Filipinos To Humphrey: 'Go Home'

MANILA (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey arrived tonight to discuss American Viet Nam policies in the Philippine capital where left-wing demonstrators shouting "Humphrey go home" besieged the U.S. Embassy only a few hours before.

The airport was cordoned off by an unusually large number of security forces.

Humphrey in an airport statement said he would talk to president Ferdinand E. Marcos Tuesday on the Viet Nam situation.

Humphrey arrived from New Zealand as the Philippine Congress began debates on Marcos' proposal to send a 2,000-man combat engineer unit to Viet Nam.

This was the proposal which drove demonstrators into the streets. About 1,000 of them marched from the presidential palace to Congress and then to the U.S. Embassy.

The demonstrators, opposing not only Humphrey's visit but U.S. policies in Viet Nam, dispersed about an hour and a half before the vice president's arrival. But they said there would be another demonstration Tuesday.

The demonstrators by students, civil servants and farmers were called to oppose a $4-million bill in the Philippine Congress that would finance the sending of 2,000 combat engineers to Viet Nam.

Earlier today Humphrey conferred with Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake of New Zealand at Parliament House in Wellington. A handful of demonstrators stood silently outside with signs denouncing the Viet Nam war.

During his arrival in Wellington Sunday from Canberra, Australia, Humphrey's car was rushed by a sign-swinger demonstrator who was hurled back by police. In Canberra the previous day about 150 demonstrators called Humphrey a "warmonger."

Opening Set For New Lot In Downtown

Members of Downtown Big Spring Inc. will hold the grand opening of the Downtown Big Spring parking lot, a joint city-downtown merchants project, Monday, Feb. 28, at 10 a.m. In case of inclement weather, the opening will be held the following day.

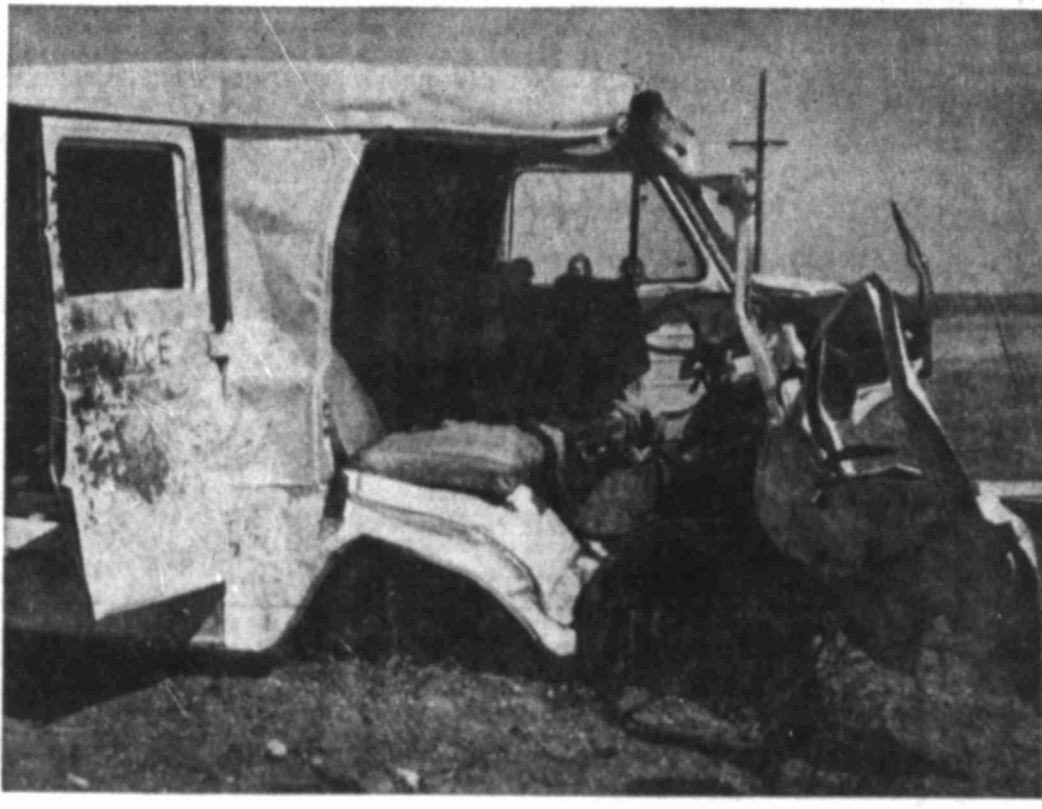

At a meeting in the chamber of commerce offices this morning, Adolph Swartz, president of Downtown Big Spring Inc., announced that the city had neared completion on the project, and city manager Larry Crow had okayed plans for Monday's opening.

In conjunction with the new parking lot, which will feature free parking to customers of Big Spring merchants, merchants of Downtown Big Spring Inc. will have several sales, possible ticket drawings and other activities to celebrate the grand opening. Details on the opening ceremony will be announced later in the week.

The new parking lot will be entered in the Operation Sparkle contest sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, a two-year contest open to all cities in West Texas.

Two Killed, Five Hurt In Rural Road Crash

Highway Toll Soars To Seven

Wreckage Of Cars In Which Two Men Died

Upper photo shows the panel truck in which Ernest William Heckler was killed and lower photo the sedan in which E. F. Mashburn was fatally injured. Five other persons were hurt in the two car crash which occurred north of Big Spring on the Gail Highway Sunday noon.

Two persons were killed, three seriously injured and two others hospitalized as result of a two-car collision at the intersection of two Howard County rural roads Sunday noon.

The accident occurred 15.8 miles north of town on FM 669, at the point where that road intersects County Road 56.

Highway Patrolman Jimmy Parks, who investigated the crash, said it resulted from the failure of the driver of the car on the county road to heed a stop sign.

KILLED INSTANTLY
Killed instantly in the crash were Elmer F. Mashburn, 61, Stanton, and Ernest William Heckler, 31, Midland.

Seriously injured and reported Monday to be in poor condition are Mrs. Erlene Mashburn, 45; Mrs. Myrtle Sikes, 68, Ackerly; and Mrs. Bonnie Kemp Heckler, 25, Midland.

In fair condition are Pamela Sikes, 8, and Sandra Sikes 15, both of Ackerly.

Investigators said that the Mashburn car, in which Mashburn, his wife, Mrs. Sikes and two Sikes children were passengers, was en route to Snyder on the county road. They were to attend a funeral of a relative being held in the Scurry County city.

Mrs. Heckler, with her husband, was in a new panel truck going south. She was driving.

Officers said there is a stop sign for traffic on the county road, and that the Gail road is given right of way at the intersection.

CARS CRASH
The two cars crashed almost in the middle of the intersection. Both were sent hurtling off the road and wound up some distance away in a pasture.

Heckler was thrown out of the panel truck.

Mashburn was trapped at the wheel of his car.

Big Spring Ambulance Service brought the injured to the hospitals. Mrs. Heckler is in the Howard County Hospital Foundation. The others are in Cowper Hospital and Clinic.

Bodies of the two victims were removed to the River-Welch Funeral Home, where services pend.

Jess Slaughter, justice of the peace, ruled death due to accident. Sheriff Aubrey Standard and several of his deputies assisted the highway patrol at the scene of the crash.

The two deaths brought the county road toll in Howard County to three and the total traffic deaths, urban and rural, in the county for 1966 to seven.

Ernest William Heckler is a native of Howard County. He was born in Big Spring, Nov. 22, 1934. He made his home here until recently when he moved to Odessa and Midland. More recently, he had been living in Midland where he operated the Circle Television Co.

He is survived by his widow, Bonnie; his father, H. F. Heckler; Luther, one brother; Melvin Heckler; Midland; and a number of uncles and aunts.

STANTON FARMER
E. F. (Elmer) Mashburn, 61, was born in Taylor County, June 28, 1904. He had made his home in Stanton since 1925 and was a farmer.

Survivors include his widow, Erlene; one son, James Donald Mashburn, Stanton; two daughters, Mrs. Fred Schlosser, Waukesha, Wis., and Mitsie Ann Mashburn, Stanton; two brothers, James Mashburn, Stanton, and L. D. Mashburn, Sweetwater; one sister, Mrs. Joyce Martin, Abilene. There are three grandchildren.

Top Seafarer From Texas Hill Country

FREDERICKSBURG, Tex. (AP)—Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, who during World War II commanded the most powerful armada in American history, first "walked the deck" in this landlocked Texas town.

The "deck" which the late admiral trod as a boy was the gallery ringing the old four-story Nimitz Hotel, built in the shape of a ship's superstructure by his seafaring grandfather.

The admiral, who died Sunday in California just four days short of his 81st birthday, was born in this German settlement in the heart of the Texas Hill Country.

VIPS VISITED
The grandfather, Chester Nimitz, had deserted the sea to join a group of German emigrants who founded Fredericksburg in 1846. His hotel became famous for its excellent kitchen and genial saloon and the guests of the frontier hostelry included Robert E. Lee, Jefferson Davis and Gen. Phil Sheridan.

Shortly before the admiral was born, his father died and the lad's first five years were spent in the nautical atmosphere of the hotel, called the "Steamboat" or "Battleship" by Fredericksburg residents.

An old sea captain was a permanent resident and young Nimitz' imagination was fired by the tales of sea told by his grandfather and the captain.

When his mother married the brother of her late husband, they moved to nearby Kerrville where they operated the St. Charles Hotel.

Chester was kept busy with chores around the hotel and driving a butcher's delivery wagon for pocket money but he found time to hunt and fish. The lanky lad was also the champion "rassler" of the town.

In high school he excelled in math but before he graduated he went to San Antonio to take the examination for the U. S. Naval Academy. At the age of 16 he won appointment as a naval cadet and left the Texas Hill Country for Annapolis.

Except for occasional visits, Nimitz spent little time in Fredericksburg and the old "Steamboat" hotel has been replaced by a more modern structure.

Union To Quiz Wirtz On Wage Guideline

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz is due for a grilling by the nation's top labor leaders on President Johnson's efforts to hold down wage demands which the White House considers inflationary.

AFL-CIO officials, who have long denounced White House wage guidelines, reportedly will charge that the Johnson administration used a racial discrimination suit in an effort to pressure high-wage construction unions into moderating pay increases.

Wirtz, who has had no known preliminary talks here about growing labor complaints against Johnson, told a newsman he would talk about anything the AFL-CIO Executive Council wants to bring up.

APPEARS TODAY
Wirtz appears today before the opening session of the council, the policy-making body of the politically potent labor federation which has more than 13 million members in 129 affiliated unions.

Wirtz said his closed-door discussions with the 29-member Executive Council will be informal.

AFL-CIO President George Meany and other council members also will discuss with their demands for an increase in the federal minimum wage from $1.25 to $1.40 this year, $1.60 next year, and $1.75 in 1968. This is one subject on which the labor leaders feel Wirtz agrees with them.

Federation officials fear Johnson may follow the recommendations of his Council of Economic Advisers for raises to $1.40 this year and $1.70 in 1970, which AFL-CIO sources said would kick off a major war between labor and the Johnson administration.

RIGHTS SUIT
The touchiest questioning Wirtz will face is the construction unions' charge that a federal civil rights suit filed against several building trades unions in St. Louis was part of a move to force them into a formula proposed by Wirtz to limit wage increases. The presidents of 18 construction unions flatly rejected it last week.

The charge by President C. J. Haggerty of the AFL-CIO Construction and Building Trades Department linking the racial discrimination suit to the wage proposal reportedly prompted the White House to assign Wirtz to placate the labor chieftains.

President Johnson reportedly is worried about the possibility of losing much of his Democratic majority in Congress in this year's elections, and lack of political support from labor would increase the chance of big Democratic losses.

State Rests Case In Mossler Murder Trial

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The state rested its first-degree murder case today against blonde Candace Mossler and her strapping nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, in the 1964 slaying of her aging multimillionaire husband and Jacques Mossler.

The defense was ready with the presentation that is hand-tailored to fit the courtroom talents of Powers' chief attorney, Percy Foreman, a colorful Texas lawyer. His will be the final plea in the case.

With direct prosecution testimony at an end, Dade County Circuit Judge George Schulz confronted routine midtrial defense motions — for a directed verdict of acquittal, or dismissal of charges for lack of evidence.

However, he is expected to continue the trial, now in its sixth week, with the all-male jury rendering the final judgment. The maximum penalty facing Mrs. Mossler and Powers, if convicted as charged, is death in the electric chair. The state has described them as illicit lovers, driven by lust and greed into a premeditated design to kill Mossler, 69.

Mrs. Mossler entered a local hospital during the weekend for treatment of an old neck injury, aggravated since the trial began Jan. 18 by a fall. She also is subject to migraine headaches, which have interrupted the hearing on occasions.

Neither the tiny, attractive Mrs. Mossler, who lists her age as 40, nor the 6-foot-3 Powers, 29, is expected to take the witness stand. The defense estimates it will call about 25 witnesses and take a week or more to put in its case.

RIGHTS SUIT
The touchiest questioning Wirtz will face is the construction unions' charge that a federal civil rights suit filed against several building trades unions in St. Louis was part of a move to force them into a formula proposed by Wirtz to limit wage increases. The presidents of 18 construction unions flatly rejected it last week.

The charge by President C. J. Haggerty of the AFL-CIO Construction and Building Trades Department linking the racial discrimination suit to the wage proposal reportedly prompted the White House to assign Wirtz to placate the labor chieftains.

President Johnson reportedly is worried about the possibility of losing much of his Democratic majority in Congress in this year's elections, and lack of political support from labor would increase the chance of big Democratic losses.

Man Wounded By Gunshot, Burned To Death In Home

The charred body of M. J. O'Brien, 48, fireman for the Texas & Pacific Railway Co., with a bullet wound in the head, was found by officers at 11:30 p.m. Sunday in the kitchen of his home southwest of town on the Lomax road.

Today officers recovered a pistol from the rubbish near the place where the body was found. Four shots had been fired from the pistol.

Jess Slaughter, justice of the peace, said that fire had so damaged the body that it was not possible to ascertain if there had been powder burns or other marks relative to the nearness of the gun which caused the wound. He said he was ruling death by gunshot and by burning.

HOUSING TENSION
The tragedy climaxed an hour of tension at the attractive brick residence, a short distance west of the old San Angelo Road. Officers said that a call came from the house asking for assistance around 10:30 p.m.

Sheriff Aubrey Standard, Chief Deputy Sheriff Lindy Oldfield, Deputy Sam Roberts, with Highway Patrolman Jack White, went to the scene. The family was no longer at the house and officers said that O'Brien was alone in the darkened building.

As they approached the house, he called out, warning them to "get off the property." One shot was fired from the inside of the house through the door. Some time later, a second shot was fired through the door. Throughout the episode, the officers did not fire a shot. All the shots fired were from the interior of the building.

Officers consulted with relatives, including O'Brien's father and his 16-year-old son. Efforts to get the man to talk failed, and he did not need requests to come out of the house.

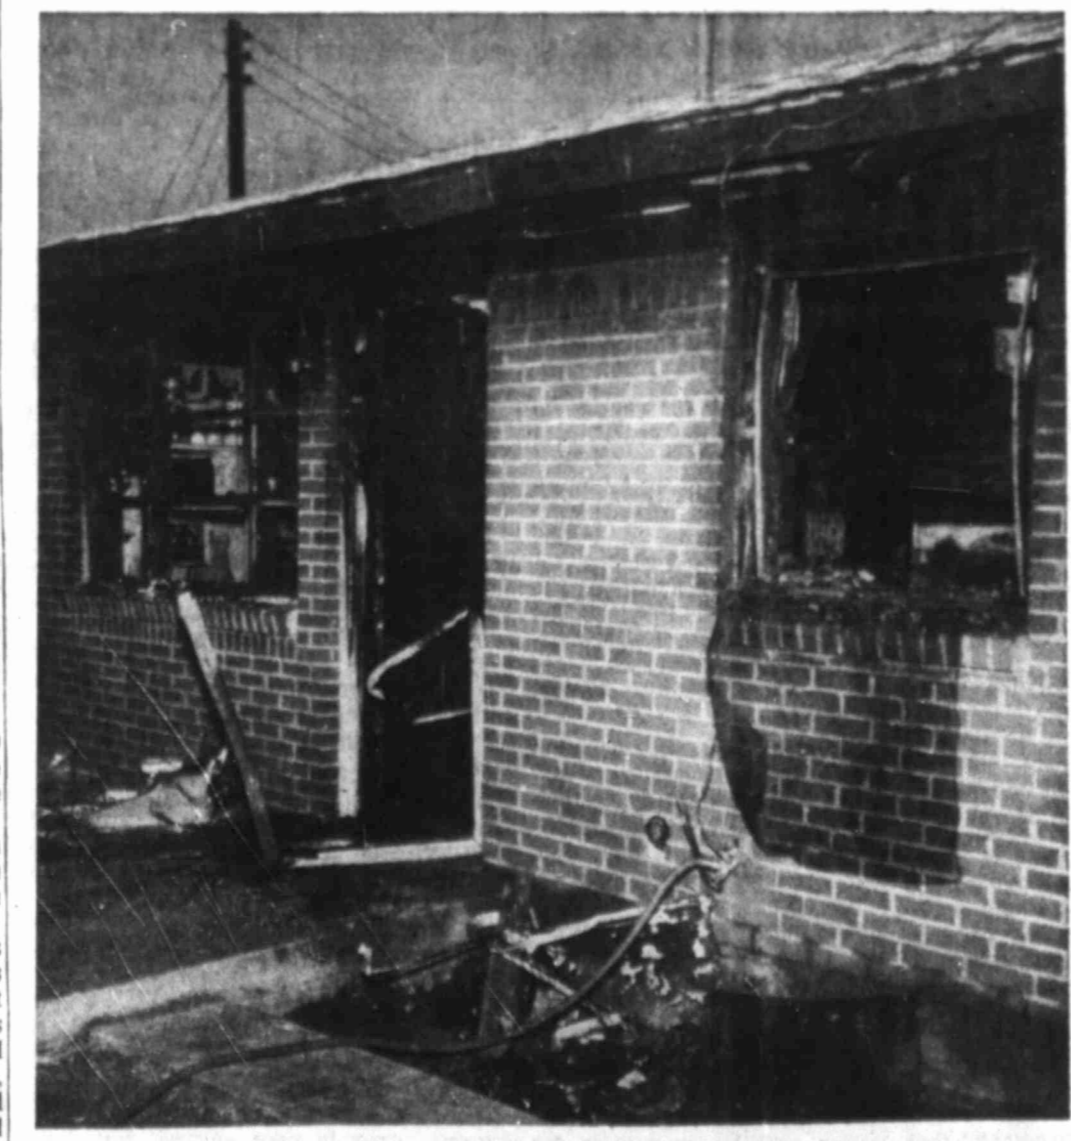

It was finally agreed by the family, officers said, that tear gas should be used. Meantime, a glow flared up in the kitchen of the house indicating a fire had broken out.

Two tear gas shells were tossed into the house.

Shortly afterward, officers said they heard a shot fired inside the house. The fire had spread rapidly in the kitchen area. The fire department had been summoned to put out the blaze.

Officers entered and found O'Brien in the area near the rear porch. All of that part of the house had been badly burned by the flames, which appeared to have been accelerated by use of some type of inflammable material.

Funeral will be held at 4 p.m. (See BURNS, Col. 1, P. 6-A.)

