Marines, Dominican Insurgents In Battle

Joint Military Force Entry Voted By OAS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Organization of American States made a historic break from tradition early today and voted to establish an inter-American military force in the Dominican Republic. The force will include some of the approximately 20,000 U.S. Marines and paratroopers already patrolling the Dominican capital of Santo Domingo. As other nations contribute to the joint force, part of the U.S. contingent will be withdrawn, Ellsworth Bunker U.S. ambassador to the OAS, told the American nations. He said he was speaking on the authorization of President Johnson, who had been urging since last week that an inter-American military force be set up in the riot-torn Caribbean republic.

Marine's Letter

Marine Cpl. Russell Rowe of Zion, Ill., who made this photo earlier with his fiancée, Dora Compostella, wrote her on eve of his landing in Dominican Republic. "Now is my chance to do something for my country." The letter hadn't yet reached her last Friday when Rowe was trapped in a machine gun ambush and wounded in both arms, both legs and abdomen. Today he is in Washington's Walter Reed Hospital in critical condition with both legs amputated. (AP WIREPHOTO)

American Dead, Wounded Listed

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — One U.S. Marine was reported killed, two wounded and two captured by insurgent forces early today in brisk action in the heart of this Dominican capital. U.S. military spokesmen said they could not confirm the casualties. American newsmen on the scene saw the action involving a patrol of seven or eight Marines who drove into rebel-held territory. Shooting ensued. A rebel spokesman said two captured Marines were being questioned. There was no immediate information on what happened to the two wounded Americans.

Student Mob Demonstrates In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Six thousand students denouncing U.S. action in the Dominican Republic hurled fire bombs at police outside the Argentine Congress Wednesday night in an hour-long battle that left at least 13 injured. Demonstrations also flared in Venezuela, Colombia, Peru and Chile. Most of the Argentine demonstrators were leftist students, but police said Communists joined in and touched off the violence. American officials announced that four U.S. servicemen were wounded Wednesday in other firing in Santo Domingo. This brought the total of American casualties in the Dominican crisis to 7 dead, 1 missing and 58 wounded. Caamano warned earlier that the U.S. forces could bring on a "massacre" by moving into the insurgents' zone. A U.S. spokesman replied: "We have sent word to Caamano that we reserve the right to effect any moves necessary in the implementation of our mission in the Dominican Republic."

ANTI-U.S. SLOGANS

Chanting anti-Yankee slogans, the mob hurled incendiary bombs and rocks at mounted police, smashed shop windows and set chairs and tables ablaze in sidewalk cafes. One report said the rioters wrecked 10 cars including the limousine of Vice President Carlos Perette, en route from the Senate to his residence in the Savoy Hotel. Demonstrators also smashed in the Savoy's glass front. Federal Police Chief Nicolas Rodriguez said the students had been given permission to demonstrate, but that Communists set off the violence.

POLICE MOVE IN

Police moved in with pressure hoses and blanketed the area outside the Congress with tear gas. A group of congressmen from the pro-Peron Justicialist party condemned the visit of W. Averill Harriman, President Johnson's envoy touring Latin America to explain the U.S. action in the Dominican Republic. Harriman went on to Uruguay Wednesday night. He told newsmen that Communists are trying to touch off a hemisphere war through strife in six Latin American countries—Venezuela, Colombia, Haiti, Paraguay, Honduras and Guatemala.

ASKS RECOGNITION

Caamano, sworn in as "provisional president" by the rebels on Tuesday, sent requests to foreign governments for diplomatic recognition. The United States announced, however, that it believed "there is no effective (Dominican) government at the present time." A U.S. spokesman here charged Wednesday night that Caamano is "moving closer to the Communists." The official said the "evaluation as of today is that the rebel movement is Communist-controlled."

Arms Fund Bill Due Senate OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate moves today toward sweeping passage of a $700-million arms fund bill that in President Johnson's view will constitute a vote of confidence in his Viet Nam policies. The measure whizzed through the House Wednesday. Passage on a 408-7 vote came after less than two hours' debate. In requesting the $700 million, Johnson told Congress, "I cannot guarantee this will be the last request." The Defense Department budget already is running around $50 billion a year. The additional money will be used for ammunition, replacement of lost aircraft, maintenance of planes and construction of warehouses and oil storage facilities. The OAS action came on the heels of these U.S. Dominican developments. —U.S. government sources made public a list of 58 alleged Communists and Castroites who it said were involved in the Communist bid to take control of the Dominican Republic. —A State Department spokesman, commenting on the reported installation of rebel Col. Francisco Caamano Deno as president of the Dominican Republic, said the United States feels "there is no effective government at the present time" in the riot-torn Caribbean nation. —President Johnson conferred at the White House with former Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico. George E. Reedy, White House press secretary, said afterwards that Johnson and Munoz discussed the Dominican situation and Latin-American affairs in general.

(Related story on Page 2-A)

In a special message to Capitol Hill on Tuesday, Johnson asked Congress "to appropriate at the earliest possible moment an additional $700 million to meet mounting military requirements in Viet Nam."

PROMPT SUPPORT

He told the Senate and House he was asking "for prompt support of our basic course: Resistance to aggression, moderation in the use of power and a constant search for peace."

"Nothing will do more to strengthen your country in the world than the proof of national unity which an overwhelming vote for this appropriation will clearly show. To deny and delay this means to deny and to delay the fullest support of the American people and the American Congress to those brave men who are risking their lives for freedom in Viet Nam."

Wednesday, Speaker John W. McCormack said House passage of the military money bill "is an indication to the whole world that the people are behind our

AGAINST BILL

Seven House Democrats voted against the bill. They were Reps. George E. Brown Jr., Philip Burton and Don Edwards of California, John Conyers Jr. of Michigan, John G. Dow and William F. Ryan of New York, and Edith Green of Oregon.

Warm, Cool Air Clash; State Weather Unsettled

By The Associated Press. Masses of warm, moist air flowing inland from the Gulf of Mexico to meet the latest cool front kept Texas weather unsettled again today. At least one tornado developed near the Mexican border during the night, near cloudbursts soaked parts of West Central Texas and lighter rains skipped across the north half of the state. Scattered showers and occasional thunderstorms continued well into the morning before starting to subside from the middle and upper coast northward into Northeast Texas. Weather Bureau observers reported the twister whirled down to strike an uninhabited area 30 miles southeast of Del Rio and close to US 277. It uprooted trees but inflicted no other damage. FOUR INCHES. Up to four inches of rain deluged the area south of Abilene in Taylor and Runnels counties. It sent water flowing three feet deep across US 83 near Bradshaw. Small hail accompanied an inch of rain at Blackwell, south of Sweetwater. The storm interrupted telephone service for a time. Lines of showers punctuated by an occasional thunderstorm paraded across much of North and East Texas. Clouds still overhung most eastern and southern sections of the state this morning. Skies were clear over West Texas, including the Panhandle.

House-Passed Redistricting Plan Before State Senators

AUSTIN (AP)—The job of rearranging Texas' congressional districts moved to the Senate and a probable joint conference committee today.

House members passed on voice vote Wednesday a committee-drawn plan to redistribute the state's 23 seats in the House, giving populous Dallas and Harris counties one more congressman each. Eighteen attempts to amend the bill failed by top-heavy votes. House sentiment was reflected in a 118-24 record vote on tentative approval. STRATEGY CITED. Leadership strategy reportedly was to send the measure to the Senate with a big vote to strengthen the House bargaining position in the expected conference committee talks. The measure will go to conference if the Senate passes it in a different form and the House rejects the changes. Texas faces an Aug. 1 deadline, set by a federal court in Houston, to draw new districts of substantially equal population. Districts of equal size would have 416,508 people. Rep. Gus Mutscher of Bronham, chairman of the House Redistricting Committee, said the biggest deviation in the bill

EAST TEXAS

Re-election campaigns between incumbent congressmen could be forced by the bill in two East Texas districts. Congressmen John Dowdy of Athens and Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater would go in one district, Reps. Wright Patman of Texarkana and Ray Roberts of McKinney in another. Major attempts to revise the bill were aimed at meeting objections to its treatment of Tarrant, Bexar, Ector and Midland counties. Other defeated amendments would have shifted counties in the Rio Grande Valley, parts of East Texas and the South Plains cotton counties.

BITTER DEBATE

Most bitter debate came when Rep. Frank Caboon of Midland, the legislature's only Republican, tried to substitute a bill drawn by a GOP committee. The substitute met Caboon's objection to separation of Midland and Ector (Odessa) counties.

"This entire hassle was brought on by a Republican-led lawsuit. Now they demand we pass this bill and accuse us of gerrymandering if we don't take their bill hook, line and sinker. Its sole purpose is to

COUNTRIES READY

Paraguay and Venezuela announced they were ready to contribute military units to the new force Costa Rica, which has no regular army, offered police units Argentina and Brazil, it was indicated, also are considering sending military forces. There was no indication on the total forces the other hemisphere nations might contribute, nor the date of their probable arrival in the Dominican Republic. The vote was a departure from the OAS tradition of non-intervention in the Western Hemisphere. Never before had such a joint force of American nations been created formally to go into a country beset by internal turmoil, although various nations contributed military assistance during the Cuban missile crisis in the fall of 1962. The purpose of the joint force, the OAS declared, is to establish a climate of peace and consultation permitting the functioning of democratic institutions in the Dominican Republic.

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS

The OAS action came on the heels of these U.S. Dominican developments. —U.S. government sources made public a list of 58 alleged Communists and Castroites who it said were involved in the Communist bid to take control of the Dominican Republic. —A State Department spokesman, commenting on the reported installation of rebel Col. Francisco Caamano Deno as president of the Dominican Republic, said the United States feels "there is no effective government at the present time" in the riot-torn Caribbean nation. —President Johnson conferred at the White House with former Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico. George E. Reedy, White House press secretary, said afterwards that Johnson and Munoz discussed the Dominican situation and Latin-American affairs in general.

TROOPS INCREASE

The number of U.S. troops in the Dominican Republic was put at 19,363 by the Defense Department. It said these included 12,439 Army men — mainly paratroopers from the 82nd Airborne Division — and 6,924 Marines. The total was 5,363 more than the 14,500 announced Sunday night by President Johnson.

The United States proposed originally that the OAS set up an inter-American force for the Dominican Republic, but the measure was revised by amendments from other countries before its final adoption. Fourteen countries voted for the revised proposal, five — Uruguay, Mexico, Chile, Peru and Ecuador — voted against it and Venezuela abstained.

EFFORT FAILS

Earlier, the Venezuelans had attempted — and failed — to amend the resolution to say that the inter-American force would replace the American troops in the Dominican Republic. In releasing the list of 58 alleged Communists and Castroites, the official sources said the information was part of what President Johnson had available when he declared Sunday night that Communists had seized the revolution started April 24 by supporters of ousted President, Juan Bosch.

Klan Case Near Jury

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP) — The defense rested its case in the civil rights murder trial of a young Ku Klux Klansman today after FBI agents testified that a gun identified as the one which killed the civil rights worker was not tested for fingerprints.

(Earlier story on Page 2-B)

Attorney Matt H. Murphy Jr. brought his testimony to an abrupt close after questioning six witnesses in an effort to discredit a story told earlier by the prosecution's chief witness, Gary Thomas Rowe Jr.

Circuit Solicitor Arthur E. Gamble Jr., the chief prosecutor, did not indicate immediately whether he would put in rebuttal testimony. If not, it could have been later that night afternoon in the fourth day of the trial. The defendant, Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr., 21, did not testify. One of the defense witnesses, Mrs. Lorene Frederick, gave what could be an alibi for Wilkins. Mrs. Frederick, who operates a cafe at Bessemer, Ala., said Wilkins, Rowe and two other Klansmen also charged with killing Mrs. Viola Liuzzo, a Detroit, Mich., civil rights worker, were in her place the night of March 25 when Mrs. Liuzzo was slain. She said it was about 9:30 or 10 p.m., which would be about 2 1/2 hours and approximately 125 miles away from the scene of the slaying. On cross-examination, however, Mrs. Frederick said she wasn't sure of the time and it could have been later that night

Petitions To Urge Change For Cotton

More than 100 persons, representing farmers, bankers and businessmen, met at the chambers of commerce office this morning to protest a recent proposal by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to penalize skip-row cotton planters. The proposal, entered on the "Federal Register" April 22, becomes effective in 30 days without discussion, if action is not taken before that date.

PLAN EXPLAINED

E. P. Driver, chairman of the chambers agriculture committee; Charlton Chapman, who will attend a meeting of directors of the Plains Cotton Growers Association in Lubbock Tuesday; Herb Helbig, Howard County Agent, and others, explained the proposal which would cut cotton acreage from 15 to 30 per cent among skip row planting. The cut would depend upon the skip method, whether farmers use two and two, two and four, two and one, or four and four. A report sent to county agents showed that the proposed order, based on 40-inch row widths, would cut the acreage as follows: (Using pattern, per cent of area charged as cotton at present, charged as cotton under proposed rule, and the percentage increase in cut) 2 in-1 out, 66 2/3 per cent, 86 2/3 per cent, for total cut of 30 per cent; 2 in-2 out, 50 per cent, 65 per cent, 30 per cent; 2 in-4 out, 33 1/3 per cent, 43 1/3 per cent, 30 per cent; 4 in-2 out, 66 2/3, 76 2/3, 15 per cent; 4 in-4 out, 50 per cent, 57 1/2 per cent, 15 per cent. "Assume a 100-acre cotton allotment planted in a 2 in-1 out pattern: through 1965 this acreage could be planted on 150 acres of land and be in compliance with the farmer's allotment. Under the proposed ruling, the acreage of land could not exceed 115.5 acres with 2 in-1 out planting pattern, and still be in compliance with the 100-acre allotment," the report said.

U.S. Building Funds Voted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee approved today a total of $105,577,000 for new federal buildings in 25 states in the year starting July 1.

The committee specifically denied money for a proposed federal office building in Dallas. President Johnson's budget had recommended $22,128,000 for the Dallas building. The committee report made no comment concerning the Dallas building. Construction funds, which are in addition to site funds previously voted, asked for Texas projects include: Lubbock, post office, $1,454,000. The committee approved $20 million for use by the General Services Administration in acquiring sites and providing designs for 20 buildings. These items, as previously listed by the GSA, include these Texas projects: Laredo, Border Patrol station headquarters, $100,000; Lubbock, post office, courthouse-office building, $524,000; Rockwall, post office-office building, $72,000.

To take away the advantage of skip row planting of cotton would result in a more rapid approach toward economic disaster."

The group unanimously approved a motion to let the Agriculture Department know of its disapproval, and to ratify the resolution asking that the order be rescinded.

All present were asked to write personal letters to Freeman, and to senators and congressmen, expressing disapproval of the proposal, which is to be rescinded. (See COTTON, Col. 7, P. 4-A)

Viet Red Ammo Bunkers Attacked

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Air Force jets smashed a North Vietnamese ammunition complex today and claimed "spectacular results." A spokesman said four underground ammo bunkers were blown up after direct hits and four others were left burning.

On the political front, South Viet Nam's Armed Forces Council dissolved itself, ending 18 months of military control of the civilian government. The development strengthened Premier Phan Huy Quat's hand.

SHUTTLE MEN

A task force of transport planes continued to shuttle the 3,500 men of the U.S. Army's 173rd Airborne Brigade from Okinawa to South Viet Nam. Reports circulated that the landing of another large group of U.S. Marines was imminent.

