

Zachary Scott Rites Today In Hometown

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Zachary Scott, who switched with ease from swaggering drama to drawing room comedy in three decades as a leading man, died Sunday at the age of 51.

Death was attributed to a malignant brain tumor, detected after he complained of not feeling well last spring.

The moustached and darkly handsome star of stage, screen and television "simply went to sleep" about 5 p.m., said a brother-in-law, Fanning Hearon of Tryon, N.C. He said Scott had been in a coma for two days.

A private funeral service for members of the immediate family was arranged for today at the Scott home, "Sweetbrush." Burial was to be in a family plot at Austin Memorial Park.

Death came at the home of his mother, Mrs. Zachary Scott Sr. Her son, an Austin native, returned here Aug. 9, leaving for only brief radiation treatments by a physician.

It was the end of a career in which he played scores of stage parts and took roles in 34 films, mostly before he quit Hollywood in 1950 and returned to make his home in New York.

Scott was wont to characterize his usual screen role as that of "a heel with charm." Associates, describing him as far from a heel in private life, liked to recall how he induced fan clubs in the 1940s to adopt war orphans and send them food and clothing.

Born Feb. 21, 1914, Scott turned to the stage in high school and at the University of Texas. With parental consent, he left college at 19 and headed for England. They stipulated that he earn his passage and he sailed from New Orleans as a seaman aboard a freighter.

JUVENILE LEAD

He landed a juvenile lead in "The Outsider" with an English repertory company and appeared in nearly two dozen plays before returning to this country 18 months later.

Scott worked through summer stock to Broadway. Hollywood's Jack L. Warner spotted him in "Those Endearing Young Charms" and proffered his first movie contract in 1943.

With Scott during his final illness besides his mother were his wife, actress Ruth Ford, and one of his daughters, Mrs. William Crawford of Brooklyn Heights, N.Y.

Another daughter is Shelley Scott of New York City, born to Miss Ford by a previous marriage and adopted by Scott.

Bobby Joins Parade Again

NEW YORK (AP)—For the second consecutive year, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., created a stir by marching in New York's Pulaski Day parade.

Last year, as a candidate for the Senate, Kennedy was accused by some of using the parade for political purposes.

He and his brother, Sen. Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, D-Mass., joined the line of march at 30th Street Sunday. They were asked to leave 10 blocks later by parade committee Chairman Francis J. Wazeter and join him in the reviewing stand, which they did.

Said Wazeter: "We don't run the parade for personal publicity."

Reaction Mixed On Appointment Of Negro Bishop

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The appointment of a Negro bishop for the Roman Catholic archdiocese has brought expressions of mixed emotions.

Segregationists expressed outrage at the appointment of the Very Rev. Harold Perry to the church post.

Negro leaders beamed. Church spokesmen showed surprise and asserted they were pleased.

Demonstration To Follow Arrests

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP) — Charles Evers, state field secretary of the NAACP, said Negroes would demonstrate here again tonight despite the arrest of 409 civil rights workers in weekend demonstrations.

Police arrested 103 in the first of three attempted marches to the City Hall Sunday. Evers turned some 500 Negroes back after they ran into a police barricade the second and third times, both after dark. The number jailed, including a few whites, reached 409 with 19 pickets arrested Friday, and 16 pickets and 271 marchers picked up Saturday.

Most of those arrested have been taken to the state prison farm at Parchman, 200 miles to the north. Police said those 12 years old and older would be held at Parchman to await trial.

The marchers were charged with parading without a permit. The pickets were charged with contempt of court.

Chancellor Curtis Collins last

Thursday issued an order prohibiting both the NAACP and the Ku Klux Klan from any action that might increase racial tensions in Natchez. City officials asked for the order.

Evers said Negroes would continue marching until the city granted their demands, which included school desegregation and the hiring of Negro policemen.

Each of the marches started from the Beulah Baptist Church. None got farther than two blocks.

