TRC Orders Hike In Oil Allowable

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission ordered today that October oil production be held to 28.8 per cent of potential, the first September to October allowable increase in 10 years.

The commission set the October allowable at 2,944,109 barrels daily after hearing of major oil companies' plans to increase purchases next month.

World Peace Confab Hears LBJ Address

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson restated today strong American support for United Nations efforts to end the India-Pakistan conflict.

In an address prepared for judges and lawyers from 100 countries attending the Washington World Conference on World Peace Through Law, Johnson said:

"Central to the hope of world peace through law is the United Nations. . . I hope we can strengthen the United Nations, not simply as a forum for debate but as an arena for the solution of disputes. . . And my country will fully support the efforts of the secretary-general to bring peace between the great nations of India and Pakistan."

ONLY REFERENCE This was the only reference in Johnson's prepared text to the latest Asian conflict. He made no mention of a suggestion Wednesday by President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan that the United States assume a larger role in trying to end fighting over Kashmir.

Johnson's address, inspirational in tone, dealt only fleetingly with specific trouble spots. There was no direct mention of Viet Nam, for instance, although Johnson previously had invited U.N. efforts to promote a settlement there, too.

RULE OF LAW "There are those who say the rule of law is a fruitless and Utopian dream," said Johnson. "It is true that, if it comes, it will come slowly. . . But to deny the possibility is to deny peace itself."

In a more hopeful vein, he said: "I think we may be evolving a world consensus on which law can stand. The mass of mankind is slowly realizing the dangers of conflict and the futility of war."

Johnson suggested that greater acceptance of the idea of a global rule of law — and ultimate hopes for peace — would be strengthened a thousandfold.

WELFARE OF PEOPLE Saying international law hitherto had been concerned primarily with relations among nations, Johnson declared:

"In pursuit of justice, it must now concern itself more than in the past with the welfare of people. "I look forward to the day when the relief of hunger and misery and ignorance — in all parts of the world — will be fixed in legal obligation — as it now is in my own country."

Yank Among Plane Dead

QUANG NGAI, South Viet Nam (AP) — Thirty-nine persons, including an American, were killed today when an Air Viet Nam C-47 commercial airliner crashed shortly after take-off from Quang Ngai airfield.

The dead American was Jerry Ross, described as a free lance writer who also was a civilian adviser to the South Vietnamese government. His wife lives in Hong Kong.

Among the dead was the South Vietnamese minister of rural pacification, Nguyen Tat Ung. Gen. Nguyen Thi, commander of the South Vietnamese 1st army corps, said Ung and Rose were travelling together to installations in two provinces.

Earlier reports said 40 persons had been on the plane but authorities said only 39 were aboard.

Broadcast Field Pioneer Kay Dies

ATLANTA (AP) — Lambdin Kay, 76, a pioneer in the field of broadcasting, died Wednesday.

Retroactive SS Benefits On The Way

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some $885 million in retroactive benefits is on its way to 20.5 million Social Security beneficiaries.

Mailing of the checks began Wednesday at six Treasury disbursing offices — in New York, Philadelphia, Birmingham, Chicago, Kansas City and San Francisco.

The payments represent a 7 per cent increase retroactive to Jan. 1 signed into law July 30.

Wintry Blast Barrels Into U.S. Sections

More than a week ahead of even the fall season, wintry weather surged into the northern Rockies and northern Plains today.

Chilling, gusty winds originating north of Alaska carried snow and freezing temperatures into at least five states — Montana, Wyoming, Nebraska and the Dakotas.

As much as six inches of snow lay on the ground in Wyoming today.

INTO MINNESOTA

Montana and western South Dakota had a one-to-two-inch covering, and on 7,000-foot Big Mountain north of Whitefish, Mont., the snow measured 18 inches. The snow and cold was due to reach northwestern Minnesota tonight.

The Weather Bureau issued freeze warnings and advisories to livestock men in the northern Plains and the northern and central Rockies. Frost warnings extend as far south as Utah.

Most major mountain passes in Montana were snowy and slick for the first time this season.

LOW IN 20s Temperatures dropped into the 20s this morning in Montana and Wyoming, as low as 22 at Butte, Mont.

Autumn-like weather covering the rest of the northern half of the nation included cold fall rains in the north Central states outside the snow zone.

SUNNY, WARM Sunny and warm weather was prevalent across the southern part of the nation and Texas was due for more 100 degree temperatures, the Weather Bureau said.

Soviets Eye Manned Permanent Satellite

May Orbit Craft In Try At Moon

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Soviet Cosmonaut Alexi Leonov disclosed today that Russia plans to place a permanent manned satellite around the earth and try crew exchanges before landing a man on the moon.

Leonov gave no timetable for this program, which differed from American plans for the moon. The United States hopes to shoot its Apollo space ship to the moon before 1970. The Americans also plan a permanent manned satellite that would involve crew exchanges, but U.S. Apollo plans are not dependent on the permanent satellite program.

By holding up their moon shot until permanent stations are established, the Russians would be able to shoot a bigger ship to the moon by assembling it in space. The American three-man Apollo will be fired from earth.

PLAN "REHEARSAL" Leonov, the first man to walk in space, indicated his own adventure was a rehearsal for an attempt at exchanging crews. He addressed a special plenary session of the International Astronautical Congress.

The Soviet cosmonaut and his space partner, Pavel Beliaiev, described their Voskhod flight. Leonov said a main goal of his space walk was to test his space suit and the airtight on the space ship.

"In time there will be many space laboratories, with crews being periodically exchanged," Leonov said. "Then there will be a spaceship for the moon, and a landing on the moon."

SIZE LIMITED Since the Apollo is being launched from earth, its size will be limited by the launching capacity of its Saturn rocket. If a space ship for the moon is assembled in space, as the Russians appear to be planning, its components can be hoisted into space in several launches and its size need not be limited to the load capacity of a single rocket.

The Soviet cosmonauts had their day at the space congress even as American spacemen L. Gordon Cooper Jr., and Charles Conrad Jr., arrived in Athens to begin a six-nation goodwill tour. The two, whose eight-day Gemini 4 trip set a record, also are guests of the congress.

American and Soviet scientists at the congress joined in proposing an international laboratory on the moon that would be manned by scientists from several nations.

AF Flies Food To Storm Area

DALLAS (AP)—An Air Force plane flew 20,000 pounds of canned beef from government warehouses here to New Orleans today for hurricane victims. The shipment is part of 60 carloads asked for storm sufferers.

"I Don't Care If It Is Felt Hat Day"

After all, a man can lose his bloom'n' head when he gets to looking over all the snappy styles as felt hat time rolls around. Wife Judy, a firm believer that a man should look his best, nevertheless figures that a good thing can go too far. So Frosty Robison will trudge back to the haberdashery, a firm lesson to all of us men that although Friday is Felt Hat day, a couple to the customer will be enough. (Photo by Ken Good)

U. N. Outlook Helped By Peace-Try Trend

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg said today his expectations for the coming U.N. General Assembly have been reinforced by U.S.-Soviet cooperation in trying to halt the war between India and Pakistan.

The chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations said in an interview that the assembly's 20th session, opening next Tuesday, faces difficulties, but he declared: "I am optimistic." He made these other major points:

The work of the 114-nation assembly will not be affected by the fighting in Viet Nam.

The United States continues to command majority support on major issues despite the flood of new Asian and African members to the world organization. Settlement of disputes such as that between India and Pakistan takes time and patience. The American people must be patient if there are setbacks.

Red China is keeping itself out of the United Nations by its attitude of belligerency and there is no evidence of any change for the better.

ENVY RELAXES Goldberg was interviewed in the 11th floor office of the U.S. mission, overlooking U.N. headquarters. He relaxed in his favorite rocking chair, which he prefers to the executive desk chair used by his predecessor, Adlai E. Stevenson.

Asked about the apparent deterioration of U.S.-Soviet relations over Viet Nam, the Dominican Republic and U.N. financing, he said that recent Security Council meetings on the Indian-Pakistani war had produced "a very dramatic example of cooperation and unanimity."

EXPECTS PROGRESS And, he said, the United States and the Soviet Union had acted together "without any evidence of cold-war confrontation."

"This serves to reinforce my hope and expectation that, despite all difficulties, we will make progress here at the 20th assembly."

Goldberg, September president of the Security Council, declined to speculate on what steps the 11-nation body would take to follow up the apparent failure of Secretary-General U. Thant's peace mission to Rawalpindi and New Delhi. "I know," he said, "from a long 25 years of experience that a mediator in disputes of much less consequence does not ordinarily come out with a solution in a few days' time."

The Security Council will meet Friday to consider Thant's report. Goldberg was asked about the reluctance of the United States to have the council debate the Viet Nam question.

GUILD STRIKES N.Y. TIMES NEW YORK (AP) — The American Newspaper Guild, demanding job protection against automation and mergers here, struck the New York Times today.

Early editions of afternoon newspapers came out as scheduled however, as publishers withheld immediate action on their threat to close six other metropolitan dailies. Negotiators went back into conference after a short recess from an all-night session.

AGREEMENT SEEN In calling the late-morning meeting, Theodore W. Kheel, special mediator, said: "Within the next few hours after we resume negotiations, we will reach an agreement. Both sides have a constructive attitude. The area of difference is now better understood."

The AFL-CIO Guild, representing 2,200 Times employees in the newsroom, advertising and commercial departments, and on the building services staff, set up a picket line at 8 a.m. Members of the nine newspaper craft unions did not cross it.

The strike hour, however, came at a time which would have little immediate effect upon production of the Times' next edition, the Friday morning papers. The first press runs for these editions comes in early evening.

FRIDAY EDITIONS Ivan Velt, a Times vice president, said the newspaper would publish Friday editions if the strike is settled today, but the size of the paper would depend upon the time of settlement.

"As the hours tick off," he explained, "the size of the paper would diminish accordingly."

Chiefly at issue was the union demand for a voice in the introduction of labor-saving devices and protection of jobs affected by automation.

U.S. Warned By Singapore

SINGAPORE (AP) — Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew threatened today to offer Russia a Singapore military base if the United States takes over the defense of Malaysia.

Lee, in another bitter anti-American outburst, declared: "If the Americans step into the shoes of the British, this place is lost."

He declared he could get the Russians into this newly independent island state.

"I could make sure that the U.S. 7th Fleet could not use the Singapore Straits," he added.

Shelepin Rumored Striving To Seize Reins In Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — Rumors persisted today of impending changes in the Soviet hierarchy, but top Western diplomatic sources discounted reports of a power struggle.

One persistent rumor, widely credited in Western diplomatic circles, was that Anastas I. Mikoyan will retire as president on his 70th birthday Nov. 25.

It was the earliest of the rumors to build up around the regime of Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev which took over last Oct. 14 after the ouster of Premier Nikita S.

Khrushchev. The Communist party Central Committee is scheduled to meet Sept. 27 and presumably any changes will be announced after it starts.

Among the rumors is one that Alexander Shelepin, a bright and ambitious leader, has been trying to engineer a takeover with the intention of seizing both the premiership and the party leadership. Khrushchev held both posts.

Another rumor is that the "government by committee" which Soviet spokesmen claim for the present regime, will proceed in an orderly manner to arrange the new leadership.

If the present leaders, Kosygin and Brezhnev, feel the hot breath of Shelepin on their necks, they have shown no sign of it in public meetings nor in their attitude toward Shelepin.

There is a fair number of diplomats who insist that Shelepin's reputation for aggressive, ambitious toughness is not merited, that he is ready to await his turn at command.

But there are others who think he is tough and ambitious and is the man for a takeover, if one is in the offing.

Among rumors in Moscow today is that Alexander Shelepin, left, a 47-year-old Soviet leader, has been trying to engineer a takeover with the intention of seizing both the Soviet premiership and Communist Party

Texaco Hits Dual Potential

A dual discovery has been filed for Texaco, Inc. No. 1 United Presbyterian Church in Dawson County; a drillstem test on the Brown & Heath No. 1 J. F. Landrum in Borden County showed production; drillstem tests on Tamarack Petroleum Corp. No. 1 I. E. Bartlett in Dawson County showed possibilities, and the Apache Oil Corp. No. 1 G. G. Wright in Howard County flowed 94 barrels of oil through a 9-64 inch choke.

Texaco's United Presbyterian Church has filed discovery completion in the Mississippi when the well pumped 231 barrels of 39 gravity oil, plus three barrels of water, after acidizing perforations at 11,393-403 feet with 2,500 gallons.

