One Dies, Four Hurt In Accident

One local 18-year-old youth was killed and four others injured, two critically, in a one-car accident at 10:44 p.m. Monday, officers said.

A 1966 model car, driven by Dunman Keith Howze Jr., 707 E. 13th, went out of control at an estimated 85 miles per hour in the 800 block of Gregg Street, officers said, struck a low retaining wall on the southeast corner of the Medical Arts Clinic, jumped through the air for 89 feet, landed, traveled 24 feet on the ground, left the ground again, and smashed head-on into a tall retaining wall, striking it about four feet above ground level. The car had skidded 144 feet before leaving the street, officers said.

Howze, son of Mrs. Thelma Howze and a student at Howard County Junior College, was dead on arrival at a local hospital. He wore no seat belt, officers said.

Three of the four passengers were taken to Cowper Clinic and Hospital. Tracy Faulks, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Faulks, 2514 Cindy, was in critical condition at Howard County Hospital. Attendants said Van Appleton, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon D. Appleton, 1315 Park, was in critical condition at Cowper Clinic and Hospital this morning, according to attendants; Lloyd Nichols, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Nichols, 431 Hillside Drive, was in serious condition; and Justin Redman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Redman, 2402 Carleton, was in fair condition.

Two of the injured wore seat belts, officers said. They were Justin Redman, who was seated in the left rear seat; and Tracy Faulks, who was in the right rear seat. Appleton, in the middle rear seat, wore no seat belt and was thrown through the windshield, landing on the exposed engine of the smashed car. Nichols, also unbelted, was in the right front seat, officers said.

The 3-700-pound vehicle was

Stock Market Rally Persists, Gains Expand

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rally continued today with aerospace defense, airlines, electronics and selected issues extending their gains.

The list was continuing to respond to President Johnson's "guns-and-butter" budget and its inflationary implications, analysts said.

The list was higher from the start and the pace of trading was a shade slower than Monday's.

The defense issues moved up vigorously on prospects of increased military spending and the likelihood of continuation of hostilities in Viet Nam.

Various issues responded to reports of better earnings.

Gains ran from fractions to 1 or 2 points among the favored issues. Most key stocks which compose the averages moved up more conservatively.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .9 at 368.3 with industrials up .9, rails up .7 and utilities up .5.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 1.34 at 992.76.

State Areas' Fog Makes Chill Rower

Dense fog threatened to hamper air travel and made the lingering January chill feel even rower at Texas points from the Panhandle to the Lower Rio Grande Valley today.

There also were a few snow flurries in the Panhandle around Amarillo and bleak rain or drizzle downstate, mostly near the coast.

Feathery frost formed one-half inch thick on trees at Dalhart, where the temperature slumped to 13 degrees before daylight and fog reduced visibility to zero.

FIFTEEN DEGREES

Visibility was up to three-quarters mile at Amarillo, where the mercury dipped to 15 degrees, but only one-fourth mile at Lubbock, which had a 17-degree reading. A light breeze fanned ice crystals through the air at Lubbock.

With clouds expected to hide the sun and little wind to disperse the widespread fog, Weather Bureau observers expected conditions to interfere with commercial air traffic for hours.

Snow left by last week's storm meanwhile extended a holiday from classes through today for school children at Quanah and Chillicothe, northwest of Wichita Falls in the Red River Valley.

TEXAS POINTS

Other points in the early morning fog belt included Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells, Fort Worth, Dallas, Texarkana, Longview, Tyler, Victoria, Alice and Brownsville.

Misting rain or drizzle fell around Beaumont, Houston, Galveston, Palacios, Corpus Christi and McAllen, and there also was some drizzle mixed with the fog at Tyler and Longview.

Forecasts call for clouds to thin and the moisture to stop by evening throughout the state. It's due to turn a little warmer across the northern half of Texas but an even cooler night is predicted for most southern areas.

Cold weather gripped most of the United States today, penetrating into Florida and the Deep South.

The temperature reached 6 below zero Monday in London, Ky. A 70-year-old woman and two grandchildren died in a fire in their rural home near Jackson in eastern Kentucky.

In western New York, hit by a weekend snow storm, two persons died. They brought to 12 the number of deaths in New York state attributed to heart attacks while clearing snow or pushing stalled cars.

Schools were closed in 16 Kentucky counties today because of the extreme cold.

The early-morning low was 15 at Louisville.

The Arkansas State Police said all roads in the state were in very bad condition from snow and freezing rain.

Several public schools were closed today in Arkansas, including all in the Little Rock area.

AF Transport Crash Kills 46 Americans

C123 Slams Hill In Combat Area

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. Air Force troop transport carrying 46 Americans and a cargo of mortar shells crashed in dense fog and rain today in the central highlands just after taking off from An Khe. All aboard were killed.

The twin-engine C123 Fairchild Provider slammed into a hillside five miles east of An Khe and the impact exploded the mortar shells. The plane carried a crew of four from the 315th Air Commando Group and 42 soldiers of the 7th Cavalry Regiment.

U.S. officials said it was the worst American air crash in the Vietnamese war.

Ammunition and grenades carried by the soldiers aboard exploded in the tremendous heat.

A search party reached the scene at noon in heavy rain. The cloud ceiling was 300 feet when the plane took off.

The cause of the crash was not immediately known.

An Khe is the staging area for the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile Division, which has been fighting the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese regulars in the highlands. It lies 250 miles northeast of Saigon in mountains where Communist snipers occasionally shoot at American planes.

The C123 is a lumbering aircraft with a cruising speed of 190 miles an hour.

The worst air disaster of the Vietnamese war involved a U.S. Air Force C123 which crashed into a peak south of Nha Trang last Dec. 11, killing 81 Vietnamese soldiers and the four American crewmen.

The highest American toll in a plane crash indirectly connected with the war occurred last Aug. 24 when a U.S. Marine Corps C130 transport carrying 63 Marines and two sailors back to the front from a brief leave crashed into Hong Kong harbor. Fifty-eight perished.

The unit killed in the crash today was en route to join one of a number of general offensives launched by the Americans, Australians, South Koreans, New Zealanders and South Vietnamese soon after the lunar New Year truce ended Sunday.

More Crucial Watch Kept On Red China

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The crescent of crisis that is Red China's frontier with non-Communist Asia will be dangerous in the months ahead.

From Korea in northeast Asia to India's Ladakh region in the west, China will be watched anxiously by those within reach of its massive power.

India, Formosa, Viet Nam, Thailand — all are likely to feel mounting Chinese pressure.

The crucial question is whether China will be content with just talking about its neighbors while prodding the North Vietnamese into action against "Yankee imperialists." A serious, all-out attack on India could trigger a U.S.-China confrontation.

SHUN SHOWDOWN

Some China experts feel Peking, despite its tough talk, desperately wants to avoid tangling with the U.S. Air Force's bombers and the nuclear-laden American aircraft carriers now in the Pacific. China, these experts say, will harass, nibble, prod, fight the Americans to the last Vietnamese — but will avoid a showdown.

Others fear that Chinese frustration, brewing since setbacks in Indonesia and Africa, may explode.

