Bob Haney Wins Pig Show Honors

Robert Haney, Coahoma Future Farmers of America, won the Showmanship Award at the close of the 20th Annual Howard County Pig Show Thursday night at the fairgrounds show barn.

The award was presented by Dr. Mike Chowins of the Jaycees just before the auctioning of the top 30 barrows in the show to area and local merchants.

The reserve champion, Johnny Peugh's 205-pound Hampshire, went for $1 per pound, or $205. The hog was bought by Montgomery Ward and Ackery-Brown Paymaster Gin. The other 28 auctioned pigs' rates were: Kyle Tunnel's, purchased by First National Bank, 45 cents per pound; Robbie Haney, Farm Bureau Insurance, 45 cents; Debra Anderson, Shasta Ford, 45 cents; Terry Denton, Big Spring Wholesale Beer Distributors, 45 cents; Wanda Williams, State National Bank, 49 cents; Larry Shaw, Planter's Gin, Knott, 48 cents; Kelly Gaskins, Gound's Pharmacy, 46 cents; Kenneth Earley, Nalley - Pickle Funeral Home, 54 cents; Gloria Webb, Coahoma State Bank, 54 cents;

Medics Hope Patient To Walk Before Day's Over

WASHINGTON (AP) — Doctors at Bethesda Naval Hospital today hoped President Johnson would be on his feet again, at least for a few steps, by nightfall. A team of physicians, several of them recruited from the famed Mayo Clinic, performed the gall bladder operation.

Said 'Resting Well' After His Operation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's gall bladder operation was performed without complications today, and three hours later he was reported "doing well."

However, White House press secretary Bill D. Moyers said Johnson, as would any patient recovering from a gall bladder operation, was "experiencing mild discomfort."

The operation itself went "beautifully and as expected," in the words of one of the doctors.

"A SUCCESS"

It was pronounced a "complete success." The surgical team did find and remove a kidney stone in the ureter as well as removing the faulty gall bladder.

The ureter is a passage through which urine is voided. Moyers reported that Johnson began to emerge from an anesthetic sleep less than an hour after the surgery by a medical team enlisted in part from the famed Mayo Clinic.

He said he had talked with the President about 11 a.m.

Moyers said the doctors told him the operation was "routine." He said there was no cardiac irregularity at all and that the President's blood pressure remained normal throughout.

FAMILY NEAR

During the operation, Mrs. Johnson and daughter Luci, 18, remained in the bedroom across the hall from the President's. The medical estimate was that the President should remain in the hospital for 10 days to two weeks.

As is customary in abdominal surgery, there will be an early effort to get the patient to take a few steps and maintain muscle tone. The first may come before the day is out.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, acting under arrangements made by the President, took over as standby chief executive of the nation.

RESTING WELL

A few minutes after the surgery, Moyers gave word to newsmen that the operation was over and said the President was "resting well in the operating suite."

Moyers' statement that a stone was also located in the ureter means a kidney stone was also found in addition to a gallstone. No mention of the possibility of a kidney stone had been made in previous discussions of the President's current illness.

But the President has a history of kidney stones, having had two of them removed over the years — one by surgery and another one by manipulation at a different time.

Manipulation means that the kidney stone in that particular case was removed without opening the body surgically. The stone in that instance was probably removed by probing into the urinary tract from outside without actually opening the body.

IN 1955 Johnson had a kidney stone removed by surgery in 1955, the same year he had his heart attack. The stone that was removed by manipulation occurred in 1948.

Moyers said Dr. James Cain informed him that "everything went, in his words, beautifully and as expected. The President is resting well in his room."

Young Men With Weapons Disappear In Santo Domingo

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The sandbag machine-gun emplacement guarding the approaches to the rebel zone in Santo Domingo are gone. Stores and offices have reopened, and the young men with guns have disappeared. Pretty young secretaries stroll at lunch hour along El Conde Street.

The April rebellion is not over, but a visitor returning to the Dominican capital after two months is startled to find that El Conde is once again the Broadway of Santo Domingo and no longer an ominously empty street in the heart of the rebel zone.

