

Injunction Asked In School Case

An injunction is being asked to restrain the Big Spring Independent School District from further spending of school bond funds.

The petition for the injunction was filed in 118th District Court at 5 p.m. Monday by Tom Sneed, an Ector County attorney.

The plaintiffs in the suit are an organization calling itself Northside United, Elvira Olivas and A. L. Rodriguez. Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court is on vacation. It is not known whether he will be in his office this week. A hearing will probably be asked before the court as soon as he is available.

The suit stems from the opposition residents of the North Side have voiced to plans of the Big Spring School board to close down Kate Morrison Elementary School.

The petition says that the school district officials have publicly "threatened to make unlawful, illegal and fraudulent use of public funds supported by a bond issue to engage in discriminatory practices directly affecting the right of the plaintiff organization and its members."

Charging that such action is an abuse of discretion on the part of the school officials' within the scope of their authority, the petition alleges that the defendant is depriving citizens in the north part of Big Spring of school improvements to which they are entitled.

The allegation is made that the school board "fraudulently represented" that funds obtained as a result of the bond election held some time ago would be spent on improvements for several Big Spring schools, including the Kate Morrison school.

Now, the petition charges, the funds so obtained are not being used to improve Kate Morrison school—and "on the contrary, the school officials are now actually starting to discontinue the use of Kate Morrison school."

Such action, the petition charges, would be discriminatory against a portion of the population of Howard County and could be discriminatory against the students of Kate Morrison, as well as the population of Howard County.

An allegation is made that the action contemplated by the school officials would work a hardship on students and their families of which the plaintiffs are a part.

A protest against action of the school officials, relative to the closing down of the Kate Morrison school, has been building up for some weeks. A number of meetings have been held on the north side of town.

School officials have appeared at some of these meetings. Sam Anderson, superintendent, was out of town Tuesday morning, attending a school conference in Midland.

Gil Jones, local attorney, will represent the school board in the ensuing hearings.

"The board will meet tonight to discuss the suit," said Jones.

"Officially, Mr. Anderson has not been served with a copy of the petition. Therefore, we are not as yet actually involved in the suit.

"When we take action, we will file a proper answer in the courts. Nothing, naturally, can be done until Judge Caton is in town and can set a hearing."

Uncle Sam Sues Texas On Poll Tax

AUSTIN (AP)—The U.S. Justice Department, acting under the new federal voting rights act, filed suit in federal court today challenging Texas' poll tax voting requirement.

Filing the suit on behalf of Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, were U.S. Atty. Ernest Morgan of San Antonio, and Lawrence Hoffheimer, a lawyer in the civil rights division of the Justice Department.

Morgan said the U.S. District Court will be asked within 12 days to set a specific hearing date on the suit.

The case will be heard by a three-judge federal court, probably in Austin, Morgan said.

LBJ Mapping Nation's Aims

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson is mapping future domestic programs with a set of long-range goals for the nation.

Details are being worked out now, but a top Johnson aide said today the President envisions a study that will determine how U.S. resources can best be used to achieve a variety of aims at home.

"This is an attempt to set up certain goals," said White House Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers.

Johnson sketched his plan in broad outline Monday as he signed a $280-million, health research bill. He said a task force of U.S. leaders from government and private life will seek to tell the nation "where we are, where we are going and how we are going to get there."

Cuban Admits Killing Spree On High Seas

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Cuban seaman picked off a skiff in the Gulf Stream admitted today that he went on a murder rampage on the banana boat Seven Seas, a Coast Guard spokesman said today.

"As I understand it, he admitted doing them all in except the cook," Cmdr. W.C. Wahl of the Key West Coast Guard base told The Associated Press.

"The last thing he said was that he sent the cook (Gerald Davidson) down to the engine room for something. We don't know where the cook is.

"There is five feet of water in that engine room and we don't know what we'll find there," Wahl said.

Ramirez was taken aboard a merchant vessel which located the Seven Seas' 14-foot skiff 60 miles south of Miami. He was transferred to a Coast Guard patrol boat which took him to Miami Beach, then was hustled away by U.S. Immigration Service agents.

Another Coast Guard spokesman said Ramirez told the investigators that he shot and killed five of the eight crewmen aboard the 166-foot vessel, then fled the death ship when her engines went dead as she churned toward his Cuban homeland.

The only known survivor of the murder spree was Elvin Burywaise, 17, a crewman, who hid in terror for 18 hours in a dark, smelly chain locker so small he could not stand erect.

MOTIVE UNKNOWN
"There is no word on the motive" for the killings," Cmdr. Wahl said.

When silence fell over the ship after the bursts of gunfire, Burywaise said, he could tell from his place of refuge that her course was changed southward toward Cuba. But the fuel in her main tanks apparently ran out two hours later.

The Coast Guard speculated that Ramirez did not know how to switch to auxiliary tanks. When the Seven Seas was towed into Key West Monday by a Coast Guard cutter, the bodies of three crewmen were found, one on deck and two in their bloodstained bunks below.

IDENTITIES DEAD
The Coast Guard refused to identify the dead, but Mrs. Raul Carcia, wife of the ship's owner, said they were Aldrick Hinds, the first mate; chief engineer Jose Abad, and Antonio Fornier, a seaman.

Burywaise said he also saw Capt. Rogelio Diaz lying dead in a pool of blood on the bridge, but the Coast Guard said a trail of blood leading to the port rail indicated that Diaz was thrown overboard.

The other crew members besides the missing cook, was Franco Salomon, the second engineer.

SPENT SHELLS
A search revealed no weapons on the ship but spent .38 caliber shells were on the bridge and below.

Burywaise, who emerged from his hiding place when the vessel was boarded by a Coast Guard party Sunday, said he saw Ramirez shoot the first mate to death in his bunk.

Missile Silo Tragedy Deaths Climb To 53

Widowed By Explosion

Hunt For Dead Nearing Climax

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—The death count from an explosion and fire in a Titan II missile-launching site rose to 53 today with the discovery of six more bodies on lower levels of the underground silo.

"It is very possible this is the final count," said Capt. Douglas Wood, Air Force public information officer at the site.

Searchers planned to pump several feet of water out of the bottom of the concrete tube holding the missile before giving up the search.

NUMBER UNKNOWN
The exact number of civilian workmen in the missile complex at the time of the blast and fire Monday was uncertain.

The Air Force said all the victims apparently asphyxiated when the blast and fire sealed off their means of escape and filled the complex with smoke.

The Air Force originally said it believed the explosion and fire trapped 48 men in the silo. Later, another Air Force spokesman said the figure should be less definite — "about 50."

RECOVER BODIES
Rescue teams wearing asbestos suits and gas masks, and using special gear to breathe in the smoke-clogged silo, worked through the night bringing the bodies to the surface.

The Air Force said the 108-foot Titan II in the tube, an intercontinental ballistic missile capable of delivering a nuclear warhead 6,000 miles, did not burn.

It was not armed, a spokesman said, and there was no danger of a nuclear explosion.

Cause of the blast and fire has not been determined.

Two men escaped with minor burns from the fiery launching tube, bringing out sketchy details of a sudden blast, fire and smoke.

ON JOB
The men in the tube were civilians working to update the missile complex, one of 18 Titan II launching sites ringing central Arkansas.

Four Air Force crewmen in the control center of the complex — the most distant point from the launch area — got out unharmed.

At least eight other Air Force men and a number of civilians working above ground were not harmed by the blast.

Cabinet-Rank Agency Bill Passage Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana expressed optimism today over chances of Senate passage of legislation to create a Cabinet department of housing and urban development.

Mansfield, after a conference with President Johnson, attended by other Senate Democratic leaders, said there is substantial opposition to the bill within both parties, but that he regards chances for passage as "fairly good."

It would be called the department of housing and urban development. The House approved its establishment by passing a similar bill 217 to 184 June 16.

Sponsors predicted confidently that the Senate would pass the bill, but they were not claiming an overwhelming margin. They said many Republicans and most Southern Democrats probably would vote against it. Some Republicans are backing a proposal for a community development office of less than cabinet rank.

The bill essentially would upgrade the present Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA) into a cabinet-level department.

When Johnson asked Congress in March to create the department he said projections indicate that between now and the year 2,000, more than 80 per cent of America's population increase will occur in urban areas.

FOR EUBANK
Judges Agree To Draw Up Mandate

Two justices of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals have interrupted their vacation to grant a mandate in the Jack Eubank extradition hearing. Larry Hamby, attorney for the New Mexico fugitive, said today.

As soon as the request of Wayne Burns, district attorney, reaches the clerk of the appellate court, the judges have promised to draw up the mandate.

The mandate will reverse a ruling by the 118th District Court on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, filed by Eubank, and order him released from custody. The court will hold the application of the New Mexico authorities, made two months ago, inadequate, and that Eubank, under a life sentence for murder in New Mexico, should not be held.

When a copy of this mandate reaches A. N. Standard, sheriff, he has stated he will release Eubank from the jail cell he has occupied for the past 160 days.

Burns, on receipt of a letter Monday from Boston Witt, New Mexico attorney general, in which the New Mexico official said no further effort to extradite Eubank would be made and insofar as that state was concerned, Eubank should be released from jail, immediately requested that the appeals court withdraw his motion for a re-

State Areas Get Thundershowers

Thundershowers plowed across the upper two-thirds of Texas today, promising partial relief from the scorching summer sun.

A twister whipped down four miles west of Temple Monday amidst strong winds and rain. It destroyed a garage and a barn and split several trees.

Traffic along the heavily traveled north-south expressways through Central Texas was slowed to less than 30 miles an hour during the height of the electrical storm. Lightning bolts touched off fires in the parked grass fields near Temple and a later bolt struck firefighter Roland Williams.

OFF THE AIR
Lighting also set fire to a home at Terrell and knocked Terrell radio station KTER off the air during the storm.

At Palestine in East Texas, high winds pushed over a drive-in theater screen, shattered plate glass windows, and disrupted transmitting services of the Palestine Police Department. Temperatures slid from 97 to 79 degrees within a half hour after the storm hit.

Rain delayed the state American Legion tournament at Waxahachie for three hours Monday night while the baseball field dried.

DRIFT SOUTHWARD
The Weather Bureau said South Texas thundershowers would fade with sunrise but other disturbances over the Panhandle would remain intact while drifting slowly southward. Showers over Oklahoma were forecast to ease into Texas during the morning.

Early morning temperatures were mostly in the seventies, but the day's highs were expected to reach summertime norms.

"NO DIVISION"
Johnson unexpectedly met with the White House press between two extensive briefing sessions, each for half the Senate. He said to the newsmen, referring to what he called would-be hopeful enemies, "I don't want any of them to say, because somebody makes a speech that questions this or questions that or suggests a different method or different idea that there is any substantial division in our country. And, in my judgment, there is no substantial division in the Congress."

He added: "We're there to

Miss Universe Back In Bangkok
BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Miss Universe 1965 returned home today from the international beauty pageant to cheers, shouts and wolf whistles. The beauty queen, Apasra Hongsakul, who won the title last month at Miami Beach, Fla., was guest at a cocktail reception at Municipal Hall. A ball under royal patronage will be held in her honor Thursday.

defferments to complete their education and are now out of school, will probably find themselves facing possible military duty. This will also apply to the graduates who will close their college careers this month.

Action of the board at its meeting will set the pattern for the present situation, Mrs. Nuckolls said.

She warned that a considerable number of youngsters who have reached the age of 18 have been a little delinquent in registering with their boards.

The law specifies that a youth reaching the age of 18 is required to register within five days after his birthday. Some have been slow about obeying this regulation. There is a more urgent need now than ever for 18-year-olds to comply with the law to the letter.

Meantime, Mrs. Nuckolls said that the Selective Service office, in the basement of the post office, is clearing its decks for a lot of action.

"We expect to be a very busy little organization for some time to come," she said.

Draft Call Here Jumps To 13 For September

"This is the biggest draft call we have had since the Korean War," Mrs. Louise Nuckolls, clerk of the Howard-Martin-Mitchell County Selective Service board, said in announcing the September draft demands to be made on her board.

"We are to induct 13, and 80 others — which is an all time high number — are to be called up for pre-induction physicals," she said.