In the raid north across the 17th Parallel, 25 F105 jet fighters-bombers dumped 80 tons of bombs on the Phu Van ammunition complex, 125 miles southwest of Hanoi.

A U.S. military spokesman said towering black clouds of smoke were rising from the area as the jet pilots broke off their 45-minute attack. All returned home safely.

Rain and low clouds had hampered pilots on recent raids and forced cancellation of two strikes.

YANKS WOUNDED

A U.S. military spokesman said three American service men were wounded Wednesday. Two Army helicopter crewmen were hit during a government operation near Da Nang airbase, and an Air Force enlisted man was slightly wounded during a mission to apply defoliation spray along a road. All three were released after treatment.

The spokesman said Viet Cong guerrilla attacks in South Viet Nam continue to increase and "a rather substantial number were reported in the 24 hours ending Thursday morning."

Five Viet Cong attacks were reported Wednesday, with three ending in victories for the Reds. The Communists also fought it out with government soldiers in Darlac Province, killing 14 and losing only three known dead.

Juniors Stage Annual Fete

WESTBROOK (SC)—Members of the junior class honored the Westbrook senior class at the annual junior-senior banquet Saturday evening in the Medallion Room at Colorado City. Theme of the banquet was "Stairway to the Stars."

Darrell Forbes, member of the junior class and son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Forbes, was master of ceremonies. Invocation was given by Trevor Crawford, Coahoma. Forbes gave the welcome, and Larry Bell the response.

Forty-eight attended. The food was prepared by junior class mothers and served by the sophomore girls, Carolyn Bryant, Vickie Chambers, Vee Iglehart, Melissa Kilough, and Jannette Rich.

Senior Class members include Larry Bell, Jug Rees, Faye Richey, Claudine Riffe, Vickie Jarrett, Lynda Gayle Sullivan, Janella Williamson, Patty Rees, Rita Sue Henderson, Shirley Nowell, and Judy Hart.

Negroes Plan Big Protests

HOUSTON (AP) — A series of civil rights demonstrations and the boycott of at least one Negro high school apparently are planned Monday by Negro groups.

The demonstrations, including a so-called civil rights march, are aimed at immediate and total desegregation of Houston schools.

Triumph Seen On Trinity Canal

DALLAS (AP) — Backers of plans to canalize the Trinity River can expect the project to overcome "formidable obstacles ahead" and contribute strongly to the state's economy, executive vice president Dale Miller of the Intracoastal Canal Association said here.

Miller, who also represents the Dallas Chamber of Commerce in Washington, predicted the same type of industrial development along the Trinity as that which quickly materialized along the Intracoastal Canal.

Actor, Mother Are Hospitalized

NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Zachary Scott, 51, and his mother, Mrs. Zachary Scott Sr. of Austin, Tex., are hospitalized here.

She is under treatment for acute arthritis. Her son entered the hospital for what was described as an annual checkup.

Southern Negroes Stage Syracuse Protest Rally

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Southern Negroes, protesting "Northern hypocrisy" in race relations, pictured Syracuse as "just another backyard of Mississippi" and told a rally, "We came here to help you."

Twenty-two bus riders from Alabama and Mississippi arrived Wednesday and led a seven-block parade to a Clinton Square demonstration where they joined James Farmer, leader of the Congress of Racial Equality.

The visitors plan a two-week stay in Syracuse and will join in demonstrations, including picketing of a power company office today.

MARCH, RIDE

At the rally Wednesday night, Farmer promised more "freedom rides in reverse."

He told a cheering crowd, estimated at 1,500: "We will ride in the North and in the South. We will ride in the East and in the West. We will march and we will walk until justice is done."

Fannie Lou Hamer of Ruleville, Miss., a member of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party, said "you're not free in Syracuse until we are free in Mississippi. It's so full of hypocrisy here. They're doing the same as down there. Syracuse is just another backyard of Mississippi."

BIAS IN HIRING

CORE has pressed demonstrations against the Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. here for the past nine weeks, contending that the company discriminates against Negroes in its hiring practices.

Farmer foresaw "a long, hot summer" in the North and South "unless segregation is wiped out."

The only incident occurred when a white youth yelled from in front of the platform: "Isn't anyone going to speak up for the white people?"

Barnett, Johnson Freed Of Charges

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Former Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett — and his successor, Paul B. Johnson, the current chief executive of the Deep South state — have been freed of criminal contempt stemming from their attempts to keep a Negro from enrolling at the University of Mississippi.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, in a 4-3 decision announced Wednesday, dropped the charges, which grew out of the 1962 integration of Ole Miss by James H. Meredith.

"No sufficient reasons exist for further prosecution of the proceedings," said the 3½-page majority opinion of Judges Richard Rives of Montgomery, Ala.; Warren Jones of Jacksonville, Fla.; Walter P. Geurin of Tuscaloosa, Ala.; and Griffin B. Bell of Atlanta, Ga.

"We are doubtful, to say the least, whether we and the other judges may not have formed a fixed opinion that" Johnson and Barnett are guilty, the majority said.

Barnett was governor at the time; Johnson was lieutenant governor.

They asked for a jury trial. The appeals court, divided 4-4, asked the U.S. Supreme Court to decide the issue. The Supreme Court said no jury, and told the appellate judges to proceed.

Judge John Minor Wisdom of New Orleans, in his dissent, called Barnett "the man in high office who defied the nation" and "struck a blow against American federalism."

When Meredith arrived at Ole Miss on Sunday, Sept. 30, 1962, a riot broke out. By dawn the next day, two men were dead and several hundred injured. The Army—23,000 strong—moved in and Meredith was officially enrolled.

'Health Hazard' Label Bill OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Commerce Committee unanimously approved today a bill to require "health hazard" warnings on all cigarette packages.

The measure would make it illegal to sell or distribute within the United States cigarettes in a package which does not contain a label asserting "caution: cigarette smoking may be hazardous to your health."

SUSPEND RULE

The committee, however, approved an amendment by chairman Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., to suspend for three years a proposed Federal Trade Commission regulation which would require manufacturers to include similar warnings in their advertising.

However, the commission would retain its authority to prohibit advertising by the manufacturers found to be "unfair or deceptive."

"A PRECAUTION"

Magnuson said this was designed to prevent manufacturers from using advertising carrying propaganda discounting the health hazards from cigarettes, or including pictures of cigarette packages which do not show the warning label required by the legislation.

The legislation grew out of a report last year by Surgeon-General Luther L. Terry, asserting cigarette smoking was a "serious hazard to health" and casually connected with lung cancer.

Man Charged In Burglary

Burglary charges were filed this morning against Morris L. Madden, 24, in connection with two break-ins discovered early today. Big Spring detectives received a statement from Madden this morning concerning the two break-ins.

Charges were filed with Justice of the Peace Walter Grice shortly before noon. No bond had been set this morning. Officers reported finding Madden at the Hamby Used Car Lot, 911 W. 4th. Patrolmen said Madden told them he was a janitor working at the office. The officers left the building after checking his identification.

Police again checked the auto lot office and reported that soft drink and cigarette machines had been opened and change taken, police said. Both buildings were entered through windows.

Officers said they became suspicious when they found a pickup parked in the 900 block of West Fifth which had been reported stolen earlier in the night. Owner of the pickup was Jim Whitefield, 1600 A Virginia, who had reported the vehicle taken from North Benton Street. Madden was later arrested in the 100 block of East Twelfth Street.

Peters Returns To Hospital

John Marvin Peters, 26, who walked away from his quarters at the Big Spring State Hospital last Saturday night, came back "home" last night.

Peters, ordered committed to the state hospital after a jury in 118th District Court held he was insane at the time of his scheduled trial for burglary, was being sought by officers over the area.

It was reported that he called the hospital last night and asked if it would be all right for him to come back.

Told he would be welcomed, the straying patient showed up and was back in his ward today.

Mrs. Field's Rites Friday

Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday for Mrs. Bettie Field, 88, who died at 7:05 p.m. Wednesday in a local hospital after a brief illness. Mrs. Field and her husband had moved to Howard County in 1907.

Mrs. Field was born April 8, 1877, in Limestone County, Tex., and married Bert Field in 1904 in Jones County. She was preceded in death by Mr. Field, in 1949, and by a son, Sam, in 1954.

Services will be at Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel, with burial in City Cemetery.

Survivors include one son, Fred Field, Crane; two daughters, Mrs. Ruben Schuessler Goldsmith, Tex., and Mrs. A. F. Lehmann, Odessa; one sister, Mrs. Sally Chapman, Lamesa; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Scouters Meet

Members of the Lone Star District Committee of the Boy Scouts have been urged to attend a meeting at 7:30 p.m. today to make plans for the summer scouting program. The meeting is to be at the Cosden Club.

Problems Stir Welfare State

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Uruguayans have a leg up on the ladder to Utopia, but the laws of economics are pulling in the other direction.

Problems are stirring the welfare state's usually placid political scene.

Uruguay's basic problem is that in 1964 it failed to sell a large portion of the wool crop which usually brings in $6 to 70 per cent of the country's dollar earnings. A sharp inflationary turn boosted living costs 38 per cent last year.

Yet hardly anyone seems worried in this busy, beach resort-capital of 1.3 million, one of the hemisphere's more attractive cities.

Uruguay has a long, firmly rooted tradition of internal peace — no violent upheavals in more than 50 years. Citizens regard this as insurance against any serious storms.

RETIRE AT 50

Uruguayans can retire at 50.

WEATHER

NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS — Cloudy and warm tonight and Friday. Thunder showers in 40 per cent of west Friday afternoon. Low tonight 62 to 76. High Friday 82 to 90.

Table with columns for CITY, MAX, MIN, and TEMPERATURES. Lists cities like Abilene, Amarillo, Chicago, Denver, El Paso, Fort Worth, Galveston, Houston, New York, San Antonio, St. Louis, and Sun sets today.

there are some 200,000 government employees and 267,137 retired persons on pensions in a population of 2.6 million. The costs keep mounting and the sources of money are limited.

Hemmed in geographically and economically by two giants, Brazil and Argentina, this Nebraska-sized country must fight to survive in a highly competitive market.

Because of a minuscule internal market and hardly any mineral resources to encourage industrialization, Uruguay has little alternative to a purely agricultural economy.

The main dollar producers are usually wool, meat and tourism in that order, with an annual yield of $180 to 200 million.

The social welfare system has produced an overwhelmingly middle class population with middle class appetites for goods. Import taxes ranging up to 300 per cent on luxury and non-essential imports — cars, television sets, refrigerators — fail to discourage buyers. They not only spent $20 million on these goods abroad in 1964 but had to deposit twice the imported value for six months with the government — at no interest and paying, instead, a "custody fee" to the bank. When these measures failed to curb buying, the government ceased issuing import licenses Jan. 11.

TRADE BALANCES Uruguay has recorded favorable trade balances in only two of the last 10 years. At the end of 1964 the Bank of the Republic listed public and private foreign exchange debits at a total $345 million.

Wool growers, finding good prices for their 1963-64 harvest, held back for more. World prices were still fair for the 1964-65 crop, but they leveled out below desirable export exchange rates fixed by the government. The official exchange rate was 16.40 pesos to the dollar while it took 24 pesos to equal $1 on the free market.

Sam Rayburn Dam

This is the power plant and outlet structure at Sam Rayburn Dam and Reservoir on the Angelina River 18 miles northwest of Jasper, Tex. The reservoir, now collecting water, will cover 114,500 acres at normal level, rising to 172,500 acres in time of flood. The dam is 13,440 feet in length and the reservoir will have a shore line of 560 miles in five counties. (AP WIREPHOTO)

'Freak' Legislature Gives Nebraska New Pleasure

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska 28 years ago became the first state in 100 years to vest its lawmaking functions in a unicameral or one-house legislature.

Until the U.S. Supreme Court last year expugned the "one-man, one-vote" doctrine, it appeared another century might follow Nebraska's lead.

Nebraskans who haven't been too happy at the implication they were harboring a freak have taken pleasure at new-found interest from states wondering if one house wouldn't do as well as two if both must be apportioned solely on the basis of population.

SEE ADVANTAGE Nebraskans familiar with both one-house and two-house lawmaking say the advantages of the Nebraska-type legislature over the conventional bicameral legislature include these:

- Lower costs, as a result of fewer legislators on the payroll.
-Avoidance of duplicated effort, with bills going through only one house, instead of two.
-Clear-cut, simplified and fully exposed lawmaking steps, so that a citizen at all times can know precisely the status of any piece of legislation.
-Lawmakers are held more fully responsible for their actions, with record votes mandatory on any issue on the motion of any one senator.

-Legislation which might meet with majority favor cannot be sidetracked or pigeon-holed by a small minority.

SMALLER BODY -The smaller size of the body, and the larger legislative districts from which each senator is elected, gives voters a better choice and results in a generally higher caliber legislature.

Why hasn't the one-house legislature caught on so far? Hugo Srb, clerk of the Nebraska house since its 1937 inception, blames it chiefly on the fact no legislator wants to legislate himself out of a job.

Nebraska's last bicameral legislature in 1935 had 133 members. Ninety of these positions were abolished as the 43-member single house came into being. Reapportionment two years ago added six members for a present total of 49.

Only eight states have fewer than 100 legislators. New Hampshire counts 424.

Putting legislators out of work may be the practical political objection, but bicameral states have been more wont to brush off the Unicameral on grounds it sacrifices some checks and balances inherent in the two-house system.

SINCE 1789 Benjamin Franklin was poo-pooing such talk as early as 1789, when the issue was a hot one in Pennsylvania.

"If one part of the legislature may control the operations of the other," he wrote, "may not the impulses of passion, the intrigues of faction, the haste of folly or the spirit of encroachment in one of those bodies obstruct the good proposed by the other and frustrate its advantages to the public?"

May not the wisdom brought to the legislature by each member be as effectual a barrier against the impulses of passion etc. when the members are united in one body, as when they are divided?"

Nebraskans don't contend their system is perfect. They complain on occasion that the nonpartisan body lacks leadership. They grumble that the legislature entertains and passes too many bills, and that its sessions run too long.

Charles Jones' Funeral Today

Services will be at 4 p.m. today for Charles Ray (Chuck) Jones, 35, a Big Spring resident since 1952, who died Tuesday after a brief illness. The services are to be at Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel, with the Rev. W. H. Uhlmann, pastor of First Baptist Church of Stanton, officiating.

Graveside services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Blue Ridge Cemetery, Blue Ridge, Texas.

Mr. Jones came to Big Spring from Bonham. He had worked in the oil fields as a driller for several years and for the past three years has owned and operated Chuck's Cafe. He was born Feb. 9, 1930 in Pilot Point.

Water Development Bond Issuance Bill Sent Connally

AUSTIN (AP) — The House sent to Gov. Connally today a bill authorizing issuance of another $100 million in state water development bonds, a key request in the governor's legislative water program.

The Senate-passed measure cleared 115-6. It needed 100 votes because each house must give a two-thirds vote to all bills authorizing issuance of water development bonds.

The bill enables the Water Development Board to issue up to the full $200 million constitutional limit on its bonds. A proposed constitutional amendment adding another $200 million to the amount of bonds that can be issued has cleared the Senate and is in a House subcommittee. BOND PROCEEDS Proceeds from the bonds may be lent to government subdivisions for water conservation projects or used by the state to purchase water storage in reservoirs.

There was no debate. The House approved a compromise worked out by North Texas city officials and legislators on the Dallas-Fort Worth airport feud.