New Nursing Class Scheduled

LAMESA (SC) — Norman Knox, administrator of Medical Arts Hospital, announced this week that a new class will begin in November for vocational nursing students. The class will be taught by Mrs. Ruth Owens, a registered nurse, and will consist of 12 months classroom instruction and clinical training.

Knox said the hospital has sponsored four previous classes for vocational nursing students and has had 26 LVN's completing the licensing examination given by the Texas State Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners.

REBEL ZONE

The rebel zone continues to exist — an enclave of 25 square blocks crowded with low-income homes and with its back to the sea. Barbed wire still surrounds the area, and troops of the Inter-American Peace Force patrol the perimeter.

But only the sentries carry guns. Most of the 10,000 foreign troops go about unarmed. Their Jeeps and trucks stick out strangely in the rush hour traffic. Young U.S. paratroopers scold about town on rented motorbikes.

Ex-Convict Hair Dresser Held In Attack-Murder

DALLAS (AP) — Authorities drew up charges today against a curly haired, former convict accused of raping and killing one of two girls kidnaped on their way to school.

Judy Ann Fogle, 16, telephoned police just before dawn Thursday to report she had just escaped an abductor who forced her to load the body of her husband into his car and later to dump it out.

Patrolmen found William Marshall, 30, a Dallas hair dresser, nude and unconscious on the back seat of a car a block and a half from where she made the call. Miss Fogle told officers he passed out after repeatedly gulping pills during the 20 hours she was held captive.

After Marshall was jailed, she led searchers to the unclad body of Wanda Sue Burgess, 15, beside a country road south of Dallas. It was hidden under bunches of freshly mowed grass.

Medical examiner Earl Ross said the dead girl was beaten brutally but she died from a bullet in the head.

Arresting officers took two guns, a crude blackjack and two knives from Marshall's car. They said he has served two prison terms for burglary and awaits trial on charges of carrying a blackjack and of possessing obscene films.

Day In Texas Bright, Clear

Bland and sunny weather enveloped Texas again today. It was bright and clear throughout the state except for a few clouds in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and occasional high, thin clouds in parts of the Panhandle.

A cool front which eased into the Panhandle Thursday evening proved so feeble it went unnoticed. Temperatures early today were down only to 48 degrees at Dalhart and 49 at Amarillo.

The mercury climbed to a warm 96 Thursday afternoon at Presidio in the Big Bend country. Top marks at other points ranged down to 79 at Dalhart.

No change was in prospect through Saturday. New five-day forecasts promised more cool air would invade the northern half of the state about Sunday or Monday. Little or no rain was expected.

Gun Death Brings Term

FORT WORTH (AP)—Thomas Burrell drew a 99-year prison sentence Thursday in connection with the fatal shooting Jan. 2 of a Fort Worth grocer.

Burrell, 23, changed his plea from innocent to guilty after Dist. Judge J. E. Winters overruled a defense argument that his confession was inadmissible. The judge then changed the charge from murder to armed robbery.

Grocer Benjamin Wilson was shot five times after the revolver he pointed at a trio of would-be robbers did not fire.

Burrell's brother James, 19, admitted driving the getaway car and told police how to reach Thomas. He received a seven-year sentence. A third youth committed suicide a night after the shooting with a gun taken from the grocer.

Furr's Charged In Labor Suit

Violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, in the matter of employees' wages and time-pay records, have been charged against Furr's, Inc., a Texas corporation headquartered at Lubbock. Defendant operates a retail grocery at Snyder, and other retail grocery establishments, as well as warehousing and distribution facilities, in Texas, New Mexico and Colorado.

Amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act in 1961 make such enterprises subject to the federal law and required them to pay non-exempt employees at least the legal minimum wage and overtime after 40 hours a week. The suit asks the court to enforce the withholding of minimum wages and overtime found to be due employees, and to ban such violations in the future.

Investigations which resulted in the suit were made by the Albuquerque office of the Labor Department's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

Oil Union Delays Strike As Some Agreements Reached

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — The Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, postponed indefinitely a strike set for 12:01 a.m., local time, today as contract agreements were reached with some major oil companies and negotiations continued with others.

A strike would have involved about 40,000 of the more than 100,000 members of the Denver-based union.