Police Chief J. T. Robinson met the first wave of Sunday's

marchers two blocks from the church and asked them to disperse. He said: "You're parading without a permit. No permit has been issued."

A Negro minister leading the group replied: "Chief, all we would like to do is go to jail and pray for our people you have. It's our constitutional right."

Then the marchers knelt for a prayer. When they got to their feet, Robinson said: "We think the place to pray is in church." He placed them under arrest.

Evers led the night marches. When they were stopped by Robinson and asked to disperse. Evers said: "We feel this is our basic constitutional right. We have been denied the right to picket and protest. We would appreciate it if you would step aside. We want to go to the City Hall and pray for our people in jail."

However, the marchers went back to the church. Evers and some of the others arrested earlier were released when they posted $200 bonds.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

Dear Abby

A Happy Recovery

DEAR ABBY: I don't know whether you'll remember me, but I met you while I was a patient at the Institute of Living in Hartford, when Dr. Zeller took you on a tour of the facilities. I recall how kind you were to me, and the encouragement you gave me both verbally and in the letters you wrote to me afterwards. You made me feel that you really cared about what happened to me. That's why I'm writing to tell you I've been medically discharged.

There were some rough times, Abby. God only knows how rough they were, but I never "let go" because I knew that my parents, friends, doctors and people like you were pulling for me. It may sound corny, but when a person is in a situation like I was in, it's important to know that people care. Sometimes the patient may act disinterested or even hostile, but he is just testing to see if the other person likes him well enough to accept him as he is.

I don't mind if you print this, Abby, to let friends and relatives know how important they are to a patient's progress. There are still many prejudices against those who have been hospitalized for a mental or emotional illness. I want people who have only heard of mental illness to know that we are like everyone else: We aren't possessed of evil spirits. We are "ill," just as if we had a broken leg or appendicitis. And most important of all, WE CAN BE CURED. I am now working and hope to go to New York and get my degree. Right now I am adjusting to being on the "outside." I know I am going to make it, Abby. Thank you for everything. And I sincerely mean it.

YOUR FRIEND
IN HARTFORD
DEAR FRIEND: And thank YOU for sharing your victory with me, and for permitting me to share it with others. You'll never know the number of people you've inspired and encouraged by your fine letter.

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago I was in a tough spot financially and stood to lose everything I had. My lawyer advised me to put everything in my wife's name. This was only a legal technicality to protect us both. Of course, I followed my lawyer's advice. Now the emergency is over and I want to change everything back the way it was, but my wife doesn't want it changed. She has never worked a day in her life in my business (or anywhere else, for that matter), and I can't see where she is entitled to have all our assets in HER name. Is there anything I can do about this?

INDEPENDENTLY BROKE
DEAR BROKE: Oddly enough, again you need the advice of a lawyer. And maybe a marriage counselor, too.

DEAR ABBY: Please put this in your column for all girls who are "waiting" for a married man. I waited four years. I was sure he would marry me if he could only get his wife to give him a divorce. I felt certain that if I went to her and explained everything I could get her to change her mind. Well, I called her on the phone and she very graciously invited me to her home to "talk things over."

I told her how much in love we were and begged her not to stand in our way any longer as I had waited four years. All the while, she sat there as cool as a cucumber. Then she asked me if I wanted the letters, birthday cards and valentines I had sent her husband at his place of business. She had them all tied together with a lovely pink bow. I won't go into detail, but I am now living in another state. I am 33 years of age and much wiser. If a married man even so much as smiles at me, I will laugh right in his face. If I live to be 100, Abby, I will never forget how cheap and small I felt while his wife was the perfect lady.

Police arrested 103 in the first of three attempted marches to the City Hall Sunday. Evers turned some 500 Negroes back after they ran into a police barricade the second and third times, both after dark.

The number jailed, including a few whites, reached 409 with 19 pickets arrested Friday, and 16 pickets and 271 marchers picked up Saturday.