The House voted 122-0 to submit to voters a constitutional amendment worked out by city attorneys of the two cities to allow creation of regional airport authorities.

The measure stems from the long dispute over whether Dallas' Love Field or the Greater Southwest Airport in Tarrant County should be designated a regional airport for both cities.

Legislators awaited Gov. Connally's statewide telecast to night, mostly at 8:30 p.m., explaining his 10-year teacher pay proposal which provides for greater local participation in school financing.

"I'm waiting to see what he will say," said Sen. A. M. Aikin of Paris, sponsor of the Teachers' Association bill providing a $405 annual pay increase, who is meeting with the author of Connally's plan, Sen. Jack Strong of Longview.

"Jack is a friend of mine and if we can come up with something satisfactory that will help him, I'll go along with it," Aikin said.

Aikin said Strong's proposal to shift from the state to local districts financing of 20 per cent of textbooks and teacher retirement "is out. We can't afford it up in my area."

The question actually rests on how much tax money Connally forces are willing to raise to finance a pay raise, he said. Aikin said he has no preference as to whether to work out a compromise before the bills reach the floor or in a joint House-Senate conference committee.

Thomas Is Given Delay On Cases

George Thomas, Big Spring attorney, slated to go to trial in Howard County Court this morning on one of three misdemeanor charges pending against him, won continuances on two aggravated assault charges and a charge of carrying arms was postponed by agreement.

Thomas, accused of making two assaults on Cleo Thomas, his wife, attacked one of the state's cases on the grounds that the original complaint in the court of Walter Grice, justice of the peace, was incomplete and invalid, and that a second complaint based on the same specific episode, prepared by the county attorney's office, constituted a charge that he had not been legally aware of.

The motion for continuance by the defendant was sustained by Judge Lee Porter after a lengthy discussion.

Dee Jon Davis, county attorney, then sought to go to trial on the second of the assault cases — one which had not been filed in the justice courts, but was handled directly in the county courts.

Thomas presented an affidavit from Dr. Clyde Thomas that O. W. West, the father of Bobby West, who Thomas declared was his chief defense witness, is critically ill and that West would not be available to testify.

West, who works for Thomas, would have testified regarding the second assault allegation by Mrs. Thomas.

The first assault was allegedly committed at the Thomas home April 3. The second dealt with an incident which allegedly occurred in Thomas' law office.

Davis said that he would request the cases for trial in the near future.

Judge Porter called the jury panel into the court room and told them there would be no work for them to do at this time.

Was Intoxicated When He Arrived

A report in Wednesday's Herald, concerning a 13-year-old youth being picked up for being intoxicated from glue-sniffing, was not accurate in all details. He did not become intoxicated at the shop, but was intoxicated when he entered and attempted to buy some glue. The manager refused and summoned police, who turned the lad over to the juvenile officer. He had not been in difficulty before, said Bob Darland, juvenile officer, but a companion had been frequently.

Costs High For ROW

Seven tracts of land, needed for right of way if FM 700 is extended west from US 87, will cost the county at least $185,741.

This was the figure laid before the Howard County Commissioners Court Thursday morning by Harold Talbot and George Elliot, appraisers. Included in the list of property involved is a service station near Goliad Street.

The seven tracts do not include all of the property which will be involved in the right-of-way problem.

Howard County will have to provide funds to pay for the needed right of way if the state builds the extension of the road. To raise funds for this purpose, it is proposed to lay a bond election before the voters of the county when this election will be called or for what amount will have to be worked out.

County Meets Quota For Fund

Howard County farmers and cattlemen have contributed their full quota to the voluntary screwworm control fund and the money has been dispatched to the state treasurer.

The exact sum is not available, but it was in excess of $1,000. The county quota was approximately $900.

The cattlemen and farmers were asked to contribute funds to the campaign to continue the screwworm control program until federal and state funds are available.

Cynthia Vaughan Received Plaque

Cynthia Vaughan's name was carried incorrectly in the listing of the honoree-day assembly at Howard County Junior College. Cynthia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Vaughan, received the plaque for school spirit on behalf of Wesley Fellowship. She also was cited as sophomore girl favorite and as vice president of Wesley Fellowship.

Women's Rights Proponents To Try Again Next Session

AUSTIN (AP)—It's never safe to say definitely that the controversial "equal rights for women" proposal is dead for the current legislative session. But Sen. Bill Moore, a sponsor, said, "For all practical purposes, it's dead and we'll try again next session."

Rep. Paul Floyd of Houston told Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women members that Tuesday's third defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment in the House shows what a minority can do to a majority.

WILL RETURN

"At least now the women of Texas know who they have to work on," Floyd said. "We'll be back next session—and let's hope the State Bar of Texas in good faith works with the women and we can solve this question by then."

Floyd said he wouldn't try to resurrect the House measure again after the 89-89 vote fell short of the necessary two-thirds majority. He said, however, he would push a similar Senate proposal if Moore succeeded in winning Senate approval.

"It's so late in the session and it's clear the House isn't going to vote for it that I think for all practical purposes it is dead," Moore said.

"Of course, if I can get recognition from the lieutenant governor I'd try for Senate approval, but it would be Monday or Tuesday."

ACCEPTS AWARD

The B&PW, prime backers of the proposed equal rights amendment, in a 45-minute ceremony honored the two men they credited for working to give women the vote in Texas.

Former Sen. Penrose Metcalfe of San Angelo accepted the award made to his father, former Rep. Charles Metcalfe, and Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr accepted the women's award for the family of Sen. William Bledsoe of Lubbock.

"Women stood for the moral, cultural and Christian side of life," Metcalfe said his father believed, "and if they were given the vote they would carry those principles to the ballot box."

"We have seen improvement in state government in direct ratio to the participation of ladies in government," Carr said.

The ceremony was a bit subdued, even with the birthday cake and party afterward to mark Floyd's 36th birthday.

Floyd warned the women to "be cautious in the future...be sure of your candidates."

Mrs. Hermine Tobolowsky of Dallas, B&PW legal adviser, said she hesitated to say the state bar was acting in bad faith but noted the lawyers had opposed the amendment route of more rights for women and sponsored bills which she called detrimental to women.

Welch News Confab Bars Abilene Paper

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, plans a news conference prior to a speech here Tuesday night, and a spokesman said the Abilene Reporter-News will be barred.

Dr. W. Irby Fox, a Birch Society leader here, said Wednesday he had instructions from the home office in Massachusetts that Reporter-News staff members would not be allowed to attend.

SOUNDED CAUTION

He said the instructions came after Fox sent Welch a copy of an editorial in the Reporter-News April 27. It cautioned Abilene residents to be alert for Birch influence in such groups as parent-teacher associations.

In a boxed editorial printed beside the Fox statement, managing editor Ed Wishcamper wrote:

"Does he wish to have a press conference in Abilene or a journalistic social event? Mr. Welch's action in this instance brings to mind the familiar statement of former President Harry S. Truman, 'If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen.'"

Fox said Welch is on a tight schedule and a "hostile attitude of the press would not be useful."

OTHERS WELCOME

All other media representatives are welcome at the news conference, Fox said, including radio and television and high school and college newspapers. Abilene is the home of three church-affiliated colleges.

The Reporter-News, publishing morning and afternoon meetings, is the only daily newspaper here.

Fox said the hotel ballroom where Welch is to speak on "A Touch of Sanity" seats 850 and a good crowd is expected.

Dr. Sam Fights Return To Prison

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Attorney F. Lee Bailey, determined to keep Dr. Sam Sheppard out of Ohio Penitentiary, thinks the case will end up in the U.S. Supreme Court. Bailey planned to arrive here today from Boston and confer immediately with Sheppard, then with two attorneys helping him on the case.

ORDERED BACK
Sheppard's long fight for permanent freedom was set back when the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati Wednesday ordered him back to prison. The vote was 2-1. "I was somewhat surprised," Bailey said in Boston. "I thought one of the judges might go against us, but never two. I think there is a chance for a rehearing."

Bailey said "The case has got to end up in the U.S. Supreme Court." I will file a notice of appeal in the next 20 days, and this should stay execution of the order to return Sam to the penitentiary."

LIFE SENTENCE
Sheppard was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1954 for the bludgeon slaying of his first wife, Marilyn, at their suburban Bay Village home along Lake Erie. He was released last July after 10 years when U.S. District Judge Carl Weinman ruled he had not received a fair trial because of the publicity the case received.

The state appealed Judge Weinman's ruling. Bailey has 20 days to seek a stay of execution and file an appeal with the U.S. Supreme Court. If the stay is approved, the District Court could set an appeal bond for Sheppard, which would keep him out of prison until the Supreme Court decides on the new appeal.

SECOND WIFE
Sheppard lives with his second wife, former German divorcee Ariane Tebbenjohanns, in suburban Rocky River. When informed of Wednesday's decision, he said: "I was terribly disappointed. All our hopes now lie with the U.S. Supreme Court."

Sheppard, 41, a former osteopath, married Ariane in Chicago two days after his release from prison.

If Sheppard is returned to prison, he'll be eligible for parole in two months, according to Ohio Penitentiary officials.

Nun In New, Secular Post

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Sister Francetta Barberis is beginning again — with a tarnished silver dollar and a new job at the age of 65.

Sister Francetta, now president of Webster College at St. Louis, becomes a full-time consultant and coordinator for Job Corps centers for women June 1. She will wear secular clothing while working instead of the black robes of the Roman Catholic Sisters of Loretta.

"Life is a series of beginnings," she says. "Beginnings make life exciting and the final great beginning is death."

FUND DRIVE
When she became Webster College President in 1958, Sister Francetta started a fund drive. One day a student stopped her, handed her the silver dollar and said it was all she had to give. "That silver dollar was part of my beginning here and I don't think I'll ever give it away," says the nun.

Sister Francetta thinks nothing of working in secular dress instead of the habit she has worn since 1928 as a Roman Catholic nun.

"People put too much emphasis on clothing," she says. "When I go swimming, I wear a swimming suit. When I work among the people, it would behoove me to wear the habit of the people."

KEEP WORKING
Permission to wear the secular clothing was obtained from the head of her order, Sister Mary Luke, when Sister Francetta decided she wanted to keep working after retirement from Webster.

"I believe in retirement at age 65," she says. "But, I don't believe in stagnating."

She said she called Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., and asked him if he could help find her a job in the antipoverty program. Symington did — with the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Youth In Killings Ruled Delinquent

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — John Angles, 16, charged in the shooting deaths of three Corpus Christi fishermen, was declared a juvenile delinquent Wednesday.

County Judge Bolivar Brown remanded the California youth to custody of the Texas State Youth Development Council until he is 21.

Grand jurors met today for possible action on Paul Krueger, 17, also charged in the slayings.

Five Bovine Tracksters Leave For State Meet

By HARDY PRICE
Five young men left at 9 a.m. today to represent Big Spring in the State AAAA track and field meet in Austin Friday and Saturday.

They will be entered in two events — the sprint relay and the 180-yard low hurdles. It is the largest delegation the city has sent to the state meet since 1942.

Running the sprint relay for the Steers will be Johnny Hughes, Kirby Hodnett, Marvin Hall, Joe Jaure and alternate Rickey Earle. Hughes will also run the 180-yard low hurdles and is considered the favorite to capture first place.

Since the beginning of track season in February, the Steers have cracked 11 records and tied four others. They also recorded a number of near misses.

At the Comanche Relays the sprint relay foursome ran a 42.9, just one-tenth of a second off the meet record set in 1961 by Andrews, which later that same year set the national school boy record with a 41.5.

At the Canyon Reef Relays in Snyder in early March, Hughes ran an 18.6 to set a new record in the low hurdles and district high hurdles champ set a new meet record with a 14.7.

In the West Texas Relays in Odessa, Hughes ran a 19.0, one-tenth of a second off the meet record. San Angelo was next and Hughes tied the record with a 19.0. The sprint relay team tied the meet record in the preliminaries, but San Angelo broke the record in the finals.

The Carlsbad Relays was the big one for the Steers, with the locals breaking five records. Joe Jaure started things off with a 9.7 in the century, followed by a 19.0 by Hughes in the lows and a 15.0 by Baker in the highs. The sprint relay quartet broke the standing 440 relay mark with a 42.4 and then came back to run a record breaking 1:29.0 in the 880-yard relay.

At the district meet in Midland Hughes ran an 18.8 for a new record and the team scored 64 points for fifth place and defeated Odessa and Abilene for the first time in the school's history in a district track meet.

Hughes again put his name in the record book with an 18.8 at the Mustangs relays. Next came the regional meet in Odessa and Hughes again tied the standing low hurdle record with an 18.9. The Steers scored 34 points at the meet, placed fifth, tied Abilene and again beat Odessa.

Last weekend at the Hobbs relay the Steers showed their true strength with Hughes, Hodnett, Hall and Jaure racing to a 42.0 in the sprint relay, beating a Monahans team that had clocked a 41.8. It was the fastest sprint relay that a Big Spring team has recorded. Hughes broke the low hurdles record with an 18.7 and Rickey Earle, running second, tied the old record with a 19.1.

The Steers will work out Thursday afternoon in Austin and the sprint relay team will get the first call at 8:30 p.m. Friday. Hughes will run the lows about an hour later.

Encino Proud Of Its First Track Champ

ENCINO, N.M. (AP) — Sam Tenorio is the only Encino High School athlete ever to win a blue ribbon in a prep track meet.

The ribbon and the courage of Edwin Ortega are memorials to 27-year-old Amado Ortega, who was killed in an automobile accident near Encino April 15.

Tenorio, a junior, won the discus throw last Saturday in the Bean Valley Conference track and field meet at Albuquerque.

Mrs. Ortega, a 25-year-old mother of two children—Deborah, 4, and Alfred, 3—is the widow of Ortega, who brought track and field to Encino High School three years ago.

She will take Tenorio to Albuquerque Saturday, at her own expense, to compete in the district track meet where she hopes he will qualify as Encino's first competitor in the state track meet May 14-15.

"Coach thought Sam might do pretty well," she said of her husband.

But she isn't coaching the team.

"I'm sort of like a chaperone," she said.

Ortega was hired to coach this small central New Mexico ranching community's basketball team. The school, which had 58 students, never had a track team.

Ortega, who decided that the students needed a spring sport, scrounged for equipment. Some of it came from an Albuquerque high school 90 miles away.

Mrs. Ortega told how one student took a long stick and used it to practice pole vaulting. Tenorio pieced together a split javelin to practice.

Ortega had marked a gravel road in front of the school in measurements of 100 and 220 yards for dash practices. The 440 relay team ran on a dirt road.

At the Bean Valley meet, Tenorio threw the discus 118.9 to win the school's first track and field blue ribbon.

Although it's a little shy of the state meet qualifying distance of 125.0, the Class B record of 153.10½, or the state mark of 174.6, that doesn't discourage Mrs. Ortega.

"I also put Tenorio in the javelin so he wouldn't have to go for only one event," Mrs. Ortega said. "He kept falling down all the time. Sam wasn't used to throwing on grass—we don't have much around here."

"I kept reminding them why they were there — to do their best. But they were a little out of shape. I had said we had to get a trophy to leave in his memory."

The 5-foot-11, 105-pound shapely fifth-grade teacher added, "I felt like he worked so hard to get them in shape and felt that what I wanted to do was to take them myself."

Encino Principal C. Lloyd Hanson commented: "She has a lot of will power and courage. On her first day back in school following her husband's funeral, she asked, 'Can I take those boys to the track meet?'"