WAGE INCREASE
A.F. Grospring, president of the union, said a wage increase of 4.5 per cent was the basis of settlement of the dispute with California and Gulf Coast oil companies. The settlement carried a provision that no contract be extended beyond Dec. 31, 1966.

UNION REQUEST
Similar agreements were reported from other oil companies.

The union had sought a 5 per cent increase with a 15-cent hourly minimum. Refinery workers now average $3.30 per hour.

Grospring declined to name the companies with which settlements have been reached until he has received a complete report of all negotiations.

In Kansas City, the Phillips Petroleum Co. and the American Oil Co. reportedly reached the same contract agreement with the union as had taken place in Denver. A spokesman said the Great Lakes Pipeline Co. and the union agreed to extend the present contract 48 hours to pursue negotiations.

Standard Oil of Ohio reached agreements at all four of its refineries in Cleveland, Toledo and Lima. The settlement followed the general agreement and included a 15-cent hourly wage increase.

TEXACO, SHELL
A similar agreement was reported by the Texaco and Shell Oil companies at their plants in Anacortes, Wash. Some 400 workers were involved in the dispute with the two companies.

Texaco also settled its disagreement with the union in Oklahoma as did the Phillips Petroleum Co. In Louisiana the Shell Oil Co. at Norco reached agreement on a contract involving 370 union workers. A strike of 150 refinery workers at the Tenneco Oil Co. at Chalmette was postponed.

Settlement between the union and the American Oil Co. affected some 1,900 workers at plants in Salt Lake City, Utah, Texas City, Tex., Sugar Creek, Mo., and El Dorado, Ark. A company spokesman said the terms followed the national pattern.

Oil, Gas Hunt Decline Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new report tells the statistical story of the over-all decline in the search for oil and gas.

For example, in Texas, the leading oil state for many years, 13,132 wells were drilled for oil and gas last year, the smallest total since Texas became a major producer. In 1956 the number for Texas was 21,519 and in 1963 it was 13,468.

As it has for many years, Texas still topped all other states in the number of wells drilled.

ONE EXCEPTION
One exception to the trend was Louisiana, which was ranked second to Texas in the 1964 drillings. Louisiana was credited with 5,344 in 1964, compared with 5,282 in 1963 and 3,875 in 1956.

The report, prepared by the Independent Petroleum Association of America, showed Oklahoma had 4,516 wells drilled last year, 4,492 in 1963 and 8,056 in 1956.

For the nation as a whole, the report said 45,236 wells were drilled last year, up from 43,653 in 1963 but down from the 1956 total of 58,160.

BIG LEAD
In the total number of wells drilled for oil and gas since Edwin Drake punched in the first well near Titusville, Pa., in 1859, Texas is far and away the leading state. The report put the Texas total at 531,395. Pennsylvania was rated second with 284,163 and Oklahoma third with 269,802.

Of these totals, 172,189 in Texas, 37,072 in Pennsylvania and 75,266 in Oklahoma were dry holes.

U.T. System Enrollment Up

AUSTIN (AP) — Enrollment in the University of Texas system, with campuses from Houston to El Paso, totals 47,209 students, up 7.7 per cent from last fall's figure of 43,814.

This was reported to the board of regents Thursday by Vice Chancellor L. D. Haskew.

The main university at Austin posted a 9.5 per cent increase—26,320 students, compared with 24,001 the year before.

At Texas Western College in El Paso, enrollment climbed 11.9 per cent to 7,422 students, compared with 6,632 last year.

Arlington State College, which the Legislature transferred to the University of Texas from the Texas A&M system this year, showed a 3 per cent increase, from 11,513 to 11,845.

The medical branch at Galveston increased from 757 to 776. Southwestern Medical School's enrollment expanded from 406 to 414. The dental branch rose from 489 to 497 and the graduate school of biomedical science has 25 students, compared with 16.

Drouth-Stricken Northeast Soaked

By The Associated Press
Welcome rain, described by forecasters as the most important general rainstorm in months in some areas, continued today in the drouth-stricken Northeast.

Stormy weather battered areas in the Carolinas, Ohio and Michigan, with tornadoes, violent windstorms and heavy rain. One man was killed in a twister which struck Asheville, N.C.