One dangerous sector in 1966 will be India's Himalayan frontier with Chinese-ruled Tibet. For China there are cheap, impressive-looking victories to be had in those high mountain passes. And military involvement drives India deeper into economic trouble by forcing it to spend heavily on defense. There also is the possibility that the probes hearten Pakistan, which China has courted for years and which virtually is at war with India.

U. S. Presses Poll Tax Bar

WASHINGTON (AP)—The federal government asks the Supreme Court today to outlaw poll taxes as a requirement for voting in state and local elections.

"The principle of a tax on the right to vote is constitutionally indefensible," the government said in a brief filed with the court before a hearing on the Virginia poll tax.

NEGROES PLEA

Five Virginia Negroes are asking the justices to reverse a lower court and strike down the Virginia poll tax as a form of discrimination against poor people.

On this ground alone, the government said, the Virginia poll tax should be declared invalid. However, the government said, a more fundamental issue is at stake:

"Whether any tax levied on voting, and carrying the sanction of disenfranchisement for nonpayment, is constitutionally permissible. We urge that it is not . . .

BASIC 'VICE'

"This basic vice of the poll tax system cannot be cured — as could, perhaps, a law that merely discriminated against poor persons — by exempting indigents from the burden of the law . . .

"The poll tax is invalid, we submit, not merely in its incidence and in the details of its administration, but in its conception . . .

U. S. Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall, a Negro, is representing the government.

FEDERAL ELECTIONS

The poll tax has been abolished by the 24th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution as a qualification for voting in federal elections. Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas retain the poll tax for state and local elections.

Filibuster Threat Drapes 14B Tiff

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield may use a parliamentary device today in an effort to steer a union shop proposal past a filibuster threat and onto the Senate floor.

The proposal would repeal the Taft-Hartley Act's section 14B which authorizes states to outlaw union shop contracts. Such contracts require all employees covered to join a union.

Mansfield renewed the 14B battle Monday.

PROLONGED SPEECH

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, who directed a successful filibuster against a similar move last October, launched at once a two-hour, 16-minute speech against Mansfield's motion to bring the repealer before the Senate.

Dirksen was followed by Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, who talked for an hour and three minutes until the Senate quit.

But Mansfield took the unusual step of adjourning the Senate Monday night instead of recessing as is the normal procedure when there is continuing business.

This had the effect of displacing his own motion to bring up 14B.

Mossler, Powers Strategy Differs

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The chief attorneys for Candace Mossler and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, revealed today that they are following strictly independent courses in their defenses against a joint murder indictment.

Percy Foreman, Powers' trial lawyer, interrupted the top tell Circuit Judge George Schulz that he and Clyde Woody, Mrs. Mossler's attorney, are in full disagreement on defense strategy.

FULL DISAGREEMENT

"We disagree on every one in the jury box," Foreman told the court. "We need time to reconcile our differences."

The judge then ordered a recess. Throughout his questioning of prospective jurors, Woody has stressed that Mrs. Mossler and Powers should not be considered codefendants on the charge of murder of Mrs. Mossler's wealthy husband, Jacques. The cases, Woody said, should be deliberated separately.

SEVENTH DAY

As the trial entered its seventh day, defense attorneys appeared no closer to agreement on a jury than they were at the beginning. Five jurors were eliminated Monday by challenges and at the day's end one attorney said, "there are several more in the box that will never make it."

Judge Schulz warned Foreman and Woody that he has the authority to pick a jury himself.

Student's Lawyers Blast Indictments

AUSTIN (AP)—Attorneys for James C. Cross Jr. have attacked the indictments of accusing him of strangling two campus beauties. They also asked the trial judge Monday to make available to them prosecution evidence against Cross.

Perry Jones, Roy Minton and Charles Burton Cross' lawyers filed 10 pre-trial motions with Dist. Judge Mace Thurman.

Hearing on the motions is set for Friday, the day Cross appears in court to plead innocent or guilty.

TRIAL FEB. 14

Cross, 23, of Fort Worth, goes on trial Feb. 14, accused of slaying Susan Rigby and Shirley Ann Stark, both of Dallas. The nearly nude bodies of the two University of Texas coeds were found July 30 in a field on the north edge of Austin after a 12-day search. Cross, also a university student, was charged Aug. 6 after signing a statement about the crime.

The motions include one asking Thurman to dismiss the case and another to invalidate the indictments. Five motions are for "discovery"—that Thurman order the prosecution to reveal its evidence to the defense.

VALIDITY ATTACKED

Also attacked is the validity of Cross' written statement, which the attorneys said was given without a warning of his rights to silence and to legal counsel. Police said a justice of the peace warned Cross of these rights.

A motion to "quash"—invalidate—the indictments contends that the grand jury indicted Cross two days before its usual day for returning indictments to deny Cross an examining trial. The indictments were returned shortly after such a trial was requested.

President Trains Guns On U.S. Rural Poverty

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson proposed to Congress today a many-sided program to fight poverty in rural areas.

In a special message, Johnson announced he will soon appoint a commission on rural poverty charged with making recommendations to him within a year on means of extending the nation's abundance to poverty-ridden country areas.

Meantime, he proposed an extensive planning program, with federal aid and including pilot projects in an unspecified number of rural areas.

In the pilot counties, Johnson said, government departments, especially labor, welfare and agriculture, would join in a concerted effort to bring social services to poor rural communities.

Johnson proposed creation of community development districts and federal grants for:

1. Districtwide planning of public services and governmental functions where other federal planning assistance is not available.
2. Districtwide coordination of local planning activities with federal programs and private initiative, in a comprehensive attack on rural community problems.

The secretary of agriculture would certify areas meeting requirements for designation as community development districts.

U.S. Astronaut Ranks Built Up

SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON (AP)—The space agency now has three two-man astronaut crews waiting in line to perform tricky rendezvous and link-up maneuvers in space that must be mastered before Americans head to the moon.

The latest astronauts to draw flight assignments are Navy Cmdr. John W. Young, a veteran of the first Gemini mission, and Air Force Maj. Michael Collins, a rookie who itches to try his hand at space walking.

Young will be the command pilot on Gemini 10, and Collins will be the pilot who would draw the job of taking a space stroll later this year during the two-or-three-day flight, if extra vehicular activity is scheduled.

The space agency is tentatively aiming at a mid-March launch for Gemini 8 during which Air Force Maj. David R. Scott will take a 90-minute space walk, long enough for one trip around the world. Command pilot is Neil A. Armstrong, the first civilian to get a flight assignment.

Civilian Elliot M. See Jr. and Air Force Capt. Charles A. Bassett II are scheduled to head into space about two months later aboard Gemini 9 on a similar docking mission. Bassett is also slated for a space walk, using a back pack for maneuvering instead of a space gun as Scott will use.

Court Justice Will Run Again

AUSTIN (AP)—Joe Greenhill, who moved up from briefing clerk of the Texas Supreme Court to associate justice, announced Monday he will seek re-election to his second full six-year term.

Greenhill, 51, of Houston, is in his eighth year on the court.

Beef May Be A Little More Scarce, Expensive

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Beef is going to be a little more scarce and more expensive, some cattlemen say.

John Guthrie, of Porterville, Calif., first vice president of the American National Cattlemen's Association, said Monday the demand is catching up with the supply.