De Gaulle Pushes NATO Withdrawal

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle said today any foreign troop elements in France after April 4, 1969 will have to be under French command only. That is the date when members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization can choose to leave NATO.

In the first news conference of his second term in office, the French president declared NATO no longer is adapted to present-day needs. He said France intends to "progressively modify dispositions now in force."

TIME TO ADJUST
This was taken to mean that he would continue to withdraw French elements from NATO but in such a manner as to permit the 14 other NATO allies to adjust to it.

The United States now has about 20,000 troops in France, running supply and other bases. In addition, the French president's statement that foreign troops would have to come under French command threw into question the status of such big Allied installations as NATO headquarters near the Bois de Boulogne in Paris, and the rambling Versailles headquarters of Allied supreme headquarters of Allied powers in Europe.

"WILL OF FRANCE"
De Gaulle told nearly 1,000 newsmen and officials in Elysee Palace: "It is the will of France to dispose of her own fate."

He said this in connection with the announcement on French command of foreign troops on her soil after April 4, 1969.

He declared the United States has been in conflicts such as Korea, Cuba (sic) and Viet Nam, and that such conflicts could be escalated into general conflagration. He said France, of necessity, would be involved because her territory is used for communications facilities, air bases and other military installations.

De Gaulle declared the United States has established a protectorate in Europe under cover of NATO.

Cross Quoted: 'I Knew This Going To Happen'

AUSTIN (AP)—An Austin psychiatrist testified today that James C. Cross Jr. experienced daydreams of a "sadistic nature" prior to the slayings last July of two pretty University of Texas coeds.

Cross is on trial for murder in their deaths.

Dr. Richard J. Alexander said the "daydream or fantasy" was recurring and that Cross told him he would get "quite worked up."

Dr. Alexander quoted Cross as saying during an examination Aug. 22:

"I've sort of begun to know I was going to do something like this. . . I thought I could control it."

Alexander was summoned to the stand today as the third defense witness for Cross, who is accused of the July 18 sex and strangulation slayings of Dallas sister Susan Rigby and Shirley Ann Stark.

"I knew this thing was going to happen," Alexander quoted Cross as saying when the two campus beauties appeared at his apartment that hot Sunday afternoon in July.

The psychiatrist testified Cross told him "he wanted something to interfere" with him as he stood outside the bedroom and bathroom where the two women were showering and changing clothes. He indicated Cross meant he hoped someone would appear to prevent him from harming the young women.

Much of Alexander's testimony followed closely a written statement by Cross that he strangled the young women and hid their bodies in a bedroom closet.

The defense is pleading insanity.

A Devotional For The Day

For I, the Lord your God, hold your right hand; it is I who says to you, "Fear not, I will help you." (Isaiah 41:13, RSV)

PRAYER: Father, we thank Thee for Thy help in the past. We have clung to Thee through sorrows and sinning until we have found firm ground. Help us to put our trust in Thee, assured that Thou wilt always help us. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Whatever Happened To It?

Whatever happened to the proposal for a mental health center to serve several counties in this area?

Last we ever heard of this proposal was when a meeting was held with officials of Howard and a few surrounding counties and members of the Chamber of Commerce committee interested in the project. There was to be a follow up contact for an expression from other counties as well as our own.

Perhaps these were made, but we have heard no report from them.

The mental health clinic has a great deal of merit. It could serve to take a lot of people from going to the state hospital and could be of tremendous help to those who have been dismissed after treatment and who are seeking to work their way back to a productive place in society.

Expense of the operation should not be prohibitive, what with guidelines laid down by the state, which will assist in establishment and operation. Apparently, an area setup is the only way one could be qualified under standards laid down for the centers. It is going to take some leadership to push aggressively for the project, and we suspect that the leadership will have to come from here.

Good Idea But Needs Refining

The basic idea of an annual fee system for national parks and other federal recreation areas was a good one. It is still a good idea, though in its first season of operation the system brought in far less revenue than had been estimated.

Total collections amounted to only about $7 million, less than one-fifth of the sum expected from this source. That was a substantial blow to the land and water fund, authorized by Congress last year, which is being used to create outdoor recreation areas.

There are various reasons for the relatively small "take." One is that the program got started late. Another is that there has been widespread misunderstanding of the system, which permits entry into any of several thousand recreation areas with purchase of a sticker for $7. Though Secretary of the Interior Udall is right in describing this as "the biggest recreation bargain ever offered," many did not accept that view. There also were abuses of the system, and flaws that allowed one sticker to be used by several persons at different times. Abuses cannot be halted entirely. Changes now planned will help, however. Instead of offering stickers, the government will now provide—for the same fee of $7—an entrance permit which must be signed by the purchaser. There also will be one-day and 30-day permits for those who do not want the blanket permit. But the latter will be the real bargain, allowing the purchaser to enter recreation areas whether or not he is in his own automobile, and even when riding a commercial bus.

The chances seem good that the revised system will bring in far more revenue this year, perhaps as much as the $35 million originally estimated. That will be a fine boost for the land and water fund, by which the entire public will benefit.

David Lawrence Unusual Day In Life Of Capital

WASHINGTON—With all that is going on in the national capital these days, it is noteworthy that the President, the speaker of the house and prominent members of all branches of the government sat down together for an hour and a half at a prayer breakfast on Thursday to ask God's help in meeting the challenges of the time.

IT IS NOT OFTEN that the leaders in government sit down with 1,000 other persons to engage in prayer. This annual event is an outgrowth of the prayer-breakfast movement that started more than 20 years ago with weekly meetings of members of the House and the Senate respectively. These now are paralleled by prayer breakfasts held regularly throughout the year by governors and mayors in many parts of the United States. Unquestionably, the seriousness of the world situation was in the minds of everyone present at the presidential breakfast. There is a growing realization throughout the world that peace treaties themselves do not always bring peoples together but often perpetuate resentments for decades afterwards.

THE EMPHASIS, therefore, at the prayer breakfast was on the need for manifestations of human love and fellowship in every country, people, irrespective of religious sect or race or nationality, feel a common obligation to be more and more concerned about human welfare.

Government itself cannot, of course, recognize any established religion, but there is no barrier to the gathering of members of the government in private meetings to pray for divine guidance. While many public functions begin with a brief prayer, the breakfast groups themselves are devoted entirely to the spiritual lesson. They are attended by many persons in the federal, state and city governments as well as by groups of men from the ranks of business and labor and other fields. Incidentally, the prayer-breakfast groups are non-sectarian and are not conducted by clergymen but led by laymen.

THE PURPOSE of these meetings is to accentuate the spiritual side of life. The hope is that individuals who are in positions of leadership not only will be able to perform their own duties in obedience to conscience but will be inspired to find ways and means of solving the national and international disputes that affect the American people today. The annual presidential prayer breakfasts began during the administration of President Eisenhower and were attended subsequently by President Kennedy. This week's meeting was presided over by Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas. The invocation was pronounced by Lt. Gen. M. H. Silverthorn, USMC, Retired. Portions of the Old Testament were read by Associate Justice Tom Clark of the Supreme Court of the United States, while parts of the New Testament were read by Henry C. Fowler, secretary of the treasury. There were brief comments by Rep. Albert H. Quie of Minnesota, who spoke for the breakfast group of the House of Representatives, and by Sen. John Stennis of Mississippi, who represented the breakfast group of the Senate.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON in his brief remarks talked about the spiritual strength of our nation and the importance of prayer. He said that in these troubled times he is sustained daily not only by his own prayers but by those of "hundreds of other Americans who daily take the time." Dr. Richard C. Halverson delivered a prayer for national leaders, and then Dr. Billy Graham made the principal address, as he contrasted the spiritual with the material things of life. Benediction was given by Dr. Abraham Vereide, who founded the prayer-breakfast movement.

IN ANOTHER room at the Shoreham Hotel, where the presidential breakfast was held, were the wives of members of congress and of government officials attending a similar meeting. President Johnson and Dr. Graham later attended this session, too, and delivered the same addresses. Altogether, it was a rather unusual day in the life of the national capital.

Western Set

ROME (AP)—Clint Eastwood and Gian Maria Volonte will star in a new Italian-made Western movie titled "Per Qualche Dollaro in Più"—(For A Few Dollars More). Producer is Alberto Grimaldi and director is Sergio Leone.

Part of the filming will be at a mock-up Western set at Rome's Cinecittà and the rest at a mock Western village built in Spain.

James Marlow Storm Brewing In House Over Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House is brewing up some trouble for the administration's foreign policy.

The developing tempest is over a matter that has been continuing irritation to Republicans and Democrats alike. The issue is continued trade with North Viet Nam by foreign nations friendly to the United States. While the administration claims this trade has slowed down in recent months and has taken some steps to curb it, many members of Congress want an outright ban.

SEVERAL BILLS have been introduced to close U.S. ports to ships which carry cargoes to North Viet Nam. Cargoes loaded in American ports generally are not of military value and are unloaded in ports of friendly nations. However, proponents of the legislation claim, the ships involved visit American ports after having unloaded other cargoes in North Viet Nam.

Rep. Charles E. Chamberlain, R-Mich., who has waged a long campaign against the practice, claims that 401 ships flying flags of non-Communist nations arrived in North Viet Nam in 1964. In 1965, Chamberlain said, the number dropped to 119.

Chamberlain got his figures from the Defense Department and they deal only with unclassified information. "THE TRUE figure is more than double what we are being told," he said, "and it amounts to more arrivals by free world ships than by Communist ships."

Most of the ships, he said, are chartered to Communist nations and carry Communist goods which the Defense Department claims are not vital to North Viet Nam's war effort. But, he emphasized, they release Communist ships to carry war material.

More than half the non-Communist ships that visited North Viet Nam ports in 1965, Chamberlain said, were registered under the flag of the United Kingdom.

SPONSORS OF the bills to close U.S. ports to ships trading with North Viet Nam aren't too optimistic about winning their fight in that field. But they have another plan which they believe will work.

They are going to offer amendments to the annual foreign aid and Defense Department appropriation bills to cut off U.S. financial assistance to any nation that allows its ships to continue the trade.

They almost succeeded with that move last year when the House approved an outright ban against aid to those nations. The Senate refused to go along with a strict ban and voted to allow the President to decide whether continued aid was in the best interests of the United States. The House backed down by a vote of 174 to 164, a margin slim enough to be overcome in a congressional election year like 1966.

Who says Americans are uncultured? We now have 1,401 symphony orchestras—and what nation can boast more?

High heels weren't invented to please modern fashion-conscious dolls. They were developed long ago by the Persians to keep their feet off the hot desert sands.

DO YOU complain about your doctor's fees? The American Medical Association claims that in the last 20 years physicians' charges have gone up only 113 per cent, but the pay of factory workers has increased 150 per cent.

Getting there first sometimes makes all the difference. On Feb. 14, 1974, Alexander Graham Bell filed an application for a patent on the telephone. We all remember him. Surely you remember Elisha Gray, too. No? Well, Gray was the fellow who applied for a telephone patent just two hours after Bell did.

Even if the problems of cancer and hardening of the arteries are solved, scientists doubt that the average life span of man can be extended much beyond 80 years.

NICKETTES WERE first popularized in Britain in 1669 by King Charles II, whose father was beheaded 11 years earlier for far lesser crimes. It looks like the English executed the wrong monarch.

If a man makes a stupid mistake, men say, "What a fool that fellow is." But if a woman makes a mistake, men say, "What fools women are!" King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain spent $14,000 to equip Christopher Columbus for his discovery of the New World. It will cost the United States more than $20 billion to put its first astronauts on the moon.

To Your Good Health Parent-Teacher Group Sponsors Vaccine Program

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: Your article on measles helped our Parent-Teacher Association establish a program for vaccine for our children.

I believe measles can be wiped out in a matter of five years if the public will get aroused as it did about polio. Our county health officer said his organization couldn't sponsor the vaccinations, but gave the P-TA permission to go ahead if we could get funds to finance them.

We lined up doctors to give the shots and a pharmaceutical laboratory helped us get the vaccine.

We are a little school in a very poor area, but if other communities knew what we are doing, maybe they would establish a program to save children from death, blindness, deafness or other troubles from this so-called "harmless" disease. If you have more information concerning measles, I would appreciate hearing about it.—MRS. F. G.

I feel reasonably hopeful that the time will come when all children will have measles vaccination as babies and won't have to wait for P-TA or other groups to organize a program like this. However, measles vaccine hadn't been developed when most of today's school children were babies.

The ideal way for vaccine to be given is by the pediatrician or the family doctor, as part of the process of bringing up a healthy child. But measles vaccine is still quite new, and more power to P-TA groups that catch up with the situation. The important thing is that children get the advantages of what modern science has created—in this instance protection against measles.

For measles, a very common disease in childhood, may not do much harm most of the time but some of the time it kills children, and more often than that it damages eyes, heart or other organs. It kills or cripples as many children, and probably more, than polio ever did.

If P-TA groups can increase measles protection, with the help of cooperative doctors and pharmaceutical firms, more power to all of them. A few years from now, measles protection will be as routine for babies as smallpox, whooping cough and diphtheria inoculations. Right now there's some catching-up to do.

Dear Dr. Molner: I would

Around The Rim The Bungling Crooks

One thing and another:

The light-fingered gentry was busier than usual last year. In Norfolk, Va., someone made off with the entire front porch of a house.

Not all the crooks have that delicate touch, however. A gang of three hoodlums went to work in San Pablo, Calif., one night. One of them set off the burglar alarm, another fell off a store roof and the third got stuck in the ventilator shaft.

The most unlikely theft during the year probably was that of a new lawn at a home in Whittier, Calif. And neighbors watched while the heist was taking place. They reasoned the men were working for the owner.

IN THE STATE of Massachusetts, you run the risk of getting arrested if you eat peanuts in church or use tomatoes in clam chowder.

In San Francisco you can sell beer by the glass but not milk (or so the law reads). In Waterloo, Neb., an ordinance says that barbers cannot eat onions between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. Those laws, which are still on the books, show that solons often have more time on their hands than they know what to do with.

THE OTHER DAY, my six-year-old approached me after her sister had missed a half day of schooling, to ask:

"Did I learn more at school today than Carol?"

"You sure did," I replied, hoping to emphasize the fact that it is always important to attend classes where possible. "What did you learn?"

"I don't remember," No. Two retorted, rather lamely.

THEY TELL ME that one of the major political parties are working on a Birch control pill which they hope to have perfected before the next presidential election comes around.

Holmes Alexander Food As A World System

WASHINGTON—Never ask a farmer, or a bleeding-heart humanitarian. Their viewpoints on the world food crisis are too parochial and prejudiced to fetch useful advice. Rather, send for a general economist who sees the problem steadily and sees it whole.

This has been the wise procedure of the House Agriculture Committee, headed by Rep. Harold Cooley (D., N. C.). Instead of being stamped by the President's sloganized call for "A War on Hunger," or by their own interests in a government-subsidized crash production of more crops, the salons of the Agriculture Committee brought in some witnesses who were unexcited by motives of profit or philanthropy.

THE BEST WITNESS to date has been a youngish, level-headed anti-expert from MIT, Dr. Max Millikan, a Californian, who immediately disqualified himself as being anything except a generalist in the field of economic growth. He and some colleagues at MIT's Center for International Studies had become convinced, he said, that the underdeveloped countries of Latin America, Africa and Asia were never going to turn fat, happy and non-Communist on donated food alone. If these underdeveloped peoples are going to make it, they'd need "parallel development efforts in both agriculture and industry."

MAX MILLIKAN, you might say, was backing into his subject. Food For Peace sounded all right, and U.S. farm surpluses might help out in special cases of famine and war, but giveaway victuals, said Millikan, "will soon be totally inadequate to meet the requirement." The struggling nations must raise their own production, as well as their own industrial plants, or else perish in the mob scenes of over-population.

MILLIKAN, repeatedly reminding the committee that he was no specialist told what happens when specialists are consulted. He and his colleagues had interviewed a large number of experts in agricultural productivity. Each expert was the exponent of his own specialty. The plant biologist declared that certain kinds of plants were the answer to world nutrition. The fertilizer chemist said that abundance could be produced by soaking the earth with stimulants. Water engineers proclaimed that nothing was impossible to well-managed irrigation. Crop-dusters felt that people would have plenty to eat if only the insects and rodents were exterminated from our planet. Then there were the social planners with plans to raise the income of farmers all over the world, to eliminate the landlord and the loan shark, to exorcise the ancient superstitions and grandfather practices.

AFTER LISTENING to all these specialists pleading for their specialties, Millikan concluded that none was right in the singular, but all were right in the plural. There is no "simple" solution to the world food problem, he told the committee. Agriculture is a "systems problem." All the elements—all of the factors named above—must be considered if the system is to function properly.

Well, Dr. Millikan had said quite a mouthful. It would be a while before his whole presentation would sink into the minds of the House Committee, let alone into the collective intellect of the Congress and into the crowded brain cells on location at the White House.

BUT YOU COULD tell from the questions of the committee members that some trains of thought had been started. If we hold off from jumping at some "simple" solution—if we think of food for the world as a "systems" problem instead of a crusade—that will be a good start.

Sam Dawson Higher Returns On Savings Bonds

NEW YORK (AP)—For millions of Americans, the big news is that they'll be getting higher return on their $49 billion worth of U.S. Savings Bonds.

THE YIELD is being pushed a step closer to what some other forms of savings pay. And on the $41.5 billion of E bonds the income can be deferred for tax purposes, an asset that most other forms of savings can't offer.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS have been waging a battle to attract more of the savers' dollars. The weapons were the raising of interest payments and some offerings of new types of savings.

While the yield of U.S. Savings Bonds held at 3.75 per cent, the banks and other financial institutions had little competition from that quarter.

BANKERS ARE wondering now if the boost to a 4.15 per cent yield on savings bonds will spark still higher interest payments on money left with civilian institutions.

The Treasury itself is paying up to 5 per cent on some of its securities, the marketable ones sold in large combinations, usually to financial institutions or corporations.

COMMERCIAL BANKS are forbidden to pay more than 4 per cent on ordinary savings accounts, readily withdrawable. But the rise in Savings Bonds rates may put pressure behind a drive to get the interest ceiling lifted.

And some of the larger commercial banks have been getting around the 4 per cent limit by offering a new type of investment—a savings certificate, applying to large deposits which can't be withdrawn for a fixed period. Interest payments on these new certificates vary across the land, but in a few cases have risen as high as 5 per cent.

MUTUAL SAVINGS banks, under different rules than the commercial banks, have mostly raised their dividend payments on money invested with them to 4.5 per cent.

SAVINGS AND loan associations also have been raising dividend payments—comparable to the interest paid on commercial bank time deposits—in recent months as the fight to get more funds intensified. Many, especially on the West Coast, now pay 4.85 per cent. A few have conditions under which the yield comes to 5 per cent.

Not since the 1920s have savers been able to get such returns.

Given Push

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (AP)—When a hydroelectric dam was built below an area of geysers and steam vents on New Zealand's Waikato River, some of the thermal activity was drowned beneath the dammed-up river waters.

Now three new geysers have sprung into life on the river banks above the higher water level. One of them plays regularly for about eight minutes to a height of some 70 feet.

Isn't Easy

BEIRUT (AP)—Drivers in Lebanon, where the streets resemble a race track gone berserk, don't accept traffic tickets lightly.

The latest victim of traffic temper, according to newspaper reports, was a policeman in the northern city of Tripoli who was rushed to a hospital with head injuries and a broken jaw after he tried to issue a ticket.