Heavy rain drenched the Eastern seaboard, where drouth conditions in some areas have reached emergency status.

N.Y. DELUGE
Parched New York City received 1.05 inches of rain within the seven hours before midnight. Rain fell in the Catskills Mountain areas where the reservoirs feeding into New York City are located. Wind gusted up to 35 miles per hour in New York City.

The rain in New York City curtailed flights into John F. Kennedy Airport. Among the re-routed passengers was New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner, returning from the World Series in Minneapolis. He wound up in Detroit.

Expansion Due At Soup Plant

PARIS, Tex. (AP)—The $20 million Campbell Soup Co. plant in this Northeast Texas city has proved so profitable that expansion will be speeded within a year.

The firm's president, William Murphy, made that prediction Thursday at the formal dedication.

"Sales gains have been registered this year for every product made here, and in some cases these gains have been substantial," he said.

The first products were made here last November by about 1,000 employees.

"Consideration is already being given to an expansion of this plant and the installation of additional equipment at a much earlier date than was originally anticipated," Murphy said.

Business hasn't been too good today. But in a minute someone will come along for a shine. Johnny will have a dime, bright and inviting, lying in his palm.

What's he going to do with that dime? As he sits in the sun, visions dance in his mind. He could buy candy, ice cream, a new magazine. He could even save it for Sunday School... but then what good could a dime do.

Suddenly Johnny remembered a Sunday School lesson. Jesus had told how precious was the penny offering of a poor widow.

Next Sunday Johnny proudly dropped his dime in the offering plate.

Johnny's gift wasn't very much. It won't do a great deal to help the Church meet its financial needs. The important thing is: It helped Johnny! Going to Sunday School has put him on the road to becoming a real Christian businessman.

Weeps For Husband

The wife of Lt. Gen. Achmad Yani, Indonesian army chief of staff who was killed by rebels during attempted coup against President Sukarno, weeps at coffin of her slain husband during services in Jakarta Wednesday. Indonesia Red Center Burned

JAKARTA (AP) — Several thousand young Indonesian Moslems burned the headquarters of the Indonesian Communist party, the PKI, to the ground today.

Indonesian army troops who broke the back of the attempted coup last week cordoned off streets leading to the PKI headquarters and did not interfere with the demonstrators.

Deer, Police Car Collide

LIMERICK, Maine (AP) — A deer and a state police cruiser collided outside this southern Maine village. The trooper radioed for help in an upside down position.

Trooper Gerald J. Smith, 25, Limerick, said he was driving along Maine 5 when the deer jumped into the left side of the cruiser.

In swerving, the vehicle hit the soft shoulder and rolled over onto its top. A motorist stopped to help Smith extricate himself. The trooper sustained a wrenched shoulder. The deer ran off.

The bidding:
West. North East South
Pass 2 NT Pass 4 ♥
Pass 6 ♥ Pass Pass

Opening lead: Nine of ♥
South, the declarer at six hearts, was unduly influenced by an opponent's false card, and as a result he did not give himself the best chance to take 12 tricks.

North opened the bidding with two no trump holding a balanced hand with 23 high card points, counting the extra point for all four aces. South's jump to four hearts is a conventional response designating a good six card suit with about eight or nine points. North proceeded without further ado to six hearts, inasmuch as he had every control including the top two honors in trump.

Against the strong bidding of his opponents, West decided to adopt a neutral defense and he opened a trump. Declarer cashed the ace and king of hearts, followed by the ace of diamonds. A diamond was ruffed in the closed hand, and South drew the last trump discarding a club from dummy.

The eight of spades was led for a finesse and East won the trick with the king, a false card. A diamond was returned, which declarer ruffed in order to play the jack of spades. When West followed with the four, South took a second finesse. East produced the queen for the setting trick.

Declarer felt that he was unlucky in not finding one of the two spade honors in the West hand. In our opinion, it was a case of placing too many eggs in a single basket. He banked everything on the double spade finesse, giving up other chances that were available to him.

After the first spade lead loses to the king, it is suggested that South win the diamond return in dummy with the king and discard a spade from his hand. Now the ace of spades is cashed. If the queen does not drop, a third spade is led and ruffed in the closed hand.