Medical Plan Leaflet Ready

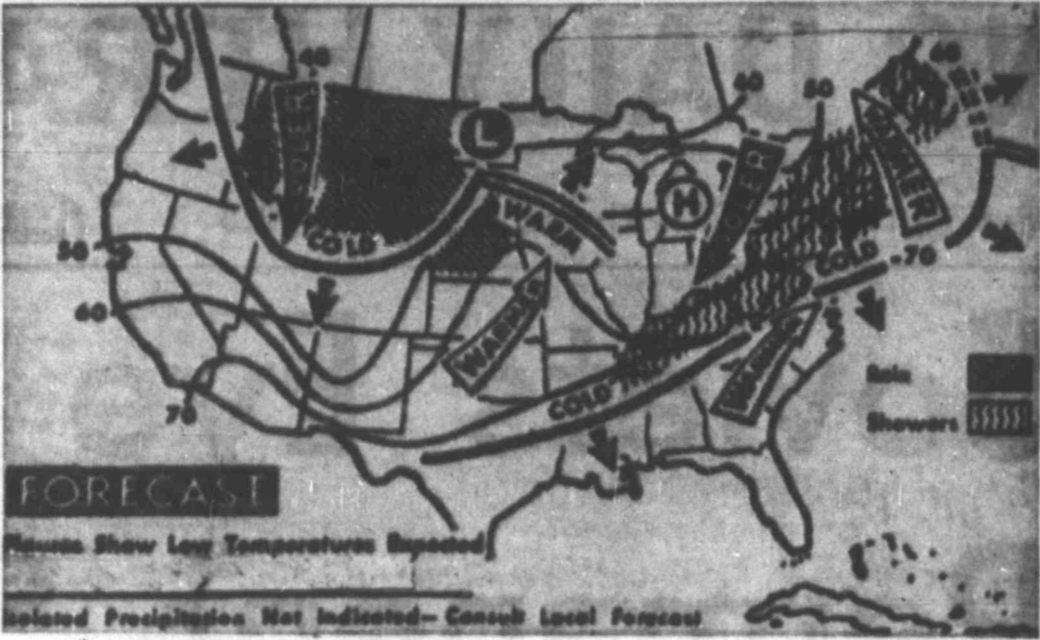

The first mailing of informational leaflets explaining supplementary medical insurance for the aged is now being made to people who will be 65 or over before Jan. 1, 1966, and who receive monthly Social Security or railroad retirement benefits, said Erven Fisher, Social Security district manager in Big Spring.

An enrollment card is included with the leaflet so people can tell the Social Security Administration whether or not they wish to enroll in the voluntary medical insurance plan. Instructions for completing the card are in the leaflet. An addressed envelope requiring no postage is enclosed for the convenience of beneficiaries in promptly replying.

BILL LEE

Police Fill One Vacancy

Bill Lee, a Carlsbad, N.M., city detective, was employed Wednesday to fill a police patrolman's vacancy, according to Jay Banks, chief.

Two men were considered after they had passed the stiff written police examination, Banks said. Five candidates took the quiz. The other man will be placed on the eligible list, subject to background checking, Banks said.

The 39-year-old Lee came with high recommendations both from the Carlsbad police force and the Albuquerque, N.M. police force and sheriff's office, where he had previously been employed.

A veteran of World War II who holds five battle stars and five area ribbons, Lee is married and the father of two children. He will begin work with the local force Oct. 1, Banks said.

"Lee will be enrolled in our police academy Oct. 4, and he will be instructed in Texas police procedure and local enforcement procedures," Banks said. "He has a great deal of experience, has graduated from the Albuquerque police academy and several other police schools."

FREEDOM, N.H. (AP) — Inez Eaglesfield has returned to her reservation home on the Dakota plains. Eva Wolgers is back in Stockholm, Sweden.

Molly Luethi is roaming the Alpine fields around Golden, Switzerland. Denise Bruton is back in Washington. The rambling old farmhouse where they and 28 other children spent the summer is deserted.

Rural Drivers Are Cautioned

Complaints of traffic violation in the vicinity of the Midway and Elbow schools are being received by the sheriff's office. Motorists are ignoring stop signs and some drive too fast for a school area, Sheriff A. N. Standard said.

He is pursuing the same policy he followed last year—deputies are being assigned to patrol school areas at opening and closing hours.

"We have matters well in hand at the other school areas in the county," said the sheriff. "We intend to step up our activities at Midway and Elbow, and we hope that we can correct the bad situation we are told is developing in these areas."

County To Pave Forsan Street

Forsan's main street will be repaved. Howard County Commissioners court will consider bids at 10 a.m. Oct. 7 to repave the five blocks of street in the south Howard County community. The street is a county road segment.

The present pavement is badly worn and broken. It was only 18 feet wide when first put down and time has about destroyed it, Billy Paul Thomas, road supervisor, said.

The new paving will be 30 feet wide.

Mrs. Wheeler Found Dead

Mrs. Meda Wheeler, 74, 901 E. 6th, was found dead in her home about 6:30 p.m. Wednesday. Justice of the Peace Walter Grice, called to the scene when police investigated a call from neighbors that she had not been seen yesterday, ruled death was due to a coronary occlusion and that she had been dead several hours.

Mrs. Wheeler was born in Comanche County April 14, 1891. She married Marion W. Wheeler, Oct. 1, 1911, in Comanche County. He died Feb. 3, 1963. Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at River-Welch Funeral Home chapel with David Tarbet, minister of the Anderson Street Church of Christ, of which she was a member, officiating. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park.

Accountants Set Convention Plans

The Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants will host the annual convention of the American Institute of CPA's, at Dallas, beginning Sept. 20. Many area CPA's will attend the three day session.

The over-all theme for the meeting will be the profession's interest in the computer. Three technical sessions will concentrate on EDP (Electronic Data Processing), from broad surveys on the opportunities for client service to such specifics as "the hardware — understanding it and using it."

Luncheon speakers for the meeting will be Sheldon S. Cohen, CPA, commissioner of Internal Revenue; Albert L. Williams, CPA, president of Internal Business Machines Corporation, and Troy V. Post (Dallas), chairman of GreatAmerica Corporation. Social events are being planned.

Mercury Soars To 103 Degrees

The official thermometer reading at Big Spring Experiment Station showed the weather even hotter Wednesday. The mercury rose to 103 degrees, setting a record for that date. The former high for the same day of September was 101 in 1911.

But the forecast calls for continued warm weather today and cooler weather of around 80 to 85 degrees Friday. Records, kept since 1900, show that there have been nine more days of 100 degree, or hotter, weather for September, and readings of 100 degrees on Oct. 6 in 1918 and 1931.

Increasing cloudiness is forecast for tonight with minimum temperatures tonight between 65 and 70, and the high Friday from 80 to 85 degrees.

Herd Faces Versatile Attack Friday Night

The Big Spring Steers, who wound up heavy practice Wednesday for their game here with Ysleta Bel Air tomorrow night, face a complicated job on defense.

The Longhorns not only must slow one of the state's finest fullbacks in Nick Bonty but must try to defend one of the area's better aerialists, Mike Sullivan.

NICK BONTY

Big Spring got a sampling of both boys' talents last year and some observers said the locals were lucky to limp away with a 13-6 victory.

Bonty ran with the ball four times against Big Spring last year and gained 50 yards for an average of 3.3 yards per carry. He accounted for Bel Air's only TD.

Consider that with what he accomplished against El Paso

New Mentor

One of the new coaches in the Big Spring High School system is Johnnie Hickman (above), who formerly was head coach at Levelland High School. Hickman handles the defensive backs here.

Grid Program To Be Meaty

By The Associated Press

Another 400-game schedule starts tonight in Texas schoolboy football with No. 1 sitting in a precarious position on the heads of at least two teams.

Especially this is true in Class AAAA, which had its top four teams beaten in the first outing last week.

Texarkana rides at No. 1 at this time, but the Tigers have an annual grudge game with Arkansas High coming up Friday night. Their reign could be short-lived although the Tigers will be favored.

Pharr-San Juan-Alamo, kingpin of Class AAA, meets the second AAAA team in a row as the Bears clash with McAllen. Pharr had all sorts of trouble last week in beating San Benito 7-0 but still held onto No. 1.

Alpine, No. 1 in Class AA, plays Pecos, an AAA outfit that didn't play like it last week in taking a 34-0 hammering from Carlsbad, N.M. So Alpine doesn't appear in much danger.

The only No. 1 team that can breathe reasonably easy this week is Three Rivers of Class A. It doesn't have a game.

Defending champion Garland of Class AAAA plays Dallas Adams, one of the rated teams, and it looks like a second straight defeat for the Owls.

Palestine, the 1964 winner of Class AAA, takes on Terrell Friday night. Palestine opened the season last week with a 27-0 strapping of Athens and extended its winning streak to 14 games. Terrell lost to Greenville last week and doesn't appear quite up to handling Palestine.

Brother Combination

Coronado last week — 159 yards net in 14 lunges with the ball for an average of 11.5-yard average. He scored two touchdowns for the Highlanders, as Bel Air raced to an easy 34-7 success.

Coach Don Robbins reasons he could stack his defense to stop Bonty if the Highlanders didn't have Sullivan. The Bel Air quarterback tossed to Bonty for five yards and one score against Coronado, scored another on a one-yard run.

In addition to Bonty, Sullivan can seek out such expert receivers as Mike Williams and Roy Culbertson, who plays the end positions for the Scotties.

Ernie Hernandez, a 174-pound end, boots the points after touchdowns for Bel Air. He hit four times in five attempts against Coronado.

Bel Air has huge tackles in Ernie Molina, who swings the Fairbanks to 249 pounds, and Lewis Miller. The program says Miller weighs 209 but he looks to be bigger.

Ysleta High was the pre-season favorite to win it all in the conference out west. In the light of what happened last week, Bel Air appears now to be in the driver's seat. Ysleta High was being mauled by Midland High while Bel Air was shaping up so well against Coronado.

The Big Spring coaches have been working hard this week to firm up their line play and improve their down field blocking.

Osuna Meets Cup Veteran

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Defending champion Rafael Osuna of Mexico faced Davis Cup veteran Ham Richardson of Dallas today in a key second-round match of the Colonial Tennis Tournament.

Richardson, 22, a stockbroker whose tournament appearances are now infrequent, was virtually unchallenged as he surged through Wednesday's opener with a 6-1, 6-2 trouncing of Costa Rica's Luis Rojas.

Osuna, seeded No. 4, and seven other seeded contestants drew first-round byes.

Foremost of this group was Roy Emerson, the magnificent Australian who meets the winner of a delayed match between U.S. Davis Cupper Frank Froehling and Ted Gorski of Fort Worth.

Emerson's Australian running mate, second-seeded Fred Stolle, was paired against Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis, who forged into the round with a 6-4, 6-2 triumph over Mike Estep of Dallas.

Third-seeded Dennis Ralston, the tempestuous Californian whose game has faltered in recent weeks, drew Joggin Loyo Mayo of Mexico, a 6-2, 7-5 victor over Julio Rojas of Costa Rica.

Another top match sent Arthur Ashe, No. 6, the superb American collegian, against Donald Dell, who opened with a crushing defeat of Fort Worth's Don Walraven, 6-0, 6-1.

Fifth-seeded Cliff Drysdale of South Africa, who battled to the final of the U.S. Championships at Forest Hills, N.Y., last week before losing to Spain's Manuel Santana, took on youthful Butch Newman of San Antonio.

Newman advanced with a 7-5, 6-2 verdict over Art Faust of Dallas.

Dallas bomber Cliff Richey, seeded seventh, squared off with Vicente Zarazua, the young Mexican hopeful who clobbered Mike Liddle of Fort Worth, 6-1, 6-1.

Shortly before nightfall a helicopter soared onto the Colonial Golf Course to deliver Antonio Palafox from a Dallas airport. Nearly two hours behind schedule, Palafox switched into uniform and defeated spunky Tommy Howorth of Dallas, 8-6, 7-5.

The swift Mexican Davis Cupper was paired against eighth-seeded Chuck McKinley, who in 1964 was America's Davis Cup champion.

Four doubles matches also were scheduled today.

Cup Members Having Woes In Amateur

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Five of the eight members of the strong British Walker Cup team faced elimination going into the second round of the new-style National Amateur Golf Championship today, and their American counterparts were faring only a little better.

Two of the 10 American Walker Cuppers who came from behind to salvage a tie at Baltimore were almost certain of elimination when the bulky field is reduced to the low 60 and ties after the second of four 18-hole rounds. Three others are on shaky ground.

GRANT IN LEAD

Jim Vickers, an oil company executive from Wichita, Kan., with a cross-handed putting grip and Jim Grant, a University of Houston student shared the lead with two-under-par 68s after Wednesday's opening round in the first National Amateur at medal instead of match play.

None of the leaders — there were six to break par on the 6,917-yard Southern Hills Country Club course — had complaints about the new format or two experimental speed-up rules the U.S. Golf Association instituted for the tourney. But that's no upset. The leaders rarely complain.

And the British had no complaints about the wilting heat of the blazing Oklahoma sun that pushed temperatures to 98. And that's no upset, either. The stiff upper lip was stiff as ever.

"We've no complaints," said Joe Carr, three-time British Amateur champion and captain of their Walker Cup team. "The heat didn't make that much difference. We're just not playing well at all."

STILL HAD 77

Carr had an eagle on the back nine — just missing a double eagle — and still had a 77. With a score of about 153 probably necessary to make the cut, that puts him in trouble, along with Rodney Foster and Peter Townsend, with 79s, Clive Clark, 78, and Ronnie Shade, 80. Gordon Cosh may make it with a first round 76. Mike Bonallack, the current British Amateur champ, led the foreign delegation with a 72.

American Walker Cuppers in jeopardy are Dave Eichelberger, Waco, Tex., 77, and Downing Gray, Pensacola, Fla., 81. Possibles at 76 are Ed Tutwiler, Indianapolis, and Mark Hopkins, Texas City, Tex., and Dr. Ed Updegraff, Tucson, Ariz.

Tied at 79 were Deane Beaman, the two-time champion from Bethesda, Md., and the favorite for this one, Walker Cupper Don Allen of Rochester, N.Y.; Tommy Barnes, 20-year-old University of Georgia student and Ray Terry, son of baseball Hall of Famer Bill Terry.