SEPT. 22
The draftees to be inducted are to leave here Sept. 22. The pre-induction medical examinations will be staged Sept. 22, 23 and 27.

"For August," said Mrs. Nuckolls, "we did not induct a single person. We had 25 for pre-induction medicals. In July, we inducted two and sent 25 for medical examination."

The Howard-Martin-Mitchell County Selective Service board will meet soon, possibly this week, for the purpose of reviewing and re-classifying men on the lists of the local district.

The board is made up of Robert M. Dean, Big Spring, chairman; Martin L. Gibson, Stanton, and Sie Hamm, Colorado City, members.

Mrs. Nuckolls said that one development is certain to come out of the stepped up demands on local draft boards.

SEVERE LOOK
The board, she said, is certain "to take a more severe look at the student status of men who have been awarded deferments to attend college."

She said that not too much attention has been paid recently to the kind of scholastic work a deferred student was performing in school. Nor, she added, was too much stress laid on the student who attended one semester, laid off a semester and possibly returned to college the third term.

This will all be changed, she said.

Students who have deferred status to attend school will have to demonstrate a sincere and effective application to their scholastic work, or they may find their deferment nullified.

She also said that graduates from college who were granted back to Big Spring during the winter," she said.

Mrs. Jordan is looking forward to watching the changing of the seasons in Arkansas. That's when the hues are brilliant and the morning mists hang dense and reflects the surrounding colors.
Sooner or later, Mrs. Jordan has another prize trip up her sleeve. She is going to go to those California valleys where the flower seed farms are located. It has always been her ambition to see acres and acres of flowers growing.
All of that is inbetween time. Meanwhile, there's a galaxy of hobbies awaiting Mrs. Jordan's attention. Painting is at the top of the list. "It's a great challenge just to see if you can duplicate the lines and capture the scene," she explained.
She does excellent work in pottery, and has an added interest in collecting antique jewelry. Of the items she has enjoyed finding is a hand engraved watch clock and a ring that was once an heirloom of an ancient Chinese family.
With all her plans and activities, will she miss working at all? Indeed yes. She will miss the intriguing contact with people, and she will miss the feeling of personal interest and protection Cosden gives its employees.
Still, if the coin should so decide, Mrs. Jordan just might invent a new kind of alarm clock. She has in mind one that will take the alarm out of alarming; a clock with such a gentle ring that, sometimes, you won't hear it at all.

GINGER ROGERS

Role Proves Ginger Rogers A Rediscovery

NEW YORK (AP) — It was "Wow, fellows, look at the old girl now!" at the St. James Theater and the audience obviously was wowed by a mixture of one-part nostalgia, one-part rediscovery and 10-parts Ginger.

For it was an opening night "Hello, Ginger!" to Ginger Rogers in the Carol Channing role in "Hello, Dolly!"

And it was so nice to see Ginger on Broadway again, after, as she put it, "Hum-m-m how many years."

So far as could be determined, not one Carol Channing fan turned in his ticket because the flamboyant star of one of Broadway's biggest hits had decided to move to the West Coast.

A SELL-OUT Hours before Monday night's performance, there was a sold-out sign at the box office, but it didn't deter Ginger's fans, who hung around by the score hoping for last minute cancellations.

The audience inside included the regular opening - night Broadway people, plenty of tourists, and middle-aged types who saw most of Ginger's 70-odd movies, including the 11 she danced through with Fred Astaire.

They were probably the ones who applauded the loudest when Ginger went through her steps in "Hello, Dolly!" — quite a few more steps, incidentally, than were originally in the part.

JOYOUS NIGHT Calling director Gower Champion out on the stage after many curtain calls, Miss Rogers embraced him and told the audience he and producer David Merrick had provided her with "the most joyous and exciting night of my life."

Backstage, she greeted her mother; her husband, William Marshall, and a horde of admirers — including two young girls who wept passionately when they got her autograph. Ginger wept a little too.

She confessed she was so nervous that at first she wanted to tell the audience to come back tomorrow.

"I hope that I haven't been dreaming," she said. "My head is a little light."

"That perfectly beautiful audience," she beamed. "You want to take each one of them home with you."

VA Shuffles Lubbock Office

Thursday is the last day the Veterans Administration regional office in Lubbock will be open for business.

The Lubbock and Waco VA offices are scheduled to be consolidated into one regional office. Movement of veterans' records, office equipment and personnel will be accomplished during the weekend beginning Friday. On the following Monday (Aug. 16) the consolidated regional office will be in operation at 121 S. 6th Street, Waco.

Remaining in Lubbock will be the outpatient clinic to continue compensation and pension examinations and outpatient treatment services to veterans of this area. The clinic will remain in the same location, 1612-20 19th St. in Lubbock.

In addition to the outpatient clinic, there will be some employees remaining in the area to assist in providing direct services to veterans. These will consist of personnel in contact, loan guaranty and guardianship programs and will be located in Lubbock, Abilene, Amarillo, Big Spring, El Paso and Midland. Counseling service in connection with education and training benefits will continue to be provided in Lubbock.

Correspondence from veterans and others pertaining to medical services should continue to be addressed to the VA Outpatient Clinic in Lubbock, and correspondence pertaining to other veterans' benefits should be directed to the VA Regional Office in Waco.

NINE COUNTIES IN DIXIE

Illiterate Negroes Go On Voting Rolls

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal registrars begin placing Negroes on the voting rolls of nine Southern counties today — with no questions asked about their intelligence.

And the Justice Department goes to work in the federal courts of Texas, Virginia and Alabama to seek an end to poll taxes as a requirement for voting in state and local elections.

The Voting Rights Act of 1965 got up a full head of steam Monday night when Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach — after a day of study and telephone consultations — designated those counties where past experience led him to believe examiners, all regular Civil Service Commission employees, would be needed.

THREE STATES

The counties are in Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana. The first one on the Justice Department's list was Dallas County, Ala. That's where Selma is, and Selma is where racial violence flared last spring just before President Johnson called for legislation to guarantee the right to vote to Southern Negroes.

Immediately upon Katzenbach's announcement of the nine counties in which federal registration will be launched, Chairman John W. Macy of the Civil Service Commission sent two examiners to each.

They were to open offices in six post offices, one federal building and two other locations in the nine counties this morning.

VOTING ROLLS

Negroes who have been turned away before now may fill out a simple application form — or have it filled out for them if they're illiterate — and be placed on the voting rolls simply by meeting such requirements as age, residence and a record clear of felony convictions.

Meanwhile, Justice Department lawyers put the finishing touches on suits to be filed in Austin, Richmond and Montgomery attacking the state poll tax requirements. These suits are required of the attorney general by the new law. The first was filed Saturday challenging Mississippi's poll tax.

The federal registrars were assigned to Leflore and Madison counties in Mississippi; Dallas, Lowndes, Hale and Marengo in Alabama, and East Carroll, East Feliciana and Plaquemines Parishes (counties) in Louisiana.

Dispatching of federal registrars brought generally critical reaction from officials in the counties affected.

Carl Golson, a member of the Lowndes County Board of Registrars in Hayneville, Ala., said the board had been promised that no federal registrars would be sent as long as literacy tests weren't used.

Declared Golson: "We lived up to our agreement, but they broke theirs. We bowed, we gave in, but their agreement was not worth a damn."

"NO BIAS"

In Demopolis, Ala., in Marengo County, Registrar Taylor Speidie said he had never discriminated against would-be Negro voters.

He said he thought voters should be able to read and write, and that "everyone got the same test. This board is on the square."

"It's pretty rough the way they're going to register these illiterates," he said. "Why some of them don't know a thing in the world."

Rep. Prentiss Walker, R-Miss., said in Jackson he thought enforcement of the law was unfair.

"As I see it," said Walker, "the South will be forced to reg-

Singapore And Malaysia May Resume Ties

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysia and Singapore appeared ready today to work in harmony if they can reconcile Singapore's desire for trade with Indonesia and Malaysia's fears of Indonesian aggression.

Statements issued by leaders of the two governments following Singapore's sudden withdrawal from the federation stressed coexistence and cooperation.

"We now separate on terms of friendship," said Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman. He underscored points in the separation agreement calling for joint action in economic and defense matters.

WORKING TIES

Singapore Premier Lee Kuan Yew accused Rahman of forcing the break, but he too stressed the need for working relations between the two governments, particularly in trade.

Lee's deputy premier, Toh Chin, declared that the causeway linking Singapore with the Malay mainland will "always be open to Malaysians."

At the same time Lee said he hoped for diplomatic relations and trade with Indonesia.

"We can't allow that to happen," said Rahman. "We would take action."

TRADE PARTNER

Indonesia was one of Singapore's chief trading partners until Indonesian President Sukarno launched his military campaign to crush Malaysia. Government leaders of the Borneo states of Sarawak and Sabah, the two remaining partners of Malaya in the federation, said there was no basis to reports that they would also pull out. However, opposition political parties in Sarawak called for a plebiscite to determine if the people want to remain in the federation.

Indonesians already were claiming a victory over the federation.

Widow's Bail Hearing On

MIAMI (AP) — Rita Mossler Wilder, 21, daughter of Mrs. Jacques Mossler, was called to testify today in the hearing in which her mother seeks release on bond from a murder charge in Mossler's death.

Mossler's attractive widow, Candace, 46, and her nephew, Melvin Powers, 23, were indicted for murder in the June 30, 1964, fatal stabbing and beating of the Texas financier.

The prosecution contends that Mossler, 69, was murdered so Mrs. Mossler and Powers could continue a love affair. The trial is scheduled Nov. 15.

Third Victim In July Crash Dies

DALLAS (AP) — Jack Pearson of Grapevine died today, the third victim of a two-car crash July 26. Two other persons were killed outright on Texas 183 in Irving. One car swerved to avoid a pickup truck and collided with the second car. The truck wasn't scratched.

flameless ELECTRIC cooking!

Every time you cook during hot weather, you'll appreciate the cool comfort of flameless electric cooking. Electric range surface units transfer heat to utensil bottoms by direct metal-to-metal contact, with no intervening air space. Heat goes into the utensils and the food, not into the kitchen air. The flameless electric oven needs no oxygen for combustion, so there's no flow of air through the oven to heat your kitchen. Result: Your kitchen stays degrees cooler when you are cooking hot meals. How You Can Buy The Extra Benefits

By JOHN TROAN
NEA Special Writer

Besides the basic health benefits provided by Social Security, persons past 65 will be able to buy supplemental insurance through the government to help with other medical bills. Such insurance, effective July 1, 1966, will cover:

Doctor Bills — House calls by physicians, office visits, and services rendered in a hospital, nursing home or other institution.

However, routine physicals won't be covered. Neither will vaccine shots, nor exams for eyeglasses or hearing aids. (But diagnosis and treatment of eye and ear ailments will be included.)

ORDER BOOK

All the valuable information contained in this series, PLUS additional details and charts are offered to you in a new 80-page book for permanent reference. To order a copy, send name, address and $1 to "Medicare" c/o Big Spring Herald, P.O. Box 489, Dept. 79721, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019.

Plastic surgery will be excluded if done purely for cosmetic reasons. But if it's "required for the prompt repair of accidental injury," or to fix an impaired limb or other malformed part of the body, the surgery will be covered.

Dental Care — Services of dentists for jaw or other facial-bone surgery required by accident or disease (but not ordinary dental treatment).
Psychiatric Care — If a patient is treated outside a hospital for a "mental, psychoneurotic or personality disorder," the insurance will cover half of the bill—up to a total of $250 a year.

Home Visits — Up to 100 visits a year to a patient's home by part-time nurses, nurse's aides, medical social workers, and physical, occupational and speech therapists.

Under the basic Social Security Medicare plan, such visits will be covered only if the patient is hospitalized first. The supplemental insurance will provide such care even if the patient hasn't had prior hospital treatment. Or it can be used to get 100 visits in addition to the 100 offered by the basic Medicare program.

To obtain such benefits, the home care must be spelled out in a plan drawn by the patient's doctor. He also must certify that the patient is confined to his home and needs either "skilled nursing care" or physical therapy or speech therapy (in which event, the other home benefits also will be available).

Other Medical Services:

- Diagnostic tests, including X ray and laboratory tests, performed in a legally approved lab or in one operated by a physician or hospital.

- Radiation therapy (treatment with X rays, radium or radioactive isotopes).

