunities Act in Texas.

The report included: The opening of a men's urban residential vocational training center at Camp Gary near San Marcos with 300 boys now, but prospects of 2,000 to 2,500 by next Oct. 1. "This camp probably is the star of all camps in the United States today," he said.

The approval of a rural conservation center near New Waverly in the Sam Houston National Forest with plans for a 100-man camp to develop and improve recreational facilities. Connally said proposals are being studied for other such camps in Angelina National Forest, the Big Bend National Park, at Sanford dam near Borger, on the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge, and the Laguna Atascosa National Wildlife Refuge near Brownsville.

Dog Patrol Nips Crime

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Since the word got around that there were police dogs on duty there hasn't been one reported robbery in the subway, police said today.
 "Once more women walk the concourse without fear showing in their faces," Patrolman John Radomski said in a report on the success of "Operation Dogs" which began four weeks ago.
 He said that in the first week of the dog patrol there were four juvenile arrests; since then, none.

 "The word that dogs were on patrol got around quickly," he noted.
 The patrol began with eight dogs. Now there are 11 and others will be added as they are trained.
 The dogs were sent into the subway system after an outbreak of rapes, robberies and other criminal offenses.

Apprehensive Over Viet, Says Senator

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said today after a closed session of senators with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and other officials he is "extremely apprehensive" about where the situation in Viet Nam may lead.

Fulbright said the Foreign Relations Committee, which he heads, heard pleas by McNamara, Undersecretary of State George W. Ball and AID Director David Bell for a reversal of a previous vote to cut military assistance funds by $115 million.

Asked at a news conference if he was encouraged by what the committee had been told about conditions in Viet Nam, Fulbright replied that it was not a matter about which anyone could be encouraged.
 "I am extremely apprehensive about where it may lead," the Arkansas senator said.

Ball told reporters that the State Department had filed a protest this morning against the action of Soviet fighters in firing cannons while buzzing West Berlin.
 McNamara and Ball asked the committee to rescind its cut in the authorization for military assistance and to restore an open-end authorization for use of such funds in Viet Nam. The committee previously had rejected the latter appeal, but had increased a contingent fund from $50 million to $100 million.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Thurs., April 8, 1965 3-A
 A State Department spokesman said today that the administration does not see any connection between the war in Viet Nam and the Berlin situation.

Four-Year Term Measure Delayed

AUSTIN (AP) — A House committee whipped out some parliamentary moves and demonstrated the importance of one vote this week in delaying for another week a proposal giving governors four-year terms.

An aide of Gov. John Connally, who has requested four-year terms, watched closely as the House Constitutional Amendments Committee wrangled for 20 minutes over the measure.

split almost evenly on the proposal.

Rep. Carl Parker flew to Austin from his sickbed in Port Arthur, his hometown, specifically to vote on the measure, which he favors.

Rep. Rayford Price of Frankston started the antics by asking the committee to accept his subcommittee's report favoring the proposal.

Rep. Charles Whitfield of Houston quickly called for a three-week postponement of the report, and Price asked the committee to table Whitfield's motion.

CALLS FOR VOTE

Price's motion failed 11-9, and Allen then called for a vote on the three-week postponement. A switch of a vote tied the count at 16-16, and Allen voted against postponement.

TV Program Retains Its Quality Drama

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC's "Hall of Fame" series, which turn up before all card-sending holidays, are handsomely mounted showcases for performers' tours de force.

In recent seasons the emphasis has been, less on gripping drama and more on genteel period pieces, each of which is actually a series of biographical vignettes.

It is always a joy to watch Julie Harris in action, whether she plays Queen Victoria from girlhood to old age, as in a "Hall of Fame" opus of another season, or Florence Nightingale from girlhood to middle-aged invalidism as she did in Wednesday night's "The Holy Terror."

The brilliant Miss Harris turned in her usual fine performance — the other characters were almost incidental. But James Lee's script, providing a once-over-lightly treatment of the career of this stubborn and dedicated reformer in Victorian Britain, proved less than stimulating.

Even with 90 minutes, time was too short to permit more than a sketchy summary of Florence Nightingale's struggle a hundred years ago to introduce better nursing care for the wounded and fever-stricken soldiers of the Crimean War.

Scientists Get Static From Rocket

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Scientists attempting to assess the performance of a tiny electric rocket engine orbited Saturday from Vandenberg Air Force Base are being frustrated by static in telemetry transmissions.

Called an ion engine, the 2.2 pound space vehicle is powered by a small nuclear reactor, Snap-10A.

The ion engine represents an advanced propulsion concept that could operate continuously in deep space flight to provide accelerations up to 10,000 m.p.h., technicians say.

Air Force spokesmen said Wednesday that the engine went through a warmup sequence on command Sunday but that subsequent static in the telemetry system has made analysis of its performance impossible.

The nuclear reactor has been functioning satisfactorily since it was turned on last Sunday.

Underground Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission says an underground nuclear test blast was fired Monday in Nevada. It was the seventh test announced this year. Its blast force was described as of low-intermediate yield meaning 20,000 to 200,000 tons of TNT.

Flood Waters Fill Homes In Midwest

By The Associated Press
 Destructive flood waters spilled over widespread areas of the Midwest today. Thousands of persons sought shelter as their homes were filled with water.
 Two persons were killed Wednesday in a southern Minnesota rain storm and two children were missing after they were seen playing near the swollen Battle Creek River in Minnesota's Ramsey County.

An estimated 1,000 persons have been forced from their homes in several Iowa areas. Dozens of communities were in danger of their creeping flood waters.
 Officials said flood damage in Cherokee, a town of 8,500 in northwestern Iowa could exceed $2 million.
 The Weather Bureau forecast up to 1 inch of rain by Friday. Cherokee was struck when the Little Sioux River surged to 27.1 feet, before dropping to 25 feet Wednesday. Flood stage is 17 feet.
 Northeastern Iowa battled the rampaging Cedar River. Central Iowa was hard pressed to hold back the Des Moines River. Some residential and business areas in the Waterloo-Cedar Falls vicinity were under water. An estimated 100 homes were evacuated in southwestern Fort Dodge.
 The Red Cross said it was carrying for 135 persons in shelters in Cherokee, Webster City, Marshalltown and Waterloo, and for 346 flood victims in several other cities.

 April rains which struck large portions of the country Wednesday, mixed with mild temperatures, melted the remnants of some deep snowpacks, filling rivers and streams to overflowing.
 Generally clear weather favored conditions in flooded portions of Minnesota, but new snow fell on top of the deep old snow cover along the Canadian border area, increasing the flood danger.
 The Red Cross said about 500 families had been evacuated in southern Minnesota and the figure was expected to jump to 1,200 within the next few days.

Legislators Hear Mexican Official

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas legislators wind up the 13th week of the 59th session today by hearing an address by Gov. Praxedis Balboa of Tamaulipas State in Mexico.
 Members of both houses expected only routine action before the 11 a.m. speech by the Mexican governor, whose state shares the longest border with Texas.
 Legislative budget writers working on the $3.6 billion general appropriations bill for 1966-67 congressional action on the medicare bill might clear some uncertainty from their chores.

MAJOR PROBLEM
 The federal legislation is a major problem to the legislature, which is trying to finish drafting a budget this month.
 The medicare bill could reduce state spending of about $21 million annually on hospital care for recipients of old age assistance. Current spending would be mostly taken over by the federal program.
 House Jurisprudence Committee members re-hashed the controversy over abolishing the death penalty Wednesday by hearing a long list of witnesses.
 Houston defense lawyer Percy Foreman told the committee the televising of one execution "would immediately abolish the death penalty—the hue and cry from the voters would make the least enthusiastic member be in favor of this bill."
BILL'S SPONSOR
 Rep. Charles Whitfield of Houston is sponsor of the measure.
 A University of Texas philosophy professor, Dr. John Silber, said detailed studies have produced no correlation between the death penalty and homicide rates.
 Silber said 11 states have abolished the death penalty and only eight states performed executions last year. Fifteen persons died, including five in Texas.

 The five in Texas, he said, "were Negroes and four had court-appointed attorneys."

Patch-Up Starts Of Lagging Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — Balding, bespectacled Paul Jennings is tackling the job of trying to patch up the battered International Union of Electrical Workers.

In wresting the IUE presidency from James B. Carey, Jennings inherited a long history of internal friction and a legacy of troubled labor relations with industry.

Many top labor leaders long have argued privately the IUE has no further reason for existence, that its 225,000 members would be better off split up among other unions in the highly competitive electrical industry.

But Jennings, slipping into Carey's chair in the IUE's ornate conference room Wednesday, appeared confident he is equal to the task.

"I think we'll be able to pull ourselves together again," he said.

REAL WINNER
The union's executive board put Jennings in command Wednesday. Carey announced his resignation Tuesday, a day after the Labor Department declared Jennings the real winner in last December's election, charging a misconduct of ballots and reporting of false election results by union trustees.

Jennings, 47, pledged at a news conference to step up the IUE's lagging organizing activities and to seek alliance with other unions in confronting General Electric Co. and other giant corporations at the bargaining table.

U.S. Goal Is Peace

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson reaffirmed this week the United States' commitment to "use our science and technology only in the cause of peace and in devotion to the vision of man."

Death Penalty Halt Debated

AUSTIN (AP)—Noted defense lawyer Percy Foreman suggested a televised execution Wednesday in hope, he said, of wiping out the death penalty in Texas.

He said it would have been abolished years ago if executions had not been switched from a public to a private place "and carried out in the early morning hours."

BEFORE PANEL
Foreman, who has worked 38 years in the courts and defended about 400 murder suspects, spoke for almost an hour before the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee for a bill to abolish capital punishment.

Rep. Charles Whitfield of Houston, sponsor of the bill, said the famed Clarence Darrow one day will be remembered as an "early day Percy Foreman."

Foreman called the death penalty "administrative murder" and predicted the U.S. Supreme Court will wipe it out within 10 years in all states.

"For every man executed at Huntsville (site of the state prison), there's blood on the hands of everyone here," he told a crowd of about 200 in the House chamber.

"We ought to resign from the human race if we can't resolve this problem."

Dr. John Silber, chairman of the University of Texas philosophy department, told the committee only eight states performed executions last year, killing 15 persons, compared to 160 deaths a year in the 1930s.

Of those 15 executions, he said, five were in Texas. All were Negroes.

Silber said 11 states have abolished the death penalty.

LIFE TERMS
Whitfield's bill would substitute life imprisonment with restricted parole for the death penalty in capital cases.

Lewis Berry of Austin, executive secretary of the Sheriff's Association of Texas, and A. C. Howerton of Fort Worth, a retired police officer, testified against the bill.

Berry said professional criminals "absolutely refuse to carry weapons because of the danger they may use them." He said some criminals have told him they were deterred from killing by the fear of execution.

"We should be in a position to assess the supreme penalty against murderers and the ravishers of young girls, particularly mere infants," he said.

Howerton said the death penalty is needed to deter heinous and vicious crimes.

Cong Broadcast Execution Edict

TOKYO (AP) — The Viet Cong broadcast a declaration today that they will execute a captured American civilian if Saigon authorities execute a Viet Cong sabotage team leader arrested in Da Nang.

The American is Gustav C. Hertz, 46, of Leesburg, Va., chief of the U.S. Aid Mission's Public Administration Division in Saigon, who disappeared on a motorcycle trip two months ago.

The saboteur is a 24-year-old Vietnamese scheduled to die Thursday. He was seized Sunday night as he was attempting to smuggle plastic explosives, Vietnamese people.

concealed in a transistor radio, into Da Nang's Grand Hotel. Da Nang police listed him as Le Dau.