At even par 71 were Cesar Senudo, El Cajon, Calif.; Jim Tom Blair, St. Louis; Charles Lewis, Santee, Calif., and Bob Dickson, Muskogee, Okla.

Defending champion Bill Campbell, Huntington, W. Va., had a creditable 73.

Coahoma B Plays Roscoe At 4:30

COAHOMA—Winner over Stanton's reserves in its first game, the Coahoma B team returns to competition at 4:30 o'clock here today against Roscoe.

The Coahoma club turned back Stanton by a score of 25-6 two weeks ago and was idle last week.

Bill Cochran, a junior half-back who didn't play last year, led the Bullpups to victory over Stanton, scoring three times. He weighs 165 pounds.

King Gregory, a sophomore half-back, was also a standout for Coahoma in the game. He crossed the goal line once.

Yearlings To Play Snyder 11 At 7:30

Runnels Junior High sends its ninth grade football team into action at 7:30 o'clock in the old stadium here this evening against Snyder Lamar.

In their opening test last week, Runnels lost a hard-luck decision to Sweetwater, 8-6. Lamar, meanwhile, was yielding to Big Spring Gould, 26-6.

Coach Dan Lewis of Runnels will be without his first and second string quarterbacks. John Patton is out for about a month with a dislocated elbow. Lee Harris has a sprained wrist.

Lewis has moved end Laven Flores, a 150-pounder, to the quarterback's spot. Because Flores has had very little experience there, the Yearlings are apt to run very few different kinds of plays.

Other starters on offense for the Yearlings are apt to be Claud Tucker 148, left half-back; Rocky Wooley 160, full-back; and Roy-Lee Warren 126, right half; Emmett Miller 165, center; George Rios 130, and Billy Bob Spier 140, guards; Mike Bridges 100 and Don McEvers 150, tackles; and Johnny Hedges 152, and Larry Newton 145, ends.

Hedges has been moved from a guard position to the terminal post.

On defense, such boys as tackle Jesse Brown, a 170-pounder; Tommy Jones, 135-pound guard; and Meliton Ariola, 180-pound guard, are sure to see a lot of action.

Jones performs at halfback on offense and will likely play a lot when Big Spring has the ball.

The Yearlings will suit out about 37 boys for the contest. Runnels' eighth graders go to Snyder to oppose Lamar at 7 p.m.

The eighth grade Yearlings defeated Sweetwater with a show of power last week, 34-5. Eighth graders who will start for Runnels in Snyder include George Pedro, center; John Hilarlo and Robert Dennis, guards; Randy Morgan and Roy Thomas, tackles; Fernando Mendosa and Charley Rodriguez, ends; Johnny Rutherford, quarterback; Joe Zubiate, fullback and Louis Switzer and Kyle Rozene, halfbacks, all on offense.

On defense, Morgan and Hilarlo will be at guards; Thomas and Dennis at tackles; Switzer,

A Devotional For The Day

Blessed are the peacemakers. (Matthew 5:9)
PRAYER: O Prince of Peace, who hast given us the ministry of peace, we thank Thee that Thou dost forgive us when we wrong Thee. Make us humble to confess our faults to Thee and to those whom we have wronged, and make us generous in forgiving those who wrong us. Fill our hearts with love that perfects peace. In Thy name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Don't Take It For Granted

For a number of years the American people have taken Japan for granted. The defeated nation, the most highly industrialized in Asia, capable of prodigies of manufacturing, generally is believed to have no place to turn except to the United States.

At the moment at least this view is almost literally true. Japan has no other place to go. It has no defense establishment, much less even the skeleton of an offensive military force. But no one, considering the Asian ferment, should presume that this situation will last forever, or even for very long.

Japan is plagued, as we are, by the de facto existence of two Chinas. She is eager to remain friendly with Taiwan, an excellent, growing market for her finished goods. On the other hand she also would like to improve relations with Red China—reports suggest that this feeling has grown since the Chinese Communists exploded their first and second atomic devices. But she cannot have the best of these two worlds. The United States and Nationalist China disapprove of any conciliatory moves toward mainland China, whereas mainland China, considering trade as an instrument of policy, demands a break with the West in order for Chinese markets to be opened to the Japanese. Several alternatives are open to Japan. She could break with the West and cast her lot with the Communists, but she would become China's pawn. She could rebuild military strength except for pacifism and neutralism born of war.

Instead, the Japanese have adopted the course they have pursued for more than a decade, of leaning toward the West, coupled with a reaffirmation of the U.S. defense commitment to their country and with it the promise that the U.S. will, if necessary, use nuclear weapons to defend the Japanese people.

But this is not a policy, it must be confessed, or at least one that can be relied upon for any length of time in a rapidly changing world. Japanese nationalism, now quiescent, lurks just below the surface. If it were aroused, Japan once more would try to reassert her leadership in Southeast Asia. No one can foresee where such a path would lead.

This should be enough to suggest that we cannot take Japan for granted—just as we discovered belatedly that we could not take Latin America for granted. We must strengthen our bridges to Japan.

Fulbright Adds Confusion To Dominican Fog

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas has denounced the Johnson administration's handling of the Dominican Republic revolt while practically excusing President Johnson of blame.

This just adds confusion to a situation which was already a little foggy. And Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, admits he is now talking from the "benefit of hindsight."

But Fulbright might have no complaint at all if Johnson could have waited for the benefit of hindsight before deciding it was necessary to send Marines into the Dominican Republic. Then he might have acted differently.

BRIEFLY, THIS was the background:

A few days after the revolt began last April against a reactionary regime in the Dominican Republic Johnson announced he was sending in Marines to protect American lives.

Shortly afterwards he gave another reason: Fear that Communists might try to take over. But Johnson acted on the advice of the American "country team" in the Dominican Republic — members of various American agency and military groups there — and with the advice of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

When he made the decision to use troops, Johnson called leading members of Congress to the White House, including Fulbright, to explain his actions.

SEN. RUSSELL B. Long, Louisiana Democrat who disagrees with Fulbright's speech of Wednesday, was at that White House meeting and says nobody including Fulbright, raised a dissenting voice.

Later, when it turned out the Communists were not in control of the revolution, Johnson got some criticism on the use of troops but he said he'd rather be criticized for his action than not to have acted.

Now, more than four months later, with the revolt ended and a new provisional government established in the Dominican Republic as a preliminary to elections in about nine months, Fulbright ripped into Johnson's action.

Yet, he said: "On the basis of the information and counsel he (Johnson) received, the President could hardly have acted other than he did; it is very difficult to understand however why so much unsound advice was given him."

BUT FULBRIGHT also said: "The reason for American intervention appears to be that very close to the beginning of the revolution U.S. policymakers decided that it should not be allowed to succeed."

The senator offers no proof of this charge although his statement will be widely read in Latin America and may antagonize non-Communist Latin Americans who wish to throw out reactionary regimes and provide a better life for their people.

Fulbright said the "danger to American lives was more a pretext than a reason for the massive U.S. intervention."

Cocktail Party Season Nears

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody talks about cocktail parties, but nobody ever does anything about them — except to throw another one.

One of the ordeals of autumn is that it signals the start of a new cocktail party season with all its attendant perils to millions of American alimentary canals which have rested up during the summer.

Originally, the cocktail party was invented as a pleasant way of paying off small social debts en masse. But it outgrew that idea long ago. Now it is just another way to get even with folks.

ONE OF the rituals about throwing a cocktail party is that there must be a reason for it, preferably a cute reason.

Such as: "We've been like you've been to attend a little shindig in our hut next Friday honoring our dog Roscoe, who has just graduated at the head of his class in obedience school. Hours: 5 to 7. Bring your own weapons."

"Oh, no, not another cocktail party!" moans each guest. But each guest shows up on the dot at the appointed hour. Everyone who attends cocktail parties says he hates them — but he wouldn't miss one for the world.

Aneurysm A Weak Spot In A Blood Vessel

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: What is an aneurysm and what causes it? Is there any cure? — MRS. J.H.

An aneurysm is a weak or bulgy spot in a blood vessel. A small aneurysm may be of scant consequence. A large one, however, can be extremely serious, depending on its location. If it were to perforate or rupture, and if it happened to be in an important artery, then the bleeding could be disastrous.

Therefore the primary questions have to be: Where is it? How extensive is it?

What causes it? Sometimes an injury, but more likely a flaw or weak spot that finally has begun to give way. Answering why these weak spots are present is as difficult as to say exactly why some people have weak arches and others don't; why some people are near-sighted but others don't need glasses. We all have our strong and weak points, and a weak spot in a blood vessel is something that some of us have. Arteriosclerosis — arterial hardening — is a common cause.

Aneurysm may occur in any part of the body. It may be of relatively little importance in many spots. In other areas (such as in the brain), there may be nothing to do about it except to control one's blood pressure, so as to expose the weak spot to as little extra stress as possible.

In still other areas, accessible for surgery, a plastic tube may be inserted to replace the aneurysm. There is also experimentation with other methods of strengthening the bulgy places.

A dissecting aneurysm is another type. I'll explain. Since an artery consists of an inner and outer layer, if blood seeps through the inner lining the two layers are gradually forced apart. Thus the separation of the layers spreads along the artery, increasing the extent of the aneurysm.

With such an aneurysm, gradually growing, the ideal goal is to repair it surgically before it has become too large.

Dear Dr. Molner: Can a rectal fistula be cured without surgery? — MRS. A.R.

For all practical purposes the answer is no. I don't say that a non-surgical cure is impossible, but it rarely happens. And if it does, it is usually a combination of extremely good luck plus more time and effort and misery than would be required by surgery. For a discussion of this problem, read my booklet, "The Real Cure for Hemorrhoids," which includes the basic facts about fistulas and fissures, as well as hemorrhoids. To receive a copy send 20 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in the of The Herald.

For facts about the total health of you and each member of your family, Dr. Joseph G. Molner's new book, "Stay Well Every Year of Your Life," ($9.95) is now available at your book store, or Prentice-Hall, Englewood Cliffs, N. J.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

How About Diving Into Little Theatre?

The Big Spring Civic Theatre is getting out the greasepaint for another season. Although the plays have been selected and the schedule arranged, the annual Help Wanted sign is out. Although membership and participation has increased in recent years, it is still a matter of just staying even.

MANY OF THE active workers in our little theatre come from Webb AFB, in fact, most of them do. But many of them are here only a short time, then transferred away. The hard core of Big Spring residents active in the group is small, and its total rarely changes.

There will be four plays again this year, and though more productions could be staged, it is not possible because there are not enough people taking an active part. Indeed, often there is not enough people to stage even four plays per year, without calling on a handful of people to do most of the work.

MANY RESIDENTS indicate an interest in play production, but plead innocent to any knowledge of it. But many of those now participating in the little theatre movement here didn't know anything about it when they signed up the first time. Actually there are no mysterious or highly technical jobs to be filled, and Little Theatre is the best way to be introduced to play acting or production.

THERE ARE HUNDREDS of jobs that anyone can do, aside from taking parts on stage. Besides that, little theatre is aimed at giving average folks some stage training and an opportunity to work on stage if they want. Others never go before the lights; they just like to help put on a show.

EVEN NOW, MORE people are being sought to help with forthcoming productions. Folks with a little time and a willing hand are urgently needed. Those with a flair for the stage are desperately needed. No experience is required, and a lot of excitement and satisfaction is promised.

King Leans Toward Commies

WASHINGTON — The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., one of the Negro leaders of the "civil rights" movement, has enveloped himself in a mystery that is puzzling many people inside and outside of Congress. Just why should he announce, after a conference with U.N. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg, a four-point program which urges the United States government to consider halting its bombing raids on North Viet Nam and also to reverse its policy and favor the seating of Red China in the United Nations?

THIS IS A VIEW considered by many persons here to be favorable to the Communist side, and certain senators, in statements inserted in the "Congressional Record" ask why Dr. King was accompanied to his meeting with Ambassador Goldberg by Bayard Rustin, his special consultant, who is accused of having been a member of the Young Communist League.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, Democrat, of Connecticut, said:

"WHEN Dr. Martin Luther King takes advantage of his pulpit as the prime leader of the civil rights movement in this country, to call for the admission of Red China to the United Nations; to demand that the United States commit itself to negotiate with the Viet Cong; and to advocate that the U.S. reorient its foreign policy along the lines of accommodation with communism, then I can only regret that the leader of the civil rights movement, by his intemperate alignment in foreign policy, has alienated much of the support which he previously enjoyed in Congress."

"THE ENEMIES of the civil rights movement have repeatedly made the charge that Dr. King is under Communist influence. I have myself defended Dr. King against this charge. But by the stand he has now taken on the whole series of vital foreign policy issues, I gravely fear that Dr. King has provided his own enemies and the enemies of the movements he heads with ammunition that they will know only too well how to use."

Dr. King has since announced that he will write letters within the next 10 days to the president of North Viet Nam, the government of South Viet Nam, and the leaders of the governments of Communist China and the Soviet Union. If Dr. King carries on a correspondence with foreign governments, it could run counter to the provisions of the Logan Act, a federal statute which says:

"ANY CITIZEN of the United States, wherever he may be, who, without authority of the United States, directly or indirectly commences or carries on any correspondence or intercourse with any foreign government or any officer or agent thereof, with intent to influence the measures or conduct of any foreign government or of any officer or agent thereof, in relation to any disputes or controversies with the United States, or to defeat the measures of the United States, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both."