- Surgical dressings, splints, casts and other "devices" used to fix fractures and dislocations.

- Rental of "durable" medical equipment (including iron lungs, oxygen tents, hospital beds and wheelchairs).

- Ambulance service to the nearest hospital if ordinary transportation would endanger the patient.

- Artificial limbs, artificial eyes, and braces (but not orthopedic shoes).

- Other prostheses (such as an artificial heart valve or synthetic artery) designed to replace part or all of an internal organ. (But no false teeth, hearing aids or eye-glasses.)

Deductible Feature

In any case, you will have to pay for the first $50 worth of such "supplemental" services which you get each year. You'll also have to pay 20 per cent (one-fifth) of the balance.

Not counted toward your "$50 deductible": Anything you pay for drugs, for inpatient hospital or nursing home care, and for any dental care except dental

Farm Loans Reported At Record Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Farm Credit Administration reported today that farmers and their cooperatives borrowed a record $6.6 billion through federal land banks, production credit associations and banks for cooperatives during the year ended June 30.

These institutions are supervised by the Federal Farm Credit Administration, but farmers own them.

Farmer borrowings were 12.4 per cent higher than a year earlier.

Gov. R. B. Tootell of the Farm Credit Administration said this increase reflected a growth in commercial agriculture.

"It will continue to grow as farms become larger, the importance of mechanization grows, and agricultural science provides new techniques for greater production efficiency," he said in a report.

Through the farm credit system, farmers can tap the nation's money markets on terms nearly as favorable as those enjoyed by the U.S. government. The system obtains loan funds through the sale of bonds and debentures. No federal money is used. During the year ended June 30, the farm credit system found a ready market for $3.7 billion of its securities.

New Cotton Curb Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration farm leaders said today an official forecast of a cotton crop of 14.9 million bales this year adds new pressure for a federal cotton control program more effective in limiting cotton production.

Such a crop—indicated by the federal crop reporting board yesterday—could well add upwards of 1.4 million bales to the present reserve and surplus of 14.2 million bales. The largest reserve and surplus in history was 14.4 million in 1956.

An omnibus farm bill pending in Congress would seek to encourage a sharp reduction in the cotton acreage next year by offering lower price supports, supplemented by government payments to cooperating farmers.

Italy retained its World Bridge title by pulling steadily away from the United States in the concluding deals of their match recently held in Buenos Aires, Argentina, third, and Great Britain was fourth.

In the hand presented today, the U. S. A. added slightly to the lead they built up against Italy in the early part of their match.

At the table where the United States held the North-South cards, the bidding proceeded as depicted in the diagram. Howard Schenken, seated South, opened the bidding after two passes with one spade. West doubled and Peter Levrentz chose to bid three spades, which closed the auction.

West made the effective opening lead of a trump. East put up the ace of spades and continued the suit. North was in and the ten of hearts was led and permitted to ride to West, who won with the queen and then returned his last trump to prevent South from ruffing a heart in dummy.

The four of hearts was led and declarer finessed the jack. West was in with the king and he exited with a heart. South had lost three tricks — two hearts and one spade—and he was confronted with two prospective losers in diamonds and clubs.

Schenken quickly ran off his remaining hearts and spades, reducing all hands to three cards. In order to protect his king of clubs, West was obliged to come down to the lone ace of diamonds and the king-jack of clubs. South exited with the king of diamonds throwing West in and the latter was obliged to lead away from his club holding, thus enabling declarer to win the last two tricks with the queen and ace of clubs.

At the other table, the Italians also reached a contract of three spades with the North-South cards after East and West had competed in diamonds. Kelsey Petterson, seated West for the Americans, led a trump and his partner Ivan Erdos played the ace. Instead of continuing with spades, however, East shifted to the queen of diamonds. West captured South's king with the ace and then switched back to trumps. When he got in with the queen of hearts another spade lead drew the dummy's last trump.

Inasmuch as the defenders had taken the king of diamonds out of his hand, declarer was unable to effect an end-play on West and South subsequently lost another heart and a club for a one trick set.

Drouth Sets Back Cotton And Sorghum

AUSTIN (AP) — Summer drouth conditions last week set back dryland cotton and sorghum prospects in Northwest Texas, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported Monday. Light showers weren't much help.

The department's weekly crop and weather report said "These showers provided only temporary relief from summer drouth, and hot temperatures caused rapid evaporation of the moisture."

Cotton, however, made "fair progress" in most of the state, despite lack of moisture.

Oregon Girl Signs Up For Junior Rodeo

Beverly Boyd, a junior rodeo competitor from Medford, Ore., has the distinction of being the contender from the most distant point to enter the forthcoming Howard County Junior Rodeo.

Advisor

Donald A. Johnson, executive vice president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has been appointed by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman as a member of the department's advisory committee on cotton. Johnson follows the late George W. Pfeifferberger as head of the giant High Plains cotton producer organization in February. He has been active in the Washington affairs of cotton for several years. Since 1962 he had served as assistant executive of the group with 25,000 members.

Drive Got Good Roll

There is a golfer, so far unidentified, who made a spectacular drive Monday afternoon. Although his drive did not stay within the confines of the fairway and was not what the golfer wanted, it actually travelled 71 miles before coming to a permanent stop.

Walker Bailey, Howard County superintendent, is the authority for the story. Bailey, a golfer of sorts himself, says: "I was driving along the road near the drive-in theater late Monday afternoon in my pickup."

"I saw something white strike the pavement ahead of me and bounce high in the air. It struck a second time and bounced again."

"I went on to my farm. Then I drove to Martin County and finally back home. In all, I travelled 71 miles."

"When I got home, I found what the small white object had been — it was someone's golf ball. It was reposing peacefully in the back of my pickup. The owner can have it, if he can identify it."

Launching Of Model Stalled

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—An attempt to launch a metal model of the Surveyor spacecraft toward an imaginary moon was postponed today because of trouble with a range safety system.

No new launching date was set immediately. The flight is to be a vital rehearsal for an attempt to land an instrumented surveyor craft gently on the moon late this year.

Attacked Mother Of 3 Is Critical

FORT WORTH (AP)—Mrs. Flora Kimbrell Neill, 39 and the mother of three, was in critical condition today after being stabbed, beaten and apparently raped Monday.

WEATHER

Table with weather forecasts for various regions: NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS, NORTHWEST TEXAS, SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS, and TEMPERATURES for Big Spring, Amarillo, Chicago, Denver, El Paso, Fort Worth, New York, and St. Louis.

Miss Boyd's application arrived by mail and has been accepted. Most of the competitors will come from New Mexico and Texas, the lists indicate.

Lanny Cawthorn, Pagosa Springs, Colo., and a lone entry from Oklahoma are the only other out-of-state riders in the lists.

The rodeo opens Thursday night at the Rodeo Bowl west of town. Stock was arriving today.

Entry time closed Monday night but a mountain of mail, all postmarked ahead of the deadline, arrived today and was being processed.

More than 160 entrants had been officially entered in the books at 10 a.m. today, and there were a large number of additional letters to be handled.

The rodeo, sponsored by the Howard County 4-H Clubs, is now in its 20th year. It will run through Saturday night. The rodeo is approved by the American Junior Rodeo Association and some of the top hands of the junior circuit are to compete.

Texan Named To ICC Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson picked a Texan today to succeed another Texan as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

He said he will nominate Willard Deason, Austin lawyer and businessman, to fill the vacancy created by the recent resignation of Everett Hutchinson of Texas.

Deason until recently operated Radio KVET in Austin. He sold the station to Roy Butler, Austin auto dealer and friend of Johnson.

Deason, a native of Wilson County, Texas, has held federal jobs with the Federal Land Bank of Houston and the National Youth Administration, for which Johnson once was Texas state director.

He received a law degree from the San Antonio School of Law in 1934.

Virginia Faces Suit On Poll Tax

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The federal government, implementing the new Negro voting rights law, filed suit here today to kill Virginia's poll tax.

The suit asserted the state poll tax was adopted solely to restrict the electorate.

Annuity Adjustments Due In Railroad Retirement

There will be some annuity adjustments for persons under railroad retirement in view of changes in the Social Security Act and the Medicare program.

Another Big Gift

The Howard County Rehabilitation Center received another big gift this morning, this time from the Temple Israel congregation. Mrs. Joyce Fisher presented an $800 check to Rev. V. Ward Jackson, president of the Center, for equipping the new building. Sam Mellinger (center) and Jim Thompson, therapist, look on. Fifteen years ago, members of Temple Israel began a fund to build a temple here. Recently, the members decided to give some of this fund to the center. (Photo by Kenneth Good)

Housing Measure Signed; Contains Rent Subsidy Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson signed into law today a $7.5 billion housing bill with a new rent subsidy provision for the needy and said the nation must press on in this decade to wipe out "the shame of slums and squalor and the blight of deterioration and decay."

"We must make sure," the President said, "that every family in America lives in a home of dignity, in a neighborhood of pride, a community of opportunity and a city of promise and hope."

"A LANDMARK" It was at a ceremony in the White House rose garden that Johnson spoke and then penned his name on what he called landmark legislation that "represents the single most important breakthrough in the last 40 years" in the housing field.

He said it is a landmark bill because of its new ideas, and: "Foremost of these is the program of assistance for the construction and the rehabilitation of housing for the elderly and for families of low income—the people who live in the most wretched conditions in our slums and blighted neighborhoods."

Blow To Heart Fatal To Boy

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP)—A medical examiner reported today that a youth who collapsed and died with his father Sunday died as a result of a "blow to the heart."

Police reported Monday that father and son had died of heart attacks during a heated quarrel over whether the son should mow the lawn.

Dr. Rudolf A. Colmers, the medical examiner, said Henry Fisher Jr., 17, was either punched in the heart or fell against some protruding object.

Colmers attributed the father's death to heart failure. Colmers said that the father, Henry C. Fisher Sr., 40, who collapsed and died while giving aid to his son, had a pre-existing heart ailment. The son did not, the medical examiner said.

Search Abandoned For Athena Missile

WHITE SANDS MISSILE RANGE, N.M. (AP)—Searchers have abandoned efforts to find an Athena missile that overshot its target area early Saturday and descended near Fabens in West Texas.

It will be cooler over the central Rockies, the northern Plains and from the lower Great Lakes and Ohio Valley to Virginia. It will be warmer over the midlands. Scattered showers and some thundershowers are expected from the Great Lakes eastward to the middle Atlantic Coast and over parts of Arizona. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Court Asked To Support Reapportionment

AUSTIN (AP)—Atty. Gen. Waggoner-Carr asked a Houston federal court today to uphold legislation reapportioning the Texas House and to set a trial at once on the merits of a suit attacking the redistricting bill.

In a document filed with the three-judge court, Carr asked the court to set an Aug. 15 deadline for filing of further petitions.

A number of persons, including several political figures, have filed pleadings asking the court to strike down the reapportionment bill. The original suit was filed by State Reps. Jake Johnson of San Antonio and Bob Eckhardt of Houston; State Sens. Don Kennard of Fort Worth, and Franklin Spears of San Antonio; and Harris County Democratic Chairman Bill Kilgallon.

UNDER PRESSURE The legislature passed the bill realigning House districts under pressure of an Aug. 2 deadline set by the federal court.

Carr said the state officials named as defendants in the case "deny generally each and every allegation of unconstitutionality" of the redistricting bill. His petition contends the bill is "a valid and constitutional enactment, both in the light of the Constitution of the State of Texas and the Constitution of the United States."

DEADLINE NEED Carr said "it will be impossible to have a hearing on the merits of this cause if a deadline is not fixed by this court" for the filing of further petitions.

U.T. Tower Fire Erupts

AUSTIN (AP)—A fire broke out on about the 20th floor of the University of Texas Tower today, sending black smoke billowing across the campus.

The tower is 27 stories tall and dominates the big campus just north of the business district and the Texas Capitol.

The tower largely houses faculty offices on the upper stories. On lower stories are administrative offices, and main library and numerous valuable collections of books and manuscripts.

Royal Couple At Sardinia Resort

OLBIA, Sardinia (AP)—Princess Margaret of Britain and her husband, Lord Snowdon, are spending a two-week vacation at a luxury resort in a desert area of Sardinia.

