Klansmen May Parade In Austin

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Up to 150 Klansmen may parade down the main avenue of Texas capital city this afternoon if the plans of exalted cyclops Royce McPhail are fulfilled. McPhail, a 35-year-old Crockett insurance salesman who says he is acting kleeagle or spokesman for the Klan in Texas, called for the four-block march down Congress Avenue to the Capitol at 3 p. m. to support the U.S. stand in Viet Nam.

Cotton Surplus Record Looms For America

WASHINGTON (AP)—The rest of the world offers little hope this year of helping the United States avoid accumulating its largest cotton surplus on record. A new review by the International Cotton Advisory Committee pointed to this conclusion after forecasting for 1965-66 the fourth consecutive season in which the world as a whole will produce more cotton than it uses and end up with a new record high carryover.

Gifts For Servicemen Pose Pentagon Problem

WASHINGTON (AP)—An upsurge of popular reaction to recent anti-Viet Nam war demonstrations is threatening to drown the Pentagon in a sea of gifts, fruit cake, books and other things for U.S. servicemen in the war zone. The generosity is welcomed by the Pentagon which views it as an expression of support for U.S. policies. But the unsolicited offers from individuals, organizations, schools, business firms and other groups is creating a logistics problem — how to move the stuff, and what to do with it once it arrives in Viet Nam. Defense officials have been worrying with the problem for days. They don't want to offend the Five In N.Y. Burn Their 'Draft Cards'

NEW YORK (AP)—Five men burned what they said were their draft cards at a pacifist rally attended by about 2,000 persons in Union Square Park Saturday.

There was applause as the cards went up in flames, and most of the crowd joined in singing, "We shall overcome." There were some counterdemonstrators in the crowd. One squirted water on the card-burners from a portable device, and was seized by police.

Across the street, about 100 counterpickets marched with signs, one of which read, "Burn yourselves instead of your draft cards."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation said it was investigating but no arrests were imminent. The law, signed Aug. 30 by President Johnson, provides a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Meg, Under Heavy Guard, Crosses Bay

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Shielded by security guards from sight of a nearby labor union picket line, Britain's lively Princess Margaret got into a wave-skimming boat Saturday, crossed San Francisco Bay and showed how royally can have nuclear-age interests. Aides said the princess, dressed in a bright red suit and needlepoint fez, had trouble tearing herself away from a nuclear medical treatment center at the University of California's Berkeley campus. The princess, accompanied by her husband, Lord Snowdon, spent 20 minutes in a medical cave of the university's huge cyclotron at the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory.

WESTERN BARBECUE

Later waving and smiling, the happy couple left Oakland International Airport in a twin turboprop plane for a 120-mile flight to scenic Monterey Peninsula — and a Western-style barbecue of wild boar. The trip from San Francisco to Oakland and the university was made in a wave-skimming hovercraft operated by a company involved in a labor dispute with transport workers. Although police withdrew the picket line 40 feet from the terminal, a Transport Workers Union spokesman, William F. Rossi, said, "In my view, the princess was crossing a picket line."

TRIP OKAYED

But a British consulate spokesman said the trip was made on the judgment that the picketing was not part of any strike action. Princess Margaret, who never saw the pickets, told Oakland's Mayor and Mrs. John Houlihan after completing the crossing: "It was like a deflated bug, like something out of Jules Verne."

PHYSICS RESEARCH

After they emerged from the cyclotron, Dr. McMillan showed the princess a model of a bevatron, a cousin to the cyclotron which is used in high-energy physics research. As she turned to leave, Jerry Goldstein, 22, student body president, handed the princess two packages wrapped in the school's colors, blue and gold. "One's a kangaroo and the other's a dog with glasses," Goldstein told the princess. "They are stuffed animals from the student store. We thought your children would enjoy them."

Cubans March On Capitol

WASHINGTON (AP)—A group of young Cubans completed a 27-day march from Boston to the U.S. Capitol Saturday, bringing with them a petition signed by some 10,000 expressing concern over the plight of Cuba. The petition was presented to an aide of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn. The aide, David Martin, told the Cubans it will be passed on to President Johnson. "We do not want American GI's to spill their blood" the petition read. "We do not ask for an American invasion of Cuba. We ask rather for the moral and material support of the Cuban freedom fighters, both inside and outside the country."

Treaty Spurs Mass Refugee Airlift Plans

Exile Colony Still Wants Castro Out

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Miami's large exile colony looked forward Saturday to thousands of family reunions as a U.S.-Cuban agreement opened the door for mass refugee airlifts, but they insisted that getting Prime Minister Fidel Castro out is more important. Juanito Castro, sister of Fidel and Armed Forces Minister Raul Castro, not anticipating a family reunion, echoed the general exile sentiment: "The flights that will bring thousands of refugees will afford many families the opportunity of happy reunion in this land of freedom."

OUST REDS

"But now, more than ever before, it is urgent to intensify the fight to liquidate the Red regime of Cuba. The seven million Cubans who are victims of that dictatorship also have a right to freedom. They will be able to get it only through liberation of Cuba from the Communist yoke."

NO APEASEMENT

"The fact that the United States has opened its doors to the refugees does not signify in any sense, as we interpret it, that it intends to negotiate anything further with Communist Cuba."

SHOW CONCERN

Other activist groups agreed Exiles voiced concern over the situation of the crewmen of some 200 boats stranded at Camarioca, Spain where nearly 3,000 refugees were shuttled to Key West before their exodus was halted Thursday.

TO OUTPOST

Unofficial sources said one of the men had escaped and made his way to a Vietnamese government outpost. This was their story, officially unconfirmed. The man reported a second American escaped with him, but was later recaptured. The man was reportedly got away was quoted as saying he heard the shout "No, no, no," and then a burst of gunfire. There was no word on the other two men. Military authorities declined to identify any pending notification of next of kin. All were based at Tan Son Airport in Saigon.

LIYING LOW

The Viet Cong generally were lying low after their defeat last month in the central highlands battle of Plei Me, which is estimated to have cost them 750 or more. However, South Vietnamese troops reported they killed 12 guerrillas and captured five in a sweep south of Saigon. The abducted airmen were in a car when stopped by the Reds. There was no explanation as to why they were traveling by car instead of plane or helicopter as is usually the custom of small American groups making the trip between Saigon and Vung Tau.

POSSIBLY KILLER

The American reported to have escaped was quoted as saying he believed one of the other three may have been killed as he tried to shoot his way to freedom. Villagers were reported to have seen an American wandering this week near the scene of the abduction, but it was not known whether it was one of the men who was captured. The sources said the Americans were apparently hiding in the car, driven by a Vietnamese, when the abduction took place. The four were stationed at Tan Son Nhut airport in Saigon.

CONG TUNNELS

Aground, men of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division probed an extensive Viet Cong tunnel system they uncovered in hills 20 miles north of Saigon. Briefing officers said the Americans killed at least five Viet Cong and overran an underground medical station in action that cost "hem light casualties." The tunnels were head high and several ran as far as 60 feet into the hillsides. Many contained demolition charges left by the guerrillas.

Airmen Abducted By Cong Hunted

SAIGON, South Viet Nam

(AP)—A U.S. spokesman announced Saturday night the Viet Cong abducted four U.S. Air Force noncommissioned officers last Sunday and an intensive hunt is under way to recover them. Helicopters and planes scanned the countryside for clues. The four were reported stopped at a Red roadblock while returning to Saigon from leave in Vung Tau, a seaside resort and military center 45 miles southeast of this city. The trap was sprung only five or 10 miles from Vung Tau.

Thousands Due Entry Each Month

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—The United States and Communist Cuba sealed Saturday an agreement allowing 3,000 to 4,000 Cubans a month to find refuge in this country. The starting deadline is Dec. 1 and there is no cutoff date. The emphasis will be on reuniting thousands of families. Officials make no predictions on how many Cubans may leave their homeland under the new pact but the total is expected to run beyond 100,000.

OVER 250,000

The government puts the number of Cubans who already have taken asylum in the United States at more than 250,000. Before the 1962 Cuban missile crisis halted travel, about 8,000 Cubans were coming in each month. The flight of the refugees from Cuba will be literally that. Commercial airliners chartered by the U.S. government will pick them up at the Varadero Airport, 60 miles east of Havana, and land them at Miami, Fla. Some will join the Cuban colony in the Miami area but refugee centers are expected to funnel most of them to other parts of the country. President Johnson announced the new refugee agreement, negotiated through the Swiss Embassy in Havana as the representative of this country, and said in a statement: "I am pleased with the understanding which has been reached. It is an important forward step in carrying out the declaration I made on Oct. 3 to the Cuban people. I said that those who seek refuge here will find it. That continues to be the policy of the American people."

BESIDE SHRINE

Johnson was referring to a speech he made beside the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor in which he quickly took up Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro on a sweeping promise to fling open Cuba's gates to any and all wishing to leave. Castro wished when it came to actual negotiations. While the matter is open for further discussions, he wound up by slamming the doors to political prisoners, men of military age and technicians he wants to keep. Differences over this held up the agreement for days. Furthermore, the U.S. government regards the refugee agreement as no real omen of a general improvement in Cuban-American relations.

SEVENTEEN LOCALS MAKE REGION CHOIR

Seventeen out of 24 Big Spring High School choir members became eligible for the all-region choir concert to be held here Jan. 15. Six of the 17 will be eligible to audition for the all-state choir in parent-thesis, here: HERE'S LIST First soprano — (Karen Elrod), Patsy Thompson, (Sheryl Gambill); second soprano — Annette Fitzhugh; first alto — Beth Hayworth, (Daphna Jackson); second alto — Kay Bettle, Philis Hall, Joyce Rives, Cheryl Colclazer; first tenor — Chris Stewart; Baritone — (Larry Harp), Don Crockett, John Walker; Bass — (Don Haney) (John Seitzler, Charles Macklin. Regional participants eligible to audition for the all-state choir, will go through the process again here in January when the all-region concert is held.

600 PARTICIPATE

About 600 students from high schools over the region, reaching from Abilene to Marfa and from Ozona to O'Donnell, took part in the auditioning in the high school auditorium beginning at 8 a.m. Saturday. Auditions were completed at 6:30 p.m. "Seven of the members qualifying for the all-region choir

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

Webb AFB's next commander will be Col. Chester J. Butcher, 43, who presently is assigned to the Pentagon in Washington. D.C. He is a West Point man and also holds graduate degrees from Princeton and Georgetown, plus graduate experience in management at Harvard. He is expected to come here by mid-December shortly after Col. Gus Taute goes to NORAD in Colorado Springs as director of operations. his acceptance on Monday and announced the appointment two days later. Friday was a bad day at Blackrock so far as Big Spring was concerned. It took two plays for the lightning to strike at Permian Odessa. We were outmanned and outclassed, but several defensive and offensive errors helped to run the score up. Maybe we can get revenge on Odessa High here Friday. After having come almost to a standstill, our United Fund found rejuvenation last week. Approximately $14,000 was reported in, boosting the total to about $78,000. Another week like this would put us within $5,000 of the goal. While Howard County managed to escape the list of traffic toll, those elsewhere were brought sadly home. In Odessa a truck-car collision took two lives, one of them Morris Glenn Standerfer, 37, who spent most of his life in Martin County. On Thursday, Mrs. Pauline Dudley (See THE WEEK, C. 3, P. 8-A.)

Other changes were announced, too. Elmer Boatler announced he was stepping down as postmaster after 43 years of postal service. Frank Hardesty was announced as his successor. Other retirements at the post office included a trio of old timers — Ervin Daniel, A. C. Preston and R. A. Nunn. Another honor was paid to one of our citizens, and to the community, with the appointment of Raymond Tollett to the board of North Texas State University. His duties take effect immediately and he will serve in this post for a period of six years. Gov. John Connally got givers. And yet they would like to channel the generosity in some other direction. One proposal, endorsed by the U.S. command in Viet Nam, would have communities in the United States adopt some unit in Viet Nam. Leaders of the community would contact members of the unit, find out what the men really wanted, and attempt to supply their wants. It would be a kind of "buddy system." The offers to do something for the boys began pouring into the Pentagon about two weeks ago. Officials said the citizens who wrote in, telegraphed and telephoned obviously were reacting against draft card burners and other demonstrating openly against U.S. involvement.

Frost Time Nears, Harvest Steps Up

Less than a fifth of Howard County's 1965 cotton crop had been ginned through Friday. Some increase in defoliation had been noted, particularly in the northwestern corner of the county. No real freeze had been reported, although some fields in the county showed signs of being slightly nipped by the cold.

Meantime, next Wednesday is the normal frost deadline for the county. Over the years, the average first killing freeze of the year has struck on the tenth of November.

Texas Employment Commission said that a check of the 13 gins in the county revealed that 1,992 bales had been ginned. The crop estimate is still pegged at 40,000 to 45,000 bales. There is no reason to decrease the estimate, observers say — indeed, many feel that if the frost will hold off for another 10 days or two weeks, the crop will be boosted by several thousand bales.

About 80 per cent of the bolls are open. A few fields have been defoliated, but as a whole, the majority of the cotton men are waiting on frost—hoping it will be late.

Glasscock County has what some observers believe may be one of the best crops in its history. Jimmy Taylor, vice president of the First National Bank, said that he has talked with a large number of Glasscock County cotton men, and they have told of many fields making from 2 to 2½ bales to the acre. There are some fields which will undoubtedly produce three bales to the acre. Nearly all of Glasscock County's cotton is concentrated in the St. Lawrence area and is irrigated. Midland TEC said 2,010 bales had been ginned and that at least 90 per cent of the fields are open. The crop estimate for Glasscock is 12,000 bales.

Martin County, with a thin crop, has ginned 4,785 bales, Midland TEC said. The crop is 90 per cent open. The estimate is 30,000 bales. TEC is hopeful a late frost will make it possible to up this estimate as the season wears on.

Midland County has 1,894 bales ginned of its 15,000 crop. In this county, the fields are also said to be 90 per cent open. In Dawson County, where only 65 to 70 per cent of the crop is ready to pull, the gins have already turned out 17,875 bales. TEC at Lamesa clings to its 140,000 bale estimate and expects, if all goes well, to hike the estimate as the season goes on. Much of the cotton in the north part of Dawson county, TEC said, is late which accounts for the low percentage of open bolls.

No killing frosts have struck in any of the counties in the Big Spring area. When the first hard freeze hits, the gins, now operating on a hit-and-miss schedule, will be on full time operation.

Sales Roundup On Livestock

CHICAGO (AP) — Here is a summary of the week's cattle, hog and sheep sales:

Hogs — Compared Friday last week—Barrow and gilts, 1.00-1.25 higher. Sows strong to 50 higher.

Barrow and gilts — On the close, mostly No. 1 and 2, 190-225 lbs 25.50-27.75; mixed 1-3, 190-240 lbs 24.75-25.50; 2 and 3, 240-280 lbs 24.00-24.75.

... Sure Enough, There He Is

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — When supermarket manager Omer Hershey answered the phone, the voice on the other end ordered him to give all his money to the man in the blue sweater.

Hershey said he looked up — and there was a man wearing a blue sweater. Hershey gave him $300, and the man walked out.

Rig Overtakes But Driver Is Unhurt

Clarence C. Davis, Atlanta, Ga., truck driver, escaped injury Friday at 12:30 p.m. when his Allied Van Lines tractor-trailer overturned on the north service road near IS 20 and State Farm Road 821, according to police.

Officers said the right front tire of the big truck blew, causing the truck to go out of control, crash through a guard rail, hurtle down a 15-foot embankment and flip over on the service road. The truck and trailer suffered heavy damage, officers indicated.

Jobs Harder To Find For Most Older Workers

Figures released last week by the Texas Employment Commission reveal that 11,957 statewide placements of youth 22 and under during September exceeded youth placements during September, 1964 by 907 while placement of workers 45 and over decreased slightly from 10,737 to 10,522, according to Leon M. Kinney, manager of the Big Spring TEC office.

These figures reflect not only the increasing number of youth born during the high birth rate period which followed World War II who are coming into the labor force each year, but also the employment difficulties faced by workers 45 and over, TEC explained.

Total TEC job placements increased from 52,403 in September, 1964 to 52,725 in September, 1965. By occupations, the greatest increase occurred in professional and managerial placements, which increased from 889 to 1,041, or 17 per cent. Unskilled placements increased from 15,820 to 17,213, or 8.8 per cent, while clerical and sales rose 3.6 per cent and semi-skilled placements 2.9 per cent. Placements in skilled occupations decreased by 12.4 per cent, while service worker placements dropped by 7 per cent under September, 1964.

By industries, the greatest increase occurred in manufacturing industries, with 8,757 placements in September compared to 7,028 in September of 1964. An increase of 1,107 in female placements in manufacturing industries accounted for a large portion of this total increase, probably reflecting the rapid growth of female worker-preferred industries in the state. For example, female placements in apparel industries increased from 595 in September of 1964 to 894 in September of 1965, while female placements in electrical machinery (including electronics) increased from 497 to 999.

Placements in contract construction decreased by 7.2 per cent in wholesale and retail trades by 3.1 per cent, and in private households by 12.4 per cent.

Highlights Of Day In Nation's Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — South Carolina has won permission to carry its contest of the Voting Rights Act directly to the Supreme Court.

The Morrissey judgeship appointment dispute is over.

The new Cabinet Department of Housing and Urban Development will operate without a chief for at least a couple of months.

Voting Rights: The Supreme Court has granted permission to South Carolina — and other states if they wish — to come directly before it to argue constitutionality of the 1965 Voting Rights Act.

The court's decision bypassed the customary time-consuming arguments through various lower tribunals and cleared the way for early action on Southern claims the act is unconstitutional.

South Carolina seeks in its action to halt the sending of federal registrars into the state to list voters — principally Negroes — under the act which abolished literacy tests where less than 50 per cent of voters were registered in the 1964 election.

Other Southern states were invited by the court to move into the case with South Carolina if they wish to do so.

Morrissey: The long controversy over nomination of Francis X. Morrissey to be a federal judge in Massachusetts has ended. He asked withdrawal of the nomination and President Johnson agreed.

Opposition from the American Bar Association sparked a Senate fight that ended with Morrissey's chief sponsor, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., asking that the nomination be sent back to committee.

Morrissey, a long-time friend of the Kennedy family, asked Johnson to withdraw the nomination "to prevent further anguish to my family and further harassment to you and those who have supported me."

Johnson replied that he would drop the nomination but said, "You have in recent weeks demonstrated real courage and qualities of character I greatly admire and of which your children can always be proud."

The bar association and various senators led by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., had questioned qualifications of Morrissey, now a municipal court judge in Boston.

Housing: The new Cabinet Department of Housing and Urban Development will legally begin life Tuesday, but there probably won't be a secretary for at least a couple of months.

President Johnson has put off selection of the head of the department until after a special study group makes recommendations probably late in December, on how the new department should be organized.

Robert C. Weaver, 57-year-old Negro, now heads the Housing and Home Finance Agency which will automatically become part of the new department.

Capt. Margaret J. Wyatt, WAF officer in charge of the Personal Affairs and Family Services at Webb AFB, Calif., has been reassigned to Mather AFB, Calif. She leaves in late December.

In her new post, Capt. Wyatt will be chief of Personnel and Administration for the 3506th Recruit Group, which covers eight Western states.

GOING HOME
"In two senses," she said, "I'll be going home. It was the 3506th Recruit Group with recruited me, and I grew up in California."

Capt. Wyatt signed in at Webb in June, 1962, following an assignment in Ramstein, Germany, where she was Women's Air Force Squadron commander of the 7030th Air Base Wing. At Webb she has served as director of personnel, chief of airman personnel, chief of quality control, and chief of career control, as well as personal affairs and family services officer.

Prior to her duty tour at Webb, she spent over four years at USAF installations in Europe. In April, 1958, she was assistant to the personnel liaison officer at Third Air Force Headquarters in South Ruislip, England. In October of that year, she was assigned to Recreation and Education Services Branch, 7100th Support Wing at Wiesbaden, Germany, serving there until her assignment to Ramstein in November, 1959.

FIRST TIME
Capt. Wyatt entered the Air Force by direct commission in December, 1956. Hers was the first direct commission captaincy granted in the Women's Air Force in the eight western states controlled by the 3506th Recruit Group.

CAPT. MARGARET WYATT

Margaret Wyatt grew up in Long Beach, Calif., where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Wyatt, had moved from Springfield, Ill., following their infant daughter's illness with pneumonia. She has a bachelor of science degree in business administration and personnel management, with a minor in sociology, from the University of California at Berkeley.

She worked with the Los Angeles County Welfare Department, a real estate firm in Puente, Calif., and 13 months as a recreation director with a Red Cross mobile unit in Korea. Upon her return to the States, she was assigned as an assistant field director in the Red Cross office at Parks Air Force Base, Calif. It was there, in December, 1956, that she became Captain Wyatt, WAF. MANY FRIENDS

"My departure from Big Spring is not without regret," she said. "I've a lot of friends here, and from the start everyone has treated me wonderfully."

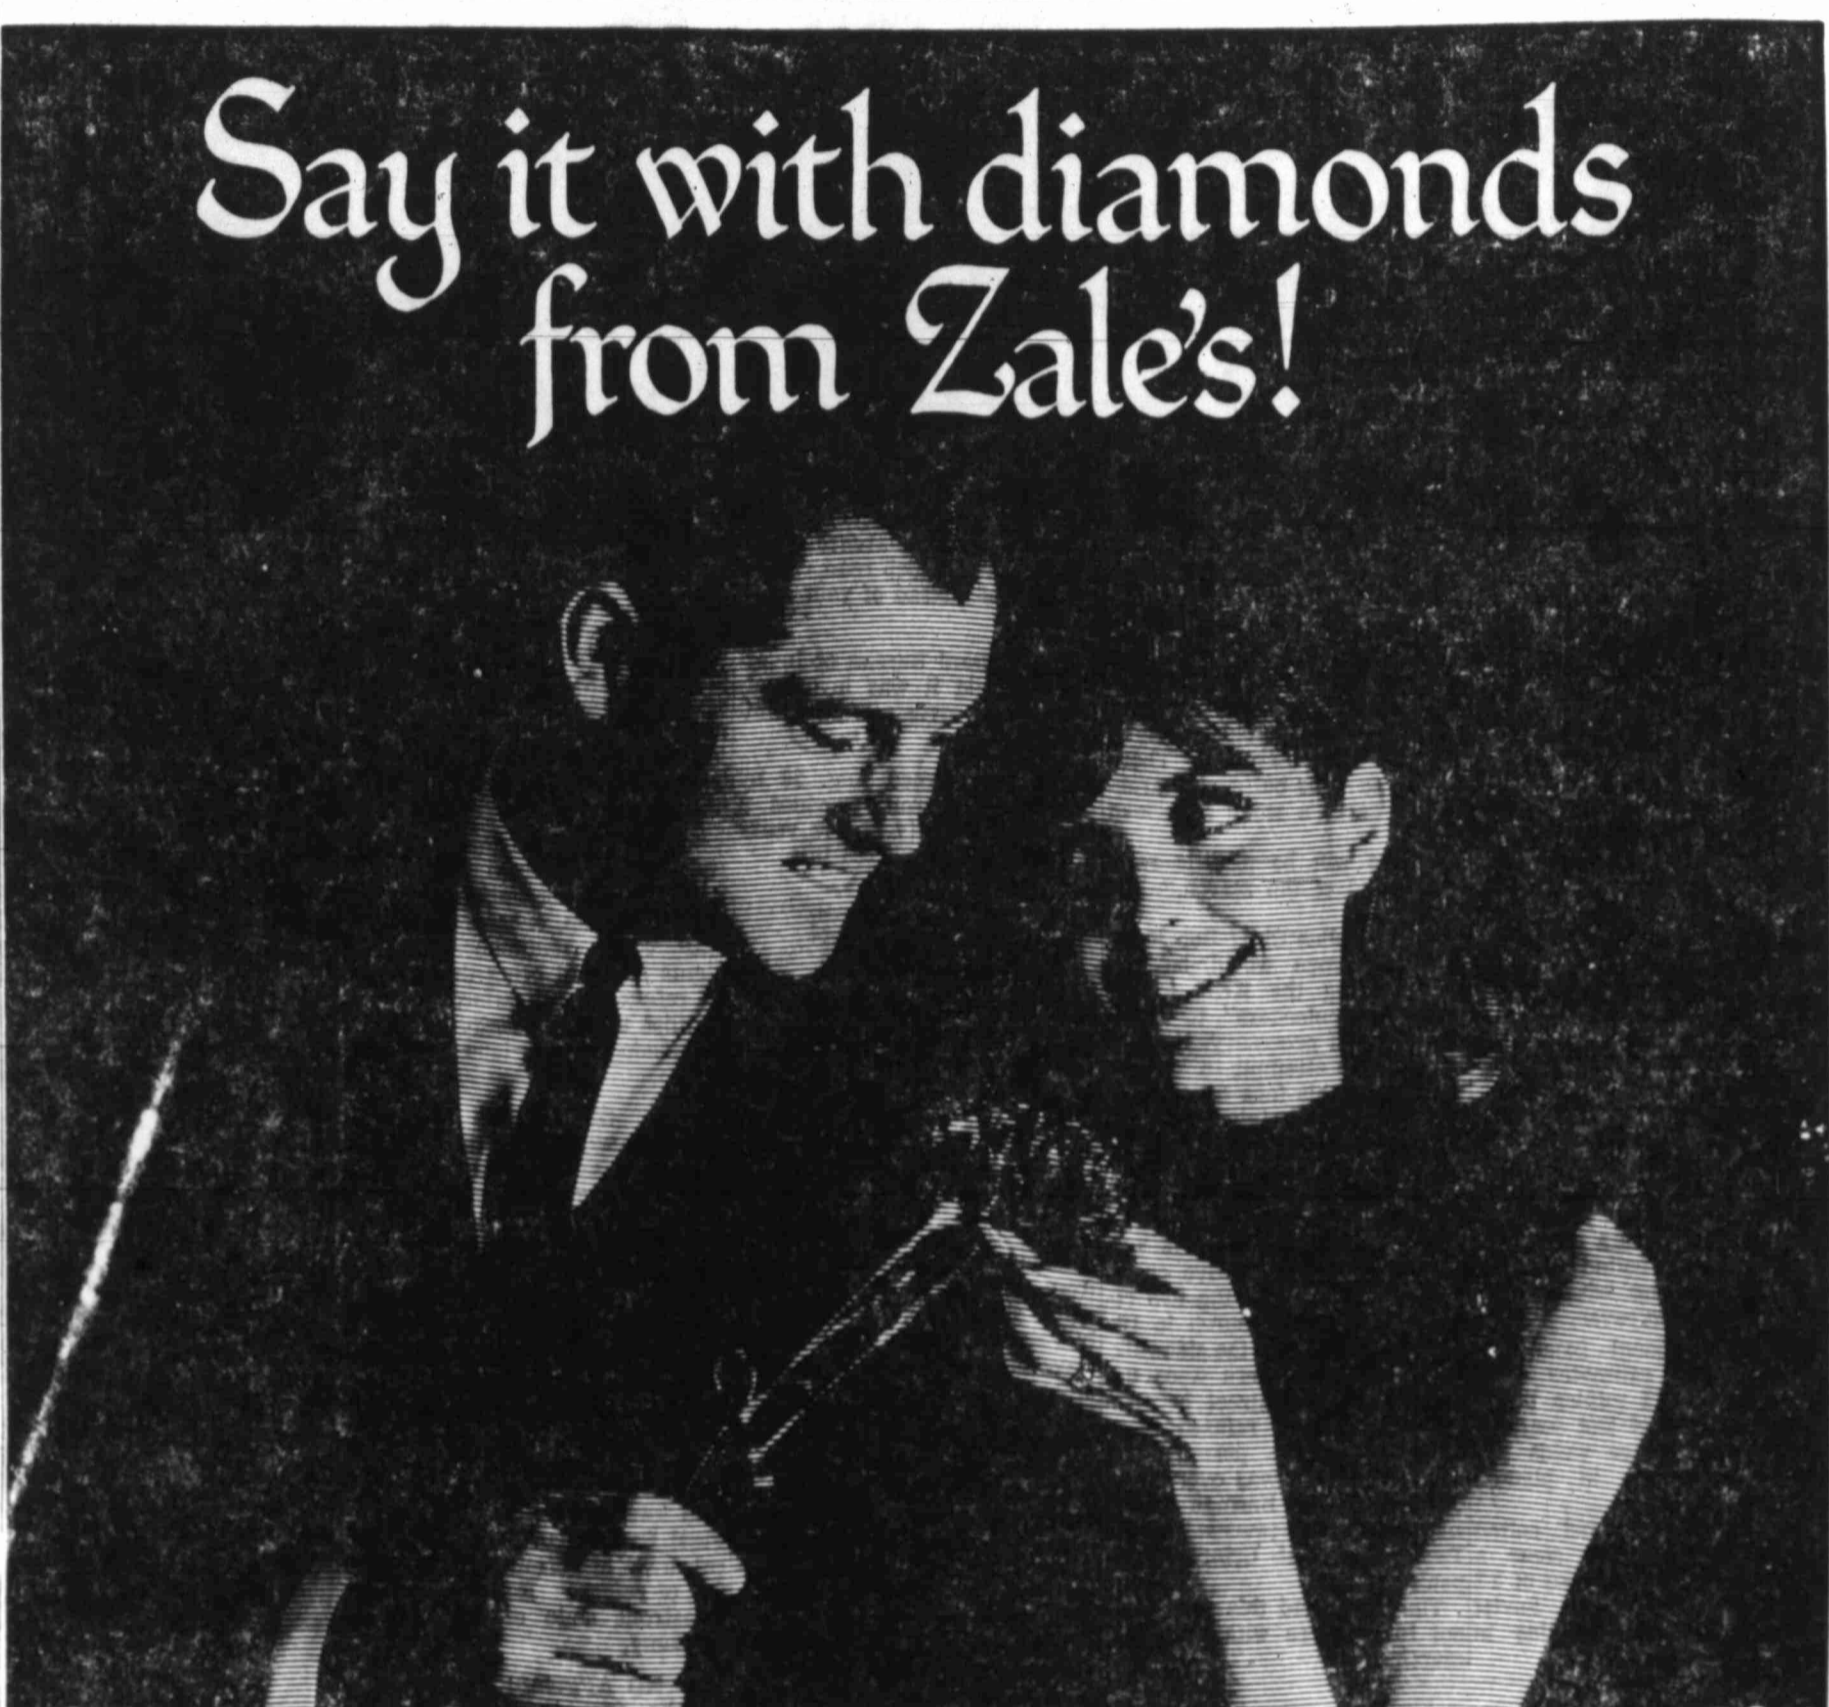

"I've been a member, visitor or supporter of the First Presbyterian Church, Business and Professional Women's Club, Howard - Glasscock County Chapter of Red Cross, three years of United Fund Drives, March of Dimes, Eastern Star, American Association of University Women, Little Theater, concert series, rodeo; and, I even wanted to join the Jaycees, but they wouldn't let me."