The newspapers said the policeman stopped a car driving the wrong way on a one-way street and pulled out his ticket book, when the car door opened. The driver and three or four passengers jumped out and beat him unconscious.

Sitting in the back seat, the papers charged, was a member of Parliament, who watched the beating "with apparent approval."

A military court began an investigation of the case.

Officials Plan Fund For Litigation Expenses

The "Shiflet Suit," between the city and Shiflet Brothers, has progressed to a point where city officials feel the need for litigation funds.

Larry Crow, city manager, will recommend to city commissioners Tuesday night a reserve fund of $50,000 for contingencies, litigation (and possible judgments if the city loses the case) out of the Water and Sewer Revenue Fund.

EXPENSES
"It is my suggestion that from present funds a contingency fund in the amount of $25,000 be established for the purpose of paying litigation and other expenses," Crow said. "I am also of the opinion that an additional $25,000 should be allocated in the 1966-67 budget and be added to this (suggested) fund and a like amount the following year, if the situation seems to warrant such action."

The suit involves the city sewage treatment plant. John Burgess, city attorney, returned Saturday from Abilene where he took a number of depositions relating to the suit, which he said may start in June.

Crow said a large portion of the state hospital water suit expense should have been charged to the water and sewer fund; and added that the Slaughter suit (concerning a house the city condemned and tore down) and the Lee Cotton suit (also a condemnation suit) could possibly result in a judgment against the city.

"I realize that this may seem to be an excessive amount," Crow said, "particularly if the fund builds to $75,000; however, a judgment against the city in the Shiflet suit alone could possibly be disastrous if all or a portion of the funds were not available to meet this expense."

PLUMBING CODE

Crow will also propose a committee of several local plumbers to study a model city plumbing ordinance and report their findings to the commissioners with a view to adopting a similar one.

"It would be appropriate to have a revision of our present ordinance or the adoption of a new one as ours is of ancient vintage and in many cases not applicable to modern situations," Crow said.

Crow said this morning that the schools and the city have in all probability reached agreement on the Lakeview Park Campus project, and indicated that the matter would probably be settled completely at the Tuesday night meeting.

WATER DISTRICT

There will also be a report on the requested new water district by a group of north-of-Big Spring residents who want to form a water district. A report on the extension of the city's extraterritorial jurisdiction was requested at the last commission meeting.

Chon Marquez will request a permit for on-premises consumption of beer for "Marquez Place," 401 NW 4th, at a public hearing. Marquez applied for such a permit Aug. 25, 1965, and was turned down because Jay Banks, police chief, recommended against the permit. Banks indicated nothing has happened to change his disapproval of such a permit.

NO PARKING

An ordinance formalizing the extension for 90 days of the no-parking-meter program will be approved. The extension was granted at the last commission meeting.

Second readings of ordinances changing zoning will be held. Property of E. L. Jenkins, on the north edge of Marcy Drive at Muleshoe Lane, is being changed from "one family" to "neighborhood service"; and property of Hull & Phillips on Northwest Seventh near North Lancaster, which is being changed from "general residence" to "commercial."

Mrs. Parker, Teacher, Dies Sunday

Mrs. W. E. (Sarah M.) Parker, 55, former teacher in the Big Spring Schools, died Sunday at 7:50 p.m. in a local hospital.

Services will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the Nailey - Pickle Rosewood Chapel, with the Rev. E. A. J. Seddon Jr., St. Paul Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park.

Mrs. Parker was born July 19, 1910, at Eddy and moved to Big Spring in 1934. She received her bachelor of science degree from Howard Payne College, Brownwood, and her master's degree from Texas Technological College, Lubbock.

A member of the First Presbyterian Church, she had taught in the Big Spring public schools since 1934, teaching fifth grade in the Old West Ward School (now Cedar Crest). She had taught until Christmas, 1965, and had been in failing health ever since.

She leaves her husband, W. E. Parker, Big Spring; one stepson, Frank Parker, Big Spring; one step-daughter, Mrs. Dee Tidwell, Pecos; her mother, Mrs. C. D. McClendon, Wichita Falls; three sisters, Mrs. James Engstrom, and Mrs. V. P. Arrington, Wichita Falls, and Mrs. John Colehour, Fort Worth; four brothers, Rev. Jack McClendon, San Antonio, Bob L. McClendon, Fort Worth, Duncan McClendon, Wichita, Kan., William McClendon, Stanford, Conn.; also five step-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Earl Penner, Hubert Rutherford, Roy Anderson, Rex Kelley, Bill Polk and V. L. Perkins.

Forces In Joint Raid Against Reds

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. cavalry troopers and B52 bombers teamed up today in tear gas and bombing attacks on the suspected hiding place of a hard-core Communist regiment on South Viet Nam's central coast. A U.S. Navy destroyer poured shells into potential havens along the shore.

The massive nontoxic gas, air and naval attacks hit areas where U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division troops, U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese forces are tracking down several regiments of well-trained enemy troops.

With the Marines and South Vietnamese pressing an enemy force of between 900 and 1,000 in the Phuoc Valley about 300 miles to the south near Bong Son.

The cavalrymen launched the attack by spraying the area with tear gas from helicopters.

Then the superbombers flying from Guam saturation-bombed the target area.

After the air attack, troops of the cavalry division's 5th Regiment donned gas masks and flew into the target aboard helicopters. Their mission: assess damage done by the B52s and wipe out any Viet Cong survivors. But dusk prevented any survey.

Bid Tabulation Slated On Howard Road Job

AUSTIN (AP)—The Highway Department will tabulate low bids Wednesday and Thursday for 57 jobs.

One will be a 1.7-mile approach embankment to carry traffic over Toledo Bend Reservoir on the Sabine River.

The project also calls for relocation of Texas 21, which will be submerged when water is impounded in the lake next year.

Other projects include a freeway interchange linking Interstate 635 with the North Dallas tollway and safest areas on Interstate 20 in Howard and Mitchell counties and on Interstate 35 in McLennan and Bell counties.

The letting includes 1,023 miles of road work, estimated to cost $23.3 million.

Meet Tuesday

The newly-organized Howard County Rehabilitation Center Volunteer Auxiliary will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the center for an orientation meeting.

Jim Thompson, physical therapist, said that anyone interested in becoming a volunteer who was unable to attend last Thursday's session is invited to attend the Tuesday night meeting.

Adm. Nimitz Dead At 80, War II Fleet Commander

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The late James V. Forrestal, while secretary of the Navy, once asked his chief of naval operations whether an officer convicted by a court-martial ever had risen to flag rank.

"You're looking at one," replied Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, who commanded the most powerful fleet in history during World War II.

As a young officer, the soft-spoken Texan had indeed been found guilty and reprimanded by a Navy court — for running a destroyer aground in Manila Bay.

LAST 5-STAR
The admiral, who died Sunday at 80, commanded a thousand ships and two million men during the battles leading to the surrender of Japan. He was the last of the five-star admirals.

Despite holding awesome power, the admiral disliked pomp. On his 75th birthday the Navy staged a big party for him and he remarked:

"Am I looking forward to this? I'm looking forward to the end of it. I feel the same about it as the man who bought himself a small boat: His two happiest days were when he bought it and when he sold it."

FIRST VOYAGE
The admiral's first experience with a small boat was not pleasant. Born in a landlocked town, he never had seen an ocean until he arrived at Annapolis and became seasick on his first voyage — in a small boat there.

Nimitz, whose career at sea spanned two world wars and the birth of the atomic age, died of what a Navy spokesman called "complications following a stroke" suffered Jan. 3.

With him at his home on Yerba Buena Island Naval Base in San Francisco Bay were his wife, Catherine, one of his daughters and a grandson.

Burial will be Thursday in Golden Gate National Cemetery just south of San Francisco.

In Washington, President Johnson paid tribute to Nimitz as a man of "quiet courage and resolute leadership." The President said Nimitz had earned "the undying gratitude of his countrymen and an enduring chapter in the annals of naval history."

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower

Haralson's Post Will Be Filled

Election of one school board member to fill the unexpired term of C. J. Haralson, who resigned recently, will highlight the Tuesday night meeting of the Big Spring Board of Education. The meeting will be held in the board room at 7:30 p.m.

Also on the agenda is the discussion of a contract with delinquent tax attorney, John Burgess, and a request for approval to order school buses for the 1966-67 school year.

Fiscal agent Carter Johnston will be present to discuss the sale of bonds and the business office will present cost estimates for grass areas around several of the schools.

Pastor Collapses During Sermon

KERMIT, Tex. (AP) — The Rev. Charles Hamilton Jr., 52, pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, Little Rock, Ark., collapsed and died of an apparent heart attack Sunday morning while preaching a trial sermon at the Kermit Community Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Mr. Hamilton had been visiting in Kermit for two days prior to his death.

Four File For Three Seats

LAMESA (SC)—Filing for reelection to the city council in the forthcoming city election, set for April 5, are Douglas B. Black, Place 1; Guy Weekes, Place 2; and Charles King and Wendell Strahan, Place 3. Councilmen whose terms do not expire are Jake Lippard and Lloyd Cline.

J. P. White has been named election judge. The voting will take place at City Hall.

School Board Wins, Youths Get Haircuts

DALLAS (AP)—The Carrollton - Farmers Branch School Board won a clear-cut decision in the case of the shaggy haircuts today.

Duane Medlin, 14, and Terry Richardson, 15, two of the six youths who headed opposition to the board's no haircut—no school ruling, both capitulated with trips to the barber over the weekend.

They were the last of the six to fall.

The aftermath of the case, however, is still lingering, and some of those affected have indicated the board may have won a battle and lost a war.

"I just don't see how we can do anything more at this time," said Chester Medlin, father of one of the boys who backed his son's position and even talked to lawyers and the American Civil Liberties Union.

"I still feel the board acted in an improper manner — infringing on personal liberties," he said.

Young Medlin and Richardson were two of six youths who appealed to the Carrollton-Farmers Branch School Board Feb. 14 after being sent home from school for failure to comply with a board ruling concerning haircuts. The six also included George Boston, 15, Bob Seay, 16, Rick Webb, 13, and Bobby Tucker, 16.

Quannah Fund Gains $210

The Quannah Ingram Benefit Fund is some $210 richer following the Saturday night American Legion sponsored dance at the Legion Home, and unreported workers could add to this total, according to Tim Jones, who distributed the tickets.

At the dance there was standing room only and the music of the Legion's amateur band, The Scramblers, was enthusiastically received.

Meanwhile, the condition of 2½-year-old Quannah, who is recovering from a delicate brain operation, continues to improve and much hope is held for the ultimate success of the operation that was performed in Philadelphia. Friends started the fund to make the operation possible for little Quannah when expenses distressed her family.

Donations are still being accepted by Bill Reed, Coahoma banker. There is still a need for about a thousand dollars to reach the needed $3,500.

Family Leaving For N. Africa

A Big Spring family will leave for North Africa Wednesday on an assignment with the American Overseas Petroleum Limited Corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Simmons and family, 509 E. 13th St., will depart for Tripoli, Libya, as part of the firm's program abroad.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Simmons are native West Texans and graduated from Big Spring High School in 1944. Simmons is a 1951 graduate of Texas Western College in El Paso. For several years he has been a geologist with several petroleum corporations, and his work has extended from Midland to Oklahoma City and Wichita, Kan.

Simmons has been on temporary assignment in the Netherlands for the past six months.

OIL REPORT

Project Tests Three Sections

Two wildcats and one other location have been spotted in Sterling County. The Clear Fork, Wichita Albany and the Wolfcamp formations will be tested by the Sun Oil Co. wildcat No. 1 Mildred A. Cole 12.5 miles south of Sterling City in an old, plugged and abandoned hole. It spots 664 feet from the north line and 610 feet from the east line of section 13-3-76, H&TC survey, and will drill to 5,500 feet. Old total depth was 7,804 feet, and it was plugged and abandoned in 1955 by J. Ray McDermott. It is seven miles west of the multipay Water Valley field. Gulf Oil Corp.'s wildcat, No. 2-U Davis, will drill to 9,500 feet five miles northeast of Sterling City. It spots 1,980 feet from the east line and 1,910 feet from the south line of section 25-4-2 H&TC survey. The location is south of the No. 1-U Davis. Testing site is 2 1/2 miles southwest of the Jameson, Southwest (Strawn) pool. H&M Operators' No. 1 Worth Durham will drill to 1,800 feet on rotary tools two miles southwest of Sterling City. It spots 330 feet from the north and west line of section 12-T, SPRR survey, a quarter mile southeast outpost to the Durham, York and Harper field. Texaco wildcat No. 1-G Glasscock-Fee has been completed in the Spraberry Trend area, pumping initially 119 barrels of 36-gravity oil per day, 14 per cent water, a gas-oil ratio of 1,062-1, from perforations between 8,173-826 feet after operation acidized with 2,700 gallons and fractured with 70,000 gallons. Total depth is 8,900 feet with a 4 1/2-inch casing set at 8,899 feet. Location is 660 feet from the south line and 1,980 feet from the east line of section 3-36-4s, T&P survey, 13 miles west of Garden City.

Troops Tie For Honors

Team 3 from Troop 4, and Team 4 from Troop 7 tied for the highest score in the Lone Star District Boy Scout First Aid Contest here Friday evening. The meet, directed by Paul Soldan, chairman of health and safety, resulted in eight blue ribbons, 12 red ribbons and seven yellow ones. Eight troops, with 27 teams, participated in the annual meet held at Runnels Junior High gymnasium. Troop 4 earned two blue and one red ribbon; Troop 5 earned two red and one yellow; Troop 7 earned three blues, one red, and one yellow; Troop 16 earned one red and one yellow; Troop 136 earned one blue, one red, two yellow; Troop 179 earned two red, one yellow; Troop 216 earned one blue two red, one yellow.

Snow Falls In Panhandle

Light snow fell in the Panhandle and South Plains today behind a cold front that brought temperatures down to 22 degrees at Amarillo and Dalhart. Children, in the southeast corner of the Panhandle, reported an inch of snow by dawn. The cold front then had reached a line from Dallas to San Angelo to Fort Stockton and was moving southward. The weather bureau predicted the snow would spread a little farther southward over the South Plains and the country east of the Pecos and eastward along the Red River during the day. Light rain was expected farther south.

About 100 At Annual Banquet

Approximately 100 cub scouts, parents, and friends attended the Blue and Gold Banquet of Pack 1. Awards went to Ronald Jacobs, bobcat; Timmy Spiny and Jeff Owens, bear; Benny Birkshire, and Leslie Carpenter, silver arrow; Robert Jorden and David Jacobs, gold arrow. Awards in the Pinewood Derby were, boys design, Randy Clabaugh, Timmy Cain and Tim Watts; fastest derby, Randy Clabaugh, Leslie Carpenter and Tim Watts; boys slowest derby, Joseph Mattis.

Will Go To Mexico

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Civic Opera will take its production of "La Traviata" and "Don Giovanni" to Mexico City this fall for the International Opera season.

H&M Operators' No. 1 Worth Durham will drill to 1,800 feet on rotary tools two miles southwest of Sterling City. It spots 330 feet from the north and west line of section 12-T, SPRR survey, a quarter mile southeast outpost to the Durham, York and Harper field. Texaco wildcat No. 1-G Glasscock-Fee has been completed in the Spraberry Trend area, pumping initially 119 barrels of 36-gravity oil per day, 14 per cent water, a gas-oil ratio of 1,062-1, from perforations between 8,173-826 feet after operation acidized with 2,700 gallons and fractured with 70,000 gallons. Total depth is 8,900 feet with a 4 1/2-inch casing set at 8,899 feet. Location is 660 feet from the south line and 1,980 feet from the east line of section 3-36-4s, T&P survey, 13 miles west of Garden City.

BORDEN
Huber No. 1 Porter flowed 157 barrels of oil on a 24-64ths-inch choke with a tubing pressure of 300 pounds, and operator is testing. Location is 660 feet from the north line and 1,980 feet from the east line of section 14-23-76, T&P survey, five miles southwest of Garden City.

GLASSCOCK
Texaco No. 1-4 Glasscock-Fee is at a total depth of 8,900 feet, and is producing 119 barrels of 36-gravity oil per day, 14 per cent water, and is still swabbing. Location is 660 feet from the north line and 1,980 feet from the east line of section 3-36-4s, T&P survey, 13 miles southwest of Garden City. Houston is drilling below 8,899 feet. Location is 660 feet from the north and east lines of section 1-36-2s, T&P survey, 19 miles northwest of Garden City.

STERLING
Gulf wildcat No. 1-U Davis' operator is testing with no gauges. Location is 1,980 feet from the north line and 1,910 feet from the east line of section 25-4-2 H&TC survey, five miles northeast of Sterling City.

Improvements In New Budget

The 1966-67 Big Spring city budget will have to allow for completion of the Downtown Improvement program on Main between Second and Third Streets, Larry Crow, city manager, said today. "The parking lot improvement money came out of the current budget," Crow said. "On this year's budget, we intend to cover the city's costs on the improvement program — part of the added costs we're going to have. Since the downtown merchants want the improvements, the city is obligated to make the changes." Crow said there are a number of other contingencies which will have to be met in the upcoming budget.

Sheriff's Pay Plan Is Rejected Today

Sheriff Aubrey Standard's proposal—that he operate his office with one less deputy and use the money that deputy would have drawn to raise the salaries of his other workers—was rejected by the county commissioners today. Sheriff Standard had told the court that he had a vacancy on his staff caused by the resignation of one of his men. He said his staff had agreed to work extra hours to carry on operation if the annual salary to be paid to the extra deputy was allotted to them in a small pay hike. The commissioners pondered the plan a week before suggesting to the sheriff that he "leave things as they are."

Standard told the commissioners he was sorry he felt the plan was not workable. He pointed out he felt it would be of great help to him and improve the efficiency and morale of his office. He observed that the people of the county had elected him to the office and that he felt this showed that "the public had confidence in me and believe that I was capable of properly running the office." He added that this plan was one he offered to improve his office operations. He also warned that as long as salaries are left as low as they are for deputies, he would be losing good men to the counties around Howard which pay more for the same work.

Kennedy's View On Power For Viet Cong Draws Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Prime Minister Nguyen Cao Ky of South Viet Nam have assailed Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's view that the Viet Cong should be offered a share of power in the Saigon government. They said Kennedy's proposals that the United States express willingness to accept a coalition South Vietnamese government which would include Communists would not be an acceptable solution, would not lead to peace and — if adopted — could impose on the people of South Viet Nam the very forces trying to destroy them.

New Deputy

Mrs. John H. (Beth) Black, 4105 Dixon, has assumed her new duties as deputy in the auto tax office of Mrs. Zarah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector. Mrs. Black will replace Mrs. Jan Foresythe, who has taken a position with P. P. Kasch & Sons as a computer operator. Mrs. Black's husband is a teacher at Goliah Junior High School.

Cars Damaged, No Injuries

Two cars were damaged, but none of eight persons in the vehicles was injured in a collision at the Big Spring State Hospital entrance at 9 p.m. Sunday.