In the actual circumstances, the suit divides three-three and North's fourth spade is established for a 12th trick. However, even if the long spade does not set up, South can still fall back on the club finesse as a last resort. To our way of thinking two or three chances are certainly better than one.

Crawfordville Campaign In King's Hands

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who had his worst setback three years ago in Georgia, emerged today in control of the civil rights drive in this small town after a power struggle with political implications.

Negroes involved in the Tallapoosa County school integration push voted overwhelmingly Thursday night at a mass meeting to turn over control of the movement to King and his Southern Christian Leadership Conference — and to continue demonstrations.

Another attempt to integrate school buses was scheduled today.

UP TO KING

"As far as I am concerned, the movement is out of my hands now," said Calvin Turner, the local Negro leader, at the mass meeting. "It is now in the hands of SCLC and Dr. King."

In a similar vein, Chairman W. E. Watson of the County Commission told newsmen that the dispute was out of local control. "Nobody is going to move in any direction until a moratorium is observed, until good faith is shown," he said.

Watson said Negro leaders have shown that they do not want a settlement.

Watson had joined with Gov. Carl E. Sanders in calling for a halt to demonstrations.

Turner asked for a show of hands on the question of control at Thursday night's meeting. Nearly all the approximately 150 Negroes voted for King and his SCLC.

SEEK MODERATION

The significance of this action lies in the fact that the governor and State Sen. Leroy Johnson of Atlanta, a Negro, had sought to solidify Georgia Negro leaders in a more moderate course that would have halted demonstrations—and blocked SCLC.

SCLC leaders, particularly Hosea Williams, the director of political education, said Johnson would not be a spokesman for the civil rights movement. Williams has charged the governor with a political play linked to his reported intentions of seeking a U.S. Senate seat next year.

King has a Monday visit to Crawfordville scheduled. It was in 1962 that King, winner of the 1964 Nobel Peace prize, lost his first major, mass demonstration campaign against segregation in Albany, Ga.

Staying In Atom Smasher Site Race Is Tougher Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission says the job of picking the finalists in the Great Atom-Smasher Site Race has now reached the critical stage.

Borrowing a phrase from astronaut lingo, an AEC spokesman also says that from now on, the "go or no-go criteria" for staying in the race will get progressively tougher.

It's obvious that the AEC, and the White House, still have a politically fierce tiger by the tail as the contest goes on for locating the $348-million 200-billion electron volt-BEV-machine.

85 REMAIN

A modest elimination contest already has been staged—with the results announced only recently after months of study by the AEC of 126 proposals, involving more than 200 locations, from 46 states.

But 85 semifinalists, representing 43 states, still remain in the running to land what Rep. Craig Hosmer, R-Calif., has termed "the 206 BEV bonanza—the government's biggest free offer to all comers since opening the Cherokee Strip to homesteaders in 1893."

Odessa, Tex., is one of the contenders.

A rich payoff in payrolls and prestige would come to the community landing the prize. And the contenders want it so badly that the majority of them have offered free land to the government—for example, a $10-million lure of this type offered by the State of Indiana.

CRITICIZE AEC

Rep. Hosmer, a member of the joint Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, criticized the AEC the day the commission formally announced its admittedly modest whittling-down of the contest entrants.

Hosmer asserted that the commission's recent action—leaving 43 states still in the fight—constituted "an inept attempt to keep its political skirts clean."

Criticism of the AEC also came quickly from a key Democrat on the joint committee—Sen. Clinton P. Anderson of New Mexico.

Asserting that the present list of 85 represents "not a very good scaling down" by the AEC from the original entrants, Anderson said: "I think it will do a lot to destroy confidence in the project." Remaining silent to such judgments, the AEC says that in the months ahead, stiffer criteria than those used so far by the commission itself will be applied to the contest survivors by a special committee of the National Academy of Sciences.

McDaniel, the AEC's director of research, who supervised the initial handling of the "bids" and prepared them for AEC study.

"We'll stay with the ball all along, he told a reporter, indicating that the full commission, as well as his own staff, would huddle periodically with the NAS group, and exchange views.