She was met at the airport Monday by the Aga Khan, Prince Karim, who drove the couple to the Costa Smeralda resort.

The seaside resort on the Mediterranean island was developed by the Aga Khan.

Probe Asked On Speaker

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A petition was on file today in a state court asking for an investigation of House Speaker J. D. McCarty.

Two women filed the petition, seeking to determine "whether any criminal acts have been committed" by him.

The charges referred to a pleading made in court by Muriel Jack Woolsey who said McCarty and former Senate President Everett Collins took a $40,000 bribe for their support on a legislative measure to legalize betting on horse and dog races.

The bill was defeated. Both men denied the allegations. Mrs. Laurita Johnson and Mrs. Johnnee Lawhorn filed the petition for an inquiry.

Citizens Band Operator Wins Cup At Jamboree

David Haught travelled 1,063 miles and, by virtue of his journey, has won a loving cup. Haught who lives at 1602 Vines, is vice president of the Howard County Citizens Band Association.

He recently attended the fourth annual Citizens Band Jamboree in Evansville, Ind., where he was declared the delegate who came the greatest distance to the meeting.

He was presented with the cup June 25. Tuesday night, Haught was at a meeting of the local CB group in the Wagon Wheel Restaurant, and was congratulated by Ken Clark, 1304 Sycamore, on his achievement.

Haught was well ahead of the second place CB delegate in distance, who came from New York—about 882 miles.

Later, Haught won a 10-transistor radio at Flora, Ill., at another CB jamboree. Again the distance he travelled won for him.

Mayor Is Doing Well

Mayor George Zachariah, who has been in the Methodist Hospital in Houston for several weeks, should be returning home by the early part of next week, Mrs. Zachariah said Monday. She returned home Sunday.

The surgeons repaired an aneurism and removed one kidney, she said. Zachariah is making exceptionally good recovery, she said, and for this reason she anticipates he will be home within another week.

She said that the surgeons had hoped when the aneurism had been cared for the faulty kidney would begin functioning. When it did not, the surgeons removed the organ.

Mrs. Zachariah said that the mayor was deeply grateful for the many letters, cards, telephone inquiries and flowers he has received while in the hospital.

Car Smashup Fatal To 3

ROCKPORT, Tex. (AP)—Three persons were killed and three were seriously injured about 8 miles north of here today in a car smashup.

The dead were Omar Byron Horner of Brownwood, driver of a station wagon, a child, Valerie Horner, and the driver of the other vehicle, Elmo F. Brundrett of Rockport.

A woman and two children from the Horner car were taken to a Corpus Christi hospital.

U.S. Sectors Get Rainfall

Showers splashed across scattered sections of the nation today after heavy rain and thunderstorms in parts of the Northeast and Southeast.

The first measurable rainfall in many weeks was reported in sections of New York State, New York City, with a severe water shortage, got nearly one inch, largest amount since spring. More than two inches fell at Raybrook and Newburgh. The heavy rain upstate aided New York City's parched watersheds.

Heavy rain and severe lightning hit the Philadelphia area. Lightning set a fire at the Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital, forcing the evacuation of 100 patients and 60 nurses. A cupola on the hospital burned and fell three stories to the ground. Nearly two and a half inches of rain fell in parts of the city.

Stormy weather ripped across the eastern Gulf Coast and parts of Florida and Georgia. Tornado winds lashed Albany, Ga., during a severe thunderstorm. Nearly six inches of rain doused the Brunswick and Sea Island areas along the Georgia coast and rain and hail pelted Lake Charles, La.

Hot weather continued in most of the western third of the nation with temperatures reaching above 100 degrees Monday in Southern California and other areas. The 101 mark at Grand Junction, Colo., was a record high for Aug. 9. The top mark was 111 at Imperial, Calif.

Temperatures were below normal in most of the Midwest and Northeast and near or above normal in most other sections of the nation. Early morning readings ranged from 47 at International Falls, Minn., to 99 at Needles, Calif.

Plane Crash Kills Texans

DOUGLAS, Wyo. (AP)—The crash of a twin-engine plane south of here Monday killed three Pampa, Tex., men returning from a Canadian fishing trip.

They were Demares Holt, 40, the pilot; Clayton Husted, 56; and Bernard Behrman, 57. The airplane belonged to the Holt Bros. Drilling Co. of Pampa.

A ranchwoman said the plane flew over her behind a hill. It crashed near the North Platte River.

The plane had failed in one takeoff from Douglas after refueling before it became airborne. He said the pilot evidently had tried a landing when the plane crashed.

LET'S GO

Time to get ready... time to remember: Just as "reading, writing, and 'rithmetic" have changed, so have youngsters' school requirements. They need more than ever before... more supplies more services, more to help them get the most out of today's more comprehensive, more intensive learning programs.

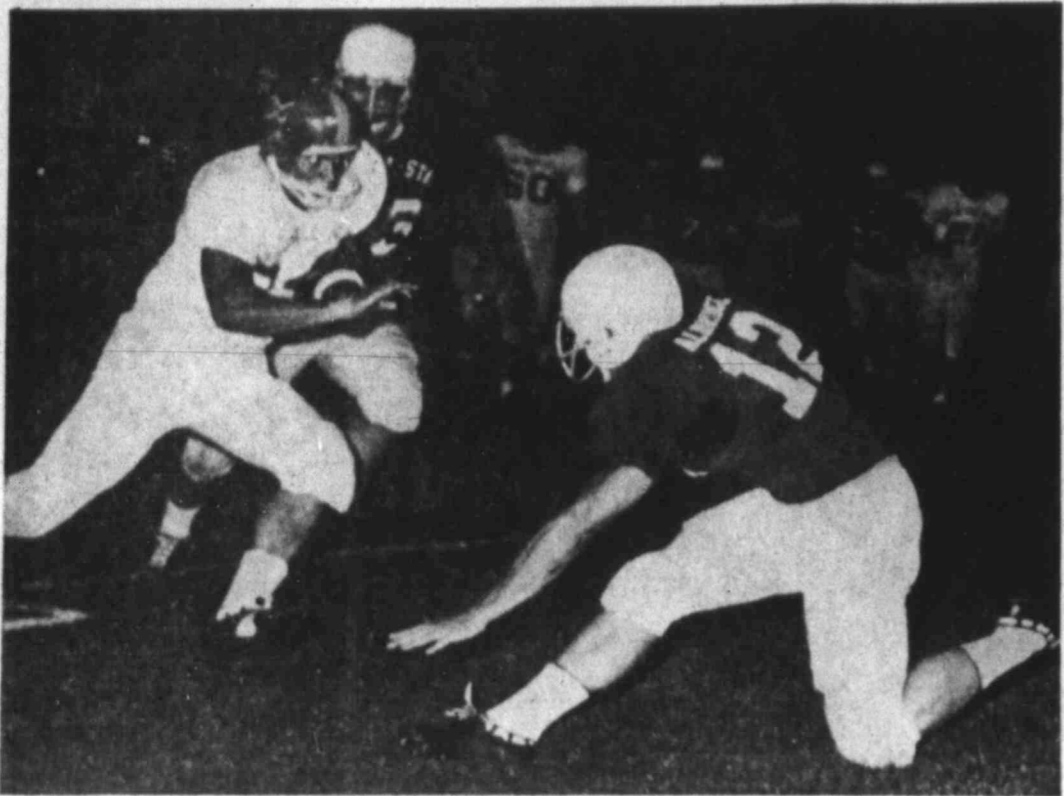

Thanks to alert Big Spring merchants, both parents and students who shop The Big Spring Herald, now will find a wide, varied and value-wise selection of everything to fulfill those expanding needs.

DRIVE CAREFULLY

Frisky, playful children will be going back to school soon. It's up to every motorist to drive extra carefully, extra watchfully. Our childrens lives may well depend on it. Play it safe.

Roberts Gives Phils Lesson In Pitching

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
General Manager John Quinn of Philadelphia said Robin Roberts did not fit into the Phillies' plans. He was wrong. The Phillies discovered just how wrong Monday night when Roberts, making his first National League appearance since 1961, shut out his old team on four hits in Houston's 8-0 triumph. Quinn made the comment about two weeks ago after learning that Roberts was interested in rejoining the team with which he spent his first 14 major league seasons. Baltimore had just released the determined right-hander at his own request. Roberts finally made a deal last Thursday with the Astros, who had to pay the Orioles only the $1 waiver price. The 38-year-old Philadelphia area resident was superb in his first effort. He walked only one batter, allowed only one to reach third and threw a relatively low total of 98 pitches.

The performance was particularly distressing to the Phillies since Manager Gene Mauch said only the day before, in discussing the team's chances for starting a pennant drive, "it's now or never." It also was an encouraging beginning for Roberts, who left the Orioles because of dissatisfaction at being used as a spot starter and a long reliever. "I thought it best to sever my status now," he said at the time. "So I could get a real opportunity to pitch elsewhere next year. Roberts won four consecutive complete games at the start of this season, then dropped seven straight before leaving the Orioles with a 5-7 record. Baltimore is the only other team he has pitched for in the majors besides Philadelphia.

Beaumont Lumber Team Is Champ

BROWNWOOD — Sherman Lumber Company of Beaumont won championship honors in the State ASA Softball tournament here Sunday night, defeating Holt's Sporting Goods of Wichita Falls in the finals, 3-2, in a nine-inning game. Earlier in the evening Holt's had handed the Beaumont club its first defeat of the 22-team meet, 2-1. That game went eight innings. Holt's had advanced to the finals by turning back Midland's Technical Drillers by a score of 2-1. The outcome in that game wasn't determined until the tenth inning.

Morton's Foods of Big Spring finished with an even split in the tournament, losing first to Holt's by a score of 3-0 and then to Midland's Drillers, 5-3, in nine innings. The Big Springers had opened with a 7-2 victory over Lubbock Pumping and then shelled the Odessa Permian Oil Company, 7-0. Tommy Edmonson led Holt's to its victory over Big Spring, clubbing home runs in the first and sixth innings. Walter Jingle counted the other tally for Morton's. Don Campbell, on the mound for Holt's, limited the Morton's team to one hit, a fourth-inning single by Billy Paul Thomas.

Runs by Wayne Rice and Don Miller in the ninth gave Midland's Drillers its victory over Morton's. The Drillers collected a total of ten hits, compared to five for Big Spring. Runs by Thomas and Tito Arencibia in the fourth tied the score for Big Spring and sent the game into extra innings. Houston, meanwhile, knocked out another veteran Lou Burdette in the third inning. Burdette, now 2-5, was battered for four runs in the first inning, two on a single by Joe Gaines. Bob Aspromonte also scored on the play as Gonzalez threw wildly to third. In the only other game, Dean Chance pitched a two-hitter as the Los Angeles Angels whipped Cleveland 9-0. Chance, evening his record at 8-8, allowed only one baserunner after Chuck Hinton singled in the third. That was Leon Wagner, who walked in the sixth.

It'll Be Atlanta Braves Henceforth
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves have ceased to exist in any state except Wisconsin. Stockholders of the National League baseball team met in Atlanta Monday and voted to change the team's name to the Atlanta Braves Inc. This action was taken since the team plans to move to Atlanta for the 1966 season. However, the club cannot play in Wisconsin under the name of Atlanta Braves Inc., because attorney Dominic Frineli recently filed a corporation under that name with the Wisconsin Secretary of State to block such a move. But Braves' Board Chairman William Bartholomay said that the team is a Delaware corporation and can use that name in all states except Wisconsin. Bartholomay also told the stockholders that the team will lose at least $1.5 million in Milwaukee this year because of an unofficial fan boycott. The Braves have signed a 25-year contract with the Atlanta Stadium Authority, beginning Jan. 1, 1966.