LBJ Sculptor Finds Facial Similarity To Abe Lincoln

NEW YORK (AP) — "I was struck with the extraordinary political and facial similarities of President Johnson and Abraham Lincoln," says Leo Cherne, who has just completed a bronze head of Johnson. The sculptured head, somewhat larger than life — 15 inches on a 7-inch black Belgian marble base — will be presented to Johnson in New York Wednesday night. The President will be given the sculpture as the recipient of the Freedom Award from Freedom House. Cherne, 53, a political economist, is director of the Research Institute of America, chairman of the International Rescue Committee, and Executive Committee chairman of Freedom House. But he still finds time to sculpt and quite well indeed. His works are in the White House and Smithsonian Institution. He estimates he spent seven months on the Johnson project. He took less than an hour each at three visits to the White House and said he felt guilty about it. "I was keenly aware that the President is an extremely busy man," Cherne said in an interview. "He is heavily burdened, and the weight of the office he carries is real and evident.

"With anyone else I would not hesitate to take up his time, but with President Johnson I definitely felt guilty," Cherne explained. At one point, Cherne recalled, the President said: "How long will this take? There is so much I must do." Cherne, who has sculpted heads of Russian author Boris Pasternak, Albert Schweitzer and Lincoln, said the Johnson assignment had come about after the President had accepted the Lincoln work at the White House. In his presentation to Johnson, Cherne said, he will tell the awards dinner: "I hope I have captured something of the weathered flesh and eyes narrowed in their protected encounter with the elements bright and bitter. Perhaps, you will find as I did in the deeply etched grooves of the face, the furrows in the brow some of the lifetime's imprint of care and concern, of hope and frustration, of disappointment contained, high purpose strengthened." Cherne said Johnson's left profile is "strikingly similar to the man he (Johnson) admired most — Franklin D. Roosevelt." Of the similarities to Lincoln, Cherne said: "The Johnson I tried to sculpt is the Johnson I see in the frame of Lincoln. Like Lincoln, I believe, Johnson is doomed to less than adequate understanding while in the White House."

Weather Forecast
Snow is predicted for Monday night from Nebraska to Illinois with flurries in northern New England and the northern Rockies. Cold air continues to move into the plains from Canada. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Bennett Brooke's Features Service

We welcome a new advertiser to our Business Review page—Bennett's Pharmacy, a new concept in pharmacy for the area.

Operated by Bennett Brooke, who has been in pharmacy in Big Spring for 13 years this month, Bennett's Pharmacy, located at 305 W. 16th, was opened last August.

Bennett's Pharmacy is a pharmacy, and a pharmacy only. There are no magazines, peanuts or cap pistols in the red building. It is a prescription pharmacy, one of the very few in the West Texas area.

All pharmaceuticals are available at Bennett's, and because it is not a "drugstore," prescriptions may be filled rapidly.

A big feature of the pharmacy is its drive-in window service. All you have to do is to have your doctor call in your prescription to Bennett. Then you merely drive down or up the rapid-transit Gregg Street to Sixteenth, turn off, and pull in the asphalt driveway up to the window. You can either wait in your car, or walk in. Either way, your prescription will be ready for use quickly.

If you want to come in and wait for your prescription to be filled, you can do it in comfort. Bennett keeps a small coffee bar with coffee ready at all times, and there are chairs and current magazines to keep you occupied while Bennett, a graduate of the College of Pharmacy of The University of Texas, fills your prescription.

There is convenient parking space, paved, front and rear, and it is ample.

The location is near-perfect. It is close to residential areas, and is off the fast traffic on Gregg, yet convenient to it, between Gregg and Lancaster.

Bennett's Pharmacy is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays, every week. The only employee is the owner, assuring fast, efficient service.

Aside from his profession of pharmacy, Bennett Brooke is a widely-known resident of the community. He is a member of the Big Spring Independent School District school board.

For fast professional pharmaceutical service, drive by Bennett's Pharmacy, or call at AM 3-1751, and make use of the convenient drive-in window service.

More than 18 years of experience stands behind the Charles Hood House Moving firm at 1610 E. 3rd in Big Spring. If a house can be moved, he can do it.

A resident of Big Spring and the Howard County area since 1938, Hood knows the city and the area, and if a house is to be moved out of the city he knows the best routes and will guarantee safe transportation.

He is insured and bonded and holds bonded permits from the Highway Department.

The owner of a house to be moved may get it ready, with underpinning cut and foundation cleared, or he may call Charles Hood to "start from scratch" to do the entire job.

Big trucks are available for any size moving job. Extra heavy houses, require two units for safe moving.

Hood is conscientious in his work and takes every precaution to prevent damaging a building in raising, transportation or setting on a new foundation. Proper bracing and anchoring is assured.

Qualified men are employed by Hood, and the house moving firm can be working on more than one job at the same time.

Distance makes no difference to Hood. He can move a house from Big Spring to Lamesa, Snyder, or other distant areas required. His highway permits allow long-distance moving.

If you have a house that needs moving—either to another location anywhere or to be relocated on the lot—call Charles Hood House Moving at AM 3-6221. The night phone is AM 3-4547.

Charles Hood Moves Houses

For more than 100 years, people who have thought about music have thought first of Wurlitzer, whose standards for materials, craftsmanship and product development have served as examples for the entire music industry.

Big Spring is offered this first-class quality at Doc Young Music Co., 910 E. 4th. Featured is the Wurlitzer Rental Plan, designed to determine the musical talent of an individual prior to making the purchase of a piano.

The piano rental plan was developed by Wurlitzer for families where no one plays. It is a simple and inexpensive program for testing one's musical aptitude without obligation to buy. The plan is available for only $10 per month, with free tuning and delivery included.

The customer receives credit for rental charges if he decides to purchase the instrument.

Students and professionals alike will appreciate the outstanding response and superior tonal quality of Wurlitzer instruments, according to Joe Lewallen, manager.

Wurlitzer is the world's largest builder of pianos and organs and the company produces more than 50 pianos in basic furniture styles. The pianos are also available in a variety of mahogany, cherry, walnut, maple and oak woods.

Outstandingly beautiful designs, employing a wide choice of fine woods, are continuously being developed by Wurlitzer to complement any decor, be it modern, contemporary, or traditional.

There is also a complete selection of Wurlitzer pianos, organs and solid state stereos at Doc Young Music Co., 910 E. 4th.

"Of all musical instruments, it is the piano which fulfills the greatest amount of musical needs in the school or home," Lewallen said. "In assemblies, programs, family get-togethers, concerts and recitals, the piano plays a leading part."

"We can't possibly sell all makes of pianos and organs," he declared, "so we just sell the one that most people ask for and buy—Wurlitzer."

Wagon Wheel Drive Ins Have Fine Food, Service

Looking for a way to feed the family without having a lot of dishwashing and bathing and dressing up to do before mealtime?

Three popular places are located in Big Spring, where you can drive in, order what you want, and eat it in the comfort of your car. Take a rest while you are eating a wholesome meal.

Wagon Wheel No. 3, out on US 80 west, has the best barbecue in town. The real pit-cooked pork sandwich, spare ribs, sausage, chicken and beef are mouth-watering. They also have service inside as well as curb service.

All you have to do is drive up and check the menus which include the largest, juiciest hamburgers you ever ate, along with the "side lines" which include pickles, French fries, and the drink of your choice.

Other foods include all kinds of sandwiches, as well as the Wagon Wheels' famous fried chicken, drinks, including coffee, and others made at the fountains.

Spring's Coming, Shop At White's

Don't look now, but just around the corner lies springtime, and soon afterwards, grass will spring up, flowers will bud out, and gardens will grow.

Growing things need care, and deserve the best possible equipment to care for them and make them beautiful.

Needed equipment can be bought at White's, 202-204 Scurry, and you don't have to go broke to purchase what you need.

If that old lawn mower is worn out, or you need a bigger one, it will pay to go by White's and take a look at the variety, from the small push type to the big riding mowers which get over ground in a hurry.

Name the kind of mower you need, and White's has it. White brand mowers are excellent ones—from little two-cycle models with 18-inch swath, to the 10 horsepower tractor, perfect for huge lawns or for gardening purposes. Gasoline-powered mowers range in all sizes, and include the White's Deluxe, Classic and Supreme, from rotary types to reel models.

For those who favor electric power for their lawn mowers, White's offers the twin-bladed Sunbeam electric lawn mower.

The Roto-Tiller is a very popular item with gardeners, and White's offers it in three, four and five-horsepower models, for varying needs and uses.

There are edgers, trimmers with heavy-duty cutting blades for more than just light-weight work. Grass catchers are available for both rotary and reel-type mowers.

Grass and other greenery need, among other forms of care lots of water, and White's has just the water hoses to suit the most critical "green thumb" gardener or grass-grower. The Super-Flex nylon reinforced hose, in 50-foot lengths, carries a 15-year guarantee and is always flexible—even in the coldest weather. And there are at White's the reinforced Tyrex Rubber and the 100 per cent vinyl rubber hoses with 10-year guarantees. If a smaller, less expensive hose is needed, White has the regular small rubber hoses, with up to five year guarantees.

For the lawn watering there are many types of sprinkling items, including the three-tube hose type in 25-foot lengths; the rotating type which moves along the hose to water a big area; the whirling sprinkler for fine mist sprinkling; the circulator and nozzle type. White's even has sprinklers which will sprinkle water in a circle, or, be lieve it or not, in a rectangle!

If you want to let your water run while you're gone, White's has the timers which permit you to set the amount of water covering a given area. When the amount is reached, the timer automatically cuts off the flow.

And don't forget the garden tools you will need to keep a beautiful lawn. There are tillers, hoes, shovels, forks, rakes, including the grass and leaf types, plus all the smaller hand items needed for close work in flower beds.

When your lawn needs more fertilizer, White's has the top brands, and carries a good line of spreaders.

For all lawn and gardening needs—and don't get caught short when you need lawn tools—go by White's, 202-204 Scurry, and take a look. Or call them at AM 4-5271.

Several Webb civilians recently received awards for their suggestions.

Leroy C. Cole, preventive maintenance section, got $150 for his suggestion to rewire the low voltage circuits of evaporative coolers and reducing man hours for a total savings of $2,980.74.

Clifford R. Eisler, vehicle maintenance section, received $90 for his suggestion of a method to lubricate the shaft points of power mowers which reduced maintenance costs due to replacement of shear pins.

Gen R. Earhart, electric shop foreman, civil engineering, was awarded a certificate for his management suggestion to replace the present taxiway lamps, as necessary, with a newly developed commercial lamp which does a better job for less money.

State National Is Happy To Serve

State National Bank of Big Spring and the people who work there, make it standing policy to keep up with developments—and helping business and industry in the area to grow, including agriculture.

The bank has grown with the town and with Howard County. When you think of expansion, one of the best places to get information and to find expert consultants is at State National Bank. The management continually feels the bank can grow only if the area it serves can grow; consequently, it has never failed to lend a helping hand where results were to mutual benefit.

For convenient banking during the day, there are provided handy drive-in windows. A night depository is also nearby, for the convenience of late-banking customers.

State National Bank is located handsily at 124 Main. Telephone AM 4-2531.

Campbell Ends Victory Drouth

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — It took an extra cigar or two, but chunky Joe Campbell has his first pro golf tournament victory in three years.

Cooper Player High Scorer

Mark Withrow of Abilene Cooper emerged as the top scorer in District 2-AAAA basketball play the past season with a total of 288 points.

Withrow, a senior, beat out Abilene High's Raymond Wray for the scoring title. Wray registered 276 points.

Other Big Spring players, and their point totals in conference play, included: Paul Thomas, 67 FG-40 FT-174 TP; Simon Terrazas, 55-59-169; Robert Jones, 26-37-89; Bobby Griffin, 19-32-70; Paul Soldan, 14-1-29; Russ Kimble, 2-1-5; Joe Jaure, 2-0-4.

HP Sews Up Title

ABILENE — Howard Payne College clinched the Lone Star Conference basketball championship by turning back McMurry here Saturday night, 90-71.

The win left the Yellow Jackets with an 11-0 conference record. For the season, Howard Payne is 17-6.

Dan Smith shattered Walter Carter's all-time HPC season's scoring record by counting 19 points. He now has 520 for the year. Carter formerly set an all-time record at HCJC in Big Spring.

Eddy Nelson of Big Spring counted 17 points for the Jackets against McMurry.

The Jackets play East Texas State in Commerce tonight.

Duff Pushes Dual Win

Dick Duff never was able to call New York home but the Montreal Canadiens' current hotshot has decided it's a nice place to visit.

Duff, whose 12-year National Hockey League career includes a brief and frustrating stint as a New York Ranger, completed a seven-point weekend with two goals and two assists Sunday night in Montreal's 5-3 triumph over the Rangers.

The slim veteran scored his first hat trick in nine seasons Saturday night as the Canadiens whipped first-place Chicago 5-2.

The Black Hawks protected their two-point edge over Montreal with a 5-1 victory over Boston Sunday night and the third-place Detroit Red Wings snapped a three-game losing strapping by thumping Toronto 4-1.

The Wings trail the second-place Canadiens by two points in the pennant race.

May Sets New Indoor Record

BERLIN (AP) — The first sub four-minute mile indoors in two seasons belongs to Jurgen May of East Germany.

May ran the mile in 3:58.2 Sunday night and in so doing set an unofficial indoor record of 3:41.9 for 1,500 meters, the East German News Agency ADN said.

ADN also said May's mile time was an unofficial European record. The world indoor mark of 3:56.4 is held by Tom O'Hara of Chicago, who also ran the last sub four-minute mile, in 1964. The best previous indoor effort this season was a 4:00.9 by Oregon's Jim Grell.

Lamesa Edged

SEMINOLE — Levelland moved into the Class AAA playoffs by turning back Lamesa, 61-60, in a District 3-AAA play-off game here Saturday night.

course, a wide open desert layout with some of the biggest greens in the country.

Littler, who shot 71-71-68-68-278, won $5,000 for second. R. H. Sikes and brothers Jay and Lionel Hebert each picked up $3,400 for their 280 finishes.

Tommy Aaron, Doug Sanders and George Archer each won $2,316 for their 281 scores.

Campbell's pay check gives him $14,945 in total 1966 money and ranks him fourth behind Arnold Palmer, Sanders and Billy Casper.

Campbell started the final round of the Tucson tourney one stroke behind Jay Hebert, who shot a 65 Saturday to take the lead. Hebert faltered with a double-bogey on the 12th hole and Campbell took the lead until the 18th when he hit into a trap and bogeyed to allow Littler to catch him with a par 4.

Campbell reached the green in two on the first playoff hole, the 545-yard par-5 15th, which was picked for television purposes.

Littler, who was off the side of the green on his second shot, chipped 20 feet past the pin and rimmed an attempt for a birdie putt. Campbell then two-putted from 15 feet, tapping in a one-footer for the clincher.

The 30-year-old, 200-pound Knoxville, Tenn., resident is a former national collegiate champ. He won the NCAA tourney in 1955 while playing at Purdue, where he also was a basketball stand-out.

Sunday's victory was the first for Campbell since he captured the Baton Rouge Open in 1962.

Mighty Mite Wins 1st Stop

PANAMA (AP) — Canada's Wilf Homenuik, a 140-pound mighty mite, can be expected to throw his weight around again as the Caribbean golf tour moves on to Bogota, Colombia.

Homenuik won the first stop on the tour that will wind up in Maracaibo, Venezuela, when he won the Panama Open Sunday with a final-round 73 and a 72-hole total of 283.

The victory, by a one-stroke margin over Stan Mosel of Essex Fells, N.J., was worth $2,000 to the little Canadian who shot 68s the first two days of the tournament, then held on with a final pair of 73s.

Defending champion Art Wall was fourth with a 256, one stroke back of Wes Ellis of Caldwell, N.J. — Wall, seven strokes back going into the last round, and Ellis, six back, both pulled even with Homenuik before falling back.

CLAIMS INDOOR TITLE Controls Temper, Pasarell Wins First Major Title

SALISBURY, Md. (AP) — When Charlie Pasarell was a 14-year-old tennis prodigy down in Santee, S.C., eight years ago, he had a temper tantrum on the court and drew a sharp reprimand from his father.

"I was heavily favored and when I didn't beat this kid easily, I got sore and banged all the balls to the other side of the court, almost hitting my opponent," Charlie recalled today.

"My father was on the sidelines. He walked out on the court, grabbed me by the ear and said, 'Get off the court.'" "I said, 'You can't pull me out of this tournament.'"

"He said, 'You're out of it. And I was. That night, I went home and apologized. It taught me a big lesson.'"

Today, Charlie Pasarell, now 22, composed and his massive temper harnessed, is the hottest court commodity in the United States.

He won the National Indoor Championship here Sunday, beating Ron Holmberg of Dallas in the final 12-10, 10-8, 5-6 and surviving perhaps the most imposing field ever to play in the hardboard event.

Duke, Davidson To Decide On Championship Status

By The Associated Press

It's time once again for Duke and Davidson, two of the better college basketball teams in the country, to find out if they once again will be the two best non-champions in the country.

Davidson, loser of only one of 12 Southern Conference contests this season, opens its bid Thursday for the championship that has eluded it the past two years.

DUKE CLINCHES SPOT Duke, the nation's second-ranked team, has clinched top seeding in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament with an 11-1 record.

which loses in the league's post-season tournament, thereby missing out on the championship and a berth in the NCAA tournament.

Davidson, loser of only one of 12 Southern Conference contests this season, opens its bid Thursday for the championship that has eluded it the past two years.

DUKE CLINCHES SPOT Duke, the nation's second-ranked team, has clinched top seeding in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament with an 11-1 record.

The Blue Devils complete their regular schedule this week with league games against Wake Forest and North Carolina.

In the opening Southern Conference game, the Wildcats take on The Citadel, a team they've already beaten twice this season. But based on recent history, that should be no indication of the outcome this time.

Two years ago Davidson lost in the semifinals to Virginia Military 62-61 after stopping VMI twice earlier in the season. The last year West Virginia, a two-time loser, edged the Wildcats 74-72 in overtime in a semifinal game.

Duke fared only slightly better in the ACC last season, winning two tournament games before losing to North Carolina State 91-85 in the final.

FAVORITES WIN In this year's tournament, March 3-5, the Blue Devils could open against South Carolina, the only conference team to beat them this season.

Both Davidson and Duke won Saturday night, the Wildcats bringing their record to 17-5 with a 77-64 triumph over The Citadel and the Blue Devils making their mark 19-2 by trimming Maryland 74-69.

Unbeaten Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 team, won its 21st, edging Mississippi State 73-69, while unbeaten Texas Western, No. 3, nipped Pan American 65-61 for its 20th victory and fifth straight squeaker.

All of the other teams in the Top Ten won with No. 10 Michigan bombing Purdue 128-94 despite Dave Schellhase's 57 points.

Chicago Loyola, No. 4, avenged an earlier defeat by Wichita, downing the Shockers 94-77. Fifth-ranked Vanderbilt remained two games behind Kentucky in the Southeastern Conference with an 89-88 triumph over Florida.

PROVIDENCE VICTOR No. 6 Providence knocked off Seton Hall 77-57, seventh-ranked Kansas overwhelmed Oklahoma State 90-47, St. Joseph's, No. 8, outlasted Creighton 96-90 and ninth-ranked Nebraska whipped Missouri 71-53.

In various conference races, Michigan took a two-game lead in the Big Ten when Wisconsin snipped Michigan State 78-77. Cincinnati tightened its hold on the Missouri Valley lead by downing Tulsa 88-75; Penn held its one-game Ivy lead with an 84-66 victory over Cornell.

Oregon State lost to Southern California 70-60 but still has a two-game lead in the Pacific Athletic Conference, and Utah State kept a one-game lead in the Western Athletic, beating Arizona State 92-76.