PICK WINNER

The NAS committee is supposed to weed out all but five or six of the 85 contenders—after which the AEC, presumably with White House concurrence, will pick the final winner.

"But the AEC is by no means handing over the whole thing to the academy," says Dr. Paul

Poverty War Gains Seen Amid Criticism

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's "war on poverty" enters its second year today, under investigation by Congress and the target of some criticism, but, with its chiefs convinced they are making progress.

There have been charges of poor administration from both Democrats and Republicans. There have been congressional suggestions that Sargent Shriver, the antipoverty commander, step out as Peace Corps director and give full time to running the Office of Economic Opportunity.

But Shriver and other top OEO officials appear confident. They say they had expected even more criticism because of the scope of antipoverty efforts and their new approaches to the poverty problem.

Corps center, officials say they feel they have solved their most serious administrative problems and are turning their major efforts to finding jobs for graduates.

And VISTA — Volunteers in Service to America — better known as the domestic peace corps, recently announced an expansion program and said it was further advanced now than the Peace Corps was at the same stage developments.

President Johnson signed legislation appropriating $793 million to the antipoverty programs a year ago today, but nothing much happened for another month.

Now, however, things have been moving so fast that Shriver recently cautioned that the programs soon will begin leveling off. To some, he said, this might appear to be a slowdown. Shriver brushes aside criticism of confusion and high personnel turnover. It was the same way at the Peace Corps, he says. "We had 150 per cent turnover the first two years at the Peace Corps."

The GOP task force on economic opportunity has been a frequent critic of Shriver.

The House Education and Labor Committee, meanwhile, has begun a nationwide inspection of some antipoverty projects.

The chairman, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., has named a special staff to conduct hearings, and this week, Rep. Roman Pucinski, D-Ill., opened hearings on the antipoverty situation in Washington.

A SUM-UP

OEO officials sum up their first year this way, statistically:

- Community action programs, ranging from classes to teach migrant workers how to handle their money to dissemination of birth control information, more than 1,100 grants totaling $218,520,599 in more than 1,000 cities and counties in all 50 states.
- Head Start, a preschool program for children, more than 560,000 children in 13,344 child development centers in all 50 states at a cost of $82,697,391.
- Job Corps, designed to take school dropouts and prepare them for a return to school or jobs, nearly 13,000 — some 11,500 men and 1,300 women — in 66 centers at a cost of $238 million.
- VISTA, 1,213 volunteers in service, 264 in training; 29 urban projects, 126 rural projects at a cost of $6,018,735.
- Neighborhood Youth Corps, 348,338 youths with jobs in 916 projects at a cost of $184,206,648.
- College work study, 105,030 students in 1,092 educational institutions working to help pay tuition at a cost of $55.7 million.
- Work experience, 98,136 heads of families working in 916 projects at a cost of $124,199,200.
- Adult basic education, 43,000 persons receiving literacy training; 34 state plans approved finally, 11 state plans approved conditionally. Total cost $14,620,364.

Betty Grable Gets Divorce From James

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The public wasn't invited, there was no music and the script was secret when the marriage of Betty Grable and Harry James reached the ending so familiar to film folk: divorce.

The glare of flashbulbs and a fanfare of publicity heralded their wedding 22 years ago Thursday the decree was handed her in a sealed judgment after a private hearing, by Clark County District Court Judge John Mowbray.

The announced reasons for the breakup were extreme cruelty and mental cruelty.

Two decades ago, Betty became pinup queen for millions of servicemen who ogled and catcalled when her famous legs flashed across the silver screen.

Matching her smile, the infinitely sweet trumpet of circus-trained Harry James consoled the girls the GIs left behind during World War II.

James, 49, and Miss Grable, 48, met in 1940 and were married three years later after appearing in the film "Springtime in the Rockies." She had married actor Jackie Coogan in 1939. They were divorced two years later.

Miss Grable has been in semi-retirement. James spends several weeks each year playing at Nevada hotel casinos and another few weeks on the road. Not long ago he said his band still makes $600,000 a year.

She and James have two daughters, Vicki, 22, and Jessica, 18.