The Viet Cong's political arm, the National Liberation Front, identified him in a statement relayed by Radio Hanoi as Nguyen Van Thai, a carpenter.

"If the U.S. and its henchmen execute Nguyen Van Thai," the broadcast said, "the front will immediately give order to execute G. Hertz, a member of the United States operation mission in South Viet Nam, who is guilty of spying activities and many bloody crimes against the South Vietnamese people."

Norwegian Housewives Buying Food In Denmark

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Norwegian housewives plagued by increasing prices take a trip abroad to save household money.

Thousands of them make the 24-hour round-trip voyage to neighboring Denmark to stock up on the vastly cheaper Danish foodstuffs.

The solution is available only to those Norwegians within easy reach of the southern ports, however.

The Socialist government is facing growing demands from the opposition parties for action to stop inflation.

Elections are scheduled next fall and the Conservatives, Liberals, Agrarians and Christian Democrats will try to topple the government of Einar Gerhardsen.

The people aboard fishing boats, behind machines and tools, counters and typewriters, are worrying.

The foodstuff index — 100 in 1959 — rose to 121 last December. The meat index rose to 126 and the fish index soared to 136. Fish is one of the most important factors in every Norwegian's diet.

Norway's income tax is graduated progressively, so wage increases shrink as the earnings rise. This makes many higher-paid employees prefer fringe benefits such as unlimited use of a company car or company-financed low-rental housing.

Washington (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., opening debate on the $1.3-billion elementary and high school aid bill, declared today "the educational crisis is one of the most serious problems facing this country today."

The one thing that can maintain U.S. pre-eminence in the world is proper use of its brainpower, Morse said.

Pioneer Expects Growth, Expansion To Continue

NEW YORK — C. I. Wall, president of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, speaking Wednesday before the New York Society of Security Analysts, outlined the factors behind his company's growth, and revealed plans to keep pace with expanding demand.

The Amarillo, Texas, based company will join with Odessa Natural Gasoline Company in the construction of a large diameter natural gas pipeline from the Delaware Basin area of West Texas to Odessa, Wall told the analysts. Initial cost of construction of the jointly owned pipeline will be approximately $5 million. It will connect with the present system of both companies, and will implement the gas supply available for customers. Likewise, the construction will provide for excess capacity for future expansion.

Wall said Pioneer's 1956 capital expenditures budget is about $10.5 million, up from $8 million last year. Costs will be financed by cash on hand and available from operations, together with short-term interim bank loans if needed. He anticipated that the company will spend approximately $45 million for capital additions during the next five years. As of now, the company expects to provide somewhat more than one-quarter of this through additional permanent financing.

Tracing operations over the last decade, Mr. Wall said population in the company's West Texas service area went up about 50 per cent. At the same time, he noted, Pioneer's gas customers increased 66 per cent, investment in plant 275 per cent, gas sales volume 172 per cent, revenues 236 per cent, and net income 200 per cent.

In 1964 all classifications of gas sales increased more than 10 per cent. Previously announced results for 1964 showed that operating revenues of $51.2 million were up 17.2 per cent over the previous year, consolidated net income of $7.5 million was up 23.6 per cent (excluding a special non-recurring item of $1.3 million in 1963).

item of $1.3 million in 1963).

Space Test Ends For 4

BROOKS AIR FORCE BASE, Tex. (AP) — The door of a big simulated space cabin swung open today for four airmen who existed for five weeks on a chocolate-and vanilla-flavored milk drink diet.

While they lived on a specially fortified diet of the milk drinks, the primary purpose of the experiment was to test helium as a possible component of the air which astronauts may breathe on future excursions into space. This was the United States' second big experiment with a helium-oxygen atmosphere.

The milk formula, a complete diet, was fed the men to permit exact measurements of how much food each man ate in a day.

Helium replaced nitrogen as a part of the men's breathing material because it does not cause sickness — sometimes known as the bends — when pressures radically change. Pure oxygen has been used on U.S. space flights. The Russians are believed using a mixture of nitrogen and oxygen much like the air on earth.

Two of the five weeks were spent at a simulated altitude of 18,000 feet during which the men breathed 46 per cent oxygen and 54 per cent helium.

L.A. Mayor Yorty Wins Second Term

By The Associated Press
Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles, an independent Democrat, easily turned back the challenge of Democratic Rep. James Roosevelt to win a second term as mayor of Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles mayorality contest topped a round of municipal balloting across the nation. In other major contests, Democrat A. J. Cervantes was elected mayor of St. Louis and

Power Sales Show Decrease

For the first time in months, power consumption by the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative system in March dropped below the comparable month of the previous year.

During the past month, 5,897,300 KWH of power were metered to members, compared with 6,181,234 during March, 1964. For the year, however, power sales amounted to 14,596,542 as compared to the first quarter of last year when 16,432,210 KWH were sold.

At the end of March there were 2,480 miles of line energized, a gain of seven miles for the month and 53 more than a year ago. There were 5,634 members connected, an increase of 29 for the month and 175 more than a year ago.

Roosevelt, 57, oldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, retains his seat in the House.

Complete unofficial returns gave Sorensen 47,630 votes to 25,499 for Dworak and 13,366 for Councilman Warren Swigart.

The 55-year-old Yorty had to poll more than 50 per cent of the vote to win re-election without a runoff. Returns from 4,622 of 5,955 precincts showed Yorty 196,432, Roosevelt 113,509 with the others way behind.

Cervantes had been heavily favored to capture the mayorality since he unseated three-term Democratic Mayor Raymond Tucker in last month's Democratic primary.

In Omaha, businessman A.V. Sorensen pined for more than the combined vote for his two opponents as he and Mayor James Dworak qualified for the May 11 runoff.

Old Immunity Doctrine Of State Teeters

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Supreme Court agreed Wednesday to hear a lawsuit which could result in reversal of the court's 22-year-old doctrine that charitable institutions, including churches, are immune from damage suits.

Attorneys for Mary A. Watkins won a hearing on their appeal of a suit against Southeast Baptist Church, Lubbock, for $3,000 in medical expenses. Both a Lubbock trial court and the Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals ruled in favor of the church under the Texas Supreme Court's 1943 immunity doctrine, which holds that a public charity should not be crippled or destroyed by damage suits.

The petition in the suit alleges Mrs. Watkins fell on a slick floor while attending services in the church in December, 1962, fracturing her right leg. Mrs. Watkins' lawyers contended the church had a liability insurance policy.

Liston Fights Again, In Hollywood's Corner

Former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston talks with actress Carol Lynley after going a few fast rounds in the ring earlier this week — for the sake of a Hollywood movie. He and Miss Lynley are appearing in the picture, "Harlow" — a picture about the life of the late screen star Jean Harlow. Sonny appears in ring scenes, portraying a boxer of the 1930's. He is scheduled to fight Cassius Clay late next month. (AP WIRE-PHOTO).

Nicklaus Is Rated At 4-1 In Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — "It's the first round of the 72-hole, don't mind being the favorite as long as it stands that way Sunday night," said Jack Nicklaus. The strapping blond bomber today in stepping to the tee for winner on the winter circuit, said he is fit and ready to match strokes with 90 other leading pros and amateurs of the world in the first prestige tourney of the year.

Nicklaus, the 1963 Masters king, was a 4-1 choice in the informal odds. Right behind him came Arnold Palmer, the defending champion and record four-time winner, at 6-1.

The odds drop to 8-1 for a quartet rated by Nicklaus and Palmer as their chief contenders. The four are Doug Sanders, of Ojai, Calif., only winner of two tournaments on the winter tour; Billy Casper, of Peacock Gap, Calif., the onetime fat man who has thinned down to 185 pounds; Tony Lema, the British Open king from San Leandro, Calif., whose game has been off lately, and Gary Player, the poised, muscular little fellow from South Africa.

Nicklaus demonstrated why he is rated as the man to beat when he toured the par 36-36-72, 6-980-yard layout of the Augusta National Golf Club Tuesday in 67.

"My short game was sloppy," the 25-year-old slugger said. This was his first round on the course since he walloped par with 68, 69, 68, 68 and 70 last week — a week in which he was able to concentrate on his game without the distractions of the huge galleries that follow the stars here in practice.

"My driving has been a little weak and my putting has been off," said Palmer, winner of four Masters in the last seven years.

"But I like this course and I hope my game will come around," added the 35-year-old Palmer, who is listed from Laurel Valley, Pa.

"My game is just terrible," moaned Lema.

"My weight is down to 185 pounds," said Casper, who once scaled 225. "But I'm stronger than ever. Just let the putts drop and we'll have some fun."

Lamesa, Snyder Tangle Friday

SNYDER—Lamesa will bring a 2-0 District 3-AAA won-loss record here Friday, when it plays Snyder at 4 p.m.

Snyder won its lone conference assignment, having beaten Sweetwater, 7-2.

Lamesa captured its second straight game Tuesday by knocking off Levelland at home, 5-0. Over-all, the Tornados are 7-3.

Sophomore Terry Davis pitched the win over Levelland for Lamesa, setting the losers down with three hits.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Although the Big Spring Steers were officially timed in 42.4 in winning the sprint relay in the Carlsbad Relays last weekend, most of the timers had the Steers in a blistering 42.2 and the Longhorns might have done even better had they not had two relatively poor handoffs.

Corpus Christi Miller set a new record at the Texas Relays in Austin the same day with a 42.2 clocking.

One thing is for sure: Joe Jaure, Big Spring's 9.7 sprinter, is the fastest football back returning to competition in District 2-AAAA next season. The Steers may do more running than in any season in many years.

Twenty Masters golfers are traveling in luxury during this week in Augusta, thanks to a Buick dealer down there. He has assigned 20 of the company's finest cars to the top linksters entered there.

Donnie Anderson, the Texas Tech football star, will probably spend the summer here again, working with Troy Love and the Reed Roller Bit people.

Indications are that he'll arrive here about June 15. The stellar Red Raider's home is in Stinnett.

Mike Frizzell of Midland Lee, most valuable basketball player in District 2-AAAA the past season, is bound for Rice University.

Frizzell, who stands 6-5, broke all scoring records for the Rebels the past season.

Total income from ticket sales in the recent San Angelo Relays amounted to $915.81—down from previous years.

The meet promoters didn't have to pay out huge guarantees to the colleges as in the past, however. The cinder show again operated in the red but not as much as when the college teams were on hand.

Baxter Moore, the one-time Big Spring halfback, is out for spring football drills at Texas Tech.

Baxter entertained the idea of transferring to SMU for a long time but decided against it after being told that he would lose a year of eligibility, even though he has never played for Tech.

Moore is remembered by many football buffs here as the boy who intercepted a desperation pass by Alan Moravcik in Odessa a couple of years ago and stopped a desperate last-gasp rally by Permian, enabling Big Spring to escape with a dramatic 22-20 victory.

The contest was one of the most exciting in the annals of Big Spring football.

Harold King and Joe Newbill, who hold the head coaching jobs in football at Midland's two high schools, recently had their contracts renewed for two years. Both were given slight salary increases.

Unless the 1965 Kentucky Derby field is the smallest in 60 years, the total number of horses to run in the celebrated event will reach 1,000 Saturday, May 1. Total number of starters now stands at 994.

Soph From Texas Happy In Work At Arkansas

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —David Dickey may have been the happiest football player at the University of Arkansas as the Razorbacks went back to work Wednesday after 3 1/2 months of basking in the glory of a perfect season.

The sophomore tailback from Palestine, Tex., had good reason to be happy. It was Dickey's first practice session with the Razorbacks.