Crucial Mustang Match Due Tuesday For Aggies

By The Associated Press

Texas A&M meets Southern Methodist at Dallas Tuesday night in the most crucial game of the Southwest Conference basketball stretch run. It could mean the championship for the Aggies; it might mean at least a co-championship repeat for Southern Methodist.

The Aggies righted themselves from two straight defeats to beat Texas Christian 96-91 Saturday and cling to a one-game lead over the second place Methodists.

Southern Methodist edged Arkansas 67-66 for its sixth straight triumph and throw a mighty challenge to the Aggies, who a little more than a week ago were leading by three games and thought they might just coast in with the title.

TIGHT RACE The race enters its final two weeks with three teams in the running. The Aggies are 8-2, Southern Methodist is 7-3 and Texas Tech, in third place, is 6-4.

The Aggies are through with Texas Tech getting a split, but Southern Methodist and Texas Tech have yet to meet each other. And the Red Raiders might well slip into the championship slot that was predicted for them before the season started.

Tech plays Baylor at Waco Tuesday night. In other conference games Texas and Rice clash at Houston, and Texas Christian visits Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Friday night Arkansas and Texas Tech tangle at Lubbock, while the Aggies host Rice, which won its first game of the season last week to halt a 29-game losing streak. The Owls beat Baylor 89-70.

School Bi-District Games Get Started

By The Associated Press

They start eliminating down to the state tournament teams this week in the Texas school basketball race.

All district champions—170 of them—have been determined and bidistrict games begin tonight. All will be finished by midweek and regional finals will be played Friday and Saturday to determine 22 teams for the state tournament at Austin next week—four in each of the A classes and six in Class B.

Class AAAA doesn't have a defending champion and there isn't a big standout in the 16 teams left to fight for the four spots. Dallas Samuell might be the best. This outfit has a 27-3 record and has won 23 straight.

El Paso Austin, Abilene, Lubbock Monterey, Hurst Ball Fort Worth Paschal, Garland, Tyler, Houston Waltrip, Houston Memorial, Beaumont French, Texas City, Austin McCallum, Corpus Christi Carroll, San Antonio Lee and San Antonio McCallum are the others left in Class AAAA.

Class AAA doesn't have a defending champion either, and here, too, it will require the playoffs this week to determine the most likely team to win the title. It might be Waxahachie, which was the runnerup last year.

Canyon, Andrews, Levelland, Coleman, Fort Worth, Brewer, South Garland, Kilgore, West Orange, Huntsville, Wharton, Clear Creek, Belton, San Antonio Sam Houston, San Antonio Marshall and Donna are others in the Class AAA playoffs.

This is the only class in which a regional tournament will be held instead of bidistrict playoffs. In region I Canyon plays Andrews and Levelland meets Coleman in the first round, then the winners meet for the tournament spot.

Classes AA, A and B have defending state champions in the field. Lake Worth of Fort Worth is defending titlist in Class AA. Runner-up Port Acres was eliminated in the district race.

Class A returns West Sabine, which, however, doesn't look as strong as last season. For the first time in years, West Sabine lost some games inside the district. Runner-up Woodsboro is back.

Snook is defending champion of Class B and should be an overwhelming favorite to repeat. Snook has won 71 straight games.

Royals Struggle For 133-129 Win Over Pistons

By The Associated Press

The Boston Celtics and Philadelphia 76ers rested Sunday, but the other contender in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division — the Cincinnati Royals — didn't. In fact, the Royals struggled.

Cincinnati, with Oscar Robertson leading the way, outscored Detroit 39-26 in the third quarter and then withstood a fourth-period Piston rally for a 133-129 victory.

The triumph moved the Royals to within three games of the first-place Celtics and to within 2 1/2 games of the 76ers.

The Eastern title scramble continues tonight when the Celtics play at Los Angeles, and the Royals take on the 76ers at Dayton, Ohio.

In the only other Sunday game, St. Louis lost a 20-point lead in the last 10 minutes but edged Baltimore 126-123.

Saturday, Boston nipped Los Angeles 115-111. New York downed Cincinnati 124-113 and Philadelphia defeated San Francisco 123-119.

GRAUSTARK HURT Derby Contender To Miss Races

By The Associated Press

Scratch Graustark. The unbeaten colt, a prime early contender for the Kentucky Derby and other classics for 2-year-olds, has been injured and will not run against Buckpasser in Wednesday's $25,000 Everglades Stakes at Hialeah.

Graustark, winner of all five career starts by a minimum of four lengths, suffered a severely bruised outside quarter of his left hind hoof during a workout on a sloppy track Saturday and was declared out of action Sunday by his owners, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Galbreath.

And it's questionable whether he'll be ready for next week's $100,000 added Flamingo Stakes, a major Derby prep.

"We are in great hopes recovery will be rapid although the horse's response will totally govern his return to training," the owners said in a prepared statement.

His withdrawal makes the Everglades just another good race instead of the heralded meeting ground of the two top 2-year-olds of 1965 — Graustark and Buckpasser — and shifts the week's spotlight to Saturday's $145,000 guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap.

Buckpasser was voted the top 2-year-old of '65, but Graustark was the early choice for the 1 1/4 miles of the Everglades.

John R. Gaines' Bold Bidder, who won the $100,000 Charles H. Strub Stakes several weeks ago, is the early favorite for the Santa Anita Handicap, beat Start by a nose in the $134,500 Widener Handicap at Hialeah last Saturday.

Pia Star, who may be flown to California for the Santa Anita Handicap, beat Start by a nose in the $134,500 Widener Handicap at Hialeah last Saturday.

Cisco Closes Out By Beating Hill

CISCO — Cisco Junior College, which has already been invited to play in the Region V Basketball tournament at Amarillo next month, closed out its regular season here Saturday night by defeating Hill County JC, 96-84.

Mike Smith, former Abilene High player, paced the Wranglers with 37 points.

The win was the 21st of the season for Cisco, compared to nine losses. Cisco ranked third in its conference standings with a 7-5 record.

New Slate Announced By Woman's Forum

Mrs. L. B. Maulden was chosen president of the Woman's Forum during a Friday afternoon meeting in the home of Mrs. Joe Pickle, Western Hills. Mrs. Omar Jones was cohostess.

Other officers who will complete her slate are Mrs. Charles Sweeney, vice president; Mrs. T. H. McCann, recording secretary; Mrs. Bert Shive, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. D. D. Dyer, treasurer. The group will be installed in May.

Mrs. Charles Harwell presided and welcomed the guests. Mrs. R. B. McAfee, a new resident, and Mrs. H. S. McKnight of Henderson.

During the business session, the agreed to contribute to the purchase of a gift for Mrs. Dee Lockland, retiring president of the Western District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Also, donations were made to the American Field Service, for the foreign student exchange program, and to the Buck-A-Month Club at the state hospital.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Lennart Blumquist who spoke on the 18 years she spent living in Rhodesia where her husband served as a Methodist missionary from Sweden. Mrs. Blumquist noted that missionaries are called upon to do many things other than preaching. During the first term that her husband served there he acted as a school inspector and

April Date Set By Lamesa Pair

LAMESA (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Johnson have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Deborah Ann, to Michael Joe Oldham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Oldham. The wedding will be April 9.

Miss Johnson is a Lamesa High School graduate and attended Abilene Christian College. She is employed in the county tax assessors' offices here. Oldham, also a graduate of Lamesa High School, is presently serving in the United States Navy.

during the second term he worked in the field of agriculture. For the third term, he was appointed to head a church district.

Mrs. Blumquist spent much of her time teaching the women how to cook, be homemakers and care for their families. She organized clubs of Christian women and taught them how to sew as well as other crafts.

4-H Group Hears Talks On Etiquette

A report on the valentine visit to the Sunshine Rest Home was heard during the Friday afternoon meeting of the Knott 4-H Club Food Unit I at the home of Mrs. Joe Gaskins.

Talks and demonstrations were given on table manners and meal preparation. Participating were Sherry Riddle, "Your Manners Are Showing"; Kayla Gaskins, "Proper Table Service"; Claudia Nichols, "Food for Fitness"; and Sheree Shaw displayed correct measuring tools and demonstrated their use.

The girls also practiced their method demonstration which they are preparing for presentation at a later date.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Leon Riddle and Mrs. Veri Shaw. The next meeting will be Feb. 23 when the group will tour several Big Spring businesses.

Card Party Set By ESA Chapter

A benefit card party will be held Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. at the Cosden Country Club. Sponsors will be the Alpha Chi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, and local merchants will provide the attendance prizes.

Admission will be $1 per person or $4 per table. Proceeds will be contributed to the Birth Defects Center, Galveston, and to the Howard County Rehabilitation Center. For reservations call Mrs. Robert Rogers, AM 4-7707.

country, the speaker said that the people have exceptionally good manners, that there are separate greetings used for the morning and afternoon and that a gift is always accepted with both hands. At mealtimes, however, the family eats from a communal bowl, with their hands rather than utensils. The sister of a husband holds an important place in the family and serves as "go-between" in differences of opinion. In marriage, the bridegroom pays for everything, including the price of his bride.

Mrs. Blumquist concluded by saying that all families have a piece of land, a few cattle and all grow corn, the staple food. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, and the next meeting slated March 18 in the home of Mrs. Jack Y. Smith.

Junior Class Shows 'Spring On Campus'

The look of "Spring on Campus, '66," was shown Sunday afternoon in a briskly-paced fashion show presented in the Big Spring High School auditorium by members of the junior class.

New spring fashions were shown by Zacks, Pragers and Pelletiers with Mrs. Jim Zack serving as narrator and Mrs. Leslie Green providing background music.

Girls' styles were shown by Linda Tune, Kay Statter, Connie Bradley, Barbara Davidson, Karen Crocker, Jackie Cook, Julia Vaughn, Debbie Duncan, Paula Langston, Cinda Longoria, Sherry Hampton, Debbie Douglas and Connie Carlton.

Boys modeling clothing from Prager's were Kenny Hamby, Edward Woolvort, Richard Cauley, Robby Robertson, Mike Schaffer, David Holmes and Jim Davis.

"Good fashion never goes stale," said Mrs. Zack as she began her commentary. "Clothes with star quality never lose it. There are two sides to every look — the fashion — and how you wear it."

Opening the show, Pam Sutton showed the newest in beach wear — "Jellies" — a two-piece cover-up costume with frilly pants and lace trimmed shirt in a cranberry and white check.

What followed was a parade of pretty swimsuits worn by Julia Vaughn, Jackie Cook, Kay Statter and Paula Langston.

Barbara Davidson appeared in nylon knit shorts worn with Poor Boy top, and Debbie Duncan paired a crop top with easy-care knit shorts. Sherry Hampton wore smart black and white in a zingy relaxed leg pants costume, and Connie Bradley showed cranberry belt bottoms topped with its own tucked front midly.

Linda Tune featured the "kooky" look in a cropped top and slim-as-a-reed relaxed leg pants, while Julia Vaughn stayed with a good thing, hip-hugger pants and Poor Boy top.

When fancy turns to something a little fancier, Jenny

Bean was ready in a three-piece dacron and wool combination in pink, lilac and white checks. The sleeveless jacket buttoned over a matching A-line skirt and covered a blouse of rayon linen.

Karen Crocker showed the good fashion sense in simple tailoring. Her rose A-line rayon linen dress was sleeveless and accented with stitching around the collar and sleeves. Cindy Longoria modeled an eased-line dress of bright gold, followed by Debbie Duncan in a versatile jumper that changed personality with different blouses.

Paula Langston was next in a fashionable, fresh print, and Debbie Douglas showed the popular "granny" in a flower print on a turquoise background.

The sophisticated look was preferred by Connie Carlton who showed a classic costume for campus or commuting, and Kay Statter modeled a skimmer in rayon, cotton and acetate blend. A relaxed sheath, in textured rayon, was worn by Sherry Hampton, and the mystery of a pale blue trench coat, worn over an A-line dress, was solved by Linda Tune. City elegance was personified by Jackie Cook in an all-weather cape to spark an entire spring wardrobe, while Jenny Bean liked the look of a machine-washable coat worn with a blue and yellow jersey sheath.

In tune with the times was Cindy Longoria in a kicky permanently pleated skirt, low belted, in a paisley print. Pam Sutton's two-piece costume featured a striking color combination, and Barbara Davidson's relaxed sheath was in a beautiful green voile. Debbie Douglas appeared again in flowered voile, followed by Karen Crocker in a lovely dress of light-colored lace. Connie Carlton was ready for whatever the evening might bring in a candlelight white silk organza over taffeta accented with pale yellow. Another look in evening wear was worn by Connie Bradley who chose slender elegance.

The newest, nicest and smartest fashions for young men were shown by Pragers with commentary by Mrs. Zack. The continental look was better than ever in "stay pressed" slacks of cotton and dacron. Smartly-styled shirts were shown in pastels, stripes and bold colors. Hawaiian print shorts were worn with colored "tennis shoes, and "baggies" were shown with white or colored sweatshirts. Bleeding Madras was used in shorts topped with a velour shirt and matching sock. A wool rust brown sports jacket was teamed with handsome slacks, while an ice blue-green sports jacket was shown with blue-green slacks and a blue pin stripe shirt.

The university cut was popular in young men's wear and colors were brighter than ever.

At the conclusion of the show, recipients were named for gifts and certificates donated by local merchants.

4-H Food Group Discusses Salads

The importance of salads was the discussion topic during the recent meeting of the Knott 4-H Club Unit II Food Group at the home of Mrs. Robert Nichols.

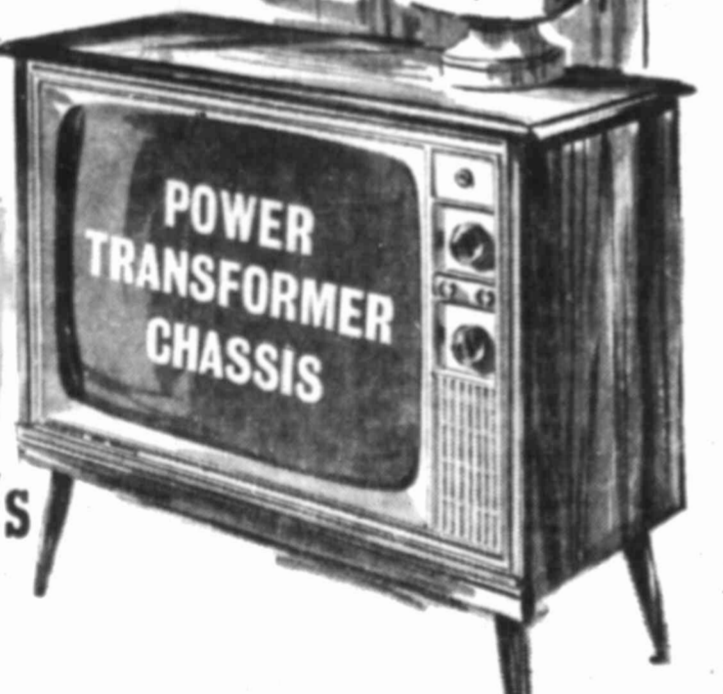

Discussing the merits and care of salads and vegetables were Angela Shaw, Pamela Jones, La Deana Ribble and Jannett Nichols.

Network Head Ushers Color In First Year

NEW YORK (AP) — On March 1 last year, John A. Schneider, 39, walked into his new office on the 20th floor of 485 Madison Avenue, an office that still held traces of its previous occupant.

Within a few minutes, surrounded by publicity men, he was escorted to his first press conference, a bustling, shouting affair. Everybody wanted to get a look at the man who the day before had been named president of the Columbia Broadcasting System's television network.

That there was a new president was the shocker. James T. Aubrey Jr., an experienced, hard-headed television professional, had held the post for five years. His meat-and-potatoes philosophy of programming had sent CBS ratings sky-rocketing and filled the company coffers with sponsors' gold.

NAMED IMMEDIATELY
Suddenly, Aubrey was out, in the middle of a chilly Sunday afternoon. Schneider, general manager of the network's flagship station in New York, was immediately named to succeed him.

Schneider, known and liked by the trade but virtually a stranger to the public, recalls that first day with amusement. It was spent primarily answering congratulatory telephone calls and learning the location of the executive washroom.

"It was the easiest press conference I'll ever have," he recalled. "I didn't know enough to be qualified to say anything more than hello."

But the next day at 2:30 p.m. he walked into the office of William Paley, CBS board chairman, to ask if there was any reason why the network should not get into color. No reason at all," said Paley. Color came.

Official Dies In Canadian Home Blaze

QUEBEC (AP) — Quebec's Lt. Gov. Paul Comtois died today in a fire which swept his home, police said.

Authorities said his daughter, Mireille, suffered arm burns trying to rescue her father. His wife was uninjured.

A score of police guarded the entrance to the home as the fire raged. Flames were visible for more than a mile and smoke filled the surrounding area.

Comtois, 70, became lieutenant governor Oct. 6, 1961, after four years as minister of mines and technical surveys in the federal Cabinet.

Heart Drive Gets $2,100

Nearly 250 workers brought in approximately $2,100 for the benefit of heart research and education in Sunday's Heart Fund campaign, according to Dr. C. L. Almsworth, president of the Howard County Heart Council.

Dr. Almsworth said that volunteers who participated in the door-to-door campaign, which began early Sunday afternoon, left envelopes at the homes of those who were gone. Anyone wishing to make a contribution should contact one of the Heart Council volunteers, he said.

Heart Sunday, observed in 8,500 communities across the nation, climaxed a month of public and professional education on heart disease, with programs sponsored by the Howard County Heart Council. Among the professional speakers was Dr. Maurice Adam, cardiovascular and thoracic surgeon from Dallas.

Sukarno Ousts Defense Minister Abdul Nasution

SINGAPORE (AP) — President Sukarno ousted armed forces chief Abdul Haris Nasution as Indonesia's defense minister today, Radio Jakarta reported.

It was Nasution who led the Indonesian army in crushing the Communist uprising last October.

He is known as an implacable foe of communism, long having kept Communists out of Indonesia's Cabinet. He became defense minister in 1963 after years of leadership in the army. Nasution guided the trials of Communist party leaders charged with staging the attempted coup against the government last Oct. 1.

At his trial last week, Communist leader Njono said one reason the Indonesian Communists attempted their coup was that a council of army generals planned to take over the government. The army denied this.

At one time, Nasution 46, was considered Sukarno's heir apparent, but they split over the October coup attempt. Sukarno tried vainly to restrain Nasution and the army in their campaign against the Communists.

Lamesans Going All-Out To Attract New Industry

LAMESA (SC) — About 150 businessmen and farmers attended a meeting of Lamesa Industrial Foundation, Inc., Friday night in Forrest Park Community Building and elected permanent officers and directors for the organization. The foundation received its charter in November, 1965 and by-laws were approved and adopted at a recent meeting.

Purpose of the foundation is to encourage and develop industry in Lamesa and Dawson County by having available for inquirers information on available sites, buildings and financing.

J. B. Claiborne, owner of the Piggly Wiggly Stores in Lamesa and Welch, was elected president; John Palmore, vice president; and N. W. Stewart, secretary-treasurer.

Board members elected were W. J. Beckham, C. A. Elland, C. A. Hollingsworth, Matt McCall, Stansell Clement, B. J. Vaughn, Bob Crawley, Bob Fleming, Dr. H. M. Stover, Harry Bruner, Ray Renner and Will Morris.