Oliva Says He Is Following Script

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (AP)—Tony Oliva of the Twins just smiles when asked if he can win another American League batting championship and sticks to the script. Power gave him last year. "I'll tell you after the season is over," the 1964, AL Rookie-of-the-Year replies. Power was traded to Los Angeles over a year ago, but some of his answers keep turning up whenever Oliva is interviewed. "You have to hit the ball good, and you have to hit with luck," Oliva adds in another Power-ism. "I'm hitting the ball good and I've been lucky." After a slow start this season, Oliva now is batting .307 — thanks to a pair of five-hit games against Boston and Baltimore, plus a four-hit effort Sunday against the Red Sox. He still trails Boston's Carl Yastrzemski by 15 points, but Yastrzemski dropped 18 points on the Red Sox' recent road trip. Oliva led the league last year with a .323 mark. The secret of Oliva's batting prowess is his persistence, Twins' Manager Sam Mele says. "He's one of the best two-strike hitters ever," Mele said. "It's amazing. A pitcher can fool Tony with two pitches and then he'll get a hit." Mele claims Oliva is the best all-around regular in the American League today. "He's not only a great hitter," Mele said, "but he's a good runner, he's got a very good arm for the outfield and he's made some amazing defensive plays for us this year." Oliva has played in all 111 Minnesota games this season although bothered all year by a bone chip in the middle finger of his right hand. "The finger still hurts," Oliva said, "especially when I swing and miss the ball."

Trio Of Local Swimmers Qualify For State Meet

Linda Cathey and a sister-brother combination, Linda and Bob Tydesley, all of Big Spring, qualified for the Texas Aquatic Games in the 15th annual West Texas Invitational Swimming Meet at Midland last weekend. Miss Cathey took second place in the 100-meter breaststroke event in the 13-14 age bracket, at which time she broke the old pool record in the time of 1:31.9. The old mark was 1:32.5. Linda Tydesley won a first place gold medal in the 100-meter butterfly event in the 14 girls' age bracket in the time of 1:19.8 and was fourth in the 200-meter butterfly event in the time of 3:12.5. Bob Tydesley placed fourth in the 200-meter butterfly event among senior boys in the time of 2:45.0. The Texas Aquatic Games will be held in San Antonio Aug. 19-20. Miss Cathey also won sixth place in the 200-meter individual medley with a time of 3:05.1 and was eighth in the 200-meter free style in the time of 2:43.4. In all, there were 450 swimmers at the Midland water carnival, including teams from Abilene, Amarillo, Arlington, Austin, Houston, Denver, Colo., El Paso, Kermit, Indianapolis, Ind., Lubbock, San Antonio, Odessa, Pampa, San Angelo, Snyder, Wichita Falls, Big Spring and the host city. The Big Spring team of Linda Tydesley, Bertie Duncan, Linda Cathey and Vickie Morrow was fourth in the 200-meter free style relay (age 13-14) in the time of 2:26.3. In the 400-meter free-style relay event, the same group wound up eighth in the time of 5:39.8. Carrie Bizzell, Big Spring, was seventh in the 50-meter backstroke (girls, 11-12) in the time of 40.3. Bertie Duncan wound up seventh in the 200-meter backstroke race for girls 13-14 in the time of 3:12.9. In the 200-meter medley relay the same foursome was third and broke the old pool record by finishing in the time of 2:33.9. The old mark was 2:36.1. In the 15-17 boys' bracket, Big Spring's team of Bill Bortner, Rick Pajot, Bob Tydesley and Chuck Penn was sixth with a 2:21.7 clocking. Bob Tydesley was also sixth in the 50-meter free style race in the time of 28.4 and fifth in the 100-meter butterfly race in the time of 1:10.9. Linda Cathey was fifth in the 100-meter backstroke (girls 13-14) in 1:25.0 while Bortner, Pajot, Penn and Tydesley placed seventh in the 200-meter free style relay (boys 15-17) in the time of 2:03.0.

San Antonio Is Legion Survivor
WAXAHACHIE (AP) — San Antonio and St. Thomas of Houston won games in the state American Legion baseball tournament when play ended at pre-dawn 4:40 a.m. today. Rain delayed the tournament three hours. San Antonio's 20-19 defeat of Berger came after a total of 39 runs, 33 hits, and 23 errors in a game that lasted 4 1/2 hours. In the second match, St. Thomas downed Waxahachie, 12-1. The 15-17 boys' bracket, Big Spring's team of Bill Bortner, Rick Pajot, Bob Tydesley and Chuck Penn was sixth with a 2:21.7 clocking. Bob Tydesley was also sixth in the 50-meter free style race in the time of 28.4 and fifth in the 100-meter butterfly race in the time of 1:10.9. Linda Cathey was fifth in the 100-meter backstroke (girls 13-14) in 1:25.0 while Bortner, Pajot, Penn and Tydesley placed seventh in the 200-meter free style relay (boys 15-17) in the time of 2:03.0.

Nicklaus' Purses Total $125,188

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus' victory in the Philadelphia Golf Classic Sunday increased his 1965 earnings to $125,188 on the pro golf tour. The Professional Golfers Association weekly standings showed Nicklaus has won almost twice the money collected by Tony Lema, the tour's second-ranking player, whose total is $69,769. Nicklaus won $114,600 in PGA sanctioned events and $11,588 in other matches. Lema's PGA earnings are $62,716 and unofficial winnings $7,053. Gary Player is third, with official earnings of $62,376 and unofficial of $1,096 for a total of $63,472. Nicklaus has won four of the 16 tournaments he entered and has placed fifth in 13 of them. Other top money makers, with official money first, unofficial and total earnings: Billy Casper $60,908, $25,292, $86,200; Doug Sanders, $59,953, $10,459, $70,412; Bruce Devlin, $57,320, $3,264, $60,584; Gene Littler, $56,541, $4,303, $60,844; Dan Sikes Jr., $48,864, $3,002, $51,866; Bruce Crampton, $48,179, $12,250, $60,429; Johnny Pott, $42,241, $5,615, $47,856.

Koufax Likely To Win 20th
LOS ANGELES (AP)—In betting circles Sandy Koufax is an odds-on favorite to win his 20th game tonight. Consider the factors: The Los Angeles Dodger left-hander, who is 19-4, will be facing the New York Mets in spacious Dodger Stadium. The Dodgers lead the National League, by one tenuous game, to be sure, but the Mets are a solid last, 30 1/2 games back and 13 out of ninth place. Koufax's personal appeal will attract close to 30,000 friends to cheer him on. The 29-year-old has a career record of 13-0 against the Mets, including four victories this season. And the Mets, however, imposing at best, are clanking along with an eight-game losing streak.

Dub King Back

WACO (AP)—Dub King is returning to Baylor as sports publicity director while George Wright convalesces from major surgery. King was the sports publicity director 10 years ago but left to open his own advertising firm here. He will continue to operate that business while sitting in for Wright at Baylor.

"Those Amazing Herald Classified Ads Brought Me A New Fall Wardrobe"

It's a fact! I wouldn't have my new clothes if I hadn't discovered the fantastic results you get with Herald Classified Ads. I went through my home one day and wrote down everything we weren't using anymore. (When you really go looking—you'll be surprised at how much you find). When I had my list I dialed (AM 3-7331) and the friendly Ad Writer took it from there. She helped me write my ad and explained the low rates. Before I knew it... things we didn't use were gone and I had all the extra cash I needed for a complete new wardrobe. Believe me—from now on—nothing stays around this house one day after it's no longer needed. I'm turning it in to extra money with result-getting Herald Classified Ads. Be smart! You do it too! Texas Squad Will Be Man Shy In Skirmish

HERSEY, Pa. (AP) — The Texas squad that plays Pennsylvania in the Big 99 game Saturday night will be a man short—it will be Big 32 so far as Texas is concerned.

It's all because of a cast. Harold Chenault, Rockwall tackle, played in the all-star game of the Texas coaching school at Dallas Thursday night although he had a broken thumb in a cast.

But when he showed up here they told him he couldn't play because in Pennsylvania you can't get in there if you have a cast.

So Chenault will return home today. No substitution will be made.

Meanwhile, Bobby Layne, the Texas head coach, wasn't quite so enthusiastic about his team after it had had its first session in pads Monday.

"We didn't look real good," he said, "but except for our ball-handling I thought we did all right. We have got a lot of things to cover but the kids are coming along real well. There is no reason to complain."

Layne said he wasn't supposed to talk about the linemen—that's the job for line coach Harley Sewell—but he singled out Danny Abbott of Amarillo Tascosa for his fine blocking.

Layne also liked James Harris, the Brownwood back, who he said "looked good running, catching and doing the right things on everything." He also mentioned the work of Ronnie Scoggins of Garland, Chris Gil-

U.S. To Keep Wightman Cup Another Year

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The United States will keep the Wightman Cup for another year because Carole Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, scored a key victory in the 5-2 triumph over Britain's finest women tennis players.

"They've (the AFL) been in four of our cities," he said. "We'll move into whatever city is in the best interest of our league, and I am sure they feel the same way about placing a franchise in an NFL city."

"After all, Dallas, St. Louis and Pittsburgh should be very embarrassed. They are the only cities that haven't been named as possible sites for American League franchises."

HOLDS CONCLAVE

Rozelle held a news conference Monday at the Harris County Astrodome at which time he termed the admission of a second expansion team in addition to Atlanta next year as "very remote."

But he did not rule out completely the possibility of Houston or another city being admitted to the league in 1966.

He also said his league has a policy against an individual or group owning controlling interest in more than one major sports venture.

This apparently rules out Roy Hofheinz, president of the Houston Sports Association, as a majority stockholder if Houston obtains an NFL franchise.

"We believe the primary purpose of a pro football owner is football and he can't do that if he is devoting full time to baseball," Rozelle said. "Minority ownership is fine."

Hofheinz, who last week acquired a controlling interest in the Association which owns the Houston Astro baseball team and has a 40-year lease on the domed stadium, was present at the conference.

"I have said all along that we would welcome an NFL team as a landlord or as an owner," Hofheinz said. "At the time I thought it might be possible to be the owner. It's only since I talked with the commissioner that I learned I couldn't."

RICE NEW HOME

The AFL Houston Oilers were scheduled to play home games in the Astrodome but announced they would play at Rice University stadium following a rent dispute with Hofheinz.

Among the prospective cities for NFL expansion, Rozelle mentioned Toronto, Montreal, Boston, Miami, New Orleans, Houston, Seattle, Portland, Phoenix and Cincinnati.

He said a marketing research report will be made on three or four of the cities. He said it would be late fall before the report is completed and it will be presented to NFL owners at their February meeting.

However, he said other factors will be taken into consideration in picking the city.

Rozelle said reports the Dallas Cowboys are pushing for a

NFL franchise in Houston is not the case. He said the fact that Houston would be a natural rival for Dallas is not really important.

"Natural rivalries aren't as important as they used to be," Rozelle said. "There are sell-outs in cities like Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland not because of rivalries but because of the established stars and teams the NFL represents."

Spoils For Winners

Jess Looney, director of the 1965 State Hi-Junior Baseball tournament which begins a four-day run here at 10 a.m. Wednesday, poses with the championship and runner-up trophy which will be awarded to the surviving teams. The awards are valued at $250. Eight teams are entered in the double-elimination meet and all sections of Texas are represented.

Loop Battle Still Close

Dallas-Fort Worth lost its second straight game Monday night but so did Tulsa, so the Eastern Division of the Texas League was status quo.

Dallas-Fort Worth boasts a two-point lead over Tulsa.

On the other hand Albuquerque, leader of the Western Division, won its second in a row and stayed 16 games ahead of second place Amarillo.

Austin got three scratch singles in the 10th inning to beat Dallas-Fort Worth 1-0. Lefty Herb Hippauf pitched a seven-hitter and notched his 13th victory of the season.

Amarillo edged Tulsa 4-3 as Ray Cordelro performed a similar feat—he worked a seven-hitter. Dave Adlesh slugged a three-run homer and Larry Jaster walked in the other Amarillo run.

Albuquerque nosed out El Paso 5-4 with 3,171 fans on hand for "appreciation night" at Albuquerque. Tommy Dean tripled in two runs in the ninth to give the Dodgers the decision.

Marty Patten permitted only six hits but wasn't tight enough in the clutch.

Tulsa is again at Amarillo. Austin at Dallas-Fort Worth and El Paso at Albuquerque tonight.

Texas Squad Is Completed

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—The Texas squad for the Oil Bowl football game with Oklahoma Aug. 29 was completed Monday night when seven boys were named.

The latest additions are Johnny Johnson, Dallas Samuell halfback; Duane Cross, Garland tackle; Pat O'Connell, San Antonio Jefferson guard; Don King, Wichita Falls Hirsch tackle; James Miller, Canton end; Jim Farrell, Duncanville guard, and Ken Gidney, McKinney guard.