The topic is a big one among the 2,000 cattlemen attending the association's three day convention.

Guthrie said five per cent more beef was slaughtered last year reducing the herds and producing three per cent less meat because there was less fattening of the animals on feedlots.

Another factor, the cattlemen noted, was the rising world-wide population and European prosperity which has stimulated demand and created a market for Australian beef, neutralizing competition in the U.S. from imports.

Role Of Cong
In Potential
Talks Debated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright's suggestion that the Viet Cong be recognized as a major party to any negotiations to end the war in Viet Nam drew mixed reaction today on Capitol Hill.

The Arkansas Democrat, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said Monday that the war is between the Viet Cong guerrillas, supported by North Viet Nam, and the United States and South Viet Nam.

"It would seem to me a proper party to the negotiations would be the Viet Cong," Fulbright told newsmen.

POSSIBLE BARRIER

He said that "the policy of not recognizing the Viet Cong as a major party to any negotiations may be a stumbling block to the peace offensive."

Fulbright made his remarks after Secretary of State Dean Rusk explained the administration's position at a three-hour closed committee session.

Questioned by newsmen, Fulbright said he had mentioned his suggestions to Rusk, but the secretary "doesn't agree."

A Republican member of Fulbright's committee, Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey said he didn't believe that recognition of the Viet Cong was a major factor.

Case told a reporter, "I assume from what the President said that our position is flexible enough to make it not a major factor in the discussions or affecting the possibility of negotiations and that it is one of those things that is not wrong to leave to the judgment of the people in the executive branch."

U.S. 'READY'

Case referred to President Johnson's State of the Union address nearly two weeks ago. The President said the United States is ready to discuss and consider "the views of any group."

The reference was broad enough to include the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong guerrillas. Johnson had said previously this issue could be resolved.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., outspoken critic of administration policy in Viet Nam, agreed with Fulbright.

Morse said in a telephone interview, "There is, in my judgment, no hope for any peaceful settlement in South Viet Nam until the United States is ready to negotiate with the Viet Cong in the South and the North Vietnamese in the North. They are two separate, distinct groups."

Much Broader War Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators get the Navy, Marine and Air Force view of the Viet Nam war today after hearing Army Chief of Staff Harold K. Johnson outline the possibilities of the war exploding into a much broader conflict.

On the House side of the Capitol, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara continues his marathon testimony to congressional committees after saying the quick U.S. build-up in Viet Nam had no parallel.

SECRET TESTIMONY

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said Gen. Johnson included his appraisal in secret testimony Monday before senators weighing the administration's request for $12.76 billion in additional Viet Nam funds this year.

Johnson, Russell said, found

Seminars On Tourism Set

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally announced Monday that a series of tourist development seminars will be held in 20 Texas cities between March 7 and May 13.

The seminars are designed to acquaint businesses and communities with opportunities of the tourist industry, he said.

"To insure the growth of our own tourist industry," Connally said, "we must prepare our citizens to assist visitors in the discovery of vacationland Texas. A tourist seminar will help a community compete successfully with other areas and other states in the lucrative national tourist market."

The clinics will be conducted by Sam Godfrey, director of community relations for the Texas Tourist Development Agency, and Frank Driscoll of the University of Texas department of distributive education.

"We did not avoid the word Republican, but rather sought support for Republicanism on the ground that our nation's progress was founded on a

Para-Sailing Set For Webb

A team of six men from the Webb Physiological Training Unit recently completed training in one of the Air Force's newest pilot training programs. The program is para-sailing and is designed to provide realistic practice in parachute jumping.

The Webb team composed of Maj. Richard C. Fountaine, T. Sgt. Bobby D. Eiland, S. Sgt. Bennie E. Hatfield, Airman 1.C. James R. Dallas, Airman 2.C. Nageb Aziz and Airman 3.C. Vincent A. Cyr, received para-sailing training in a week-long course at Randolph AFB. During the week, the men made 80 drops.

Para-sailing, requires a minimum of equipment: a pickup truck, 900 feet of low rope, a release device, a winch, and a specially designed parachute. Louvers in the parachute act as air foils, much like an aircraft wing. As air flows over and through the louvers, it pulls the jumper into the air. When towed by a truck, the parachute raises rapidly to carry the student to an altitude of 400 feet before release.

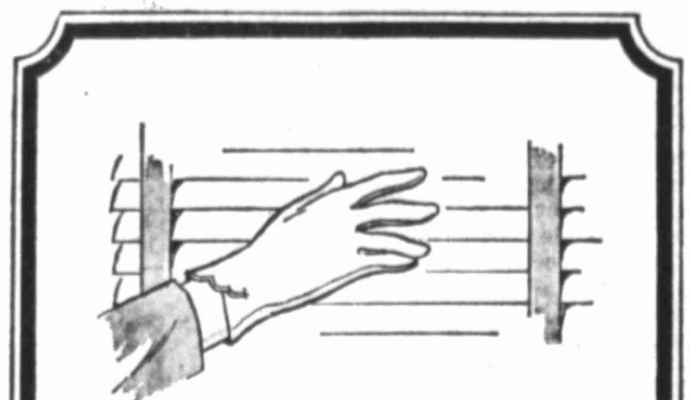

During the drop, the student practices parachute control and landing techniques. The most important feature of para-sail technique is safety. Pretested for several months at four Air Training Command bases, para-sailing has proved successful.

The first class at Webb scheduled to receive the new para-sailing training will be class 67-E. The exact date is uncertain. At present, the special equipment is on order and is expected in the near future. Civil engineers are working on a site to be used for para-sail training about 20 miles from Webb, in Martin County.

State Senate Race Battles Shape Up

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas voters predicting a quiet election year should take a look at the state Senate races.

Because of reapportionment, resignations and other political campaigns will see at least five and maybe six of the current senators go down in defeat.

Another nine new senators will be added to the august body of 31 members.

ONE REPUBLICAN?

Political oddsmakers predict the sun will rise next Nov. 9 on at least one Republican state senator, maybe a Negro woman senator and possibly a senatorial title for Gov. John Connally's brother.

Bitterest battling will center around the four races where senatorial redistricting forced

South, the declarer at four spades, capitalized on an unusual feature of his opponents' distribution to rescue his contract from the very brink of defeat.

West opened the eight of hearts; East put up the king and cashed the ace, felling declarer's queen. East continued with a small heart and, since South had nothing to gain by taking a discard, he ruffed with the queen of spades. West discarded the ten of clubs to inform his partner that he was well heeled in that suit.

Declarer obtained only a momentary gratification at West's inability to overruff for, with the king of spades clearly marked in the East hand, it appeared that South must lose a spade trick as well as a club.

Declarer's only legitimate chance apparently was to lead over to the ace of spades in an attempt to drop a singleton king. South observed an additional prospect which, though somewhat remote, could be tested at slight extra cost.

He began by cashing three rounds of diamonds, discarding a club from the dummy as both opponents followed suit. Now a spade was led to the ace and, when East's king held firm, South proceeded to develop his alternate plan. The heart was led from dummy and ruffed with the jack of spades as West parted with another club.