The 6-foot-1, 195-pound speedster missed his freshman year because of knee surgery to mend a torn ligament and remove cartilage. Dickey faced the start of spring drills with a "mixture of butterflies and excitement," he confessed.

"I was really looking forward to it," he said. "There was not as much contact as I had expected, but Coach (Frank) Broyles indicated that it was to come shortly . . ."

"All my life I just wanted to play college football. I want to play offense, but I want to play so much I'll play anywhere."

AP Poll Has Cards, Yanks Atop Leagues

By MURRAY CHASS Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees, who couldn't beat Johnny Keane and the Cardinals in the 1964 World Series, will get another crack at St. Louis — with Keane on their side — this year.

The Yankees were voted into a record-shattering sixth straight American League pennant by a narrow margin in balloting by 266 sports writers and broadcasters in The Associated Press' annual pre-season baseball poll.

St. Louis received an even slimmer margin over Philadelphia and Cincinnati.

The Yankees, with Keane having replaced Yogi Berra as their manager, recorded 60 more points than Baltimore and 160 more than the Chicago White Sox. The Cardinals, now under Red Schoendienst, outpolled the Phillies by 76 points and the Reds by 91.

St. Louis, which won the 1964 pennant on the last day of the season after being selected for third in the pre-season poll, had a total of 2,189 points while Philadelphia had 2,113 and Cincinnati 2,098.

MARGIN SLIM

The world champions' slim triumph was built despite their having received only 40 first-place votes compared with 77 for the Phillies and 73 for the Reds, a rare disparity in the poll.

Votes were counted on the basis of 10 points for first, nine for second, etc., down to one for 10th.

The Yankees' selection was made certain by 109 first-place votes, far more than the Orioles' 67 and the White Sox' 73. New York finished with 2,400 points, Baltimore 2,340 and Chicago 2,240.

In proving the prognosticators correct last year, the Yankees won the pennant by one game over Chicago and two over Baltimore. St. Louis nosed out Philadelphia and Cincinnati by one game each.

The voting, first-place votes in parentheses:

Popups Give Astros Trouble In Stadium

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros agree a thrown and batted ball behaves in the $31.6 million Harris County Domes Stadium about like it does outdoors.

But catching it can present a problem. The Astros tested the multipurpose stadium for the first time in force Wednesday with batting practice and an intra-squad game.

During the afternoon batting practice most of the Astros had trouble catching pop and fly balls as the sun penetrated the dome and reflected against the bright center field seats.

Another intra-squad game is scheduled this afternoon as the Astros want to familiarize themselves as much as possible with their new home before they introduce indoor major league baseball with a six-game Friday to Monday exhibition and league opening schedule.

Houston and the New York Yankees open the stadium Friday night and the Astros play Baltimore Saturday afternoon and Sunday night and the Yankees again Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. Houston and Philadelphia play the league opener Monday night.

During the batting practice, the players had trouble tracking the ball against the grillwork of the skylights and girders of the roof.

General Manager Paul Richards and Field Manager Luman Harris both said they felt the matter could be corrected without difficulty.

Richards said the lights would be turned on for the intra-squad game this afternoon.

"I think it will be all right," he said.

Harris termed it a minor problem and added:

"If everyone had been wearing sunglasses, there would have been no problem."

After noticing such veterans as Nellie Fox, now a coach, misjudge the ball several times, Richards asked newsmen:

"How many day games do we have?"

He was told there will be 21 day games, 18 starting at 1:30 p.m., CST, and three at 3:15 p.m., CST.

"I didn't realize it was that many," he said.

Only four day games were played in the temporary stadium last year because of the heat.

"You are going to have to watch it close at this time (4:30 p.m.) of the day," Richards said.

Club officials have said it may be necessary to keep the arc-lights on even during afternoon games.

Many of the Astros wandered around the new stadium like it was a museum.

Catcher Ron Brand called it "fantastic" but he added "it may be hard to catch a fly ball."

"Any outfielder who catches a fly ball should get a $50 raise," recommended pitcher Ken Johnson.

"Does your curve ball really break, Woody?" someone asked relief pitcher Hal Woodeshick.

"I don't know," answered the honest southpaw, "I ain't got a curve ball."

Texas Opposes Rice Brigade

By The Associated Press Texas, pacing the Southwest Conference baseball race with a 4-1 record, plays Rice today while Baylor and Southern Methodist seek to break a second place tie.

The SMU Mustangs moved into the second-place deadlock with Baylor Wednesday when they blanked the Bears 3-0 in the only conference game of the day.

The two teams, which play again in Dallas today, have identical 4-2 conference marks. Rice, which journeys to Austin today for the first of a two game series with Texas, is 4-2 in the conference battle.

Southern Methodist left-hander Bob Bohren limited the Bears to five hits in picking up his third conference victory Wednesday.

Bohren struck out two to nip a second inning Baylor threat before the Mustangs erupted for three runs in the fourth inning for the winning margin.

Roger Maris Says He'll Sue Accuser In Brawl

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Roger Maris, acquitted of a charge he slugged a man in a bar fight last week, said he had decided to sue for more than $100,000.

"I did not swing at anybody," the New York Yankee outfielder told Municipal Court Wednesday.

"I was shoved from behind and thrown against the plaintiff. That was all."

After the judge found him innocent and he rushed to a spring training game, Maris announced he was going to file a civil suit against his accuser, Jerome Modzelewski, a 25-year-old male model.

Modzelewski, who divides his time between agencies here and in Chicago, also has pressed charges against Clete Boyer, the Yankees' third baseman. That trial is set for May 11.

A bartender, Robert J. Burns, said he was trying to quiet Boyer "when the bang happened. That's when Boyer hit him (Modzelewski)."

Burns and another witness said they did not see Maris take a swing.

Modzelewski and his red-haired companion, 21-year-old Angela Della Vedova of Sudbury, Ont., testified that the rhubarb started when they were leaving Nick's Bar the night of April 1.

Modzelewski said he heard an objectionable remark — so objectionable that it was not allowed in testimony — directed at him from the ballplayers' table.

"I asked Mr. Boyer for an apology," Modzelewski said. He went on:

"Boyer said, 'let's go out and fight.'"

"I said, 'I don't want to fight. I'm here for an apology.'"

Scribe Sees Cards Again Loop's Best

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals will shade the Cincinnati Reds in the National League this season with Philadelphia, San Francisco and Milwaukee snapping at their heels. If Sandy Koufax can work regularly, the Los Angeles Dodgers also will be up there. Only Houston and

New York appear hopelessly out of it. Nobody has repeated in the National League since Milwaukee in 1957-58 and only three teams have won successive pennants in the last 20 years. The Cards are a solid ball club at every position, a little thin in reserves and possibly in the bullpen. Like all the other teams, the Cards could be

Favorites In 100

Pictured above are two of the boys who will be favored in the 100-yard dash of the District 2-AAAA track and field meet, which takes place in Midland Saturday. The two, Joe Jaure (left) of Big Spring, and John Kennedy (center), San Angelo, were being honored for placing in the century dash in the San Angelo Relays. The boy at the right is Rodney Gann of Stephenville. Kennedy has run a 9.5 100 this spring while Jaure has been clocked in 9.7. (Photo by Kenneth Good).

Morton's Splits Two Exhibitions

Morton's Foods split an exhibition doubleheader here Wednesday night with Midland Technical Drilling, dropping the first game, 3-2, and winning the second game, 6-5.

The second game was a 10-inning duel between Morton's Cotton Mize and Billy Paul Thomas and four pitchers for the Midland team. Tito Arenobia scored the winning run in the top of the 10th inning after getting on base with a single. He scooted home with the winning run on two wild pitches.

Mize was given credit for the win, coming on in the sixth inning. N. E. Stephens was the loser.

In the first game the Midland team shaded the locals, 3-2, with Mize the loser and Stephens the winner. Midland made all three of its runs in the fourth frame. Morton's managed a two run rally in the bottom of the seventh, but to no avail.

Big Spring collected four hits in the opening game while Midland accounted for seven.

Boyd Reeco started on the mound for Midland but lasted only one inning, although the locals failed to score. He was followed to the rubber by Dan Springer, Don Carter and Stephens.

Al Kaline On Rampage As Bengals Triumph

By The Associated Press
For 19 games this spring, the thunder that resides in Al Kaline's bat sounded like a whimper and the notion that the Detroit Tigers might have an outside shot at the American League pennant came out like whistling in the dark.

Kaline, around whom the Tiger attack has revolved ever since he won the batting championship 10 years ago, had been struggling through training with his batting average hovering near .150. And Tiger brass were aware that Kaline had a less than spectacular season last year, were a bit concerned.

Finals In Girls Track Meet Will Be At Night

The Forsan invitational high school girls track meet will open Friday with preliminaries getting under way at 1:30 p.m. at the Forsan track.

Finals are slated for 7:30 p.m. under the lights. Twenty-five invitations were sent out and W. M. Romans, meet director, Forsan coach and principal, expects about 20 teams to enter.

The veteran right fielder batted .293, second lowest figure in his career, last year with just 17 homers, a drop of 10 from his 1963 figure. In 19 years this spring he had driven in just three runs and had no homers.

But Al seems to have come alive at last and his awakening came not a moment too soon for acting Manager Bob Swift.

Bailey Howell Is Chief Playmaker In Victory

BALTIMORE (AP)—The pressure didn't bother Bailey Howell. He was so relaxed, he was floating.

After undergoing intensive treatment and taking pills to relax his back muscles, the veteran Baltimore cornerman led the Bullets to a 122-115 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers Wednesday night.

Although he was a doubtful starter until two hours before game time, Howell scored 29 points and grabbed 17 rebounds and survived 40 minutes of punishing basket without further aggravating his old back injury.

He came from behind to triumph gave Baltimore its first victory in the National Basketball Association's best-of-7

Puzzle of Wednesday, April 7, Solved

College Board Defended By Gov. Connally

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Gov. John Connally has defended his coordinating board for Texas colleges and universities as a move to fortify strong institutions and eliminate "this disease of provincialism."

The speech was read for Connally by an administrative assistant. He said the governor was ill and unable to attend the inauguration of Dr. Arleigh Templeton, new president of Sam Houston State Teachers College.

The governor said that at times it may become necessary to "comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable."

"I don't doubt for a moment that the coordinating board will be prepared to support challenging leaders and new programs, just as it will be unprepared to tolerate stagnation and paper plans without substance, designed to bolster institutional egos," he said.

STRONG BOARD
 Templeton, who was executive director of the governor's committee on education beyond the high school which recommended a strong coordinating board, became the eighth president of Sam Houston.

Connally said it will cost institutional, community regional pride if Texas schools are to achieve eminence.

"But in education, pride should have its legitimate boundaries, lest it become our own downfall," he said.

"Every college cannot be an island of education, governed independently and hotly competing with other islands a few miles distant."

AIM: QUALITY
 He went on to point out, however, that each institution in Texas "will be expected to devise its own niche in our program of higher education" and "each will have the challenge to become a quality institution within its role and scope."

Quality, he said, is the chief aim of the coordinating board.

Connally addressed the audience by telephone hookup from Austin before his speech was read. He congratulated the college on getting Templeton as its president.

The governor described Templeton as "a visionary with a tough mind."

"He is, today, one of our strongest and most articulate leaders in the achievement of educational excellence and eminence in Texas," Connally said. Templeton acknowledged that Texas is beginning a new era in higher education.

Crash Kills West Texans

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP) — Two persons were killed and three injured Wednesday in a two-car crash 18 miles west of Monahans.

The dead were identified as Cecil Ray Reimer, 28, of Odessa, and Rita Mathena, 58, of Monahans.