Capt. Wyatt has been a familiar figure and voice on television and radio, promoting locally various causes, such as Women's Air Force Corps, Family Services at Webb, and Women's Week.

COL. STEPHENS
She was sworn into the Air Force at Parks AFB, by a West Texan Col. William A. Stephens, then commander of the 3506th Recruit Group; later, in 1952, Air Base Group commander at Webb AFB, and now retired in his hometown of Lamesa — administered her oath.

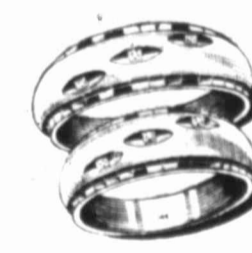

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt, the captain's parents, are coming to Big Spring to spend Christmas. Together the Wyatts will return to California by way of the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo. As a donor to a fund for the construction of Falcon Stadium, Capt. Wyatt had the opportunity to dedicate a spectator seat there-in. She named it for her father, an Air Corps veteran of World War I, and he wants to sit in his seat.

Win Commendation Medals

One group of the 331st Fighter-Interceptor Squadron which won sweeping honors for its victory in the recent worldwide weapons competition is shown here receiving Air Force Commendation medals from Maj. Thomas K. McGehee, commander of the 29th

NORAD Region. Being decorated are Capt. John W. Canady, T-Sgt. Ronald D. Anderson, T-Sgt. James G. Fluey and S-Sgt. Emile J. Plant, as members of the support team. Receiving similar honors Friday were four pilots, and four members of the loading team.

331st Members Decorated For Weapons Meet Victory

Honors were passed around lavishly Friday, as members of the 331st Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Webb AFB savored more recognition for their winning performance in the recent Air Force World Wide Interceptor Weapons Meet. In the so-called "William Tell" competition, the 331st team captured top honors. Friday, members of the special teams in this endeavor received Air Force Commendation Medals, pinned on by Maj. Gen. Thomas R. McGehee, commander of the 29th NORAD Region, from Richards - Gebaur AFB, Kan. Gen. McGehee flew here for the occasion, and voiced his pride in the efficiency of the 331st competitors. The squadron commander, Lt. Col. M. W. Shareck Jr., emphasized that the victory in the Florida meet was the work of the entire squadron, and said this is "al-

Dismissal Or Guilty Plea, Polygraph Test May Tell

Benjamin DeLeon has an appointment at 11 a.m. Tuesday which can determine the course of his life for the next several years.

The date is with the polygraph operator in the laboratory of the Department of Public Safety. DeLeon, who will probably be accompanied to Lubbock by his attorney, George Thomas, is voluntarily submitting to the polygraph (lie detector) test.

If the test substantiates his story that DeLeon is innocent, the state has indicated it will dismiss the charge against him. On the other hand, if the test should show otherwise, his attorney has said he will plead his client guilty.

Should the test be inconclusive—as is often the result of polygraph experiments—DeLeon would probably have to go to trial before a jury in the 118th District court at a later date. DeLeon was tried once for the burglary indictment. The jurors could not agree on a verdict and a mistrial was entered in the case. Last Tuesday, when the case was called up again, the novel agreement involving the polygraph test evolved. The detector records are not recognized in the courts as valid evidence. They are often used by investigating officers in efforts to solve crimes.

Earthquake Jolts Section In Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—An earthquake measuring between five and six on the Richter scale jolted the area between Anchorage and Seward Friday night. No damage was reported.

Classings From Area Are Slow

Harvesting continues slowly in Howard, Martin, Midland and Glasscock counties with 4,000 bales of cotton classed last week at Abilene. However, the Abilene office handled 32,101 bales in all and carried over 10,000 bales. For the season 91,619 samples have been graded.

Last week cotton from this area showed 45 per cent white, 50 light spotted and 5 spotted. The light spotted market began to go to pot, otherwise quotations were steady.

Grades showed 1 per cent strict middling white, 40 mid-

GOP Group Shuns Victory Tag In Win

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans for Progress said Saturday night the GOP got a lesson on how to win votes, rather than party victories, in last Tuesday's elections.

The organization, headed by Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, follows a moderate line in political philosophy. It has opposed a party takeover by conservatives and right-wing elements.

The Taft group said in a statement that conservatives failed in their objectives in the New York mayor race and elsewhere, in what amounted to "a repudiation of the far right in American politics and as a force in the Republican party."

PLAYED DOWN
GOP Rep. John V. Lindsay, who was elected mayor, played down the party label as a candidate on a Republican-Liberal fusion ticket.

The conservative drive, headed by candidate William F. Buckley Jr. of the Conservative party, was directed against Lindsay's refusal to support 1964 GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Goldwater himself has been silent about the election results and the Conservative Free Society Association he heads as honorary chairman has made no comment.

GUIDEPOST ONLY
Republicans for Progress said that while there were "hopeful, affirmative signs" for the party in the Tuesday voting, the results didn't represent a victory but did offer guideposts for the future.

The Taft group said that GOP State Sen. Wayne S. Dumont who failed by a landslide margin to unseat Democratic Gov. Richard J. Hughes in New Jersey "decided to play down his own strong record of support for responsible programs... (and) turned to ideological questions."

School Board To Hear Audit Report

Big Spring School Superintendent Sam Anderson said the main item of business for Tuesday night's school board meeting would be a report on the annual audit of the school system's funds. George Thorburn, CPA, will make the report.

Routine business items will be presented for board action and, Anderson said, other items may develop for action by meeting time at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Panel Honors New Postmaster

On behalf of Howard County's Democratic Committee, Cecil Rlordon, chairman, said thanks Saturday morning to Frank Hardesty, who has been appointed postmaster to succeed Elmer Boatler. But Rlordon first expressed appreciation to Mrs. Hardesty with a bouquet of roses, then handed Hardesty a hat as a memento of his years of service as county chairman. A large number of well-wishers were on hand for the informal coffee at the Wagon Wheel. (Photo by Danny Valdes)

Hereford Sale Slated Nov. 23

Twenty-second Annual Auction Sale of the Howard County-South Plains Hereford Association will be staged here Nov. 23. There are three important new features to the sale this year as compared with sales in the past.

It is being held in November instead of December. The sale will be on a Tuesday instead of a Saturday as in the past. The membership banquet which has been a presale feature for many years has been cancelled.

This year's consignment of Herefords, from some of the finest herds in the West Texas area, is probably the best in many years, according to Jimmy Taylor, secretary of the association. However, the number of animals to be sold is smaller than in other years.

FIFTY-FIVE
There will be 32 individual bulls sold, 14 cows and three pens of three bulls each. This makes the total 55 head for the sale.

The sale will be in the Howard County Fair Barns. The sale opens at 1 p.m. Walter Britten, College Station, will be the auctioneer. The show, which precedes the sale, will be held

Followers Called Leader's Slayer

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Premier Antonio Oliveira Salazar says the leader of a movement opposed to his regime, Gen. Humberto Delgado, was slain by his own followers because he was ready to abandon his cause.

Salazar's comment, in an election broadcast Friday, was the 76-year-old premier's first on Delgado since the former first force general's body and that of his woman secretary were found buried near the Spanish-Portuguese border earlier this year.

Nigerian Papers Accused Of Bias

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—Rival political parties have acted through districts they control to ban a number of Nigerian newspapers for distorting reports on last month's western region election.

Several western district councils, run by the Nigerian national Democratic party, Friday blocked circulation of five papers accused of bias. The party won the Oct. 11 election.

Pistol 'Toter' Suspect And Crony Jailed

Two Negro men, driving an old-model car with dealer's license plates, were stopped by police Saturday morning following a telephone call that one of the men was carrying a pistol. The two men were arrested and placed in Big Spring city jail.

Sergeant L. D. Adams and Patrolman Ruben Gonzales were watching for the car at the intersection of IS 20 and US 87 when it appeared.

The driver was charged with having no operator's license and for carrying a prohibited weapon when a .38 caliber pistol was found in his belt. The second man was charged with permitting an unlicensed driver to operate the motor vehicle and with being drunk. The latter gave his address as Stanton and the other gave an Austin address.

Sgt. Adams said as soon as the man who had the weapon had paid his traffic fine he would be turned over to county officials. He also had a short bayonet, in its scabbard, in the rear seat of the car.

In other action police were called to investigate the theft of a hydraulic jack and a tire and wheel from a pickup truck owned by O. C. Hefington at 1412 W. 3rd. He said the jack, tire and wheel were taken some time Friday night or early Saturday morning.

Education Week Set Nov. 7-13

American Education Week will be emphasized Nov. 7-13. Dr. Len Ainsworth, director of educational services for Big Spring schools, said Saturday. The observance is sponsored jointly by the American Legion, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, the U.S. Office of Education and the National Education Association.

"We are inviting parents, and others interested in seeing how our schools operate, to visit the schools during the week," Dr. Ainsworth said. "We are not going all-out to feature the week because our greatest emphasis comes in March when we observe Texas Public School Week."

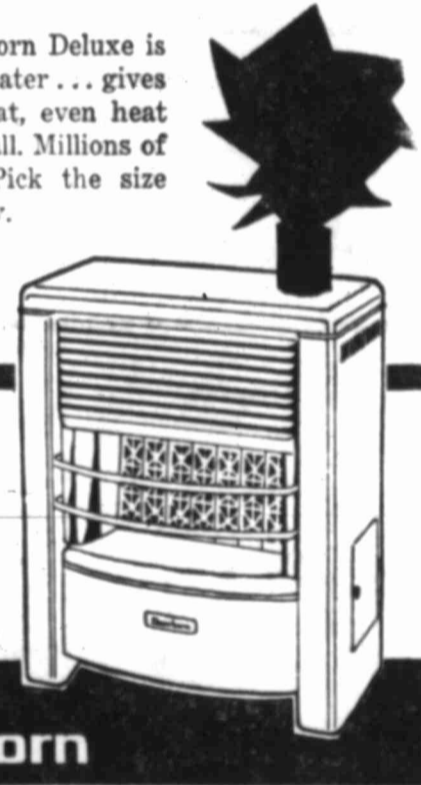

The theme for American Education Week is "Invest In Learning."

Corps Tests

Placement tests for the Peace Corps will be administered at 9 a.m. on Nov. 13. They may be taken at the post office building in Midland, Lubbock or Abilene or the federal building in San Angelo. Application forms may be obtained at the post office and should be presented to the tester. The next series of tests will be Dec. 6 at 3 p.m.

What You Can Expect In Adaptation Time and Wearing Comfort As A Typical TSO Contact Lens Patient

Many people who are considering TSO contact lenses are curious as to just how long it will take to adapt to them, and how comfortable they will be when worn all day, everyday. As a typical TSO contact lens patient, you can expect the very minimum in adaptation time* and the very maximum in wearing comfort. (To date, we have successfully fitted over 40,000 contact lens patients.) This has been our experience. There's a reason for this success, for it has not been easy to achieve. We have had a continuous program of research. As a result, we have developed an edging and beveling process second to none, and an exclusive multi-curve lens design. This, along with more exacting fitting techniques, contributes much to our patients' success in the wearing of contact lenses. In addition to our vast experience in the research area, we pay almost fanatical attention to accuracy. During processing, every TSO contact lens undergoes EIGHT separate inspections for accuracy of prescription and perfection in polishing. With contact lenses, nothing can be overlooked. A TSO Doctor of Optometry is continually informed of new developments in fitting techniques; he performs an exacting professional examination on your eyes to determine the optical and physical factors which will affect your ability to wear contact lenses successfully. Our reason for telling you about our contact lens quality and fitting experience is quite simple. We want you to know that we have the finest contact lens available, regardless of cost. And, the cost is reasonable. Just $65 complete for single vision contact lenses. Bifocals are available at reasonable cost. Convenient credit at no extra cost.

*Average adaptation time for all-day wearing—10 to 14 days.

Lamesa Office Tempo Gains

With 17,870 samples classed thus far in the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service, Cotton Classing Office in Lamesa puts it 2,000 bales ahead of classing for this same time last year, according to J. N. Brevard, officer-in-charge. Last week 8,855 samples were classed.

Thirty-nine per cent of the cotton classed in the Lamesa office was white.

A breakdown of grades shows 2 per cent—strict middling; 30—middling; 7—strict low middling; 60—light spotted; 49—middling light spotted; 5—strict middling light spotted; 6—strict low middling light spotted.

Staple lengths increased this week with fewer 29-32 inch and 7-8 inch being called.

Micronaire readings this season continue to fall in the desired range of 3.6 or better, with 93 per cent being such in the Lamesa area.

Spot cotton prices quoted on the Lubbock Market, Nov. 4, were: Middling—15-16 inch, 27.70; middling light spotted—15-16 inch, 26.80; strict low middling light spotted—15-16 inch, 25.85.

Wilson Reneged, Rhodesian Claims

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — Prime Minister Ian Smith accused Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain Saturday of wrecking prospects for a settlement of the Rhodesian independence crisis.

In a letter to London, Smith charged Wilson had reneged on his agreement for a royal commission to seek a solution to Rhodesia's demand for independence from Britain.

Smith claimed Wilson had done this by announcing that the British government will not be bound by the findings of the commission, which would be made up of one Briton, one Rhodesian and the chief of the Rhodesian Supreme Court.

RHODESIA MEET

Wilson and Smith agreed to the commission during the British leader's visit to Rhodesia last week.

The commission's task was to determine whether this central African nation of 2,250,000 whites and 3.8 million blacks wanted independence under the terms of the 1961 constitution. This constitution restricts the political activities of the blacks and gives control to the whites.

Wilson wanted a referendum to get the answer but Smith's all-white government rejected this.

Britain is willing to grant Rhodesia independence but insists on guarantees for eventual majority rule, which would give the blacks control of the government.

"CLOSED DOOR"

Smith's government has threatened a unilateral declaration of independence.

In his message to Wilson, Smith declared:

"It would seem that you have now finally closed the door which you have claimed publicly to have opened."

Smith's message caught British officials by surprise. Wilson was in Cardiff, Wales, for the wedding of a niece. He said there he had nothing to say about Smith's message. At 10 Downing St. in London, a spokesman for the prime minister also declined comment.

Some sources in London said, however, they could not see how Smith now could avoid carrying out his threat of declaring independence — a move that could bring world sanctions and boycotts upon Rhodesia.

Sigma Delta Chi Parley Approaches

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Nearly 1,000 journalists and several top political figures will arrive Wednesday for the annual convention of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society.

Among the major problems expected to be discussed by the members of the mass communications media are freedom of information and a person's right to a fair trial, responsible news coverage, and reporting such events as the South Los Angeles riots.

BROWN TO TALK

Speakers at the four-day convention will include Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California, House Republican Leader Gerald Ford, of Michigan, and Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. York.

Malcolm Browne, Viet Nam correspondent for ABC, will address the convention on the progress of the war in South Viet Nam. Browne, a former Associated Press writer, won a Pulitzer Prize and a Sigma Delta Chi award for his coverage of the Viet Nam conflict.

Highlights of the four-day convention include:

Wednesday — Following registration, the delegates will tour news media in Los Angeles and will get a look at the computerized news operation in the Los Angeles Times and a modern television news facility at KNXT (CBS).

Thursday — Bernard Kilgore, president of the Wall Street Journal, will deliver the keynote address at a dinner scheduled to be attended by Gov. Brown.

Friday — Press, broadcast, news service and magazine operations will be discussed by a panel. Also included will be panel discussion of the background, news coverage and aftermath of the August South Los Angeles riots.

Addresses by Browne and Rep. Ford also will highlight the day's activities.

TRIALS, PRESS

Saturday — Panel discussions concerning "The Challenge by Pressure Groups" and "The Challenge to Fair Trial and Free Press" are scheduled for the daytime sessions. That night, Theodore F. Koop, vice president of CBS, will address the closing banquet to be attended by Mayor York.

St. Lawrence Men Grind Ton Of Sausage For Fall Festival

By SAM BLACKBURN

Alfred Schwartz, "the little old sausage maker of St. Lawrence community," (who is neither little nor old really) wiped his hands on a handy rag, swept his eyes over the room and announced:

"That does it, I guess."

Back of him, suspended from a rack in the corner of the big barn on his farm, were scores of German sausages — 1,800 pounds in all. Today, these sausages, augmented by several hundred pounds of barbecued beef, will be served at the 10th annual St. Lawrence Fall Festival—a celebration which is for the benefit of St. Lawrence Catholic Church.

"Last year," said Lester Jansa, who with Eugene Hirt, is co-chairman of the Festival, "we fed 1,800 persons. With the weather as nice as it is, we should have even more Sunday."

SAUSAGE FACTORY

At 5:15 a.m. Saturday, about a hundred men and boys from the community assembled at the Schwartz' big barn. They brought all kinds of equipment and tools with them. On hand, ready to be changed into German sausage was a ton of combined beef and pork.

Big tables were set up, the machinery rigged, and for a hectic six hours the barn became a sausage factory. A savory odor of cooked sausage lent a holiday flavor to the scene.

"Twenty-two years ago," said Schwartz, "the idea of this fall festival and the big sausage sale originated in Rowena in Tom Green County. Most of the families here in St. Lawrence came from Rowena. Ten years ago we adopted the plan here."

GOTTA TASTE

From time to time a worker would stop by the cooking table, fish out a couple of slices of bread and make a kingsized sausage sandwich.

"We gotta see if it tastes right," some would explain with broad grins.

Today at the club house, which is on the grounds adjacent to the St. Lawrence Catholic Church, the serving of the barbecue and sausage dinners starts at 11 a.m. Tickets can be bought at the scene for $1.25 adults and 75 cents children. Again at 5:30 p.m. a supper will be served with the same menu and the same prices. The sausage, made Saturday morning will be sold at a dollar a pound.

BIG AUCTION

A feature at 2:30 p.m. will be an auction sale. Bales of cotton are donated by farmers in the community. These are sold at auction. Usually the price is about 10 to 12 cents a pound over the market. All profits go to the church.

"We should get around 37 to 40 cents for the cotton," said Hirt. "We've had good luck with the sales in the past."

Other farm products and donated merchandise will also be sold at auction. Community residents will be auctioneers. Buyers are merchants from towns in the area and the farmers themselves bid on articles to benefit the church.

Sunday night, a big dance in the community house will be the closing event of the fall festival. The dances are famous all over Glasscock and Reagan counties.

At the barn Saturday morning, Schwartz said that the sausage had been prepared by a very old recipe and that it was carefully compounded so that each batch was identical with another.

A tip from Schwartz to would-be sausage makers:

"You use half as much pepper as you do salt for each batch." The sausage has no sage—but it has character.

COOKED OVER MESQUITE

When the loops of sausage had been draped over the racks, smoking was started. Mesquite roots, well season for the purpose, were set afire.

"We'll smoke it all night," said Schwartz. "Old rotted oak wood is best for smoking. That's what we used in Central Texas where I came from. Out here, we make use of mesquite. It does a good job."

Purchasers who want to buy sausage, Schwartz said, can come to the community building kitchen on the church grounds today and get all they want.

St. Lawrence Church does not have a full time priest at present. The parish is served by Rev. Fabian Geirings of Big Lake.

Stocks Climb, Take Breather

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market last week took another breathing spell in its long climb toward one historic high after another.

The market averages were not in agreement as to whether the market rose or fell. Statistics showed that a few more issues advanced than declined, but this is not always a conclusive indicator.

One of the "biggest" stocks on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the market value of its shares, took a sharp loss. This was General Motors, which dipped 3 1/2% to 106 1/4. Money-wise, this would offset gains by quite a few stocks with smaller capitalizations.

Cleric Refuses Bishop's Order

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP) — An Episcopal minister from California Saturday refused an order from the Episcopal bishop of Edinburgh, Dr. Kenneth Carey, to stop preaching in a Presbyterian church here.

The bishop thereupon forbade the Rev. Mr. John Tirrell, 32, former assistant chaplain of Stanford Memorial Church on the campus of Stanford University, to conduct services in Episcopal churches of the Edinburgh diocese.

The Rt. Rev. James Pike, Episcopal bishop of California and therefore the Rev. Mr. Tirrell's direct superior, said in Cambridge, England, where he is visiting:

"In this ecumenical age, I am at a loss to understand the action of the bishop of Edinburgh. There is no prohibition in the canon law of the American Episcopal Church or the Scottish Episcopal Church that would bar the arrangement at St. Giles'."

St. Giles' is the Presbyterian church in Edinburgh where the Californian has signed a two-year contract to preach. He is studying for a doctor's degree in philosophy at Edinburgh University.

Bishop Pike said that, nevertheless, if the Rev. Mr. Tirrell did conduct services in an Episcopal church in Edinburgh — "thus violating Bishop Carey's irrelevant inhibition"—he would be forced to take disciplinary action against the young Californian.

Two Deaths Under Probe

REYNOSA, Mexico (AP) — Police investigated Saturday the deaths of a man and a woman whose bodies were found near this Mexican border town.

They said that the body of Maria Guadalupe Martinez de la Puente, 36, of Reynosa was in the back seat of a car and that she appeared to have been strangled.

They said the body of a man they identified from his U.S. passport as Juan Ramirez, 34, was found hanging from a nearby tree. The automobile, they said, was registered to Juan Ramirez de la Cruz of McAllen, Tex.

Two Arrested In Burglary

Two Big Spring men, Troy Eldon Clearman, 22, who gave his address as 1013 Wood Street, and Phillip Earl Ratliff, 19, 908 E. 4th, were arrested by police in Cisco today and returned to Big Spring on warrants charging burglary of Emmett Hull Used Car and Seat Cover shop. An estimated $573 worth of tools and equipment was reported taken in the burglary.

Police Sergeant L. D. Coppage and Detective Jack Jones picked the two men up at the police station in Cisco and returned them to Big Spring about 9:30 p.m. Saturday. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Walter Grice, who set bond at $1,500 each. Bond was not posted and the men are in city jail.

The burglary was reported to police Friday morning. Entry to the shop was made through the rear door, keys were allegedly taken from a desk drawer to open the tool cabinet, and a car trunk forced open for more tools. The car was parked inside the garage. The key to the cabinet was replaced in the desk drawer.

Abolish N-Arms, Kennedy Pleads

LOS ANGELES (AP) — New York's U.S. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy says nuclear weapons "must be abolished before they abolish us," and that Communist China should participate "in the effort to prevent nuclear catastrophe."

Kennedy, here for a series of speeches, told a Town Hall audience Friday. "No task is more important than to prevent the spread of those terrible arms which modern science has given us."

Kennedy said five nations have the capacity to explode nuclear bombs and start the world toward final holocaust, adding that 10 or more nations "are all in a position to develop nuclear weapons within a few years."

"We will need to enlist the help of the United Nations, and all other nations — including Communist China—in the effort to prevent nuclear catastrophe," he said.

The Democratic senator said a treaty for the prevention of nuclear arms proliferation must include provisions for undeveloped nations as well as developed nations.

At a news conference, Kennedy was asked if he disapproved of student groups' plans to send blood to North Viet Nam. He replied:

"I'm willing to give blood to anybody who needs it," adding he thought the practice would be "the oldest tradition of this country."

He said, however, it should be done only through an international agency, that to do it directly might violate U.S. laws.

Sukarno Claims U.S. Offered Large Bribe

SINGAPORE (AP) — President Sukarno of Indonesia alleged a bribe was offered or claimed Saturday the United States once offered him a large personal bribe to spread Western ideas throughout his left-leaning nation. He also said that after last month's pro-Communist coup the United States offered help to the nation.

Sukarno implied that both the alleged bribe and offer of help were rejected. As for the offer of help, Sukarno said he told U.S. Ambassador Marshall Green: "You Americans always pretend to help us when we look like winning."

The Indonesian president brought both points up in an address to his Cabinet at Bogor, 40 miles outside Jakarta, the Indonesian capital. His remarks were relayed by Radio Jakarta.

Goldwater Warns Of 'Extremists'

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Barry Goldwater warned Saturday that America faces dangers from a new breed of extremists, which he said are associated with the Democratic Party.

The former Arizona senator and 1964 Republican presidential nominee criticized the Democrats and the press for what he said was a failure to identify these groups as extremists.

"It is interesting that in all the news stories about draft-card burnings, about attempts to impede the movement of troop trains, about leftist groups planning to send supplies to the Communist Viet Cong, the word 'extremism' is almost never used," Goldwater said.

County Commissioner Joseph Hayden continues to make steady progress in his fight to get back on his feet following a severe stroke on Sept. 20. He began to move his right leg, and the other day with his right hand he squeezed the hand of his wife, Mae.

Postal receipts dipped slightly in October, about $500 down from the same month a year ago. The figure was $33,459. For the year, however, the office is running $15,000 ahead, and when frost comes this month and the harvest picks up, so also may postal receipts.

Colorado City got good news when bids were opened on high school and junior high school additions. The $471,560 total came within architect estimates, and contracts are due to be awarded. Coahoma will open bids Nov. 23 on new-school construction. Although plans for HJJC's new library and science building will be complete within another week or 10 days, it is unlikely that bids will be opened until January.