There will be 24 on the Texas squad, the same as Oklahoma, which, however, has named only eight thus far. The Oklahoma squad will be completed Thursday night at Oklahoma City when the all-state game of the Oklahoma coaching school is played.

Hi-Junior Teams Poised To Play

Jess Looney, director of the State Hi-Junior Teen-Age Baseball tournament starting here Wednesday morning, said it was imperative that the group of faithful workers who have put the park in near tiptop shape put in another night of activity this evening.

Looney said some work remains to be done on the stands. Seating capacity for the tournament has been increased to about 1,000. Some of the bleacher seats have been borrowed from Webb AFB.

The tournament gets underway at 10 a.m. Wednesday, at which time the Houston Northside Stevedore Colts, champions of District 1, square off with the Dendy Insurance team of Denton, the District 5 representative.

A new champion is insured in the tournament, since the Dallas Police Association team, last year's king, lost out in the finals of the District 3 tournament to the McInguale Bears.

However, the Bears will make use of three of the Police team players.

Dallas will play the Big Spring Kiwanis, District 8 representatives, in Wednesday's final game at 8:30 p.m.

Two other contests are on tap for tomorrow. District Seven's Texarkana McLarty Fords Mustangs square away with the Temple American Desk club of District 4 at 2 p.m. The San Angelo Jaycees of District 6 have it out with the Pasadena National League Tigers of District 2 at 6 p.m.

Season tickets for the tournament are still being sold at $3 each and are good for all games, including the championship finals. The duets are being sold at Big Spring Hardware, Newsum's Foods, Trantham Furniture, Wasson's Men's Store, Dibreil's Sporting Goods, Hardesty's Crawford Drug, Hull and Phillips Grocery and Center Barber Shop.

Single game tickets will sell for 50 and 25 cents each.

Manager Bernard McMahan of the Big Spring tournament team has picked up three pitchers from other local teams to help in the meet. Such a thing is permitted under Teen-Age rules.

The three hurlers are Sammy Mims, Duncan Drillers; Johnny McCullough, ABClub; and Wesley Ballou, Big Spring Hardware.

In all, 17 local players have been declared eligible for tournament play.

First baseman Kirby Horton leads the local team in hitting with a .435 mark while Horton, Dean Gilstrap, Johnny Stone and Rod Roberts are tops in runs-batted-in.

The Kiwanians, who had a season's record of 13-3-1, have been working out nightly preparing for the meet.

All teams are due to be on deck tonight and some will undergo workouts.

Managers and coaches of the teams will gather with tournament officials at the Holiday Inn Restaurant for a 7:30 p.m. banquet, at which time they will go over rules and submit eligibility rosters.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:
SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE:
"NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle was in town this week to warn the 49ers against consorting with gamblers. Does this mean they can't tackle Paul Hornung?"

Race driver JUNIOR JOHNSON, on why members of his profession regard peanuts in a superstitious light:
"A guy with peanuts in a race has about as much chance as a wax dog chasing an asbestos cat in hell."

A sports buff:
"I like to watch golf tournaments on television. It's sure nice to hear an announcer whisper for a change."

BYRON NELSON

GEORGE VASS, Chicago scribe:
"In baseball, Bill Veck operated on a three-year plan: First year, get in; second year, get; and third year, get out."

MATT HAZELTINE, veteran center for the San Francisco 49ers:
"The 49ers have always given it the old college try—trouble is, we play against professionals."

DARRELL ROYAL, discussing his ace quarterback at Texas:
"One of the best things about Marv Kristynik is that he's never defeated."

DON MAYNARD, former Colorado City athlete, now with the New York Jets:
"I don't think anyone on our club resents Joe Namath's $400,000 contract. That's the club's business, not mine. I just work from the neck down."

DIZZY DEAN, to a woman who had berated him by mail for not knowing the king's English:
"I did know that, lady. The Queen is, too."

CASEY STENGEL, manager of the New York Mets, lauding the play of his slugger, Ron Swoboda:
"He puts effort into his work, whether it's good or lousy."

LeROY BRANNEN, a golf equipment man:
"Comparing Jack Nicklaus with Byron Nelson is like comparing Cassius Clay with Jack Dempsey. People will be reading about Nelson in the record books after a bunch of these guys are forgotten."

Linkster ARNOLD PALMER, on why he resumed smoking:
"I'd rather take a chance on cigarettes than go crazy three-putting."

SONNY JURGENSEN, Washington Redskins quarterback, who is training with the club in Carlisle, Pa.:
"They start the late TV show here at 7:30 p.m."

JON MORRIS, center for the Boston Patriots:
"I understand the New York Jets have a snapper in the press box. Anyone that gets close to Joe Namath gets picked off."

Cong Attacked

Dense black smoke billows from jungle near Duc Co, South Viet Nam, today after U. S. Air Force planes dropped napalm on suspected Viet Cong position. This picture was made by Horst Faas, AP staff photographer with joint Vietnamese-American force trying to open up the guerrilla siege on the Vietnamese outpost. The relief force itself was under attack by the Viet Cong. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Cong Loss Up In Camp Raid

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A large government force attempting to relieve the besieged special forces camp at Duc Co has killed 219 Viet Cong in a "battle of sizable proportions" that is continuing, a U.S. spokesman reported today.

Government casualties — including American dead and wounded — are "moderate," the spokesman said, but added, "I describe them as moderate only because of the large number of troops involved."

He said the Viet Cong casualties had been confirmed by body count.

ARMS CAPTURED

He reported two government tanks had been knocked out but said the government force had captured 74 Viet Cong weapons.

The government force was battling its way westward along Route 19, the east-west highway through the central highlands, in an attempt to reach the camp five miles from the Cambodian border.

Its garrison, now numbering 12 U.S. advisers and about 150 South Vietnamese and mountain tribesmen, has been under siege for 67 days. The Communists attack the camp nightly with mortars and small arms.

Since early Monday, Viet Cong forces have been hitting the relief force systematically as it tried to cover the 30 miles between Pleiku, capital of the 2nd corps area, and Duc Co.

The government force was reported fighting about seven miles east of Duc Co.

CONG SNIPERS

The U.S. spokesman gave this account of the action:

Viet Cong snipers opened up on the large road force early Monday. By afternoon the lead elements were heavily engaged.

Just before dusk the Viet Cong hit another part of the column. A force estimated at about 150 guerrillas directed heavy fire from mortars and recoilless rifles at the trucks, tanks and armored personnel carriers.

Two tanks were knocked out.

Jets Scream At Duc Co

DUC CO, Viet Nam (AP) — Smoke from burning vehicles and the scream of U.S. jet bombers marked the site today of a central highlands battle shaping up as the biggest in weeks in the Vietnamese war.

The action centered on Route 19 about five miles east of this special forces camp, besieged by Red guerrillas since June 3.

It seemed to be potentially the most sizable engagement since the frustration June 4 of a drive by a reinforced Viet Cong regiment from the hills toward the sea in the Quang Ngai area, 330 miles northeast of Saigon.

Dead and wounded were awaiting evacuation from the camp, five miles from the Cambodian frontier.

Casualties were heavy on both sides.

A large government force was mauled by the Viet Cong Monday on its way to relieve Duc Co. The road-bound convoy moved in from Pleiku, 30 miles to the northeast.

U.S. advisers put the total Viet Cong dead at 219.

There were many Viet Cong around. They were seen grouping late in the day. U.S. jets hammered the area of their concentrations.

In Duc Co, hit by mortar and recoilless rifle fire Monday, the casualties had not been evacuated because no helicopters or planes could get in to land.

Nominations Win Senate Panel's Nod

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee approved today President Johnson's nominations of Abe Fortas to be a Supreme Court justice and Thurgood Marshall to be solicitor general.

The committee also recommended Senate confirmation of Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., to be a U.S. district judge in Arkansas.

Sens. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., and John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Fortas was approved without any dissenting votes.

NOT UNANIMOUS

They told newsmen, however, that some votes were cast against approval of Marshall's nomination to succeed former Harvard Law School Prof. Archibald Cox as solicitor general.

Fortas is a Washington lawyer who has been a friend and adviser of Johnson since the early days of the New Deal. He was nominated July 28 to succeed Arthur J. Goldberg, who resigned from the court to become U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

Marshall, now a judge on the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, is the first Negro to be named solicitor general, a post in which he would represent the government in cases before the Supreme court.

For many years he was counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people.

H-SU Schedules Commencement

ABILENE—Dr. E. H. Westmoreland, pastor of the South Main Baptist Church in Houston since 1938 and a former president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will be baccalaureate commencement speaker for 1965 summer graduates of Hardin-Simmons University.

H-SU will confer approximately 90 bachelor and master degrees at the summer exercises. The combined baccalaureate and commencement program will be held in the H-SU Chapel-Auditorium, beginning at 8 p.m. Aug. 19.

Among candidates for degrees are Mrs. Fay A. Newman, 3304 Drexel, Big Spring, bachelor of science; Betty Joan Buckner, 1205 Elm, bachelor of science; Truman Fred Martin, 528 E. 13th, bachelor of arts, both of Colorado City.

Actor Will Take Rest From Role

LONDON (AP) — Actor Peter O'Toole will take a complete rest from his role in the play "Ride a Cock Horse" at the Piccadilly Theater.

"There's nothing wrong with Peter except that he's very tired," his manager, Jules Buck, said Monday.

Three County Students Attend Citizenship Meet

Three Howard County students will attend the third annual high school students Citizenship Seminar which opens Wednesday at Huntsville, sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau. Some 120 students are expected to attend. A. R. Grauer, Waco, coordinator for the event, said the seminar is an extensive study of citizenship, with instruction in the form of lectures by educators and speakers, films, and discussion. The students will also visit a unit of the Texas Department of Corrections. The seminar will be held on the campus of Sam Houston State College, and continues through Saturday. Participants will be encouraged in leadership qualities, and acquainted with the economic, social and moral standards of the "American way of life."

Katie Hodnett, Tommy Girdner, and Sherye Kirkpatrick will attend from Howard County. Miss Hodnett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hodnett, Forsan. She is 17, a senior at Forsan, and was junior class favorite. She also won her first year letter in basketball and was second vice president of FHA. Miss Kirkpatrick is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Kirkpatrick, 2201 Carl St. A senior at Forsan, she is FHA president and won a first year letter in volleyball. Girdner is the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Girdner, Southaven Addition. A junior at Forsan, he is a first year letterman in football and secretary-treasurer of the coin club.

Ex-Mayor Denies 'Illegal Spending'

MATHIS, Tex. (AP) — The predominantly Latin American City Commission charges that the previous administration spent $10,000 illegally in attempts to bankrupt the incoming government. A former mayor denied the charges and alleged the new commission had taken office "in a repetition of Crystal City," when Latin Americans ousted Anglos from office. Mayor Winston Bott said Monday the former commission paid off debts on a street sweeper and other equipment months ahead of schedule. He said the city was forced to pay salaries with tax anticipation warrants. Bott also told the commission a move was being organized to persuade citizens to withhold payment of city taxes. Matis, a town of about 6,000, is 35 miles north of Corpus Christi. Former Mayor Milton Boatwright denied his administration had spent city funds illegally. He said the commission paid off outstanding debts before it left office "fearing the new commission would repudiate the debts."

Mrs. Johnson Behind Library

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson served as an eager advance scout for her husband's presidential library and wants it to be "a living thing" of use to many young people. She stood in the background at the White House news briefing Monday when it was announced the library will be established at the University of Texas, her alma mater. But the President saw to it that his wife got plenty of credit, and with a sly grin put her on the spot. The President said "Mrs. Johnson has done quite a bit of work visiting several libraries all over the country." He added she had spent time working on "facilities like the boyhood home, birthplace and things of that kind. Maybe you would want to ask her some questions," he suggested to newsmen.

Show's Hero Has Unusual Motivation

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television series, spinning complete stories around the same characters week after week, must find a valid reason for the hero's constant motion and involvement in adventures. Doctors and lawyers and detectives are easily motivated by their patients and clients. Lawyers have a steady flow of bad guys to catch. "QUESTION MEN" Soon the television screen will break out in a rash of "question men," an epidemic started by "The Fugitive," who is seeking proof of his innocence while fleeing the law. We shall see a man seeking his own identity (amnesia, of course) in one series. Another will keep riding, riding to redeem his reputation of cowardice. There are more. But by all yardsticks, the most unusual will be a hero with a medical deadline on his life, trying to crowd as much excitement as possible into his remaining days.