Injured were Ralph Leonard Effinger, 19, Odessa; Billy Potter Mathena, 55, husband of the dead woman; and Larry J. Reimer, 21, brother of the dead man.

The wreck happened at 2 a.m. at the intersection of farm roads 776 and 1219.

Tax Refund Plan

AUSTIN (AP)—A House subcommittee is considering a plan to use uncollected tax refunds on gasoline bought by Texas boat owners to improve water recreation spots.

Required maintenance: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. He is the son of the late Gen. "Vinegar Joe" Stilwell of World War II fame.

Ailing Star 'Disappointed'

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The husband of Oscar-winning Patricia Neal says the star, recuperating from three massive strokes, got her feelings hurt somewhat when she watched this year's Academy Awards on television.

British writer Roald Dahl disclosed Wednesday that Miss Neal, 39, had expected that her stand-in at the ceremonies might make some mention of her. But Audrey Hepburn, a close friend who made the best actor presentation Monday night in Miss Neal's place, didn't do so.

The only reference to Miss Neal, a winner last year for her performance as the housekeeper in "Hud," came when Bob Hope read a telegram from the ailing actress.

Dahl said the failure of Miss Hepburn to say anything about Miss Neal's absence from the ceremonies caused his wife to feel "a little hurt and disappointed."

Washington (AP) — Most members of the House didn't know about it when they voted last Monday to appropriate $325,000 to buy a special armored automobile for President Johnson and another $197,000 to buy a car for Secret Service guards.

The money was in the annual appropriations bill providing funds for the Secret Service and other agencies.

A letter from Robert Carswell, special assistant to the secretary of the Treasury, justifying the outlay for the two cars was not published during hearings. Subcommittee Chairman Rep. Thomas Steed, D-Okla., confirmed its existence Wednesday.

Carswell's letter said President Johnson had nothing to do with the request.

City Concedes On Overcharge

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Victoria Welcher says the city of Houston owes her $385 because of overcharges on her water bill dating back to 1944.

The 78-year-old woman, who has a file in the City Water Department almost as big as she is, sat silent and smiling Wednesday as her problem was described to the City Council by a niece, Mrs. Paul E. Ross.

"Stalag 17" Opens Tonight

This scene of a group of American POW's in a German prison camp, who suddenly get a chance to look at pictures of girls, is part of the production by Big Spring Civic Theatre of "Stalag 17" tonight at 8:15 p.m. at the main building of Howard County Fair grounds.

Civic Theatre Opens Arena Style Stage Play Tonight

By PRESTON MAYNARD
A Big Spring Civic Theatre production set in the bleak, but at times comical, situation of a World War II German prisoner of war camp, "Stalag 17" opens tonight at 8:15 p.m. at the Howard County Fair main building. The play is Big Spring's first taste of arena theatre. The story is a combination of the suspense which builds around the question of which POW is an informer to the Germans, and of humor as it unfolds the tensions, jokes, fears and hopes of American soldiers waiting for Allied troops to break into Germany and end their imprisonment. For Big Spring theatre-goers, the production offers a new experience in its setting inside the fair building. The arena theatre is a means by which the audience is almost a part of the action, as the three sides of the stage area bounded by seating put the audience within a few feet of the actors. The Civic Theatre group has done an apparently meticulous

Excuses Novel, But Drivers Still Ticketed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A motorist made a high-speed exit from the Hollywood Freeway and ran through a red light. But the driver had a quick alibi for the California Highway Patrol officer who halted him: "If I make any sudden stops my wife spills her breakfast. It makes her mad."

The officer looked into the car. There sat the driver's wife, a plate of bacon and eggs in her lap.

MOST NOVEL
Patrol officers list this among the most surprising alibis yet offered for traffic offenses — although, as a compilation by administrative aides shows, Southern California's officers must by now have surely heard them all.

Like the time the gray-haired woman roared her powerful sedan past a stop signal's flashing red light, and explained when caught: "But officer, I went through between flashes."

Or the night Patrolman E. B. Foster stopped a motorist speeding 50 m.p.h. in a 25 m.p.h. zone during a heavy fog. The driver's excuse: "It was so foggy I couldn't read my speedometer."

ANOTHER EXCUSE?
None of these excuses saved the motorists from traffic tickets. But Foster, whose beat is South Los Angeles, remembers once he stopped a young woman for speeding and she told him she was hurrying because she had left her purse in a market and wanted to recover it before someone grabbed it.

"All right," said Foster, tired of alibis. "Let's go." He escorted her back to the store and went in with her. There on the counter was the young woman's purse. She didn't get a ticket.

City Plans Next Step In Water Rate Battle

The City of Big Spring may take its legal fight for a new contract for water supplied the Big Spring State Hospital to the Texas Supreme Court, if the court grants an application to be filed by the city for a writ of error.

Wednesday the Third Court of Civil Appeals in Austin affirmed a decision by the 53rd District Court there which previously upheld the state's position that the contract signed in 1937 for the city to furnish water to the hospital at 10 cents per 1,000 gallons remain valid.

City Attorney John Burgess said this morning the city would file a motion for a re-hearing within two weeks and, should the Third Court of Civil Appeals overrule that motion, the city would then file an application for a writ of error with the Texas Supreme Court.

"If the Supreme Court grants the application for a writ of error, then we will argue the case before the court," Burgess said. "If not, then the case is over."

He said if the court should not grant an application for a writ of error, which is the legal step to bring the case to the state's highest court, then in effect the court will have said it approves the opinion of the Court of Civil Appeals.

"Our big problem now is to get the Supreme Court to take the case," Burgess said. He said he had asked the Texas Municipal League to file amicus curiae or "friend of the court" briefs with the Supreme Court.

Law prohibits a city from making a gift.

Injury Fatal To Gen. Hester

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — Maj. Gen. John K. Hester, commander of the U.S. 17th Air Force, died today of brain damage suffered in a parachute jump. Hester, 48, had been in a coma since the accident April 2.

Hester was injured when he landed with a partly inverted chute after jumping from an altitude of 1,250 feet. Doctors performed emergency surgery to relieve pressure and remove a clot from the brain's surface, but Hester never regained consciousness.

Hester had attended jump school to better understand the Air Force role in providing support for the Army.

The fatal jump was the final one in a series of five. A native of Plains, Mont., Hester is survived by his widow, Helen, and two children, Virginia and John K. III.

WT Water Institute Meeting Set April 26

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech will open its campus to a special meeting of the West Texas Water Institute April 26, to be specifically concerned with "federal programs affecting the future of West Texas water resources," according to Dr. Gerald W. Thomas, chairman of the institute.

Dr. Thomas indicated that many key state and national political figures would be present when the meeting convenes at 10 a.m. This group is headed by Utah's Sen. Frank E. Moss and Texas' Congressman Walter Rogers, Borger. Congressman George Mahon may also attend.

The institute chairman added that the Texas Tech Institute of Science and Engineering will be a co-sponsor of the one-day seminar which will be held in the Tech Student Union Building.

Primary item on the meeting agenda will be several discussions on the North American Water and Power Alliance (NAWAPA). The NAWAPA project, conceived by researchers and engineers of the Los Angeles-based Ralph M. Parsons Co., would affect 33 United States as well as several Canadian provinces and Mexican states.

This plan proposes that runoff water from Canadian rivers would be carried by a system of coastal canals, siphons, locks and giant water pumps and dumped into such "dry land" reservoirs as the Pecos and Canadian Rivers in Texas. Some of this water could also be used for re-charge of the Ogallala Formation, Dr. Thomas said.

"Due to water's vital importance to our area, we urge all leaders of industry, agriculture, business and government as well as the general public to attend this meeting," Dr. Thomas declared.

The Water Institute, headquartered on the Tech campus, is an area-wide organization made up of more than 25 governmental agencies and private organizations whose purpose is improving education and research related to West Texas Water.

Peanut Butter Chip Pie Looks, Tastes Good

Just as good as it looks is this peanut butter chip and pecan pie! You'll like the small surprises of new peanut butter chips mixed with the pecans... quite different, and oh, so yummy! Store this pie overnight, covered, if there's any left from dinner... but do not refrigerate.

PEANUT BUTTER CHIP PECAN PIE

- 3 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 1/4 cups dark corn syrup
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 pkg. (5 1/2 oz.) peanut butter flavor chips
- 1/2 cup pecan halves
- 1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell
- Prepared whipped topping mix or whipped cream (optional)

Combine eggs, syrup, sugar, salt, and vanilla in mixing bowl. Mix well. Stir in chips and nuts. Pour into pie shell. Bake at 375 for 50 to 55 minutes, or until filling is slightly puffed across top. Cool. Garnish with prepared whipped topping just before serving.

Potato Meringue

An extra couple of egg whites in the refrigerator? Make them into a meringue (as you would for pie) and pile the meringue over mashed and flavored sweet potatoes in a baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven about 20 minutes to heat the potatoes and fluff the egg whites with gold.

PROUD PEANUT PECAN PIE

Mushrooms Now For Commoners

Mushrooms were originally considered a dish fit only for royalty and the rich.

The pharaohs of Egypt, a thousand years before Christ, monopolized wild mushrooms for their own use because they felt they were too delicate to be eaten by common people. This attitude has prevailed to modern day. It is only recently that mushrooms have been considered a delicacy to be enjoyed by people of all income levels and food tastes.

What a difference mushrooms make in a dish. Their subtle flavor and smooth texture add a touch of glamor to any recipe, whether it is a casserole, gravy, soup or salad.

Tasty German 'Birds' Provide Hearty, Inviting Family Fare

When substantial, hearty fare is sought for satisfying man-size appetites, look to a meat dish styled in German attire.

German Beef Birds are typical of central Europe, for people there come to meals seeking filling foods. Note the amazement when the men discover they're actually getting two meats at one meal!

A full cut beef round steak is pounded and divided into 6 serving pieces. Then a smoked sausage link is placed on each piece of beef, and the "birds" are formed by rolling the meat like a jelly roll and fastening with wooden picks.

Since the Germans are also sauerkraut lovers, this tart vegetable cooks with the meat, as do tomatoes, onion and carrot seeds. Reba Staggs, meat cookery expert, points out that the liquid from the sauerkraut and the tomatoes becomes the braising liquid as the round steak slowly cooks until tender.

GERMAN BEEF BIRDS

- 1 beef round steak, cut 1/2 inch thick
- 6 smoked sausage links
- 2 tbsps. lard or drippings
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 can (16 ounces) sauerkraut

1 can (16 ounces) tomatoes
1 medium onion, sliced
2 tps. caraway seeds
Pound steak to 1/4 inch thickness. Cut into six serving pieces. Place a sausage link on each piece of steak and roll as a jelly roll. Fasten with wooden picks or skewers. Brown meat slowly in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Season with salt. Drain sauerkraut, reserving liquid. Add tomatoes, onion, caraway seeds and liquid from sauerkraut. Cover tightly and cook slowly 1 hour. Add sauerkraut and continue cooking 30 minutes longer or until meat is tender. 6 servings.

10th Anniversary Tea Held By Hyperions

A 10th anniversary tea was held by the 1955 Hyperion Club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Curley, 600 Edwards Boulevard.

Mrs. Norman Read, in whose home the club was organized April 15, 1955, was a guest. Mrs. Albert Smith and Mrs. J. T. Anderson, both charter members, are still active in the club.

Refreshments were served to the 43 members and guests from a table covered with a white linen cut-work cloth accented with bouquets of yellow and white spring flowers. Tall yellow tapers in silver candleabra enhanced the ornate silver appointments.

Mrs. Bill Johnson, in telling the history of the organization, said that the club was formed to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the 1905 Hyperion Club. Names of past officers and accomplishments of the group were reviewed.