Gold Star Awards Given At Banquet

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Achievement Day Banquet Saturday night in the Elementary School cafeteria. There were 250 in attendance at the banquet.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hill of Colorado City and Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Marricce, Colorado City.

Paul Gentry, Lamesa, sales representative for Texas Electric Service Co., was guest speaker. He praised the 4-H Club movement as a worthy effort in behalf of youth and lauded the adult leaders in the work for their help to boys and girls under their care.

The Gold Star winners and the winners of other Achievement awards were announced by County Farm Agent Buddy Logsdon and Home Demonstration Agent Miss Idalia Wood.

The medals and trophies were presented to the winners by County Judge Elmer Martin.

Map-Making Satellite Aloft

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A map-making satellite named Geos 1 soared into orbit Saturday to take earth's measurements in an experiment that could produce the world's most accurate maps, better pinpoint long-range missile targets and establish guideposts for tracking men to the moon.

The 385-pound geodetic explorer rode into space atop a towering Delta rocket that rifted away from Cape Kennedy in a rainstorm at 1:39 p.m.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported half an hour later that the payload was circling the globe at altitudes ranging from 700 to 900 miles.

The satellite carried four high-powered flashing lights, laser beam reflectors and three different sets of radio gear designed to learn with an accuracy never before possible where earth has dips and bulges, her center of gravity and distances between far apart places.

Planners involved in sending U.S. astronauts to the moon believe Geos 1 and its successors will help calculate distances between far-flung tracking stations on earth and plot gravitational forces which will be encountered by lunar vehicles. Even a small error in the position of a ground station would be magnified over the quarter-million-mile route to the moon.

Militarily, Geos 1 could more precisely locate possible enemy targets for intercontinental missiles. The data will be correlated with that being received by geodetic satellites launched previously by the Defense Department.

C OF C NEEDS DIRECTORY

The Chamber of Commerce still needs its city directory. It was missed from the office the day it was delivered, and is one of the most-used items there, Carroll Davidson, manager, said.

"We maintain a library of some 135 directories of major cities in Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma, and other states," he said, "and these are used by somebody every day. Our own is most used for seeking addresses of Big Spring residents."

"These directories are hard to come by once the printing has been distributed, and the cost for replacement is terrific. We would appreciate the return of the new directory as we feel sure someone carried it out of the office by mistake."

Ballots Top Predictions By 100,000

DALLAS (AP) — An unexpected surge of interest in the waning moments before Tuesday's constitutional amendments referendum sent the vote total to more than a half million.

This was reported Saturday by the Texas Election Bureau in noting that five amendments received approval and five were rejected.

The final total was more than 100,000 above the highest pre-vote estimate.

An analysis of the vote indicates that Texans had strong feelings about increasing the terms of governors and six other officials to four years from two.

LEADING ISSUE

This was shown in the fact that more persons voted on that question than any other. Voters simply ignored one or more of the other proposals.

The vote on the four-year term issue was 500,713, the Texas Election Bureau reported.

The proposal rejected by the widest margin was that to increase the terms of state representatives to four years. It went down by a 201,259 margin. Only 15 counties out of 254 favored it.

Most popular proposal was to retire judges when they reach 75, and to provide machinery for removing judges for disability or misconduct. The favorable margin was 218,343.

CONNALLY SETBACK

Failure of the longer term amendment offering has been called the first major political setback of Gov. John Connally. He campaigned in a desultory way for the measure.

However, he said after the results were in that he was perfectly willing to submit himself each two years for the voters' approval.

A little sidelight was the way he said it. His phraseology indicated that despite some expressed reluctance to run again in 1966—he is going to run—he might be looking ahead to still more gubernatorial campaigns.

Organized labor campaigned at about the same tempo as the governor against the four-year term, and labor may be in a position to claim its efforts were successful.

However, the vote was so relatively small — only one person in four voted — that a conclusive determination cannot be made. Supporting such an organized labor viewpoint is this: Of the 25 counties with the heaviest vote 8 urban areas where union members have their strength—18 voted against the four-year terms and 7 voted for it.

HARRIS COUNTY

Harris County alone sank the measure by a margin of 14,202 votes.

Statewide, 54 per cent of the counties went against four-year terms, while of the 25 big-vote counties, 72 per cent were against the issue.

The four top metropolitan counties alone beat the four-year governors' term by 19,666 votes, almost half the margin of defeat. Only Dallas of the top four voted for the proposal.

The strength of the cities was shown strikingly in the proposal to continue the veterans' program to help ex-G.I.'s buy land, a measure in which city folk presumably have little interest.

The four largest vote counties rolled up a margin of 32,544 votes against the G. I. land continuance, more than the rural counties could overcome. The proposal lost by 9,189 votes statewide.

FINAL REPORT

Final report of the unofficial vote counting Texas Election Bureau, with an estimated 500 ballots unreported:

- 1. Tax to finance college buildings: For 290,675, against 194,755.
2. Continuation of veterans' land fund with $200 million bond issue: For 236,572, against 245,781.
3. To make Texas laws conform to federal laws in aid to the needy, blind, dependent children and disabled, and to permit old-age assistance to non-citizens: For 346,997, against 147,467.
4. Four-year terms for governors and six other state officials: For 225,457, against 275,256.
5. Giving Teacher Retirement System constitutional authority: For 331,225, against 183,056.
6. Bond issue of $85 million for loans to college students: For 319,405, against 168,461.
7. Tax exemption for Hermann Hospital of Houston because of certain charity functions: For 224,538, against 255,615.
8. Retirement of judges at 75 and removal machinery: For 15,717, against 133,374.
9. To allow the legislature to set salaries of House speaker and lieutenant governor: For 210,250, against 270,983.
10. Four-year terms for state representatives: For 140,850, against 342,109.

Hidden Bridge Discovered

Fern Flores, right, city heavy equipment operator, discovered the old buried bridge, pieces of which Tom Dignon, assistant superintendent of streets, left, inspects.

Silt-Covered Bridge Found In City Drainage Channel

Fern Flores, city heavy equipment operator, was dredging out a plugged-up section of Beals Creek east of Birdwell off Third Street Thursday, when his drag line hit something solid. Sleet Foresyth, street superintendent, discovered that something solid was no less than the re-enforced concrete bridge supports of an extinct bridge on what used to be State Highway 1.

Construction Still Posting New Highs

By TOM BARRY Building permits in October were valued at $627,721, according to the building inspector's office records—the third highest in estimated value of permits issued so far this year.

September remains the high month, with a value of just over $3,500,000, with August holding down second place at $836,630. October's 74 permits pushed the year's permit value over the $7,000,000 mark—$7,153,422—with two months left in the calendar year. The 74 permits issued were the fifth greatest in number in the first 10 months of 1965. In June, 184 were issued, the year's highest number. So far, 846 permits have been issued.

Ector Shopping Center, Inc.'s $350,000 apartment center permit made up more than half the total value of the October permits.

Six new residences were built at a total cost of $80,500. Gulf Oil Co. built a new service station at 1629 E. 3rd, estimating the cost at $4,191, and Shell Oil Co.'s new building at IS 20 and State 178 cost an estimated $20,000. The two were the only new commercial permits taken out in October, not counting the apartment complex.

Fifteen permits were issued for various additions, totalling $151,039. St. Mary's Episcopal Church's $125,575 addition was the big-value permit in the listing. The others were for lesser projects.

Four remodelings cost permit holders a total of $2,325. Re-roofing permits were again the most popular style, 22 of them being issued at a total estimated cost of $8,146. Businessmen purchased 10 permits for erecting signs, totaling $3,390. Ten buildings were moved around, the shuffling costing the movers about $2,420; and four other buildings were demolished at an estimated $890.

The apartment center permit helped push the year's building permit value well beyond any remembered record.

Temperatures Mild In State

By The Associated Press Skies were clear to partly cloudy and temperatures mild over most of Texas Saturday but heavy overcast and light rains persisted in some sections of the state.

Early afternoon readings ranged from 60 degrees at Texarkana to 77 at Houston. The forecasts called for clear to partly clear skies in the western portion of the state and partly cloudy to cloudy in the eastern sections through Sunday. Slightly warmer weather was predicted for Sunday.

Our poppy sale has been a huge success today," Mrs. Sunbeam Morrison, publicity chairman, said at 5 p.m. Saturday. "We now have raised over $600 and believe the amount will run to around $650 by the time the sale ends at 8:30 p.m."

The American Legion Junior and Senior Auxiliaries were about Big Spring all day Saturday selling the Buddy Poppies. The headquarters was in the Settles Hotel lobby. Proceeds from the sales go to the Legion post's hospital fund, and to pay the disabled veterans for making the paper flowers.

A report from Mrs. Zela Rea, sales chairman, at 7 p.m. showed a total of $700.24 from the sales. "Thanks to all who helped us in any way and to the 65 sales workers," she said.

Paper Reports Violence Toll

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Twenty persons have been killed in the Ijoro-Ekiti region of western Nigeria in the last week in a wave of violence which has swept the area since the Oct. 11 elections, the Lagos Daily Times reported today.

Police would not confirm this and no other newspaper carried the report.

Sporadic rioting and arson continued during the week after the balloting—the first elections for the regional house of Assembly in three years — in which the defeated United Progressive Grand Alliance claims there was widespread fraud after the Nigerian National Democratic party was returned to power.

Combat troops and nearly half of Nigeria's police force have been unable to halt disturbances.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Two Get Licenses, Another Flies Solo

By M. A. WEBB
While normal flying has been off for a couple of weeks in spite of the excellent West Texas weather, two men received their private pilot's licenses, and one man soloed three weeks after he began receiving instructions at Howard County Airport.

A. J. Allen, who has been taking his flying instruction from Carol Zeman of Big Spring Flying Service, Inc., was the man who took off alone last week, during his third week of training.

Lawson Allen, member of the Big Spring Flying Club, and Darrell Eaton, member of the Howard County Flying Club, received their private licenses during the past two weeks. Both have been flying in training, for some time as club members.

City Commissioner John Stanley flew Big Spring Flying Service's Cherokee to San Antonio Sunday was reportedly "souped in" by fog Friday and had not returned to the airport at 3 p.m. Weather reports issued in the valley, for pilots, Friday morning, warned of the fog bank.

Howard Loyd flew School Superintendent Sam Anderson, Director of Educational Services Len Ainsworth, and Keith Swim to McAllen Wednesday morning for the meeting of the Texas Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development held Nov. 3-5. They returned Friday afternoon, and had to take a westerly route to Laredo and up through San Angelo to miss the fog and cloud bank hanging over the San Antonio area. Anderson was on one of the panels at the meeting.

Howard County Flying Club members up during the week were: Cherokee — Heartstill (cross country); Dyer, Reid (cross country); Colt — Dyer (2), Massengill (2), Russell (2), Green, Dawes, Hatch (cross country), Rainwater.

Members of the Big Spring Flying Club in the air were: Cessna Skyhawk—Bettle (cross country); Maxon, Mrs. Porter (2), Johnson (cross country); Colt—Johnson (cross country); Merrick, Granberry (2), Bartlett (cross country).

Those new pure-jet Douglas DC-9s, on order by Trans-Texas Airways, to go into service in the fall of 1966, are sleek-looking aircraft, designed for short and medium range duty, and will have room to land at Howard County Airport's north-south runway if and when boardings demand it. The airport runway is 5,500 feet long, some 500 feet more than required for use by the new jets. The cruising speed, of 560 miles per hour, would permit the new jets to take off from Big Spring and land in the Dallas-Fort Worth area in 30 minutes. That's traveling.

These planes will be added to the 25 Silver Cloud Convair 600's which will be put into use early in 1966. These will be turboprop aircrafts, which will provide a faster cruising speed of up to 50 miles per hour, with two Rolls-Royce Rd 10a engines.

Tech Ag Dean Heads Workers

CORPUS CHRISTI — Dr. Gerald Thomas, Dean of Texas Tech's School of Agriculture, has been named president of the Texas Agricultural Workers Association.

Dr. Thomas has served as the group's vice president during the past year and was program chairman for the current conference. He became dean of Tech's School of Agriculture Sept. 1, 1958.

Over The Top

Airman 2.C. John A. Kalchbrenner and Sgt. L. C. Sparrow hand reports to Mrs. Gaston Lackey at the United Fund office, boosting Webb AFB past its goal. The base had raised $11,379.91, giving a bulge on the $11,000 target. "This can be equated with excellence, our continued minimum at Webb," observed Wing Commander (Col.) A. F. Tauter. Webb civil servants led with 116.6 per cent of their goal. Some other gifts are still to come.

Lacy Follows Arnold In Liquor Board Post

Big Spring District Office of the Texas State Liquor Control Board, has a new supervisor. He is Granville H. Lacy, who comes to Big Spring from Amarillo.

He replaces veteran supervisor C. B. Arnold, who has retired from the service. Arnold has served as Big Spring supervisor for 14 of the 22 years he has been with the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Lacy has been with the board since March 9, 1953. In Amarillo, he was an assistant supervisor. He began work with the board as an inspector and was stationed for a time in the Odessa office of the Big Spring district. He went to Amarillo in 1962.

Lacy was born in Marble Falls and is a native Texan. He is married and the Lacy's have two sons — Gary, 22, a student in Stephen F. Austin University where he is studying to be a forester, and Roy, 19, who is a sophomore at Howard County Junior College.

The Lacy's have bought a home at 2611 Lynn. "We want to stay here," said Lacy. "We like this part of the state and we like Big Spring."

U.T. Names Top Students

AUSTIN (AP)—Martha (Marty) Purcell, Houston, and John M. McRae, Vicksburg, Miss., were named outstanding students Saturday at the University of Texas.

The awards were announced at the annual Dads' Day observance. The two seniors were given Dads' Association awards for leadership and service in a wide range of campus activities.

Dr. Hamilton Ford, Galveston, chairman of the neurology and psychiatry department at the medical branch, was chosen new president of the Dads' Association. Ford attended the university from 1924 to 1927 and has sent three daughters to the university. His wife also is a graduate of the medical branch.

Indictments Upset By Court Edict

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — A Baltimore atheist in Texas, a man on death row, the Buddhist who caused it all, and some 3,000 others are probably not at all unhappy over Maryland's current legal morass.

The Maryland Court of Appeals said Friday that almost every pending criminal indictment in the state is invalid. This would affect about 3,000 cases.

HELD DEFECTIVE

The state's highest court said the indictments are defective because of a provision of the Maryland constitution which requires all members of grand and trial juries to affirm a belief in a Supreme Being. The court ruled the oath unconstitutional.

The Maryland court crisis began Oct. 11 when the court overturned the murder conviction of Lidge Schowgurow, a Buddhist, because the juries which indicted and convicted him were composed of jurors required to affirm a belief in God.

One result of the decision has been that Maryland has dropped an effort to have Baltimore atheist Madalyn "furray" O'Hair extradited from Texas on certain misdemeanor charges.

MANY MORE

The court's decision could affect many more than the pending 3,000 cases if a man who is scheduled to die in the state's gas chamber in two weeks brings a legally valid point Tuesday.

William Ralph, 32, challenged the grand jury which indicted him for raping a housewife. He also was convicted.

The court, in its Oct. 11 decision, specified that the decision would affect all cases "not finally determined."

But Ralph's case, though finally determined, will be reviewed nonetheless by Baltimore's chief federal judge, Roszel C. Thomsen. Thomsen said the importance of the question posed in Ralph's case required him to postpone all scheduled cases to take up the matter.

Two-City Get-Together

Wichita Falls citizens came to Big Spring Friday for a tour of Webb Air Force Base, and a get-together luncheon with local business men. The visitors were escorted by Brig. Gen. Edward H. Nigro, commander of Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls. Pictured here are Gen. Nigro, Mayor J. Winslow Wallender of Wichita Falls, Big Spring's Mayor George Zachariah, and Col. A. F. Tauter, Webb wing commander.

Wichita Falls Delegation Looks At Webb Operation

A group of Wichita Falls civic and business leaders visited Webb Air Force Base Friday, to get a close-up view of the operation of a pilot training facility.

They are familiar with an Air Force Technical Training Center, since Sheppard AFB is in their city; and the Sheppard commander, Brig. Gen. Edward H. Nigro, wanted them to see other activities in the Air Force.

With Gen. Nigro as their official escort, the Wichita Falls people had flown to San Antonio Thursday, to tour the Air Training Command, then came here for an inspection of Webb and a briefing on the local mission from Col. A. F. Tauter.

At lunch Friday, about a score of local business people joined the Webb officer staff in greeting the visitors, and the work of Big Spring Base - Community Council was explained. There was an exchange of greetings, and of ideas on how the civilian communities and their military neighbors can work together.

Permian's Coin Show Nov. 13-14

ODESSA—Over half-a-million dollars worth of coins will be displayed here Saturday, Sunday, Nov. 13-14, during the annual Permian Basin Coin Show.

Hosting the two-day event will be the Odessa Coin Club which includes members from Monahan, Crane, Kermit, McCamey, Midland, Big Spring, Pecos, Andrews, Seminole, and Jal and Hobbs, New Mexico. Louis Goodwin, Odessa, is president.

Many outstanding coin collections will be displayed including two collections of crown size coins of the world. Also on view for the first time in 10 years, will be a collection of cut and counter-stamped coins, owned by P. K. Anderson, Hobart, Okla. Exhibits will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, November 13 and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

LBJ's Wire Lauds Teague

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson sent a telegram and assorted speakers joined Friday night in heaping praise on Rep. Olin Teague, D-Tex.

The occasion was a dinner in his honor at Texas A&M University. About 1,170 persons attended.

Teague has represented this district in Congress since 1945. Recognition of the congressman's work as chairman of the House Veterans Affairs Committee came from William J. Driver, administrator of veterans affairs in Washington. He applauded Teague as a man who knows how to "do the right and do it right," and a friend of all veterans.

36-7 Victory

ABILENE — Big Spring High School's B team played perhaps its finest game of the season in belting Abilene Cooper's reserves, 36-7, here Saturday afternoon.

In the rout, the Shorthorns built up a 23-0 lead at half time, gave the Kittens a TD in the third and then came right back to count two more.

Anderson cracked the New Mexico State defense for 157 yards and left the heralded "Ugly Four"—the Aggies' interior linemen—more closely resembling the "Frustrated Four."

The 210-pound halfback also caught two passes for 14 yards, returned a kickoff 18 yards and punted four times for a 42-yard average.

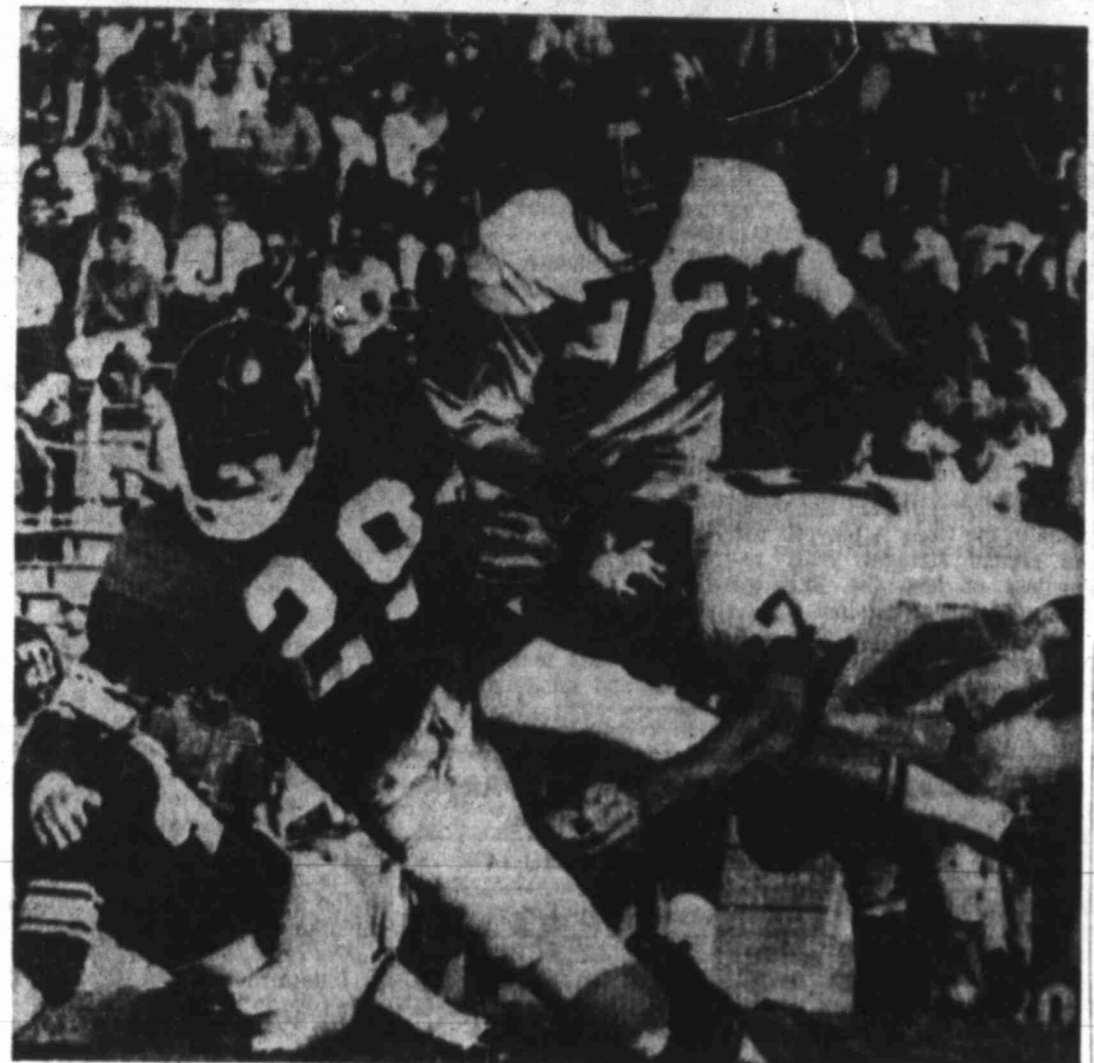

Fullback Kenny Baker went in from the two for the first Tech touchdown after Wilson had guided the Raiders 88 yards in four plays.

Marc Bryant recovered an Aggie fumble at the New Mexico 14 moments later and Tech needed only two plays and a nine-yard pass interference ruling to reach the end zone.

Wilson's touchdown losses covered 25 yards to Jerry Shipley and three yards to Mike Leinert. Bob Bearden, who kicked six straight conversions, booted two fourth-period field goals to end the scoring.

Mustangs Work Hard To Defeat Aggies

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Southern Methodist used a field goal, a pass interception and a fourth-down gamble to dump Texas A&M 10-0 and stay in the Southwest Conference race here Saturday.

A storming A&M defensive line blunted the Southern Methodist attack, keeping the Mustangs pinned in their end of the field most of the game.

Jerry Kacktik, Tom Murrain and Ken Lamkin led a brutal Aggie rush that harassed SMU's principal passer, Mac White, and holding the Mustangs to only three sustained drives.

Hogs Overwhelm
Owls, 31 To 0

HOUSTON (AP) — Bobby Burnett supplied the power Saturday as the Arkansas Razorbacks, the nation's No. 2 team, extended its undefeated streak to 20 games, a Southwest Conference record, by overwhelming outmanned Rice University, 31-0.

Burnett scored two touchdowns, set up another, and saw his running play a major role in a drive that led to a 37-yard field goal by Ronny South.

A crowd of 46,000 that included Lynda Bird Johnson, eldest daughter of President Lyndon B. Johnson, was the largest ever to see Arkansas play in Houston. Miss Johnson sat with friends in the Rice student section.

The victory also was Arkansas' 13th in a row in conference play, a record that exceeded a streak of 12 by Texas in 1963-64.

Arkansas scored the first two times the Porkers had the ball and boosted their halftime lead to 17-0 when Burnett scored two plays after Bobby Roper intercepted a Rice pass and raced 49 yards to the Owl nine in the second quarter.

A fumble halted the lone Porker threat in the third quarter but Arkansas drove 64 yards for an early touchdown in the fourth period and closed with a 10-yard touchdown run by Jim Lindsey on the first play after another pass interception with six minutes remaining.

The Porker defense meanwhile permitted Rice to pass the Arkansas 33 only once, and then only on a fumble recovery at the Razorback 12 early in the second period. On the next play, however, Arkansas regained the ball at the 11 on a fumble recovery.

Burnett netted 116 yards in 28 carries, running his eight-game season total to 713 yards for 176 plays. His touchdowns were good for five and three yards.

Kathy Whitworth
Midland Leader

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—Kathy Whitworth, leading money-winner of women's golf, shot a five-under-par 66 Saturday to move into first place at 36 holes in the $10,000 Tall City Open. She had 136.

McVea Leads Coog Surge

HOUSTON (AP) — Sophomore Warren McVea, who had been disappointing after predictions of a sensational year, caught touchdown passes good for 80 and 84 yards Saturday night to lead the Houston Cougars to a stunning, 17 to 3, upset over the Mississippi Rebels.

McVea's blinding speed combined with an inspired, clawing and butting Cougar defense for Houston's first victory ever over Ole Miss, a 14-point favorite.

McVea broke open a 3-3 game in the third quarter. Mississippi had punted to Dick Spratt on the Houston 10, he fumbled, and Dave Wells recovered.

Ole Miss couldn't go, however, and a 24-yard field goal attempt was wide to the left.

On the first play from the 20, quarterback Bob Burris dropped back behind beautiful blocking and fired a tremendous pass to the speeding McVea on the sideline at the Mississippi 35. McVea shot into the end zone.

After the half, Texas' offense stalled, plagued with fumbles and 15-yard penalties.

Baylor finally scored with less than a minute left in the third quarter as Billy Hayes jumped in from the one-yard line on fourth down, ending a 18-yard, 8-play march for the Bears, who picked up a Texas fumble. Bob Purvis kicked the conversion.

In the fourth quarter, quarterback Roger Mike Marshall tossed four yards to end Tommy Smith for the score, set up by a long completion to Knox Pittard for 31 yards and Jaci Bisenhart for 17 yards. Purvis again converted.

The Bears final threat was thwarted when Pete Gallaher made his second interception of the game on the Longhorn 31 in the final minutes.

The Bears tried 47 passes against Texas, tying a record set by Southern Methodist in 1947.

Texas Bovines Shade
Bears To End Streak

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas 5-yard pass to Lammons, who tapped the ball with one hand and brought it in for the score. The drive started on Baylor's 14-yard line after linebacker Fred Edwards intercepted a pass and ran it back 38 yards. David Conway converted as he did after all five tallies.

Later in the first quarter, Kristynik climaxed a 40-yard drive with a 12-yard flip to Lammons. Five plays later, Kristynik drilled a 54-yard pass into Les Derrick's arms as the wingback sprinted down the sidelines for the score.