Langham Is Idled; HC Awaits Big One

With Steve Langham out of the line-up with a foot injury, coach Red Lewis and his Jayhawk track team will have a tough time winning conference honors Saturday in Roswell, N.M.

In fact, neither Langham nor Lewis will be able to make the meet. Lewis will be in Austin Friday and Saturday serving as referee for the State track meet.

Langham injured his foot two years ago and re-injured it at the Dallas indoor meet earlier this year. Over the weekend he stomped his toe and as a result now has a bad ankle. Doctors report he should not run for the next two weeks.

"With Steve it would have been easy to win the meet but now it will be rough unless our boys really put out," said Lewis. Langham is considered one of the top junior college quarter-milers in the country. Langham also runs in the 220-yard dash, the sprint relay and anchors the mile relay.

Lewis is not sure that Langham will be in top form for the National Junior College meet in Garden City, Kan., May 21-22. The Jayhawk mentor said if Langham is unable to attend the national meet, he would not take a full team.

teacher at HCJC, will take the squad to the conference meet. Leading the Jayhawk assault for the conference crown will be Harley Bynum, Jim Napier, Tom Carter, Ronnie Herriot, Jim Flowers, Walt Reyna and Julio Martinez.

Bynum, who holds the second fastest time in the intermediate hurdles in the state, will run both hurdles. Wednesday he ran a 39.2 in practice just two-tenths of a second off the conference record. Carter will run both hurdles with Bynum and it is expected the two will finish 1-2 in each event. It is not sure which will be first as both are highly competitive tracksters. Bynum will also run the 100.

Morton's Foods Defeats Pepsi-Cola In 2 Games

It took a bit of doing, but Morton's Foods defeated Pepsi-Cola in both ends of a softball doubleheader at the City Park here Wednesday night.

D. A. Miller's club won the opener, 1-0, in nine innings and then sailed to a 6-0 decision in the five-inning afterpiece as Spec Franklin hurled a two-hitter.

Morton's collected 11 hits in the opening game but was kept away from the plate by Joe Blassingame until the ninth when Bobby Suggs, who had doubled, was powered home by a two-baser off the bat of Gordon Fitz.

Gerold Cox banged out three hits and Buck Drake two for Morton's.

Troy Wetsel and Cotton Mize divided time on the mound for Morton's, giving up only two safeties between them. Mize got credit for the win.

Morton's started off with three runs in the first inning of the second game and was in command all the way. Jackie Blizard had two of Morton's seven hits, one of them a double.

Franklin yielded singles to Ernest Barbee in the first and to Ed Capers in the fourth. He fanned four and did not walk a batter in his five-inning stint.

Ralph Terry Effective In Cleveland Victory

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ralph Terry of the Cleveland Indians was so effective in his first start against his former New York

TERRY

Yankee teammates that he struck out one of them with a pitch he doesn't even throw.

Terry, the hero of the 1962 World Series dispatched to Cleveland in the Pedro Ramos trade last season, waited almost seven months for a shot at the Yankees and then spent only an hour and 40 minutes moving them down three hits for a 4-0 victory Wednesday night.

Strikeout victim Tom Tresh was one of the Yankees impressed with Terry's performance.

"He sure threw me one pitch I've never seen him use before," said Tresh. "He struck me out with a kind of screwball that came up to me and broke down and out."

"I don't throw a screwball," Terry said. "I throw fastballs, curves, and sliders."

Terry, who had a 7-11 record last year, admitted that he was happy about winning that one but I wanted to make sure I didn't rub it in."

Nevertheless, it seemed like he did.

Terry pitched effortlessly, using only 70 pitches. He allowed only singles, did not walk a man and did not allow a runner past first base while bringing his record to 4-1 and reducing his earned-run average to an eye-popping 1.66.

The Chicago White Sox, meanwhile, received strong performances from John Buzhardt and Joe Horlen, each pitching a four-hitter in 4-0 and 4-1 triumphs over Detroit. Camilo Pascual checked Baltimore on six hits in Minnesota's 9-2 victory and the Los Angeles Angels downed Boston 6-4.

Washington and Kansas City were not scheduled.

The Indians had lost 10 straight to the Yankees in Cleveland, but quicker than you can say White Ford they had given Terry more working room than he needed.

With two out in the first inning, Leon Wagner homered off Ford, Rocky Colavito singled, home another in the seventh.

Buzhardt, now 3-0, struck out 11 and allowed only one Tiger to reach third base in the opener while Bill Skowron and Ron Hansen supplied home run support. Skowron also doubled and scored another run while Hansen collected another run batted in with a sacrifice fly.

Horlen was tagged for an inside-the-park homer by Dick McAuliffe in the sixth inning and went into the seventh trailing 1-0. Then the White Sox struck for four runs.

Skowron's double, in between two walks issued by Dave Wickersham, loaded the bases. Smoky Burgess drove in two runs with a pinch-hit single before reliever Larry Sherry batted home one run and let in another with a wild pitch.

Pascual, bringing his record to 3-0, struck out eight and allowed only one while Zolno can say White Ford they had given Terry more working room than he needed.

Versalles tripled home a run in the second, slapped a two-run single in the third and doubled home another in the seventh.

With two out in the first inning, Leon Wagner homered off Ford, Rocky Colavito singled, home another in the seventh.

Quiet Parley Is Scheduled

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — What Southwest Conference officials claim will be one of their quietest meetings in years opened here today.

The reason: There won't be a single rules violation to be considered.

The over-all recruiting situation is reported to be better than it has for several years," said Howard Grubbs, executive secretary of the conference. "No reports into inquiries of alleged violations will be made to conference officials at this meeting."

The closest approach to action on a recruiting case will be to lift a probation against Texas.

Texas was penalized at the 1964 spring meeting in Lubbock but without sanctions, and thus played in a bowl game Jan. 1.

It was an indefinite probation with provision that it would be lifted within a year if the situation was corrected. Texas reported it had been handled.

Southern Methodist is starting the second half of a two-year probation handed out at Lubbock when sanctions were administered. Thus SMU can't play in a bowl game until 1966.

Arkansas drew an indefinite probation in December and this can't be lifted until next December in a situation similar to Texas. No sanctions were voted against Arkansas either.

While little fire is expected at the meeting this weekend, it still could be lengthy since some rules changes must be implemented.

The conference adopted a limit of 50 athletic scholarships for freshmen in football and also voted a maximum of two years on scholarships, neither effective until 1966.

Minimum grade requirements in line with a rule of the NCAA also will be worked out. Athletes entering school this fall will not be affected.

Bunning Home Run Stops Spahn, Mets

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Bunning of the Philadelphia Phils, who made his comeback last year, has temporarily sidetracked Warren Spahn's 1965 revival by beating the great southpaw at his own game.

Bunning, whose perfect game last June 21 against the New York Mets helped him capture National League comeback laurels, returned to Shea Stadium Wednesday night and personally outscored the Mets and Spahn 1-0 with an opposite-field home run.

The homer was Bunning's first in the league. Spahn has 36, the all-time record for NL pitchers.

Spahn, determined at 44 years of age to bounce back from his 6-13 season with Milwaukee in 1964, pitched his best game as a Met, matching Bunning's four-out effort with a pulled tendon in the sixth inning made Spahn a loser for the second time in four decisions.

Bunning's homer left him seven behind San Francisco's Willie

Mays for the year. Mays hit No. 8, high in the majors, in the Giants' 10-5, 10-inning victory at St. Louis. Milwaukee nipped Houston 2-1 in 14 innings, the Los Angeles Dodgers topped Cincinnati 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 3-1 in other NL games.

Bunning yielded four singles while improving his current record to 2-3. He retired 20 of 21 Met batters during one stretch and wrapped up the victory by striking out the side in the ninth.

"I hit a high curve ball," he said of the home-run pitch. "Spahn should know better than to throw a high curve to a country boy — or a good-hitting pitcher."

The Giants exploded for five runs in the 10th inning after two errors by second baseman Phil Gagliano on the same play opened the gates. Jim Davenport led off the inning with a double, took third on a ground out and scored the go-ahead run when Gagliano bobbled Ed Bailey's grounder, then threw wildly to the plate.

A bases-loaded triple by Willie

McCovey and a run-scoring double by Mays capped the rally. Mays' leadoff homer in the eighth had tied the score 5-5.

Left-hander Wade Blasingame pitched the entire 14 innings for Milwaukee, yielding only five hits and striking out 12, while Eddie Mathews' two-out double in the 14th delivered Mack Jones with the winning run.

Dick Farrell, the Houston starter, was struck on the back of the head by Hank Aaron's line drive in the last of the ninth. He finished the inning but was removed for a pinch hitter in the 10th.

Home runs by Dick Tracewski and Ron Fairly helped Sandy Koufax, 3-1, top Cincinnati for the lead in a game against the Dodgers. Fairly's inside-the-park homer and a two-run shot by Tracewski, both in the fifth inning, sent southpaw Jim O'Toole down to his fourth straight loss.

Chicago's Bob Buhl checked Pittsburgh on three hits for his third victory in four decisions. Jim Paganioni's eighth-inning homer ended his shutout bid.

Boros Proves He Is Ready For Colonial

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Seventy-two of the top names in golf — here by invitation only — came to grips today with one of the toughest golf courses on the professional tour, the 7,132-yard Colonial Country Club layout. The winner takes home $20,000.

Julius Boros, the casual 46-year-old ex-accountant, carded a brilliant five-under-par 65 in a pro-amateur Wednesday and immediately moved up high on the favored list.

A two-time winner of the Colonial Invitation, Boros bogeyed only one hole and sank putts up to 25 feet in a round that was only one stroke over the competitive course record set by Doug Ford in 1961.

Ex-Sands Mentor Named Coach At Hamlin High

HAMLIN — Joe Youngblood, former Sands High School football mentor and more recently coach at Aspermont, has been named head coach and athletic director at Hamlin High School.

He succeeds D. C. Andrews, who resigned recently to become coach at Everman.

In his only season at Aspermont, Youngblood guided his team to an 8-2 record. The Hornets finished second to Coahoma in the District 6-A race. He resigned his position at Aspermont two weeks ago.

In addition to his coaching tenure at Sands, Youngblood was also coach at Eula and Robstown. He was given a two-year contract at Hamlin.

Youngblood must hire a line coach, since Sam Walker recently quit to take a job at Albany.

Hamlin fields a team in District 5-AA, which has Anson, Ballinger, Colorado City, Haskell, Stamford and Winters as other members. It is considered one of the toughest districts in the state.

Help-The-Poor Plan May Boost Warriors, Knicks

NEW YORK (AP) — San Francisco and New York reap the first benefits of the National Basketball Association's new help-the-poor plan today when the pro league stages its annual player draft.

The two divisional tail-enders, the Warriors in the West and the Knicks in the East, each will get two of the first four selections. If San Francisco wins the coin toss, it will take Nos. 1 and 3 on the first round and New York Nos. 2 and 4.

If the flip goes to New York, it will take 1 and 4—since its record was better than San Francisco's — and the Warriors Nos. 2 and 3.

One of the Knicks' first-round choices probably will be a gamble on Princeton's great Bill Bradley. Under the NBA system of territorial apportionment, Princeton belongs to New York and the Knicks thus get first chance at Bradley.

However, the Tiger All-American is a Rhodes Scholar, bound for two years at Oxford, and then plans to study law. If the Knicks pick Bradley, it will be a move to have him under wraps should he change his mind about a pro career.

After San Francisco and New York, teams will pick according to won-lost records, in inverse order of percentage. Detroit is third, followed by Baltimore, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Los Angeles and Boston.

Namath Knee Is OK, Says Ewbank

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Joe Namath, the New York Jets' $400,000 bundle of football joy, was back at his old stomping grounds Wednesday to work out for Jets' Coach Weeb Ewbank, who came away well satisfied with what he saw.

"He has a strong enough arm," the coach said, "and that's all I really wanted to see."

The team will start practice in mid-July with Namath scheduled to report July 12.

Asked about Namath's knee, Ewbank said, "It's coming along fine. It seems to be a matter of keeping him working on it."

Estes Is Hired As Head Coach

GRAHAM—Tommy Estes has been named head basketball coach at Graham High School.

Estes, 29, has been serving as junior varsity coach at Abilene High School. He will assist in other sports here.

He succeeds Carl McMillan, who recently took a coaching job at Lubbock Coronado High School.

Outstanding Athlete

Patty Jones, left, a freshman from Eula, is shown with the Dibrrell Sportsmanship Award presented her in a ceremony at HJC Wednesday. Patty, who is a PE major, averaged 18 points a game as a forward on HJC's Jayhawk Queen basketball team and was a spiker in volleyball. With Patty is Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, selected as Teacher of the Year at the college.

Walker Ready To Use Star

CHICAGO (AP) — All Robert Clemente has to do is say he is ready to play and Pittsburgh Manager Harry Walker will greet him with open arms.

That's what Walker says. Clemente, defending National League batting champion, was not answering any telephone calls at his hotel room Wednesday night.

Clemente was quoted Wednesday by Al Abrams, sports editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, as saying:

"I want to be traded from this club, and I don't want to play for this manager any more."

The Pirates lost 3-1 to the Cubs Wednesday and the teams wind up their series today.

Clemente has been benched for several games after being used as a pinch hitter Sunday in St. Louis. He reported late for spring training after a bout with malaria at his home in Puerto Rico.

He batted .339 last year and .351 in 1961, when he also won the batting crown. His average this season is .265.

"He hasn't said a word to me about wanting to be traded," said Walker. "We certainly need him and want him back in the line-up as soon as possible. In St. Louis Sunday he said he wasn't feeling very strong and probably needed a rest."

"I thought it was a good time comes to me and says he is ready. We'll certainly welcome him. He is better than a lot of guys when he isn't even up to par."

Association Is Planning Meet

The Big Spring Golf Association will hold a members-only tournament Saturday and Sunday at the Municipal course.

Entry fee for the tourney will be $2.50 and will consist of two flights. A flight will be for linksters with handicaps from 1-10 and B flight for handicaps of 11 and over.

The play will be individual medal play and the low scratch player in each flight will receive three new golf balls.

Undergoes Knife

ADAMS POSTS HOLE-IN-ONE

T. Sgt. George Adams, making use of a wedge, helped himself to a hole-in-one on the fourth hole of the Webb AFB Golf course Wednesday.

Other members of Adams' foursome rounded out the story with pyramiding scores. Lt. Mike Walling fashioned a two on the par three hole. M. Sgt. Joe Thompson had a three while Capt. Jim Day settled for a four.

Distance from tee to hole on the fourth is 138 yards.

TEXANS GO FOR PLYMOUTH QUALITY

And Plymouth has a 5-year/50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty*

'65 Plymouth Fury

Quality in a car can be judged in many ways. And the new '65 Plymouth Fury will pass any quality test with flying colors. It has a look of quality—smart styling on the outside, rich-looking upholstery and trim on the inside. A test drive will quickly show you Plymouth's smooth riding qualities. And the way Plymouth is built to last indicates its quality construction. Add to these features Plymouth's 5-year/50,000-mile warranty* on the parts that keep you going, and you will readily see why Texans are going for Plymouth in a big way. Plymouth sales in Texas prove it!

*HERE'S HOW PLYMOUTH'S 5-YEAR/50,000-MILE ENGINE AND DRIVE TRAIN WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU:
Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1965 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential and rear wheel bearings. Required maintenance: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 8 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 8 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

Oilers Open Play May 16

The Gage Oilers, the sandlot baseball team being managed by Jim Baum, has booked the Snyder Eagles for a May 16 game at Steer Park here.