A club was led to the ace and, with both hands stripped of red cards North exited with a spade. East was in with the king and, since he was out of clubs, his forced return of either a heart or a diamond permitted South to ruff in his hand as the dummy disposed of his last club. Declarer had restricted his losses to two hearts and one spade.

Despite the fortunate division in clubs which found East with only a singleton in that suit, West was in position to nullify South's astute performance. When the third round of hearts is led and declarer ruffs with the queen of spades, West can foil the stripping operation by discarding a diamond instead of the high club. When South plays three rounds of diamonds, West ruffs the third round, forcing North to overruff and thereby preventing the club shuff. In the end, the dummy is left with a losing club.

Hollowell To Oppose Smith

AUSTIN (AP)—Blasting Gov. John Connally and labeling Lt. Gov. Preston Smith a "follow along lieutenant governor," state Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline said Monday he will oppose Smith in the May 7 Democratic primary.

Hollowell told reporters he will run for lieutenant governor on a ticket with Houston oilman Stanley Woods, who announced last week as a candidate for governor.

Hollowell, frequent critic of the governor during the 59th legislature, concentrated his fire on Connally, referring to Smith only occasionally.

"Controversial and open discussion have disappeared under Gov. John Connally," Hollowell said. "He rules the state with an iron fist."

Christie of El Paso are candidates.

Other incumbents without current opposition include: Dist. 1, A. M. Aikin, Paris, dean of the Senate; Dist. 4, Roy Harrington, Port Arthur; Dist. 6, Criss Cole, Houston; Dist. 9, Ralph Hall, Rockwall; Dist. 10, Don Kennard, Fort Worth; Dist. 13, Murray Watson, Mart; Dist. 14, Charles Herring, Austin; Dist. 17, A. R. Schwartz, Galveston; Dist. 20, Bruce Reagan, Corpus Christi; Dist. 22, Tom Creighton, Mineral Wells; Dist. 24, David Batliff, Stamford; Dist. 27, Jim Bates, Edinburg; Dist. 28, H. J. (Doc) Blanchard, Lubbock; and Dist. 31, Grady Hazlewood, Amarillo.

HOT RACES

Two hot Senate races are building up in Bexar County due to redistricting and the announcement of Sen. Franklin Spears for the attorney general's race. In Dist. 19, the new district of southeast Bexar County, Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry and Richard Owen, a retired Army colonel, have filed for the Democratic primary. Sam Jorie, former county commissioner, has announced as a third candidate. In Dist. 26, of northwest Bexar County, David Carter, a local businessman, has filed and Reps. Joe Bernal and R. L. Vale have said they will file later.

Soil Subsidies Battle Looms

WASHINGTON (AP)—A fight between President Johnson and Congress is expected on at least one farm budget item—a proposal to reduce by about 55 percent subsidies for soil and water conservation practices carried out by farmers.

The President asked that Congress authorize $100 million for these subsidies for the 1967 crop year, compared with $220 million for the current year.

Since its inception in 1936 this program has been highly favored by members of Congress.

NO REDUCTIONS

Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy tried unsuccessfully to reduce the program. Johnson also tried last year, but failed.

Under the program, the Agriculture Department bears about half the cost of conservation practices on participating farms. This year, these practices will be emphasized: Placing cover crops on land subject to wind and water erosion, establishment of contour and strip cropping to curtail erosion, forestry practices and establishment of wildlife habitats.

In some states where none of the major commercial crops carrying government benefits is grown, conservation payments are about the only federal funds going to farmers.

SEEN ADEQUATE

The President said the smaller sum "will be adequate to permit the government to share with farmers the cost of a substantial number of needed conservation practices that will have minimal effects on stimulating the immediate output of farm commodities."

Farm officials said the recommended cutback would require limits on the amount paid individual farms or limits on the number of farms allowed to participate.

Some Volkswagen owners look down on other Volkswagen owners.

When you graduate from a Volkswagen Sedan to a Volkswagen Station Wagon, you really step up in the world. The Station Wagon stands a good foot taller than other cars.

And it holds more than the biggest conventional wagon you can find.

But the VW Wagon isn't only tall. It's also short.

We saved 4 feet of hood in front by putting the engine in back.

Big as it is inside, it's only 9 inches longer than the Volkswagen Sedan.

So people who move up to the high-slung model still feel very much at home. They park in the same little spots. They still don't worry about freezing or boiling; the engine is air-cooled.

They still go a long way, on a gallon of gas about 23 miles! and a very long way on a set of tires about 35,000 miles.

And it just tickles them to drive one Volkswagen and be able to look down on a million others.

Steers Visit Lee Seeking 4th Win

Big Spring starts second half play in the District 2-AAAA double round - robin with a game against Midland Lee in Midland at 8 o'clock tonight. Last time out, Lee defeated Big Spring, 69-62, here, relying heavily upon a full-court press to befuddle the Steers. The Rebels have shared up well since that time, having won five of seven league assignments. More than any other team in the circuit, they are conceded a good chance to overtake Abilene High in the conference race. Big Spring has looked to advance in its last four assignments. The locals have won three of those games and played pace - setting Abilene High off its feet before losing by five points.

Grant Steering Clear Of Manager's Office

By LEW FERGUSON Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. PAUL, MINN. (AP) — Jim (Mudcat) Grant, looking all "show business" in his ermine-white fur coat and down-lined snow boots, breezed into Metropolitan Stadium Monday, but steered clear of Minnesota Twins President Calvin Griffith's office. Within the next few weeks, Griffith's office is due to be the scene of Grant's verbal battle for a $29,000 baseball salary raise. He got $21,000 in 1965 when he won 21 games. "I haven't reached the crossroads yet," Grant said of his impending salary struggle. "I haven't talked to the man (Griffith)." Grant says he must get a $50,000 contract to pitch for the American League champion Twins in 1966, or he'll remain in show business. He has toured this winter with his group, called "Mudcat and his Kids," appearing at night clubs in this region and New York City, and next goes to Quebec. "I don't have to pitch now or starve," Grant said. "If I'm not worth $50,000 now in baseball, I never will be." A slight chink in his contracttalving armor showed through, however, when Grant admitted that there is always the possibility of compromise. "He'll have to convince me I should compromise," Grant said of Griffith. "Right now I say I've got to have $50,000 or I won't sign." "If he can convince me that I'm not worth $30,000, then I'll sign, but it will take some tall talking." Grant and Griffith squared off with verbal barbs at the Baseball Writers' dinner Monday night as each took a turn at the speaker's microphone. "I just want to say, 'Mudcat I don't believe everything I read,'" Griffith said in reference to statements his pitcher has given the press. Added Griffith: "You know what I think he's mad about? He didn't ask for more money last year."

When Grant got his turn, he jibed, "Seems to me some other people ought to be in show business besides me." Grant hinted that more had been made of the salary dispute than he had intended. "The sports writers have had a great time with us," Grant said.

Coach Allen Simpson altered his lineup against San Angelo here Saturday night, benching 6-9 Paul Thomas. The locals won by ten points, with Robert Jackson and Robert Jones playing major roles in the victory. Lee has outscored the opposition exactly 100 points in conference play, 507 to 407. That averages out to 72.4 points for Lee to 58.1 for the enemy.