WARM ATTITUDE
The series is NBC's "Run For Your Life," and the star is Ben Gazzara, one of the few highly esteemed dramatic actors from the New York stage who has a warm attitude toward the medium — possibly helped by his ownership of a percentage of the show. Just what is the matter with the hero? "We don't say," replied Gazzara, with a firmness suggesting he has heard the question many times. "We don't want to upset all the hypochondriacs who watch television, but I assure you there is a disease in which the patient has only a certain length of time to live but feels well until just before the end." But will not a fatally ill hero have a depressing psychological effect on the audience? "JUST OPPOSITE" "Quite the contrary," replied Gazzara. "Who has not asked himself, 'What would I do if I had only two years to live?' There's great audience identification in that, and in a man who has no family to think about, is free of material responsibilities and can travel. Actually, I think the title should be 'Run Toward Life.'"

"Besides," added Gazzara slyly, "two years, at the rate of one show a week, takes a long time — like 14 years."

Woman Hurt In Car Crash

Five traffic accidents Monday resulted in minor injuries to only one of the participants, a Midland woman who was slightly cut and bruised, police said. Mary White Whittington, Midland, was taken to Howard County Hospital Foundation at 6:53 p.m. following a collision between her car and that of Margarito J. Escovedo, 402 NE 6th, at the intersection of Northwest Eighth and Scurry. The woman was treated for minor cuts and bruises at the hospital and released. On IS 20 the car driven by Richard Wesley Cathy, Brannon, Tenn., was damaged when it hit a guard rail on the highway. The car of Isadore Matkousky, 3301 Ross, Dallas, collided with the car of Peggy Barbee Snowden, 406 Galveston, at 701 NW 3rd. At Rosemont and Wood, the car of William L. Robinson, 908 E. 13th, was in collision with the car of Jimmy Michael Carey, OK Trailer Court. At 10:40 p.m., the car of Kenneth Barton Howell, 1302 Tucson, was in collision with the parked car of James Greer, 1510 Stadium, in front of the Greer house.

Girl Thinks Slaying Figure 'Invited Me In For A Beer'

AUSTIN (AP)—Lenora Pruitt, a slender blonde, is fairly certain it was James C. Cross Jr. who casually invited her to "step inside my apartment for a beer" a few days after two slain Dallas beauties were reported missing.

Cross, handsome 22-year-old University of Texas student, is charged with strangling Susan Rigby and Shirley Ann Stark in his apartment during mid-afternoon July 18.

"His name was James and he looked like pictures I've seen of Cross," said Miss Pruitt, a 20-year-old studio photographer who lived in the same apartment complex with the Fort Worth, Tex., youth.

"He said he had seen me by the pool, and wanted to know if I wanted to come in his apartment for a beer.

"I told him no. I don't like beer."

Miss Pruitt's inability to operate a new camera may have cost police a clue in the slayings, which one of Cross' lawyers, Roy Q. Minton, called "the most involved, confusing, changing-by-the-minute criminal case I have ever been involved in."

She took photographs of several persons swimming in the apartment unit's pool during the afternoon of July 18, but inadvertently had wound the film through the camera before making any exposures.

"Police wanted the film, but I just didn't have anything," she said.

The invitation, if actually from Cross, would further point up his nonchalance following the young women's disappearance, and even after their nearly nude, badly decomposed bodies were found July 30 in a weedy, vacant lot north of town.

Investigators said Cross went on a date and later entertained "five or six friends" in his apartment after the women were slain, with the bodies of the two 21-year-old Chi Omega sorority sisters hidden in the closet. Later, he sympathized with the parents of Miss Stark, whom he had dated several times.

Ginners To Meet here Wednesday

About 100 are expected for the annual meeting here Wednesday of the West Texas Ginners Association, which begins at 10:30 a.m. at the Conclen Country Club, and concludes after lunch.

Ed Bush, executive secretary of the Texas Cotton Ginners Association, will be in charge of the program.

Pending legislation relating to agriculture, particularly crop legislation and bills pertaining to labor, will be discussed, as will group life and hospital insurance. Also on the agenda will be methods of increasing efficiency in ginning and means of turning out better quality cotton.

All members are invited to take part in the discussions. Plans represented in the association that have had no lost-time accidents since last year's meeting will receive safety awards.

A new slate of officers for the five-county Big Spring area will be elected. Current officers include Lester Balze, Big Spring, president; Bill Layfield, Ira, vice president; and executive committee members are Bernard Houston, Stanton, Smokey Greenhaw, Lenorah, and H. G. Keaton, Big Spring.

Aug. 6 he visited with his father, a chain store advertising executive, and mother in Austin without indicating knowledge of the slayings. That night, he called law officers and drove his expensive sports car to the Texas Department of Public Safety headquarters, where police said he volunteered a statement.

Police charged him with the slayings, based, they said, on his statement.

The next morning, Cross' parents read of his statement in the newspaper.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11 proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing loans to students at institutions of higher education; creating the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund and making provisions relating thereto.

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding a new Section to read as follows:

"Section 50b. STUDENT LOANS. (a) The Legislature may provide that the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Eighty-five Million Dollars ($85,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called Texas College Student Loan Bonds, shall be executed in such form, denominations and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall not bear more than four per cent (4%) interest per annum; and that such bonds in such installments as the Board finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purposes of this Section.

(b) All moneys received from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created in the State Treasury to be known as the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund to be administered by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or its successor or successors, to make loans to students who have been admitted to attend any institution of higher education within the State of Texas, public or private, including Junior Colleges, which are recognized or accredited under terms and conditions prescribed by the Legislature, and to pay interest and principal on such bonds and fund a sinking fund therefor under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe.

Committee Reports Dominate C-C Meeting

Reports from committee meetings dominated the monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors Monday at the Settles.

Robb, president, said that representatives from a prospecting industrial company, were due here this week to visit with Chamber officials and its industrial panel. He also said inquiry was being made about applying as a site for a large atomic energy reactor—a huge project costing $280 million and requiring 3,000 acres of land and half a dozen years to build. Among requirements are proximity to urban center with educational, recreational and cultural facilities, plus availability to research centers. So far committees in 43 states have submitted applications.

Reports from the retail committee said that the first Monday of the month had been suggested as the Dollar Day date. However, a mail poll is being taken of merchants. Initial results showed 20 of 21 replying in favor of the first Monday. The committee has agreed on Nov. 26, the day after Thanksgiving, as the time for Santa's initial visit. About $1,000 will need to be raised for maintenance of the Christmas decorations.

Robb praised the work of the Ambassadors' Club, and James Cape, president of the organization, which serves as the Chamber's official greeters, expressed appreciation for a dinner which was given the Ambassadors recently.

Larry Crow, city manager, said a camping area in the City Park for tourists was gaining increasing popularity. Responses, he said, indicated it was a good public relations device.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 27 proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, amending Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new Section thereto to be designated Section 48b, so as to create as an agency of the State of Texas the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, vesting the general administration and responsibility of the proper operation of said system in a state board of trustees to be known as the State Board of Trustees of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, authorizing said Board to invest assets of said system in various obligations and subjects of investment, subject to certain restrictions stated therein and such other restrictions as may hereafter be provided by law; providing that such Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall not alter, amend or repeal Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, or any legislation passed pursuant thereto except insofar as such legislation may limit or restrict the provisions of this Amendment; providing for the necessary election, form of the law, proclamation, and publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding Section 48b hereto to which shall read as follows: "Section 48b. There is hereby created as an agency of the State of Texas the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, the rights of membership in which, the retirement privileges and benefits thereunder, and the management and operations of which shall be governed by the provisions herein contained and by present or hereafter enacted Acts of the Legislature, not inconsistent herewith. The general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of said system are hereby vested in a State Board of Trustees, to be known as the State Board of Trustees of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, which Board shall be constituted and shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as probable safety of their capital; and further provided, that a sufficient sum shall be kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under such retirement plan, as may now or hereafter be provided by law. Unless investments authorized herein are hereafter further restricted by an Act of the Legislature, no more than one per cent (1%) of the book value of the total assets of the Teacher Retirement System shall be invested in the stock of any one (1) corporation, not more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; and provided further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid cash dividends for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors; and provided further, that so long as less than $500,000,000 of said fund is invested in the government and municipal securities enumerated above, not more than thirty-three and one-third per cent (33 1/3%) of the fund shall be invested at any given time in common stocks; This Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall become effective immediately upon its adoption without any equipment, and office building; or in such corporation bonds, notes, other evidence of indebtedness, and corporation stocks, including common and preferred stocks, of any corporation created or existing under the laws of the United States or of any of the states of the United States, as said Board may deem to be proper investments; provided that in making each and all of such investments said Board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as probable safety of their capital; and further provided, that a sufficient sum shall be kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under such retirement plan, as may now or hereafter be provided by law. Unless investments authorized herein are hereafter further restricted by an Act of the Legislature, no more than one per cent (1%) of the book value of the total assets of the Teacher Retirement System shall be invested in the stock of any one (1) corporation, not more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; and provided further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid cash dividends for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors; and provided further, that so long as less than $500,000,000 of said fund is invested in the government and municipal securities enumerated above, not more than thirty-three and one-third per cent (33 1/3%) of the fund shall be invested at any given time in common stocks; This Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall become effective immediately upon its adoption without any enabling legislation. This Section shall not alter, amend or repeal the first paragraph of Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas as amended November 6, 1956, or any legislation passed pursuant thereto. This Section shall not alter, amend or repeal the second paragraph of Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas as amended November 6, 1956, or any legislation passed pursuant thereto, except insofar as the provisions of the second paragraph of Section 48a and any legislation passed pursuant thereto, may limit or restrict the provisions hereof and only to the extent of such limitation or restriction.

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on November 2, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "FOR the Constitutional Amendment amending Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding Section 48b relating to the Teacher Retirement Fund and the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, revising provisions for investment of moneys and other assets of the Fund, and changing other existing provisions and making other new provisions with respect to the administration of the Teacher Retirement System."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment amending Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding Section 48b relating to the Teacher Retirement Fund and the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, revising provisions for investment of moneys and other assets of the Fund and changing other existing provisions and making other new provisions with respect to the administration of the Teacher Retirement System."

Section 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary Proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 14 proposing Amendments to Section 4, 22 and 23 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to provide a four-year term of office for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office and Secretary of State; and certain statutory state officers; providing for the necessary election and the form of the ballot; and providing for the necessary proclamation and publication.

RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 4, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows: "Section 4. The Governor shall be installed on the first Tuesday after the organization of the Legislature, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall hold his office for the term of four years, or until his successor shall be duly installed. He shall be at least thirty years of age, a citizen of the United States, and shall have resided in this state at least five years immediately preceding his election."

Section 2. That Section 22, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows: "Section 22. The Attorney General shall hold office for four years and until his successor is duly qualified. He shall represent the state in all receive to their own use any fees, costs or perquisites of office. All fees that may be payable by law for any service performed by any officer specified in this Section or in his office, shall be paid, when received, into the State Treasury."

Sec. 4. The foregoing Constitutional Amendments shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "FOR the Constitutional Amendments providing a four-year term of office for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Secretary of State, and any statutory state officer who is elected by the electorate of Texas at large, unless a term of office is otherwise specifically provided in this Constitution."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendments providing a four-year term of office for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Secretary of State, and any statutory state officer who is elected by the electorate of Texas at large, unless a term of office is otherwise specifically provided in this Constitution."

Section 5. Nothing contained in this Resolution shall extend the term of office of any officerholder previously elected to a two-year term.

Section 6. The Governor shall issue the necessary Proclamation for the said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Section 7. The Governor shall receive to their own use any fees, costs or perquisites of office. All fees that may be payable by law for any service performed by any officer specified in this Section or in his office, shall be paid, when received, into the State Treasury."