Most of those arrested have been taken to the state prison farm at Parchman, 200 miles to the north. Police said those 12 years old and older would be held at Parchman to await trial.

The marchers were charged with parading without a permit. The pickets were charged with contempt of court.

Chancellor Curtis Collins last

Thursday issued an order prohibiting both the NAACP and the Ku Klux Klan from any action that might increase racial tensions in Natchez. City officials asked for the order.

Evers said Negroes would continue marching until the city granted their demands, which included school desegregation and the hiring of Negro policemen.

Each of the marches started from the Beulah Baptist Church. None got farther than two blocks.

Police Chief J. T. Robinson met the first wave of Sunday's

marchers two blocks from the church and asked them to disperse. He said: "You're parading without a permit. No permit has been asked. No permit has been issued."

A Negro minister leading the group replied: "Chief, all we would like to do is go to jail and pray for our people you have let's our constitutional right."

Then the marchers knelt for a prayer. When they got to their feet, Robinson said: "We think the place to pray is in church." He placed them under arrest.

Evers led the night marches. When they were stopped by Robinson and asked to disperse, Evers said: "We feel this is our basic constitutional right. We have been denied the right to picket and protest. We would appreciate it if you would step aside. We want to go to the City Hall and pray for our people in jail."

However, the marchers went back to the church. Evers and some of the others arrested earlier were released when they posted $200 bonds.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Dear Abby

A Happy Recovery

DEAR ABBY: I don't know whether you'll remember me, but I met you while I was a patient at the Institute of Living in Hartford, when Dr. Zeller took you on a tour of the facilities. I recall how kind you were to me, and the encouragement you gave me both verbally and in the letters you wrote to me afterwards. You made me feel that you really cared about what happened to me. That's why I'm writing to tell you I've been medically discharged.

There were some rough times, Abby. God only knows how rough they were, but I never "let go" because I knew that my parents, friends, doctors and people like you were pulling for me. It may sound corny, but when a person is in a situation like I was in, it's important to know that people care. Sometimes the patient may act disinterested or even hostile, but he is just testing to see if the other person likes him well enough to accept him as he is.

I don't mind if you print this, Abby, to let friends and relatives know how important they are to a patient's progress. There are still many prejudices against those who have been hospitalized for a mental or emotional illness. I want people who have only heard of mental illness to know that we are like everyone else: We aren't possessed of evil spirits. We are "ill," just as if we had a broken leg or appendicitis. And most important of all, WE CAN BE CURED. I am now working and hope to go to New York and get my degree. Right now I am adjusting to being on the "outside." I know I am going to make it, Abby. Thank you for everything. And I sincerely mean it.

YOUR FRIEND

IN HARTFORD
DEAR FRIEND: And thank YOU for sharing your victory with me, and for permitting me to share it with others. You'll never know the number of people you've inspired and encouraged by your fine letter.

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago I was in a tough spot financially and stood to lose everything I had. My lawyer advised me to put everything in my wife's name. This was only a legal technicality to protect us both. Of course, I followed my lawyer's advice. Now the emergency is over and I want to change everything back the way it was, but my wife doesn't want it changed. She has never worked a day in her life in my business (or anywhere else, for that matter), and I can't see where she is entitled to have all our assets in HER name. Is there anything I can do about this?

INDEPENDENTLY BROKE
DEAR BROKE: Oddly enough, again you need the advice of a lawyer. And maybe a marriage counselor, too.

DEAR ABBY: Please put this in your column for all girls who are "waiting" for a married man. I waited four years. I was sure he would marry me if he could only get his wife to give him a divorce. I felt certain that if I went to her and explained everything I could get her to change her mind. Well, I called her on the phone and she very graciously invited me to her home to "talk things over."