Six Japanese Boats With Crews Lost

TOKYO (AP) — Six Japanese fishing boats with about 200 crewmen were reported missing today in the South Pacific after mighty Typhoon Carmen raked the area Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Maritime Safety Board made this report following an intensive air and sea search around the Marianas Islands about 700 miles south of Tokyo.

Two Japanese patrol boats and three U.S. planes from Guam began combing the area early today.

The typhoon, with maximum winds of more than 190 miles an hour, was east-southeast of two Jima today and moving north.

It was reported earlier from Guam that Carmen hit the tiny U.S. trust territory of Agrihan Island near Guam today, destroying buildings and sinking five Japanese fishing boats.

Paratroopers Use Tear Gas In Viet

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. paratroopers launched a big new operation on the fringe of the Viet Cong's "D" zone and used nonlethal tear gas, a U.S. military spokesman said.

No further details were immediately available on the gas attack, but the spokesman said the American troops had made "significant contact" with the Viet Cong.

FLUSH CONG

In a major change of policy, the field commander had been authorized before the operation to use nonlethal tear gas if he deemed it necessary. The object was to flush out the Viet Cong without wounding or killing non-combatants.

Thousands of American troops combed a densely jungled area about 30 miles north of Saigon. Australian forces supported the operation.

MOVE IN

B52 bombers from Guam hammered the area twice before the U.S. ground offensive.

The paratroopers of the 173rd Airborne Brigade landed by helicopter and moved into the Viet Cong area in convoys along Highway 13, near the district capital of Ben Cat.

The spokesman gave no details on the fighting, but it was believed to have been heavy.

CASUALTIES MODERATE

A personnel carrier hit a Viet Cong mine and overturned. Casualties were reported moderate.

The Americans also drew sniper fire as the convoy moved deeper into guerrilla territory.

U.S. spotter planes circling the skies following the B52 raids drew enemy fire, but there was no indication that any of the planes were shot down.

LONGEST OPERATION

The operation was taking place in the same area where paratroopers of the 173rd completed a giant two-week sweep last week — the longest operation involving U.S. troops of the war.

The D Zone is a huge jungle area which the Viet Cong has dominated for years. It has been a frequent target of U.S. bombers, and American troops have been nibbling at its fringes repeatedly in recent months, looking for the Viet Cong and destroying their installations and stores.

GENERAL'S OKAY

Informed sources said the authorization to use tear gas in the operation was given by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Viet Nam, because it was felt that nonlethal gas was the most humane weapon that could be used in certain situations the paratroopers probably would encounter.

Events-Jammed Evening Preceded Hospital Entry

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than two hours late on surgery's eve, President Johnson walked up the broad steps of Bethesda Naval Hospital at 11:40 p.m.

Behind him lay a busy day, and an evening of drama, some of it unexpected and strange.

For one thing, the President tarried long in the White House, hoping that the House would come through with quick approval of the "beautiful highways bill" so dear to the First Lady's heart.

But it was not until 12:30 a.m. that the House, locked in angry debate, got around to giving Johnson this "get well" gift — and by that time the President was in the hospital.

The delay of the bill in turn put a crimp into Thursday night's big "Salute to Congress" show in the State Department auditorium. When Johnson finally got there, the hall was mostly empty because, among other reasons, House members couldn't make it. They were in the House chamber while many of their wives, clad in evening gowns, awaited them grumpily in the galleries.

The President spoke informally:

"I have a midnight deadline," he said, "I'm back in school again, and they're going to call the curfew on me."

"I regret very much," he said, "that all the members of Congress could not be with us, because they saw their duty, and I hope they are doing it, and I believe they are."

Later the Salute to Congress fete got going — buffet dinner party spread over five rooms and the main lobby of the White House.

By then, Johnson had left for the hospital. He had been expected to check into Bethesda about 9:30 p.m.

Head Start, a preschool program for children, more than 560,000 children in 13,344 child development centers in all 50 states at a cost of $82,697,391.

Job Corps, designed to take school dropouts and prepare them for a return to school or jobs, nearly 13,000 — some 11,500 men and 1,300 women — in 66 centers at a cost of $238 million.

VISTA, 1,213 volunteers in service, 264 in training; 29 urban projects, 126 rural projects at a cost of $6,018,735.