Mrs. Harriet Cauble presented the program on basic skin care. She stressed that a clear complexion comes from within, starting with good food and proper rest, and if this is neglected the use of creams and lotions on the outside will be ineffective.

The three basic steps in skin care are cleansing, correcting and protecting. She pointed out that skin defects should be cleared up, not covered up.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. J. B. Apple, Mrs. James Cape, Mrs. Bill Edwards, Mrs. James Owens and Mrs. L. A. Zant.

DEAR ABBY

Nothing To Talk About

DEAR ABBY: I am a respectable married woman who has been married for two years. (No children.) My husband had to go out of town on business for a week, so last evening a married friend invited me over for dinner. She had some other people there, too. One was a man who was watching it as his wife was out of town. (He's a friend of my husband's.) Well, after a fun evening, this man offered to drive me home. I accepted. On the way home he actually tried to talk me into either going to his place, or letting him spend the night at my place! He was very persuasive, but I told him I wouldn't consider such a thing. I was so upset once I got in the house, I called my husband up long distance and told him all about it. He was furious. Then, to calm my nerves, I called up my husband's brother and told him about it, too. My brother-in-law said I shouldn't have called my husband and told him. I said if I had neglected to tell my husband what took place, if it should happen to come to light later, he might wonder why, if nothing happened, I didn't mention it. I still think I was right. My brother-in-law says I am wrong. What do you think? ABOVEBOARD

DEAR ABOVE: I say your brother-in-law is right. You could have remained above-board and kept the story to yourself. It sounds to me as though you expect a medal for behaving the way all respectable married women are expected to behave.

DEAR ABBY: I have a little story to tell those two boys who poked fun at their neighbor lady for having her Christmas tree up in March:

The Newton (Pa.) train station was practically across the street from my sister's home. Her son had been wounded in Korea and when Christmas came and went without his return, she kept her tree up in hopes that he would get back in time to see it.

She watched every train that pulled into the station, and one day in March she saw a soldier get off. It was not her son, but she knew him to be a local lad, so she ran to greet him with a hug and kiss. She asked him what he wanted most, and he said, "I would give anything just to see a Christmas tree!" "Come with me," she said, and she took him across the street. And when he saw that Christmas tree, ablaze with lights, he burst into tears. So did my sister. Do you think she regretted keeping her Christmas tree up until March?

DEAR ABBY: I would like to answer the shoe manufacturer's wife from Mt. Vernon, Illinois, concerning pointed-toe shoes fitting the human foot if the size is right. I have to disagree with that.

In 29 years of practicing Podiatry, I have never seen a normal foot that is pointed. If the shoe is not shaped like the human foot, it cannot give the toes the freedom they need for comfort.

There is not enough room in your column to describe the damage done to the human foot by the pointed-toe shoes.

Very truly yours,
Dr. A. R. Gunn, D.S.C.
Quincy, Illinois

DEAR FROM: It's great for selling hunting equipment. But time spent with one's boy, whether it's hunting, building a fence, or just sitting around chatting, is equally good insurance against not having to go hunting for him.

Problems: Write to ABBY, Box 67900, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Johnson Offers Peace Talks, Asian Economic Aid Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says the United States is ready — without preconditions — to sit down at the bargaining table with the Communists to try to negotiate an end to the war in Viet Nam.

And even before any peace talks start, the President said Wednesday night in a major foreign policy address, the United States is prepared to initiate a massive cooperative economic development program for all of Southeast Asia, including Communist North Viet Nam.

As a starter, Johnson told the nation by radio and television from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, he will ask Congress to authorize a $1-billion American investment in the program.

He proposed that U.N. Secretary-General U Thant launch the plan, invited all industrialized countries including the Soviet Union to join and said he is naming a special team of prominent Americans headed by Eugene Black, former president of the World Bank, to guide U.S. participation.

"NOT WITHDRAWING"
But while showing the Communist world the carrot, the President did not forget the stick.

He said of U.S. involvement in the war at the side of South Viet Nam: "We will not withdraw, either openly or under the cloak of a meaningless agreement."

And while he said the United States is unconditionally ready to discuss peace, he said: "Such peace demands an independent South Viet Nam — securely guaranteed and able to shape its own relationships to all others — free from outside interference — tied to no alliance — a military base for no country."

"These are the essentials of any final settlement."

Johnson said there are many approaches to a peaceful settlement of the war, that old agreements may have to be reaffirmed or strengthened with new ones.

"We have stated this position over and over again 50 times and more to friend and foe alike," he said. "And we remain ready — with this purpose — for unconditional discussions."

The estimated 1,200 people in the university's Shriver Hall auditorium interrupted the speech 15 times with applause. Mrs. Johnson studied her husband intently; Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey beamed his approval.

With them on the platform were Mrs. Humphrey and the Johnsons' daughters, Lynda and Luci. All motored the 40 miles from the capital by limousine when overcast skies forced cancellation of a planned helicopter flight.

In New York a spokesman for Thant said the secretary-general planned to study the speech carefully and would have some comment this morning.

"BUY FREEDOM"
On Capitol Hill, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, heretofore a staunch supporter of the Democratic President's Viet Nam policy, was critical. "Is this another case of where the American trumpets sound retreat?" he asked. "Do you buy freedom for a humble people? I doubt it."

But the Senate Democratic leader, Mike Mansfield, at times in disagreement with the White House over Viet Nam, said: "The door is open to a bona fide settlement which will permit the people of Viet Nam to live in peace and freedom."

There was no immediate public reaction behind the Iron Curtain.

Hours before the President spoke, though, Soviet President Anastas I. Mikoyan and First Deputy Premier Kirill Mazurov were asked in Moscow by a Pakistani newsman what should be done to bring peace to Viet Nam.

The two Soviets said, separately, the United States must withdraw.

Last week 17 nations that proposed to steer a middle course between East and West appealed for immediate negotiations. Wednesday night Johnson gave them, the American people and the world, Washington's reply.

First he explained why the United States is in the war.

"We fight because we must fight if we are to live in a world where every country can shape its own destiny. And only in such a world will our freedom be finally secure."

Second he outlined the U.S. position.

"The first reality is that North Viet Nam has attacked the independent nation of South Viet Nam. Its object is total conquest."

"Of course, some of the people of South Viet Nam are participating in attack on their own government. But trained men and supplies, orders and arms, flow in a constant stream from North to South."

"THE HEARTBEAT"
"This support is the heartbeat of the war."

Third, he indicted Communist China.

"The rulers in Hanoi are urged on by Peking," he said. "The contest in Viet Nam is part of a wider pattern of aggressive purpose."

Space Roast For Early Bird

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Early Bird satellite, already a proven handler of television signals, looped the earth today in readiness for a maneuver to push it toward its permanent roost in space.

Communications Satellite Corp. engineers planned to fire small gas jets designed to guide the world's first commercial communications satellite to a point over the Atlantic between Brazil and South Africa.

A small kick-motor then will be fired Friday morning over South America to direct the satellite into a circular orbit 22,300 miles high.

There is speed will match the earth's rotation, making it appear stationary in the sky.

The 85-pound satellite was launched from Cape Kennedy, Fla., Tuesday night.

Engineers gave the satellite a test Wednesday and received television patterns of excellent quality.

Signals were sent to the spacecraft for several minutes from a ground station at Andover, Maine. The test originally was scheduled after the satellite reached its permanent orbit.

Head Named By Airlines

FORT WORTH (AP) — Lamar Muse, vice president of finance of Southern Airways, has been named president of Central Airlines, effective May 1.

The action came at a stockholders' meeting at Central's headquarters at Fort Worth's Southwest Airport.

Muse succeeds L. E. Glasgow.

The airline did not disclose details of Glasgow's removal as president. Glasgow said, however, he has a "five-year employment contract" extending to 1969 and is negotiating with the company for a settlement.

The new president also was elected to Central's board and executive committee.

Others named to the board were A. A. Bradford of Midland; chairman; Fred Boston of Oklahoma City; Robert Brennard Jr. of Midland; J. E. Connolly of Abilene; Irby Dyer of Midland; and Robert Thomas of Houston.

American Dollar Looking Healthier

NEW YORK (AP) — The American dollar is looking a lot healthier than it did just weeks ago. It fetches more in exchange for other currencies. It buys more gold in the free market—meaning, the price of gold has dropped. More interest must be paid to borrow surplus dollars in Europe.

The big outflow of dollars in private capital ventures that alarmed the administration in the final months of 1964 and the first six weeks of 1965 is reported to have dropped to a trickle. The question is: Will this turn for the better last?

BANK ACTION

Voluntary action by U.S. banks and corporations is credited with the early results. But most champions of this cooperative method of halting the flow agree that its results can only be temporary. The big problem of the U.S. balance of international payments deficit remains. A further complication in deciding the effectiveness at the moment is that the U.S. balance usually improves in the early months of any year.

Red Military On Increase, General Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, supreme Allied commander in Europe, said today Soviet bloc military forces — land, sea and air, nuclear and non-nuclear — are impressive, substantial and increasing.

Lemnitzer used those words in testimony prepared for the House Foreign Affairs Committee. The meeting was closed but the text was released.

"Being largely combat ready," Lemnitzer said, "all these forces are capable of attack with little further preparation. In addition, the bulk of them are in place, disposed well forward in sufficient strength to attack with minimum maneuvering or concentration. For both these reasons, they could launch an offensive with relatively little warning."

Lemnitzer was testifying in support of continued military assistance programs "to maintain a forward defense against any attack which could be mounted anywhere in the area from the northern tip of Norway to the eastern frontier of Turkey."

A naval threat is posed by three Soviet fleets in the Black, Baltic and North seas, he said.

Check Dept. Rakes It In

Bad checks collected by the check department in the office of Sheriff Aubrey Standard, and money paid directly to the merchants on bad checks, totalled $6,239.51 in March. This was one of the largest collection totals in the history of the department. Sheriff Standard said that a number of big checks were repaid during the month to account, in part, for the total.

There were 329 checks turned over to the department for collection and 243 of these were paid off. This is an average of 80 per cent. In March, 1964, total collections were only a little more than half those of this past month—$3,686.

So far in its history the department has collected and repaid $121,259.53 to merchants. Twenty-five county court worthless check warrants were issued in March. There were three district court warrants issued. One probated sentence violation was handled.

Sheriff Standard said that the check office had 500 phone calls in March, and that his staff conducted 413 personal interviews. Twenty-seven cases were filed by the office. Two hundred and sixty-three reimbursements were made.

North Viet Claims Planes Downed

TOKYO (AP) — North Viet Nam claimed today its gunners shot down 30 of the 60 U.S. Air Force planes involved in an attack Sunday on a strategic bridge and power station at Thanh Hoa, 80 miles south of Hanoi.

U.S. officials in Saigon had reported a number of the raiders were lost, but declined to say exactly how many on-the-ground rescue operations were under way. They acknowledged the loss of three — two F105 jets shot down by MIG fighters and a propeller-driven Skyraider downed by fire from Red gunboats.

The North Vietnamese account, relayed by Radio Hanoi and Peking's New China News Agency, made no mention of the MIGs.

Style Show

A style show presented by Mrs. Lillian Miller, Odessa, highlighted a meeting of Affiliate 24, Texas Hairdressers and Cosmetologists, Monday night at Pioneer Natural Gas Company's Flame Room. Guests from a local hairdressing school attended the meeting and a scrapbook was presented by affiliate members, to be sent to the state convention. Next meeting will be a dinner program during May.