At a recent clinic held in Lamesa, data was processed for attracting industry to the area. The one-day event was sponsored by the Texas Industrial Commission and was one of six held throughout Texas. It was presented by the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce.

Lamesa is making an all-out effort to bring new industry here and had as guests of the foundation recently Basil Hill, owner of a wool textile company in Rockboro, N. C., and Charles Gibson, head of Burlington Mills, also of North Carolina. Invitations are being mailed by the local chamber offices to all available industry prospects, encouraging them to visit Lamesa and investigate its facilities in their search for locations for new factories and

Several Races Have Contests

LAMESA (SC) — Interest is picking up here politically as several candidates entered their names on the political calendar for the upcoming Democratic primary election.

Those races contested are Dalton Myers and Slim Lybrand, county commissioner, Pct. 4; A. B. Furlow and E. R. Marshall, county commissioner, Pct. 2; Leslie Pratt and B. F. Sprayberry, county judge; and Arthur Standifer and Eli Vera Sr., justice of the peace.

Seeking re-election with no opposition are Clyde Bostick, treasurer; Louis White, county clerk; and Ralph Ranson, county commissioner, Pct. 2.

New Slate Announced By Woman's Forum

Mrs. L. B. Maulden was chosen president of the Woman's Forum during a Friday afternoon meeting in the home of Mrs. Joe Pickle, Western Hills. Mrs. Omar Jones was cohostess.

Other officers who will complete her slate are Mrs. Charles Sweeney, vice president; Mrs. T. H. McCann, recording secretary; Mrs. Bert Shive, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. D. D. Dyer, treasurer. The group will be installed in May.

Mrs. Charles Harwell presided and welcomed the guests. Mrs. R. B. McAfee, a new resident, and Mrs. H. S. McKnight of Henderson.

During the business session, the agreed to contribute to the purchase of a gift for Mrs. Dee Lockland, retiring president of the Western District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Also, donations were made to the American Field Service, for the foreign student exchange program, and to the Buck-A-Month Club at the state hospital.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Lennart Blumquist who spoke on the 15 years she spent living in Rhodesia where her husband served as a Methodist missionary from Sweden. Mrs. Blumquist noted that missionaries are called upon to do many things other than preaching. During the first term that her husband served there he acted as a school inspector and

April Date Set By Lamesa Pair

LAMESA (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Johnson have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Deborah Ann, to Michael Joe Oldham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Oldham. The wedding will be April 9.

Miss Johnson is a Lamesa High School graduate and attended Abilene Christian College. She is employed in the county tax assessors' offices here. Oldham, also a graduate of Lamesa High School, is presently serving in the United States Navy.

during the second term he worked in the field of agriculture. For the third term, he was appointed to head a church district.

Mrs. Blumquist spent much of her time teaching the women how to cook, be homemakers and care for their families. She organized clubs of Christian women and taught them how to sew as well as other crafts.

In describing customs of the

4-H Group Hears Talks On Etiquette

A report on the valentine visit to the Sunshine Rest Home was heard during the Friday afternoon meeting of the Knott 4-H Club Food Unit I at the home of Mrs. Joe Gaskins.

Talks and demonstrations were given on table manners and meal preparation. Participating were Sherry Riddle, "Your Manners Are Showing"; Kayla Gaskins, "Proper Table Service"; Claudia Nichols, "Food for Fitness"; and Sheree Shaw displayed correct measuring tools and demonstrated their use.

The girls also practiced their method demonstration which they are preparing for presentation at a later date.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Leon Riddle and Mrs. Verl Shaw. The next meeting will be Feb. 23 when the group will tour several Big Spring businesses.

Card Party Set By ESA Chapter

A benefit card party will be held Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. at the Cosden Country Club. Sponsors will be the Alpha Chi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, and local merchants will provide the attendance prizes.

Admission will be $1 per person or $4 per table. Proceeds will be contributed to the Birth Defects Center, Galveston, and to the Howard County Rehabilitation Center. For reservations call Mrs. Robert Rogers, AM 4-7707.

country, the speaker said that the people have exceptionally good manners, that there are separate greetings used for the morning and afternoon and that a gift is always accepted with both hands. At mealtime, however, the family eats from a communal bowl, with their hands rather than utensils. The sister of a husband holds an important place in the family and serves as "go-between" in differences of opinion. In marriage, the bridegroom pays for everything, including the price of his bride.

Mrs. Blumquist concluded by saying that all families have a piece of land, a few cattle and all grow corn, the staple food. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, and the next meeting slated March 18 in the home of Mrs. Jack Y. Smith.

Midland Symphony Unit Schedules Gypsy Mart

MIDLAND — The Midland Symphony Guild has announced its annual Gypsy Mart will be from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Feb. 24 in the former Milam's Toyland building in the Dellwood Plaza Shopping Center.

Mrs. William Y. Penn and Mrs. Robert J. Cowan, co-chairmen, said there will be a tea room, where coffee, tea, breads and cookies will be served during the morning and afternoon.

4-H Girls Make Meat Salads

A demonstration on making meat salad was seen at the Saturday morning meeting of the Unit One Food Group of the Big Spring 4-H Club. The girls met with the adult leader, Mrs. A. D. Nanny, 3303 Auburn.

Participating in the salad making and a discussion concerning the need for meat in the diet were Dixie Coleman, Becky Sims, Sherry Hudson and Carol Nanny. The group will meet with Mrs. Nanny again next Saturday.

Engaged

Maj. (Ret.) and Mrs. Perry R. Duncan, 2506 Cindy Lane, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carol Sue to Paul W. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne C. Moore, Sterling City Route. The Chapel at Webb AFB will be the scene of the wedding on April 9, with Chaplain Benjamin Meacham officiating.

Open House Observes Birthday

The 97th birthday of Mrs. John Porter was observed Sunday afternoon with an open house from 3:30 to 6 p.m. in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Porter, Wasson Road.

Other of her children in the host group were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. May and Mrs. J. T. Corcoran. Grandchildren who assisted were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Calvert and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knapp.

Mrs. Porter, attired in a pale blue silk dress, was presented a corsage of pink carnations.

Refreshments were served to 60 guests from a table covered with a floor-length green linen cloth and appointed with crystal. The centerpiece was a balanced scale with a small baby on one side and woman on the other. Arrangements of pink flowers were placed throughout the entertaining area.

Mrs. Dois Ray In Fort Worth

COAHOMA (SC)—Mrs. Dois Ray is in Fort Worth to meet her husband who will arrive there Saturday for a two week leave from Fort Polk, La., where he took his basic training. He will be stationed at Fort Gordon, Ga., to train in electronics and radio.

N. C. Beard of San Bernardino, Calif., is visiting here with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Pherigo. Mrs. Ray Copeland has been released from the Medical Arts Clinic and Hospital.

Rook Club Has Friday Session

Emblems of George Washington's birthday were used in the refreshment and room decorations during the Friday afternoon meeting of the Rook Club. Eight members met at the home of Mrs. J. Lusk, 806 W. 18th.

Junior Class Shows 'Spring On Campus'

The look of "Spring on the Campus, '66," was shown Sunday afternoon in a briskly-paced fashion show presented in the Big Spring High School auditorium by members of the junior class.

New spring fashions were shown by Zacks, Pragers and Pelletiers with Mrs. Jim Zack serving as narrator and Mrs. Leslie Green providing background music.

Girls' styles were shown by Linda Tune, Kay Statter, Connie Bradley, Barbara Davidson, Julia Vaughn, Jackie Cook, Paula Langston, Pam Sutton, Sherry Hampton, Debbie Douglas and Connie Carlton.

Boys modeling clothing from Prager's were Kenny Hamby, Edward Woolvort, Richard Cauley, Robby Robertson, Mike Schaffer, David Holmes and Jim Davis.

"Good fashion never goes stale," said Mrs. Zack as she began her commentary. "Clothes with star quality never lose it. There are two sides to every look — the fashion — and how you wear it."

Opening the show, Pam Sutton showed the newest in beach wear—"Jellies"—a two-piece cover-up costume with frilly pants and lace trimmed shirt in a cranberry and white check. What followed was a parade of pretty swimsuits worn by Julia Vaughn, Jackie Cook, Kay Statter and Paula Langston.

Barbara Davidson appeared in nylon knit shorts worn with Foot Boy top, and Debbie Duncan paired a crop top with easy-care knit shorts. Sherry Hampton wore smart black and white in a zingy relaxed leg pants costume, and Connie Bradley showed cranberry belt bottoms topped with its own tucked front middy.

Linda Tune featured the "kooky" look in a cropped top and slim-as-a-reed relaxed leg pants, while Julia Vaughn stayed with a good thing, hip-hugger pants and Poor Boy top. When fancy turns to something a little fancier, Jenny

Bean was ready in a three-piece dacron and wool combination in pink, lilac and white checks. The sleeveless jacket buttoned over a matching A-line skirt and covered a blouse of rayon linen.

Karen Crooker showed the good fashion sense in simple tailoring. Her rose A-line rayon linen dress was sleeveless and accented with stitching around the collar and sleeves. Cindy Longoria modeled an eased-line dress of bright gold, followed by Debbie Duncan in a versatile jumper that changed personality with different blouses. Paula Langston was next in a fashionable, fresh print, and Debbie Douglas showed the popular "granny" in a flower print on a turquoise background.

The sophisticated look was preferred by Connie Carlton who showed a classic costume for campus or commuting, and Kay Statter modeled a skimmer in rayon, cotton and acetate blend. A relaxed sheath, in textured rayon, was worn by Sherry Hampton, and the mystery of a pale blue trench coat, worn over an A-line dress, was solved by Linda Tune. City elegance was personified by Jackie Cook in an all-weather cape to spark an entire spring wardrobe, while Jenny Bean liked the look of a machine-washable coat worn with a blue and yellow jersey sheath.

In tune with the times was Cindy Longoria in a kicky permanently pleated skirt, low belted, in a paisley print. Pam Sutton's two-piece costume featured a striking color combination, and Barbara Davidson's relaxed sheath was in a beautiful green voile. Debbie Douglas appeared again in flowered voile, followed by Karen Crooker in a lovely dress of light-colored lace. Connie Carlton was ready for whatever the evening might bring in a candlelight white silk organza over taffeta accented with pale yellow. Another look in evening wear was worn by Connie Bradley who chose slender elegance.

The newest, nicest and smartest fashions for young men were shown by Pragers with commentary by Mrs. Zack. The continental look was better than ever in "stay pressed" slacks of cotton and dacron. Smartly-styled shirts were shown in pastels, stripes and bold colors.

Hawaiian print shorts were worn with colored tennis shoes, and "baggies" were shown with white or colored sweatshirts. Bleeding Madras was used in shorts topped with a velour shirt and matching sock. A wool rust brown sports jacket was teamed with handsome slacks, while an ice blue-green sports jacket was shown with blue-green slacks and a blue pin stripe shirt.

The university cut was popular in young men's wear and colors were brighter than ever. At the conclusion of the show, recipients were named for gifts and certificates donated by local merchants.

4-H Food Group Discusses Salads

The importance of salads was the discussion topic during the recent meeting of the Knott 4-H Club Unit II Food Group at the home of Mrs. Robert Nichols.

Discussing the merits and care of salads and vegetables were Angela Shaw, Pamela Jones, La Deana Ribble and Jannett Nichols.

Sewing Club Does Knitting Work

Crochet work was done during the Friday afternoon meeting of the Eager Beaver Sewing Club at the home of Mrs. Gabe Hammock, 1901 Mittle. Refreshments were served to five members.

Network Head Ushers Color In First Year

NEW YORK (AP) — On March 1 last year, John A. Schneider, 39, walked into his new office on the 20th floor of 455 Madison Avenue, an office that still held traces of its previous occupant.

Within a few minutes, surrounded by publicity men, he was escorted to his first press conference, a bustling, shouting affair. Everybody wanted to get a look at the man who the day before had been named president of the Columbia Broadcasting System's television network.

That there was a new president was the shocker. James T. Aubrey Jr., an experienced, hard-headed television professional, had held the post for five years. His meat-and-potatoes philosophy of programming had sent CBS ratings sky-rocketing and filled the company coffers with sponsors' gold.

NAMED IMMEDIATELY
Suddenly, Aubrey was out, in the middle of a chilly Sunday afternoon. Schneider, general manager of the network's flagship station in New York, was immediately named to succeed him.

Schneider, known and liked by the trade but virtually a stranger to the public, recalls that first day with amusement. It was spent primarily answering congratulatory telephone calls and learning the location of the executive washroom.

"It was the easiest press conference I'll ever have," he recalled. "I didn't know enough to be qualified to say anything more than hello."

But the next day at 2:30 p.m. he walked into the office of William Paley, CBS board chairman, to ask if there was any reason why the network should not get into color. No reason at all," said Paley. Color came.

Poll Tax Huddle

Texas Governor John Connally, left, and Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr meet in the governor's office in Austin to study surprise court decision voiding Texas' poll tax voting requirement, an action which brought on a special session of the legislature to write a voter registration law. Voter registration bill action was due this week. Story on Page 10-B. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Official Dies In Canadian Home Blaze

QUEBEC (AP) — Quebec's Lt. Gov. Paul Comtois died today in a fire which swept his home, police said.

Authorities said his daughter, Mireille, suffered arm burns trying to rescue her father. His wife was uninjured.

A score of police guarded the entrance to the home as the fire raged. Flames were visible for more than a mile and smoke filled the surrounding area.

Comtois, 70, became lieutenant governor Oct. 6, 1961, after four years as minister of mines and technical surveys in the federal Cabinet.

Heart Drive Gets $2,100

Nearly 250 workers brought in approximately $2,100 for the benefit of heart research and education in Sunday's Heart Fund campaign, according to Dr. C. L. Ainsworth, president of the Howard County Heart Council.

Dr. Ainsworth said that volunteers who participated in the door-to-door campaign, which began early Sunday afternoon, left envelopes at the homes of those who were gone. Anyone wishing to make a contribution should contact one of the Heart Council volunteers, he said.

Heart Sunday, observed in 8,500 communities across the nation, climaxed a month of public and professional education on heart disease, with programs sponsored by the Howard County Heart Council. Among the professional speakers was Dr. Maurice Adam, cardiovascular and thoracic surgeon from Dallas.

Sukarno Ousts Defense Minister Abdul Nasution

SINGAPORE (AP) — President Sukarno ousted armed forces chief Abdul Harris Nasution as Indonesia's defense minister today, Radio Jakarta reported.

It was Nasution who led the Indonesian army in crushing the Communist uprising last October.

He is known as an implacable foe of communism, long having kept Communists out of Indonesia's Cabinet. He became defense minister in 1963 after years of leadership in the army. Nasution guided the trials of Communist party leaders charged with staging the attempted coup against the government last Oct. 1.

At his trial last week, Communist leader Njono said one reason the Indonesian Communists attempted their coup was that a council of army generals planned to take over the government. The army denied this.

At one time, Nasution 46, was considered Sukarno's heir apparent, but they split over the October coup attempt. Sukarno tried vainly to restrain Nasution and the army in their campaign against the Communists.

Lamesans Going All-Out To Attract New Industry

LAMESA (SC) — About 150 businessmen and farmers attended a meeting of Lamesa Industrial Foundation, Inc., Friday night in Forrest Park Community Building and elected permanent officers and directors for the organization. The foundation received its charter in November, 1965 and by-laws were approved and adopted at a recent meeting.

Purpose of the foundation is to encourage and develop industry in Lamesa and Dawson County by having available for inquirers information on available sites, buildings and financing.

J. B. Claiborne, owner of the Piggly Wiggly Stores in Lamesa and Welch, was elected president; John Palmore, vice president; and N. W. Stewart, secretary-treasurer.

Board members elected were W. J. Beckham, C. A. Elland, C. A. Hollingsworth, Matt McCall, Stansell Clement, B. J. Vaughn, Bob Crawley, Bob Fleming, Dr. H. M. Stover, Harry Bruner, Ray Renner and Will Morris.

At a recent clinic held in Lamesa, data was processed for attracting industry to the area. The one-day event was sponsored by the Texas Industrial Commission and was one of six held throughout Texas. It was presented by the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce.

Lamesa is making an all-out effort to bring new industry here and has guests of the foundation recently Basil Hill, owner of a wool textile company in Rocksboro, N. C., and Charles Gibson, head of Burlington Mills, also of North Carolina. Invitations are being mailed by the local chamber of offices to all available industry prospects, encouraging them to visit Lamesa and investigate its facilities in their search for locations for new factories and

Several Races Have Contests

LAMESA (SC) — Interest is picking up here politically as several candidates entered their names on the political calendar for the upcoming Democratic primary election.

Those races contested are Dalton Myers and Slim Lybrand, county commissioner, Pct. 4; A. B. Furlow and E. R. Marshall, county commissioner, Pct. 2; Leslie Pratt and B. F. Sprayberry, county judge; and Arthur Standifer and Eli Vera Sr., justice of the peace.

Seeking re-election with no opposition are Clyde Bostick, treasurer; Louie White, county clerk; and Ralph Ranson, county commissioner, Pct. 2.

Hero Dies In Viet

Stephen Laier, 18-year-old, six-foot U.S. soldier of Fort Wayne, Ind., fought and kept death at bay for 15 days of terrible pain in a Viet Nam hospital. Death finally was the winner over the young hero who lost both of his legs in a land mine explosion. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Battlefield Wounds Claim Young Hero

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — "He probably was hesitant to write because he knew it would hurt us," said the father of Stephen Laier. "He was that kind of boy." Joseph G. Laier was talking about his 18-year-old son who lost both legs in a Viet Cong mine blast. Laier and his wife didn't learn of their son's injuries until eight days before the young infantryman died. Husky Stephen Laier was credited with guiding a patrol to his besieged unit in the jungles of Viet Nam Feb. 4, although mortally wounded himself. The mine had torn off both his legs but the blond, 225-pound soldier stayed by his radio. "I was the only man who could operate it," he told doctors before he died. Laier tied rough tourniquets around the stumps of his legs and began calling his company headquarters to tell them of the ambush which killed three men of his unit and injured the remaining 11. Laier, given 60 blood transfusions, lived 15 days. The doctors did everything to save him. His father, a foreman at a meat packing plant in this northeast Indiana city of 162,000, said his son was "not one to complain." "You could not want a better boy than Steve," he said, "he was one in a million." Fellow soldiers agreed. He was presented a Bronze Star with "V" for valor. SCHOOL TROPHIES At Lakeside Junior High School, Laier won several trophies for archery. He also played football and had attended North Side High School before enlisting in the Army. Parttime jobs kept him busy after school and during the summer. He had worked as a stock boy in a discount department store and later behind the counter in a restaurant. He and his father owned a registered beagle pup, "Carmi." Steve had hoped to enter him in field trial competition. Laier's letters home inquired about the dog, his father said. Nurse Marguerite Giroux helped the spunky soldier write some of these notes from the hospital at Bien Hoa. "He was so brave that he didn't even want to tell his girl friend that he was so sick," the nurse recalled. "He said she should not have to worry about him."

LETTERS TO OTHERS Letters also were sent to a brother, Joseph L. Laier, in Edgerton, Ohio, two sisters, Karen and Kay, at home, and other friends. His family later received a tribute to the young radioman written by his commanding officer, Maj. Jonathan Seaman of the 1st Infantry Division. It read: "With men like Laier, our division, our Army, our country will always be great."