THE MERE FACT that Dr. King was received by the U.N. Ambassador, who is the personal representative of the President of the United States, may give rise to a wrong impression. It could justify a belief that, while what Dr. King is doing now in his correspondence with foreign governments may not have the authorization of the President as to its substance, it has a kind of tacit approval, inasmuch as no action has been or probably will be taken to stop his efforts to engage in a peace movement by direct correspondence with hostile governments.

How To Cover A Great Romance

JACKSON HOLE, Wyo. — I spent last week in Grand Teton National Park as the only male correspondent covering Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson and her daughter Lynda. There were 12 lady reporters on the trip, and it was typical of their sex that not one of them would give me a break.

"It was every woman for herself, and we fought tooth and nail for the exclusive story of Mrs. Johnson's attempt to beautify America."

COVERING MRS. Johnson was no problem. We were briefed twice a day by Liz Carpenter, the First Lady's press secretary, and then it was just a question of running to the phone and reporting that Mrs. Johnson took a walk amongst the pines, had lunch by the lake or sat in her cottage gazing out on the Grand Tetons while a fire blazed in the living room, fed by logs chopped by Laurence Rockefeller.

But Lynda Bird was another problem because she started dating a boatman from the Jackson Lake Lodge, and suddenly what had been a simple story about beautification turned into the greatest saga of romance in the White House since Margaret Truman went out with Marvin Braverman.

THE HERO OF the romance was Wyoming-born-and-bred Brent Eastman, a 25-year-old medical student at the University of California.

The rule of thumb for reporters covering Lynda is that if she goes out with a fellow once it's a date and if she goes out twice it's a romance. If they see each other three times, you can start writing the engagement story.

The women reporters on the trip were typing reams of copy about Lynda and Brent and I kept sitting in front of my machine, sobbing because I had nothing to say.

FINALLY THEY took pity on me and said they would help me with the story.

"First, you have to describe Brent," one of them said.

"How do I do that?" I asked.

"Say he's tall, handsome, a bronzed, clean-cut outdoorsman, with a physique like John Wayne and a jutting jaw like Cary Grant."

"Isn't that libelous?" I asked.

"Do you want us to help you or not?"

"Okay. How should I describe Lynda?"

"HAPPY, BEAMING, joyous, and full of song," another reporter said. "What should I say they did?"

"They rode off in the sunset, held hands in the moonlight, and sat talking to each other in front of a blazing fire."

"That's all?"

"You've still got tomorrow's story. Don't tell everything in one day."

"WHAT HAPPENS when Lynda goes back to school?"

"Say that she hopes to see him soon and that informed sources say that he'll probably see her soon."

"Gee," I said, "once you get the knack of it, it isn't hard at all."

After being fired up by the women reporters, I decided to see if I could scoop them, and I did. I discovered that Brent Eastman used to go with Miss American Indian of 1964, but they broke up, and the reason was that she discovered his great-great-grandfather killed her great-great-grandfather at Little Big Horn.

COOSA RIVER, Ala. (AP) — Eagle-eyed foresters periodically shoot up the forests here — and it's research, not hunting fever, that motivates them.

Using high-powered rifles, the foresters shoot a top branch from the crown of tall parent trees growing in an experimental forest maintained here by Kimberly-Clark. The small twigs or scions are cut from the branch, placed in a plastic envelope to maintain humidity and rushed back to the nursery here (one of four tree nurseries run by the papermaking company) for immediate grafting to waiting root stock.

The procedure is part of a comprehensive research project to develop a strain of "super trees" with internal qualities custom made for pulp making. A two-year study of the more than 1,777 different types of trees found in the United States narrowed the field down to 44 superior trees to be used as "parents"

Eight Texas Cities Remain In Atom Smasher Running

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eight Texas cities are still in the running as possible sites for a $348 million atom smasher, due to be the world's largest. This was disclosed Wednesday by the Atomic Energy Commission.

AEC said Congress previously had authorized funds for research looking toward possible construction of the machine. Texas points which survived the cut are Amarillo, Austin, Houston, Dallas - Fort Worth, Lubbock, Odessa and San Antonio. Sweetwater and Port Mansfield were eliminated.

Its announcement paring the original 126 candidates to 85 was criticized by a California congressman as an "inept attempt to keep its political skirts clean."

A member of the committee screening sites for the AEC told the Houston Chronicle the possible locations already had been cut to 30 or 35 in an unpublished July decision.

DENIES CUT
The AEC denied this statement by Herbert Longenecker, president of Tulane University who is on the committee, and said: "There has definitely been no cut."

The atom smasher will be the costliest single scientific installation ever built and would have a payroll of $50 million to $60 million a year.

It is not even approved by Congress yet, however. The Trip No Flop, Thant Avers

LONDON (AP) — U.S. Secretary-General U Thant said today his peace mission to India and Pakistan was not a failure. "You will discover this tomorrow when my report is made public," he told reporters at London airport.

Thant is heading back to New York to report to the U.N. Security Council on his mission. The secretary-general spoke to newsmen after talking with Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart during a stopover en route to New York from Bombay.

BUNGLE CHARGED
Rep. Craig Hosmer, R-Calif., asserted the AEC had bungled so badly it should start over on the hunt.

Hosmer said at least 37 states should have been eliminated from the race in Wednesday's announcement. He labeled many of the remaining contenders "dogs," unfit for consideration. "The atom smasher will seek out the fundamental secrets of matter, and might eventually have a rich practical payoff in a range from developing new sources of energy to advances in medicine and weather control. Gov. Roger Branigin of Indiana calls it "the scientific prize of the century."

by co-op's in Mitchell County, was held Monday. Boys top record book belonged to Woody Anderson, and girls winner was Jean Compton.

A 4-H Club record book contains a complete resume of the 4-H Club member's history during his tenure in 4-H. This includes copies of personal news clippings, pictures of 4-H Club demonstrations or project and the various activities he may have participated in. It also contains a standard report form which gives concise statements and summarized information pertinent to the 4-H Club member's program. A summary of total accomplishments is included as well as a story of the subject: "What I have done and learned in 4-H Club work." This information plus the financial records on the demonstrations are included.

Judges for the contest were Tommy Marrice, Farm Bureau manager; Mrs. Emmett Banks and Mrs. Henry Burton, of the Mitchell County tax assessor-collector's office. Basis for the judging was neatness and arrangement, development of the 4-H Club member, accomplishments by the club member, participation in county activities and work with younger 4-H Club members.

Moonshine Costs High In Tax Loss

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Moonshine operations cost the government more than $600 million in tax losses each year, says Louis E. Howell, executive director of the National Council Against Illegal Liquor. Moonshining is big business, Howell said, particularly in the Southeastern states.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

SEC. B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1965 SEC. B

Charter Draped For Mrs. Irene Dempsey

The charter was draped and a resolution of respect read in memory of Mrs. Irene Dempsey when the John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge met Tuesday evening. Mrs. J. C. Pye directed the ritual, and Mrs. George Martin was the speaker. A white rose was placed on the charter by Mrs. Jones Lamar as Mrs. Charles Boren and Mrs. Homer Petty sang "In the Beautiful Garden of Prayer. Mrs. Morgan Martin was the accompanist. Respectful resolutions were read, also, by Mrs. Ted Brown, Joe B. Evans and Mrs. Alton Allen. They were for Mrs. Susy Horner, mother of Mrs. M. O. Hamby; Eddie Whitaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Whitaker; and Thomas Register, father of Mrs. W. K. O'Neal. Mrs. Homer Petty announced that the lodge will operate a booth during the Fun-O-Rama Sept. 27-Oct. 2, and will sponsor a ward party at the state hospital at Christmas when Mrs. H. F. Jarrett will be in charge.

Mrs. David Rhotan and Mrs. J. T. Montgomery will be initiated into the lodge Sept. 21, and Mrs. Lamar requested that the degree team arrive early that evening to practice. Twenty-eight attended.

TOPS Get Invitation

It was announced that Mrs. Walter Goodwin and Mrs. Al Scott have received invitations to attend the anniversary of the TOPS Club in Lubbock during the Tuesday evening meeting of the TOPS Pound Rebels.

The 16 members met at the Conference Room of the chamber of commerce office with Mrs. Goodwin presiding.

Mrs. Grady McCrary presented the program, "The Dangers of Being Overweight." She stressed that when dieting, one should always eat a good breakfast.

The next meeting will be at the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Company at 7:30 p.m.

Date Announced For Hobo Party

A Hobo Party was scheduled Sept. 25 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hanson when the Flower Grove Chapter of the Young Homemakers met Monday evening. It will be held in conjunction with the observance of Young Farmer-Young Homemaker Week, Sept. 19-25.

The year's programs were reviewed and refreshments were served to nine members and a guest, Mrs. Sonny Nichols.

Potpourri Sets Party After Game

An after-the-game party will be held for members of the Potpourri Club and their guests Friday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tip Anderson Jr. with Mr. and Mrs. Dee Thomas as the other host couple. The announcement was made at the Tuesday evening meeting in the home of Mrs. Gerald Harris, Rt. 1.

Mrs. Earl Lusk, president, named her committees, and various possible welfare projects were proposed and discussed. For fund-raising, the club will operate a Cat Throw booth at the Fun-O-Rama Sept. 27-Oct. 2. Mrs. Gerald Harris, program chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Caton, outlined the programs for this year and said they would concern a study of the pseudo science of astrology. Refreshments were served to the 12 attending.

To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. McMurtrey, 916 Baylor, are announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Faye Sampson, to Benny Lee Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Bennett, Pampa. The couple plans a Sept. 25 wedding.

Anniversary Marked By Wesley WSCS

The 25th anniversary was observed during the Tuesday morning meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Wesley Methodist Church. Nineteen members met at the church with Mrs. W. D. Lovelace presiding. Mrs. Abbey Anderson opened the meeting with prayer, and Mrs. J. C. Ray was in charge of the program.

Participating on the program were Mrs. Gerald Sharp, Mrs. Jerry Allen, Mrs. W. B. Morris, Mrs. Janie Cofer, Mrs. George Sutton and Mrs. Lovelace.

Mrs. Alta King, a charter member of the society, gave a talk describing her years of membership. Mrs. Marshall Day and Mrs. E. A. Gunn gave the devotion and closing prayer. Refreshments were served, and Mrs. Hubert Bratcher was welcomed as a guest.

Books Presented To Alter Society

Year books were distributed during the Tuesday evening meeting of the Altar Society of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church. The group met at the parish hall with Mrs. E. W. Brewer presiding.

The year book committee consisted of Mrs. Bill Sneed, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. J. D. Jenkins and Mrs. Lee Schattel.

For the program session, the Rev. Francis Beazley showed films taken on his recent tour through the Holy Land.

Meeting Tonight

The first fall meeting of the Forsan Study Club will be this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Forsan School. The program will be on Western traditions.

Chapel Women Install Newly Elected Leaders

New officers were installed at the Wednesday morning meeting of the Protestant Women of the Chapel. Twenty-four members met at the Webb AFB Chapel annex with Mrs. J. C. Pettit presiding.

Mrs. B. F. Meacham conducted the installation ceremonies. She carried out the theme, "Keys to the Kingdom," by presenting each officer with a key symbolic of opening the doors of her responsibility.

New officers are Mrs. Neal T. Reavely, president; Mrs. L. C. Pettit, vice president; Mrs. Larry Kingsbury, secretary; and Mrs. D. D. Kester, reporter.

Final plans were made for a covered dish luncheon Sunday at the Webb AFB pavilion, and a farewell gift was given to Mrs. R. L. Sullivan.

A project of making bibs for the Sunday school nursery was adopted, and Mrs. Reavely gave the closing prayer.

A musical selection was presented by Mrs. Miriam Russell, vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. John Birdwell, pianist.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kingsbury and Mrs. W. A. Cottrell.

P-TA Plans Math Class

Modern math will be demonstrated to members of the Gay Hill Parent-Teachers Association during a study at 7 p.m., Sept. 20 at the school.

The group learned of the scheduled study at the Tuesday evening meeting where Mrs. W. J. Crow presided, introducing as her slate, Mrs. James Ellison, vice president; Mrs. Fred Black, secretary; Mrs. B. R. Brooks, treasurer; Mrs. Hollis Puckett, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Ross Westbrook, reporter.

George Archer, principal, invited parents to participate in the math discussion and introduced new teachers joining the school faculty.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Brooks to approximately 40 persons.

WSCS Has Anniversary

The 25th anniversary of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was marked with a Tuesday morning coffee at the First Methodist Church. The 55 members and guests met in the fellowship hall, and Mrs. Robert C. Hill presided.

The Maudie Morris Circle presented the program, and Mrs. Sidney Woods discussed "Memories of an Area." Mrs. L. A. Zant gave the devotion.

Past presidents were honored, and Mrs. Bill House, vice president distributed year books. It was announced that the district meeting will be held Sept. 30 at the First Methodist Church, Midland. Mrs. B. F. Meacham will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Carl Riberi and Mrs. Walter Osborn and their committee were in charge of the refreshments, and the Rev. Leo K. Gee gave the closing prayer.