MRS. TRAVIS DENTON, DAUGHTER HELEN, AND GRANDSON, BILLY CHANDLER

Home Holds Special Meaning For Mother

By ELAINE CLARK

"Keeping a warm, comfortable, happy home for my family is the greatest pleasure of my life," was Mrs. Travis Denton's comment when asked about her multi-faceted role of wife, mother and business helper. The petite, Dresden-doll type Mrs. Denton, looks scarcely older than her teenaged daughter, Helen. Having been reared in an orphanage in Corsicana, she finds an extra measure of joy and pleasure in attempting to make and have a home filled with love and security.

A pale green fragile-leaved willow, flanked by a delicate lattice-work screen, accents the Oriental motif used in the living room of her home at 514 Edwards Circle. Couches in golds and yellows blend with the gay Chinese prints that hang over her massive stereo record player.

"I play music all day long and prefer the classic and semi-classic," she said.

HUSBAND GOOD COOK

Mrs. Denton enjoys cooking but laughingly says, "When Travis and I married, he moved me out of the kitchen and he has been in there ever since." Having a diet problem, she cannot eat foods that are greasy, and as a result, prepares few fried foods. "When I do fry foods, I'm very careful to remove all the excess grease," she explained. She has done this not only for her health, but in concern for her family, also.

"I've always been careful about the girls' complexions, and think that a proper diet is most important," Mrs. Denton added. Many of her dishes are casseroles and salads, with the pie and cake baking left up to her husband.

She plans menus, using family suggestions and requests, and then she and Denton shop together. "His interest and enthusiasm in cooking and nutrition makes meal planning a lot of fun," she explained. "We subscribe to a health magazine, and get a lot of good ideas from that."

Denton's culinary skills have always been a family pleasure. As their daughters were growing up, after attending church, their friends would come around and ask what their daddy was cooking for Sunday dinner, angling for an invitation.

USES ORIGINAL RECIPES

Mrs. Denton doesn't have an extensive collection of recipes, because, as she said, "I like original things, and usually make them up myself, varying the basic ingredients from time to time."

Being an avid reader, she is now doing research on the Dead Sea Scrolls. A well-read student of philosophy and religion, she has just finished "Jews, God and History," by Max I. Dimont. She works with her husband in their business, the Village Shoe Store, and is an active member of the Carl Street Church of Christ.

The Dentons have two other daughters, Mrs. Conrad Alexander, Shreveport, La., and Mrs. Robert Chandler, whose husband is a captain at Webb Air Force Base. The favorite family hobby is their only grandchild, three-year-old Billy Chandler.

She shares some of her recipes, but stresses family flavor favorites in preference to the standard tastes.

ONE CHICKEN STEW

- 1 chicken
  - 3 carrot sticks
  - Pinch of garlic
  - 1/2 tsp. seasoning salt
  - 1/2 stick celery
  - 1/2 onion, chopped
  - Salt to taste
  - 2 potatoes cut in 2-inch cubes
- Cut up chicken and roll pieces in flour. Put in skillet, add two cups of water. Let simmer with lid on for 30 minutes.
- Add vegetables and seasoning. Add enough water to cover. Let this cook slowly until vegetables are done. Stir often to keep sauce from lumping.

CHICKEN A LA KING RING

- Mix one stewed chicken, shredded, with one can mushroom soup. Add a small portion of cheese and one-half can of pimiento. Cook until mixture is well done. Flavor with favorite seasonings.

Place mixture in circle of mashed potatoes, then circle the potatoes with can of very small peas.

PINK SALAD

- 1 pt. whipping cream
- 1 jar cherries, chopped
- Juice from cherries
- 1 pkg. chopped pecans
- 1 can crushed pineapple (drained)
- 1 pkg. Philadelphia cream cheese
- 1 pkg. small marshmallows

Cream cheese with a fork. Add pineapple, cherries, pecans, marshmallows and whipped cream to the mixture.

Blend in cherry juice. Refrigerate until served.

Potato Watercress Soup Sensation

With the holiday ahead, bear in mind this soup of lovely bright green color.

POTATO WATERCRESS SOUP

- 1 1/2 cups fat-free chicken stock
  - 1/2 cup loosely-packed watercress leaves
  - 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of potato soup
  - 2-3 cup heavy cream
  - 1/4 tsp. seasoning salt
- Into an electric blender, turn 3/4 cup of the stock and the watercress; blend until smooth.

Into a medium saucepan, turn undiluted soup; gradually stir in the blended watercress mixture and the remaining 1 cup stock. Heat slowly, stirring occasionally, to boiling.

Stir in the cream and seasoning salt; reheat slowly until the watercress adds a slightly pungent flavor — about 10 minutes. Makes 6 small servings.

Sunniest Chiffon Surprise

Welcome spring with a delicious new dessert that's lovely, light and luscious! Pretty pink strawberry filling swirls high in a crunchy pie crust of crushed vanilla wafer crumbs, flavored with mace and bordered by a scalloped edging of whole wafers. Serve it as the main attraction at afternoon tea or a grand finale at family dinner.

Either way, this easy no-bake pie will have guests calling for encores. And here's how to make it:

SUNNY STRAWBERRY CHIFFON PIE

- 1 1/4 cups vanilla wafer crumbs
- 3 tbsps. sugar
- 1/4 tsp. mace
- 6 tbsps. melted shortening
- Whole vanilla wafers
- 1 envelope gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 4 eggs, separated
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. lemon juice
- 1/8 tsp. salt
- 1 pkg. frozen sliced strawberries, 10 ozs., thawed
- 2 to 3 drops red vegetable coloring, optional

Roll wafers into fine crumbs between two pieces of waxed paper. Mix with 3 tablespoons sugar and mace; add melted shortening and blend well. Press mixture evenly and firmly over bottom and sides of 9-inch pie plate. Press whole wafers on edge around sides for scalloped border. Refrigerate for about an hour.

Sprinkle gelatin on cold water in small saucepan; stir over very low heat until dissolved; set aside to cool. Lightly beat egg yolks and place in top of double boiler with sugar, lemon juice and salt.

Stir over hot, not boiling water, until sugar is dissolved and mixture thickens slightly.

Remove from hot water, stir in thawed berries and coloring if desired. Blend in melted and cooled gelatin; chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg whites.

Meanwhile, beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; gently fold into chilled gelatin mixture and pour into chilled crumb shell. Refrigerate at least two hours before serving. Yield: six servings.

Nutritious Dip

Nutritious dip for raw vegetables such as radishes, carrot or celery sticks: Cream-style cottage cheese blended (in an electric blender) with a tablespoon of lemon juice, a dash of salt and minced fresh dill or dried dill weed.

Pineapple Quick Bread Gets Delicate Flavor

A quick bread that is sweet enough to be on the cake side is useful to have in the house. It outlasts cake! Cut part of it rather thick and serve it warm from the oven. Wrap the rest of the loaf tightly and refrigerate it, then pull it out the moment you need it.

The following sweet quick bread has the delicate and delicious flavor of pineapple. Most quick breads need to be spread with butter or cream cheese; but not this loaf. It is quite good enough to eat plain. After it's stored, we like to heat or lightly toast it.

PINEAPPLE TEA LOAF

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 3 tbsps. baking powder
- 1/2 tsp. baking soda
- 1 tsp. salt
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 can (8 3/4 ozs.) crushed pineapple
- 2 tbsps. butter, melted and cooled
- 1/2 cup chopped (medium-fine) walnuts

On a piece of waxed paper, sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt and sugar. In a medium mixing bowl, beat the egg until thick

Liverwurst, Cheese Stuffs Tasty Celery

Wondering what to serve to friends as a snack? Here's a suggestion.

STUFFED CELERY

- 1/2 pound liverwurst
- 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese
- 1/4 cup milk
- 2 tbsps. minced onion
- 1/4 tsp. each salt and pepper
- Celery ribs
- Paprika

Into the container of an electric blender put the liverwurst, cream cheese, milk, onion, salt and pepper; blend until smooth.

Cover and chill at least 1 hour. Trim, wash and dry celery; cut in wedges; stuff with liverwurst mixture; sprinkle with paprika.

FRUIT-FARINA DELICIOUS QUICKIE
Whipped cream holds flavors together.

Creative Cereal Cookery For Ambrosial Dessert

If you have cooked too much farina for breakfast, think twice before disposing of it. Here's the perfect foundation for a delicious dessert for dinner. One fine suggestion is Fruit-Farina Quickie.

Just 1 1/4 cups cooked farina, plain or malt flavored, is blended with pineapple pieces, chopped apple, and tiny marshmallows. Whipped cream holds the juicy fruits and mildly flav-

Hot Potato Salad Dutch-Type Treat

One of the best versions of Dutch-type potato salads.

HOT CREAM-STYLE POTATO SALAD

- 1/4 cup butter
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 tsp. flour
- 2 tbsps. sugar
- 1 1/2 tbsps. salt
- 1 tall can (14 1/2 ozs.) evaporated milk (1 1/2 cups)
- 4 tbsps. prepared mustard
- 1/2 cup cider vinegar
- 4 cups cooked, peeled and sliced hot potatoes (6 medium)

Melt butter in a medium saucepan. Add onion and green pepper. Cook gently until onion is transparent and pepper is tender.

Remove from heat and sprinkle in flour, sugar and salt, stirring to blend well. Slowly stir in undiluted evaporated milk, keeping smooth.

Over low heat, cook and stir constantly until thickened. Stir in mustard and vinegar to blend.

Pour sauce over hot potatoes in serving dish and stir lightly to mix. Makes 6 servings.

Teenager Party Idea For 'Cool' Hostess

Here's a hot party idea for a "real cool" hostess. Forget the last minute flurry of cooking hamburgers for the crowd. Let the guests cook their own burgers (kabob-style) on a table-top hibachi. Then, give the party a quick, refreshing lift with Banana Split 7-Up "Floats."

BURGER KABOBS

Combine 1 pound ground beef with 1 teaspoon garlic-flavored salad dressing mix and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Form into 18 small meatballs. Alternate on 6-inch metal skewers with onion wedges, green pepper squares and strips of partially-cooked bacon. Cook slowly over glowing coals. Serve in "hollowed out" frankfurter buns. Makes 6 servings.

BANANA SPLIT "FLOATS"

In each tall glass place: 1 tablespoon mashed banana, 1 small scoop each vanilla and strawberry ice cream and 1 tablespoon sweetened, sliced strawberries. Tilt glass and slowly pour in 1 bottle (7 ozs.) chilled, sparkling 7-Up.

Eggplant Makes Tasty Dumplings

A Pennsylvania cook contributes this interesting meatless dish.

SUE BERGER'S EGGPLANT DUMPLINGS

- 1 medium (1 1/2 lbs.) eggplant
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 1 tbsps. minced parsley
- 1/2 tsp. dried basil
- 2 eggs
- 1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- Mushroom sauce

Wash and dry eggplant; cut into 1/2-inch cubes without peeling. Turn into a 12-inch skillet with about 3 tablespoons water; cover and cook gently, stirring several times, until almost mushy.

Mash with a spoon; mix in salt, pepper, garlic, parsley, basil, eggs and bread crumbs. In the clean, dry skillet heat the oil; drop eggplant mixture by heaping tablespoons into the hot oil; turn to brown on both sides.

Serve with hot mushroom sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Japan Will Send Capital Cherry Trees

WASHINGTON (AP)—A half century ago, another First Lady had the idea of beautifying the nation's capital with cherry trees.

As a result of Mrs. William Howard Taft's interest, the city of Tokyo sent the city of Washington a friendship gift of 3,000 cherry trees.

Planted around the Tidal Basin and Potomac Park, their pink and white blossoms have become a tourist attraction and symbol of spring here.