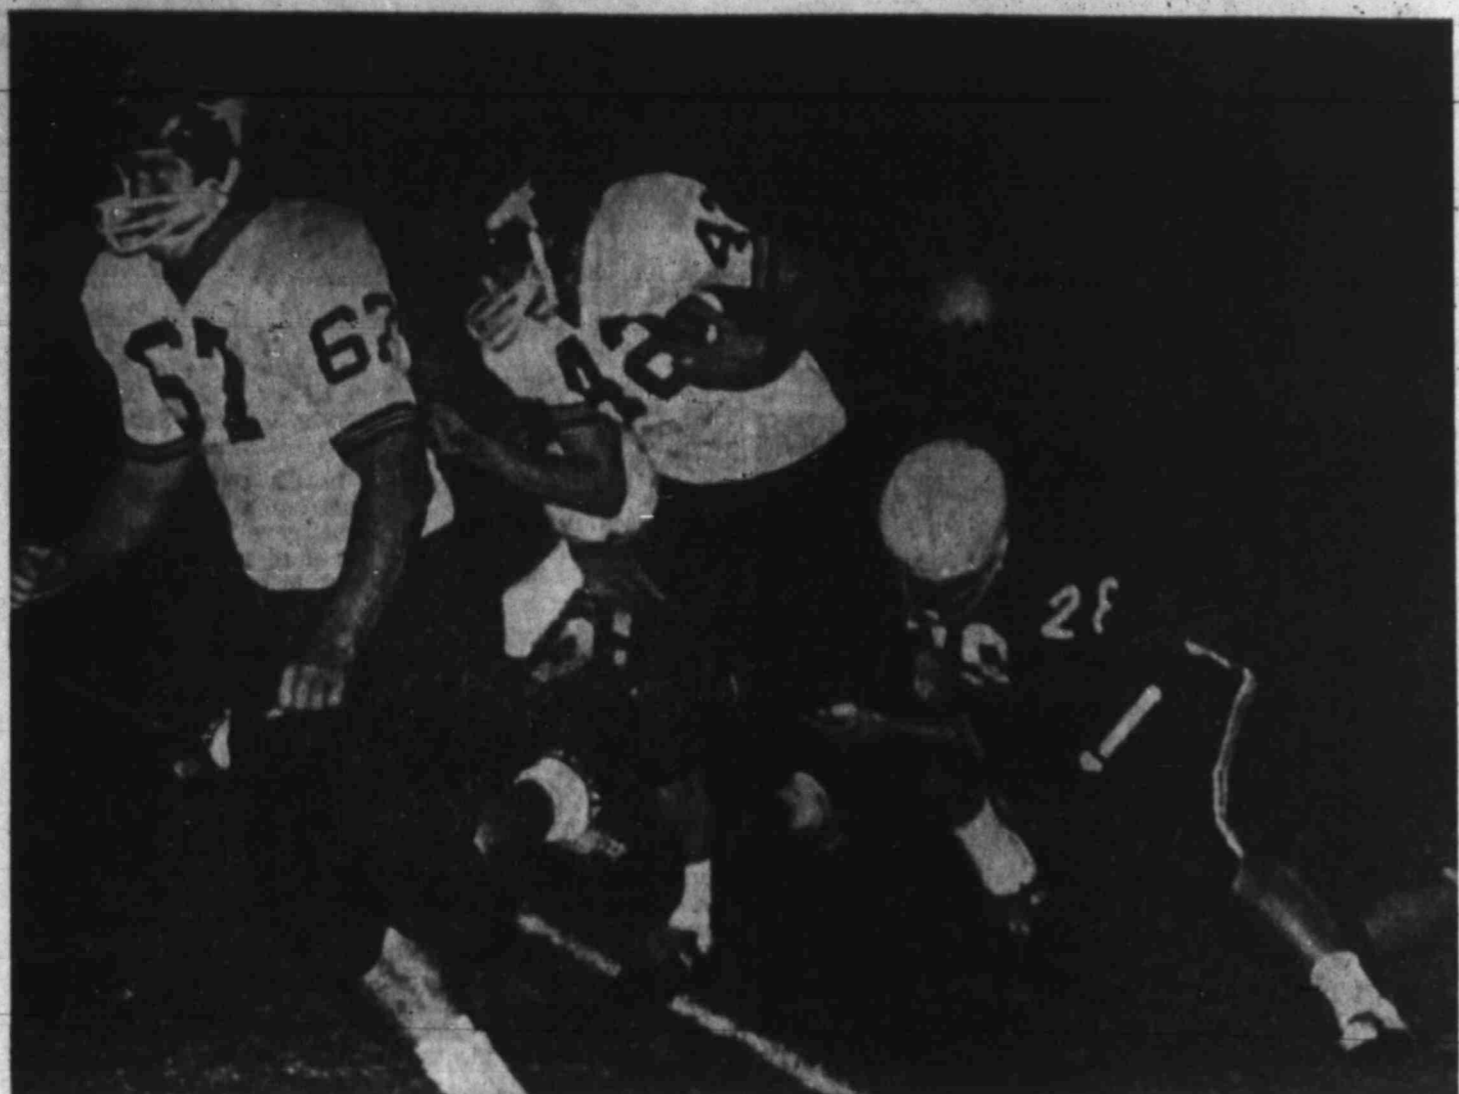

The Longhorns tacked on two more touchdowns in the second quarter, moving 75 yards in 12 plays for the fourth score. Quarterback Greg Lott, who had trouble holding the ball in the second half, pushed in from the one-yard line for the score on fourth down. A fumble recovery by end Bill Sullivan started the drive.

Texas got its fifth touchdown after Sullivan intercepted a Baylor pass at the Texas 27—in a seven-play march. Lott tossed to Lammons from the Baylor 20 for the touchdown. After the half, Texas' offense stalled, plagued with fumbles and 15-yard penalties.

Imperial was stopped one yard short of Forsan's goal in the fourth when Ray McKinnon tackled Jerry Dale out of bounds.

LONG CONNECTION

An awe-inspiring pass from Mike Campbell to Mike Jordan good for 61 yards, provided Permian with its second TD with 1:43 left in the period. Beverly again converted.

Jordan gathered in the ball back of the Big Spring defenders about the Steer 25 and won the footrace to the goal. It was one of only two passes Permian completed all night.

Big Spring's deepest penetration in the first half was to the 32 and resulted when Joe Jaure intercepted an aerial just over into Steer territory and almost got away. He had five blockers in front of him on his runback but someone knifed in from the side to submerge him.

Permian scored again early in the third, methodically driving 71 yards in nine plays. Tony Conley, who was used sparingly all evening, got the score with 8:02 left in the quarter from Campbell to Don Carr, rood for 37 yards, moved the ball to the Steer six and set up the score. Beverly again converted and Permian led, 20-0.

FUMBLE HURT

A Big Spring fumble on its own 20 opened the door again for Permian halfway through the third period. In four plays, the Panthers tallied again. Jody Coleman rolling the last ten for the six pointer. Beverly kicked the PAT to make it 28-0.

After Big Spring's touchdown the Panthers cranked up to score again on a 36-yard drive following another Big Spring bobble.

This time Billy Rogers swept right end for ten yards and a navoff, carrying the last Big Spring defender, Jaure, across the goal with him.

Big Spring seemed headed for another TD late in the game and chugged as far as Permian's 16 but an interception by Coleman near the goal line blunted the drive.

Permian thus set the stage for its blue-ribbon classic with San Angelo next week and few who saw the Panthers Friday night would concede anything to San Angelo.

Meredith Rides With Cowboys

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas Cowboys hitch their hopes to the veteran quarterback Don Meredith once again Sunday as they start a drive aimed at emergence from the National Football League cellar.

The floundering and unfortunate San Francisco 49ers are the intended victims of a projected streak out of a five-game losing streak.

The 49ers are in a two-game slump themselves and regret the losses probably more than Dallas did its last two. The men from San Francisco had the disheartening experience of scoring 68 points and gaining almost 1,000 yards in their last two games yet losing both.

Meredith, who started with Dallas six years ago and has been up and down ever since, is up once more—he has been given the starting role in the next ABILENE — Abilene Cooper's homecoming was spoiled here Friday by the Midland Bulldogs. 28-14. This left Midland 3-2 in District 2-4A and left Cooper 0-5.

Cooper was frustrated through errors in the first half and trailed 0-21 at intermission. The second half was a different story but it was too late.

Midland scored first on Kenneth Taylor's 12-yard run, followed in the second by Bobby Cutshall's TD pass to Charles Seltzer. Before the half, Taylor scampered 13 yards for another score. Midland's last score, the crusher, came in the fourth on a Paul Lyons-Bob McCullough pass for 13 yards. Randy Allen pushed 3 yards for Cooper's first tally in the third, and Jack Mil-dren passed 17 yards to Mike Odell for the last Cooper counter.

GARDEN CITY—Garden City rocked area eight-man football circles by applying the lash to Sterling City, 44-8, here Friday night in the first District 5-B game for both teams.

The Bearkats entered the game undefeated but Sterling City ruled as a slight favorite because of its supposedly tougher schedule.

The Eagles made it rough for Jack Woodley's team for a half but the Bearkats left no doubt about the outcome in the final two periods.

Sterling scored in the opening period and left the field at half time with an 8-8 deadlock but the Kats counted 28 points in the third and added another eight in the fourth.

Vernon Newsom and Riley Chandler hooked up with a splendid passing combination to swing the issue Garden City's way.

Sterling got on the score board in the opening period after Garden City had fumbled on its own 11 following the first punt of the game.

Dusty Dillard got the score from the one and Wayland Foster passed to Cullen Douthitt for the two extra points.

It remained that way until the second, when Newsom hit Riley Chandler with a 21-yard scoring pass. Newsom then flipped a pass to Walter Taylor for the two extra points and the score was tied at 8-8.

In the third, Garden City moved out in front to stay when Newsom raced 12 yards to pay dirt. The try for point failed, however.

Newsom followed with a 17-yard scoring jump, then passed to Riley Chandler for the two points.

A 50-yard scoring jaunt by Gary Vaughn later in the third widened the gap and added more to Garden City's edge. Newsom ran for the two extra points.

Newsom passed to Riley Chandler again for 33 yards and another Garden City touchdown before the quarter ran out. The try for point failed.

In the fourth, Newsom ran for 14 yards and still another Bearkat score, then passed to Riley Chandler for the two extra points.

The win was the eighth in a row for the revamped Bearkats. Minor injuries resulted to Newsom and Tony Chandler but both are due to be ready for the Forsan game.

Goliad Is 22-6 Loser

Runnels' seventh graders won their seventh football game in a row over Goliad here Saturday morning, 22-6.

The Yearlings scored in the opening period on a 60-yard punt return by Benito Rubio, after which Joe Chavez added the two points on a run.

Runnels went in front to stay in the second when Chavez rambled 48 yards. Ernest Zubiate added two extra points and Runnels led at half time, 16-6.

No scoring resulted in the third but Zubiate raced four yards to count for Runnels in the fourth.

No scoring resulted in the third but Zubiate raced four yards to count for Runnels in the fourth.

On defense, Zubiate, Lewis Dunnam, David Anderson, Bruce Hicks and Harry Crosby stood out for Runnels and Pink Dickens, David Englert and Howard Stewart for Goliad.

Offensive standouts for Runnels were Joe Lane, Chavez and Zubiate while Vasquez, Terry Price and Jack Chrane starred in that phase of the game for Goliad.

Learning American Style Football

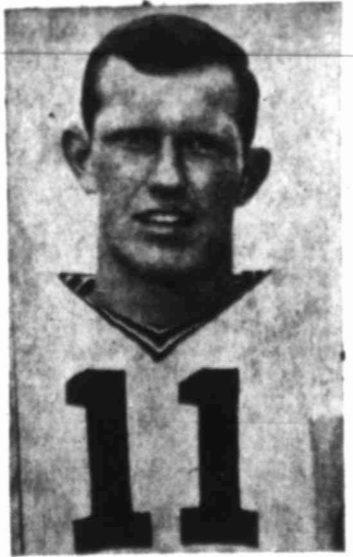

Clin Ridgway, from Melbourne, Australia, who never played American football, is a punter for the Dallas Cowboys. He averaged better than 43 yards punting in exhibition games, was put on taxi (reserve) squad at beginning of season, but activated after 7 games. His first punt in America style football, incidentally came last summer in an exhibition game with the 49ers. Ridgway didn't know he would play and had no time to warm up. His first kick went 50 yards. He is 6-foot-5-inches and weighs 211 pounds. (AP WIREPHOTO)

STANTON'S DINK POLSON ROLLS FOR GAIN
Lasiano Soliz, Tahoko, bars path of Bison back

Last Half Fireworks Sinks Bisons, 34-12

By TOM BARRY
STANTON — Tahoko's Bulldogs spoiled the Stanton Buffs' homecoming with three second-half blasts that broke up an even game, giving the visitors a big 34-12 win Friday night.

The halftime score stood Stanton 12, Tahoko 14, and it looked like a close, close game until the first play from scrimmage of the second half when Bulldog fullback Cliff Thomas blasted off-tackle for 65 yards and a score. Thomas likes to run that off-tackle play. On the first play of the fourth quarter, he issued second chapter, second verse, only that time he buzzed 74 yards to put the game on ice for the visitors.

But the first half was the exciting part, Tahoko scored first in three plays — a quarterback keep by Stanley Renfro, good for one yard; then a 39-yard pass play from Renfro to Phil Adams; and one-yard plunge for the sixes by Danny Coburn. Buddy Shanks, Stanton quarterback who plays both offense and defense (he's all-district both ways, for that matter), blocked Thomas' attempted extra — punted with 9:45 left in the starting period.

Tahoko, playing without its first-string quarterback, center and various others, due to the flu bug, pushed its lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter when Thomas pulled in a 56-yard pass from Renfro with 10:45 left in the period. A Renfro-to-Dean Hamilton pass was good for the extra points. Stanton remembered it was playing before a homecoming crowd, and proceeded to come taking and play — calling of Shanks, who moved the obviously inferior Buffs like the Green Bay Packers, scoring twice in the second period.

Ballinger Is Winner, 19-6

BALLINGER — The Ballinger Bears lowered the boom on Colorado City's Wolves here Friday, 19-6, clinching a tie for District 5-AA honors. This gave Ballinger a 9-0 record against 4-6 for Colorado City. Having beaten Winters, the only team which could tie, Ballinger will get the playoff berth.

On Ballinger's first offensive play, fullback Milford Wiley ran 80 yards for a 6-0 lead. Tommy Selby followed this with a 53-yard TD heave to Jerry Hallmark, and then sneaked in from the 1-yard line in the last quarter after Colorado City had fumbled. Colorado City gave the Bears something to think about, driving in the first for a TD with Larry Currie going the last 15 yards of a 65-yard drive. Colorado City led in first downs, 12-9, trailed in rushing, 138-108, but led in passing, 89 to 64. The Wolves just couldn't beat the Bearcat defense on the clutch plays.

Vols Roll On Toward Bowl Rendezvous

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Spectacular passing and running by sophomore quarterback Charlie Fulton carried unbeaten Tennessee to a 21-7 football victory over Georgia Tech Saturday.

An overflow crowd of 52,174, largest ever to see an athletic contest in Tennessee, saw the Vols explode for three third-quarter touchdowns in 7½ minutes.

Tech scored its lone touchdown in the fourth period when tailback Giles Smith, subbing for the injured Lenny Snow, tore through left tackle and sped 33 yards into the end zone. The run came after Tech had recovered a Fulton fumble. Bunky Henry converted.

Fulton, easily winning the battle of the sophomore quarterbacks with Tech's Kim King, ran for 133 yards and completed 8 of 13 passes for 101 yards.

The victory gave Tennessee a record four wins and two ties, and propelled the Vols high on the list of prospective bowl teams. Scouts from three bowls saw the game.

The loss halted Tech's five-game winning streak and left the favored Yellow Jackets with a 5-2-1 mark.

Bobcats Slam Odessa High

SAN ANGELO — As if in rehearsal for their showdown Friday with the Permian Panthers, San Angelo's Bobcats polished off Odessa Bronchos 42-12 at San Angelo last Friday.

After a slow start, the Bobcats fired TDs like a repeating rifle and piled up 471 to 179 yards for the Bronchos. Angelo drove to the Odessa 5 before bogging, and Odessa retaliated with a drive that fizzled in a fumble on the Angelo 9.

From this point San Angelo cranked up for 91 yards with Collins lugging it the last 35 yards for the first score. It took four plays for the next 65-yard score, Williams going untouched 48 yards for the second. Angelo turned an interception at the Odessa 33 into a third score with a Mullins-Stringer pass eating up the last 18.

San Angelo built a 42-0 lead with Williams skirting right end from the 7 after an interception had started a drive; Harris going the last 19 after recovery of a fumble on the Odessa 27; and 62-yard punt return by Julio Guerrero. Against Bobcat reserves, Goddard took pass 62 yards. Zugg hit the line for four for Odessa TDs.

The outcome left the championship race in a snarl, because pace-setting Dawson lost to Klondike, 32-24, to remain one game ahead of the pack.

Dawson plays Gail, 62-18 winner over Southland Friday, next weekend while Sands closes out with Wellman at home. Dawson is now 5-1 while Sands, Klondike and Gail are tied for second place, each with a 4-2 record.

Ricky Kemp got the Ponies off to a fine start in the opening period with a 43-yard romp to a score but the Dragons, a winner in only one previous outing this fall, tied the count before the period ran out when Johnny Howard boomed three yards to pay dirt.

In the second period, Howard again scored on a one-yard jaunt for Flower Grove and then made the key play of the game by passing to Jack Webb for the two extra points.

Baltimore Colts Try Bears In NFL Battle

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Bears soon will learn whether their two-pronged time bomb will explode again or turn into a dud.

The Baltimore Colts will find out, too, and for the sake of their five-game winning streak and their title chances, they hope they'll be able to muffle the Bears' bombs.

The Colts play Chicago today and must win to retain at least a share of the lead in the National Football League's Western Conference.

The Green Bay Packers, currently tied with Baltimore, will try to rebound against Detroit after Chicago snapped their six-game winning string last Sunday.

The Bears' victory extended their winning streak to four, a streak that has been fired by youthful backs Gale Sayers and Andy Livingston.

Sayers is a 22-year-old rookie while Livingston is a 21-year-old sophomore who never played college football. Together they have gained 971 yards through rushing and pass receiving, a total exceeded by only three pairs of backs in the league.

Eight-year veteran Jon Arnett is one Bear whose job has become competitive as a result. Last week he led the team in rushing with 73 yards.

"I had to run that way," he explained, "or those kids would not let me back in the lineup."

In the rest of the NFL lineup for Sunday, it will be Philadelphia at Cleveland, Los Angeles at Minnesota, Pittsburgh at St.

Louis, Washington at New York and San Francisco at Dallas.

In the American League, New York meets Kansas City, San Diego meets Denver, Oakland battles Houston and Buffalo takes on Boston.

Green Bay and Bart Starr will try to start another winning streak against Detroit. Starr seeks to recover his form after the Bears intercepted three of his passes and twice threw him for losses.

Cleveland also will try to start another winning string. Minnesota broke the Browns' four-game streak last week, but the Browns remain one game ahead of their closest Eastern Conference competitors, St. Louis and New York.

St. Louis has lost its last two games while Pittsburgh has won the last two, but Cardinal quarterback Charley Johnson should be ready to play at full strength.

At the same time, Steelers' signal-caller Bill Nelson is improving steadily.

Washington also has won its last two games, but New York's attack is becoming more potent. That attack will suffer, though, if rookie Tucker Frederickson is unable to play because of a muscle pull.

Speaking of potent attacks, Minnesota has one in Bill Brown and Tommy Mason. Their total yardage gained rushing and catching passes is 1,464, most in the league, and Los Angeles should have trouble containing them.

Dallas has a good chance of ending its five-game losing streak with San Francisco quarterback John Brodie a doubtful starter. Don Meredith will quarterback the Cowboys after apparently winning his tussle with Craig Morton and Jerry Rhome.

Hunting Seasons Begin In This Area Saturday

Deer, quail and wild turkey hunting season opens in Howard County next Saturday.

Royce Tucker, game warden, said that deer hunters will have their first chance in five years to hunt deer in Howard County starting Nov. 13. The season has been closed for that long.

He said there are some deer in the county. The southeastern part of the county cannot be hunted as it is a game reserve. The bag limit is two bucks for the season. Season ends Dec. 31.

Quail hunting becomes allowable on Nov. 13, with the bag limit pegged at 12 in a day and not more than 36 in possession. Season ends Jan. 31.

Wild turkey hunting starts on the same day as deer and quail and ends on Dec. 31. One gobbler or bearded hen is the season limit.

Sandhill crane season is under way, Tucker said. Some hunters are reported to be in the field. There have been no reports of any important killings. One or two hunters have wound up before the justice of the peace for game and trespass violations. Tucker urged all hunters to make sure they have permission of the land owner before going on his property.

The bag limit on crane is two per day with not more than four in possession. Only a shot plugged to a three shell limit can be used.

Farmers and ranchers in the southwest, west and northwest part of the county report there are considerable crane on hand. However, the invasion of these long-legged birds, which come here from Siberia and northwestern Canada, is not as heavy as has been the case in the past.

The cranes are seldom seen in any part of the county east of Big Spring. They are most numerous in the Lomax and Wilkerson Ranch areas.

Sloan picked the Tigers to pieces in the first half with pinpoint passing. He connected on 9 of 16 tosses for 139 yards and two touchdowns in the first half.

Sloan, who succeeded Joe Namath as the Tide quarterback, set a school record for the most completions without an interception, surpassing the mark of 36 held jointly by Harry Gilmer and Pat Trammel of Alabama.

Alabama rolled up 240 yards before intermission, and the small but scrappy Tide defense limited LSU to 97 yards in the first half.

Lamesa Rips Chiefs, 42-7

LAMESA — Looking more like District 3-A champs, the Lamesa Tornados blew San Angelo Lakeview off the field here Friday, 42-7.

Johnny Gibson, explosive halfback, went for three TD's, and Bob Wiggins kept the Lakeview defense off balance with his passing, including a 75-yard toss to Gary Mayfield. Joe Harper, fullback, got two scores on charges at the line, and Tom Anderson hit W. G. Drone for the last Lamesa touchdown.

Midway in the first, Lamesa recovered a Lakeview fumble and Wiggins passed and ran Lamesa to the 7, from whence Gibson lugged it on in. Then Gibson cut loose with a 23-yard run early in the second to climax an 81-yard drive. Lakeview retaliated with a 71-yard scoring drive in the second. Gibson's other TD was a 14-yard beauty.

Lamesa dominated play in every department, leading 20-8 in first downs, 339 to 71 in rushing, and 203 to 64 in passing.

Tide Vanquishes LSU By 31-7 Tab

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Alabama struck with savagery Saturday using the passing of Steve Sloan and the running of Steve Bowman to tame Louisiana State 31-7.

The victory put the Crimson Tide into the Southeastern Conference title chase.

Alabama's cagy Paul Bryant, even with a 24-point lead, had his Crimson Tide kicking on sides and from an unbalanced line in the first half to keep LSU speedster Joe Labruzzo from having an opportunity to run the ball back.

Representatives from the Sugar, Orange and Gator bowls were in the stands, and the Tide is believed to have gotten an unofficial invitation for at least one of the games.

Dragons Shock Ponies, 14-12

FLOWER GROVE — Flower Grove sprang one of the big eight-man football upsets of the season by defeating the Sands Mustangs, 14-12, here Friday night.

The outcome left the championship race in a snarl, because pace-setting Dawson lost to Klondike, 32-24, to remain one game ahead of the pack.

Dawson plays Gail, 62-18 winner over Southland Friday, next weekend while Sands closes out with Wellman at home. Dawson is now 5-1 while Sands, Klondike and Gail are tied for second place, each with a 4-2 record.

Ricky Kemp got the Ponies off to a fine start in the opening period with a 43-yard romp to a score but the Dragons, a winner in only one previous outing this fall, tied the count before the period ran out when Johnny Howard boomed three yards to pay dirt.

In the second period, Howard again scored on a one-yard jaunt for Flower Grove and then made the key play of the game by passing to Jack Webb for the two extra points.

Kemp scored again for Sands in the third on a 25-yard jaunt but the Mustangs couldn't convert after either touchdown.

Both of Sands' defeats have come in 3-B play. The other loss was to Dawson, which will represent the district in the post-season playoffs.

Score by quarters:
Flower Grove 6 8 0 0-14
Sands 6 0 0 0-12

Bruce Devlin Wins Sydney Tournament With Final 73

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Bruce Devlin captured the Willis Masters Golf title Saturday, overcoming a five-stroke deficit on the final round as nightmarish winds blew Bob Charles' score to an eight-over-par 80.

Devlin, the slim Australian star, shot a pair of 73s on the day's two rounds and finished with a 72-hole total of 286, one stroke better than British Open champion Peter Thomson, also of Australia. Thomson carded two 74s.

Charles, the New Zealand left-hander, fired a 69 on the third round for a 208 and a five-stroke advantage over Devlin and Thomson. But then came his 80 in the treacherous southerly winds that hit the Kensington course, and a third-place finish at 288.

Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif., tied for seventh at 294 after a brief challenge and Jack Nicklaus, U.S. Masters champion and record-breaking money winner, was one stroke further behind.

The chief casualty of the tournament was South African Gary Player, who withdrew after Friday's second round because of a painful back ailment.

Player is the U.S. Open champion and winner of the last five tournaments he's played, including the Australian Open last week. The severe back and chest pains, which have bothered him for some time, will keep him from competition for several weeks.

To begin with, he will miss the Big Three of Golf, a series of televised matches with Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer. The series was to have started Nov. 16 in California.

Sanders was tied with Thomson at two strokes behind Devlin going into the final nine, but faded to a 76. He had a 74 on the third round.

Nicklaus, plagued by bad putting throughout the tournament, bettered par for the first time with a third-round 71 before blowing to a 76.

Charles was ruined by the wind on the front nine of the last round, when he stumbled to three double bogeys and saw his lead dwindle to one stroke over Devlin. The Aussie picked up two more strokes coming in as the New Zealander could not rally.

Thomson finished with a burst of two birdies, but Devlin, playing two holes behind, needed

Wolski Scores Five TD's As Notre Dame Triumphs

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bill Wolski rambled for five touchdowns to tie a Notre Dame record for scoring in one game as the Fighting Irish crushed an outclassed Pitt football team 69-13 Saturday.

The 195-pound senior scored two touchdowns each in the first and second quarters and one in the third.

Wolski sat out most of the second half after the Irish rolled up a 42-6 third quarter lead. His performance tied the record set in 1923 by Red Maher of Kalamazoo.

A homecoming crowd of 57,169 saw the Irish equal the highest point total ever amassed against Pitt in its 76-year football history. It also marked the third time this season that an opponent had rolled up more than 50 points against the Pan-Notre Dame, the nation's fourth-ranked team, set the pattern in the opening minutes of the first quarter when the Irish scored on the first two plays from scrimmage.

Kenny Lucas passed for one Panther touchdown hitting Bob Dyer with a 21-yard pass late in the first half. Both scores came after Coach Ara Parseghian had sent in reserves.

Soviet's War Fears Cool

MOSCOW (AP) — Strong signs are appearing here that Soviet leaders have decided to base their plans for the next five years on an expectation of world peace. Half a year ago, they were indicating anxiety about the possibility of a general war, emphasizing the need to be ready for it. Today they still are accusing the United States of aggression in Viet Nam and elsewhere, still blustering about the dangers to peace. But they seem to have decided it is safe to plan on avoiding a major, nuclear war, or take a few localized conflicts.

Barry Urges Re-Election Of Tower

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Failure to re-elect Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., would be one of the worst things Texans could do, Berry Goldwater, the 1964 GOP presidential nominee, said Friday. He spoke at a reception given to help Texas Republicans raise campaign funds. The admission charge for 225 rank and file members of the party was $2.50. "John Tower is a little man in body but he's a tremendous man in heart, soul and intellect," Goldwater said. The former Arizona senator also tossed some verbal darts at liberals in general and "the radical extremists on the left." "I don't know of a single Republican that has ever burned his draft card," he added. Plane trouble kept Tower from arriving in time for the reception but he reached San Antonio in time for a $25-a-couple cocktail party and dinner.

Interest Lagging On Canada Election Eve

OTTAWA (AP) — Rarely have Canadians approached a national election with such apathy as they have shown in the campaign now drawing to a close. Various reasons have been given, but the most plausible appears to be a public conviction that Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's Liberal party will win in Monday's voting. Public opinion polls and surveys virtually have ruled out a victory by Conservative Leader John G. Diefenbaker. The main interest is in whether the Liberals will win a majority of the 265 House of Commons seats and thus be able to form a majority government. That was Pearson's objective in calling the election after 2 1/2 years in office. A veteran political writer for the Toronto Globe & Mail, who has visited all parts of the country, remarked: "Nowhere is it evident that the people who will vote on Nov. 8 are listening to what is being said. In truth, very little is being said that is worth listening to."