I told her how much in love we were and begged her not to stand in our way any longer as I had waited four years. All the while, she sat there as cool as a cucumber. Then she asked me if I wanted the letters, birthday cards and valentines I had sent her husband at his place of business. She had them all tied together with a lovely pink bow. I won't go into detail, but I am now living in another state. I am 33 years of age and much wiser. If a married man even so much as smiles at me, I will laugh right in his face. If I live to be 100, Abby, I will never forget how cheap and small I felt while his wife was the perfect lady.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Cut Book Covers Of Manilla Folders

Dear Heloise: Book-covering time, at the beginning of each school year, was always a problem until I thought of using manilla folders.

paper. Thanks a million. Heloise I cleaned the plastic tile in my bathroom with vinegar in the water, then dried and polished it with a bath towel. It looks like a mirror.

HELOISE

Dear Heloise: Before I start washing my windows, I always wipe them with a clean cloth first to remove the excess dust.

I wash my windows with my favorite cleaner, and find that they come cleaner because I do not have all of that dust (which, when wet, is plain mud!).

Scout Orientation To Start Here Tuesday

A one-day orientation course for adults new to the Girl Scout program, will be held Tuesday in the Girl Scout House, 1405 Lancaster, by the West Texas Council. Hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. council and national organization. Identification of the role of the troop committee will be of interest both to troop leaders and committee members. It is a basis for further training of leaders and is a prerequisite to most all other training events.

OWC Will See Show By Swartz

The wives of the 3500th Air Base Group of Webb AFB, headed by Mrs. Joseph H. Sherwood Jr., will be hostesses for the October luncheon of the Officers Wives Club to be held at the base Thursday.

Design Is Geometrical

Mrs. Bolton Mitchell was the honoree Friday evening for a pink and blue shower held in the home of Mrs. Rufus Tuckness, 1313 Stadium.

Hack Miller, Mr. Robert Baker, Mrs. Morris Griffice, Mrs. Fred Ross and Mrs. C. O. Tramm. Their gift to the honoree was an electric sterilizer.

Moods Add To Trend

What is modern? To most people it means functional furniture and design to fit in with today's smaller homes and apartments — plastics and sectionals and synthetics—all items to make life simpler in an age of do-it-yourself housewives.

Try Hair Cages

A hair cage is a new name for a snood which is a mesh-like beret worn at the back of the head to confine or hold the hair. Snoods or hair cages are pretty and feminine. Two typical ones include a black open netting with multicolored blossoms and a heavy white cotton lace, accented with a red bow at the front or top center.

Working With Wool Discussed By Clubs

Programs concerning home decorations and working with wool were presented during the meetings of the area home demonstration clubs.

hostess for the Tuesday meeting of the Knott Home Demonstration Club. Mrs. Delaine Crawford, county HD agent, conducted the program entitled, "The Walls Around Us." She suggested that in room decoration colors be selected that compliment the rest of the house.

Honored At Luncheon

Mrs. Donald Hathaway was honored Friday with a farewell luncheon in the home of Mrs. A. K. Halverson, 3701 Caroline, where Mrs. E. E. Miller served as cohostess.

CENTER POINT CLUB "Working With Wool" was the discussion topic at the Tuesday meeting of the Center Point Home Demonstration Club. The members met at the home of Mrs. Pat Anderson.

Class Will Work On Pastor's Study

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mrs. Rex McKinney was hostess to members of the Ruth Sunday school class of Baptist Church Thursday evening. Mrs. Homer Rice gave the opening prayer, followed by the group singing "I Love to Tell the Story" and repeating scripture. Mrs. W. A. Bell presented the devotion.

Final plans were discussed for the Thursday tour of homes by HD Club members, and Mrs. Aldon Ryan reported on her trip to the Houston State Convention.