Now, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, taking a similar interest in beautifying the capital, has drawn a similar gift of thousands more cherry trees from the Japanese government in a renewed symbol of national friendship.

MANY PROMISED

Although the exact number of trees to be donated was not specified, the Japanese ambassador said they would be quite numerous and it was left as an open matter depending on the needs.

They will be placed around the grounds of the Washington Monument in a project the National Park Service says will take some 3,000 to 4,000 trees.

Announcement of the new gift was made by Japanese Ambassador Ryuji Takeuchi at a rainy ceremony this week at which Mrs. Johnson and his wife planted two blooming cherry trees at the Tidal Basin and formally opened the 1965 National Cherry Blossom Festival. A crowd of several hundred turned out, including the 33 pretty festival princesses who sat under umbrellas to watch the 40-minute ceremony of speeches and band music.

DUE TO BLOOM

Chill weather has held back the cherry blossoms so far, but there was hope the trees will burst into bloom by the end of the week.

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Takeuchi used a gold-plated presidential spade to plant the two new trees close to the spot where Mrs. Taft and Viscountess Chinda, wife of the then Japanese ambassador, planted the first gift cherry trees in the spring of 1912.

A Devotional For The Day

"Do not be anxious about your life." (Matthew 6:25, RSV)
PRAYER: O Lord, we thank Thee for the challenges found in Thy Word. Strengthen us in faith that we may boldly accept Christ's challenges to live by them. Supply all our needs, Thou who art our greatest need. In the name of the Master, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."
 (From the 'Upper Room')

Some Things Have Changed

The Third Court of Civil Appeals in Austin has upheld a trial court verdict which bars the city from negotiating its water rate to the Big Spring State Hospital.

This was not wholly unexpected, although disappointing. It does not mean the end of the fight for the city in its effort to obtain a more equitable rate for water delivered to the hospital. The Supreme Court will have a chance to pass judgment on the matter.

Initial press reports indicated that the appellate court held that the city was not making a gift (the difference between 10 cents and the 33.7 cents per thousand gallon cost of production and delivery) because this difference was in fact a consideration for location of the hospital here. None will argue that the original rate was not made in that spirit. What the city has contended is that one commission cannot exercise a legislative function—namely rate making—to the exclusion of all subsequent commissions. In effect the city is arguing that after a quarter of a century that parties to the arrangement ought to be able to take a second look at rates in the light of time and changing conditions. The appeals court decision might make more logic if it were to recognize that the 10 cents of 1936 and 10 cents of 1965 are two vastly different considerations. We daresay that 10 cents now buys less than half the operational and capital costs that it did in the '30s.

Extend The Spirit Of The Rule

In a recent decision, the Texas Supreme Court held that the constitutional prohibition to dual-office holding applies specifically to the legislature, too.

The question arose when a school teacher-legislator sought a ruling on whether he could teach between sessions. The court held that being a teacher and being a legislator are both public jobs and one person may not hold both simultaneously. The interpretation seems to be clearly in line with what the Constitution says, and the reasons for this rule in the beginning are equally valid today. Legislators who would seek to change this might perform a vastly greater service to the people of Texas if they were to extend the spirit of the rule into other extra-curricular activities of the solons. For instance, we feel it is improper for members of the legislature to appear as counsel before state agencies. Say what you will, it's mighty difficult for a member of a board or commission to dismiss from his mind that a legislator may exercise great power over appropriations or even confirmation affecting the individual member or his agency.

Marquis Childs More Viet Nam Requirements

WASHINGTON — Behind President Johnson's irritation over questions on Viet Nam is the belief widely held in the administration that if it were not for the niggling critics at home and abroad things would move smoothly to a successful end.

In this confident view Ambassador Maxwell Taylor has returned to Saigon to do the necessary in soldierly fashion. His principal recommendation was to triple the size of the Vietnamese military force. That recommendation was accepted with little alteration, according to those helping to shape up the program. Not a new program, they say emphatically, but an extension of what is already being carried out.

THE AIR bombardment of the north will be expanded at the same time that the base of the ground war is widely broadened.

Taylor reported that it would take six months, perhaps nine months, to triple the Vietnamese force. Counting live military bodies in Viet Nam is not too easy — if only because they have a way of melting into the jungle. But the figure today is put at perhaps 350,000.

IN PUBLIC Taylor downgraded talk of stepping up the ratio of South Vietnamese to Communist guerrillas in accord with the theory that at least a 15-to-1 superiority is essential. This is said to have been demonstrated in Malaya where the British conducted a successful war against indigenous Communist Chinese rebels. Nevertheless, if it proves possible to build up the Vietnamese force to 900,000 the ratio should be at least 10 to 1 and perhaps closer to 12 or 13 to 1.

At 15 to 1 the logistic force supplying the troops in the field would increase to 22 to 25 per cent of the total, according to Taylor's estimates. The American force now in Saigon will have to be stepped up an estimated 15 per cent. With the present

POWELL, Wyo. (AP) — A Powell school teacher has a check for $900.-04.72 — but she doesn't plan to cash it.

LBJ's Softened Approach On Viet Nam Viewed

WASHINGTON (AP) — It is President Johnson who is pleading for a discussion to end the fighting in Southeast Asia, not the North Vietnamese who have been bombed for two months by American planes in an effort to pressure them into seeking peace.

They've endured the battering and given no public indication of asking peace. In making his plea, in a nationwide broadcast from Baltimore Wednesday night, Johnson took a softer line than his administration has been following since Feb. 7 when Red guerrillas attacked an American air base and Johnson ordered bombing.

THIS SHIFT in position came one day after The Associated Press reported 50 per cent of the people in South Viet Nam are sitting on the fence, supporting neither their American-backed government nor the Red guerrillas.

In his broadcast Johnson offered $1 billion in American aid for Southeast Asian economic development, saying he hoped North Viet Nam would join in the cooperative effort as soon as "peaceful cooperation is possible."

The two Republican leaders in Congress, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, took a dim view of this economic offer from Johnson.

Earlier this year, after the bombing of North Viet Nam had begun, they denounced suggestions of seeking peace through negotiations with the Communists. They said such a move would be "running up the white flag."

Wednesday night they derided Johnson's offer of $1 billion in aid as an attempt to buy peace in Asia.

JOHNSON'S SHIFT of position can be seen by comparing what he and his administration had said before with what he said Wednesday night.

After Johnson ordered the bombing to begin Feb. 7, the White House issued a statement which said in part: "The key to the situation remains the cessation of infiltration from North Viet Nam and the clear indication by the Hanoi regime that it is prepared to cease aggression against its neighbors."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk later repeated that position. Although Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara Wednesday said the military situation in South Viet Nam has become increasingly serious this past year, Johnson Wednesday night made this offer:

"Unconditional discussion" with the North Vietnamese Reds.

On Threshold Of Stardom . . .

NEW YORK (AP) — It is a tremulous moment when a young actress stands on the threshold of stardom.

Standing there now is Rosemary Forsyth, who is 21, freckled, doesn't wear lipstick or rouge, and looks like a tall blonde goddess.

Will Hollywood open its golden door wide for her? Universal Studio is so convinced Miss Forsyth has star quality that it has signed her to a seven-year contract and given her a year of dramatic training.

"I DON'T feel like a star, because I'm not one yet," said Rosemary practically. "I don't know whether I'll ever be one. I've never really thought of being a star — just a good actress."

But after seeing the rough shots of Miss Forsyth in her first motion picture role, producer Walter Seltzer immediately gave her star billing with Charlton Heston in another forthcoming film.

"She has a wonderful face — a little like Ingrid Bergman, and yet different, too," he said. Rosemary also looks a little like Grace Kelly, Lee Remick and has something of the tomboy quality of the late Carole Lombard. But because of her quick success she is most often being compared with that old film circle favorite — Cinderella.

"I KNOW some girls work 15 years and never get a break such as I've had," remarked Rosemary, "and I'm grateful for it. But I don't feel much like Cinderella."

Sturdily independent, she has earned her own way since she was 18. Born in Montreal and educated at Stockbridge, Mass., she worked as a camp counselor and file clerk before becoming a $45-an-hour fashion and television model.

"I never had much of a struggle," she said. "I have lived in some crummy apartments, but I never missed a meal in my life.

"I got an invitation to make a film test after a studio executive saw my picture in Show magazine. I hated fashion modeling, just standing still and trying to look cool and perfect. I'd rather model a potato peeler. At least then you're doing something real. When you peel a potato, you're relating to something."

ROSEMARY is 5 feet 9, lithely built, has long tresses and the kind of cheekbones that send cameramen into ecstasies.

Here is the kind of girl she feels she is:

"I'm outspoken, sometimes hypersensitive, terribly romantic. When I walk down the street I'm always dreaming I'll catch some strange man's eye, fall in love with him instantly, then marry him and live with him for 75 years in a big old house and have 17 children.

"But I'm a realist, too. There's always a bit of logic in my head that says, 'That's enough now. Cut out the day dreaming.'"

"I don't use makeup because it bores me to stand in front of a mirror painting my face. I guess I'm just an ordinary upper middle-class young lady, which sounds dreadfully boring, too, but I don't find it so."

Happy Way To Preserve

Jets and rocket ships were the subjects of science fiction writers during World War II, and the toy stores specialized in models of such fantastically fast airplanes as the Lightning P-38, the Warhawk P-40, the Hellcat F6F, the Corsair FG1, and the P51 Mustang. Most of these modern ships were capable of speeds in excess of 400 miles per hour, and all were making daily headlines on the war fronts of the world.

BUT WITH THE end of the war, the jet era and supersonic flight were just around the corner, spelling the end of those piston-engine fighters. In wholesale lots, they were consigned to the scrap pile, and soon melted into ingots for other uses.

THAT IS, almost all of them were scrapped. Somewhere this side of the smelter, some of the pilots who guided those famous ships through enemy skies, stepped in and decided to save at least one of each kind for posterity. They were almost too late.

Only a few of some models could be found, but gradually a group of former pilots began assembling their own air armada representing the cream of aircraft during war time.

WITH A FLAIR for showmanship, they dubbed the organization the Confederate Air Force, all its members are "colonels" and led by Col. Jethro E. Culpepper, a mythological commander who represents the organization in all its public pronouncements. All in fun, the CAF is rife with Southern homilies and customs, always condemning the Yankees for obstacles.

BENEATH IT all, however, is a more serious purpose: To preserve in flying condition the planes of yesteryear in a sort of flying museum. As a result the colonels fly their ships to air shows around the nation, including Canada. And a museum is being planned at CAF headquarters in Mercedes.

Connie Edwards, who has some 5,000 hours in heavier planes, has recently joined the CAF with an eye toward adding bomber-class aircraft to the squadron. Already a B-26 and B-25 have been located and purchased. Eventually, he hopes to find a B-29 and B-17, the famous superfortresses credited with bringing the Axis powers to their knees during the war.

THE CAF members feel that their planes will be seen by many more people as a result of air shows than if they were parked in museums. And of course, there is the sheer fun of flying the airplanes that won the war.

One thing about it, it is the most active bunch of museum-keepers we'll ever see.

This Tax Relief Is Killing Us

WASHINGTON—It was very heartening to discover the other day that President Johnson had to borrow money to pay his income taxes for 1964. I wish the President no ill will and my heart goes out to anyone who has to borrow money to pay taxes, particularly myself, but in this case the President started all the trouble, and he has only himself to blame.

AS I SEE IT, everyone's troubles began because of the tax cut the President instituted. Before he started talking cuts, most Americans were so numb paying taxes that they didn't even think about it. Every time their wives said they wanted to buy something, the husbands would bark, "You can't. We're in terrible trouble on taxes."