Big Spring, on the other hand, has counted 388 points (an average of 55.5 a game) to an even 400 (57.1 per game) for the opposition. Lee's two leading scorers are Kenny Canby, who has accumulated 136 points, and Johnny Branan, who has 111 points. Branan was the boy who tore up Big Spring's playhouse last time out.

Other starters for Lee will probably be Terry Jastrow, Tom Taylor and Gary Gool or Bobby Waddell. Big Spring needs only two wins in its last seven starts to assure itself of a .500 season. The locals are now 13-10. Simpson will probably start a lineup consisting of Jackson at the center spot, Simon Terrazas and Paul Soldan or Thomas in the forecourt and Robert Jones and Bobby Griffin backside. B teams of the two schools square off at 6:15 p.m. Big Spring also plays on the road Friday, meeting Odessa High there.

Jurist Holds For City In Braves' Suit

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller ruled today that the State of Wisconsin has facts "sufficient to constitute a cause of action" to bring an antitrust suit under its own statutes against baseball, and ordered the attorney general's action to trial in his court. Judge Roller gave counsel for the National League, the Braves and the league's other member clubs seven days to file an answer to the state's complaint, which arose from the proposed transfer of the Braves franchise to Atlanta. The defendants had contended that the facts alleged by the state did not constitute a cause of action. Still before the court is the state's petition for a temporary injunction prohibiting the Braves from playing home games anywhere but Milwaukee County Stadium until conclusion of the trial. The suits, almost identical in wording, accused the National League of a conspiracy to deprive Milwaukee of baseball. They asked that the Boston-born Braves, planning to open the 1966 season in Atlanta after a 13-year stopover here, be required to remain in Milwaukee unless the league granted the city a substitute franchise. The federal suit was not affected by Roller's ruling. The Braves, in asking Roller to cast the state suit out of his court, argued baseball was a national sport. They said antitrust jurisdiction belonged to Congress and the federal government, rather than any one state.

Attorneys for Wisconsin and Milwaukee County contended in reply that the Braves' departure involved a legal injury to local citizens and was subject to settlement in local courts. # Baron's Barb Seems To Have Fired Cats

By DICK COUCH Associated Press Sports Writer
Either Adolph Rupp has sold his Kentucky Wildcats short or the Baron's needle has found its mark again. The unbeaten, nationally second-ranked Wildcats rolled to their 13th victory Monday night, burying Louisiana State 111-85 under a deadly volley led by sophomore Thad Jaracz. It was the second straight point spree in Southeastern Conference play for the Cats, who may be reacting to a well-aimed barb from their 64-year-old pilot. "This team just does not have the killer instinct," Rupp complained two weeks ago after Kentucky squeezed past Georgia 69-65 in two overtimes after blowing a 13-point halftime lead. The remark was enough to send the Wildcats on a second-half rampage that trampled powerful Vanderbilt 96-83 five days later. After staggering Vandy with 65 per cent shooting in the second half, they picked up the tempo in the first half of Monday's game against LSU at Lexington, Ky. Kentucky hit on 73 per cent of its field goal attempts and stormed to a 66-43 halftime margin. The Wildcats wound up with a 58.4 field goal percentage with Jaracz connecting on 11 of his 15 shots. While Rupp nailed his 73rd career victory, Chicago Loyola — only other member of The Associated Press' Top Ten in action — extended its winning string to 11 by trouncing visiting Marshall 92-68 behind the torrid shooting of Alan Miller. Miller, a 6-foot-2 soph, shot 12 for 20 from the field, pacing the No. 7 Ramblers to their 13th victory in 14 starts. Jim Coleman, Loyola's leading scorer, was held to three points but Corky Bell supported Miller with 17. Tennessee, one of the clubs given a chance of overhauling Kentucky in the SEC race, exploded for a school point record in routing the touring University of Mexico team 121-42. Ron Widby dropped in 19 points and six teammates hit double figures as the Vols erased their old scoring mark of 114 points set 10 years ago against Furman. The towering Vols out rebounded the visitors 84-29 and limited them to 14 points in the second half. Matthew Aitch scored 23 points and Stan Washington added 21 as Michigan State whipped Purdue 92-74 at East Lansing, Mich., and moved within one-half game of Big Ten Conference leader, Michigan. Dave Schellhase, the nation's scoring leader, topped the losers with 25 points.

Attorneys for Wisconsin and Milwaukee County contended in reply that the Braves' departure involved a legal injury to local citizens and was subject to settlement in local courts. At stake today was only the issue of whether Roller's court, a county circuit court set up under state laws, could hear the suit. The question of whether baseball violates antitrust laws remained to be decided. The other suit in U.S. District Court here has been allowed to lay largely dormant while Wisconsin officials have pushed the issue in the state's courts.

Mick's Surgery Slated Today

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — Mickey Mantle, baseball's greatest switch-hitter, was scheduled today to undergo surgery which would probably determine where the New York Yankee star ends his playing career — in the outfield or at first base. For 15 years Mantle has patrolled the outfield as the Bronx Bombers won 12 American League pennants. He was switched from center field to left field last season. But even with the shorter throw from left field, baserunners were taking liberties when it appeared that Mantle had trouble throwing. Mantle, checked into Mayo Clinic on Jan. 17 for a series of examinations. Today's surgery was to remove a bone chip from his right shoulder — the apparent cause of the pain which hampered his throwing. Mantle is expected to be hospitalized 10 to 14 days. A clinic spokesman said he would have to remain in Rochester for several weeks after that for physical therapy. Mantle says the bone chip is rubbing against a tendon. "It's just like having something sharp rubbing on a piece of string." He said it hurts when he has to lift his arm above his shoulder to put on a coat or shirt.

Graham Hired By Redskins

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins, disappointed with nice-guy coaches and second-rate finishes, have hired Otto Graham as head coach, the Washington Post reported today. The Post said the former Northwestern University and Cleveland Brown star also will be named general manager of the team. Official announcement of Graham's hiring may come today, the Post said.

Recovering From Horse's Kick

Ken Boyer has been booted twice since last baseball season — once by the Cardinals and once by a horse. The veteran third baseman, traded during the off-season by St. Louis, announced Monday while working out in a gym that he has signed his 1966 contract with the New York Mets, who have been kicked about quite a bit themselves. Explaining a patch just below his left knee, Boyer said: "One of my horses kicked me some time ago. I had eight stitches, but it doesn't bother me. It won't hurt my playing." The National League's Most Valuable Player in the Cardinals' world championship year of 1964, Boyer reportedly got in the neighborhood of $65,000, the figure he was said to have received from St. Louis. "I was very pleased with the contract or I wouldn't have signed this soon," he said. "I'm really looking forward to the season. I'm in pretty good shape." Boyer, 34, who had played for the Cardinals all 11 of his major league seasons, indicated at the

White Gets New Baldwin Organ

A Baldwin New Model Home Organ has just been received by White Music Co. It features three channels, several new voices — the marimba, xylophone, string bass and manual and pedal brushes. It is now on display at the store.

Rent-A-Piano Special Starting At White's

Hurry, hurry, hurry and get into the swing of things down at White Music Co., 1903 Gregg. Les White announces a special on rental pianos from Jan. 25 through Feb. 25—at only $8 a month, which includes tuning and delivering at no extra cost.