Sec. 4. The foregoing Constitutional Amendments shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "FOR the Constitutional Amendments providing a four-year term of office for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Secretary of State, and any statutory state officer who is elected by the electorate of Texas at large, unless a term of office is otherwise specifically provided in this Constitution."

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board to Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds or obligations and the conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; and providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation in anticipation of the same.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows: "Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments thereto, except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature."

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall act as Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present."

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) of bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund. Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued and sold by said Board shall be sold for not less than par value and secured interest; shall be issued in terms, amounts, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board, but shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed four and one-half per cent (4 1/2%). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board and all bonds or obligations of the State of Texas, in order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same."

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Fund, and the Permanent School Funds."

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price thereof, together with any interest and penalties thereon, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands, or rights therein, which moneys shall be used for the purpose of purchasing any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; and the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund not expended for the purposes here provided shall be a part of said Fund until hereafter authorized by the Board to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the general Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund hereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the general Revenue Fund."

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the interest thereon, together with advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

"All moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the Constitutional Amendments adopted on November 6, 1956, shall be credited to said Veterans' Land Fund and may be used for the purpose of purchasing additional lands, to be sold as provided herein, until December 1, 1965; provided, however, that so much such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on such bonds shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 1, 1965, all moneys attributable to such bonds shall be set aside for the retirement of such bonds and to pay interest thereon; and when there are sufficient moneys to retire all of such bonds, all of such moneys then remaining or thereafter becoming a part of said Veterans' Land Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein."

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board (a series of bonds being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds hereafter issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds hereafter issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution of said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the desire and intention of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary."

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature."

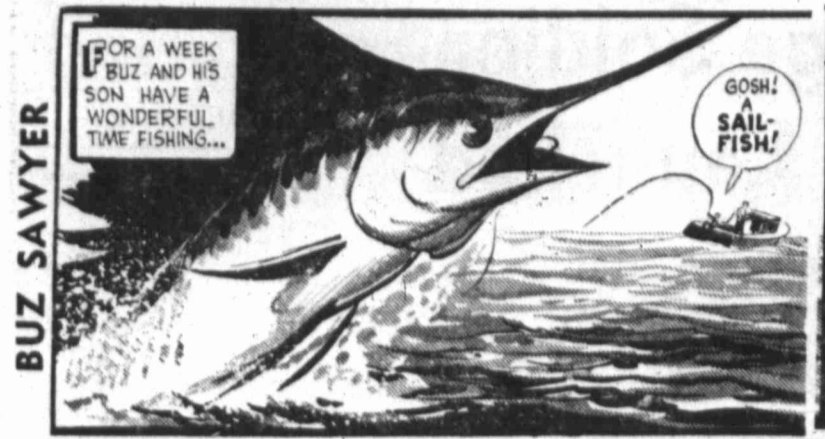

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "FOR the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund to $400,000,000; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law; and

"AGAINST the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $200,000,000; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast were in favor of same Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution and be effective from the date set forth in said Amendment, and the Governor shall issue a proclamation in keeping therewith.

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this state.

of course you want something more than a promise when you buy a used car here it is!

QUALITY USED CAR DEALER WARRANTY

This Warranty is hereby agreed by the undersigned Dealer called the "Dealer" to be in force of...

1. Subject to the provisions and conditions hereunder on both the Dealer and the Vehicle, the Dealer...

2. For a period of 30 days following the acquisition of the Vehicle, the Dealer will pay 10% of the parts and labor repair bills, with the exception noted below, necessary to keep the Vehicle in acceptable condition...

3. This Warranty is based on the Dealer's estimate and not on the manufacturer's of the Vehicle.

4. This Warranty is not valid unless signed by the Dealer's authorized department head and by the Purchaser, who is to make a copy.

We like to think that we offer you something more than a promise at our OK lot. Here's why. A good number of our used vehicles wear the OK tag. It means that those particular cars carry our 25-month Quality OK Warranty. In writing. Here's what our OK Warranty means: if there are any parts or labor bills during the first 30 days of normal use, we'll pay half. Naturally, this doesn't include items like tires and tubes, glass, radio or air conditioning—but it does take in everything else needed to keep your car in running condition. And if you need work or parts during the next two years we'll pay the first 15% of each bill necessary to keep the car in serviceable condition, provided that the repairs are made in our shop at our regular retail prices and that you pay the rest in cash.

So, if you want something more than a promise when you buy used transportation, our OK used car lot is the place to come. Stop in soon and see all our OK cars and other outstanding values.

Labor Chalks Up Notable Pay Increases

NEW YORK (AP) — A turbulent year in labor-management relations is nearing its climax. Labor has piled up so far this year its biggest average wage increases in five years. Idleness from strikes also has been the highest since 1960. And the biggest cliffhanger—the threat of a steel strike—is nearing its final episode.

Steel users have done about all they can in the way of ordering the steel to be ready if a strike comes Sept. 1. Now the pressure is on the mills to push steel shipment in the weeks remaining to fill the orders that have piled up.

LETDOWN AHEAD

What will happen Sept. 1 may be still uncertain, but what will happen after that is pretty well taken for granted. There'll be a letdown in new orders for steel. Users won't be pressing for early delivery. Whether there's a strike or not they'll be dipping into stocks on hand.

However the steel wage contract, negotiations turn out—strike, eleventh-hour agreement, government intervention or pressure, higher wages followed by higher steel prices—the year already is making its mark as one of the most crucial for labor in this decade.

Bargaining has been tougher than a few years back. Both sides, unions and employers, have been harder to move.

The Labor Department says that in the first six months there were 2,020 work stoppages affecting 852,000 employees with a loss of 11 million man-days of labor. The idleness was the highest since the first half of 1960.

8.3 CENTS
But where settlements were negotiated, general wage increases set a median of 8.3 cents an hour, the highest since the first half of 1960 when the figure was 9.2 cents. The Bureau of National Affairs reports that in manufacturing the median negotiated wage increase in the first six months was 7.5 cents, and in nonmanufacturing 10.2 cents.

But this month sees the labor-management encounter that has most captured public attention—steel.

The public is interested because of the belief that the new steel wage contract may set a pattern for other industries. And if wages are boosted notably, and prices follow suit, there is fear of a renewed wage-price spiral for industry in general. This could lead to a revival of inflation, and a still higher level for the cost of living.

STOCKPILES BUILT
Most steel users are reported to have built up enough of a stockpile to last for 45 to 60 days. After that a steel strike would quickly cripple the general economy. If there's no strike, most steel users are expected to reduce their stockpiles gradually, and this slowdown in steel mill activity will lower the overall industrial production index.

All this gives steel a major role in setting the course of the economy in the final quarter of the year. And the outcome of the steel labor-management bargaining may set patterns for a much longer period.

Korean Alert Out For Reds

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The South Korean government put national police on special alert today and warned the people that Communist North Korean agents were trying to mount Viet Cong-type terrorist attacks south of the border.

Home Minister Yang Chano called on the police for increased security measures to guard key government and military installations. He said U.S. military billets were also targets of possible attack by Communist agents.

Veteran Teacher Dies In Hospital

AUSTIN (AP) — Horace Fort, 63, longtime teacher and manager of SMU's first championship football team in 1923, died here Sunday in a local hospital. He had taught school at Port Arthur and El Paso.

Erecting Port On Viet Bay An Edgy Task

CAM RANH BAY, South Viet Nam (AP) — It's a rough go for troops of the U.S. Army 101st Airborne Division guarding Army Engineers building a port on this picturesque bay.

Since arriving July 29, the 3,700 troops from the division's 1st Brigade have had to hack their way through the jungle to dig foxholes, subsist on cold C-rations and pay exorbitant prices for drinks.

"We just don't have any luxuries, only the bare minimum," said one officer. "Eventually, we'll make it pretty tolerable for everyone," said another. "We just have to wait until we get all our equipment."

MORALE GOOD

Despite the difficulties, Col. James S. Timothy, the brigade's commander, says morale is excellent.

The first step to improve conditions will be a switch to B-rations, which come in larger cans and are prepared for cooking. Later the men will get fresh and frozen meats, vegetables and fruits when refrigeration facilities are installed.

Steps are being taken to solve a water shortage. Other planned improvements include a rest and recreation program, trips to nearby Nha Trang, and construction of a base exchange where soldiers can buy a few luxury items.

$1 A DRINK

Beer, soft drinks and ice are brought in from neighboring villages for the men. But officers say some enterprising villagers bring in buckets of beverages and charge the thirsty troops as much as $1 a drink.

The brigade is providing security for 2,400 Army Engineers working around the clock to develop a port big enough to handle the men and materials soon to pour into Viet Nam.

The port facilities of Cam Ranh Bay, 180 miles north of Saigon, are expected to be completed within three months. Paratroopers of the 101st also are standing ready to attack the Viet Cong.

STRATEGIC SPOT

"We are in a strategic reserve position," said Lt. Col. Wilfrid K. G. Smith, commander of the 2nd Battalion of the 502nd Infantry. "There is no indication we won't be committed anywhere in Viet Nam."

"I don't think anybody is scared of getting shot," one soldier said. "But in the evening they get a little edgy. Their imagination gets carried away. They hear things moving through the brush. Everyone wants to fire. A couple of times they have."

Several times the Viet Cong have fired on them. Two U.S. Army medics got purple hearts last Wednesday after being wounded by sniper fire.

FINISH JOB

"Everyone is looking forward to getting the job done as soon as possible and getting back to the United States," said Sgt. Dale Duckworth, a native of Vandergrift, Pa.

Duckworth, 41, has been in the Army 23 years and served in Europe during World War II. He said he is looking forward to seeing his wife, Dorothy, and five children 15 to 3. They live in Clarksville, Tenn.

"I just want to get back to my wife and continue my honeymoon," said Pfc. Vytautas Vitkauskas, 21, of Baltimore, Md., who married his high school sweetheart, Mary Staiger, on May 22. He spent only two weeks with her before shipping out.

Friends Offer Sympathy To Parents Of Accused

FORT WORTH (AP) — Friends offered sympathy and support today to the parents of James Cross, 22, University of Texas student charged in the slaying of two Dallas coeds.

Mrs. James Cross Sr. said friends have been "most generous" in providing help and comfort "beyond the call of duty."

The couple returned from Austin late Saturday after what Cross called "a very sad reunion" with their son, accused of the Austin slaying of Susan Rigby and Shirley Ann Stark.

"WE'RE UPSET"
"We're not ourselves," the elder Cross said. "We're awfully upset."

Cross said of the jail visit with his son: "You can imagine what state he's in. It's a delayed action thing."

Cross asserted his son "is not a criminal-type boy. He has been a fine boy at home. You can guess by this that there was something radically wrong."

He said he and his wife will stay in touch with their son's lawyers but probably will spend most of their time in Fort Worth.

A business associate of Cross said: "I have never seen so many people rally to a man in my entire life."

"Jim is just a high standing, upright citizen."
"We've had telegrams and telephone calls from all kinds of people vouching for big Jim. We think none the less of him. In fact, this has shown us what a fine, staunch citizen he really is."

The associate said the elder Cross told him that he had a "real sick boy down there in Austin."

Texas Wagon Train Stalled

NEWCASTLE, Wyo. (AP) — A wagon train from Texas to McBride, B.C., has been stalled here while the families try to find money on which to proceed.

Don Cunningham, 33, of Olney, Tex., and C. L. Freeman, 31, of Iowa Park, Tex. started on the

$3 Bill's Value Down Like Rest

SUFFOLK, Va. (AP) — The cost of living index is up and the value of the dollar has declined. Just how this affects Mrs. D.O. Taylor's $3 bill is problematical.

The Suffolk housewife actually owns a $3 bill. She found it while cleaning out an old dresser in her home the other day. It was issued in October 1961 by the Andover Bank of Massachusetts.

Whatever it's worth, Mrs. Taylor says it already has aroused $100 worth of curiosity.

3,000 mile trek Feb. 15 with their wives and eight children, 13 head of horses, ponies and mules and a lone heifer.

They have moved 1,300 miles, but are bogged down without grain for their wagon horses and little money.

Cunningham said he and Freeman have been looking for work since Friday.

Cunningham said he homesteaded a 160-acre area in British Columbia and needs his stock to hold the lease on the land.

He has an 337 more acres leased, which he'll lose if the stock isn't on the land by late fall.