Doctor Honored For Achievements

The late Dr. Albert Schweitzer was honored with a devotion, "The Greatest of Humble Services," read by Mrs. R. E. Severin in Tuesday evening when the Wesleyan Service Guild of Wesley Methodist Church met in her home at 2711 Cindy. Mrs. Severin ranked what Dr. Schweitzer accomplished in Lamborene among the greatest services performed by mankind.

Mrs. T. A. McGuffey's program, "Living in Such an Age," dealt with the stresses of a fast-paced society. Participants were Mrs. Robert Lee and Mrs. Johnnie Garrison.

A new member, Mrs. L. E. Franks, was welcomed, and three guests were introduced. They were Mrs. N. M. Newton, Miss Helen Ewing and Mrs. E. F. Arnold.

Prayers were led by Mrs. John Appleton and Mrs. Bill Estes, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Flower Designs Told To Garden Club Unit

"Modern Art in Flower Arranging" was the program topic discussed at the Wednesday morning meeting of the Big Spring Garden Club.

The members met at the ranch home of Mrs. Marion Edwards. Cohostesses were Mrs. J. D. Elliott, Mrs. Clyde Angel, Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow and Mrs. John Knox.

Mrs. Angel conducted the program and she stressed that the new approach in flower designing is a simple structure and uses colors of earthy tones. She added that the texture of material is its own beauty.

Mrs. Angel exhibited an abstract arrangement made of spider lilies and desert willows. Mrs. J. E. Hogan also presented an arrangement entitled "Confusion." She used cattails and rubber plant leaves.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Diet Ice Cream Uses Canned Supplements

I drink canned diet supplements. The only trouble about this diet is that I miss something to chew on.

Here's what I do: I put the small cans in my freezing unit in the refrigerator, and let them freeze solid. Then I open one end of the can, and eat the contents with a spoon. It tastes like ice cream!

Another thing I learned, which is quite a change and makes it less boring, is to partially freeze the can, remove the contents, and put it in the blender until it is the consistency of sherbet. It's delicious! . . . Karen Davenport.

Dear Heloise: With two little pre-schoolers, things can get pretty hectic at times — especially in the morning.

We devised a system for making their chores interesting — if not enjoyable.

I keep a small, index card file, and on each card is written such chores as dusting, putting yesterday's newspapers with the trash, filling napkin holders, collecting their own laundry, etc.

Each day they draw a chore from the file . . . and the surprise encourages cooperation on their part. . . . Pat Fleming

Dear Heloise: To keep from losing one end of elastic when inserting it into anything, fasten a small safety pin to one end of the elastic, and a large one on the other end.

Use the small pin to push the elastic through the casing, and the large pin will keep the other end of the elastic from slipping into the casing. . . . Mrs. E. C. Overton.

Or, if you don't have a large safety pin, try pinning a medium size one crosswise on the elastic.

It's all the same difference! . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise: Here's how to clean that messy can opener:

Cover your can opener with detergent and hot water in a pot or tin can, and let it stand for about 10 minutes.

Take out of the water and scrub where dirty or rusty with a scouring pad.

Rinse thoroughly, and dry immediately.

Then oil well with vegetable oil. . . . Karen Johnson

Dear Heloise: When you tie ribbon into a bow, have you ever wished the ends of the ribbon would stay even, without unraveling?

Whether you cut the ribbon straight across, or at an angle.

Nurses See Type Of Remotivation

A demonstration of remotivation by group discussion was seen during the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Texas Nurses Association. The 17 members present met at the state hospital with Mrs. Otille Jolly, director of nurses, as hostess.

Miss Shirley Barak, remotivation co-ordinator, conducted the program. She was assisted by Mrs. Gordon Hughes, Miss Donna Stephens and Mrs. Henry Stoeger.

The basis of the demonstration showed it is possible for non-professionals to assist patients in rejoining society by the technique of group therapy.

Mrs. Gerry Green was appointed the association's delegate to the Volunteer Council.

TO OPERATE BOOTH

B&PW Contributions Benefit Fund, Center

Plans for a booth at the Sept. 27-Oct. 2 Lion's Club Fun-O-Rama were made during the Tuesday evening meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club. The group met at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant with Mrs. Cass Hill presiding.

The committee members in charge of the booth will be Miss Edith Gay, Mrs. A. J. Finch and Mrs. Bill Ward.

During the business session, the members voted to contribute $15 to the Mary Lylstrom Foreign Scholarship Fund and $20 to the Howard County Rehabilitation Center.

Mrs. Ruth Dyer was appointed chairman of the state hospital Christmas party committee. Serving with her will be Mrs. Armour Long, Mrs. Bill Ward and Mrs. Alma Gollnick.

The club will sponsor a needy school student during the year, and will provide lunch money, clothes and school supplies. On this committee are Mrs. Fred McGowan, Mrs. Bert Affleck and Mrs. R. O. Lewis.

It was announced that at the Sept. 11-12 Midland convention, Mrs. Cass Hill was elected district eight director of the Texas Federation of B&PW. She will take office in July, 1966.

Miss Gay has been selected the club's representative for the Texas B&PW day at the Dallas State Fair. She will also be a contestant in the Miss-Mrs. B&PW contest.

Top Scores At Bridge

Winners for the Tuesday afternoon duplicate bridge games played at Big Spring Country Club were Mrs. Ben McCullough and Mrs. Ayra McGann, first; Mrs. Hayes Striping and Mrs. J. H. Fish, second; and, tying for third and fourth, were Mrs. Fred Luttinger and Mrs. E. L. Powell and Mrs. Hudson Landers.

High scores at the Variety Luncheon Wednesday were Mrs. Wally Slate and Mrs. J. H. Holloway, first; Mrs. J. C. Greenhaw and Mrs. W. K. Edwards Jr., second; Mrs. J. J. Havens and Mrs. Ray McMahan, third; and Mrs. Pauline Eaton and Mrs. Floyd Mays, fourth.

Public Confidence In Economy Tops

NEW YORK (AP) — Rarely have Americans greeted an approaching fall season with such general confidence in the economy.

Even some of the disquieting prospects—increased fighting in Asia and a probable rise in prices of some basic items as production costs mount—have a silver lining for those who expect prosperity to continue with a show of sober if gratifying gains.

NUDGE UPWARD

The stepped-up shooting war in Asia is deplored for many reasons. But in the purely economic field it seems to promise a nudge upward for business activity, already at a record high in most sectors. The stimulant will come from growing spending for military hardware and manpower.

Expectation of rising prices, along with greater production of hard goods, has led many in the stock market to count on still higher profits for corporations. Also some find stocks attractive as a hedge against the chance of any further inflation. Settlement terms of the steel strike were initially interpreted that way on Wall Street.

The general public confidence at the start of fall seems built on still other things.

LONG UPSWING

One is the momentum of the long economic upswing, now in its 55th month, which promises to carry through for the rest of the year.

Another is satisfaction that this summer's performance was much better than some worriers had been predicting.

And a third is the evident strength of the economy. Most of the statistics will be bigger and better this fall now that the government has revised its methods of compiling them.

In economics, as in many other lines, quite often nothing succeeds like success. Its effect on confidence is well established.

And the optimists say the economy has too much muscle now to be easily upset.

They also count on Washington to prescribe a tonic fast if the muscles show signs of growing flabby.

They are far from that at the start of the fall season. The three mainstays of the economy are all strong.

INCOME HIGHER

First is consumer spending and confidence. With personal incomes and savings higher than ever, and with a record number of Americans at work, the wherewithal to buy the goods and services that industry produces is plentiful. The will to spend, or to go into debt, seems strong.

The second prop is business spending for capital goods, such as plants and equipment. That is expected to hit an annual rate of $53 billion in the three months just ahead, compared with just under $51 billion in the spring.

The third stimulant to economic growth is government spending. Total state and local government spending continues to rise to fill the needs or meet the demands of a growing population. Federal outlays will increase as the Viet Nam War grows more costly and the many projects of the Great Society take form and expand.

TV Adds 2 Rip-Roaring Action Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The television tempo quickened Wednesday night with the addition of a couple of rip-roaring action shows, two comedies that promise to provide a occasional chuckle, and a science-fiction hour that may delight the young audience.

The action shows are ABC's "The Big Valley" and CBS' "I Spy," and you could hardly ask for greater diversity.

"The Big Valley" is a Western, family style like "Bonanza," but in its first outing suggested that its story lines promise to be made of sterner stuff.

The Barkleys of old California consist of a widowed mother, a brave pioneer type, with three handsome sons who don't seem to like each other much except when the chips are down, and a pretty daughter who appears to be something of a problem.

SECRET AGENT

"I Spy" is one of those currently popular secret agent

things, set in modern Hong Kong. Co-stars are Robert Culp and Bill Cosby—TV's first Negro to be cast in a stellar role in a series.

The first show was a fast-moving, slick production about a Negro athlete who had defected to Peking. Our heroes' job was to rescue him. This involved some fancy gun play, vicious fights and a particularly fascinating chase.

On the comedy front was CBS' "Green Acres" which takes a terribly smooth Manhattan lawyer and his completely urbanized wife and deposits them in a crumbling farmhouse that looks like the shack abandoned by the "Beverly Hillsbillies."

Eva Gabor — in lovely clothes and Eddie Albert play the city slicker couple. They had some pretty amusing lines in the opening show which was primarily occupied with getting them out of a Park Avenue apartment furnished in appallingly bad taste and down on the farm.

"GIDGET" SUCCEDES

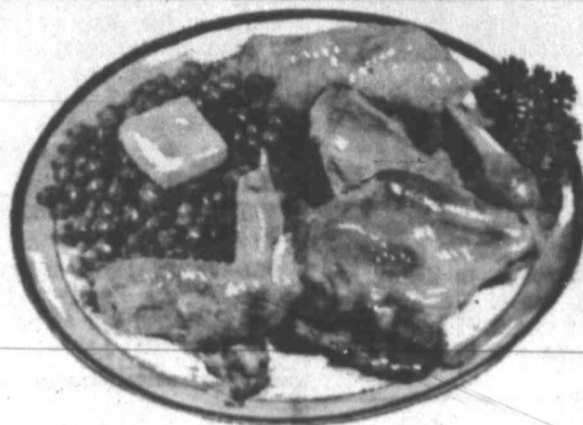

"Gidget" on ABC will undoubtedly be enjoyed by the people who made "Gidget" movies box office successes — teenagers and parents, who want to understand teenagers. A cute youngster named Sally Field plays the title role and Don Porter, once Ann Sothern's boss, is her widowed father.

"Lost in Space" on CBS is a companion piece to ABC's

"Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," and the first episode was dedicated to shipping a family in the year 1997 to a planet five and one-half years of spaceship travel away.

The special effects of the show were most interesting — tubes in which to freeze passengers and a spaceship that looks like a flying saucer.

'Snubbed' Since Racial Role, Lawyer Leaving

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — An attorney who tried to help solve Americus racial problems has sent his wife and five children to Atlanta because of threats and harassment and is getting out of town himself.

"There's no reason to stay," said attorney Warren Fortson, 37, brother of Georgia's secretary of state, Ben W. Fortson Jr. "My law practice has come to a screeching halt."

The former Marine said Wednesday he knew he was going to have to leave when he advocated formation of a biracial commission during the height of recent racial demonstrations in this south Georgia city.

"It was just like getting into a canoe in the Colorado River," he said. "Once you're committed to the rapids there's nothing you can do but ride them out."

Then, when the demonstrations subsided, Fortson said, "the freeze set in."

His wife, Betty, went to a meeting of the Junior League, he said, and "when she walked in, it was just like she was invisible. Nobody saw her."

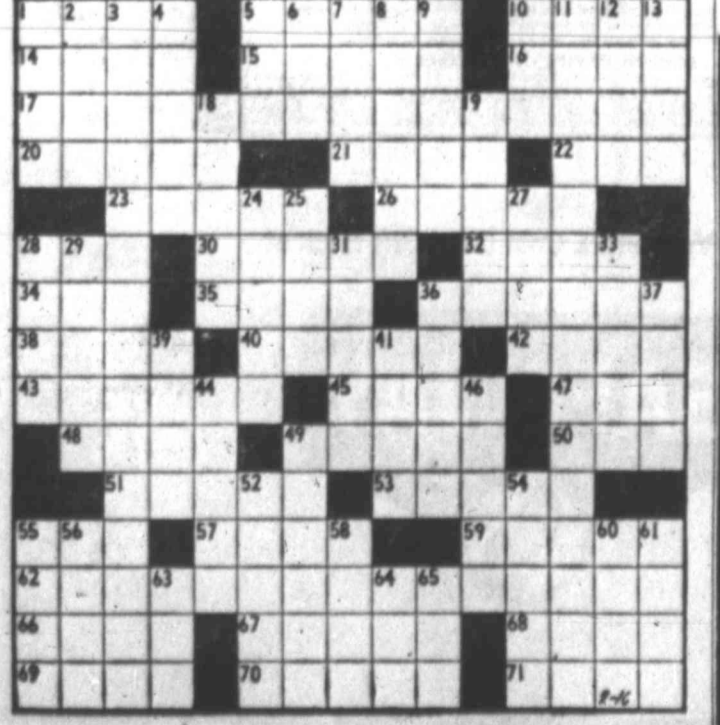

Officially, Fortson remained attorney for Sumter County, but he said it was in name only. "The county has hired another firm to do its work. They don't come to me any more."

In addition, the attorney was not re-elected as a Sunday School teacher at the First Methodist Church.