The Kimball line of pianos, which start with three pedals and keyboard cover for $475, feature a walnut finish. For the guitar player, there are Gretsch Guitars and amplifiers, the brand designed and played by Chet Atkins. There is a complete line of student guitars starting at $21.95 and banjos, drums, ukuleles, strings, sheet music and accessories. There is a full-time tuner and technician for immediate service on musical instruments, White added. As a special item there is the player piano built by Kimball.

It has volume control and a "rinky-tink" sound, "really like the old-timers," White said. White said that the White Music Co. has been locally-owned and operated for the past six years and has local bank-rate financing and immediate service.

Free Alignment Checks Available At White's

Since by mid-April you are going to have to have new inspection stickers on your cars, you might as well get it done now, and at the same time get your front-end alignment checked free. Where? At White's 202-204 Scurry, where their Super-Service Department offers a complete brake service as well.

White's is an official inspection station, and while you are there, you can drive your car over a machine which will check your front-end alignment, free, and give you an indication of whether it's time you had a re-alignment to save you much shaking and vibrating and unnecessary wear and tear on those expensive tires. If your car does need the service, White's Super-Service Department can handle the job quickly, efficiently and at a reasonable price.

Same department can do a complete brake job for you, from installing excellent brake linings to turning worn brake drums.

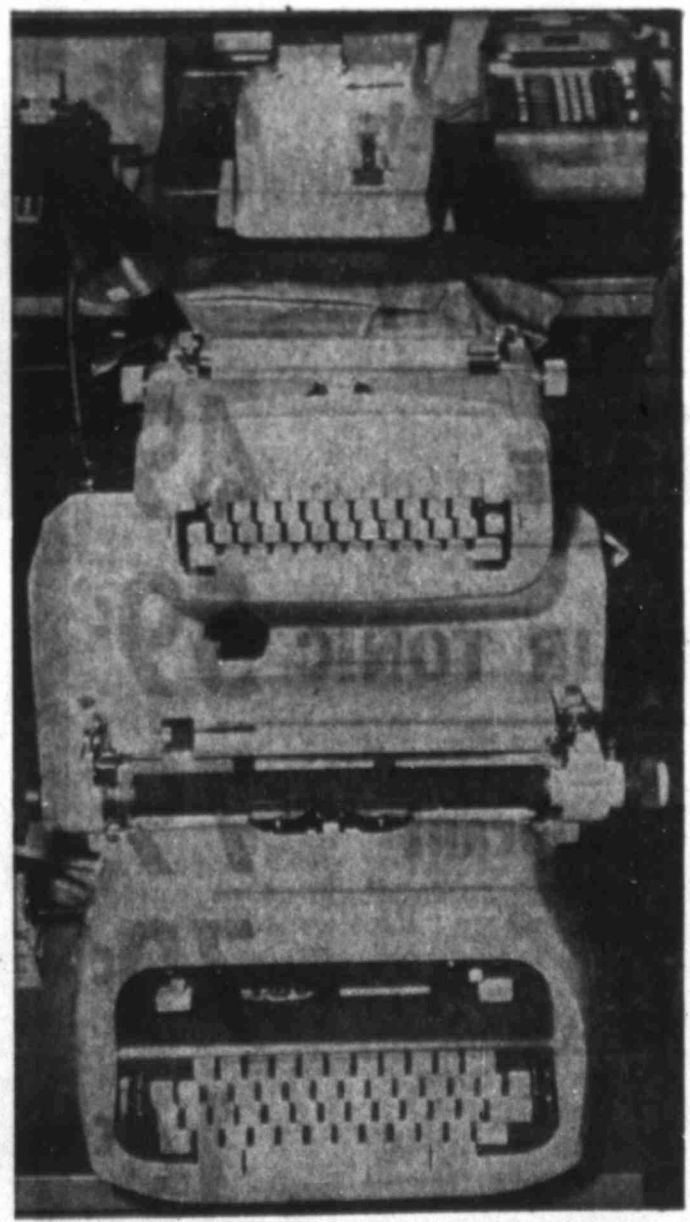

While you're waiting the inspection stickers, why not mosey around the TV department? Right now, White's has several of their fine Catalina brand color television sets, including a beautiful one in maple which features multiplex AM-FM radio and stereophonic record system—and White's low price will be a pleasant surprise, considering the quality you'll get. You don't need a TV? Well, the Catalina brand carries over to White's complete line of refrigerators and washing machines. Look them over.

Or how about the brand-name line of nylon and wool carpeting — if you need carpeting, White's is the place to find it, whatever the style you're hunting.

And, speaking of 1966, it won't be long until it is time to begin gardening again, and taking care of that lawn. White's has a complete line of garden tillers and, of course, all kinds of yard forks, rakes, hoes, shovels, trowels, and whatever else you may need.

But do remember to get that inspection sticker on your buggy before you have to stand in line.

Actor Suffers Throat Cancer

LONDON (AP) — British movie star Jack Hawkins is suffering from throat cancer, but he is reported making progress after an operation.

"His condition is satisfactory," said a spokesman at London's University Hospital, where the 55-year-old actor underwent surgery over the weekend.

BELIEVED SUCCESS

Friends said Hawkins, who won international fame in "The Cruel Sea," is cheerful despite discomfort. They expressed belief the operation had been a complete success.

Hawkins' wife, Doreen, told David Lewin of the Daily Mail: "I am assured — and I believe it — that Jack will be absolutely all right. Even now, when we converse with Jack writing notes to me on bits of paper, he is making plans for the future."

Hawkins, whose square build and masculinity seem to typify the British Empire at its best, was cast for years as the epitome of the English officer.

EARLIER ATTACK

In 1962, after eight years of continuous movie making, throat trouble forced him to abandon plans to return to the stage.

He was pronounced cured and went on to make more movies. He has just finished co-starring with Sophia Loren in "Judith."

Hawkins also played televi-

Marines' Choice

DEAR ABBY: You asked the troops in Viet Nam what kind of homecoming they would like. We, members of Tent 7, U.S. Marine Corps, H&MS-12, Chu Lai, would like to reply:

We just want to return home and find our parents, sweethearts and wives happy and healthy. We don't want any brass bands or welcome home banners. What we have seen and done here we'd like to forget, so give those of us who are lucky enough to make it home a quiet homecoming.

Very cordially yours,

Richard B. Owens, Sgt., Orlando, Fla.; Robert C. Packard, Pfc., Pittsburgh, Pa.; George Jones, Cpl., Mpls., Minn.; Ray D. Smith, Pfc., Portland, Ore.; Ray Richardson, Dothan, Ala.; Larry Little, Pfc., Wheelwright, Ky.; George Clouse, Cpl., Woodbridge, Va.; Howard Dyar, Mentor, Ohio; Charles T. Briggs, Marion, Mass.

DEAR ABBY: How does one introduce his father's second wife? I just can't say, "Meet my STEPMOTHER."

This woman raised me since I was two years old. I have always called her "Aunt Mary." Now that I am married, when I introduce "Aunt Mary" to my friends, and it turns out she is my father's wife, it is all so ridiculous. Please help me with this awkward problem.