Class officers for the new year were recognized. They are Mrs. Sam Scroggins, president; Mrs. Norman McMahan, vice-president; Mrs. Gerald Rollins, secretary; Mrs. Ralph Bryant, treasurer; Mrs. Johnny Shackelford, assistant secretary and assistant teacher; Mrs. Bell, reporter; Mrs. Troy Lankford and Mrs. C. E. Ranne, recreation; and Mrs. Rice, teacher.

Mrs. Hathaway and her children plan to leave the end of October to join Hathaway who is stationed in Okinawa. Eight guests were served informally from the buffet and the afternoon's entertainment included taking movies. The guests were Mrs. Hugh S. Bowden, Mrs. Harvey Kimsey, Mrs. F. W. Ethun, Mrs. Craig Skanichy and Mrs. W. B. Blackwell.

Some of the points Mrs. Hollingsworth stressed were that wool fabric should be preshrunk before sewing, and that wool is pressed with the grain. She also pointed out that wool is pressed on the wrong side and that a press cloth should be used at all times.

Mrs. Hollingsworth said that the stitch length, tension and pressure adjustments should be corrected on the sewing machine before working with wool. She added that wool is a quality fabric which requires due respect. If care is taken in constructing and pressing a wool garment, the results are very satisfying.

The next meeting will be Oct. 12 at the home of Mrs. L. D. Davidson.

OES Unit Holds Halloween Party

A Halloween motif was used at the Saturday morning brunch of the Coahoma Past Matrons of the Order of Eastern Star. The 17 attending met at Cokers Restaurant with Mrs. Donald McKinney presiding.

AAUW Has Change

A change has been announced for the American Association of University Women's Study Group gathering this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The women will meet in the Patio Room of Holiday Inn. The study will be "Antigone."

The visiting committee reported visits to Mrs. Ed J. Carpenter, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Engle, all of Vincent; and to Mrs. Bertha Hale.

Mrs. McKinney appointed a new visiting committee consisting of Mrs. Norman Read, Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. M. R. Turner.

'Don't Dodge City' Cast Does Volunteer Show

The cast of "Don't Dodge City" presented their variety show Friday evening for the patients of the Big Spring State Hospital. Sponsored by the Officers Wives Club of Webb AFB, the 25 member cast was on stage at the Alford Building auditorium with Mrs. Clifford Gallagher as mistress of ceremonies.

Thomas Tallon, Lt. Al MacFarland and Lt. Ronald King. Can-can dancers were Mrs. Neil Sorensen, Mrs. Gary Heartstill, Mrs. James Oxley and Mrs. Vernon Farmer.

Folk singers were Lt. and Mrs. Keeler, Mrs. Robert Pedigo, Mrs. Glenn Phillips, Lt. Parkell and Capt. Sullivan.

Following the program, the cast members presented six canteen books as attendance prizes.

Six Die In Crash; Violence Toll 34

By The Associated Press

A single highway crash took six lives as Texas counted 34 violent deaths during the weekend. The total included 26 traffic fatalities.

Five men and a woman perished in the worst accident, which occurred 10 miles east of Eagle Pass on US 277 shortly before dusk Sunday. State police reported one car veered across the road to meet another head-on.

Officers identified the dead in the Eagle Pass collision as Andres Rico, 42, of Villa Fuentes, Coahuila, Mexico; Leopoldo Martinez, 41, El Rosario Carras, Coahuila; Mrs. Catalina Gonzalez, 35, and Luis Ledesma, 31, both from the R. C. Goodwin Farms, at Hereford, Tex., and brothers Frank Morin, 28, and Jose Morin, 20, of Lampasas, Tex.

LONE SURVIVOR

The lone survivor was Gilbert DeLeon, 3, whose mother was one of the four killed in the vehicle driven by Rico. He was injured critically. The Morins were in the other car, which burned.

Victims of other accidents between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday included:

Mrs. June Zirblis, 40, of Arlington was killed Sunday in a collision of two cars on a rain-slick Texas 121 southwest of Lewisville.