His pastor, the Rev. Vernard Robertson, declined comment when told Fortson was leaving town. Local officials also refused to comment.

Troubles Of Alaskan Cooks Told By Former Resident

By JO ANN PHINIZY

Ever try to cook a 40 pound cabbage? What to do about golf ball-size strawberries? How about catching so many, and such large, fish that you become tired of things like salmon steaks with lemon butter? Such are the problems facing Alaskan cooks, says Mrs. Donald F. Terry, 2600 Rebecca. She and her husband, Dr. Terry, a cardiologist at Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital spent two Army years in the 50th state.

Mrs. Terry said that Alaska is a marvelous place, and that the size-of the vegetables is contributed to the unusually long summers. As for fish, it's hard not to catch any amount and size you want. She also says that nothing in the world can camouflage the taste of moose.

Meanwhile, back in Texas, the Terrys and their two children, kindergarten-size Richard and "almost three" David, spend as much time as possible around the barbecue grill.

As a family, the Terrys prefer the "character" that goes with spicy food and Mrs. Terry's Sweet and Sour Barbecue Sauce is a speciality of the house.

MRS. DONALD F. TERRY

BARBECUE SAUCE

It's made with 1/4 cup molasses, chopped onion, 1/4 cup salad oil, 2 cans of tomato paste, 1/2 cup water, 1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce, 1/4 cup prepared mustard and salt and pepper. She said to saute the onions in the oil, add other ingredients, and cook for about 15 minutes. Mrs. Terry says that this is one sauce that does double duty indoors when used over browned hamburger meat.

Mrs. Terry is a native of St. Louis, Mo., and is a graduate nurse from Barnes Hospital at Washington University. She believes that nursing is a most rewarding profession and that is also teaches the value of food.

In the weight-watching department, the Terrys go easy on desserts with cream base, and Mrs. Terry uses vegetable oil for any sort of cooking. She also says that popcorn is ideal for dieter munching.

Every now and then, Mrs. Terry will try a new recipe that appeals to her. One such experiment has become a favorite. She marinates a beef roast for 24 hours in vinegar, drains and adds two cups strong black coffee and two cups water, covers and cooks for six hours.

KITCHEN ITEMS

The dishwasher and an electric knife are classed as Mrs. Terry's most useful kitchen items. She says that the dishwasher makes cooking and cleaning up seem easier; and the electric knife can turn an amateur into an expert carver.

One of the Terrys' hobbies is art collecting. When they travel, they make it a point to see the work of local artists. To make the trip more memorable, they usually purchase a regional painting of their choice.

In her shopping habits, Mrs. Terry plans her week's menus in advance and buys according to the list; unless, of course, a good bargain comes her way. Then the process is reversed, and the meal is planned around the best buy. She says it is a good way to avoid leftovers and duplicate shopping.

The recipes that Mrs. Terry has chosen are noted for their speed and flavor. The Shrimp Chow Mein is "a chinch if you have an electric can opener," and the Creole Shrimp is "delicious" and not high in calories, if served over rice.

SHRIMP CHOW MEIN

1 cup chopped onion
1 cup sliced celery
1 cup chopped green pepper
1/4 cup salad oil
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
2 tps. cornstarch

CREOLE CHICKEN

1 chicken (2 1/2 to 3 lbs.)
1 cup flour
Salt
Pepper
1 medium onion
1 medium green pepper
2-3 tps. thyme, or more if

CREOLE SHRIMP

2 tps. margarine
1 medium onion
1 small green pepper
1/2 cup celery
Garlic powder
1 1/2 cups water
3 tps. flour
2 cans tomato sauce
1 bay leaf
2 tps. salt
1/2 tsp. oregano
1/2 tsp. chili powder
1-3 tsp. thyme
2 lbs. raw shrimp

MELT MARGARINE

Melt margarine in a deep heavy pot. Add chopped onion, pepper and celery; saute until tender. In a small cup combine flour and water. Stir into pot flour mixture, garlic, tomato sauce, salt, bay leaf, oregano, thyme and chili powder. Bring to a boil; simmer about 20 minutes.

ADD SHRIMP

Add shrimp and cook uncovered until shrimp is pink. Serve over rice. Makes about six servings.

COOK GREEN PEPPER

Cook green pepper, onion and ground chili meat in cooking oil until brown. Add tomatoes and seasonings. Simmer about two hours adding water if necessary. Add beans about 30 minutes before serving. Makes about 6 servings.

CHILI CON CARNE

2 1/2 cups kidney beans
1 large onion, chopped
1 green pepper, chopped
1 lb. ground chili meat
3 tps. cooking oil
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1 1/2 tps. salt
1/2 tsp. paprika
1/2 tsp. cayenne pepper
1 bay leaf
2-3 tps. chili powder

CUT SHRIMP

Cut shrimp in half lengthwise and add, along with drained mushrooms, drained water chestnuts and drained bean sprouts, to mixture. Heat thoroughly, and serve over hot chow mein noodles.

POACHED EGGS

Poached eggs are preferred by the speedy, peppy and intelligent. Scrambled eggs suit the artistic, nervous and passionate. Turned-over eggs are for the versatile, magnetic and dominant. Sunny-side up eggs are selected by the happy, healthy and wise. Shirred eggs suit the fancy, fastidious, romantic and sensitive. Omelets are the order of the day when you have a sturdy, reliable and conservative make-up.

WHETHER YOU AGREE

Whether you agree or disagree, you'll probably vouch for the delicious taste of eggs. And eggs will certainly be a featured item this spring. Prices are low and supplies are plentiful, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service. This high-in-protein food can be used for some varied and tempting dishes this spring, whatever your personality.

School Lunches Need Good Buying Ways

Having budget problems? Lunches for children can be economical and easy if you plan ahead and let the youngsters serve themselves. A good lunch, according to U. S. Department of Agriculture nutritionists, includes meat, cheese, eggs, fish or some other protein food; vegetables or fruit; bread and milk.

In shopping, you may find these buying tips helpful: Watch for sales on tuna. Grated tuna is less expensive than chunk and is fine for sandwiches. Bananas are at their eating best when flecked with brown. However, since they don't keep well, they are sometimes sold for less. So if you intend to use them right away, they may be the ideal choice. Your best bargain in peanut butter is often the three-pound container, which keeps well in a cool cupboard. Compare prices. Local tomatoes now arriving at the market should be lower in cost and at their peak of goodness. Processed cheese is often less expensive than natural cheese — and many children like the milder flavor.

Broilers are reported especially plentiful this month, according to the Consumer and Marketing Service. And chicken is an ideal protein dish. Other foods plentiful this month are fresh plums, grapes and frozen concentrated orange juice.

The following economical menu and recipe ideas are similar to those being used in Operation Head Start Programs. Tuna fish sandwiches can be deliciously accented by carrot strips, a banana or peach and chocolate milk.

For budget-pleasing chocolate milk, sift 1 pound of instant dry milk, 1 cup sugar, 1/4 cup cocoa and 1/4 teaspoon salt together three times and store in a glass jar or metal canister. To prepare a quart of chocolate milk, measure 1-1/3 cups mix and stir in enough water to make a paste. Add a quart of boiling water, cool and then chill in the refrigerator.

Another delicious, yet economical menu consists of sliced cheese, pickle and lettuce sandwich, a tomato wedge, milk and peanut butter candy.

To make Peanut Butter Candy, you'll need 1 cup of peanut butter, 1 cup corn syrup or honey, 1/4 cups each nonfat dry milk and confectioners' sugar and 1/2 cup crushed cereal crumbs, chopped nuts or coconut.

COLD ROAST Tasty way for leftovers

Sunday Roast Beef Has Supper Encore

There's nothing like having a roast for Sunday dinner! Not only will you enjoy its juicy perfection at the meal, but it can be sliced later for mouth-watering sandwiches.

Season the roast with salt and pepper. Place fat side up in an open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so bulb reaches the center of the thickest part, but does not rest in fat or on bone. Neither add water nor cover. Roast in a slow oven (300 degrees to 325 degrees) allowing 2 1/2 to 4 hours for roasting depending on the degree of doneness desired.

Place 2 tablespoons mixture on each sandwich and spread to within 1/2 inch of edge of meat. Sprinkle parsley on top. Bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees) 8 to 10 minutes. 4 servings.

Apples, Pork Chops Make Company Fare

Pork chops become company fare when apple, clove and Claret wine go into the preparation. This recipe originated in Maryland, where it earned fame as the

BALTIMORE BONANZA

6 double loin pork chops
1 1/2 lbs. cooking apples
12 whole cloves
1 1/4 cups Claret wine
1 tsp. cornstarch
1/2 cup apple jelly
1/4 tsp. salt
Dash monosodium glutamate
Dash cayenne pepper
Have butcher make a pocket in each of the pork chops. Peel core and cut apples (preferably greenings) in 3/4 inch wedges. Score the fat on the chops, coat chops and pack pockets tightly with apple wedges. Toothpick pockets together if necessary and stick each chop with 2 whole cloves.
Place remaining apples in a saucepan with 1 cup Claret. Cover and cook gently until apples are tender, about 5 minutes. Strain juice into a measuring cup and keep apples warm. Place chops in a heavy skillet and add enough liquid in which apples were cooked to reach a depth of 1/4 inch in the pan.

Cover pan, bring liquid to a boil rapidly, reduce flame, and simmer gently about 45 minutes, or until chops are done, turning them once for even cooking. Remove chops and skim and discard fat from pan liquid. Pour liquid into measuring cup containing juice reserved from apples and add more Claret, if necessary, to measure 1 1/4 cups.

Pour into skillet. Dissolve 1 tablespoon cornstarch in 1/4 cup Claret and add to skillet. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce comes to a boil. Add 1/2 cup apple jelly and stir over a low flame until jelly melts. Season to taste with salt, monosodium glutamate and cayenne pepper. Return chops to sauce to heat. Meanwhile, arrange cooked apples on a platter, arrange chops on top of apples and pour sauce over.

U. S. Defends Steel Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — High administration sources still insist the steel contract negotiated in the shadow of the White House did not exceed government wage guidelines.

Some nongovernment estimates placed the cost higher than the guidelines would provide, leading to speculation of possible price increases.

But White House economists are sticking with their figures and the implication is that President Johnson will be closely watching for any steel price hikes he considers inflationary.

“WANTED SWAP-OUT”

A government source said industry negotiators came to the White House hoping for Johnson's tacit approval of higher prices in exchange for boosting its wage offer to end the strike threat.

But Johnson didn't give it to them, this source said.

The industry finally raised its wage offer, agreement was reached Sept. 3 and the contract was signed on Labor Day.

Johnson called the settlement “noninflationary.” It was not clear what he might do if the industry imposes general increases.

Here's how the government figures it:

White House guidelines suggest that industry can afford to raise wages 3.2 per cent a year without increasing prices to offset the added labor costs.

FEDERAL FIGURES

This is based on government figures estimating that productivity — the amount a worker produces — increases by 3.2 per cent annually because of improved machinery and industrial efficiency.

Some estimates placed the cost of the steel settlement at about 3.5 per cent a year, but the difference is almost purely one of arithmetic.

It depends on whether the contract is figured as 35 months or 39 months long.

The contract runs from last Sept. 1 to Aug. 1, 1968 — a total of 35 months. But the over-all money package includes the 11.5-cent temporary wage increase negotiated previously in exchange for a four-month strike postponement from May 1 to Sept. 1.

TOTAL COST

The government now estimates the total cost of the White House settlement at 48 cents an hour for some 450,000 workers over the 39 months.

Previous wages and fringe benefits averaged $4.41 per hour by government estimate — among the highest in the nation. The total will rise to $4.89 in the final year of the new contract.

The government's 48-cent cost estimate over 39 months averages out to an annual increase of 14.7 cents an hour — almost exactly 3.2 per cent a year.

If the four-month temporary strike truce is ignored and the contract figured on a 35-month basis, the annual increase in wages and benefits comes out to 16.4 cents an hour — a little more than 3.5 per cent.

The government contends the four-month interim agreement was part of the contract and must be included in averaging out the cost estimates.

The government arithmetic is slightly complicated because the annual increases are compounded, like a bank compounds interest.

3.2 PCT.

Thus a 3.2 per cent wage increase on top of $4.41 an hour would add 14.1 cents the first year, and bring total wages and fringe benefits to $4.55 hourly.

The second year increase of 3.2 per cent added to $4.55 would be 14.5 cents, making a total of $4.69.

In the third year, a raise of 3.2 per cent of $4.69 would add 15 cents, bringing the total to $4.84.

Pro-rating the four-month interim agreement by the same annual rate, another 5 cents an hour is added to bring the final total to $4.89 per hour.

A simpler way is to add the government's settlement estimate of 48 cents to previous total wages and fringe benefits of $4.41 — it comes to the same total of $4.89.

Fulbright Charge Draws Challenge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen and Democratic Sen. George A. Smathers challenged today Sen. J. W. Fulbright's contention that the Johnson administration bungled the Dominican crisis.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told the Senate Wednesday President Johnson was given "unsound advice" and that fear of a Communist takeover in Santo Domingo was based on misinformation and on "exaggerated estimates of Communist influence."

The Arkansas Democrat said "The danger to American lives was more a pretext than a reason for the massive United States intervention." He said, "In their panic lest the Dominican Republic become another Cuba, some of our officials seem to have forgotten that virtually all reform movements attract some Communist support."