The Oilers will return the contest against the all-Negro club June 6.

Baum said he was seeking other games against contingents in Midland, Abilene and Lamesa.

Chubby Moser, Billy Roger and Bowman Roberts are pitchers on the Gage staff. Baum, a former pro player, will share catching duties with James Faris and Dean Christian.

Orbiting Rocket Due To Release Satellites

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—A Titan 3A rocket carrying two satellites flung its third stage into orbit as a flying launch platform today to trigger a series of intended orbit-shifting space acrobatics.

The 124-foot-tall booster blazed away from Cape Kennedy. The satellites were to be released at 2:24 p.m. after the third stage, called a transtage, fired its engines for a third time, each time changing orbit. The Air Force reported 13 minutes after the 10 a.m. (EST) launching that the transtage had fired successfully the first time and propelled itself into a circular orbit 115 miles high. Packed in its nose were an 80-pound experimental communications satellite and a 75-pound sphere designed to help calibrate radars and radio systems in America's worldwide satellite tracking network.

ELLIPTICAL PATH
After one 90-minute circuit of the globe in the initial orbit, the transtage was to re-start its engines and swing into an elliptical path ranging from 115 to 1,725 miles high.

When the transtage reached the high point of the egg-shaped orbit the second time, planned for 4 hours 24 minutes after launching, a third ignition was to circularize the course at 1,725 miles and the two satellites were to be kicked free.

The communications satellite carried a small motor which was to ignite to push it into a course reaching out to more than 11,000 miles. The satellite was to check long-life materials and techniques for future military communications satellites.

ANOTHER SHIFT
After 6 hours 54 minutes of flight, the transtage was to attempt an unprecedented fourth orbit to again shift its orbit to one ranging from 1,725 miles to 2,300 miles. The Air Force gave this experiment a 50-50 chance of success.

On Feb. 11, another Titan 3A transtage achieved the first triple firing in space.

The launching was the fourth and last planned for Titan 3A, which will serve as the upper three stages for a powerful Titan 3C rocket being developed by the Air Force for a variety of manned and unmanned military missions. The first test firing of the 3C is scheduled here in June.

The maneuverability of the transtage will be essential for military flights which will require orbit-shifting, such as manned reconnaissance, satellite interception or space rescue.

Water Release Bill Goes To Subpanel

AUSTIN (AP)—A bill aimed at freeing Texas water of shackles imposed by unused water rights met only light opposition at a House Conservation and Reclamation Committee hearing Wednesday night.

The measure by Rep. Raleigh Brown of Abilene went to a subcommittee after the 2½-hour hearing. Brown's bill was recommended by the Texas Research League and ties in with legislation now on the House calendar to reorganize the Texas Water Commission as a water rights adjudication agency.

KEY POINT
A key provision sets up procedures by which water rights could be cancelled, freeing the water for other uses and projects if the rights are not being exercised.

The bill also would allow the commission to determine water rights along part or all of a stream on petition of 10 or more persons claiming a right to divert water. After a public hearing, the commission would decide which claims are valid.

CONSIDER PERMITS
Statewide water planning, as well as action on requests for such water projects as reservoirs, is affected by dormant permits. Although the water might not be used, the commission still must consider permits and other rights to water downstream before approving an upstream request to impound or divert water.

A. J. Eastham, Houston lawyer representing the American Canal Co., said that while he did not object to the bill as written, he did not think it was needed.

"The present law enables the commission to cancel unused permits," he said.

Elbert Hooper, Austin lawyer for the Colorado River Municipal Water District at Big Spring, said that agency "endorses this bill wholeheartedly."

Cox Requests Deputy Pay Hike

Fern Cox, district court clerk, appeared before the county commissioners Monday morning with a request that the monthly salary of his second deputy, Mrs. Joan Daniels, be increased from $250 to $275.

He pointed out that all other deputies in the court house doing comparable work to that performed by Mrs. Daniels were paid $275.

Only three of the commissioners were on hand. Simon Terrazas was out of town. Judge Lee Porter was in county court.

Joe Hayden, R. C. Nichols and L. J. Davidson, the members in attendance, told Cox they would take the request under advisement. He said he would return to the commissioners court Monday to find out if any decision had been made.

Over 800 See Children's Play

More than 800 Big Spring youngsters turned out to watch the production Wednesday of "The Little Lame Prince," a children's play presented by a Dallas theatre group in Municipal Auditorium.

The lower floor of Municipal Auditorium was filled to capacity. Mrs. C. J. Horton, of the Washington Place P-TA, which sponsored the show, said about 700 season tickets had been sold last fall and about 150 tickets were sold at the door Wednesday, she said.

The play was the second presented this year under the sponsorship of the P-TA group. The National Children's Theatre of Dallas produced the two plays

Fire Could Have Been Bad

It could have been bad, but it wasn't.

Terry Nelson, Abilene trucker, driving a transport loaded with gasoline, discovered that the left front bearing on his vehicle had become so hot it caught fire.

The incident was Wednesday night 14 miles east on IS 20. Nelson, well aware of what would happen if fire and gasoline got together, bailed out. Alarms were dispatched to Coahoma and to Big Spring. The fire departments of both cities answered the call.

Deputies from the office of sheriff Aubrey Standard, members of the highway patrol, and others were also on the scene.

The blaze was put under control before it became dangerous, and the damage was minor to the truck.

Impeachment Trial Begins

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—The impeachment trial of Supreme Court Justice N. B. Johnson began in the state Senate today. Prosecutors led off with the former head of Selected Investments Corp., Hugh Carroll, in their effort to prove Johnson accepted two bribes totaling $10,000.

Former Justice N. S. Corn, who purportedly had admitted accepting a $150,000 bribe and sharing it with Johnson and former Justice Earl Welch, was expected to be another first-day witness.

Corn, on the high court from 1935 to 1958, reportedly admitted accepting the bribe while serving a prison sentence last year for income tax evasion. In an 83-page sworn statement, Corn allegedly gave details of a $150,000 bribe and told of giving $7,500 each to Johnson and Welch.

Welch resigned and has been sentenced to three years on an income tax evasion conviction.

Firemen Seeking New Employees

Several candidates for a vacancy with the Big Spring fire department were scheduled for interviews beginning at 1 p.m. today by an oral review board.

The vacancy was created with the resignation of Don Eggleston, who had joined the department last year when additional firemen were added with the construction of the two new fire stations. Eggleston has resigned to enter work with the Western Glass and Mirror Co. here.

Four candidates underwent competitive examinations Wednesday night.

Klansman Linked To Death Weapon

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (AP)—State attorneys have linked Ku Klux Klan member Collier Leroy Wilkins Jr. with the weapon an expert says was used in the slaying of a Michigan mother taking part in civil rights demonstrations.

An earlier witness had traced a .38-caliber revolver to Wilkins and Marion Williams, an FBI weapons expert, identified it Wednesday as the gun which killed Viola Luzzo, 39, mother of five.

The chief prosecutor, Circuit Solicitor Arthur E. Gamble Jr., said he had "a few more questions" to ask Williams today before the state rested its case.

Matt H. Murphy Jr., the Klan's attorney, already had indicated through cross-examination of prosecution witnesses the course his defense may take. He also has shown a revolver which he said he took from FBI informer Gary Thomas Rowe Jr.

Murphy has not said how he will connect the pistol to the case. His only comment was, "I took it away from Rowe before he killed someone and blamed it on us."

ROWE TARGET

The Klan attorney has sought to portray Rowe, the state's star witness, as a troublemaker hoping to collect a rich reward from the federal government if he could "help break the back of the Klan."

Wilkins, 21, a self-employed automobile mechanic at Fairfield, Ala., near Birmingham, is the first of three KKK members brought to trial for the slaying of the Detroit housewife.

Mrs. Luzzo, the wife of a Teamsters Union official, was shot to death near Lowndesboro the night of March 25 after taking part in the civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery and ferrying some of the marchers back to Selma.

Indicted with Wilkins — and awaiting trial — were Eugene Thomas, 42, an employe of U.S. Steel at Bessemer, Ala., and William Orville Eaton, 41, also of Bessemer.

Rowe, who said he joined the Klan at the FBI's request to get information, told the 12-man jury that he was in the car with Wilkins, Thomas and Eaton when Mrs. Luzzo was killed.

TWO SHOTS

He said Wilkins used Thomas' revolver to fire two shots at almost point-blank range as their car pulled alongside her automobile in a high-speed chase and emptied his gun at the car as they pulled away.

Williams, who works at the FBI laboratory at Washington, testified that a bullet found lodged at the base of the Detroit woman's brain was fired from Thomas' gun.

Another agent told the jury that the gun used in the laboratory test came from Thomas' home, and still another said a

Renovation Near Finished

LAMESA (SC)—City Manager Carroll Taylor has announced that the Public Safety Building, now under renovation, will be ready for occupancy sometime in May, as work on the building is almost finished.

Cost of the complete renovation job totals $45,000, with the federal government paying $18,000. The building will house the city police department, the fire department, an office for the city judge, and will increase the city jail capacity from six to 30 prisoners.

Contractor for the project is Orville Lawler, local contractor.

If-Back Dues Paid, Lawyer Held Purged

The front of the building has been enclosed to increase the floor space of the structure.

Other projects under way in the city at present include the drilling of two additional water wells which will take care of some of the depletion of the present wells, Taylor said. These should raise the local water capacity to 1,188,000 gallons per day. James Bissey, local water well contractor, was in charge of drilling the additional wells.

Three additional city blocks are being paved.

Peking Delegation

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China sent a delegation of little-known, middle-rank politicians and military men to Moscow today for the 20th anniversary of Russia's victory over Nazi Germany.

The court in 1958 reversed the Midland Murder Conviction and Death Sentence of Eusebio Regalado Martinez, charged with killing a 9-month-old girl, because his lawyer had not paid his State Bar dues since 1946. Only Bar members can practice law in Texas.

In the Hill case, his lawyer was removed from the Bar Sept. 1 for failure to pay Bar dues and was reinstated Nov. 30 after paying the back dues Nov. 23. Hill's case was tried Nov. 9.

"We have before us the case of an attorney who has 'purged' himself of delinquency," said Judge W. T. McDonald in the majority opinion.

"His acts during the period when his name was removed from the membership roll of the bar were valid and were revitalized when he paid up his delinquency."

McDonald said the court is not

Voting Rights Bill In Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — A showdown loomed in the Senate today on a Southern effort to pull some teeth from the voting rights bill.

Scheduled for a vote is a move by Sen. Sam J. Ervin, D-N.C., to strike provisions that would automatically authorize federal registration of voters in much of the South.

Instead, federal courts would authorize appointment of federal registrars — but only in a specific area and only after the government proved Negroes were encountering discrimination in trying to vote.

ANOTHER TEST
Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen had announced plans to try to end debate on the bill when the Senate agreed unanimously Wednesday to vote on Ervin's key amendment.

Another test of the measure is scheduled Monday — a vote on an effort to include an outright ban on state poll taxes.

All this indicates the senators may have read the Mansfield-Dirksen cloture tactic as a warning to stop talking and start voting.

Over on the House side, Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., said his Judiciary Committee hopes to complete its consideration of the bill Friday.

Ervin, a former judge, and other Southern senators characterize as unconstitutional the automatic federal registration and automatic suspension of state literacy tests.

STATE AUTHORITY
His amendment would continue state authority over voter qualifications.

The ban on poll taxes has the backing of 39 senators, five of them Republicans. But Mansfield and Dirksen are not among them. Instead they have proposed a plan that points to a Supreme Court ruling on state poll taxes.

The 39 senators would outlaw the poll tax — it now exists in Virginia, Mississippi, Alabama and Texas — have Congress declare the action necessary to safeguard constitutional rights and provide for an early court test.

Poll taxes for federal elections have been banned by the 24th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The Supreme Court already has agreed to review next fall Virginia's poll tax for state and local elections.

Governor Will Take Case To Public Tonight

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Connally will take his case for more local participation in school financing to the people tonight in a statewide telecast.

Twenty stations are scheduled to carry the broadcast, mostly at 8:30 p.m. It is financed by a committee headed by a former Connally aide, Howard Rose of Midland.

The governor promised it would be a hard hitting speech with no hints of compromise.

Legislative supporters of the rival Connally and Texas Teachers Association pay raise bills meanwhile continued exploring whether to attempt a compromise before the bills reach the floor or to settle House-Senate differences in a joint conference committee.

30 CONFEREES
Speaker Ben Barnes has predicted the House will pass a teacher pay raise bill as quickly as possible after next Wednesday's committee hearings. He anticipated the Senate will pass a different version, leaving the final form up to a 10-man conference committee.

The House sent to the Senate today a bill on another top issue, congressional redistricting. The House passed it by a large margin Wednesday.

DIFFERENT PLAN
The reapportionment bill would merge four Northeast Texas districts into two and eliminates an at-large seat in Congress. These three are divided among Houston and Dallas, which get one more each, and a new South Texas district.

Senators are expected to come out with a different proposal, sending this matter also to a joint conference committee.

In other action Wednesday, senators passed a bill to provide stiff criminal penalties for home buyers and sellers who use false figures to obtain inflated home loans. Rep. Bill Parsley of Lubbock, sponsor of the bill to prohibit double contracting, plans to agree to Senate changes and send the bill to the governor.

The Senate also passed and sent to the governor a bill to prohibit the business of paying off a person's loans with his funds (debt pooling) for a fee.

Plan For Selling, Serving Tourists To Be Offered Here

"Selling and Serving Tourists" is the subject to be taught during a five-hour adult education course in Big Spring May 11-12. George R. Jordan, manager of the tourist development department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, will conduct the course in two sessions of 2½ hours each day.

The first session will deal with that phase of the tourist industry known as "What's It All About?" and the second, "What Can We Do About It?" Persons taking the full course will receive a West Texas Tourist Ambassador Certificate. The sessions are designed for the convenience of persons working morning or evening shifts wishing to attend.

Primarily concerned with knowing what to do in meeting, greeting and giving information to tourists are service station managers, owners and personnel, motel personnel, restaurant operators and employees, police, city employees, and others. Other businesses having tourist trade are also requested to arrange for personnel to attend the course. Jordan has a background of more than 25 years in the business and service fields. He has worked in all areas related to tourism. He has been a radio engineer and announcer, life underwriter, realtor, retailer, spent more than 12 years with the U. S. Department of Commerce, eight years as a local chamber of commerce manager, and was with a national motel and restaurant chain for two years in the management field. Since June, 1962, Jordan has been manager of the industrial and tourist departments of the West Texas chamber.

The instructor designed and wrote the course, "Selling and Serving Tourists." This course was presented to 14 West Texas cities in 1964.

A service charge of $2 will be made for all participants to cover cost of preparing materials and handouts for the students. All reservations and local arrangements for the course are being handled by the chamber. Classes are to be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m., and from 7:30 to 11 p.m. in the First Federal Savings and Loan Building. If that meeting room proves too small, other arrangements will be made.

Hugh S. White, chairman of the tourist development committee of the West Texas chamber, reports that nothing but praise has come from the cities sponsoring the course last year.

Seminar On Juveniles Set

LAMESA (SC)—Several from Lamesa will attend a seminar for juvenile authorities being conducted in Odessa part of this week and next week. The seminar is to instruct persons dealing with juveniles in the handling of problems that arise. It is being sponsored by the Permian Basin Juvenile Council and will be held in the Ector County sheriff's clubhouse.