Mrs. Patricia Credille of Lubbock was killed Sunday when her car careened off Texas 199 about 12 miles west of Springtown and overturned.

Margery Staples of Houston was killed Sunday in a two-car collision on US 290 near Cypress, north of Houston.

Castle Davidson, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. King Davidson of Grand Prairie, was fatally injured Sunday 5 miles west of Roanoke. Investigators said she apparently was thrown from her parents' car after it skidded on Texas 114 and hit two mail boxes.

UNKNOWN KILLER

Police said an unknown killer shot Guillermo Morales, 40, and Joe Pena, 36, early Sunday afternoon.

Desalt-Water Drive Widens

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States called today for the mounting of a worldwide cooperative effort to solve the problems of converting salt water to fresh economically and in the shortest possible period of time.

The call was sounded to the world's nations by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, who said man's survival is threatened by shortages of drinkable water and that desalting ocean and brackish inland waters offers the best answer.

Udall welcomed on behalf of the United States and President Johnson delegates from 65 countries including the Soviet Union to the first international symposium on water desalination.

He said the week-long technical sessions are designed to bring about an exchange of information and ideas by "the most impressive array of water engineering talent ever assembled in history."

"Nonetheless," Udall said in his prepared remarks, "we hope for more from this conference than a mere exchange of technical information."

Aid Withheld; Public School Crisis Looms

CHICAGO (AP) — An integration group has asked Mayor Richard J. Daley to intervene in the Chicago public school crisis involving $30 million in federal education funds.

The dispute arose Friday when the U.S. Office of Education ordered that $30 million in federal funds be withheld from Chicago public schools for failure to comply with the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

The Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, an organization of integration groups, appealed to Mayor Daley in a telegram Sunday.

"Because of an intransigent superintendent of schools and a school board hardly able to take the most feeble steps forward, segregation and inequality in Chicago's schools has brought on a crisis of catastrophic proportions with the withholding of federal funds."

"We now call upon you to enter this situation with vigor and determination to bring Chicago schools into compliance with the Civil Rights Act, and to encourage in every possible way the city's full cooperation with the U.S. Office of Education . . . School Supt. Benjamin C. Willis, 63, was rehired by the Chicago Board of Education in May to a four-year contract with the stipulation that he return on his 65th birthday in December 1966.

Integration groups contend Willis has maintained de facto segregation in the public schools.

The council, led by Albert Raby, appealed to Francis Keppel, U.S. commissioner of education, in July and asked that federal funds be withheld until the Chicago public schools are properly integrated.

The U.S. Office of Education in Washington said Friday that a preliminary investigation indicates some instances of failure in Chicago to comply with the 1964 Civil Rights Act. A federal spokesman added: "The Office of Education believes that the situation in these instances can, with the cooperation of Chicago school authorities, be resolved satisfactorily."

Willis added: "I feel it (the action) is despotic, alarming and threatening. It undermines the foundation of local control of public education."

Chicago has 662,000 public school pupils in some 550 elementary and high schools. About one-third of the pupils are Negroes.

Castro Tells Of Aide's Departure

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro says Ernesto Guevara, one of the key leaders of his revolution, finished his work in Cuba six months ago and moved on to revolutionary activity elsewhere.

Castro talked about his former close associate in a speech to a rally Sunday night. He did not say where Guevara, a native of Argentina, had gone or where he was now.

NEAR TEARS

Guevara's Cuban wife was in the audience, dressed in black. The crowd gave her an ovation when she entered. She appeared near tears.

Guevara had been minister of industries and in the first years of the revolution dominated the Cuban economy. He disappeared last spring, and since then there have been numerous conflicting rumors about his whereabouts.

Castro read a letter which he said Guevara gave him April 1. It said "other lands in the world" needed his services.

"FULFILLED DUTY"

"I have fulfilled the part of my duty that bound me to the revolution in your territory," the letter said.