Neighborhood Youth Corps, 348,338 youths with jobs in 916 projects at a cost of $184,206,648.

College work study, 105,030 students in 1,092 educational institutions working to help pay tuition at a cost of $55.7 million.

Work experience, 98,136 heads of families working in 916 projects at a cost of $124,199,200.

Adult basic education, 43,000 persons receiving literacy training; 34 state plans approved finally, 11 state plans approved conditionally. Total cost $14,620,364.

Rain Damage Said About $25 Million

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A Weather Bureau spokesman estimates the record rain of almost 17 inches that swamped Mobile Sept. 30 probably caused about $25 million in damages.

Stand-In Humphrey Kept Well-Informed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, saying he was being "kept fully informed" on the condition of President Johnson, went to work this morning as stand-by chief executive.

Humphrey left his suburban Maryland home about 8:45 a.m. after receiving the usual morning briefing and speaking by telephone to White House news secretary Bill D. Moyers.

Moyers told Humphrey that Johnson was in good spirits before he was wheeled into the operating room at Bethesda Naval Hospital.

BACK ROUTE

Humphrey was barely noticed by passers-by as his limousine with a Secret Service car trailing, used a back route from the Maryland suburbs into the capital.

He then disappeared into the vast ornate executive office building across a narrow street from the White House.

Before leaving his home, Humphrey told newsmen "I'm just going down to the office."

KEPT INFORMED

Humphrey said he intended "to stay close to the executive office today" and that he was being kept informed of developments at the hospital by members of the presidential staff.

His aides tend to underplay the dramatics and to stress the "business as usual" theme, despite the unusual day.

They shy away from any description of Humphrey as acting president.

Technically that's Humphrey's role during the time Johnson is under anesthesia and for an uncertain period afterward.

"ACTING PRESIDENT"

The informal disability agreement between Johnson and Humphrey provides that the vice president serve as "acting president" until the President's inability has ended.

But an aide argued against too broad an interpretation. "The vice president would be acting president in a situation where he had to act as president, such as in dire international emergency," he said.

No one, including Johnson and Humphrey, expects any drastic change internationally, and certainly not one that would force Humphrey to make the ultimate decision — whether to trigger America's nuclear weapons.

The President hopes to be "conducting business as usual" in a minimal length of time, and the doctors plan to have him on his feet briefly for a few painful steps before evening.

Richard Nixon, who found himself in a similar spot as vice president during the three illnesses of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, sympathized with Humphrey.

He predicted Humphrey will find that his job is tougher than actually being president during the time Johnson is under the weather because "this is when you have the responsibility without the real power."

H-SU Has 1,762

ARILENE — Final registration at Hardin-Simmons University for the 1965-66 fall term is 1,762, according to Mrs. Madge Grba, registrar. Originally university officials announced that registration was approaching 1,750. This compares to 1,590 students last year, Mrs. Grba said. The freshmen class of 588 is the second largest in the university's history.

Men Head Panels On Women Status

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — The Wisconsin State Commission on the Status of Women has named five temporary committee chairmen. Three of the five are men.

Four Students Accused In Maiming Suspended

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — Four students charged with assault and mayhem on three schoolmates were suspended Thursday by North Texas State University President J. C. Matthews.

He also suspended their fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha.

The four students are Byron McClellan Jr., 22, a senior from Gatesville; Robert Glenn, 22, senior from McKinney; Trenton Torregrossa, 20, and Ernie Bovio, 19, both of Galveston. Each is free under $3,500 bond.

All are members of Pi Kappa Alpha except Bovio, who is a pledge.

They are accused of going from apartment house to apartment house near the Denton campus early Tuesday after a drinking party in Oklahoma and beating up three students they didn't know.

Michael Portman of Dallas lost an eye after being smashed across the face with a bottle. Joe Bourj Jr., also of Dallas, suffered severe shoulder cuts from being knocked through a plate glass door. Joe Cole Jr. of Cleburne escaped with bruises.

None of the victims knew his assailants.

"The whole thing was senseless and unprovoked," Police Chief Wayne Autry said, reporting officers have been unable to determine any motive. "They can't give an explanation themselves."