Planning to attend from Lamesa are: County Judge Leslie Pratt, vice chairman of the Permian Basin Juvenile Council; Mildred Crump, secretary and treasurer of the Dawson County Juvenile Council; Roy Burdett, Dawson County juvenile officer; Mrs. Jewel Fleming, Lamesa High School counselor; Mrs. May Greenwood; Ward Franklin, deputy sheriff, and Mrs. Peggy Rogers, secretary of the Dawson County Child Welfare Unit.

Disabled Veteran Drowns In River

SAN SABA (AP)—The body of Evan Dawson, 48, was found in the San Saba River near his home several hours after he drowned Wednesday. He was a disabled war veteran.

Smith Loses In Second Trial

The trial probably set a new record for the courts.

Edward P. (Bud) Smith, charged with DWI, went on trial in Howard County Court at 1:30 p.m. At that hour a jury panel took its seat in the courtroom.

At 2:30 p.m. the case had been completed, the jury had deliberated and a verdict had been reached.

Smith was found guilty as charged and his punishment fixed at a fine of $100, costs in the case, and 30 days in the county jail.

Dee Jon Davis, county attorney, who prosecuted the case, said he believed the hearing was one of the briefest jury trials in the court's history.

Smith acted as his own attorney. He had appeared in that role some weeks ago when the case was first called up for trial. At that trial, the jury was unable to agree on the verdict and a mistrial was entered.

The alleged offense occurred on last Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Connally Honors Four Predecessors

AUSTIN (AP) — Mrs. John Connally honored four of her predecessors in the white-pillared governor's mansion at an afternoon tea Wednesday.

Mrs. Dan Moody of Austin, Mrs. Allan Shivers of Austin, Mrs. Price Daniel of Liberty and Mrs. Joshua Morriss of Texarkana, widow of Gov. Beauford Jester, shook hands with more than 500 women.

Mrs. W. Lee O'Daniel and Mrs. James V. Allred were invited but unable to come.

For half an hour before the guests arrived, the former first ladies toured the Connally living quarters and revived memories of when they lived in the mansion.

The mansion is open to visitors every morning except Sunday, but formal ceremonies are infrequent and the family quarters are open even more rarely.

Bulge In Carpet Is Just Burglar

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Police rolled out the carpet to catch a burglary suspect.

After receiving word Wednesday of a burglary, two officers chased a man from the second floor into the attic of a house. When they entered, the attic was empty except for a dusty carpet rolled up in a corner.

Detecting a bulge in the rug, the officers unrolled it. The bulge, police said, was Donald Wilson, 19. He was charged with breaking and entering.

Presents Gift

Mrs. Bill Coleman, 1100 Lloyd, has been presented with a $50 gift certificate for her efforts in helping the Big Spring High School senior class in its recent quest for activity funds. The certificate is good at a local store. The senior class extended thanks also to others who helped.

GEN. MCCONNELL

Bomber Role Not Over, General Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. John P. McConnell, Air Force chief of staff, says he is con- vinced of the continuing need for manned bombers and other aircraft. "We must guard against making the missile a military 'status symbol,'" he declared. In an address prepared for the National Press Club, McConnell agreed with the views of his predecessor, retired Gen. Curtis E. LeMay. LeMay's views on manned bombers did not coincide completely with those of secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

REVERSE SIDE
Discussing the need for exploring new possibilities for weapon systems, McConnell said there also is the reverse side to that.

"We should not make the mistake of dismissing proven principles and systems as obsolete just because they have been in existence for some time," he said.

"This is true, for instance, for the manned bomber which some students of strategy feel has become obsolete because of the missile and should be phased out entirely. I think we must guard against making the missile a military 'status symbol' and relegating the manned system to a 'status quo symbol'."

"I am convinced that, for the foreseeable future there will be continued need for a considerable number of bombers and for a variety of other manned systems, and that it is necessary to replace the obsolescent types with newer and better ones.

"For this reason, I am highly gratified to see such aircraft as the F111 and the SR71 and the C141 transport coming into our inventory. Also, I am hopeful that current studies for the advancement of manned strategic aircraft will lead to a suitable replacement for our B52s some- time in the 1970s."

While McNamara has author- ized continuing studies on the advanced manned strategic air- craft project, he so far has not directed a move toward actual development and production of this plane as a replacement for the B52 fleet.

The F111, designed as a tacti- cal and defense fighter, will not be delivered to operating units for more than a year. First deliv- eries of the SR71 — a bomber reconnaissance aircraft which set a world speed record last Saturday — will start late this year.

Mouseketeer Success

Annette Funicello, the Mouseketeer who became a teenage star, is about to have a little Mouseketeer of her own. She's currently at work in another bikini movie, this one called "How to Stuff a Wild Bikini." (AP WIREPHOTO)

Mouseketeer Not Afraid Of Spoiling Teen Image

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — An- nette Funicello, the Mouse- keteer who became a teenage star, is about to have a little from Walt Disney's famed Mickey Mouse Club television show.

"NOT AFRAID"
"I'm not afraid of spoiling my teenage image by having a baby," says Annette. "But if I have one baby a year, like I plan — and five or six, like I plan — they may get tired of waiting for me."

"I've always said I want to bring up my own children, not leave it to a nurse, and I really mean that, too."

Annette may have a built-in baby-sitter on her home televi- sion set — mommy as a Mouseketeer. The old Disney shows are being rerun.

DECADE AGO
Annette's singing and dancing made her the 12-year-old dar- ling of the moppet set 10 years ago. So well did her childish angularity mature into shapely curves that Annette stepped right out of knee socks into a two-piece bathing suit — and the starring role in American- International's beach party movies.

With Frankie Avalon as co- star, the four low-budget films, "Beach Party," "Muscle Beach Party," "Bikini Beach" and "Beach Blanket Bingo," have reaped a financial bonanza for the studio and the stars.

"WILD BIKINI"
Annette winds up the fifth "How to Stuff a Wild Bikini," this week.

DEAR ABBY

Farmer's Problem

DEAR ABBY: We live on a farm, and every summer we are bombarded with the kids of our city relatives. Summers are im- portant to a farmer because if he doesn't get his crops har- vested then, it can cost him hun- dreds of dollars. Yet every sum- mer, as soon as school is out, we have an endless stream of kids getting in the way, taking up our time and slowing up our work.

Don't say, "Put them to work," because some of those city kids are so lazy they won't even pick up their own clothes. They would rather walk around them.

If the situation were reversed, and we sent our kids to our city relatives, would their husbands take the kids to the office and watch them all day so they wouldn't get into trouble, hurt themselves, or break something? And I wonder how many city wives would like to give up their bridge parties and make extra meals and do extra laundry for the kids. What do you suggest?

FARMER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I suggest you tell your city relatives exactly what you have told me. People who permit others to impose on them because they lack the nerve to say "NO" have to put up with the consequences.

DEAR ABBY: My best friend from sorority (we are both gradu- ated from college now) asked me to be her maid of honor. She is being married soon. I accept- ed. Then she called me long dis- tance and said the best man was 6'4", and since I am only 5'1" we would look silly togeth- er. So how would I like to be one of the six bridesmaids? I said all right. Then she called again and said she hoped I wouldn't feel bad but all the other brides- maids were tall girls, and I was too short to be a bridesmaid. She made me promise I'd come to her wedding anyway. My mother says if I go I am a sap. Abby, I have never heard of cut- ting a girl out of a wedding party because she was too short, have you?

TOO SHORT
DEAR SHORT: NO! Your friend, the bride, is also short on common sense and courtesy. I agree with your mother.

CONFIDENTIAL TO FASH- ION-MINDED: Yes, the skirts are getting shorter, and the necklines are plunging deeper. And I don't like it, either, but as long as the two don't eventu- ally meet, we are lucky.

Problems? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed en- velope.

Firms To Make Recommendations

A study of the possibility of data processing equipment being used by the City of Big Spring has not yet been completed, according to City Manager Larry Crow. Crow said he previously asked two business supply firms, which manufacture the equipment to study the city operation and provide information on the possibility of the equipment's use. No time deadline has been set on receipt of the information, Crow said. Data processing machines have been used by numerous cities, especially in tax and water billing operations, according to Crow. He said today the city is only examining the possibility of the system at this time.

Cadets Barred From Foreign Travels Now

WASHINGTON (AP)—About 2,800 cadets and midshipmen of the three major armed service academies will have to do without the broadening influence of foreign travel this year and next.

The Defense Department disclosed today that summer training duty abroad has been called off for West Point and Air Force Academy cadets and for Annapolis midshipmen.

GOLD OUTFLOW

The reason: "A continuing unfavorable international balance of payments."

In other words, the future officers would spend dollars in foreign countries and thus would aggravate the outflow of U.S. gold.

"The midshipmen summer training cruises will be restricted to operational training and visits to U.S. ports," the Navy said.

Since the summer of 1960, the Army has sent West Point cadets for 30-day duty tours with the U.S. 7th Army in Germany.

HAWAII, ALASKA

Instead, the Army said, cadets will be sent to Hawaii, Alaska, the Panama Canal Zone and to Army units in the continental United States.

Air Force cadets have participated in what was called "over-seas field study" each summer since 1959.

Now the cadets have been assigned to operational Air Force groups.

U.S. Nurses In Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Three U.S. Peace Corps nurses have been working around the clock in a hospital near the Duarte Bridge, where some of the heaviest fighting in the Dominican revolt took place.

The nurses were helping to train nurses at the Dr. Francisco Moscoso Puello Hospital. They went to work treating rebel casualties as soon as hostilities began April 24.

The trio, praised by hospital director Raul Bellini, are Arlene Serino of the Bronx, N.Y.; Carol Branch of St. Louis, Mo., and Marie Jalokai of Detroit.

A total of 33 corps members are in the capital. The rest are in the countryside.

"Our people were told to stand fast with their Dominican friends," said the spokesman, L. Robert Satin.

"I have always said that in a time of crisis the Peace Corps would be safer than any other American organization, and I think that is happening here."

Youth Corps Grants OK'd

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Connally approved three more neighborhood Youth Corps programs today, for Beaumont, Galveston County, and small school districts around Dallas.

The grants, previously approved by the Department of Labor under the Economic Opportunity Act, take effect at once.

Beaumont's South Park School District will use its $71,300 grant to employ 260 students and 27 out-of-school youths at $1.25 an hour.

An $80,450 grant for Galveston County commissioners will be used to employ 67 out-of-school youths in various county offices at $1.25 an hour.

Connally said the Labor Department had approved a $217,575 grant for Dallas and nearby areas but at the last minute the Dallas School District board voted not to participate.

Oil Production Declines Again

TULSA (AP)—U. S. Oil production declined for the third week in a row last week, the Oil and Gas Journal said today. Production for the week ending May 1 was 7,750,000 barrels, down 7,500.

Oklahoma production declined 1,900 barrels to 550,440 daily. Arkansas produced 73,000, Colorado 95,800, Louisiana 1,619,100, New Mexico 335,300 and Texas 2,663,000.

Life For Guilford L. Jones Family Has Meant Adjusting To Change

By JO BRIGHT

Mrs. Guilford L. Jones had just returned from the golf course and still wore the neat blue sport skirt and sleeveless blouse from which her blue-gray eyes caught color. Graciously offering a cooling drink and cigarettes, she disappeared into the den area as the phone rang insistently. In a moment she returned.

"I operate Janet's Answering Service," she explained—which is explanation enough for any mother of teenagers.

The Jones home is at 802 Dallas, tucked near the end of the street where canyons begin to snake between the houses and a little more native cedar is left to grow as nature intended. There is a hedge of honeysuckle, and new growth of ivy fingers show that it is getting a more permanent hold on the hard brick walls. The visitor steps through a pale blue door to enter a living room dominated by a giant dieffenbachia plant that massive leaves will soon brush the ceiling.

"I simply had to find a spot it liked, then leave it alone," said Mrs. Jones, adding that the plant is about eight years old and will soon need re-potting. "It seems to require no more care than a bit of watering occasionally."

HOMEMAKING

Mrs. Jones' history of house-keeping is similar to that of other women who were brides during the World War II era. She and Jones were married in 1942 when he was en route to Officer Candidate School at Fort Monmouth, N. J. His assignments as an instructor took them to New Jersey, Mississippi and Florida and at each place Mrs. Jones set up a home typical of the times. At first it was an apartment, later a shared house, once only a room and finally, in Florida, a small beach house. When Jones went overseas, she and Guil Jr. returned to the home of her parents. Her widowed father, E. A. Morwitz, now lives in retirement at Boulder City, Nev.

"I'll never be the homemaker my mother was," mused Mrs. Jones, "but she taught me much of the fundamentals. She was a very efficient person—very interested in making a good home. She made my father's shirts and seldom missed a day baking fresh bread."

The Joneses are the parents of two children. Guil Jr., 21, is a junior at the University of Texas, and Janet, 17, is a junior in high school. Changes in the family's daily schedule began immediately after Guil Jr. left for college.

"When he left, we felt the void," Mrs. Jones continued. "Suddenly, our big eater was gone, and I always seemed to cook too much."

Janet has a busy routine now and her mother does not require her to help as much at home as she might otherwise. Janet may do the bedmaking and keep her own room in order, but she is not expected to do extra things that would prevent her participation in worthwhile activities.

GOOD START

Mrs. Jones insists on a good breakfast, although she said it took her 20 years to convince her husband he should eat eggs often. Orange juice is a must, and she adds grapefruit and cantaloupe when they are in season. There may be hot biscuits, but if so, it means she's out of bread!

Jones has lunch downtown, and the evening meal is planned to be available when it's needed. He likes to come home, read the paper and relax before dinner, thus giving his wife time to finish the last minute touches. If Janet has somewhere to go—and she usually does—she makes her own meal.

The family eats lots of meat so Mrs. Jones said she didn't "worry" about the side dishes. During the summer months, there is much barbecuing of beef, pork and chicken, with Jones being chef as his wife prepares a salad and garlic bread. This type of casual entertaining at home is what the Joneses prefer, but they do dine out occasionally.

Jones likes to hunt and fish and provides quail and dove for the dinner table. Mrs. Jones said she felt it was cheaper to buy fish—the sport was more food for the soul than the larder. She and her husband have just returned from a fishing trip with the Jack Cooks but left their catch with Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Jones, at Marble Falls.

Mrs. Jones said that she shopped only when her list "got long enough." She keeps bread in the freezer and TV dinners in case of emergency since Janet likes them.

WARM HOME

The Jones home is a mixture of modern and memory. On a high ledge in the living room is an apothecary jar from the medical supplies of Jones' grandfather who was a doctor during the Civil War. One brick wall is dotted with small ledges holding Mrs. Jones' collection of wood carvings. There is a modernistic monk from Mexico, a peasant from Italy and many other figures from places they have visited. One carving, which Jones found in California, is made from a ram's horn. She began the collection to add to a chest of miniature pieces which belonged to her mother.

A Devotional For The Day

He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. (1 John 2:9)
PRAYER: Our Father God, forgive us if we have such an absorbing interest in ourselves and our families that we have no thought or interest in helping others. Forgive us if we have concern for others to the neglect of those nearest and dearest to us. Help us so to live that our lives may be an influence for good to all people. For Jesus' sake. Amen.
(From the 'Upper Room')

Save Somewhere Else

The President has asked and doubtless will receive promptly $700,000,000 to bolster defense expenditures and in effect underwrite the commitments in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic. While funds likely could be had from other sources, this is a means of not only getting direct financial allocations for a specific purpose, but it is also a means of obtaining a vote of confidence for the policies which have brought about commitments to these hot spots in the cold war.

involved, we must do what is necessary to succeed. Hence the funds must be forthcoming.