SEN. SMATHERS

Dirksen said he agreed with Johnson's decision then "and I agree with it now."

In a joint interview Dirksen and Smathers, secretary of the Democratic conference, disagreed with Fulbright's interpretation of the situation. Like Fulbright, they attended a White House meeting the night Johnson made his decision to send in troops.

"OVER ACTION"

Fulbright said Johnson, on the basis of the information and counsel he received, could hardly have acted other than he did. The senator said he had no objection to sending a modest contingent of U.S. troops to Santo Domingo to save American lives, but claimed there was "over action" by the administration in the dispatch of 22,000 men.

Smith, Anderson In State Mental Retardation Study

Sam Anderson, superintendent of Big Spring schools, and Jack Y. Smith, director of industrial relations for Cosden Oil & Chemical Co., have accepted key assignments in Gov. John Connally's statewide mental retardation planning study.

Judge Herman Jones of Austin, chairman of the governor's advisory committee for the project, appointed Anderson as a member of the state task force on education, while Smith was named to the state task force on finance and legislation. The appointments were made at a meeting in Austin Saturday and Sunday.

The task forces are among 11 which met to begin outlining and writing a "Texas Plan to Combat Mental Retardation." The two-day planning session was the first of three planned meetings of over 100 committee members and state-level consultants who will write the plan. The next meeting will be Oct.

16-17 in Austin.

Much of the information and recommendations, with which the state task forces are dealing, was collected in 59 of the larger cities of Texas by Mayors' Commissions on mental retardation planning, such as the Big Spring study commission. Direction of the planning work is being provided by state government agencies which have some relation to mental retardation services: health, education, welfare, vocational rehabilitation, employment, youth council and special schools. Chairman of the governor's interagency committee is Bill Cobb, executive budget director.

Jones said that thousands of Texas people, including the Big Spring study commission, have studied their local services and facilities for the retarded and have made their written contributions to the plan. He told the members of the state task forces that it was now up to them, with the help of consultants to compose the local findings and recommendations into the Texas plan.

Jess M. Irwin Jr., executive director for the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, spoke at the meeting on developments in the planning during the past year. Stuart Fisher, planning director, commended the commissions and state agencies for their contributions to the project.

"The success of this planning work and the ultimate contribution it will make for the mentally retarded citizens of Texas is the project of many people, not just a few," Fisher said.

State task forces taking part in the planning are: finance and legislation, organization and coordination, manpower, research, vocational rehabilitation and employment, local action and public awareness, residential and day care, law, health, education and welfare.

The twelfth task force, on medical aspects of mental retardation, will hold its first meeting Oct. 16, when the other groups meet for the second time.

Tax Refund Clerk 'Never Caught Up'

DALLAS (AP)—Bonnie Reed has a problem: She can't give money away fast enough. She works at it eight hours a day, Monday through Friday, and in and year out. But the green-government checks pile up on her desk faster than she can get rid of them. Miss Reed is the returned income tax refund clerk for the Dallas District of the tax collecting Internal Revenue Service. The district covers the northern half of Texas. "I've got 16,087 returned checks on file right now," she said. The checks average about $100 each, so she has more than $1.5 million on hand. "It's a big job, trying to give people money they already have coming to them," she said. "I've been doing it for 30 years and I haven't found any shortcuts." Miss Reed said 6,674 refund checks for 1965 returns alone went astray and ended up on her desk instead of with over-paying taxpayers. Of these, she has guided 3,075 to the taxpayers, but 3,599 still are in her files.

WITH TREASURY

"We keep the checks for two years. If we can't find the payee by then, the amount of the refund is deposited with the U. S. Treasury. "If a person has a valid claim after that, he still gets his refund from Washington. Sometimes it's 10 years after the date of the original check," she said. Her files once had 40,000 yearward refunds. But several years ago her office began destroying

Fullerton, AP Writer, Dead

ELIZABETH CITY, N.C. (AP)—Hugh S. Fullerton Jr., a sports writer for The Associated Press for 38 years, died Wednesday night at the age of 61. His death resulted from an embolism—an obstruction of a blood vessel.

Fullerton was on vacation at Nag's Head, N.C., when he was stricken. He was brought to Albenmarle General Hospital in Elizabeth City where surgery was performed. He died at 10 p.m. His home was in Englewood, N.J.

Fullerton was born in Chicago, graduated from Princeton, and joined the AP sports department in New York in 1927. He covered all facets of sports in his long career, with college football his favorite. For several years he wrote a column for afternoon papers.

Journalism was a tradition in Fullerton's family. His father was a famed Chicago sports writer who this year was honored by baseball's Hall of Fame. His son, Hugh Fullerton V, is a reporter for the Charlotte, N.C. News.

Commended For Part In School Savings Program

E. C. Boatler, postmaster, has received a letter of commendation from William H. Neal, national director of the U. S. Savings Bond Division, for his leadership in the Treasury's school savings program in this community.

Neal points out in his letter to Boatler that a successful school savings program, such as prevails in Big Spring, is the product of joint cooperation on the part of the teachers, parents and volunteer workers.

"Above all," Neal stated, "the program must have good service by the post office and outstanding leadership by the postmaster."

Neal believes that the school savings program, which operates in most Big Spring schools, is a part of the nationwide Savings Bond program and "has launched the thrift careers of millions of boys and girls."

The program celebrates its 25th anniversary in 1966. Neal pointed out that many who began with a school savings program in the days of World War II are now regular buyers of savings bonds, and as parents, are encouraging their children to enjoy the benefits of this patriotic thrift program.

Boatler said he is proud of the part he has had in the program, and that he knows of "no finer way to build for a better tomorrow than by training our youth in the sound American heritage of thrift."

Massachusetts Tax Revenue Up

BOSTON (AP)—Massachusetts tax collections in August totaled $47.9 million, compared with $34.6 million in August 1964, says Tax Commissioner Guy J. Rizzotto.

Beatle Cuts Go - Price Of Education

NEW YORK (AP)—Those puddles on the barber shop floor are the tears shed by America's youth forced to cut their locks as the price of education.

Boys' Beatle-like tresses grown long with the summer days fell into disfavor with the opening of schools across the country.

HEMLINE CHECK
Bizarre makeup is being scrubbed from the faces of girls, and some school principals are carrying around rulers to see that hemlines don't show too much knee.

Among the taboos turned up in a nationwide survey by The Associated Press are:

Beatle haircuts, tight pants, short skirts, high heels, metal cleats, culottes, jeans, slacks, shorts, Elvis sideburns, Zulu hair rattling, Diamond Lil makeup, bare-midriffs, off-the-shoulder dresses, open back, sandals and bee-hive hairdos.

"We're advising a few of our boys we'd appreciate them getting to a barber, but we're not trying to ram it down their throats," said principal Herbert H. Bishop, principal of Manhattan High School in Kansas.

LESS CASUAL
A less casual attitude is taken by the private schools. "I say to him, 'I think you need a haircut,'" He says, "yes, sir," and that's it," said Carl W. Andrews Jr. of Collegiate School in New York.

Principals say styles are a little more conventional this year. The principal of a Little Rock, Ark., high school grabbed the problem by the forelock. Boys were told to abandon their Beatle cuts or show up for classes with hair ribbons. They got their hair cut.

After school officials in Fairfax County, Va., ruled that long hair was out, 20 students at Thomas Jefferson High School got haircuts before classes the next day.

BOYS CRY
Barbers at a shop near the school reported some of the boys cried when their hair was cut off.

But a dozen students picketed the school. One sign read, "Do you have to be bald for an education?" Said another: "At $1.75 who can afford haircuts?" Many of the problems of girls' dresses may be taken care of by the boys. Said Steve Seymour, 18, a senior at Raleigh, N.C., "some dresses are kinda sickening when they come above the knee."

Dismissal Of Suits Asked

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—The federal district court here has been asked by eight major oil companies to dismiss anti-trust suits charging the firms with fixing gasoline prices.

Price fixing occurred, the government claims, in New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Petitions filed Wednesday asked dismissal of all counts against American Oil Co. of Chicago, Atlantic Refining Co. of Philadelphia, Cities Service Oil Co. of Bartlesville, Okla., Gulf Oil Corp. of Pittsburgh, Humble Oil & Refining Co. of Houston and Sinclair Refining Co., Socony Mobil Co. and Cities Service Co., all of New York.

Atlantic, Gulf, Cities Service and Cities Service Oil were charged with conspiring to monopolize. They also asked those charges dismissed.

Religious Liberty Statement Debated

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Joseph Elmer Cardinal Ritter, of St. Louis, Mo., today led eight prelates in vigorous defense of every man's right to worship as he pleases. He demanded that the Vatican Ecumenical Council adopt a document setting this forth as church policy.

Six other speakers on the third day of the final session of the council firmly opposed the statement on religious liberty.

Two American cardinals had pleaded Wednesday for approval of the document. Cardinal Ritter, who opened debate today, said: "If we do not approve this document, we will be running the risk of being numbered among the enemies of the Gospel."

Cardinal Ritter shares with prelates like Cardinals Francis Spellman of New York and Richard Cushing of Boston the view that the council must issue a declaration calling on civil governments to protect every man's right to believe as he wishes. Conservative bishops from Italy and Spain replied in opposition that a religious liberty declaration would weaken the church.

A major point in the arguments of those advocating the document is that people today, living in a modern society of easy communication and universal education, rightly expect the widest possible liberty in their lives.

There is strong opposition among the 2,200 council fathers to the document. But a majority appears determined that by the time the council ends, probably before Christmas, the declaration will be approved and issued by the council and Pope Paul VI.

Hunt For Dead Continues In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Authorities continued a house-to-house search today for bodies in eastern New Orleans as flood waters from Hurricane Betsy — which unleashed its fury a week ago — slowly receded.

A similar operation was under way in neighboring St. Bernard Parish, where 3 to 4 feet of water remained in some low-lying sections.

Police sealed off a 300-square block area after Dr. Rodney Jung, city health officer, said it was necessary because "conditions have deteriorated to an alarming degree."

A nauseating stench permeated the area, which contained green scum, floating garbage and hundreds of animal carcasses.

Communications with the devastated regions of lower Plaquemines Parish, 60 miles down the Mississippi River from New Orleans, remained out and there was no late word on conditions. Earlier, Plaquemines officials said it would take 30-60 days alone to restore fresh water facilities.

The Mississippi River around Baton Rouge remained closed to shipping as a search went on for a barge loaded with 600 tons of deadly chlorine. The barge sank during the hurricane.

The list of known and presumed dead climbed to 68 in Louisiana with another 12 victims reported from Florida, Mississippi and Arkansas. In addition, the New Orleans' corner had more than 100 names on a list of missing persons and there were still numerous persons unaccounted for in St. Bernard and Plaquemines Parishes.

The herculean task of cleaning up debris and repairing damaged homes and businesses was in full swing. Utility service was gradually being restored in all but the sections still under water.

Minority Group Posing Threat To Brandt Party

BONN, Germany (AP) — A Brandt's Social Democrats even if they emerge the most popular group in Sunday's election in West Germany.

The Free Democratic party chairman, Erich Mende, has pledged to see that the Socialists do not occupy the Palais Schaumburg, Bonn's Rhineland chancellery.

All professional pollsters predict a close outcome in the race between the two top parties, Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's Christian Democrats and Brandt's Socialists. Thus, the men around Mende are likely to have a say again when it comes to forming a new government.

JUNIOR PARTNER
Their party is the junior partner of the Christian Democrats in the present administration.

Mende, 48, a former army officer, has a deeply rooted distrust of everything Socialist.

He has publicly ruled out any idea of allying himself with the Socialists in case they need the Free Democratic votes for control of the new Bundestag.

Critics quip that it has "more wings than members," but quite a few feel that the many-faced picture of Mende's group is one of its main assets. It includes former Hitler Youth leaders who pursue a strongly nationalist line. It also has some bitter anti-Nazis imprisoned during the Third Reich. There is no handy label in characterizing the party except perhaps that it stands strictly for free enterprise.

Mende is a native of Silesia, now Polish-controlled. No rival in his grouping can match him in popularity.

CAMPAIGN PLEDGE
In 1961, for the first time under Mende's leadership, the Free Democrats polled 12.8 per cent of the national vote. Much of their success was ascribed to a campaign pledge to end the regime of Konrad Adenauer. The promise was realized two years later when Erhard took over.

Although experts suspect the party is now past its peak, Mende is confident of polling at least 10 per cent, enough to keep his party's foot in the door.

Much of his hopes are based on his record as vice chancellor and minister for all-German affairs in the incumbent government. He claims credit for improved contacts with East Germany, specifically for obtaining the government's green light in the Berlin pass agreement on visits behind the wall.

In his campaign, Mende has spoken for full diplomatic relations with Germany's Communist neighbors — a proposal that goes even beyond the official Socialist program. When one low-level party expert presented a study envisaging Germany's pullout from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, he was quickly called to order by Mende.

SCHOOLS ECONOMY
Improvement of educational standards and a demand for increased economy in state spending are favorite subjects with Mende.

The Free Democrats traditionally draw their strength from professional men, independent middle-class business people and some farming sections. Says Mende: "We are the salt in the often dull soup of Bonn democracy."

SCHOOLS ECONOMY
Improvement of educational standards and a demand for increased economy in state spending are favorite subjects with Mende.

The Free Democrats traditionally draw their strength from professional men, independent middle-class business people and some farming sections.