BARDOT FILM
In one Quebec district, the Conservative candidate has found a way to stir interest. He opens his rallies with the first reel of a Brigitte Bardot film, speaks for half an hour, then shows the rest of the picture. "The formula has been a smashing success," said candidate Gerard Vermette. T.C. Douglas, leader of the New Democratic party, blamed the lack of enthusiasm on what he called the disenchantment and disillusionment of the public with both Pearson and Diefenbaker. Diefenbaker, 70, has concentrated his attack on what he

Revolutionary Pollution Tax Suggested By Federal Panel

WASHINGTON (AP)—A revolutionary new pollution tax—designed to curb the poisoning of the nation's air, water and soil—was suggested today by a panel of President Johnson's Science Advisory Committee. The levy might apply to factories belching smoke, sewerage systems corrupting streams, automobiles emitting potential smog, careless users of pesticides—even the obnoxious fellow playing a transistor radio on a bus. The scientist-adopted sweeping definition of pollution: man's alteration of his surroundings, physical or aesthetic, in unfavorable ways. "Pollution touches us all," the report said. "We are at the same time polluters and suffer-

Molotov Out Of 'Doghouse'

LONDON (AP) — Vyacheslav M. Molotov is "in" again in the Soviet Union, say east European Communist diplomats. They reported Friday that the former premier and foreign minister is working behind the scenes as a personal adviser to Premier Alexei N. Kosygin after eight years in the political doghouse. Molotov, 75, broke with former Premier Nikita Khrushchev in 1956.

Well Completions For Week: 116

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission said Saturday a total of 116 oil wells were completed during the week, bringing the year's total to 5,867. The comparative 1964 total was 7,115. Gas well completions for the year total 2,150, including 46 during the week, compared to 2,310 during the like 1964 period.

self contains elements competing for investment money. The Communist party newspaper Pravda has put new emphasis on building Soviet economic strength as the best way to advance the worldwide cause of communism. Saturday, First Deputy Premier Dmitriy S. Polyansky told a Bolshevik Revolution anniversary meeting, "It is our belief that, in present-day conditions, it is possible to make international relations take a turn for the better."

Spy Kidnap Hoax Exposed

TRAUNSTEIN, Germany (AP) — A Czechoslovakian doctor's story about being a Communist spy kidnaped by Iron Curtain agents was all just imaginary, the state prosecutor's office said Saturday.

Prosecutor Heinrich Schomerus said Dr. Adolf Komeda made up the story and acted out his role in order to gain experience for a book he was planning to write.

The book, according to Schomerus, was to be about a mentally ill epileptic who sets off a police manhunt.

Petrochemical Industry Is Concerned About Feedstock

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—An exciting industrial story—the rapid growth of the petrochemical industry—was told here last week.

The industry's products come from petroleum and natural gas. The name by which it goes—petrochemical—wasn't even in most dictionaries until recent years.

The story of the industry's world-wide growth was told in testimony at a joint Interior Department - Commerce Department hearing at which the industry submitted its case for increased imports of "feedstock" oils. "Feedstock" oil is a grade yielded from early steps in the refining of crude petroleum.

Take just one of the many petrochemical products—carbon black.

Roughly a third of the weight of an automobile tire is made up of this fruit of the big scale smudge pots.

PAINTS, INKS

It goes into the manufacture of paints and inks.

The plastics industry has been rapidly expanding use of it.

E. W. Sampson Jr. of Fort Worth, Tex., representing the Sid Richardson Co., gave this picture of the carbon black industry in his testimony:

—Between 1945 and 1965 total carbon black production in this country increased from 1,053 billion pounds a year to 2.2 billion pounds, or 111 per cent.

—One variety, channel black, is made from using natural gas as a feedstock. Another variety, furnace black, is produced from incomplete combustion of a special type of feedstock oil. Since 1951 there has been a sharp upturn in the production of furnace black and an accompanying decline in the manufacture of channel black.

—Channel black goes primarily into manufacture of paints and inks. Furnace black has an abrasive quality that reduces the wear on the rubber in tires.

USED IN TIRES

—Last year only 7.1 per cent of carbon black was made by the channel method. The rubber industry takes 90 per cent of the total production. Total estimated U.S. requirements of carbon black by 1975 are 2.9 billion pounds. This does not include exports of carbon black, which are expected to approximate a half billion pounds annually over the next 10 years.

—Reduced use of natural gas as a source of carbon black feedstock is attributed primarily to the increased price of gas, which averaged 49 cents per thousand cubic feet in 1945, was up to 10.4 by 1955, to 14 cents by 1960 and went to 15.4 cents in 1964. These are wellhead prices.

Sampson said his figures came largely from data gathered by the U.S. Bureau of Mines.

Ethylene has many uses, among them the manufacture of some types of alcohol, agricultural sprays and anesthetics.

Spokesmen for both independent and integrated oil companies lined up together in opposition to increased imports for the petro-chemical industry, contending they are able to meet its feedstock requirements.

Witnesses for chemical firms testified the imports are needed to enable their industry to meet foreign competition.

A decision is not expected for several weeks.

Self-Examination By API To Be Unveiled

CHICAGO (AP) — Further results of a three-year self-examination project by the American Petroleum Institute may be unveiled this week.

The nation's largest oil trade group begins its 45th meeting Monday, just one year after streamlining its objectives and organizational structure.

While varied industry problems are discussed in three days of general sessions, the institute's 128 directors will review early results of the streamlining, aimed at making the group more responsive to present day problems.

J. Ed Warren, board chairman, said a year ago a major objective was increased emphasis on information, educational efforts and public affairs.

"The purpose is to generate better public understanding of the industry's achievements and of the political and economic conditions required for the industry to make its maximum contributions to society," said Warren, president of the Cities Service Co.

NEEDS CLARIFYING

Both men have said an Aug. 5 Permian Basin ruling by the Federal Power Commission is further evidence of a need for Congress to clarify the FPC's authority to regulate wellhead prices of natural gas sold into interstate commerce.

Warren has suggested the industry prepare an affirmative program to inform and educate the public on the regulatory chaos which he said is preventing gas reserves from keeping pace with growing demand.

Other speakers include Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall, David Rockefeller, president of the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York, and Dr. Clifford Furnas, president of the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Udall's department administers the federal mandatory program to control oil imports.

The controversial imports issue is not expected to receive attention from the API board. The institute broadened its oil imports policy last year to say restrictions on such imports are necessary.

The previous policy statement adopted in 1957 merely said the federal government should provide effective controls only if imported oil threatens national security.

MAY TRANSFER

The API's Washington office has been expanded considerably the past year. There has been speculation the study headed by Warren eventually may lead to transfer of the national headquarters from New York City to Washington.

Richard Farrell, chairman of the institute's committee on public affairs, said last month the long range educational effort may not be very dramatic but is helping improve public attitudes toward the industry.

"And public attitudes are going to be the principal factor determining how we are dealt with by the public's representatives in government," said Farrell, vice president and general counsel for the Standard Oil Co. (Indiana).

A major overhaul of the industry's statistical services also has been an objective. Special task groups were appointed last month to draft detailed recommendations on reserves and productive capacity, drilling, and exploration and drilling expenditures and revenues.

Frank Ikard, president of the 10,000-member institute, will submit his report at Monday's general session.

COMPLETIONS

DAWSON

Texaco, Inc. No. 19 A. J. Spraberry in the Spraberry (San Andres) field pumped 5.0 barrels of 33.4 gravity oil with 48 per cent water from perforations between 3,756 and 3,925 feet after treatment with 15,000 gallons of acid. Location was 467 feet from the south and 1,436 feet from the east lines of section 38 34 S., T4P survey, 11 miles southeast of Lamesa.

GLASSCOCK

S. C. Currie of Garden City has abandoned the No. 1 Grubbs on a dry hole two miles south of the Fool's Creek multiple field. He drilled to 3,149 feet. Location of the well was 14 miles southeast of Garden City, 1,980 feet from the north, and 460 feet from the west lines of section 10 32 S., T4P survey.

L. N. DUNNAVANT

Southwestern Moves Offices To Midland

Southwestern Natural Gas Inc. has announced the relocation of its operations office to the First State Bank Building in Midland. The office was originally in Odessa in May of 1965. Vice president and manager of operations, L. N. Dunnavant, is a graduate of Oklahoma State University, and was formerly with Rodman & Noel Oil Corp. and Odessa Natural Gas Co.

Southwestern Natural Gas, Inc., with privately-owned stock, is an investor-type corporation with the home office located in San Antonio. The corporation is active in the development and production of oil and gas throughout the Permian Basin, Oklahoma and Southeastern New Mexico. It is now drilling and deepening projects in Reagan Upton, Crockett, Ward and Glasscock counties and, since February of 1965, has completed 19 single oil wells, one dual oil well, and one gas producer in Texas and Oklahoma.

"We are not confined to any specific area in our search for production," Dunnavant said. "Rather, we are interested in any property with potential, regardless of its location or proximity, in intensifying our efforts to expand operations and acquire development and producing properties."

Eight Counties Final 46 Wells

Forty-six wells were completed in the eight-county area adjacent to Howard County during the month of October for a potential of 5,173.72 barrels of oil. One Howard County well flowed a potential 235,000 cubic feet of gas per day, plus 193 barrels of oil.

Sixty-nine locations were staked in the eight counties during the month, and nine wells were plugged and abandoned as dry holes.

Sterling County led the list in potential production with 11 completions producing 1,545.65 barrels. One well, Sunset International's No. 4-174 Humble-Sellers, flowed 700 barrels from the Upper Wolfcamp in the Triple "M" field. The same operator's No. 1-62 Fina-Sellers produced 201 barrels from the same formation.

Dawson County held second place in daily potential with seven wells good for 980.05 barrels. The greatest production came from the Ackerly (Dean) field, where four wells were rated at 739 barrels daily.

Howard County was third with 12 wells potentialing 692 barrels daily, and Glasscock County was close behind with seven producers good for 681 barrels. Penrock Oil Corp. No. 1 Tom in the Gordon Street (Wolfcamp) potential for 333 barrels of flowing oil when drilled on the northwest edge of the pool. Mitchell County had three locations staked, but no completions were filed.

Through October, filings show 104 wells plugged and abandoned in the eight counties since Jan. 1. 411 locations were staked, and 325 completions listed for a daily potential of 38,308.62 barrels.

State Oil, Gas Lease Sale Set

AUSTIN (AP) — Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler said Friday the first state oil and gas lease sale for 1966 will be Feb. 1.

Nominations for tracts to be included in the sale must be in the land office by Dec. 8, he said.

Sadler said recent discoveries in the Gulf have added interest to the first 1966 sale.

Rotary Count Rises By Five

The Friday survey of rotary drilling rigs operating in the Permian Basin Empire, conducted by Reed Roller Bit Co., showed 199 projects drilling. This was five more than one week ago, and six more than were reported for the comparable week in 1964.

Pecos County continued to lead with 28, down one in the one-week period. Lea County, N.M., usually first, was second with 26, up one, and Reagan County with 12 for the second week, was third.

Bits turning, by counties, with last week's report in parentheses, were:

Andrews 10 (10); BORDEN 2 (1); Chaves 2 (1); Coke 1 (1); Concho 1 (0); Crane 5 (4); Crockett 7 (6); Crosby 1 (1); DAWSON 5 (5); Ector 4 (3); Eddy 11 (10); Fisher 1 (4); Gaines 3 (3); GLASSCOCK 1 (2); Hale 1 (0); Hockley 7 (5); HOWARD 4 (4); Irion 2 (2); Kent 2 (3); Lea 26 (25); Loving 2 (1); Lubbock 1 (1); Lynn 1 (0); MARTIN 2 (2); Midland 5 (6); Nolan 3 (2); Pecos 28 (29); Presidio 1 (1); Reagan 12 (12); Reeves 9 (10); Roosevelt 8 (8); Runnels 2 (2); Schleicher 4 (3); Scurry 2 (1); STERLING 2 (2); Stone-wall 2 (2); Sutton 0 (1); Terrell 2 (2); Terry 0 (1); Tom Green 1 (3); Upton 1 (2); Ward 5 (5); Winkler 3 (3); Yoakum 7 (5); Totals 199 (194).

COSDEN

Cosden proudly salutes another of its 'SENIORS'

J. B. PRICE

October 25, 1965 marked the fifteenth anniversary of J. B. Price's association with Cosden. He had started on the yard at Big Spring Refinery but went into operations within a few months. From gauger at the crude unit he moved to the poly plant as a stillman.

Nine years ago he helped bring on stream the Rexformer. He is currently an Operator No. 1 at that unit.

Price was born in Snyder. He graduated from Ira High School and moved to Big Spring in 1949. Beginning in September 1942, he had spent 3 1/2 years in the Army Air Corps, largely in the South Pacific. He was discharged as a corporal.

He and his wife, the former Avalene Mathews of Merkel, have two children. Michael Roy, 19, is a freshman at Lubbock Christian College, majoring in agriculture. Christi Jacqueline, 16, is a Big Spring High sophomore. She and her brother have their own horses and enjoy riding. Home is at 1109 Ridgeroad.

At one time Price was a professional musician, playing guitar and bass in show bands on the west coast and in the midwest. Nowadays, watching football and baseball games appeals to him.

As a family, the Prices are enthusiastic about camping trips. They have visited ten national parks in their travels as far distant as Yosemite and Yellowstone, and have graduated from a tent to a trailer and pickup camper.

The Prices are members of 14th and Main Church of Christ.

LIKE MONEY IN THE BANK is this business suit from Elmo Wasson's worn by Wayman Clark. The two-button model, with side vents, is classically-cut in burnished brown wool. Perfect companions are the pima cotton shirt, with tab collar and button cuffs, and the muted stripe tie in dark brown and gold. For windy weather, there's a sand dune felt hat banded in black silk.

YOUNG MEN IN A HURRY are taking more time these days to choose attire that proves they're going places. So many things to do and people to meet — the best is yet to come. Gregg Pate sports a gold blazer, notch-collared and flap-pocketed, which he teams with black, stay-pressed slacks from Prager's. It's the university look with striped clip-on tie and black slip-on shoes.

HOW TO STAND OUT in the crowd is shown by Jack Lee in a black tropical worsted tuxedo from Hemphill-Wells. The easy-fitting jacket features a satin shawl collar, and satin is repeated in the trouser stripe. Completing the evening attire is a pleated-front shirt worn with black bow tie and cummerbund. The dress shoes are black calf.

HOW YOU PLAY THE GAME may not matter so much if your approach is faultless. Who could find fault with the fairway fashions from Montgomery-Ward shown by Louis McKnight? His beltless, olive wool slacks are permanently creased, and his iridescent shirt goes comfortably in or out. The heather sweater is a bulky, cardigan of wool and mohair.

Men's Wear '65

Sartorially speaking, the word for men's wear this season is "classic." Webster defines classic, among other things, as "embodying authoritative principles" and "in accordance with a system considered as having its parts perfectly coordinated to their purpose." Which just about sums up the over-all news for fall, 1965.

The return of the classic, or the contemporary version of it, is evident in both town and leisure wear. It is seen in the comeback of traditional stripings in suits, in the return to the smooth, flat look in sweaters and knits; in the resurgence of military styling in outerwear and the British warrior look in overcoats, and in the continued emphasis on rugged country tweeds in sport jackets.

Two developments to note are the busting out all over of sports outerwear in more fabrics and styles than ever before, and the growing acceptance of the shaped or fitted look.

There is endless variety in styling. Suit and sport coats can be one, two or three button; pockets may be piped, flapped, hacking, slanted, besom, ticket—or none at all. Vents may be at the side or back and waist suppression is more evident. Some lapels are wider and may be L-shaped, clover-leaf, peaked, notched or semi-any of them.

There is a richness in suitings, many taking on luster or incandescence, and the growing trend to stripes dominates the winter season, whether it's a chalk stripe, pencil stripe, shadow stripe or corded effect.

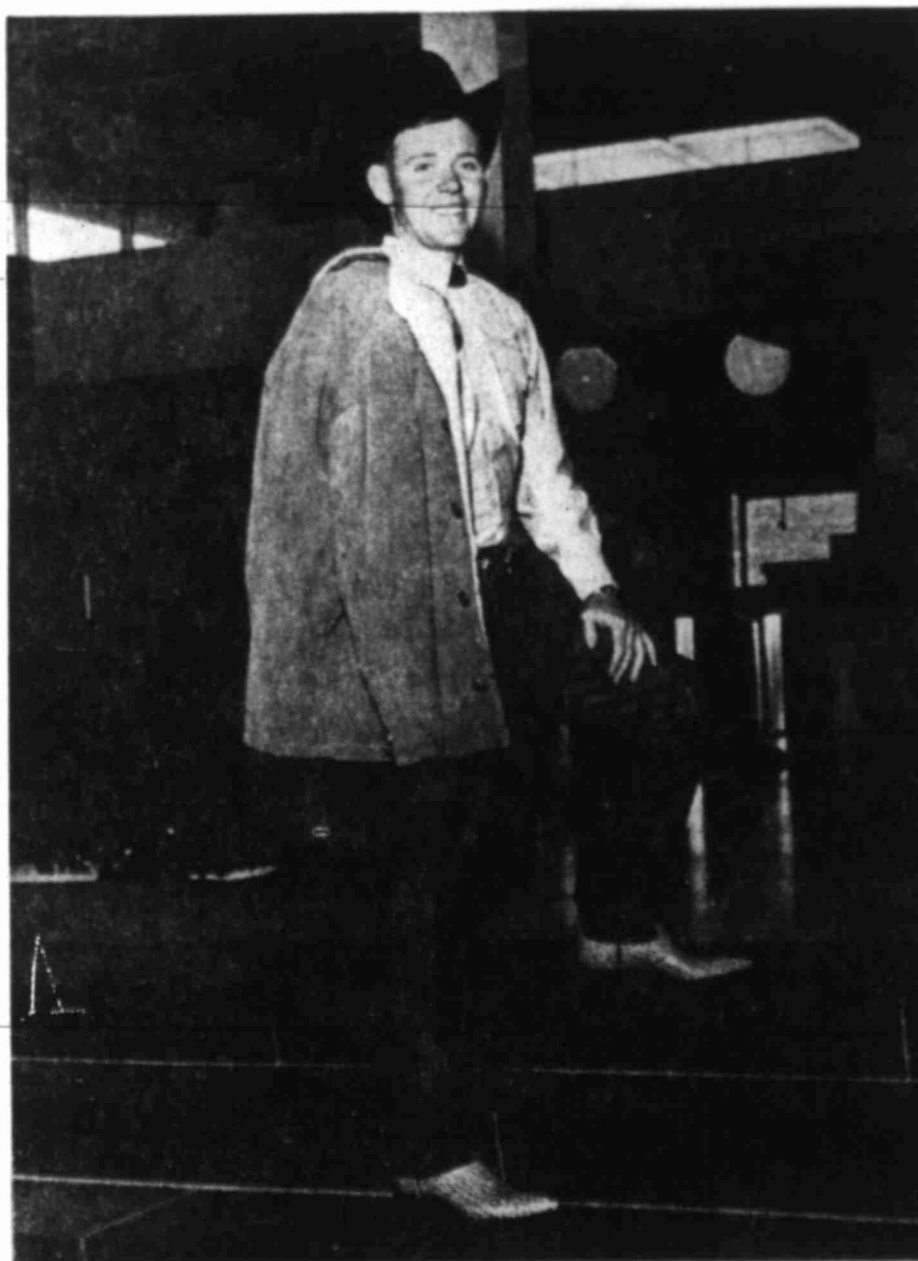

Seasons are out—all-purpose fabrics are in—and it's the year for men to look great in clothes that get looked at.

PERUSING THE PAPER is part of knowing who's news from a man's point of view. R. S. Galbraith Jr. keeps an eye on current events, attracting attention in a V-necked cardigan from Anthony's. Warmth is from wool and mohair, double diamond patterned in gray and greens on a mallard background. His pleated-front slacks are of charcoal brown wool and mohair.

TEXANS TAKE THEIR TOGS Western-tye for a rugged Saturday night. When a cowboy comes to town he likes the looks of clothes from Ward's Boot and Saddle Shop shown by Jess Little. Jeans and checked shirt are topped with a gold split cowhide coat, fleece-lined and leather-buttoned. Boots have a seal-grained vamp with caribou top, and the high-crown hat and bull dogger tie are black.

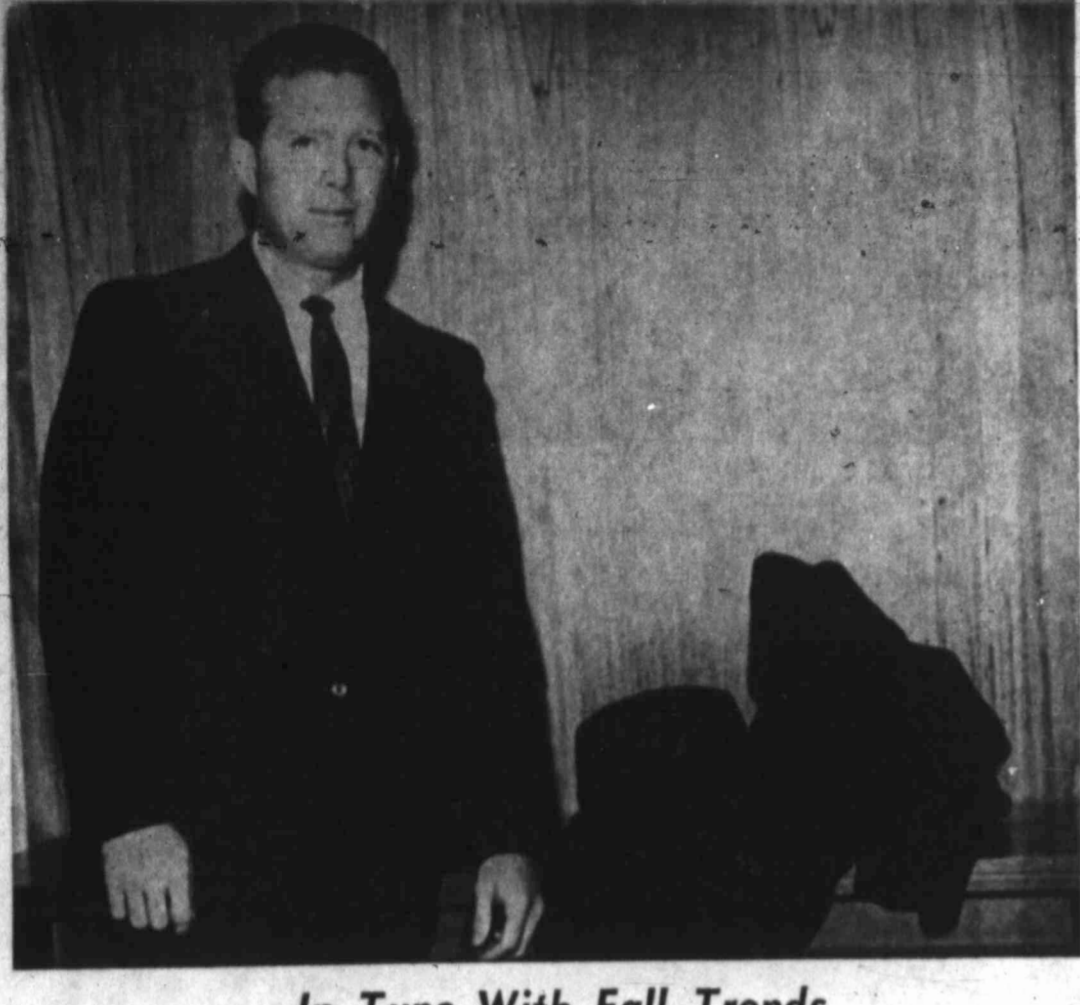

CHICKEN EVERY SUNDAY, the traditional minister's menu, is bound to be more enjoyable if a gentleman is smartly dressed for dinner. The Rev. James A. Puckett wears Penney's new two-button black sharkskin suit in a blend of wool and silk. Accents are the half-clover lapel and side vents. In sharp contrast is the white pima cotton shirt and coordinated tie in black and blue.

WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE of casual comfort is Roger Brown who likes this main coat from Gibbs and Weeks. The all-purpose topper is in gray plaid, straight-collared, with half-raglan sleeves. Facts to be uncovered include solid black worsted slacks and fitted jacket of maroon glen plaid. The whole truth reveals white shirt, maroon tie, mosaic hat and gray mocca gloves.

In Tune With Fall Trends

The new interest in pin stripes for suitings, a fashion forecast already proving popular, is illustrated by Jerry Kelley with a two-button suit from Mellingers featuring slanting flap pockets. The white oxford cloth shirt has a button-down collar, and he teams it with an olive and blue paisley tie. For added warmth, he'll use the olive plaid all-weather coat with removable olive liner. His hat is olive felt with matching suede band, and the black pigskin gloves are fur-lined.

Mrs. Moss Appoints Committee

Mrs. Joe Moss, president, appointed a nominating committee at the Ladies Golf Association luncheon held Friday at Big Spring Country Club. Those serving are Mrs. Jimmy Taylor, Mrs. Adolf Swartz, Mrs. Guilford Jones, Mrs. Clyde McMahon Jr. and Mrs. R. S. Galbraith Jr.

Mrs. R. J. Ream was hostess for the luncheon, and Mrs. Fred Clark was welcomed as a new member.

The centerpiece, formed of gold, yellow and bronze chrysanthemums interspersed with autumn leaves, was awarded to Mrs. Elmo Wasson.

Mrs. Moss announced that the Dec. 3 luncheon will be preceded with a Christmas Cheer party where hostesses will be the association officers.

For Wintertime Find Main Valve

Here's good advice from the Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau: Everyone in the family should know where to shut off the water supply at the main valve in case of an emergency - such as if a break should occur in the pipe under a floor or behind a wall.

Miss Linda Myrick Weds J. D. Phillips

Miss Linda Carol Myrick and James D. Phillips exchanged wedding vows Thursday evening in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Myrick, 1105 Mulberry. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Phillips, 1201 Mulberry.

The Rev. Dan Oglesby, pastor of the Midway Baptist Church, officiated for the single ring ceremony.

The home was decorated with arrangements of pink roses, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a white brocade street-length sheath costume. The sleeveless dress was designed with a scooped neckline and a matching jacket with three-quarter-length sleeves was tied at the front with two bows. Her veil of illusion was attached to a white ring hat, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations atop a white Bible.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Nelda Myrick. She wore a blue wool sheath with long sleeves and white lace collar.

Larry W. Phillips, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. For a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a three-piece suit of royal blue and green tweed, with black accessories and the corsage from her bouquet.

The couple will reside at 519 Hillside.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips attended Big Spring High School. Phillips, following a four year tour of duty in the Navy, is attending mechanic's school at Howard County Junior College.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home, where the honored couple and parents greeted guests.

The refreshment table was covered with an ivory lace cloth

Morrises Entertain Wednesday

COAHOMA (SC) - On Wednesday Mrs. H. E. Morris of Snyder, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fincher, Snyder, and Mrs. Fred McCoy of Farmington, N.M., were guests in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Justiss had as their guests Tuesday evening his parents, the T. C. Justiss' of Roby.

Paul Mosley is in the hospital at Stephenville following eye surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Etheridge of Iraan have returned to their home after spending a week here with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Etheridge, and daughter, Robin.

Use Plastic Sheet For Clean Spreads

Do guests have to use your bed as a "closet" to rest their wraps? Then cover the bed with a sheet of sheer plastic to keep coats and handbags from soiling the spread.

Later, wipe this plastic with a sudsy sponge and rinse, dry, and store it for the next get-together. It's also useful when visiting babies need a "change" or a nap.