FEELING FOOLISH
DEAR FEELING: It's too bad the fairy tales have made "stepmother" a slur, because whether you can say it or not, that's exactly who your "Aunt Mary" is. Why don't you just call her "Mother"? If she raised you since you were two, even if you don't feel she is really your mother, I'll bet she feels that you are really her son.

DEAR ABBY: Please, please, please print this for me and for all other mothers of sons who have this problem:

What happened to the good old days when boys chased girls? I am the mother of a 16-year-old son and I am bothered all day and sometimes up until 12 o'clock at night with girls calling my boy. When I say he is not home, they keep calling. Often when I answer, they hang up in my face. Boys don't like to be called by girls. I've seen my son drop at least four girls because they called him all the time. I have a 14-year-old daughter, and if I ever catch her calling a boy I'll tan her hide. I am almost angry enough to have our phone taken out. And I hope every girl in Highland Park, Illinois, who knows my son, reads this.

Measles Fought In Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Attendance at Rhode Island's first statewide measles clinic was held down by Sunday's swirling snowstorm to about 62 per cent of eligible youngsters.

Officials said about 32,000 children were inoculated at clinics held in 36 communities. The clinics are open to children up to 12 years of age. Most of those vaccinated were of preschool age.

"Whatever remains up there was almost certainly buried by drifting snow during the night," said a helicopter pilot after a reconnaissance flight. "It could take months to get everything down."

CHAMONIX, France (AP) — Mist and howling winds today prevented searchers from reaching the wreckage of the Indian jetliner which crashed into Mont Blanc, killing all 117 persons aboard.

U. N. Diplomacy Path To Truce?

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Two diplomats chat over cocktails in the U.N. delegates' lounge. The secretary-general circulates a secret memorandum. A small group confers in the private office of the Security Council president.

On the surface these events were far from spectacular, but each had a major impact on history.

Out of them came actions which led to the lifting of the Berlin blockade, the beginning of the Korean armistice negotiations at Panmunjom and a ceasefire in the undeclared war between India and Pakistan.

These are examples of quiet United Nations diplomacy — the vast complex of behind-the-scenes negotiations complementing the more dramatic public confrontations, sometimes called "television diplomacy."

MAY EMERGE

It is out of such unostentatious give and take, such unobtrusive staking of positions, such quiet understandings of the other side that negotiations for an end to the Viet Nam war may emerge.

Although the public views the United Nations primarily as a forum for debate, many veteran U.N. observers are convinced that the coffee tables in the delegates' lounge have contributed more to peace than the U-shaped table in the Security Council day Secretary-General U Thant, like his predecessors, has a list of diplomatic callers. Usually the subject of their talks remains undisclosed.

Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand, a former president of the General Assembly, once deplored the fact that the public

Zale's Sales Hit Records

Zale Corp.'s fiscal report for the nine months ended Dec. 31, 1965, is highlighted by record increases which also sent the Dallas firm's sales and earnings well beyond what the company had reported for its entire fiscal year ended March 31, 1965. Zale's has 495 stores in 40 states.

For the current nine months, sales increased 34 per cent and earnings rose 32 per cent.

Sales soared over the $100 million mark for the first time in Zale history, reaching a high of $108,069,793, as compared with $99,372,545 for the same period a year ago. Net earnings in the current period rose to $6,990,184, or $1.27 per share. This compares with $5,288,366, or 88 cents per share based on 5,500,826 shares outstanding and adjusted to reflect stock dividends and the 3-for-2 split effected July 30, 1965.

CHICAGO (AP) — Women who wiggle when they walk have no physiological reason for walking that way, says a bone specialist.

'Dial Your Congressman' Plan Tried

WASHINGTON (AP) — A grocer seeking a small business loan. A dietitian who slipped on the kitchen floor. A youth with a yen to become a biologist.

Via long distance, all these poured their woes or ambitions into the ear of freshman Rep. George W. Grider, D-Tenn., Monday as he inaugurated a kind of Dial-your-Congressman system.

From 3 to 5 p.m. on Mondays, any constituent with a problem can drop by Grider's Memphis office and speak direct to the congressman.

A "CONDUIT"

Grider, a three-career man — submarine skipper, lawyer and now politician — has become convinced since arriving here in January 1965, that congressmen must be conduits.

"The government simply won't work," he says, "unless Congress members act as conduits for citizens to bring their absolutely legitimate problems to the attention of the proper agencies."

A man with a sense of humor, Grider warmed up for Monday's person-to-person exchanges by talking into a dead phone:

"What, madame, you say your son wants to go to Viet Nam! There must be something wrong with the connection."

"Yes, sir, I will have your son out of prison tomorrow morning."

DIETITIAN CALLS

First of the real callers was a dietitian who got to the Memphis office two hours early, to make sure she was first on the phone.

Her story: She slipped on the kitchen floor at Shelby County Hospital and hurt herself. And, would you believe it, she was discharged from her job while convalescing.

"Now, of course," Grider said, "the Shelby County Hospital is out of my jurisdiction, but I can do something. I'll write Commissioner Danny Mitchell a letter. They don't have a right to discharge you if you're injured on the job."

STUDENT REASSURED

The congressman said to the next caller:

"Hi, David, I hear it's about to snow and sleet in Memphis."

The caller was David Neely, a graduate of the Tennessee Agricultural and Industrial College, who wants to take graduate courses in biology. He was promised all information on college loans, and —

"When you come up here to visit Howard University, be sure to drop by the office. We'll call up Howard."

A grocer in quest of loan assistance also got encouraging words.

Judge May Select Jury

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Seventy-seven jury candidates have been examined but as the Mossler murder trial entered its seventh day, defense attorneys may be no closer to agreement on a jury than they were at the beginning.

Five were eliminated Monday by challenges and at the day's end one attorney said, "There are several more in the box that will never make it."

Circuit Judge George Schultz warmed attorneys Percy Foreman and Clyde Woody that he has the authority to pick a jury himself.

Schultz said he was getting tired of listening to the same questions being asked over and over again, and if this continues, he intends to take over the jury examinations.

Einstein Stamp Will Be Issued

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — The Princeton post office says it will release a first-day issue stamp March 14 — his birthday — honoring the late Albert Einstein, Nobel Prize-winner. He died in Princeton in 1955. Einstein had been a professor at Princeton's Institute for Advanced Study.

Whiplash, Common Cause of Headaches

By Halvard T. Hansen, D. C.

Injuries to arms and eventually even cause shoulder bursitis. These are seldom noticed at the time of the injury, though, and the accident causing them is often forgotten. Later on, the symptoms present themselves, perhaps one at a time. A person may experience headaches without any apparent reason, or he may complain of stiff neck and recurrent arm pains. The weather may be blamed, but if an examination were made, the original injury could be detected.

The whiplash injury of the neck can usually be corrected. You should insist upon a chiropractic examination whenever its presence is suspected, or following an accident.

The Hansen Chiropractic Clinic is open until 6 p.m. each evening. Call AM 3-3324 for an appointment or just drop in — Across from Piggly Wiggly on Eleventh Place.