This emergency appropriation, however, should occasion an over-all assessment of outlays by the Congress. Domestic programs already have added substantially to the demands upon the treasury, and there are others waiting in line. Before we get too extended on these, and even on some which have been given the sanction of enactment, every possible effort should be made to hold down disbursements. We must be willing to sacrifice some things in pursuing the defense of freedom.

The Minority

The dream of many men has been to find themselves in the minority, say on the order of one man to each two women. Statistics tend, however, to offer this promise and then to take it away.

Bureau of the Census figures indicate that women over 15 are outnumbered by four million men of the same age group. But this is only 1,067 women for each 1,000 men, surely not any gain of significance.

fact, in the minority, since there are more males born each year than females. The harder of the sexes soon asserts itself, however, by age 65, with 1,276 women today for each 1,000 men. By 1980 the ratio is expected to be 1,403 women for each 1,000 men who are 65 or older.

The prospect of finding only about 1 1/2 times as many women as men at age 65 is not one to produce any great enthusiasm among men who couldn't care less if they are in the majority or the minority by then.

Marquis Childs Need To Revitalize The OAS

WASHINGTON—Where the next war will break out must be President Johnson's chief concern in view of the precedent of Viet Nam and now the Dominican Republic.

In the spring form book are several conspicuous possibilities. Colombia is high on the Latin-American list. Reports have reached officials here of significant Communist and Castroite infiltration which could mean an uprising and a threat to stable government.

THE PRECEDENT is direct intervention by American forces. This has come about by such gradually phased stages in Southeast Asia, where nearly 40,000 Americans are now committed in Viet Nam, and so suddenly in the Caribbean with 15,000 Marines and paratroopers on the ground, that its significance is not yet understood.

The radical difference between the Johnson approach and a previous policy is that no peace-keeping international force has been interposed. The President in his Sunday night television statement described the effort to get the Organization of American States into place in Santo Domingo. But he was also saying, in effect, that the situation became so critical with "Communist conspirators" taking over the rebellion that immediate action was imperative. He was, therefore, describing an accomplished fact.

ONE CONSEQUENCE, as observers here are beginning to note with concern, is the advantage this can give to a handful of Castroite conspirators. If they succeed in touching off an uprising where government control is shaky they can count on American troops coming in. Without the moral sanction of the OAS or the United Nations this can be made to look like the old-fashioned "Send in the Marines" operation of another era. As we are seeing with the example of the Dominican Republic, the Latin Americans, including even our best friends, are deeply sensitive on this score.

WHILE DISCREETLY supporting American policy the British in private get a certain wry satisfaction out of this country's dilemma. They remember 1956 and the thunders of American righteousness over the British-French-Israeli attempt to occupy Egypt to prevent President Gamal Abdel Nasser from nationalizing the Suez Canal and violating rights long held. That action brought a United Nations resolution calling off the attack with our then Ambassador to the U.N., Henry Cabot Lodge, leading the charge.

THIS CONTRIBUTED to the decline of confidence in the U.N. Doubt and dissension have been increasingly the order of the day. The Johnson Administration, by standing so rigidly on the demand that the French and the Soviet Union follow the strict letter of Article 19 on payment of back peace-keeping assessments, is assigned part of the blame for the present near paralysis of the world organization.

Unless one-sided intervention is to be the rule an urgent need is to straighten out the U.N. tangle and strengthen the Organization of American States.

SURELY THERE must be means and measures for making the organization more readily responsive and more responsible. The President named as American delegate to the OAS Ellsworth Bunker, a diplomat of wide experience and ability who had served with distinction in a number of difficult posts, is chairman of the OAS Council. Under his quiet leadership it should be possible to help bring about a new dimension of order-keeping for the hemisphere.

The hour is late and the precedent of one-sided intervention is open to exploitation by America's enemies everywhere. That is a propaganda handle that should be denied them.

First Time

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP) — Seven humanists were allowed to enter the pulpit and state their objections to the Christian religion at St. George's Anglican Church, Edgbaston.

Each spoke for 10 minutes and then was answered by a leading churchman, including the Bishop of Birmingham, the Rev. John Wilson, the Rural Dean of Smethwick (the Rev. Donald Tytler), and Canon William Purcell, head of religious broadcasting for the British Broadcasting Corporation (midland region).

The Rev. George Browning, vicar of St. George's, believes this is the first time humanists have been allowed to speak openly against Christianity in a church building.

"It's an unusual procedure," he admitted, "but it is one called for in the times in which we live. There are many uncertainties about what people believe, and we thought it was better they should be talked about in church."

'IF WE DELAY, HE MIGHT SEND IN THE MARINES'

James Marlow Johnson Searches Anxiously For Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — Probably no man in the White House ever wished more for public approval, or was more conscious of critics, than President Johnson.

It does much to explain his switch in tactics. After ordering Marines into South Viet Nam and the bombing of North Viet Nam, he had to be prodded into talking. Since sending troops into the Dominican Republic he hasn't stopped talking.

When the bombing began last February, the White House simply issued a statement that it was in retaliation for a guerrilla attack on a U.S. air base in South Viet Nam.

AS THE weeks passed and the bombings continued and the Marines went in Johnson was pelted with criticism at home and abroad, although he got much approval. But he played so much pressure piled on him to start explaining.

He finally did on April 7. But the criticism continued. Then he did the exact opposite in public relations last week when he decided to send troops into the Dominican Republic, splintered into chaos by revolution.

He went on the air to explain April 28, April 30, and again May 2. All these broadcasts were at night, the last one Sunday night. It meant breaking into programs. On the last broadcast, 30 minutes long, not all networks carried him.

But the way he built up to main emphasis on why he used troops in Asia and Latin America was almost identical in both cases.

IN VIET NAM he first put the emphasis on saving the South Vietnamese people from communism but finally put it on American determination to stop the spread of communism.

In the Dominican Republic he first put the emphasis on saving American lives there and later said the goal was stopping the spread of communism in the Americas.

But, remembering the criticism he got for not talking sooner on Viet Nam, Johnson's timetable of public statements on the Dominican Republic can hardly be interpreted as anything but an anxious search for approval.

FIRST, THREE broadcasts—April 28 and 30 and May 2 — and on the last day an off-the-record walk around the White House with reporters, explaining his problems.

A 30-minute broadcast May 2 and on May 3 an unexpected appearance before a labor conference to defend his actions in Latin America.

Hal Boyle Belle Of Da Nang Interviewed

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — To airmen and Marines she's "the belle of Da Nang."

Miss Betty Olsen, 30, a medical missionary, takes the nickname as a pleasant joke.

"I think I'm the only single girl here," she said, "but there are a number of married women in our mission."

Many an American girl would think it a dream situation to be the only girl amid 10,000 men. But Betty, who is tall and slender and has auburn hair and green eyes, is more amused than thrilled.

Every Saturday morning she serves as a volunteer worker at the USO building in the heart of the city. Many of the men have asked for a date, but each has met with a refusal.

"THEY ARE all nice and polite," said Miss Olsen. "If they want to be friends, that's fine. But I don't date them. I am not interested in romance, and I have no idea of getting married."

She is a deeply religious woman whose goal since childhood has been to do medical missionary work abroad. She was born in Africa and her parents are missionaries stationed there on the Ivory Coast.

Betty was educated at the New York Missionary College and studied nursing at the Methodist Hospital in Brooklyn. She was sent here last December by the Christian and Missionary Alliance which has 900 missionaries in 24 foreign countries.

"I SPEND most of my time learning the language — a new missionary always does that the first year," Betty said. But she also attends six religious meetings weekly and spends two nights a week teaching English to a group of 60 Vietnamese.

"Most of them are teenagers but a few are older," she said. "They are very interested and eager to learn."

"They are particularly curious about America. I told them about the skyscrapers and the subways but I am afraid they didn't understand subways or why anyone would want them."

"The Vietnamese people I have met are very friendly to Americans and say they are glad our men are here."

ALTHOUGH SHE gets a little homesick, Betty plans on spending her life in Viet Nam. She hopes after further study to take a post in a leprosyarium in the interior. At present, however, that area is still largely controlled by the Viet Cong enemy.

Asked if she ever felt uneasy at being in a war zone, Betty looked surprised, as if she thought of danger had never occurred to her.

"God called me to be a missionary," she said simply. "I have no fear, because I know I am in the center of God's will."

Around The Rim The Vanished American

A book passed across this desk recently, recalling the many depredations made by our forefathers against the original inhabitants of this continent—the Indians.

IN THESE TIMES of wide talk about civil rights, it is remarkable so little is said about or done for these first Americans. And while millions of dollars is annually collected to help the homeless and hungry in foreign lands, precious little is done of a similar nature in our own country.

Even today, Indians are starving, going uneducated, and living in rock shelters. Indeed, this has been their plight every since the Pilgrims performed the first massacre near Plymouth Rock, and introduced scalping to a continent that had never practiced such barbarism.

THE FAMILIAR story of the "trail of tears," is best known when tragic stories are retold. Stories, as filled with bitterness, could be recounted concerning many other tribes and nations.

Col. Kit Carson decimated the Navajo nation, when he starved them out of an Arizona Canyon, so that their lands might be taken for gold seekers. When practically nothing was found, the Indians were returned to that arid region, forced to stay there, with every expectation they would not last the following winter.

BUT THEY PROVED more hardy, and number many thousands today. In some areas, they are even prosperous. But the sterile desert can support only so many people, and thousands live as aborigines.

The Hopis were more fortunate. They kept their cliffside villages and managed to scratch a subsistence out of the sand. Today, they are barely hanging on, due largely to the tourist dollar.

AMID DEMONSTRATIONS and lofty speeches, it is curious the national conscience does not remember these people, who lived quite well until the white man arrived. But through the years, the Indian has been forced to live only where the white man could think of nothing else to do with the land. And when he found the land could be used for something else, the Indian immediately lost all rights to it, despite treaties and agreements.

IT WOULD SAY something for the magnificence of the American character, if the wrongs done to the Indians might be righted, as much as possible, before this question too is reduced to marches, riots and other mass demonstrations.

Holmes Alexander Free Enterprise, Regardless

WASHINGTON—Down in the southern highlands, called Appalachia, where the poverty programs are thicker than bluegrass, the folks have worked up a luxury trade. They're selling high-grade beef cattle to Italy.

It's a deal that says something pretty comforting about the vitality of the free market system and its ability to survive in the very areas where its health is supposed to be very bad.

WHAT WE'RE talking about here is a new business that developed only in the last year. I have learned from the Virginia Polytechnic Institute (VPI) that the first load of live feeder cattle, drawn chiefly from the Appalachian counties in Virginia and neighboring states, left Norfolk in July, 1964. Since then, 2,852 head of choice Appalachian cattle have moved through that port, and Appalachian beef is beginning to shove the inferior French and German beef off the Italian market.

IT IS A remarkable bit of free enterprise when you consider that both Appalachia and Italy have been held up as examples of the poorhouses called Agraria. Last year, when the Italians were buying Virginia cattle for fattening and consumption, our AID program was donating $10 million of free food to Italy. (The Food for Peace, incidentally, was in addition to $40.2 million in U.S. military assistance and an additional $34 million in something called "excess" military stocks.) Meanwhile, the War on Poverty project list, dated last March 31st, finds federal funds pouring into Virginia, especially into its western areas. There are recent poverty investments in four Virginia counties, in six of Virginia's colleges, in the University of Virginia and loans totaling $32,000 have been made to individual farmers.

IN SUM, BOTH the seller (Virginia) and the buyer (Italy) are considered to need assistance from Washington, but that is not so important as the fact that free enterprise seems never to die except under actual suppression in a dictatorship. Virginians and Italians are a lot smarter than they are given credit to be in certain quarters, and a lot more adaptable than the social planners seem to know.

OF COURSE, it's probable that the Italians would buy even more Appalachian cattle if the food market were not saturated by the American Food for Peace donations. And it's equally probable that business investment would find its way into Appalachia a lot faster if the American businessman were not paying taxes for mysterious items like $34 million in "excess" stock to Italy, which is already getting more than that in modern arms.

The free market does manage to stay alive in the most adverse conditions of government competition and government waste. But considering how much lip service we give to private initiative, and how much we praise the ingenuity which produces little-known exchanges like this Appalachia-Italy trade, it seems strange we don't make it easier for free enterprise to prosper, instead of harder (Distributed by McIntosh Syndicate, Inc.)

Art Buchwald The Last American

WASHINGTON—When the story of the Dominican Republic's revolution unfolds, you may hear about a great, unsung hero whose name is Sidney.

Nobody knows Sidney's last name, but the whole course of the revolution would have been changed if it hadn't been for him.

Sidney was an American tourist visiting Santo Domingo when the fighting broke out. As you may remember, President Johnson sent in Marines to protect Americans who could possibly be hurt. Unfortunately, the evacuation went off so fast that in 24 hours there wasn't an American left in the capital except Sidney.

WHEN SIDNEY showed up at the pier to be taken on board ship, he was stopped by a Marine colonel who said, "I'm sorry, you can't leave, sir."

"Why not?" Sidney wanted to know. "Because we've been sent here to protect Americans and you're the only American left. If you leave, we'll have to pull out."

"Nuts to that," said Sidney. "I want to get out of here. They got a bunch of crazy people in this town."

"MY ORDERS are to keep you here, sir. We made a mistake in evacuating the Americans too fast and now we need you more than you need us."

"That's not my problem," Sidney said. "I want to go on that ship out there."

"Two Marine sergeants raised their guns. 'It's not possible, Sidney,' the colonel replied.

"IF THE OAS arrived and found no Americans here for us to protect, we would be in a very sticky position. But you'll be perfectly safe. President Johnson is sending in 10,000 more troops to protect you."

"To protect me?" "Yes, sir. We're going to build a nine-mile perimeter around you so nobody can get near you. I assure you nothing can go wrong."

Sidney took his bags and went back to the hotel.

The next morning he was visited by the general in charge of the paratroopers. "Are you okay, Sidney?" "YEAH, I'M OKAY. But I want to go home."

"What's all that for?" Sidney wanted to know.

"Just to see that no one hurts you. You're very precious to us."

"Yeah, well, if I'm so precious, why don't you get me the hell out of here?"

JUST THEN the phone rang. The general picked it up.

"It's the President, Sidney. He wants to speak to you."

"Yes, sir, Mr. President. No, I'm just fine. I'll stay here as long as you want me to. That's nice of you to say. You're a good American, too."

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Gobbledygook, the art of saying obscurely in many long words what is best said simply in a few short ones, continues to steal across the land in a self-important fog. Business executives don't start anything; they "initiate action." They don't feel the market's pulse; they "trend" it.

To the social worker, people in a slum aren't poor; they're "disadvantaged."

The Army doesn't buy showers for the use of laborers who spill rocket fuel on themselves; it buys "rocket propellant personnel neutralizers." A four star general isn't gloomy about matters, like the rest of us; he has "a low confidence factor."

For grade A, top drawer, superbly incomprehensible prose, however, the educators remain unchallenged. James S. LeSure has gathered some of the foggier gems into a book entitled "Guide to Pedagogues."