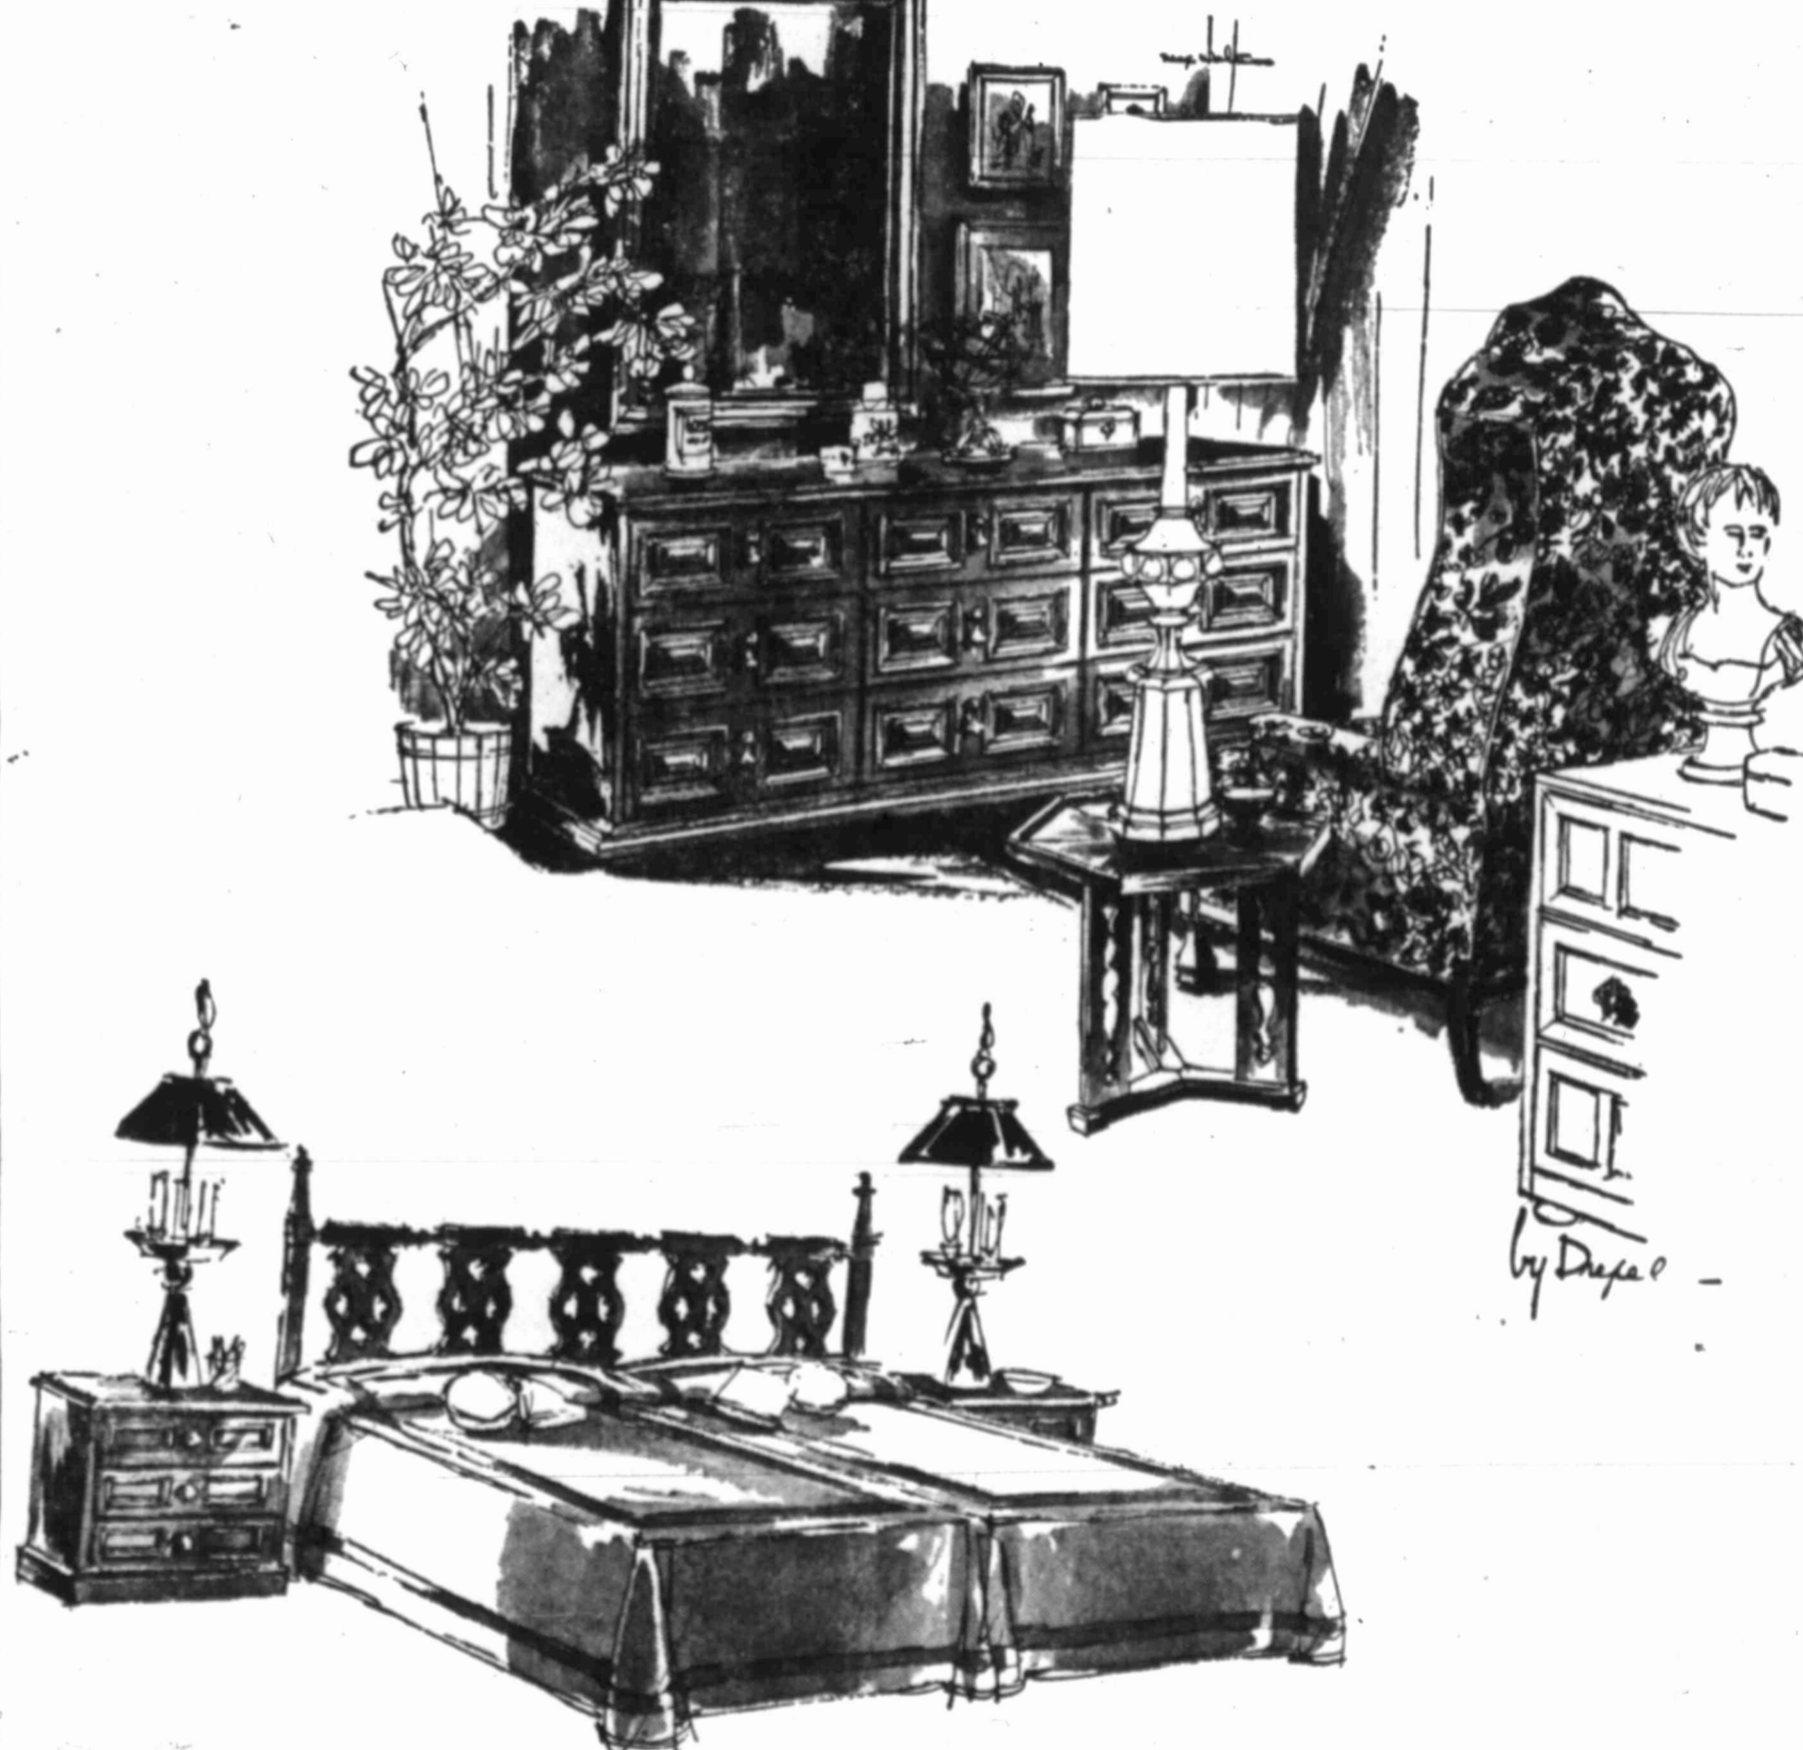

Wear Earrings

One way to wear earrings without pinching the ears - attach them to jeweled bandeaus which fit across the top of the head and swing down to the ears to end in clusters of jewels. The idea came from designer Luciana of Florence.

Home Decorating Is Inexpensive

How many times have you walked past "that ugly lamp shade" or moaned about "those drab slipcovers"? Every home has some dull spots that could be perked up with color. If you are not planning a wholesale re-decoration project - and who can really afford to? - then discover the ingenious possibilities of accent decorating.

Refurbish old straw baskets by tinting them zingy colors... transform a neutral lampshade into a decorator accessory... accentuate wood grains by applying warm concentrated dye... revive faded towels. See how many items in your home that "died" can live again - dyed.

Counselor Anticipates Child's Ability, Need

By JO ANN PHINIZY

"I'm really just one member of a very large team," said Miss Mary Foreman, of the Big Spring Elementary school system. She was discussing some of the many honors that have come her way in the field of student counseling.

She has, for instance, the distinction of being the first woman school counselor, working on the elementary school level, in Texas.

She is also the first vice president of Texas Association of Instructional Supervisors.

"I like working with children," is Miss Foreman's explanation as to why she was selected for such offices.

She also explained that, in order to help a child, it takes the talents of all those who come in contact with the child: the teachers, the school nurse, speech therapist, principal and parents.

The aim of the counselor's office is to anticipate the abilities of a child and to assist in his development.

"Our purpose," Miss Foreman said, "is to find a way to teach every child."

To do this, all known scientific testing methods are used. The results are assimilated, analyzed and compared; but, always, the main ingredient is a large dose of old-fashioned understanding.

One of the methods used is the Intelligence Quota exam. The IQ test holds the status of being a signpost along the way to finding a child's ability.

TEST RESULTS

Test results are not based on the grade alone. Instead, each paper and each student is discussed with the teacher before any opinion is formed.

One example of the values of paper grades plus personal opinion was in a particular student's test score which did not coincide with his teacher's anticipation.

Miss Foreman talked with the

boy and discovered that he was of Latin American descent and that he was shyly trying to teach himself the English language.

All members of the team pitched in to give the boy special attention and assistance. Soon he was double promoted, and now his grades are the envy of his class.

"Mostly we deal in intangible rewards," said Miss Foreman, "and the road is generally a very long one."

One such long road came to her attention recently when a teacher asked help with a child who wouldn't talk in the presence of strangers. With the aid of the parents, and in a home atmosphere, a tape recording was made of the child's voice.

Miss Foreman discovered a correctable speech impediment. Now the child has regular sessions with the speech therapist.

Birthday Party Held In Coahoma

COAHOMA (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Buchanan and children of Jal, N.M., have been visitors in the homes of their parents, the B. B. Fords of Sand Springs and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Buchanan. On Monday night Sammie was honored with a birthday supper at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burch and son, Leroy, have returned from Walsh, Colo. Mrs. Burch's father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn returned with them for a visit here. On Wednesday the Dunn's went to Midland for a visit with their granddaughter and family, the Clarence Hollade's.

Recent visitors in the Joe Swinney home were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Swinney of O'Donnell.

Tells Diet Successes

Much facility has been attained in use of chemically defined diets in metabolic studies of man and animals. At one time it was not possible to put together chemical compounds, other than ordinary foods, that provided an adequate diet for a long period.

Now this can be done. Chemically defined diets have been fed to experimental animals for several generations and have supported normal growth, reproduction and life span. The benefits of such diets in experimental work are obvious.

They eliminate the uncertainties of use of foods that may contain unknown substances with unknown effects. A sharply defined diet enables the experimenter to determine the effects of single variables, such as substituting glucose for sucrose.

PBX Club Starts Holiday Plans

Plans to sell candy for a fund-raising project were approved during the Thursday evening meeting of the PBX Club. The members met at the home of Mrs. LaFaye Phillips, 1309 Virginia, with Mrs. Fern Smith presiding.

Proceeds from the candy sale will be used to provide a ward Christmas party for state hospital patients.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Have you noticed how much of the artist most women have in their makeup . . . I really mean makeup, the kind that makes 99 per cent of us more pleasant to behold.

An artist that uses the brush and a blank canvas has a great deal more advantage than a lot of us who work diligently each day to make our face more presentable to the public. And believe me, we face a pretty bleak prospect most of the time. But we like to think we are equal to the occasion.

But to look on the brighter side: Think how many women who have long worried with dowdy hair that wasn't any particular shade. Now there's not any shade we can't have if we have the perseverance to go through the process of getting the color out and another in. Also there are numerous shades of eye shadow to help bring out what color we have in our eyes.

Rouges and lipsticks can be brought (for a price) to lighten or lower the individual coloring, and then there is the eyeliner. This is probably the most misused aid of them all. Some of the young girls hit it with a heavy hand and the result makes them take on the appearance of a raccoon. If it is used sparingly the wearer has much more attractive eyes.

What it all boils down to is that it takes that bit of artistry, played to the hilt, to bring out the best in our faces.

Can it already be time for the ED SETTLESSES to be celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary? It seems to be a fact, as they, along with their juniors college age son, BOB, were having a little private dinner Friday night, to mark the occasion. The couple married in Fort Worth at St. Patrick's Catholic Church with Father Langerhorst officiating.

After Friday's story in The Herald announcing that there were some phony $29 bills floating about I hurried to check the one I have been hoarding for many months and, praised be, it's a good one!

MRS. EDWARD COUSIN and her two sons and daughter who have recently made their home in Huntington Beach, Calif., are here with her parents, MR. and MRS. G. C. GLEN. Her husband will join the family just before Christmas and have a short visit here before the family leaves for New York the first of the year. From there they will leave for Malta.

MR. and MRS. ART FRANKLIN are in Lubbock to be with his brother-in-law who is due to have surgery.

Woman Mayor Advises People

Study Club Has Annual Guest Night

The Thanksgiving theme was featured during the annual guest night meeting of the Foran Study Club. The 27 members and guests met at the Spanish Main Restaurant with Mrs. Elmer Patton as toastmistress.

Mrs. Cliff Ferguson and Mrs. Elbert Strickland were in charge of the arrangements and decorations.

The main table was covered with red linen cloth and centered with a horn of plenty filled with artificial fruit and vegetables.

Mrs. Bill Conger introduced Mrs. Gail Bonner, who played organ selections during the evening.

Hints Told For Clothes

Clothing specialists at the United States Department of Agriculture claim that it's best to hang garments for off-season storage than to fold them in boxes.

Knitted garments, of course, are an exception as they should be kept flat to retain their shape. Garment bags should have zippers that make them airtight as possible.

Do not use plastic hangers or store clothing with plastic buttons when moth balls, crystals or flakes are used because the plastic may soften, harming fabrics.

In the matter of furs, it is considered best to seek out a professional fur firm.

OWC Wine-Tasting Luncheon Thursday

Grapes, vines and green tapers enhanced tables at the Thursday Wine-Tasting Luncheon held by the Officers' Wives Club of Webb AFB. In the Officers' Open Mess, three wine-tasting tables were presided over by hostesses designated by white organdy aprons.

Booklets giving tips on the serving of wine were placed by each plate, and columns in the room were entwined with lavender and white satin grapes and vines. The centerpiece for the main table was of white and lavender spider chrysanthemums, grapes, vines and autumn leaves.

The affair was sponsored by Student Squadron wives, and Mrs. R. J. Kasher, first vice president of the OWC, conducted the meeting. Mrs. J. D. Arnold introduced guests.

BUSINESS
Mrs. G. H. Perron read changes in the constitution making the base commander's wife honorary vice president of the OWC.

Mrs. C. H. Cole, whose husband is being transferred, resigned as treasurer, and Mrs. G. W. Green was appointed to fill the post. Mrs. L. R. Kline stiver was named assistant treasurer.

Mrs. Ennis Cochran of Big Spring State Hospital presented the OWC with a certificate of appreciation which was accepted by Mrs. C. L. Gallager.

Help was requested Nov. 8-10 to stuff envelopes for the TB Association at the First Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. J. E. Oxley and Mrs. A. P. Keith asked those wishing to substitute on the bowling teams to contact them.

Committee chairmen for the luncheon were introduced by Mrs. Max Werking. They were Mrs. R. A. Gray, Mrs. F. W.

The centerpiece was given to Mrs. William T. Causey, the tapers went to Mrs. R. W. Williams, Mrs. R. L. Gardner and Mrs. Niles Carter, and a crystal ash tray was won by Mrs. J. H. Kiehle. Mrs. G. A. Phillips got the free luncheon. Vernon Smith supplied the wines and Blum's Jewelers arranged for table settings for display.

LADD THOMAS

Guild Offers Organ Recital In Midland

The West Texas Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, with members in Big Spring, Odessa, Midland and San Angelo, will present Ladd Thomas in an organ recital Nov. 11. The recital will be given at the First Presbyterian Church, 800 W. Texas Ave., Midland, at 8 p.m. The church nursery will be open.

Thomas is a graduate of Occidental College in Los Angeles, Calif. He has studied organ with Max Miller, David Craighead, Clarence Mader and has his choral training with Howard Swan. He holds a master's degree in theology from Southern California School of Theology. He has given recitals throughout Southwestern California and has twice toured the Southern and Eastern United States. In July, 1963, he was the featured recitalist and lecturer at the Bach Festival in Honolulu, Hawaii, and in June, 1964, was heard at the American Guild of Organists' national convention in Philadelphia, Pa. He has played for guild chapters throughout the country and is a past dean of the Pasadena and Valley Districts chapter.

At present, Thomas is the organist of the First Methodist Church in Glendale, Calif., and of the Pasadena Symphony. He has also been visiting instructor in organ at Pomona College in Claremont, Calif.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Cookie Sheets Aid In Using Freezer

Dear Folks:
About the best buy I ever made was six inexpensive cookie sheets (they come in all sizes) from my dime store to use in our freezer — the upright type which has solid aluminum shelves.

Invariably, when I wanted something, I had to move everything to get to that package of peas, etc., on the bottom, so now I put one layer of frozen boxed stuff on each cookie sheet, standing the boxes on their sides, and when I want something, all I have to do is move a cookie sheet to get to it.

Another good thing about this is that when defrosting time comes, I can remove whole trays of food, instead of one box of frozen food at a time.

So, those who have freezers might like to try this idea.

But . . . no use to go hog wild and buy six trays at once. Just get one or two, and try them out first.

I just know you will love them as I do. . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:
I have found a use for your wonderful nylon net in the bathroom — a hammock for water toys.

I recently purchased one-half yard, in a matching color, for our bathroom; gathered it on each end, and attached it to the two bathroom towel hooks in sling-fashion above the bathtub. It is a marvelous help — allows the toys to drain, doesn't mildew, holds more toys, and is convenient for the children to reach.

We love it, and it's pretty, too!

Special love to my friend, Heloise. . . . Mrs. Dan Boltz

Dear Heloise:
Corner sinks in "powder" rooms present problems . . . To use the space under them, you need a curtain, but how to hang it?

If the under-side of your sink is iron (not solid porcelain), get six or eight magnetic hooks at your hardware store, and stick them under the sink edge. Make a pleated curtain to fit with six or eight pin hooks, and you have it made!

The magnets will hold the curtains in place. . . . H.M.B.

And, this idea could also be used to camouflage an old bathtub (the type with four legs), and give the bathroom a cheery appearance. . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:
This is the way I remove stamps from an envelope:

I lay the envelope down on the kitchen counter, stamp down.

Then I put a wet paper towel or dishcloth on the envelope, let it stay for a while, then remove it, and the stamp comes off beautifully. . . . Mrs. J. McLaughlin

Dear Heloise:
Do you remember trying to give a sleepy little child a teaspoon of cough syrup in the middle of the night?

A quick turn of the head usually spilled syrup on pajamas and bed linens.

I solved this problem by measuring how far up on an eyedropper a teaspoon of the syrup came . . . and made this operation a one-handed thing.

Just fill eyedropper to where one teaspoon measures, and one quick squirt in the child's mouth does the trick. The child does not even had to sit up for the cough syrup.

Eyedroppers are now available in plastic, so no worry about a youngster biting it. . . . Dorothy K. Keller (Write Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald.)

Mondrian Madness: Is It Contagious?

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Piet Mondrian was a Dutch artist who painted squares and rectangles, inspired architecture and probably never did anyone harm. Quite a lot of art critics thought him great. Possibly the worst thing ever said about him by some Philistine or other, was that he produced fine patterns for linoleum.

Then Paris' haute couture discovered him, just this August. The word wafted across the Atlantic and New York's garment district went into overtime in one of the maddest rag races in years.

Now, 21 years after his death in New York, Mondrian is enjoying a revival. This time his art is hanging, not on gallery walls, but on ready-to-wear racks throughout the country.

Now, the dynamic equilibrium of his lines and the purity of his primary colors—which may or may not have been achieved by the mass reproductions of the garment industry—are receiving thoughtful consideration from women who had never heard of him before.

REMEMBER MONA?

If he were around, he probably would feel he suffered in the translation from canvas to more fashionable fabrics. It's a sentiment no doubt that could be shared by Leonardo da Vinci (remember the Mona Lisa sweatshirts?) and more recently by various pop and op artists who enjoyed a brief flurry of attention from designers earlier this year.

But will American women really go for Mondrian?

It's hardly the sort of subdued fashion you can make the basis of a wardrobe, changing accessories to create whole new outfits. Yet its enthusiasts predict a long range impact on fashion — from Mondrian-influenced coats, suits and children's three-color, A-line shift with a high neckline and, at right, a geometrical shift, double knit Mondrian, sleeveless, with black square and black line trim.

It Started With Yves St. Laurent

wear to loungewear, lingerie, shoes. As one designer says thriftily: "It's a great way to get rid of old fabric scraps."

HOW IT BEGAN

Yves St. Laurent, the young French designer, started the craze last fall showing when he introduced a group of Mondrian-inspired dresses. He had got the idea from an art book his mother had given him.

Buyers and press went into raptures. Back home in America hat designer Adolfo got the drop on everybody by coming out, within days, with leather bubble hats in two colors divided by black.

Most of the manufacturers engaged in the mad race to be first on the rack hadn't seen the St. Laurent showing.

For example, Nat Rubin, president of Rambrandt Frocks, said he heard rumors about it while he was in Europe. "It was something so simple it seemed silly to wait for it to be shown. I rushed home to interpret it. I had finished a dress by the time it was making a splash." St. Laurent also showed a few dresses influenced by Serge Polakoff, Russian-born non-objective painter living in Paris, and rubin—and some others—hopped onto those too. "I think Poliakoff is stronger and more dynamic, and in the long pull Poliakoff is right, but that bias work and zigzag is murder in a factory," says Rubin.

OBJECTORS SPEAK UP

Larry Aldrich, president of the New York Couture Group, head of a couture fashion house and well-known as an art collector, says:

"I like the idea in Mondrian painting which I certainly own, but in fashion it's a novelty idea. It's not going to be exposed in anything but sports clothes. The idea is really the two or three-tone color idea in a dress which started last spring with me and some other people.

"It's very gay and attractive for sports, but can you envision an evening gown?" In other words, it's not influencing our thinking in our next collection. It's not a couture fashion, in my opinion." Norman Norell, dean of American designers, protests: "It's new not at all. The same day the news broke in Paris I saw a girl on the street here wearing a cheap white blouse with an exact Mondrian. I know Studio Knits has been doing real Mondrian for three years."

Non-Objective

Mondrian-inspired sleeveless sweater with two suns by Samuel Freund, who designed it months ago.

Samuel Freund, whose label is "Studio Knits," did several Mondrian sweaters three years ago but no one paid any attention, he says. Now he has dusted off several of the old styles and added new ones.

A spokesman for a men's and boys' sweater company (Himalaya) says it did modified Mondrian four years ago but the reception was cool. Undismayed, it's thinking of doing Braque (that's Georges Braque, non-geometric, semi-abstract French painter largely of still life, who died in 1963) for the next season.

How would you describe a Braque-inspired sweater?

"Mmmmm," says the spokesman. "Just give me a day to think about it, would you?"

Jim Craigs Take Trips In Texas

FORSAN (SC)—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Craig visited in Andrews with Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Baker and children and also traveled to San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Wilson have returned from a month's visit in Fort Worth, Denton, Wichita Falls and Hobbs, N.M.

Mrs. T. D. Breithaupt and Karen of Odessa are to spend this weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cardwell.

Mrs. J. W. Griffith has returned home from Hobbs, N.M., after a week's visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newcomb.

Mrs. Mary Archer is home after a visit to Seagraves with relatives.

Tiles Have All Shapes

When considering ceramic tile for remodeling kitchen counters, don't be confused about the matter of versatility.

Tile installations can be achieved in even the most unhandy nooks and crannies. In addition to flat tiles, U.S. manufacturers produce many special-shape "trim units." With these you can turn corners, round off edges and give a neat, easy-to-maintain finish to any installation.

Use Open Areas For Lighted Grill

A lighted grill should not be used in a porch, garage or other area that is enclosed, unless the area is well ventilated or the unit has a vent that carries the charcoal's poisonous fumes and smoke directly outside.

If you place coals in a bucket of water to extinguish a fire and plan to use the coals again, spread them outdoors to dry before storage in a covered metal container in a dry place. Charcoal can ignite spontaneously when moist.

Texas Hairdressers Continue Workshop

The Texas Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, District Eight, educational clinic is continuing today at Ramada Inn where the holiday trend releases are being shown. The clinic began Saturday with a hospitality hour.

Registration was this morning, followed by opening ceremonies to introduce the guest artist, Damon Smart. Following a luncheon, contests, judging and awarding of trophies will be held this afternoon. The program will be completed by 10 p.m.

Monday, registration will be at 8 a.m., and the guest artist will lecture and demonstrate from 9 a.m. until 12 o'clock noon. After the luncheon, Smart will continue his program until 3 p.m. and the open trend contest will begin at 3:15. The judging will end at 5 p.m.

District Eight includes Big Spring, Sweetwater, Abilene, Colorado City, Breckenridge, Brownwood and Snyder. Smart is a member of the Texas team which competes with teams from other states in hair styling contests.

Miss Ham Selected By Insurance Group

MISS PAM HAM

Miss Pam Ham was selected to be the representative of the Insurance Women of Big Spring during the Thursday evening meeting. The group met at the Ramada Inn with Mrs. Ed Setles presiding.