Infantryman Gives Life For Friends

LOS LUNAS, N.M. (AP) — A Purple Heart for wounds received in one tour of duty in Viet Nam was not enough for Spec. 4 Daniel Fernandez of Los Lunas. He had to go back. Then a heroic gesture cost him his life. Fernandez, 21, has been nominated for his country's highest decoration for bravery, the Medal of Honor, for giving his life to save his buddies. GIVES LIFE Danny Fernandez died Friday in a fierce battle with the Viet Cong about 25 miles west of Saigon. When a grenade was tossed into the midst of Danny's unit, he threw himself on it to shield others from the blast. "When he spotted the grenade, he lunged on top of it without hesitation. He hollered, 'move out, you people,' and then it went off," said Spec. 4 James McKeown, Willingboro, N.J. Danny's unit was from Company C, 1st Battalion, 2nd Brigade of the 24th Infantry Division. Friends said Danny was an unselfish person who always got along well with others. He had a consuming passion for horses. "He loved horses. He was a bronc buster," said his father, Jose I. Fernandez. "He participated in amateur rodeos to quite an extent," said Roqu Sanchez, a high school teacher. "He had no problems in making friends." "He was an outstanding athlete in cross country, track and football. He got along with all the boys," said Los Lunas athletic director Nick Madrid. ON RIO GRANDE Fernandez grew up in the pleasant little ranching and farming community of Los Lunas, a town of about 1,500 on the Rio Grande River 10 miles south of Albuquerque, and in Albuquerque. He has two brothers in school at home and a sister in college at Las Vegas. "Daniel was always volunteering," his father said. "He was in the school patrol, 4-H Club, the March of Dimes. He helped for hours. He was an unselfish, generous person." Lt. Joseph D'Orso, Ngrwalk, Conn., a member of Danny's platoon, echoed the father's words. "He was always volunteering," D'Orso said. "He was ready to do anything." Before being flown away in a medical evacuation helicopter, Fernandez asked Sgt. Ruben Perkins, Nashville, Tenn., "Who's going to take care of you now?" "We had been working together since he joined the unit," Perkins said. "He called me 'Sergeant Rock' and I called him 'Old Dan.' He was real young, but real grown up in his attitude."

Oklahoma Youth, 17, Stranded Atop Ledge

CACHE, Okla. (AP) — Darkness, freezing temperatures and light sleet hindered a rescue party early today seeking a boy stranded on a ledge high on Elk Mountain in the Wichita Mountain Wildlife Refuge in Southwest Oklahoma. Mrs. Julian Howard, who was in radio contact with her husband, the refuge manager, said the rescue party appeared to be close to the ledge where Ronnie Wathen, 17, of Lawton was stranded. Wathen and several companions had spent the day hiking in the refuge, about 15 miles north of here, and were starting out when Wathen found he was unable to descend from the ledge because of a steep drop-

South Viet Reshuffles Cabinet; Elections OK'd

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, striving for progress on the battlefield and on the political front, reshuffled his war Cabinet today and pledged national elections next year. The 35-year-old premier and air force commander brushed aside all talk of differences with the United States over the possibility of peace talks with the Communists. He declared his government and the United States were marching forward "with absolutely the identical purpose" to free South Viet Nam from Communist aggression, build a peaceful society and introduce social justice. In a shakeup growing out of his meetings with President Johnson two weeks ago and the pledge of more American aid at the Honolulu conference, Ky told a news conference: —Political action teams are being trained to revive political parties and a constitution will be ready by November. —Popular elections will be held next year. —A new high court had been established to deal swiftly and efficiently with black marketeers in South Viet Nam's inflationary economy. Ky, who still pilots his own helicopter to work each day, said he would not be a candidate for office in the elections. "I do not like politics," he said. The Cabinet changes include the appointment of a deputy minister of foreign affairs to assist in an increasingly big government department entrusted with the job of rounding up support for the Saigon regime. Most of the other changes will use men already in the government, although some will be added to take on a variety of new tasks. Ky said special commissions had been created to deal with the flood of refugees into government-held areas and the sometimes dissident but anti-Communist Montagnards, primitive tribesmen in the central highlands. Other commissions were established to run South Viet Nam's overcrowded ports and concentrate on supply bottlenecks. Of the war, Ky said the aim of his government and the United States was to apply unrelenting pressure on the Communists.

Library Data Turned Into News Special

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV - Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — "The Daughters of Orange," NBC's news special Sunday night, was an enterprising example of converting film library material, mostly routine, into a gossipy, romantic television feature. Aline Saarinen, NBC's house expert on art, architecture and royalty, narrated the recent history of Holland's royal house from assorted wintry positions in front of Dutch palaces, NATO headquarters and public parks which gave a degree of immediacy to her account. She told us of the great old queen, Wilhelmina, during the terrible days of World War II, and of the rigid upbringing of her daughter, Juliana, who ascended the throne in 1948. There was the retelling of the family and government crisis created by the queen's association with a woman mystic brought into the family circle in an effort to improve the sight of Juliana's youngest child. Then we were updated on two royal romances in the best "Prisoner of Zenda" tradition. All this was illustrated by the most pedestrian newsreel film for the most part. Some of the more interesting was 40 and 50 years old.

If you died tomorrow . . . . . . would you leave bills and burdens for your family? Let us tell you how you can still apply for the same kind of life insurance policy available when you were younger. Issued up to age 80, the policy can be carried the rest of your life, once application is approved. No one will call on you. And there is no obligation. ### Millionaire Kallison Dies At Age 70

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Morris Kallison, who amassed a fortune of $20 million but kept his office in a cubbyhole at a country store, died Sunday.

The 70-year-old Kallison, son of a Swedish harness-maker, built more than 30 buildings and acquired and remodeled 200 older buildings in the last 20 years.

His father, Nathan, moved here from Chicago in 1888 when Morris was only three, and opened a harness-making and saddle business.

Kallison started work at the age of 7 doing odd jobs, quit school in the ninth grade and worked 12 hours or more a day almost until his death in a hospital Sunday where he had gone with a cardiac condition.

Dear Abby

No-Pants Situation

DEAR ABBY: I felt so sorry for that poor man who couldn't keep his trousers on in the house because the heat bothered him. My son had the same problem. He is allergic to heat and high humidity. That man should see an allergist or the trousers worn in HIS house will be worn by his wife—to work, because her husband won't be able to wear anything on his lower extremities. And there are very few jobs to which a man can wear a sarong.

My son took his military in the National Guard. The six months in winter and fall were fine, but the two weeks in summer were intolerable. He couldn't keep his pants on. The Army doctor gave his C.O. a written statement saying he was not to assign my son to any duties that would make him perspire. Now he works in an air-conditioned office and goes home to an air-conditioned house.

HIS MOTHER: DEAR MOTHER: I would like to know what kind of duty a guy can draw in the service that would guarantee him no sweat.

DEAR ABBY: This friend of mine has been going around with a married man for the past two years, off and on. The only time it was really "off" was when his wife and her parents found out about it. Now that things have cooled off, she has started to see him again. My problem is that she tells her parents that she is with ME when she is really with HIM. I have asked her not to involve me in this because I do not approve of this sort of thing, but it doesn't do any good. Should I tell her parents or the man's wife?

JUNIPER: DEAR JUNIPER: Skip the parents and the wife, but DO tell your friend that you won't cover for her any more. So she'd better either straighten up and fly right or find herself another patsy.

DEAR ABBY: "NERVOUS AND AFRAID" letter brought back memories of those terrible days when I, too, was nervous and afraid. Nervous about every new situation, and afraid to face people. I had doubts about my sanity, but wouldn't admit that I needed psychiatric help because I thought I might bring "shame" on my family. Finally I had to be committed to a psychiatric hospital. It was only for a short time, but during my stay there every shameful act, every reason for guilt feelings that haunted me was brought out into the open and I was cleansed and reborn again. This I did with the help of a psychiatrist. Later I received help from my clergyman (a rabbi) and a social worker.

Let no one try to tell one who suffers from deep depressions that "it is all in her head." It is very real. There is nothing imaginary about a mental illness. Denying it only prolongs the agony and delays the cure which comes from psychiatric treatment. So tell "NERVOUS AND AFRAID" that she must get help. She owes it to herself, her husband and her children.

Sincerely,
"BEEN THERE"

Cong Supplies Slowed By Big Allied Attacks

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Big U.S. and Allied military operations are beginning to crimp the Viet Cong supply system for the first time. The most notable success came during Operation Van Buren, which threw nearly a division of American, Korean and Vietnamese troops into the Tuy Hoa rice bowl. Their job was to make certain the fertile coastal valley's 48,000 tons of rice wound up in government storehouses instead of Viet Cong caches.

In the past, large Viet Cong units moved into the 200-square-mile valley during the harvest and controlled more than half of it. Now, for the first time in several years, Phu Yen Province will export rice instead of importing it.

U.S. military officials said this year three regiments—two Viet Cong and one of North Vietnamese regulars—began converging on the valley 230 miles northeast of Saigon just before the harvest began a month ago.

SWEET VALLEY
The American 101st Airborne Brigade, the Korean marine brigade and two battalions of government troops swept the valley clear of the enemy. By the official count more than 300 Communist troops were killed.

"If any army marches on its stomach, old Charlie is in the hurt locker," a U.S. adviser in Phu Yen Province said. Charlie is an American nickname for the Viet Cong.

"The Viet Cong supply system is too good to strangle with what we have now, but taking that much rice away means real trouble for the Viet Cong highland units," said a U.S. source concerned with trying to block

Saturn IB Launch Near

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The 22-story Saturn IB rocket, the most powerful built by the United States, makes its launching debut Wednesday as Project Apollo's first step on the long trip to the moon.

The rocket is to drill an unmanned Apollo ship 300 miles into space and drive it back through the atmosphere at a speed up to 18,000 miles an hour.

The ballistic flight, which will last only 39 minutes, is the first of a long series of Apollo launchings which must precede the landing of American astronauts on the moon by 1970.

Recovery will be attempted when the cabin section, to hold future astronauts, drops by parachute into the South Atlantic 5,300 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy.

The launch is the first of three unmanned tests for the spacecraft and the rocket before three astronauts step inside the Apollo for an 8- to 14-day earth orbital journey late this year or early 1967.

supplies to the enemy. U.S. Marines near Da Nang and U.S. and government troops operating in Binh Tuy Province carried out smaller operations earlier that brought in nearly 10,000 tons of rice.

U.S. troops operating north of Saigon have run into hundreds of Viet Cong rice caches, big and small. Hundreds of tons of rice were destroyed or brought back and placed under government control.

Last year, the national police seized nearly 3,000 tons of rice at checkpoints set up to control the flow of goods from government to Viet Cong areas. They are doing even better this year.

Although Viet Nam has been fighting a civil war for years, there is no food rationing and no control over the sale of such key items as medicine and light machinery which can be used in Viet Cong arms factories.

STRATEGIC GOODS
The first tentative effort at resources control did not come until October 1964 when the national police were ordered to stop the flow of strategic goods into Viet Cong hands.

At the time there were only about 20,000 police in the country. They were still suffering from bad morale and lost reputation from the days of ex-President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Today the police are 54,000 strong and their ranks are expected to swell to 72,000 by the end of the year. A major share of the new men will be thrown into the resources control program. This type of program aided the British in crushing a Communist guerrilla uprising in Malaya.

The effectiveness of the police has increased in past months, and apparently the Viet Cong are worried. They have increased attacks on police posts and checkpoints, some on the outskirts of Saigon.

Union Leaders Bucking For Pay Hike, Firemen Return

Major objectives of putting firemen back on all locomotives and pushing for a 25 per cent pay hike were outlined here today to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

In a special meeting at 10 a.m. Monday at the BLF&E meeting room in the WOW Hall, Del C. Deering, brotherhood vice president, told local members and some visiting engineers that BFL&E was bucking efforts to extend a two-year arbitration period in which firemen were removed from most freight and yard operations.

The union is seeking restoration of jobs, back pay in some instances, plus a basic wage increase for all members, cost-of-living wage adjustments in others, night shift differential pay, supplemental pensions.

"We are determined to settle the issue through the bargaining process in order to protect the basic labor-management relationship in our nation," said Deering. He said efforts at getting jobs back was under terms of "a collectively bargained agreement."

A two-year arbitration ruling expires March 31, 1966. Deering said that 90 per cent of locomotive helpers (firemen) had been removed from freight and yard locomotives. Railroads, he said, cut off 17,500 jobs during the first 14 months of the period.

Deering claimed that at one time 30 per cent of displaced firemen were unemployed and said also that the 581 shown on Railroad Retirement Board records to be unemployed could be trebled if those who had exhausted benefits were added.

The BLF&E vice president also contended that only the railroad industry had benefitted from a saving of about $250 million due to eliminating the jobs.

He also contended that accident rates had climbed after firemen were removed, although he added that not all accidents involve the firemen question.

A panel of company, public and union representatives recently issued a report in which economic disruption was said to be relatively mild and the accident rate attributable to lack of firemen was practically nil. Union representatives disagreed sharply with the report. Deering told the BLF&E group here Monday that "compulsory arbitration" had caused many to have to take jobs at terminals away from homes and many others had to wait a full year or more for wage guarantees that were due them.

The BLF&E served notice on railroads Jan. 3, 1966 of their demands. Deering was accompanied here by Jack Cody, also from the national headquarters in Cleveland. Also Frank Balkanyi, Fort Worth, general chairman, Walter Schattel is acting chairman of the local chapter.

Puzzle of Saturday, Feb. 19, Solved

Burglaries Are Reported

Three burglaries and a theft netted local thieves little over the weekend, officers said. The Taco Hut, 906 E. 4th, was burglarized of about $75 in cash, some checks and two cases of beer Sunday, officers said. The burglars entered by breaking a window, carefully removing the glass to a nearby cement block wall, pilfering the store, then leaving through the rear door.

Two schools were entered. Entry was made to the College Heights School, 500 E. 19th, through an east side window. Burglars entered the soft-drink machine by taking the key to the machine from the principal's office and opening it. The key was returned to the office, officers said.

Boydston School, 610 E. 6th, was entered by forcing a window. The soft-drink machine was forced with screwdrivers, officers said. The amount of money taken was undetermined, police said this morning.

Louis Brown, 1508 Oriole, said the lower part of the bucket seats of his 1956 sports car were stolen while the car was parked in front of his home Sunday. The thieves also tried to take the plastic window from the right side of the auto, Brown said.

Cold Numbs U.S. Sectors

By The Associated Press
Thirteen states from Maine to Montana remained in the grip of a bitter Arctic cold wave today.

For International Falls, Minn., it was the seventh consecutive day the thermometer has not risen above zero. This morning's low was -31.

The subfreezing temperatures also pushed into the Deep South while snow spread through the Ozarks. Richmond, Va., shivered in a 17-degree reading.

Winds up to 50 miles an hour whipped snow squalls down the Mohawk Valley, cutting visibility to zero in some places and forcing the closing of a 150-mile section of the New York Thruway between Westport, west of Syracuse, and Albany.

In Philadelphia, tow trucks removed at least 60 cars abandoned on the Schuylkill Expressway because of the heavy snow.

The subfreezing temperatures also solidified ice jams and caused flooding along several Midwest rivers and tributaries. Heaviest flowing was along the Mississippi at Davenport, Iowa.

Banking Firms Plan Closings

LAMESA (SC)—Both Lamesa banks, the First National Bank and Lamesa National Bank, along with Lamesa Federal Savings and Loan Association, have voted to close all day Saturdays beginning March 5. The directors of all three organizations agreed to observe only six of the original holidays in the future. They are New Years Day, San Jacinto Day, July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day.

The banking directors decided on the action due to widespread adoption of the system by banking organizations throughout the South Plains, a spokesman for the group announced.

Eight Items On Agenda

Eight matters will be considered by the Traffic Commission at a 3:30 p.m. meeting Tuesday in City Hall.

Three requests for traffic signs will be made by the police department: a stop sign at Kennedy and Circle Drive; a four-way stop sign at Twelfth and Benton; and small signs stating "left turn on green arrow only" for traffic signals at Northwest Third, Northwest Fourth and Northwest Fifth on Gregg.

Other requests to be considered will be for a stop sign at Owens at Eighteenth; a stop sign on Nolan at Ninth; regulation of speed and placing of control signs on Wasson Road; and a study of pedestrian walk control at Big Spring High School.

Officers will report on their traffic investigations.

Cancer Claims Houston Judge

HOUSTON (AP)—Arnold H. Krichamer, judge of Harris County's 4th Criminal District Court since 1959, will be buried Tuesday.

Krichamer, a Houston native and former assistant district attorney, died at a hospital Sunday of cancer. He was 65.

Former Gov. Price Daniel appointed Krichamer to his first judgeship in June 1958 to complete the unexpired term of Judge A. C. Winborn of Harris County 3rd Criminal District Court, who had died in office.

In May 1959, Gov. Daniel named Krichamer judge of 4th Criminal District Court when it was created.

Since Krichamer's current term has nearly three years to run, Gov. John Connally will have to make an interim appointment.

Texas Girl Wins Event At Rodeo

KISSIMMEE, Fla. (AP)—Lavonne Arthur of Marshall, Tex., won the barrel race for cowgirls at the Silver Spurs Rodeo Sunday.

The rodeo wound up with a crowd of 12,000 watching Duwayne Martin of Springfield, Mo., win all-around honors.

Jefferson Gets Poverty Grants

BEAUMONT (AP)—The U. S. Office of Economic Opportunity has approved two poverty grants totaling $116,588 for Jefferson County.

The bulk of the money—$104,860—will go to Beaumont's South Park School District for an Operation Head Start Project involving preschool training for 208 underprivileged children.

Probe Of Oklahoma's Prison Setup Growing

McALISTER, Okla. (AP)—A grand jury investigation of the Oklahoma penitentiary showed signs today of spreading into the administration of the prison and the agencies which supervise its operation.

A close look at the prison's management seemed assured Sunday with the announcement that a subpoena had been issued to J. P. Bryan, a Stillwater auto dealer who was fired from the State Board of Affairs in 1963 after he delved into activities at the prison. The board supervises the prison.

The grand jury, called at an earlier request to look at allegations of gambling, profiteer-

Brown Wins Endorsement After Walkout

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown survived a walkout of angry delegates and won the California Democratic Council's endorsement, but his victory left scars of intraparty conflict.

Hard feelings, touched off by debate over the Viet Nam war, were evident Sunday as about 200 delegates left the hall when Brown asked the convention of the nation's largest volunteer political group to back his bid for a third term.

1,800 PROTESTERS
The protesters, a minority of the 1,860 present, were objecting to the Democratic governor's support of a successful move to force the resignation of council president Simon Casady, a critic of the Johnson administration's Viet Nam policy.

Most delegates remained, and their cheers of, "We want Brown" echoed through the convention hall.

Brown won their support, but got only 874 votes. Dr. Carlton Goodlett, a San Francisco Negro newspaper publisher who hasn't even declared his candidacy, received 289 votes. Officials said 630 delegates abstained.

The battle showed the unpredictability of the 14-year-old grass roots group, with a membership of more than 30,000.

REPLACES CASADY
After denying Casady a vote of confidence Saturday, members replaced him with a San Francisco attorney, Gerald Hill, 36, who favors negotiations in Viet Nam with the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front "under United Nations auspices."

The convention shouted approval of a policy statement favoring such talks.

Casady's foes didn't object to his antiwar stand, but denounced him for "making vituperative attacks on the people with whom he disagrees," including President Johnson.