"I formally resign from my post as major (the highest rank in the Cuban army), as minister (of industries), and my status as a Cuban (he was proclaimed a native Cuban citizen in 1959).

"My only mistake of any seriousness," the letter continued, "was not to have confided more in you since the first moments of the Sierra Maestra (where Castro's revolution started), and not having sufficiently understood your qualities as director and as revolutionary."

CONFLICT HINTED

There was no explanation of this apparent reference to differences between the two men. The letter added without explanation: "I liberate Cuba from any responsibility."

"In the new battlefields I shall carry on . . . the obligation to fight against imperialism wherever it may be," the letter said.

The letter expressed fond regards to Castro and other friends. It also expressed confidence the Cuban people would take good care of Guevara's wife and children.

Castro said he was "confident this explains everything" about Guevara, 37.

Talk In Cells To Be Radioed

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Hopkinsville Police Department moves today into its new $212,000 headquarters building including a jail with a microphone in each cell.

Police said any conversation, even a whisper, will be picked up by the microphones and transmitted to a radio room where an officer will be on duty at all times.

ANSWERS TO WEEKLY QUIZ

Q. 1—As South, both vulnerable with both 60 part scores, you hold:

♠AJ92 ♥7 ♦K2 ♣KQ10863

The bidding has proceeded:

East South

What do you bid?

A.—While this hand has the offensive power to justify a take-out double, we prefer a simple overcall of two clubs, first, because that is enough to complete the game and, secondly, a double may result in embarrassing heart bids from partner if he happens to have length in that suit. Furthermore, a simple overcall of two clubs may make it convenient for you to compete with spades on the next round if partner does not participate immediately.

Q. 2—As South vulnerable you hold:

♠AKJ94 ♥KJ963 ♦7 ♣K6

The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
3 ♣	Pass	3 ♥	Pass
4 ♠	Pass	?	?

What do you bid now?

A.—Despite partner's previous pass, we would feel very bullish about slam prospects. Any hand in which partner holds two aces should give us a splendid play for a slam in spades, and it doesn't matter which ace they are. We would, therefore, bid four no trump, which in this case is a clear-cut Blackwood bid and, even if partner has only one ace, a bid of five spades should certainly be safe.

Q. 3—Your side is vulnerable, partner opens with one heart and you hold:

♠Q42 ♥10753 ♦Q65 ♣K52

What is your response?

A.—Despite the fact that you have simple trump support you must refuse to raise to two hearts. This hand lacks the seven points in support of such declaration. Some actions, however, must be taken since you have the necessary high card strength to keep the bidding open. The proper procedure is to respond with one spade. Observe that in support of hearts this hand is worth only six points (a point is deducted when raising with a 4-3-3-3).

Q. 4—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠KQ852 ♥J8 ♦J964 ♣43

The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
Pass	1 ♥	2 ♥	3 ♥

What do you bid now?

A.—This is a very fine spade holding facing a partner who has made a game demand bid. It is well to paint a picture of your hand in one call. That would be a bid which says, "Partner, I have a very good spade suit." Our choice is, therefore, four spades. With this knowledge, partner should be able to judge the trick taking possibilities of the hand.

Q. 5—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠443 ♥75 ♦92 ♣987654

The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South	West
1 NT	Double	?	?

What do you bid?

A.—Two clubs. With this hopeless hand containing a six-card suit, the rescue bid is indicated, for there is too good a likelihood that West will leave in the contract of one no trump doubled.

Q. 6—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠AK72 ♥53 ♦A6532 ♣104

The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	2 ♥	Pass
2 ♠	Pass	3 ♣	Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—You have already fully described your hand, and a bid of three no trump is clearly indicated. It would be poor strategy to bid three diamonds at this point. Such a bid would show a rebidable suit and partner, relying on a better diamond suit, might be induced to take more drastic action.

Q. 7—Neither vulnerable, partner opens with one spade and you hold:

♠6 ♣AQJ96 ♦AKJ842 ♣2

What is your response?