Says Mende: "We are the salt in the often dull soup of Bonn democracy."

Texas Due Cooler Air

Fall weather should be a little nearer than most heat-weary Texans have suspected.

It was still hot over most of the state today, but official forecasters expected cooler air and thunderstorms to start spreading over the north half by evening.

A scorching sun sent thermometers soaring again Wednesday and local heat records for the date once more topped at a number of points.

HIGH OF 106
Wichita Falls was the warmest with a top reading of 106, one degree lower than the day before.

Among the other highs were Presidio 105, Abilene 104, San Angelo and Mineral Wells 103, Childress 101, and Dallas, Del Rio, Midland and Wink 100.

It was comparatively comfortable only in the Texas Panhandle, where a weak cool front arrived early Wednesday. Amarillo's high was 87 degrees. Readings early today were down to 53 at Dalhart and 61 at Amarillo.

REFRIGERATED AIR
On the way to reinforce the weak front was a batch of refrigerated air flowing southward from sections of Alberta, Canada, a foot deep in new snow.

Scattered showers and dropping temperatures were in prospect for parts of Northwest Texas today and the cooling was due over the rest of the state's northern half by Friday. Forecasts called for it to edge into the southern sections, leaving only Southeast Texas untouched.

Farm Surpluses Investment Of U.S. In Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's so-called investment in farm surpluses June 30 totaled $6,386,626,000, a decline of $711,301,000 during the fiscal year.

In the early 1960s, the investment approached $9 billion. The Commodity Credit Corp. of the Agriculture Department said the June 30 investment included $2,240,000 tied up in crop and dairy surpluses owned by the government, and $2,494,386,000 in loans made to farmers on crops held off markets to bolster prices.

The big decline in the investment in surpluses in recent years reflects heavy commercial demands for grains, including exports. This allowed the CCC to sell some of its stocks.

CCC losses during the 1964-65 fiscal year totaled $3,353,756,000. These losses came on top of a deficit of $2,709,323,000 marked up during the 1963-64 fiscal year.

Hot Wire Contact Kills Texas Man

NACOGDOCHES (AP) — Delbert Goodwin, 30, of San Augustine, Tex., was killed Wednesday when he came in contact with a high voltage power line.

Note Figures In Narcotics Plot Trial

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — A small, green slip of paper with French scribbled on one side figures strongly in the government's case against Lucien Rivard, accused of directing an international narcotics smuggling ring.

A dope courier said the note bore instructions for him to telephone Rivard once he made a safe border crossing from Mexico to the United States with 75 pounds and 2 ounces of heroin. And a handwriting expert testified at Rivard's conspiracy trial Wednesday that Rivard wrote the note.

FOUR TRIED

Rivard and three associates — Joseph Jones, Julien Gagnon and Charles Groleau, all from Montreal — are being tried on charges they conspired to smuggle narcotics into this country.

As the trial entered its fourth day, defense lawyers were ready to cross-examine U.S. Treasury Department agent Sidney Goldblatt, who made an extensive presentation on Rivard's handwriting and printing.

The rather cryptic note, which Goldblatt said Rivard had written, was found in the wallet of Joseph Caron, an admitted thief who had a short career as a narcotics smuggler.

Caron and his 33-year-old wife, a mother of four, were arrested here Oct. 10, 1963, at the busy international bridge over the Rio Grande.

U.S. customs agents found heroin worth $33 million to $56 million hidden in the seats and door panels of the Carons' car.

The note, which was not in complete sentences, contained the words (translated from French) "Call the 14 crossing 9 o'clock my time." It bore the address of the "Stradford Motor Inn, Exit 32," plus the word Connecticut.

CALL RIVARD

Caron said he received the message from one of four men he dealt with in Mexico City and the note meant that he should call Rivard on Oct. 14 after crossing the border.

The all-male jury heard Mrs. Caron tell of two trips with her husband to Bridgeport, Conn., and a drive to Mexico City.

She made the Mexico City trip, she related nervously, because she feared for her four children.

Mrs. Caron said Gagnon told her in the Carons' Montreal home that if she didn't go to Mexico City with her husband to make it look like a honeymoon "maybe something would happen to me and my children."

The federal government granted Mrs. Caron immunity from prosecution for any testimony she gave.

Moose Cause Traffic Tie-Up

EASTON, N.H. (AP) — The people are moving out of this small town on the edge of the White Mountains — and the moose are moving in.

Easton's population was never very big and it's getting smaller — down to 74 in 1960, half the number who lived there in 1940.

On the other hand back in 1940 it was generally believed that moose, the largest of the deer family of animals, had long since departed for even more remote places.

MOOSE FAMILY

But now a family of moose, mister, missus and their 300 pound calf, have not only taken up residence, but they're joining right in with the people.

They've created a traffic problem along Route 116 and at its junction with Route 112 which cuts into the mountains through Kinsman's Notch.

The trouble is that motorists see the moose and stop to satisfy their curiosity.

ANIMALS CURIOUS

The members of this moose family are just as curious as people — so they come out to the pavement to look them over. Then nothing moves until the moose are satisfied, or get hungry and go back to grazing along the roadside or in pastures or woods near town.

Dozens of people have made souvenir photographs for themselves, many of them "candid" shots made from 10 feet away.

Conservation officials say the moose, particularly the adults, could be dangerous if frightened or angered. Papa moose weighs about 1,500 pounds and if angered he could wreck an automobile.

Huge Treasury of Knowledge—Magnificent New Edition

Think what it would mean for you and your family to have this great reference work ready at hand to answer all questions in every field of knowledge.

A fine encyclopedia is the one set of books most important for the home — an absolute necessity where there are school children or college students. And no encyclopedia in existence is finer than this one, or more useful, or better for family use.

Each volume has the contents of three ordinary books. The complete set contains SEVEN MILLION WORDS in all, in nearly ten thousand double-columned pages, covering over THIRTY THOUSAND different subjects embracing a condensation of all man's knowledge!

This newest Eldorado Deluxe Edition is really gorgeous, bound in creamy simulated leather, stamped in red, black and gold, with special end-papers, full-color frontispieces, thousands of photographs, drawings, and diagrams illustrating the text, and full-color maps of every country on the globe, comprising a complete World Atlas. Most beautiful of all, the page-tops of all the volumes are gilded, as only really expensive books are gilded, making the set a superbly luxurious ornament for any home.

Sunday Liquor Referendum Set

AUGUSTA, Maine (AP)—Gov. John H. Reed has ordered a statewide referendum Feb. 21, 1966, on the new Sunday liquor law passed by the legislature. The law would permit sales of hard liquor and wine, by the drink, and take-out sales of beer and ale between noon and 9 p.m. on Sundays. The liquor and wine sales would be restricted to hotels, clubs and certain restaurants.

Separate Trial Decision By Judge Waited

MIAMI (AP)—A judge will decide within two weeks whether to grant separate trials for Candace Mossler, 46, and her younger nephew, charged in the slaying of multimillionaire Jacques Mossler, 69.

Lawyers for Mrs. Mossler and Melvin Powers, accused by the prosecution of being lovers, argued for separate trials Wednesday. Percy Foreman, Powers' lawyer from Houston, said the state had information that the Mossler's life had been threatened by several persons.

State Atty. Richard Gerstein denied it.

Judge George Schulz heard other defense motions, including one asking for inspection of the prosecution's evidence.

Gerstein said defense counsel would be given "what the law allows—no more, no less."

Mossler was stabbed and beaten to death here June 30, 1964. Police arrested Powers in Houston a few days later.

He and Mrs. Mossler were indicted earlier this year on first degree murder charges. Both are free on $50,000 bonds. A joint trial is set for Nov. 15.

Capt. Kaufman Dead At 87

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Capt. John Brooks Kaufman, credited by some for getting Jack Benny started as a comedian, is dead at 87.

He died Wednesday in a hospital after a long illness. Kaufman, who served in the Navy 41 years, was recreation officer at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, where Benny was stationed during World War I.

Kaufman heard Benny, then known only as a violinist, toss off some quips during a talent show tryout. The gags were written into the Navy relief society show and Benny was on his way as a comic.

Widger Attends Planning Meet

Walter Widger, head of social services at the Big Spring State Hospital, is attending an institute regional planning committee meeting of the National Association of Social Workers in Houston. The luncheon and meeting at the Warwick Hotel will stress the importance of continued education for social workers. Doran Teague, associate director of practices for the NASW, and Dr. Fernando Torgerson, educational director of the Monte Flore hospital in New York City, will speak.

DEAR ABBY

Mother Was A Big Help

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I went on a two-week vacation trip. We didn't want to take our three kids because they are all under five and hard to handle, so we left them with my mother, who is a widow and has nothing to do anyway. We also have a dog, which we left in our back yard. It's fenced in and there is a dog house there in case the dog needs shelter. We asked my mother to run over every day to feed the dog and give it fresh water, then we locked the house up tight.

Well, my mother got nosy and she got into the house somehow, gathered all the dirty clothes, washed and ironed them and laid them on the bed. Now I say if ever my wife had a right to get mad at my mother, it was right then. Our dirty clothes were none of my mother's business. Only asked her to keep the kids and feed the dog. I was as mad at her as my wife. I wish you'd write something about nosy mothers who overdo the domestic bit. Thanks. "NOSEY'S" SON

DEAR SON: A woman who would care for three hard-to-handle grandchildren under five years of age, and "run over"

daily to feed a dog is, in my book, an angel! Next time HIRE someone to do what your mother did out of the kindness of her heart and you won't have to worry about her "overdoing the domestic bit." P.S. Your wife was probably ashamed of having gone off and left soiled clothes behind, and her shame turned to anger when she learned that her negligence was no secret to your mother.

DEAR ABBY: In 1958 I started going around with a well-to-do married man who told me he had nothing in common with his wife any more. He said he loved me and if I would wait I would be married someday. I was married at the time and had a seven-year-old son. I gave up my husband and son to be available whenever this man wanted to see me.

All this time he told me we had to be careful not to be seen together because if his wife ever found out she could take him for every dime he had. I would cook dinner for him in my apartment and we never went any place.

Suddenly he quit coming around. I just learned that he is NOT married and never was. Tell me, Abby, what protection does a working woman, who can't afford to hire private detectives, have against a snake like this? BETRAYED

DEAR BETRAYED: None—and the next time you're tempted to "go around" with a married man, find out if he's married—and then forget it.

DEAR ABBY: A few girls in the office in which I work, including myself, would like your opinion of the following.

Do you think it is right for an employer to expect an employee to lie for him? When he does not wish to be disturbed, or talk to someone or see someone, he asks us to say that he is "out."

Is there anything we can do about this? Naturally, an employee must follow orders, but this doesn't seem right.

GUILTY CONSCIENCE
DEAR GUILTY: Don't nicker the boss's orders. He has his reasons for being "out" and they should be good enough for you.

NEW YORK (AP)—The visit of Pope Paul VI to New York Oct. 4 has brought a flood of requests for tickets to the mass he will say at Yankee Stadium. A spokesman for the chancery office of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of New York said requests are coming from as far away as Washington State.

The archdiocese said the public would be informed "in the very near future" how to get seats for the mass.

No tickets will be available at the stadium, a spokesman said, adding that church officials would handle the distribution and that there would be no charge.

U.S., Russia Join In Plan For Moon Lab

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—American and Soviet scientists joined today in proposing an international laboratory on the moon manned by scientists from several nations.

Proposals for the laboratory were discussed in papers submitted to a special lunar laboratory symposium at the Congress of the International Astronautical Federation.

The American proposal came from C. William Henderson of Manned Lunar Mission Studies of the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration and G. L. Mitcham of the Boeing Company of Seattle.

They said in a joint paper that man might be able to start landing big enough payloads on the moon by the mid 1970s to make the laboratory feasible.

They said the laboratories should have proper living and working space for its scientists and be assured of good communications with the earth. They said there also must be "sufficient and reasonably scheduled transportation systems to and from the earth."

Opening lead: King of ♣
A slight error in timing led to South's downfall in his four spade contract.

South's two spade bid, after North's overcall of two diamonds, was perhaps somewhat open to question inasmuch as the holding suggested a possible misfit. North was pleased to have another opportunity to speak, however, and he proceeded directly to game in spades.

West opened the king of hearts, and, observing the singleton in dummy, he chose to shift to the king of diamonds. The ace was put up by North and a diamond was ruffed in the closed hand.

The dummy was reentered by trumping a heart and another diamond was ruffed. When the queen and jack both fell, North's remaining diamonds became established. South ruffed his last heart, cashed the king of spades and led a diamond. East and South both discarded clubs and West ruffed with the queen of spades.

West led back a club, a small club was played from dummy and East won the trick with the king. South ruffed the heart return and cashed the ace of spades. When the two remaining trumps did not divide evenly, declarer was obliged to concede the setting trick to East's jack of spades.

South could have averted defeat on the deal by preventing his opponents from scoring their trumps separately. When the second diamond ruff establishes dummy's suit, declarer should refrain from trumping out his last heart in favor of cashing two high spades instead of merely the king.

If South first plays the ace of spades and then leads over to the king, only the jack remains outstanding. Now, when a high diamond is led from dummy, declarer discards the queen of hearts. East can ruff in whenever he likes, however, South is able to obtain two more sluffs subsequently on North's remaining diamonds by crossing over to the ace of clubs. In all he loses one spade, one heart, and one club.