All of us had made up our minds there was no out, and we were getting used to our standard of living, no matter what it was.

Then, with the election coming along, the President in an impassioned plea asked Congress to give the American people tax "relief." He said that if taxes were reduced the economy would be given a great impetus.

CONGRESS RESPONDED, as it usually does when the President speaks, and after only a moderate job of arm-twisting, the President's tax-cut bill was passed and signed.

The ink was hardly dry on the paper when American wives went berserk. They started looking for new homes, new furniture, they ordered new draperies, new automobiles, they took their kids out of public schools and put them in private schools.

Many wives decided to go to Europe, other wives gave large black-tie dinner parties. The economy zoomed as the President predicted.

BUT NO ONE ever bothered to check how much the tax cut would mean to each individual. All we kept reading about was an $11,500,000 tax cut, and so every wife in America thought each husband was entitled to the $11,500,000.

No one bothered to pro-rate it. When they finally did, they discovered their tax cut came to about $18.90.

BY THIS TIME it was too late. Mortgages had been signed, car financing had been arranged, department stores refused to take back the furniture. Everyone's living standard had risen and no one wanted to go back to the pre-tax-cut days.

So here we are in the midst of the biggest boom in American history and everyone from the President of the United States down is eyeball-to-eyeball with his bank, all because Lyndon Johnson wanted the American people to have a tax cut.

WHAT WORRIES me more than anything is that Sheldon Cohen, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has just promised tax relief to those who can't make their payments on time. When my wife read about this, she said, "Well, as long as they don't want the money right away, I think I'll buy a new rug."

Please, Mr. President, don't talk about any more tax relief. None of us can afford it.

The New Attorney General

WASHINGTON — From the third of last September till the 28th of this January, Nicholas deB. Katzenbach, a tall, talkative second-echelon lawyer in the Justice Department, hung suspended over the abyss of oblivion.

For those five months President Johnson hesitated to elevate Katzenbach, who had been Robert Kennedy's Deputy Attorney General, to the top post. Kennedy had not only recommended him, but had tried to make Katzenbach's appointment a condition under which he, Kennedy, would go untyedly from the Cabinet. But Mr. Johnson would not dicker. He put Katzenbach through a 148-day novitiate or conditioning period.

ONLY NICK Katzenbach knows the agony of mind which accompanied that period of suspense, or knows what kind of capers he had to cut to please the giver of political immortality. But something can be surmised from the performance which the attorney general has given on the Voting Rights Act of 1965. The President must have wanted — and demanded — and possibly whipped into shape by methods of suspension — just the man we now behold. The profile of Katzenbach, with the initials of LBJ in the corner of the canvas, stands revealed in this bill which the attorney general drafted and presented to Congress.

WHAT MANNER of man? The attorney general is a man with a chiral line of expediency. The Voting Rights bill, he has said, is shaped to demolish the "hard core" resistance to Negro suffrage, rather than to mete out equal justice. It is drawn to punish those few states and counties which fail to fit an arbitrary federal standard. It strikes at discrimination against Negroes, but it practices discrimination against a minority of the states.

THE ATTORNEY general shows a profile of heresy. He is a lawyer-politician without faith in the majesty of law. He told the Senate Judiciary Committee that "the judicial process . . . is inadequate to deal with practices so deeply rooted in the social and political structure." Not merely does he distrust Southern courts and judges, he distrusts the American judicial system. This suits him, as every schoolboy knows, puts the burden of proving guilt upon the prosecutor. Any state with a literacy test for its voters is presumed to have cheated unless 50 per cent of the voting-age population turned up at the polls last November. The bill further presumes that Southern courts and judges are corrupt, for it requires each culprit state to appeal its case before a special three-member court in the District of Columbia.

THE ATTORNEY general shows the profile of a rank sentimentalist, an uncritical idolator of raw democracy. He believes the right to vote is a human right, not a privilege or duty of citizenship. He is known to assess an illiterate elector, or electoralee, as being of the same worth to a democracy as a literate one. He is known to have expressed the opinion that persons' names, but never political propositions, should appear on the ballots. This would seem to mean that he trusts voters to elect delegates to Constitutional Conventions, but does not trust them to decide on those propositions which have been (and will be) Amendments to the Constitution. The profile here shows the inconsistency of sentimentalism, not becoming in an officer of the nation.

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — When the Stuttgart, Ark., Daily Leader received the rosters of the Paragould, Ark., football program it prints, the numbers of the players were written out in Latin.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

It was more than the topping of a throne; it was the first act in the transformation of the Arab world when King Farouk's yacht steamed out of Alexandria harbor (13 years ago). The ruling Egyptian group of rich, cosmopolitan landowners was doomed. The middle classes took over, and Arab nationalism came fully into its own. Six years later the process was repeated in Iraq. Nor has the tide reached its height. The discovery of oil has delayed but not reversed it. The pashas have gone; soon it will be the turn of the sheiks.

To Your Good Health

Mononucleosis A Self-Limiting Disease

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I have never read anything in your column about infectious mononucleosis. After blood tests, that is what the doctor says my husband has. He is 38. There is no cure, apparently. Does it go away?—MRS. S. V.

I'm afraid you've been skipping school on the days I've discussed infectious mononucleosis. In fact, I found I was answering so many questions about it that I figured I'd better put the whole story into a booklet, so readers who needed the facts could have them, and I wouldn't use up column space that ought to be devoted to other topics.

So get the booklet — send 20 cents in coin, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my booklet on mononucleosis. You are right: There is no cure for "mono." But it is a self-limiting disease, meaning that it runs its course and stops.

The important part of treatment is to see that no complications develop; to guard against a relapse; and to ease such symptoms as become annoying. The chief complication involves the liver.

er teenagers and young adults, but I've known of cases in people in their 40's, and other cases in rather young children.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please explain why my joints creak. I have been told that it is due to a vitamin deficiency. I don't understand how this could be since I take vitamin pills regularly.—MRS. R. M.

Creaky joints are not a result of vitamin deficiency. Rather, this is a mechanical problem. The cartilage may be thinned, or the edges of the bones may be thickened so they rub against each other slightly. Or in some cases a creak can be due to a tendon riding over a bony prominence.

The trouble is most likely to occur in the knees, neck and elbows.

It's the result of wear and tear on the joints, or mild arthritis.

This has been going on for several years. What risk is involved?—MRS. B. B.

Probably the most important risk is that these soft drinks (unless they are sugarless) contain a lot of calories. This can interfere with appetite for normal foods, hence possible lack of enough protein, vitamins and roughage. Or the extra calories (in the soft drinks) can bring on overweight. The carbonation, when drinking such quantities, can cause "gassy" stomach. And there is reason to believe that such constant presence of sugary liquid in the mouth encourages cavities.

For facts about the total health of you and each member of the family, Dr. Joseph G. Molner's new book, "Stay Well Every Day Of Your Life," ($5.95) is now available at your book store, or Prentice-Hall, Englewood Cliffs, N. J.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Oscar Aftermath: Show Was Tops

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Academy aftermath —
"Isn't it marvelous? Isn't it beautiful?" Bob Hope rhapsodized as he gazed over the glittering throng at the Oscar Ball. "They all came out. That's what is so great about it. They all came out."
Indeed, it seemed as though Hollywood's entire galaxy, from Francis X. Bushman to Sandra Dee, had turned out to show there was life in the old town yet. There was a happy feeling in the air, both at the awards telecast in Santa Monica Auditorium and at the Beverly-Hillton's International Ballroom.

GOOD SPIRIT
Not since the prewar era when awards were given at dinner parties in hotel ballrooms had there been so much community spirit. The optimistic feeling wasn't even dampened by the selection of four foreigners for the acting awards. Hollywood now claims Julie Andrews as its own, and Rex Har-ison and Peter Ustinov have long worked here.

As for supporting-actress winner Lila Kedrova, her award was a complete and happy surprise. The town dearly loves a Cinderella story.
There was the usual Tuesday morning quarterbacking about some aspects of the awards. Much of it centered on the choice of Peter Ustinov for best supporting actor. No one questions the skill of his comic invention as the all-thumbs jewel heister in "Topkapi." But was he in support?
HIS ROLE BIG
"Who was he supporting?" asked Jack Palance. "He had as big a role as anyone in the picture."
If there were an Oscar for good sportsmanship, it would be in Audrey Hepburn's hand today. The lovely lady, who is not nearly as fragile as she looks, could have stayed mainly in the plains of Spain. Despite the Academy's pettishness in not nominating her for "My Fair Lady," she flew here to share her coworkers' triumphs.

Spy Data
Said Phony

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — One of the two men accused in an alleged conspiracy to sell defense secrets to the Soviet Union says that a lot of the information he passed the Russians was phony.
The men, former Army buddies, are James Allen Mintkenbaugh, 46, and Sgt. Robert Lee Johnson, 43. They were arrested last Monday, Mintkenbaugh in California and Johnson in Virginia.
A federal grand jury indictment delivered at Richmond, Va., Tuesday charges Johnson and Mintkenbaugh in three counts with conspiring with Soviet agents between February 1953 and December 1964 "to communicate, deliver and transmit to a foreign power" U.S. defense secrets.
Mintkenbaugh was asked in a copyright audio-filmed interview over San Francisco television station KPIX whether it was true, as stated by his brother, that Mintkenbaugh had passed "phony information" to the Soviets.
Mintkenbaugh replied: "Well, a lot of it was phony."

Bank Failure Pair Indicted

EL PASO (AP) — Bernard Garrett and Joseph Morris, whose mortgage manipulations allegedly figured in the March, 1964, closing of the First National Bank of Marlin, have been indicted by a federal grand jury.
The indictments returned Wednesday charge misapplication of the bank's funds.
Failure of the Marlin bank has been under probe by the Senate Rackets Investigating Subcommittee headed by Chairman John McClellan, D-Ark., and linked with troubles of the San Francisco National Bank and the Mainland Bank & Trust Co. of Texas City.
The two-count indictment charges Garrett and Morris profited $189,186 by inducing the Marlin bank to issue a $970,000 check for the face value of real estate notes and mortgages which they, as controlling shareholders, had purchased at a $223,636 discount.
Garrett lives in Los Angeles and Morris in Oakland, Calif. Both are Negroes.

"FRONT MAN"
The indictment names self-styled "front man" Matthew Steiner, 32, a co-conspirator but not a defendant.
The Marlin bank was taken over by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. and liquidated. The government alleged the profit taken by Garrett and Moss rightfully belonged to the bank.
They were said to be controlling stockholders owning 3,700 of the bank's 10,000 shares, issued through the Republic National Finance Corp. which was chartered by Garrett and Morris. The two also were named as beneficial owners of 1,570 shares issued to Steiner.
SPECIFIC CHARGE
The indictment charges that from July 1 to Oct. 31, 1963, Garrett, Moss and Steiner conspired to misapply funds and credit of the First National Bank of Marlin and that Steiner influenced the election of Roger Harrold as a director Aug. 16, 1963.

The two defendants and Steiner then chartered and incorporated the Valley National Mortgage Co. and on Sept. 11 Steiner induced bank directors to instruct the bank to accept $1 million in deposits to be invested in Houston real estate, the indictments state.
It is charged that the three men executed a $970,000 check Oct. 7 and it was paid the following day by the Riverside National Bank in Houston, and on Oct. 9 checks for $11,954 and $82,616 to Garrett and $82,616 to Morris were drawn on the Valley National Mortgage Co. account at the Fannin Bank in Houston.
Evidence was presented to the grand jury by Asst. U. S. Atty. Harry Hudspeth of San Antonio. He said the defendants probably will be tried at Waco.