Miss Ham is a Big Spring Senior High School student and she was selected from among ten candidates. She will represent the insurance agencies and claim services for local civic activities.

Miss Ham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ham, 2005 S. Monticello, is a member of the Future Career Club, continuing pointed program and education chairman. She will order text books entitled, "Introduction to Insurance for Texas."

It was announced that Mrs. Henry Bell had been elected to serve on the state committee for constitution and by-laws.

During the program session, Dec. 2 was set for the Christmas exchange party, and a farewell gift of a monogrammed photograph album was presented to Mrs. Joe Bob Baker. She and her family will be moving to Abilene in the near future.

International Wives Elect Mrs. Al Valdes

Mrs. Al Valdes was elected president of the International Wives Club at a meeting held Thursday evening in her home at 626 Caylor.

Others named to the slate were Mrs. Jack Terryman, vice president; Mrs. George Adams, secretary; Mrs. R. H. Alonzo, treasurer; and Mrs. Irineo B. Bringes, parliamentarian. Mrs. Robert Conn will be in charge of publicity.

A bracelet was presented to Mrs. Sam Mellinger, retiring president, as a gift of appreciation from the members.

Two new members were welcomed. They were Mrs. Jolin Green of Ireland and Mrs. Troy Thomas of Scotland.

Guests were Mrs. Milida Haddad, Mrs. Jorge A. Fuentes and Mrs. Jorge Amante, all of Mexico; Mrs. Eduardo Jose Arganas, Argentina; Mrs. Edwardo Pool, Chili; and Mrs. Cecil Stephens, Big Spring; and Mrs. Joseph Parz of Germany, a houseguest of her daughter, Mrs. Alonzo. The attendance prize went to Mrs. Ray Marinic.

The evening's entertainment included table games, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Donald Van Meter will be hostess to the club in the director's quarters at the Veterans Administration Hospital at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 2.

SHERYL GAMBILL

DeMolays Pick Club Sweetheart

Sheryl Gambill, 17, was recently elected sweetheart of the Leon P. Moffett Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gambill, 1011 Howell, and is a high school senior. Among the other offices she holds are vice president of the a cappella choir; vice president of the band; song director, Big Spring FHA Chapter; recorder, Big Spring Assembly No. 60, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Miss Gambill will attend all chapter social activities, and in addition to this, will travel to the DeMolay area and state conclaves next summer. She will compete in the area and state beauty competition for DeMolay sweethearts.

Family Pictures Record Progress

Family photographs, if used imaginatively, can be intimate and delightful in practically any room of the house. In an entrance hall or family room, they can be hung from floor to ceiling, making an interesting record of the family's growing progress.

Such photograph groupings can include prize dogs, horses or other family pets, as well as pictures of the family activities (vacations, hobbies, etc.). A safe rule for the use of family photographs is to avoid a timid approach, use them lavishly and freely or not at all.

Clubs Arrange Food For Hereford Sale

Food arrangements for the Nov. 23 Hereford sale at the Howard County sale barn were discussed at most of the home demonstration club meetings this week. Study programs continued with Mrs. Delaine Crawford, agent, and Miss Alice Ward, her assistant, presenting talks on family finances and new fabrics.

AIRPORT CLUB
Mrs. Crawford, guest speaker, took a look at family finances when she spoke Tuesday at the Airport Home Demonstration Club meeting. Mrs. Marshall E. Brown, 1503 Robin, was hostess with 16 members attending. Guests were Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Edward Brown.

Mrs. Omer Decker announced that a covered dish luncheon would be held in her home Thursday. A workshop was scheduled to begin at 8:30 a.m., preceding the luncheon.

The next regular meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Ronnie Bostick, 1313 Kendall.

FAIRVIEW CLUB
Mrs. C. A. Smauless gave the devotion when the Fairview Home Demonstration Club met in her home Tuesday at 2 p.m. The thought for the day was "No one is rich enough to do without a neighbor," and the roll call was answered with "How I welcome a new neighbor."

Mrs. H. S. Hanson, vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of Mrs. J. C. Robinson who underwent surgery Monday at Shannon Hospital in San Angelo. The council report was given by Mrs. J. S. Skalicky who discussed plans for the concession at the Howard County sale barn during the Hereford sale Nov. 23.

Mrs. O. D. Engle and Mrs. Shirley Fryar gave a program on what is new in fabrics and explained how the new blends should be sewn and cared for. Eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Anna Vastine, attended. Mrs. Skalicky will be hostess for the Thanksgiving luncheon and all-day meeting.

ELBOW CLUB
Mrs. C. J. Faught was welcomed as a new member at the Thursday morning meeting of the Elbow Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. W. A. Allen.

Nine members and two guests attended. The guests were the speaker, Mrs. Crawford, who talked on family finances, and Miss Ward, her assistant. Mrs. C. P. Sherman presided and gave the council report. The Elbow club is to provide one worker, four pies and eight pounds of beans to be used at the Nov. 23 Hereford sale. The Nov. 18 meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Denver Yates, and the annual Christmas party will be at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 18, with Mrs. Ray Shortes.

COATOMA CLUB
A sidewalk bazaar was discussed during the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Coahoma Home Demonstration Club. The group met at the home of Mrs. M. M. Edwards, and eight members answered the roll call of "How I welcome a neighbor."

The Thanksgiving party will be Nov. 17 at the Downtown Tea Room. Mrs. Crawford, county home demonstration agent, gave the program. "A Look at Family Finances."

Mrs. Ralph White reported on the HD council meeting, and the members will assist with the lunch booth at the Nov. 23 Hereford sale at the Howard County sale barn. The next meeting will be for the Dec. 14 county home demonstration Christmas party at the First Presbyterian Church, Big Spring.

COLLEGE CLUB
It was announced that the College Home Demonstration Club would assist with serving lunches at the Nov. 23 Hereford sale during the Tuesday morning meeting. The members met at the home of Mrs. Harry Roach, 4111 Dixon.

A Dec. 13 Christmas party was also discussed. Hostess will be Mrs. Jesse Crane.

Members were reminded that there would be a salad luncheon and gift wrapping workshop Nov. 30 at the home of Mrs. Roy Lynn.

The next meeting will be Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. Lynn.

LOMAX CLUB
Mrs. Ervin Bridge was hostess for the 2 p.m. Thursday meeting of the Lomax Home Demonstration Club when Mrs.

Garrett's Stock Is Making Good Show

The shadow of two great Angus bulls has fallen across two national shows for the Garrett - Wynne Ranch and Horace Garrett of Big Spring is curious to see what will happen in the remaining big one—the International Livestock Show in Chicago this month.

One of the bulls, Ermitre of Haymont, won the get-of-sire title at Dallas, and both he and Beaver Dam 30th won get-of-sire honors at Kansas City.

15 HIGH PLACES

Progeny of these classy sires swept 15 top or reserve spots in the two shows. All of the winners were sired by either Ermitre or by Beaver Dam 30th, with the exception of two by Elegance (29th) of Mangator, a New Zealand import which Garrett sold his third interest for $36,000 last year. Elegance is out of a dam sired by KF Bardolier 4th, the sire of Beaver Dam. Bardolier had been the sire of the year in 1962 and 1963.

Ermitre is a 7-year-old Scotch-bred bull from Perth, where he was a "world" champion before he came to the United States to top the International Livestock show and before Garrett purchased a third interest in him for $66,000. Now seven years old, many look upon his massive frame as a prototype of what Angus judges and breeders will be looking for in years ahead. Ermitre was purchased from the Staley Farms near Kansas City when it had its dispersal sale.

SWEPT CIRCUIT

Beaver Dam 30th is the great young bull which practically swept the show circuit as a junior and then as a young senior. One year he missed the grand championship in only one show, taking reserve there.

The show string is quartered at the Garrett-Wynne Ranch near Longmont, Colo.

Winners at the State Fair Livestock Show in Dallas included:

Ermitre 53 of Allendale (sired by Ermitre); first senior bull and grand champion; Elegance 604 of Garrett (sired by Elegance 29 of Maggatora), first in class; Garrett's Commander 1074 (sired by Ambassador 30th) second in class; Garrett-Wynne Commander 214G (sired by 30th); first in class, calf champion; UT Miss Erica 63 (sired by 30th), second in class, reserve junior and reserve grand champion; Garrett-Wynne Burgess 12W (sired by 30th), first in class and calf champion; Blue Sky Eva E4 (sired by Ermitre), second in class; champion get-of-sire, Ambassador 30th with three first place and two second place bulls.

AMERICAN ROYAL

At the American Royal at Kansas City, winners were:

G. W. Lady Belle 2134 (sired by 30th), first in junior class and grand champion; Ermitre 53 of Allendale, first senior and grand champion; Elegance 504 of Garrett, first in class and reserve junior champion; Garrett's Commander 1074, first in junior class and reserve grand champion; Garrett - Wynne Commander 214G, first in class and calf champion; UT Miss Erica 63, first in class; Garrett's Glamour Jill C2034 (sired by 30th), third in class; Garrett-Wynne-Burgess 12 (sired by 30th), second in class; Blue Sky Eva E4 (sired by Ermitre), second in class; champion get-of-sire, Ermitre; champion junior get-of-sire, Ambassador 30th.

Historical Group Makes Plans Tuesday

The Howard County Historical Survey Committee is having an organization meeting at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the Howard County Courtroom.

Ed Fisher, chairman, said that all who are interested in the history of Howard County and surrounding area are urged to take part in the meeting.

Plans for 1966 will be discussed, and perhaps some objectives set up. Serving on the committee with him are Mrs. Hubert Stipp, Mrs. Modesta Simpson, Wesley Deats, Mrs. Norman Read, Sam Blackburn and Charles Lindsey Marchbanks.

Observers from Borden, Mitchell and Glasscock counties have been invited to attend the meeting.

The committee is in the process of getting a marker for the "big spring," from whence the city derives its name. There are many other things which should be memorialized, and Fisher expressed the hope that other suggestions would come out of the meeting.

Ford Foundation Grant Awarded

NEW YORK (AP) — The Ford Foundation has awarded a $3-million grant to the Center for Applied Linguistics, Washington, D.C.

The foundation said the five-year grant would help finance the center's new program to improve the teaching of English to underprivileged children.

No Jury Docket On Tap This Week

No jury docket is slated in 118th District Court this week, Ralph W. Caton, district judge, has announced. He said that he will be in Glasscock County part of the week, trying a case set for trial there.

His next jury docket here, he stated, will be the week of Nov. 15. A civil docket is set for that week, and a jury panel is being notified to report on that day at 1:30 p.m.

There will be 23 cases on that docket. Fourteen of these will be petitions in damage actions. The cases set for trial the week of Nov. 15 are:

Damage suits: H. M. Shirley vs. W. D. Caldwell; Billy Ray White et al vs. Sid Richardson Carbon Co.; Forrest C. Gambill vs. Malone and Hogan Hospital; J. A. McMillan vs. F. W. Lurting; R. E. McClure Sr. vs. H. R. Gibson et al; Warwick Laboratories vs. M. C. Winters Const. Co.; Jack Owens et ux

Vets, Auxiliary Slate Area, District Meetings

Both Area and Dist. 19 meetings will be held here Saturday and Sunday, when Veterans of World War I and Auxiliaries gather in the Settles Hotel.

Mrs. Lavada L. Morrison, department president of the Auxiliary, urged all members to attend the Area Meeting. Mrs. Fannie Mae Eaker, Auxiliary district president, urged them to also attend the district sessions.

Rufus Arp, State Commander, will be here for all meetings.

The area auxiliary meeting will be held in the IOOF Hall, Ninth and Magnolia. First session will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, and the second session at 9 a.m. Sunday. A noon luncheon will be served Sunday. This meeting includes representatives from Districts 13, 16, 17, 18, and 19.

Special workshops have been planned, as well as a report from the National convention, held in Tampa, Fla.

The district auxiliary meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the IOOF Hall Saturday, with registration starting at 8 a.m. A salad supper will be served by the Big Spring No. 1474 women.

A brief session, with the Baracks and Auxiliaries meeting jointly, will open the session. Business meetings will follow. Members of all districts attending the Area meeting have been invited to attend the Dist. 19 convention. It will close by 11:30 a.m., so those attending will have time for lunch before the area meeting begins.

Space Test Satisfactory

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—All systems are functioning normally and four volunteers on a 68-day space chamber experiment at Brooks Air Force Base are expected to complete their tests without problems, a military spokesman said.

The four have been in the chamber breathing a mixture of 70 per cent oxygen and 30 per cent helium at a simulated altitude of 27,000 feet since Oct. 13. They entered the chamber Oct. 4.

The experiment is aimed at providing answers for use in future space flights of more than 30 days.

Tax Stamp Sales Climb

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas Treasurer Jesse James said today cigarette tax stamp sales during October totaled $9.7 million, a $1.8 million increase over October, 1964.

The total was a decrease from September, when sales totaled $10.4 million.

Liquor tax stamp sales were down $92,000 from the previous October, totaling $2 million. September liquor stamp sales totaled $1.9 million. Wine tax stamp sales were up $4,900 from the previous October to $119,000, compared to a September total of $106,000.

A Devotional For The Day

As for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good. (Genesis 50:20)

PRAYER: O Father, I thank Thee for unlimited riches of love in Christ. Grant to me complete and abundant love for every difficult person in my world, for every unlovely one, and for those to whom I have been indifferent. I pray in the name of Christ, who offers grace and power. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

The United Fund And You

Our United Fund is showing a healthy revival after experiencing a discouraging period a week ago. As of Saturday, the fund was past the 80 per cent mark.

One of the latest units to report in was the educational division, which turned in $4,100 from the Big Spring schools. The amount so far raised exceeds $78,000 out of a $99,000 goal. Admittedly we have a long way to go in the next three weeks, but then if folks will work and give as in the past week, the job can be done in half that time.

The record of the schools is encouraging, for it is the best response so far. The per capita giving reflects an increasing awareness by these participants that 14 agencies require more than a token gift.

This is something which has not trickled down to the rank and file of employees in too many of our businesses, institutions and industries. Most of the agencies in the United Fund could get a dollar out of any individual any time, but when they are put together, there are entirely too many people who still want to settle for pocket change. And the ironic or tragic part of it is that these so frequently are the people who directly or through their children reap benefits of these services.

For years, Big Spring's top givers, for the most part, have been carrying a representative load—indeed a heavier share than their number or means might indicate. So if we miss the mark, the fault will lie in the average folk who either have not sensed the need or who have let their civic pride and conscience go dead.

New Wing Commander

Big Spring is anxious to say "welcome" to Col. Chester J. Butcher, who is to become the wing commander at Webb AFB in mid-December.

In the eight men who have preceded him to this highly responsible post, Big Spring and area have been blessed by commanders of ability, energy, initiative and affability. Reports preceding Col. Butcher tell us that the community has another brilliant officer cut in this same mould.

Of course he has all the personal equipment required to administer the affairs of Webb AFB in a completely satisfactory manner, but to whatever extent Big Spring can help make his task easier and more effective, Col. Butcher has our unreserved pledge to try to supply that help.

One of the things that makes giving up men like Ernest Wackwitz, Fred Dean, Charles Young, Kyle Riddle, Donald Eisenhart, Wilson Banks, Howard Withycomb, and Gus Tauter tolerable is that always we seem to get another who quickly earns a similar place in our affections. Thus, the community is anxious to welcome Col. Butcher and his family.

'FUN' For The Snowdens

WASHINGTON — As everyone has been reading, Washington is ga-ga over the Nov. 15th arrival in town of Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden. The excitement has been mounting and it's hard to contain yourself when you realize that the princess and her husband will be here in less than a week.

The word has gone out that Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden want to have "FUN." They want to meet young, gay and amusing people while they're in the United States because, as one society reporter aptly put it, "they're so young, gay and amusing themselves."

THE INSTRUCTIONS are so explicit in regards to the type of people the royal couple want to meet that hostesses in Washington have been hard put to fill the bill.

I received a panicky call from a hostess just yesterday who said, "You have got to help me. I can't find any young, gay and amusing people in Washington."

"Well," I said, "some people would still consider me young, I'm rather gay, and, goodness knows, I'm amusing."

"YOU DON'T understand," she said tearfully. "Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden prefer off-beat people to stuffy ones. I don't know any off-beat people."

"Have you tried the Supreme Court?"

"Surely," she said, "you must know some characters in town."

"Have you tried the White House?"

"They're having trouble themselves," she said. "Most of the off-beat people they've invited have refused to come as a protest over President Johnson's policy in Viet Nam."

"It does present a problem," I admitted.

"I NEED beautiful people who can dance and talk and who are terribly clever."

"It sounds like a job for the Teamsters Union."

"You're making fun of me," she wailed.

"No, I'm not. I'm very sympathetic to your problems. What about Congress? There must be some gay, amusing, young, off-beat dancers and talkers there?"

"Yes, but they're not mad, mad, mad people."

"Have you tried the Pentagon?" I asked.

"THEY'RE BEAUTIFUL, but they are not amusing. The State Department are amusing, but they're not beautiful. Oh, what am I going to do?"

"Why don't you look at it this way?" I said. "Everybody is inviting young, gay, amusing, off-beat people to parties for the Snowdens. By the time they get to your house they might welcome meeting some dull, stuffy people, just for a change of pace."

"I NEVER THOUGHT of that," she said excitedly. "My party for Princess Margaret would be different and something she would always remember. I'll give the only dull and stuffy party she'll have in the United States."

"What will you put on the invitations?" I asked.

"Come as you are."

WHAT OTHERS SAY

No sooner had his picture hit the cover of a national news magazine than Bill Moyers committed a front-page goof. The young presidential press secretary announced that Mr. Johnson had signed the rivers and harbors bill when he hadn't.

For rivers and harbors bills come honestly by the scornful designation of "pork barrel" bills and the one this year is particularly redolent of the rendering works.

There is, to cite the most distressing example, an appropriation of $83,000,000 to improve navigation on the Trinity River. Not a large sum, as such things go, but wait.

The Trinity River, which alternately floods and turns to dust, runs through Texas. Far upstream, more than 300 miles from its mouth on the Gulf of Mexico, Dallas and Fort Worth nestle on its banks. For years, a Texas-sized plan has been hatching to dredge the Trinity and make "seaports" of the inland cities. And in 1965 the initial appropriation went through.

The total cost of deepening, widening and taming the river has been estimated at just under $1 billion. Some of this could be attributed to flood control and water conservation, but a major portion would serve mainly to irrigate the pride of Dallas and Fort Worth and quench their thirst for status as seaports.

The Texas Railroad Assn., which opposes the whole project for what are doubtless reasons of self-interest, has sent up warnings which the rest of the country would do well to heed. Illinois taxpayers, the association notes, would be expected to pay more than $38,000,000 as their share of the Trinity project.

It's too bad Moyers didn't announce accurately—that Mr. Johnson had decided not to sign the bill at all.

Billy Graham

Is it possible for Christians to live by the high standards set by Christ? — M. S.

One thing is sure, God never asks us to do anything that He will not give us the strength to perform. So often our trouble is that we try to live like Christians in our own wisdom and strength. This is no more possible than it is for you to lift yourself up by your boot straps. But, when we become Christians Christ comes into our hearts and gives us something we can never get in any other way. We fall when we forget to ask Him to help us, we can live on the high standard He has given us because He lives in us. Suppose you tried to walk a dark and lonely road at night. You would much prefer to have a friend, particularly one who knows the road, to go along and lead you by the hand. You have exactly that privilege as a Christian, and the one who walks with you is the Lord of glory Himself. Every morning, commit the day to Him; ask His help and His guidance. Put yourself in the way of His teaching by prayerfully reading your Bible before you start the day. Turn everything over to Him. If you will do this, you will find life completely and gloriously changed.

Persistent Rise In Prices Having Some Meaning

In "The Better Half," cartoonist Bob Barnes provides the Great Society version of the Great Crash.

Husband and wife, laden with groceries, struggle out of the supermarket. Husband complains: "Shades of 1929! I've just been wiped out in the market."

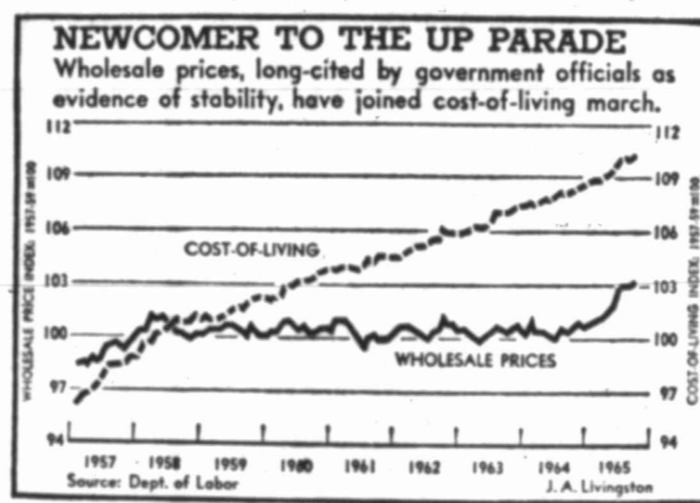

THIS CAPTURES the easy-come-easy-go mood of 1965. The Wall Street of '29 is 36 years away in time and even further from the mind: It can't happen here again!

The Standard & Poor's index for 500 stocks has pushed to new shares, a measure of speculative enthusiasm, are niggardly — less than 3 per cent. This, notwithstanding day-by-day announcements of increased, extra, and year-end dividends. But, ah, there's compensation for investors—capital gains and paper profits!

MONTH BY MONTH, the cost of living, as measured by the world-famous Consumer Price Index, edges higher. This advance has been excused — explained away — by "quality." The automobile and the refrigerator of today are better by far than the products available one year, or three years, or five years ago. It is argued that such improvements are not fully recognized—accounted for—in the Bureau of Labor Statistics index.

As proof, government officials, economists and statisticians repeatedly have pointed to the Wholesale Price Index. For seven years—from the beginning of 1958 to the fall of last year—it has remained on a plateau. Inference: Make proper allowance for quality improvement in the market basket, and the advance in the Consumer Price Index would be less dramatic.

BUT NOW this comforting rationalization (prices aren't getting out of hand, inflation is not

Such a sale would cut two ways. First, it would put pressure on prices.

Second, it would contract, in a mild way, the government contribution to economic expansion. The President would put aluminum into the economy and take money out. This would diminish the federal deficit, contract sales of aluminum producers, and presumably hold down employment in the aluminum industry. Does this fit the Grand Design?

GROWTH IS still the President's principal domestic pursuit. He seeks to force up aggregate demand for goods and services and force down the unemployment rate, now 4.4 per cent of the labor force. The goal is 4 per cent. Yet it is possible that continued expansion—at a rapid rate—may become more and more difficult.

The President's freedom of action is being inhibited by price increases even as it has been inhibited by the nation's balance-of-payments deficit—by the dollar dilemma.

THE OUTFLOW of gold forced a rise in short-term interest rates. It made an easy-money, easy-credit policy less easy. But the Federal Reserve Board has been careful. To restrain credit too much would be politically dangerous.

Yet, if prices persist in going up, if signs of inflationary tendencies multiply, some further restraint may be necessary. This may well be the dilemma of '66.

Women Should Have Patch Test Before Bleaching Hair

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: When I first had my hair dyed blonde (stripped from virgin light brown), there was a slight breaking out around the hair-line.

The second time, my body broke out all over with a severe rash. The doctor gave me medication but it took nearly three months to clear up. In the meantime I have broken out with sores, and have had infections in my mouth and eyes.

Please stress that every woman should have a patch test before she bleaches her hair. Ignorance of this certainly made me miserable.

How long does one usually have these symptoms to an allergy?

Can it affect eyesight?

Can it do permanent harm to other parts of the body? — MRS. G.

Your experience should be a warning. I have mentioned quite often that some people can be sensitive to bleaches, hair dyes and other such cosmetic chemicals.

A patch test is a very wise precaution. In fact, most careful beauty operators give a patch test routinely for every customer on whom such chemicals are to be used, and repeat the test every time a switch is made to some different formula. (A patch test involves applying a little of the chemical to the hairline to see whether redness of the skin develops. For surest results, wait a day or two.)

Anyway, Mrs. G., the first application of bleach "sensitized" you, as indicated by the redness at the hairline. Then the second time, you were actively allergic to it, and the generalized reaction set in.

It is my understanding that most manufacturers put a warning notice on the bottle, urging such a patch test. While beauty operators usually are—or certainly ought to be—aware of the need to be sure before using these preparations on an individual, perhaps we can alert more women to the idea of a patch test for bleaches or dyes they may use at home.

For the specific questions:

1. — Ordinarily such allergic reactions run their course in from 10 days to several weeks. Your troubles three months later may be secondary rather than primary consequences. That is, the severe original reaction may have altered your normal defense mechanisms in some manner so you do not combat ordinary infections as readily.

2. — Vision is not affected by such allergic reactions, but eyelids at times can become swollen and inflamed.
3. — Ordinarily no permanent harm is done to other parts of the body. However knowing that you have a tendency to such an allergic reaction, be doubly wary of new things applied to your skin.

In fact, patch tests should especially be used by anyone who knows she has allergic tendencies of any kind.

Acne is one of the most terrible problems of growing up. If you are afflicted with this aggravation, or if you have children who are, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald for a copy of his helpful and comforting booklet, "Acne — The Teenage Problem." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Dr. Molner answers readers' questions in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim

For Push-Button Balloting

This corner has always studiously avoided political issues. This because of cowardice. If a piece were to say Medicare is good, for example, the doctors get mad; if it were to say Medicare is bad, the old folks get mad; if it were to say that Medicare may be a little bit good, but on the other hand ain't all that good, everybody gets mad.

This corner doesn't like to be called nasty names anymore than anybody else; so, no politics.

HOWEVER, in a Milquetoast sort of way, we venture today to blow our top about the way an ordinary, uncultured, not-too-well trained, run-of-the-mill, well-meaning but bumbling citizen is backed into a corner when he is handed one of the bed-sheet-size Texas ballots and expected to vote with some degree of understanding.

Voting on a string of 15 candidates, all unknown, is bad enough; but voting on constitutional amendments is worse. We just went through it.

THE ARRANGEMENT of the ballot, the wording of the propositions, the length of the whole thing, must have been deliberately calculated to upset the most knowledgeable follower of politics, not to mention just plain civics students.

There is a school of voters whose devotees regular troop to the polls and vote against every amendment that was ever offered.

THIS IS CALLED playing it safe. But there are some who like to get more into the action, so they play hop, skip and jump with the propositions. Some people like to vote for every other one, and against every other one. If one faction of this group votes for the odd numbers, and the other faction decides, by toss of the coin, to vote for the even numbers, this brings it all out about even, but leave the tally clerks unhappy.

Tally clerks would like everybody to go whole hog, whether for or against.

THERE IS ALSO a school of skeptics which holds that legislators word the amendments in reverse English, so that if you think you are voting against a proposition, you really have voted for it. This is the way most amendments are passed.

But daggone it, there ought to be an easier way for Mr. Average Man to know that he voted the way he thought he wanted to.

THERE WAS a proposition on the ballot, the other day that had about 400 words — in fine print — saying "for"; and another 400 words — in just as fine print — saying "against." It could have had one line on that issue, reading about like this: "Do you want the state to fall in line on federal welfare programs? Check Yes—or No—."

There seems to be no good reason why some check marks couldn't be used, the way students mark their multiple-choice exams, so we can get the grading done with in a hurry. There also seems to be no reason why a proposition can't be simply stated, in about 10 words.

IF THERE'S A place for computers, devices which are going to take us anyway, it ought to be in the polling place, especially on amendment elections.

It would be more fun, pressing buttons; and if you were so minded, you still could punch every other button for the others against. You could still read the final returns, and say, "Well, you can't win 'em all."