A.—While the hand has the power to justify a jump shift, despite the lack of spade support, our vote is not for three diamonds, for the reason that we wish to conserve bidding space in order to show a six-five distribution. This will necessitate bidding the hearts twice after having shown diamonds, and a jump shift would use up too much room. Bid two diamonds.

Q. 8—Neither vulnerable, your partner has opened with a bid of two diamonds and you hold:

♠QJ53 ♥KJ84 ♦J9 ♣1084

What is your response?

A.—With eight points in high cards, including one-half quick trick, you have the textbook ingredients for a response of three no trump. A bid of two spades or hearts is not approved, for a suit response to an opening diamond bid should show a better suit than either of these.

Fierce Clash Breaks Out In Binh Dinh

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Fierce fighting broke out today between a Vietnamese army battalion and a strong Viet Cong force in Binh Dinh province, 275 miles northeast of Saigon.

A U.S. military spokesman said the battle was still raging late today. Government losses were described as heavy.

REBUILDING SPAN

The Vietnamese battalion was protecting an engineer battalion rebuilding a bridge which had been destroyed in heavy fighting near Phu Cu last week.

A relief force was dispatched but it reportedly made little contact with the enemy.

U.S. casualties in the action were described as light. All were advisers with the Vietnamese units.

South of the Da Nang Air Base, an estimated 150 to 200 Viet Cong ambushed a U.S. Marine patrol of 13 men and killed or wounded 19 of them Sunday. Reinforcements sent to aid them also suffered some casualties, a Marine spokesman said.

Viet Cong guerrillas popped out of deep tunnels "like rats from holes," a military spokesman reported.

SWEEP PADDIES

Three companies of Marines, backed by mobile artillery, swept the rice paddies and sugar cane fields 5 miles south of Da Nang but could not find the enemy force.

Maj. Gen. Lewis W. Walt, U.S. Marine commander in Viet Nam, said at least 11 Viet Cong were killed by infantry, artillery and air attack but other officers believed the toll was higher.

Another major battle appeared to be developing in South Viet Nam's southernmost province of An Xuyen, 130 miles southwest of Saigon.

Several government battalions caught up with a Viet Cong battalion, but there were no reports of casualties on either side.

Prison Rodeo Opener Held

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Ernie Ford made a hit with the opening crowd at the annual Texas prison rodeo—but some inmates grabbing at a wild bull with $50 tied between its horns ran him a close second.

Proceeds from the rodeo go to rehabilitate the 13,000 inmates of the penal system. Shows are held each Sunday in October.

"I hope to see you where I am—real soon," Ford told the convicts. Earlier he sang religious songs at services for the all-inmate congregation at the Chapel of Hope.

Doyle Boulware of Dallas, a bookkeeper in the prison hospital, snatched the $50 between the bull's horns.

Cissy Thurman of Bryan took the prize in the only non-inmate contest, girls' barrel racing. Her time was 20.3 seconds.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and State Rep. W. S. Healy of Paducah were special guests.

Otis Thomas of Wichita Falls presented the prison system a registered quarter horse in Healy's honor.

Shift Attitude Negroes Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., said today racial issues will fade when Negroes start emphasizing that education and personal responsibility are the keys to success.

"As long as you have self-styled Negro leaders who go about the country preaching to all Negroes that they are underprivileged, getting a bum deal, that they are entitled to preferential hiring, that they can take the law into their own hands—as long as they keep fanning the flames of racial hatred, I don't see how racial issues can disappear," he said in a copyrighted interview in U.S. News & World Report.

Talmadge proposed that the way to help racial issues disappear is for Negro leaders to say:

"You have every right now that a white man has—guaranteed by the Constitution and Congress. If you want to achieve success, you must exercise responsibilities that go with these rights. You must educate yourself and your children, learn a trade, develop some skill, use imagination, get into business for yourself."