Mrs. Hambrick Dies Sunday

COLORADO CITY — Mrs. Ira Hambrick, 68, Westbrook, died at 11:50 p.m. Sunday at Root Valley Fair Lodge here after a long illness.

Born in Mills County Nov. 26, 1897, Mrs. Hambrick had lived in Westbrook since 1913. She was a member of the Westbrook First Baptist Church.

She married Ira Hambrick in Rankin Jan. 5, 1928.

Services will be in Kiker and Son Chapel at 2 p.m. Tuesday, with Rev. L. B. Edwards, Westbrook Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Westbrook cemetery.

Newspapers will be pallbearers. Survivors include the husband, Westbrook; and five brothers, D. A. Oglesby, Westbrook, Albert Oglesby, Forsan, Roy Oglesby, Canyon, W. C. Oglesby, Corpus Christi, and G. E. Oglesby, Kermit.

Wounded Rabbi Worse

DETROIT (AP)—Doctors say the condition of Rabbi Morris Adler, shot by a member of his congregation during Sabbath services eight days ago, has worsened slightly and they "are not encouraged." The hospital today reported no change in the "critical" condition of the 39-year-old rabbi.

Rabbi Adler, shot in the arm and head by Richard Wisnietzky, 23, who then fatally shot himself, has undergone brain surgery twice.

Gravedigger Alive At 90

CHISAGO CITY, Minn. (AP)—Scores of townfolk turned out the other day for George Noreen's 90th birthday party, and the next morning he was in a cemetery.

Noreen, you see, is the town gravedigger, just as his father, Frank Noreen, was before him. His father lived to be 97.

"I've dug every grave in these cemeteries for the last 40 years, and managed to get out of every one of them alive," says George.

In summertime, he also tends a half-acre garden and eight lawns.

Seven Wrecks Investigated

Seven wrecks Saturday and Sunday injured no one, officers said.

Involved Saturday were the cars of Evaristo Lopez Trevino, 608 NW 4th, and the parked car of Bonita Harris, 17 Channing, at the north Webb Air Force Base gate; the cars of Robert Michael Kelly, 3228 Cornell, and Adolph J. Fox Jr., 307 Galveston, in the 1900 block of South Gregg; and the car of Carla Jean Pierce, 616 Bucknell, which was struck by an unknown car at Fifth and Gregg.

Sunday accidents involved the car of Rudy Gomez Flores, Webb AFB, which struck and demolished a mercury vapor light and pole on US 80 service road, half a mile east of Birdwell Lane; the cars of George Walter Keah, 309 W. 4th, and Bertie Wiley Arnold, Sterling City Route, at Kwikee Store No. 2, Wasson Road; the cars of Jim L. Abrea, 108 Lockhart, and William F. Crutcher, 4183 Connally, 50 feet south of Seventeenth on Gregg; and the parked car of Clarence B. Whitaker, Webb AFB, which was struck by an unknown car at 507 W. 5th.

Village Eyed For Sea Floor

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A scientist says an undersea living project housing 50 oil workers at depths of 1,000 feet could be built at once at a cost of about $6 million.

Leon Danforth, 29, a hydrodynamicist with Northrop Electronics, said Sunday his proposal is for a starfish-shaped seafloor village called "habitat."

Danforth made public a paper for an offshore exploration conference next week. He said he has drawn detailed plans for a three-level metal capsule which would house the village's instruments and equipment.

Extending from the capsule, he said, would be four arms containing living and working quarters for the men. Also running from the capsule would be tubes in which the men could walk to watertight domes over wellheads.

Danforth said well-drilling tools would be lowered through the domes from a vertically-floated vessel on the surface that would serve as a drilling platform.

He said the Navy's recent Sealab 2 experiment proved the feasibility of his plan, assuring that men could live and work at great depths.

British Leader Visits Moscow

MOSCOW (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson came to Moscow today for three days of talks with Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and other Soviet leaders. Viet Nam and disarmament are expected to top the agenda.

According to reports from London, Wilson tried to persuade the Soviet Union to use its influence for peace in Viet Nam. He also probably will try to break the deadlock over a treaty to halt nuclear proliferation.

Science, Math Institute Slated

AUSTIN (AP)—A summer institute to offer teachers up-to-date knowledge of science and math is set for June 8-Aug. 9 at the University of Texas. The program is supported by a $126,000 grant from the National Science Foundation.

School Stages 'Peace Drive'

FORT WORTH (AP)—The W. T. Francisco Elementary School in suburban Haltom City is staging its own "peace offensive" in Viet Nam.

Weapons include bubble gum, popcorn, food, clothing, toys and colored pencils.

These items, and many more, are being sent to a South Vietnamese orphanage near Saigon, prompted by a suggestion from an Air Force sergeant stationed there.

"I don't know of any school that has more interest in Viet Nam than ours," said Mrs. Aliene Mullendore, principal. She said fathers of nine of the children at the school are fighting in Viet Nam.

Universities Join In 'Honors' Plan

AUSTIN (AP)—The University of Texas will join 20 other colleges and universities in a three-year experimental international honors program beginning in September.

The program calls for each school to choose one liberal arts student to spend his junior year abroad.

Enrollment Up At Lamar College

BEAUMONT (AP)—Enrollment at Lamar State College of Technology for spring semester classes went past the 8,000 mark this spring.

Miss Celeste Kitchen, registrar, said 8,127 had registered. This is nearly 1,000 more than the number registered at the same time last year.

"But you did get a raise, Ferguson—count the odd change in your pay envelope again."

Texas Violence Toll Reaches At Least 25

By The Associated Press
At least 25 persons died violent deaths in Texas during the past weekend, including 15 killed in traffic accidents. Shootings and stabbings killed

7 and one man was burned to death, one youth drowned and one person took his own life. The Associated Press tabulation began at 6 p.m. Friday and continued through midnight Sunday.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ 4 2 ♠ 10 9 ♣ K J 10 9 3 ♣ 8 7 6
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1 ♠ 2 ♣
Pass Pass 1 ♠ 2 ♣

What do you bid now?
A.—Two hearts. A free bid of two diamonds would not be justified. Your hand is not worth two bids, counting to just nine points. A free raise of partner's suit is the best way to offer encouragement in the right direction.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ 4 ♣ 8 6 4 3 ♣ K 10 3 ♣ K J 8 2
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass
Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Three hearts. After the original pass some effort should be extended on this hand to reach for a game contract. The holding does not quite measure up in high card content to a jump raise, but it does have good distribution. Furthermore, this call may tend to barricade West out of the bidding if he has a delayed spade bid to make.

Q. 3—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ K Q J 9 6 4 ♠ A 10 8 2 ♠ K 7 4
The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
Pass 1 ♠ Pass 1 NT
Pass 2 ♠ Pass 3 ♠
Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. Further probing is fraught with great danger and is rather pointless since partner has indicated possession of a weak hand with a long club suit.

Q. 4—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ 9 4 ♠ K Q 8 3 ♠ Q J 9 8 7 5
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South
1 ♠ 3 ♠ ?
What do you bid?

A.—Five clubs. To bid just four clubs would be placing excessive pressure on partner, and there seems little point in showing the diamond suit. You might just as well gamble it out hoping that partner has his values in the right places.

Q. 5—As South vulnerable, you hold:
♠ J ♠ A K Q 10 9 ♠ 8 3 ♠ Q 8 6 5 3
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠
2 NT Pass 3 ♠ Pass
3 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Pass
6 ♠ Dble. ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Six no trump. East's double is conventional, calling for the lead of dummy's first bid suit, diamonds. This means he probably holds the ace, queen. If both the hearts and clubs run you may be able to win 12 tricks on the hand in no trump. The bid is a reasonable gamble to protect your partner's hand from the killing diamond opening.

Q. 6—As South vulnerable, you hold:
♠ A 8 ♠ J 5 ♠ Q J 7 6 ♠ A K 10 8 2
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
Pass Pass Pass 1 ♠
Pass 2 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. When partner makes a jump shift after originally passing, he is marked with a pretty good suit and this can be considered adequate support.

Q. 7—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ 6 ♠ A J 10 ♠ A K Q 9 6 5 ♠ A Q 8
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Three clubs. This hand seems good enough to insist on a game contract, when partner is able to keep the bidding open. If partner raises clubs, you can go back to diamonds and, if he persists in clubs, that should prove to be the best contract. In fact, if you should find him with five to the king-jack, you can make a slam.

Q. 8—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠ 6 3 ♠ 9 8 7 6 5 3 ♠ 10 8 4 ♠ A Q
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South
1 ♠ 2 ♠ ?
What do you bid?

A.—Pass. The temptation to double is strong, but you are a shade short of the required high card values. If the double is not left in, a distinct likelihood, you will be rather ill-equipped to carry on the contest.

Ernest William Heckler, 31, of Midland and Elmer Mashburn, 90, of Stanton were killed in a two-car collision 15 miles north of Big Spring Sunday. The wives of both men were critically injured.

Eulalio Acosta, 48, of Fort Stockton was shot to death at a drive-in restaurant on the outskirts of Fort Stockton Sunday night. Valentine Baiza of Fort Stockton was charged with murder.

RULED SUICIDE
Oscar Estes, 83, West Texas rancher from Mertzon, was found dead of hanging in a garage Sunday. Suicide was ruled.

Sam DeJohn, 59, Houston grocer, died Sunday after being wounded during an armed robbery at his market Friday night. The gunman fled without taking any money.

Donald Proctor, 8, son of Army Sgt. and Mrs. Earl J. Proctor of Laredo, drowned Sunday when he apparently fell into Falcon Lake near Zapata. The family had gone to the lake to fish and the boy fell into the water while throwing rocks from a bank.

Roy E. Morales of Monahans was killed Sunday night when his car overturned between Odessa and Monahans.

ANDREWS YOUTH
Curtis Warnick, 15, of Andrews, was killed early Sunday when the pickup truck he was driving turned over 13 miles north of Odessa on US 385. Young Warnick was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Warnick of Odessa.

An Alamo child was killed late Saturday when he ran under the wheels of a truck parked in front of his home. The vehicle ran over Guillermo Cano, 1½.

Mrs. Flora V. Barrett, 82, of Weatherford, was killed Sunday in a two-car wreck nine miles west of Weatherford on US 80. Mr. and Mrs. Norris Purcell of Coleman were injured.

John Cricchio, 19, and Joseph Robert O'Grady, 23, both of Port Arthur, were killed in separate three-car accidents at Port Arthur street intersections Saturday. Both were thrown from the automobiles in which they were riding.

Gilbert N. Shirey, 76, of Azle, was killed Saturday in a two-car crash near the Gilbert overpass in Azle in Tarrant County.

AUTO OVERTURNS
Mrs. Margaret Buttons, 43, of San Antonio, was killed Friday night when her automobile overturned in suburban San Antonio.

Pedro Guerrero, 19, of San Antonio, was shot to death at San Antonio Friday night. Officers said the victim and three companions were in a car which stopped another car. As the car sped away, Guerrero was shot in the back.

David Young, 25, of Fort Worth, was shot to death Saturday night near a home on Fort Worth's southeast side. Officers questioned a woman, but released her. No charges have been filed.

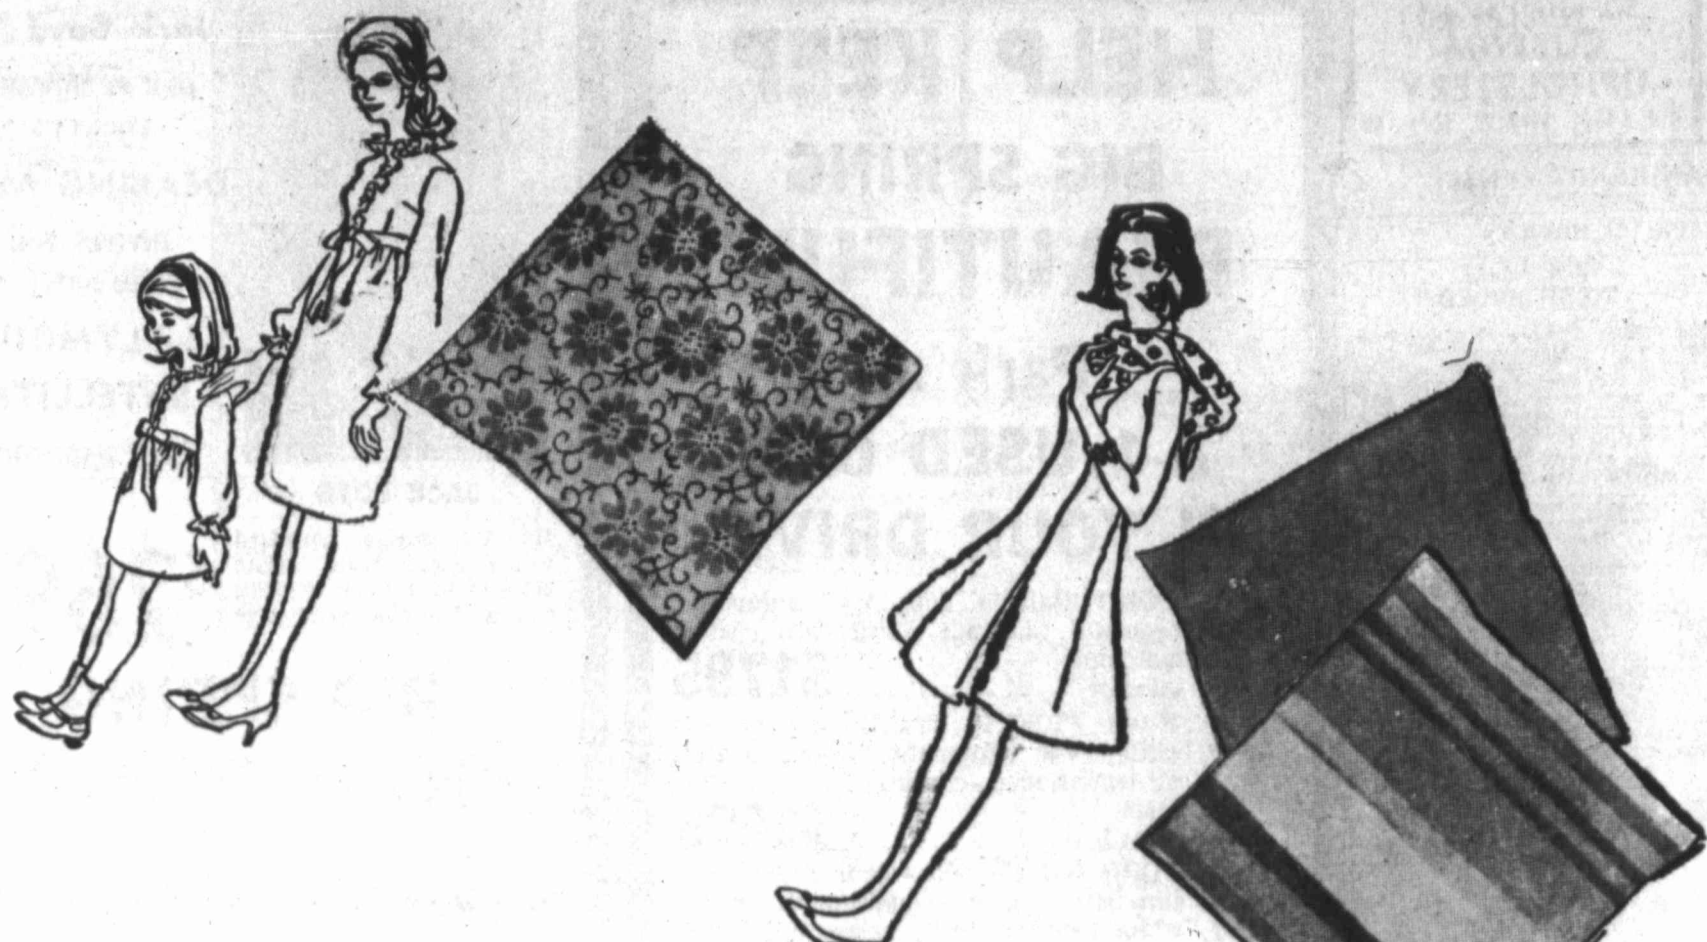

Lloyd Harrison, 23, an Odessa College student, was killed Saturday when an automobile in which he was riding overturned 20 miles southeast of San Angelo.

Thomas Roberts, 8, of Houston, was killed Saturday when a car struck the bicycle on which he was riding near his Houston home.

HOUSTONIAN SHOT
Mrs. Alberta Autery, 26, of Houston, was shot to death Saturday afternoon in her Houston apartment. Her husband, Joseph Autery, 26, was charged with murder Saturday night.

Edward Robinson of Dallas was killed Friday night when his gravel truck collided with a truck loaded with carbide near Decatur and Bridgeport.

Henry Lee Boyd, 23, of Monahans, was stabbed to death Friday night following an argument during a card game at Monahans.

Connally Seeks To Double Alamo City Museum Funds

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Gov. John Connally said Sunday he was considering extending the special legislative session's call to include appropriating money for an institute of living culture at San Antonio. The governor also predicted that the legislative session would settle the question of voter registration before this week is out. If it did, he said he would attempt to more than double the $4.5 million appropriation for the permanent museum proposed for San Antonio.

Gov. Connally asked Texas daily newspaper publishers to support his effort to double the appropriation.

"I can justify the spending of $10 or $12 million for a permanent exhibit. We should do it forthwith," he said. "I ask your help now," he added.

He said the bill appropriating $4.5 million for the museum contained restrictive language such that the funds could not be used for contracting or for administrative personnel.

The structure, as described by the governor, would have 300,000 square feet with one-half of this area devoted to museum type displays.

The museum grounds would cover 18 to 20 acres after the close of HemisFair, an exposition planned to mark the 250th anniversary of San Antonio in 1967.

Gov. Connally said he felt the

Superhighway To Cross Sahara If Plans Fulfilled

ALGIERS (AP) — The camel, which is expected to contribute to the over-all cost. A modern trans-Sahara communications link was long the dream of French colonial administrators. They actually built two rail lines several hundred miles into the desert. The farther advanced, however, the more formidable the difficulties became. The project finally was abandoned.

It is estimated that 25,000 trucks and passenger vehicles would use the road every year. The cost of freight movements from Algiers to the Niger would be cut by more than half and the time for the trip reduced by 80 per cent.

Trucks with special tires and survival equipment have been venturing across the Sahara for some time. The trip is hazardous and uneconomical for large-scale freight movement.

SANDBLOWN WASTELAND
An asphalt highway exists from Algiers to the oilfields around Hassi Messaoud, a distance of 500 miles. Beyond that, an ill-defined track winds for 1,500 miles across the virtually uninhabited, sandblown wasteland.

Drivers have to undergo special desert training, carry compasses, snake serum and heavy equipment to dig their vehicles out of the sand. Water and gasoline are available only at outposts hundreds of miles apart.

At many points, there is no track at all, but only a trace of parallel tire marks in the sand. In some sections, progress is less than 40 miles a day.

NOMADIC TRIBES
The new highway would make a substantial contribution to the development of the Sahara region and change the habits of nomadic tribes hitherto barely touched by civilization.

Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Mali, Mauritania, Chad, Niger and the United Arab Republic hope to raise $127 million to build the road and to supply about $4.25 million a year to maintain it.

Construction would take at least 12 years. Preliminary surveys are being made by the United Nations Special Fund, proposed project merited the support of the newspapers. Gov. Connally spoke at the 45th annual three-day meeting of the Texas Daily Newspaper Association which opened Sunday.