Criticism Of U.S. In Viet

STOCKHOLM: Sweden—The emotions that hold on the issue of Viet Nam have been a powerful force in a country preserving the luxury of neutrality. But they are the same emotions—revulsion, fear, shock—that, judging from all reports, prevail along the intellectual-academic communities, and above all among the young throughout Western Europe.

Hardly a day passes without a battlefield photo of Viet Cong prisoners subjected to abuse or torture. These are the same pictures that appear in the American press but they have a greater impact in Europe because they blur the image of an idealistic America.

WHILE THE current emotion may have long-run consequences in the attitude of the rising generation, far more important today is the sober professional opinion of those who know China and Southeast Asia well. And here again this would seem to reflect the privately held view of many European chancelleries. That view is, in general, as follows.

"Two years ago you had a good chance to form a neutral government in which the Viet Cong inevitably would be a part. Such a government with help from the West could conceivably be independent of China. But that chance is rapidly vanishing."

"SIX MONTHS more of bombing, both in the North and South, and North Viet Nam will be a Chinese dependency. It is true that China has received serious setbacks, notably in Indonesia. They are, however, made up for by your deepening involvement, for China's principal hope is that the United States should be bogged down in a land war on the Asiatic mainland, as in the past you said you never would be.

"YOU CAN STAY in Viet Nam indefinitely if you have the will to stay, since you have the resources. But you can never win over the people after subjecting them to months, if not years, of area-bombing with napalm and your deadly new cannister bombs. So, 8,000 miles from your shores you will be like the British in Ireland—being shot at from behind the hedge-rows for as long as you choose to stay."

In this same informed view the Chinese will not intervene directly in the Vietnamese war. They have too much at stake in their nuclear development and in their rapidly increasing industrialization. But they will do everything they can to keep the North Vietnamese from the conference table and at the same time give indirect help to try to insure that an ever larger American force is committed to Southeast Asia.

THE WORD MOST often heard from genuine friends of America over the Viet Nam war is disappointment. We did not expect this from you, they say. And this is usually linked to the late President Kennedy—it would never have happened under him.

That is part of the wishful confusion over the harsh realities of power in today's world. The burden shouldered by the United States and the pressures on the President who carries the heaviest responsibility for that burden are little understood.

A Look At Election Results

WASHINGTON — Racial and religious prejudices, bloc voting, political venuefulness, social and economic grievances dominated the voting in the several city and state elections on Tuesday throughout the country. The ideal of democracy—that the best man should receive the support of the majority of the voters and that basic principles should be given preference over personalities — was forsaken again, just as it has been many times in the past.

NEW YORK CITY'S election was salutary only in a negative sense—that the "bosses" and the political machine suffered a severe defeat. Party lines were brushed aside. In fact, the two candidates of Republican background—Lindsay and Buckley—together received almost 60 per cent of the total vote.

New York City had as its three major candidates individuals who happen to be Jewish, Roman Catholic and Protestant, respectively. Many of the Jews voted for Beame. Many of the Catholics, traditionally Democratic, voted for Buckley, especially in the Irish and Italian districts. Many of the Protestants, including Democrats who shifted from their party, voted for Lindsay. So religious prejudices worked as an expression of sentiment on all sides.

IN CLEVELAND a Negro was a candidate for mayor for the first time, and he nearly won in a four-way race in which he carried overwhelmingly the city's Negro vote. Bloc-voting by both whites and Negroes was apparent in the final returns.

In Boston, where "civil rights" groups have conducted an intensive crusade against the city school board, which was committed to fight bus transportation of children as a means of achieving "racial balance" in public-school attendance, the Negro side of the argument lost. Thus, in a large Northern city some of the same prejudices which have been regarded as purely a Southern characteristic came to the surface in a substantial way at the polls.

SO IT IS difficult to find a political pattern based on party differences or even on personal qualifications as the principal influence in the various elections. There may come a time when some national organization will be formed, not to induce citizens to vote for one individual or party ticket but to persuade them to learn something about basic issues and the fitness of particular individuals to serve in public office. Such a background is lacking today, and elections often turn on which party can pick candidates who will cater to social, religious, racial or even economic prejudices.

THE NEW YORK mayoralty contest will, of course, be analyzed by the politicians across the country to determine whether a national trend is developing that could affect the congressional elections of 1966 and the presidential campaign of 1968.

Does the Lindsay victory mean that he has vindicated the anti-Goldwater cause and that liberal Republicanism now is on top? The answer is that there is never such a thing as a victory between factions in any political party which really wants to win elections. Obviously many Republicans who supported Goldwater voted for Lindsay. They reasoned that it was better to punish the city-hall machine of the Democrats than it was to get political revenge.

WHAT THE Republicans need in 1968 is a presidential candidate who can gain the support of Democrats who are dissatisfied with the Johnson administration and hold also Republicans who are willing to allow their resentments over the 1964 campaign to be submerged in the public interest. For some of the same issues which were present throughout the country in influencing the elections last week are bound to be decisive factors in the 1966 as well as 1968 national campaigns.

International Wives Speak To FHA Girls

By LORRIE WATKINS

The FHA classes held class meetings Friday, Oct. 29, and heard reports on the Oct. 16 car wash. Class hostesses served refreshments and members of the International Wives' Club spoke to the girls.

Those who spoke were Mrs. V. C. Henry and Mrs. Helen Ewing, South America; Mrs. Danny Valdes, Cuba; Mrs. Gisela Alonzo, Germany; and Mrs. Iriace Brangas, the Philippines.

The P-TA met Tuesday with thirty attending. An adult panel spoke on youth and the opportunities available to them locally and Mrs. T. A. Harris presented a life membership to Mr. Roscoe Newell, principal. Mr. Hubert Murphy, choir director, presented a reading of "The Sermon On The Mount" as the devotional.

Nine weeks tests were given Nov. 2 and 3. The second, fourth and sixth period tests were given.

Appreciation For Youth Week Begins

Monday will begin Youth Appreciation Week, sponsored by the Big Spring Optimist Club, according to Bill Reynolds, chairman of the committee on the week.

The week is designed and promoted to give "decent youths the public recognition they deserve for their worthwhile deeds," Reynolds said. The program is sponsored annually by 2,300 U.S. and Canadian Optimist Clubs.

Griffith Named To Orchestra

ABILENE — Wayne Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Griffith, 1303 Mulberry, has been named a member of the Abilene Christian College symphony orchestra.

Griffith, a 1961 graduate of Big Spring High School, is a senior English major. He is also a member of the orchestra for the Homecoming musical, "Camelet."

Forsan Crowns Jody Dodd Queen

By JODY DODD

FORSAN — Jody Dodd, senior, escorted by Douglas Franklin was crowned Homecoming Queen Friday night during half-time activities of the Forsan Imperial game. She was presented with a bouquet of red roses by last year's queen, Orveta Fryar.

Other candidates were: Nancy Anderson, junior, escorted by Freddy Willis; Brenda Cleavenger, sophomore, escorted by Tommy Kirkpatrick; and Mary Lou King, freshman, escorted by Garry Irwin.

In a pre-game ceremony, cheerleaders Mary Simpson, Karen Lawson, Patsy Gooch, and Jody Dodd, did a pom-pom routine to "All Day and All of the Night." At half-time, the band and the Buffaloes marched. They formed a crown in the center of the field, where the Homecoming Queen was crowned. Field lights were turned off and each band member held a lighted flashlight to form a few feet crown while Ann Harrell and Mollie Condon, majorettes, did a fire-baton routine.

Before and after the game, a chili supper was sponsored by the senior class. Invitations were sent to the Forsan ex-students by the Student Council.

Thursday afternoon the band and the Buffaloes held a joint practice session on the football field. Immediately following there was a bonfire and pep rally for all students, parents, and faculty members. Cheerleaders led yells and majorettes did a twirling routine to "Baby Elephant Walk."

A special cheer was led by eight boys: Douglas Franklin and Jackie Shoultz, seniors; Freddy Willis and Larry Calli-

She is also a 1964 graduate of Big Spring High School and is a sophomore art and English major. She is a member of Pandora Women's Social Club and Pickwickians Creative Writing Club.

Students Win First, Third Place In Contest

By GWYNETH BONNER

Two Goliad students, Shirley Cobb and Debbie Harrison, won a first and third place in the annual Poppy Sale Poster Contest sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Billy Smart, Elizabeth Lipscomb, Clarinda Harris, and Leah Harris received honorable mentions.

Miss Agnes Currie, Mrs. Blanche James, and Mrs. Essie Person, represented Goliad at the District IV English Workshop Conference Saturday in Andrews. "The Place of World Literature in the Curriculum" was the topic. The morning program included a panel of teachers representing elementary, junior high, senior high school, and college levels.

Plans for a Thanksgiving assembly and a Christmas assembly will be made at the next meeting of the Delta Club, tomorrow at 5:30 p.m. in the art room.

Annual staff officials remind students that the deadline for ordering a copy of the Maverick Goliad yearbook, is this Friday. Students in the first session of Drivers' Education classes will complete their driving Nov. 8. New classes will begin Nov. 9 and lectures will be again offered at mid-term.

A pep rally was held Thursday at 2:45 p.m. Pep talks were given by freshmen, Barry Knocke and Terry Jenkins. Jerry Stewart and Leonard Basco gave pep talks for the eighth grade; and David Englert and Steve Smith represented the seventh grade.

Journalists Attend Council At Tech

By CEIL PACHALL

Thirty-nine students, members of the Corral and El Rodeo staffs and the journalism classes, attended the Southwestern Council of Students Publications workshop Saturday at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Students attended a general assembly in the morning and then separated into discussion groups. They attended a careers conference in the afternoon. Mary Newton, secretary, was on the platform to help conduct elections and install the new officers. They attended the Tech-New Mexico State football game before returning home Saturday night.

Those attending were: Beth Walker, Cindy Ritenour, Fran Long, Paula Murdock, Nita Medley, Kay Slate, Sidney Carr, Simon Terry, Donnie Reagan, Dan Mayberry, Bill Morton, Don Shive, Jackie Bowen, Margaret Zike, Mariko Sakai, Linda Ann Taylor, and Marilyn Meacham.

Judy Daniels, Johnny Arrick, Julia Vaughn, Debbie Douglas, Linda Tune, Sherri Alexander, Lynn Burckow, Lynn Preston, Barbara Green, Lynn Stuteville, Lonnie Fullbright, Christine Earp, Virginia Pierce, Kandis Long, Andrea McCain, Linda Metcalf, Robbie Chapman, and Mary Newton.

They were accompanied by Jackie Poole and Vicki Smith from HCJC, and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Steward.

Approximately 600-700 students took part in the all-region choir auditions held Saturday in Big Spring. Out of those 192 were selected for the all-region choir, which will be presented in concert on Jan. 15, in Big Spring. From the 192, fifteen will be selected for all-state choir to be held in Dallas in February. The senior group picture is tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 10, during activity period. Students who wish to buy a copy can do so later in the year.

Monday and Tuesday the Iowa Test of Educational Development will be given to all juniors and seniors. At the same time the sophomores will take the Flanagan Aptitude Test. The tests will be given in home rooms all day. Regular classes will resume Wednesday.

Juniors interested in the National Merit Scholarship test will begin registering Nov. 15. Mr. John Talmadge, counselor, said the fee will be $2.00.

The student council is sponsoring a spaghetti supper Friday, Nov. 12, from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Tickets must be bought in advance and can be purchased from any student council member. The price is $1 for adults, and 75 cents for children under twelve.

The Spanish Club has elected Beverly Peters, president; Theresa Connors, vice president; Sonja Whittington, secretary; Junior Mendoza, treasurer; and Kay Slate, reporter.

Approximately sixty people attended the supper-theatre last Saturday night in the HCJC Student Union Building. A one-act play, "Wilbur's Wild Night" was presented following a buffet dinner.

Friday morning a pep rally was held in the gym during activity period. Coach Johnny Hickman gave the pep talk.

RICHARD STOCKS WINS FREE 45 RPM RECORD

Richard Stocks, Sands High School eighth grader, is the winner of this week's free 45 rpm record given away by The Record Shop, 211 Main.

Students in all schools represented in the Megaphone are given an opportunity to win by filling out entry blanks and turning them in to their school's correspondent.

Each week the Megaphone gives away a free 45 rpm record and once a month a bonus of a free long-playing album is also given away.

Houston Youth Is 'Young Texan'

James Michael Heitmann, 17-year-old Houston youth, has been named "Young Texan of the Month" and will receive the Troy Post Award.

The monthly honor is sponsored by the Optimist Clubs of Texas. The Post award is based on scholarship, citizenship, sportsmanship as well as service to home, school, church and community.

Heitmann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Heitmann, 11410 Glaser, Houston. He is a student at Sam Houston Senior High School.

"Young Texan," he becomes eligible for nomination as "Young Texan of the Year" and for the annual Troy V. Post Scholarship Award.

Through his entire school life, Mike has maintained a perfect 5.0 average. On graduation from junior high school, he received a scholarship for being the ninth grade student with the best average.

In addition to being a member of the National Honor Society in high school, young Heitmann has been a letterman for two years. He has played basketball for five years and made the Houston Post all-city team. He also received the Basketball Athlete of the Year award and has served for three years as a football trainer.

Mike serves on the advisory committee of Houston's Youth Council and is president of his high school Student Council and is active in the Key Club. He also serves as treasurer of the Sam Houston Booster Club.

As a member of the Glenn Rose Baptist Church, Heitmann was athletic director of the annual youth retreat.

During the past summer he was employed on an off-shore drilling rig. His hobbies include the restoration of a Ford Model "A."

Heitmann was nominated by Houston's Airline Optimist Club. In nomination, a club spokesman said, "It is seldom one has the opportunity to know and work with a boy with his versatility."

HCJC Three Delegates Go To SGA Meet

By JEAN FANNIN

Yesterday, Delinda Bradford, David Berry, and Harley Bynum attended the SGA conference at Frank Phillips Junior College in Borger. Mr. Bobby Smith, faculty advisor, accompanied them.

This weekend members of the Goliad club are on a field trip to Big Bend.

Mr. Gary Grant gave a book review on "Herzog" by Saul Bellow Wednesday during activity period in the auditorium. The book review was sponsored by the Faculty Library Committee who hopes to arouse interest in reading.

The committee will sponsor another review by a sophomore President, 1964, by Theodore H. White; and one by a freshman on April 13 on "Up The Down Staircase," by Bek Kaufmann.

Tuesday the Air Force Officer Qualifying Test will be given in room five of the science building at 2 p.m. and again at 6 p.m. by Air Force ROTC officials from Texas Tech. Further information can be obtained

'tis mince

Grandma baked pies today and we had a good laugh together over the story she used to tell me as a little girl of a lady who baked pies and marked them to tell them apart. Half she marked T M for 'Tis Mince, the others T M for 'Tisn't Mince.

It's such fun having Grandma live in our house. Her stories of the old days, her understanding humor, and her joy in living spark our lives. She needs no label. That she's a Christian glows in everything she does. No matter what the circumstances, she meets people and situations with love and goodness. Full credit is hers, that none of the problems that we feared when she came to live with us have developed.

Yes, I'd say Grandma has rubbed off on all of us. We all go to church now and we're much happier because of it. We've learned from Grandma that happiness comes from doing good and loving God.

Why don't you go to Church and take your family with you?

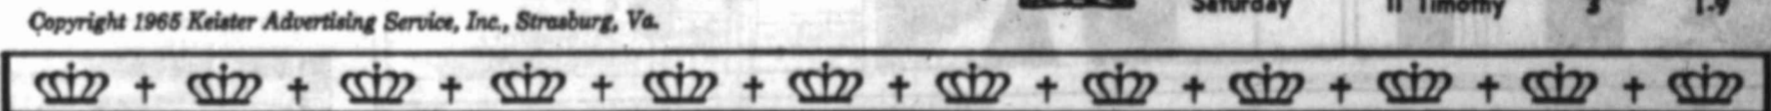

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'THE IPCRESS FILE'
Michael Caine and Sue Lloyd

Spy-Thriller Docketed For Ritz Wednesday

For three months a full-scale film unit—100 strong—was shooting the spy thriller, "The Ipcress File" in the heart of London. . . and no one knew about it.

The film, in Technicolor starring Michael Caine, is being hailed as a new kind of mystery-suspense thriller, and will be the attraction at the Ritz Theatre starting Wednesday.

"It was," said executive producer Charles Kasher, "an operation almost as secretive as something out of a film on espionage."

It was essential that no one knew about the filming for fear of the production being held up by sight-seers and autograph hunters. Thousands of dollars could be wasted if the filming had been delayed for even minutes.

Even the star, Michael Caine—who plays the role of an espionage agent in the film—was driven to work in an inconspicuous car and sneaked in the back way.

The premises where the unit filmed were two large Victorian terrace houses almost adjoining Victoria station.

Hundreds of thousands of people passed the two houses every day on their way to and from work and little realized that the drab-looking facade concealed a completely self-contained film studio.

As a 'front' for the real purpose, a large sign was painted at the entrance to the film studios. The sign read: "The Dalby Employment Agency."

It says much for the full employment situation of the country that only one elderly lady tried to get a job during the three-month life of the 'phony' agency.

A tactful assistant director politely informed the lady that the business had closed down.

The two houses were converted into one huge house containing 40 rooms. These were enlarged or divided according to requirements.

Fourteen rooms were used as studios. Other rooms turned into dressing rooms, wardrobe department, hairdressing, make-up, production offices, a property department and self-contained restaurant capable of seating and feeding 120 people.

Why did the film executives want their production to be set against the background of these two houses?

"Because," said Kasher, "we believed that filming in actual London locales would give an atmosphere of authenticity to the film."

Secret Kept On Play Set

Things are being kept secret on the set of "The Mousetrap," next production of the Big Spring Little Theatre.

The mystery drama, written by Agatha Christie, has the usual surprise ending, and the director, Jack Meeker who works professionally as Jack Richards, has closed the set to visitors during rehearsals. The final pages of the script have been concealed from the actors for the present time, to keep the final moments of the suspenseful play secret.

The director has selected an experienced cast, including David Carreiro, Art Clonts, Martha Burns, Alice King, Gino Monteleona, Dottie Wilson, John Arnold and Alan Doelp. Producer of the show is Kieren Doherty.

This second of the theatre's season of four plays will be staged in the city auditorium Dec. 10-11.

Season tickets are still available—including the family/ducat offering 12 admissions for only $8. This is a good opportunity to have some extra tickets to take a few friends to the theatre, according to Mrs. Harold Davis, president.

Last In Series Now Released

By SYD KRONISH
AP News Writer

The last stamp in the "Capital Cities" series of the Federal Republic of Germany (West Germany) has just been released, reports the World Wide Philatelic Agency. The stamp features Ludwig Church in Saarbrücken. The color of the adhesive is blue, yellow, gray and black and the value is 20 pfennig.

This brings to a close a series of 11 stamps started in April, 1964 which honor all of the state capitals and city-states which comprise the Federal Republic — Bremen, Düsseldorf, Hamburg, Hannover, Kiel, Mainz, Saar, Stuttgart, Wiesbaden and West Berlin. Each stamp is a 20 pfennig.

The U. S. Post Office Department announced the dates and places of first-day issuance for five new regular stamps in the "Prominent Americans" series for 1966. They are: 6-cent Franklin D. Roosevelt — Jan. 29 at Hyde Park, N.Y., the ancestral home and gravesite of the 32nd President; 5-cent George Washington — Feb. 22 at Washington, 8-cent Albert Einstein — March 14 at Princeton, N.J., where the physicist spent his last years; 2-cent Frank Lloyd Wright — June 8 at Spring Green, Wis., near the farm where the architect conducted a workshop; 45-cent John Basset Moore — Dec. 3 at Smyrna, Del., birthplace of the noted jurist.

In addition a sixth stamp — the 4-cent Abraham Lincoln coil stamp — will be issued May 28 in Springfield, Ill. This will be identical in design to the Lincoln stamp to be issued in pane form Nov. 19 this year.

The "Prominent Americans" series of 18 regular stamps, ranging in denominations from 1-cent to 45-cent, replaces a series that dates back to 1954.

Tunisia has issued a new stamp series called "Foyer des Etudiants" (The Student Home) consisting of three stamps and two souvenir sheets. The stamps are 25, 40 and 50 millimes and have a common design showing a schoolhouse and a girl reading a book. The souvenir sheets at 200 millimes contain the three stamps assembled inside the sketch of a schoolhouse. The Foyer des Etudiants is a new national institution conceived by Madam Habib Bourguiba, wife of the President of Tunisia. It provides homes for female students and is a part of a drive to speed up full emancipation of Tunisian women.

'SHIP OF FOOLS'
Lee Marvin and Vivien Leigh

'Ship Of Fools' Opens Here Today

"Ship of Fools," production with probably the most spectacular cast of international stars ever assembled, opens today at the Ritz Theatre.

"Ships of Fools" is based on the best-selling novel by Katherine Anne Porter, considered one of the most important literary works of the past decade, and the screenplay was written by Abby Mann, Academy Award winner for his "Judgment at Nuremberg" script. FilmDome reports that "Ship of Fools" is a cinematic achievement which traces with humor, insight and irony a variety of situations and people aboard a German passenger freighter ploughing its way from Mexico to Bremerhaven, in 1933.

Like the book on which it is based, "Ship of Fools" reputedly is a compassionate study in human folly as evidenced by its several stories of good and evil, of hope and despair, intrigue, romance and comedy.

Vivien Leigh, who won Academy Awards for her first two Hollywood films, "Gone With the Wind" and "Streetcar Named Desire," here is seen as an embittered Virginia divorcee

Mountain Men Performed Many Prodigious Feats

MOUNTAIN MAN. By Vardis Fisher. Morrow, $5.95.

There was a remarkable era in American history, before the Civil War, which encompassed the prodigious feats of the Mountain Men.

They were gutsy males. They were individualists, eccentrics, fur-trapping Indian-fighters who hated the encroachment of the covered wagons as much as they despised the sadistic red men.

Their province was the area of the great Rockies. Their professional expertise always included the art of survival in the midst of primitive savages and horrendous storms of winter. They fought personal battles against nature and sadistic blood-enemies.

Fisher has been a devoted chronicler of early mountain ways, and synthesizes these stories in this fictional account.

His hero is Sam Minard, once of New York state, a tall adventurer who really falls in love with his young Indian bride, whom he gives the name of Lotus.

When a band of Crow Indians kills her, he declares a private war against the whole Crow nation. Then he has to fight all the Blackfeet, who capture him for sale to the Crows.

Sam makes an epic escape across the winter-shrouded mountains, to reach temporary haven in the flimsy shelter of a crazed old white woman, whose family had been wiped out in a raid. Fisher gives the reader more than a narrative of bloody, scalp-lifting combat. He is sensitive — and his hero responds — to all the wonders of untouched nature, its beasts, birds, dangers and delights.

This is gory lore. It is raw, rugged nature, where sweet flowers and ravenous animals, gentle birds and furry innocents are only a background for the drama of life-and-death struggle. It is sturdy fare for modern readers, who will be amazed at the tall, wild tales of yesterday.

is continental comfort having your bedding turned down for you at night?

That's one pleasant continental touch. But there are others: finding that someone has shined your shoes while you sleep, for instance, and receiving a fragrant, complimentary cup of coffee in the morning to get your day started right.

The Worth, like all fine hotels, has free garage parking . . . air conditioning . . . family plan . . . fine food . . . convention facilities. But our continental extras make all the ordinary luxuries a little more enjoyable!

Retardation Battle Gains

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Government can help prevent many cases of mental retardation, a federal mental health official said Friday.

Dr. Floyd McDow, acting director of the mental retardation branch of the National Institute of Mental Health, spoke to the legislation and finance committee of the State Mental Retardation Planning Task Force.

"In the lower social and economic levels, there is a higher risk of mental retardation, not only because of lack of pre-natal care and at birth, but because of deprivation," McDow said.

"Society can come in. We can do many things that will prevent mental retardation." One example, McDow said, is the poverty program's operation head start for pre-school children. He called such programs investments in mental health.

McDow said the "most exciting thing" happening in the mental retardation area is a growth of interest in mental retardation at the local level.

"You've certainly done a good job in Texas of getting the citizenry involved," he said. "Comprehensive planning is looking more and more like it will be a better investment of our time."

DEAR ABBY

Snorers— And Wives

DEAR ABBY: I'll never forget the first night of my honeymoon. My darling fell fast asleep at midnight while I was awake until seven o'clock the next morning just listening to him snore. He started out by holding his breath for so long I didn't know whether to send for a doctor or a priest. Then he'd exhale so slowly, emitting a long whistle, popping his lips and finally terminating with a noise that sound like a corps of pneumatic drills. I felt like kicking him right through the wall every night.

After the honeymoon we got twin beds. That didn't solve anything. It just made it harder for me to kick him. Finally, we had separate bedrooms, but I could hear him through the walls. Then a friend introduced me to the greatest invention since sliced bread. EAR PLUGS! They have saved my marriage, and I am not kidding.

DEAR ABBY: My husband's snoring would have to be heard to be believed. Thanks to his snoring, he was the only enlisted man in the U. S. Navy who had a private room.

DEAR ABBY: Apropos snoring: I am convinced that the most idiotic thing I ever did in my life was to put up with Ralph's snoring as long as I did. For years I walked around half-dead from exhaustion. Once, when I was near total collapse from lack of sleep, I spent the night in our guest room. The next morning the children whined, "Don't you love Daddy any more?" So like a fool I felt I had to stay in the same room with that mountain lion to keep the children happy. What a lot of utter nonsense. No more! I'm older now and wiser.

DEAR ABBY: On our honeymoon I was horrified to discover that I had married the world's champion snorer. I used elbows and feet for temporary relief. Now we sleep in twin beds and I keep a yardstick under my bed. When Michael starts snoring, I get the yardstick and whack him with it. Now, as soon as he hears me reaching for the yardstick, he shuts up.

DEAR ABBY: When we were first married we lived in a small apartment next to a church, and our humble quarters were overrun with mice. I am deathly afraid of mice. When we would go to bed, the mice would start to gnaw and scratch and I was terrified. My dear and understanding husband would cuddle me close against his shoulder, and soon he would begin to snore. As his snoring grew louder, it drowned out the sound of the mice and I was able to fall asleep, too.

Nearly 29 years later, he still snores. We no longer live among the mice, but his snoring is so reminiscent of the early days, I wouldn't stop it if I could. Women who are kept awake only by their husband's snoring are blessed. Would they trade it for the sleeplessness that comes from a pain-racked body? Or a troubled mind? Or the cries of a sick child? Or the silence of death?

If snoring is the only thing that bothers them, they should get down on their hands and knees and thank God for the blessing that He has sent, and for the song of security their husbands sing as they slumber contentedly in their own beds.

Many are not as fortunate as we.

Screwworm Program Gets More Federal Aid

Funds spent on the screwworm eradication program by the federal government no longer will have to be fully matched with non-federal money, thanks to action taken by Congress during the closing days of the session, Herb Helbig, county agent, said Friday.

The cost of treating screwworm outbreaks that occur in areas of the United States where the insects have already been eradicated must continue to be matched by state and private sources. However, the expense of maintaining a barrier zone along the U.S.-Mexico border to guard against reinfestation by fertile flies will be borne by the federal government.

Congress voted $2.8 million for maintenance of the barrier. It also appropriated $320,000 for an intensive survey of screwworm problems in Mexico and $1 million to cover eradication activities in Arizona and California—the only states where screwworms have not been eradicated. Of the latter amount, $600,000 will have to be matched by the two states.

Since inception of the eradication campaign in February 1962, half of the costs have been paid by the federal government, the other half by the livestock industry and state governments in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana. The livestock industry, through the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, has raised nearly $4 million on a voluntary basis.

Dolph Briscoe Jr., foundation president of Uvalde, praised the action of Congress, stating that it "assured protection of all states from reinfestation by screwworms which have caused up to $100 million damage annually."

Briscoe stressed to livestock producers that they still have an important obligation to the eradication program, and urged them to continue to support the campaign by treating animal wounds and reporting infestations.