He offers this example: Child X, who is "producing minimally for his peer group," is an "underachiever." His "grade achievement under the multiple track plan reflects his predisposition to those factors frequently associated with late bloomers lacking the developmental key of meaningful motivation and without the felt need to effectuate the tasks involved in the learning process." Apparently he isn't a "deliberator-abstractor."

Roughly translated from the pedagogue, this means that Child X is doing rather poorly compared with others in his age group. It isn't that he's stupid; apparently he just isn't interested in learning.

Perhaps his teacher speaks pedagogue. — MILWAUKEE JOURNAL

Prepare Baby To Learn Self-Feeding

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
A mother of a toddler needs to be prepared. That alluring young person has a distinct mind of his own.

The day will come when Baby will be determined to eat all by himself. Fine! If you are a modern young mother, you'll encourage him.

But don't be surprised if there is lots of change-and-turnabout. Some days that young one will want Mother to do practically all the spooning. At those times give all the help necessary. Sooner or later, Mr. or Miss Toddler will be interested in manipulating his tableware once again.

FOOD BINGE

Are you ready to have your small fry go on a food binge? Most youngsters do. Of course you must see that he has a balanced diet, but in your determination to feed him well, never make mealtime a battleground.

There are lots of different ways to give him the nutritious foods he needs every day: milk and milk products, meat, fish and eggs; cereals and breads; fruit, juices and vegetables. But if he gets on a jag of a certain vegetable, meat or cereal for a time, let him enjoy his own choice.

Be prepared, too, to have Baby eat in varying amounts. He's no robot. Some days he'll down food with gusto, some days he'll want to take it easy at mealtime, and some days he may even skip a snacktime. It's what he eats over a period of time, not at just one meal, that counts. Baby may enjoy a little cajoling, but he never needs forcing.

Be alert to the fact that your child has absolutely no regard for etiquette. Food tastes just

Here's Good Recipe For Potato Dinners

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
The new potato may be used in a delightful, simple way — doused with butter and sprinkled with minced fresh dill. Prepared this way, the potatoes benefit meat, poultry and fish.

New potatoes are also great for a salad because they hold their shape. If you try the recipe that follows, you'll find it is perfect to serve with ham or smoked tongue.

CREAMY POTATO AND EGG SALAD

4 cups cooked diced new potatoes
1/4 cup minced parsley
2 tbsps. minced onion
4 hard-cooked eggs, diced
Sweet-sour Dressing
1/2 cup commercial sour cream
Salt and pepper

In a mixing bowl, toss together the potatoes, celery, parsley, onion and eggs. Add the hot Sweet-sour Dressing; mix lightly but well; lightly mix in the sour cream. Cover tightly and refrigerate overnight to allow flavors to blend and mellow. Add extra salt and pepper to taste. Serve on salad greens. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Remove from heat. Gradually stir in the vinegar. With a small whisk or fork, gradually beat a little of the hot dressing into the egg yolk; beat back into the remaining hot dressing; cook stir over very low heat for a minute or so.

Pour hot dressing over potato mixture as directed in the recipe for Creamy Potato and Egg Salad. Makes about 1 1/3 cups dressing.

Sandwich Storage Decorating Tube

Freezer storage life for most sandwiches is about three weeks, so if you are having a party and choose fillings that are suitable for freezer storage, you can prepare the sandwiches to be served in good time.

To make a decorating tube, roll a triangle of stiff white paper into a hollow cone; secure with cellophane tape; and then snip off the pointed end.

Try These Suggestions For Mealtime Ease

Don't try to broil steak that is less than one-inch thick; pan-fry it on the top of the range.

Ever serve broiled or pan-fried lamb chops with tomato sauce? You may use canned tomato sauce and enliven it with onion, celery, green pepper and green olives.

Lemon juice, salad oil and oregano make an excellent marinade for chicken that is to be broiled or baked. Allow the chicken (cut up) to stand in the marinade for at least an hour.

If a recipe calls for sherry and doesn't specify the type to be used, you'll probably be safe in using medium sherry.

If you want your yeast rolls a golden color without enriching them with egg yolks, just add a suspicion of turmeric

Traffic Record Improved Some

Big Spring's traffic record has shown improvement during April, police records have indicated.

No fatalities were recorded during the month. Two persons died during March from injuries in traffic accidents.

Total accidents dropped by only one, from 79 in March to 78 this past month, while a sharp drop was experienced in injuries, from 28 persons in March to five last month.

The year's fatality record now stands at three persons. At this time last year, no fatalities had been recorded in Big Spring.

Injuries have decreased this year, to 61 persons, compared to 87 persons injured in the first four months of 1964. Six motor vehicle - pedestrian accidents have been reported, compared to five last year.

An increase has been noted in hit and run accidents this year, with 22, compared to 16 last year.

The total number of accidents has shown a decrease, from 322 last year to 297 this year.

Fatality records during April, a drop from March, when officers stopped 531 drivers.

The breakdown of tickets for traffic violations during April showed speed as the major reason, with 55 tickets, followed by failure to observe stop lights, 25; failure to yield right-of-way, and failure to observe stop signs, 16 each. Others were improper turns, driving on the wrong side of the street and overtaking other vehicles, reckless driving, following too close and leaving the scene of an accident.

Damage totals from accidents during April were $23,161 to vehicles and $945 to other property. The March figures were $33,144 and $2,390.

Dogs' Style Designer Introduces The Latest

LONDON (AP) — Walter Ellison, a Dior of the dog world, introduced his latest collection for canines today. It includes lace-edged panties and perfume.

"Women are our chief customers," said the designer for dogs.

Elison, 46, employs 60 persons at his factory turning out clothing and gadgets for high-toned dogs. He said his turnover last year was $994,000, with sales in the United States, West Germany, France, Greece, Egypt and South Africa, as well as in Britain.

DOG PERFUME

Elison's perfume for dogs retails at 54 cents a small bottle and is called Spray No. 5.

"It makes your pet smell more alluring around the house," he said.

Elison and others put their wares on show at a British pet trade fair at Harrogate.

"I got the idea for doggy fashions four years ago," said Elison, "when I saw a woman in a very expensive fur coat with her dog shivering on the end of its lead. It didn't seem fair."

He designed a dog coat and it sold.

GOLD NECKLACES

Among other exotic things offered the dogs of 1965 are: necklaces of real gold, nail polish, pajamas and nightgowns, raincoats lined with golden-colored wool, a silver lame coat for winter wear, earrings and a collar made of three strings of pearls.

The manufacturers are also making safety belts for dogs who ride in automobiles.

School Meet Competition Under Way

AUSTIN (AP)—The 55th annual gathering of Texas' best, brightest and fastest high school students, the University Interscholastic League state meet, began today.

Nearly 2,000 literary and athletic contestants plus about 4,000 parents, friends and spectators crowded hotels and motels.

Competition started at 4:15 p.m. for 22 casts in the one-act play contest, which runs through Saturday night.

The league's press conference, due to attract more than 600 high school and junior high journalism teachers and students, was due to open at 7:30 p.m. with a reception. After a series of addresses and workshop sessions, it will end with a dinner Friday night.

Debate competition, drawing 68 entries, will begin at 8 p.m. Literary and athletic events start early Friday and continue until late Saturday.

Red Training Sites Bared

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A map of Cuba pinpointing 13 purported Communist training camps for subversives was distributed today by Revolutionary Unity, a Cuban exile organization.

Described as a training site for Dominican revolutionaries was the Minas de Frio camp in easternmost Oriente Province, nearest to the Dominican Republic.

The exile group said Dominicans also were reported to have trained at a camp near Trinidad, on the southern coast of central Cuba. It said Central Americans, Haitians and British Guianese also drilled there.

Here's Place Where Hollywood Does Frug

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie - TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — On Academy Award night, Rex Harrison, clutching his best-actor Oscar, came to the Governors' Ball at the Beverly Hilton. He dutifully posed for all the photographers and then grabbed his wife, Welsh actress Rachel Roberts, and hurried off to the Daisy. There he met most of the other Oscar winners along with most of the top names in town.

The Daisy is the movie colony's new "in" spot — a discotheque where movie stars frug, swim and watusi.

There's one difference between the Daisy and such Sunset Strip watusi palaces as the Whiskey a Go-Go and Ciro's.

It takes a $250 membership fee to get inside unless you know someone who is a member.

Jack Hanson, a sportswear manufacturer, founded the Daisy some months ago. The original Romanoff's restaurant, in the heart of Beverly Hills, was vacant.

Hanson reasoned the movie crowd would appreciate a place where they could let their hair down. And $250 keeps away a lot of autograph seekers.

It took about a week to build up a membership roster that would do justice to a major premier turnout.

On any given night from 10 p.m. on, you can see Eddie Fisher, Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, George Hamilton, Tony Quinn — and all the British crowd — dancing with such lovelies as Natalie Wood, Jane Fonda, Tuesday Weld, Arlene Dahl and Stella Stevens.

For those who don't dance, there's a pool room. But beware of Peter Falk. He's the town hustler. So is Leo Durocher, who no longer does his watusi on the Los Angeles Dodgers' third-base coaching box.

Three Unusual Aircraft On Display Saturday

Armed Forces Day visitors to Webb Air Force Base Saturday will get a close-up view of the B-57, which will be one of many aircraft on static display on the base flightline.

The B-57—the Air Force version of the RAF Canberra—is a midwing, day-night bomber with twin jets. It is one of the many USAF aircraft based overseas, and being used in Viet Nam.

The aircraft is manufactured by Martin and has a wing span of 64 feet. Its length is 65 feet, six inches and has a maximum speed of over 500 knots. Service ceiling for the B-57 is over 45,000 feet.

The B-57 is powered by two J-45-W-5 engines.

Another of the many static displays will be the F9F Cougar, the first U. S. Navy swept-wing jet to enter operational service with carrier squadrons. The Cougar saw extensive service as the Navy's precision flight demonstration team, the Blue Angels.

The F9F-5P is a photographic reconnaissance version of the Cougar with a lengthened forward fuselage. It can fly non-

Estes Won't Be In Court

EL PASO (AP)—Bille Sol Estes won't be here Friday for a hearing on reduction of his 15-year prison sentence.

He was convicted here in 1965 of mail fraud and conspiracy and now is at the federal prison in Leavenworth, Kan.

Seeking a shorter term, Estes asked to attend the hearing. His lawyer agreed, however, that Estes' presence is not necessary.

U.S. Dist. Judge R. E. Thomason, who sentenced Estes, will hold the hearing.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Harry Hudspeth said he will oppose the request on grounds Estes has displayed no hint of remorse, made no plea of illness and shown no inclination to cooperate with the government in disposing of a multitude of civil cases related to his fertilizer tank dealings.

stop across the United States in less than four hours and can photograph a 10-mile wide strip of the terrain below.

Manufacturer of the Cougar is Grumman. The Cougar has a wing span of 34 feet, six inches and its over-all length is 41 feet. It carries a crew of one and has a service ceiling of 42,000 feet.

Its power plant is a turbo-jet J48-P-8.

And still another display will be the U. S. Navy's F11F Tiger. It is a single-seat, mid-wing, supersonic fighter originally bearing F9F designation. Since it is a completely new design, however, it was redesignated the F11F.

Recognition features include the low-seat, horizontal stabilizer on the lower quarter of the aft fuselage. It has a sharply tapered vertical tail that overhangs the tailpipe exhaust. The wings are sweptback and fold manually.

The sweptback wings have rounded tips, distinctive droop-snoot leading edges. The Tiger's fuselage employs the area-ruled shape which is frequently described as "Coke bottle" design.

The bidding:
South West North East
2NT Pass 4NT Pass
6NT Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Queen of ♠

Alho West's heart lead from a complete sequence is perfectly natural against the no trump slam, it provided an alert declarer with the chance he needed to land his bid.

Six no trump was reached on a purely quantitative sequence. North had nine high card points, reinforced by assorted tens and nines. Partner has announced a holding of 22-24 points by bidding two no trump and, if he is near the maximum, there should be a good chance for slam. North accordingly invited South to go on, by raising beyond game to four no trump.

South accepted the invitation, since he had 23 points plus a five card suit which appeared to have a good chance for establishment.

West opened the queen of hearts. Declarer won the trick in his own hand with the king and did not neglect to observe that East had failed to follow suit. The king, queen, jack of diamonds were cashed next and, on the third round, West discarded a club.

A heart was led and, in order to prevent North from winning the trick too cheaply, West put up the ten of hearts which was covered by the ace. The ace of diamonds was played as South and West both discarded clubs. A club was led to the ace, followed by the king and West had to make another discard.

In order to protect his heart holding, he was obliged to give up a spade which produced the following situation:

NORTH
♠ J 10 8
♦ 10
♣ 10

WEST
♠ Q 6
♥ J 7 3
♦ A K
♣ 8 6 5

South played the ace and king of spades on which West's queen dropped, and then the five of hearts was led. If West ducked, then North would score the 11th and 12th tricks with the nine of hearts and the jack of spades.

West chose to put up the jack of hearts; however, this did not improve his position for he now had to lead away from the seven-three of hearts directly into declarer's eight-six.

He suffered a nervous breakdown in the 1930s but he made a comeback in the early 1940s.

Spectators Welcome For Paint Stock Horse Show

Entries from throughout Texas are expected in Big Spring Saturday for the Texas Paint Stock Horse Club's fourth annual show at the rodeo bowl.

Trophies will be awarded winning horses in 27 classes, including a children's section, and grand champion winners.

The horse compiling the most points will be presented an all-around trophy for the show. Plaques will be awarded for reserve champions and ribbons for horses placing second through sixth in each class.

Last year more than 50 horses entered, with a larger number of entries expected for this year's show.

Children's classes will offer competition in western pleasure, pole bending, barrel racing and a flag race. The last contest will have no entry fee.

An added attraction in the children's class will be color and costume contests, with the latter judged on originality by the riders.

Entries will be accepted for the show up to the starting time Saturday.

Points compiled will count toward end-of-the-year awards to be made by the club. The state group is an affiliate of the American Paint Stock Horse Association.

Spectators will be welcome at the show, which is to begin at 1 p.m.

Mountain Climber Casualties Increase
TOKYO (AP)—Japanese police reported today that 50 persons have been killed, 5 are missing and 17 have been seriously injured in mountain-climbing accidents in the Japan Alps since the "Golden Week" holiday began May 1.

Police blamed the deaths on avalanches, blizzards, an unusual cold wave, and carelessness.

Emphasis Of The Economy On Consumer

NEW YORK (AP)—By turns pitted, pampered and praised, the consumer today is at once the darling of the economy and, some say, the victim.

Never before have so many economists looked so hard to find out what the consumer is going to do next with his money. Businessmen spend half a billion dollars a year just to try to learn who's going to buy what and when.

For it's the consumer's choice that dictates what most of the factories of the nation produce.

HARD CHOICE
Critics of the system, however, argue that never before has it been so hard for the consumer to make an intelligent choice among competing goods.

Sheer abundance creates its own problems. Cheap goods sometimes drive out quality goods. Consumers are bombarded with advertising for competing products. Not everyone has the special, technical knowledge that can permit him to say with assurance he's bought the best value in an appliance or an automobile or a suit.

PACKAGING BILL
Many consumers vote and many politicians, well aware of this, launch campaigns on their behalf. In Washington, the Senate Commerce Committee has begun hearings on a "truth in packaging" bill. The National Commission on Food Marketing, established by Congress at the suggestion of President Johnson, is taking testimony on a seven-city schedule.