FAVOR RIGHT-TO-WORK

Texans Still Oppose Compulsory Unionism

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll

The new Congress may this week witness once again the head-on collision of President Lyndon Johnson's aims and the opposition of Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen to the repeal of Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Texans remain emphatically on the side of the Senator from Illinois, as they have for years. That is, two-thirds of all adults believe workers should not be required to join a union in their place of work in order to hold their jobs. It is this prohibition against compulsory union membership that Section 14-B allows the states to enforce. Texas is one of the states that has such a "right-to-work" law.

In recent years Democratic administrations have pledged repeal of 14-B, but public opinion has been unsympathetic with this change, long sought by labor unions.

The latest Texas Poll, completed in December, indicates that opinion on the issue today is just where it was in 1959 and has been unaffected by the President's repeated declarations about the necessity to rid the testimony on the 12 separate money bills which annually finance the government.

The usual cries of "too much" went up from Republicans Monday as Democrats commended the President for what they called a realistic approach to the government's fiscal problems in his budget.

"I have never seen a budget based on more tenuous revenue assumptions and with such little regard for the fiscal welfare of this nation," commented Rep. Frank T. Bow of Ohio, senior Republican on the House Appropriations Committee.

McNamara's testimony will be key to a presidential request for $12.76 billion in emergency funds, exclusive of the $57.1-billion defense budget for fiscal 1967.

The entire House Appropriations Committee will be given an over-all picture of budget and appropriation requirements next Monday, when the Budget Bureau and the Treasury Department present the case for the President.

The 12 subcommittees will settle down then to months of per cent "should not" answers. To be sure that the wording of questions like the above was not biasing replies against the labor view, we also asked the question like this in the February, 1965 survey: "Labor unions say that when they are accepted by a majority of the workers in a company, the law should be that all workers there must join the union if they want to hold their jobs. Do you approve or disapprove of such a law?" The results were almost identical as those obtained with the other question—69 per cent disapproving.

Congressional Panels Start On Budget Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twelve congressional committees started cranking up today for the long and arduous job of handling President Johnson's $112.8-billion budget.

Hearings on the many facets of the budget, presented to Congress Monday, will begin Wednesday when a House Defense Appropriations subcommittee will hear Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara explain the money needs of the military.

McNamara's testimony will be key to a presidential request for $12.76 billion in emergency funds, exclusive of the $57.1-billion defense budget for fiscal 1967.

The entire House Appropriations Committee will be given an over-all picture of budget and appropriation requirements next Monday, when the Budget Bureau and the Treasury Department present the case for the President.

Three-Fourths Of South Viet In Cong's Grip

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Three-fourths of South Viet Nam is controlled by the Viet Cong — or by nobody.

This is the opinion of authoritative sources who have watched the Saigon government's grip weaken in the provinces, even after the arrival of nearly 200,000 U.S. troops. The situation throws a big shadow over hopes for a permanent cease-fire and plans to move the country toward democracy.

These sources say the government today controls less than a quarter of the land — controls it, that is, in the sense of having government executive channels working in all respects.

"WASTE JUNGLE"

Some U.S. officials don't think this is too important. They argue that much of the area controlled by the Viet Cong or the "no man's land" is jungled or mountainous territory where few if any people live. Since the Saigon regime controls the cities, more than half the population is in areas held by the government.

Only two of Viet Nam's 45 provinces are considered wholly under government control — Gia Dinh, which surrounds Saigon.

gon, and An Giang, center of the Hoa Hao religious sect which is determinedly anti-Communist.

Even in some areas listed in the government column, the Viet Cong underground operates freely, and the chance of ambush always haunt government and American troops. Saigon police have battled with Viet Cong military units on the very outskirts of the capital. Two district capitals, roughly equivalent to county seats in the United States, have been abandoned in the past month because of overwhelming Viet Cong pressure. They were within 30 miles of U.S. Marine beachheads, but that didn't save Minh Long and Hiep Duc.

RED CONFIDENCE

Viewing their past gains and the inability so far of the Allied forces to trap Viet Cong or North Vietnamese forces for a major showdown fight in the field, the Communists must feel fairly confident.

It is against this background that hopes for an early peace or permanent cease-fire must be weighed.

Although harried by air strikes and American and Vietnamese operations through their base camp areas, the Viet Cong still continue to strike with a fanatical spirit.

The Saigon government is determined that there will be no peace talks that would concede Viet Cong control as it stands or that would limit the government to the areas it now holds. Hanoi's reluctance to negotiate appears to show optimism that the Viet Cong will strengthen its position.

Assessing the situation, reliable sources say that the government and the Viet Cong each control about one-quarter of the country. The other half is disputed territory.

SCATTERED OUTPOSTS

The government foothold in these disputed areas usually amounts to scattered outposts that protect little more than their own barbed wire. It is the Viet Cong who usually are able to move into the villages at night to hammer home their propaganda. Government village chiefs and police often spend the night at the district town headquarters building behind barbed wire.

Be Sure To Check 'Other Deductions'

By RAY DE CRANE
NEA Special Writer

A catch-all category for deductions you could not classify elsewhere is found at the bottom of Part IV on Page 2 of Form 1040. It is labeled "Other Deductions."

Properly listed here, if they apply in your case, are:

- Child care expenses.
- Education expenses.
- Casualty and theft losses.
- Alimony.
- Cost of safety equipment, tools and supplies used in your work.
- Union and professional dues.
- Unreimbursed business entertainment expense.
- Fees to employment agencies.

"I knew there was a catch to it," the eager reader will probably say when he learns there are qualifications for most entries.

CHILD CARE

The child care deduction arises when a working wife, or a widow or widower, in order to be employed or to seek gainful employment requires outside assistance in caring for dependent children under 13 or other dependents physically or mentally incapable of self-care.

The deduction is restricted to $600 when one dependent is being cared for, to $900 where two or more are involved. A working wife must file a joint return with her husband to claim the deduction and the deduction is reduced by the amount by which their combined income exceeds $6,000. From this it will be seen that if one person is being cared for there is no deduction if total income reached $6,000 or $6,900 when two or more are receiving child care. The income limitation does not apply in cases where the husband is physically or mentally incapable of self-support or if the wife is institutionalized for at least 90 consecutive days, or a shorter period if she dies. Casualty and theft losses are restricted to the amount of the loss reduced by insurance proceeds or other compensation received in excess of $100 for each occurrence. A statement must be attached to the return explaining the deduction.

EDUCATION

Education expenses may be claimed if the prime purpose is to improve or maintain skills required in your employment, or if undertaken to meet a requirement of your employer or by law or regulation affecting your continued employment. The expenses of education designed initially to qualify you for your chosen field are not deductible.

Alimony is deductible by the husband (taxable to the wife) if paid in accordance with a court order or legal separation agreement.

Foreign Ship's Data Required At Each Port

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled Monday that a foreign vessel is considered to be arriving in an American port for the first time even though it may have last sailed from another American port rather than a foreign one. The court said it was the design of Congress that every foreign ship have and produce to American customs authorities at each U.S. port at which it calls a manifest listing the merchandise and stores on board.

state because the soil was too wet to work. Small quantities of cotton were being harvested early in the week in areas later hit by snow. Freezing temperatures halted wheat growth on the High Plains. Vegetable and citrus harvests in the Rio Grande Valley were curtailed by showers. Slight freeze damage was inflicted on vegetables and watermelons.
